Ladies and gentleman, Noah did NOT bring dinosaurs aboard the ark. In fact, dinosaurs never lived with mankind at all. If dinosaurs had lived in the Bible, we would have heard about it. There are [2]major scientific and theological problems with a Young Earth Creation (YEC) view. There [3]simply isn’t any legitimate evidence of a young earth. At best, all YEC advocates can do is grasp for straws by speculating with unprovable theories, wrest (torture) the Scriptures, and deceive simple minds with their rhetoric. [4]BEWARE OF THE ’YOUNG EARTH CREATION’ HERESY!!!

Dr. Arthur C. Custance (1920-1985) authored a very insightful book proving an Old Earth Creation with the Word of God. The book is titled: “ [5]WITHOUT FORM AND VOID .

” Dr. Max D. Younce has also authored a very helpful book titled: “ [6]THE TRUTH TRUTH ABOUT EVOLUTION; OR, DON’T LET SATAN MAKE A MONKEY OUT OF YOU .

” Pastor Younce goes into detail refuting a Young Earth Creation view. I would also encourage you to listen to Pastor Curtis Hutson’s (1934-1995) excellent Wednesday night series taught in 1974 titled: “ [7]DEMONOLOGY .

” Dr. Hutson goes into detail about the origin of demons, and an Old Earth Creation, from the King James Bible.

The [8]Young Earth Creation Museum is adhering to bad science! I couldn’t believe that they have a big Triceratops dinosaur at the entrance of their museum. It’s just another dog and pony sideshow attraction, intended to draw more students and money. The [9]earth is indeed millions if not billions of years old, as science proves. The human race did not evolve and is 6,000 years old, but the Bible teaches an old earth. Psalms 102:25, “ Of old hast thou laid the foundation of the earth: and the heavens are the work of thy hands.

2.2.6 Misunderstood Repentance—An Enemy Of Soul Winning (2021-02-05 00:28)

2nd Timothy 2:25-26, "In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth; And that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will."

The following Biblically sound and helpful information is from Chapter 4 of Pastor Jack Hyles' book, "[1]Enemies of Soul-Winning":

> Over and over again the question is asked me, "Is repentance necessary for salvation?" Of course, this is of utmost importance. Anything that deals with the way a person can escape the fires of eternal Hell and go to Heaven to live forever is of vital importance. In this chapter, we will address this most important question.

1. First, we need to find what makes one lost.

Please notice John 3:18, "He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God." It is very plain in this verse what makes a person lost. Notice the words, "he that believeth not is condemned already." A person who does not believe is condemned, so not believing is what makes a person lost.

Bear in mind, the word "believing" is the Greek word which means "to rely upon." When one believes on Christ, he simply relies on Him to save him and take him to Heaven when he dies. It is very plain here that what condemns a person is believing not. Then notice it says, "because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God." Once again, we are told what makes a person lost - because he has not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God. It is as simple as that.

Now look at John 3:36, "He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him." Again, we are trying to decide and determine what makes one lost. It is very plain here. Notice the word believeth, "and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God abideth on him." What keeps a person from seeing life? Believing not! What makes the wrath of God abide on a person? Believing not! So, from what must a person repent in order to be saved? He must repent of that which makes him lost. Since "believing not" makes him lost, "believing" makes him saved. In repentance there is a turning from the thing that keeps him from being saved to the thing that saves him. So, yes, there is a repentance from unbelief in order to believe. It is simply a change of direction. It means a turning around. You are going away from believing, and you decide to turn around and believe. You change your direction; you change your mind. With your will you believe and rely upon Christ to save you. In order to believe, you have to repent of unbelief. That which makes a man lost must be corrected.

Now turn to John 5:40, "And ye will not come to me, that ye might have life." Oh, how simple this is, and yet how plain! Why does a person not have life, according to this verse? Because he will not come to Christ. So, if a person is going away from Christ, he must turn around and come to Christ, which is a change of direction or a change of mind. This is repentance - repenting of the thing that keeps one from being saved, repenting from "going away" to "coming to."

Notice Isaiah 53:6, "All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the LORD hath laid on him the iniquity of us all." Especially notice the words, "we have turned every one to his own way." That's what not being saved is - turning to our own way. Now if we turn to God's way, which is putting our faith and trust in Jesus, we turn around from going our own way to going His way, from unbelief to belief. This is Bible repentance. Bear in mind, it is the faith that saves. The turning around is necessary in order to put our faith in Christ. One must repent from that thing that keeps him from being saved in order to be saved.

If a person were saved by good works, then he would have to repent of bad works, or of not doing good works, in order to be saved. If a person were saved by quitting his sinning, then he would have to repent of his sinning in order to be saved. A person is saved by believing, so he repents of his unbelief or turns from his unbelief in order to be saved.

Let us look at the verses that teach us we are saved by belief.

John 3:15, "That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life."

John 3:16, "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life."

John 3.18, "He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God."

John 3:36, "He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him."

Acts 16:31, "And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house."

There are those who say we have to repent of our sins in order to be saved. No, we have to repent only of the thing that makes us unsaved, and that is unbelief. If a person needs to turn from his sins in order to be saved, what sins does he turn from? Does he turn from pride? Does he turn from selfishness? Does he turn from covetousness? The truth is, nobody can turn from all of his sins until he is raptured and he receives a body like the body of the Saviour. I John 3:2, "Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is." According to Psalm 19:12, we do not even know all of our sins. David said, "Cleanse thou me from secret faults." What he is talking about here is being cleansed from faults he doesn't even know he has. A person, when he is first saved, does not know all the things that he is doing that are wrong, and if a person has to repent of all of his sins, where is growth in grace? Where is being a babe in Christ? Where does the carnal Christian fit in here?

Now don't misunderstand me. I am certainly for separation and for living a godly life, but the cleansing of our lives is not done by us any more than salvation is done by us. Salvation is simply repenting of unbelief, and believing, and letting Christ save us. We yield to Him to save us; He does! Immediately the Holy Spirit comes in to live. The Holy Spirit begins His work of cleansing in our lives. He is the one Who cleanses, just as he is the one Who saves. He is the one Who points our sins out to us after we are saved just as He is the one Who saves us when we are saved.

This chapter is being dictated in San Antonio, Texas. I am sitting in a Holiday Inn. Tomorrow morning early I will catch a plane for Chicago. Let's suppose I get on that plane, and I am trusting the pilot to take me to Chicago. I do not know how to operate the plane, nor do I know the route to Chicago by air. There is nothing I can do to get myself to Chicago by that plane. I trust the pilot to get me there. So, we get up in the air thousands of feet high, and let's suppose I get a knife and cut up the seat in front of me. Now, where am I going? I'm still going to Chicago. Why? I repented of "not trusting the plane to take me" to "trusting the plane to take me."

The stewardess comes and says, "Mr. Hyles, what are you doing back here?" I say, "I'm just cutting up a little bit!"

Then suppose I reach up and cut off a lock of her hair. Now where am I going? I'm going to Chicago. You see, how I behave on the flight does not determine my destination.

So, the stewardess goes to the pilot and says, "Mr. Hyles, back in seat 14A is causing some disturbance. Look at my hair. Go back and look at the seat." The pilot leaves the plane in the hands of the co-pilot and comes back to seat 14A and says, "Mr. Hyles, what are you doing back here?" He looks at the seat I've cut up, he sees the lock of hair that I've cut off the stewardess, and I reach out and cut off his tie. Now where am I going? I'm going to Chicago. That was all determined when I got on the airplane. Now the truth is, I will not enjoy Chicago as much as I would have enjoyed it, nor will I go to the part of Chicago I'd planned to, but I'm still going to Chicago.

When we put our faith and trust in Christ, and repent of unbelief, and believe, God's Holy Spirit comes in to live and begins to straighten us out. He points out our sins, and as we yield to Him, He cleanses us from our sins. If we misbehave on the journey, we are still going to Heaven, because we go to Heaven by trusting Christ to take us there. The Holy Spirit Who came in to live begins to point out things that we should and should not do. If we do not obey Him, if we misbehave on the journey, we will still go to Heaven; we simply will not enjoy it as much as we would have had we behaved, just as I would not enjoy Chicago as much as I would have had I behaved.

I know a young man who recently got married. He got an apartment several months before he got married and lived there alone until the wedding took place. What a mess that apartment was! His pants were hung on the bedpost, his shoes were left on the floor beside the bed, and the bed was never made. Then one day he got married. Now how did he get married? He got married by turning from being single to being married. He repented of not being married and got married. When he took his new bride to the apartment, she was aghast, but immediately she began to straighten things up. She put his shoes in the closet, took his shirt off the chair, removed his clothes off the bedpost, and made a lovely little apartment out of the mess that he had made. Now he was not married because he cleaned up his apartment; he was married because he repented of that thing that kept him from being married. He repeated the vows and accepted her as his wife. It was then that she came in; it was then that his apartment began to get clean!

Practically every false doctrine comes from getting things out of order. God's divine order is salvation, then change; not change and then salvation! If one has to be changed to be saved, that's salvation by works. It is also salvation by the flesh. The truth is, one is cleansed from the sins of the flesh just as he is saved; by yielding to the Holy Spirit and letting Him do His work.

2. You can repent of something other than sin.

Matthew 7:3, "Then Judas, which had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented himself, and brought again the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders." Notice that Judas repented. Now what does it mean? It means he repented about keeping the money. He had sold our Saviour for thirty pieces of silver; he changed his mind and took the silver back. A change of mind and change of direction took place, but it had nothing to do with salvation. He had made a bad deal; he regretted he had made that bad deal, and he tried to correct it.

Everybody who lives in sin eventually repents, but they do not repent of unbelief. They change their mind about sin. No one lives in sin without realizing later that it did not bring the joy, happiness, peace and contentment that it claimed to bring. I talk to people every week who are tired of their sins, unhappy in their sinful life or living a miserable, wretched life because of the results of sin. What have they done? They have changed their mind about sin, and in some cases, they even quit their sin - at least that sin which was most predominant in their lives. You can repent of sin without repenting of unbelief. Such was the case with Judas. No doubt he repented that he had done wrong. He certainly repented of the bad deal he had made. He turned around, changed his mind and brought the money back, but he did not repent of that thing from which he must repent in order to be saved, and that is unbelief.

3. God repents.

Notice Genesis 6:6, "And it repented the LORD that he had made man on the earth, and it grieved him at his heart." Bear in mind, the word "repent" means "change of mind." God made man and wished He hadn't. He was grieved because of what man had done, and He repented that He had made man. This does not mean that God repented from sin, because God could not sin; He simply changed His mind, which He does often. Basically, that is what answered prayer is much of the time.

Now notice I Samuel 15:35, "And Samuel came no more to see Saul until the day of his death: nevertheless Samuel mourned for Saul: and the Lord repented that he had made Saul king over Israel." God had made Saul king over Israel. The truth is that God did not want to do so, but Israel clamored for a king. Saul was chosen to be that king, but it then did not turn out as it should have. So, in this verse it simply says that God repented that He had made Saul king. He changed His mind.

What I'm saying is, there is repentance other than repentance from sin. A lady can change her mind about the kind of perfume she wears. A man can change his mind about the kind of food he eats or the kind of clothes he wears. He can change his direction concerning his manners. You can repent from discourtesy to courtesy. You can repent from stubbornness to leniency. You can repent from impatience to patience, but those things don't save. Repenting from the thing that makes you lost is the thing that makes you saved, and that is, repenting of your unbelief.

Now notice Exodus 32:9-14, "And the LORD said unto Moses, I have seen this people, and, behold, it is a stiffnecked people: Now therefore let me alone, that my wrath may wax hot against them, and that I may consume them: and I will make of thee a great nation. And Moses besought the LORD his God, and said, LORD, why doth thy wrath wax hot against thy people, which thou hast brought forth out of the land of Egypt with great power, and with a mighty hand? Wherefore should the Egyptians speak, and say, For mischief did he bring them out, to slay them in the mountains, and to consume them from the face of the earth? Turn from thy fierce wrath, and repent of this evil against thy people. Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, thy servants, to whom thou swarest by thine own self, and saidst unto them, I will multiply your seed as the stars of heaven, and all this land that I have spoken of will I give unto your seed, and thy shall inherit it for ever. And the LORD repented of the evil which he thought to do unto his people."

Let me paraphrase the story. God said to Moses, "I'm sick and tired of the people and their rebellion. Get out of the way so I can consume them." Moses came to God and said, "Lord, don't do that. You're the One Who brought the people out of the land of Egypt, and if You consume them, the heathen people are going to criticize You. Not only that! You promised Abraham, Isaac and Jacob that you would multiply their seed and that You would give them the land of Canaan for an everlasting possession." Moses pleaded his case before God, reminding God what God had promised. Then verse 14 simply says, "The LORD repented of the evil which he thought to do unto his people." The word "evil" here means something that would cause them pain; it's not talking about sin. God decided not to hurt them after all. He decided not to consume them after all. He changed His mind, but He did not change His mind concerning a sin, because God cannot sin.

Now turn to Jonah 3:9, 10, "Who can tell if God will turn and repent, and turn away from his fierce anger, that we perish not? And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not."

God was going to punish Nineveh. Jonah had preached in Nineveh and had warned the people that destruction was coming. The people believed God, turned from their unbelief to belief, and God changed His mind about punishing the people. In verse 10 the Bible says, "And God repented of the evil that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not."

Again, God simply changed His mind and changed His direction. He was going to punish; they believed; He decided not to punish. He changed from the direction of punishing to the direction of not punishing. This is repentance, but not repentance from sin, because God cannot sin.

Look at Amos 7:3, "The Lord repented for this: It shall not be, saith the Lord."

Amos 7:6, "The Lord repented for this: This also shall not be, saith the Lord God."

So, repentance does not always deal with salvation and sin; it is simply a change of direction or a change of mind.

4. Now we consider repentance and salvation.

Look at Acts 3:19, "Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord."

Peter is preaching here. He tells the people to repent and be converted. Now we have to go back to what saves. John 3:14-16, 18, 36, "And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up: That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life. For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. He that believeth on him is not condemned; but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God. He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him." Acts 16:31, "And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house."

So these people had to repent from not believing and believe in order that they might be converted. They had to change directions, change their minds.

Let me say again that I do not believe for a second that Christian people should live like the Devil. No preacher preaches separation more than I do. I simply believe that that separation is a work of the Holy Spirit just like regeneration is a work of the Holy Spirit, and it starts after one has repented from that which makes him lost, and that is unbelief. When this is done, he believes, he is saved. Then the Holy Spirit comes in and begins to tell the Christian what sins from which he should repent. The man changed his mind about unbelief. The Holy Spirit directed him there. Now the Holy Spirit comes in to live and begins to change his mind about other things.

Now look at Acts 2:38, "Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost."

Peter is saying, "Change your mind and be baptized." Now, about what did they change their minds? This is answered in verse 41. Look at what they did in response. They gladly received His Word, and then they were baptized. So what was this repentance? It was repentance from not receiving His Word to receiving His Word. That's all Peter was saying. He was saying, "Change your mind about receiving the Word," which states that you must believe and repent from unbelief in order to be saved.

Now turn to Acts 17:30, "And the times of this ignorance God winked at; but now commandeth all men every where to repent." Notice God commandeth all men every where to repent. Repent from what? Repent from the thing that keeps them lost, and that's unbelief. What corrects this? Look at Acts 17:34, "Howbeit certain men clave unto him, and believed: among the which was Dionysius the Areopagite, and a woman named Dammaris, and others with them." Notice it said, "certain men believed." So, when he said, "repent," he was saying "repent from unbelief and believe," because just as in Acts 2:38 and 41 a command was given to repent, and the believing was the obedience to that command. They changed their mind about belief. They decided to believe instead of not believe.

Now look at Mark l:15, "And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel."

Jesus Himself is saying repent, and notice immediately He says, "repent, and believe." What He was saying is, "Quit unbelieving, and believe. Quit not believing, and believe." Again, I'm not saying a Christian should live like the Devil, but I am saying that changing your life does not save you. That's salvation by works. Faith is what saves you. You turn from unbelief to belief; from no faith to faith, and then repentance from sins begins, because He Who convicted you from the sin of unbelief to believing now lives in you. How easy it is now for Him to convict you day by day of other things from which you can repent and about which you can change your mind.

5. Repentance from sin is directed to God's people.

Revelation 2:5, "Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do the first works; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will remove thy candlestick out of his place, except thou repent."

Here is a case of a church that was a good church. It was a church that worked. It worked hard. It hated sin. It was doctrinally sound. Revelation 2:2, "I know thy works, and thy labour, and thy patience, and how thou canst not bear them which are evil: and thou hast tried them which say they are apostles, and are not, and hast found them liars." It was a patient church. It was a church that believed in the name of Jesus and did not faint in their standing for that. Revelation 2:3, "And hast borne, and hast patience, and for my name's sake hast laboured, and hast not fainted." However, it was a church that had left its first love. It does not say that that church lost its first love, but they left their first love. When you lose something, you don't know where it is. When you leave something, you know where to find it. It does not say that this church did not love any more. The truth is they did love. Love is what made them faithful, what made them work, what made them have patience, what made them hate sin, what made them stand for the name of Jesus, what made them hate false doctrine. This was a church of people who loved God, but they had left their first love - that first sweet love - maybe more shallow than the love they had then.

It does not say that they loved Him less. The truth is they probably loved Him more, but God is saying, "I want both. I want the deep, mature love that you have now and the sweet expressive love that you used to have.

The only sin this church had committed was the sin of leaving their first love -that "Amen!" love, that "Hallelujah!" love, that "Glory to God!" love, that sweet, expressive love. Nevertheless, they sinned, and God told them to repent. Repent from what? Repent from drinking? No. Repent from adultery? No. This is not the subject here. It's repenting from not loving Christ with the first love.

This same type repentance was commanded to the church in Pergamos. Revelation 2:16, "Repent; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will fight against them with the sword of my mouth." The same thing was said to the church at Thyatira in Revelation 2:21, 22, "And I gave her space to repent of her fornication; and she repented not. Behold, I will cast her into a bed, and them that commit adultery with her into great tribulation, except they repent of their deeds." The church in Sardis was told likewise to repent in Revelation 3:3, "Remember therefore how thou hast received and heard, and hold fast, and repent. If therefore thou shalt not watch, I will come on thee as a thief, and thou shalt not know what hour I will come upon thee." The church at Laodicea received the same command in Revelation 3:19, "As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent."

So you can see that God tells individuals to repent; He also tells groups to repent. He tells nations to repent. Time and time again He called Israel to repentance.

Now let us review, as follows:

1. God says to the unsaved, "Repent of your unbelief."

It's very interesting that in I John the word "repentance" is never mentioned, and yet the purpose of I John was to give people the assurance of salvation. I John

5:13, "These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God." Of course, repentance is certainly implied throughout the entire book, because the book tells us that what saves is believing on Christ (or relying on Him) to save, which, of course, implies that that person must repent of what makes him lost, which is unbelief.

2. God says to the saved people, "Repent of sin."

This is done by the Holy Spirit as He comes in to live to remind us to take the clothes off the bedpost, the shirt off the chair, put the shoes into the closet, etc.

3. If a person must repent of his sins to be saved, of what sins must he repent?

Can he repent of all of them? Isn't that sinless perfection or holiness? Isn't that salvation by works? Of what sin must one repent? He must repent of the sin that makes him lost, and that's the sin of unbelief.

4. If turning from sins would get you saved, then turning back to sins would get you lost.

In Acts 16:30 the very simple question is asked, "What must I do to be saved?" This is the one time in the Bible where this question is asked. Now the answer to this question must be what saves a person. Acts 16:31, "And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house." There's the answer-belief. There is nothing about repentance here, except, yes, there is something about repentance, because you can't believe without repenting from unbelief.

5. If a person has to clean up his own life before he gets saved, we are back to Arminianism or salvation by works.

6. We cannot do what the Holy Spirit can do.

The Holy Spirit first convicts us of our sin of unbelief to bring us to Christ. Once He brings us to Christ, He comes in us to live. Romans 8:9, "But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his." I Corinthians 6:19, 20, "What? know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own? For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's."

Then when the Holy Spirit is in us, He begins to convict us of things in our lives that should be changed. Then the Christian life becomes a constant repenting until we wake in the likeness of Christ.

2.2.7 Dr. David Jeremiah's Difficult Assurance Of Salvation (2021-02-06 09:30)

Ephesians 1:12-14, "That we should be to the praise of his glory, who first trusted in Christ. In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise, Which is the earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory." 1st John 3:24, "And he that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us."

Pastor David Jeremiah is way off in some of his Bible theology. In 2nd Corinthians 11:3-4 we are warned by the Apostle Paul about complicating **"

the simplicity that is in Christ.

" My Christian friend Curtis Smale made these helpful true observations:

> Dr. David Jeremiah's False Bases for Assurance of Salvation
> I just listened to a sermon by Dr. David Jeremiah. The problem with so many of these preachers is that they preach the biblical truth that if you believe in Jesus you're saved forever—and then they take it back in the next sentence by telling you that if you don't do these things and don't stop doing these other things, then you probably aren't saved.
>
> My Criticisms of David Jeremiah's teachings about salvation:
> - There are no "Birthmarks of salvation."
> - Confession of faith is not necessary for salvation or proof of it. (False confessors; some Jews in the time of Jesus believed in Him, but would not confess their faith in Him because they did not want to be rejected by other Jews and thrown out of the synagogue.)
> - Practicing righteousness is not a condition of salvation or proof of it. (There are civic-righteous Mormons, Jehovah's Witnesses, Roman Catholics, Jews.)
> - Love is not a condition of salvation or proof of it. (Loving Atheists, Buddhists, Hindus, secular people)
> - Conflict with evil is not a condition of salvation or proof of it. (Human-level Righteous non-believers)
> - Winning over sin is not a condition of salvation or proof of it. (Unbelievers in AA)
> - Repenting/stopping sin is not a condition of salvation or proof of it. (the sinning believers in the Corinthian church)
> - Good works are not a condition of salvation or proof of it.
> - We don't ask God to forgive us for sins because He has forgiven us of all sins. (Colossians)
> Jeremiah does not understand the new nature perfection.
>
> Conscience is not a condition of salvation or proof of it.
>
> The biblical truth is, if anyone ever believed in Jesus, they are saved forever and indwelled by the Holy Spirit, forgiven and destined for Heaven. They know whether they believe or not.
> —[1]Curtis Smale

As our text passages of Scripture teach, the evidence that a person is a child of God is the indwelling Holy Spirit, which only an individual can determine. That is what the Epistle of 1st John is all about. 1st John 5:13, “

These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God.

” Many Bible students misunderstand the Epistle of 1st John, thinking that we should examine our life and works to see if we are saved. But the Bible never says that. What saith the Scripture?

1st John 3:24, “

And he that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us.

” God authored 1st John so that you, as an individual believer, can determine if you have the Holy Spirit.

And how do we get the Holy Spirit? Galatians 3:1-2, “O foolish Galatians, who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you? This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?” Notice that capital “S,” meaning the Holy Spirit of God. You get saved and indwelt by the Holy Spirit by simply putting your faith (reliance) in the Good News (Gospel) of Jesus Christ when you hear it preached. Paul calls this **“

We see this beautifully evidenced in Acts chapter 10. The Apostle Peter preached the Good News of Jesus crucified on the cross, buried and risen the third day, and when Cornelius simply believed what he heard, he was immediately saved and indwelt with God’s Holy Spirit (Acts 10:38-43). Kindly said, Pastor Jeremiah complicates the simplicity of the Gospel.

Ephesians 2:8-9, “

For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast.”

Once you receive a “gift” from someone, the concept of it being freely yours without any obligations whatsoever is something that even a small child can understand.

With that fact in mind, it is truly sad and tragic that preachers, of all people, should be the very ones to complicate God’s free gift of grace through faith alone.

2.2.8 John The Baptist Didn't Preach A Different Gospel (2021-02-07 09:30)

Matthew 3:1, "

In those days came John the Baptist, preaching in the wilderness of Judaea,

And saying, Repent ye: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

For this is he that was spoken of by the prophet Esaias, saying, The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

And the same John had his raiment of camel's hair, and a leathern girdle about his loins; and his meat was locusts and wild honey.

Then went out to him Jerusalem, and all Judaea, and all the region round about Jordan,

And were baptized of him in Jordan, confessing their sins.

But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees come to his baptism, he said unto them, O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

Bring forth therefore fruits meet for repentance*:

And think not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham.

" Mark 1:4,

John did baptize in the wilderness, and preach the baptism of repentance for the remission of sins.

Many Bible students misinterpret this passage of Scripture, particularly dispensationalists. Evangelist John R. Rice (1895-1980) offers this helpful explanation:

> There are those hyper-dispensationalists who think that John the Baptist preached a different Gospel from Christ when he commanded repentance (Matt. 3:2). But it is the same repentance Jesus commanded in Matthew 4:17, in Luke 13:3 and 5, and the same repentance that Paul preached in Athens that God "now commandeth all men every where to repent" (Acts 17:30 31). Repentance is not a different plan of salvation from having faith: it is part of the same plan of salvation. Or rather repentance is simply another way of describing or looking at the plan of salvation. One who turns from sin to God has done so by trusting in Jesus Christ. A change of mind toward sin is necessarily involved in saving faith.
> Everyone who genuinely repented under the preaching of John the Baptist put his trust in the Saviour John the Baptist preached, and was regenerated. There is no such thing as being "a disciple of John the Baptist" in any honest sense without being a disciple of Jesus, that is, without trusting Christ for salvation.
> There are those who think that Peter in Acts 2:38 and 39 preached that baptism was essential to salvation when he said, "Repent and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost." But the phrase "for the remission of sins" could well be translated "referring to the remission of sins" for the indefinite preposition of reference and so used many, many times in the Bible. People are not baptized in order to be saved, but baptized with reference to the salvation they had when they repented. So it has always been among Bible-believing Christians who follow the Scriptures.
> So here in Acts 10:43 we have the statement by Peter, "To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins." Get this great doctrinal matter settled: God has only one plan of salvation and that is all He ever had! He has only one Saviour, and that is Jesus Christ. Every Old and New Testament prophet agrees in this that "whosoever believeth in him shall have remission of sins." [emphasis added]

I don't like the phrase "

turn from sin,

simply because it is nowhere found in the Bible. Although Brother Rice uses the phrase here, he also CLEARLY explains that he does not think it means to forsake one's sinful behavior as a requirement to be saved. Dr. Rice is correct that repentance is a change of mind.

God was so careful with the use of this word, that he intentionally chose to use the open-ended, all-inclusive, Greek word: [1]metanoia. When any preacher says that

[2]to turn away from your sinful ways,

" he has errantly added to God's Words, which is a horrible evil (Proverbs 30:5-6). That man is preaching ANOTHER GOSPEL (Galatians 1:6-9).

I am shocked that so many professed Christians today (independent fundamental Baptists in particular) are extremely lackadaisical and indifferent in this important doctrinal matter. [3]I agree 100 % with Pastor Ralph 'Yankee' Arnold in this sermon, who exposes the sinful indifferent attitudes among professed Christians today, over the counterfeit gospel of Lordship Salvation. Right doctrine matters! All the Devil needs in order to creep his lies into a church, is for that church to stop contending for the faith (Jude 1:3). Revelation 3:2, "

Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God. " At some apostate point in American history, our churches started prioritizing socializing and growing their attendance, over truth and righteousness!

John the Baptist preached the SAME Gospel as did Jesus and Paul. Repentance is not a different plan of salvation from having faith—it is part of the same plan of salvation. Or rather repentance is simply another way of describing or looking at the plan of salvation.

John 16:33, “

These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.

” 1st Peter 1:3-9,

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,

To an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you,

Who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.

Wherein ye greatly rejoice, though now for a season, if need be, ye are in heaviness through manifold temptations:

That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth*, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ:

Whom having not seen, ye love; in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory*:

Receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls.

What beautiful Scripture passages. It is February 8th, 2021 today. I went walking yesterday to soak up some sun on the island of Guam. It still amazes me how warm this place is all year round. Last week the island hit a record low temperature for the past 71 years, dipping down to a frigid 69 degrees! That is incredible. I have lived on Guam since 2004. It is a relatively safe place to live, but burglaries have been increasing lately. I often give money to people who beg, because times are tough and I don’t want them to turn desperate. I love giving to others. I always give $20 hidden inside a [1]personal Gospel tract that I made.

Anyway, when I finished my walk, my battery was dead on my Honda 2007 FIT. I saw that the positive battery cable was so loose I lifted it off. The people of Guam are amazingly friendly. An island man merely heard my starter solenoid clicking and was already coming over to help me before I even asked. Wow! His wife gave him a hairpin to jam the connector on the post and gave me a jump start, which worked and I drove home. But this morning my battery was dead again, so my neighbour gave me a jump start. I drove my vehicle to the dealership and left it. They said they won’t be able to work on it until tomorrow. So they gave me a shuttle ride home.

When I left for the dealership I grabbed a book from my collection to read. I laughed as I sat waiting for the shuttle to take me home at the dealership, when I realized the fitting title of the book I brought... “Broken Things,” by Pastor M.R. DeHaan. That is funny! I cannot tell you how beautiful this book is dear friend. Martin DeHaan (1891-1965) was a professional medical doctor who got saved and became one of the greatest soulwinning preachers of the twentieth century. I want to quote something beautiful from his book here...

> WE SHOULD BE HAPPY
> Yes, indeed, when Christians stop to think what they are by grace and what lies ahead, they should be inexpressibly happy. But sad to say, this is not always true. Too often, like David, we must cry out, “Why are thou cast down, O my soul? And why art thou disquieted within me?” The experience of David is the experience of us all at some point or another, but we are not alone in these experiences As we study the saints of the Scriptures, we find that this was the common experience of all. Although we have everything in the world for which to be thankful, it remains a fact that we are still in these frail moral bodies of ours and are compelled to cope and struggle with the problems of time and material interests.
>
> As we study the Book, we find that even the greatest heroes of the faith had their moments of darkness and despair. When they took their eyes off the Lord and the eternal implications of their present trials, they too cried out, “Why art thou cast down, O my soul?”
> This was true of Abraham when he fled the land of Canaan when the Lord sent the famine. Instead of trusting the Lord, he went into Egypt—with tragic results. Moses had his discouraging moments, and Elijah, after his victory over the prophets of Baal, allowed an evil queen, Jezebel, to send him into a depression so that he desired to die. Despair came also to the prophets Jonah and Jeremiah, and even John the Baptist had his dark moments. And we could multiple these examples, including King David.

I can certainly relate to everything that Pastor DeHaan said. I have suffered much throughout my life, especially as an adult. My wife divorced me in 2006 and I have lived alone since. I have had to hire three lawyers in my life, which bilked me for $77,000. Most lawyers are nothing but predatory legal thieves! I lost my home as a consequence of the unwanted divorce. To say that I married the wrong woman is an understatement! She cost me everything. I forgave her since the very beginning in 2006, but once trust is gone in a relationship, nothing is ever the same again. I am her distant friend today, literally, as she has moved 8,500 miles away. So I am alone in life. I regret that I ever met her. I feel exactly the same as the famous preacher John Wesley, who said concerning his wife who also divorced him: “I did not dismiss her. I did not abandon her. I will not recall her.”

I have been emotionally hurt by some hateful Christians with judgmental hypocritical attitudes, who think I am supposed to stay single the rest of my life, while they have spouses. I pray that they could be divorced to know my pain of soul. Pastor Marty Herron (the former heartless senior pastor of the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam) is one of them! When I humbly pleaded for him to please let me attend church in 2017, three times in the kindest of words, he told me to “

Go elsewhere.

” God will return his evil upon him. I haven’t had a church family since 2014 because of Marty Herron. The Apostle Paul vented about Alexander the coppersmith, who did him evil. I am mentioning Marty Herron, who did me evil. 2nd Timothy 4:14, “ Alexander the coppersmith did me much evil: the Lord reward him according to his works:

This article is too short to mention all the suffering I have endured, it would require a hundred blogs. I was hit by a church bus at the First Baptist Church Of Hammond in 1992. I am grateful for the opportunity to serve the Lord in their church’s bus ministry between 1985 to 1993. I praise God that I wasn’t hit by a beer truck! I was voluntarily driving a church bus for the Lord, and got hit by another church bus from the rear. It was the worst accident in the church’s history in terms of physical damage done. The bus behind me was damaged so bad that the insurance company didn’t even attempt to repair it, they just bought another brand new full size 72 passenger school bus for the rental company.

The accident was caused by an abandoned car left in the road by someone unknown. Three buses were involved. I know God will repay me for all my suffering, since I got it driving a church bus for Him. I could never suffer enough to repay all that God has done for me, giving His only begotten Son to pay for my sins, so I could have eternal life for free. I do not regret driving a bus for my dear Savior! God has used my pain and suffering to humble me, and to compel me to work even harder night and day to reach the lost for Christ, and feed His sheep.

In the accident, my driver’s seat was broken off its hinges and

I sustained severe whiplash, which at the time I didn’t realize permanently misaligned my neck. Hospital x-rays didn’t show anything broken, which is all they were trained to look for, but they missed the misalignment of my neck. Years later I used to wonder at work why my neck was tense, when there was no reason to be tense. I had completely forgotten about the accident several years earlier. In 2004 my condition became very evident, when my disks shifted in my neck. I was diagnosed with Cervical Degenerative Disk Disease. A chiropractor asked me if I had ever been rear-ended. I immediately remembered the bus crash. He then explained to me that the whiplash did this to me, making my neck crooked instead of having normal alignment. This caused abnormal pressure between the thorax and cervical area of my spine, causing my disks to shift.

To make a very long story short, I have suffered from 2004 with constant toothache-like pain in the bony area of my neck, with constant neck tension. It is debilitating, causing me constant misery. The pain is next to my head and never goes away. In 2005 I fell down a mail slide at work on Guam, which worsened my neck condition, causing radiating pain in both arms and legs. By 2009 I couldn't tolerate the suffering anymore. My wife had divorced me in 2006. My teenage children didn't want to live with me anymore by the end of 2008. My neck pain was unbearable. I had just been terminated for my disability from the U.S. Postal Service in 2008, where I had worked for 15 years. In 2009, I bought two small barbeque grills to commit suicide by asphyxiation. It is only by God's grace, knowing that He loved me, and that this life is a one shot deal (no coming back beyond the grave), that kept me from following through with it.

I underwent two major neck surgeries in 2009 and 2010. [2]I was abused by Cedars-Sinai Hospital in Los Angeles. I was abused again during my second surgery in Long Beach, but I cannot even remember the name of the hospital. I received a letter from the government saying that dozens of people went to prison for a kickback scheme, and that I was a victim. I had flown from Guam to San Diego for my second surgery. The surgeon made me travel an hour and a half away to Long Beach. I was never told why, but now I know... he is a crooked man, a thief, a liar and a wicked person. He mistreated me after the surgery. The hospital deliberately didn't give me any pain medications. God will repay their evil. Dear reader, you wouldn't believe all the things I have suffered through, some things that I don't even want to talk about.

But one of the things that has hurt my the most, is the rejection by the Harvest Baptist Church of Guam since 2014. They are supposed to be a church! If you have been reading my articles for any length of time, then you know I have written often about Harvest Baptist Church, how rotten, corrupt, uncaring and hypocritical they are. I have only shared 5 % of the miseries I have suffered through.

In 2009, I won an Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) lawsuit against the U.S. Postal Service. I was awarded $42,000 in damages to recompense my divorce expenses. The judge flew to Guam from California for a three day hearing, ruling that I was the victim of racial and religious discrimination. [3]His hair was as long as mine at the time.

A Filipino group at work found my Jesus-is-Savior.com website and decided to harass me to tears. I was being relentlessly persecuted in a Hostile Work Environment. My boss and the managers did nothing. Some blamed me for stealing my own car and house keys. The judge got mad at them for that! Co-workers sabotaged my equipment that I was responsible to maintain, stole my house and car keys, dumped ripped up Gospel tracts on my toolbox, stole my thumb drive with my EEO case on it, stalked me around the building, printed pages of my website to harass me, left photos of indecent naked women for me to see, flooded the restroom while I was in there, threatened to murder me, and one co-worker even threatened to kill me with a knife right in front of the supervisor and she did nothing. I think that is why I won my EEO case, because she admitted it to the judge. I didn't have the money to hire a lawyer, so I represented myself. I tore that postal lawyer up! I was more prepared than she was. The judge was actually impressed with my presentation.

Persecution is nothing new to me. During 1987 to 1991 while attending Hyles-Anderson College to be a preacher, I was harassed at the truck repair International Harvest Dealership that I worked at in Melrose Park, Illinois. Co-workers abused me almost daily. One man threw a 3 pound hammer at me. Another co-worker spit on me. One man threw my toolbox onto the floor. That same man smashed my radio into pieces because I was playing cassettes of the Thren Family, Marshall Family and Statler Brothers while working. I only played it to drown out his Van Halen and AC/DC. My boss told me if I can't take the heat to get out of the kitchen.

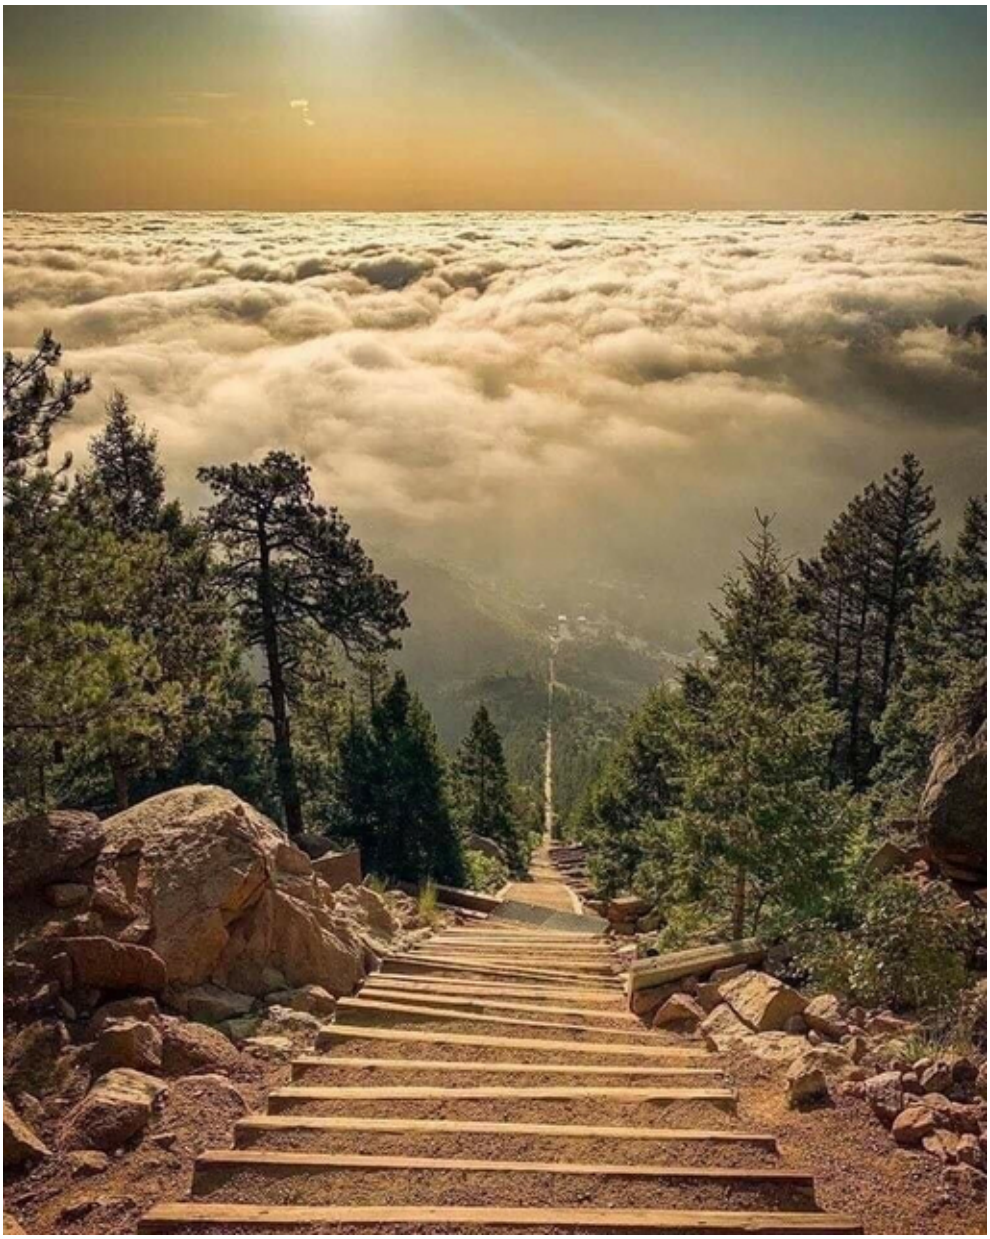
At that same job I was harassed daily, called "baby Jesus" and other words I won't repeat. I was grabbed by the throat, forced up against a truck by the neck, had my work uniforms stolen and found booze bottles and centerfolds in my locker and toolbox regularly. One day I picked up an ignition capacitor that some left on my toolbox. I didn't know that one of my co-workers had charged it, as a cruel joke. I jumped a foot in the air and it could have killed me. A co-worker twice my age complained to my boss what someone had done to me, but again my boss didn't care. I was only 20 years old when I started. A co-worker loosened a drain plug on a truck I had changed the oil on, which got me fired. I had a specific system that I always followed, that prevented me from ever leaving a drain plug loose. I always lived by the motto: "The drain plug is either all the way in, or all the way out."

At that job I was abused, but was too young to realize that I was supposed to stand up for myself. I was a good kid. Sometimes I did fight back. When one guy grabbed me one day, I grabbed him back and ripped all the buttons off his shirt. That was the guy who smashed me radio on the ground. He was 10 years older than me. I had men ask me why I carried my Bible to work. I carried a full-sized John R. Rice reference Bible to work every day. I replied that it was for the same reason that they bring Playboy to work, because that is where my heart is. One co-worker said my Bible made him nervous. Most of these men were all nearly twice my age. I was fresh meat.

Yet, still to this day I love them all and miss the comradery we had in the shop. Those guys made me laugh often. The man who threw the hammer at me (I dodged it so he missed), was carrying a big 10 foot muffler through the shop one day. At the time Midas had a popular commercial that showed a customer exclaiming: "I'm not going to pay a lot for this muffler." So this guy Don shouts out: "This guy's gonna pay a lot for this muffler!" I couldn't stop laughing. Anyway, I know the feeling of being harassed for my faith. I am a very understanding person. Where I have a hard time is when professed Christians are hateful, like Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. They are all Bob Jones University graduates, and filled with hypocrisy. If they simply would have allowed me to attend church services, which I have pleaded since 2017, everything would have been fine, but they turned me away in their wickedness.



In 2002, the state of Illinois unjustly charged me and my wife at the time with child abuse, for not allowing our daughter to be drugged. Our daughter's hair fell out at age 6 from a drug, Ethosuximide, that was later banned in Canada. Now at age 11 we weren't going to let her be made a guinea pig again. The state of Illinois forced her to take Depakote, which caused liver toxicity and bone marrow shutdown. Bastards! Our legal fees skyrocketed to over $20,000 by an ungodly thief for a lawyer. He was going through a divorce and taking it out on us. We were a Christian family being ravished by a thug lawyer. The state of Illinois is one of the most corrupt institutions in America. Literally, 5 of Illinois' last 8 governors have been sentenced to prison for corruption!!! This world is an ugly place because of sin and evil (premeditated sin).

Dear friend, if I told you all of what I have suffered through, you'd cry if you care about people at all. Why am I sharing all this with you? I have never been closer to God than I am today. I have been forgiven by God of many sins, and so I love Him so much more. Perhaps you are not as bad a sinner as me, and you think you don't owe God as much love, but I sure do! I am nothing but a broken redeemed sinner. I am happy in the Lord in 2021. I woke up today and thanked God that I have eyes to see. I need to wear glasses to watch TV because I am nearsighted. I am getting older. God willing I will turn 54 on March 5, 2021. My life is almost over. I don't claim to be a good Christian, but you won't find a more sincere man. God knows that I work hard on my ministry, night and day, and bathe it in prayer. I need to start updating my Jesus-is-Savior website, people are starting to complain about it being outdated. Right now I need to focus on where to move soon.

I have been watching YouTube videos on TV about different places to live in the United States. I am having a really difficult time deciding where to move. All the places that I would like to live are way too expensive for me, like Colorado, Oregon and California. I have to show you this picture I found today of Colorado Springs, Colorado...

Manitou Incline In Colorado Springs

Now you know why I'd like to live there! I get medical disability, so I have to choose an affordable town. I am praying night and day for God to guide me, to give me the wisdom that I need to make decisions. My body burns from head to toe, throughout my nervous system, due to my neck injury and second surgery that made me 100 % worse in 2010. I suffer so much. I am torn between living up north in Indiana or Ohio, or out east in Maine, Pennsylvania or North Carolina, or down south in Texas or Florida. I have come to the realization that I won't feel peace no matter where I move, because I want to be with Jesus in Heaven.

I wish I could just look back and say all my suffering is behind me. My family is still broken. My body is still broken. My life is still broken. I am still lonely. BROKEN THINGS! But I have perfect peace with my Savior. My main reason for moving is to hopefully meet a woman to build a meaningful life with. But if not, I want to get involved with some type of homeless ministry, or a ministry that does more than fill 18" of pew each Sunday. It is disgusting that we have 350,000 churches across America, but 99 % of them do absolutely nothing to help the poor. Anyway, that is a different article for another day.

As I type, the burning in my nerves is horrible. Pastor DeHaan writes in chapter 4 about "

A Broken Vase.

Matthew 26:7, " There came unto him a woman having an alabaster box of very precious ointment, and poured it on his head, as he sat at meat." We don't know the identity of this dear woman. It is safe to say that she was a forgiven sinner. Dr. DeHaan speculates that perhaps this was Mary Magdalene. We don not know. She held nothing back. She broke the alabaster box once and for all. She could have used a small portion of it to honor the Lord, but she gave it all for Him. This woman didn't do this for the group at dinner, she did it just for the Lord. Pastor DeHaan further states:

> I sometimes wonder if I have ever done anything just for Him. When I look at Him, everything I have done seems so small, so negative. Nothing I could possibly do or sacrifice or give could ever compare with what He has done for me.
> I do not expect all of you to feel as I do regarding my debt to my Savior, for perhaps you do not owe Him as much as I do. Perhaps you have not sinned as I have, and you have not had so much forgiven. But I know that I could never repay Him for what He has done for me.

I am the biggest sinner I know. I condemn no one. I am a hurting dog, and a hurting dog barks. I don't care who I impress, or who I upset, my only goal is to preach THE TRUTH to help others. Let him that hath ears to hear hear. I cannot wait until this miserable life is over, but in God's timing, not mine. Life is full of sorrows, losses, pain, heartache and burdens. It hurts most of all when churches aren't churches, when they care more about money than hurting sinners who plead for their help. I speak of the ungodly Harvest Baptist Church of Guam.

If you want someone to throw rocks at, here I am. Just blame me, everyone else does. Pain adversely affects a person. It is only by God's grace that I keep going day by day. But my heart rejoices in the PROMISES of God. The Bible says we live by faith, not by sight (2nd Corinthians 5:7). I get frustrated daily that God doesn't seem to answer any of my prayers. I need His help to move, but there doesn't seem to be any help. Yet, I refuse to put God on trial. I love what Pastor DeHaan said earlier, about King David being frustrated, saying in Psalms 42:11, " Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted within me?" David felt like God had abandoned him.

Psalms 44:23, " Awake, why sleepest thou, O Lord? arise, cast us not off for ever." Dear friend, God only had one Son without sin, but He never had a son without suffering.

My life is a living testimony that God can make use of BROKEN THINGS. Are you divorced? So am I. Are you despised? So am I. Are you hated? So am I. Are you rejected by people at a local independent Baptist church? So am I. Are you suffering in chronic bodily pain day and night? So am I. Have you lost your home? So did I. My home was completely paid for and now strangers own it. The money went to pay legal fees. I have been renting for 11 years. Have you made foolish financial decisions? So have I. I tried to relocate from Guam to the United States in 2013, which turned into a big nightmare. I ended up wasting $50,000 going in a big circle, coming right back to Guam broke and broken. That's where the rest of the equity in my home went. I know what it feels like to lose everything.

Are you depressed? So am I, daily. Are you stuck in life? So am I. I have felt trapped in life for the past 12 years.

Is your family broken? So is mine.

Are you lonely? So am I, painfully so. Jesus makes the difference!

John 16:33, "

These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.

" Because our blessed Savior is risen, we have the hope of eternal life which God has promised to everyone who believes on His only begotten Son. I already posses eternal life as a child of God, and so do you if you are saved.

Nothing can ever take that away from us. Once saved always saved!

No matter how broken and miserable I may become in this sin cursed world, I can rejoice that my name is written in Heaven in the Lamb's Book of Life. There are billions of people who cannot rejoice about that!

As I mentioned earlier, I thanked God today for my eyes. They are wearing old, but they still work. Even if I had $10,000,000,000 in my bank account, I couldn't buy my eyesight if I lost it. Think about that friend. If you had a trillion dollars to your name, you couldn't buy your hearing, or taste buds, or an arm back once it is lost. So if you have all those blessings, you ought to be extremely happy and grateful to God. Thankfully, God understands that we are frail and flesh. When you begin to feel down, think about all that God has given to you. Pastor DeHaan is right, who says in his book that the people who complain the most have the least to complain about. And the people who complain the least are the ones who suffer, and have every reason to moan and gripe, but they don't. Isn't that something?

I receive thousands of emails each year, mostly from fellow believers. Many of them share their heartaches, problems and ask me questions about how to handle life. Most of them don’t walk closely with God. If they did, they would cling to His wonderful promises as I do. I have been saved for 40 years, so I didn’t learn this stuff overnight. Suffering is a great teacher! Psalms 119:67 and 71, “Before I was afflicted I went astray: but now have I kept thy word. …

It is good for me that I have been afflicted; that I might learn thy statutes. ” You’ll never learn the sweetness of God until you suffer dear friend.

I didn’t ask or want any of this horrible permanent suffering. If I could live my life over though, I would be terrified to choose any other course, fearful of missing out on all the truths and closeness to the Lord that my suffering has taught me, and the power of God upon my website ministry. It was only when Meshach, Shadrach and Abednego were cast into Nebuchadnezzar’s fiery furnace that the Son of God appeared with them. You’ll find Jesus in the fire friend! BE OF GOOD CHEER, our blessed Savior is risen and alive forevermore!

Proverbs 9:9, “Give instruction to a wise man, and he will be yet wiser: teach a just man, and he will increase in learning.” Proverbs 14:7, “Go from the presence of a foolish man, when thou perceivest not in him the lips of knowledge.” Job 16:1-2, “Then Job answered and said, I have heard many such things: miserable comforters are ye all.”

The Bible is a puzzle that must be rightly divided (2nd Timothy 2:15). One thing I have learned in my 40 years as a born-again Christian, since age 13, is that people can wrestle the Holy Bible to teach and justify anything! While visiting on a church bus route years ago, I once had a professed Christian man trying to justify prostitution, right in front of his wife, quoting Genesis 38:8-10. That wicked man was a fool to think the way he did, and to utter those perverse words. And what a terrible thing to say right in front of his own wife, disrespecting her like she is just another female. An unsaved or backslidden person can justify anything with the Word of God (Proverbs 14:14). Proverbs 21:2, “ Every way of a man is right in his own eyes: but the LORD pondereth the hearts.”

Church folks are some of the worst when it comes to spreading unbiblical ideas. For example: Many years ago I knew a Christian man in the church, who was about 10 years older than me, commented: “You just gotta believe brother, you just gotta believe!” Well, that sounded more like optimism to me than faith. Faith (to be genuine faith) must include doubt. If you don’t have some amount of doubt, you cannot even have faith. Without some level of doubt, something would be a fact (because you would KNOW for a certainty that something is true).

I cannot conclusively prove to you that there is as God. Nor can I prove that the King James Bible is God’s inspired and infallible Word. Nor can I prove that salvation is obtained by believing on the Lord Jesus Christ. That is what I choose to believe, based on all the evidence set before me in the Scriptures. That is why eternal life is called “

in Titus 1:2. We have a hope as believers! I don’t

to someday have eternal life, I have

Praise God! I am not criticizing the aforementioned man,

I am simply saying that we should try (test) everything we see and gear against the Word of God. Does the Bible really agree with that? 1st John 4:1,

“Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world.”

Dear reader, there is a fine line between faith and foolishness. Wisdom is the ability to discern between the two, which ability comes from God. James 1:5, “ If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and*it shall be given him*.” James 3:13, “ Who is a wise man and endued with knowledge among you? let him shew out of a good conversation his works with meekness of wisdom.” We’ve got a bunch of foolish pastors today, who falsely think they are wise. No man is

who uses and promotes multiple English Bible versions. Folks, God only authored ONE BOOK. No man is who bids Godspeed to Pastor John MacArthur (a modern-day John Calvin) and the Lordship Salvation heresy. A wise man is a man of truth, not a follower of false religious dogma.

So please be careful what you accept as truth. When somebody makes a statement to you, or you read a catching phrase or saying,

(John 5:39a). I was driving the other day, and saw a sign in a gas station which read:

“Be careful what you accept from people and society.” That is Biblical. Proverbs 4:23,

Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life.

” A couple weeks ago I read another saying on the same gas station sign, which read:

“What you accept becomes a part of your life.

” Again, that is Biblical. 1st Corinthians 5:6, “ Your glorying is not good. Know ye not that a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump?”

Proverbs 9:9, “

Give instruction to a wise man*, and he will be yet wiser: teach a just man, and he will increase in learning.

” The Bible doesn’t teach just because someone rebukes us, that we should accept what they are saying as truth. They could be a fool, which is why the Bible teaches us to “ go from the presence ” of a fool (Proverbs 14:7). Literally, the Bible tells us to stay away from them! What do you do if those people are your friends?

Then Job answered and said, I have heard many such things: miserable comforters are ye all.

” If your friends are speaking foolishly, you pray for them. You ignore their hurtful and unbiblical advice. You simply love and pray for them.

Job 42:10, “

And the LORD turned the captivity of Job, when he prayed for his friends: also the LORD gave Job twice as much as he had before.

King David loved his neighbours, but was hated in return. I know that painful feeling. I love the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. They were my church family in 2014, but they rejected me. Read what David said in Psalms 109:4-5, “ For my love they are my adversaries: but I give myself unto prayer. And they have rewarded me evil for good, and hatred for my love.” I pray for my Harvest neighbours, and for their pastor, and for the church as a whole. May we all continue to pray for God’s wisdom. You don’t just pray one time for wisdom, and then become wise for the rest of your life. We must continually pursue wisdom, seeking after her as Proverbs teaches. Proverbs 8:17, “ I love them that love me; and those that seek me early shall find me.

2.2.11 Forget The Stock Market, Invest In Eternal Rewards (2021-02-09 09:30)

Matthew 6:19-21, “ Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal: But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal: For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also."

I was watching the daily news on YouTube today. I saw a story about the Stock Market. The stock for 'GameStop' is going up and it is big news. Many years ago I dabbled in the stock market for about 5 years. This was around 1995 to 2000. I think everyone at one time or another gives the stock market a try. I bought 130 call options in just one year. A "

call

" option lets you leverage stocks. For example: You can control 1,000 shares of stock with just 100 call options. This is a way to make money faster, if you are good at it. Losing is a part of investing. The key is to win more than you lose. The school of Wall Street charges a high tuition.

I made $140,000 in one year, and lost it all in the year 2,000 when President George W. Bush became U.S. President, and the .com prosperous years of

" (as fed chairman Alan Greenspan called it) finally ended. The market never came back, and neither did I. I was done forever with playing the stock market. In hindsight, I don't regret my years of researching the Stock Market. I bought every book I could find by Wade Cook, Ken Roberts, Bill O'Neil and Warren Buffet, and studied it like a science. I was good at understanding the market, but lacked the patience for it. You have to have a high risk threshold to invest in day trading, which I didn't have. I dabbled in everything from penny stocks to futures contracts.

Having said all that, I also read all of the books by Richard Ney, exposing the Stock Market for the fraudulent Ponzi scheme that it is! In a Ponzi scheme, the big guys at the top get rich, and the little guys on the bottom lose out. Insiders make a killing in the stock market, but the public loses 95 % of the time. I won't delve too deep into the subject here, but Richard Ney in his excellent book called: " documents how the stock market actually rose while the newsmedia was telling the public to sell their stocks (and vise versa). In other words, the stock market is controlled from within; it's a rigged game. The stock market is fraud. I could teach you for hours the things I have learned. The stock markets are crooked on so many levels. The best thing I ever did was to walk away and leave the stock market alone.

The Wall Street Jungle,

In 2002, I began my [1]website ministry and decided to spend the rest of my life investing in the Kingdom of God instead of earthly wealth. I have been laboring diligently night and day ever since, laying up treasures in Heaven as the Lord said.

Matthew 6:19-21, " Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal: But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal: For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also." What a beautiful promise from God.

Dear reader, when you invest in the things of God, it is a win/win situation. Unlike the stock market where you assume considerable risk, depending on the type of investment you make, there is zero risk serving God.

1st Corinthians 3:8-9, " Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one: and every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labour. For we are labourers together with God: ye are God's husbandry, ye are God's building.

" I love that! God promises to reward each believer according to our own labors. That encourages me. When a man works as a pastor or associate pastor, he is already getting paid. I don't get paid for my labors, and I never have, nor ever will. That means God is going to reward me much more!

And may I say, these pastors and churches who are teaching the heresy of Lordship Salvation are fake news! They are not preaching the Gospel, so how can they be saved. Not only will they not be rewarded in eternity, but they won't be entering into Heaven. It is a big deal. There y favorite Bible verses is Matthew 10:42, "

And whosoever shall give to drink unto one of these little ones a cup of cold water only in the name of a disciple, verily I say unto you, he shall in no wise lose his reward.

" God sees everything! Even giving a cup of water in the name of a disciple of Christ will be rewarded. So if someone does anything to help promote my ministry, they will be rewarded by God, because I am a disciple of Jesus. I am earning eternal rewards by promoting the sermons and ministry of Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold, because he is a born-again Christian and a disciple of Jesus Christ. When I promote the sermons of Dr. Jack Hyles, I am laying up treasures in Heaven.

I encourage you friend, whoever you may be, to first make sure you are a born-again believer. If you don't have the blessed sweet assurance that you are on your way to Heaven, you CAN know 100 % for sure that you are going to Heaven. I absolutely KNOW that my name is written in the Book of Life in Heaven. I never wonder if I am really saved. I am absolutely positive, based on the PROMISES of God in the Scriptures. Titus 1:2,

In hope of eternal life, which God, that cannot lie, promised before the world began; " I don't HOPE to one day have eternal life, I already HAVE A HOPE of eternal life!!! I have God's Word on it, and so do you if you receive Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, plus nothing else! If you put your trust in the risen Savior, He promises to save you immediately and forever (Romans 10:13; John 6:37).

And if you are saved, then LAY HOLD ON ETERNAL LIFE! There is not a more befitting passage of Scripture to contrast serving God to the world's stock market than the following Scriptures passage:

> 1st Timothy6:10-12, "For the love of money is the root of all evil: which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows. But thou, O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness.
> Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses.

I decided decades ago that money means nothing to me. I want to spend my life serving God. I will never argue with anybody over money. If there arises a dispute, I will tell someone to take the money, take it all, I couldn't care less.

I purchased $600 worth of machined parts for my Sho-Bud pedal steel guitar many years ago, from a man named James Moorehead in Oklahoma. He stole my money. A year had passed and he never bothered to even contact me, to let me know what was going on. He kept making excuses, but I saw online that he had cheated over one dozen other people. One frustrated man in New York was upset, because he had his Sho-Bud steel guitar to Oklahoma and the man wouldn't return it. James was supposed to rebuild the undercarriage, but instead he stole the man's money and guitar. So I just told the man to keep the money, because I feared God even if he didn't. And you know what, the thief did keep the money. I didn't give him the money to be nice. I gave him the money to close the matter, because he is a dirty thief, and I wanted to settle the dispute since he refused to do what was right. Anyway, James passed away a few years ago. I hope he went to Heaven, but only he and God knows.

I thank God that I can look in the mirror, knowing that I am an honest man. I am a sinner, just like anybody else. I haven't always done the right thing in my life, and neither have you (1st John 1:8-10). But I can say with all confidence, that there has never been a time in my life more than today, when I wanted to think right, do right and live right. And thanks be to God, because Jesus died on the cross for my sins, I can be right and am right with God, through faith in the precious blood of the crucified One. Amen!

You Get Saved By Trusting Jesus, Not Following Him

Many people misunderstand the Gospel of Matthew, applying passages from Matthew to salvation that actually apply to discipleship. Remember, Matthew presents Jesus as a King. Mark presents Jesus as a servant. Luke presents Him as the son of man. And finally, John presents Jesus as the Son of God. Matthew establishes that Jesus is a King, tracing His ancestry back to king David. Jesus came from a kingly line. For example, the following passage has nothing to do with getting saved.

Matthew 16:24, "

Then said Jesus unto his disciples, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.

" The Lord is talking about following Christ, which is service not salvation.

We know that following Christ is not necessary to be saved, because God gave us the Gospel of John to show us how to have eternal life. John 20:31,

"But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name." The Gospel of John has accurately been called "

God's Gospel tract.

" As we just read in John 20:31, the book of John was written to convince that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by simply believing we will be saved. That is so simple and beautiful.

Matthew does refer to salvation in

Matthew 6:33,

But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.

” Philippians 3:9,

“And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:

That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death;

If by any means I might attain unto the resurrection of the dead.

” What a beautiful passage of Scripture!

Oh dear friend, have you received the new birth? I didn’t ask you if you attend church. Have you been born-again? I didn’t ask you if you’ve been water baptized. Have you been born anew by faith in the Lamb of God? I didn’t ask you if you’re living the Christian life. Have you been saved? Do you know Jesus as your personal Savior? Does Jesus know you as one of His sheep? The unsaved religious people in Matthew 7:21-23 knew who Jesus was, but Jesus said He didn’t know them. The Lord spoke the most horrifying words anyone could ever hear: “ I NEVER KNEW YOU

Religion is the worst thing that ever happened to this world!

My father taught me that truth, and Dad was right. Religion is man trying to fit you with glasses, so you’ll view life through their perspective; but Christianity is God trying to reach man, through the sacrifice of His dear only begotten Son on the cross. Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ’s best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

One soul saved is worth more than all the gold in the world! This world will be over before we know it. My words are as worms on a fishing line, hoping that some hungry soul will bite hook, line and sinker into the [2]Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ. Believe it Oh lost sinner! Preach it Oh Christian!

2.2.12 Some Truths Every Believer Needs To Know (2021-02-10 09:30)

Proverbs 27:17, “Iron sharpeneth iron; so a man sharpeneth the countenance of his friend.”

One of my web visitors wrote these words of wisdom, which I wanted to share:

> "21 (Short!) Theological and Spiritual Truths that I Want (and More Importantly, God Wants) You to Know, Believe and Experience, Above Anything Else," by C.S.
> 1. Salvation: Salvation (Forgiveness of Sins, an experienceable spiritual connection and fellowship with God, a new holy and righteous self in Christ, and Heaven guaranteed) is a free gift through faith in Jesus (Ephesians 2:8,9).
> 2. "Saving Faith" is: believing the truths of the Gospel, which is the same as, "trusting in Christ Jesus." (John 3:16)
> 3. Eternal Security: everyone who believes in Jesus Christ as God and Savior, even for a moment, is saved forever, permanently and irrevocably, no matter what good or evil things they might do thereafter, including murder and suicide–and every other sin. Murder and suicide, though they are great and horrific and terrifying sins, cannot cancel the salvation of one who has believed in Christ–salvation is a free gift that is irrevocable, –that can never be taken away. (Ephesians 1:13,14 says that those who have trusted in Christ are sealed and guaranteed to go to Heaven.) All of a Christian believer’s righteousness is Christ Himself, with no reliance on the natural self whatsoever for good works. A person’s natural good works are not a part of what saves a person.
> Assurance of Salvation: Because the Lord Jesus said that everyone who believes in Him and His Gospel is saved (John 6:47), we can know with assurance that we are saved, if we believe in Christ, which is the same thing as believing the Gospel, which is the same thing as trusting in Jesus.
> 4. The Gospel is found and defined in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4: Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, He was buried, and He rose again from the dead on the third day according to the Scriptures.
> God is a trinity: The Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. (John 3: 34,35)
>
> Jesus is true God and true man. (John 1:1-3)
> God created the universe in six 24-hour days (He can do that, He’s God.) He created the earth about 6,000 years ago, not millions or billions of years ago. (Genesis 1:1 and following.)

5. Galatians 1:8,9 specifically damns to Hell twice anyone who adds anything (good works) to believing the Gospel in order to be saved.

6. You will find the God, and the experience of Him, when you seek Him with all your heart, through grace, faith, reading and studying and knowing His Word, prayer, confession of sin, worship, fellowship with Him and believers, obedience, love, and continual forgiveness of everyone for everything.

7. Forgiveness is the most important thing you can do for your mental and emotional health. God will send torturers upon your soul if you do not forgive (Matthew 18: 34,35). This is not the loss of salvation, but it will feel like Hell on earth, depression, anxiety, misery–which are the torturers.

8. The truth will set you free. (John 8:32)

9. The Christian life of prayer and following the Spirit is a daily, minute-by-minute thing. (Romans 8:14)

10. All statements are to be evaluated by the truth of the Bible, which is inspired by God, infallible and inerrant, so you must know and read your Bible often (daily?) to grow in truth, especially the New Testament. (2nd Timothy 3:16)

11. There is no comfort, pleasure, peace, joy and satisfaction like the experience of communing with the Spirit and love of Jesus in your spirit and soul. God is the God of all comfort. (2nd Corinthians 1:3.)

12. God answers prayer.

13. "As you sow, so shall you reap."

14. There are rewards in Heaven for faithful service to Jesus here on earth. (Revelation 22:12)

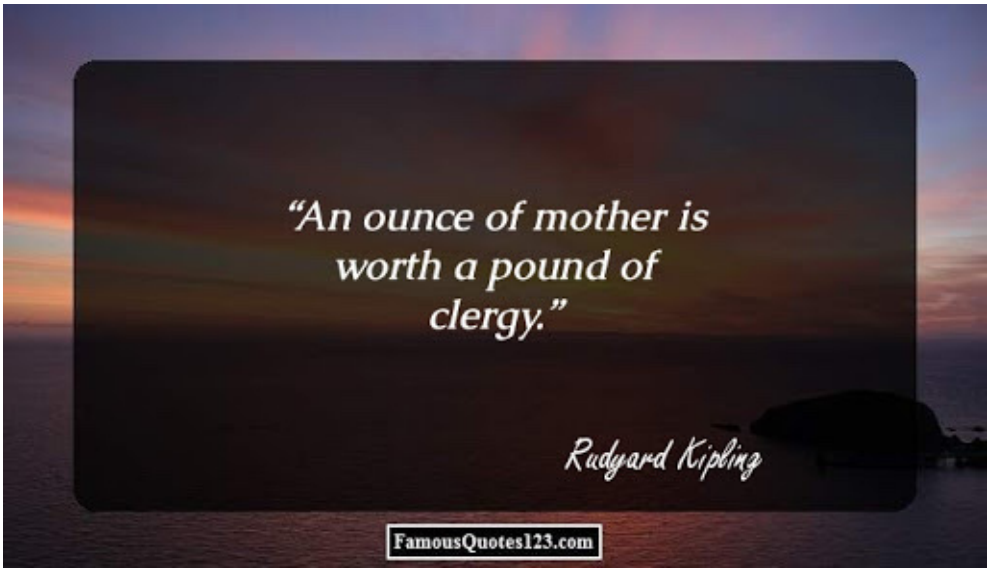
15. "Repentance" means, "a change of mind" from unbelief in Jesus, to belief in Jesus. The person who has repented of unbelief has believed in Jesus. (Mark 1:15)

16. There are at least nine baptisms in the Bible. The only one that is necessary for salvation is the spiritual baptism by the Holy Spirit into the death and resurrection of Christ (Romans 6:3,4). Water baptism is not required for salvation–only faith in Jesus is required for salvation.

17. Some sins are greater than others (John 19:11), but any and all sins will keep unbelievers and God and Christ-rejecters out of Heaven.

18. There is a difference between being nice, reasonably moral, and happy vs. being holy in Christ, divinely loving, and being filled with the fruit of the Spirit: "love, joy, peace..." (Galatians 5:22).

19. Jesus is going to return to earth (Revelation 22:20) in power and glory to judge the living and the dead, and to condemn unbelievers to everlasting conscious torment in a place called Hell. And He will take all believers in Him to Heaven to enjoy eternal life forever.



20. There has never been a person on earth in all of human history who could not be saved. God's Spirit goes everywhere on earth, and God wants all people to be saved. God can send missionaries, Bibles, tracts, radio, TV, literature, dreams, visions, angels, and of course, His Spirit. I believe that all babies and all young children will go to Heaven. The only people who will not be saved are those who reject Him (which, tragically, uselessly, sadly, and avoidably, will be most people, "the many" of Matthew 20:16, only because most people reject Jesus as Savior). Other religions many have many moral and spiritual truths, but they do not preach the Gospel of Jesus. If they did, they would be Christian.

21. Beware, for there are many false prophets (and false teachers). (Jesus said this, in Matthew 7:15.)

2.2.13 Don't Compare Your Life To Other Christians (2021-02-10 23:38)

2nd Corinthians 10:12,

For we dare not make ourselves of the number, or compare ourselves with some that commend themselves: but they measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves among themselves, are not wise.

We all have a tendency to look at the lives of others, especially fellow Christians, and compare our life and happiness to theirs. But the Bible says this is an unwise thing to do. One of the reasons why is because we all have different circumstances. Ecclesiastes 9:11, " I returned, and saw under the sun, that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favour to men of skill; but time and chance happeneth to them all."

In 1992 while voluntarily driving a church bus, our bus was rear-end by another church bus. The accident was so traumatic that a dozen ambulances arrived to take children to the hospital.

My seat was broken off its hinges. The bus behind ours was totaled, with the engine and transmission broken into hundreds of pieces on the ground, with fluids everywhere. Why did that happen to us? Why me? My neck was permanently misaligned, which has left me with Cervical Degenerative Disk Disease. I have suffered since 1992, but especially since 2004 when the condition turned chronic and I was diagnosed with stenosis san radiculopathy.

Some irresponsible person had left an abandoned car in the roadway, which caused the accident. Why did this happen to me and my bus riders? It was just time and chance. My neck hurts all the time. It makes me irritable and easily frustrated, adversely affecting my life. I live in solitude, lonely and the local Harvest Baptist Church won't even allow me to attend church services. Talk about evil. If I compare I could easily become bitter, but this is my burden. These are my circumstances. This is my heartache and cross that I have to bear.

I attended Hyles-Anderson College (HAC) for 8 years between 1985 and 1993 to be a pastor. I unfortunately married the wrong person, whom I met before I went to Bible college. I regret that I didn't marry a gal from HAC. That was one of the biggest mistakes I ever made. I am as much a sinner as anyone else, so it's not my place to cast stones. The woman I married abandoned me in 2006 after 18 years of marriage.

I am encouraged that I can relate to the famous preacher John Wesley, who said when asked about his wife divorcing him: "I did not dismiss her. I did not abandon her. I will not recall her." Good riddance to bad rubbish!

I have learned in my Christian life not to compare my sufferings with that of friends I went to Bible college with, who are happily married today after all these years. It hurts, sure. I am happy for them. But if I compare my life to theirs, I I feel left out. I feel like I got a raw deal. I feel cheated in life. That is why the Bible teaches us NOT to compare. There are too many variables beyond our control in life. I have known Christians to commit suicide over marriage problems. One man in his 30's commit suicide when his fiancée broke up with him and married another man. The guy was in debt and killed himself to make the pain go away. Another man commit suicide when his wife left him and he couldn't locate her. I remember one night that he frantically came onto our church bus, asking if anyone had seen her. No one had. He was only 27 years old when he killed himself. Dear friend, committing suicide will only exchange one pain here on earth for another pain up in Heaven, when you realize that you could have still been on earth witnessing the Gospel to lost sinners.

I have to remind myself sometimes to stop comparing my broken life, with that of peers who appear to me as successful and happy in life. It is God Who decides what successful means for each of His children (Philippians 2:13). During the brutal Roman Empire Christians were fed to hungry lions in the arena. I'll bet they felt like failures, but in God's sight they are heroes of the faith. The Apostle Paul was beaten nearly to death multiple times and left for dead. Paul was shipwrecked and spent days lost at sea hoping to be rescued. Paul suffered much so God could bless Him and use him much! God has allowed me to suffer more than the average person's share of pain, loss and sorrow in life; but I believe it is only so that God can use me more for His glory and purpose. And yet I have no complaints, because many people suffer a lot more than I do.

I see men whom I went to Bible college with in the 1980's pastoring churches today, and I feel like a spiritual failure. I feel like a loser sometimes. My wife is gone. I am alone. I have tried to find a wife, but being on Guam makes that nearly impossible. My fundamentalist beliefs have compelled the ungodly Neo-evangelical Harvest Baptist Church on Guam to ban and ostracize me since 2014. They are pulling on the same rope as the Devil by promoting Lordship Salvation and fake Bibles, but no one cares. But aside all this, I am not supposed to compare my life with that of other believers (or counterfeit believers). Our circumstances are all different. I am only supposed to compare myself to the inspired Word of God.

James 1:23, " For if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass: For he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was."

I receive many emails from Christians, many of whom are angry and bitter at life, because they are comparing their life and circumstances to that of others. Hebrews 12:3, "Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

" Do you know when I am the happiest? It is when I help other needy people, and forget about the people who have hurt me, putting them into God's hands for judgment. Harvest Baptist Church has hell coming their way. They won't get away with what they have done. You cannot promote corruptible seed and be innocent. You cannot preach another gospel of "turn from your sinful lifestyle" to receive God's free gift, and still be innocent. Harvest's day of reckoning is coming. Those ungodly pastors think they are being persecuted, but in reality they are persecuting the free grace Gospel and the King James Bible.

My website ministry makes me happy, because I am contending for the faith for Christ (Jude 1:3). My ministry website give me joy, because I am exposing false teachers and corrupt churches that hurt people (Titus 1:10-13). Those arrogant, stiffnecked and indifferent shameful pastors of Harvest Baptist Church of Guam, and their ungodly congregation who empower them, will suffer the judgment of almighty God when all is said and done (Matthew 12:36; Proverbs 24:12; Romans 12:19-21). If I didn't believe that, I'd close my Bible, cancel my websites, and never preach again! I don't hate people, I hate what God hates, arrogance! The wicked Bob Jones University crowd are arrogant, cocky, cliquish, deceived and foolish!!!

I stand alone before my God and Savior. In eternity I will have to give account to God for only myself. Those pastors at Harvest won't be able to blame BJU, nor anyone else. I have warned them time and time again at Harvest as a true friend does, for which I have been ridiculed, insulted, shunned and ostracized. God sees what they have done. God sees that I told THE TRUTH. God only Authored ONE BOOK, not two, not 87, not 900. There is only one Gospel, not two, not one of turning from sinful behavior (which is works), but the other of not turning from sinful behavior (free grace). It cannot be both! I am not confused doctrinally, the Bob Jones crowd are! I am being a faithful Bible preacher to take a firm, unapologetic and uncompromising stand, and by God's grace with continue to do so.

As I thought about some of my college peers today who are pastoring churches, and began to feel bad, the Lord impressed upon my heart that those pastors only have perhaps 100 people in their churches, but my Jesus-is-Savior.com website has received over 110,000,000 visitors since 2002. God has used my website ministry electronically to reach thousands of times more people with the Gospel than all of those pastors put together. I am humbled. To God alone be ALL the credit, praise and glory, for great things He hath done through this sinner. By God's wondrous grace alone I will continue for many years to come. My websites need much updating, which I plan to work on throughout 2021, Lord willing. But first, I am getting ready to move. Where O where is the question? Pray for me my friends, for God to give me wisdom. I love you all unconditionally with God's love. Thank you for reading my blogs. Jesus is precious!

And Joshua, and all Israel with him, took Achan the son of Zerah, and the silver, and the garment, and the wedge of gold, and his sons, and his daughters, and his oxen, and his asses, and his sheep, and his tent, and all that he had: and they brought them unto the valley of Achor.

And I will give her her vineyards from thence, and the valley of Achor for a door of hope: and she shall sing there, as in the days of her youth, and as in the day when she came up out of the land of Egypt.

There is an amazing deep and profound truth found in the Old Testament book of Hosea. The Lord said that He gave Israel **“

the valley of Achor for a door of hope.

” To understand the beautiful meaning of this passage you need to go back and read Joshua chapters 6 and 7. The Lord had given the Hebrews victory in war over the city of Jericho. But the Lord strictly forbade for the Hebrews to take any of the silver or spoils for themselves. It was all to be taken into the treasury of the Lord (Joshua 6:19). But Achan didn’t listen. He got greedy and stole some silver, gold and a Babylonian garment. Joshua 7:1, “

But the children of Israel committed a trespass in the accursed thing: for Achan, the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, took of the accursed thing: and the anger of the LORD was kindled against the children of Israel.

” Joshua 7:21, “ When I saw among the spoils a goodly Babylonish garment, and two hundred shekels of silver, and a wedge of gold of fifty shekels weight, then I coveted them, and took them; and, behold, they are hid in the earth in the midst of my tent, and the silver under it.”

The following Bible verses are very sad, explaining what happened to Achan and his entire family because of his sin. Joshua 7:25-26, “

And Joshua said, Why hast thou troubled us? the LORD shall trouble thee this day. And all Israel stoned him with stones, and burned them with fire, after they had stoned them with stones.

And they raised over him a great heap of stones unto this day. So the LORD turned from the fierceness of his anger. Wherefore the name of that place was called, The valley of Achor, unto this day. ” Times sure have changed in 4,000 years. I just learned today that anybody caught shoplifting less than $50 is not taken to jail anymore in California, they are just fined $250. Consequently, shoplifting has increased statewide. Literally, people just pick up items and walk out the door.

The Lord commanded Achan and his entire family, even all his livestock, to be stoned to death and burned. That sure seems cruel doesn’t it? That is only because in America we don’t hate sin like God does. Most of us as Americans have grown up watching thousands of murders, robberies, rape, thefts, taking the Lord's name in vain, dishonoring parents, adulteries, substance abuse and assaults on television. Consequently, we have become desensitized to the awfulness of sin and evil. All crime is sin, but not all crimes are evil. Evil is premeditated sin. If a man snaps in an argument and kills another man, it was a crime of passion, a sin, but not evil, because he didn't plan to do it. That is why in many cases, men who murder someone in a fit of road rage receive lighter sentences. But the 67 year old man who went into a Minnesota medical clinic yesterday, shooting 5 people and murdering 1 so far, planned to do it. What he did was evil. When a woman has an abortion, it is evil. She scheduled it.

Anyway, God made an example of Achan for the rest of the Jews. In the aftermath of the stoning, there was a big pile of rocks left in the valley of Achor. This became a memorial of Achan and his family. For centuries to follow, when people walked by that place where Achan and his family were stoned to death, the people were deterred to make the same foolish decision. I get creeped out watching episodes of [1]Forensic Files, prison life documentaries and true crime stories, but I like to watch them to remind me of what can happen if I break the law. I think every teenager should be required to visit a jail cell, to see what it is like, and then taught what laws if broken can land them in prison. Prison is a scary place!

I read about a young man in Colorado recently, who was sharing his magic mushroom hallucinogens with his friends and anyone who wanted to buy them. He was promoting it online in his ignorance, not realizing how serious the matter was. The man was arrested and could have faced 30 years in prison, but the judge showed mercy and gave him 3 years of probation and a $6,000 fine instead. That young man got very lucky. Dear friend, always obey the law. Do good and it will be good! I learned that statement from Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995). DO GOOD AND IT WILL BE GOOD.

Or as another Baptist preacher taught me, what his father taught him: "If you obey it will be well, if you disobey it will be hell!" That is some good advice dear reader. Never break the law! You're a fool if you do. I love something that my favorite preacher Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) said: "If you want to never do anything that is terribly wicked, then you never do anything that is slightly wicked." Every crime began as a thought in the human mind. Some people are accidents waiting to happen! My favorite Bible verse in Proverbs 4:23, "Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life." That means guard your thought life. Do not allow evil thoughts to exist uncontested in your mind. We are commanded by God to bring every thought into captivity unto obedience to Christ (2nd Corinthians 10:5-6). That is not secular mind control, it is walking in the Holy Spirit (Galatians 5:22-25). An unsaved person CANNOT walk in the Spirit, because they don't know Him (Romans 8:9; 1st John 3:24).

Getting back to the valley of Achor being mentioned in the book of Hosea—that horrible tragedy became a doorway of hope to thousands of people. I won't mention the name of the preacher, but a famous pastor went into sin with a young girl several years ago. He was convicted and sentenced to serious prison time. That is sad and tragic, but in a good way, what happened to him has caused thousands of pastors all across the country to be very careful not to go down the same path of evil. His calamity has become a blessing to thousands of preachers. This is what the Bible means in Hosea by referring to " the valley of Achor for a door of hope.

" What happened to Achan and his family deterred multitudes of Jews and Gentiles alike from committing evil for centuries to come!

Dear friend, has something really bad happened in your life? Is there something in your past that causes you intense pain in your soul? Is there a valley of Achor? We all have skeletons in our closet. We all have painful memories. We've all been deeply hurt by someone. We all have a handful of experiences, bad choices, heartaches, sin, evil and things that we wish could be erased. And yet, we need our pain, because it makes us who we are. I love something that Pastor Max Younce once said: "God only knows the things that would have happened, if the things that happened, hadn't happened." That statement is precious to me and I think of it often. I love Pastor Younce as my older brother in Christ and look up to him as a wise mentor. Pastor Younce is the Dr. John R. Rice (1895-1980) of our generation. I encourage you to [2]visit his church website and read his many books.

Dear friend, there is always something you thought you could have done to make things better! Only Jesus can make things right! That is what the cross of Calvary is all about! We are living in some wicked times in 2021. I never thought when I was a young man in the United States, that I would see such wickedness so quickly. I knew that each generation would progress worse and worse if our churches didn't have revival, but I am surprised how fast our nation has spiraled down into wickedness. Sin always undermines a nation.

American society as a whole is rotten today! That is simply because in the absence of light darkness prevails. Ever since the King James Bible was removed and banned from public schools in 1963, our nation has sunk deeper into sin each succeeding generation. I hear these fools in the newsmedia saying that education is the answer, but dear friend it is not the answer. If you educate a man without moral character, all you're going to have is an educated fool. Proverbs 1:7, "The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge: but fools despise wisdom and instruction." Unless Americans seek the holy God of the King James Bible, we are doomed to destruction.

When Mr. Trump was U.S. President, he rightly banned transgendered people from serving in the military, because it undermines the moral integrity of our soldiers. The first thing Joe Biden did as U.S. President was overturn that law, allowing transgendered people to serve in the armed forces. It was in December of 2011 that U.S. President Barack Obama [3]decriminalized our soldiers having sex with animals. Isn't that sick? Soldiers can mount an animal now. God will not bless this wickedness!!! Anyway, that is a different blog for another day. Our nation is going down faster each year morally, forgetting the holy God of the Holy Bible. Oh how we need [4]citywide revivals in our nation once again, as it was a century ago.

2.2.15 Jesus May Come Today! (2021-02-12 09:30)

Matthew 24:42-44, “

Watch therefore: for ye know not what hour your Lord doth come. But know this, that if the goodman of the house had known in what watch the thief would come, he would have watched, and would not have suffered his house to be broken up. Therefore be ye also ready: for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh.” Matthew 25:13, “

Watch therefore, for ye know neither the day nor the hour wherein the Son of man cometh.

” Mark 13:33, “

Take ye heed, watch and pray: for ye know not when the time is. For the Son of man is as a man taking a far journey, who left his house, and gave authority to his servants, and to every man his work, and commanded the porter to watch. Watch ye therefore: for ye know not when the master of the house cometh, at even, or at midnight, or at the cockcrowing, or in the morning: Lest coming suddenly he find you sleeping. And what I say unto you I say unto all, Watch.” Revelation 22:20, “

He which testifieth these things saith, Surely I come quickly. Amen. Even so, come, Lord Jesus.

YES, JESUS may come today! Christ’s return is imminent: it may occur at any moment, day or night, without any signs or delay. Here are some encouraging words from Evangelist John R. Rice (1895-1980) concerning Jesus’ imminent return...

> There is not a single event prophesied in the Bible which must come to pass before the Saviour returns. As far as we can know, no event, either political, economic or spiritual, need occur before Jesus comes. Not another war need be declared, not another gospel sermon preached, not another soul be saved, as far as can be told from the Scriptures, before the Saviour comes to catch up His saints into the air for the marriage supper in Heaven. ...
> At any moment we may expect Christians to be caught up into the air to meet Christ in the first promised phase of His second coming. We do not know when. We bring reproach on the blessed hope by speculation, but we can watch because Jesus said we should.

Dear reader, the Scriptures do not discuss any signs that might precede the coming of Christ but rather the fact that He may come at any moment. That is the important thing! What saith the Scripture? Matthew 16:4, “ A wicked and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given unto it, but the sign of the prophet Jonas. And he left them, and departed.

” The Lord tells us why a wicked generation seeks for a sign of Christ’s return, because they are adulterous. If you knew that your life would end next month for certain, how would it affect you? Would you suddenly feel compelled to get right with God? Would you sow your wild oats in sin while you still could, partying in your last days?

I read last week about actor [1]Dustin Diamond, who was diagnosed for the first time with stage 4 cancer in January of 2021 and died just 3 weeks later. He began to feel pain all over his body while in Florida, which was found out to be cancer. The doctors and everyone were surprised how quickly Dustin perished. Usually a person diagnosed with cancer lives anywhere from a few more months, to decades if in remission. I remember when Cardinal Joseph Louis Bernardin (1928-1996) in Chicago was diagnosed with cancer. He underwent chemotherapy and died 6 months later. It is sad to me as a born-again Christian, because according to the Bible neither Dustin Diamond nor Cardinal Bernardin went to Heaven, if they died in their false religions. Dustin was a follower of Judaism, which rejects Jesus as the Christ. Likewise, Romans Catholicism perverts the Gospel, adding Seven Sacraments to get to Heaven, which is not faith alone in the Good News of Jesus Christ.

Life is so short dear friend. I heard today in the news that 100 cars and trucks crashed in Fort Worth Texas due to ice on the road, killing at least 6 people so far. [2]You can see part of the deadly crash here. There’s no way that the person in that little black car survived being smashed by a speeding 18-wheeler semi truck going at high speed. It is so tragic and sad! This is what Jesus meant in Luke 13:5, “I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish. ” When Adam sinned in the Garden of Eden, he opened the floodgate of sin and death upon the world (Romans 5:12). Bad things don’t happen to most people because of any particular sin that they committed, but because humanity as a whole is depraved under the curse of sin since Adam. We were all born into the world with a sin-nature. No one needs to teach a child how to throw a tantrum, lie, get angry, blame, fight, disobey and rebel; it comes natural because of our inherent sinful nature as humans.

The following Bible passage associates the motivation to live righteously as believers, with our expectation of Jesus’ imminent return (i.e., the Rapture)...

> Behold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God: therefore the world knoweth us not, because it knew him not.
> Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is. And every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself, even as he is pure .”

What a beautiful Scripture passage! Behold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be made the adopted sons of God. Who am I that a King should bleed and die for? I am so grateful for the gift of eternal life through faith alone in Jesus Christ!

If you are saved friend, you are a child of God. The world does not recognize that, because they do not recognize the Holy Spirit.

Even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you.

” I love that! I love that! I love that! Every believer has God’s indwelling Holy Spirit living inside (1st Corinthians 3:16-17; Romans 8:9; 1st John 3:20). I love the Holy Spirit!!! By the way, many Scripture references that writers cite are worthless, but the ones I give you are 100 % reliable. For example: Many heretics cross reference John 3:5 about being born of water, with verses on water baptism, which is a false gospel. Did you know that [3]Matthew Henry preached Baptismal Regeneration? Sadly, he did.

Dear reader, JESUS MAY COME TODAY! I believe the Bible teaches a pretribulation Rapture. That is, I believe that the Bible teaches Christ will return before the Tribulation period. There is a new trend today in Baptist churches called “The New Independent Fundamental Baptist Movement” (or “

”). This movement essentially includes all of the followers of Pastor Steven Anderson. I love and support Brother Anderson, because he is a truth-telling and soulwinning pastor. Yet, I think he is wrong on the doctrine of the Rapture.

Respectfully, according to Pastor Anderson Jesus’ Second Coming is the Rapture. He says they are the same event. I totally disagree with that idea. If we take the [4]Days of Daniel literally, then we can only conclude a 7-year Tribulation period. Since Jesus plainly stated that no man, nor even angels, know WHEN He is coming back, only a pretribulation Rapture makes sense...

> Mark 13:32-37, “But of that day and that hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels which are in heaven, neither the Son, but the Father.
> Take ye heed, watch and pray: for ye know not when the time is.
>
> For the Son of man is as a man taking a far journey, who left his house, and gave authority to his servants, and to every man his work, and commanded the porter to watch.
>
> Watch ye therefore: for ye know not when the master of the house cometh, at even, or at midnight, or at the cockcrowing, or in the morning:
>
> Lest coming suddenly he find you sleeping.
>
> And what I say unto you I say unto all, Watch.

Jesus could come back right now! Are you ready dear friend? One man asked me why I keep calling him my “ friend.

” Did not our dear Lord even call Judas His “friend”? Matthew 26:50, “ And Jesus said unto him, Friend, wherefore art thou come? Then came they, and laid hands on Jesus, and took him.” Either we are a friend to all, or a friend to none. The Lord was not a respecter of persons, He treated everyone with love and kindness, telling them THE TRUTH. I am being your best friend every time I preach THE TRUTH to you. I understand that you may not be my friend, but I certainly am being a true friend to all my blog readers. Thank you for allowing my ministry to be a part of your life, dear friend. Jesus may come today!

Let every preacher preach it! Let every church believe it! Let every child sing about it!

Let every Christian hope in it! JESUS MAY COME TODAY!!!

2.2.16 You Cannot Fix Your Broken Life (2021-02-13 03:22)

Ecclesiastes 1:12-15,

I the Preacher was king over Israel in Jerusalem. And I gave my heart to seek and search out by wisdom concerning all things that are done under heaven: this sore travail hath God given to the sons of man to be exercised therewith. I have seen all the works that are done under the sun; and, behold, all is vanity and vexation of spirit. That which is crooked cannot be made straight: and that which is wanting cannot be numbered.” Ecclesiastes 12:13-14, “

Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man. For God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil.”

Dear reader, if you’re life is broken like mine, you cannot fix it! The happiest years of my life was as a teenager. Sure, there were sad events. Sometimes other teenagers hurt my feelings. I luckily escaped many close calls with death on my bicycle and speeding cars. But I was happy overall. Looking back, I think it was simply because I had a strong social life. I was active in our Baptist church in Chicago. I attended the church’s Christian school during the week. THANKS MOM AND DAD!!! I love you guys up in Heaven!!! We had Friday night youth activities each week. We took annual church youth trips to the Bill Rice Ranch in Murfreesboro, Tennessee. Me and my friends went places, played street football, lit off fireworks throughout the year, often walked 3 miles to The Brickyard shopping mall for a 7-Eleven Big Gulp and then rode the public bus back, built giant igloos and forts in the snow, rode bikes all over the city, et cetera.

When I turned 18 I went off to Bible college by day and worked by night. I got married at age 20. My life has never been truly happy since. I suffered much persecution as a Christian in the secular workplace. I was rear-ended severely by a church bus in 1992, which permanently misaligned my neck. I was 25 years old. In 2004, my neck injury became chronic and I was diagnosed with stenosis and radiculopathy. My former wife divorced me against my will in 2006. I have been so lonely since, but the Lord sustains me (Hebrews 13:5). I won't go into all the details of my troubled life, because I did that the other day in this article titled: " [1]We Should Be Happy Even While Things Are Broken .

"Give your face to God, and He will put a shine in it."

1st Samuel 30:6, "And David was greatly distressed; for the people spake of stoning him, because the soul of all the people was grieved, every man for his sons and for his daughters: but David encouraged himself in the LORD his God. " Sometimes there won't be anyone to turn to for sympathy when everything goes wrong in life. As we just read, David had to ENCOURAGE HIMSELF IN THE LORD HIS GOD. And that's they key: "IN THE LORD." I had absolutely no one to befriend me for several years of my life (between 2009 to 2014). I underwent two major neck surgeries in 2009 and 2010 with no one by my side. I wanted to die. I was abused by both hospitals and associated "caregivers." I was abandoned after surgery both times. I was abused and treated like garbage at Cedars-Sinai Hospital in Los Angeles. Just do a Google search for abuse at Cedars-Sinai and you'll get a tone of results. A lot of former patients are angry at the hospital for their incompetence. I wept profusely in loneliness, even contemplating suicide in 2009. I cannot fix my broken life (and the 8 neurosurgeons I've met since 2008 cannot fix my broken neck).

Compassion For Hurting People Must Begin In The Churches

When I crawled into some local churches on Guam in 2009, 2013 and 2018, desperately needing their love and encouragement, I was instead coldly shunned away by ungodly and uncaring pastors. Our Baptist churches are sadly filled with self-righteous hypocrites, snobs, cliques and social clubs. These types of unbiblical places are respecters of persons, not New Testament churches (James 2:1; Romans 14:10; Matthew 25:45). We have never seen such closed off, pathetic, doctrinally corrupted and indifferent churches as we do everywhere today. James 2:1, "

My brethren, have not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory, with respect of persons.

" Everyone should be welcomed in a Bible-believing church.

I once owned my own triplex 3,500 square foot home, completely paid for. I had a wife, although never someone I was proud to have married. She was a bad seed from the beginning. Proverbs 31:12, "She will do him good and not evil all the days of her life." Proverbs 14:1, "Every wise woman buildeth her house: but the foolish plucketh it down with her hands." Proverbs 12:4, " A virtuous woman is a crown to her husband: but she that maketh ashamed is as rottenness in his bones. " Still, I praise the Lord for the opportunity to have been married, problems and all. Millions of teenage young men have died on some foreign battlefield, never knowing the privilege of marriage and fatherhood. Life was not fair to those men.

I get so sick of the hypocrisy of our leaders.

Not too long ago I watched a documentary by [2]Ken Burns about The Civil War, which is a masterpiece of film making. In the series though, I felt sick when I learned that President Abraham Lincoln removed his four sons from the war, so they wouldn't be killed. That makes me angry! What hypocrisy! I tell you, if our nation's leaders were required to send their children first to fight in all the wars they start, there would never be another war! I wish there was a universal rule that any leader who starts a war must send their children into war first!!! Think about that. Old men start wars, young men fight wars, and everybody in the middle loses. Life is not fair.

My heart aches when I see those veteran memorial walls, showing the names of several thousand young men who were killed in war. I am not a pacifist and I do understand the need for some wars. However, as the mother of Casey Sheehan learned the hard way, not all wars are legitimate. [3]I really love this dear lady, Cindy Sheehan. To me she is an American hero! Casey was killed just 5 days after arriving in Iraq, over a war illegally started over oil, not preserving our freedoms in America. The Iraqi War was a fraud before it even began. There were no illusive Weapons Of Mass Destruction. Yet, 90 % of America's dumb dumb churches fully rallied behind an ungodly war based on lies, bidding Godspeed to war criminals in the White House. God bless you Cindy, you're awesome and loved by many!!!

Anyway, back to the main topic. You cannot fix your broken life dear friend. Only Jesus Christ can fix your broken life. Trust me I know. I have been trying to find another wife all these years, but haven't been able to find anyone who wants me. I wish Cindy Sheehan was single! I have been wanting to buy another house, to replace the one I lost because of an ugly divorce I didn't want in 2006. I cannot afford a home in any of the nice places I'd like to live. I have consulted with 8 neurosurgeons since 2004, two of whom performed major surgery on my neck. I was struck from behind by a church bus (of all things) in 1992, forever messed up physically in this life. I have unsuccessfully tried to get the urgent medical help I need, in hope of getting my old healthy life back. Yet, the more aggressively I pursue my hopes and dreams of finding a content life, enjoying happiness with a loving wife, and enjoying the ideal health I formerly knew, the farther they all run away from me! What saith the Scripture? ...

> 1st Timothy 6:6-9, "
> But godliness with contentment is great gain.
>
> For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out.
>
> And having food and raiment let us be therewith content*.
>
> But they that will be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition.

It has been 15 years now without a wife. Increasingly I am starting to embrace the reality that I may never be remarried again. That breaks my heart. I am so lonely. But what can I do? I signed up for e-Harmony since 2017, which has led nowhere. I have contacted numerous women, none of whom responded. People are very different these days. American society has changed drastically from 1970. I often am reminded of a helpful sermon preached by Pastor Jack Hyles called: " [4]Let Yourself Know What Yourself Already Knows .

I had an extremely difficult time emotionally between 2004 to 2011, relentlessly pursuing the medical help that I desperately needed to get my life back. The first surgery seemed like an eternity during the year it took to get evaluated, approved, planned and scheduled. The surgery didn’t help. I was desperate to get my healthy life back, one that is completely pain-free.

So I underwent a second major surgery in 2010. The nurse was so mean that she scheduled me for April 1st (April Fool’s Day), thinking me a fool for consenting to another surgery when the first one didn’t help me. She told me so. But I was desperate, and the surgeon said he thought he could make me better. That young neurosurgeon from India said he thought he knew what the problem was. That was music to my ears. As it turns out, he was a criminal, and I have the legal paperwork to prove it. The U.S. government contacted me to let me know that I was a victim of a money-making kickback scheme in San Diego and Long Beach, California. A few dozen shady people were convicted, some went to prison for several years. I received absolutely nothing in compensation, except a letter to use for toilet paper, but the lawyers made out like bandits! Ecclesiastes 5:8 gives me peace in the matter, “If thou seest the [5]oppression of the poor, and [6]violent perverting of judgment and justice in a province, marvel not at the matter: for he that is higher than the highest regardeth; and there be higher than they.

” No one ever gets away with anything!

Anyway, the second surgery made me 100 % worse. It hurts being called by a nurse for trying to get better. The surgeon said he thought he could make me better, so she had no right to say that to me. She was cruel. Living with pain is not living, it is surviving, and desperate people do desperate things. I suffer with a feeling of burning throughout my nervous system, continually. It keeps me humble, but also makes it difficult to do things.

Dear reader, you cannot fix anything when it comes to a broken life. I certainly cannot. My neck is permanently messed up and there’s nothing anyone can do. I have seen eight licensed neurosurgeons, to no avail. I’ve gone through all of the conventional treatments available, to no benefit whatsoever.

In 2011 after being told by three doctors that I had come to the end of the line medically, I had to embrace the harsh reality that I’m as good as I’m ever going to be again! I suffer with constant sharp pain which radiates down my right arm and leg. My right leg feels inflated with air, and both of my arms, especially the right side. My neck is tense all the time, which feels like a balloon filled with air in back of my neck. And so forth. It is a burden for me. Yet, when I feel down [7]I go watch THIS VIDEO and thank God for my health!

Looking Unto Jesus The Author And Finisher Of Our Faith

Please understand that I am not writing about my woes to vent, God forbid. I am hopefully relating to a bunch of suffering people, who also have broken lives and problems. Jesus said in Mark 11:22b, "

HAVE FAITH IN GOD.

" That is what I am sharing with you. The more I try to fix my life (from what I think it should be), the worse it gets, and the more hopeless this life seems. So the great truth I am learning is to stop trying to get back to where I once was. My health is what it is. All I can do is eat healthy, keep walking a few times a week, avoid a bunch of negative bad news, and stay focused on Jesus in the Scriptures. Hebrews 12:2,

"Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God. "

John 5:39,

"Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me."

May I say, going to church doesn't keep you spiritual. You read correct! In fact, church is the easiest place to backslide, because you get used to the preaching, and like an inoculation it doesn't help you anymore. Church keeps you religious! That is why I preach against the Harvest Baptist Church of Guam so much. I love them very, very much at Harvest, which is why I relentlessly preach against them, because I want to be a part of their church family. I have no one. But they reject me.

Thus, I have painfully learned that people will always disappoint me, so I must point my expectations toward the Lord Jesus Christ alone. That is the truth I want you to take away from this article! Point all your hopes, dreams and expectations in the Lord Jesus Christ alone and you'll never be disappointed!!! You have God's promise of it in Romans 10:11,

"For the scripture saith, Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed." Jesus will never disappoint you. You can count on the Lord dear friend. You truly can!

My Broken Life Is Hidden With Christ In God

I love this Bible passage from Colossians 3:2-3, "Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth.

For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God." I may never own a home again. If I do, I will have to move to a cheaper city. I am doing exactly that. I've been looking at mobile homes, which are fine for a single guy like me. But what do I care, because Jesus promised that He is preparing a home for me in Heaven. John 14:2-3, "

In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you.

And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. " I am 53 years old. I might live another 20 or 30 years. Might. Even if I could afford a 7,000 square foot mansion in Beverly Hills or Hawaii, I cannot take one brick of it with me. But praise God, all my treasures from my website ministry are stacking up in glory (Matthew 6:19-20; 1st Corinthians 3:8; Mark 9:41; Revelation 22:12). You better believe I work night and day on my ministry!!!

Hey, and if medical advancements never allow me to live pain-free in this lifetime, God promises me a new body in eternity, fashioned like unto the Lord's resurrected body. Philippians 3:21, "Who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, according to the working whereby he is able even to subdue all things unto himself. " I'll take that 10,000 times over getting all my health back in this temporal world! When Jesus raised up Lazarus from the dead, I believe that Lazarus had 100 % of his full health restored. But guess what? Okay don't guess, because you already know what eventually happened... LAZARUS DIED TWICE! Did you ever think about that?

People who die in the Emergency Room and then are brought back, have to sooner or later die again! I'll bet that feels weird to be alive after knowing that you were pronounced legally dead by a doctor. Hey, this elderly farmer in Lexington , Mississippi died at age 78, was put into a body bag, and transported to the funeral home. In the embalming room, four hours after being pronounced dead, [8]he was kicking in his body bag! Boy I love that! Folks, it ain't over until its over!!! THERE IS A GOOD GOD DEAR FRIEND AND HE LOVES YOU!!! God loves you. How do I know that? I know because the Bible says so (John 3:16). I also know because God's Holy Spirit lives inside me, and I love you with God's unconditional love (1st John 4:6-7). I know because God is love (1st John 4:16). YOU ARE LOVED DEAR READER!!!

Lord willing I'm wanting to move. Physically I am not up to the challenge. I am not sure if I can do this all by myself. I have been watching hundreds of YouTube videos on places to live that are affordable. Fort Wayne, Indiana looks very nice. The cost of living is well below the national average. The city has a population of about 250,000 people. There are many Germans in Fort Wayne, which means great food! Fort Wayne is literally called: " because there are 360 churches in the city! I love that! I am thankful to God just to have the money to pay rent. God is always good. They get about 30 inches of snow per year, brutally cold winters, but nice summers. I lived in Chicago for 37 years, so the weather should be about the same.

My heart is heavy daily. I cannot repair my life. The more that I try to restore my life to its former glory, it evades capture. My health will never be as good as it once was. God willing I will turn 54 years old on March 5, 2021. My marriage is gone and if something in my life doesn't change, I will die a lonely old man. I read that Bob Jones III got remarried last year at age 80. He has friends who are looking out for him, no doubt. I'll bet Dr. Steve Pettit arranged that marriage, as a friend does. That is my humble guess. I wish I had a friend like that! So that encourages me that there is hope for me to find someone.

The problem is living on Guam. There's nothing here! Since Harvest Baptist Church has cruelly banned me from attending church services since 2014 (to present in 2021), I have nowhere to go. That is so shameful for a so-called

" James 2:1 forbids being a respecter of persons. But Harvest's pastors are respecters of persons, and they won't allow me to go to church at all. Sure I'm frustrated, who wouldn't be? My loneliness fuels my frustration, but no one cares. Psalms 142:4, " I looked on my right hand, and beheld, but there was no man that would know me: refuge failed me; no man cared for my soul.

I cannot make the pain of my life go away. I cannot erase the past. I cannot fix things. But friend, JESUS CAN FIX YOUR BROKEN LIFE! I have peace like a river in my soul. I am discouraged but not distraught. I am down but not defeated. I read a wonderful statement by Pastor Jack Hyles on Dr. Bob Gray Sr.'s Twitter page the other day, which read:

"I may not be a success, but I will not be a failure." Failure is not a disgrace unless we make it the last chapter in our book. I am going through a dark chapter of my life, but this chapter will end (as they all do), and when I die the book will be complete. Psalms 90:9, " For all our days are passed away in thy wrath: we spend our years as a tale that is told." Every day is another page being written in the book of our life. Philippians 2:13,

" For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure." I trust in the Lord.

I am having a good day today in the Lord. It is Saturday on Guam. It is still Friday in the United States. [9]I listened to Proverbs today .

I am learning how to use CSS programming online to make webpages.

I want to modernize some of my websites. I also need to update older webpages. I am not sure where this is all headed, but I prayed for God to give me wisdom. I may start a whole new domain name. I love computer science, but I'm just an amateur at it, which keeps it fun. I made some homemade pizza dough, which is now rising on the kitchen table as a speak, covered in a bowl. There's nothing like the smell of fresh rising yeast dough. [10]Here is my awesome pizza recipe if you'd like to try it . I do not sit around feeling sad about the unchangeable past, nor do I worry about the uncertain future. I choose to make the best of today, this moment, and do all that I can to [11]reach lost sinners with the Gospel.

One day at a time. My life will be over soon enough. I am ready to go in God's time. Being sad and alone, in pain of both body and soul, is no way to survive. All I can do is cry out to God and bathe my soul with the inspired King James Bible. But I rejoice in the PROMISES of God. I receive many emails from web visitors, and I can tell you that there are a lot of miserable and depressed people in this world. Preachers are sending America to Hell today, because of their love of money rather than love of the truth.

Despite my prison of bodily pain and hurting soul, Jesus has given me freedom. John 8:32 and 36, " And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free. ...

If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed.

2.2.17 How The Devil Removes Some Landmarks (2021-02-13 09:30)

“Thou shalt not remove thy neighbour’s landmark; which they of old time have set in thine inheritance, which thou shalt inherit in the land that the Lord thy God giveth thee to possess it.” —Deuteronomy 19:14

By [1]Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001)

I want to detail some of the wicked things on which God has placed a curse.

> “Cursed be he that maketh the blind to wander out of the way.” —Deuteronomy 27:18a

“Cursed be he that lieth with any manner of beast.” —Deuteronomy 27:21

The landmark was a piece of stone or metal that was placed between the property of two people. They did not have sophisticated ways of dividing property like we do today. The landmark was often moved, but not quickly, nor very far. It was moved gradually, while no one watched, or saw it, until finally property had been stolen.

Churches and schools do not decay immediately. It is a little bit today, a little bit tomorrow, and a little bit the next day. I want to explain how the Devil removes some landmarks.

I am not an intellectual, but I have made a study of Christian schools. Before Hyles-Anderson College was founded, I made trips to several cities for the purpose of finding what kind of institution the good schools were when they were founded. I was concerned about our school starting and staying right. I talked to people who were there when those schools started. I talked to faculty members, students and graduates to find out what they were like. I made a study of many of the older institutions. I wanted to find out what made schools slide and what made colleges decay.

I am going to make some observations about these.

1. The local church has been given the promise of divine perpetuity.

2. If the school is under the church, then the school has a perfect right to claim the same promise.

3. It is the job of the church to keep our schools straight.

How is that job to be carried out?

1. The preacher should always be the overseer.

Do not put an educator at the head of a Christian school. Colleges die when educators lead them. There are many Christian colleges that once had evangelists or pastors in charge, and when those men resigned, they called a suave educator, and soon the fire was gone. A pastor should be over the college and church, because the church must stay over the college.

2. Lay people must continually help police the institution.

I tell our faculty members at Hyles-Anderson College to let me know if changes are made at the college that I do not know about. I am referring to things that are changing from what they were meant to be. The pastor cannot be in all the classrooms. He cannot be at all the meetings and athletic games. The lay people must help him police the schools, so they do not change.

Let me show you what can happen.

In 1947, an inter-denominational seminary was founded. In 1982, thirty-five years after it was founded, a poll was taken of their students. Here are some of the shocking results.

Fifty percent were tolerant of drinking alcohol.

Fourteen percent believed there was a Hell.

Fifteen percent of the students believed the Bible to be infallible.

It does not have to happen, but can happen at Hammond Baptist schools and Hyles-Anderson College or any other Christian school or college.

Let me give you what my studies found. There are eleven things that caused the destruction of a school under the canopy of a church.

1. The church must not get tired of being warned.

Everybody in the church must walk guard as a sentinel around their schools, not to criticize, gossip, or to try to cause trouble, but to let the preacher know when something is changing. You are not the enforcer. That is the preacher's job. If the people try to enforce, the school will die, but, if the Preacher does not know, the school will also die.

2. We must reproduce ourselves.

Modern scholarship teaches that we must have a certain percentage of teachers from other universities and colleges. You cannot be accredited without doing that. At Hyles-Anderson College we are more interested in hiring professors with the right philosophies than we are with ones with the right credentials. A great pastor and the founder of a Bible college sat in a restaurant with me one day and said, "Dr. Hyles, you are doing something I wish I had done. I hired a music teacher who I thought was a good Christian. I found out a few days ago, that at night he is playing in a dance band in our city." He made the mistake of hiring by the world's standard of qualifications rather than the qualifications of the right Biblical philosophy.

Hyles-Anderson College has a unique purpose. No other school has the exact same purpose. Nobody knows that purpose better than the ones we have trained. Because of that, we usually hire our own. We do not want to dilute our purpose with hiring people from schools that have already decayed or are decaying. We will reproduce ourselves.

One of our administrators came rushing to me one day and told me that a famous Bible scholar was interested in teaching at Hyles-Anderson College. It was a man who at that time was probably one of the most famous theologians in America. I said, "At Hyles-Anderson College, we will not hire famous men, we will make famous men."

3. We must choose all faculty members who have Bible training.

Schools get the idea that an English teacher has to know only

English to be an English teacher. That is not the case. An English teacher in a Christian school needs to know the Bible as well. Nobody who does not know the Bible well should teach science in a Christian school. Nobody who does not know the Bible well should teach math in a Christian school. Everyone who teaches in a Christian college ought to know the Bible well enough to where he or she could teach Bible. It is not Christian education unless every teacher is a Bible student.

4. We must avoid the centrist position.

As the theological winds blow, changes come in the extreme positions. The centrist positions says that we will stay right in the middle of the extremes. The centrist position says, "We will take a safe position in between those extremes." An institution ought to decide where it is going to stand. Every time the wind blows and somebody changes, we should not change. Whatever clothing is right or wrong to wear is always right or wrong to wear. If Hollywood was once wrong, it is still wrong. If the Bible was once the Word of God, it is still the Word of God, and it will not change. God is looking for people who will not change.

Our position must not be set with regard to others. We must decide our own position. If certain standards are not popular and we lose students, let us not change the standards. You do not grow by letting down your standards; you grow by remaining faithful to your standards.

You should not try to be at any extreme. You should stand where you are supposed to stand. Forty years ago, when I started preaching, I was not very extreme. Today I am very extreme, but I have not changed. The position of the extremes have changed making me more extreme than I once was.

5. We must avoid searching for the truth.

We have already searched for the truth and found it. I am not in a search to see if the Bible is the Word of God. I have searched and found to my satisfaction that it is. It is not up for reexamination. The doctrines I believe today, I believed forty years ago. I decided then what I thought was right. I am not searching for the truth; I am proclaiming the truth!

Modem education does not like absolutes. To it, everything is relative. Our nation was built on absolutes. Every great empire was built on absolutes, and every great church was built on absolutes. When the absolutes leave, the growth also leaves.

6. Do not allow academic freedom.

A person should not have the freedom in an institution to teach anything he believes. He should teach what that institution believes. Institutions are built by the sacrifice of individuals who believed in something enough to start the institution in order to perpetuate it. Some professor who has never built anything should not be allowed to come in and teach whatever he or she pleases.

7. Have no double standard between students and faculty.

The faculty members ought be as good soul winners as the students are. The faculty members ought work as hard for Jesus as the students do. The teachers and leaders ought to be the example in involvement with the soul-winning ministry of the church. They ought to build great bus routes and bring their converts down the aisles. They ought to live by the same standards and convictions that the students do.

8. Every employed person in every school ought to be involved actively in the work of the local church.

The church is more important than the school. When the church loses control of the school, the school is gone. The Vice President of Hyles-Anderson College has a bus route. That is the way that it always ought to be. If the college withdraws its interest and activity in the church, then the college is not a part of that which governs the church.

9. Student leadership destroys colleges.

Hyles-Anderson College has no student body president, student body government, or student body newspaper. The heathen, wicked, humanist institutions have campus newspapers that feel free to criticize and rebuke their president or chancellor. They have articles that call for the firing of certain faculty members. I do not believe in that for a Christian school. I believe in administration government.

10. Keep the chapel hot.

Nothing will destroy the Christian school any faster than allowing the chapel to lose its fervor and become a place of preaching style rather than preaching power.

11. We must not let the standards slip.

When standards begin to slip, the school will begin to slide away from the purpose for which it was founded. We must not let our standards slip. If the student body decreases because of the standards, we should still stay with the standards with which we started. Nobody is supposed to decide our standards for us. I did not get in this business for America to like me. I got in it because I thought we ought to take a stand for what was right and against what was wrong.

In 1970 we started a school in an old dilapidated building. Our church raised $65,000 cash, remodeled that building, and started Hammond Baptist High School. The next year we started Hammond Baptist Grade School. The next year Hyles-Anderson College was founded. If we deteriorate as fast as the aforementioned seminary did, in fifteen more years we will not believe the Bible is the Word of God, and we will not believe in a Hell, and half of us will not believe that liquor is wrong!

Every school that has deteriorated did so by allowing one or more of these eleven things to enter. We must guard the schools with our lives for the sake of our children.

2.2.18 There Has Always Been Only One Plan Of Salvation (2021-02-14 09:30)

To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins.

The following very helpful truths are being quoted from Dr. John R. Rice’s invaluable verse-by-verse Bible commentary titled, “

Acts: Filled With The Spirit,

> All Prophets Preach the Same Savior, the Same Plan of Salvation
>
> Not only are the Apostles witnesses of the life, death and resurrection of Jesus, and above five hundred other witnesses who saw Him after His resurrection, but “all the prophets,” that is, every prophet in the Old Testament as well as the new Testament times, bears witness to the same Saviour and the same plan of salvation!
> There are some who think that the Old Testament saints were saved by animal sacrifices and the ceremonies of the law. They are utterly mistaken. The sacrifices and ceremonies of the Old Testament were simply object lessons pointing to Christ and salvation by faith in Him. Baptism now pictures that one is buried in the likeness of Christ’s death and raised in the likeness of His resurrection (Rom. 6:4, 5), and those that take the Lord’s Supper in the bread and cup “do shew the Lord’s death till he come” (I Cor. 11:26). So Old Testament sacrifices taught the same thing, that salvation is only through Christ. Every prophet in the Old Testament pictures Christ. So Jesus could preach to Nicodemus the Gospel from Numbers 21:5-9, about the serpents in the Wilderness. So Philip could preach to the Ethiopian eunuch from Isaiah 53:4-6, preaching the same Saviour and the same Gospel. It was this Saviour whom Abraham saw and believed in (John 8:56; Rom, 4:3). It was by faith in this Jesus that “Abel offered unto God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain,” the firstling of his flock which pictured an atoning Saviour. It is Christ and salvation by faith in His shed blood that is pictured in the passover.
> There are those hyper-dispensationalists who think that John the Baptist preached a different Gospel from Christ when he commanded repentance (Matt. 3:2). But it is the same repentance Jesus commanded in Matthew 4:17, in Luke 13:3 and 5, and the same repentance that Paul preached in Athens that God “now commandeth all men every where to repent” (Acts 17:30 31). Repentance is not a different plan of salvation from having faith: it is part of the same plan of salvation. Or rather repentance is simply another way of describing or looking at the plan of salvation. One who turns from sin to God has done so by trusting in Jesus Christ. A change of mind toward sin is necessarily involved in saving faith.
> Everyone who genuinely repented under the preaching of John the Baptist put his trust in the Saviour John the Baptist preached, and was regenerated. There is no such thing as being “a disciple of John the Baptist” in any honest sense without being a disciple of Jesus, that is, without trusting Christ for salvation.

There are those who think that Peter in Acts 2:38 and 39 preached that baptism was essential to salvation when he said, “Repent and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost.” But the phrase “for the remission of sins” could well be translated “referring to the remission of sins” for the indefinite preposition of reference and so used many, many times in the Bible. People are not baptized in order to be saved, but baptized with reference to the salvation they had when they repented. So it has always been among Bible-believing Christians who follow the Scriptures.

So here in Acts 10:43 we have the statement by Peter, “To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins.” Get this great doctrinal matter settled: God has only one plan of salvation and that is all He ever had! He has only one Saviour, and that is Jesus Christ. Every Old and New Testament prophet agrees in this that “whosoever believeth in him shall have remission of sins.”

For emphasis, I want to repeat a paragraph of what you just read, because it is so crucial. I am going to highlight some portions, which I want you to see clearly...

There are some who think that the Old Testament saints were saved by animal sacrifices and the ceremonies of the law. They are utterly mistaken. The sacrifices and ceremonies of the Old Testament were simply object lessons pointing to Christ and salvation by faith in Him. Baptism now pictures that one is buried in the likeness of Christ’s death and raised in the likeness of His resurrection (Rom. 6:4, 5), and those that take the Lord’s Supper in the bread and cup “do shew the Lord’s death till he come” (I Cor. 11:26). So Old Testament sacrifices taught the same thing, that salvation is only through Christ. Every prophet in the Old Testament pictures Christ. So Jesus could preach to Nicodemus the Gospel from Numbers 21:5-9, about the serpents in the Wilderness. So Philip could preach to the Ethiopian eunuch from Isaiah 53:4-6, preaching the same Saviour and the same Gospel. It was this Saviour whom Abraham saw and believed in (John 8:56; Rom, 4:3). It was by faith in this Jesus that “Abel offered unto God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain,” the firstling of his flock which pictured an atoning Saviour. It is Christ and salvation by faith in His shed blood that is pictured in the passover. [emphasis added]

There is a growing number of false teachers on the internet, especially YouTube. They are; namely, Dr. Peter S. Ruckman, Pastor Gene Kim, Bryan Denlinger, Chett Hensley, Dr. William P.

Grady and Robert Breaker. These men all falsely teach that people were saved by faith PLUS WORKS in the Old Testament. They also claim that people will again in the future be saved by faith PLUS WORKS during the Tribulation and Millennial periods. Bryan Denlinger preaches hardcore Lordship Salvation today as well. I 100 % agree with Dr. John R. Rice in that "They are utterly mistaken."

The Old Testament ceremonials laws were OBJECT LESSONS, just like the Lord's Supper and water baptism today, which have no special grace nor saving power. No one was ever saved by faith PLUS WORKS at any time in human civilization, nor ever will be. Galatians 3:9-11, " So then they which be of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham. For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse: for it is written, Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them. But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, The just shall live by faith." Not one verse, neither in the Old or New Testaments, teach that salvation has ever been by anything other than faith. The prophet Habakkuk bears witness in Habakkuk 2:4b that "the just shall live by his faith.

Jesus Taught Nicodemus The Gospel From Numbers

This is amazing. To teach Nicodemus the Gospel (Good News), Jesus used the book of Numbers...

> Numbers 21:5-9, "
>
> And the people spake against God, and against Moses, Wherefore have ye brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? for there is no bread, neither is there any water; and our soul loatheth this light bread.
>
> And the LORD sent fiery serpents among the people, and they bit the people; and much people of Israel died.
>
> Therefore the people came to Moses, and said, We have sinned, for we have spoken against the LORD, and against thee; pray unto the LORD, that he take away the serpents from us. And Moses prayed for the people.
>
> And the LORD said unto Moses, Make thee a fiery serpent, and set it upon a pole: and it shall come to pass, that every one that is bitten, when he looketh upon it, shall live*.
>
> And Moses made a serpent of brass, and put it upon a pole, and it came to pass, that if a serpent had bitten any man, when he beheld the serpent of brass, he lived.

God was teaching the Old Testament Jews (and humanity through the Scriptures - Romans 15:4), through Moses' preaching (Hebrews 4:2), and the ceremonial laws (Hebrews 10:1), that

"whosoever believeth in him shall have remission of sins" (Acts 10:43b).

Read here what Jesus said to Nicodemus, and see how the Lord used the book of Numbers to expound him concerning Himself.

John 3:14-16, “And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up:

That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life.

For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

” God intentionally instructed Moses to pound some brass metal into the shape of a serpent, and to raise that serpent high on a pole, so that whoever looked to the serpent lived. That is so beautiful. What does it mean?

We find the answer in 2nd Corinthians 5:21,

“For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him.” The sinless only begotten Son of God, became as sin Himself; so that we sinful humans, who knew no righteousness, could be made the righteousness of God through faith in Christ. Philippians 3:9,

And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:

” That brass snake which Moses raised up on a pole symbolized our dear Savior, Who became as sin on the cross, bearing the reproach and shame of our sins. The sinless Lamb of God suffered vicariously (as our substitute) on the cross; paying a debt He did not owe, because we owed a debt we could not pay! John 1:29, “

The next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world.

The very notion that people were saved under the Mosaic law by faith plus works violates umpteen scripture passages, including the ones we just read from Numbers and John. All God wanted the Israelites to is to LOOK AND LIVE! What saith the Scripture? Isaiah 45:22, “Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth: for I am God, and there is none else.

” The way of salvation has always been to LOOK TO THE SAVIOR!!!

2.2.19 Bring Forth Fruits Meet For Repentance (2021-02-15 09:30)

Matthew 3:1-12, “

In those days came John the Baptist, preaching in the wilderness of Judaea,

And saying, Repent ye: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

For this is he that was spoken of by the prophet Esaias, saying, The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

And the same John had his raiment of camel’s hair, and a leathern girdle about his loins; and his meat was locusts and wild honey.

Then went out to him Jerusalem, and all Judaea, and all the region round about Jordan,

And were baptized of him in Jordan, confessing their sins.

But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees come to his baptism, he said unto them, O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

Bring forth therefore fruits meet for repentance:

And think not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham*.

And now also the axe is laid unto the root of the trees: therefore every tree which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance: but he that cometh after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear: he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost, and with fire:

Whose fan is in his hand, and he will throughly purge his floor, and gather his wheat into the garner; but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire.

There is much misunderstanding about this passage of Scripture. What exactly did John the Baptist mean when he said: “Bring forth fruits therefore meet for repentance”? The Devil is a beautiful liar! Since the beginning of human civilization, the Devil has subtly done all he can to corrupt the Gospel (i.e., the way of salvation), by embellishing (obscuring) it with adding or subtracting from what God requires to be saved. I recently did [1]a very fruitful Bible study about the PROMISE of eternal life, which God made before the world began (Titus 1:2).

It saddens me how preachers will cherry-pick the Scriptures, lifting texts out of context to create a new pretext, corrupting the Word of God. The key to understanding Matthew 3:8 is to simply examine the surrounding verses. The word “therefore” is always THERE FOR a reason! Therefore is an adverb that means “as a consequence,” “as a result,” or “hence.” So we must look at verse 7 carefully. John asked the Jewish religious leaders (Sadducees and Pharisees) who warned them of the wrath to come. Clearly John is referring to Hell, which he implies in verse 10 as well. The wages of sin is death, which includes the second death in Hell (Romans 6:23; Revelation 20:12-15; 21:8).

John was showing the people the way of salvation. So here comes the unsaved religious crowd, who are self-righteous (and John fully knew it). John knew well the doctrine of the Sadducees and Pharisees. John was essentially saying to them the same thing that Jesus said in Matthew 5:20, “ For I say unto you, That except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven.” Just like Roman Catholics, Mormons, Jehovah’s Witnesses and the Lordship Salvation (Calvinist) crowd today, they were all self-righteous! To some extent, they all pervert the grace of God, requiring something different than what God does to be redeemed. Whereas God requires faith alone, the Jewish religious leaders required keeping the law of Moses (Acts 15:1). Romans 3:20 teaches that no one can be saved by keeping the Old Testament law.

Also, please notice Matthew 3:9, in which John the Baptist rebukes the religious Jews, for thinking that they were automatically going to Heaven because they were Jews. John tells them that God could raise up literal stones as descendants of Abraham if He wanted to. Why should that be surprising, considering that every human is made of the dust of the earth (Genesis 2:7). God created mankind from dirt. So God could certainly make some rocks into Jews. Is there anything too hard for the Lord? No! God can do anything that doesn’t violate His holy character!

John the Baptist was exposing the [2]fallacy that Jews are somehow a superior Master Race, as some wayward theologians like Dr. William P. Grady errantly teach. It is bizarre! I love Jewish people and Gentiles alike. So it is not a criticism of the Jews to refute the heresy that they are somehow the Master Race! It is simply not true. God initially chose the Jewish people as His ambassadors to the Gentile world (Exodus 19:5-6), but they refused, so God turned to the Gentiles to preach the Gospel instead (Romans 11), which the Gentiles have done. God chose the nation of Israel for a specific task, but that doesn't make them the Master Race. The Bible plainly teaches in Acts 17:26a that God "hath made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth..." There is only one human race! Jews are no better than anyone else, nor do they have their own unique plan of salvation. John 3:3, "Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God."

So in Matthew 5:7, John emphasizes that the Jewish religious leaders are guilty sinners on their way to burn in Hell, suffering God's coming wrath. John even calls them "vipers" (snakes). Snakes are subtle creatures, both venomous and sly. A snake's movements are subtle and harder to detect by their prey. Luke 11:44, " Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye are as graves which appear not, and the men that walk over them are not aware of them." False religion is like a false floor in [3]a Mexican mineshaft which descends 550 feet into the darkness.

And then in Matthew 5:9, John tells the Jewish religious leaders THE TRUTH that their ethnicity cannot save them! Folks, I have heard some bizarre things taught by Zionist pastors over the years. Case in point is [4]Pastor James Modlish , who [5]said he wanted to hire a Jewish man , to go out into New York City and witness only to Jewish people, so that God would bless his church. That sounds more like like a strange episode of The Outer Limits! Or perhaps [6]The Twilight Zone . I am not trying to be unkind nor disrespectful of anyone. I am simply showing you dear reader that Gentiles are just as important to God as are Jews. Kindly said, it is absurd for Pastor Modlish to think that God would bless his ministry more, for witnessing to Jews, than to Gentiles. The Bible plainly teaches again and again that God is no respecter of persons (Acts 10:34; Romans 2:11; James 2:1), and that there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek (Romans 10:12). Christian believers (regardless of who they are or where they came from) are all one in Jesus Christ (Galatians 3:29).

Having said all that as introduction, to properly exegete the true meaning of Matthew 3:8, we can only soundly conclude that John the Baptist was not teaching that a person must turn from sinful behavior to be saved, nor to prove they are saved. Sadly, many preachers misinterpret Matthew 3:8 to teach the heresy of Lordship Salvation. They claim that someone is not saved unless they have "

This is a false gospel. Not one verse in the Holy Bible (if you have an inspired King James Bible), teaches to repent of your sin

turn away from your sin

Since the Bible does not teach such things, incompetent ministers “wrest” (Greek: strebloo, “to torture” - 2nd Peter 3:16-17) the Scripture to their own destruction. The proponents of Lordship Salvation torture obscure passages of Scripture, which blatantly contradict clear ones which teach salvation by faith alone. This is theological incompetence! Kindly said, [7]I am talking about the Bob Jones University crowd, who pervert the grace of God, requiring people to turn from their sins to receive God’s free gift of eternal life. How then is it a gift?

So what did John the Baptist mean in Matthew 3:8. I have painfully exegeted the verses before and after verse 8, to show you clearly what John really meant. The religious leaders were self-righteous. Mark 2:16-17, “And when the scribes and Pharisees saw him eat with publicans and sinners, they said unto his disciples, How is it that he eateth and drinketh with publicans and sinners? When Jesus heard it, he saith unto them, They that are whole have no need of the physician, but they that are sick: I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance. ” This is what John meant. The religious leaders needed to repent of their self-righteousness! That is as clear as day my friend.

You don’t have to stop shacking up with your girlfriend in fornication to be saved, nor do you have stop abusing yourself with drugs and alcohol to be saved, nor do you have to stop stealing from your employer to receive God’s free gift of eternal life. These are horrible sins according to the Bible (1st Corinthians 6:9-10). We “SHOULD” live godly in Christ Jesus (Titus 2:12). We ought to depart from iniquity because we are saved, not to be saved (2nd Timothy 2:19; Ephesians 2:10; Romans 3:31). It is very important to notice that John didn’t say to bring forth “ works,

fruit

” meet (or as a result) of repentance. That fruit would have been faith alone in Jesus Christ.

The religious leaders hadn’t repented yet, which is why they were still in darkness, blinded by their false religion of keeping the law. Repentance is acknowledging the truth (2nd Timothy 2:25). It is a change of mind. 2nd Timothy 2:25-26,

“ In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth; And that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will.” That is all repentance is, and has ever been

—acknowledging THE TRUTH!!! When a man acknowledges THE TRUTH, he gets saved. That is how you get saved, by embracing the TRUTH OF THE GOSPEL. Colossians 1:5, “ For the hope which is laid up for you in heaven, whereof ye heard before in the word of the truth of the gospel;”

By God’s wondrous grace I have been saved now for 40 years. I got saved at 13 years of age, at the Northland Baptist Church on Chicago’s northside in 1980. The preacher was a Hyles-Anderson College graduate. I don’t recall the name of the sermon, or even the topic. All I remember is that the pastor said if you don’t have the Holy Spirit living inside you, convicting you about the sin in your life, you are not saved. I knew immediately that I didn’t have the Holy Spirit living in me, and I had no conviction about my sins up until then. So I quietly got saved in my pew at the end of the service, receiving Jesus Christ as my personal Savior.

The thought of turning away from my sins never crossed my mind. No such thought was involved in my salvation. I simply knew that I was a needy sinner, deserving of hellfire, and that Jesus is the One Who could save me. I believed that Christ died on the cross for my sins, and knew that I was calling out from my soul to a risen and living Savior to save me (and He did). Getting saved is a simple matter of childlike faith in Jesus Christ (Galatians 3:26).

I am done with explaining Matthew 3:8. I am 100 % confident that what I have just taught you is solid fundamental Bible doctrine. I would stake my life on it! Nowhere does the Bible tell anyone to “

to be saved. We must not only reject such nonsense, but expose it wherever Lordship Salvation rears its ugly head. The Sadducees and Pharisees came to be baptized by John, but he refused. Why? It is because they weren’t sick, just like Jesus said in Mark 2:16-17. They were self-righteous. They failed to see their need for Christ, because they refused to see themselves as guilty sinners.

That is why John called them vipers, and spoke of God’s wrath to come. John was wisely addressing them as woeful sinners, because that is what they desperately needed to hear. Whereas the common people came confessing their sins ” (verse 5) , the religious leaders did not. Repentance is necessary for salvation, but repentance means a change of mind. Repentance is the acknowledgment of THE TRUTH that one is a guilty sinner in the sight of a holy God (Romans 3:19), so they will put their faith in the wonderful Savior (Galatians 3:26).

“He [God] did everything, so that you would have to do nothing, except receive it as a free gift! And God says, ’I love you so much that I gave My Son to pay for your sins. Will you believe it? And if you will (believe/ trust, used interchangeably in the Bible), will you simply believe that Jesus Christ died for you? And God says, ’If you’ll do that, I’ll promise you on the authority of My Word, that you’ll never perish, but you’ll have everlasting life!”’ —Pastor Max D. 2.2.20 False Bibles—An Enemy of Soul Winning (2021-02-16 01:29)

2nd Corinthians 2:17, “ For we are not as many, which corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ. ” Proverbs 30:5-6, “Every word of God is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him. Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar.”

by [2]Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001)

(Chapter 1 from Dr. Hyles book, [3]Enemies of Soul-Winning)

In order to live as a child of God, I must have a perfect Bible. Matthew 4:4, "But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God." Notice the words, "every word."

If I have my prayers answered, I must have a perfect Bible. John 15:7, "If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you." That means that somewhere in the world, there has to be a perfect Bible.

God has told us that His words are pure. Psalm 12:6, "The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times."

God has told us that these pure words would be preserved forever. Psalm 12:7, "Thou shalt keep them, 0 LORD, thou shalt preserve them for this generation forever." Since today is a part of forever, somewhere in the world there must be pure words of God. Hence, it does not satisfy me for someone to say that only in the original do we have the pure words of God. Since there are no original manuscripts today, or for that matter, there are no manuscripts even near the original manuscripts as far as time is concerned, then what these people are saying is that we do not have anywhere today any book that contains the pure words of God. Yet, I am commanded to preach the Word.

II Timothy 4:2, "Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine."

Now since the words of God are pure, and since all of the so-called Bibles do not have the same words, only one can be the real Bible that contains the very words of God, the pure words of God, and the preserved words of God. The purpose of this chapter is not to enter into a discussion about the Textus Receptus or Westcott-Hort; it is simply to say that if God commanded me to preach His Word, He would have to give me His Word to preach, and certainly His Word is pure, because the words of God are pure according to the aforementioned Scriptures and will be preserved forever. This preacher believes that those preserved words are in the Bible that I hold in my right hand at this very moment-the King James Bible!

I have more respect for the person who says that one of the false Bibles contains the very words of God than for a person who says only the original contains the very words of God. At least he believes, though wrongly, that we still have the words of God which are pure. For many, many reasons I believe that the King James Bible has been preserved in the English language word-for-word. I have to believe that. I must have the words of God, if I live, if I preach and if I get my prayers answered.

1. There are some things that are incorruptible.

The word "incorruptible" means "perfect," "cannot change," "cannot be improved." If you change something, it must go to perfection or from perfection, so if something can be changed, it must have been imperfect and been made perfect, or it must have been perfect and made imperfect. Let us notice some things that are incorruptible.

(1) God.

Romans 1:23, "And changed the glory of the incorruptible God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and fourfooted beasts, and creeping things."

This means God is perfect. He cannot be improved; He cannot change. He cannot be taken from imperfection to perfection or from perfection to imperfection.

(2) Our future crown. I Corinthians 9:25, "And every man that striveth for the mastery is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown; but we an incorruptible." Once the crown is received, it cannot be improved; it cannot change. It will be perfect.

(3) Our glorified bodies. I Corinthians 15:52, "In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed." I John 3:2 "Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is." Notice that our glorified body will be like His, and it will be incorruptible. His glorified body is incorruptible. You cannot improve it; you cannot change it. Then, my glorified body will be incorruptible. It cannot be improved; it cannot be changed.

(4) Our inheritance. I Peter 1:4, "To an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you." Our inheritance will be perfect. It cannot be improved; it cannot be changed.

(5) The Word of God. I Peter 1:23, "Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth forever." Psalm 126:6, "He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him." Luke 8:11, "Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God." You will notice the seed from which we are born again is incorruptible. It is the Word of God, which liveth and abideth forever. Consequently, you cannot improve it; you cannot change it. If you do, you must go from imperfection or to imperfection. Notice in I Peter 1:23 it is called "incorruptible." Just as God is incorruptible, just as our crown is incorruptible, just as our glorified body will be incorruptible, just as Jesus' body is incorruptible, just as our inheritance is incorruptible; likewise, the Word of God is incorruptible.

Notice in Psalm 126:6, it is "precious seed." This implies that there is some seed which is not precious. Luke 8:11 teaches us that this seed is the Word of God. It is perfect; it cannot be changed; it cannot be improved.

2. The words of God are the genes of regeneration.

Titus 3:5, "Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost." Actually the word "regeneration" means "to be re-gened." Just as the genes of my parents brought my old nature into existence, even so the genes of God brought my new nature into existence. Your old nature is sinful because there was sin in the genes, but the genes of the Word of God are incorruptible, meaning that which is born of God; that is, the new nature, cannot sin.

Now if the very words of God must be pure, and if in fact the King James Bible contains the preserved words of God, then any other words are not the words of God. This means that the Revised Version is not precious seed because it is not incorruptible. This means that the Good News for Modern Man is not precious seed, because it is not incorruptible. This means that the Living Bible is not precious seed because it is not incorruptible. This means that the Reader's Digest Bible is not precious seed, because it is not incorruptible. This means that the New King James Bible is not precious seed because it is not incorruptible. This means that the New Scofield Bible is not precious seed, because it is not incorruptible. This means that the New International Version (NIV) is not precious seed, and it is not incorruptible. This means that the American Standard Version is not precious seed because it is not incorruptible. If the versions do not agree, then all of them cannot be the very words of God that have been preserved for us.

3. The genes of the new birth must be incorruptible.

I Peter 1:23, "Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever." These words were penned in the first century, but it says that the incorruptible seed "liveth and abideth for ever." Since today is a part of "for ever," we must have the incorruptible seed in order to be re-gened, or regenerated, or born again.

4. Suppose corruptible seed is used.

Can a person then be born again from it? You answer that question. According to I Peter 1:23 we read, "Being born again, not of corruptible seed...." Then, if corruptible seed is used, one cannot be born again. I have a conviction as deep as my soul that every English-speaking person who has ever been born again was born of incorruptible seed; that is, the King James Bible. Does that mean that if someone goes soul winning and takes a false Bible that the person who receives Christ is not saved? I believe with all of my soul that the incorruptible seed must have been used somewhere in that person's life. If all a person has ever read is the Revised Standard Version, he cannot be born again, because corruptible seed is used, and I Peter 1:23 is very plain to tell us that a person cannot be born again of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible seed, and it explains that that incorruptible seed is the Word of God, and it explains that it liveth and abideth forever.

This is also borne out in Psalm 19:7, "The law of the LORD is perfect, converting the soul: the testimony of the LORD is sure, making wise the simple." Notice the words, "the law of the LORD is perfect, converting the soul." It is the law of the Lord that converts. It is the Word of God that regenerates. The Word is the seed, and the seed must be incorruptible.

*Note: Points 5 and 6 are missing from the original book, which I own.

7. The perfect Word of God must be used if a person grows in grace.

1 Peter 2:2, "As newborn babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby." Notice that it is the "sincere" Word of God by which we grow in grace. So, to grow in grace, we must have the sincere (pure) Word of God.

This same thing is taught in Deuteronomy 4:10, 36, "Specially the day that thou stoodest before the LORD thy God in Horeb, when the Lord said unto me, Gather me the people together, and I will make them hear my words, that they may learn to fear me all the days that they shall live upon the earth, and that they may teach their children. Out of heaven he made thee to hear his voice, that he might instruct thee: and upon earth he shewed thee his great fire; and thou heardest his words out of the midst of the fire."

Notice the words of God are what teach us, and from the words of God we are to be instructed. If they are in fact words of God, they must be pure, because a pure God could not give impure words, and an incorruptible God could not give corruptible words.

8. These words of God are perfect. There are several things in the Bible that are called perfect.

(1) His work is perfect. Deuteronomy 32:4, "He is the Rock, his work is perfect: for all his ways are judgment: a God of truth and without iniquity, just and right is he."

(2) His way is perfect. Psalm 18:30, "As for God, his way is perfect: the word of the Lord is tried: he is a buckler to all those that trust in him."

(3) The Heavenly Father is perfect. Matthew 5:48, "Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect."

(4) The glorified body will be perfect. I Corinthians 13:10, "But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away.

(5) The law of the Lord is perfect. Psalm 19:7, "The law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul: the testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple." So we must have an incorruptible, perfect Word of God. To say that this could be found only in the original manuscripts is to say we have no words of God today that are perfect, which means we have no perfect Book to preach, we have no perfect Book to read, we have no perfect Book by which to grow, and we have no perfect Seed by which we can be born again or re-gened or regenerated.

9. There are several ways that the words of God are made into impure words by translators and theologians (self-styled).

(1) They add to the Word of God. Proverbs 30:5, 6, "Every word of God is pure; he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him. Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar." Notice several things in these verses. First, every word of God is pure. Psalm 119:140, "Thy word is very pure: therefore thy servant loveth it." Psalm 12:6, "The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times." Psalm 19:8, "The statutes of the LORD are right, rejoicing the heart: the commandment of the LORD is pure, enlightening the eyes." Second, in Proverbs 30:6, we are told not to add to these words. Third, in verse 6 the Bible says that He reproves those who do add to His words.

Then in verse 6 also, the Bible says that those who do add to His words are liars.

Now notice Deuteronomy 4:2a, "Ye shall not add unto the word which I command you...." We are commanded not to add to His Word.

(2) They take away from the words of God. Deuteronomy 4:2, "Ye shall not add unto the word which I command you, neither shall ye diminish ought from it, that ye may keep the commandments of the Lord your God which I command you." God plainly commands that we not diminish His Word.

Now notice Revelation 22:19, "And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book." A stern rebuke and warning is given to anyone who takes away from the words of God. This means that God's judgment will rest upon those who try to give us a condensed Bible.

(3) They will try to change the Word of God. Jeremiah 26:2, "Thus saith the Lord; Stand in the court of the LORD'S house, and speak unto all the cities of Judah, which come to worship in the LORD'S house, all the words that I command thee to speak unto them; diminish not a word." Here we have a command not to diminish one word. It is not talking here necessarily about taking words away but changing a word or diminishing a word. Let the translators of the many versions take heed and take warning.

In conclusion, one may ask, "What does this have to do with soul winning?" Beloved, it has everything to do with soul winning. If the words of God are the incorruptible seed, and if seed must be incorruptible, if someone is born again, then the soul winner must have a perfect Bible. Thank God, we do!

2.2.21 Should We Pray For God's Judgment Upon The Wicked? (2021-02-17 09:30)

2nd Corinthians 5:18-20, "

And all things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation;

To wit, that God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation.

Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God.

Our wicked nation mocks God. Whereas God requires the death penalty (Leviticus 22:14), in the state of [1]Maryland there is a fine for $10 for adultery. It makes me angry. It is wickedness that Americans are so tolerant of wickedness (legalized abortion, legalized homosexual marriages, sodomites adopting children, smut everywhere we turn, corporate theft, et cetera). As a God-fearing Christian I find myself sometimes praying imprecatory prayers (prayers for God to punish the wicked). David prayed for God to knock someone's teeth out! Psalms 58:6, "Break their teeth, O God, in their mouth: break out the great teeth of the young lions, O LORD." I sometimes long to see God's hand of severe judgment fall upon America for our wickedness! This is normal for a righteous person to feel.

However, Jesus didn't come into the world to condemn the world (John 3:17), but to save it (Luke 19:10). I admit that a part of me wants to see the fiery one hour anhelation of the United States, which I believe is prophesied in Revelation chapter 18. We sure deserve it! America spits on the holy God of the Bible. Since 1973 Americans have murdered 60,000,000 human lives by abortion. It is wickedness! So says the Word of God (Exodus 20:13).

Albeit, Jesus told His disciples not to pray for fire and brimstone to come down upon the wicked. As believers our mindset should be the same as Christ's, seeking their redemption. ...

> Luke 9:54-56, "And it came to pass, when the time was come that he should be received up, he stedfastly set his face to go to Jerusalem, And sent messengers before his face: and they went, and entered into a village of the Samaritans, to make ready for him. And they did not receive him, because his face was as though he would go to Jerusalem. And when his disciples James and John saw this, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we command fire to come down from heaven, and consume them, even as Elias did? But he turned, and rebuked them, and said, Ye know not what manner of spirit ye are of. For the Son of man is not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them. And they went to another village."

It is God's place alone to avenge and destroy (Romans 12:19-21). Our part is to share the Lord's burden for men's souls. It is easy as a Bible preacher to want to see the world burn for their rebellion against God, but our dear Savior teaches us to pursue compassion, love, mercy; and continue to reconcile lost sinners to God with the power of the Gospel (Romans 1:16). What saith the Scripture? ...

2nd Corinthians 5:18-21, "And all things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation; To wit, that God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation. Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God. For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him."

We reconcile lost sinners to God with the preaching of the Gospel (i.e., the Good News) of the Lord Jesus Christ. Romans 5:1-2, "

Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ:

By whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God.

" So when you find yourself like I do, desiring to see the judgment of God come upon a wicked out of control society, remember that Jesus came into the world, not to destroy people's lives, but to SAVE THEM. Luke 19:10, "For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost.

John 3:17, "For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved."

2.2.22 Refuting The Calvinist Heresy Of Limited Atonement (2021-02-18 09:30)

1st John 2:1-2, "My little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous: And he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world."

Limited Atonement is the false teaching that Jesus Christ only died for the saints. We know this is theologically wrong simply from examining our text passage in 1st John 2:2. I love big theological words in the Bible like imputation, sanctification and propitiation. The word "propitiation" means "to appease one's wrath." It is through Jesus' sacrifice on the cross that man can obtain peace with God, appeasing the wrath of a holy God against all sinners. Romans 5:1-2, "Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ: By whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God." Jesus is the one Mediator between God and men, in Whom we obtain peace with God. 1st Timothy 2:5-6, "For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus; Who gave himself a ransom for all, to be testified in due time." Only through Jesus can anyone be saved!

The heresy of Limited Atonement is commonly taught as part of [1]five false doctrines popularized by [2]John Calvin (1483-1546) in the 16th century. John Calvin (1483-1546) was an unsaved reprobate and a heretic. Calvin taught [3]Baptismal Regeneration (the false doctrine that water baptism is required for salvation). Calvin was wrong on many doctrinal issues, including Limited Atonement. If Christ only died for believers, then why would He have wasted His time trying to convert the unbelieving Pharisees and Scribes? I mean, if God chooses who will or won't be saved, then why bother to go soul-winning? Why bother to try to get anybody saved? Yet, the Scriptures teach us to be "fishers of men." Matthew 4:19, "And he saith unto them, Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men." Isn't that beautiful?

I am going to give you a Bible verse that IRREFUTABLY proves Jesus died for ALL mankind, and NOT just for the church. Many foolish believers have bought into lie that Jesus didn't die for those who go to Hell. Nothing could be further from the truth. Jesus Christ shed His blood for ALL mankind. 2nd Peter 2:1, "But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction." Did you read that? ... "Even DENYING THE LORD THAT BOUGHT THEM."

According to the Calvinist heresy of "Limited Atonement," Jesus only redeemed those whom He knew would one day get saved. The Word of God never teaches limited atonement. On the contrary, the Bible states: "And he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world." How could anyone teach that Christ only died for certain sinners, when we're ALL sinners?

2nd Peter 2:1 is very clear. Jesus, with His blood, bought false prophets too! 2nd Peter 2:1b, "even denying the Lord that bought them..." Did you read that? ... "Even DENYING THE LORD THAT BOUGHT THEM."

If I buy you a gift for your birthday, that doesn't mean you have to accept it. You could reject my gift and refuse to accept it. This is exactly how salvation works. Romans 5:15b calls salvation a "free gift." Again we read in Romans 6:23b that eternal life is a "gift," paid for by Jesus' blood. God put forth salvation to mankind as a free gift, and all He asks of us is that we believe upon His only begotten Son, Jesus Christ, to be saved eternally.

Christ died, He was buried. He physically miraculously resurrected three days later from the dead for our sins. That is the "Gospel" according to 1st Corinthians 15:1-4. If you receive Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, then you are saved immediately and eternally. It is Jesus' precious blood that washes our sins away (1st Peter 1:18-19; 1st John 1:7; Revelation 1:5). We are born again by the Spirit of God (John 1:13), by faith in the seed of God's Word (1st Peter 1:23). The inspired King James Bible teaches in John 3:16, "FOR GOD SO LOVED THE WORLD, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life."

[4] The 5 Points Of Calvinism Refuted
(an awesome MP3 sermon by Pastor Steven L. Anderson)

Calvinists have a hard time understanding how God can love wicked, Christ-rejecting, sinners. Many people misunderstand that there are various types of love in the Bible. Two of them are the words [5]agape and phileo. God agapes (unconditionally loves) the world, which sent Christ to the cross to die for men's sins; but God only phileos (is fond of) those who receive Christ and obey Him. Agape is a choice. I choose to love everyone. Phileo is a feeling, a fondness. I am fond of my loved ones. God does not phileo the wicked. But God unconditionally agapes the world. Phileo is conditional. Agape is unconditional. Some preachers make fun of these Greek words, but they shouldn't, because the Bible uses these different Greek words for love.

The whole concept of God's love for mankind is that "...while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us" (Romans 5:8). For Calvinists to claim that Jesus only died for the saved, is to say that Jesus didn't love unsaved people enough to suffer the cross for them, or to die for them. 1st John 3:16, "Hereby perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren." Think about how selfish and cold it would be if God said to lost sinners: "I'll love you enough to die for you, IF you accept me as your Savior; but if you reject me, then I don't love you enough to suffer for you, and you mean nothing to me." Does God only love those that love Him? How shallow that would be.

(a helpful article by Pastor Bob Gray Sr.)

Was it not Jesus Himself who said in Matthew 5:26, "For if ye love them which love you, what reward have ye? do not even the publicans the same?" Only an ignorant or malicious person would teach Limited Atonement in lieu of Christ's plain teachings. Jesus would not contradict His teachings on love, by only loving those who love Him back. In contrast we read in 1st John 4:19, "We love him, because he first loved us." The whole idea of limited atonement is absurd.

Here's another Scripture which teaches that Christ is the Savior of all humanity. 1st Timothy 4:10, "For therefore we both labour and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe." Jesus is the Savior of ALL MEN—especially those that believe! How much clearer could the Bible be in this matter?

If Jesus didn't die for unsaved people, then how can we preach the love of God to them? No, Jesus died for ALL humanity, saved and unsaved alike, just as John 3:16 proclaims, "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life."

The Calvinist doctrine of 'Limited Atonement' is a LIE of the Devil;

Jesus died on the cross to pay for the sins of "EVERY MAN" . . .

> Hebrews 2:9, "But we see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honour; that he by the grace of God should taste death for every man."

2.2.23 Trust Takes Years To Earn, But Only Seconds To Lose (2021-02-19 09:30)

Proverbs 22:1,

A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches*, and loving favour rather than silver and gold.

Proverbs 25:19,

“

Confidence in an unfaithful man* in time of trouble is like a broken tooth, and a foot out of joint.

Hebrews 12:14-17, “Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord:

Looking diligently lest any man fail of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and thereby many be defiled;

Lest there be any fornicator, or profane person, as Esau, who for one morsel of meat sold his birthright. For ye know how that afterward, when he would have inherited the blessing, he was rejected: for he found no place of repentance, though he sought it carefully with tears.”

These are but a few of the hundreds of Scripture passages I could quote to speak about our topic of trust. Trust is something that must be earned, and it takes time. We earn someone’s trust by being honest, dependable and faithful. That is why the Bible says Proverbs 25:19, “Confidence in an unfaithful man in time of trouble is like a broken tooth, and a foot out of joint.” When Lot tried to warn his son-in-laws in Sodom of coming judgment, they laughed at him as one who mocked (Genesis 19:14). The reason why is simply because Lot was unfaithful in his Christian testimony. Lot lived a sinful life.

This explains Hebrews 12:14, “Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord:” You and I dear reader are the only “Jesus” that someone knows. I speak to the saints. That is 100 % Biblical. 2nd Corinthians 5:20, “Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ’s stead, be ye reconciled to God.” Every believer is commanded by God to be an ambassador (one who represents in the place of another) for Jesus Christ. Jesus is not here today, but we still are. Jesus is sitting on His throne in Heaven on the right-hand of the Father (Colossians 3:1). The Lord has passed the mantle of fishing for the souls of men to you and me, and every born-again believer. Sadly, very few churches today even go soulwinning. That is why Job said in Job 16:21, “ O that one might plead for a man with God, as a man pleadeth for his neighbour!”

I don’t live my life trying to earn people’s trust; but rather, I live in fear of God, so God will know that He can trust me. Luke 16:10, “

He that is faithful in that which is least is faithful also in much*: and he that is unjust in the least is unjust also in much.

” Luke 19:17, “

And he said unto him, Well, thou good servant: because thou hast been faithful in a very little, have thou authority over ten cities.

” God knows that I am faithful with very little. I have been faithful to preach THE TRUTH. I care about the little things. I pay attention to the details. I don’t claim to be a good Christian, but God knows that right doctrine matters to me, and people matter to me, and the purity of the Scriptures matter to me. I give a damn!

I am so sick of the Neo-evangelical crowd today, who are wishy-washy, going along to get along with the mainstream apostate evangelical movement in America. Humbly said, I wouldn’t give you a dime for the shallow Moody Bible Institute camp today. They use umpteen Bible versions. Do you know what happens when you use a bunch of Bibles, that are all worded a little differently? You get CONFUSION! Acts Acts 19:32, “

Some therefore cried one thing, and some another: for the assembly was confused; and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together.

” Truly a picture is worth 1,000 words...

You Cannot Trust The Devil’s Modern Bibles, Nor The Neo-evangelicals Who Use, Sell And Bid Godspeed To Them!

I wouldn’t give you a dime for the shallow Bob Jones University (BJU) camp today, who sanction umpteen Bible revisions. Truth doesn’t matter to them! As the Devil publishes more Bibles each year, [2]BJU is sinfully silent on the sidelines, A.W.O.L. from [3]The Battle Of The Ages! The love of money (prioritizing making a living over truth and righteousness) is the root of all evil. The Moody Bible Institute (MBI), Pensacola Christian College (PCC) and Bob Jones University (BJU) camps today just want to collect their paychecks, avoiding anything controversial. So they drive in the middle of the road, refusing to suffer reproach for the name of Christ, refusing to be put outside the gate with Jesus.

God cares about the details and so should we friend. We are warned in Matthew 12:36 that in eternity God will hold all men accountable for their words. Matthew 12:36, “But I say unto you, That every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment.”

Do you honestly think then, that God does not care if men change His Words, literally publishing HUNDREDS of English Bible revisions, that all say something different? [4]By U.S. law, in order to obtain a legal copyright, translators MUST butcher God’s Word to ensure that “[5]changes are substantial and creative, something more than just editorial changes or minor changes.” The Bible publishing industry have lost the trust of the churches! Shameful religious institutions like Moody Bible Institute and Bob Jones University have lost the trust of parents who want what’s best for their children. You cannot trust any institution that promotes using multiple Bible versions at the same time. What theological incompetence!

There is a popular sign I’ve seen displayed in store which reads: “In God we trust, all others pay cash!” I once had a Bible teachers who taught me something wise. He said: “Never trust the man who trusts himself!” I agree with that. I do not trust myself. That is why I personally refuse to own a gun. I am a passionate person. I would much rather be shot to death by a robber, than to ever risk hurting someone in anger. As humans we are creatures of emotion.

I think it is wise for a person who is emotional not to own a gun. You couldn’t give me one! I think a wise man knows his limits.

Likewise, when I fall in love with a gal, I am already thinking about marriage. When I play my pedal steel guitar, I am on cloud nine in my emotions. When I write articles for my website ministry, I am intense in my words and message. I have to be careful not to get emotional in public when I get upset. I can become very expressive verbally...lol. But I am harmless otherwise. That is why my favorite Bible verse is Proverbs 4:23, “

Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life.

” What we accept in our life becomes a part of us. So we must constantly be on guard about the people we allow into our life, and the philosophies that we accept, the places we choose to go, and everything in life.

The Importance Of Trust In Keeping Pure Before Legal Marriage

I have heard preachers teach that no married person should ever be alone in a room with the opposite sex. That is stupid! In truth, it doesn’t matter if you are single or married, you still shouldn’t ever be alone with someone of the opposite sex. That is my humble conviction. I don’t trust myself. Neither should you trust yourself. That is wisdom.

If you trust yourself, you are playing a game of Russian Roulette. The Bible is on my side. Jeremiah 17:9, “The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it? ” If you refuse to be alone with the opposite sex, to whom you are not married, then you cannot commit fornication or adultery, which are terrible sins (Hebrews 13:4).

It is like booze

—if you don’t take the first drink, then you cannot take the second, et cetera. You’ll never become a sinful drunkard if you refuse to take the first sip of alcohol. I have never tasted a drop of booze and by God’s grace I never will. So if you never allow yourself to be alone with the opposite sex, then nothing bad can happen. Girls, any boy who tries to get you alone is not your friend. He is a dog! I love you enough in the Lord to tell you the truth! You won’t find good men in bars, clubs and at the Plenty-O-Fish website, you'll find them in a soulwinning, Bible-believing, New Testament, church!

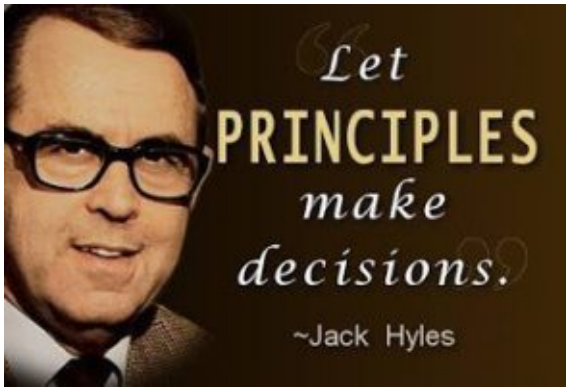
Perhaps you think you are a better Christian than the great Apostle Paul, who admitted that he struggled with the sin nature.

Romans 7:18-21, " For I know that in me (that is, in my flesh,) dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me; but how to perform that which is good I find not. For the good that I would I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I do. Now if I do that I would not, it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me. I find then a law, that, when I would do good, evil is present with me." 1st Thessalonians 5:22, " Abstain from all appearance of evil." If the Apostle Paul didn't trust himself, then neither should you or I trust our self. Please don't be a fool.

Save Yourself Girls Until You Get Legally Married

Philippians 4:5, "Let your moderation be known unto all men. The Lord is at hand. " Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) used to teach the young girls at the First Baptist Church Of Hammond, Indiana:



"Don't let the boys know how far you will go—you let them know how far YOU WON'T GO!" That is what is means to " let your moderation be known.

" The sin of fornication is wreaking havoc on young people's lives today. Millions of young women are already mothers at age 18, having 2 or 3 children by age 25, and have never been legally married. That is whoredom!!! God will judges all immorality. Hebrews 13:4, "Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled: but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge. "

It is a wicked sin girls to have carnal knowledge with a boy, until he legally marries you!!! I have seen girl after girl give away her virginity to some lustful bum, who said all the right words on a moonlit evening, just to dump her like a pail of trash after taking her virtue. Kindly said, you were stupid young woman, and now all you have for that special man you'll someday marry is leftovers! Congratulations, you're now defiled. NEVER even let a boy touch you, not even a kiss, until he marries you legally. A promise to marry you is not enough. Please don't fall for the oldest gimmick in the Devil's book. BOYS ARE NOTORIOUS LIARS!

May we as believers always try to live in such a Christ-honoring way, that the Lord knows He can trust us to do the right thing. People cannot see us in private, but God is always watching. Hebrews 4:13, "Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do."

2.2.24 The Folly Of The Wrong Repentance Crowd (2021-02-20 02:18)

Acts 8:17-22, "Then laid they their hands on them, and they received the Holy Ghost.

And when Simon saw that through laying on of the apostles' hands the Holy Ghost was given, he offered them money, Saying, Give me also this power, that on whomsoever I lay hands, he may receive the Holy Ghost.

But Peter said unto him, Thy money perish with thee, because thou hast thought that the gift of God may be purchased with money. Thou hast neither part nor lot in this matter: for thy heart is not right in the sight of God. Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray God, if perhaps the thought of thine heart may be forgiven thee."

A man emailed me yesterday trying to defend Wrong Repentance. He quoted Acts 8:22 from our text passage above, attempting to use this verse to prove that " means turning from sins. I kindly replied by quoting to him Acts 8:13, where Simon was saved,

"Then Simon himself believed also: and when he was baptized, he continued with Philip, and wondered, beholding the miracles and signs which were done." The Bible very plainly teaches in verse 13 that Simon was saved simply by BELEIVING... " Then Simon believed also.

Then in verses 17-22 we read that as a new believer, Simon thought he could purchase the power of God with money. The Apostle Peter sharply rebuked him, telling him to perish with his money, and warning Simon that he had better repent (think differently) and ask God to forgive him. The Greek verb for

in verse 22 is metanoeo, which simply means to think differently.

It does not mean

to turn away from sin.

It means to think differently. The noun form of the word is metanoia, meaning

a change of mind.

” People change their mind about all kinds of things every day. God even changed His mind numerous times in the Bible.

John 3:9-10, “

Who can tell if God will turn and repent, and turn away from his fierce anger, that we perish not?

And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not. ” Was God turning from His sins? No, of course not. God simply changed His mind concerning the judgment He had intended to bring upon Nineveh. Repentance concerning salvation is simply a change of mind toward THE TRUTH, that compels a person to trust Jesus as their Savior. 2nd Timothy 2:25-26, “In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth;

And that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will.

” Salvation is simply acknowledging THE TRUTH that you are a guilty sinner (Romans 3:19), and believing THE TRUTH of the Gospel to be saved (1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

Sadly, when I explained these Bible truths to the man who emailed me, he arrogantly wrote back and said I was a heretic. The Bible says he is subverted of himself. Titus 3:10-11, “A man that is an heretick after the first and second admonition reject; Knowing that he that is such is subverted, and sinneth, being condemned of himself.” The Bible says such a man “sinneth,” because he rejects sound doctrine. Likewise, Bob Jones University “sinneth,” because they reject sound doctrine. The Harvest Baptist Church of Guam “sinneth,” because they reject sound doctrine. These corrupt money-making religious institutions all teach that you must “repent of your sin” to be saved, which is nowhere taught in the infallible and inspired King James Bible.

It is abundantly clear from Acts 8:13-22, that Simon (a former sorcerer) was saved in verse 13, not in verse 22. So the application of the word “ in verse 22 has absolutely nothing to do with Simon getting saved in verse 13. We learn from Acts 5:1-11 that Ananias and Sapphira were killed because they lied to God about money they had promised to give the church. And now Simon is trying to buy God’s power with money. The Lord takes serious offense to money issues, if you haven’t noticed.

Luke 19:45-46, “ And he went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold therein, and them that bought; Saying unto them, It is written, My house is the house of prayer: but ye have made it a den of thieves.”

Sadly, all across America today, wicked men (whom Jesus called “

) have turned Christianity into a stinking business. From Evangelist Ken Ham’s lucrative multi-billion dollar [1]Ark Encounter disgrace in Kentucky, to Bob Jones University’s [2]shameful lack of morals and [3]doctrinal soundness in South Carolina, to corrupt churches like [4]Harvest Baptist Church on Guam who prey upon the simple and naïve

—they have turned Christianity in America into a DEN OF THIEVES!!! Don’t get mad at me, I’m telling THE TRUTH! Right doctrine matters. Which Bible we use matters. Which Gospel we preach matters.

The fact of the matter is that you cannot show me one verse in the entire Bible that says to “ turn away from your sin

” to receive God’s free gift of eternal life. Oh yeah, I almost forgot, the man I mentioned earlier, who emailed me in an attempt to justify Wrong Repentance, he got mean the second time he wrote. That is why I didn’t reply a second time. He said that I am teaching a man can attack children and still be saved. I am using delicate terms, he wasn’t as pleasant in his wording. Do you see what he is doing? He is using an extreme, like abortionists do with their coat-hanger in the alley scenario (which has never once been medically reported) as a desperate attempt to justify the norm.

You simply cannot justify over 99 % of abortions (murder according to Exodus 20:13) which are the result of personal irresponsibility, on the basis of less than 1 % of women who were forced against their will to have carnal knowledge. Likewise, the man who wrote to me is trying to use an extreme example to justify his corrupt theology. Okay, let’s say that a backslidden Christian man does commit horrible wickedness (Proverbs 14:14). Does that make him any more self-righteous than the good man who gossips, lusts, hates and lies to his boss at work? No! I am saying that little sinners are just as guilty in God’s sight as big sinners!

We Are Saved UNTO Good Works, Not BY Good Works

Ephesians 2:8-10, “

For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God:

Not of works, lest any man should boast.

For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them.

” Turning away from sin is a good work (Jonah 3:10. Keeping the law is a good work (Romans 3:20).

So the issue is not about turning away from sin TO BE SAVED (Ephesians 2:8-10); but rather, a man ought to depart from evil because HE IS SAVED (Romans 3:31). That is the big difference theological, and it is the difference between going to Heaven or Hell. The wrong repentance crowd pervert the Gospel by adding reformation (cleaning up your life of sin) to it. In true salvation, God saves you and indwells you with His Holy Spirit (1st John 3:24), and then the Lord begins to work on cleaning up your life if sin (Hebrews 12:6-8). But depending on many factors, a believer may or may not live a holy life (Galatians 5:25; Romans 7:14-25; 1st Corinthians 3:15; 5:1-5).

The ignorant man who emailed me is thinking way wrong. In his mind, a believer must turn away from willful sinning to be saved. That is reformation (turning from sin), not repentance (thinking different). Judas was a reformed man. Judas returned the 30 pieces of silver, but the Pharisees didn’t want it. The Pharisees called it blood money

(Matthew 27:1-8). So in this foolish man’s thinking who wrote to me, a Christian man cannot continue abiding in deep sin (i.e., evil). He thinks you can still have small sins in your life (lust, lying, gossip and envy), but you cannot be a hard core blatant sinner. That is 100 % self-righteousness folks!!!

You listen to me dear friend, the ONLY thing that makes me or you as a born-again believer any more righteous than Adolf Hitler, the Golden State Killer, or the worst sinner on the planet, is the precious blood of Jesus Christ that He shed on Calvary’s cross to pay for our sins!!! The changed life in me is the presence of the Spirit of Christ in me. Galatians 2:20-21,

“I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me.

I do not frustrate the grace of God: for if righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain.

” I love this Bible passage. It is JESUS Who lives the Christian life through me. I make it from day to day in Christ’s strength, not my own.

[5]We grow in the grace of Jesus, not in strength. Jesus is our strength!!!

2nd Peter 3:18, “ But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. To him be glory both now and for ever. Amen. ”

That is how salvation works friends. Salvation is of the Lord (Jonah 2:9). You don’t have to give up one sin to be saved. Eternal life is a free gift (Romans 5:15-18; 6:23). You mean I can accept Christ as my Savior, and then go out and live like the Devil and still go to Heaven? Yes, that is exactly what I am saying. I didn’t say it is okay, it’s not okay. I didn’t say God approves of it, He doesn’t (Romans 3:31).

Living in sin always has consequences (Hebrews 4:13; Ecclesiastes 12:13-14; Romans 14:10-12). The Lord will chastise and scourge disobedient children, because He is not an absent parent (Hebrews 12:6-8). But we must never confuse or conflate (to mix together) service to the Lord as His child, versus the gift of salvation which God freely offers through faith alone in Christ (Philippians 3:9; Romans 4:5-6). Wrong repentance will send you to Hell.

What Repentance Is Not

There is so much confusion in the churches today on this issue. Let's define a few terms:

- penitence - sorrow for sins
- penance - making a mend for sins
- reformation - turning from sins
- repentance - a change of mind

Some or none of these elements may accompany repentance, but God does not require (nor permit) them in addition to faith in Christ. We are saved by BELIEVING, not by repenting. Repentance facilitates (makes possible) believing. Repentance and faith are two sides of the same coin of salvation. They are inseparable. Repentance and faith are not two separate acts, they are just one. The man who repents has believed, and the man who believes has repented. That is why in Acts 2:38 we read, "Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost."

Please notice that there is no command to "

believe.

" I have heard countless preachers use this passage as Go-to Scripture to prove that we must "

turn away from sin

to be saved, but that is bad theology. The reason why the Apostle Peter didn't mention believing is because repentance and believing are one and the same act. Proof of what I say is found in Acts 2:44, "And all that believed were together, and had all things common;"

So we see in the King James Bible how the words "

" are sometimes used interchangeably when referring to salvation. I am not saying that repentance and faith are the same thing, not at all. Mark 1:15 says, "And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand:repent ye, and believe the gospel. "

Here we see that repentance is separate from believing. Since they happen at the same time, they are viewed as one act. You don't repent first and then believe. The man who believes has repented, and the man who repents has believed. The Bible is simply saying to think differently and believe the Good News of Jesus Christ crucified on the cross for our sins, buried and risen the third day.

Acts 2:38 Is Often Misunderstood

Sadly, Acts 2:38 is often misunderstood by Bible students and preachers. Notice that Peter didn't tell the people to be baptized (immersed) in water; but rather, " in the name of Jesus Christ.

" Church of Christ, Lutherans, Seventh-Day Adventists and other religious cults use Acts 2:38 as a Go-to passage to support the heresy of Baptismal Regeneration (i.e., the false teaching that you must be water baptized to go to Heaven). Getting dunked in a baptistery is NOT required (nor permitted) to be saved. This would be a work, and pervert God's free grace (1st Corinthians 1:17).

I love something that Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) taught me, "

A good rule to follow when interpreting the Bible is to never use an obscure passage to contradict a clear one.

Acts 2:38 is definitely an obscure passage. We must consider that in the entire Gospel of John, the word " is not mentioned even once. Yet, according to John 20:31 the book of John was written to show us the way of salvation through faith alone in Jesus Christ,

"But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name.

" Ah, there is that big beautiful word

"BELIEVE." Dear friend, I'll go to seed before I die over this issue of wrong repentance in the churches today. Wrong Repentance is usually combined with Lordship Salvation, but not always. I have actually seen the heresy of Wrong Repentance taught by preachers who refute Lordship Salvation, which makes the matter even more confusing to people.

What am I saying? I have no idea...lol. Seriously, I am simply saying what God says in His Word, that salvation is by faith alone without works. Romans 4:4-5, "Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt. But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness." The Bible can be tortured (wrestled) to say anything by unlearned and foolish people.

Only The Gospel Is The Power Of God Unto Salvation

Sadly, there are many false teachers today, but the Word of God foretold that they would come. 2nd Peter 2:1, "

But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction.

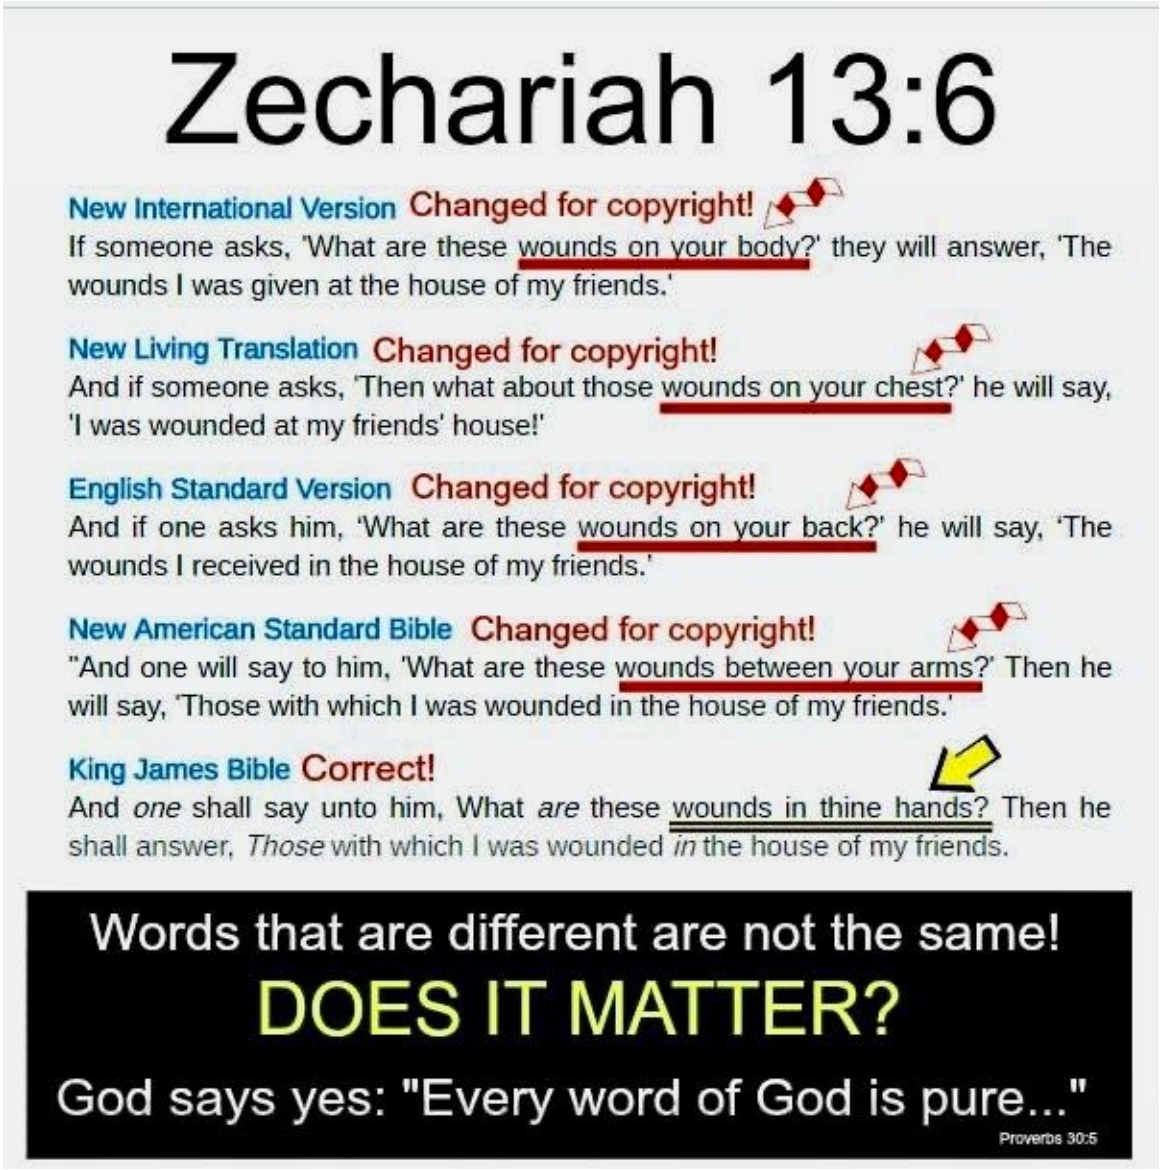
Please don’t misunderstand the preceding Scripture from 1st Peter 2:1. Roman Catholics don’t deny the name of Jesus, do they? They sure do! When Catholics add keeping the Seven Sacraments to faith to get to Heaven, they are not wholly leaning on Jesus’ name. That is what the Bible means in 2nd Timothy 3:5, “Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away.” That “power” is the Gospel. Romans 1:16, “ For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.”

Listen you can believe in the Catholic church all you want to, but that won’t get you to Heaven. I visited St. Anthony’s Catholic church on Guam once with a friend from work years ago. The priest literally told the congregation not to read the Bible! The priest said that they (the priests) were specially trained to interpret the Bible, and that you could do great harm to yourself and loved ones by studying the Bible on your own. I kid you not! There wasn’t a Bible in the place! There were no song books! These Catholics had memorized every song, creed and ritual since childhood, brainwashed by Catholicism (the biggest cult in the world). How sad!

Guam sadly is a cesspool of false religion! I have seen families pass around a 3 foot statue of Our Lady Of Fatima, going from home to home for weeks at a time. Each Catholic family decks out their home with decorations, in preparation to honor the patron saint Fatima and Mary. I had to leave a home once, as a group of ladies bowed in worship to their idol of Fatima. They took pride in seeing me watch them bow to their idol. I left quickly.

The Bible speaks for itself if we’ll just listen.

Psalm 46:10, “Be still, and know that I am God: I will be exalted among the heathen, I will be exalted in the earth.



” The following passage from Titus 2:7-8 condemns the Bob Jones University crowd with

“[6]repent and turn away from your sin” junk theology, which is another gospel (Galatians 1:6-9). Titus 2:7-8, “

In all things shewing thyself a pattern of good works: in doctrine shewing uncorruptness, gravity, sincerity, Sound speech, that cannot be condemned; that he that is of the contrary part may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say of you.

” There is a woeful lack of sincerity today in churches, which you can easily see by looking at the following picture...

Bible Verses Changed Merely To Obtain A Legal Copyright

According to [8]U.S. copyright law a publisher cannot obtain a copyright without producing a work that is significantly different in context. The changes must be substantial and creative! Dear reader, why do the Bible colleges and churches bid Godspeed to this confusion and woeful evil? It just shows how utterly insincere most churchgoers are today! Titus 2:7-8, "

In all things shewing thyself a pattern of good works: in doctrine shewing uncorruptness, gravity, sincerity, Sound speech, that cannot be condemned; that he that is of the contrary part may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say of you.

" Shame on Moody Bible Institute in Chicago! Shame on Bob Jones University in South Carolina! Shame on Harvest Baptist Church of Guam!

These aforementioned organizations (I could name thousands more) are as insincere as can be, evidenced by their use, sale and promotion of Devil's Bibles. Dr. Steve Pettit at BJU still insists that there is little difference between the modern revisions, yet by law the U.S. government requires " [9]substantial and creative " changes just to get a copyright. Wake up Mr. Pettit! Stop lying to the students and faculty at BJU!

Romans 4:13, “

For the promise, that he should be the heir of the world, was not to Abraham, or to his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith*.

For if they which are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made of none effect:

Because the law worketh wrath: for where no law is, there is no transgression.

Therefore it is of faith, that it might be by grace*; to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham; who is the father of us all,

(As it is written, I have made thee a father of many nations,) before him whom he believed, even God, who quickeneth the dead, and calleth those things which be not as though they were.

Who against hope believed in hope, that he might become the father of many nations, according to that which was spoken, So shall thy seed be.

And being not weak in faith, he considered not his own body now dead, when he was about an hundred years old, neither yet the deadness of Sara’s womb:

He staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief; but was strong in faith, giving glory to God;

And being fully persuaded that, what he had promised, he was able also to perform.

And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousness*.

Now it was not written for his sake alone, that it was imputed to him;

But for us also, to whom it shall be imputed, if we believe on him that raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead*;

Who was delivered for our offences, and was raised again for our justification.

Dear reader, it doesn’t get any simpler than this. Please read again Romans 4:13, “

For the promise, that he

should be the heir of the world, was not to Abraham, or to his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith.

” There you have it. The PROMISE of eternal life (which was given before the world began - Titus 1:2), was NOT to Abraham or his seed through THE LAW, but through THE RIGHTEOUSNESS OF FAITH. People have always been saved by grace through faith in Christ. Acts 10:43, “T o him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins.

Beware of wacky dispensationalists with their salvation by faith plus works heresy in the Old Testament. They also teach that salvation will be by faith plus works during the future Tribulation and Millennial periods. Nothing could be further from the truth of the Gospel. I say that humbly and kindly. Please carefully read Romans 4:14-15, "For if they which are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made of none effect: Because the law worketh wrath: for where no law is, there is no transgression." The Bible couldn't be any plainer. They who are of the law are not saved!

Trying to obeying the law to merit salvation voids faith and grace! I keep hearing false teachers insisting that salvation was still by grace in the Old Testament, but they had to work for it. Huh? Dear reader, they are in denial. If salvation is truly by grace, then it must be by faith alone. The same is true of the Lordship Salvation crowd today, who are in utter denial.

You cannot get to Heaven by your own human efforts, nor does God require anything from you more than simple faith to receive His promise of eternal life.

The very idea of keeping the law to obtain salvation is offensive. Our best is filth to God! Isaiah 64:6-8, "But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags; and we all do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away.

And there is none that calleth upon thy name, that stirreth up himself to take hold of thee: for thou hast hid thy face from us, and hast consumed us, because of our iniquities.

But now, O LORD, thou art our father; we are the clay, and thou our potter; and we all are the work of thy hand.

" The law worketh God's wrath. That simply means that God is holy, and all humanity is unholy, and we are all guilty sinners in the hands of an angry God (2nd Thessalonians 1:8-9; Romans 5:9; John 3:36; Psalms 7:11). Hebrews 10:31, "

It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

Romans 4:16a, "

Therefore it is of faith, that it might be by grace; " Again and again we are taught that salvation is by faith alone. In order to be by grace, getting saved absolutely must be by faith alone. Not the least amount of human effort can be included. The ceremonial laws were duties for Old Testament Jews living in the Holy Land. Only the Jews, living in the time of the Old Testament, who lived in the region of Israel, were required to perform their ceremonies year after year, but these were NOT req uired to receive eternal life. The law served a purpose —" Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God

Jesus' Precious Blood Has Always Washed Away People's Sins

We further read in Galatians 3:19, 24-26, " Wherefore then serveth the law? It was added because of transgressions, till the seed should come to whom the promise was made; and it was ordained by angels in the hand of a mediator. ... Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith.

But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster. For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus." The same law that shows us our sinfulness (Romans 7:13), is the same that showed people in the Old Testament their sinfulness, and pointed them to the blood sprinkled on the mercy seat in the holy place for forgiveness. ...

> Hebrews 9:22, "And almost all things are by the law purged with blood; and without shedding of blood is no remission.
> It was therefore necessary that the patterns of things in the heavens should be purified with these; but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these.
>
> For Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us:
>
> Nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the high priest entereth into the holy place every year with blood of others;
>
> For then must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world: but now once in the end of the world hath he appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself.

One of the most dangerous false teachers of our generation is [1]Pastor John MacArthur. If you read his Bible commentary for Hebrews 9:12-24, you will find that [2]MacArthur denies the blood. He errantly teaches that "blood" in Hebrews chapter 9 [3]actually means and he says that Jesus' physical liquid blood is NOT on the Mercy Seat in Heaven. The Bible calls Mr. MacArthur a liar! Hebrews 9:12, "

[4]death,

Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us. " How were they saved in the Old Testament? My friend, they were saved by the blood! They were saved the same as you and I—by placing childlike faith in the blood of THE LAMB.

The annual Jewish Passover feast was a continual reminder of this awesome truth. Exodus 12:13, "

And the blood shall be to you for a token upon the houses where ye are: and when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and the plague shall not be upon you to destroy you, when I smite the land of Egypt.

" John 1:29, " The next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world." It was the lamb's blood each year that the high priest sprinkled upon the mercy seat, in the presence of God between the two cherubims, that atoned (covered) for the sins of the people for another year; but only those who personally believed were saved! Just as today, salvation was strictly an individual matter in the Old Testament.

Old Testament Jews Not Saved Because of Unbelief, Not Lack of Works

Please listen dear reader. I have a lot of web visitors who are confused because of Robert Breaker, Chett Hensley, Peter S. Ruckman, Bryan Denlinger, William P. Grady and Gene Kim on salvation. My web visitors have been desensitized to the dangers of a false gospel, by thinking that it doesn't matter if a preacher is wrong on salvation past and future, just so long as he is right today (in the so-called "

Church Age

"). I assure you that it does matter, because one think does affect another, and another doctrinally. I want you to carefully read the following passage of Scripture, which calls all of these aforementioned preachers theological liars! Are you ready? Here goes:

> Hebrews 4:1-3,
>
> "Let us therefore fear, lest, a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it.
>
> For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it. For we which have believed do enter into rest, as he said, As I have sworn in my wrath, if they shall enter into my rest: although the works were finished from the foundation of the world.

The preceding Scripture passage is talking about the Jews who wandered in the Wilderness of Zin for 40 years, because they refused to obey God to enter into the Promised Land. They had a tabernacle, a holy place, a mercy seat, and the Ark of the Covenant, and the high priest who entered once a year into the holy of holies with the blood of a killed spotless lamb. Yet, as we just read, the reason why most of the Jews didn't get saved wasn't because they failed to do works, but because they did NOT BELIEVE the Gospel which Moses preached unto them!

The Gospel Is A Promise!

Do you see friend that the word keeps appearing (Galatians 3:14, 16, 17, 18, 19, 21, 22, 29; Romans 13, 14, 16, 20, 21). I could cite umpteen more passages about God's of eternal life. Titus 1:2, "

"P

In hope of eternal life, which God, that cannot lie, promised before the world began;

” Hebrews 4:1a,

“Let us therefore fear, lest, a promise..

” I love that precious word

—PROMISE! Eternal life is a promised gift to anyone who receives it by childlike faith in the Messiah. Eternal life was promised by God before the world began. That is so wonderful.

Hebrews 4:10-11, “

For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his.

Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief. ” The Bible is very plain that to be saved, a person must cease from their own works. This was true of Old Testament saints as well. No one has ever been saved by keeping the law, nor partially trying to keep the law, not for a day, not for a minute, not for a second. We are saved BY FAITH alone! The Sabbath Day symbolized Jesus Christ, in Whom we rest completely for salvation. Acts 10:43, “ To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins.” Colossians 2:14-16 teaches that there is no Sabbath Day today, it was nailed to the cross with all of the ceremonial laws and traditions. Jesus Christ is our Sabbath today!

Again, please don’t miss this important truth —Hebrews 4:2 clearly teaches that the Jews who didn’t get saved in the Wilderness, refused to believe the GOOD NEWS (Gospel) which Moses preached to them. That Gospel was the same PROMISE that God made to Abraham (Galatians 3:16). It was the same promise which God made before the world began (Titus 1:2). The Bible calls it a promise in Hebrews 4:1. The Gospel is a promise! God promises to save them that believe on the name of Christ. 1st Corinthians 1:21, “ For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe.

” The Gospel is a promise!

Exodus 12:13, "And the blood shall be to you for a token upon the houses where ye are: and when I see the blood, I will pass over you , and the plague shall not be upon you to destroy you, when I smite the land of Egypt."

2.2.26 Divorce Is An Inexplicably Ugly And Painful Experience (2021-02-20 12:56)

Matthew 19:3-6,

The Pharisees also came unto him, tempting him, and saying unto him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife for every cause? And he answered and said unto them, Have ye not read, that he which made them at the beginning made them male and female,

And said, For this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife: and they twain shall be one flesh?

Wherefore they are no more twain, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.

My parents were married for 36 years before my Mom went to Heaven in 2001. She suffered a stroke in 1989 and spent the remaining years of her life in a wheelchair, crippled on the left side of her body. My Dad was born in 1933 and my Mom in 1935. They didn’t have previous marriages. Like a lot of couples, they had many marriage problems over the years. But they stayed together. I love what Pastor Bob Gray Sr. said: “A marriage is two people never giving up on each other.” My favorite marital quote is: “A marriage is two people making a life for each other.”

I got married in 1987 at age 20. She was 25. Early on in my marriage I determined in my heart that me and my wife were going to beat my parent’s admirable 36 years! It would have been 36 years in 2023. Unfortunately, my wife divorced me in 2006. I didn’t see that coming. It was like those poor victims of the recent [1]135 car pile up in Fort Worth, Texas this week, that [2]killed 6 drivers. One of the most severe storms in several decades afflicted the United States. Texas is now enduring [3]record snowfalls and temperatures. There are widespread power and water shortages throughout Texas and Oklahoma. If you have had the misfortune of being the victim of a divorce as I have, it feels like an F5 tornado ripping your life apart. It was like getting hit out of nowhere by a Mack truck!

I had often heard of other people going through a divorce, but I had no idea of the horror that divorce inflicts upon a person. The person filing for divorce doesn’t suffer anywhere near what the victim does. My former wife had abandoned me in March of 2006. She had left oftentimes before, but usually returned home after a few hours, days, weeks and once even a month. While she was gone I searched the Scriptures for comfort. I read in Romans 12:21, “Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good.” So in May of 2006 I started a new website called “Soulwinning.info” to overcome evil with good. I prayed and trusted the Lord that everything was going to be okay and somehow work out.

To my horror, on June 5th, 2006, U.S. Marshals came to my job workplace to summons me to divorce court. I worked by myself in maintenance at the U.S. Postal Service. I was so devastated that I went into the parts department, turned out the lights, and wept for hours. I was on call as a mechanic. So if any equipment needed repair, like a fireman they would call me. It was a quiet night, and I was able to weep and cry out to God in despair. I went home as soon as I could. Those hours at work seemed like days, grieving and shocked in my soul. I went home and couldn’t even tell my teenage children what their mother had done.

I just dropped the summons on the floor and wept uncontrollably, as my son read the paperwork. They were as surprised as I was.

Who can find a virtuous woman? for her price is far above rubies.

The heart of her husband doth safely trust in her, so that he shall have no need of spoil. She will do him good and not evil all the days of her life. ” I chose unwisely when I got married. I didn’t even like her. But she gave me attention and grew on me, and I found myself becoming familiar with someone I didn’t really like. I thought she was a weirdo. I read last year that both Billy Sunday (1862-1935) and his wife were engaged to other people when they met. They broke off those engagements and married each other instead. I regret that I didn’t do that. There was a gal in Bible college that I wish I had married, but I was already engaged, and I wish to God I had done as Billy Sunday did.

I don’t hate anyone, certainly not my former spouse. But she has no idea of the emotional trauma, inexplicable pain of soul and financial loss that she caused. The divorce didn’t cost her one penny. She found some trashy pro bono attorney. It cost me $64,000 when all was said and done. It got very ugly. I didn’t even know who she was anymore. The woman who promised to never leave me was leaving me permanently. Throughout our marriage she was emotionally unavailable. I used to play my pedal steel guitar just for her, yearning for some praise from her. So often I hoped she would simply say, “I love what you just played,” and show some admiration toward me, but she never didn’t. She didn’t like country music. God made every woman to be a help meet to her man (Genesis 2:18), not a housekeeper, mother or secretary.

More times than I can remember she would say, “I’m going to go see what the kids are doing” or “I’m going to go make sure the house is clean.” Those were just excuses to go somewhere else. My music was just for me. I felt so lonely for the 18 years I was married. I am a passionate man, with depth of feelings and a desire to kiss and connect emotionally. Literally, while making love she refused to open her mouth, saying verbatim:

“I don’t like germs.” That frustrated me. I have never had a good wife. I am not complaining. I think of the millions of young men, still teenagers, who died on some lonely foreign battlefield, never having been married or privileged to become a father. But I feel cheated having chosen someone who eventually didn’t even want to kiss me anymore.

I have four biological adult children. My son is now 31. I have three daughters (Lynda, Crystal and Darla) ages 30, 29 and 27. I have 5 grandchildren. I love my children very much and thank God for them, but they have all gone their separate ways. That is fine, I pray for them and am here if they ever need me as their father and a friend. I saw my son for the first time since 2009 in 2018, when he visited Guam. He gave me 19 hugs during his week long stay! Yes, I counted them, because every one of those hugs meant the world to me. He lives and works in Boise, Idaho. I am so proud of him, but he is like his old man, private and keeps to himself.

Pastor Jack Hyles taught many helpful philosophies that I appreciate so much. One was the need for the church as a surrogate family. When our children grow up and move away, and our spouse divorces us, and we are all alone in the big world, we need a church family. Sadly, Harvest Baptist Church of Guam has rejected me since 2014, leaving me without a family. They have no idea what they have done by ostracizing me, but I still love them with Christ's love even in their cruelty. It is truly sad and pathetic how bad churches are today!

Anyway, I was watching some YouTube videos today. I grew up listening to lots of music. I am a musician. If it has strings I can play it, some instruments better than others. The pedal steel guitar is the instrument I am most proficient at, and can play by ear along with a band. [5]I watched a video about Paul Stanley (born 1952) from the band KISS. In the video some memoirs are read from his audiobook, about his divorce from Pamela Bowen and how it adversely impacted him. She abandoned him after 9 years of marriage and ruthlessly went after his money with a team of bandits. [6]I admire Paul as a musician, but sadly he is Jewish in faith and not a Christian (the same as Chaim Witz, aka, Gene Simmons). I realize that rock music is of the Devil, but [7]a lot can be learned from the people themselves. As Pastor Hyles used to say: “Every man is my teacher.” As a hobby I have an interest in biographies of famous people, especially the musicians of the era in which I grew up in the 1970’s and 1980’s. I thank God that I chose to become a born-again Christian at age 13 in 1980.

I digress. Divorce is an excruciatingly painful ordeal to go through. I have been single now for 15 years, often depressed and lonely beyond words. I regret moving to Guam, which has put me into an awkward situation where I cannot find a girlified on Guam. I desire to remarry as soon as I can meet a decent woman. As each year passes I more and more feel like I’ll never find that special someone to marry. God willing I plan to move very soon, but I am having a very difficult time deciding where to relocate. I’ve been looking at Fort Wayne, Indiana, but I cannot find peace about any place I have considered. I think that is simply because I haven’t actually been to any of these places, and so my mind draws a blank.

I have considered moving to a larger size church, which hopefully will increase my chances of meeting a good woman to marry. That is one reason why I am a bit hesitant about moving to Fort Wayne. I couldn’t find any large churches there. Then again, perhaps in a smaller church it might be easier to find a woman who is seeking a man. I am naïve in the matter, I admit. I simply don’t know the best course of action to take. I feel lost at sea, like I don’t belong anywhere on this earth. That is a horrible feeling, which divorce causes sometimes if you don’t have friends to support you emotionally. When my wife divorced me in 2006 I had my children to comfort me, but then they eventually went their own way as adults, and I have been alone in life since. I haven’t been received well at the few churches I have visited on Guam since 2009. No one wants to be where they don’t feel wanted. You just know when a church doesn’t care or want you. I needed Harvest Baptist Church of Guam so much since 2013, but I mean nothing to them, all they care about is their paychecks, sadly. They crushed my heart!

If you are the victim of an unwanted divorce as I am, look to Jesus. Hebrews 12:2, “Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.” Jesus was despised and rejected of men. Isaiah 53:3, “

He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief: and we hid as it were our faces from him; he was despised, and we esteemed him not.

” I am encouraged when I read about divorced men who remarry and find happiness. John Wesley’s wife divorced him. When someone asked him about it Wesley replied:

“I did not dismiss her. I did not abandon her. I will not recall her.” That is exactly how I feel.

God hates divorce and so do I. Once there has been a legal divorce all trust is gone. There will be unresolved anger issues lingering. Divorce is a sin that perpetrates for a lifetime. I certainly would never want to remarry someone who doesn’t like my germs and refuses to kiss me. I have been treated cruelly by some self-righteous, hateful and judgmental religious people, Baptists, who berate me for even talking about getting remarried. Folks, one thing that we all learn early on in life is how crazy, unreasonable and hypocritical some people can be. Don’t let religious people get you down! Religion destroys a working mind!

The ungodly Harvest Baptist Church of Guam almost caused me to commit suicide, because of former Pastor Marty Herron’s hypocrisy, lack of compassion, selfishness, cowardice and indifference toward THE TRUTH. That wicked man has much blood on his hands, including mine! I haven’t attended church since 2014 because of Marty Herron, but he couldn’t care less. His mind is filled with convenient excuses for justifying his lack of compassion, indifference, being a respecter of persons and selfishness. Tragically, Herron is now ruining young people’s lives at the Faith Baptist Bible College and Theological Seminary in Ankeny, Iowa, milking the cash cow as executive vice president of the apostate Neo-evangelical institution. Spiritual crime pays well! I wouldn't give you a dime for his phony testimony. Sadly, [8]Herron preaches the Wrong Repentance heresy, requiring people to forsake a lifestyle of sinning to be saved.

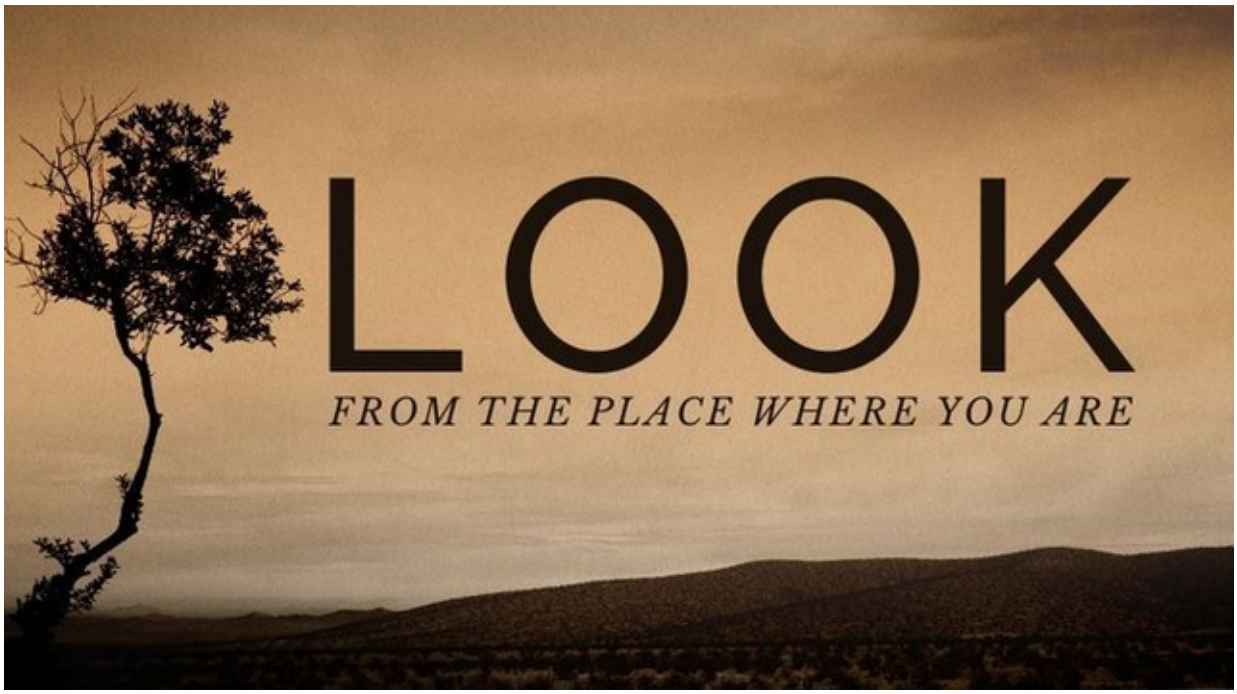
The new pastor of Harvest Baptist Church of Guam since 2018, Gary Walton, is no better. Walton is just another salaried employee at Harvest, milking the cash cow as long as he can before moving on, like the other pastors have done. This is so tragic! Pastors come and go, not being held accountable for the incalculable damage they do by promoting Devil's Bible versions, preaching a false gospel of Lordship Salvation, and having a woeful lack of compassion for divorced and hurting people like me. These pastors know that I am divorced, hurting, lonely and have a broken heart, yet they have continued to shun, despise and ostracize me in their sinful pride and arrogance since 2014. God will judge between me and them (Romans 14:10-12; 1st Thessalonians 4:6; Proverbs 24:12; James 2:1). Sadly, they couldn't care less at Harvest, and that's the truth. They just want their next paycheck!!!

It's bad enough being rejected by my wife in 2006, but then the local independent Baptist church also rejects me (since 2014). I pray to God that He will fully avenge me of Harvest's cruelty against me personally, for their hatred of my Christlike stand for THE TRUTH, for ignoring my humble pleas for their spiritual help over the years, for their deafening cruel silence, and for their gross theological incompetence. These are wicked men who simply don't care at all, but they are full of lame excuses. Galatians 6:7, " Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap." I have sown truth at Harvest, for which they drove me out of the church; but they have sown heresy, for which God will hold them accountable!

I have sown love toward them by speaking truth (Ephesians 4:15), but they sown hatred in return (Galatians 4:16).

Psalms 109:4-5, " For my love they are my adversaries: but I give myself unto prayer. And they have rewarded me evil for good, and hatred for my love." Hear, Oh Lord my humble prayer against these wicked pastors at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, and the ungodly cesspool of iniquity today at Bob Jones University in South Carolina. I pray Lord that you'll hold them accountable and punish them for their willful theological incompetence, dozens of confusing Bibles, for their [9]lack of moral standards, and for their abuse and neglect of hurting students and people in the church. I was part of the family at Harvest, but they axed me like a turkey on Thanksgiving Day!



I could say so much on this topic of divorce. I am still in the [10]Poseidon ship that is capsized upside down. (That was the 1972 version. [11]Here is a scene from the 2006 remake of the movie.) My life is still in disarray. I cannot see my hand in front of my face. My life is a shipwreck. That is how my life has felt since 2006 friends. That is what a divorce does to a person! Please don't ever file for divorce!!! Please don't betray your spouse's trust. You are just as sinful as your spouse. You may sin in different ways than they do, but you are just as much a big sinner in God's sight. It breaks my heart that Harvest won't allow me to attend church services, and that they refuse to touch my broken life with a 10 foot pole. Where dwelleth the love of God?

I have been stuck in life since 2006, lonely without a companion by my side. I underwent two major neck surgeries in 2009 and 2010, with no one there for me. No one cares. Psalm 142:4, " I looked on my right hand, and beheld, but there was no man that would know me: refuge failed me; no man cared for my soul." All across America we hear in the news about bad situations which were allowed to go on for years and even decades, where the city council members did nothing to remedy a known problem. [12]We hear in the news about neglect of elderly veterans, with maggot infested wounds, because of gross neglect by medical staff. This is the Harvest Baptist Church of Guam spiritually! They see a man hurting but leave him to rot. Their pastors hide and avoid dealing with the infected wound, letting things get worse and worse, until the patient is dying. Bad pastors who don't care are a curse in churches today!

If nothing else, in my suffering, loneliness and pain from the aforementioned woes, I want to be an encouragement to others who are in the same boat. Hang in there, God loves you! I don't claim to have all the answers, because I don't. But God does have all the answers and I trust Him. When you can't see tomorrow, trust Him Who holds tomorrow. God already lives in tomorrow! God knows exactly when you and I will die. He knows how we will die. God is omniscient. God cares (1st Peter 5:7). Angels were waiting for Lazarus when he died (Luke 16:19-31). We can expect that same loving welcome home when our time comes as believers. Our great God is still on His throne! Lamentations 5:19, " Thou, O LORD, remainest for ever; thy throne from generation to generation." Everything's alright in my heavenly Father's house.

John 15:18-19, "

If the world hate you, ye know that it hated me before it hated you.

If ye were of the world, the world would love his own: but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you.

John Lennon (1940-1980) of The Beatles is famous for his 1971 song "

Imagine,

which contain the following lyrics:

> Imagine there's no heaven
> It's easy if you try
> No hell below us
> Above us only sky
> Imagine all the people
> Living for today... Aha-ah...
>
> Imagine there's no countries
> It isn't hard to do > Nothing to kill or die for
> And no religion, too
> Imagine all the people
> Living life in peace... You...
>
> You may say I'm a dreamer
> But I'm not the only one
> I hope someday you'll join us
> And the world will be as one

That is the very essence of what the New World Order (NWO) is becoming. The NWO is setting the stage for the coming Man of Sin, the Antichrist. Kindly said, John Lennon was young and foolish in his ideas. The truth of the matter is Mr. Lennon couldn't even get along with the other three members of The Beatles, let along with the whole world.

Lennon’s liberal, hippie, revolutionary ideas sound good in theory, but in reality John totally ignores man’s sin nature. Even if it were as Lennon envisioned, ridding the world of religious denominations and country borders, you’d still have a planet of wicked sinners:

> Romans 3:10-18, “As it is written, There is none righteous, no, not one: There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God. They are all gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable; there is none that doeth good, no, not one. Their throat is an open sepulchre; with their tongues they have used deceit; the poison of asps is under their lips: Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness: Their feet are swift to shed blood: Destruction and misery are in their ways: And the way of peace have they not known: There is no fear of God before their eyes.”

The fact that The Beatles in their youth lived sinful lives of substance abuse, prostitutes, rebellion and fighting amongst themselves, testifies to the Bible’s description of the inherent sinfulness of mankind. Sadly, John Lennon was shot twice in the back by a nutcase in 1980, which killed the beloved singer and musician. I admire John Lennon and his gift of music.

In this article I am simply addressing Lennon’s personal philosophies, which embody the New World Order. John Lennon is idolized today by the world as a visionary of world peace. His philosophies are touted and promoted as the answer to the world’s problems. It sounds great in theory, but it could never work. John Lennon’s fantasy ignores the reality of the never-ending battle between evil and good.

I have been frustrated since President Joe Biden came to power in the White House. President Trump kept his promise to erect a 2,000 milelong Mexican border wall to keep out illegal immigrants. It’s about time! But now President Biden is effectively undoing the good Mr. Trump accomplished, allowing 25,000 immigrants into the country this week alone. Joe Biden wants to make all the illegals legal. I am neither Republican or Democrat. If anything I’m a Libertarian, but for the most part I am a political atheist. I dread politics, because it is all so corrupt. When people ask what my political party is, I tell them “ none.

” Jesus never voted.

Sadly, the churches today are succumbing to John Lennon’s fantasy of eliminating all absolutes from our world. That is why we literally have hundreds of English Bible versions today. I love something that Dr. Shelton Smith said recently:

> “Experimenting with ’a variety of versions’ (no authoritative text) in your church will sow seeds of doubt & pave the way for compromises from which you’ll likely never recover.” —Dr. Shelton Smith, editor of Sword Of The Lord

There are multiple different plans of salvation being taught today in Baptist churches all across America. Some say you must turn away from sinful bad habits to be saved. Others say you simply need to trust Christ (that's what I believe). Still others preach that you must exchange all that you are for all that Christ is, surrendering all to Jesus as " to be saved. All of these may be wrong, but they cannot all be right! Common sense dictates that fact.

Lord

By allowing poor and unskilled immigrants to continue flooding into the country, parasiting off American taxpayers who have to pay the bills, President Biden is fulfilling John Lennon's dream of a country without borders, because without borders a nation ceases to be a country! By promoting multiple Bible versions, churches and Bible colleges are helping to build the New World Order, denying that we have one absolute infallible Holy Bible today in English. By preaching various plans of salvation, people everywhere are confused in the churches. We have multiple Bible versions, multiple plans of salvation, open borders, ecumenical apostasy in thousands of Neo-evangelical churches, et cetera.

This is where John Lennon's foolish ideas actually lead, to a breakdown of law and order. The 2020 riots were a reality check, showing the moral condition of our country today. Democrats and wacky liberals pulled down historical statues across the country, even destroying a statue of Christopher Columbus. You may not like our nation's often ugly history, but it is still our history. We cannot change the past. By tearing down historical monuments in an attempt to erase our past, it only dooms us to repeat the past instead of learning from it. There is much wisdom in what I just said. We need our pain as a nation! Pain makes us think and change.

John Lennon's thinking was from a good heart. John was sincere, wanting the senseless killing to cease. Lennon was born in 1940, which means he grew up in the aftermath of World War II. He lived through the Cold War between the USA and Russia, when everyone was on nerve about impending nuclear war. John lived through the Vietnam War, seeing 58,000 U.S. soldiers come back in body bags from Asia. So you can't blame John Lennon for expressing his antiwar views through music. But what John didn't understand as a youth is that evil and good always coexist. That is why we need police. That is why we need armies. That is why we need fines, courts, prisons and probation to compel sinners to do right.

In his philosophical rants, John Lennon said he envisioned a world where there were no religious denominations, where everyone worshipped Jesus, Buddha, Zoroaster, Hare Krishna and Muhammad EQUALLY. That is the word Lennon uses, "equally." John is saying that truth is not absolute, that it doesn't matter what you believe. But what saith the Scripture? John 14:6, "

Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

" The Bible says salvation is found only through faith in the name of Jesus (Acts 4:10-12).

I hope you see how John Lennon's foolish ideas are the very foundation of the Devil's New World Order. To evidence what I am telling you, please read this disturbing quote from Gregory Brock Chisholm, first head of the World Health Organization (WHO):

> "To achieve world government, it is necessary to remove from the minds of men their individualism, loyalty to family tradition, national patriotism, and religious dogmas." —George Brock Chisholm, in a Speech given at the, Conference on Education, Asilomar, California, September 11, 1954

Gregory Chisholm made that statement in 1954. The Devil's NWO has been in the plans for a very long time. In fact, the conspiracy to achieve world government continues from one generation to the next, spanning millenniums, going back to Babel (Genesis 11:1-11). The Devil and those who worship and serve him (Luciferians) want illegal immigration. They want riots breaking out across the country, so they can rise up a police state. Luciferians want school shootings, workplace killings and drive-by gang shootings, so they can ban guns and [1]render citizens helpless against government tyranny. They want chaos in society! They want abortions, immorality, perversion, homosexuality and a woeful lack of morals, because they know that the best revolutionary is a youth devoid of morals. This is the New World Order, setting the stage for the coming Antichrist (2nd Thessalonians 2:1-10).

I am so thankful that as a born-again Christian I do not think like John Lennon. As believers "we have the mind of Christ" (1st Corinthians 2:16b). I do not like war and killing, just like John Lennon didn't. It would be great if the world could all live in harmony, like [2]the Coca-Cola commercial that I grew up hearing al the time in the 1970's. I love that commercial. But mankind is depraved by nature. Galatians 5:19-21 lists the works of the flesh, which are the carnal man's typical behavior. Galatians 5:22-23 lists the fruit of the Holy Spirit, which only the born-again believer can have, if we walk in the indwelling Holy Spirit (Galatians 5:25). This is why the Gospel is so important, because of its transforming power to convert the lost sinner into a redeemed saint, indwelt with God's Holy Spirit (Romans 1:16; 1st Corinthians 3:16-17).

The answer to the world's woes is not to eliminate national borders. The answer is not to get rid of religious denominations. Many people blame religion for history's wars and atrocities. For example, during the Catholic [3]Spanish Inquisition, an estimated 150,000 people were persecuted between 1478 and 1834 and several thousand were cruelly tortured to death. But these crimes against humanity were not done by God's children. Much killing has been done in the name of God. During the Iraqi War, the mercenary militia group '[4]Black Water' brutally murdered masses of Iraqis, shooting people in the buttocks with exploding ammunition. Black Water were reported as to have quoted Old Testament Bible passages during their crimes. This was President George W. Bush's private army in Iraq, doing his dirty work to assault the Iraqis. What our nation did to the Iraqi people constitutes a volume of war crime atrocities.

Much stealing, exploitation and abuse is done today in the name of Christianity. Look at all the thieving televangelists, like Evangelist Pat Robertson and his 700 Club. They take in approximately $650,000,000 per year. That is sickening!!! The show appeals to the kind nature of viewers, and to crippled, elderly and dying people, conning them out of their money. But that is not God's fault. Men are sinful. Pat Robertson is a greedy man, who takes advantage of people to make filthy lucre. The staff of the 700 Club claim to have psychic powers of clairvoyants, seeing into TV land who is being miraculously healed. I wish the FCC was like the FDA, protecting good people from bad people!

The only hope for this world is a transformation of individual men with the Good News (Gospel) of the Lord Jesus Christ. The hope of America is in our churches, not in the White House. Politics won't rescue the country! Anarchy is certainly not the answer. Rebels overthrowing rebels will just lead to more rebels. Mankind has never been able to govern himself. ...

> "It is impossible to mentally or socially enslave a Bible-reading people." —Horace Greeley (1811-1872)

> "It is impossible to rightly govern the world without God and the Bible." —George Washington (1732-1799)

The reason why America is in such a mess today is because people are no longer following the Word of God. When men disregard the Holy Bible, there is no longer an absolute moral standard; consequently, man becomes his own God. The U.S. Supreme Court flaunted itself above God in 1973, when they legalized abortion. The Supreme Court has a nasty history of overruling God! We saw this in June of 2015 when same-sex civil unions were legalized in America. Where will this evil departure from moral law and God's divine order take our nation?

2.2.28 Catholics Teach "Born Again" Same As Lordship Salvation (2021-02-22 09:30)

Galatians 1:7 and 9, "...there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ ... As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed."

The following quote is taken from a 100 % devout Catholic website, authored by David MacDonald, which clearly reveals that all of the apostate Contemporary Christian Music [CCM] singers, sinister ecumenical ministers, and Lordship Salvationists; totally AGREE with Catholic theology (which is unbiblical heresy and lies of Satan). I say that because they all teach the same junk which you are about to read. None of this is free grace theology

as taught in the inspired King James Bible!

The following is damnable heresy and a FALSE GOSPEL from David MacDonald's website...

> "Note: If you have never made a personal commitment to Christ. If you have never asked him into your heart and to be Lord of your life, I encourage you to do that now.
> Are Catholics Born Again?
>
> I think Evangelicals and Catholics totally agree about the awesomeness of a personal encounter with Jesus. In Pope Benedict XVI's new encyclical, 'Spe Salvi' we read:
>
> 'Life in its true sense is not something we have exclusively in or from ourselves, it is a relationship. And life in its totality is a relationship with him who is the source of life. If we are in relation with him who does not die, who is life itself and love itself, then we are in life. Then we 'live... Our relationship with God is established through communion with Jesus – we cannot achieve it alone or from our own resources alone.'
> Much debate has set Catholic 'Baptism' against the Evangelical 'Born again' concept. I think that greater common ground can be found if we compare the Evangelical 'Born Again' experience to the Catholic 'Second Conversion' experience which is when a Catholic surrenders to Jesus with an attitude of 'Jesus, take my will and my life, I give everything to you.' This is a spontaneous thing that happens during the journey of faithful Catholics who 'get it.' Yup, the Catholic Church teaches a personal relationship with Christ:"

That is EXACTLY what John MacArthur, Ray Comfort, Kirk Cameron, CCM singers, Max Lucado, Rick Warren, Moody Bible Institute, and all the other Lordship Salvationists are teaching today. In case you haven't realized it yet, Lordship Salvation is CATHOLIC DOCTRINE!!! David MacDonald claims that evangelical Christians and Catholics agree that salvation is an "experience" in which a person "surrenders to Jesus with an attitude of 'Jesus, take my will and my life, I give everything to you."'

May I say, that is a doctrine of devils. Being born again is NOT an "experience" as David MacDonald refers to, nor is it surrendering one's life to Christ; it is a lost sinner being saved by the power of God (John 1:12-13). It is a miracle of God in response to a man's faith in Jesus Christ, the Son of God. I tell you that the Catholic religion is Satanic through and through.

Being born-again is a new birth—a second birth, a spiritual birth into the kingdom of God. It is having He (Jesus) Who is the Beginning (Revelation 1:8) born in us. Just as the physical birth (first birth) brought us into this earthly life, so also does the spiritual birth (second birth) bring us into God's family.

The [2]Salvation Army follows the heresy of their founders, William and Catherine Booth, who considered salvation a “state” that could be lost if one failed to continue in obedient faith. May I say, salvation is NOT a “state,” it is a new birth. It is a second birth, a spiritual birth. The spiritual birth is as irreversible as the physical birth. The teaching that salvation is a “state” that is conditional upon “continued obedient faith” is demonic works-salvation. The believer’s salvation is secure in Christ’s finished work of redemption. Jesus died, was buried and arose. He ascended into Heaven. The blood has been applied to the heavenly mercy seat (Hebrews 9:12, 24). The price has been paid.

I KNOW I am saved because eternal life is rooted in the PROMISES of God (Titus 1:2); and not upon how good I’m doing in life as a believer. My salvation is secure in Jesus Christ and has nothing to do with my efforts. Eternal life is a gift (Ephesians 2:8-9). A gift has no strings attached. Our part is simply to trust upon the name of Jesus. God does the saving (John 1:12-13). Salvation is not a state, nor an experience, nor a feeling; but rather, “Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever” (1st Peter 1:23). We are born anew of the Spirit of God (John 3:5) by the seed of God’s Word. Amen!

Catholics, CCM singers, ecumenical ministers, Lordship Salvationists, and other apostates, all talk about being born-again as a [3]feeling or an [4]experience; but they deny the power thereof (2nd Timothy 3:5), which is the Gospel of Jesus Christ (Romans 1:16; 1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Notice in the preceding quote that David MacDonald, admittedly a devout Catholic, continually refers to being born-again as an “EXPERIENCE” (just as the apostate [5]Newsboys CCM group do)!

David MacDonald defines being “born-again” the exact same way as apostate CCM singers and sinister ecumenical ministers, teaching, “Jesus, take my will and my life, I give everything to you.” That is a false Gospel. Judas was one of Christ’s very Apostles, a follower of Jesus, but still went to Hell. Jesus called Judas a devil (John 6:70).

Notice that the mention of “sin” is not made. Being born-again is a matter of having one’s sins taken away by the precious blood of Jesus Christ (1st Peter 1:18-19; John 1:7; Revelation 1:5). Colossians 1:14, “In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins.” The Pope doesn’t mention “sin” when he speaks of being born-again. David MacDonald talks about having an experience, just as the evil Newsboys sing and teach; but they leave off any mention of coming to God as a guilty, hell-deserving “sinner” (Romans 3:19).

Modern apostates jumble a bunch of Biblical terms into their fruit cocktail of religious music and sermonettes; but fail to present the Biblical Gospel of a man coming to God as a guilty sinner and trusting upon the Lord, apart from all self-righteous works, to be forgiven (Romans 4:5-6; Ephesians 2:8-9). Jesus died, was buried, and rose again for our sins (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Salvation is not a feeling, nor an experience; it is a miracle of God in response to a sinner’s faith in the Son of God, Jesus Christ (John 20:31; Romans 10:3-4; Galatians 3:26).

Asking Jesus to “take your will and life,” and “giving everything to Him”; are not the ways to be saved. This is made clear in Matthew 7:21-23. In verse 21, Jesus said, “Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.” Jesus said You must do “the will of the Father.” What is the will of God how to be saved? John 6:40 tells us exactly what the will of God concerning salvation is... “And THIS IS THE WILL of Him [God the Father] that sent Me [God the Son], that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on Him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day." Amen and amen! So there you have it, the will of God how to be saved, i.e., to believe on Jesus Christ. The will of God is to BELIEVE... to BELIEVE... to BELIEVE on Jesus Christ, as the Son of God (Acts 16:30-31).

1st Corinthians 15:1-4, "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures."

2.2.29 Let's Go Soulwinning! (2021-02-23 09:30)

Proverbs 11:30, "The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life; and he that winneth souls is wise." 1st Corinthians 9:16, " For though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for necessity is laid upon me; yea, woe is unto me, if I preach not the gospel!"

The following excellent writing is by Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001). Dr. Hyles was (in my humble opinion) the greatest soulwinning preacher, and personal soulwinner, of the 20th century! In the following booklet Pastor Hyles teaches every Christian how to be an effective soulwinner. ...

> Let's Go Soul Winning
>
> Step-By-Step Lessons on How To Win A Soul To Christ
>
> Here are simple step-by-step lessons in exactly how to lead a soul to Christ. They have been given in great soul-winning conferences all over America and have made many average Christians into amazingly effective soul winners. The lessons are reproduced here exactly as given in one of these conferences.
>
> Dr. Jack Hyles, the author, has been the pastor of the First Baptist Church, Hammond, Indiana, since August, 1959. The church has a membership of well over 100,000 and averages over 8,000 baptisms per year. For many years the church has been acclaimed to have the "World's Largest Sunday School."
>
> Since the printed publication of this book in 1962, First Baptist Church of Hammond, Indiana has seen tremendous growth under the leadership of Dr. Hyles. The church now averages well over 20,000 in attendance every Sunday. This church has seen more people saved than any church in the nation. Several Sundays they have seen over 3,000 walk the aisle accepting Jesus Christ as Saviour.
>
> Dr. Hyles is the founder and chancellor of Hyles-Anderson College, dedicated to preparing local church pastors and workers. The College has over 500 graduates now pastoring churches all over the world, and more than 2,000 graduates serving God full time. His annual Pastor's School attracts several thousand preachers and Christian workers from all over the nation. His annual Youth Conference attracts over 7,000 teenagers from almost every state.
> Dr. Hyles has authored over 40 books which have sold in excess of 14 million copies. He travels over 200,000 miles a year preaching in various conferences, and has preached over 50,000 sermons throughout his ministry.

> LET'S GO SOUL WINNING

"Go ye therefore, and teach all nations [Mark's version says, "...preach the gospel to every creature"], baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world." -Matt. 28:19,20.

Notice the simplicity of the Great Commission. I'm satisfied that this is not all it teaches, but this is the basic teaching, as I see it, of the Great Commission. There are several verbs in this verse. The first one is, "Go." We are to go. That means to go where they are. It doesn't mean to put up a shingle in your office and say, "If anybody wants to get saved, inquire within." It means you are to look them up, track them down. You are to go where they are.

The second verb is, "Teach" (Mark says, "Preach"). Actually it means to win them. Go out and tell them how to be saved. The first thing you do is to go; then get them saved.

The next verb is, "Baptize."

And then, "...Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you."

Notice there are four basic verbs: (1) GO. (2) PREACH (or teach, get them saved). (3) BAPTIZE. (4) TEACH them again. You teach them something after you get them saved and baptized. What do you teach them? To "...observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you." It did not say to teach "whatsoever I have written you." But teach them "whatsoever I have COMMANDED you."

Now what did He command us to do? Go, preach, baptize, then teach them what He commanded us to do. So, we teach them to go and preach and baptize, that they may teach their converts to go, preach and baptize, that they may teach their converts to go and preach and baptize. If I understand the Great Commission properly, the first thing to teach somebody you win to Christ is how to win somebody else to Christ. Don't you think so? It says 'to teach them to do what I have told you to do, what I have commanded you to do.'

Here is what I think the Great Commission basically teaches. I come to this brother here on the front. First, I go. I go to your house; I go to your store, then I tell you how to get converted. I get you baptized. Then I must teach you how to go and get the next man converted and get him baptized, that he may teach another how to go and get still another converted and baptized, that he may go, etc.

Dr. Rice, you don't quit there. You teach him how to get this man converted and baptize him. It is a long circle when you get somebody converted. We have the idea that the Great Commission is wrapped up in going, preaching, and baptizing, and that that is all it says. No, it says you teach them how to go. You teach them how to get folks saved. You teach them how to get folks baptized. That is also a part of the Great Commission and the first command to us after we win a soul to Jesus Christ.

So, this is the Great Commission, this matter of what I'm doing today. I'm teaching you how to have pretty feet. The Bible says, "How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!" So, I'm a chiropodist, a foot specialist. I'm going to make you have pretty feet. A secret of success is good feet. An athlete will tell you the first things that will go bad are legs and feet. No matter how hard you can bat, how good you can catch and pitch, when your legs are gone, the athlete is gone.

The most important thing about an army is its feet. When I was in the service they had a foot inspection at midnight. We would be sound asleep and then... "Attention!!!" Here comes the Captain. We would stand up and look, and here was that big old boy coming down the hall. They would say, "Get on your foot lockers." We got on our foot lockers. Great big old feet sticking out, and they say, "O.K. Hold up your trousers." We held up our trousers while they examined our feet. Why? Because the most important thing about the army was the feet.

Now the first thing to get cold about you is your feet—physically or spiritually. I was in Phoenix in a conference. I got cold at night and I didn't know I was cold. I wasn't awake enough to know where I was cold, but I was awake enough to know I was cold somewhere. Invariably it is your feet that get cold, but you don't realize it. You start pulling the cover up around your shoulders while your feet are sticking out completely. Your feet get colder and you feel colder, but you don't know where you are cold. You pull the covers a little further. Finally, you are freezing to death. It is your feet that are cold but you don't know it.

And that is the first thing that will get cold spiritually. You start tithing and giving more money. But it is not your pocketbook that is cold; it is your feet. You promise God you will start coming to prayer meeting, but your feet get cold first. And a lot of Christians are as cold as a wedge and don't know where it started. It started with their feet.

The same is true about being dirty. How many of you men (now you ladies wouldn't dare do this, but we men do it quite a bit); you don't want to take a bath. You are not quite dirty enough to take a bath, but your feet are dirty, so you take your shoes off, put your big feet up in the lavatory and wash them. Why? Because the feet get dirty first.

The same is true with a Christian. When the feet get dirty—they are the first things that lead you toward backsliding. The first thing you leave off when you get away from God is not the Sunday School on Sunday morning; it is not the Sunday evening service. The first thing is visitation, calling, witnessing. If you can keep your feet warm, you will be warm all over. If you can keep your feet clean, you will be clean all over. If you can keep your feet right, you will be right all over. So, today we will discuss how to keep your feet pretty.

Soul winning is the basic secret of every other problem in the church. For example, here a church is having cold services. There is no warmth there. The Lord does not meet with them. Now how do you overcome it? Get to winning souls. If somebody walks down the aisle every Sunday and professes their faith in Christ, that will warm the service up a great deal.

Here is a church having trouble with its business. It doesn't have enough folks who know business. It is having trouble handling it legal affairs. It doesn't have enough wisdom. The Bible says, "He that winneth souls is wise." So God gives extra wisdom to those who win souls. I would rather have a soul-winning ignoramus run the business of my church than a group of big shots who won't come to prayer meeting on Wednesday night. In the First Baptist Church in Hammond our deacons and leaders are men not necessarily who are business wise, but men who are spiritual and soul winners because God gives them wisdom that no one else has.

The same is true about your finances. If you have trouble raising your money, just get some sinners converted. When Jesus wanted some money, what did He do? He caught a fish with money in its mouth. The same is true if you will get busy about soul winning. Now if you have a little trouble in the church, go soul winning.

Suppose Dr. Rice and I have a fuss. The best thing for us to do is to go soul winning together. If we can win somebody to Jesus together, we will make it all right. We will love each other again.

When I was in Texas a deacon there had a fuss with me. Of course I thought it was his fault. So, one night he came to visitation. We went visiting together. He said, "Preacher, that Bible study you brought last night was the most ridiculous thing I have ever heard."

I said, "J. B., if you had an ounce of sense, if God gave you a brain the size of a flea's brain, you would know I taught the truth last night."

Now, he said, "Preacher, if I didn't love you, I would quit coming to this church."

I said, "J. B., the truth is, I ought not to even go with you." Boy, we really had it.

About that time we came to the first house. A fellow came to the door in his bathrobe and house slippers. He had gone to bed. We got him converted, and J. B. got happy and we started rejoicing. The fellow woke his wife and she came and got converted. We walked out the door on the way home and J. B. looked at me and said, "Preacher, I've been thinking about that sermon at prayer meeting and that was one of the best sermons I have ever heard."

I said, "J. B., no, you're wrong. I was wrong last night and you were right." So we got in a fuss over who was right last night! I'm just saying, we got back together. Why? Because we were winning souls together.

Jesus said in John 15, "Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you." Sometimes folks ask me about predestination. Yes, I believe I was chosen before the foundation of the world—TO GET SOMEBODY SAVED. That is what it says. It says, "I have chosen you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain: and that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you." Then it says, "These things I command you, that ye love one another." What? Going and bringing forth fruit. Why? That will make you love one another. So soul winning is the crux of it all.

I tell my preacher boys in my church, "If you go to a church where they are about to vote you out, kick you out, go out and win enough folks to carry the vote right quick." I was called to a church one time—in fact, the first full-time church I ever had. I carried the vote about 25 to 17. When I got there the first Sunday, a lot of my folks were gone. Usually the first Sunday at the church you present yourself for membership, but I didn't have enough folks there to vote me in and I was already pastor. So I didn't join. I went out winning souls and won eighteen or twenty the first few weeks, then I joined the church. I had enough then to vote me in. So it will take care of your problems.

This matter of soul winning is consuming to me. To me it is just the biggest thing. It consumes me with the bigness, and that anybody can do it. I wish I could tell you about some experiences of folks who do it.

I know a fellow in Texas who, when he got converted, couldn't even spell Jesus. The first year he won 169 to Jesus. He picked up a hitchhiker and tried to witness to him. The hitchhiker shook his head. He then talked real loud, but the hitchhiker pointed to his ears and shook his head. So this new convert started writing the Gospel out and the hitchhiker pointed down and shook his head. He couldn't read, he couldn't hear, he couldn't talk. So this soul winner, who went to the third grade and couldn't even spell Jesus, stopped the car and got out, took his Bible, pointed to the Bible, pointed to his heart, pointed to Heaven, made a motion to open your heart and let Him come in, got on his knees and began to pray. The deaf and dumb fellow got on his knees and mumbled a bit, got up with a smile of Heaven on his face, pointed to the Bible, pointed to Heaven and pointed to his heart.

I'm just saying, anybody can do it. This is a chance for you. As Dr. Bob Jones, Sr., says, God doesn't have many today. This is a chance for you. God is hard up and He will even use you.

1. HAVE A DEFINITE TIME TO GO.

This is one of the most important things in soul winning. If you are to be a soul winner, you have to do it on purpose. You must plan to do it. You must try to do it.

Let me encourage you a bit. I'm sure I speak for others; I know I speak for myself. There never is a day when I want to go soul winning. We're all made of the same clay and have the same weaknesses. Soul winning is a spiritual matter and the flesh will fight against it. In the summer it is too hot to go. Besides, folks are taking naps and it will make them mad if we wake them up. In a few months it is going to start snowing and we don't want to go out in the snow because we will catch cold talking through the door, and they would catch cold, too. There is never a good time to go.

Let me say this, though. I never want to quit once I start. In soul winning you have to have a self-starter. You have to start against the grain. You must start because you are supposed to start. I get tired of folks saying, "Dear Lord, give me a burden to win souls." While you wait on the burden, go out and win a few. The Lord didn't tell you to win souls if you have a burden; He said to win them anyway. If you don't want to, win them; if you feel like it, win them. If we went soul winning every time we felt like it, not a one of us would ever go, because Satan will try to keep us from it. He will keep you at your desk. You may become a great theologian studying things that are good to know, but the Devil will use them to substitute for soul winning.

So have a schedule. The trouble with most preachers—and I'm guilty of it myself—is that we don't live a disciplined life. Every preacher should have a schedule and try to live by it. Every preacher, every Christian should have a set time in the week or several times in the week when he does soul winning.

Personally, I try to go every Thursday afternoon, every Friday afternoon, and sometimes on Saturday. If I cannot go or do not go one of those times, I substitute another time. I suggest the layman should go when the church has visitation, if possible, and maybe one other time in the week. If you cannot go on visitation night, go another time, but set aside a time and say, "This is my time to win souls." If you do not, you will probably be a failure.

2. BE SOUL-CONSCIOUS.

What does it mean to be soul-conscious? Talk to anyone any time or, better still, talk to everyone every time. Realize that everybody has a soul. The drugstore clerk, the barber, the shoeshine boy, the beautician, the grocery clerk, the milkman, bread man, service station attendant needs the Lord and we should witness to them.

Nobody is going to do it every time. It never gets easy to ask, "Are you a Christian?" I practice it. In front of the mirror I say, "Are you a Christian? Are y-o-u a Christian?

Have you ever been converted? Are you saved?" I get in the habit of it. I don't care who you are; I don't care where you are, it is never easy.

For example, you go to buy a medicine from the druggist. Well, you preachers are pretty nice-looking fellows—you could be mistaken for lawyers. You say, "Hello. How are you today?" The druggist thinks, "Isn't that a fine fellow." You know that if you ask, "Are you a Christian?" his opinion of you will change and he will think you are a nut, and nobody wants to be a nut. So you just don't say anything.

Now you had better get in the habit of asking, "Are you a Christian?" You will win more if you just start witnessing everywhere you go. You will win as many on the side as you do on purpose, and you will have the most wonderful experiences. If you preachers would start winning souls everywhere you go, you wouldn't have to get a book of illustrations to preach from next Sunday. Instead of saying, "In a distant city many years ago a certain man down a certain street..." you could say, "Last Friday morning out on the field I won somebody to Jesus. Let me tell you about it." It will liven up your sermons. That way you won't repeat anybody's illustrations. They will all be yours.

So, be soul-conscious. I mean by being soul-conscious, make it a habit of asking people everywhere you go, "Are you a Christian?" Ask the bread man, the school teacher, the milkman, the fellow who works in the yard, the telephone man, the fellow who reads the meter for the gas and electricity. Just ask everyone you see, "Are you a Christian? Have you been saved?" Be soul-conscious.

Let me give you this illustration. I was out mowing the yard one day while pastoring in Texas. Our church was the largest church in our city. One out of seven people in town belonged to our church. I saw my members quite often. Now, when I mow the yard, I'm not quite a beauty queen! That day I had on a tee shirt with a hole in the shoulder, and one right under the arm; I had on a pair of old tennis shoes with holes in them, and a pair of trousers with patches in the knee, and I think I had on either a golf cap or a fishing hat. I was a tragic-looking thing, a sight to behold!

My wife came out in the yard and said, "Honey, would you go get some sugar from the neighbor down the street?" I said, "All right, I'll do it." So I got the cup and marched down there with my tennis shoes on, and a hole in my breeches and tee shirt, and a fishing cap on. We were very close friends to the folks, so we never knocked. They would come in our house and we would go in theirs—just real close neighbors.

So I walked in and said, "Hey! Anybody home?" And there was—thirteen people at home—company all dressed up in suits and fine clothes. There I was. Imagine, Rev. Hyles, a cup in his hand, fishing hat on, split tee shirt, patch in his breeches, and a pair of tennis shoes on his feet! And I said, "Hello." The lady looked at me, she looked at her company, then announced, "This is my pastor." I was horrified! I was humiliated! I wanted to evaporate but couldn't.

Finally I said, "Excuse me; I'm sorry." Then I got to thinking. Shoot! Just take over the conversation. Just act like you have good sense. So in I walked. "How do you do! How are you? Are you a Christian?" I went around the entire room asking the same question. Then THEY got embarrassed.

(I found out long ago that when a preacher goes to a hospital or gets some place where he feels like a fifth wheel, he should just bluff them and take over the conversation. That will help you, too. It really will. You go to the hospital. Here is the doctor, the nurse, the family. And everybody says, "That's the preacher." You know how you feel, pastors. It's a terrible feeling. So I walk in, "Hello Doc. How are you?" Make HIM feel bad. Make HIM feel like he's a fifth wheel.)

So I walked in and asked each person if he or she were a Christian. The last man, a young man, said, "No, I'm not, but I've been thinking about it." Well, I said, "I can help you think about it right here." We knelt there in that home and opened the Bible. He got converted. He lived at Irving, Texas, forty miles from Garland. I said, "Now, J.D., you need to walk the aisle in the church in Irving tomorrow." He said, "If you don't mind, Preacher, I'll just stay over tonight and come to your church and walk the aisle." He did, and that night he got baptized in my church. Later he joined the First Baptist Church of Irving, Texas.

You don't realize how many places you will bump into people. I saw a lady while on vacation just recently. She said, "Hello, Brother Jack. Remember when you won me to the Lord?" I said, "I certainly do." It happened while I was looking for a Mrs. Marsh. I knocked on Mrs. Marsh's door—I thought. She came to the door. I said, "Mrs. Marsh?"

"No, I'm Mrs. Tillet."

I said, "Mrs. Tillet, I thought Mrs. Marsh lived here."

"No, she lives five houses down the street."

"Thank you, Mrs. Tillet." I walked off. Then I said, "Wait a minute, Mrs. Tillet. Are you a Christian?" She began to cry. I led her to Christ right there.

I have won shoeshine boys and fellows on airplanes. I was going to Phoenix to a conference last year. I sat down beside a man seventy-two years old, a wealthy rancher. "Where do you live?" I asked.

He said, "On a ranch between Phoenix and Tucson."

I said, "Do you and your wife live alone?"

"My wife died a few months ago."

I asked, "Do you ever think about having anybody else come and live with you?"

"Oh," he said, "If I could find somebody who would come and live with me, a friend to keep me company, I'd give anything in the world." He had chauffeurs, servants. He owned a big ranch with hundreds of acres, but was as lonely as he could be.

I said, "I know Somebody who would come and live with you."

"You do? Does He live in Phoenix?"

I said, "He sure does. He lives everywhere."

He said, "Who is it?"

"Jesus will come." In fifteen minutes that man had Somebody to go home with him to live.

Oh, if we will just take time to witness. The trouble is, we are ashamed of Jesus. We don't mind saying, "Isn't it hot today?" or, "I wonder how the Berlin situation is." We don't mind talking about Khrushchev. We're more eager to talk about him than about Jesus. Isn't that a shame! Here we are redeemed. He died for us on the cross. We have been made heirs of God and joint heirs with Jesus Christ. He is building a home in Heaven for us. We're God's children and we won't even tell a stranger that we belong to the Lord Jesus. Be soul-conscious.

3. BE CLEAN AND NEAT.

There are two or three things a soul winner ought to watch. A soul winner ought to always watch his odor. That is tremendously important. Not only watch about your body odor, but you ought to be careful about your breath. One thing that will hurt more than most anything else in soul winning is bad breath. I would suggest that you carry mints with you. We men have a little pocket on the inside of our pocket. Put some mints in there. I always put one in my mouth before I conduct the invitation on Sunday and meet folks at the altar. So keep some mints handy.

There are other ways you can help your breath. Gum is good if you can chew it when no one sees you. Someone said the only difference between a gum-chewing flapper and a cud-chewing cow is the intelligent look on the face of the cow! You can also use Sen-Sen. I used to get a bottle of Listerine to keep in my car and between each visit I gargled.

A soul winner should also be neat. Too often the world's conception of a soul winner is some fellow on a street corner, in a suit that doesn't fit; his tie is turned around; he has a funny look in his eye; his collar is turned up; and he is looking at you saying, "You'd better get borned agin or you're going to Hell." Don't you think God could use some folks who know how to dress neatly? Don't you think God could use somebody with a clean white shirt as well as a dirty shirt? Don't you think God could use somebody who knows how to comb his hair as well as somebody with messed-up hair? Don't you think God could use somebody who knows how to brush his teeth as well as somebody who doesn't?

Now I thank God for everybody who witnesses. I appreciate the sign on the back of a car. I admire every fellow who stands up and says, "You'd better get borned agin or you're going to Hell." I am grateful for every sign on a rock that says, "Jesus Saves." But I will say this: We need more people with some intelligence and a nice appearance, a nice personality, a good approach, to go into homes and tell people about Jesus Christ.

One should dress just as nice to go soul winning as he would to go to church. Men should at least wear a white shirt and a tie. I suggest you ladies wear high heel and hose. Dress as nicely as possible when you represent Jesus. When you go soul winning, you should give the best appearance. Someone has said, "I want to look so no one will ever accuse me of being a preacher, but they won't be surprised if they find out I am." So dress the part. Be clean and neat.

4. CARRY A TESTAMENT WITH YOU.

Personally I think it much better to carry a Testament than a Bible. Now do not be ashamed of the Bible, but if you plan to shoot a fellow, don't carry your gun out in the open up to his house. The best thing to do is to conceal your weapon. If I were going to shoot you, Dr. Rice, I wouldn't say, "Dr. Rice, here I come. Here's my gun. Here you are. Bang! Bang!" Dr. Rice would be out of the way by the time I got there. Now when some folks see you walking up the sidewalk with a big Bible, they will be hiding in the closet by the time you get there. If you have done much soul winning, you know what I'm talking about. Simply get out of the car and walk up to the door with a concealed Bible or Testament. Walk up the sidewalk with a big Bible and people will say, "Here comes the preacher." Mama says, "Tell him I'm not home." So the little fellow comes to the door and says, "Mama told me to tell you she wasn't home!" Now the reason is, they have you spotted.

But I get out of the car with a little Testament tucked away in my pocket, walk up to the door and since they don't know who it is, I have an inroad. When you do to win souls, the best thing is to keep your weapon concealed until you get into the house.

Carrying two Testaments is good also. I don't do this as religiously as I used to, but I did for years. You can buy inexpensive ones for about 25 cents. Let the lost person read from one and you read one. After you win him to Christ, give it to him as a souvenir. You can write on the inside that it was given to So and So on such and such a date (the date of the conversion), with a "God bless you" and a Scripture verse. Give him a Testament and keep one yourself. On occasion you might use his Bible if you see it around.

I don't sit beside the person when I win him. I used to. Now I sit across the room. Two or three reasons why. One, it is always best to sit across the room if you are dealing with the opposite sex. Then it is best to look in the person's eyes when talking to him.

5. GO TWO BY TWO.

There are many reasons why we go two by two. It is scriptural. Jesus sent the apostles out two by two. One can encourage the other. There is something about strength in unity. If you don't believe it, eat at a restaurant by yourself tonight and try to witness to the waitress. Then tomorrow night go with Dr. Rice and me and see how much easier it is.

Another reason of primary importance. Jim Lyons and I were visiting in a home the other day (I'm the pastor and he is my assistant). The fellow took a liking to Jim. I don't know why but he wouldn't talk to me. He looked at Jim all the time. I moved around a little closer but still he looked at Jim. I said, "Yes, that's right"; still he wouldn't look at me. I wanted to say, "Hey, I'm the pastor; he's second in command." He still looked at Jim. That fellow wouldn't know me if he saw me on the street.

Now, Jim had to talk to him. What am I supposed to do? The one who seemingly has the best inroad should carry the conversation and the partner should keep the road clear for the conversation. That is basically why two ought to go together.

I believe in being spiritual. It is wonderful to praise God, but you have to start where they are instead of where you are. I was out visiting one day with a wonderful Christian fellow. We knocked on the door. He said, "How do you do. My name is Jones (I'll call him that). Praise the Lord! This is Brother Hyles. Bless His holy name! We are here to tell you about Jesus. Glory to God! Are you saved? Hallelujah!" The man we went to see slammed the door in our faces. You must make them realize if they get what you have, it won't be so bad. So one makes the inroad while the other keeps the road clear.

What do we mean by keeping the road clear? We mean when the baby starts crying, you should change his diaper; when the beans start boiling, you put some water in them or turn the fire off; when the doorbell rings, you answer it; when the children start screaming for water, you get them a drink.

If you are not doing the talking, you be quiet until your partner is finished. The one doing the talking should do all the talking. Every now and then somebody says, "Well, that means then one runs out of something to say, the other can say something." Don't you go if you are going to run out of something to say. If you can't present the entire Gospel to a lost soul, you are not ready to go yet.

The fellow not doing the talking should keep the way clear. I have played every kind of game there is to play. I have done everything. I have changed many a diaper while out visiting. I have looked in every drawer in the bedroom hunting diapers so I could change a baby. That’s right. I go to a house where there is a baby; the baby starts to cry while my partner is talking to the lost one. "Now, Mrs. Jones, never mind; I have had four little children at my house. I have had babies at my house for ten years and I’ve changed hundreds of diapers. Let me take care of that." She says, "Oh! Brother Hyles..." "Now, Mrs. Jones, you sit right there and I’ll take care of it." And I do. I have played soccer. I have played dolls. So many kids have been on my back at one time playing "piggy back" and "ride the horsie" that if my partner hadn’t gotten the soul saved soon, I would have dropped over!

One day I went soul winning with Bob Keyes, who was then my assistant pastor, but who is now pastor of the church Dr. Rice founded in Dallas. Bob was an excellent soul winner and still is. We were out soul winning. I was doing the talking and the lady had a little baby who was acting ugly. About the time the lady was ready to get down to pray, the little boy said, "I want my bottle." Mama stuck the bottle in his mouth. "I don’t want my bottle." She took it out. "I wanna bottle." She stuck it in. "I don’t want my bottle." Then I prayed, "Lord, do something about this little rascal or he is going to mess up the whole thing." Do you know, he stopped and looked spellbound, as if he were in a trance. I said to myself, "Well, glory to God!" For about fifteen minutes that little baby didn’t move. He didn’t move his eyes; he just looked. The lady got converted and became one of the greatest Christians in our church.

When we left I said to Bob Keyes, "Bob, praise the Lord!"

He said, "Amen! Why?"

"Did you see what God did to that baby?"

He said, "What?"

I said, "All of a sudden, at the crucial time, that baby froze."

Bob said, "Well, I’m sure the Lord had something to do with it, but I may have helped a little because I had a ballpoint pen behind the coffee table going up and down, up and down, up and down. Preacher, I did that fifteen minutes and I’m worn out!"

Now, don’t you think Bob had a part in that soul? Sure he did. Some of you spiritual giants need to know how to change diapers and handle ballpoint pens! You would get more people converted.

One time I was out with a fellow who got to praying for this lady, "Lord, save her! Lord, save her!" while I was trying to witness to her. He was talking louder than I was. Pretty soon he got on his knees and prayed, "Lord, save her!" Then he got on the floor and started beating the floor and saying, "Lord, save her!" I had to say, "Now, friend, I’m sorry but she can’t hear what I’m trying to say. Would you mind going into the other room?" He did and we got her converted. If we are going to beat on the floor, let’s do it at midnight, alone. If we are going to agonize, let’s cry all night alone but not make a public demonstration or show. Do things that are necessary to do.

One night Bob Keyes was witnessing to a fellow and the doorbell rang. I said, "Dear friend, you stay right here. I’ll answer the door." I went to the door. The fellow at the door said, "How do you do. Are you the man of the house?"

I said, "I’m a man of the house." (I was a man and I was of the house!)

He said, "I have an appointment with you to show you a vacuum cleaner." Obviously he had called and had an appointment.

I said, "I will be delighted to look at it. Come and we’ll look at it on the front porch."

I didn’t want the fellow to leave and I didn’t want him to stay, so I saw all of the vacuum cleaner and its parts. We tested the thing out. Finally Bob Keyes said, "Hey, Jack! Come on. I’ve got him saved now."

I said, "Mr. vacuum cleaner man, my name is Hyles. I’m pastor of Miller Road Baptist Church and we just got this man converted. By the way, have you ever become a Christian?" We turned on him and tried to get him converted. Now, if I hadn’t kept that vacuum cleaner salesman occupied, this fellow would never have gotten converted. Keep your eyes open if you are the second party. Keep the way clear. Pave the roads in order for the person doing the witnessing to do the job. That’s the reason basically for going two by two.

By the way, Dr. Rice told this morning how you can pray without ceasing. I imagine a fellow can pray and change the baby at the same time, don’t you? We can pray and water the beans or play ball with the kids at the same time.

6. GO WITH DIFFERENT PEOPLE.

Occasionally, somebody will ask me, "Brother Hyles, if you started a new church or if you went to a new church, what is the first thing you would do in training the people to win souls?" The first thing would be to have different folks go with me to win a soul. The best way to train a soul winner is for him to watch someone else win a soul. The wonderful thing about soul winning is when you win a soul to Christ in the home, you are training a soul winner at the same time.

For example, let us suppose one brother gets converted in a church during preaching. That is wonderful. He is saved, but he has never seen a soul won in the home. Let’s suppose another brother is won in his home. He has already seen me win him, so he knows exactly how to win someone else.

So, soul winning in the home reproduces itself. You train them and teach them how to become soul winners before they ever get converted. Now they can witness, and they can say, "At least I can do what Brother Hyles did to me." They already know basically what to do. So, go with different people so that others may watch you and learn.

7. CLAIM THE SPIRIT’S FULLNESS BEFORE GOING.

Now I think basically that when a person goes to win souls, he should spend his time winning souls. I had a secretary once who came to work about nine o’clock every morning, then she wanted to spend the first two hours praying. I think prayer is wonderful, but from nine to eleven in the morning is not the time for a secretary with a job to pray. From six to eight might be all right, or from 1 a.m. to 2 a.m., or from seven to nine at night. But she wanted to pray from nine to eleven in the morning. She thought I was unspiritual because I wanted her to type letters and get the work done. I said, "I don’t mind you praying, but I’m not going to pay you for praying. Don’t you pray on company time; you pray on your own time."

Now, soul-winning time should be time set aside for soul winning. We ought to set aside times for seasons of prayer, but not to borrow it from scheduled soul-winning time. When you go, say a simple prayer. I always pray basically this prayer, "Dear Lord, I claim in faith the fullness of the Holy Spirit before I go. I pray that You will help me to be a blessing to somebody and help me to win somebody today." Claim the Spirit’s fullness—a simple prayer of faith asking God to help and give power. I make it brief.

Suppose you are going soul winning at one o'clock on Friday afternoon and you are going to pray for thirty minutes; pray from 12:30 to 1:00, not from 1:00 to 1:30. Do not steal soul-winning time. If you plan to go soul winning at one o'clock and you want to pray for four hours, start praying at nine o'clock in the morning and go soul winning at one. Stay on schedule about your soul winning and claim the Spirit's fullness before you go.

8. GO BELIEVING.

This one thing changed my soul-winning ministry. For example, people often take this little course, then call me on the phone to say, "Brother Hyles, it worked! It worked!" Sure it worked. Expect it to work. Isn't that what faith is? Believe that God is going to save somebody. Expect to win them. Go believing. God said He would save sinners if you would go. That is His promise. "He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him." Don't be surprised when God keeps His promise. Go believing.

9. BE NICE.

Be nice, courteous, kind and gentle. One thing so difficult for preachers is to change our behavior from the pulpit to the living room. You can't act the same in the living room as you act in the pulpit. It is quite different, because you were not invited. You are infringing upon their privacy. When in the home be courteous and kind.

Many seem to think that the Lord said, "Go into all the world and teach all ladies to quit smoking cigarettes." Now I don't believe in smoking. We don't allow any deacons to smoke in our church. I don't believe in smoking, and especially in ladies smoking. However, God didn't send us out house to house to talk to ladies into quitting smoking. God sent us out to get people converted. I've heard of preachers walking up to a door and addressing the lady thusly: "If you will throw that wicked weed away, I'll talk to you." This certainly is the wrong approach. Get her converted first; then perhaps she will throw her cigarettes away. In other words, don't get off the subject.

One day I was talking to a lady who said, "Brother Hyles, I can't be saved because I smoke. Do you think a person can be saved who smokes?"

I said, "That's a good question. Let's wait awhile and I'll discuss that with you." I said, "Do you realize that you are a sinner?"

"Oh, yes," she said, "but I'm not going to get saved because I'm not going to quit smoking."

I said, "All right, that's a fine question. We will wait awhile and I'll discuss that with you." So I told her how to be saved. I prayed and eventually she prayed and gave her heart to Jesus and was converted.

After she got converted I said, "By the way, you asked something awhile ago about smoking."

She said, "We took care of that when we prayed."

You will do a whole lot more good if you will keep on salvation, stay right on the line, and be nice and kind.

When you go to a home, be as courteous as a vacuum cleaner salesman or an insurance man. Be personable. I always say this: The first thing you have to do is win them to yourself. I don't mean you ought to selfishly try to make friends, then get them converted as a by-product. You have to first make them think you are all right.

For example, you have to have a Christianity that they feel will fit them if they put it on. If you walk up saying, "Hello. Glory to God! How are you? Praise the Lord! Glad to see you. Hallelujah!" They say, "Oh, no! If I get what he's got, I'll probably be like he is; no thank you, I don't want it." A pleasant "How do you do. How are you?" is always in order. The first thought they should have is, "He is a nice fellow," or "She is a pleasant lady."

10. BE COMPLIMENTARY.

Every time you go to a home, brag on something. We live in a selfish world. It is good to say, "You sure have a nice suit," or "Isn't that a precious child?" Make it a habit. Develop it inwardly. It should be part of your nature. One of the sins of the ministry is professional gratitude. Did you ever hear it? We often say, "Mrs. Jones, that was a good meal," but we don't mean a word of it. Stop and think. Mrs. Jones started cooking two days ago. She made her husband put his shoes outside the door when he came in and walk in barefoot to keep the floor nice. Those poor little ones couldn't even come in the house. They couldn't even use a towel. They had to use paper towels for two days to keep the towels clean for the preacher. The poor little things ate boloney for three days before you came to save so the lady could buy the nicest center-cut roast. She got the finest of everything, put out her best china, her best silver, her best crystal. She is as nervous as a cat. The preacher is coming! Now listen, stop and think about that; then look at her when you finish the meal and with a heart full of appreciation, say, "Mrs. Jones, I know what you've done for this meal, and I appreciate, personally, the work you've done to make this possible." Take the professionalism out of it and make it a part of yourself to want to be grateful and expressive of gratitude to people in the home.

The best thing to brag on is children. Be able to compliment little children. Man, listen. I can come in your home and say a few things about your young'uns and I'm a great fellow, regardless of what I've done wrong.

We had an insurance man in Texas who used to bother me to no end. He would say, "If you loved your family, you'd have more insurance." I would answer, "If I loved my family, I would sell what I've got now and spend the money to buy food for them." I hated to see him coming.

One day I was out in the yard and I saw him coming. I walked out to the curb and waited for him. When he stopped, I leaned against the door on his side, grinned at him and said, "Hello." He didn't even look at me. He look at my little five-year-old girl and said, "Hello, sweetheart. You're the prettiest little girl I ever saw."

I said, "Isn't she though."

My little boy came toddling out (he was three at the time) and the salesman said, "Hello there, son. You're a fine-looking fellow. Have some chewing gum."

I said, "Won't you get out and come in?"

Sure, he knew how to get in. He bragged on the children. I think a man who has that good judgment about children deserves to come in! So he came in.

You do the same thing. Brag on the children. Compliment the home. If there is a new piece of furniture in the house, a beautiful carpet, a nice sofa or a dresser, brag on it. Be on the lookout for things to compliment.

11. BE CAREFUL ABOUT GOING IN.

Now this I think is important. I do not try usually to go into the home unless the people are unsaved. If the people are saved, normally I do not go in. I don't chit-chat much with the saints. When I do out to visit I usually make twenty visits in one afternoon. That is four hours' work. The way I do that is to find out quickly if they are saved, pass the time of day very briefly, invite them to church and say goodbye. To many of us go out to visit and when we find a good Baptist fellow who tithes, makes a big salary, and one whom we want in our church, we go in and spend the afternoon, drink coffee, eat cake and let the world go to Hell. I do not personally spend a great deal of time visiting with saints. I just keep going and keep going until I find the lost ones and spend my time with them.

Also, if it isn't the opportune time, don't go in. I would especially be careful about going in if the opposite sex is alone. Now a word to you men who find a lady alone. Be very careful about going in. Sometimes if the person is busy, it is good to ask her if you could make an appointment to come back later at her convenience. But be careful about going in.

12. BE A GOOD LISTENER.

Talk about jobs wanted and positions open. There is lots of room in the world for some good listeners: there are many available positions open for good listeners. Did you ever hear a person say, "He sure is a fine fellow. Just a quiet, fine fellow. He is such a good listener"?

So often this happens—you preachers know this is true. A lady comes into my office. "Brother Hyles, I need some advice. I just don't know what to do. I felt like you could tell me what to do."

"All right; present your problem."

She talks and talks for an hour or so. I say nothing but, "God bless you. Uh huh. Well, yes."

That is all I say for an hour. She gets up and says after an hour, "Brother Hyles, you always have the best advice. You always know just what to do."

Well, I didn't advise anybody about anything. She just wanted somebody to unload on. That is one of the basic jobs of the pastor. Day after day they come through my office, as they do yours, wanting somebody to hear about their problems and burdens.

Go to a home and say, "Where do you work, Mr. Jones?"

"Down there at the steel company."

"What do you do down there?"

"Well, I make steel."

"How long have you been down there?"

"I've been there six months," Mr. Jones says.

"Where are you from?" I ask.

"I'm from Tennessee."

"Tennessee? That's a beautiful state. I've been down in the Cumberland Mountains in Tennessee."

Talk to him about his interests, and let him talk to you. Ask him about his family, where he is from. Ask him where he works. Let him talk to you for a while. Personally, I’m not an advocate of quick witnessing. Some of the best soul winners I know are, but I differ with them here. I think it best to chit-chat for awhile and be folksy. Listen to them. Let them present their problems, then after awhile talk to them.

Not long ago my wife and I were going to Colorado where I was preaching in a conference near Pueblo. We were on a jet going to Denver. The wife was sitting next to the window, I was sitting in the middle, and a businessman was sitting by me. I started a conversation with him. "What kind of business are you in?" He talked to me for thirty minutes. I have never heard so much talking in my life. I didn’t have any idea what he was talking about. I just tried to act intelligent. There are a lot of basic answers, you know. He would say, "What do you thing about the geophysical problem in the United States?"

I would answer, "It’s really a problem, isn’t it?"

He would say, "How do you feel we are economically?"

"Oh, I feel like we’ve seen better days, but we’ve seen worse days too, you know." Just a few basic questions and answers!

Finally after he unloaded for about thirty minutes, I got to talk to him. My wife punched me and grinned. She knew what I was doing. After we got off the plane she said, "You rascal! I knew the whole time you didn’t understand a thing he was saying but you were waiting for the time when he would do the listening for awhile." If he talked to me for thirty minutes, then wouldn’t let me talk to him for five minutes, he wouldn’t have been very kind, would he? You listen to them for awhile and you will get them to listen to you easier. Be a good listener.

13. ONLY ONE DO THE TALKING

I wish I could stress this more. When two go together and both want to talk, it is often because of trying to argue people into becoming Christians. You can’t do that. The best thing to do is ask the dear Lord to help and lead and open doors, then with a kindly, gracious, Christian spirit, go into the homes and present the plan of God to the people, giving them a chance to accept or reject.

Only one do the talking. The one who has the inroad should do the talking. Suppose Dr. Rice, that you and I are going soul winning and we meet a fellow who is mowing his yard. I walk up and start talking to him. "Hey, neighbor! You’ve got you yard looking mighty nice."

He says, "Well, thank you."

I say, "What kind of mower is that?"

"Oh, it’s a Jacobson," he replies.

"This is a good lawn mower," I say.

He says to himself, "This is a nice fellow."

Suppose we meet a man who is working on his car. "Hello, how are you?" I ask, putting forth my hand.

"Oh, my hand is greasy," he says.

"I don’t care. I have shaken greasy hands before."

He thinks, "That sure is a nice fellow."

Be folksy and get his attention. Then the person who has the inroad can do the talking.

For example, Dr. Rice has written some books. If the fellow says he is an author, then I say, "Dr. Rice here has written scores of books." Immediately he becomes interested in Dr. Rice. Then I had better go water the beans; Dr. Rice is going to talk to him. So, I'm going to keep my mouth shut. The best thing for me to do is to be quiet, prayerful and helpful, then if he fails, I may try. Again I say, only one do the talking.

I went soul winning with a man one time, a wonderful Christian and a great fellow, but he didn't know a thing about soul winning. We went to a lady's house. She came to the door. I said, "How do you do. How are you today? Nice baby. Beautiful day. You have a nice home," etc. We talked awhile, then I asked, "Lady, have you ever become a Christian?"

"Well, I was baptized down in Henderson, Texas."

"Oh," he interrupted, "Henderson, Texas? I had a meeting down there. Do you know Zeb Peabody who runs the feed store there?"

I said, "Now lady, have you ever received the Lord and been converted?"

She said, "Well, one time I thought I did down in Jacksonville."

"Jacksonville?" he interrupted, "I had four meetings in Jacksonville. Well, I'll declare! Jacksonville!"

Well, I had to send him home. He just couldn't be quiet. You just let one person do the talking. The one who gets the inroad should follow right on through and present the plan while the other on keeps the way clear.

14. STAY ON THE SUBJECT.

Now, the place the Devil will ruin more soul winners than most any other place is here. I sometimes think that knowing too much hurts soul winners. If we could just keep it simple and stay on the simple plan of salvation, we would do a lot better. I spent many days in school learning to handle a Mormon; I haven't seen but two since I got out of college. I memorized Scripture after Scripture on how to handle special cases. A Mormon will often handle just like a Jehovah's Witness. A Catholic will often handle just like a Seventh-Day Adventist. To learn how to win an unbeliever in the big thing. And the simple plan of salvation is the answer. Just stay on the subject.

Suppose the old question is asked—"Where did Cain get his wife?" What should I do? I would say, "That's a good question, and I will tell you what we will do. I'll make a note of it and we will discuss it when we get through. Now, down here in Romans 3:10..."

Just stay right on the subject. You say, "Brother Hyles, what if he asks you a question about Heaven or Hell?" You are going to tell them about Heaven and Hell in a minute anyway. Tell them the same thing: "That's a good question." You plan the speech, and don't let anything he says get you off the main line. Don't spend your time answering his questions or he will be governing the conversation. You govern the conversation. You carry the ball. Stay on the subject.

15. FIND SOMEWAY TO GET THEM LOST.

Let me explain. Often I've gone out to win souls and asked, "Are you a Christian?" If he said, "Yes, I am," I would let it go at that. But some people will answer yes to "Are you a Christian?" who are not really Christians and you need to get the Gospel to them. To do this, we must get to a verse like Romans 3:10. I've got to figure some way to get to Romans 3:10 and get them to let me tell them how to be saved. Do you see what I mean?

Let me illustrate. A family comes to talk to me and I know they are lost. "Brother Hyles, we have a home problem. Do you know any Bible verses that would help our home?"

"Ah, yes. There is a verse in the Bible that will help anybody's home. Turn to Romans 3:10."

Somebody comes in, "Brother Hyles, my business is going bankrupt. What does the Bible say about business?"

"Ah, it says a great deal about business. The best Scriptures about business in the Bible begin at Romans 3:10." Then tell them about Jesus. He will solve any problem.

Now, let me give you an illustration that will prove what I am trying to say. This is the only time that it has ever happened but it is a most vivid illustration to explain this point.

I went to visit a family. Let's call the name Hill. It was up on the second floor of an apartment building. They had three lovely children. I walked in and said, "How do you do, Mr. Hill. Are you a Christian?"

"Oh, yes," he said. "I was saved when I was three years old."

Well, I didn't know what to say. Then I asked Mrs. Hill, "Are you a Christian?"

"Oh, yes," she said. "I was saved when I was a baby."

Well, now I didn't think they were saved. If they had said they weren't Christians, I could have showed them Romans 3:10 but I couldn't when they said they were Christians. So I asked, "Have you been born again?"

Oh, yes; both of them were born again. He was born again when he was three; she was born again when she was a baby.

"Have you been converted, saved?"

That's right; they had been saved.

"If you died, do you know if you would go to Heaven?"

Yes, yes; they knew if they died they would go to Heaven.

Well, I didn't know what to do. I wanted to get to Romans 3:10. So I said, "Well, let me ask you this: Do you ever wish you knew how to pray? If I could show you some Scriptures on prayer, would you be willing to learn how to pray better?"

I was going to show them a good Scripture about prayer—Romans 3:10—but she said, "Oh, we have family altar and private devotions; we took a correspondence course on prayer recently."

"Well," I said, "did you ever wish you had a Bible study, some Scriptures to show you how to study the Bible?"

If they had said, "No, we don't study the Bible much," I was going to say, "Listen, there are some Scriptures that will unlock the entire Bible and the first one is Romans 3:10."

But she said, "Oh, yes; we are taking a Bible course right now, a correspondence course."

I tried every way I could to get to Romans 3:10, but I couldn't do it. I said, "Well, is your home what it ought to be? Would you love to have some Scriptures on the home—how to have a better home and a good Christian home?" I was going to show them Romans 3:10—how it would lead you to have a better home, etc. I couldn't do it, so I prayed, "Lord, help me." Finally I said, "This is a good home. You have been born again; you are converted; you have been saved; you pray and you are taking Bible study courses. You know, there is one thing that a home like this ought to have."

They asked what.

I said, "A formal dedication service."

Now that sounded good to them, and Mr. Hill said, "Honey, that sounds real good. When could we schedule that?"

I said, "It so happens that I have one of the services with me right now."

He said, "Could we do it here?"

I said, "We can do it right here."

Listen, she went in and changed clothes, combed her hair, put clean little dresses and shirts on the children. They came in like a group going to Sunday School. I said, "Now, then, we're going to read some Scriptures on home dedication. It says in Romans 3:10, "As it is written, there is 'no home' righteous, no, not one." In Romans 5:12 it says that sin came into the first home and it was the first home that brought the first curse upon man. I went through the same old Scriptures, Romans 3:10, 5:12, 6:23, 5:8, and I said, "Those are Scriptures about the dedication of the home. Now would you like to pray a prayer of home dedication?"

They said that would be real nice. So we all got on our knees. I prayed and then said, "Mr. Hill, you want to pray a prayer of dedication for you home, don't you?"

"Yes, sir," he said.

I said, "Mr. Hill, this is the prayer to say: 'Dear Lord, be merciful to me a sinner and forgive my sins and save my soul. I do now repent of my sins and trust Jesus to save me.'"

He prayed the prayer. She prayed the same prayer.

We got off our knees and they were both crying. I said, "That's wonderful! Now you said you were saved when you were three, didn't you?"

Mr. Hill looked at me and said, "No, I just got saved a minute ago."

That is a long way around to get the Gospel to them without them wanting it if you don't think they are saved.

Let me say this also. If you can't get it to them, I have what I call a long plan and a short plan. In the long plan I read the Scriptures; in the short plan I quote them. For example, I say, "Would you like to be a Christian?"

He says, "No, I don't think I would."

I say, "If I were to show you in the Bible, would you be willing to look at it?"

"No," he says.

"Well, let me ask you this question." (Now that is the secret. Every soul winner ought to learn that little sentence, "Let me ask you THIS question.") I was previously going to take the Bible and show him these Scriptures, but he says he doesn't want to see them. So I say, "If you don't want to know the plan, let me ask you THIS question: Do you realize that Romans 3:10 says that there is none righteous, no, not one?" I'm doing the same thing that I was going to do. He thinks, "Boy, I sure got him off the subject; he is not going to show me how to get saved." He thinks you are off the subject.

So if you can't use the long method, use the short method. Just back up and take another path and go at him from another direction, but get the plan to him. Then you can go to him with the short method where you quote the same Scriptures but do not read them.

16. STAY IN THE SAME BOOK OF THE BIBLE.

This is important. Use the same book all the way through. Some books in the Bible you could use for the plan of salvation are: Romans, John, First John, Isaiah, Psalms, Acts, Ephesians, etc. Definitely it is best to stay in the same book in the Bible and not to jump around too much.

Here is the way I do it and I think this is a good suggestion. When I start talking to a person I say, "Now, Mr. Jones, the Bible is composed of 66 books and each book has a different immediate purpose. For example, the book of Genesis explains the creation of man. The book of Revelation explains the end time. There is one book in the Bible that is given especially to tell about the power of the Gospel of Christ and how to go to Heaven. That is the book of Romans. This book clearly explains how to go to Heaven."

What you are doing is this: You are saying to him, "Now, I'm taking you to that part of the book that specializes in telling you how to go to Heaven." It makes him feel you are an expert.

One thing I always try to do in a town where I pastor; I always try to make folks think of me as a specialist. All pastors should be specialists on soul winning, but I try to make folks think of me as a specialist. Folks call me all the time and say, "Brother Hyles, would you go to the hospital and see my lost loved one or send your assistant pastor to see him?"

"Well, yes," I say. "Do you belong to a church in town?"

They answer, "Yes, I belong to a certain church."

"Oh, is your pastor out of the city?"

"No, but he doesn't specialize in getting folks saved," they say.

I don't say a word about it. I just want to create the attitude in town that my church is primarily a place to get folks converted. It is important to build that kind of atmosphere. You would be surprised how many people who maybe wouldn't like you personally and wouldn't want to join your church, but they know you try to get folks converted.

For example, here is a lady who has an unsaved husband. He is a drunkard and won't go to church with her. One night he says to her, "Honey, I think I'll go to church with you tonight."

So she says, "Well, wonderful."

He says, "Let's go to your church."

She says, "Let's don't go to my church tonight; let's go somewhere new. Let's go to First Baptist and hear Brother Hyles. Would you like to do that?"

She knows we will try to get him saved. They might be having a special activity at her church, but she knows at our church we will try to get him converted. I'm saying that if you will build that reputation, you will get a lot of folks converted who may not stay in your church, but you will develop the reputation as the evangelistic headquarters in town.

So, I would suggest you try to lead the folks to know that you know what you are talking about and that you have found the book. Only use the one book.

17. DRAW A MAP IN YOUR NEW TESTAMENT.

I contend that you can be a soul winner if you don't know a single verse of Scripture, if you can draw a map in your Bible to tell yourself where to go. All you need do is find Romans 3:10 and you won't have to know a single verse of Scripture. Right beside Romans 3:10, write the next verse to tell you where to go in your Bible. Actually what you do is draw yourself a little road map in your Bible to explain where to go next.

First, turn to Romans 3:10. That is all you have to remember. Underline the verse. Beside it write 3:23. After you have read Romans 3:10, it tells you where to go next. Now turn to Romans 3:23. Underline that verse and beside that write 5:12. Turn to 5:12 and underline 5:12 and write beside it 6:23. Underline 6:23 and beside it write 5:8. Underline 5:8 and write beside it 10:9-13.

Now that is a map for you. You don't have to know a single verse of Scripture to be a soul winner if you draw a map in your Bible. You follow the map until you learn the Scriptures. Of course, as you go along, you will learn many other Scriptures that will help, but these are the basic ones.

18. ASK THEM, "IF YOU DIED NOW, DO YOU KNOW THAT YOU WOULD GO TO HEAVEN?"

I think that is the best question that I have ever used. Some use, "Do you know Jesus? Are you born again? Are you saved? Are you a child of God?" I try to avoid terminology that will be too religious for them. Many don't know that kind of terminology.

Basically there are only two religions in the world. One is the belief that salvation is all of God, and Jesus did it all on the cross; the other is that we have to do something to get converted. In this second you have combined all of the false religions. That is the old mystery of Babylon, mother of harlots in Revelation 17. Many religions are wrapped up in this one thing—that you have to do something to go to Heaven. Anybody who says you have to do something to go to Heaven, doesn't know if he is going or not. He usually says he thinks so or has a good chance or may go to purgatory. The only person who will tell you he knows that if he dies he will go to Heaven is the fellow who has trusted Jesus completely to save him. That is why I ask, "Do you know if you died you would go to Heaven? Do you know it?" Some ask, "Are you a Christian?" Almost anybody will say yes to this. I think that the best question is, "Do you know that if you died you would go to Heaven?" Now ask,

19. "WOULD YOU LIKE TO KNOW?"

Now ask,

20. "IF I SHOWED YOU HOW YOU COULD KNOW, WOULD YOU DO WHAT THE BIBLE SAYS?"

It may be done thusly. "Now, Mr. Doe, let me ask you a question: Do you know that if you died this minute you would go to heaven?"

"No, I don't believe I do."

"Let me ask you this: Would you like to know? Don't you think it would be fine if you could know that if you died you would go to Heaven?"

"Yes."

"Well, let me ask you this: If I could take this Bible and explain to you how you could know beyond any shadow of a doubt, that you could know right now, and you could see it and you could understand it, would you believe it? Would you do what the Bible says?"

Do you see what I'm trying to say? It is good to get him committed that he will do it; then you have gone a long way toward getting him saved before you ever present the plan. So these three questions: (1) "Do you know that if you died today you would go to Heaven?" (2) "Would you like to know?" and (3) "If I could show you how you could know, would you do it?"

21. SHOW HIM THAT HE IS A SINNER.

For this, use Romans 3:10 and 3:23.

22. SHOW HIM THE PRICE ON SIN.

Show him this in Romans 5:12 and 6:23.

23. SHOW HIM THAT JESUS PAID THE PRICE.

Use Romans 5:8.

24. REVIEW THE MAIN POINTS TO BE SURE HE UNDERSTANDS.

I always use the following: "Now, Mr. Doe, there are only four things you must know to be saved. First, you must know that you are a sinner. For example, Romans 3:10 says, 'As it is written, There is none righteous, no, not one.' Let me illustrate. If there is none righteous, that means I'm not righteous, doesn't it? (Notice, I didn't get him unrighteous first; I got me unrighteous. Never put the sinner below you. You always let him know that but for the grace of God you would be in the fix he is in. You get yourself lost first.) So if there is none righteous, I'm not righteous. If there is none righteous, then Mr. Doe, you are not righteous. Also, it says, 'For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God.' Now if all have sinned, that means I've sinned—right? That means your wife has sinned, and that means you have sinned."

If he still acts like he is not a sinner, you just list a few sins and you will catch him. A lot of times I say this: "You do realize that you are a sinner? For example, the Bible mentions some sins such as evil thinking, bad literature, ugly disposition, etc." Some where along that line there will be something that he does. Show him that he is a sinner.

Second, show him the price on sin. Romans 5:12: "Wherefore, as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin..." What kind of death? All death, both spiritual and physical death, the sum total of death. "...and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned." And Romans 6:23, "For the wages of sin is death..." So there is a price on sin. What is that price? Death. What kind of death? That includes the second death of Revelation 20:14, and that second death is the Lake of Fire. So ultimately a person who is a sinner must pay for it by going to Hell. That is the basic price on sin.

Third, the next thing we must do is show that Jesus paid the price. So I say this: "Mr. Doe, God looked down from Heaven and saw that you were a sinner. He saw that you were in debt. He saw that you and I deserved to go to Hell. He wanted to save us and made a plan to do it. He came to the world Himself. His name was Jesus. He was God in a human body. For thirty-three years He lived here in this world. He did not commit one single sin. This is important. Mr. Doe, suppose that Jesus Christ had sinned one time only. The price on sin being death or Hell, where would Jesus have had to go when He died? The answer is Hell, but He did not sin. He did not commit one sin, but He went to the cross, and on the cross He suffered spiritual death when He said, 'My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?' He suffered the same thing that a lost person will have to suffer in Hell. I'll go farther than that. I believe that He suffered as much in that moment on Calvary as the sum total eternal suffering of all the lost people who will ever go to Hell to stay forever. Actually He was paying our price for our sins. He was becoming our substitute."

Fourth, "If we will receive that price as our hope for Heaven and receive Him as our Saviour from sin, He will make us His children and take us to Heaven when we die."

That's the review. You explain it to them first, then you review. Let me review it with you now. "Let me ask you a question, Mr. Doe. Do you realize that you are a sinner?"

"Yes, sir."

"Do you realize that people who die in their sins must go to Hell?" (Now be severe with that as you can. If a sinner knows he is going to Hell, say, "Do you realize that if you died right now, you would go to Hell?" If he is a little sensitive about it, then you can say, "Do you realize that a man who dies in his sins goes to Hell?" Be as severe as you can but don't make your patient so sick you will kill him before you heal him. You have to stay with him.) "Do you realize that Jesus Christ has suffered your Hell already for you? If we knelt here together and had prayer and you sincerely received Christ as your Saviour, do you believe God would make you His child?"

That is the review. I have explained to him how to get saved, then I have reviewed and asked these questions.

25. ASK IF YOU MAY PRAY.

There are several ways to do this, but you must try to get them to pray. If he is really ready, say, "Could I pray for you, and while I pray, would you pray and ask God to save you today?" Maybe he is not quite that ready. Maybe you don't know. You could say, "Could I pray that you will get saved?" Maybe you don't think he will let you pray for him to get saved. Then you say, "Could I have a word of prayer with you before I go?" Anyway, to get your head bowed is good. If you are talking to him, he might interrupt, but if you are talking to the Lord, he won't. You can preach him a little sermon in the prayer. If you can't win a fellow to Christ, and if he won't let you present the plan to him, the best way to tell him how to be saved is to tell the Lord and let the sinner hear you.

I go into a home and say, "Sir, would you like to know how to be saved?"

"No, Don't have time for it. The wife's sick and I'm busy."

"Could I have a prayer for your wife before we go, that she will get well?"

With his wife lying there sick, a man would be a fool not to let the preacher pray for her. He says, "Well, O.K."

I pray, "Dear Lord, bless this wife and make her well, and help this man to know that Romans 3:10 says, 'As it is written, There is none righteous, no, not one.' And if people die in their sins, according to Romans 6:23 'the wages of sin is death.' O dear Lord, show him that Romans 5:8 is true when it says that 'God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners...'"

Pray him the plan. He won't interrupt you. You can get by with a lot of things talking to the Lord that you wouldn't talking to him.

After you review, get to pray some way or another. If he will consider getting saved, good. If you can't get by with that, just get him to let you pray.

26. ASK HIM TO PRAY.

I stop abruptly in my prayer. I pray a simple prayer. Never pray a big prayer. You must pray a prayer so simple that he won't mind his prayer following yours. If you pray, "Jesus, Thou God of Jacob; oh, Thou God of Rehoboam and Jeroboam and Jehoshaphat; oh, Thou great God of the universe, the omnipotent, omnipresent, omniscient God, would you save this man?" After that, he won't pray. But you can pray this, "Dear Lord, here is a fellow who needs to get converted. I pray You will help him get saved. May he receive Christ. You love him, dear Lord..." "Now fellow, will you pray?" You pray like that, and he can pray his little prayer in a minute.

I always stop in the middle of my prayer. I say, "Dear Lord, lead this man to be saved. You led me here and I pray that he will be saved today. May his wife have a Christian husband and the little children a Christian daddy. Make this be the day of his salvation. Now while our heads are bowed in prayer, Mr. Doe, would you be willing today to ask God to forgive you and tell Him you want to get saved?"

See, you stop in the middle of your prayer and lead him to pray. Let me say this: Fifty per cent of the time when you get this far the lost person is going to pray. Now, I would suggest you tell him what to pray but not the words. Like this: "Would you ask God to forgive you and tell Him you want to receive Jesus today?" Fifty per cent of the time he will make up a prayer. I've heard some of the sweetest prayers. A lot of times he won't pray. He does not know how to pray. He says, "I have never prayed before." In that case I say, "Mr. Doe, would you just say these words and mean them in your heart, 'Lord, be merciful to me a sinner... forgive my sins and save my soul... I now receive Jesus as my Saviour'?"

Let me say this: By the time you get there, the forces of Hell will be fighting you. By the time you get this far talking to a sinner, you will feel like everything you own depends on what you do right now. Realize the seriousness of it all.

27. ASK HIM TO TAKE YOUR HAND.

He has just prayed and asked the Lord to save him. "Now Mr. Doe, while our heads are bowed, if Jesus Christ came in the room, He would extend His hand, no doubt, and ask you to take His hand if you would receive Him. Mr. Doe, if you will make this day the day of your salvation and this moment receive Christ as your Saviour, just like my hand were His hand, would you put your hand in mine?" Now, he takes your hand.

28. YOU PRAY AGAIN.

"Our Father, help this man to see in his heart that salvation is by faith in the Lord Jesus Christ and what He did on Calvary. Give him peace in his heart and the assurance of salvation. In Jesus' name. Amen."

Before you pray that last prayer, you may do several things. For example, if the wife is in the room, have her come over and take his hand, too. Then ask little Johnny to come and place his hand on Mommy's and Daddy's. Then you can have your closing prayer.

29. ASK HIM "WHERE, ACCORDING TO THE BIBLE, WOULD YOU GO IF YOU DIED NOW?"

This is important. Many people, after they win a soul to Christ, ask, "How do you feel?" It doesn't matter how he feels. How he feels has nothing in the world to do with it. The average soul winner says, "Feel any better?" That doesn't make any difference. You will stand there and argue with a fellow and he will say, "I believe you have to feel it to get saved."

You say, "No, you don't. You don't have to feel it—it is by faith." Then the first thing you ask him after you pray is, "How do you feel?" Salvation doesn't depend on how you feel; it depends on if you are believing the Book. The minute you do what God says in His Book, you believe God will do what He says He will do in His Book, you are converted. It is by faith in what God says.

The question is, "According to the Bible, where would you go if you died now?"

The answer, "I'd go to Heaven."

The sweetest thing happened in our altar recently. A little lady came down to the front. She said she wanted to be saved. I prayed with her myself. I asked, "Now where would you go if you died?"

She said, "Well, the Bible says I would go to Heaven."

"Where do you think you would go?"

"I think I would go to Hell," she said.

I said, "But the Bible says you would go to Heaven."

"That's right; it does say that," she said.

"Let me ask you a question," I said. "Did you ever tell a lie?"

"Oh, yes, I have told a lie."

"Does God ever lie?"

"No."

"All right, you say you are going to Hell, but God says you are going to Heaven. Whose word do you think I ought to take?"

"She said, "I guess you'd better take God's."

"Now where do you think you would go?"

"I think I'd go to Heaven."

It is because God said it. Ask them, "According to the Bible, where would you go if you died now?"

30. LEAD HIM TO A PUBLIC PROFESSION.

31. GO BY AND GET HIM ON SUNDAY MORNING.

32. SIT WITH HIM IN THE SERVICE.

But you say, "I sing in the choir." Well, you had either quit the choir that Sunday or let him sing with you. Sit with him in the service.

33. GO DOWN THE AISLE WITH HIM.

34. WITHIN A WEEK HAVE HIM OVER FOR A MEAL OR COFFEE AND CAKE OR SOMETHING.

He just got converted. "According to the Bible, where would you go if you died?"

"Heaven."

Use that as an excuse to call somebody. Call a loved one; call a friend. Tell your wife about it.

Randall F. was a pretty mean rascal, a drunkard, mean to his wife and everything. Kenneth, his brother, was a good Christian. We went to see Randall about one o'clock in the morning. Kenneth go so burdened about him. Randall got saved. He really got saved. And he has been a good Christian. He got his wife out of bed and rejoiced in the Lord and they praised the Lord together. We just lived it up.

Some of us preachers—a fellow comes down the aisle on Sunday and what do we do? We say, "Do you want to be saved?" "Yeh." The people never know what happened. It seems to me that if a person gets born again in your church, you ought to let folks know about it. Live it up. I had them come down Sunday and kiss each other. A man gets converted and his wife is already saved. "Come on down here with him. Bless the Lord. Give a word of testimony." "Oh, thank God! My husband got saved today!" Kiss him. The Bible says to greet one another with a holy kiss, so she kisses him. All the young'uns come down and stand with Daddy. Daddy kisses his little young'uns. Bless God, they have got a Christian daddy now. Some preachers make it sound like it was the Statue of Liberty being dedicated. Live it up. Somebody got out of Hell! They're going to Heaven! Somebody got regenerated. Angels are singing. Folks are redeemed and going to Heaven, and not going to burn forever.

You in your ministerial cloak and croak, you get up there and the poor people don't even get one tear or one laugh before they go home. Isn't that a shame! I can't understand this dignified pomp and put-on when people are getting converted. We have more to shout about than anyone.

Here is a fellow—he is going to Heaven. Jesus has taken him... salvation by grace... can't fall... can't lose it... preserved, and we say, "Amen."

And here is a fellow—he is hanging on... holding out... hoping he won't slip and fall and slide, and he shouts all the way to Heaven. Isn't that something! It doesn't add up, does it?

Every once in a while folks will say that I preach like a Pentecostal. I wished they would say I preach like a Baptist. When I was a kid they did that. Nowadays they say "like a Pentecostal," because we have changed a great deal.

"All right, you have been saved now; you know you are converted; that if you died tonight you would go to Heaven. The next thing God wants you to do is to let people know that you have been saved. Read Romans 10:11, 'For the scripture saith, Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.' You believe on Him, don't you? You are not ashamed of Him, are you? The next thing God wants you to do is to make public your decision."

I always say something like this: "Mr. Doe, we could get a loudspeaker, drive down Main Street on Saturday afternoon and announce it to everybody, or we could have it printed up on circulars. But the usual way, Mr. Doe, is to come to church and when the preacher finishes preaching, come down the aisle to the front, have a seat on the front and let the preacher tell the people that you have been saved. Now, would you do that at some Bible-believing church this Sunday morning? If you would promise God, not me, but God, would you take my hand? Wonderful. Now, Mr. Doe, it just so happens that the wife and I come very close to here Sunday and we would love to have you as our guest Sunday morning. I'll be happy to come down the aisle with you to make it easy for you, and you can go with us and we can introduce you to some people, show you around. How about, say 9:15 Sunday morning? Wonderful."

I get them and take them with me to church. Before the Sunday School starts, I take them into the auditorium (especially if I think they don't know) and I stand back and say, "Now, Mr. Doe, this is the auditorium and there is the pulpit where I preach. I'm going to ask you to sit in the service about right over here. When I finish preaching, we're going to stand and sing a song. When we stand and sing that song, you will leave your seat, come down this aisle to the front and over to the center and I will take your hand. I will ask you to have a seat on the front. I will explain to the people what happened in your home this past week."

I tell him everything he is going to do. I do that in every invitation at my church.

On vacation recently I was in a church where I heard a marvelous message. When the pastor finished preaching, he said, "All right, we are going to stand and anybody who wants to be saved, come." We all stood but we didn't know where to come—whether to come to town, to the front, or to a party. If a fellow hadn't known what to do, he wouldn't have known where to come.

I say, "Now if you want to be saved this morning, leave your seat, come to the nearest aisle, down the aisle to the front, give me your hand if you will give Christ your heart." Break it down in little pieces for them. So, before the service I tell them exactly how to make their public profession of faith.

Notice that up to this point I haven't mentioned joining the church. I often say nothing about joining the church until they are down the aisle. They will appreciate that, too. You will get the reputation of not being primarily interested in getting church members, but in getting people saved. Too many spend time telling you that the nursery is air-conditioned; they have a new educational building; and the young people have a good program, etc. I often do not talk to them about joining the church until after they make their profession. As soon as they make it public, my assistant pastor goes by and talks to everybody in the line. (By the way, we have them stand up in front and we shake their hands after we dismiss the service.) My assistant pastor talks to each one about getting baptized. My secretary has a letter in her hands and comes behind him. The letter explains what to bring at night and invites them to come to the baptism class at 6:30 on Sunday.

Now very briefly I am going to win Mr. Doe to Christ. He is at home and I am going to knock on the door. He is reading the newspaper and has his house shoes on. I knock on the door. "How do you do, sir. Mr. Doe, my name is Jack Hyles. How are you today? I'm glad to see you. Say, that's a cute child you have there. She's a doll. Would you like to have some candy, honey? Give me some sugar... Well, Mr. Doe, I hope you aren't too busy. I'd like to talk to you just a minute. I can come back later if it isn't convenient."

"No, I'm not busy; come in."

"Thank you."

"Have a seat," Mr. Doe says.

"Thank you."

We chit-chat a while and I ask him where he works and talk about his home town. (Let me say this: this is where a general education comes in. Every soul winner ought to know as much about every subject as he can and about every state and every job, etc. General knowledge will come in handy as you can talk intelligently about most any subject.) We talk about the weather, his job, etc.

I listen to him for a while, then I say, "Let me ask you this, Mr. Doe: Do you know that if you died today, you would go to Heaven?"

"No, sir."

"Let me tell you, it is a wonderful thing to know. Did you ever think you would like to know that if you died you would go to Heaven?"

"Yes, sir."

"Let me ask you this question: Do you feel that if I could show you in the Bible exactly how you could know that if you died you would go to Heaven, and if you could see it and understand it, would you be willing to do it?"

"Yes, sir."

"I'm glad you said that. I'm going to show you what the Bible says about becoming a Christian. Now, Mr. Doe, there are only four things basically that you have to know to be saved. The first thing is, you must know that you are a sinner. I want you to look there at chapter 3 and verse 10 if you would please, where it says..."

(By the way, I hardly ever QUOTE a lot of Scriptures myself. Act like you're reading it yourself. Don't ask him to read the Scripture if you think he might have trouble or that it might embarrass him. You are not there to show off; you are there to help him. A lot of times they might think, "Man, doesn't he know the Bible!" But that isn't what you are there for.)

"So, notice in verse 10, 'As it is written, There is none righteous, no, not one.' If there are none righteous, Mr. Doe, that means I'm not righteous, doesn't it? That means that you're not righteous, doesn't it?"

"Yes."

"Notice in verse 23, 'For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God.' If all have sinned, that means I have sinned and that you have sinned. Is that right?"

"Yes, sir."

"Now, that is the first thing you must know—that you are a sinner.

"The second thing that you must know to be saved is that there is a price on sin. Look here if you will please, to Romans 5:12 where it says, 'Wherefore, as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned.' Here is the story. God made a man, and his name was Adam. He made a woman, and her name was Eve. He put them in the Garden of Eden. He said that they could eat of every tree in the garden except one, and that was the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. He said that if they ate of that tree, they were going to die. They ate of that tree. Now every man is born in sin, is a sinner, and the Bible says that the price on sin is death. Look at verse 23 of chapter 6, and it explains the same thing, 'For the wages of sin is death...' Here's what it means. When man sinned, he died spiritually. Now, if he is dead spiritually and he dies physically while he is dead spiritually, he will have to suffer the second death, and that is called the lake of fire."

(Now usually on this matter of Hell, I say, "Of course you believe in Hell. Some folks don't believe in Hell." If you say, "Of course you believe in Hell" he will hate to say he doesn't.)

"So that means a person who is a sinner must pay for it by suffering Hell. Do you understand this? That's the price on sin.

"The third thing that you have to know is that Jesus paid that price. Look at chapter 5, verse 8, if you will please, 'But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.' Now, what is the price on sin? Death. What did Jesus do for us? He died for us. That means He was paying our price for us. He was suffering our Hell. He came to earth from Heaven and became a man, never sinned one time. He did not owe the debt. He paid a debt that He didn't owe. You owe a debt that you have not paid. He has a plus one; you have a minus one. He says that He would like to take His plus one and put it against your minus one, and balance the equation.

"Now the question is, How can you get His plus over here on your side? That's the fourth thing. The first thing you must know is that you are a sinner. The second thing, that sinners go to Hell when they die. The third thing, that Jesus has paid the price for sinners. The fourth thing, if you would be willing by faith to receive this plan as your hope for Heaven and Christ as your Saviour, He will take your sins and place them on His account and take His payment and place it against your sins and you would not owe for your sins anymore. Jesus paid the price for you.

"Let me illustrate. (This is one of the sweetest things usually that we do when we win souls. This is one of the most effective plans I have ever used.) Let's just say now that this is your record in Heaven, and your record is written in Heaven. Let's just list a few of your sins. Did you ever take anything that wasn't yours? Did you ever say a bad word? All right, let's list—bad word. Did you ever have an evil thought? All right, let's write it down—evil thought. We'll list some more.

"Now, what is the price on these things? The price tag is H-e-l-l, Hell. You're a sinner; here are your sins. That is Romans 3:10 and 3:23. Here is the price—Romans 5:12 and 6:23. Jesus went to the bank of Heaven and paid your debt for you. He sent me today to tell you about it. He has paid this price for you.

"Now, you have one of two choices. You can say, 'Preacher, I know He did but I don't want to do anything about it,' and you will still be in debt. Or you could say, 'Jesus, I know You died for me, You paid my Hell and I'm willing to receive You as my Saviour and trust You as my hope for Heaven.' That minute He will write P-a-i-d on your record and your record will be taken and thrown behind the back of God and will be as clean as that paper. Isn't that wonderful? That is the way your record will look.

"Now, let me ask you this: You realize you are a sinner; you realize that if you died today you would go to Hell; you realize that Jesus suffered Hell for you. Do you believe that if we knelt here right now and asked God's forgiveness and you put your faith in Christ, God would save you?"

"Yes, sir."

"Our Father, here is a man who needs to be saved. Jesus died for him. Lord, You have led me here today, and I thank You for it. Now may this be the greatest day in his life as he receives Jesus as Saviour...

"Mr. Doe, while our heads are bowed, I'm going to ask you to do the finest thing you have ever done, and that is to just ask God to have mercy on you and save you. Would you do it in your own words? Just like you talk to me, go ahead and talk to Him."

"Lord, I've sinned and I want You to forgive me. I want You to save me from my sins and I'll take You as my Saviour."

"Mr. Doe, while our heads are bowed, if you meant what you just said and you are willing today to give your life to Christ and trust Him as your hope for Heaven and you will make this the day of your acceptance of God's plan of salvation, would you take my hand as a token of it?" (That is one of the sweetest things. Their eyes are closed and lot of times they miss and they feel for your hand.)

Then you say, "Dear Lord, thank You that this man has trusted Jesus. And if the Bible is true and he has been sincere, he is Your child. Help him to see it now. In Jesus' name. Amen.

"God bless you, brother. Let me ask you this question now: According to this Book, where would you go if you died right now?"

"To Heaven."

"Do you believe this Book? When you get to the judgment seat, are you willing to trust your eternity on what this Book says?"

"Yes, sir."

"That means you are God's child. Now, suppose somebody asks you tomorrow, Mr. Doe, 'Are you a Christian?—what are you going to tell them?"

"I'll tell them yes."

"If somebody says, 'When did you become a Christian?'—what are you going to tell them?"

"Yesterday."

May God use this simple plan to help make you a soul winner.

Exodus 20:5-6, "

Thou shalt not bow down thyself to them*, nor serve them: for I the LORD thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me;

And shewing mercy unto thousands of them that love me, and keep my commandments.

Mark 7:7-13,

Howbeit in vain do they worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men*. For laying aside the commandment of God, ye hold the tradition of men, as the washing of pots and cups: and many other such like things ye do. And he said unto them, Full well ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition. For Moses said, Honour thy father and thy mother; and, Whoso curseth father or mother, let him die the death: But ye say, If a man shall say to his father or mother, It is Corban, that is to say, a gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me; he shall be free. 2.2.31 Turning From Sin Vs. Coming To God As A Needy Sinner (2021-02-24 19:50)

Romans 3:19-20, “

Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God.

Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin.” Galatians 3:18-19,

For if the inheritance be of the law, it is no more of promise: but God gave it to Abraham by promise.

Wherefore then serveth the law? It was added because of transgressions*, till the seed should come to whom the promise was made; and it was ordained by angels in the hand of a mediator.

” 2nd Timothy 2:25, “

In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth;

And that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will.

This will be one of the most important blog articles you will ever read dear friend. There is so much confusion in churches today over God's plan of salvation. It is not man's plan of salvation, it is God's. Titus 1:2, "In hope of eternal life, which God, that cannot lie, promised before the world began;

" God promises eternal life to whosoever wants it (1st Corinthians 1:21). All you need to do is come to God as a needy sinner and receive Jesus Christ as your personal Savior. Simply accept Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, believing that He died and was buried, physically resurrecting from the dead three days later. This Good News is called

The Gospel

(1st Corinthians 15:1-4). The Gospel is Good News to be believed, not a religious life to be lived. Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born again.

It is not okay to merely believe whatever you want. Right doctrine matters! There has been ongoing theological debate over the meaning of "

for centuries. The Greek word for

"r

in the New Testament is metanoia, which simply means

a change of mind.

That is all it means. God deliberately chose this word because it is an open-ended, all-inclusive, term.

What do you need to change your mind about to be saved? The answer is whatever is hindering you from BELIEVING the Gospel. We get saved by BELIEVING, not by REPENTING!

Faith and repentance are simply two parts of one act of obedience to God. You don't repent first and then believe. Repentance and faith are simply two different ways of looking at salvation. They are as two sides of the same coin.

The following helpful information is quoted from Dr. John R. Rice's invaluable verse-by-verse Bible commentary titled, "Acts: Filled With The Spirit," pages 250-252:

> There are those hyper-dispensationalists who think that John the Baptist preached a different Gospel from Christ when he commanded repentance (Matt. 3:2). But it is the same repentance Jesus commanded in Matthew 4:17, in Luke 13:3 and 5, and the same repentance that Paul preached in Athens that God "now commandeth all men every where to repent" (Acts 17:30 31). Repentance is not a different > plan of salvation from having faith: it is part of the same plan of salvation. Or rather repentance is simply another way of describing or looking at the plan of salvation. One who turns from sin to God has done so by trusting in Jesus Christ. A change of mind toward sin is necessarily involved in saving faith. [emphasis added]

With those truths in mind, now it makes perfect sense what we read in Acts 20:21, "Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ." Please notice that repentance is "

toward God

from sin.

" Dr. Rice just said: "One who turns from sin to God has done so by trusting in Jesus Christ." Please don't miss what he said. Dr. Rice is NOT teaching that you must turn from your sin to be saved. Brother Rice is teaching that by trusting in Jesus Christ, you have turned from sin. In other words, we are saved by believing, not by turning from anything. In other words, we repent TO believe, we don't repent AND believe. Repentance and faith are one and the same step of obedience to receive eternal life.

Many False Prophets Are Gone Out Into The World

I am making a big fuss over this, because many false preachers today are saying that you didn't really get saved if you're still living in willful open sin. [1]Pastor Charles Lawson is one of them, who heretically states:

> "The Bible colleges around the country will stand at the Judgment Seat of Christ, and give an account for removing repentance from salvation and conversion. How can you be saved if you're not willing to repent*. Salvation is not believing a bunch of stuff about Christ. You can change your mind what you believe about Him. And where you said before, 'I don't believe all this,' now you say, 'I believe all this.' Does that make you born again? 'For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness.'
> SOURCE: Pastor Charles Lawson, "[2]True Repentance"

Yes, believing sure does make you born-again! Pastor Lawson is perverting the Gospel, adding the requirement to be willing to change your behavior to be saved. That is not what it means in the Bible to "

[3]repent.

" Dr. Lawson has a wrong mindset. He views repentance as meaning a willingness to turn away from committing sins. But that is not how you get saved. You get saved by putting your trust in Jesus Christ. So whatever is hindering you from believing is all that you need to change your mind about. Let's examine John 3:20-21, "For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved. But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God." Carefully notice that TRUTH is the issue of repentance, and not turning away from one's sinful ways. He that DOETH TRUTH cometh to the light. That light of the truth is the Gospel (2nd Corinthians 4:3-4).

May I point out that repentance is not a part of the Gospel. That is correct. The Apostle Paul defines in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4 as Christ's death on the cross, burial and bodily resurrection . There is no mention of repenting of your sins! Likewise, in the Gospel of John we find the word "believe" mentioned 85 times, but the word "repent" is not mentioned even once! And again in Galatians 3:1-2, "O foolish Galatians, who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you?

This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

" Please notice those word which keep appearing

THE TRUTH.

" A person gets saved by obeying THE TRUTH, which is to believe the truth of the Gospel. Notice that the Apostle Paul asks the Galatians how they got saved (i.e., indwelt by the Holy Spirit)—was it by the works of the law, or was it by the hearing of faith? I love that phrase—the hearing of faith. When you hear the Good News of the Lord Jesus Christ preached and you believe it, you are immediately and forever saved!

Repentance Is Simply Coming To God As A Needy Sinner

There is a world of difference between telling someone that they must turn from their sins to be saved, which implies that they must forsake sinful bad habits; versus coming to God as a needy sinner and trusting in Jesus Christ to save you. Respectfully said, Pastor Charles Lawson of the Temple Baptist Church in Knoxville, Tennessee is wrong! Pastor Lawson is a Calvinist in his corrupt theology. Mr. Lawson is a good man and means well, of that I have no doubt, but he is woefully ignorant of the Scriptures concerning repentance. Dr. Lawson errantly views repentance as something that the sinner must do, but salvation is of the Lord (Jonah 2:9). The reason why the Gospel of John never mentions repentance is simply because the man who believes has also repented. Repentance is automatic.

Repentance is simply acknowledging THE TRUTH that you are a guilty sinner (Romans 3:19-20), so that you'll see your need, and come to Christ to be saved by faith alone (Galatians 3:26). What saith the Scripture?

2nd Timothy 2:25, "

In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth;

And that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will. ” What a beautiful Bible verse!

I have kindly shown you from Acts 20:21 that repentance is toward God. I have shown you from 2nd Timothy 2:25 that repentance is simply acknowledging the truth. Nowhere in the Bible are we taught to “repent of sin

to be saved. These are manmade concepts not found in God’s Word. Turning from sin to receive God’s free gift of eternal life is a manmade idea. Well-meaning but corrupt preachers have sinfully ADDED to the Scriptures, wrestling (torturing)

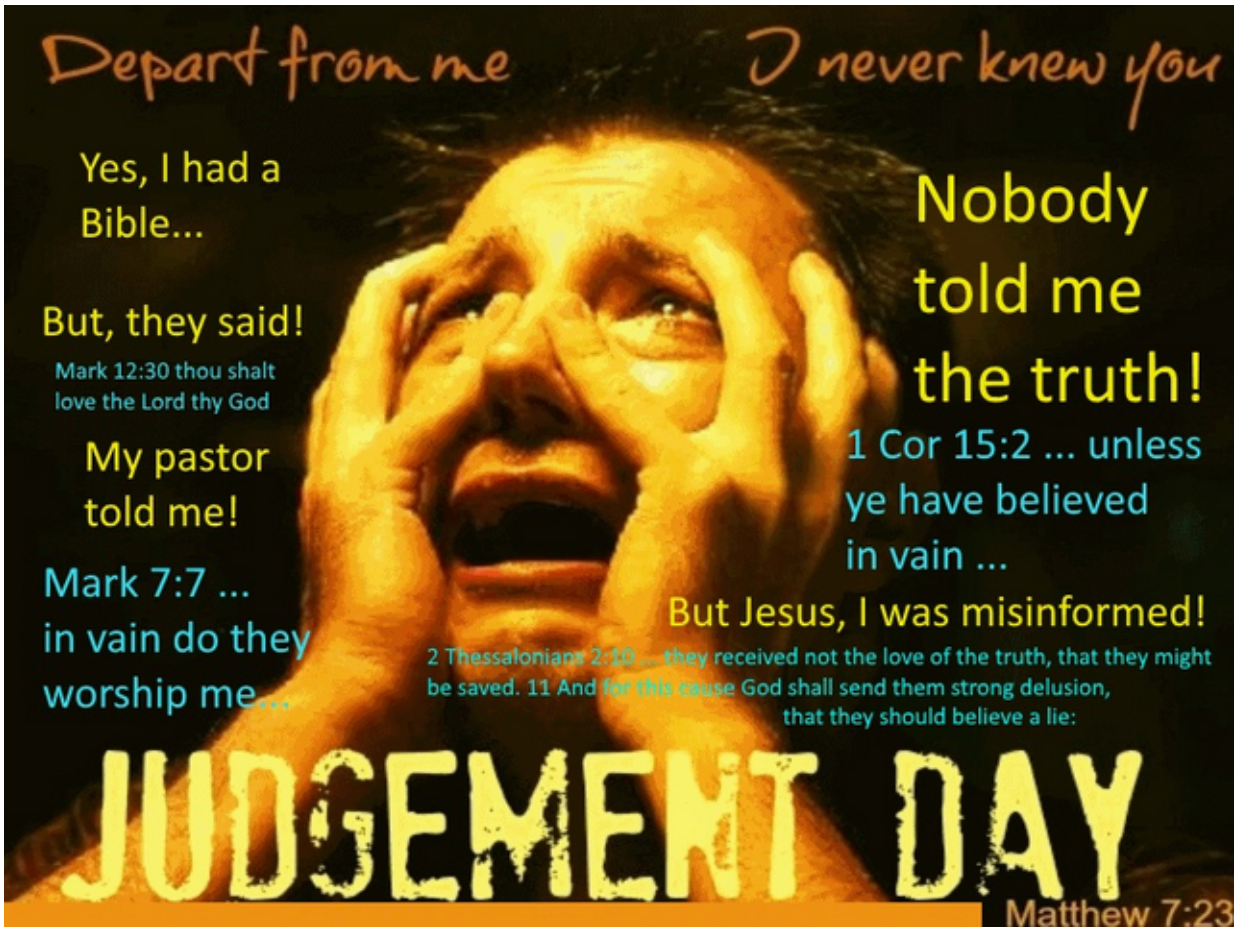
God’s inspired Word to their own destruction (2nd Peter 3:16-17).

[4]Evangelist Lou Martuneac rightly defines Lordship Salvation as:



> Defined briefly: Lordship Salvation is a position on the gospel in which “saving faith” is considered reliance upon the finished work of Jesus Christ. Lordship views “saving faith” as incomplete without an accompanying resolve to “forsake sin” and to “start obeying.” Lordship’s “sine qua non” (indispensable condition) that must be met to fully define “saving faith,” for salvation, is a commitment to deny self, take up the cross, and follow Christ in submissive obedience. (In Defense of the Gospel: Revised & Expanded Edition, p. 48.)

Lordship Salvation is of the Devil. Whereas the Holy Bible simply requires the least amount of childlike faith to be saved, proponents of Lordship Salvation woefully complicate the Gospel. There is a fine line between faith and foolishness. There is a fine line between grace and works. But it is a very well defined line, so unmistakable that there is no controversy if you allow the Bible speak for itself, and don’t add to what God said. It is importance to understand what repentance is, and is not...

- Repentance is not penitence (feeling sorry for sins).
- Repentance is not penance (trying to remedy your sins).
- Repentance is not reformation (turning from your sins).
- Repentance is a change of mind (from wrong thinking to believing the Gospel).

Salvation has [5]always been by faith alone. A changed life is the result of the fruit of the indwelling Holy Spirit.

2.2.32 Women Today Have The Wrong Attitude Toward Marriage (2021-02-25 04:55)

1st Timothy 5:14-15, “

I will therefore that the younger women marry, bear children, guide the house, give none occasion to the adversary to speak reproachfully. For some are already turned aside after Satan.”

I have been divorced since 2006, when my wife chose to abandon me. I have lived as a bachelor all these past 15 years. I do get lonely often, but I have had complete peace living alone, versus the constant turmoil when I was married for 18 years. I signed up for eHarmony in 2017. They have a lot more women than men on eHarmony, so I only pay $5.95 per month. They’re hurting for men who want to get married. Many men today are whoremongers, hanging out on Tinder or Plenty-O-Fish. I don't have those social media accounts and don't want them! I desire to remarry someday, but I cannot find a woman who is interested. I have written to dozens of women on eHarmony, but they are picky and don't want me. They're all looking for a guy who is rich, 6' tall, dark hair and a professional. I'm bald on top, 5' 7", live on disability income and I'm just a normal guy. Women are so wacky these days.

Here is what I mean by wacky. I read this profile today that was sent to me as a potential match by eHarmony. Her name is Danielle, she is an attractive 35 year old, and she lives in Massachusetts. She is 5' 9" and owns her own business as a chef. She is single with no children, but wants children. Read what she is looking for in a man:

> I have a career that I love and worked hard for, now I'm interested in meeting someone to share my life with. I still dedicate much of my time to my business, but have learned to balance my free time and enjoy going to the beach with my dog, eating out at new restaurants, and traveling whenever I can. My home away from home is Paris, and I can't wait til I'm able to get back. I would love to meet someone who I can share my free time with, but also maintain a healthy level of independence. [emphasis mine]

She is on eHarmony looking for a husband, but she only has "free time" available. She wants a man as an "add on" to her busy "career." She insists on maintaining her independence. And somehow in her busy career that she's worked so hard for, she wants to have children? Kindly said, I wouldn't touch her with a 10-foot pole! She is your typical diseased American woman who only wants a man to use as a tool to get what she wants, in this case children. Her attitude is all wrong and I seriously doubt if she'll find a man who wants to marry her, IN HER FREE TIME!!!

I didn't write this blog to be mean or judge Danielle. I wrote this to speak sense to any single women who might read this. Please ladies, you cannot expect to find a man who wants to be second, third or fourth place in your life to a career, children, family, a former boyfriend or husband or anything else. I see profiles of women who say their children will always come first. Good luck finding a husband! Women expect a man to pay all the bills and support the family (and he should), but then they want him to come in third or fourth place in her life. That is a wrong mindset! I've even read widow's profiles where they say they want a husband, but no man will ever compare to their former husband. Good luck finding a guy!

God created a woman to be her husband's " help meet," not to be a mother, pursue a career, guide a home, or anything else. Genesis 2:18, "And the LORD God said, It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him an help meet for him."

Her husband is her purpose in life. If you don't like that, don't look for a Christian man to marry, because you won't be happy. And you definitely won't be happy with the immoral playboy you'll find that has no Christian values. If you want a love 'em and leave 'em kind of guy, then go to Tinder.

Women want the best of both worlds, but they cannot have it! You cannot maintain your independence, put your children first over your husband, only offer free time to build a meaningful relationship that leads to marriage, and sanely expect to meet someone. Men want to be first. Men want a good deal, not a raw deal. Women these days offer so little, but demand so much.

That is why of the dozens of women I have contacted, no one wants me. Perhaps they are doing me a favor. Most women don't even bother to write back. Being on Guam doesn't help. I really need to move, but am overwhelmed with the whole thing.

When I attended the Harvest Baptist Church of Guam in 2013-2014, I fell in love with their nurse, Kris. She liked me too, which I know as sure as I am saved. When their pastors drove me out of their church, I missed Kris a lot. I thought about her every day for years to come. On February 21, 2017 I saw her in public, at Asan Beach Park in her hammock, and finally told her how I felt. She was still single. So I wrote her a long love letter and expressed my intent to properly court her at church, which would hopefully lead to marriage. Her pastors (Marty Herron and Joe Hanson) cruelly refused to allow me to return to attend church, even admitting that they didn't want me dating Kris.

I wish those ungodly hypocrites could lose their wives and be alone, sharing my inexplicable pain.

Shame on them for playing God with people's lives. Harvest Baptist Church is a devil's house.

So Kris sent me a mean letter, cruelly calling me a " father image

(she's no spring chicken) and told me never to contact her again. I abided by what she wrote, but it hurt more than I can put in words. I felt like committing suicide. I still love Kris in 2021, and would have married her at any point if she simply had contacted me, saying that she changed her mind. She moved away and that's that. You cannot tell a guy never to contact you again, and expect to find a husband. She will never find a guy like me, that I know. She might find some religious guy that goes through the motions, but she'll never find a man that loves her more than I do. She has a wrong attitude. She is a nurse trained at Bob Jones University, having pursued a career over marriage. God says she is turned aside after Satan (1st Timothy 5:14-15).

Women today have wrong attitudes toward men and marriage. I may never find a wife in America, because of all the wrong attitudes that are prevalent in society today, and that definitely includes the churches. They're all still part of our decaying American culture.

2.2.33 Jesus Didn't Have A Human Body Before Coming To Earth (2021-02-26 09:30)

John 1:1-3, 14, "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. The same was in the beginning with God. ...And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth."

1st John 4:2-3,

"Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesseth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is of God:

And every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and even now already is it in the world."

1st Timothy 3:16,

"And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory.

Please notice the important phrase in 1st Timothy 3:16b, "great is the mystery of godliness." Also, please read Colossians 2:2, "That their hearts might be comforted, being knit together in love, and unto all riches of the full assurance of understanding, to the acknowledgement of the mystery of God, and of the Father, and of Christ;" The doctrine of the Godhead (aka, Trinity) is not something easy to grasp. The Bible repeatedly calls is a "MYSTERY."

We know that there is one true and living God (Deuteronomy 6:4). We know that the one true and living God exists in the three unique persons of: God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit (Matthew 28:19-20; Matthew 3:16-17).

I humble don't claim to understand the Godhead, anymore than any other man can grasp such amazing and astounding truths. I just know it is true. Where the Bible is silent, we should be silent. I know that Jesus is God almighty (John 10:33). Revelation 1:8, "I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty." Jesus is not the second person of the Godhead. I get tired of theologians calling Jesus that. The members of the Godhead are all equal. God is not divided. The Holy Spirit is not the "third" member of the Trinity. They are all equal parts of one being. The Godhead is a MYSTERY.

It is obvious to me that Jesus DID make [1]several physical appearances in the Old Testament .

I agree with the following Bible commentary by Dr. Bob McCabe in an article titled:

Who Is The Angel Of The Lord In The Old Testament

> Since no one has ever seen God the Father (John 1:18; 1 Timothy 6:16) and since the Holy Spirit never takes on bodily form, this suggests that the supernatural Being to which this expression refers is the second member of the Trinity (also compare Exodus 3:14 with John 8:58). Therefore, the angel of the LORD was a temporary manifestation of the LORD Jesus Christ in a preincarnate form. It is important to make a distinction between Christ's preincarnation and incarnation. His incarnation is a permanent union where God the Son took on full humanity becoming the God-man. His incarnation began with His miraculous conception and will continue throughout eternity. Christ's preincarnate form was a transitory visible manifestation of God the Son. After His incarnation, Christ never appears again as the angel of the LORD. As we view the angel of the LORD, we can see how God through progressive revelation provided data in the Old Testament for the doctrine of the Trinity that is more completely elaborated upon in the New Testament.

There has been much debate on the internet and in churches today, concerning whether Jesus always had a physical human body, even before the earth was created. We know according to the Scriptures that Jesus was never created. Jesus made “ALL THINGS” (John 1:3). John 1:3, “All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made.”

Nearly every modern Bible revision corrupts this passage, changing the preposition “BY” to “THROUGH” Him. This blatant perversion of the Scriptures removes the creative power from Jesus, and instead gives it to God the Father. The Bible does NOT teach that God the Father created all things through the Son. No, the Bible says that Jesus Christ created ALL THINGS by Himself. This asserts Christ's deity!

The Word Of God Always Existed

Jesus Christ always existed. Even before God created time, Jesus always existed. Revelation 1:8, “I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty.” Alpha and Omega are the first and last letters of the Greek alphabet, which has 22 characters (as compared to our English language which has 26 letters). Jesus created Lucifer. Jesus created “ everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels:

” (Matthew 25:41). Jesus made ALL THINGS!

Hebrews 13:8-9, “

Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever*. Be not carried about with divers and strange doctrines. For it is a good thing that the heart be established with grace; not with meats, which have not profited them that have been occupied therein." This Bible verse does not mean that Jesus always existed in a human body. It simply means that Jesus' character, holiness and divine attributes never changes. The Bible says in John 1:1-4 and 14 that the Word was with God, and the Word was God. That Word became incarnate (flesh). Obviously, Christ's form changed.

It is silly, in my humble opinion, for anyone to claim that Jesus possessed His physical earthly body before He was born of a virgin (Matthew 1:23). The Bible doesn't say that Jesus existed with God, it says "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God..." (John 1:1). Jesus Christ is the Word of God. Revelation 19:13, " And he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood: and his name is called The Word of God. " The Word of God became flesh. 1st Timothy 3:16b teaches

GOD WAS MANIFEST IN THE FLESH.

" Jesus was 100 % man and 100 % God.

Since God, and not Joseph, was Jesus biological Father, the Lord's flesh must also have been divine, not just His Spirit and soul. That in no way meant that Jesus wasn't 100 % human. Adam was formed directly by the Lord (Jesus 2:7). Adam had no earthly father. Yet, Adam was a son of God by creation (Luke 3:38). Christians are sons of God by adoption (John 1:12-14; Romans 8:15). Jesus is God's only biological Son (John 3:16). Adam had no earthly father, yet he was still 100 % a man. Likewise, Christ Himself was 100 % a man! Jesus was also 100 % almighty God in every way.

Jesus Is 100 % Man And 100 % God

Jesus did NOT have an earthly father. I am 100 % against the vile and wicked Jewish unholy book, The Talmud, which teaches that a Roman solider raped Mary, and he was the biological father of Jesus. The Talmud reveals the depth of hatred that unbelieving Jews have for their Messiah. God Himself was Jesus biological Father. That means Jesus' physical liquid blood was divine. It was God's blood (Acts 20:28). The book of Luke proves that Jesus was 100 % a man, tracing his lineage through Mary back to Adam. God in His wisdom gave us this vital information in the Holy Bible, so that honest men could verify THE TRUTH. There is overwhelming PROOF that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, if any honest person examines the available evidence which history, archaeologists, science, the Bible itself provides. God is a good God, and He has given us a way to PROVE what is true or false.

Kindly said, Pastor John MacArthur teaches that Jesus DIDN'T have divine blood. I was sad to read that. [3]Dr. MacArthur errantly says that Jesus DIDN'T have God's blood flowing in His veins. MacArthur's rational is that if Jesus were 100 % a man, then He could not have had God's blood, which would have made Him something else. No, Jesus was both 100 % a man and 100 % God. We don't need to understand it, we simply need to believe that Jesus is the Son of God biologically. That is, literally God's offspring physically. God DIDN'T have carnal knowledge with Mary, as perverse minded Mormons claim, to justify their own perverted religious history within their bizarre sex cult. In Mormon theology, he who has the most wives wins! If you study their bizarre beliefs, you learn that behind the superficial pretense of being a legitimate Bible-believing church, they are something more comparable to The Outer Limits.

In His resurrected body, Jesus is still 100 % a man. He is the first fruits of the resurrection, showing us what we can also expect, an immortal human body (Philippians 3:21; 1st Corinthians 15:52-58). 1st Corinthians 15:23, " But every man in his own order: Christ the firstfruits; afterward they that are Christ's at his coming." I do not know what type of body the Lord appeared in several places in the Old Testament, but I am totally convinced that it could not have been His human body. I believe this for a few reasons:

1. It is strange to think that Jesus would have had to destroy any preexisting human body, in order to take on another body through a virgin birth. That would be a strange doctrine.
2. If God required the use of a virgin woman to provide a human vessel to conceive His only begotten Son, where would a preexisting human body have come from?
3. Jesus is the only "begotten" Son of God. That means He had to be born. I don't see any way that Christ could have possessed the same earthly human body in the Old Testament, without having been born yet. In fact, it is downright absurd!
4. The Bible does not teach that Jesus always had a human body. It is wild speculation at best and should never be preached as sound doctrine.
5. John 1:1-3 and 14 teaches that the Word of God became incarnate, by means of a virgin birth. Clearly, the Word of God had not yet become incarnate (in the flesh) in the Old Testament. So whatever physical appearances the Lord made in the Old Testament, it could not have been his earthly human body conceived through Mary. The Bible even warns us about not following strange doctrines, right after mentioning Jesus always being the same.

   Hebrews 13:8-9, "

   Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever. Be not carried about with divers and strange doctrines..."

I think it is wrong for anyone to dogmatically teach that Jesus always existed in human form, when the Bible doesn't teach that. That is why the Bible is careful to say that in the beginning was THE WORD, and THE WORD was with God, and THE WORD was God (John 1:1-13). And then, at the appointed time in history (John 1:14), the WORD OF GOD BECAME INCARNATE!!! Praise the Lord!

The Lord Appeared In A Physical Body To Moses

We also read in John 4:24 that God is a Spirit. Yet, God allowed Moses to see His back parts in Exodus 33:20-23, "And he said, Thou canst not see my face: for there shall no man see me, and live.

And the LORD said, Behold, there is a place by me, and thou shalt stand upon a rock:

And it shall come to pass, while my glory passeth by, that I will put thee in a clift of the rock, and will cover thee with my hand while I pass by:

And I will take away mine hand, and thou shalt see my back parts: but my face shall not be seen.

" This proves that Just because God is a Spirit, does not mean that He cannot take on a physical form to be seen. The same is true of our Savior, Who by the way is THE LORD. So how did God take on a physical form to be seen by Moses? I cannot explain this, but He did!

There is no debate that the idea of Jesus always existing in his earthly human body is strange doctrine. Before the virgin birth, Jesus existed, but not in His earthly body. How do we explain Hebrews1:8, "

But unto the Son he saith, Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: a sceptre of righteousness is the sceptre of thy kingdom.

" This passage is a quote from the Old Testament. How could the Son sit on a throne without a body? Again, I cannot answer this question. Where the Bible is silent we ought to be silent. I don't know what type of body the Lord made appearances in during the Old Testament.

And to clarify, Jesus' lived His entire life here on earth (during His 33 years of life) in the Old Testament. The New Testament didn't go into effect until Jesus died.

Hebrews 9:17, "

For a testament is of force after men are dead: otherwise it is of no strength at all while the testator liveth.

" So the issue is not about Old Testament versus New Testament, but of establishing whether Jesus had the same earthly physical body conceived by Mary, before he came down from Heaven to be born. Humbly, I do NOT believe that He did.

It wouldn't have made any sense, if the Messiah already occupied an earthly body, to be born into the world of a virgin. No, Jesus needed to be born, just like any other human child did, so He could learn, suffer, grow and be able to relate to our pain and suffering (Hebrews 4:15-16).

Jesus is the one MEDIATOR between God and men.

1st Timothy 2:5-6, "For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus;

Who gave himself a ransom for all, to be testified in due time.

" Since God is holy and cannot fellowship with unholy men, Jesus as our sinless Savior can. As God the Son, Jesus can communicate with God the Father. And as a man, Jesus can communicate with unholy men. That is why Jesus is the one MEDIATOR between God and men. Only Jesus has the nail-scared hands and feet.

Modalism Is False Doctrine

Modalism teaches that God enters into different modes, kind of like changing different hats. Modalists deny the Godhead (aka, Trinity). Modalists believe that when a believe gets to Heaven, all you will see is God the Father. They do not believe that Jesus has His own physical body. They think God and the Son are merely different MODES of God. Dear friend, that is some strange doctrine!

The Bible teaches that Jesus physically resurrected from the dead, and that He was seen by over 500 brethren at one time (1st Corinthians 15:6). Jesus sat and ate on multiple occasions in His glorified body with the disciples. Jesus ascended into heaven in a physical, visible, tangible body into the clouds (Acts 1:9-11). The angels asserted that THIS SAME JESUS shall return someday IN LIKE MANNER. Acts 1:11, " Which also said, Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? this same Jesus, which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven." Colossians 3:1 teaches us that Jesus sits on the right-hand of the Father on HIS THRONE. You need a body to sit on a throne. The Bible teaches that THIS SAME JESUS Who ascended and left the earth 2,000 years ago, is now seated on God's the Father's right side, interceding as every believer's High Priest (Romans 8:34; Hebrews 4:14-16).

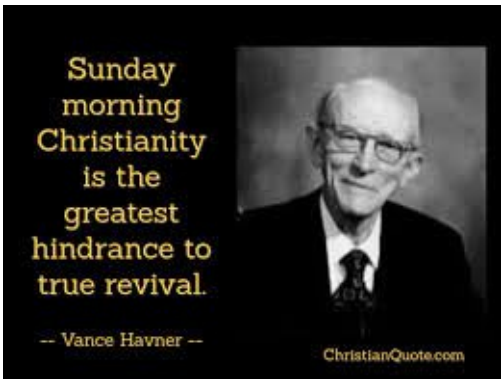
Jesus Is The Son Of God, The Christ



—BELIEVE IT!!!

1st John 4:2-3,

"Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesseth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is of God:

And every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and even now already is it in the world." I believe this refers to Christ's deity. A Christian doesn't believe Jesus was a mere man who lived and died; but rather, we believe that Jesus was the Son of God, the Christ. The very same Apostle John said this in John 20:31,

"But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name." John 11:27, " She saith unto him, Yea, Lord:I believe that thou art the Christ, the Son of God, which should come into the world." Now 1st John 4:2-3 makes plain sense. It was a matter of prophesy being fulfilled. The promised Messiah had come!

2.2.34 An Explanation Of 1st Corinthians 10:23 (2021-02-27 22:53)

1st Corinthians 10:23, "All things are lawful for me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for me, but all things edify not."

Here are some helpful quotes to explain of our text passage from 1st Corinthians 10:23...

> "Nobody who stands up and vows, that he is going to steal our freedom, has a right to use our freedom to destroy our freedom! It's always the Devil's way!" —Pastor Jack Hyles, a great quote from the sermon: "[1]The Most Misunderstood Statement In The Bible" (1984)

That is what I believe Daniel meant when he said in Daniel 8:25b that the Antichrist, "by peace shall destroy many"! Communists and Satanists are using our freedom to destroy our freedom in America...

> "Nobody has a right to use freedom as a leverage, by therewith to destroy our freedom!" —Dr. Hyles, a quote from the sermon: "[2]The Most Misunderstood Statement In The Bible" (1984)

God endorses the freewill of man! ...

> "God gives us FREEDOM so we can use it for HIS GLORY, and if we're not going to use it for His glory, guess what, He might take it away from us!" —Pastor Steven L. Anderson; YouTube: "[3]The Dechristianization Of Our Nation" (2019)

2.2.35 Can Only A Christian Lead A Lost Person To Christ? (2021-02-28 09:30)

John 20:29-31, "Jesus saith unto him, Thomas, because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed: blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed.

And many other signs truly did Jesus in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book: But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name. "

Someone asked me this week if only a Christian can lead an unsaved person to the Lord. It is my humble opinion, based upon my understanding of the Holy Scriptures, that a lost person CAN be saved on their own, from reading the Bible or reading a well written Gospel tract.

The idea that someone cannot be saved on their own comes from the following passage:

> Acts 8:26-31 "And the angel of the Lord spake unto Philip, saying, Arise, and go toward the south unto the way that goeth down from Jerusalem unto Gaza, which is desert.

And he arose and went: and, behold, a man of Ethiopia, an eunuch of great authority under Candace queen of the Ethiopians, who had the charge of all her treasure, and had come to Jerusalem for to worship, Was returning, and sitting in his chariot read Esaias the prophet. Then the Spirit said unto Philip, Go near, and join thyself to this chariot. And Philip ran thither to him, and heard him read the prophet Esaias, and said, Understandest thou what thou readest? And he said, How can I, except some man should guide me? And he desired Philip that he would come up and sit with him."

Even today in 2020 the average person, believers included, couldn't understand this passage from Isaiah, that the eunuch was trying to understand. Thank God for Google...lol! Also, we read in 1st Corinthians 2:14-16, "But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.

" And we read in

Romans 1:17, "

For therein is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, The just shall live by faith.

" I believe

"faith to faith" refers to God giving a person more understanding, as they by faith take each step in obedience to God. It is clear from reading John 20:31 that the Gospel of John was written to convince the lost person that Jesus is the Christ, the only begotten Son of God, so that they will believe and be saved.

What more evidence do we need that someone lost CAN be saved without a soulwinner? Since we are born again of the "seed" of God's Word, nothing more is needed than the seed. However, a Christian can plant that seed, and water that seed, as we read in 1st Corinthians 3:5-9, " Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos, but ministers by whom ye believed, even as the Lord gave to every man?

I have planted, Apollos watered; but God gave the increase.

So then neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase.

Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one: and every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labour.

For we are labourers together with God: ye are God's husbandry, ye are God's building.

Humbly said, I think this one passage alone from John 20:31 evidences that, yes, a lost person can be saved without a Christian to guide them, just from reading the Gospel of John. That is why it was written.

Just because the eunuch couldn't understand the book of Isaiah, doesn't mean that a person in 2020 cannot understand the Gospel of John. Clearly they can, which is why this particular book of the Bible was written in the first place—to convince lost sinners to come to Jesus Christ to receive forgiveness of sins and eternal life. As a Christian I had great difficulty for most of my Christian life understanding umpteen passages of Scripture. That is why we are commanded to “study” in 2nd Timothy 2:15.

What saith the Scripture? 2nd Timothy 3:15, “And that from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus.

” John 5:39, “ *Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me. ” I don’t find any place in the Scripture where it says to go find a saved person if someone wants to understand salvation. Jesus said to SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES! Read it for yourself friend. Our Savior Himself said to go SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES! For in them ye think ye have eternal life. That is, we learn about God’s wonderful promise of eternal life through faith in Jesus Christ.

In hope of eternal life, which God, that cannot lie, promised before the world began; But hath in due times manifested his word through preaching, which is committed unto me according to the commandment of God our Saviour;” You see, the Gospel is manifest (made known to lost men) through preaching. If we didn’t have preachers and Christians who are soulwinners, hardly anyone would be saved.

2nd Corinthians 5:20-21 “Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ’s stead, be ye reconciled to God. For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him.” I love that. Paul said we as believers are ambassadors to the lost world, as if God Himself were pleading with them to be saved. God desires for all men to repent (i.e., get saved), which great truth we read in 2nd Peter 3:9. That is why I have my website ministry, which I started by God’s leading in 2002, to preach the Gospel to get men saved. I am one of God’s ambassadors, sharing the truth with lost sinners so they can also receive eternal life by faith.

John 20:31, "But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name." Here we have a direct answer from the Scripture to your question. The Gospel of John was written TO THE LOST PERSON, to convince them. If the Ethiopian eunuch had been reading the Gospel of John (which hadn’t been penned yet), he could have been saved. The Gospel of John is very easy to understand compared to the Old Testament.

1st Timothy 2:5 says "For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus; Who gave himself a ransom for all, to be testified in due time." Christ Himself is the only Mediator between God the Father and sinful men. As believers we have been given the ministry of reconciliation, reconciling lost sinners to God with the Gospel, through faith in Christ (Romans 5:1). Since we do have the complete Bible today, it is my humble opinion that people CAN be saved on their own, by simply searching the Scriptures to learn about the Good News of Jesus crucified on the cross, buried and bodily risen the third day (John 19-20; 1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

The Apostle Paul reminded young Timothy that the Scriptures would make him wise unto salvation (1st Timothy 3:15-17). Timothy only had the Old Testament to read. Jesus said to SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES to think we have eternal life (John 5:39). I do not find even one Scripture passage, where the reader is directed to go ask a Christian how to have eternal life. The Bible tells us directly in the Gospel of John, and many other passages. By simply searching the Scriptures, a person will learn about Jesus, and CAN be saved by believing on Christ. If a person cannot be saved without a Christian to guide them, then there would be TWO mediators. John 12:32, " And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me." It is Christ Who draws all men to Himself, through the blessed Holy Spirit, Who is called the

Spirit of Christ

(Romans 8:9). We are called to be ambassadors for Christ, but Jesus alone is the one and only Mediator. So, no, a person does not need a Christian to be saved.

Not too long ago I wrote an interesting article about [2]visions in the last days, spoken of by Joel. God sent Cornelius a vision in Acts 10. The purpose of that vision was soulwinning. God was helping Cornelius get to the Apostle Peter, so he could hear the Gospel and be saved, and he did get saved (Acts 10:43-44). But, in my humble opinion, this story does not mean no one can understand the Gospel without help. The Bible says we learn from FAITH TO FAITH (Romans 1:17). I believe that means when we accept by faith the truth God has given us, then God sends more, and takes us to the next step. If a man rejects what light God has given him, then God is not bound to give more. Man's obligation is to receive the truth; God's obligation is to provide the truth. I believe this is what Titus 2:11 means, " For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men,

" I do not think that refers to the Gospel; but rather, God provides some enlightenment to a person, to see if they will accept it.

prayed, fasted, gave alms, and feared God; but he wasn't saved yet. So God sent him more light, which led to his conversion. God would NEVER send anyone to Hell, who wanted to be saved (2nd Peter 3:9). Many people have gone to Hell, who put off being saved until a later time. God is a just God (1st John 1:9). No one ever went to Hell who didn't choose to go there, by knowingly rejecting God's free gift of eternal life through faith in Jesus Christ.

Humbly, I think this one passage of Scripture from John 20:31 is sufficient enough to theologically prove that a lost person CAN be saved just from reading the Bible. John 20:31,

" But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name." The person who wrote to me this week to ask a question, whether a person who is lost can be saved without a Christian or not, was concerned about their own salvation. They had heard a preacher teach that no one can be saved without a Christian, but he had been saved by reading the Bible directly.

Again, Jesus said in John 5:37-40, "And the Father himself, which hath sent me, hath borne witness of me. Ye have neither heard his voice at any time, nor seen his shape. And ye have not his word abiding in you: for whom he hath sent, him ye believe not. Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me. And ye will not come to me, that ye might have life." God's plan of salvation is learned through knowledge of the Scriptures (2nd Timothy 3:15). Whether a person obtains that knowledge directly from searching the Scriptures, or from a soulwinner who preaches the Gospel to them, it is still the same truth. We know from 1st Corinthians 2:14 that the natural (unsaved) man cannot understand spiritual things, but I do not think it means that a lost person cannot even grasp the plan of salvation. If that were true—that a lost person cannot understand anything in the Bible—then why did John write the Gospel of John to convince the lost person (John 20:31) why they should believe on Christ? Clearly a lost person can understand the Gospel of John, because it was written to the lost person.

2.3.1 Even Our Very Words Will Be Judged By God (2021-03-01 09:30)

Matthew 12:35-37, “

A good man out of the good treasure of the heart bringeth forth good things: and an evil man out of the evil treasure bringeth forth evil things.

But I say unto you, That every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment.

For by thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned.

If people could grasp the utter extent to which God is going to hold them accountable in eternity, they would tremble in horror! Our text passage warns that God will hold men accountable even for their words. Hebrews 4:13, “

Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do. ” We all have an appointment with death (Hebrews 9:27). We all have an appointment future time of judgment before our Creator. Hopefully He is also your personal Savior! Unsaved people will be judged by God the Father at The Great White Throne Of Judgment (Revelation 20:11-15). Saved people will be judged by Jesus Christ at The Judgment Seat Of Christ (1st Corinthians 3:11-15; 2nd Corinthians s 5:9-11).

The latter will be as a civil court, where we will stand to lose rewards and will experience shame, tears and regret over our failures as Christians. Many will **“

(1st Corinthians 3:15). The former will be as a criminal court, where all Christ-rejecters will be sentenced according to their works to be punished in the Lake of Fire forever. Nothing shall escape the omniscience, omnipresence and omnipotent judgment of Almighty God! Even our idle (wasted) words must be accounted for. How much more shall we give account for our words of deceit, hatred, unjust anger, insensitive and cruel remarks toward other’s feelings.

Years ago I had attempted to move from Guam to Hilo, Hawaii. It was very important that I find a doctor in Hilo who could and would prescribe my needed pain medications. I found and called a chiropractor in Hilo to inquire. The receptionist on the phone assured me that the doctor could prescribe my needed drugs, and that he was licensed as a chiropractor to administer pain medications. I was so delighted. I was a bit skeptical, because what she told me is very rare, so I called back to confirm. She 100 % assured me that I could get my pain medications without any problems. Well, she lied to me! When I arrived in Hilo, the chiropractor not only said that he couldn’t prescribe drugs, but didn’t even know where to send me!

I kindly explained to the woman, and a female co-worker in the office, what pain and grief she had caused me. I explained that I forgave her because I am a Christian, but she should be careful in the future about giving out false information. It hurt more than I can express in words, when she and her co-worker laughed behind my back as I walked away, making a joke. I wanted to turn back and yell at them. I thought about going back during the night and slamming a big brick through their clinic window. But I realized that I would likely end up in jail, and it would just add insult to my injury.

So, I gave that crime (and it was a crime in God’s eyes) committed by those two females to God for judgment. If the Holy Bible is the inspired Word of God, then according to Matthew 12:36 those women are in big trouble with God. They have no idea the wasted money, time, grief and suffering that she caused me, by giving wrong information. And then she laughs at me, like it's all a big joke! I pray for God to avenge me thoroughly!

Matthew 18:6, "

But whoso shall offend one of these little ones which believe in me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea.

" I long for the day to see that cruel woman again in eternity, and God judges her for not caring, for her attitude of indifference, for taking my calamity that she caused as if it were a laughing matter! Oh how the tears will flow! Oh how the wicked will shudder in horror, as their sins (even their hurtful words) are held against them in God's court.

I could tell you hundreds of such stories of how ungodly people have hurt me, both in deeds and words. Some of them were professed Christians. Many of them were unsaved reprobates. Most of them, I am not sure of their salvation. But saved or unsaved, all men and women must give account for even their words. Judgment day is coming! Mankind is inherently sinful. Albeit, as such, I believe most people want to do good, despite being sinful. I don't think most people want to hurt other people's feelings; but regardless, we must give account to God if we do, especially if we did it on purpose! Many people ought to shudder in fear and horror, because of the tens of thousands of sins they must answer for!

To slander others is a sin of the mouth. To gossip, lie and spread rumors is a sin of the mouth. To talk too much leads to sinning, because we start saying things we ought never say. Proverbs 10:19, "In the multitude of words there wanteth not sin: but he that refraineth his lips is wise." A wise man keeps his mouth shut most of the time. One's teeth are as bars, caging the beast of the tongue! When the beast is let out of its cage, beware! James 3:8, " But the tongue can no man tame; it is an unruly evil, full of deadly poison." The heart is desperately wicked the Bible says, full of deceit (Jeremiah 17:9). As born-again Christian believers, may we all say less, sin less and sit less in the year ahead, glorifying our Father which is in Heaven (1st Corinthians 6:20). For we must all give account someday to God.

2.3.2 Opinions Don't Overrule Facts (2021-03-02 04:43)

Jeremiah 5:3, " O LORD, are not thine eyes upon the truth? thou hast stricken them, but they have not grieved; thou hast consumed them, but they have refused to receive correction: they have made their faces harder than a rock; they have refused to return. " Jeremiah 9:5, And they will deceive every one his neighbour, and will not speak the truth: they have taught their tongue to speak lies, and weary themselves to commit iniquity." Joh:8:32, "

And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.

I went for my sunset walk tonight. I am excited about losing weight. I have been drinking whey protein isolate each day from Vitamin World. Just 1 scoop provides 30 grams of protein, which is about half of what my body needs daily. So I take two scoops a day. I take two different brands, the other also contains 8 grams of fiber. And then I have added cooked dry beans as almost a daily part of my diet, which has lowered my blood pressure to normal. I eat little meat, but I love fish and beef a couple times a week. I've been eating Grouper fillets, which is my favorite. Lord willing, I want to lose 20 pounds over the next 2 to 3 months. I lost 5 pounds the past 2 weeks by intermittent fasting. I am walking more and exercising as consistent as my neck injury will allow. Albeit, many days I just need to take it easy and rest.

I really wanted to move away from Guam by my birthday March 5th, but my heart is still on Guam. I love the Harvest Baptist Church of Guam so much, and at least for now, Abby has my heart. I saw her yesterday sweeping across the street and my heart melted. She paused to look at me as I drove by, and I waved with as much love as a man can express in a hand wave. I always wiggle all my fingers, a special wave of love just for Abby, energetically displaying my feelings of passion for her. It is my way of saying, "

I want to marry you someday!

" I wish Abby could know what is in my heart. She is the sunshine to me. I still plan to move, but when I don't know. My heart just isn't in moving at this time. So I am making the best of my situation, starting out on a new health plan to get into shape. I feel good, despite my neck pain. I am lifting light weights, slimming down, and walking humbly with my God.

Anyway, I just wanted to share a little of my life with you. I like doing that in articles. Literally, you are my family dear reader. I'll be 54 Friday, God willing, but I still feel like I am 18 in mind and body. I was driving to go walking tonight at Asan Beach Park, and I drove by a gas station that daily changes it's sign out front. I have read some great quotes. Several months ago I read: "What you accept into your life becomes a part of you." That is an awesome quote! Today's message said: "Opinions don't overrule facts." Wow, that is a good statement! I pondered that truth as I drove by, and as you can imagine, I immediately thought about the Bob Jones crowd.

My regular readers know that I have been at a war of words against Bob Jones University (BJU) and the Harvest Baptist Church of Guam (HBC) since 2014. [1]Pastor Marty Herron started all this, as the "King Shite Cop" in the 1982 blockbuster film, "

First Blood.

" All I wanted was to eat a spiritual meal each Sunday at Harvest Baptist Church, but he told me to find another church elsewhere. Those were fighting words, for me as much as John J. Rambo. Since when is the New Testament church discriminatory? James 2:1,

"My brethren, have not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory, with respect of persons. " Pastor Herron was too proud to apologize or make things right. So far I am the ONLY ONE in all of this who has apologized and tried to make peace. All Harvest's pastors have done is shun me away as an enemy. That is not living by faith.

Respectfully, Pastor Gary Walton (the new senior pastor of Harvest since 2018) feels the same. Pastor Walton is fully aware of the ongoing situation, and my humble desire to make peace with Harvest Baptist Church of Guam (HBC), but as our text verse says from Jeremiah 5:3, " O LORD, are not thine eyes upon the truth? thou hast stricken them, but they have not grieved; thou hast consumed them, but they have refused to receive correction: they have made their faces harder than a rock; they have refused to return. " I promised to keep quite at church and just listen for my own benefit, but they still refuse. Folks, in case you don't know, there are not TWO different types of New Testament churches. Either Harvest is sinfully discriminating against me, or they are a religious cult. No true church would refuse to allow a broken man who is willing to cooperate to attend church services. Something is very wrong!

Without further ado, opinions don't overrule facts! Everyone has a right to their own opinion, but no one has a right to their own facts. No doubt many people would dismiss my preaching against BJU and HBC as a mere difference of opinion, but that would be partly false. If I say that 2 + 2 = 4, but [2]some liberal nut says that it really equals 5, then it is party true that we differ in opinion. But what is 100 % true is that our difference in opinion doesn't overrule THE FACT that 2 + 2 = 4. You can say 2 + 2 = 7 or 2 + 2 = 3 all you want, but your opinion doesn't overrule the FACT that 2 + 2 = 4.

Likewise, our difference in opinion (between me and Harvest Baptist Church of Guam and Bob Jones University), doesn't overrule THE FACT that God only authored ONE BOOK. God did not author 2 Bibles, nor 39, nor 900. Yet, how did we end up with TWO conflicting ancient texts today? These ancient texts disagree about 2 %. That may not seem like a lot. However, many of the Scripture passages which differ corrupt the deity of Jesus. The [3]Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort translations have Satan [4]written all over them! Remember that rat poison is 99 % wholesome food and less than 1 % poison! Please think about that. It is a fact that God only authored one inspired Book, so we absolutely cannot have two different accurate English Bibles today. This is a FACT!

If you talk to someone from the Bob Jones crowd, they will debate with you, saying that there cannot possibly be only one good English Bible. But dear friend, here are THE FACTS of the matter...

The above picture speaks 1,000 words in defense of the King James Bible. All of today's new Bible revisions have been changed merely to meet U.S. copyright laws, which demand that any new work seeking copyright [6]contain substantial and creative changes in content, and not be a mere copy. This means that wicked people are torturing and butchering the inspired Word of God, just so they can get a stupid copyright to sell it, and sue anybody who threatens their money gained from sales. THIS IS A FACT dear reader, not merely my opinion. Yet if you go read the advertising pitch given by each and every one of these ungodly publishers, they will all claim that their new translation is based upon the most diligent translating work, using the most trustworthy scholarship. THEY ARE ALL SATANIC LIARS!!!

I also bring your attention to the Gospel. According to BJU's website, you MUST [7]repent and turn away from your sins to be saved. That is their opinion! The FACT of the matter is that you cannot show me one place in the entire King James Bible where it says to "

repent of your sin

turn from your sin

to be saved. Only in the Devil’s modern perversions of the Bible will you find such blatant incompetent translating. I love the Bob Jones crowd so much! I tried to marry a nurse from BJU at Harvest, but she didn’t want me, and I am heartbroken. I have since fallen in love with another young gal, Abby, but she likewise doesn’t want me. I think about her every day. She is my sunshine, but I am just a distant passing cloud to her. Rejection hurts so much. I could have been married a long time ago, to a girl 25 years old in the Philippines if I wanted, but I want to marry someone that I love.

Anyway, despite the sharp contrast in opinion between me as a fundamentalist Baptist preacher, and the Neo-evangelical Bob Jones crowd, the FACTS are on my side. God only authored one Book. So whenever we find blatant contradictions, inconsistencies and hundreds of Bible verses completely missing in the modern Bible revisions, they simply CANNOT all be God’s infallible and inspired Word. Consequently, today’s ungodly religious Hebrew and Greek scholars tell everyone that we don’t have an inspired, perfect, infallible or innerant Bible today. They tell us that at best all we have is a flawed best manmade attempt to produce a mostly accurate text, based on multiple conflicting ancient texts. Folks, if you buy into their lies you are a darn fool. I don’t believe them for one second! We DO have a perfect, inerrant, infallible and inspired Bible today in the King James Bible!!!!!!!

Opinions don’t overrule facts! The FACTS are on my side. I was saved at age 13. That is a fact. I have only used and preached from the King James Bible all my life. Therefore, I see quickly what is wrong with these Devil’s Bibles today. They don’t say the same thing, not even close in many cases to the King James Bible! These new Bibles may seem easier to understand, but in FACT, they are impossible to understand when corrupted. When the Easy-To-Read Version (ESV) tells you to “ change your life

to be saved in Mark 1:15, that makes it impossible to get saved. The King James Bible simply says to “Repent, and believe the gospel.” The word “repent” in the King James simply means “to think differently.” By changing this passage to require changing one’s life, it now predicates salvation upon works.

You DON’T have to change your life to receive God’s free gift of eternal life. That is why it is a gift (Romans 6:23; Ephesians 2:8-10). Good works are good and commanded by God (Romans 3:31). They are willful acts of obedience for the person indwelled by God and living in obedience to Him (John 14:15). Just do not believe that they have anything to do with saving your soul (Romans 3:19-20). If you believe that good works, or the good life that you live, contributes to your salvation, then you are believing in yourself to save you, not Jesus (Romans 10:3-4). You’ll end up burning in Hell someday going that route (Matthew 7:21-23). Believe in Jesus alone to save you and you will be saved (John 3:15-16; Galatians 3:26).

Opinions don’t overrule facts! This dreary and relentless ongoing war between me and the indifferent Bob Jones University crowd is not merely about differences of opinion. I plead with your dear reader to look at THE FACTS. Here is [8]an in-depth rebuttal of the English Standard Version (ESV) which BJU uses, sells and sanctions. BJU has blood on their hands. These modern [9]Devil's Bibles are a hindrance to soulwinning, because they corrupt what it means to repent and how to be saved. They Devil is secularizing the Bible, transforming it into a mere spiritual religious book instead of a theological Book of God's Word. Dear friend, I care! I do not claim to be a good Christian, but I am 100 % sincere and I do walk with God. I love people, despite coming across as rude and offensive sometimes. I am not cocky, I am confident. I am not trying to be rude, I simply speak my mind. I am sick and tired of being rejected, shunned and ostracized by Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. All I did was try to help them see THE FACTS.

Let's [10]look at Matthew 8:2 shall we. Do you see how only the King James Bible accurately says that a leper "WORSHIPPED" Jesus, but all the Devil's modern revisions merely say that the leper "

" It is obvious that the Devil and his crowd don't like Jesus' deity, so they removed it. This is a FACT! Only the King James Bible honors the Lord by giving Him the worship that He is due and deserves as almighty God in the flesh (1st Timothy 3:16). Hey, take a look at what the modern [11]Devil's Bibles do to torture 1st Timothy 3:16.

These are FACTS folks, which cannot be disputed or dismissed. I am sick and tired of the Bob Jones crowd downplaying this issue as if people like me are making a fuss over a trifle matter. Look how important the Bible is to God. Psalm 138:2, "I will worship toward thy holy temple, and praise thy name for thy lovingkindness and for thy truth: for thou hast magnified thy word above all thy name." I could go on for hours!!! These are undisputable FACTS. God elevates His Word above His name. The reason why is obvious, because just as a man's word is his bond, so also is the same true of our great God. God's Word is His bond. If one verse in the Bible is untrue or inaccurate, then none of it can be trusted. Tell one lie and all your truth becomes suspect!

What a great truth! Opinions don't overrule facts! That is so very true! Bob Jones University will dismiss everything I say as me being brainwashed by Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001), since I graduated in 1993 from Hyles-Anderson College. I am very thankful for that wonderful opportunity. I love all my teachers at HAC and the people I met and served in the ministry together while there. There was no internet back then. I drove back and forth 50 miles every day to school for 8 years to get my Pastoral Theology degree. I earned it in blood, sweat and tears (literally)! I give God all the credit, praise and glory for anything good accomplished through this humble broken sinner.

Oh how I wish Harvest Baptist Church of Guam would humble themselves as I have to THE TRUTH. I humbled myself to their pastors in 2017 three times, for which they threw me under the bus, kicking me in the head and leaving me for dead. Those are wicked men! And now I pray and wish that Pastor Gary Walton would befriend the truth, and me, and that Harvest would become a soulwinning church on Guam. I wish I had a church to go soulwinning with. Harvest are so busy making money in the education business with their schools, that they have neglected the Master's business of soulwinning!

Sadly, Guam is going to Hell. I witness to people all the time, but I have no church to invite them to. Harvest won't even let me come to church, go figure. Instead of being a lighthouse beacon on the island of Guam for Christ, Harvest Baptist Church is a secluded cult-like religious group. They are merely four walls and a roof. I just don't understand their attitudes at Harvest. I really don't. Pride keeps men from doing the right thing. This is not between me and Harvest, it is between THE TRUTH and Harvest. The FACTS are on my side, which is why I preach so strong and without apology. I love you all so much with God's unconditional love.

2.3.3 They Called Him "LORD," But Jesus Didn't Know Them (2021-03-03 09:30)

Matthew 7:20-23

" Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them. Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.

Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord*, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works?

And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity*.

This is one of the most intriguing and disturbing passages of Scripture. This group of people called Jesus, "LORD, LORD," but He knew them not. They were not born-again. That is, they were not saved, and they went to Hell to burn forever in their sins. How did this happen? What did they do wrong? Dear friend, they made the fatal mistake that millions of churchgoers are making in America and the world today—they are serving Christ instead of wholly trusting Christ to get to Heaven! The heresy is commonly known as "

Lordship Salvation.

Evangelist Steve Pettit is in this accursed religious group. Dr. Pettit has been the president of Bob Jones University since 2014. Read what Dr. Pettit foolish says:

> "For the real reality of the genuineness of your faith is that you are faithful to run the race!" —Dr. Steve Pettit ("What Does It Mean To Run 'The Race'?" - [1]22:44)

That is not the Gospel of Free Grace dear friend. You don't have to run a race of holiness and serving Christ to prove that you are saved. If that were true, then you could never really know with full confidence that you have been saved. Dr. Pettit further heretically elaborates:

> "You can't just speak about getting saved, and you accepted Christ, and then that's it! There is a justification; There is a sanctification; There's ultimately a glorification, and though there are three parts, they are all part of the whole, and you cannot separate them. In order for you to qualify for the award, you have > to get into the race, you have to stay in the race, and you have to finish the race. If you want to win, you have to run to the end; and winning in the Christian life is everything, because if you lose—if you don't finish—you lose everything—you lose your SOUL. And so, the Christian race is the life of faith that begins, is run, and is finished when we cross over into Heaven!" [emphasis added] —Dr. Steve Pettit ("What Does It Mean To Run 'The Race'?" - [2]11:34)

Dear friend, eternal life is a free gift. It is an instantaneous new birth, not a race or a process. Steve Pettit has perverted the new birth into a Marathon Race that must be finished to know for sure that you've qualified for the award. None of that terminology applies to the Gospel. Eternal life is God's free gift (Romans 5:15-18; 6:23; Ephesians 2:8-9), not an award which you must qualify to obtain as Pettit teaches.

Kindly said, Dr. Pettit is making the same fatal mistake that the people in Matthew 7:21-23 made. They did " many wonderful works " (like run a Bible college), in Jesus' name. They **"

prophesied

" (like Steve Pettit preaches in BJU chapel) in Jesus' name. They called Jesus

"LORD, LORD," but the Savior firmly stated with these horrifying words: " I NEVER KNEW YOU.

" Jesus calls them "ye that work iniquity." Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born-again!

Listen, you don't get saved by running the race friend. You get saved by getting out of the race, and resting wholly in Jesus' name! Hebrews 4:10-11, "For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his.Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief." After six days of creating, God rested on the seventh day. God didn't cease from His sins, God stopped working. John 6:28-29, "Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent." The way you labour (or work) to enter into God's rest is to BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST. Acts 16:30-31, "And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house." That is the only thing we are told to DO to be saved in the Bible —" Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved" (Acts 16:31b).

I could give you umpteen more examples of Calvinist false prophets today (Ray Comfort, Sam Horn, Marty Herron, John MacArthur, John Piper, R.C. Sproul, Paul Washer, Chip Ingram, William Lane Craig, Stephen Davey; Kevin Bauder, et cetera). Repeatedly in the Holy Bible we are simply taught to BELIEVE to have eternal life. In fact, God authored an entire specific book of the Bible as a God's tract, which is the Gospel of John. We read in John 20:31,

"But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name." So if all we had was the Gospel of John, we have enough to be saved. Everything that we need to know to obtain eternal life is contained within the pages of John's Gospel. Not even once does John mention the word "

repent.

” That is because repentance is automatic when one believes. Repentance and faith are simply two sides of one coin. Repentance is a change of mind. The man who changes his mind has done so by believing on Christ.

Salvation is so simple. The Bible even calls it **“

the simplicity that is in Christ

” (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4). God saves a man solely by faith (Galatians 3:26); and then we are sanctified by the Word of God as we walk by faith (John 17:17; 1st Peter 2:2). Becoming a Christian is instantaneous; but becoming Christlike takes a lifetime. The former is salvation (or sonship); the latter is service (or discipleship). Dr. Pettit errantly teaches that sanctification is a package deal with justification, and that you cannot separate the two. So if you aren’t being sanctified, Dr. Pettit teaches you’ve never been justified either. That is the Devil’s lie of Lordship Salvation! Evangelist John Bunyan (1628-1688) got it 100 % correct, who said:

> “If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people.” [emphasis added] —Evangelist John Bunyan

John Bunyan was a wise man concerning the Gospel. Folks, this is a big deal. There are pastors, Bible colleges and churches everywhere today who are taking this doctrinal matter lightly, as if it doesn’t really matter; but it DOES MATTER! Right doctrine matters! The horrified people in Matthew 7:21-23 found out just how much doctrine does matter!!! They called Him “LORD, LORD,” but Christ denied knowing them. The $64,000 question then, dear reader, is not whether or not you know Jesus, but does Jesus know you? Are you one of His redeemed sheep, or are you a tare like the Bob Jones crowd today?

You had better stop trying to be saved, and you had better start trusting to be saved. You had better stop trying to faithfully “ run the race

as Steve Pettit heretically teaches, and stop trying to commit your life to serving Christ as John MacArthur foolishly teaches, and stop trying to “turn away from you sin” as Marty Herron errantly teaches, and instead just “ Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved” (Acts 16:31b). If you are ever saved at all, it will be solely because of GOD’S faithfulness, and not in the least part by YOUR faithfulness. Eternal life is a free gift. Salvation is a take proposition, not a give proposition. Salvation is received, not achieved. To be saved, you simply cease from your own works, as God did from His on the seventh day, and you REST completely in the finished redemptive work of cross Who died on the cross for our sins, was buried, and bodily resurrected three days later (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). That is how you get saved Oh needy sinner!

God says: Hebrews 4:10, “For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his.”
Dr. Steve Pettit says: “You can't just speak about getting saved, and you accepted Christ, and then that's it! ...If you want to win, you have to run to the end.”

"That man's belief that is grounded upon any thing done in him, or by him only, that man's belief is not grounded upon the death, burial, resurrection, ascension, and intercession of Jesus Christ. For that man that hath indeed good ground of his eternal salvation, his faith is settled upon that object which God is well pleased or satisfied withal, which is, that Man which was born of Mary, even her first-born Son; that is, he doth apply by faith to his soul the virtues of his death, blood, righteousness, &c., and doth look for satisfaction of soul no where else, than from that."

"To think that your condition is good, because there is some change in you from a loose, profane life, to a more close, honest, and civil life and conversation; I say, to think this testimony sufficient to ground the stress of thy salvation upon, is very dangerous. First, because such a soul doth not only lay the stress of its salvation besides the man Christ Jesus that died upon the cross; but, secondly, because his confidence is not grounded upon the Savior of sinners; but upon his turning from gross sins, to a more refined life, (and it may be to the performance of some good duties,) which is no Savior."

2.3.4 Let Not Your Heart Be Troubled (2021-03-04 09:30)

John 14:1-3, “

Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me.

In my Father’s house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you.

And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.

” John 16:33, “These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.

The apostle Peter had just denied knowing Jesus three times in John chapter 13. Now in chapter 14 the Lord comforts Peter, letting Him know that the Lord Himself is preparing a place for every believer up in Heaven. This is so beautiful. In God’s house there are many mansions. I love when Jesus says, “If it were not so, I would have told you.” The blessed Lord said what He meant, and He meant what He said. You can count on Jesus!!! That is exactly what it means in Romans 10:11, “For the scripture saith, Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.” If you place your full trust in the Lord Jesus Christ, you will never be disappointed. You won’t ever regret receiving Jesus Christ as your personal Savior (John 1:12-13).

Jesus said,

“If it were not so, I would have told you.” That is one reason I know that the story in Luke 16:19-32 is a true story, because if it wasn’t Jesus is a deceiver. Jesus didn’t say it was a parable, so I’m going to take it as factual. Jesus used proper nouns for names, which He never did when He told parables. Jesus said that Hell has fire.

Luke 16:23, “

And in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom.

And he cried and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame.

” It would be very wrong (as Mormons and Jehovah’s Witnesses errantly do), to say that Jesus was only speaking symbolically, or to call this a parable. If the Bible doesn’t call something fiction, than don’t you dare call it untrue. Luke 16:19-32 about the rich man and Lazarus is a factual true story. Jesus said,

“If it were not so, I would have told you.”

Jesus told Peter not to let his heart be troubled. Is your heart troubled dear friend?

John 14:1-3, “

Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me.

In my Father’s house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you.

And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.

” The way to stop being troubled is to BELIEVE in Jesus. Is He your Savior? Trust Him now to forgive your sins and He will. Believe that Jesus died on the cross to pay your debt of sin. Believe that He was buried. And believe that three days later Christ bodily resurrected from the dead for your justification. Jesus raised up to justify our faith in Him, that is was not in vain. If your name is written in Heaven dear reader, then you have very much to rejoice about continually, night and day.

John 16:33, “These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.

” Repeatedly in the Bible we find the Lord encouraging us not to be troubled. The Lord doesn’t want us to worry and fret. In Philippians 4:6 we are exhorted to “Be careful for nothing,” that is, don’t allow anxiety and stress to rule your life. Bring your cares and troubles to God in prayer, and leave your burden there! Then claim the perfect peace of God, which passeth all understanding (Philippians 4:7).

The Bible says God cares about you (1st Peter 5:7). If you are like me, and you are, you sometimes begin to doubt if God really cares. He does friend, I assure you! I know God cares because the Bible says that He cares!!! That is walking by faith. If we walk by sight, we might think that God doesn’t care, when things are not going well. But we are commanded to walk BY FAITH, trusting the promises of God in the Scriptures. Let not your heart be troubled. That is what Jesus said. Is your heart troubled Oh believer? Get into the Word of God. I am amazed how many Christians are vaguely familiar with the Bible. They have never slept clutching their King James Bible next to their heart. They have never gone to the Scriptures when everything in their life fell apart. You need to do that friend! You need to get into your King James Bible during the dark times, when all hope seems gone, and claim God’s promises! THAT IS LIVING BY FAITH!!!

I am not an eloquent writer, but God knows that I have a willing heart to be used of God. The Lord uses me because I am willing to be used. Pastor Jack Hyles used to say concerning Samson, that even though Samson was a crooked stick, God will still make use of a crooked stick if it is yielded to Him. I am grateful to be fit for the Master’s use! Isaiah 6:8, “ Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? Then said I, Here am I; send me.” What a wonderful Savior!

2.3.5 Like Insulin Resistance, Churches Are Truth Resistant (2021-03-05 09:30)

Revelation 3:1-2, "And unto the angel of the church in Sardis write; These things saith he that hath the seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars; I know thy works, that thou hast a name that thou livest, and art dead. Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God." Jude 1:3, "Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints."

Insulin resistance kills three times more Americans than cancer does! What is insulin? What is insulin resistance? Insulin is a hormone produced by the pancreas that regulates blood sugar (glucose). Eating carbohydrates (rice, bread, pasta potatoes) all gets converted in the body to glucose. Plus the sugar you eat gets turned into glucose. Fructose is sugar from fruit. Sucrose is sugar from sugar cane. Too much sugar is toxic for your body!

Americans as a whole eat a horrible diet. Only 5 % of Americans eat the required amount of fiber each day. The average American eats 20 times more red meat than they should. Meat is high in protein but contains ZERO fiber. Beans are much better, having both protein and fiber! Consequently, 40 % of Americans are obese. Here is some information explaining insulin and insulin resistance:

> Insulin is a hormone that plays a big role in metabolism, which is all about how our body converts digested food into energy.
> Let's start from the beginning:
>
> Our digestive track breaks down the carbohydrates we eat into glucose as well as other simple sugars. Our bloodstream then delivers glucose across the body, for our cells to use as energy.
>
> That's where insulin comes in.
>
> It's a hormone produced by our pancreas, to help blood glucose enter into the cells. You can think of it as the key that opens the cell's door, allowing blood glucose to enter.
> 'Insulin resistance' simply means that the cells of our body have slowly stopped responding to insulin – it can no longer open the door.
>
> Although cells have other ways of taking up glucose, this definitely causes an imbalance in our blood glucose levels, and even impairs the functions of cells.
>
> The condition of 'insulin resistance' is known as type-II diabetes mellitus. This is different from type-I diabetes mellitus, where the body cannot make insulin in the first place, making it necessary for the patient to inject insulin into their blood.
> SOURCE: [1]A Simple Explanation: Insulin Resistance And It's Effects

Likewise, churches today are obese with money, comfort and luxury. The New Testament church didn't have heating and air conditioning. As far as we know they didn't even have a building. How does that compare to churches today with their padded pews, stained-glass windows, lush carpeting, annual trips to the Holy Land, exorbitant salaries for pastors (2 to 3 times what the average U.S. worker gets paid annually), et cetera? These spiritually obese churches have become truth resistant, just as an insulin resistant sick person.

Insulin Resistance (Diabetes) Causes All Sorts Of Health Problems

Once a person's body has become resistant to insulin, meaning that the muscles no longer burn sugar as energy, really bad things start to happen. Blood sugar levels spike. Blood pressure spikes. Nerves start to die in the feet, toes and extremities of the body. You can go blind, have a stroke, have kidney failure, and a bunch of other awful things. The cure is simply to lose weight, eat heathy, exercise and take control of your health. Insulin resistance is also known as diabetes, commonly known as: "The Silent Killer" (because many people don't even know they have it until too late). Diabetes is also called: "The Sitting Disease," because America's sedentary lifestyle is the major cause of insulin resistance, and bad diet.

The same horrible thing has happened to the churches today. Churches have become truth resistant . Pastors and congregations no longer respond to the Holy Spirit, failing to absorb truth ; just like muscles which no longer respond to insulin , failing to absorb glucose (body sugar). As a consequence of not being able to absorb truth, because pastor's hearts are not right with God today, all sorts of really bad things are happening in the churches.

This is why the deadly disease of Lordship Salvation is so prevalent in churches nowadays (in the absence of truth), which is a perversion of God's grace. Some people mockingly refer to the simplicity that is in Christ (the free grace Gospel) as "

cheap grace,

but friend, grace does not come cheap, it cost Jesus His life. God's grace is free to you and me, but it cost God His only begotten Son (John 3:16), and it cost Jesus His very life (2nd Corinthians 5:21), so we could be free and escape eternity burning in the Lake of Fire (Romans 5:9). We are saved by simple childlike faith in Jesus Christ (Galatians 3:26).

It is resistance to THE TRUTH why so many churches today have been infected with literally hundreds of corrupt English Bible revisions, which attack the deity of Jesus, pervert the meaning of repentance, change of plan of salvation, remove the Godhead (Trinity), eliminate complete passages of Scripture, and diminish the preeminence of Christ. Truth resistance is deadly, and your church has probably already been infected by this Silent Killer!!!

Since I am a Baptist, I see the apostate condition in most Baptist churches today, and it grieves me. Baptist churches everywhere are dying. Revelation 3:1-2, "And unto the angel of the church in Sardis write; These things saith he that hath the seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars; I know thy works, that thou hast a name that thou livest, and art dead. Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God." The Lord exhorted the church at Sardis to the things that were READY TO DIE.

This Scripture passage is so applicable today in America. Once a church is so far gone that they preach another gospel of misunderstood repentance (aka, to be saved), they are now a religious cult, not a church. It is corrupt theological institutions; such as, [2]Bob Jones University and [3]Moody Bible Institute, that are promoting a counterfeit plan of salvation through thousands of their corrupt graduates.

Pastors Are Killing The Churches By Resisting The Truth

The following information appeared in a Pew Forum article on October 17, 2019. The article is titled: ’ [4]In U.S., Decline Of Christianity Continues At Rapid Pace ’:

> More than eight-in-ten members of the Silent Generation (those born between 1928 and 1945) describe themselves as Christians (84 %), as do three-quarters of Baby Boomers (76 %). In stark contrast, only half of Millennials (49 %) describe themselves as Christians; four-in-ten are religious “nones,” and one-in-ten Millennials identify with non-Christian faiths... The data suggests that Christians are declining not just as a share of the U.S. adult population, but also in absolute numbers. [emphasis added] —[5]SOURCE

I was saddened when I learned that rapper Kanye West performed a dance concert at Joel Osteen’s so-called "church" in Houston, Texas in 2019. [6]Check out this giant All Seeing Eye which was displayed when Kanye performed there. This is their way of bragging that the Luciferian elite have infiltrated the churches with the New World Order. I-chabod (the glory of the Lord is departed) is written over the door of today’s churches!!! Joel Osteen is a false teacher. Evangelist Michael P. Bowen refutes Pastor Osteen’s false gospel in his helpful book titled: "[7]I NEVER KNEW YOU," chapter 2, page 19.

Jeremiah 23:1-2, “Woe be unto the pastors that destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture! saith the LORD.

Therefore thus saith the LORD God of Israel against the pastors that feed my people; Ye have scattered my flock, and driven them away, and have not visited them: behold, I will visit upon you the evil of your doings, saith the LORD.” The churches are pathetic today. Formalism is the enemy of the Gospel. I have been in Catholic churches, which feel like spiritual morgues. That is because it is a formalized religion, but the blessed Holy Spirit of God is not present. God is love (1st John 4:8. God cares (1st Peter 5:7). God is faithful (1st Corinthians 1:9).

Ephesians 4:30-32 teaches us as believers to be loving, forgiving, kind and tenderhearted one toward another.

Yet, we find coldness, covetousness, hypocrisy, a sinful respect of persons, social cliques and a woeful lack of compassion for hurting people in many churches today. Something is very wrong! It is simply because the churches have fallen into the rut of going through the religious motions, not walking close to God, which if they did would produce the fruit of the Holy Spirit (Galatians 5:22-25).

A Preacher Who Walks With God Will Hate Every False Way

A person who walks with God, by abiding in the Word of God, will hate every false way. Psalm 119:104, "Through thy precepts I get understanding: therefore I hate every false way." I hate the New World Order (controlled by the Illuminati). I call them the "Luciferian elite." Alex Jones calls them "Globalists." Commander William Guy Carr refers to the NWO in his books as: "The World Revolutionary Movement." Carr refers to the Illuminati as "Satanists." These are all accurate terms. Satan is "the god of this world" (2nd Corinthians 4:4b). The average preacher doesn't study the NWO, doesn't care at all about it, and won't warn people about it.

Consequently, tens of thousands of churches are embracing the [8]Devil's NWO Bible versions. As any good coach will tell you: "The best defense is a strong offense!" The churches are biting hook, line and sinker into the NWO because their pastors have failed to educate them. Humbly said, it is because I love God and the inspired Word of God that I hate every false way, as the Bible says in Psalm 119:104. Sadly, over 95 % of preachers and pastors today don't seem to hate anything, except not getting paid. Tragically, as I showed you earlier, the [9]United States is departing from faith in God at a rapid pace. Pastors and churches are much to blame, for not strengthening the things that remain, for not contending for the faith!

The Way To Keep Living Is To Fight Dying

The churches are dying because pastors aren't standing. I am hated and despised by local churches on Guam where I live, and all across the world, because I preach THE TRUTH. The shameful Harvest Baptist Church of Guam, where I was welcomed for one year in 2014, axed me like a turkey on Thanksgiving Day when I befriended them with THE TRUTH (as a true friend does). Since late 2014, I have been banned from even attending church, for simply showing them that Lordship Salvation is not the Gospel. I love them, but they don't love me.

Despite my love for them, Harvest's wicked pastors drove me out of their social club in 2014, and have sinfully ostracized me ever since. Neither Pastor Marty Herron nor Pastor Gary Walton would allow me to come back to church. Dear friend, the churches are changing because they aren't fighting not to change. It's like exercising, eating healthy and walking. If a person doesn't fight to stay healthy, we'll get fat and let our health go (now I'm preaching to myself...lol). I have been eating healthier, walking more and I've lost some weight. I feel good, but it is a constant battle. You see, you have to STRENTHEN THE THINGS THAT ARE READY TO DIE to preserve them.

The same is true of churches. By going along with the apostasy everywhere today, and not fighting to stay healthy, the churches are all truth resistant (like insulin resistance), becoming obese with heresy and spiritual disease, dying prematurely. That's a great comparison of what is happening to churches today. Our American churches have become so spoiled rotten, disgustingly fat, financially prosperous and weighed down with social clubs and high society types, that they are as a diseased body with type II diabetes. Churches today are having their bus ministry and weekly soulwinning program amputated. They are truth resistant.

You can inject high doses of truth into the average church today, and it won't make a difference, they just laugh at you!

Kindly said (with candy sprinkles on top), I'm talking about the Bob Jones crowd. I'm talking about Pastor Marty Herron in Iowa at the Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary. I'm talking about Pastor John MacArthur. These people are alumni of BJU. I'm talking about Harvest Baptist Church of Guam, a dried up barren social club who emphasize the education business at the neglect of the Master's business of soulwinning. These names and institutions have all become truth resistant! You cannot help them, because they are subverted of themselves. Titus

3:10-11, "

A man that is an heretick after the first and second admonition reject;

Knowing that he that is such is subverted, and sinneth, being condemned of himself.

" The Lordship Salvation crowed sinneth. The wrong repentance crowd sinneth. The false Bibles crowd sinneth. They are subverted of themselves. They are TRUTH RESISTANT!!!

The Truth Resistant Harvest Baptist Church Of Guam

I happily attended the Harvest Baptist Church of Guam for a year in 2014. I saw that the church was infected with false Bibles, misunderstood repentance and Lordship Salvation. I gave them an injection of THE TRUTH, as a true friend does. I purchased several hundred dollars of books with my own money for the pastors, to help them to see. I was humble about it. I prayed and asked God to soften their hearts. But once the injection of THE TRUTH was given, I realized quickly that they are TRUTH RESISTANT at Harvest.

Harvest Baptist Church (HBC) of Guam has spiritual type II diabetes. They have grown so fat with success, money and popularity in the geographical region, known as: The Federated States Of Micronesia, that they are sickly. Harvest's feet and toes are infected, rotting away. Their youth are rotting away with another gospel of Lordship Salvation. Harvest's spiritual glucose level is 400, using 24 different Bible versions among their sickly congregation. I am hated for caring enough to tell them THE TRUTH. Harvest's pastors are infected the most, indifferent as can be, totally truth resistant. You could inject unit after unit of TRUTH into Harvest Baptist Church Guam all day long, and their diseased church body would merely laugh at you, as they laugh at me, literally banning and ostracizing me from attending church since 2014. Harvest is as a dying man with stage 4 Type II diabetes.

The saddest thing is that although Harvest's diseased condition is totally curable, they would rather continue being infected, until every limb has rotted away, and all life is gone. Harvest's shameful pastors are arrogant sinful man, who are as fools who resent being told they are wrong. So they [10]continue leading people into Hell by promoting Dr. Steve Pettit (president of Bob Jones University) who preaches another gospel of partial faith in Christ plus works. HBC sends people to Hell by preaching Lordship Salvation. HBC sends people to Hell by preaching a misunderstood repentance that demands a person "

turn away from sin

" to go to Heaven. You simply cannot give THE TRUTH to most Baptist churches today, because they have become truth resistant . This is a consequence of the sinful human heart.

Answering the question: "Why Is It So Hard To Convince People That They're Wrong?,"

Pam Rose, a clinical psychologist, says:

> Some people simply don't "believe in" evidence. They believe what they want to believe for any number of reasons: to shore up a self-image, to avoid diligence and > study, to support a whole system of non-evident beliefs, to remain consistent in their emotional attachments. They listen for support for their existing framework and reject all else: it's staggering I know but some of us prefer to "like" an idea rather than support it with evidence.

> Another huge step is required to convince someone they're wrong or from a more positive perspective, to teach someone something. The other must agree to be taught by you, psychologically. From grade school teachers to preachers, coaches to politicians, parents (especially of teens!) and between friends, this ephemeral permission-to- learn- from lies between you with your evidence and your potential learner.
>
> With some it seems once they've granted the permission to another to teach them, they may refuse to alter that permission despite massive evidence to the lack of fitness of that one to teach anyone anything. They may call it loyalty or commitment; I call it blindly following.
> PBS show from years ago focused on a German ship rescuing German civilians from coastal areas of Europe to return them to Germany towards the end of WWII. [11]It sank with 9,000 people, exceeding the Titanic always reputed to be the most souls lost. My good friend, a teacher could not/would not believe me. I was watching it as we spoke by phone and she sputtered, "everybody knows…..I've never heard of such a thing…..that's just not true….etc. I said "It's here before my eyes, don't you believe PBS? I just saw full details about it" but she was adamant. I couldn't change her mind but she changed mine about her. [12]SOURCE

Pam is so right! These ungodly pastors today absolutely refuse to be taught by another preacher who resides outside of their particular religious clique. Just like that foolish teacher who refused to believe that 9,000 people died when the Wilhelm Gustloff ship sank in January of 1945, so also do today's foolish Bob Jones University graduates refuse to believe that God only authored ONE BIBLE (not 2, or 39, or 900). They refuse to believe that Lordship Salvation is a false plan of salvation. They refuse to believe that you don't have to forsake a lifestyle of sinful behavior to be saved.

Yet, these things are all true.

You don't have to stop any sin to be saved. You don't have to follow Jesus as your "Lord" (Boss), surrendering all to Him to receive God's free gift of eternal life. That is why the Bible calls eternal life "a gift," because you can have it without working or qualifying for it. Literally, [13]Steve Pettit teaches that Heaven is an "award" that you must "qualify" for . That is as Satanic as anything I have ever heard preached from a pulpit. Pettit said that to 2,700 students and faculty at Bob Jones University during chapel on January 26, 2015.

[14]Pastor John MacArthur errantly preaches that salvation is "

for all that you are for all that Jesus is. Folks, it cannot be a gift then! Either salvation is a trade, an equal exchange of some sorts, or else it is a free gift that you simply receive by faith alone (Galatians 3:26), but it cannot be both. I am saddened and frustrated that so many pastors today refuse to heed THE TRUTH. I am irritated to know that the majority of Baptist pastors have nothing to say in rebuke of [15]Evangelist Ken Ham's false theology, which demands that a person to be saved. That is false religion! If a man must cease from fornicating, getting drunk and stealing from his employer to be saved, or prove that he is saved, then eternal life cannot be justly called a

” (Romans 5:15-18).

Is your pastor and congregation TRUTH RESISTANT? If so, your church has been infected with sinful error and pride. There’s just something in our sinful human nature that hates being wrong. Carnally-minded people would rather die than admit they are wrong! I used to tell people to “invite Jesus into your heart” to be saved, but I was very wrong. Evangelist Oliver B. Greene used to preach that junk theology and mislead a bunch of people. No, you don’t invite Jesus into your heart to be saved, you simply “ (trust) on Him as the Bible says. John 6:47, “ Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life. ” You cannot show me even one verse that teaches to invite Jesus into your heart. Right doctrine matters!

If you have become resistant to truth, the remedy is to start eating a healthier spiritual diet (abide in the Scriptures) and exercise your faith by contending for it (Jude 1:3). The pharmaceutical industry needs you to be sick, or they won’t make any money. Likewise, the Devil can’t deceive you unless you let religion fool you. Satan wants you to become religious, so you won’t go to Heaven. Satan’s greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born-again (Matthew 7:21-23). We all need truth! The only way to make the darkness go away is to shine the light of the truth.

2.3.6 Why Won't God Heal Amputees? (2021-03-06 09:30)

"If I had not done among them the works which none other man did, they had not had sin: but now have they both seen and hated both me and my Father. But this cometh to pass, that the word might be fulfilled that is written in their law, They hated me without a cause" (John 15:24,25).

Here's a blasphemous atheist website...

[1]http://www.WhyWontGodHealAmputees.com

That's a fair question... why doesn't God heal amputees? Is it because God is "imaginary" as the above atheist website claims? In fact, they've put together a video on YouTube presenting their argument against God's existence...

[2]http://youtube.com/watch?v=zDHJ4ztnldQ

So why doesn't God heal amputees? The truth is that the Word of God never promised such healing for the lame.

Biblically, amputees are referred to as the "lame." In Luke 7:22 Jesus said... "Go your way, and tell John what things ye have seen and heard; how that the blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, to the poor the gospel is preached." Jesus healed amputees, making the lame to walk, the blind to see, and the deaf to hear; BUT, apart from the miracles of the New Testament, there are NO recorded evidences of amputees being divinely healed.

Keep in mind that Jesus performed the works He did, as no other man ever did, to prove to mankind that He was God in the flesh... "If I had not done among them the works which none other man did, they had not had sin: but now have they both seen and hated both me and my Father. But this cometh to pass, that the word might be fulfilled that is written in their law, They hated me without a cause" (John 15:24,25).

Jesus, for a short time, granted power unto His Apostles to perform these same miracles (Mark 16:17,18). By the end of the New Testament, these Apostolic gifts had CEASED. 1st Corinthians 13:8b clearly states... "tongues, they shall cease." 1st Corinthians 13:8-12 speaks in reference to New Testament saints awaiting the completion of the Bible... when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away. The Apostolic gifts of healing, tongues, and of casting out Devils CEASED during New Testament times, as evidence by Paul's inability to heal himself, Timothy, and Trophimus. We know that God is a miracle working God, and still performs wondrous miracles today; BUT, no man has the power to exercise these powers at will as Jesus and the Apostles did. Only Jesus was able to heal amputees, as evidence of His deity. Jesus, to validate the message and ministry of the Apostles, granted them Apostolic gifts to be performed in His name, which CEASED by the end of the New Testament. I challenge any Charismatic who would argue this matter to heal an amputee... you cannot!

Only Jesus and His Apostles Were Able to Heal Amputees

In Luke 7:20 we find John the Baptist very discouraged, questioning whether Jesus was the Christ or not. I think most Christians can relate to John's dilemma. Even the greatest man born amongst women, John the Baptist (Matthew 11:11), faltered in his faith at times. Never forget that! John's disciples come to Jesus with a message from John... Art thou he that should come, or do we look for another? (Luke 7:20; Matthew 11:3). Jesus replies in Luke 7:22, "Go your way, and tell John what things ye have seen and heard; how that the blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, to the poor the gospel is preached." No preacher today has power from God to perform such miracles. If men today could perform such miracles, then Christ would be discredited and forgotten. In fact, hellbound magician, [3]David Blaine, has actually attempted to discredit Jesus Christ by performing some of the same miracles which Christ did while on earth.

Here's a video on YouTube titled Criss Angel = Jesus...

[4]http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ZEXTN3aBCPs &mode=related &search=angel %20magic

At the end of the video, a message appears which states: "Criss Angel is the 2nd Coming of Jesus...Believe It!" [5]Criss Angel has also publickly walked on water, leading people to believe that he is Jesus. This is very disturbing folks.

Such wickedness is preparing the way for the coming Antichrist, who will deceive the world with his DECEIT... "Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders, And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved" (2nd Thessalonians 2:9,10). But even still, the Antichrist will not be able to heal the lame, make the deaf to hear, heal the blind, or raise the dead. ONLY Jesus Christ was able to perform such miracles, and for a short time—His Apostles—to whom He granted such powers to validate their ministry. Today, nearly 2000 years later, followers of Christ are still testifying to the sinful lost world of Jesus' miracles as recorded in the Scriptures. No man in the history of humanity has been able to perform the breath-taking, mind-boggling, scientifically impossible, miracles which the Lord Jesus Christ did, which is why Jesus stated in John 14:11, "Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father in me: or else believe me for the very works' sake."

In Acts 3:6-13, we read that Peter healed a lame man. The people were astonished and began to worship the Apostles. Peter responded in Acts 3:12-13, "And when Peter saw it, he answered unto the people, Ye men of Israel, why marvel ye at this? or why look ye so earnestly on us, as though by our own power or holiness we had made this man to walk? The God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob, the God of our fathers, hath glorified his Son Jesus." You see, the Apostles only had this power for a short time to GLORIFY THE SON OF GOD. Once the Word of God was completed, there was no need for these sign gifts anymore.

Life Itself is a Miracle of God, Clearly Revealing God's Power and Godhead

Oh listen my friend! You'd better stop demanding miracles from God; BUT rather, believe on Jesus Christ because of the miracles recorded in the Word of God! Only a deliberately blind fool would deny the existence of God, who is clearly seen in creation, "For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse" (Romans 1:20). To them that believe, no explanation is necessary; to them that believe not, no explanation is possible. If you believe in God, then you'd be a fool not to believe that He authored the Bible. Mankind wouldn't write the Bible if he could, and couldn't if he would. There is NO other Book on earth compared to the Word of God. The discovery of over 5,000 scrolls and parchments of the Scriptures is overwhelming evidence that the Word of God wasn't written by a single man, or during a certain time. The Bible spans 1500 years, written by over 40 men, from various walks of life, most of whom never met one another; YET, the Bible perfectly cross-references in understandable meaning to the diligent Bible student.

If you want to see a miracle from God, open your eyes. Life itself is proof of God's divine power and Godhead. I pity the fool who refuses to believe in electricity because he says he can't see it. God's presence is what holds the universe together (Acts 17:25). One only needs to sit back and view creation to KNOW that there is a God.

Conclusion

God is a prayer answering God, or else He wouldn't have asked us to pray (Philippians 4:6; 1st Thessalonians 5:17; 1st Peter 5:7). James 5:14,15 clearly tell us that God will heal the sick in response to the prayer of faith; BUT, James didn't say anything about healing for the lame, blind, or deaf. Many Christians today have wonderful testimonies of God's wondrous power that has healed them. However, it is abundantly clear that God doesn't heal amputees today, which would diminish the works which Christ did while upon the earth. Jesus spoke like no other man, and performed miracles like no other man, because He is the Son of God. Fake healers, such as Benny Hinn, never heal an amputee! In fact, there are no legitimate healers today, they're all fake! It's always a woman with a headache, or a man with pain in his leg, i.e., something non-verifiable. It's a proven scam that's been going on for ages, and people continue to fall for it.

The ONLY "Great Physician" is Jesus Christ, and He performed His miracles to prove His deity (John 15:24,25). Biblical healing today comes through faith; BUT, we must realize that it is NOT God's will to heal everyone, and amputees shouldn't expect any healing until the Lord's return. Amen! Every Christian who is suffering pain today... the deaf, dumb, blind, and crippled... will be forever healed by Christ's omnipotent power when he returns at the Rapture!

2.3.7 How To Please God During Suffering (2021-03-07 09:30)

Jonah 2:9-10, “But I will sacrifice unto thee with the voice of thanksgiving; I will pay that that I have vowed. Salvation is of the LORD.

And the LORD spake unto the fish, and it vomited out Jonah upon the dry land.

The moment that Jonah repented (changed his thinking) and told God that he would pay that he had vowed, the Lord caused the great fish to drop Jonah off at the next whale stop! I love a joke that Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold told, about Jonah being down in the mouth…lol. I like that.

I don’t know about you, but reading this true story about Jonah motivates me to want to obey God sooner than later. Perhaps we can get out of the whale’s belly today rather than tomorrow. That’s not to say that all suffering and problems in life are sent by God to teach us a lesson or compel us to do something, but since we usually don’t know why we suffer in any particular situation, I’d rather play it safe and just be humble to obey God right away.

We see a similar situation with Job. Job’s friends were brutal in their critique of him. Job 16:1, “

Then Job answered and said,

I have heard many such things: miserable comforters are ye all.

Shall vain words have an end? or what emboldeneth thee that thou answerest? ” Job’s friends falsely accused him of not being right with God for the calamity in his life. They said if it wasn’t Job, then it must have been his children that sinned, because God doesn’t let bad things happen to the righteous. Literally, that is the horrible way they were thinking. They were very wrong.

Job’s sincere friends rationalized that bad things don’t just happen. Job’s ten children were all killed by a tornado. His servants were killed by thieves. His wealth was gone from fire and burglars. Job’s wife became bitter toward God. Job became diseased with painful boils from head to toe. His friends said it was all Job’s fault, and his family’s. How would you respond toward friends like that? Most people wouldn’t have been their friend anymore. But read how Job responded in Job 42:10, “And the LORD turned the captivity of Job, when he prayed for his friends: also the LORD gave Job twice as much as he had before.

When Job prayed for his horrible judgmental friends, God ended Job’s calamity.

Again, I am compelled from reading this true story to please God right away. I am going to pray for my former spouse with love in my heart, even though she horribly abandoned and divorced me in 2006, devastating me emotionally, financially and ruining my life. We will never be remarried, but I love her in Christ and pray for her. I buy her anything she asks, because I believe it is how God wants me to treat her. She has never apologized for anything, she blames other women. Like Eve, she blames others, but not herself. But that is God’s department to judge, not mine. What saith the Scripture? …

Romans 12:19-21 “

Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord.

Therefore if thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink: for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head.

Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good.

When Joseph’s brothers sold him into slavery, he suffered inexplicably for the next 20 years. Joseph has every reason to hate his 10 half brother’s guts. They were the sons of Leah. Joseph was the son of Rachel. Rachel died giving birth to Benjamin. Joseph could have despised them, but look how he responded in Genesis 50:18-21, “And his brethren also went and fell down before his face; and they said, Behold, we be thy servants. And Joseph said unto them, Fear not: for am I in the place of God?

But as for you, ye thought evil against me; but God meant it unto good, to bring to pass, as it is this day, to save much people alive.

Now therefore fear ye not: I will nourish you, and your little ones. And he comforted them, and spake kindly unto them.

” Wow! I love that.

Dear reader, I have shown you three living examples in the Word of God of saints, who after being through inexplicably traumatic ordeals, honored the Lord by exemplifying His forgiveness and love toward those that deeply hurt, afflicted and wounded them to the core. Job 13:15, “

Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him: but I will maintain mine own ways before him.

” I love Job’s attitude. Job said even if God killed him, he was going to still trust Him. May we be as faithful as Job.

Job 19:25, “For I know that my redeemer liveth, and that he shall stand at the latter day upon the earth:”

Matthew 8:26, “

And he saith unto them, Why are ye fearful, O ye of little faith? Then he arose, and rebuked the winds and the sea; and there was a great calm. ” Do you know that your Redeemer liveth? I do! Jesus exclaimed in Mark 11:22b, “ Have faith in God.

When Jonah made things right with God, he was freed from his captivity. Jonah evidently had made a vow to God, to go preach the Gospel to Nineveh, but then he reneged on his vow. What saith the Scripture? Ecclesiastes 5:4-5, “

When thou vowest a vow unto God, defer not to pay it; for he hath no pleasure in fools: pay that which thou hast vowed.

Better is it that thou shouldest not vow, than that thou shouldest vow and not pay. ” The Bible says happy is the man who trusts in the Lord.

Proverbs 28:14, “ Happy is the man that feareth alway: but he that hardeneth his heart shall fall into mischief.”

That was the sin of Ananias and Sapphira in Acts 5:1-11. They had vowed to sell some property and donate the money to the church, but then for some reason reneged on their vow, keeping back part of the money. They lied to God. I once heard Pastor Jack Hyles mention in a sermon that $100,000 of money was never paid, which church members had vowed to give to the ministry a year earlier. Dr. Hyles was a good guy. He often co-signed for church members. I heard him once say that he had to pay $15,000 in money from loans that people never repaid, which he had co-signed for. Brother Hyles never once mentioned the matter to the people who didn't repay their debts, because he loved them and didn't want to lose them as church members. That is a godly man and a loyal friend!

From reading all these Scripture passages, and there are many more in the Bible, it is clear to me that the way we respond to suffering affects how God responds to us. When Jonah cried out to God with a thankful heart in the belly of the whale—proclaiming that SALVATION IS OF THE LORD, and he vowed to repay his vow—God responded by letting him go.

When Job prayed to God for his horrible friends—those who kicked dirt in his face while he was at the bottom of life, suffering in pain, lonely, miserable and mourning the death of all his beloved children—God turned away Job's captivity. My blessed reader, if you want to please God during your trials, tribulations and suffering—HAVE FAITH IN GOD!!! Hebrews 12:2, "Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God." Unshakable faith comes from having our faith shaken!

John 11:25-26, "Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this?"

2.3.8 Salvation Is Not A Trial Basis, It Is A Free Gift (2021-03-08 09:30)

John 6:47, “Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.”

As computer users, we nearly all know the frustration of finding software advertised online for “free,” but then after downloading and installing it, we learn that it’s only free for a limited time, which is very deceptive! Usually such shady “free” offers end up being only on a trial basis for 14 days or a limited period, and then you either have to purchase the software or it won’t work fully or at all. If I had my way, such manipulative advertising would be against the law!

Oftentimes we hear banks advertise that if you open up a new account, they will give you a “free” gift. But if it were truly free, you wouldn’t have to do anything to get it! If you have to open up an account, then it is really a reward for opening a new account, and not a free gift at all. This is all deceptive advertising, and dishonest. The word “free” is perhaps the most misused, abused and misapplied word in the English language today.

The same goes for all the shady counterfeit plans of salvation being offered in many churches today. We often hear of these shady “free” offers for eternal life, that is said to be freely offered by God’s grace through faith; yet at the same time they falsely advertise that you must “turn from your sins” or “be willing to turn from your sins” (which is effectively the same thing), or “follow Christ” or “make Jesus your ’Lord”’ or “commit your life to God” or any number of things which are not part of the Gospel.

We are truly living in a time of universal deceit. It was prolific author George Orwell (1903-1950) who stated, “In times of universal deceit, telling the truth is a revolutionary act!” That is very true! May I say kindly, yet boldly with all Biblical confidence, that the offer of eternal life is not on a trial basis. It is not limited to see how well you perform, or whether your life changes for the better, nor whether you like it or not, nor anything else. Salvation is a free gift from God, which is simply received by childlike faith in the Good News (Gospel) of Jesus Christ crucified on the cross, buried and bodily risen the third day (1st Corinthians 15:1-6)!

Unlike a lot of dishonest companies and shady internet ads, God is totally upfront and honest in His offer of eternal life. There are no hidden clauses, no fine print, and no strings attached in God’s [1]terms of salvation . God’s gift of eternal life offered in the inspired King James Bible is not a free trial for 14 days! It is not shareware! It is not conditional upon you forsaking sin, living a holy life, amending your ways, or committing your life to God! It is a totally free gift, which you simply receive by faith in the Gospel!!!

When Jesus heard it, he saith unto them, They that are whole have no need of the physician, but they that are sick: I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.”

In Mark 2:17 there is no indication that repentance means to turn from sin. Acts 20:21 teaches "repentance toward God." Jesus said in Matthew 21:32, "For John came unto you in the way of righteousness, and ye believed him not: but the publicans and the harlots believed him: and ye, when ye had seen it, repented not afterward, that ye might believe him." As we clearly see here, the sinners who repented, did so, by believing on the only begotten Son of God. This is what John 20:31 teaches as well, "But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name." The Gospel of John was written specifically to show humanity the way of salvation. The Gospel of John never mentions the word "repent" even once, because the man who believes (which is mentioned 85 times) has also repented.

Here are some helpful resources explaining Biblical repentance:

All of those resources should prove very helpful my friend. It is important to understand that the English meaning of the word "repent" is NOT the same as the Biblical meaning of the word. Roman Catholics, Jehovah's Witnesses, Seventh-Day Adventists, Mormons and Lordship Salvationists all use the English meaning of "turning from sin." The Greek meaning is simple " a change of mind." The Gospel (Good News) is that Jesus died on the cross to pay for our sins. He was buried. Three days later He bodily resurrected from the dead by a miracle of God. That is all you have to believe to be saved. If you acknowledge your sinnership, receiving Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for those sins, you are eternally saved.

2nd Timothy 2:25-26, "In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth; And that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will." You see, repentance has nothing to do with making an effort to stop your sinning. No one can stop their sinning! You may clean up your life, making great improvements to your character, like a pig all cleaned up from wallowing in the mud, but you are still a dirty sinner. That pig is still a pig. At best we can strive as saints to walk in the Spirit Who lives inside us, but the flesh is still with us until we get to Heaven (Romans 7:14-25).

The Bible never says to "turn from your sins" and believe the Gospel. No, it says in Mark 1:15 to "Repent ye, and believe the Gospel." Repentance is a matter of acknowledging THE TRUTH (2nd Timothy 2:25) that one is a guilty sinner (Romans 3:19-20) and THE TRUTH of the Gospel. Salvation is a matter of embracing THE TRUTH, not of committing to improve one's character. I only emphasize those words "THE TRUTH" for emphasis, not to shout. The guilty sinner who earnestly "repents" has done so by putting his faith in the Lord Jesus Christ as his personal Savior. Nothing more is required to receive the gift of eternal life. You have God's Word on it. John 6:47,

"Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life."

2.3.10 Romans 2 Condemns The Lordship Salvation Crowd (2021-03-09 19:06)

Romans 1:1,

“Therefore thou art inexcusable, O man, whosoever thou art that judgest: for wherein thou judgest another, thou condemnest thyself; for thou that judgest doest the same things. ”

Many Bible students don’t understand this Bible verse, but it is very simple. You have to read the whole chapter, Romans chapter 2, to rightly divide this passage. The Jews were trying to earn their way to Heaven by keeping the Old Testament law. Paul is frustrated with them, trying to teach them here that they are hypocrites for even trying to turn from sin, because they cannot...

> Romans 2:21-24, “Thou therefore which teachest another, teachest thou not thyself? thou that preachest a man should not steal, dost thou steal? Thou that sayest a man should not commit adultery, dost thou commit adultery? thou that abhorrest idols, dost thou commit sacrilege? Thou that makest thy boast of the law, through breaking the law dishonourest thou God? For the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles through you, as it is written.”

Are you listening Marty Herron? Are you listening Gary Walton? Are you listening Charles Phelps? Are you listening Steve Pettit? Are you listening Bob Jones University crowd? You haven’t turned from your sins!!! What you’ve done to abuse me since 2014 is proof enough of that fact! I still don’t attend church because Pastor Herron threw me under a bus and left me for dead. So now Harvest Baptist Church of Guam is sinfully holding a grudge against me, because I loved them enough to tell THE TRUTH in 2014 to help them. Run you Bob Jones heathens with your umpteen Devil’s Bible revisions! Run Bob Jones crowd with your Devil’s lie of Lordship Salvation! I’ll side with Pastor Jack Hyles and the inspired and infallible King James Bible...

> Pastor Jack Hyles, a quote from the sermon:
> “ [1]The Battle Of The Ages ”

If you want to be close to God, whoever you may be, then you must humble yourself to THE TRUTH. Use only the King James Bible. Be pure of heart! You cannot draw close to God through corruptible seed. The [2]English Standard Version (ESV) is corruptible seed, which BJU uses, sells and promotes. Shame on Bob Jones University!!! God desires to be close to you friend, but you must first embrace the truth of the Gospel of free grace. We are saved by faith alone, without works of any sort (Romans 4:4-6). Your best human effort and goodness is filth to God (Isaiah 64:6). Marty Herron has never turned from his sins!!! And neither have I. And neither have you. Nor has anyone else. We are all either redeemed by the precious blood of Jesus, or else you are still wallowing in the Devil’s hogpen of sin. All Marty Herron has done is take his sins underground, living above reproach, but Marty is still a swinging dirty sinner!!!

Oh, what’s that, you want Scriptural support? You got it Chumley! 1st Timothy 5:24, “ Some men’s sins are open beforehand, going before to judgment; and some men they follow after.” We’ll see what Marty Herron’s Skelton Closet looks like in eternity, while he goes around hypocritically requiring everyone to turn from their sins to be saved. I cannot think of a worst crime against another human being, short of murdering them, then for a wicked selfish pastor like Gary Walton and Marty Herron to tell a hurting man like me that I am not allowed to attend Sunday church services. So I stay home on Sundays and watch The X-Files series and science fiction shows instead. Kindly, Fuddrucker them at Harvest! All I wanted was to quietly attend church services, but those religious cowards refused. What crappy pastors!

If I’m not right with God, then that is on Harvest’s shameful pastors and foolish congregation who support them, because I haven’t been allowed to attend church for 7 long years. My blood is on Marty Herron, Gary Walton and the entire Harvest Baptist Church of Guam. You guys define self-righteous hypocritical Pharisees!!! Romans 2:1 condemns you Harvest!

Romans 1:1,

"Therefore thou art inexcusable, O man, whosoever thou art that judgest: for wherein thou judgest another, thou condemnest thyself; for thou that judgest doest the same things. " What gives you the right to demand that other people "[3]turn from their sins" to be saved (i.e., keep the law), when your lives are full of sin too? That is exactly what the Apostle Paul is saying in Romans 2:1. YOU BOB JONES RELIGIOUS HYPOCRITES!!! The whole idea of turning away from one's sins to be saved is flawed from beginning to end.

The Lordship Salvation crowd go around telling everyone to "[4]repent and turn away from your sin to be saved," but the Bible says in Romans chapter 2 that they are hypocrites. NO ONE has ever turned away from their sin. No one tries to live as upright as Muslims, yet they are all hellbound without Jesus Christ. If forsaking a lifestyle of sin brings salvation, then Judas should have been saved (Matthew 27:3). Judas even returned the 30 pieces of silver, knowing that he and the Pharisees had betrayed innocent blood. The Pharisees couldn't have cared less, just like the Bob Jones crowd today have betrayed innocent blood and couldn't care less.

The truth means nothing to the Bob Jones social club. The accuracy of the Gospel means nothing to Harvest. The purity of the Holy Bible means nothing to Marty Herron. Gary Walton couldn't care less, while he spends the church's blood money at Home Depot. And I certainly mean nothing to any of them! Where dwelleth the love of God? (Romans 14:10). The Bob Jones crowd have no compassion, they're just a bunch of parasitical educators trained by academics, sucking a salary while the getting is good. God will have the ultimate say in all this, and their heads will roll (Romans 3:4).

Judas was a reformed man, he turned from his sins (Matthew 27:3), but he went to Hell forever. The Bible says Judas had a devil in him (John 6:70). Judas was one of Christ's very apostles, as close in a relationship as two people can become, yet they were light years apart. My point is that you can go to church every Sunday like Marty Herron and Gary Walton, and go through all the motions, even thinking you are close to God; and yet be so far away from God that Christ Himself will one day say the horrifying words to you: **"

I NEVER KNEW YOU

" (Matthew 7:21-23). These people in Matthew 7:21-23 did many wonderful works and preached in Jesus' name. Yet Jesus denied knowing them. They failed to wholly rest in Christ, Who died as a sacrifice for our sins on the cross (John 6:40). Only those who completely REST in the name of Jesus will go to Heaven, and no one else!!!

The very idea that a person must forsake sinful living to be saved is rooted in self-righteousness. Pastor Herron, Gary Walton, Steve Pettit and Charles Phelps are looking inside themselves for righteousness, instead of wholly leaning on Jesus' name. You DON'T have to turn from anything to be saved except whatever has been hindering you from believing, which is UNBELIEF. To require a man to forsake his immoral behavior as a requirement to receive God's free gift of eternal life is to damn his soul to Hell forever. If you have turned from your sins to be saved, you might as well drive over a steep cliff at Glacier National Park in Montana to your death and go straight to Hell, because that is where you are headed friend.

Please understand that I do not write these articles to attack anyone, but to earnestly contend (fight) for the Christian faith (Titus 1:10-11; Ephesians 5:11; Jude 1:3). When men hurt me, deny me the opportunity to attend church, hinder me from finding a wife, and drive me away from my church family as an unwanted pest simply because I told THE TRUTH to help them, then I am most definitely going to preach against their wickedness! Something is wrong with Pastor Gary Walton. Something is wrong with the people at Harvest Baptist Church of Guam, [5]when they permit Seventh-Day Adventist beliefs into their church. The truth matters folks, it really does! God desires to be close to you, but it must be on the basis of THE TRUTH. John 4:24, " God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth.

2.3.11 How To Win A Soul To Jesus (2021-03-10 09:30)

Proverbs 11:30, “The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life; and he that winneth souls is wise.” Mark 16:15, “

And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature.

This tremendous soulwinning lesson is by Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001). This helpful information is taken from chapter 4 of Dr. Hyle’s excellent book, “ [1]How to Boost Your Church Attendance. ”

> The purpose of this chapter is not to deal with witnessing in public, but it primarily concerns the winning of souls to Christ in the home. It deals with the proper approach and some practical pointers to help one be a more effective soul winner. I have tried to put these principles into practice for a number of years, and God has blessed them with the salvation of literally hundreds of souls being won to Him in homes. May God use them to bless you and make you a winner of souls for Christ.
>
> Last year alone over three hundred of our people won someone to Christ. Each of them was instructed through the following method, which is simple and easy enough for anyone to understand.
> 1. Be Clean and Neat. If a person is going to be a soul winner he must not be offensive to the people with whom he talks. It is a definite asset for a soul winner to be careful to bathe often, to avoid body odor. Teeth should be brushed, and the breath should be tested. Carry mints in your pockets or some good flavored chewing gum which will help keep the breath from being offensive. One of the most damaging things in soul winning is the effect of halitosis. By all means, a soul winner should watch this carefully. The soul winner should also be neatly dressed. A lady should be dressed conservatively, and I think it is best for a man to at least wear a shirt with a tie
> 2. Carry a Testament with You All the Time. One of the most effective methods that we have used is the carrying of two Testaments-one for you to read as you seek to win the person, and one for the unsaved person to read, or follow as you read. After he has given his heart to Jesus, then you may present him with the Testament that he has read from as a gift.
> Testaments which are adequate for this type of work may be bought at most bookstores for about twenty-five cents each. It is our suggestion that a Testament is better to use than a Bible because it does not "give you away." As you get out of your car to walk to a house, a person might possibly see you carrying a Bible and immediately think that you are representing some cult or some false "ism" and build a mental barrier against you. Hence, it is usually better to carry a Testament in your pocket.

3. Be Soul Conscious. By this I simply mean to be aware everywhere you go that the people to whom you talk are going to spend eternity somewhere . . . the man who cuts your hair, the boy who shines your shoes, the man who fills your car with gas, the bread man, the milk man, the grocery man, the clerk at the drugstore, and the saleslady at the clothing store are all going to spend eternity somewhere. Make it a habit to ask people if they are Christians. This will be a blessing to you, and will give you a chance to witness to them. It is good to carry gospel tracts with you at all times in order that you may present one to a person who is not a Christian, that he may read it after you leave. This is effective to use when witnessing to people at work, who cannot stop their work for you to give them the plan of salvation.

Recently one of our soul winners was getting a shoe shine. Just before he asked the colored shine boy if he were a Christian, the shine boy looked up and asked the man if he were a Christian. Our church member responded with an affirmative answer, "Yes, you must be a Christian, too."

The colored boy replied, "Yes, sir, one of those Miller Road Baptist members won me to Jesus the other day while I was shining his shoes."

4. Go Two by Two. This is important! There are several reasons why God sent His disciples out in pairs, and certainly we should follow His example. Also, there is strength in numbers, and with another Christian present as a prayer warrior the soul winner is encouraged. However, the most important reasons that another person should go with you, apart from Scriptural reason, are to pave the way for absolute quietness, and to avoid any unnecessary disturbances while the soul winner is talking to the unsaved person. Such things as caring for the children, changing the baby, answering the door, turning the radio or television off can certainly be of value in the winning of souls to Christ.

5. Go with Different People. Many people think it is wise to team up with the same soul winning partner all of the time. However, this discourages the making of new soul winners. It seems advisable for a person who is an active soul winner to take a different person with him periodically so that the new visitor might actually see the winning of a soul. This is better than any study course a Christian can take.

6. Pray and Claim the Spirit Fullness before Going.

Before you go to the field you need to spend a few moments in prayer, simply asking God to bless you and to help you be a blessing to others. Also, claim His Spirit fullness by faith, asking Him to bless you as you go, and to prepare the hearts of those to whom you will talk.

7. Go Believing. The thing that transformed my soul winning life more than anything else was this one thing! Many times I would go to the fields to witness for Christ, not expecting to win anyone. When and if someone was converted I would actually be subconsciously surprised. However, it dawned on me one day that God wants to save people, and that as God was sending me out, He would save people. So, rather than going out defeated, an effort was made to go expecting to see someone saved. The increase that God gave to this attitude of faith was amazing.

8. Be Nice. Remember that the person to whom you are talking did not ask you to come. You are a guest in his home, and many times, an unwanted guest. A soul winner in a home cannot use the same frankness that the preacher can in the pulpit. It is necessary that a soul winner be nice and courteous, kind and understanding, as he goes into someone's home to talk to him about the Lord.

9. Be Careful about Going In. If a person is busy and obviously does not want to be disturbed, many times it is wise to tell him that you will not come in at this particular time, and suggest that you make an appointment for a later date when you may come back and talk to him about the Lord. This has proven effective in many cases.

10. Be Complimentary. As you enter someone's home, it is always good to be complimentary. If the children are sweet, tell them so. If the home is lovely mention it. It is good to be complimentary.

11. Let the One You are Visiting Talk of His Interests for a While. Ask him about his work, about the family, about his home town, and things of that nature. He will enjoy talking with you and speaking of his interests. One of the best points that a person can use is to be a good listener.

12. Have Only One Person Do the Talking. As you seek to win the person to Christ, let only one soul winner do the talking. Do not interrupt with your "two cents." You keep the road clear and keep the way paved for their privacy and pray! Do not pray with your eyes closed, however, as you may miss a chance to be of help by giving a child a drink, answering the door, or other things which might cause the lost person not to be free to listen carefully to the soul winner.

13. Stay on the Subject. Many times as you try to win a person he will ask questions that are irrelevant to salvation. When such a question is asked, it is usually good to say, "That is a good question. Remind me in a moment and I will answer that." Then, continue talking about the plan of salvation. Do not let yourself be sidetracked on less important issues.

14. Stay in the Same Book of the Bible. It seems that it would be confusing to a sinner for a soul winner to go all over the Bible in trying to explain his point. With isolated verses taken from all over the Scriptures anything can be proved; however, when a person stays in the same book of the Bible, near the same pages, the lost person can readily see that you are not trying to confuse him by taking isolated verses to prove your point. A good book to use is John, another one is Isaiah; however, I have found the most effective book to be Romans.

15. Draw a Map in Your Testament. Many people are young Christians and do not have the Scriptures memorized, nor can they find the ones that they must use to deal with the plan of salvation. To aid in this, a plan has been devised of drawing a map in the Bible or Testament one is using. For example, start with Romans 3:10. Then, beside Romans 3:10, write Romans 3:23, the next verse you will turn to. After you have explained Romans 3:23, have written beside this verse Romans 5:12, which shows you where to go from there. Then, Romans 6:23, Romans 5:8, and finally Romans 10:9-11.

The lost person will not necessarily see what you have written in your Bible, as he will be looking on from the other Testament which you have handed him to use. This way you can direct yourself to the next Scripture, even though you may not know a single Scripture by heart, or do not know where to find the Scriptures pertaining to the plan of salvation.

16. Three Basic Questions Should Be Asked in the Conversation. First ask, "Are you a Christian?" Second, "Would you like to be a Christian?" Third, "If I were to show you in the Bible how to be a Christian, would you be willing to do what God says?"

The first of these three questions has often been disputed. Some prefer to ask "Are you saved?", or, "Are you born again?", or, "Do you know Jesus?" However, the simple question, "Are you a Christian?" might lead to asking other questions. The way the person answers your question would determine whether or not you should inquire further as to the sincerity of his profession. Then, if he wants to be a Christian, you may proceed. Remember this-it is God's business to prepare a soul. You cannot argue anyone into being a Christian. He must be ready; if he is not ready, you cannot argue him into it. Then, if he commits himself by saying he would be saved if he knew how, you have a definite committal that he will respond. If he says he will, then proceed immediately to show him the aforementioned Scriptures.

Following is the structure of the conversation that I have found helpful in dealing with most unsaved people with whom I talk:

Soul winner: "First, Mr. Blank, if a person is going to be saved, he needs to be saved from something. Let me show you why a person needs to be saved. Notice in Romans 3:10, 'As it is written, There is none righteous, no, not one.' The word righteous means good; hence, there is none good, no, not one. If there is not one good-then I am not good. Is that right? If there is not one good, then you are not good. Is that right? Now, let us turn to Romans 3:23, 'For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God.' If all have sinned, then that means that I have sinned. If all have sinned, that means you have sinned. So, you see that all of the people in the world are sinners. There is none that doeth good. We are all gone out of the way; we are together become unprofitable, and we have all sinned and come short of the glory of God.

"Now, Mr. Blank, may I show you where the sin came from? Notice in Romans 5:12, 'Wherefore, as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned.' You recall that one man brought sin into all the world. You will also remember that this man was Adam in the garden of Eden. God made Adam and Eve. He put them in the garden. He told them that they could eat of every tree in the garden but one, and if and when they ate of that tree, they would die. Do your remember, Mr. Blank, whether or not they ate of that tree?"

Mr. Blank: "Yes, they did."

Soul Winner: "Yes, they did. When they did, they were separated from God. They died spiritually, and they became sinners. So, when they had children, their children were sinners, and their children were sinners, and their children were sinners-until finally, Mr. Blank, one day you were born, and the Bible says that you were born in sin. Though you were not accountable for it until you realized that you were a sinner, you were born going away from God. Mr. Blank, you are still going away from God; hence, you are a child of Adam.

"Now, would you look at and read Romans 6:23, 'For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord'?

"Mr. Blank, God, in order to be a just God, must make us pay for our sins. God has said that you will not get by with sin-so, God must make us pay for sin. The price on sin is death. This death is a spiritual death which culminates in the second death, mentioned in Revelation 21:8 and Revelation 20:14, which is the Lake of Fire. Therefore, the ultimate price that man must pay for his sins is to suffer in the Lake of Fire-or to go to hell. That means, Mr. Blank, according to your own statement that you are not a Christian, and according to the Word of God, if you died today you would go to hell. Is that right?"

Mr. Blank: "Yes."

Soul Winner: "Mr. Blank, I am happy to tell you that God does not want you to go to hell. God loves you as you love your children. Just as you would make a way to save any wayward children of yours, even so God has made a plan to save you. Here is His plan. Please read Romans 5:8, 'But God commendeth his love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.' Mr. Blank, God looked down and saw that you were a sinner, and saw that you were going to hell. He did not want you to go to hell, so He came to earth in the form of a Man. His name was Jesus Christ. For thirty-three years He lived upon the earth-not once did He sin. Mr. Blank, if Jesus had sinned once, and the price of sin finally is the Lake of Fire, where would Jesus have had to go when He died?"

Mr. Blank: "To the Lake of Fire."

Soul Winner: "Exactly so. But He did not sin, did He?"

Mr. Blank: "No."

Soul Winner: "He was perfect. Not once did He have an evil thought, not once did He say a nasty word, not once did He drink a bottle of beer, not once did He do anything that was contrary to His Father's will. But Mr. Blank, on the Cross of Calvary Jesus Christ suffered spiritual separation from God, or the same thing that the sinner must suffer in hell. If He was not suffering it for His own sins, then He must have been suffering for someone else's sins. Do you have any idea for whom He was suffering?"

Mr. Blank: "He was suffering for you and me."

Soul Winner: "Exactly so. Now, if He was suffering for you and me, He was paying our debt. Is that right?"

Mr. Blank: "Yes."

Soul Winner: "Mr. Blank, if I went to the bank today, and paid off all of your debts at the bank, they would send a representative out to tell you about my payment. You would have one of two choices. You could say, 'No, I will not accept his payment; I will pay my own debts.' If that were your answer, even though I had paid the price, you would still be in debt. However, on the other hand, you could say, 'Of course, I will accept payment. I will receive the gift that Mr. Soul Winner gave me.' That moment, Mr. Blank, you would be free of debt. That moment the bank would wipe your debts completely clean. Now, Mr. Blank, you are in debt to God. You have sinned. Your record is in heaven. Jesus Christ went to the bank of heaven, as it were, and paid the full payment for all of your debts. He has paid for all of your sins. He sent me as His representative today to tell you about this. You can say one of two things: You can say, 'No, I will pay my own debts. I will go to hell for myself.' Or, you can say, 'Of course, I will accept a Saviour like that. I will accept His gift of eternal life, and receive Him as my Saviour.' That moment, Mr. Blank, you become a child of God, by receiving Christ as a Substitute for your sin, and taking Him in your heart as your Saviour.

"Now, Mr. Blank, let us sum up what we have said. Do you realize that you are a sinner?"

Mr. Blank: "Yes."

Soul Winner: "Do you realize that if you died today you would go to hell?" Mr. Blank: "Yes." Soul Winner: "Do you realize that Jesus died in your place, and suffered spiritual separation from God in your place?"

Mr. Blank: "Yes."

Soul Winner: "Do you realize that if you were to bow here, and seek God's forgiveness and take Christ as your Saviour today, by faith, God would make you His child?" Mr. Blank: "Yes."

Soul Winner: "Then, Mr. Blank, could we just bow our heads and hearts in prayer, and let me pray for you? While I pray you can consider giving your heart to the Lord Jesus. Shall we kneel?"

(Turn to Romans 10:13-read it to him and have him put his hand on that Scripture. You pray. Pray sincerely, simply and briefly. As you conclude your prayer, do not say "Amen.")

Soul Winner: "With our heads bowed, Mr. Blank, wouldn't you like to ask God to forgive your sins right now? Tell Him that you are sorry for your sins, tell Him you want to receive Christ as your Saviour now. Will you do it?" (Mr. Blank may pray a simple prayer. If not, you might ask him to pray after you sincerely.)

Soul Winner: "Mr. Blank, if you are willing now, the best you know how, to turn from sin, and give your heart to Christ in faith, would you please take my hand as if it were the hand of Jesus as a token thereof?" (Mr. Blank takes the soul winner's hand. The soul winner, while holding the convert's hand, should offer a prayer of thanksgiving to God for saving him.)

Soul Winner: "God bless you, Mr. Blank. Now, let me ask you a question. If the Bible is true-where would you go if you died now?"

Mr. Blank: "I would go to heaven."

Soul Winner: "Isn't that wonderful? Isn't God good to give eternal life to those who will receive him by faith?"

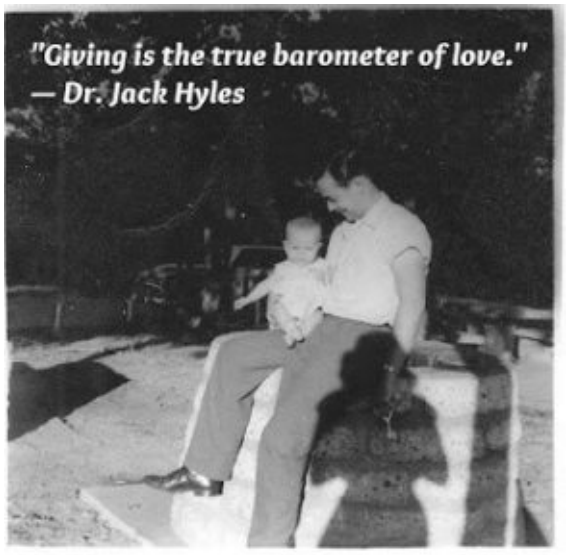
17. Lead Him to a Profession. After the person has been converted, ask him to promise to come to church the next possible service, and walk the aisle and let the pastor tell the people that he has been saved. It seems unwise to ask him to be baptized until he has made his profession. Then, at the altar, when he is making his profession, or later, the minister can speak with him about baptism.

18. Go by and Get the Convert the Next Sunday. It is an unusual experience for many new converts to come to church. Many of them have not been to church for months, or years. It would be much easier for them to come if you will offer to go by and bring them with you.

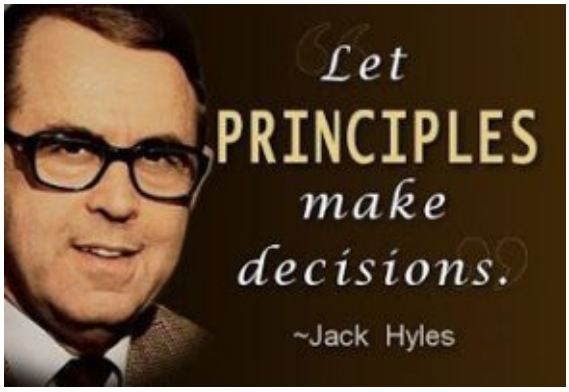
19. Sit with the Convert in the Service.

20. At the Close of the Service Offer to Go Down the Aisle with Him.

21. After He Has Made His Profession, United with the Church and Been Baptized, He is Still Your Child. Continue to watch over him, and help him. Ask him over to your house for refreshments. Fellowship with him, and make him feel at home in the service of the Lord.



22. Appoint a Committee to Go by and See the New Converts, as Well as the New Church Members. The week after they join the church, it is good to have a committee to go by and see the new converts and new members.



This group may carry a certificate of baptism, a copy of the church budget, a copy of some book advising young Christians how to grow in grace, any books written by the pastor, etc. These will be helpful and appreciated by the new converts and new church members.

23. Use the "Buddy" System. After the Sunday services each week, call someone who lives near the new convert and "assign" him the new convert. It is good for him to have the new convert over for refreshments, to make a visit into his home, and perhaps have his family over for a meal to try to get him acquainted with some of the church members.

This person's job also would be to help integrate the convert into the church program, and introduce him to as many people as possible.

2.3.12 Can You Look In The Mirror Knowing You Did Right? (2021-03-11 09:30)

Proverbs 27:19, "As in water face answereth to face, so the heart of man to man."

Live so as you can answer to yourself! That is what our text passage means. When you look at your face in a calm body of water, you can see your reflection. Likewise, when we look into our own heart, we know what we really are. You can fool everybody else, but you cannot escape what you know about yourself. Romans 14:22, " Hast thou faith? have it to thyself before God. Happy is he that condemneth not himself in that thing which he alloweth. " When you live in such a way that you can go to bed at night, and KNOW that you did the right thing, that is a great feeling.

If in your heart you know you are doing right, that is all you need to answer to. When you look in the mirror, you know what kind of person you are. Can you look yourself square in the eye and know that you did what was right?

Proverbs 28:1, "

The wicked flee when no man pursueth: but the righteous are bold as a lion.

" When we do the right thing, we can have the boldness of a lion. There is no worse feeling than knowing that you did something wrong, and you are guilty, even if everyone believes you are innocent. And contrawise, even if everyone thinks you are guilty, there is no better feeling than to know in your heart of hearts that you are innocent.

Proverbs 15:3, "

The eyes of the LORD are in every place, beholding the evil and the good.

God is omnipresent, He sees all. Hebrews 4:13,

Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do.

Dear reader, I don't care who you are, God sees everywhere you go and all that you do, Ecclesiastes 12:13-14,

"Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man. For God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil." Nothing escapes the eyes of God. Judgment day is coming for every human being (Hebrews 9:27). We have a sin problem in America!

There is no greater reward than to be able to look yourself in the mirror, and know that you did what was right. If nobody knows you've sinned, you still know it! The ultimate of compliment is not when other people say nice things about you, but when you can look in the mirror and KNOW that you did what was right. You know what you think, others don't. You know the motives of your heart. We live in a world that is so perverted concerning what right is. In the final analysis you've got to answer to yourself. The doing of right is it's own reward!!!

We should value character more than personality. Talent seeks attention; wisdom pays attention. Americans have a perverted way of judging people. We look at their personality and judge them on that basis. Some of the most ungodly people in this world are very cordial, kind and sweet. The Devil is always smiling! The Bible says Satan appears as "an angel of light" (2nd Corinthians 11:14). The sad truth is that we'll vote for a friendly smiling crook before we'll vote for unfriendly man of character, honesty and decency. The Bible says a good person is one who has character. We ought to judge people based upon their character, not merely their charm and personality.

A Christian man recently wrote to me and said that he has a problem with looking at dirty naked pictures of women, indecency and smut. He said that he is "addicted" to internet filth and asked me what to do. Humbly, here is part of my response:

> ...Concerning addictions. Kindly, what you call an "addiction" is really a lack of character. 2nd Timothy 2:19, "Nevertheless the foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity." God does not command us to do anything impossible. If I choose to commit ANY sin, it is a lack of character. An addiction is simply a lack of character which has been permitted to get out of control. All addictions begin with a lack of character to do the right thing, and it gets worse. You can do right if you want to. Get rid of your computer if it is causing you to stumble. Jesus said to cut your hand off if it offends you, or pluck out your eye. He simply meant that the Bible is serious business, and people should take it as such. I am as much a struggling sinner as the next guy, so I am not condemning you, God forbid. We all lack character in some areas, otherwise we would be sinless and perfect, but only Jesus is sinless and perfect. 2nd Corinthians 10:5-6, "Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ; And having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled."

The way to stop lying is to tell the truth. The way to stop lusting is to respect the sacredness of marriage. The way to stop aborting children is to value the sanctity of life. I preach to myself first and foremost. We all lack character in some areas, otherwise we would be sinless and perfect, and only the Lamb of God is sinless and perfect.

Hebrews 4:15,

For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin.

" Something that is woefully lacking in churches today is preaching against sin! That is [2]why we see no revivals in churches today. If we want to have revival, we've got to get the sin out!

2.3.13 Pastor Kim Clement Is A Demonic False Teacher (2021-03-12 09:30)

2nd Peter 2:1, “But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction.” 1st John 4:1, “Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world.”

We have always had false prophets among us. Largely this is because of the love of money, which the Bible identifies as the root of all evil (1st Timothy 6:10). According to a quick Google search, Pastor Kim Clement has a net worth of $18,000,000. I tried to find out what Clement believes theologically, but it doesn’t appear that he believes much of anything Biblically.

The Holy Bible plainly teaches that God only speaks today through His Son, Who is the Word of God (Revelation 19:13; John 1:1-3, 14). Hebrews 1:1-2, "God, who at sundry times and in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets, Hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds;" God does not speak through men, but through the Word of God. In John 5:39a Jesus told us to "Search the Scriptures."

Pastor Kim Clement rightly prophesied that Donald Trump would win the 2016 election. But that was a no brainer! President Barack Obama had already served TWO-TERMS in office. A Democrat hasn’t follow a two-term Democrat U.S. President since 1836. I also predicted that Mr. Trump would win in 2016. Anybody could have guessed that! Clement is just another false teacher, financially preying upon the gullible and naïve. Kim’s net worth was $18,000,000 at the time of his death in 2016. Kim was not a man of God, but a shyster.

[1]In this YouTube video (at 12:20 time), Pastor Kim Clement quoted his alleged prophecy as if it were the Word of God, but it’s not! Kim speaks of a "praying president," which term is not even found in the Bible. I couldn’t even find that phrase in any Bible version. Kim is just making stuff up! Those are Kim’s words, not God speaking through him. Please don’t be deceived by this spiritual con artist. Sadly, as mentioned, Kim Clement died in 2016 from long-term health problems at only age 60. It is clear to me that Clement wasn’t a Christian believer.

I am always amazed how the masses of people in the world will believe anyone except the Bible itself. John 5:43, "I am come in my Father’s name, and ye receive me not: if another shall come in his own name, him ye will receive."

2.3.14 Most People Think All Wrong How To Lose Weight (2021-03-13 20:56)

1st Corinthians 9:27, “

But I keep under my body, and bring it into subjection: lest that by any means, when I have preached to others, I myself should be a castaway.

Like most Americans I have struggled with my weight as I’ve grown older. When I was 18 years old I weighed 148 pounds. I had been lifting weights and drinking Creatine to bulk up my muscles. I stopped working out and taking Creatine when I went off to Bible college. So one year later at age 19 I weighed only 138 pounds. Wow, I miss being that weight!

As the decades passed I started gaining weight without even realizing it. That is how weight gain usually happens, quietly and behind the scenes, as we enjoy life. In 2010, I weighed 225 pounds! Yuk! I went on a crash diet (fast) in December of 2010 and by February 2011 I weighed only 168 pounds. But I gained it all back over the next 6 months, giving up on trying to lose weight. All you have to do to gain weight is stop trying not to keep it off!

In 2015 I learned that I was stage 4 diabetic, when I had an infected gallbladder removed. My A1C sugar level was 9.8 %. Ouch! My quack diabetes doctor has me on Metformin, which was totally worthless. He tried to get me to take Actus, but when I read it was banned on other countries, and the deadly side effects, I tossed it into the trash where it belongs. Then my quack doctor has me on insulin shots. I was injecting myself in the stomach with 40 units per day! My left foot started going numb, but only after starting the injections. My quack doctor couldn't explain why. I fired him! I say "quack" because he was trying to fix me with drugs. Friend, you cannot cut, burn and poison the body back to good health.

So on February 21, 2017 I had had enough! I was 215 pounds. My big belly looked like I was pregnant. I got mad at myself and went on a crash diet (fast), losing 15 pounds per month. It was easy because I wanted it so bad!!! By June 15th 2017 I weighed 146.3, and on June 25th 2017 I weighed 145.0 pounds! I lost 70 pounds in just 4 months! I was so happy and felt great!!! I did it without gimmicks. I did it without any damn prescription drugs. I did it without anything except drastically cutting my calorie intake, and walking off what I did eat each day. I aimed for 300 calories per day, and went walking briskly 3 times for 45 minutes each day. Sometimes I failed and ate 500 calories. But it's better to shoot low and hit middle, than to aim middle and hit high! To be honest, I was in love with a Christian woman in a local church, a nurse at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. She was so skinny and healthy, and I was so fat and unhealthy. I was embarrassed and decided to take control of my health.

I have learned so much about losing weight. I don't claim to be an expert, but I CAN help you lose weight dear reader if you are obese. I will tell you how in a moment. I haven't even started to share the main point of this article with you yet, I am still building up to it. Let me say that anyone can lose weight if they starve them self as I did. Quite frankly, I did it ALL WRONG! Over 95 % of the advice you'll find online about how to lose weight is worthless and backwards! For example: You'll read a lot of advice about how to overcome hunger pains by drinking tons of water, gargling with mouth wash, staying busy to take your mind off of food, chewing gum, drinking a Tablespoon or two daily of apple cider vinegar diluted in water, adding cayenne pepper to your food, eating lemons, et cetera. This is all inferior advice. There is some truth to gargling with mouth wash. That fresh minty feeling in your mouth does help to curb cravings a bit. Drinking more water is helpful. Using apple cider vinegar has not been shown in studies to be effective. There is debate about chewing gum to deter cravings. My point is that these are all THE WRONG approach to losing weight.

I actually lost 70 pounds in just 4 months in 2017, motivated by my love for a woman (who rejected me and didn't want me. I am still heartbroken. Such is life. The guy doesn't always get the girl, like Alan Jackson sings in his song: "Here In The Real World"). Her name was Kris and I still love her, but she didn't want a good guy. I think we all know the pain of rejection, but that is another story for another time. I managed to keep the weight off for over a year. I simply was mentally tough on myself, using intermittent fasting daily between enjoyable meals, starving myself from meal to meal. I was miserable. That is THE WRONG way to maintain your weight. In hindsight, I did it ALL WRONG. I was suckered by all the bad dieting advice online, which is why 95 % of people FAIL at losing weight. We all know someone (likely several people) who have lost a significant amount of weight, but then gained it all back within a few months or years. That is because they did it ALL WRONG!

Here Is THE RIGHT WAY To Lose Weight And Keep It Off

When I lost 70 pounds in 2017, I didn't know what I was doing. As I said, 95 % of all the information I found on the internet was interior, bad, worthless, wrong and even damaging. Consequently, by 2019 I had gained nearly all my weight back. I was depressed that I couldn't find a girlfriend in 2018 and was tired of fighting to starve myself between meals to keep my weight off. At 150 pounds I was only allowed about 1,500 calories per day to maintain my weight. Eating even an extra few hundred calories a day amounted to one pound of weight gain each week. In just one year I gained 50 pounds back!!! I didn't pig out and have a defiant or reckless attitude toward eating, I just stopped fighting to keep the weight off.

Then in 2021, I started watching YouTube video of a different sort. Instead of losing weight, I wanted to learn how to get a 6-pack of abs. I had been watching music videos and really admired Phil Collen's physique (a guitar player for Def Leppard). Phil is 63 years old, born in 1957 in London. I was born in Chicago in 1967. We're both 5' 7" tall. So we have the same body frame. I love playing guitar and any stringed instrument, so I took an interest. I watched hundreds of YouTube videos by Jeff Cavaliere, Jeff Nippard, Will Tennyson, Paul Revelia and others about RECOMPOSITION (building lean muscle and losing fat). I was fascinated by the things I learned. Due to my neck injury I cannot build a bunch of muscle like Jeff Nippard, nor do I want to at age 54. I just want to be as healthy as I can be despite my chronic neck pain, and look good with my shirt off. Phil Collen is a good role model for me in that respect. This is helpful advice that helped me take better care of myself. Phil is a vegan (he doesn't even use eggs, milk or other animal products). I am not a vegan or vegetarian, but I am eating 75 % a vegetarian diet lately...

Phil Collen of Def Leppard Shares How He Stays Ripped

Also, the following video is tremendous. Dozens of Hollywood actors were interviewed, asked how they got ripped to play their leading roles in blockbuster movies. You may not want to find your abs or get ripped, but the principles are the same for general good health...

Hollywood Actors Share Advice On Exercise And Diet

I think TOTALLY different today in 2021 than I did back in 2017 when I lost 70 pounds in just 4 months. My thinking was ALL WRONG in 2017, which is why I gained nearly all my weight back. Okay, let me make it play now. I am eating a HIGH PROTEIN diet now in 2021 and I'm consistently losing at least one pound per week. But I doing it in a way that you won't believe... I EAT EVERY 3 HOURS! You read right, I eat food every 3 hours (specifically protein). Watch the preceding video and you will be amazed. Now, some of the actors express their frustration during the recomposition period (usually 6 months to a year). In my case, since I gained back 50 pounds, getting to 208 pounds, it will take me much longer. I am at 187.6 right now. I am so happy with the new knowledge I have learned, and my progress. I am doing everything very differently than I did in 2017. Here are some changes:

1. My goal is not to diet. The very word "diet" is bad, because it implies doing something temporarily to lose weight. But when people stop their diet, they go back to their old bad habits and gain all their weight back. I am not dieting, I am eating nutritiously. So my goal is NUTRITION, not DIET.
2. I am lifting weight this time. I can't do some exercises because of my neck pain. I cannot go as heavy as I did when I was younger, because of my neck injury. But I don't need to lift a bunch of heavy weights to build lean muscle, I just need some resistance for my muscles. I just use the weights to work the muscles, just enough to stimulate them to need protein. Here is a helpful article from Men's Health on '[1]5 Ways To Build Muscle Without Heavy Weights.' That is what I do, which is perfect for a guy like me with an old injury that limits me.

3. I eat every 3 hours, versus starving myself all day back in 2017. In 2017 I lost most of my muscle when I lost 70 pounds. I wimped out! My shoulders were dropped. My doctor even suggested that I lift some weights to retain muscle mass, but I didn't do it. This time I am taking my doctor's advice.

4. In 2017 I often forced myself to go walking, pushing myself when I was in neck pain. That wasn't a sustainable way for me to live. I knew if I didn't go walking, I'd go stir crazy in hunger at home and eat 99 % of the time. So walking was my way of avoiding eating. I was torturing myself! This is how most people lose weight, which is also why they ultimately fail and gain it all back, because it wasn't a sustainable way to live by being miserable, pushing yourself when in pain and tired, and starving between meals. I did it ALL WRONG. Now I am eating something every 3 hours, and it is very nutritious food, and I am losing weight slowly but surely. I am having fun in 2021, eating, feeling full and losing weight. This time I am doing it ALL RIGHT.

5. My goal is NOT to lose weight this time; but rather, to eat healthy and let my body adjust to its proper weight. Since I am lifting some light weights a couple times a week (or as my health allows) I don't know what my optimal weight will be, because lean muscle weighs a lot more than fatty muscle. My goal is to lose fat, not weight. I saw a YouTube video of an obese woman that got super skinny over a couple years of working out in the gym, and eating a high protein diet, and she actually weighed 2 pounds more now than than, but she was a lot skinnier. She recomposition. That is my goal, as my neck injury allows. I've been taking it easy, but I'm losing weight without torturing myself this time.

6. I try to eat 150 to 240 grams per day of protein. The higher the better from all that I have learned from YouTube. I am over 50, so I need more protein to preserve muscle. The older we get, the harder it is to build muscle. I also take HMG (just type that on Google and it will come up right away). HMG is a much researched supplement that preserves and protects muscle. I take the recommended 4,000 mg per day. I get mine from Vitamin World. I also take 5 grams daily of Creatine, another well researched supplement which is great for overall health and muscles. I use Whey Protein Isolate shakes each day to help me get my needed protein intake. I mix the Creatine and Protein powder with almond milk, egg whites (it comes in a carton and tastes like water) in my shakes. They taste great! I prefer vanilla protein powder. Each scoop has 130 calories and 30 grams of protein. I eat 2 or 3 each day.

7. I eat a well balanced meal daily. I am for about 200 grams of protein, 40 grams of fat, 40 grams of fiber (women should get at least 25 grams of fiber), 50 to 150 grams of carbohydrates, as little sugar as possible. I love beans! I buy several different bags of different dry beans, mix them in a big plastic sealable container. When I make beans I measure 1/2 cup, soak them in water for 12 hours, and them replace the water. This reduces gas by 90 %. I cook them in a small pot on the lowest flame, filled an inch from the top with fresh water. I cook them for 50 minutes, add my spices, and then cook them for 30 more minutes. I leave the lid on for the entire 1 1/2 hours. I add a tsp of cumin, cayenne pepper, 1/2 tsp of black pepper, a bundle of green onions, 4 diced cloves of garlic, 1 heaping tsp of bullion paste, and whatever else you like. I often add a small can of tomato sauce. I buy bags of boneless and skinless chicken thigs. I cook them all at once on Sunday, baked at 350 degrees for 30 minutes. I store them in the frig and eat them during the week, dipping the chicken in the bean sauce. I eat them as a meal. Beans contain a lot of fiber and protein. Beef has no fiber. Only 5 % of Americans eat the RDA (recommended daily amount) of fiber. In 2017 I starved myself basically, denying my body many of the nutrients I needed. I did take a multi-vitamin. I was healthier than ever in 2017 after losing 70 pounds, but because I wasn't eating right, and hardly eating, I failed to keep the weight off. I was woefully ignorant of the things I know now.

I no longer need to take walks because I am going stir crazy to avoid eating, because I am eating something throughout the day. it is VERY important that I don't go over my calorie LIMIT for the day, which presently is 1,500 calories. Each person is different, so the number of calories you need in a day will be different than me. But basically, men burn 2,200 calories a day and women 1,800. It depends on your lifestyle, weight, genetics, et cetera. To find your maintenance calories, simply track your calorie intake for a week. Maintenance calories is the amount of calories you need to eat daily to maintain your present weight. Mine is about 2,000 a day. So I aim for 1,500 to create a caloric deficit. It will be harder to accomplish that eating pizza, junk food, donuts, burgers and fries, tacos, Doritos, et cetera. It is okay to eat those foods once in a while, but they tend to make you HUNGRIER because they spike your insulin, all being very high in carbohydrates. It's best to get your good carbs from broccoli and other veggies, and avoid the processed foods that are so tasty.

The bottom line is that you need to experiment and find out WHAT WORKS BEST FOR YOU! If you can eat meatball sandwiches, and still lose weight, go for it! I cannot eat foods like that without wanting more, and it leads to weight gain. I love fish. Two fillets of sea bass (barramundi) is only 100 calories each, providing 23 grams of protein each. High protein foods cause satiety, making the body feel satisfied. I avoid ALL fruit juices like toxic poison! You're drinking calories that won't make you feel full, literally consuming processed sugar. I love water and sometimes a zero calorie can of ginger beer soda, or tonic water.

I have seen so many LIARS online claiming that you can eat any food you want and still lose weight. It won't happen if you do that all the time! Junk food is called junk food for a reason! I read somewhere than 60 % of Americans are obese, which is a sin. It is wrong to let our bodies go to ruin. Hospitals are filled with Americans who smoked cigarettes to destroy their health. I think insurance companies ought to be able to deny such claims. We live in an insane culture, where you can knowingly destroy your own health, and then demand that other people pay for your health problems, even suing them if they refuse. That is crazy!

Americans are out of control—spending themselves recklessly into debt, perverse in their physical desires (partaking of the adulterous hookup culture), giving themselves lung cancer with cigarettes, raging in their tempers, greedy (suing everybody), impulsive, et cetera. Our nation continues to sink lower and lower into sin and wickedness. Each of us must take responsibility for our self.

There Are No Gimmicks To Losing Weight

Nearly everybody approaches obesity with the WRONG mindset, "How Do I Lose Weight?" But what we should all be asking is, "How Did I Become Obese?" The popular excuse is depression, but I think that is a symptom of our deteriorated American culture, not a cause. The cause of obesity is poor diet. When we eat the wrong foods, our body wants more of those horrible foods, and it becomes an addiction. Once we eat high glycemic foods, our insulin (the hormone that regulates sugar) spikes super high, which triggers binging. So if we eat LOW GLYCEMIC foods (barley, beans, green vegetables, most fruits, raw carrots, kidney beans, chickpeas, lentils and bran breakfast cereals), our insulin won't spike so high, and we won't binge eat everything in the barn.

95 % of the things you read on the internet about losing weight are worthless! I tried lemons. I tried Green Tea. Nothing works! I've tried to Acceler8 and Elev8 pills for 3 months, which are garbage. I've taken massive amounts of Glucomannan pills, which are worthless. I've tried nearly everything there is to try, but NOTHING works! I've bought the gimmicks at Vitamin World and from Amazon.com to lose weight. Nothing helped! I've tried eating healthy instead of processed foods, but that didn't work either. I will say this, eating fresh is healthy and it will prevent you from gaining weight. We all gain weight from eating processed foods, and especially breads and sweets. But to lose weight, you have got to STARVE YOURSELF with intermittent fasting. That how I lost 70 pounds. I did intermittent fasting for a couple days, then a total fast for one day, and then a 1,200 to 1,500 calorie full meal at my favorite restaurant (but just one meal for the whole day).

Thankfully I haven't gained all my weight back yet, but I am fighting to lose weight. Lord willing, I want to move back to the United States very soon. I want access to a YMCA so I can use their steam room, which really helps sooth my neck pain and burning nerves throughout my body. Losing weight means discomfort, there's no way around it. The trick is to create the motivation that will EXCEED your discomfort. Think about the future! How will you feel in one month if you eat and don't lose weight? How will you feel if you lose 15 pounds?

Here's something encouraging. When I was 215 pounds and stage 4 diabetic at an A1C of 9.8 %, my sugar dropped in JUST ONE MONTH to an A1C of 6.0 %, when I weighed 185 pounds. So 10 of those pounds was merely emptying my stomach of food and water. So my true weight at 215 pounds was about 207 after 3 days of fasting. Now I was losing weight beyond that. When my weight hit 199 it was a milestone that encouraged me. So I literally lost about 22 pounds in just 30 days!!! Most of your weight loss won't come from walking, but from NOT EATING. Walking briskly for an hour only burns 200 calories. But your body will burn roughly 200 calories in just 2 hours sitting around the house.

Like Rocky's coach said in Rocky III:

If you want to lose weight, you've got to GET HUNGRY for it! I don't mean hungry for food. When your hunger to lose weight is greater than your hunger to stuff your face, YOU WILL LOSE WEIGHT QUICKLY!!!

2.3.15 How Far Can A Believer Fall Into Sin? (2021-03-13 21:48)

2nd Timothy 2:19, " Nevertheless the foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity."

No one "falls" into any sin, we all choose to do right or wrong. Proverbs 4:23, "Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life." A believer can sink to the lowest level of sin. Proverbs 14:14, "The backslider in heart shall be filled with his own ways: and a good man shall be satisfied from himself."

Romans 5:20 teaches that "where sin abounded, GRACE DID MUCH MORE ABOUND." So the believer is safe in Christ, regardless of sinful choices, but 2nd Corinthians 5:10-11 warns that every believer will be held accountable at the Judgment Seat Of Christ for the good and bad done in the body. Choosing to sin is always wrong. ...

> "Christians can never sin cheaply; they pay a heavy price for iniquity. Transgression destroys peace of mind, obscures fellowship with Jesus, hinders prayer, brings darkness over the soul; therefore be not the serf and bondman of sin." —Pastor Charles H. Spurgeon, 'Morning And Evening: Daily Readings'

2.3.16 I Don't Tolerate People Bashing Other Gospel Preachers (2021-03-14 09:30)

Ecclesiastes 12:9-10, "And moreover, because the preacher was wise, he still taught the people knowledge; yea, he gave good heed, and sought out, and set in order many proverbs.

The preacher sought to find out acceptable words: and that which was written was upright, even words of truth."

1st Timothy 2:8,

I will therefore that men pray every where, lifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting.

The words of the wise are as goads, and as nails fastened by the masters of assemblies, which are given from one shepherd. "

Kindly, I get a lot of emails from a lot of people. I don't mind answering Bible questions, but I don't like when people start attacking other preachers. I've blocked out people from Facebook for criticizing Danny Danny Castle, Pastor Jack Hyles and Pastor Steven Anderson. If anything, in this wicked generation we should all be building up preachers, not looking for ways to tear them down. I don't tolerate people tearing down preachers!!!

I am quick to voice my disagreements doctrinally with Pastor Anderson, and even Dr. Jack Hyles. I want to make it very clear that I fully support Pastor Steven Anderson as a preacher to a preacher. I thank God for his zeal for truth and soulwinning. We need more pastors like him. Having said that, I disagree with him that Jesus burned in Hell for 3 days. The Lord told the repentant thief on the cross that they would be in "Paradise" that same day.

I also disagree that praying is the Bible method to be saved. Brother Anderson did say that a person can be saved by just believing, but I disagree that praying a sinner's prayer is the Bible method. In the Gospel of John, we find the word "believe" mentioned 85 times, without mention of praying, being water baptized, repenting, confessing or anything else. The Bible way to be saved is and always has been to simply BELIEVE. Acts 10:43, "To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins." This is the clear teaching of Scripture.

I also respectfully disagree with Pastor Anderson that there won't be a separate Rapture from Christ's Second Coming. Pastor Anderson teaches that they are one and the same event. I firmly believe and teach a pretribulation Rapture of the saints (1st Thessalonians 4:13-18).

Granted, no two preachers agree on everything. Thankfully, Pastor Anderson is correct on the King James Bible and the Gospel. I fully support him and his church, and I love him as my Christian brother. I recently heard Pastor Jonathan Shelley preaching against me by name. That's okay, I love the guy as a fellow preacher and am thankful for his soulwinning ministry. I love preachers, not just the one's who agree with me.

Albeit, I WILL criticize and allow people in my ministry to criticize anyone who perverts the grace of God, corrupts the Bible, and is wrong on the fundamentals of the faith. Those are cult leaders, not Gospel preachers. If someone wants to criticize devil-dog preachers who preach the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation; namely, Steve Pettit, Marty Herron, John MacArthur, Sam Horn, Ray Comfort, Charles Phelps, Gary Walton, Greg Laurie, Adrian Rogers and others who don't care about THE TRUTH, then I am not going to defend their right to be stupid and send people to the the Lake of Fire!!!

2.3.17 There Is No Such Thing As Soul Sleep (2021-03-15 09:30)

Matthew 16:16, “

And Simon Peter answered and said, Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God.

” Matthew 22:32, “

I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? God is not the God of the dead, but of the living.

” Mark 12:27, “

He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the living*: ye therefore do greatly err.

” Luke 20:38, “

For he is not a God of the dead, but of the living: for all live unto him.

God is not the God of the dead, but of the living. These Scripture passages plainly teach that there cannot be such a thing as soul asleep. John 6:47, “

Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.

" The Lord doesn't give temporal life, He gives everlasting life. That means now, right this moment, every believer has everlasting life. When the tabernacle of this body can no longer house our soul and spirit, it will perish, but the soul and spirit cannot die (Hebrews 4:12).

That means when we die there will be no break in our conscience. How could there be if we have everlasting life? God had warned Adam and Eve that they would both die, the day they disobeyed Him by eating of the forbidden Tree of Knowledge. Genesis 2:17, "But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it: for in the day that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die." But the subtle serpent came along and lied to Eve, knowing that she was the weaker vessel. The serpent was the Devil according to Revelation 20:2. The serpent lied to Eve, assuring her that she wouldn't die. Genesis 3:4, "And the serpent said unto the woman, Ye shall not surely die:" So Eve ate the fruit.

But wait a minute! Was the serpent right? Adam also ate of the forbidden fruit, but neither he nor Eve died that day. In fact they lived hundreds more years before they physically died. Did God lie? No! Adam and Eve most certainly DID die the very day they disobeyed God. They died SPRITIAULLY. Romans 5:12 teaches that Adam opened the floodgate of sin upon the world, and so death came by sin upon all men. Every human being since Adam has been born spiritually DEAD. Except Jesus, because God was His literal biological Father, not Joseph.

God offers us eternal life through Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for our sins, His burial, and His resurrection three days later. Ephesians 2:1, "

And you hath he [Jesus Christ] quickened [made alive spiritually], who were dead in trespasses and sins;

Through Jesus Christ we can live forever and ever.

John 5:24,

Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life. **"

So don't believe the false claims from Jehovah's Witnesses and Seventh-Day Adventists about soul sleep, because the Bible calls them liars. I say that kindly, but truthfully. The Lord Himself repeatedly promised eternal life to those who believe in His name. John 11:25-26, "Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this?

Proverbs 28:15,

As a roaring lion, and a ranging bear; so is a wicked ruler over the poor people.

Proverbs 28:27,

“

He that giveth unto the poor shall not lack: but he that hideth his eyes shall have many a curse.

Proverbs 29:7,

“

The righteous considereth the cause of the poor: but the wicked regardeth not to know it.

In 2019 the corrupt city of Los Angeles, California, designated $281,000,000 of it’s $10,600,000,000 spending bill to building housing for the homeless. So far the city appears to be failing. This heartbreaking video was taken in January of 2021...

Homeless In Hollywood On The Walk Of Faith

I get nauseated reading online [1]what Americans donate each year to big charities. Americans are so screwed up! People give money because they feel it is their duty to humanity. Most people believe that their charitable donations will go to help someone who is poor and less fortunate than they are. I won’t even get into all the stupid donations to save the whales, protect the forests and watch the stars, and other wastes of money. Dear reader, when human beings are homeless and suffering, dying in their 40’s all across the country because of a lack of housing, we have no right to donate and spend money on saving animals and rainforests.

We Americans have our priorities way wrong! Search online and you will learn that Americans spent roughly $85 billion per year on sports. We spend another $50 billion on our pets each year.

We spend about $850 billion on vacations, dining out and entertainment annually. Americans spend about $6 billion on Christmas decorations each year. Yet there are millions of homeless people all across our nation and no one with the power to make a difference cares enough to help them. Where are the wealthy city council members in Los Angeles?

Where is the wealthy mayor? Where is the wealthy state governor? Where are the wealthy 535 members of congress? Where are the 100 wealthy members of the senate. Where is the wealthy U.S. President? Where are all those bigshot charity executives (e.g., Red Cross, United Way, Salvation Army, et cetera) who make lucrative ridiculous 6-digit salaries each year? Where are Americans wealthy churches? Where is Dr. John MacArthur and his $14 million dollars, and his son-in-law with his $7 million? Where is benny Hinn with his $100 million taken in annually. Where is Pat Robertson and his 700 Club that takes in $670 million each year? Who cares, right?

I was watching some of these videos today. I give money to poor people all the time, to do what I can to help them in their dilemma. It will be a cold day in Hell before I donate money to the Salvation Army, when they are paying nearly $300,000 a year to their Chief Executive Officer. Evangelist Franklin Graham was paid $1.2 million in just one year! Billy Graham was paid over $600,000 per year. That is disgusting and I think very unethical for any preacher. Ken Ham takes in $34 million per year at Answers-In-Genesis. I think that is very unethical. Sadly, Baptist pastors and churches all across the United States bid Godspeed to Ken Ham, who teaches the heresy that you must turn from sin to be saved. I think his silly Ark Encounter in Kentucky is a big joke, exploiting Christianity to make billions of dollars.

Watch that video again that I shared with you. In fact, go on YouTube and watch the thousands of videos posted of the homelessness epidemic across America, and then think about all the billions of dollars that Ken Ham milks from the churches. It is wickedness!!! We care more about entertaining our church members than we do about caring for the homeless.

Proverbs 29:7,

The righteous considereth the cause of the poor: but the wicked regardeth not to know it.

” So I guess that means Americas churches are not righteous today, since they don’t give a flip about the poor and homeless. The churches are growing bigger, wealthier and more prosperous each year, while the number of homeless Americans continues to skyrocket nationwide. Something is very wrong with our churches and country. Americans give their money to all the wrong things.

2.3.19 Change Is A Position (2021-03-17 09:30)

Romans 1:25, “Who changed the truth of God into a lie, and worshipped and served the creature more than the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen.”

Sadly, the Bible college I gratefully attended from 1985 to 1993, Hyles-Anderson College (HAC), stopped believing that the King James Bible is inspired in 2008. Therefore, I cannot recommend or support them anymore.

Sadly, thousands of Hyles-Anderson College (HAC) alumni still support them, as if King James Bible infallibility, inerrancy and inspiration don't really matter. I guess

[1]Pastor Al Lacy

and

didn't know what they were talking about. No, Pastor Jack Schaap didn't know what he was talking about!

A dark shadow of doubt is looming over the churches today! I promise you that as time passes, the First Baptist Church Of Hammond, Indiana WILL CHANGE for the worse, because they have already set the precedent.

Pastor Bob Gray Sr. (who attended HAC from 1972 to 1976) made these excellent statements, verifying what I am saying:

> "Somebody said about a preacher, 'He changed his position.' Listen carefully, nobody ever changes his position. CHANGE IS A POSITION!!! ... When you change, you never have a set position anymore. Truth is set. Truth is stable. Change is not. When you leave the truth, you don't stop anywhere, you keep on changing! And that's why it's called 'backsliding'!" —Dr. Bob Gray Sr., a quote from the sermon, [3]Truth Vs. Change.
> "The process of changing is what error is!" —Dr. Bob Gray Sr., a quote from the sermon, [4]Truth Vs. Change.
> "Error has no boundaries, truth does!" —Dr. Bob Gray Sr., a quote from the sermon, [5]Truth Vs. Change.

That is exactly right. CHANGE IS A POSITION!!! That is what happened in the year 1881, when Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort introduced a SECOND AUTHORITY to the world of the Bible. Like the subtle serpent in Genesis 3:1, they introduced a new version of God's Word to the world. God had already commanded Adam and Eve what to do in Genesis 2:16-17, "And the LORD God commanded the man, saying, Of every tree of the garden thou mayest freely eat:

But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it: for in the day that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die.

Notice that God said they COULD eat of every tree in the garden, except the Tree of Knowledge.

Now look at what the serpent (Satan according to Revelation 20:2) changed God's Word to say in Genesis 3:1,

"Now the serpent was more subtil than any beast of the field which the LORD God had made. And he said unto the woman, *Yea, hath God said, Ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden?" The serpent misquoted God as saying that they COULDN'T eat of any of the trees in the garden? Why did the serpent change God's Word? It was to DECEIVE Eve's mind. It was to compel her to do something different than what God intended. Oh please don't miss this dear friend.

To receive God's gift of eternal life, He simply intended for you to acknowledge THE TRUTH (repentance) that you are a guilty sinner (2nd Timothy 2:25; Romans 3:19), and embrace THE TRUTH (Good News) that Jesus paid for your sins on the cross, was buried, and three days later He physically resurrected from the dead. That is “the Gospel”

(1st Corinthians 15:1-4). But the serpent came along in the New Living Translation (NLT) and ADDED the following words to the Bible, saying you must repent

“[6]OF YOUR SINS” to be saved, thus compelling you to do something different than what God intended. So instead of simply resting wholly in Christ’s work of redemption, now the Devil has convinced people that they must turn away from committing sinful bad habits to be saved. That is NOT what God intended dear friend!

Do you see how just changing a few words completely changes the intended meaning? Now imagine having HUNDREDS of English Bible revisions, which all contain literally THOUSANDS of changes. What utter massive confusion!!! My God, how did America’s pastors, evangelists, Bible colleges and churches ever buy into this Satanic deception? Dr. Bob Gray Sr. nailed it in one of his previous quotes. ...

That was the reason for Westcott’s and Hort’s so-called “new,” “older” and “more accurate” Greek text in 1881. By introducing a SECOND AUTHORITY to the world, man was put into the place of God, as was Eve, having to decide which of the first TWO AUTHORITIES is correct. New Bible revisions have been coming out ever since 1881, one after the other, year after year, obscuring and obliterating the true inspired Word of God, which is the King James Bible. The Devil’s Bibles KEEP CHANGING, but the King James Bible never changes!

2.3.20 Religion Will Send You To Hell Forever (2021-03-18 09:30)

Matthew 15:7-9, “

Ye hypocrites, well did Esaias prophesy of you, saying,

This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips; but their heart is far from me.

But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.

My biological father Arnold Leonard Stewart (1933-2010) was a Christian and a Skid Row Preacher for over 30 years. I know very little about him. My Dad grew up very poor during The Great Depression in the 1930’s in Escanaba, Michigan. My Dad was one of 11 children siblings. They were put into an orphanage at a young age. At age 15 he was adopted by a Christian who lived on a farm. He ran away, got into gangs and crime, but in his late 20’s turned his life around. That’s about all I know. He never wanted to talk about it. I wish I knew more about my father’s life. At age 13, my mother (Barbara Jean Josephson) came from Sweden with her grandmother to America. Since my grandmother was an officer in the Salvation Army, my parents were both involved with the Salvation Army. I was dedicated to the Lord at age one by my parents at the Salvation Army.

Having said that, my father used to say: “Religion is the worst thing that ever happened to this world.” That is his most memorable quote. As I thought about writing this article, my father’s quote came to mind. Religion is dangerous! May I say, with all Biblical authority, that no religion can get you to Heaven my friend. You can join any or all religions on earth, and yet still go to Hell in your sins. Jesus said in John 3:3, “Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.” Salvation is not found in any religion, but in a person—the Lord Jesus Christ!!!

Dear reader, you cannot get to Heaven through religion. The Roman Catholic church does religion right, just like Kentucky Fried Chicken does chicken right. From the cradle to the casket, Roman Catholicism has a religious package for you! They’ll provide for your every religious need, right up until you burn in Hell for all eternity without Jesus Christ! You cannot get to Heaven through manmade traditions, rituals, ceremonies and the oracles of man. You must be born again! How do you get born again?

First, you must know that you’re a guilty sinner. Romans 3:23, “ For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God; ”

Second, you must know that there is a penalty for your sins, which is death. Romans 6:23, “

For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

” This includes the second death in the Lake of Fire.

Revelation 20:15, " And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire."

Third, Jesus is the Son of God, the Christ, Who died on the cross to pay for your sins. Jesus was buried, and after three days He miraculously resurrected physically from the dead. ...

> John 20:31, "But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name."
> 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, "
>
> Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand;
>
> By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain.
>
> For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:"
> Romans 3:24, " Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus: "

If you admit that you are a guilty sinner deserving of Hell, and you see your need for the Savior. All you need to do to be saved is BELIEVE on the Lord Jesus Christ. Simply take God at His Word as recorded in the Scriptures, receiving Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins. It's that simple. You don't have to turn away from your sinning to be saved. You must turn away from your unbelief as a guilty sinner. Whatever changes God desires to see in your life He will attend to after you are saved, but to receive God's free gift of eternal life, all you need to do is cease from your own self-righteous works and rest completely in the name of Jesus Christ. ...

> John 6:28-29, "Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent."

Simply REST in Jesus Christ, placing all your confidence in Him alone, to forgive and wash away all your sins by the precious blood that He shed on the cross to pay for them. ...

> Hebrews 4:9-10,
>
> " There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God. For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his. Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief."
>
> Philippians 3:9, "
>
> And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith: "
> 1st Peter 1:18-19, "

Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers;

But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot:"

My father was absolutely right, and the older I get the more I appreciate his wisdom in the matter. Religion wants to fit you with glasses, but the Lord wants to open your eyes! Religion is man trying to reach God through human effort, but Christianity is God trying to reach man by the sacrifice of His only begotten Son on the cross. Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith. God will not save anyone who is trying to be saved, He will only save those who are trusting to be saved.

Dear friend, going to Heaven when you die is not a matter of YOUR faithfulness, it is strictly a matter of GOD'S faithfulness to keep His solemn promise **"

TO SAVE THEM THAT BELIEVE

" (1st Corinthians 1:21b).

The heathen world is continually speculating about the afterlife, eternity and the mysteries of beyond the grave. Well there is no mystery or speculation if you believe the inspired King James Bible. God only authored one Book, not two, certainly not hundreds. Yet today we literally have hundreds of English Bible revisions, all claiming to be the most accurate, but none agree. That is Satan, the author of confusion. God is not the author of confusion (1st Corinthians 14:33). God has kept His promise in Psalms 12:6-7 to keep and preserve His pure inspired Words in the King James Bible forever. The [1]modern corrupt Bibles remove this promise. Dear friend, I am telling you THE TRUTH.

Jesus, please don't leave earth without Him. There is no other way to be saved according to Acts 4:10-12, "

Be it known unto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye crucified, whom God raised from the dead, even by him doth this man stand here before you whole.

This is the stone which was set at nought of you builders, which is become the head of the corner.

Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved.

If you want God's free gift of eternal life, it only comes wrapped in the package of Jesus Christ. If you reject Jesus Christ, you don't get the gift. It's that simple. If you receive Jesus Christ as your personal Savior, you get the gift with Him. John 1:12-13,

"But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name: Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God." I hope and plead with you friend, that you will receive Jesus Christ now if you've never done so. Simply put your faith in the Scriptures, believing the record which God has given of His dear only begotten Son, the Christ, Who was crucified on the cross for your sins and mine. But Christ is not dead, HE IS RISEN forevermore! Trust Him now! Rest in the name of Jesus and you will have eternal life immediately and forever!

Genesis 17:4-5, "As for me, behold, my covenant is with thee, and thou shalt be a father of many nations. Neither shall thy name any more be called Abram, but thy name shall be Abraham; for a father of many nations have I made thee." Galatians 3:29, "And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise."

Many Baptist support Mike Huckabee, since he's also Baptist. Sadly, Huckabee is a Zionist who worships present-day apostate Israel. [1]Zionism is a false doctrine. We are supposed to worship Jesus Christ, not the Jews. God promised Abraham to make him the father of MANY NATIONS, not one, Israel. Do you know why God said "many nations?" It is because every Gentile who believes on Christ becomes a child of God, and is grafted into the seed of Abraham. Galatians 3:29, "And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise." Born-again Gentiles have as much right to claim the promises made to Israel as Jews do. This is not to say that I believe the Church replaces Israel (called "Replacement Theology"), because I don't. When the true Messiah comes (Jesus Christ), He will establish true Israel and reign from the literal throne of David during the 1,000 year Millennium. Unsaved Christ-rejecting Jews all go to burn in Hell. All born-again Arabs, Jews and Gentiles will enjoy the promises and blessings of God.

The present state of Israel was birthed in 1948 as a Democracy, a secular state, not a Jewish theocracy. This is not the restored nation of Israel as promised in the Scriptures. The true nation of Israel fell in 586 BC and still hasn't been restored. What exists today is a Masonic, Marxist-Communist state begun and controlled by the Illuminati, who also control the United States. The Illuminati (Luciferian worshippers who politically fornicate with the kings of this world - Revelation 18:3-9) is "The Great Whore" - Revelation 19:2). This is why the coming Antichrist half-way through the Tribulation, will stand up in the new Illuminati Temple in JERUSALEM, and claim to be God - 2nd Thessalonians 2:4-12). Wake up oh Christian!

I love Jewish people are Gentiles alike, so this is not about anti-Semitism, God forbid. It is a sin to mistreat, harass or hate anyone for ANY reason. As a child of God I am commanded in the Bible to love everyone (even my enemies), and I do because I have God's Holy Spirit indwelling me as a believer (Romans 8:9; 1st John 3:24). Blessed be the name of the Lord! In this article

I am simply refuting the heresy that Jews are better than Gentiles, or that God has given them special treatment. Jewish people must be born again just like Gentiles, or they cannot see the Kingdom of God. They cannot enter into God's Kingdom without faith in the Savior Jesus Christ. Jesus said in John 3:7, "Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again."

The churches are being deceived and misled into all sorts of heresies because they have been desensitized. All of the different Bible versions have caused the churches to become indifferent, confused, unconcerned, ecumenical, dead and vulnerable. Since the purity of God's Word is not that important to most churchgoers, they are easily duped by mainstream religious leaders to support illegal wars, criminal Presidential candidates, Zionism, LGBT rights, same-sex marriages, et cetera. Will you also be deceived? The New World Order is now in full swing! The coming of the Antichrist is nearer than we expected. I was born in 1967. I have clearly seen in my short lifetime that Satan is relentlessly preparing the world in these end times to receive the Man of Sin. [2]Make sure you are born again dear friend. Time is short.

The Answer Is In The Church House, Not The White House

Americans have been Teeter-tottering back and forth between Democrat and Republican for 244 years since 1776, yet things only get worse and worse. The housing crisis is a dilemma nationwide; people simply cannot afford to pay the ridiculous high rent costs in most major cities anymore. In San Francisco alone the rent has now reached $4,000 per month. Homeless people are defecating on the streets everywhere, because the city has not dealt with the issue humanely. Jesus said a house divided cannot stand (Matthew 12:25). We are weak as a nation. All of the good, positive and meaningful changes that President Donald Trump set into motion by law during his presidency, is now being quickly undone by newly appointed President Joe Biden. While one man is bailing water out of the leaking boat, the other man is bailing water into the boat. That is the United States today!

Jesus never voted. The Bible doesn't command believers to vote. I have known some believers to get very angry over the issue. I used to have a religious boss. When he found out that I wasn't a registered voter, he slammed Hyles-Anderson College for not teaching me to vote. He was angry and criticized me. But dear friend, he was wrong! The answer has never been in the White House, it is in the church house. That's what I was rightly taught at HAC. I am forever grateful to God for the wonderful opportunity to attend such a great Bible college. Sadly, since 2008 the leaders of First Baptist Church Of Hammond no longer believe that the King James Bible is inspired, and so they are CHANGING for the worse at HAC.

It wouldn't matter if 90 % of Americans didn't show up to vote, there will NEVER again be a Democrat that follows a two-term Democrat. The last time it happened was 1836. Do you think that is mere coincidence? Why do you think Americans vote in such a flip-flop manner? It is the power of the media. They have to keep us a house divided. For the years leading up to the 2020 election, 90 % of the media were accusing, attacking and slandering President Trump relentlessly. The controlled media control the nation! The [3]2000 election was clearly stolen by George W. Bush. Dear reader, you are wasting your life if you are heavily involved in politics.

Galatians 1:6-9, " I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.

But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed."

I am so sick and tired of hearing theological fools like Dr. Kevin Bauder, claim that Lordship Salvation still falls within the realm of orthodox Christianity. The Apostle Paul plainly warned in Galatians 1:6b-7a of " another gospel: Which is not another...

" Kindly said, Steve Pettit is a brother from another mother! We weren't born of the same seed! I was born again at age 13 of incorruptible seed, by the inspired Word of God, which is the King James Bible (1st Peter 1:23). In contrast, [1]Dr. Steve Pettit has never been born-again at all. He is merely living the Christians life, as per his own very disturbing statements:

> "You can't just speak about getting saved, and you accepted Christ, and then that's it! There is a justification; There is a sanctification; There's ultimately a glorification, and though there are three parts, they are all part of the whole, and you cannot separate them. In order for you to qualify for the award, you have to get into the race, you have to stay in the race, and you have to finish the race. If you want to win, you have to run to the end; and winning in the Christian life is everything, because if you lose—if you don't finish—you lose everything—you lose your SOUL. And so, the Christian race is the life of faith that begins, is > run, and is finished when we cross over into Heaven!" —Dr. Steve Pettit ("[2]What Does It Mean To Run 'The Race'?" - [3]11:34)

Ladies and gentlemen, that is the Devil talking! That is not the Gospel of free grace, not even in the ballpark. Mr. Pettit is focusing on YOU, not JESUS! Pettit requires YOU to run the race faithfully, which is not wholly resting in JESUS' name for salvation. "The true Gospel always points you to Christ; a false gospel always points to you." —[4]Pastor Dennis Rokser

[5]Steve Pettit is the infidel that Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) warned everybody about in 1945, and of whom he said he [6]blow the college to smithereens with a stick of dynamite if he could. Bob Jones College is of the Devil. BJU no longer preaches sound doctrine; but rather, the Calvinist ranting of a theological madman behind the pulpit. Shamefully, Harvest Baptist Church of Guam IDOLIZES this wicked false prophet, bidding him Godspeed. Pastor Gary Walton needs to be fired. All of their pastors at Harvest are bad seed! They should all be fired, and bring in genuine men of God who are sound in the Christian faith. Anybody who thinks that you must turn away from sin to be saved is a theological fool.

Tragically, [7]Dr. Pettit shares the SAME flawed unbiblical view of repentance as does Seventh-Day Adventist prophetess Ellen G. White (1827-1915). They wrongly think that salvation requires a personal attempt to turn away from committing sinful behavior. This is mandatory! In their flawed thinking, salvation cannot come to anyone who does not commit to depart from continuing in a sinful lifestyle. They falsely assume this to mean Bible repentance. Oh how wrong they are! Salvation is wholly by God's grace, through faith alone, in the Good News of Christ crucified, buried and risen. Nowhere in the Scriptures are we pressured, coerced or required to reform (turn from our bad behavior) to be saved. Eternal life is a free gift, paid for in full by the precious blood of the Lamb of God. John 1:29, "The next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world. " What a beautiful proclamation!!!

Perhaps you would like to know why I incessantly preach against Dr. Steve Pettit these days. The answer is simply because Harvest Baptist Church of Guam, and Pastor Marty Herron in Iowa, idolize the man like a rock star!

Dr. Pettit is the Wayman Mitchell

(1929-2020) of Calvary Chapel:

> ...he's the Bill Hamon of Christian International Ministries
> ...he's the Jack Hyles of fundamentalism
> ...he's the Ronald McDonald Of McDonald's
> ...he's the Pied Piper and he's coming to steal your children!

Kindly said, Steve Pettit is a dangerous man theologically. Don't you send your young people to that hellhole at Bob Jones University today! Don't you dare! The female BJU students wear cotton tighties in gym, literally [8]displaying the crevice in their buttocks. Go look at their [9]Facebook page. That is shameful! Christian colleges ought to set their standards high, not low. The sinful world has low standards!

Sadly, most professed Christian parents and young women today laugh at modesty, just as they take the accuracy of the Gospel lightly, and the purity of the Holy Bible lightly, which is why they follow ungodly heretics like Marty Herron, Gary Walton, Steve Pettit, Sam Horn and John MacArthur!!! Hey, I didn't pick this fight, Marty Herron did, and Gary Walton is pouring gas on the fire by ignoring it. As a soldier of Jesus Christ I am fighting as a soldier does. I don't get paid to do this. I am not sucking a salary like the parasites from BJU are doing! Since I am at home without a church to attend, because Harvest Baptist Church on Guam continues to ostracize me for TELLING THE TRUTH, I'll write a thousand articles exposing their wickedness instead. What religious hypocrites!!!

God knows my sincere heart in this matter, that all I ever humble requested was to quietly sit in church and not cause trouble. But those religious hypocrites refused. No true Christian that is right with God bans someone from church, and refuses to allow them to join in their church family. God's curse is on Harvest Baptist Church of Guam and Bob Jones University, as they continue to hurt people like me, spread corruptible seed (the Devil's Bibles), preach another gospel (Lordship Salvation), and disregard the hundreds of warnings I have given them as a caring Christian who loves them enough to TELL THE TRUTH (Ephesians 4:15). My preaching will be 100 % vindicated someday (Romans 3:4). Proverbs 12:17, " He that speaketh truth sheweth forth righteousness: but a false witness deceit. "

2.3.23 Every False Teacher Still Insists Salvation Is By Grace (2021-03-21 09:30)

Galatians 1:6-9, "

I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel*:

Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.

But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.

As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed.

If you go examine the plan of salvation of Mormons, Jehovah's Witnesses, Seventh-Day Adventists, Church of Christ, Calvinists, proponents of Lordship Salvation, and Roman Catholics, you'll find that they all deceitfully claim salvation in by "

God's grace.

For example: I went to the Roman Catholic Vatican’s website, and here is a quote:

> 1996 - Our justification comes from the grace of God. Grace is favor, the free and undeserved help that God gives us to respond to his call to become children of God, adoptive sons, partakers of the divine nature and of eternal life.
>

[2]

Yet, upon further inspection, [3]Catholics are required to observe Seven Sacraments to get to Heaven, the first of which is water baptism. Clearly, this is not the Gospel taught in the Bible. What saith the Scripture? ...

> 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, “Moreover, brethren, *I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand;
>
> By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain.
>
> For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:
> ***”

There is nothing in THE GOSPEL about getting water baptized, repenting or turning from sins, nor about keeping Seven Sacraments to be saved. Therefore, Roman Catholics are cursed by God for adhering to another Gospel of faith plus works.

Sadly, this is the SAME sin of the Lordship Salvation crowd today, adding works to faith.

This is the sin of the Moody Bible Institute crowd. This is the sin of Pacific Garden Mission in Chicago and their ’[4]UNSHACKLED’ radio series.

This is the sin of the ungodly [5]Bob Jones University crowd. This is the sin of the [6]Harvest Baptist Church of Guam. On their church’s website, Harvest says that they believe salvation is by “ God’s grace.

Yeah, and so does the Catholic Vatican, as I just showed you! It doesn’t mean anything anymore for someone to profess to believe in salvation because if the truth be told, they are trusting in MORE! Adding anything to faith cancels grace!

I wrote this article to point out that Satan has crept into most of our Baptist churches today, including independent fundamental Baptist churches, propagating a false gospel of partial faith in Christ plus works (aka, the “

turn from your sin

to be saved garbage theology). This heresy is spreading like cancer. The Bible says in 2nd Timothy 2:17 that their word is like “canker” (i.e., gangrene). Harvest Baptist Church is like gangrene on Guam, eating away at healthy tissue, killing it with their heresy of Lordship Salvation. Harvest broadcasts Dr. Steve Pettit’s daily chapel sermons at BJU throughout Micronesia, on KHMG 88.1 FM radio, poisoning people’s minds with [7]deadly Calvinism. God’s curse is on them all (Galatians 1:8).

On January 26, 2015, Dr. Steve Pettit preach this damnable teaching to 2,700 Bob Jones University students and faculty...

> “You can’t just speak about getting saved, and you accepted Christ, and then that’s it! There is a justification; There is a sanctification; There’s ultimately a glorification, and though there are three parts, they are all part of the whole, and you cannot separate them. In order for you to qualify for the award, you have to get into the race, you have to stay in the race, and you have to finish the race. If you want to win, you have to run to the end*; and winning in the Christian life is everything, because if you lose—if you don’t finish—you lose everything—you lose your SOUL. And so, the Christian race is the life of faith that begins, is run, and is finished when we cross over into Heaven!” —Dr. Steve Pettit (“What Does It Mean To Run ’The Race’?” - [8]11:34)

Dr. Steve Pettit is a false prophet! What he is preaching is NOT God’s grace dear reader! [9]Dr. Pettit plainly says you MUST run to the end to be saved. Galatians 1:6-7 pronounces God’s CURSE upon Bob Jones University today, for perverting the Gospel of grace. When you attack the grace of God, you attack the God of grace. The attack the gift of grace, which is eternal life! You attack the guardian of grace, which is the local New Testament church. You attack the goal of grace, which is to preach the Gospel (not false doctrine) throughout all the world. It is no light thing to God to add to faith, which is to corrupt grace.

Kindly said, Dr. Steve Pettit is an incompetent preacher! [10]So also is Dr. Marty Herron at Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary. These men sinfully ADD to faith—requiring people to run the race, turn from their sins, and forsake a sinful lifestyle—which is a gross perversion of God’s grace and the true Gospel. Here are some helpful quotes from various preachers, refuting the Bob Jones’ crowd on their heresy of Lordship Salvation:

> "It is an inexcusable error to confront sinners with problems that concern the Christian life and call upon them to make promises regarding them. An unsaved person is never called upon to surrender himself to God. The saving act is in no instance represented as our ’giving ourselves to God’; it is, on the contrary, taking His Son as our Savior." —Pastor Charles Ryrie, "Balancing the Christian Life"; Moody Press, Inc., 1969 (p. 170).
> "The second approach finds faith in the gospel alone an ’easy Believism’ and seeks to add something to faith in order to accomplish salvation. To repent is to ’change one’s mind,’ and to believe is to remove one’s trust from that in which it has rested and place it in Christ." —William Howard, "Is Faith Enough to Save?" Bibliotheca Sacra. January-March, 1942 (p.99).
>
> "This kind of faith is not ’easy believism’. It is not easy to say, ’I can’t save myself, I must recognize that there is something wrong with me, and I must seek help from someone else.'" —Dr. H. Phillip Hook, "A Biblical Definition of Saving Faith"; Bibliotheca Sacra. April-June, 1964 (p. 133, 138).

"Eternal life is free. Discipleship is immeasurably hard. The former is attained by faith alone, the latter by a faith that works... the former brings with it the righteousness of God so that a man is 'justified freely by his grace' (Romans 3:24). The latter develops a personal righteousness, based on good deeds, so that a man was also 'justified by works' (James 2:24). The former constituted the believer God's workmanship, the latter fulfilled the wonderful purpose for which he had been created. The former cost man nothing, the latter could cost him everything, including life itself." —Dr. Zane C. Hodges, "The Hungry Inherit"; Moody Press, Inc., 1972 (p. 114, 115).

"There is a vast difference between coming to Jesus for salvation and coming after Jesus for service. Coming to Christ makes one a believer, while coming after Christ makes one a disciple. All believers are not disciples. To become a believer one accepts the invitation of the Gospel, to be a disciple one obeys the challenge to a life of dedicated service and separation. Salvation comes through the sacrifice of Christ; discipleship comes only by sacrifice of self and surrender to His call for devoted service. Salvation is free, but discipleship involves paying the price of a separated walk. Salvation can't be lost because it depends upon God's faithfulness, but discipleship can be lost because it depends upon our faithfulness." —Dr. M. R. DeHaan, "Hebrews"; Zondervan Publishing House, 1959 (p. 117).

"For the unregenerate man, repentance is the change of mind whereby he turns from unbelief to faith in the person and work of Jesus Christ." —Roger Post, "The Meanings of the Words Translated 'Repent' and 'Repentance' in the New Testament"; Master's Thesis, Wheaton College, June 1972 (p. 80).

"There are those who, in their zeal to get people to turn from their sinful ways and receive the Lord, almost put repentance on a par with believing... Repentance, as it relates to Christ, means to change our minds about Him, who He is and what He's done to provide forgiveness and deliverance from our sins. When we place faith in Jesus as having taken our place personally on the cross and borne the penalty due our sins, then we're automatically repenting, because we couldn't accept Him in this way without having had to change our minds in some way concerning Him." —Hal Lindsey, "The Liberation of Planet Earth," Zondervan Publishing House, 1974 (p. 136, 137).

"Discipleship is frequently equated with salvation and often erroneously made a condition for becoming a Christian". —J. Dwight Pentecost, "Design for Discipleship," Zondervan Publishing House, 1971 (p. 11).

"Certainly discipleship is a most important aspect of our relation to Christ, but it belongs to the sphere of Christian life rather than entrance upon that life... One does not become a disciple in order to become a Christian, but because he has become a Christian by faith in the Savior, it is fitting that he embark upon a life of discipleship". —Everett F. Harrison, "Must Christ be Lord to Be Savior?—No."; Eternity, September 1959 (p. 14).

"There is no more piously subtle abrogation of the Gospel than to tell a Sinner that he must not only believe in the Savior, but dedicate himself to do God's will, crown the Savior Lord of his life, etc., etc. Obviously, dedication and service are highly desirable, but they are the privilege and the duty of the saved, never a condition of salvation for the unsaved (cf. Romans 12:1, 2)." —Dr. Merrill F. Unger, "God is Waiting to Meet You," Moody Press, 1975 (p. 117, 118).

> "People are sometimes led to believe that there is saving value in some public confession of Christ, or profession of a decision. "With the heart man believeth unto righteousness." This is salvation. "With the mouth confession is made unto salvation." This is the voice of the newborn child speaking to and of its father. The only condition on which one may be saved is to believe." —Lewis Sperry Chafer, "Salvation," Dunham Publishing Company, 1917 (p. 46).

The Bible says eternal life is a free gift (Romans 5:15-18, 6:23; Ephesians 2:8-9), that you simply receive BY FAITH (Galatians 3:26). You certainly CAN speak about “GETTING SAVED, AND YOU ACCEPTED CHRIST, AND THEN

THAT’S IT

”!!! That is why it is by grace alone, and not by works. It is a free gift! A gift is a receive proposition, not a give proposition. Salvation is received, not achieved.

Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ’s best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

God will not save anyone who is trying to be saved, He will only save those who are trusting to be saved.

Religion is man trying to reach God through human effort, but Christianity is God trying to reach man by the sacrifice of His only begotten Son on the cross.

Dear reader, if someone proclaims to believe that salvation is by God’s grace, you put them to the test like the Bible says. 1st John 4:1, “Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world.

” Salvation by grace can only mean salvation BY FAITH ALONE, and nothing else. This faith automatically includes repentance (which Biblically is a simple

[11]change of mind

). No one has ever come to Christ by faith, who hasn’t also repented toward God. Repentance does NOT mean to turn from your sins, and anyone who says it does is perverting grace. They are corrupting the Gospel. If turning from sins were required to be saved, then the Apostle Paul would have mentioned it when he DECLARED THE GOSPEL in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4. But Paul DIDN’T declare any such thing!!! Simply believe the Gospel and you are saved.

I am much hated, despised, criticized and ostracized by churches, especially the popular Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, whom I love with God’s unconditional love enough to “REBUKE THEM SHARPLY” as the Bible commands. ...

> Titus 1:10-14, “For there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, specially they of the circumcision:
>
> Whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not*, for filthy lucre’s sake.
>
> One of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The Cretians are alway liars, evil beasts, slow bellies.

This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith **;

Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men, that turn from the truth. ”

The Bob Jones' crowd hate me and count me as their enemy because I told THE TRUTH. They are the one's who are saying things they shouldn't be saying, not me. They are the one's who need to be rebuked in love, not me. It is Dr. Sam Horn who needs to be rebuked. It is Pastor Marty Herron who needs to be rebuked. It is Dr. Steve Pettit who needs to be rebuked. It is Pastor John MacArthur who needs to be rebuked. It is Bob Jones University that needs to be rebuked. These religious leaders and groups all preach the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation. I am in agreement with the King James Bible (Romans 3:4).

It is the ungodly Lordship Salvation camp who must to be rebuked sharply.

Eternal life is a free gift, which you simply receive with childlike faith in Jesus as your personal Savior. That's it! We are the sinners, and Jesus is the Savior!

The reason why Bon Jones University, Master's University, Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary, and Moody Bible Institute have become so theologically corrupt and sinfully indifferent is because of the Devil's Bible revisions. They use, sell and promote umpteen Bible versions, confusing everybody. God only authored ONE BOOK, not two, not 256, not 900. The King James Bible is God's unbroken Scripture, as Jesus promised in John 10:35. As long as these reprobate religious leaders and apostate institutions continue to teach their damnable heresy, by God's grace I will continue to faithfully REBUKE THEM SHARPLY!!! Oh, dear reader, I love you enough to tell you THE TRUTH. I hope you love Jesus and care enough to take heed.

2.3.24 Rotten Fruit So Bad You Cannot Eat It (2021-03-22 09:30)

The LORD shewed me, and, behold, two baskets of figs were set before the temple of the LORD, after that Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon had carried away captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, and the princes of Judah, with the carpenters and smiths, from Jerusalem, and had brought them to Babylon. One basket had very good figs, even like the figs that are first ripe: and the other basket had very naughty figs, which could not be eaten, they were so bad.

Then said the LORD unto me, What seest thou, Jeremiah? And I said, Figs; the good figs, very good; and the evil, very evil, that cannot be eaten, they are so evil.

I am listening to the [1]Old Testament book of Jeremiah today. When I heard this passage it caught my attention.

Jeremiah 24:3,

One basket had very good figs, even like the figs that are first ripe: and the other basket had very naughty figs, which could not be eaten, they were so bad.

” This passage refers to the Israelites. Some were good (obedient) and some so bad (disobedient) that God compared them to rotten fruit (figs) that cannot be eaten.

This Scripture passage reminded me of America today. We have much rotten fruit in our country. And we also have much good fruit. The Bible says that God actually sent the good fruit into 70 years of captivity in Babylon

“FOR THEIR GOOD.

” Jeremiah 24:5,

“Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel; Like these good figs, so will I acknowledge them that are carried away captive of Judah, whom I have sent out of this place into the land of the Chaldeans for their good.

” Sometimes our great God will allow or cause suffering in our life for our own good, to conform us further into the image of His dear only begotten Son, Jesus.

The Israelites had become lackadaisical in their prosperity, much like the United State today. They had forgotten the Lord. In fact, for 490 years the Jews had stopped observing the Sabbath Day, one of their most important ceremonial laws which they were required to keep by God. Consequently, God chastised them with one year of captivity for every seven years they had refused to keep the Sabbath (hence, 490 years divided by 7 equals 70 years). Jeremiah 25:11, “And this whole land shall be a desolation, and an astonishment; and these nations shall serve the king of Babylon seventy years.” After 70 years of captivity, the Jews returned broken, healed and humbled to the land of Israel. Jeremiah 24:7, “And I will give them an heart to know me, that I am the LORD: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God: for they shall return unto me with their whole heart.”

Most people learn from their sins, crimes and failures in life, but some people are rotten and refuse to submit to the truth, learn and obey God. Jeremiah 24:8-10,

And as the evil figs, which cannot be eaten, they are so evil; surely thus saith the LORD*, So will I give Zedekiah the king of Judah, and his princes, and the residue of Jerusalem, that remain in this land, and them that dwell in the land of Egypt:

And I will deliver them to be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth for their hurt, to be a reproach and a proverb, a taunt and a curse, in all places whither I shall drive them.

And I will send the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, among them, till they be consumed from off the land that I gave unto them and to their fathers.

If We Obey, It Will Be Well; It We Disobey, It Will Be Hell

These

“EVIL” men which God refers to include king Zedekiah, the princes, and the false prophet Hananiah, to name but a few.

Jeremiah 28:12-13, “

Then the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah the prophet, after that Hananiah the prophet had broken the yoke from off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah, saying, Go and tell Hananiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD; Thou hast broken the yokes of wood; but thou shalt make for them yokes of iron.

” Jeremiah the prophet came before the king wearing a yoke of wood upon his shoulders, illustrating God’s commandment for Israel to yield to the king of Babylon. The Lord had assured the Jews, through Jeremiah’s preaching, that if they submitted themselves to Babylon to reign over them, they would be allowed to stay in their own houses and live in Israel for those 70 years. But if they refused and disobeyed God’s instructions, then Babylon would annihilate Jerusalem, kill many of them, ravish the women, butcher pregnant women, and carry away the surviving Jews into 70 years of captivity in a foreign land.

As Jeremiah spoke these words, the false prophet Hananiah broke the yoke of wood off his shoulders, rejecting Jeremiah’s truthful preaching. In so doing, Jeremiah warned that they had made YOKES OF IRON for themselves. One of my favorite MP3 sermons by Pastor Jack Hyles, based upon this Bible passage, is called:

“[2]IRON YOKE MAKERS!

Zedekiah didn’t listen to God’s man, Jeremiah. What happened to king Zedekiah is horrifying. When Babylon invaded Jerusalem they captured Zedekiah. Babylonian soldiers executed all 70 of the king’s sons while he was forced to watch, and then they put out his eyes. This was done so that this horrific scene would be the last thing Zedekiah ever saw. 2nd Kings 25:7, “And they slew the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, and put out the eyes of Zedekiah, and bound him with fetters of brass, and carried him to Babylon.” All Zedekiah had to do to avoid this was obey God. I want to quote this important Scripture passage to you, because it applies to America today:

Jeremiah 27:9-15, "Therefore hearken not ye to your prophets (e.g., Steve Pettit, Ray Comfort, John MacArthur, Marty Herron, Gary Walton, Billy Graham, Jesse Jackson, et cetera), nor to your diviners, nor to your dreamers, nor to your enchanters, nor to your sorcerers, which speak unto you, saying, Ye shall not serve the king of Babylon:

For they prophesy a lie unto you, to remove you far from your land; and that I should drive you out, and ye should perish.

But the nations that bring their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him, those will I let remain still in their own land, saith the LORD; and they shall till it, and dwell therein.

I spake also to Zedekiah king of Judah according to all these words, saying, Bring your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him and his people, and live.

Why will ye die, thou and thy people, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, as the LORD hath spoken against the nation that will not serve the king of Babylon?

Therefore hearken not unto the words of the prophets that speak unto you, saying, Ye shall not serve the king of Babylon: for they prophesy a lie unto you.

For I have not sent them, saith the LORD, yet they prophesy a lie in my name; that I might drive you out, and that ye might perish, ye, and the prophets that prophesy unto you.

God gave His Word to His people that everything would be fine, and there would be peace in the land, ONLY IF Zedekiah simply submitted under the yoke of Babylon. But men are sinfully proud by nature. That is why I have been banned and ostracized by the Harvest Baptist Church of Guam since 2014, because their pastors are sinfully proud, full of arrogance and [3]stiff-necked resistance to THE TRUTH. I say that kindly in love (Ephesians 4:15). I am just a humble broken sinner, A VOICE proclaiming the free grace Gospel of the inspired King James Bible. I am just A VOICE crying in the wilderness of cyberspace upon dear ears among the Bob Jones University crowd. Jeremiah 4:22, " For my people is foolish, they have not known me; they are sottish children, and they have none understanding: they are wise to do evil, but to do good they have no knowledge."

Jeremiah 5:3, " O LORD, are not thine eyes upon the truth? thou hast stricken them, but they have not grieved; thou hast consumed them, but they have refused to receive correction: they have made their faces harder than a rock; they have refused to return." I am just a mortal man. I am not an apostle; but I was saved, called to preach, trained and ordained as a minister of the Gospel in a New Testament church. God is on my side for one reasons, and one reason only, and that is because my preaching is in agreement with His Word. Romans 3:4,

"God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged."

Dear reader, we have a bunch of Hananiah's in our Bible colleges and churches today, who speak untruths they ought not. Titus 1:10-14, "

For there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, specially they of the circumcision:

Whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre's sake.

One of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The Cretians are alway liars, evil beasts, slow bellies.

This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith;

Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men, that turn from the truth.

Please notice the reason why we as believers are exhorted to

REBUKE THEM SHARPLY.

It is because they are teaching **"

Jewish fables

" (manmade traditions) and **"

commandments of men

" instead of the inspired Word of God. We are exhorted to REBUKE THEM SHARPLY so that they may be sound in the faith, because they are wrong in their doctrine. But even if they don't listen to heed THE TRUTH, it is good so that others who are simple people will learn.

1st Corinthians 11:19, " For there must be also heresies among you, that they which are approved may be made manifest among you." I was amazed and happy when I first found this Bible verse. The Bible literally says that we need heresy and false teachers, so that they can be used as a blank canvas upon which to paint THE TRUTH. I love that!

Beware Of False Teachers Bearing Rotting Fruit

We've got a bunch of Hananiah's today at Bob Jones University. Their Bible professors brain-wash their students to deny that we have an infallible, perfect and inspired English Bible today. That is so tragic and sad. You'd think that the one place in the world where someone's faith would be strengthened in the Word of God would be a "

Bible college.

" Unfortunately that is not the case. Just as a mother's womb statistically is the most dangerous place on earth to be, so also are today's apostate Bible colleges the most dangerous place for young people to be! [4]Pastor Jack Hyles explains how theologians had him messed up in the early years of his 55 years of ministry, because he was corrupted in Bible seminary!

Brother Hyles shares his unpleasant experience, how he went into Bible college believing his mother that every Word in the Bible is inspired by God; but years later when he graduated from East Texas Baptist College, he no longer believed that we have an infallible, perfect, inerrant and inspired Bible today. Thankfully, it was around the year 1982 right after Dr. John R. Rice (1895-1980) went to Heaven, that Dr. Hyles woke up and became a new champion of the inspiration of the King James Bible. You can hear Dr. Hyles proclaim this great truth in a positional sermon from 1994 titled: "

[5]THE BATTLE OF THE AGES.

Please beware of false teachers today like Hananiah who have crept into our Bible colleges and churches unawares. I guarantee you that every pastor who denies the inspiration and inerrancy of the King James Bible attended Bible seminary (which really ought to be called “preachers cemeteries” instead of preacher’s seminaries). If even one portion of God’s Word is corrupt today, then it could be any portion, and we have no way of knowing what is true or false, except that so-called Hebrew and Greek scholars tell us what is true or false.

Do you really think that God would leave the simple person at the mercy of manmade scholars? Did the omnipotent (all powerful), omniscient (all knowing), and omnipresent (all present), God of the universe fall short when it came to preserving His very pure inspired Words, unable to give us a perfect Bible in the English language in 2021? Most Christians believe God can do anything except give us a perfect Bible. Go figure! I love the folks at Bob Jones University. God knows my heart. The reason why I preach against them so much is because at one time, back in 1950, they were THE fundamentalist Bible college in the world. [6]Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) had the Gospel correct.

The Gift of Eternal Life Comes Wrapped In Jesus

The gift of eternal life comes wrapped in the wonderful wrapping of Jesus. If you don’t want the wrapping of Jesus, you don’t get the gift inside. I have witnessed to lost people who said they loved God, but cursed at the very mention of the precious name of Jesus. The Bible says they cannot go to Heaven with that horrible attitude. 1st John 2:23, “

Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: (but) he that acknowledgeth the Son hath the Father also.

” Many lost sinners think they love God, while at the same time vehemently hating the Son of God. The Bible calls them **“

antichrist

” in 1st John 2:22, “

Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son.

There is much rotten fruit in Neo-evangelical churches today, corrupting the Gospel. Kindly said, [7]Dr. Steve Pettit (president of Bob Jones University since 2014) is rotten in his theology, teaching a Calvinist false plan of salvation that denies an instant new birth. This is bad, really bad! Steve Pettit says, quote:

> “You can’t just speak about getting saved, and you accepted Christ, and then that’s it! There is a justification; There is a sanctification; There’s ultimately a glorification, and though there are three parts, they are all part of the whole, and you cannot separate them. In order for you to qualify for the award, you have to get into the race, you have to stay in the race, and you have to finish the race. If you want to win, you have to run to the end; and winning in the Christian life is everything, because if you lose—if you don’t finish—you lose everything—you lose your SOUL. And so, the Christian race is the life > of faith that begins, is run, and is finished when we cross over into Heaven!” —Dr. Steve Pettit (“What Does It Mean To Run ’The Race’?” - [8]11:34)

Dear friend, that is very rotten fruit! There is nothing in the Bible taught about having to get into a race, run the race, and faithfully finish the race to get to Heaven. Dr. Pettit heretically says if you fail to run the race, you lose everything including your soul. That is NOT the free grace of God that brings salvation. What Mr. Pettit is teaching (and he even uses the word in the preceding quote to condemn himself) is an “

AWARD.

” Dear friend, eternal life is a gift, not an award which you must qualify for. Pettit even uses the word

” The only qualification for receiving God’s free gift of eternal life is that of being an UNGODLY SINNER! ...

> Romans 5:6-9, “
>
> For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly.
>
> For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die.
>
> But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.
>
> Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him.

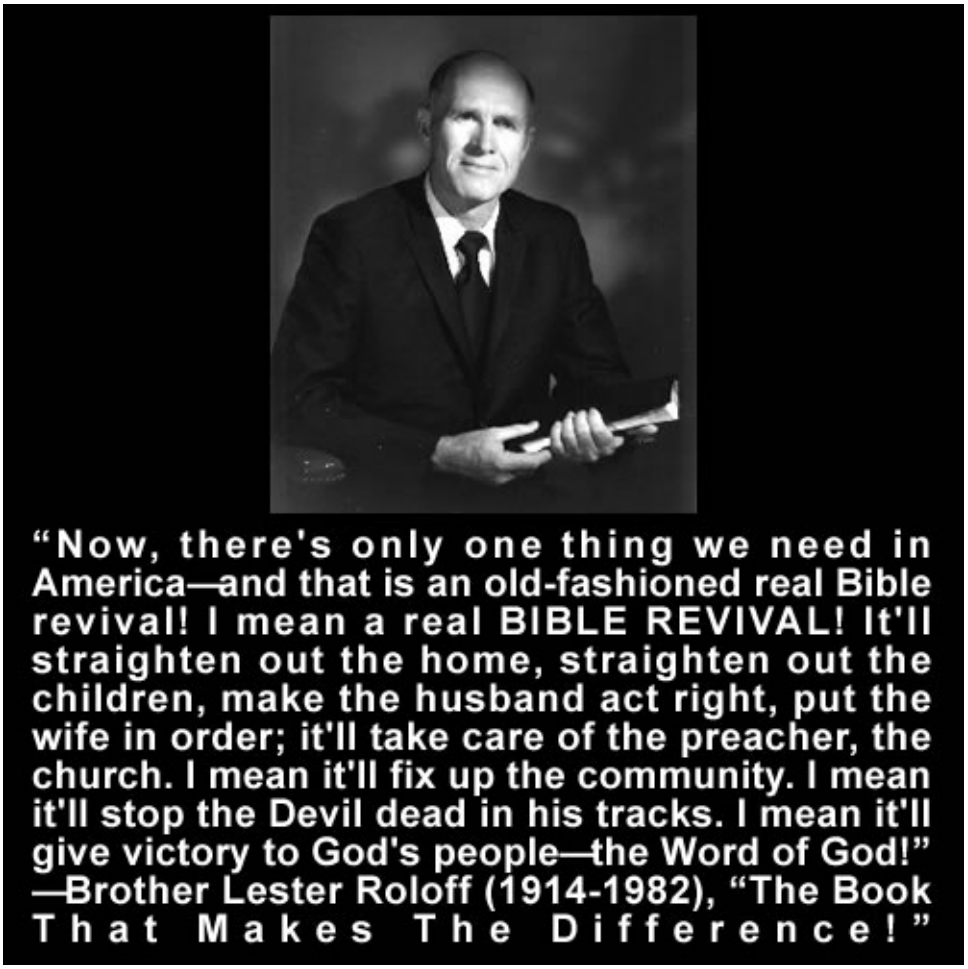
God only saves bad people!!! Did you know that Christ died for your righteousness too? My dear non-feathered friend, you and I have no righteousness to offer God. My best is filth to a holy God (Isaiah 64:6). God is incapable of sinning or even being tempted (James 1:13-14). That is why we need HIS RIGHTEOUSNESS! Matthew 6:33, “But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.” That Scripture speaks of the imputed righteousness of Jesus. Philippians 3:9, “ And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:” What a beautiful Bible verse and truth.

I can play many stringed instruments. I love the 5-string banjo. I like the style of Dave Hum, who plays by following the chords and his heart, not limiting himself to mere Bluegrass style. next to [9]Lloyd Green on pedal steel guitar , next [10]Dave Hum is my favorite musician . I love playing this song on the banjo. Lately I haven’t done much with my music, sad that I cannot find a wife, so I pray and work night and day on my website ministry (James 5:14).



I love music. At many times over the years, when I finally figured out how to play something or a new technique, whether it be on pedal steel guitar or banjo, I cannot explain the exuberant feeling of joy. That is exactly how I felt when I learned the beautiful doctrine of the imputed righteousness of God. Dear friend, you and I are saved by GOD’S RIGTHEOUSNESS!

Faith is the only righteous thing I can do!!! The very idea that someone needs to be willing to forsake their sinful bad habits to be saved is of the Devil. Who can forsake their sins?

Jeremiah 48:10, " Cursed be he that doeth the work of the LORD deceitfully, and cursed be he that keepeth back his sword from blood."

Salvation is of the Lord (Jonah 2:9). We have no part in God's salvation of our soul except the sin we contributed that made it necessary. Please don't eat the rotten fruit! Please don't eat Evangelist Ray Comfort's or Kirk Cameron's rotten fruit. Please don't eat Pastor John MacArthur's or Dr. Sam Horn's rotten fruit. Please don't eat Pastor John Piper's rotten fruit. Once food has turned rotten it cannot be made fresh again. Corrupt Bibles cannot be made incorrupt. A perverted Gospel cannot be made true again. The only remedy is to throw away the rotten fruit and eat only fresh and healthy fruit. Throw away your modern Bible versions. Abandon your Neo-evangelical cult that masquerades as a New Testament church.

Restoring one's spiritual health is no different than one's physical health. You've got to get rid of the junk food and start eating beans, vegetables, seeds, fresh meats and lots of mineral water. I am learning to make websites with CSS, which is fascinating to me. I love code. I am already skilled at HTML. I was watching some videos today (and there are some awesome free tools online to teach yourself how to make websites), but I needed to hear from my God. [11]So I turned on the book of Jeremiah. I heard [12]Proverbs yesterday. I strongly encourage you dear reader to start listening to the King James Bible daily if you have not been doing so. It will change your life. You'll start remembering things you heard earlier, life-changing beautiful truths. As I grow older, I find myself running to the Word of God like a starving man toward food. The Bible is not merely another book, it is a LIVING BOOK (Hebrews 4:12).

2.3.25 We Are Saved Because The Holy Spirit Endures, Not Us (2021-03-23 09:30)

Matthew 24:11-13, “And many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many. And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold.

But he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved*.

This is one of the most controversial passages in the Bible, the phrase: “He that shall endure unto the end shall be saved.” Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) wisely once said: “

A good rule to follow when interpreting the Bible is to never use an obscure passage to contradict a clear one.

” I couldn’t agree more! Having said that, I want to share the following helpful quote from Dr. John R. Rice (1895-1980) explaining the meaning of Matthew 24:13...

> “But he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved”
>
> (vs. 13). What does it mean? Arminians have often insisted that it meant people would be saved or kept saved by their own enduring, by their holy living. But that interpretation would contradict some of the plainest statements in the Bible like,
>
>
> For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: not of works, lest any man should boast
>
>
> (Eph. 2:8, 9). Again it is promised,
>
>
> Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life
>
>
> (John 5:24). Clearly one who trusts in Jesus Christ is saved. not by works, but by God’s grace.
>
> The Scripture makes clear that our salvation is solely on the merits of Jesus Christ and His atonement. “Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers; But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot” (I Pet. 1:18, 19). How could I ne saved by enduring to the end, and at the same time be saved by the precious blood of Christ? How could I be saved by enduring, yet be saved by grace and without works?
> No, the word saved here has a different context. Here in Matthew 24:13 Jesus is not speaking of the redemption of a soul. He speaks rather of the rescue of Jews in the midst of the tribulation. That tribulation is plainly described in verses 15 to 21, and verse 22 says, “And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved.” So the word “saved” in verse 13 and the word “saved” in verse 22 refer to the same thing: the salvation or rescue of the flesh of Jewish people during the tribulation. In mercy God will cut short the tribulation time and will rescue Jews out of the tribulation. Surely some Jew, greatly tempted and threatened with death in the tribulation time, will read this promise of Jesus with joy and faith. He will hold on to his faith, will not renounce the Saviour, and the time will be cut short and he will be rescued.

> It would be a serious mistake to make verse 13 refer to the great plan of salvation for the soul, for thus it would contradict many other plain statements in the Bible showing that salvation is not by works, not by man's goodness or faithfulness or endurance, but by virtue of the blood of Jesus Christ. That salvation is received by penitent faith.

I have three comments to make regarding what Dr. Rice just taught:

1. I agree 100 % on his interpretation of Matthew 24:13, that "saved" refers to the saving of human flesh during the Tribulation period, and not the saving of the soul.
2. I totally disagree that this passage refers to the Jews. What saith the Scripture? Matthew 24:22, "And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened." The elect (or chosen) refer to born-again believers, not Jews. God does not choose anyone to salvation, but for those who choose Jesus Christ, they are the chosen of God. Romans 2:28-29, "For he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh: But he is a Jew, which is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God." This passage plainly teaches that Physical Jews are not the recipient of God's promises, but saved Jews, which promises have also been extended to the Gentiles by faith. Galatians 3:7, "Know ye therefore that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham."
3. Nowhere does the Bible require "penitent faith" to receive the free gift of salvation. Respectfully, Dr. Rice is adding to the Scriptures! I don't like when preachers use language that are not found in the Bible. I triple-dog dare you to show me where the Bible speaks of "penitent faith." It does not! But I can show you hundreds of passages which plainly teach salvation by "faith" (Ephesians 2:8-9; Galatians 3:26; Romans 4:5-6). There is no mention of having a certain remorseful attitude toward sin. [1]Evangelist Alexander Marshall (1846-1928) gets it 100 % correct!!! Sorrow for sins may accompany repentance, but sorrow itself is not repentance. Judas felt sorrow for his sins, but it was a false repentance which did not lead to salvation (Matthew 27:3). Repentance is a change of mind unto the Gospel itself, so that the man who believes has repented, and the man who repents (i.e., changes his mind) has believed. Preachers must be extremely careful not to require what God does not require. The only "change of mind" which God requires to be saved is the acknowledgment of THE TRUTH (2nd Timothy 2:25), that one is a guilty sinner in the sight of God (Romans 3:19-20), in need of the Savior (Galatians 3:24-26). Dr. Rice further states:

> There are those hyper-dispensationalists who think that John the Baptist preached a different Gospel from Christ when he commanded repentance (Matt. 3:2). But it is the same repentance Jesus commanded in Matthew 4:17, in Luke 13:3 and 5, and the same repentance that Paul preached in Athens that God "now commandeth all men every where to repent" (Acts 17:30 31). Repentance is not a different plan of salvation from having faith: it is part of the same plan of salvation. Or rather repentance is simply another way of describing or looking at the plan of salvation. One who turns > from sin to God has done so by trusting in Jesus Christ. A change of mind toward sin is necessarily involved in saving faith.

>

I am far from done dear friend. Matthew 24:13 is a highly tortured Scripture! That is what the word “ wrest

means in 2nd Peter 3:16,

to torture

the Scripture! 2nd Peter 3:16,

“As also in all his epistles, speaking in them of these things; in which are some things hard to be understood, which they that are unlearned and unstable wrest, as they do also the other scriptures, unto their own destruction. ” One of my favorite Bible teachers is Pastor Harry Ironside (1875-1951), but he utterly made a grave error in his commentary on Matthew 24:13, applying it to the great plan of salvation...

> People say, "I see you believe in that old Baptist doctrine of ’once in grace, always in grace.’" Or another says, "I understand you hold that old Presbyterian idea of ’the final perseverance of the saints.’" I do not know why this should be called either Baptist or Presbyterian, only to the extent that Baptists and Presbyterians agree with the Book, and the Word of God clearly shows that once God takes us up in grace nothing can separate us from the love of Christ so that evidently the expression, "once in grace, always in grace," is a perfectly correct one. But, on the other hand, I am not so enthusiastic about the other expression, "the perseverance of the saints." I believe in it; I believe that all saints—all really belonging to God—will persevere to the end, for the Book tells me, "He that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved" (Matthew 24:13), and if a man starts out and makes a profession but gives it all up, he will never be saved, because he was never born again to begin with, he was never truly changed by grace divine. On the other hand, the reason he endures to the end is not because of any particular perseverance of his own. What I believe in, and what the Word of God clearly teaches, is the perseverance of the Holy Spirit. When He begins a work, He never gives up until it is completed. That is our confidence. I have two things to say about Dr. Ironside’s teachings above:

1. He is very mistaken to even cite Matthew 24:13 as pertaining to the great plan of salvation, which is obtained solely on the merit of Jesus’ precious blood and not human endurance to the end. No preacher ought ever even mention Matthew 24:13 when teaching salvation, unless you are exposing Calvinism.

2. I fully agree with Dr. Ironside that if a person who once professed Christianity, now denies Christianity altogether, they never experienced the new birth in the first place. There is no such thing as: "I used to be a Christian." You either are one now and always will be; or else you are not a Christian today and never have been. Christianity is not a philosophy, organization, culture or business, it is a NEW BIRTH! Just as the physical birth is irreversible, so also is the spiritual birth (John 1:12-13; 1st Peter 1:23). Albeit, Moody Bible Institute today falsely claims that Dr. Ironside moved toward "[4]a position of moderate Calvinism" toward his latter ministry, based on nothing more than the preceding comment I shared with you from his book. Dr. Ironside plainly stated that he does not believe in the Perseverance Of The Saints heresy, except that he believes the Holy Spirit will persevere in every believer, if one is truly born-again. I fully agree! This has absolutely nothing to do with the believer's dedication, faithfulness or holiness; but rather, God's faithfulness to never leave nor forsake any believer (Hebrews 13:5).

By foolishly citing Matthew 24:13 in reference to the great plan of salvation, Dr. Ironside gave reprobate Calvinists an inch, so they took a foot! Although wrong in his application of Matthew 24:13, it is clear from Pastor Ironside's own words that he did not like nor teach the heresy that any believer must " in holiness and service to Christ to be saved. This is a very big deal dear reader, because wicked false teachers like Dr. Steve Pettit (president of Bob Jones University since 2014) are preaching that... well, read his heretical words for yourself:

> "You can't just speak about getting saved, and you accepted Christ, and then that's it! There is a justification; There is a sanctification; There's ultimately a glorification, and though there are three parts, they are all part of the whole, and you cannot separate them. In order for you to qualify for the award, you have to get into the race, you have to stay in the race, and you have to finish the race. If you want to win, you have to run to the end*; and winning in the Christian life is everything, because if you lose—if you don't finish—you lose everything—you lose your SOUL. And so, the Christian race is the life of faith that begins, is run, and is finished when we cross over into Heaven!" [emphasis added] —[5]Dr. Steve Pettit ("What Does It Mean To Run 'The Race'?" - [6]11:34)

Ephesians 1:13-15 teaches that every believer is sealed with God's Holy Spirit at the time of salvation. The Holy Spirit will NEVER leaves the Christian, not for any reason (Hebrews 13:5). When we sin, grace more abounds (Romans 5:20). The believer is no longer under the curse of the law, but is now under God's grace forever. Once saved, always saved (OSAS). Anyone who denies OSAS is NOT saved, because they are requiring more than God does for redemption.

Adding even the least human effort to faith cancels grace. Dear reader, God is faithful (1st Corinthians 3:9). We are kept saved because God is faithful, not because we are faithful. If we have to live a holy life to prove that we are saved, then faith is not enough. We are saved because the indwelling Holy Spirit endures, not because we endure! When we got saved, we accepted a free gift, and that gift is eternal life. Romans 6:23, " For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

2.3.26 The Bible Encourages Us To Invest In Heavenly Riches (2021-03-24 09:30)

Matthew 6:16-21, “

Moreover when ye fast, be not, as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance: for they disfigure their faces, that they may appear unto men to fast. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

But thou, when thou fastest, anoint thine head, and wash thy face;

That thou appear not unto men to fast, but unto thy Father which is in secret: and thy Father, which seeth in secret, shall reward thee openly.

Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal:

But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal:

For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

Someone asked me today about investing in Bitcoin. My honest answer is that I don’t understand it enough to really give good advice on the matter. [1]But I did find this article.

I have always been leery of investing in anything that I cannot see, touch, eat, physically possess or live in. I can live in a home or rent it to someone. I can eat food in a restaurant business. These are tangible investments. I could be wrong, but to me Bitcoin is similar to the stock market, where you have tens of billions of dollars being invested into something that only exists on paper (or in the case of Bitcoin, a computer file). Here’s some [2]more information and a warning about Bitcoin...

My opinion is that believers are wise to invest in heavenly eternal rewards (Matthew 6:19-20). This world is full of greedy thieves, liars and cheats. In our text Scripture passage, Jesus encourages us to lay up treasures in Heaven, knowing that thieves cannot steal them, rust cannot corrupt them, moths cannot eat holes in them, and we have a sure investment. We can earn rewards in Heaven by helping spread the truth of the Gospel, which will lead others to Christ (Daniel 12:3). Also, by doing good deeds (Matthew 5:16). We can invest in eternity by laboring in prayer (Colossians 4:12). And by giving to the poor (Proverb 19:17). Even giving a cup of water in a disciple’s name will be rewarded by the Lord (Matthew 10:42). Everything that we do as Christians to further the Kingdom of God, help others, honor God and sacrifice for Jesus Christ will be rewarded. Every keystroke of my keyboard and click of my mouse will be rewarded in eternity by God (1st Corinthians 3:8-9). That is why I work so hard day and night. It is 4 am now.

I personally do not think it is a sin to invest in Bitcoin. Again, I have limited knowledge, so I am cautious in my humble opinion. I think Las Vegas style casino gambling is unethical for various reasons. I don’t think Bitcoin is a crapshoot, but I am not too familiar with it. I have no desire to learn about it either, I am busy investing in eternity. I think something that is unethical (not the honorable thing to do) is a sin. I think our greedy American society is a sin. You cannot eat at a restaurant anymore without them forcing you to pay them 10 %, because they feel like you owe them for waiting on you. It is unethical. They have no regard for customers anymore in the United States, they just take advantage of people. I deplore forced gratuity.

The people who own the casinos don’t do any labor. It is filthy lucre. The House always wins! Casinos provide illicit entertainment for thrill seekers, who blindly gamble away money. In many cases people lose their homes, cars and end up in court. The book of Proverbs has much to say about wealth obtained shadily. [3]I think lotteries are unethical, which is gambling. I think anyone or anything that preys upon addicts, covetous people, thrill seekers and hurting people in desperation for riches, is immoral. I hate casinos! They are cesspools of immorality, substance abuse, homosexuals and all manner of wickedness.

Having said that, investing in the stock market is a calculated move. That is quite different than merely throwing some dice on a roulette table. There are many different ways to invest in stocks. At one time between 1995 and 2000, I was heavily involved in the stock market. I made 130 call option trades in one year. I paid Charles Schwab about $6,000 in commissions just in 1999. I made $140,000 and then lost all of it! But I was a nervous wreck, losing sleep when my trades declined, and felt euphoric when my positions rose. It was an emotional rollercoaster. In the year 2000 when George W. Bush became U.S. President, the ".com" years of "irrational exuberance" (as Fed chairman Alan Greenspan called it) all came to a crashing end. I ended up losing $50,000 in the stock market. I was working midnight shift between 1993 to 2000 and hated my life. In 2000 I changed to an afternoon shift. I had forgotten how good life could be. Working the graveyard shift was one of the worst decisions I ever made! It adversely affected me physically, mentally and spiritually. I wasn't investing to get rich, I just wanted a way out of Sodom and Gomorrah at the U.S. Postal Service where I worked in Chicago at O-Hare Airport.

I decided to get out of the stock market for good in 2000. I have not bought a stock or call option since. By God's grace I began my website ministry in 2002, choosing to spend the rest of my life laying up treasures in Heaven. I have never regretted that decision. Thousands of people who come to Jesus as their personal Savior over the years because of this ministry, to God alone by the credit, praise and glory. I am just some clay, but God is my dear Potter Whom I serve and love. I don't regret my 5 years of investing between 1995 and 2000, because it taught me the value of a dollar, the vanity of earthly riches that disappear, and the great peace and joy of knowing that I have treasures laid up beyond the blue skies. It is a matter of living by faith. I have faith that God will keep His promises in His Word. 2nd Peter 1:4, "

Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises*: that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust."

I hope you don't mind that I shared my philosophy of wealth a bit with you. I love to be helpful. Having said all that, I think it is acceptable with God to invest in things, just so long as it is not immoral (booze, casinos, abortion, LGBTQ, et cetera). Also, it is important that no one suffer as a result of our gain. The state lotteries are evil. In many cases the states promise to use the money for public schools, but then spend the money elsewhere and the children suffer. The states lie and steal the money. I think that is evil. Donald Trump is a brilliant and admirable business man. I love the guy and miss him as U.S. President. However, Pastor Jack Hyles is right that Mr. Trump's success is not "good success." Donald Trump made his billions from strip clubs, gambling casinos and houses of sin. If you'd like to hear the sermon by Dr. Hyles, it is called: "[4]I Don't Want To Be A Success."

There is nothing more repulsive than a money hungry believer. Psalm 62:10, " Trust not in oppression, and become not vain in robbery: if riches increase, set not your heart upon them." My former landlord was always thinking about money, money, money. He disgusted me. No matter what went on, he saw money! Get the hell away from me! I detest money and those who relish in it. I love to give, without expecting anything in return. Very few believers are like that. When you truly love God, money means nothing to you anymore. The Harvest Baptist Church on Guam is all about money. They live for it! They relish in it! That is why I have been denied permission to even attend church services since 2014, because Harvest sees me as a threat to their money, because I am conte0versial in my King James Bible only beliefs. My website ministry is well known worldwide and makes them uncomfortable.

My only fault is that I loved them enough to TELL THE TRUTH. Like the Apostle Paul, I am counted as their enemy at Harvest Baptist Church of Guam because I told them THE TRUTH (Galatians 4:16). I did the right thing! I was the only one who cared enough to agree with God (Romans 3:4). Lordship Salvation is not the Gospel of free grace. The Westcott and Hort Bible revisions are all corrupted by the Devil, not inspired by God. The requirement to repent and turn away from one's sins to be saved is nowhere taught in the King James Bible. Yet, for exposing these untruths I have been blacklisted, shunned, avoided, ignored and cruelly ostracized by Harvest Baptist Church of Guam for the past 7 years!

It is my prayer that God would avenge me for their cruelty. I pray that God would avenge me of their wickedness, for them siding with error instead of truth. I pray that God would make Harvest's pastors sorry, regretful and wishing they had never been born. I want divine justice! Help oh Lord, for the godly man ceaseth! I am laying up treasures in Heaven, while Harvest Baptist Church of Guam continue to dig their own grave. This Bible, that Bible. This Gospel, that gospel. Nothing really matters at Harvest except their paychecks. Follow the money! I will be avenged someday, God promises it. Romans 3:4, " God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged.

These Bob Jones liars and deceivers will attempt to defend themselves by saying that salvation is only by grace. Yet I can take you to the [5]Catholic Vatican and show you where they say salvation is only by God's grace. Harvest's pastors have much blood on their hands, including mine. They have hurt an innocent man, who in fact told them THE TRUTH, but they rejected that truth. Pastors' Marty Herron and Gary Walton have my blood on their hands. These men in the clergy don't deserve any honor in any church! They do not teach the Word aright, but cast stumbling blocks before the people, by confusing sanctification with justification.

There is no greater way to lay up treasures in Heaven than to go soulwinning. But to do that we must also contend for the faith, exposing the [6]enemies of soulwinning that hinder men from coming to THE TRUTH of the Gospel to be saved. [7]Misunderstood repentance is an enemy of soulwinning. [8]Lordship Salvation is an enemy of soulwinning. [9]False Bibles are an enemy of soulwinning. Sadly, the Bob Jones crowd today are guilty of all three of these evils, working against the cause of Christ to get men saved! For exposing these evils I have been banned from attending church. I haven't had a church family in 7 years, because of Marty Herron and Gary Walton, and the Harvest Baptist Church of Guam. Bob Jones University is cult headquarters, leading the way into apostasy! They have no treasures in Heaven!!!

Galatians 3:1-2, "O foolish Galatians, who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you? This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?"

I was recently reading one of Dr. John R. Rice's books titled: "Dr. Rice: Here Are More Questions," in which he beautifully refutes the heresy of Lordship Salvation. The following is a question submitted to Dr. John R. Rice concerning professed Christians who live in sin:

Dr. John R. Rice

A concerned woman in a church made these comments to Brother Rice:

> We have young folks in our church who are supposed to be saved and who giggle and whisper all during church services and who say they 'just hate' church and 'can't stand' to listen to our pastor preach. They attend movies and worldly amusements. I feel that as pastors and Sunday school teachers we do not warn those enough who think they are saved but are not born again. Shouldn't we plead with them to go to the alter again?"

The following is Dr. Rice's response to the preceding question...

> "Being saved, born again, is one thing; learning to live a consecrated Christian life is an entirely different thing. There is not any way you can judge whether people are born again except as you take their testimony that they have put their trust in Jesus Christ and depended on Him for salvation. Some of these young people indeed may not have been taught to trust in Christ. If they were looking for "an experience," a certain kind of feeling or emotion, then they may have been misled. But if they honestly turned their hearts to Christ and depended on Him for salvation, they were saved.
> Now a Christian should live a consecrated Christian life but that does not automatically follow. People who are saved will find, like Paul, "When I would do good, evil is present with me . . . . So then with the mind I myself serve the law of God; but with the flesh the law of sin" (Romans 7:21,25).
> Every saved person still has the old carnal nature and often-times has the same kind of temptation he had before. Some people who have truly been born again have a desperate fight to quit tobacco, and some have never seemed to get the victory over that or other bad habits. Some Christians have never learned to trust the Lord enough to bring tithes and offerings, and some have never learned to win souls. When a baby is born, he is not born grown. Being born is one thing; growing is another thing entirely.

So the thing to do is to take for granted that people are saved when they trust Christ for salvation. Then one should set out to teach them to read the Bible daily, to learn to pray about their daily needs, to confess their sins and failures and grow in grace day by day. It is as foolish to expect young Christians to be good Christians by themselves as it is to expect a child, born in the family, to automatically be a great credit to the family without any rearing—whether they are spiritual babes or physical babes. I assure you that unless people are taught to be consecrated Christians, taught to read the Bible and pray, they are not likely to be good Christians, even if they are truly born again."

Dr. Rice is 100 % correct: "Being saved, born again, is one thing; learning to live a consecrated Christian life is an entirely different thing." A changed life comes from growing in grace as a result of genuine repentance; and not as a part of saving-faith itself. Salvation is receiving; NOT giving. There are many ministers today, such as John MacArthur, who falsely teach that one's salvation is CONDITIONAL upon the life we live. MacArthur states:

"Submission to the will of God, to Christ's lordship, and to the guiding of the Spirit is an essential, not an optional, part of saving faith." (EPHESIANS, p. 249)

"Salvation isn't the result of an intellectual exercise. It comes from a life lived in obedience and service to Christ as revealed in the Scripture; it's the fruit of actions, not intentions. There's no room for passive spectators: words without actions are empty and futile...The life we live, not the words we speak, determines our eternal destiny." (Hard to Believe, p. 93)

The Word of God calls John MacArthur a liar in Romans 4:5, "But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness." Could the Bible be any plainer? The Scriptures speak plainly that we are saved by Jesus' righteousness (Romans 10:3-4; 2nd Corinthians 5:21); and not any self-righteousness of our own (Isaiah 64:6; Ephesians 2:8,9; Titus 3:5). We are sinners; Jesus is the Savior.

John R. Rice is correct: "So the thing to do is to take for granted that people are saved when they trust Christ for salvation." Proponents of the Lordship Salvation heresy expect new believers to live a consecrated Christian life from the get-go of salvation. This is not reasonable nor Biblical. New believers need to be taught and discipled.

Dr. Rice states in his excellent book, Dr. Rice... Here is My Question...

"When you get saved, you get saved not because you deserve it, but because you simply let God save you and because you confess your own poor sinful state and your inability to save yourself."

SOURCE: Dr. Rice... Here is My Question, by Dr. John R. Rice, pg. 304; 1962, Sword of the Lord Publishers; ISBN: 0-87398-158-8

I couldn’t agree more. This is what the Bible teaches. Dr. Rice also states in his Gospel tract, What Must I Do To Be Saved:

> “The change in your heart, sinner, is God’s part and you may be sure He will attend to that. Your part is to simply believe in Him. Whatever else is necessary in your eternal salvation, the Lord attends to when you trust in Him, or believe in Him.”
> SOURCE: [1]What Must I DO To Be Saved, by Dr. John R. Rice

Amen! Dr. Rice is correct. Who are we to judge whether or not a person is sincere. There’s a self-righteous group today in our churches, who demand a changed-life as a prerequisite for salvation. This is unbiblical, a heresy, and a perversion of the simple Gospel of Christ Jesus. The thing to do is to take for granted that people are saved when they simply trust Jesus Christ for salvation.

2.3.28 Beware Of The Heresy Of Religious Zionism (2021-03-25 09:30)

Romans 2:28-29, “ For he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh: But he is a Jew, which is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God. ”

There has been much confusion caused in the churches by theological Zionists, which I am against. One such preacher is Dr. William P. Grady, who has authored about a dozen books, most of which idolize Jews as "The Master Race." It is totally unbiblical. There is only one human race. The Bible teaches that an outward Jew is not a Jew in God’s sight. Only in inward Jew, that is, a born-again believer by faith is a Jew in God’s sight.

The Bible couldn’t be any clearer. Unsaved Jews go to Hell, just like unsaved Gentiles. And saved Gentiles go to Heaven, just like saved Jews. Galatians 3:26-29 plainly teaches that God is no respecter of person, that there is no difference between Jew or Greek, male or female, bond or free, rich or poor; we are all ONE in Jesus Christ our Savior. Since the beginning of human civilization salvation has always been through a line of faith. There never was a time when unsaved Jews were heirs of the promises of God.

That is why I don’t believe in Replacement Theology, because there was never anything to replace. The promises that God made to Old Testament Jews under Moses were conditional upon their obedience (Exodus 19:5-6). Galatians 3:16, “ Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Christ. ”

Clearly the promises were made to CHRIST, and not to the Jews. So if we are in Christ by faith, then we become heirs of all the promises God made to Abraham and under Moses. Only those who believe in Christ will be partakers of God’s blessings as promised. This is basic Bible, but 90 % of churches have gone wacky nowadays with Zionism.

Other Zionists to beware of are Jack Chick, John Hagee, Pat Robertson, Paul Chappell, Charles Lawson, James Knox, James Modlish, and a bunch more.[1] Pastor J. Vernon McGee got it right about Israel. Israel is no different than any other heathen country today, and should be acknowledged as such. Luke 21:24, " And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations: and Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled. "

This Bible verse teaches us that Israel today has NO divine promise of protection. Russia could bomb Israel today and it would be Biblical. Jerusalem SHALL be trodden down by the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled (i.e., the Lord's Second Coming after the Tribulation period). During the Tribulation, one-third of Jerusalem will be slaughtered. Revelation 17:18 says Jerusalem is the whore! She will be burned with fire by the Antichrist. So much for Zionism.

By the way, "Zionism" is defined as the effort to restore Jews to their homeland. But God scattered them for a reason, because of their sin. The Jews have still not repented toward God. So God will not bless them until their turn to Jesus Christ (Hosea 3:4-5). Zionism today is the same as Abraham and Sarah taking matters into their own hands. They didn't want to wait for God to give them a son. So Sarah contrived a plot to have Abraham impregnate their servant girl Hagar (which was the sin of adultery). God refused to accept Ishmael as the son of promise. Abraham and Sarah had to wait another 15 years for Isaac to be born. This is what Zionists are doing today, trying to force God's hand of blessing upon a homosexual wicked nation like Israel. Tel Aviv, Israel, is dubbed as: "[2]A Gay Paradise." God will not bless that filth. Modern manmade Israel is as Ishmael, that is, an illegitimate birth.

I do not believe that God is cursing the United States because of anything going on in Israel today. Unbelievably, William P. Grady in his book: "How Satan Turned America Against God," actually claims that God is cursing America because we don't help Israel enough. That is preposterous. Zionists are so brainwashed that they overlook the fact that Americans are guilty of murdering 60,000,000 human beings in the womb since Roe vs. Wade in 1971. That alone is enough to bring God curse upon America!

America was founded by Freemasons. There was a plot for world government going back to Genesis 11:1-11 at the Tower and City of Babel. To hinder their work, God confounded them, which led to segregation worldwide. The different nations were formed. In these end times God has allowed the Devil to breakdown these lines of racial, national and religious barriers, once again finishing what Satan started at Babel. This is the diabolical New World Order.

America didn't end up in the mess it is today by mere neglect. The Holy Bible was removed from our schools in 1963, which has been the nails in our coffin as a nation. Hollywood has been progressively waxing worse and worse. But the one thing that gives it all away, and convinces me 100 % that Satan is behind all of this, are the abundance of occult symbols in everything in the media, and even religion. Satan is the god of this world (2nd Corinthians 4:4). America has been targeted from day one to be used as a vehicle by which to bring about a New World Order. Here are just a few of thousands of photos I could show you of the Devil's hand in everything today.

These are signs of Satan, and they are everywhere today. They were here before we were born, and they'll be here long after we are gone from this world. The conspiracy for a NWO is generational, spanning millennia. What we need to do as Christians is "fear God and keep His commandments" (Ecclesiastes 12:13). This is the whole duty of man the Bible says. The Devil is always trying to imitate the things of God, so he can infiltrate and then corrupt. That is why the Devil has published literally hundreds of English Bible revisions, to confuse everybody. It is a brilliant war strategy of Satan. That is why Lordship Salvation is continually being crept into the churches, along with Wrong Repentance, to imitate the true free grace Gospel to infiltrate and corrupt the churches, making people religious instead of born-again. The Devil is a master deceiver and a liar (John 8:44). We see how easily the serpent tricked Eve (Genesis 3:1-5).

Sin Is Why America Is So Messed Up Today

So having said all that. The Devil has been targeting Americans for generations now with immoral music, immoral Hollywood movies, insane ungodly laws, oppressive government agencies, and relentlessly promoting garbage like abortion the LGBTQ agenda. I am shocked that any sane person would accept this as okay. Yet humans are so easily manipulated and desperately wicked the Bible says (Jeremiah 17:9), that anything is possible (Jeremiah 7:9-10). So all of the mess we see in America today is the consequence of a nation that has gone the way of many nations before, such as the Roman empire. Mankind has never been able to govern himself. That is why God gave us the Holy Bible. Every legitimate court system in this world has some basis in the Old Testament civil laws.

Of the 6 judges who removed the Bible from our public schools, 4 of them were Freemasons. So when we consider the sinful heart of man, and that there is a blatant Satanic conspiracy at work to kill, steal and destroy America; it is obvious why our nation is in the mess it is in. The Devil cannot make anyone sin, but demonic spirits can inspire the sinful hearts of men with lust, greed and hate, stirring those passions to commit horrible sins. So if it weren't for all the Hollywood filth, raunchy music videos aimed at teenagers, secular philosophies, deplorable music and Satanic infiltration of churches today, our world wouldn't be near as bad. During the millennium Satan will be bound in chains in the bottomless pit. What a day that will be. The world will still have human beings in it, who will have survived the Tribulation. It will be a time of peace such as the world has never known. So we are at war today with the Devil (1st Peter 5:8).

According to Ephesians 6:12-18, our 7 spiritual weapons of war as believers are: faith, salvation, prayer, Gospel, Word of God, righteousness and truth. The churches are losing many battles today, because churches are boring compared to entertainment. That is why my Twitter posts get 38 views, and Paul Stanley of KISS gets 12,000 views. Young people today are as worldly as can be. The world has always been a wicked place (1st John 5:19). But with technology, it has allowed mankind to travel further down the road he was already on. There has never been a need to preach the Gospel any greater than today, yet our churches are in shambles, and making money is the primary and in many sad cases, the only real goal.

America is in the mess we're in today because Christians sat back idle and did nothing, while the Devil came in and took control. Every generation must rediscover the truth for itself. That is just human nature. Thankfully, I was taught well by godly men such as Pastor Jack Hyles. The mantle of sound doctrine was handed to me, and other preacher boys, and I am handing the mantle off to the next generation. 2nd Timothy 2:2, " And the things that thou hast heard of me among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also. "

There are so many aspects as to why America is a mess today, but the major underlying problem is a departure from faith in the Word of God. For example: The reason why there are so many homeless people, and there are rusting cities all throughout America's Midwest, is because of the fraudulent central banking system (funny money as Dr. Ron Paul calls it), and the sending of tens of millions of American jobs to foreign soil. I have been watching hundreds of YouTube videos about where to live or not live. [3]Nick Johnson and [4]The World According To Briggs are two of my favorite YouTube channels. But the reason why the central banks exist is because of the greed of evil people, and the wickedness of our entrusted leaders who betrayed that trust (e.g., President Woodrow Wilson).

I am shocked how many ghost towns exist today across America. Lima, Ohio was once a thriving town, but today is a deserted dump of poverty and drugs, because of the evils of deindustrialization. Our elected leaders did this to us and we let them! Since 1913 the criminal Federal Reserve Act has given wealthy private families complete control over our money supply, taking it away from congress prior to that. They literally decide what a dollar is worth. That is why Americans have to work 30 to 40 years, slaving to pay off an insane mortgage loan. The first 20 years of payment goes just for THE LOAN from the banks. They are evil criminals. But why did this happen?

It is because of immoral people who didn't care enough to fight against evil, and this all goes back to what I said about a nation having faith in God's Word. This is all about the Gospel. Born-again Christians who grow in Christ's likeness make much better citizens than unsaved people who walk in the flesh. That is why America is so corrupt today. We've got a bunch of selfish lost sinners in charge. We've got a bunch of complacent Christians hiding in their closed off churches, and preachers are mere salaried employees nowadays, not called men of God who would rather starve to death than not preach the truth!

The churches are all about entertainment today. If there is any preaching at all, preachers dare not preach about conspiracies, feminism, the Federal Reserve, abortion or things that offend people. Pastor Grayson Fritts was forced out of his job as a decorated police officer for telling the truth about Leviticus 20:13. Pastor Steven Anderson was kicked off YouTube for preaching against controversial subjects like feminism, LGBTQ, and even Modalism. We've allowed the heathen world to put a leash on preachers today!

The quick answer to why America is so messed up is a departure from faith in the infallibility of the inspired King James Bible. These modern wishy-washy Bibles do major damage, turning people off to the Bible. Who wants a source of truth that comes in 39 different flavors? The Bible publishing craze tells young people that nothing is absolute. We've lost our conviction as a nation. Tough preachers are under vicious attack today. Never before have pastors been so discouraged. I read not too long ago that thousands of pastors quit every year. I wish they would all quit, and let true men of God stand behind our nation's pulpits. We need righteous preachers again, who have a burning passion for THE TRUTH, and a genuine LOVE for all people!

[5]Jack Chick used to claim that 40 tornadoes destroyed the Midwest because America is not helping Israel enough. I am so sick of that kind of religious superstition. Yet, Mr. Chick showed zero compassion for lost Arabs who need Christ. That is very wrong. Jews are no more special than Gentiles. America is in the mess we're in because of our own love for sin, indifference, cowardice to stand up against the government, failure to heed the multiple warnings from our founding fathers, and a departure from faith (obedience) to the inspired Word of God. Thank you for reading. I love you with Christ's love, whoever you may be!

2.3.29 In The Multitude Of Words There Wanteth Not Sin (2021-03-26 09:30)

Proverbs 10:19, “

In the multitude of words there wanteth not sin: but he that refraineth his lips is wise.

James 3:5-10, “

Even so the tongue is a little member, and boasteth great things. Behold, how great a matter a little fire kindleth!

And the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity: so is the tongue among our members, that it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the course of nature; and it is set on fire of hell.

For every kind of beasts, and of birds, and of serpents, and of things in the sea, is tamed, and hath been tamed of mankind:

But the tongue can no man tame; it is an unruly evil, full of deadly poison.

Therewith bless we God, even the Father; and therewith curse we men, which are made after the similitude of God.

Out of the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not so to be.

The Bible teaches that every form of wild beast has been tamed by mankind, but the human tongue CANNOT be tamed. We find the reason why from reading the following passages of Scripture. Jeremiah 17:9, “The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it?” Matthew 12:34, “O generation of vipers, how can ye, being evil, speak good things? for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh.” Every saint has a past and every sinner has a future! Amen! The Bible says in the multiple of words (i.e., much speaking) there wanteth not sin.

Due to the sinful nature of our heart as humans, the more we talk there is an increased likelihood that we will say something we ought not say. God knows that I am as guilty as anyone. That is why I don’t talk much in a group. And when I do talk I am careful to avoid talking about people. Pastor Jack Hyles taught me the following:

> Great minds talk about ideas.
>
> Good minds talk about things.
> Weak minds talk about people.

We feel better badmouthing people who have hurt us. It is in our nature to be vindictive, even if only verbally. But our words can be just as deadly as murdering someone with a hatchet. In Revelation 12:10b Satan is called “ the accuser of the brethren

” The Devil doesn’t accuse the world, he accuses the saints. When you are a Christian, the whole world is waiting for you to fall. A wicked man can tell a dirty joke in the workplace, and other wicked men will laugh and think nothing of it. But if a Christian man tells a dirty joke in a moment of weakness, his ungodly co-workers will make sure to let everyone in the workplace know what awful thing he said, to tarnish his Christian testimony and bring reproach upon his name. What saith the Scripture? ...

John 15:17-19 “

These things I command you, that ye love one another.

If the world hate you, ye know that it hated me before it hated you.

If ye were of the world, the world would love his own: but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you.

You don’t have to be worldly as a Christian to be hated by the world, you just have to be a Christian. Telling the lost world that you are a Christian immediately gets their attention. Romans 1:18-19, “For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness; Because that which may be known of God is manifest in them; for God hath shewed it unto them.” Even the vilest of sinners know what a true Christian is supposed to live like. Unsaved people can spot a phony Christian a mile away!

So if you tell anyone that you are a Christian, they will hold you to a higher standard than by which they shamefully live. You may join them at the strip club and live a sinful life in their sight, but they will not respect you. In fact, at some point you will learn that they felt contempt for you for your hypocrisy. They know what they are, being heathens. But they also know what you should be as a Christian. As the Bible says, they hold the truth in unrighteousness. You cannot fool God or man dear friend. If you are a phony as a Christian, the world will see right through you.

That is why Lot’s son-in-laws laughed at him, as one who mocked, when he tried to speak to them concerning spiritual things. Lot was an unfaithful man, and the Bible says in

Proverbs 25:19,

Confidence in an unfaithful man in time of trouble is like a broken tooth, and a foot out of joint.

” A broken tooth is very painful. A foot out of joint is very painful. Lot’s confidence in a time of trouble was a painful experience for the family, because they didn’t take him seriously. Our testimony precedes our words.

We Don't Need To Know Everything People Say About Us

King Solomon teaches an important principle about gossip. Solomon said that we ought not try to know all the scuttlebutt about everyone. Solomon in his wisdom gave people room to criticize him, knowing that they were mere humans. Solomon admits in the following Scripture passage that he too has said bad things about people, which he shouldn't have said, and later regretted. So being an honest man, the king understood that his servants weren't any different than him. We are all human, and we all say things we ought not say sometimes. So we should love each other and not seek to micro-analyze everything around us. In other words, we ought to learn to let people be people, and love them unconditionally. ...

> Ecclesiastes 7:17-22, "Be not over much wicked, neither be thou foolish: why shouldest thou die before thy time?
>
> It is good that thou shouldest take hold of this; yea, also from this withdraw not thine hand: for he that feareth God shall come forth of them all.
>
> Wisdom strengtheneth the wise more than ten mighty men which are in the city.
>
> For there is not a just man upon earth, that doeth good, and sinneth not.
>
> Also take no heed unto all words that are spoken; lest thou hear thy servant curse thee:
>
> For oftentimes also thine own heart knoweth that thou thyself likewise hast cursed others.

Solomon says that there is not a just man. We are all sinners! The Bible says every beast of the field has been tamed, but the human tongue cannot be tamed. It is poison. The human tongue is subtle, like a deadly snake. The art of gossip is inherited at birth. Solomon realized that he would be a nervous wreck, and die prematurely from stress, if he micromanaged his kingdom and made a big deal out of every little criticism found among his servants. Solomon literally didn't want to hear it! And that is a Biblical truth.

If someone slanders me on the internet, please don't tell me. I love everyone, even the people who criticize me. If I can make something on my ministry websites better, then I'd like to know. I don't like, care nor want to hear about the horrible things people say about me.

Mark Twain was right: "It takes your enemy and your friend, working together, to hurt you to the heart: the one to slander you and the other to get the news to you." Now you better understand the meaning of "faithful are the wounds of a friend" (Proverbs 27:6a). Philippians 4:8 commands us as believers to think on things that are honest, lovely, of good report, true and edifying.

The Devil Is An Accuser And A Liar

That is why I don't watch the daily news daily. It is a bunch of cleverly fabricated propaganda, disinformation and utter lies. Remember, the Devil's most notable characteristic is that of being A LIAR (John 8:44; Revelation 12:9). Jesus warned that the Devil is a thief, who comes only to kill, steal and destroy. Thankfully, Jesus came to give us eternal life (John 10:9-10). If you are saved, you already possess eternal life. The Bible exhorts us to LAY HOLD on it, and make the best of our short time upon the earth, living for Christ (1st Timothy 6:12).

I read a Twitter post by [1]Pastor Joel C. Fugate which is 100 % true:

"Don't forget that the whole point of the 'main stream media' is to make enough noise that you don't know the truth!" God only knows how many billions of hours, accumulatively, that Americans have foolishly spent thinking and talking about Hillary Clinton's emails. I didn't listen to any of it. The mainstream newsmedia is controlled by Luciferian elite criminals, who know that most people are extremely shallow, and simple minds are easily deceived. Proverbs 14:15, " The simple believeth every word: but the prudent man looketh well to his going."

The only thing you can believe from the newsmedia is the date. Jesus said that the children of darkness are sometimes wiser than the children of light (Luke 16:8). I marvel at the woeful ignorance of millions of saints today concerning the Devil's fake Bible versions, the dangers of the heresy of Lordship Salvation, the sinful denial that we have an infallible King James Bible today, the hoax of manmade Zionism, the blatant criminal fraud of the central banking system, and the naivety of the saints concerning just about everything going on in the world today.

Be Very Careful What You Say Publicly About Others

The most destructive accusations are true ones! Proverbs 10:12, "

Hatred stirreth up strifes: but love covereth all sins.

" Humans can be so cruel. All over the internet there is accusations, slander and scuttlebutt about Christians, uploaded by hateful trolls. There is no pardon nor forgiveness in the eyes of a critic. Once a Christian's sins (or anyone's for that matter) is uploaded to the internet, or even false accusations against someone, it becomes a permanent record against their name. Literally, anybody can say anything about anybody nowadays, and it is assumed to be the truth, and is used against them for the rest of their life.

What saith the Scripture? 1st Timothy 5:24, "

Some men's sins are open beforehand, going before to judgment; and some men they follow after. " The only difference between a Christian who is smeared all over the internet, and the ungodly person(s) smearing their name, is that we won't find out about the other person's sins until a later time. The Bible says all men are woeful guilty sinners! The harder you bash people who have sinned, the harsher will be your judgment when you stand before God. Matthew 7:1-3, "Judge not, that ye be not judged.

For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again.

And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye?

" I dare not condemn any sinner, for I feel like I am the biggest sinner I know.

I am not talking about looking the other way to protect criminals, God forbid. I am not saying that we shouldn't speak up about ongoing sin. That is not what the Bible is teaching. 1st Timothy 5:20, " Them that sin rebuke before all, that others also may fear." Nor does it mean that you must trust someone who has forfeited that right. It simply means that everyone deserves a second chance. What is in the past is in the past. If someone has messed up, they should be given a chance to exist without constantly having dirt thrown in their face. You've got bitter hateful critics on the internet slinging mud from thirty years ago about people. That is a horrible sin.

If We Judge Ourselves, We Shall Not Be Judged

Preaching against present-day open sin in society is a pastor's duty! Albeit, no one has a right to condemn or harass someone for their past sins, failures and mistakes, if they have been held accountable for them. If someone has done evil, but never made things right with their victims, then that is another story. No one has a right to expect pardon or forgiveness from people they've never tried to make reconciliation with. You can rest assure that God will address the matter. 1st Thessalonians 4:6, "That no man go beyond and defraud his brother in any matter: because that the Lord is the avenger of all such, as we also have forewarned you and testified."

Yet we are promised by God in 1st Corinthians 11:31, "For if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged.

" Speaking to the saints, if we take care of a difficult matter here on earth, then God won't have to at The Judgment Seat Of Christ (2nd Corinthians 5:9-11; Psalms 6:1). Many believers are in big trouble with the Lord, because in their pride they sinfully refuse to go make things right with their brother or sister in the Lord whom they've defrauded. We should just go ahead and forgive that person, and commit the handling of the matter into God's hands for judgment (Romans 12:19-21). No one ever gets away with anything wrong (Hebrews 4:13; Ecclesiastes 12:13-14; Proverbs 15:3; 24:12).

2.3.30 Who Are “The Elect” Of God In The Bible? (2021-03-27 09:30)

Galatians 3:28-29, "There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus. And if ye be Christ’s, then are ye Abraham’s seed, and heirs according to the promise."

God has chosen to save all those who choose to be saved. That is what "elect" means.

The "elect" refers to the saved, Jews and Gentiles alike.

God in the Old Testament chose the nation of Israel to be ambassadors of the Gospel to the world...

> Isaiah 45:4, "For Jacob my servant's sake, and Israel mine elect, I have even called thee by thy name: I have surnamed thee, though thou hast not known me."

The promise was conditional upon their obedience to God...

> Exodus 19:5-6, "Now therefore, if ye will obey my voice indeed, and keep my covenant, then ye shall be a peculiar treasure unto me above all people: for all the earth is mine: And ye shall be unto me a kingdom of priests, and an holy nation. These are the words which thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel."

The Jews rebelled against God, so He divorced Israel...

> Jeremiah 3:8, "And I saw, when for all the causes whereby backsliding Israel committed adultery I had put her away, and given her a bill of divorce; yet her treacherous sister Judah feared not, but went and played the harlot also."

God turned to the Gentiles instead to preach the Gospel to the world, to provoke Israel to jealousy. Israel was destroyed in 722 BC (Samaria - northern kingdom), and 586 BC (Judaea - southern kingdom). The PROMISE to Israel was always a line of faith, as we read in Exodus 19:5-6. Also, Deuteronomy chapter 28. At no time did any unsaved Jew ever go to Heaven. The Bible teaches that unsaved Jews are not heirs of the promise...

> Romans 2:28-29, "For he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh: But he is a Jew, which is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God."

So a biological Jew (ethnically) is NOT a Jew the Bible says. A saved Jew is a true Jew in God's sight! The promise of salvation by faith was given to the Jews first, but was afterwards also extended to the Gentiles (all non Jews)...

> Galatians 3:14-16, "That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith. Brethren, I speak after the manner of men; Though it be but a man's covenant, yet if it be confirmed, no man disannulleth, or addeth thereto. Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Christ."

The church does NOT replace Israel. Even though God divorced the Jews (cut them off), the Bible says that Jews can still obtain the promise BY FAITH. ...

> Romans 11:23-24, "And they also [THE JEWS], if they abide not still in unbelief, shall be graffed in: for God is able to graff them in again. For if thou wert cut out of the olive tree which is wild by nature, and wert graffed contrary to nature into a good olive tree: how much more shall these, which be the natural branches, be graffed into their own olive tree?"

Jews today can still have the blessings God made to them in the Old Testament, but only BY FAITH in Jesus Christ. That same promise is given to any Gentile who believes in Jesus. The Apostle Peter wrote the following to the Jews, which is a quote from the Old Testament, but it 100 % also applies to the Gentiles, to all who BELIEVE in Jesus...

> 1st Peter 2:7-10, "Unto you therefore which believe he is precious: but unto them which be disobedient, the stone which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner, And a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offence, even to them which stumble at the word, being disobedient: whereunto also they were appointed. But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light: Which in time past were not a people, but are now the people of God: which had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy."

The unsaved Jews in the Old Testament were NOT God's children...

> Romans 9:8, "That is, They which are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God: but the children of the promise are counted for the seed."

Only those Jews who HAD FAITH were counted for the seed. The promise was never made to the Jews, but to CHRIST. The promise was to the seed (singular), not to seeds (plural). ...

> Galatians 3:16, "Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Christ."

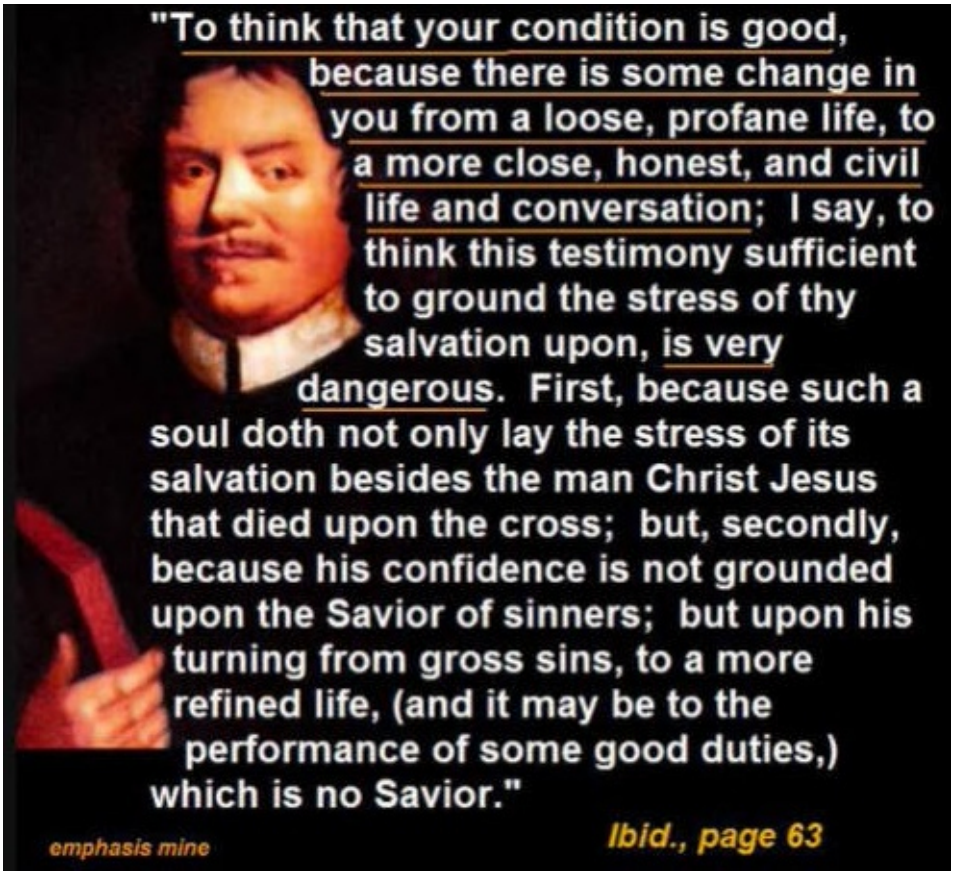
God the Father promised Jesus before the world began (Titus 1:2), that anyone who believed in Him would be saved.



> Galatians 3:16, "Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Christ."

That's what the Bible says. God had already made the promise of salvation by faith before the world began. God shared that promise with Abraham, beginning with the Jews, and later to the Gentiles. That great promise is salvation through faith in Christ.

> Acts 10:43, "To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins."

God has chosen to save all those who choose to be saved! That is what "elect" means. Physical Jews have never been the elect of God, only those who had faith. And the Bible says in Galatians 3:28-29 that whether Jew or Gentile, we are all of the seed and promise of Abraham through faith in Christ. There has always been only one plan of salvation, by faith alone. Pastor Ralph "Yankee" Arnold preached a helpful sermon called: "[1]Understanding The Elect Of God." God has chosen to save all those who choose to be saved! That is what "elect" means.

2.3.31 Disney "Holy Land Experience" Run By Charismatics (2021-03-28 09:30)

Jude 1:4, "For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ."

One of Walt Disney's main attractions at Disney World is the "[1]Holy Land EXPERIENCE."

Here we go again with the word "experience," [2]which is so frequently used by Charismatics. Everyone is being taught to seek an experience nowadays, while they're all headed in their sin and unbelief for the Lake of Fire. The Devil is a beautiful liar! The Walt Disney corporation is so evil, mocking the Lord's death on the cross, burial and bodily resurrection by turning the grace of God into lasciviousness. Jude 1:4, "For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ." The infallible Holy Bible has been reduced to a theme park attraction!

Walt Disney as much as Hollywood is promoting immorality today. In their shows, Disney heavily promotes disobedience to parents, contempt for the Bible, whorish clothing for girls, rock n' roll music, selfishness, idolatry, homosexuality and a host of other sins. To no surprise, the Holy Land EXPERIENCE at Disney World is run by the TRINITY BROADCASTING NETWORK [TBN]. Leave it to a bunch of wacky religious Charismatics to exploit the Lord's crucifixion to make a buck. Adult tickers are $28. The Walt Disney corporation is of the Devil, promoting a [3]Luciferian agenda of moral subversion, fornication and lack of sound family values.

Jesus warned in Luke 16:13 that no man can serve God and mammon. When money is the goal, there will also be sinful compromise, conflict of interest, lack of conviction to stand for truth and against sin, and ultimately it will end in apostasy. Luke 16:13, "

No servant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon." America is dying for righteous men who do justly, love mercy and walk humbly with their God. Micah 6:8, " He hath shewed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the LORD require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God?"

The greed for money in America today is not doing justly. It is exploitative of sacred things. It is wrong to mock the sacred Word of God by charging people money to experience a Holy Land thrill, as if it were a Six Flags carnival ride. We need men who are pure of heart, who desire to preach the Word of Truth without monetary compensation. Evangelist Ray Comfort's ministry takes in about $3,500,000 a year. The late Evangelist Ravi Zacharias' ministry took in about $25,000,000 each year. Pastor John MacArthur has a net worth of about $14,000,000. When did Christianity become a lucrative business? It is shameful in my humble opinion.

2.3.32 The False Gospel Of Pastor John Barnette (2021-03-29 09:30)

Galatians 3:1-3, "O foolish Galatians, who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you? This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith? Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh?"

Salvation is a free gift. Service is what you choose to do with the gift. A popular preacher of our time is [1]Pastor John Barnett. Not surprisingly Barnett has studied at Bob Jones University (BJU), a [2]cesspool of theological error and [3]apostasy in recent decades. I wouldn't give you a dime for BJU today! Sadly, Mr. Barnett preaches another gospel of Lordship Salvation. The following heretical video sermon by Pastor Barnett is titled: "DID YOU KNOW THAT JESUS SAID—ONLY TRUE DISCIPLES CAN GO TO HEAVEN?"

Kindly said, Pastor Barnett goes horribly astray in his understanding of the Gospel. He is misapplying Bible verses about discipleship with salvation. God gave us the Gospel of John specifically to teach us how to be saved. John 20:21, "But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name." In the Gospel of John we find the word "believe" mentioned 85 times, without any mention of anything else. Nothing else is required for a sinner to be saved than simple childlike faith in the Good News (Gospel) of Jesus' crucified, buried and bodily risen the third day (1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." [emphasis added] —Evangelist John Bunyan

Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith. Pastor Barnett quotes passages from Matthew, misinterpreting them to apply to salvation. Barnett cherry-picks the word "repent" from Matthew, while totally ignoring the fact that John never mentions repentance one time. Matthew 4:17, "From that time Jesus began to preach, and to say, Repent: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand." The learned Bible student understands that repentance and faith are inseparable and refer to the same act.

This is why the Apostle Peter said in Act 2:28, "Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost." Peter doesn't mention "believing" to be saved. Peter says to repent. But notice what we read in Acts 2:44, "And all that believed were together, and had all things common;" Dr. John R. Rice gets it 100 % right:

> There are those hyper-dispensationalists who think that John the Baptist preached a different Gospel from Christ when he commanded repentance (Matt. 3:2). But it is the same repentance Jesus commanded in Matthew 4:17, in Luke 13:3 and 5, and the same repentance that Paul preached in Athens that God "now commandeth all men every where to repent" (Acts 17:30 31). Repentance is not a different plan of salvation from having faith: it is part of the same plan of salvation. Or rather repentance is simply another way of describing or looking at the plan of salvation. One who turns from sin to God has done so by trusting in Jesus Christ. A change of mind toward sin is necessarily involved in saving faith.
> Everyone who genuinely repented under the preaching of John the Baptist put his trust in the Saviour John the Baptist preached, and was regenerated. There is no such thing as being "a disciple of John the Baptist" in any honest sense without being a disciple of Jesus, that is, without trusting Christ for salvation. [emphasis added]

I hope you see that Pastor John Barnett is an unsaved man, a false teacher. No one is saved who attacks and perverts the grace of God. The Bible plainly says that salvation is without works; yet Barnett says only disciples go to Heaven. You must choose dear reader who is right, John Barnett or the inspired and infallible Word of God. Please read the following excellent theological quote by Pastor M. R. DeHaan (1891-1965):

> "There is a vast difference between coming to Jesus for salvation and coming after Jesus for service. Coming to Christ makes one a believer, while coming after Christ makes one a disciple. All believers are not disciples. To become a believer one accepts the invitation of the Gospel, to be a disciple one obeys the challenge to a life of dedicated service and separation. Salvation comes through the sacrifice of Christ; discipleship comes only by sacrifice of self and surrender to His call for devoted service. Salvation is free, but discipleship involves paying the price of a separated walk. Salvation can't be lost because it depends upon God's faithfulness, but discipleship can be lost because it depends upon our faithfulness." DeHaan, M. R. Hebrews. Zondervan Publishing House, 1959 (p. 117).

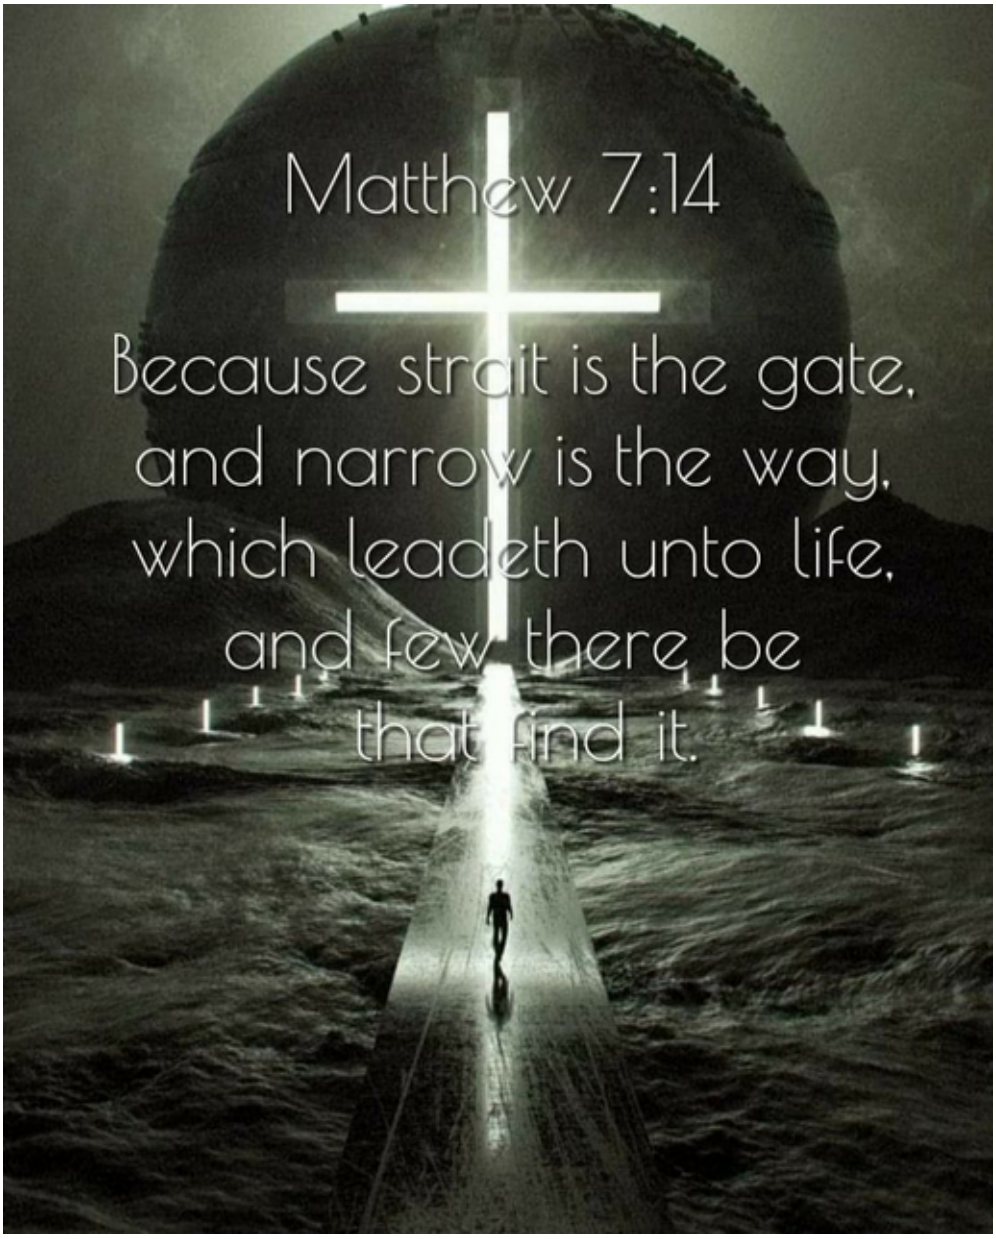
It is hard for me to grasp, with the abundance of helpful theological resources today, that any preacher could be so corrupt in his theology as the Lordship Salvation crowd. I mean, the King James Bible is all we need for sound doctrine (2nd Timothy 3:15-17). But even if someone were ignorant of the Bible and wanted some help to understand it, we have excellent resources available today, like never before in history. The Lordship Salvation crowd aren't even in the ballpark theologically! John Barnett is guilty of teaching the same junk theology as Gary Walton, Marty Herron, Steve Pettit, Sam Horn, John MacArthur, John Piper, R.C. Sproul, Charles Lawson and William Lane Craig. Here are some more helpful quotes differentiating between salvation and service:

"Discipleship is frequently equated with salvation and often erroneously made a condition for becoming a Christian". Pentecost, J. Dwight. Design for Discipleship. Zondervan Publishing House, 1971 (p. 11).

"Certainly discipleship is a most important aspect of our relation to Christ, but it belongs to the sphere of Christian life rather than entrance upon that life... One does not become a disciple in order to become a Christian, but because he has become a Christian by faith in the Savior, it is fitting that he embark upon a life of discipleship". Harrison, Everett F. "Must Christ be Lord to Be Savior?-No." Eternity, September 1959 (p. 14).

"There is no more piously subtle abrogation of the Gospel than to tell a Sinner that he must not only believe in the Savior, but dedicate himself to do God's will, crown the Savior Lord of his life, etc., etc. Obviously, dedication and service are highly desirable, but they are the privilege and the duty of the saved, never a condition of salvation for the unsaved (cf. Romans 12:1, 2)." Unger, Merrill F. God is Waiting to Meet You. Moody Press, 1975 (p. 117, 118).

"People are sometimes led to believe that there is saving value in some public confession of Christ, or profession of a decision. "With the heart man believeth unto righteousness." This is salvation. "With the mouth confession is made unto salvation." This is the voice of the newborn child speaking to and of its father. The only condition on which one may be saved is to believe." Chafer, Lewis Sperry. Salvation. Dunham Publishing Company, 1917 (p. 46).



Those are great quotes, which will help you dear friend to see the difference between salvation versus service. Proof of what I say is found in 1st Corinthians 3:15, "If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire." Notice that the unfaithful man in this Bible verse suffers loss of everything, barely escaping the fires of Hell, but he is saved nonetheless. If John Barnett is correct (which he is not), then this man couldn't be saved, because he was not a disciple.

You see, John Barnett is guilty of doing what all Gospel perverts do, they cherry-pick the Scriptures, taking what they need from various passages to bolster up their strawman argument. But friend, a good rule to follow when interpreting the Bible is to never use an obscure passage to contradict a clear one. The Gospel of John, the Epistle of Romans, the Epistle of Ephesians and the Epistle of Galatians, are abundantly clear that salvation is by grace through faith alone. Romans 4:4-5, "Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt. But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness." is absolutely NOTHING in the aforementioned books of the Bible that requires following Christ as Lord, forsaking all, exchanging all that you are for all that Christ is, to be saved. If it were so, then God would owe you and me salvation, which cannot be grace.

I plead with you friend to avoid these false teachers from Bob Jones University! They preach another gospel that is not what the King James Bible plainly teaches. Galatians 3:2, "This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, *or by the hearing of faith?"

The Apostle Paul only wanted to know ONE THING, how did they get saved? How did they become indwelt with the Holy Spirit? Was it by works or by placing their faith in the Gospel when they heard it preached? We are saved simply by believing. That is why so many people miss Heaven, because men make salvation so complicated.

“More people will die and burn in Hell, because they’re trusting too much!” —Pastor Jack Hyles, a precious quote from the MP3 sermon, “[5]Yea, Yea, And Nay, Nay!”

2.3.33 Why Is America Becoming So Immoral? (2021-03-30 09:30)

Psalms 11:7, " For the righteous LORD loveth righteousness; his countenance doth behold the upright." 2nd Thessalonians 2:3-4, "Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition; Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God."

Here are a few disturbing things I found on social media recently:

- [1]Buckle Up 2021 Is Just A Sliderace Down To Bottom
- [2]House Passes 'Equality Act' to End Legal Recognition of Biological Sex; Churches Fear
- [3]Idaho Elementary School Counselor Tells 11-Year-Old Girl She Can Be A 'Transsexual'

I could show you thousands more similar crazy news stories. Dear reader, I'm sure you've asked yourself in recent times, "What in the world is going on in America?" The Bible tells us the answer. We know that God our Creator is a good, holy and merciful God. We also know that Satan is a malevolent being, an evil spirit committed to kill, steal and destroy everything in his path. John 10:9-10, "I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture. The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly." We also know from 2nd Corinthians 4:4 that Satan is "the god of this world." The earth itself belongs to the Lord (1st Corinthians 10:26). The Devil controls the unsaved world of humanity. Satan is the instigator of wars, prisons and inhumane cruelty.

In our text passage from 2nd Thessalonians 2:3-4 we learn that the Antichrist is referred to as the **"

Man of Sin.

" According to Daniel 11:37 the Antichrist will likely be a homosexual, who will not have "the desire of women. " Any normal healthy man desires women. With these Bible truths laid out it becomes evident that the Man of Sin, for him to be received well, it is necessary for Satan to prepare the masses of this world by demoralizing them. What rational human being could disagree that is it insanity to tell an 11 year old girl that it is okay to be a transsexual?

Shameful House Speaker Nancy Pelosi is an ungodly woman! The congresswoman wants to ban terms; such as, mother, father, son and daughter from Congress. That is insanity folks. In the weird state of Oregon, [4]residents can now legally change their gender on the birth certificate. This bizarre and frightening time in our nation's history will only lead to our ultimate destruction as a society. It is not a coincidence that an increasing number of men are refusing to get married, [5]joining the MGTOW movement in America.

Kindly said, U.S. women today have been socially engineered to have ridiculous expectations of men, offering little in return for what they demand in a marriage relationship, and men are [6]tired of the mistreatment. Literally, today's American female is frightening and risky! [7]Men are fed up with the biased, weird and unfair courts. It is clear to me that this has been done intentionally by the Masonic controlled court system in the United States, to deliberately promote fornication rather than a traditional marriage. The following excellent information about secret societies that pull the strings from behind the scenes...

What Secret Societies Control America?

By Jean Warrick from Shelby, North Carolina

September 4, 2014

Have you ever wondered why, no matter which political party is in power, the wishes of the people seldom seem to be considered or acted upon? And do you wonder why many in both political parties go along with the United Nations' effort to bring about the surrender of our national sovereignty? Why, after 200 years of being a free and fiercely independent nation, would the U.S. even consider giving over our precious sovereignty to a corrupt anti-American United Nations?

Charlie Daniels, in his DVD documentary "Behold a Pale Horse," states that "there are forces at work on planet Earth that are completely off the radar of mainstream America. They meet in secret, plan in secret, and work both sides of the street politically, recruiting their disciples early on, from the best and brightest, the mega wealthy and super powerful. They are a well-hidden organization which lurks in the shadows, pulling strings of those they can corrupt with promises of wealth and high political office. This is a ruthless group of movers and shakers who will settle for nothing less than absolute global domination."

Dr. Stanley Monteith, in his book, "The Brotherhood of Darkness," stated that he has studied the history of the secret societies for over 50 years and is convinced that it is impossible to grasp what is taking place today without an understanding of the secret societies.

The working of occult societies is not something new in the last few years, but it has grown rapidly since the beginning to the 20th century. The root of philosophy and thought for a New World Order was birthed in Bavaria by Adam Weishaupt. He founded the Illuminati on May 1, 1776. The tenets of the Illuminati are summarized in the following six points: (1) abolition of monarchies and all ordered government, (2) abolition of private properties and inheritances, (3) abolition of family life and the institution of marriage, (4) abolition of patriotism and nationalism, (5) communal education of children and (6) abolition of all religion. Within a few years, they recruited a number of prominent men and began to infiltrate the Masonic lodges across Europe. There they could work under a cloak of secrecy protected by blood oaths. Manly P. Hall, a distinguished Masonic philosopher, has stated that Freemasonry is a fraternity within a fraternity, that most Masons are honest, God-fearing men who have no knowledge of the secret inner sanctuary.

Researchers who have studied the secret societies claim that the occult emblem on the back of the dollar bill (the incomplete pyramid capped with a glorified eye and reference to New Secular Order) represents the Illuminati.

Another secret society is The Council on Foreign Relations. Many well-informed people believe that the CFR is responsible for our problems. They note that prominent bankers, industrialists, politicians, media owners, and almost everyone of any importance in the U.S. belongs to the CFR. Six of our last nine presidents have been CFR members, and Barry Goldwater said that the CFR controls both of our political parties. Each of the three major television networks is almost completely dominated by members of the CFR and its spin-off, The Trilateral Commission.

Some people contend that communism is still a threat because the CFR, the Bilderbergers, the Trilateral Commission, and the Club of Rome are communist front organizations. Another secret society is Skull and Bones (or Bonesmen). For over 165 years, prominent families have sent their sons to Yale University to become Bonesmen. Once they are inducted into the fraternity they are assured of prominent positions in life. Other secret societies are Rhodes Scholars and Knights of Malta.

Among the founding fathers, many were Freemasons. It is shocking that so many of the leaders of this nation have been members of secret societies -F. Roosevelt, Truman, L.B. Johnson, Ford, Jimmy Carter, George Bush, George H. W. Bush, Bill Clinton, J.P. Morgan, David Rockefeller, Supreme Court Justices, as well as Winston Churchill and many in other countries - just to name a few.

When you consider that the common goal of the UN, secret societies, and Communism is to destroy all governments, all religions (particularly Judeo/Christian religion), and rule the world, perhaps that might explain what is going on behind the scenes in this country and the world. You decide. Of course, radical Islam openly declares that their goal is the destruction of Israel, the U.S., all religions except Islam, and global domination. We are engaged in a battle for the hearts and minds of men. We must do our best and recognize that ultimately the battle is the Lord's.

SOURCE: [8]What Secret Societies Control America?

I couldn't agree more with the preceding information. This [9]disturbing collection of news media outlets across the United States plainly evidences that the news media is controlled by a single source of propaganda, intended to shape public opinion to support the sinister agendas of the New World Order. This is like a creepy episode of [10]The Twilight Zone! There is a war on for your mind America!!! When I was a young person growing up in the 1970's and 1980's you never heard the media openly praise and support homosexuality, but then one day in recent decades the entire media began singing praises, showing full support and promoting the sin of homosexuality in all it's shame and infamy. It is disgusting to every righteous person!

The sin of fornication is epidemic across America. I learned this week that the United States has the highest percentage of single parent homes in the world today, hovering at a shameful 23 %. A long-term web visitor sincerely asked me recently if oral intimacy (to put it gently) is a sin. The answer is found in Hebrews 13:4, "Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled: but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge. " A married man and woman can do anything they want in their own bed. God will judge adulterers and fornicators (Colossians 3:5-7; Romans 1:32). The Devil wants to corrupt America, and he knows that the quickest way to do this is with carnal knowledge outside of marriage.

Please read these shocking words from retired Canadian Navy Commander, William Guy Carr (1895-1959), which were written just prior to his death in 1959:

"According, to Satanism, it is perfectly right, and proper, to encourage moral turpitude in all classes of society, and at all levels of government, by > convincing the public that abnormal sexual behaviour is normal; and that the moral code accepted by civilized nations, based on the Commandments of God and teachings of the Holy Scriptures, is old fashioned and introduced by Church and state for selfish purposes. But behind the building up of a WRONG conception of sex, and its purposes as intended by God our Creator, is the Satanic principle that "The best revolutionary is a youth absolutely devoid of morals." When Lenin stated this as recorded in Pawns in The Game he only confirmed what other Satanists had stated a hundred times previously. It is Satanism, as it is direct from THE TOP, which is responsible for the increase in juvenile delinquency, but those selected by the governments of the world to investigate this problem invariably give every CAUSE other than the right one." [emphasis added]

> SOURCE: [11]Satan: Prince Of This World, by Commander William Guy Carr, p. 56.

To read more insightful quotes by Commander William Guy Carr, please read my disturbing article exposing singer "[12]Taylor Swift And Satanism." Listen to Miss Swift sing "[13]go fu myself," in her video titled "betty." Why aren't parents outraged and demanding for Taylor Swift to be banned from social media? I'll tell you why, because most Americans have been corrupted morally. Adultery is everywhere. Over [14]15 % of 'generation Z' profess to be sodomites. What can this mean for America's future? Incrementally our American society is becoming perverse, disgusting, full of wickedness, neglectful of the needs of the poor and homeless, and traditional marriage is fast becoming a thing of the past.

[15]Free speech is under blatant attack nowadays. A nation can survive its fools, but not treason! My ministry websites have lost 75 % web traffic since 2015 due to censorship. Homosexuals can say anything they want against Christians, no matter how perverse; but if a God-fearing Christian denounces the LGBTQ deathstyle as being evil, you'll be censored from mainstream exposure. Tiny websites are left alone, but big hitters get blocked. No nation is truly free which censors free speech. It's like taking away guns from law-abiding citizens, so only the criminals have guns. When the government allows big tech companies to filter and censor free speech, only the ungodly person has freedom of speech. That sure sounds like Satan's world to me!!!

Our nation's leaders have betrayed us, selling us into the cruel hands of a greedy private banking cartel. Since 1971 the [16]U.S. dollars has lost 81 % of its value. America cannot survive this treason! Already 60,000 residents are homeless in Los Angeles, because the average cost of monthly rent is $2,300. Many people cannot afford that! You can blame the central banks for that. The more money they print, the less a dollar is worth, and inflation (a form of taxation) skyrockets! It's like a child's game of Musical Chairs. The banks who print the money make a killing financially with fresh new money, but downstream many Americans are left without a chair when the music stops, and the spending power has depleted (because of inflation). Please watch the preceding video I linked to if you want to understand this in detail.

Wake up Christians! Nearly every church today has been infiltrated by Satan, but they don't realize it. If [17]your church is using a modern Bible version, other than, or in addition to, the inspired KING JAMES BIBLE, Satan has infiltrated your church. Please learn about, [18]The Occultist Roots Behind All Modern Bible Versions. Don't let Satan into your church, because it is God's Church! The new Bible versions have [19]sinfully changed the plan of salvation; from "[20]the simplicity that is in Christ" (2nd Corinthians 11:3), to one of human effort plus partial faith in Christ (aka, [21]Lordship Salvation). Once Satan infiltrates a church, then the spiritual disease spreads until it kills the church completely. This is why [22]20,562 Presbyterian ministers in 10,083 churches in March of 2015 voted to accept same-sex marriages in their denomination. GOD RIGHT WITH GOD!!!

This is why America is becoming so immoral. America is being destroyed by design. This is all necessary to empower the Man of Sin when he comes, who will be a Rock star to the world. As we near the end times, more and more each year, you can expect to see the further moral descent into Hell in America and worldwide. In 2021, I've never seen so many young people with tattoos, effeminate males, masculine females, homosexuals, feminists, gender confusion and a hatred of Jesus Christ. This is all the consequence of satanic social engineering through social media (music, internet, radio, magazines, Hollywood, Netflix, video games, et cetera).

Worst of all is that most churches today don't stand for anything, but are mere social clubs. The average pastor just wants to make a quiet living, selling religion. That is why the shameful Harvest Baptist Church of Guam has ostracized me, refusing to even allow me to attend church services since 2014. If they truly loved God and cared about hurting people, they would have reached out to me, as I humbly did to them multiple times in 2017, but was told to "

Go elsewhere.

" I have been pouring out my soul since 2014 to Harvest, and still in 2021, offering to make peace with them and let bygones be bygones, but they still coldheartedly refuse.

2nd Timothy 2:13, " If we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself." Like the dear Lord Himself, I cannot deny myself, since I have been faithful in my efforts to make peace with the pastors and people at Harvest Baptist Church of Guam all these many painful 7 years. They just don't want to make peace, which speaks volumes about their lack of spiritual maturity, woeful lack of compassion, and makes me wonder if they are even born-again believers at all. Romans 3:4,

"God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged."

My fine non-feathered friend, what should be our response as Christians to these wacky times that we live in? John 16:33, "

These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.

" Jesus is bodily risen from the dead. CHRIST IS RISEN!!! What a comforting and beautiful truth. Rejoice oh Christian, knowing that your name is written in the Lamb's Book of Life in Heaven (Luke 10:20). Walk with God (James 4:8).

Hebrews 12:2, "

Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

" Everything is alright in our heavenly Father's house!

2.3.34 April 1st Is National Atheist's Day (2021-03-31 09:30)

"For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse." —Romans 1:20

Only a complete fool would deny the existence of almighty God. Creation itself is a clear and incontrovertible witness to the existence of a divine Creator. Oh the wickedness of those who blaspheme God, by denying His eternal Power and Godhead!

Please look at the colorful and tasty looking photo to the right. I see juicy red tomatoes, blessed blueberries, crisp red apples, delicious strawberries, various sorts of bell peppers, corn, squash, grapes, cucumbers, et cetera. How could Evolution do this? How could a "[2]Big Bang," resulting in cosmic chaos and accidental aftermath, evolve into a highly organized universe that any honest scientist knows was created with design, purpose and order. A big bang explosion couldn't do this. It is IMPOSSIBLE!!!

I was recently thinking about the cow, as I ate a delicious homemade burger. Here's a great [3]recipe for Hellmann's burgers. They're so good, I don't even use ketchup or mustard. As I ate my burger, I thought about how God made cows to feed a lot of people. This animal has short legs and a big meaty body, to feed a lot of hungry people. Evolution couldn't do that! God is so good! Psalm 145:9, "The LORD is good to all: and his tender mercies are over all his works."

I learned this week that astronomers have estimated there are at least [4]200 sextillion stars in the universe. Wow! A "sextillion" is a 1 with 21 zeros behind it! Even more amazing is that scientists tell us there are more stars in the universe than there are grains of sand upon all of earth's beaches. Yet, just one atom of sand contains more atoms than all the stars in the universe!!! How could anyone deny that God exists, and that He created all things by His power! Only a wicked heart of rebellion, ingratitude and intentional unbelief could compel a person to deny God's existence. Truly, God is amazing and His greatness is unsearchable! Psalm 145:2-3, "Every day will I bless thee; and I will praise thy name for ever and ever. Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised; and his greatness is unsearchable."

[5]The Absurdity Of Claiming To Be An Atheist

The satanic bogus theories of Evolution have never been substantiated by legitimate science. There is only [6]speculation and unfounded theories, that sinfully attempt to undermine the inspired Words of God.

Science supports the Holy Bible. Archaeology supports the Holy Bible. Astronomy supports the Holy Bible. No branch of science, history or expertise has proved the Bible wrong. None! I'm betting on God's side, because He has a perfect batting average!

It was atheist Bill Maher, host of Politically Incorrect on ABC, who foolishly said on August 22, 2001:

> "The Bible is a Fairy Tale!"

One of these days Mr. Maher will reap the fruits of his unbelief in the fires of Hell... "In flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ" (2nd Thessalonians 1:8). I marvel that a mere man, who has only been conscious of life and the universe for less than 50 years, will speak so boldly against the God of the universe and His Holy Word!!! My friend, unless you have traveled all of time and the space in the universe, you cannot say that there is no God.

Paul McCartney of The Beatles said:

> “We probably seem to be anti-religious ... none of us believes in God.” (Hit Parader, Jan 1970, p.15)

[7]

The Beatles were Communists! Their music often promoted Communism and the overthrow of authority in songs such as “Revolution No. 9,” “Working Class Hero,” “Back in the USSR,” “Power to the People,” “Sometime in New York City,” “Give Peace a Chance,” “Bloody Sunday” (which called British police "Anglo pigs"), “Attica State” (“now’s the time for revolution”), “Angela” (which glorified Communist Angela Davis), and “Piggies.”

All of The Beatles were whoremongers. Ringo Star stated:

> “We got drunk a lot. You couldn’t help it. We had a lot of girls. We soon realized that they were easy to get” (TV Guide, July 29, 1978, p. 21).

McCartney said:

> “We didn’t all get into music for a job! We got into it to avoid a job, in truth-and get lots of girls.”

Hebrews 13:4, “Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled: but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge.” Where are John Lennon and George Harrison now? Sadly, they’re burning in the torments and fires of Hell. Most rich people think they already have Heaven on earth, so they snub their noses at God in their sinful pride.

Kindly said, Angelina Jolie (pictured to right) is a Godless heathen bound for Hellfire if she doesn't repent towards God in faith (Acts 20:21). When asked "Is there a God?," Jolie [9]responded:

> "Hmm... For some people. I hope so, for them. For the people who believe in it, I hope so. There doesn't need to be a God for me. There's something in people that's spiritual, that's godlike. I don't feel like doing things just because people say things, but I also don't really know if it's better to just not believe in anything, either."

Well Ms. Jolie, you may be sincere; but you are sincerely WRONG! You need Jesus Christ, who is Almighty God (Isaiah 9:6; John 1:1-3,14; John 10:33; Colossians 2:9; 1st Timothy 3:16; Revelation 1:8—King James Bible). Woe unto the world! Woe unto them who live their lives as if there is no God! Psalm 53:1 states, "The fool hath said in his heart, There is no God. Corrupt are they, and have done abominable iniquity: there is none that doeth good." Those who deny God and His Word are CORRUPT!

The legendary secular author Ernest Hemingway, who would later take his own life by suicide in 1961, said:

> "All thinking men are atheists."

Do you agree with Mr. Hemingway? If you do, then listen to the Words of warning from Revelation 21:8, "But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death." I truly feel sorry for professed atheists, because they are only hurting themselves. The Scriptures are very adamant that “Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God” (John 3:3). I sincerely don’t want to see William Shatner, Billy Joel, Barry Manilow, Warren Buffet and Angelina Jolie perish in their sins and unbelief to burn in the Lake of Fire forever (Revelation 20:13-15).

The Bible is penned in black on white paper, for the world to read. Please take a look around you, the next time that you visit your local grocery store, as you fill your cart with blessing after blessing from God. We breath God’s clean air (unless men have polluted it). We drink God’s pure water (unless men have polluted it). God is a good God. We enjoy the blessing of health from God. If God remains faithful to reach out to us, we can never blame him in eternity for refusing Him. 2nd Timothy 2:13, “If we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself.” God is right in everything that He does!!!

I believe the Gospel of Jesus Christ, do you? According to 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, “the gospel” constitutes three elements: Christ DIED on the cross for our sins, He was BURIED, and then He miraculously bodily RESURRECTED three days later. It is so simple to be saved, JUST BELIEVE THE GOOD NEWS. That’s how you receive the gift of eternal life. Just believe the Gospel, make it your only hope for Heaven.

We read in Galatians 3:2, “This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith? Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh?” The apostle Paul wrote a letter to the church at Galatia. Paul only wanted to know ONE THING... HOW DID YOU GET THE INDWELLING HOLY SPIRIT? THAT IS TO SAY, HOW DID YOU GET SAVED? Was it by doing the works of the law (i.e., the Ten Commandments). Or did you simply hear the Gospel preached and gladly receive it? If you believe (trust) the Gospel, you are saved!!! Salvation is that simple!!! It is a free gift (Romans 5:15, 18; Romans 6:23; Ephesians 2:8-10).

Tragically, Gene Roddenberry (Star Trek TV series creator) died in his sins without Christ). Also, Leonard Nimoy (“Spock”) died in his strange female goddess religion without Christ. Legendary singer, England Dan, died in his satanic Baha’i Faith and went to Hell. David Bowie asked for a Buddhist funeral. Steve Jobs of Apple Computers was a devour Buddhist. They are being tormented in Hell right now, and forever! I could name hundreds of famous actors, singers and celebrities who either deny God’s existence or reject Jesus Christ as their Savior.

Either way, they’re damned under the curse of God’s law (Galatians 3:10). I do not rejoice that anyone goes to Hell, and neither does God (Ezekiel 33:10; 2nd Peter 3:9). The choice is yours alone to make. Wicked people may unite hand-in-hand, even nation-with-nation, against God, but when we all die, we die alone. We are judged alone (Romans 14:10-12; James 4:12; Ecclesiastes 12:14). Judgment Day is coming! (Hebrews 9:27; Hebrews 4:13 - All Scripture references are ONLY to the trustworthy King James Bible).

Here are some more arrogant statements exclaimed against God almighty by foolish atheists:

> “By simple common sense I don’t believe in God, in none.” —Actor, Charlie Chaplin
>
> “I gradually, decided that just because I didn’t have or couldn’t find the ultimate answer didn’t mean I was going to buy the religious fairytale. As an atheist you have to rationalize things.” —Singer, Billy Joel

> “I have NEVER seen the slightest scientific proof of the religious theories of Heaven and Hell, of future life for individuals, or of a personal God.” —Inventor, Thomas Edison
> “My belief system is that when this is over, you don’t look down from Heaven and wait for your loved ones to join you… your molecules continue and in due time become something else.” —Actor, William Shatner

It was Helen Keller who blasphemed God’s Word by stating:

> "There is so much in the bible against which every instinct of my being rebels, so much so that I regret the necessity which has compelled me to read it through from beginning to end. I do not think that the knowledge I have gained of its history and sources compensates me for the unpleasant details it has forced upon my attention."

Not coincidentally, the “I love you” hand sign which Ms. Keller allegedly developed is also used in [10]satanic rituals and by Rock-n-Roll idolaters. In fact, Satanist [11]Anton LaVey has a picture of Keller’s hand sign (with the thumb extended) in the 1969 Satanic Bible. The link I just provided takes you to an actual photo from The Satanic Bible. The argument about the extended thumb not being a satanic hand sign is simply [12]not true.

Communist Karl Marx said:

> “The social principles of Christianity preach cowardice, self-contempt, abasement, submission, humility, in a word all the qualities of the canaille.”

Do you not see that the common denominator of Communism, Rock-n-Roll, immorality, and Satanism is ATHEISM? One of the primary goals of Communism is to cause [13]moral decay. Communist leader Vladimir Lenin stated:

> “The best revolutionary is a youth [14]devoid of morals.”

David Noebel best summarized the influence of the Beatles, particularly John Lennon, when he said:

> “…the present rock ’n’ roll scene, Lennon’s legacy, is one giant, multi-media portrait of degradation-a sleazy world of immorality, venereal disease, anarchy, nihilism, cocaine, heroin, marijuana, death, Satanism, perversion, and orgies” (The Legacy of John Lennon, by David Noebel, 1982, p. 15).

Although the above quote speaks of JOHN Lennon of the Beatles, one could easily think it was speaking of Vladimir Lenin. Is this not EXACTLY the fulfillment of Vladimir Lenin’s Communist agenda… a youth devoid of morals? Yes, it certainly is! You can’t tell Lenin from Lennon when it comes to beliefs and morality! These are the fruits of atheism.

Truly, April Fool’s Day is a fitting holiday for all the Communistic, Rock-n-Rolling, Satanic, immoral, child-murdering, feminist, ATHEISTS in the world. There’s not a bigger bunch of fools on the planet.

“For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse: Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened. Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools ... Having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart: Who being past feeling have given themselves over unto lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness with greediness.” —Romans 1:20-22 and Ephesians 4:18-19

When the truth is revealed, there’s no such thing as an atheist. There are only ingrates who refuse to acknowledge the goodness and omnipotent power of God. Romans 1:20 confirms that there is no such thing as an atheist. All the proof anyone needs of God is found right outside your front door, which is why on Judgment Day all professed atheists will be without excuse. I assure you that there are no atheists in Hell.

Do you know where most atheists are from? They come out of heathen State universities. Most young people profess to be homosexuals in a heathen university, which is where they are indoctrinated with that garbage. Most people decide to become atheist in some heathen school. Colossians 2:4 and 18, “And this I say, lest any man should beguile you with enticing words. ... Let no man beguile you of your reward in a voluntary humility and worshipping of angels, intruding into those things which he hath not seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind.” The Scriptures warn about taking unsound advice from unsaved people.

BELOW: Some of the world’s wealthiest people, all willing servants of the Devil’s New World Order. This photo was captured using my "Print Screen" button from a Paul McCartney Tribute concert. James Taylor is singing during this particular photo. They all look so miserable. Then again, I guess I’d be peeved too if I had a news camera watching my every facial expression. In a way I feel sorry for them. Perhaps that is why actor Harrison Ford chose to live in Jackson, Wyoming out in the middle of nowhere. I admire him for that. Despite convincing everywhere that he was a Muslim while in office as U.S. President, Barack Obama today professes to be a born-again Christian, and I believe him. Oprah clearly is not saved, nor Paul McCartney, per their own testimonies concerning faith in a God. Paul at best is agnostic and Oprah is, well, a very confused woman. I respect their right to believe what they want, but Jesus said that a person must be born again to enter into the Kingdom of God (John 3:3-7). I believe in God. More than that, I believe that Jesus Christ is God manifest in the flesh. God walked this earth in the man Christ Jesus (Colossians 2:9). Anyone who denies Jesus’ deity effectively is an atheist, no matter how much they may claim to believe in “

“Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me. If ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also: and from henceforth ye know him, and have seen him.”

Psalm 50:22, “Now consider this, ye that forget God, lest I tear you in pieces, and there be none to deliver.”

2.4 April

2.4.1 Abuse In Independent Baptist Churches Today (2021-04-01 00:25)

Romans 14:9-10, “

For to this end Christ both died, and rose, and revived, that he might be Lord both of the dead and living.

But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ.

I literally begged the pastors at the Harvest Baptist Church of Guam in 2017 three times, to please let me simply attend church services, but those ungodly horrible people couldn’t care less about anybody except their little snobby clique. Since 2014 I have tried umpteen times to return to Harvest Baptist Church, casting my pearl before swine. But they are all about making money, and don’t care about hurting souls. A hurting dog barks! That is why I preach against Harvest and the Bob Jones crowd so much, warning others. They threw me under the bus!

Pastor Marty Herron, Jared Baldwin, Joe Hanson and Gary Walton, to name but a few devils, are all pulling on the same rope as the Devil. None of them cared when I pleaded for their compassion and spiritual help. Pastor Gary Walton is so immature and selfish, he couldn’t care less. All I wanted was to come back to church, and still do, and I apologized and couldn’t have been more friendly and humble. The Bob Jones University crowd are a bunch of ungodly, Bible-corrupting, Gospel-perverting, Pharisaical, snobs! God willing I am planning on moving very soon, and putting Guam behind me. Shame on Harvest Baptist Church. They literally laughed in my face when I begged for their love, understanding and help. God will deal with them (Romans 14:10-12; Romans 12:19; 1st Thessalonians 4:6).

I haven’t attended church since 2014 because of Marty Herron and Gary Walton, because of their cult behavior. Bob Jones University (BLU) is a religious cult. If they do not like you, they ostracize and reject you, literally banning you from stepping foot into their campus or churches. Search the internet and you’ll find an article from the local Greenville, South Carolina news where BJU threatened to arrest one of their own graduates, because he said he is gay. Although I do not agree with the homosexual culture, BJU threatening former students with arrest for stepping on campus is equally as sinful and wrong. That man is still a human being for whom Christ died. He is an alumni of BJU. Hating him doesn’t help him. Shame on BJU! I am also hated by the Bob Jones crowd. They evidently hate a lot of people.

I have been banned from attending the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam (a BJU satellite ministry) simply for believing that God only authored ONE BOOK, and that the modern Bible revisions are corrupt. Marty Herron is a wicked and selfish man, who only cares about his paycheck and buddies. That is what makes BJU a cult, the us four and no more sinful attitude. That is NOT the Christian way. Jesus befriended everyone with the truth, He didn’t threaten them with arrest, and deny them the right to sit in church to hear preaching. Gary Walton is a wicked man and selfish.

It is these type of hypocritical false Christians who drive sincere people away from the church. Millions of people today can be heard expressing their disgust with the Jim and Tammy Faye Bakkers of this world, and the Bob Jones University type snobs and hypocrites. Conmen like Benny Hinn, Steve Pettit, John MacArthur and Marty Herron are the enemies of Jesus Christ, all sucking ridiculous extravagant salaries, parasiting off of Christendom for their own personal gain. Shame on these phonies! God's curse is upon BJU for teaching hardcore Lordship Salvation, making them part of John MacArthur's Calvinist cult. BJU is a part of the demonic Alexandrian cult, promoting hundreds of counterfeit Bible revisions.

RUN from the Bob Jones' crowd dear reader. RUN from these ungodly imposters who masquerade as men of God. They are men of Belial. They are sinister ministers, servants of Satan who preach another gospel, spread corruptible seed, and do far more damage than good. Woe unto these wicked men. God will be our final Judge (Galatians 1:6-9). According to the demonically inspired aforementioned fake preachers, I am guilty of preaching THE TRUTH a free grace Gospel. I am guilty of preaching THE TRUTH that God only authored ONE HOLY BIBLE. That is the King James Bible for English speaking people. I am guilty of loving the Bob Jones crowd enough to tell them THE TRUTH, for which they have hated, rejected and thrown me under the bus since 2014, and still do today in 2021. They only care about making money.

2.4.2 God Does Not Dwell In Temples Made With Hands (2021-04-02 09:30)

Acts 17:24, "God that made the world and all things therein, seeing that he is Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in temples made with hands;" 1st Corinthians 3:16-17, "Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you? If any man defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy; for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are."

We learn in the Scriptures that the believer's human body is the temple of the Holy Spirit. 1st John 3:23-34, "And this is his commandment, That we should believe on the name of his Son Jesus Christ, and love one another, as he gave us commandment.

And he that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us." Romans 8:9,

"But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his."

2nd Corinthians 5:17, " Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new." That "

new

simply means that the Holy Spirit now lives inside of us as a child of God. Our spiritual eyes have been opened for the first time, enabling us to spiritually discern the truth. This verse is often misinterpreted, particularly by Pacific Garden Mission's 'UNSHACKLED' radio series, to errantly mean turn from your sins

to be saved. Since turning from sins is a good work, and we know that a man cannot be justified by works in God's sight (Romans 3:20); therefore, we KNOW that being a new creature

has nothing to do with receiving the gift of eternal life.

Carefully notice that the Bible says if any man already

BE IN CHRIST.

" This Bible verse is speaking about a born-again person, a believer. The Bible doesn't say that you must become a new creature to get saved. No, the Bibles says you ARE a new creature when you are "

IN CHRIST.

" This simply refers to the indwelling of the Holy Spirit. It is junk theology, and deadly when applied to the plan of salvation, to say that a man must live a changed life as a condition of getting saved, or to prove that he is really saved. This is human reformation, and not the **"

fruit

" of the Spirit (Ephesians 5:22). Sorrow for sins is penitence , not repentance. Amending one's sins is penance , not repentance. Turning from one's sins is reformation , not repentance.

Repentance is simply "a change of mind" (Greek: metanoia) toward the truth. 2nd Timothy 2:25-26, "In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth; And that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will." Repentance is not turning from one's sins; but rather, acknowledging THE TRUTH that you are a guilty sinner, believing on Christ alone for salvation. Repentance and faith are inseparable in salvation, just as are voltage and current in electricity.

God does not dwell in buildings made with hands. The Apostle Paul was rebuking the external superficial dead worship of the heathens. Jesus told the Samaritan woman at Jacob's well in John 4:24 that God must be worshipped in " truth

and in

Jesus said that the Kingdom of God is within each believer. Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, Lo here! or, lo there! for, behold, the kingdom of God is within you."

God originally dwelt among His people in a tent, and then Solomon's temple, then Zerubbabel's temple, but the Lord's desire in the New Testament was to live inside every believer as His temple. WHAT A BLESSED PRIVILDGE!!! That is a wonderful truth. God wanted to be that close to His saints. John 14:23, “ Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him.”

2.4.3 Having Everything And Yet Having Nothing (2021-04-04 09:30)

Proverb 13:7,

There is that maketh himself rich, yet hath nothing: there is that maketh himself poor, yet hath great riches.

Proverb 16:8,

“

Better is a little with righteousness than great revenues without right.

A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches, and loving favour rather than silver and gold.

Psalm 84:10,

“For a day in thy courts is better than a thousand. I had rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God, than to dwell in the tents of wickedness.

One of the wealthiest celebrities of our generation is a man named [1]Chaim Witz (born 1949), better known by fans as Gene Simmons of the rock band KISS. The mind blowing photo below is Gene Simmons California mansion where he has lived for the past 36 years. Due to the insanely high California taxes, Simmons has finally had enough, moving to Washington state where there is no sales or income tax. Gene is selling the mansion below for a modest $22,000,000...

ABOVE: Gene Simmons of KISS' [3] $22,000,000 mansion

Gene and Shannon Simmons' new home is a [4]16,000 square feet mansion near Mount Rainer in Washington. Sadly, Mr. Simmons is infamous for having [5]fornicated with at least 4,000 women, showing not even the least amount of regret nor shame for his sins. Hebrews 13:4, "Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled: but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge." I am not condemning Gene. I am just as much a sinner as Gene or any other human being. Ecclesiastes 7:20, "For there is not a just man upon earth, that doeth good, and sinneth not."

James 2:10 says to break even one of God's commandments makes us guilty of breaking ALL of them. James 2:10,

"For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all." That is because committing even one sin makes us guilty, and only 100 % perfect people can go to Heaven. So whether you are Gene Simmons who has bedded thousands of loose women, or you are a sweet grandma whose worst sins are gossip and lying about a recipe she stole—neither of these people can go to Heaven. That is why God sent Jesus into the world. 1st John 4:9, " In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because that God sent his only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him." What a beautiful Bible verse!!!

The World Is The Enemy Of Jesus Christ

James 4:4, "Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God." The Beatles are God's enemies. They are enemies to the cause of Jesus Christ. Gene Simmons is God's enemy. So also are the other band members. I did not say they are bad people. I think Paul Stanley is a good man. [6]I follow his Twitter account, curious about his life as a musician. Paul donates millions of dollars to charity to help suffering children. Sadly, Paul and Gene are Jewish in their faith, and not born-again Christians. Jesus plainly told Nicodemus (a Jew) in John 3:3b, "Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God." There are no special exceptions!

Dear reader, this life will be over before we know it. George Harrison (1943-2001) of The Beatles is in eternity. John Lennon (1940-1980) of The Beatles is in eternity. Where did these men go? I am fully convinced that George went to Hell, because he followed false religion. There is no evidence that he died in the Lord. Everyone will either "DIE IN YOUR SINS" (John 8:24b) or you will "DIE IN THE LORD" (Revelation 14:13b). My mother died in the Lord in August of 2001. My father died in the Lord in 2010. My turn is next, whenever my time is up, and I know that I will DIE IN THE LORD, because I received Jesus as my personal Savior in 1980 at age 13. If you don't absolutely KNOW you are saved, you can and should know for certain. I know without a shadow of a doubt that I am saved and secure in the Lord's promise "TO SAVE THEM THAT BELIEVE" (1st Corinthians 1:21b).

There is a conflicting correlation between loving the world and getting saved. You don't have to stop committing any particular sin to receive God's free gift of eternal life (Romans 6:23). Eternal life is a free gift (Romans 5:15-18), which Jesus fully paid for with His precious blood (1st Peter 1:18-19). However, we read in 1st John 2:15-17 and elsewhere in the Holy Scriptures, that everyone who LOVES THE WORLD won't come to THE LIGHT OF THE TRUTH OF THE GOSPEL to be saved, lest their sins should be reproved (spoken evil of). John 3:20, "

For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved.

But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God*.

That is what repentance is, where a man acknowledges THE TRUTH that he is guilty sinner in God's sight (2nd Timothy 2:25-26; Romans 3:19-20), thus believing THE TRUTH of the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ he is saved (Acts 16:30-31). Repentance is NOT turning from one's sins, it is thinking differently toward God (Acts 20:21), so that a man agrees with God that he is a sinner in desperate need of the dear Savior (Galatians 3:24-26). That is why we read in John 3:21, "But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God." Carefully notice that the Bible doesn't say HE THAT TURNS FROM SIN comes to the light. No, the Bible says HE THAT DOETH TRUTH cometh to the light.

So in summary, you DON'T need to give up anything to be saved. God wants to give you something, eternal life. God's only begotten Son Jesus paid for it on the cross with His blood. Salvation is received, not achieved. You cannot impress God in any way to get to Heaven. You and I are guilty sinners. GUILTY! GUILTY! GUILTY! All of us are included in the indictment of humanity found in Romans 3:10-23 in the New Testament. There is a penalty for the wages of our sins, which is DEATH (Romans 6:23). Not only physical death, but the eternal second death in the Lake of Fire (Revelation 20:11-15; 21:8). Thankfully, Romans 5:6-9 tells us that **"

CHRIST DIED FOR THE UNGODLY.

Anyone, no matter how sinful they may be, who humbles himself at the cross of Jesus Christ, believing that JESUS died on the cross to pay their debt of sin, JESUS was buried, and three days later JESUS physically resurrected from the dead is saved (1st Corinthians 15:1-6). JESUS IS FOREVER RISEN!!! Do you believe it friend? Do you believe the 'GOOD NEWS' (Gospel) that I just preached to you. Believe it and you are saved. That is the ONLY work a person can do to get to Heaven. John 6:28-29,

"Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent."

Gene Simmons Has Everything And Yet He Has Nothing

Gene Simmons has a staggering net worth of $400,000,000. Gene is one of few people who has an extraordinary long tongue length. Simmons is infamous for his perversion, dirty mind, and offensive filthy body gestures during rock concerts. He dresses up like a demon while singing and playing bass, which is the actual name of his character. Simmons co-founded the band KISS in 1973, which is still performing in 2021. As a musician and music fan myself, I view rock music differently than many Christians do. I do see that it is sinful, but I am also able to appreciate and analyze the structure of the music.

I was never a KISS fan in my youth, but I liked a few songs like '[7]Tears Are Falling' and especially their 1995 'Unplugged' album, which was acoustic. [8]'I'm Coming Home' is a nice song. '[9]Hard Luck Woman' is my favorite, musically speaking. I love melody and harmony in songs. [10]Paul Stanley of KISS has a very beautiful voice. I like this 1965 song by Smokey Robinson And The Miracles called, '[11]Tracks Of My Tears,' as sang by Paul Stanley. I am impressed how well Paul sings this song. I think Paul Stanley sings the song better than Smokey Robinson does. I am not endorsing the music of KISS. They are wicked men in God's sight (Psalms 7:11). Albeit, I like all kinds of music. I THANK GOD that I am a born-again believer. Gene Simmons and Paul Stanley are already 70 years old. They are closer to the end of life than the start. That is true of myself as well; I just turned 54 years old.

The $64,000 question is: Where will you spend eternity? You can go to Heaven absolutely for free. Gene Simmons can be forgiven of all his woeful sins in a second, simply by trusting in the only begotten Son of God to forgive His sins. Acts 10:43, "

To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins.

" Apart from being born-again by faith alone in Christ alone, Simmons will split Hell wide open the moment he passes into eternity. His $400,000,000 net worth won't be able to buy him eternal life. Steve Jobs died a Buddhist without Jesus Christ, leaving behind a staggering $10,200,000,000 in wealth. According to the King James Bible, Steve Jobs went to Hell forever as a Buddhist. I didn't say that, the Bible does. Revelation 20:14-15, "And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death.

And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire."

I did not write this article to criticize anyone, God knows my heart. I saw that giant $22,000,000 beautiful mansion, and praised God that I am His redeemed child. [12]Oh it is wonderful to be a Christian! I also hate all the religious phonies, church greed and formal organized religion that drives people away from God. The lost world sees all that garbage and consequently fails to see God's goodness, love and truth. The world is going to Hell because of the love of money in the churches today (Luke 16:13). If America has any hope of ever being salvaged for God, we need a whole new generation of preachers who don't care about money. We need a generation of called preachers in the pulpit, not career-minded pastors merely pursuing a profession. America needs preaching preachers!!!

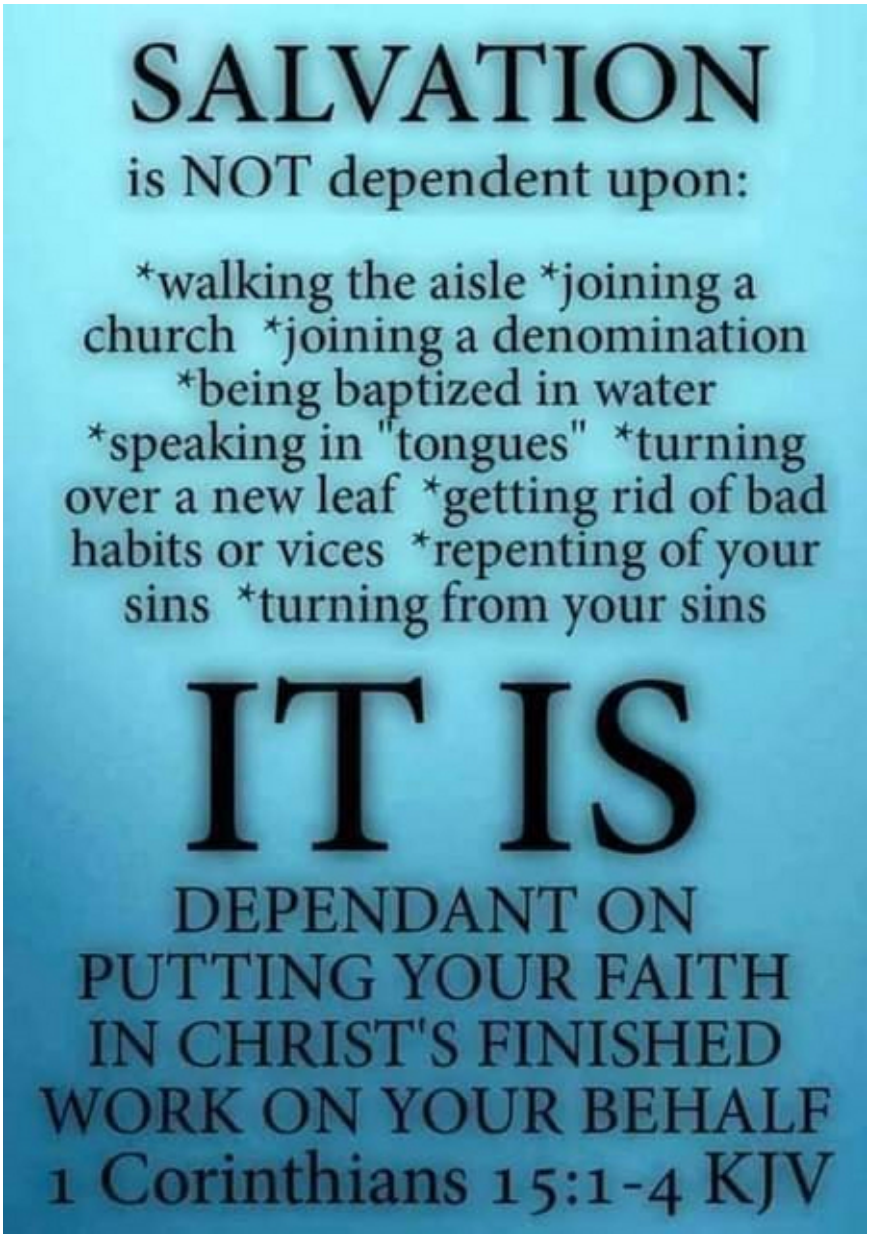
I only wrote this blog to get people saved. That's all. I want you to go to Heaven. It's completely free, so why not. You don't have to give up anything to be saved, God gave His only begotten Son to die on the cross to pay your sin debt (and mine). Eternal life is a gift to anyone who will comes to Christ as a guilty sinner. God only saves BAD SINNERS!!! The only thing that qualifies anyone for salvation is the sin that made it necessary. So if you say, "But I am a horrible sinner. You don't know the things I've done. God would never save someone like me!" Oh yes dear friend, God can and will save you. In fact, you are exactly who Jesus came into the world to die for... SINNERS! What saith the Scripture? ...



Romans 5:6-9, "

For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly.

For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die.

But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him."

The dirtier and worse of a sinner you are, the more Christ died for YOU! Christ died for THE UNGODLY, so the more ungodly you are, the more you can relish in being the object of God's great love dear friend. You are loved friend. You truly are. God loves you. God is loving you right now, by preaching THE TRUTH through me as His child. I am showing you how you can have eternal life, freely, just for the taking. All you have to do is acknowledge that you are a needy sinner in God's sight (Romans 3:19), and BELIEVE on the name of Jesus Christ as your Savior (Acts 16:30-31; Galatians 3:26). 1st Timothy 6:7, " For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out."

“We’re just playing church today!”

2.4.4 Alcohol Is The Most Dangerous Drug In America (2021-04-06 09:30)

Proverb 20:1, “

Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging: and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise.

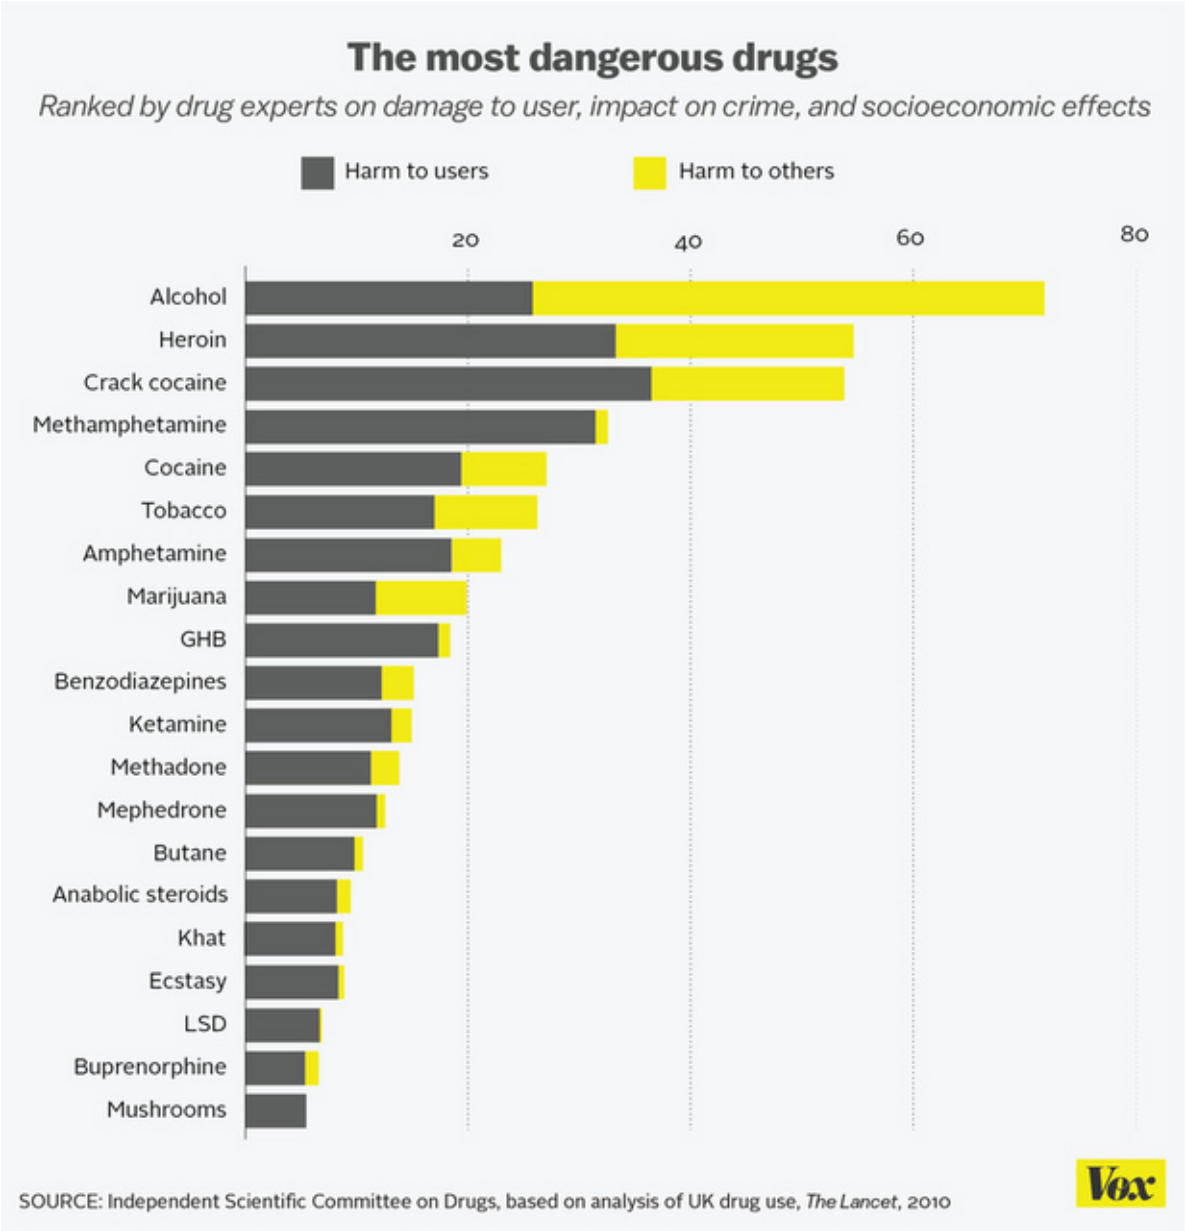
Proverbs 23:29-35, “Who hath woe? who hath sorrow? who hath contentions? who hath babbling? who hath wounds without cause? who hath redness of eyes?

They that tarry long at the wine; they that go to seek mixed wine.

Look not thou upon the wine when it is red, when it giveth his colour in the cup, when it moveth itself aright.

At the last it biteth like a serpent, and stingeth like an adder.



Thine eyes shall behold strange women, and thine heart shall utter perverse things.

Yea, thou shalt be as he that lieth down in the midst of the sea, or as he that lieth upon the top of a mast.

They have stricken me, shalt thou say, and I was not sick; they have beaten me, and I felt it not: when shall I awake? I will seek it yet again.

Dear friend, if you don’t take the first drink of beer, you cannot take the second. You cannot become a drunk if you don’t take the first sip of booze. I HATE BOOZE!!! I grew up around Skid Row, tagging along with my father who was a Skid Row Preacher for over 30 years in Chicago. We live in a hypocritical society in the United States, where the motto “Say No To Drugs” is relentlessly promoted to youth, ignoring the most deadly drug of all, which is ALCOHOL...

U.S. President Abraham Lincoln said, “Drink is a cancer in human society. eating out its vitals and threatening its destruction.” So much devastation is caused by alcohol in our society, in the homes and on the roads. The Bible says, Proverbs 23:29-30, “Who hath woe? who hath sorrow? who hath contentions? who hath babbling? who hath wounds without cause? who hath redness of eyes?

They that tarry long at the wine; they that go to seek mixed wine.

” Alcohol is rightly called: LIQUID DEVIL!!!

If a person holds a small swig of whiskey in their mouth for about 10 minutes, blisters will form in the mouth. If you were to blindfold that person then, and do a taste taste, they could not distinguish between water, vinegar or milk. This proves that alcohol is a violent irritant and strong narcotic drug! There is no way that any Christian believer can justify consuming booze, because it certainly doesn't glorify God (Matthew 5:16; 1st Corinthians 6:20). Instead, alcohol slowly destroys the body, mind and soul, which violates the Scriptures (1st Corinthians 3:16-17). I have seen too many bad things because of booze during my life.

Beer soaks America! As a child I often stood over the bodies of victims of alcohol. My father often performed funerals for men who died on Skid Row. I saw their lifeless body in the casket. There was no family present. These men died alone on Skid Row, having lived empty lives because of booze! Oh how the Devil is a beautiful liar! The Devil always pays with counterfeit money. Sin will always take you farther than you wanted to go, cost you more than you intended to pay, and keep you longer than you planned to stay. Sin is not your friend!

> "Christians can never sin cheaply; they pay a heavy price for iniquity. Transgression destroys peace of mind, obscures fellowship with Jesus, hinders prayer, brings darkness over the soul; therefore be not the serf and bondman of sin." —Pastor Charles H. Spurgeon, Morning And Evening: Daily Readings

Our insane American society expects children to do as we SAY, not as we DO. Children watch the adults and mimic what they see.

Alcohol is actually categorized as a Schedule I drug, meaning it is addictive but has no medical purpose. a Schedule II drug is addictive but has a medical purpose.

Alcohol (which I like to call 'BOOZE' for it negative connotations) is a drug.

"Now, kids, don't look until you're twenty-one."

Dear reader, please don't be deceived, alcohol is in fact a drug...

> Yes, alcohol is a drug*. Perhaps it's more dangerous because it is more accepted and less regulated. Alcohol is the source of many substance use disorders. In 2014, 16.3 million adults aged 18 or older had an alcohol use disorder. About 1.5 million adults received treatment for an alcohol use disorder at a specialized facility. Additionally, an estimated 55,000 adolescents received treatment for alcohol issues in a specialized facility. This proves that alcohol is addictive and can disrupt the lives of many. [emphasis added]
> SOURCE: [3]Is Alcohol Considered A Drug?

I thank and praise God that I've never drank a drop of alcohol in my life. I've never smoked a cigarette or toked on a marihuana joint. I don't know what a hangover feels like, vomiting all over myself after a night of boozing. I have never snorted cocaine. I have never taken any illegal drugs. Interestingly, both of my parents drank beer. My Mom smoked since age 15. My Dad drank Vodka. The reason why I didn't go down that path was because my parents wisely enrolled me into an independent fundamental Baptist church from junior high throughout high school. Those 7 years of being in a Christian environment changed my life for Jesus Christ.

I love my Mom and Dad for putting me into a Christian school. If they had left me in public school (which I did attend up until 5th grade, I 100 % guaranteed would have went to the Devil. I certainly wouldn't have went off to attend Hyles-Anderson College (1985-1993). The most important advice I could ever offer to parents is to enroll your child into a Christian school. By putting children into the public school system, you might as well say: "Here Devil, take my children and corrupt them." The most dangerous and destructive element in public schools is the worldly influence of ungodly youth upon your child. Peer pressure is irresistible.

Please look at the following disturbing photos of what drunk driving causes. This is the actual auto wreckage that caused [4]Jacqueline Saburido's deformities which you're about to see. Jacquelin died at age 40 of cancer, after suffering half her life from a horrific car wreck (it was no accident) when [5]struck by a drunk driver...

Not everyone who gets hit by a drunk driver dies.
Jacqueline Saburido was 20 years old when the car she was riding in was hit by a drunk driver. Today at 23, she is still working to put her life back together.

That is so horrible! I followed [11]Jacqueline's website for many years, since 2002 when I started my website. I am not sure when she began her website, but her tragic injury was in 1999. Drunk driving is NO ACCIDENT folks, people choose to get drunk! People know exactly how many beers they are drinking, but they don't care, which is why they drink too much and get drunk.

I am so sick and tired of the hypocrisy of Mothers Against Drunk Driving (M.A.D.D.). If alcohol messes up your head, how can you expect people to have enough sense not to get behind the wheel? These mothers want to have their alcohol-free drivers but drink it too, but that has never worked and never will. Moderation with alcohol is still taught today, but history has shown that moderation with an addictive substance is IMPOSSIBLE!

I take an even stronger stand as a fundamentalist Bible preacher

Dear Reader, while hanging in torment upon the cross, the Roman soldiers offered Jesus fermented wine, but He refused it. Matthew 27:34, “

They gave him vinegar to drink mingled with gall: and when he had tasted thereof, he would not drink.

” As soon as Jesus tasted the fermented wine, He refused it. If Jesus refused this beverage even as His body was tormented with extraordinary pain and thirst on the cross, why would He have drank wine normally in His life? Think about that. If Jesus were a drinking man, certainly He would have drank the alcohol on the cross, but as soon as HE TASTED IT, HE WOULD NOT DRINK IT!!! Jesus never drank alcohol.

The best policy is

from booze!

2.4.5 As Believers We Should Live A Holy Life (2021-04-09 09:30)

Matthew 5:16, “

Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.

2nd Timothy 2:19,

“

Nevertheless the foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity.

1st Peter 1:15-16,

But as he which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation;

Because it is written, Be ye holy; for I am holy.

I preach much about the Free Grace Gospel. That simply means we are saved freely by God’s grace and you don’t have to do good works to be saved (Ephesians 2:8-9). That means you DON’T have to turn away from your sinful bad habits to be saved (Romans 3:19-20). It has to be that way, otherwise God would owe you and me salvation. Romans 4:4, “Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt.” God doesn’t owe you and me anything except eternal damnation in the fires of Hell. It bothers me when I hear false teachers like Renee Roland saying in her YouTube videos that Hell doesn’t exist has no fire. Renee is messed up doctrinally and I recommend that everyone avoid her. That is why women ought not teach Bible (1st Timothy 2:11-14). Women preachers are all false teachers!!!

God commands every believer to depart from iniquity and be holy, as He is holy.

As believers, our POSITION in Christ was forever settled the moment we were saved, declared legally justified in the sight of God. However, the way we choose to live here on earth is our CONDITION in Christ. If we don’t want to be harshly dealt with by God at the Judgment Seat Of Christ as a believer (Psalm 6:1; 2nd Corinthians 5:10-11), then we need to please the Lord in our body, soul and spirit. God doesn’t expect us to be perfect, He just wants us to try by submitting in obedience to the Word of God. 2nd Corinthians 10:4-6, “ (For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds;) Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ; And having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled."

Our relationship with God is similar to that of our earthly parents. Once we are born, we have their DNA and no matter what, they will always be our parents. The moment you got saved, God gave you His spiritual DNA, the Holy Spirit. God seals every believer with the Holy Spirit (Ephesians 1:13-15). Nothing can change that. But now God is your heavenly Father, and He is not an absent parent (Hebrews 12:6-8). Just like our earthly parents, if we obey their rules they will be pleased (God sure will). When we do mess up, our attitude is important. Are we defiant, proud and rebellious? Or are we broken, sorry and humble to do better? God sees our heart.

Here is a helpful MP3 sermon by Pastor Jack Hyles titled: "[1]HOW TO BE RIGHT WITH GOD," if you'd like to listen to it. God wants to be close to you dear reader. James 4:8-10, " Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts, ye double minded. Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to heaviness. Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you up." God is broken hearted over the wickedness in society today.

God has a burden to see people get saved (2nd Peter 3:9). If we take the Lord's yoke upon us, and help Him win souls by sharing the Gospel with the lost, nothing pleases God more. Psalm 11:7, "For the righteous LORD loveth righteousness; his countenance doth behold the upright." God is a righteous God Who loves righteousness!

The only true righteousness we have as Christians is the imputed righteousness of God through faith alone in Christ (Philippians 3:9). But once born-again by God's righteousness, He wants us to walk by faith, allowing Jesus to live through us (Galatians 2:20). I am not living the Christian life in my own strength, but Christ liveth in me. Galatians 2:20, "I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me."

Pastor Charles Spurgeon rightly said:

> "Christians can never sin cheaply; they pay a heavy price for iniquity. Transgression destroys peace of mind, obscures fellowship with Jesus, hinders prayer, brings darkness over the soul; therefore be not the serf and bondman of sin." —Pastor Charles H. Spurgeon, Morning And Evening: Daily Readings

Dr. Bob Jones Sr. rightly said:

> "Bob Jones College, I told you, stands for the narrow road. We don't stand for the broad road. We don't stand for what is stood for in most educational institutions. We stand without apology for the old-time Christian philosophy of self-control and self-restraint. This institution is operating in its seventeenth year. All these years we have gathered around an idea: The Bible is the Word of God. Jesus is the Son of God. He died on the cross to save us. We are saved by faith in Him. We stand for 'honest-to-goodness' hard work. We stand for honest study. We stand for modesty and virtue for girls and for honesty and uprightness and purity for boys. We stand for the old decencies, the old traditions. The college started off like that. It stands > for those things still. We don't apologize to Mr. Anybody for it. And great prosperity, in spite of bitter opposition, has come to Bob Jones College because of the things for which it stands." —Dr. Bob Jones Sr., "Things I Have Learned: Chapel Talks," page 75-76; Bob Jones University Press, ©1945

Dr. Jones further rightly states:

> "God gives you eternal life when you take Him. Eternal life is wrapped up in Christ. 'He that hath the Son hath life.' There is just one difference between a Christian and a sinner. A Christian has Christ and a sinner does not have Him. That is the only difference. All you need is Jesus. It is all in Jesus! If you will take Him, He will blot out all your sins. If you take Him, He will give you a new nature. If you take Him, He will go with you along the journey of life. He will be with you when you are tempted. He will put arms of power around you and give you the victory. 'By grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God; not of works, lest any man should boast." —Dr. Bob Jones Sr., "Things I Have Learned: Chapel Talks," page 223; Bob Jones University Press, ©1945

I think John Bunyan said it best:

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." [emphasis added] —Evangelist John Bunyan

Any preacher who tells you that you must repent of your sin to be saved, or surrender to Jesus as your Lord, is a false teacher and a demonic liar. As believers we SHOULD live for Christ; not MUST (that would be works); not WILL (that is Calvinism). Calvinism is a false plan of salvation rooted in self-righteousness!!! Moody Bible Institute in Chicago has [2]succumbed to the Devil's lie of Calvinism, and is no longer a trustworthy religious institution. Bob Jones University has [3]succumbed to the Devil's lie of Calvinism. These institutions are now prisonhouses of religion!!! So also is the ungodly Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, who sinfully bid Godspeed to BJU and Dr. Steve Pettit. There is not a more wicked, shameful and dangerous organization today than the Harvest Baptist Church of Guam, who epitomize phony Christians, Pharisaical hypocrites, arrogance, sycophantic worship and false religion.

2.4.6 A Woman Who Is Right With God Loves Homemaking (2021-04-12 09:30)

Proverbs 31:10-13, "

Who can find a virtuous woman? for her price is far above rubies.

The heart of her husband doth safely trust in her, so that he shall have no need of spoil.

She will do him good and not evil all the days of her life.

She seeketh wool, and flax, and worketh willingly with her hands."

One of my favorite movies is the 1997 movie, 'Dante's Peak.' Volcanologist Harry Dalton (Pierce Brosnan) and mayor Rachel Wando (Linda Hamilton) of Dante's Peak try to convince the city council and the other volcanologists that the volcano right above Dante's peak is indeed dangerous. The public's safety is being set against for economical interests to make money. When the volcano erupts, hundreds of people die! Although I love the film, the following disturbing scene in the movie reflects the ungodly attitude of women today toward motherhood. This is [1]classic social engineering, telling women how to think by subliminal suggestive programming...

> Come again anytime!
> Thanks, Harry.
>
> Give us a beer there, Charlie.
>
> So, you ever get to Portland?
>
> No. I'm busy. Busy?
>
> What do you do for fun?
>
> Fun? Hmph. What is that? Fun? Oh, I know. Fun is what you have when you don't have two children, a business, a town to run*. [emphasis added]
> SOURCE: [2]Movie script for 'Dante's Peak,' 1997

What a horrible thing for any mother to say! Whoever wrote this script is a wicked person. Millions of barren women would give anything just for the blessing of becoming pregnant. I saw an Oprah Winfrey episode years ago about "

[3]Rent A Womb,

" in India. American couples who are incapable of having their own children, pay upwards of $40,000 to a young woman in India to become a surrogate mother. The man's seed is surgically inseminated into the woman and she gets paid perhaps $5,000. How insane this is when we consider the 61,000,000 murdered babies in the womb since the Roe Vs. Wade U.S. Supreme Court ruling in 1973. The United States is in big trouble with God. Can we really say truthfully,

In God We Trust?

Can we really sing with a pure conscience,

God Bless America?

The movie script from Dante's Peak is pathetic! Rachel Wando doesn't consider it "fun" to have children! SHE IS A SINGLE MOTHER!!! She is running a business and a town as mayor, a real SHE-MAN! This is typical social engineering, portraying women as leaders, strong, decisive, in control, ruling over men.

Isaiah 3:12, “

As for my people, children are their oppressors, and women rule over them. O my people, they which lead thee cause thee to err, and destroy the way of thy paths.

” God created Eve from Adam’s rib, to faithfully serve by his side as a

HELP MEET.

” Genesis 2:18, “ And the LORD God said, It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him an help meet for him.

There Is No Heroism In Divorce And Fornication

Being a single mother is very difficult. Single Moms have so many pressing responsibilities to take care of. It is NOT a glamorous lifestyle! They have to carve out some time for themselves. By choosing to be single, not only have women left their child without a father in the home, but now they leave the child alone while they go out on dates and having a social life. Children are the ultimate losers from divorce and having children out of wedlock!!! Fornication is epidemic in America. According to the preceding 2008 ABC News article, 33 % of single Moms had children out of wedlock. [4]As of 2018 that percentage is up to 40 % of women having children out of wedlock. This is a 28 % increase since 1990. America’s hook-up culture is destroying our society. No wonder crime is skyrocketing!

Sadly, do you know where you can find the most single Moms at any given time... DATING APPS! It is tragic. Online dating is a disastrous modern phenomena. Over ten million American females are desperately searching for a man to step up to plate to be a father to her irresponsibility and whoring around. Older men can marry down with age and income, but women cannot. This means as a women grows older, the chances of her finding Mr. Right quickly disappears. Men do not face time limits on finding a wife, but women do because their beauty exponentially fades with age, and the child bearing years virtually end past age 40. I am 54 years old and single. I could easily marry a beautiful 20-30 year old woman in the Philippines any time I want. I could be 70 years old! An older woman could never have a young handsome guy as a husband. Women marry up; Men marry down. That is a fact!

Over 90 % of men will have physical intimacy with a woman, but they WON’T put a ring on your finger or marry her, especially if she has any children. Women nowadays are sleeping around, wasting precious time, until one day they are horrified to realize that they are no longer desirable to men. Many of them will never have children or be happily married. Kindly said, those foolish women did that to themselves!

I am so sick and tired of seeing warped Hollywood and the ungodly mainstream media, the wicked music industry and and the lying news media, glorify the perverse dating bar scene in America. They show a group of young females having a good time, drinking booze, catching the attention of some tall dark-haired muscular hunk across the bar, and the next thing you know they are in bed together sinfully fornicating. That is classic social engineering, where women are being indoctrinated to think this is how life is supposed to be. Walt Disney for decades has been indoctrinating youth to score

with the opposite sex. Disney promotes fornication, not proper courtship that leads to marriage.

The Happiest Marriages Are Preceded By Proper Courtship

The happiest marriages are preceded by a proper courtship period. Waiting is what makes getting married so awesome and fulfilling. When couples have physical intimacy outside of marriage, the sacredness of the marriage bed is gone, cheapened, innocence is forever gone, and the special meaning of intimacy will never be the same. Satan knows this and wants to kill, steal and destroy your happiness. I cannot think of anything more sad, than a woman marrying the man of her dreams, having only a defiled body to offer him, handled by unholy hands by some bum who used her as a dog peeing on a fire-hydrant. That cannot happen to you if you get legally married first.

Since situations lead to temptation, a couple ought never be alone together until they get married. We need a revival of the importance of little things in America. The ungodly world scoffs at the idea of abstinence from drinking booze at all, but the fact is you cannot take two drinks of you don’t take the first. The heathen world scoffs at the idea that women ought not wear pants. But there wouldn’t be so many broken marriages and abortions if women clothed themselves properly. The way a woman dresses has a profound impact upon her behavior (1st Timothy 2:9). When I see a woman in a long modest dress, my first impression is that she is a Christian who loves God and righteousness. A woman in pants tells me that morality doesn’t mean much to her, and that she doesn’t care or understand how the man’s mind works. You have no idea ladies of what goes through a man’s mind when he sees a woman’s buttocks and thighs. If you did, you’d either be scared or it would thrill your perverse soul.

Single Parent Homes Is A Curse Upon Our Society

In a disturbing ABC News article titled, ’[5]Single Moms Struggle To Find Mr. Right,’ we learn that there are 10,400,000 single women in the United States; 44 % are divorced or separated; 33 % have never been married; 22 % are married. According to the U.S. Census Bureau, 75 % of the violent U.S. prison population came from a single parent household. So why does Hollywood and the music industry continue to propagate and glorify single motherhood? Why does the mainstream media keep glamorize single motherhood when they know it is harming society? The left has so much blood on their hands it is insane!

This is the consequence of Satanic social engineering. God didn’t intend for you to have children out of wedlock. Raising children is a big responsibility which God intended two people to share, not a single parent.

God’s curse is upon this gender-bending generation. Satan is the author of confusion, not God (1st Corinthians 14:33). Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) preached this excellent and needful sermon called: “[6]UNISEX.” There is nothing disdainful about motherhood and homemaking. Being a stay at home mother is God’s perfect will for young women, nothing else compares! Ladies, God didn’t create you for children, He made you to be a helpmeet to your husband. One day your children will grow up and leave, but your husband will still be there.

God made you for A MAN, not a career.

Women who talk about wanting a career, and fitting in a husband so she can have children, are delusional. I read a lot of dating profiles, since I am a bachelor. I am sickened at the things women are looking for! One 42 year old woman insanely said in her eHarmony profile that her goal in 5 years is to have a husband, children and a home, and work as a commercial pilot for a major airline!!! She is crazy! She presently works as a pilot for a small company. She wants to have all the blessings of marriage and motherhood, and pursue a career at the same time. IT IS IMPOSSIBLE!!!

You cannot have your cake and eat it too! She is not right with God, not even close. Her heathen mindset WILL prevent her from ever finding happiness. No woman will ever truly be HAPPY until she fulfills God's purpose for creating her, which is marriage and motherhood. Statistics prove that [7]career women are the most miserable group of people today! THEY SURE ARE! Literally tens of millions of American women have bought into the Devil's lie of the hook-up culture of death! If you have premarital sex, YOU WILL RUIN YOUR OWN HAPPINESS!!! You will end up with multiple children out of wedlock by different fathers, alone and miserable! Very few men want to raise somebody's else's mistakes from promiscuity! Millions will murder their children by abortion! Career women are miserable!!! Oh how sin thrills and then it kills! Oh how the Devil is a beautiful liar! Oh how sin fascinates and then it assassinates! All of Satan's apples have worms.

Abstinence Until Marriage And Motherhood Equal Happiness

Young ladies, I did not write this blog to condemn anyone, nor to make someone feel bad. I wrote this blog to hopefully prevent some of you from ruining your life. If you are a virgin, STAY THAT WAY until you are legally married. Anything less is sin and you'll become a victim. That guy WILL hit it and quit it, I assure you. Very few males are willing to get married anymore. They want the fun and privileges of marriage, without the obligations and risks that come with it. Yes, getting married is risky for men these days, but marriage is still God's way (Hebrews 13:4). Just because the courts are biased toward women (and they 90 % are in the United States), and women have been socially engineered to divorce when things go bad (70 % of divorces are initiated by women), doesn't justify the HOOK-UP sinful lifestyle!!!

There are at least a dozen popular YouTube channels operated by whoremongering men! One is The Better Bachelor. Another is Entrepreneurs In Cars, by a divorced man who promotes the hook-up culture instead of marriage. If men don't want to get married, that is fine, but then you must become celibate or bring the wrath of God upon yourself (Colossians 3:5-6; Romans 1:24-32; Hebrews 13:4). Walt Disney is of the Devil. Disney does more to promote fornication among youth than anyone, next to sicko Hollywood. God hates Walt Disney's lack of morality and so do I. Right living matters! The LGBTQ agenda is evil. You must decide young person, whether you are going to obey God's commandments (Ecclesiastes 12:13-14), or you are going to follow the lusts, pride and sinful pleasures of the world (1st John 2:15-17; James 4:4).

I am not condemning anybody. I am a big sinner like anybody else. But as a Christian I do desire to please God by doing what is right. I want to think right, do right, live right, and thankful because of Jesus' sacrifice on the cross for my sins, be right with God. Shaking-up is sinful. It is never God's will. I had a single mother write to me at my ministry. The father of her children wants to control her, tell her how to raise the children, and make demands for physical intimacy, so she asked for my Christian advice. My advice to her was very simple... STOP! I told her not to give him any more physical intimacy until he legally marries her. They are sinning by shacking-up. I told her that he legally has zero rights concerning how she raises the children, since he refuses to marry her. The law is 100 % on her side. A man who refuses to get legally married HAS NO RIGHTS to anything! Get married you wicked bum!

Satan is behind the MGTOW (men going their own way) culture in America! The Devil punishes men for getting married, so men have decided to have their fun instead, with ungodly loose women who likewise have no morals. God's judgment is upon them all. Hebrews 13:4, "

Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled: but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge.

" I have heard hundreds of horror stories throughout my 19 years of website ministry since 2002. It usually began with premarital sex. That is where the Devil often ensnares a young person, which almost always leads to a series of bad decisions and an ultimate trainwreck!

Young people, you decide to stay a virgin until you get legally married, even if it means dying as an 80 year old virgin!!! You would be far better off getting married as a 40 year old virgin, than to throw your virtue to the dogs as a young person, and regretting it emotionally the rest of your life, feeling defiled and dirty. Purity is the backbone of a happy life. Promiscuity will never be more fun than the first time, and it just goes downhill from there, until you feel like a public toilet. That is how millions of American women feel today, having had dozens of partners, many not even knowing who the father of their children is without a DNA test. That is pathetic, sad and wickedness!!!

I care about you friend. I truly want God's best for you! Marriage and motherhood are God's way (1st Timothy 5:14-15), the right and honorable way!!! Please don't allow this sicko, ungodly and screwed up world to teach you otherwise (Psalm 1:1-3). God's way is marriage or total abstinence. Hooking-up is evil. No Christian young woman has any business hanging out with bad friends in a cocktail bar. You are a fool if you do! Find yourself some much better friends. The world will laugh at you. The Devil will try to make you feel inferior and like you are missing out. Please don't fall for those lies!

Get married first! If it's not for sale, don't advertise it! Young women from childhood nowadays have been socially engineered by the media to dress seductively.

Dear friend, this world is a sick place. I saw a YouTube video about the popular 1997 movie, Starship Troopers , which is rated R. I learned that the film's producer got butt naked on the movie set, so the actors wouldn't feel as embarrassed, who were required to all get butt naked to be filmed for the movie. Can you imagine? Can you imagine removing all your clothes, underwear and all, in front of a dozen other wicked people, and then allowing ungodly perverts to film you with their insanely expensive high definition video cameras, so that tens of millions of ungodly people can lust upon your naked flesh when they watch the movie?

This is considered normal in Hollyweird. This evil is accepted in the United States as being okay. WE DESERVE GOD'S WRATH AND JUDGMENT!!!

What saith the Scripture? Lamentations 1:8, "

Jerusalem hath grievously sinned; therefore she is removed: all that honoured her despise her, because they have seen her nakedness: yea, she sigheth, and turneth backward.

" Anyway, I've covered multiple topics on this blog. As you can tell, I have a lot to say about this matter. It all ties together. One's attitude toward the Holy Bible, morality, the way you dress, the way you talk, the friends you choose, the goals you choose for your life —it all plays out in your personal relationships, how you behave and whether you end up married with children, or single and lonely in your 50's someday.

Please don't be foolish like the heathen world ladies. There is no joy and privilege greater than motherhood. It all starts with marrying a man who loves God. Don't you dare look for a man in a heathen university. You ought not attend a worldly college. You should be involved in a local Bible-believing church.

2.4.7 Lordship Salvation Refuted By Pastor David Breese (2021-04-15 09:30)

Acts 16:30-31, "And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house."

David William Breese (October 14, 1926 - May 3, 2002) was an evangelical Christian pastor and theologian from the mid-20th century to the early 21st century. Pastor Breese authored the following excellent defense of the Gospel, refuting the damnable doctrine of Lordship Salvation, titled:

“Danger,” by Pastor David Breese

One of the animated discussions which is now in the evangelical Christian scene surprisingly concerns the very issue of salvation itself. The question, therefore, of “What must I do to be saved?” is now being answered in a more complicated fashion than simply, “Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and you shall be saved” (Acts 16:31). Traditional fundamentalists and most Evangelicals have long held to the doctrine of salvation by faith alone. The answer has now become more elaborate than that, as Christians newly discuss whether salvation is by faith alone or by faith plus some other things.

Stated very simply, the view that is now called “Lordship Salvation” (a view rarely defined to the satisfaction of anyone) holds that the offer of salvation by grace alone through faith alone in Christ alone is false, for faith includes good works.

There are a number of deficiencies involved in this view, which should be noted:

1. It improperly understands justification by faith. Justification does not mean to be “made righteous” or to “progressively become righteous.” Rather, it means to be “declared righteous.”

It is improper to define faith as “commitment,” “dedication,” “surrender,” or any other expression which suggests a kinetic response on the part of the soul.

2. It ignores imputed righteousness. We are not saved by imparted, infused, or earned righteousness. No indeed, we are righteous by imputation.

3. It confuses justification and sanctification. To say that progressive sanctification is an “inevitable result” of salvation is evidence of doctrinal confusion. In each Christian, there may be at times a varying degree of affirmation to the leading of the Lord.

4. It misrepresents salvation itself. Salvation is presented in the Scripture in three tenses or three aspects. When I accept Christ, I have instant and eternal salvation in the sense of deliverance from the penalty of sin. As I live my life in commitment to Christ under the leadership and empowering of the Holy Spirit, I am delivered from the power of sin. Some Christians are insufficiently delivered from the power of sin, even to the extent of sickness (1 Cor 11:30) and physical death (1 Tim 1:20).

In the future, I am promised deliverance from the presence of sin. The Christian’s future in heaven is vouchsafed because of salvation by imputation and positional sanctification. When he believes, he is already seated in the heavenlies with Christ (Eph 2:6), and he is promised that he will never perish (John 10:28).

5. Lordship Salvation diminishes the value of New Testament truth for the Christian. A very high percentage of the epistles of the New Testament are written as instructions to believers. These instructions have produced conviction and commitment in millions of Christians down through the history of the Church. Lordship Salvation cancels the value of these admonitions, in that it declares that if one does not obey these instructions, one is not a Christian. Therefore, the answer to Christian imperfection (obvious in the character of many Christians) is that this person was never saved and needs to be saved. So evaporates the value of all instructions to grow in grace.

6. It holds the impossible doctrine of salvation by perfect commitment. The doctrine that one is saved by submission to the Lordship of Christ, cannot admit to the possibility of imperfect commitment. For, from a logical point of view, imperfect commitment is not, in fact, commitment. In that most honest Christians will admit to imperfect commitment, they are thereby admitting that they are not Christians. The impossibility of "perfect commitment" is a troublesome problem to the Lordshipists. So "Semi-Lordship Salvation" is what this notion is at best. We await word as to what percentage of commitment produces salvation. (Hint–the scriptural answer is zero, for salvation is by "unmerited favor," i.e., the grace of God.)

7. Therefore, Lordship Salvation makes assurance tenuous or impossible. Submission to the Lordship of Christ as the basis of salvation holds open the possibility that at some future date one may be less than perfectly submissive. If one holds to the Lordship Salvation view, one's basis of assurance of salvation is gone.

8. It diminishes the value of Calvary. In the Lordship view, Christ becomes less the Savior and more the Helper. Under this view, I cannot "cast my helpless soul on Him," but rather I must cooperate with His helpfulness.

9. It equates discipleship and salvation. The advocates of salvation by commitment to Christ uncritically (and with profound lack of discernment) view the many calls of Christ to His own to come and be His disciples as the call to believe the Gospel. Consequently, the expression "Follow me" becomes the way of salvation. Hence, until one becomes a disciple, he is not a Christian. The call to become disciples of the King, extended to Jewish individuals, is very different from the call to believe and therefore be saved by grace and become a member of the Body of Christ.

10. It misunderstands repentance. To translate metanoia as "repentance" has been most unfortunate. "To do penance" is not its meaning. It means "a change of mind." Too often this will be thoughtlessly defined as "a turning about," "sorrow for sin," "being sorry enough to quit," "a complete change of character," or "making restitution"–all such definitions are falsehoods. By these inaccurate definitions, faith in Christ is freighted with burdens impossible to bear. Such defective epistemology has demoralized many a Christian.

11. It disorganizes the Christian mind. Salvation is either by grace or by works. They cannot be mixed (Rom 11:6). Works produce no standing before God or merit for heaven. Mixing grace and works overly strains the Christian mind. With these inchoate ideas (exhumed doubtless from the vicinity of Rome) who can say with assurance "I know whom I have believed" (2 Tim 1:12)? Paul could.

Conclusion

These and many other considerations should be kept in mind when one examines the various ways of salvation being offered on the evangelical scene of our time. Much of the confusion of these days would be instantly resolved if we would remember that salvation is by grace alone through faith alone. To redefine these words is not permitted, for they have real, changeless, and eternal meaning. Let us then remember: "Now to him that works is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt. But to him that works not, but believes on Him that justifies the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness" (Romans 4:4-5).

We know that we are people of eternal consequence because we were made in the image of God. We were redeemed by the most precious substance in the universe, and that is the blood of Jesus Christ. We were called by the Holy Spirit into a life of great purpose.

2.4.8 Treasuring Up God's Wrath For Judgment Day (2021-04-20 09:30)

Romans 2:1-6, "Therefore thou art inexcusable, O man, whosoever thou art that judgest: for wherein thou judgest another, thou condemnest thyself; for thou that judgest doest the same things. But we are sure that the judgment of God is according to truth against them which commit such things. And thinkest thou this, O man, that judgest them which do such things, and doest the same, that thou shalt escape the judgment of God? Or despisest thou the riches of his goodness and forbearance and longsuffering; not knowing that the goodness of God leadeth thee to repentance? But after thy hardness and impenitent heart treasurest up unto thyself wrath against the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God; Who will render to every man according to his deeds:"

This powerful passage of Scripture applies to the unsaved person. The redeemed saint will not be judged according to their works for salvation; but rather, they are hidden in God's righteousness through faith alone in Jesus Christ. Philippians 3:9, "And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:

" Will you be FOUND IN HIM dear friend? Revelation 14:13, "

And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them.

There is a wonderful passage of Scripture in the Old Testament from Isaiah 6:10-11, "Make the heart of this people fat, and make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes; lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and convert, and be healed."

The Lord knew that the people wouldn't listen to Isaiah, but He still wanted Isaiah to preach the truth as a testimony against them, to fatten their calloused hearts. This is what it means in Romans 2:4-5,

" Or despisest thou the riches of his goodness and forbearance and longsuffering; not knowing that the goodness of God leadeth thee to repentance? But after thy hardness and impenitent heart treasurest up unto thyself wrath against the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God; " This is a profound passage of Scripture. God has been so good to America. The Lord continues to bless us abundantly because He is a good God. By not repenting (thinking differently) toward God to believe the Gospel, sinners treasurest up God's coming wrath (John 3:36).

Also, most people do not understand what the Bible means by

THE GOODNESS OF GOD.

" Most people who read the Bible think this refers to God being good. Well, God certainly is a very good God, but that is not what the Bible is saying in Romans 2:4. Without question, God has been extremely GOOD to America!!! Only an atheist or total ingrate would deny this fact. Despite our country's shortfalls and problems in comparison to other countries, the United States is still by far one of the most desirable place to live. The U.S. has one of the most amazingly diverse typographical landscapes. From the sandy beaches and hot deserts of California, and the breathtaking evergreen states, to the majestic Rocky Mountains and flat fertile farming plains of the Midwest, to the beautiful Appalachian Mountains and beautiful ocean toward the east—God has blessed America!!!

Yet, do people repent? Has God's goodness led men to repent? No, it hasn't.

Proverb 1:29-32, “

For that they hated knowledge, and did not choose the fear of the LORD:

They would none of my counsel: they despised all my reproof.

Therefore shall they eat of the fruit of their own way, and be filled with their own devices.

For the turning away of the simple shall slay them, and the prosperity of fools shall destroy them.

” PROSPERITY has destroyed the United States!

Proverb 30:8-9, “ Remove far from me vanity and lies: give me neither poverty nor riches; feed me with food convenient for me: Lest I be full, and deny thee, and say, Who is the LORD? or lest I be poor, and steal, and take the name of my God in vain.” It is God’s goodness which has caused most Americans to forget the Lord. Deuteronomy 6:12, “And houses full of all good things, which thou filledst not, and wells digged, which thou diggedst not, vineyards and olive trees, which thou plantedst not; when thou shalt have eaten and be full; Then beware lest thou forget the LORD, which brought thee forth out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage.”

Romans 2:4 is saying that God Himself is good, and that is what leads some men to repentance. It is not God being god to men that compels them to repent; but rather, it is God’s goodness Himself. But the Bible gravely warns that if a person neglects such a GREAT SALVATION, there will be no escape!!! Hebrews 2:1-3, “Therefore we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should let them slip.

For if the word spoken by angels was stedfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompence of reward; How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation; which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed unto us by them that heard him;

” 2nd Timothy 2:13, “ If we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself.”

2.4.9 Looking Unto Jesus The Author And Finisher Of Our Faith (2021-04-24 02:18)

Hebrews 12:2-3,

“ Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

For consider him that endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, lest ye be wearied and faint in your minds*. ”

I have been thinking about these precious Bible passages a lot recently, which help me get through each day. What a precious truth! Please notice what verse 3 says. Hebrews 12:3,

“ For consider him that endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, lest ye be wearied and faint in your minds.

” We are supposed to compare our afflictions and pain in our life to what Jesus suffered. The Lord’s life wasn’t a bed of roses. Some believers wear rose-colored glasses, not realizing that problems, pain, loss, suffering and people hurting us are all a part of this life. I don’t like those things, but this is reality.

I have heard countless people speak of moving into rural areas, just so they can live alone and escape the rat race in the cities. There’s a heavy metal song by the rock band Guns And Roses called “Welcome To The Jungle.” This world certainly is a jungle! And the bigger the city the worse the problems, poverty and more dangerous the jungle. Pastor Jack Hyles used to warn us preacher boys at Hyles-Anderson College, saying: “Fellas, it’s a jungle out there!” Dr. Hyles knew what he was talking about!!! The world is a jungle. America in 2021 has gone totally insane!

I saw a police video this week of a Columbus, Ohio police officer responding to a 911 call. The caller was frantic and said two girls were fighting, trying to stab each other, one attacking the grandma. When the cop arrived, one crazed man kicked a woman in the head on the ground. Just a second later, a 16 year old girl (weighing about 200 pounds) lunged right in front of the cop with a big 6" knife at another teenage girl’s head to stab her. The office fired 4 shots and killed the assailant. It was a sad event, but the officer 100 % did his job and deserves a medal of honor for bravery. What an expert marksman!

The brave officer could have done nothing, afraid of accidently shooting the wrong girl, but he took deceive action as a hero does, and saved the victim. The liberal insane left media actually blamed the cop, demanding his arrest and wanting justice. One black politician said that the cop brought a gun to a knife fight. Folks, it wasn’t a knife fight. The victim was unarmed, as the angry girl lunged at her head with a big knife. That is called an attempted stabbing, attempted murder, not a knife fight on the playground. But do you see how wicked the Devil’s crowd is? That officer deserves to be on the cover of Time magazine’s Man Of The Year, for the hero that he is. But that will never happen, because of the liberal Marxists today who see everything only through a filter of skin color. To the man with a hammer in his hand, everything looks like a nail sticking up! And to these Black Lives Matter (BLM) supporters, everything is about skin color, no matter how insane their claims and lack of rational.

More Deadly Than War: Black Lives Matter Communist Agenda

I love black people, Asians, whites, Indians, Middle Eastern and all humanity with God's unconditional love, but this liberal left Marxist agenda that is attempting to destroy harmony in society today is of the Devil. Friend, you need to understand history to grasp what is going on today. The following eye-opening statement was made in 1954 by Gregory Brock Chisholm (first head of the World Health Organization):

> "To achieve world government, it is necessary to remove from the minds of men their individualism, loyalty to family tradition, national patriotism, and religious dogmas." —George Brock Chisholm, in a Speech given at the, Conference on Education, Asilomar, California, September 11, 1954

What we are seeing happen in the United States today with climate control, homosexual rights, affirmative action hiring, blatantly open borders, transgender cancel culture, COVID-19 lockdown and Black Lives Matter is all a secret Marxist agenda to increase GOVERNMENT CONTROL. Total government is communism! Welcome to the sinister NEW WORLD ORDER!!!

What are we to do as believers amidst this utter insanity and obvious evil workings? Jesus told us in John 16:33, "These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world." Be of good cheer my friends!!! As Christians we ought to have God's love shining upon our face from within everywhere we go. If you are saved, and you're not smiling everywhere you go, you're not walking with God, you're thinking about the things of this world. Colossians 3:1-3 commands every believer (every born-again saint) to SET YOUR AFFECTION ON THINGS ABOVE, where Christ sitteth on the Father's right hand.

Dear friend, if you are saved you're name is written in Heaven. I have found that many professed Christians are miserable because they have never settled the matter of their salvation. Salvation is of the Lord (Jonah 2:9). I cannot save myself, and neither can you save yourself. That is why it is so wrong and absurd that the Lordship Salvation crowd goes around in the churches, hypocritically telling people to "

turn away from your sin

to be saved. Who can turn from their sin?

Psalm 130:3, “ If thou, LORD, shouldest mark iniquities, O Lord, who shall stand?” Don’t judge others because they sin differently than you do! We are all dirty, guilty and needy sinners in God’s sight.

Dear reader, to be saved LOOK TO JESUS! If you are saved, then LOOK TO JESUS throughout your life in all matters of faith, morality and decision making. Jesus is the Word of God (John 1:1-3, 14; Revelation 19:13). Jesus is the Living Word; the Holy Bible is the Written Word. Hebrews 1:1-2 teaches that God speaks to humanity today through His Son, through the Word of God. That is why Jesus said in John 5:39, “Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me.

Whatever problems you face today, LOOK TO JESUS! Whatever permanent health problems you may have, LOOK TO JESUS! Whatever failures, loss, family troubles, past crimes, sins or shortcomings you have in your Skelton Closet, LOOK TO JESUS! Get your mind off this dark and insane world. Get your mind off yourself, because you are inferior as a sinner. Get your mind off your friends, family and neighbours, because they will all let you down as sinners. Get your mind off of money, because the love of money is the root of all evil. Get your mind off this temporary life, and start focusing on laying up eternal treasures (Matthew 6:19-20).

2.4.10 Most Christians Have A Problem With Focus Not Faith (2021-04-26 09:30)

Hebrews 12:2,

“

Looking unto Jesus* the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

I counsel with many believers who email me with their problems. I always keep everything confidential. I don’t mention names. I am not a licensed counsellor, so I don’t give advice to people, I simply share biblical principles with them, to help guide them to make their own right choices. Life, when you boil it down to simplest terms, is nothing but a series of thousands of decisions. Little decisions affect big decisions later on.

I have learned that many believers who think they are having a crisis of faith, are really just focusing on the wrong things in life. I am as guilty of doing that as anyone. When we start focusing on life’s problems, we allow fear to override our courage, worry to control our faith, and hate to override our love. What saith the Scripture? ...

> Matthew 14:26-30, “
>
> And when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, It is a spirit; and they cried out for fear.

But straightway Jesus spake unto them, saying, Be of good cheer; it is I; be not afraid.

And Peter answered him and said, Lord, if it be thou, bid me come unto thee on the water.

And he said, Come. And when Peter was come down out of the ship, he walked on the water, to go to Jesus.

But when he saw the wind boisterous, he was afraid; and beginning to sink, he cried, saying, Lord, save me*.

The Apostle Peter walked on water, obeying the Lord's command. But Peter quickly sunk into the Sea of Galilea when he lost his focus on Christ. Peter didn't see the raging storm first and then sink. No, he first took his focus off the Lord and then sank. I love this little true precious Bible story, because it teaches us as Christians the importance of KEEPING OUR EYES ON JESUS! What saith the Scripture? Philippians 4:13, "I can do all things *through Christ which strengtheneth me.

John 15:5, " I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing."

Without the Lord Jesus Christ no believer is going to be effective at serving the Lord. Now corrupt churches, like the Harvest Baptist Church of Guam, achieve worldly success by going through the religious motions, but the power of the Holy Spirit of God is absent. They achieve high attendances on Sundays, but they use manmade machinery to accomplish their work. They pray in vain, because they worship God with their mouths, but their heart is far from Him (Matthew 15:8). How do I know that? It is very simple, they uses and promote umpteen different Bible versions. These modern revisions are Devil's Bibles! You can only trust the King James Bible in the English language. I also know that Harvest worships God afar off because they preach a perverted gospel, a false plan of salvation. This Calvinist heresy is commonly known as '[1]LORDSHIP SALVATION' and it is deadly, let me tell you!

Now I love the folks at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, and I love the folks at their cult headquarters at Bob Jones University in South Carolina. However, I love God and THE TRUTH more! Jesus told the Samaritan woman in John 4:24 that no man would be able to worship God, except in two things: spirit and truth. Harvest does not care about truth when they use, sell and promote multiple different versions of the Bible, confusing everyone. Just as Jesus said to the Samaritan woman in John 4:22, "Ye worship ye know not what: we know what we worship: for salvation is of the Jews.

" The BJU crowd don't know what they worship! How can they when they don't even know which Bible God authored.

How can the Bob Jones crowd worship God, when they cannot even discern the true Gospel, which is by God's free grace through faith alone without works. When BJU adds [2]turning away from your sinful behavior to be saved, they don't know what they're talking about.

John 4:22a, "Ye worship ye know not what: we know what we worship..."

" I use ONLY the inspired and infallible King James Bible. I believe ONLY the free grace Gospel by faith along, not turning from bad habits to receive God's gift of eternal life (Romans 6:23; Ephesians 2:8-9). Matthew 15:8-9, "

This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips; but their heart is far from me.

But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men*.
” When Marty Herron, John MacArthur, Charles Phelps, Sam Horn, Steve Pettit or Gary Walton require you to ’TURN FROM YOUR SIN’ to be saved, you KNOW that they are worshipping God in vain, because they are teaching the commandments of men instead of the commandments of God almighty in the Bible.

We are living in a perverse generation today. This gender-bending generation doesn’t even know what it means to be male or female anymore. Our churches do not know which Bible God authored. Our churches cannot discern which plan of salvation is the right one. Sadly, of all things, it is our nation’s Bible colleges that are the major source of damnable heresy creeping into the churches today. Moody Bible Institute, Bob Jones University, Maranatha Baptist University, Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary and Liberty University ALL preach Calvinist false gospel. I wouldn’t send my dog to these religious institutions, and I don’t even have a dog. Seriously, why should parents spend and invest $100,000 for their child to come out of a stupid Bible college with less fire, less faith and less confidence in the Word of God than when they enrolled? If you don’t believe me, please listen to Evangelist Lester Roloff (1914-1982):

> “But you see, the attitude of this generation is: If you got a lot of education, Boy we’ve got it made! I mean that’s it; I mean, you’re just super-duper! ... Any kind of education that doesn’t strengthen your faith in Jesus is an abomination!!! And the average college graduate comes out with less faith and less fire, than he had when he went in. I’m talking about in the Christian schools, in the seminaries, and in the Bible schools across this country; now that ought not be!” [emphasis added]
> —Brother Lester Roloff, a needful quote from the MP3 sermon titled, “ [3]’THE LIVING BIBLE’ EXPOSED! ”

I wouldn’t give you a dime for BJU today. Their clothing standards are extremely low for females students, now allowing them to wear tight slacks during sports, revealing their buttock crevice. Whatever happened to good old fashioned decency? I’ll tell you, raising such high standards means seeing your enrollment number of students tank. BJU needs the money to pay all their faculty, maintenance, nurses, et cetera. Jesus emphatically stated in Luke 16:13 that NO MAN can serve God and mammon. Money should only be used as a tool to further The Great Commission, not become a means to make a living. Although nearly every Bible college would agree, their low moral standards, cultish behavior, lack of doctrinal soundness and indifferent attitude toward the infallibility of the Bible speaks to the contrary.

The problem with most believers today is not a lack of faith, but of focus on the Lord. Today’s Bible colleges are sadly focusing on money, which is why they are indifferent toward truth. Money always gets in the way of spirituality. The Bible says the LOVE OF MONEY (or the desire for money) is the root of all evil. The love of money corrupts Bible colleges and churches. Harvest Baptist Church on Guam is all about making money, sustaining careers of their BJU graduates, preparing young people to pursue college training for careers. Harvest advertises this as a selling point to parents. I saw a YouTube commercial yesterday from HBC, luring parents on Guam to enroll their children into Harvest Baptist Academy, so they receive college prep courses. You see, it’s an education business. I’ve said it many times before... Harvest is a big school with a church on the side!!!

What is your focus dear reader?

Hebrews 12:2,

Looking unto Jesus* the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

” Most people have their life’s priorities all wrong? This includes Christians. I think many marriages fail because couple’s have the wrong priorities. Money out not be a priority in any marriage. Fearing and obeying God should always be everyone’s top priority (Ecclesiastes 12:13). Every married couple ought to decide to keep their focus on God, and loving each other, and nothing else matters! When you start focusing in other places, you’ll get off course.

The King James Bible is our navigation compass throughout life. When you think or realize that your life has gotten off course, use the navigator. What saith the Scripture? Psalm 119:105, “Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path.” Please keep your focus on Jesus. That means staying focused on God’s Word. John 5:39, “Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me.” To be honest I get discouraged all the time. I feel like God never answers my prayers. And the professed believers who claim that God answers their prayers all the time, are big liars! I have watched their lives, and they have just decided that God always answers their prayers, and so they go around saying that, making them sound spiritual.

The truth is that you feel like God doesn’t answer your prayers anymore than I always do. But you know what, I pray all the time without ceasing. Why? It’s not because I am a good Christian, I’m not. It’s certainly not because I am confident that God will answer my prayers, I truly gave up long ago on expecting God to answer any of my prayers. I mean that. I have zero confidence that God will answer any of my prayers. At age 54, I have yet to see even one prayer answered, where I can say without any shadow of a doubt that God did something in response to my prayer. So why do I bother to pray? It is simply because I HAVE FAITH IN GOD (Mark 11:22). I am 100 % confident that God could, and will, answer my prayers if He wants to. I just figure that God has already given me everything that I need, so that I didn’t have to ask Him. But I don’t know, to be honest. The Bible says in 2nd Corinthians 5:7 that we walk BY FAITH, and not BY SIGHT. So I am commanded to pray, whether I see results or not. That requires a much greater faith. Perhaps God wants to give me a greater reward in eternity. My main prayer for the past several years has been to find a wife.

But regardless of what happens, I am going to stay focused on the Lord. Hebrews 12:2,

Looking unto Jesus* the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

” This insane world doesn’t know Jesus, but I do, and He is precious, lovely and the great joy of my every moment of my miserable existence. Thank you Lord for loving and redeeming a broken sinner like me!!!

2.4.11 The Truth Burns In My Heart, I Cannot Stop Preaching (2021-04-27 00:31)

Jeremiah 20:9, “Then I said, I will not make mention of him, nor speak any more in his name. But his word was in mine heart as a burning fire shut up in my bones, and I was weary with forbearing, and I could not stay.”

I know I said last week that I need a long break and won’t be preaching as much, but I cannot stand it, I have to preach! THE TRUTH is burning in my soul and I cannot hold back. The prophet Jeremiah experienced the same thing. Jeremiah was discouraged, having to preach a message of doom and gloom to his beloved people of Israel. At first God promised the people of Israel that if they simply humbled themselves to King Nebuchadnezzar, that they would be allowed to remain in Jerusalem and live in their own homes. But if they refused to submit to Babylon, they would be destroyed and taken captive as slaves 400 miles to the east as slaves in Babylon. Sadly, the Jews refused to obey God and they were enslaved for 70 years to Babylon! The Word of God was proven true! Whoever you may be, I highly recommend that you don’t side against the Word of God, because you assuredly will rue the day that you did!

Dear reader, I am the PRISONER of the Lord, not merely His SERVANT. Philemon 1:1, “

Paul, a prisoner of Jesus Christ, and Timothy our brother, unto Philemon our dearly beloved, and fellowlabourer,

You see, a servant can quit anytime they want, but a prisoner cannot. Jeremiah tried to quit preaching, but the truth of God’s Word burned as a fire in his heart and the ole boy couldn’t bare it. I couldn’t stop preaching if I tried! THE TRUTH is as a wildfire burning in my soul. I will be writing less, but I must preach THE TRUTH.

When little ole David, a humble Jewish shepherd boy in Israel, came out with his sling and five smooth stones to fight the 9’ 6" Philistine giant Goliath, his older brothers mocked him and tried to send him back home. 1st Samuel 17:29, “

And David said, What have I now done? Is there not a cause?

” I love that! David was so right! IS THERE NOT A CAUSE DEAR READER? The Gospel of free grace is under brutal attack today in our Bible colleges and churches, being replaced with a perverse counterfeit gospel of partial faith in Christ plus works. Trying to live above sin is human effort, a form of self-righteousness. My Bible preaching is justified. There is a dire cause. Life is short, Hell is hot and eternity is a long time. There are no second chances once a person breathes their last breath and dies (Hebrews 9:27).

I receive thousands of emails each year in my website ministry. I love helping people. I love answering Bible questions. I noticed many trends among those who contact me, which helps me to know which issues need to be addressed more through my preaching. I’ve noticed that where many people go wrong on the Bible is when they randomly start lifting text out of contact, creating a new pretext. That is, they wrest (torture) the Bible. Oftentimes they got their false teachings from corrupt preachers, Calvinists. In case you don’t know, Lordship Salvation is nothing more than Calvinism repackaged. Calvinism refers to the teachings of a man named John Calvin (1509-1964). Calvin was a mass-murdering monster, a crazed highfalutin religious leader in Switzerland who butchered the Bible, and literally murdered 58 people (including women and children) who disagreed with his perverse theology.

I love helping people. I love God. I love the truth. Since 2002 when I started my website ministry by God’s grace, my only heart’s desire has always been to help people get saved, find happiness serving Jesus Christ, find perfect peace about their assurance of salvation, and become as wise as serpents in this insane world. There is no reason to live a defeated life as a Christian. We have so much good in store for us down the road. For now it is time to do the Master's work of soulwinning. The only happy Christian life is living to win souls to Christ!

Lord willing, I plan to keep preaching until my last dying breath. It has been so exciting seeing people get saved. A few months ago [1]I found this excellent Gospel sermon online by Pastor Dennis Rokser. I was so humbled and encouraged as I listened to the entire sermon, recognizing that many of the images he used, and truths he preached, came from my website ministry. I admit that most of the things I share on my websites I gleaned from other preachers too. I love Bible preachers! I love all my Christian brethren and sisters. I love New Testament churches. I love every living creature with God's unconditional love. We all learn from each other. I am happy when people copy from me, learn from me, and I had a part in shaping their beliefs and bettering their life for Christ. I always give Jesus ALL the credit, praise and glory.

Dear friend, you can be happy in Christ. There are excellent Bible-believing churches all across the United States. I mentioned seeing trends among emails. Nearly everyone who shares their broken lives with me don't go to church. They have no spiritual guidance in their life. Some people are critics, and no matter what church they attend they have a big magnifying glass and before long become disgruntled and leave. If a church is correct on the Gospel and uses only the inspired King James Bible, you'd be wise to put down your roots and call that place home. I am 54 years old. The happiest years of my life have been while attending a growing independent Baptist church. I love Christians!!!

It is open season on preachers nowadays. I am always on the side of pastors and preachers! I won't defend a man who is wrong, but I am tired of critics who try to destroy a pastor for what faults he does have, while completely ignoring all the thousands of people God is helping through his labors for Christ. No human being ought to be defined by their mistakes, sins and faults. Thankfully, God looks at the whole life (Proverbs 15:3), not just someone's failures like people do. The Devil is an accuser (Revelation 12:10).

The internet is a deep dark place. There is much hatred, slander, lies and Satanic content in cyberspace. That is the Devil. The Devil's children act like their father, the Devil (John 8:44).

Pastor Jack Hyles wisely said: "

Preaching is truth set on fire!

" I love that. Visit 99 % of churches today and you won't find any fire. Quite frankly, most churches are extremely boring. I am saddened when I see YouTube videos of church services, and some female wearing a short dress (a few inches above her knees) gets up on stage to sing. That is inappropriate. Ladies ought to wear dresses a few inches above the floor, not above their knees. Anyway, I digress. I need to preach THE TRUTH. My heart burns and yearns to expose falsehoods and uphold truth, because that helps people. To God be the glory, great things He is doing.

2.4.12 The Book Of Hebrews Wasn't Written Just To Jews (2021-04-28 01:18)

2nd Timothy 3:16-17,

All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: That the man of God may be perfect, throughly furnished unto all good works.

Heresies abound on the internet. I've heard umpteen false teachers claim that the book of Hebrews wasn't intended for every believer, but only for Israel. That is false! W e are taught in our text Bible passage that ALL SCRIPTURE is inspired by God, and is profitable to every believer, not just Jews. Our Lord Himself commanded in John 5:39, “

Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me. ” The Bible was written to every human being. The unsaved man cannot understand the Bible (1st Corinthians 2:14-16), but God wrote it for him too, as evidenced by the curious Ethiopian Eunuch who was reading from the book of Isaiah in Acts 8:37-39. Phillip went up to his chariot and explained the meaning of the Bible, and wonderfully led the man to Jesus as his Savior.

The Gospel of John was written for the purpose of convincing humanity that Jesus is the Christ, the only begotten Son of God. Obviously this must include the lost person, and obviously the lost person must be able to grasp the book of John enough to be saved, otherwise there would be no reason for John to try to convince the lost person to believe (John 20:31). So the Bible was not just written for just Christians, nor were specific books written just for Jews. The Apostle Paul wrote his various epistles to different churches and groups, yet we read that ALL SCRIPTURE is profitable for the believer.

Jesus said that when He left the earth, He would send the Holy Spirit to draw ALL MEN unto Himself. John 12:32, “ And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me.” Titus 2:11,

“For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath *appeared to all men,” In both of these Scripture passages for find the word

“ALL MEN.” Clearly, this refutes the heretic teachings of Calvinism, particularly the heresies of Unconditional Election, Limited Atonement and Irresistible Grace. If grace cannot be refused, then it cannot be God's grace. Biblically, the truth is that CHRIST DIED FOR ALL MEN (2nd Corinthians 5:14-15; 1st John 2:2).

God did not author the Holy Bible with the intent to keep unbelievers in the dark. Rather, God desires for ALL MEN to repent (change one's mind) unto the truth, coming to Christ for eternal salvation (2nd Peter 3:9; 2nd Timothy 2:25). So the book of Hebrews applies to everyone, not just the Jews. I've also heard false teachers claiming that the book of Matthew is only for the Jews, particularly chapter 24. That is utterly untrue dear reader. The book of Matthew presents Jesus a majestic KING. Mark presents Christ as a suffering SERVANT. Luke presents Jesus as a humble MAN. And John presents Jesus as almighty GOD. Thus, in the four gospels we have a complete well-rounded presentation and documentation of our dear Savior.

Kindly said, I am so sick and tired of all this dispensational junk theology being pushed today in the Bible colleges and churches. I deliberately have avoided theology my entire life, because theologians debate and argue rather than go soulwinning and serve Christ. When I had the blessed privilege to attend and graduate from Hyles-Anderson College (1985-1993), Pastor Jack Hyles intentionally decided NOT to have the faculty teach theology at HAC. I had several dozen classes on Biographies Of Great Men, Bible Doctrines, Church Education, Soulwinning, Old And New Testament Survey, Building A New Testament Church and the different books of the Bible; but we didn't sit there in class and learn big words like eschatology (end time prophecy), soteriology (salvation), nor [1]debate the merits of molinism!

Dr. Hyles believed that only preachers can reproduce preachers, so he put active soulwinning preachers in the classrooms. Dr. Hyles didn't want some deadbeat theologian, who wasn't actively involved in a soulwinning ministry, teaching any class. Brother Hyles was so wise and 100 % right, and I love him for it. In sharp contrast, Bob Jones University in 2021 is as the sinking Titanic, full of deadbeat lame professors who deny the inspiration of the King James Bible and never witness to anyone. Goodnight, [2]BJU cannot even get the Gospel right. Instead they propagate the Satanic lie of Lordship Salvation! It ought to really be called "

Lordship Damnation

!!! (Galatians 1:6-9). BJU despises the word

soulwinning,

" because in their Calvinist views you cannot truly KNOW that you're saved [3]until you cross the finish line at the end of your life. Kindly said, Dr. Steve Pettit is [4]the worse thing that ever happened to BJU!!!

Be Careful Who You Listen To

I feel sorry for anyone who opens the Word of God, and sincerely believes that certain parts of it don't apply to them, or are not for today. If those are your thoughts friends, the Devil has deceived you! All of the Word of God was written for YOU, and for ME, and for WHOSOEVER reads it. Even the Apostle Peter said he had difficulty understanding Paul's writings. But Peter didn't contact the local ministerial board and publishing company to rewrite the Bible to make it easier to understand.

No, Peter warned that unlearned (ignorant; dummies) people, and unstable (vacillate; to move in an uncertain manner) people wrest (torture) the Word of God unto their own destruction. 2nd Peter 3:16-17, "As also in all his epistles, speaking in them of these things; in which are some things hard to be understood, which they that are unlearned and unstable wrest, as they do also the other scriptures, unto their own destruction. Ye therefore, beloved, seeing ye know these things before, beware lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own stedfastness."

One of my favorite preachers, Dr. Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) wisely said: "A good rule to follow when interpreting the Bible is to never use an obscure passage to contradict a clear one." I am amazed at some of the ridiculous theories that people come up with regarding the Word of God, with no logical basis for their assertions. I once witnessed to a man who rejected the truth I gave him. Instead he says he believes in reincarnation. I asked him what was the basis for his beliefs. I was saddened and bewildered as he compared life and death to a caterpillar that undergoes transformation eventually into a butterfly. I used to study caterpillars and butterflies as a child, and I loved especially watching the beautiful caterpillars crawl along. God is so amazing and wonderful beyond words to express His greatness.

I couldn't believe that the lost man I had just witnessed the Gospel to, rejected the truth in favor of a wacky notion that he will someday be reincarnated like a fuzzy caterpillar. 2nd Timothy 4:3-4, " For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables." Dear friend, I am giving you SOUND DOCTRINE. That is why I always cite my claims, so you can search the Scriptures for yourself, and verify if what I say is true or not.

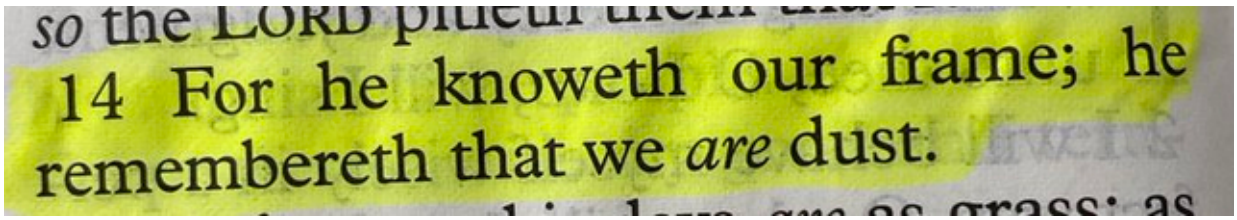
I KNOW that I am saved. I KNOW that I am a redeemed child of God. I KNOW that I am on my way to Heaven. I don't have a single doubt or worry. I once witnessed to an unsaved Muslim man years ago, who got upset with me, accusing me of arrogance because I said that I "KNOW" I am going to Heaven. Well, I do KNOW. 1st John 5:13 says we can **"

KNOW.

" I KNOW that I am saved because God made humanity a solemn promise, " TO SAVE THEM THAT BELIEVE

" (1st Corinthians 1:21; Titus 1:2; John 3:16). In Islam, you can only do your best and hope you make it. Allah is unpredictable and you cannot know for certain if he'll accept you or not until you get there. Of course, Allah is a myth, a false god. Allah has no son according to the Koran, but the God of Christianity has one biological Son, Jesus. So, clearly, Christians and Muslims DON'T worship the same God. Islam is a false religion.



I only mentioned these things to encourage you to do your own study. SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES Jesus said in John 5:39. Be very careful who you listen to on the internet. YouTube preachers are dime a dozen, and they're dangerous on many levels. If you're not careful, the internet will have you all turned around backwards, blown about by every strange wind of doctrine. The book of Hebrews is for EVERYONE, not just Israel.

Stay away from dispensational teachers, unless you know who they are. I do not have a problem with Pastor Harry Ironside's (1876-1951) modest views on [5]dispensationalism, although [6]I don't like it. Please stay away from deeper life theologians who want to debate religion, producing more heat than light. Our duty as believers is to GO YE INTO ALL THE WORLD preaching the Gospel (Matthew 28:19-20). Mark

16:15, "And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature."

The Lord wanted the Gospel to perpetuate from one generation of believers to the next, spreading the GOOD NEWS throughout the entire world to get people saved. This is THE GREAT COMMISSION. For most churches today is has sadly deteriorated into THE GREAT OMMISSION.

[7]

so the LORD pitieth them that 14 For he knoweth our frame; he remembereth that we are dust.

"The true Gospel always points you to Christ; a false gospel always points to you." —[8]Pastor Dennis Rokser

2.4.13 What People Really Mean When They Push You Away (2021-04-28 15:12)

Luke 24:27-29, “

And beginning at Moses and all the prophets, he expounded unto them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself.

And they drew nigh unto the village, whither they went: and he made as though he would have gone further.

But they constrained him, saying, Abide with us: for it is toward evening, and the day is far spent. And he went in to tarry with them.

Jude 1:22,

“And of some have compassion, making a difference:

And others save with fear, pulling them out of the fire; hating even the garment spotted by the flesh.

Human beings tend to live shallow lives. We judge people right away based upon what we see, lacking the understanding to look deeper and see what might really be going on. As a Christian I have learned to always look beyond someone’s faults, and try to discern their needs instead. For example: When someone is angry, most people see a hateful person, but I see someone who is frustrated for a reason. I try to find out why they are angry, and perhaps there is something I can do to fix the problem, instead of condemning them as a troublemaker.

What they need is God’s love and the Gospel. They need for someone to care.

Most people view hardened criminals as the scum of society, but I see people for whom Christ died (Romans 5:6-9), who very likely grew up in awful homes without parental love and care. Society locks them away in cages as punishment and forgets about them. What they need is God’s love and the Gospel. Most people look at a prostitute on the street and see someone who is a loser, but I see a person in poverty who is trying to survive.

What they need is God’s love and the Gospel.

Most church people see someone who refuses to go to church as an ungodly person, but I see someone who has been hurt in the past by religious people, or has seen all the horrible news reports coming out of churches nowadays.

What they need is God’s love and the Gospel.

So you see, even though people are inherently sinful by nature (Romans 3:10-23), that doesn’t mean everyone is evil who doesn’t go to church, or live the way we do as Christians.

In our text passage, Jesus had just expounded the two men He met on the road to Emmaus. The Lord called them “

fools

” in Luke 24:25 for being slow to believe the Gospel. There are many fools in the world today. Sadly, many Jewish people reject Jesus as their Messiah. Gene Simmons and Paul Stanley of the rock band KISS are Jewish, both rejecting Jesus as their Messiah. Kindly said, according to the King James Bible those men are not saved. Jesus told Nicodemus (a Jew) that except a man is BORN-AGAIN, he cannot enter into the Kingdom of God (John 3:1-7). I love all Jewish people, and this is not a matter of ethnicity, God forbid. It is strictly a matter of theology. YE MUST BE BORN-AGAIN!!!

After calling them fools, Jesus expounded them with the Old Testament (which is all they had at the time), beginning with Moses and working His way through all the prophets. The two men were astounded at the truths Jesus taught them. When they finally arrived at their destination, the men invited Jesus to spend the night in their home as a guest. Our dear Lord as a gentleman pretended that He needed to move on, but they begged Him to stay, and He did. The Bible says Jesus did really want to stay, but He was being a true gentleman. I love that! So you see, when people seem to push us away, or resist our friendliness, we need to look deeper and see what they really need and want.

I never assume anything with people. I always like to give people the benefit of the doubt. People just want to be loved. Everyone needs to be loved. Sadly, one of the least loving places today are many of our deeper life churches. I have lived on Guam since 2004. The least loving place on Guam is the Harvest Baptist Church in Mongmong Toto Mai. They are a loveless bunch of Bob Jones University graduates, who only care about making money with their schools on the island. Whereas I have reached out to them countless times with love, literally pleading to be able to simply attend church services, they have cruelly told me via email to “

Go elsewhere.

” That was Pastor Marty Herron in 2017. Sadly, the new pastor since 2018, Gary Walton, is just as bad, ostracizing and ignoring my pleas for a church family all these many lonely years. Where dwelleth the love of God? These people at Harvest don’t know what God’s love is. They lack compassion, as a bunch of academics trained by academics, not trained by church builders. I still love and pray for them regularly, but their hearts are hardened against God, the truth and me as a humble truth-telling believer.

All I have ever truly wanted is to be loved by Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, as I have loved them with truth, gifts and my offer to make peace with them umpteen times. But they still refuse! That is not Bible Christianity. Harvest is a religious cult, preaching the Devil’s lie of Lordship Salvation, and promoting the Devil’s corruptible seed of the modern perversions of the Bible. Harvest is also a cult in the sense of being a private social club, us four and no more, where unless you are accepted by the core leadership of the cult, you are unwelcomed. People just want to be loved.

In our horrible selfish American culture, if you don’t have a family or a good church, no one loves or cares about you. That is why our government gives billions of dollars to foreign countries, and billions to NASA to play with dirt on Mars, while millions of homeless American citizens are dying at the average age of 40 on the streets. Nobody gives a damn! And then I see fake churches like Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, paying an outrageous salary to their incompetent senior pastor, who has no interest in starting a local bus ministry, going public soulwinning or helping hurting people like me. All Harvest’s staff care about is their next paycheck! It’s all about the money honey.

We see this trend quite a bit from the Bob Jones University camp—expelling students who are raped, threatening arrest to former students if they even step foot on campus, kicking hurting broken sinners out of their churches, playing God with people's lives, abusing their authority and treating human beings like crap. This is Satan, not God (Romans 14:10-12). John 13:35, " By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another." BJU majors on killing people with the letter of the law, while minoring on loving others with the love of God which is supposed to be shed abroad in the heart of every believer by the indwelling Holy Spirit.

When people push you away, they are really begging for your love. So often the meanest of people are really simply hurting human beings, who have lived troubled lives, and need someone to unconditionally love them instead of kick, correct, browbeat, criticize and look down on them all the time. It's much easier to blame someone for their problems, than it is to try to understand their situation. We live in a horrible throw away society in America. Once you mess up, that is it, you might as well crawl into a rain drainage system under Las Vegas and survive in the gutters for the rest of your life, because no one will ever employ you, help you or love you again. No wonder Muslims call America: THE GREAT SATAN! We sure act like it.

And Of Some Having Compassion, Making A Difference

Jude 1:22,

"And of some have compassion, making a difference:

And others save with fear, pulling them out of the fire; hating even the garment spotted by the flesh.

I had a new neighbour move in last year. He was a 25 year old guy in the Navy. He lived with a friend, also in the Navy. He invited me over for a barbeque and I accepted. He also invited about a half dozen friends, all military police in the Navy. These guys were big and strong. I couldn't believe how they just climbed up the building, literally, and sat on the roof. But these guys were wicked, full of filthy talk and perverse in their thinking, sadly. There was one black guy, and he was a Christian like me. They asked me to pray and I did, thanking God for our military who risks their lives to defend out liberties. They were grateful.

Anyway, the guy next door shared his broken life with me. He has a serious drinking problem, and so does all his family. He shared with me how his father did something very bad, and the church he was attending kicked him out because of it, rejecting him. His mother was in and out of the hospital for alcoholism. His brother is in jail for committing a crime. He told me that he worships Satan, and is not a Christian. He said he is for abortion, and loves Lucifer. I knew he was pushing me away, because it was really Jesus that He hated, not me. John 7:7, "The world cannot hate you; but me it hateth, because I testify of it, that the works thereof are evil." The night ended and he figured I'd never talk to him again, which is how most professed Christians sadly behave.

One month later he asked if I wanted to come over for another barbeque. I could feel the tension and knew that in his heart he never expected me to accept. I immediately said, "Sure, I'd love to, just say when." I had decided the first time he shared his problems with me that I was his friend. Once I am your friend, you have a friend for life. So he said we'd have a barbeque next Friday, one week later. Little did I know that he was planning to move out just a three days later. I came home and say the moving truck outside, and he was standing there. I waved at him as I always do, smiled, and didn't say anything. He knew that I had accepted his second invitation to a barbeque, this guy who told me that he worshipped Lucifer. When I went for the first barbeque, I wore my John 3:16, Jesus, cap the entire time, for all to see. I am not ashamed of my Savior and Lord.

Long story short, when my neighbour moved out, he left me a bunch of items behind for me as gifts. We never spoke before he left. The last time we spoke was when he invited me to the second barbeque, and I gladly accepted. But you say, "How could you accept an invitation to a barbeque by a perverse drunkard who brags that he worships Lucifer?" That is God's unconditional love friend. I loved him when no one else did. I gave him what the world will not, and cannot give him, God's unconditional love. I didn't condemn him. I didn't shun him. I didn't berate him or reject him. It was just a barbecue. I wanted him to see God's love, and he did. That is all I am saying dear reader.

In sharp contrast, the Bob Jones University crowd hate and reject their own troubled students. Harvest Baptist Church on Guam still rejects me today, 7 years after I attended their church for one year and befriended them with the truth, just as I befriended my Lucifer worshipping friend in the U.S. Navy. People just want to be loved. I was wise enough to discern that my hurting neighbor was a young man who had never been loved by anyone, and I made a difference for Christ, I think. He moved away to be stationed in San Diego, but I gave him a hard copy of Michael P. Bowen's book: " showing him how to go to Heaven. People just need and want to be loved.

[1]I NEVER KNEW YOU,

2.4.14 Ungodly People Are The Problem As Much As Preachers (2021-04-29 09:30)

2nd Timothy 4:3-4,

For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine*; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables.

I often hear people on the internet blame preachers for the problems in society, for not preaching as they ought against sin. That is certainly true! Evangelist Lester Roloff (1914-1982) used to rightly say: " [1] There's two problems in America—the preacher and the papa!

" But the Bible says that people are the problem too! Jeremiah 5:31, "The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bear rule by their means; and my people love to have it so: and what will ye do in the end thereof?" Our text passage from 2nd Timothy 4:3-4 says that in the last days people will no longer endure SOUND DOCTRINE.

What is sound doctrine? It is the truth! Homosexuality is a horrible sin, an abnormal perverse mindset, and a shameful debasing act that even animals won't commit under normal circumstances when a male and female are present. I have seen two female dogs with my own two eyes, kept in captivity without the presence of a male dog, commit homosexuality. They are behaving as animals, acting on impulse, without moral restraint. That is the truth about homosexuality. That is sound doctrine, which American society refuses to tolerate anymore. Today, sodomites are legally marrying, which God rejects. There is no such thing as a "

in God's sight, it is impossible, because the act of carnal knowledge cannot be consummated. Like it or not, the Bible condemns homosexuality in all its forms.

I recently heard someone say in a YouTube comment, that the churches are a mess today because we don't have any preachers preaching on the subject of a burning Hell for Christ-rejecting sinners. A wise YouTuber replied that WE DO have such preachers today, Pastor Steven Anderson. That comment prompted this blog article, because the person who responded is 100 % correct, and brought up a really great point. Would it really make a difference if we had 1,000 preachers like Steven Anderson, who preach against homosexuality, and warn the masses about the coming judgment of God against unsaved sinners? No, it wouldn't matter, which is exactly what the inspired King James Bible teaches.

> 2nd Timothy 4:3-4, "For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables."

The Bible does not blame preachers for the people not listening, the Bible blames THE PEOPLE! What saith the Scripture?

> Matthew 13:15, "For this people's heart is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed; lest at any time they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and should understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them."

Again, the problem is not the preacher, it is the people. We have some godly preachers today. I don't claim to be a good Christian, but I am preaching THE TRUTH. I have faithfully preached the free grace Gospel all these years of my website ministry since 2002, and I have faithfully warned everyone of the judgment to come in a literal, burning, eternal, Hell for all Christ-rejecters who die in their sins without Jesus Christ as their personal Savior. I have faithfully exposed the corrupt Bob Jones University crowd, who preach the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation, and bid Godspeed to Calvinist false prophet, Dr. John MacArthur.

But who is listening? Pastors' Grayson Fritts and Steven Anderson have faithfully preached against the ungodly sodomite agenda, and consequently THE PEOPLE have rejected them and their preaching of THE TRUTH. Pastor Anderson has been literally banned in several dozen countries for simply uploading the biblical truth that sodomites are worthy of capital punishment according to Leviticus 20:13. It wouldn't if 10,000 Bible-preachers preached against the LGBTQ movement, or just 1 preacher, because the ungodly world will reject them all. The problem is not that we lack more Bible-preachers, but that THE PEOPLE no longer tolerate SOUND DOCTRINE.

2.4.15 Be Careful Not To Embrace Every Preacher Quote (2021-04-30 21:54)

1st John 4:1,

“

Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world.

I love King James Bible preachers! I love preacher quotes. I collect preacher quotes like baseball cards, I save them and I cherish them for life. I suggest that you do the same! If you don’t jot it down, you will forget, with few exceptions.

However, men are sinners, imperfect and we all say stupid things at times. I am guilty as well. I challenge you dear reader to learn to be objective. That is, learn to question everything. When I attended Bible college as an 18 year old young man, I heard one of my Bible college teachers criticize the popular bumper sticker which reads: “QUESTION AURHOTIY!

” In my youthful exuberance and ignorance I thereafter hated that bumper sticker too. But now that I am 54 years old, I can say without any reservation that I was wrong. I now fully agree with that bumper sticker!!! Always question authority. I don’t mean be irreverent, sassy, a troublemaker or disrespectful of authority. I mean to never accept the word or authority of man as being equal with God. Your pastor is not above the law. Your pastor is not above the Word of God. There is only one God, one Holy Bible, and man is neither.

Anyway, I check [1]my Twitter account almost daily, to see what my favorite preachers have to share and say. Oftentimes Twitter shares other stuff too, by different preachers. I won’t mention the following preacher’s name, but he is a popular fundamentalist Baptist preacher. I read this quote by him today, as an example of something that is not true. He states:

> “Character is made by many acts; it may be lost by a single one.”

At first I instinctively gave him my approval, by clicking on the heart symbol on Twitter, but then I pondered his statement a bit more and realized that it is false, so I removed my approval. Your reputation may be lost by a single act, but never your character. Pastor Jack Hyles rightly taught that, “Character is the subconscious doing of right.” Character is when we develop a HABIT of doing what is right. The way to develop a habit is to repeat doing something over and over and over, until it becomes second nature.

Dr. Jack Hyles teaches this subject in this helpful sermon called: ’[2]WHAT HAS DESTROYED AMERICA.’ Dr. Hyles teaches that children need to be forced to do what is right. The way to destroy a child is to let them do what they want, when they want, without any rules or restraint. Proverbs 29:15, “

The rod and reproof give wisdom: but a child left to himself bringeth his mother to shame. ” Letting a child do whatever they want without any limits or rules is a form of child abuse. The Bible says, as we just read, that a child left alone brings shame. I think the reason why the Bible mentions the mother is simply because historically men have worked to support the family, while the mother worked at home raising the children. What we have in America today is a ungodly disaster. President Joe Biden is now passing new spending bills in 2021 to provide daycare for small infants. I think that is tragic. The government wants to brainwash children at the earliest possible age, and get women into the workplace, leaving strangers to raise your children. [3]Daycares don’t care!

Going back to the quote I read today on Twitter:

"Character is made by many acts; it may be lost by a single one."

That is not true. Character is indeed made by many acts, doing what is right until it becomes a habit. But it is not true that making one mistake, committing one sin, breaking one law, et cetera, causes a person to lose all their character. It does reveal that they lacked character in the first place, otherwise they wouldn't have done that SINGLE ACT. A man with exceptional moral character doesn't just go rob one bank. If he truly had exceptional character, he never would have robbed anyone! Obviously no one has perfect character, because everyone commits sin. Character is what God knows about you when no one else is looking.

You don't lose character by a single wrong act. You lose character by a slow process of wicked thinking. Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) wisely said: "Behind every tragedy in human character is a slow process of wicked thinking." When someone jams their thumb in a shopping cart in public, they don't just take God's name in vain all of a sudden; but rather, they have been cursing in God's name at home in private, hearing it a thousand times blurted out in horrible movies, and their true heart was revealed. Adversity and moments of anger don't shape our character, they reveal it.

I believe that is what the Bible means in my favorite Scripture in Proverbs 4:23, " Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life.

Matthew 15:19,

For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts*, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies: " Jeremiah 17:9 indicts the human heart as being deceptive and wicked above all. Never trust the man who trusts himself. When a man says you can trust him alone with your wife, you're a fool if you believe him. The same goes for every wife. No unmarried people ought ever be alone together by themselves, because that's how the sin of adultery starts.

The best way to avoid sinning is to avoid the situations that lead to sin. Only a fool would disagree with me on this. A wise person sets up safeguards and boundaries in their life to prevent sinning. We all still sin, but so often we totally ignored all the warning signs and failed to take any precautions. True Christians who walk with God are loving people, and often vulnerable. Wicked people know this and often try to take advantage of others.

Proverbs 4:23, "

Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life.

" Jesus said that out of THE HEART comes all manner of evil thoughts.

I am not criticizing the preacher who made the previous quote. I do disagree with him. I am simply encouraging you to apply

1st John 4:1,

Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world.

" Test everything with the inspired King James Bible. Just because a man or a woman makes one bad or sinful decision in life, doesn't erase all of their character. It means that they didn't have that great of a character to begin with. It means that their reputation may be ruined. It takes years to build a good name, and one single act to destroy it. That is definitely a true statement! Reputation is what people think about you; Character is what God knows about you! Everyone thought Haman was a great man in Medo-Persia, but God knew that he was a scumbag. Many people in the Bible even thought that Jesus was crazy, had a devil and was a deceiver, but we know the Lord was totally innocent and sinless.

So be careful about repeating things that you hear, even from preachers, because they may not be true.

2.5 May

2.5.1 God Should Be Included In All School Curriculum (2021-05-01 09:30)

Psalms 19:1-3,

“

The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament sheweth his handywork.

Day unto day uttereth speech, and night unto night sheweth knowledge.

There is no speech nor language, where their voice is not heard.

Romans 1:18-21,

“

For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness; Because that which may be known of God is manifest in them; for God hath shewed it unto them.

For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse:

Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened.

To educate a child without acknowledging God as the Creator of all things, is to produce another educated fool in society. …

> “Science without religion is lame, religion without science is blind.” —Albert Einstein (1879-1955)

Professor Einstein was so right. Science without religion is lame. All across America children sit in vain classrooms day after day, month after month, year after year, being indoctrinated in the different aspects of God's creation, but without including the Creator. That's like a person teaching a class on the history of automobiles, while refusing to mention the inventors, men like Henry Ford (1863-1947) and Rudolf Diesel (1858-1913). It is a horrible sin to attempt to educate a child without acknowledging God.

Dear reader, God invented math. God invented music. It is not a coincidence that there are seven notes in a diatonic music scale. There are seven colors in a rainbow. There are seven days in a week. The mathematician Alex Bellos asked 44,000 people to name their favorite number and [1]over 4,000 of them named the number 7, far more than any other number. Indeed, ask people to name a number from one to ten and many will name the number seven—as many magicians know. Seven is God's number, and therefore also my favorite number.

If I were to teach a class on math, I would base the entire course on the Holy Bible. The Bible is filled with math, from the dimensions of Noah's ark to the number of the coming Beast, 666. I would absolutely refuse to ever teach any class in which I was prohibited to include God in the curriculum. You simply couldn't pay me enough money to teach children in a public school, and I mean that with all my heart. It will be a cold day in Hell before I ever allow anyone to hinder me from including my blessed Creator in whatever subject I was teaching, I don't care if it was auto repair or computer science. To educate a youth without God is to create a ticking time-bomb in their adult life...

"If I could relive my life, I would devote my entire ministry to reaching children for God." —Dwight L. Moody

I am not surprised to see millions of angry youth rising up in anarchy across the United States, as part of the recent [3]Marxist Black Lives Matter movement. Anarchy is never God's way. Young people nationwide destroyed the property of innocent people, maiming store owners and even killing police in [4]rage fueled by the controlled mainstream newsmedia.

On June 27, 2020 [5]I watched an excellent interview of Professor G. Edward Griffin on The Alex Jones Show. I still love and support Alex's show, but Alex sadly isn't the defender of freedom that he used to be 10 years ago. Back then you could hear Alex exposing the left-right paradigm, and he was never Democrat or Republican. But then when Donald Trump came along Alex joined ranks with the Republican party, and I wanted to vomit. Republicans and Democrats are merely two separate legs both walking in the same direction of a New World Order. Nearly everything good that President Trump accomplished during his administration has been undone by his successor. I am so sick of naïve Christians foolishly supporting the Republican party, merely because they claim to be pro-life. Abortion is still legal.

On the June 27th show last year, Alex tried repeatedly in the interview to get Professor Griffin to endorse President Trump, but he refused to do it ([6]which you can hear for yourself if you listen to the show). I 100 % agree with Dr. Griffin, who said he won't know if Mr. Trump is a part of the deceptive system until all is said and done. We still don't know friends! Why did President Trump do nothing while rioters burned down businesses across the country? I admit that I like President Trump, and he in my opinion is the best U.S. President we've had since Franklin D. Roosevelt, but this could all be window dressing. Please listen to G. Edward Griffin, because I fully agree with his assertions. I digress.

It is tragic to see millions of impressionable youth lied to intentionally in school, indoctrinated with the insane loony idea that two asteroids collided, and that is how the earth and moon formed; and then life somehow sprang forth after millions of meteorites containing ice crystals hit the earth over billions of years, forming the oceans. This is what NASA (you know, the smartest people on earth) officially teach kids and the public. YOU WICKED DEVILS!!! Life is short, Hell is hot and judgment day is coming (Hebrews 4:13; 9:27). Hebrews 10:31, "

It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God. " Instead of honoring, glorifying and thanking God for His abundant blessings, the ungodly world totally remove Him from society, teaching impressionable children in communist government schools that a gorilla was their ancestral parent. Hey, if humans came from apes, why are their still apes?

Religion Without Science Is Blind

Once again, here is a fantastic quote from Professor Einstein...

> "Science without religion is lame, religion without science is blind." —Albert Einstein (1879-1955)

I feel sick every time I see The Crown College in Powell, Tennessee, displaying a giant triceratops dinosaur at the entrance of their new Creation Science Museum. Folks, there is nothing scientific about Noah bringing dinosaurs aboard the ark! If you truly understand SCIENCE (you know, the study of things), then you understand that THE FACTS do not support a young earth theory at all. That is why unscholarly men like Henry Morris III, Kent Hovind and Ken Ham [7]continually attempt to connect proponents of an old earth (such as myself) with the insane false claims of evolutionists. I absolutely reject ALL forms of evolution! Yet I firmly believe in an old earth. The human race is approximately 6,000 years old, but the earth itself has been here for millions of not billions of years. I do believe in a literal 6-day creation in Genesis chapter one. [8]Pastor Max Younce explains it well in chapter 12 of his book titled: "[9]The Truth About Evolution; Or, Don't Let Satan Make A Monkey Out Of You."

Those believers who hold a Young Earth View on the earth have been taught that position by the unscientific Bible college they attended, or their errant pastor, but you didn't learn that from the inspired King James Bible. Just like [10]a place of Paradise in the Old Testament (which is correct), and [11]a Pretribulation Rapture (which is correct), the only logical conclusion is an Old Earth (which is also correct). Legitimate science never disagrees with the Bible, and the Bible never disagrees with legitimate science (1st Timothy 6:20).

Learning ought to be exciting for a child, or for anyone at any age. But students and teachers alike are missing out, when they bypass the great joy of studying God's creation while acknowledging God's amazing wisdom, all-powerful handiwork and loving provisions in all that God does. The science of genetics screams God! In all of science we see God's inexplicable greatness, amazing power and His love for all creation. Psalms 145:3, " Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised; and his greatness is unsearchable."

2.5.2 The Way To Lose Weight Is To Eat (2021-05-01 18:07)

Daniel 1:12-16, "

Prove thy servants, I beseech thee, ten days; and let them give us pulse to eat, and water to drink.

Then let our countenances be looked upon before thee, and the countenance of the children that eat of the portion of the king's meat: and as thou seest, deal with thy servants.

So he consented to them in this matter, and proved them ten days.

And at the end of ten days their countenances appeared fairer and fatter in flesh than all the children which did eat the portion of the king's meat.

Thus Melzar took away the portion of their meat, and the wine that they should drink; and gave them pulse.

Nearly everything that you'll read on the internet about how to lose weight is WRONG! Truth is stranger than fiction. Most websites will tell you ways to endure going hungry to lose weight. They'll tell you to drink a lot of water. They'll tell you to brush your teeth multiple times a day, and to gargle with mouth wash, so that the fresh minty taste will discourage you from eating. They'll tell you to stay busy, get a hobby, go walking and to do something to distract you from eating. All the advice that they give you is how to basically starve yourself to lose weight.

Well, I have learned (thankfully so) that they are all WRONG! The way to successfully lose weight (finally) is to eat my friend. You read right, you must EAT! I have been losing weight quickly, about 1-2 pounds per week for the past couple months, using my new found method. I don't claim credit for discovering something new. In fact, [1]Hollywood actors have been using this method for ages to prepare their bodies physically for upcoming roles in movies. The key is to eat something every 3-4 hours. Watch the video and you'll be amazed as I was. I couldn't believe that those actors all ate every 3 hours, and still lost weight. That blew my mind. Here I was trying to starve myself, but after several hours the hunger pains became so bad that I binged on all the food I could eat. That is why I couldn't lose weight all my life.

One of the best bits of advice I heard was from a fitness trainer in Hollywood. He advises his clients to eat some protein the size of your FIST every 3 hours (6 am, 9 am, noon, 3 pm and 6 pm). At 9 am and 3pm you also eat some healthy fat (nuts, avocado, dark chocolate, whole eggs, et cetera). I normally eat 1 Tbsp. (55 calories) of dark chocolate covered raisins a day. At noon and 6 pm you eat TWO FIST sized portions of veggies (good carbohydrates). That's it. I like to drink one protein shake before I go to bed at 9 pm. I normally go to sleep earlier, sleep 8 hours and get up at about 5 am. One hour of sleep before midnight is worth two hours of sleep after midnight. It is important to have a steady sleep cycle (deep undisturbed sleep).

In 2017 I managed to lose 70 pounds by basically starving myself. My incompetent doctor was so impressed that he asked me to speak at a monthly doctor's meeting, and I did. I gave those poor people all the worst advice you could tell someone. I taught them how to starve themselves to lose weight, and how I managed to do it. Boy was I wrong! Consequently, I regained nearly all my weight by 2020. I went from 215 pounds down to 145 pounds, back up to 208 pounds, like a big yo yo. That is what happens when you starve yourself to lose weight, you regain all your weight because the way you lost weight simply was NOT SUSTAINABLE.

Well, I am losing weight now BY EATING every 3-4 hours. It is really weird, because my brain says to lose weight you have to stop eating. So even now I find myself in excitement wanting to starve myself to speed the process along. And guess what happens? I get hungry and start to binge on the wrong foods again. The key to losing weight properly is to EAT. You must eat or you'll get hungry and binge. If you feel satiety (comfortably full) at all times, you won't binge, and you'll be able to finally lose weight. You just have to eat healthy foods. I love sweet potatoes, which make me feel full, are high in nutrients and low in calories.

The most important thing, and if you don't do this YOU WILL FAIL, is to eat low calorie density foods. You ought to definitely buy some Whey Protein Isolate (at any health store). The protein powder comes in 1 gallon or 5 gallon sizes. I love the vanilla. One scoop contains 130 calories, no sugar, and provides 30 grams of protein. To lose weight you want to eat a high protein diet. I eat gram for pound of my goal weight. I now weigh 183 pounds. My goal is 160 pounds. So I eat 160 grams of protein per day. Since whey protein is a SUPPLEMENT, it cannot replace eating real food. So I try not to drink more than 2 or 3 protein shakes per day, to make sure I get enough protein in my nutrition.

I aim for 40 grams of fiber. Women need at least 25 grams. For fiber I eat beans almost every day, but there are other foods that provide plenty of fiber. When I woke up today, I drank a protein shake. I also ate a handful of cranberries and blueberries. I ate one kiwi. And I ate a couple pieces of shredded chicken breast (it comes in a package). At 9 am I ate 1/4 cup of dry beans that I cooked yesterday. I cook 1/2 cup (dry) at a time. Cooking takes about 1 hour and 40 minutes on low flame. I add some fresh diced garlic, chopped green onions, carrots and seasoning (1 tsp. cayenne pepper, 1 tsp. ground cumin, 1/2 tsp. black pepper, some Lawry's and whatever else I have on hand). I sometimes add a Tbsp. of tomato paste, or a small can of tomato sauce. Beans are very high in protein and fiber. In sharp contrast, beef has a lot of protein but no fiber. Only 5 % of Americans eat enough fiber in their daily diet.

Eating more fiber and protein causes satiety (feeling full). By the way, I learned a great simple way to eat kiwi's, which are very tasty and nutritious. Simply cut the kiwi in half and then eat it with a metal spoon. Cool huh? For lunch today I am eating half a bag of mixed veggies (carrots, cauliflower and broccoli) with 2 fillets of sea bass (barramundi) fish. At 3 pm I'll likely eat some real avocado dip with salsa and a dozen whole grain crackers. I haven't figured out dinner yet, but I try to keep my meals each under 300 calories. I'll probably eat a big green salad, with cut up fresh mushrooms, fresh tomatoes and fresh red onions. I'll drink a protein shake before I go to bed. I limit my calories intake to 1400 to 1500 calories per day. As long as I do that, I KNOW I am guaranteed to lose weight (1 pound per week). It doesn't matter what the scale shows, because it will fluctuate by 8 pounds for me. Whenever you eat carboHYDRATEs, your body will store water. So that is normal. Don't watch the scale, watch what you are eating daily (count your calories).

I aim for 40 to 50 grams of fat daily. I aim for 50 to 150 grams of carbohydrates. If I need to cut calories anywhere, I'll cut my carbohydrate intake. I haven't used my frying pan in a month. I bake everything. Those oils used in frying are super calorie dense (120 calories per Tbsp.). Daniel suggested that the king's eunuchs' eat beans, seeds and whole grains to be healthy, and it worked. I haven't eaten any red meat in 6 weeks. I feel great. I eat fish and some chicken. I am not a vegetarian. I just want to eat better to live better and feel better. My weight is going down. It still blows my mind that EATING every 3 hours was the answer to whole time, but everything I read online told me to go hungry.

You'll NEVER lose weight as long as you're hungry. If you feel comfortably full (not gut busting full), you CAN lose weight. It becomes bearable. You will still need some good old fashioned character and discipline not to indulge. My body actually woke up in the middle of the night and ate some (200 calories worth) of dark chocolate covered raisins. I went walking yesterday and needed extra energy. I allow myself 200 calories a day of treats if I earn them. As long as I don't go over 1500 calories for the day. I love sweet potatoes.

I ate some sweet potatoes yesterday, and I'll have one with my lunch today. They are low in calories and high in nutrients. I bake about 7 or 8 at once and save them for the days to follow. I set the oven at 400 degrees. Rinse the potatoes and dry them with a paper towel. I poke fork holes about an inch apart across the potato top and bottom. I take extra virgin olive oil and pour it into my hand, and then rub the potatoes with it. This is to help it cook, and I sprinkle brown sugar, salt and pepper on top of them. I bake them for 45 minutes. Yummy! I use 1 tsp. of real butter on each potato when I eat them. You'll lose weight and feel full eating sweet potatoes. Each one is only 112 calories.

I also love to bake big Brussel sprouts. I bake the entire bag at once. I hand rub them all with extra virgin olive oil. I then sprinkle plenty of salt and pepper on them, and bake them at 400 degrees for 30 minutes. They are low in calories, nutritious and taste great. I don't go crazy with the olive oil, because it is high in calories, I just coat the potatoes and Brussel sprouts with it. I also pour just a tsp. or so of olive oil on top of each fish fillet when I bake it.

CONSISTENCY is the most important word. If you are 50 or more pounds obese, this process WILL DEFINITELY STILL WORK for you, but you've got to be realistic that it will take some time (6 to 12 months). You can reasonably expect to lose 1-2 pounds per week, depending how sustainable your diet plan is. And that is very important. If your diet is not enjoyable, it won't be sustainable and you'll quit. Pushing too hard to fast, drastically reducing your calories, will likely result in you giving up. Just 5 protein shakes a day equals 650 calories. But that gives me 150 grams of protein. Whey Protein Isolate provides 1 gram of protein per 4 calories. Eggs provides 1 gram of protein per 5 calories. Chicken provides 1 gram of protein per 7 calories, and beef 10 calories per gram. So protein powder is your best bet to lose weight. But you still need some real food each day, like fish, chicken, eggs, et cetera. I love poached eggs. I just drop a few eggs right into boiling water for 3 minutes. I like the yoke solid. I add some salt and vinegar to the water. Each egg is 75 calories and provides about 6 grams of protein, and 5 grams of fat.

[2]How To Lose Weight Eating A High Protein Diet

I've been [3]eating hydroponically grown (no dirt) greens. If you think healthy the next time you go grocery shopping, a whole new world will open to you that you never saw before, which was right in front of your eyes the entire time. One meal that I enjoy is to take 2 pieces of Dave's whole grain bread (70 calories each) and load them with sweet or Dijon mustard and about 1/4 pound of sliced chicken breast (160 calories). That provides loads of protein and some carbs from the bread. It is disgusting to see a man with a giant pot belly who looks pregnant, or a woman with thunder thighs who looks like a walking refrigerator.

Kindly said, Good night folks, take care of yourself! Christians ought to exert self control. Most people have fallen prey to our abusive American culture of indulgence (in financial debt, perverse in thoughts and behavior, abortions, obese, mindless to believe anything they hear from the controlled lying media, and out of control in every way). Fasting is virtually unheard of in pulpits anymore. I saw a 400 pound pastor come to Guam to preach, and he was repulsive. And then those glutton preachers joke about how good the fried chicken is back home. GET RIGHT WITH GOD YOU GLUTTON!

There's no excuse for nearly anyone to be a fat slob! The most common excuse is depression. Somewhere along the way our society lost sight of individualism, Christianity and glorifying God in all that we say, appear and do. I did not write this blog to hurt anybody's feelings, but to share with you what is working for me. All my life I did what everybody else does—eating at the same restaurants and devouring the same ridiculous portions they serve—which made me fat. Now I realize that American society is a big mouse trap, and everything is a mess, and you simply cannot allow society to lead your health, beliefs, family or anything. Becoming a born-again believer is a personal choice. Taking care of one's health and weight is a personal choice. Deciding to be a decent, moral and law abiding citizen is a personal choice. Deciding to love everyone with God's unconditional love is a personal choice.

By the way, you don't need to go walking or exercise to be successful at this, but it really helps to motivate you. On days when I exercise I tend to feel less hungry. So I take advantage of those times when I'm not hungry, but as soon as I start to feel hungry, I eat some healthy. In closing, the way to LOSE weight is not to go hungry, it is TO EAT, you just need to eat the right low calorie density foods. I hope this was helpful and inspiring. Thank you for reading this.

2.5.3 I Am A "Born Again" Christian (2021-05-03 21:19)

John 3:3-7, "

Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.

Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born?

Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.

That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.

Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again.

Jesus stated in no uncertain terms that, “Except a person is BORN AGAIN they cannot enter into the Kingdom of God.” Sadly, the word “Christian” is one of the most abused words in the world. I would guess that at least 95 % of religious people who claim to be a “Christian” have never been born again. I was deeply troubled in my soul when I read what [1]Evangelist Ray Comfort thinks it means to be BORN AGAIN.

On page 1529 of Ray Comfort’s popular work:

’The Evidence Bible,’

under the commentary section titled: “How Can You Know That You Are Saved?,” Ray heretically states:

> Christians believed in God’s existence before their conversion, however, when they obeyed the Word of God, turned from their sins, and embraced Jesus Christ, they stopped merely believing. The moment they reached out and touched the heater bar of God’s mercy, they moved out of belief into the realm of experience. This experience is so radical, Jesus referred to it as being born again*. [emphasis added]

May I say kindly, being born again is NOT an “experience.” Ray Comfort and Kirk Cameron wrongly understand being “born-again” as an EXPERIENCE that involves forsaking one’s sinful lifestyle and “EMBRACING” Jesus Christ. Ray Comfort gets this idea from an errant understanding of James 2:19, “Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: the devils also believe, and tremble.” Many foolish Bible teachers misinterpret James 2:19 to mean that simple BELIEF on Christ is insufficient to be saved. This is not what the Bible is saying here at all. It simply means that no one is going to Heaven just because they believe there is a God. Even the Devils believe there is a God. That is exactly what James 2:19 says, “Thou believest that there is one God...” But that is not how a person gets saved.

This is why Jesus told His disciples in Luke 13:23-24, “Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them, Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able.” You can believe in God all you want—you can serve Jesus, go to church, tithe, sacrifice and do good all your life, try your best to turn away from sins and still go straight to the Lake of Fire forever to burn!!! Jesus said, “Ye must be born again” (John 3:7).

Ray comfort is wrong that being born again refers to a radical change in someone's life. That is not what it means at all. Jesus told us what it means in John 3:6, "That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit." Being born again means to be reborn by the Holy Spirit of God. In theology we refer to this is being "regenerated." It is tragic that so many corrupt preachers mistake reformation (a changed life, turning away from sinful bad habits) for regeneration, or foolishly think that reformation must precede or accompany regeneration. The only requirement to be regenerated (born again) is to recognize that you are a guilty sinner in the sight of a holy God (Romans 3:19-20), and believe the Gospel (Good News) of Christ crucified, buried and risen (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do.

To reiterate this important truth, again, what did Jesus mean by "born again?" The question is answered in John 3:6, "That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit." When you were born the first time into the world, that was of the flesh; but the new birth (or second birth) is when the Holy Spirit of God comes inside your body to indwell you (upon your faith in the Gospel of Jesus Christ). Being "born again?" means that you have been born into God's family! Whereas all men are born spiritually DEAD from birth (Romans 5:15), in order to enter into the Kingdom of God a person must be born for the second time, spiritually (John 3:6-7). The first birth is PHYSICAL, earthly; The second birth is SPIRITUAL, by the Holy Spirit of God (John 1:12-14).

Biblically, mere childlike FAITH is all that God requires to be saved. This is what Jesus said in John 6:28-29, "Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent."

Dear reader, having shown you the truth, it should now be clear that VERY FEW people who profess to be Christians are truly saved. And sadly, as I have shown you, even many of those whom profess to be "born again" are not truly redeemed saints of God. Ray Comfort is not a born again Christian. If you doubt what I say, [2]please read his insane lifestyle-living plan of salvation. Ray says to be saved, you must repent (which he errantly thinks means to turn away from your sins) and continue LIVING A LIFESTYLE OF REPENTANCE for the rest of your life. Does that sound like a free gift to you? No way! It is a manmade plan of damnation.

> "The true Gospel always points you to Christ; a false gospel always points to you."
> —[3]Pastor Dennis Rokser

I am going to be even more direct now, likely stepping on some toes. Roman Catholics are NOT born again Christians. They add keeping the Seven Sacraments of the Roman Catholic Church (RCC) to faith. This is a false gospel. Mormons, Jehovah's Witnesses, Lutherans, Seventh-Day Adventists, Church of Christ, Mennonites—ALL damnable religious cults who are NOT born-again believers. When someone says that they are a "Christian," that means nothing. They could be a hellbound Catholic, Mormon, JW, SDA or some other religious cult.

If someone tells me that they are a "born again Christian," that is a good sign that they are saved, but I still don't believe them unless they explain what it means to be "born again." Even the Devil appears as An Angel Of Light the Bible says in 2nd Corinthians 11:13-15. The Devil and his ministers of unrighteousness are skilled actors, who masquerade as ministers of righteousness. We see them in the Bob Jones University camp, who are die hard [4]ungodly supporters of Pastor John MacArthur's damnable Lordship Salvation cult.

I am a genuinely BORN AGAIN Christian. I was saved at age 13 in Chicago, during an invitation at a good old fashioned Baptist church on a Sunday morning. The pastor said if someone was living in sin, without any conviction of the Holy Spirit, then they weren't saved. I knew I was a sinner, but I had never felt any Holy Spirit conviction (because I wasn't saved and didn't have the Holy Spirit living inside me). I felt God's conviction that day, and I called upon the Lord in faith and He gloriously saved me. I didn't pray out loud, I simply prayed in my soul and asked Jesus to save me. The truth is that I didn't even have to pray, I could have simply believed. The Bible says in Romans 10:14, "How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher?

" I called because I believed, and I was saved the second that I BELIEVED. Jesus is precious!!!

Please understand that I didn't write this blog to criticize other faiths, nor to upset or make anyone feel bad; but rather, to draw attention to the truth that many people who profess to be a Christian have never been born again, and Jesus made it very clear that NO ONE goes to Heaven without being born anew by the Spirit of God. John 1:12-13,

"But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name: Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God." Dear friend, the Catholic priest cannot absolve your sins, only God can forgive sin. Salvation is of the Lord (Jonah 2:9). The Lutheran minister cannot forgive your sins, he cannot even forgive his own sins. Please don't fall for those Lutheran imposters. Only Jesus has the nail-scared hands, side and feet. JESUS SAVES!!!

Also, salvation is not of blood. That means you don't get a special pass just because you are Jewish in your DNA (neither nationality, culture or ethnicity). Nicodemus was Jewish, and yet Jesus warned him that unless he got born-again, Nicodemus could not go to Heaven. There's only one other place my friend, Hell. It matters not if you are Jew or Gentile, YE MUST BE BORN AGAIN!!! I love you with God's unconditional love, which is why I write these blogs. I make no money, never have, and never will. My reward is in Heaven. YOU dear friend are my greatest reward.

So please make sure that you are a genuine born-again Christian, and not just some member of a Christian organization. You know, Christianity began as a new birth in the New Testament, but when it came to Greece it became a philosophy. When it came to Rome it became an organization (the Catholic church). When Christianity spread throughout Europe it became a culture. And sadly, when it came to America, Christianity became a stinking business. I am proclaiming to you dear friend THE NEW BIRTH in Christ Jesus, which is by faith alone in Him. The new birth is a supernatural miracle of God in response to a man's faith in Jesus Christ as his personal Savior. Acts 16:30-31, "And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house." The phrase

"And thy house" is simply God's extended mercy to save all that believe. God freely offers salvation to all men, through faith alone in Christ alone by grace alone. Believe the GOOD NEWS dear reader and you also can KNOW you are born-again! Please don't delay. Life is short, Hell is hot and eternity is a long time.

2.5.4 Americans Free To Have Opinions, Until You Share Them (2021-05-04 09:30)

Proverb 26:4-5, “

Answer not a fool according to his folly, lest thou also be like unto him. Answer a fool according to his folly, lest he be wise in his own conceit.”

When I happily attended Harvest Baptist Church of Guam for a year in 2013-2014, God gave me a burden for the church. I heard Lordship Salvation preached from the pulpit by Pastor Marty Herron. I heard Misunderstood Repentance being taught by school staff. I saw dozens of Bible versions among the congregation. I learned from witnessing to the church and school staff that many of them were not saved, and some were confused about salvation. I loved the people, and as a true friend does, I began to share helpful information with people that I sat next to in church on a personal basis. I just wanted to help people see THE TRUTH.

Most of all, I shared the same information with the church pastors. First, because they needed the truth most of all. And second, because I wanted to be ethical and let them see exactly what I was sharing with others (although it’s really none of their business what I share on a personal basis). Consequently, they scolded me in an official setting in the church office. I was wrongly accused by Harvest’s pastors of causing “divisiveness” and “confusion.” Considering that Harvest already uses literally dozens of English Bible versions, I don’t see how they can accuse me of confusing people for telling everyone that God only authored ONE BIBLE.

Harvest was a house divided a long time before I ever arrived in 2013. Am I causing divisiveness for being a friend and trying to help people see more clearly? Remember, I was only sharing books, Bibles, sermons and even Christian films on a personal basis. This raises a very important issue. How much power do pastors have to control people’s lives in a church? We know biblically that pastors have absolutely ZERO authority over people. The Word of God is the only authority in a church. [1]Even Pastor John MacArthur gets this truth right. Your pastor has NO authority in your life, he only has the privilege as a servant of the Lord to influence you for God by preaching and teaching the Word of God.

So does a pastor have a right to tell someone in the church what books, sermons or materials they can share with others on a personal basis? You’d be surprised at the answers and attitudes in today’s churches. The answer depends on whether you consider the legal right versus the biblical right and obligation that a believer has. Legally, a church that operates under the umbrella of 501c3 corporation can do whatever they want basically. It also depends on how the church bylaws are written. I’m not a legal expert, but my understanding is that churches are considered private groups, which can set their own rules.

But biblically, every individual believer has a right and duty to stand up for THE TRUTH (Ephesians 5:11; Hebrews 3:13; Titus 1:10-13; Ephesians 4:15). James 5:20, “ Let him know, that he which converteth the sinner from the error of his way shall save a soul from death, and shall hide a multitude of sins. ” What was I supposed to do at Harvest, be ethical by doing nothing? Is that what God desires and expects of us as His children—to just look the other way when we see gross theological incompetence in a church. I wasn’t just some stranger who walked in off the street, I had been a part of their church family for a year. I cared about them and sincerely tried to help them to see, as a friend.

The government is not supposed to interfere with the churches, nor the churches with the government. Albeit, our founding fathers never intended for the government to exist without reverence for God and His Word. If you remove God from government, all you'll have remaining is cruel tyranny, atheism and a manmade police state. Faith in God is the very foundation of liberty and freedom. History bears witness to this fact! We keep hearing from the media how "free" we are as Americans. We keep hearing our leaders boast of our American rights to "freedom of speech." Yet in ugly reality, the newsmedia and big tech companies who own social media have been increasingly censoring anybody who has a contrary opinion to the government's official narrative, or the politically correct agendas of out perverse generation.

I remember in the years that followed the 911 attacks on the World Trade Center. Sean Hannity and Bill O'Reilly were the two biggest lying bullies in media. They verbally assaulted anybody who dared to question the bogus Official 911 Story from the government. To this day in 2021, the government still has NOT performed a legitimate investigation into [2]what really happened on 911. Anybody who has done their research fully knows that [3]911 was a blatant Inside Job, and U.S. President George W. Bush and his criminal administration have blood all over their hands. Anybody who raised questions about 911 was quickly demonized by the media, and their credibility ruthlessly attacked. Sean Hannity belongs in prison! So does Bill O'Reilly. These men are paid professional liars, as are all the newsmedia's biggest names!

I read where the honorable Congresswoman Cynthia McKinney said she has been banned from Facebook, put into what she called: "Facebook jail." That is not freedom of speech. My [4]web-site ministry has lost 75 % of my web visitors over the past 5 years, censored by Google. [5]Carlson Tucker has thankfully exposed this fascist form of censorship on social media. We saw how the media vehemently bullied, demonized and went after Pastors' Steven Anderson, [6]Grayson Fritts and others who came out uncompromisingly against the LGBTQ community. For simply preaching what the Bible plainly teaches regarding homosexuality, these preachers have been permanently banned from social media, banned from some restaurants and even forced out of their lifelong careers. Pastor Fritts was forced to resign as a decorated police officer in Knoxville, Tennessee. Freedom of speech in America? Are you kidding me, no way!!! We do NOT have the freedom today to speak our mind anymore.

My lovethetruth.com ministry website has been banned from Facebook, with no reason given. I have written to Facebook three times, asking them what the problem is, but they have not replied. Anybody can accuse you of hate speech, and you will be banned on social media. That is fascism, not liberty. A truly "free" society is only one in which it is safe to be unpopular. This is the Devil folks. When a creep like Howard Stern can openly speak the most vile, perverse and disgusting things on social media with impunity, but Bible preachers cannot speak THE TRUTH about sin, you know the United States is in her last days.

Getting back to Harvest Baptist Church of Guam. Their pastors would be the first to say that this is America, and people have a right to their opinion. In fact, Pastor Marty Herron (Harvest's former senior pastor between 1999-2018) even said those very words to me. You see, like the hypocritical U.S. government, Pastor Herron wants me to have the right to my own opinion, he just doesn't want to allow me to speak my opinion to other church members. Herron knows that it would be wrong to take away my right to free speech as an American, yet he wants to cripple my mouth and hands from sharing a differing opinion from his own. It cannot be both ways folks. You either have a religious cult, where everyone is required to follow the thinking of the pastor; or else the pastor has control of the pulpit, and outside the pulpit people in the church have the freedom to express themselves. If you want a cult, where everyone must think only like the pastor, then you'll like Harvest Baptist Church on Guam.

The shameful Bob Jones University crowd define the "spiritual thug life." Whether it be [7]expelling a female student who was brutally raped, threatening to have former students arrested if they step foot on campus, or Harvest Baptist Church on Guam (all BJU alumni) expelling me from their church congregation, the Bob Jones crowd are religious thugs!

I heard a needful sermon yesterday by Pastor Jack Hyles (whom the Bob Jones crowd despise for his stand for THE TRUTH), say these very important true words:

> "Brother, if we don't expose these reverends who are destroying the vineyards, we're not going to have a free country. Vineyards are the hope of this country. Soulwinning churches, vineyards, are the hope of this country." —Pastor Jack Hyles, 'Many Pastors Have Destroyed My Vineyards'

If Bob Jones' pastors can silence truth-tellers like me, ejecting us from their midst, then how much longer will we remain a free country? It is religious tyranny in the churches. I did nothing wrong, I simply expressed my views on a personal private level with others, for which I was scolded and made the enemy at Harvest. Woe be unto Pastor Marty Herron when he answers to God in eternity (Galatian 1:6-9; 3:1-3; 5:4; 6:7). Woe be unto Dr. Steve Pettit and the administration at BJU, who continue to propagate the Devil's Bible's, and the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation, and bidding Godspeed to evildoers like false teacher John MacArthur. Right doctrine matters! Sound doctrine comes from sound words.

I have a problem with humans who want to control other humans. Granted, no one has a right to shout "fire!" in a crowded theater. It is part of our sinful human nature to want to silence our opponents. The [8]American media is controlled by the secret societies who wield the true power in Washington DC. Dissidents of the government today are being silenced, just like in Canada, North Korea and China. The United States will progressively get much worse. Conservatives, Christians and patriots are being demonized, censored, persecuted and now even prosecuted in America. The churches are just as guilty.

Americans are falsely told over and over that we are "free," but we eventually find out otherwise when we speak our opinions that are not politically or religiously correct, that question the official government's story or question the pastor's theology. If your church forbids disagreeing with your pastor on a personal level, you're in a cult! God doesn't demand that everyone agree with the church pastor's views. What saith the Scripture? Romans 3:4, "

God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged. "

2.5.5 If We Would Judge Ourselves, We Should Not Be Judged (2021-05-07 09:30)

1st Corinthians 11:31, “For if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged.”

If we take care of the problem, then God won’t have to in Heaven. 1st Thessalonians 4:6, "That no man go beyond and defraud his brother in any matter: because that the Lord is the avenger of all such, as we also have forewarned you and testified." If we defraud a brother (e.g., committing adultery with his wife, stealing from him in an agreement, causing him to lose out on a deal because we were shady or greedy), God will avenge that brother.

God expects us as believers, when possible, to make reconciliation and restitution. Sometimes that is not possible. I had a Christian man write to me last year and three times he kept saying that he did some very horrible things in the past. Since he kept bringing it up, I felt like he wanted to tell me. So I told him not to, because it’s not something I need to know. Pastor Jack Hyles used to wisely say: “Don’t be reluctant to admit to others that you have feet of clay, but don’t ever show them your feet.” Your sins are between you and God alone. The exception is if you wronged somebody, in which case you need to go directly to them and make it right. If you have committed a crime, then you alone must face the consequences. Do good and it will be good. If we obey it will be well, it we disobey it will be hell.

The Bible says if our brother has ought against us, to leave our gift for God at the altar, go make it right with our brother, and then come back with our gift (Matthew 5:23-24). We cannot be right with God VERTICALLY and be wrong with our brother HORIZONTALLY. In other words, God very much monitors how we treat others. God is no respecter of persons and the way we treat others can make or break our walk with God.

A Great Lesson Learned From Job

After all the pain, loss and suffering Job went through, God ended Job's calamity when he prayed for his friends. Job 42:10, "And the LORD turned the captivity of Job, when he prayed for his friends: also the LORD gave Job twice as much as he had before."

Job's so-called "friends" were jerks. So much so, that Job called them "MISERABLE COMFORTERS"! Job 16:1, "Then Job answered and said, I have heard many such things: miserable comforters are ye all." How many people would pray for jerks like that? Not many. But Job in his humility and love for God and his horrible friends, prayed for them anyway. Job was a good Christian!

I think when God saw Job praying for his self-righteous friends, it broke His heart and He returned the favor by ending Job's suffering. That is my humble opinion. I often think about this passage of Scripture. Perhaps if I pray for people in my life who have hurt me deeply, and I love those that hate me, and I do good to the evildoers who have wronged me, then perhaps God will also bless me by turning my captivity. But if not, I will gladly echo the words of Job in Job 13:15,

Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him: but I will maintain mine own ways before him.

As believers, our POSITION in Christ was forever settled the moment we were saved, declared legally justified in the sight of God. However, the way we choose to live here on earth is our CONDITION in Christ. If we don't want to be harshly dealt with by God at the Judgment Seat Of Christ as a believer (Psalm 6:1; 2nd Corinthians 5:10-11), then we need to please the Lord in our body, soul and spirit. God doesn't expect us to be perfect, He just wants us to try by submitting in obedience to the Word of God. 2nd Corinthians 10:4-6, " (For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds;) Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ; And having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled."

Our relationship with God is similar to that of our earthly parents. Once we are born, we have their DNA and no matter what, they will always be our parents. The moment you got saved, God gave you His spiritual DNA, the Holy Spirit. God seals every believer with the Holy Spirit (Ephesians 1:13-15). Nothing can change that. But now God is your heavenly Father, and He is not an absent parent (Hebrews 12:6-8). Just like our earthly parents, if we obey their rules they will be pleased (God sure will). When we do mess up, our attitude is important. Are we defiant, proud and rebellious? Or are we broken, sorry and humble to do better? God sees our heart.

2.5.6 Like Father Like Son: Damnable Heresy Of Daniel Phelps (2021-05-11 03:27)

James 2:17-24, “Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being alone. Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith without thy works, and I will shew thee my faith by my works. Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: the devils also believe, and tremble. But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead? Was not Abraham our father justified by works, when he had offered Isaac his son upon the altar? Seest thou how faith wrought with his works, and by works was faith made perfect? And the scripture was fulfilled which saith, Abraham believed God, and it was imputed unto him for righteousness: and he was called the Friend of God. Ye see then how that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only.”

This is one of the most misunderstood, hotly debated and abused passages of Scripture in the Bible. I love something that Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) said:

“A good rule to follow when interpreting the Bible is to never use an obscure passage to contradict a clear one.

” There is no argument that James chapter 2 is an obscure passage, which is exactly why it is hotly debated in theology circles. In sharp contrast, the Gospel of John is very plain. John teaches the reader simply to “believe” 85 times, without any mention of repentance, confessing Christ publicly, water baptism, turning away from sinful bad habits or growing. The Gospel of John is abundantly clear, with no obscurity, concerning how to get to Heaven. John 6:47, “Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.

There is a deadly heresy commonly taught by the Lordship Salvation crowd, which says James chapter 2 is teaching that faith alone cannot save a person. Advocates of Lordship Salvation claim that if a person’s life has not changed, they are not saved because their faith is not genuine. So effectively, advocates of Lordship Salvation have a different understanding and definition of faith than the Bible does. This wrong meaning of faith held by the proponents of Lordship Salvation, is the [1]SAME theological error held by the Seventh Day Adventist cult. Likewise, the Mormon religious cult also teach the SAME Lordship Salvation as do Marty Herron, Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary; Sam Horn, Master’s University (John MacArthur’s school); Steve Pettit, Bob Jones University; Gary Walton, Harvest Baptist Church on Guam;

Charles and Daniel Phelps,

Colonial Hills Baptist Church in Indianapolis

, Indiana; Ray Comfort, Living Waters; and countless more theological frauds and pulpit devils. All of these heretics are hellbound without true salvation.

Pastor Curtis Hutson rightly exposes these wicked false prophets, preaching THE TRUTH that they cannot be saved until they repent of their wrong idea of what it means to repent...

The Bible meaning of repentance is simply “ a change of mind,

not a change of lifestyle. Advocates of the Devil’s lie of Lordship Salvation wrest (torture) the Bible to their own destruction (2nd Peter 3:16-17). They totally ignore the clear teaching of the entire Gospel of John, wresting an obscure passage of Scripture to bolster up their straw man heresies of turning away from sin, surrendering all to Christ, following Jesus as no matter what the cost, faithfully running the race and exchanging all that you are for all that He is, to be saved. These are the crazy theological things that the aforementioned false prophets all preach!!!

I was listening to a heretical sermon today by the son of Pastor Church Phelps (the [2]pastor who shamefully covered up for a rapist in New Hampshire). Daniel Phelps preaches this heretical sermon titled: “[3]Faith That Works.” In the horrible sermon, Daniel teaches that someone’s faith in Jesus Christ as Savior is ineffective to save, if that faith does not INCLUDE works, which he heretically defines as:

- Real faith is demonstrated by our activities.
- Real faith is proven by testing.
- Real faith is rewarded by God.
- Be motivated by the reward your perseverance is sure to bring.

These false teachings by Daniel Phelps are NOT what the inspired King James Bible teaches! I receive so many emails from worried professed Christians, scared that they might not be saved because of an abundance of sins in their life. They are worried after hearing corrupt preachers from the Bob Jones University camp, like Charles and Daniel Phelps, and Marty Herron, and Gary Walton and John MacArthur. These evil men are all infidels!!! They are the ENEMIES of God, corrupters of God's free gift of grace and eternal life (Ephesians 2:8-9).

The famous author of the book Pilgrim's Progress, and Gospel preacher, John Bunyan said it well:

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." —John Bunyan (1628-1688)

Daniel Phelps (like his perverse father) are corrupt on God's grace, both preaching ANOTHER GOSPEL (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4; Galatians 1:6-9). The Bob Jones camp cast stumbling blocks before their students, infiltrating and infecting thousands of Baptist churches with the deadly poison of Calvinism. I am sick and tired of hearing these reprobates of the faith, who ADD living a changed life to faith alone. They lie and still maintain that salvation is wholly by grace alone, yet they insist that you must live a changed life to proven that your faith is genuine. That is NOT faith.

Dear friend, if I offer you a gift for your birthday, all you would need to do is take it. But what if I said that I am going to be watching your behavior over the coming year, to see how you are doing? And what if I tell you that you will lose the gift I am handing to you, if you fail to live a certain way? First, you would think I am a nut. Second, you certainly wouldn't feel like it is a gift. So why is it that when it comes to God's gift of eternal life, by faith alone in the GOOD NEWS (Gospel) of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and bodily resurrected from the dead the third day, we can no longer conceive the meaning of a free gift?

At the end of the perverse sermon, Daniel Phelps says that those who "persevere" will receive the "reward" of Heaven. This is the [4]same damnable garbage that Dr. Steve Pettit (shameful president of Bob Jones University) preaches. These wicked men are NOT true believers! They preach a false gospel of partial faith in Christ plus works. There is no assurance of salvation in their theology, because you cannot KNOW you are saved until you've proven that it is real, by living a holy life, activities, testing and persevering. These corrupters of grace cast stumbling stones before the people, confusing sanctification within by justification without. The Christian believer is justified by faith alone in an instant; but sanctification (growing in the Lord) takes a lifetime. Millions of believers choose to live in sin, and do not attend church. They have dirty minds. They drink booze. Many live in the sin of fornication, with no intention of getting married at any time. The Lordship Salvation camp says they are not really saved, because they have never repented of their sins. They are WRONG!

Dear reader, I hope you are listening. I am telling you THE TRUTH. God's free gift of eternal life is obtained without any obligation to you whatsoever to change your life. Reformation (turning away from sins) is not repentance (a change of mind). Penitence is sorrow for sins, not repentance. Penance is trying to make a mend for sin, not repentance. Repentance is realizing that you are a guilty needy sinner in the sight of a Holy God (Romans 3:19-20), which compels you to believe on the Lord Jesus Christ to be forgiven and saved eternally (Acts 16:30-31). Tens of millions of churchgoers are being led into the fires of Hell by the Bob Jones University camp today, with their damnable lies of [5]Misunderstood Repentance and [6]Lordship Salvation. Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) also faithfully exposes BJU's [7]False Bibles, which is the source of their damnable heresies.

James chapter 2 simply refers to being justified in the eyes of men. The key verse is James 2:18, "

Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith without thy works, and I will shew thee my faith by my works.

" Carefully notice that James says I WILL SHEW YOU! James wasn't speaking about being justified in the sight of God. The Apostle Paul speaks of justification in the sight of God in Romans 4:4-6, which is BY FAITH ALONE WITHOUT WORKS. The Bible even says that in Romans 4:5! Yet, these theological liars (like Marty Herron, Chuck and Daniel Phelps) will tell you salvation is still by grace, while insisting that you must WORK to prove that your faith is real. Even a small child can see that this rotten apple has worms!!!

2.5.7 As A Testimony To All, Harvest Baptist Church On Guam Refuses To Make Peace With Me (2021-05-12 01:19)

Jeremiah 6:14, " They have healed also the hurt of the daughter of my people slightly, saying, Peace, peace; when there is no peace. " Matthew 5:9, "Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God."

My regular web visitors all know that I have been at war with the Bob Jones University camp since 2014. I have done my best to make peace with them, but they have arrogantly refused. I didn't start preaching hard against them until they told me I couldn't come back to church. Then I clearly saw just how rotten, abusive and self-righteous they all are. Now they demonize me further, blaming me for what they started and made worse. Pastor Marty Herron started all this and has much blood on his hands, for [1]leading people into Hell with [2]a misunderstanding of repentance, as well as my blood for denying me a church family since 2014 until present. Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) [3]exposes these wicked false teachers!

I have mailed cases of Gospels of John to Harvest, to both their former and present senior pastors. I have sent Sword Of The Lord subscriptions to both senior pastors. Yet, my acts of love mean nothing to them at all! They hate me so much that I am not even worth a phone call to try to make peace. My phone number is listed in the local phone book. My e-mail is posted all over my blogs and ministry websites. Several of my neighbours across the street from me work on staff at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. Yet, they have decided to ostracize me, which is typical religious cult behavior. All across America, people are absolutely sick and tired of abusive authoritarian bullies in church leadership, sexual predator's in the Bob Jones University camp. And then those hypocrites, like Pastor Chuck Phelps who protect rapists and cover-up for them, have the audacity to condemn and expel other sinners from their midst.

Pastor Marty Herron kicked a man out of Harvest Baptist Church for divorcing his wife. Yet, Herron is buddies and preaches for Chuck Phelps at the shameful Colonial Hills Baptist Church in Indianapolis. [4]Take a look at who Chuck Phelps really is! So why does Pastor Herron give a free pass to a fellow pastor who covers-up for a man who raped a 15 year old girl, but shows no mercy toward a man who divorced his wife? What a hypocrite! When I humbly apologized for any hurt feelings, and literally begged Pastor Herron in 2017 to please allow me to come back to church services at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, he coldly told me verbatim to, "

Go elsewhere.

" What kind of pastor does that to a hurting man who is begging for help spiritually to fix his broken life? A monster, that's who! A wicked man who covers-up for other perverse pastors who cover-up for child molesters!!! Screw Harvest Baptist Church on Guam!

Neither Harvest's new senior pastor Gary Walton, nor any of the old associate pastors under Herron, have lifted a single finger to contact me or try to make peace with me. I contacted Harvest and they turned me away! I am not going to keep casting my pearl before swine. Harvest refuses to have anything to do with me. Yet, I have sent cases of Gospels of John to their church (under both pastors). I also sent 3-year subscriptions of the Sword Of The Lord to their pastors, to show them my love, sincerity and willingness to make peace.

Honestly, if I knew a better way to get their attention and make peace with them, I would have done so. I tried being nice, but that didn't work. I tried apologizing, but that didn't work either. I tried kindly shaking Pastor Herron's hand at the GPO mall on Guam in 2018, while he and his brother-in-law were waiting by Cinnabon for Pastor Herron's wife to finish shopping at the ABC Store. I greeted all of them with 100 % kindness and love from my heart. It still didn't matter, I wasn't welcomed at Harvest. Pastor Herron is a very little man with a small heart. I have never known such mean, selfish, cruel, heartless and rotten people in my life, as the pastors, staff and many brainwashed Harvest Baptist Church members who mistreat me under orders from their cult leaders. I am exposing the hateful Bob Jones crowd everywhere! They are a cult!

I am not the one who refuses to reconcile, Harvest's pastors are! I want the world to know. God already knows, of course. I want you all to know dear readers, that this battle is not mutual. I want to make peace, the sooner the better. All I have ever wanted is to come back to church. It's not about our doctrinal differences, it's about loving hurting people. People just want to be loved. I want and need to be loved. There is no love at the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, only fearful immature men who are making a living by parasiting off of God's work. Bullies don't make good pastors!

A little love on their part would make all the difference in the world, but I am THE ONLY ONE showing any acts of love and kindness. Harvest's BJU pastors are so carnal and immature. I don't see Harvest mailing me any Bibles, or mailing me any subscriptions, or trying to reach out to me (as I have them for 7 years now). You are my witnesses, all my blog and web visitors, that THE BLOOD IS ON THEIR HANDS ALONE at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. Judgment Day is coming in eternity (Hebrews 4:13; 9:27; Matthew 12:36; Romans 14:10-12).

I love you all, whosoever you may be, including everybody at Harvest. I wish we could be friends. A hurting dog barks. The Bible says that God has not given us the spirit of fear, but of power, love and a sound mind. So why do Harvest's pastors cower in fear? Why do they resist sound doctrine? Why do they reject the power of God? God is my Witness! 1st Samuel 24:12, "The LORD judge between me and thee, and the LORD avenge me of thee: but mine hand shall not be upon thee."

2.5.8 Turning From Sin To Be Saved Is The Biggest Lie Satan Ever Inspired (2021-05-13 03:06)

Romans 4:4-7, "Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt. But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness. Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works, Saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered."

There was never a bigger lie told than that you must "turn away from sin," or "be willing to turn from sin," to receive God's free gift of eternal life. Our churches have become religious cults today, as this Devil's lie of misunderstood repentance infects more and more churches every day. Thankfully, [1]Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) saw this woeful evil and he exposed it in his faithful Bible preaching!!!

Romans 4:4 plainly teaches that if salvation is by works, then it is no longer of grace. I marvel in grief as I hear pastor after pastor foolishly maintain that they still preach a salvation by God's grace, while at the same time demanding that people make an effort to stop sinning to prove the sincerity of their faith to be saved. No such requirement is taught in the Bible. There are no qualifications to coming to Christ for salvation, except that you come as a guilty sinner! We contribute NOTHING to our salvation, except for the sin that made it necessary.

The evidence that a person's faith is real is the presence of faith itself. I am sick and tired of hearing this garbage about "real faith." Friend, there is only one kind of faith. Your faith may be dead, meaning that your life doesn't support your profession of faith, but it is still faith nonetheless. Faith is faith. We often hear about mountain moving faith, but did not our blessed Savior teach that even the smallest amount of faith (as a tiny grain of mustard seed) is enough to move mountains? Yes, He sure did! Matthew 17:20, "And Jesus said unto them, Because of your unbelief: for verily I say unto you, If ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place; and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible unto you." Do you have faith my friend?

The Word of God says that God damns these heretical pastors. I am disgusted that so many stupid pastors today excuse these doctrines of devils as mere semantics. I heard a stupid pastor make the lame excuse that in order to turn TO something, you have to also turn FROM something. So in his foolish thinking, it is acceptable to teach that a person must "turn away from sin" to be saved. That man is a theological fool and I doubt his salvation. With that type of corrupt thinking, you could justify any heresy! It is the popular half-truth, the most deadly of all deceptions. The truthful part is that you must turn FROM something, in order to turn TO something. The lying part is that you must turn away from sinful bad habits, reform, and make a conscious effort to stop sinning. That is 100 % WORKS! The only thing that you need to literally turn from to be saved, is whatever is hindering you from coming to Christ by faith. We don't get saved by repenting, we get saved by BELIEVING, which repentance facilitates (makes possible). Repentance is automatic. The man who believes on Christ as His personal Savior has repented (i.e., he has changed his mind).

I have received countless emails over the years in my ministry, from people who are scared they may not be saved, because of sin in their life. I have heard many people tell me that they have sinful bad habits, and no desire to stop doing them, and they are worried of going to Hell, after hearing the Devil's lies of [2]Misunderstood Repentance and [3]Lordship Salvation (Pastor Jack Hyles exposes these heresies) from corrupt preachers. Dear friend, you DON'T have to quit even one sin to be saved. Nor do you have to be willing to stop sinning to be saved. Repentance is the acknowledgment of THE TRUTH (2nd Timothy 2:25), that you are a guilty sinner in God's sight (Romans 3:19-20). Bible repentance does NOT mean forsaking your sinful ways. Repentance is not reformation. Judas brought back the 30 pieces of silver, returning the blood money to the Pharisees. Judas was a changed man. Judas was regretful and felt guilty. Judas tried to do penance, making a mend. Yet Judas went to Hell because of his unbelief. Judas never repented toward God. Judas never changed his mind about the Gospel. Friend, if you think turning away from your sins proves you are saved, you are NOT saved! If you think that turning away from your sins is necessary to get to Heaven, you are not saved.

These Calvinist liars from the Bob Jones University crowd (including Marty Herron, Gary Walton, Steve Pettit, John MacArthur and countless others) will all say that you don't have to be perfect to be saved. They'll admit that even the best Christians still commit sin. But they teach that you must hate your sins and have a desire to stop sinning, which they say will be manifest in your life, or else they say you are not really saved. I never hear the Bob Jones crowd preach on assurance of salvation. They don't believe in eternal Security. [4]Read for yourself that heretical words of damnable false prophet, Steve Pettit at BJU. If you don't faithful enter, run and finish the race, Pettit says you are not going to Heaven. That is 100 % works for salvation! Yet, you cannot speak wisdom to the foolish pastors at the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. They are devils in the pulpit, deceiving the people. The kids in their ministry smile and have good manners, identical to the kids at the local Seventh-Day Adventist schools on Guam. Good manners, kindness and high academic scores at school don't grant anyone the right to enter into God's Kingdom.

Sadly, the deceived church members and students of the Harvest Baptist Academy, Harvest Baptist Bible College and other related ministries, such as Harvest House, are all going to Hell because of Marty Herron and Gary Walton. These wicked religious men and their Satanic "turn away from your sin" junk theology, cannot produce the new birth. I am not trying to be unkind, I am telling you THE TRUTH. Jesus warned that you must be BORN AGAIN to enter into God's Kingdom. The absolute ONLY way for that to happen is that you must solely cast yourself upon Jesus Christ, trusting in His substitutionary death on the cross to pay your debt of sin. Only through faith in the finished redemptive work of Christ, believing that after being buried that He resurrected bodily three days later, can anyone be BORN ANEW! You turning away from your sinful behavior has absolutely NOTHING to do with getting saved. NOTHING!!!

Romans 5:6-9 teaches that "CHRIST DIED FOR THE UNGODLY," not for those who are willing to first reform. Those who say that you must "turn from your sin" to be saved, are in fact preaching another gospel of self-righteousness, and not a free grace Gospel of faith alone. God's curse is upon Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, and their God damned pastors (Galatians 1:6-9; 3:1-3; 5:4; 6:7). I didn't say that, the Lord Himself said it!!! There is no greater sin that a human being can commit, than to pervert the Gospel, which is the unpardonable sin. Yes, ladies and gentlemen, Harvest Baptist Church on Guam and Bob Jones University have committed the UNPARDONABLE SIN.

Galatians 5:3-5, For I testify again to every man that is circumcised, that he is a debtor to do the whole law. Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; ye are fallen from grace. For we through the Spirit wait for the hope of righteousness by faith." This passage of Scripture condemns the Bob Jones University crowd today! The unpardonable sin is to reject the grace of God that bringeth salvation, which is exactly what these grace corrupting pastors are doing today, by adding turning away from your sin to faith alone. The Gospel of John very plainly presents God's simple plan of salvation, which is by faith alone in Jesus Christ. The heretical idea that someone must first be willing to reform, or else God's gift of eternal life is withheld from them, is of the Devil.

What the rotten Bob Jones' Lordship Salvation crowd are effectively saying, is that God will not save anybody who isn't first willing to do works. Turning away from sin is a work. I am so sick of hearing Charles Lawson, Daniel Phelps and other infidels say that turning from sin is not a work. It sure is, because you are required to DO SOMETHING to get something. Jesus was asked point blank what "WORKS" are required to be saved. This was Christ's plain answer in John 6:28-29, Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent." If you want to go to Heaven friend, then the only WORK that God allows is to BELIEVE ON JESUS!!! If turning away from sinful bad habits, or having a sincere willingness to do so, were necessary to be saved, then Jesus would have said so, but HE DIDN'T. John 14:2, "In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you." Jesus said what He meant, and He meant what He said. Throughout the precious Gospel of John we are simply told to "BELIEVE" to be saved (85 times in fact). Nothing else is required dear reader.

Oh Foolish Pastors, Who Hath Bewitched You That Ye Should Believe A Lie?

Why, oh why, are the Bob Jones University pastors so stubborn and pig-headed? Why does [5]Marty Herron, and [6]Daniel Phelps, Steve Pettit, Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, Sam Horn, [7]BJU and thousands more perverts of the Gospel, preach another Gospel. Please listen to [8]what Pastor Harry Ironside had to say.

In his popular 1988 book titled, "The Gospel According to Jesus," Pastor John MacArthur heretically uses the word "exchange" concerning being saved:

> "Thus in a sense we pay the ultimate price for salvation when our sinful self is nailed to a cross. . . . It is an exchange of all that we are for all that Christ is. And it denotes implicit obedience, full surrender to the lordship of Christ. Nothing less can qualify as saving faith." [emphasis added] —Pastor John MacArthur; The Gospel According to Jesus, p. 140

Salvation is not an exchange! Receiving the free gift of eternal life is not a trade. John MacArthur is preaching another gospel of partial faith in Christ plus works! Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith. God will not save anyone who is trying to be saved, He will only save those who are trusting to be saved. Salvation is received, not achieved! Religion is man trying to reach God through human effort, but Christianity is God trying to reach man by the sacrifice of His only begotten Son on the cross.

In sharp contrast, please read what Dr. Ironside says in his helpful Gospel tract titled:

ANOTHER GOSPEL? ...

> “When anyone comes promising salvation to those ‘who make full surrender’ of all that they have to God, and who ’pay the price of full salvation’ he is preaching another gospel, for the price was paid on Calvary’s cross and the work that saves is finished. It was Christ Jesus who made the full surrender when He yielded His life on Calvary that saves us, not our surrender in any way to Him.”
> SOURCE: Harry A. Ironside, from the Gospel tract, [9]Another Gospel

In your face MacArthur! Harry Ironside just contradicted everything MacArthur teaches concerning salvation. In sharp contrast to Harry Ironside, here are [10]some of MacArthur’s foolish unbiblical teachings from his book, The Gospel According to Jesus (Zondervan 1988). In MacArthur’s own perverted words, he states:

> Saving faith is “unconditional surrender, a complete resignation of self and absolute submission” (page 153).
>
> “Salvation is for those who are willing to forsake everything” (page 78).
>
> “Saving faith is a commitment to leave sin and follow Jesus Christ at all costs. Jesus takes no one unwilling to come on those terms” (page 87).
> “Eternal life brings immediate death to self” (page 140).

Is this true? Absolutely not. This is [11]the same deadly junk theology that Steve Pettit preaches! Read again the preceding quotes I shared with you from Dr. Harry Ironside. These two men are diametrically opposed to each other theologically on the subject of Biblical repentance and salvation. John MacArthur is of the Devil and his Calvinistic doctrines are demonic!!! There is no way possible to reconcile the beliefs of Harry Ironside with those of John MacArthur, and only a wicked person would try. MacArthur clearly teaches that no one can be saved unless they are willing to UNCONDITIONALLY SURRENDER and FORSAKE EVERYTHING. If you didn’t visit the link I provided earlier, please do so now, where John MacArthur adds [12]7 unbiblical requirements to the Gospel to be saved. This is not what the Word of God teaches.

Also, please Read: [13]Dr. John R. Rice Refutes Lordship Salvation

Now let me quote to you again the great man of God, Dr. Ironside...

> “Nor is the Gospel a demand that you give up the world, that you give up your sins, that you break off bad habits, and try to cultivate good ones. You may do all these things, and yet never believe the Gospel and consequently never be saved at all.”
>
> SOURCE: Harry A. Ironside, from the sermon: [14]What Is The Gospel?

Salvation is a gift, paid for by Jesus’ literal, physical, precious blood (1st Peter 1:18,19; 1st John 1:7; Hebrews 9:12; Revelation 1:5). We are saved by HIS RIGHTEOUSNESS (Matthew 6:33; Romans 10:3,4; 1st Corinthians 5:21); and not our own willingness to do better (Isaiah 64:6; Ephesians 2:8,9; Titus 3:5; Romans 4:5,6,22).

Here is one of the best quotes that I've found on repentance, by Dr. Harry A. Ironside (1876-1951):

> "Which comes first, repentance or faith? In Scripture we read, 'Repent ye, and believe the gospel.' Yet we find true believers exhorted to 'repent, and do the first works.' So intimately are the two related that you cannot have one without the other. The man who believes God repents; the repentant soul puts his trust in the Lord when the Gospel is revealed to him. Theologians may wrangle over this, but the fact is, no man repents until the Holy Spirit produces repentance in his soul through the truth. No man believes the Gospel and rests in it for his own salvation until he has judged himself as a needy sinner before God. And this is repentance." ([15]Except Ye Repent, p. 16) [emphasis added]

Amen! We don't give up our sins TO BE saved, we should give up our sins because WE ARE saved, and that requires time to grow in God's grace (1st Peter 2:2). Ephesians 2:10 says that believers are "created in Christ Jesus unto good works," not by good works. I hope I have made the Bible clear enough dear reader. We are at war today with the Devil's religious crowd over the Bible. It is sad that so many pastors, including the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, have been tricked by Lucifer, into adding "turning away from your sin" to faith alone in the GOOD NEWS (Gospel) of Christ crucified on the cross, buried and bodily risen the third day (1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

2.5.9 John 6:28-29 Explains James 2:18-20? (2021-05-13 22:09)

John 6:28-29, "Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God?

Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent."

James 2:18-20, “Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith without thy works, and I will shew thee my faith by my works.

Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: the devils also believe, and tremble.

But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead?”

I was thinking today (I thought I smelled wood burning...lol). I was thinking about the Bible. The Lord gave me a truth that burned in my heart. There is much debate among theologians, and in the churches, over the accurate meaning of James chapter 2. Specifically, James’ statement in verse 20, “FAITH WITHOUT WORKS IS DEAD.” I heard a horrible heretical sermon the other day that someone sent to me, by Pastor Daniel Phelps (Chuck Phelps son) at the Colonial Hills Baptist Church in Indianapolis, Indiana. Sadly, the church is a cult, caught between grace and works, preaching another gospel of Lordship Salvation. This is the ungodly Bob Jones University crowd today, a bunch of infidels who pervert God’s grace.

Anyway, in his sermon Daniel Phelps uses James chapter 2, corrupting it’s true meaning. According to Daniel, a person cannot be saved unless they have “WORKS” to prove that their faith is genuine. But wait a minute! That is man’s speculation, not what God’s Word teaches. I love what Dr. John R. Rice taught me, to always let the Bible interpret itself. Thankfully, we have Jesus’ own words, defining exactly what “WORKS” we must do to get to Heaven.

John 6:28-29, “Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God?

Jesus answered and said unto them, *This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.” I love that!

So when James says that “FAITH WITHOUT WORKS IS DEAD,” he is simply saying that believing in God is not enough to get to Heaven. The devils also believe, and they tremble, knowing that they are doomed! You don’t get your sins forgiven by having faith in God, you must BELIEVE ON HIM, the only begotten Son of God.

John 3:36, “ He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him. ” So if you have faith in God, but not in Jesus, you will NOT go to Heaven when you die! The Holy Bible is very plain about that. I have met religious people while soulwinning, who spoke nothing but praises toward God the Father, but then cursed at the very mention of the name of “ Jesus.

” You see, they have churchianity without Christianity!

My friend, the Apostle James was not teaching Lordship Salvation, he was simply saying that to be saved, you must BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST! What saith the Scripture? Acts 16:30-31, “And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved?

And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house.

” Oh, how simple is the Bible, if we just let the Bible speak for itself, and stop listening to these damnable false prophets today, who keep lying and telling people that they must

turn away from your sin

to be saved. No you don’t! Jesus came to save you and me friend from our sins!

Now, could I be wrong in my interpretation of James 2? Sure, I am only human. In James 2:18, the apostle says, “Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith without thy works, and I will shew thee my faith by my works.” James is speaking about being justified in the eyes of men, not God. Yet, in the next verse James mentions the fallen angels, who tremble in fear of coming judgment, torment and damnation in Hell (Matthew 8:29), which would make it a salvation issue. So I will let you decide dear reader what James chapter 2 means. It could be referring to our walk as believers in “holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord:” (Hebrews 12:14b). Hebrews 12:14 simply means that we are the only Jesus someone may know. So if we are not emulating Christ through our life, then someone may go to Hell because of our poor testimony. Every believer is a walking billboard. What are you advertising?

In the Epistle of Romans, the apostle Paul clearly teaches about justification by faith alone (Romans 4:5-6). This plainly teaches us that James absolutely cannot be saying that our faith in Christ is not genuine if we don’t have works (turning from sin, holiness, good deeds, et cetera). Taken by itself, James chapter 2 can be wrestled (tortured) to say just about anything. Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) wisely said: “A good rule to follow when interpreting the Bible is to never use an obscure passage to contradict a clear one.” James chapter 2 is definitely obscure (i.e., it’s meaning is highly debated by Bible students). Romans 4:1-6 is as plain as the noon day sun!

Romans 4:4, “Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt.” If turning away from sins is required to be saved, or to prove that one’s faith is genuine (as the foolish Bob Jones University crowd constantly claim), then salvation is a reward that is earned, and God is INDEBTED to you. I looked up the Greek meaning of the word “reward” here, which means “pay for service.” The Bible is saying that if you attempt to do WORKS to get to Heaven, then salvation becomes a reward (pay for service), so that God would owe you. Folks, that is not how salvation works. That is why Paul is refuting the very idea here!

I am sick and tired of hearing the apostate Bob Jones University crowd, which today are all Calvinists preaching hardcore Lordship Salvation, saying that salvation is BY GRACE, but we must DO WORKS to prove the genuineness of our faith. That absolutely is NOT what James is teaching in his epistle. I KNOW this to be true, because it would boldly contradict the plain teachings found in the Gospel of John, the Epistle of Romans, and the very Words of our dear Lord Himself in John 6:28-29. So either James was speaking about justification in the sight of men (not God), or he was talking about justification by faith alone in Christ (which is the only “WORKS” which God requires or allows to be saved).

Whosoever BELIEVES ON THE SON has worked the works of God. That is EXACTLY what Jesus said in John 6:28-29, I didn’t say that. If you believe, your religious faith is not dead anymore, it is alive in Christ Jesus! I love you dear reader with God’s unconditional love, whoever you may be. I just want to be a blessing to help others for Christ. I give Jesus ALL the praise and credit (John 15:5). Thank you for reading my blog articles. God bless!

2.5.10 Beware Of Zionist Heresy In The Churches (2021-05-14 09:30)

Genesis 12:1-3,

Now the LORD had said unto Abram, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and from thy father’s house, unto a land that I will shew thee: And I will make of thee a great nation, and I will bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou shalt be a blessing:

And I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee*: and in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed.

It was in [1]today’s world news that militants in Gaza said they had fired 130 rockets into Israel in response to an Israeli air raid which destroyed the al-Sharouk tower in Gaza City. The tower, which is the third tall building to be destroyed by air strikes this week, housed al-Aqsa TV, the station run by Hamas. Sadly, this type of hostility and bloodshed has existed for millenniums between the Jews and Arabs. The Middle East is ground zero for Bible prophecy today. Biblically, Israel is the center of the world. All eyes are upon Israel today!

I was making my daily social media rounds today. On Twitter I noticed a disturbing comment by Pastor Jared Young of the Clays Mill Baptist Church in Lexington, Kentucky

. I am not attacking Brother Young. I am a big fan of their church, and I love and fully support Pastor Jeff Fugate. They are good and godly men. Albeit, I totally disagree with this statement Pastor Young made on Twitter today about Israel:

> Pray for the Peace of Jerusalem & Israel! #IStandWithIsrael
>
> Genesis 12:3,
>
>
> I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee: and in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed.
>
>
> Psalms 122:6,
>
>
> Pray for the peace of Jerusalem: they shall prosper that love thee.

What saith the Scripture? Luke 21:24, “And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations: and Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled.” The Bible doesn’t give manmade present-day Israel any special promise of divine protection from God. The bombing going on in Palestine today, whether for or against the Israeli government, has nothing to do with Bible prophecy. Israel today is no different than any other heathen nation.

Pastor Jared Young has bought into the deception of Zionism, a common misunderstanding of the meaning of Genesis 12:3. God's promise to bless those who bless Abraham, and curse those who curse Abraham, were made ONLY to Abraham. Yet, many preachers errantly teach that God promised to bless anyone to blesses any Jew, and to curse anyone who curses any Jew. Nothing could be further from the truth. What saith the Scripture? ...

> Exodus 19:5-6, "
>
> Now therefore, if ye will obey my voice indeed, and keep my covenant, then ye shall be a peculiar treasure unto me above all people: for all the earth is mine:
>
> And ye shall be unto me a kingdom of priests, and an holy nation. These are the words which thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel.

Clearly, God's promise of blessing to the Jew was CONDITIONED upon obedience. God's promise of blessing has always followed a line of faith in the Bible. There was never a time when unbelieving Jews were blessed of God. We see this with Esau. God did not bless wicked Esau as He did righteous Jacob. [2]Pastor J. Vernon McGee (1904-1988) said it very well concerning present-day Israel. God blesses those who obey Him. It is the Christian believer, and not the biological or ethnic or cultural or national Jew, whom God blesses. Mark 9:42, " And whosoever shall offend one of these little ones that believe in me, it is better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were cast into the sea." Carefully notice that Jesus said the promise of God's favor is upon them who BELIEVE.

John the Baptist rebuked the Jews for thinking they had special rights and privilege with God. Matthew 3:9, "And think not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham." John the Baptist forever rebuked the idea that Jews are better than Gentiles, or that Jews have their own special covenant with God to get to Heaven (the garbage Evangelist John Hagee teaches). Jews must be BORN AGAIN, just like Gentiles (John 3:1-7).

God never promised to bless unsaved Jews, nor to bless those who bless them. God promises each INDIVIDUAL person the same covenant He made with Abraham in Genesis 12:3. Psalms 34:7, " The angel of the LORD encampeth round about them that fear him, and delivereth them." There is no promise in the Bible for God to bless a heathen nation like Israel today. The teaching that God will bless churches for blessing pagan Israel is of the Devil. Less than 3 % of Israel's inhabitants today profess Christianity. Where did the unbiblical idea that God would bless a nation of unsaved Jews originate? It is a fabrication of Zionist heresy rooted in dispensational mumbo-jumbo. Read Deuteronomy chapter 28, to learn about God's promise to either bless or curse the Jews, conditioned upon obedience.

So, kindly said, Pastor Jared Young is teaching Zionist heresy. I didn't write this blog to refute Pastor Young, but to refute Zionism. If Israel were to be nuked off the earth tomorrow, it would be 100 % in line with Luke 21:24. Luke 21:24, "And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations: and Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled." The Times Of The Gentiles will end (be fulfilled) when Jesus returns at His Second Coming. Until then, Israel is a sitting duck during hunting season! Hosea 3:4-5 teaches that only when the Jews repent and return to God, will the Lord regather Israel. Many of the Jews have returned to the land of Palestine, but they have not yet returned to God.

2.5.11 The False And Misleading Theology Of Lordship Salvation (2021-05-15 09:30)

John 6:28-29, "Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God?

Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent."

This is one of my favorite passages of Scripture? Since the beginning of human civilization, the Devil has inspired mankind to pursue salvation through self-righteousness. When the serpent first appeared in the paradise of Eden, he appealed to Eve's selfish interests. The serpent subtly convinced Eve that she was missing out on a better deal. The serpent misquoted the instructions which God had given to Adam in Genesis 2:16-17. Whereas the Lord had said they COULD eat freely of ALL the trees in the garden, except one, the serpent deceitfully said in Genesis 3:1, "Now the serpent was more subtil than any beast of the field which the LORD God had made. And he said unto the woman, Yea, hath God said, *Ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden?

" That is not what God said! Do you see how the serpent (Satan) undermined the authority of God's Word, by simply questioning it, but subtly changing what God had said at the same time? Wow, the serpent is a slick dude!

I was doing some research today online, preparing for this article, about the art of deception. A Austrian-British philosopher named

Ludwig Wittgenstein (1889-1951) wrote these helpful words:

> Deception, unlike conjuring, generally depends for its success on keeping intended victims unaware that deception is taking place.
>
> Deception can be defined broadly as the manipulation of appearances such that they convey a false reality. However, when one tries to list a variety of deceptions and their contexts, it becomes difficult to find a common set of features that characterizes all of them. At best, the various types of deception bear what Wittgenstein calls a family resemblance to one another. Deception includes both dissimulation (hiding or withholding information) and simulation (putting out wrong or misleading information). Both deception and lying can be accomplished by omission as well as by commission. [emphasis added]
>
> SOURCE: Ludwig Wittgenstein, "Philosophical Investigations," published in 1953 after his death

That is exactly what the serpent did! The serpent withheld information (dissimulation), assuring Eve that she would become as " if she ate the forbidden fruit, but he didn’t tell her what that really meant. She became as a god

a god

” only in the sense that she could now make her own choices concerning good and evil, but would also have to suffer the consequences!

Likewise, we see that the serpent gave Eve wrong information (simulation), misquoting what God had commanded them in Genesis 2:16-17. So the Devil deceived Eve using both dissimulation and simulation. The serpent kept Eve unaware the entire time that she was being woefully deceived!

Lordship Salvation: A Very Misleading False Gospel

Now let’s examine the popular deception of Lordship Salvation, and see how these tactics of deception apply here. First, what exactly is “

[1]Lordship Salvation

”?

We are talking about the false doctrine which says that in order for a person to be saved, he must make Jesus the absolute of his life. He must

“Lord”

” to Christ as Lord, exchanging all that he is for all that Christ is. The most popular teacher of this false doctrine today is [2]Pastor John MacArthur of Grace Community Church located in Sun Valley, California.

The inspired King James Bible teaches something very different. When asked what “WORKS” God demands of men to be saved, Jesus simply said to BELIEVE ON HIM. John 6:28-29, “Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.” I love the Lord’s simple answer, which clears up any debate over what “WORKS” are necessary to go to Heaven.

Having said that, something is VERY wrong with the Lordship Salvation theological circus found today in most Baptist churches. Of course, these are religious cults, and not true Bible believing New Testament churches. God’s curse is upon anyone who preaches “another gospel” (Galatians 1:6-9; 3:1-3; 5:4; 6:7). Those serpents in the pulpit today, who preach Lordship Salvation, use both dissimulation and simulation to deceiver the naïve.

They withhold information (dissimulation), by not telling lost sinners that they can be saved without giving up their sinful lifestyle. I have received many emails from upset people, who said that they almost went to Hell, because for years they wanted to be saved, but were told by Jack Chick, Marty Herron, Steve Pettit, Gary Walton, John Piper, David Cloud, Ray Comfort, John MacArthur, Paul Washer, Chuck Phelps and other wicked false teachers (all Calvinists to some degree), that God wouldn't save them unless they were willing to stop living in willful sin. I don't blame those people for being upset at those lying preachers.

Dear reader, there's not one verse in the King James Bible (which is the only English Bible you can trust), that says to "repent of your sin" or "turn away from your sin" to be saved. The only way that false teachers can support their Lordship Salvation heresy with the Bible, is to wrest (torture) obscure passages to make it fit their agenda. There is a woeful misunderstanding in the churches today about what it means to "

repent.

" A simple Greek lexicon shows that the biblical meaning of repentance is a change of mind. Yet, we here all these lying false teachers in pulpits today, heretically preaching that repentance means to change your life

to turn away from your sinning.

No, they are wrong folks!!!

Repentance according to 2nd Timothy 2:25b is "the acknowledging of the truth; " It is the admission that you are a guilty sinner in the sight of almighty holy God, seeing your NEED for redemption, believing the Good News of Christ crucified, buried and risen to be saved. Repentance does NOT mean that you must be willing to stop living a lifestyle of sin, which would be WORKS!

I am so sick and tired of hearing these shady used car salesman type preachers today, who insist that salvation is still solely by God's GRACE, yet at the same time they also insist that if you do not perform WORKS in your Christian life, then your FAITH is not genuine. That is so deceptive on many levels! Romans 6:23, " For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord." Calvinists (i.e., those who follow the false teachings of a man named John Calvin, 1509-1564), have a hard time wrapping their brain around the fact that eternal life is A FREE GIFT FROM GOD, promised to anyone who BELIEVES ON JESUS as their personal Savior.

When I lived in the city of Chicago many years ago, a certain politician ran for the office of governor of Illinois. I remember that while candidating, one of the biggest promises that he made to everyone was not to raise citizen's income taxes. He won the election! Do you know what weasel did? He kept his promise not to raise income taxes alright, but he added new taxation to over 200 services and things that were formerly not taxed. WHAT A DECEIVING LIAR!!! For example: Prior to his election, you only paid taxes on the auto parts used to repair your car. But the new governor of Illinois passed a new law, charging people taxes on the charges for the mechanic's service as well. He did this on over 200 formerly non-taxable items. Do you see how he lied to everyone? He did in fact raise the citizen's taxes, while keeping his promise not to raise income taxes. It didn't surprise me when that politician was sentenced to 14 years in federal prison, for a series of other crimes.

I couldn't give you a more perfect example of what the Lordship Salvation camp are doing to God's free and simple plan of salvation. I am so sick of it. And by the way, [3]so was Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) sick of it (my hero of the Christian faith). [4]Lordship Salvation is a perversion of the Gospel, as Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) rightly exposed it. Yet these (what I call) "devil dog preachers" of Lordship Damnation, just like that lying politician I mentioned, falsely claim that salvation is by grace alone without works, yet they still demand that you do works as a Christian or else they say you're not really saved. WHAT DECEVING LIARS!!!

What saith the Scripture? Romans 11:6, "And if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work. " Could the Bible be any plainer? Dear friend, "WORKS" simply has no place in God's plan of salvation (not before, during or after getting saved), except that you obey the Lord's words in John 6:28-29 to BELIEVE ON HIM.

2.5.12 Wicked Pastors Have Much Blood On Their Hands (2021-05-16 09:30)

Matthew 15:7-9, "Ye hypocrites, well did Esaias prophesy of you, saying, This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips; but their heart is far from me. But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men."

What a powerful passage of Scripture! We've got a bunch of pastors and churches all over the world, where they sing their sycophantic praises every Sunday, and listen to their pastors preach another gospel that complicates God's free grace, doing far more damage than good. The Bible says they worship God in vain. It is meaningless, a total waste of everyone's time and money, because they are not worshipping God in spirit and in truth (John 4:24). The truth has few friends these days.

In this blog about 'Right Doctrine Matters,' I am not just commenting on verses throughout the Bible, I am PREACHING THE TRUTH!!! That is the great thing lacking in today's churches... BIBLE PREACHING!!! [1]Apostates like Pastor Steven Furtick, with his $1,600,000 new mansion in Charlotte, North Carolina, are sending the world to Hell. Furtick comes out with his electric guitar, jamming to Joan Jett's song: 'I Love Rock N' Roll.' That is a devil for a pastor! Furtick never preaches, he wows the audience with psychology. The world has no place in the New Testament church, nor shallow messages that leave off the doctrine of Christ.

Sadly, Furtick manages to draw in 8,000 people each Sunday. This just shows the apostate condition of America today! 2nd Timothy 4:3,

For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears;

" Thrill seekers today want a God who accepts them as they are, and not a God Who demands holiness and separation from the sinful world. It matters not that God does not require changing one's life to be saved, people still won't attend a church that teaches God expects Christians to live holy lives because they are saved. Please notice the words " sound doctrine " in 2nd Timothy 4:3. I was driven out of Harvest Baptist Church of Guam because I gave them SOUND DOCTRINE. From 2014 until this very day in 2021, I am still not allowed to attend church services at Harvest. I stop preaching against them when they repent (change their mind). But that would mean embracing a truth-teller, and false prophets won't do that. It is so sad and tragic. I feel sorry for the young people being misled.

Pastor Marty Herron Has Blood On His Hands

I haven't been allowed to attend church since 2014 because of Pastor Marty Herron. I've had nowhere else to go on Guam. The nurse (Kris) at Harvest Baptist Church of Guam, who was interesting in marrying me, didn't because of Pastor Herron's meddling. They made fun of Kris because I am older than her. I do curse Marty Herron's name, and I pray and hope God makes him pay someday. Herron must answer to God and I want to be there when he does. This is about justice, not forgiveness! I detest self-righteous Neo-evangelical pastors, who play God with people's lives, hurt truth-tellers like me, and are woefully indifferent toward right doctrine and the infallibility of God's Word. Mr. Herron is now getting paid a sickening 6-digit salary in Iowa as executive vice president of Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary. Hell is coming to get him when God calls his number! If you are wrong on grace, you are going to Hell forever.

I Am Being Punished For Telling THE TRUTH

Kindly said, Pastor Marty Herron belongs in prison. Dr. Herron hasn't righted his wrongs, and in my case it is too late, the damage is done. I have no one and am alone because of him. All I pleaded with him for, was the chance to come back to church in 2017 (three times), to be a part of the church family who once embraced me for a year in 2013 and 2014. They axed me like a turkey on Thanksgiving Day, showing no compassion, no mercy, no second chances, only contempt for a hurting man. A hurting dog barks! What was my great offence? It was for the very title of this blog: Right Doctrine Matters! As a true friend does, I spent thousands of dollars on DVD King James Bibles by Alexander Scourby, books by fundamentalist preachers, and I freely gave them all away to others at church.

It was my joy to share and help others grow closer to Christ. But Harvest's wicked pastors took offense with Pastor Jack Hyles' sermons on the King James Bible. They were offended because they are deceived! Harvest Baptist Church uses, sells and promotes the Devil's Bibles, for which I was driven out of the church and ostracized. Those pastors at Harvest (Joe Hanson, Jared Baldwin, Gary Walton, Marty Herron and all the rest) has better hope and pray that I am not correct about the corrupt Bibles they promote. If in fact the Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort produced modern Bibles are of the Devil, those pastors have my blood all over their hands.

I have suffered inexplicable painful loneliness, rejection, being shunned, enduring hateful looks for years from my neighbours who attend Harvest Baptist Church, being laughed at in public by Harvest staff members, isolated, feeling like a bad person, and wanting to commit suicide during the holidays—all because Pastors' Marty Herron and Gary Walton think I am a heretic! They had better hope to God that there are in fact dozens of accurate English Bible versions, in spite of the FACT that God only authored ONE BOOK! If I am right, woe, woe, be unto the ungodly pastors of Harvest Baptist Church of Guam. Marty Herron cannot escape the wrath of almighty God. He can hide, but he cannot flee THE TRUTH.

If I am right about the Free Grace Gospel, that we are saved simply by childlike faith; then woe, woe, woe be unto the Bob Jones University crowd with their damnable doctrine of Lordship Salvation. Woe, woe, be unto the Harvest Baptist Church of Guam and the Colonial Hills Baptist Church in Indianapolis for adding “ turning from sins

to faith alone. Not one verse in the Bible says to repent of your sin

to be saved. It simply says to

(i.e., to think differently)

, and in many cases (such as Acts 2:38) we only find the word repent without any mention of believing to be saved. This is because repentance and faith are one and the same act. The man who repents has believed.

Even God repented in the Bible. Was God turning from His sins? No, of course not. God simply changed His mind.

Jonah 3:9, “ Who can tell if God will turn and repent, and turn away from his fierce anger, that we perish not?” It is one’s unbelief that makes them lost. Christ came to save us from our sins, not demand that we first reform (turn from our sins) as a requirement to receive God’s free gift of eternal life. I have met countless people who were confused about their salvation because of bad preachers like Charles Phelps, Marty Herron, Steve Pettit, Sam Horn, John MacArthur, Gary Walton and Ray Comfort.

There Are Many Tares In The Bob Jones University Camp

While at Harvest Baptist Church of Guam I witnessed to one of their deacons and staff members. He didn’t know he was saved and came to me as a friend, worried about it. I gladly helped him and showed him the simple free grace Gospel. I love helping people, and people pick up on that quickly. My friend said to me with tears in his eyes, “Why don’t our pastors teach things like that?” I’ll tell you why, because Marty Herron is incompetent as a pastor, and he absolutely has no business being in the religious business. The Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary is as the sinking Titanic with Herron leading that cesspool of iniquity today!

The Lord never intended for the New Testament Church to become a stinking business. That’s all Harvest Baptist Church on Guam is—a lousy business! They have emphasized the business of religious education, and neglected the Master’s business of soulwinning! HBC is about making money, plain and simple. That is why they have rejected and ostracized me since 2014, because I do increase their revenues! Gary Walton belongs in prison! Steve Pettit belongs in prison! Charles Phelps belongs in prison! These weak men disgust God. I am contending for the Christian faith (Jude 1:3). Right doctrine matters!

Matthew 15:7-9, "Ye hypocrites, well did Esaias prophesy of you, saying, This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips; but their heart is far from me. But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men."

Pastor Herron worships God in vain, and so does Gary Walton and his misled followers at HBC Guam. Their 'Family Life Center' should be renamed to the 'Family Death Center'! Lordship Salvation is a perversion of God's free grace, which complicates the Gospel. They worship God in vain!

Dear friend, we've got a bunch of self-righteous hypocrites corrupting our churches today, who think they know it all. I'm talking about the dead Colonial Hills Baptist Church in Indianapolis where Pastor Herron preaches his Lordship Salvation heresy. Anyone who would invite Marty Herron is of the Devil. I am just thankful to be out of that cold dead church at the Harvest Baptist Church of Guam. I used to come home from church to listen to hard Bible preaching by Pastor Jack Hyles, to recover from an hour of listening to Pastor Marty Herron put everyone to sleep with his sermonettes.

That place (Harvest Baptist Church, Guam) is a cult.

'Colonial Hills Baptist Church' In Indianapolis Is A Cult

That place (Colonial Hills Baptist Church, Indianapolis) is a cult. Everyone seems miserable and it's because of Lordship Salvation. They are all trying to produce a righteousness inside themselves that would be acceptable to God without the Holy Spirit inside them, but that is not possible. I prayed about the Holy Spirit one time during group prayer meeting, and Tammy Herron looked at me like she had seen a ghost. Those people are missing the Holy Spirit, because they have the WRONG GOSPEL!!! I am not trying to be unkind, I am telling THE TRUTH, for which I still am not allowed to attend Harvest in 2021. To Hell with them all!!!

I speak to the shame of Pastor Gary Walton at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. I pray for God to avenge me night and day of these wicked pastors, who arrogantly spit on the Lord Jesus Christ with their dozens of corrupt Bible revisions, and spit on the Lord Jesus Christ with their misunderstood repentance and Lordship Salvation heresy.

I speak to the shame of Pastor Marty Herron for perverting God's grace, adding to faith to be saved.

They are modern day Pharisees. Just like Pastor John MacArthur, they don't believe in the blood of Jesus that cleanses us from all sin. As Pastor Jack Hyles said, "they are trying to give the pilot a Reese's cup" trying to prove their own "election."

God Made The Gospel Simple, Not Complicated

Folks, we need to leave the Gospel alone and preach the simplicity that is in Christ, not complicate matters by requiring people to turn away from their sinning (which is a very difficult thing to do). Today's Neo-evangelical pastors have much blood on their hands. Their gospel is not our Gospel. [2]They are all moved away from the hope of the Gospel. Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) had the Gospel right, who said in 1945:

> "God gives you eternal life when you take Him. Eternal life is wrapped up in Christ. 'He that hath the Son hath life.' There is just one difference between a Christian and a sinner. A Christian has Christ and a sinner does not have Him. That is the only difference. All you need is Jesus. It is all in Jesus! If you will take Him, He will blot out all your sins. If you take Him, He will give you a new nature. If you take Him, He will go with you along the journey of life. He will be with you when you are tempted. He will put arms of power around you and give you the victory. 'By grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God; not of works, lest any man should boast." —Dr. Bob Jones Sr., "Things I Have Learned: Chapel Talks," page 223; Bob Jones University Press, ©1945

Somewhere along the way Bob Jones College moved away from the hope of the Gospel, embracing Dr. John MacArthur's damnable heresy of Calvinism (aka, Lordship Salvation). Notice carefully what Dr. Bob Jones Sr. wisely says, that sound doctrine flows out of a correct understanding of the Gospel:

> "Sound doctrine flows out of the saving doctrine of the grace of Jesus Christ, according to this passage in 1st Timothy chapter one. It describes the faith of the Gospel. These verses say that any manner of life, for the saved person, that doesn't flow out of the Gospel is sin." —Bob Jones III, a quote from his excellent sermon titled: "The Faith Of The Gospel, Part 4"

The sad truth is that BJU has changed their position of repentance, the Bible and salvation. They will falsely claim that they haven't changed, but I dare you to go look at the only Bible they used in 1927 when they opened their doors. It was the King James Bible, period. When they say on their website that they haven't changed, what they're really saying is that they never took a stand for the Bible, because it wasn't an issue back then. Well it is now honey! The Gospel doesn't change over time. The inspired and infallible Word of God is still the same today as it was when God gave it to men thousands of years ago. Truth is absolute, it never changes, but men do change, which is why we must diligently contend for the faith...

> "Our Christian faith is not a generational thing. The Bible says it's from generation to generation. It's eternal. It's from everlasting to everlasting. Luke 1:50 speaks about that, and Psalms 78:4-6 speaks about it. Styles change, architecture changes, technology changes, but truth doesn't change! If God's truth was sacred to Paul, it's got to be sacred to us and all generations. The sacredness of God's truth is not generational." —Bob Jones III, a quote from his excellent sermon titled: "The Faith Of The Gospel, Part 4"

Too many pastors are in their own little zone, making money in the pastorate as a profession. What they ought to be doing is taking a stand for THE TRUTH, honoring their calling to the pulpit as a preacher of THE TRUTH. Lordship Salvation is not the truth. Misunderstood repentance is not the truth. Dozens of English Bible revisions are not the truth. The inspired King James Bible is truth. The Free Grace Gospel is the truth. Right doctrine matters folks. The Bible you use matters, because it dictates your doctrine. The words contained in the different Bible revisions matter, because God only meant one thing, not dozens.

Worshipping God In Vain With Manmade Teachings

There simply cannot be dozens of different Bibles in any particular language. I absolutely reject the insane idea that we don't have an infallible and inspired Bible today by God. The Lord PROMISED to keep and preserve His PURE WORDS forever (Psalms 12:6-7). Every single one of today's Devil's Bibles corrupt and remove God's promise from Psalms 12:6-7. [3]See for yourself dear friend what the Devil has done!!! What is wrong with pastor's today? What is wrong with the churches? What is wrong with the Bible colleges? Why is it human nature to merely go along with the crowd, no matter how wrong they are? Herd mentality is dangerous. The Bible proclaims that "T he just shall live by faith

" (Romans 1:17b). So where does Marty Herron come off demanding that people

repent of your sins

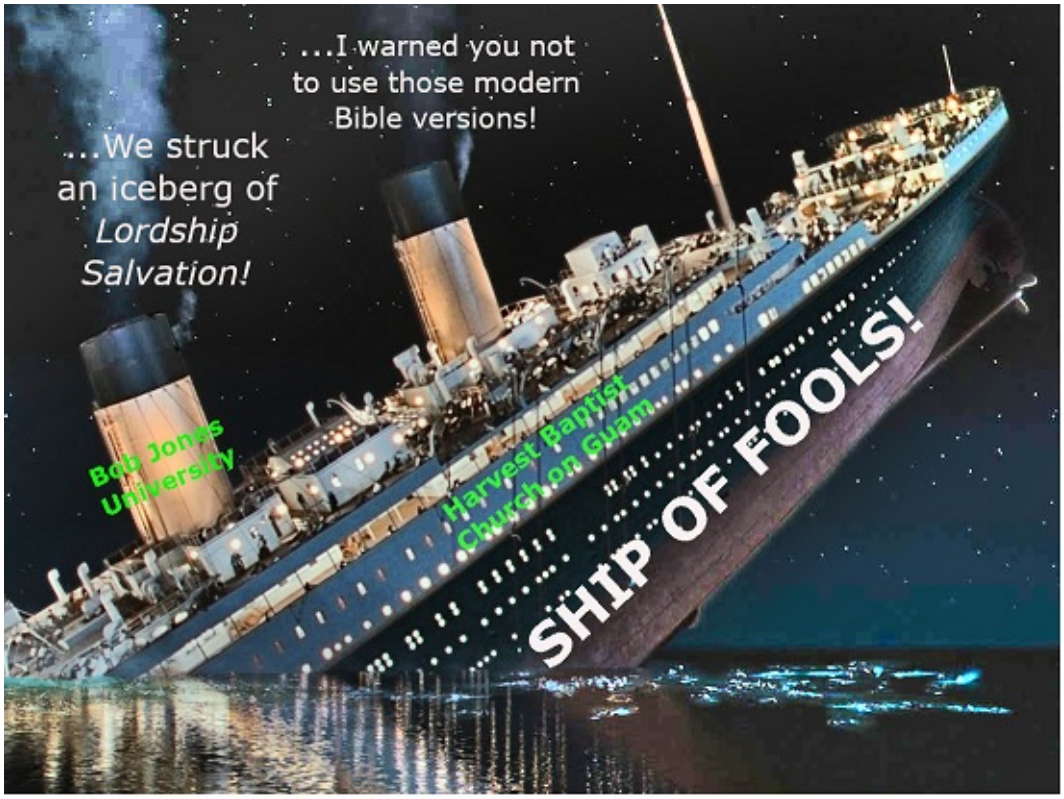
to be saved? Herron has blood on his hands, because he is adding to the Scripture, perverting grace.



Matthew 15:7-9, "Ye hypocrites, well did Esaias prophesy of you, saying, This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips; but their heart is far from me. But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men." The Bob Jones Crowd are worshipping God in vain, promoting their manmade teaching that requires that you to be saved. Throughout history you'll find mixed teachings. Some men preached Lordship Salvation. Other men preached salvation by faith alone. Since the beginning of human civilization, as evidenced by the conflict between Cain and Abel, we see that there has always existed a raging battle between faith versus works for salvation. I hope you will choose faith alone.

2.5.13 I Didn't Know You Could Wash $10 Bills (2021-05-17 22:28)

Romans 4:3-7, "

For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness.

Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt*.

But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.

Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works, Saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered.

I went walking along the ocean at sunrise this morning, and then went to do my laundry at the local A-1 laundromat on route 8. After the load of laundry finished 20 minutes later, I opened the door and a $10 bill fell out of the machine into my laundry bucket. I was amazed that the $10 was still wholly in tact, without a tear. You'd think after 20 minutes of being drowned in detergent and water, and tumbling, and then spinning dry, that the $10 would have turned to mush like oatmeal. But it was like new. Am I guilty of laundering money? That's a joke.

While I had been waiting for my clothes to wash, as I always do I read a hardcopy that I keep in my vehicle of Michael Bowen's classic book titled:

" [1]I NEVER KNEW YOU ."

It is one of my favorite books to read, over and over. I read the following passage today exposing the counterfeit gospel of Pastor Rick Warren of the fake Saddleback Church in Lake Forest, California. Rick Warren is not a born-again Christian, he is a fraud in the pulpit...

> As children, most of us were told the tale of the Pied Piper, a story about a man who played a type of flute who led little children away from the care of their families and ended up drowning in the river. Like the Pied Piper, Warren plays an irresistible tune that no one can ignore. Once people hear what he has to say, they are hooked. Warren digs down into the cores of our individual beings, down into our deepest desires of wanting to forget our pasts, our mistakes and failures, of wanting to make our present lives the best that they can be, and by telling us that if we invite Christ into our hearts and give ourselves to Him that we will go to heaven; however, like the fictional Pied Piper, Warren leads every mesmerized believer of this false gospel to a place of drowning, but not in a river of water; instead, it is the eternal lake of fire, according to the bible. Jesus Christ offers a very different plan of salvation.
>
> Jesus said that the will of the Father was for everyone to recognize Christ as the Messiah and to believe on Him alone for the gift of everlasting life. "And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day" (John 6:40). To make it ever more succinct, Jesus then said, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life" (John 6:47).
>
> The gospel message is the death, burial and resurrection of Jesus Christ. When we believe that Jesus died for us and came back to life three days later, He knows it — He knows all of your thoughts — and He knows the very instant that you believe His gospel message. The instant you believe His message, Jesus saves you. Time and time again we see in the bible that when people heard this message, they "believed." When they believed, they were saved that very same instant. They did not pray prayers of salvation asking Jesus into their hearts. They did not commit their lives to the Lordship of Christ. They did not determine to follow Him all the days of their lives in obedience to His Lordship or to the practice of discipleship. They simply believed on Christ alone as their savior.
> It doesn't matter how successful a ministry is, or how beautiful and satisfying their particular plan of salvation may be. If what they say about salvation does not match with what Christ said about salvation, their plan is counterfeit and falls under the label of an "accursed message." Galatians 1:8-9 says, "But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, if any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed." SOURCE: Michael P. Bowen, "[2]I NEVER KNEW YOU," pp. 57-59

What a beautiful passage! I hope you read those words carefully and let them sink in. If you did dear friend, then you read a very simple presentation of the Gospel. Let me repeat some of the preceding quote, that is my favorite part:

> The gospel message is the death, burial and resurrection of Jesus Christ. When we believe that Jesus died for us and came back to life three days later, He knows it — He knows all of your thoughts — and He knows the very instant that you believe His gospel message. The instant you believe His message, Jesus saves you. Time and time again we see in the bible that when people heard this message, they "believed."
> SOURCE: Michael P. Bowen, "[3]I NEVER KNEW YOU," pp. 57-59

Folks, that is a beautiful explanation of the Gospel. We are all guilty sinners (Romans 3:10-23). As such we are needy sinners too, we all need redemption! We all need a Savior!!! Thankfully, God the Father in His incredible love sent His only begotten Son into the world to die on the cross for our sins. Jesus paid a debt He did not owe, because we owed a debt of sin we could not pay. JESUS PAID IT ALL!!!

And please don't miss Michael Bowen's wise words based upon the inspired Word of God, refuting the many false teachings perverting salvation in churches today:

> When they believed, they were saved that very same instant. They did not pray prayers of salvation asking Jesus into their hearts. They did not commit their lives to the Lordship of Christ. They did not determine to follow Him all the days of their lives in obedience to His Lordship or to the practice of discipleship. They simply believed on Christ alone as their savior.
> SOURCE: Michael P. Bowen, " [4]I NEVER KNEW YOU ," pp. 57-59

Now you see why I love this book so much, because Michael Bowen is a rare find nowadays. Brother Bowen credits Pastor Hank Lindstrom (1940-2008) with opening his eyes about the true Gospel, in Dr. Lindstrom's sermon called: '[5]HOW PERMANENT IS YOUR SALVATION.' I hope you also friend will take the time, as did Michael Bowen, to listen to this powerful sermon.

On page 16 of " [6]I NEVER KNEW YOU ," Michael says that it was Pastor Hank Lindstrom's sermon titled: "How Permanent Is Your Salvation?," that showed him Christ's plan of salvation and led him to Jesus Christ, when he saw in the Bible for himself what Christ had said about it. Michael writes on page 16:

> "One night, in late 2005, I found some articles written by Dr. Hank Lindstrom that freed me from so much of the bondage of counterfeit salvation. I then listened to Dr. Lindstrom's sermon "How Permanent Is Your Salvation?" After hearing him preach Christ's plan of salvation and after seeing in the bible for myself what Christ had said about it, I trusted Jesus alone, as my only hope of heaven." SOURCE: "[7]I NEVER KNEW YOU," by Michael P. Bowen; by Barbour Books, © 2009; page 16

Again, here is that precious sermon: "HOW PERMANENT IS YOUR SALVATION?"...

I truly care about you dear reader. Unlike today's plethora of Neo-evangelical parasite pastors and Bible colleges, who make millions of dollars from their religious businesses, I don't make a penny and never have from serving God. I just want to help you! I do what I do because I love Jesus, because I love the truth, and because I love you with God's unconditional love. The Gospel is the key to eternal life. The information I have shared with you on this blog page is so vital and life changing, if you will simply take it to heart friend.

The Bob Jones University (BJU) crowd are corrupt today! Kindly said, Steve Pettit, John MacArthur, Marty Herron, Gary Walton, Sam Horn, Charles Phelps, Daniel Phelps, Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, and anyone connected with BJU today, are preaching ANOTHER GOSPEL (Galatians 1:6-9; 2nd Corinthians 11:3-4). It is a serious crime against Heaven! Our Baptist churches today have been corrupted by Satan. Instead of preaching the simplicity of the Gospel as Michael Bowen preaches in his helpful book, Neo-evangelicals preach a different message entirely. The perverse Lordship Salvation gang ADD praying to be saved, committing your life to Christ, following Jesus as "

Lord,

" faithfully running the race, exchanging all that you are for all that Christ is, turning away from your sinful bad habits, et cetera. Brother Bowens wisely states:

> They did not pray prayers of salvation asking Jesus into their hearts. They did not commit their lives to the Lordship of Christ. They did not determine to follow Him all the days of their lives in obedience to His Lordship or to the practice of discipleship. They simply believed on Christ alone as their savior.
> SOURCE: Michael P. Bowen, " [11]I NEVER KNEW YOU ," pp. 57-59

Dear reader, and you are dear to me, I want you to go to Heaven. I want you to live forever and ever with Jesus. I want you to KNOW 100 %, beyond any shadow of a doubt, that you are saved and your name is written in Heaven. I know what I am talking about as a born-again Christian for 41 years now!

Here are some very disturbing words from Evangelist Paul Washer:

> "We talk about the Germans of the 20th centuries that brought on their higher criticism. It is not near as dangerous as conservative Baptists with their gospel reductionism. How dare we, all these stupid evangelists walking around telling men after they've made some little prayer that they need to write their name in the back of their Bible, and put the date and if the Devil ever comes to them, they need to show him that. That is Roman superstition, it is not the gospel of Jesus Christ. You see we've turned the gospel into a flu-shot." [emphasis added] SOURCE: [12]Paul Washer Sermonette

Paul Washer speaks a half-truth. I agree that praying a prayer is not the way to be saved, but simply believing on the name of Jesus is! Pastor Washer criticizes the practice of encouraging new converts to write down the date they are saved. This is because Calvinists do not believe you can KNOW you're saved in an instant, they believe that you must live a sanctified life to prove the genuineness of your faith. That is not the free gift of God. A gift CAN be accepted freely and on the spot, and you CAN know immediately that it is forever you, without any strings attached or further obligations to keep it.

Today I accidently washed a $10 bill. It must have been left in one of my pockets. I do that all the time. It was an innocent mistake. But dear reader, preaching a perverse gospel is no accident. It is like drunk driving. When someone gets killed by a drunk driver, it was no accident, it is murder! Every time that someone wilfully drinks booze, they are playing a deadly game of Russian Roulette. Alcohol is legally designated as a schedule 1 drug (an addictive substance without a medical application). The Bob Jones crowd know that they are going against free grace preachers like me, and [13]Pastor Curtis Hutson who exposes Lordship Salvation as a perversion of the Gospel. We cannot all be right in this crucial matter!

President Abraham Lincoln (1809-1865) said it exactly right:

> "In great contests [battles], each party claims to act in accordance with the will of God—both may be, but one must be, wrong—God cannot be for and against the same thing at the same time!" —President Abraham Lincoln

Those wicked pastors today who preach Lordship Salvation are not merely making an innocent mistake, like I did washing a $10 bill, they are arrogantly in their sinful pride going against the inspired King James Bible. They are intentionally following their ecumenical peers into Hell. [14]Pastor Marty Herron is afraid to go against [15]his buddy Dr. Steve Pettit (president of Bob Jones University), lest he commit career suicide. These men serve mammon, not God (Luke 16:13). I say that kindly but truthfully. RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!

These theologically corrupt religious men MUST agree with one another or be outcast by the group. I know, because when I took a biblical stand at the [16]corrupt Harvest Baptist Church on Guam (from 2014 until this very day in 2021), they cruelly and sinfully rejected, ostracized and banned me from attending their church services (from then until still today). What kind of church does that? Not a church dear reader, but a demonic CULT! Dozens of Bible versions, multiple variations of the plan of salvation, confusion over what it means to repent, intolerance toward truth-tellers like me—these evils plague Harvest Baptist Church and the whole rotten Bob Jones University camp today, sadly (Matthew 7:21-23; Luke 13:23-24).

So, yes, you can in fact wash $10 bills. At least I did today, by accident. Thankfully I am preaching a free grace Gospel intentionally. Thank you for reading my blog. God bless.

2.5.14 The Bible Teaches To Love Everyone (2021-05-19 23:24)

Matthew 5:43-45, “

Ye have heard that it hath been said, Thou shalt love thy neighbour, and hate thine enemy.

But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you;

That ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven: for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust.

Please don’t ever listen to any preacher who says we should hate anybody! We ought not even hate the Devil. Psalms 97:10 commands every believer to HATE EVIL, but never people. The hallmark character trait of a child of God is that he loves everybody. And if a professed believer spews hatred toward others, something is wrong with their faith or walk with God.

I decided a very long time ago that I am going to love everybody, regardless of how they treat me. Sadly, the most hateful people I know are the Bob Jones University gang. Search the internet and you will find many articles about abuse, rape, blaming victims, hate, bigotry, racism and a spirit of thug authoritarian in the Bob Jones camp. That is not God’s love. I love people. I don’t want to be a snob like the BJU graduates at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. I thank God for His blessings in my life. Pastor Jack Hyles said it best:

> “I believe any man in this world, can love any other man in this world, if he thinks right! The reason you hate is because you think hate. The reason you love is because you think love.” —Dr. Jack Hyles, a quote from the excellent MP3 sermon, “[1]What The Law Could Not Do” (July 5, 1987 - First Baptist Church of Hammond, PM service)

You can tell who truly walks with God, and who merely plays the game of church, by how they treat those whom they don’t like. They don’t like me at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, so they ostracize me as hateful religious people do. That is so horrible. Well, I have never stopped loving them, and I never will. My God is bigger than their selfishness, pride and love for money at Harvest. They cannot stop me from loving. I love everyone. Jesus is precious!

2.5.15 Many Christian Women Are Feminists And Don’t Know It (2021-05-20 09:30)

1st Timothy 2:9-15, “In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety; not with broided hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array;

But (which becometh women professing godliness) with good works.

Let the woman learn in silence with all subjection.

But I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence.

For Adam was first formed, then Eve.

And Adam was not deceived, but the woman being deceived was in the transgression.

Notwithstanding she shall be saved in childbearing, if they continue in faith and charity and holiness with sobriety.

Feminism is basically the masculinization of femininity in women. Feminism is turning women into men. American society today is sadly very much feminist today. I consider myself the typical man. I am definitely old fashioned. I believe in a fairly long courtship period before marriage, for at least several months to a year. This is not an absolute, but advisable. One of the great joys of getting married is the courtship period. One of my favorite songs is by The Beach Boys from 1966 called, ’[1]Wouldn’t It Be Nice,’ which is about the courtship period and the anticipation of looking forward to the day a couple gets married. I love that song!

If you are a woman reading this article, the last thing I want to do is hurt your feelings or offend you. In fact, I want to help you have the happiest life possible. I want what is best for you! Ladies, God doesn’t want you to be happy, He wants you to have life. John 10:10, “

The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly.

” I do not find anywhere in the Bible where it says God’s goal for us is happiness. The duty of each human being is to fear God and keep His commandments.

Ecclesiastes 12:13, “Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man.”

The world is filled with religion, but so few people obey God’s commandments!

I am laying a biblical foundation ladies to preach against feminism. Proverb 28:14, “Happy is the man that feareth alway: but he that hardeneth his heart shall fall into mischief.” Happiness is a by-product of fearing and obeying our Creator! The most miserable people in this world are those who live for themselves. Serving God may not always be very thrilling, but it brings happiness. 1st Timothy 5:14-15, “

I will therefore that the younger women marry, bear children, guide the house, give none occasion to the adversary to speak reproachfully.

For some are already turned aside after Satan.

” Social engineering is a big problem in the United States.

Social engineering is the [2]psychological manipulation of people into performing actions or divulging confidential information.

The King James Bible is the answer folks! Psalm 1:1-2, “

Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.

But his delight is in the law of the LORD; and in his law doth he meditate day and night.

The average Christian is woefully naïve just how much ungodly counsel exists all around us in American culture. Women in modern times are often denigrated for wanting to be a homemaker...

> In the 1950s, women were expected to stay at home, and those who wanted to work were often stigmatized. Today it's mostly the other way round, pitting women against one another along the fault lines of conviction, economic class and need, and, often, ethnicity.
>

[4]

Think about the astounding impact dear reader of the truth you just read. This is a profound statements. In 1950 in America it was expected for women to stay home, and women who wanted to work were often subject to disfavor in society. But due to ungodly social engineering by the Satanic media (movies, TV, magazines, books, education, et cetera), the tables have turned the totally opposite direction. In 1962 homosexuality was still a punishable crime in all 50 states, but today is legal in all 50 states. Folks, God and His commandments haven't changed, America has changed, and she hasn't changed for the worst.

As we just read in 1st Timothy 5:14-15, God's will is for young women to get married (not hook up), bear children, guide the house, and stay out of trouble. I have never signed up for the popular dating app Tinder and don't plan to. Tinder is much to blame for today's " culture of fornication and adultery worldwide

HOOK UP

. What saith the Scripture Hebrews 13:4,

"Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled: but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge." It is not a trifle matter to live in sin dear friend. God takes sin seriously, even though humans often don't. Romans 3:18, " There is no fear of God before their eyes.

Life is so short dear friend. Sin is never worth it in the long run. I recently heard the band KISS' bass player Gene Simmons brag of his sinful life of immorality. [5]Simmons is infamous for bedding over 4,800 women throughout his career as a rock star. Gene boasts that he enjoyed every one of those women! I'm sure that he did, but Gene's rejoicing will end someday with bitter regret when he stands before God. Ecclesiastes 8:12, "Though a sinner do evil an hundred times, and his days be prolonged, yet surely I know that it shall be well with them that fear God, which fear before him:" Simmons just sold his mansion in California (where he has lived for the past 36 years) for $22,000,000. You'll never see a U-Haul behind a hearse. You can't take it with you! 1st Timothy 6:7, " For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out." I am not condemning Simmons, God forbid. The only thing that makes me more righteous than Gene is my faith in Jesus Christ. Faith is the ONLY righteous thing that you or I can do!!! Faith alone saves a man.

Feminism is telling women that men are weak, inferior, selfish, childish, lazy, too picky, they're holding women back, they're afraid of strong women, and they're basically the cause for all the faults in the world. You can see that in movies and advertisements, in articles on the web, all over the place, and men are just getting pounded down. Men increasingly don't want to fight this uphill battle. Consequently , less and less men are not going to college. Statistically, 60 % of graduates are now women. Young men have to deal with liberal politics, a hard push for feminism and leftist ideologies in universities today. Men are increasingly worried about false accusations from females, feminist bulling and are becoming gun-shy of talking to women. Moreover, having a college degree is no guarantee of finding a decent job. You are left with a ton of college loan debt, lucky if you land a $10 an hour job as a manager of a retail store.

Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) preached this excellent and needful sermon called: " [6]UNISEX ."

When women talk over men, take charge, give men orders, disrespect their fathers, meddle in things that are none of their business—they are being feminists. I have seen countless women, who when put into her place by a real man, didn't like it. She is a feminist! A controlling woman, absolutely resents a man who refuses to accept her authority to boss men around. It will be a cold day in Hell before I ever let a woman boss me around. I would only let my wife have that privilege...lol. I would do anything for my own wife, if I ever find one. Women are so unrealistic nowadays. They want careers and motherhood, but you cannot have both. You can get pregnant and pursue a career, but you will damn that child to being raised by someone else. The Devil wants women in the workplace, God wants them in the home (1st Timothy 5:14-15). You must choose young ladies! Please don't let feminism ruin your life.

If you don't want to be a feminist, then always fear and obey God (Ecclesiastes 12:13). Always be in subjection to your own husband (1st Peter 3:1). Memorize [7]Proverbs chapter 31 and strive to become that kind of a godly and desirable woman! Ungodly men will play around with loose women, but there's not a normal man alive who doesn't wish he had a Proverbs 31 woman as his wife! If you sit around the house listening to heathen fools like Oprah Winfrey and the cackling idiots on The View, you're marriage is DOOMED! These wicked people are pro-LGBTQ, pro-abortion, pro-New World Order, and anti-Christian all the way!!!

If you don't want to be a feminist, then stay silent in church matters. 1st Timothy 2:11-12, "

Let the woman learn in silence with all subjection. But I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence." Sorry ladies, you are not permitted to become preachers! Only men can preach to men! Ladies can speak with humility only to ladies. No woman ought ever preach with authority and fervor like a man!!! What Renee Roland is doing on YouTube is sinful. She denies that Hell has fire, and she bellows out like a man, blaspheming the Word of God.

Christian women ought to dress modestly, which shows good moral behavior (1st Timothy 2:9). When a Christian woman wearing pants, it automatically says that feminism has had an ungodly influence upon her, convincing her that lower moral standards is acceptable. Ladies, a man's mind thinks about sex all the time. That is just a fact. Any man who denies that is either sick, lacks testosterone or is queer. A man instantly notices anything revealing about a female. That is all we think about! When a beautiful woman even sits next to me in church, I immediately feeling attracted to her. I don't have a dirty mind, I have a man's mind! I have to continually bring my thoughts into subjection to the Word of God, to obedience to Christ (2nd Corinthians 10:5-6). Carnally-minded men don't care, so they just lust. Ladies, you have more power over a man's mind than you realize. That is why you should dress in modest apparel, so there is nothing for him to think about. Feminists don't care, demanding their right to dress however they want, and if men lust that is their problem. You will answer to God ladies!

Ladies, are you a feminist without knowing it? I literally had a professed Christian woman, a young female in the military reserves who regularly attends church, scold me in public for saying that I am against homosexuality. She said that she has 'gay friends,' and I was being 'insensitive' to her feeling. That young woman is not right with God. She is a fool. It didn't surprise me that she had a tattoo, admitted to fornicating in the military, and had a sickening sinful feminist attitude. Her life is a wreck and she is headed for nothing but problems. Homosexuality is a sin, and if you are defending 'gay friends' you have serious spiritual issues.

This perverse young generation today is disastrous! You cannot talk sense to them.

One thing I have learned in life is that we are all born, live and die as individuals. No one but you can choose to sell out, lower your standards, and defile yourself with sin. If a young woman signs up for the military, knowing that she will be surrounded by lustful men, then she is a fool in my humble opinion. No Christlike minded woman would subject herself to that kind of situation. I see young women nowadays wearing military clothing, covered in tattoos, walking like men, having a muscular body and it is repulsive. That is not God's perfect will for any Christian woman.

The traditional family values and high moral standards of America back in the 1950's was the way God intended for life to be; not this perverse gender-bending, fornicating, authority despising, parent neglecting, lesbian transgendered, entitlement generation of spoiled brats! This deplorable condition of American society is not happenstance, it was [8]planned and intentionally done by Luciferians. The power of the television and video screen have empowered the Prince Of The Power Of The Air (Ephesians 2:2), to kill, steal and destroy on an unprecedented scale worldwide. The only recourse is to decide in your soul dear reader, that you are going to live for God. I have anchored my soul to the King James Bible. I am not for sale! I will never bow to the Devil's perverse morality, fake Bible versions, counterfeit gospel, apostate churches, anarchy movement, sicko leftist politics or the rebellion of nutty feminists who want to be like men!

A lot of Christian women become offended when you call them a feminist. Yet, those sinful women want to be equal to men. They want a man's pay, but do a woman's work. They want to run their mouths when they ought to be quiet. That is what a feminist does! They want to blame men for women's problems. Millions of young American women have bought into the Devil's lie in the media that they should enjoy life while they're young, have fun, party with friends; but years later when they have 2 or 3 children out of wedlock, and their looks are quickly fading by age 35, now they are desperate to find that perfect guy to make her life whole. Good luck with that!!! What you should have done is saved yourself. And since you always marry people that you know, Christian young ladies should never attend a secular college, work in a heathen workplace, hang out in bars or be anywhere that ungodly men are found. GARBAGE IN EQUALS GARBAGE OUT!

I fully realize that most people reading this will disagree with me. How's your life? How's your marriage? Where are you at in life? There is no guarantee that if you do things God's way that things will all work out for good here on earth, but you have God's promise that all things will work together for good in eternity (Romans 8:28). And that goes for the people who haven't done things God's way too! If you are a born-again believer, you have a bright future! I am not scolding anyone. I am just trying to talk some sense into this younger generation today. My goal is not to bash feminists, but to teach you to choose the higher path of obedience to God. Women today need to stop focusing on all the areas where men fall short, and start working on the areas where you can to become stronger to please the Lord.

2.5.16 I Learned the Same Lesson As George Harrison At Harvest Baptist Church On Guam (2021-05-21 18:16)

Titus 1:9-14, "Holding fast the faithful word as he hath been taught, that he may be able by sound doctrine both to exhort and to convince the gainsayers. For there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, specially they of the circumcision: Whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre's sake. One of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The Cretians are alway liars, evil beasts, slow bellies. This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith; Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men, that turn from the truth."

There is some scary theology being preached in Baptist churches today! I was forever saved at age 13, by simply BELIEVING the 'Good News' (Gospel) that Jesus was crucified on a cross. The Lord shed His blood and died to pay for my sins. He died in my place! Jesus was buried to officiate His death (so no one could say that He faked it). Three days later Jesus miraculously raised up from the dead by the power of God and is alive today and forevermore!

But what I hear being taught in Baptist churches and Bible colleges today is something entirely different. One of the [1]most frightening false teachers is Dr. Steve Pettit, who has been the president of Bob Jones University (BJU) since 2014. This is a serious matter folks! BJU sends out graduates to work in thousands of churches, Bible colleges and every field of the ministry. Sadly, they have been corrupted with a false gospel that says you must repent and turn away from your sinful behavior to be saved. [2]BJU are lying devils!

Although we do need to repent (think differently) to be saved, we do not need to forsake sinful bad habits to receive God's free gift of eternal life (Romans 5:15-18; 6:23). What BJU and their alumni are preaching is NOT the simplicity that is in Christ. There is nothing simple about reformation (turning from sin). This is not the biblical meaning of "repentance" for salvation. By "repent," the Bible simply means that we change our mind toward God (Acts 20:21), to acknowledge THE TRUTH (2nd Timothy 2:25) that we are a guilty sinner (Romans 3:19-23), so that we will BELIEVE the Gospel (Good News) of Jesus Christ to be saved (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). It is that simple to go to Heaven dear friend. Please don't listen to anybody who adds more!

[3]According to Steve Pettit, you cannot merely receive Christ as your Savior and then say that you KNOW you're going to Heaven. Pettit says in addition you MUST faithfully start, run and finish " the race,

to earn the

“Heaven itself” ([4]those are his exact words). The Lordship Salvation crowd make the fatal theological error of mixing sanctification (a believer’s growth in Christ) with justification (the free gift of eternal life). Pilgrim’s Progress author and Gospel preacher, John Bunyan (1628-1688) said it best:

> “If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people.” [emphasis added] —Evangelist John Bunyan

I read a very interesting quote not too long ago by George Harrison (1943-2001) of The Beatles:

> “I was naïve and thought we could express our feelings to each other—not suppress them and keep holding them back. Well, it was what I felt, and why should I be untrue to myself? I came to believe the importance that if you feel something strong enough then you should say it.” —George Harrison (on The Beatles’ breakup in 1970)

When I read that statement from George Harrison, I was immediately reminded of my ongoing bad situation with the apostate [5]Harvest Baptist Church (HBC) on Guam. I attended Harvest for one year in 2013 to 2014. I have only used the inspired King James Bible since I became a born-again Christian at age 13. I have always believed the simple free grace Gospel. So when I went to Harvest and saw multiple Bible versions circulating in the church (not just in the pews, but the pastors themselves were using umpteen Bible revisions), I saw the confusion. For simply being true to my convictions and the inspired Word of God, I was axed by wicked men. Romans 3:4, “ God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged. ” I have been faithful and true to THE TRUTH, but Harvest’s pastors are dirty LIARS!!!

I witnessed to many church members and workers on staff at HBC. I found out that there are multiple plans of salvation floating around in the church. This is 100 % the fault of Marty Herron and Gary Walton, the senior Neo-evangelical pastors of Harvest. Everything rises and falls on leadership. Pastor Lee Roberson (1909-2007) said that, and he’s absolutely right! These accursed false prophets (Galatians 1:6-9) in the Bob Jones camp have no idea of the spiritual damage they have done, and continue to do. They are workers of iniquity, just as Jesus Himself called them...

> Matthew 7:21-23,
>

Because of Harvest's wickedness, I haven't been allowed to attend church for the past 7 years. You read right! I haven't been to church since 2014, because I have nowhere else to go. Harvest still ostracizes me to this day, refusing to talk to me. I have mailed them free boxes of Gospels of John to express my willingness to make peace. I have sent 3-year subscriptions to the Sword Of The Lord to both senior pastors. They never thanked me. They never contacted me. They refuse to let me attend their church services. What in the world could I have done to be hated that much? Dear friend, I simply TOLD THE TRUTH. The Apostle Paul had the same painful experience. But I am not an apostle, so my word means nothing to the pastors and people at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. Galatians 4:16, " Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?"

What were these TRUTHS that I spoke, which got me expelled and ostracized by the Bob Jones crowd on Guam? It is the truth that God only authored one Holy Bible. It is the truth that there is only one free grace Gospel. I told the truth that the modern Westcott and Hort based Bible revisions are all corrupt. I told the truth that the false doctrine of Lordship Salvation is of the Devil. I told the truth that Martin Luther (1883-1546) was not a born-again Christian, because he taught the heresy of Baptismal Regeneration his entire life.

For these vital truths I have been despised and rejected of men, kicked out of Harvest Baptist Church on Guam and ostracized for the past seven long years. If the things that I have proclaimed are indeed THE TRUTH, then Harvest's pastors will wish they had never been born, because in eternity they won't be allowed into Heaven. They have not done the will of the Father (Matthew 7:21-23). The only will of God to be saved is to BELIEVE ON JESUS (John 6:40). If you add anything to that, you cannot go to Heaven!

As I mentioned earlier, I have used nothing but the inspired King James Bible all my life, since I was saved at age 13 by simply trusting (resting in) Jesus Christ for my salvation.

I was naïve and thought we could express our feelings to each other—not suppress them and keep holding them back. Well, it was what I felt, and why should I be untrue to myself? I came to believe the importance that if you feel something strong enough then you should say it. That is exactly what George Harrison experienced in The Beatles. George was simply being true to himself, as I was at Harvest. I was naïve and thought I could freely express my differing opinions from that of Harvest's thug Gestapo pastors.

People today are fed up. People are sick and tired of the [6]thuggish authoritarian abuse in independent Baptist churches across America. I speak to Harvest's shame on Guam. I speak to the shame of Bob Jones University. Go search the internet for rape, abuse, blaming victims and see how many hundreds of people are angry at BJU and their graduates (e.g., Chuck Phelps) nowadays! I don't blame people for being upset, pissed off and wanting the abuse to stop.

I found out painfully like George Harrison that some people don't want to let you be free, they want to CONTROL and silence others. Well, like Mrs. Beverly Hyles said: "I AM NOT FOR SALE!” Harvest Baptist Church on Guam is an oppressive religious cult that manipulates children and teenagers, brainwashing them with the heresies of Lordship Salvation, Wrong Repentance and their umpteen Fake Bible revisions! Gary Walton is a bloody man, as are all of Harvest’s shameful pathetic weak leaders. I wouldn’t let those clowns run a hotdog stand.

Like AC/DC sings, BJU and Harvest wanted blood and they got it! ...

Bob Jones University & Harvest Baptist Church on Guam Wanted Blood and They Got It!

2.5.17 When You Stand, People Will Get Mad At You (2021-05-22 11:26)

1st Kings 18:21, “And Elijah came unto all the people, and said, How long halt ye between two opinions? if the LORD be God, follow him: but if Baal, then follow him. And the people answered him not a word.”

One of the saddest things that we see today is that preachers don’t stand anymore. But this is nothing new. As we read in our text passage from 1st Kings 18:21, the Israelites also refused to stand. Just like the false teachers of Lordship Salvation today, who corrupt the churches with lies; so also did the false prophets of Baal during Elijah’s time do the same. According to 1st Kings 18:19 there were 950 false prophets total (450 prophets of Baal, plus 400 more prophets of the groves which ate at Jezebel's table). So it was the man of God Elijah versus the 950 prophets of Satan!

I know how Elijah felt, stuck in the middle between the people and the false prophets! I have spent my entire ministry fighting with false teachers in our churches today. My own father drove me out of his church rescue mission ministry in Chicago over my King James Bible only stand. One Lutheran pastor that my father appointed to his church board of directors said, and I quote: "You and that King James Bible heresy!" That heathen pastor's name was on the dark letter mailed to me by my father which effectively said, "You're out!" I had voluntarily served as my father's assistant pastor after I graduated Hyles-Anderson College from 1993 to 2001. So as you can see, my stand for THE TRUTH has cost me everything.

So I decided to become a missionary and I started my website ministry in 2002. I chose to move to Guam with my former wife. Little did I know that I would be diagnosed with Cervical Degenerative Disk Disease in 2004, and then my wife of 18 years would abandon and divorce me in 2006. My life had become a trainwreck, languishing in pain and heartache. My co-workers at the U.S. Postal Service found my ministry website. They were Catholics and decided to make my life hell on earth, and they did, which a California judge who flew to Guam for my EEO complaint said caused my divorce. The judge made the Post Office pay me $42,000 in damages to cover the cost of my divorce.

In 2013 I used that money, and a bunch more, to try to relocate back to the United States. I went to Hawaii and Tennessee, all of which turned into a big nightmare. I didn't know what I was doing, and had no wife or anyone by my side to help me think. I was a lost soul. I spent over $50,000 going in a big 4 month very painful circle, from Guam to Hawaii to Tennessee back to Guam. I crawled emotionally into the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam (one of the hardest things I have ever done). I desperately needed their love and help. Everything went fine for the first several months, but then like Samson my spiritual hair began to grow.

I started to feel like a person again at Harvest, after living as a recluse for years in both physical (my neck) and emotional (divorce) pain with no wife or a church. I had visited some Baptist churches on Guam, but they didn't want me. The senior pastor, Alfred, at the Agana Heights Baptist Church in 2009 was mean and didn't want me in his church, insulting me and making sure I didn't return, after he listened to some gossip about me from a deacon who knew me in his church. I watched the man slander me. Like the Lord, I am despised and rejected of men. Isaiah 53:3, " He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief: and we hid as it were our faces from him; he was despised, and we esteemed him not.

I ended up at Harvest in 2013. I was so happy while there. I had finally found a church family, so I thought in error. In 2014 I befriended them with THE TRUTH. I am not King James Bible only for an aimless reason folks, I HATE these modern Devil's Bibles which were translated from Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort's perverse 1881 Greek text. The Bible commands every believer to HATE! We are commanded to HATE EVIL. Psalms 97:10, "

Ye that love the LORD, hate evil: he preserveth the souls of his saints; he delivereth them out of the hand of the wicked.

" Psalms 119:104, " Through thy precepts I get understanding: therefore I hate every false way." I am sick and tired of seeing these stupid bumper stickers that read,

"Stop Hate!" No, I am not going to stop hating evil. The bumper sticker ought to read: "Stop Hating People!" God commands us to HATE EVIL and to HATE EVERY FALSE WAY! I hate deception. I hate false Bibles. I hate the lying false teaching of Lordship Salvation.

I visited another church on Guam in 2018, the Lighthouse Baptist Church. Sadly, Pastor Sean Quinlan got upset with me when he overheard a private conversation, in which I said "Bob Jones University sells corruptible seed." It turned out that Quinlan is a follower of the BJU crowd. I have learned that the Pensacola Christian College (PCC) camp are in bed with the apostate Bob Jones crowd, and none of them stand for anything! Quinlan's exact words to me were, "Harvest is our sister church!" At that point I had heard enough and rebuked him, which I would do again a thousand times over with joy, saying, "SHAME ON YOU!" I reminded him that Harvest Baptist Church on Guam is a cesspool of iniquity—preaching Calvinist doctrines of devils, promoting corruptible seed, bidding Godspeed to false prophets like John MacArthur, and rejecting and ostracizing anybody who tells THE TRUTH (as I found out painfully so since 2014)—to Hell with all of them!!! God is on my side (Romans 3:4).

My stand for THE TRUTH has cost me church family after church family, and caused me a Hostile Work Environment in the secular workplace, and so much grief and loneliness. I never mentioned my website at work, they found it online. When I was put out of work in 2008 for my neck injury, it was one of the best things that ever happened to me, although I fought to keep my job as a postal mechanic and lost. Unfortunately, my neck injury just has only worsened since then, after my second neck surgery in 2010 made me 100 % worse. Jesus said if they hated and persecuted Him, so also will they hate and persecute godly believers (John 15:19; 2nd Timothy 3:12). Pastor Jack Hyles saw this evil of preachers not taking a stand long ago, stating these words:

> "I've been preaching a long time, and I've watched a lot of things happen. To me the saddest thing that I've watched in my life, apart from my own country going to the Devil nearly, has been the change of preachers and churches. I find myself amazed and stunned with near disbelief, as I see men who once stood who don't stand anymore ... I know every week I cry some, I mean cry, I mean tear cry, because of preachers who are turning." SOURCE: Pastor Jack Hyles, from the 1972 sermon titled,[1] I SHALL NOT BE MOVED.

It is emotionally painful for me to even write about this stuff, because I suffered through it all, being despised and rejected by people because I stood for THE TRUTH. Harvest Baptist Church on Guam booted me out of their church family in 2014, and again in 2017 rejected me when I literally begged 3 times to please let me come back to my church family. Pastor's Marty Herron, Jared Baldwin and Joe Hanson all said, "No." I almost commit suicide because of those cruel and wicked prophets of Baal. And then Gary Walton, Harvest's new immature senior pastor since 2018, as well as some of the old farts still there, refuse to give me a second chance to have a church family. They HATE me, but I HATE the wrong doctrine that they teach. I HATE the false teachers (e.g. [2]Steve Pettit and [3]John MacArthur) that they bid Godspeed to, making Harvest partaker of their evil deeds. It's their way or the highway!

Today's pastors and churches are not standing anymore, just like the people didn't stand in Elijah's time. Elijah asked the people whom they were going to serve, God or Baal, but the people answered him not a word...

> "God has a special rebuke, again and again and again in the Bible, toward those people who keep their neutrality in the work of God!" —SOURCE: Dr. Jack Hyles, a quote from the great MP3 sermon, " [4]Where Were You In The Battle? "

Harvest Baptist Church on Guam is NOT standing for anything! They only stood against me for taking a stand. What do you think God feels about that friend? Do you think God is proud of me, and is on my side, for standing against the Devil's Bible, the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation, and the Devil's lie of repentance as meaning "turn from your sinful bad habits" to be saved? Or do you think God is on Harvest's side (and the corrupt Bob Jones University camp today), who say that it doesn't matter, we're all preaching salvation by grace, and free grace is the same as Lordship Salvation? If you believe the latter, you need to get saved. [5]Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) fully understood what I just said. Dr. Hutson took A STAND!!!

Consequently, I haven't had a church family since 2014, because of the incompetence, cruelty, indifference, arrogance, sinful pride and selfishness of Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. They'll help orphans, but they won't help their Christian brother? Perhaps it is because they are not saved at all, which would explain their woeful lack of compassion FOR ME as a hurting human being, and their woeful lack of love for THE TRUTH. I need to move, but my body hasn't been up to it. I look fine outwardly, but I suffer in constant neck pain 24/7 and it is debilitating. Besides myself, God only knows what I suffer through. Even my family doesn't understand, but I love everyone unconditionally. I am a loving man, but I get frustrated easily because of the pain, and no one wants to be around me, which hurts my soul inexplicably.

I am so thankful for Pastor Jack Hyles' statements, about how preaches don't stand anymore. That eases my pain, because I have faithfully stood, and I have been kicked out of numerous churches, hated by religious people, and abused as an outcast by the churches. What saith the Scripture? Romans 3:4, "God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged. " The truth is on my side, because I preach THE TRUTH!

Dear reader, if today's Bible revisions have indeed been corrupted by Satan, then my preaching will be vindicated by God in eternity. If Lordship Salvation is a perversion of the Gospel, then my preaching will be vindicated by God in eternity. If repentance to get saved doesn't mean behavioral modification, then my preaching will be vindicated by God in eternity. If Martin Luther (1483-1546) went to Hell because he taught Baptismal Regeneration all his life, then my preaching will be vindicated by God in eternity.

Harvest Baptist Church on Guam calls me,

"THE TROUBLEMAKER"! 1st Kings 18:17, "

And it came to pass, when Ahab saw Elijah, that Ahab said unto him, Art thou he that troubleth Israel?

Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) was also a troublemaker,

which is why he is still hated by thousands of corrupt churches today...

> "Now you say, 'Brother Hyles, you make an issue.' You dead sure better know I'll make an issue!" —[6]BATTLE OF THE AGES (MP3, Dr. Jack Hyles, "The King James Bible crowd is going to come out on top!")

While Bob Jones University is using, selling and bidding Godspeed to the Devil's false Bibles, I am exposing, hating, criticizing, and doing all I can to burn them! If you don't die a hero, then you live long enough to see yourself become the villain! Like Elijah the preacher, I am considered a troublemaker for speaking THE TRUTH! But who is really at fault here? I love Elijah's answer to King Ahab in 1st Kings 18:18, "And he answered, I have not troubled Israel; but thou, and thy father's house, in that ye have forsaken the commandments of the LORD, and thou hast followed Baalim." No, it is YOU Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, who are the troublemakers! It is YOU, oh Bob Jones University in South Carolina, who are the troublemakers! It is YOU religious fakes and Christian phonies—with your dozens of corrupt Bible revisions, and your doctrines of devils on Misunderstood Repentance and Lordship Salvation—that cause trouble in the churches, and damn men's souls to Hell for eternity!

Pastor Jack Hyles taught me to take a stand for what is true and right, and not what is convenient. I remember that Jared Baldwin (an assistant pastor at Harvest), mocked me in 2015, sarcastically saying to me: "How's your beliefs working out for your social life?" It is my often prayer to God that the Lord will force that wicked man to eat those words someday, and be held accountable for what he cruelly said to me." You're right Jared, I haven't had a social life since you, Joe Hanson and Marty Herron took my church family away from me in 2014. And now Pastor Gary Walton abuses me as well, upholding the evil decisions of the former pastors. And as of 2021 I still have no church family! Harvest's pastors, staff and congregation all have my blood on their hands. The church as a whole sanctions the decisions of their pastors, making them all accountable and guilty. I have faithfully stood for THE TRUTH!!!

I am a hurting man. I am very lonely in my life, but not in my soul (I have the blessed Holy Spirit indwelling me, Ephesians 1:12-15). I have stood for THE TRUTH, and I have paid the ultimate price of total rejection. Some things are worse than death. When you tell THE TRUTH, wicked people will get upset at you. They will shun and ostracize you, trying to silence you. They will gaslight and paint a negative picture of you, in a sinful attempt to justify their false teachings and sinful ways. The Bob Jones University crowd today are of the Devil. I am not the troublemaker, they are! Just as the humble preacher Elijah, I am simply telling THE TRUTH. How long halt ye between two opinions friend? I hope you'll choose a side, if you haven't already.

2.5.18 America's Biggest Enemy Is Herself! (2021-05-23 15:33)

Hosea 13:9, "O Israel, thou hast destroyed thyself; but in me is thine help."

One of my favorite fundamentalist Baptist Bible preachers is Pastor Bob Gray Sr., whom I love and admire. I learned a long time ago to archive my favorite websites, because they may be gone tomorrow. Sure enough, the Dr. Bob Gray Sr. website disappeared a couple years ago. Brother Gray started a new website to replace it called: [1]Solve Church Problems. I am so thankful that I archived all of Dr. Gray's old writings, which are as gold to me. Here is one of the articles that I archived from August 10, 2015 by my mentor, Dr. Bob Gray Sr., about the self-destruction of America:

SELF DESTRUCTION

Israel was destroyed! The same thing that happened to Israel is occurring in America today. The people of Israel observed in their day what we are observing in our day. They watched the deterioration of their nation as we likewise are seeing. The destruction unfortunately is a self-inflicted thing for Israel as well as the America we call home. They loved their nation as we love our nation. However, their love for them selves was greater than their love for their God.

[2]

Liberalism, or so-called Progressivism, is not the answer for any nation, society, family, school, college, and especially for the house of God and the man of God. It appears that appeasing is the appeal of the day. Why can't we all just get along seems to be the cry of the day without any consideration of the outcome. As long as we get along we could care less about the future of our children and grandchildren.

Liberals always want you to get along with them while they refuse to get along with Conservatism. Crossing the aisle to a Liberal means coming over to their way. Their way is called "The Blame Game." Without the ability to blame they always lose in the arena of ideas.

Truth trumps any relationship in life because it sustains a relationship with God, which in turn is reflected in human relationships bathed in truth. Human relationships are not the means to an end. A divine relationship is the relationship that allows us to be a conduit for God to live through us and develop proper and productive relationships with other humans for Christ's sake and not our sake.

Israel was destroyed and she blamed her enemies. She blamed Samaria, Assyria, Egypt, Judah, Tyre, Sidon, and her northern neighbor Syria. She was destroyed and God said Egypt, Samaria, Syria, Assyria, Tyre, Sidon, and Judah did not destroy you. God said, "O Israel, thou hast destroyed thyself…" God is saying to them you have no one to blame but yourselves. Without God there can be no victory or safety. The question is not "Is God on our side?" but rather are "We on God's side?"

Many folks in our churches are saying the same thing. "I would have succeeded if I had a good wife, but my wife was the reason for my destruction." No, she was not the reason! Husband, thou hast destroyed thyself! If you ever fail in a marriage you cannot justifiably point to your wife. Now, she may have not been everything she should have been, but in the final analysis the Scriptures say, "…every man will give account of himself to God…"

"I could have succeeded if my parents had reared my properly." Please pay attention, son thou has destroyed thyself! Daughter, thou hast destroyed thyself. If you fail you cannot blame a drunkard father. If you fail you will not blame a careless mother or an unhappy home. If you are destroyed God will say to you, "Thou hast destroyed thyself…" It is a personal decision not a parental decision that brings about success in life.

God pity the soul of every young person who comes from a good home that does not turn out right. However, "But, my daddy never took me fishing! Son, thou hast destroyed thyself. "But, my mother never showed any affection!" Daughter, thou hast destroyed thyself. "But, my daddy never took me to a Texas Rangers baseball game." Son, thou hast destroyed thyself. "But, my mother never taught me how to be a good wife." Daughter, thou hast destroyed thyself. "But, the pastor mistreated me and my family." Sir, thou hast destroyed thyself. "But, the principal mistreated my son." Parent thou has destroyed thyself. "But, the teacher flunked my son." Parent, thou hast destroyed thyself.

Israel said we have neighbors that are always bothering us and it is Samaria's fault we are destroyed. However, God said, "Thou hast destroyed thyself..." Israel said to God our perennial enemy Syria has caused our trouble and God replied, "Thou hast destroyed thyself..." God let them know that they have no one to blame but themselves.

A wife says, "I could have succeeded if I had a better husband!" No, if you do not succeed or succeed it will not be the badness of your husband. It will be the badness or the goodness of your character. At her homegoing to Heaven, my dear 98 year-old mother did not have it made, but my mother was a success as a wife and mother. If Mary Elizabeth Gray had failed she would have had no one to blame but Mary Elizabeth Gray.

I am feed up with this "blame it" generation. These idiotic academic head shrinks who explore into the past in order to find someone or some thing to blame are destroying our people. They remind me of those who blame devils for every thing. No one wants to take personal responsibility for their actions and as a result we not only fail we take others down with us.

Sorry Israel, "Thou hast destroyed thyself..." I do not care what you background is. I do not care who hurt you, who your mother is, what your daddy did, what kind of a wife you have, what kind of a husband you have, and what kind of a poverty stricken life you lived in you will self destruct if you do not take the challenges of life head on!

Every life that is destroyed is a suicide! "I would have succeeded but I have lost confidence in my pastor." Your pastor did not destroy you! You destroyed your self with self-destruction! You have no one to blame but yourself. You committed suicide because you do it to yourself.

"My church ruined my life because it was not what it should have been." It may not have been, but you have a copy of God's Word and you could have read it, if you had wanted too! Jesus is what He ought to be. The Holy Spirit is what He ought to be. God the Father is what He ought to be. You have no one to blame but yourself.

"I would have succeeded but I had an awful boss and everyone knows what he is life. That is the reason I did not succeed." No, the reason you failed is because you self-destructed! "I would have made it if I had not been born in the slums." No, the reason you may not make it because you have not taken personal responsibility for your life and not your birth.

"I would have made it if it had not been for bad luck." It is amazing to me that the ones who make it in life are lucky and the ones who fail are unlucky. Isn't it interesting that those who work hard always have good luck and lazy devils have bad luck? It is amazing to me how those who rise early and stay up late are always so lucky and succeed. If you fail it is your fault and the words on you tombstone ought to be "Thou hast destroyed thyself…"

Others can wound you but they cannot destroy you. Others can hinder you and knock you down but they cannot knock you out. Others can lead you to self-destruct, but they cannot destroy you. Others can discourage you, but they cannot destroy you. Others can depress and tempt you, but they cannot destroy you.

God is saying to Israel, "I know your neighbors! I know Assyria, Syria, Tyre, Sidon, and Egypt, but thou hast destroyed thyself!"

If you destroy yourself it will be you who pulls the trigger or flip the switch on your life. Students who wash out, quit, go home, become Benedict Arnolds, turn yellow, become spiritual cowards, spiritual weaklings, tuck tail and go home from Bible College give reasons that are not the real reasons. The truth is they destroyed themselves. Oh, they blame the teachers, Dean of Men, Dean of Women, Registrar, Vice-President, President, Chancellor, or Pastor; but the truth is they self-destructed.

Life is not fair! Read that again! Life is not fair! It makes no difference where you are, who you are with, or who is over you. You either succeed or fail in life because you either refuse to self-destruct or choose to self-destruct!

When you decide to quit your Sunday school class, bus route, choir, orchestra, ushering, staff position, or being a deacon you will give every reason in the world except the real reason. You self-destructed! I can prove it! Others made it while you failed!

Here is Israel, she is defeated and destroyed! She blames everybody around her, but God said, "Thou hast destroyed thyself…"

If you get knocked down you don't have to stay down. If you can't get through you can certainly try again. If life pens you to the mat you can still lift that shoulder one more time. If your way is blocked today go at again tomorrow. Quit blaming every one else. REFUSE to self-destruct!

If people have discouraged you, depressed you, tempted you, made it hard for you; you can still make if you refuse to self-destruct. The same is true for a nation!

Deuteronomy 33:25, "Thy shoes shall be iron and brass; and as thy days, so shall thy strength be." God gave the tribe of Asher a mountainous terrain when the land was divided. God said to Asher, "I am giving you 'iron shoes."' Why, you have got some rocky days ahead of you! God never said to anybody else that he would give them shoes of iron! They did not get their shoes after the trip or when they got into the trip. He said before you get started I am going to give you shoes of iron. God is saying He will give to His children what they need to make it through the rough days. He always has!

We can on stand and deal with the world from a standpoint of strength not weakness. That strength is found in obeying God's Word and not blaming others for our struggles.

OBSERVATIONS

· NEVER CONTEMPLATE BLAMING ANY ONE FOR YOUR SETBACKS IN LIFE.

· NEVER THINK THAT IT IS OVER BECAUSE OF THE SETBACKS.

· NEVER GO THROUGH SETBACKS WITHOUT LEARNING A LESSON.

2.5.19 Do Not Trust In Uncertain Riches (2021-05-24 06:15)

1st Timothy 6:17-19, "Charge them that are rich in this world, that they be not high-minded, nor trust in uncertain riches, but in the living God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy; That they do good, that they be rich in good works, ready to distribute, willing to communicate; Laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal life."

I love this precious passage of Scripture! What makes the Holy Bible so precious to the reader is one's faith. Most people have no faith in the Bible. I've met countless people during my lifetime who foolishly think that men wrote the Bible to control the masses. Dear friend, if men could write the Bible they wouldn't, and if they would they couldn't! Humanity has never written a book that even comes close to the supernatural manner in which the Holy Bible was given to mankind, piece by piece, approximately 40 different writers, spanning a time period of 1,500 years. No book ever written has been produced, nor could be, in such a bizarre manner! God did this on purpose, so that all skepticism could be eradicated for the honest seeking soul.

If there is one thing that can be said about rich people, it is that they are high-minded. James 2:6, "But ye have despised the poor. Do not rich men oppress you, and draw you before the judgment seats?"

James 5:1,

" Go to now, ye rich men, weep and howl for your miseries that shall come upon you. " Proverbs 18:23, "The poor useth intreaties; but the rich answereth roughly. " It is always the wealthy people who cause trouble in the churches. I heard Pastor Jack Hyles say in a sermon that all across America churches are being destroyed by high-society type women! Ain't it so! Rich people are so spoiled, used to getting their way, and they don't like for some snot-nosed Bible-believing preacher to preach against their sins.

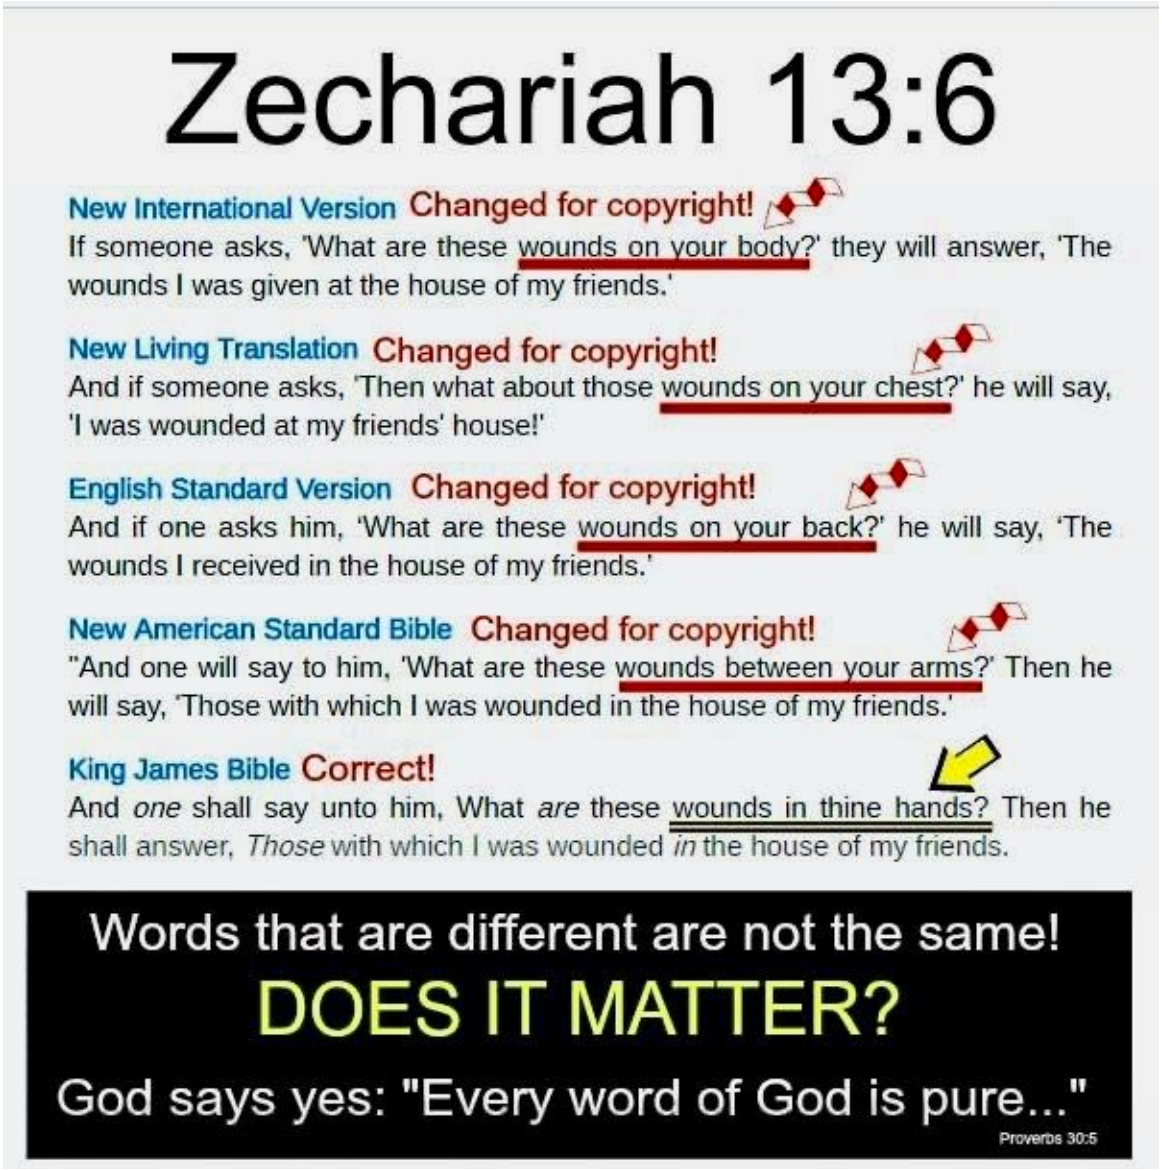
All across America, businessman are destroying churches! Dr. Hyles said that too, and he is so right! The love of money destroys Bible colleges, corrupting them, compelling them to dip their sails in sinful compromise to lure in more students. And then those corrupted colleges send out their graduates to corrupt thousands of churches. That is sadly what has happened to the apostate Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, which is now a cesspool of Lordship Salvation, fake Bible revisions, Wrong Repentance and [1]bullying of anybody who doesn't bid Godspeed to their damnable heresies! 2nd John 1:11, " For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds. "

The United States Is A Wealthy Nation, Yet So Poor

Our text passage warns the rich people of this world not to be high-minded. If you live in the United States today, or Guam and other U.S. territories, you are wealthy! Illegal immigrants are dying from suffocation, and lack of food and water, left in shipping containers lost in transport. Semi-trailers full of dead bodies are being discovered abandoned in Wal-Mart parking lots in the United States. These poor souls were simply trying to get smuggled into the United States, so they can have what we all have... OPPORTUNITY! [2]Compared to other countries, the United States treats their people bad! Yet, just about anyone can survive in America if he or she is willing to work for it!



OPPORTUNITYISNOWHERE!

What do you see in the letters above? Nearly everyone pessimistically sees, "Opportunity is no where!" But it actually says to the optimist, "Opportunity is now here!" It all depends how we look at things. Boy, I wish you could grasp this truth dear reader. I receive thousands of emails each year at my website ministry. I receive countless emails from professed Christians who are doom and gloom about life, miserable and down about everything. It is immediately clear to me that they don't have a close walk with God. I already know that they very likely don't go to church anywhere. They are focusing on all the wrong things. What saith the Scripture? Colossians 3:1-2, "If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God.

Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth*.

" It is entirely a matter of faith dear friend.

The Bible means so much to me, because of my faith that God is real, and the King James Bible is 100 % inspired and preserved by God for our generation. I thank God that I don't languish in searching though a dozen different Bible revisions, like Marty Herron (senior pastor of the shameful Harvest Baptist Church on Guam from 1999 to 2018) foolishly does, trying to find the truth. You won't find the truth that way, you'll just find utter confusion...

The Bible Changed (Corrupted) Merely To Obtain Legal Copyright

We are at spiritual war ladies and gentleman! The Devil long ago crept into the churches, and now he is today in charge of them! The Harvest Baptist Church on Guam is an accursed cult, controlled by rich people who trust in uncertain riches. They are effectively a satellite ministry of Bob Jones University (BJU) in Greenville, South Carolina, hiring BJU graduates, and sending their Harvest Baptist Academy graduates back to BJU. It's a viscous money-making cycle, rubbing each other's backs, sharing positions as board members, spitting on the cause of the Lord Jesus Christ!

Truth means nothing to these apostates! Money is their thing. What saith the Scripture? Luke 16:13, "No servant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon." When money become a priority, truth and people no longer matter! You cannot serve mammon (money) a little bit, Jesus said you cannot serve mammon at all, not even in the least way, or else you no longer serve God. BJU and Harvest trust in uncertain riches, which is why they hobnob on everything (the Bible, repentance, salvation, how they treat people). I am a victim of the Bob Jones cult on Guam.

Folks, the Bible teaches not to trust in uncertain riches. So many people place the highest value upon temporal things. When is the last time you jumped up and down and shouted in joy that your name is written in Heaven? I rejoice all the time that I am a child of God. Do you realize that 99 % of this world is going to burn in Hell for all eternity without end? I do not know the exact percentage, but I don't see many truly born-again Christians in this world. Unsaved Roman Catholics are NOT Christians! There are an estimated 1,600,000,000 Catholics in the world. There is no such thing as a Catholic Christian! It is possible for a Christian to attend a Catholic church, but if someone is a faithful Catholic, adhering to all the Seven Sacraments of their cult as their hope for Heaven, they are going to Hell forever!!! I say that with sadness, because like God, I desire for all people to get saved (2nd Peter 3:9).

What are you trusting in friend? Bill Gates is filthy rich, and his ungodly wife (soon to be divorced). Bill Gates has a staggering net worth of $125,500,000,000. Tragically, Gates went from being an agnostic (unsure of what he believes), to accepting his wife's heathen Catholic faith, neither of which produces the new birth, meaning they are not Christians. Only a born-again person is a true Bible Christians. John 3:7, "Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again.

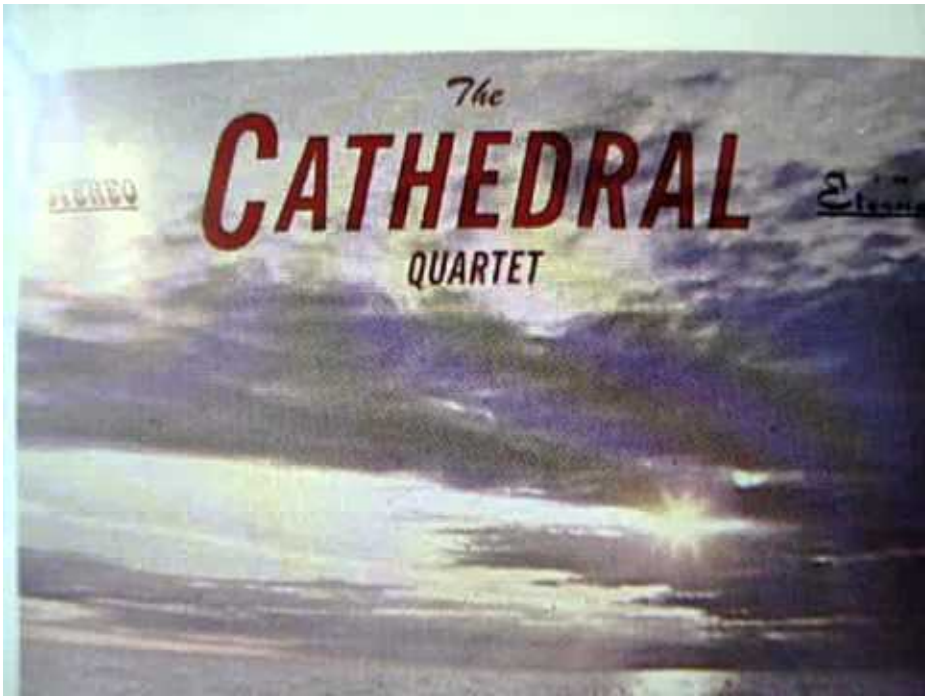
John 1:12-13, "

But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God*, even to them that believe on his name: Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God." You cannot buy the stairway to Heaven! The rock band Led Zeppelin had it all wrong!

The Gift Of Eternal Life Is 100 % Free, By Simple Childlike Faith

You cannot earn or merit Heaven. You cannot get lucky and get their by happenstance. No Catholic priest can absolve your sins. I heard

"[4]Father John Corapi" as he is called, a famous TV Catholic priest, boast that he absolved his own biological father's sins before he died. Sadly, that means his father went straight to Hell forever! I didn't say that, the Bible does! YE MUST BE BORN AGAIN!!! I hate the Catholic church, but I love Catholic people. They have been deceived by the Devil, offered a religious package from the cradle to the casket. Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born again!!!



1st Timothy 6:17-19, "Charge them that are rich in this world, that they be not highminded, nor trust in uncertain riches, but in the living God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy; That they do good, that they be rich in good works, ready to distribute, willing to communicate; Laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal life." Bill Gates is one of the wealthiest people on earth, yet he has absolutely NOTHING! Hell will be his home unless he repents of his unbelief and trust Jesus Christ alone as His personal Savior.

1st Timothy 6:6-7, " But godliness with contentment is great gain. For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out.

" Kindly said, Bill Gates was born in his birthday suit (naked), and that is all he will die with!

Please consider Apple founder Steve Jobs (with a net worth of $10,200,000,000), who died as a Christ-rejecting Buddhist. Buddhism has no religious dogma. It is a false religion of just be happy and love everybody, and forget God and theology! Unfortunately for Mr. Jobs, things don't work that way. Revelation 20:15, "And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire." It's Heaven or Hell—faith alone in Jesus or eternal damnation! I accepted Jesus Christ as my blessed Savior when I was a 13 year old teenager. From that day until present I have enjoyed the wonderful presence of the indwelling Holy Spirit (Romans 8:9; 1st John 3:24). He walks with me, and He talks with me, and He tells me that I am His own. ...

In The Garden (The Cathedrals)

Dear friend, the Devil always pays with counterfeit money! Lordship Salvation is fake money! You cannot buy your way into Heaven. John 10:1, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber." Bob Jones University today is a den of thieves. Harvest Baptist Church on Guam are a pack of thieves. Marty Herron, Steve Pettit, Chuck Phelps, Sam Horn, John MacArthur and Gary Walton are all THIEVES! They are all trying to enter into Heaven SOME OTHER WAY than through the simply Gospel. The Gospel is simply the 'GOOD NEWS' that Jesus died for our sins on the cross. He was buried. Three days later Jesus bodily resurrected from the dead for our justification (1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

But the ungodly Bob Jones University crowd today say this is NOT sufficient to be saved. In ADDITION, they say you must repent and turn away from your sinning, and run the race faithfully to the end, or you will go to Hell. Read for your self what the theologically tainted president of BJU, [5]Dr. Steve Pettit, preaches to their deceived students and faculty. Right doctrine matters folks! There is not another Gospel (Galatians 1:6-9). The Gospel of John teaches us the true Gospel. We see Christ's death, burial and resurrection in John chapters 19-20. There is no mention of the word " in the Gospel of John. We find the word

mentioned 85 times in the precious Gospel of John. This is God's Gospel tract. John 20:31,

"But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name."

1st Timothy 6:19, "Laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal life."

This Bible verse speaks about preparing for Heaven. It is not talking about getting saved, but of laying hold on the eternal life that we already posses as believers. We KNOW we are saved by faith alone in Christ. If you don't absolutely KNOW that you are saved, something is wrong and you need to settle that. I can help you if you email me, or search my ministry websites and blogs for assurance of salvation articles. Remember, assurance of salvation is not a separate doctrine than [6]eternal security, they are the SAME doctrine. If you are saved you HAVE eternal security. The promise that God made

TO SAVE THEM THAT BELIEVE

" in 1st Corinthians 1:21b is our assurance of salvation. Anybody who separates these doctrines is a false teacher!

I could write so much more. What doth it profit a man if he gain the whole world, yet dies in his sins without Jesus as His Savior? I am such a rich man in Christ!!! I shudder when I stop to think about how foolish the Neo-evangelical crowd is, with their Satanic heresy of Lordship Salvation, and their demonic turn away from your sinful lifestyle

to be saved lies. No one can turn from their sins. The very idea that someone needs to hate their sins and be willing to stop committing them, as a condition of receiving God's free gift of eternal life is preposterous and unbiblical.

To the unregenerate mind forsaking sin sounds good and reasonable, but it is robbing Christ of the saving power that belongs to Him alone! JESUS PAID IT ALL, nothing to Him I owe. Getting saved is free, without any obligation or strings attached. You simply take it by faith in the Good News of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen the third day. Nothing more is necessary or permitted by God. Galatians 3:26,

"For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus." Why do men complicate everything? I don't know about you friend, but I am not trusting in uncertain riches. I don't want this world's temporary pleasures and wealth, they can have it all. Just give me Jesus!!! I don't need manmade religion, just give me Jesus!!!

There are millions of millionaires in the United States, most of whom do not know Jesus Christ as their Savior. But I know Him, and I love Jesus, He is precious to me!!! I would rather have Jesus than all the gold, pleasures, fame and money in this sin cursed world. Everything that means so much to 99 % of people today will be gone 100 years from now. People fight, squabble, cut each other's throats, grappling over a few dollars and a home, for what? Matthew 6:19-20, "

Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal: But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal:"

Playboy founder, Hugh Hefner (1926-2017), the old pervert, left behind an immaculate mansion worth over $100,000,000 when he died. Hugh couldn't take it with him to Hell. Hefner enjoyed immoral relationships with thousands of women during his sordid lifetime (Hebrews 13:4). Not surprisingly, coming from an unsaved wicked man, Hugh actually said He considers himself, " [7]a pretty moral guy .

" That's like Jimmy Hoffa saying he is a saintly mobster! That's like Marty Herron saying he is a real Christian. That's like Steve Pettit saying he knows what he's talking about concerning how to be saved. You get the picture! Dear reader, we must all give account to God. Hebrews 10:31, "It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God." My faith is in Christ alone, the hope of glory. My riches are in Jesus Christ!

2.5.20 Pitbull Christianity (2021-05-25 02:20)

Matthew 20:6,

And about the eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing idle, and saith unto them, Why stand ye here all the day idle?

Luke 5:4,

Now when he had left speaking, he said unto Simon, Launch out into the deep, and let down your nets for a draught.

Revelation 3:2, "

Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die*: for I have not found thy works perfect before God.

I remember when I attended Hyles-Anderson College (1985-1993) hearing a bunch of fiery chapel sermons. I still remember many of them. The Bible contains some awesome phrases that will preach! “ Why stand ye here all day idle?

Launch out into the deep, and let down your nets for a draught!

Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die.

” I think of these truths often, which are all calls to ACTION as believers.

I have always gravitated toward fiery Bible preachers, the Pitbulls! I'm talking about fighters like Jack Hyles, Bob Gray Sr., Danny Castle, Jeff Owens, Lester Roloff, Ralph Yankee Arnold, Steven Anderson, Jeff Fugate, Roy Thompson, J. Frank Norris, Billy Sunday and the Apostle Paul. These men are intense, and so am I, so I can relate to them. I am an independent fundamentalist Baptist Bible preacher! By "fundamentalist" I simply mean that I believe in the infallibility and inspiration of the King James Bible. I see no mistakes in the King James Bible. I don't listen to those who want to argue and debate the issue, I would rather go soulwinning. Let the deeper-lifers waste their time debating the Book, while I use the Book to win souls.

Brother, we need more Pitbull Christianity today! The churches are pathetic today!!! I am sick and tired of seeing churches advertise their "worship services." The purpose of going to church is not to worship God, it is to organize to do God's work of obeying The Great Commission of soulwinning (Matthew 28:19-20). The purpose of going to church is to receive comfort, encouragement and be taught the Bible. The church is a hospital for broken sinners, not a museum for spiritual relics. If a hurting person cannot go to a local church to receive love, compassion, help and comfort, then prey tell me where can they go? Since 2014 the shameful Harvest Baptist Church on Guam has left me for dead. They drove me out, forgot about me, and even refused to let me come back to church in 2017 when I begged three times. What kind of so-called " does that? A fake church, that's who!

I'm sick and tired of phony churches gathering around the Word of God, while the local community goes to Hell without hearing the Gospel. This is the doing of today's apostate Bible colleges, which are training mere academics and not church builders. Neo-evangelicals steal churches, they don't build them. Only soulwinning can build a church, and the Bob Jones University crowd don't go soulwinning, they just steal the work of fundamentalist preachers who've gone before them, corrupting those churches.

Sadly, most of today's pastors are lazy, incompetent, untrained and unqualified to lead God's people! Just look at the mess in America's pathetic churches today! It's all about worship, getting your money, and sending the youth off to some damned Bible college to have their faith shaken in the inspiration and infallibility of God's Word. These poor impressionable kids go in having faith in God's Word, and by the time they come out are questioning God's Word, flipping through a dozen Bible versions in search of the truth. That doesn't sound like a good deal to me parents! Please be careful where you enroll your children into school.

Yes, we need some good old-fashioned Pitbull Christianity. I mean biting on the leg of the Devil and not letting go!!! Brother Lester Roloff (1914-1982) was right, who said: T*he great need of the hour is PREACHING PREACHERS!!!*

2.5.21 The Eyes Of The Lord Also See The Good (2021-05-26 20:47)

Proverbs 15:3, "

The eyes of the LORD are in every place, beholding the evil and the good.

We often hear preachers say that God is watching us, and knows the bad things that we do. That is true! But the Bible says in Proverbs 15:3 that God also sees THE GOOD things that we do. God sees our intentions. God sees into the innermost part of our heart.

The heathen world defines a man by his mistakes, faults and sins in life. But God judges a believer (a born-again Christian) on the basis of the BAD and the GOOD. And to take it a step further, God judges all mankind on the basis of whether one has trusted Jesus Christ as Savior or not. You don't get to Heaven by your own goodness, you get to Heaven by God's goodness, through faith alone in His only begotten Son. John 6:40, "And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day."

God sees all the good. There are many preachers who have sinned openly. Their name has been shamed. They brought reproach to the name of Christ. And still other are falsely accused, and people wonder if the allegations are true. But those preachers, the ones that I am familiar with, have done FRA MORE GOOD in their lifetime than wrong. And yet wicked people only focus on the bad, accusing and condemning those fallen preachers. Revelation 12:10 calls Satan, **"

the accuser of the brethren

. " Ephesians 2:1-2 teaches that the spirit of Satan works in the children of disobedience (the unsaved).

Whether unsaved people realize it or not, their father is the Devil spiritually, and they are prone to listen to their father (John 8:44). When these secular rock bands like the Eagles, The Beatles, Ozzy Osbourne and thousands more, deny that they are helping Satan, they are being 100 % sincere. They truly don't think that Satan is working through them, but he is! If you are not a born-again child of God, the only other option is that you are under Satan's dominion (the Devil's child). You may be a sweet, kind and loving person, and yet have Satan as your spiritual father. Or you may be as mean as the Devil (and there's a lot of wicked people like that in the world).

God sees THE GOOD friend. He sees the long nights and days I labor on my website ministry. God sees my continued prayers, even when I don't see God answering any of them and I feel I'm wasting my time. God sees my broken heart because Harvest Baptist Church on Guam refuses to do the right thing. They preach another gospel, promote corruptible seed, preach a misunderstanding of repentance, and bid Godspeed to evildoers like Dr. Steve Pettit and his Calvinist false gospel. When I get to Heaven, God will judge me as His redeemed child on the basis of the bad and the good that I have done (2nd Corinthians 5:9-11).

1st Timothy 5:24, "Some men's sins are open beforehand, going before to judgment; and some men they follow after." I love that Bible verse. We are all familiar with a professed Christian who has a tarnished testimony, because of known sins or crimes they have committed. But the Bible says YOU and I are just as guilty in God's sight. One of my favorite sermons by Pastor Jack Hyles is called: "[1]If Thou Should Mark Iniquities, Who Could Stand?" That is based on Psalms 130:3, "If thou, LORD, shouldest mark iniquities, O Lord, who shall stand?"

One of my favorite Bible passages is found in Romans 8:34,

"Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us." The implied answer is that NO ONE condemneth! If you have accepted Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, your are FREE from the curse of sin and the law. You have been redeemed. I don't care if you are serving multiple life sentences behind bars in prison, if you have receive God's gift of eternal life, you have no criminal record in Heaven! In God's sight, even if you are a mass-murderer here on earth, you are as pure as the Lord Jesus Christ! That is called: "[2]Imputed Righteousness"

!!!

> Romans 4:5-7,
>
> "But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.
>
> Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works,
>
> Saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered.
> **"

I would love to point out to you dear reader, that the same Greek word logizomai is used for the words " counted

imputeth

" in the preceding passage of Scripture. The 54 King James Bible translators intentionally used those two words interchangeably, to show us (the reader) what "

imputeth

" means. Imputed means that one's childlike faith in Jesus is "

counted

in place of righteousness. You need righteousness to go to Heaven. But the problem is that you and I don’t have any to offer God. Isaiah 64:6,

“But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags; and we all do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away.”

Our best is simply not good enough for God! That is why Jesus came to die on the cross to pay for our sins, to give us GOD’S RIGHTEOUSNESS!!! Philippians 3:9, “And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:” Nearly all religious people fail to fully understand this important truth. No one who thinks that water baptism is necessary to get to Heaven understands this great doctrine of IMPUTATION. They are not saved.

JESUS PAID IT ALL!!! We are saved by faith alone (Galatians 3:26). NO ONE who requires turning away from your sins to be saved understands this great doctrine of IMPUTATION. For if they did, they’d never teach such damnable false doctrine!!! All you need is to BELIEVE the Gospel (the GOOD NEWS) that Christ died in your place on the cross, He was buried, and three days later Jesus resurrected physically from the dead for our justification (the justification of our faith in Him, which is not in vain).

God also sees THE GOOD dear friend. So many people criticize Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001), my hero of the Christian faith, who’ve never met him as I did, nor have they ever heard him preach in person (as I did a thousand times). Dr. Hyles was the best Christian I ever knew! I do not believe the horrible allegations against him that his enemies make. But even if they are true, he is still the best Christian I have ever known! What, how can you say that? It is because of the tens of thousands of GOOD THINGS that Brother Hyles did throughout his lifetime, which his critics all choose to ignore. Millions of lost souls came to know Jesus as their personal Savior because of Dr. Hyles 55 years of incredible ministry. Dr. Hyles gave away millions of dollars throughout his lifetime, helping the down and out, loving his enemies. Anybody who smears this man’s good name is a fool. Brother Hyles didn’t claim to be a good Christian, but he did his best to please the Lord in all his ways, as imperfect as we all are.

I look at the verifiable GOOD, not just the alleged BAD that no one can prove.

And even if his enemies could, that doesn’t negate the GOOD Brother Hyles did. A man is not defined by his poor choices in life in God’s Kingdom. If you are saved, God looks at the bad and the good. And if you are not saved, God doesn’t look at any of the good (Ezekiel 33:13), only your sins, because you rejected His Son (John 3:36). So remember oh child of God, the Lord said in Proverbs 15:3 that He sees the bad AND THE GOOD.

2.5.22 Encourage Others To Write On Social Media (2021-05-28 02:50)

Psalms 94:16, “

Who will rise up for me* against the evildoers? or who will stand up for me against the workers of iniquity?

Daniel 6:3,

“

Then this Daniel was preferred above the presidents and princes, because an excellent spirit was in him; and the king thought to set him over the whole realm.

John 9:4,

“

I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day*: the night cometh, when no man can work.

2nd Corinthians 5:20,

“

Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ’s stead, be ye reconciled to God.

Ephesians 5:16, “ Redeeming the time, because the days are evil. ”

Colossians 4:5, “ Walk in wisdom toward them that are without, redeeming the time.”

I carefully selected the preceding handful of Scripture passages. Again and again in the Bible we are exhorted as God’s children to rise up and stand for the Lord against evil. Psalms 97:10, “

Ye that love the LORD, hate evil: he preserveth the souls of his saints; he delivereth them out of the hand of the wicked.

” I saw a bumper sticker recently that read:

“STOP HATE!” No Sir, we need more hate! We just need to hate the right things. The Bible commands us as God’s children to HATE EVIL! I hate abortion, but I love the people getting them. I hate booze, but I love the drunkard. I hate adultery, but I love the adulterer. Jesus hated iniquity (Hebrews 1:9), but He loved the sinner (Romans 5:6-9).

Dear friend, as God’s children the Lord wants us to SPEAK UP for Him! In 2nd Corinthians 5:20 we are called “AMBASSADORS” for Christ. You and I may be the only Jesus that somebody knows. That is what the Bible means in Hebrews 12:14, “

Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord:

” This verse has nothing to do with salvation, it refers to our testimony for Christ and how it affects others. If our Christian testimony is poor, someone may go to Hell because of us, failing to see the light of Jesus in us. Matthew 5:16, “

Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.

Having said all that as way of introduction, I encourage you dear reader to post on social media. I don’t have any premonitions (as Dr. Jack Hyles often said to comfort his church members) that I may die soon, but it could happen. If I had a heart attack and dropped dead right now, my websites would expire within a year, when the hosting bill is due. That is why I started my several blogs, to preserve my writings after I am long gone, hopefully. I have dedicated the rest of my life to preaching THE TRUTH on social media. People need spiritual help. I want to help them. God has blessed me with this wonderful and needful ministry.

The world is dying for caring and sincere Christians who tell THE TRUTH. The heathen world are sick and tired of seeing phony preachers like Pat Robertson, Benny Hinn, Joel Osteen, Oral Roberts, Mike Murdoch, Melissa Scott, Peter Popoff and Joyce Meyer, who make a mockery of the things of God by exploiting Christendom for filthy lucre. I have never received a single cent for my online ministry labors since 2002. I do what I do out of love for Jesus, the truth and people. If anybody in this world out to volunteer, and not have their hand out asking for money, it is the man of God. I have my faults, but people know that I am 100 % sincere in my ministry labors. I get nothing out of this except helping others (2nd Corinthians 3:2), and laying up treasures in Heaven (Matthew 6:19-20).

I encourage you dear friend to use your VOICE for Christ. I may be gone tomorrow. You may be gone. Who will carry the mantle of truth to the next generation? I use Microsoft 'Expression Web 4' to build my websites. If you are interested, here is the fully working program for free, which Microsoft gave away to the public. Microsoft support is no longer available. I saved a copy if you'd like it on Google Drive. It is 99 MB. No registration is required. There are tons of YouTube tutorials on how to build websites using Expression Web 4. ...

[1] Download Full Microsoft Expression Web 4 Software With CSS

Also, if you don't want to make a website, [2]you can start a blog for free. Google's search engine does find your blog by default. I love Google Blogspot, it is very simple, free, elegant and easy to use. I commend Google on their excellent blogs. If you can click and drag, you can make a high quality blog. I figured out how to use Blogspot in about 2 days. It is very nice and easy to use. You can make as many blogs as you want. So far I have 6 blogs. [3]I recently started a new banjo blog. I encourage you friend to let your voice for the Lord be heard in cyberspace.

Perhaps you think you aren't a gifted writer, and don't have the necessary writing skills. When I started my website ministry in 2002, I had no clue what I was doing. I literally used size 7 font (the largest size) on all my web pages. Web visitors were asking me why? Why are you using such big font? So I learned not to use giant font. I learned as I went. My attitude was one of determination! I determined that I was going to make a big website to speak up for God, and whatever it took I would learn and figure out how to make it work. And over time I did exactly that! I have never had any formal website training, I just learned one mistake at a time.

If nothing else, I encourage you to share my writings, or the sermons and writings of other Bible preachers. You could start a ministry commenting on YouTube videos, posting links to the Gospel, sharing the Gospel truth, and quoting Bible verses. There is so much that everyone can do to influence other people for Jesus Christ. The Devil's crowd are speaking up loud and clear, while God's children cower and remain silent. Not me brother, I AM SPEAKING UP FOR GOD!!! Satan wants us to SHUT UP, but God wants us to SPEAK UP!

Attitudes are contagious, is yours worth catching? I read that statement years ago on a sign. It is a true saying! The Bible says that Daniel had " an excellent spirit

" in him. I love that! One's attitude is everything. That is why the Bible teaches us in Philippians 4:8 to " think on these things,

” things that are good, lovely, true, honest and virtuous. That excludes

Hollywood’s filth and violence! That excludes the daily news! That excludes lying Neo-evangelical churches and their heretical Lordship Salvation!

I receive many e-mails from miserable Christians. They share their doom and gloom thoughts with me. Admittedly, it is always easier to help others than it is to help myself. That is because we cannot see what other people see when they look at us. We can only look in the mirror, but other people are much more familiar with what we really look like than we are. Did you ever think about that? So often other people can see our faults more clearly than we can, because they have an OUTSIDER opinion. When people share their negative thoughts with me, I can clearly see that they are focusing on all the wrong things, which is why they are so negative.

When we go down that dark path of negative thinking, we can easily feed into it and get worse. If you find yourself in this pit of despair friend, it happened over time. Depression is a journey! Likewise, the road to a happier life is to start the journey to having a Christlike mind. Romans 12:2, “

And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God. ” If you are down and out on life friend, you need to start putting good things into your mind. You need to [4]start listening to the King James Bible daily.

You need to [5]start listening to Bible preaching daily. I encourage you to listen to ’ [6]MAKING A DIFFERENCE ’ each weekday by Pastor Shelton Smith of the Sword Of The Lord. I encourage you to spend some quality time [7]reading my websites. If you think right you can live right. Behind every tragedy in human character is a slow process of wicked thinking. That is why my favorite Bible verse is Proverbs 4:23, “

Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life.

” Always guard your thoughts. Don’t allow lust, hate or any sinful thought to take root in your mind (2nd Corinthians 10:5-6).

Anyway, you have a VOICE dear friend for the Lord. There is a group of people that only YOU can reach for God. There are people who will listen to YOU, who won’t listen to anybody else, for whatever reason. It might be family. It might be because you share the same hobbies. You may share common musical, hunting or cooking interests. It could be because you speak the same language, or were born in the same city. We all have our sphere of influence. If nothing else, you can share with others how you got saved. We call this soulwinning.

” Proverbs 11:30, “The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life; and he that winneth souls is wise.

I just wanted to encourage you friend to get busy for God. The Scripture exhorts us to REDEEM THE TIME, because the days are evil! [8]America is spiraling down into an abyss of darkness very quickly. These are crazy and perilous times! When leftist wackos are successful in convincing local government leaders to defund the police, anarchy has come! In 2020 all of the following major cities actually defunded the police: New York City, Washington, D.C., Baltimore, Philadelphia, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Atlanta and Minneapolis.

We are a sick society in the United States. We hardly ever hear a word of praise for all the good police, yet we never cease to hear about all the bad cops. There are a lot of abusive cops (although a very low percentage of the total group), but consider what they have to deal with every day. Police make a living on the worst 10 minutes of people's lives!!! Behind every badge is a human being. I am not defending bad cops, but how do you handle violent punk gang members, people high on drugs, and law breakers who have zero respect for lawful authority? Leftist Democrats would have the police to try to talk nicely to them. Good luck!

Our nation is in perils today. We are taught in the Word of God in Ephesians 6:12 that our battle is not against flesh, but against spiritual wickedness in high places, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against principalities and powers of darkness. If ever there was a need for the local New Testament church, it is right now! As a fundamentalist Baptist Bible preacher, I am committed to proclaim THE BOOK (the inspired and infallible King James Bible), THE BLOOD (Jesus' literal liquid blood sprinkled on the Mercy Seat in Heaven), THE BODY (the importance and need for local New Testament churches) and the BLESSED HOPE (Christ's pretribulation return for the saints at the Rapture). Amen!

I don't know about you, but I get happy and excited sharing THE TRUTH. One of the great joys of the Christian life is contending for the faith. But wait, what about you ladies? Can a Christian woman contend for the faith? Yes, but you should stand behind a preacher and promote him. I have a dear friend, one of my longtime web visitors. She loves the Lord. She does not preach with authority as a man. So she promotes my articles and helps lift up my arms as a preacher. She is a fellowhelper to the truth. 3rd John 1:8, "We therefore ought to receive such, that we might be fellowhelpers to the truth.

" You ladies can support your pastor and promote his sermons and your local church. I do not preach on my authority. I have no authority. [9]My authority as a called preacher is the inspired Word of God.

If you are interested in making your own ministry website or blog, I would be more than happy to help you, Lord willing. Just email me and I'll do my best to guide you to resources to help you. But first search the internet with your questions, which is a powerful tool. YouTube has thousands of helpful educational videos on how to produce and publish social media. The secret to growing your website is content, content, content. Unfortunately, my unpopular non politically correct Bible preacher has been 80 % censored by Google since 2015. They have taken away most of my web traffic. But if you don't preach again abortion, homosexuality, feminism and other unpleasant topics, your site will have no problems being promoted.

One of the most searched for topics in internet search engines is "

False Religion

" (i.e., the various different religious faiths). People are very curious about religion. If you did your research on different religions, and wrote extensively about them, you'd build a very popular website in a short time. Also, anything about the occult, 666, end times prophecy, the Antichrist, witchcraft and other sensational topics are of great interest. I am giving you some tips how to build a quick following, if you are interested. [10]Here are some tips on websites. Making a website is so much fun! [11]Check out what you can do.

The Lord promises to reward us as believers for our individual labors (1st Corinthians 3:8-9). Giving even a cup of water in a disciple's name will not go unrewarded (Mark 9:41). In other words, even if you help me with my ministry, God will reward you as if you did it for Him. That is only true because I am preaching the Gospel accurately. If you are helping Bob Jones University spread their [12]false repentance and [13]Lordship Salvation, you are pulling on the same rope as the Devil. I first heard that saying from Billy Sunday (1862-1935). So make sure you don't become guilty of bidding Godspeed to evildoers, lest you become a partaker of their evil deeds.

2nd John 1:11, “For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds.”

Dear child of God, if you’d like to lay up treasures in Heaven with me, I could sure use your help out here fighting on the frontlines as a soldier for Jesus Christ.

2.5.23 God's Grace Doesn't Allow Us To Sin; It Allows Us Not To (2021-05-29 01:02)

Romans 5:20-21, "Moreover the law entered, that the offence might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound: That as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life by Jesus Christ our Lord." Romans 6:1-2, "What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound? God forbid. How shall we, that are dead to sin, live any longer therein?"

God's grace does not allow us to sin; it allows us not to. What does that mean? It simply means friend that when you receive Jesus Christ as your personal Savior, you are no longer under the curse of sin and the law, you are now forever under God's saving grace. As believers we don't fall from grace, we fall in grace! There is no depth of sin to which a child of God can sink that salvation could ever be lost or jeopardized. If saved, always saved!

Simply friend, when you accept Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, believing that He was buried, but is risen from the dead, you are saved. This is "the Gospel" (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Gospel means "GOOD NEWS." It is the Good News that Jesus paid for your sins (and mine) through His death on the cross. Jesus shed His precious blood to pay for our sins.

>
> Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers; But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot: Who verily was foreordained before the foundation of the world, but was manifest in these last times for you, Who by him do believe in God, that raised him up from the dead, and gave him glory; that your faith and hope might be in God.

The moment that someone gets saved, God declares them legally JUSTIFIED (just-if-I'd never sinned). In theology this is called "IMPUTATION." This is my favorite theological term, and it is found in the wonderful inspired King James Bible.

> Romans 4:5-7, "But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness. Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works, Saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered."

The same Greek word logizomai is used for both words “counted” and “

imputeth.

” I believe that the 54 King James Bible translators did this intentionally to help us understand the meaning of “impute.” It means that by faith Jesus counts our sins to Him, and counts His righteousness to us. 2nd Corinthians 5:21, “For he [God the Father] hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him

[God the Son]

[God the Son, Jesus]

” Philippians 3:9,

“And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith: ”

The Bible says that where sin did abound, GRACE DID MUCH MORE ABOUND!!! Romans 5:20-21, “Moreover the law entered, that the offence might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound: That as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life by Jesus Christ our Lord.”

We are not kept saved by our own faithfulness to God, but by God’s faithfulness to keep His promises to us. God is faithful (1st Corinthians 1:9).

When we choose to sin as Christians (and we ALL do), God’s grace keeps us from ever losing salvation. Romans 6:1-2, “What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound? God forbid. How shall we, that are dead to sin, live any longer therein?” We ought not sin. But when we do, grace will abound. The more we sin, the more grace will abound. It is very important that every believer comprehend this truth, and every believer DOES! Anybody who thinks that must turn away from sinful behavior to be saved, is NOT saved. The only mindset that a born-again Christian can have is that JESUS PAID IT ALL!!!

God’s grace does not allow us to sin; it allows us not to, because when WE DO SIN the blood of Jesus reaches deeper than the stain of sin has gone. As believers we cannot be condemned for our sins! That is what this article is about. John 3:18, “He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God.” Romans 8:34,

“ Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us. ”

Dear reader, once you receive Christ as your personal Savior, resting completely in His work of redemption, your POSITION in Christ as God’s child is forever settled. Your CONDITION in Christ is a separate matter, determined by the choices that we make from day to day. The former is sonship; the latter is discipleship. The former is salvation; the latter is service. A person may be saved, but not serve Christ. A person may be an adopted son of God by faith, but not be right with God as His child. We must ALWAYS keep sanctification separate from justification, for these are two different matters entirely. The famous Pilgrim’s Progress author and Gospel preacher, John Bunyan (1628-1688), said it very well:

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." [emphasis added] —Evangelist John Bunyan

Galatians 5:25, "

If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit.

" If you are born-again, then you "live" in the Holy Spirit. That is, the Holy Spirit of God is alive inside you. In theology we call this the " indwelling of the Holy Spirit

" (1st Corinthians 3:16-17; Romans 8:9; 1st John 3:24). And as believers who live in the Spirit (capitol S), we ought to also "walk" in that same Holy Spirit, meaning that we ought to obey the Spirit of God as He leads us to obey the written Word of God (2nd Corinthians 10:5-6; John 5:39; John 17:17; Romans 12:2).

God's grace does not give any saint permission to sin, but if we do there is no condemnation (Romans 8:1). The Lord will hold every Christian accountable at the Judgment Seat Of Christ for the 'good or bad' done in the body (2nd Corinthians 5:9-11). God will avenge all evil (Romans 12:19; 1st Thessalonians 4:6). But there can never be any damnation for the child of God, because Jesus paid the penalty for our sins with His precious blood (1st John 1:7).

Many Christians will suffer great loss of reward at the Judgment Seat Of Christ (1st Corinthians 3:11-15). We will also be rewarded for our individual labors for Christ (1st Corinthians 3:8-9). God will reward every believer according to our works. In sharp contrast, the unsaved will be damned at the Great White Throne Of Judgment, punished according to their works (Revelation 20:11-15). I like to compare the Judgment Seat Of Christ for believers to a civil court, where there is no risk of criminal penalty, only monetary loss. Whereas the Judgment Seat Of Christ can be compared to a criminal court, where people are sentenced to prison. All those judged at the Great White Throne Of Judgment will be cast into the eternal Lake of Fire (Revelation 20:15; 21:8).

God's grace does not allow us to sin, because any sins we choose to commit have already been washed away by the blood of the Lamb. What saith the Scripture?

> 1st Corinthians 6:9-11, "Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind,
>
> Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God.
>
> And such were some of you: but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God.
> **"

I love that phrase... BUT YE ARE WASHED!!! Every born-again saint has been washed in the blood. Gone, gone, gone, my sins are all gone.

Gone, gone, gone, gone!
Yes my sins are gone.
Now my soul is free, and in my heart's a song;
Buried in the deepest sea,
Yes that's good enough for me;
I shall live eternally, Praise God! My sins are gone.

Hear this song sang: [1]MY SINS ARE GONE! ...

My Sins Are Gone!

2.5.24 Science And The Bible (2021-05-30 09:30)

1st Timothy 6:20-21, "O Timothy, keep that which is committed to thy trust, avoiding profane and vain babblings, and oppositions of science falsely so called: Which some professing have erred concerning the faith. Grace be with thee. Amen."

Our text verse warns about false science.

Evolution is false science. It is fake news! The blatant fraud of evolutionary theory is fake news! It disgusts me how the world's alleged smartest people will readily accept the bizarre unproven claims of evolutionists, while adamantly rejecting the inspired Words of almighty God.

I read a disturbing quote today. According to "Science And The Bible"

(authored by Nicolaas A. Rupke), chapter 35 from the book “The New Cambridge History Of The Bible: From 1750 To Present,” which is published through Cambridge University Press:

> “The Non-Scientific Bible
>
> In the third discourse, the relationship between the Bible and science is unproblematic for the simple reason that is non-existent: there is no meaningful connection between the two. ’Hebrew Scripture’ has no bearing on the modern study of the physical world or the other way around. Bible and science belong to wholly separate domains of reality. The Bible pertains to the sphere of morality and spirituality; science, by contrast, has dominion in the realm of physical things.”
>
> SOURCE: “[1]The New Cambridge History Of The Bible: From 1750 To Present,” p.717; Cambridge University Press. 2015

Kindly said, Nicolaas A. Rupke is a fool. There is definitely a strong relationship between science and the Bible. Good night man, the Holy Bible provides the much sought after answers to the world’s oldest perplexing questions, without which explanation men would go insane in curiosity. Many such intriguing questions are as follows:

1. Where did the universe come from?
2. How was the universe created?
3. What existed before the universe was created?
4. How big is the universe?
5. Can the universe have an end?
6. How was the earth formed?
7. How was the moon formed?
8. When did the seasons begin?
9. What lies behind the boundaries of the universe?
10. Where did mankind come from?

Dear reader, the answer to all these questions is simply, GOD! Genesis 1:1, “ In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth.” The very word

means

to study.

” The Science Council puts it more elaborately this way: “

Science is the pursuit and application of knowledge and understanding of the natural and social world following a systematic methodology based on evidence.

" Again, science simply means to study something. With that in mind, it should become obvious to you dear friend that the Bible is very much related to science. What saith the Scripture? ...

> Psalms 19:1-3, "The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament sheweth his handywork. Day unto day uttereth speech, and night unto night sheweth knowledge. There is no speech nor language, where their voice is not heard."

When we behold the moon, sun, stars and planets, we are studying science. Whether through a telescope or with the naked eye, we are always studying God's creation. This is science!

I'll give you a few examples of science in the Bible. In Isaiah 40:22 we read that the earth is a " circle

" (a spherical in shape). For millenniums mankind has debated whether the earth is flat or round, yet the Bible gave the answer the whole time. Isaiah 40:22, " It is he that sitteth upon the circle of the earth, and the inhabitants thereof are as grasshoppers; that stretcheth out the heavens as a curtain, and spreadeth them out as a tent to dwell in:"

I found an interesting article about '[2]Science And The Bible,' but the author is a member of the demonic Church of Christ religious cult, and preaches another gospel (baptismal regeneration, wrong repentance, adding confessing, Lordship Salvation, et cetera). So I do NOT recommend the rest of their website!

Did you know that science supports the Bible story of Noah and the flood? [3]Smithsonian Magazine published an article about it. Albert Einstein (1879-1955)—you know, the smartest guy who ever lived—said: "Science without religion is lame, religion without science is blind." These pseudo-scientists today, who attempt to completely exclude the Bible from science and science from the Bible, are unwise. What saith the Scripture? ...

> Romans 1:20-23, "
>
> For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse:
>
> Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and *their foolish heart was darkened.
>
> Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools*,
>
> And changed the glory of the uncorruptible God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and fourfooted beasts, and creeping things.
> **"

The Bible is full of science if you'll familiarize yourself with it. We read about the day the sun stood still. ...

Joshua 10:12-14, “

Then spake Joshua to the LORD in the day when the LORD delivered up the Amorites before the children of Israel, and he said in the sight of Israel, Sun, stand thou still upon Gibeon; and thou, Moon, in the valley of Ajalon.

And the sun stood still, and the moon stayed, until the people had avenged themselves upon their enemies. Is not this written in the book of Jasher? So the sun stood still in the midst of heaven, and hasted not to go down about a whole day.

And there was no day like that before it or after it*, that the LORD hearkened unto the voice of a man: for the LORD fought for Israel.

It is ironic and hypocritical that today’s so-called modern “ scientists

are quick to accept the bogus ideas of evolutionary theory, which cannot even be tested, studied or recreated in a laboratory. Yet, the Bible supports science, and science supports the Bible, on all fronts. NASA literally believes that two rocks in space collided billions of years ago, and that is how the earth and moon formed. And then it took billions of years more for enough asteroids containing ice crystals to hit the earth to form the massive oceans. And then somehow, mysteriously, life as we know it today just happened. And they call this insanity “

2.5.25 The Bible Verse That I Hate The Most (2021-05-31 21:17)

Philippians 2:12, “

Wherefore, my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling.

I’m always writing in my blogs about all my favorite Bible passages that I love, but today I am writing about the Bible passage I hate the most! I hate our text verse from Philippians 2:12. I don’t hate the Bible, I just hate what this Bible verse teaches, because it leaves me at a loss. This verse teaches that we have to figure out how to make it day by day through this earthly life on our own. That is exactly what the Bible says: WORK OUT YOUR OWN SALVATION!

Thankfully, God's salvation is already taken care of for us, by faith alone. All we need to do to get to Heaven is acknowledge that we are guilty sinners, and believe the Gospel (the 'GOOD NEWS') that Jesus is the Christ, who died in our place on the cross to pay our debt of sin. Jesus was buried and three days later He miraculously resurrected physically by the power of God (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Anyone who hears this Good News and places their trust in Jesus Christ alone is saved. Nothing more is required nor allowed by God the Father.

But after God saves us, Philippians 2:13 teaches that we all have to figure out our way in this earthly life ON OUR OWN. I hate that! I don't like having to make my own choices about whom to marry and whom not to marry, where to go to church and where not to go to church, whom to trust and whom not to trust, where to move and where not to move, et cetera. Although I cherish my liberty and freedoms, I wish someone had wisely chosen my wife for me, because I picked a very bad person to marry. I've made umpteen bad decisions throughout my life, which adversely led to more bad decisions, and I've paid dearly for those poor choices. I wish God had made all my decisions for me. I wish it were as easy as seeking godly counsel, but people sometimes give very bad advice to others.

There is a silver lining though to Philippians 2:12, found in the next verse in

Philippians 2:13, "

For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure.

" The indwelling Holy Spirit helps guide us through life. I honestly do not know when, where, how or to what extent God has worked in me throughout my saved life. I simply don't know! Did God put it in my heart to move from Chicago to Guam in 2004? I have no idea. I sure feel like I made a poor choice. In hindsight, I wish I had moved my family to North Carolina, Tennessee or Florida's west coast. I think my entire family would have been much better off. But I don't know that. I love something that Pastor Max Younce said in one of his books:

"God only knows the things that would have happened, if the things that happened hadn't happened."

I don't beat myself up over bad decisions in the past, because I am just a flawed human being. I had no one to guide me, and I did what I thought was reasonable at the time. I have no regrets starting my website ministry, it was a wise decision in 2002. I have never received a single penny, and never will, for my many years of earnest ministry effort. I wish I had married a different woman. She abandoned me in 2006, and I am glad she did. Good riddance to bad rubbish! I was 20 years old and stupid when I got married. I couldn't have made a much worse choice. Some people choose to live in a delusion, but I choose to be honest and speak truth.

I do not know if I will ever remarry, but I am trying. I wrote a 46 year old white woman named Sherry today in Maryland. I doubt if she'll write back. No one ever does. I wrote two women last week. One, Tammy, turned out to be a fraud and was terminated by eHarmony. The other, Gracie, age 23, hasn't logged in since I contacted her on May 16th. I'm not having much luck. I am considering a young gal from the Philippines, but I dread the legalities of waiting for years for the process to complete to get her a marriage visa.

I have been planning to move, but this is the worst time to relocate. Literally, several thousand residents are fleeing California's oppressively government for greener pastures, moving to smaller cities across the United States. More people moved to Tennessee in 2020 than any other state! Unfortunately, that was my destination too, which has turned into a nightmare so far. Everyone is grabbing the cheaper apartments and homes as fast as they hit the market, making it next to impossible for me to find housing.

I wanted to go to Knoxville, and attend Temple Baptist Church in Powell, but of the several realtors I have contacted, only two replied. One ignored all my questions about finding a rental, and said I should consider buying a home instead. The other realtor didn't answer my rental questions either, and enrolled me into an MLS account of the available homes in the area. Anything in my price range of $100,000 or less or either delipidated and ready to fall over, or " contingent

(meaning it has already been sold). In Nashville, Tennessee, there is a 3-month waiting list just to find an apartment to rent there! So I keep thinking about Philippians 2:12, about working out my own salvation, and it frustrates me, because I have no idea what I'm doing down here on earth. I pray to God for wisdom regularly, and by faith I choose to believe that He will honor my faith in Him. God is always good!!!

So I am taking things one day at a time. I have been considering moving to Tucson, Arizona since last year, and I might do it! I find a friendly realtor, Rachel, who has been sending me affordable rentals all this year. I just looked at a place she sent me in Tucson for $675 a month, ALL utilities included. That's nice! That A LOT less than I am paying right now ($1,000 a month, plus about $700 in utilities on Guam). With skyrocketing petroleum costs, Guam's Diesel powered electricity has also skyrocketed in costs). I only run my 24,000 BTU air-conditioner, a fan, refrigerator, and two computers, and my electric bill is $500 per month! I'll save $1,000 per month moving to Tucson! But I'll have to start paying state income tax in Arizona, so that will set me back a couple thousand. And I'll have to pay an extra $1,000 a year for auto insurance. I only pay $300 a year on Guam for full coverage insurance. Still, I'll come out way ahead in Tucson, Lord willing. I have to consider costs. God only knows how my neck pain adversely affects me each day and night. I need to take it easy.

So anyway, pray for me that God will show me where to move. I found the Tucson Baptist Church, which looks really good. I won't know until I visit a few times. I am torn in my soul between places to move. And I am scared to start all over, with no one by my side to share life with me. I need a wife. I get tired of some men always bad mouthing marriage and women. I avoid those types of negative people. Marriage is a beautiful thing, and there's still a lot of wonderful godly women, but I don't think I'll find her on eHarmony. I don't know. I long for the blessed day when Jesus completely takes control of my life, when I leave this crazy earthly world. The daily news is filled with horror and insanity. I don't want to be a part of this wicked world anymore. I am ready to go home to Heaven. My wonderful Savior ALWAYS makes the best choices and right decisions, and I trust Him wholly.

So what can we do dear reader? Well, that is why God gave us the Holy Bible, to be used as a LAMP unto our feet. Psalms 119:105, "Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path.

" John 5:39,

" Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me." My favorite Bible verse is Proverbs 4:23, "Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life. " We all have to make our own decisions in life, and for every decision it affects future decisions. Bad decisions often limit opportunities. Likewise, sometimes bad decisions can become the very basis for our future success! God only knows. I am thankful that our omnipotent God can take the LEMONS in our life and still make LEMONADE with them. God is a God of second chances (Jonah 3:1).

The important thing is to stay focused on the Lord. Hebrews 12:2a, “ LOOKING TO JESUS, the Author and Finisher of our faith.

” I regret many decisions I’ve made in life. I cannot undo them. I hate myself for some of them. I wish I had married a different person, who cared, and who wouldn’t have quit and divorced me. But I have learned to LET GO, LET GOD, and just entrust the shattered pieces of my broken life to Jesus Christ, and let Him reshape them into something useless and meaningful again. Colossians 3:1-3, “If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God. Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth. For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God.”

2.6.1 God’s Promise Of Power, Love And A Sound Mind (2021-06-01 09:30)

Mark 5:15,

“

And they come to Jesus, and see him that was possessed with the devil, and had the legion, sitting, and clothed, and in his right mind: and they were afraid.

Acts 4:13,

“

Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus.

2nd Timothy 1:7, “

For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind*.

” Psalm 18:30,

“As for God, his way is perfect: the word of the LORD is tried: he is a buckler to all those that trust in him.

Proverb 2:7,

“He layeth up sound wisdom for the righteous: he is a buckler to them that walk uprightly.

Oh dear reader, please do not mistake my boldness in preaching for arrogance and pride. I preach with boldness simply because I HAVE BEEN WITH JESUS (Acts 4:13). The demon possessed maniac of Gadarenes was later found sitting IN HIS RIGHT MIND when He met Jesus.

Dear friend, if you'll give God your heart He'll comb the kinks out of your head! I cannot encourage you enough to delve into the Word of God. Our precious Lord exhorts us in John 5:39-41, "Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me.

And ye will not come to me, that ye might have life.

I receive not honour from men.

" Jesus Christ is the answer to ALL your problems!!! Jesus exhorts us to SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES to learn of Him.

Dr. John R. Rice (1895-1980) used to call Jesus and the Bible twins.

" The Bible is the Written Word; Jesus is the Living Word. John 1:1-3 and 14, "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. The same was in the beginning with God. All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made. ...And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth.

" Jesus is the Word of God Who became incarnate (flesh). Jesus is not only the personification of the Word of God, JESUS IS THE WORD OF GOD!!!

I have sincerely sought to make peace with the Harvest Baptist Church of Guam since 2014. I am not their enemy, I am their friend. A friend helps you to see. What saith the Scripture? Proverb 27:5, "Open rebuke is better than secret love." There are plenty of suck-ups in the Bob Jones crowd, who will tickle your ears and scratch your back to get along; but I am a truth-teller, willing to make myself vulnerable for speaking THE TRUTH. A true friend doesn't withhold the truth, worried that they might offend you. No, they tell you THE TRUTH. They will likely do it reluctantly, concerned of losing your love and fellowship, but they WILL tell you the truth if they love you. Jesus told the truth, and it cost Him popularity. John 8:40, "But now ye seek to kill me, a man that hath told you the truth, which I have heard of God: this did not Abraham." John 8:45, "

And because I tell you the truth, ye believe me not. "

I love the pastors, staff and people at Harvest Baptist Church of Guam. I am rude at times in my preaching, I admit. My frustration comes out at times, showing simply that I miss being part of their church group. They were my family for a year in 2013-2014. I hadn't been that happy in 20 years. But Harvest's pastors yanked the carpet out from under me, because I loved them enough to TELL THE TRUTH. I bought several hundred dollars worth of books by fundamentalist preachers to open their eyes. One of the excellent books I gave them was by Pastor Al Lacy (1933-2016) titled, '[1]NIV: The Antichrist's Bible.' The truths which Dr. Al Lacy teach apply to ALL of the modern Bible versions, showing how corrupted they are by Satan. The communist country of Cuba had enough discernment to [2]reject a free shipment of 17,000 New International Version (NIV) Bibles, but America's dumb dumb pastors embrace them!

Another book I freely shared with Harvest's pastors is titled, '[3]I NEVER KNEW YOU,' a very needful book by Evangelist Michael P. Bowen. I love this book so much for defending the simplicity of the Gospel of free grace. Friend, if you have a problem with this book's primary message, which is salvation by faith alone in the Good News of Jesus Christ, you are not saved!!!

Oh how I love you Harvest Baptist Church of Guam!!! I truly do. Please pardon my rude preaching at times, I am simply trying to help you. What saith the Scripture? 2nd Corinthians 11:6, " But though I be rude in speech, yet not in knowledge; but we have been throughly made manifest among you in all things."

I do not claim to be a good Christian. I do not have a single fault! You read correctly. I do not have a single fault—I HAVE MANY FAULTS!!! I have plenty of faults, sins and rough edges. I am definitely a diamond in the rough. The only good thing about me is Jesus in me (Galatians 2:20). I do want to be a better Christian. I tell my adult children: "Don't be like me, be better than me." Children follow the example set forth by their parents. That truth haunts every caring parent. My adult children represent the best and worst of both their Mom and Dad. Thankfully, our heavenly Father is perfect, and we don't have to worry about Him letting us down.

The Bible promises the Holy Spirit to every believer. That is why the Holy Spirit is literally called, THE SPIRIT OF PROMISE. Ephesians 1:13-14, "In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise, Which is the earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory. " Isn't that beautiful? God PROMISES the indwelling Holy Spirit to everyone who believes in the Lord Jesus Christ.

God Has Promised Every Believer A Sound Mind

Along with the Holy Spirit, God has PROMISED every believer the spirit of POWER, LOVE and a SOUND MIND.

2nd Timothy 1:7, "

For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind.

" Harvest Baptist Church of Guam is not of a sound mind, lacking having the sound doctrine of Christ. Any theology which does not offer the immediate absolute assurance of salvation is wrong! Kindly said, [4]Dr. Steve Pettit (president of Bob Jones University since 2014), heretically said to 2,700 Bob Jones University students and faculty on January 26, 2015:

> "You can't just speak about getting saved, and you accepted Christ, and then that's it! There is a justification; There is a sanctification; There's ultimately a glorification, and though there are three parts, they are all part of the whole, and you cannot separate them. In order for you to qualify for the award, you have to get into the race, you have to stay in the race, and you have to finish the race. If you want to win, you have to run to the end; and winning in the Christian life is everything, because if you lose—if you don't finish—you lose everything—you lose your SOUL. And so, the Christian race is the life of faith that begins, is run, and is finished when we cross over into Heaven!" [emphasis added] —Dr. Steve Pettit ("What Does It Mean To Run 'The Race'?" - [5]11:34)

Dear reader, Dr. Steve Pettit was inspired by demons when he said that! Salvation is not an award that you must qualify for. Salvation is a miraculous new birth in response to one's faith alone in Jesus Christ. Receiving God's free gift of eternal life (Romans 5:15-18; 6:23; Ephesians 2:8-9) is not something that you "WIN" to obtain. Salvation is NOT a race! According to Mr. Pettit, you cannot KNOW that you are assured of Heaven until the end of life, after you have labored faithfully to RUN THE RACE. This is a 100 % false gospel, based upon human self-righteousness, and not the imputed righteousness of God by faith alone in Christ. Philippians 3:9, "And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:"

Sadly, BJU is corrupt theologically. Satan has crept in, taken control of the pulpit, and [6]BJU is the fountainhead today of the Westcott and Hort Greek. Along with corruptible seed you get corrupt doctrines!!! Mark Twain was so right, who said: "What one generation tolerates the next generation will embrace." Our Bible colleges are the main source of heresies today creeping into the churches!!! The most dangerous place for a Christian is in Bible college. You show me a preacher who denies the inspiration and infallibility of the King James Bible, and I'll guarantee you that he was messed with in some SEMINARY that shook his faith in the Holy Bible!!! [7]Pastor Jack Hyles admits that theologians from seminary had him messed-up as a young preacher!!! I tell you that the King James Bible is inspired, perfect and infallible!!!

If the Bible today is not perfect and infallible, then God is a liar, because He PROMISED in Psalm 12:6-7 to keep and preserve His pure Word forever!!! If God's Words are no longer very pure (perfect - Psalm 119:140), then they have not been kept and preserved. What good would inspiration be, if God's inspired perfect Words lost their perfection and inspiration as men mishandled the Bible over the centuries? It would totally defeat the purpose of God inspiring His Word. Inspiration simply means that they are God's Word, not man's. I am tired of hearing preachers attack the King James Bible, falsely claiming that it is the best but not infallible. If that be true, then inspiration means absolutely nothing!!! This is why every modern Devil's Bible dishonestly [8]remove God's solemn promise from Psalm 12:6-7.

Dear reader, and you are dear to my soul, God has given us a sound Bible today. How can any believer have a sound mind if we have to search through a dozen different Bible versions to find the truth? Is it the truth? Which rendering? Do you just pick and choose your favorite Bible? Sadly, I literally heard Pastor Marty Herron at Harvest Baptist Church of Guam apologize to his church congregation one day. It was a Sunday morning and he was surfing the internet during the special music. Afterwards, Pastor Herron told everyone that he wasn't surfing the internet, he was searching through different versions of the Bible to prepare his sermon. Oh boy! That's ridiculous folks.

Pastor Jack Hyles makes this very important observation, about the psychological damage being caused by the never-ending rash of new Bible translations being published:

> "You'd be shocked if you knew, how the versions of the Bible that are coming out, which are so unnecessary and not even Bible. You'd be shocked if you knew what they're doing to cause Christian people to feel subconsciously unstable. You'd be shocked if you knew what it's doing to the nervous system of our people! All these Bibles!" —Pastor Jack Hyles, MP3 sermon, "[9]Don't Chase The Pendulum."

God promised a sound mind to every believer, but the Devil is going to have you confused and going all different directions of you let him! Stick to the King James Bible, and throw all that modern garbage away. Burn your [10]English Standard PERversion (ESV).

God Has Given Every Believer A Spirit Of Love

Harvest Baptist Church of Guam has written me off. Some people would say that I should just quietly go find another church, which is exactly what Pastor Marty Herron told me in 2017. But I was in love with their school nurse, Kris, and she only attended Harvest...lol. What do you mean, “

Go elsewhere.

” Not a chance Buster Brown! I’m not going anywhere! When an independent Baptist church is so drastically different doctrinally, that they want you to go elsewhere, SOMTHING IS VERY WRONG IN CHRIKSTENDOM!!!

I mean, there is only ONE BIBLE, right? (Matthew 4:4). There is only ONE GOD, right? (Deuteronomy 6:4). There is only ONE MEDIATOR, right? (1st Timothy 2:5-6). There is only ONE GOSPEL, right? (Galatians 1:6-9). There is only ONE CHURCH, right? (1st Timothy 3:15). So why in the world would the pastors of Harvest Baptist Church on Guam tell me to go find a different church that agrees with me? Folks, humbly said, I am a graduate of Hyles-Anderson College (1985-1993). I have an earned Bachelor’s degree in Pastoral Theology. I also have an earned Master’s Degree in Theology from Christian International Ministries (CIM). I only enrolled in their school because my father earned his theology degrees from them, so I trusted them. I did all the work to earn a Doctorate Of Ministry degree from CIM, but when Bill Hamon preached alongside Benny Hinn, I’d had enough and forsook those devils.

My point is that I am 100 % Independent fundamental Baptist in my doctrine, yet I am not welcomed at the Harvest Baptist Church of Guam. The reason why is because they are incompetent pastors, who have been corrupted by Calvinists. [11]Pastor John MacArthur boasts of being a 5-point Calvinist!!! That is so horrible. [12]Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) refutes all 5-points of Calvinism. Calvinism is of the Devil, all 5 points. John Calvin (1509-1564) was an infidel in the pulpit, who is infamous for literally murdering 58 people who disagreed with him doctrinally. So much for living a changed life as proof of salvation!!!

Dear friend, God has not given us the demonic spirit of fear, corrupt doctrine or weakness. The Bible says I can do ALL THINGS THROUGH CHRIST, which strengtheneth me. Philippians 4:13, “I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me.” I am a very loving man. I wish the Harvest Baptist Church of Guam wouldn’t shun me away. I truly am not their enemy. They have missed out on having a good friend all these years. I will be the first to admit that I am not perfect. I am a perfect sinner! I get a bit emotional sometimes, because I am a passionate person with a big heart, a preacher’s heart. When I attended Harvest for a year in 2013-2014, I cried often in church. My friends often saw my face covered in tears after the church service. I wept like a baby during the Lord’s Supper, feeling so unworthy. Jesus is worthy (Revelation 5:4-9). Amen! WORTHY IS THE LAMB!!!

I loved my church family. In 2017 I fell in love with Abby the moment I saw her moving the neighbor’s lawn. I’ve wanted to date and marry her ever since, but she won’t have anything to do with me because of the tense situation between Harvest’s pastors and me. This is all on them, not me. I have always expressed a sincere desire to befriend them. The big problem is that [13]Calvinism (aka, Lordship Salvation) is NOT compatible with grace. Calvinism is [14]not compatible with the Gospel!!!

I love you all in the Bob Jones camp. God knows that I am simply trying to help you. Calvinism perverts God’s grace and must be rooted out and exposed. John Calvin was a modern-day Cain, trying to impress God with his self-righteousness. If you have to look at your life to prove that you’re saved, it just proves that you’re not. I didn’t say that, God did! Romans 4:4, “Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt.” Let him that hath eats to hear, hear. To God be the glory. I love you all. 1st Corinthians 16:24, “ My love be with you all in Christ Jesus. Amen. ”

2.6.2 Repenting Of Your Sins Will Keep You Out Of Heaven (2021-06-02 23:01)

Acts 15:1 and 24, “

And certain men which came down from Judaea taught the brethren, and said, Except ye be circumcised after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved. ...Forasmuch as we have heard, that certain which went out from us have troubled you with words, subverting your souls, saying, Ye must be circumcised, and keep the law: to whom we gave no such commandment:

Dear reader, there is not one mention in the King James Bible about repenting of your sins to be saved. We do read about repentance TOWARD GOD in Acts 20:21, “Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ.

” We do read about repentance to the acknowledgment of THE TRUTH in 2nd Timothy 2:25,

“In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth;” But we do not find anything in the Holy Bible about repenting, nor turning away from, our sins to receive God’s free gift of eternal life.

So you see, anybody who adds “ turning away from your sins

to be saved is perverting the Gospel of free grace! This is no trifle matter. Neo-evangelicals like the Bob Jones University crowd today, make light of this issue, sinfully bidding Godspeed to damnable false teachers like Pastor John MacArthur. Dear friend, if you have repented of your sins to get to Heaven, you are NOT a born-again Christian and you assuredly WON’T go to Heaven when you die.

Adding repentance from sins is equivalent to adding the works of the law to be saved. They are one and the same! What do you think “ the works of the law

are? What saith the Scripture? Romans 3:19-20,

“Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God. Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin.”

I am sick and tired of these middle of the road type of preachers today, like [1]Dr. Kevin Bauder, who [2]claim that Lordship Salvation still falls [3]within the acceptable realm of orthodox Christians. No, it does not! [4]Lordship Salvation is a deadly perversion of God’s grace! (awesome writing by Pastor Curtis Hutson, 1934-1995).

2.6.3 How Neo Evangelicals Are Damning The Next Generation (2021-06-03 09:30)

Proverbs 22:28, “Remove not the ancient landmark, which thy fathers have set.” Matthew 4:4, “But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.” Revelation 3:2, “Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God.”

Kindly said, God’s curse is upon Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary. It should be cemetery!

God’s curse is upon Bob Jones University.

God’s curse is upon is upon the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam.

God’s curse is upon Moody Bible Institute. All of these pseudo-Christian organizations promote multiple Bible revisions, which is a disgrace, and proves just how theologically incompetent they all are. Look what Voltaire the infamous atheist said:

> **“
> The Bible is not the inspired, inerrant and 100 % historically true words of God ” —
>
> Voltaire (French philosopher and atheist, 1694-1778)
>
> “ If we would destroy the Christian religion, we must first of all destroy man’s belief in the Bible. ”
>
> **—
> Voltaire (French philosopher and atheist, 1694-1778)

When you hear a preacher or Bible professor claim that Bible translations are no longer inspired today, and that only the original autographs were inspired, remember that they are in agreement with Voltaire! Folks, we don't have any originals anymore!!!

In his well written article, The Two Lies, Bible believer Daryl R. Coats rightly says:

> "If the Bible were inspired only in the original manuscripts, no one today really knows for sure what is in 'the Bible' because no one today has ever seen the original manuscripts."

[1]Sam Kobia, Secretary, World Council Of Churches, ENI 1-23-04:

> "Having a variety of translations available encourages the Bible to be read in a plural and ecumenical way. HAVING A VARIETY OF TRANSLATIONS AVAILABLE IS A PRECIOUS TOOL IN THE STRUGLE AGAINST RELIGIOUS FUNDAMENTALISM." (Caps are mine)

Did you understand that? In other words, the Devil intentionally published a bunch of English Bible revisions to destroy people's Christian faith! All these Neo-evangelicals today, like the shameful Bob Jones University camp, are destroying churches! We've got a bunch of incompetent, cold-hearted, academics today who woefully lack compassion, because they've been trained by people in Bible colleges who've never built churches!!! [2]Pastor Jack Hyles said that truth, and he was so right!!!

The explosion of modern versions has encouraged the student to pick and choose his own preferred readings and has created a tendency to treat every Bible lightly and to look upon none as the final words of God. This is the great danger of using, and the incalculable harm done by, the modern Bible revisions! [3]Occultist Alice Bailey (1880-1949) said the goal of Theosophists (Luciferians) is to infiltrate the churches, and to lead young people into a superficial form of spirituality without organized religion or dogma (sound doctrine). The goal of Luciferians is to prepare the world to receive the coming Antichrist, who "shall honour the God of forces" (new age), according to Daniel 11:38b. Evangelist Will Kinney states:

> Not surprisingly, this is the attitude behind every English 'Bible' published since 1611. "We can only follow the best judgment of competent scholars as to the most probable reconstruction of the original text," says the preface to the RSV, too deceitful to define just what a "competent scholar" is and to cut through the double-talk and admit, "This is what we think the Bible might be."
> The number of professing Christians who do not believe in a "hold it in your hands and read" type of inspired Bible has steadily increased over the years since the flood of multiple-choice, conflicting and contradictory modern bible versions began to appear about 100 years ago. The following testimonies about the character of Evangelicalism today were made by key Evangelical leaders. The irony is that these same men are part of the problem they lament. Each of these men has been guilty of endorsing modern bible versions:

"MORE AND MORE ORGANIZATIONS AND INDIVIDUALS HISTORICALLY COMMITTED TO AN INFALLIBLE SCRIPTURE HAVE BEEN EMBRACING AND PROPAGATING THE VIEW THAT THE BIBLE HAS ERRORS IN IT. This movement away from the historic standpoint has been most noticeable among those often labeled Neo-evangelicals. This change of position with respect to the infallibility of the Bible is widespread and has occurred in evangelical denominations, Christian colleges, theological seminaries, publishing houses and learned societies" (Dr. Harold Lindsell, former vice-president and professor at Fuller Theological Seminary and Editor Emeritus of Christianity Today; The Battle For The Bible, 1976, p. 20).

"WITHIN EVANGELICALISM THERE ARE A GROWING NUMBER WHO ARE MODIFYING THEIR VIEWS ON THE INERRANCY OF THE BIBLE SO THAT THE FULL AUTHORITY OF SCRIPTURE IS COMPLETELY UNDERCUT. But is happening in very subtle ways. Like the snow lying side-by-side on the ridge, the new views on Biblical authority often seem at first glance not to be very far from what evangelicals, until just recently, have always believed. But also, like the snow lying side-by-side on the ridge, the new views when followed consistently end up a thousand miles apart. What may seem like a minor difference at first, in the end makes all the difference in the world ... compromising the full authority of Scripture eventually affects what it means to be a Christian theologically and how we live in the full spectrum of human life" (Francis Schaeffer, The Great Evangelical Disaster, 1983, p. 44).

The surest way to ruin the faith of the next generation is to deny the inspiration of the King James Bible in this generation. Mark Twain wisely said: “What one generation tolerates the next generation will embrace.” The First Baptist Church Of Hammond, Indiana (FBCH) has denied the inspiration of the King James Bible since 2008. They are trying to compensate by focusing on soulwinning. Although I am excited about the soulwinning, I also know that by removing the ancient landmark (Proverbs 22:28), the FBCH and Hyles-Anderson College (HAC) will change down the road.

This generation has sinfully chosen to embrace the ungodly doctrine of Voltaire, claiming that we do not have an inspired Bible today. The next natural progression is to accept multiple Bible versions, like Bob Jones University has been shamefully doing for decades now. When the new Bible revisions are accepted, the heresy of Lordship Salvation comes with the new Bibles, and then I-chabod will be written over the church! That means: “The glory of the Lord has departed”! FBCH today are condemning the next generation to go liberal, by denying the inspiration of the Holy Bible. Already FBCH and HAC are silent about the evils and dangers of the Devil’s Bibles. If Pastor Al Lacy (1933-2016) were alive today, they’d never invite him to speak at FBCH and HAC, but Brother Jack Hyles did in 1995, and I was there!!! The very core of Christian Fundamentalism is the belief in a perfect, infallible and inspired Holy Bible!!!

In case you missed his quote earlier, [5]Sam Kobia, Secretary, World Council Of Churches , said on January 23, 2004:

> "Having a variety of translations available encourages the Bible to be read in a plural and ecumenical way. HAVING A VARIETY OF TRANSLATIONS AVAILABLE IS A PRECIOUS TOOL IN THE STRUGLE AGAINST RELIGIOUS FUNDAMENTALISM." (Caps are mine)

The Neo-evangelical Bob Jones University crowd are drilling holes in the bottom of the boat, while we Fundamentalists are trying to keep the ship from sinking!

2.6.4 Refuting Pastor James L. Melton On Repentance (2021-06-05 17:44)

Romans 4:3-7, "For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness. Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt. But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness. Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works, Saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered."

Kindly, said, Pastor James L. Melton is WRONG on Bible repentance for salvation! I just uploaded this helpful excerpt from [1]Pastor Max Younce exposing John MacArthur and the Lordship Salvation heresy. GOOD STUFF!!! What James Melton is teaching is the Devil's lie of CALVINISM!

- Roman Catholics teach that salvation is by FAITH PLUS WORKS.
- Calvinists teach that salvation is by FAITH THAT WORKS.
- The Holy Bible teaches that salvation is by FAITH WITHOUT WORKS! (Romans 4:4-6; Ephesians 2:8-9; Titus 3:5).

What saith the Scripture? Titus 3:5, "

Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost;

I am so sick and tired of hearing these confused pastors, like James Melton and [2]Charles Lawson, teach that it is not a work to require people to turn away from their sins to PROVE that they are saved. Here are Pastor James Melton's own words, so you can see and decide for yourself dear reader. Some of the things he says are true, but some are blatantly false. I will comment afterwards, to refute his false teachings:

> THE REPENTANCE INTERVIEW
>
> By far, the most misunderstood and misrepresented position of our ministry is that of Biblical repentance. We believe that literally MILLIONS of people remain lost and will perish in the fires of hell after being led to believe that they were saved as a result of repeating an empty prayer with no Holy Ghost conviction. We call this EMPTY BELIEVISM. This unfortunate reality is due to the fact that thousands of self-professed "soul winners" have very little spiritual discernment and are not following the leadership of the Holy Spirit. They are robotic religious salesmen who produce far more fake converts than genuine converts. The following is a straight-forward approach to making our beliefs clear for anyone who has been misinformed or anyone who just simply needs honest answers. This was first published as a Facebook post in April, 2019, then posted as a standing page on our web site shortly afterwards . . .
>
> If I (JLM) were to incorporate into one interview many of the questions that I've received from empty believists, the dialog would go something like this . . .
>
> QUESTION: Do you believe that repentance is only a change of mind?
>
> ANSWER: No, because "only a change of mind" is impossible. If a mind truly changes, then results will follow. If a man really makes up his mind to get out of bed and go to work, then he gets up and goes to work. If he doesn't, then it's because he made up his mind to NOT go to work. A "change of mind" isn't a change of mind unless it's real with real results. Empty believists like the "change of mind" definition for repentance only because one cannot read another's mind; therefore, they can get away with calling fake converts "professions of faith," something that the word of God does NOT call them.

QUESTION: But doesn't your wording "results will follow" amount to adding works as a requirement for salvation?

ANSWER: No, because the works are not done in order TO BE saved, but rather as a RESULT of one being saved. Faith without works is dead (James 2:26), and by their fruit ye shall know them (Mat. 7:20).

QUESTION: But how much fruit should we see before we can rest assured that a man is really saved?

ANSWER: You probably need to ask the Lord about that, since He's the one who said it, not me. Personally, at first, I am content with seeing some sign of spiritual life that I have not seen before: a Bible question once in a while, a visit to church services, a desire to be baptized, or maybe a concern about sin and holy living. Any of these would indicate the possible presence of a new creature living inside that is beginning to grow. As that growth continues, we should expect to see the fruit of the spirit listed in Galatians 5:22-23.

QUESTION: And if none of those things ever happen, nor anything else of a spiritual nature, then you believe the person is still lost?

ANSWER: That's correct.

QUESTION: But how can you know their heart?

ANSWER: How can YOU reject Matthew 7:20, II Corinthians 5:17, Titus 1:16, Matthew 3:8, Acts 26:20 and James 2:26? The Bible TOLD you how to know their heart (by their fruits, or works), yet you reject this holy standard so you can keep tallying-up false professions and bragging about them to your IFB brethren.

QUESTION: But aren't you confusing standing with state?

ANSWER: No, I've understood standing and state longer than some of you have been alive. I'm taking both into account, as do the verses that I just referenced. If a man is truly standing in Christ, then there will be some evidence of it in his state. Pretty simple.

QUESTION: But doesn't that deal more with sanctification than salvation?

ANSWER: I never said it dealt with salvation. I said that fruit will FOLLOW salvation as an EVIDENCE OF salvation. Call it sanctification, or anything you like, but it will follow salvation, if the salvation is real. When "all things" become new (II Cor. 5:17), something will surely be noticed!

QUESTION: Do you question the motives of those that you term "empty believists"?

ANSWER: I question the motives of some of them, and I question the character and intelligence of most all of them.

QUESTION: Why would you question their character and intelligence?

ANSWER: The soul of every human being is precious, and each one deserves to be handled with the utmost care and compassion. Empty believists are little more than high-pressure religious salesmen who view souls as mere numbers. I find this despicable, and I question the character of anyone who doesn't find it despicable, regardless of their church size or their social standing with the brethren. As for their intelligence, I have found that a great many of them lack basic reading, comprehension and reasoning skills, at least on any adult level. Whether they were born that way or they became that way, I do not know. I suspect that maybe God took the sound minds of some of them after they rejected His words and chose IFB tradition instead, but I do not know.

QUESTION: Do you believe they are lost?

ANSWER: Some of them are probably lost, yes, perhaps many of them, but not all, and probably not most.

QUESTION: If you could have one prayer answered in regards to your "empty believe" opponents, what would it be?

ANSWER: I would ask that everyone GET ALONE by pulling away from their favorite preachers, colleges and camps for a few months and do a lot of personal soul searching, praying and Bible studying at the throne of grace. That's where wisdom is found and genuine Christian men of character are built. I fear that most empty believists know very little about this on a PERSONAL level, and they never will until they overcome their religious peer pressure and become MEN of rock-solid Biblical conviction who know how to stand and fight alone.

QUESTION: Do you believe that will ever happen?

ANSWER: Sadly, no.

"Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte, and when he is made, ye make him twofold more the child of hell than yourselves" - The Lord Jesus Christ, Matthew 23:15

SOURCE: [3]Facebook, James L. Melton, 'The Repentance Interview'

[4]

First, Pastor Melton unfortunately hangs himself theologically in the very first question and answer given, by openly denying that repentance means a change of mind. The Greek noun for "repent" is [5]metanoia, which means "

a change of mind.

Regarding repentance, Melton is half right. The Devil's most effective lie is the half-truth, because in part it can be defended with incontestable logic. It is true that a change of mind (beyond the meaning of repentance itself) must logically result in some type of action, but that biblical action is to simply BELIEVE the Gospel to be saved, nothing else. The object of repentance is BELIEVING.

Pastor Melton errantly says it refers to a change of lifestyle, which is a false plan of salvation. He is wrong on repentance!

In his second question and answer, Pastor Melton quotes James 2:26 (faith without works is dead) and Matthew 7:20 (by their fruit ye shall know them). These Scripture passages speak about being justified in the sight of men, not God. With God we can only be justified BY FAITH (Habakkuk 2:4; Acts 10:43, 13:39; Galatians 3:26). If you have to look at your life to prove that you're saved, it proves that you're not! Eternal life is the free gift of God (Romans 5:15-18, 6:23). The truth is that a believer SHOULD do good works Titus 2:12; not MUST (that is works); not WILL (that is Calvinism).

The Bible is filled with examples of horrible saints. Lot was a sinful man, who got drunk and impregnanted his two daughters. David stole a man's wife, got her pregnant unintentionally, and then had her husband murdered to cover up his evil. This is the man after God's own heart. We are allowed in the Bible to see their entire life, which only God can see. But if it weren't for the divine spotlight that God gives to us in the Bible, to see their complete lives before, during and after, then we would never know that some of them were even saints. Solomon lives a very sinful life of sexual perversion. Samson chased harlots his entire life! This was God's man (Judges 16:1).

As you read earlier, Pastor Melton examines a professed believer's life, and rejects them as saved, regardless of their profession of faith in Jesus Christ if he doesn't see evidence. The big problem with Melton's ideas is that Satan does imitate the things of God (2nd Corinthians 11:13-15). Anything that an unsaved person can imitate cannot be used as "

that someone is saved. Can an unsaved person do good works? Yes. Can an unsaved person read the Bible? Yes. Can an unsaved person speak religious lingo? Yes. In fact, an unsaved person can imitate anything a Christian can do, except one thing. An unbeliever does not have the indwelling Holy Spirit of God. 1st John 3:24,

" And he that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us. "

Dear reader, I want to focus now on James Melton's third question and answer, which is very disturbing, and this is really dangerous teaching. Please read it again:

> QUESTION: But how much fruit should we see before we can rest assured that a man is really saved?
>
> ANSWER: You probably need to ask the Lord about that, since He's the one who said it, not me. Personally, at first, I am content with seeing some sign of spiritual life that I have not seen before: a Bible question once in a while, a visit to church services, a desire to be baptized, or maybe a concern about sin and holy living. Any of these would indicate the possible presence of a new creature living inside that is beginning to grow. As that growth continues, we should expect to see the fruit of the spirit listed in Galatians 5:22-23.

Do you see the really big problem with what he just said? I sure do! According to Pastor Melton's foolish thinking, there is NO DEFINITE POINT at which a person can KNOW that they are saved. He even admits that he cannot answer his own question. Look for yourself at what he says... "

You probably need to ask the Lord about that.

” Huh? Well then how can anyone ever truly know that they are born-again? If we must have some degree of works evident in our life to know that we’re saved, then we can never really KNOW, can we? Melton’s Satanic teaching goes 100 % contrary to the Word of God, which teaches that every believer CAN KNOW we are saved (1st John 5:13).

Many people misunderstand the Epistle of 1st John. You need to realize that the Lord didn’t give us 1st John to become fruit inspectors, so we could go around judging who is saved or lost. The key verse of the epistle is found in

1st John 3:24,

“ And he that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us. ” Bible students lift verses like 1st John 3:8 out of context, “He that committeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil.” The question is not whether you have sin in your life (we ALL do), the question is do you have the Holy Spirit living inside you? That is a question that only you can determine. I cannot determine if you are saved, and neither can anyone else. Just because a person is living in horrible sin, or incarcerated in prison for their crimes, does not in any way indicate that they are not saved. It just means that they’re priorities in life were wrong when they made those bad choices.

I get people writing to me, wanting to know how to determine if they have the Holy Spirit in them. Friend, if you have believed the Gospel, receiving Christ’s sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, and you have trusted in the risen Savior, you have the Holy Spirit in you. How do I know that? I know because that is what the Holy Bible teaches!

> Ephesians 1:12-15, “That we should be to the praise of his glory, who first trusted in Christ. In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise, Which is the earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory.”

What a beautiful and power packed passage of Scripture! Do you see the simplicity of salvation dear friend? We get saved by simply TRUSTING JESUS, after we heard THE TRUTH OF THE GOSPEL. That is how you get saved, you simply BELIEVE the truth of the Gospel when you hear it preached. That is how 3,000 people got saved on the Day of Pentecost. Acts 2:41, “Then they that gladly received his word were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls.” That is why the Apostle Paul said to the Galatian churches in Galatians 3:2, “This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, *or by the hearing of faith?

” That is so simple. [6]Read how simple it was for Cornelius to get saved in Acts 10:43-44.

The 3,000 souls saved at Pentecost weren’t put on probation. There was no monitoring program. I wouldn’t be surprised if some of these crazy Lordship Salvation churches require their members to wear ankle bracelets, to monitor their activities to see if they’re really saved. Where does this insanity end? All my life I have heard wicked religious people accuse others of NOT BEING SAVED, because of sin in that person’s life. I assure you biblically that the greater sin is in the wicked hearts of the people pointing their fingers (Matthew 7:1-5). 1st Timothy 5:24, “ Some men’s sins are open beforehand, going before to judgment; and some men they follow after." You are a dirty, guilty and loathsome sinner, just like everybody else! Christ died for ALL men, because we are ALL ungodly sinners (1st John 1:10; Romans 5:6-9).

I cannot warn you enough dear reader to RUN away from the false teachings of James L. Melton on repentance. True repentance is a change of mind that compels a person to BELIEVE the Gospel, period. The life that you choose to live afterwards as a child of God is strictly a matter of sanctification, and not justification. Repentance and faith are inseparable. The man who believes has repented, and the man who repents has believed.

Dr. John R. Rice Is Right That The Man Who Believes Has Repented

Dr. John R. Rice said it very well:

> There are those hyper-dispensationalists who think that John the Baptist preached a different Gospel from Christ when he commanded repentance (Matt. 3:2). But it is the same repentance Jesus commanded in Matthew 4:17, in Luke 13:3 and 5, and the same repentance that Paul preached in Athens that God "now commandeth all men every where to repent" (Acts 17:30 31). Repentance is not a different plan of salvation from having faith: it is part of the same plan of salvation*. Or rather repentance is simply another way of describing or looking at the plan of salvation. One who turns from sin to God has done so by trusting in Jesus Christ. A change of mind toward sin is necessarily involved in saving faith.
> Everyone who genuinely repented under the preaching of John the Baptist put his trust in the Saviour John the Baptist preached, and was regenerated. There is no such thing as being "a disciple of John the Baptist" in any honest sense without being a disciple of Jesus, that is, without trusting Christ for salvation. [emphasis added]

Please don't miss it! I have heard [7]Missionary David W. Cloud and other false teachers, attempt to portray Dr. Rice as a proponent of Lordship Salvation, saying he taught that people must turn away from a lifestyle of sin to be saved. David Cloud even goes as far as to pitch Dr. John R. Rice against his successor Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995). I explain this issue in the preceding hyperlink. Mr. Cloud claims that Curtis Hutson leaves off repentance, thus corrupting the Gospel. [8]Nothing could be further from the truth. Also, please read, [9]Dr. John R. Rice Refutes Lordship Salvation .

Granted, I don't agree with Dr. Rice's mention of "turning from sin," because that language is not found anywhere in the King James Bible. But Dr. Rice makes it plain that the person who BELIEVES has turned from sin. So Dr. Rice clearly DIDN'T think that a person must turn away from sinful behavior to be saved. Nor did Dr. Rice believe that you must clean up your life of sin (reform) to prove that you are saved. Dr. Rice believed that the only way to determine if someone is saved, is by the direct testimony from their mouth concerning Jesus Christ. I fully agree. It is falsehood to examine a person's life to determine if they are saved. A Christian's walk ought to validate their talk (Matthew 5:16), but if it doesn't, only God knows if they are saved or not. Lordship Salvation is of the Devil. Misunderstood Repentance is of the Devil.

To be saved, you must think differently to believe the Good News (i.e., Jesus died on the cross to pay for our sins, He was buried and physically resurrected three days later). We are saved by believing, not by repenting; but repentance makes believing possible. If you didn't change your mind about whatever it is that has been preventing you from believing, then you wouldn't have come to Christ to be forgiven and saved. The only thing you need to change your mind about is whatever has been hindering you from believing.

Unbelief is the only thing that keeps a person from believing. To require that someone commit to turning away from living a lifestyle of sin, has absolutely nothing to do with receiving God's free gift of eternal life. I hope you see that. False teachers like John MacArthur, Steve Pettit, Marty Herron, James White, James L. Melton, Bryan Denlinger, Sam Horn, John Piper, Ray Comfort, Gary Walton, Kirk Cameron and R.C. Sproul, unbiblically require people to forsake a lifestyle of sinning to get saved, or to prove that they are really saved, which is heresy. Salvation is a take proposition, not a give proposition.

Out Baptist churches today are filled with people who are very ecumenical, accepting and bidding Godspeed to all manner of heresy, false teachers, counterfeit Bible versions and other gospels. Sadly, anybody who professes faith alone in Christ alone by grace alone is embraced as being a true Christian; yet many of these so-called "Christians" adhere to a very different plan of salvation than what is clearly taught in the King James Bible. I have just shown you two Baptist churches, whose Statement of Faith add turning away from sins to the Gospel, corrupting the simplicity that is in Christ by faith alone.

Most churches are in denial today. While they insist that salvation is a free gift that cannot be earned, at the same time they also insist that you turn away from sinning to receive it. I can take you to the Mormon, Roman Catholic, Jehovah's Witness, Church of Christ and Seventh-Day Adventist websites to show you where [10]they all insist that salvation is obtained solely by God's grace. Yet, all of these false religions require some form of works for salvation, or to prove that you are really saved by performing works. The Word of God teaches the exact opposite, that a person is saved solely BY FAITH and nothing else is required…

> Romans 3:20-26, "Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin. But now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets; Even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference: For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God; Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus: Whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God; To declare, I say, at this time his righteousness: that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus."

Repeatedly in the Bible we are taught simply to BELIEVE on the only begotten Son of God (John 3:16). Nowhere are we told to repent "of our sins" to be saved. NOWHERE!!! In closing, let me repeat these doctrinally sound words by Evangelist John R. Rice once again. And may I say, the inspired Scriptures are our final and only authority in all doctrinal and moral matters. You'll find those inspired words only in the King James Bible today. Having said that, Dr. Rice gets it 100 % correct here, in my humble opinion as a fundamentalist Baptist preacher:

> “Repentance is not a different plan of salvation from having faith: it is part of the same plan of salvation. Or rather repentance is simply another way of describing or looking at the plan of salvation. One who turns from sin to God has done so by trusting in Jesus Christ*. A change of mind toward sin is necessarily involved in saving faith.” [emphasis added]
> SOURCE: Evangelist John R. Rice, “Acts: Filled With The Spirit,” pp. 251-252; Sword Of The Lord, Murfreesboro, Tennessee; ©1963

Repentance is not a separate act from believing, but one and the same. This is the great Bible truth which is woefully lacking in thousands of Baptist churches today, perverting the simple Gospel of free grace. God bless you dear friend, and thank you from my heart for reading this humble sinner’s writings. To God alone be the glory!

2.6.5 Wicked People Dismiss God's Miracles As Coincidence (2021-06-06 09:30)

Joshua 10:12-14, "

Then spake Joshua to the LORD in the day when the LORD delivered up the Amorites before the children of Israel, and he said in the sight of Israel, Sun, stand thou still upon Gibeon; and thou, Moon, in the valley of Ajalon.

And there was no day like that before it or after it, that the LORD hearkened unto the voice of a man: for the LORD fought for Israel.

I read something disturbing today in The Times Of Israel, attributing the miracle of the sun standing still for a day in the Old Testament book of Joshua, as a mere eclipse:

> 'Joshua stopped the sun' 3,224 years ago today, scientists say
>
> Cambridge researchers announced Monday that they have pinpointed the date of the biblical account of Joshua stopping the sun — which they claim is the day of the oldest eclipse ever recorded — to October 30, 1207 BCE, exactly 3,224 years ago.
>
> SOURCE:
>

Dear reader, that is untrue! It was not an eclipse. God worked a miracle per request by Joshua, so that Israel could finish the battle before sunset! The Bible says that Joshua commanded for the sun and moon to stand still for a reason, so they could have light to fight. The Bible says the Israelites kept fighting against the Amorites until they won the battle! God was the One Who gave them the victory.

> We might say, "How little Joshua knew." But he knew his God! He knew that God had promised to go before His people to fight their battles and give them victory (Joshua 10:8). And in this battle he saw victory in its grasp, but time was running out. If he didn't conquer the enemy before dark, they would regroup and attack Israel the next day. Knowing his God, his Gods power, and his Gods promise, he called out to God for help, and in the presence of all Israel, he commanded the "sun to stand still." But the sun was already standing still, Joshua. It is the earth that moves, not the sun. Why didn't Joshua cry out, "Earth quit moving," or "Earth, slow down your spinning on your axis to prolong time."
>
> Joshua had no idea that his command slowed down 6.6 sextrillion tons of spinning gravel and water to give Israel victory over her enemies. But Joshua did know something that God had revealed to him. Over 3,000 years ago he said something that would have met the approval of todays scientific establishment. His command in the Hebrew language was not "Sun, stand thou still," but "Sun, cease acting, or "Sun, stop working." It was then that the gravitational pull of the sun affected the earth. It was then the earth began to slow down and the day was lengthened.

SOURCE: (Robert Boyd, Boyds Bible Handbook, Eugene, Oregon: Harvest House, 1983 p. 124).

Furthermore, if you want to look at science, there has [3]never been an eclipse of the sun longer than 7 minutes and 32 seconds. The Bible says that the sun stood still for one whole day. So this couldn't have been a mere eclipse, if you want to only talk about science and deny a miracle working God. The Bible says it was a miracle of God, which causes the sun to stand still for 24 hours. Did the earth stop rotating? I do not know. The Bible says that the sun stood still, but if the earth was still turning, then the sun would have moved. I am not an astronomer, but I do know a little bit about astronomy. I know that BOTH the earth and the sun are always moving. So for the sun to stand still, both the sun and moon would have had to cease moving. Dear friend, all we need to know is that THE SUN STOOD STILL FOR 24 HOURS!

I feel sorry for lost sinners who don't believe in a miracle working God. ...

Romans 1:20-23, "

For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse:

Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened.

Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools*,

And changed the glory of the uncorruptible God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and fourfooted beasts, and creeping things. "

The wacky ideas of evolution are blatant fraud! It is indeed very disturbing when wicked people attempt to explain away a miracle working God. I bought the wonderful 1956 classic movie "The Ten Commandments," starring actor Charlton Heston (1923-2008). I have the special edition which comes with 2 CD's. The second disk explains how they made the film. It is very interesting. After completing the film, producer Cecil B. DeMille (1881-1959) ordered the stage destroyed, so it couldn't be used in another film. But something that disturbed me and mad me sad, was that on the second disk a woman explains away all the miracles of God. She gives scientific explanations for all of the 10 plagues on Egypt.

She says in the documentary about the movie that a volcano erupted. The lava allegedly turned the local waters in Egypt red like blood. This natural disaster, as she claims, drove the frogs from their natural habit, invading Egypt with frogs. On and on she went, dismissing all the wonderful miracles of almighty God as mere coincidences of science. Dear reader, that is a wicked thing to do! I wouldn't want to be in her shoes on judgment day, when she faces God someday in eternity (Romans 14:10-12; Ecclesiastes 12:13-14; Proverbs 24:12; Hebrews 4:13; Matthew 12:36).

I feel sorry for The Times Of Israel, who attempt to dismiss a miracle working God. Joshua ordered the sun to stand still, and God honored his request. Genesis 18:14, "

Is any thing too hard for the LORD?

At the time appointed I will return unto thee, according to the time of life, and Sarah shall have a son. " No dear friend, there is NOTHING too hard for the Lord to do. God is a miracle working God!!! Whether He wants to do a miracle in response to our prayer is a different matter entirely. As believers we ought to live BY FAITH.

I trust the Lord by faith. That means I KNOW my God does miracles. I pray to God about many things. Whether He chooses to answer is not my concern, that is solely the Lord's department. If we pray and then quit praying, because we don't see the results we expected, then we are sinfully walking BY SIGHT (2nd Corinthians 5:7). "THE JUST SHALL LIVE BY HIS FAITH" (Habakkuk 2:4b).

2.6.6 Walking With God Is The Answer To Everything (2021-06-09 09:30)

Psalms 1:1-6, "Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.

But his delight is in the law of the LORD; and in his law doth he meditate day and night.

And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.

The ungodly are not so: but are like the chaff which the wind driveth away.

Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

For the LORD knoweth the way of the righteous: but the way of the ungodly shall perish.

The level of wickedness is shocking in 2021 in the United States. America's hook-up culture is in full swing. Marriage is at an all-time low. A nation cannot survive moral subversion. We hear a lot of talk from the media about "conspiracies theories" and "cults" when anyone tells THE TRUTH that the 911 World Trade Center attack was an Inside Job. But the media won't dare tell you that [1]Firefighter Rudy Dent, a 32 year retired New York City fire department investigator said 911 was an Inside Job himself. You need to understand that the mainstream media has been consolidated over the past couple decades and is controlled by a single Luciferian source. 2nd Corinthians 4:4 identifies Satan as the god of this world. If you believe the Holy Bible, then you know this is NOT a conspiracy theory. Satan inspires the evil in the world.

These are perilous times (2nd Timothy 3:1-7). These are confusing times. We live in an [2]insane gender-bending culture today that is sinking lower and lower each day into wickedness. Daniel 8:25b says that the coming Antichrist **"

by peace shall destroy many

." It's not difficult to understand what this Bible passage means.

Peter H. Gilmore, former high priest in the Church of Satan, disturbingly but truthfully stated...

> “America is absolutely a Satanic nation, by our definition. Iraq is yet another spiritually oriented nation that is ruled by a despot — business-as-usual considering the history of the governments on this world. We see the U.S. as being very unique in history, the world’s first Satanic republic, and so it is important to many Satanists.” [emphasis added] [3]SOURCE

It is interesting that the Satanists would declare America as an "absolutely Satanic nation." Is America a Satanic nation? What is even more disturbing is why they consider America a Satanic nation. What they [Satanists] essentially believe, is that life should be lived in the pursuit of pleasures, and we only get one chance to do it. Sounds like America to us. This was the [4]Satanic warped mindset of Playboy founder Hugh Hefner (1926-2017). If you go research online you’ll also find that Satanists’ Anton LaVey (1930-1997) and Aleister Crowley (1875-1947) held the same self-pleasuring ungodly view of life: DO AS THOU WILT SHALL BE THE WHOLE OF THE LAW! That was Aleister Crowley’s life’s motto.

Yes, the United States is truly a Satanic nation today! By peace (freedom) we are destroying ourselves. When the Man of Sin (the Antichrist) comes, he will simply be the fulfillment of where all this present-day [5]evil insanity is leading. We’ve seen a rash of shootings in 2021. President Joe Biden and other liberals are using these tragedies to begin the process of banning firearms. This is a dangerous trend that is just beginning. President Biden is totally bypassing congress, using executive orders to beginning the ban on guns. This is how liberty dies!!! Gun control will NOT make anyone safer. As long as U.S. citizens are legally permitted to buy and own firearms, there will be incidents. There will be mass shootings. It is a human nature problem, not a gun problem. John Adams (1735-1826), the second U.S. President wisely said:

> “We have not government armed with power capable of contending with human passions unbridled by morality and religion. Our Constitution was made only for a moral and religious people. It is wholly inadequate to the government of any other.” [emphasis added] —U.S. President John Adams

In other words, you can pass all the news laws and expand gun control all you want, but the sinful human nature cannot be tamed by laws, regulations and a police state! [6]According to Pew Research, Christianity is rapidly declining in the United States. America’s ungodly hook-up (fornication) culture today is destroying the God-ordained institution of marriage (Hebrews 13:4). Many men no longer desire to take on the risks of marriage, and there are plenty of women willing to fornicate rather than tie the knot legally. Sadly, millions of [7]millennial women are delaying having children due to their careers. The Holy Bible teaches that these career women are turned aside after Satan (1st Timothy 5:14-15).

If the U.S. government progressively takes away guns from Americans too fast, there will be a civil war. But if they incrementally do it generation to generation, each succeeding weaker generation will yield. [8]Look what happened in 1936 Spain when the people surrendered their guns to the government. The communists killed them all! The people were helpless to defend themselves. The government cannot stop crime! In a nation of well over 300,000,000 people, someone will always snap. What we really need is to put the Holy Bible and prayer back into the public schools. Children no longer have a moral compass. Instead of being taught about their Creator, they are indoctrinated with the blatant fraud of evolution, brainwashed to think there is no God. Can we really expect such a warped child, who believes he or she evolved from stardust and monkeys, to grow up with love and genuine concern for others? God is love, and those who reject God’s unconditional love have to find an inferior basis to love imperfect humans. Without faith in God life becomes meaningless (Revelation 4:11; Ecclesiastes 12:13).

I could go on and on about the immoral, woeful and sickening situation in America today. Things can only get worse folks. The Bible tells us in Revelation what is coming in the future. For that matter, we are now living in that future of Bible prophecy. We are living in prophetic times. Jesus told us in John 16:33, "These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world." Friend, Jesus is risen!!! Our blessed Savior and Lord lives. Everything is okay in my heavenly Father's house. God is still on His throne. We have nothing to fear dear reader. Psalm 47:8, " God reigneth over the heathen: God sitteth upon the throne of his holiness." God reigns over the heathen! God is ultimately in control.

In these desperate times in the world, we as believers need to walk close to God. The King James Bible has all the answers! The White House doesn't have the answers. The controlled mainstream newsmedia doesn't have the answers. Jesus is the answer to all our problems! I thank God that I am a born-again Christian.! [9]Because Jesus lives I can face tomorrow!

2.6.7 Contrition Over Sin Is Not Part Of The Gospel (2021-06-11 23:21)

Galatians 4:16, "Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?"

Dear reader, the Devil has crept into most churches today. I love the Bob Jones University crowd very much, God knows my heart, but they are pulling on the same rope as the Devil. The Harvest Baptist Church on Guam has MUCH blood on their hands, including mine. 2013-2014 was one of the happiest years of my life, and I felt loved. I thought Pastor Marty Herron was my friend, but he wasn't. I was only his friend. As Dr. Tom Ferrell says: "A friend helps a friend to see." I did just that, helping my beloved friends to see. In response, Marty Herron in an e-mail (which I still have) called me the church's "enemy." Galatians 4:16, "Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?"

For taking a faithful stand for THE TRUTH, I lost everything! I lost my church family. I lost Kris, who I know would have married me. I lost what happiness I had in my life. And sadly, for the past seven lonely years I have had no church family. Kris is long gone. My soul is in prison, all because of Marty Herron's hatred of me and rejection of the truth of God's Word. Psalms 142:7, "Bring my soul out of prison, that I may praise thy name: the righteous shall compass me about; for thou shalt deal bountifully with me." The new pastor of Harvest since 2018, Gary Walton, is a devil, no better, [1]bidding Godspeed to the same doctrines of devils at Bob Jones University. 2nd John 1:11, "For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds."

Dear friend, God authored one Holy Bible, not two, not thirty-nine! Harvest Baptist Church on Guam and the Bob Jones crowd use, sell and promote umpteen Bible versions. It is wickedness! [2]This is the insanity that they are sanctioning! Pastor Jack Hyles is 100 % correct that: "The King James Bible crowd is going to come out on top!" You can hear Brother Hyles say that yourself in his classic needful 1994 sermon called: '[3]The Battle Of The Ages.'

God made two great divisions of His Word into the Old Testament and New Testament; or respectively, LAW and CHRIST. The Old Testament shows a person that they are a guilty sinner (Romans 3:19-20). The LAW brings us to CHRIST, to be saved by grace through faith alone (Galatians 3:24-26).

> "Salvation is not our doing, but it is something that the Lord does. We put our trust in Christ, He is the One that saves us. And again I repeat: He rescues us, He ransoms us, He redeems us, He regenerates us. All of that we find out, simply by reading the Bible." —Pastor Sheldon Smith, [4]Making A Difference radio broadcast; May 14, 2021; 'The Distinguishing Difference in the Christian Life - Part 10'

Contrition (or being sorry and feeling remorse with intent to reform) is not a part of the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ. The Old Testament shows a man that he is a guilty sinner, and brings him to Christ to be saved by faith alone. Romans 3:19-20, "Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God. Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin." The ONLY thing that God requires and permits to be saved is the KNOWLEDGE (THE TRUTH) that you are a guilty sinner in need of redemption. The LAW brings us to Christ to be saved by grace. Galatians 3:24-26, "Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith. But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster. For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus." Dear friend, the Bible is speaks so plain and simple, if we will just leave it alone and believe it as written.

Unfortunately, wicked men like Marty Herron, Steve Pettit, Chuck Phelps, John Piper, John MacArthur, Ray Comfort, Gary Walton, Paul Washer and other Calvinist-minded fools, pervert the Gospel of free grace, requiring MORE than faith to be saved. It is VERY important that the JUSTIFICATION of the believer without by the man Jesus Christ, and the SANCTIFICATION within the believer by the Spirit of Christ (Romans 8:9), be kept separate. The famous Gospel preacher John Bunyan fully understood this truth:

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." [emphasis added] —Evangelist John Bunyan

This is the woeful theological error of Calvinists and the Lordship Salvation crowd, particularly the Bob Jones University camp today. Few followers of John Calvin (1509-1564) care to pay attention to [5]the historical fact that Calvin brutally murdered 58 people for merely disagreeing with his perverse theology. So much for living a changed life! Was Jesus the Lord of Calvin's life when he murdered all those 58 innocent people? You'll never get a Calvinist preacher like Steve Pettit to talk about these things? I guess were all sinners, right? Dear friend, nobody has ever faithfully followed Jesus as "Lord." Steve Pettit is no less of a sinner, nor any more righteous, than the next unsaved heathen. Yes, I KNOW that Steve Pettit is not saved, by the direct testimony of [6]his own froward mouth concerning Christ.

In God's simple plan of salvation as taught in the inspired King James Bible, the LAW shows a person that they are a guilty sinner (Romans 3:19-20). Hence, seeing their hopeless sinnership and deserved penalty of Hell (Romans 5:9, 6:23; Revelation 20:15, 21:8), they are brought by the LAW to Jesus Christ, the Author and Finisher of our faith. Hebrews 12:2, "Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God." That is how you get saved dear reader, by LOOKING TO JESUS. Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) beautifully explains this precious Bible truth in his wonderful sermon called: "[7]The One Thing That Determines Salvation."

I feel sorry for [8]liars like Pastor Marty Herron, who go around telling people that they must "repent of your sin" to be saved. Ken Ham does the same thing, lying to people! You cannot show me any place in the King James Bible where it says to "repent of your sin" to be saved! What does the Bible say? Acts 20:21, "Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ." 2nd Timothy 2:25, "In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth;" So we see that the Bible does speak of REPENTANCE TOWARD GOD, and of REPENTANCE TO THE ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF THE TRUTH. But there is no mention of turning away from your sins to be saved. I triple dog dare you to find it, you cannot! Repentance is simply acknowledging THE TRUTH that you are a dirty guilty sinner, deserving of Hell, so that you will see your need to trust the blessed Savior. It is as simple as: LAW and CHRIST! Jesus paid your debt of sin my friend, and mine too! Christ bled and died on the cross in our place, paying a debt that He did not owe, because we owed a debt that we could not pay (2nd Corinthians 5:21).

Friend, this is no trifle matter to God! When I visited Pensacola, Florida in 2019, I attended the First Baptist Church in downtown Pensacola. I was saddened not to see a King James Bible anywhere, except the one that I held in my lap. They only had NIV's in every pew. I went to their church website and read that the church adheres to Calvinism. I was heartbroken, and knew in my heart of hearts that I could never attend a cesspool of iniquity like that.

I have been diligently praying for years, asking God where to move. It has been no easy journey. The Harvest Baptist Church on Guam stabbed me in the heart, back and tossed me like a bag of garbage, simply because I loved them enough to tell the THE TRUTH (the very truths that I am sharing with you in this very important article). Harvest's pastors are pig-headed, afraid to go against [9]cult headquarters at Bob Jones University. God's curse is upon all of them for perverting the Gospel (Galatians 1:6-9; 3:1-3; 5:4; 6:7). My soul has been in prison since Harvest cast me out in 2014, and has cruelly ostracized me since as their enemy. All I did was love them, being faithful to God to tell THE TRUTH (Galatians 4:16). The Lord has promised to avenge me, and I pray for it night and day (Romans 12:19-21; Luke 18:7-8).

Kindly said, Harvest Baptist Church on Guam is so stupid and spiritually blind that they foolishly think they are being persecuted, but they are naked and wretched and don't even realize their horrible condition. Revelation 3:16-17, "So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth. Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked:" I have done no evil to tell THE TRUTH!

I recently considered moving to Amarillo, Texas. I found the First Baptist Church of Amarillo. I was saddened when I went to read the church's Statement of Faith on their website. I had to click through about five different layers to finally get to what they believe. It turns out that the church adheres to the official Statement of Faith of the corrupt Southern Baptist Convention (SBC), which was established in the 19th century. The SBC's official position is that to be saved a person must TURN AWAY FROM SIN WITH ALL YOUR HEART. Folks, that is NOT the Gospel, not even close. You don't get saved by turning from anything, you get saved by turning to Jesus Christ.

Carefully notice what the Bible says in Acts 26:20, "But shewed first unto them of Damascus, and at Jerusalem, and throughout all the coasts of Judaea, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, and do works meet for repentance." Do you see that turning to God (repentance) is NOT the same as doing works? We are commanded to do works "meet" (or fitting) for someone who is saved. As believers we "SHOULD" (Titus 2:12b) live godly in Christ Jesus. Notice the word: SHOULD, not MUST (that is works); not WILL (that is Calvinism). A believer should live for Christ. But what if we choose not to? Then God's saving grace will much more abound (Romans 5:20). A believer falls IN GRACE, never FROM GRACE! We stand to lose rewards at the Judgment Seat Of Christ, as will many saints, "saved; yet so as by fire" (1st Corinthians 3:15b). I am so sick and tired of reading Baptist church websites that corrupt the Gospel, by adding additional requirements that God does not. The BIGGEST mistake that you will ever make is to follow the damnable teachings of men (Mark 7:7-13; Matthew 15:8-9).

Lord willing I plan to move soon. I am planning on moving to Tennessee. Finding an apartment has been a nightmare! It has taken much longer than I anticipated, and I still have to wait for one to become available, but God willing I will be in Tennessee by the fall. I haven't even started on my medical yet. I need to find a doctor for my pain medications for my neck. Once I get to Tennessee I will need to buy a used car. My life will be upside down for a few months. I have a definite solid church in mind, so Lord willing I will finally have a church family. I cry just thinking about it. Harvest Baptist Church on Guam will never know how much they hurt me, and abandoned the most caring man who ever stepped foot into their damned church cult. All I ever humbly requested from them was the need to attend church services. God will deal with them, cruelly as they have dealt with me for the past seven years. There is no love at Harvest!

I feel overwhelmed with everything right now. I have already set an automatic response for my e-mails. I need a break. I am burned out in my soul. I am so lonely, and hope to find a woman to marry down the road. I need a caring gal to love and share my life with, someone who won't abandon me. I wish I could just get on an airplane now and leave. I think about it every day. David felt that way too! Psalms 55:6, "And I said, Oh that I had wings like a dove! for then would I fly away, and be at rest."

I kindly ask for patience from all my web visitors in the several months ahead, it is going to be difficult for me. Due to my neck pain, doing anything goes against the grain. I have little patience, get irritated easily, and after two hours need to lay down and rest. I have burning throughout my nervous system. It literally feels like I'm on fire. That is related to the stenosis and radiculopathy in my neck. Being in the sun feels good. There is a steam room where I plan move, at a YMCA, which would be helpful. But life is what happens to us when we're making big plans. I feel overwhelmed right now, like I'll never get to where I want to be in my life, but all I can do is take BABY STEPS! By the inch it's a cinch, by the yard it's hard! So one day at a time. Forward ever, backward never!

Please remember me in your prayers, as I do you. I am losing weight well. I've lost 17 true pounds in the past few months. I plan to lose a bunch more, Lord willing. I am eating a healthy low calorie density diet, which is the key. Yogurt, cottage cheese, oatmeal, chicken, fish, avocadoes (in moderation), salads, beans, protein shakes, sweet potatoes, et cetera. I bake everything and fry nothing. I only drink water, except for maybe a club soda or flavored water a couple times a week. I love mineral water! I have been losing weight without doing a lot of walking, which is quite different from the way I lost weight in 2017, torturing myself. Now I am eating properly to get to my ideal weight.

Anyway, I deliberately share my plans about moving and my private life at the end of articles, so only those web visitors who truly read my articles will know what's going on in my life. Thank you for reading this far! I love you whoever you are with God's unconditional love. I am just a humble sinner, a nobody, who feels so unworthy. God is so good. I have no complaints. So many people have it MUCH worse than I do, so I praise the Lord for all my blessings!!! Thank you Lord, for saving my soul. Thank you Lord, for making me whole. Thank you Lord, for dying for me. Thy great salvation, so rich and free!!! Amen!

I always have so much I want to say. I feel like an emotional fool sometimes, but this is who I am, by God's grace. I don't claim to be a good Christian, but I work hard on the ministry day and night which God has entrusted to me, and I genuinely care about the truth and people. I simply cannot do all that I wish I could do. Preachers get tired and suffer pain too, and I desperately need a church family. I have received thousands of emails over the years from hurting people. I hear nightmare stories of what people are going through. The one common denominator in nearly all of their situations is that they refuse to attend a Bible-believing church. They are going it alone. I have been forced to go it alone for the past seven years, not by choice, but because the largest independent Baptist church on Guam despises me as their enemy, because I am right about them being wrong on the Bible, the Gospel and repentance. I love them with all my heart, which I have proven by my constant friendliness, gifts and persistence to tell the truth. 2nd Corinthians 11:6, "But though I be rude in speech, yet not in knowledge; but we have been throughly made manifest among you in all things."

I am hurting right now (both in body and in soul), so please bear with me in my valley of darkness. I dread moving, because of my life being shaken up completely, but it is the only way out of my situation. My life has been hopelessly stuck in a ditch for many years. If I stay on Guam, nothing will change. I need a church that will allow me to attend, where I won't be banned and ostracized for being human. Even my apologies weren't good enough for Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. They hold grudges and are respecters of persons (James 2:1; Romans 14:10-12). And so, I hope to find a church family to fit in, when I am able to attend a good church and love people again, and hopefully be loved back. My only goal is to love. I never expect to be loved. That is what Jesus would do. But I cannot love people if a local church refuses to let me be a part of their family. So I have loved Harvest from a distance. They hate my rude preaching, because they don't have any spiritual discernment. Unsaved people cannot figure it out (1st Corinthians 2:14-16).

Pastor Bob Gray Sr. (one of my mentors) [10]is so right that most churches today are pathetic! Yes, they sure are! I am a fool for Christ. 2nd Corinthians 11:23, "Are they ministers of Christ? (I speak as a fool) I am more; in labours more abundant, in stripes above measure, in prisons more frequent, in deaths oft." I rejoice that, like the Apostle Paul, I am suffering for my faithful stand for THE TRUTH. God only authored ONE BOOK (Matthew 4:4). There is only ONE SAVIOR (1st Timothy 2:5). There is only ONE GOSPEL (Galatians 1:6-9). There is only one Bible meaning of TRUE REPENTANCE (Acts 20:21). It is for defending these truths that I am called into question, abused and ostracized by Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. It may not be a big deal to them, as they go on their merry ways like I don't exist, but God will be their Judge (Galatians 1:6-9: 3:1-3; 5:4; 6:7).

My preaching and my personal life are one and the same, which is why my writings interweave between them. I cannot separate who I am from what I believe. My entire life has been shaped and defined over the past eight years by the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. They became my beloved family in 2013, and I loved them so much. But when I raised a flag of truth for the Lord, Harvest's proud members and pastors killed the prophet, running me out of town in late 2014. In desperation and loneliness I begged with apologies to come back in 2017 and beyond, only to be mistreated further by their cruel hatred and continued rejection of me and the truth of God's Word. It is a big deal to God!

Harvest has no excuses! My words of truth were instantly rejected and shot down as enemy propaganda! It will take me time to heal from years of spiritual and mental abuse at the hands of Harvest's incompetent tyrant, uncompassionate, formal and thug bully pastors. Their arrogant yuppie style of impotent Christianity wreaks of apostasy, theological stupidity and doctrines of devils! Worse, the very mention of my name brings laughter to their wicked mouths, as they chuckle at the "nut" down the street! God will burn them in Hell (Matthew 7:21-23). If I am a born-again believer, then the Bob Jones crowd who follow the garbage Steve Pettit preaches will burn in Hell! Their damnable John MacArthur type of Lordship Salvation is NOT the Gospel, and I will never stop preaching the truth. Sadly, Harvest has a lifetime enemy in God, because they didn't reject my word, they rejected God's Word. Romans 3:4, "God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged."

I titled this article, "Contrition Of Sin Is Not The Gospel," so I will end with that. We've got a bunch of theologically stupid preachers today who don't know the difference between penitence, penance, reformation and repentance. Here is the truth:

penitence = sorrow for sin penance = making a mend for sin reform = turning away from sin repentance = a change of mind

Repentance is simply the acknowledgment that you are a guilty sinner, which brings you to Christ to be saved by faith alone. I know that is true because JESUS PAID IT ALL!!! I am going to Heaven ONLY because of GOD'S RIGHTEOUSNESS, and not mine (Philippians 3:9; Romans 10:3-4). I do not need to turn from any sin to be saved. I do not need to be sorry for my sin. I do not need to feel contrition or remorse for my sin. I do not need to stop committing deliberate sin to be saved. I do not need to intend to reform or better myself to be saved. When God saved me, then the indwelling Holy Spirit (Whom God sealed me with at the time I believed) started changing me (Philippians 2:13). To be saved, I didn't need to do anything, nor give up any sin. All I needed to know is that I am a needy sinner, so that I would trust (rest in) Jesus' sacrifice on the cross as payment for my sins. Christ was buried. Three days layer He resurrected from the dead. I trusted in the risen Christ as a 13 year old boy, and God gloriously saved me forever!!! Nothing more has ever been required. I received God's gift of eternal life by faith alone, without works!!! (Romans 4:4-6).

After I got saved, the Holy Spirit (NOT ME) started convicting me about the sins in my life. I experienced penitence (a feeling of sorrow) for my sins. I remember that the Holy Spirit started convicting me not to do certain sins anymore. I experienced reform. These things followed getting saved, NOT as a requirement to be saved. That is where Calvinists, Lordship Salvationists and the Wrong Repentance crowd go astray. They are requiring of a person what ONLY the Holy Spirit can do! Anybody who tells you that you must 'repent of your sin' to be saved is requiring something of YOU!

> "The true Gospel always points you to Christ; a false gospel always points to you." —[11]Pastor Dennis Rokser

I don't care if that harelips every dog in the country, that is what the King James Bible teaches. So Dr. Steve Pettit and his damnable circus at Bob Jones University, Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary, and Harvest Baptist Church on Guam can go straight to Hell, where they are assuredly going (Matthew 7:21-23; Luke 13:23-24; Acts 15:1, 24; Galatians 3:1-3), with their counterfeit plan of salvation. I've rambled on enough. I love you all. Please keep me in your earnest prayers, in the months ahead, as I move, Lord willing. Blessed be the name of our precious Lord and Savior Jesus Christ!!!

2.6.8 Jesus Left The 99 Because He Cared About The 1 Lamb (2021-06-13 04:27)

Matthew 18:10-13,

Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones; for I say unto you, That in heaven their angels do always behold the face of my Father which is in heaven.

For the Son of man is come to save that which was lost.

How think ye? if a man have an hundred sheep, and one of them be gone astray, doth he not leave the ninety and nine, and goeth into the mountains, and seeketh that which is gone astray? And if so be that he find it, verily I say unto you, he rejoiceth more of that sheep, than of the ninety and nine which went not astray.

I was sad today because I have no place to attend church on Guam. Sundays are difficult for me. I have literally begged umpteen times since 2017 for the pastors of Harvest Baptist Church on Guam to please let me attend church services. Both their former pastor Marty Herron, and their new senior pastor Gary Walton refuse to have anything to do with me. I was thinking today about Jesus' attitude versus the sickening attitudes of Harvest's several pastors. The Bible says that Jesus left the 99 sheep to go find that 1 lost lamb. I love that about our precious Savior!

In sharp contrast, Harvest Baptist Church on Guam has their 99 church members, so they don't need, want or care about me, that one wayward hurting lamb who needs their love and help. There is no love at Harvest. As Mrs. Beverly Hyles so rightly said: "Hurting people hurt people." She is absolutely correct! I have never meant to be unkind or hurtful toward anyone at Harvest, but they have been hurting me since 2014, by driving me out of their flock and ostracizing me since. On Sundays I sit home and watch TV, because I have no church to attend. I listen to preaching during the week, and Alexander Scourby read the Bible, but that cannot substitute for fellowship with other human beings. I need a church family.

It baffles me how any group of professed Christians could be so calloused, cruel and uncaring, as has been Harvest Baptist Church for the past 7 difficult years of my life. What started all this? I simply loved them enough at Harvest to speak the truth, as the Holy Bible commands every believer...

> Ephesians 4:14-16, "
>
> That we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive;
>
> But speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things*, which is the head, even Christ:
>
> From whom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love.
> **"

Do you see friend? The Bible teaches that speaking THE TRUTH helps us to grow up in Christ, Who is the Head of the Church. We are edified in love through speaking, hearing and receiving THE TRUTH. But what happens when people reject the truth, as has Harvest's shameful pastors? Hosea 4:6, "My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me: seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also forget thy children. " Carefully notice that God's people were destroyed because their religious leaders (priests and pastors) deliberately REJECTED THE TRUTH (the knowledge).

It is only because of Harvest's cruelty toward me all these lonely years, that I have gone all out to expose them as a cult. Harvest Baptist Church on Guam (who operate the Harvest Baptist Academy, Harvest House and Harvest Baptist Bible College) are guilty of all of the following offenses:

- [1]False Bibles: An Enemy Of Soulwinning ([2]BJU and Harvest Baptist Church of Guam are [3]GUILTY!)
- [4]Misunderstood Repentance: An Enemy Of Soulwinning (Harvest Baptist Church Guam [5]GUILTY!) [6]Lordship Salvation: An Enemy Of Soulwinning ([7]BJU and Harvest Baptist Church Guam [8]GUILTY!)

It is a serious matter to God. What saith the Scripture?

Matthew 18:10-11,

Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones*; for I say unto you, That in heaven their angels do always behold the face of my Father which is in heaven.

For the Son of man is come to save that which was lost.

How think ye?

Matthew 25:40, " And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me." Harvest Baptist Church (pastors, staff and members alike who support them) have my blood on their hands. Jesus said that to hurt even the least of His children is the same as hurting Him directly. Jesus hasn't been allowed to attend church since 2014 at Harvest, because Marty Herron and Gary Walton have dealt treacherously with me. What was my horrible offense? I simply told THE TRUTH. Galatians 4:16,

" Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth? They zealously affect you, but not well; yea, they would exclude you, that ye might affect them."

There is NOTHING as evil as ignoring a hurting person who is pleading for help, love and a second chance. NOTHING! The silent treatment is a form of abuse. Harvest has been completely ignoring me ever since they told me to Go elsewhere in 2017. They won't respond to my gifts. I mailed them 490 Gospels of John. I gave those Bibles to the Lord, and my reward is in Heaven, but you would think at some point that Harvest's proud, arrogant and stiffnecked pastors who break, humble themselves and seek the Lord. But it hasn't happened!

God Cannot Be Worshipped In Theological Error

Harvest hypocritically has a big sign at the entrance to their church property that reads: "Helping People Develop A Heart Toward God." What saith the Scripture? John 4:24, "God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth." You won't find the Holy Spirit at Harvest, but a familiar spirit. It is "another spirit," because they preach "[9]another gospel" of Lordship Salvation (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4). God cannot be worshipped with entertainment, rituals, going through the motions, the love of money, fake Bibles, manmade traditions and the commandments of men (Mark 7:7-13).

Mark 7:6-13, "He answered and said unto them, Well hath Esaias prophesied of you hypocrites, as it is written, This people honoureth me with their lips, but their heart is far from me. Howbeit in vain do they worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men. For laying aside the commandment of God, ye hold the tradition of men, as the washing of pots and cups: and many other such like things ye do.

And he said unto them, Full well ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition.

For Moses said, Honour thy father and thy mother; and, Whoso curseth father or mother, let him die the death:

But ye say, If a man shall say to his father or mother, It is Corban, that is to say, a gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me; he shall be free.

And ye suffer him no more to do ought for his father or his mother; Making the word of God of none effect through your tradition, which ye have delivered: and many such like things do ye."

I am alarmed that there are two drastically different plans of salvation being preached in churches today, and 95 % of Baptist pastors are not taking a stand one way or the other. [10]Please read what Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) preached. This is the correct free grace Gospel. And now take a look at this nightmare theology—the demonic plans of salvation of [11]Evangelist Ray Comfort and [12]Dr. Steve Pettit (followers of [13]Dr. John MacArthur).

Dear reader,

Either you must turn away from a lifestyle of sin to be saved as [14]Pastor Marty Herron preaches, or you do not need to, but it cannot be both ways (Romans 11:6).

Either you must make Jesus the absolute Lord of your life to receive God's free gift of eternal life, as Pastor Gary Walton and Missionary Phil Hunt preach at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, or you do not, but it cannot be both ways.

Either you must exchange all that your are for all that Christ is as [15]Pastor John MacArthur preaches, trading your life for His, but it cannot be both ways!

Either you must count the cost and pay the price as [16]Evangelist Billy Graham and Dr. John MacArthur preach, or you do not, but it cannot be both ways. It made me sick when Mr. Graham died, and Baptist preachers all across America honored him as a saint. [17]In the old days godly preachers exposed Billy Graham! Truth simply doesn't matter to 95 % of pastors anymore, because they are serving mammon instead of God. It cannot be both ways, which Christ emphatically stated Himself

(Luke 16:13).

Either you must live a continuous lifestyle of turning away from your sinful behavior to get to Heaven, as [18]Evangelist Ray Comfort preaches, or you do not, but it cannot be both ways. Kindly said, if you aren't shell-shocked after reading the article I just wrote and shared with you, then you need to get born-again Dear friend because you are not saved. You DON'T need to life a continuous lifestyle of living right to go to Heaven! The very idea spits on God's righteousness, which is the only thing that will get us into God's Kingdom (Philippians 3:9; Isaiah 64:6).

Either [19]Evangelist Paul Wash is correct that you cannot be saved unless you turn away from sin and reform, and you cannot know in an instant that you are securely saved, or else it is not that way, but salvation cannot be both ways. [20]Birds of a feather flock together! Pastor Washer preaches [21]a false gospel of fear and uncertainty, where you must continually examine your life to determine if you are really saved. That is NOT what the King James Bible teaches (Romans 4:4-6; 1st John 5:13).

“The true Gospel always points you to Christ; a false gospel always points to you.” —[22]Pastor Dennis Rokser

Either you must live a continuous holy lifestyle for the rest of your life to prove the genuineness of the reality of your faith, as [25]Chuck and Daniel Phelps preach at the Colonial Hills Baptist Church, or you do not, but it cannot be both ways.

Either you have to faithfully enter, run and finish the Christian race, which [26]Dr. Steve Pettit insists you must do to be saved; and he says the race is [27]“hard” to complete to earn the” award” of Heaven itself” (those are his heretical choice of words); or else salvation is a free gift that requires no change of behavior at all, but it cannot be both ways. Sadly, Mr. Pettit is the new president of Bob Jones University since 2014 and is influencing thousands of tomorrow’s religious leaders, workers and churches worldwide. Satan has crept into BJU and their associated churches, like Harvest Baptist Church on Guam and Colonial Hills Baptist Church in Indianapolis, Indiana. God’s curse is upon these wicked false teachers (Galatians 1:6-9; 3:1-3; 5:4; 6:7; Titus 1:10-13).

Either you must stop lusting, lying and living in willful sin to get to Heaven, as [28]Pastor John Piper preaches, or you do not, but it absolutely cannot be both ways!

Friend, I have just named about a dozen devil-dog preachers who pervert the Gospel of free grace, preaching a tainted partial faith in Christ plus human effort type of counterfeit plan of salvation. Carefully notice that in EVERY case of the preceding corrupt ministers, who preach a perverted gospel, that they all focus on YOU. Every one of those ungodly preachers add behavior modification to the simple Gospel. The Bible clearly defines “the Gospel

” (or Good News, Glad Tidings) as Christ’s death on the cross to pay for our sins, His burial, and bodily resurrection three days later (1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

There is nothing mentioned in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4 about forsaking a lifestyle of sin, surrendering “all”

to Christ, surrendering to Jesus as absolute

“

Lord,

” feeling contrition, making a mend, turning over a new leaf, doing penance, formation, feeling sorry for sin, running the Christian race, exchanging your life for Christ’s life, counting the cost and paying the price, turning away from sin, nor anything else! Mark 7:6-7, “He answered and said unto them, Well hath Esaias prophesied of you hypocrites, as it is written, This people honoureth me with their lips, but their heart is far from me. Howbeit in vain do they worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men. ”

None of the preceding wicked men, nor the millions of unsaved churchgoers who follow them, worship God. They merely superficially honor God with their mouths, as the Bible says, but their heart is far from Him. That is why we read in Matthew 5:8, “ Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God. ”

I love [29]the book of Matthew! A person with a pure heart will want THE TRUTH.

The Bob Jones crowd today honor God with their mouth, but their heart is far from truth and God.

Corrupt Bible Revisions Lead To Corrupt Theology

The Devil is very clever. We see just how clever Satan is in Genesis 3:1-5, when the serpent easily deceived Eve. The Apostle Paul even used the serpent tricking Eve as an example of what he saw happening in the churches of Galatia.

Psalms 119:104, “ Through thy precepts I get understanding: therefore I hate every false way.” It is because I love and only use the inspired King James Bible that I hate the Devil’s Bible revisions. Dear reader, look at what the Devil’s modern Bible revisions have done to the Word of God...

- [30]1st Timothy 3:16
- [31]Psalms 12:6-7
- [32]Matthew 8:2
- [33]Acts 8:37
- [34]Zechariah 13:6

I could give you hundreds more examples of Satanic corruption in the modern Bibles. You show me a pastor who makes light of these Devil’s Bibles, and I’ll show you a wimpy man who goes along to get along with wicked false teachers! We call them neo-evangelicals! The “neo” or “new” evangelical, as he is called, stands for nothing, driving in the middle of the road (where all the dead skunks are found), parasiting off of Christendom to serve their own belly. Marty Herron is now getting paid well over $100,000 a year, as executive vice president of Faith Baptist Bible College and Theological Seminary (a preacher’s cemetery) in Ankeny, Iowa. These men belong in prison. God will put them into the Lake of Fire (Matthew 7:21-23).

Perverting the free grace Gospel is an UNFORGIVABLE SIN. That is what Galatians 5:4b means when it says, **“

YE ARE FALLEN FROM GRACE.

” Marty Herron and his deceived Bob Jones University clique are trying to be justified by the works of the law. They foolishly don’t consider repenting of one’s sinful behavior as works,

” but that is EXACTLY what it is. I heard Pastor Herron with my own two ears, on a Sunday morning in 2014 at the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, tell a few hundred church members: “It is not enough to admit that you are a sinner to be saved, you must also turn away from a lifestyle if sin.”

I was sickened and went home in tears, asking God how to handle the matter. The Lord impressed upon my heart that perhaps they were just unlearned men, and needed someone, A FRIEND, to help them see. So I purchased several hundred dollars worth of hard copies of doctrinally sounds books to give them, in all respect and kindness, which I did. The next Wednesday after Bible study I was called into the church office and rebuked, told to cease and desist, accused of causing confusion and divisiveness, and treated like a criminal, as Marty Herron and Joe Hansen sat there.

Kindly said, it is Pastor Marty Herron who is the spiritual criminal in God’s sight, and Pastor Joe Hansen and Jared Baldwin, and Gary Walton, and all of Harvest’s shameful pastors, who are guilty spiritual criminals for perverting the Gospel of free grace. They have committed the UNPARDOINABLE SIN, and unless they repent of their counterfeit gospel and BELIEVE ON JESUS alone, they will spend eternity in the Lake of Fire (Revelation 20:11-15). These wicked men falsely view salvation as requiring repentance AND faith, teaching that a person cannot go to Heaven unless they make a decision to work at sinning as little as possible.

> “Repentance is not a different plan of salvation from having faith: it is part of the same plan of salvation. Or rather repentance is simply another way of describing or looking at the plan of salvation. One who turns from sin to God has done so by trusting in Jesus Christ. A change of mind toward sin is necessarily involved in saving faith.” [emphasis added] —SOURCE: Evangelist John R. Rice, “Acts: Filled With The Spirit,” pp. 251-252; Sword Of The Lord, Murfreesboro, Tennessee; ©1963

I have heard numerous pastors, including Missionary David Cloud and others, wrongly accuse Dr. Rice of preaching Misunderstood Repentance. As I have just shown you, Brother Rice did NOT view repentance and faith as two separate steps to salvation; but rather, he viewed them as two sides of one coin. Thus, the man who repents has believed, and the man who believes has repented. There is only one thing you must do to be saved friend, and that is to BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST (Acts 16:30-31).

Please don’t miss that fundamental Bible truth, or you will be a mess doctrinally.

I am resolved no longer to linger,
Charmed by the world’s delight,
Things that are higher, things that are nobler,
These have allured my sight.
I will hasten to Him,

Hasten so glad and free;
Jesus, Greatest, Highest,
I will come to Thee.

Harvest Baptist Church on Guam is like the heathen teacher with 30 students, who doesn't care that 1 is failing, just so long as she looks good as a teacher. I mean, there must be something wrong with that one child or their parents, right? That is how a horrible wicked person thinks, which is how Harvest Baptist Church on Guam thinks. They don't care about me, that 1 hurting men, because they still have 99 people who are doing just fine. That is of the Devil friends. Jesus didn't think like the shameful pastors and staff at Harvest, He left the 99 to go after that 1 lost lamb, because the Lord loves everybody.

The shameful pastors at Harvest only care about MONEY. All of their students bring in MILLIONS of dollars each year, paying their undeserved heathen salaries. No one deserves a salary who selectively cares about people. I have been that one lost lamb since 2014, hurting very much in my soul after losing my church family at Harvest. Marty Herron left me for dead, throwing me under the bus. Gary Walton is just as bad, backing the bus up over me. These ungodly people only care about their paychecks. Jesus called that sin (Luke 16:13; James 2:1).

2.6.9 How To RECOMPOSITION Your Body To Good Health (2021-06-16 09:30)

Proverb 27:17, "Iron sharpeneth iron; so a man sharpeneth the countenance of his friend."

I have been trying something new to lose weight. I've watched hundreds of men's better health videos, on how to increase lean muscle mass and burn fat. [1]This is just one of the videos that inspired me to try it out.

Basically, you're eating a very high protein diet, which greatly curbs your appetite. I have been losing weight, for the first time in several months. The process is slow, like one pound per week, but it works well. In 2017 I am still amazed looking back that I lost 70 pounds. I wanted to lose weight so bad that I decided I would rather die than eat. I used that mentality to fast for a couple days, and then I would eat a full meal every few days. But still, it was really hard to do it. I was just so motivated that it worked. But when I got down to 145 from 215 pounds, I maintained about 157-163 for 1 1/2 years. It was difficult to stay there, because I was still eating a high carbohydrate diet, which made me really hungry. Eventually my depression won out and I stopped trying to fight to stay thin, and within a year I got back up to 208.

I hit 189 yesterday, which is the first time in several months I've been able to do it. My goal is 175, but this time I want to keep my muscle. When I lost 70 pounds in 2017 I lost my muscle with the fat. That is because I didn't eat hardly any protein, nor lift any weights. All I'm doing is eating a high amount of fiber (eggs, chicken, beef, fish, beans, Greek yogurt, egg whites, and protein powder). I get my protein powder at Vitamin World, but I've heard that Walmart even carries it. Each scoop of protein powder has 30 grams of protein. The goal is to eat whatever your weight is in grams of protein. [2]Here is a macro calculator.

Here are my daily recommended macros (for me myself, not you)...

CARBS: 185 g per day (740 calories)

PROTEIN: 185 g per day (740 calories)

FATS: 41 g per day (370 calories)

TOTAL CALORIES: 1851

But I reduce my carbs to only HALF of that (50 to 150 grams a day). I am eating 200 to 240 grams of protein per day (1.2 grams per pound of body weight). I love eating this way. I have a protein shake every morning, at noon and a double before I go to bed (all 4 shakes total 520 calories). That's 120 grams of protein. It really makes you feel full when you get plenty of protein. Plus, 30-40 % of protein is burned up as fuel to digest the rest of the protein, which helps to lose weight. It is important to get enough carbohydrates and fat each day. So if you leave the yoke in the eggs, which I often do, I get some fat there. I try to get 40 to 50 grams of fat per day.

The place to cut calories is the CARBOHYDRATES (breads, pasta, rice, donuts, junk food). From all the health videos I have watched by bodybuilders who cut down to get lean, I would limit my carbs to 50 to 150 per day. The U.S. recommended daily allowance of carbs is 300 grams. I get plenty of carbs from beans and green leafy vegetables. I had broccoli, carrots and a big salad for lunch today. I am having dry cooked beans for dinner. I ate 2 chicken breasts this morning. The GREAT THING about this method of losing weight is that you get to EAT A LOT OF FOOD. As long as you fill yourself up with protein, you'll lose weight. Hey, one pound a week is 24 pounds in 6 months. I have learned not to look at my scale every day, because it swings wild from water retention. I focus on eating right and following my macro nutritional requirements and limits for the day.

I just wanted to share this with you, because it is working for me, and I feel great. I can eat a lot of food and still lose weight. I cannot eat whatever I want, but the selection of what I can eat is AWESOME. I had some blueberries today, strawberries. I ate a Greek yogurt (which has lower sugar than regular yogurt). I bought some cans of zero calorie ginger ale, which tastes great. I love fish. I fry it in a little butter under low heat, with the lid on the pan. I ate sea bass (barramundi) this week which has 23 grams of protein per fillet. So 2 fillets is only 200 calories and gives me 46 grams of protein. I loved this helpful video about how Hollywood actors lose weight and get cut for movies. [3]What particularly blew my mind is that they literally eat every 3 hours.

Actors Give Advice On Diet And Exercise (awesome stuff!)

I couldn't believe that eating more frequently is the way to get cut and bring out the muscles. I've been working out lightly, but "RECOMPOSITION" (building lean muscle and losing fat) is 70 % diet and consistency. This is something I can do, which doesn't require starving myself.

So far so good, but it will take 4 to 6 months, perhaps even a year. The key is to take one's time and not eat in such a way that it cannot be sustained for the rest of one's life. This is NOT a diet. The very word "diet" implies something you do temporarily. The way I am eating is a permanent lifestyle change. I am eating a variety of different foods, which is important to keep it enjoyable, and to provide the body with all necessary nutrients. I snack on nuts. I eat very little sugar. I try not to eat any sugar. I drink water and unsweetened almond milk (which tastes great).

I've been eating [4]these hydroponically grown trays of greens, one per day. They are grown only in water, without any dirt. I use one Tablespoon of low calories dressing, which is only 50 calories. The salad cannot be more than 25 calories. So the whole salad tray with a little dressing is only about 75 calories. Really healthy. I thought you might find this interesting. When I find something that helps me, I like to share it with others. God bless you dear friend, and I give my best of encouragement to you, if you decide to join me in recompositioning our bodies back to good health. You can do it!!!

2.6.10 Jesus Christ Is The Resurrection And The Life (2021-06-18 17:37)

John 11:23-26, "Jesus saith unto her, Thy brother shall rise again. Martha saith unto him, I know that he shall rise again in the resurrection at the last day. Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this?"

The Lord made this precious promise of the resurrection in John 11:25-26. His friend Lazarus had died four days earlier. Lazarus' body already smelled with rotting decay in the tomb. Jesus is speaking together with Martha, the sister of Lazarus. She is confident that one day in the future her brother will rise up again. The Lord reiterates to her that He is fact IS THE RESURRECTION, AND THE LIFE.

The Lord says that whosoever liveth and abideth in Him shall never die. It would be bad Bible interpretation to add living to believing based solely upon this Scripture passage. In the Gospel of John we find the word " mentioned 85 times, with no mention of anything else required for salvation. You don't have to believe AND live in Christ to be saved; but rather, to believe in Christ produces the new birth, which makes a person alive in the Holy Spirit (Romans 8:9).

I heard Pastor John MacArthur the other day [1]on YouTube speaking very deceitfully. He was saying simply to believe to be saved. Yet, I can show you [2]dozens of other places in his damnable writings where MacArthur [3]requires much more than just believing to be saved. You see, in John MacArthur's errant mindset, faith means commitment of one's entire personality to Christ as absolute Lord, denying of self, turning away from sin, following Jesus no matter what the cost. But that is not the Bible meaning of faith. True faith is resting in Christ's finished work of redemption, and nothing more! Requiring anything more than simply resting in what Jesus did on the cross to pay for our sins is a perversion of God's grace.

We have God's promise in John 11:25-26 that whosoever BELIEVES in the Son of God has eternal life, and will be wholly resurrected someday. The heathen world is continually searching for new technology to extend human life, and even revive the dead in the future. Companies like Alcor freeze dead bodies and decapitated heads of clients for large sums of money. Their hope is that technology will greatly advance in the future, so that their frozen mind can be extracted and reinserted into a new cloned human body. I can confidently tell you that such nonsense will never become a reality. God would not allow such a bizarre thing to happen.

Dear friend, why go to such crazy extremes, when we can simply BELIEVE on the Savior and have the Lord's promise of a new resurrected body in the future? My hope is built on nothing more or less, than Jesus Christ and His righteousness! I dare not trust the sweetest frame, but wholly lean on Jesus name. On Christ the solid rock I stand, all other ground is sinking sand.

2.6.11 Repentance Is Toward God, Acknowledging THE TRUTH; Not From Anything (2021-06-19 09:30)

Acts 20:21, "Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ." 2nd Timothy 2:25, "In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth;"

I am so sick and tired of idiotic pastors who corrupt the Gospel by adding words that God did not author in the Holy Bible. When asked for their view on repentance, countless woefully ignorant pastors have said to me over the years, "Well you can't turn TO something unless you also turn FROM something." To the logical human mind that sounds very reasonable. Yet the Bible does not say that, does it. You cannot show me any place in the inspired King James Bible where it says to turn away "

something to be saved.

Dear friend, it simply doesn't matter what you are turning away from, because the man who repents toward God and the truth is saved. By using the clever mentality that "you can't turn TO something unless you also turn FROM something," you can add anything you want to the Gospel, perverting God's grace. The popular teaching these days is that to be saved you must turn away from your sins. This is what [1]Bob Jones University adds to the Gospel, perverting God's grace. Most religious literature teaches that you must turn away from sinful ways

to be saved. That is not what the Bible teaches!

One of the most ungodly institutions today is Bob Jones University. Sadly, tens of thousands of churchgoers have been deceived and infected with BJU's heresy of wrong repentance and Lordship Salvation. BJU has blood all over their hands. I have been faithfully preaching for decades against these evils, but I am tired. One of the most ungodly places I have ever found is the rotten Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. Their pastors disregard truth. When I attended the church for one year in 2014, I was sickened by the things I heard and saw. Harvest has very low moral standards. Harvest's pastors preach Lordship Salvation. I witnessed to many of their staff members, who serve as school teachers, and others as deacons in the church, who clearly were not born-again Christians. They all believe that you cannot be saved unless you turn away from your sin first. That is a works based counterfeit plan of salvation.

According to Galatians 1:6-9, God's deadly curse is upon Bob Jones University and Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. They all did me wrong! They drove me out of their church, banned me from returning to church services, and have cruelly ostracized me since 2014. In 2017 I was desperate for a church family, and pleaded three times with the church pastors to return. They were cruel and selfish, telling me to go away. My heart was broken, for the second time. It was bad enough that they forced me out of the church in 2014, but now despite my apologies and humble plea to simply sit in church on Sunday, they sinfully rejected me.

The Bible says that if we don't forgive others, neither will the Lord forgive us. Any forgiveness that refuses to even allow a man to sit in church services is a false forgiveness! Matthew 6:14-15, "For if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you: But if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses." Pastor Marty Herron refused to forgive me! Jesus will not forgive him either. I do not believe Mr. Herron is saved at all, because he thinks you must turn away from a sinful lifestyle to get to Heaven, which is self-righteousness. The true Gospel only focuses on JESUS, a false gospel focuses on YOU. Anytime a preacher speaks of something that YOU must do to be saved, he is a liar who is preaching another gospel!

Harvest's Pastors And Staff Have Much Blood On Their Hands

When I attended Harvest Baptist Church on Guam throughout 2014, their nurse Kristen Hurlburt fell in love with me. I loved her too and wanted to marry her, but her pastors didn't want me in the church, even though I begged very humbly for a second chance. Those ungodly pastors kept me and Kris apart, and she was pressured by her bosses to get rid of me, and she did in 2017. It hurt so bad the way she cruelly told me never to contact her again. She lied and denied ever having had any feelings for me, which her pastors used against me. I know as sure as I am a born-again believer that Kris wanted to marry me. The Lord knows that she did have feelings for me, but lied when her bosses got involved. God knows.

Folks, this is what happens when pastors reject THE TRUTH. I did nothing wrong! As a true friend does, I befriended Harvest's pastors with THE TRUTH that the modern [2]Westcott and Hort based Bible revisions are corrupted by the Devil. I told them THE TRUTH that [3]false Bibles are an enemy of soulwinning. I told THE TRUTH that [4]Misunderstood repentance is an enemy of soulwinning. I told THE TRUTH that [5]Lordship Salvation is an enemy of soulwinning. For faithfully contending for the faith once delivered unto the saints (Jude 1:3). I was counted as their "

enemy

” at Harvest (Galatians 4:16), and also by Kristen Hurlburt to her woe and shame. God takes this doctrinal matter VERY seriously!

Kindly said, I pray for God to avenge me of all of them. Their blood be upon their own heads when they answer to God in eternity! They have all committed the unpardonable sin of adding to the Gospel, effectively denying Jesus Christ as the only all-inclusive means of salvation. If turning away from one’s sinful lifestyle is required to get to Heaven, then faith alone in Jesus Christ is insufficient to save! I speak THE TRUTH (Ephesians 4:15). Kris did me very wrong. Harvest’s pastors did me very wrong. All I ever humbly begged for was their love, to give me a second chance to quietly sit in church services, and be a part of their church family.

Tragically, Harvest is nothing more than a glorified private social club on Guam, where only card carrying voted-in members are allowed to attend church. Their ministry only consists of the children of parents who have enough money to finance their child’s enrollment into Harvest Baptist Academy or Harvest Baptist Bible College. That is the bulk of the church membership, of financially well to do families, who pat the paychecks of a bunch of snobby Bob Jones University graduates making a career by parasiting off of Christendom. Shame on all of them! Jesus Himself warned in Luke 16:13 that it is IMPOSSIBLE to serve God and money (mammon). Any time that monetary profits takes precedence over hurting people who plead for help (as I did umpteen times), something is very wrong in a church. That is not God’s unconditional love. 1st John 3:17, “ But whoso hath this world’s good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him?” There is no compassion at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam.

Harvest Baptist Church on Guam (in the Micronesia island chain) is a lousy social club, a fun center, a house of entertainment each Sunday, where only select members are welcomed. They’re pastors are far more guilty than of merely being immature, they are hardened Pharisees who have continually rejected THE TRUTH that I have kindly handed to them for the past several years, placing THE TRUTH directly into their very hands. The new pastor since 2018, Gary Walton, is a very bad pastor, indifferent, cold and not concerned about hurting people like me. Pastor Walton is only there for paying customers. That is sinful and sad. Whereas Jesus left the 99 sheep to go find the one that got lost, Harvest’s pastors don’t care about losing one like me, because they still have the 99. That is their pathetic attitude.

Likewise, Kristen Hurlburt is not interested in finding a godly man to marry, she just wants a good husband, but not a godly husband. That is her loss. Kris will never find a man who loves Jesus more than I do, and who has a burning passion for preaching the truth and winning souls as I do, or who loves her as much as I still do and always will. When I met Kris at Asan Beach in 2017, she berated me for not attending church. But it was her very wicked pastors who drove me out of church at Harvest, because I befriended them with THE TRUTH. What do you suppose God thinks about that? I had no where else to Go. Kris is your typical religious person, who only views things from a superficial point of view (Matthew 15:8), lacking spiritual discernment. This is the superficial Laodicean church (Revelation 3:15-16). Perhaps God was protecting me from marrying Kris, lest I have the devil for a father-in-law.

Harvest’s pastors said that I couldn’t return to Harvest because it would make Kris uncomfortable, because I liked her. Literally, with God as my witness, that is what they said and did to me. Because Kris lied, and Harvest’s pastors held a grudge against me, none of them cared about me need to attend church, and they all rejected me cruelly. I have not attended church since, having no church family since 2014 because of them. My blood is on Kris Hurlburt’s hands, because she lied before God, and her shameful pastors who selfishly only thought about their own belly and paycheck (Romans 16:17-18). God will judge between me and them all. I was THE ONLY ONE at Harvest who did what was right. I was THE ONLY ONE who told THE TRUTH. Pastor Jack Hyles is right that: “T he King James Bible crowd will come out on top.

What is sad most of all is that these people in the Bob Jones University camp just don’t care. They are arrogant, sinfully proud and spoiled rotten. Marty Herron bailed from Harvest Baptist Church in 2018, now collecting a disgusting 6-digit salary as the new executive vice president of Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary (preacher’s cemetery) in Ankeny, Iowa. [6]Pastor Herron is a wicked man, who preaches a false gospel of partial faith in Christ plus human effort (aka, turning away from a sinful lifestyle) to get to Heaven. That is the Devil’s plan of damnation! Mr. Herron has the blood of thousands of victims upon his hands, of everyone whom he has misled to think that God won’t save them unless they make an attempt to stop living in sin.

And sadly, Kris Hurlburt doesn’t care either. Her only interest is finding a husband and her career as a nurse. Spiritual things (like the truth) don’t matter to her. Colossians 3:1-2, “

If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God.

Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth.” 2nd John 1:11, “

For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds.

” Kris bids Godspeed to the false prophets at BJU and Harvest, supporting the Devil’s fake Bibles, and the Devil’s lie of Lordship Salvation, and the Devil’s lie of turning from sins to be saved.

Bob Jones Alumni Are The Enemies Of Jesus Christ

As much as it hurts my heart that Kristen rejected me as her husband, I sincerely believe that God was protecting me from a wicked woman who couldn’t care less about THE TRUTH. If all she wants is a husband, then that is what she will settle for; but she could have married a real man who loves God, loves the truth, and has the capacity to deeply love her like no other man ever could. No man can love a woman as deeply as can a man of God who has a passion for THE TRUTH. It is sad to see the shallow type of men that women settle for, bums. I make no apologies for being a TRUTH TELLER. If I end up staying single because I told THE TRUTH, then so be it. I know that God will bless me. The pathetic Bob Jones crowd may find secular prosperity and happiness in their selfish earthly lives—by selling out to ecumenism, dipping their sails in sinful compromise, going along to get along, and not standing for God and truth—but they will reap what they have sown in eternity

I was crucified, shamed, mistreated, ostracized, rejected, humiliated and made the enemy by Harvest’s ungodly pastors and staff, including by Kristen Hurlburt her self, for which they will all be held accountable by God. I pray for it to be so! They all deeply hurt me, because I befriended them with THE TRUTH. What saith the Scripture? Romans 3:4, “God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged.

” The Bob Jones crowd are liars! Lordship Salvation is a lie. The teaching that you must turn away from sinful bad habits to be saved is a lie. Dr. Steve Pettit’s (president of BJU) preaching is full of lies! Mr. Pettit says that you must join, run and faithfully finish the race (the Christian life) to get to Heaven. Pettit says that Heaven is an award for those who run and finish the race. [7]If you drop out of the race and quit, Dr. Pettit says that you lose your salvation!

I love the Bob Jones crowd. I love all people. There is not one human being that I hate. But I do hate evil, as God commands me to as His child (Psalms 97:10). I do hate every false way, as God commands me to. Psalms 119:104, “

Through thy precepts I get understanding: therefore I hate every false way.

” There is a very serious problem in 99 % of churches today, which is that preachers no longer walk with God. If they truly did walk with God, then they would HATE the Devil’s modern Bible revisions. I mean, take a look at this my friend...

[8]

The Bible Has Been Sinfully Changed Merely For Copyright

As Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) wisely said: “Things that are different are not the same.”

[9]

This Is The Wickedness That Bob Jones Alumni Support

I could spend literally hours expounding you dear reader in the corruptions found inside today’s hundreds of English Bible revisions. It is as shocking as it is disgusting.

It is for taking a courageous stand against these very evils, that I was horribly and sinfully despised and rejected by the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. For the past 7 long and lonely years I have been banned from returning to church, and ostracized by Harvest. I will never shut up! I am so sick and tired of churchgoers downplaying the severity of this issue as a mere matter of difference of opinion. The two pictures I just shared with you are not someone's mere opinion, they show the BLATANT CORRUPTION found in ALL of the Devil's modern Bible revisions. Do you really think that this is all a mere coincidence? Please don't be naïve.

It breaks my heart that Harvest ousted me as their enemy, because I told THE TRUTH. The churches of Galatia did the same exact thing to the Apostle Paul. Galatians 4:16, "Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?" I am not the villain, I am the hero! I am like Batman in the popular 2008 film, "

The Dark Knight.

" In the movie script, Batman chooses to take the blame for the murders committed by Harvey Dent (the district attorney who went mad after the Joker killed his fiancée). To protect Harvey's image and preserve all the good that he had done to clean up Gotham City, Batman decides to take the rap instead. Before he goes insane, Harvey Dent makes this great statement: "You Either Die A Hero, Or You Live Long Enough To See Yourself Become The Villain."

Likewise, I have become the villain in all this bad situation with the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. I didn't want to become the villain. But like the Apostle Paul, and Batman, I have been counted as the enemy for doing the right thing! Always be pure of heart! Matthew 5:8, "Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God." Do you know why the pure of heart will see God? It is because those who are pure of heart will seek THE TRUTH. Those who are not pure of heart, like the phony Bob Jones crowd today, merely follow the trend. Those who are not pure of heart worship God with their mouths, but their heart is far from Him (Matthew 15:8). You show me a pastor or layman in a church who rejects THE TRUTH when handed to them, and it becomes obvious that they are phony in their testimony. The pastors and staff at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam rejected THE TRUTH that I gave them.

What truths did I give them? One helpful I handed them is a book called, "

[10]NIV: The Antichrist's Bible

by Pastor Al Lacy. Another helpful book that I handed to them is,

[11]Martin Luther: Master Of Deceit

by Pastor Max D. Younce. Another helpful book that I handed to Harvest's pastors is by Michael P. Bowen titled,

[12]I Never Knew You: The Coming Great White Throne Judgment And How You Can Avoid It.

" I hope that you will take the time to read these books, the last two of which are freely available to read online in .pdf format. Sadly, the Bob Jones crowd today are hardened sinners. They are wrong on repentance, wrong on the Gospel, and wrong on the Bible; but if you try to befriend them with THE TRUTH (as I lovingly did in 2014), they will outcast you as an enemy before you even realize what happened.

Since 2014 I have suffered inexplicable emotional pain because of Harvest's rejection, and the loss of Kris as my wife (I KNOW she would have married me), and loss of the only beloved church family that I knew. Oh, how I deeply love them and always will. I have been ostracized as Rudolph The Red-nosed Reindeer, simply because of my shiny King James Bible only nose. Harvest despises me because of my free grace Gospel only nose. Since 2014 they have not allowed me to join in to play in any of their reindeer games. That is as wicked as Hell, and Pastor Marty Herron knows it, but he is a coward and a rotten ungodly man. Harvest is doing many good works, but Jesus does not know them (Matthew 7:21-23). Anyone who thinks you must turn away from sin to be saved is lost. What saith the Scripture? John 6:28-29, "

Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent."

Sadly, the new senior pastor since 2018 has upheld all of the same wickedness as the former incompetent pastor. God's wrath and judgment is upon the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. They are not prospering in God's sight. They are naked, miserable and wretched (as the Lord said about the Laodicean church in Revelation 3:15-16); but Harvest is blinded to their own apostate condition, lulled by a spirit of sinful pride and indifference, and a woeful lack of compassion for hurting people like me. [13]They still have the 99 sheep, so they couldn't care less about me as that one lost lamb.

The Bible foretold that " perilous times

" would come, when people would selfishly do whatever they feel like doing (2nd Timothy 3:1-7). Young people don't go to Bible college anymore to serve God, they enroll into Bible college to pursue a secular career. These young immature girls today are desperate to settle for anybody they can find. It is pathetic. We've never seen ugly times like this, when pastors don't stand for anything anymore. The churches are pathetic these days. Truth means nothing to professed Christians anymore, most of whom are not even born-again. Nobody is saved who believes Lordship Salvation. Nobody is saved who thinks you have to turn away from sin to be saved.

Kindy said, [14]Dr. Steve Pettit and [15]Pastor Marty Herron are not saved. I KNOW that by the direct perverse teachings from their own mouths. They are religious con men in the pulpit. Ladies and gentlemen, we've got a bunch of unsaved religious infidels preaching another gospel from corruptible seed (perverse Bible revisions) in pulpits all across America! I love these truthful quotes from Dr. Jack Hyles...

> "The only inspired Words of God are in the King James Bible!" —Dr. Jack Hyles ([16]an awesome quote —Dr. Jack Hyles ([17]THE REAL BATTLE!")
> "We're in a battle for the Word of God, that's the big battle!" —[18]BATTLE OF THE AGES (an MP3 sermon by Dr. Jack Hyles, "The King James Bible crowd is going to come out on top!")

These Devil's Bibles are the primary source of all sorts of perverse teachings concerning the Gospel in churches today. Anybody who promotes the Devil's Lordship Salvation is the enemy of God. [19]Please listen to my favorite preacher, Pastor Jack Hyles, expose the Devil's fraud of Lordship Salvation. BJU are God's enemy! Bob Jones alumni are pulling on the same rope as the Devil with their false Bibles, misunderstood repentance and Lordship Salvation. These are all FALSEHOODS!!!

Psalms 119:104, "

Through thy precepts I get understanding: therefore I hate every false way.

Repentance Is Toward God, Not From Anything

I hope I have conveyed to you the vital seriousness of this matter of THE TRUTH. Repentance is **“

TOWARD GOD

” (Acts 20:21b), and not

anything. The truth is that when a man repents

“

toward God,

he has believed the Gospel. You don’t have to turn away from sinful behavior to receive God’s free gift of eternal life. Turning away from sin means cleaning up one’s life. Reformation is behavior modification, not Bible repentance. Dear reader, I absolutely cannot stress the importance of this issue enough.

For example: In Pacific Garden Mission’s radio program, UNSHACKLED ([20]program #3589 aired in 2020), a woman named Debbie Brooks meets with a religious friend named Sharon:

> SHARON: Trusting Jesus is the only thing that can make a difference in my messed-up life.
>
> DEBBIE: I keep hearing that in church, but I don’t get it—how something that EASY can be a life-changer.
>
> SHARON: Oh Debbie, it’s not easy—believing in Jesus means repenting and asking forgiveness for all the old ways, and then GIVING THEM UP FOR GOOD. When you find the COURAGE TO DO THAT, He’ll help you CHANGE YOUR LIFE.
> DEBBIE: Huh, well, I’ll have to think about it.

BLAPHEMY!!! Dear reader, what you just read taught by Pacific Garden Mission in Chicago is of the Devil, straight out of the pits of Hell. I hope you see how evil this is. PGM has moved away from the hope of the Gospel. According to the preceding UNSHACKLED program, it is NOT EASY to be saved, because you are required to GIVE UP YOUR OLD SINFUL WAYS PERMANENTLY! That is “another gospel” accursed by God! Somewhere along the way, Moody Bible Institute, Bob Jones University and Pacific Garden Mission became devout followers of Pastor John MacArthur’s demonic Lordship Salvation garbage theology! God’s curse is upon all of them…

> Galatians 1:6-9, "I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed."

Pacific Garden Mission are PREACHING ANOTHER GOSPEL!!! We are taught in 2nd Corinthians 11:3-4 that the Gospel is simple. Having to forsake the old sinful way of life is anything but simple. PGM has it backwards. God's plan of salvation is simply that you come to God as a needy sinner, and you receive His Son's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins. PGM demands that you turn from your sins first, which is not what the Bible teaches. PGM's false gospel is that you must make a commitment to follow the Lord. Judas followed Jesus and went to Hell. Matthew 27:3 says Judas "repented" of his sins, but he wasn't saved at all. Millions of religious people falsely think they will be in Heaven someday, but they will be in Hell. Luke 13:23-24, "Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them, Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able."

If I ask you to please go get something out of my car to bring me, I do not need to first ask you to leave the house. Leaving the house is automatic. Likewise, when a person believes the Gospel, they have repented. Repentance is automatic. That is why I never even bring up the word "repent" when witnessing to someone, because it will likely confuse them. The Gospel of John is God's Gospel tract (John 20:31). In the Gospel of John we find the word "believe" mentioned 85 times, but there is no mention of the word "repent." This is because repentance is automatic. The man who repents has believed, and the man who believes has repented. They are two sides of one coin, inseparably related.

Repentance simply facilitates believing the Gospel to be saved. Without repentance no man would ever believe. Repentance is simply " acknowledging THE TRUTH " that we are a guilty sinner (2nd Timothy 2:25; Romans 3:19-20). The Old Testament LAW shows us our sinful condition and need for salvation, and then brings us to CHRIST in the New Testament to be saved by grace through faith in Jesus Christ (Galatians 3:24-26). That is the simplicity of the Gospel (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4; 1st Corinthians 15:-4). So please don't allow anyone to confuse you by thinking of repentance in terms of LEAVING SOMETHING. Repentance is TOWARD something, toward God, acknowledging THE TRUTH that you are a needy sinner, so that you will REST IN CHRIST for salvation (Hebrews 4:10-11).

2.6.12 The Beautiful Bible Story Of Onesimus And The Apostle Paul (2021-06-20 09:30)

Philemon 1:9-19,

Yet for love’s sake I rather beseech thee, being such an one as Paul the aged, and now also a prisoner of Jesus Christ. I beseech thee for my son Onesimus, whom I have begotten in my bonds: Which in time past was to thee unprofitable, but now profitable to thee and to me: Whom I have sent again: thou therefore receive him, that is, mine own bowels: Whom I would have retained with me, that in thy stead he might have ministered unto me in the bonds of the gospel: But without thy mind would I do nothing; that thy benefit should not be as it were of necessity, but willingly. For perhaps he therefore departed for a season, that thou shouldest receive him for ever; Not now as a servant, but above a servant, a brother beloved, specially to me, but how much more unto thee, both in the flesh, and in the Lord? If thou count me therefore a partner, receive him as myself. If he hath wronged thee, or oweth thee ought, put that on mine account; I Paul have written it with mine own hand, I will repay it: albeit I do not say to thee how thou owest unto me even thine own self besides.”

I love this story. Onesimus was the slave property of Philemon. Before he got saved, Onesimus ran away to Rome to hide as a fugitive. It appears that the Apostle Paul met Onesimus in prison, where he led the young man to the Lord. The apostle Paul writes a letter to Philemon, his brother in Christ, pleading with him to take Onesimus back, not as a slave, but also as a new brother in Christ. This is a precious story.

Paul goes as far as to tell Philemon that if Onesimus has stolen or owes him any money, the apostle vows to pay it all back himself. Paul said that whereas beforehand Onesimus had been of no worth to either his owner or Paul, he is now a valuable asset in Christ to both men.

The Apostle Paul exemplifies the blessed Savior here. We were all debtors to sin, guilty and deserving of God’s wrath. But Jesus died for our sins on the cross, paying a debt that He did not owe, because we owed a massive debt that we could not pay. WHAT A PRECIOUS SAVIOR!!!

I marvel that so many pastors in these modern apostate times are getting the Gospel entirely wrong. This is because unsaved religious men fail to connect the dots between law and Christ, or respectively, law and grace. God authored ONE BOOK. And then God Himself made TWO great divisions to His inspired Word of Old and New Testaments, or respectively, LAW and CHRIST. The law shows humanity our sinnership, guilty condition and need for redemption. Romans 3:19-20, " Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God.

Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin. "

The law then brings us to Christ to be saved by grace through faith. Galatians 3:24-26, "Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith. But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster. For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus." The Bible is so plain and clear to understand in this matter, It behooves me to say that 99 % of pastors today have God's simple plan of salvation wrong! As long as we stay focused on LAW and CHRIST, God's plan of salvation remains simple, easy and free.

But when wicked, but well intended men, like Steve Pettit and John MacArthur and Ray Comfort and Marty Herron, ADD to God's plan of salvation, requiring people to give up their sinful ways, then it ceases to be God's simple plan, and has now become something different, man's plan of salvation.

I like to visit Baptist church websites to see what they believe, just to see where we're headed in fundamentalism in America. I read one church website the other day which requires a person to " commit your entire personality to Christ as Lord to be saved. That is not the Gospel. All this nonsense about making Jesus is unbiblical. You get saved by receiving Jesus as your Savior. John 1:12-13,

"But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name: Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God."

You receive Jesus as your Savior by faith, by taking God at His Word as recorded in the Scriptures. God knows our thoughts. The Lord sees when we decide to trust Jesus alone as our Savior, and miraculously saves us. If you have never read Michael P. Bowen's wonderful book, '[1]I NEVER KNEW YOU,' it is a tremendous defense of the simplicity of the Gospel. I wish every preacher in America would read it. Michael simply teaches the plain Holy Bible.

The story of Onesimus is a beautiful picture of the Gospel. The Apostle Paul assured Philemon that He would gladly pay whatever debt was owed by Onesimus. JESUS PAID IT ALL!!!

2.6.13 The Wickedness Of Adding To The Gospel (2021-06-22 22:59)

1st Corinthians 15:1-4, “

Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand;

By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain.

For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures;

And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:

One of the biggest evils that I preach again is [1]misunderstood repentance (an excellent writing by Pastor Jack Hyles). I am absolutely sickened and shocked by the arrogance and indifference of church pastors today, and Bible colleges, toward right doctrine. They just don’t care! You cannot show me even one place in the inspired King James Bible where it says to repent from your sins

turn away from your sins

to be saved. Yet, 75 % of Baptist church websites insist that a person must turn away from sin with all their heart to receive God’s free gift of eternal life. That is NOT the simplicity of the Gospel.

The demonic idea that you must forsake a lifestyle of sinning to be saved is rooted in self-righteousness. Ironically, these same false teachers boldly still insist that salvation is by grace alone through faith alone in Christ alone. They speak with a forked tongue! I’m talking about Pastor Marty Herron (executive vice president of Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary), Dr. Steve Pettit (president of Bob Jones University), Pastor Gary Walton of the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, Pastor Church Phelps of the Colonial Hills Baptist Church in Indianapolis, Dr. John MacArthur, Ray Comfort, Ken Ham, and many other infidels in the pulpit today who require people to “repent of your sin” to be saved. No such teaching is found in the Holy Bible!!!

God curse is upon these wicked false teachers. The man who believes on the Lord Jesus Christ as repented. Nothing more is required or allowed. I heard a wonderful sermon today by Pastor Steven Anderson called: “ [2]Rahab The Harlot .

” Rahab was saved by faith alone. She hung the scarlet thread from her window so the invading Jewish army could see (Joshua 2:18), which spared her life. Hebrews 1

1:31, “

By faith the harlot Rahab perished not with them that believed not, when she had received the spies with peace. ” This is a beautiful picture of what salvation is and is not. Rahab was saved by faith alone, but had she not hung the scarlet thread from her window her family would have been killed with the others in the city.

The true story of Rahab is a good illustration of James chapter 2, which Pastor Anderson explains in [3]his helpful sermon. Many preachers are [4]woefully ignorant of this passage of Scripture, unlearned of the Bible, wrestling the Scriptures to their own destruction. Sadly, the Bob Jones University crowd have been highly infected, and are a major carrier of the virus of Wrong Repentance and Lordship Salvation. They've contracted this from the Devil's modern corrupt Bible revisions. Tragically, the entire matter is laughable to the Bob Jones crowd. They don't take the matter seriously. They wreak with the stench of neo-evangelicalism and indifference toward doctrinal accuracy, Bible purity and truth in general. They certainly lack compassion for hurting people, which they have proven again and again.

It is frustrating to preach to a small tiny few, while hundreds of millions of deceived people blindly follow the Lordship Salvation crowd. No wonder Jesus said in Matthew 7:13-15 that only a FEW people will go to Heaven, and MANY are traveling the highway to Hell. The Bob Jones crowd are going to Hell, because they have another gospel. Faith in Christ is not enough according to Marty Herron, he says you must also turn away from a lifestyle of sinning. That is not the Gospel, not even in the ballpark. And yet everywhere that rotten man goes in the churches, he is welcomed and honored.

Hell is waiting for Pastor Herron and his manmade commandments (Nark 7:7-13). No where in the King James Bible are we taught to turn away from a lifestyle of sin to be saved. As a true friend does, I warned Pastor Herron from 2014 to 2018 (when he quit as senior pastor of Harvest). Instead of thanking me for caring about his soul, and trying to help Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, I was driven out as an “

(the word he called me). I was banned from returning. When I fell in love with the school nurse at Harvest, and begged to be allowed to court her for marriage, I was told to

go elsewhere

” (Herron's exact words).

Kris Hurlburt told me in writing never to contact her again, disrespecting me and siding with her wicked Lordship Salvation pastors. Hell is waiting for all of them. I TOLD THE TRUTH!!! They rejected that Bible truth and shamed me for it. I was so hurt. God will deal with them harshly, as they all dealt with me as a truth-teller (Matthew 7:1-2). They killed the prophet! My blood is on all of their hands, Kristen Hurlburt included. She horribly treated me like garbage! I came to her with love, and she spit on me with her words. I came to her with a desire to marry her, but she looked down on me in contempt as a truth-teller. I want God to punish all of them (Romans 12:19-21).

Dear reader, the Gospel is simply the GOOD NEWS that Jesus is the Christ, Who died in our place on the cross. Jesus was buried and three days later He bodily resurrected from the dead for our justification (1st Corinthians 15:1-6). The Bob Jones crowd have wickedly added turning away from your sinful ways to the Gospel. In so doing they have perverted God's grace. [5]Go read BJU's statement of faith, and you'll see that they add to the Gospel. BJU president [6]Steve Pettit was inspired by demons on January 26, 2015 when he preached this God damned sermon in chapel to 2,700 students and faculty. [7]Pastor Curtis Hutson exposes BJU's Lordship Salvation as a perversion of the Gospel. Dr. Hutson is right that [8]these wicked false teachers are not saved. Until the Bob Jones University crowd repent of their wrong idea of repentance for salvation, they cannot go to Heaven. Somewhere along the way the Bob Jones crowd lost their way doctrinally, and have never recovered from the errors of their damnable way. They are following John MacArthur into the fires of Hell.

In Matthew 7:21-23 and John 6:40, Jesus Himself made it very plain that the ONLY way to get to Heaven is to BELIEVE ON HIM. That is the exclusive will of the heavenly Father. Yet, the Bob Jones crowd still insist that you must repent of all your sins and turn away from them to be saved. They insist that you must commit the whole personality to Christ as absolute Lord to be saved, willing to follow Jesus no matter what the cost. [9]Pastor John MacArthur in his perverse book, "

Hard To Believe,

writes this damnable heresy:

> "Don't believe anyone who says it's easy to become a Christian. Salvation for sinners cost God His own Son; it cost God's Son His life, and it'll cost you the same thing..." [emphasis added] —[10]Dr. John MacArthur, Grace To You, an updated quote from his book 'Hard To Believe', page 93.

Friend, salvation cost Jesus everything, so God could offer us eternal life FREELY. There is NO COST to you to be saved. That is why the Bible calls salvation a " free gift

" in Romans 5:15. Eternal life is the gift of God through Jesus Christ our Lord (Romans 6:23). Mr. MacArthur was inspired by demons when he wrote those horrible untrue words above. Salvation doesn't cost us anything, because it cost Jesus everything!!! JESUS PAID IT ALL.

It is because I shared these truths with the pastor of Harvest Baptist Church on Guam that Kristen Hurlburt didn't marry me, and I am so heartbroken over it. She lost a guy that loved her more than anything else in life, but her pride and arrogance prevented her from seeing my love. She sided with those wicked pastors, who rejected THE TRUTH of God that I handed to them with love and friendship. Sadly, Kristen is merely looking for a husband, and not a man who loves THE TRUTH. If she wants to marry a bum, then that is what she'll get, at her loss. What do you think God is going to do to those wicked people, and Kristen as well for bidding them Godspeed? God must hold them all accountable to be a just God (Galatians 6:7).

God Called me To Preach, And I'm Preaching!

I was born and raised in Chicago. I was born in 1967. Both of my parents were Christians. My Mom (1935-2001) and my Dad (1933-2010) invested in me spiritually by enrolling me into a local independent fundamental Baptist church around 1979. On a Sunday after Sunday School we were all brought on a church bus to the main church auditorium to hear the preaching. I got saved that Sunday morning in 1980 as a 13 year old teenager. I thank God for saving me.

I am so thankful for the godly influence of those dear mothers, who worked as teachers at our Baptist school. I was privileged to attend throughout junior high and high school. Without the opportunity to receive a Christian education, and most of all receive the genuine love shown to me by my teachers, friends, youth director and pastor during those impressionable years, I never would have became a preacher. At age 15 I surrendered my life to preach the Gospel. At age 18 I went off to Hyles-Anderson College from 1985 to 1993 when I graduated. I love HAC and praise God for allowing me to be a part of Pastor Jack Hyles' ministry all those wonderful years.

I am a preacher! God called me to preach THE TRUTH, which I have faithfully done my whole life. God impressed upon my heart in 2002 to start my internet ministry. It has been a difficult challenge over the years. Since 2015 Google has sadly censored 85 % of my web traffic, effectively shutting down my ministry, just as they have banned Pastor Steven Anderson completely. Truly Satan is the god of this world (2nd Corinthians 4:3-4) and he doesn't want THE TRUTH to get out. Anybody who rejects the sinful homosexual deathstyle today is censored by Big Tech. That is so anti-freedom! America today is not the land of liberty. Unless you subscribe to the evil agendas of our perverse generation, you are silenced. That is the Devil at work.

This is a wicked generation like none other. The worst wickedness I see today are America's gutless, theologically corrupt, uncompassionate and uncaring pastors, who are lackadaisical and shirk right doctrine aside. Pastor Marty Herron is a monster! My blood and lost of Kristen Hurlburt as my wife is upon his bloody hands. I wish I could take his wife away from him, and share my pain with him, and let him see with misery is. That man is a spoiled rich fool. He is now collecting a 6-digit sickening salary as executive vice president of Faith Baptist Bible College and Theological Seminary in Ankeny, Iowa (since 2018).

Marty Herron is the blind leading the blind spiritually, doing what he does best—milking the money cow while parasiting off of Christendom for his own belly and personal benefit (Romans 16:17-18). That man belongs in prison, and if I had the power to do so he'd be rotting there for the rest of his life on earth! My hope and prayer is that God will avenge me of his wickedness and evil heart, because he boldly rejected THE TRUTH and punished me for it (Matthew 7:1-2; Romans 12:19-21; Titus 1:10-13; Galatians 1:6-8, 3:1-3, 5:4, 6:7). I haven't had a church family since 2014, all because of Marty Herron's hatred against me, prejudice and rejection of THE TRUTH of God's Word. Romans 3:4, "God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged.

This is why Jesus warned in Luke 16:13, "No servant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon." Marty Herron is a coward, for which he will be held accountable by God! Instead of siding with THE TRUTH that I gave him, as a respectable honest preacher would, he threw me under the bus and left me for dead. God will be His Judge, and I cannot wait for the court date (Hebrews 9:27).

I am 100 % convinced that Marty Herron is not a born-again Christian. NO WAY! There is no way that he can be, considering that he teaches people to "turn away from a lifestyle of sin to get to Heaven." That is pure works! I heard him say it with my own two ears at Harvest in 2014. I went home and cried in disgust! In response to his heretical sermon, I handed him this book: " [11]I NEVER KNEW YOU .

I was reprimanded and driven out of Harvest Baptist Church on Guam because of that book. Harvest's pastors are devils in the pulpit (2nd Corinthians 11:13-15). Satan is a beautiful liar!

Did you know that [12]John MacArthur's book teaching Lordship Salvation is required reading for every student at Brigham Young University in Utah, because the Mormons agree with MacArthur's perverse theology? It is 100 % true! If you study what all of the religious cults believe (Jehovah Witnesses, Mormons, Catholics, Seventh-Day Adventists, Church of Christ, et cetera), you'll find that every cult teaches that you must "

repent of your sins

" to get to Heaven. Yet you cannot find any such teaching in the inspired Word of God. Repentance is toward God (Acts 20:21). Repentance is to the acknowledgment of THE TRUTH (2nd Timothy 2:25). Repentance simply means that you see your guilt as a needy sinner (Romans 3:19-20), so that you will BELIEVE the Good News of Jesus Christ to be saved (Galatians 3:24-26).

One day my Bible preaching will be 100 % vindicated, because I agree with God's Word. Their disgusting apologies won't mean a thing to me in eternity, nor will God let them off that easily. Crimes have been committed. Losing Kristen as my wife is a crime, because I told THE TRUTH, and I was punished and ostracized from Harvest and Kristen because of it. My blood is upon their ungodly hands. Just as an apology does not suffice in criminal court, nor will their apologies matter in eternity. They must be held liable and suffer the penalties of their gross wickedness, and all the people they have hurt and sent to the Lake of Fire by preaching another gospel.

[13]Turning away from your sin is NOT a part of the Gospel of free grace. [14]Surrendering to Christ's Lordship is NOT a part of the Gospel (which should be abundantly clear from reading Matthew 7:21-23). [15]Exchanging your life for Christ's life is NOT a part of the Gospel. The haughty Bob Jones University crowd (the school and their alumni) wreak with the stench of cocky arrogance, a club mentality of "Us Four And No More" (which is very cultish), and a woeful lack of compassion for hurting people or anyone who disagrees with their heresy.

God's eternal curse is upon Pastor Chuck Phelps and his son Daniel (the family is cursed).

God's curse is upon Pastor Marty Herron and his family. God's curse is upon Bob Jones University, that accursed cesspool of Lordship Salvation today. God's curse is upon the shameful Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. [16]Galatians 1:6-9 pronounces GOD'S CURSE upon anyone who preaches ANOTHER GOSPEL. I long day and night to be avenged of the Bob Jones crowd. I have come out uncompromisingly against them since 2014, as [17]Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) would have done himself today if he could. Dr. Bob said that we pay infidels to rob the faith of our saints. [18]Dr. Bob is talking about Steve Pettit!!! Calvinism is of the Devil.

It is interesting that my parents dedicated me to the Lord at age one in 1968, the same year that Dr. Bob Jones Sr. went to Heaven. Perhaps God raised me up as a preacher against the apostasy at Bob Jones University. I mentioned that one time to the pastors at Harvest, for which they laughed in my face! Say what they will, God showed mercy toward Harvest Baptist Church on Guam by using a humble sinner like me to give them THE TRUTH. I handed Dr. Al Lacy's excellent book, "

[19]NIV: The Antichrist's Bible

" to their pastors. I put hard copies into their hands. Associate pastor Jared Baldwin laughed in my face and refused to take the book! Senior pastor Marty Herron disregarded the book as heresy, for which I was threatened in the church office never to tell another church member about that book! MY BLOOD IS ON THEIR WICKED HANDS!!!!!!!

2.6.14 Beware Of Ungodly Advice From Serpents In Your Life (2021-06-23 09:30)

Genesis 3:1-13, "Now the serpent was more subtil than any beast of the field which the LORD God had made. And he said unto the woman, Yea, hath God said, Ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden?

And the woman said unto the serpent, We may eat of the fruit of the trees of the garden: But of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, God hath said, Ye shall not eat of it, neither shall ye touch it, lest ye die. And the serpent said unto the woman, Ye shall not surely die: For God doth know that in the day ye eat thereof, then your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as gods, knowing good and evil. And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise, she took of the fruit thereof, and did eat, and gave also unto her husband with her; and he did eat. And the eyes of them both were opened, and they knew that they were naked; and they sewed fig leaves together, and made themselves aprons. And they heard the voice of the LORD God walking in the garden in the cool of the day: and Adam and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the LORD God amongst the trees of the garden. And the LORD God called unto Adam, and said unto him, Where art thou? And he said, I heard thy voice in the garden, and I was afraid, because I was naked; and I hid myself.

And he said, Who told thee that thou wast naked? Hast thou eaten of the tree, whereof I commanded thee that thou shouldest not eat? And the man said, The woman whom thou gavest to be with me, she gave me of the tree, and I did eat. And the LORD God said unto the woman, What is this that thou hast done? And the woman said, The serpent beguiled me, and I did eat."

There are multiple life-changing truths that can be gleaned from this beautiful passage of Scripture. One of the most profound truths to me is that the serpent (Satan - Revelation 20:2) started off by talking about what God said. Isn't that interesting?

One of my favorite YouTube channels is '[1]The Better Bachelor' by a man who goes by the nickname "

Joker.

" Unfortunately, Joker is an unsaved immoral man who openly promotes whoremongering. I love his YouTube channel because he is 99 % correct about women's horrible attitudes toward marriage and men. Much of what Joker says is true. He has 304,000 subscribers, about 10 % of whom are women. I like Joker and can relate to his bachelor's lifestyle. My own former wife of 18 years divorced me in 2006 and has never apologized for anything. The closest she has come to an apology is to blame three other women for pressuring her to file for divorce, just as Eve blamed the serpent in Genesis 3:1-5. And just like the serpent, those three ungodly women went their merry way after ruining another woman's life. The biggest mistake you'll ever make is to listen to the ungodly advice of other people during troublesome times in your marriage.

Not by my own choosing, my own former wife of 18 years divorced me in 2006 and has never apologized for anything. The closest she has come to an apology is to blame three other women for pressuring her to file for divorce, just as Eve blamed the serpent in Genesis 3:1-5. And just like the serpent, those three ungodly women went their merry way after ruining another woman's life. The biggest mistake you'll ever make is to listen to the ungodly advice of other people during troublesome times in your marriage. ...

> "You will find that a man who is full of the Holy Spirit is full of Scripture, and that will lead you aright. But a man who preaches and has dreams and everything but the Word to present to you, you cannot tell where he will lead you." —Pastor Dwight L. Moody

The Bible warns us about taking advice from ungodly people...

> Psalm 1:1-2, "
>
> Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly*, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.
>
> But his delight is in the law of the LORD; and in his law doth he meditate day and night.

The way you avoid ungodly advice is to SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES as Jesus commanded. John 5:39, "Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me." The only way to make the darkness go away is to shine the light. In the presence of THE TRUTH, all lies lose their effectiveness! That is why the Bible says we need lying false prophets, so truth-tellers like me can use them as a blank canvas to PREACH THE TRUTH! 1st Corinthians 11:19, " For there must be also heresies among you, that they which are approved may be made manifest among you.

There is MUCH ungodly advice on YouTube and the internet. I've been watching many videos by men about their bad experiences with women. One common complaint by men is that the court system in America is unfair, biased in favor of women, and totally anti-marriage. They are 100 % correct!!! That is one of the main reasons why most men won't get married nowadays, for fear of becoming a weekend Dad, and being forced to support a rebellious wife for decades to come (if not life). If a marriage goes bad, the man doesn't get anything. He loses his companion. He loses his sex life. He loses his cook. He loses his helpmeet. He loses everything. Yet, the courts force the man to continue to financially support her. Talk about unfair! She can hook-up with a new boyfriend. Her new guy could be an airplane pilot making $125,000 a year. It doesn't matter, her former betrayed husband now has to see 50 % of his wages garnished. Can you blame men for now wanting to tie the knot?

Worse, most women today are willing to hook-up instead of demand marriage. And the one's who do demand marriage often end up lonely and single permanently, especially if you are nearing your 40th birthday. The best advice you'll hear dear reader is to NEVER have sex outside of a legally binding marriage which can be enforced in a court of law. That is a great deterrent from a partner walking out the door and abandoning you. That is why men won't commit. But as long as loose women are willing to have physical relations outside of marriage, a large percentage of men won't seek marriage, and I cannot blame them. It is not right, and I am not justifying sin, God forbid, but I can understand why men these days are reluctant to commit from the horror stories I have heard of marriages gone wrong.

Get married and stay married!!! That is the best advice you'll ever hear. It is godly advice. A marriage is two people never giving up on each other. But once there has been a divorce, it's over. You now have a choice. When the preacher John Wesley was asked about his wife divorcing him he responded: "I did not dismiss her. I did not abandon her. I will not recall her." I feel exactly the same about my former wife divorcing me in 2006. Good riddance!

Be careful who you take advice from. The Word of God is out ONLY authority is all matters of faith, life and morality. If you research the psychiatry industry, you'll discover that the concept of sin is not recognized by their profession. Therefore, how can they truly help people with their mental problems, which are caused by living in rebellion against God? If you go visit a psychiatrist, there is a 100 % chance of you leaving with a prescription for drugs! Drugs can help some people, and I think are necessary. Pastor Jack Hyles used to say that some people do need a psychiatrist. There are some insane people. So I am not totally against the psychiatrist profession, but in most cases I believe people actually need spiritual help, which an unsaved or atheist psychiatrist cannot provide.

There is no better counsel than searching the Scriptures. I only use and recommend the inspired King James Bible. I got saved at 13 years of age. I have never used any other Bible than the King James Bible. I have been saved for 41 years. I have no difficulty understanding the King James Bible. In time you won't either if you study it. Do we cheapen and rewrite Shakespeare? No, we study it in the beauty in which it was written. The same holds true of the beloved King James Bible.

Lessons From Eve In The Garden Of Eden

In the Garden of Eden, Eve was minding her own business and along came the serpent. Eve was caught off guard. Dear reader, an idle mind is the Devil's workshop. You should always stay focused on God and His Word. Isaiah 26:3, "

Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee: because he trusteth in thee. " If you want to have perfect peace and a stable sound mind, then get into the Word of God. When Jesus healed the demon possessed maniac of Gadarenes, the townspeople found him clothed and in his right mind. I love that! Jesus will keep you in your RIGHT MIND. Mark 5:15, "

And they come to Jesus, and see him that was possessed with the devil, and had the legion, sitting, and clothed, and in his right mind: and they were afraid.

We all need God’s wisdom. We should all read or [2]listen to the Old Testament book of Proverbs regularly for wisdom. The Bible WILL give the reader wisdom. Many people are as mindless lemmings, merely going along with what they here. Proverb 14:15, “

The simple believeth every word: but the prudent man looketh well to his going. ” Millions of Americans foolishly believe whatever the newsmedia spoon-feeds them. A wise person thinks for them self, fearing God and taking regard to the wisdom of God’s Word. James 1:5, “

If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him.

” God promises to give wisdom to those of His children who ask. If you are not saved, a Christ-rejecter, then you cannot expect God to give you wisdom in your unbelief. The Bible says God’s wrath abides upon the head of every Christ rejecter (John 3:36).

Eve saw that the forbidden fruit was good to look upon. She thought that it would make her wise. She thought that the fruit was good for food. The sin looked so good. She thought the sin would benefit her. She thought the sin would taste good, and it did at first. But Eve would later choke in bitter regret that she ever took that first bite!!! That is exactly how sin works. We see the bright and flashy lights of SIN CITY Las Vegas. We men see the pretty woman, or women that handsome guy. We see the shiny box that sin comes in, but we don’t see the rotting dead consequences that sin brings into our life. Oh how sin thrills and then it kills! Oh how sin fascinates and then it assassinates! The Devil is a beautiful liar!

Never take anyone’s advice without consulting the Holy Scriptures. Proverbs 3:5-7, “ Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding.

In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.

Be not wise in thine own eyes: fear the LORD, and depart from evil. ” I love that Bible passage.

Dear reader, never let anyone talk you into filling for divorce. That is the Devil. Never let someone talk you into premarital sex. That is the Devil. Never let anyone talk you into hurting someone. That is the Devil. Never let anyone talk you into committing a sin or a crime. That is Satan! Proverbs 1:10,

“My son, if sinners entice thee, consent thou not. ” God bless you and thank you for reading my articles. I pray each day for God to give me wisdom, so I can help others for my dear God and Savior.

2.6.15 Wicked Men Like Marty Herron Ruin People's Lives (2021-06-23 20:50)

Acts 16:30-31, "

And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved?

And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house.

I love the simplicity of the Word of God. Although there are many passages of Scripture which are indeed controversial, the topic of salvation is abundantly clear in the Holy Bible. God authored the Gospel of John to show us how to go to Heaven. John 20:31, "But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name." As you can clearly see, John 20:31 penned by the Apostle John is in full agreement with Acts 16:30-31 written by the Apostle Luke. To be saved we are simply told to BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST.

With such clear Scriptural evidence in view, it is tragic and disturbing that countless religious leaders today pervert the Gospel, teaching doctrines of devils. These men are sincere, but dead wrong in their theological error. A sincere but woefully ignorant 73 year old man emailed me recently, scolding me for preaching against Pacific Garden Mission (PGM) in Chicago, and their 'UNSHACKLED' radio series. So many people are deceived by Satan! UNSHACKLED's heart-touching stories are captivating and interesting, but many of them are not Scriptural concerning how to be saved. The Bible is our final standard, not the teachings of men. What saith the Scripture? I just showed you what the Bible says in Acts 16:30-31 and John 20:31. We are saved by BELIEVING ON JESUS.

The Damnable Counterfeit Gospel Of Pacific Garden Mission

Now take a disturbing look at [1]what Pacific Garden Mission (PGM) teaches, and you'll understand why I preach against these infidels of the faith.

In UNSHACKLED [2]program #3589 (aired in 2020), a woman named Debbie Brooks meets with a religious friend named Sharon:

> SHARON: Trusting Jesus is the only thing that can make a difference in my messed-up life.
>
> DEBBIE: I keep hearing that in church, but I don't get it—how something that EASY can be a life-changer.
>
> DEBBIE: Huh, well, I'll have to think about it.

Dear reader, what you just read taught by Pacific Garden Mission in Chicago is of the Devil, straight out of the pits of Hell. I hope you see how evil this is. PGM has moved away from the hope of the Gospel. According to the preceding UNSHACKLED program, it is NOT EASY to be saved, because you are required to GIVE UP YOUR OLD SINFUL WAYS PERMANENTLY! That is "another gospel" accursed by God! Somewhere along the way, Moody Bible Institute, Bob Jones University and Pacific Garden Mission became devout followers of [3]Pastor John MacArthur's demonic Lordship Salvation garbage theology! God's curse is upon all of them—including infidels' Marty Herron, Chuck Phelps, Sam Horn, Steve Pettit, Tom Ferrell, Joe Hansen, Jared Baldwin and Gary Walton.

I make absolutely no apologies for preaching against the damnable heresies being propagated by PGM.

Pacific Garden Mission is guilty of preaching another gospel...

> Galatians 1:6-9, "I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.

> But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed."

Pacific Garden Mission is PREACHING ANOTHER GOSPEL!!! We are taught in 2nd Corinthians 11:3-4 that the Gospel is simple. Having to forsake the old sinful way of life is anything but simple. PGM has it backwards. God's plan of salvation is simply that you come to God as a needy sinner, and you receive His Son's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins. PGM demands that you turn from your sins first, which is not what the Bible teaches.

Again, I just showed you from John 20:31 and Acts 16:30-31 that we are saved by BELIEVING ON JESUS. Nothing more is required! Repentance is automatic. The man who believes on the Lord Jesus Christ has repented (i.e., changed his mind toward God - Acts 20:21). If repentance was a separate act from believing, then the Bible would have said to repent and believe in Acts 16:30-31 and John 20:31, but it doesn't. The Bible simply says to BELIEVE on Jesus!

What right do wicked men have to add to God's Words? Proverbs 30:5-6, "Every word of God is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him.

Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar.

" Pastor Marty Herron is a liar. Dr. Steve Pettit is a liar. Pastor John MacArthur is a liar. Pacific Garden Mission are liars. Cartoon evangelist Jack Chick is a liar. Dr. Sam Horn is a liar. Bob Jones University are liars. Moody Bible Institute are liars. Harvest Baptist Church on Guam are liars. Pastor Gary Walton is a liar. The proponents of Lordship Salvation are liars. Those who teach that a person must turn away from sin to be saved are liars. These are all the commandments of men, which make the inspired Word of God of none effect (Mark 7:7-13).

PGM's false gospel says you must make a commitment to follow Jesus as "

Lord.

Yet, Judas followed Jesus as one of His very apostles and still went to Hell. Matthew 27:3 says Judas "repented" of his sins, but he wasn't saved at all. Millions of religious people falsely think they will be in Heaven someday, because they are trying to faithfully live the Christian life, but they will be in Hell (Matthew 7:21-23). Luke 13:23-24, "Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them, Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able."

Here is PGM's 'GO TO' Bible passage—2nd Corinthians 5:17-18, "Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new. And all things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation;" There is a fine line between faith and foolishness! God knows that I am not trying to be negative, nor criticize Pacific Garden Mission without a cause; but rather, they are pressuring sinners to make a commitment to turn away from sin to be saved, which is not a part of the Gospel.

The

" spoken of in 2nd Corinthians 5:17 is wrought by the work of the indwelling Holy Spirit, and NOT by the recipient of God's free gift of eternal life by faith alone. God saves a man by faith alone (this is justification), and then the indwelling Holy Spirit changes that man over a lifetime of growing in grace (this is sanctification). PGM's worldwide popular 'UNSHACKLED' radio broadcast preaches another gospel which cannot produce regeneration (the new birth).

The Deadly Bob Jones University Crowd Today

It is critically important that sanctification within be kept entirely separate from justification without. Pilgrim's Progress author and Gospel preacher, John Bunyan (1628-1688), said it well:

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." [emphasis added] —Evangelist John Bunyan

I love that helpful quote. In fact, it is one of my favorite quotes. It shows that John Bunyan fully understood that a changed life has NOTHING to do with receiving the free gift of eternal life, which is solely by the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ (Philippians 3:9). The entire Bob Jones University crowd today are deceived by the Devil, because they do not put a difference between justification and sanctification. Proof of what I say is clearly seen in [4]the following horrifying quote from Dr. Steve Pettit (an unsaved infidel who has hi-jacked the leadership of BJU since 2014):

> "You can't just speak about getting saved, and you accepted Christ, and then that's it! There is a justification; There is a sanctification; There's ultimately a glorification, and though there are three parts, they are all part of the whole, and you cannot separate them. In order for you to qualify for the award, you have to get into the race, you have to stay in the race, and you have to finish the race. If you want to win, you have to run to the end; and winning in the Christian life is everything, because if you lose—if you don't finish—you lose everything—you lose your SOUL. And so, the Christian race is the life of faith that begins, is run, and is finished when we cross over into Heaven!" —[5]Dr. Steve Pettit ("What Does It Mean To Run 'The Race'?" - [6]11:34)

As you just read from Steve Pettit's own words, he teaches that you CANNOT separate justification from sanctification. In so doing, Dr. Pettit is guilty of corrupting the Word of God and casting stumbling blocks before the people. Anyone who bids Godspeed to BJU today and Steve Pettit are pulling on the same rope as the Devil. Pastor Marty Herron is a shameful loyal supporter and friend of the Devil, by bidding Godspeed to BJU and Steve Pettit. These men are infidels of the Christian faith! For taking a faithful stand for THE TRUTH, at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam between 2014 to 2021, I was cruelly driven out of their church family by Marty Herron and thrown under the bus. God will avenge me for their cruelty, for killing the prophet who bared witness unto THE TRUTH. For my blessing they cursed me.

Pastor Marty Herron Wickedly Ruined My Life

Harvest's senior pastor Marty Herron ruined my life, refusing me permission to attend church anymore since 2014. My only crime was befriending them with THE TRUTH. I kindly handed them books proclaiming THE TRUTH that the modern Bible revisions are corrupt. I gave them books (that I bought with my own money) proclaiming THE TRUTH that [7]Lordship Salvation is a perversion of God's grace. I gave them books proving that Martin Luther (1483-1546) was not a born-again Christian, because he taught the heresy of Baptismal Regeneration (requiring water baptism to be saved) all his life. Luther's catechisms which he wrote in 1529 confirm this fact. Luther allegedly got saved in 1517 A.D., but clearly he did not get saved!

I literally apologized, humbled myself and pleaded in 2017 three times with Harvest's pastors just to be able to attend church services, so I could date Kristen Hurlburt (the school's nurse). I loved Kristen and I know as sure as I am saved that she wanted me. Sadly, she was coerced by her ungodly bully bosses to get rid of me. She cruelly told me in a cold email in 2017 never to contact her again, right after I told her in a heartfelt letter that I loved her and wanted to marry her. I never heard from Kristen again.

If she had simply responded like an adult, and simply let me know that it was okay to contact her again, we would have been married. That was all her own fault. Kris is a graduate of BJU and I will always love and miss her. Marty Herron is the devil who kept us apart, and my blood is upon his ungodly hands.

I know as sure as I am born-again that me and Kristen would have been married. I would have given her my body, soul and spirit. I love her so much, still today. I would have died for her, and given everything in this world in love to her. But once she told me to leave her alone, my mindset was that I was not allowed to contact her again, and I am a gentleman, so I didn't. Kristen was very immature and handled the whole situation very foolishly. I wrote her as an adult, in total love, but she never contacted me again, which was her decision alone. You cannot mistreat a guy like that and leave it there, and expect anything good to happen.

My heart will always be broken, because Kristen dealt treacherously with me, because I TOLD THE TRUTH and Harvest's pastors counted me as their enemy for it (Galatians 4:16). Kris was weak and allowed her bosses to control her mind, and she lost out, and so did I. God will judge this matter in eternity. I want to be avenged. Those wicked and selfish men all have wives, and kept me from the wife I could have had. I always wanted Kristen as my wife and never once thought differently, but she turned me away and never contacted me again, and I was scared to approach her. In addition, I am nearsighted and cannot see too well, so even if I had seen her, I could not be sure it was her. Kristen really messed things up for us. I am sad that Kris allowed her wicked pastors, who disregard THE TRUTH, to keep her and me apart.

Please read these Bible passages again. Acts 16:30-31, "

And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved?

And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house.

John 20:31, "But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name." There is nothing in the Bible about surrendering to Christ's Lordship. There is nothing mentioned about turning away from a lifestyle of sin. There is nothing mentioned about committing one's life and personality to Christ. There is nothing else mentioned, just to BELIEVE ON JESUS.

Kindly said, I am not the one who has perverted the Gospel, Marty Herron does! Joe Hansen and Jared Baldwin bid Godspeed to this evil, having worked on staff as associate pastors at Harvest. These wicked men are in big trouble with God! When I handed them THE TRUTH, they killed the prophet. They counted me as their enemy and refused to even allow me to attend church, knowing that my life was a trainwreck and I needed their compassion and help, but they left me for dead. Their blood be upon their own heads! My blood be upon these wicked infidels of the faith! God will avenge me (Romans 12:19-21; Galatians 1:6-9, 3:1-3, 5:4, 6:7; Matthew 7:1-2, 12:36; Proverbs 30:5-6).

Why do wicked men corrupt the Gospel? They do it to go along with their wicked peers in the ministry. Pastor Jack Hyles is right—They don't want to suffer reproach for the name of Christ! They don't want to be put outside the gate with Jesus! The Bob Jones crowd don't stand! They sell out in sinful compromise, going along to get along, following wherever the money leads them, to their next job. Marty Herron quit Harvest in 2018 to go become the executive vice president of Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary (a disgusting private college in Ankeny, Iowa with the primary goal of making profits for its investors).

Mr. Herron is a selfish unsaved infidel, who ought not be allowed to speak in any pulpit in America. If I had my way he'd be rotting in prison for all the lives he has destroyed, especially mine. It hurts my soul daily that there is nothing I can do to hold him accountable for the evils he has caused, by his haughty arrogance, rejection of THE TRUTH, refusing to let me and Kristen date, and throwing me under the bus for befriending him with THE TRUTH of God's Word. It is my earnest prayer that God will speedily avenge me, and wipe that smirk off Herron's face. Herron is now getting paid a 6-digit salary. Religious crime pays well! I've never met such a phony man in all my life. Deep in my heart I love Pastor Herron (I don't hate anybody), but after costing my Kristen as my wife, I want Marty Herron to pay for what he has done. Sadly, he is cocky and arrogant in his wealthy lifestyle, 100 % a self-righteous Pharisee.

I rest my case. I have only preached THE TRUTH. Go will be my only Judge!!! [8]Lordship Salvation is a lie of the Devil. [9]Misunderstood Repentance is a lie of the Devil. The [10]modern Westcott and Hort translated Bible revisions are all of the Devil. Oftentimes in life people will hurt us, and there is absolutely nothing within the law that we can do to obtain justice. Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) used to wisely say: "Everyone deserves justice, whether he is 3 years old or 90—everybody deserves JUSTICE!" I want justice against Marty Herron. That horrible man ruined my life, and I won't rest until God punishes him for siding with the Devil's error.

Everything is a joke to the yuppie-type Bob Jones crowd today. They are shallow neo-evangelicals, following the mainstream evangelical trend; and anybody who dares to tell them that God only authored ONE BOOK (the King James Bible, not dozens of revisions), and there is only ONE GOSPEL (a free grace Gospel, not Lordship Salvation), as I did, is cast out as their enemy (Galatians 4:16). God is on my side for one reason, because I am on God's side (Romans 3:4). I TOLD THE TRUTH, and it cost me dearly. It cost me Kristen Hurlburt as my wife. It cost me my church family for 7 painful years. I cost me many tears, loneliness and inexplicable heartache for 7 years. All the time Marty Herron was living large! I want God to avenge me!!! Luke 18:7, " And shall not God avenge his own elect, which cry day and night unto him, though he bear long with them?"

Senior pastor Gary Walton is no better at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, a selfish man who only cares about his paycheck. My blood is mostly on Pastor Herron's hands, and God will punish him for it. I plead with God for justice! No one has bothered to speak to me since 2014 from Harvest, despite me umpteen pleas for their love and help. Where dwelleth the love of God? There is no love or compassion at Harvest. They have the 99 sheep, so who cares about me (that one lost lamb who needs their help)? I believe God showed mercy toward Harvest's pastors, staff and members by sending me to their church between 2014 to 2021 (SEVEN YEARS; GOD's FAVORITE NUMBER). That is no coincidence. Harvest's pastors and congregation killed the prophet. I came to them in love and humility bearing gifts of THE TRUTH, which they cast to the ground and mocked me, laughing in God's face.

I am writing this article as a testimony against [11]the entire wicked Bob Jones University CULT.

God willing, I am leaving Guam in 7 days to move to Pensacola, Florida. My heart is broken. My life is lonely without a wife. Marty Herron did this to me! If that ungodly man had simply given me a second chance, I would have removed all my criticisms against Harvest Baptist Church from the internet, and Kristen would have married me, if they had shown mercy; but their hatred, unforgiveness, prejudice and paranoia ruined my life. All I ever wanted was a church family. What kind of pastor refuses to allow a broken hurting sinner to attend church services? I even offered in 2017 to meet with Pastor Herron for counsel in his office, welcoming his spiritual help with my broken life, but he arrogantly refused.

Harvest's shameful pastors cruelly told me to go away. They just don't care at Harvest, because it doesn't affect their paycheck not to care. I do not know what the future holds. God willing, I am going to diligently look for a woman to restart my life with in Florida. I've already purchased a ticket for a singles event in August. I am going to sign up for Match.com when I get to Florida. Fuddrucker BJU and Harvest! Psalms 109:4-5, " For my love they are my adversaries: but I give myself unto prayer. And they have rewarded me evil for good, and hatred for my love."

I've never felt like quitting like I do now. I am so sick of money-oriented fake Christians like Marty Herron, who play God with people's lives, hurting whoever they don't like and leaving damaged lives behind. Pastor Herron left a mess on Guam! He thought he would just abandon ship and go his merry way, like the serpent did in Genesis after ruining Eve's life. Marty Herron is a serpent!!! Harvest will never be the same because of the evil he has done while their shameful senior pastor. You either love everybody or you love nobody! Herron only superficially loves those who line his pockets with money, serving his own belly (Romans 16:17-18). America is going to Hell because of neo-evangelicals and their chaotic rash of confusing Bible revisions, multiple corrupt variations of the Gospel, haughty stiffnecked arrogance, and dictatorship style of playing God with people's lives. Search the internet and you'll see why so many thousands of people (victims) hate the abusive Bob Jones crowd.

According to [12]Matthew 7:21-23 Marty Herron is going to Hell, because Jesus does not know him. [13]Pastor Curtis Hutson exposes Marty Herron as a devil in the pulpit, and exposes the entire [14]damned Bob Jones crowd. I have told THE TRUTH. That is why I was excommunicated from Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. I want to be avenged by God. I still don't have a wife, while Marty Herron enjoys home-cooked meals and romance. Marty Herron couldn't care less about anybody but himself. WHAT A WICKED MAN!!! Hell is coming up to get him. Herron is not my Christian brother, he is a reprobate, a wolf in sheep's clothing!

1st Samuel 24:12-13, " The LORD judge between me and thee, and the LORD avenge me of thee: but mine hand shall not be upon thee. As saith the proverb of the ancients, Wickedness proceedeth from the wicked: but mine hand shall not be upon thee."

2.6.16 The Wickedness Of Pastor Marty Herron And The Bob Jones Crowd (2021-06-25 09:30)

Matthew 7:19-23, “

Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them*.

Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.

Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works?

And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity*.

The Holy Bible says that we will know someone by their “ fruits.

” A fatal mistake that so many people make is to ass-u-me that

means

works.

It absolutely does not. The context of this passages is very clear. Jesus is speaking about one’s doctrine, not their works. Proof of this is the fact that these religious people boasted of their “ many wonderful works,

” yet they were corrupt in their plan of salvation. The Savior denied knowing them! Jesus called them workers of iniquity! Their woeful error was that they failed to obey the will of God, which according to John 6:40 is to

“

BELIEVE ON HIM.

” We are saved by placing our childlike faith in Jesus Christ, period. Salvation is not faith in Christ, plus something else.

I’d like to point out that these were GOOD PEOPLE! They did many wonderful works. They did these works in Jesus’ name. They prophesied (preached) in Jesus’ name. They cast out devils in Jesus’ name. They even called Jesus **“

LORD, LORD. ” There’s your Lordship Salvation heresy right there! Many churches (especially Baptists) today have succumbed to the Devil’s lie that to be saved, faith MUST include a life of devotion to serving Christ, turning away from a sinful lifestyle, surrendering all to Jesus as absolute “

Lord,

” faithfully running the race (living the Christian life) until the end, counting the cost and paying the price, exchanging all that you are for all that Christ is, and following Jesus no matter what the cost. This fallacy is the same [1]Lordship type of false gospel that Seventh-Day Adventists (SDA) teach.

In sharp contrast to all that extra garbage, which the proponents of Lordship Salvation and the SDA cult ADD to God’s simple plan of salvation, the Bible defines faith as simply RESTING in God’s righteousness through faith alone in Jesus Christ....

> Hebrews 4:10-11, “
>
> For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works*, as God did from his.
>
> Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest,* lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief.

Jesus proclaimed this great truth in John 6:28-29, “Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God?

Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent. ” The only labour (work) which God allows to be saved is to BELIEVE ON JESUS!!! This is true Bible faith, not the ridiculous demonic faith of wicked men that require doing a bunch of things to get to Heaven. We are saved by FAITH IN CHRIST, PERIOD; not by FAITH IN CHRIST, PLUS something else.

Please RUN away from any bad preacher or corrupt pastor who tells you to “repent of your sin” to be saved. That wicked man has added a step to salvation beyond what God requires. Nowhere in the King James Bible are we taught to repent or turn away from sinning to be saved. These are manmade commandments. The Bible simply teaches to BELIEVE ON HIM. John 9:36, “He answered and said, Who is he, Lord, that I might believe on him?

A common attack made by the Lordship Salvation crowd is that free grace advocates (such as myself) are guilty of leaving off repentance. No, we haven’t left off repentance. No one has ever been saved who didn’t repent. But Bible

(metanoeo, a verb) simply means to think differently.

“

Acts 20:21 speaks of repentance **“

TOWARD GOD.

” 2nd Timothy 2:25 speaks of repentance

“

TO THE ACKNOWLEDGING OF THE TRUTH.

” The Bible never speaks of repentance from sin. A man is saved by BELIVING ON JESUS!!! Repentance is automatic, which is why we find the word

mentioned 85 times in the Gospel of John, but the word

“

is not mentioned even once. This is simply because the man who BELIEVES ON CHRIST has repented, and the man who repents has BELIEVED ON CHRIST.

Repentance is simply acknowledging THE TRUTH that you are a needy sinner (Romans 3:19-20), so that you will BELIEVE ON JESUS to be saved (Galatians 3:24-26). When wicked religious men ADD turning away from sin with all your heart to the Gospel, they have perverted God’s free gift of grace. They are preaching “another gospel” (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4; Galatians 1:6-9, 6:7). These are good men as far as good men go in the world, but they are wicked men in the sight of almighty God, because they corrupt THE TRUTH.

The false teachers in Matthew 7:21-23 were GOOD PEOPLE. No wonder Jesus said in Luke 13:23-24, “Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them, Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able.

” Millions of infidels will someday in eternity try to enter into Heaven, boasting of all the good works they did throughout their earthly life, but they will be denied admission into the pearly gated heavenly city. Matthew 7:21,

“

Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.

” John 6:40 says that the Father’s will is to **“

BELIEVE ON HIM.

For preaching this simple Bible truth, I have been persecuted by the Bob Jones University crowd. I have wickedly forced out of my church family at the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam in 2014. I was banned and ostracized by the church congregation, staff members and ungodly pastors. As of 2021, I haven’t had a church family for the past 7 years because of the wickedness of Pastor Marty Herron (senior pastor from 1999 to 2018), Associate Pastors' Joe Hansen and Jared Baldwin, Gary Walton (senior pastor since 2018) and the other associate pastors at Harvest. They cruelly axed me like a turkey on Thanksgiving day! My only crime was TELLING THE TRUTH that Lordship Salvation is a perversion of God's grace.

The church's school nurse, Kristen Hurlburt, was my love. I wanted to marry her and told her so in 2017 in writing and in person. She kicked me in the teeth and threw me to the curb, putting it in writing that she didn't ever want to hear from me again. I was devastated in my soul. I will always love her and wish she had agreed to marry me. That was her decision alone. I am saddened that Kristen bid Godspeed to her wicked pastors, following the same damnable doctrines of devils that they spread to send people to Hell. Repeatedly in the Bible we are told to simply BELIEVE ON CHRIST to be saved. Acts 10:43, "To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins. "

It breaks my heart that Kristen Hurlburt is as shallow as her ungodly pastors, passing up a really great guy who loves her with all his soul, because she lacked the spiritual insight to see the beauty of my caring heart and soulwinning ministry. Instead, she'll end up marrying some average guy, a bum who has never done anything for Christ except occupy a chair at church. I pray for God to give me a loving wife who values my tender caring heart and soulwinning labors. Perhaps God didn't want Kristen to marry me, because of her corrupted faith. Anybody who is okay with the [2]perverse plan of salvation being preached by the Bob Jones University crowd today is not a born-again believer. There is NOT another gospel (Galatians 1:6-7).

Yes, most good people are going to spend eternity burning in torments in the Lake of Fire. I am not happy about that. God is not willing that ANY should perish, but that ALL men should come to salvation (2nd Peter 3:9). God deliver us from the ungodly, shallow, neo-evangelical, indifferent, doctrinally corrupted, sinfully arrogant Bob Jones camp today!!!

Dear friend, you don't go to Heaven because you are GOOD, nor to Hell because you are BAD. The only reason why any of us can go to Heaven is simply because GOD IS GOOD! What saith the Scripture? Titus 3:5-7, "

Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost;

Which he shed on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Saviour; That being justified by his grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life." The **"

washing of regeneration

" speaks of having our sins washed away when we are born-again (regenerated) by the Holy Spirit. We are legally declared JUSTIFIED (just if I'd never sinned at all) by God's grace.

I want to puke when I hear the hypocritical Bob Jones University crowd insist that salvation is by grace alone through faith alone in Christ alone, while at the same time [3]insisting that you must "repent and turn away from sin" to be saved. Folks, that is a forked-tongue plan of damnation! I know that it seems so subtle and hardly anything to make a fuss over, but the tiniest addition to BELIEVING ON CHRIST is a counterfeit gospel, which cannot produce regeneration (the new birth). Salvation is not turning away from your sinful lifestyle PLUS partial faith in Christ. This is the satanic junk that the BJU crowd are propagating everywhere today. The Bible teaches over and over that to have eternal life, it is a free gift (Romans 5:15) that we simply receive by faith (Galatians 3:26). Anyone who comes to God as a needy sinner, receiving by faith Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for their sins, believing that He is bodily risen is saved. 1st Thessalonians 4:14, "For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him. "

It is so sad and tragic, and a tremendous source of discouragement and frustration in my life personally, that the Bob Jones crowd are corrupted in their understanding of the Gospel. I have been a victim, emotionally abused and cruelly abandoned by the shameful Harvest Baptist Church on Guam from 2014 to 2021. I am finally moving, from Guam to Florida in 2021. I am glad to end this dark chapter of my life, which was caused simply because I TOLD THE TRUTH at Harvest, and their pastors persecuted me for it. When I pleaded for their compassion in 2017, begging to allow me to attend church services so that I could court Kristen Hurlburt for marriage, they all told me to "

go elsewhere.

" Kristen was cruel too!

I have been [4]outside the gate with Jesus all these past 7 painful and miserable lonely years. [5]I have stood alone (a beautiful MP3 sermon by Pastor Jack Hyles). I lost Kristen as my beloved wife because I took a faithful stand for God against false doctrine at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam and in the Bob Jones University camp. I do not agree with Pastor Peter S. Ruckman on everything he taught, but he was [6]100 % correct to expose BJU as the Alexandrian Cult. The perverse Devil's Bible revisions which BJU uses, sells and sanctions have corrupted them!!!

I have lost everything near and dear to me since 2014 because of the wicked pastors of Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. My blood is upon their incompetent hands as leaders. They betrayed their duties as church leaders, failing to protect the flock of God, leading people astray into heresy and deception (Jeremiah 5:31; Titus 1:10-13; Mark 7:7-13; Matthew 15:8; Matthew 12:36). Judgment day is coming for all men (Hebrews 9:27). I pray for God to speedily avenge me of losing Kristen as my wife. I pray for God to vindicate my doctrinally sound preaching against Harvest. Romans 3:4, "God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged.

" The truths which I shared with Harvest's pastors were in total agreement with the inspired Word of God. Yet, Harvest's ungodly pastors chose the commandments of men instead of the truth of God's Word.

There is only ONE GOSPEL, but the Bob Jones crowd are all over the road doctrinally. Either Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) is right that you don't have to stop committing one sin to be saved (with which I fully agree - Romans 5:20; or else you cannot be saved unless you turn away from a lifestyle of sin (as Marty Herron, Steve Pettit, John MacArthur, Chuck Phelps, Gary Walton and the whole rotten Bob Jones crowd foolishly preach today). But salvation cannot be by BOTH WAYS! Someone is wrong! Both sides of the debate may be wrong, or one side wrong, but both sides cannot be right!!! That means one side is going to Hell.

For befriending Harvest Baptist Church on Guam with THE TRUTH, which I did in the kindest and most gentlemanly way, they killed the prophet. They cost me Kristen as my wife. They cost me my church family for 7 lonely and inexplicably painful years. The new pastor since 2018, Gary Walton, is just as wicked as the rest of them, only selfishly thinking about himself. The Bible exposes these infidels of the faith in Romans 16:17-18, "

Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them.

For they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple.

” There’s your hellbound crowd in Matthew 7:21-23, whom the Lord called workers of iniquity and denied ever knowing them. Marty Herron is a stranger to Jesus Christ! Steve Pettit is a stranger to the blessed Savior! John MacArthur is a stranger to the Redeemer!

Pastor Marty Herron ruined my life, cost me my wife, destroyed my happiness, left me for dead, and then weaseled away like the deadly serpent in Genesis. Herron is as the adulterous woman in Proverbs 30:20, “ Such is the way of an adulterous woman; she eateth, and wipeth her mouth, and saith, I have done no wickedness.” But Pastor Herron has done MUCH wickedness. The stench of his apostasy reaches up unto Heaven’s gates, where he won’t be allowed admission someday (John 10:1, 9). Isaiah 14:9,

“ Hell from beneath is moved for thee to meet thee at thy coming: it stirreth up the dead for thee, even all the chief ones of the earth; it hath raised up from their thrones all the kings of the nations.”

Sadly, Dr. Marty Herron is a spoiled rich man, who has preyed upon naïve churches his entire life, following the money-making opportunities as they were presented to him, selling out in sinful compromise, dipping his sails, going along to get along with spiritual apostasy. These shallow neo-evangelicals stand for virtually nothing, operate their organizations with cultish club membership only policies, [7]mistreat hurting people with dictatorship thuggish authoritarianism. I do not hate anybody. God knows that I am a loving man. I love all sinners, everyone! I view every human being, even the most contemptible among us like Marty Herron, as a sinner for whom Jesus Christ was willing to die on the cross of Calvary (Romans 5:6-9). But Marty Herron is no mere sinner, he is an arrogant hardened Pharisee, self-righteous as can be, thinking that to get to Heaven a person must turn away from living a sinful lifestyle.

The Bob Jones crowd are wicked abusive authoritarians!

Don’t take my word for it, search the internet for authoritarian abuse at Bob Jones University. BJU has made countless enemies over the years, by being abusive, just as I was horribly ABUSED repeatedly at the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam between 2014 and 2021. These wicked leaders literally play God with people’s lives, hurting anybody who opposes them. There is no accountability. Marty Herron belongs behind bars in prison, which is where I wish I could put him for the rest of his life, but I am powerless to hold him accountable for costing me Kristen and ruining my life. God promises to punish him (Romans 12:19-21; Ecclesiastes 12:13-14; Galatians 1:6-9, 3:1-3, 5:4, 6:7).

Dear friend, I didn’t author the inspired Holy Bible, God did. I am simply upholding, defending and proclaiming what the inspired Word of God says—that we are saved by BELIEVING ON JESUS!!! For proclaiming these blessed TRUTHS, I lost Kristen Hurlburt as my wife, and lost the only church family I knew for an entire year in 2014. I have been so lonely since 2014 because of Mr. Herron’s prejudice, hatred and rejection of THE TRUTH. While Marty Herron romances his wife, enjoys homecooked dinners and is living large, he ruined my life. That is what I got for TELLING THE TRUTH to be faithful to God.

I know God is good, and somehow my dear Savior will punish Marty Herron and make it up to me in the long run. No man can reject THE TRUTH and get way with it! No pastor can deprive another hurting human of the right to attend church, and get away with it. Blessed be the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, my God and Savior. Cursed by the name of Marty Herron, the Devil’s servant. Yes, good people go to Hell all the time. Marty Herron is not a good man in my humble view, but an opportunist like Bill and Hillary Clinton.

Most good people go to Hell forever, and that sadly includes most religious people (Matthew 6:7-8, 7:13-15, 15:8).

There is nothing good about me except Jesus (Galatians 2:20). I am just a needy sinner saved by God's grace. I have never tired to forsake my sinful life to get saved, God forbid. The truth is that neither Marty Herron nor any other human being has ever turned away from a sinful lifestyle. Ecclesiastes 7:20, "For there is not a just man upon earth, that doeth good, and sinneth not." All you can do is try, which is WORKS for salvation if you include it in the Gospel. The Bob Jones crowd are corrupt and on their way to the Lake of Fire. I tried to help them see as a true friend does, for which I was thrown under the bus and crucified (2nd Timothy 3:12). It is tragic that the worst persecution, rejection and pain in my life has come from churches, simply because I TOLD THE TRUTH (Galatians 4:16).

2.6.17 God Promises Not To Forget Our Labors Of Love For Him (2021-06-26 09:30)

Hebrews 6:10, "

For God is not unrighteous to forget your work and labour of love, which ye have shewed toward his name, in that ye have ministered to the saints, and do minister.

This precious Bible promise gives me much comfort. I have suffered through much pain in my lifetime, both physical from an old neck injury, and emotional pain caused by much trauma in my life. Sadly, much of the inexplicable pain in my life has been caused over the past 7 years by Pastor Marty Herron and the ungodly Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. I cannot put into words how wicked these pastors are, and how little they care about truth or hurting people.

The Bible teaches that Jesus is not unrighteous to overlook and forget about our earthly labors for him. I almost commit suicide when Kristen Hurlburt rejected me as my wife in 2017. I told her that I loved her, and that I had thought about her every day since Harvest's pastors drove me out of church in 2014. I have thought about Kris every day since, and it is now 2021. I love her very much. The only thing that kept me from committing suicide in 2017 is knowing that I can still labor for Christ, and make a difference for eternity. Jesus is my Savior, not Kristen. I serve a precious risen Savior.

I have been so lonely in my life for the longest time. I have so much love to give away. I am looking for a sweetheart and hopefully in Florida I will find someone to make happy, take out to eat and movies, hold her hand, and have a loyal friend to stand by my side in my soulwinning ministry. Kristen missed out on a great guy!

I love her so much, still do, and always will. [1]She passed up a really great guy who loves her with all his heart. Kris is immature, and told me never to contact her again. If Kris had simply contacted me in any way, I would have reassured my love for her. I was terrified to contact her once she told me never to contact her again. That is no way to treat a guy who loves you!

My heart was very sad today, thinking about Kristen. I know I need to let go and move on, but I have no one to replace her with. My life is stuck in 2014 at Harvest Baptist Church. That is why I am leaving Guam. I cannot take the pain of soul anymore. I need a gal to love. Only God knows what the future holds. I love music and plan to play my guitar and ukulele at Pensacola Beach. I plan to give away a lot of [2]Gospel tracts. God is so very good! It is not God's fault that my life is a mess. I have myself to blame for that. Sadly, the pastors of Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, who could have made all the difference in the world if they'd simply forgave and given me a second chance when I begged for it 3 times, threw me under the bus and left me for dead. I died in my heart, since 2014, having no life and having lost the woman that I love. I won't hate God for what wicked men do unto me.

Jesus promises in Hebrews 6:10 not to forget my labors for Him. Hebrews 6:10, "

For God is not unrighteous to forget your work and labour of love, which ye have shewed toward his name, in that ye have ministered to the saints, and do minister.

" God knows that I work night and day on my truth-telling ministry, which is very challenging in lieu of my constant neck pain and sensation of burning throughout my nervous system. My afflictions keep me very humble. God is so good to us all. Oh how I wish Kris had said, es,

"Y

when I asked her to allow me to court her for marriage in 2017. Kris has no one to blame but herself that we didn't get married. I am truly heartbroken by her decision. I tried, but she dealt harshly with me.

Kristen does not share my soul's depth of passion for truth, love and people. If she did, she never would have hurt me deeply the way she did, when I gave her my heart.

The silver lining in all my loss, pain, suffering, loneliness and tears is that God promises not to forget my diligent labors night and day for Him. My ministry is a labor of love. I have never made a single penny since 2002. People have sent me money and I have kindly sent it back to them. I will never take a cent for serving God. That is simply a vow that I made to myself as a teenager, when God called me to preach at age 15. My ministry is TO THE SAINTS. I was greatly encouraged recently when I saw a sermon by Pastor Dennis Rokser titled: '[3]GETTING THE GOSPEL RIGHT AND WRONG.' What encouraged me is that as I watched the video sermon, I recognized a bunch of pictures and quotes from my website ministry, that no one else uses. It became very obvious to me that God had used my humble labors to influence this dear Baptist preacher in Duluth, Minnesota. I love preachers and thank God when people copy my stuff. TAKE IT ALL and use it for Jesus Christ!!!

> "The true Gospel always points you to Christ; a false gospel always points to you." —[4]Pastor Dennis Rokser

What a fantastic sermon! My heart rejoices when I hear preachers who get the Gospel right. Brother Rokser gets it 100 % correct, and I love him for it. God pity these accursed corrupt ministers like Marty Herron, Steve Pettit, Chuck Phelps, John MacArthur, John Piper, Ray Comfort, Sam Horn, Adrian Rodgers, Joel Osteen, Rick Warren, Charles Stanley, John Hagee, Paul Washer, Gary Walton, Charles Lawson, Jack Chick, and countless more infidels, who preach a PERVERSE GOSPEL of partial faith in Christ plus something else!!!

Dear friend, the Word of God tells us simply to BELIEVE to be saved. The most important question that anyone could ever ask was presented to the Apostle Paul in Acts 16:30-31, and here also was Paul's reply,

"And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house." There it is —simple, free and easy!

Yet, Pastor Marty Herron says it is not enough to admit to God that you are a sinner and believe the Gospel to be saved, he says " you must also turn away from a lifestyle of sin to be saved.

" I heard him say it with my very own two ears in 2014 at the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. I went home and cried in disgust. Marty's hero, Dr. Steve Pettit, taught this demonic blasphemy to 2,700 students and faculty on January 26, 2015 at Bob Jones University:

> "You can't just speak about getting saved, and you accepted Christ, and then that's it! There is a justification; There is a sanctification; There's ultimately a glorification, and though there are three parts, they are all part of the whole, and you cannot separate them. In order for you to qualify for *the award, you have to get into the race, you have to stay in the race, and you have to finish the race. If you want to win, you have to run to the end; and winning in the Christian life is everything, because if you lose—if you don't finish—you lose everything—you lose your SOUL. And so, the Christian race is the life of faith that begins, is run, and is finished when we cross over into Heaven!"
> —Dr. Steve Pettit ("[5]What Does It Mean To Run 'The Race'?" - [6]11:34)

Dr. Pettit was inspired by demons when he preached that horrible message! BJU is preaching their students another gospel (Galatians 1:6-9; 1st Corinthians 15:1-4). How does any of that relate to what we just read in Acts 16:31,

" Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house." Oh dear reader, please don't let these theological madmen take you to Hell with them. [7]Lordship Salvation is a lie of the Devil.

In hindsight, something was wrong with Kristen Hurlburt. When a man tells a woman that he loves her, and has thought about her every day for over 2 years, and wants to marry her, and she cruelly jades him, that woman has no heart.

Why do I always fall in love with unloving people?

It appears that my love was only a one way street, which she did not reciprocate

. At a minimum she could have broke it gently to me. She was mean and didn't show any gratitude for the two Alexander Scourby King James Bible DVD's I gave her as gifts. I also gave her a 1922 original copy of the Gospel of John from Moody Publishers. It is obvious to me now that Kris only wanted a husband, not a man who truly thought she was the world to him.

Husbands are dime a dozen, but Kristen will NEVER find a man like me. I am not a common man. God has given me a special heart, as Dr. Jack Hyles had for everybody. That beautiful man taught me how to love. I have never known such a beautiful soul in my life than Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001), my hero of the Christian faith.

And so, in my pain of soul and loneliness, I will continue to labor night and day for my precious Savior, wife or no wife by my side. Kris lost out on sharing all my heavenly rewards! Hebrews 6:10, "

For God is not unrighteous to forget your work and labour of love, which ye have shewed toward his name, in that ye have ministered to the saints, and do minister.

God only knows the tens of thousands of hours I have invested over the past 19 years into my internet ministry. My prayers are with all my web visitors. You are my epistles known and read of all men (2nd Corinthians 3:2). I have many spiritual children throughout the world, who look up to me as their parent in the Lord, because I led them to Jesus. I love you all, prayerfully serving others freely in love, humbly giving ALL the praise and credit to Jesus Christ alone.

Whatever labors I have achieved all these many painful and difficult years of ministry, it was simply Christ laboring through me (Galatians 2:20; Philippians 2:13). I am tired, frustrated and lonely, moving forward from Guam to Florida all by myself, and it is scary; but I know God is always with me, and I'm LOOKING TO JESUS the Author and Finisher of my faith (Hebrews 12:2). Things will work out (Romans 8:28). One day at a time. Time heals all wounds, as the depth of emotional scars fade, and painful memories are overlaid with new ones, and the eternal precious PROMISES of our Lord Jesus Christ continually rejoices our sorrowful heart. John 16:22,

"And ye now therefore have sorrow: but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no man taketh from you. "

2.6.18 Exposing False Teachers Is Necessary To Defend The Gospel (2021-06-28 09:30)

Titus 1:10-14, "For there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, specially they of the circumcision: Whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre's sake. One of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The Cretians are alway liars, evil beasts, slow bellies. This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith; Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men, that turn from the truth." 1st Corinthians 11:19, "For there must be also heresies among you, that they which are approved may be made manifest among you."

The Bible commands us as born-again believers to take a stand against heresy. The word “ heresy

” simply means any opinion that disagrees with the inspired Holy Bible. There is no controversy if you believe the Bible. God’s Word stands! The Bible teaches in one of our text passages that WE NEED HERESY, so that doctrinally sound Bible teachers can be made known. Heresy is far more deadly than the COIVD-19 virus, which can send you to Hell forever if you die in your sins without Jesus as your Savior (John 8:24; Revelation 20:15).

I received an e-mail recently from a sincere 73 year old man. He rebuked me, saying that I should just preach the Bible and not fight against my brothers in the Lord. Kindly, that man is woefully ignorant. The Bible says in 1st Corinthians 11:19 that we need heresies, as a canvas against which true Bible preachers can proclaim THE TRUTH. By exposing the corrupt Bob Jones University (BJU) crowd and their Devil’s lie of Lordship Salvation, I am able to lead people to Christ. I’ve often said that we cannot get anyone saved until we first get them lost.

Tragically, millions of churchgoers and Bible college students have been lied to by false teachers like [1]Dr. Steve Pettit (president of BJU), told that they cannot merely say they’ve accepted Christ and that’s it. In addition, Steve Pettit errantly teaches that you must start, faithfully run, and finish the race (living the Christian life) or else you won’t go to Heaven. There are not two different Gospels friend. There are not variations of the Gospel of free grace. The Bible says that you simply come to God as a needy sinner, resting in the finished work of Jesus Christ Who died on the cross for our sins, was buried and miraculously raised up bodily three days later. This is THE GOSPEL by which we are saved if we believe it (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Nothing more is required or allowed to receive eternal life.

In sharp contrast, false teachers like [2]Pastor John MacArthur teach that you must forsake a sinful lifestyle, count the cost and pay the price, exchange your life for Christ’s life, commit your entire personality to Christ as Lord to follow Him no matter what the cost. That is NOT the Gospel, not even in the ballpark! [3]Another big time heretic is Pastor Marty Herron, who says that it’s not enough to admit that you are a sinner, you must also turn away from a lifestyle of sin to be saved. I heard him say it at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam in 2014 with my very own two ears, in front on hundreds of church members on a Sunday morning. God’s curse is upon that wicked false teacher (Galatians 1:6-9).

Evangelist Ray Comfort is another bad apple, who requires that you [4]LIVE A LIFESTYLE of turning away from your sins, just like Marty Herron does, to be saved. These are false prophets of the worst sort, because they deceptively appear as Christians. Their gospel is not our Gospel. There is nothing in the Gospel as defined in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4 that includes repenting of your sins to be saved. Repentance is not mentioned at all! That is because repentance is automatic. The man who BELIEVS has repented of his unbelief and idols. If God wanted us to turn away from something to be saved, then He would have said so, but He didn’t!

Repeatedly in the Gospel of John, and throughout the New Testament, we are simply taught that the way of salvation is to BELIEVE ON JESUS. John 6:28-29, “Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.” Yet, thousands of ungodly false teachers refuse to teach the simplicity that is in Christ, making salvation HARD. John MacArthur even authored a horrible book titled:

“

[5]HARD TO BELIEVE.

” Any preacher who makes getting saved hard is of the Devil. Pastors’ John MacArthur, Chuck Phelps, Marty Herron, Steve Pettit, Gary Walton and the entire Bob Jones crowd today are of the Devil, making salvation hard.

I have paid dearly for my stand for THE TRUTH. I lost two potential wives at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, because Marty Herron drove me out of the church for befriending him with THE TRUTH. God will deal with Herron treacherously as he has dealt with me, costing me everything. Pastor Herron has his wife, so what does he care if I am alone without a companion. I haven’t had a church family since 2014 to 2021, because of Marty Herron’s cowardice, arrogance, selfishness, haughty rich man’s pride and wickedness to reject THE TRUTH. God’s curse is upon that rotten false prophet! I didn’t say, God did in Galatians 1:6-9 and Galatians 3:1-3 and Galatians 6:7. Lordship Salvation is a perversion of God’s grace. My blood is upon their heads at BJU and Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. They can remove, ban, shun, shame and ostracize me as a truth-teller, but they cannot escape the judgment of God almighty (Matthew 7:1-2; Galatians 6:7; Matthew 12:36; Ecclesiastes 12:13-14; Hebrews 4:13; Matthew 7:21-23; Luke 13:23-24).

I wouldn’t give you a dime for any preacher who does not expose false teachers. The 73 year old man who wrote to me is foolish in his thinking. He erroneously calls the false teachers whom I expose “ brothers.

” Kindly said, Marty Herron, John MacArthur, Steve Pettit, Chuck Phelps, Gary Walton, Paul Washer and Ray Comfort are not Christian brothers (to name but a few), they are infidels lurking in the pulpit today, damning men’s souls to Hell with a counterfeit plan of salvation which cannot produce the new birth. Salvation is not partial faith in Christ plus giving up your sinful bad habits. Salvation is not partial faith in Christ plus surrendering all to Christ as “ of your life. Salvation is wholly resting in Jesus Christ because He died in your place on the cross, was buried, and physically resurrected three days later.

2.6.19 Envy Not The Neo-Evangelical ’Workers Of Iniquity’ (2021-06-30 09:30)

Matthew 7:21-23, “Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.

Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity.”

I was thinking about something a few minutes ago. I went to get Domino’s pizza last night. As I was leaving I saw my Harvest Baptist Church of Guam (staff members) neighbours having a small get together. As I always do I heartily waved at them, as they returned dead cold hard stares at me (if looks could kill I'd be dead). I felt envious, left out of their fun events. I live alone and have no one. It hurts to see them fellowshipping and I am alone. They fully know it, because I have written about it before. But the Lord sees what they are doing, and have done to me all these many years since 2014, ostracizing me. I am fully convinced that they won't be going to Heaven someday, because of their Lordship Salvation heresy. But if they do go to Heaven, I hope the Lord turns His back on them, ignores them, and ostracizes them as they have cruelly done to me all these many years. Proverb 12:17, " He that speaketh truth sheweth forth righteousness: but a false witness deceit." Harvest's pastors all have blood on their hands, workers of deceit. I have shown forth righteousness by telling THE TRUTH.

I simply TOLD THE TRUTH that the modern Westcott and Hort Bibles are corrupt. I simply TOLD THE TRUTH that repentance in the Bible for salvation doesn't mean turning away from sinful behavior. I simply TOLD THE TRUTH that Lordship Salvation is a gross perversion of God's grace, and does not produce the new birth. For doing the right thing I have been left out of their reindeer games. My bright shiny King James Bible nose is too much for them to handle, so they won't invite me even to church.

What hurts most is the reason why they ostracize and hate me, because I told THE TRUTH to try to help them in 2014, and since.

- [1]Misunderstood Repentance: An Enemy Of Soulwinning (BJU & Harvest Baptist Church Guam GUILTY!)
- [2]False Bibles: An Enemy Of Soulwinning (BJU and Harvest Baptist Church of Guam are GUILTY!)
- [3]Lordship Salvation: An Enemy Of Soulwinning

  (BJU & Harvest Baptist Church Guam are GUILTY!)

I feel envy at times because I am unwelcomed at Harvest, but then I found this Bible verse. The Bible says not to envy sinners. Psalm 37:1, "Fret not thyself because of evildoers, neither be thou envious against the workers of iniquity." Interestingly, that is exactly what Jesus called the Lordship Salvation crowd in Matthew 7:21-23, "workers of iniquity." The Bob Jones crowd are "workers of iniquity," with their "Lord, Lord" scam religion; saying, have we not done "many wonderful works" IN THY NAME?

Have we not "prophesied" (preached) IN THY NAME, oh Lord, Lord? Jesus denied even knowing them!!! The Bible says not to fret myself because of such evildoers, nor be envious against such workers of iniquity. The Bob Jones University crowd are workers of iniquity. The Bible says I ought not envy them, for their day of reckoning is soon coming. As you said Curtis, eternal damnation is just a breath of life away for all those who trust in another gospel.

The pastors of Harvest are criminals in God's sight. They make light of the accuracy of the Holy Bible, promoting corruptible seed to unsuspecting people. The island people are very trusting, believing everything that their pastors tell them. That makes Harvest's pastors much more accountable to God. Romans 3:4, "God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged." The King James Bible is on my side, because I have not added or changed what God said. Harvest are going along with the Devil's crowd who have changed the Bible. Instead of preaching a free grace Gospel, the Bob Jones University crowd today are preaching that MORE is necessary to get to Heaven.

According to theological liar and madman Dr. Steve Pettit, you must be faithful to start, run and finish “RUNNING THE RACE.” His exact words are that you MUST “

for the

Heaven itself.

” These are words of works, not grace. Literally, the ungodly congregation of Harvest Baptist Church on Guam sympathize with their heretical pastors, as if they are victims for being rebuked for preaching the Devil’s lie of Lordship Salvation. Dear friend, any pastor who preaches Lordship Salvation is not a victim, he is a CRIMINAL!!!

It is inherent human nature that we follow the leader. Humanity loves and needs its mentors and heroes. We all look up to somebody. The former horrible pastors of Harvest berated me for looking up to Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) as my hero of the Christian faith. They said Jack Hyles is dead, and so also should his doctrine be dead with him. We are at war in fundamentalism. This is not a flower show. This is not a banquet. This is not a slumber party. This is WAR! What saith the Scripture? 2nd Timothy 2:3-4, “

Thou therefore endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ. No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier.” A pastor is a soldier. A layman preacher is a soldier. A man of God is a soldier.

The problem with most churches today is that we treat the ministry like it is an entertainment fun center. Sadly, people won’t go to church anymore unless it is fun. That is why Pastor Steven Furtick of The Elevation Church in Charlotte, North Carolina draws a crowd of 8,000 apostates every Sunday. They literally are welcomed to bring their dogs, cats, birds and p[et lizards. Anything goes! Furtick comes out with his electric guitar, jamming ’I Love Rock N Roll’ by Joan Jett. Anybody with any spiritual discernment at all knows this is a big farce! This is not a New Testament church that honors the Lord Jesus Christ. The world has no place in the church, nor the church in the heathen world. James 4:4, “Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God.”

Harvest Baptist Church of Guam is a bad joke. Their pastors fail to take Christianity seriously. The teach manmade doctrines, from manmade Bibles, laboring in the power of men, and not the Holy Spirit of God or truth. God has given me the task of calling them out! I attended HBC for one year in 2013-2014. There never was a man who loved their church more than I did. I gave lots of money. I gave my soul and love to all of them. But along with that I also gave my most prized possession, the truth which God taught me. Genesis 32:10, “I am not worthy of the least of all the mercies, and of all the truth, which thou hast shewed unto thy servant; for with my staff I passed over this Jordan; and now I am become two bands.”

I learned a long time ago that there is a direct correlation between being humble and accepting THE TRUTH. No wonder God hates arrogancy and the froward mouth that preaches lies. Proverb 8:13, " The fear of the LORD is to hate evil: pride, and arrogancy, and the evil way, and the froward mouth, do I hate." I don't hate the Bob Jones University crowd, I hate their arrogancy. I don't hate the Moody Bible Institute crowd. I hate what God hates, their froward tongue that preaches the lies of Calvinism. I have earned a reputation online for being rude as a preacher. What saith the Scripture? 2nd Corinthians 11:6, "But though I be rude in speech, yet not in knowledge; but we have been throughly made manifest among you in all things.

" The apostle Paul was rude too!

The Bob Jones crowd have a serious problem, they really do. The Harvest Baptist Church of Guam have a serious problem. The prophet Elijah was frustrated that the people wouldn't take sides between the Lord and Baal. They were half in and half out, like BJU and HBC. Harvest uses multiple different Bible versions. They promote a variety of preachers, who adhere to multiple plans of salvation. 1st Kings18:21, "

And Elijah came unto all the people, and said, How long halt ye between two opinions? if the LORD be God, follow him: but if Baal, then follow him. And the people answered him not a word.

" That sounds like Harvest Baptist Church of Guam, silent all the time. They don't care about truth. They don't care which Bible is right. They don't care about hurting people like me. I have literally begged to please attend church services, but their arrogant pastors point fingers, refusing to step up to plate, and contact me (as I did them 3 times to no avail). Something is very wrong at Harvest.

The Lord continually comforts my heart, reassuring me that Harvest is doing me a favor by not allowing me to come back, lest they corrupt my faith too. The truth is that Harvest's incompetent pastors KNOW that I am right. They know they've dropped the ball for God. They know that they have shamed the ministry and hurt many people, but they are making big bucks! That is why Jesus warned in Luke 16:13 that NO MAN can serve God and mammon (a a career). Luke 16:13, "No servant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon."

The Bob Jones crowd are God's enemies! They preach a false gospel of Lordship Salvation. They have perverted the meaning of repentance, requiring people to turn away from their sinful lifestyle to receive God's free gift. I will never shut up! Somebody needs to make a fuss! People are dying in their sins and going to Hell forever. BJU is a corrupt institution today. Steve Pettit is an unsaved false prophet, a Calvinist, who arrogantly doesn't care about THE TRUTH. Pettit is a hardcore supporter of Dr. John MacArthur. I am surprised that more Baptist preachers don't expose and preach against Bob Jones University. That is why they stay the way they are, because no one cares anymore. Mark Twain was so right, "What one generation tolerates the next generation will embrace." Churches everywhere today are embracing the Devil's false Bible, embracing the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation, and embracing the Devil's lie that you must " repent and turn away from your sin to be saved. Liar, liar, pants on fire!

The Bible encourages me and you not to envy the Neo-evangelical crowd. Their churches look fun. They have lots of fun activities. They are fun people to be around. But you'll get food poisoning being around them, because Jesus calls them “WORKERS OF INIQUITY” (Matthew 7:21-23).

2.7.1 What Is The Unpardonable Sin Against The Holy Spirit? (2021-07-03 09:30)

Mark 3:28-30, “Verily I say unto you, All sins shall be forgiven unto the sons of men, and blasphemies wherewith soever they shall blaspheme: But he that shall blaspheme against the Holy Ghost hath never forgiveness, but is in danger of eternal damnation: Because they said, He hath an unclean spirit.”

The Holy Spirit is the One Who convicts the world of sin, righteousness and coming judgment:

> John 16:7-11, “ Nevertheless I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I depart, I will send him unto you. And when he is come, he will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment: Of sin, because they believe not on me; Of righteousness, because I go to my Father, and ye see me no more; Of judgment, because the prince of this world is judged. ”

Jesus said when resurrected that He would draw all men to Himself:

> John 12:32: “And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me.”

This proves Calvinism a fraud! Calvinism says God only chooses some people to be saved, but not others. The Bible says Christ draws "ALL MEN" to salvation. Not all men listen. Jesus said "ye will not come," He didn’t say "ye cannot come." John 5:40, “And ye will not come to me, that ye might have life.”

Since it is the Holy Spirit of Christ that draws all men to Him, when a person blasphemes (rejects) the Holy Spirit, they are burning their one opportunity to get saved. The man Jesus speaks to the world OUTWARDLY, but the Holy Spirit speaks to the world INWARDLY. A person may openly reject Christ in the eyes of the public, but it’s what you do in the privacy of your home with the Holy Spirit that matters.

For example: Many of the chief rulers BELIEVED in Jesus in their heart (John 12:42), but publicly it appeared as if they didn’t accept Him (John 12:43). They didn’t want to lose their jobs! The Bible says they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God. Obviously they did not follow Christ as “Lord” at this time, still ashamed to identify with Him publicly, but they were nevertheless born-again believers by faith alone. John 12:42-43,

"Nevertheless among the chief rulers also many believed on him; but because of the Pharisees they did not confess him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue: For they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God."

The only unpardonable sin that an unsaved person can commit is to reject Jesus as one's Savior. For the saved person (i.e., a believer) it is IMPOSSIBLE to commit any sin that could cause them to ever lose God's promise of salvation. There is much misunderstanding in the churches today, and also the '[1]Salvation Army,' concerning salvation. The Salvation Army in their official [2]Statement of Faith foolishly teaches:

> "We believe that continuance in a state of salvation depends upon continued obedient faith in Christ."
> SOURCE: [3]1878 Foundation Deed Of The Salvation Army

The Salvation Army follows the Calvinist heresy of their founders, William and Catherine Booth, who considered salvation to be a "state" that could be lost if one failed to continue in obedient faith. May I say kindly that salvation is NOT a "state," it is a new birth. It is a second birth, a spiritual birth (1st Peter 1:23). The teaching that salvation is a "state" which is conditional upon "continued obedient faith" is demonic works-salvation. This is Calvinist false doctrine!!!

Our salvation depends solely upon Jesus Christ—because of His death on the cross to pay our debt of sin, His burial and bodily resurrection from the dead 72 hours later. Jesus raised up as our High Priest (Romans 8:34; Hebrews 4:14-16). Jesus ascended into Heaven and sprinkled His precious blood upon the heavenly Mercy Seat, just as the Old Testament high priest sprinkled the lamb's blood on the mercy seat within the holy of holies each year (Hebrews 9:12, 22-24; 12:24). Beware of the bloodless theology which has crept into many churches. 1st Peter 1:18-19b, "Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers; But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot." We are saved by the precious blood of Jesus in Heaven!

Once saved, always saved! You don't enter into a state of salvation, but then leave that state later on because of sin and unbelief. Dear friend, you are either saved today and always will be, or you aren't saved today and you never were! No one has ever lost God's salvation, which is by faith. The new birth is irreversible! The Bible teaches in Ephesians 1:12-15 that a person is 'sealed' with God's Holy Spirit the moment they get saved. Thus, I agree with Pastor Harry Ironside in the perseverance of the Holy Spirit! Some liars have [4]tried to make Pastor Ironside into a Calvinist for making that statement in his book 'Except Ye Repent.' No, Dr. Ironside simply believed what the Bible says, " that he which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ:" Philippians 1:6b). This is not Calvinism, which errantly says a believer will persevere in holiness and service to Christ!

"The only thing that pleases God is the blood!"

2.7.2 The Damaging Consequences Of The Sinful Hookup Culture (2021-07-09 09:30)

Hebrews 13:4,

"Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled: but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge." Colossians 3:5-7,

Mortify therefore your members which are upon the earth; fornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, and covetousness, which is idolatry: For which things' sake the wrath of God cometh on the children of disobedience: In the which ye also walked some time, when ye lived in them.

I love people, because as a child of God I have God's unconditional love shed abroad in my soul by the indwelling Holy Spirit of God. I love you dear reader, whoever you may be. The following disturbing information appeared in a February 2013 article published by the American Psychological Association (APA) titled, 'Sexual Hook-up Culture':

> Hook-up regret
>
> A number of studies have looked at regret with respect to hookups and have documented the negative feelings men and women may feel after casual sex. In a large Web-based study of 1,468 undergraduate students, participants reported a variety of consequences: 27.1 percent felt embarrassed, 24.7 percent reported emotional difficulties, 20.8 percent experienced loss of respect, and 10 percent reported difficulties with a steady partner (Lewis et al., 2011). In another recent study conducted on a sample of 200 undergraduate students in Canada, 78 percent of women and 72 percent of men who had uncommitted sex (including vaginal, anal, and/or oral sex) reported a history of experiencing regret following such an encounter (Fisher et al., 2012).
>
> ...By definition, sexual hookups provide the allure of sex without strings attached. Despite their increasing social acceptability, however, developing research suggests that sexual hookups may leave more strings attached than many participants might first assume.

[2]

The Devil is a beautiful liar! The Devil always pays with counterfeit money. Sin will always cost you more than you wanted to pay, take you farther than you intended to go, and keep you longer than you planned to stay. I know personally of dozens of young Christian women who fornicated before getting legally married. I cannot think of even one case in which the young male married the girl he took advantage of. NOT ONE! Young ladies, the only way to protect yourself and prevent becoming a victim is to get legally married before you have carnal relations. It is as simple as that. A promise by your boyfriend to marry you means nothing. Males will say anything to steal your innocence. I assure you they will hit it and quit it!

When The Beatles' John Lennon learned that his girlfriend was pregnant, he immediately married her legally. I respect that. That was how it was back then. Men knew when to step up to plate and be a man. It was wrong to fornicate, but John did the right thing in the end. I can respect that. But when a man beds a young woman, and then ditches her, he belongs in prison! If I had my way, any male who slept with a woman would by law be married to her. No exceptions! I love it that in the Philippines there are no divorce courts! Once married, always married. That is how God intended it to be (Matthew 19:8). Marriage is at an all-time low in America today because of our sinful hook-up culture. The [3]Satanic controlled media has promoted this type of immoral behavior. The Devil knows that the best way to destroy a person's life is to ensnare them at the earliest age possible into a deathstyle of immorality.

America today is infamous worldwide for our culture of fornication (aka, our HOOKUP culture).

One of my favorite YouTube channels is '[4]The Better Bachelor' by a man who goes by the nickname "

Joker.

" Unfortunately, Joker is an unsaved immoral man who openly promotes whoremongering. I love his YouTube channel because he is 99 % correct about women's horrible attitudes toward marriage and men. Yet, I cannot agree with his whoremongering around the world. Joker speaks of having casual intimate relationships with women in Asia and elsewhere. In his mind it is acceptable, just so long as two people agree to the terms of their relationship upfront. That is the same dark morality of Anton LaVey, founder of the Church of Satan. That is the same wicked philosophy of Satanist Aleister Crowley: "

DO AS THIOU WILT SHALL BE THE WHOLE OF THE LAW.

Much of what Joker says is true and I like watching his videos. He has 304,000 subscribers, about 10 % of whom are women. I like Joker's videos and can relate to his bachelor's lifestyle. However, I must refute 'The Better Bachelor' on YouTube publicly, because he is propagating the very sinful idea that it is okay to live as a whore or whoremonger, just so long as you are upfront with others. Nothing could be further from the truth.

Hebrews 13:4,

"Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled: but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge." Being a bachelor is perfectly acceptable, but to continue to have sexual relations with people outside of a binding marriage commitment is a very sinful lifestyle which brings the judgment of God (Colossians 3:5-6; Romans 1:24-32).

Please understand that I am not condemning anyone. I am the biggest sinner I know, because I live with myself. You are a horrible sinner too, whether you realize it or not. The closer to God you draw, the worse of a sinner you will feel like, as you see God in His holiness through abiding in the Holy Scriptures and the presence of the indwelling Holy Spirit.

Single Parent Living Arrangements Are A Curse Upon Society

In a disturbing ABC News article titled, '[5]Single Moms Struggle To Find Mr. Right,' we learn that there are 10,400,000 single women in the United States; 44 % are divorced or separated; 33 % have never been married; 22 % are married. According to the U.S. Census Bureau, 75 % of the violent U.S. prison population came from a single parent household. So why does Hollywood and the music industry continue to propagate and glorify single motherhood? Why does the mainstream media keep glamorize single motherhood when they know it is harming society? The left has so much blood on their hands it is insane!

Good job all you irresponsible hook-up females and males!!! This is the consequence of Satanic social engineering. God didn't intend for you to have children out of wedlock. Raising children is a big responsibility which God intended two people to share, not a single parent. All you females having children out of wedlock made your own sin and did this to yourself! I am not blaming women more than men, both are equally guilty. Hugh Hefner pioneered the Satanic Playboy philosophy (since 1953) that has utterly destroyed America's marriages and families, for generations to come. I wouldn't want to be in Hugh Hefner's fate in Hell. That is so sad and tragic. God has no pleasure in the death of the wicked. Our great God grieves when a wicked person dies and perishes into Hell. That shows the great loving heart of our God.

Abortion Is First Degree Murder!

Dear friend, God made you! God made your body from the dust of the earth in your mother's womb, and then gave a living spirit to your lifeless body. Jeremiah 1:5, "Before I formed thee in the belly I knew thee; and before thou camest forth out of the womb I sanctified thee, and I ordained thee a prophet unto the nations. " God forms babies in the belly! Ungodly abortion doctors are first-degree murderers!!! They are killing a life that God is in the process of forming. That is what we just read about the prophet Jeremiah. God formed Jeremiah in his mother's womb, and knew him before he was even conceived. Abortion is murder!!!

God is not happy when a living being that He made, and knew from even before conception, chooses to reject God's free gift. God is faithful dear friend. 2nd Timothy 2:12-13, " If we suffer, we shall also reign with him: if we deny him, he also will deny us: If we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself." If you go to Hell someday, you will have no one to blame except yourself. God wants you to be saved and go to Heaven. 2nd Peter 3:9,

"The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance. " If you ever hear a preacher teach that God hates homosexuals, they are lying.

God loves everyone, otherwise He would have to hate everyone. To say that God hates someone is a sinful profession of self-righteousness! Since you feel that you're more pleasing to God than another person whom you perceive as being a worse sinner, you feel more superior and entitled to God's love. My friend, the only thing that makes you or me as believers any more pleasing to God than the vilest criminal on earth, is the precious blood of Jesus that He shed on the cross to pay for our sins. My righteousness is only Jesus!!! That is why I love everyone, including defiant homosexuals, because I am not worthy of God's love. If God's love for me were determined by anything I could ever say or do, then how shallow would that be. The Bible says CHRIST DIED FOR THE UNGODLY (Romans 5:6-9).

Like Lucifer, We Have

“

I ”

Problems

I kindly wrote this blog to preach against the Devil’s hook-up culture, which is plaguing America today. As I showed you earlier, 33 % of single Mom’s with children have never been married. Another 44 % of single women are divorced. That is shocking. Proverb 13:10, “ Only by pride cometh contention: but with the well advised is wisdom.” The Bible says that ONLY BY PRIDE comes the contention that causes divorce. We have a sinful pride problem in the United States!!! We simply cannot get along in our homes. Have you ever heard that Satan has

“i

” problems? That is correct. ...

> Isaiah 14:14, “
> I
> will ascend above the heights of the clouds;
> I* will be like the most High.
> **”

Lucifer had some serious issues with himself*, “*

i

” problems. That is our big problem too, when our ego gets in the way of making restitution, and we insist that our demands be met, or else we’ll take some negative action. These type of threats, ultimatums, and a victim’s attitude are telltale signs that a marriage is about to fail. Someone’s got to give in, humble them self, and be willing to make peace. It takes two to tango! A spouse may leave anyway, no matter how nice you are or reasonable.

The hook-up culture should be illegal. Since children are the one’s who always end up the victims of a single parent living arrangement, the immoral behavior of irresponsible youth must be dealt with by the government. The government could easily teach courtship in public schools. In fact, they should be preparing young people to become mothers and fathers, with the goal of marriage once they finish high school. The government could do much to properly teach youth. But ungodly lawyers prevent good things from happening.

Someone always wants to sue and stop anything Christian, good, right or moral from existing in public schools. In any attempt to protect children from God, they have handed them over to the Devil for destruction. We could have a such a wonderful and happy society today, if lawyers and the high U.S. Supreme Court weren’t doing everything in their power to prevent it from happening. Tell me that’s not the Devil. Sure it is.

2.7.3 God Desires To Be Close To You (2021-07-14 09:30)

James 4:8-10, " Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts, ye double minded. Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to heaviness. Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you up."

God is broken hearted over the wickedness in society today. God has a burden to see people get saved (2nd Peter 3:9). If we take the Lord's yoke upon us, and help Him win souls by sharing the Gospel with the lost, nothing pleases God more. Psalm 11:7,

" For the righteous LORD loveth righteousness; his countenance doth behold the upright. "

God is a righteous God Who loves righteousness!

The only true righteousness we have as Christians is the imputed righteousness of God through faith alone in Christ (Philippians 3:9). But once born-again by God's righteousness, He wants us to walk by faith, allowing Jesus to live through us (Galatians 2:20). I am not living the Christian life in my own strength, but Christ liveth in me. Galatians 2:20, "I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me."

The world is the enemy of God. What is the world? It is that mass of humanity which through unbelief have alienated themselves from God, choosing rather to live in the pleasures of sin for a season, and are therefore hostile toward the cause of Jesus Christ (Romans 3:20). James 4:4, "Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God."

A popular thing for heathens to do, who want to superficially appear to be religious, join the apostate Anglican church (of whom Ringo from The Beatles and Ozzy Osbourne are members). This is the Devil's church, requiring water baptism for salvation. Of course, as we know from the Scriptures, water baptism is merely one's public profession of faith, and is not required nor allowed in salvation. A man is saved by faith alone (Galatians 3:26).

Here is a helpful MP3 sermon by Pastor Jack Hyles titled: " [1]HOW TO BE RIGHT WITH GOD ," if you'd like to listen to it. God wants to be close to you dear reader.

Micah 6:8, "

He hath shewed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the LORD require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God?

" God wants you dear friend to walk humbly with Him. Volumes of books could be written just on what it means to be humble. These Devil's ministers today, like Steve Pettit, Marty Herron, Gary Walton, Sam Horn, John MacArthur, Charles Phelps, Ray Comfort and Paul Washer, have not humbled themselves to THE TRUTH. For if they did they wouldn't teach people to try to stop sinning to be saved.

Romans Chapter 2 Proves Lordship Salvation Is A Devil's Lie

I try to listen to Alexander Scourby read a portion of the Bible each day. I feel like a battery absorbing energy when I listen to the Bible. I am listening to the book of Romans right now. I just heard Romans 1:1,

"Therefore thou art inexcusable, O man, whosoever thou art that judgest: for wherein thou judgest another, thou condemnest thyself; for thou that judgest doest the same things. " Many Bible students don't understand this Bible verse, but it is very simple. You have to read the whole chapter, Romans chapter 2, to rightly divide this passage. The Jews were trying to earn their way to Heaven by keeping the Old Testament law. Paul is frustrated with them, trying to teach them here that they are hypocrites for even trying to turn from sin, because they cannot...

> Romans 2:21-24, "Thou therefore which teachest another, teachest thou not thyself? thou that preachest a man should not steal, dost thou steal? Thou that sayest a man should not commit adultery, dost thou commit adultery? thou that abhorrest idols, dost thou commit sacrilege? Thou that makest thy boast of the law, through breaking the law dishonourest thou God? For the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles through you, as it is written."

Are you listening Marty Herron? You haven't turned from your sins. What you've done to abuse me since 2014 is proof enough of that fact! I still don't attend church, because Pastor Herron threw me under a bus and left me for dead. So now Harvest Baptist Church of Guam is sinfully holding a grudge against me, because I loved them enough to tell THE TRUTH to help them. Run you Bob Jones heathens with your umpteen Devil's Bible revisions! I'll side with Pastor Jack Hyles and the inspired and infallible King James Bible...

>
> Pastor Jack Hyles, a quote from the sermon:
> " [2]The Battle Of The Ages "

So if you want to be close to God, then you must humble yourself to THE TRUTH. Use only the King James Bible. Be pure of heart! You cannot draw close to God through corruptible seed. The [3]English Standard Version (ESV) is corruptible seed, which BJU uses, sells and promotes. Shame on Bob Jones University!!! God desires to be close to you friend, but you must first embrace the truth of the Gospel of free grace. We are saved by faith alone, without works of any sort. Your best human effort and goodness is filth to God (Isaiah 64:6).

The Lordship Salvation crowd go around telling everyone to "repent and turn away from your sin to be saved," but the Bible says in Romans chapter 2 that they are hypocrites. NO ONE has eve turned away from their sin. No one tries to live as upright as Muslims, yet they are all hellbound without Jesus Christ. If forsaking a lifestyle of sin brings salvation, then Judas should have been saved (Matthew 27:3). Judas even returned the 30 pieces of silver, knowing that he had betrayed innocent blood. The Pharisees couldn't have cared less.

Judas was a reformed man, he turned from his sins, but he went to Hell forever. Judas was one of Christ's very apostles, as close in a relationship as two people can become, yet they were light years apart. My point is that you can go to church every Sunday like Marty Herron, and go through all the motions, even thinking you are close to God; and yet be so far away from God that Christ Himself will one day say the horrifying words to you: **"

I NEVER KNEW YOU

" (Matthew 7:21-23). These people in Matthew 7:21-23 did many wonderful works and preached in Jesus' name. Yet Jesus denied knowing them. They failed to wholly rest in Christ, Who died as a sacrifice for their sins on the cross (John 6:40). Only those who completely REST in the name of Jesus will go to Heaven, and no one else!!!

The very idea that a person must forsake sinful living to be saved is rooted in self-righteousness. Pastor Herron, Gary Walton, Steve Pettit and Charles Phelps are looking inside themselves for righteousness, instead of wholly leaning on Jesus' name. You DON'T have to turn from anything to be saved except whatever has been hindering you from believing, which is UNBELIEF. To require a man to forsake his immoral behavior as a requirement to receive God's free gift of eternal life is to damn his soul to Hell forever.

Please understand that I do not write these articles to attack anyone, but to contend (fight) for the Christian faith (Titus 1:10-11;Ephesians 5:11; Jude 1:3). When men hurt me, deny me the opportunity to attend church, hinder me from finding a wife, and drive me away from my church family as an unwanted pest, simply because I told THE TRUTH to help them, then I am most definitely going to preach against their wickedness! Something is wrong with Pastor Gary Walton. Something is wrong with the people at Harvest Baptist Church of Guam, [4]when they permit Seventh-Day Adventist beliefs into their church. The truth matters folks, it really does! God desires to be close to you, but it must be on the basis of THE TRUTH. John 4:24, " God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth.

2.7.4 There Are No Toll Booths To Get To Heaven (2021-07-17 12:35)

1st Corinthians 1:21, “

For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe.

God promised to SAVE THEM THAT BELIEVE!!! If you drive a vehicle, then you know the unpleasant feeling of being required to pay a toll to travel a road. I couldn’t believe that in some places, like New Jersey and New York, that drivers are required to pay upwards of $50 just to pass through a toll gate. In fact, the Pennsylvania Turnpike will cost you a staggering $112 toll to drive on it. Wowza! The turnpike is owned by over 100 investors, mostly from China. Go figure! I don't think anyone should ever have to pay a toll. The government already takes too much in taxes. Thankfully, there won't be any taxes in Heaven.

I admit that I dislike paying tolls. Very few things in this earthly life are free. That is the wonderful thing about salvation, it is a completely free gift from God. Romans 6:23, "For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord. " Eternal life is a gift. A gift is free! Why then did Evangelist Billy Graham (1918-2018) make the following horrible unbiblical statements, 6 times saying that salvation will us something?...

COST

> How To Be Sure You're Saved
>
> First, you must recognize your need.
>
> Second, you must understand the cross.
>
> Third, you must count the cost.
>
> He also said, "Which of you, intending to build a tower, does not sit down first and count the cost? … So likewise, whoever of you does not forsake all that he has cannot be My disciple" (Luke 14:28, 33).
>
> Many people come to Christ without first counting the cost. The cost includes repentance, the forsaking of sin, and a continual, daily, open acknowledgment of Christ in your life.
>
> Fourth, you must take a definite step.
>
> One day at Stanford University, a student of a non-Christian faith came to me and said he was convinced that Jesus is the Son of God but said he couldn't confess Him publicly. He said that back in his own country the cost socially would be too great.
>
> I had to tell him that the Bible says: "Whoever confesses Me before men, him I will also confess before My Father who is in heaven. But whoever denies Me before men, him I will also deny before My Father who is in heaven" (Matthew 10:32-33).
>
> Like the rich young ruler of old, the student went away sad. He had counted the cost and was not able to pay the price of open acknowledgment of Jesus Christ as his Savior.
>
> We ask people to make a public confession of Christ in our meetings because Christ demanded a definite commitment. Christ had reasons for demanding that people openly follow Him. He knew that an unwitnessed vow is no vow at all. Until you have surrendered to Christ by a definite act of your will, you are not a Christian.

[2]

Dear reader, kindly said, Billy Graham was a false teacher, who perverted God's grace by adding to God's Words. Nowhere in the inspired King James Bible are we taught that eternal life will COST US anything. Jesus Christ came to save us from our sins (Romans 5:6-9). JESUS PAID IT ALL (1st John 2:2; John 3:16; 2nd Corinthians 5:21). Getting saved will cost you NOTHING friend. Anybody who says differently is complicating the Gospel.

In hundreds of places throughout the inspired King James Bible we are taught to simply BELIEVE on the Lord Jesus Christ to be saved. John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life. " In the precious Gospel of John, we find the word "believe" mentioned 85 times, but no mention is ever made of anything else. God intentionally made His plan of salvation for mankind very simple, because He knew that many people are not very smart, and God wanted to make sure that salvation is easy, free and simple so that everyone who wants it can have it. Our all-wise (omnisapient) God knows what He is doing.

Sadly, men come along and always complicate everything, making God's simple plan of salvation hard. As a matter of fact, Pastor John MacArthur even wrote a shameful book titled: "

[3]Hard To Believe.

" Dear friend, it is not HARD to believe, it is very easy, free and simple.

> "Don't believe anyone who says it's easy to become a Christian. Salvation for sinners cost God His own Son; it cost God's Son His life, and it'll cost you the same thing." [emphasis added] —[4]Dr. John MacArthur, Grace To You, an updated quote from his book 'Hard To Believe', page 93.

I triple-dog dare you to show me in the Bible where it says that eternal life will COST YOU anything. You cannot! These wicked men are theological liars. Sadly, Billy Graham went to Hell in his false religion. There is no way that a man is saved who is wrong on the Gospel. If Billy Graham went to Heaven, then so also do [5]Seventh-Day Adventists who trust in the heresy of Lordship Salvation. Then so also do Church of Christ with their damnable Baptismal Regeneration (i.e., the false teaching that you must be water baptized to get to Heaven). I mean, 'com on, would God deny someone entrance into Heaven just because they got dunked in water, thinking it was necessary to have eternal life? Friend, you had better believe that God won't let you into Heaven!!!

There is only ONE WAY into Heaven, and Jesus told us what it is, HIM. John 14:6, " Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me." John 6:40, " And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day." I am now attending the Campus Church in Pensacola, at Pensacola Christian College, and am so thankful that they preach a simple free grace Gospel. I am so thankful that they only use the King James Bible. I am so thankful to be a part of a great soulwinning church. I am humble and grateful for my new Christian family.

I got the idea for this article while checking today to see if there is a toll to drive to Pensacola Beach. I want to go check it out. Yes, there is a $1 toll.

I need to soak up some sun. This hotel room is gloomy.

Because I am a fundamentalist Baptist preacher I am always looking for new ideas to convey Bible truths to people. I think the example of having to pay a toll is a perfect illustration of Lordship Salvation, showing us what the Gospel is not! God does NOT require that we pay a toll to get to Heaven. The Pearly City cannot be purchased, deserved, earned, merited or obtained by any means other than wholly RESTING (trusting, relying) in Jesus Christ. I care about you, whoever you may be, and I want you to go to Heaven someday.

The Bible is abundantly clear that the ONLY WAY to eternal life is by faith in Jesus. 1st John 5:20,

"And we know that the Son of God is come, and hath given us an understanding, that we may know him that is true, and we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life. " I love that! Jesus is the true God and eternal life. If you have Jesus you have eternal life!!! There are no toll gates to get to Heaven. There is no cost to count, nor price to pay. There are no works that you must do. In fact, Jesus forever laid to rest the question of what "WORKS" are required to get to Heaven. John 6:28-29, "Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent." The only WORKS which God requires or allows to get to Heaven is to BELIEVE ON JESUS!!!

I hope that I have made it clear from the Word of God that there is no toll booth to enter into the Kingdom of God. Jesus has already paid the price for our sins, all of them (1st Peter 1:18-19). Please don't allow some satanic false teacher to rob your faith. If you admit that you are a sinner (Romans 3:19-23), leaning wholly on Jesus' name (Acts 16:30-31), by believing the Good News (Gospel) that Christ died on the cross for your sins, was buried, and resurrected three days later, then you are saved (1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

Please don't let heretics' Marty Herron, Steve Pettit, John MacArthur, Billy Graham or any other false teachers deceive you into believing that you must repent

"OF YOUR SIN" to be saved, because no such requirement is taught in the Bible. If you press them to explain what they mean by "

repent,

they will all tell you that you must prove the reality of your faith by forsaking a sinful life and being faithful to serve God. That is NOT the Gospel, it is a toll booth!!! All they can do is wrest Scripture passages and quote heretical men as secondary authorities to bolster their counterfeit plan of salvation. [6]Look at this garbage that Ray Comfort preaches. Ladies and gentlemen, that is NOT what the Bible teaches, as I have kindly shown you.

What Billy Graham preached is NOT the Gospel of free grace. What John MacArthur is preaching is NOT the Gospel of free grace. What the [7]shameful Bob Jones University crowd are preaching today is NOT the free grace Gospel. God does not require that you turn away from your sinning to be saved, for to do so is equivalent to a toll booth. God does require that you repent, but repentance is simply a change of mind ; that is, laying aside your wrong thinking about what you think you must do to be saved, to trusting in what God says in the Bible you must do to be saved—which is "believe on the Lord Jesus Christ"

(Acts 16:30-31). Thank you for reading my blog. God bless you!

2.7.5 Hell In The Old Testament (2021-07-20 20:51)

Hell is a major topic in the Word of God. And it should be. The Lord Jesus Christ in the New Testament spends much time warning about hell. Jesus preached about hell more than any other subject. The Old Testament does not overlook the place of hell. The Old Testament contains over 67 direct references to hell. In the King James Bible, the word "hell" occurs 23 times in the New Testament – but 31 times in the Old Testament. The Old Testament includes some of the clearest and most horrifying pictures of hell.

The following scriptures are examples of "hell" in the Old Testament.

> Psalm 16:10,
>
> "For thou wilt not leave my soul in hell; neither wilt thou suffer thine Holy One to see corruption."
>
> Psalm 55:15, "
>
> Let death seize upon them, and let them go down quick into hell: for wickedness is in their dwellings, and among them."

> Proverbs 9:18, "
>
> But he knoweth not that the dead are there; and that her guests are in the depths of hell."
>
> Ezekiel 31:16-17,
>
> "I made the nations to shake at the sound of his fall, when I cast him down to hell with them that descend into the pit: and all the trees of Eden, the choice and best of Lebanon, all that drink water, shall be comforted in the nether parts of the earth.
>
> They also went down into hell with him unto them that be slain with the sword; and they that were his arm, that dwelt under his shadow in the midst of the heathen."

Hell is just as real as heaven or the sea. In Psalms 139, David compares hell with heaven and the sea.

> Psalm 139:7-9, "
>
> Whither shall I go from thy spirit? or whither shall I flee from thy presence?
>
> If I ascend up into heaven, thou art there: if I make my bed in hell, behold, thou art there.
>
> If I take the wings of the morning, and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea;"

39 times the Old Testament calls hell "the pit." It never uses the plural "pits" or the indefinite "a pit," but always the singular, specific place, "the pit." The wording, "the pit" refers to one particular place.

Isaiah 14 describes the fall of Lucifer. Isaiah 14:15 reveals "the pit" is hell, ". . . thou shalt be brought down to hell, to the sides of the pit."

> Isaiah 14:12-15, "
>
> How art thou fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning! how art thou cut down to the ground, which didst weaken the nations!
>
> For thou hast said in thine heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God: I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north:

I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the most High.

Yet thou shalt be brought down to hell, to the sides of the pit."

Ezekiel 31:16 also confirms "the pit" is hell.

> Ezekiel 31:16
>
> "I made the nations to shake at the sound of his fall, when I cast him down to hell with them that descend into the pit :"

As we can see, the scriptures teach a real place called hell. But the Bible does not stop there. The Lord gives careful details about the place called hell. The precise information the Lord provides dumbfounds many. They refuse to believe the simple Word of God. Many recklessly dig through Greek and Hebrew words searching for a morsel of bread. And like Esau, they sell their birthright, the Word of God (1 Peter 1:23), for one morsel of meat.

> Evangelist and radio-preacher, Oliver Greene understands the Bible's teaching about the place of hell.
>
> "Hell is a place—not a state of mind; and the terms used in the Bible to describe hell prove this statement beyond any shadow of doubt." (Greene, Oliver B. Hell, 1973, The Gospel Hour: Greenville p. 25)
>
> Amen, Brother Greene. . . Amen

2.7.6 Beware Of Joseph Prince's Demonic Speaking In Tongues (2021-07-21 08:58)

1st Corinthians 14:23, "If therefore the whole church be come together into one place, and all speak with tongues, and there come in those that are unlearned, or unbelievers, will they not say that ye are mad?"

Joseph Prince (born 1963) is the theologically corrupt evangelist and senior pastor of New Creation Church based in Singapore. He is one of the church's founders in 1983. Pastor Prince has become very popular in the Charismatic Word of Faith Movement, which is full of false teachings. One of their most damaging heresies is the witchcraft of speaking in tongues.

> SOURCE: [1]Mocking Spirits That Mimic The Holy Ghost and Unknown Tongues

Speaking in Tongues as taught and done by Charismatics is demonic. No one at any time in the Bible ever spoke jibber-jabber in an unknown language. The learned Bible student must differentiate between the miracle of tongues in Acts chapter 2 on the Day of Pentecost, and the gift of tongues in 1st Corinthians chapters 14. Neither the miracle nor the gift of tongues involved speaking in some unknown dialect.

Here are a few important observations about the miracle of tongues:

1. Men did not initiate this gift, God did! You can't show me one place in the Bible where a Christian decided to speak in tongues. Rather, it was always initiated by God at spontaneous times of God's choosing. This is very different than what Joseph Prince is teaching, that any believer can speak in tongues on a whim while praying.

2. The miracle of tongues was for the purpose of soulwinning, the gift of tongues (speaking in a foreign language) was for edifying the saints. Thousands of people were saved at Pentecost (Acts 2:41). The ridiculous practice of speaking in the Charismatic's mumbo-jumbo "tongues" is of the Devil. They've created a form of entertainment that attracts carnally-minded people. Proof of this is in the Bible itself. Do you realize that the ONLY church in the New Testament which Paul ever addressed concerning tongues is the carnal church at Corinth? ...THE CARNAL CHURCH!

   Paul plainly stated in 1st Corinthians 3:1-3, "And I, brethren, could not speak unto you as unto spiritual, but as unto carnal, even as unto babes in Christ. I have fed you with milk, and not with meat: for hitherto ye were not able to bear it, neither yet now are ye able. For ye are yet carnal..." Pentecostals meet in their religious buildings and behave as fools—falling on the floor, barking, howling, babbling, shaking, et cetera. This is carnality and not in any way related to the miracle or gift of tongues in God's Word, which were always used to relay the Gospel or edify the saints.

When Abraham was old, he sent his eldest servant, Eleazar, back to his native land to find a Christian wife for Isaac. Eleazar took with him, as gifts, many expensive items and ten camels, and set out for Mesopotamia. Notice that the PURPOSE of the the "gifts" was to bring back a BRIDE for Isaac. If Eleazar would have come back without the bride, he would have failed. This is a good illustration of how foolish Charismatics are today. Pentecostals make the gifts an END in themselves. Do you think Abraham would have been pleased if Eleazar gave all the gifts away, but came back WITHOUT the bride? Abraham would have been very angry. This is what the Charismatics are doing today. Instead of focusing on the main issue, which is SOULWINNING, they have focused on the gifts.

3. Peter knew what he was trying to say. Pentecostals openly admit that they don't know what they're saying when they speak in tongues. Thus, Charismatic "tongues" is demonic. There is absolutely NOTHING in the Word of God about speaking in some "unknown" language. Acts 2:6 plainly states... "every man heard them speak in his own language." The Biblical evidence against the Charismatic Movement is solid and damning.

It is also important to understand that when the Apostle Peter preached at Pentecost, he only spoke in one language, likely Greek. Peter didn't "speak" in tongues, the people "heard" in tongues. Acts 2:6, "Now when this was noised abroad, the multitude came together, and were confounded, because that every man heard them speak in his own language." God worked a miracle by His Holy Spirit, so that the Jews present from 16 different nations all HEARD the Gospel preached in their own language, so they could be saved by gladly receiving that Good News of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen from the dead three days later.

The problem with Pastor Prince is not his teaching on grace. He teaches correctly that it is only the work of Christ on our behalf that saves, not our works. He also makes it clear that the Law has no power to make us holy. However, there are huge theological problems with his teachings. One of the biggest problems is that he preaches a heretical Prosperity Gospel, mixing the satanic Word of Faith Theology with free grace.

The Prosperity Gospel is a false gospel. So even though Pastor Prince is right when it comes to the work of Christ for sinners, he errantly preaches that because of Christ's work the sinner is not only forgiven and accepted and loved by God, but is also entitled and should pursue obtaining health, wealth and prosperity. This is blatant false teaching! This is mixing the Word of Faith prosperity heresy with the Gospel. 1st Timothy 6:5, " Perverse disputings of men of corrupt minds, and destitute of the truth, supposing that gain is godliness: from such withdraw thyself." Please RUN away from any corrupt preacher who associates financial gain with godliness!!! This eliminates over 95 % of televangelists!

I do not find anywhere in the Scripture where we as believers are taught to seek the gift of tongues. You cannot show it to me. What saith the Scripture? ...

1st Corinthians 12:27-31, "

Now ye are the body of Christ, and members in particular.

And God hath set some in the church, first apostles, secondarily prophets, thirdly teachers, after that miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, governments, diversities of tongues.

Are all apostles? are all prophets? are all teachers? are all workers of miracles?

Have all the gifts of healing? do all speak with tongues? do all interpret?

But covet earnestly the best gifts: and yet shew I unto you a more excellent way.

The Apostle Paul makes it very clear that not all believers speak with tongues (known earthly languages). The apostle continues in chapter 13 teaching that love is most important (1st Corinthians 13:1-2), and that love rejoices in truth (vs. 6). Nowhere are we taught that every Christian should speak with tongues. Therefore, we know that Joseph Prince and the Word of Faith Movement are teaching utter heresy!

Here is a satanic video clip of Joseph Prince speaking in jibber-jabber at 7:07 time in the video, and in the moments to follow (see 7:47 time). He sounds like a weirdo. This is of the Devil, not the Holy Spirit of God. Something is very wrong with this man’s alleged walk with God. No one knows the babbling things he is uttering, not even himself...

Examples of Satanic Speaking in Tongues (see 7:07 time)

The Apostle John wrote the Epistle of 1st John to help individual believers know that we are saved (1st John 5:13), that our joy may be full (1st John 1:4). The key verse of the epistle is in 1st John 3:24, “And he that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us. ” So, here we plainly learn that the evidence we are God’s child (saved) is the presence of the indwelling Holy Spirit. Pastor Jack Hyles has authored a helpful book which you may freely read online called: " [3]Meet The Holy Spirit ."

Carefully notice in the epistle John wrote that he never mentions anything about speaking in tongues. John said he wrote his epistle that our JOY MAY BE FULL as God's redeemed children, yet he doesn't even mention tongues. This goes 100 % contrary to false prophet Joseph Prince, who teaches that every believer must speak in tongues to be spiritual and right with God. Beware of the Charismatic Movement. Pastor Max D. Younce has authored a helpful book on the subject titled: "[4]Face To Face With Tongues."

The Bible does NOT emphasize speaking in tongues. The Bible emphasizes soulwinning. Mark 16:15, "And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature." 1Corinthians 9:16, "

For though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for necessity is laid upon me; yea, woe is unto me, if I preach not the gospel! " The biggest mistake that people make is to listen to men instead of SEARCHING THE SCRIPTURES to verify the things they are being taught! (John 5:39; Acts 17:11).

Did you know that Joseph Prince gets paid $600,000 a year as a pastor? It is true. That is sickening!!! 2nd Timothy 4:3-4, "

For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears;

And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables. " I am wearied with unlearned believers following the heretical teaching of false teachers, attempting to legitimize them because they get grace right. [5]Renee Roland is one such example , who gets the Gospel right but denies the Bible truth of an eternal Hell.

Likewise, Joseph Prince is a false teacher! Just because Prince gets grace right doesn't mean that he is trustworthy as a Bible teacher! I also do NOT recommend Dr. Peter S. Ruckman, nor Robert Breaker, who both errantly teach that people were saved by works in the Old Testament. They are theologically corrupt!!! There has always been [6]only one Gospel, which is salvation through faith in Christ (Acts 10:43). Men complicate everything that God has made simple. Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do!

Dear friend, this matter of speaking in demonic tongues is no trifle issue. I want to now share with you some YouTube quotes that people left in response to Joseph Prince's heretical video titled: "[7]The Powerful Benefit Of Praying In Tongues." These comments are truly sad and show just how dangerous Prince really is in his theology (the following typos are theirs, not mine):

What you just read is totally unbiblical. This person is sadly deceived by Satan. Joseph Prince is just another demonic Benny Hinn. How in the world does praying in a different language bring healing to one's child? It doesn't. It is hard to grasp that any thinking human being could embrace the insane idea that God is pleased by this kind of junk. Folks, please don't clap your hands for Satan's ministers like Joseph Prince, Benny Hinn, the 700 Club and TBN. Here's another shameful YouTube quote about Prince's video on tongues...

> I had this experience when I caught the fire of speaking in tongues about a month ago, my whole body was empty I began to see things differently and pray tirelessly, my dream life change immediately. Speaking in tongues guide one to all truth. Thank you sir for this wonderful teaching.

Her dream life changed immediately? What in the world is a "dream life"? Tracy foolishly thinks that speaking in gibberish tongues guides her into all truth. John 17:17 teaches that God's Word is the truth that sanctifies the believer. Folks, RUN from Joseph Prince!!!

I triple-dog dare you to show me in the Holy Bible where it says that speaking in any form of tongues gives us power. You cannot!

What Prince is teaching is not awesome, it is AWFUL!

Liar, liar, pants on fire!

How does speaking in some bizarre jibber-jabber benefit a person in any way? It doesn't. What it does do is confuse ignorant people, leading them away from God and truth. This is so sad that millions of religious people are being deceived.

Of the 308 comments for this particular video, I found only ONE that spoke the truth, refuting Joseph Prince's demonic false teaching on praying in tongues...

> liv4JESUS Godsluv1 month ago (edited)
> All do respect. There is benefit in praying while walking in righteousness. There is no benefit in making up gibberish sounds that doesn't come from God. God understands your native language just fine. Scripture (KJV) explains it very simply. Amen ?

Yes, amen! There is no benefit in making up some ridiculous gibberish that doesn't come from God. Folks, Joseph Prince is teaching witchcraft. In fact, [8]speaking in tongues has its origin in pagan witchcraft. If you speak in the bizarre unknown tongues of Charismatic nuts, you are practicing an evil form of witchcraft, which is a familiar spirit and not the Holy Spirit!

2.7.7 Loving People Unconditionally Means Looking At The Big Picture (2021-07-22 00:30)

Ephesians 4:30-32, “

And grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption.

Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice:

And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ’s sake hath forgiven you.

The more time that we spend around other people, the more they will rub us the wrong way, as we them. The more time that we spend with humans, there will be conflicts because of our differences. We all think differently. We all have different personalities.

Here’s an example: I have an answering machine. I never answer my phone, I let the machine filter all my calls. So if you call me at 3 am in the morning, you won’t wake me, because my answering machine gets the phone call. So years ago, when I lived on Guam, I called a man who built steel guitars in Tennessee. I was so excited about inquiring, that I called to leave him a message. I never expected for him to answer his phone at 3 am, BUT HE DID. Oh no! He wasn’t too happy about it either...lol. I would never want to wake somebody up at 3 am, God forbid. But in my thinking, since I always use an answering machine, I sincerely expected to get his answering machine. This is one example of how our differences in thinking can cause conflict.

As believers we are taught in the Bible to unconditionally love everyone, because God is love, and every believer has God living inside of them as the blessed Holy Spirit (1st Corinthians 3:16-17; Romans 8:9; 1st John 3:24). When people offend us, and hurt our feelings, and pick on us, and say hurtful things (both intentionally and unintentionally), we have to make a choice. We can either focus on their human inferiorities and retaliate against them with more mistreatment, or we can LOOK AT THE BIG PICTURE and love them unconditionally, faults and all. That is how Jesus was able to say, “Father, forgive them” on the cross, concerning the wicked men who had just crucified Him (Luke 23:34). People will also crucify us, usually day by day, slowly, making our life miserable. We CAN love them, if we think LOVE toward them. By focusing on God’s love for the world (John 3:16), and Christ’s sacrifice for ungodly sinners (Romans 5:6-9), we can always take the higher road and love even the worst of people unconditionally (Jude 1:22).

I have had my feelings hurt more times than I can remember throughout my life. I have many painful memories engrained into my brain. I could become very bitter, and some Christians do, which is unfortunate. So what so I do? I take all those painful memories and I place them at Jesus' precious feet at the foot of the cross! I give them to the Lord, and hide in Him. Colossians 3:1-3, "If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God. Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth.

For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God*.

That is why Jesus said in Matthew 25:40, "

And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me.

" When someone hurts us, whether they be saved or unsaved, they have also done it to Jesus, and He feels and shares our pain (Hebrews 4:15-16). When people hurt me, and they always do in various ways, I choose not to focus on the offense with Horse Blinders and a magnifying glass. Instead, I chose to LOOK TO JESUS, the Author and Finisher of our faith (Hebrews 12:3).

Dear friend, if you will adopt this simple practical Bible truth, it will transform your life. I'm talking about living above the clouds of life, where the SON is always shining.

Bring everything to the Lord in prayer (Philippians 4:6-7).

Don't look at people with their quirks, faults and sins; but rather, LOOK TO JESUS at all times!!!

2.7.8 Committing Sin Versus Evil (2021-07-24 00:30)

Luke 11:4, "

And forgive us our sins; for we also forgive every one that is indebted to us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil.

1st John 3:4,

Whosoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law: for sin is the transgression of the law.

James 4:17,

"Therefore to him that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin.

There are two categories of sin:

1. Sins of COMMISSION (doing what we ought not do) -

   1st John 3:4,

   Whosoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law: for sin is the transgression of the law*.*

2. Sins of OMMISSION (not doing what we ought do) - James 4:17, “Therefore to him that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin.

Sin is transgressing God’s Law (1st John 3:4). Evil is premeditated sinning. Therefore, all evil is sin, but not all sin is evil.

For example: Getting angry in the heat of an argument might lead someone to commit a crime of passion, assaulting or even God forbid, killing the other person involved. That is a horrible sin.

However, if a person gets mad, takes a bus home to get their gun, comes back on a different bus an hour later with the gun, and ultimately shoots the person they were arguing with—that is evil (premeditated murder). An abortion is evil because it was scheduled . It was premeditated murder. A sinister plan was contrived to murder a human being in the safety of the child’s mother’s own womb.

[1]Please say it isn’t so!!!

When Moses got angry and smote the rock twice, that was a sin. The Lord had instructed Moses to strike the rock once, for the water to flow to quench the thirst of the Israelites. Yet they still complained again, moaning about this and that, and everything else too. Moses snapped in anger and smote the rock twice. Well, that was very unfortunate. God had originally intended to use that rock as an Old Testament type (illustration) of Christ, Who was smitten only once for our sins (Hebrews 10:10). Christ was not smitten twice, only once. The Epistle of Hebrews makes this truth very clear.

Roman Catholics pervert this fundamental truth with their Sacrament of the Eucharist. Catholics believe that every time a Catholic partakes of The Eucharist (i.e., communion), Jesus is being crucified again. Catholics are taught something weird called [2]Transubstantiation (how that for a big word?). My oh my, what does that intimidating theological word mean? It simply refers to the false idea that the communion juice once consumed, literally turns into the blood of Jesus in the human body, giving the recipient spiritual life. Likewise, the unleavened bread is said to literally convert into Christ’s physical flesh. None of this is true in the Bible, it is a vain ritual. The Lord’s Supper is simply done in REMEMBRANCE of Christ’s blood and body sacrifice on the cross.

In the Lord’s Prayer, we are taught to pray in

Luke 11:4, “

And forgive us our sins; for we also forgive every one that is indebted to us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil.

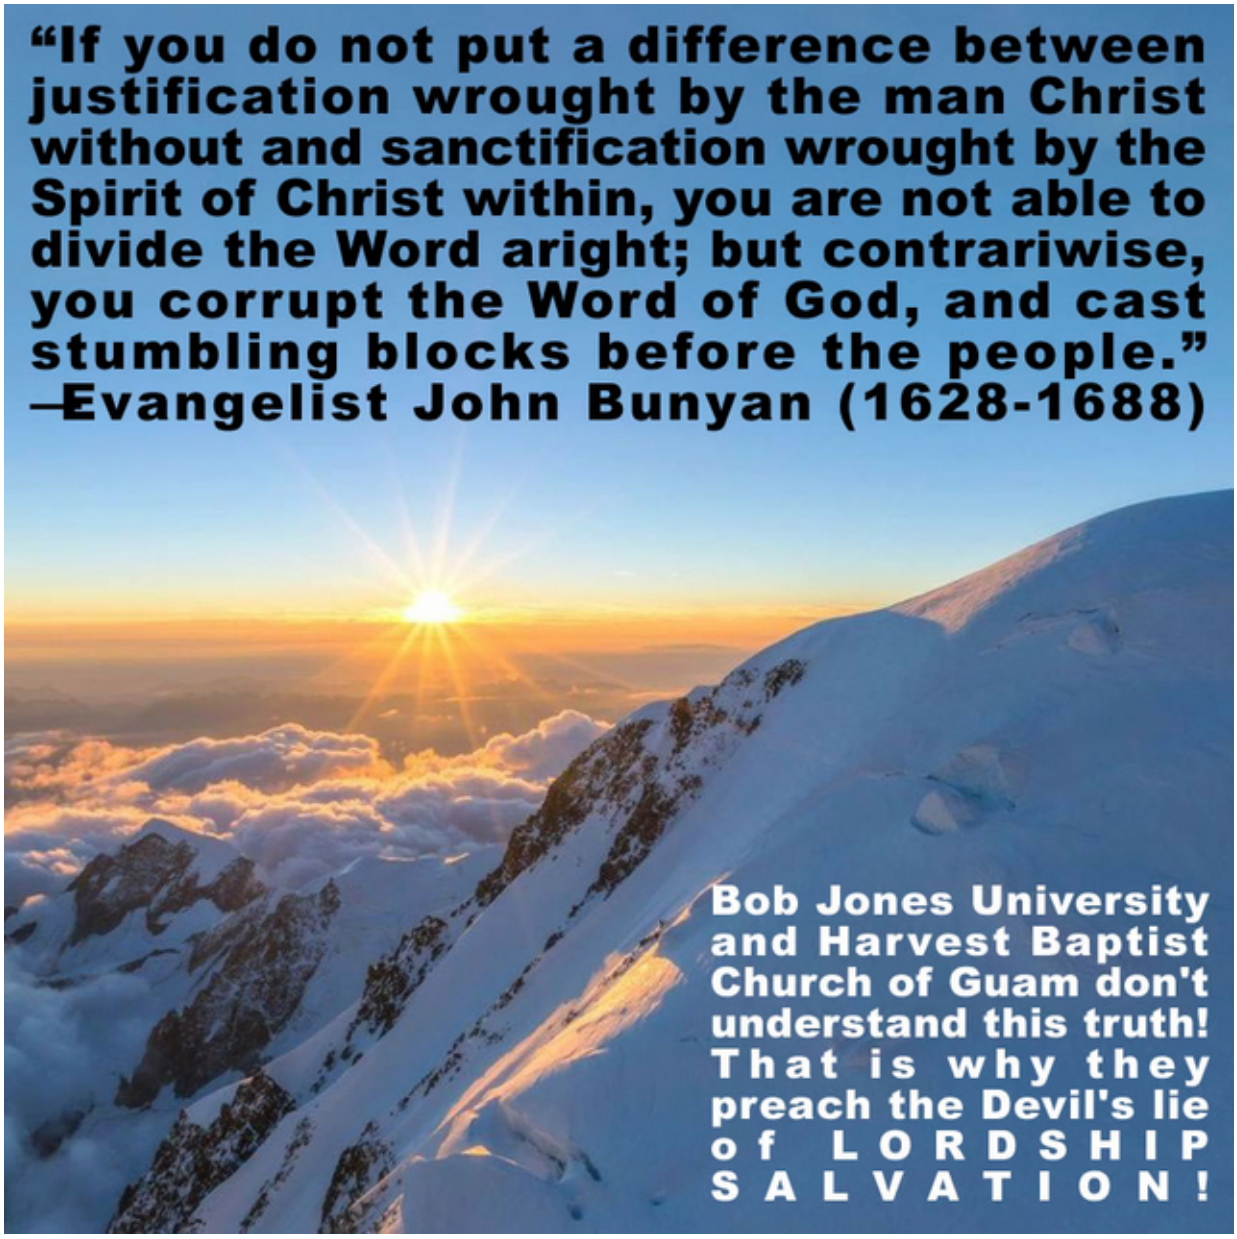
” Carefully notice that Jesus didn’t say to ask God to deliver us from sin, but from evil. You cannot be delivered from sin. We all sin. But we don’t have to do evil (planned sin, willful sin). I cannot avoid sinning, but I can avoid plotting to sin. I cannot prevent sinning, but I can stop going to a sinful place to deliberately commit sin. I cannot avoid lusting, but I can avoid looking at something unholy that will cause me to lust. Do you see the big difference? The Lord teaches us when we pray, to ask God to deliver us from EVIL. I don’t want to do wrong. I want to think right, do right and live right. That is my constant mindset.



This little Bible study will help you. May we all purpose in our heart as believers not to do evil.

Psalm 11:7, " For the righteous LORD loveth righteousness; his countenance doth behold the upright." I love that Scripture. The righteous Lord loveth righteousness, and so do I as His redeemed child. It feels good to do good! It feels great to be right with God. I praise the Lord for His righteousness, which is by faith alone. The only righteousness that I have is the righteousness of God which He has imputed to me by faith.

And then as His redeemed child the Lord is pleased when I try to do right. But when and where I utterly fall and fail, GOD'S FREE GRACE DOTH MUCH MORE ABOUND. It is free to me and you, but grace came at a high price to God and His only begotten Son. Romans 5:20-21, "Moreover the law entered, that the offence might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound:

That as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life by Jesus Christ our Lord.

" Amen! The only way to obtain God's grace is He must give it to you freely, and He does so only through faith in His only begotten Son, Jesus.

2.7.9 A Beautiful Poem By Pastor R.B. Ouellette (2007) (2021-07-24 01:19)

A POEM BY PASTOR R.B. OUELLETTE (2007)

I heard the old-time preacher speak
Without one reference to the Greek,

“This precious Book within my hand
Is God’s own word on which I stand.”
And then the scholars came along
And said the preacher had it wrong:
“Conflations here, rescissions there,
And scribal errors everywhere.”
A book “essentially correct,”
But not in every last respect.
“A ‘fairly certain’ word,” they say,
“To light our path and guide our way.”
Then in despair I bowed my head.
“We have no word of God,” I said.
“If some of this old Book is wrong,
Pray tell, what else does not belong?”
Will still more manuscripts be found
To make us go another round?
Correcting, changing, taking out;
Creating questions, fear and doubt?
Must more discoveries come to light
Before we finally get it right?
Will precious doctrines fade away
Because of what the scholars say?
How many “errors” must we purge
Because of what the scholars urge?
How many versions must we make?
How many changes can we take?
How will we ever know we’re through —
That we possess a scripture true?
If man must find God’s word, my friend,
When will the changes ever end?
Then to the Book again I fled
To find out what my Father said.
“Forever settled… never fade” —
This promise God the Spirit made.
A thousand generations hence —
That seems a pretty strong defense.
A “perfect Book?” Then it must be Man can’t improve what God gave me.
We have a Book completely true,
Instructing us in all we do.
Preserved by God, not found by men,
Inscribed by God the Spirit’s pen.
If God or scholars you must choose,
Be sure the “experts” always lose.
Don’t give to them a second look;
Just keep believing this old Book

Psalm 12:6-7, “The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times. Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever.”

Psalm 19:7, “The law of the LORD is perfect, converting the soul: the testimony of the LORD is sure, making wise the simple.”

Jeremiah 23:29-30, “Is not my word like as a fire? saith the LORD; and like a hammer that breaketh the rock in pieces? Therefore, behold, I am against the prophets, saith the LORD, that steal my words every one from his neighbour.”

Matthew 24:35, “Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away.”

2 Corinthians 2:17, “For we are not as many, which corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ.”

2 Timothy 3:16-17, “All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: That the man of God may be perfect, throughly furnished unto all good works.”

2.7.10 Salvation Verses Transformation (2021-07-25 08:22)

Romans 12:1-2, “I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.”

I love rescue missions! Pacific Garden Mission (PGM) was founded in 1877. The renowned professional baseball player turned saw-dust-trail evangelist, Billy Sunday, was saved at the Pacific Garden Mission (PGM) in 1886, when Mrs. Sarah “Ma” Clarke shared the Gospel with him. I enjoy listening to PGM’s radio program called “UNSHACKLED,” which began airing in 1950. Unfortunately, I have heard multiple plans of salvation taught in various episodes (there’s now over 3,000 episodes).

In episode #3396 the PGM narrator makes the statement: “LIFE TRANSFORMATION IS THE GOAL AT PACIFIC GARDEN MISSION.” Although that motto sounds noble, it is disturbing because their primary goal ought to be PREACHING THE GOSPEL TO GET SOULS SAVED!!! But you say, “They do preach the Gospel at PGM as the first step of seeing lives transformed.” The problem is that the [1]heresy of Calvinism and various forms of Lordship Salvation have crept into many churches today, which are all false Gospels. In so doing, they have mixed DISCIPLESHIP with SALVATION, which is ANOTHER GOSPEL. Despite having some heart-wrenching testimonies, which are a blessing, PGM’s UNSHACKLED series propagate the false teaching that a person must stop their willful sinning to be saved, which is “ANOTHER GOSPEL” (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4).

“The worst pervert in America is the Gospel pervert!”

SOURCE: Brother Lester Roloff, from the sermon, “[2]The Gospel Perverts Or Jesus?”

Please notice our text passage of Scripture from Romans 12:1-2. The Word of God commands believers to “BE YE TRANSFORMED BY THE RENEWING OF YOUR MIND.” Getting saved does not transform a person. When a person gets saved (by faith alone in the Gospel), the Holy Spirit of God comes in to indwell that person (1st Corinthians 3:16-17). Getting saved does not change a man one bit. The change is the glorious presence of the blessed Holy Spirit of God, Which is the Spirit of Christ (Romans 8:9). Once a person is saved, a whole new world of understanding is opened unto them, because of the indwelling Holy Spirit (1st Corinthians 2:14-16).

In UNSHACKLED episode #3187, the story of Henry Christian, the narrator says:

> “Jesus said, ’he that is not with me is against me and he that gathereth not with me scattereth aboard.’ Salvation begins with repentance: Turn from your wicked ways and follow the One Who said, I am the way, the truth and the life; no man cometh unto the Father, but by Me.” [emphasis added]

My friend, that is NOT the Gospel. PGM preaches a forked-tongued Gospel. They speak of the free grace of God in one statement, but then they tell people they must forsake sinful behavior to be saved. That is works! Receiving the “free gift” (Romans 5:15; 6:23) of God does not require turning away from your wicked ways. That is reformation! We read in Ephesians 2:8-9, “For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast.” Romans 4:5 plainly teaches, “But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.”

UNSHACKLED is really unbiblical sometimes. Later in episode #3187, Henry Christian heretically says to his mother:

> “I’m saved mom, I gave my life to Jesus Christ... Jesus will change your life too. Please, think about giving your life to Christ... Mom, if you put your trust in Jesus for salvation, He’ll lead your life.”

Being saved doesn’t mean having your life changed! Being saved doesn’t mean letting Jesus lead your life! You don’t have to give your life to Christ to be saved! You don’t get better to get saved, you get saved to get better. But growth in grace takes time, as a new believer nurtures on the milk of the Word (1st Peter 2:2). UNSHACKLED may all sound really good, but it is NOT the Gospel. PGM is wrongly mixing discipleship with salvation. Nearly all of the UNSHACKLED episodes that I’ve listened to, automatically conclude that receiving the free gift of God mandates: following Christ, being led by Christ, turning away from sinful behavior, surrendering your life to serve God, forsaking the world and being completely transformed; yet, none of this is required to be saved. Pacific Garden Mission teaches Lordship Salvation, which is Calvinism, a false doctrine of devils.

What PGM needs to do is preach the simple Gospel, and then mentor new converts, helping them find a local New Testament church where they can be water baptized and join the church; otherwise they won't make it to spiritual maturity. New converts need to be indoctrinating with the Words of God, teaching them the things of Jesus Christ. The problem is that rescue missions operate on a short-term basis, unlike a church family where you grow together over the years. PGM tries to do it all in a week!

If you doubt anything I say, listen to UNSHACKLED for yourself, and you'll hear a bunch of religious heresy instead of "the simplicity that is in Christ" (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4). The new life that Christianity offers requires transformation, which salvation alone cannot bring! The mind must be RENEWED by the preaching, studying, searching, abiding, memorizing and teaching of God's inspired Words in the King James Bible!!!!!!! Your salvation didn't change you one bit!!! PGM doesn't seem to understand that truth. The presence of the indwelling Holy Spirit doesn't mean instant maturity, instant consecration, instant surrender, et cetera. Just as a newborn human baby must grow into adulthood, so also must a baby believer grow into maturity (which takes years). I say that kindly, but truthfully.

I've noticed that nearly all of UNSHAKCLED's episodes are based upon testimonies of people from churches (not the mission), all around the country, and even international. Where are the stories of the men who were saved at PGM, from off the street, whose lives were immediately transformed? They don't exist!!! The only one I know of is Billy Sunday, but he was already a successful man in the secular world, not a bum off the street. If PGM's Lordship Salvation is so great, then where are all their converts from off the streets of Skid Row??? The spectacular stories make great radio shows (with some captivating background organ music and amateur actors), but in reality it takes many years for a properly mentored new believer to grow in maturity in the Lord.

When a person gets saved, they don't change one bit. The only difference is now they have the presence of the indwelling Holy Spirit. All things become new, as a baby believer's spiritual eyes are now opened for the first time, and they must begin to grow. There may be instant coffee, but there are no instant mature Christians!!! PGM's UNSHACKLED radio programs give the impression that a person must commit them self to substantial lifestyle changes in order to be saved. That's what they repeatedly teach! The Holy Bible says that salvation is a gift! A gift can only be received, not achieved. God only saves those who are trusting to be saved, not those who are trying to be saved. Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

> "When anyone comes promising salvation to those 'who make full surrender' of all that they have to God, and who 'pay the price of full salvation' he is preaching another gospel, for the price was paid on Calvary's cross and the work that saves is finished. It was Christ Jesus who made the full surrender when He yielded His life on Calvary that saves us, not our surrender in any way to Him." —Pastor Harry A. Ironside, from the Gospel tract, [3]Another Gospel.

Pacific Garden Mission (PGM), whether they intend it or not, teach Calvinism in some of their episodes. In one UNSHACKLED episode I heard a man teaching that you cannot just write your name in the back of your Bible; but rather, you need to surrender your life to Jesus every day for the rest of your life. That is a satanic plan of damnation!!! Eternal life is a free gift, that you receive ONE TIME by faith alone, and then it is yours forever. Calvinism requires a believer to persevere in holy living, otherwise they say you're not saved. This is a false works-based plan of salvation.

The idea that repentance is from sins for salvation is not found in the Bible, and constitutes a works-based plan of salvation. In UNSHACKLED episode #3399, the story of "Dorie: The girl nobody wanted," the PGM narrator guides the listener to pray "Please come into my heart and transform me to be more like you." Although innocent sounding, this is not the Gospel. You don't have to "ask" Jesus into your heart to be saved. You don't have to ask Jesus to "transform" you to be saved. Being "transformed" according to Romans 12:2 comes only by having our mind "RENEWED," which comes by nurturing on the milk of God's Word (1st Peter 2:2).

Kindly, Pacific Garden Mission hypes the spectacular ideology that a man is supposed to get saved and become an instant transformed creature! That is not biblical. Growth in grace requires a lifetime. A new believer requires YEARS to mature. A new believer can choose to behave as a mature Christian does, but there are no shortcuts, the same as is true in the physical body. A child may choose to act like an adult in some ways, but they won't actually be an adult until they become an adult. The same is true spiritually in the Lord.

It is important that people understand that Pacific Garden Mission is a rescue mission, not a church. In a church, the church family is edified and built up in the Holy Scriptures from week-to-week. In a rescue mission, souls are pulled from the flames of Hell by the preaching of the Gospel, " saved; yet so as by fire

" (1st Corinthians 3:15b). It is totally unbiblical to propagate the idea that alcoholics, drug addicts, perverts, thieves and hardened sinners, who come off the street into a rescue mission, instantly become radically transformed mature saints by simply getting saved. Salvation doesn't work that way, nor does getting saved have anything to do with transformation of one's behavior. God saves us (John 1:12-13), and then the indwelling Holy Spirit begins to sanctify us with the Word of God (John 17:17).

I realize that some people do get saved and instantly demonstrate some type of outward change, but that is not the norm. Alcoholics are chemically addicted to the drug alcohol and in most cases will required medical intervention to recover. You cannot just tell them to believe the Gospel and be transformed from alcoholism to recovery. Some men do suddenly walk away from alcohol, never to return to it, as did guitarist Joe Walsh of The Eagles band in the 1990's. Joe sobered up to get back into the band. So we see that a man can change even without getting saved. A changed life is NOT part of the Gospel. I love what Dr. Curtis Hutson said...

> "You don't go to Hell because you won't quit your sinning!" —Pastor Curtis Hutson; Quote from the classic sermon, [4]Why Do Men Go To Hell? (exposing 'Lordship Salvation')

I have literally laughed at numerous UNSHACKLED episodes, as I hear ACTORS testifying of instant recovery from alcoholism just because they got saved. For every such claim there are a hundred SAVED ALCOHOLICS like Noah! I'm sick and tired of corrupted preachers, including many of Pacific Garden Mission's UNSHACKLED episodes, misusing the Gospel as a crutch to force behavioral changes upon sinners. Growth in grace has absolutely nothing to do with receiving the free gift of eternal life. New converts need to be mentored, or else they will not grow to maturity (Luke 8:13-15; Matthew 28:19-20).There is nothing more important than the Gospel. Either a person must turn away from deliberate sinful behavior to be born-again, or they do not. It cannot be both. The Bible says they do NOT (Romans 4:5-6).

Heresy is creeping into our churches by the hour!!! Churches all across the world love, support and listen to UNSHACKLED. I have been blessed by some of the life's stories myself, but as a born-again Christian I am commanded by God to be on guard against heresy creeping its way into the church (Jude 1:3; Ephesians 5:11). I haven't heard all 3,000 plus episodes, but I'm working toward it. Of the hundreds of UNSHACKLED episodes I've heard, I'm saddened that many of them make unbiblical statements, adding things to the Gospel.

Here are some very helpful quotes refuting the idea of turning from sinful behavior to be saved:

> "It is an inexcusable error to confront sinners with problems that concern the Christian life and call upon them to make promises regarding them. An unsaved person is never called upon to surrender himself to God. The saving act is in no instance represented as our 'giving ourselves to God'; it is, on the contrary, taking His Son as our Savior." Ryrie, Charles. Balancing the Christian Life. Moody Press, Inc., 1969 (p. 170).
>
> "The second approach finds faith in the gospel alone an 'easy Believism' and seeks to add something to faith in order to accomplish salvation. To repent is to 'change one's mind,' and to believe is to remove one's trust from that in which it has rested and place it in Christ." Howard, William. "Is Faith Enough to Save?" Bibliotheca Sacra. January-March, 1942 (p.99).
>
> "This kind of faith is not 'easy believism'. It is not easy to say, 'I can't save myself, I must recognize that there is something wrong with me, and I must seek help from someone else.'" Hook, H. Phillip. "A Biblical Definition of Saving Faith." Bibliotheca Sacra. April-June, 1964 (p. 133, 138).
>
> "Eternal life is free. Discipleship is immeasurably hard. The former is attained by faith alone, the latter by a faith that works... the former brings with it the righteousness of God so that a man is 'justified freely by his grace' (Romans 3:24). The latter develops a personal righteousness, based on good deeds, so that a man was also 'justified by works' (James 2:24). The former constituted the believer God's workmanship, the latter fulfilled the wonderful purpose for which he had been created. The former cost man nothing, the latter could cost him everything, including life itself." Hodges, Zane C. The Hungry Inherit. Moody Press, Inc., 1972 (p. 114, 115).
>
> "There is a vast difference between coming to Jesus for salvation and coming after Jesus for service. Coming to Christ makes one a believer, while coming after Christ makes one a disciple. All believers are not disciples. To become a believer one accepts the invitation of the Gospel, to be a disciple one obeys the challenge to a life of dedicated service and separation. Salvation comes through the sacrifice of Christ; discipleship comes only by sacrifice of self and surrender to His call for devoted service. Salvation is free, but discipleship involves paying the price of a separated walk. Salvation can't be lost because it depends upon God's faithfulness, but discipleship can be lost because it depends upon our faithfulness." DeHaan, M. R. Hebrews. Zondervan Publishing House, 1959 (p. 117).

"For the unregenerate man, repentance is the change of mind whereby he turns from unbelief to faith in the person and work of Jesus Christ." Post, Roger. "The Meanings of the Words Translated 'Repent' and 'Repentance' in the New Testament." Master's Thesis, Wheaton College, June 1972 (p. 80).

"There are those who, in their zeal to get people to turn from their sinful ways and receive the Lord, almost put repentance on a par with believing... Repentance, as it relates to Christ, means to change our minds about Him, who He is and what He's done to provide forgiveness and deliverance from our sins. When we place faith in Jesus as having taken our place personally on the cross and borne the penalty due our sins, then we're automatically repenting, because we couldn't accept Him in this way without having had to change our minds in some way concerning Him." Lindsey, Hal. The Liberation of Planet Earth. Zondervan Publishing House, 1974 (p. 136, 137).

"Discipleship is frequently equated with salvation and often erroneously made a condition for becoming a Christian". Pentecost, J. Dwight. Design for Discipleship. Zondervan Publishing House, 1971 (p. 11).

"Certainly discipleship is a most important aspect of our relation to Christ, but it belongs to the sphere of Christian life rather than entrance upon that life... One does not become a disciple in order to become a Christian, but because he has become a Christian by faith in the Savior, it is fitting that he embark upon a life of discipleship". Harrison, Everett F. "Must Christ be Lord to Be Savior?-No." Eternity, September 1959 (p. 14).

"There is no more piously subtle abrogation of the Gospel than to tell a Sinner that he must not only believe in the Savior, but dedicate himself to do God's will, crown the Savior Lord of his life, etc., etc. Obviously, dedication and service are highly desirable, but they are the privilege and the duty of the saved, never a condition of salvation for the unsaved (cf. Romans 12:1, 2)." Unger, Merrill F. God is Waiting to Meet You. Moody Press, 1975 (p. 117, 118).

"People are sometimes led to believe that there is saving value in some public confession of Christ, or profession of a decision. "With the heart man believeth unto righteousness." This is salvation. "With the mouth confession is made unto salvation." This is the voice of the newborn child speaking to and of its father. The only condition on which one may be saved is to believe." Chafer, Lewis Sperry. Salvation. Dunham Publishing Company, 1917 (p. 46).

Lordship salvation is where someone teaches that there must be a commitment to Christ as Lord of one's life in order to be saved. Recently there has been a modification of this position to say that willingness to be controlled by the Lord at the time of salvation is all that is required in addition to faith in order to be saved.

Galatians 1:8, 9 says, "But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you, than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, if any man preach any other gospel unto you than that you have received, let him be accursed."

You are saved in a moment of time, because you are trusting in the true Savior now, not working your way to heaven day by day which is not even possible. Once saved you can never be lost, for any reason. This is because you were born spiritually the moment you put your trust in Him. Just like your physical birth which brought you into this human world, your spiritual birth gave you a new spiritual life that is permanent. You were born-again, made righteous and holy in Gods eyes. In fact you have the righteousness of God himself, your are sinless and perfect in God's eyes now and that's why you can enter into a perfect heaven.

God will not save anyone who is trying to be saved, He will only save those who are trusting to be saved. You MUST put ALL your trust in Jesus to be saved, trust in the blood that He shed on the cross, trust that He is God in the flesh, trust that He made the complete payment for your sins, not just part; He paid for ALL of your sins (past, present, and future)! Trust that He rose again from the dead after 3 days and 3 nights, and in return for this trust, He gives YOU Eternal Life. All false Christians put part of their trust in Jesus and part of their trust the Church and part of their trust in themselves. If you put 99.99 % trust in Jesus and 00.01 % in something else, you will go to hell. It must be 100 % trust in Jesus and what He did and 0 % in you or your church! This information in critical... (grace always cancels works!) You are going to hell if it's by your works or you are going to heaven by Gods grace. It's as simple as that.

So the question comes down to who are you trusting. Are you trusting yourself to get to heaven by being a good person and giving lots of money to your church or are you trusting Jesus, the Lamb of God, that was slain for the sins of the world to get you to heaven? You receive the Gift of God (Eternal Life) as soon as you stop trusting in yourself, your church, your synagogue, your mosque, your money, or any other works and put your trust in Him and Him ALONE, Jesus Christ.

If all this makes sense to you and you would like to trust Jesus as your personal Savior right now, then tell the Mighty God in Heaven of your decision to trust Jesus Christ as your only hope of heaven. Tell Him that you are no longer putting your trust in your actions, or your church, or your church membership, or in your money, or in your Rabbi, or in your synagogue or your Mosque but that you are putting all of your trust in Him and the shed blood of the cross to pay your sin debt. Thank Him for doing it for you! Thank Him for giving you the Gift of Eternal Life that He paid for with His life. There is no greater deed than that of laying down your life for another.

Biblical Salvation is forsaking any other means of salvation but Christ and casting ourselves fully upon Him for eternal life. The Gift of God, Eternal Life can never be lost once possessed for any reason. John 6:39, " And this is the Father's will which hath sent Me, that of all which He hath given Me I should LOSE NOTHING, but should raise it up again at the last day." You have God's promise that once you put your trust in Jesus you can never be lost for ANY reason whatsoever.

The Bible teaches in Romans 12:2 that a believer is transformed by the RENEWING OF THEIR MIND. The following Scripture passage applies to the Christian, and is a matter of discipleship, not being saved. Ephesians 4:22-24, "That ye put off concerning the former conversation the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts; And be renewed in the spirit of your mind; And that ye put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness."

"You don't get better to get saved, you get saved to get better!"

SOURCE: Pastor Curtis Hutson; Quote from the classic sermon, [5]Why Do Men Go To Hell? (exposing 'Lordship Salvation')

Pacific Garden Mission needs to leave the Gospel alone, and stop requiring people to turn from sinful behavior to be saved. You will not find the words "turn from sin" or "repent from sin" anywhere in the King James Bible to be saved. We are saved by BELIEVING the Gospel, period. John 6:28-29, "Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent."

We are saved by God's [6]IMPUTED righteousness. Philippians 3:9, "And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith." Eternal life is a free gift, which dies not require turning from sinful behavior. Those who teach that a changed life is necessary to be saved are liars. On their UNSHACKLED program, Pacific Garden Mission often quotes 1st John 2:15, "Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him." The Bible doesn't say that such a person is not saved, it says they don't have God's love in them. The evidence of salvation is the presence of the indwelling Holy Spirit (1st John 3:24), but this is not a part of God's plan of salvation. To get saved, you simply need to admit you are a guilty sinner in God's sight, and believe the Good News of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen the third day (1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

We read about many worldly men in the Bible; namely, Lot, Samson, Solomon, David, Demas, Peter, et cetera. Proponents of the Lordship Salvation heresy would lead us to believe that they weren't really saved, but that is untrue. I'm tired of hearing false prophets saying that salvation is solely by God's grace, while at the same time hypocritically teaching that you must forsake sinful behavior to be (or prove that you are) saved. Romans 11:6 plainly teaches that it cannot be both—salvation is either by works or grace! Works have no place in God's simple plan of salvation.

When you hear a pastor teaching that repentance is " a change of mind that leads to a change of behavior,

" he is adding to the Bible. He got that from a theologian, or a Greek thesaurus, or some manmade source, but he didn't get that from the inspired Word of God. Repentance in the Bible simply means, "metanoia (Greek noun): a change of mind," that compels a lost sinner to believe the Good News of the Lord Jesus Christ to be saved (Acts 16:30-31). Repentance is a change of mind. The Bible does not even tell us what this change of mind is about. God intentionally chose to use this open-ended, all-inclusive, term. Of what must a man repent to be saved? Why, of whatever has been hindering him from believing on Christ to be saved. So if a person believes the Gospel they HAVE repented!

I am not trying to be unkind, but what Pacific Garden Mission is preaching is a false Gospel. The matter of transformation has nothing to do with receiving the free gift of eternal life, which is solely by faith in Jesus Christ (Galatians 3:26).

2.7.11 Who Was Caspar Milquetoast? (2021-07-26 09:30)

Matthew 15:7-9, “

Ye hypocrites, well did Esaias prophesy of you, saying,

This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips; but their heart is far from me.

But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.

Brother Lester Roloff (1914-1982) often said, “The world is sick and tired of a bunch of Casper Milquetoasts climbing around in the pulpits today.” What or who is Casper Milquetoast? The term originated from a comic strip character in the 1920’s named Casper Milquetoast. The term has come to define someone unassertive and timid. Brother, this describes most Baptist pastors today. Today’s pastors are pansies! Is your pastor a Casper Milquetoast character?

Today we’d call such shallow pastors [2]“Yellowbelly” from the Canadian comedy show Second City TV. A pastor who won’t preach on Hell, fire and damnation from the pulpit is a yellowbellied coward. We need some preachers once again with backbone, not a wishbone! God has been faithful. I wish I could influence some men of God to get worked up! I’m trying and praying brother. The Lord is still able. God deserves our best as Christians! I’m tired of pastors who dress in fancy new clothes and have that gleam in their eye, but they avoid preaching on anything offensive and the alters are always empty at invitation time. Of course the alters are empty, there is [3]no preaching that produces repentance! The baptistry gets used once every 6 months. Soul-winning is not taught. There is no organized time for the church to go witnessing in public. There is no bus ministry.

[4]Brother Roloff says, “There’s only one way to speak with authority and that’s to saturate your soul and your mind with the Word of God.” The reason why pastors today are dead is because they are listening to dead ministers instead of the authoritative Word of God. I’m not trying to pick on Bob Jones University, but their primary focus today is to educate students in the “[5]Liberal Arts.” That’s like a Christian automotive-repair school. We need Bible Colleges to train Christian workers. I’m sick and tired of these wet noodles, spineless preachers, who come in from the Jell-O seminary with their tapioca message of the power of positive thinking.

We Need Above Average Preachers Who Actually Preach

The great need of the hour is PREACHING PREACHERS!!! A pastor cannot kowtow to his congregation and be the man of God that he ought to be. You've got to say it like it is, even at the risk of losing members. A preacher is supposed to say what God lays upon his heart. As Brother Roloff says, "My preaching is none of my business!" See, "[6]TEACHING ON PREACHING!"

People are becoming desperate for help. My heart breaks often, wishing that I could personally help many of my web visitors who are struggling. I have heard so many heart-wrenching stories over the years, from dear people who are hurting. My friend, God needs you. There is a place in God's choir that only you can fill. If you are absent, no one else can replace your unique personality. [7]God Needs Your Personality (by Dr. Jack Hyles). I need you. Without you my ministry has no purpose. I am hear to help you know the Lord Jesus Christ, and then to grow in grace and faith as a born-again Christian. "For we walk by faith, not by sight" (2nd Corinthians 5:7).

Brother Lester Roloff rightly states:

> Folks, the end time's come. The field is white, the laborers are few. We have the greatest opportunity of any generation, that ever lived, to reach desperate souls for the Lord Jesus Christ! Brother Lester Roloff (1914-1982), from the classic MP3 sermon, "[8]JESUS IS LORD!!!"

By God's grace I'm doing my part to reach others. If every Christian believer did their part, we could reach America for Jesus Christ. The biggest mistake that any Christian could ever make is to think that the efforts of one person couldn't make a significant difference in the world. One Christian plus God equals a majority! The homosexual community are going totally against the Word of God. They are trying to intimidate and silence Christians around the Country, but we have God on our side, because we are on God's side. There is no controversy if you believe the Holy Bible!

Homosexuals have been trying to force their sickening wicked lifestyle upon our children and the churches for the past 50 years. They're digging their way into the fires of Hell. The wicked liberal newsmedia always tries to play the race card, associate Christians with the Ku Klux Klan, demonize us as hatemongers and bigots; but they won't dare say that God is wrong! Don't make God angry by saying that homosexuality is OK, because it's really not! God hates all sin, including homosexuality, which is a perversion of nature, sex and courtship. God doesn't make mistakes. Two men cannot naturally produce a child via carnal knowledge, nor can two women. The sinful world continually misinterprets God's Word, changing it into a lie as Romans 1:25 said they would, in an attempt to justify their wickedness.

America has gone to hell. Patriots are now shamefully labeled as "terrorists" in hundreds of Hollywood movies; such as, "DeJavu" with actor Denzel Washington. Few people realize that the fascist CIA (who started Homeland Security after 911) have a liaison mole working in Hollywood to incorporate brainwashing propaganda into movies. Literally, Americans are being turned against themselves, and will ultimately be destroyed by their own ignorance.

The real terrorists are the criminals who've hi-jacked The White House since President John F. Kennedy's assassination and are now controlling the entire federal government. Congress has sold their souls to the Devil. Apart from divine intervention, our nation is effectively already doomed. America never was a truly free nation, evidenced by the Masonic control of the United States since its inception in 1776. Their plot is to con people into thinking we are free while enslaving us further. [9]I'd say they have succeeded!

Brother Roloff, speaking concerning the churches sinfully bowing to Baal (unconstitutional state authority):

>
> I wish I could wake America up! Brother, God's got to rule. Jesus is Lord! The Holy Spirit is our administrator!
>
>
> SOURCE: Brother Lester Roloff, from the classic MP3 sermon, "[10]JESUS IS LORD!!!"

In his awesome MP3 sermon titled, "[11]Jesus is Lord," Brother Roloff gives three reasons why America faces end-time destruction:

1. Licensed liquor spells doom for any nation!
2. Killing babies (abortion)
3. Homosexuality

Do you realize what has taken place? We've lost a whole generation in America! The fields are white, but the laborers are few. There's only two problems in America: the PREACHER and the PAPA! You get those two fellas straightened out and we'll be on our way to revival. Oh, how we need unapologetic preachers who proclaim the inspired Word of God! ...

> "You see, we not only believe the fundamentals of the faith, we believe in Ecclesiastical Separation. You don't yoke up with somebody that is not saved and call him a Christian brother!" —Pastor Curtis Hutson, a quote from the sermon: "[12]Things That Are Different Are Not The Same"

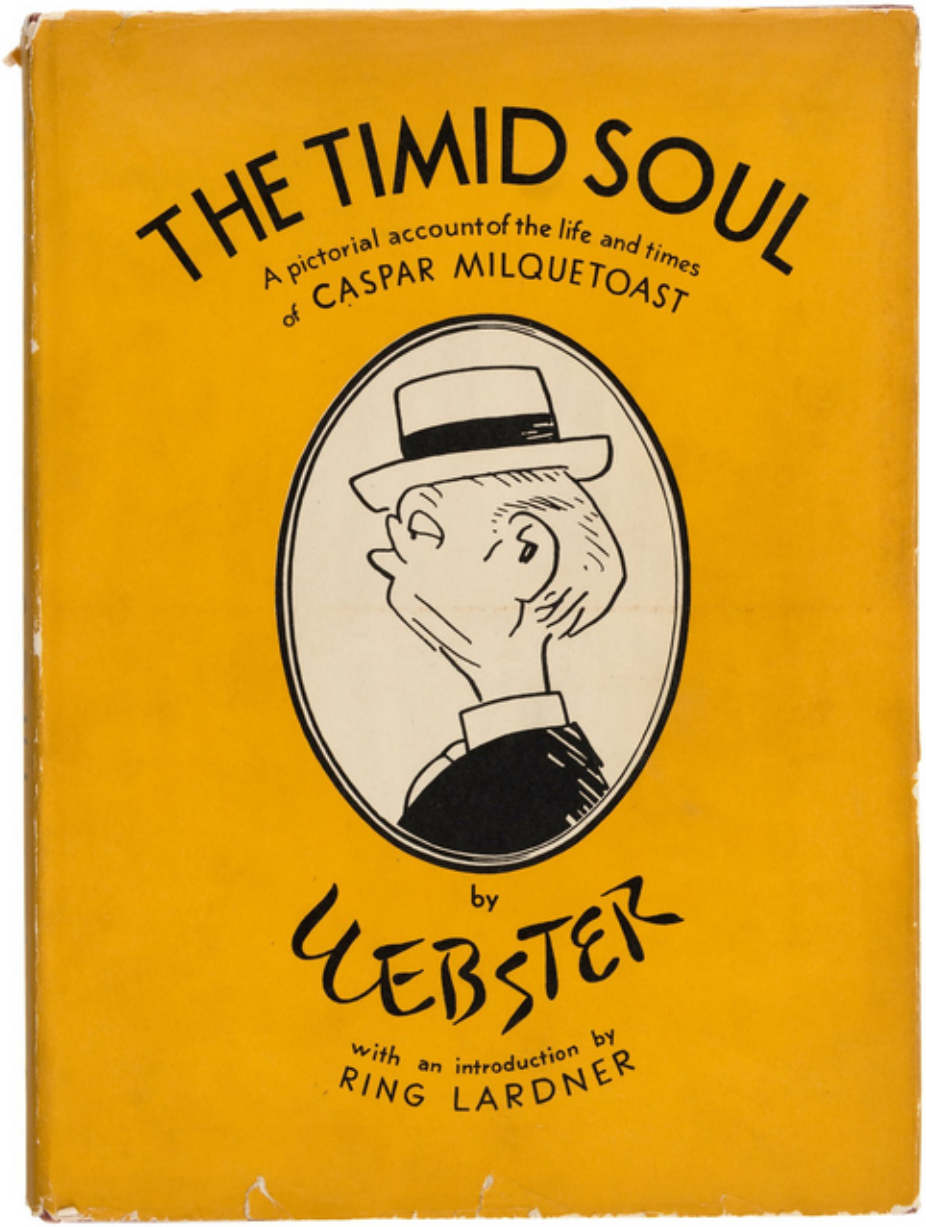
Our ONLY authority as Christians is the Word of God. If the state goes against the Holy Bible, the state is wrong! When king Nebuchadnezzar ordered three young Christian boys to bow to a [13]Masonic obelisk, they refused on the grounds of their Biblical faith. But you say, aren't we commanded to obey the higher powers in Romans 13? Yes, but the government is the lower powers. The U.S. Constitution is a higher power than the government. And God is the highest power of ALL!!!



> "Sometimes you may leave here and say, 'I wonder what he's mad about?' I'm not mad about anything, I just know one thing—whatever a preacher quits preaching on, is what his church will fill up with!"
> SOURCE: [14]Pastor Phil Kidd, a quote from the needful sermon "[15]I AM Ashamed."

God deliver us from this sissified generation of Caspar Milquetoast, pink-tea-and-lemonade, soft-soapin', sissy-britches-wearing, ear-ticklin', back-scratchin', yellowbellied, Clark Kent, pantywaist, compromising, pussyfootin', unmanly, lazy-boy preachers who can't preach their way out of a paperbag! God give us some leather-lunged, barn-stormin', window-rattlin', shingle-pullin', truth-loving, uncompromising, manly, hell-fire and damnation PREACHERS!!!

America needs PREACHING PREACHERS!!! The reason why men don't preach anymore is because they're being mentored by apostates, false teachers, pretty boys, yuppies, academic types, heretics, sissies and old fuddy-duddy professors. JUST GIVE ME THE INSPIRED KING JAMES BIBLE!!! God is the preacher's mentor! We'd have a lot more TRUE WORSHIPPERS in America if we had a lot more TRUE BIBLES, TRUE GOSPEL, TRUE CHRISTIANS, TRUE CHURCHES and TRUE PREACHERS!!!

"The worst pervert in America is the Gospel pervert!"

2.7.12 The More The Unknown The More The Fear (2021-07-26 10:43)

Luke 10:20, “

Notwithstanding in this rejoice not, that the spirits are subject unto you; but rather rejoice, because your names are written in heaven.

Isn’t that wonderful? Jesus said that we can KNOW that our names are written in Heaven. Ladies and gentlemen, I know I am going to Heaven as sure as I know that the sun will rise in the east tomorrow. I have no fear of dying. I know that I am a born-again child of God. I know that God has already kept His promise to give me eternal life. I won’t receive eternal life when I die, I already posses eternal life. I am writing this article while listening to a wonderful sermon by Pastor Jack Hyles called: "[1]How To Make Death Easier."

That is why the Apostle Paul exhorts every believer in 1st Timothy 6:12, “

Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses.

” The apostle exhorts us as God’s child to LAY HOLD ON ETERNAL LIFE!!! That simply means we already have eternal life now! The Bible teaches for believers to grab the bull by the horns! We should lay hold upon the reality of our eternal life. ...

We are already as forgiven as we will ever be when we see God.

We are as justified today as we will be in a million years into the future.

We will never be able to talk to God more freely than we can right now.

Everlasting life that we have right now is the same everlasting life we will have in Heaven.

Heaven will never provide a robe more spotless than the one I wear now.

We are now justified, we are now accepted by the beloved, we are now

Death does not have to be a gorge or a chasm, it can be but a brief step for the believer who lives here on earth as if in Heaven. That is why we read in

Matthew 6:10, “

Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven.

” Believers who choose to live in the depths and ugliness of sin here on earth, will feel awkward in Heaven when they get there. Ah, but those believers who walk in the Spirit, and preach the Gospel, setting our affection of things above where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God (Colossians 3:1-3), will feel right at home in Heaven.

In Heaven they walk with God, and so do I now. God wants us to so live that our very presence, will be so much what it is going to be in Heaven, that our death will be one small step from one Heaven to another. Dying doesn't have to be a shocking experience for the saint! We can simply go home.

2nd Corinthians 5:8, " We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord." Paul desired to be absent from his earthly body, to be present with the dear Lord. I feel the same as Paul. I don't want to die prematurely. The Bible says all men are appointed once to die (Hebrews 9:27).

Someone has said that grace is but the morning twilight of Heaven.

Heaven may be in us before are in Heaven! Amen! We can live in such a way here on earth, that will cause us to feel like we are already in Heaven. I receive emails from many believers who are miserable. They are discouraged. They are frustrated with life. It is oftentimes easier for us to analyze other people's lives than our own, because we see them from the outside. Did you ever think about that? The people around me know what I look like better than I do. I have to look in a mirror to see what I look like. I can only see what the mirror shows. But you can see all of me. You can see my 100 % of the time while in my presence, but I cannot. So you know what I look like, and see my faults and human flaws, much better than I do. That is why it is much easier for me to help others, than to help myself. The hardest person that I counsel and help, is me!

Anyway, as I mentioned, I receive many emails from discouraged saints. They tell me about their struggles with sin. They tell me about their problematic life. They tell me about their broken family. They tell me about their failures and bitterness. I know right away what is wrong. They are looking at all the wrong things in life. Instead of seeing the goodness of God in everything, they see the bad things in their life. Instead of seeing the gift of living each day, they see the misery of existing another day.

I suffer permanently from a medical affliction called stenosis and radiculopathy. That means I have throbbing, bone-gnawing, constant toothache-like pain in the bony area in back of my neck. This relentless pain has adversely affected my life since 2004. I suffer 24/7, 365 days a year. I have spasms of burning throughout my nervous systemin my body. It is caused by damage to my spinal cord in my neck. Damage at the nerve root is called radiculitis, the opposite of damage at the nerve extremities which is called peripheral neuropathy.

Having said that, I could complain that my arms continually feel inflated with air, but I choose to praise God for having arms. I could focus on my neck pain and complain about it, but I choose to thank God for another day to serve and glorify Him, and to share the Gospel with lost sinners. I could complain and become bitter for my train-wrecked life, but I choose to praise and thank God for still being able to walk, drive and take care of myself. I am not happy in life. Happiness is what "happens" to you. I have lost my marriage, my home, my retirement, my possessions, my pets, my confidence as a man, my church family, my hope of ever having a normal life again here on earth. But I rejoice continually in God my Savior! I am thankful in everything, not for everything (1st Thessalonians 5:18).

God is ALWAYS good to everyone! I am continually awestruck by the brilliance of our more than amazing God. I went for a walk in a local park the other day, and I took this picture of a duck. I praised God for making such a colorful flower and an amazing creature...

God is More Than Amazing!

One regret that I have in life, is that I don't have more time on earth to see all the grandeur of God's creation. Due to cost limitations, and also my less than perfect health, I have not been able to travel much. I couldn't even afford to take a scouting trip from Chicago to Guam in 2004, to see if I'd like to move there, so I just took the leap of faith and did it! I moved 9,000 miles across the earth to a place I'd never even visited, because at the time I couldn't afford to visit. That has been the story of my life. I have always wanted to go visit Europe, Egypt, Israel, Sweden (where my mother was born), Germany, Switzerland and other countries. I hope and pray that someday when Christ returns, that He will make it possible for me to take a tour of the world. That would be so wonderful.

I was restless in Chicago, wanting to move anywhere but there after living there for 37 years. Shortly after moving to Guam in 2004, I started to feel restless there too, and that feeling continued to build until I couldn't take it anymore and moved to Pensacola in 2021. I just got here on July 2nd and I'm already feeling restless, like I should have moved to San Antonio or somewhere else. Honestly, I think the truth is that I will never feel at home in this world until I get home to be with Jesus my God, Lord and Savior. As believers we are not settlers in this world, we are pilgrims passing through! I am confident now that no matter where I choose to move here on earth, I will feel restless, and something will feel like it is missing, and I'll desire to be somewhere else, feeling like I'm missing out. One day at a time.

We fear the unknown, which is the title of my blog. Many people fear not being truly saved. I got saved at age 13, but I lived in painful fear for the next 7 years, afraid of the unknown. "What if?" I kept asking myself. What if I go to Hell? What if I didn't get it right when I prayed? I was in fact saved, confirmed by the presence of the indwelling Holy Spirit in me (1st Corinthians 3:24), but I was afraid of what I didn't understand. Long story short, over the years I was like a sponge, sitting on the edge of my seat at church, and studying the Word of God, hungry to learn all that I could about God's simple plan of salvation. And when I gloriously learned just how SIMPLE it is to get saved, all my fears subsided. I have not worried about God's salvation of my body and soul for 25 years. But the absolute, final 100 % peace of mind, which solidified my confidence that I was going to Heaven, came when I read Pastor Max Younce's helpful free online book titled: "[3]Salvation And The Public Invitation." I hope you will read it too friend, you won't regret it.

In closing, we fear what we don't understand, whether it be our salvation or death itself. I do not fear dying itself because of God's assuring promises in the Bible, but I don't want to die in a fire or slow manner from being trapped, et cetera. I wouldn't want to die the horrible way that those 97 people did in Surfside, Florida this month, buried under slabs of concrete and rebar. Survivors said they heard victims crying out from the rubble, before going silent. Those people were mostly sleeping, and then sudden chaos and confusion.

Dear friend, are you ready to die and meet your Maker? I am. I KNOW that I am going to Heaven. I KNOW because God promised to save them that believe (rest in by faith) on His only begotten Son, Jesus Christ (Acts 16:30-31; 1st Corinthians 1:21; Hebrews 4:9-11). No one needs to fear death or eternity, because God tells us exactly [4]how to prepare for eternity in His inspired written Word in the King James Bible. Kindest regards.

2.7.13 You CAN Write Your Name And Date In Your Bible When You Get Saved (2021-07-27 15:22)

Mark 13:22, "For false Christs and false prophets shall rise, and shall shew signs and wonders, to seduce, if it were possible, even the elect."

Pastor Paul Washer is a dangerous false prophet. In [1]this fool-headed video washer condemns the [2]Romans Road (that is, showing a person how to be saved from Scriptures in the book of Romans). Paul Washer calls the Roman's Road a manipulative practice, just like Ray Comfort horribly does. Pastor Washer denounces conservative soul-winning Baptist evangelists as being "stupid" (and that's the exact word he uses in the following quote). ...

> "We talk about the Germans of the 20th century that brought on their higher criticism. It is not near as dangerous as conservative Baptists with their gospel reductionism. How dare we, all these stupid evangelists walking around telling men after they've made some little prayer that they need to write their name in the back of their Bible, and put the date and if the Devil ever comes to them, they need to show him that. That is Roman superstition, it is not the gospel of Jesus Christ. You see we've turned the gospel into a flu-shot." —[3]Evangelist Paul Washer Sermonette; YouTube sermon titled, "Paul Washer - Listen To This!!!" (7:05 time)

Are soulwinning Baptists stupid? Is the simplicity that is in Christ a flu-shot? No way, it is Paul Washer who is the fool, spewing his anger against Baptists for preaching the truth. Paul Washer is a dangerous religious teacher, who has corrupted the Gospel of Jesus Christ (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4). The truth is that Ray Comfort, Paul Washer, John MacArthur, Pat Robertson, Kirk Cameron and countless other false prophets like them (who teach the damnable heresy of Lordship Salvation) are getting angry that independent fundamentalist Baptists are exposing them!!! Paul Washer is of the Devil. [4]Lordship Salvation (i.e., a form of Calvinism) is ANOTHER GOSPEL. Galatians 1:6, "I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel."

Friend, you certainly CAN (and should) write down your name and the date that you get saved. It is the most important event of your life! Anybody who teaches that you cannot write down your name and date when you got saved is preaching another gospel. Nowhere in the Bible are we taught that the new birth is a process! Nowhere are we taught in the Bible that a person cannot KNOW they are saved until they faithfully continue to believe and repent all their life. That is the foolishness that Paul Washer teaches, as you read earlier in the quote I shared with you from him. Dear reader, you CAN be saved in an instant, and KNOW absolutely that your name is written in Heaven. I KNOW that I am God's child.

I know a Christian lady who testified in her Baptist church on a Sunday morning, that she had led three co-workers to the Lord earlier in the week. Her incompetent pastors rebuked her, saying that we won't really know if those three people got saved until we examine their lives over time, to see if their behavior changes. Folks, that is another gospel!!! When 3,000 people got saved on the Day of Pentecost (Acts 2:41), there was no probationary period that followed to see if they were really saved. Nowhere in the inspired Word of God are we taught to watch a convert's life to make sure they really got saved. Paul Washer is a deadly false teacher! Calvinism is of the Devil. Ray Comfort is a false teacher. John Piper and John MacArthur are Calvinist false prophets. RUN from Calvinism! RUN away from any pastor who connects a change of behavior with repentance (which simply means a change of mind).

Yes, you CAN write down your name and date that you got saved, and you should. The new birth is a miracle of God in response to a person's faith in the GOOD NEWS (Gospel) of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen the third day (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Just as you have a birth certificate which records your name, date and place you were physically born, so also can you record your name, date and place where you were spiritually born into God's family

2.7.14 Damnable Teachings In Many Churches Today (2021-07-30 15:07)

Romans 4:4-7, "

Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt.

But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.

Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works, Saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered.

I was looking online for Baptist churches to attend in the Pensacola area. I was saddened when I found the Echo Life Church, and read their disturbing Statement of Faith:

> REPENTANCE
>
> Repentance is the commitment to turn away from sin in every area of our lives and to follow Christ, which allows us to receive His redemption and to be regenerated by the Holy Spirit. Thus, through repentance we receive forgiveness of sins and appropriate salvation (Acts 2:21, 3:19; I John 1:9). [emphasis added]
>
> SOURCE: [1]Echo Life Church, Our Beliefs

Oh my, that is all so wrong! That is a false gospel. Repentance in the Bible simply means “

[2]a change of mind.

” Repentance does NOT mean to turn away from sin in every area of your life. You cannot show me that anywhere in the inspired King James Bible! Repentance does NOT mean to follow Christ! Wicked men added those words to God’s Word (Proverbs 30:5-6). Making a commitment to turn away from your sinning, and making a commitment to follow Christ, does not allow you to receive God’s redemption. I cannot believe how horrible, untrue, blasphemous and arrogant these devilish pastors are at Echo Life Church, to teach such junk theology!!! These are devil preachers! These are false teachers!!!

Dear friend, you DON’T have to make a commitment to turn away from your sinning to receive God’s free gift of eternal life. If it were so that you must make such a commitment, then it would be equivalent to being required to pay a toll to enter into God’s Kingdom. Where do the pastors at Echo Life Church get the erroneous unscriptural idea that:

“

Repentance is the commitment to turn away from sin in every area of our lives and to follow Christ, which allows us to receive His redemption and to be regenerated by the Holy Spirit.

” That is another gospel, accursed by God.

> Galatians 1:6-8, “I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.”

Dear reader, religion can be a dangerous thing! I learned early in my Christian life that THE TRUTH of God’s Word is often very different than what religion teaches. The Roman Catholic religion is steeped in the commandments of men, instead of the commandments of God’s Word.

Mark 7:7, 9 and 13, “Howbeit in vain do they worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men. ... And he said unto them, Full well ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition. ...Making the word of God of none effect through your tradition, which ye have delivered: and many such like things do ye." Jesus Himself warned of those people who superficially worship God in vain (worthless and empty), because they teach for doctrines the commandments of men. That is exactly what the Echo Life Church are guilty of doing in the city of Pensacola. They are teaching for doctrines their own opinions, instead of what the Holy Bible actually says.

Nowhere in the Bible are we taught that repentance means anything more than a change of mind unto the Gospel itself. In Acts 16:30b the simple age old question was asked: **"

Sirs, what must I do to be saved? " Verse 31b gives us the answer: **"

Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved...

" No mention is made of making a commitment to turn away from every area of sin in your life. No mention is made of making a commitment to follow Christ. Why, oh why, do religious men ADD words to the Bible? Why do they sinfully pervert the Gospel, taking God's simple plan of salvation to make it complicated?

I am not trying to be mean or unkind. I am simply obeying the Bible to "earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints" (Jude 1:3). The biggest problem in our churches today is that people just sit there and go along with whatever they are taught, instead of verifying those teachings against the inspired Word of God (1st John 4:1). Folks, don't just go along with whatever your pastor teaches you, get out your King James Bible and verify what he is saying. Is it truly Scriptural?

A lot of pastors will teach garbage, and then attempt to sugarcoat it when you call them out for it. I recently attended a Wednesday night Bible study at a local church in Pensacola. I was upset as I sat and listened to an assistant pastor teach the heresy: "Repentance is a change of mind that leads to a change of behavior." Friend, that is untrue! Repentance in the Bible regarding salvation is always either the noun form (metanoia, which means: a change of mind), or the verb form (metanoeo, which means: to think differently). Repentance is NEVER anything that leads to behavior modification.

Correct Bible teaching is that the indwelling Holy Spirit produces "

fruit

" in the life of an obedient believer who walks in the Spirit (Galatians 5:22-25). This has NOTHING to do with the repentance unto life that happens at the time of salvation. You get saved by changing your mind toward God (Acts 20:21), so that you will see your need for redemption, and believe the Gospel (Good News of Christ crucified, buried and risen) to be saved (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). The false idea that repentance at the time of salvation, must perpetuate for a lifetime to prove the reality of one's faith in Christ to be saved, is a counterfeit plan of salvation. This is manmade reformation (human behavior modification), and not the fruit of the Holy Spirit.

The truth is that God saves you (justification) and then the Holy Spirit begins to change you (sanctification). Pastor M.R. DeHaan (1892-1965) makes this helpful observation:

> "There is a vast difference between coming to Jesus for salvation and coming after Jesus for service. Coming to Christ makes one a believer, while coming after Christ makes one a disciple. All believers are not disciples. To become a believer one accepts the invitation of the Gospel, to be a disciple one obeys the challenge to a life of dedicated service and separation. Salvation comes through the sacrifice of Christ; discipleship comes only by sacrifice of self and surrender to His call for devoted service. Salvation is free, but discipleship involves paying the price of a separated walk. Salvation can't be lost because it depends upon God's faithfulness, but discipleship can be lost because it depends upon our faithfulness." DeHaan, M. R. Hebrews. Zondervan Publishing House, 1959 (p. 117).

Amen and amen! It is very easy for pastors to get caught between grace and works by listening to other flawed preachers. We are all encouraged by social media to listen to today's big name preachers (Joel Osteen, Benny Hinn, Robert Jeffress, Joseph Prince, Charles Stanley, Ray Comfort, Kirk Cameron, Joyce Meyer, Mike Murdoch, Pat Robertson, et cetera). Yet, these preachers all propagate heresy in one way or another. Always question doctrine! That will likely anger most pastors, but we must all be held accountable for the things we are teaching others about God and the Bible.

2.7.15 If You Think Salvation Can Be Lost, You Don't Understand The Gospel (2021-07-31 13:58)

John 10:25-29, "Jesus answered them, I told you, and ye believed not: the works that I do in my Father's name, they bear witness of me. But ye believe not, because ye are not of my sheep, as I said unto you. My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me: And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand. My Father, which gave them me, is greater than all; and no man is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand."

The Word of God teaches ONCE SAVED, ALWAYS SAVED. I don't see how anyone could be saved who disagrees with this view. Pastor Hank Lindstrom (1940-2008) preached a very helpful sermon called: "[1]HOW PERMANENT IS YOUR SALVATION." Our text passage plainly teaches that those who believe on Jesus Christ receive eternal life, and SHALL NEVER PERISH!!! If a man could perish, then Jesus is a liar, and God cannot lie (Titus 1:2).

If a person thinks that they CAN LOSE God's salvation, then it shows that they errantly think THEY must do something to retain or maintain that salvation, which is not total faith in Christ. The true Gospel always points you to Christ; a false gospel always points to you. A true born-again believer has the mindset that JESUS PAID IT ALL, and God alone does the saving, all of it. When we accept a gift, it is ours! To say that a person could ever lose God's free gift of eternal life, is to change the meaning of a gift. A "gift" is something given without compensation or payment in return. If a person could ever LOSE salvation, then it could not be a gift. I firmly believe that those people who think salvation can be lost, were never truly saved at all.

Also, to say that salvation can be lost is to fail to understand the new birth. When a person gets saved, a new spiritual birth has happened. The new birth is wrought by God's Holy Spirit in response to a person's faith in Jesus Christ. This birth is permanent and irreversible, as is the first physical birth. The new birth cannot be lost!

Dear friend, the new birth is a miracle of God. The blessed Savior promised to give eternal life, not probationary or temporal life, to them that believe on Him. ONCE SAVED, ALWAYS SAVED (OSAS). Anyone who disagrees with OSAS is not a born-again believer. They are not a redeemed child of God. I can say that boldly with confidence from the Scriptures! Salvation is not partial faith in Christ plus something else.

I like how [2]Pastor Hank Lindstrom tests a professed Christian, to see if they are really saved. He asks them if they were to murder someone, would they still be saved? If they response with “ then they are not saved, because it evidences that they don’t understand the Gospel.

No,

Salvation is based solely upon God’s imputed righteousness through faith in Jesus Christ (Philippians 3:9). Even the best Christians still habitually sin (Romans 7:14-25). The Bible doesn’t teach that we must repent "of your sins" to be saved. In fact, we must be 100 % sinless and perfect to enter into God’s Kingdom (James 2:10; 1st Corinthians 6:9-11). That is why Christ had to come into the world, to die on the cross in our place to pay our debt of sin (2nd Corinthians 5:21).

Therefore, we can be declared 100 % sinless (justified) through faith in Jesus Christ (Galatians 3:26). God justifies the believer on the basis of faith alone in Christ, imputing our sins to Jesus and His righteousness to us (Romans 4:4-6). Christ is the end of the law to all who believe (Romans 10:3-4). We are saved by HIS RIGHTEOUSNESS (Matthew 6:33). The believer’s righteousness is based solely in God’s imputed righteousness, which is by faith in Jesus, and not our own. Kindest regards. ONCE SAVED, ALWAYS SAVED!!! Anyone who disagrees with that doesn’t understand the Gospel. They don’t understand the new birth. They don’t understand the free gift of eternal life. They don’t understand God’s imputed righteousness. John 6:47, “Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.”

2.8.1 Beware Of Feed The Hungry Children Scams (2021-08-02 20:18)

1st Timothy 6:9-10, “But they that will be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition. For the love of money is the root of all evil: which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.”

I saw a TV commercial a few moments ago that made me sick. It is for LOVEACHILD.COM, in which they beg viewers for money for hungry children in Haiti. The con artists quote Bible verses about feeding the poor, trying to make a moral appeal to viewers. They make a personal appeal by advertising that for just $120 you can feed 3,249 hungry children with great tasting food. That all sounds great, right? Not so fast!

I went to Charity Navigator to see how much they pay their executives. I found out that Executive Director [1]Sandra Hazelip receives $148,571 annual salary. President Sherry Burnette receives $131,418 per year compensation. Folks, this really bothers me! It bothers me that this so-called “charity” makes a personal appeal to viewers that for a donation of $120 you can feed 3,249 hungry children with great tasting food.

LOVEACHILD.COM pulls on the viewer's heart string, focusing on the hunger of children. In fact, the charity advertises on TV that children are dying in Haiti from hunger!!!

Dear friend, if such small amounts of money can make such a profound impact, to save children's lives from certain starvation, then why does LOVEACHILD pay 6-digit outrageous salaries to their executives? Why does Sandra Hazelip need $148,571 a year salary? Aren't children starving to death? If $120 can feed 3,249 hungry children, then what does that say about these executives? At a minimum it shows the insincerity of their claims. At a minimum it shows that LOVEACHILD, INC. would rather allow children to die of starvation than to pay their executives a reasonable salary. The average American makes about $31,177 a year! So why do charity executives need to get paid 5 times what the average American gets paid. It is disturbing!!!

If LOVEACHILD were to pay their top official $48,571 per year, that would free up $100,000 to help feed hungry children who are dying. I divided $100,000 by 120 to see how many hungry children could be fed with that $100,000. Are you ready? For $100,000 you could feed an additional 2,707,500 hungry children!!! Think about the hypocrisy of LOVEACHILD, INC. My point is to show you how greedy, deceitful and rotten these shady charities are. If so little money can make such a profound difference, as they boldly claim, then why don't they care enough to lead the way by example? Do you make $148,571 a year friend? No, I didn't think so. I sure don't, not anywhere even near that amount. I can barely afford to pay attention...lol. Please don't buy into the deceptive false advertising of these con artist charities. By example they clearly show the world that they don't really care about hungry children, they mostly care about getting your money to line their pockets.

[2]ASPCA is even worse, much worse! ASPCA begs for $19 a month to feed hurting animals, while paying their disgusting [3]CEO a whopping $852,231 a year!!! Please DON'T give any money to these people!!! As a general rule you should never give donations to any charity that pays their executives 6-digit salaries! Why should you, when you get paid a tiny fraction of what they get paid, give your hard-earned money to a bunch of con artists making outrageous 6-digit salaries? Pray for God's wisdom friend, don't become a victim. Pray for God's wisdom concerning where you should give money, don't help fatten those greedy fat cats on TV.

2.8.2 Always Vet A Pastor The Moment You Meet Him (2021-08-03 09:30)

1st John 4:1-3, "Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world.

Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesseth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is of God:

And every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and even now already is it in the world.

To "

3498

means to make a careful and critical examination of a person. Before you join a church, and entrust your family to a pastor (or group of pastors) like at the Harvest Baptist Church of Guam, you make sure to vet them! You need to directly ask them a few questions:

1. Do you believe faith alone in the Gospel (Good News) of Jesus Christ is enough for an admitted sinner to get to Heaven?
2. Do you believe that the King James Bible is the inspired and infallible Word of God?

Dear reader, if the pastor cannot answer an affirmative “

to both questions

, you’re in a bad church! Most pastors today will beat around the bush, giving you a bunch of junk that you didn’t ask for, muddling to get to the point. YES or NO? Do you believe that a person can admit to God they are a sinner, and simply BELIEVE on the name of Jesus (believing that Christ died on the cross, was buried and bodily resurrected three days later) to be saved? That is the Bible way to be saved (1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

If your pastor teaches that we cannot know if a person is saved until we first watch their life, to see if their behavior and manner of life changes, you are in a bad church. Any theology that does not offer the immediate, irrevocable and absolute assurance of salvation is WRONG! The true Gospel always points you to Christ; a false gospel always points to you. Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ’s best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

God will not save anyone who is trying to be saved, He will only save those who are trusting to be saved. The only thing you and I contribute to our salvation is the sin that make it necessary.

Please don’t blindly join a popular local church, or enroll in some popular Bible college, just to find out down the road that they deceived you with a false gospel. The churches are pathetic today! Lordship Salvation has crept into tens of thousands of churches, including thousands of independent Baptist churches. Any preacher who focuses on something YOU must do to be saved is preaching a false plan of salvation. I like calling names, to warn people, and not just make a mute point. You need to watch out for Bob Jones University graduates within the past 40 years. Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) taught a free grace Gospel. Somewhere along the way BJU adopted Dr. John MacArthur’s Lordship Salvation garbage, which is NOT the Gospel. ...

> “The true Gospel always points you to Christ; a false gospel always points to you.” —[1]Pastor Dennis Rokser

1st John 4:1 can be misleading. At a glance it appears that anyone who believes on Jesus is saved, but we know that is not true if ANYTHING more is added. Roman Catholics claim to have faith in Jesus, but they also add keeping Seven Sacraments. That is a false plan of salvation, which cannot produce the new birth by the Holy Spirit of God (John 1:12-13).

My hope is built on nothing less
Than Jesus Christ, my righteousness;
I dare not trust the sweetest frame,
But wholly lean on Jesus' name.
On Christ, the solid Rock, I stand;
All other ground is sinking sand,
All other ground is sinking sand.

Anyone who claims that salvation requires more than faith ALONE in Jesus Christ is not of God. These pastors today who require you to turn away from your sin to be saved, are JUST AS GUILTY as the Roman Catholic priest who requires you to get water baptized, go to confession, partake of holy communion, last rites, et cetera. We find an example in the Bible of false teachers ADDING to the Gospel, requiring more than faith alone to be saved. Acts 15:1, " And certain men which came down from Judaea taught the brethren, and said, Except ye be circumcised after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved." This is a false plan of salvation. This is confirmed in Acts 15:24,

"Forasmuch as we have heard, that certain which went out from us have troubled you with words, subverting your souls, saying, Ye must be circumcised, and keep the law: to whom we gave no such commandment:" Dr. Steve Pettit, Pastor Marty Herron, Pastor Gary Walton and Pastor John MacArthur are all subverting the souls of men with a false gospel.

For any pastor, Bible professor or evangelist to ADD turning from your sin to receive God's free gift of eternal life, is effectively the same as trying to keep the law to be saved. You are familiar with the Ten Commandments. The Bible gives us several "Thou shalt not" commandments. The Bible forbids committing adultery, murder, covetousness, bearing false witness and stealing. The heresy of Lordship Salvation teaches that a person must turn away from committing these type of sins to be saved. That is keeping the law. Whether you are required to try not to commit these sins, or are required to stop committing these sins, what's the difference? There is none! I hope you see the fallacy of Lordship Salvation.

Christ paid your sin debt on Calvary's cross with HIs blood. The only reason why you and I can go to Heaven freely, and at all, is solely because of what Jesus did through the cross for us. The Lord raised up from the dead after three days and ascended into Heaven with Ho=is blood, to appear in the presence of God on our behalf. Hebrews 9:12, "Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us." BY HIS OWN BLOOD! Christ paid for our sins with His precious blood. 1st Peter 1:18-19, "Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers; But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot:" Clearly, we are NOT saved by our own effort to turn away from our sinful lifestyle as Marty Herron teaches, nor faithfully run the race until the end as Steve Pettit teaches, nor exchange all that we are for all that Jesus is as John MacArthur teaches. These men are theological liars in the pulpit.

Please, before you send your young people off to Bible college and pay them tens of thousands of dollars, make sure that they are doctrinally sound. And I have touched upon it much in this article, but you need to make sure that they only use the King James Bible, and believe it is inspired and infallible. You'd be surprised if you knew how many Bible preachers today in fact DON'T believe that we have a perfect, inspired and infallible Bible in the English language. You need to ask a preacher if he believes that only the original autographs were inspired. If he says "

YES,

” you are in a bad place and need to RUN!!!

I believe that the King James Bible is inspired, not just the non-existent originals. I believe we have a perfect Bible today, without error. The King James Bible needs no correcting, it is infallible. How do I know that? Simply because God PROMISED to keep and preserve His pure words in [2]Psalms 12:6-7. Not surprisingly, ALL modern Bible revisions remove this promise. The reason why they did is obvious, because they keep publishing more new Bible versions. They are Devil’s Bibles. The Harvest Baptist Church of Guam is of the Devil, corrupt, pulling on the same rope as the Devil, just like their Satanic headquarters at Bob Jones University. Please run from these places!!!

2.8.3 Have To Have A Clear Conscience As A Christian (2021-08-03 21:36)

Ephesians 4:22-28, “That ye put off concerning the former conversation the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts; And be renewed in the spirit of your mind; And that ye put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness. Wherefore putting away lying, speak every man truth with his neighbour: for we are members one of another. Be ye angry, and sin not: let not the sun go down upon your wrath: Neither give place to the devil. Let him that stole steal no more: but rather let him labour, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have to give to him that needeth.”

First, we have all done shameful things. All humanity are sinners. Romans 3:23-24, "For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God; Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus:" Please carefully notice Verse 24. The Christian believer is "FREELY JUSTIFIED." Acts 13:39 says the believer is "JUSTIFIED FROM ALL THINGS." So you need to separate the justification which God gives every believer on the sole basis of what Christ did on the cross to pay for your sins, from the damage you’ve done by hurting people. One thing has nothing to do with the other. I’m speaking of salvation, which is justification by faith alone.

Now, secondly, if you can make restitution to the people you’ve hurt, you should. If you’ve stolen, you should repay all of it. At a minimum you should speak to the person you’ve hurt and try to come to some sort of an agreement, if you have cost them money. The only way that you’ll ever clear your conscience is to honestly confront the people who you’ve hurt, and tell them you are sorry, and attempt to make restitution and reconciliation. Whether they accept your apology is irrelevant, because at least you have done all you can do to make peace with them. It doesn’t necessarily have to be in person, you could send them a letter. Telling people we are sorry is the hardest thing to do, but it brings a sweet peace with God that nothing else can bring.

There is no feeling as joyous as being right with God and man. Biblically, we cannot be right with God and wrong with man. Certainly we can be saved, which is our POSITION in Christ as God’s child. But our CONDITION in Christ is determined by how we treat others, and our obedience to the Word of God. Trust and obey for there’s no other way, to be happy in Jesus, than to trust and obey. We've been singing that song at church. What a great truth!

If you are saved (born again) that is settled. Now you need to do all that you can, one by one, to make things right with others. They may not forgive you, but that is okay. You're making peace with God and yourself. If they won't forgive you, then that is on them. Just tell people the truth, that you have since found Jesus Christ and your life has been transformed. Tell them you are so very sorry, and if you can make it up to them, do so. But if not, then at least you've done all you can. That is the only way that you'll ever have peace.

Now if there is nothing you can do to make peace with those you've hurt, then you need to forgive yourself. Perhaps you don't remember who they are. Perhaps some have died. Perhaps you don't know where they live anymore. In such cases all you can do is put the matter into the Lord's hands, and trust Him that one day He will make everything eight in eternity. I don't think there is a human being alive who could ever make things right with everybody they ever hurt. But we should at least try, if we can. It may take a long time, but just start with one person at a time.

Pardon the carnal illustration, but one of my favorite movies is "[1]A Christmas Carol," about [2]Ebenezer Scrooge. Charles Dickens wrote the novel, which is a picture of salvation. Ebenezer was a changed man, and he set out to make things right with everyone he had hurt. Ebenezer found joy, peace and happiness. He discovered the joy of giving. I don't know about you friend, but I want to be just like Ebenezer when he changed for the good.

Then, if I were you, I would determine in my heart to spend the rest of my life doing all the good I can, wherever I can, to whomsoever I can, in any way I can, to help others in Jesus' name. What a way to live and find happiness!

2.8.4 Should We Pray For Animals? (2021-08-05 10:02)

Proverbs 12:10, "

A righteous man regardeth the life of his beast: but the tender mercies of the wicked are cruel."

Someone recently asked me a good question. They wanted to know what the Bible says, if anything, about praying for animals, particularly for our beloved pets.

Sometime people go wacky, like PETA ('People for the Ethical Treatment of Animals,' or as I like to call it, 'People Eating Tasty Animals' ...lol), elevating animals to the same level as humans. I heard Paul McCartney's former wife, Linda, share on TV the reason why she is a vegetarian, which I thought was a good answer. She said instead of eating dead animals that are fed grain, she just eats the grain directly. That is definitely healthier. But I disagree with Paul McCartney, who said that he won't eat animals because they have as much of a right to live as we do. I ate a Carne Asada steak the other night at the Mexican restaurant down the street from me. I need my dead cow...lol.

I've been seeing TV commercials here in Pensacola for everything from prescription drugs for dogs, to gourmet dog food delivered fresh right to your front door...lol. That is ridiculous! Only in America. The funny thing is that the TV commercials advertising drugs for dogs, show a smiling dog while giving the same warnings that drug companies give for humans... everything from diarrhea, blindness to paralysis...lol. Not my dog! I don't even have a dog. This country is getting weirder every day.

The Bible teaches for us to pray about "every thing" in Philippians 4:6, "Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God." God gave us common sense. I think praying for a dangerous condition, whatever it is, is foolish when there is something that can be done to correct the safety risk. I feel different about pets though, because I do know the love that people often have for their pets. I've seen men jump into freezing lakes, risking their life to save their mangy mutt. For many people, their pet is like a child to them. So I think it would only be natural for someone to pray to God for their pet. I believe our great God is more human than we can possibly imagine. I mean, after all, God created each and every human being in His own image (Genesis 1:27).

So if a pet means the world to us, I think God understands, just so long as we keep in mind that animals are not the same as people (1st Corinthians 15:39). Humans have a spirit, dogs don't. Animals have a soul (i.e., a mind to think, a heart to feel and a will to decide). But animals cannot compose a song, cannot feel moral conviction, they cannot get saved, et cetera). In my understanding, animals don't have a spirit. Man is a spirit in a body. Sting from "The Police" gets it right in his song, "Spirits In The Material World."

Most people speak of a human as: "body, soul and spirit." However, the Bible mentions the spirit first in 1st Thessalonians 5:23, "And the very God of peace sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ." So Sting is correct, we are "spirits in a material world." Man is not a body with a spirit, but a spirit with a body. When the body is damaged and worn and can no longer house the spirit, "the spirit shall return unto God who gave it" (Ecclesiastes 12:7).

Ecclesiastes 3:21, "Who knoweth the spirit of man that goeth upward, and the spirit of the beast that goeth downward to the earth?" The Hebrew word "spirit" (ruach) here means "breath, or life." [1]Here is some exegesis of the Hebrew word ruach.

So "spirit" seems to refer in a broad sense to life. The life of an animal goes down into the earth (ends), but the life of a human goes up (continues). We know that there are horses in Heaven, because Jesus comes back riding a horse. I have often been asked if there will be animals and pets in Heaven. I cannot prove it with the Bible, but I do think so. Romans 8:32 says that if God was willing to sacrifice His only begotten Son, how much more shall He give "all things" to them that love Him (every believer - 1st Peter 2:7). Surely our great and omnipotent God has the power to reunite us with our furry friends. 1st Corinthians 2:16 says we have the mind of Christ. I think our precious Savior would do anything to make us happy, as long as it is right and within His will. I think it is proper to pray for a sick pet, since that is something beyond our control. An animal is life, and all life is sacred to God. In Deuteronomy we find a remarkable passage of Scripture:

Deuteronomy 22:6-7, "If a bird's nest chance to be before thee in the way > in any tree, or on the ground, whether they be young ones, or eggs, and the dam sitting upon the young, or upon the eggs, thou shalt not take the dam with the young: But thou shalt in any wise let the dam go, and take the young to thee; that it may be well with thee, and that thou mayest prolong thy days."

I had to put on my thinking cap for this one, because I couldn't find any helpful Bible commentary on it. I believe that the Lord showed me the answer. This passage is talking about conservation. God didn't want the dam (female bird) taken because she can still bear more young. God allowed them to take the young, but not the mother. I think God cares about His creation. After all, when God rested on the seventh day, He saw that all the things He made were "very good." Just as we wouldn't want to see someone destroy our work, neither does God want to see men destroy His creation. I find Scriptural support for this in Revelation:

> Revelation 11:18, "And the nations were angry, and thy wrath is come, and the time of the dead, that they should be judged, and that thou shouldest give reward unto thy servants the prophets, and to the saints, and them that fear thy name, small and great; and shouldest destroy them which destroy the earth."

So we see that it displeases God when companies dump toxic chemicals into the rivers, destroy entire regions and deforest entire landscapes, pollute the oceans, contaminate the sea with oil, and all the horrible manmade eco disasters. God is the ultimate environmentalist. In India they hold all life sacred, but they take it to insane extremes. If you ever want to see something bizarre, go look up the Hindu religion online. They literally smear cow dung all over the living room and doorway, thinking that it will bring the blessing of the gods. They mix cow urine, spit and dung with food and consume it, thinking it is honoring their gods. Hindus have over 3,000,000 gods.

In America we take it to the opposite extreme, we don't respect life as being sacred at all. We murder our children in the womb, kill animals for sport, legalize euthanasia in several states, devour massive natural resources worldwide and don't replenish it. I am 100 % all for environmentalism, just so long as it doesn't raise animal life to the same level as humans, and doesn't become a political agenda used just to grab power. I saw this great picture this week...

I thought that was great. I cannot back up my opinion that praying for animals is okay. The Bible says in 1st Peter 5:7 to cast " all your cares upon Him, for He careth for you. "

Certainly caring for a sick pet is something that we care about. I think it is proper to pray about anything and everything that is important to us. In the case of praying for the tree, it bothered me, because there was something that could be done to correct the problem, and praying about it to me seemed foolish.

I do think though that we need to use wisdom. I think it would be improper to place the same importance in a prayer meeting for someone's sick cat, as placed upon someone's sick child. So I think that our prayers should always be guided by common sense and wisdom. I could be wrong in my understanding here, but I think it is acceptable to the Lord to pray about anything that is grieving our heart. I know that God doesn't want us to worry (Philippians 4:6-7).

All life is sacred to God. We have all killed insects that annoy us, or rodents. But I also think that to just kill ants, stepping on them because we can, is a bad thing to do. I think children especially need to be taught to respect life. On Guam, some children abuse cats and dogs, torturing them. Adults too. Someone shot our family cat on Guam with a .22 caliber gun. I took our wounded cat to the veterinarian and was told that it was a .22 bullet. It cost me over $400 to have the bullet removed. I called the police and they said to keep our cat inside the house. In hindsight, there's really nothing they could have done, because I didn't know who did it. The Chuukese sometimes eat stray dogs on Guam. It's a cultural thing. In China they eat dogs and cats often. That is biblically acceptable. ANY animal may be killed for food (Acts 10:13).

I wrote this [2]article years ago about animal abuse. Animals are precious creatures. God obviously made cats and dogs to be our buddies, to comfort us and bring us happiness in life. Certainly our great and loving God doesn't mind when we pray for those pets. But we must also keep in mind that they are animals, not humans. Anybody who says that people are animals is deluded.

A heathen teacher one time taught her classroom of students that people are animals because they evolved together. The witty student replied with a question: "Does that mean people can have sex with animals?" The teacher had nothing to comment. Do you see how stupid and foolish the blatant fraud of evolution really is? People are people. Animals are animals. It is not a sin to hurt and kill animals for food or clothing. I do believe that it is a sin to merely kill for sport, if the meat and carcass will be wasted. Proverbs 12:27, " The slothful man roasteth not that which he took in hunting: but the substance of a diligent man is precious." God gave us animals to provide food, clothing and other essential needs.

Please understand that I could be wrong in my theology. I have shared with you what I believe based upon my understanding of the Bible. If someone's pet cat is sick, that would grieve their heart. The Bible tells us to pray about "every thing" in Philippians 4:6. I cannot find one place in the Bible where anyone prayed for an animal, but that doesn't mean we shouldn't. I also don't find anywhere in the Bible where anyone prayed for a job. But certainly God wants us to come to Him with our every need, burden and concern (Matthew 6:7-8).

2.8.5 Jesus Is The Center Of The Universe (2021-08-06 00:30)

Colossians 1:14-20, "

In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins:

Who is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of every creature:

For by him were all things created*, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: *all things were created by him, and for him:

And he is before all things, and by him all things consist*.

And he is the head of the body, the church: who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead; that in all things he might have the preeminence.

For it pleased the Father that in him should all fulness dwell;

And, having made peace through the blood of his cross, by him to reconcile all things unto himself; by him, I say, whether they be things in earth, or things in heaven.

Since we are all individuals, we tend to think that the universe centers around us. We are all selfish by nature from birth. The carnal man only thinks about himself. The spiritual man thinks about others. Our dear Lord Jesus Christ led the way by example, living for others:

> Philippians 2:1-5, "If there be therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any bowels and mercies,
>
> Fulfil ye my joy, that ye be likeminded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind.
>
> Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves.
>
> Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others*.
>
> Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus:
> **"

Even on the cross, while dying, Jesus thought about his mother. The Lord asked His beloved disciple John, to take care of His mother. John 19:26, " When Jesus therefore saw his mother, and the disciple standing by, whom he loved, he saith unto his mother, Woman, behold thy son!" Our dear Savior was continually putting OTHERS before Himself.

If you want to be a good Christian, then LIVE FOR OTHERS!

Pastor Jack Hyles said:

> I read biographies a great deal. Especially in the early, formative days of my ministry, so very often did I read biographies. I have read about the lives of most great men. One of my favorite characters in all of history is General William Booth. General Booth was the founder of the great Salvation Army, when it was more salvation than it was army. He led in spreading the Gospel over much of the world, as he organized street meetings and evangelistic services.
>
> With the passing of the years, General Booth became an invalid. His eyesight failed him, and one year he was in such bad health that he was unable to attend the Salvation Army Convention in London, England. Somebody suggested that General Booth send a telegram or a message to be read at the opening of the convention. General Booth agreed to do so.
>
> When the thousands of delegates met, the moderator announced that General Booth would not be able to be present because of failing health and eyesight. Gloom and pessimism swept across the floor of the convention. A little light dispelled some of the darkness when the moderator announced that General Booth had sent a message to be read with the opening of the first session. He opened the message and began to read the following:
>
> Dear Delegates of the Salvation Army Convention:

Lord, let me live from day to day
In such a self-forgetful way
That even when I kneel to pray,
My prayer shall be for others.
Others, Lord, yes, others;
Let this my motto be.
Help me to live for others
That I may live like Thee.

OTHERS!

Signed, General Booth.

You recognized awhile ago the words of our Lord. No one ever exemplified the "others" life as did our Saviour. He never typified His life for others quite so beautifully and so clearly as He did when He was on the cross. As I have said from this pulpit several times, our Lord in dying on the cross, suffered as no man ever suffered, agonized as no man ever agonized, and hurt as no man ever hurt. His Father turned His back on Him. His own race had crucified Him. His own city had hated Him. His own people had nailed Him to the cross. Yet when our Lord opened His mouth on Mount Calvary, the first statement that He made had nothing to do with His own pain or His own suffering, but He said, "Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do." (Luke 23:34) He did not speak of His own suffering.

SOURCE: [1]OTHERS, a sermon by Pastor Jack Hyles; September 29, 1974

There is no happiness in this life, than the happiness that comes from living for OTHERS for Jesus Christ. I love to be helpful. I am always looking for ways to be helpful. I love when I am in the store, and I hear someone at the cash realize that they don't have enough money. I love to say: "Please let me pay for that."

I was in the store one day and a homeless man stood in line behind me. He had a big bag of Doritos and a coke in his hands. The woman at the cash register sharply said to him: "No, leave the store!" I took out my wallet and handed the man a $20 bill. She said to me: "Are you sure?" I gladly smiled and said: "Yes." He now had his own money and could buy what he wanted. That is love dear friend. I know he did that on purpose. Perhaps someone would say that I helped enable him to beg some more. But friend, I saw a man for whom the Lord Jesus Christ died on the cross! I saw the son of a mother and father. I saw a man created in God's image. I have a weakness for helping OTHERS, because I love everyone.

I am not the center of the universe and neither are you friend, Jesus Christ is! I get frustrated with businesses who think that everything centers around their little company. They buttonhole customers with emails, annoying you with pop-up advertisements on your computer. I hate when they do that! It's like they think life is all about them. What of every business did that? For that reason I decline to give out my email when asked at stores.

We live in a very unethical society in the United States. When you install some software on your computer that you paid for, they put a bunch of junk on your computer that you didn't ask for, polluting your system. Companies lie all the time! They lure you in with an offer for a low price. But then once you sign up or buy their service, they hound you for more money. I could write a book just about the shady business practices we see in our American society today. My point here is that these selfish companies think the universe centers around their product, or their service, and then make your life more difficult in an attempt to get more of your money.

Wouldn't it be tremendous if everyone put OTHERS before themselves? Our precious Lord set the example, living for OTHERS. Ultimately, Jesus gave the greatest sacrifice by dying on the cross for our sins. JESUS PAID IT ALL!!!

Colossians 1:20, "

For it pleased the Father that in him should all fulness dwell;

And, having made peace through the blood of his cross, by him to reconcile all things unto himself; by him, I say, whether they be things in earth, or things in heaven.

" The only way anyone will ever have eternal life and see Heaven someday, is through the precious BLOOD of Jesus!

You just need to cease from your own works (good and bad works alike, which are all dead works). You don't have to give up anything to be saved, simply come oh guilty sinner and

BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST

" (Acts 16:30-31). Eternal life is a gift from God (Romans 6:23). Faith is the only righteous thing I can do!

2.8.6 THE CORRUPT FRUIT OF MODERN BIBLE VERSIONS (2021-08-06 13:54)

Matthew 12:33, "Either make the tree good, and his fruit good; or else make the tree corrupt, and his fruit corrupt: for the tree is known by his fruit." Luke 6:43, "For a good tree bringeth not forth corrupt fruit; neither doth a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit."

NOTE: The following points are not mine: they are taken from Gail Riplinger's book, "Which Bible Is God's Word?" (2007 edition, pp. 124-126).

1. We are not seeing personal spiritual growth. Acts 20:32 talks about "the word of his grace, which is able to build you up." Christians are not being built up.
2. We do not see a clean, separated church. John 15:3 says, "Ye are clean through the word." Carnality abounds.

3. We see confusion in terms of doctrine. New versions are not easier to understand; they are much easier to misunderstand doctrinally. John 17:17 says, “thy word is truth.” Many do not know what the truth is anymore in so many churches. There is so much confusion and contradiction.

4. We see a church without its offensive weapon. Ephesians 6:17 talks about “the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God.” We can have on the rest of the armor of God, and the devil can walk up to us and knock us flat on our backs, unless we have the “whole armour” (Eph. 6:11), which includes the sword, our offensive weapon. With the sword we can “resist the devil, and he will flee from you” (James 4:7), just as Jesus did when Satan tempted him in Luke 4. Jesus said, “It is written.”

5. We see little real spiritual fruit. In John 6:63 Jesus says, “the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit.” They are not ordinary words. The “fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering…” (Gal. 5:22). Many Christians do not have love, they do not have joy inside, and they do not have peace in their hearts because they are starving for the true spirit of God, if they are not imbibing the true word of God daily. Our flesh cannot give us peace, but the words of God can give us those things.

6. We see Christians wondering why prayer is not answered. In John 15:7 Jesus says, “If… my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will.” Many people are praying amiss, since the word does not abide in them and guide them to pray according to God’s will.

7. We see many Christians who are anxious and comfortless. Psychological counseling moved into the church along with the new versions, because new versions strip the word of God of its comforting power. First Thessalonians 4:18 says, “Comfort one another with these words.” Even the Comforter himself is omitted and replaced by the Jehovah’s Witness term, the Helper (NKJV, John 14:16). The omission in the NIV of Jesus’ promise to “heal the brokenhearted” in Luke 4:18 is just one of scores of such omissions and unsettling word changes.

8. We can also see that the church will not be prepared for the judgment seat of Christ. John 12:48 says, “The word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day.” Without guidance from the true word of God, some Christians may miss rewards God would like to give them.

2.8.7 To Turn Them From Darkness To Light (2021-08-07 16:42)

Acts 26:15-18, “

And I said, Who art thou, Lord? And he said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest.

But rise, and stand upon thy feet: for I have appeared unto thee for this purpose, to make thee a minister and a witness both of these things which thou hast seen, and of those things in the which I will appear unto thee;

Delivering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, unto whom now I send thee,

To open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me*.

Dear reader, what you just read are words spoken by the Lord Jesus Christ. Saul (later renamed Paul) was traveling the road to Damascus, when suddenly a light brighter than the sun shown around him. Paul heard a voice saying, “

I am Jesus whom thou persecutest.

” The Savior Himself tells Saul that He is going to send him as a minister (servant) and a witness to the Gentiles (non Jews). Jesus told Saul that He is sending him to OPEN THEIR EYES with the Gospel (Romans 1:16). And to TURN THEM FROM DARKNESS TO LIGHT. There is repentance.

The word “repent” in the Bible regarding salvation is always either the noun form metanoia (which means “a change of mind”), or the verb form metanoeo (which means “to think differently”). Repentance never means to turn away away from sinful behavior to be saved, which would be self-righteous works. God produces repentance in a person’s soul. 2nd Timothy 2:25, “In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth;

And that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will.”

Many well-meaning preachers misunderstand repentance. They require that a person “turn away from sin with all your heart” to be saved. But you cannot show me that terminology or teaching anywhere in the Holy Bible.

I think we need to be very careful, as were the King James Bible translators to not ADD to the Scripture. The 54 translators of the beloved King James Bible, used italics to show which words were not in the original text. They added these words for clarity. For example: We read in Psalms 14:1a, “

The fool hath said in his heart, There is no God...

” The words

“there is” were added for clarity. If the King James translators hadn’t added those two words, the original Hebrew text would read: “The fool hath said in his heart no God.” T he translators didn’t make any assumptions, they were honest in their work to let us know what they did.

Likewise, I think preachers today ought to err on the side of caution when interpreting and preaching the Word of God. Today’s Bible translators, Bible professors and preachers oftentimes assume that repentance means “ to turn away from your sins

for salvation. But the Bible does not support that teaching. As I showed you earlier from Acts 26:18

, “

To open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me. ” Those are Jesus’ very own words!!! Here we see that men are TURNED (repentance) from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God. The Lord didn’t mention anything about turning away from one’s sins.

Here is a related passage of Scripture about John the Baptist from Luke 1:76-79, “

And thou, child, shalt be called the prophet of the Highest: for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways;

To give knowledge of salvation unto his people by the remission of their sins*,

Through the tender mercy of our God; whereby the dayspring from on high hath visited us,

To give light to them that sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace.

There is nothing mentioned about turning people away from their sinful ways; but rather, to give them the knowledge of salvation by the remission of their sins.

Christ came to save men from their sins (Luke 19:10), not require them to first reform if they want to be saved. No man can reform to please God, because all of our righteousness is as “ filthy rags

” to God (Isaiah 64:6).

John 3:17, “

For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved.

The true Gospel always points you to Christ; a false gospel always points to you. Christ came to save men from the condemnation of their sins, not to demand that they first be willing to reform as a prerequisite to salvation.

Concerning Christ we read in John 1:4-5, “

In him was life; and the life was the light of men.

And the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not.

” As we just read, the darkened lost world cannot comprehend the light. That is why God has given to every believer the ministry of soulwinning.

2nd Timothy 2:25, “In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth;

And that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will.” In soulwinning, we are attempting to rescue lost sinners, trying to turn them from darkness unto the light of the truth of the Gospel.

I do not find any place in the Word of God where we are taught to forsake our sinful ways to receive God’s free gift of eternal life. God causes the light of the Gospel to shine in the darkness of the world. Repentance is a grace given by God, which is simply a person changing their mind, acknowledging THE TRUTH that they are a guilty sinner, so that they BELIEVE the Gospel to be saved. I agree with Pastor Harry Ironside:

> “Which comes first, repentance or faith? In Scripture we read, ’Repent ye, and believe the gospel.’ Yet we find true believers exhorted to ’repent, and do the first works.’ So intimately are the two related that you cannot have one without the other. The > man who believes God repents; the repentant soul puts his trust in the Lord when the Gospel is revealed to him. Theologians may wrangle over this, but the fact is, no man repents until the Holy Spirit produces repentance in his soul through the truth. No man believes the Gospel and rests in it for his own salvation until he has judged himself as a needy sinner before God. And this is repentance." ([1]Except Ye Repent, p. 16)

Repentance is not turning away from your sins to be saved. Repentance is turning from the darkness of unbelief to the light of the truth of the Gospel. You must admit that you are a sinner to be saved. But that is all that God requires or allows. It is the Holy Spirit Who begins to work in the life of every believer to turn us away from sin, and not our own repentance. This is not to say that every believer will turn away from their sins. Clearly, many believers don't. But it does mean that God will chastise and scourge His children when we sin (Hebrews 12:6-8). If you can sin without any conviction from the Holy Spirit, then you need to get saved. It was that very truth that compelled me to get saved as a 13 year old boy in 1980.

What saith the Scripture? 2nd Corinthians 4:3-4, "

But if our gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost:

In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them.

" The power of Satan keeps men in darkness, blinding them from the light of the Gospel. No man is saved by turning away from his sinning to Christ; but rather, he is saved by believing on Christ as a sinner, and then the indwelling Spirit of Christ will convict him about the sins in his life, desiring for us to depart from iniquity to please God.

2.8.8 God Didn't Save Us To Be Happy, But To Be Like Jesus (2021-08-08 00:30)

Revelation 4:10-11, "The four and twenty elders fall down before him that sat on the throne, and worship him that liveth for ever and ever, and cast their crowns before the throne, saying, Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created."

So often believers pursue happiness in life, but God didn't save us to make us happy, He saved us to conform us into the image of Christ (Romans 8:29). I want to have that attitude moving forward. I may never find what I am looking for in life, but that shouldn't be my goal. My goal should be to please Christ (Revelation 4:11). We were created by God to please Him.

For most people, their goal in life is to be happy. They spend their lives working and investing, hoping one day to retire and kick back in their old age. But life is what happens to you while you're making big plans! Oftentimes life doesn't go the way we planned. So often we end up in a place or situation that we never intended. And the more that we try to get back to the place where we once were, the farther it seems to run away from us. I know that horrible feeling!

So what do we do? The Bible teaches us is Hebrews 12:2-3, "Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God. For consider him that endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, lest ye be wearied and faint in your minds. ” I receive many letters from frustrated believers who are miserable in life. One lady literally told me that she wishes a stray bullet would come into her living room window and take her life. This is a born-again lady!

Dear reader, how is it that one of the greatest things that God ever created —the human mind—could deteriorate to the point that a person would want to be shot to death? This is what negative thinking does to a beautiful brain. This is why the Scripture tells us in Philippians 4:8, “Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.

” I love that passage of Scripture!

I have been listening to TV preachers lately. Pastor Joel Osteen is an amazing man! I love listening to him. Who doesn’t? But what makes Pastor Osteen so dangerous is not what he says, but what he doesn’t say. His sermons are woefully lacking Bible theology. Joel Osteen is a professional orator, incredibly skilled at swaying the audience with his charm, good looks and charisma. Just think how many people could be led to Christ if Pastor Osteen preached the Gospel? Sadly, he doesn’t. [1]Joel embellishes the Gospel, adding extra requirements which are not taught in the inspired Word of God.

Albeit, something that I really like about Joel Osteen is that he is always encouraging people to think positive, move higher, get out of the rut, and choose the higher path in life than to wallow in failure and mediocrity. If I could summaries Joel Osteen’s preaching with one Bible verse it would be Philippians 4:8. This is so important for you to get dear reader that I want to quote this Bible passage again...

> Philippians 4:8, “Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.
> **”

There is nothing unbiblical about most of the things Joel preaches. You ought not allow negative family, naysaying friends and the doom and gloom people of life hold you down! When I receive emails from Christians who are discouraged, negative and pessimistic, I always tell them to start thinking about better things, as the Bible teaches. I always get happy when I hear the King James Bible.

I always get happy as I listen to Pastor Jack Hyles preach. TRUTH makes me happy, helping to put the things in my life into perspective.

If you hate, it is because you think about hate. You CAN love any human being on this planet, if you will think LOVE toward them. God loves me, a wretched redeemed sinner. How could I not love every other human being, who has been made in the very image of almighty God? Dear friend, love pleases God. You don’t have to compromise your standards, convictions or beliefs in order to love others. In fact, love ought to compel you not to compromise. Love is simply doing the right thing (Proverbs 15:9). Love is thinking the right way (Matthew 5:43-44). Love is treating others the way that God wants us to treat them (Ephesians 4:29-32).

Our goal in life ought not be merely to be happy. Our goal should be to trust and obey God to please Him. Our goal should be to be conformed into Christ’s image. Romans 8:29, “For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brethren." The Bible never says that God predestinates anyone to salvation. That is a common Calvinist heresy. The Bible teaches that God predestinates every believer TO THE IMAGE OF HIS SON.

God's ultimate goal for every one of His children is to be conformed into the image of Jesus Christ. God wants us all to be just like Jesus, and I sure want that too! I want to be just like my blessed Savior, God and Friend. The Lord is even going to give us a supernatural body fashioned like unto His glorified body (Philippians 3:21). What a wonderful thing that will be!!! Jude 1:24, " Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy, To the only wise God our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever. Amen.

One day the Lord will present the Church (every saint) as His chaste Bride before God the Father, spotless and redeemed, as perfect as the Son. Amen and amen! Proverbs 15:9,

The way of the wicked is an abomination unto the LORD: but he loveth him that followeth after righteousness." Do you follow after righteousness dear friend? Many preachers misunderstand the Word of God. They corrupt the Gospel by teaching that to be saved you must forsake a lifestyle of sinning. That is manmade reformation (turning away from sins), not Bible repentance unto salvation. Repentance is simply a change of mind toward God (Acts 20:21; Romans 3:19-20), so that as a guilty sinner you will believe the Gospel to be saved (John 20:31; 1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

Once saved, the Holy Spirit of God comes to live inside the believer's body (1st Corinthians 3:16-17). Every child of God has the Spirit of Christ living within (Romans 8:9). The Holy Spirit begins to change a child of God, producing **"

fruit

" (Galatians 5:22-25). The blessed Holy Spirit of God works in the believer to convict, comfort, guide, chasten and teach us. This is how salvation works. God saves you, and then the Holy Spirit changes you. This has nothing to do with repentance unto life. Anybody who teaches that repentance must lead to a changed life is preaching another gospel. Repentance must never be taught as anything more than a change of mind . That is what it means in the Greek language of the Bible.

God didn't save us to make us happy. God wants us to be happy, but that is not why He saved us. God saved us to conform us into the image of His only begotten Son. All men are the created sons of God by likeness. The angels are the sons of God by creation. We are all adopted sons of God by redemption, but Jesus is the only biological Son of God. God didn't save us to be happy. Thank God for the moments of happiness that come along by happenstance once in awhile, but true joy is in knowing that God will eventually 100 % conform us into Christ's very image. Jesus is precious!!!

2.8.9 The Hallmark Trait Of A Christian Who Walks With God Is That They Care About People (2021-08-09 00:30)

Philippians 2:1-4, “If there be therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any bowels and mercies,

Fulfil ye my joy, that ye be likeminded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind.

Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves.

Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others*.

Everywhere that I go I pay attention to people. As a child of God I keep my eyes open for ways to be helpful. I love giving to others. I went to Little Caesars today for a pizza. I paid for my pizza with Italian sausage, pepperoni and bacon. The cashier handed me $5 and some pocket changed. As I walked away, a woman (a total stranger) sitting in a chair said kiddingly, “I’ll take that!” I said, “Here you can have it if you want it.” She thanked me and said she needed it because she didn’t have enough money for a pizza. She didn’t ask me for any more, which is why I asked her if she would like more, to which she humbly said she would. So I asked her to swap the $5 bill I just gave her for a $20 bill that I handed her. She was so happy, and I was happier. She saw my “Jesus” hat. I told her, “That pizza is from the Lord,” and I went my way. I love making people happy.

Perhaps I lost my reward in Heaven for telling you what I did today, but that’s okay, I didn’t do it to get anything in return. I did it because I LOVE PEOPLE. Our text passage from Philippians 2:1-3 teaches us to esteem OTHERS as being better than ourselves.

Some people only care when it is convenient for them. Some people only care about their little clique of family and friends. Today’s churches are extremely shallow, because today’s pastors are extremely shallow. One of the greatest books I ever read is ’[1]POWER THROUGH PRAYER’ by Pastor E.M. Bounds (1835-1913). Here is a great quote:

> “The sermon cannot rise in its life-giving forces above the person. Dead people give out dead sermons, and dead sermons kill. Everything depends on the spiritual character of the preacher.” —Pastor E.M. Bounds, “
>
> [2]Power Through Prayer,
>
> p. 5

That was well said. Edward M. Bounds understood that dead sermons resonate from dead ministers, and dead sermons kill a church congregation spiritually. What I see sadly happening in many churches today is that Bible college graduates are being hired to fill America’s pulpits. Consequently, these academic type pastors woefully lack compassion for hurting people.

Pastor E.M. Bounds continues with these helpful words:

> “Preachers are preeminently God’s leaders. They are primarily responsible for the condition of the Church. They shape its character, give tone and direction to its life.

> Much every way depends on these leaders. They shape the times and the institutions. The Church is divine, the treasure it incases is heavenly, but it bears the imprint of the human. The treasure is in earthen vessels, and it smacks of the vessel. The Church of God makes, or is made by, its leaders. Whether it makes them or is made by them, it will be what its leaders are; spiritual if they are so, secular if they are, conglomerate if its leaders are. Israel's kings gave character to Israel's piety. A Church rarely revolts against or rises above the religion of its leaders. Strongly spiritual leaders; people of holy might, at the lead, are tokens of God's favor; disaster and weakness follow the wake of feeble or worldly leaders. Israel had fallen low when God gave children to be their princes and babes to rule over them. No happy state is predicted by the prophets when children oppress God's Israel rule over them. Times of spiritual leadership are times of great spiritual prosperity to the Church." [emphasis added]
>
> —Pastor E.M. Bounds, "
>
> [3]Power Through Prayer,
>
> p. 50

A church congregation rarely rises above the spirituality if its pastor. So if a pastor is cold, uncaring, formal and judgmental of others, so also will be the congregation. If a pastor doesn't lead the example by praying for others, then neither will the congregation pray. I am not impressed with most churches today.

Have you ever been to a church where you felt like they couldn't care less if you leave and never came back? That is exactly how I feel in nearly every church I visit. Today's pastors and churches woefully lack the fruit of the Holy Spirit.

Galatians 5:22-26, "

But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith,

Meekness, temperance: against such there is no law.

And they that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts.

If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit.

Let us not be desirous of vain glory, provoking one another, envying one another.

" You can tell a man's character by how he treats the individual.

2.8.10 Jesus Wants To Be Close To Every Believer (2021-08-09 09:30)

“

Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father’s house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you.

And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.

John 14:23,

“

Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him.

Thank you for stopping by my blog today friend. Did you ever stop to realize how much Jesus loves you? The Lord loves us so much that He wanted us to be together, in the same place. In John 14:1-3 the Lord promised the apostle Peter (and every believer) that He is going to prepare a place for us in Heaven. There are many mansions in Heaven! Don’t you tell me that a wicked whoremongering unsaved man like Gene Simmons of the rock band KISS, will have a bigger mansion in Heaven that I will, when I spend morning, noon and night laboring online to get people saved and preach the truth! Take a look at Gene Simmons $22,000,000 mansion where he has lived in California for the past 36 years...

KISS' [2]Gene Simmons $22,000,000 Mansion in California

I heard a Baptist preacher critique the King James Bible translators for using the word "mansions" in John 14:2, but I love that word and think it is correct. Don't you tell me that Christians who pray, work and suffer in service for Christ will live in apartments in Heaven, while the Devil's children in Hollywood live in 8,000 square foot mansions. We are promised by God in 1st Corinthians 3:7-8 that He will reward every believer according to our own labors.

The Lord wants us to be where He is (John 14:1-3), have the same body He has (Philippians 3:21), think the way He thinks (Philippians 2:4-5), enjoy the same blessings He enjoys (Romans 8:32) and even live in our body and soul (John 14:23). I can understand that! Have you ever loved somebody so much, that you want to share every aspect of life with them? I have, but none of the women whom I fell in love with felt the same. Rejection hurts! When you love someone, you want to be a part of them. A part of a healthy relationship is actually planning to spend quality time AWAY from each other. That makes a couple more interesting to each other, creating mystique. So even though a part of me wants to be with that special lover all the time, at the same time I understand the need for maintaining a healthy distance.

I am 54 years old and I've never had a true love in my life. One of my favorite secular songs is by the band Wings called: '[3]Silly Little Love Songs' (1976). I loved that song as a boy. I was born in 1967. The lyrics say:

Love doesn't come in a minute, sometimes it doesn't come at all.

" The latter is my case. I've never been married to someone that I really wanted to be married to. I was 20 years old and married for the wrong reason, not for love. When she divorced me in 2006 I was devastated, but ultimately glad to see her go! I felt exactly like the preacher John Wesley (1703-1791), who when asked about his wife divorcing him replied: “I did not dismiss her. I did not abandon her. I will not recall her.” Ditto!

I’ve never found true love, and probably never will, sadly. But thankfully, Jesus is the love of my life, and He is 100 % real.

Our wonderful Savior wanted to be so close to every believer that He decided to live inside our very body, soul and spirit (1st Corinthians 3:16-17; Romans 8:9; 1st John 3:24). That is so awesome! Dear friend, perhaps you are single and lonely like me in this earthly life, but Jesus is the lover of our soul. I am learning more and more as the years pass by that all I need is Jesus. I’d love to be married, if I can find a quality woman who wants me, but if not I will keep serving the Lord faithfully. This world is a mess! These are strange, ungodly and perilous times.

It warms my heart to know that Jesus went back to Heaven to prepare a home for me there. When Lazarus died in Luke 16:19-32, two angels were sent by God to escort him home. I think it is safe to assume that every believer will see angels when they die, who will escort us to Heaven. That is what happened to Lazarus. I see no reason why we shouldn’t except the same as believers. Carefully notice that the rich man who died in his sins went straight to Hell. No one met him when he died. No one was waiting to greet him to Hell.

The rich man died along, went to Hell alone, and existed in Hell alone. There are many people in Hell, but we don’t know if they are able to communicate. I marvel that so many people dismiss Hell as folklore and fiction. The Bible is verifiable! History validates the Bible. Archaeology validates the Bible. Human nature validates the Bible. Are you willing to risk burning in the fires of Hell forever, by rejecting the Word of God?

The Wonderful Indwelling Holy Spirit

God loves you dear reader. I love you too, with God’s love, because He lives in me. Romans 5:5, “ And hope maketh not ashamed; because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us.” The only sure evidence of being saved is the presence of the indwelling Holy Spirit, which only an individual can know. The Epistle of 1st John is written to the individual, not a group. I cannot examine your life outwardly and determine if you are saved or lost. But you can examine yourself and know if you have the Holy Spirit. Please don’t misunderstand, if you have to look at your life to prove that you’re saved, it just proves that you’re not. I’m talking about the Holy Spirit!

I was saved at age 13. I don’t remember the title of the sermon that Sunday morning. I just remember what the Baptist preacher said that convinced me I was lost. He said, “If you can sin and don’t have the Holy Spirit inside convicting you about sin, you are not saved.” I immediately knew that I wasn’t saved. For the first time in my life I realized that I was a sinner. From my pew in the back of the church, at invitation time, I gripped the back of the pew in front of me. My face turned red and I was nervous.

An elderly helpful woman in the front pew asked me if I was saved, and because I was shy and nervous I instinctively said that I was just to make her go away. But God was working 100 m.p.h. in my soul. I was convicted. I wanted to be saved. The best I new how, for the first time in my life, I silently cried out to Jesus Christ and asked Him to save me, knowing that I was believing in a risen Savior, and He did save me. The point I want you to learn here is that the thing that showed me I needed to be saved, was that I didn’t have the Holy Spirit.

Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him.

” What a beautiful truth! The Godhead has lived inside my body, soul and spirit since I got saved 41 years ago at age 13. THANK YOU LORD!!!

2.8.11 People Will Always Let You Down, Look To Christ Alone (2021-08-09 09:46)

Psalms 142:4, “

I looked on my right hand, and beheld, but there was no man that would know me: refuge failed me; no man cared for my soul.

There have been a handful of times in my life where I was at the bottom. There was a low time in my life in 2009-2013 when I seriously contemplated suicide to make the pain go away, both physically and emotionally. Suffering in the body is bad enough (from my neck injury), but coupled with the added emotional pain it was overwhelming, but God saw me through. King David in our text passage said that refuge failed him. David said that NO MAN cared for his soul. That is how I feel right now. Sometimes there is no place that we can go for refuge except the Lord.

I’ve been at the bottom of life, when there was absolutely NO WHERE TO LOOK EXCEPT UP TO GOD! Brother Lester Roloff was absolutely right, who wisely said:

> “A test of a Christian’s character is what he does after he comes to the blockade in the road and what his attitude is after everything has left him except Jesus. You will never know down here that Christ is all you need until Christ is all you have left. You will never be able to tell the world for sure that He will do in a crisis unless you learn how to live in a crisis.” —Evangelist Lester Roloff (1914-1982), a quote from the sermon, “[1]How To Go On When You Can’t”

I just moved from Guam to Florida last month in July of 2021. I am all alone in Pensacola. I feel like a fish out of water. I don’t want to go into much detail, but I feel like no one understands what I am going through. And in truth, they don’t. You don’t realize how selfish people truly are until you’re in a situation where you need their help, love and compassion the most. Sadly, people just don’t care like they should. I care, but it is only because I have been at the bottom of life multiple times. I know what it means to suffer.

I ordered a book by Pastor M.R. DeHaan (1891-1965) from Amazon.com titled, “BROKEN THINGS: WHY WE SUFFER.” I want to share with you a wonderful quote by Dr. DeHaan from page 59:

> “The greatest sermons I have ever heard were not preached from pulpits but from sickbeds. The greatest, deepest truths of God’s Word have often been revealed, not by those who preached as a result of their seminary preparation and education, but by those humble souls who have gone through the seminary of affliction and have learned experientially the deep things of the ways of God.
>
> The most cheerful people I have met, with few exceptions, have been those who had the least sunshine and the most pain and suffering in their lives. The most grateful people I have met were not those who traveled a pathway of roses all their lives through, but those who were confined, because of circumstances, to their homes—often to their beds. They had learned to depend upon God as only such Christians know how to do.” —Pastor M.R. DeHaan, “BROKEN THINGS: WHY WE SUFFER,” page 59; Barbour Publishing, Inc., 1948

Pastor DeHaan goes on to explain the flip-side of the equation, concerning complainers...

> “The ’gripers’ on the other hand, are usually those who enjoy excellent health. The complainers are those who have the least to complain about. But those dear saints of God who have refreshed my heart again and again and again as they preached from sickbed-pulpits have been the men and women who have been the most cheerful and the most graceful for the blessings of almighty God.
>
> The Bible tells us distinctly that there is a special reward and a special crown which the Lord has prepared and laid up for those who suffer patiently. This principle is suggested by the incident recorded in I Samuel 30.
>
> David, along with 400 strong, healthy men, had gone out to seek the enemy. Two hundreds, however, had remained behind because they were weary and faint, probably because of some physical infirmity. These David had left behind to guard the camp and the equipment of those who went into the heat of the battle. After the victory had been won, the four hundred who had been active participants in the battle refused to share with those who had remained behind and said, ’We’ll give them just a little bit, but we’re going to take the spoils.
>
> At this point, David stated the eternal principle in the words of 1 Samuel 30:24, ’As his part is that goeth down to the battle, so shall his part be that tarrieth by the stuff: they shall part alike.’
>
> Those of you who remain by the stuff are not overlooked or forgotten by God: there is a very definite and special reward laid up for God’s patient sufferers.
>
> If you, child of God, are upon a bed of illness, if you are being troubled by pain or discouragement, remember that God will always use our suffering for His purposes. Our suffering silences Satan, our suffering enables us to glorify God, our suffering makes us more like Christ, our suffering makes us appreciative, and, ultimately, our suffering teaches us to depend on God.” —Pastor M.R. DeHaan, “BROKEN THINGS: WHY WE SUFFER,” page 60; Barbour Publishing, Inc., 1948

I have learned a tremendous Bible truth—God allows me to suffer so I can comfort others who are suffering. Sometimes you may feel like I do right now, that no one cares. But God cares dear friend. Sometimes we just have to LOOK UP!

It is impossible for people to know exactly how we feel. They cannot see our pain, loneliness and inner suffering, but Jesus can (Hebrews 4:14). People are often selfish, paranoid, distrustful and will shun us at the lowest point in our life. Instead of having empathy and extending an olive branch of love and unconditional friendship, they will avoid and judge us in their shallow thinking and sinful pride, instead of esteeming others as being better than them self (Philippians 2:3). People can be so shallow. I speak of pastors as well. Aren't we all horrible at times, failing to help others when they need our help the most?

I encourage you dear reader to look beyond the faults of others and see their need. An ounce of love is worth more than a pound of caution. It is easy to avoid people who are hurting, thinking that it is best to leave them alone, when they just want to be loved in their hard times. People often shun and ostracize a person who is having a hard time. Since they are enjoying life, have lots of friends and everything is going good for them, they avoid the person who is suffering, lonely and their life is all turmoil, only thinking about their own comfort zone. Aren't you glad that Jesus left the comforts of Heaven, to come down to earth to be beaten, spit upon, hated and crucified on a cross for your sins and mine?

The Bible says that Jesus left the 99 sheep to help that one hurting lamb. Sad but true, most professed Christians refuse to leave the 99 to help that one hurting individual. Since they are preoccupied with the 99, they either don't care enough or won't make time for that one person who needs their love, help and compassion the most. I don't know about you, but I am going to be like Jesus and reach out to that one person who is hurting the most. You'll never know who your true friends are until you're at the bottom of life, and see how they treat you when you need their love, understanding and help the most. Jesus is precious!!!

2.8.12 Everybody Has A Story To Tell And We Ought To Listen (2021-08-11 11:59)

Luke 24:13-17, "

And, behold, two of them went that same day to a village called Emmaus, which was from Jerusalem about threescore furlongs.

And they talked together of all these things which had happened.

And it came to pass, that, while they communed together and reasoned, Jesus himself drew near, and went with them.

But their eyes were holden that they should not know him.

And he said unto them, What manner of communications are these that ye have one to another, as ye walk, and are sad?

The Lord took the time to hear people's story. Everyone has a story! I think one of the saddest commentaries on today's shallow church pastors is that they are TOO BUSY to take the time to listen to someone's story. I have attended numerous churches over the years, where I had started to share my story, but they didn't want to hear it. I told them of my constant neck pain. I told them that I am divorced and hurting in my soul, lonely and tired. But they didn't ask to hear my story. I so often have hoped that a pastor would invite me out for lunch, or to come into his church office, so he could hear MY STORY and pray for me. But they didn't.

My website intimidates some pastors. I literally had one pastor stand afar off, observing me with admiration from 50 feet away, but he wouldn't come near to speak with me. At first my feelings were deeply hurt, for a few months. But as time passed the Lord helped me to understand that my sharp tone of writing intimidates people, especially pastors who don't know me personally. In truth, I am a big Teddy Bear. I am admittedly a social misfit. In any group I feel awkward, like I don't belong. Many people feel like that. I have always been that way my whole life. I can get up and boldly preach to 10,000 people, but then out of the pulpit I am an introvert, reserved, private and self-conscious.

When is the last time dear friend that you took the time to hear someone's story. Some of my fondest memories in life was when I took the couple hours to befriend someone, to just let them talk and tell me everything that they wanted to tell me. You would be amazed at the stories people will tell you. I have heard countless stories from hurting people about situations in their life where someone did them wrong, or lied about them, or betrayed their trust, and they just need to share their pain with others. I don't know about you, but I always feel like a million bucks after I get a chance to share MY STORY with others.

I remember in 2013 at a Watchcare Meeting, at a staff members house on Guam at the church I was attending. We were all sitting around outside. About 40 people from the church came to the event. I was new. It was around Thanksgiving time. As we sat and talked, they were curious about who I was and MY STORY. I didn't plan to tell my story, but I did, and about one dozen people sat around and listened to all the suffering I had been through. I shared my painful divorce, losing my home, my longtime chronic neck pain and failed surgeries, my loneliness and losing $50,000 in a failed attempt to move from Guam back to the United States in mid 2013.

In desperation I came back to Guam, after surviving out of a suitcase for 4 months. I distinctly remember that some of the group were crying, as they sympathized with my suffering. I shared many hurts and pains with them, and how God had delivered me through it all. I couldn't remember the last time I felt that loved. I had met some true friends who cared about me. I had a church family. That was one of the happiest days of my life. A man who was there said he had an apartment for rent, and I gladly accepted his offer. I lived in that rundown apartment for the next 7 years until 2021 when I finally moved to Pensacola, Florida.

What made that day so special to me was that a group of people took the time to hear MY STORY. When you take the time to hear someone's story, you are showing them that YOU CARE about them. People don't care what you know, until they know that you care. Taking the time to hear someone's story shows them that you care. I love to hear people's story. Jesus saw two men walking along the road to Emmaus. He saw that they were sad. Jesus approached them and asked them why they were so sad, because He wanted to hear THEIR STORY.

As I am writing this blog, I just remember a wonderful sermon by Evangelist Tom Williams titled: '[1]On Our Way To Be A Christian We Often Forget To Be One.' There are lonely people in nursing homes all across America who have been forgotten about, and no one cares about them. What a ministry opportunity! All across America men and women are rotting behind bars in prison, forgotten about by the rest of busy society. Most people think they are getting what they deserve, and couldn't care less about them. But friend, God still loves them and they still have a soul. They need to hear the Gospel. Somebody needs to take the time to go visit them to hear THEIR STORY.

To the same degree that American society sinks into the depths of sin, people don't want to hear other people's STORY. We have become selfish. People don't care as they should. As our society descends into wickedness and perversion the divorce rate is skyrocketing because we can't get along with each other anymore. We have become a very selfish society. I had reserved a hotel for 31-days. I had my confirmation information with me. Everything was set to go. But my flight was delayed because United Airline's plane had a mechanical issue on Guam. I had paid $2,500 for a Business Class flight. Because of United Airlines' fault, my 23 hour flight turned into a 43 hour flight. So I missed my connecting flight to Denver.

Instead of my Business-class seating, I was put into an inferior seat and my trip was not very enjoyable. My neck pain was horrible. I don't recommend United Airlines. They took my money and I didn't get what I paid for. Consequently, the Woodspring Suites Hotel in Pensacola cancelled my 31-day reservation, because they were greedy and instead of my $55 a night reservation, they could bilk people over the 4th of July weekend for much more money. I end up sleeping in Wal-Mart's parking lot for 3 nights. The Bible teaches that since I am a child of God, that hotel hurt and defrauded Jesus (Matthew 25:45).

Dear reader, I encourage you to take the time to listen to people's STORY. There are lonely people in elderly homes all across the country who never receive a visit from their own children. That is a sin! Consider the millions of homeless and hurting people on the streets of our nation, and that the problem never goes away. The reason why is because people are selfish and don't care about the poor. What most people do is foolishly donate money to some fat-cat charity which pays its executives outrageous 6-digit salaries.

[2]Go to Charity Navigator and type in the name of your favorite charity to see how much money the CEO gets paid annually. You will be absolutely disgusted as I am! Just think if all those billions of dollars in ridiculous executive salaries were given directly to the poor! There wouldn't be any poor. You could literally buy a home for every homeless person in America, if we just took all the money paid to charity executives and gave the money directly to the poor. Big charities are the biggest scam in the United States!!! For example: ASPAC (a charity to help suffering animals) paid its CEO Matthew Bershadker $852,231 in 2019). That is sickening! Yet they beg TV viewers for 63 cents a day to help hungry abused animals. You are a fool if you donate money to these scammers! I'm sure you will agree that people come before animals. The average life span of a homeless person in the U.S. is only 40 years!

I don't know about you, but I want to hear people's STORY. I look for opportunities to listen to hurting people. I tell them, "

I'd like to hear your story.

" You'd be surprised how many people who seem cold, uncaring and unfriendly just want to be loved. They just want to someone to care enough to listen to THEIR STORY! Jesus took the time to hear Nebuchadnezzar's story in John chapter three.

Jesus took the time to listen to the story of the Samaritan woman at Jacob's well in John chapter four. Everyone has A STORY to tell and we ought to listen.

2.8.13 The Importance Of Giving Every Child A Solid Foundation (2021-08-12 00:30)

Proverbs 22:6, "

3524

Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it.

I love this vital Bible principle in Proverbs 22:6. The most important thing that any parent can do for their precious child is to give them a solid foundation. If I could give parents one bit of advice, it would be to center their child’s life around a Bible-believing local New Testament church. My second bit of advice would be to enroll your child into a Christian school. I cannot stress these two things enough. I know from experience the value of being enrolled into a Christian school. Dear reader, my website ministry wouldn’t exist if it weren’t for my parent’s wisdom to enroll me into a Christian school instead of the damned public fool (school) system.

We all have our childhood friends that we remember. I had a childhood friend named Tommy. We were close friends. We used to hang put in his basement, listening to his older brother’s 8-track tapes. I heard Boston, Black Sabbath, Foreigner, Thin Lizzy, Journey, et cetera. That was my introduction to the Devil’s rock music. I hadn’t been saved yet, not until I was 13 years old. We used to sneak into Tommy’s brother’s box of fireworks and lite them off. Those are fond memories, because I have always loved fireworks. Back in the 1970’s society wasn’t paranoid about fireworks like they are today. M-80’s were commonplace back then, and police didn’t really care if you lit them off. But today lighting off an M-80 is a felony in many states, considered an act of terrorism. Yikes!

Anyway, when I grew older my parents put me into a Christian school, where I was loved and taught the Word of God daily. My life was centered around a Bible-believing church. When I turned 18 I chose to go to Bible college, influenced by the Christian school I had been attending for the past 6 years at our Baptist church in Chicago. One day years later, while enrolled in Bible college but off for the summer, I was in my garage working on my Dad’s Chevy truck. Tommy’s mother was walking by and stopped in to say hello. I was glad to see her and asked how Tommy was doing, since me and Tommy had gone our own ways after grade school, and he spent much time with his biological father (his parents were divorced and remarried).

She said something I have never forgotten,

“I wish Tommy was like you.” I honestly didn’t know what to say.

In hindsight, I don’t remember what I said to her. But I do remember that I felt sympathy for her. I knew that Tommy was taking illegal drugs. I knew that Tommy didn’t go to a Christian school like I was blessed to. I knew that Tommy and his parents didn’t attend a local church. I didn’t judge her then, and I don’t today 35 years later. But I can say this—it was only because my Christian parents enrolled me into a Christian school at a Baptist church that I became the young man whom she admired. Dear friend, your children will not miraculously turn out right one day. You MUST invest in them now, while they are young, if you expect to reap goodness from them when they become adults.

During the insane Black Lives Matter movement in 2020, we saw the consequences of raising up a Godless generation of fools in the Devil’s public school system. You cannot subject an innocent child to thousands of hours a year of satanic indoctrination in public schools, instilling the blatant fraud of evolutionary theory into their impressionable minds, and then expect them to grow up to be sensible, law-abiding, caring, moral and decent adults. The Black Lives Matter (BLM) uprising was nothing less than total anarchy, riotous behavior and mob rule! Cities across the United States were adversely impacted by businesses being burned to the ground, police stations being burned down, several police officers murdered, innocent people attacked and brutalized, and evil mayhem from coast to coast.

Even on the island of Guam, angry BLM protesters were standing with their protest signs outside of Home Depot and other local businesses, raising a ruckus! This is the [1]power of the controlled liberal newsmedia. It is clear in hindsight that the BLM movement was socially engineered, deliberately fueled by the media, and intended to divide our nation. In this [2]shocking video, Professor G. Edward Griffin in 1969 exposed the communist powers lurking behind the political scenes which are at work to subvert and take over America.

In the video Dr. Griffin rightly explains how the communist party incites bloody racial conflict, public rioting, and even recruits children to their sinister cause. Remember, i t was Russian dictator Vladimir Lenin (1870-1924) who also said: “The best revolutionary is youth devoid of morals.”

With that truth in mind, it should be obvious to you now why the Black Lives Matter movement. The public is to be pressured into accepting measures that will move the country gradually and legally toward communism, but without calling it that.

Their diabolical strategy is to call for the quiet conversion of our government into a communist regime, but under the banner of socialism. It all boils down to control over human beings! The building of socialism is the communist revolution in America. Their answer to every problem is more government. Ronald Reagan was right that “

Big government is the problem.

” Total government is communism, as we see in places like China and North Korea today.

Dear friend, the public school system is the biggest enemy of our liberty and freedom! It is no coincidence that children are being lied to, deprived of the Holy Bible, and instead taught that they came from rocks colliding in space, evolution and gorillas.

The Devil is destroying our American society! Take a look at these shocking eye-opening quotes by Vladimir Lenin:

- We must be ready to employ trickery, deceit, law-breaking, withholding and concealing truth... We can and must write in a language which sows among the masses hate, revulsion, and scorn toward those who disagree with us.
- The press should be not only a collective propagandist and a collective agitator, but also a collective organizer of the masses.
- The best revolutionary is youth devoid of morals.
- A lie told often enough becomes the truth.
- The goal of socialism is communism.
- There are no morals in politics there is only expedience. A scoundrel may be of use to us just because he is a scoundrel.
- Give us the child for 8 years and it will be a Bolshevik forever.
- Our program necessarily includes the propaganda of atheism.
- It matters not if 90 % of the Russian people perish so long as 10 % bring about a world revolution.

By reading those disturbing quotes, it should be obvious to you that this is exactly what is happening in the United States today! Please consider these four shocking statements by Lenin regarding children and government public school indoctrination:

- The best revolutionary is youth devoid of morals.
- A lie told often enough becomes the truth.
- Give us the child for 8 years and it will be a Bolshevik forever.
- Our program necessarily includes the propaganda of atheism.

A child spends 8 years in grade school! By hearing the blatant LIE of evolution repeated year after year, that LIE becomes the TRUTH in the impressionable minds of millions of children. Without faith in God a child has no moral compass; he or she becomes the ultimate authority. No wonder it was the infamous Satanist Aleister Crowley (1875-1947) whose life's motto was: "

[3]DO AS THOU WILT SHALL BE THE WHOLE OF THE LAW.

" Truth is stranger than fiction. As I researched the sordid life of Mr. Crowley, I learned that [4]Scientology founder Ron Hubbard (1911-1986) was a student and associate of Aleister Crowley. Birds of a feather flock together!

I have said all this to help you see the desperate need for children to be raised in Sunday School, and the need for attending a Christian school. The most dangerous thing about public schools is not what they teach, it is what THEY DON'T TEACH!!! The Bible teaches that if given a proper solid foundation, a child will not depart from it when they grow old. That doesn't guarantee that your child won't ruin their life, and the house of their life burn down. But it does mean that if that house is destroyed and burned to the ground by sin and evil, that when they repent and return as did the Prodigal Son in Luke chapter 15 of the Bible, they will have a solid foundation to rebuild a home upon. Proverbs 22:6, "

Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it.

Pastor Jack Hyles is my hero of the Christian faith. Dr. Hyles often tells a story in his preaching about two houses that he saw while driving down the street. The first was a nice looking home, brand new, with all its charm and décor. The second home had burned to the ground and was unlivable in its present state. His initial impression was to have pity on the old burned down home, which wasn't much more than a foundation with a heap of rubbish atop it. He admired the brand new home. But then as he pondered the matter, he realized that he was thinking backwards. In fact it was the brand new upon which he now had pity.

You see, no one had ever lived in the new home yet. The new home had no memories of children frolicking in the back yard, running through the home's hallways and rooms, filled with the echoes of happy children playing, and the delicious smell of cookies being baked by a happy mother in the kitchen's oven for the family. That new home had never been lived in. It had not yet fulfilled its purpose for existence!

But then Pastor Hyles considered the old home which was now a worthless pile of scorched rubbish, where a family had once lived and enjoyed it's comfort and protection from the rain. That old home had faithfully served its purpose for existence, housing a family and giving them joy and satisfaction. Dr. Hyles then admired the home which had burned down, realizing that it had memories which could never be taken away from the family who had lived there for many years.

I love the way that Brother Hyles looked at things.

Dear friend, the greatest thing you can ever do for a child is to get them into a Bible-believing church, and to enroll them into a Christian school. That is where they will receive a strong foundation. But wait, there is actually something even greater than the things I just mentioned, and that is FOR YOU to personally set the example and teach your child to have faith in God.

I heard Pastor Steven Anderson (one of my favorite preachers) say something in his preaching that caught my attention. He said that his parents drove for 45 minutes to a fundamental Bible-believing church, instead of attending a local liberal church which was much closer to their home in Sacramento, California. It was that solid Bible preaching that Steven Anderson was subjected to, which built a rock solid foundation in him upon which everything else could be built in his life. If it weren't for his parents driving the extra distance that made the difference, there would be no Pastor Steven Anderson today. Only Heaven knows how many tens of thousands of people have come to Jesus Christ because of God using that godly young man!

Tommy's mother gave me a great compliment, which really belongs to my Mom and Dad. She said: "I wish Tommy was like you." She saw that I was clean-cut, ambitious, hard working, going to Bible college, not a drunk or burned out on drugs. To this day my heart hurts for her. I wish I could have been the son that she wanted, but in truth, Tommy didn't have the mother that I had. In truth, my mother was a drunk. She never drank alcohol until she met my father, who convinced her to start drinking. My father loved Vodka (hard liquor), but my Mom only drank beer. My mother smoked like a chimney, which put her in a wheelchair at age 54 for the rest of her life. She had suffered a crippling stroke in 1989.

So I dare say that Tommy had a better mother than I did, but I saw my parent's faith in God. My mother used to sleep on the couch, inebriated with Old Style booze, with our female dog Snooky on one side, and a King James Bible clutched in her hands on the other. I didn't have a godly mother like Pastor Jack Hyles did, but I did have a Christian mother. Dr. Hyles' father abandoned them when he was just a boy. My father stayed, although at many times I wish he had left us due to his violent anger. My father smashed a lot of furniture we had in his anger. That radical type of behavior is traumatizing to a small child. I used to urinate on myself in fear when he became violent, hitting my Mom. So I didn't grow up in an ideal home.

In hindsight, I'm glad that my parents stayed together, married for 36 years before my mother went to Heaven in 2001 at age 65, and my father in 2010 at age 76. Pastor Hyles' preaching is saturated with stories about how his mother's godly influence shaped his character, life and ministry. She taught him daily the things of God. Like Pastor Steven Anderson, Pastor Jack Hyles was not an anomaly, he was raised by a godly mother. The greatest role in the world is that of motherhood. Psalms 127:4, " As arrows are in the hand of a mighty man; so are children of the youth."

My point here is that you don't have to be a perfect parent to see your child turn out right for God, but you do need to get them under the influence of Bible preaching. If you cannot find a good church or afford to enroll your child in a Christian school, then [5]play the King James Bible in your home, listen to internet preaching with your child daily in your home, and teach your child the things of God at home! The internet is a blessing to people who don't have a good church to attend, or are unable to attend church due to poor health or other reasons. My chronic neck pain makes it difficult to sit still through a church service. I hate long sermons! Therefore, I stay homes oftentimes and listen to preaching during the week. I still attend church, but sporadically at best. The more I push myself to go to church, the sooner I burn out and stop going altogether. So I have learned to only go when I can.

Proverbs 13:20, "He that walketh with wise men shall be wise: but a companion of fools shall be destroyed." Every child needs and deserves a solid foundation upon which to build their life. The Bible says that a child left to himself brings his mother to shame! Proverbs 29:15, " The rod and reproof give wisdom: but a child left to himself bringeth his mother to shame." I think the reason why the Bible indicts the mother is because she is at home with the child all day, but the father is out working to provide for his family. If you want your child to be a companion of fools, then put them into the Devil's public school system!

Proverbs 29:15, " The rod and reproof give wisdom: but a child left to himself bringeth his mother to shame." Clearly this Bible verse emphasizes the mother's incredible role and influence upon a child in the early years of development. Teenagers don't just become monsters at age 13, they were left to themselves for 12 years! Every child needs and wants their parents to set boundaries. A child needs godly reproof. This shows the child that Mom and Dad care, and shows them who is in charge, instilling in them a healthy fear of parents, law and God if they disobey. God put that padded area in the back for a reason!

At about age 2 or 3 a child needs to start learning that they cannot always have their way. There should start to be resistance to their tantrums, pouting and demands. If a child is spoiled, allowed to always get their way, you will raise an irresponsible brat who becomes reckless to society. All discipline should be done in love. For this reason a parent should never discipline a child when the parent is angry. We don't have an anarchy problem in America today, we have a parent problem! Proverbs 22:6, "

Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it.

2.8.14 The Sins Of The Saints (2021-08-12 15:52)

1st Corinthians 3:1-3, "

And I, brethren, could not speak unto you as unto spiritual, but as unto carnal, even as unto babes in Christ. I have fed you with milk, and not with meat: for hitherto ye were not able to bear it, neither yet now are ye able. For ye are yet carnal: for whereas there is among you envying, and strife, and divisions, are ye not carnal, and walk as men?"

The Apostle Paul literally called the church at Corinth a bunch of grown babies! Something that I have noticed throughout my Christian life is that religious people, who have never (in their own mind at least) gone into what some call “

deep sin

” (adultery, murder, drunkenness, bank robbery, homosexuality, et cetera), will condemn those who do commit “ deep sin.

” No one has a right to judge someone else just because they sin differently than you do!

Our fundamentalist churches are filled with self-righteous hypocrites, who look down their long Pharisaical noses with contempt upon those who have committed “deep sin.” I meet them all the time. I wear my hair longer than most fundamentalists. Since I am completely bald up on top, I like to let my hair grow down a bit on the sides...lol. I cheerfully wear my “ cap backwards everywhere I go, except while in church to show respect for the Lord.

Some people think I should grow up at age 54, but I love being a big teenager.

God knows that I am a responsible adult. I didn’t build a good credit score over the decades, and have

“

Safe Driver

” printed on my Florida driver’s license by being irresponsible. In his wonderful book called “

Grace And Truth,

Pastor Jack Hyles teaches that [1]we should be a child, juvenile, adult . In other words, as an adult you ought to still enjoy that ice-cream cone that you did as a child. Many adults have lost the joy of enjoying things they once did as a child, and as a teenager.

I still love fireworks.

I want to be a well-rounded person.

I admittedly am somewhat of a misfit. When I attend churches I stand out. I almost always wear a black shirt with a collar and hang a ukulele lanyard around my neck everywhere that I go. [2]I love music and the ukulele that I play, and the colorful ukulele strap reminds me of Joseph’s coat of many colors (reminding me that my heavenly Father loves me, just as Jacob loved his son Joseph). I boldly embrace my individuality, as the individual being that God created me to be.

When I thankfully attended Hyles-Anderson College (1985-1993), I wore a solid black shirt to my class each day and to chapel. I just liked the color black, with a maroon neck tie and baggy black pants. I also wore black suede shoes. I had worn those colors to school and church throughout my teenage years. I remember one day that another student became upset with me at Hyles-Anderson for wearing a black shirt. He rudely approached me in our Church Education class and said: “How dare you wear a black shirt when all your brethren are wearing white shirts. You have a rebellious spirit in you!” I felt like I was in an episode of The Outer Limits or The Twilight Zone. Where did that nut come from? I once heard our beloved college president, Dr. Wendell Evans, rightly say: "If you leave Hyles-Anderson College as a nut, it is only because you were a nut when you enrolled!" I couldn't agree more! That student who condemned me that day for wearing a black shirt was a crazy nut!

Dear reader, there are a lot of religious nuts in our fundamentalist churches today! They have become so accustomed to dressing a certain way, and thinking a certain way, and behaving a certain way, that they freak out and go ballistic when someone like me arrives who is different. I decided many years ago to be the individual who God made me to be. I don't have to dress like you do, or wear my hair the length you do, or listen to the music you do, to be accepted by God. You'd be surprised how many church members judge me for just being different.

I was [3]listening to this 1976 song by Peter Frampton when I pulled up to Campus Church the other night, but I always turn the music down out of respect for their beliefs. I think it is a beautiful song, and I see nothing wrong with listening to it. But many believers will avoid and shun you for listening to secular music. Aren't we such hypocrites? I learned a long time ago to just let people be people and love them where they're at, and not attempt to impose my beliefs and standards upon them.

So often religious people who have never gone into a life of "deep sin" will condemn others who have. Yet, the Bible teaches that we are all sinners (Romans 3:23). I love Pastor Jack Hyles' wonderful sermon titled: "[4]If Thou Should Mark Iniquities Who Could Stand?" Psalm 130:3, "

If thou, LORD, shouldest mark iniquities, O Lord, who shall stand?

" The truth dear friend is that NONE OF US could stand if God marked our iniquities against us!!! But praise be to God that He doesn't mark our iniquities as redeemed saints! Psalm 103:12, "

As far as the east is from the west, so far hath he removed our transgressions from us.

" Do you know why the Bible says east and west, and not north and south? It is because east never meets west. You can travel east forever and never find west, or vise versa. But if you travel north, you will find south once you pass over the North Pole, and vise versa. Isn't that beautiful!

Why do sinners condemn others who sin differently than they do? No one ought to look down upon those who are fallen, divorced or paroled and their life ruined and tarnished by sin. Since we are all sinners, no one is a shining example to the rest of us of what a Christian should be. If a man hasn't commit the sins of adultery, murder or drunkenness, then he must be guilty of envy, gossip or being a respecter of persons. No one can be perfect!

I have observed that the sins of the saints are often hypocrisy, envy, pride, willful ignorance, gossip, stubbornness, a woeful lack of God's unconditional love for sinners, and being a respecter of persons. Yet these sinful saints will look down their Pharisaical noses at other sinners who have sinned differently than they do. I tell you of a truth—the only difference between the most saintly redeemed sinner and the most devilish lost sinner is the precious blood of Jesus Christ that washed our sins away! The ONLY righteousness that I possess is the imputed righteousness of God, which is by faith in Jesus Christ (Philippians 3:9).

So I see that in most fundamentalist churches we find morally upright sinners who have never done what they consider to be "really bad" sins. But dear reader, I don't care who you are or how little of a sinner you may esteem yourself, I assure you biblically that you are as guilty as the vilest criminal upon the earth! What saith the Scripture? James 2:10, "For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all." If you have any righteousness at all, it is only by faith in the blessed Savior!

I think the biggest thing lacking in churches today is simply to love people as they are, and not try to force them into a mold. I receive countless emails from frustrated hurt people, who have been rejected and ostracized by self-righteous hypocrites in churches. We need a revival in our churches of loving people. The average church today won't love someone unless they conform to the beliefs and standards of that particular church. That is so wrong and sinful. It bothers me when I hear about a pastor physically throwing a transvestite out of their church. What that pastor is actually saying is that only righteous people are welcomed at their church. I love Pastor Jeff Owens' beautiful sermon titled: '[5]The Unrighteous Are Welcome Here.'

Different churches operate upon different policies. Certainly open sin ought never be permitted in the churches (1st Corinthians 5:1-5), but for someone to attend a church whose life is broken and in shambles because of sin ought not be shunned. How can we reach the lost for Christ if we reject them from even sitting in church to hear Bible preaching? Some pastors are so hateful of sin that they also hate the sinner. That is not good. Biblically we ought never accept the sin with the sinner, nor reject the sinner with the sin. Either extreme is wrong. A church ought not welcome unrepentant sinners without preaching against all sin. Nor should a church turn away those unrepentant sinners from hearing the Word of God preached to them.

It is ridiculous to demand that a messed up broken sinner straighten out their life before we will allow them to attend church. Romans 10:17, " So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God." How then can unrepentant sinners hear the Gospel if we don't permit them to come to church to hear the Bible preached? I am not impressed with most pastors today. Something is wrong with a pastor who doesn't care about everyone, and not just the majority of his congregation. Being a respecter of persons is just as horrible a sin and murdering your Christian brother. Romans 14:10, " But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ." Something is very wrong when a laymen tells his pastor that he loves him in Christ, but that highbrow pastor never reciprocates such love.

I often receive emails from people who have been hurt by pastors. A common complaint that I hear is that pastor ignore them and fail to reply, or brush them off. Anybody who knows me knows that I always take quality time to reply to emails, often writing book length emails to help them. God has entrusted me with this needful website ministry, for which I am grateful. One of my favorite sermons by Pastor Jack Hyles is called: '[6]Where Did David Get His Mighty Men?' My ministry is to the losers, misfits, criminals, rejects and unloved of society. They come to me because no one else will receive them. God uses me to help others simply because I have a servant's heart and am willing to be used. Most of today's bigshot pastors are too busy to take quality time to help the one hurting INDIVIDUAL.

In that regard I am like Jesus. John 6:37, "

All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out.

" Our great Savior promises that whosoever comes to Him, He will IN NO WISE CAST OUT!!! The reason why I never turn anybody away is because of Jesus in me. Our dear Lord left the ninety-nine to go help that one lost lamb. At the time that the one lamb was in dire need, the Lord placed more importance upon helping that one individual, than He did upon the other ninety-nine who were doing okay.

Dear friend, if you are hurting in your body and/or soul, as I am, God has a special care and love just for you, because you are that one lamb that has strayed.

Psalm 34:18, " The LORD is nigh unto them that are of a broken heart; and saveth such as be of a contrite spirit." How terrible it is then, that so many church pastors today ignore and shun hurting people? I too know the pain of soul from being ignored, shunned and made to feel like garbage by today's shallow pastors. I have been kicked out of churches for being King James Bible only. I have been kicked out of churches for taking a biblical stand against "

Lordship

" salvation. Pastors often don't like me because I speak my mind and call them out for heresy. How else can we earnestly contend for the faith if we don't hold pastor's accountable for what they teach? (Jude 1:3).

The problem is that most of today's pastors are graduates of shallow Bible colleges, which in most cases are mere academic institutions and not church-building ministries. I thankfully attended Hyles-Anderson College between 1985 to 1993. Dr. Jack Hyles didn't put teachers in the classrooms, he put preachers in the classrooms. Teachers cannot reproduce preachers. Only preachers can reproduce preachers! I have a degree in Pastoral Theology, but that is just a piece of paper. My true degree is in the precious eight years that I spent studying the man Jack Hyles. Brother Hyles taught me by example to love the unlovable, to care for the uncaring, to always root for the underdog, and to care for the poor bus kids and the hurting rescue mission men. Luke 14:23, " And the lord said unto the servant, Go out into the highways and hedges, and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled."

It is tragic that today's churches have strayed away from the Lord's command to go out into the highways and hedges, to bring in the poor, the halt and the maimed. It was Pastor Dwight L. Moody (1837-1899) who sent out horse-drawn carriages throughout the city of Chicago, to bring poor little children to church to learn about Jesus. Pastor Jack Hyles often made mention of Pastor Moody, and continued that beautiful ministry of sending buses throughout Chicagoland to bring in the poor, the crippled, the hurting and the unwanted of society. That is the great heart of our dear Savior, to reach out to everyone, and not just to the righteous.

Oh how we need a revival in our churches, Bible colleges and religious seminars today of loving everyone. The Apostle Paul addressed the carnal church at Corinth as grown babies. Sadly, some of the biggest grown babies are today's unloving, uncaring, arrogant and shallow-minded pastors who are respecters of persons. Dear friend, little things matter to God. Our great God doesn't miss a single bird that falls from the sky (Matthew 10:29). God cares about that one hurting sinner that most religious people wouldn't touch with a ten-foot pole.

God cares about that hurting divorced person that many churches shun. You dear friend matter to God. You can tell how right with God a pastor is by the way he treats the least desirable person in his church. Most pastors couldn't care less if one person leaves, just so long as the ninety-nine remain. We've got too many pastors to whom the position of pastor is a mere career, but we need pastors who have a consuming love for all people. That is why America is going to Hell, because individual people don't matter anymore to pastors and churches. Thankfully Jesus thinks the exact opposite! Jesus left the ninety-nine to go after that ONE INDIVUDAL.

2.8.15 Sometimes You Want Somebody To Care, But They Don't (2021-08-12 21:41)

John 9:24-26 and 34-35, "

Then again called they the man that was blind, and said unto him, Give God the praise: we know that this man is a sinner.

He answered and said, Whether he be a sinner or no, I know not: one thing I know, that, whereas I was blind, now I see.

Then said they to him again, What did he to thee? how opened he thine eyes? ...They answered and said unto him, Thou wast altogether born in sins, and dost thou teach us? And they cast him out.

Jesus heard that they had cast him out; and when he had found him*, he said unto him, Dost thou believe on the Son of God?

I love this wonderful story. A man had been blind from birth so that God would be glorified. Jesus came by and healed him. When the Pharisees saw the man, now able to see, they were angry that Jesus had healed him. They berated the healed man, grilling him and his parents, interrogating them how this man received his sight. Long story short, the wicked Pharisees cast the man out of the synagogue, ostracizing him in their hatred for Christ.

I love this next part. When Jesus heard what had been done unto the man, the Lord went to find Him. What a wonderful Savior! I am so tired of hearing selfish church pastors make excuses of how busy they are for ignoring my emails, failing to answer my sincere questions, making me feel unloved and unwanted as did the Pharisees to the blind man who had been miraculously healed. If our dear Savior was willing to make time to go find hurting people, then pastors have no excuses! If our dear Savior humbled Himself to go search out hurting people, then so ought we follow His blessed example.

So Jesus finds the brokenhearted man who had been cast out of the local church for telling the truth. Boy, I sure know how that feels. When I told the truth at the apostate Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, their Pharisaical pastors cast me out and ostracized me for seven painful years. It is horrible that any Christian would be made to feel bad for telling the truth at church. Some people would label me as a troublemaker, but it is only because they are wicked false teachers that they would even dare say something horrible like that, when all I am doing is TELLING THE TRUTH!!!

The blind man who had been healed by Jesus was unloved and unwelcomed by the religious crowd for telling the truth. I know exactly how that mistreated man felt. I don't go looking for trouble, but dear friend, when you TELL THE TRUTH trouble will come to you. 2nd Timothy 3:12, "Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution. " My biggest ministry enemies are not witches, homosexuals and atheists, but proud and arrogant pastors who think they are above being questioned. Once you question their teaching, you become a marked man and they will avoid any dealings with you. That hurts and ought not be. Sinful men refuse to let things go, so they hold a grudge, making excuses to justify it.

I know the painful feeling of wanting someone to acknowledge me, but they won't. When I attend a church I want to know that their pastor is glad I am there. If I don't feel wanted or loved, then that pastor is in the wrong, not me, because all I can do is tell him that I love him in Christ and reach out in friendship. Every hurting person needs to know that they are wanted in a place. One of the most common things I hear from my web visitors is that they attended a local church, but the pastor didn't make them feel welcomed. Shame on today's shallow pastors who selfishly refuse to reach out to find those hurting people who have come to them for help. Jesus went to find the man whom He had healed, knowing that he was hurting in his soul after being horribly reviled and cast out of the synagogue. Jesus cares!

Perhaps some people have a different viewpoint, thinking that people ought to go to a church with the attitude of helping the pastor, lifting up his hands and encouraging him. The problem with that scenario is that it is unrealistic. A congregation rarely rises above the spirituality of a pastor. When I have tried to help pastors it backfired on me because they resented my help. Oh sure, they will gladly welcome your money, but if you dare to show them the errors in their teaching, you will be cast out just as the healed blind man was cast out! Everything rises and falls on leadership! The congregation cannot spiritually lead the pastor. Honestly, it would be a marvellous thing if 99 % of pastor would be fired. YOU'RE FIRED!!!

Dear reader, oftentimes in life when you want someone to care, they simply won't. All you can do is put them into God's hands, knowing that something is wrong in their heart, not yours. If you go to a church and the pastor shuns, avoids and ignores you, then you can be rest assured that his heart is not right with the Lord. What saith the Scripture? ...

> Ephesians 4:30-32, "And grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption. Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice: And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you."

I sometimes wonder if most pastors even spend one hour a week walking with God. God is love. When a pastor is cold, evasive, defensive and avoids a new church member who has made it clear that they want to be friends with that pastor, something is spiritually wrong with the pastor. Something is wrong with a pastor who doesn't offer to pray with you. Something is lacking in a pastor who is so little of stature that he won't even express sympathy for a hurting person. We've got a bunch of academic types parasiting off the churches today, milking the money cow for everything they can, but they are not close to God, not pure of heart, evidenced by their callousness and lack of sincere brotherly love. The church is not a business, it is every believer's family in the Lord. Yet, so many pastors make people feel unwelcomed in their own Christian family. Shame on such horrible pastors!!!

If former U.S. President Donald Trump emailed a pastor, that pastor would respond that very day, likely within the hour. But when you or me email that same pastor, we'll be lucky to hear back in a week, if at all. That is called the sin of being a respecter of persons (James 2:1). Sadly, most pastors are respecters of persons. Jesus didn't care if you were rich or poor, seeing or blind, hearing or deaf, Jewish or Samaritan, He made time for people and humbled Himself to always help them. People sometimes shun us away for merely trying to be their friend. Sometimes all you have to do for people to dislike you is show up! This is why I am continually reminded by the Holy Spirit of Hebrews 12:2, "Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God. "

I wrote this blog because I am increasingly receiving emails from people who have been mis-treated by pastors. They come to me because they know that I actually care. I DO CARE! I don’t fault a pastor for his mistakes, imperfections and sins. I look at how he treats people. You can tell a man’s character by how he treats people who can do nothing for him.

2.8.16 Praise God For False Teachers (2021-08-13 15:32)

1st Corinthians 11:19, “

For there must be also heresies among you, that they which are approved may be made manifest among you.

What? Did you say, “Praise God for false teachers?” Yes, I did! Years ago I discovered our amazing text passage from 1st Corinthians 11:19a, “

For there must be also heresies among you...

” What a remarkable statement! The Bible says that we NEED heresies! We NEED false teachers! Wow! The reason why is stated in the last portion of 1st Corinthians 11:19b, “...

that they which are approved may be made manifest among you.

When someone preaches heresy, it provides a canvas against which a man who is learned in the Scripture can refute it and paint THE TRUTH!!! I love Paul’s depth of understanding. The apostle understood that we need false teachers, so that true men of God could refute those false teachings to convey THE TRUTH to people.

The Bible never ceases to amaze me, so full of wisdom and truth.

2.8.17 It Is Our Differences As Human Beings Which Cause Conflict (2021-08-14 00:30)

Luke 10:38-42, “

Now it came to pass, as they went, that he entered into a certain village: and a certain woman named Martha received him into her house.

And she had a sister called Mary, which also sat at Jesus’ feet, and heard his word.

But Martha was cumbered about much serving, and came to him, and said, Lord, dost thou not care that my sister hath left me to serve alone? bid her therefore that she help me.

And Jesus answered and said unto her, Martha, Martha, thou art careful and troubled about many things:

But one thing is needful: and Mary hath chosen that good part, which shall not be taken away from her.

I was thinking today about the times in my life when people hurt my feelings, unintentionally, simply because they thought differently than I did. So many times we get our feelings hurt because we expect other people to respond to a situation the same way that we would. I have learned painfully in my life that people usually don't think or respond the way I do, and that has oftentimes caused pain, missed opportunities and misunderstandings. So I have learned to just let people be people, and not to expect anything of them. I try to focus completely on Jesus Christ. Hebrews 12:2, “Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

I was trying to think today of an example in the Bible of someone who got their feelings hurt, because they sincerely thought differently than someone else. I remembered Martha, who is one of my favorite saints in the Bible. I like Martha because I can relate to her. ...

> Luke 10:38-42, “Now it came to pass, as they went, that he entered into a certain village: and a certain woman named Martha received him into her house. And she had a sister called Mary, which also sat at Jesus' feet, and heard his word. But Martha was cumbered about much serving, and came to him, and said, Lord, dost thou not care that my sister hath left me to serve alone? bid her therefore that she help me. And Jesus answered and said unto her, Martha, Martha, thou art careful and troubled about many things: But one thing is needful: and Mary hath chosen that good part, which shall not be taken away from her.”

Martha saw Jesus coming toward her home and gladly welcomed the Lord into her home. Martha was so happy. She went immediately into the kitchen, no doubt busily preparing a meal for the Savior, waiting hand and foot upon her guests. But Martha became frustrated, seeing that she was doing all the work, while her younger sister Mary was sitting at Jesus' feet eager to hear His words. Like me, Martha was very sincere. As she was serving her guests alone, she began to wonder why Jesus was okay with her doing all the work, while her sister Mary did nothing. Martha began to think that Jesus didn't care.

Carefully notice what Martha said to Jesus in Luke 10:40b, “Lord, dost thou not care”? Have you ever said that to God? I admit that I have. I have oftentimes in my frustration asked God if He really cares about me, because I sincerely didn't feel like He cared. It is because we sincerely THINK DIFFERENTLY as human beings that we often have conflicts with one another, get our feelings hurt, and sometimes

and even angry with each other. One of the important lessons to learn in life is to let people be people, and not to expect other people to think as we do, because they never will.

My former wife divorced me in 2006. She has never really apologized to me. For many years I held that against her, because I felt that she wasn't truly sorry for the pain, loss and suffering that she has caused me. But God opened my eyes in recent years to show me that she doesn't think the way I do. I am a completely different type of person than she is. I am deeply passionate, a deep thinker and an emotional man; but she is not like me at all. She is not a bad person, she just doesn't have the deep feelings that I do, so she cannot reciprocate the depth of feelings that I have for anything. By understanding this truth and letting her be herself, we are able to be friends, because she is the mother of our four children.

I have attempted many times in my life to become close friends with pastors. I sincerely contact them with a letter, but they either don't respond or don't want to be friends with me. I poured my heart out to a pastor in Chicago over 30 years ago, expressing a difficult time I was having at the time, sharing some of my burdens with him, and my desire to be his friend. In hindsight, I was a young man having an emotional crisis in my life, and I needed a mentor. This pastor was old enough to be my father. To my dismay and sorrow of heart he never even bothered to write back.

I found out about a year later, as I expressed my grief one day to my former wife, that she had contacted him without me knowing, because she knew the pain I was enduring at that time in my life. She asked the older pastor why he refused to reply to my letter. His response was: "I don't even contact my own church members, so why would I contact your husband.

" My wife comforted my heart and told me that the older pastor was cold-hearted and had a problem. She was absolutely right.

So you see, I speak from personal experience. I never would have written to him unless I had sincerely thought that he would respond, but he didn't. So now when I do anything I am not surprised when people don't respond the way I think they should. I admit that God is still working on this area of my life. I still get caught off guard sometimes, wondering why people don't respond the way that I think they should. Like Martha, I sometimes wonder why people don't behave the way I think they should. Dear friend, I encourage you to LOOK TO JESUS, THE AUTHOR AND FINISHER OF OUR FAITH, and take your eyes off of people, because people will ALWAYS let you down and disappoint you.

I thought about another example of someone in the Bible getting their feelings hurt. Jesus Himself became emotionally hurt, bringing Him to tears...

John 11:25-35, "Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live:

And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this?

She saith unto him, Yea, Lord: I believe that thou art the Christ, the Son of God, which should come into the world.

And when she had so said, she went her way, and called Mary her sister secretly, saying, The Master is come, and calleth for thee.

As soon as she heard that, she arose quickly, and came unto him.

Now Jesus was not yet come into the town, but was in that place where Martha met him.

The Jews then which were with her in the house, and comforted her, when they saw Mary, that she rose up hastily and went out, followed her, saying, She goeth unto the grave to weep there.

Then when Mary was come where Jesus was, and saw him, she fell down at his feet, saying unto him, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

When Jesus therefore saw her weeping, and the Jews also weeping which came with her, he groaned in the spirit, and was troubled,

And said, Where have ye laid him? They said unto him, Lord, come and see.

Jesus wept*.

Jesus wept because these people thought very differently than He did. They doubted Him. The Lord had sincerely told Martha to go tell her sister Mary to come to Him. But in turn, Jesus got His feelings hurt and cried. Have you ever had that happen friend, where you were glad to see someone, but then they made you cry? I have had that happen. Jesus was happy to see Mary again, but she doubted Him, as did the people, bringing Him to tears.

2.8.18 I Cannot Help Those Who Won’t Help Themselves (2021-08-14 20:00)

Titus 3:9-11, “

But avoid foolish questions, and genealogies, and contentions, and strivings about the law; for they are unprofitable and vain.

A man that is an heretick after the first and second admonition reject;

Knowing that he that is such is subverted, and sinneth, being condemned of himself.

I receive many emails from people who tell me all about the problems in their life. Literally, they write me book length emails. Those of you who know me know that I tend to write long emails myself. I am a very expressive person. I love to help people.

I am not sure why, but I’ve noticed that there are two groups of people. The first group are like a sponge that absorb all the sermons, books and writings that I share with them, and they grow in the Lord. I have replied to countless emails, where they’ll write back a few months later, to let me know that they are growing in Christ, attending a local church, 100 % sure they are now saved, and they just want to thank me for helping them months earlier, and for my website ministry. I love emails like that!

But then there is a second group, who usually write back in the next day or two, telling me all about the same problems in their life, but they didn’t take the time to look and listen to the resources I sent them. They are like hardened clay. The same sun that melts the wax hardens the clay! Some people’s hearts are as wax, eager to learn the truth. But others have hearts like clay, which become harder and harder as the truth is handed to them on a golden platter.

Dear friend, I cannot help someone who refuses to take the wise advise that I give them. I have spent hours just responding to one email, because I care. It frustrates me when they write back just a day later, telling about all their same problems, worries and doubt, and I know that they didn’t take the time to study all the several dozen hours of books, sermons and writings that I sent them. That tells me that they don’t really want my help. They might be lazy. They might like griping. They might be insincere. The Bible says they are subverted of them self. Titus 3:11, “

A man that is an heretick after the first and second admonition reject;

Knowing that he that is such is subverted, and sinneth, being condemned of himself.

A man wrote to me the other day. He said that demons are working in his life. He said that he has dreams and battles evil thoughts. He said he cannot settle the assurance of his salvation. He said that he contacted a local Baptist church, but they shirked him off and said he needs psychiatric help. That is what he told me! I kindly wrote him back and told him that no pastor is qualified to say that someone “ needs a

Only a legally licensed trained doctor can make such an assertion.

I never assume that such a person is crazy, insincere or wasting my time. I figure if they were willing to take the time to type me a long email, the least I can do is give them the benefit of the doubt and write them back.

So I poured out my heart and spent a couple hours replying to him. I wanted to help him, as a friend at midnight. I sent him dozens of books and sermons about salvation. I sent him many helpful quotes, Christian websites and writings by fundamentalist preachers to help him. I sent him a few links to some of my favorite preacher’s sermons, encouraging him to start listening to one sermon a day from now on, so he could walk with wise men to become wise.

The man emailed me back the very next day, saying that he doesn’t like to read. Oh brother! He said that nothing has helped him in the past. He said that he is at the end of his rope in desperation and he doesn’t know what to do. You see, that guy definitely has a problem. I cannot help someone like that who won’t even listen to the sermons I send him. You cannot help someone who has a closed mind, who won’t even lift a finger to read and listen to the truth. No one’s mind becomes broken in a day! Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) used to rightly say: “Behind every tragedy in human character is a slow process of wicked thinking!”

If your mind is broken—confused, having conflicting thoughts, depressed, down, battling evil thoughts, afraid, panicked, et cetera—the Bible teaches in Romans 12:2b, “ be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.

2nd Corinthians 10:5-6, “Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ; And having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.”

When a sinful thought enters into your mind, captivate that thought! You arrest it! Freeze it! Refuse to allow that sinful thought of hate, lust, envy, stealing or pride to reside in your mind! The best way to counter those sinful thoughts is to memorize Bible verses. If you think a lustful thought, then immediately counter it with 1st Peter 2:11,

“Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul;” If you think a hateful thought, then counter it with Ephesians 4:30-32, “And grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption. Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice: And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you." Commit these Bible verses to memory!

> Psalms 1:1-6, "Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful. But his delight is in the law of the LORD; and in his law doth he meditate day and night. And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper. The ungodly are not so: but are like the chaff which the wind driveth away.
>
> Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous. For the LORD knoweth the way of the righteous: but the way of the ungodly shall perish."

What a beautiful passage of Scripture! Ungodly people are blown about in life, having no roots. Ah, but the man who meditates in the Word of God day and night, shall be as a tree planted with deep strong roots. The King James Bible is the answer to all the problems in your life!!! I love helping people, which is why I started my website ministry in 2002.

by a river

I have received countless precious emails from people who used to hate me. They hated my offensive website, but they kept returning to see what I had to say. Over the years the truth worked on them. A seed had been planted. The Holy Spirit convicted them and they got saved and now love me dearly. I love testimonies like that! That is the power of the Gospel and the Holy Spirit, not me.

Many pastors don't like my websites because they're afraid they'll be next! I feel bad when I hear stuff like that, because God knows it has never been my intention to scrutinize pastors and expose them on the internet. But folks, the Bible commands us as believers to "earnestly contend for the faith" (Jude 1:3b). Ephesians 5:11b exhorts believers "have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them." Titus 1:13b commands believers to "rebuke them sharply who subvert whole households, that they may be sound in the faith." How then do most pastors today have nothing negative to say against other preachers who corrupt the simplicity that is in Christ, like Dr. John MacArthur?

Why don't Baptist pastors cry aloud against the "Lordship" salvation preached at Bob Jones University? Why are today's pastors eerily silent about churches and Bible colleges (like Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary) who use, sell and promote the Devil's Bible versions? These are not mere weaknesses in pastors folks, this is woeful ignorance of the Word of God which destroys men (2nd Peter 3:16-17). I am a much hated and despised internet preacher, because I care about the little details. I think that right doctrine matters! I have a big mouth (or big fingers). When a Bible preacher cries aloud against heresy, names the names of false teachers, refuses to compromise, and says it like it is, he makes many enemies, as I have over the decades! I have been running my big mouth in cyberspace for the past 19 years, and by God's grace I plan to keep running my mouth until the Lord takes me home to Heaven to be with Him (John 14:1-3).

As I often do, I am listening to a sermon as I type this article. I am listening to Pastor Jack Hyles' helpful sermon: " [1]How To Walk With God .

” It is wonderful. It breaks my heart to see fools like Taylor Swift and other raunchy entertainers, have hundreds of millions of views for just one video. Yet, some of the greatest sermons I’ve ever heard have 59 views on YouTube. This just shows the dire spiritual condition of the United States in 2021. We are on the verge of destruction!

Pastor Steven Anderson’s 6,500 sermons were all hatefully deleted by YouTube. It is wickedness!!! When transvestites’ are [2]allowed to promote their despicable filth on YouTube (Yes, that is a dude!), but Bible preachers are censored and banned, you know that a country is at its lowest point before utter chaos and destruction comes. Nikkie (the author of the preceding YouTube channel is [3]making millions of dollars on YouTube). YouTube is deciding what is “hate speech,” but they do not know what is good or evil, only God does. There is nothing more hateful and evil than teaching little children that it is okay for a biological boy at birth to get surgery to become a female. I say that kindly with love. Love is teaching children the inspired Word of God. God is love! It is the Devil who is blocking Pastor Anderson’s Bible preaching, and allowing sodomites to preach their wickedness. You know that a nation is gone spiritually when pastors are labeled as haters for preaching the Bible.

Anyway, that is a different sermon for another day. Dear reader, I am not the only one who cannot help someone who won’t help them self. God Himself said the same thing in the Bible. 2nd Timothy 2:13, “

If we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself. ” Even God cannot help someone who doesn’t want to be helped. God never sends anybody to Hell who didn’t CHOOSE to go there by knowingly rejecting Jesus Christ (Revelation 20:11-15).

In other words, our attitude is everything! I think that is why most believers get saved at a young age, because children don’t have negative attitudes like adults do. I was saved at age 13. Pastor Jack Hyles was saved at age 11. Pastor Steven Anderson was saved at age 6. Adults often become skeptical, critical, proud and stubborn. Dear friend, I encourage you to become as a child. Matthew 18:3, “ And said, Verily I say unto you, Except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven.” [4]Simply humble yourself to receive Jesus Christ as your personal Savior. Humble yourself in your life to listen to Bible preaching, and you will grow in grace and truth friend.

2.8.19 Jesus Christ Is Our Sabbath In Whom We Rest For Salvation (2021-08-15 22:39)

Galatians 4:3-6, “Even so we, when we were children, were in bondage under the elements of the world:

But when the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, made of a woman, made under the law,

To redeem them that were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of sons.

And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father." Hebrews 4:9-11, "There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God.

For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his.

Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief."

I had never paid close attention to Galatians 4:3-6 before. God created the universe as we know it today in six days, and then rested from His works on the seventh day. God did this intentionally to make a type. A "type" in Scripture is a person or thing in the Old Testament that foreshadows a person or thing in the New Testament. God patterned mankind's work week in accordance with God's six days of labor in creation. This is fascinating if you think about it. The Bible teaches that God created mankind in HIS OWN IMAGE. Genesis 1:27, "So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them."

But wait there's more! Not only did God create man in His own image, but He also designed the solar system, time and the seasons as a pattern for humanity to follow. Exodus 34:21, "Six days thou shalt work, but on the seventh day thou shalt rest: in earing time and in harvest thou shalt rest."

That is so amazing! The Lord Himself worked for six days, and that is the number of days that God intended for mankind to labor.

And then there is a much needed day of rest, a time to reflect upon the six days of labor and be proud of one's accomplishments. There is nothing as frustrating as having a job (work to do) that does not produce a joyous feeling of satisfaction at the end of the week. Many people hate their jobs (their work) and do not enjoy their labors. I do not believe that God ever intended for men to do work that does not bring them fulfillment and satisfaction in some capacity. It is true that the person who finds work to do which they enjoy will never have to another day in their life. I work night and day on my website ministry, but to me it does not feel like work at all, because I love and enjoy what I do for Christ.

Man laboring for six days is a type of human self-righteousness. The Sabbath Day is a type of Jesus Christ in Whom we completely rest for salvation. Even in Creation we see the Gospel so beautifully symbolized, that is, a person is saved by ceasing from their own dead works and wholly rest in Christ. Acts 10:43,

"To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins. " Don't ever let anyone (e.g., Robert Breaker or Peter S. Ruckman) tell you that people were saved by works in the Old Testament. As we just read in Acts 10:43b,

"all the prophets" testified that salvation has always been through faith alone in Christ alone.

The Hebrews were slaves in Egypt. They were in cruel bondage to the world. Egypt in the Bible always pictures the unregenerate sinful world. Galatians 4:3-6, "Even so we, when we were children, were in bondage under the elements of the world:

But when the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, made of a woman, made under the law,

To redeem them that were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of sons.

And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father."

Jesus was made under the Law. That is, He was born in the Old Testament.

If Jesus had sinned even one time, He would have been under the curse of the Law, just like every other unsaved person. But Jesus perfectly kept the Law, as only the God-man could do. [1]Beware of Pastor John MacArthur, who errantly teaches that Jesus didn't have God's blood flowing in His veins! Friend, Jesus was born of a virgin (Matthew 1:23). That means that God the Father was literally Jesus' biological Father. Of course Jesus had God's blood flowing in His veins, which means Christ did NOT have the sin nature as you and I do, inherited from Adam (Romans 5:12). Jesus was the sinless, spotless, perfect Lamb of God (John 1:29; 1st Peter 2:21-22).

Galatians 4:3-6, "Even so we, when we were children, were in bondage under the elements of the world:

But when the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, made of a woman, made under the law,

T*o redeem them that were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of sons*.

And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father."

What a blessed truth! Dear reader, if you are a child of God, do you realize that you and I were once in bondage as slaves to this wicked world, but Christ has redeemed from under the Law to make us adopted sons of God? I get bubbly just thinking about it!

In the Old Testament God was known as Jehovah, Lord, Yahweh, et cetera; but in the New Testament He is know by every child of God as, Abba, Papa, Father. Our dear Savior invites us to boldly come before the heavenly throne of grace for help in our time of need:

> Hebrews 4:14-16,
> **"
> Seeing then that we have a great high priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession.
> For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin.
> Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need*.
> **"

Jesus today is our Sabbath! There is no Sabbath Day anymore (Colossians 2:14-16). The Seventh-Day Adventist religion is a cult that worship the Sabbath Day. Colossians 2:14-17,

Blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross;

And having spoiled principalities and powers, he made a shew of them openly, triumphing over them in it. Let no man therefore judge you in meat, or in drink, or in respect of an holyday, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath days:

Which are a shadow of things to come; but the body is of Christ*.

Old Testament Ceremonial Laws Were a “SHADOW” of Things to Come

Please notice Verse 17,

“ Which are a shadow of things to come; but the body is of Christ.

Hebrews 10:1, “ For the law having a shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually make the comers thereunto perfect.” The Bible is very plain in this matter. The Old Testament Law was a “shadow” of future things to come, and not the reality of those things. This is why WE ABSOLUTELKY KNOW that Jesus sprinkled His literal liquid blood upon the heavenly Mercy Seat (Hebrews 12:24), because that is exactly what the Old Testament high priest did:

> Leviticus 16:14-15, “And he shall take of the blood of the bullock, and sprinkle it with his finger upon the mercy seat eastward; and before the mercy seat shall he sprinkle of the blood with his finger seven times.
>
> Then shall he kill the goat of the sin offering, that is for the people, and bring his blood within the vail, and do with that blood as he did with the blood of the bullock, and sprinkle it upon the mercy seat, and before the mercy seat: ”

Yet, Dr. John MacArthur and Pastor R.B. Thieme Jr. (1918-2009) [2]sinfully teach that Jesus DIDN’T bring any blood to Heaven. Dr. MacArthur calls it “

superstitious

to teach that Jesus’ blood is in Heaven. Pastor MacArthur is a false teacher!

Jesus is our Sabbath today! There is no Sabbath Day to observe in the New Testament. The Sabbath was an Old Testament Ceremonial Law intended only for a specifically people, the Jews. It was to be observed in a specific region, the Holy Land. Those religions today who foolishly emphasize the Sabbath are detracting from Christ Himself, of Whom the Sabbath foreshadowed. The Seventh-Day Adventist religion remind me of a child to whom a Christmas gift is given, but the child is more infatuated with the wrapping than the actual gift...lol.

The same is true of proponents of “Lordship” salvation. They are more enamored with the Law than they are with Christ. Romans 10:3-4, “

For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God.

For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth.

" Galatians 3:24-26 teaches that the Law serves its purpose by bringing sinful men to Christ to be saved by grace. Once a man has been born-again through faith in Jesus Christ, the law no longer has any power over that man.

What a beautiful truth! God is more than amazing. Our blessed Savior did all this for us because He loves us. GOD LOVES YOU!!! I said God loves you! He sure does. Dear friend, Creation itself teaches us God's simple plan of salvation—cease from your own works and rest wholly in Jesus' name

. ...

> My hope is built on nothing less
> Than Jesus Christ, my righteousness;
> I dare not trust the sweetest frame,
> But wholly lean on Jesus' name.
> On Christ, the solid Rock, I stand;
> All other ground is sinking sand,
> All other ground is sinking sand.

2.8.20 The Gospel Is The Narrow Way And The Strait Gate (2021-08-16 09:30)

Matthew 7:13-15, "Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat: Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it. Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves." Luke 13:23-24, "Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them, Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able."

I have observed an astonishing phenomena in Baptist churches my entire life—pastors and congregations embracing and tolerating the most heretical of doctrines. The Apostle Paul said that they didn't tolerate the perverse gospel even for one hour. Galatians 2:4-5, " And that because of false brethren unawares brought in, who came in privily to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage:

To whom we gave place by subjection, no, not for an hour; that the truth of the gospel might continue with you*. " I wish we had more caring Christians today, like Paul, who understand the importance of nipping heresy in the bud quickly, lest it take root and spread.

Paul tells us why he refused to tolerate heresy in verse 5—that THE TRUTH OF THE GOSPEL might continue. Paul understood that a little leaven leaventh the whole lump. Galatians 5:7-9, "Ye did run well; who did hinder you that ye should not obey the truth? This persuasion cometh not of him that calleth you. A little leaven leaveneth the whole lump." Paul is speaking about the truth of the Gospel here. The apostle is rebuking the churches of Galatia for allowing a religious cult to infiltrate and find acceptance with them. Paul warns them that a little ferment (bacteria) will eventually spoil the whole (whether it be bread, juice or a local church). Heresy is just like cancer, it spreads, destroying good tissue as it progresses. Paul is teaching believers the importance of Bible doctrinal soundness. Paul is effectively saying, "

With these truths in mind, it will help us to better understand the Lord's words of warning in Matthew 7:13-15. Jesus said that "few" people ever find the narrow way unto eternal life. [1]Evangelist Ray Comfort perverts this passage of Scripture, errantly teaching that the " narrow way

refers to living a separated life from sin. Dear reader, that is not what Jesus meant. The way is narrow because men complicate everything, and the Gospel is very simple (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4). How simple? Read for yourself in John 3:16,

"For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. " Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do.

Yet, Ray Comfort horribly teaches that you must turn away from your sinful behavior, and [2]LIVE A LIFESTYLE of abstaining from sin your entire life, to prove that your faith is genuine. Ray Comfort is preaching the Devil's lies of John Calvin (aka, Calvinism). If you have to look at your life to prove that you are saved, it proves that you're not! We are saved by God's righteousness through faith alone in Christ (Philippians 3:9). My friend, you don't have to turn away from your sins to be saved, you must be 100 % sinless and perfect. That is why when asked who can be saved, Jesus said it is IMPOSSIBLE!!! ...

>
> And again I say unto you, It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.
>

So you see, you cannot save yourself, nor does God permit you to play any part in getting saved, except to get out of the way and rest in the finished redemptive work of Christ (Hebrews 4:10-11). Christ died on the cross, was buried and three days later He physically resurrected from the dead. This is the Gospel, the GOOD NEWS (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Getting saved is so free, easy and simple that even a small child can do it (2nd Timothy 3:15). Pastor John MacArthur's false plan of salvation is [3]so costly, hard and complicated, that [4]he says children cannot be saved. This is why Jesus called the Gospel "the narrow way," and said "strait is the gate" which leadeth unto life. ...

> “The true Gospel always points you to Christ; a false gospel always points to you.”
> —[5]Pastor Dennis Rokser

Millions of phony churches around the world have been infiltrated, corrupted and destroyed by the Devil’s lies of [6]Wrong Repentance, [7]Lordship Salvation and doing Good Works to be saved. It never ceases to frustrate me to hear advocates of Lordship Salvation (which sadly includes the corrupt [8]Bob Jones University crowd), still maintain that salvation is by grace alone, while adding a bunch of requirements to faith that God doesn’t ask. Adding anything more to God’s simple plan of salvation by childlike faith is a perversion of God’s grace. Please read this excellent sermon excerpt from Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) called, ’[9]A Perversion Of The Gospel: Lordship Salvation.’ Also, I highly recommend these 100 % Gospel accurate sermon videos by [10]Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold. Thank God for free grace Gospel preachers!!!

Jesus warned in Matthew 7:13-14 that “few” people will be in Heaven in eternity. In Luke 13:23-24 Jesus said that “many” people will seek to enter into the gates of Heaven, but will be denied entrance. Can you imagine? It will be horrific. There will be lifelong missionaries, pastors and religious people by the billions, all trying to enter into the Pearly City, but won’t be able to. Why? Jesus gives us the answer:

> Matthew 7:21-23, “Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity.”

What is the heavenly Father’s will? I’m glad you asked my fine non-feathered friend. Jesus again gives us the answer in John 6:40, “And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day. ” God’s will is to simply BELIEVE (rely, rest upon) Jesus to have the free gift of eternal life. That is why Jesus said the way is narrow and the gate is strait, because it is so simple to be saved that most men miss it. That is what it means to be “ fallen from grace

” in Galatians 5:4. Advocates of the heresies of Wrong Repentance and Lordship Salvation are fallen from grace

they have missed the only bus going to Heaven, they are subverted of themselves, hellbound in their partial faith in Christ plus: turning from sins, following Jesus, surrendering all to Christ as

“

Lord,

” paying the cost, running the race faithfully to the end and exchanging all that you are for all that Christ is.

Literally, all of the preceding unbiblical additional requirements to be saved are what Steve Pettit, John MacArthur, Ray Comfort and Marty Herron preach. I have all their damnable quotes!!!

Oh why won't churchgoers wake up and heed the truth that I (and free grace preachers like me) preach from the Word of God?

God does not save anyone who has partial faith in Christ. I like to use the Chair Illustration. Let's say for the sake of illustration (humor me), that you need to replace a defective lightbulb in your home. You don't have a step ladder, so you use a chair. I've often done that myself. How much faith do you need to get up upon the chair? Just enough to actually do it! Likewise, that is all the faith you need to be saved, JUST ENOUGH to obey God by believing (placing your reliance upon) the GOOD NEWS of Christ crucified on the cross, buried and bodily risen three days later for our justification. Come to God as a guilty sinner and believe the Gospel and you are saved!!! It's that simple oh sinner.

Now, it wouldn't matter if you had 99 % doubt in a chair's ability to hold you up, you would be placing no less than 100 % of your faith in the chair if you stood upon it unaided. Faith is not the presence of optimism, it is the presence of obedience. I may not have much confidence in a chair, but if I get up and place all my weight upon it, I have trusted it completely! The same is true with receiving God's gift of eternal life. The Lord doesn't demand that you rid your mind of all doubts and fears. It wouldn't be faith without doubts and concerns. Faith is taking God at His Word, as written in the Holy Bible, simply receiving Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins. Isn't that simple and beautiful.

As hard as it is for many people to grasp, it is possible to serve Jesus your entire life and still burn in Hell forever. That is exactly what we see in Matthew 7:21-23. These were not bad people! They were not criminals. They tried to defend themselves at the judgment, telling Jesus that they did "MANY WONDERFUL WORKS" throughout their earthly life. They even called Jesus "LORD, LORD" (there's your Lordship Salvation crowd in the Bible). Jesus heard all their excuses. These were dedicated religious people, wholly committed to serving Christ. Yet, look at the horrifying words Jesus said to them in verse 23, "I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity." Will Jesus also someday deny knowing you as one of His sheep? YE MUST BE BORN AGAIN (John 3:7). To read more about the simplicity of the Gospel, please read the excellent book by Michael P. Bowen, '[11]I NEVER KNEW YOU.'

You now know THE TRUTH and can become (if you're not already), one of THE FEW. Our churches today are filled with deceived people, who think that they have a part in saving themselves, by continuing to prove that their faith is real by living a holy life. Dear friend, what would be the evidence that my faith is real to stand upon a chair? Why, it would be the very act of me getting up to stand on the chair. Likewise, the evidence of a person's genuine faith in Jesus is faith itself, and nothing else!

The heretical notion that a professed believer is required to prove the reality of their faith, by faithfully running the race (living the Christian life) is a false gospel. This is classic Calvinist heresy! The Bible says a believer SHOULD serve Christ; Calvinism says a believer WILL serve Christ; Catholics say you MUST do good works to be saved. JESUS PAID IT ALL!!! Self has no place in God's free simple plan of salvation. We are saved by God's imputed righteousness, and not by any goodness, effort, merit, sacrifice or self-righteousness of our own. We have nothing worthwhile to offer God (Isaiah 64:6). The ONLY thing that you and I contribute to salvation is the sin that made it necessary! Between me and the flames of Hell is the precious blood of Jesus which was shed on the cross of Calvary!

The narrow way and the strait gate is [12]the free grace Gospel.

2.8.21 Old Testament Ceremonial Laws Were a "SHADOW" of Things to Come (2021-08-17 00:30)

Colossians 2:14-17, "Blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross; And having spoiled principalities and powers, he made a shew of them openly, triumphing over them in it. Let no man therefore judge you in meat, or in drink, or in respect of an holyday, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath days: Which are a shadow of things to come; but the body is of Christ."

Jesus today is our Sabbath! There is no Sabbath Day anymore. The Sabbath was simply a SHADOW of the coming blessed Savior in Whom we rest for eternal life.

Kindly said, the Seventh-Day Adventist (SDA) religion is a pseudo-Christian cult that worship the Sabbath Day. SDA's falsely profess to be Christians. They are some of the sweetest people I have ever met, and loving folks, but they are deceived by Ellen G. White (their revered prophetess) and the Devil.

Please notice Colossians 2:17,

" Which are a shadow of things to come; but the body is of Christ.

Hebrews 10:1, " For the law having a shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually make the comers thereunto perfect." The Bible is very plain in this matter. The Old Testament Law was a

"shadow" of future things to come, and not the reality of those things. This is why WE ABSOLUTELKY KNOW that Jesus sprinkled His literal liquid blood upon the heavenly Mercy Seat (Hebrews 12:24), because that is exactly what the Old Testament high priest did:

> Leviticus 16:14-15, "And he shall take of the blood of the bullock, and sprinkle it with his finger upon the mercy seat eastward; and before the mercy seat shall he sprinkle of the blood with his finger seven times.
> Then shall he kill the goat of the sin offering, that is for the people, and bring his blood within the vail, and do with that blood as he did with the blood of the bullock, and sprinkle it upon the mercy seat, and before the mercy seat: "

Yet, Dr. John MacArthur and Pastor R.B. Thieme Jr. (1918-2009) [1]sinfully teach that Jesus DIDN'T bring any blood to Heaven. Dr. MacArthur calls it "

to teach that Jesus' blood is in Heaven. Pastor MacArthur is a false teacher!

Jesus is our Sabbath today! There is no Sabbath Day to observe in the New Testament. The Sabbath was an Old Testament Ceremonial Law intended only for a specifically people, the Jews. It was to be observed in a specific region, the Holy Land. Those religions today who foolishly emphasize the Sabbath are detracting from Christ Himself, of Whom the Sabbath foreshadowed. The Seventh-Day Adventist religion remind me of a child to whom a Christmas gift is given, but the child is more infatuated with the wrapping than the actual gift...lol.

The same is true of proponents of "Lordship" salvation. They are more enamored with the Law than they are with Christ. Romans 10:3-4, "

For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God.

For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth.

" Galatians 3:24-26 teaches that the Law serves its purpose by bringing sinful men to Christ to be saved by grace. Once a man has been born-again through faith in Jesus Christ, the law no longer has any power over that man.

What a beautiful truth! God is more than amazing. Our blessed Savior did all this for us because He loves us. GOD LOVES YOU!!! I said God loves you! He sure does. Dear friend, Creation itself teaches us God's simple plan of salvation—cease from your own works and rest wholly in Jesus' name

. ...

My hope is built on nothing less

Than Jesus Christ, my righteousness;

I dare not trust the sweetest frame,

But wholly lean on Jesus' name.

On Christ, the solid Rock, I stand;

All other ground is sinking sand,

All other ground is sinking sand.

God took six days to create the world as we know it today. The Lord could have just snapped His fingers, or said a single word, or just thought the thought, and the universe would have came into existence. But God deliberately chose to take six days! That is very interesting and intriguing

. In hindsight, it is obvious why God chose to take six days to create the world. God did this so we could understand His plan of salvation. In order for an artist to paint a picture, he must first start with a blank canvas, to provide contrast. This is why the Apostle Paul made this brilliant observation in 1st Corinthians 11:19, "For there must be also heresies among you, that they which are approved may be made manifest among you.

" Isn't that precious? The Bible teaches that we NEED heretics! We NEED false teachers! Wow. That blew my mind when I read this Bible verse. I love the honesty and deep truths in the Bible.

Likewise, God established the six-day work week so that He could contrast that with completely ceasing from all our labors and resting in the seventh day, which represents resting in Christ for eternal life.

Hebrews 4:9-11, "There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God.

For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his.

Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief." The only sin which can keep a man out of Heaven is "unbelief." Therefore, the only thing that you need to repent from to get saved is

UNBELIEF.

" When a preacher tells you to repent of your sins,

requiring you to turn away from committing them to get to Heaven, he is preaching another gospel.

There are three different types of laws in the Bible:

- Ceremonial Laws (shadows of the future; only for the Jews in the Old Testament)
- Civil Laws (designed to get along with each other; justice, penalties, restitution laws)
- Moral Laws (evil versus good; these laws never change)

Old Testament Ceremonial Laws were all a SHADOW of things to come in the future. There were also Civil Laws (upon which every court system in the world is based), and also Moral Laws (which never change). Of the Ten Commandments, nine were moral and one was ceremonial (the Sabbath Day). So there are only Nine Commandments today that are applicable. Today we honor God on Sunday, the Lord's Day, which is the first day of the week (not the Sabbath, which was the seventh day).

2.8.22 Be A Childish, Juvenile Adult (2021-08-17 11:29)

Here is chapter one from Pastor Jack Hyles' excellent book, "Grace And Truth"...

A child is not a complete person. He cannot enjoy many things that maturity will allow him to enjoy. For him many wonderful, enriching experiences yet wait that he cannot enjoy until he reaches adolescence and adulthood.

The adolescent is not a complete person, for there are many rich and satisfying endeavors that can be enjoyed only by adults.

The adult may or may not be a complete person; that choice is up to him.

The child-adolescent-adult is a complete person. This is a person who, when he became an adolescent did not substitute adolescence for childhood, but ADDED adolescence to childhood. Then when adulthood came, he did not substitute adulthood for adolescence but rather added adulthood to adolescence and childhood. He retained his childhood enjoyment and added to it the enjoyments of adolescence. He then retained his childhood and adolescent enjoyments and added to them adult enjoyments. He then became the complete person with a complete set of appetites, delights and fulfillments.

Why riot make a list of all the enjoyments unique to childhood. Have you retained them, or did you trade them for the enjoyments of youth? Everyone enjoys a teenager who, while possessing the maturity of youth, still possesses the excitement, exuberance and warmth of a child. We all know of adults who have added adolescence to childhood and adulthood to adolescence. This may be what charisma really is. There is a bit of little boy in every attractive adult male personality. There is an obvious pleasance or a bit of adolescence in every adult male personality. Likewise the attractive woman has a bit of little girl in her. She also has retained the flavor of adolescence in her mature, adult personality.

In many of our schools the best teaching is done in the lower grades. Such teachers can appeal to a child because they have retained a bit of childhood in their personalities. The same is true with a youth worker. Perhaps a youth worker is one who has kept his youth while becoming an adult. He was not willing to sacrifice youth for maturity and adulthood, but rather chose to retain his youth while adding the maturity of adulthood.

Think for a moment of some people whose presence you enjoy the most. Notice carefully and you will see that these people are childish, juvenile adults. This is why little children enjoy their presence. This is the reason that young people love to be with them and that other childish, juvenile adults enjoy their company. To be sure, such a person may draw criticism from incomplete people. The suave teenager may not like the teenager who has retained a touch of childhood. The drab adult may not enjoy the presence of the childish, juvenile adult. Perhaps the incomplete man will even develop a jealousy for the complete man. This perhaps is prompted by envy and covetousness.

All of us know of a young person who has gone off to college and has come home a different person, much to the dismay and disappointment of his parents. We also know of a young person who has gone off to college to return the same person who is just more mature and able to enjoy more of life. Such people bring delight and satisfaction to their parents. A farmer worked hard to send his son to the state University. While working in the field one day a neighbor asked him if he had noticed any difference in his son since he had been to the university for a fear The farmer replied, "Yep. You ain't never seen so much change in one young'in'. Before he went to the university, when he would plow, he would say to the mule at the end of the row, 'Whoa, Reb. Turn around and giddup.' Now that he has been to the university for a year he says, 'Halt, Rebecca, pivot and proceed.'" (It is the opinion of this author that "the mule walked on.")

The childish, juvenile adult enlarges his potential for service to mankind. He is not a specialist able to work just with children, nor is he a specialist able to work just with teenagers, nor is he limited to working only with adults. He has enough child in him to work with children, enough youth in him to work with young people and enough maturity to work with adults. Fortunate is such a person and fortunate are those privileged to be near him.

I am thinking now of a great preacher whom I found one day playing hopscotch with some children. I think Of another great man of God whom I found One day Playing marbles with some junior boys. Such IL Person makes a better pastor, for he can appeal to all ages. He makes a better parent, for he can have the proper rapport with his children at every stage of development. He will have a richer life, for he will be able to enjoy the company of any age. He will be a better leader, for he will know the heartbeat of each follower. He will be a more desirable person, for all ages will enjoy his presence. He will be more versatile in that his appeal will span all of life. He will never really grow old, for even in his senior years, he will still in some ways be a little boy and a young man.

I think of my mother, who at this writing is 86 years of age; yet every time I talk to her I see the twinkling eye of a child, the mischievousness of childhood, the optimism and expectancy of a teenager, the glamour of a young woman, the endurance of youth and the wisdom of adulthood wrapped up in one personality. This is why she, at the age of 86, attracts little children and teenagers as well as adults. There are people in their forties who are older than Mother. She is a childish, juvenile adult who refused to trade the joys of childhood for the joys of adolescence, or the joys of adolescence for the joys of adulthood. She has retained them all and in so doing has kept her appeal to others and her enjoyment of others regardless of the age.

In 2nd Peter 3:18 we are admonished to grow in grace. The word "grow" could be better translated "increase." It means to keep what you have and add more. It is like a growing tree. While the tree adds branches, it keeps its trunk. While it adds leaves, it keeps its branches. It is like an army which takes ground. It does not give up what it had; it adds new land to the land that already has been conquered. In other words, growing in grace is "adding to," not "substituting for."

1. Do not exchange poverty for riches. The wise person will add riches to poverty. There are some enjoyments that are unique to poverty. How tragic it is when one gives up these enjoyments that are so rich that they cannot be bought with money in order to exchange them for things less valuable which can be bought with money. Such a person becomes poverty stricken because of his riches and trades that which cannot be bought by money for that which can be bought by money. This type of individual can be the poor rich man or the rich poor man.

I think of my good friend, Russell Anderson, from Ypsilanti, Michigan. Though his wealth enables him purchase whatever he would want, his wife Maxine still sews for the children and makes their clothes. She often trades at discount stores where the common person trades.

They often raise a garden. In other words, because they were once poor they learned the enjoyments of the poor. Now that they are wealthy they have kept their poverty and have doubled their enjoyment rather than substituted one for another.

2. Do not trade simplicity for profundity. Though every Person should strive to become as profound in profession and field as he possibly can, he should not with the acquiring of profundity discard the pleasures of simplicity. In reality no one can be profound who has not retained his simplicity, for he will be completely unable to transfer his profundity to others. Simplicity is the tool with which profundity is transferred. Simplicity is the conveyer by which profundity is transported. Without simplicity, profundity is a house built upon the sand.

Our Lord was the master at adding profundity to simplicity. He could take the deepest and most profound truths and wrap them with the simplest of terms. The deepest of doctrines were conveyed to us by such stories as a boy running off from home, a lady losing a coin, a lamb getting lost from the flock, a man going out to plow, a farmer sowing in the field, etc.

When one becomes profoundly simple, richly poor, simply complicated, discerningly naïve, weakly strong, conservatively aggressive, excitedly serious, unpredictably stable and unknowingly educated, he has arrived at a place to where he can live the rich life of being a childish, juvenile adult.

2.8.23 I Have Never Worked On My Website Ministry (2021-08-17 21:22)

Ecclesiastes 12:14,

“

For God shall bring every work into judgment*, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil.

Matthew 10:42,

“

And whosoever shall give to drink unto one of these little ones a cup of cold water only in the name of a disciple, verily I say unto you, he shall in no wise lose his reward.

John 9:4,

“

I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day*: the night cometh, when no man can work.

1st Corinthians 3:8,

“

Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one: and every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labour.

> “Find a job you enjoy doing, and you will never have to work a day in your life.”
>
> —Mark Twain

I love my work! I absolutely love my ministry work. In the year 2002 I was like a pregnant woman in labor. Like Jeremiah the prophet, the Word of God was as fire burning in my soul and I needed to PREACH!!! Jeremiah 20:9b, “But his word was in mine heart as a burning fire shut up in my bones, and I was weary with forbearing, and I could not stay.”

Jeremiah was itching to preach! The prophet had become discouraged from persecution. Jeremiah 20:7b, “

I am in derision daily, every one mocketh me.

I probably receive more hate mail than any preacher in cyberspace. I just give it all to Jesus,

“For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God

” (Colossians 3:3). That is why I don’t try to defend myself, because my critics are attacking Jesus according to Matthew 25:40b, “Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me.” My life is hid with Christ in God. Amen and amen.

Jeremiah had stopped preaching for a time. Ah, but the eternal truths of the Word of God burned in the prophet’s soul as a California forest fire! The ole boy couldn’t take it anymore and jumped up with his Bible in hand and started preaching. Thus saith the Lord!!! I love preaching. I have to do it. Like a fish needs water, and a bird needs to fly, I must preach the truth!!! Thank God that He called me before I was conceived to be a preacher of the Gospel.

Gratefully to God, Since 2002 when I began [1]my website ministry, I have never felt like I worked on it. God only knows how many tens of thousands of hours I have labored diligently over the past 19 years. I can confidently say that I have spent at least 50 hours a week on average labouring online for the past 19 years! I labor 7 days a week, night and day. My record marathon of laboring online is 40 hours straight! I couldn’t sleep and my heart burned, so I just worked my heart out, praising the Lord for the opportunity to be able do so! As the shepherd boy David said when the Philistine giant Goliath defied the God of Israel: “ [2]IS THERE NOT A CAUSE? ”

(an awesome sermon by Pastor Jack Hyles). I love laboring for God. This is not work to me, it is enjoyable. I love helping people! I love laboring for the King of kings!!!

Dear friend, we serve a God Who is more than amazing. Not only does God freely offer eternal life to whosoever wants it, simply for the taking by childlike faith; but God also offers us a wonderful incentive to lay up for ourselves treasures in Heaven if we’ll labor for the cause of Christ. Matthew 6:19-20, “Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal:

But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal:

For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.”

I love that last statement: For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also. You'd think that it would be the exact opposite. You would think that wherever your heart is, that is where you would spend your money and time. But the Bible doesn't say that. The Word of God teaches that where your treasure is (your time, money and investments), that will determine where your heart is also. Where is your heart dear reader?

God only knows how many nights I have fallen asleep working at my computer, waking up hours later with my face in my keyboard. I have fallen asleep with my hand on the keyboard, erasing entire articles and causing my computer to go wacky...lol. Really! So I try to avoid doing that. I have woken up hundreds of times in the middle of the night, with a truth burning in my soul that the Lord gave me, and I jumped out of bed to start writing an article.

I have an old neck injury which has ruined my life since 2004. I have worked countless times as the excruciating pain burned in my neck, and my rump hurt from sitting for several hours laboring. I have labored standing up, propping up my computer on a box so that I could work standing up, because I was so sore from sitting for so long. I do it all for Jesus!!! My eyes have gone nearsighted from sitting in front of a computer screen so much. So now I need to wear glasses to see far. I would gladly do it all again for Christ to reach people for Him. 2nd Corinthians 12:15, " And I will very gladly spend and be spent for you; though the more abundantly I love you, the less I be loved."

At countless times in my life when inexplicable pain weighed down heavily upon my heart, and I just felt like dying, I redirected that pain into my ministry, writing to use my pain as a fuel source for God to save souls and change lives. I always pray for God's Holy Spirit power to be upon my ministry. Without the influence of the Holy Spirit my labors are all in vain. Psalm 127:1, "Except the LORD build the house, they labour in vain that build it: except the LORD keep the city, the watchman waketh but in vain." I need You Lord! I need Your Holy Spirit power to speak to hearts as my words speak to minds.

I once heard Pastor Jack Hyles say that when you find work you are passionate about, you will know that you've found God's work for your life. For the past 19 years, since 2002, I have labored night and day at every opportunity as God's Holy Spirit works through me, to labor to reach people for Jesus Christ with THE TRUTH (Galatians 2:20). This is not work to me, it is my privilege to serve Jesus! I have never received a single penny, and I never will. This is a labor of love for Christ and people.

By God's grace, I CARE and I want the world to know it. YOU dear friend are my treasure. 2nd Corinthians 3:2, "Ye are our epistle written in our hearts, known and read of all men:" YOU are where my heart is, because I have invested my time, money and life into helping YOU. My heart is in my website ministry, and in all the people who've been beautifully saved and their lives changed by God through my humble labors. I am the clay, God is the Potter. I am the servant, He is my Lord. I am the prisoner of the Lord, I couldn't quit if a tried, because "his word was in mine heart as a burning fire..." (Jeremiah 20:9b).

2.8.24 We Ought Not Pray For Peace In Jerusalem (2021-08-18 00:30)

Psalm 122:6, “

Pray for the peace of Jerusalem: they shall prosper that love thee.

Isaiah 57:21, “

There is no peace, saith my God, to the wicked.

I was watching Pat Robertson on his 700 Club the other day. He said, “’Pray for the peace of Jerusalem,’ and then he quoted only the first part of Psalm 122:6.” But let’s read the rest of the Bible verse, “ they shall prosper that love thee. ” You see friend, this ungodly world expects God to bless wicked people. Isaiah 48:22 and 57:21 warn that THERE IS NO PEACE, SAITH MY GOD, TO THE WICKED!

Isaiah 3:11, “ Woe unto the wicked! it shall be ill with him: for the reward of his hands shall be given him.”

There is no Bible promise of peace in Jerusalem today. In fact, the Bible teaches the exact opposite! Luke 21:24, “And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations: and Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled. ” We are now living in the Times Of The Gentiles. This is illustrated in Nebuchadnezzar’s image in Daniel chapter two. In the dream, at the very end a stone cut without hands out of the mountain smashes the Gentile kingdoms of this world. That stone is Jesus Christ, King of kings and Lord of lords, Who is one day coming to set up His earthly Kingdom. Jesus will reign supreme from the city of Jerusalem over the entire world. We (all raptured saints) will reign with Him (Revelation 20:6).

Israel today is a very wicked nation! Tel Aviv has been nicknamed by the Huffington Post as the “Gay Mecca” of the world for sodomites. Less than 3 % of Israel’s inhabitants profess to be Christians, and that includes all the unsaved Roman and Orthodox Catholics, Mormons, Jehovah’s Witnesses, Seventh-Day Adventists, Church of Christ, et cetera. I dare say that 1 in 200 people are genuinely born-again in Jerusalem today! The Bible says in Psalm 1226: that THEY SHALL PROSPER THAT LOVE THEE! There is hardly any love in the great city where our Lord was crucified for the Lord Himself.

Jerusalem has become a tourist trap to make money! For a fee they will show you where Jesus’ brushed His teeth, made morning coffee and went jogging each day...lol. It is ridiculous to say the least. I have never been to Israel, but would love to go someday. I couldn’t care less about all the places where Jesus allegedly dwelt. But what does intrigue me is to know that our dear Savior walked somewhere in that city, and I’m sure He got around and went just about everywhere. I’d like to see the same sea of Galilee that He walked on, and the same sunset that He saw, and walk on the same dirt that He traveled upon. Someday, but not likely in this lifetime, I’d like to visit Israel. I admit that it sickens me when I hear about pastors who are living large, who have been to Israel a dozen times!

So do not pray for the peace of Jerusalem, because you are wasting your time friend. The Bible says that Israel WILL BE TRODDEN DOWN by the Gentiles until Christ returns at His Second Coming. Only then will the Lord Himself regather true saved Israel (Hosea 3:4-5). No unsaved Jew has any right to lay claim to the Promised Land. Romans 2:29, “For he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh:

But he is a Jew, which is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God.

” You are only a Bible Jew if you have been born-again dear friend.

Galatians 3:7, “ Know ye therefore that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham.”

What further saith the Scripture? Galatians 3:26,

“For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ. There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus. And if ye be Christ’s, then are ye Abraham’s seed, and heirs according to the promise.” The Holy Bible speaks very plainly in this matter. If your DNA is mostly that of a biological Jew, you are NOT of the seed of Abraham biblically unless you are in Jesus Christ by faith. That is what we just read! The promises made by God to Abraham’s seed only apply to those who are in Christ.

There will never be any peace in Israel until Jesus returns to cleanse that place of the stench of it’s sin and evil. [1]Pastor J. Vernon McGee (1904-1988) was right that Israel today is no different than any other heathen nation. I say that kindly and with love. I love Jewish people. I love Arabs. I love everywhere, regardless of who they are. God so loved THE WORLD that He gave His only begotten Son to die on Calvary’s cross to save them from sin and Hell. Dear friend, have you received that free gift? Jesus didn’t stay dead. Three days later He resurrected from the tomb into which His lifeless body had been laid to rest.

> Up from the grave He arose,
> With a mighty triumph o’er His foes,
> He arose a Victor from the dark domain,
> And He lives forever,
> With His saints to reign.
> He arose! He arose!
> Hallelujah! Christ arose!
> [2]Listen to song | [3]Cool Acapella (one man sings all the parts)

I have nothing against Jewish people. That is not why I wrote this blog. I don’t like when preachers lie. I don’t like hearing Pat Robertson manipulating the Word of God to fit his agenda. There is a sinful movement in America called “ which seeks to recruit churches and raise billions of dollars annually to support wicked, but God Himself does not support wicked Israel today. Consider what God said to His people in Exodus 19:5-6,

Zionism

“Now therefore, if ye will obey my voice indeed, and keep my covenant, then ye shall be a peculiar treasure unto me above all people: for all the earth is mine: And ye shall be unto me a kingdom of priests, and an holy nation. These are the words which thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel.” The key word there is

“if” God said “if ye will obey my voice,” then I will bless you! Y et over 95 % of Jews today reject Jesus as their Messiah, claiming that the messiah has not come yet. The Bible teaches that when the Man of Sin, the Antichrist comes, the Jews will embrace him as their False messiah. How sad!

I pray for the salvation of Israel, not for peace in their homeland. There will never be any true peace in Jerusalem until the Jews repent of their UNBELIEF and turn to Jesus Christ as their Messiah. Romans 5:1-2, " Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ: By whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God." Jesus is precious!

2.8.25 Interpreting Romans 8:1 Correctly (2021-08-18 15:54)

Romans 8:1,

" There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. "

I have heard some people cite this Scripture reference to defend " salvation. Taken by itself this verse can be used to teach that it is not enough to be in Christ; but also, some people claim that you must also walk after the Holy Spirit.

Lordship

However, it is very unwise to base a doctrine upon a single Bible verse. As a good example of why you shouldn't do this, please consider

Mark 16:16, "

He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned.

" The heretical Church of Christ cult, and other false teachers, often cite this Bible passage by itself, lifting the text out of context to create a new pretext. That is bad Bible interpretation!

The correct way to interpret the Word of God is to always compare Scripture with Scripture. If a suggested meaning of a particular Bible verse agrees with the whole of Scripture, then you know you've found the correct interpretation. But if a suggested meaning does not agree with the whole of Scripture, then you know your understanding of the single verse is wrong.

A good rule to follow when interpreting the Bible is to never use an obscure passage to contradict a clear one.

We know from the Gospel of John that there is no mention of water baptism with believing. In the Gospel of John we find the word "believe" mentioned 88 times, but there is no mention of doing anything else to receive eternal life. Also, consider what the Apostle Paul said in 1st Corinthians 1:17, "For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the gospel: not with wisdom of words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of none effect.

" Paul never would have said something like that if water baptism were necessary for salvation. Saints in the Old Testament were not water baptized to be saved. The repentant thief on the cross was not water baptized to be saved. The beloved Apostle John said he penned the Epistle of 1st John so that believers could “know that ye are saved” (1st John 5:13), yet not once does he mention anything about baptism to “

that we are saved. These are all plain evidenced that a person does NOT need to be water baptized to go to Heaven.

So we know that the Apostle Mark was not teaching that a person must believe AND be baptized to be saved in

Mark 16:16, “

He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned.

” The key part of the verse is that last phrase, but he that believeth not shall be damned.

” The emphasis is clearly upon believing, not baptism. Here we see the great importance of comparing Scripture with Scripture, and not foolishly lifting a particular text out of context to create a new pretext (heresy).

Likewise, the same is true of our text verse from Romans 8:1,

“ There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. ” By looking at other passages of Scripture we see that walking in the Spirit is NOT necessary to get to Heaven, being alive in the Spirit is enough (i.e., being saved). We see this important distinction made in Galatians 5:25, “ If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit.” The apostle would not even make such an appeal for believers (those who are alive in the Holy Spirit - Romans 8:9) to also walk in the Holy Spirit (i.e., yield to Him in obedience to God’s written Word - 2nd Corinthians 10:5-6) unless it were possible not to do so. There is not one believer in history who ALWAYS walked in the Spirit. When we don’t choose to walk in the Spirit, by nature we walk in the flesh (Romans 7:14-25).

What saith the Scripture? John 3:18, “He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God.” It is foolish to misinterpret Romans 8:1 contrary to the plain teaching of John 3:18. Romans 8:34,

Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us. ” The implied answer boldly shouts that Jesus Christ died for our sins on the cross, was buried, and He has triumphantly risen from the dead, interceding in Heaven as our High Priest; therefore, NO ONE in the universe can condemn us for any sins, because Christ has redeemed us from them all by faith alone! That is so beautiful!!!

I love this next Scripture! Acts 13:39, "And by him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses." Every child of God is JUSTIFIED FROM ALL THINGS!!! Dear friend, it should be obvious to you from these inspired passages of Scripture that walking after the Spirit is NOT required to be saved. Every believer is alive (quickened) by the Holy Spirit (Ephesians 2:1). That is, God's Holy Spirit lives inside (indwells) you and me as born-again Christians (1st John 3:24; 1st Corinthians 3:16-17). That is why no believer can ever be demon possessed. It is IMPOSSIBLE! A saint can be influenced by demons, but we cannot be taken over by them. The believer's body is the temple of the Holy Spirit, sealed and set apart (sanctified) unto the Lord. We see this in Job chapter one, where Satan could not do anything to harm Job without God's permission.

Every believer SHOULD walk in the Holy Spirit. God wants us to obey Him and keep the Old Testament Law out of a spirit of love, even though we are dead to the power of the Law to condemn us anymore. The believer is now under God's saving grace forever (Romans 5:20). So taken by itself Romans 8:1 can seem confusing, leading someone to think that living the Christian life is required to get to Heaven; but when we examine other passages of Scripture, it becomes plain to see that there is no condemnation to all who are alive in the Holy Spirit by faith alone in Jesus Christ. Acts 16:31b, "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved..."

2.8.26 The Internet Is Very Unreliable For Accurate Information (2021-08-19 09:30)

Acts 19:32, "

Some therefore cried one thing, and some another: for the assembly was confused; and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together.

In 2021, I am finding myself using the internet less and less to make decisions. Like many people, I am frustrated and disgusted by the lack of accurate information on the internet, As much as I like Google Blogspot, I have to give thumb's down for Google's search engine results, because much of the results are not relevant. Here's an example:

So are Minneapolis and Charlotte the best or worst places for dating? You simply cannot rely upon the internet for reliable information. I won't even get into searching for information on how to lose weight, except to say that Google will take you nowhere. You'll find thousands of worthless articles, most of which provide conflicting information that contradict other websites. What's the value of Google providing search results to umpteen websites that contradict each other? You'd think that Google's software algorithms would intelligently search for patterns, commonalities and the majority of websites that agree, and then show you that information.

Sadly, the same type of confusion exists in our churches today concerning the Holy Bible. There are now literally hundreds of English Bible versions, which contradict each other and cause lots of confusion in the churches. If you are using more than one Bible, you are a confused person. You're also probably in denial, but someone who reads only the inspired King James Bible can expose your false beliefs, empty religion and neo-ecumenical apostasy in a heartbeat.

In fact, all of today's corrupt Bibles were translated from just 2 % of existing ancient texts. The King James Bible was translated from what is commonly known as the Majority Text. In other words, there is safety in numbers, and the King James Bible agrees with the majority of ancient texts. If you are using the New International Version, English Standard Version, New Living Translation, or any perversion from Brooke Westcott and Fenton's Hort's Minority Text, you are using an inferior corrupted manuscript!!!

The following eye-opening picture speaks 1,000 words against the evils of the modern Bible revisions, and the wickedness of Bob Jones University, Moody Bible Institute, hundreds of thousands of bad churches and other ungodly corrupt institutions that use, sell and promote them...

2.8.27 The New Testament Does Not Teach Tithing 10% (2021-08-19 20:52)

1st Corinthians 16:2, “

Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him, that there be no gatherings when I come.

I have received letters from many believers over the years who express their contempt for pastors who have lied to them for decades about tithing 10 % from the Bible.

The truth is that nowhere in the Bible does it command believers to tithe 10 %. Our text passage plainly teaches that we ought to give to God “ as God hath prospered him. ” This is the exact opposite of what most preachers will tell you.

Most preachers will wrestle the Old Testament, taking God’s commandment to the Israelites to tithe 10 % to the priestly tribe of Levi, and use that to trick you to give them 10 % of your income. Then to add insult to injury, or injury to insult, they will quote Malachi 3:8, “

Will a man rob God? Yet ye have robbed me. But ye say, Wherein have we robbed thee? In tithes and offerings. ” They will try to use this verse to scare you. I have literally heard pastors frighten their congregations with death, threatening them with the Bible that if they don’t tithe God will cause their children to die, their home to burn down, they’ll get fired from their job and all manner of evil will befall them! Ladies and gentlemen, nothing could be further from the truth!

And then those horrible pastors will take it a step further, falsely teaching you that if you don’t give offerings above and beyond your 10 % tithes, you haven’t given God anything! There was a time in my life when I tithed 10 % and gave an extra 5 % to the church, 15 % total of my income, and I was so broke as a married man with four children, that I unintentionally bounced checks and couldn’t make ends meet, giving what I didn’t have because a pastor lied to me! Yet, my pastor was living large, didn’t owe a single cent to anyone, enjoyed the best of everything, took trips to Israel, and I couldn’t even afford to pay attention. I was a victim!

The Bible teaches in 1st Corinthians 16:2 to give only as

as God hath prospered ” you. That is one thing that I didn’t like about Hyles-Anderson College when I attended when I attended for 8 years between 1985 and 1993. Pastor Hyles believed that you should pay God first, even if you were in debt. Every student was required to sign a statement weekly (i.e., an activity form) that you had tithed at least 10 % of your income to God. I love Brother Hyles, but I do not agree Scripturally that anyone should tithe while living in poverty or in debt. I once heard Dr. Hyles say that he owned 50 pairs of shoes that people gave him. That bothers me! No one in my entire life has ever given me a pair of shoes. I don’t think any pastor should own 50 pairs of shoes!

I never heard one sermon in Bible college against the fraudulent Federal Reserve System that has kept most Americans in financial bondage since 1913. Get mad at me if you want, you cannot show me one New Testament Bible verse that commands saints to tithe 10 %. It bothers me when pastors need money, they just ask their congregation and people throw money at their pastor in love for him. But when you and me need money, we need to work overtime or get a second job. I think many pastors are spoiled. I agree that we should love and take care of our pastor’s needs, but those pastors ought not then teach their church members that they are robbing God not to tithe 10 % of their income. Pastors are often guilty of having double standards. In fairness to Brother Hyles, he did give away nearly everything he owned to help others, but he unquestionably lived a very comfortable lifestyle. People throw money at their pastors, thinking that God will bless them for it.

Ask any honest businessman and he will tell you that time is money. Yet most pastors don’t want your time, they want your money! I am so sick and tired of hearing pastors talk about their vacation to Israel. In many cases, multiple trips to Israel. I have never been to Israel because I cannot afford it! I am sick and tired of preachers who live high on the hog, living large, lying to people to suck every last dollar out of them possible. If you owe money you ought not tithe until you get your bills paid. Furthermore, don't you dare feel bad about being in debt if you are making less than $50,000 a year in the United States! The average U.S. salary today is either close to or below the poverty level. And in places like San Francisco, Honolulu and New Jersey, you need $90,000 a year to avoid being in debt.

So if your pastor teaches for you to tithe 10 %, I am not saying to quit your church or turn against your pastor, but don't you feel bad or guilty for giving a couple dollars instead of 10 %. I do believe that we should never let an offering plate pass in front of us without putting something into it, just to stay in the habit of giving. But you can give $5. Children can give 25 cents. Don't you dare tithe 10 % if your pastor is living large at your expense!!!

I hate Roman Catholicism, because it is a false religion that sends people to Hell. But I love Catholic people unconditionally. When I lived on Guam there was a church, Saint Jude in Sinajana, whose priests were of the Franciscan Order. They deliberately chose to live a modest life, doing without, living within their means as poorer than richer. I admire that! I am a firm believer that preachers, especially pastors, should live a very modest standard of living. Shame on pastors who drive an expensive car, live in a mansion and live a standard of living far above the majority of their church members. It will be a cold day in Hell before I ever play a game of golf! I hate golf for various reasons, but one reason is that it is a rich man's sport. I am leery of any pastor who plays golf with the rich men in his congregation.

The fact of the matter is that you cannot use the New Testament to justify hounding people in any church to tithe 10 %, let alone giving even more! If you can tithe and give God 50 % of your income, then you should do so as the Lord leads. But don't give it to some shameful church where the pastor is going to live an extravagant lifestyle. I would never support any church that pays its senior pastor over $100,000 a year!

You'd be shocked if you knew what pastors get paid. Billy Graham got paid $600,000 a year! His son Franklin Graham got paid $1,200,000 in just one year! That is sickening!!! The greatest man and preacher ever born among women, John the Baptist (Matthew 11:11), had nothing and lived off the land. Think about that the next time you empty your wallet to give to some fat-cat pastor who has taken umpteen trips to Israel with his family. There is a fine line between faith and foolishness dear friend. Be wise with what God has entrusted to you.

2.8.28 The Lame Excuse Pastor's Make Of Not Being Perfect (2021-08-19 23:50)

Proverbs 23:9, "

Speak not in the ears of a fool: for he will despise the wisdom of thy words.

" Titus 1:13-14, " This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith; Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men, that turn from the truth."

I don't have it in for pastors. I meet some pastors who are intimidated by me because of my website ministry. They are concerned that they might be next. That hurts my feelings when they think that way, because I am not hunting to expose less than perfect preachers.

But I will say this, I am sick and tired of hearing pastors hide behind the lame excuse that they are imperfect. I understand that, but using this for an excuse does not justify intentional bad behavior or teaching false doctrines. When pastors preacher heresy, that is not just an imperfection, it means they are doing harm and they need to be exposed. Titus 1:13-14, "This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith; Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men, that turn from the truth." I expose many pastors who corrupt the Word of God and preach a false Gospel. Am I become your enemy because I expose false teachers? I am disgusted with the average fundamentalist pastor today who chooses to stay neutral in the work of God.

Tragically, many pastors are fools today! When you hand them THE TRUTH, they are stubborn and filled with pride and resentment that anyone would dare question their teaching. It is wickedness! I won't shut up! I won't dip my sails. There is no pastoral wisdom in showing respect for false teachers!!! I meet so many pastors who foolishly think it is ethical not to criticize other pastors who pervert the meaning of repentance. Although it is true that preachers have debated the meaning of repentance for centuries, that doesn't make it okay to outright teach that a person must forsake a lifestyle of sinning to be saved. That is blatant false teaching and needs to be refuted publicly!

I meet shallow pastors who are cowardly. They run from any anyone or anything that makes them uncomfortable, like me and my website ministry. Instead of respecting me as a truth-teller, they become defensive and shun me, which is not an imperfection on their part, it is willful ignorance of the truth and mistreating a brother in Christ. I don't expose pastors for being imperfect, I expose them when I give them THE TRUTH but they reject it. I don't expose them for being imperfect, I expose them for being jerks and mistreating me as a human being, even after I give them a chance to do the right thing. NO ONE has a right to shun, reject, ostracize and mistreat someone just because you don't like them.

Everybody deserves to be loved. I don't like pastors who play favorites and don't care about losing a person here or there in their church. I really hate when pastors treat non-members differently than members of their church. The Bible calls that the sin of being a respecter of persons (James 2:1). Many pastors are respecters of persons, which God hates! Jesus said if you do something to the LEAST OF THESE MY BREATHREN, you have done it unto Him (Matthew 25:40). When pastors shun those whom they don't like, they are mistreating Jesus. Shame on those shallow pastors today who play favorites, who are respecters of persons.

Pastors who reject the truth and fail to love hurting people are not weak or imperfect, they are full of sinful pride and wickedness. Pastors are supposed to be servants, not big shots in the churches. You can tell how great a man is by how he treats the least among us, those who are different, hurting or unloving. The average pastor is a coward, merely an employee who comes to work each day, who ought not be a pastor at all. I am tired of pastors mistreating me because of my website ministry. It just shows how shallow and little they are. The worst thing that can happen to any church is when all their bills are paid, and there is extra money in the bank account, and they are at ease in Zion. Nothing destroys a church like prosperity!

I will continue to expose false teachers! I will continue to expose pastors who mistreat hurting people, shun those who are different, and hide behind their position and title as a pastor. It would be a good thing if 95 % of today's pastors were all fired. YOU'RE FIRED!!! Any pastor who selectively cares about people doesn't deserve to be a pastor. These pastors are quick to point out that they are not perfect, but it goes much deeper than that. In fact, they are wicked, stubborn and full of lame excuses why they refuse to love everybody and embrace hurting people with God's unconditional love.

I am leery of these yuppie type pastors today, especially these Bible college pastors, who refuse to relate to ordinary hurting people. They drive fancy cars, live in nice houses, get paid over $100,000 a year and selectively care about people. No wonder America is going to Hell. I think the biggest thing lacking in churches today is simply to love people as they are, and not try to force them into a mold. People just want to be loved, but pastors refuse to do it! If they ever decide to walk with Jesus they'll start loving everybody.

2.8.29 Bible Proof That Dr. Steve Pettit Is Full Of Crap (2021-08-20 00:30)

Luke 10:20,
“

Notwithstanding in this rejoice not, that the spirits are subject unto you; but rather rejoice, because your names are written in heaven.

Respectfully said toward Dr. Pettit (I mean no unkindness, truly), he preaches another gospel. Who is Steve Pettit? Mr. Pettit has been the president of Bob Jones University since 2014. I am writing this blog article because BJU has a tremendous impact upon thousands of churches today, particularly independent Baptist churches, through their thousands of graduates. Right doctrine matters folks! Galatians 1:6-7 warns that there is NOT another Gospel. Galatians 1:6-7, “ I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel:

Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. ” Sadly, today's Bible colleges and churches are filled with heretics who pervert the Gospel, damning people's souls to Hell.

Read for yourself [1]what Steve Pettit heretically preached on January 26, 2015 at BJU chapel to 2,700 students and faculty:

> “You can't just speak about getting saved, and you accepted Christ, and then that's it! There is a justification; There is a sanctification; There's ultimately a glorification, and though there are three parts, they are all part of the whole, and you cannot separate them. In order for you to qualify for the award, you have to get into the race, you have to stay in the race, and you have to finish the race. If you want to win, you have to run to the end; and winning in the Christian life is everything, because if you lose—if you don't finish—you lose everything—you lose your SOUL. And so, the Christian race is the life of faith that begins, is run, and is finished when we cross over into Heaven!” —Dr. Steve Pettit (“What Does It Mean To Run 'The Race'?” - [2]11:34)

The “

that Dr. Pettit teaches you must [3]work hard to earn he says is

“

> "We run the race, we cross the finish line, and so what's the prize? What is the award? Well, there are different viewpoints. Some would have the viewpoint that the awards are crowns in Heaven. But as I read the book of Hebrews and see the whole gist of the book and the flow of the book, I don't believe its referring to crowns in Heaven. I think it is referring to Heaven itself." [emphasis added] —Dr. Steve Pettit ("What Does It Mean To Run 'The Race'?" - [4]22:57)

Dear friend, eternal life is not an award, it is the free gift of God by grace alone (Romans 5:15-18, 6:23; Ephesians 2:8-9). A gift is a take proposition, not a give position. You simply take it by faith. Luke 10:20 teaches us as believers to rejoice that our names are written in Heaven. That means KNOWING that we are 100 % saved certain. But according to Dr. Pettit's rotten perverse teachings, you cannot KNOW that you are saved, not until life is over, and you have faithfully run the race to the finish line. How else could we KNOW that we are saved, since we cannot say someone has faithfully run the race until they actually finish? Oh reader, do you see how dangerous and unbiblical Steve Pettit's teachings on salvation are? God knows that I have nothing personal against Mr. Pettit. I met him on Guam in 2014 when he preached at Harvest Baptist Church. Sadly, Pastor Marty Herron is as corrupt and perverse in his theology as Steve Pettit, and neither of these men ought to be allowed to speak behind any pulpit. I speak on the authority of God's Word from the inspired King James Bible. ...

> Titus 1:10-13, "For there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, specially they of the circumcision: Whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre's sake. One of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The Cretians are alway liars, evil beasts, slow bellies. This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith;"

Sean Quinlan (former pastor of Lighthouse Baptist Church on Guam) once scolded me, saying: "You're not an apostle." What an ignorant and foolish thing to say. Dear reader, neither was Titus an apostle, but Paul instructed him to REBUKE THEM SHARPLY who pervert the Gospel. I am and will continue to sharply rebuke the Bob Jones University camp until they repent and stop teaching Lordship Salvation, and promoting the Devil's corruptible seed. ...

It Matters Which Bible You Use - God Only Authored One Book!

Kindly said, Steve Pettit was inspired by demons when he preached their awful heretical sermons, which he has never recanted. In case you don't know, [6]Pettit is buddies with the biggest heretic of our generation, Dr. John F. MacArthur in California. MacArthur is an alumni of BJU, which has consequently crept more tares into the college over the decades. [7]Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) would have run these infidels out of the college!!! Would to God BJU still had some biblical sense today and would fire Steve Pettit and renounce his false teachings. I say that with love, but on the authority of the Word of God.

The fact that Jesus commanded every believer to rejoice that their name is written in Heaven, is biblical proof that Steve Pettit is full of crap! You CAN in fact accept Jesus as your perianal Savior, by believing the GOOD NEWS (Gospel) of His death, burial and resurrection (1st Corinthians 15:1-4), and KNOW that you are immediately, irrevocably and permanently forever saved (John 6:47). Who are you going to believe, Steve Pettit or the King James Bible?

2.8.30 How To Have The Brightest Future As A Believer (2021-08-21 00:30)

Daniel 12:2-3, "And many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt.

And they that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness as the stars for ever and ever.

Daniel 12:3 was Pastor Jack Hyles favorite life's verse. In the priceless photo below you can see Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) and Pastor Lee Roberson (1909-2007) hugging. At the bottom of the photo you'll see their signatures along with each of their life's Bible verses. Pastor Lee Roberson's favorite Scripture passage was Romans 8:28, " And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose.

" ...

And Pastor Jack Hyles' favorite Scripture passage is

Daniel 12:3, "

And they that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness as the stars for ever and ever.

" That is so precious!

Dear reader, the Bible tells us how to have a very bright future. You simply need to become a soulwinner. We know that only God can give the increase. 1st Corinthians 3:3-9, "I have planted, Apollos watered; but God gave the increase. So then neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase. Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one: and every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labour. For we are labourers together with God: ye are God's husbandry, ye are God's building." You may plant the seed of truth of the Gospel, and then I may come along later and lead that person to Christ, but the Bible teaches that we will receive an equal award. Why? Because God gives the increase! I don't know about you, but that greatly excites and encourages me! God is going to reward me for the labor I've done to get people saved, even if I didn't have the privilege of leading them to Jesus Christ.

I encourage you friend to become a soulwinner. The lost world is literally dying for the truth of the Gospel. You may be the only Jesus that someone knows. You may be their only source of light (truth). This is what the Bible means in Hebrews 4:14, "Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord: " If you live in open sin and hide your candle for Jesus, other people will not see Christ in you. They will go to Heaven someday if they never see the light of Jesus in you and me!

Matthew 5:14, " Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid. " Is your light shining dear friend?

> This little light of mine
> I'm going to let it shine
> Oh, this little light of mine
> I'm going to let it shine

One of the most controversial preachers of our generation is Pastor Steven L. Anderson. Now, I don't agree with all his teachings or methods, but I stand with [2]Brother Anderson as one of the greatest soulwinners of this generation. I look beyond Pastor Anderson's faults and I see a sincere man who is passionate about preaching the Gospel and winning souls to Jesus. I won't debate with you over all the reasons why we shouldn't support him, fine. But why not [3]learn all we can from him about soulwinning, since he has proven himself a soulwinner!

I made [4]an entire website dedicated to teaching people about soulwinning. Do you know why they that turn many to righteousness shall shine as the brightness of the stars forever? It is because all the people we lead to Jesus will be forever grateful to us for taking the time to witness the Gospel to them. It is God's imputed righteousness that saves!!! Philippians 3:9, " And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith: "

Oh how beautiful are the feet of soulwinners! Romans 10:15, "And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!" Why does the Bible say "feet" instead of our tongue or mouth? It is because the most eloquent tongue and skilled orator in the world is useless if the feet are too scared or lazy to bring the Gospel to the lost!

1st Corinthians 9:16, " For though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for necessity is laid upon me; yea, woe is unto me, if I preach not the gospel!" That

"woe" applies to you and me friend, and especially to any paid pastor! I have never received one penny for my online ministry since 2002. Yet the Lord is using my humble labors to win thousands of people to Christ. There are pastors all across America who take home $75,000 a year (that's the average salary of a pastor in the U.S.) and yet never win a soul to Christ!

You cannot win anyone to Christ if you have the Gospel wrong! You cannot preach the truth if you don't have the truth. That excludes over 95 % of preachers today!!! Jesus said [5]the way unto life is " [6] narrow few

” [7] there be that find it for good reason . The Devil’s greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born-again. The churches today are filled with sincere people, who are living the Christian life as did the people in Matthew 7:21-23, but they will too hear the same horrifying words someone in eternity from Christ: “I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity

” (Matthew 7:23b).

Dear friend, you cannot win anyone to Christ until you KNOW that you are saved for sure. I receive many emails from confused people, who have been lied to by preachers, told that they cannot know they are saved until their life has changed. Nowhere in the Bible are we told such nonsense! If you are resting completely in Jesus Christ as your only way to Heaven, resting in His death, burial and resurrection to wash away your sins, then YOU ARE FOREVER SAVED!!!

If you have that confidence dear friend, as I do, then GO TELL THE WORLD how Jesus saved you, so they can be saved too (Matthew 28:19-20). That is all soulwinning is, telling other people how Jesus saved you, so they can also be saved. They that turn many to God’s righteousness, which is by faith alone in Jesus Christ, will shine as the brightness of the stars forever! You have God’s promise of it in Daniel 12:3.

2.8.31 You Need GOD’S RIGHTEOUSNESS To Get To Heaven (2021-08-22 09:30)

Matthew 6:33, “But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.” Romans 10:3-4,

“

For they being ignorant of God’s righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God.

For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth.

” Philippians 3:9,

“ And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith: ”

I cherish those text Bible passages. Dear friend, if you grasp this great Bible truth of God’s righteousness, you’ll see the Gospel very clearly. All of this theological garbage being taught in bad Bible colleges and churches today about turning away from sins to be saved, and the Devil’s lie of Lordship Salvation, is rooted in human self-righteousness! The Word of God is very plain that to get to Heaven you need GOD'S RIGHTEOUSNESS, which is solely by faith in Jesus Christ.

It is a popular false teaching these days, that to be saved you must turn from your sin. This heresy opens up a Pandora's Box of problems. How much sin can a Christian commit and still be " in their salvation? The Bible gives us the answer in Isaiah 64:6,

safe

"But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags; and we all do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away."

Dear reader, in order to enter into God's Kingdom you must be 100 % absolutely perfect! You must be sinless. Even one sin is enough to send you to Hell forever. James 2:10,

"For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all. " That is frightening!

So then how can anyone go to Heaven? The answer is Jesus Christ! Dear friend, YOU NEED GOD'S RIGHTOEUSNESS, which is imputed (counted) to a sinner by faith.

Philippians 3:9,

" And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith: " We are saved by HIS RIGHTEOUSNESS!!! Matthew 6:33, "But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you." Since you and I have no righteousness (no goodness) to offer God, we need HIS RIGHTOEUSNESS!

The following Bible passage indicts the Lordship Salvation crowd. Romans 10:3-4,

For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God.

For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth.

" The heretical idea of turning away from sin to be saved is REFORMAITON, and not REPENTANCE. Let's define some theological terms shall we:

- REFORM = to turn away from sin
- PENITANCE = To be sorry for sin
- PENNANCE = To make a mend for sin
- REPENTENACE = a change of mind

None of those things are required to be saved, except to repent. A man simply needs to change his thinking so that he will acknowledge THE TRUTH that he is a guilty sinner (2nd Timothy 2:25; Romans 3:19-20), and BELIEVE the Gospel (1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

In the Holy Bible we see that the Apostle Judas was sorry that he betrayed Jesus. Judas even returned the 30 pieces of silver. Judas tried to mend the evil that he had done. But Judas went and hung himself and went to Hell. This religious man turned from his sin. Judas felt sorry and attempted to right his wrong, but that is not salvation. Judas failed to believe the Gospel, because he had no faith in Jesus. Judas was guilty of Lordship Salvation. Judas was a follower of Christ, having given his life to serve Jesus as one of His very apostles, but Judas never got born-again and went to Hell forever.

The message of this blog article is very clear dear friend—you simply need GOD'S RIGHTOEUSNESS!!! I got saved at age 13. I realized that I was a guilty sinner. I simply placed my trust in the blessed Savior, resting in His sacrifice on the cross as payment for my sins. I placed my trust in the miraculously risen Savior. Salvation is simply accepting what Christ has already done for you on the cross of Calvary. JESUS PAID IT ALL!!!

2.8.32 The Sufferings Of This Present Time (2021-08-23 00:30)

Romans 8:17-18, "And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together. For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us."

What a wonderful passage of Scripture!

First, the Apostle Paul addresses the "sufferings of this present time." Everyone endures some degree of suffering in this earthly life, some much more than others. There is no pain like the pain caused when a spouse files for divorce and abandons. There is no sense of loss as that of losing one's children. It is difficult to continue in life when one's health is poor and pain is a constant companion. There is nothing more frustrating than jealous and malicious co-workers who enjoy harassing and making one's life more difficult on a daily basis. There is nothing more disappointing than to have one's plans for the future destroyed. Living can so easily turn into surviving in this frail world in which we dwell. There is no guarantee of success, happiness, or health in life. The only guarantee is problems and death.

The Apostle Paul had more than his share of problems, disappointments and frustrations in life. In 2nd Corinthians 11:23-27 the Apostle Paul shares with us some of the hardships of life he went through . . .

> "...in labours more abundant, in stripes above measure, in prisons more frequent, in deaths oft. Of the Jews five times received I forty stripes save one. Thrice was I beaten with rods, once was I stoned, thrice I suffered shipwreck, a night and a day I have been in the deep; In journeyings often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils by mine own countrymen, in perils by the heathen, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren; In weariness and painfulness, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness."

But notice, secondly, what the Apostle Paul said in Romans 8:18 concerning our present sufferings . . .

"For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us."

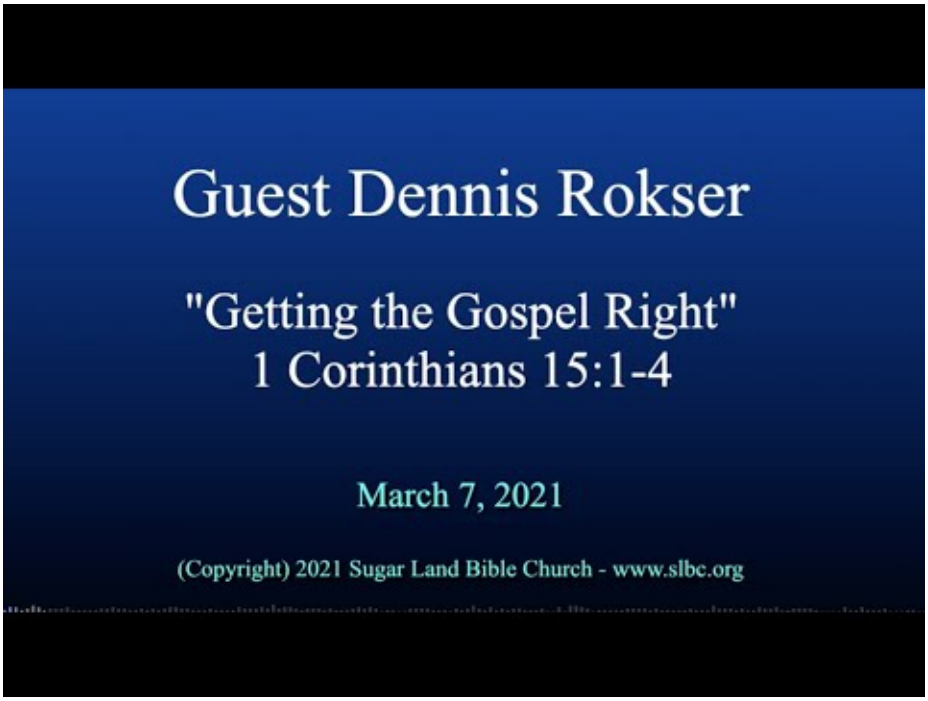
Amen! The born-again Christian, especially those who are serving God have much to look forward to in eternity! Paul set his heart upon Heaven and rejoiced, hoping for the day when he would forever be with the Lord Jesus Christ.

What a day that will be when my Jesus I shall see,
And I look upon His face,
The One who saved me by His grace;
When He takes me by the hand
And leads me through the Promised Land,
What a day, glorious day that will be.

The richest person on earth won't have as much as the poorest saint in Heaven. The happiest person on earth won't be as happy as the saddest saint in Heaven. He that is least in the kingdom of Heaven is greater than the greatest man on earth. Matthew 11:11, "Verily I say unto you, Among them that are born of women there hath not risen a greater than John the Baptist: notwithstanding he that is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he." God has many wonderful things planned for the believer in Heaven, especially for those who are soul winners. 1st Corinthians 2:9, "But as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him." Daniel 12:3, "And they that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness as the stars for ever and ever." Amen!

All of our present sufferings in this world cannot be compared to the glory (honour and dignity) which shall be revealed in us through Christ Jesus. Whereas this world hates, curses, despises and rejects us because we are God's children, the Bible promises in Romans 8:17 that we will be glorified with Christ in Heaven. We are joint-heirs together with Jesus Christ. Amen! Romans 8:7, "And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together." We are not worthy of such honor, but God in His wondrous mercy has made us joint-heirs with Jesus by means of His blood sacrifice.

The Apostle Paul, writing under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, assures us that all of our present sufferings cannot be compared to what God has in store for the believer in Heaven. What a day that will be!



2.8.33 Faith In Christ Period Versus Faith In Christ Plus (2021-08-24 09:30)

John 6:28-29, "Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent." Acts 10:43, "To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins." Acts 16:30-31, "And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house."

Again and again throughout the Holy Bible we are taught that the way of salvation is to simply BELIEVE ON CHRIST, PERIOD.

Tragically, churches and Bible colleges and pastors everywhere nowadays are preaching FAITH IN CHRIST, PLUS something else, which cannot produce the new birth by the Holy Spirit of God. One of my absolute favorite sermons is by Pastor Dennis Rokser, preached at the Sugar Land Bible Church in Texas. The awesome sermon, a defense of the simple Gospel is called: 'GETTING THE GOSPEL RIGHT AND WRONG'...

GETTING THE GOSPEL RIGHT AND WRONG

Dear reader, the Word of God is adamantly clear that there is NOT another Gospel. ...

> Galatians 1:6-9, "I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel:Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed. "

There is only ONE GOSPEL. I am sickened by most church pastors today, particularly Baptists. I am sickened because they all go along with their peers, knowing that their peers in the clergy are preaching a wide array of unbiblical ideas. For example: [1]Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) correctly preaches a free grace Gospel, FAITH IN CHRIST, PERIOD. [2]Dr. Hutson refutes the heresy of Lordship Salvation.

In sharp contrast, [3]Dr. Steve Pettit (president of Bob Jones University since 2014) preaches another gospel of Calvinism (aka, Lordship Salvation). This is the same damnable heresy that [4]Pastor John MacArthur teaches. These men cannot all be right!

> "In great contests [battles], each party claims to act in accordance with the will of God—both may be, but one must be, wrong—God cannot be for and against the same thing at the same time!" —President Abraham Lincoln

Why did Mr. Lincoln say that? It is because both the Northern Union and the Southern Confederacy claimed to be doing "God's will" in fighting The Civil War (1860-1965). Both President Jefferson Davis in the south, and President Abraham Lincoln in the north, said they were doing "God's will." As Mr. Lincoln wisely points out, that is IMPOSSIBLE! When two opposing parties, who are warring against each other, claiming to be doing God's will, obviously someone is WRONG! That is why Abraham Lincoln made that powerful statement!

Likewise, the Gospel cannot mean that there are multiple plans of salvation. Either you don't have to do anything except BELIEVE IN CHRIST, PERIOD; or else you must BELIEVE IN CHRIST, PLUS [5]turn away from your sins, surrender your life [6]to Christ as absolute "Lord," run the race (Christian life) [7]faithfully unto the end, count the [8]cost and pay the price, exchange [9]all that you are for all that Christ is, live a [10]lifestyle of repentance (continually turning away from sinful behavior), and [11]follow Jesus no matter what the cost. I have provided the preceding hyperlinks so you can see the theological garbage that these false teachers preach for yourself. Folks, all of these things have their proper place in the Christian life, but NONE OF THEM comprise the Gospel (Good News) that saves us by faith (1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

If you want to go to Heaven someday dear friend, then you had better BELIEVE IN JESUS, PERIOD. John 6:40, "And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day. " That is so simple! The Father's only will for you and me, concerning eternal life, is that we BELIEVE ON CHRIST. John 20:31,

"But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name. " Again and again the Word of God simply teaches us to BELIEVE ON CHRIST, PERIOD.

Yet, these devils in the pulpit today like Marty Herron, Gary Walton, Steve Pettit, John Piper, John MacArthur, Sam Horn, Ray Comfort, Adrian Rodgers, Jack Chick, William Lane Craig, Chip Ingram, Paul Washer, Joel Osteen, John Hagee, Rick Warren, Beth Moore, Charles Stanley, Bryan Derringer, Southern Baptist Convention, Pacific Garden Mission's UNSHACKLED

—all these corrupt infidels are guilty of preaching another gospel that says to BELIEVE IN CHRIST, PLUS something more to be saved.

In Matthew 7:21-23 we find a group of dedicated religious zealots, who spent their lives serving and following Christ as " LORD, LORD.

" Yet Jesus denied even knowing them! The reason why is because they were trusting in FAITH IN CHRIST, PLUS their many wonderful works done in Jesus' name, and that they had preached in Jesus' name, and that they had cast out devils in Jesus' name. The Lord makes it very clear in Matthew 7:21,

“Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. ” John 6:40 says that the Father’s will is to BELIEVE ON CHRIST, PERIOD!!!

We LOOK TO LIVE, we don’t LIVE TO LOOK. Isaiah 45:22, “Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth: for I am God, and there is none else.”

Regeneration does not precede faith (John 1:12-13). If you admit that you are a guilty sinner, seeing your need for redemption, Christ will save you simply for resting in Him as your Savior. John 6:47,

“Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.”

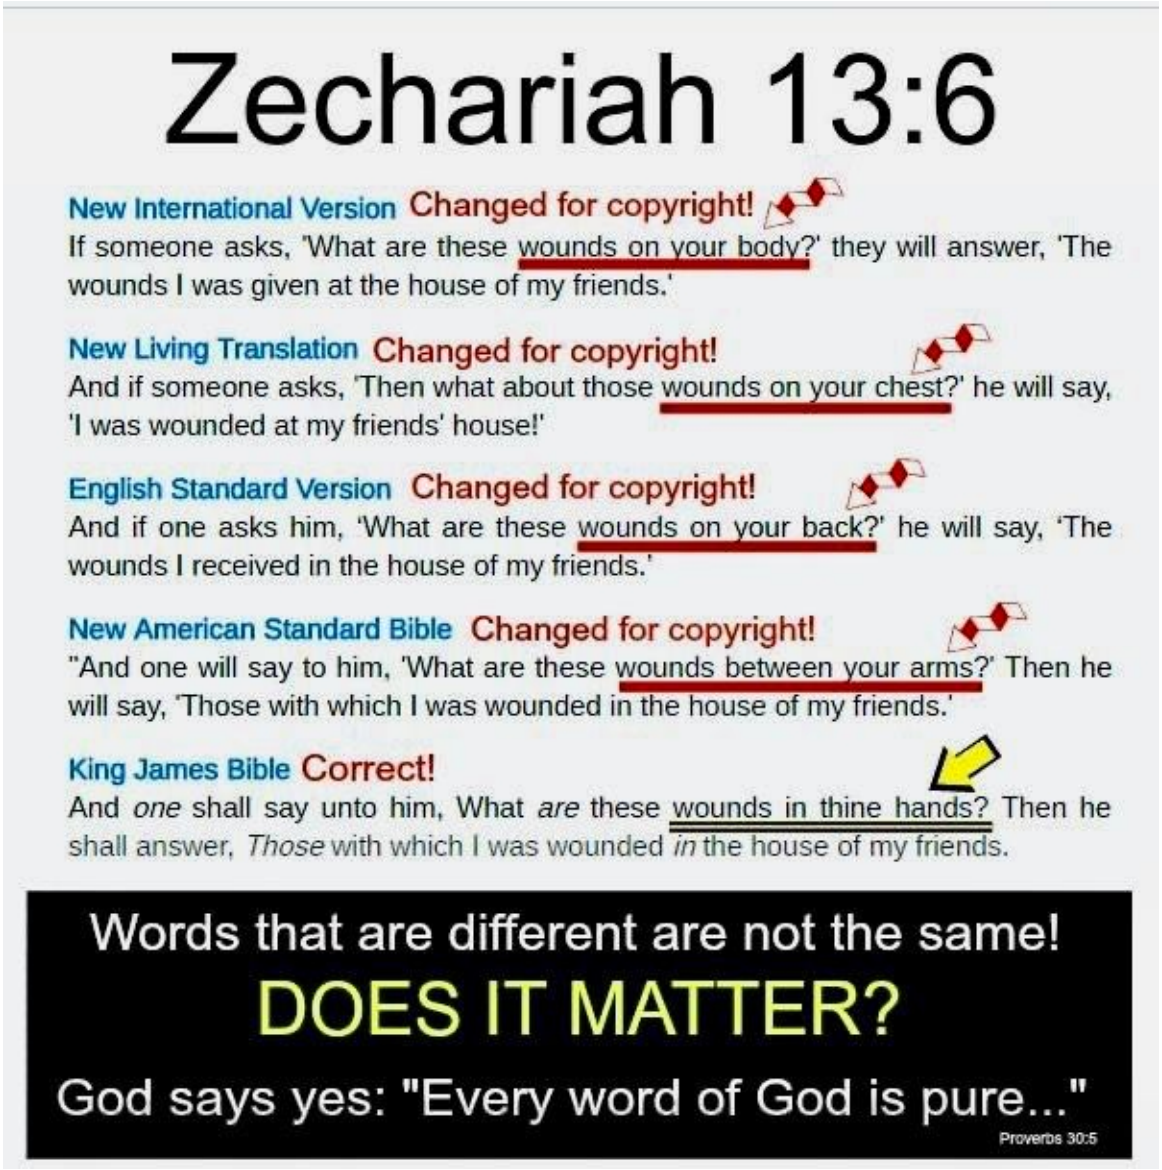
2.8.34 The Blatant Fraud Behind The Devil’s Modern Bibles (2021-08-25 00:30)



KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) - Zechariah 13:6, “And one shall say unto him, What are these wounds in thine hands? Then he shall answer, Those with which I was wounded in the house of my friends.”

THE MESSAGE (MSG) -

Zechariah 13:6, “

And if someone says, ‘And so where did you get that black eye? ’ they’ll say, ‘I ran into a door at a friend’s house.”’

Dear reader, we are living in times of utter insanity! I speak to the shame of today’s apostate churches. I speak to the shame of failed institutions like Bob Jones University (BJU) who endorse and promote the Devil’s Bible-corrupting movement. If you support even one of Brooke Westcott’s and Fenton Hort’s perverse Greek version, or [1]Rudolf Kittel’s corrupt Hebrew, you are guilty of sanctioning all of them, because they all come from the same CORRUPT TEXTS!

Examples of how Satan changes the Bible quoted Zechariah 13:6 from both the trustworthy King James Bible (KJB) and the corrupt The Message (MSG), so you can compare for yourself. I don't know about you, but it upsets me, not so much that wicked people are butchering the Holy Bible for filth lucre, but that professed Christians and pastors accept this evil trash as being God's inspired Word. To allow a fool to promote his foolishness in our churches is a sin. The Message is of the Devil.

I intentionally

What a hilarious and equally sad thing! The ungodly authors of 'The Message' changed our dear Lord having wounds in His hands, to saying that Jesus ran into a door and got a black eye! Truth is indeed stranger than fiction. What blasphemy! The reason why these translators needed to come up with something resemblant of a bad science fiction film, is simply because there are already HUNDREDS of copyrighted Bible versions in existence; therefore, the choice of words to use is very limited and the translators had to come up with something substantially different and creative. I'll say! Folks, these wicked people didn't even follow the Hebrew text, they just literally made up whatever they felt like putting down.

[3]Zechariah 13:6 in the Masoretic Hebrew

The Bible issues several warnings to anyone who would dare change and corrupt God's Words. Proverbs 30:5-6, "Every word of God is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him. Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar." The dishonest translators of The Message version are bold-faced LIARS! Nowhere in the accurate Masoretic Hebrew text does it even hint that Jesus got a black eye from running into a door!!! What liars! In fact, even the corrupt Hebrew texts don't say that Jesus got a black eye from running into a door! They just made this garbage up to obtain a legal copyright so they could sell this trash and make money. Hell is waiting for these evildoers!!!

2.8.35 The Great I AM (2021-08-26 00:30)

1st John 4:7-12, "Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God.

He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is love.

In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because that God sent his only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him.

Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins.

Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another.

No man hath seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and his love is perfected in us.

The Scriptural truth "God is love" means that God eternally gives Himself to others. God's love saves us from our sins and guarantees eternal life to those who trust in His only begotten Son, Jesus. John 3:16, "

For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

Dear friend, if we want proof of God's love for us, then we must look first at the cross where God offered up His only begotten Son as a sacrifice for our sins. Calvary is the one objective, absolute, irrefutable " of God's love for us. We love others by sharing the Gospel. We love others by eliminating the slander and gossip in our life.

We love others by learning the stories of others. Everyone has a story, but we must take the time to hear it, otherwise it cannot be a story. To be a story, someone's life needs to be told.

We love others by giving without strings attached.

We love others by praying for those who are hard to love.

Our blessed Savior set the example, giving us a pattern to follow. Christ lived a selfish life, unconditionally loving others. As God's children we must share Christ's love, beginning in our home and then it will expand outward to all areas of our life. There is only one thing that chooses to give up its own rights, its own plans, its own comforts, and even one's own life, and that is to allow Christ to love others through us!!! Galatians 2:20, "I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me. "

God's love transforms the way we treat others! You can tell how close a believer is to God by how they treat other people, especially those who can do nothing for them. Love is the hallmark of every born-again child of God, because God is love. Love and caring are synonymous! When I see professed Christians and pastors who don't care about right doctrine, don't care about hurting people, don't care about the truth

—don't care

—then I know that something is wrong with their walk with Christ. God cares (1st Peter 5:7).

My web visitors know that I CARE. I care because God cares. That doesn't mean that I am a shining example of a good Christian, I am not. I mess up sometimes just like anybody else does. We are all sinners (Romans 3:23). The biggest sinners among us are those critics who slander, tear down and berate others who sin differently than they do (Matthew 7:1-5). No one has a justifiable right to condemn someone else (Romans 14:10-12). Thankfully our acceptance comes from God alone, so that it doesn't matter if the whole world condemns us, there is no condemnation for the redeemed child of God. Romans 8:34, "Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us."

Jesus is the great I AM. I have heard false teachers falsely claim that Jesus never claimed to be God in the Bible. What a lie! Our dear Savior did most certainly claim to be God. One such profound claim is found in

John 8:58, "Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Before Abraham was, I am." Jesus told the Jews that before Abraham was even conceived He existed as God, the great I AM. To understand why the Jews became enraged and tried to kill Him (John 8:59) when He made this claim, you need to read Exodus 3:14, " And God said unto Moses, I AM THAT I AM: and he said, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, I AM hath sent me unto you." Jesus was professing that He is the same

I AM

Who spoke to Moses. JESUS IS ALMIGHTY GOD!!!

Jesus walked this earth as the great I AM in the flesh, the Godhead incarnate (Colossians 2:9; 1st Timothy 3:16 - NOTE: all Scripture references are only to the inspired King James Bible)

Psalms 103:8,

“

The LORD is merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and plenteous in mercy. ” I am continually humbled and astonished that the great I AM wanted to walk so closely with me, that He chose to live inside me as His child. If you are saved friend, God lives inside of your body and soul.

Literally, YOU are the temple of the Holy Spirit, not the church building down the street (1st Corinthians 3:16-16).

Without a called out assembly of believers, the church house is nothing more than four walls and a roof! What a blessed privilege

we have today as Christians, knowing that our great God and Savior lives in our very being. Have you told God that you love Him today? I did, multiple times. Have you spent time fellowshipping with your Savior today? I did, all afternoon as I have been working on my website ministry, and I have had a wonderful day! Jesus makes life worth living!!!

Love is the greatest thing in my life. I love everyone because God loves me, and that unconditional love is shed abroad in my heart by the Holy Spirit. Romans 5:5, “ And hope maketh not ashamed; because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us. ” What a blessed Holy Spirit, the great I AM living inside of me as God’s adopted child. Jesus is precious!!!

2.8.36 Since The Bible Doesn’t Explain What Repentance Means, Neither Should We (2021-08-27 00:30)

Acts 16:30-31, “

And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved?

And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house.

We’ve got a BIG problem in many of our churches today with what pastors are teaching about Bible repentance to be saved. I was pondering this important matter today and something dawned on me. Folks, why do so many preachers try to explain what repentance means, when even the Bible doesn’t tell us? Think about that. I am guilty of doing it too, so I am preaching to the choir here.

In Acts 16:30 the question was asked, **“

Sirs, what must I do to be saved? ” The simple answer to this naïve Roman soldier was,

Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved...

” Paul didn’t mention repentance! No mention was made of turning away from anything. Oh, why do preachers make getting saved so complicated? Now, we know from the Bible that a person MUST realize that they are a sinner. That is the whole purpose of God’s law according to Romans 3:19-20,

“Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God. Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin.”

I think one of the greatest injustices that pastors do to people is to make a big issue of repentance, which confuses them. I totally disagree with the theological statement: “Repentance is a change of mind that leads to a change of behavior.” Folks, that simply is NOT true! Repentance is “ a change of mind,

period, end of story! It is true that once saved, the indwelling Holy Spirit will begin to produce

“

in the life of a believer (Galatians 5:22-25), but this fruit MUST NOT be connected with the plan of salvation itself, lest we corrupt the Gospel and cast stumbling blocks before the people.

Pilgrim’s Progress author, John Bunyan (1628-1688), wonderfully made this statement:

> “If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people.” —John Bunyan (1628-1688)

I LOVE that statement! I am amazed that John Bunyan had such a keen grasp of the Gospel. But after all, why shouldn’t he, the Word of God was the same then as it is today. Moreover, this statement PROVES that many preachers back then were getting the Gospel wrong, just as they are today

, which is why John Bunyan was refuting them

. I have heard Paul Washer, Ray Comfort and John MacArthur all make lying allegations that the old time preachers all preached repentance from sins to be saved. Well, many did, and they were false teachers! But as the preceding wonderful quote from John Bunyan proves, there were also many preachers back then who taught a free grace Gospel, rejecting the heresy that to be saved you must first be willing to forsake a lifestyle of sinning.

In reality what these false teachers of “ repent of your sins to be saved

” are saying is that YOU must commit to changing your life, or else you don’t meet God’s qualifications to be saved. Dear friend, the Bible teaches in 2nd Corinthians 5:17 that if any man “BE IN CHRIST”

(i.e., he is already saved), he becomes a new creature. Kindly said, Pacific Garden Mission's [1]UNSHACKLED radio program really gets the Gospel wrong oftentimes. Heresy has invaded most churches today! Nowhere in the inspired King James Bible are we taught to forsake our sinning to be saved.

I am tired of hearing pastors teach that repentance is a change of mind that leads to a change of behavior. What they are indirectly implying is that if your life hasn't changed you're not saved! Being indwelt with God's Holy Spirit and the manifestation of an outward change of behavior are two different things! Case in point, I know of several believers who are serving time behind bars in prison. They're behavior didn't change! Well you say, if you are saved, there should at least be some evidence of the Holy Spirit. Okay, how much? How much does a person's life need to change before they are considered saved? Do you see how foolish this heresy of having a change of behavior is folks concerning salvation?

The truth is this—if you are saved you SHOULD live for Christ; not WILL because that is Calvinism; not MUST because that is works. What saith the Scripture? Titus 2:11-12, "For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men,

Teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world;

" If you are saved, YOU SHOULD live for God. When you hear a preacher insisting that true repentance means that your behavior WILL CHANGE, he is preaching another Gospel.

Listen, anything that an unsaved person can imitate cannot be used as "proof" that someone is saved. Can an unsaved person change? Yes. Can an unsaved person love, do good works and live the Christian life? Yes. So those things cannot be used to "prove" that anyone is saved. The only "proof" that you are saved is the blessed presence of the indwelling Holy Spirit. 1st John 3:24, "And he that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us."

That is something that only YOU can determine, which is what the epistle of 1st John is about (1st John 5:13).

The simple answer given in Acts 16:31 to the question in Acts 16:30 about how to be saved, is simply to BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST!!! No mention is made about forsaking a sinful life. No requirement is given about the necessity of a change of behavior down the road. It is so easy for preachers to get caught between grace and works. The churches today are full of false teachings on what a person must do to get to Heaven. I adamantly reject any teaching that even mentions a change of behavior with God's simple plan of salvation!!!

Again, the Word of God doesn't make an issue of repentance to be saved, so why should we? Whatever change of mind (repentance) is necessary to be saved is automatically included in believing for the sinner that comes to Christ. The ONLY requirement to receive God's free gift of eternal life is that you admit you are a sinner. No intent to reform is necessary, which would be equivalent to paying a toll to enter into God's Kingdom. Sorrow for sin is penitence, not repentance. To make a mend is penance, not repentance. To turn from sin is reformation, not repentance. All that God requires to be saved is repentance (a change of mind), which compels a man to believe the Good News of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Repentance facilitates believing. Repentance and faith are inseparable, two parts of one action of believing the Gospel to be saved. The man who believes has repented, and the man who repents has believed.

I reject the idea that it is even possible to believe without repenting. Some preachers claim that if a person professes faith in Christ, but are still living in immorality, that they never repented of their sins and are not saved. That is another gospel. The truth is that it is possible to follow Christ, live the Christian life, join a Christian organization, or adopt a Christian culture, and still be lost. We see this evidenced in Matthew 7:21-23. They did many wonderful works in Jesus' name. They preached in Jesus' name. They even called Jesus " but Christ denied knowing them, calling them workers of iniquity. The Lord tells us the reason why in Matthew 7:21, because they failed to do the Father's will. John 6:40 teaches that the Father's will is to BELIEVE ON CHRIST!!!

Lord,

Dear friend, you can follow Jesus, serve Jesus, love Jesus and talk about Jesus all you want, but you will never be born-again until you cease from your own works and wholly TRUST JESUS. John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life. " So when we witness to people, we should simply make sure that they understand they are a guilty sinner in God's sight, under the condemnation of God's law. We should explain that there is a penalty for sin, which is eternity in the fires of Hell. Never withhold the reality of Hell from people when you witness to them. But we must be VERY careful to never give the wrong impression that their behavior must change to be saved.

I love what Pastor Harry Ironside (1876-1951) said:

> "In all that I have written I have failed completely to express what was surging up in my soul if I have given anyone the impression that I think of repentance as something meritorious which must be produced in man by self-effort ere he is fit to come to God for salvation." —Dr. Harry Ironside, a quote from chapter 16, [2]THE PREACHING THAT PRODUCES REPENTANCE, from his timeless classic book, [3]EXCEPT YE REPENT.

I agree 100 %! The entire concept of Lordship Salvation is based in self-righteousness. The concept of wrong repentance is rooted in self-righteousness. Never, ever, accept the teaching that repentance means anything more than a simple change of mind. That may not settle right with you dear friend, but it is God's Word. The Lord in His infinite wisdom intentionally chose [4]metanoia (a Greek noun that means "a change of mind"). If God wanted to use a different word that included a change of behavior, then He would have chose a different word. Think about that! Why do so many preachers ADD meaning to the word metanoia?

I did an internet search to see if I could find out why preachers add extra meaning to repentance as "

a change of mind.

" The hardcore Lordship salvation website GotQuestions.org came up first. This is the heresy that they teach:

> When a repentant person changes his mind about sin, that change of mind naturally leads to a turning from sin. Sin is no longer desirable or fun, because sin brings condemnation. The repentant sinner begins to abhor his past misdeeds. And he begins to seek ways to amend his behavior (see Luke 19:8). So, ultimately, the result of the change of mind about sin is good deeds. The sinner turns away from sin toward faith in the Savior, and that faith is shown in action (see James 2:17).

> [5]https://www.gotquestions.org/repentance-change-mind-turn-sin.html

That is an ASSUMPTION! They are perverting the Bible meaning of repentance based upon their own flawed human understanding and not Scripture. Nowhere in the Bible are we taught that repentance (a change of mind) naturally leads to a turning from sin!!! This is human reformation and not the work of the Holy Spirit. In true salvation the sinner has zero power to turn away from their sins. It is the power of Christ in the life of a born-again believer that enables us to turn away from sin (Galatians 2:20). In other words, God saves us and the Holy Spirit changes us. This is the fruit of the Spirit (Galatians 5:22-25).

The horrible preceding quote from GotQuestions.org attributes all of the changes in a believer's life to SELF, and not the Holy Spirit. According to their flawed reasoning, all of the changes in a believer's life has its origin in repentance; but the Bible teaches that a believer is transformed by the renewing of our mind (Romans 12:1-2). John 17:17 teaches that the believer is sanctified by the Word of God, the truth. I completely reject the heretical idea that the change of mind which is necessary to believe the Gospel, somehow perpetuates into a change of behavior, so that if someone's behavior hasn't change they aren't really saved.

Friend, if you don't have the Holy Spirit you're not saved. That is the truth! Romans 8:9, "But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his. " I hope you see the big difference between the manmade changes that false teachers require, versus the changes which the Holy Spirit produces in the believer. No pastor should ever teach people that repentance is anything more than a simple change of mind. For to do so is to corrupt the Word of God. No mention of changing one's behavior ought ever be mentioned with repentance. God doesn't, so why should we? Where the Bible is silent we should be silent.

I love what Mario Cuomo, the governor of New York said: "Everyone has a right to their own opinion, but nobody has a right to their own facts." Yes Sir! The FACT of the matter is that repentance in the Bible concerning salvation is simply "a change of mind."

2.8.37 A Closer Look At The Pre-Wrath Rapture (2021-08-27 00:51)

1st Thessalonians 4:13-18, "But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him. For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep. For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord. Wherefore comfort one another with these words."

This helpful writing in defense of a PreTribulation Rapture is authored by by Joshua Toupos:

PRE-WRATH RAPTURE PRINCIPALITY DECALOG

10 Reasons Pre-Wrath Rapture doesn't Work:

1. The Rapture is no longer a surprise event. It sets up a false construct that certain signs and events must precede the Rapture which collides with Jesus saying the timing of this nanosecond event, is known only by the Father.

2. We become the thief stealing Immanency from the Lord. Just like if the law, then no longer grace, rendering it null and void, then if Antichrist must come first, then no longer Immanence and no need to be watchful, rendering immanence null and void.

3. It's no longer as in the days of Noah (was Noah rescued mid-40 days? Did even one drop of rainfall on him?). We tend to emphasize that wicked state of mankind on the earth in this Scripture. But there is something else that is very profound going on. Noah built the Ark, but he did not determine the timing, nor was it even him who shut the door and sealed it (Genesis 7:16). It was God alone. But it is a perfect Scripture to use it to defend the Immanent Pre-tribulation Rapture as in the days of Noah when God decides the timing and he shuts the door of the Rapture Ark to keep he and his family safe from judgment on all the earth for 40 days and nights that it rained and 150 days that the Flood remained on the earth! But Noah and his family were also safe from all of the wicked mankind on the earth while it was raining up to the point the Flood waters drown them all. Remember, the Ark sat there for 7 days before even one drop of rain began to fall! And note further that the Lord gives precise days and time frames, just like he tells us he will do in the Tribulation. He is consistent.

4. They redefine Tribulation and/or its duration "Day of the Lord" and "wrath of God" and "one week" of years. Prewrath divides the Tribulation into 3 parts vs. only two reminds me of false teachers like Carl Jung who turn the Trinity into Quaternity, and Roman Catholicism doing the same by adding Mary as a Co-Redemptrix. Two halves is what Scripture describes. Three-thirds is found nowhere in Daniel or Revelation…a pure invention and vain imagination private interpretation on the part of Marvin Rosenthal and Robert Van Kampen. Isn't that vain strongholds of imagination, myth, so-called science, and numerology condemned in Scripture?

Pre-Wrath disciples hang their hat on 2 Thess 2:3 that the Rapture can't happen until first the man of lawlessness is revealed. But what struck me like lightning was Daniel's 9:27: "And he shall confirm the covenant with many for one week…" This is SEISMIC because a week is the entire 7 years. So this means that the Antichrist is already revealed by the very first day at the very beginning of the 7 Years of Tribulation. The Antichrist signs the peace treaty at the very beginning of the Tribulation (the very beginning of the 70th week) according to Daniel 9:27. A week is the entire 7 years. The Antichrist was already revealed before the beginning of the 70th week. It's like Biden was known (revealed) long before he even ran for President. It's just that the beginning of the 70th week is when he signs the peace treaty with Israel. And peace treaties don't just pop instantly out of thin air, they require weeks if not years to negotiate and plan. The signing is to just confirm it and launch it. But even if the Rapture can't happen until after the beginning of the 70th week, it would logically follow that the Rapture could happen right after the signing and not have to wait for 3/4 of the Tribulation! Prewrath followers have redefined the Day of the Lord confined to a period supported nowhere in Scripture. Peter described that Day of the Lord as a day and time when a new heavens and earth are created in 2 Peter 3:10. But that does not occur until the end of the Millennium, a thousand years after the entire 7 years of Tribulation. So are we then going to say there was never any Day of the Lord prior to that? On top of that if you follow Rosenthal's reasoning the Day of the Lord is confined only to a brief period after the Great Tribulation (in his mind) of the first half of the second half the entire Tribulation 70th Week of Daniel. And if this is what Peter means, Pretribulationalist couldn't be right either, because using that logic (like there was no other "first resurrection," because the day of the Lord could not cover any of the seven years of Tribulation because the Day of the Lord couldn't have happened until the New Heavens and earth are created. But of course, we know that the Day of the Lord covers both the entire Tribulation period as well as the Lord creating a New Heavens and Earth!

5. Apostasia means departure and Paul defines it as an event, not a process. Yes, it can mean both a physical and spiritual departure. But the Day of the Lord is distinct from Last Days which is plural for the meaning of spiritual apostasy. But the context in 2 Thess. 2:3 is a singular day that launches the Day of the Lord which is 7 years of days or approximately 7 times 360 days. So Prewrath Rapture dictates and confines Christ the Groom to 630 days out of two thousand years without authority to do so! Instant means it begins as a physical departure and is instantaneous (twinkling of an eye). When was Paul was abandoned there was both physical departure and spiritual departure. Falling away is a process not just during the Tribulation, but the entire two thousand years of the church. There is no surprise in that.

6. Marvin Rosenthal calls Michael the Archangel the Restrainer. This too is highly improbable if not impossible because Jude tells us that he would not even contest with Satan over the body of Moses. Note in the passage in the passage in Jude, that it was not just over the body of Moses that Michael would not get entangled with Satan, where it states: "he did not presume to pronounce a blasphemous judgment against Satan." But this a more generalized statement proving where not even angels dare to tread! What to do with the body of Moses pales in comparison to an all-out war with Satan. So don't you think if Michael is named in such relatively insignificant matter as what to do with Moses's body that something as cataclysmic and apocalyptic as the Global final world war that Michael's name would be named? And wouldn't go to war with him and his Antichrist on earth be engaging in a judgment in which most of the entire Book of Revelation is pronouncing judgments? And Yes God does send other angels to exercise judgment, but if this were Michael, wouldn't he be named (and not presumed that it is him)? And note it is not war against Satan or judgment on Satan, but only judgments on men that angels conduct. And note who it is that ultimately does judge the Antichrist and Satan? The Lord himself! Yes Michael fought Satan in Heaven where Satan lost, and he will again defend Israel in the Tribulation, but there is no Scripture to support his fighting for the Church on earth, or for that matter even fighting to defend Gentiles who become saints. Michael's defined actions are only defensive (not offensive) and protecting, similar to the cherubim guarding the Garden of Eden from the entrance with a sword! Plus Jesus said in Mark 13:32 and Matthew 24:36, that this time not known by ANYONE, not even the Angels even in Heaven. But if even Michael is clueless, and is the restrainer, how will he even know when to initiate his restraint on the earth? And don't forget that this restraint has been going on since [1]Creation. So we are left with whom do I believe Rosenthal or Jesus? I think I will take Jesus!

7. Renders Satan's wrath greater than the wrath of God. Impossible because Satan is not omniscient or omnipotent which God alone is. No contest. The notion that Satan's wrath could trump God's wrath is farcical and mocks God, who will not be mocked as well as a reproach on Christ's own words!

8. The Rapture is when Christ the Groom will snatch up his Bride to be (now his fiancé who is the Church to whom he is betrothed). I wrestled and agonized the last few days because I love my brothers in Christ who subscribe to Prewrath Rapture, and the pain is spiritually excruciating that we are not in unity on this. Part of me even doubted I was right. Then a Providential event happened that sealed the deal for me, which became a living parable. A real-life recent parable: A daughter's boyfriend of five years came to the father and asked him if he, as the father would give permission to him to ask her for her hand in marriage and become engaged whom he said he loved. They are both Christians and the father considered him a potential son-in-law of the ages and already like a member of the family. So of course the father said yes! But it was ultimately his decision as the groom when to ask her and when they mutually set the date of their marriage. We don't know the day or the hour when he will literally ask her. The father would never dream of tampering with or forcing the marriage or the time of the marriage. But then it struck me, that this is precisely what Rosenthal and Pre-Wrath Rapture disciples are doing with the timing of when Christ the Groom can take up his Bride, virtually handcuffing the time frame when Christ is allowing to take up his Bride in the two thousand year history of the church. We champion Immanency for Christ's Return. It is also Immanency for the Day of the Lord and simultaneous! But it is immanency in one more colossal way, and that it is the Immanency of Christ the Groom taking up his Purchased Bride (who purchased the Bride, alone decides when to obtain her)!!! Is this timing today the Lord's or what? I know that Paul's command to not let the marriage be defiled is talking about a literal husband and wife marriage. But I think one could argue that we can't defile the Marriage Supper of the Lamb either by dictating to Christ the Groom when he must get married and barring it anytime before the Tribulation.

I was also just struck like lightning with one more thing regarding the Bridegroom Christ and Bride of Christ (the Church) and that is the Bridegroom Parable as the irrefutable proof that Pre-Wrath = The Foolish Virgins! If Mid-Trib or PreWrath Rapture has any logic or credibility, they would have to think there is no reason to be watchful for Pre-Trib because they think Immanence is impossible. If they are not watchful at all they could simply wait it out until all of the signs and at least half of the 7 year Tribulation has already taken place. If they are here during the first half of the Tribulation they think they can fill their lamps anytime up to ¾ of the Tribulation, thinking they have plenty of time to fill their lamps because Rosenthal says Christ the Groom can't come any day or hour. Therefore, if I had any doubts that Prewrath Rapture is fraudulent, they are now vaporized! "The Bridegroom does not consummate the Marriage until the Bridegroom decides!"

Here is the Bridegroom Parable in Scripture:◄ Matthew 25 ► The Parable of the Ten Virgins

> 1"Then the kingdom of heaven will be like ten virgins who took their lamps and went to meet the bridegroom. 2Five of them were foolish, and five were wise. 3For when the foolish took their lamps, they took no oil with them, 4 but the wise took flasks of oil with their lamps. 5 As the bridegroom was delayed, they all became drowsy and slept. 6 But at midnight there was a cry, 'Here is the bridegroom! Come out to meet him.'7 Then all those virgins rose and trimmed their lamps. 8 And the foolish said to the wise, 'Give us some of your oil, for our lamps are going out.' 9 But the wise answered, saying, 'Since there will not be enough for us and for you, go rather to the dealers and buy for yourselves.' 10 And while they were going to buy, the bridegroom came, and those who were ready went in with him to the marriage feast, and the door was shut. 11 Afterward the other virgins came also, saying, 'Lord, lord, open to us.' 12 But he answered, 'Truly, I say to you, I do not know you.'13 Watch therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour." Matthew 25:1-13 ESV

9. Peace and Safety precedes the entire Tribulation, not the first 3/4 of the Tribulation. Surely the biblical detailed description of the first half or first 3/4 of the 7 years of the Tribulation can't be the whole earth is living in peace and safety.

10. Equating Revelation 20 First Resurrection with Rapture would then have to mean Christ was not the First Resurrection. Also, the true Rapture requires the inclusion of we who are alive. Prewrath Rapture could not include the martyrs in the Tribulation because none of them were resurrected until the END of the entire 7 years (week of Daniel). But if that's true then Post Tribulation Rapture would have to be the correct view and sequence, not Prewrath Rapture. The First Resurrection in Rev. 20 therefore cannot be the very first resurrection in history. John is using "first" to contrast it with the last (or second) resurrection of the wicked, otherwise, it makes no sense! It is first (collectively of all the righteous) in a sequence of two in that grand scale of history. It is first and last in sequence, the second resurrection being collectively all of the wicked. We are part of the first resurrection by because the second death has no power over us.

Dr. Andy Woods captures it well with this statement:

> "I will just add three little things.
>
> First, the first resurrection concerns only the dead. Look at the language carefully in Revelation 20:4–5 and Daniel 12:2. The rapture, by contrast, doesn't just concern the dead in Christ but also those that are alive on the earth at the time (1 Thess. 4:17).
>
> Second, if the first resurrection is the first resurrection ever not only could there have not been a pre-trib. rapture but neither could there be a pre-wrath, mid trib., or post trib. rapture either. Beyond that, there couldn't even have been a resurrection of Jesus from the dead, which is obviously problematic in light of 1 Cor. 15: 14.
>
> Third, the number "first" in first resurrection (Rev. 20:4-5) is simply distinguishing that resurrection from the resurrection of the unsaved at the end of the thousand years. It's not talking about the first one ever in human history. If so, then Christ has not been raised!"

I would just add that the Tribulation Martyrs and the OT Saints were not part of the Church and therefore not part of the Rapture. However, they became included (fellow participants) in the totality of the First Resurrection when God raised them up to reign with us for the entire Millennium.

Here are two of the best refutations I have ever heard and seen in 50 years on Pre-Wrath Rapture by Pastor Andy Woods. The first video is:

Rapture or Apostasy in II Thessalonians 2

The second video is:

Explaining & Refuting Pre-Wrath, Daniel 9:2

2.8.38 A Problem I See With Fundamentalists Today (2021-08-29 10:26)

Matthew 13:13-15, “

Therefore speak I to them in parables: because they seeing see not; and hearing they hear not, neither do they understand.

And in them is fulfilled the prophecy of Esaias, which saith, By hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and shall not perceive:

For this people’s heart is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed; lest at any time they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and should understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them.

Sometimes people only hear what they want to hear. I remember a humorous incident many years ago at a former job. I was walking with a co-worker toward the lunch room and a pretty woman passed by walking the other direction. My co-worker said to her, “Hi.” She totally ignored him. So as he walked away he blurted out the “B word” for a female dog. She immediately replied with anger: “What did you say to me?” He responded, “I said ’Hi’.” He was telling the truth, he had said “Hi” to her but she ignored him. She just chose to hear only what she wanted to hear.

Now, although I don’t think he should have called her a female dog, it does well illustrate a big problem in churches that I see today. People only hear what they want to hear. Or better said, people only respond to what they choose to act upon. It has been rightly said that the smallest Bible in the world is the one that we live. If you think about that statement it is sadly true! Our biggest problem as fundamentalist Baptist Christians is that we often fail to live what we know. We are often guilty of selective hearing.

I just got a tornado warning on my mobile phone for the Pensacola area. That means a tornado has been spotted in the area.

It is 8:45 am.

The warning told me to go into a basement, but the hotel doesn’t have a basement! What do I do? What do I do? It is amazing how many decisions we make each day without even realizing it. I think I’ll just keep writing my blog and take my chances.

Let me make a practical application of the truth I am wanting to convey to you today. I recently met Pastor Jeff Redlin. He is the senior pastor of Campus Church in Pensacola. For those who know me, you know that I don’t bite my tongue, I speak my mind. I do mention the names of people. Most preachers avoid naming names so as to not offend people. My humble opinion is that mentioning names gets my point across much more effectively. People tend to sit up and pay attention much more when you use names!

I told pastor Redlin that I had moved 9,000 miles from Guam to Pensacola and am having a hard time. I told him that my neck hurts badly all the time. I told him that my doctor reduced my pain medications by more than half, causing more neck pain. I told him that I was living out of a suitcase in cheap hotel. I also told him that I was divorced and hoping to find a wife at Campus Church. Who could blame a guy for that? Pastor Redlin ignored me for 10 days when I emailed him.

I didn’t want to jump to any conclusions so I went to speak with him after the Sunday morning service. When he brushed me off I then knew that he had ignored my email, and it hurt my feelings. So I wrote to him the next day and told him that he “ made me feel like garbage.

” I was disappointed in him further when he had only heard what he wanted to hear. He never once expressed any sympathy or empathy for my suffering and loss. Pastor Redlin never once offered to pray with me. He never once said a word of encouragement. In a very immature and shallow manner, he berated me for seeking a wife at his church. He was offended that I had said he made me feel like garbage.

In hindsight, I am not impressed with Jeff Redlin at all. I do think highly of pastors in general, but I know when someday doesn’t care, and Pastor Redlin doesn’t care. He is guilty of selectively caring about people. This doesn’t surprise me because it has been the greatest sin of the Pensacola Christian College (PCC) camp for generations, staying neutral in the things of God. Pastor Jack Hyles said it best:

> “God has a special rebuke, again and again and again in the Bible, toward those people who keep their neutrality in the work of God!” —SOURCE: Dr. Jack Hyles, a quote from the great MP3 sermon, “[1]Where Were You In The Battle?”

I am so sick and tired of fundamentalist Baptists who refuse to fight in the battle today! PCC refuses to fight! Please [2]take a look at the Satanic Calvinist doctrine being preached at Bob Jones University today by their damnable president, Dr. Steve Pettit! That is the Devil’s lie of “Lordship” salvation! According to Steve Pettit you cannot just say that you’ve accepted Christ and that you are eternally secure in God’s promise of salvation. Dr. Pettit errantly preaches that you won’t know for certain that you have made it to Heaven until you finally get there! That is the lie of Calvinism, aka, the heresy called: The Perseverance Of The Saints.

I believe what Pastor Harry Ironside (1876-1951) believed—in the perseverance of the in-dwelling Holy Spirit, not the perseverance of the saints. I believe in the PRESERVATION OF THE SAINTS. Amen! Steve Pettit is an unsaved damnable false teacher! Anybody who denies the immediate new birth is a liar! You CAN in fact get saved and write your name, date and place you were born-again in your Bible, and you CAN live like the Devil for the rest of your life and still KNOW that you are going to Heaven as God’s redeemed child. That is why eternal life is a free gift (Romans 6:23; Ephesians 2:8-9). God doesn’t want us to continue in sin (Romans 3:31), but when we do sin God’s saving grace will abound (Romans 5:20).

Having said that, Pensacola Christian College (PCC) is eerily silent about the wickedness at Bob Jones University that I just shared with you. Unlike Jeff Redlin and the rest of the PCC camp, I am not a coward! It disturbs me that fundamentalist Christians today only see what they want to see. I have been attending the Campus Church. They have about 10,000 members. They have a gigantic magnificent building. They have first-class music. The pulpit sermons are dry at best and lack fiery preaching! Sadly, Campus Church does not stand! They refuse to cry aloud against the false teachers in the Bob Jones University camp!

What saith the Scripture? Jude 1:3, "Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you*that ye should earnestly contend for the faith* which was once delivered unto the saints." Titus 1:13-14, "This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith; Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men, that turn from the truth." How many Christians contend for the faith today? I have rebuked numerous pastors sharply in private, but they were arrogant and some forced me out of their church, as did the ungodly corrupt Harvest Baptist Church on Guam for seven years (2014-2021). It is wickedness!!!

All across the world today, especially the source in the United States, "

Lordship

" salvation is being taught and preached in churches, Bible colleges and religious organizations. And sadly, among the Bible colleges and churches which don't teach it, they refuse to expose the bad ones that do. Consequently, the heresy of Lordship Salvation has spread like a California wildfire, burning down people's lives and sending them to an eternal doom in the Lake of Fire.

It is a big deal folks! We have no right to only hear what we want to hear. I have been attending the Campus Church for a couple months and haven't heard one word spoken against anything! They don't preach, they give speeches. They don't stand, they go along with the trend. I dare them to prove me wrong!

Pastor Redlin only heard what he wanted to hear when I emailed him. All he focused on was that I told him that he'd made me feel like garbage,

" and he sure did. You'd think he would have apologized and left it at that, but he didn't. He made excuses and rebuked me for seeking a wife at church. Kindly said, Jeff Redlin has a problem and needs to learn how to treat people better.

He didn't want to hear that I was sleeping in my car at Wal-Mart's parking lot when I told him at the 4th of July picnic in 2021. That was my first day at Campus Church. I'll never forget the startled look on his face when I told him I was sleeping in Wal-Mart's parking lot, and how he got away from me as fast as he could, lest he need to help a hurting homeless brother. 1st John 3:17, "But whoso hath this world's good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him?" How sad. God knows that I wasn't asked for Pastor Redlin's help. At the time I didn't even know who he was. I was simply sharing with him my burden. But Pastor Redlin's response was pathetic. He didn't want to help. First impressions are lasting impressions. That

"Oh no, he might want my help, so I better walk away quickly

" attitude is exactly what is wrong with the entire PCC camp today!!!

I recently noticed that student's from BJU and PCC compete in intercollege sports. That bothers me folks! BJU's female basketball team "The Bruins" compete against PCC's female team "The Eagles." These Bible colleges play sports together, hobnob and rub shoulders together in fellowship, while PCC never speaks a word of rebuke against the Lordship Salvation and corrupt Devil's Bible revisions at BJU. I am sick and tired of bad pastors criticizing and dismissing the life's work of Pastor Peter S. Ruckman (1921-2016) because of his two divorces and problematic life.

Having said that, I don't agree one bit with [3]Dr. Ruckman's heresy that Old Testament saints were saved by works. Salvation has always been by faith alone in Christ (Acts 10:43). But Dr. Ruckman has done the Christian world a great service by providing us with a defense of the King James Bible. [4]Pastor Ruckman correctly identified Bob Jones University as the Alexandrian cult. In fact, [5]he called them cult headquarters! Nothing is destroying churches today like the Devil's perverse Bible revisions. Words matter to architects, bankers, lawyers, businessmen, politicians, scientists and in every contract that we sign; yet today's lame brain pastors and Bible college professors would have us to believe that words don't really matter to God. Wake up folks! Wake the hell up! It's time to smell the coffee and get out of your slumber.

We've got a big problem in our churches and religious institutions today. People just don't care anymore about the things they ought to care about. We're all guilty at times of only hearing what we want to hear, instead of paying attention to the little details. Right doctrine matters! People matter! Pastor Jeff Redlin horribly made me feel like garbage as a divorced person. Sadly, he is okay with that and doesn't care. There is something wrong with a pastor who doesn't even bother to comfort a hurting man. Even after I poured out my heart in a lengthy email, telling him kindly about my long battle with neck pain, he didn't care. I even sent him photos of my x-ray, MRI and a thermal scan of my neck, so he could see my suffering.

Do you know that Pastor Jeff Redlin didn't even bother to respond?

It is sad but true!

He is the senior pastor at Campus Church! The guy could of at least wrote back and said,

"We love you at Campus Church David. I'm sorry for your pain and loss. I just prayed for you. God still has a purpose for your life and we hope you will serve the Lord with us here at Campus Church. Lord willing, we look forward to seeing you Sunday." I would have been happy with that. He just blew me off. I spent two hours composing my e-mail to him. He's probably make some excuse that he is busy. Remember, I already told him a few days earlier that he made me feel like garbage! If somebody told you that you made them feel like garbage, would you ignore them? Yes, you would if you don't care. Today's pastors are pathetic!!!

I see a big problem in our fundamentalist institutions today, which is that professed Christians don't care. Pastors have become mere employees. Bible colleges are merely about academics. All across America we've got Bible college graduates, academic types, who woefully lack compassion for hurting people. I even told Pastor Redlin that sometimes hurting people just want to know that somebody cares, yet he didn't care. I told him that people just want to be loved, but there was no love from him. Perhaps he has no love to give, because he has no true walk with God. The Lord will be his judge, not me.

I've heard Redlin speak of God's love from the pulpit, and emphasize the importance that all of God's children love others, even those people who dress talk and think differently than we do. I couldn't agree more! Yet, why didn't he apply his preaching to himself when it came to me? Why wouldn't he show me God's love? Why didn't he care about me as a hurting human being? Pastor Redlin said that someone sent him my ministry websites. He had nothing good to say about my life's work, not one kind or encouraging word! That speaks volumes about his phoniness as a pastor. All he had to say was a word of criticism. He said that him and his clergy associates noticed that I find "weaknesses in pastors." I replied that what he calls "weakness" is actually hardcore damnable heresy and wickedness. Pastor John MacArthur does not have a "weakness" in teaching "

Lordship

Salvation, he is a damnable false teacher who needs to be exposed. The PCC camp refuses to stand. That is not a "weakness," it is WICKEDNESS!!!

PCC is like a man who knows that his neighbour is committing a crime, but looks the other way. They don't want to get involved. They don't want to make enemies or become controversial. That is why PCC is growing massively today in popularity, because it is all good and no bad. They want to serve God and mind their own business. The problem is that no man is an island to himself. Everything that we say and do in some manner affects other people. PCC allows their students to compete in sports with apostate institutions like Bob Jones University (BLU), but they refuse to expose their false teaching. In so doing they are guilty of being partakers of their evil deeds at Bob Jones. 2nd John 1:11, "For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds."

What really irritates me is that the pastors of Campus Church look down their Pharisaical noses on my website ministry. Pastor Redlin had nothing good to say about my 19 years of hard work. That tells me that the ungodly PCC attitude of isolationism causes them to resent and even condemn faithful preachers like me who STAND. Shame on the pastors of Campus Church and the entire PCC camp! Truth matters! Right doctrine matters! Ironically they would be the first people to agree with those exclamatory statements. Yet, their actions deny their words, because if truth really mattered then today's pastors would cry aloud against the false teachings which are prevalent in churches and Bible colleges today.

Please understand that I am not saying the PCC camp hasn't been a blessing, it has. Millions of people have been saved, lives changed and churches built by their faithful work. But they need to do much better! What about the millions of people who are dying in their sins and going to Hell, because Pastor John MacArthur and the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam lied to them? Ladies and gentlemen, we've got multiple plans of salvation circulating in our churches and Bible colleges today. I am rebuking them sharply that they may be sound in the faith, just as Titus 1:13 commands me to do! Sadly, my preaching has fallen on deaf ears! The [6]Bob Jones University crowd are full of hubris and arrogance, subverted of themselves.

I once watched a very interesting 12-hour documentary by historian film producer, Ken Burns, on '[7]The American Civil War.' It is heartbreaking history! I just heard a quote in the film by President Abraham Lincoln (1809-1865) that caught my attention:

> "In great contests [battles], each party claims to act in accordance with the will of God—both may be, but one must be, wrong—God cannot be for and against the same thing at the same time!" —President Abraham Lincoln

Why did Mr. Lincoln say that? It is because both the Northern Union and the Southern Confederacy claimed to be doing "God's will" in fighting The Civil War (1860-1965). Both President Jefferson Davis in the south, and President Abraham Lincoln in the north, said they were doing "God's will." As Mr. Lincoln wisely points out, that is IMPOSSIBLE! When two opposing parties, who are warring against each other, claiming to be doing God's will, obviously someone is WRONG! That is why Abraham Lincoln made that powerful statement!

The Free Grace crowd (Harry Ironside, Jack Hyles, Curtis Hutson, Max Younce, Ralph Yankee Arnold, Steven Anderson, myself, et cetera) believe that you can be eternally saved without giving up any sins; but the Lordship Salvation crowd (John MacArthur, Bob Jones University, Steve Pettit, Marty Herron, Billy Graham, Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, John Piper, Adrian Rogers, Ray Comfort, Paul Washer, et cetera) teach that you cannot be saved unless you repent by turn away from your sinning. For example: here is what Ray Comfort preaches...

> "So if the plane goes down, you'd end up in Hell! There are two things you have to do to be saved. Do you remember what they are? I told you what they are—You've got to repent and trust the Savior! ... God's offering you everlasting life upon your repentance and faith in Christ. Who in his right mind wouldn't say, 'Whoa! That's a good offer!' (The curious woman asks what it means to "repent"?)... Have you ever said you're sorry to someone you did something wrong to? That's all repentance is—You've sinned against God; it's a matter of saying, 'God, I'm sorry,' and then LIVING A LIFESTYLE that proves the reality of your repentance. That's what repentance is, it's a continual thing! God, 'I'm sorry, but I'm not going going to lie or steal or blaspheme Your name ever again. It has that attitude! And the second thing—trust in Jesus!" [emphasis added] [8]SOURCE

That is [9]also what Dr. Steve Pettit (president of Bob Jones University since 2014) perversely teaches to their 2,600 students at BJU. It is wickedness!!! Why doesn't the PCC camp expose them? Why don't they care? Why do they allow their students to play sports together? Do you see friend how messed up our churches and Bible colleges are today? We say that truth matters, but our behavior says they we really don't believe that! If truth mattered, then PCC would rebuke the Bob Jones crowd and have nothing to do with them. It is apostasy!

2.8.39 Dr. Bob Jones Sr. Chapel Sayings (2021-08-30 00:30)

Proverbs 13:20, "He that walketh with wise men shall be wise: but a companion of fools shall be destroyed."

I love that Bible verse from Proverbs 13:20. There's an old adage attributed to Benjamin Franklin that goes: "He that lieth down with dogs shall rise up with fleas." In other words, if one spends time with bad people, one will suffer in some way (often by becoming like said associates). Be careful who you choose as friends!

The great (or bad) thing is that you don't have to personally meet and hang around somebody to become like them. Case in point is Jesus Christ. As God's children we trust, love, know and follow Jesus, but we have never actually met Him. ...

> 1st Peter 1:7-9, "That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ: Whom having not seen, ye love; in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory: Receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls."

That is so awesome! The Bible acknowledges that we are trusting in a Savior we have never met. Did you know that we get a special blessing for that? John 20:29, "Jesus saith unto him, Thomas, because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed: blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed." Wow! I am glad that I can prove my love for the Father and His only begotten Son by believing (having faith) even when I cannot see Him.

Repeatedly in the Holy Bible we read about the person with a wise tongue, or the lips of the wise. Proverbs 15:2, "The tongue of the wise useth knowledge aright: but the mouth of fools poureth out foolishness." Proverbs 15:7, "The lips of the wise disperse knowledge: but the heart of the foolish doeth not so." Proverbs 16:23, "The heart of the wise teacheth his mouth, and addeth learning to his lips." Proverbs 18:15, "The heart of the prudent getteth knowledge; and the ear of the wise seeketh knowledge."

Having said all that, Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) was a godly and wise man. Here are a bunch of his wise, Chapel Sayings:

- It is a sin to do less than your best.
- The door to the room of success swings on the hinges of opposition.
- The acid test of our love for God is obedience to His Word.
- Trust God as if it all depends upon Him, and work as if it all depends upon you.
- The test of your character is what it takes to stop you.
- The greatest ability is dependability.
- The two biggest little words in the English language are the two little words "do right."
- It is one thing to know there is a God; it's another thing to know the God that is.
- A man is a fool who leans on the arm of flesh when he can be supported by the arm of Omnipotence.
- What you love and what you hate reveal what you are.
- Jesus never taught men how to make a living; He taught men how to live.
- Do not ask God to give you a light burden; ask Him to give you strong shoulders to carry a heavy burden.
- It is better to die for something than to live for nothing.
- A Christian does good deeds, but just doing good deeds does not make a man a Christian.
- Your character is what God knows you to be; your reputation is what men think you are.

- You and God make a majority in your community.
- True success is finding God’s will for your life and doing it. Being faithful is being successful.
- It is never right to do wrong in order to get a chance to do right.
- Jesus said that He would be in the midst of two or three gathered in His name, but this does not mean that our Lord does not like to have a larger crowd.
- It is no disgrace to fail; it is a disgrace to do less than your best to keep from failing.
- The religions of the world say, "do and live." The religion of the Bible says, "live and do."
- God will not do for you what He has given you strength to do for yourself.
- Dying men have said, "I am sorry I have been an atheist, an infidel, an agnostic, a skeptic, or a sinner"; but no man ever said with his last breath, "I am sorry I have lived a Christian life."
- The drunkard in the ditch has gone to the dogs. According to the Bible, the self-righteous man who thinks he doesn’t need God has gone to the Devil.
- When I was fourteen years old, I knelt by my dying mother’s bed. She smiled at me through the death shadow on her face and said she was going Home. She asked me to meet her in Heaven, and I gave her my promise. Her body sleeps in a lonely cemetery in the state of Alabama. As I have sat by her grave and listened to a funeral dirge played by the wind in the pine trees nearby, I have said, "Mother, I will see you again someday."
- Some people say I am dreaming. If I am, don’t wake me. If this world were all, I would want my Christian faith. My faith hangs a rainbow of hope over the dust of my beloved ones and kindles a smile on the brow of my bereavement. This world is not all. There is a God. There is a Heaven. There is a Hell. I am playing a safe game. If there were only one world, I have already won. Since there is an afterlife, I win for two worlds. You don’t have to take any chances with your soul. Don’ take any.

Evangelist Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968)

It is a shame and tragic that Bob Jones University (BJU) today has 100 % departed from the godly beliefs and convictions of its founder in 1927. Dr. Bob Jones Sr. would have took a stick of dynamite and [2]blown Bob Jones College to smithereens today, and he said so himself in 1945! Today's preachers don't stand anymore. The love of money has caused them to dip their sails, refrain from offending peers in the clergy, and letting the world go to Hell. Praise God for fiery preachers like Bob Jones Sr. who exposed infidels like Dr. John MacArthur, Pastor Marty Herron and Evangelist Ray Comfort! Right doctrine matters!

2.8.40 I Never Knew What To Give My Dad On Father's Day (2021-08-30 17:35)

Psalms 147:10-11, "

He delighteth not in the strength of the horse: he taketh not pleasure in the legs of a man.

The LORD taketh pleasure in them that fear him, in those that hope in his mercy*."

Hebrews 11:6, "

But without faith it is impossible to please him*: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

" Proverbs 23:26,

My son, give me thine heart*, and let thine eyes observe my ways.

As an adult I often had difficulty deciding what to get my earthly father on Father's Day. My father had enough money to buy whatever he wanted. So what do you get the guy who has everything? So I would get out my crayons and colored felt-tip pens (yes, even as an adult) and I would take the time to make a handmade card for my Dad. I wanted to give him something that money couldn't buy.

Now I find myself as a child of God asking the same question—What can I give my heavenly Father? God can do anything (omnipotent), go everywhere (omnipresent) and He knows everything (Omniscient). What can a clump of clay from the earth give to His Maker to please him? We have many indications in the Word of God what makes God happy.

Hebrews 11:6, "

But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

" We know without any question that FAITH pleases God!

Psalms 147:10-11, "He delighteth not in the strength of the horse: he taketh not pleasure in the legs of a man. The LORD taketh pleasure in them that fear him, in those that hope in his mercy*.” God loves to forgive people! That’s the whole reason why God sent His only begotten Son into the world to die on the cross for our sins. 2nd Peter 3:9, “The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.” Proverbs 19:11, “The discretion of a man deferreth his anger; and it is his glory to pass over a transgression.” The Lord loves to forgive! God created man in His own image, not just His physical appearance but also in our soul and spirit.

The dearest thing to the heart of God is soulwinning! From the blood sacrifice of Abel in Genesis to the saints of Revelation whose robes are washed in the blood of the Lamb, the great theme of the Holy Bible is the salvation of humanity. God desires for “ ALL ” to come to repentance, that is to be saved (2nd Peter 3:9).

Obedience pleases God! The first thing that every person must do to please God is to get saved by trusting in His Son Jesus. You can spend your life doing many wonderful works in Jesus’ name, and preach in Jesus’ name, and follow Jesus calling Him

Lord, Lord,

” but none of that will please God if you are not resting 100 % in Jesus because of what He did to pay for your sins. John 6:40, “And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.

” Faith alone in Jesus Christ pleases God.

Soulwinning Makes God Our Heavenly Father Happy

Now what about God’s children? That is the $64,000 question. What does a redeemed child of God give to our heavenly Father to make Him happy. Dear friend, nothing makes God any happier than preaching the Gospel. Luke 15:10, “Likewise, I say unto you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth.” Every time someone receives Jesus Christ as their personal Savior, Heaven throws a party! God rejoices with the saints in the presence of the angels. I think the reason why the Bible says there is rejoicing “in the presence of the angels” is because redemption is a human experience. The angels were not redeemed by the blood of the Lamb.

Dear friend, do you have any idea how fortunate we are to be humans? Christ didn’t die for the angels. God created the angels to serve Him and us. That is why we read the precious words in Matthew 18:6 and 10, “But whoso shall offend one of these little ones which believe in me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea. ...

Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones; for I say unto you, That in heaven their angels do always behold the face of my Father which is in heaven.

Psalms 34:7, “ The angel of the LORD encampeth round about them that fear him, and delivereth them.”

This passage speaks of Christian believers. We are the little ones (God’s children) who BELIEVE in Christ. The Bible warns everyone not to do evil against any child of God, because

THEIR ANGELS (at least two guardian angels) DO ALWAYS BEHOLD THE FACE OF THE FATHER. The angels know their place. 24-hours a day our guardian angels stand alert waiting for God's next order concerning us. I do not find any teachings in the Bible about angels needing sleep or rest. I think that are awake all the time. I am greatly comforted knowing that God has stationed angels to care for me. Since the word " is plural, we know that there are at least TWO of them. When Lazarus died, the

(Luke 16:22) came to escort him home. Again we see that the word angels is plural, meaning there were two or more.

The Angels Were Created To Serve

The angels don't care for us, our heavenly Father cares for us. Matthew 6:7-8, "But when ye pray, use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking.

Be not ye therefore like unto them: for your Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask him.

" The angels were created to serve. I love the angels! I cannot wait to meet them and spent time getting to know them.

1st Peter 1:12, "

Unto whom it was revealed, that not unto themselves, but unto us they did minister the things, which are now reported unto you by them that have preached the gospel unto you with the Holy Ghost sent down from heaven; which things the angels desire to look into.

" The angels have a keen interest in spiritual things! God created them to serve and a big part of their duties is caring for believers as the Father gives them commandment. Our assigned angels DO ALWAYS BEHOLD THE FACE OF THE FATHER, waiting for His next command concerning His dear saints on earth.

There is much rejoicing in the presence of the angels. Jesus and the saints rejoice continually as lost people get saved, and backslidden saints repent and get right with their heavenly Father. This is hard for some of us to understand, because we are so preoccupied with our favorite professional sports team, television Hollywood, an upcoming church barbeque, life's heavy burdens, our health afflictions and other things that choke and hinder us from bearing fruit to Christ with the Gospel. Luke 8:14, "And that which fell among thorns are they, which, when they have heard, go forth, and are choked with cares and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection." This world will choke us if we do not prioritize serving God, so that Satan will render us useless and ineffective for God.

The emphasis of The Parable Of The Sower And The Seeds is not about salvation, which is a common error people make; the emphasis is about maturing in the Lord to bear fruit (souls saved). God's ultimate goal for every new convert is to grow so that person reproducers into more believers. This is The Great Commission (Matthew 28:19-20). God didn't save you and me just to have fire insurance. God didn't save us merely to sit on our blessed assurance! God is not pleased with a believer to merely occupies 18 inches of pew three times a week, but never shares the Gospel with lose sinners. If you want to make God happy dear friend, then you need to share the Gospel with lost sinners, so they can escape the damnation of Hell too.

We've all heard every type of Bible teaching and preaching imaginable on television, radio and the internet. But dear reader, any Bible preaching or teaching that does not compel the listener to get busy serving God, witnessing to lost people with the Gospel, is not sound Bible doctrine. Revelation 19:10b says " the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.

" Good Bible teaching is centered around Jesus Christ and getting people saved through faith in Him!

There is a hierarchy of authority in Heaven and earth. This is also true of the Satanic kingdom. Ephesians 6:12, " For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places.

" Acts 26:18, " To open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me."

Revelation 4:11 teaches that ALL THINGS were created to please God. **"

Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created.

Your Heavenly Father Wants To Spend Time Fellowshipping With You

God created ALL THING and for His pleasure they were created.

I was born early in the morning on March 5, 1967. God made me for the sole purpose of pleasing Him! In hindsight I am humbled and amazed beyond words that God wanted to create something and somebody like me. Why did God make me? It blows my mind to realize that the wondrous God Who spoke the unsearchable universe into existence, pays attention to my thoughts and cares about me.

I don't know if you have ever done this, but when I buy something from the store, I am humbled that it was made just for me! When I eat a delicious pizza from the store, I stop to appreciate that someone took the time and effort to obtain and mix all the ingredients just right, and then package the item and deliver it to the store, and this particular pizza is mine, ALL MINE! I don't feel worthy. When I eat a delicious Big Mac from MacDonald's (I love those things, especially the dehydrated onions and pickle in the middle), I enjoy realizing as I savor every wonderful bite that this Big Mac was MADE JUST FOR ME!!!

I enjoy, appreciate and am thankful for every thing in my life!!! I am often reminded that God made me in His image. I don't think any of us can truly understand the depth of what that means. Just like I enjoy savoring every bite of my Big Mac, and thinking about all that went into making this heavenly moment on earth possible, I also think God savors our fellowship with Him. How often have I prayed quickly just to know that I prayed to ease my conscience? Do you think God enjoys drive-by-praying? I am as guilty as anyone of only praying in my spare time, or at a traffic light while waiting, or at my convenience. Aren't we terrible the way we mistreat God? We sure are! Yet our precious Savior fully understands our weaknesses and flaws. Psalms 103:14, " For he knoweth our frame; he remembereth that we are dust."

I enjoy knowing that God enjoys my presence. God enjoys when I pay attention to Him. James 4:8-10, "

Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts, ye double minded.

Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to heaviness.

Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you up.

" I love that promise from God. If we make an effort to draw closer to God, HE WILL draw closer to us as well.

Be A DOER Of God's Word, Not Just A HEARER

Dear friend, God has been in the religious business for a long time! The Lord knows our human nature far better than we do!

Proverbs 20:24, " Man's goings are of the LORD; how can a man then understand his own way?" The Bible is our instruction manual as human beings. When all else fails, read the instruction manual! ...

> James 1:22-25, "
>
> But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves.
>
> For if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass: For he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was.
> But whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed*. "

I very much love this passage of Scripture! When I went to San Diego in 2010 to get my second neck surgery, I had stopped in a Mexican restaurant to eat. As I exited I saw a man searching in garbage pails for food. I went over and handed him a Gospel tract with $20 inside. I'll never forget what he said to me: "Thank you for being a doer and not just a hearer of the Word." I cherish what he said to me. Since that day I have strived by God's grace to BE A DOER OF GOD'S WORD, and not just another idle hearer. Our churches across the world are filled with HEARERS only, sitting on the premises instead of standing on the promises!

Proverbs 14:14, " The backslider in heart shall be filled with his own ways: and a good man shall be satisfied from himself. " We've all been backslidden for most of our life! We Americans are the worst!!! The television is the center of most homes, where the family gathers around it as an altar to worship Hollywood's celebrities and gods among the people.

Dear friend, taking 15-minutes out for God each day is not the best thing to do. The answer is to meditate day and night in the Bible, letting it be a part of our life 24/7. You would be better off reading just one Bible verse and thinking all day about what it means, than to read 20 chapters and don't think about it anymore. Notice what James said:

> James 1:22-25, "But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves. For if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass: For he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was. But whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein , he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed."

Reading the Holy Bible helps them most who CONTINUE THEREIN. ...

> Psalms 1:1-3, "Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful. But his delight is in the law of the LORD; and in his law doth he meditate day and night . And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper."

Again, just as we saw in James 1:22-25, the key is to CONTINUE THEREIN, MEDITATING DAY AND NIGHT in the Word of God. Tens of millions of people go to church, but forget what they heard afterwards. If you want to be close to God and see fruit in your life, then you need to saturate your mind, heart and will with the inspired King James Bible. The Word of God doesn't just have the answer, THE HOLY BIBLE IS THE ANSWER!!!

The God of the universe has everything except our heart. Proverbs 23:26,

My son, give me thine heart, and let thine eyes observe my ways.

" If you will give God your heart dear saint of God, He will make you all that He desires for you to be! Matthew 11:29, " Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls." The way to learn about Christ is to get into the yoke with Him, pulling the work load of soulwinning. Nothing is dearer to the heart of God than our obedience and trust.

> When we walk with the Lord in the light of His Word,
> What a glory He sheds on our way!
> While we do His good will, He abides with us still,
> And with all who will trust and obey.
> Trust and obey, for there's no other way
> To be happy in Jesus, but to trust and obey.

2.8.41 Homosexuality Should Never Be Accepted As "A Right" (2021-08-31 10:08)

Proverbs 14:9, "

Fools make a mock at sin: but among the righteous there is favour.

" Jeremiah 7:9-10, "Will ye steal, murder, and commit adultery, and swear falsely, and burn incense unto Baal, and walk after other gods whom ye know not; And come and stand before me in this house, which is called by my name, and say, We are delivered to do all these abominations?" Jeremiah asked the Israelites what was wrong with them? Will you commit homosexuality and say that you were " born that way,

blaming God? There is nothing new under the sun. Wicked people today are twisting the truth around, changing the truth of God into a lie (Romans 1:25).

No one has a " right

to break God's Commandments.

No one has a

right

" to commit the sin of stealing, coveting or bearing false witness against thy neighbour. No one has a right

" to commit the sin of homosexuality. God hates sin and so should we! We must never accept the sin with the sinner, nor reject the sinner with the sin. God loves sinners (Romans 5:8).

No one has a

right

" to commit the sin of adultery.

Leviticus 20:10, "

And the man that committeth adultery with another man's wife, even he that committeth adultery with his neighbour's wife, the adulterer and the adulteress shall surely be put to death.

" In America today adultery is openly permitted by the courts. There is no severe penalty, if any. In the state of Maryland adultery is a crime punishable by paying a $10 fine. That is disgusting! What does that say about the government's view of the sacredness of marriage? Whereas God says that adultery is a crime that deserves the death penalty, the state of Maryland only slaps the adulterer with a $10 fine. Proverbs 14:9, “

Fools make a mock at sin: but among the righteous there is favour.

Man always leans on his carnal vain understanding instead of the truth of God’s Living Word unto Life Eternally. Proverbs 14:12, “There is a way which seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death.” The argument that if a trait is "naturally" occurring it should be acceptable to society, is hypocritically only used by the media in regards to homosexuality. The fact is most people do not follow that "logic" in regards to other traits (e.g., alcoholism, drug abuse, stealing, obesity, et cetera). No one advocates that we should celebrate and encourage those traits. So why only sodomy?

The truth is homosexuality is "natural" because sinning is "natural" to fallen man. Our culture continues to choose to live in the "gray" when everything is spelled out for us in black and white. A person’s God-given free will to choose what to believe, doesn’t change THE TRUTH.

Disagreement and discrimination are not the same thing. Unfortunately in the culture in which we live, voicing a difference of opinion is now equated with hate speech. Way too many people today equate disagreement with somebody as being hatred toward them. I can disagree with you and still love you. Flesh says I was born this way; Jesus says you must be born again. Not only are we in control of our actions, but we will also be judged for the choices that we make in life. Ecclesiastes 12:13-14, “Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man. For God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil.”

2.8.42 Take Control Of Your Health Before You Lose It (2021-08-31 19:16)

Daniel 1:11-16, “Then said Daniel to Melzar, whom the prince of the eunuchs had set over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah,

Prove thy servants, I beseech thee, ten days; and let them give us pulse to eat, and water to drink.

Then let our countenances be looked upon before thee, and the countenance of the children that eat of the portion of the king’s meat: and as thou seest, deal with thy servants.

So he consented to them in this matter, and proved them ten days.

And at the end of ten days their countenances appeared fairer and fatter in flesh than all the children which did eat the portion of the king’s meat.

Thus Melzar took away the portion of their meat, and the wine that they should drink; and gave them pulse.

This is a famous passage of Scripture with health enthusiast. Unfortunately, most people who are familiar with this passage don't eat this way. Pastor Rick Warren made a big deal of this passage a few years ago. He was selling his "[1]The [2]Daniel Plan.

" Have you seen Rick Warren lately in 2021? He looks like Jabba The Hutt from Star Wars, weighing about 700 pounds!

I don't throw rocks at anyone, I am struggling myself with my weight. I lost 20 pounds earlier this year on Guam. But when I moved to Pensacola Florida I broke my stride. Now I am surrounded by fast food restaurants while living out of a suitcase in a hotel. So I have gained 10 pounds in two months! I decided today not to let this continue, so I went to Wal-Mart and bought a big sealable container and several bags of dry beans. I bought a pot with a strainer in it to soak the beans in. I also bought a small Crock Pot and several spices. ...

The Beans, Spices And Sealable Container I Bought At Wal-Mart Today

I am going to eat one cup of dry beans cooked per day. That will give me a diet high in protein and fiber. I have learned much about gaining and losing weight over the past few years. One thing I have learned is that you cannot starve yourself to lose weight. You can try, but you will very likely fail after 12 hours, because you will be too hungry. The key to lose weight is TO EAT, but you need to eat Low Calorie Density foods, like beans, yogurt, sweet potatoes, fish and vegetables.

I will soak one cup of dry beans each day, drain the water, and at night put that cup of beans in the Crock Pot overnight on low so it will be ready to eat in the morning. Beans are a GREAT way to lose weight, and they make you feel full. I was going to also buy a Nutra Ninja, but Wal-Mart ran out of the 1,000 watt units. I bought a couple cases of mineral water. It is important to drink a lot of water to lose weight, because it speeds up your metabolism. Lord willing, I cannot wait to rent an apartment, so I can bake fish in the oven and barbeque chicken.

Anyway, I don't want to gain all my weight back, so I am fighting my bad eating habits. Eating junk food is why so many people are fat slobs! What you eat today you will crave tomorrow! Yogurt cannot compare to Little Caesars. One Little Caesar's pizza is 3,000 calories! I can eat the whole pizza in one day! Add a coke and some brownies and you've got 4,000 calories for the day. You will gain 1 pound every 4 days eating like that! It's fun at the start for a few months, until you cannot bend over anymore and your guy makes you look pregnant! No thanks!

The only way to avoid becoming an obese fat American is YOU MUST GET AWAY from the way American's abuse their health. You must prepare your own meals and eat at your own pace. Just one double-cheese WHATABURGER is 950 calories! Add a milkshake and that's another 560 calories! Add some fries and you've got another 300 calories. That's 1,810 calories so far for the day! It is SO EASY to eat 5,000 calories a day! Just 3,500 calories is one pound of weight! Your body burns about 2,000 calories a day on average! You get the picture!!!

For the next few months I am going to be watching my diet. I usually don't have a problem with my diet, but right now I don't have a refrigerator or a stove, so I am limited. This is a bad time for me and I need to be careful, or I'll look like Fat Albert! I have learned that there are no gimmicks to lose weight. There are no magic pills, or clever methods or special secret to losing weight. It all comes down to calories in versus calories out. You need to reduce your calorie intake below your maintenance calories (i.e., the number of calories your body needs each day to maintain the same weight). If you eat 1,200 calories you will lose weight! You can lose 2 pounds per week by just eating 1,000 calories per day total. It's not easy to do if you snack a lot! Just one original glazed Krispy Kreme doughnut is 190 calories!!! I can eat 2 boxes (12 doughnuts) per day just for desert!

The only way to lose weight is you have to want it bad enough to pay the price of changing your eating habits. You can still eat, and you should eat, but you need to eat nutritious foods and abandon the burgers, pizza, pasta, deep fried foods, milkshakes, rice and deserts. Our mind is our own worst enemy. I kept justifying eating junk food by telling myself that I'm living out of a suitcase. I realized today that my body is lying to me! So I decided that I CAN eat healthy right now. Being in constant neck pain doesn't help. I get depressed often. But I don't want my diabetes back, which WILL return if I gain any more weight. So I am going to fight this. I see obese people everywhere I go, even doctors! It all comes down to personal choices.

The hardest part about losing weight is that it takes time, and most of us lack the discipline and patience to consistently eat healthy long enough to see big results. I just set a short term goal of losing 10 pounds. The first 5-8 pounds is water and the undigested food in your stomach, so to lose a solid 10 pounds you need to drop at least 15-18 pounds on the scale. The best place to start is right now, today. Eat a healthy meal today, and go from there. When you feel hungry, eat, but eat low calories density foods.

Today I ate a package of oatmeal for breakfast, which was about 150 calories. I had a chicken breast sandwich on one piece of Dave's Bread with some spicy sweet mustard. It was great! That was only 150 calories too! I ate a couple olives and two pickles. I took w multivitamins. I drank a protein shake, which was 180 calories. And I did sneak one glazed Krispy Kreme doughnut, which was 190 calories. So for the day I had about 800 calories total. I'll repeat that tomorrow and add a handful of mixed nuts too, which is about 100 calories. I'll eat 1 cup of dry beans cooked tomorrow, which is about 337 calories. I'll remove something else, so I can try to limit my total calories to 1,000 for the day. That is my goal each day.

So here are some helpful take away points that I have learned to lose weight quickly:

1. Eat oatmeal every morning (it will make you feel full)
2. Eat beans each day (they're high in protein and fiber and will make you feel full
3. You don't need to exercise or go walking. Walking will just make you more hungry. Your diet is the key to losing weight.
4. Drink lots of mineral water (I buy cases of Dasani water if available. Water increases your metabolism and flushes out your system, keeping you hydrated)
5. Avoid all sugars (specially liquid sugary drinks like Coke and fruit juices)
6. You can eat about 100 calories of dark chocolate each day (dark chocolate helps curb your appetite, provides fat and gives energy. I love dark chocolate covered raisins. Don't eat too much or you won't lose weight!)
7. Eat a high protein diet (poached and hardboiled eggs, baked fish, grilled chicken, protein shakes, beef jerky, yogurt, soy, et cetera. Protein makes you feel full).
8. Avoid all junk food (Little Caesar's and MacDonald's is bad! Junk food is high calorie density and will make you crave more junk food. All that dough is fattening.)
9. You need to aim to consume 1,200 calories total per day, or less. You can do this comfortably if you eat sweet potatoes, baked fish, spinach, vegetables, yogurt, cottage cheese, oatmeal, berries, nuts, beans and other low calorie density foods.
10. The best way to lose weight guaranteed is slow (not for health reasons, but simply because it works! Starving yourself to lose weight is non-sustainable. I cannot even go 12 hours without eating! But if your tummy is full of all the good foods I just mentioned, your body is content, and you can live with that. I mean, that is sustainable).
11. Don't watch the scale each day, it will fluctuate all over the place, watch your daily total calories. Guaranteed, it is a scientific certainty, you WILL lose weight if your total daily calories are reduced below your maintenance calories (the number of calories you need to eat to maintain your present weight, which is usually your present weight times ten). Let's say you weigh 180 pounds. 180 times 10 = 1,800 calories. So you need to eat less than 1,800 calories to lose weight. That is why I recommend eating a total of 1,200 calories each day. You can lose one pound per week this way. If you eat even less calories you can lose two pounds per week, but don't push yourself too much or you'll binge eat. Eat a lot of protein and fiber to feel full. Beans are the best!
12. Rinse your mouth with Listerine a few times each day. A clean mouth is a deterrent to eat.
13. Plans your meals a day ahead, so you won't eat randomly. Plan your work and then work your plan. I like to bake a bag of Barramundi fish and a bag of chicken thighs on Sunday and then refrigerator it to eat all week. Those are my favorite meats. Pick your favorite fish and cuts of chicken. You can barbeque or bake them, but don't fry anything because all that cooking oil is VERY fattening. One Tablespoon of any kind of oil is 120 calories!!!

14. When you are snack hungry, eat healthy foods (I make a big pot of beans and when I feel cravings throughout the day I will eat a few spoonful's of seasoned beans. Don't eat chips because they are processed and fattening! Don't drink sodas because they won't make you feel full and contain lots of calories.

15. Losing weight is a yoke of wood, but becoming a fat slob is a yoke of iron! I know this sounds terrible but it helps me lose weight. Think of some horribly fat person that you know, or have seen recently, and let that disgust motivate you not to become like them. My former landlord looked like he was pregnant at age 75. When I thought of how disgusting he looked, it motivated me to lose weight. I am not talking about looking down on people or judging anyone, I am simply saying to look at what their abuse has done to ruin their health and let that perceived knowledge cause you to eat right! I cannot believe how fat some people are! We have done this to ourselves. People are depressed. Gaining weight makes them more depressed. Then they blame everyone else.

16. Count your daily calories. I said that before but it is important. I don't care how healthy you eat, you won't lose any weight if you're eating too many calories. Counting calories is the most important thing to lose weight! You'd be shocked how many calories are in your favorite junk foods! You can have a few hundred calories a day of junk food. Your body needs a reward, but eat them sparingly. I love baked fish! It will fill you up and help you lose weight. I put lemon on top.

Here is one person's comments about what is wrong with Little Caesar's pizza:

> Let me explain why. The flour that makes the pizza dough is highly refined and therefore it's easily digested into your system causing a rush of sugars into your blood stream. Along with the sugars entering your blood stream are the fats from the cheese. These fats are converted to fatty acids in the intestine where they also get absorbed. Now, you have a cascade of events which lead to fat gain. Your body releases insulin to get rid of all of the sugar in the blood. This allows the cells of your body to take in those sugars. This also unlocks the fat cells to accept all of those fatty acids and any additional sugars that can't be utilized by the liver or muscles. This is an extremely fattening meal. [4]SOURCE

I LOVE Little Caesar's pizza, but you WILL gain weight eating it! Can you just eat one or two slices? Not a chance! I must eat at least half the pizza! That is my total calories for the day, which is not enough food for my nutritional demands, and I will crave it again tomorrow. I usually eat the whole pizza by the end of the day. Your body needs nutrition. Pizza lacks good nutrition and is full of fats, carbs and is highly processed (manhandled). Don't eat pizza if you want to lose weight! Once in a great while is okay.

I use pizza as a reward for eating healthy. If I can lose 10 pounds, then I can eat once at Little Caesars. But friend, literally, you can undo a whole week's worth of fasting in just one day if you abuse it. You must still count calories, even if you have a treat day. The problem is that one treat day may retrigger your cravings and you have a bunch of treat days! Eat beans, which will help get your body used to healthy food. Losing weight is much more difficult doing it alone. If you are married and your spouse wants to lose weight with you, then you are very blessed.

It is very important to count every calorie you put into your mouth while losing weight, to ensure that you remain within your calorie limit for the day. Just one Tablespoon of butter is 120 calories. A little butter is good, because the fat will make you feel full, but make sure to count those calories, because they add up quickly. Weight is lost about 1/4 pound per day, if you limit your daily calorie intake to 1,000 calories. Chicken sandwiches are great on a slice or two of Dave's whole grain Bread! Oatmeal for breakfast is great! Wish me good luck! I hope you will join me if you are also struggling with your weight.

I have gained and lost weight like a yoyo over the years. It's all because of my poor dietary habits and I admit it, which is half the battle. The good thing with me is that when I see my weight going up, I take control and fight it before it becomes a problem. It would be best if I would get to my ideal weight at 150 to 160 pounds and stay there, but I choose too often to indulge in our excess American culture. But I'd rather keep fighting weight gain than not try at all, which I can see many people have given up! I just wanted to share some of the things I have learned.

The key is to find a balance between healthy eating and the junk foods that we enjoy. The majority of our food intake ought to be beans, oatmeal, nuts, yogurt, fish and other healthy choices. I love Chinese food, and the vegetables are great, but the eggrolls, Sweet and Sour Chicken and dumplings are all unhealthy deep-fried foods. Americans are the fattest people on the planet, because of our excessive society today. As I type I am eating a big bowl of fresh cooked beans. They taste great and provide lots of protein and fiber. I used chicken seasoning for the base. I cut a piece of Polish sausage and put it in the beans last night to flavor it. I cooked the beans for 12 hours on low.

I have been losing the battle lately with my weight because I don't have a stove or refrigerator, but I am fighting weight gain. Beans don't require either a stove or a refrigerator, so they are the perfect food for me now to lose weight. I learned from my former doctor that eating a vegetarian diet will automatically return the body to its proper weight.

2.9.1 Don't Make A Christ Out Of Your Repentance (2021-09-01 00:30)

John 6:37-40, "All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out. For I came down from heaven, not to do mine own will, but the will of him that sent me. And this is the Father's will which hath sent me, that of all which he hath given me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day. And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day."

Notice in the following quote that Pastor Charles Spurgeon (1834-1892) accurately teaches that repentance does not precede believing. When a man sees Christ (John 6:40), he changes his mind (repents) and believes at the same time. And then it is the precious indwelling Holy Ghost Who turns us from sin. That's how the new birth works! ...

> "Repentance will not make you see Christ; but to see Christ will give you repentance. You may not make a Christ out of your repentance, but you must look for repentance to Christ. The Holy Ghost, by turning us to Christ, turns us from sin. Look away, then, from the effect to the cause, from your own repenting to the Lord Jesus, who is exalted on high to give repentance." —Charles Spurgeon; "[1]All Of Grace,"
> Chapter 11 - "Alas! I Can Do Nothing"

Boy, that was brilliantly said. Yes, that is right! Those pastors today who falsely teach that you must turn away from your sin to be saved are looking to the effect (repentance) rather than the cause (which is Christ). We must look to the Lord Jesus, and not to our own repenting. Certainly every believer still sins (Romans 7:14-25), but the indwelling Holy Spirit will chastise every child of God when we sin. I agree with Spurgeon's preceding quote. It is the Holy Spirit Who turns us from sin (Philippians 2:13), and not our own repentance. Repentance is a grace from God (2nd Timothy 2:25). This doesn't mean we should look for changes in a believer's life to determine if they are saved. Only God can see someone's heart.

The Epistle of 1st John was written to believers that our joy may be full (1st John 1:4), by helping us as individual believers to "know that ye are saved" (1st John 5:13b) . The test given in 1st John 3:8-9 is not to see if we are saved because we have turned away from our sin; but rather, to determine if we have the indwelling Holy Spirit (1st John 3:24). The Holy Spirit will convict a believer when we sin. If you don't have that conviction from God's Spirit living in you, then you need to get saved. That was the truth that compelled me to come to Christ as a 13 year old boy.

Certainly, it would be heresy to say that the Holy Spirit doesn't work within every believer to influence us to turn away from our sins. Philippians 2:13,

For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure.

2nd Timothy 2:19b,

...Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity.

Repentance and faith are inseparable. The Gospel of John mentions the word "believe" 85-times, but the word "repent" is never mentioned even once. In genuine salvation, one who believes on Jesus Christ has repented, and the one who repents has believed on the Lord Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of sins. The Good News (i.e., Gospel) is that Jesus Christ died on the cross to pay for our sins, was buried and triumphantly raised up from the dead, so that He can save those who believe.

Repentance is a very difficult concept for most preachers to understand. I have been blessed to have great Bible teachers (i.e., Pastor Jack Hyles, Pastor Max D. Younce, Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold, Dr. John R. Rice, Pastor Harry Ironside, et cetera). Dear friend, please do not confuse the effect with the cause of repentance. To be saved you simply need to LOOK TO CHRIST. Isaiah 45:22, "Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth: for I am God, and there is none else." Acts 10:43, "To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins." Oh do you see dear friend that salvation is a matter of being forgiven of your sins, and not YOUR willingness to turn away from them?

Once you are saved, Christ (the cause of your repentance) will begin to work in your soul through His indwelling Holy Spirit to change you. So please do not make a Christ out of YOUR own repentance, because that is a false plan of salvation. The true Gospel always points you to Christ; a false gospel always points to you. I am wearied with these false teachers today, bad pastors galore, who require lost sinners to "[2]repent and turn away from sin" to get to Heaven. That is a counterfeit plan of salvation, which cannot produce the new birth.

It sounds so theologically sound, doesn't it? To tell a person that they must first be willing to stop living a life of sin, if they want to be saved, appeals to our carnal self-righteous nature. That's what corrupt preachers are telling people: "You stop acting like a sinner and I'll make you a saint." Please watch this wonderful sermon by Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold called: "Does A Person Have To Repent To Be Saved?"

[3]Does A Person Have To Repent To Be Saved?

Yes, a person does have to repent to be saved, but Christ gives repentance to those who BELIEVE on Him. Repentance does NOT mean turning away from your sinful bad habits. If that were true, that God requires you to commit to living a better life to receive His free gift of eternal life, then it certainly could not be considered a free gift! Repentance does not precede belief.

I heard a horrible heretical sermon online by Pastor Charles Lawson. He is the pastor of the Temple Baptist Church in Knoxville, Tennessee. I like Pastor Lawson. I respect him. I have learned much from him and love his preaching about the New World Order. His YouTube videos accumulatively have been viewed millions of times. But this makes him all the more dangerous to impressionable minds who trust his preaching. Read what Pastor Lawson errantly says:

> "If repentance is not part of the Gospel, why did the Jews say, 'That God hath now to the Gentiles granted repentance?' If repentance is not part of the Gospel, then you're just believing some facts, and nothing goes on inside you to change who you are. The change is when you've received it into your heart and acted upon it. And once you received it into your heart and act upon it, a profound change is going to take place. Your attitude towards sin is going to change. Your attitude towards your self's going to change. Your attitude towards the world is going to change. You're going to change. That is repentance, not just changing your mind." [emphasis added]
> SOURCE: Pastor Charles Lawson; [4]True Repentance

WRONG! Kindly said, Charles Lawson is utterly confused on Bible repentance and the Gospel. He is correct that repentance is a part of the Gospel, but is is wrong that repentance is a separate act in which you must CHANGE. Friend, it is God's indwelling Holy Spirit that produces "

in a child of God, for those who choose to obediently walk in the Spirit (Galatians

5:22-25). The Bible says that a child of God is sanctified by God’s truth, which is the Word of God. John 17:17, “Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth.

” So we see that a changed life in a saint is the result of learning the Bible. The Holy Spirit teaches us the Bible.

John 16:13, “ Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will shew you things to come.”

Pastor Lawson mistakenly thinks that to “

at the time of salvation, means that your attitude will drastically change, which will perpetuate those new changes into your life. This is not God’s plan of salvation. Pastor Lawson is adding to what God requires of a sinner to be saved. He is corrupting the Word of God, casting stumbling blocks before the people. Pilgrim’s Progress author, John Bunyan (1628-1688) said it well:

> “If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people.” [emphasis added] —Evangelist John Bunyan

Respectfully, [5]Pastor Charles Lawson does not put a difference between justification by the man Christ without, versus the sanctification by the Spirit of Christ within.

I love this quote from Pastor Jack Hyles:

> “Redemption is a work of God the Son. Regeneration is the work of God the Holy Spirit. Justification is the work of God the Father as He declares the sinner righteous in the Son. Conversion then becomes the work of the church as we change the use and purpose of a life.” —Pastor Jack Hyles, “Conversion And Salvation” (chapter 3) from his book: “[6]Salvation Is More Than Being Saved”

The reason why so many professed Christians are still living carnal lives today is not because of cheap grace, greasy grace, shallow conversions or easy-believism; but rather, it is because today’s pastors and churches have dropped the ball regarding mentoring those converts. Every local Bible-believing church ought to draw people into the church with Christ’s love, and then indoctrinate them with THE TRUTH!

In her heretical book titled, “[7]STEPS TO CHRIST,” false prophetess Ellen G. White (1827-1915) errantly states:

> “The change of heart by which we become children of God is in the Bible spoken of as birth.” —Ellen G. White; Book: Steps To Christ; Chapter: Growing Up Into Christ, pg. 67.

My friend, that is a lie of the Devil. Being "born-again" does not mean having "a change of heart." In Matthew 27:3 we read that Judas Iscariot "repented" (i.e., had a change of heart, felt remorse), which compelled him to return the 30 pieces of silver by which he betrayed the only begotten Son of God. When the Pharisees refused the blood money, Judas cast the coins onto the floor and ran away. Judas then went and hung himself, committing suicide. This was one of Jesus' very Apostles. It is so sad and tragic indeed! My point is that Judas had a change of heart, but that didn't make him saved.

So what does it mean to be born-again? It means that a person is born into God's family. If you are not saved, then God is not your Father. If you are an unbeliever, or a false believer, God is your Creator but not your Father. When you become a born-again Christian by believing the Gospel, you immediately become a child of God. Once you get saved, you are a permanent member of the heavenly family, and you can never be disowned for any reason.

If you examine the plan of salvation of false teachers like John MacArthur, [8]Ray Comfort, Jack Chick, Bob Jones University, [9]Steve Pettit, Ellen White, Mormons, Jehovah's Witnesses, Roman Catholics, Seventh-Day Adventists, Charles Lawson and thousands of other heretics, you'll find a commonality that they all emphasize that YOU must commit to turn away from your sinning if you want God to save you. That is not God's simple plan of salvation!!! Many people have avoided coming to Christ for salvation, because they were lied to, told that God would not save them unless they are first willing to give up their sinful bad habits. But that is not how salvation works!

To be saved, God simply requires that you acknowledge THE TRUTH (2nd Timothy 2:25) that you are a guilty sinner (Romans 3:19-20), so that you will BELIEVE the Good News of Christ crucified, buried and bodily risen to be saved (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). That is the GOSPEL! Whatever changes that God wants to see happen in your life as His child, you can be assured that He will attend to that. God is not an absent parent (Hebrews 12:6-8).

2.9.2 I Just Ordered A Nutri Ninja (2021-09-01 21:22)

1st Corinthians 3:16-17, "Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you? If any man defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy; for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are." 1st Corinthians 6:20, "For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's."

I just [1]ordered a 1,000 watt Nutri Ninja! I can't wait to get it! One of the greatest sins of our time is OBESITY, but I have never heard a single preacher touch upon this subject. Well I am now! The following photo is not real, it is makeup and stuffing. I didn't want to make fun of an actual person to be respectful, but provides a good illustration of how disgusting a fat preacher looks.

Jonny Coyne, who plays Allfather on AMC's Preacher

I don't particularly like eating vegetables or fruits, but I can handle drinking them. I plan to take a trip every 3 days to the grocery store to buy some fresh veggies and fruits to mix and drink. There are[3] lots of helpful recipes online and that come mix the unit. I am determined to lose weight. I encourage you to buy a Nutri Ninja too! It will change your life if you use it daily.

I feel awful today. Every time that I eat healthy my body feels horrible. My body likes junk food and so does yours! Last month I bought a bunch of yogurt, chicken breast and 21 grain bread. The bread turned green, the chicken sat in my refrigerator and the yogurt is still there! The reason why is because once I started eating MacDonald's, Little Caesar's and Whataburger, that's all I wanted, more junk food. That proves the power of garbage food to take over our body. Healthy food cannot compete with junk food when it comes to choosing between them.

However, if we start eating healthy foods and fight the urge to eat garbage food, our cravings WILL CHANGE to the healthy foods. I have proven it again and again. So anyway, I had a big bowl of beans this morning and that is my meal for the day. I feel full. I am eating beans again tomorrow morning. I plan to go for a walk in the sun tomorrow, Friday. For dinner I'm eating a chicken sandwich on one slice of Dave's 21 grain bread. I am eating yogurt! I eagerly await for the Nutri Ninja to arrive so I can go green! I am being honest with you dear reader, sharing my battle with eating properly. Once you develop bad eating habits, they are very difficult to break. Unfortunately, we don't eat for survival anymore in America, we eat for fun and pleasure!

The strange thing is that if we would always eat healthy, we would enjoy good health and acquire the cravings for good foods. I have been eating Little Caesar's pizza and gaining weight!

That delicious daily-made dough is highly processed, which means it has been handled by humans a lot (i.e., ground into fine flour, bleached, et cetera). Your body absorbs that food quickly and turns it into sugar (glucose) and stores it!

When I had my Gall Bladder removed in 2015 I learned for the first time that I was stage 4 diabetic. I had given myself Type II Diabetes by getting fat! I was 215 pounds. In 2017 I starved myself and lost 70 pounds. My blood level went from an A1C of 9.8 to 5.2 (perfect). Anything over 6.0 is pre-diabetic. I kept the weight off for over one year, by depriving myself food. I was miserable! I didn't know about Low Calorie Density foods yet. I knew about salads, but who wants to eat salads all the time? I don't. So in 2019 I gained most of my weight back, reaching 208 pounds on the doctor's scale. Ouch!

In 2021 I took control of my health again, because I met a wonderful vegetarian doctor named [4]Dr. Timothy Arnott on Guam. I love this man for caring about me wholly as a person. I met with him to treat my constant neck pain, but he did blood tests and cared about my overall well-being, which is rare in a doctor. Dr. Arnott moved back to the United States the day after I moved to Pensacola, which in hindsight is amazing. I didn't even know he had left until one week later when I received a letter in my mail box from the SDA Guam Clinic. I love and miss their clinic on Guam!!!

Now, Dr. Arnott is a member of the Seventh-Day Adventist religious cult. I do NOT endorse their cult. I have read Dr. Arnott's books and don't see where he promotes the religion, he sticks to the subject of healthy eating. So I want to make this clear, I am only promoting the vegetarian life style and good health. Sadly, professed Christians today, particularly Baptists, are some of the most obese and unhealthy people in our society! There is nothing more shameful than a 300 pound Baptist pastor! Every man is my teacher. So if an SDA doctor can teach and inspired me to eat better, lose weight and take care of myself, you better believe that I am going to follow his good advise and share his advice with others. It is ridiculous for Christians to reject this man's good advice, when it is helpful and will help us to glorify God more in our daily lives. So use wisdom and learn all you can.

If you are obese friend, I encourage you to take before and after photos, so you can share them later online with others. Make it your goal to lose 15 pounds at first. If you can lose 15 pounds, then you will know how to lose 115 pounds! It's the same process, just keep doing it. I say " because the first 5 to 10 will simply be emptying out your stomach. If you can lose 15 pounds off the scale, then you KNOW you've lost at least 5 to 7 solid pounds, and that's a great start. The more overweight you are the easier it is to lose weight, the faster you can lose it, and the more your body will naturally help you to lose weight. God made the body that way. My former doctor gave me this helpful handout on [5]Weight Loss Medicine.

15 pounds

I greatly encourage you to read that .PDF book by my former doctor, it is awesome. He moved the day after I went to Florida. I sure wish he was still my doctor. I love the guy. He is a vegetarian, skinny and healthy. He did what no other doctor has ever done for me, he encouraged me to become a vegetarian and take control of my health, and I did, until I moved to Florida. Now I have gone backwards in my diet horribly. [6]Here is his website.

[7]Here are some helpful handouts from his website.

Check out his many free recipes for vegetarian kick start. You don't have to become a full blown vegetarian, but you can go 75 % like me. I still need fish and chicken. I was eating great on Guam, but haven't since I arrived in Pensacola. People don't eat right here, they just don't! Colorado is much better at eating healthy. I've read that Coloradoans consume 15 % of the nation's vegetables (1 in 8 of all vegetables in the country). That is amazing!

My former doctor's home sadly burned down, and then he moved to Guam in 2018. I am so glad that he did, because God has made him a blessing to me and many other people. Dr. Arnott is a Seventh-Day Adventist and a sweet and caring man. I am better for having known him in my life, which can rarely be said of people.

I am not a Pastor T.D. Jakes fan, but he says some great things! The other day I heard him quote that Bible verse which says, "He that walketh with wise men shall be wise." He said, interpreted, that this means we shouldn't walk with people who don't have more than we do! That is exactly what it means! Pastor Jakes said if I am going to walk next to somebody, I am at least going to make sure they have more wisdom than me, more money than me, better health than me, more something than me! He was being funny, but he is right. My doctor has better health than me, and the knowledge of how I can have it too, so he is a man that I want to walk with. I thought that was pretty good what T.D. Jakes said.

The first step to losing weight is to go buy some healthy foods and eat them! Get your body going in the right direction. Dr. Timothy Arnott's website will help you immensely choose the right foods. I recommend eating oatmeal for breakfast and beans for lunch each day. The oatmeal gives you your carbohydrates. The beans will provide lots of protein and fiber. You can add some nuts or avocado for fats. Eating healthy can be fun if you do it the right way! Track your progress. Buy some new clothes that don't fit yet, making your goal to wear them in time. Set goals for yourself! Use these things as motivation.

The [8]Secret To Ultimate Weight Loss is "calorie density. Chef AJ is awesome!

I have learned that I am always in one of two modes: FEASTING or FASTING.

Chef AJ says something very helpful in the preceding video. She says that it has been proven that BOTH healthy people and unhealthy people eat THE SAME AMOUNT OF FOOD DAILY. That is key to understanding. So if we want to lose weight, then we need to fill up on LOW CALORIE DENSITY foods. She is right, "What you eat today you will crave tomorrow!" She is so right. Eat nutritiously and you WILL LOSE WEIGHT!

I am living out of a suitcase at a hotel right now in Pensacola. So I don't have an oven, I wish I did. So I found individually wrapped sweet potatoes tonight, which are perfect, so I can cook them directly in their plastic wrap in the microwave. The bag of apple chips are nothing but pure dried apples. I bought 100 % pure guacamole dip to use with the apple crackers. I bought a sealable container and filled it with mixed nuts and fruit. Since I don't have any oven, I bought canned fish for now. And I bought a bag of baby cucumbers and Himalayan salt...

2.9.3 The Sin Of Indifferent Pastors (2021-09-02 14:32)

Titus 1:10-14, “

For there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, specially they of the circumcision:

Whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre’s sake.

One of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The Cretians are alway liars, evil beasts, slow bellies.

This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith;

Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men, that turn from the truth.

I make enemies among the clergy everywhere I go because today’s pastors are dropping the ball for God. I recently had a run in with the senior pastor (Jeff Redlin) of Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College (PCC). I moved to Pensacola, Florida on July 2nd. I could write a dozen lengthy articles just about the problems I’ve already found at Campus Church, but that is not my intention. God knows my heart. I am not out to get pastors! But what really does bother me is the spirit of indifference among pastors today toward false teachers.

The PCC crowd are eerily silently about [1]the “Lordship” salvation being preached at Bob Jones University . I feel like the Lone Ranger since I am one of very few preachers today who is standing.

Kindly said, Pastor Jeff Redlin emailed me not too long ago to say that someone had contacted the information desk at Campus Church. The person was seeking contact information to reach the “I-pad pastor” of the Jesus-is-Savior.com website. Pastor Redlin said I wasn’t in their system, which is strange, because I did fill out a visitor’s card and the church even mailed me a welcome letter weeks earlier. So they in fact do have my contact information in their system.

Pastor Redlin said they needed to look at my website ministry. He said they noticed that I find the “weaknesses of pastors.” That didn’t set right with me when he said that. I kindly replied that what he considered “weaknesses” were in fact hardcore damnable heresy (e.g., Lordship Salvation, Misunderstood Repentance and corrupt Devil’s Bibles). Those are not mere “weaknesses,” it is wickedness!!! Pastor John MacArthur is not merely “weak” in some doctrinal areas, he is an accursed satanic minister (Galatians 1:6-9; 2nd Corinthians 11:13-15). [2]Pastor MacArthur teaches that Jesus did not have God’s blood flowing in His veins, which is a denial of Christ’s virgin birth. Every preacher in the world ought to be exposing Pastor MacArthur until he repents of his false teaching. Titus 1:13 teaches Christian men of God to REBUKE THEM SHARPLY, THAT THEY MAY BE SOUND IN THE FAITH!!!

Respectfully, Pastor Redlin was concerned that I would find their weaknesses too as pastors. Not once did Pastor Redlin express any concern, sympathy or empathy for my neck pain, an unwanted divorce 15 years ago, loneliness after moving 9,000 from Guam to Florida last month, presently living out of a suitcase in a hotel, or that he knew I had slept in my car in Wal-Mart’s parking lot for three days. I shared all of these burdens with him, to see if he cared about me as a nobody, as a hurting human being who wanted to be loved and welcomed.

All Pastor Redlin sadly cared about was defending his pride, making an issue that I had told him he made me feel like garbage

” (and he horribly did). All he expressed concern for was that I don’t find and write about their weaknesses too. God knows that I didn’t want to mention Pastor Redlin in any blogs. I have given this matter much thought. Should I or shouldn’t I write about how I feel about what has transpired at Campus Church over the past couple months?

I decided that I indeed should pour my heart out and write about these things, because nobody wants to talk about the big white elephant in the living room. Where did this phrase originate? The term came from an Indian raja who gave a white elephant as a gift to someone. The recipient could not put it to work as it was sacred. He went broke feeding and caring for it.

An Elephant In The Living Room!

Pastor John F. MacArthur is a damnable false teacher, an alumni of Bob Jones University (BJU). Sadly, BJU fully bids Godspeed to this wicked man today! [4]Dr. MacArthur teaches that Jesus DIDN'T have God's blood flowing in His veins. Pastor [5]MacArthur teaches that children cannot be saved. Dr. MacArthur is a self-admitted 5-point Calvinist, denying that Jesus died for all humanity (i.e., the heresy of Limited Atonement). By the way, Pastor Charles Spurgeon also taught the heresy of Limited Atonement.

No pastor or church ought to praise, support or promote John MacArthur. It bothers me that today's pastors refuse to expose false teachers! I have been attending the Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College (PCC). I like their fundamentalist church, but the PCC camp are not contending for the faith as they ought (Jude 1:3; Titus 1:10-13; Ephesians 5:11). Their students at PCC (e.g., The Eagles) play basketball in intercollegiate sports against Bob Jones University (e.g., The Bruins). I have a problem with that! [6]BJU preaches Lordship salvation. I see a massive problem today in our churches of pastors tolerating false doctrine. There is a woeful spirit of indifference hovering as a storm cloud over the churches today!

Repentance and faith are NOT two separate acts as Pastor Tom Ferrell (1952-2021) errantly taught. I was glad to see recently that the Sword Of The Lord rightly refuted Tom Farrell for his wrong understanding of repentance. I was listening to KHMG 88.1 FM radio on Guam. This is the radio station of Harvest Baptist Church. Dr. Farrell errantly said in a sermon that:

"You don't repent TO believe; you repent AND believe." WRONG! The Bible plainly teaches that you repent TO believe. The sole purpose of repentance is so that as an admitted guilty sinner you WILL believe the Gospel (the GOOD NEWS of Jesus Christ crucified on a cross, buried and bodily risen from the dead the third day) to be saved (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Ninety-five percent of what Tom Farrell preached was sound doctrine, but if a man is wrong on repentance he is wrong on salvation; and therefore, you cannot trust any of his theology!

I could name a bunch of popular big name Bible colleges, well-known pastors and thriving churches today who go along quietly with Bob Jones University and won't say a word of warning about BJU or John MacArthur or the perverse teaching of "Lordship" salvation. Today's pastors and churches have become far too comfortable, complacent and indifferent toward false teachers! Pastors have become distracted by the work of the ministry, so that buildings, budgets and business meetings matter more than right doctrine and people. PEOPLE ARE THE MINISTRY! RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!

2.9.4 The Ugly Truth About Churches Today (2021-09-04 10:29)

Acts 15:1, “

And certain men which came down from Judaea taught the brethren, and said, Except ye be circumcised after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved.

I have been attending the Campus Church in Pensacola. They are part of the Pensacola Christian College (PCC) camp. The Harvest Baptist Church on Guam has connections with PCC, employing their graduates and sending students to PCC. What makes me sick is that these two institutions preach two very different gospels.

The Harvest Baptist Church on Guam are hardcore Bob Jones University (BJU) supporters. The church has a school and college which employee NJU and PCC alumni. Harvest is a strong supporter of Pastor John MacArthur. MacArthur is an alumni of BJU, of whom Dr. Steve Pettit (president of BJU since 2014) has publicly said he is very proud to know and be friends with. John MacArthur is a wicked reprobate who [1]teaches that children cannot be saved. MacArthur [2]says that Jesus did not have God’s blood flowing in His veins. MacArthur says that salvation is [3]an exchange of all that you are for all that Christ is, a trade of sorts. Those are his exact words. John MacArthur’s plan of salvation is so unbiblical and complicated that in his thinking no child could ever be saved. Folks that is very wrong!

So why does the PCC camp bid the BJU camp Godspeed? It is a hush hush thing with them. It’s all done quietly under the table. Campus Church does not agree with Lordship salvation. Lordship salvation is why Dr. Steve Pettit, Pastor Gary Walton, Dr. Sam Horn, Pastor Chuck Phelps, Pastor Marty Herron and Pastor John MacArthur all preach, the heresy that says faith alone is not enough to be saved. Just as the ungodly false teachers in Acts 15:1 who said faith was not enough, so also do these reprobates from the Bob Jones cult teach that faith is not enough. BJU foolishly teaches that students must “ [4]repent and turn away from their sins.

If you still don’t see a problem, please read [5]this shocking brutal assault against the free grace Gospel by Steve Pettit on January 26, 2015 in BJU chapel to 2,700 faculty and students. Dr. Pettit teaches that you cannot merely say you accepted Christ. He teaches that in addition you must live a sanctified life or else you cannot go to Heaven. THAT IS 100 % WORKS! Romans 3:19-20, “Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God. Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin." The Bible is so simple. The purpose of God's law is to give men the knowledge of sin. Repentance is when a man changes his mind toward God, acknowledging his sinnership so that he will BELIEVE in Jesus Christ to be saved.

But what the Bob Jones cult have done is create a theological monster. The two-headed plan of salvation of the Bob Jones camp requires that you BOTH turn away from a lifestyle of sin and then also believe on Christ to be saved. That is not the Gospel. Marty Herron is a shameful pastor, a corrupt wannabe theologian, a man who should be rejected in every pulpit under the sun. I heard Herron myself say:

"Admitting you're a sinner is not enough, you must also turn away from a lifestyle of sin." The Devil inspired Marty Herron to say that! Harvest Baptist Church on Guam is a cesspool of iniquity and den of heretics! Of course they are, because they all mostly all BJU alumni. A house of liars and false teachers!

Why does the PCC camp remain silent about this woeful evil. Well I won't be quiet. I attended the first night of convocation exercises at Pensacola Christian Colleges Sunday night on August 29, 2021. The PCC staff welcomed all the students back. There must have been 15,000 people present in the giant Campus Church auditorium. Many parents and relatives were also present. [6]Pastor Kurt Skelly from Frederiksberg, Virginia preached a sermon and made one of the biggest blunders I have ever seen, failing to witness to 15,000 people! I am so sick of preachers not giving lost sinners a chance to be saved, requiring them to walk down an aisle to learn how to be saved. That is horrible!

The Campus Church are partaker of their evil deeds at Bob Jones by going along and not taking a Biblical stand against them. In fact, PCC students play intercollegiate sports together with BJU students. Why? In so doing PCC is teaching their students that truth doesn't matter. At the convocation Sunday night, a big banner was displayed on the platform which said: "STRENGTH, TRUTH and BEAUTY.

" Well, talk is cheap folks! Truth doesn't matter to the PCC camp, otherwise they would "come out from among them and be ye separate" from the wicked Bob Jones camp today!!! We claim that "TRUTH" matters, but it really doesn't!

Pastor Jeff Redlin is a part of the problem. He needs to go back to Colorado where he came from, and stop mooching off of Campus Church. I met Pastor Redlin in July of 2021, which was not a very pleasant experiences. To be honest, he was a self-conceited jerk who didn't give a damn about me as a hurting human being. Jeff Redlin is a bad pastor, who made me feel like garbage for being divorced. He is just another religious hypocrite who enjoys the good life, living large at the expense of the local church. Campus Church took in $3,500,000 in 2020. Not bad!

One of the reasons why they are doing so good is that they don't stand against the false teachers of our time. They don't expose anything, except truth-tellers like me who call them out for not standing! Jeff Redlin is a puppet on strings at Campus Church, brown-nosing the PCC gods who lord over him. To go against PCC leadership would be career suicide! You should have seen how that coward responded when I told him that a PCC staff member warned me about looking for a wife at Campus Church. The staff member unkindly said that many divorced people leave, or avoid, Campus Church and PCC because of PCC's position of divorce and remarriage. When I asked Pastor Redlin if I am welcomed at their church as a divorce man, he refused to answer the question. I could see the fear on his face that he might say something that would offend PCC and cost him his job. What a little boy Redlin is!

I am not impressed at at with Jeff Redlin, neither as a pastor or a man. I generally think highly of all pastors, but unlike most people who blindly go along with their religious readers, I hold them accountable to preaching THE TRUTH, and to treat people with DIGNITY. Jeff Redlin ignored my email for 10 days. When I gave him the benefit of the doubt and went directly to him to see why he hadn't responded, he confirmed by shirking his hands that he just didn't feel like responding. Thousands of people kiss up to Redlin merely because he is the senior pastor at Campus Church, but I am not a respecter of person like Redlin is, I call it as I see it!

I am so sick of the hypocrisy in today's churches. I am really addressing two different issues here. One is Jeff Redlin's poor performance as a pastor. He should resign and let a man with a heart for everyone (not just selectively caring about people) take his place. The second issue is that the PCC camp continues to sinfully bid Godspeed to false teachers in the Bob Jones camp. BJU is a cesspool of iniquity today. Lordship salvation is of the Devil. By allowing their students to play sports with BJU, the PCC camp are bidding them Godspeed and teaching the students by example that truth is not worth dividing over. PCC are hypocrites to tout the importance of truth, while blindly going along with gross theological error concerning the Gospel and repentance.

PCC and BJU have historically been considered Fundamentalist organizations. In 2001 Dr. Bob Jones III decided to no longer call Bob Jones University a "

Fundamentalist

" institution after the 911 World Trade Tower bombings in New York City, to distance the college from Islamic fundamentalists. Although I can understand that line of reasoning, our distinction as "fundamentalists" is not determined by what we call ourselves, but by what the world calls us. The term "Christian" came from the unsaved world as a derogatory term against the followers of Christ in the Bible.

A fundamentalist is not someone who ascribes to the fundamentals of the Christian faith. A fundamentalist is someone who SEPERATES from those who no longer believe the fundamentals of the Christian faith. I learned that from Pastor Jack Hyles and he is correct. I am a fundamentalist, because I have separated from the shameful, arrogant, wicked and corrupt Bob Jones crowd on Guam. Why hasn't PCC separated from them yet? It is because PCC are not true Christian fundamentalists.

It is inherent in our sinful nature to seek our comfort zone and stay there! Catherine Booth (the wife of Salvation Army founder General William Booth) rightly said: "If we are to better the future we must disturb the present." The biggest problem I see today is that pastors and churches have become complacent, indifferent and shallow. They will all make excuses and tell you that they are not perfect. However, bidding Godspeed to false teachers like Steve Pettit and John MacArthur is not a weakness or imperfection, it is hardcore wickedness and a damnable false gospel. These people choose to maintain a façade (pretense) of brotherly love, while going along with the most corrupt theologies. As I have shown you, Dr. John MacArthur denies the blood, denies that children can be saved and denies salvation by faith alone. So why do BJU promote him? Why don't they care about truth? MacArthur is influencing millions of people with his accursed false gospel.

The sad reality is that these shameful people are all making a living by parasiting off of Christendom. They eat their steak dinners, drive their new cars, live in their nice homes and are living large. Marty Herron, Jeff Redlin, Steve Pettit all get paid 6-digit salaries. They are golfers, snobs, living high on the hog. Hurting sinners like me are nothing to them, evidenced by their mistreatment of me when I tell the truth. I will continue to stand alone! They will continue to make excuses and bid Godspeed to the Satanic BJU crowd. Sadly, the truth doesn't matter to most pastors and churches anymore.

2.9.5 We Need Revival In Our Nation's Churches (2021-09-05 16:47)

Acts 26:19-21,

Whereupon, O king Agrippa, I was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision:

But shewed first unto them of Damascus, and at Jerusalem, and throughout all the coasts of Judaea, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, and do works meet for repentance.

For these causes the Jews caught me in the temple, and went about to kill me.

I am so disgusted with today's churches. Pastor Bob Gray Sr. is correct: "Today's churches are pathetic!" Pastors don't care anymore. At some point in history the pastors in our country stopped being preachers. Today's pastors are mere administrators, babysitters, life coaches, but they don't PREACH THE WORD (2nd Timothy 4:2).

I've had Baptist pastors shamefully rebuke my websites, accusing me of operating outside of the "authority" of the church. That is absurd. I am a born-again Christian. I was saved in the New Testament church, baptized in the church, trained in the church, ordained in the church and labor as a missionary for the church. My ministry exists because of the local New Testament church. Our only authority is the inspired King James Bible!!!

I recently had Jeff Redlin, senior pastor at Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College (PCC), accuse me of finding the "weaknesses" of pastors. In his feeble thinking Dr. John MacArthur and other corrupt pastors who preach Lordship Salvation are merely "weak." I replied to him that he is wrong, they are not weak, they are wicked and heretical.

Not caring is not a weakness, it is wickedness! The Harvest Baptist Church on Guam and Bob Jones University whom they support, [1]preach another gospel of false repentance and Lordship salvation. I am faithfully exposing them, for which pastors keep badgering and berating me. In today's shallow and apostate religious world you are expected to go along with whatever pastors today preach. And if you disagree with them you are expected to say nothing, lest you be falsely accused of being a troublemaker, lacking wisdom and sowing discord. The Apostle Paul experienced the same ungodly rejection. Galatians 4:16-17, *"Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?

They zealously affect you, but not well; yea, they would exclude you, that ye might affect them."

One doesn’t have to be an apostle to experience the same sinful rejection for preaching THE TRUTH.

Any man of God would applaud my websites. They might not agree with all my teachings or even my methods, but they would see the good being accomplished by God through my ministry. If you think a ministry like mind does more harm than good, you are ignorant. We need different kinds of ministries. If everyone were an evangelist like me, then who would pastor the churches? If everyone pastored churches, then who would do the dirty work of an evangelists, afflicting the comforted? Who would do the work of a missionary? We need pastors, evangelists, missionaries, teachers and other servants of God.

But I keep meeting these hen-pecked, weak-backed, shallow pastors who resent my ministry websites, because I expose bad pastors by name. That is why I support Pastor Steven Anderson. He is getting the job done. Thousands of people are being saved. Lives are being transformed. I’m not going to reject him because he does things in a different way. I am not going to reject him because he preaches too harshly, stands too firm or mentions names; especially when 99 % of other pastors won’t stand, won’t preach and won’t mention names.

I am not against Pastor Jeff Redlin, but he disgusts me that he looks down with disdain on my website ministry for preaching THE TRUTH, the very truth which he doesn’t have the gumption, guts, backbone and grit to preach! Somebody needs to care! I DO CARE!!! Steve Pettit is the shameful president of Bob Jones University. Pettit is not weak, he is wicked! Pettit is a devout follower of Pastor John MacArthur, praising and promoting him to thousands of BJU students.

Sadly, Pastor Jeff Redlin doesn’t have the spine to stand against the Bob Jones camp. He wouldn’t dare, lest he commit career suicide! These men at Campus Church are pawns, puppets on strings pulled by PCC leadership. Birds of a feather flock together. I am sick and tired of religious politics, while damnable false teachers have crept into our midst like Marty Herron, Steve Pettit, John MacArthur and Chuck Phelps. These wicked corrupt men need to be exposed not enabled further and given a free pass by the Pensacola Christian College camp. [2]The Bob Jones camp are wrong on repentance! It is a very big deal. BJU president Steve Pettit is preaching the same false idea of repentance as did Miss Ellen G. White of Seventh-Day Adventism.

Folks, the despicable Mormon college, Brigham Young University, requires Dr. John MacArthur’s corrupt text, “FAITH WORKS” as [3]required reading for all their students, because they AGREE on Lordship Salvation. Why oh why won’t Campus Church and PCC expose the corrupt Bob Jones University crowd today? BJU promotes Devil’s Bibles, corrupting the minds of thousands of youth. Consequently, the churches that BJU alumni work in get corrupted, leading tens of thousands of victims astray from THE TRUTH. [4]Calvinism is NOT the Gospel, which is what Steve Pettit sinfully preaches!!!

Ladies and gentlemen, we have become complacent with false teaching today in our churches! Where are the men of God who cry aloud against the sin and false teaching of our generation? I cannot remember the last time I saw a real leader behind a church pulpit. I mean a Pastor Jack Hyles kind of guy who says it like it is, like it or lump it, there’s the door if you don’t like it! The average pastor today only cares about the 99 who tithe and pay his salary, but don’t give a hoot about that one hurting man like me who is different and doesn’t quite fit in with everybody else. I wear my “ cap backwards. That is who I am. I wear my hair longer than most men do in the church. That is who I am. I like who God made me, as an individual. I don't want to conform with everybody else!

I have been attending Campus Church for a couple months and am not impressed. I see a sea of ten thousand people who need a man of God to preach to them. The sermon content has been lacking at best. I mean, I sat all summer watching Ken Ham videos on Wednesday nights at Campus Church. Really? Is that the best they can do? Whatever happened to pastors who do their own Bible study? Folks, it is disgusting. Ken Ham is disgusting!!! Ham takes in about $37,000,000 each and every year at Answers-In-Genesis.

Ham has raked in another $2,000,000,000 so far at [5]his sickening joke The Ark Encounter in Kentucky. The project was started for personal profit by ten private investors. I think the whole ark project is a big mockery of the inspired Word of God. Even heavy metal rocker Ozzy Osbourne went to visit the ark. Ozzy was banned from performing in Texas after he urinated on The Alamo in 1982. Ozzy should have peed instead on Ken Ham's Ark Encounter!!! I'll gladly join him! Just watch out for the fire-breathing dragons on Ken Ham's silly ark. I'm not kidding, the fool has fire-breathing dragons displayed on Noah's ark. Folks, this is worse than science-fiction, because it makes a mockery of God's Word and THE TRUTH. Americans are some of the most wicked and indifferent people in history, which is why the New World Order is becoming such a big success for the Devil.

The Young Earth Creation (YEC) movement has gone insane! Sadly, The Crown College (Pastor Clarence Sexton) and even Pastor Jeff Fugate are supporters of Ken Ham's tomfoolery in Kentucky. Dear reader, The Ark Encounter is NOT an actual ark. If the earth flooded tomorrow, Ken Ham's ark wouldn't float, not for a second. Ham's ark is a big cinder block building with decorative props hanging off the ends to make it LOOK like a boat. To legally build the ark, Ken Ham was required by law to follow tons of safety standards and codes, which Noah didn't have to worry about. Ken Ham's ark is basically just a big K-mart or JC Penny building, decorated from the outside. I think it is sad. A lot of preachers think Ken Ham's ark display helps to boost people's faith, but I think the opposite happens when you try to convince people that dinosaurs came aboard the ark, let alone fire-breathing dinosaurs!

Jesus warned in Luke 16:13 that NO MAN can serve God and mammon. That is what is happening everywhere today, men are SERVING careers, and not the Savior. Pastor Jeff Redlin gets paid a ridiculous salary. He used to pastor a church in Colorado. I thought he seemed like a yuppie. From the time I came to Campus Church Redlin treated me like garbage. He ignored my emails, evaded my questions and had nothing to say when I shared my long-term neck injury with him and all the suffering it has caused. The man is cold-hearted. Redlin is guilty of selectively caring about people, not those like me who came to him asking for his help. I know when somebody cares and when they don't give a damn.

Pastor Jeff Redlin doesn't give a damn about me as a human being! He's just another leech parasiting off of churches today. Pensacola Christian College does a lot of good, mostly for themselves, but they are NOT standing. PCC is A.W.O.L. form the battle of the ages today over the Bible. It's bad enough that THEY WON'T STAND, but then they'll criticize me for standing, which is awful. Redlin wrongly accused me of finding " with pastors. Folks, preaching a false gospel is not a weakness, it is wickedness!!! The ungodly Harvest Baptist Church on Guam are wicked people!!! They refused to allow me to attend church for seven years, simply because I TOLD THE TRUTH. I will never shut up about these wicked pastors who won't stand, who preach a false gospel and then criticize faithful Christians like me who do stand. SHAME ON THE PCC AND BJU camps!

We have a big problem today in our society and churches. We definitely need revival!

We Need Preachers Today Like Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968)

Bob Jones University today is a cesspool of heresy and iniquity!

2.9.6 God Is Proud Of Me For Being The Troublemaker (2021-09-06 00:29)

1st Kings 18:17-21, "And it came to pass, when Ahab saw Elijah, that Ahab said unto him, Art thou he that troubleth Israel?

And he answered, I have not troubled Israel; but thou, and thy father's house*, in that ye have forsaken the commandments of the LORD, and thou hast followed Baalim.

Now therefore send, and gather to me all Israel unto mount Carmel, and the prophets of Baal four hundred and fifty, and the prophets of the groves four hundred, which eat at Jezebel's table.

So Ahab sent unto all the children of Israel, and gathered the prophets together unto mount Carmel. And Elijah came unto all the people, and said, How long halt ye between two opinions? if the LORD be God, follow him: but if Baal, then follow him. And the people answered him not a word. "

I love our text passage of Scripture. For the past 19 years I have been called a "TROUBLE MAKER" by umpteen churches and Bible colleges. Anybody who publicly disagrees with their sinful compromise, hobnobbing with false teachers and who sincerely tries to help them is rejected, banned, laughed at, ostracized and counted as the enemy. That is the Devil folks!

Pilgrim's Progress author John Bunyan (1628-1688) made this powerful true observation:

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." [emphasis added] —Evangelist John Bunyan

In sharp contrast, Devil's advocate Dr. Steve Pettit made this heretical statement:

> "You can't just speak about getting saved, and you accepted Christ, and then that's it! There is a justification; There is a sanctification; There's ultimately a glorification, and though there are three parts, they are all part of the whole, and you cannot separate them. In order for you to qualify for the award, you have to get into the race, you have to stay in the race, and you have to finish the race. If you want to win, you have to run to the end; and winning in the Christian life is everything, because if you lose—if you don't finish—you lose everything—you lose your SOUL. And so, the Christian race is the life of faith that begins, is run, and is finished when we cross over into Heaven!" (emphasis added) —Dr. Steve Pettit ("[1]What Does It Mean To Run 'The Race'?" - [2]11:34)

Dear friend, Steve Pettit is a monster in the churches today! This wicked false teacher is saying that you cannot merely say that you've accepted Christ as your Savior to get to Heaven. In addition Pettit says that you MUST live a sanctified (changed) life to be saved. John Bunyan fully understood that JUSTIFICATION without by the man Jesus Christ is all that a person needs to be saved. SANCTIFIATION within by the indwelling Holy Spirit requires a lifetime of growing in grace for every believer.

A human child does not have to grow to exist. A child could die at any point, but their birth is a done deal. Once you have been physically born into the is world, nothing can undo that fact. Likewise, once you are born spiritually into God's Kingdom, it is an irreversible miracle. Just as a human child could never be biologically unborn, so also can a child of God never be eternally unborn. ONCE SAVED, ALWAYS SAVED!!! The new birth by the Holy Spirit of God is [3]irreversible, irrevocable and permanent. One of my favorite sermons by Pastor Hank Lindstrom (1940-2008) is called: "[4]HOW PERMANENT IS YOUR SALVATION?

I know God is proud of me for being "THE TROUBLEMAKER." Elijah was a troublemaker too! The Apostle Paul was a troublemaker. Galatians 4:16-17, "Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth? They zealously affect you, but not well; yea, they would exclude you, that ye might affect them. " The fastest way to be labeled as a troublemaker is to simply TELL THE TRUTH!!! When I attended the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam in 2014 for a year, I befriended their pastors with THE TRUTH. Those ungodly reprobates of the Christian faith counted me as AN ENEMY and excommunicated me as a TROUBLEMAKER!!!

Pastor Marty Herron has my blood on his hands. I had no church or social life for the next seven years between 2014 and 2021. Pastor Gary Walton has my blood on his hands. Walton became the new senior pastor at Harvest in 2018 and continued to reject, shun and ostracize me from attending their church. I pray still to this day for God to curse Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, but I realized long ago that God's curse was already upon them. Galatians 1:6-8, "I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.

Harvest sinfully promotes Bob Jones University and Dr. Steve Pettit throughout Micronesia via their grade and high schools, college and radio station. 2nd John 1:11, "For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds. " Harvest Baptist Church of Guam are GUILTY for bidding Godspeed to Bob Jones University (BJU) and for preaching a false gospel of Lordship salvation themselves on Guam. SHAME! SHAME! SHAME!!!

And now I moved 9,000 miles away to Pensacola, just to find out that Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College (PCC) has strong ties to Bob Jones University and Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. The PCC camp sinfully bids Godspeed to the BJU camp. This is not acceptable to God!

1st Kings 18:21, " How long halt ye between two opinions? if the LORD be God, follow him: but if Baal, then follow him. And the people answered him not a word. " There is nothing new under the sun! Times may change, but human nature never does. Elijah put God's people on the spot, admonishing them for straddling the fence, going along to get along with error, and staying neutral in the work of God.

> "God has a special rebuke, again and again and again in the Bible, toward those people who keep their neutrality in the work of God!" —SOURCE: Dr. Jack Hyles, a quote from the great MP3 sermon, " [5]Where Were You In The Battle? "

My feelings were recently hurt when Pastor Jeff Redlin, senior pastor of Campus Church at PCC, criticized my ministry websites. After looking at my ministry websites, Pastor Redlin sarcastically said that I focus on the "weaknesses" of pastors. I wrote back and rebuked him kindly, asserting that what he mistakenly calls "weaknesses" are in reality hardcore damnable heresy, wickedness and apostasy in the churches today. I also reminded him of his Biblical duty as a pastor to expose false teachers. What saith the Scripture?

> Titus 1:10-14, "For there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, specially they of the circumcision:
>
> Whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre's sake.
>
> One of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The Cretians are alway liars, evil beasts, slow bellies.
>
> This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith;
>
> Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men, that turn from the truth.

I am sick and tired of today's shallow pastors diminishing the severity of false teaching in our Bible colleges and churches! What [6]John MacArthur and [7]Steve Pettit are teaching is damnable heresy, not the free grace Gospel taught in the Holy Scriptures!!! For Pensacola Christian College (PCC) to hobnob with the Bob Jones camp and remain silent is wickedness!!! Sadly, they don't care because the money is coming in. As long as Campus Church is taking in $3,500,000 per year, and PCC much more than that, they will not stand as they ought! This is another reason why I am against Bible colleges, because they draw millions of dollars away from local New Testament churches, hogging resources and leaving the churches in ruins.

PCC is a massive organization, owning hundreds of millions of dollars in assets. They have become massively successful by not standing, by compromising and selling out. Evangelist Ken Ham openly says that he specializes in Creation, making $37,000,000 a year by exploiting a niche in the religious world to get rich. Campus Church, The Crown College and hundreds more religious institutions, shamefully endorse and financially support Ken Ham's corrupt ministry.

Luke 16:13, "No servant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

" That is why John the Baptist lived a very simple and poor life out in the Wilderness, surviving off the land as a pauper. John could preach whatever he wanted, because he needed nothing from anyone! In sharp contrast, today's pastors have mortgages, car payments and many bills to pay, and need their careers, so they dip their sails in sinful compromise and refuse to preach against anything that might cause friction.

What really bothers me is Jeff Redlin's sinful attitude. It's bad enough that Pastor Redlin won't speak anything negative against false teachers, but then he criticizes faithful men of God like me who do take a stand. Shame on Jeff Redlin!!! The corrupt Bob Jones University camp need to be exposed!!! Someone needs to call Steve Pettit out for corrupting the Gospel. I am exposing him publicly, and Jeff Redlin for bidding Godspeed to the Bob Jones crowd. John MacArthur has a large cult following across America and the world.

> "Don't believe anyone who says it's easy to become a Christian. Salvation for sinners cost God His own Son; it cost God's Son His life, and it'll cost you the same thing*...*" [emphasis added] —Dr. John MacArthur, his book "HARD TO BELIEVE," p. 93

Liar, liar, pants on fire! Folks, if there's one thing that the Bible tells us about salvation, it is that getting saved is free, easy and simple. It is NOT hard to become a Christian! Receiving God's free gift of eternal life won't cost you anything. John MacArthur errantly teaches that if you want to get saved, then it will COST YOU your life! That is of the Devil. Nowhere are we taught in the Holy Bible that salvation will COST YOU Something. Jesus paid our debt of sin with His own precious blood (1st Peter 1:18-19). Why oh why does Pensacola Christian College and Campus Church bid Godspeed to Bob Jones University today???

Folks, I hope you see what is happening. These institutions are making lots of money! Bible colleges are all about training for careers. They can hide behind a pretense of wanting to serve Christ, but the fact that they won't separate from doctrinal error evidences that the issue is about money. These organizations will hypocritically boast of the important of truth, but then they ignore damnable heresy like it's not a problem.

I heard Pastor Jeff Redlin in church tonight (Sunday, September 5th, 2021) say in his sermon that “ right words matter.

” Oh really? Redlin said that the disciples hurt Jesus’ feelings when they asked Him if He cared in Mark

4:38, “

And he was in the hinder part of the ship, asleep on a pillow: and they awake him, and say unto him, Master, carest thou not that we perish? ” God, do you care? What a grand insult! The ship was filling with water. Jesus was asleep in the bottom of the ship. They panicked and couldn’t take it anymore. Ever been there? I sure have, more times than I care to remember. In frustration I have oftentimes asked God if He really gives a damn about me! I know that horrible feeling. Yes God cares, He really cares (1st Peter 5:7). That is why we must walk by faith and not by sight (2nd Corinthians 5:7).

Pastor Redlin is right that right words matter. Our words can hurt other people’s feelings. Redlin should know, because he made me feel like garbage in July of 2021, to his utter shame. But saying something hurtful in a moment of frustration, versus not caring at all, are two completely different things. Pastor Redlin couldn’t care less about me as a hurting man. I poured out my heart to him, sharing my battle with neck pain and loneliness from divorce. The selfish jerk didn’t even take the time to respond. When I asked him why, giving him the benefit of the doubt, he shirked his hands and shoulders, confirming that he just hadn’t cared enough to respond. That hurt my feelings. When I went to him about the matter, letting him know that he hurt my feelings, he unkindly berated me with insults and sarcasm.

Pastor Redlin made lame excuses. A student had died a couple weeks earlier at PCC, which he milked for everything he could, as if a student’s death justified his refusal to welcome me as a hurting divorced man at Campus Church. It wasn’t until I had already been in the church for one month that he finally reluctantly emailed to tell me I am welcome at their church, but underlined with a sarcastic tone. The guy has a problem and needs to learn how to treat people much better! Pastor Redlin later admitted that he and his associate pastors had found my ministry websites and that is why he took so long to reply.

I couldn’t believe how ridiculous he sounded. I know God is proud of my diligent labors for Him for the past 19 years since 2002 online. When other preachers were dipping their sails, collecting a fat paycheck and sitting on the premises instead of standing on the promises, I was faithfully earnestly contending for the faith. You’d think Redlin would have complimented my website ministry, but he only critiqued me. And now I am critiquing him for dropping the ball for God!!! I love this passage of Scripture:

> 1st Kings 18:17-21, “And it came to pass, when Ahab saw Elijah, that Ahab said unto him, *Art thou he that troubleth Israel?
>
> And he answered, I have not troubled Israel; but thou, and thy father’s house*, in that ye have forsaken the commandments of the LORD, and thou hast followed Baalim.
>
> Now therefore send, and gather to me all Israel unto mount Carmel, and the prophets of Baal four hundred and fifty, and the prophets of the groves four hundred, which eat at Jezebel’s table.
>
> So Ahab sent unto all the children of Israel, and gathered the prophets together unto mount Carmel. And Elijah came unto all the people, and said, How long halt ye between two opinions? if the LORD be God, follow him: but if Baal, then follow him. And the people answered him not a word. ”

That last sentence accurately describes 99 % of Baptist churches today: AND THE PEOPLE ANSWERED HIM NOT A WORD!!! Is a devil your pastor? [8]Pastor Marty Herron is a devil in the churches today! Pacific Garden Mission in Chicago broadcasts the ’[9]UNSHACKLED’ radio series, many of which preach hardcore damnable heresy!!! Dear reader, we’ve got a big problem in our churches and Bible colleges today. Calvinism is being tolerated by the free grace Gospel crowd. Why oh why? The greatest sin of believers in every generation is tolerating false teachers.

That is what happened to the foolish churches of Galatia. Paul said that they had been BE-WITCHED (Galatians 3:1-3).

Galatians 4:16-17, “Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth? They zealously affect you, but not well; yea, they would exclude you, that ye might affect them. ” The same holds true today! The Bob Jones crowd ZEALOUSLY affect everybody who comes into contact with them, but they do not affect them well. Steve Pettit’s charisma is a tool of the Devil, deceiving the simple and the foolish.

Dear friends, I am going to continue to faithfully STAND. Shame on Pastor Jeff Redlin and Campus Church for not standing against the Bob Jones camp. PCC allows their college students to partake in competitive sporting events with BJU, and in so doing diminishing the danger of Calvinism (aka, Lordship salvation). We’ve become way too relaxed, indifferent and complacent about false teaching in our Bible colleges and churches today. Any pastor who is so wishy-washy that he cannot discern THE TRUTH, and nail down what the Gospel is and is not, ought not stand behind any pulpit to preach!!! We KNOW what the Gospel is as defined in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4. A willingness to repent and turn away from a lifestyle of sinning is NOT part of the Gospel of free grace. That means the faculty and students at Bob Jones University are going to Hell for placing their faith in something other than wholly in the GOOD NEWS of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and bodily risen the third day.

God is proud of me for earnestly contending for the Christian faith (Jude 1:3). So while bad pastors like Jeff Redlin continue to belittle me, diss my website ministry, accuse me of being a troublemaker, accuse me of sowing discord, and accuse me of focusing on the weaknesses of pastors, I will continue to do the right thing by exposing these false teachers by name and warning the world to mark and avoid them (Romans 16:17-18). Pastor Redlin’s excuses are nothing less than his lame attempt to excuse his wicked indifference and irresponsibility as a preacher. Truth matters! Right doctrine matters! Right words matter!

Pastor Redlin admits these vital truths himself. So then why does he diss my website ministry? Why is my labor for Christ less significant than his labors? I am not a respecter of persons, but Pastor Redlin most certainly is! I came to Campus Church in Pensacola, Florida with an open heart, unconditional love and a desire to be a blessing in any way that I could. In return Pastor Redlin kicked me in the head with his coldness, cruel silence and unwillingness to befriend a hurting brother who pleaded for his friendship. I have concluded that the best way I can be a blessing at Campus Church is to preach against their shallowness!

It’s not the words that Pastor Redlin speaks that matter, it’s his behavior and attitude that matter. Redlin never followed up with me. Even after I told him that he made me feel like garbage, and that I had lost my home and wife and everything near and dear to me since 2006, and that I suffer 24/7 in chronic neck pain from a neck injury in 2004, that horrible man ignored me completely. Campus Church hypocritically boasts on all their church bulletins and on their website: "LOVING GOD! LOVING PEOPLE!" But that is a fallacy at Campus Church. Jesus called Judas "friend." Now that is love. If Pastor Redlin is too busy to reply to a hurting man's email, then he needs a secretary to filter his emails and respond on his behalf. You can't just ignore people, as he did me for 10 long days. I am tired of pastors ostracizing me because of my truth-telling website ministry!!!

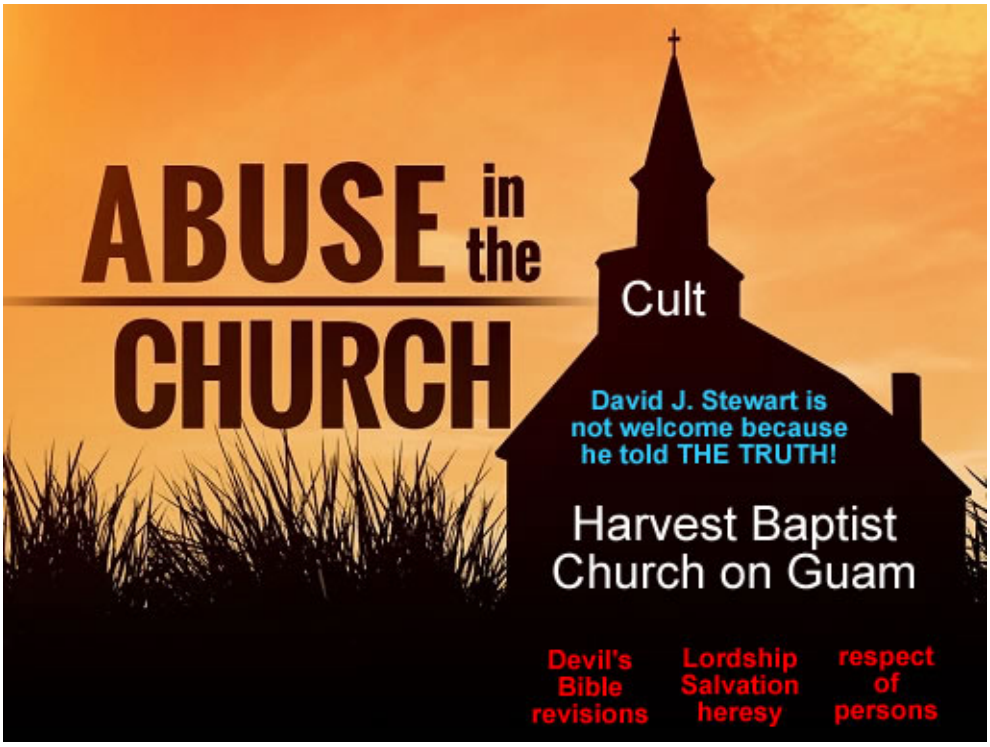
You only care about people as the way you treat the least among you. I'll bet if I were President Donald Trump, then Pastor Redlin would have responded in less than an hour, if not seconds! The fact that Redlin blew me off for 10 days, and then confirmed that he had done so, showed me clearly that this pastor has zero love or consideration for me as a hurting human being. It disturbs me that any pastor would shun a man who came 9,000 miles, slept in Wal-Mart's parking lot for the first three nights, is living out of a suitcase in a hotel, is hurting as a divorced man, is suffering from agonizing permanent neck pain, and told the pastor so, only to be ignored and cast aside like garbage by Jeff Redlin.

The issue is not about me, it's about the way today's pastors mistreat people in general. Why does their church tout the motto:

"LOVING GOD! LOVING PEOPLE!" when they don't really mean it? The closer you get to Jesus the more you'll care about those furthest from Him. I never heard from Jeff Redlin again! When you attend Campus Church for the first time and fill out a visitor's card, the church will send you a form letter (they buy thousands of them by the box full at the local stationary store). That is the last I ever heard from Campus Church!!! That is not LOVING PEOPLE folks!

Pastor Redlin made it a point to tell me that they are not perfect pastors, but not being perfect is something entirely different than deliberately not caring about someone who plainly asked for help. I even sent Redlin photos of my neck x-rays, MRI's and thermal scan. He didn't even bother to reply. He never offered to pray with or for me. He never expressed any sympathy or empathy for my loss, pain and suffering. Pastor Redlin never made me feel like he cared about me at all. How convenient that a pastor of a large church can blame everything on such. I wouldn't recommend Campus Church to anyone who is hurting, divorced, lonely or needs to be loved, because Campus Church only exists for PCC college students. Campus Church wouldn't exist if it weren't for PCC, They have a captive audience.

I am a firm believer in WORD OF MOUTH! When you mistreat one customer, there are at least ten more frustrated customers who won't express their feelings. If one customer complains, a wise manager will assume that this is the tip of the iceberg. Campus Church needs improvement! They need a better senior pastor!!! I have nothing personal against Pastor Redlin, I am calling him out as I see him, based solely on my interaction with him since the July 4th picnic 2021 when I attended Campus Church for the first time. Consequently, I have been attending other Baptist churches in Pensacola. No one wants to be where they are not loved. Campus Church pretentiously claims to love God and people, but they failed with me! The issue is not me, it is my ministry! I am telling THE TRUTH, yet today's pastors call me THE TROUBLEMAKER for it! God is proud of me, not those slackdog pastors!!!



I am sick of proud and arrogant pastors who get upset that anyone would dare to question their doctrine, or humbly ask them if a divorced person is welcomed in their church. I am sharp in my words, intentionally so. I can get sharper too! The reason why our nation is going to Hell is because pastors and churches have become accustomed to indifference, complacency and apostasy. The Bob Jones crowd hate my guts, like Billy Sunday was hated, because I have come out against them uncompromisingly. And now the PCC crowd are siding with the Bob Jones camp. I'll fight against all of them with the inspired Sword of the Word of God if need be, but I WILL STAND one way or the other. The Bob Jones camp are of the Devil. They are the most hateful, vindictive and rotten group I have ever met in my life!!!

> "I've stood for more sneers and scoffs and insults and had my life threatened from one end of the land to the other by this God-forsaken gang of thugs and cutthroats because I have come out uncompromisingly against them." —Evangelist Billy Sunday

On that happy day of July 4th, 2021, Pastor Redlin made a big and positive impact on me, but then he found my websites (that someone sent to him) and he started mistreating me, holding a grudge, and now he counts me as his enemy. Actions speak infinitely louder than one's words. Our talk talks and our walk walks, but our walk talks louder than our talk talks. Redlin's actions speak loudly that he wants nothing to do with me, because I am THE TROUBLEMAKER! Yea, and he is [10]CASPAR MILQUETOAST! Well then so be it! If telling THE TRUTH and exposing today's rotten Bob Jones University camp for corrupting the Gospel makes me a TROUBLEMAKER, then I will gladly be in the same boat as Elijah, Jesus and Paul.

2.9.7 Pastor Sam Adams Counterfeit Plan Of Salvation (2021-09-06 20:45)

Mark 1:14-15,

“

Now after that John was put in prison, Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the gospel of the kingdom of God, And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel.

Acts 20:21, “

Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ.

” 2nd Timothy 2:25-26, “In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth; And that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will.”

Pastor Sam Adams is the senior pastor of [1]Independent Baptist Church in Ocala, Florida. Pastor Adams is guilty of corrupting the Word of God. I humbly do not believe that Sam Adams is a born-again Christian. Pastor Adams is arrogant, cocky and woefully ignorant of the Scriptures, just like Pastor John MacArthur.

In the following quote from Sam Adams he calls those who disagree with his theology “pseudo-Baptists” (false Baptists). Here is what his church website errantly says:

> Further, contrary to another associated heresy prevalent among those same pseudo-Baptists, the repentance required for salvation most certainly DOES mean TURNING FROM SIN, and consequently turning to the only remedy for our sin, the Lord Jesus. We are not saved by works or by ceasing from sin; but until a man understands the seriousness of his sin and its terrifying consequences, and therefore desires to be free from his sin, he will not be prepared to truly come to Christ or be truly converted. The commands of the Lord Jesus are clear: “that REPENTANCE and remission of sins SHOULD BE PREACHED in his name among all nations” (Luke 24:47), and further as Paul preached on Mars Hill; that God now “commandeth all men everywhere to repent.” Repenting IS believing. [emphasis added]
>
> [2]SOURCE

It ceases to amaze me how dishonest the proponents of “ salvation are! God gave us an entire book of the Bible for the specific purpose of showing man the way of salvation. That book is the blessed Gospel of John. John 20:31,

“But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name. ” In the Gospel of John we find the word “believe” mentioned 88 times, but the word “repent” is not mentioned even once. That speaks volumes! It is clear to see that the man who BELIEVES HAS REPENTED. If repentance were a separate act from believing, then the Bible would have said so in the Gospel of John.

Now, Pastor Sam Adams is very subtle and cleverly deceptive! He readily admits that “Repenting IS believing”; yet he still insists that repentance means TO TURN FROM SIN. That is double-speak. In one breath Adams says repentance and faith are inseparable (and he is 100 % correct). But then he goes 100 % astray by teaching that a person must desire to be freed from living a life of sin to be saved. That is damnable heresy! Nowhere in the Bible are we required to forsake a lifestyle of sin to receive God’s free gift of eternal life.

The big problem with the idea of “turning” is that one preacher draws the line somewhere different than the next preacher. Who are you or I to draw any lines? The Greek word from which our English word “repent” in the Bible comes is metanoia, which simply means “a change of mind.” The verb form metanoeo means “to think differently.” So in the sense of changing one’s mind repentance DOES mean to turn around. But it is a turning from unbelief to belief to be saved. We know that it cannot mean anything more than a change of mind unto the Gospel itself, because then it would involve works if it did.

Pastor Sam Adams Is A Wolf In Sheep’s Clothing (Matthew 7:15)

Most of what Pastor Adams says is correct, but then he goes horrible astray when he embellishes the definition of Bible repentance to mean that he “ desires to be free from sin.

” No, that is wrong! The only thing that a man needs to desire to be freed from is the penalty of sin, which is death and Hell (the second death - Revelation 21:8). Romans 6:23, “For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Here is what you must know to be saved:

- WHO Jesus is - He is the only begotten Son of God, the Christ.
- WHAT Jesus did for you - He died on the cross for your sins, was buried and three days later Jesus bodily resurrected from the dead.
- WHY Jesus did it - You and I are guilty sinners in the sight of our holy God. Since we have no righteousness of our own to offer God the Father, and God requires 100 % sinless perfection to enter into Heaven, we need a Savior. Jesus is the sinless Lamb of God. He paid our sin debt, so God could give us His righteousness by faith.

In a horrible corrupt sermon titled:

“

True Salvation = LORDSHIP Salvation,

” Adams sinfully teaches:

>
> The greatest need for any sinner is to have his sins blotted out, but a man will never have the pardon of sin while he is in love with his sin. There must be a hatred of sin, a loathing of it, a turning from it. Repentance is a revolution in dealing with our attitude and view toward sin and righteousness. Repentance is not something that one does with his hands but is an inward attitude of the soul. Sin must become in the eyes of the sinner exceedingly sinful and that’s when you come to Christ for salvation. ...and so if you came to Jesus thinking you can hold on to your sins, you came to the wrong Jesus!
>
> ” [emphasis added]
>
> —“ [4]True Salvation = LORDSHIP Salvation
>
>
> (Easy-Believism Refuted)

What a false message of bondage Sam Adams is preaching! Adams is guilty of perverting God’s grace and preaching another gospel which is accursed (Galatians 1:6-9).

Pastor Harry Ironside (1876-1951) well understood the Gospel and repentance. Read what Pastor Ironside correctly states about repentance in [5]chapter 16 of his book, [6]EXCEPT YE REPENT . . .

> “In all that I have written I have failed completely to express what was surging up in my soul if I have given anyone the impression that I think of repentance as something meritorious which must be produced in man by self-effort ere he is fit to come to God for salvation."

Dr. Harry Ironside, a quote from chapter 16, [7]THE PREACHING THAT PRODUCES REPENTANCE , from his timeless classic book, [8]EXCEPT YE REPENT .

Repentance "From Sins" For Salvation is Not Biblical

There are only a few references in the Bible where the word "repentance" is used with sin. The Bible usually speaks of "the remission of sins," but never commands anyone to repent from sins to be saved. Search the Bible and you will find that "repentance" is almost always mentioned with salvation, but it never tells us that forsaking sinful bad habits is the way to be saved. Ceasing from sin is self-righteousness. The truth is that God's indwelling Holy Spirit begins to change us when we get saved. This means a lifetime of being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. Getting saved happens in a moment of time by trusting Jesus Christ, but becoming Christlike takes a lifetime. That's how it's supposed to work.

In sharp contrast, false prophets mandate change as a requirement to be saved. They "frontload the Gospel," that is, they require all the traits of a mature Christian upfront as a condition of salvation. They're trying to do God's job instead of letting the Holy Spirit work. God changes lives, not we ourselves. Man trying to change himself is reformation, not regeneration. Our part is simply to "believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved" (Acts 16:30-31). To demand that a person change (i.e., forsake the world and sinful living) to be saved is a false Gospel of self-righteousness. Eternal life is a free gift (Romans 5:15; 6:23), paid for by Jesus' precious blood (1st Peter 1:18-19). Please listen to the awesome MP3 sermon by Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold, "[9]Caught Between Grace And Works."

The entire concept of Lordship Salvation is based in human effort. Most of our evangelical churches today have bought into the lie that it's not enough to believe the Gospel of Jesus Christ to be saved. The "Gospel" is that Jesus Christ DIED on the cross for our sins, He was BURIED, and He bodily RESURRECTED from the dead three days later (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). If you receive Christ's sacrifice on the cross as full payment for your sins, then you are saved.

But don't I have to repent? Yes, of course! Biblical repentance is "a change of mind" that causes a person to believe the Gospel. Repentance is NOT a desire to stop sinning. Repentance is realizing that you are a guilty SINNER, so you believe the Gospel and are saved. Repentance is changing your mind about whatever was previously hindering you from completely resting in Christ for salvation.

Repentance is not a separate event from faith, although they are not the same thing. Here is the best quote that I've found on repentance, by Dr. Harry A. Ironside (1876-1951):

"Which comes first, repentance or faith? In Scripture we read, 'Repent ye, and believe the gospel.' Yet we find true believers exhorted to 'repent, and do the first works.' So intimately are the two related that you cannot have one without the other. The man who believes God repents; the repentant soul puts his trust in the Lord when the Gospel is revealed to him. Theologians may wrangle over this, but the fact is, no man repents until the Holy Spirit produces repentance in his soul through the > truth. No man believes the Gospel and rests in it for his own salvation until he has judged himself as a needy sinner before God. And this is repentance." ([10]Except Ye Repent, p. 16)

The only thing that we need to repent from to be saved is UNBELIEF. Do we have to realize our sinful condition to be saved? Of course, yes! But there is not one verse in the entire Bible which requires a person to forsake sin to be saved. Nor does the Bible give anyone God's permission to commit sin just because they are saved (Romans 3:31). Every time Jesus forgave someone and healed them, it was only AFTERWARDS that He said: "Go and sin no more." John 5:14, "Afterward Jesus findeth him in the temple, and said unto him, Behold, thou art made whole: sin no more, lest a worse thing come unto thee."

Repentance simply means "a change of mind." Believers change our minds every day about all kinds of things, including the sins in our life. Repenting of sins throughout one's Christian life is solely a matter of DISCIPLESHIP, not SALVATION. It is a matter of growing in the Lord's grace (1st Peter 2:2), as we yield to the Holy Spirit's leading in obedience to the Holy Scriptures (2nd Corinthians 10:5). I love this helpful quote from Evangelist John Bunyan (1628-1688):

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." [emphasis added] —Evangelist John Bunyan

Pastor Sam Adams corrupts the Word of God and casts stumbling blocks before the people!

We don't give up our sins to become a Christian (Romans 3:20); rather, we forsake our sins because we are a Christian (Romans 12:1-2). There are no prerequisites or conditions for salvation (Galatians 3:2). God will save any guilty sinner who trusts the GOOD NEWS of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen from the dead (Romans 10:13). John 6:37, "All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out."

[11] Oh Foolish Churches, Who Hath Bewitched You?

(new Bibles, new repentance, new Gospel)

Once a person is saved, they begin to grow in grace by nurturing on the milk of God's Word (1st Peter 2:2). As a believer grows in the Lord, he or she is convicted by God's indwelling Holy Spirit. The blessed Holy Spirit works in that person's heart. Thus, we begin to see the "FRUIT" of the Holy Spirit (Galatians 5:22-25). A changed life is the FRUIT of the indwelling Holy Spirit, and NOT a prerequisite to salvation or a part of saving-faith. Proponents of Lordship Salvation place the cart before the horse and have it all backwards. They frontload the Gospel, requiring mature aspects of a believer's life upfront. This is not the Gospel, it is damnable heresy!

In Mark 1:4, John the Baptist speaks of "...repentance for the remission of sins"; NOT "repentance of sins." Acts 20:21 reads... "Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ." Notice that Biblical repentance is "TOWARD GOD." In Acts 11:21 we read, "And the hand of the Lord was with them: and a great number believed, and turned unto the Lord." So you see, in the Bible "repentance" was always "TOWARD GOD," never from sin. A man may have to repent from the denial of his sins, so that he will BELIEVE THE GOSPEL, but there is no Biblical requirement to "turn from sins" to be saved.

Consider the following quote by the mighty man of God, Dr. Harry Ironside (1876-1951)...

> "Repentance is the recognition of my sinnership—the owning before God that I am as vile as He has declared me to be in His holy Word." — [12]Except Ye Repent, Dr. Harry Ironside, chapter 3

Pastor Ironside is correct—repentance is simply realizing that one is a guilty, dirty, rotten, hopeless sinner in God's eyes. This is why we need a Savior. Repentance is simply seeing your need oh sinner! Thankfully, Jesus paid the price with His own literal precious blood (1st Peter 1:18,19; Hebrews 9:12).

Repentance is the admission that I am as guilty a sinner as a holy God hath declared me to be in His Holy Word (Romans 3:19). This is Biblical repentance, turning to the Lord. It is ludicrous for anyone to teach that a lost sinner must give up their sins to be saved. As we saw with Lot and Samson in the Old Testament, and Demas and Peter in the New Testament, not all believers always live for God. Jesus even called the apostle Peter, "Satan" (Matthew 16:23).

Christian author Michael Patrick Bowen states in his excellent book titled, "[13]I NEVER KNEW YOU," on page 114...

> "Repent, as Christ meant it to be in terms of salvation, means to change your mind from trusting in what you can do for God to trusting only in what He can do for you." — Michael Patrick Bowen, a quote from the awesome book, "[14]I NEVER NEW YOU" (Page 114)

The beloved Pastor Bob Gray Sr. of the Longview Baptist Temple church in Texas correctly preaches . . .

> "Repentance means to change your mind—change your mind—change your mind about how you want to get to Heaven to what God says you've got to do to get to Heaven. If you've got to repent of all your sins, you're still headed for Hell tonight." — Pastor Bob Gray Sr., a quote from the awesome MP3 sermon, [15]Why You Should Be A Part Of A Growing Church

Pastor Sam Adams is a false teacher and wicked slanderer. He is not a child of God, evidenced by his perverse understanding of how to get to Heaven. It is clear from listening to his sermon that he is jealous of Pastor Jack Hyles, because he keeps mentioning the big buildings, large attendances and high number of converts and baptisms. Pastor Adams attacks the simplicity that is in Christ (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4).

> “We’re not going to win any souls to Christ, by telling them that they don’t need to repent of their sin. We’re not going to bring anyone to true salvation by deceiving them into believing they can hold on to their sin. They can remain in their sin. By telling them that all they have to do is say a sinner’s prayer, repeat the prayer after me, come to church and be baptized and you’ll be saved” —Pastor Sam Adams, “ [16]True Salvation = LORDSHIP Salvation

Adams idiotically calls Pastor Hyles preaching:

“Hyles’ false gospel.” Dear reader, please listen to this beautiful sermon by Dr. Jack Hyles called: “ [17]Fundamentalist Heresy ” to learn for yourself what Brother Hyles believed and taught that a lost sinner must do to get to Heaven. As you will quickly learn, Sam Adams is a lying deceiver and false accuser!!!

Pastor Adams further heretically states:

>
> We cannot receive what Jesus gives us and refuse Who Jesus is.
>
> You can’t receive His free gift of salvation if we don’t receive
>
> Him as Lord, because He is Lord.
>
> The point of today’s message is that you cannot separate saving faith
>
> from submission
>
> to Christ’s Lordship.

What a mess! What gross theological incompetence!!! Sam Adams is a child of the Devil. Pastor M.R. DeHaan (1891-1965) makes this beautiful observation:

> "There is a vast difference between coming to Jesus for salvation and coming after Jesus for service. Coming to Christ makes one a believer, while coming after Christ makes one a disciple. All believers are not disciples. To become a believer one accepts the invitation of the Gospel, to be a disciple one obeys the challenge to a life of dedicated service and separation. Salvation comes through the sacrifice of Christ; discipleship comes only by sacrifice of self and surrender to His call for devoted service. Salvation is free, but discipleship involves paying the price of a separated walk. Salvation can’t be lost because it depends upon God’s faithfulness, but discipleship can be lost because it depends upon our faithfulness." —Pastor M. R. DeHaan, Hebrews; Zondervan Publishing House, 1959 (p. 117)

At [19]24:30 in his awful sermon, Pastor Adams attacks Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001), horribly accusing him of preaching a false gospel, which is essentially the same as saying that he went to Hell to burn forever. No, Sam Adams is the unsaved fool.

In his wicked sermon Sam Adams slanders Dr. Jack Hyles, unjustly calling him a lifetime unrepentant adulterer.

In this 1989 sermon [20]you can hear Pastor Hyles deny the allegations against him, exposing his neo-evangelical enemies as liars! There is no evidence to support those slanderous accusations. SHAME ON SAM ADAMS for spreading gossip and unfounded rumors. It is clear to me that Pastor Sam Adams is a bitter angry man who hates anybody who disagrees with his Satanic Calvinist theology.

The purpose of God’s law is to show humanity our SINNERSHIP, so that we would see our guilty condition and need for the blessed Savior. Repentance is seeing that need:

> Romans 3:19-20, “
>
> Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God.
>
> Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin.

False teachers like Sam Adams require that you forsake your sins as a condition of receiving God’s gift of eternal life; but God only requires that you come as a needy sinner so that you will BELIEVE in His only begotten Son to have all your sins eternally forgiven. Isn’t the latter so much better? You better believe it is! The latter is THE TRUTH.

Jesus paid our debt of sin. When you come to Christ to be saved, God instantly seals you with His Holy Spirit (Ephesians 1:13-15), and the wonderful Holy Spirit begins to work on our life (1st John 3:24), sanctifying you and me with THE TRUTH of the inspired Word of God (John 17:17). God is not an absent parent (Hebrews 12:6-8). My heart breaks for the victimized people being deceived at the incompetent hands of Pastor Sam Adams.

Dear friend, we are at ugly war in our churches and Bible colleges today over the inspiration of God’s Word, over the Bible meaning of repentance, over the free grace Gospel. Won’t you please join the fight! After the 911 World Trade Center attack in New York City, thousands of courageous young people across the country signed-up to join the U.S. military to fight. That’s what we need today in Christianity! We need thousands of believers, young and old, to sign-up in God’s army to be a soldier of Jesus Christ (2nd Timothy 2:1-4). We are at war with the Devil (2nd Corinthians 4:3-4; Ephesians 6:10-13). Jesus is precious!!!
