So one, you trust Him as the Savior to save you from the penalty of sin, which is in Hell; and the second thing, after you trust the Lord, we should allow the Lord to be the Master of our life; and as we yield to Him He gives us the power to deliver us from the power of sin in this life. So, after we are saved we have a life to live. So there is a place for Christ being the Lord of our life—the Master of our life. And there's nothing wrong with that. But when you try to make Christ the Lord and the Master of your life in order to be saved it's wrong. That is why sometimes people put on there (and I've seen it just recently on there websites), that you must accept Jesus Christ as your "Lord and Savior." As your "Lord and Savior." But what does that means? And they generally mean that you must accept Him as the Lord and the Master of your life, be willing to change your life, turn from your sins, make Him in charge of your life, in order that He might save you. That is heresy!

And yet it looks like it's so close, and yet it's so disastrous, because the consequences is Hell. And they use a lot of the same words, terminology, but it it's just so wrong. We have to be careful of the things that we say. The words that we say. The message that we tell people. Because you see, we will have to answer to the Lord for the Gospel we preach. It's not left up to you and I to change it. To manipulate it. And just because we see the wickedness in so many Christian's lives, you can't change the Gospel message to solve the immaturity in Christians. You have to hit them with the doctrines of other things that pertain to the child of God. But salvation is totally separate.

But because many preachers don't know how to do that, they put the disciplines of discipleship with the clearness of the Gospel and put it all together, and give them a glass of mud. That they cannot discern. So now they don't know if they're really saved or not, because now they have to look at these works to do, how to live, and it produces turmoil. It produces fear. It produces terror. Because there's no absolute, there's no surety, there's no confidence.

So in this statement I have here: "After salvation, you're yielding to the Lordship of Christ will save your life from the power of sin, but it cannot save your soul from Hell." People can seek to make Christ the Lord and the Master of their life in how they want to live, but that cannot save your soul from Hell. Impossible! To be saved from Hell, you must accept the payment He made for your sins. And that is made by you trusting in Christ, and Him alone without any works of yours whatsoever.

The next statement, in the book of Acts in chapter 4, in verse 12, it says: "Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved." According to that verse, there is no Savior outside of Jesus Christ. Christ is the Savior. You can choose whether or not to accept Him as your Savior. Accepting Him as my Savior does not make Him a Savior. He already is a Savior. I am just allowing Him to save me. But if I don't trust Him as my Savior, He is still a Savior, that's what He does. I am thankful that I can stand here and say: "He is my Savior!," because he has saved me. If He has not saved me, He is not my Savior. And if He has saved me, then I cannot be seeking salvation. Those who are still seeking to be saved are saying that they are not yet saved, and still need to be saved; and therefore, they think they have to wait 'til the end of their life to see if they're going to make it or not. Salvation is a gift.

Look at the next statement: "Man's belief or lack of belief in the Saviorship of Jesus, does not change the fact that Jesus Christ is truly the Savior." When a man (this is a very important statement here) recognizes the fact that Jesus Christ is truly the Savior, and trusts Him to be His Savior, then and only then, does that man receive the benefits of Christ's saving power. Outside of that there is none. You see, the new birth is a miracle. The new birth is a spiritual birth. The new birth is of God. And God has to do it. Man cannot give himself a new birth. Then it would be of the flesh, but the will of man; and it is by the will of God.

The next statement: "Christ died and rose again for all." Hebrews chapter 2 and verse 9, that Jesus Christ "was made a little lower than the angels for the suffering of death," that He might "taste death for every man." So that every man can have salvation. In first John chapter 2, in verse 2, it talks about how that Jesus is our propitiation. He is the satisfaction for our sins. God was satisfied with the payment Christ made for our sins. But He also says, "and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world." So not just those who believe. He also paid for the sins of those who don't believe. But the payment is not put to their account unless they believe it. They still must have the righteousness of God given to them as a gift in order to go to Heaven.

The next statement here: "But He saves only those who trust Him, that is to say, even though He is the Savior of the world, He saves only those in the world who personally and individually receive Him by faith. God invites "whosoever will" to trust in His Son. But it is an amazing truth of God's Word that men can forbid the Savior to save them. Such men die without a Savior, though One was available to them all the time, like in:

> John 3:16 "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved. He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God."

The last paragraph on this page. Just as you receive the Savior by faith, and He becomes your Savior; when you allow Christ to control your life, He becomes your Lord. He is Lord, but see, there is a great benefit in submitting your will to His will. There are great blessings in the life, by the Lord being the Master of my life. In other words, someone who can tell me what I should and should not do. But God wants us as His children to voluntarily yield to His authority. Now you can if you want. You can rebel if you want. But to yield to Him, God will bless your life and reward you when you get to Heaven. If you do not, then God is going to have to chasten and discipline, maybe take you home before your time.

But now notice, there is an increasing number of evangelicals today who are preaching, that in order for a man to be saved, he must not only receive Christ as his Savior, but also must make Him absolute Lord and Master of his life. Christ is the Lord. He is the Lord Jehovah, God in the flesh. And "Lord" can also mean "Master." And that is Who He is.

In Mark chapter 12, verses 28-33, I want to read these verses to you, and then I want to make some comments. Because you see, if Christ must be the Lord and the Master of my life, what am I actually doing with an individual? If I tell a lost man: "This is what you must do in order to be saved: 'Christ is not your Savior or your Lord, unless He is Lord of all, [Unless He is Lord of all], He is not Lord at all; and therefore, you must make Christ the Lord and the Master of your life.'" That sounds so spiritual, sounds so good. It's just the same as telling a person: "You must love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, mind, body, soul and strength, and you must love your neighbour as thyself." I wonder where I've heard those before. Look at verse 28 of the book of Mark:

> Mark 12:28-33, "And one of the scribes came, and having heard them reasoning together, and perceiving that he had answered them well, asked him, Which is the first commandment of all? And Jesus answered him, The first of all the commandments is, Hear, O Israel; The Lord our God is one Lord: And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength: this is the first commandment. And the second is like, namely this, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. There is none other commandment greater than these. And the scribe said unto him, Well, Master, thou hast said the truth: for there is one God; and there is none other but he: And to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love his neighbour as himself, is more than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices."

Do you notice there's a word, a three little letter word. Not "IRS." The word "all." [It is] mentioned over and over and over and over. Do you know the main thing about the "Lordship Salvation" [is] He must be Lord of all or He is not Lord at all. But what does that mean? This is what it means. This is THE LAW. When you tell a person that He must make Christ the Lord and the Master of his life, you are placing that person under the law to obey the law, all the law, every law. Look what He says, in Verse 30, "And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength: this is the first commandment." This is a commandment.

So when you tell a lost man: "This is what you must do. He has to be Lord of all!" You are putting that person under the law to be saved. Which means that you're telling a lost man that he has to prove that he's worthy of salvation, by the commitments that he's made, by the life that he's lived, by the sacrifices that he's made. All of that. All boiled together. And not just between him and God, but the second commandment is likened unto this: "Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself." So it's not just you living holy between you and God, you must live a certain way with people. And if you don't, you've failed the law. And the penalty for breaking the law was death. And yet there's preachers that take lost people; it's as though Christ's crucifixion—His death, burial and resurrection—had absolutely no effect, meant zero, and their trying to keep people under the law. And there's a lot of people on radio, and television, that preach this damnable message.

In the little box there, I wrote this: "Lordship Salvation is totally the keeping of the law. Lord of all or not Lord at all, which is shown to be impossible to perform. Can a man save himself by his works? No he cannot. And yet that's what that message presents to the lost man. It gives them and impossibility."

The next statement: "He is the Savior and He is the Lord. You may or may not accept Him as your Savior. You may or many not accept Him as your Lord. What you do or don't do does not change Who He is. He is Who He is. He has done what He has done." I believe that it's a shame and a disgrace for preachers, to take that wonderful sacrifice that Christ made for the sins of the world, because of the love of the Father, and to totally annul that sacrifice as though it has absolutely no effect, no power, it didn't have to be done. Because if a man can serve God and earn the right to be saved, why did Christ have to die? Then He died in vain, there was no reason for Him to die, because there was another way.

And yet the Bible tells us that there was no other way. And there is no other name under Heaven. That is the exclusivity of the Son of God. There is no one else that can save, accept Jesus Christ and Him alone.

Look at the next statement: "Jesus Christ is the all-knowing, all-powerful, Creator and Controller of the universe. Colossians 1:16, "For by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him:" Verse 17 adds: "by him all things consist" (or are held together). God led Paul to write that Jesus Christ is "the blessed and only Potentate, the King of kings, and Lord of lords;" That's Who He is. The One Who was crucified on Calvary, was none other than the Lord of glory. And he says: If the princes of this world had know Who He really was "they would not have crucified the Lord of glory." That's how blind they were. That's why they did what they did.

But what's the excuse, that so-called "Bible-believing teachers" have for creating such a monster, as to cause people to believe something that God totally is against, and why Christ died because there was no other way? So just to say, you know, "There's people who believe in Lordship Salvation," as though it's no big deal. IT IS A BIG DEAL! It's wicked! And it's wrong! And the preachers have no authority to preach such a message! [It] makes me upset.

Some may ask, if Jesus was really Lord when men by wicked hands crucified Him. Absolutely! You mean when Jesus Christ was here, and they nailed Him to a cross, He was still the Lord? Yes, He was. Do you realize that because He was the Lord, and He had all power and could have done anything He wanted to do—He says I have the power to lay my life down and to take it up again—He could have stopped anybody from doing anything—He was still in charge when they put the spear in His side and they put the nails in His feet—when He was crucified on the cross—He was still the Lord. He says: "I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again." He is the Lord now, although some men refuse to let Him rule in their lives.

Certainly the Bible says: Know "assuredly, that God hath made that same Jesus, whom ye have crucified, both Lord and Christ." Their unbelief did not change the fact about Who He is or what He has done. Jesus Christ is the Lord. And the Bible says one day, one day, "every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth; And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father." Until then, understand this, Jesus Christ is the Savior of the world. He is the only Savior of the world. He is the only remedy for all mankind. There is no other hope. There is no other way, therefore, we preach Christ. We preach Christ crucified. We preach Christ crucified, dead, buried and rose again from the dead, and that He is alive and that He's coming back again someday.

Because we believe that, we have eternal life. We have the free gift that will last forever, and because we have eternal life I now have an option as far as my life goes. I can be an obedient child of God, or I can be a disobedient child of God. But I am still a child of God. But because of Who He is and because I know what I am. I need. I need someone to direct my paths. I need someone to lead me. I need someone to guide me. I need someone to protect me. And there's only One Who can do all of that, and that's the Lord.

I want Jesus Christ, Who is my Savior to be my Lord. I want to worship the Lord, because of Who He is. He is God and as you study the book of Revelation, it keeps making this statement: HE IS WORTHY TO RECEIVE PRAISE AND HONOUR AND GLORY AND MAJESTY and all these things that's listed there. Over and over again, He is worthy to be worshipped. He is worthy of our submission. He is worthy of our surrender. It behooves every child of God to submit his will to the will of God. Nobody can make you do that. And if you don't, He is still Lord. And because He's still Lord He's still has the power, the ability, to manipulate anything in this world that He wants to, and to bring whatever catastrophe in this world He wants to against you. And He can chasten you in such a way that you'll never forget it. And He may even take you home before your time. So how can He do all that? Because He is Lord. He is the Lord. And the sooner we recognize it, the better off we'll be.

So we trust Christ as our Savior, that gets us to Heaven. But we're not there yet. All rewards that are earned is only because Christ was not only your Savior, but He was the Lord and the Master of your life.

3.3.17 Easy Believism (2022-03-16 11:43)

Acts 16:30-31, "And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house."

by Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold

I got back. I thought I'd just check some of my emails. I had sent out one letter. [I was] just excited about all those things, that, you know, the things the kids are doing when they go on Friday night soul-winning. And I get excited about, you know, some people giving some money for the college, so the college kids can have their bills paid. Sometimes they wonder how things are going to work out. And it increases their faith. And so, I get excited about that. And the thing about night school, I get excited. I get excited easy, about a lot of things. But no, there's some people who don't get excited about anything.

But anyway, I sent the letter out. But I did get one letter back. And this was a letter that I got back. [I] thought I would just share it with Ya. It says:

"Brother Yankee [Now this is from the pastor of an independent Baptist church]. We love you, but must tell you that the only exciting news from Florida Bible College, would be that you have repented of your apostate church state position; and was teaching the truth at FBC, that Jesus is to be the sole head of our churches, and that you had also repented of your Hyles-style easy-believism that is devoid of true repentance."

Now isn't that wonderful to come home to? And this is from the pastor of an independent [Baptist Church]. All those people that said they trusted Christ as their Savior. And he said: "that easy-believism!" Well what would you rather have . . . hard-believism?

[Do] you know what this is? It's a pen. But that's too easy to believe. Believe hard! When the Bible says: "Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature." Even those that are not educated. Even children. Do you think it was something they should be able to understand? Then, what preacher has the right to make it hard, though when God made it easy? He did the hard part. All we have to do is accept it. They're trying to make more out of the word "believe," than BELIEVE.

Because you see, they've got to get people to change their lifestyle, to stop all their bad habits, and their sins, and so forth. I know where he's coming from. I've preached in a lot of Baptist churches all over America. And there's a lot of them that just don't get it. They believe that you have to turn from your sins and so on, to be saved. This is why they can't just explain the Gospel to somebody and have them trust Christ as Savior, because they've gotta give them (you know) the whole buffet. They gotta let 'em know: "Now this is the desert. And this is the salads. And this is the meat and potatoes. Now, you have to eat all of this, and that's going to take awhile."

When I want somebody to get saved, I just tell them what they need to do to get saved. I'm not trying to give them a theological discussion and all the aspects of all the, you know: Bibliology, Angelology and Soteriology, and Christology and Physiology. I'm just trying to tell 'em how to go to Heaven. Now, there's a lot of things we should know, a lot of things we should do, as a child of God. But to become a child of God, it's just BELIEVE that what He said is the truth. He said something and can I believe that? He that believeth hath everlasting life. Well, when do you have it? Well, when you believe it. Well, how long does it take to believe something? If you tell a story, and when they get through telling the story, that made sense—hearing the Word, they believed. How long does that take? Well that's too easy. Alright, well, who has the authority to make that hard?

So, yes, I have a problem with certain things. I hope while he's preaching today that he'd get the hiccups . . . lol. During his whole sermon . . . lol. Now, I'm saying that out of Christian love, because I would just love to hear that he did it . . . lol.

I got another letter. Do you remember that I mentioned to you just a while ago, that I was going to ride this Zipline. And so we went an hour and a half down into the jungles. I didn't know that it was that far. But anyway, we went. And they cancelled out another part, so, there was only six of us on the whole bus. And there were about seven cruise liners that had docked there, and everybody had cancelled out. Everybody cancelled, except six. And me and Betty and Treena was three of them. There's just something feisty about us. We don't easily give up.

So, down into the jungle we went. And when we got there, they put these harnesses on us, and they take us up to the top of this no man's land. And we had four different zips, or five, something like that. I'm glad that I know where I'm going when I die . . . lol. But we did get some personalized attention, because we were the only six, and they had that many helpers. And so each one of us had our own personal attendant. But anyway, I got a chance to start talking to the guy who was the head of it. His name was Gavin. Gavin. He was from Belize and so we kind of started talking a bit.

So were standing there and getting ready to go. And I says: "Where are you going when you die?" He probably should have been asking me that question . . . lol. I said: "Where are you going to go when you die?" He says: "Well uh, well I uh, uh." I said: "You hesitated, that means you're not sure." And he wasn't sure. And I says: "Well I know I have eternal life. I know that I'm going to Heaven when I die. I'm ready to go!" So they hook me up to the thing. He says: "How do you know?" I says: "I'll tell you after while when we get through." This is going to put the fear of God in you, 'cause he was going to go with me (he hadn't been there in a long time). But anyway, we had a lot of fun. When it was all over with I explained the Gospel to him and he accepted Christ as his Savior.

And we went into the little shed there, and was talking to a couple of the people behind the counter. And he had mentioned somebody's name and I thought that name sounded familiar, that I think I know that guy." And anyway, he had asked the lady behind the counter: "Do you know blah blah blah?" She said: "Yeah, I know him." And so I thought, "There might be a connection here." This is an hour and a half down in the jungle. I mean off the beaten path, way down in there. I says: "Have you ever heard of Greg Stier and Dare 2 Share?" [She says] "Yes, I have!" I says: "Do you know where you're going when you die?" And she was hesitant. And I said: "You hesitate, that means you're not sure." Because usually if they know, they know; when you're not sure you hesitate, trying to figure what's the best way to answer to get out of this.

And so it didn't take long. And the thing that got her is a little statement that I use every once in a while. I said: "Did you know that God loved you so much, that He would rather die than live without you?" Then, I mean, it just did something, that one statement, she just started welling up with water in her eyes. And I says: "He loved you that much, that He was willing to die to pay for your sins, so that you could have eternal life." And I went through and I explained, and I says: "The 'Gospel' is the 'Good News' that He will give you as a free gift, everlasting life, if you should simply BELIEVE that what He did, He it for you." I says: "Can you handle this?" She smiles and she says: "I can handle this." Just like that, "I can handle this." I says: "Will you believe it?" She says: "I believe it." It was so neat. It was just so neat. It's just certain ways and things that you say, you know, that sometimes it catches a person.

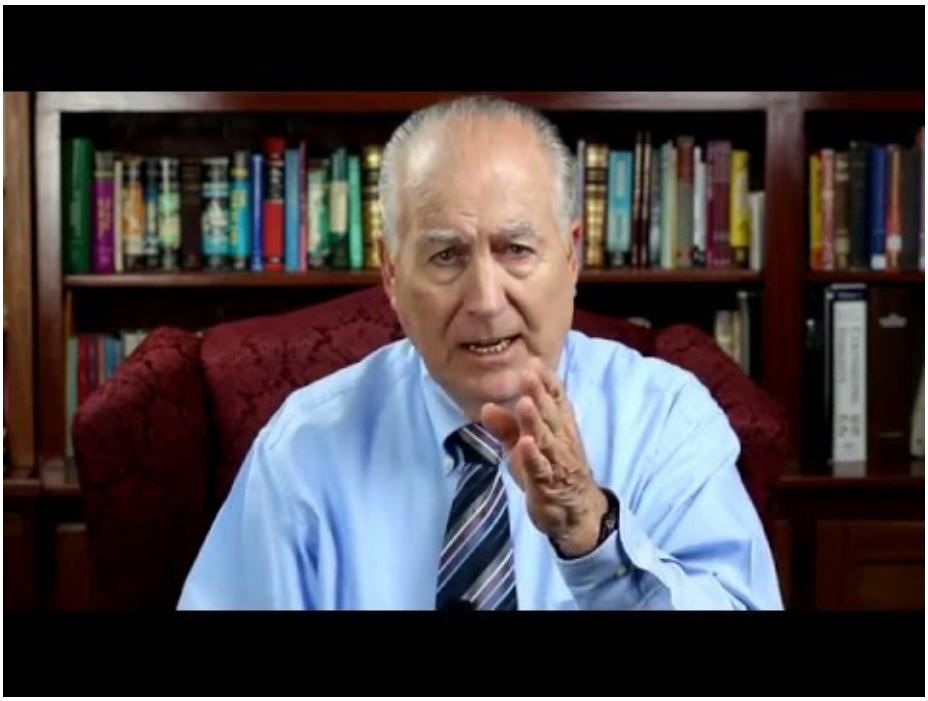
Well, we got back and I saw I had an email from Gavin. He says: "Hi Doc." (He calls me Doc) How are you doing? It was with great pleasure to meet with you and your family, as well [as] the knowledge that you openly shared with myself and the people. Everywhere I go now, that's a question that I ask. Where do you go when you die? And the conversation becomes endless. And he says: "Well Doc, in the next couple days I'll be seeking the law of rules and regulations regarding some conversation we had. He's even talking about maybe wanting to come to college. I don't know. But he says, "Now," he says, "That's all he talks about."

Now, I spent just a few minutes explaining the Gospel to Him. But it's simple enough so that he can share it with somebody else, and somebody else, and somebody else. Now, I believe that there are a lot of preachers who will never have the joy of this, for the simple reason, they gotta make the Gospel so hard and complicated that they won't share it. I can share it with anybody at any given time, and it makes sense, and they trust the Lord. And I've seen their lives change. When they simply believe it. I didn't try to change anybody's life, but I've seen it happen, 'cause I know that the power of the Gospel works on people.

In this verse I wanted to share with you. Look there in verse 4, where it says in 1st Thessalonians chapter 2, in verse 4: "But as we were allowed of God to be put in trust..." with that easy-believism. The Gospel should be presented in such a way that it's easy for people to understand it. If they can understand it, they can believe it and trust Him. But when you make it hard and complicated, that's when you gotta work on 'em. You gotta work on people. You've gotta make sure that they're willing to stop all their bad habits, and cut out all of their sins, and be willing to turn from their sins. They gotta really mean business for God! You see, God said they don't have to do that. That's not required.



I'm talking about just telling a person what's required. And it's Good News to say: "Look, it's free." But if you tell them: "You gotta stop all your bad habits," that's hard! That's hard for people to stop. Can you stop all of your sins? Have you? Now, don't answer . . . lol. I've thought about becoming a Catholic and opening a little booth, so ya'll can confess . . . lol. It would really enhance my sermons . . . preparation. I could use more of you for illustrations . . . lol. But anyway. That the Bible says that, "we were allowed of God to be put in trust with the gospel, even so we speak; not as pleasing men, but God, which trieth our hearts." So God has given to us a message that will work. And work it will!

Now turn in your Bible to Romans to chanter one. I had just one guy that came by, and he was waiting on us. And so, it didn't take long before I asked him if he knew where he was going when he died. He didn't have a clue. So after I talked to him for awhile, he trusted Christ as his Savior. You say: "How do you know he trusted Christ?" 'Cause he said that he did! There's some people that don't ask. They never ask anybody because that would be a work of the flesh. Fiddle-faddle. If I want to know if you've trusted Christ as your Savior, I ask you: "Have you trusted Christ as your Savior?" And you could say: "Yes." Well then, I didn't save you. All I did is ask you a question. You said you were saved. So, if ten people said they trusted Christ as Savior, who am I to question whether they did or they didn't? "Well they may not have meant it." Well then let it be on them, not me, I didn't lie, they did. Are you understanding me?

Watch the rest of the sermon if you'd like...

3.3.18 Though Hand Join In hand, The Wicked Shall Not Be Unpunished (2022-03-17 00:30)

Proverbs 11:21, “

Though hand join in hand, the wicked shall not be unpunished: but the seed of the righteous shall be delivered.

The inspired Word of God teaches in our text passage, that though sinners join hand in hand, they shall not escape punishment. As I pondering the meaning of this Scripture today, it occurred to me what it means. You see, so oftentimes wicked people will join together in solidarity yo strengthen their cause against the righteous.

A perfect example is the homosexual agenda today in America. The LGBTQ movement is growing bigger each year, and gaining more momentum. In a very short time, I’d guess within the next generation of 20 years, we will see pastors being prosecuted in the United States as hate-spreaders for preaching the truth of Leviticus 20:13, that homosexuals are worthy of capital punishment. That doesn’t mean Christians should go around killing gays, God forbid. It simply means that if our government feared God, which they absolutely don’t, homosexuality would be illegal and a punishable crime.

As recently as 2003, homosexuality was a punishable crime in Texas. And in 1962 homosexuality was a punishable crime in all 50 states. Dear reader, God hasn’t changed, humanity has changed over time. We humans cannot make up our minds what is good or evil, and since we disregard the inspired Holy Bible, we never will be able to govern ourselves. Thirty years ago pot was illegal, but now it is legal in many states. Literally, there are people rotting in prison today for selling Marijuana, in states where it is now being legally sold. Go figure! We humans are a strange bunch.

Faithful Bible preachers today, who preach the inspired Word of God as they ought, are being labeled as public enemy number one. It is because the majority of pastors today are cowards, or only in their profession to make a living, that they refuse to fight in the battle for morality in the United States. Consequently, the small number of pastors who do faithfully stand nowadays are greatly outnumbered, making it much easier for the ungodly media to intimidate and silence them. A truly “ society is only one in which it is safe to be unpopular!

Increasingly, Americans by the millions are jumping on the LGBTQ bandwagon, showing full support for this gross wickedness. But what saith the Scripture?

Proverbs 11:21, “

Though hand join in hand, the wicked shall not be unpunished: but the seed of the righteous shall be delivered.

” The Bible assures us that the victory of the wicked will be short lived.

Job 20:5,

That the triumphing of the wicked is short, and the joy of the hypocrite but for a moment?

We all need [1]wisdom from the Old Testament book of Proverbs.

I couldn’t help but think of the pathetic attitudes of the leaders at Campus Church and Pensacola Christian College today. When I first started attending Campus Church in July of 2021, I kindly confided in Jeff Redlin (their senior pastor) that I am a divorced man, he couldn’t have cared less. He expressed no sympathy or empathy for a hurting man. The fact that my former wife divorced me in 2006, 15 years ago, meant nothing to him. You see, at PCC they look down on divorced people who desire to remarry. PCC is a cult in many respects. They abuse hurting people who have broken lives. Sadly, PCC is a mere academic institution, a place intended to provide religious services for students, and nothing else.

So when a real person like me comes along, who is suffering in pain of soul from a broken marriage, Jeff Redlin just threw me under the bus to die. Literally, that wicked pastor scolded me for saying that I hoped to find a wife at Campus Church. Who does that? What kind of pastor berates and belittles someone for being divorced, and lonely, and hoping to remarry after 15 years? Jeff Redlin is a horrible human being, with poor character, and he ought be fired from Campus Church and not allowed to stand behind any pulpit in America. Sadly, PCC pays him over $100,000 a year! You see, Mr. Redlin doesn’t have to care, because he still has 9,999 more people that all support him. So who cares about one lost lamb, right? Thankfully, Jesus cares and Jeff Redlin’s days of arrogance are numbered until God judges him. 1st Thessalonians 4:6, "That no man go beyond and defraud his brother in any matter: because that the Lord is the avenger of all such, as we also have forewarned you and testified." Pastor Redlin horrible defrauded me! He abused my trust, wounded my feelings and drove me out of Campus Church by his hatred, throwing slanderous gossip in my face that he read in the ungodly internet, and his unwillingness to embrace me as a fellow brother.

In front of his wife, Pastor Redlin told me that if I did find a woman to marry, he refused to perform the wedding. What did I do to cause such hatred in this pastor? What pastor, after only knowing a hurting man for 2 weeks, would speak such cruel and hateful words against him? Dear reader, that is Pensacola Christian Collège today, a bunch of self-righteous religious hypocrites. Yes, [2]PCC is a CULT!!! Run from the place. [3]If you don’t believe me, ask Samantha Field. She should sue Pensacola Christian College for emotional neglect, failure to report a crime and other illegal activities that went on on campus!!!

You see, PCC couldn’t care less. They are full of lame excuses to excuse their poor unchristian behavior. Proverbs 11:21, “Though hand join in hand, the wicked shall not be unpunished: but the seed of the righteous shall be delivered.” I came to Campus Church with a kind, loving and open heart. But Pastor Redlin abused me! As a divorced person, Redlin made me to feel like total garbage! You simply don’t tell someone that you’ve only known for 2 weeks that he shouldn’t be looking for a wife at church, and if you do find a woman to marry, I won’t perform the wedding. I am still shocked that a pastor would even stoop so low as to express such contempt, disregard and hatred for hurting man.

Jeremiah 10:21, "For the pastors are become brutish [lacking good sense], and have not sought the LORD: therefore they shall not prosper, and all their flocks shall be scattered."

Woe unto America's uncaring pastors today! The flock doesn't belong to any pastor. The church flock belongs to God alone! Jesus told Peter to feed "MY" sheep. They weren't Peter's sheep. They're not Jeff Redlin's sheep. They're not Sean Quinlan's sheep. When I visited the Lighthouse Baptist Church on Guam, my former wife also attended there. Pastor Sean Quinlan shamefully didn't life a single finger to even try to patch-up our marriage. That wicked pastor never once offered to pray with me. Kindly said, Sean Quinlan is nothing but a salary-sucking parasite on the churches today, just like Jeff Redlin.

These ungodly religious men think they are full of love for inviting people into their home on occasion. But hospitality is not God's love. Love would have been Jeff Redlin comforting me as a divorced person, praying with me, offering me counsel and trying to help me in a spirit of meekness as the Bible says in Galatians 6:1-3. Instead, he sinfully condemned me for being divorced, making me feel like a criminal for even daring to hope to remarry someday. I am not an 18 year old college student at PCC, I am a 55 year old man. Who does Jeff Redlin think he is anyway? I'll tell you, he is an ungodly man who has grown TOO BIG for his own britches! He's now the big man on campus at PCC, and it has gone to his head, making him look down on sinners like me. One day Pastor Redlin is going to realize that he is a dirty sinner too!

When I told Pastor Quinlan that my younger sister died of a drug overdose in Chicago in 2016, he just sat there at Lighthouse Baptist Church like a little boy, saying nothing. When I told him on another occasion that I didn't have anybody else to talk to than him about spiritual matters, he ignored me. This is the lousy quality of Baptist pastors today, totally INCOMPETENT!!! I am so glad that Quinlan quit. Unfortunately, he is now at PCC doing damage there instead. Proverbs 11:21, "Though hand join in hand, the wicked shall not be unpunished: but the seed of the righteous shall be delivered." The reason why these wicked men that I have mentioned are so haughty, defiant and refuse to repent, is simply because they are part of a giant organization that backs them up. They are the wicked joining hand in hand.

That is why Bob Jones University today is so untouchable. [5]Have you seen the Satanic garbage being preached at BJU? Dear friend, I am not barking up an empty tree here. I know what I am talking about. I just took the time yesterday to type out one of Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold's sermons. It took my 5 hours but was worth the time. The sermon is one of my favorites, called: "[6]Lordship Salvation: Caught Between Grace And Works." All of the preachers that I just mentioned are GUILTY of either preaching a false gospel, or of bidding Godspeed to false prophets! RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!!

I don't get paid to do this, that is, to write. I do it because as David said in the Old Testament when he went out to fight the giant Goliath: "IS THERE NOT A CAUSE?" (1st Samuel 17:29b). I love what Dr. Jack Hyles (1926-2001) said:

> "The world will go to Hell unless somebody is authoritative!" —Pastor Jack Hyles, " [7]I Shall Not Be Moved "

Ladies and gentlemen, I care! If that makes me a troublemaker like the prophet Elijah, then so be it. 1st Kings 18:17, "And it came to pass, when Ahab saw Elijah, that Ahab said unto him, Art thou he that troubleth Israel?" I am known at the failing institution of Pensacola Christian College as the troublemaker! Oh, they are growing in numbers and popularity with man, but quickly dwindling in favor with God (Revelation 3:15-17). I am known at the apostate Harvest Baptist Church on Guam as the troublemaker! So be it! If TELLING THE TRUTH that Lordship Salvation is of the Devil, then I'll gladly be the TROUBLEMKER!!! If taking a godly stand against the Devil's corrupt modern Bible revisions makes me the BAD GUY, then I volunteer! If exposing the fraud Martin Luther (1483-1546), who preached the heresy of Baptismal Regeneration (i.e., you must be water baptized to get into heaven) his entire life makes me the bad guy, then praise God that I'm the bad guy! I must preach THE TRUTH.

Proverbs 11:21, "

Though hand join in hand, the wicked shall not be unpunished: but the seed of the righteous shall be delivered.

" The Bob Jones crowd are laughing at my ministry and articles. They mock my blogs. I have literally seen them laugh in my face, and belittle me. One hateful staff member at the shameful Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, told his wife not to even smile at me, which I clearly heard him say TWICE, as they passed by me while we were all walking. Isn't that a crying shame? What was my offense? I loved them enough at Harvest to warn their pastors about the counterfeit Gospel they are preaching, called Lordship Salvation.

I warned them about the deadly false prophet, and BJU alumni, Pastor John MacArthur. Mr. MacArthur says, and I quote: "[8]There is no such thing as a childhood conversion." You see, in John MacArthur's ungodly world, his plan of salvation is so hard and complicated that no child could ever be saved by it. That is a false gospel!!! I just typed out a portion of Pastor Yankee Arnold's sermon called: "Easy Believism." These are great words:

> "Now, I spent just a few minutes explaining the Gospel to Him. But it's simple enough so that he can share it with somebody else, and somebody else, and somebody else. Now, I believe that there are a lot of preachers who will never have the joy of this, for the simple reason, they gotta make the Gospel so hard and complicated that they won't share it. I can share it with anybody at any given time, and it makes sense, and they trust the Lord. And I've seen their lives change. When they simply believe it. I didn't try to change anybody's life, but I've seen it happen, 'cause I know that the power of the Gospel works on people." —Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold, a quote from his beautiful sermon: "[9]Easy Believism"

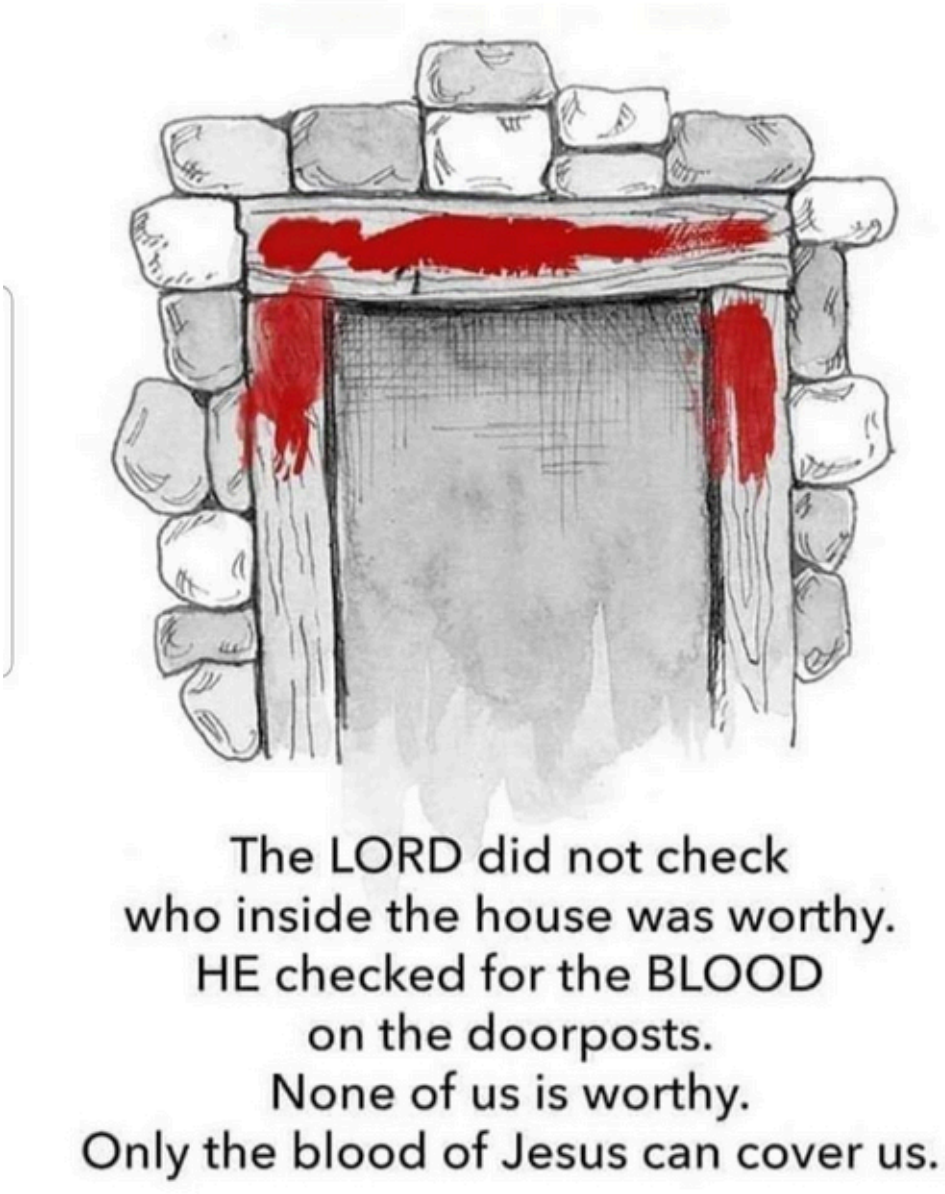
Oh why do men complicate everything? Pastor Jack Hyles said these helpful words:

> "More people will die and burn in Hell, because they're trusting too much!" —Pastor Jack Hyles, "[10]Yea, Yea, And Nay, Nay!"

> "Everything that's hard and complicated about salvation is God's side of it!" —Pastor Jack Hyles, "[11]Yea, Yea, And Nay, Nay!"

The simple, free and easy Bible way to be saved is to just BELIEVE the Good News of Jesus Christ, the only begotten Son of God, Who was crucified, buried and ressurected from the dead three days later. He did that FOR YOU dear friend. Just BELIEVE IT and eternal life is yours!!!

God knows that I don't hate the shameful pastors that I have named. I pray for them to get right with God. I have personally dealt face to face with these wicked men, and they shirked off and rejected the truth, instead berating me for preaching THE TRUTH. The PCC camp are upset with me for exposing them, because they have caught STD's (Spiritually Transmitted Diseases) from the corrupt Bob Jones University crowd. [12]BJU is now the fountainhead of the corrupt Westcott and Hort Greek text. Dear reader, if you don't have a King James Bible, you don't have an inspired Holy Bible!!! ALL of the modern perversions are corrupted by Satan!



Even [13]communist Cuba has enough sense to reject the Devil's fake Bibles!!! So what is wrong with over 95 % of pastors today who foolishly accept and use them? In every church I know of that uses the Devil's Bibles, the place is spiritually corrupt and dead, and the Devil's curse of Lordship Salvation (i.e., Calvinism) is preached. Please pardon my rudeness at times, I don't mean to be, God knows my heart. 2nd Corinthians 11:6, "But though I be rude in speech, yet not in knowledge; but we have been throughly made manifest among you in all things." Somebody's got to "REBUKE THEM SHAPLY, that they might be sound in the faith" the Bible says (Titus 1:13b). Unfortunately, neither the BJU or the PCC camp are listening to a word I preach, because they are full of pride and arrogance and set in their corrupt and horrible ways. Like the Apostle Paul, I am set for the defence of the Gospel, and so also should you be dear saint of God. Philippians 1:17, "But the other of love, knowing that I am set for the defence of the gospel."

They aren't listening because they are strong in numbers, the wicked joining hand in hand. But their day of reckoning will come soon enough, because "God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap" (Galatians 6:b7). What saith the Scripture? Romans 3:4, "God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged. " I am preaching THE TRUTH, while ungodly pastors like Sean Quinlan and Jeff Redlin continue to sinfully and shamefully bid Godspeed to [14]the infidel Bob Jones camp. I speak this all in Christ's love.

1st Corinthians 16:24, "My love be with you all in Christ Jesus. Amen."

3.3.19 How To Know You're Going To Heaven In 30 Seconds (2022-03-19 14:21)

Acts 16:29-32, "

Then he called for a light, and sprang in, and came trembling, and fell down before Paul and Silas,

And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved?

And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house.

And they spake unto him the word of the Lord, and to all that were in his house.

Here is a wonderful excerpt from Michael P. Bowen's helpful book titled: "I NEVER KNEW YOU: The Horror Of The Great White Throne Judgement And How You Can Avoid It"

> Here is the gospel: God says that we are sinners and that no amount of good works or behavioral changes on our part could ever make us holy enough to enter heaven. God sent His Son to pay for all of our sins. Jesus paid for our crimes by dying on the cross for us all. His dead body was buried in a grave. On the third day, Jesus arose from the dead.
> The instant you believe this, He knows it and He saves you. "Verily, verily, I say unto you, he that believeth on Me hath everlasting life"(John 6:47). The free gift is based solely upon your trust in what Jesus did for you and has nothing at all to do with what you do for Him. "For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast" (Ephesians 2:8-9). Michael P. Bowen, "[1]I Never Knew You," p xii

Amen! There you have it friend, how to know that you're going to Heaven in just 30 seconds.

We could stop right there and be done with this blog, but if you'd like to learn more, please give me the opportunity to elaborate a bit more on the subject of salvation. You are a guilty sinner and so am I. There is a penalty for sin, which is both physical death and the second death in Hell. But Jesus is the sinless Savior, the only begotten Son of God—Who died on the cross for our sins. He was buried. Three days later He bodily resurrected from the dead. Simply believe this GOOD NEWS (GOSPEL) dear friend and you are saved! Simply BELIEVE that Jesus did it FOR YOU!!! That's it, that's all, no more.

I was thinking this morning about how simple it is to be saved. I've been typing out Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold's helpful sermon titled: " [2]Why Lordship Salvation Is WRONG ." It is time consuming, to make sure I get it all correct, but it is my privilege to do it for Christ! It took me eight hours just to type out half of the sermon, but I am having a wonderful time, and laying up treasures in Heaven while I'm at it. God willing, I will finish the sermon transcript today.

When I hear Pastor Yankee preach, my heart burns with joy over the simplicity of the Gospel. And I find myself compelled to do more to get people saved. So this is my way of contributing further to help preach the Gospel and get folks saved, and to help encourage other believers to share the Gospel, so that more people can be saved and go to Heaven (Proverbs 11:30).

> Dear friend, you are a sinner. That is the bad news! There is a penalty for sin, which is death—both a physical death (Romans 6:23) and a second death (Revelation 21:8) > forever separated from God in Hell (Revelation 20:15). But the Good News is that Jesus loves you so much that would would rather die than live without you (John 3:16). So He came down from Heaven to earth, as the Christ
>
> the only begotten Son of God > and He died for your sins and mine on the cross of Calvary's hill (Romans 5:6-9). Jesus died, was buried and three days later He physically resurrected from the dead (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). If you'll simply BELIEVE that Jesus did it for you friend, you will be immediately, irrevocably and permanently saved. That's it, that's all, no more! John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.
>

That's it, that's all, no more! We are the SINNER, and Jesus is the SAVIOR! That is so simple.

Acts 16:31b, "

Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved..

" I suppose I could have titled this article, "How To Know That You're Going To Heaven In 2 Seconds

Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ*, and thou shalt be saved..

You do need to know the FACTS of salvation to be saved. You must know that you are a sinner (Romans 3:23). You must know that Jesus is the Christ, the only begotten (biological) Son of God (John 20:31). You must know that Jesus died on the cross to pay for your sins, and that He was buried and three days later resurrected from the dead. This is THE GOSPEL by which we are saved who believe it (1st Corinthians 15:1-4; Romans 1:16). These are the FACTS which a person must acknowledge and believe (put your trust in personally) to get to Heaven. Simply believe that Jesus did it for you!!!

Even a small child can understand that Jesus died on the cross, to pay for the things which we have done that are wrong. Even a small child can understand that Jesus didn’t stay dead, but He came back to life and went back up to Heaven and is alive today. Any child can understand that they have done bad things, for which they deserve to be punished. But if we will simply trust Jesus, accepting His sacrifice on the cross as payment for our sins, then we won’t appear as guilty sinners anymore in God’s sight. Instead, God will only see Jesus’ blood that He shed to wash away our sins. The concept is so simple.

I fully agree with Pastor Yankee that the reason why most Christians today aren’t telling other people how to get to Heaven, is simply because preachers today have made the Gospel so difficult and hard and complicated, that people just don’t know what to say to lead others to Christ. But dear reader, it is so simple to be saved!!! God had to make it simple, otherwise dumb people and those who are mentally challenged, couldn’t be saved. I say that kindly but truthfully.

Pastor John MacArthur’s Hard And Complicated Gospel

As hard as it is to grasp, Pastor John MacArthur’s Calvinist plan of salvation is so difficult and hard and complicated and corrupt, that he publicly said (and I quote): “There is no such thing as a childhood conversion.” Of course not, because John MacArthur’s false gospel is so complicated that a child couldn’t possibly understand it. That is NOT the simplicity that is in Christ, which is THE GOSPEL:

> But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ. For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him.”

Sadly, John MacArthur preaches another gospel—a complicated and very difficult gospel to follow, which is comprised of partial faith in Christ plus human works. In MacArthur's hard plan of salvation, you are required to "turn away from your sin" to be saved. The Bible does not teach that requirement, which would be KEEPING THE LAW for salvation.

False Prophet: Pastor John F. MacArthur

On September 25, 1990 at the Calvary Baptist Church in Brewer, Maine (Pastor Larry Pawson), Dr. MacArthur was involved in a question and answer session which was publicly taped. During that session he said the following about child salvation:

> "Now let me say this and I don't want you to panic when I say it. Saving faith is an ADULT ISSUE. Saving faith is an ADULT EXPERIENCE. Salvation is an ADULT EXPERIENCE. Am I saying that a child cannot be saved? I'm saying that salvation is a conscious turning from sin to follow Jesus Christ with an understanding of something of the sinfulness of sin, its consequences and something of who Jesus Christ is, what He has provided and that I'm committing my life to Him. At what point can a child understand that?... I tell parents that salvation is an adult decision... There is no illustration in Scripture of childhood salvation. There is none. People want to throw the Philippian jailer and his household; well that's talking about his servants so there is no reference there about his children. So there is no such thing as a childhood conversion." [4]READ MORE

MacArthur is saying that if a child is to be saved he must understand as an adult, make an adult decision and have an adult experience. The Lord Jesus taught that to be saved adults must become as little children (Matthew 18:3); MacArthur teaches that to be saved children must become as adults.

I dearly love this man, and godly men like him; such as: Pastors' Curtis Hutson, Max Younce, Harry Ironside and others who preach a simple free grace Gospel. So many preachers today are preaching a difficult and complicated gospel message, which is NOT the truth. A counterfeit gospel message cannot produce the new birth. Jesus warned in John 3:3b, "Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God." Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born-again.

There are three FACTS that you must know and BELIEVE (trust, rely upon) to be saved:

- WHO Jesus is - He is the Christ, the only begotten Son of God (John 20:31)
- WHAT He did - Jesus DIED, was BURIED and three days later RESURRECTED from the dead for the justification of our faith in Him (1st Corinthians 15:1-4)
- WHY He did it - Because we are guilty sinners, and the wages of sin is death (Romans 6:23)

If you accept these FACTS as the truth—choosing to TRUST IN THE GOOD NEWS of the Lord Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen the third day—then you are indeed saved certain. Nothing more is required. If saved, always saved!!! 1st Thessalonians 4:14, "For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him. " I love that Bible verse!

Dear reader, if I haven't made it simple enough how to be saved, let me be as plain as possible—you must simply BELIEVE that Jesus did it for you!

> "I saw, moreover, that it was not my good frame of heart that made my righteousness better, nor my bad frame that made my righteousness worse; for my righteousness was Jesus Christ himself, the same yesterday and today and forever." —Evangelist John Bunyan (1628-1688)

You see friend, it is as simple as this—you and I are guilty sinners! We have all done some pretty bad things in our life. I know I sure have, things that I am not proud of and I wish I could erase from my past, but I cannot; and so have you, if you'll be honest with yourself. Did you know that [5]Christ died for our self-righteousness too? (MP3 sermon by Pastor Jack Hyles)

The Bible teaches that nothing defiled can enter into Heaven (1st Corinthians 6:9-11; Revelation 21:27). If you've ever commit even one sin, you cannot enter into Heaven! You don't have to be good to get into Heaven, you must be totally perfect! No one is perfect except the sinless Lamb of God, Jesus Christ. That is why we need HIS RIGHTEOUSNESS (Matthew 6:33). We need [6]God imputed righteousness credited to our record in Heaven (Romans 4:4-7). Amen! Jesus takes our sins upon Himself and He puts His righteousness upon us, at the moment of faith. This is the gift of God (Romans 6:23).

God loves you dear friend. He was willing to die for you! Romans 5:6-9 says some people would die for a godly man, some might even sacrifice their life for a good man, but who would die for a guilty criminal? Jesus, that's Who! CHRIST DIED FOR SINNERS!!! Christ died for you and for me, paying a debt that He did not owe, because we owed a debt of sin that we could not pay.

The payment has already been made by Christ through the cross of Calvary's hill. The shed blood of the Lamb of God has been sprinkled upon the heavenly Mercy Seat, on our behalf in the presence of God the Father (Hebrews 9:12, 22-24; 12:24). Therefore, you don't even have to "ask" Jesus to save you, because the payment has already been made for your sins. You must take it by faith! JUST BELIEVE!!! Forgiveness of sins and eternal life are a free gift from God, paid for by Jesus Christ, which you simply need to accept by faith. So you don't need to ASK God to save you, just BELIEVE that Jesus did it for you!!!

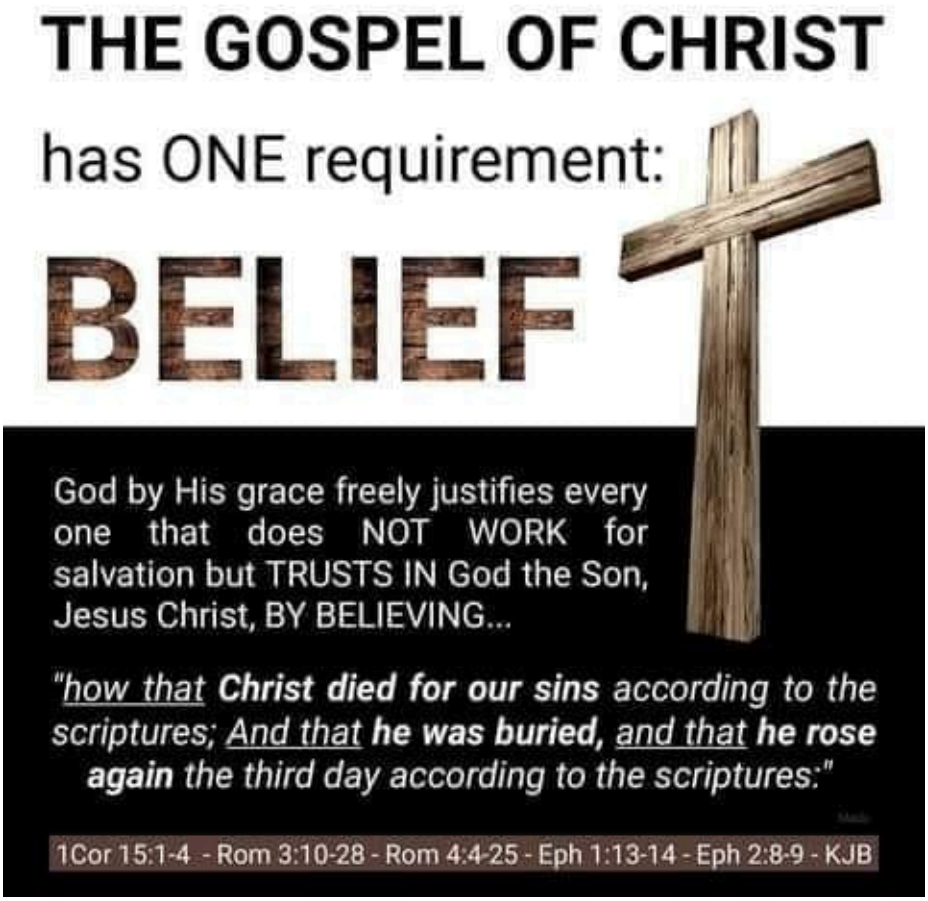
If you have never done so, simply take God's free gift of eternal life by faith dear friend, by taking God at His Word in the Holy Scripture. Just accept what God has already recorded in His Word concerning Christ—how that He died on the cross according to the Scriptures for our sins, and that He was buried, and according to the Scriptures He raised up from the dead physically on the third day. These THREE facts (Christ's death on the cross, burial and bodily resurrection) are Biblically called: " THE GOSPEL

" (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). This is the GOOD NEWS! Simply BELIEVE THE GOOD NEWS dear reader, and you will be instantly and forever saved!!! The chose is yours alone to make. Please don't delay, because today could be the last day of your life here on earth (Proverbs 27:1). Jesus is precious!!!

Acts 16:29-32, "



Then he called for a light, and sprang in, and came trembling, and fell down before Paul and Silas,

And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved?

And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house.

And they spake unto him the word of the Lord, and to all that were in his house.

1st Corinthians 11:18-19, "

For first of all, when ye come together in the church, I hear that there be divisions among you; and I partly believe it. For there must be also heresies among you, that they which are approved may be made manifest among you."

I was listening to a heartfelt sermon this evening by Pastor Al Lacy (1933-2016). It is called: "[1]No Unbelievers In Hell." I love Dr. Al Lacy, but he says some heretical things in this sermon that don't set right with me. Please understand that I am not writing this blog to put down one of my heroes of the faith, God forbid. I love and cherish the man and ministry of Pastor Al Lacy. But as our text verse says in 1st Corinthians 11:19b,

For there must be also heresies among you, that they which are approved may be made manifest among you.” Every preacher, without exception, says silly things sometimes! I have done it too. This is because no man has all the answers. No man has it all figured out. Some men may think they have everything figured out, but they absolutely do not! No one understands all of the Word of God. That is because we all have different levels of experience, intelligence and education. Discovering THE TRUTH is a lifelong journey, upon which all men are traveling.

Pastor Al Lacy teaches a blatant false doctrine in this sermon. He tells people to repent of their sin to be saved. You won’t find any such commandment anywhere in the Word of God. Pastor Al Lacy falsely says, and I quote him verbatim: “

[2]The Bible says, you’ve got to repent of your sin to be saved.

” No Sir! I dare you to show me that in the inspired King James Bible? Where does the Bible say to repent

“OF YOUR SINS” to be saved. Yes, the Bible does say to “repent,” but it doesn’t add the words “of your sins.” Religious men added that! No doubt Dr. Al Lacy heard other preachers make that false statement, and so he also adopted it. I’ll tell you, if you are a preacher, you need to declare war on the things other preachers say! I decided a few years ago to start being 100 % objective, filtering everything I see and hear with the inspired Word of God. And that is Biblical. 1st John 4:1, “

Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world. ” We must try (test) everything we hear and read with the Bible.

About one-third way into the sermon, Dr. Lacy presents the same exact challenge to a man that I am presenting to you now friend: “Where does the Bible say that?” Or, as I often like to word it: "What saith the Scripture?” Dr. Lacy tells the story about a man—a man who had sincerely told Dr. Lacy that murderers go to Hell. Pastor Lacy challenged the man to show him from the Word of God, where it says that murderers go to Hell? Pastor Lacy kindly said to the man: “Show me where the Bible says that murderers go to Hell?”

Now, I commend Pastor Al Lacy for using the inspired Word of God as our final and only authority! But then why didn’t Dr. Lacy apply the SAME standard to the idea that we must “repent of your sin to be saved”? Because if you do apply such objective thinking, it will FAIL THE TEST. If you look in the Bible to find where it says to:

“repent of your sin to be saved,” YOU CANNOT FIND IT!!! Only if you have one of the Devil’s Bible—the modern corrupt perversions of the Word of God—can you find any garbage therein about forsaking sin to receive God’s free gift of eternal life. You won’t find any such nonsense in the inspired King James Bible!!!

Like I said, I love and admire Pastor Al lacy. When I gratefully attended Hyles-Anderson College (1985-1993), in the summer of 1992 I thankfully attended[3] a week-long King James Bible Seminar taught by Dr. Al Lacy. Brother Hyles asked him to teach it, and I am SO GLAD that he did. I met Pastor Gayle Russ and his son there from Evansville, Indiana. What a treat! I love those guys and their wonderful Faith Music Missions ministry. I sat on the edge of my seat and wrote down every word which Pastor Lacy spoke! So he is one of my heroes of the Christian faith.

Albeit, my first love and loyalty is toward my blessed God and Savior, Jesus Christ. If a man is wrong he is wrong, period. I won't cover or look the other way for my friends and favorite preachers! Pastor Lacy is preaching Satanic heresy, just as Jesus called the Apostle Peter " when he tried to stop Him from going to the cross. So you see, even a child of God can be deceived at times by the Devil. In fact, you don't need to repent of your sin to get to Heaven.

Satan,

Now, in fairness to Pastor Lacy, he does elaborate and explain exactly what he means by the phrase:

"[4]repent of your sin to be saved." In the preceding MP3 excerpt from his sermon, "No Unbelievers In Hell," Dr. Lacy makes it abundantly clear that he is not speaking about giving up your sinful behavior; but rather, he simply means that you must turn away from your false religion, self-righteous works and that which has been hindering you from BELIEVING to be saved. I fully agree with Pastor Lacy, because what he just said about repentance is 100 % Biblical.

Hebrews 6:1, "Therefore leaving the principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on unto perfection; not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith toward God, " Here we see THE TRUTH. Repentance is NOT from sin; but rather, from dead works (which includes all your righteousness and good works too). Christ didn't just die for your sins, He died for your righteousness too, because even our righteousnesses are filthy rags to God. Isaiah 64:6, "But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags; and we all do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away.

" Here is a beautiful quote by John Bunyan:

> "I saw, moreover, that it was not my good frame of heart that made my righteousness better, nor my bad frame that made my righteousness worse; for my righteousness was Jesus Christ himself, the same yesterday and today and forever." —Evangelist John Bunyan (1628-1688)

So Pastor Lacy gets it half right! Bible repentance simply means: "a change of mind," period. But Dr. Lacy says repentance means: " a change of mind which results in a change of direction." I don't like when preachers embellish the meaning of the word

"repentance." If God didn't add those extra words, what gives any preacher the right to? Dr. Lacy is wrong to ASS-U-ME that repentance means to turn 180 degrees away from sin and move toward the Savior. Why sin? Why not unbelief? You see, by saying that repentance is "from sin," it opens a whole can of worms theologically. Because then people start insinuating that your life must change. They ASS-U-ME that since you have repented "OF YOUR SIN," you cannot continue living in them as you did before. Dear reader, none of this is true!

Bible repentance is only from UNBELIEF, not from sins. Preachers get so messed up on this matter that they need to go seek psychiatric help. I'm not kidding. We've got a bunch of depressed, confused and miserable people in our churches today, because they've been LIED

TO by preachers! They've been lied to about repentance, told that they must repent and turn away from their sinning to Get to Heaven. The Bible disagrees 100 % with them!

Here is a wonderful excerpt from Michael P. Bowen's helpful book titled: "I NEVER KNEW YOU: The Horror Of The Great White Throne Judgement And How You Can Avoid It":

> Here is the gospel: God says that we are sinners and that no amount of good works or behavioral changes on our part could ever make us holy enough to enter heaven. God sent His Son to pay for all of our sins. Jesus paid for our crimes by dying on the cross for us all. His dead body was buried in a grave. On the third day, Jesus arose from the dead. The instant you believe this, He knows it and He saves you. "Verily, verily, I say unto you, he that believeth on Me hath everlasting life"(John 6:47). The free gift is based solely upon your trust in what Jesus did for you and has nothing at all to do with what you do for Him. "For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast" (Ephesians 2:8-9). Michael P. Bowen, "[5]I Never Knew You," p. xii

There you have it friend, how to know that you're going to Heaven in just 30 seconds! I love Dr. Lacy, but the plan of salvation that he gave in his sermon: "No Unbelievers In Hell" is utterly complicated. In the sermon he tells everyone to invite Jesus into their heart. That doesn't even make sense! The human heart is a muscle about twice the size of your fist that pumps blood. So how do you invite Jesus into your heart muscle? It confuses people when preachers stray away from the Gospel as taught in the Bible. Why not simply teach men to BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST??? I mean, that is what Acts 16:30-31 teaches.

I am 100 % convinced that Dr. Al Lacy is saved and up in Heaven today. I believe this simply because he very directly [6]explains in the preceding sermon exactly what he thinks it means to repent of sin. Brother Lacy doesn't believe that you must clean up your life of sin to be saved. He doesn't believe that you must make Jesus the absolute Lord and the Master of your life to get into God's Kingdom. But Pastor Lacy is preaching THE SATANIC LIE that to be saved you must "repent of your sin," because no such command is found in the Word of God!!! Even though he explains what he means, he is still in error to say to repent "of your sin." The very statement confuses people!!!

Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) said it well:

> "But we've so muddied the Gospel, that when men want to make a decision to trust Christ, we've made it so complicated that they can't make a simple decision to 'Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved.' We'll say, 'If you don't do this' or 'You don't do that' or 'You haven't done that,' you're not saved'; but the truth of the matter is that when asked in the Bible, 'Sirs, what must I do to be saved?,' one clear simple answer was given to him — 'Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved."' — Pastor Curtis Hutson, "Things That Are Different Are Not The Same" (preached at Southwide Baptist Fellowship on October 3, 1994)

So why does Dr. Lacy say in the sermon, that you need to ask Jesus into your heart to be saved? A lot of Christians have ignorantly adopted this popular cliché (one of many that people foolishly use). It is not Biblical. As I said earlier, the human heart is a muscle about twice the size of our fist that pumps blood. How does a child understand the meaning of asking Christ to come into one's heart? It makes no sense. The bottom line is that this is simply NOT what the Bible teaches! Why stray away from the Word of God?

I understand that Revelation 3:20 says, **“

Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me.

” But there’s nothing said about the heart! The $64,000 question is this: Why present the Gospel is SOME OTHER WAY than the Bible does? Jesus warned us in John 10:1, “Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber. ”

In the Gospel of John we are simply told to BELIEVE ON HIM. John 6:40,

“ And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.” And in Acts 16:30-31 we read, “And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house.” So why do preachers use terminology that is foreign to the Scripture? Why tell people to invite Jesus into their heart and life? Why tell people to have a relationship with Christ? Why not simply tell people to BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST???

Here are some helpful quotes:

> “Those who go to Heaven ride on a pass and enter into blessings that they never earned, but all who go to Hell pay their own way.” —Dr. John R. Rice
> “There is power in this Gospel message. Most people just don’t know how to present it… The clarity of the Gospel is what makes it easy for them to believe.” —Pastor Yankee Arnold, a quote from the excellent MP3 sermon titled, “WHY GRACE CAN SAVE THE WORST MAN!”

Salvation is not a reward for the righteous; it is a gift for the guilty!

Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ’s best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

Turning away from sinful ways would be a work. Faith puts all of the merit where it belongs, on the object of our faith, Jesus and His work.

If to “repent” means to forsake our sinful ways TO BE SAVED, but Jesus already paid for our sins by dying on the cross, then what are we repenting from?

The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU.

We must stay true to the simplicity of the gospel!! Repentance regarding salvation is a change of mind from unbelief to belief!!! We must earnestly contend for the faith (Jude 1:3).

In closing, I am not against Pastor Al Lacy. I love him and intend to continue promoting his sermons, because his preaching is life-changing. Pastor Lacy was one of very few godly men who sided with the King James Bible only movement. Dr. Peter S. Ruckman (1921-2016) was another godly preacher who stood for the King James Bible, when being King James Bible only wasn’t cool. So I am a big fan of Pastor Al Lacy. But he is WRONG to tell people to: “Ask

Jesus to come into your heart, and to tell people to:

Repent of your sin to be saved.

Those are heresies!

Consider that not once in the Gospel of John is the word “REPENT” mentioned. Not once! But we do find the word “BELIEVE” mentioned 88 times!!! Clearly the man who believes has also repented. It is automatic. The man who changes his mind has believed; and the man who believes has changed his mind.

Please read what Evangelist John R. Rice (1895-1980) believed and taught, with which I agree. I just don’t like the words “turn from sin,” but like Dr. Lacy, he gets it theologically correct (his terminology is wrong)

> There are those hyper-dispensationalists who think that John the Baptist preached a different Gospel from Christ when he commanded repentance (Matt. 3:2). But it is the same repentance Jesus commanded in Matthew 4:17, in Luke 13:3 and 5, and the same repentance that Paul preached in Athens that God “now commandeth all men every where to repent” (Acts 17:30 31). Repentance is not a different plan of salvation from having faith: it is part of the same plan of salvation*. Or rather repentance is simply another way of describing or looking at the plan of salvation. One who turns from sin to God has done so by trusting in Jesus Christ*. A change of mind toward sin is necessarily involved in saving faith.
> Everyone who genuinely repented under the preaching of John the Baptist put his trust in the Saviour John the Baptist preached, and was regenerated. There is no such thing as being “a disciple of John the Baptist” in any honest sense without being a disciple of Jesus, that is, without trusting Christ for salvation. [emphasis added]

Now, I agree with the theological statements of both Dr. Al lacy and Dr. John R. Rice; BUT, both of these men foolishly use the unbiblical phrase “turn from sin,” where the Holy Bible DOES NOT!!! So why use it? Why tell people to “repent of your sin” when no such commandment or wording is found in the Scripture? Doesn’t that make sense? Sure it does. I NEVER tell lost people to “repent of your sin” to be saved. And if you do, you are preaching another gospel (unless you explain exactly what you mean, as did Pastor Al Lacy and Dr. John R. Rice).

God knows that I didn't write and publish this blog to criticize my friend, Al Lacy. Rather, I am simply trying to help others, you dear reader, to keep the Gospel simple the way God intended for it to be.

Here again is a helpful excerpt from Michael P. Bowen's helpful book titled: "I NEVER KNEW YOU: The Horror Of The Great White Throne Judgement And How You Can Avoid It." This is the simple way that we should all be presenting the Gospel:

> Here is the gospel: God says that we are sinners and that no amount of good works or behavioral changes on our part could ever make us holy enough to enter heaven. God sent His Son to pay for all of our sins. Jesus paid for our crimes by dying on the cross for us all. His dead body was buried in a grave. On the third day, Jesus arose from the dead. The instant you believe this, He knows it and He saves you. "Verily, verily, I say unto you, he that believeth on Me hath everlasting life"(John 6:47). The free gift is based solely upon your trust in what Jesus did for you and has nothing at all to do with what you do for Him. "For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast" (Ephesians 2:8-9). Michael P. Bowen, "[11]I Never Knew You," p. xii

Now how does that compare to Pastor Al Lacy's THREE POINTS (in the preceding sermon I shared with you)? Dr. Lacy starts out by telling the audience that they must admit to being a guilty sinner. But then he adds another point to repent. Friend, repentance is not a separate step from admitting that you're a sinner. Nor is repentance a separate step from BELIEVING. There are no "steps" to being saved, you simply BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST (Acts 16:30-31), and in that moment you have fulfilled everything required by God to receive eternal life. It's that simple.

who inside the house was worthy.
HE checked for the BLOOD on the doorposts.
None of us is worthy.
Only the blood of Jesus can cover us.

3.3.21 When You Feel Like Everything In Your Life Is Wrong (2022-03-22 00:30)

Job 1:12-22,

And the LORD said unto Satan, Behold, all that he hath is in thy power; only upon himself put not forth thine hand. So Satan went forth from the presence of the LORD.

And there was a day when his sons and his daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother’s house:

And there came a messenger unto Job, and said, The oxen were plowing, and the asses feeding beside them:

And the Sabeans fell upon them, and took them away; yea, they have slain the servants with the edge of the sword; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

While he was yet speaking, there came also another*, and said, The fire of God is fallen from heaven, and hath burned up the sheep, and the servants, and consumed them; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

While he was yet speaking, there came also another*, and said, The Chaldeans made out three bands, and fell upon the camels, and have carried them away, yea, and slain the servants with the edge of the sword; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

While he was yet speaking, there came also another*, and said, Thy sons and thy daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother’s house:

And, behold, there came a great wind from the wilderness, and smote the four corners of the house, and it fell upon the young men, and they are dead; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

Then Job arose, and rent his mantle, and shaved his head, and fell down upon the ground, and worshipped,

And said, Naked came I out of my mother’s womb, and naked shall I return thither: the LORD gave, and the LORD hath taken away; blessed be the name of the LORD.

In all this Job sinned not, nor charged God foolishly.

I want you to notice the oft repeated phrase, **“

While he was yet speaking, there came also another.

” While one of Job’s servants was telling him the BAD NEWS

, while they were yet speaking another servant came with more BAD NEWS! And then as unbelievable as it may seem, even another servant came to Job bearing VERY BAD NEWS! The last servant told Job the horrifying BAD NEWS that his 10 children were all dead, killed by a sudden tornado which made the house fall upon them! Poor Job! Can you imagine? I think not. Unless we’ve been in someone’s shoes, we truly CANNOT fully understand what they are suffering through.

Many years ago, while I was still married, I remember talking with a divorced man from Minnesota on the phone. He told me that he was divorced. His wife left him and filed for divorce. It was a done deal, sadly. I was in my 20's then, and thought I understood what he was going through. But it wasn't until 2006 when my own beloved wife divorced me against my will, that I truly understood the absolute inexplicable feeling of betrayal, and the staggering financial loss, and how close I came to taking my own life in despair and loneliness. My legal bills skyrocketed to $64,000, money gone forever. We lost our home. I lost most of my personal possessions. I was surviving out of a suitcase in a cheap hotel, turning food on the stove in my frying pan with needle-nosed pliers. I lost my pets, everything.

I was absolutely devastated

. Friend, the difference between knowing someone close to you who is going through a divorce, and going through a divorce YOURSELF; it is the same difference as having a close friend get hit by a truck, versus YOURSELF getting hit by a speeding Mack truck!!!

But there are times now, 16 years later, when I still feel like everything is wrong, but I can't think of anything that is so wrong that I should feel that way. I mean, good night, my name is written in Heaven (Luke 10:20). I am a redeemed child of the King! I have been set on high as God's child with princes and kings (Revelation 5:10). Why should I feel down and discouraged and defeated? Yet, I often feel so weak, so vulnerable and so helpless to do anything. I am just a voice! Yet, God can use my voice to help others. And when I say

"a voice," I also include my fingers and keyboard by which I have been diligently typing day and night for the past 20 years, so that God can use my voice online to preach the Gospel truth to the lost.

I once read something that Pastor Charles Spurgeon said that made an impression on me. Spurgeon said that he too at times felt nervous, unable to account for any reason why. But then he remembered a passage of the Bible from Hebrews 12:28-29, "

Wherefore we receiving a kingdom which cannot be moved, let us have grace, whereby we may serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear:

For our God is a consuming fire.

Spurgeon read that sentence:

"Our God is a consuming fire," and then realized that he had been praying and draw close to God. James 4:8 promises that if we draw near unto God, He WILL also draw near (nigh) unto us. Could it be the very consuming fire of God's presence that makes us nervous as believers when we draw near unto Him? Yes, I do believe so, with all my heart.

Dear reader, when you feel like everything is wrong in life, humble yourself before your Creator. Seek His face! Wise men still seek Him!!! 2nd Chronicles 7:14, "

If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face , and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.

” Seeking God’s face in the Old Testament simply meant seeking God’s approval. When a parent was proud of their child, they turned their face toward the child, to show that they are proud of them! But when their was shame, a parent looked away. Likewise, God turns His face away from the wicked, and rebellious children. If you want God’s face toward you dear friend, then you need to obey Him. I am not speaking about salvation here, I am speaking to believers about obeying your heavenly Father.

God doesn’t expect you to be perfect, He just wants you to GROW! That is all God expects. Are you growing in grace dear friend? As Christians we don’t grow in strength, we grow in God’s grace. Christ is our strength!

Philippians 4:13, “ I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me.” When you feel weak, just rest in your blessed Savior. Rest in the written promises of God in the Scriptures. Remember, Jesus and the Bible are twins! Jesus is the Living Word (John 1:1-3, 14; Revelation 19:13); but the Bible is the Written Word (Matthew 4:4; Hebrews 4:12). This is why Jesus could say in John 5:39, “Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me.” The Word existed before the world was created, and is God, and became incarnate (in the flesh) as a man, the only begotten Son of God, Jesus Christ (John 1:1-3, 14).

When you feel like all hope is gone, and the walls are closing in around you, at first JUST EXIST. Don’t do anything. Don’t make any decisions. Go watch a movie and chill. Don’t make any decisions when you’re decision-maker is broken! Seek the Lord in all your ways. Simply humble yourself at Jesus’ feet and seek His guidance, comfort and love. Hang in there! I have been at the bottom of life more times than I can remember!!! There were times when I had no strength at all emotionally. I didn’t want to be around people. I needed to be alone.

Since 2004 I have suffered from horrible chronic neck pain. I have burning throughout my entire nervous system. The whole right side of my body feels half asleep ALL the time! It feels like dead weight after sitting for a few moments, and then I get up. Both of my arms feel inflated with air. This is a result of my second neck surgery in 2010, which made me 100 % worse! That surgeon never should have cut into me, but in hindsight, he just wanted the money. I have been victimized by people in the medical industry umpteen times. I have met some monsters in the medical profession, who had zero love or compassion. In 2010, I wanted to jump out a window and die! Nobody cares. Nobody took my suffering seriously. They were selfish and just wanted their paychecks! But God was always with me, every step of the way (Hebrews 13:5). Oh, how I cried a river of tears!

When you feel like everything in your life is wrong, first realize that it is just that... FEELINGS. More times than not, my feelings deceive me! Usually the next day, I’ll realize that the horrible emotions that I felt the preceding day were just that... EMOTIONS. There was never anything to fret or worry about, but I let life get me down anyway, and it felt so real at the moment. Our human feelings can really take us on a rollercoaster ride!!! Kindly, you know what I say is very true. And if you take prescription medications like I do, they also affect your emotions. My pain medications tend to make me feel like crying. Drugs can have a major effect on your body.

I’ve been doing a test recently on my body by eating different foods, to see how I feel. I have proven to myself that when I eat beans, oatmeal, cottage cheese, nuts and seeds, vegetables and other healthy foods, I feel better overall. Certain foods have anti-inflammatory healing properties. Onions, olive oil, nuts, cherries, fish (omega 3 fatty acids), fruits and certain other foods, help reduce inflammation that causes arthritis pain. My neck pain is always there, but it seems that when I eat healthy the bad isn't as bad. Then again, on some days nothing helps, and the pain is intolerable. It doesn't help that my doctor in Florida refuses to prescribe the 80 mg a day that I need of Oxycontin. She has me on 40 mg. per day, citing clinic policy as the reason why she cannot go higher. The United States is not so great for pain sufferers!

Dear reader, I just wanted to share how I deal with grief. Like most people, I tend to engage in comfort eating, and I gain weight. Yes, I struggle with that too! What really helps me to relax when I'm feeling down is to write. I love to type blog and website articles. That is because I am intrigued with the thought that God is using me as a redeemed sinner to help other people. That is why I went to Hyles-Anderson College for 8 years (1985-1993), because I wanted to spend my life living to help others for Christ. ...

Lord, let me live from day to day

In such a self-forgetful way

That even when I kneel to pray,

My prayer shall be for others.

Others, Lord, yes, others;

Let this my motto be.

Help me to live for others

That I may live like Thee.

I am so glad that God is still using me. I am very thankful to God for giving me this website ministry. God put the idea and the desire into my heart, in 2002, to start this website ministry. Although Google has taken away 90 % of my web traffic by censoring my ministry, God is still blessing my work. I have been attacked by many enemies over the years, men lacking faith and others who had a perverse faith in a skewed gospel.

Job is our example to follow, which is why God shared Job's life with us in His inspired Word. After losing everything (his wealth, his health, his children, and his wife's encouragement), Job refused to curse God. Perhaps you have cursed God at the darkest times of your life. Don't forget the story Jesus told about the two sons. Their father had sent both sons to go work in his field. The one son was angry and refused to go. The other son said he would gladly go. But the first son who was angry and bitter repented (changed his mind), and he went to work in his father's field. But the other son who said he would gladly go, also repented (changed his mind) and decided not to go work in his father's field after all. Jesus asked His disciples which son pleased the father? The correct answer is the son with the bad attitude, who got angry, but then afterward repented and went to go work in the field.

In other words, God is ultimately please with His children who obey Him. Okay, so you blew it and cursed God when things were bad. Okay, so you cursed God and quit church for several years, for whatever reason. But now you can repent (change your mind) and get back to serving God, and your heavenly Father will be well pleased with you. It is never too late to serve God, just so long as you are still alive here on earth. I am serving God right now by typing these blog articles, laying up treasures in Heaven (Matthew 6:19-20).

When Isaac in the book of Genesis felt the hairy arm of Esau, he was deceived. Had he gone by the voice of Jacob that he heard, he wouldn't have been deceived. I learned that truth from Dr. John R. Rice. You remember the story, don't you? Isaac was Abraham's son promised from the Lord. Isaac and Rebecca were married. They had two sons: Esau and Jacob. Esau was a hunter, a hairy man. Jacob was a mama's boy, who hung out in the kitchen.

God had said at their time of birth that the elder would serve the younger.

Esau was born first, among twins. Isaac was stubborn and wanted to give the birthright to Esau, his favorite son. But Rebekah favored Jacob, and knew of God's promise that the elder would serve the younger. So she sinfully took matters into her own hands.

Dear friend, anytime that we take matters into our own hands, instead of trusting and waiting upon the Lord, we will make a mess of things.

That is what is sinfully going on in The Middle East today. God has promised to restore true Israel, but only when Jesus Christ returns (Hosea 3:4-5). But wicked people have taken matters into their own hands, as did Rebekah and Jacob, reforming the secular state of Israel in May of 1948. Almost immediately, there were demands for the Christian world to honor and financially support the restoration of Jews to their Homeland. This is called Zionism . But friend, impatient men are doing this, not God! Present-day Israel is NOT the fulfillment of Bible prophecy, it is a counterfeit. Satan is an imitator, a counterfeiter. Satan will imitate 3 things:

1. Israel - Satan's counterfeit is the present-day rebirth of Israel since 1948
2. Messiah - Satan's counterfeit will be the coming Antichrist, the False Messiah
3. Kingdom of God - Satan's counterfeit will be the New World Order

Please don't be deceived.

I have learned the hard way in life not to go by how I feel, or what seems to be the case; but rather, go by the VOICE of the inspired Word of God. Go by THE FACTS. Everybody has a right to their own OPINION, but no one has a right to their own FACTS!

I love the Old testament book of Esther. "

God

is not mentioned even once in all 10 chapters. Yet, throughout the entire true story we see the hand of God at work. The truth to be learned is this: WHEN YOU CANNOT SEE THE HAND OF GOD, TRUST THE GREAT HEART OF GOD. Sometimes you and I are just going to have to TRUST God to make the sun shine again in our lives. The best thing we can do when we're down, confused and depressed is to STAY BUSY serving God. Don't ask, just do! Find some work to do for the Lord and then DO IT!

[1]Enjoy Your Troubles While You Can (Pastor Jack Hyles)

There will be times in life, when you simply cannot see any light at the end of the tunnel ahead. I have been there! There will be times when you FEEL like nothing will ever return to normal in your life, and it may not. But if you have Jesus by your side, you will make it! John 17:12, " While I was with them in the world, I kept them in thy name: those that thou gavest me I have kept, and none of them is lost, but the son of perdition; that the scripture might be fulfilled." Jesus never loses even one lamb!!! I am already on the winning side. I am going to Heaven. I don't have to fret or worry or wonder where I will spend eternity. God promises **"

3.3.22 The Bible Commands Us To Fear God, Not Satan (2022-03-22 14:04)

Ecclesiastes 12:13-14, “Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man.

For God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil.

Matthew 10:28, “

And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell.

I have met numerous Christians in my lifetime who were afraid of the Devil. This is especially true in superstitious cultures like Central America and South America, and in the islands (U.S. Territories like Puerto Rico, Guam and The Virgin Islands). Roman Catholics are infamously superstitious, in Hispanic cultures mostly. The Christian believer should only FEAR GOD!

I had a pastor many years ago, who taught us in church not to speak outloud what our plans were for the future, because Satan might hear us. He said that a demon might overhear our words and go back to tell the Devil. And then the Devil and his fallen angels might throw a monkey-wrench into our big plans, whatever they were.

Our church operated a Bus Ministry. Amen! I absolutely LOVE the Bus Ministry!!! Every Bible-believing church should have a Bus Ministry, providing free transportation for individuals and families alike, so they can come to church to hear the Word of God preached. Millions of people will testify that they were saved, and their life transformed through the Bus Ministry. Is it costly? Yes. Is it a bunch of headaches? You better believe it! But is it worth it? Ten thousand times... YES, YES, YES!!!

As I grew older and learned the Word of God for myself, I humbly realized that my sincere pastor had misinterpreted the Word of God. In fact, not one verse in the inspired King James Bible teaches us to fear the Devil. NOT ONE!!! But we read in literally hundreds of Scripture passages that we should FEAR GOD. Proverbs 3:7, “Be not wise in thine own eyes: fear the LORD, and depart from evil.” Job 1:9, “

Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, Doth Job fear God for nought?

” Satan accused Job of only fearing God because things were going well in his life. So God made a gentleman’s wager with old smut face, to test Job. And as we see, Job passed the test. If Job hadn’t, I doubt if the Bible would have mentioned him at all. We must all FEAR GOD:

> Come and hear, all ye that fear God, and I will declare what he hath done for my soul.
>
> Ecclesiastes 8:12, “
>
> Though a sinner do evil an hundred times, and his days be prolonged, yet surely I know that it shall be well with them that fear God, which fear before him:

Although God definitely desires for us to love Him, the Bible doesn’t command us to love God. You cannot command someone to love anybody. Love is a choice. I cannot make you love me! But I can be nice to you, try to win over your heart, and hope that someday you will love me back. But God can and does command us to FEAR HIM! You don’t have to love the police, but you still must obey the law!

Do you fear God? I do. Those who fear God obey Him, knowing that we must one day stand before God and give account for our deeds done in the flesh, whether they be good or bad (2nd Corinthians 5:9-11). I speak to believers, the redeemed, God’s children. For the unsaved, they will also be judged according to their works, but as criminals instead of God’s children (Revelation 20:11-15).

I do not fear Satan, not one bit. That is simply because God is greater in power and wisdom than the Devil. 1st John 4:4, "Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them: because greater is he that is in you, than he that is in the world. " Every child of God has the blessed Holy Spirit of God indwelling us. Literally, God the Father and God the Son, chose to live inside our body, soul and spirit in the form of God the Holy Spirit. There is only one God (Deuteronomy 6:4), who exists in three distinct persons. Amen!

So when you pray, don't worry about the Devil, because God is greater in every way. Luke 4:6, "

And the devil said unto him, All this power will I give thee, and the glory of them: for that is delivered unto me; and to whomsoever I will I give it.

" The Devil has LIMITED power, which has been given to Him by God!

We see this also in the life of Job, which I showed you earlier. The Devil was completely powerless to touch Job, or anything that Job owned, without God's express permission. This is true of every born-again believer. Ephesians 1:13-15 teaches that God seals us at the time of salvation, giving us the Holy Spirit as proof of His promise to redeem our body, soul and spirit.

Hollywood sensationalizes demons, Hell, the Devil, seances, ghosts, et cetera. The truth is that Hollywood script writers haven't a clue of what they're doing! The Devil and demons are NOT in Hell, nor will they ever be. Not in Hades (Greek for Hell) at least. God has prepared a special Hell just for the fallen angels, called in the Greek: Tartarus . If you are interested in the subject, [1]Pastor Max D. Younce has authored a helpful and intriguing book called: " [2]A BIBLICAL EXAMINATION OF HELL " (free to download in .pdf format). No Christian should ever fear demons or the Devil.

Psalms 34:7, " The angel of the LORD encampeth round about them that fear him, and delivereth them."

3.3.23 The Precious Blood Of The Lamb Of God (2022-03-25 11:26)

John 1:29, "The next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world.

Hebrews 9:1-12 “

Then verily the first covenant had also ordinances of divine service, and a worldly sanctuary.

For there was a tabernacle made; the first, wherein was the candlestick, and the table, and the shewbread; which is called the sanctuary.

And after the second veil, the tabernacle which is called the Holiest of all;

Which had the golden censer, and the ark of the covenant overlaid round about with gold, wherein was the golden pot that had manna, and Aaron’s rod that budded, and the tables of the covenant;

And over it the cherubims of glory shadowing the mercyseat; of which we cannot now speak particularly.

Now when these things were thus ordained, the priests went always into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the service of God.

But into the second went the high priest alone once every year, not without blood, which he offered for himself, and for the errors of the people:

The Holy Ghost this signifying, that the way into the holiest of all was not yet made manifest, while as the first tabernacle was yet standing:

Which was a figure for the time then present, in which were offered both gifts and sacrifices, that could not make him that did the service perfect, as pertaining to the conscience;

Which stood only in meats and drinks, and divers washings, and carnal ordinances, imposed on them until the time of reformation.

But Christ being come an high priest of good things to come, by a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building;

Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us.

I think the key Bible verse in order to understand the Old Testament is Hebrews 10:1,

For the law having a shadow of good things to come*, and not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually make the comers thereunto perfect.

” The Old Testament ritualistic system of the law, tabernacle, holy of holies, priests, Sabbath Days and sacrificial offerings; they were all A SHADOW OF GOOD THINGS TO COME. That is, they were the earthly prototypes of the real one’s up in Heaven.

You see, there is a Tabernacle up in Heaven. Inside there is a Holy Place, where the Ark of the Covenant is located. Above the ark are two cherubim looking toward the center where the presence of God dwells. Inside the ark is the inspired Word of God, the Table of Shewbread and the Golden Candlesticks. We read in Hebrews 9:12, "Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us." Christ Himself, after He raised up from the dead and ascended into Heaven, entered once into the Holy Place with His blood. Jesus sprinkled His blood upon the Mercy Seat (Hebrews 9:22-24; 12:24).

The price for the sins of all mankind was not paid in full by the precious blood of Jesus Just as the Old Testament high priest entered into the holy place with a lamb's blood, so also did Jesus do the same in Heaven. But there was one BIG difference—Jesus didn't apply the blood of bulls or goats to the heavenly Mercy Seat; but rather, His own perfect blood, which ONCE AND FOR ALL made the payment for man's sins.

The Old Testament sacrifices were only temporary, which in theology is called " atonement" (meaning,

"to cover").

The same Hebrew word for "atonement" is used for the word "pitch" that Noah used "

to cover

" the ark. But Jesus' didn't atone for our sins, He forever took them all away, to those who BELIEVE on Christ. You see, Jesus has already paid for EVERYONE'S sins, but you personally must appropriate that gift. That is, you must receive it by faith! I can prove it with the Scripture. 2nd Peter 2:1, "

But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction.

" Please notice the words:

"the Lord that bought them." Jesus purchased these false prophets, dying on the cross for them too, even though they still denied Him. Wow! That a great Savior!

You see, Jesus is the Savior of all men, even of those who deny them. Let me prove it again with the Scripture. 1st Timothy 4:10, "

For therefore we both labour and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe.

" I love that! Jesus is THE SAVIOUR OF ALL MEN, especially of those who BELIEVE. So whether you believe or not, He is still the Savior. In order for Him to become YOUR Savior, you need to personally accept Him as such. John 1:12-13,

"But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name: Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

By the way, someone years ago criticized my ministry's use of the modern spelling of Savior.

" So, I did a Bible study on this. [1]Pastor Al Lacy in his excellent sermon called: "[2]The NIV Bible And The New Age," had said that there is only one "

Saviour,

" So this led to some confusion over my website's name: (Jesus-is-Savior.com). Although Dr. Lacy is theologically correct, Grammarly he is incorrect! The truth is that the Hebrew and Greek words used for " throughout the Holy Bible, are the same exact words used in the Bible when referring to men in general who saved people. So the argument is mute. I understand that it is every preacher's nature to seek to find all ammunition possible when trying to prove their position, so I don't fault Dr. Al Lacy one bit. I don't agree with him, but I understand why he said what he did, trying to defend the King James Bible. [3]I love the guy with all my heart!!!

Here is a wonderful excerpt from Michael P. Bowen's helpful book titled: "I NEVER KNEW YOU: The Horror Of The Great White Throne Judgement And How You Can Avoid It":

> Here is the gospel: God says that we are sinners and that no amount of good works or behavioral changes on our part could ever make us holy enough to enter heaven. God sent His Son to pay for all of our sins. Jesus paid for our crimes by dying on the cross for us all. His dead body was buried in a grave. On the third day, Jesus arose from the dead. The instant you believe this, He knows it and He saves you. "Verily, verily, I say unto you, he that believeth on Me hath everlasting life"(John 6:47). The free gift is based solely upon your trust in what Jesus did for you and has nothing at all to do with what you do for Him. "For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast" (Ephesians 2:8-9). Michael P. Bowen, "I Never Knew You," p. xii

There you have it friend, how to know that you're going to Heaven in just 30 seconds!

I wanted to write this blog to teach you about the blood of Jesus Christ. And what a beautiful thing it is, by which we have even been redeemed!!! 1st Peter 1:18-19, "Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers; But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot:" This is why when observing The Lord's Supper (i.e., Communion) at church, we must never use fermented wine or leavened bread, because these foods require bacteria and the decaying process of yeast and so forth. There is no corruption in Christ's body or blood. It would be better not to have Communion at all, than to portray the sinless Savior's precious body and blood with mold and bacteria. The juice need to be unfermented, and the bread needs to be unleavened.

Beware Of The Devil's Bibles!

Tragically, all of the modern Bible revisions remove THE BLOOD OF JESUS from numerous passages! For example: Let's compare Colossians 1:

KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) - Colossians 1:13-16, "

Who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son:

In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins: Who is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of every creature: For by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him:

in whom we have redemption [THROUGH HIS BLOOD IS GONE!!!] , the forgiveness of sins. He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation. For by him all things were created, in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or authorities—all things were created through him and for him.

CHRISTIAN STANDARD BIBLE (CSB) - Colossians 1:13-16, "

He has rescued us from the domain of darkness and transferred us into the kingdom of the Son he loves. In him we have redemption [THROUGH HIS BLOOD IS GONE!!!] , the forgiveness of sins.

He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn over all creation. For everything was created by him, in heaven and on earth, the visible and the invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or authorities—all things have been created through him and for him."

NEW INTERNATIONAL VERSION (NIV) - Colossians 1:13-16, "

For he has rescued us from the dominion of darkness and brought us into the kingdom of the Son he loves, in whom we have redemption [THROUGH HIS BLOOD IS GONE!!!] , the forgiveness of sins. The Son is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn over all creation. For in him all things were created: things in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or powers or rulers or authorities; all things have been created through him and for him.”

Sadly, HUNDREDS of the Devil’s modern English Bible perversions completely REMOVE the important words:

HROUGH HIS BLOOD. ”

Why would anyone remove those critically important words? If you check and compare other New Testament passages which mention “ the blood,

” you’ll also discover that the modern Westcott and Hort based Bible versions butcher these passages. Critics who defend the modern versions, will tell you that there’s only less than a 3 % difference between the major and minor ancient texts.

But what they won’t tell you is that those small changes, omissions and additions all brutally attack the deity of Jesus, obliterate the Godhead, diminish Jesus’ preeminence and secularize the Bible! It couldn’t be more obvious to anyone who truly loves the Lord Jesus Christ, that Brooke Westcott (1825-1901) and Fenton Hort (1828-1892) didn’t love Him!!! [4]Critics will claim that the modern Bibles aren’t really based upon the 1881 work of Westcott and Hort, but that’s is a lie of the Devil. All this garbage, messing with the Holy Bible, started with Westcott and Hort. If you doubt what I say, go look inside the front cover of the Jehovah’s Witness New Testament, and you’ll see that they credit Westcott and Hort’s work as the basis of it. (By the way, beware of the popular website: [5]GotQuestions.org, because they preach hardcore Lordship Salvation, requiring that people turn away from your sin to get to Heaven, which is an accursed false gospel according to Galatians 1:6-9 and Galatians 3:1-3.)

There Is No Salvation Unless The Lamb’s Blood is Applied

In the Old Testament, I’m sure that you’re familiar with the story of Moses and the Hebrews in Egypt. For 430 years the Hebrews dwelt in Egypt, beginning with Joseph’s family, who had moved from Canaan to Egypt during a horrific 7-year famine. There is an alleged discrepancy here in the Bible. The Bible tells us:

> Exodus 12:40, “
> Now the sojourning of the children of Israel, who dwelt in Egypt, was four hundred and thirty years.
>

>
> And God spake on this wise, That his seed should sojourn in a strange land; and that they should bring them into bondage, and entreat them evil four hundred years.

Whoa! So was it 400 or 430 years that the Hebrews dwelt in Egypt? Well, both. They spent 430 years total living in Egypt, but for 400 of those years they were enslaved to Pharaoh. The Egyptians did entreat them EVIL for 400 years! That is such a sad commentary on both the Jews and Egypt. God had brought goodness to Egypt through Joseph and his family. Things went well for 30 years. But when Joseph died and the next generation (of both Jews and Egyptians) came alone, they went back to their old carnal ways.

Now, what I am about to say is only speculation. That is, Stewology (my last name is Stewart). This is merely my opinion, and I cannot prove it with the Bible. But I think we need to consider the level of spirituality of the Jews. When God had delivered them our of slavery, the Jews didn't appreciate it. They complained and moaned continually in the Wilderness, which angered the Lord. Ten times they griped to Moses, until God finally decided that they wouldn't enter into The Promised Land. Only those age 19 and under were able to later go into The Promised Land. Anyone age 20 or older couldn't go!

My speculation is this—seeing that the Jews had such bad attitudes in the Wilderness, I cannot help but conclude that they had the same poor attitudes in Egypt. I'll bet they complained and moaned about everything in Egypt too! Could it be that the Egyptians got tired of the ungrateful spirit among the Jews? I mean, if God Himself lost patience with these stubborn, spoiled and stiffnecked people, it makes sense that the Egyptians did too! But where the Bible is silent I choose to remain silent. I simply do not know!

Ah, but what I DO know is that the blood saves! Amen. When God sent Aaron and Moses to deliver the Hebrews from bondage, God hardened Pharaoh's heart so that he refused. Now, that is very interesting. First, please understand that God did not predestinate Pharaoh to Hell. No way! God NEVER chooses who will or won't be saved. Calvinism (all five tenets) are a lie of the Devil. Calvinism refers to the core life's teachings of a man named John Calvin (1509-1564). [6]Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) does a great job refuting Calvinism.

What God DID do is harden Pharaoh's heart concerning releasing the Hebrews. God already knew that Pharaoh wasn't going to get saved. This is not predestination. It just means that God is omniscient and He knows the future. So God decided to use Pharaoh for His purpose and plan. The Bible says that God deliberately hardened Pharaoh's heart, to refuse to release the Hebrews, so that God could work His mighty miracles and be glorified. Who are we to question our great, faithful and good God?

The last of the Ten Plagues became know as the Passover. This name is befitting of the event that happened. The Lord through His servant's Moses and Aaron warned everyone in Egypt (both Jew and Egyptian alike) of the coming last plague. The firstborn of all families, even of the family's livestock, would die when the Lord PASSED OVER!!! Thus, the holiday of the "Passover." God PASSED OVER any family that obeyed the Lord, by applying THE BLOOD of a slain lamb to the lintel (the plate above the door that kept bricks from falling on your head), and door posts of the home. Exodus 12:23, " For the LORD will pass through to smite the Egyptians; and when he seeth the blood upon the lintel, and on the two side posts, the LORD will pass over the door, and will not suffer the destroyer to come in unto your houses to smite you." Do you see those two beautiful words: **"

PASS OVER "???

The killing of the lamb wasn't enough! Please don't miss that, because this is where I am going with this blog. THE BLOOD HAD TO BE APPLIED!!! It is not enough that Christ died on the cross for our sins, the blood of Christ needed to be applied to the Mercy Seat in Heaven. We don't hear enough about this truth nowadays from America's church pulpits. What saith the Scripture? ...

> Exodus 12:13, "And the blood shall be to you for a token upon the houses where ye are: and when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and the plague shall not be upon you to destroy you, when I smite the land of Egypt."

Dear friend, this same truth applies today. God is still looking for the BLOOD!!! The blood needed to be applied. Thankfully, approximately 2,000 years ago Jesus ascended up into Heaven after He raised up from the dead, and he entered into the Holy Place into the presence of God the Father, and sprinkled His blood upon the heavenly Mercy Seat for our sins. Hallelujah!!! It is only because of Christ's blood on the Mercy Seat that any human being can come to Christ and be saved by faith alone. The price for our sins has already been paid! The price was Jesus' BLOOD. The place is the heavenly MERCY SEAT. The Lamb's blood has successfully been applied!!!

Dear reader, that is why you and I can freely receive God's gift of forgiveness of sins by simply taking it. That is why we don't even need to "ask" Christ to save us. God is already freely offering His gift of eternal life to us. Just take it friend, if you haven't already, and it is yours forever! Eternal life is a FREE GIFT (Romans 5:15-18, 6:23; Ephesians 2:8-9). You don't have to start doing anything to be saved. You don't have to stop doing anything to be saved. You simply need to BELIEVE that Jesus did it for you! Acts 16:30-31, " And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house. "

1st Peter 1:18-23,

Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers;

But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot:

Who verily was foreordained before the foundation of the world, but was manifest in these last times for you,

Who by him do believe in God, that raised him up from the dead, and gave him glory; that your faith and hope might be in God.

Seeing ye have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit unto unfeigned love of the brethren, see that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently*:

Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever.

I pondered this amazing passage of Scripture today. I admit that I am a sensitive person. That is why I love music do much, and especially musical instruments! My life’s passion, next to my website ministry, is playing the pedal steel guitar. It is my happy thought! Here is a song I recorded steel guitar on called: "[1]Near To The Heart Of God." I learned to do that P-Tah effect with the finger picks by one of my favorite Hawaiian steel guitar artists, Bud Tutmarc. I sat by my front door when I lived on Guam by the airport, and in 2017 I [2]made this fun recording to share with others. I used my S-6 short-scale Jerry Byrd Frypan steel guitar. It’s made of aluminum, a similar remake of the original 1922 Rickenbacher Frypan, but with some modifications designed by Jerry Byrd. I thank God for it and love that cool guitar! Here are many of [3]my other steel recordings for you to hear and share if you’d like.

Lord willing, it is my heart’s desire this year to start recording more steel guitar songs. I have many ideas. [4]I’m also wanting to get into my banjo playing as soon as I get settled, Lord willing. One day at a time. All my stuff is still in storage facility, since I moved from Guam to Pensacola in July of 2021. It has been a rough time for me emotionally, and finding permanent housing. I finally found a good place to stay, and a small church to call home. The Lord is helping my to slowly adjust and transition. I had lived on the island of Guam for 17 years, so now I feel like a fish out of water here in Florida. I can’t wait to get back into my pedal steel guitar music. My very favorite pedal steel guitar artist is Lloyd Green (born 1937). Here is a beautiful song that Lloyd recorded in the 1970’s which he composed called: "[5]Summer Clouds." I love [6]Lloyd’s intelligent performances, which grip my soul.

Having said that, I am still considering moving further up north. I’m doing much research. I like Tennessee and Kentucky.

Anyway, back down to planet earth...lol. What does the Bible mean by "Seeing you have purified your souls in obeying THE TRUTH"?: These related Bible passages come to mind:

> John 15:3, “Now ye are clean through the word which I have spoken unto you.”
>
> Psalms 119:9, “Wherewithal shall a young man cleanse his way? by taking heed thereto according to thy word.”

Do you see the unmistakable relationship between heeding the Word of God and being pure in our souls, cleansed and living right for God? To hear the Word of God is not enough, we must OBEY it also. What saith the Scripture? ...

> James 1:22-25, "But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves. For if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass:
> For he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was. But whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed."

The blessing is not to the man who HEARS God's inspired Word, but to him or her that DOES the Word! 1st John 3:17, " But whoso hath this world's good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him?" You see, again, it is not merely enough to hear about someone's needs, we must do what we can by God's grace to fulfill those needs. Sadly, most believers today are SITTING ON THE PREMISES rather than STANDING ON THE PROMISES!

> 1st Peter 22-25, "Seeing ye have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit unto unfeigned love of the brethren, see that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently: Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever. For all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away: But the word of the Lord endureth for ever. And this is the word which by the gospel is preached unto you."

What beautiful and powerful Words!!!

> Wherefore gird up the loins of your mind, be sober, and hope to the end for the grace that is to be brought unto you at the revelation of Jesus Christ;
>
> As obedient children, not fashioning yourselves according to the former lusts in your ignorance:
>
> But as he which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation;
>
> Because it is written, Be ye holy; for I am holy.
> And if ye call on the Father, who without respect of persons judgeth according to every man's work, pass the time of your sojourning here in fear:"

As believers, we are sanctified by the Word of God...

>
> Psalms 119:9-11, "Wherewithal shall a young man cleanse his way? by taking heed thereto according to thy word."
>

What beautiful Scriptures!!!

> James 1:5-8, "If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him.
>
> But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering. For he that wavereth is like a wave of the sea driven with the wind and tossed.
>
> For let not that man think that he shall receive any thing of the Lord.
> A double minded man is unstable in all his ways."

God promises to give wisdom to whosoever asks Him for it. Certainly, we cannot expect God to give us wisdom if we are not reading His inspired Word to guide us. Proverbs 3:5-7, "Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths. Be not wise in thine own eyes: fear the LORD, and depart from evil." Amen and amen! We acknowledge God by obeying His written Word in the King James Bible. Only then, I think, can we justly ask and truly expect for God to grant us wisdom. Sadly, we live in a nation of Bible ignoramuses today in America, and that tragically includes today's average theologically incompetent church leader.

Today's churches are pathetic. I haven't been able to find even one great church here in Pensacola. I was looking for another church to attend today. I found the Calvary Way Full Gospel Church about 7 miles from me, but the church is all about making music, but there's no soul-winning!!! That is not the purpose of the church, to party hardy and play your favorite musical instrument. God has entrusted the local church to obey The Great Commission (Matthew 28:19-20). It seems that the last thing churches care about these days is preaching the Gospel. Instead, today's pathetic churches have become entertainment fun centers!!!

God knows that I am not perfect, but I am growing in God's grace every year. I just turned 55 years old on March 5th, 2022 and I've never desired to serve God more than I do today. I often wish and pray that God would show and give me more ideas, strength and opportunities to serve Him better. Google has censored 90 % of my web traffic since 2015, sadly. I used to get over 12,000,000 web visitors per years. Now I am blessed if I get 1,200,000 per year. That is the Devil. But thankfully, our great God is greater than the Devil (1st John 4:4). If God wills for THE TRUTH to be preached, then He will open the door for people to find it. I am humbly doing the best I know how with what God has entrusted to me. Jesus is precious!!!

3.3.25 Don't Be Evil With Your Words (2022-03-30 00:30)

Matthew 12:36, "But I say unto you, That every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment." 2nd Peter 2:18, "For when they speak great swelling words of vanity, they allure through the lusts of the flesh, through much wantonness, those that were clean escaped from them who live in error." Proverbs 30:6, "Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar." Jeremiah 23:36, "And the burden of the LORD shall ye mention no more: for every man's word shall be his burden; for ye have perverted the words of the living God, of the LORD of hosts our God."

Ephesians 5:6,

"Let no man deceive you with vain words: for because of these things cometh the wrath of God upon the children of disobedience.

Colossians 2:4,

"And this I say, lest any man should beguile you with enticing words.

Jeremiah 29:23,

"Because they have committed villany in Israel, and have committed adultery with their neighbours' wives, and have spoken lying words in my name, which I have not commanded them; even I know, and am a witness, saith the LORD.

The Bible has MUCH to say about words. I have selected a few passages, but there are several hundred more which I could have used. There are God's Words (as we see mentioned in Proverbs 30:6). And then there are men's words (as mentioned in Jeremiah 23:36). Words that are God's we call divinely " inspired.

" Words that men speak are not inspired by God. They are inspired by men! In the Scripture passages I selected we read about:

- every idle word
- great swelling words of vanity
- His words
- man's words
- vain words
- enticing words
- lying words in my name

That last phrase is monumental dear friend! Who would dare to speak lying words in God's name? Good night in the morning! Jeremiah 7:9-10, "Behold, ye trust in lying words, that cannot profit.

Will ye steal, murder, and commit adultery, and swear falsely, and burn incense unto Baal, and walk after other gods whom ye know not;

And come and stand before me in this house, which is called by my name, and say, We are delivered to do all these abominations?

” Wow! They were stealing, murdering, making false accusations, committing adultery and worshipping Satanic idols, yet they claimed to be doing God’s will. Can you imagine such evil?

Well, we see this same type of evil today in many churches. The demonic Lordship Salvation crowd preaches that faith is not enough to get to Heaven. In addition, they claim that you must turn away from a lifestyle of sin. They claim that you must surrender ALL to Christ as absolutely "Lord" in order to be saved. In so doing, proponents of Lordship Salvation are putting people under the law, requiring them to keep God’s Ten Commandments to get to Heaven. The Bible plainly tells us that this is false teaching:

> Romans 3:19-20, “Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God. Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin.”

Dear friend, WORDS ARE SO VERY IMPORTANT!!! When I really think about it, my entire website ministry is all about WORDS!!! I have written and published thousands of articles either teaching true WORDS, or refuting false WORDS, to help others for Christ my Lord and Savior. Preachers today who teach Lordship Salvation are speaking LYING WORDS in God’s name!!! I read recently that [1]the average church pastor’s annual salary is $80,000. Can you imagine a preacher getting paid that kind of money, which is $30,000 above what the average American citizen earns in a year, to preach ANOTHER GOSPEL?

The Devil’s lie of Lordship Salvation is comprised of EVIL WORDS!!! What exactly is “ Lordship Salvation

anyway? Lordship Salvation is the false doctrine that faith is insufficient to get into Heaven. In addition, proponents of Lordship Salvation teach that you must surrender all to Christ as the Lord and the Master of your life.

They say you must

repent and turn away from your sinful ways

” to be saved. What they mean is that you cannot have the attitude that you intend to continue living a sinful lifestyle. refuse to forsake your sinful bad habits to be saved.

The [2]average person speaks on average about 30,000 words per day . That’s enough words to fill a medium-sized library in a lifetime! Wow! Yet, how careless are so many preachers today with their words? They sanction the Devil’s Bibles. They sanction and help preach the Devil’s "turn from your sin" garbage to get to Heaven. Those wicked pastors and preachers will someday have to answer to God for THEIR LYING WORDS!!!

And how many people are so cruel with their words. I remember a painful incident years ago. I had purchased a used S-10 Sho-Bud pedal steel guitar for $1,500 through the Steel Guitar Forum. But it was old and I wanted to have it retrofitted with new parts, so it would be able to do more mechanically (more chords). I searched the internet and found a man named John Coop Sr. in Indiana who rebuilt Sho-Bud guitars. I called John and spoke with him. He insisted that I send him #1,300 upfront to rebuild the guitar for me. So we agreed. I used my PayPal to send him the money.

To my horror, I read afterwards in the Steel Guitar Forum (SGF) that John Coop Sr. had cheated over a dozen other SGF members, keeping their money and never returning their guitar. Long story short, Mr. Coop stole $2,800 from me! John changed his phone number. I was able to obtain his number from another SGF member. When I called John he was surprised to hear from me, that I had got his number. He boldly lied to me, promising my guitar in 2 weeks. He had told we 2 weeks months earlier. Sure enough, John was lying again, as usual, and I never got my guitar or money back. That wicked man just kept it all. God will punish him in eternity for cheating, hurting, lying and defrauding others, especially Christian like me. Jesus warned in Matthew 25:40 that if you hurt someone who is a child of God, it is the same as if you did it unto Jesus Christ. John stole $2,800 from Jesus!!!

But to make matters worse, and the reason why I even mentioned this painful memory, is because of the cruel words that followed. I went onto the Steel Guitar Forum to warn other members about John Coop Sr., letting everybody know that he stole my $2,800 and if a known thief. Over 95 % of the people in the SGF are great folks, but some are as rotten as they come! One SGF member actually posted photos of his Sho-Bud guitar that John has rebuilt for him years earlier (when he was still honest). That horrible wicked SGF member mocked me, rubbing it in that I had just been cheated out of $2,800. He wrote: "Look what a nice job John Coop Sr. did on my guitar. Look how great all those new parts look!" I couldn't believe that one of my fellow steel guitar players was so low, inhumane, selfish and rotten, as to make me feel worse that I had just been defrauded of $2,800.

Could you possibly imagine if your child got hit and killed by a speeding car. And someone next to you said out loud, as they hugged their child: "Hey, look at my healthy child who is alive and well. Look at how blessed my family is!" Meanwhile your child is dead in a pool of blood in the street. That is how rotten some people are with their wicked heart and words. I still feel sick, not only that John ripped me off for $2,800. But also that an ungodly SGF member rubbed it in, just to hurt me further. I wouldn't be surprised at all if that rotten person is divorced. If not, I feel sorry for his wife, being married to a scum, vindictive and hateful human existence like that! It is wickedness!!!

Yes, people can be cruel with their words. Please don't be like that! Our words are very important to God. Matthew 12:36, "But I say unto you, That every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment." In a million years, I never would have done what that wicked man did to me, rubbing it in that I had just been cheated out of $2,800. Only a Godless reprobate deliberately hurts other people like that!

I like David in the Old Testament, he loved God's Word, as I do. Psalms 119:72,

The law of thy mouth is better unto me than thousands of gold and silver.

David's love for the Holy Bible didn't compare to anything else! Money meant nothing to David when compared to God's inspired Words. People WILL hurt us sometimes with their words. The best thing to do is just give those hurt feelings to the Lord and let Him deal with the offender. I have bene deeply hurt by several pastors over the past several years. God will chastise them for their sinful words. And sadly, some of them, like Pastor Marty Herron, are going to the Lake of Fire. Herron preaches a false gospel of Lordship Salvation, demanding that people "turn away from a lifestyle of sinful living to be saved," which is not the Gospel of free grace.

3.3.26 God's Strength Is Perfected In Our Human Weakness (2022-03-30 01:00)

2nd Corinthians 12:1-12, "

It is not expedient for me doubtless to glory. I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord.

I knew a man in Christ above fourteen years ago, (whether in the body, I cannot tell; or whether out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;) such an one caught up to the third heaven.

And I knew such a man, (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;)

How that he was caught up into paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter.

Of such an one will I glory: yet of myself I will not glory, but in mine infirmities.

For though I would desire to glory, I shall not be a fool; for I will say the truth: but now I forbear, lest any man should think of me above that which he seeth me to be, or that he heareth of me.

And lest I should be exalted above measure through the abundance of the revelations, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh, the messenger of Satan to buffet me, lest I should be exalted above measure.

For this thing I besought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from me.

And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me.

Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong*."

In church today our pastor taught us from 2nd Corinthians 12:1-10. I learned some helpful truths today, as our pastor preached an expository sermon. I want to share with you some of the life-changing truths that we learned today. By the way, every believer needs to be in a local New Testament church. The local church is our family in the Lord. In Pensacola I have no family here, so the small church I am attending is my surrogate family, and I love and need them.

In verse 1 the Apostle Paul speaks of visions that he received from the Lord. Please make a note that Paul was an apostle ordained by God as such, so it was a special circumstance, a miracle wrought by God. As our pastor rightly taught us today, if you ever hear any preacher claiming that he has received a vision from God, RUN! Seriously, false prophets are the only ones who claim to see visions.

For example: Miss Ellen G. White of the Seventh-Day Adventists claimed to have received over 2,100 visions from God, making herself a self-appointed end times prophet by God. We know Scripturally that she is a liar! What saith the Scripture? Hebrews 1:1-2, "God, who at sundry times and in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets,

Hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds;

" Whereas God dictated His Words to holy men of old, the Bible plainly teaches that in these last days God only speaks to us through His Son, Jesus Christ.

Dr. John R. Rice (1895-1980) used to say that Jesus and the Bible are TWINS! I like that. We learn from John 1:1-3 and 14, and also in Revelation 19:13, that Jesus is THE WORD OF GOD. Jesus is the Living Word; the Bible is the Written Word. This is why Jesus said in John 5:39,

"Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me. " When we read, study and abide in the Holy Scriptures, we are abiding in Christ. I always tell people that I am as narrow-minded as the Bible.

I admit that I am greatly intrigued by 2nd Corinthians 12:4, "

How that he was caught up into paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter. " What did Paul see and hear? Nobody knows. Paul was miraculously caught up by the Holy Spirit into Heaven, and allowed to see and hear things which he was forbidden to tell anyone on earth. Someday we will all find out when it's our turn to enter into eternity. My friend Curtis Smale died and went to Heaven in January 2022. I was wondering yesterday what Curtis is now seeing and hearing. I wonder if he can see me. I know he prays for me. Me and Curtis were close friends because we both shared a driving passion to proclaim a FREE GRACE GOSPEL. [1]Please take a slow look through his many blog articles. Curtis was a gifted prolific writer and I often told him so. [2]Here are his ministry videos.

Salvation changes our heritage from a living death to a deathless life. I cease to be amazed when I think about God's wondrous free gift of eternal life. Dear saint of God, you are greatly beloved.

If you will give God your weakness, God will give you His strength.

By the way, there are many types of Baptists, but being a Baptist once meant that you were a FUNDAMENTALIST! Over the years many Baptists have strayed from the FUNDAMENTALS. And thus attack those who remain true to the faith. I recently found an awesome podcast called: "

This Podcast will address the issues surrounding what it means to be a FUNDAMENTAL BAPTIST. Whether you are a baby believer, or have been saved for 42 years (as I have), this podcast will be a blessing to you and your family.

The Apostle Paul further states in our text passage that if he wanted to brag, he sure had a reason too. Paul had been privileged to see Heaven head of time! Wow! God permitted Paul to see and hear the things of Heaven, but he was forbidden to tell anyone what he saw and heard. That is extremely interesting. But Paul said instead of boasting of such miracles that could have made him feel special, he chose rather to focus on his weaknesses, failures, infirmities and hardships, so that in his utter weakness Christ's strength could be perfected.

I love that!!! I love what Paul wrote in the Bible because it encourages me that all the pain, losses, suffering and miseries throughout my difficult life weren't in vain. God has used my suffering so that He could mightily bless my worldwide website ministry. The Bible teaches that God avoids proud people.

But he giveth more grace. Wherefore he saith, God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble.

" The reason why God avoids them is because THEY ARE NOT WEAK. Dear reader, as God's children we don't grow in strength, we grow in God's grace. Look at what Christ told Paul in 2nd Corinthians 12:9, "

And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me.

" When Paul humbly pleaded with God three times to remove his thorn in the flesh, God told Paul: MY GRACE IS SUFFICIENT FOR YOU!!!

Dear friend, God's grace is sufficient for you and me too! God never allows us to handle any burden that we are incapable of carrying in His strength. 2nd Corinthians 9b-10, "Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me. Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong." If you could learn this truth dear friend, it would forever transform the way you look at the problems, loneliness, health woes, losses, enemies, miseries and heartaches in your life. The same blessed Savior who was able to work with power, through Paul's weaknesses and infirmities, is able today 2,000 years later to do the same in our lives!!! Therefore, we ought to REJOICE amidst our sufferings, painful memories, cries and sorrows of our hurting soul.

The Holy Spirit will never lead you contrary to the Word of God. We hear all these TV evangelists lying to the masses. I'm talking about fakes like Joyce Meyer, Pat Robertson, Benny Hinn, T.D. Jakes, Rick Warren, Joel Osteen and other infidels who prey upon the public with their demonic Health, Wealth & Prosperity false gospel. They are not preaching with the power of God's Holy Spirit; but rather, the spirit of Satan! What they are preaching is against the plain teaching of the inspired Word of God. Charismatics and Pentecostals falsely preach that Jesus was a rich man, living large and lavishly; but we read in 2nd Corinthians 8:9, " For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, *yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich." The Bible tells is that Jesus became POOR on earth, and that He lived in POVERTY. That is the true Jesus!!!

So dear reader—and you are all dear to me, which is why I write blogs and website articles day and night for my blessed God and Savior Jesus Christ—don't think like the heathen world. Christianity was began as a new birth in the Holy Bible. When it went to Greece, Christianity became a philosophy. When it went to Rome, it turned into a religion. When it spread throughout Europe, Christianity deteriorated into a mere culture. And sadly, when Christianity came to America, it became a stinking lucrative money-making BUSINESS!!!

If you are weak like me, then help someone else who is weak, and help build their work. I suffer in constant chronic neck pain. I worry sometimes that my disability will stop. But then I always catch myself and just decide to trust God, no matter what. If I lose my disability, then I will cross that bridge when it comes. I decided to get some fresh air and go for a long walk yesterday. But after walking for about 10 minutes, the intense pain from my neck radiated over my right shoulder blade, down intensely into my right arm, and sharply into my thumb.

The pain became so unbearable that I couldn't walk anymore. I had to stop for the day. God only knows what I suffer through on a daily basis. I was hit by a church bus in 1992. And then in 2004 fell down a mailslide at work, which worsened my neck injury. I underwent two major neck surgeries in 2009 and 2010, neither of which removed my affliction. Sadly, the second surgery made me 100 % worse. Both of my arms since that surgery feel like they are inflated with air. The entire right side of my body feels half asleep all the time. I limp when I walk because of this. I also have constant tension in my neck, which is caused by a compressed spinal cord according to a neurologist I saw on Guam. In short, physically I am a mess.

I beat Paul in the number of times I have prayed for God to remove my thorn. Paul prayed three times for God to take away his thorn in the flesh. But I have prayed hundreds of times, literally, refusing to take no for an answer, and hoping for God's mercy. But I am still messed up, suffering from stenosis and radiculitis in my neck. It is my burden that I alone must bear. No one knows your pain! I also feel spasms of burning throughout my entire nervous system, which comes and goes from day to day, which I cannot even explain in words how much it adversely affects me.

My wife divorced me in 2006, sixteen long years ago. I lost my pain home because of the divorces and have been renting apartments ever since, not sure if I'll ever be able to afford to buy a home again without going into 30 years of debt. I lost my retirement savings. Divorce is a transfer of wealth from your bank account into your lawyer's bank account. Lawyers are legalized thieves!!! Judges are overpaid thieves!!! They all work together for JUST-US, not justice!!! I hate attorneys too! Here in Pensacola, Florida (where I moved in July of 2021), we see lawyers billboards everywhere along the roadways, which is disgusting and contemptible like cockroaches just waiting for the darkness to lurk!!!

Anyway, the silver lining in my horrors, losses and inexplicable pain, is that God continues to use this redeemed sinner to make a difference for the Lord Jesus Christ. I am just a humble sinner saved by God's grace!!! I have been wounded, banned, kicked out of churches, ostracized, slandered, mocked and despised by PASTORS. Go figure! Why? It is simply because I TOLD THE TRUTH.

We are sadly surrounded in American society today by churches that are fun centers, glorified country clubs, musical venues, party concerts, and dead ritualistic spiritual morgues. I wrote a needful article back in 2016 titled: ' [4]The Autopsy Of A Dead Church! ' I don't know about you dear reader, but with the truths I have presented to you in this blog from the inspired King James Bible, I am not going to complain and moan to God about them. Instead, I am going to look for ways to serve God more effectively each day, to MAKE AN IMPACT for God while I still can.

Even Jesus Himself emphasized the importance of working while He still could, because His time on earth was LIMITED. Read what Jesus said in John 9:4, " I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work." I believe that Christ is teaching here, that our time on earth as individuals is LIMITED.

Psalms 90:12, " So teach us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom." I believe this is what the Lord meant. The wise Christian invests for eternity.

Colossians 4:5, " Walk in wisdom toward them that are without, redeeming the time."

If you are doing absolutely nothing to invest in the eternal harvest for souls, then why not? I mean, everybody can do something for the cause of Jesus and the Gospel. Most people do not know how to do God's work. They are not sure. But the wise person will follow a man of God who does get the job done for Christ, and they will invest in that man's ministry work. I don't accept money from people, never have, and never will. But I sure can use your help with my ministry.

If you help me friend, since I am serving Christ, then you will be rewarded for helping me. What saith the Scripture?

Mark 9:41, " For whosoever shall give you a cup of water to drink in my name, because ye belong to Christ, verily I say unto you, he shall not lose his reward." I love that Bible verse and principle. Anybody can serve God by serving a man of God. By helping free grace Gospel preachers, I am laying up treasures in Heaven!!!

I am not as eloquent in my preaching as Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001). I am not the charming personality of Brother Hyles. I've never been good with people. I get nervous around people. That is why I have an internet ministry instead of pastoring a church. I marvel when I consider his incredible 55 years of ministry. But I am not Dr. Hyles.

I am just a dog in comparison, and he is a lion of the faith. But the Bible teaches that a living dog is better than a dead lion.

Ecclesiastes 9:4, "

For to him that is joined to all the living there is hope: for a living dog is better than a dead lion.

" Brother Hyles has already graduated from life and is gone onto Heaven to be with Jesus. That Bible verse always encourages me, because as a dog I can still promote Pastor Hyles' sermons, books and the godly principles he taught.

I challenge you dear friend to start looking at your STUMBLING STONES in your life as blessings, as STEPPING STONES. Amen. I heard a beautiful sermon the other day by Pastor Jack Hyles titled: '[5]The Blessings Of Sin.' God can take everything and anything in your life, the LEMONS, and turn them into LEMONADE. It is a matter of faith, trusting God that He has the power and the desire to make ALL THINGS WORK TOGETHER FOR GOOD in every believer's life, so as to conform us into Christ's perfect image (Romans 8:28-29). God bless you and thank you for reading my heartfelt words. Jesus is precious!!!

3.4 April

3.4.1 Salvation Is Either By Faith Alone, Or Faith Is Never Alone, But It Cannot Be Both (2022-04-03 00:04)

Romans 11:6, "And if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work." Galatians 3:26, "

For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.

Getting saved is either by faith alone, or faith is never alone, but it cannot be by both. I get so frustrated talking to the Bob Jones University (BJU) crowd. BJU is enslaved theologically to the Devil’s curse of Lordship Salvation. What is Lordship Salvation? It is the falsehood . All across America the Devil has crept the lie of Lordship Salvation into today’s Bible colleges and churches.

Another ridiculous cliché heard today is: “

Grace is free but it’s not cheap.

” is less money than cheap! We know that salvation is not cheap, because it has been paid for by the blood of Jesus, but we don’t have to pay anything to receive it. Sadly, people who believe in salvation by faith alone are falsely accused of believing in “

No, I believe in FREE GRACE!

Do you know what “cheap grace” is? It is telling something that God won’t save them unless they “repent and turn away from your sin.

” These horrible people who tell us that we believe in “cheap grace” are the cheapest, stinkiest, cheapskate hypocrites in the world, because they think that their good works (which are filth rags in the sight of God) will get them into Heaven. In reality, our grace that gets us into Heaven is the most expensive thing you can imagine, because it was paid for by the precious blood of Jesus. It don’t get any more expensive than that!

You’d have to be a spiritually blinded person to say that “Faith is alone, but faith is never alone.” That statement doesn’t make any sense at all. It is a blatant contradiction! How can faith be alone if it cannot be alone? Huh? Sadly, [1]this is the garbage theology that Pastor Chuck Phelps of the Colonial Hills Baptist Church in Indianapolis, Indiana preaches. Phelps is on the board of directors of Bob Jones University! [2]BJU is an accursed cult today (Galatians 1:6-9).

The heathen Bob Jones University camp and other heretical Lordship Salvation proponents will say: “

Well yeah, we have to repent of our sins, and clean up our life, and do good works and live a good life, but it’s God who gave us the grace to give us the ability to do the works.

” This is how they twist this! They’ll falsely claim that you have to turn away from your sin and faithfully live the Christian life to get to Heaven, but still insist that it is not “ because God gave them the grace to do it.

by works

Folks, that is NOT the free grace Gospel taught in the Holy Bible! When the Roman jailor asked Paul and Silas what was necessary to be saved, here is what they said in Acts 16:30-31,

"And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house." Nothing more was required. Paul and Silas didn't say anything about the man turning away from his sinful lifestyle, nor did they require him to faithfully run the race until the end to be saved.

We hear the Calvinist (aka, Lordship Salvation) crowd saying that salvation is by faith alone, but faith is never alone. That's garbage, you can't have it both ways! Either If faith is alone, then how can faith never be alone? It's a stupid slogan! This is just a repackaging of works salvation.

One of the leaders of the religious Reformation, Martin Luther (1483-1546), deserves much gratitude for his translation work that contributed to later giving us the King James Bible. Yet, Luther believed and taught the heresy of Baptismal Regeneration (the false doctrine that a person must be water baptized to go to Heaven). Luther believed this his entire life! There is no way that Martin Luther was a born-again believer.

Yet, foolish preachers still try diligently to portray Martin Luther as a saved man. No way! There is no way that a man is saved by faith plus something else!!! The Scriptures are very clear on that! [3]Read Luther's catechism (written in 1529, 12 years after he alleged got saved in 1517 by faith alone). Martin Luther came out of the Roman Catholic church, but the Roman Catholic church never came out of Martin Luther! Sadly, unless he repented of his counterfeit gospel on his death bed, Martin Luther is burning in the fires of Hell forever.

Dear friend, umpteen Bible colleges and thousands of churches today need to put the "alone" back in "faith alone."

Pastor Steven Anderson Exposes The Devil's Lie Of Lordship Salvation

I used to live in Chicago, for 34 years. When I left I left Chicago in 2004 with my family, [4]Rod Blagojevich had just become the governor of Illinois in 2003. I distinctly remember as if it were yesterday, that in 2002 Mr. Blagojevich promised while candidating for office that he would not raise anyone's taxes if elected. Well, the devil is a beautiful liar, as Eve learned in the Garden of Eden. Governor Blagojevich kept his promise, sort of. Instead of directly raising taxes, he started charging taxes on over 200 things which had never been taxed before!

For example: Prior to Blagojevich being elected to office in 2003, only the parts for auto repairs were taxed. But he changed the law so that from now on the labor to fix your vehicle is now also taxable. What a lying scumbag!!! In fact, Rod Blagojevich DID raise taxes, he just did it in a sneaky way. That is a classic demonic bait and switch tactic! To no surprise, Blagojevich was arrested and in 2012 sentenced to 14 years in prison for corruption in his office as governor. He served only 8 years and President Donald Trump commuted his sentence. He was released from prison in 2020.

What Governor Blagojevich did to raise taxes was extremely dishonest, breaking his campaign promise not to raise taxes. That is the same horrible type of deception that the serpent inflicted upon Eve. The serpent (Satan) promised Eve that if she disobeyed God, she would become as a god. Eve thought she would be like God, but in reality she only become a god in the sense that she could now make her own decisions concerning good and evil, and suffer the consequences. That is why we live in a fallen world today, where sickness, pain, suffering and death are everywhere (Romans 5:12).

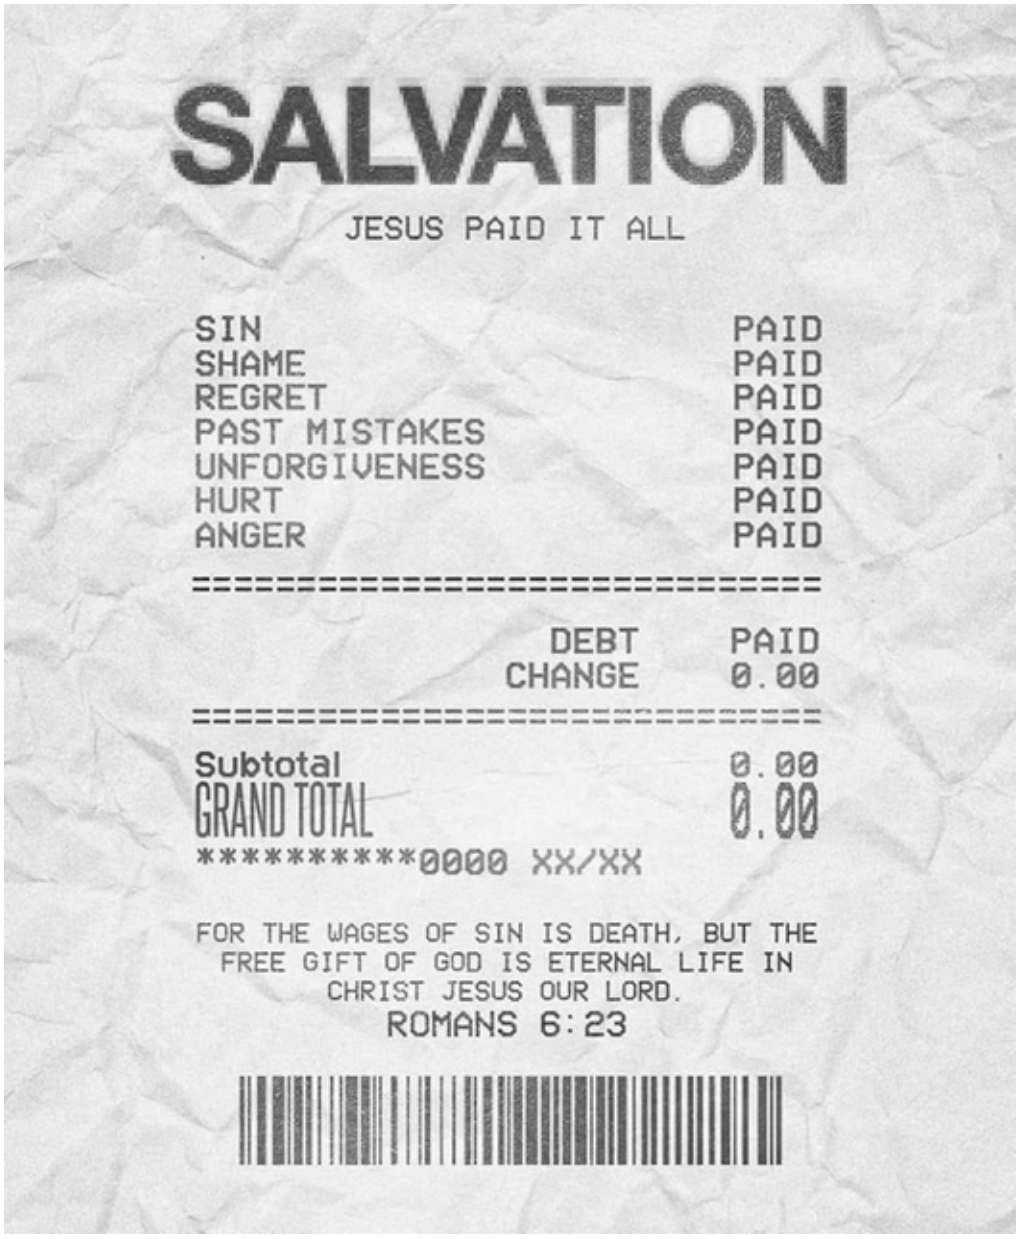
The proponents of Lordship Salvation are just as guilty and sneaky as the Devil and Mr. Blagojevich. Those who preach the lie of Lordship Salvation deceptively talk about being saved by faith alone, but then they sneak works in some other way (John 10:10), by adding them to faith on the backside. They sinfully teach that if your faith does not produce works, then your faith is invalid and you cannot go to Heaven. What they are actually doing is putting people under the law in order to be saved, which is another gospel (Galatians 1:6-9). Salvation is by faith alone, always has been and always will be. Those who falsely preach that we are saved by faith alone, but faith is never along (meaning it results in works), are preaching a counterfeit plan of salvation!

Salvation is not a reward for the righteous, it is a gift for the guilty!



Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

Turning away from sinful ways would be a work. Faith puts all of the merit where it belongs, on the object of our faith, Jesus and His work.

If to "repent" means to forsake our sinful ways TO BE SAVED, but Jesus already paid for our sins by dying on the cross, then what are we repenting from?

The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU.

We must stay true to the simplicity of the gospel!! Repentance regarding salvation is a change of mind from unbelief to belief!!! We must earnestly contend for the faith (Jude 1:3).

3.4.2 The Dangers Of A Christian Attending Secular College (2022-04-05 21:50)

Psalms 1:1 "Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.

But his delight is in the law of the LORD; and in his law doth he meditate day and night.

And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.

The ungodly are not so: but are like the chaff which the wind driveth away.

Jeremiah 10:2,

Thus saith the LORD, Learn not the way of the heathen, and be not dismayed at the signs of heaven; for the heathen are dismayed at them.

1st Corinthians5:6,

“Your glorying is not good. Know ye not that a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump?

The first big danger of attending a secular college is going into massive debt. Sadly, college has become the biggest rip-off in the United States!!! There are only two people who are willing to give a 17 year old kid a loan for $100,000—a loan shark or Sallie Mae (a college loan). ...

The American College Scam!!!

The second, and greatest danger I think, is the immoral conditions that plague America’s college today. Here is a disturbing article from The Standard, written by Preston Maithya about the epidemic of sexual immorality on college campuses across America today:

Sexual Immorality in our universities is here to stay

> Isn’t everyone perturbed by the high level of sexual immorality in our universities? Don’t blame it on the students’ failure to heed to their parents’ advice not to engage in premarital sex. They would like to, but unfortunately, they can’t. Blame it on the permissive and liberal environment in our campuses. The university set up provides a good pre-requisite for students to engage in unacceptable sexual activities. Though there are regulatory rules such as the ’Ten-to-Ten’ rule which allows male and female students to visit each other in the hostels starting from 10am but not after 10pm, enforcement of such rules is not effective. Not even such rules can bar these hot-blooded young men and lasses whose circulatory system is laden with oversupply of sex hormones from spending as much time as they want together. Even if it means skipping classes or even risking being suspended from the university!
> On joining campus, freshmen are taught such theories as the Abraham Maslow’s theory about the hierarchy of human needs where they get to learn that sex is a basic human need. This absolutely changes their perception of sex and sexuality. It dawns to them that by trying to abstain, they have only been punishing themselves by not fulfilling one of their basic human needs. They even get perplexed by the fact that they’ve been advised so many times by their pastors and parents not to satisfy this very vital need before marriage. They curse their primary and secondary school teachers for having ’lied’ to them that basic human needs comprise only food, clothing and shelter. They choose to believe what their learned professor taught them: sex is a basic need, just like food and clothing and it goes without saying then that a basic need ought to be satisfied for one to survive. And from the way university students are getting laid, you’d be forgiven for thinking that their survival depends on it. ...

Young people who decide to attend state university will subject themselves to a barrage of immorality, not only from the ungodly professors, but from their class peers.

If that hasn’t upset you yet, the following shocking article was just published on February 14, 2022 by the American Family Association (AFA)...

> New ’Sex Week’ on College Campuses Promotes Immorality
> With [2]many colleges across the country celebrating "Sex Week" ahead of Valentine’s Day, American Family Association, [3]afa.net, denounces this perversion of a [4]holiday recognizing Christian martyrs. The events planned at some colleges include "SEXtravaganza," "Freaky Friday: A Beginner’s Guide to Pleasure," "Genital Diversity Gallery" and "Condom Bingo."
>
> AFA Executive Vice President Ed Vitagliano rejected the introduction of this "progressive" trend, claiming that bringing this influence on campuses is wicked and life-destroying.
> "Christian parents must become super vigilant when it comes to choosing colleges and universities for their children. In many cases, the ’higher education’ that Christian students get is demonstrably wicked," said Vitagliano. "’Sex Week,’ for example, > instructs students in sexual perversions that will impact them for the rest of their lives. Moreover, these collegiate centers for secularistic and pagan propaganda are turning many Christian kids into just what you'd expect: woke young people who reject Jesus Christ and the authority of Scripture."

That is horrifying! Parents who enroll their youth into a state university are feeding their children to the WOLVES! The level of temptation is beyond comprehension in today's ungodly public and state universities. And for that matter, Bible colleges have sadly become a big scam as well...

[6]The Bible College Scam!

I was utterly disgusted by what I saw when I attended Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College. Pastor Jeff Redlin is a little man, with a small heart, selfish and abusive toward suffering people. When I told him I was sleeping in Walmart's parking lot, he coldly walked away. When I told him I was divorced and hoping to find a wife, he shamefully mistreat me, scolding me as a 54 year old man for hoping to find a wife at church. What a rotten person!

Lest you think it's just me who was abused at PCC, read about [7]Samantha Field, who was assaulted as a PCC student and the ungodly rotten college [8]staff sinfully told her to repent and let it go! This is the way academics handle difficult situations. There is not compassion, understanding or love, only covering their butts! Jeff Redlin ought to be fired and never permitted to stand behind any pulpit again. That wicked man is abusive and has no business leading Campus Church. But what do you expect from the people who did nothing after [9]Samantha Field was attacked and ravished at their so-called Bible college? SHAME on Pastor Jeff Redlin. SHAME on PCC for hiring him and sanctioning his abusive behavior!!! Please RUN young person from Pensacola Christian College!!! God's curse is upon Campus Church and PCC, but they are too blind, naked and wretched to realize it (Revelation 3:15-17).

All across America hundreds of thousands of college graduates today cannot find a decent job. They're fortunate if they can get a job as a manager of McDonald's! In the year 1900 only 5 % of Americans had a university degree. That number is 76 % today. May I say, what value is a college degree when everybody has one? Colleges have become a big money-making scam. Did you know that in Sweden college is free for everyone? In Tennessee, seniors can attend college for free. The [10]governor in 2020 started a new program that promises a free college education for any senior graduating in the state.

I think technical and trade schools are a much better pursuit for young people than heathen state universities. But you need to ask a lot of questions about the environment your child will be subjected to, the curriculum, et cetera. Many companies are starting their own colleges, training their own workers, which I think is much better than attending a secular state college. I am totally against any young person attending any college based on a big loan.

Pastor Marty Herron ruined the Harvest Baptist Church of Guam (preaching the Devil's Lordship Salvation), and is now the shameful theologically incompetent Executive Vice President of Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary in Ankeny, Iowa. To my understanding they charge about $30,000 a year for room/board and tuition! That's $120,000 for a 4-year degree!!! Over my dead body! Christian school? Ha. They are a den of thieves!!!

Christianity began in the Bible as a new birth. When it went to Greece it became a philosophy. When Christianity went to Rome it became an organization. When it spread throughout Europe it became a culture. But when Christianity came to America, it became a stinking BUSINESS!!! Truly, the love of money is the root of all evil. Bob Jones University (BJU) is a religious cult today, preaching Calvinism (aka, Lordship Salvation) and promoting Satan's corruptible seed (fake bibles). BJU is a money-making rip-off! Young people enroll believing the Bible is inspired, but then come out doubting that we have a perfect inspired Bible today! SHAME on Bob Jones and their complicity alumni.

Whether state university or Bible college, parents and young people need to count the cost before you pay the price. [11]Teen pregnancy is a big problem in the United States, but schools stopped caring long ago. I definitely think young people are infinitely better off attending a great Bible college like [12]Commonwealth Baptist College (they still believe the King James Bible is inspired); or a mediocre Bible College like [13]Crown College (they support Ken Ham, who preaches wrong repentance), than to attend the Devil's state colleges.

The Bible commands us as believers in Jeremiah 10:2 not to learn the way of the heathen. That is why I am generally okay with trade or technical school, because students are not being indoctrinated with atheism, humanism and evolution (as they are in state universities). They are learning a useful trade. If I could go back 40 years, I would go to culinary school to learn how to cook. Instead, I took truck and auto mechanics at Lincoln Tech. But due to the changes in technology, at least 90 % of my skills are obsolete today.

The same is true of Computer Science. Although C++ hasn't changed, just about everything else has. But once you learn to cook great meals, human tastebuds never change! Amen! I took up a trade to work my way through Bible college. But I paid the price for becoming a mechanic. All of those commercials for Lincoln Tech show young men with clean hands working on cars, but in reality you are covered from head-to-toe with dirt, grease and often bloodied hands from injuries! The commercials LIE to people! That is what Satan does, he lies!

Most of today's Bible colleges LIE to people, claiming to believe the Bible, but then they teach young people a bunch of LIES (like Lordship Salvation, turning from sin to be saved, fake bibles and Calvinism). If I had my way, I'd close down every Bible college in America that is not 100 % owned and controlled by a local New Testament church! That excludes Bob Jones University, Pensacola Christian College and Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary—all of which are privately owned!

Parents, if you love your child, do not enroll them into the Devil's college! Save your money. I am not an expert on college advice, but I am a Bible preacher. I would rather be as ignorant as a box of hair, and as uneducated as former war-criminal President George W. Bush, than to be an educated intellectual eating at the Devil's table in a state college. Acts 4:13, " Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus."

Countless millions of young people have pursued the love of money (a career), but lost their way at some point early in life because they were corrupted in a Devil's heathen state university. Young person, there is no substitute for HARD WORK! Just because you go to college doesn't guarantee you anything! The harder a person works, the luckier they get in life! Most people today don't apply themselves. [14]Many kids are failing in school.

The people who become the most successful in life [15]are often those who never attended college, or dropped out (Bill Gates, Steve Jobs, Quincy Jones, Russell Anderson, Tiger Woods, Brad Pitt, Mark Zuckerberg, Paul Newman, Steven Spielberg, et cetera). In today's failing economy in the United States, and the fierce competition in most professions, I think a lot of young people would be wise to consider starting their own business. There is always opportunities for those who look for them. I am a firm believer in young people pursuing their ambitions, and not give up on your dreams to do something that doesn't interest you. I'd rather live on a small income and fulfil my dreams (art, music, sports, whatever) than to make a lot of money and never have any time to enjoy what I love. Money should never be an issue when choosing your future career!!!

Sadly, parents today don't care about doctrinal integrity of the Bible colleges they send their children to, they are only interested in career information. PCC, BJU and Crown College are all training nurses now! It's a money-making racket!!! The bigger and more successful that Bible college and churches grow, the more ecumenical they ALWAYS become! Eventually they turn apostate! The University of Chicago, believe it or not, was started in the 18th century by a Baptist preacher to train young people to serve God. Today, UOG is a haven for homosexual teachers and students! ...

> 1st Timothy 6:6-12, "But godliness with contentment is great gain. For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out. And having food and raiment let us be therewith content. But they that will be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition. For the love of money is the root of all evil: which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows. But thou, O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness. Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses."

What saith the Scripture? Proverbs 3:5-7, " Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding.

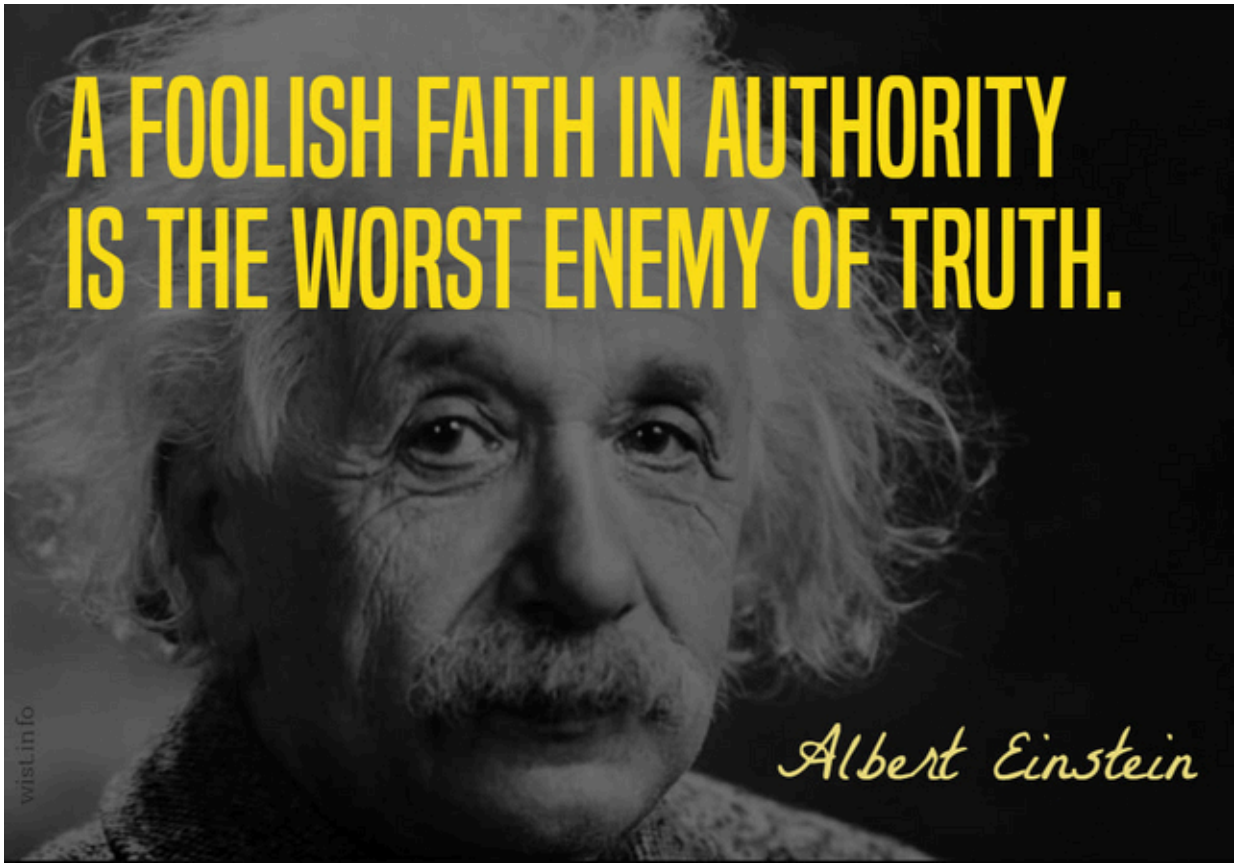
In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.

Be not wise in thine own eyes: fear the LORD, and depart from evil. " I am just a broken, humble and redeemed sinner. I certainly don't know everything. I have never regretted my decision to attend Hyles-Anderson College (1985-1993). I feel so blessed and privileged to have had that special opportunity. I love Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001). His enemies are still desperately looking for ways to discredit him and his ministry, 21 years after he went to Heaven to be with Jesus. Folks, Dr. Hyles was a sinner just like you and me, and he often admitted it. I heard Pastor Hyles often say that he didn't claim to be a good Christian, but he promised his people that he spent at least 20 hours each week walking with God in preparation of his sermons, and it showed in his preaching.



If you are considering which college to attend young person, talk with your pastor. I agree with Pastor Steven Anderson that churches, and not Bible colleges, should train men to go out into the ministry. Young ladies are supposed to get married, not pursue money-making careers (1st Timothy 5:14-15).

Also, I am 100 % against young women going into the military. Many commit the sin of fornication, adultery, get pregnant and some raped in the Armed Forces. Search the internet if you doubt what I say. However, once they have done so, I always support our troops (unless they go murder innocent people like they did in the Iraqi War). This is why I strongly discourage young people from enrolling in the military. You may be required to go murder innocent people, or face court-martial. You WILL be subjected to the foulest filthy language, perverse jokes and ungodly behavior imaginable. You WILL be screamed and yelled at by your drill instructor, who will use vulgarity beyond your imagination. I'm just giving you a heads-up. Is that what is best for a young Christian man? I think not.

I was required to register for Selective Service when I turned 18. The recruiter called my house and did everything in his power to get me to enlist in the military, but I told him I had already signed up for Bible college. He belittled me and said: "Don't you want to do something for your country?" I relied: "I am doing the greatest thing I can for my country, I am going to become a preacher!" By God's grace I did just that!!! I digress, this blog is about colleges and not the military, but my purpose in this article is to speak wisdom to young people and parents.

Kindly, I wouldn't expect carnally-minded parents and their children to understand the value of centering one's family around a local Bible-believing church, but that is the BEST thing any man could ever do for his loved ones. And I think whatever decisions that a young person makes in life should be based upon that line of thinking, and not how much money one can make, or how soon you can retire, or other shallow goals. If we focus on eternity, then there can be no greater choice than to lay down our life as a living sacrifice for God (Romans 12:1-2). It saddens me to see young people attend some rotten college (whether religious or secular) and never make an impact for God in eternity.

And then to make matters worse, now they are in exponential debt for the rest of their life. Meanwhile, Marty Herron in Iowa gets paid a 6-digit undeserved salary (well over $100,000 a year), milking families for every penny he can get at Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Cemetery. Herron promotes the Devil's bibles! Herron preaches another gospel, teaching that you cannot go to Heaven unless you turn away from a sinful lifestyle. That is damnable false doctrine! That is doctrines of devils!!! And yet foolish Moms and Dads pay them ridiculous amounts of money (millions of dollars) to corrupt their sons and daughters! God's judgment is looming over the United States, and I say the sooner the better.

1st Corinthians 5:1-5, "It is reported commonly that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not so much as named among the Gentiles, that one should have his father's wife. And ye are puffed up, and have not rather mourned, that he that hath done this deed might be taken away from among you. For I verily, as absent in body, but present in spirit, have judged already, as though I were present, concerning him that hath so done this deed, In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, when ye are gathered together, and my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ, To deliver such an one unto Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus."

It saddens me when I keep hearing Baptist preachers promote the [1]Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation. Sadly, Pastor Keith Gomez of the Northwest Baptist Bible Church in Elgin, Illinois is a false prophet! Pastor Gomez combines sanctification with justification, corrupting the Word of Truth and casting stumbling blocks before the people. [2]On their church website, Pastor Gomez requires lost sinners to "turn from your sin" to be saved. But they don't explain what that means. I triple-dog dare you to show me anywhere in the Bible where it teaches to "turn from your sin" or "repent of your sin." You cannot! But I can show you Hebrews 6:1 where it teaches to repent from "DEAD WORKS." That is, both good and bad works that have been hindering you from doing the one thing that determines salvation, which is TO BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST (Acts 16:30-31).

It was Pilgrim's Progress author John Bunyan who made this excellent observation:

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." —John Bunyan (1628-1688)

I couldn't have said it any better. What Pastor Gomez is doing is mixing justification with sanctification, which is another gospel. Read these helpful true words by Pastor M.R. DeHaan (1891-1965):

> "There is a vast difference between coming to Jesus for salvation and coming after Jesus for service. Coming to Christ makes one a believer, while coming after Christ makes one a disciple. All believers are not disciples. To become a believer one accepts the invitation of the Gospel, to be a disciple one obeys the challenge to a life of dedicated service and separation. Salvation comes through the sacrifice of Christ; discipleship comes only by sacrifice of self and surrender to His call for devoted service. Salvation is free, but discipleship involves paying the price of a separated walk. Salvation can't be lost because it depends upon God's faithfulness, but discipleship can be lost because it depends upon our faithfulness." DeHaan, M. R. Hebrews. Zondervan Publishing House, 1959 (p. 117).

Keith Gomez is preaching the same theological garbage as [3]Chuck Phelps, [4]Steve Pettit, [5]Marty Herron and the [6]whole rotten Bob Jones University cult today! RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!

It sickened me when I attended Pensacola Christian College's Campus Church for the summer of 2021. I heard false teaching. Pastor Timothy Zacharias and Jeff Redlin falsely teach, and I quote: "Repentance is a change of mind resulting in a change of behavior." No, that is a doctrine of devils. Repentance unto life has nothing to do with behavior modification. Although it is Biblically true that when a person gets saved there will be some form of inward change, those changes may or may not be noticeable in their outward behavior.

If you listened to the sermon clip by Pastor Gomez, then you heard him condemning teenagers who live worldly lives, saying that their faith is dead and they are not saved. That is false doctrine!!! Evangelist John R. Rice (1895-1980) was asked that very same question. In Dr.

Rice's book titled: Dr. Rice... Here Are More Questions , he beautifully refutes the heresy of Lordship Salvation

> "We have young folks in our church who are supposed to be saved and who giggle and whisper all during church services and who say they 'just hate' church and 'can't stand' to listen to our pastor preach. They attend movies and worldly amusements. I feel that as pastors and Sunday school teachers we do not warn those enough who think they are saved but are not born again. Shouldn't we plead with them to go to the alter again?"

The following is Dr. Rice's response to the preceding question:

> "Being saved, born again, is one thing; learning to live a consecrated Christian life is an entirely different thing. There is not any way you can judge whether people are born again except as you take their testimony that they have put their trust in Jesus Christ and depended on Him for salvation. Some of these young people indeed may not have been taught to trust in Christ. If they were looking for "an experience," a certain kind of feeling or emotion, then they may have been misled. But if they honestly turned their hearts to Christ and depended on Him for salvation, they were saved.
> Now a Christian should live a consecrated Christian life but that does not automatically follow. People who are saved will find, like Paul, "When I would do good, evil is present with me . . . . So then with the mind I myself serve the law of God; but with the flesh the law of sin" (Romans 7:21, 25).
> Every saved person still has the old carnal nature and often-times has the same kind of temptation he had before. Some people who have truly been born again have a desperate fight to quit tobacco, and some have never seemed to get the victory over that or other bad habits. Some Christians have never learned to trust the Lord enough to bring tithes and offerings, and some have never learned to win > souls. When a baby is born, he is not born grown. Being born is one thing; growing is another thing entirely.

> So the thing to do is to take for granted that people are saved when they trust Christ for salvation. Then one should set out to teach them to read the Bible daily, to learn to pray about their daily needs, to confess their sins and failures and grow in grace day by day. It is as foolish to expect young Christians to be good Christians by themselves as it is to expect a child, born in the family, to automatically be a great credit to the family without any rearing—whether they are spiritual babes or physical babes. I assure you that unless people are taught to be consecrated Christians, taught to read the Bible and pray, they are not likely to be good Christians, even if they are truly born again. [emphasis added]

That is something very different than what Pastor Keith Gomez is heretically preaching. Kindly said, Keith Gomez is an ignorant fool. He is theologically incompetent! What Gomez is preaching is balderdash, tommyrot, flapdoodle, claptrap, poppycock and blahblah. Keith Gomez is a Hyles-Anderson College graduate, as I am; but we espouse two very different plans of salvation. What I preach is in 100 % agreement with [7]what Pastor Jack Hyles taught, but what Keith Gomez is preaching is the same crap that Dr. John MacArthur teaches!

> Being saved, born again, is one thing; learning to live a consecrated Christian life is an entirely different thing.

A changed life comes from growing in grace as a result of having the indwelling Holy Spirit, and not as a part of saving-faith itself. Salvation is receiving, not giving. Salvation is receiving, not achieving. Repentance has NOTHING to do with a changed life. Repentance is simply a change of mind from unbelief to belief. Eternal life is a gift. You simply take it by faith.

Pastor Ray Stanford (1916-2012) wisely said:

> “Salvation becomes ours when we trust Christ to SAVE us. Effective service is ours through OBEDIENCE. Salvation primarily involves the spirit and our eternal destiny; it is a gift (John 5:24). Service involves the body and our present earthly life; it is labor for which rewards are given (Romans 12:1, 2; I Corinthians 3:8-15; Luke 10:2).” Pastor Ray Stanford, [8]Personal Handbook Of Evangelism, chapter 7 - Lordship Salvation

Amen! Salvation is not a reward for the righteous, it is a gift for the guilty!

Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ’s best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

Turning away from sinful ways would be a work. Faith puts all of the merit where it belongs, on the object of our faith, Jesus and His work.

If to “repent” means to forsake our sinful ways TO BE SAVED, but Jesus already paid for our sins by dying on the cross, then what are we repenting from?

The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU.

We must stay true to the simplicity of the Gospel!! Repentance regarding salvation is a change of mind from unbelief to belief!!! We must earnestly contend for the faith (Jude 1:3).

I did not write this blog to criticize Pastor Keith Gomez; but rather, to earnestly contend for the Christian faith.

Titus 1:10-14 commands believers to REBUKE THEM SHARPLY who subvert whole households, that they might be sound in the faith. Tragically, we’ve got a bunch of sinfully proud and arrogant preachers today, who refuse to humble themselves to heed THE TRUTH.

I have been preaching against the corrupt Bob Jones camp for the past 8 years, but they refuse to listen to repent of their false teachings. What saith the Scripture? Romans 3:4, “God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged.” What I am preaching agrees with the inspired King James Bible. But what Pastor Gomez is preaching does not agree with the Word of God.

The issue arises over the proper interpretation of James 2:17-18, “

Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being alone.

Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith without thy works, and I will shew thee my faith by my works.” Carefully notice that the Apostle James said

and I will

James is talking about justification in the sight of men, not God. In the Epistle of Romans Paul talks about justification in the sight of God, which is by faith alone WITHOUT WORKS...

> Romans 4:4-7, “
>
> Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt. But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.
>

Please take careful notice of those beautiful words: “ WITHOUT WORKS

” !!! So why oh why do foolish preachers (e.g., Keith Gomez, Bob Jones University, Pensacola Christian College and other infidels) corrupt God’s Words by ADDING works to faith. I am so tired of ignorant preachers citing the Epistle of James in an effort to ADD works to faith. They say stupid things like:

"We are saved by faith alone without works, but real faith works!" Huh? Folks, that is a form of theological insanity! We've got a bunch of theological schizophrenic preachers today!!! We've got a bunch of clowns in the pulpit, telling people to push and pull at the same time.

The garbage that these preachers are teaching today is against the plain and simple teaching of the Holy Scriptures. Proverbs 21:30, "

There is no wisdom nor understanding nor counsel against the LORD.

A changed life is a matter of growth in grace, of sanctification (John 17:17); and not of getting saved, which is a legal matter of justification by faith alone. The next two Scripture passages clearly confirm that Paul and James are writing about two very different things in their epistles:

> JUSTIFICATION IN GOD'S SIGHT = Romans 3:28, "Therefore we conclude that a man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law."

> JUSTIFICATION IN MAN'S SIGHT = James 2:24, "Ye see then how that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only."

We've got a bunch of dumb dumb preachers today, who do not know how to rightly divide the Word of truth. So, like Marty Herron and Steve Pettit, two infidels of the faith, they go around preaching a counterfeit gospel that cannot produce the new birth by God's Holy Spirit. Consequently, these wicked men, their families and all who follow their false teachings are already damned to the everlasting Lake of Fire. John 3:36, " He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him."

Unless you are wholly trusting (relying upon) Jesus Christ (because of what He did on the cross to pay for your sins, that is, the Gospel , or Good News), apart from all else, you are not saved. Religion is not salvation! The church cannot save you. The baptistery cannot save you. The sacraments cannot save you. Turning away from your sin (keeping the law) cannot save you. You must CEASE from all of your human efforts (works), and wholly REST in the finished redemptive work of Jesus Christ (Hebrews 4:10-11). To be saved you simply must BELIEVE that Jesus did it for you!

3.4.4 The Sad Damnable Legacy Of Billy Graham (2022-04-12 11:14)

John 20:30-31, "And many other signs truly did Jesus in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book: But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name." Acts 16:30-31, "And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house."

Yesterday I became curious what would appear on Google if I searched how to go to Heaven. So on my mobile phone I typed "How to go to Heaven" in Google. The first website that appeared was the Billy Graham Evangelistic Crusade. I was saddened when I read their false plan of salvation. Here is a quote from their website:

> HOW TO GO TO HEAVEN
> We can't earn salvation; we are saved by God's grace when we have faith in His Son, Jesus Christ. All you have to do is believe you are a sinner, that Christ died for your sins, and ask His forgiveness. Then turn from your sins—that's called repentance. Jesus Christ knows you and loves you. What matters to Him is the attitude of your heart, your honesty. We suggest praying the following prayer to accept Christ as your Savior:
>
> "Dear God, I know I'm a sinner, and I ask for your forgiveness. I believe Jesus Christ is Your Son. I believe that He died for my sin and that you raised Him to life. I want to trust Him as my Savior and follow Him as Lord, from this day forward. Guide my life and help me to do your will. I pray this in the name of Jesus. Amen."

What you have just read is another gospel, not what the Bible teaches. Nowhere in the inspired Scriptures (if you have a trustworthy King James Bible) are we taught to "turn from your sins" to be saved. This is a work! Turning away from sinning is in fact, keeping the law. What saith the Scripture? Romans 3:19-20, "Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God. Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin."

The only purpose of God's Old Testament law in salvation is to give mankind THE KNOWLEDGE OF SIN.

The Apostle Paul also said in Romans 7:13, "Was then that which is good made death unto me? God forbid. But sin, that it might appear sin, working death in me by that which is good; that sin by the commandment might become exceeding sinful." You see dear reader, the law was given to man by God, not so that we can try to keep it to get to Heaven, but to show us we are all guilty sinners in the sight of a holy God. Then the law brings us to Christ to be saved by God's grace through faith alone. Galatians 3:24-26, "Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith. But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster. For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus."

It is tragic that Billy Graham and his family who are still continuing his corrupt ministry, have added to the Gospel, requiring that people keep the law to be saved. Billy Graham preached the heresy of Lordship Salvation, which requires more than faith alone to get to Heaven. In addition, Billy Graham and his followers are all propagating the same heretical junk theology of the accursed Southern Baptist Convention (SBC), [2]whose official Statement of Faith errantly teaches that to be saved you must commit your entire personality to Him as both Lord and Savior. That is FALSE! When the Roman jailor asked Paul and Silas what he must do to be saved, the simple answer was to BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST. Paul and Silas didn't tell the man to commit anything to God. They didn't tell him to turn from his sins. They didn't tell him to surrender all to Christ as Lord. They simply told him to BELIEVE.

So you see, when some wicked false preacher tells you that to go to Heaven you must "repent and turn from your sins," he is lying to you! Repentance is a change of mind from unbelief to belief; that's it, that's all, no more! We've got a bunch of lying preachers today! I am talking about Jeff Redlin and Timothy Zacharias of Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College (PCC), who falsely teach in their Foundation's Class for all new church members, and I quote: "Repentance is a change of mind resulting in a change of behavior." The Bible doesn't teach that repentance results in anything except BELIEVING ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST to be saved, period, end of story.

Anyone who teaches that true repentance will result in a change of behavior is preaching another Gospel. It is the Holy Spirit through the Word of God that sanctifies a person (John 17:17; 1st Peter 2:2), but only if that person yields to the Holy Spirit (Romans 12:1-2; 2nd Corinthians 10:5-6). Many believers don't yield to God's indwelling Holy Spirit, and so they continue to live carnal lives of horrible sin (like Lot, Samson and Solomon).

This truth is also evidenced by the sexually immoral Christian man in 1st Corinthians 5:1-5. The Bible says that if he refused to repent of his sins (as a believer), then he would still "be saved in the Day of the Lord Jesus" (1st Corinthians 5:5b). This proves that Lordship Salvation is untrue, because if a man must surrender to Christ as both Savior AND LORD to be saved, then this man could never have been saved at all. And, again in 1st Corinthians 3:15b we see a man who lost all his rewards in Heaven because of sin " saved; yet so as by fire.

" He barely escaped the fires of Hell!

1st Corinthians 3:15, " If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire." Lordship Salvation makes the fatal error of mixing and combining sanctification with justification.

Pilgrim's Progress author, John Bunyan, said it best I think:

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide > the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." —John Bunyan (1628-1688)

We rarely hear any distinction between sanctification and justification anymore in today's apostate pulpits. Instead, all we hear is that you cannot go to Heaven unless you "

turn from your sins

" or "make full surrender to Christ as 'Lord"' or "give your life to Christ" or "follow Jesus as 'Lord' from now on." You may do all these things and yet never have been born-again at all. Jesus said that to be saved " YE MUST BE BORN AGAIN

Billy Graham (1918-2018) was a gifted orator, a kind man and beloved by millions of people. Unfortunately, he also did more than anyone to sinfully yoke believers together with unbelievers in the damned Roman Catholic religion. You cannot get to Heaven through the sacramental salvation of the accursed Catholic church. The Bible is very plain in Acts 16:30b-31, "Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house."

You get saved by putting your childlike faith (reliance, confidence) in the Lord Jesus Christ, believing that He did it all for you on the cross. Christ died for your sins, He was buried and three days later He physically resurrected from the dead. Those THREE THINGS are the Gospel (i.e., the Good News) by which we are saved, IF we believe it (Romans 1:16). I am so tired of hearing preachers today just tell people to believe that Christ died for their sins, and there is no mention of His bodily resurrection from the dead. To be saved you absolutely must believe that Jesus raised up from the dead.

Just in case you think I am barking up an empty tree here, consider that [3]statistically 25 % of all professed Christians in Europe today deny that Jesus bodily resurrected from the dead. Here is a [4]wacky church that falsely says Jesus didn't die on the cross for our sins! Need I say more? So you see, it is of the utmost importance that preachers always mention Christ's death on the cross, burial and bodily resurrection. Here is the official website of the accursed Jehovah's Witnesses, [5]who deny that Jesus ressurected physically from the dead. They claim that He only raised up in Spirit. Dear friend, JESUS RESURRECTED PHYSICALLY FROM THE DEAD. The Bible plainly says:

> 1st Corinthians 15:4-6, "And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures: And that he was seen of Cephas, then of the twelve: After that, he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once; of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep."

Now, I may not be that smart, but I know that you cannot see a spirit. As we just read, Jesus (after He raised up from the dead) was SEEN by over 500 saints at one time! Wow! I believe Christ appeared to thousands of saints after he physically resurrected from the dead. Also, we read in Acts 1:9-11...

> Acts 1:9-11, "And when he had spoken these things, while they beheld, he was taken up; and a cloud received him out of their sight. And while they looked stedfastly toward heaven as he went up, behold, two men stood by them in white apparel; Which also said, Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? this same Jesus, which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven."

As I just showed you, FIVE TIMES in Acts 1:9-11 we are told that the apostles SAW Jesus in His physical form, ascending up into Heaven. Clearly, Jesus did physically, and not just in Spirit, raise up from the dead.

Billy Graham is a theological liar! According to his website, the Billy Graham Evangelistic Crusade falsely says:

"I want to trust Him as my Savior and follow Him as Lord, from this day forward.

Guide my life and help me to do your will.

I pray this in the name of Jesus. Amen."

SOURCE: [6]https://peacewithgod.net/how-to-go-to-heaven/

Nowhere in the Holy Bible are we told to "follow Him as Lord, from this day forward" to be saved. Those lies cannot produce the new birth in Jesus Christ. It is so tragic that the first website to appear, when I searched Google for how to go to Heaven, is Billy Graham's damnable false plan of salvation. Just as the Bible says in Romans 3:20, no flesh will be justified in God's sight by keeping the works of the law.

Like all lying false prophets, Billy Graham starts of by saying that salvation is not by works, but then totally contradicts himself by requiring you to keep the law to be saved. Salvation cannot be by both folks! You either get saved by faith alone without works; or else you must turn from sin (keep the law) in addition to faith to be saved. One or both of these plans of salvation may be false, but they absolutely cannot both be true!!!

It is tragic that Mr. Graham leaves behind a legacy of doing works for a salvation which he claims is not earned by works. It makes no sense! Lordship Salvation is a sick form of theological schizophrenia. While they incessantly insist that salvation is without works, they incessantly require that you do works (turn away from your sinful living) to be saved. That cannot be a free gift. The Bible teaches that eternal life is the free gift of God (Romans 5:15-18, 6:23; Ephesians 2:8-9). A "gift" by every definition of the word is something which is received without obligation or compensation. ...

Paul Washer Exposed: Repent Of Your Sins False Gospel Refuted

There is no threat as dangerous today to the Gospel as the “ repent of your sins

heresy in churches and Bible colleges today. Evangelist Ken Ham is guilty of preaching another gospel. Sadly, Pastor Clarence Sexton, Crown College and Temple Baptist Church in Powell, Tennessee sinfully bid Ken Ham Godspeed. Something is very wrong with today’s pastors, who don’t stand against error, false doctrine or false prophets anymore. Does Clarence Sexton stand against anything anymore? Pastor Sexton foolishly stands against King James Bible only preachers, while at the same time endorsing repent of your sin heretics! Go figure!

Anyone who endorses Billy Graham has doctrinal issues! Mr. Graham went to Hell to burn forever, rotting with his “ repent of your sins

garbage. You cannot show me even one verse in the Bible, where someone was told to repent of their sins to be saved. I can show you in Matthew 27:3 where Judas repented for the sins he had committed, but Judas still went to Hell forever in his sins. You don’t turn from your sins to be forgiven of your sins, you REST completely in what Jesus Christ has already done for you through Calvary’s cross. Acts 10:43,

“To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins.” ALL the prophets gave witness through their preaching, that faith in Christ is the only way of salvation. There was no mention or requirement to follow Christ as supreme “ turn away from sins or anything else!!!

3.4.5 Ungodly Men Crept In Unawares (2022-04-14 11:54)

Jude 1:4, "For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ."

For most of my Christian life I never quoted the following passages together, I saw them as separate passages. But in recent years it occurred to me that Matthew 7:13-15 and Matthew 7:21-23 are absolutely connected. This whole passage should be interpreted together as one:

> Matthew 7:13-23 "Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat: Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it. Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. Ye shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit. A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit. Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire. Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them. Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity."

The dear Savior warned us about false prophets, dangerous wolves who come to us in unsuspecting sheep's clothing, who can be known by their fruits. This passage is very often misunderstood. Different people have different ideas of what is meant by

"fruit.

" It is abundantly clear to me that the only logical conclusion of the meaning of here must be BELIEVING ON JESUS and nothing else. That is what the blessed Savior said in verse 21,

"fruit"

"Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. " We find the will of the Father in John 6:40,

"And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day." The "fruit" which Jesus spoke of is their doctrine.

Further evidence of what I say is found in 1st John 4:1, "

Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world.

” The only way that we can

(or test) the spirits is with the inspired written Word of God. Everything that man produces (books, sermons, music, art, movies, blogs, et cetera) has a spirit underlying it. We are commanded by God to weigh everything against the Holy Scriptures, and to bring every thought into submission to Christ (2nd Corinthians 10:5-6).

By the way, the reason why I always use the word

“inspired” when mentioning the King James Bible is simply because there are many preachers today who deny that we have a perfect inspired Bible. For example: The entire [1]Bob Jones University crowd deny that we have an inspired Bible today. Sadly, even my own [2]Hyles-Anderson College camp deny (since 2008) that we have an inspired Bible today. Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) believed and taught that the King James Bible is inspired!!! You can hear Brother Hyles say this for himself in this wonderful sermon called: ’[3]The Real Battle.’

The inspired King James Bible says in Jude 1:4, “For there are certain men crept in unawares ...ungodly men ...denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ.”

At first glance this verse would seem to exclude Roman Catholics, Jehovah’s Witnesses, Church of Church, Mormons, proponents of Lordship Salvation and other cults; however, by perverting the grace of God they are essentially denying Jesus Christ. That is why in Matthew 7:22-23 we find Christ denying a group of false prophets. They attempted to defend themselves. They boasted of having done “many wonderful works.” They did these works for Jesus! They boasted of having **“

prophesied

in thy name.

” That is, they preached everywhere they went in the precious name of Jesus.

But the Word of God calls them “ ungodly. ” Jude 1:4, “For there are certain men crept in unawares ...ungodly men ...denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ.” By embellishing the Gospel, adding requirements that God does not require, they denied the Lord Jesus Christ. Only those who wholly trust the Lamb of God are saved. Partial faith in Christ plus turning away from your sins cannot produce the new birth. That is a completely different mindset than BELIEVING ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST (Acts 16:30-31).

While attending the ungodly Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, I heard their senior pastor, Marty Herron, say (and I quote):

“It is not enough to admit that you are a sinner, you must forsake a lifestyle of sin to go to Heaven.” That is putting people under the law! To require someone to turn away from sinful behavior to be saved is to put them under the law of God. What saith the Scripture? Romans 3:19-20, “

Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God.

Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin.

The purpose of God’s law (i.e., the Ten Commandments) is to give mankind THE KNOWLEDGE OF SIN. The apostle Paul said in Romans 7:13 that “sin by the commandment might become exceeding sinful.” God’s Old Testament law (all the “

Thou shalt not

” commandments) remove any argument or controversy about the guilt and awfulness of sin. We know that murder is a sin. We know that adultery is a sin. We know that covetousness is a sin. We know that bearing false witness is a sin. We know that bowing down or worshipping graven images is a sin. We KNOW this because the Bible teaches that these horrible actions are sinful. The Bible gives us these helpful words:

> Galatians 3:24-26, “Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith. But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster. For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.”

The preceding Scripture passage explains everything perfectly! The law is a school teacher, which shows us that we are guilty sinners, incapable of saving ourselves. The law then brings us to Christ to be saved by grace through faith. I hope you can now see what is so horribly wrong about Lordship Salvation, and the false teaching that a person must turn away from sinful behavior to get to Heaven.

is the false doctrine that says faith is not enough to be saved; but in addition, you must surrender your entire personality to Christ as of your life, and be willing to follow and obey Him for the rest of your life. This heresy is usually combined with the

“

turn away from your sin

” heresy to be saved, but not always. That is why I make a distinction between the two falsehoods. In his excellent book titled: “

Enemies Of Soulwinning,”

Pastor Jack Hyles exposes both of these heresies separately, and also the Devil’s counterfeit bibles:

- [4]Misunderstood Repentance: An Enemy Of Soulwinning
- [5]Lordship Salvation: An Enemy Of Soulwinning
- [6]False Bibles: An Enemy Of Soulwinning

I am horrified that I’d say at least 95 % of all Baptist churches today have been infected with these deadly falsehoods. It is so sad. The problem is our sinful human bad habits and nature. People naturally go by what they hear. That is why the Bible commands us as God’s children not to listen to gossip, not to repeat gossip and not to allow gossip to cause us to hurt other people. In the book of Proverbs we find the word “tongue” mentioned 19 times. Proverbs 15:2, “The tongue of the wise useth knowledge aright: but the mouth of fools poureth out foolishness.” King Solomon said much about the dangers of gossip, destroying friendships with gossip, destroying one’s neighbour with gossip, and of being a wicked talebearer!

Sadly, Pastor Jeff Redlin of Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College read some wicked slander about me on the internet in 2021 and sinfully assumed it was true. That ungodly hypocrite ought to be fired as their pastor! Jeff Redlin is a wicked man who woefully lacks God’s compassion for hurting people. With his unkind and cruel words, Pastor Redlin compelled me to leave Campus Church. No man who mistreats hurting people has any business being a pastor of a church. Campus Church is a disgrace to the cause of Jesus Christ! It is my humble prayer and hope that God will humble Jeff Redlin, remove him as the pastor of Campus Church, and cause him to suffer greatly that he would be in my shoes so he would understand. That wicked man is proud, arrogant and thinks he is better than others. I speak that to [7]the utter shame of Pensacola Christian College for tolerating his abuse. Jeff Redlin is an ungodly man crept in unawares!

I heard a local Baptist pastor recently praising Billy Graham (1918-2018), saying that Mr. Graham led millions of people to Jesus Christ. That is simply untrue! [8]Billy Graham corrupted the Word of God and cast stumbling blocks before the people, by not keeping sanctification separate from justification. According to Mr. Graham, faith was not enough to go to Heaven. In addition, Graham taught that a person must “ count the cost and pay

of turning away from their sinful behavior, and follow Christ faithfully. That is NOT the Gospel of free grace, not even in the ballpark!

Dear reader, I feel like the lone ranger nowadays! All I see are wicked ungodly pastors (e.g., Marty Herron, Gary Walton, Sean Quinlan, John MacArthur, Steve Pettit, Chuck Phelps, Jeff Redlin, Timothy Zacharias, et cetera) who don’t care about THE TRUTH! I have personally warned many of these men, but they turned a deaf ear to THE TRUTH. Romans 3:4, “God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged.” I am preaching a free grace Gospel. Marty Herron, Gary Walton, Chuck Phelps, Steve Pettit are NOT preaching the Gospel, they are sinfully preaching the Devil's LIE of Lordship Salvation and wrong repentance! Those crooked men do not walk straight!!! They are ungodly men crept in unawares! All of the aforementioned shameful names are affiliated with Bob Jones University (BJU).

Tragically, the Pensacola Christian College (PCC) camp wickedly bid Godspeed to BJU. In July of 2021 Pastor Jeff Redlin of Campus Church sinfully rebuked me for preaching against the Bob Jones crowd. I was disgusted and still am at Mr. Redlin, for being partaker of their evil deeds at BJU. 2nd John 1:11, " For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds. " Jeff Redlin bared false witness against me in the summer of 2021 at Campus Church, wrongly accusing me of "

in the Bob Jones crowd. In truth, I am faithfully [9]exposing them for preaching another gospel, REBUKING THEM SHARPLY as Titus 1:9-14 commands, that they might be sound in the faith. Sadly, neither the BJU or PCC camp are listening, they just keep hating and ostracizing me for TELLING THE TRUTH! God is on my side because I am on His side (Romans 3:4).

As I mentioned earlier, the problem is our sinful human nature. People (including preachers) tend to avoid any conflict, controversy or anything unpleasant. That is why shameful PCC pastor pastor, Sean Quinlan, scolded me for my zeal against the Devil's corrupt modern per-versions of God's Word. Pastor Quinlan (in 2018 at the Lighthouse Baptist Church on Guam) sinfully and shamefully called me " obsessed over the Bible.

What an ungodly thing to say! Psalms 119:139-140, "My zeal hath consumed me, because mine enemies have forgotten thy words.

Thy word is very pure: therefore thy servant loveth it. " Something is very WRONG with a pastor who rebukes someone for their zeal over God's Word. Sean Quinlan is an ungodly man crept in unawares

. Pastor Quinlan quit in 2018 and went back to work at PCC in Florida. Sadly, he hurt a bunch of people at the Lighthouse Baptist Church on Guam, who are still struggling to this day because of his foolish lack of good sense. Jeff Redlin is no better, sinfully bidding Godspeed to the infidel BJU camp. SHAME on PCC and their ungodly pastors crept in unawares. Jeff Redlin must go! Tim Zacharias must go! Sean Quinan must go! Birds of a feather flock together!!! These are wicked parasites, mooching off of Christendom for their own belly's sake (Romans 16:17-18).

True evil lies in willful ignorance as much as deliberate intention. The opposite of love is not hate, it is indifference, the kind of hateful indifference found plaguing the Pensacola Christian College (PCC) camp today. I came to Campus Church in July of 2021 with a spirit of love, compassion and a desire to be a blessing to PCC and Campus Church any way that I could. God knows that I speak THE TRUTH! But that ungodly person Pastor Jeff Redlin was cold, calloused, insulting, rude, injurious, uncaring and mean. When I told him that I was divorced and that after 16 years I hoped to find a wife, he shamefully scolded me for coming to church to find a wife. I never told him this was the only reason I came to church. I couldn't believe how childish and immature he is, in charge of a megachurch with over 10,000 members. So sad!

Then, right in front of his wife, Redlin told me that if I did find a woman to marry, he wouldn't perform the wedding. This is a horrible pastor who had only known me for two weeks of his entire life! Who talks to strangers like that? Pastor Redlin woefully lacks compassion for people! He certainly has zero people skills. Then, after finding my website ministry (which I didn't tell him about), he wrongfully accused me of finding weaknesses in preachers. I kindly rebuked him back, for sinfully bidding Godspeed to the Lordship Salvation, Calvinism and Devil's bibles promoted by the Bob Jones University camp today! Somebody needs to preach with the authority of God's Word against ungodly men crept in unawares!!!

It is uncaring and foolish pastors like Jeff Redlin and Sean Quinlan, who both rebuked me for contending for the Christian faith, why America is going to Hell in a wheelbarrow today!!! These are ungodly men crept in unawares, partaker of the evil deeds of the Bob Jones cult who deny salvation by faith alone in Jesus Christ. As I have showed you (read here again for yourself), Bob Jones University today requires that you turn away from your sinning to be saved.

> With regard to the doctrine of Soteriology:
> We believe Scripture teaches that salvation is by grace alone, through faith alone, in Christ alone (Eph. 2:4–10; Rom. 3:21–26; Titus 3:5) and apart from any human work of righteousness (Phil. 3:9). God offers this salvation freely to all men who are willing to repent and turn from their sins (Acts 3:19, 17:30) and place their full faith and trust in the atonement Christ made by His finished work on the Cross (Luke 24:46–48, Heb. 9:11–15, 10:10–14). [emphasis added]
> SOURCE: [10]BJU Statements of Faith

Not one verse in the inspired King James Bible teaches to repent "of your sins" to be saved. When the thief on the cross wanted to be saved, He simply asked Jesus to "remember me" (Luke 23:42). It was his faith in Jesus that saved him, nothing more. When the Roman jailor asked Paul and Silas how to be saved, they simply told him to: "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ" (Acts 16:30-31). They didn't require the man to turn away from his sins. They didn't require the jailor to surrender all to Christ as "Lord" and faithfully follow Him from now on. Paul and Silas didn't tell the man to "count the cost and pay the price." Jesus paid the price in full with His precious blood, so we don't need to pay for anything.

Here is Evangelist Billy Graham's damnable counterfeit plan of salvation:

> How To Be Sure You're Saved
>
> First, you must recognize your need.
>
> Second, you must understand the cross.
>
> Third, you must count the cost.
>
> He also said, "Which of you, intending to build a tower, does not sit down first and count the cost? … So likewise, whoever of you does not forsake all that he has cannot be My disciple" (Luke 14:28, 33).
> Many people come to Christ without first counting the cost. The cost includes repentance, the forsaking of sin, and a continual, daily, open acknowledgment of Christ in your life*.

Fourth, you must take a definite step.

One day at Stanford University, a student of a non-Christian faith came to me and said he was convinced that Jesus is the Son of God but said he couldn't confess Him publicly. He said that back in his own country the cost socially would be too great.

I had to tell him that the Bible says: "Whoever confesses Me before men, him I will also confess before My Father who is in heaven. But whoever denies Me before men, him I will also deny before My Father who is in heaven" (Matthew 10:32-33).

Like the rich young ruler of old, the student went away sad. He had counted the cost and was not able to pay the price of open acknowledgment of Jesus Christ as his Savior.

We ask people to make a public confession of Christ in our meetings because Christ demanded a definite commitment. Christ had reasons for demanding that people openly follow Him. He knew that an unwitnessed vow is no vow at all. Until you have surrendered to Christ by a definite act of your will, you are not a Christian. [emphasis added]

Let me repeat what Billy Graham heretically said:

"The cost includes repentance, the forsaking of sin, and a continual, daily, open acknowledgment of Christ in your life." [emphasis added]

Dear friend, there is NO COST to you or me in God's simple plan of salvation. Jesus paid for OUR SINS with His blood. What saith the Scripture? 1st Peter 1:18-19, "Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers; But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot:" Dear reader, when any preacher like Billy Graham comes along, preaching that getting saved to go to Heaven will COST YOU SOMETHING, he is preaching another gospel. The Bible says Christ made the full payment for our sins, by His sacrifice on the cross of Calvary.

Salvation is not a reward for the righteous, it is a gift for the guilty!

Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

Turning away from sinful ways would be a work. Faith puts all of the merit where it belongs, on the object of our faith, Jesus and His work.

If to "repent" means to forsake our sinful ways TO BE SAVED, but Jesus already paid for our sins by dying on the cross, then what are we repenting from?

The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU.

We must stay true to the simplicity of the Gospel!! Repentance regarding salvation is a change of mind from unbelief to belief!!! We must earnestly contend for the faith (Jude 1:3).

3.4.6 We Make Friends Or Enemies One Person At A Time (2022-04-16 15:58)

Proverbs 18:19,

“

A brother offended is harder to be won than a strong city: and their contentions are like the bars of a castle.

Proverbs 18:24, “

A man that hath friends must shew himself friendly: and there is a friend that sticketh closer than a brother.

It takes years to build friendships and seconds to lose them forever if we're careless. An important lesson that I learned a very long time ago is that we make or break relationships one person at a time. It matters how we treat others. A business does not get bad reviews overnight; but rather, it takes years of mistreating customers to earn a bad reputation.

Any of my web visitors who knows me well, from corresponding with me over the years, honestly knows that I always take the time to write quality emails back to people. I do this because everybody is important! No one is unimportant. Everybody matters to God; and that includes atheists, convicted criminals, homosexuals, pastors and all manner of sinners! We should never accept the sin with the sinner, nor reject the sinner with the sin. People matter!!!

When I write scathing articles to expose bad pastors, I can only speak of my unfortunate negative encounter with them. They made a very bad impression on me. When I first met Pastor Jeff Redlin at Campus Church of Pensacola Christian College, I told him honestly that I was sleeping in Walmart's parking lot. When I arrived from Guam in Pensacola, the ungodly Woodspring Suites Hotel cancelled my 30-day confirmed reservation without warning. God will punish them, because the Bible says they did it to Jesus (Matthew 25:40, 45). Sadly, when I told this to Jeff Redlin, that I was sleeping in Walmart's parking lot, he literally just walked away. I saw the startled look on his face when he heard what I had said. Pastor Redlin didn't care!!! So while he slept in his cozy warm bed, I slept in Walmart's parking lot! Real great Christian that Jeff Redlin, huh? No, he is a horrible phony as a pastor. Redlin only cares about his 6-digit undeserved outrageous salary!

You see folks, someone is always watching us! Someone is always listening to our words. Someone is always watching how we treat others. Jesus knew this and behaved himself accordingly. Oh, that we would do the same! I am not perfect, but for all those who have written to me since 2002 when I began my website ministry, [1]Jesus-is-Savior.com, I have gone out of my way to help others, writing book-length emails, pouring out my heart oftentimes to be a blessing and help someone who was down, confused or was [2]hurt at church by a phony hypocrite like Pastor Jeff Redlin. By God's grace I have fought the good fight!

I have received countless emails from hurt and frustrated people, who said that they contacted local pastors, but no one ever bothered to email back. I have patiently listened to many people, who told me about the mistreatment and abusive words spoken to them by a church pastor. Dear reader, something is very wrong with that.

> "No one is any better a Christian, than they are kind." —Dr. David Gibbs Jr. (a quote from the beautiful sermon " [3]HIS VOICE " about loving the unloving with God's love!)

Kindly said, Pastor Jeff Redlin at Campus Church is not kind, he is mean, cold-hearted and a religious prude. I pray that Pensacola Christian College would make motion to have him fired and replaced with someone with a heart for hurting people. David Gibbs Jr. is so right, you are only as good a Christian as how you treat other people, including the worst among us!

When I came to Campus Church for the first time in July of 2021, God knows that I had only love, compassion and a desire to be a blessing to the church and college. And I wrote that all down and sent it to Pastor Redlin. I kindly mentioned that I am a thankful Hyles-Anderson College graduate and just wanted to love everyone and be a blessing at Campus Church. That jerk didn't even bother to acknowledge me! Literally, he completely ignored me for 10 days. I didn't want to assume anything, so I kindly approached him after the Sunday morning service, only to ask why he hadn't replied. Redlin had a guilty look all over the his when he saw me, knowing that he had been avoiding me. He backed away like a coward and put his hands in the air, signifying that he didn't have an answer why he hadn't replied. I was hurt.

Right in front of his wife, he then said that if I ever find a woman to marry, he wouldn't perform the wedding. I just looked at him like he was insane, because Sunday morning after church is not the time or place for being a jerk! I had emailed him 2 weeks earlier, confiding in him that my wife divorced me 15 years ago, and I was a lonely man desiring a wife. I told him that I hoped to meet a woman at Campus Church. Do you know what that creep did? He scolded me for coming to church to find a wife! Folks, any pastor is a fool to talk to a 54 year old divorced man like that! I'm not one of his students at PCC. What is wrong with Jeff Redlin?

It's bad enough that he left me to sleep in Walmart's parking lot the first day I met him (at the Campus Church 4th of July Picnic in 2021). But then he takes the trust that I gave him, confiding in him with information about my broken personal life, and he berates me, kicking me in the head emotionally for desiring to find a wife, making me feel like a piece of garbage for being divorced. I am not upset with Mr. Redlin for his religious beliefs, but for the abusive way that he poorly handled the entire interaction with me from start to finish! That horrible man has zero people skills, a bad attitude, no walk with God, and shouldn't be a pastor. Jeff Redlin should be managing a McDonald's somewhere, and I'm not kidding folks!

If you talk with Pastor Redlin, he will likely make a bunch of lame excuses about how he has a big church to run, or someone died in the school, or other illegitimate excuses for his abusive behavior, incompetence as a pastor, lack of care and woeful lack of godly compassion for hurting people. I came to Jeff Redlin in kindness with love, only expecting the same in return from the pastor of Campus Church, but instead I receive false accusations, hypocrisy, condemnation, mistreatment, arrogancy and abuse.

Pastor Redlin claimed that someone slandered me to him, sending him my ministry websites and other information. He ASS-U-Me that the slander was true, condemning me for it in his letter's language and tone. Redlin bared false witness against me, falsely accusing me of "

finding weaknesses

" in preachers. In truth, my ministry exposes wickedness in preachers!!! I expose the damnable heresies of Lordship Salvation, Devil's bibles and wrong repentance (which are all sinfully embraced by the demonic Bob Jones University camp today). Tragically, the Pensacola Christian College camp and Campus Church sinfully bid Godspeed to Bob Jones University and company, making them partakers of their evil deeds (2nd John 1:11).

RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS! The way we treat people matters. ALL LIVES MATTER!!! By God's grace I will continue to take the time to reply to emails, showing people that I care. I DO CARE!!! It takes a lot of time, effort and patience to reply to emails (for me especially because of my chronic bodily pain, tension and burning from my neck injury many years ago).People look up to pastors. I actually looked up to Pastor Redlin when I first came to Campus Church, even after he dissed me and didn't care that I was sleeping in Walmart's parking lot. I so much wanted to be friends with him, but that man is a first-class bully, who doesn't want to be friends with a truth-teller like me. He'd rather be buddies with apostates and damnable heretics in the Bob Jones crowd! SHAME on Pastor Jeff Redlin. SHAME on PCC for hiring him and putting up with his abuse of people. Your former pastor was much better from all that I've heard.

Again dear reader, we make friends or enemies one person at a time. Jeff Redlin made me his enemy, by his own abusive words, mistreatment and haughty arrogant spirit toward me as a hurting divorced me who just needed some love. God is my witness, that I had to ask Pastor Redlin umpteen times in July of 2021 if I was " loved and welcomed as a divorced man at Campus Church, before he would give me an answer. That is pathetic!!! And when he did finally climb down off his haughty throne to reply to a nobody like me, 10 days later, he berated me and threw the slander in my face that he read on the internet. That is an ungodly man, a wicked incompetent pastor, and no friend of the Lord Jesus Christ.

We make friends or enemies one person at a time. The big size of Redlin's church is not the problem, it is the small size of his heart! A student dying in June of 2021 at PCC is not the problem, it is that Jeff Redlin doesn't care. He could have just as easily replied to me with kind words rather than inflammatory words. THE TRUTH is that Mr. Redlin is the problem!!! Something is very wrong with his heart. Listen, you can tell what kind of character that a man has by the way he treats animals, poor people, divorced people, nobodies and those who can do nothing for him. Think about that. I am an underdog. I am a nobody. I'm just a broken and redeemed sinner saved by God's grace.

Pastor Jeff Redlin, in sharp contrast, is a richy-rich snob, a haughty and high-minded socialite, a prude, a religious hypocrite and someone who know nothing about the love of God. Jesus said to whom much is forgiven, the same loveth much. Luke 7:47, "Wherefore I say unto thee, Her sins, which are many, are forgiven; for she loved much: but to whom little is forgiven, the same loveth little." I have been forgiven of much, so I love much.

God deliver us from religious snobs like Jeff Redlin, who sinfully look down their Pharisaical noses upon nobody sinners like me. Jeff Redlin needs to be humbled, and only God can do that. SHAME on Pensacola Christian College for shunning single divorced people who desire to remarry. PCC are out of touch with the Bible and reality. [4]I don't blame Samantha Field for being angry at PCC . Samantha was treated like garbage, just like Redlin mistreated me. It matters how we treat people!

It matters, because we make friends or enemies one person at a time. This is THE GOLDEN RULE. Matthew 7:12, “

Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets. ” I treated Jeff Redlin kindly with respect and love, the way I want to be treated; but he abused me, disrespecting my person and my 20-year ministry which I’ve worked so hard on since 2002. Pastor Redlin is a fool to criticize my ministry for Christ, not having even a single word of praise for my labors. That shows his sinful bias and hypocrisy toward a fellow brother in Christ. Jeff has no right to cast me aside. Romans 14:10, “But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ.”

3.4.7 Men's Prayer Groups Bother Me (2022-04-20 15:17)

Luke 8:15, "

But that on the good ground are they, which in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit with patience.

John 15:8,

“

Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; so shall ye be my disciples.

The biggest Baptist church that I am aware of in Pensacola, which I won’t mention to be nice, advertises their weekly Men’s Prayer Group of Thursdays. What bothers me a lot is that the church has no scheduled time to go soulwinning in public.

Folks, the world is going to Hell! A group of believers can gather together to pray until their faces turn blue, but that’s not going to win anyone to Jesus Christ! We’ve got to go soulwinning! That is how churches are built. I am not aware of any soulwinning churches in Pensacola. Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College (PCC) sends out some college men to pass out church flyers to invite people to church, but that’s not soulwinning. And they do it as a small kind of private thing, not something that is strongly promoted in the church. It is sad! I think they just do it to make themselves feel better and to boast that they share the Gospel, but the sad truth is that PCC refuses to even use the term SOULWINNING (because it would identify them with the Hyles-Anderson College camp, which they despise so much).

I have no regard or use for Men’s Prayer Groups, unless it is followed by door-to-door public soulwinning! The saints did meet in the upper room to pray (Acts chapter 2), but it was in preparation for preaching the Gospel to tens of thousands of people from many different nations on the glorious Day of Pentecost. Dear friend, I once heard a knucklehead preacher on Chicago’s northside say: “Prayer is not preparation for the greater work, prayer is the greater work!” Well, that pastor is a fool, because whether you like it or not, SOULWINNING IS THE GREATER WORK!!!

We are not going to pray the lost world out of Hell, fire and damnation. We must preach the GOOD NEWS (the GOSPEL) of Christ crucified, buried and risen the third day (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). I am all for group prayer, but only if it precedes going soulwinning, or there is a definite related purpose for gathering to pray.

For example: In Acts 12:1-5 the early church prayer together for the Apostle Peter. James, the Apostle, had just been beheaded by wicked Herod. When Herod saw that those wicked Jews delighted in James’ death, he fully intended to execute Peter next, and would have if God had not intervened on his behalf. But God did not deliver Peter from prison so he could go back to fishing. God rescued Peter so he could get back to PREACHING THE GOSPEL.

Over 99 % of evangelical churches today do not go soulwinning publicly. Nearly all churches today are evangelistic churches, meaning that they expect church members to invite people to church to hear the Gospel. That is fine to do, but that is not the Bible way. What saith the Scripture? Luke 14:23, " And the lord said unto the servant, Go out into the highways and hedges, and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled." Some critic of soulwinning said that,

"God is not interested in numbers!" Well friend, He sure ain't interested in empty pews either! What do you mean God is not interested in numbers? Why sure He is, that is why the Lord said He wants His house full.

You are only as close to God as you desire and make an effort to share the Gospel to get people saved. I didn't say that, God did. Read from our text passages again.

Luke 8:15, "

But that on the good ground are they, which in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit with patience.

John 15:8,

Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; so shall ye be my disciples.

" The parable of The Sower And The Seeds in Luke 8:11-15 is NOT about getting saved, it is about maturing in the Lord so that you perpetuate the Gospel, winning more souls to Christ. After all, that is The Great Commission (Matthew 28:19-20). Every born-again Christian is commanded in the Word of God to fulfill The Great Commission. What is this Great Commission:

1. GO YE into all the world preaching the Gospel, to get people saved.
2. BAPTIZE THEM (converts) with full immersion under water, which is their public profession of faith, symbolizing the Gospel. Baptism is an outward snapshot of what has happened inwardly.
3. TEACH THEM all things. Literally, we should indoctrinated new converts with the inspired Word of God, teaching them right away to go out and share the Gospel to lead people to Christ. God intended that the Gospel perpetuate itself from generation to generation.

Here is The Great Commission in the Bible:

> Matthew 28:18-20, "And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth. Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Amen."

Amen and amen. I loathe men's and women's prayer groups, when that church has no commitment to obey The Great Commission. For most church it is The Great Omission!!! Jesus didn't give us The Great Commission to gather together for Bible study and prayer at a church, while the surrounding community goes to Hell.

When I attended the shameful Harvest Baptist Church on Guam for one year, the men of the church gathered together each Saturday morning for breakfast and prayer. But the church had NO SCHEDULED TIME TO GO SOULWINNING. Harvest was and still is not, a soulwinning church on Guam, I call them “ salary-suckers,

” because that is all they do. It is disgusting!!! Pastors’ Marty Herron and Gary Walton are nothing more than lousy religious employees, shameful opportunists, hiring and firing people to get their filthy lucre. I not only wouldn’t give you a dime for those wicked men, I’d put them into prison for life if I had the power, because of the horrible things they do to people in the name of God.

Both of those ungodly men fully support the hellish Bob Jones University (BJU) cult today, who preach the Devil’s lies of Lordship Salvation (Calvinism) and wrong repentance (aka, the “ turn from your sins to be saved

” tommyrot). BJU is the fountainhead of the Satanic corrupt Westcott and Hort Greek perverted text! Yet, Marty Herron and Gary Walton sinfully bid BJU Godspeed, making themselves accomplices and partakers of their evil deeds (2nd John 1:11). If you think I am making too bog a deal of this, just wait until God casts them into the fires of Hell for all eternity for trusting in a counterfeit Gospel. Telling someone to “ repent of your sin

” to be saved, is essentially the same as telling them to keep God’s Old Testament law to get to Heaven. That is works (Romans 3:19-20).

By the way, the corrupt Baptist church that I mentioned at the beginning of this blog is guilty of preaching hardcore Lordship Salvation. So they are not even born-again Christians! No wonder they don’t go soulwinning, they don’t even understand how to be saved! I am leery of public prayer meetings, they are a waste of time for any church that does not obey The Great Commission. Most churchgoers nowadays are guilty of Sitting On The Premises instead of Standing On The Promises! How about you my dear friend?

Please don’t misunderstand, I believe in the power of prayer, but it is the same as training a soldier to use a gun. What good is that gun and training if there are never any wars to defend one’s country? What would be the purpose? Likewise, we’ve got a bunch of idle fools today meeting at church to pray about every little petty thing, but getting people saved isn’t one of their priorities, and it should be the main focus.

3.4.8 Sinful Indifferent Attitude Of Pensacola Christian College (2022-04-21 16:59)

Titus 1:9-14, "Holding fast the faithful word as he hath been taught, that he may be able by sound doctrine both to exhort and to convince the gainsayers. For there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, specially they of the circumcision: Whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre's sake. One of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The Cretians are alway liars, evil beasts, slow bellies. This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith; Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men, that turn from the truth."

I love this vital passage of Scripture! It condemns all false teachers, who SUBVERT WHOLE HOUSES, teaching things (e.g., Lordship Salvation and the heresy " turn from your sin to be saved

") they ought not, for filthy lucre's sake (pursuing a career as a pastor, clergy or Bible professor). The inspired Holy Bible is very plain and clear that godly men are commanded to RUFUTE (expose) all counterfeit plans of salvation, which corrupt families.

Dear reader, that means every God-fearing preacher today should be exposing the cult at Bob Jones University, who [1]today preach hardcore Calvinism (aka, Lordship Salvation).

Yet, I keep getting rebuked and mistreated by the Pensacola Christian College camp for obeying God. What gives?

When I attended the Lighthouse Baptist Church on Guam for the year of 2018, Pastor Sean Quinlan shamefully berated me for my zeal to expose the rotten Bob Jones crowd. I was speaking with Bill, a man at the church, and my friend, about what is wrong with the modern Bible revisions. While I was edifying my brother in Christ, I mentioned that "

Bob Jones University sells corruptible seed

(Devil's bibles).

Pastor Quinlan was eavesdropping on our conversation and became upset when he heard that. I found out from talking to Quinlan that he bids Godspeed to the Calvinist Bob Jones camp!

I was disgusted with him as a church leader. Pastor Quinlan literally called the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam:

"our sister church!" I rebuked him upon the authority of God's Word, informing him that Harvest Baptist Church preaches the Devil's false gospel of Calvinism! Quinlan shameful replied: "It's none of our business what they do at Harvest!" I fully knew then that I was talking to a total damned fool. Any pastor who sinfully bids Godspeed to Calvinists ought not be trusted to preach behind any pulpit.

You see friends, what has horribly happened is that making money is the most important thing today for professed Christians. Of course, no one who believes and teaches Calvinism is saved. Anyone who ADDS "

turn away from your sins

to be saved is lost! That is telling them to KEEP THE LAW (the Old Testament law, which includes the Ten Commandments). What saith the Scripture? Romans 3:19-20,

Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God.

Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin.

" Christ came into the world to die on the cross for our sins, not demand that we forsake committing sin as a prerequisite to receive His free gift of eternal life.

Bob Jones University and company are guilty of SUBVERTING WHOLE HOUSES of people. Yet, you'll have a difficult time finding any preachers today who spare not, and cry aloud, against the doctrinal sins of the Bob Jones camp. Isaiah 58:1, " Cry aloud, spare not, lift up thy voice like a trumpet, and shew my people their transgression, and the house of Jacob their sins." That same preaching principle applies to ALL PREACHERS!!! If God wanted the preachers to cry aloud, spare not, and lift up their voice like a trumpet 2,700 years ago in Isiah's time, then God wants preachers to have that same fire and conviction in our preaching today.

So where are they? Huh? Where are the preachers today who cry aloud, spare not, and lift up their voice like a trumpet. The only one's I know and Pastor Steven Anderson and his band of fellow preachers around the country (Bruce Mejia, Roger Jimenez, Jonathan Shelley, Grayson Fritts, et cetera). The wimpy, unsaved and corrupt Pat Robertson, Joel Osteen, Marty Herron, Gary Walton, Steve Pettit, Chuck Phelps, Steven Furtick and Rick Warren type preachers are sending the world to Hell. Sadly, pastors are no longer preachers today! If your pastor does not cry aloud, spare not, and lift up his voice like a trumpet to expose sin, he is a cowardly wimp and not a godly preacher!!! The shamefully wimpy and sinfully compromised Sean Quinlan and Jeff Redlin (Pensacola Christian College) types of our generation are not going to save this nation! Those bad pastors are the problem today with churches!!!

I couldn't believe the ungodly things that Pastor Sean Quinlan said to me in 2018. He defended Calvinists! Quinlan is so very WRONG to say that it is not our business what they do in the Bob Jones camp. Buster, IT IS OUR BUSINESS!!! How else could the Apostle Paul have known in Titus 1:13-14 that heresy was being propagated elsewhere, unless he made it his business to know what other ministers and churches were preaching? It is my business, a nd it's yours too.

Kindly said, every born-again child of God should be taking a Biblical stand against the Roman Catholic churches in your community! I'm not saying to bash Catholics, be unkind or burn down their cathedrals, God forbid. We should be nice, loving, helpful and gentle toward everyone, regardless of what they believe about religion. I would NEVER suggest or sanction committing a crime. But I am saying every preacher should be speaking publicly from his church pulpit against the Catholic religion, exposing their damnable [2]Sacramental Salvation, which cannot produce the new birth in Christ Jesus. Jesus warned everyone in John 3:1-7 that in order to enter into Heaven, " YE MUST BE BORN AGAIN

" (John 3:7b). The Devil's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born-again. Satan is a beautiful liar!

Pensacola Christian College (PCC) and their graduates have a pathetic indifferent attitude, which is contagious and deadly like the COVID-19 virus. PCC are so busy making money and going through all the motions of an academic institution, that they lost sight LONG AGO about what really matters! RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!!

When I first moved from Guam to Pensacola in July of 2021, I chose to attend Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College. I was quickly frustrated when [3]I heard assistant pastor, Timothy Zacharias on July 21 preach wrong repentance. The preceding link takes you to a screenshot from their Founder's Class, which they showed the Wednesday night I was sitting in the Campus Church auditorium.

I was disgusted as I listened to Pastor Zacharias pervert the Gospel of free grace, falsely teaching that your behavior will change if you've really repented. That has absolutely NOTHING to do with getting saved folks!

You and I are dirty guilty sinners, for whom Jesus Christ gave His life on the cross to pay our debt of sin. Your life doesn't have to change to prove anything! Behavior modification is not part of the Gospel. The problem is that most preachers mix up and confuse sanctification with justification. You've got to keep the two completely separate! I love what John Bunyan said:

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." —John Bunyan (1628-1688)

Wow, that is a helpful quote! He nailed it. What Jeff Redlin and Tim Zacharias are sinfully doing is mixing sanctification with justification, corrupting the Gospel. A change of behavior should NEVER be mentioned along with getting saved, because it comes later. To mention a change of behavior, or turning away from sins, or anything else that requires sacrifice on the part of the person getting saved, negates the legal transaction. Getting saved is a legal matter. You are a guilty sinner if you are not saved. Christ paid your debt of sin, but that payment must be appropriated or else you won't receive it, ever. You appropriate it by faith in the Good News (Gospel) of Christ crucified, buried and risen the third day (1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

When I attended Campus Church, Pastor Jeff Redlin horribly mistreated me. At first he seemed okay and I felt like maybe he cared, but it wasn't even two weeks and someone contacted the church to slander me. Sadly, Pastor Redlin didn't tell them to shut up, he acted on the slander and said some unkind words to me, to his utter shame. SHAME on Jeff Redlin for listening to Gospel, for jumping to conclusions, for not talking to me first if he had something to say about it. That is a little man and a very bad pastor!

Even worse, Redlin berated me for being divorced and hoping after 15 years of loneliness to someday remarry. My former and only wife abandoned me in 2006. The divorce was her choice alone. I cried and begged for her not to go, but she refused, which I have in writing in the divorce documents. Yet, according to the ungodly PCC camp, you're just supposed to masturbate for the rest of your life, because "Christ is all you need." Even God Himself says that it is not good for a man to be alone. Genesis 2:18, "And the LORD God said, It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him an help meet for him."

The sad truth is that they invite and thrive on happily married couple in the PCC camp (and that includes formerly divorced couples who are now already remarried), but if you are divorced and still single like me they will condemn, shun, reject and ostracize you like you are garbage for even mentioning remarriage. That is exactly what Jeff Redlin shamefully did to me, and it is EMOTIONAL ABUSE!

Something is very WRONG with that kind of ungodly hypocrisy!!! SHAME on the Pensacola Christian College crowd for berating divorced people, and for sinfully bidding Godspeed to the accursed Bob Jones University crowd (who preach another gospel from another book, all the while attacking the Gospel of free grace and the inspired King James Bible).

3.4.9 It Is Really Pathetic What Our Country Has Become (2022-04-22 19:20)

Matthew 7:11-12, “

If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father which is in heaven give good things to them that ask him?

Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets.

” 1st Timothy 6:10,

“ For the love of money is the root of all evil: which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.”

Truly the love of money is the root of all evil. I am so sick and tired of our rotten, greedy, selfish and ungodly American culture. A perfect example is when you search the internet for trustworthy information, which you won’t get! It doesn’t matter if you use Google, Bing, Duck Duck Go, or whatever, the results you get back will be dishonest and intended to manipulate you as a consumer to get your money. It is wickedness!!!

For example: I went to search online today for the best affordable P-bass guitars. Hundreds of results came back, and each and every stinking one of those results contain a rotten message like this, a disclaimer which tells you that you are BEING MANIPULATED FOR GREED...

> LEGAL INFORMATION

So they’re going to refer you to a bunch of garbage and inferior merchandise. When I went to search a couple weeks ago for a “professional banjo” on Google, I got back hundreds of worthless results, all members of greedy affiliate programs to rip people off, and ALL the banjos they recommended for me to purchase were crappy junk made in China!!! Not one professional banjo was recommended, which will cost you at least $3,000 and up.

Stelling banjos are among the best, and most expensive. NOT ONE of those hundreds of affiliate programs recommended buying a Stelling banjo. You see, they are exploitative liars. They are dishonest people, manipulating the naïve public to make a buck. The Bible calls such money “filthy lucre” because you obtained it by shady means. Although it is honest to sell things, and to recommend what to purchase, it is very dishonest to suggest inferior toy banjos, tin-can sounded crap from China, because sellers know that is what 95 % of the public buy, so they take advantage of consumer ignorance. I sincerely wanted to know about professional banjos, and am willing to pay a higher price for it, but all they can recommend to me is garbage, because they are wicked, greedy and couldn’t care less about anybody except themselves. That is how low-down, dishonest and crooked Americans have become today.

I miss the 1970’s, when there were no microwaves, no cellphones, no credit cards, no cameras all over public places, no internet tracking of everywhere you go, there was no public internet until the 1990’s came! The 1970’s was a simple time still in the United States. Where I lived in Chicago, people used string to section off their front garden. Move ahead 30 years later and everybody has tall chainlink fences around their lawns, with warning signs that threaten they'll call police.

Adults are no longer permitted to enter or sit in public playground without a child with them, and if you do people will wonder if you're a pedophile, call the police, and you will be arrested and fined. This is what our nation has succumbed and descended to. Homosexuals have come out of the closet and are quickly preparing the stage for the coming Man of Sin, the Antichrist.

The most unloving and uncaring people today in America are pastors of churches, go figure! I've never seen such calloused indifference, theological incompetence and ungodly hatred as I have from the Bob Jones University and Pensacola Christian College camp over the past several years. God's judgment is upon them!!! You show me a pastor who lacks unconditional love for everyone, and I'll show you a phony who does not genuinely walk with God. We've got too many lousy employees running churches today into the ground spiritually.

Oh, they may be growing in size, but they are as rotting corpses that are swelling, and not going in the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ. If anything, serving God faithfully (as I am doing by exposing the Calvinist infidels at Bob Jones University, and Pensacola Christian College for sinfully bidding them Godspeed), your church will decrease in popularity and size. So be it, praise the Lord! THE TRUTH must be preaching, without compromise and without apology, for the souls of mankind are at stake. Weep and how Jeff Redlin, Timothy Zacharias, Sean Quinlan, Marty Herron, Gary Walton, Chuck Phelps, Steve Pettit and John MacArthur, for the miseries that shall come upon your wicked souls for your wickedness, theological incompetence, woeful lack of God's love and for supporting evil!!! The eternal day of reckoning of these ungodly phonies is soon coming!!!

It is really pathetic what our country has become. Whether it is the millions of lying webpages on Google, all members of affiliate programs to make a buck off misleading you to buy inferior trash from China; or the hundreds of thousands of lying, incompetent and worthless pastors today, who won't preach THE TRUTH, won't preach against sin by name, won't expose false teachers by name, and woefully lack God's love for hurting sinners—our nation has sunk lower than low morally, ethically, economically, health-wise, spiritually, et cetera. I pray for God's withholding hand of judgment to come down in wrath upon this perverse, uncaring and unloving nation like a nuclear holocaust (read Revelation chapter 18, which I am convinced is the United States, which will be utterly destroyed by fire in just ONE HOUR! We deserve it, and Hell beneath too). Until that time comes, I am committed to preaching the Gospel to get people saved.

Liars are everywhere today! Jeff Redlin is a liar! Timothy Zacharias is a liar! Marty Herron is a liar! Steve Pettit is a liar! Sean Quinlan is a liar! Joe Hansen is a liar! Jared Baldwin is a liar! Gary Walton is a liar! John MacArthur is a liar! Paul Washer is a liar! Billy Graham is a liar! Pat Robertson is a liar! Joel Osteen is a liar! Joyce Meyer is a liar! Rick Warren is a liar! Chuck Phelps is a liar! Yet all these wicked men are haughty, full of arrogance and sinful pride, refusing to heed THE TRUTH. Romans 3:4 promises that I will be vindicated in eternity because what I am preaching agrees with the Holy Bible.

Lordship Salvation is of the Devil. Turning away from sins to be saved is of the Devil. All of these modern counterfeit Bible revisions and of the Devil. And those who reprobates who support the religious cults at Bob Jones University, Master's University, Moody Bible Institute and Faith Bible College and Theological Seminary are of the Devil as well. SHAME on all these untoward corrupted men for betraying the inspired Word of God and the Gospel. To attack the grace of God is to attack the God of grace!!!

We must be as Joshua in these dark times of spiritual apostasy in the churches today, who exclaimed in Joshua 24:15, "And if it seem evil unto you to serve the LORD, choose you this day whom ye will serve; whether the gods which your fathers served that were on the other side of the flood, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: but as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD."

3.4.10 Be Careful About Negative Thinking (2022-04-28 00:38)

Philippians 4:6-9, "

Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God.

And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.

Those things, which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do: and the God of peace shall be with you."

I receive quite a few emails and messages from people through my social media ministry. As such I see trends in people. A lot of believers struggle with mental problems, which are caused by themselves, from choosing to think negatively all the time.

I have several web visitors who email me to vent. Their emails are filled with wrath, bitterness, blaming others, angry at God, resentful of their less than ideal upbringing, complaining that there are no good churches in their area where they live, et cetera. Anyone who has written to me over the years, and knows my personality, knows that I love helping others. I take the time to respond with lengthy replies, sharing sermons and Biblical resources to help people. I do this in love for God, truth and people. I sincerely just want to be a blessing for Jesus Christ.

But I have a handful of troubled web visitors who are self-destructive in their thinking. They are constantly negative, complaining all the time, seeing everything in a negative light, confident that they are beyond hope spiritually. I am always patient at first, giving them the benefit of the doubt that they just need a loving friend who will not condemn them, but just listen with a caring and understanding soul. But after I have interacted with someone for a period of time, usually a few months, then I need to exert some tough love to help them.

Today I needed to do that. A young man has been writing to me for a couple years. We have exchanged hundreds of emails. He tells me that demons are afflicting him. Despite all the sermons, books and Bible resources I have shared with him about God's plan of salvation, he still says he cannot settle the matter. He thinks he may not be saved, because of sinful bad habits that he struggles with. I have tried and tried to help him, explaining that the sins in our life have absolutely nothing to do with God's free gift of eternal life.

So today I need to tell him that I cannot help him, nor can anyone else, until he changes his negative attitude. Everything I say to try to help him is countered with anger, excuses, blaming others and a spirit of defeat and doom! Everything in life is a mindset.

I cried because I had no shoes, then I met a man who had no feet. The Bible says we are what we think!

Proverbs 23:7, " For as he thinketh in his heart, so is he: Eat and drink, saith he to thee; but his heart is not with thee." NO ONE can help someone who is constantly negative, angry at the world and possesses a critical spirit.

It is not a mere coincidence that the Word of God mentions thought control alongside prayer in our text passage. Here it is again:

>
> Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God.
>
> And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.
>
> Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.

You see, it is counterproductive to pray about things to avoid worrying about them, if you're just going to turn around and complain about everything with a critical spirit. Philippians 4:6 teaches us as believers not to worry (anxiety, to be careful); but rather, to in every thing by prayer and supplication let our requests be made known unto God. Verse 7 says that by taking matters to God in prayer, then we can claim the blessed peace of God which passeth all understanding. Prayer works because God is real and He cares (1st Peter 5:7). I am 100 % against praying as a mere therapy, mental relaxation or form of contemplative meditation. That is new age and paganism. We should pray without ceasing because our risen Savior lives!

I wrote this blog to remind you dear reader to guard your thought life, it is priceless. My favorite Bible verse is Proverbs 4:23, "Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life." Proverbs 16:32, "

He that is slow to anger is better than the mighty; and he that ruleth his spirit than he that taketh a city.

" Be careful about hanging around negative people, because attitudes are contagious. Is yours worth catching? Sadly, I loath when some people contact me, because I know it is all going to be negative.

To be honest, I quickly skim through such emails and don't allow them to waste my time.

Proverbs 14:7, " Go from the presence of a foolish man, when thou perceivest not in him the lips of knowledge." You just cannot help some people, until they first come to their senses and want to help themselves. The Bible tells us that the wayward Prodigal Son eventually hit rock bottom in life, and only then in the hog pen (literally) does the Bible says that came to himself,

"he

and he said,

How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare, and I perish with hunger!

" (Luke 15:17). Sin always takes you to the hog pen of life, straight to the bottom!

Negative thinking is like a cancer, which once it starts spreads slowly until it corrupts the entire body. Philippians 4:8 teaches for God's saints to THINK ON THESE THINGS! What things? Things that are of good report, lovely things, good things, pure things, truthful things, et cetera. You can call this brainwashing if you dare, but it is just good common sense. What a person fills their mind day-by-day with will affect their feelings, their day, their mental stability, their walk with God, everything.

That is why I am 100 % against the Devil's public school system, which is nothing less than indoctrination centers for government propaganda. Those poor impressionable children's minds are subjected to all manner of Satanic evolution, worldly philosophies, secular entertainment and culture, humanism, communism, historical lies, sex perversion and new age religion. A nation can survive foreign attacks, but it cannot survive its fools within. As a people we are destroying ourselves! The American newsmedia is absolutely negative, which Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) properly called: "

Manure Spreaders!

As I drive around the small city of Pensacola (population 52,000 people), I see negative attorney billboards everywhere. One billboard says: "Lawyer Up!" In other words, the lawyer wants you to pay him monthly before you need a lawyer, so it won't cost you as much if and when you do down the road (God forbid). I really detest lawyers! I saw another attorney billboard this week which read: "Call me when you meet an irresponsible driver." Pensacola is full of a bunch of ambulance-chasing greedy lawyers! Evidently they are hard-up for business. Such "sue thy neighbour" type of ambush advertising undermines the health of the community.

Whether it be in your own personal mind, your local church, your home, or community, negative thinking is destructive. I decided many years ago that God is a very good God. So I don't ever need to make that decision again. Some people love God one day, but hate Him the next. We are so fickle as Americans, loving God when things are going well, but then we curse and blame God in anger when things don't go as planned. How ungrateful! I decided years ago to just believe the Holy Scriptures that say God is just (1st John 1:9), God is faithful (1st Corinthians 1:9), God is good (Psalms 145:9), God is love (1st John 4:8) and God cares about me (1st Peter 5:7). Everything that God does is right (Job 9:3).

So no matter how bad my life may go tomorrow, be poor on the street, and my health woeful fail—GOD IS ALWAYS GOOD! GOD IS ALWAYS FAITHFUL! GOD ALWAYS LOVES ME. GOD ALWAYS CARES ABOUT ME. GOD IS ALWAYS A BEAUTIFUL, FAIR, SCRUMDIDDLYUMPTIOUS, TERWONDERFUL AND A DARN GOOD GOD!!! Psalms 145:3, "Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised; and his greatness is unsearchable."

Guard your mind dear friend. Avoid negative influences around you. There is nothing worse than a critical person who thinks the world is against them. The proper mindset of a believer is one of **"

HAVE FAITH IN GOD

" (Mark 11:22b). Jesus said that! Everywhere that our beloved Savior went, He told people to HAVE FAITH IN GOD!!! John 16:33, "

These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.

” If you are older like me, age 55, then you remember

Glum

from the popular cartoon, The Adventures Of Gulliver...

Glum:

We’ll Never Make It, We’re Doomed!!!

A lot of believers won’t talk that way in public around other people, but they think that way in their personal life in secret, and it cripples their life. Depression is ugly! I have battled personal depression for decades. I have constant chronic neck pain which stifles my ambition, overshadows my day, ruins many moments and makes it difficult to interact with people. Thankfully, Jesus uses my weakness to show forth His strength, by His grace. 2nd Corinthians 12:9, “ And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me.” As believers we don’t grow in strength, we grow in God’s grace (Galatians 2:20). GOD IS SO GOOD!!!

But despite my pain and oft depression, I haven’t lost my faith in God. I haven’t lost my joy in the Lord. I still rejoice daily that my name is written in Heaven in the Lamb’s Book of Life. I wrote this blog to encourage others to LIVE ON THE SUNNY SIDE OF LIFE!!! That is Biblical by the way. Colossians 3:1-3, “

If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God.

Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth.

For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God.

” Every redeemed child of God ought to live ABOVE THE CLOUDS, setting our mind and heart upon the things of Heaven, and not upon this earth. That is why when I go places (whether it be to the doctor, the grocery store, church or wherever) I have God’s shine on my face. I am an adopted child of the great eternal King of kings and Lord of lords!!!

3.4.11 I Do Not Want To Grow Thicker Skin (2022-04-30 15:03)

Ephesians 4:29-32, “Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers. And grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption. Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice: And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ’s sake hath forgiven you.”

Thinking back over my life, I can remember numerous occasions where carnally-minded people told me: “Stewart, you need to grow thicker skin!” They said that to me because I am a sensitive person. But I make no apologies for who God made me. I like being sensitive. If I weren’t sensitive, right doctrine wouldn’t matter to me. If I weren’t sensitive, people would matter as much to me. I care because God cares. If you walk with God you WILL care about people, doctrine, little things and the small details of everything. God is a caring God!!!

I wonder about people who advise others to “grow thicker skin,” wanting them to become harder, tougher emotionally, more calloused and INSENSTIVE to the world around them. No thank you, I like being sensitive! I want to be in the moment, present, awake to righteousness, paying attention to the details. Folks, that is exactly what is wrong with pastors today like Jeff Redlin, Timothy Zacharias, Marty Herron, Steve Pettit, Gary Walton and Chuck Phelps—they have grown thicker skin and truth doesn’t matter to them anymore, money does. People don’t matter to them anymore. Oh sure, they’ll say that people matter, because it would make them look bad and expose them if they told the truth, but their behavior and words (and disturbing lack thereof) evidences that people and truth really aren’t important to them.

There is something wrong with a pastor or religious leader who is okay with using dozens of different Bible revisions. Which Bible we use matters! There is something woefully wrong with today’s apostate clergy who are okay with the Devil’s lie of Lordship Salvation, the Devil’s lie of wrong repentance (aka, the garbage to be saved) and the Devil’s corrupt bible versions. Somebody has got to care! Well, I do care.

turn from your sin

Something is wrong with Pastor Sean Quinlan from the Pensacola Christian College (PCC) camp, who in 2018 wrongly accused me of being obsessed over the Bible.

” Something is wrong with the shameful pastors of the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, who in 2017 called Dr. Jack Hyles, Pastor Al Lacy and me

” for exposing the Devil’s modern Bible perversions. Something is very wrong with Pastor Jeff Redlin of Campus Church at PCC, who in 2021 wrongly accused me of

in ungodly infidel pastors who preach Lordship Salvation. Today’s preachers are pathetic!!!

It is high time for America’s churches to fire their rotten apple pastors, and bring in humble men who love the truth, love hurting sinners and aren’t too proud and haughty to change. It is time for a big change folks! WE NEED A SPIRITUAL REVIVAL in this nation! It is way past the time to clean house in the churches, to remove the dead branches and make way for the new. The churches need to be purged of the old dead pastors who refuse to heed THE TRUTH. Pastor Jeff Redlin berated and mistreated me for being a truth-teller. SHAME on Campus Church and Pensacola Christian College for allowing him to continue abusing people.

When I told Jeff Redlin that I was divorced for 16 years, hurting from loneliness and someday I longed to find a woman to remarry, he again berated me, actually scolding me for looking for a wife at Campus Church. That is not a genuine man of God, that is a horrible phony! Any godly pastor would have discerned my pain and shew some empathy, offering to pray with me over the matter. Jeff Redlin is an academic, not a man of God. He has no business leading people of any group size. It saddens me to know that thousands of PCC students will end up influenced by Mr. Redlin, growing THICKER SKIN like him, so that hurting redeemed sinners like me are made to feel like garbage when they attend Campus Church.

I humbly asked Pastor Redlin for an apology, for mistreating me as a divorced person, and for mistreating me for faithfully contending for the Christian faith, to which he refused and I never heard from him again. What a wicked person! In a word, Jeff Redlin is sinfully arrogant. God will judge between me and him (Romans 3:2). I have told THE TRUTH about the corrupt Bob Jones University crowd. Jeff Redlin sinfully bids them Godspeed (2nd John 1:11). The issue is not about me dear reader, it is about how pastors treat people. The issue is about the truth. The issue is about right doctrine. I am sick and tired of being insulted, mistreated, shunned, ostracized, slandered and hated by pastors for TELLING THE TRUTH. Go figure!

So, no, I don’t want to grow

thicker skin,

ever. I like being sensitive. Some people might even call me oversensitive,

but the truth is that they are INSENSITIVE!!! The Bible says that the Lord was not in the fire, the strong wind or the earthquake, He was just a small voice. ...

> 1st Kings 19:11-13, “And he said, Go forth, and stand upon the mount before the LORD. And, behold, the LORD passed by, and a great and strong wind rent the mountains, and brake in pieces the rocks before the LORD; but the LORD was not in the wind: and after the wind an earthquake; but the LORD was not in the earthquake: And after the earthquake a fire; but the LORD was not in the fire: and after the fire a still small voice. And it was so, when Elijah heard it, that he wrapped his face in his mantle, and went out, and stood in the entering in of the cave. And, *behold, there came a voice unto him, and said, What doest thou here, Elijah?”

Dear friend, you won’t find God in the strong wind of Campus Church, nor the strange fire of the Charismatic movement, nor in the earthquake of New Evangelicalism; but you will find God in the still, small, quite Voice of the Word of God. Luke 16:31, “

And he said unto him, If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead.

” God doesn’t speak to people through Franklin Graham’s pro-Catholic heathen crusades. God doesn’t speak today through milquetoast puppets like Jeff Redlin, who sinfully bids Godspeed to the Calvinist and Alexandrian cult at Bob Jones University. God speaks through humble nobody’s like me, who faithfully preach THE INSPIRED WORD OF GOD!!! No man can be used of God who refuses to humble himself to the Scriptures!

We’ve got a bunch of theological liars in the churches today. The accursed Southern Baptist Convention (SBC) presently has 45,000 member churches, all of which subscribe to the demonic lie that you must “ repent of your sin with all your heart

if you want to get to Heaven. No such teaching is found in the inspired King James Bible. So what the Devil’s crowd has done is re-write the Bible to fit their ungodly corrupt theology. All of the new bibles say that you must turn away from living in sin to get to Heaven. But the Bible doesn’t really say that.

For example: Consider Mark 1:15 in the Devil’s [1]Easy-To-Read Version (ERV)...

The Greek word for “repent” in Mark 1:15 in the King James Bible is metanoeo, which means, “to think differently.” This is the verb form of the word. The noun form is [2]metanoia (“a change of mind”). Repentance is a simple change of mind. It DOESN’T mean to “change your hearts and lives,” which is what the corrupt ERV says!!! . . .

KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) — Mark 1:15, "And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye , and believe the gospel." [emphasis added]

EASY-TO-READ VERSION (ERV) — Mark 1:15, "He said, "The right time is now here. God's kingdom is very near. Change your hearts and lives , and believe the Good News!" [emphasis added]

WICKEDNESS!!! That is wrong, wrong, wrong! Repentance is "a change of mind," not "a change of heart and life." You cannot show me anywhere in the Bible that says to "turn from sin" or "repent from sin" to be saved. Acts 20:21 speaks of "repentance toward God," not from sin. 2nd Timothy 2:25 speaks of "repentance to the acknowledgment of the truth," not from sin. We are saved by BELIEVING, not repenting. Yes, repentance is necessary for salvation, but to "repent" simply means to change your mind, acknowledging THE TRUTH that you are a lost sinner, so that you will believe the Gospel (Galatians 3:24-26).

I like my sensitive thin skin! I don't want to become hard, uncaring, calloused and insensitive like Pastor Jeff Redlin, Timothy Zacharias, Sean Quinlan, Marty Herron, Steve Pettit, Chuck Phelps, Joe Hansen, Jared Baldwin, Gary Walton, John MacArthur and other wicked pastors today who are destroying the work of God by their coldness, indifference and incompetence! Someday say, "

Amen!

The reason why I started my website ministry 20 years ago, by God's grace, back in 2002, is simply because I am sensitive. I do care! I have never accepted a single penny for my labors for Christ and never will. It is a labor of love for God, people and truth!!! My website stands apart from most other websites, because I make a fuss over the little details that New Evangelical pastors make fun of me over. They laugh at me at Pensacola Christian College, mocking me. Pastor Jeff Redlin and the other Campus Church pastors scorn my ministry because I preach THE TRUTH without compromise or apology like they do! I tell THE TRUTH, even if it offends some people. It is sad but true that my biggest ministry enemies are pastors! That is because some are jealous of me, like Sean Quinan and Jeff Redlin.

Others hate me because I expose their false teachings, like the pastors at Harvest Baptist Church cult on Guam. I exposed their demonic Lordship Salvation! I exposed their demonic Devil's bibles! I exposed their false unsaved idol, Martin Luther (1483-1546). Mr. Luther taught the heresy of Baptismal Regeneration (that you must be water baptized to go to Heaven) his entire life! That means Martin Luther went to Hell forever in his false religion. I say that sadly. NO ONE is saved who adds water baptism to faith alone in the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ!!!

Most of today's pastors, evangelists, missionaries and Bible college professors are blinded by Satan. They are serving mammon (a money-making career) and not God (Luke 16:13). They are serving their bellies and not the Lord Jesus Christ (Romans 16:17-18). They are wolves in sheep's clothing (Matthew 7:13-15).

3.5.1 Draw Nigh Unto God And He Will Draw Nigh Unto You (2022-05-01 16:28)

James 4:1-17, “

From whence come wars and fightings among you? come they not hence, even of your lusts that war in your members?

Ye lust, and have not: ye kill, and desire to have, and cannot obtain: ye fight and war, yet ye have not, because ye ask not.

Ye ask, and receive not, because ye ask amiss, that ye may consume it upon your lusts.

Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God.

Do ye think that the scripture saith in vain, The spirit that dwelleth in us lusteth to envy?

But he giveth more grace. Wherefore he saith, God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble.

Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you*. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts, ye double minded.

Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to heaviness.

Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you up.

Speak not evil one of another, brethren. He that speaketh evil of his brother, and judgeth his brother, speaketh evil of the law, and judgeth the law: but if thou judge the law, thou art not a doer of the law, but a judge.

There is one lawgiver, who is able to save and to destroy: who art thou that judgest another?

Go to now, ye that say, To day or to morrow we will go into such a city, and continue there a year, and buy and sell, and get gain:

Whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow. For what is your life? It is even a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away.

For that ye ought to say, If the Lord will, we shall live, and do this, or that.

But now ye rejoice in your boastings: all such rejoicing is evil.

Therefore to him that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin."

I learned many years ago that the proper way to study the Bible is to never lift a particular Scripture out of context; but rather, interpret that verse within the context of the entire surrounding passage. The main Bible verse that I wanted to use to write this blog is from James 4:8, "Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts, ye double minded.

" So I then looked at the adjacent verses, to make sure I got the correct interpretation.

But as I went verse by verse, adding more surrounding Scriptures to go along with my text verse from James 4:8, I realized the the entire chapter of James chapter 4 needs to be included, because it is all applicable. And of a truth, I suppose we would need to include the entire cannon of 66 books of Scripture, since all of the Bible must be considered when interpreting any particular Scripture. When our suggested interpretation agrees with all of the Holy Bible, then we know we've found the correct meaning. But if even one verse in the Bible disagrees with our suggested interpretation, then we know that we must keep looking, because we have the wrong interpretation.

For example: Mark 16:16, "

He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned. " At a glance, a person might errantly conclude that water baptism is required to go to Heaven. But if we look at 1st Corinthians 1:17, we know this is not accurate,

"For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the gospel: not with wisdom of words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of none effect." Clearly, if water baptism were required to be saved, then Paul never would have made these statements. Please also consider that God authored the Epistle of 1st John so that each believer can "know that ye have eternal life" (1st John 5:13b). Yet, John never mentions any form of baptism in his epistle.

So in James 4:8 we have a solemn PROMISE from God almighty, that if we will simple draw nigh (near) unto Him, then He also will draw nigh unto us. The reason why we must draw near first is to show that we are humble. James 4:6-7, "But he giveth more grace. Wherefore he saith, God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble. Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you." God avoids proud people. The churches today are filled with proud and arrogant pastors and members.

You can tell when someone is proud by how they respond to broken sinners. How do they treat them? When I attended Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College, Pastor Jeff Redlin mistreated me horribly. One of my ministry's bitter enemies had sent him some slander about me on the internet to the Campus Church, to attack me. As a fool, Jeff Redlin believed the slander and mistreated me as a result. At first he wouldn't respond to my emails, shunning me away. But then when I persistently asked him what was wrong, he told me that someone had sent him gossip, and he believed the untrue rumors as only a fool does. Jeff Redlin is a wicked person, a fool, an abusive clergy who has no business standing behind any pulpit. Pastor Jeff Redlin is sinfully proud, arrogant, a holier-than-thou hypocrite, who shamefully condemned me based upon unfounded slander. That is a really bad pastor!

DRAW NIGH UNTO GOD the Bible promises, and HE WILL DRAW NIGH UNTO YOU. But please notice the conditions in the surrounding verses. We are commanded in verses 8-10 to " Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to heaviness.

Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you up. " If you want to get close to God, you need to share His yoke, that is, His burden over rampant sin in American society today, and God's burden for the lost to be saved. It is no different than with earthly friends. If you want to get closer to a friend, you share their interests and hobbies. You find out what is important to them and you learn about those things. That is what a good friend does! Many people do not know the differenced between a friend and a mere acquaintance (someone you know). A friend is a gift from God.

The world always wants top party hardy and have a good time. You will need to break away from all that if you want to draw nigh unto God. You don't find God in the crowd, you find Him alone at home or in nature. You don't find God in the churches, you find Him in the body, soul and spirit of every born-again child of God (1st Corinthians 3:16-17; Romans 8:9; 1st John 3:24). I love the blessed Holy Spirit, who is God living inside of me (and every believer).

The Bible tells us also in James 4:11 not to slander our Christian brother or sister. You cannot draw near unto God vertically, while slandering and being at odds with your earthly brethren horizontally. Being right with God CONDITIONALLY requires being right with man on earth. Matthew 5:23-24, "Therefore if thou bring thy gift to the altar, and there rememberest that thy brother hath ought against thee; Leave there thy gift before the altar, and go thy way; first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift." It does matter how we treat others. No one can walk with God who mistreats people. I know Pastor Jeff Redlin doesn't walk with God, because he was mean, abusive, uncaring, inconsiderate, indifferent and calloused toward me and THE TRUTH that I gave him.

Campus Church preaches blatant heresy about Bible repentance. The deadly lie of "repent OF YOUR SIN" to be saved has crept into 90 % of Baptist churches across the world. You cannot show me any such teaching in the inspired King James Bible. It is truly sad and tragic, causing millions of people to perish in their sins and spend eternity burning in the fires of Hell. The Southern Baptist Convention (SBA) alone has 45,000 member churches, all of which cling to the Devil's heresy that to get to Heaven you must turn away from your sinful ways. That cannot be a gift! A gift by every definition of the word means something freely received WITHOUT COMPENSATION OR OBLIGATION. So how can a person be saved if they must keep the law (don't steal, don't commit adultery, don't bear false witness, et cetera)?

Jesus plainly told the Samaritan woman at the well in John 4:24, "God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth. " You absolutely CANNOT worship God in heresy! The Satanic Roman and Orthodox Catholic church worships God in vain, worshipping Him with ceremonies and rituals, but not in spirit. If you have ever attended a Catholic church mass, then you know exactly what I mean, the place is totally devoid of the Holy Spirit of God. The spirit of Satan permeates the entire Catholic religion, from the top to the bottom!!!

The entire chapter of James 4 tells us how to draw close to God. We read at the beginning of the chapter about the friendship of the ungodly world, which is enmity (enemies) with God. Verse 4 says that to be a friend (to assist) the world is to become GOD'S ENEMY!!! Most pastors today are God's enemy and don't even realize it, because they support the [1]Devil's counterfeit Bible revisions, and they preach the Devil's damnable lies of [2]Lordship Salvation and [3]Wrong Repentance (aka, "

turn away from your sins

Although it is true that in order to turn TOWARD Christ, you must also turn AWAY from someone, that something is not committing sins; that something is UNBELIEF. The only requirement to be saved is that you first know what you are being saved from, and that is from THE WAGES OF OUR SINS, which is Hell. Romans 6:23,

“For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.” You don’t need to forsake your sinful living to be saved; but contrawise, Jesus came to die for your sins so that you could be forgiven of them! Whatever changes God wants to see happen in your life will be dealt with by the indwelling Holy Spirit AFTER you are in Christ, and you can rest assured that God will attend to that department of your life. God is not an absent parent (Hebrews 12:6-8).

Bob Jones University (BJU) today is a dangerous religious cult! BJU in 2022 is very different than when Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) was at the helm. “Dr. Bob” as he was known was [4]100 % right on the Gospel, teaching that we simply “believe” to be saved. [5]BJU teaches something very different today, requiring that you also repent and turn from your sins to be saved, which is exactly what the Mormons teach! First here is what BJU teaches in their official statement of faith. Bob Jones University is [6]pulling on the same rope as the Devil! Here is a deceptive quote from their college’s website:

With regard to the doctrine of Soteriology:

> We believe Scripture teaches that salvation is by grace alone, through faith alone, in Christ alone (Eph. 2:4–10; Rom. 3:21–26; Titus 3:5) and apart from any human work of righteousness (Phil. 3:9). God offers this salvation freely to all men *who are willing to repent and turn from their sins (Acts 3:19, 17:30) and place their full faith and trust in the atonement Christ made by His finished work on the Cross (Luke 24:46–48, Heb. 9:11–15, 10:10–14). [emphasis added]
>

Now look at what the Mormon’s teach on their official website:

> “Repentance is one of the first principles of the gospel and is essential to our temporal and eternal happiness. It is much more than just acknowledging wrongdoings. It is a change of mind and heart that gives us a fresh view about God, about ourselves, and about the world. It includes turning away from sin and turning to God for forgiveness. It is motivated by love for God and the sincere desire to obey His commandments.” [emphasis added]
> SOURCE: [8]The Church Of Jesus Christ Of Latter-Day Saints - Repentance

That is 100 % Lordship Salvation! That is exactly what Harvest Baptist Church on Guam and Bob Jones University are sinfully preaching these days, for which God’s curse is upon them! Galatians 1:8, “But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.” Pastor Marty Herron is cursed! Pastor Gary Walton is cursed! BJU is cursed! [9]Pacific Garden Mission and their ’[10]UNSHACKLED’ are cursed! [11]Pastor John MacArthur is cursed, to whom Moody Bible Institute, BJU and the Bob Jones’ crowd all bid Godspeed, making them partaker of his [12]Calvinist counterfeit gospel! These men are devils in the pulpit today!!! The Mormon website further heretically states concerning repentance:

> “Through the Atonement of Jesus Christ, our Father in Heaven has provided the only way for us to be forgiven of our sins. Jesus Christ suffered the penalty for our sins so we can be forgiven if we sincerely repent. As we repent and rely on His saving grace, we will be cleansed from sin.” [emphasis added]

I couldn’t show you a clearer example of the heresy of partial faith in Christ, plus works. Nowhere does the Bible teach that we must “repent of our sins,” and continuing repenting of our sins as a lifestyle, to be saved. [14]Evangelist Ray Comfort teaches this nightmare theology, that you must continuing repenting of your sins your whole life to be saved. Getting saved is not a process, it is a new birth! You don’t get cleansed of sin as you make an effort to turn from them, and rely on Jesus’ saving grace while you are doing it. This is a counterfeit gospel based upon works, and not faith alone. Do you see friend how evil Lordship Salvation is? It is a false Gospel that adds to faith. Whereas the Bible simply teaches to “believe” to be saved, proponents of Lordship Salvation require that you make an effort to turn from your sins, and then secondly trust Christ. That is NOT the Gospel which the King James Bible teaches!

Dear friend, you cannot draw nigh unto God until you are first His redeemed child. That is, you must experience the second birth. This happens only by faith alone in the Good News (Gospel) of Christ crucified, buried and risen the third day. I am wearied with all the Satanic heresy in churches today!!! The Bob Jones University crowd have infected thousands of churches with their spiritual rat-poison! Sadly, Pensacola Christian College has also been [15]infected with the virus of Wrong Repentance.

God desires to draw near unto each of His children. The Lord is no respecter of persons. Simply be humble. Don’t come to God with a critical spirit toward your brother or sister in Christ. God knows that I have often prayed for the ungodly pastors (e.g. Marty Herron, Gary Walton, Jeff Redlin, Sean Quinlan, Joe Hansen, Jared Baldwin) who have despitefully used me, cast out my good name as evil and persecuted me for contending for the faith. All of those names I mentioned are shameful leaders in apostate churches today! But I do not hate them, I hate their rotten attitudes! I hate what God hates, their arrogance and haughty pride. When I humbly handed them THE TRUTH, they sinfully rejected it (Hosea 4:6). Dr. Tom Ferrell rightly said that: “A friend helps a friend to see.” But when I befriended them with THE TRUTH that Lordship Salvation is not the Gospel, and repentance does not mean to “turn away from sinful living,” and the modern Bibles are perverted of the Devil, they spat in my face as they did Christ also. God will be my Judge (Romans 3:4). I have faithfully TOLD THE TRUTH!!!

So if you want to draw nigh unto God, you MUST walk in truth dear friends. 3rd John 1:4, " I have no greater joy than to hear that my children walk in truth." Do you walk in truth friend? If you don't have a King James Bible, then you do not walk in truth, because you don't have THE TRUTH. Make sure to use ONLY the inspired King James Bible. Please don't let anyone tell you different.

We are also admonished in James 4:13-17 never to boast of our future plans without saying: "If the Lord will" or "God willing." I always talk with those phrases, knowing what the Bible teaches in James. People sometimes look at me funny, but that is okay, I am obeying what God told me to do. It is a sin that Bible says to plan for your retirement someday, without including the fact that you might not be around to enjoy that day (Proverbs 27:1). We live in an unpredictable world. The world is full of wicked, greedy, adulterous and heathen infidels (1st John 5:19). PAYDAY SOMEDAY!!! I am glad to be on the winning side in Jesus Christ.

In this blog I am NOT speaking about getting saved, except to say that you cannot draw near unto God if you are not saved (1st Corinthians 2:14-16). I am speaking about WALKING WITH GOD. If you want to be close to God, you don't have to be perfect, He just wants you to GROW. 1st John 1:9, "If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. " Simply confess your sins and weaknesses to God, which means being honest with yourself first. You cannot fool God.

Walking with God should be a buddy type friendship, but a respectful one. We ought to fear God as we would a godly Father. The only time we need to literally be afraid of God is when we hurt others, because Matthew 7:1-2 warns that God will judge all men according to how we judge others! 2nd Corinthians 5:11 warns of the TERROR OF THE LORD!!!

Hebrews 10:31, " It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God. " Can you imagine when George Harrison of The Beatles died in 2001, and fell into the hands of God almighty? I am saddened for George, who made it very clear that his Savior was not Jesus Christ, it was Hara Krishna. The Bible warns that salvation is found only in the name of Jesus (Acts 4:10-12). Jesus Himself said in John 14:6, "Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me."

The dearest thing to God is SOULWINNING!!! So if you really want to be close to God, then start sharing the Good News of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Treat people the way you want to be treated, with love and honesty (Matthew 7:12). Start sharing the Gospel with the people in your life, and those whom you meet (Luke 8:15). Abide in the Word of God day and night (Psalms 1: John 17:17; 2nd Timothy 3:16). Let Jesus live the Christian life through you (Galatians 2:20).

Present your body as a living sacrifice unto God, to serve Him with the talents, resources and gifts which He has entrusted to you (Romans 12:1). Let your light (good works and holy living) shine before men, so that your Father in Heaven may be glorified (Matthew 5:16). Do these things are you will become close to God. Pray without ceasing (1st Thessalonians 5:17).

Spend time each day with the things of God, and just like a musical instrument, over time you'll become good at it. No one feels like they know God overnight.

I have been saved for 42 years, since 1980 when I was 13 years old. I feel closer to God today than I ever have. He is my Friend, my God and my Savior. I having a loving relationship with the Lord. We laugh and I am constantly sharing the humorous things in my life with Him. I know that Jesus loves me, not because I always feel it (and I sure do), but moreover because the Word of God tells me so (John 3:16). So many people make God out to be their worst enemy. But friend, it doesn't have to be that way. Let God love you, and then you will begin to love yourself, and only then can you let that love of God flow through you to others.

When I met Pastor Jeff Redlin in July of 2021 at Campus Church in Pensacola, Florida, I discerned right away that he is a shallow, immature and cold believer.

John 5:42, " But I know you, that ye have not the love of God in you." Mr. Redlin was fortunate to be chosen as the pastor of Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College(PCC), but unfortunately FOR THE STUDENTS at PCC, Jeff Redlin doesn't have God's love in Him. I felt nothing but contempt, hatred and despisement from him for the summer of 2021 at Campus Church.

John 5:42, " But I know you, that ye have not the love of God in you."

When you have God's love inside you, as I humbly do from walking with Jesus, you know quickly when someone doesn't have Christ's unconditional love for all humanity. I would expect the heathen world not to have God's love, but that is inexcusable for the pastor of any church, especially a giant place like Campus Church. PCC is not wise to hire and keep Jeff Redlin, a fool, because he does not have God's love in him. You show me a bad pastor who mistreats people (as Jeff Redlin did to me), and I'll show you a shallow man who DOESN'T walk with Jesus! John 5:42, " But I know you, that ye have not the love of God in you."

When you walk with the Lord, He rubs off on you! Acts 4:13,

"Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus. " When you walk close to the blessed Savior, you WILL become bold to speak THE TRUTH. That is why I preach without apology or compromise against the ungodly Bob Jones University camp today. BJU is a cesspool of Lordship Salvation (i.e., Calvinist heresy). BJU promotes the Devil's corruptible seed (false bibles). BJU preaches Wrong Repentance (requiring people to keep the law to be saved).

Sadly, Pensacola Christian College (PCC) sinfully bids BJU Godspeed, which makes them partaker of their evil deeds (2nd John 1:11). I am BOLD to expose both of these wicked religious groups today, who combined are corrupting thousands of New Testament churches with their spiritual filth. BJU and PCC are carnally-minded, full of arrogant blinded supporters who are indifferent toward THE TRUTH. Therefore, they foolishly attack and criticize me and my faithful ministry of telling the truth for God. Romans 3:4, "God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged."

3.5.2 Just Decide Once And For All That God Is Good (2022-05-03 11:08)

Psalms 145:9, "The LORD is good to all: and his tender mercies are over all his works." 1st Corinthians 1:9, "God is faithful, by whom ye were called unto the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord."

1st Peter 5:7,

"Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you.

I decided many years ago that I wasn't going to place God on trial every time something went bad in my life. We've all been there. Any one of a thousand things can go wrong in a person's life. I have seen time and time again, where people became bitter and angry at God when something bad happened in there life.

I am thinking now of one young woman who became bitter at God when her husband died while attending Bible college. She later became an atheist!

I am thinking of another woman whose parents died at a young age, and she had to grow up without her Mom and Dad. She hated God for it.

I have met countless people throughout my life who were bitter at God for various reasons. The heathen world is always putting God on trial, blaming Him for the problems in this world. A common complaint that I hear from the atheist community is that if God were a God of love, then why would He allow starvation, suffering and war in the world? But dear reader, how can we blame God for what we have done, caused and allowed in this world. God doesn't start wars, men do!

God doesn't cause starvation, men do! If we simply loved our neighbour as ourselves, there is plenty of transportation, money, resources and food to help those starvation folks in Africa. If we can put a man on the moon, and send a robot to mars, and explore the galaxy with the new James Webb Telescope, then we certain CAN feed the poor and malnourished on our own planet earth! The amazing [1]James Webb Telescope ended up costing $10,800,000,000. Wow, that's a lot of cheddar! You could feed a lot of hungry people with that kind of money. [2]Elon Musk just paid a staggering $44,000,000,000 to acquire Twitter. Did you know that [3]10,000 children die each and every single day from malnutrition? That is not God's fault. It is OUR FAULT as human beings. [4]Americans spend $80,000,000,000 each year on sports! So how can we blame God for our nation not caring enough to help the poor in Africa?

God is so good to all of us. Psalms 145:9, "The LORD is good to all: and his tender mercies are over all his works."

I never have to decide if God is good again, because I have already accepted THE TRUTH that God is good. If I were to look at today's disgusting and shameful preachers (ungodly pastors like Marty Herron, Steve Pettit, Chuck Phelps, Jared Baldwin, Timothy Zacharias, John MacArthur, Jeff Redlin, Sean Quinlan, Gary Walton, Joe Hansen and other rotten religious phonies), then I would become bitter against God. But I am wise enough to understand that it is not God's fault that these compromised men don't care about THE TRUTH. These ungodly imposters don't care about hurting people, unless they are in their little cliché of superficial friends. God is not to blame for the apostasy and shameful behavior of today's incompetent clergy in America!

Dear friend, just decide once and for all time that GOD IS GOOD!!! If your car breaks down, God is good. If your child dies, God is good. If you lose your job, God is good. If your wife or husband files for divorce (as mind did in 2006), God is good. If you lose your home (as I did), God is good. If you have been mistreated and abused by church pastors (as I have many times), God is still a good God. GOD IS ALWAYS FAITHFUL. 1st Corinthians 1:9, "God is faithful, by whom ye were called unto the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord."

The Bible says that God cares about me.

1st Peter 5:7,

"Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you.

" So when I sometimes feel like God doesn't care about me, I don't have to re-decide if God really cares or not. No matter what bad things have happened in my life (and hundreds of bad things have already happened), I decided decades ago that GOD IS ALWAYS A GOOD GOD!!! I don't need to put God on trial, because I KNOW He is a good God. I know God is faithful.

I know that God cares about me. Why do I know that? It is not because I feel it, because I often don't. It is simply because I have faith in the Word of God that it is true! I believe that the inspired King James Bible is 100 % accurate, perfect and true, otherwise I'd burn it! I am leery of all these incompetent pastors today who continually put the King James Bible on trial, finding fault with it, attempting to correct it. Dear friend, the Bible doesn't need re-writing, it needs to be re-read again and again. We ought never correct the Bible; but rather, allow the Bible to correct us!

God is fair. That is, He is just! 1st John 1:9, "If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness." God is so fair that He promises to forgive His children even before we ask Him to do so. If we simply CONFESS our sins to our heavenly Father, He promises to forgive us. You don't even have to ask for His forgiveness, because He is already offering it to you.

I speak to Christians. Even though our POSITION in Christ was forever settled at the moment of justification (salvation), our CONDITION in Christ depends day-by-day upon our staying confessed up in our sins with God. Every believer ought to walk closely with God, daily confessing our sins. We find this truth reiterated in what is often called: "The Lord's Prayer" (which is really The Disciple's Prayer, because Jesus is teaching His disciples how to pray). In The Lord's prayer Jesus says: "Forgive us..." Jesus has no sins to be forgiven of, so clearly Jesus was not speaking about Himself in Luke 11:1-4; but rather, to believers, teaching us how to pray to the heavenly Father.

God is good to the unsaved person, giving them every opportunity to be saved. 2nd Timothy 2:13, "If we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself." God is such a good God that He simply requires a person to BELIEVE the Good News (Gospel) of Jesus Christ to get to Heaven. Nothing more is required or permitted in God's simple plan of salvation. We are taught repeatedly throughout the Gospel of John to simply "BELIEVE" on the name of Jesus Christ to be saved. Jesus died on the cross in our place to pay for OUR SINS! He was buried. Three days later, Christ physically arose from the dead, by the miraculous power of God. This is The Gospel (1st Corinthians 1:4). We are saved by BELIEVING this Gospel (Good News) according to Romans 1:16, "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek." What a good and just God!!!

Everything that God does is right! Job 9:3, "

If he will contend with him, he cannot answer him one of a thousand.

" I once [5]heard actor Robert De Niro sinfully say:

"If there is a God He has a lot to answer for." Oh my! What a fool! No, God doesn't have to explain anything to anyone! It is Robert De Niro who has A LOT to answer for, because of all the nudity, blaspheming God's holy name, raunchy lewd behavior and wickedness in his hundreds of Hollywood movies that he will give account to God for (Romans 1:32). De Niro made his hundreds of millions by [6]corrupting people's minds with his perverse acting roles.

Dear reader, as of April 2022 Mr. De Niro has a shocking net worth of about $550,000,000. Wow! I have to eat Ramen Noodles and save up for months to purchase a professional Deering banjo, but Mr. De Niro could purchase the Deering banjo company many times over if he wanted. Isn't it something how most of the time it is the rich people of this world who are poor in faith, but it is the poor people who are rich in faith? That amazes me! What saith the Scripture? James 2:5, " Hearken, my beloved brethren, Hath not God chosen the poor of this world rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which he hath promised to them that love him?" You see, rich people already think they have a form of heaven on earth; but poor people suffer, and so they need some hope, and God's promise of eternal life, a home in Heaven and all the blessings and splendors of Heaven can be theirs by just having FAITH in Jesus Christ as their Savior. That's a great deal!!!

I am so glad that I am not in Robert De Niro's shoes, after saying what he said about God having to answer for a lot.

Actress Angelina Jolie once said: "There doesn't need to be a God for me. There's something inside people that's spiritual, that's godlike." Oh how wrong she is! Hebrews 10:31, "It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God." Angelina is a fool. We all need God. We all need God's only begotten Son, Jesus. John 14:6, "Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me." Angelina desperately needs Jesus Christ, or she will spend eternity burning in Hell with other Christ rejecters. I could mention hundreds of big name celebrities who have put God on trial, publicly attacked God. That is a very unwise and foolish thing for anyone to do!

A commonly quoted favorite passage of Scripture is Hebrews chapter 11, often called: "

The Hall Of Faith." In this beautiful passage we read about Noah, who by faith moved with fear to build the ark. And we read about king David, who went out by faith to slay Goliath with a sling shot and Goliath's own sword. And we read of Rahab, who by faith hid and helped the Jewish spies in Canaan. But we rarely, if ever, hear about the last portion of Hebrews 11...

> Hebrews 11:36-40, "And others had trial of cruel mockings and scourgings, yea, moreover of bonds and imprisonment: They were stoned, they were sawn asunder, were tempted, were slain with the sword: they wandered about in sheepskins and goatskins; being destitute, afflicted, tormented; (Of whom the world was not worthy:) they wandered in deserts, and in mountains, and in dens and caves of the earth. And these all, having obtained a good report through faith, received not the promise: God having provided some better thing for us, that they without us should not be made perfect."

These were children of God, who suffered horribly! Some were eaten by wild animals. Others were sawn asunder. History purportedly evidences that the prophet Isaiah was sawn asunder by his wicked grandson Manasseh. We know that Peter was burned at the stake. Paul the apostle was beheaded (as was the Apostle James by Herod in Acts 12) by wicked Nero. Deacon Stephen was stoned to death for preaching THE TRUTH. Hebrews 11:26-40 speaks of saints who were tempted (e.g., Joseph, David, Abraham, Achan, Josiah, et cetera). Many saints had to wander homeless, escaping for their lives (Lot and his family, David, Paul and the Jews). Throughout recorded human civilization, history bears witness that Christians have suffered oftentimes, even unto brutal unthinkable torture and death.

I don't have to decide day-by-day if God is fair, loving, good, faithful or if He cares about me. The answer is: "Yes," ten thousand times, "YES!!!" God is faithful. God is just. God cares. God is always right. God is good. God loves me. God wants what is best for me, even though it might mean for me to suffer horribly, lose everything and have nothing more than my faith in this earthly life. God is so good, He is so good to me!!!

3.5.3 Vice President Kamala Harris Is A Wicked Person (2022-05-05 13:14)

Jude 1:15-16, "To execute judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken against him. These are murmurers, complainers, walking after their own lusts; and their mouth speaketh great swelling words, having men's persons in admiration because of advantage."

Someone sent me this disturbing video today of our shameful Vice President, Kamala Harris, catering to a wicked group of feminist abortionists.

The Devil Is A Beautiful Liar!

What saith the Scripture? Proverbs 16:5, "Every one that is proud in heart is an abomination to the LORD: though hand join in hand, he shall not be unpunished." Carefully notice in her speech that Miss Harris says: "We" umpteen times. They are joined hand-in-hand, "in this together," she says. This fight requires this group of this organization, "Emily's List." They are joined together to murder children in the womb! The Bible says though hand join in hand, the wicked shall not be unpunished.

Abortion is WICKED! Having an abortion doesn't make a woman [1]UN-PREGNANT, it just makes her the mother of a DEAD BABY! Search the internet and you will learn THE TRUTH, as testified by Sharon Osborne (Ozzy's wife), that abortion was the WORST THING I EVER DID!!! I greatly admire Sharon for being honest. I think she is a good woman who (like all of us) has made some bad decisions in life. The [2]abortion industry DOESN'T TELL WOMEN THE TRUTH!!!

In her pathetic speech Miss Kamala wickedly says:

> "We say, How dare they! How dare they tell a woman what she can do and cannot do with her own body. How dare they! How dare they try to stop her from determining her own future! How dare they, try to deny women their rights and their freedoms!"

No Kamala, HOW DARE YOU! How dare you flaunt your women's rights against the righteous God of the Holy Bible! HOW DARE YOU disregard the precious life of a human being in the womb! HOW DARE YOU ungodly liberal Democrats weaponize the use of the law against human life in the womb! HOW DARE YOU try to deny babies in the womb their rights and their freedoms!!!

In everything ungodly Miss Harris said in her ungodly HARD SPEECH, as Jude said, she keeps focusing on the mother instead of the child. What utter selfishness! You'll never hear a word out of the ungodly mouths of these ungodly people about abstaining from ungodly sexual immorality (which is the real problem). I am preaching against wicked men as much as wicked women, because many men fully support, desire and fund abortion for the women they commit wickedness with.

Jude 1:15-16, "To execute judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken against him ." HARD SPEECHES WHICH UNGODLY SINNERS HAVE SPOKEN AGAINST HIM!!!

I once worked many years ago with an ungodly Caucasian married man, who dated an ungodly young Korean woman behind his wife's back and got the young woman pregnant. He was a talker and told everyone at work what was going on in his ungodly life. He ungodly told me that he ungodly begged the ungodly young Korean woman to get an ungodly abortion, and he ungodly paid $400 for her to have an ungodly abortion, and she ungodly did, sadly. This is America today!!! I am not condemning the man or the woman, because I am as much as sinner as they are, AND SO ARE YOU! Romans 3:23 indicts all humanity as SINNERS!!!

I am not preaching against sinners in this blog, I am preaching against sin. SHAME on Vice President Kamala Harris for flaunting the ungodly rights of ungodly women, who commit their ungodly sexually immoral sins, and then want an ungodly abortion. IT IS WICKEDNESS!!! I am not against women's rights, I am against women's rights trumping a baby's rights in the womb. NO ONE has a so-called "right" to murder another human being. If a fetus is not a life, then why does a murderer need to take action to stop a beating heart? Many child have been born a few months prematurely, proving that fetuses are living human beings. Job 20:5, " That the triumphing of the wicked is short, and the joy of the hypocrite but for a moment?

Everything that Kamala Harris says is backwards. In her ungodly hard speech she says that pro-life advocates are guilty of BULLYING the pro-murder crowd. But in fact, abortion advocates are BULLYING babies in the womb, demanding the right to exterminate them! That is eerily reminiscent of Nazi Germany's holocaust against the Jews in World War II. Dear reader, whether a Jew in World War II, an elderly person with stage 4 cancer or an innocent child in the womb of its mother, every human being has a RIGHT to live. If God gives life, who are you or me, or anyone else, to take away that life? No one has that right. Exodus 20:13, "Thou shalt not kill."

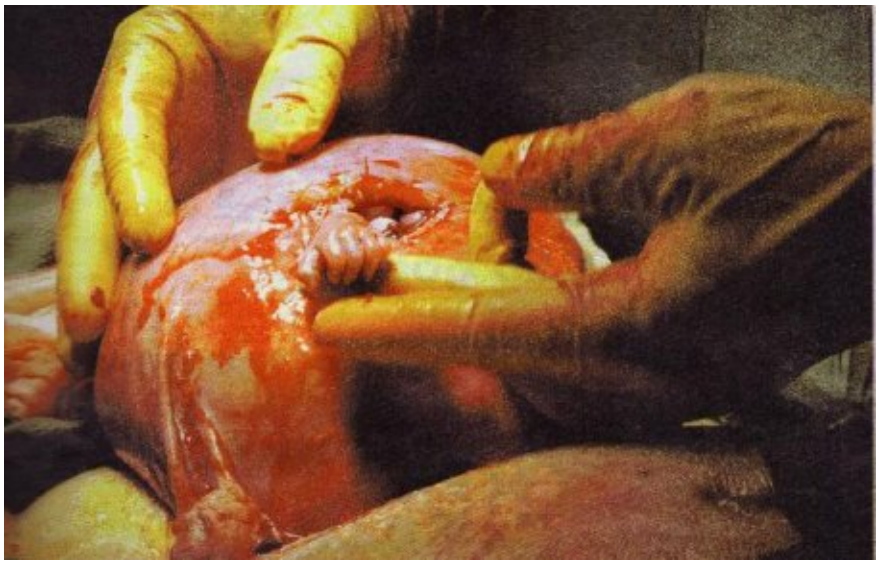
founding principles of our country.



” I assure you that none of our founding fathers approved of murdering a human being in its mother’s womb!!! She speaks of freedom and right, but for whom? The bottom line is that Republicans are defending the rights and freedoms of human life in the womb; whereas Democrats don’t care about life in the womb, they only care about the rights and freedoms of women to fornicate and then shirk off the consequences and responsibilities that come with getting pregnant.

Vice President Kamala Harris sinfully twists THE TRUTH around, accusing pro-life advocates of committing “a direct assault on freedom.” Freedom for whom? That is the whole issue! A human being in the womb has every right to live, just as the mother has a right to live and be free. Sadly, Jeffrey Dahmer and John Wayne Gacy had more rights and freedoms than human life in a mother’s womb since Roe vs. Wade in1973. Think about that! HOW DARE KAMALA HARRIS deprive a child’s right to live and be free.

Our society is sensitive when it comes to the well-being of children, yet liberal Democrats are okay with assaulting a child in the womb, cracking its skull open and sucking its brains out! The vacuum device which abortionists use is 39 more powerful than a household vacuum cleaner unit! Would you want someone to cut the back of your head open and suck out your brains? I sure wouldn’t! Whatever happened to THE GODLEN RULE? Matthew 7:12, “Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets.”

One abortion doctor was moved, when a small human hand reached out from the womb of a mother upon whom he was performing an abortion to kill her baby, which subsequently compelled him to never perform another abortion. Here is the photo:

[4]The Value Of A Soul

(MP3 sermon by Pastor Jack Hyles)

Jude 1:15-16, “To execute judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken against him.”

How dare Kamala Harris defy the God of the Holy Bible! She bloviates in her speech that, “Democracies cannot be strong if women’s rights are under attack.” What about the rights of humans in the womb? Only a demonic controlled U.S. Supreme Court would rule that a fetus is not a human life! Jeremiah 1:5, “ Before I formed thee in the belly I knew thee; and before thou camest forth out of the womb I sanctified thee, and I ordained thee a prophet unto the nations.” Abortion is an assault against a baby’s Creator, God almighty!!! Every human being is created in the very image of God our Creator. The abortion gang totally disregards the Holy Bible, disregards God, and disregards the value and sacredness of human life. HOW DARE KAMALA HARRIS TELL A WOMAN WHAT SHE CAN DO WITH HER OWN BODY!!! You have no right to murder anyone!!! Dear mother, your rights end where baby’s body begins! When Scott Peterson was convicted for murder in California, he was convicted for TWO MUREDERS, one for his unborn child in the mother’s womb! What hypocrites in our government!!! So when it comes to non-approved murder, we count a fetus as a life; but when it is approved murder, we refuse to count a fetus as a life. What idolatry! It is idolatry when man elevates his own will above the laws of almighty God in the Holy Bible (Exodus 20:13).

I contend that a child in the womb has A RIGHT TO PRIVACY!!! No one has a right to rip open a mother’s womb with her consent, and violate the privacy of a defenseless baby, and then brutally assault and commit first-degree murder against that poor little helpless human life!!! HELL WILL BE HOT ENOUGH for the unsaved wicked!!!

It is amazing how the Devil wrestles the truth. Miss Harris repeats the word “right” dozens of times throughout her ungodly hard speech. I seriously doubt if she even wrote her own speech. The White House has notoriously used speech writers for the past few decades, because none of them have the intellectual ability (with the exception of Barack Obama) to write such powerful speeches.

I DON’T stand with Kamala Harris and her thug gang of killers in the abortion industry. Every conceived child has a right to live, to enjoy the same rights and freedoms that every other U.S. citizen enjoys. Wicked men keep changing the laws. Thirty years ago smoking marijuana was against the law, but today it is legal in many states and is a major source of tax revenues for the government. Ironically, in those states there are people serving life sentences in prison for distributing and selling marijuana. Go figure!

In 1962 homosexuality was a punishable crime in all 50 states. As recently as 2011 homosexuality with a punishable crime in Texas. Sadly, as of June 2015 same-sex perversion is the new law of the land. My point is that humanity wants to be our own God. Judges 21:25, "

In those days there was no king in Israel: every man did that which was right in his own eyes. " The people wanted to do THE RIGHT THING that Bible says! But they wanted to decide what was good or evil. That is why the U.S. Supreme Court ruled in Roe vs. Wade in 1973 that a fetus is not a human life, because to live with themselves they must think they are doing THE RIGHT THING. So by ruling that a child in the womb is not a human being, abortionists can murder millions of babies with impunity. But THE TRUTH is that they are woeful deceived of themselves. ABORTION IS COLD-BLOODED MURDER!!! Hebrews 4:13, "Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do."

Kindly said, Vice President Kamala Harris is a wicked person, who is in serious trouble with God for sanctioning abortion (which is legalized pre-meditated murder). Sadly, [5]she profess to be Baptist in her faith. She claims to attend the [6]Ebenezer Baptist Church in Atlanta, Georgia (where [7]Martin Luther King Jr. was the pastor). Few people realize that [8]Martin Luther King Jr. openly denies Jesus' deity, virgin birth and bodily resurrection in his writings. That means Mr. King was NOT a born-again Christian, and di not go to Heaven, even though he was a Baptist preacher. Sadly, social activists have exploited Christianity and the New Testament church to further their social agendas, while not having the true Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ. 2nd Timothy 3:5, "

Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away. **"

The Ebenezer Baptist Church in Atlanta, Georgia has A FORM OF GODLINESS, but they deny the saving power of the Gospel. That is, they don't preach a free grace Gospel. Romans 1:16, "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek."

Instead, the followers of Martin Luther King Jr. preach a false social gospel of being transformed in your attitude. They do not preach faith alone in Jesus Christ to receive eternal life. That is not what Martin Luther King Jr. taught. Kindly said, here is the type of heresy that [9]their infidel pastor, Senator Raphael Warnock, publicly preaches today:

> "The meaning of Easter is more transcendent than the resurrection of Jesus Christ. Whether you are Christian or not, through a commitment to helping others we are able to save ourselves," —[10]Senator Warnock - A Pastor - Preaches Damnable Heresy

In sharp contrast, read what Jesus said in John 3:3, "Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God. " I have searched their church website. I have listened to Pastor Warnock's sermons. I have searched the internet. And yet I haven't been able to find anything to indicate that the members of the Ebenezer Baptist Church are born-again saints. As far as I can tell, with Pastor Martin Luther King Jr.'s writing in hand, they are a politically-oriented religious cult!

This is the phony group that Kamala Harris identifies with, having a form of godliness (like Satan - 2nd Corinthians 11:13-15), but denying the saving-power of the Gospel! Where is the Gospel? If they are saved, they should tell the world so. If they believe the Gospel, then they should preach that Gospel. I mean, after all, that is The Great Commission for the churches (Matthew 28:19-20). If you think that Martin Luther King Jr. went to Heaven, knowing that he denied Christ's deity, bodily resurrection and virgin birth, then you need to get saved yourself dear friend.

HOW DARE KAMALA HARRIS sanction the murdering of an innocent child in the womb! HOW DARE ABORTIONISTS trump their selfish rights over the blessed gift from God of a human life in the womb. Psalms 127:3, " Lo, children are an heritage of the LORD: and the fruit of the womb is his reward." Millions of women are barren and cannot conceive. They would give anything just to conceive a baby, yet tens of millions of Americans have cruelly murdered their very own flesh and blood, snuffing out a candle (a life) which only God Himself can grant. Children are a gift from God. Oh, how can anyone kill a beautiful little life in the womb? We are monsters in the United States!!!

I read in the news a couple weeks ago that the U.S. government is raising the eligibility age for retirement to 75 years old. Ha Ha Ha! You stupid fools in America! You thought you were exercising your right to fornicate and commit adultery, and exercise your right to murder your own children, and not 50 years later 60 million Americans. So you screwed yourself, because now you cannot retire at 62, you have to work until 75 or beyond to feed yourself. Americans GET WHAT THEY DESERVE!!!

In closing, Kamala Harris closes her ungodly hard speech by asking for God to bless America. You've got to be kidding! Jeremiah 7:8-10,

Behold, ye trust in lying words, that cannot profit.

Will ye steal, murder, and commit adultery, and swear falsely, and burn incense unto Baal, and walk after other gods whom ye know not;

" Dear reader, it is NEVER God's will to needlessly take the life of a child. Despite the elusive ridiculous back-alley-coat-hanger incident (which has never been medically documented once), 99.99 % of all abortions are of perfectly healthy babies.

Tragically, since Roe vs. Wade in 1973, American women have murdered 63,459,781 babies in the womb!!! We have brought God's judgment upon our nation. Exodus 23:21, "Beware of him, and obey his voice, provoke him not; for he will not pardon your transgressions: for my name is in him." No one who has ever had an abortion, sanctioned an abortion, recommended an abortion, funded an abortion, applauded an abortion, performed an abortion, helped perform an abortion, or even remained silent instead of speaking-up against abortion, WILL BE held accountable by God.

The Tender Mercies Of The Wicked Are Cruel

Dear reader, the Bible says that a righteous man regardeth the life (i.e., one's comfort and value) of his beast. Proverbs 12:10, "A righteous man regardeth the life of his beast: but the tender mercies of the wicked are cruel." The Hebrew word for "regardeth" here is yada, which means: "o bservation, care and recognition.

That is, a righteous person has God's love shed abroad in their heart by the indwelling Holy Spirit. A righteous person observes the living conditions of people and animals, and they care to do something to improve those conditions if they're less than ideal.

But the Bible says that the tender mercies of the wicked are cruel. In other words, what an unrighteous person considers

" is in reality cruel. We see this unusual cruelty today in our tyrannical American prison system, which incarcerates human beings like animals in a 6' x 10' cell for inhumane amounts of time (decades), which studies have shown often drives people to insanity, depression and suicide. Some people think that is what a criminal deserves, but that is not God's way. Pastor Steven Anderson preached a wonderful sermon in 2016 on this important topic titled: " [11]The Criminal Injustice System .

I have heard all my life from insane liberals, leftists and wicked people about the cruelty and inhumane treatment of capital punishment (i.e., the death penalty). But then those hypocrites are okay with locking someone in a small 6' x 10' cage, for 23 hours a day, for an entire lifetime (which causes many inmates to go insane from the mental torture of claustrophobia). Furthermore, it is commonly known that most inmates get sexually and physically assaulted while incarcerated, and nothing is done to stop or deal with it. Since there is an ugly sub-culture within prison systems, there is no way to protect inmates all the time. The whole system is flawed! I have watched numerous prison documentaries, hearing countless inmates say that they were not homosexual until they were incarcerated. Most people cannot just turn off their libido and pretend they aren't human anymore. Desperate people do desperate things! Prisons are ungodly, invented by Satan...

> Isaiah 14:12-17, "How art thou fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning! how art thou cut down to the ground, which didst weaken the nations!

> For thou hast said in thine heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God: I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north:
>
> I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the most High.
>
> Yet thou shalt be brought down to hell, to the sides of the pit.
> They that see thee shall narrowly look upon thee, and consider thee, saying, Is this the man that made the earth to tremble, that did shake kingdoms; That made the world as a wilderness, and destroyed the cities thereof; that opened not the house of his prisoners?"

I mentioned the ungodly American prison system to illustrate Proverbs 12:10, "A righteous man regardeth the life of his beast: but the tender mercies of the wicked are cruel." Many people would say that abortion is an act of mercy, a good thing, because many of those aborted children would have been born to low income parents in unwed difficult situations. May I remind you that Jesus was born into a poor, low-income, family. Jesus' mother was single and pregnant out of wedlock as far as her community was concerned. They didn't believe that she conceived from a virgin birth. Would you have accepted that story from Mary?

The unbelieving Jews insulted Jesus, reminding Him that He was born from the sin of fornication (because they didn't believe that He was the virgin born Son of God)... John 8:41, "

Ye do the deeds of your father. Then said they to him, We be not born of fornication; we have one Father, even God.

" I believe they were mocking Him in anger.

I literally heard some liberal in the news claim that abortion helps reduce the crime rate. The man claimed that many of these black children who are aborted would have been born into homes without a father image, leading to more delinquent youth and higher crime. That way of thinking is of the Devil!

Having said all these things in this blog, I want everybody to know that I love people. God loves women who have abortions! We must never accept the sin with the sinner, nor reject the sinner with the sin. I am not writing to condemn sinners, God forbid. Jesus said in John 3:17 that he did not come into the world to condemn the world, but to save the world. So I am not condemning anyone. But as believers God expects us to expose all works of darkness. Ephesians 5:11,

"And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. " The word

"reprove" is the Greek word elencho, which means: "to expose."

God's children have a duty to expose works of darkness! The Devil's modern Bible perversions are works of darkness. Lordship Salvation is a work of darkness. The heresy to "repent and turn away from your sins" is a work of darkness. Calvinism is a work of darkness. Pastor Jeff Redlin (of Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College) bidding Godspeed to the Calvinist Bob Jones University camp is a work of darkness!

Sadly, today's ungodly clergy don't care. They don't care about right doctrine. They don't care about how they treat people (Jeff Redlin shamefully treated me like garbage in the summer of 2021 at Campus Church. He also criticized my website ministry because I expose false teachers and uncaring preachers). When is the last time that you heard any preacher expose the evils of a, and also Campus Church at PCC, since I moved here 9 months ago in July of 2021, and I haven't heard even one pastor preach against sin of any kind. Today's pastors aren't preachers! They refuse to take a stand against anything. Their priority is to make money, get along with ministry peers, and to please and impress their home Bible college. That is why Jesus warned in Luke 16:13 that NO MAN can serve God and mammon (a carrier, money).

Kindly, in closing, Kamala Harris is pulling on the same rope as the Devil. Proverbs 17:15, "

He that justifieth the wicked, and he that condemneth the just, even they both are abomination to the LORD.

Galatians 3:13, “O foolish Galatians, who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you? This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith? Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh?”

Sadly, many churches today are not churches at all, but deadly religious cults. Any so-called “church” that preaches another gospel is a cult. The Harvest Baptist Church on Guam is dangerous religious cult, not a New Testament church. Satan is always trying to creep his fatal poisonous doctrines into the churches. The Devil has greatly succeeded. The rotten Southern Baptist Convention today has 45,000 member churches, including the First Baptist Church of Pensacola downtown, which was founded in the year 1847. Although full of a lot of really awesome people, the FBCP is corrupt. Their senior pastor preaches hardcore Lordship Salvation, teaching people that faith is not enough to get to Heaven, he says you must also repent and turn away from your sins, follow Christ as Lord your entire life, and live for Christ. Dear reader, none of this is the Gospel!

I sat in their sanctuary one Sunday morning, new to Pensacola, visiting different churches. I was horrified when I heard Pastor Dave Snyder get up behind the pulpit and tell several hundred people present that to get to Heaven they must turn from their sins and follow Christ as “ for a lifetime. What saith the Scripture? When the Roman jailor asked Paul and Silas:

“Sirs, what must I do to be saved?” The simply answer was: “

Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved.

” If repenting to turn away from sinful living was required to be saved, then Paul and Silas assuredly would have mentioned it, but they didn’t.

Folks, heresy has flooded into our churches. The official statement of faith of the Southern Baptist Church (SBC), of which the First Baptist Church of Pensacola (FBCP) is a member, teaches that to be saved a person must repent of their sins with all their heart. You cannot show me that teaching anywhere in the inspired King James Bible. And don’t you dare quote to me some corrupt modern version, because the Devil has been in the Bible publishing business since 1881, when Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort first introduced their damnable Greek New Testament to the naïve religious world. Satan is the god of this world (2nd Corinthians 4:3-4). You has better believe that the Devil is going to corrupt God’s Word, to blind men’s minds to hinder them from seeing the light of THE TRUTH of the Gospel, lest they be saved.

I would join the FBCP if they simply preached a free grace Gospel, but they do not. I attended their Discovery Class recently. They have a double standard at FBCP. In that class (which was professionally done), we were told by Pastor Snyder himself that the church believes in salvation by faith alone, but that is not what I heard Pastor Snyder preach in the sanctuary a few months back. I love them at FBCP and I am their friend. I am not a troublemaker. It is not my place to correct their pastors, and I am tired of making enemies everywhere I go. The Devil has deceived today's church pastors, [1]causing them to be caught between grace and works (an awesome sermon by my friend Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold, [2]MP3).

When I attended the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam for a year in 2014, there ungodly pastors were preaching the Devil's tommyrot of Lordship Salvation, Wrong Repentance, using the Devil's corrupt Bibles, and teaching that Martin Luther (1483-1546) is in Heaven. Luther taught his entire life that you must be water baptized to get to Heaven. Go read his catechisms online, written by him in 1529. Luther allegedly got saved in 1517 by faith alone. Uh, I don't think so! In fact, I know so, because NO ONE has ever been saved who thinks that you must be water baptized to get to Heaven, which is works. If God excuses ignorance, then certainly the false prophets in Matthew 7:21-23 would have been pardoned, but Jesus said: [3]"

[4]I NEVER KNEW YOU!

" (an excellent book by Michael P. Bowen)...

[5]Caught Between Grace And Works! | [6]MP3

[7]MORE (AWESOME TRUTH! By [8]Pastor Ralph "Yankee" Arnold - Please share with OTHERS!!!)

I am not the enemy of Harvest Baptist Church on Guam (although they would say differently), I am simply REBUKING THEM SHARPLY who subvert whole households (Titus 1:9-14). Harvest bids Godspeed to the dangerous cult at Bob Jones University, broadcasting BJU's daily chapel services throughout Micronesia.

When I heard the pastors of Harvest preaching another Gospel of Lordship Salvation, I sincerely tried to help them. Evangelist Tom Farrell was right: "

A friend helps a friend to see.

" Ironically, I heard Dr. Ferrell say that on Harvest's KHMG 88.1 FM radio station on Guam. But when I tried to help Marty Herron, Joe Hansen, Jared Baldwin and Gary Walton see, they were greatly offended and reprimanded me, literally calling me, Dr. Jack Hyles and Pastor Al Lacy

"a cult" because we expose the Devil's modern corrupt Bible revisions. SHAME on those wicked pastors, none of whom ought to be trusted to stand behind any church pulpit.

Long story short, I was forced to leave Harvest after their pastors attacked me for TELLING THE TRUTH. I humbly believe that God sent me to Harvest Baptist Church on Guam to help them, but they killed the messenger. Whether or not God led me to Harvest I do not know, but I DO KNOW that God used me to tell them THE TRUTH, which they rejected. God will hold them accountable (Matthew 12:36; Galatians 3:1:6-9, 3:1-3, 5:4, 6:7). My blood is on their hands at Harvest. I rebuked their pastors Biblically for preaching another gospel of Lordship Salvation (which is Calvinism repackaged).

I rebuked them sharply for preaching another gospel of "repent and turn away from a lifestyle of sinning" to get to Heaven, which is totally unbiblical. Jesus came to die for our sins on the cross, not demand that we KEEP GOD'S LAW in the Old testament to be saved (Romans 3:19-20). When you tell someone to repent "of their sins," you are trying to keep them under the curse of the law. Galatians 3:24-26 teaches that the purpose of God's law is to show us our sinnership, and then bring us to Christ to be saved by grace through faith alone.

I rebuked those wicked pastors for promoting Satan's corruptible seed, pulling on the same rope as the Devil. Sadly, Campus Church and Pensacola Christian College sinfully bid Godspeed to the rotten Bob Jones University cult (of which are all the pastors at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam). They idolize Dr. Steve Pettit ([9]their cult leader and president of BJU since 2014). I was horribly kicked out of Harvest Baptist Church on Guam and banned from returning. They shunned and ostracized me, not only in the church, but in the small community on Guam. Everywhere I went I was mocked, laughed at, ignored, given hateful looks, and mistreated because their cult leaders turned the church members against me! Ladies and gentleman, that is the dangerous power of a cult.

My only offense was TELLING THE TRUTH, for which I was blackballed, despised and demonized by Marty Herron, Joe Hansen, Jared Baldwin and Gary Walton (cult leaders). The Bible teaches salvation by simple childlike faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. You don't get saved by forsaking a lifestyle of sinning. You don’t get saved by counting the cost and paying the price to follow Christ as “ of your life. These ungodly infidels are spiritually blind.

For 7 long and very painful years, I had no church family. I lost all of my friends that I had made at Harvest Baptist Church, because their wicked pastors bad-mouthed me publicly and turned the entire church against me. Literally, dozens of my Harvest Baptist Church on Guam neighbours wouldn’t even look at m anymore. They avoided me, shunned me, never invited me to activities anymore, didn’t care about me anymore as a hurting human being, and left me to rot, throwing me under the bus! In desperation in 2017, I even begged Harvest’s pastors to please let me come back to church, because I was lonely. Talk about casting pearl before the swine!

In hindsight I never should have requested to return to a cult. But I was emotionally broken down, weak and needing the love of a church family. That wicked devil, senior pastor Marty Herron, literally said to me, verbatim:

“Go elsewhere!” There was no compassion, no love of God, no mercy, no genuine care or concern; they just left me to die, like Ben Fieldhouse, who killed himself in 2010 (Ben was a member of Harvest Baptist Church on Guam). Harvest is a Satanic cult, who have repeatedly rejected THE TRUTH! Bob Jones University (BJU) is cult headquarters. [10]BJU is also the Alexandrian Cult.

Dear friend, I know the utter inexplicable pain of thinking that I am attending a New Testament church; but then became horrified to learn that I was in a deadly religious cult, who preach another gospel of partial faith plus works to be saved, who promote the Devil’s bibles, and make light of THE TRUTH. I have been faithful to earnestly contend for the Christian faith (Jude 1:3). I have been faithful to REBUKE THEM SHARPLY that they might be sound in the faith, but they are not listening (Titus 1:9-14). I have been faithful to refute all works of darkness (Ephesians 5:11). These wicked pastors in their spiritual blindness, wretched condition and arrogance have hurt, maligned, shunned, ostracized, slandered and turned countless people against me. That is the dangerous power of a cult over people!

You see, people by nature are followers. They want to love and support their leaders, especially church pastors (who speak about God). I have seen this trend over and over, where church members yield their mind, heart and body to church pastors. Some are sexually taken advantage of by ungodly pastors. It is not hard to see how pastors get away with these types of horrible sins, when we see how people are so submissive, unquestioning and loyal to the point of creepiness to pastors! Folks, we ought to serve Jesus Christ, not a bad church or pastors! If you tithe to a corrupt church, you are wasting your money! If you are tithing to a false church that preaches another gospel of Wrong Repentance and/or Lordship Salvation (Calvinism), then YOU ARE IN A RELIGIOUS CULT! When church leaders exceed what the Scriptures teach, then that church has become a cult!

You cannot show me one verse in the Bible that backs-up the heresy of Lordship Salvation. You cannot show me even one Scripture that says to repent “of your sins” to be saved. If you don’t have a King James Bible, you don’t have an inspired Holy Bible in the English language! I am being your best friend right now. These are not my poet peeves, this is THE TRUTH!!!

Please make sure that the church you are attending is not a cult. If the pastor tells you that more than faith is required to be saved, RUN FROM THAT PLACE! If your pastor says that you cannot just write your name, date and place that you became a child of God (born again), RUN FROM THAT PLACE! Dr. Steve Pettit at BJU preaches that garbage theology, saying that [11]you cannot just [12] “ accept Christ

and that’s it!

How WRONG he is!!!

When church members will no longer even wave back at you, because you tried to help them by giving them THE TRUTH, they are in a cult. Too many churches today have become deadly religious cults, where the pastors have frightening power of influence over people’s lives. I have known Christian women to divorce their husband, for no other reason than her pastor told her to. That is as wicked as Hell and frightening! No one ought ever recommend a divorce, especially men in the clergy. I said “ men,

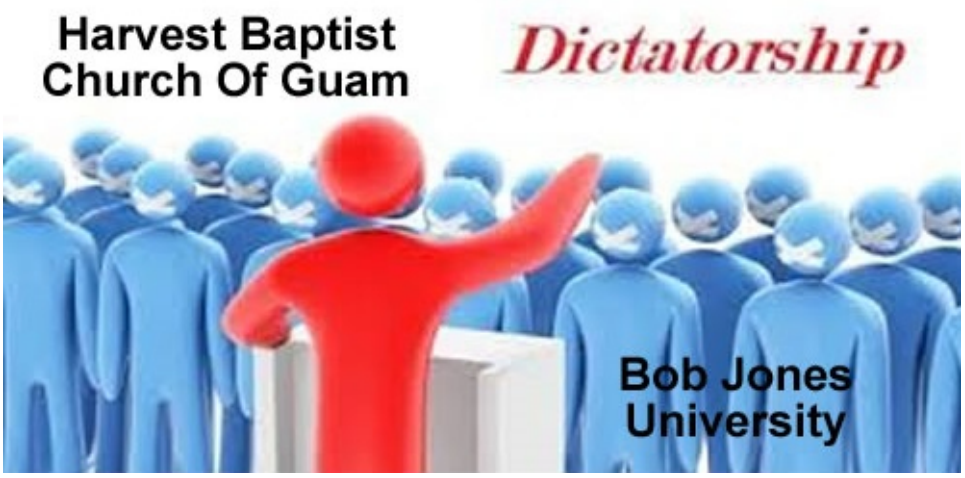
because women are forbidden Biblically to pastor a church. It is the sin of rebellion against God!

The biggest cult of all is Roman Catholicism, which we don’t hear enough preaching against in churches today. Baptist pastors have dropped the ball for God. Preachers no longer contend for the faith. They no longer take a stand against sin, falsehoods and evil. God pity us!



I know the inexplicable emotional pain of being shunned and ostracized in the community by a religious cult, by the hellish Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. By God’s grace, I will continue to expose them for the rest of my earthly life, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ, to warn others who may unsuspectingly walk into their deadly cult entrapment. Dear reader, please think for yourself. I said, please THINK FOR YOURSELF!!! Don’t just blindly follow clergy, who may be leading you into the fires of Hell, [13]like this degenerate fool, Pastor Isaiah Saldivar. That is my work for today, I need to expose this wicked infidel. Isaiah has 357,000 YouTube subscribers!!! This infidel is a child of the Devil, a false teacher, preaching a corrupt plan of salvation.

Thank you for reading my blog. I love you with Christ's love, whoever you may be.

3.5.5 Learning To Have An Excellent Spirit Like Daniel (2022-05-11 13:35)

Daniel 6:3, “

Then this Daniel was preferred above the presidents and princes, because an excellent spirit was in him; and the king thought to set him over the whole realm.

I love this passage of Scripture, which I learned as a teenager at a Youth Rally that our church’s youth director took us too in Illinois. I don’t remember the year, the topic of the sermon, or the name of the church, but I do remember that the preacher taught us about Daniel’s excellent spirit. The Bible says that the prophet Daniel had AN EXCELLENT SPIRIT in him. That is so important dear friend. From the majestic king over the kingdom, and his humble servants who do his bidding, down to the poorest man in the kingdom who has nothing to his possession other than the clothes that he wears, we should ALL have an excellent spirit! What is an excellent spirit? I am so glad that you asked.

By the way, I highly encourage every church to bring your youth to the ’BILL RICE RANCH.’ I attended a couple years in a row and it forever changed my life. I heard Evangelist Paul Levin preach there on numerous occasions, and also Bill Rice III when he was a younger man. God used the ranch to impress upon me to served the Lord Jesus Christ.

Teenager are you lonely, do you need a Friend?

Take Jesus as your Savior, He will lead you to the end;

He’ll be your guide, stand by your side,

Teenager, take Jesus Today!

([1]click to hear above song’s melody)

Bill Rice Ranch in Murfreesboro, Tennessee. I’ve never forgot it.)

Daniel had an excellent spirit the Bible says. I want to be just like Daniel. When tempted to sin, Daniel fled, leaving his robe behind when Potiphar’s wife seduced him. I believe that if Joseph had sinned, God may have left him to rot in an Egyptian prison, but I don’t know. I do know that God was very pleased with Daniel for doing the right thing. We know that Daniel was a sinner, because the Bible teaches in Romans 3:23, “For all have sinned...”

When he was ordered by decree (law) of the king not to pray to his God (the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob) anymore, Joseph just kept on praying. Daniel opened his window toward the city of Jerusalem (400 miles to the west of Babylon, which is located in the country of Iraq today) to pray. Daniel had an excellent spirit when it came to his life of prayer. We ought to pray always and faint not (that is, don’t quit) the Bible teaches in Luke 18:1.

Very few preachers today have an excellent spirit. I humbly have any excellent spirit. I have never taken a single penny for my 20 years of internet ministry. I know that is an excellent spirit, that I don't want any money for serving God. My labors are a ministry of love for God, people and truth!!! To God be ALL the credit, glory and praise (John 15:5).

I am preaching a simple free grace Gospel. A sinner is saved by faith alone in the Good News (Gospel) of Jesus' death on the cross, burial and bodily resurrection the third day (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). I know that this is an excellent spirit, the spirit of THE TRUTH! Those false teachers today, such as those infidels in the Bob Jones University cult, do NOT have an excellent spirit; but rather, a familiar spirit of demonism. BJU preaches another gospel of Calvinism, aka, Lordship Salvation. It is a counterfeit plan of salvation, which cannot produce the new birth by the Holy Spirit. BJU is a cesspool of iniquity today, full of rotten wicked Christian imposters like Marty Herron, Gary Walton, Steve Pettit, John MacArthur and Chuck Phelps. These ungodly men all preach the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation!!! They have an evil spirit which permeates their ministries of darkness. When they speak of truth, they know not of what they speak. These are religious reprobates, not born-again saints!

Sadly, Pensacola Christian College (PCC) also has an evil spirit lurking in their apostate camp, bidding Godspeed to BJU. Not a word of rebuke is said against the rotten BJU cult. PCC is going down the toilet with BJU, slowly changing their doctrine to that is BJU. When I attended Campus Church at PCC during the summer of 2021, I was horrified to hear Pastors Timothy Zacharias and Jeff Redlin teach, and I quote exactly from their Foundation's Class: "Repentance is a change of mind resulting in a change of behavior." That is damnable heresy! Repentance unto life results in salvation, not behavior modification. PCC is espousing the damnable lie that if you're behavior hasn't changed, you are not really saved.

> "If you have to look at your life to prove that you are saved, it proves that you're not!" —Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold; an excellent quote from the awesome YouTube sermon titled, "[2]Why Lordship Salvation is WRONG!"

Pastor Jeff Redlin treated me like garbage when I attended Campus Church. There was no love, no compassion and no concern. The problem is not that Campus Church is TOO BIG; but rather, that Pastor Jeff Redlin's heart is TOO SMALL! I lost respect for that horrible person when he shunned me for hoping to find a wife at Campus Church. Jeff has a wife, but I am supposed to just use a pillow and box of napkins for the rest of my life to meet my needs, while he sleeps in a warn bed with his wife. What a wicked hypocrite!!!

Whatever little respect I had left was all gone when Pastor Redlin criticized my website ministry, falsely accusing me of finding weaknesses in preachers. No, I am faithfully exposing WICKEDNESS on today's shameful pastors! The pastors in the rotten Bob Jones University cult are preaching another gospel of Lordship Salvation, which is NOT a free grace Gospel. It is not THE TRUTH what BJU is saying! BJU promote the Devil's corruptible seed (the Devil's modern corrupt Bibles).

An excellent spirit is a truth-seeking spirit. Most of today's shameful pastors couldn't care less about THE TRUTH. They only care about their future paychecks! DO you have an excellent spirit friend? When I go to any store, I always grab loose shopping carts left in the parking lot. I do that because I want to have an excellent spirit, like Daniel. Caring about other people is an excellent spirit. Going above and beyond is an excellent spirit.

Sadly, very few of today's clergy (pastors, Bible professors, missionaries, chaplains, evangelists, et cetera) have an excellent spirit in them. They are a disgrace to the cause of Jesus Christ. They refuse to stand against error, and in so doing also fail to stand for THE TRUTH. Pastor Jack Hyles is right, they don't want to suffer reproach for the name of Jesus (2nd Timothy 3:12). They don't want to be outside the gate with Jesus, as Dr. Hyles said. That is so true! Preachers today are big cowards. They are afraid to offend their ministry peers. They are afraid to make waves and go against the herd.

Dear friend, getting saved is an individual decision. Living the Christian life is an individual decision. Standing for what is right is an individual choice. I thank God for putting the desire into my soul to fight the good fight of faith (Philippians 2:13). Sadly, most pastors today are serving mammon and not God (Luke 16:13). They have blinded by their love for money (Romans 16:17-18), for a steady paycheck (1st Timothy 6:10), at the expense of preaching THE TRUTH and contending for the faith (Jude 1:3).

A spirit of excellence is to love the sinner. We must never accept the sin with the sinner, nor reject the sinner with the sin. That is an excellent spirit.

When I attended Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College during the summer of 2021, Pasto Jeff Redlin was abusive, rude, unkind, insulting and he condemned me for slander that he found on the internet against me. If he had an excellent spirit, then he never would have repeated slander that he found on the internet, which he has no idea if it is true or false. Jeff Redlin is a wicked man, who listens to gossip and repeats it, condemning others based upon unfounded rumors. God's judgment is upon Pastor Jeff Redlin for being an evildoer. Mr. Redlin has a carnal spirit of hate, prejudice and talebearing. SHAME on Jeff Redlin and Campus Church. And SHAME on PCC for hiring and allowing him to continue mistreating people!

I want to maintain an excellent spirit. In 1,000 years I would never repeat to someone gossip that I read about them on the internet. Only a very sinful person would do such wickedness! An excellent spirit doesn't just happen by accident, you must purpose in your heart to have it! If you genuinely walk with God, you WILL have an excellent spirit, as God does. Pastor Redlin never once offered to pray with me. He criticized my website ministry, but never once did he compliment any of my 20 years of hard work for Christ online since 2002. That is a small pastor. I am saddened that such a big church has a pastor with such a little heart!

You can tell if someone truly walks with God by the way they treat other people, especially fallen sinners, the poor, those who are weak, despised and nobodies like me. Jeff Redlin is a religious self-righteous hypocrite, like so many people in the Pensacola Christian College camp. [3]Look what they did to Samantha Field, a former PCC student who was attacked on campus. [4]PCC doesn't have an excellent spirit in this matter, which is why Samantha is so upset at them. Whether you love people or not, they will know by how you treat them. Pastor Redlin didn't like me from the day he met me, and is prejudiced against me and my ministry, which is what wicked selfish people do. Jeff Redlin is as carnal as any heathen! I choose to expose him, so other people will be warned about him. Bad pastors need to be exposed!

An excellent spirit is not burying your head in the sand like an ostrich, like the Pensacola Christian College crowd does. Having an excellent spirit means to stand up for right doctrine, righteousness and to defend the weak and poor. God has no use for arrogant, haughty and snobby pastors like Sean Quinlan and Jeff Redlin, who sinfully bid Godspeed to infidels like Marty Herron, Gary Walton and John MacArthur (2nd John 1:11). The great need of the hour is PREACHING PREACHERS!!! People just want to be loved. I didn't find that love at PCC, and neither did Samantha Field, and neither will you friend. Let's not be like PCC, let's be better than them. Let's be like our dear Savior, who loved sinners and cared about everyone.

3.5.6 The Insane Satanic Theology Of PGM's 'UNSHACKLED' (2022-05-12 21:33)

Romans 4:3-7, "For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness.

Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt.

But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness*.

Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works, Saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered."

I am so sick and tired of Neo-evangelicals and there demonic perverse religious teachings. My father was a Skid Row preacher in Chicago for over 30 years. I tagged along with my Dad when he preached to the Skid Row men and women at Pacific Garden Mission (PGM). Back then PGM was doctrinally sound, when Jay Peirce and Harry Saulnier were still alive. Since the old days, PGM and UNSHACKLED have been hi-jacked by unsaved Neo-evangelicals, who preach hardcore Lordship Salvation instead of a free grace Gospel.

From time to time, I still listen to UNSHACKLED's radio program to see what's new. I was so disgusted today when I heard the testimony of Ronnie Levinson, a Jewish man who was devoted to his family tradition. Here is a heretical quote from today's program. This is Ronnie Levinson's lame and unbiblical testimony of how he got saved:

> "My thoughts turned to prayer. 'Ah, God, for 30 years I've been trying to live life my way, and look where I am. I'm disgusted. I'm disgusted by the man I've become. I'm disgusted by the life I've had. I'm done. I'm so done! I, uh, I guess I'm supposed to repent of my sins. Alright, God, I'm sorry, I'm sorry for my sin, all of it. Please forgive me! And I'm supposed to confess with my mouth. Alright, here goes: Je, Je. Oh well, (laughter) I'm having trouble saying your name. Help me! Please help me say your name. If you're really real will you show yourself? Jesus. JESUS! Jesus, you are my Lord. Jesus, you are real. I know. I can feel it. You're right here, with me. (laugher) Here in this beat up old car, with me. Thank you Jesus. (laugher) I love you Lord. Yes, I love you. (laughter) I'm free! I'm free! Thank you Jesus!"'

HERESY!!! Unshackled doesn't mention Jesus' death on the cross, nor His burial, nor His physical resurrection. The Apostle Paul defines "

the Gospel

for us:

> 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:"

The Gospel (i.e., GOOD NEWS) by which all who BELIEVE it are saved is:

1. Christ DIED on the cross for our sins.
2. He was BURIED.
3. Jesus RESURRECTED three days later from the dead.

Anyone who acknowledges being a guilty sinner (you've got to know what you're being saved from) in the holy sight of God, and receives Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for their sins, believing that He was buried but raised up from the dead, is saved. The only requirement to putting one's faith in Jesus Christ is to realize your need as a guilty sinner:

> Romans 3:19-20, " Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God. Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin."

The Old Testament law shows mankind our individual sinnership and need for redemption, and then brings us to Christ in the New Testament to be saved by grace through faith alone:

> Galatians 3:24-26, "Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith. But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster. For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus."

Once a person is saved, the law has served it's sole purpose in salvation, which is to give a man THE KNOWLEDGE OF SIN!!! The law shows him his wretched condition and hopelessness to save himself, and then brings him to Christ to be saved by faith alone.

In sharp contrast, what UNSHACKLED is preaching is of the Devil. Not one verse in the inspired King James Bible teaches to do anything other than BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST to be saved. Acts 16:30-31, "And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved?

And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house." The invitation to BELIEVE was also extended to the jailor's family. Nothing more is required nor permitted in God's simple plan of salvation.

At [2]22:55 time in the UNSHACKLED audio presentation , Ronnie tries to persuade his mother to forsake her lifetime Jewish tradition to become a Christian. She refuses, but then says she would need a sign from God. Ronnie tells her he will start praying to God for a sign. The next thing you know Ronnie's phone rings. It is his mother, who is ecstatically happy. She tells Ronnie that she accidentally cut her finger open with a knife, twice, in the same spot, and she is convinced that this was a sign from God. Folks, that is INSANE theology!!! God doesn't assault people, causing you to hurt yourself to get you saved by coercion. If a person will not receive THE TRUTH willingly, without force, then God will not hurt, injure or harass you to get saved. UNSHACKLED is getting weirder by the week.

A good rule to follow when interpreting the Bible is to never use an obscure passage to contradict a clear one. In the preceding heretical program about the story of Ronnie Levinson, they quote Romans 10:9-10, which is an obscure passage of Scripture. They are literally basing their requirement to “confess” the name of Jesus audibly on a single passage of Scripture. The Gospel of John was specifically authored to show people how to get to Heaven. John 20:31, “But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name.

In John we find the word

“believe” mentioned 88 times, but there is no mention of confessing, repenting, following, serving or surrendering one’s life to Jesus as to get to Heaven. Yet, tens of thousands of false teachers today are propagating

“

the same junk theology as UNSHACKLED, wickedly preaching that you must repent

“OF YOUR SINS”

turn away from your sin

ful behavior

to get to Heaven.

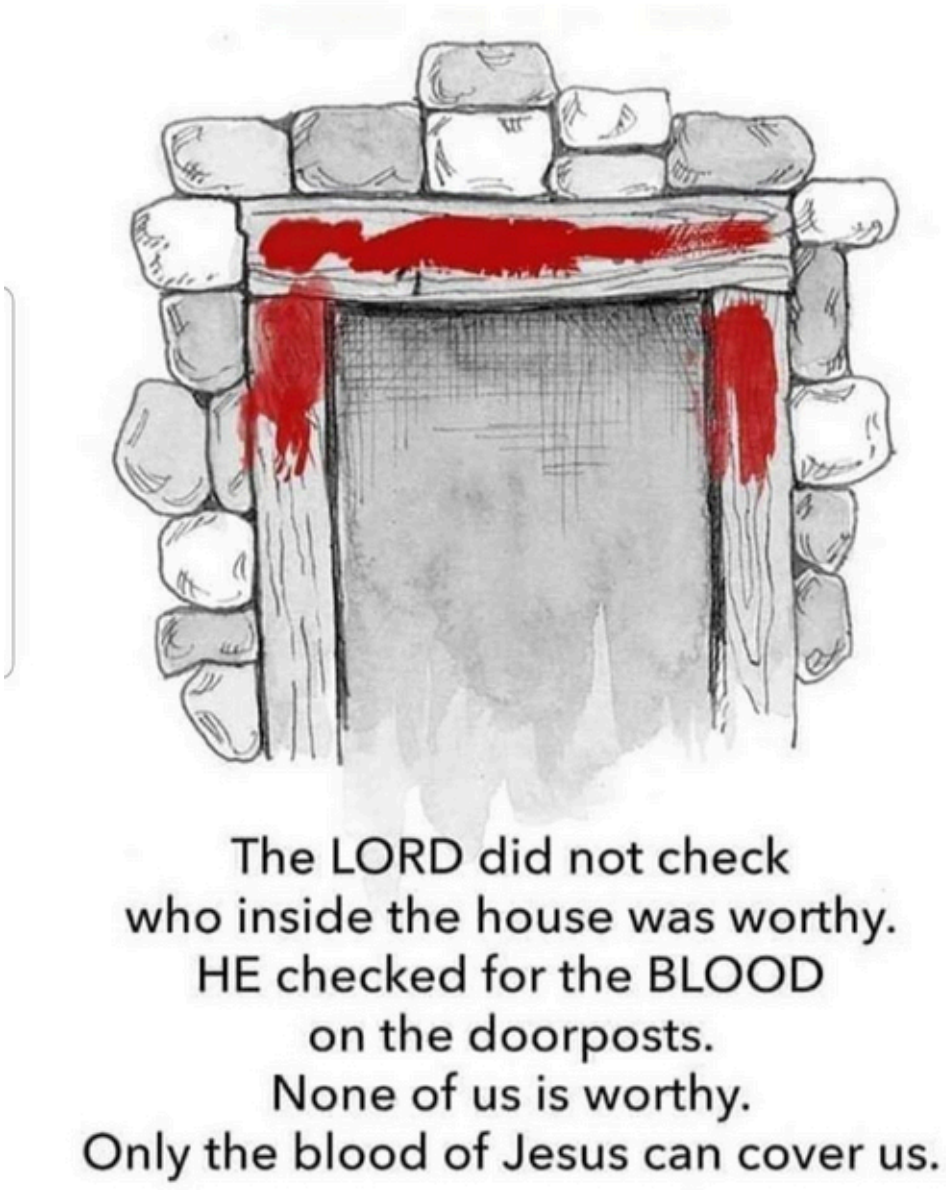
Salvation is not a reward for the righteous, it is a gift for the guilty!

Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ’s best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

Turning away from sinful ways would be a work. Faith puts all of the merit where it belongs, on the object of our faith, Jesus and His work.

If to “repent” means to forsake our sinful ways TO BE SAVED, but Jesus already paid for our sins by dying on the cross, then what are we repenting from?

The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU.



I am telling you THE TRUTH, but Pacific Garden Mission is telling you LIES!!! Nowhere in God's Word are we commanded to repent of our sins to be saved. Repentance in the Bible regarding salvation is always "

a change of mind.

" It is a change of mind from unbelief to BELIEVING!!! Repentance is only concerning THE TRUTH, and not from sinful ways (John 3:21). 2nd Timothy 2:25, "In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth;

And that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will." Notice that God doesn't give repentance from sins, but of THE TRUTH!

Repentance is a change of mind, so that a man acknowledges THE TRUTH that he is a guilty sinner in the sight of a holy God. Thus, seeing his need for salvation He is pointed to Jesus Christ to be saved by grace through faith alone (Galatians 3:24-26). What UNSHACKLED is preaching is of the Devil. It is another gospel which cannot produce the second spiritual birth by the Holy Spirit of God (John 1:12-13).

3.5.7 The Eternal Gospel - The Bible Way To Heaven (2022-05-13 23:22)

1st Thessalonians 4:14, “

For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.

One of my long time web visitors in Canada asked me if [1]I would kindly share his blog article on how to get to Heaven. I approve of all that is written:

> If you were to die today, are you a 100 % sure that you'd go to Heaven?
>
> You can know for sure. First of all the Bible says that we're all sinners. "For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God" (Romans 3:23). So we're all guilty of lying, stealing, or coveting.
>
> And the Bible says there's a punishment for our sins. ''For the wages of sin is death" (Romans 6:23a). This is not only referring to a physical death, but also to a second death in Hell. "And all liars shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone which is the second death" (Revelation 21:8). So according to this verse, we all deserve Hell as a punishment for our sins. We've all lied, and we've all done stuff worse than lying. We all come short of God's perfection. No amount of good works can undo the bad that we've done.
> But there's Good News! "the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord." (Romans 6:23b). So because God loves us He doesn't want us to go to Hell to pay for our own sins. That's why He sent Jesus Christ His Son, to be the payment for our sins on the cross. Jesus is the Son of God, and He's also God manifest in the flesh. "For there are three that bear record in heaven: the Father, the Word and the Holy Ghost, and these three are one" (1st John 5:7).
>
> Jesus is the Word of God (an equal member of the Godhead, or if you prefer, the Trinity). Jesus was born of a virgin. He performed miracles. He lived a perfect sinless life and the Bible says that He died on the cross for our sins. He was buried. He resurrected the third day from the dead. When Jesus died for your sins and mine, it's just as if He had done them Himself. Jesus was being punished in our place! 2nd Corinthians 5:21,
>
> "For He (God the Father) hath made Him (Jesus) to be sin for us (that means He bore our sins and died in our place, He paid what we owe to God for our sins), that we might be made the righteousness of God in Him (or in other words, that we might be declared righteous before God because of His finished work alone).
> The Bible says that salvation is a gift. "For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God. Not of works, lest any man should boast" (Ephesians 2:8-9). Since salvation is a gift (and gifts are always free), we don't have to give anything in return (it is not of works, not of our own doing). It's an undeserved gift. Jesus paid the full price for our salvation with his death, His shed blood and resurrection.
>
> The word grace means ''something we do not deserve" (remember, we deserve Hell, not salvation).
>
> And faith means ''what we are trusting to get saved." The Bible goes on to say in Romans 4:5, ''But to Him that worketh not, but believeth on Him that justifieth the ungodly, His faith is counted for righteousness." So the person who stops working to earn or keep salvation will be saved. Salvation has nothing to do with works and is entirely free.
> The one thing the Bible says we must do to be saved is: ''Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved'" (Acts 16:30-31). The word "believe" means to trust. It doesn't mean to only believe that Jesus exists, but to actually trust Him to save us personally. To "believe on Him" means that we put our trust in His death on the cross, burial and bodily resurrection. We get saved by simply receiving Christ's sacrifice on the cross as the full payment for our sins (which guarantees us eternal life).

The Bible doesn't say that you have to repent of all of your sins, or be water baptized, or join a church, or keep the Ten Commandments, or be a good person. The Bible only says: "believe." And once you believe on Christ, you will be saved forever. ''That whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have eternal life" (John 3:16b). Notice that the Bible says: "whosoever believeth," not whosoever is good enough (because no one is good enough to go to Heaven on their own merits; we all fall short.

That's why when you receive Christ, you will never perish (because He gives you eternal life, not temporary life). Jesus does the saving AND the keeping, all of it. Our part in salvation is only to "believe on Him" as our Savior, and He forgives all of our sins past, present and future.

The Bible says: "And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand" (John 10:28).

However, God will discipline His children for their sins on this earth; but no matter what they do afterwards, a child of God can never lose eternal life, because they have received the imputed righteousness (or perfection) of Christ by faith alone. God sees believers as being as righteous as Jesus is! It is just as if (Just-if-I'd) they had never sinned at all. "Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus:" (Romans 3:24). This is only possible because Christ died for "the ungodly" (Romans 5:6).

So the only thing you must do to receive God's free gift of eternal life is to BELIEVE on Jesus. "That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus (that means asking Him to save you), and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved." (Romans 10:9). "For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved" (Romans 10:13).

3.5.8 Ye Must Be Born Again (2022-05-14 11:06)

John 3:3-10, "Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God. Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born? Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again."

Sadly, we don't hear this Bible phrase and truth enough today: "YE MUST BE BORN AGAIN." Instead, we often hear from corrupt preachers that to get into Heaven we must surrender our entire personality to Christ, be willing to follow Him for the rest of our life, give Him complete control over our will as the Commander (Lord) of our life, and turn away from our sinful behavior. The problem is that NONE OF THAT is taught in the Word of God!

I am wearied with today's ungodly pastors and preachers, who incessantly embellish God's simple plan of salvation. In the inspired King James Bible, we are repeatedly taught that the way to get to Heaven is to BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST (Acts 16:30-31). This includes believing the FACTS of the Gospel (which means, Good News):

1. Christ DIED on the cross to pay for our sins.
2. He was BURIED.
3. Jesus RESURRECTED bodily the third day from the dead (1st Corinthians 15:1-6).

Jesus plainly warned in John 3b, "

Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.

" That which is born of the flesh (or water) is flesh, and that which is born of the Spirit (i.e., the Holy Spirit) is Spirit. That is why the Apostle Paul said in Galatians 3:2,

"This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?" Paul asked them: How did you get saved? How did you receive the indwelling Holy Spirit? Was it by keeping the works of the law (i.e., turning away from your sins), or by simply believing the Good News that you heard preached?

Do you know why we don't hear the great Bible truth: "YE MUST BE BORN AGAIN" anymore in today's Bible colleges and churches? It is sadly because wicked religious men have succumbed to heresy, caught between grace and works! Preachers are notorious for listening to other preachers, adopting their unbiblical clichés and ideas. In time, these errant wrestings (to distort or twist out of shape) of the Scripture becomes a religious cult. Bob Jones University (BJU) has become a religious cult since Dr. Steve Pettit became their new president in 2014. Dr. Pettit preaches hardcore Calvinism to BJU's 3,000 staff and students! God's curse is upon BJU today (Galatians 1:6-9; 3:1-3; 5:4; 6:7). No man can corrupt the Gospel and avoid God's wrath and punishment! Proverbs 30:5-6, "Every word of God is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him. Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar."

Dear reader: "YE MUST BE BORN AGAIN." It is not enough to follow, serve and surrender your life to Christ. You may do these things perfectly, and yet still miss Heaven and go to Hell for all eternity to burn in fire. It is not enough to faithfully attend and serve in a church. It is not enough to be water baptized to get to Heaven. Years ago in 2003, I read an article in the Chicago Sun Times about U.S. soldiers fighting in Iraq. Since there was a very real chance that some of them would be killed on the battlefield (and several thousand were), they were getting baptized the article said,

"Just in case." Just in case they died, they were getting baptized under water. Dear friend, I am sad to report that all of those soldiers who died serving their country went to Hell, who were foolishly trusting in a baptistery to get them into Heaven. Not one verse in the Bible teaches that water baptism can save a person, or that God even allows one to add water baptism to their faith.

What saith the Scripture:

John 3b, “

Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God. ” Those soldiers should have been getting BORN AGAIN, not baptized in water. What a wicked military chaplain! Now, here is an awesome Army chaplain named David Rutkin, who write this excellent salvation blog: “ [1]The Crystal Clear Gospel Of Jesus Christ ” This is the wonderful message of the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ, that those soldiers desperately needed to hear before entering into deadly combat. False knowledge is more dangerous than ignorance!

John 3b, “

Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God. **”

You must be born again friend if you desire to go to Heaven someday, when this earthly life is finally over (and it could be today - Proverbs 27:1). What saith the Scripture? John 1:12-13,

But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name:

Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God. ” You were born spiritually dead. This is the result of Adam’s sin (Romans 5:12). All men therefore are sinners by birth and by choice. We have an inherited sinful nature passed down to us from our great, great, great ancestor, Mr. Adam.

Since we are born spiritually dead in trespasses and sins (Ephesians 2:1), we need to be reborn spiritually into God’s Kingdom. 1st Peter 1:23, “Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever.” It is the seed of the inspired Word of God (Luke 8:11), accompanied by one’s childlike faith and the regenerating power of God’s Holy Spirit, which conceives the new birth into a man. When I say “man,” I speak in general terms of a human being, which includes women and children too. To be “born again” means to have Jesus, who is “the beginning and the ending” (Revelation 1:8b), born in you.

born again

is to be regened with God’s DNA. We have our earthly parent’s DNA. We are not our parents, and our parents are not us, but we have our parent’s DNA in us. Likewise, every born again child of God has God’s Holy Spirit (God’s DNA if you will). We are not God, and God is not us, but we have God’s Holy Spirit in us, who is a part of our very being now. Being

is more than just the Holy Spirit moving into our body, He literally has become one with us in body, soul and spirit. This is the new nature in Christ (2nd Corinthians 5:17). We are now a part of God's family. We are not God's biological children, but adopted children (Romans 8:15). At the time of salvation, we are sealed with God's Holy Spirit (Ephesians 1:13-14). Praise the Lord!

Have you been born again dear friend? It is a free gift from God. You need to do nothing more than come to God as a guilty sinner (Romans 3:23), and put your childlike faith (confidence) in the Lord Jesus Christ, believing the facts that He died on the cross in your place to pay for all your sins, and He was buried, and three days later Jesus bodily resurrected from the dead, and is alive today (1st Corinthians 15:1-6). That's it, that all, no more! If you believe those facts of the Gospel, and that Gospel is your only hope for forgiveness of sins and eternal life, then you are saved. We are saved by FAITH ALONE. Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do.

So in view of the Bible truths that I have just humbly shown you, you should be able from this day forward to identify a false gospel. When you hear Billy Graham telling people to

"count the cost and pay the price,

" you know that he is lying. Jesus paid the price, so that we wouldn't have to. [2]Billy Graham (1918-2018) was a false prophet! Sadly, I have [3]no doubt that he is burning in Hell right now and forever. Now you'll know that [4]Pastor John MacArthur is a liar when he tells you that salvation is " hard.

" The Bible teaches **"

the simplicity

that is in Christ

11:3b). We've got a bunch of lying preachers in churches today!!!

Jesus exclaimed in John 3b, "

Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God. " You absolutely, positively, unequivocally, MUST be born again to go to Heaven friend. Being born again is easy, free and simple, as I have already shown you. Simply BELIEVE ON HIM.

John 6:40, "And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day. " Amen and amen! It is that simple. Since Jesus has the nail-scared hands and feet, He is the only one that we should be trusting in to save us! JESUS PAID IT ALL!!!

3.5.9 The Mark Of A Saint Who Walks With God Is Compasison (2022-05-16 03:02)

Matthew 20:34, "So Jesus had compassion on them, and touched their eyes: and immediately their eyes received sight, and they followed him." Mark 10:21, "Then

Jesus beholding him loved him*, and said unto him, One thing thou lackest: go thy way, sell whatsoever thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, take up the cross, and follow me."

The Bible is full of Scriptures teaching us about our dear Savior's great heart of compassion, gentleness, understanding, mercy and love for all people.

I just wanted to take a few moments to explain to my blog friends, why I preach so much against the Bob Jones University and Pensacola Christian College camps. The issue goes much deeper than our doctrinal differences, it is primary rooted in their WOEFUL LACK OF GOD'S LOVE FOR HURTING PEOPLE in these religious camps. I don't claim to be a good Christian, but God knows that by His grace I am a kind, forgiving and loving person. This is the blessed fruit of God's indwelling Holy Spirit in every believer (Galatians 5:22-25; Romans 8:9; 1st John 3:24).

Sadly, it is rare nowadays (and I have no doubt that it has always been this way historically) to find a pastor and church that truly love people. When I kindly told Pastor Jeff Redlin of Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College (PCC) last year, that I had been divorced for 15 years and I hoped to find a wife at Campus Church, his reply was to scold me for coming to Campus Church to find a wife. I was cut to the heart by his cruel words. No wise pastor should talk to a 54 year old man that way! That is not God's love. He should have either just said nothing about the matter, or kindly welcomed me to their church. He did neither!

When I first met Jeff Redlin, at the church's 4th of July picnic last year, I told him that my plane from Guam had just landed 36 hours ago and I was sleeping Walmart's parking lot, homeless, because the ungodly Woodspring Suites Hotel in Pensacola cancelled my confirmed 30-day reservation without warning (because they were greedy and bumped me for the 4th of July weekend to give the room to someone else who was willing to pay more). When I explained that I was sleeping in Walmart's parking lot, I saw the startled look on Pastor Redlin's face, and then he just walked away and didn't come back. That is not God's love. I didn't even expect his help, I was just sharing my ordeal with him. But his response made a very bad impression on me, showing me that he doesn't care. 1st John 3:17, " But whoso hath this world's good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him?

When I emailed to Pastor Redlin to introduce myself, kindly opening my heart to tell him about my 17 year battle with stenosis and radiculitis causing constant chronic pain in my neck, and radiating sharp pain in my arms and legs, he couldn't have cared less. When I told him I was a thankful graduate of Hyles-Anderson College, he never once acknowledged me. He ignored everything in my email about me. When I told him how much I wanted to be a blessing to their ministry at Campus Church, he failed to say one word of encouragement. It took me 2 hours to put together my email, but he didn't care and I sincerely doubt he took more than 5 minutes to brush me off!

When someone pours out their heart to you in a letter, especially to a church pastor, the least that any pastor should do is acknowledge that person's suffering. Let them know that you care. Tell them something encouraging. Sincerely pray for them and then let them know you just did. I felt rejected, dejected and unwanted from the very beginning by Pastor Redlin, and I kindly told him so. His carnal response was to ignore me for the next 10 days. So I very kindly approached him Sunday morning after his sermon, just to ask why he hadn't replied yet. He literally shirked his head while putting both of his open hands in the air in front of him, signifying that he didn't have a reason. I was deeply hurt. I had been kind, loving and very transparent with this cold-hearted pastor. Why was he being to obtuse and cruel?

I found out later, after being persistent for him to give me a reason, that someone had sent him my ministry websites, and he freaked out. If he had been wise, Pastor Redlin would have either left the matter alone, or complimented my hard work and left it at that. But he instead chose to be critical of my diligent labors for Christ. Criticizing a passionate man's life's work is a very foolish thing to do! He falsely accused me of "finding weaknesses in preachers" and was afraid that he would be next. But if he had loved me with God's unconditional love, instead of only thinking about himself and going on the defensive, we never would have become enemies, which is sad and unfortunate. Even though I don't like to make a fuss as a child of God, sometimes I need to make a fuss. People just want to be loved!

I don't look for weaknesses in preachers, I " contend for the faith

" (Jude 1:3). I "rebuke them sharply" who subvert families with another gospel of Lordship Damnation (Titus 1:9-14). I "Preach the Word" in season (2nd Timothy 4:2). Sadly, Jeff Redlin only saw what he wanted to see when he viewed my websites. Less than 1 % of my nine ministry website's and eight ministry blog's content expose bad preachers, yet that is all Pastor Redlin saw!

From the time that I first met Jeff Redlin at the 4th of July picnic at Campus Church, he did nothing but make excuses and go on the defensive. If that selfish man had simply READ my kind and loving words in my lengthy emails, and had any spiritual discernment, he would have seen that I was desperate to be loved and restart my life at Campus Church. But instead all he thought about was himself, and protecting himself and his church from being criticized. That is what is so horribly WRONG with the PCC camp today! In March they celebrated going on the defensive, but people just want to be loved.

Rape Awareness Month,

If PCC would stop focusing on being so defensive, and just start loving people with God's unconditional love, then they wouldn't be making so many enemies. Here is a good example. This young man, Allen Armentrout, a former PCC student, [1]showed his allegiance to General Robert E. Lee of the confederacy, for which PCC expelled him! PCC selfishly only cares about their reputation, always going on the defensive; rather than loving their students and loving new church members.

Pastor Jeff Redlin made me feel like garbage. When I kindly told him how I felt, he replied with some weird excuse, saying that it was

In other words, in his mind how I felt was my problem, not his reality. What a jerk! Is that the best a church pastor can do? God pity Campus Church for their incompetent, uncaring, insulting, cold-hearted, shallow pastor!

I personally have let the matter go into God's hands, so I can move on. I have already forgiven Jeff Redlin, but kindly said, God needs to humble that egotistic pastor. Like so many immature Christians today, Jeff Redlin is blind to his own faults, sins and lack of genuine compassion for people. Jesus said that to whom much is forgiven, the same loveth much (Luke 7:47). It is true that oftentimes devoutly religious people, the "goody two-shoes" type, woefully lack compassion for other people. Since they have never committed what some would call “deep sin” (e.g., murder, robbery, adultery, substance abuse addiction, et cetera), they do not grasp the depth of God’s mercy, grace and forgiveness. In other words, being a big sinner eventually humbles a person, when sowing one’s wild oats brings crop failure!

It is tragic that single divorced people are mistreated, shunned, ostracized and condemned by the PCC camp, for desiring to remarry to satisfy their “

and to have companionship (1st Corinthians 7:1-2, 9). PCC is out of touch with reality! Self-righteousness is a sin. Pastor Jeff Redlin woefully lacks sympathy and empathy for hurting sinners.

God knows that I do not enjoy preaching against Pastor Redlin. However, if hurting divorced victims like me don’t speak up, then nothing will ever change at PCC.

Divorced people often live with a lot of guilt, feeling like trash because of their failed marriage (regardless of who filed for divorce).

It doesn’t help when religious hypocrites like Jeff Redlin shun them.

Divorcees need love and compassion from preachers, not to be berated, shamed, belittled, shunned and condemned for it (which is what Jeff Redlin horribly did to me in 2021). When Pastor Redlin scolded me for hoping to find a wife at church, his cruel and insensitive words cut to my heart. When he told me right in front of his wife that he would never perform a wedding ceremony for me, his cruel words cut to my heart. I never asked Pastor Redlin to perform a wedding. The guy needs some kind of help!

I just hope that my calamity at Campus Church at the hands of Pastor Redlin, can pave the way for future divorced hurting people, who perhaps will be treated much better than they did me at Campus Church.

Can an old dog learn new tricks? Time will tell. My prayers are with PCC and Pastor Redlin, that they will learn that PEOPLE JUST WANT TO BE LOVED!!!

3.5.10 The Simple Way To Be Saved (2022-05-17 12:31)

1st Corinthians 15:1-4, "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand;

By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain*.

For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures;

And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:"

The Apostle Paul plainly defines " in our text passage. Christ died on the cross today for our sins. He was buried. Finally, three days later Jesus resurrected from the dead. You just read it for yourself! These three things comprise:

THE GOSPEL.

" The Bible way to be saved is to simply admit that you are a guilty sinner in the sight of a holy God, and BELIEVE on Jesus Christ. Romans 3:23, " For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God; Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus: " All you need to do to be saved, is to by faith receive the GOOD NEWS (Gospel) of Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, His burial and bodily resurrection three days later from the dead. This is what our text passage of Scripture teaches. You could stop reading here, and this article would be complete, per the title. Albeit, I'd like to teach you more for your edification dear friend. I love you with Christ's unconditional love, whoever you may be, and I sincerely to be a blessing.

Come to God as an admitted guilty sinner, and BELIEVE the Gospel (the Good News of Christ crucified, buried and risen for your sins) and you are saved. That's it dear reader! Once you put your childlike faith in Jesus Christ, accepting what God has written in His inspired Holy Bible about His only begotten Son, you are born-again. In The Gospel of John, we read that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God. In John chapters 19 and 20 we read about Christ's death on the cross, His burial and physical resurrection on Sunday morning, the third day. This is the Gospel (the Good News), by which whosoever BELIEVES IT is immediately, irrevocably and eternally saved. You have God's promise of it. Titus 1:2, "In hope of eternal life, which God, that cannot lie, promised before the world began;"

The easy, free and simply way to be saved is found in 1st Corinthians 1:21, "

For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe.

" When asked what

works of God

they must do to get into Heaven, Jesus replied that they should just BELIEVE ON HIM. John 6:28-29,

Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent."

So where in the world do these corrupt preachers today get the heretical FALSEHOODS that to get to Heaven, you must:

1. walk an aisle
2. pray a prayer
3. join a church, denomination or convention
4. turn from your sins
5. repent of your sins
6. be willing to turn away from sin
7. feel sorrow for your sins
8. forsake a lifestyle of sinning
9. be baptized in water
10. speak in "tongues"
11. turn over a new leaf
12. ask Christ into your heart
13. invite Jesus into your life
14. surrender your entire personality to Christ
15. surrender all
16. live a holy life
17. live a changed life
18. give control of your life over to Christ
19. faithfully run the race
20. count the cost and pay the price
21. live a lifestyle of repentance from sins
22. turn away from the old life
23. follow Jesus no matter what the cost
24. make Jesus the "Lord" (Master) of your life
25. be sorrow for your sin

26. confess Christ publicly
27. keep the Sabbath Day
28. keep God's Ten Commandments
29. get rid of bad habits and vices
30. ask Jesus into your heart
31. have a religious experience
32. feel hatred for sin

NONE of these things are required to get to Heaven. Yet, I can hardly [1]listen to a sermon, or visit a church website, or [2]watch a YouTube video, or hear a [3]Bible college chapel service, or read [4]a religious tract, or [5]listen to religious radio, without seeing and hearing these unbiblical additions to God's simple plan of salvation, which are damnable heresy! True Bible salvation is by faith alone in the Gospel (Good News) of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen the third day (1st Corinthians 15:1-6). That's it, that's all, no more!

Carefully notice that the Apostle Paul didn't mention surrendering "

all

to Christ. Paul didn't include turning away from your sinful ways, did he. Paul didn't tell the church at Corinth to faithfully

"run the race" until the end of life, did he. By the way, [6]that is the Calvinist heresy wickedly being preached by Dr. Steve Pettit at Bob Jones University since 2014 as their new president. God's curse is upon BJU today (Galatians 1:6-9). And shame on Pensacola Christian College for bidding Godspeed to the Bob Jones' camp (2nd John 1:11), refusing to refute their damnable heresy! Instead, PCC today sinfully hobnobs with the BJU camp, hiring each other's graduates and sending students to each other's schools to make money. It is wickedness!!!

If you foolishly think that Calvinism is an acceptable deviation from the free grace Gospel proclaimed in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, you are woefully mistaken my friend.

I was listening to the [7]Old Testament book of " [8] Proverbs

I heard Proverbs 3:5-7,

" Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths. Be not wise in thine own eyes: fear the LORD, and depart from evil. "

I thought about all the false teachers today who are perverting the Gospel, because they are violating this Scripture, leaning upon their own flawed human understanding. The cursed Lordship Salvation crowd are wise in their own eyes, preaching another gospel that makes sense to them, but is totally unbiblical.

Jesus is the Christ, the only begotten Son of God (John 20:31). If your trust (confidence) is in Christ alone for forgiveness of sins and eternal life, then you are saved. But this trust must be based upon the FACTS that Jesus died on the cross, He was buried and three days later He resurrected miraculously from the dead. 1st Thessalonians 4:14, "For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him."

Dear friend, I hope you have noticed that I bathe my writings with the inspired Scriptures, so you can SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES for yourself, as Jesus commanded us in John 5:39, "Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me." Now in sharp contrast, I challenge you to listen to these false prophets today, who errantly require you to: turn from your sins, surrender "all" to Christ, follow Jesus as "Lord" no matter what the cost, faithfully run the race, live a lifestyle of repentance, give your life to Jesus, invite Christ into your life, and a bunch of other unbiblical garbage—and you'll see that THEY DON'T cite Scriptural references to support their false doctrines; and when they do cite the Scriptures, they either quote from the Devil's corrupt Bible perversions, or they wrest the Word of God out of context (2nd Peter 3:16-17).

Matthew 7:13-15, "Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat:

Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it.

" Dear friend, I sincerely believe the reason why Jesus said very "few" people ever find the strait gate and the narrow way, is simply because the Devil appeals to man's sinful nature, and sinful men by nature feel compelled to turn from their own sins to qualify for salvation. But dear friend, you don't have to turn from your sinful ways to qualify for salvation. THE TRUTH is that you CANNOT turn from your sins!!! What saith the Scripture? Isaiah 64:6, "But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags; and we all do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away.

These Satanic preachers today, who go around telling everybody to repent

of your sins

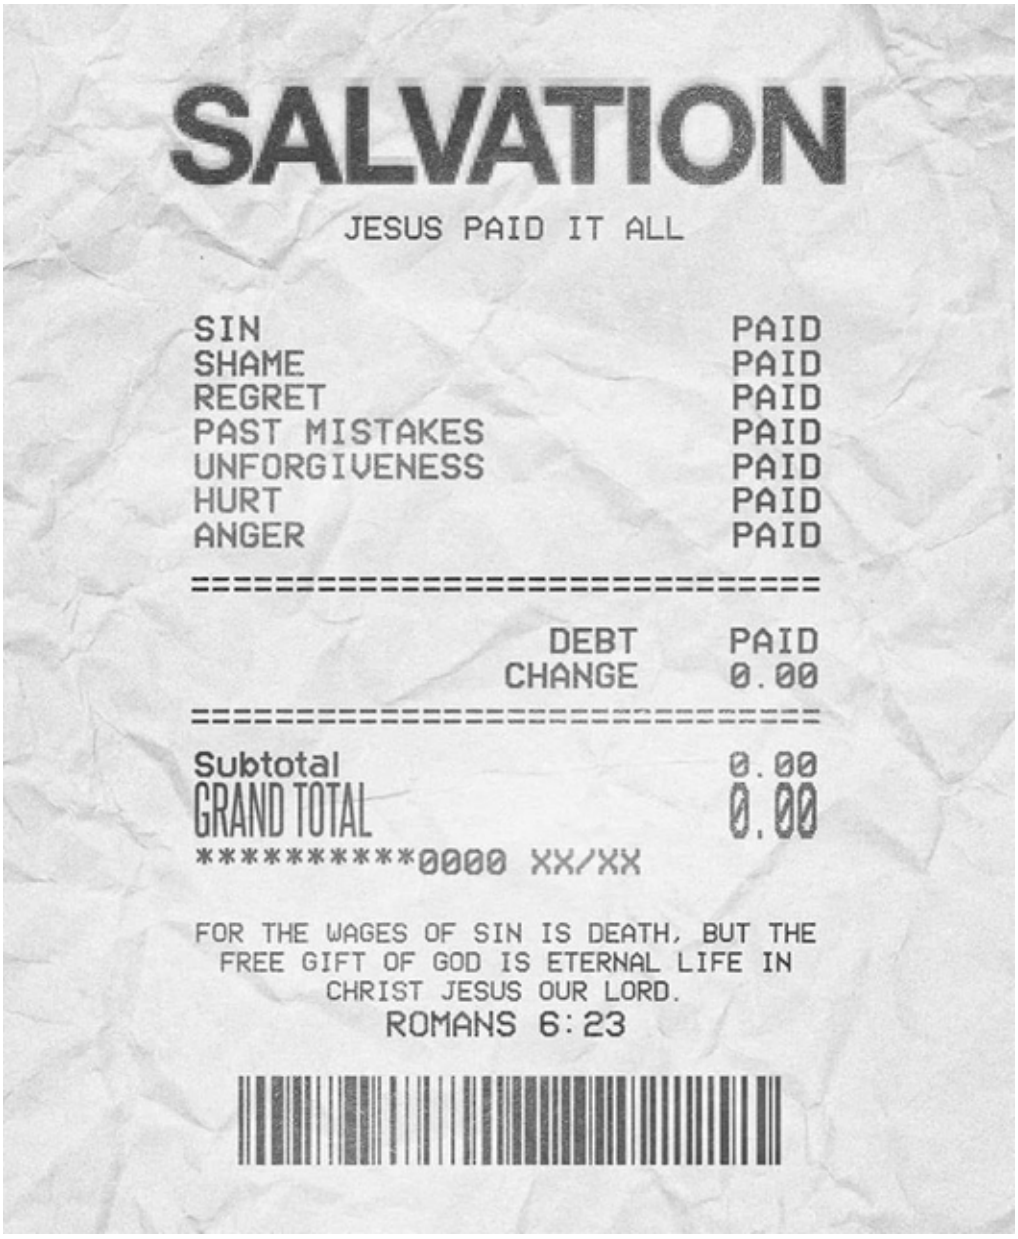
to be saved, don't know what they are talking about. The Bible says in John 3:20,

"For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved." But nobody continues to read John 3:21, "

But he that doeth truth cometh to the light*, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God. " Carefully notice that the Bible doesn't say

"he that turning from his sins cometh to the light"; but rather, "he that DOETH TRUTH cometh to the light." Repentance is a matter of acknowledging THE TRUTH that you are a guilty sinner in God's sight, so that you'll CHANGE YOUR MIND from unbelief to BELIEVING THE GOSPEL to be saved.

What saith the Scripture? 2nd Timothy 2:25, "In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth;" Again, carefully notice that the Bible says repentance is NOT from sins, but the acknowledging of THE TRUTH. The Bible is so simple if we will just let the Word of God speak for itself. Dear friend, I have given you the plain truth of God's Word.



If you have never been born-again, then I plead with you to please do so now. You indeed CAN get saved in a second of time, and write down your name, the place and the date you got saved (and I encourage you to do so if you receive Christ now). I got saved at age 13 in Chicago, in 1980 at an old-fashioned Baptist church. But I didn't think to wrote down the date and time. I remember the place in church. I know it was a Sunday morning around 1980. I remember the events of that day, that for the first time in my life I felt Holy Spirit conviction about sin. The preacher said from the pulpit that, "I f you don't have Holy Spirit convicting about the sins in your life, you're not saved. I knew right then that I had never been saved.

I was afraid to walk the church aisle, and the pastor unfortunately didn't tell us how to be saved from our pew. But I had been in Sunday School all my childhood, so I had heard the basic gist of the Gospel. I knew that Jesus was the Son of God, the Christ, and that He died for my sins on the cross, and I believed it that day! I believed that I was calling out silently from my soul to the risen Savior, to please save me, and He did! From that day unto the present, I have felt the blessed presence of God's indwelling Holy Spirit in my life (1st John 3:24). I simply BELIEVED the Good News with childlike faith and was forever saved.

So, yes, you CAN be saved in a moment of time, and you should write down the time and place, and your name, where the new birth occurred. Most preachers today are false prophets, like Joel Osteen, Rick Warren, Marty Herron, John MacArthur, Steve Pettit, Gary Walton and Chuck Phelps. All of these ungodly infidels preach the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation (i.e., Calvinism), requiring that you turn away from your sinful behavior to be saved.

Therefore, they all errantly teach that a person cannot know they are saved right away; but rather, we must observe that person's life to see if their behavior has changed. That is Satan's plan of damnation! Satan's greatest weapon is to con people to live the Christian life without ever being born-again!!! When you were born the first time, physically into the world, did we have to watch your life to see if you were really alive? No, that would be ridiculous. Likewise, when a person is born for the second time, spiritually into God's Kingdom, we don't need to monitor them to see if their behavior changes. It is a new birth, not a new lifestyle!

3.5.11 Don’t Be A Respecter Of Persons (2022-05-17 12:51)

James 2:1-4, “My brethren, have not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory, with respect of persons.

For if there come unto your assembly a man with a gold ring, in goodly apparel, and there come in also a poor man in vile raiment;

And ye have respect to him that weareth the gay clothing, and say unto him, Sit thou here in a good place; and say to the poor, Stand thou there, or sit here under my footstool:

Are ye not then partial in yourselves, and are become judges of evil thoughts?”

I think many Christians read over this passage of Scripture, thinking it is not applicable to them, and these truths go in one ear and out the other. Proverbs 17:10, “ A reproof entereth more into a wise man than an hundred stripes into a fool.”

Many pastors today are respecters of persons, like Jeff Redlin of Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College (PCC). If the divorced mayor of Pensacola visited Campus Church, and told Pastor Jeff Redlin that he hoped to find a wife, I promise you that Mr. Redlin wouldn’t have said anything negative to him. But when a nobody like me said it, Pastor Redlin cruelly scolded me for hoping to find a wife at Campus Church. Sadly, Jeff Redlin is a wicked respecter of persons!

The Bible teaches that believers should be “meek,” which means we don’t look up to, nor down on anybody. All men are created equal in worth in the sight of God. We were all made legitimate the moment we were conceived in our mother’s womb. All unborn life is still valid.

UNBORN LIVES MATTER!!! Woe unto any wicked person who says that abortion is okay. Proverbs 17:15, “

He that justifieth the wicked, and he that condemneth the just, even they both are abomination to the LORD.

You can tell a man’s character by the way he treats those who can do nothing for him! Today’s ungodly pastors are sadly only concerned about growing their churches in number, and bringing in more finances, and their careers, at the expense of the truth. RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!! Most pastors are in denial that they are a respecter of persons. I have given THE TRUTH to umpteen pastors, who all condemned me for it, resentful that a concerned born-again layman like myself, would dare to question the almighty pseudo-authority of some pipsqueak pastor in Jerk Water U.S.A.! (I borrowed that from Rambo...lol).

A pastor who truly walks with God would not shun THE TRUTH, nor shun the messenger who brings THE TRUTH. Our churches are full of selfish respecters of persons today. Anyone who doesn’t dot their i’s and cross their t’s just as the core group does, is rejected. That is especially true in cults like Pensacola Christian College. If you are divorced and single, hoping to remarry, you WILL NOT be welcomed or accepted into their core group at Campus Church or PCC. Pastor Jeff Redlin might as well have pulled down his pants and crapped on me, when he learned that I was a divorced man for 15 years, and I humbly told him that I someday hoped to remarry. He made me feel like human trash!

Sadly, when I kindly mentioned the matter to Pastor Redlin, he insulted me further by saying right in front of his wife, that he would never perform a wedding for me if I did find a woman to marry. I never asked or even mentioned anything about a wedding to him. I simply told him that I was hoping to find a wife at Campus Church. You see, Mr. Redlin is a wicked respecter of persons. Single divorced people are no longer human beings at Pensacola Christian College in Florida, they are walking garbage, who are supposed to stimulate their own genitals with a pillow and box of napkins for the rest of their life instead of remarrying as God intended (1st Corinthians 7:1-2).

Kindly said, Jeff Redlin is so far out of touch with reality that he ought not be allowed behind any pulpit, ever! Most single divorced people, at some point, need to remarry. Granted, this is not God's perfect will, but it is within God's permissive will. Jeff Redlin is not God, yet he imposes Godlike condemnation upon divorced sinners! That dear reader is the sin of being a respecter of persons. Our churches today are insane asylums!

3.5.12 Bible Proof Repentance Doesn't Mean To Turn From Sin (2022-05-17 13:06)

Hebrews 4:10-11, "For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his. Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief."

I am alarmed that most Baptist pastors today are silent about the dangers of Lordship Salvation. Sadly, many pastors foolishly think that it is wise to avoid controversies; but in fact, it is unwise not to speak up against false doctrines creeping into a church. Revelation 3:2, "Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God."

Unfortunately, at a church I was attending last year, I heard a lady in a visiting religious music group share her personal testimony. The woman said she thought she used to be saved, but years later learned from her pastor that she had never turned away from her sins, and wasn't really saved. So now, she says, she is really saved, because she has turned away from her sinful ways. Sadly, she is still not saved! Hebrews 4:10, " For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his. Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief."

Carefully notice that the Bible says we are saved by CEASING from our OWN WORKS, just as God did from His works. The Lord LABOURED for six days to create the world as we know it today, and then He RESTED on the seventh day. The Bible uses this as a beautiful illustration of getting saved. The Sabbath Day in the Bible represents Jesus, in whom we completely REST for salvation. So the false teaching to "

to be saved cannot be accurate, because that is doing WORKS!!!

To be saved, the Bible says to CEASE and to REST. Today's wicked false prophets are instead saying to WORK and to REST, which makes no sense! To tell someone to turn away from their sinning, and then second to trust Christ, is a contradiction. WORKS have no place in God's simple plan of salvation. Romans 11:6,

"And if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work. " What further saith the Scripture? Romans 4:4-5,

"Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt. But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness. " God doesn't owe anybody salvation. It is by His grace alone. Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do!

To tell someone to stop living in sin to receive God's free gift of eternal life, is the very opposite of CEASING from one's labors. The Bible says that just as God CEASED from His labors, so also must we CEASE from our labors, if we want to enter into God's REST (which is eternal life through faith alone in Jesus Christ). Romans 6:23, "For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord." We get saved by RESTING in the crucified, buried and resurrected precious Lamb of God (1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

There is only one true Gospel, which doesn't include turning away from living in sin. Christ died for our sins on the cross. He was buried. And three days later Jesus resurrected from the dead for the justification of our faith (i.e., our faith in Him was not in vain). Forgiveness of sins and eternal life are a free gift from God (Romans 5:15-18; Ephesians 2:8-9). I am so thankful that the Lord uses my humble ministry to help lost sinners see the light of the truth of the Gospel. I give Jesus ALL the credit, praise and glory for any good accomplished through my humble labors. Ecclesiastes 11:1, " Cast thy bread upon the waters: for thou shalt find it after many days."

3.5.13 God Judges A Man By His Works, Not His Attitude (2022-05-17 18:30)

Matthew 21:28-32, "

But what think ye? A certain man had two sons; and he came to the first, and said, Son, go work to day in my vineyard.

He answered and said, I will not: but afterward he repented, and went.

And he came to the second, and said likewise. And he answered and said, I go, sir: and went not.

Whether of them twain did the will of his father? They say unto him, The first. Jesus saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, That the publicans and the harlots go into the kingdom of God before you.

For John came unto you in the way of righteousness, and ye believed him not: but the publicans and the harlots believed him: and ye, when ye had seen it, repented not afterward, that ye might believe him."

I love this wonderful passage of Scripture, which I think of often. I won't retell the whole story, but the basic gist is that a man had two sons. Those two sons had drastically different attitudes.

vineyard
is where grapes were grown, for making wine.

The first son, the Bible says, had a very good attitude, He was cooperative and assured his father that he would go work in the family vineyard. But the Bible says he reneged on his promise and didn’t go. That reminds me of so many preachers today, who promised God at the beginning of their ministry to tell the truth, but then they drifted away from the truth and became caught between grace and works, preaching another gospel (Galatians 1:6-9).

The second son had a very bad attitude, refusing to go labor in his father’s vineyard. The father was no doubt at first disappointed with the second son, because of his lack of responsibility and manhood to do as he had vowed. Yet, this rebellious son with the bad attitude later repented the Bibles says, and he went to work in the father’s vineyard.

The reason why I often think about this Scripture passage is because a lot of people think I have a bad attitude. The same was true of the Apostle Paul. 2nd Corinthians 11:6, “

But though I be rude in speech, yet not in knowledge; but we have been throughly made manifest among you in all things.

” Paul often came across as rude to people. Paul spoke his mind, not biting his tongue. I remember one day while sitting in chapel at Hyles-Anderson College, that Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) said to us: “There are more opinions per square foot at Hyles-Anderson College than anywhere else in the world.” Dr. Hyles was absolutely right! You get a bunch of Independent Fundamental Baptists together in one big room and you’re going to have a lot of OPINIONS!

Perhaps one of the best examples of this is Pastor Steven L. Anderson of the Faith Baptist Church in Tempe, Arizona. I love, admire and support Brother Anderson as a fellow truth-teller, soulwinner and friend of the ministry. America could be saved if we had enough pastors like Steven Anderson. Although I disagree with several of his doctrinal positions, I don’t know of a more fervent soulwinner and sincere man. Pastor Anderson is I call “real people.”

Of these two sons in our text passage, in the end the father was displeased with the son with the good attitude, because he didn’t get the job done. The Bible teaches in 1st Samuel 16:7, “But the LORD said unto Samuel, Look not on his countenance, or on the height of his stature; because I have refused him: for the LORD seeth not as man seeth; for man looketh on the outward appearance, but the LORD looketh on the heart.

” Most people look at Steven Anderson’s seemingly bad attitude and dislike him. Pastor Anderson is probably among the 50 most hated people in the world today! But if you are a child of God, and have good spiritual discernment, then you see beyond Brother Anderson’s rough edges and faults as I do, and you see a sincere man of God with a passion for soulwinning.

Likewise, I am very outspoken in my blogs and website articles on social media, saying it like it is, not holding back, a truth-teller. I can be sharp at times with my words. God knows that it is never my intention to hurt people's feelings or be hurtful; but rather, to get people to think and change by God's Holy Spirit power. I cannot change people, I can only be " [1] A VOICE for the Lord, trying to appeal to my audience's better sense of reasoning and judgment. Alex Jones is correct:

"The is a war on for your mind!" The Devil is continually roaming about, seeking those whom he may devour (1st Peter 5:8). " [2]I Am A Voice "

I have made many enemies over the past 20 years of website ministry. Sadly, most of my enemies are incompetent foolish pastors, those who have dropped the ball for God. The average Baptist pastor today is an ignoramus! In 2018, a shipment of [3]17,000 New International Version (NIV) Bibles were freely sent to Cuba, and REJECTED! Fidel Castor died in 2016. His brother became the president of Cuba and some things started to change, moving toward freedom. For the first time in over 50 years, during which time the Holy Bible was forbidden and banned in Cuba, the government allowed Bibles to be brought into the country. I was amazed when I learned that the Cuban government had the spiritual wisdom to reject the Devil's corrupt Bible perversions. Cuba said, "We only want King James Bibles."

The sad thing about all this is that of the estimated 350,000 churches in the United States today, I dare say 345,000 of those churches have the same spiritual integrity as the Cuban government does!!! Any pastor who sanctions more than one English Bible version is of the Devil. God only authored ONE HOLY BOOK, so there can only be ONE true Bible in any particular language. The following disturbing comparison of Zachariah 13:6 from various Bible revisions, speaks 1,000 words to vindicate what I am preaching...

The [5]ugly truth is that if you want to punish your own new Bible in the English language, and more people all the time are wanting to do just that, by U.S. Copyright law your new work must contain substantial creative changes from all pre-existing works! That is the ugly truth! So any time a new Bible is published in the English language, you know that it is going to contain some drastically creative, bizarre and new corruptions to the Holy Scripture! Satan entered into the Bible publishing business in Genesis 3:1b, "Yea, hath God said?"

One of the hardest challenges for me over the years, has been dealing with rejection of my website ministry from church pastors. God is using my humble labors to get people saved, change lives and fill up God's house. Luke 14:23, "

And the lord said unto the servant, Go out into the highways and hedges, and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled.

" And yet these wicked shallow pastors in the Pensacola Christian College camp, and unsaved infidels in the Bob Jones University camp, criticize my labors. But I know that GOD IS WITH ME, making me and God a majority, for one reason and one reason only

—I AM PREACHING THE TRUTH. Romans 3:4, “God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged.”

The average Baptist pastor today just wants to play church, remain in his cushy comfort zone, never go door-to-door soulwinning, coddle his church clique, and criticize truth-tellers like me for making trouble. You’d be surprised today how many pastors will get upset with you for publicly saying that Lordship Salvation is of the Devil. They consider that a controversy, knowing that many churches believe that. I was disgusted when I heard Evangelist Tom Williams years ago defend Lordship Salvation. Do you know why he does that? It is because he is a traveling evangelist, whose financial income depends on invites to speak at churches, and 90 % of churches today are caught up in that Satanic Lordship Salvation mess! The ungodly Southern Baptist Convention (SBC) alone has 45,000 corrupt member churches!!!

Likewise, Evangelist Jack Van Impe is corrupt! Most of his financial income comes from ignorant Roman Catholics who watch him on television. This compelled [6]Jack Van Impe to praise the Satanic Pope Paul John II, calling him: “The greatest spiritual leader of the twentieth century!” No, the Pope is the Vicar of Hell.

Truly, the LOVE OF MONEY is the root of all evil (1st Timothy 6:10). Jack Van Impe further heretically stated:

> “You Catholic people, listen to your priests... Thank God for these Catholic leaders.”
>
> —Jack Van Impe
> “The Catholic Doctrines Are Right On” —Jack Van Impe

That is what the love of money does to corrupt preachers folks!!! The average pastor today is afraid to speak evil of Roman Catholicism to his congregation, lest the ungodly Pulpit Committee fire him! It will be a cold day in Hell before I ever allow any Pulpit Committee to tell me what I can or cannot preach! I will preach THE TRUTH, expose bad pastors, and harelip every dog in the county if need be! God deliver us from these wimpy pastors today who refuse to take a Biblical stand against sin, refuse to organize door-to-door church soulwinning, refuse to love everyone unconditionally and cannot preach their way out of a wet paper bag!

Most pastors that I have met have mental issues. Seriously! When you attend a new church and confide in the senior pastor, that as a 54-year-old-man you hope to find a wife at church, and that pastor scolds you for coming to church to find a wife (as Pastor Jeff Redlin cruelly did me at Pensacola Christian College’s Campus Church), that pastor needs to go see a psychiatrist. No normal pastor would berate someone for hoping to remarry, who has been alone and divorced for 15 years! Today’s pastors are hateful, cruel and full of hypocrisy. When you confront them with these truths, they dismiss it as merely part of being human.

Pastor Jeff Redlin on the surface appears to have a good attitude, to most people in his congregation; but in reality he couldn't care less about hurting people, and didn't go out to work in his Father's vineyard. Driving hurting sinners away from church is not working in God's vineyard. Jeremiah 12:10, "Many pastors have destroyed my vineyard, they have trodden my portion under foot, they have made my pleasant portion a desolate wilderness."

So Pastor Redlin's attitude superficially appears good, but then he doesn't get the job done for God. I left Campus Church after the summer of 2021 wounded, hurt and frustrated, knowing that I wasn't wanted there by their ungodly rotten pastor. Jeff Redlin failed as a pastor to be the servant God intended for him to be. That is what is wrong with churches today, we have a bunch of bullies for pastors who don't truly know what it means to be " a servant.

" Pastor Redlin gets paid well over $100,000 a year, that is not

In sharp contrast, I haven't been paid nor received one single penny since I began my website ministry in 2002, in which I have invested over 60,000 hours of prayerful diligent labour day and night for Jesus Christ. To God be the glory, great things He is doing! These wicked lazy pastors today aren't worthy to shine my shoes, humbly said; yet they slander, criticize and foolishly think that their work is more important than mine, as they sinfully bid Godspeed to the Lordship Salvation cult at Bob Jones University, and I relentlessly EXPOSE THEM!!!

This story of the two sons that Jesus told is a perfect illustration of myself as a humbly servant of God, with my humble small website ministry; versus the pompous arrogant pastors who criticize, laugh in scorn and belittled my labors for Christ online, with their increasing shallow works. They all look down on me as having a bad attitude, of being a troublemaker; and yet in reality, in God's sight, they are the ones who have the bad attitude, and are dropping the ball for God, failing to contend for the faith (Jude 1:3), failing to expose false prophets (Titus 1:9-14), failing to expose the Devil's false Bibles (Romans 1:25), et cetera! In fact, I know that God is pleased with me for preaching THE TRUTH, for being set for the defense of the Gospel of free grace, for refusing to buckle and go along with heresy, falsehoods and apostasy.

So let the heathen pastors continue to laugh, scorn, reject and despise my faithful website ministry and sound Bible preaching, because the day is coming when God will vindicate my preaching (Romans 3:4), and those wicked pastors will be very sorry (Galatians 6:7; Romans 16:17-18; Galatians 1:6-9; Matthew 12:36; Proverbs 24:12). Jesus is precious!!!

3.5.14 Greedy Companies Want To Center Your Life Around Materialism (2022-05-18 00:30)

1st Timothy 6:5-11, “Perverse disputings of men of corrupt minds, and destitute of the truth, supposing that gain is godliness: from such withdraw thyself.

But godliness with contentment is great gain.

For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out.

And having food and raiment let us be therewith content.

But they that will be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition.

For the love of money is the root of all evil: which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

But thou, O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness.”

We live in a very wicked materialistic culture in America. I was looking at mandolins the other day, seeing what kind of mandolin I might like to but. Now, I decided to take a few moments to go search the internet for mandolins. I made that choice to just spend about 15 minutes looking at mandolins. Specifically, I typed in the [1]Eastman MD 515 mandolin, which is a superior quality mandolin made in Beijing, China. It costs about $1,200. An equivalent [2]American made mandolin costs between $5,000 to $8,000!

Now, that was over a week ago that I looked at mandolins. Today I was working on my website ministry, reading news about [3]a wicked church in Florida that held a children's drag show. On that Fox News webpage, here is what they dangled in my face today...

Drag shows for children have exploded in popularity in recent years, sparking controversy around the country as some school districts have taken flak for hosting them.

Ungodly Greedy Companies Use The Internet
To Buttonhole People With Materialism!

That greatly offends me! It offends me that greedy companies are trying to center my life around materialism. They are trying to force me to think about a mandolin model that I was interested in purchasing. You see, they have spent tens of millions of dollars in the advertising business to analyze people's spending habits. It is called, "[5]Predictive Analytics." They use this data to predict consumer behavior in order to manipulate people to get their money! It is very unethical to follow, monitor and harass a person to purchase things!!! That is how rotten, greedy, selfish and unethical American society has deteriorated to nowadays.

>
> A faithful man shall abound with blessings: but he that maketh haste to be rich shall not be innocent.

In the old days, businesses were all closed on Sunday in the United States. In fact, most business owners pulled down their store shades, to prevent people from Sunday window shopping. Our country a century ago was a much better place than it is today, morally and ethically. Sin always undermines a nation! Evil always begets more evil. Our society didn't get into this mess overnight, and it won't be remedied overnight. It took decades of abuse, neglect and wicked decisions to turn our nation into the cesspool of iniquity that it is today.

American society has become so rotten, greedy and unethical that businesses today couldn't care less about taking advantage of people in every way possible. In 2018 when I visited the sunny city of Pensacola in Florida, I was ripped off at the airport by a car rental agency. I cannot remember the name of the company, but they are all the same! I rented a $25 car for three days. After they added taxes, insurance and feeds, I ended up paying $72 per day!!! If that wasn't bad enough, after three days I needed the car for one more day. So I called the phone number on my rental contract. The thuggish woman who answered the phone was an ungodly person. She demanded $288 for the week. But I told her I only needed the car for one more day. She said I had entered into a "weekly rate," so even if I only needed the car for just one more day, she said it would still cost me $288. Folks, that is the Devil!

I could write for hours about the greed of our rotten American culture today! The Golden Rule is virtually non-existent in American culture today. Matthew 7:12, "Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets." That is The Golden Rule. We ought to treat other people the same way that we want to be treated. Would you want someone to take advantage of you? No, you wouldn't. God will judge these ungodly company owners (and their complicit employees) in eternity one day, judging them by their own crooked standards (Matthew 7:1-2). Hundreds of millions of dishonest, deceitful and crooked sinners will someday in eternity accuse God of being the same, but He will just be recompensing evil for evil (Romans 12:19-21). Vengeance is the Lord's! If you hurt people in this lifetime, God will hurt you in the next! If you are unsaved, your Hell will become hotter. If you are a child of God, then you had better make things right with those whom you have hurt, or else God will have to do it for them (1st Thessalonians 4:6; 1st Corinthians 11:31; Matthew 7:1-2; Romans 14:10-12).

It utterly disgusts me that hellish greedy companies today are using cookies to track, monitor and harass me everywhere I go on the internet. I've tried turning off my cookies, which prevented other websites from working. It becomes too burdensome, having to individually set your preferences for each and every website you view. These rotten ungodly companies are so greedy that they couldn't care less about being ethical (i.e., doing the right thing), they ONLY care about making money.

Many people have sold their souls to the Devil, and they have also SOLD YOU by selling YOUR PERSONAL DATA for money to the highest bidder! It makes me sick. If I had my way, there would be lengthy prison sentences for these internet tracking greedy unethical criminals. I shouldn't have to create accounts and spend hours upon [6]hours of my time trying to STOP

THESE UNGODLY BANDITS from following me with cookies, watching everything I look at and tracking everywhere I go, so they can manipulate my surfing habits and hound me day and night to buy an item that I viewed but chose not to buy, LAST MONTH!!! They are ungodly people, who have ungodly morals, and live ungodly lives!

I really like Jude (the son of Mary and Joseph; and half-brother of Jesus, whose Father is God) in the Bible, who said:

> Jude 1:15, “
> To execute judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken against him.

I love that! Four times Jude uses the word “ungodly” to get his point across. These were “ungodly” sinners, with their

“ungodly” deeds, which they have

“ungodly” committed, attempting to justify their ungodliness with hard speeches

!!! Likewise, these

“ungodly” companies today, with their “ungodly” greedy exploitative business practices, committing their “ungodly” deeds are of the Devil.

I have come to the sad conclusion that there is nothing that we can do to stop these “ungodly” sinners from selling us into advertising slavery online. If you use the internet, either you will have to spend ridiculous amounts of time continually fighting the stop these “ungodly” sinners from taking over your life online, or you will have to stop using the internet! Of course, there is a third option, which is what I am doing, I just ignore them! I took the time to write this one blog, to expose these “ungodly” reprobates, but they are not worth my time.

As a general rule, I NEVER buy anything from “Click Bait.” These unscrupulous companies and individuals today, who resort to thug tactics to make more filthy lucre, will give account to God one day for sinfully tracking, annoying, hounding and hurting people with their unethical “ungodly” practices rooted in “ungodly” greed. The LOVE OF MONEY is the root of all evil (1st Timothy 6:10-11).

I suffer from stenosis and radiculitis in my neck (since 2004), from an old accident at work, which causes me constant horrible neck pain, which radiates into my arms and legs intermittently, and I feel constant numbness, arms feeling inflated with air, and irritating burning throughout my body's nervous system. Consequently, I don't have much patience with anything, especially people who exploit me online. It is truly pathetic and sad. I would rather be manipulated and exploited by

"ungodly"

"ungodly" sinners, than to spend all my time trying to stop them, and in the process making my online experience even more unpleasant, and limiting my ability to search the internet without restraints. This is the damage that these

"ungodly" people cause, by their

"ungodly" deeds, which they have

"ungodly" committed. Woe unto the United States!!!

3.5.15 Exposing Pastor Joe Sweet's Denial Of OSAS (2022-05-18 12:07)

Galatians 1:8-9, "But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed."

Pastor Joe Sweet is an unsaved heretic! In this portion of his sermon, he plainly [1]describes his false gospel as living the Christian life:

> "So saving faith looks like this: Patient continuance in doing good, seeking for glory, honor and immortality; Now here is what false faith looks like (this is not real faith)...

> A false faith looks like this: They are self seeking. They do not obey the truth. They obey unrighteousness. What will come upon them is indignation and wrath, tribulation and anguish.” [2]Pastor Joe Sweet HERESY!!! Biblical salvation does not look like “doing good.”

The self-righteous man can’t fathom a God who offers complete salvation. Its a form of self-worship that says I must be part of the process. As if anything good resides in them to offer up to a holy and righteous God.

Pastor Sweet is a fool. He wrests the Scriptures to his own destruction, mixing sanctification with justification, and in so doing he corrupts the Word of God and casts stumbling blocks before the people. He takes umpteen passages of Scripture out of context. As I mentioned before, God authored the Gospel of John to show humanity ho wot go to Heaven. But Joe Sweet is citing passages from Matthew, Hebrews and all over the place, misinterpreting the Bible.

Joe Sweet is not saved. [3]He falsely claims to have seen a vision of Christ’s Second Coming, which he claims led to his new birth in 1978. Yet, the Word of God says God ONLY speaks to us in these last days through His Son (Hebrews 1:1-2). God speaks to us through His only begotten Son, the Word of God (John 1:1-3, 14; Revelation 19:13). RUN from any preacher who claims to have seen "a vision."

Nobody is saved who thinks that God’s gift of salvation can be lost by sin. God gave us the Gospel of John to show us the way of salvation, which doesn’t mention any of the garbage Joe Sweet is teaching. Instead, he takes obscure passages of Scripture out of context.

Joe even corrupts the book of John. For example: Where Jesus said in John 10:27, "My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me: And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand." Joe focuses on "they follow me." He ASS-U-MEs that "follow me" is discipleship, but the Bible does not say that. Romans 8:14, "For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God." This is what John 10:27-28 means.

Every born-again believer is led by the Holy Spirit. We hear His indwelling voice. That doesn’t mean we always obey Him. Nor does it mean that we follow Jesus as His disciple in service. Every child of God knows God’s Holy Spirit voice, which is the Spirit of Christ in us (Romans 8:9). So this is one example of how Pastor Joe Sweet corrupts the inspired Word of God, wresting the truth into a lie.

Pastor Joe Sweet foolishly says that nowhere does the Scripture teach: “

Once Saved, Always Saved

(OSAS). He is so WRONG!!! Dear reader, if you think that God’s free gift of salvation can be lost, forfeited or given back, then YOU ARE NOT SAVED!!! A truly born-again believer has the Biblical mindset that

Jesus paid it all, and I don’t owe Him anything in return.

” The Bible teaches in Romans 12:1 that it is the believer’s “reasonable service” to yield our body as a living sacrifice to serve God; but it is not mandatory to get to Heaven!

"There is a vast difference between coming to Jesus for salvation and coming after Jesus for service. Coming to Christ makes one a believer, while coming after Christ makes one a disciple. All believers are not disciples. To become a believer one accepts the invitation of the Gospel, to be a disciple one obeys the challenge to a life of dedicated service and separation. Salvation comes through the sacrifice of Christ; discipleship comes only by sacrifice of self and surrender to His call for devoted service. Salvation is free, but discipleship involves paying the price of a separated walk. Salvation can't be lost because it depends upon God's faithfulness, but discipleship can be lost because it depends upon our faithfulness." M.R. DeHaan, "Hebrews"; Zondervan Publishing House, 1959 (p. 117)

Dear friend, the Bible adamantly teaches: ONCE SAVED, ALWAYS SAVED!!! Pastor Joe Sweet is a wicked preacher! I have never made a single penny in my 20 years of internet ministry, but Joe has been paid over one million dollars in his ministry career! So he is a hypocrite in his video sermon to accuse OSAS preachers of teaching the truth for money. No, Joe is the one who is making the money (filthy lucre)! OSAS is the very foundation of God's simple plan of salvation, because it is a gift paid for by Jesus' precious blood.

Satan is not fighting churches; he is joining them. He does more harm by sowing tares than by pulling up wheat. He accomplishes more by imitation than by outright opposition.

3.5.16 Exposing Missionary David W. Cloud's Satanic Gospel (2022-05-19 01:58)

1st Corinthians 15:1-4, "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:" Romans 1:16, "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek."

Longtime missionary to India, Evangelist David W. Cloud is a corrupt and dangerous man doctrinally, responsible for sending thousands of people to Hell with his false gospel. The inspired Word of God very plainly defines " by which we are saved, those who BELIEVE IT! The Gospel is the GOOD NEWS of Christ's death on the cross to pay for our sins, His burial and His miraculous bodily resurrection three days later from the dead.

In a 2012 (updated in 2019) article on his website, titled:

"[1]Repentance In Evangelism," David Cloud heretical starts off his article with this untrue statement:

> "Repentance is often a missing element in evangelism today, but it is a prominent theme in the Bible. Following are the answers to some important questions about repentance."
> Evangelist David Cloud, " [2]Repentance In Evangelism "

First off, although repentance is a prominent theme in the Bible, it is NOT a prominent theme in salvation. Evidence of this is that not once does the entire Gospel of John mention the word " repent.

" Not once! This is because the man who BELIEVES the Gospel has also repented. Repentance and faith are not two separate actions, even though they are two separate things theologically.

The word "repent" in the Bible concerning salvation always is either the Greek noun, metanoia, which means: "a change of mind"; or it is the Greek verb, metanoeo, which means: " to think differently.

Repent in the Bible concerning salvation NEVER means to forsake or turn away from your sins, because that would constitute works. Nor does repentance mean to be willing to turn from sins. Not one verse in the inspired King James Bible (beware of the corrupt modern perversions of the Bible) says to repent "of your sins" to be saved. Ungodly false prophets added those unbiblical words to God's simple plan of salvation (Proverbs 30:5-6). As I just plainly showed you from 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, the Apostle Paul in his defining of the Gospel, never mentions turning away from your sins, nor surrendering your life to Christ as

Lord,

as David Cloud wickedly teaches (which I will show you in a moment).

Pastor Cloud is wrong on repentance and; therefore, wrong on salvation. He is an infidel, an unsaved religious man, still hellbound in his sins. This explains why David Cloud cannot understand God’s free grace, which is without works (Romans 4:4-7).

Cloud further falsely states:

> “Many churches don’t preach repentance. They say that only faith is necessary for salvation. But repentance is commanded by God. It is mentioned 60 times in the New Testament.” Evangelist David Cloud, “[3]Repentance In Evangelism”

Neither does the Gospel of John preach repentance! John 20:31, “

But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name.

” As you just read for yourself, the entire purpose for which God authored the Gospel of John is to show humanity how to get to Heaven. If forsaking one’s sinful behavior, quitting the old sinful life, and surrender to Christ as supreme “

” to follow Him faithfully, were required to get to Heaven, then certainly John would have said so, but he doesn’t! Neither did the Apostle Paul mention repentance in his definition of the Gospel, which Paul said in Romans 1:16 and 1st Corinthians 15:1-4 we are saved by, if we simply BELIEVE IT.

The truth is found in John 3:20-21, “For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved. But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God.” Carefully notice that the Bible DOESN’T say: “he that turns from his sins cometh to the light”; but rather, it says: “he that doeth truth cometh to the light.” Repentance is a matter of acknowledging THE TRUTH that you are a guilty sinner, seeing your need for redemption, so that you will turn to the Savior in faith alone to be saved by God’s grace.

This is something very different than committing yourself to give up your sinful ways, which NO ONE has ever done. Even the best of God’s saints still sin continually (Romans 7:14-25). Sadly, David Cloud is woefully ignorant of the Holy Bible, because he is still unsaved and leans upon his own human understanding, instead of trusting upon the Lord (Proverbs 3:5-7).

If you still need more Biblical evidence to support the truth I just taught you, please read 2nd Timothy 2:25, “In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them *repentance to the acknowledging of the truth; And that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will." Again, we see here that repentance for salvation is NOT from sinning, but to acknowledge THE TRUTH — " repentance to the acknowledging of the truth... " Pastor Harry A. Ironside gets repentance 100 % correct:

> "It is the confession that one is utterly without merit, and if he is ever saved at all it can only be through the merits of our Lord Jesus Christ, 'who gave himself a ransom for all.' Here is firm footing for the soul who realizes that all self-effort is but sinking sand. Christ alone is the Rock of our salvation." Pastor Harry A. Ironside; "[4]Except Ye Repent," p. 36)

Clearly, Dr. Ironside taught a free grace view of the Gospel. Pastor Ironside correctly recognized repentance as the confession that "one is utterly without merit" and that if one is "ever saved at all it can only be through the merits of our Lord Jesus Christ." Salvation is without works of self-righteousness. Romans 4:5 plainly teaches that a man's faith is COUNTED for righteousness, i.e., the righteousness of Jesus Christ is imputed to one's heavenly record by faith. Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

Pastor Ironside further eloquently states:

> "Repentance is the recognition of my sinnership — the owning before God that I am as vile as He has declared me to be in His holy Word."
>
> Pastor Harry A. Ironside; " [5]Except Ye Repent ," chapter 3

And also this helpful quote on Bible repentance from Pastor Ironside:

> "The Gospel is not a call to repentance, or to amendment of our ways, to make restitution for past sins, or to promise to do better in the future. These things are proper in their place, but they do not constitute the Gospel; for the Gospel is not good advice to be obeyed, it is good news to be believed. Do not make the mistake then of thinking that the Gospel is a call to duty or a call to reformation, a call to better your condition, to behave yourself in a more perfect way than you have been doing in the past …
> Nor is the Gospel a demand that you give up the world, that you give up your sins, that you break off bad habits, and try to cultivate good ones. You may do all these things, and yet never believe the Gospel and consequently never be saved at all." Pastor Harry A. Ironside, from the sermon: " [6]What Is The Gospel? "

I really love Pastor Ironside. A young 12 year old Harry Ironside [7]heard Pastor Dwight L. Moody (1837-1899) preach in Los Angeles. Two years later Harry fell under Holy Spirit conviction and got saved at age 14. The church building was so packed that there was no more room to enter. So a teenaged lad named Harry Ironside climbed up along the ceiling rafters, and listened intently while looking down upon the meeting. Harry didn't repent to turn away from his sinful ways and commit his life to serve Christ to be saved; but rather, he repented (i.e., changed his mind) unto the Gospel itself, turning from unbelief to belief.

If repentance means “ to turn away from your sinful ways,

then that means you must start keeping the law (no more stealing, no more adultery, no more dishonoring your parents, no more covetousness , et cetera - Exodus 20:1-17). What saith the Scripture? Romans 3:19-20,

“Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God. Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin.” The primary purpose of God’s Old Testament law is to show mankind that WE ARE SINNERS

“ for by the law is the knowledge of sin.”

Thus, God NEVER intended that someone should be required to try to keep the law (i.e., turn away from their sins) to be saved. The very suggestion is wickedness and a false gospel.

If to “repent” means to forsake our sinful ways TO BE SAVED, but Jesus already paid for our sins by dying on the cross, then what are we repenting from?

Salvation is not a reward for the righteous, it is a gift for the guilty!

Turning away from sinful ways would be a work. Faith puts all of the merit where it belongs, on the object of our faith, Jesus and His work.

The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU.

We must stay true to the simplicity of the gospel!! Repentance regarding salvation is a change of mind from unbelief to belief!!! We must earnestly contend for the faith (Jude 1:3).

What About The Repentance Of John The Baptist?

David Cloud tries to uses John’s repentance as evidence that we must turn from sins to be saved today. I would like now to quote Dr. John R. Rice, who perfectly explains the Baptism of John, showing that is was no different than BELIEIVNG on Jesus Christ to be saved, by faith alone:

> There are those hyper-dispensationalists who think that John the Baptist preached a different Gospel from Christ when he commanded repentance (Matt. 3:2). But it is the same repentance Jesus commanded in Matthew 4:17, in Luke 13:3 and 5, and the same repentance that Paul preached in Athens that God “now commandeth all men every where to repent” (Acts 17:30 31). Repentance is not a different plan of salvation from having faith: it is part of the same plan of salvation. Or rather repentance is simply another way of describing or looking at the plan of salvation. One who turns from sin to God has done so by trusting in Jesus Christ. A change of mind toward sin is necessarily involved in saving faith.
> Everyone who genuinely repented under the preaching of John the Baptist put his trust in the Saviour John the Baptist preached, and was regenerated. There is no > such thing as being “a disciple of John the Baptist” in any honest sense without being a disciple of Jesus, that is, without trusting Christ for salvation. [emphasis added]

> SOURCE: Evangelist John R. Rice, “Acts: Filled With The Spirit,” pp. 251-252; Sword Of The Lord, Murfreesboro, Tennessee; ©1963

Oh dear friend, that is so beautiful. Please don’t miss it! I have heard [8]Missionary David W. Cloud and other false teachers, attempt to portray Dr. Rice as a proponent of Lordship Salvation, saying he taught that people must turn away from a lifestyle of sin to be saved. David Cloud even goes as far as to wickedly pitch Dr. John R. Rice (1895-1980) against his successor Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995). I explain this issue in the preceding [9]article link. Mr. Cloud claims that Curtis Hutson leaves off repentance, thus corrupting the Gospel. [10]Nothing could be further from the truth.

So we see that Dr. Rice is correct, the man who trusts in Christ HAS also repented. It is unfortunate that Dr. Rice chose to use unbiblical terminology, because the Bible NEVER says: “ turn from sins

to be saved anywhere! No doubt Brother Rice heard other preachers using that junk theology and he adopted it, which is a major problem among nearly all preachers. Please remember, Dr. Rice is not our final authority, the inspired Word of God is!

Beware Of False Prophet David Cloud’s Counterfeit Gospel

In the following quote from David Cloud, you will see how he subtly wrests THE TRUTH of God’s Word into a lie, teaching that to be saved your life must change (sadly, this is the demonic garbage that is preached by Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College today):

> Repentance is not a change of life. Repentance a change of mind about God and sin that results in a change of life. Many who “believe” or “pray the sinner’s prayer” have no intention to change or to allow God to take control of their lives. They are not interested in being a disciple of Christ. They want a ticket to heaven that keeps them out of hell, but they want to continue to live as they please. They want to “believe in Jesus,” but they have no interest in obeying Him. That is not biblical salvation. The sinner must be ready to turn from his false gods, including self-worship, in order to worship and serve the true God (“ye turned to God from idols,” 1 Thessalonians 1:9). Evangelist David Cloud, “[11]Repentance In Evangelism”

David Cloud is a LIAR!!! According to the preceding quote by Pastor Cloud, you cannot be saved unless you:

1. have intent to change your life
2. have intent to become a disciple of Christ
3. allow God to take control of your life
4. have intent to stop living in sin

5. have intent to obey Jesus

NONE OF THAT is Biblical! Dear reader, I triple dog dare you to go back and read our text passage of Scripture from 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, and see if any of the things which Mr. Cloud requires for salvation are mentioned in Paul's Gospel. They are not! That means David Cloud is a liar, an infidel and a false prophet! What saith the Scripture? Proverbs 30:5-6, "Every word of God is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him. Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar." David Cloud is a liar for adding words to God's Word.

Pastor Cloud in the article I have shared with you claims that Jesus, Paul and Peter all preached repentance. But THE TRUTH is that David Cloud is taking the words of all those men out of context. Nowhere in the Gospel of John does Jesus tell anyone to repent to be saved. What saith the Scripture?

Matthew 21:32, " For John came unto you in the way of righteousness, and ye believed him not: but the publicans and the harlots believed him: and ye, when ye had seen it, repented not afterward, that ye might believe him." Do you see that repentance leads to BELIEVING the Gospel? Jesus is rebuking the self-righteous Pharisees here. Jesus said the Pharisees didn't repent (change their mind) to believe when they heard John's preaching, but THE ADMITTED SINNERS DID!!!

Carefully notice that Jesus said the harlots and tax cheats repented to BELIEVE. The Bible never says they turned away from their sinful ways.

David Cloud falsely claims in his horrible article that no believer in the New Testament didn't change:

> First, we have plenty of examples of believer's who lived in horrible sin (Demas, Ananias and Sapphira, Peter, the harlots and publicans, the saved man and his girlfriend in 1st Corinthians 5:1-5, the saved man who received no rewards in 1st Corinthians 3:15, Mary Magdalene, et cetera).
> Second, just because saints changed later on as a result of God's indwelling Holy Spirit sanctifying them (John 17:17), has absolutely NOTHING to do with the free gift of getting saved! David Cloud is foolishly front-loading the Gospel, making demands of lost sinners that only a mature believer would posses. Consequently, many people aren't getting saved because they think God requires them to forsake sinful bad habits to be saved, and that blood is all upon David Cloud's incompetent and wicked hands!!!

Pilgrim's Progress author John Bunyan said it best, I humbly think:

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." —John Bunyan (1628-1688)

David Cloud is guilty of corrupting the inspired Word of God, casting stumbling blocks before the people, damning their souls to an eternity in the Lake of Fire with his false gospel. Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born-again.

Pastor Cloud is your typical confused and lying false teacher. In one breath he teaches that salvation is a gift, but in the next breath he insists that it will cost you your sins and your life. It simply cannot be both dear friend. Romans 11:6, " And if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work." David Cloud is caught between grace and works, hellbound in his sincere misunderstanding of the light of the truth of the Gospel.

At the end of his article on repentance, Pastor Cloud writes this heresy:

>
> Many gospel tracts don't contain a hint of repentance.
>
> This is not scriptural soul winning. If Christ and the apostles preached repentance, then we must preach repentance! We need to explain that the individual must be ready to surrender to God, and not give him the false impression that it is possible to be saved without this.
>
> Evangelist David Cloud, " [12]Repentance In Evangelism "

Well, neither does the Gospel of John contain a hint of repentance. Although we find the word "

mentioned 88 times in John, not once do we find any mention of repenting, confessing, turning, surrendering or following to be saved; just BELIEVE ON JESUS!!! John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life."

What David Cloud has done is cherry-pick the Scriptures, citing obscure passages of Scripture to bolster his strawman heresy of repentance from sins to be saved, which the Bible does not teach.

A good rule to follow when interpreting the Bible is to never use an obscure passage to contradict a clear one. God authored the entire Gospel of John to show the reader how to get to Heaven (John 20:31). Yet, every proponent of Lordship Salvation, like David Cloud, must quote randomly from obscure passages of Scripture in order to find support for their false teachings. This is called wresting (twisting) the Scriptures:

> 2nd Peter 3:16-17, "As also in all his epistles, speaking in them of these things; in which are some things hard to be understood, which they that are unlearned and unstable wrest, as they do also the other scriptures, unto their own destruction. Ye therefore, beloved, seeing ye know these things before, beware lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own stedfastness."

I am saddened that most clergy (missionaries, evangelists, pastors) and their congregations have succumbed to a false plan of salvation. Jesus plainly warned in John 3:3b, "Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God." The perversion of God's grace called "Lordship Salvation" does not produce the new birth, because it is centered in YOU giving up your sins, surrendering "all" to Christ, and to follow Him in obedience as the "Lord" (Master) of your life. These are all rooted in self-righteousness (Adam's fig leaves and Cain's grain offering), and not the finished redemptive work of Jesus Christ through the cross of Calvary. The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU.

David Cloud is a skeptic. He preaches another gospel that cannot save a sinner. Pastor Dwight Moody had it right, all we can do is tell THE TRUTH:

> "Skeptics and infidels may say they don't believe in it. It is not our work to make them believe in it; that is the work of the Spirit. Our work is to give them the Word of God." —Pastor Dwight L. Moody (1837-1899)

One of my favorite free grace preachers today in 2022 is [13]Pastor Ralph

" [14]Yankee" Arnold :

> "If you have to look at your life to prove that you are saved, it proves that you're not!" —Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold; an excellent quote from the awesome YouTube sermon titled, "[15]Why Lordship Salvation is WRONG! | [16]MP3"

Amen! A changed life cannot be used as evidence of salvation, because the Devil's crowd cannot imitate it. Can a child of the Devil live a changed life? Yes, of course. There is only one thing that a child of the Devil cannot imitate, and that is being indwelt by God's Holy Spirit. 1st John 3:24, "And he that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us." That is what the Epistle of 1st John is all about. Many Bible students focus on the wrong thing, and end up misinterpreting the Epistle of 1st John.

Lordship Salvation is Calvinism repackaged; it is a deadly perversion of God's grace that teaches faith alone is insufficient to get to Heaven; but in addition, Lordship Salvation requires that you turn away from your sinful ways, surrender "all" to Christ to obey Him from now on, give control of your life over to God, and to follow Jesus as "Lord" (Master) of your life no matter what the cost. The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU.

Salvation Is A Free Gift That You Take, Giving Nothing In Exchange

Sadly, over 90 % of preachers today have succumbed to the Devil's fraud of Calvinism, which is based in self-righteousness. It is a false gospel of partial faith in Christ plus works. I am amazed how many preachers utterly fail to recognize that Calvinism (aka, Lordship Salvation) requires a person to keep the Mosaic law to be saved. Everyone is familiar with God's Ten Commandments (i.e., Thou shalt not murder, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not covet, Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord in vain, Thou shalt not steal, et cetera). So what do you think it means if you tell a lost sinner to "turn away from your sins" to be saved? You are essentially requiring them to stop breaking God's Ten Commandments to get to Heaven, which is self-righteousness!

The Lordship Salvation camp are so woefully ignorant of the Bible, that when you tell them the truth I just shared with you, they will say retarded things like: "Oh, so you think a person can keep committing murder, committing adultery, and stealing and still go to Heaven?" Do you see their fatal error? They are doing exactly what John Bunyan warned against:

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." —John Bunyan (1628-1688)

Getting saved is strictly a legal matter of you coming to God as a guilty sinner, and God the Father pardoning your sins solely on the basis of your trust in the Good News (Gospel) of Christ's death, burial and resurrection. When David Cloud speaks of salvation being "

a gift,

he speaks with a forked-tongue. In one breath Mr. Cloud speaks the truth that eternal life is a gift from God, but in the next breath he says that YOU must:

1. have intent to change your life
2. have intent to become a disciple of Christ
3. allow God to take control of your life
4. have intent to stop living in sin
5. have intent to obey Jesus

How is any of that

dear friend? What if (let's say as your parent) I bought you a birthday present, but before I handed it to you I first required that you intend to keep your room clean for the rest of the year, and intend to take a bath every day from now on, and promise to obey your Mom and Dad in every way, and commit not to disobey or doing wrong anymore? Well, first of all, you would know that your so-called

" is no gift at all, but instead a reward. Secondly, you would feel overwhelmed by all those requirements. It would ruin your birthday and you know it!!! It sure would mine! And thirdly, if you did accept that false gift, you would feel bad, thinking of all the requirements which I had imposed upon you.

Kindly said, this is David Cloud’s insane plan of damnation!!! The man is utterly confused, not having enough spiritual discernment to put a difference between justification (getting saved by faith alone), versus sanctification (the believer’s growing in grace). I think Pastor M.R. DeHaan said it very well:

> "There is a vast difference between coming to Jesus for salvation and coming after Jesus for service. Coming to Christ makes one a believer, while coming after Christ makes one a disciple. All believers are not disciples. To become a believer one accepts the invitation of the Gospel, to be a disciple one obeys the challenge to a life of dedicated service and separation. Salvation comes through the sacrifice of Christ; discipleship comes only by sacrifice of self and surrender to His call for devoted service. Salvation is free, but discipleship involves paying the price of a separated walk. Salvation can’t be lost because it depends upon God’s faithfulness, but discipleship can be lost because it depends upon our faithfulness." M.R. DeHaan, “
>
>
> ; Zondervan Publishing House, 1959 (p. 117).

And also, Pastor Zane Hodges said this helpful words:

> "Eternal life is free. Discipleship is immeasurably hard. The former is attained by faith alone, the latter by a faith that works... the former brings with it the righteousness of God so that a man is ’justified freely by his grace’ (Romans 3:24). The latter develops a personal righteousness, based on good deeds, so that a man was also ’justified by works’ (James 2:24). The former constituted the believer God’s workmanship, the latter fulfilled the wonderful purpose for which he had been created. The former cost man nothing, the latter could cost him everything, including life itself." Pastor Zane C. Hodges, “
>
> The Hungry Inherit
>
> ”;
> Moody Press, Inc., 1972 (pp. 114, 115).

If we simply always keep getting born-again completely separate from sanctification of the believer, then we will never be led astray with the error of the wicked doctrinally.

Eternal Life is a Free Gift!

Dear friend, if you are truly saved, that is, you are a born-again child of God, then you have the proper Biblical mindset that your salvation rests in nothing more than Jesus' righteousness, which is by faith alone (Philippians 3:9). You need HIS RIGHTEOUSNESS...

> My hope is built on nothing less
> Than Jesus Christ, my righteousness;
> I dare not trust the sweetest frame,
> But wholly lean on Jesus' name.
> On Christ, the solid Rock, I stand;
> All other ground is sinking sand,
> All other ground is sinking sand.

You have no righteousness to offer God dear friend, and neither do I, which is why the sinless Lamb of God came into the world and went to the cross to be crucified as a common criminal for our sins! Christ died for the ungodly, for heathens like you and me (Romans 5:6-9). You get saved by CEASING from all the garbage David Cloud is telling you to do, and then simple RESTING in Christ's death on the cross, burial and bodily resurrection the third day. That is the blessed GOOD NEWS by which we are saved, for all those who simply BELIEVE IT!

David Cloud originally never mentioned the word "

in his articles on repentance, until I started writing website articles to expose him, so he updated (

" as he calls it

) his articles to include the word

gift.

What a religious conman! I hope this blog has opened your eyes dear reader, to see that David Cloud is a false teacher who is not saved. I do not rejoice in that, it saddens me. It saddens me that such a brilliant man, who so passionately believes in what he is preaching and doing in India, could be so horribly wrong in his doctrine on salvation. I know that David Cloud is not saved, because he has a wrong mindset regarding the Gospel. He has embellished God's simple plan of salvation, to require a bunch of things that God Himself does not even require. Mr. Cloud is sinfully leaning upon his own understanding, as Proverbs 3:5-7 warns us not to do. Salvation is of the Lord friend, not you!

To be saved, you simply get out of the way, and let God do the saving, all of it. I like what Pastor Jack Hyles said:

> Redemption is a work of God the Son. Regeneration is the work of God the Holy Spirit. Justification is the work of God the Father as He declares the sinner righteous in the Son. Conversion then becomes the work of the church as we change the use and purpose of a life.

David Cloud is one of Dr. Hyles' worst enemies, slandering the man continually, falsely accusing him of leaving off repentance. In truth, listen for yourself to what Pastor Jack Hyles believes and taught about Bible repentance, in this helpful sermon titled: "The Goodness Of God leadeth To Repentance." Dr. Hyles DID believe and teach repentance to be saved, he just didn't agree with the false teaching of David Cloud and others, who pervert repentance to mean something ugly and difficult which God didn't intend. Bible repentance is simply a change of mind, nothing less or more. Repentance is not a separate step from believing to be saved, they are one and the same event. So that the man who BELIEVES has repented. That is, he has changed his mind from unbelief to belief. This is why the word "repent" is never mentioned in the Gospel of John. Anyone who teaches that you must repent of your sins, in addition to trusting Christ as your Savior, is preaching another Gospel.

David Cloud insists that what I am preaching is unbiblical. Cloud says that Jesus, Paul and Peter all preached repentance from sins to be saved, but that is not true at all. Paul and Silas where asked by the Roman jailor: “Sirs, what must I do to be saved?” (Acts 16:30b). Here was their simple answer. Acts 16:31, “ And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house.” If repenting from sins were such a big factor in getting saved, as David Clouds claims that it is, then why didn’t Paul or Silas tell the man to turn away from his sinning?

Furthermore, why didn’t Paul mention repentance in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4 when he defined

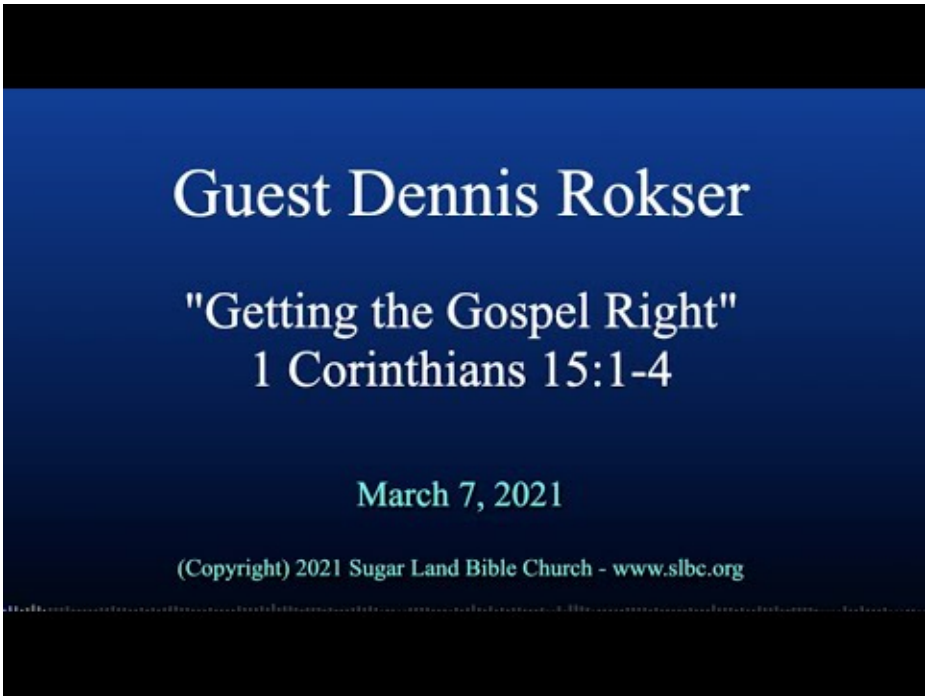
the Gospel,

” by which WE ARE SAVED Paul said? Clearly, repentance is automatic and is included with BELIEVING the Gospel. Repentance is simply thinking differently than before, so that you will BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST to be saved. Preachers have been debating and fighting over the meaning of repentance and God’s plan of salvation for millenniums, but that doesn’t mean that they’re all correct!

Both Sides May Be, But One Must Be, Wrong!

I once watched a very interesting 12 hour documentary by historian film producer, Ken Burns, on [18]The American Civil War. It is heartbreaking history! I just heard a quote in the film by President Abraham Lincoln (1809-1865) that caught my attention:



> “In great contests [battles], each party claims to act in accordance with the will of God—both may be, but one must be, wrong—God cannot be for and against the same thing at the same time!” —President Abraham Lincoln

Why did Mr. Lincoln say that? It is because both the Northern Union and the Southern Confederacy claimed to be doing “God’s will” in fighting The Civil War (1860-1965). Both President Jefferson Davis in the south, and President Abraham Lincoln in the north, said they were doing “God’s will.” As Mr. Lincoln wisely points out, that is IMPOSSIBLE! When two opposing parties, who are warring against each other, claiming to be doing God’s will, obviously someone is WRONG! That is why Abraham Lincoln made that powerful statement!

Either I am preaching THE TRUTH, and David Cloud is on his way to Hell in his sins; or else David Cloud is correct, and I am damned to Hell in my false understanding of the Gospel. But we assuredly cannot BOTH be correct! Either you can simply come as a guilty sinner and REST in the finished work of Christ, which is what I simply believe and teach; or else you must do as David Cloud preaches:

1. have intent to change your life
2. have intent to become a disciple of Christ
3. allow God to take control of your life
4. have intent to stop living in sin
5. have intent to obey Jesus

And only after you've done all that on the list, then put your faith in Christ. Does the latter sound like what Paul wrote in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4? No, not even in the ballpark? Does what David Cloud teach match up with the Gospel of John? No, not on your life. Does what David Cloud teach match the words of Paul and Silas in Acts 16:30-31? Nope, not even close. You dear reader must make the final decisions. I have shown you the inspired Words of God, not my mere human opinions. SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES (John 5:39a).

3.5.17 The Three Wills Of God For Divorce And Remarriage (2022-05-24 18:15)

Mark 10:9, “

What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.

Matthew 19:8, “

He saith unto them, Moses because of the hardness of your hearts suffered you to put away your wives: but from the beginning it was not so.

1st Corinthians 7:7, “

For I would that all men were even as I myself. But every man hath his proper gift of God, one after this manner, and another after that.

1st Corinthians 7:1: “Now concerning the things whereof ye wrote unto me: It is good for a man not to touch a woman. Nevertheless, to avoid fornication, let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband.” 1st Corinthians 7:9, “But if they cannot contain, let them marry: for it is better to marry than to burn.”

There is much controversy over the Bible subject of divorce and remarriage. In my humble opinion, much damage is being done by the hypocritical Pensacola Christian College camp today, who shameful shun, reject, condemn and mistreat divorced single people who hope to get remarried. When I first attended Campus Church in 2021, Pastor Jeff Redlin mistreated me as a divorced person, making me feel like garbage by berating, even scolding me for hoping to find a wife at church. That is a very bad pastor, and not a humble man of God.

I can save you a lot of confusion and grief dear reader, by sharing with you a truth that Pastor Jack Hyles wisely taught me from the Holy Bible. There are, in act, THREE WILLS OF GOD for your life:

1. God’s perfect will
2. God’s acceptable will
3. God’s permissive will

Let me elaborate, using marriage as an example:

1. God's PERFECT WILL is for one man and one woman to get legally married, and to remain faithful to each other for life. This is another reason why imprisonment of married people is wrong in God's sight, because it separates a husband and wife. In God's justice system, the death penalty would prevent this dilemma from happening, freeing the innocent spouse to remarry within God's will.

2. But if there is the sin of divorce, then God's ACCEPTABLE WILL is for both husband and wife to remain single for the rest of their life, as did the Apostle Paul. I believe that Paul was divorced because he mentioned being "loosed from a wife."

3. But if a divorced person is burning with lust, and cannot bear it, then there is God's PERMISSIVE WILL, which we see clearly in 1st Corinthians 7:1-2 and verse 9.

I humbly think I have the mind of Christ. 1st Corinthians 2:16, " For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ." God hates the sin of divorce (Malachi 2:16; Jeremiah 3:20) and so do I. But life is messy because people are messy. We are all sinners. In any marriage you are uniting two sinners. Marriage is supposed to be two people making a life for each other. A marriage means two people never giving up on each other. Sadly, that is not the case these days. Married couples aren't even trying anymore to work out their marital struggles, someone files for divorce (usually the woman). Dr. Jack Hyles is correct: "Divorce is a sin that perpetuates for a lifetime!"

I don't think anyone should ever even consider getting a divorce. It is a coward's revenge and taking the easy way out. I get sick looking at Match.com profiles, seeing that 90 % of all the women on there seeking remarriage are divorced. It is truly tragic that Americans have become so sinfully proud, that we have zero tolerance for each other. Proverbs 13:10, "

Only by pride cometh contention: but with the well advised is wisdom.

I have been divorced and single since 2006, not by my choice. I fought for one year to stop the divorce, but U.S. courts are bullies who always get their way. After several years of painful loneliness I decided to move forward with my life. Pastor Marty Herron at the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam cut my throat and threw me under the bus between 2014-2018, preventing me and the church's school nurse from getting married. I know as sure as I am saved that she would have married me, but her unsaved thug pastor coerced her to get rid of me, and she did.

Marty Herron despises me because I TOLD THE TRUTH that he is pulling on the same rope as the Devil for [1]preaching the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation, for promoting [2]the infidel Martin Luther as a born-again believer (who taught Baptismal Regeneration his entire life), for [3]promoting the Devil's counterfeit Bible revisions. My blood is upon Marty Herron's wicked hands, and I pray for God to avenge me upon him swiftly. I will be there in eternity when Jesus tells Marty Herron: **"

I never knew you:

I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity

” (Matthew 7:23b). With my own two ears in 2014, I heard Pastor Herron wickedly tell hundreds of people in his cult:

“It is not enough to admit that you are a sinner to get to Heaven, you must also turn away from a lifestyle of sinning.” BLASPEHMY!!!

That wicked fake preacher was the incompetent pastor of Harvest Baptist Church on Guam from 1999 to 2018. God only know how many thousands of lost sinners became religious, but never got born-again, because of [4]the false plan of salvation being preached today by the Bob Jones University cult (of which Herron is a graduate and active accomplice). God’s curse is upon these wicked imposters (Galatians 1:6-9). JUDGMENT DAY IS COMING MARTY!!! What a fool!

Not one verse in the inspired King James Bible teaches to forsake sinful behavior to receive God’s free gift of eternal life. Jesus Christ paid your debt of sin friend, and mine, so that we wouldn’t have to in Hell burning for ever and ever without hope or rest (2nd Corinthians 5:21; Revelation 14:11, 20:11-15). False knowledge is more dangerous than ignorance! Lordship Salvation is false knowledge! Satan’s Bible perversions are false knowledge! The accursed Bob Jones University crowd are not ignorant, THEY ARE WICKED!!! I have warned them incessantly, but [5]they refuse to repent of their false repentance!!!

Since 2017, as I have read thousands of women’s profiles on eHarmony and Match.com, they all sound so perfect, and I see their smiling faces, but in my soul I cannot help but wonder why they ended up divorced. The truth is that we all have Skeleton Closets, and we all put forth our best selves on social media, hiding our ugly sins, faults and bad habits. I digress!

So there are three wills of God for our lives. It would be nice if we always stayed within the perfect wills of God for our life. But because we are sinners by nature and by choice, we cannot. That is why I preach hard against the ungodly Pensacola Christian College (PCC) camp today, which includes the hypocritical Campus Church, and their hypocritical senior pastor Jeff Redlin, who abused me as a divorced person in 2021. Instead of heartily welcoming me into their church, he criticized me for telling him kindly that I hoped to find a wife at church. He embarrassed me in front of his wife, saying that if I did find a women to remarry, he wouldn’t perform the wedding.

Folks, that is an unwise and foolish pastor, who doesn’t think before he speaks. Pastor Redlin’s words were hateful, cruel and hurtful, very inconsiderate. But you see, the PCC camp only accept people who are within God’s PERFECT WILL. So once you are out of God’s perfect will, you are on the outside looking in, and they won’t accept you anymore. Of course, if you are divorced and remarried, that is different, because in their mind those sins are in the past. But if you are divorced and single, and hoping to remarry, they look down on you as a wicked sinner, and they do shun people! In other words, PCC is out of touch with reality!

I cannot help it that my former wife chose to legally divorce me. The PCC camp would rather have a man fold a pillow and relieve himself with a box of Kleenex (I am being discreet here), than to remarry as normal people do. This is a major problem in the PCC camp! They do not acknowledge the need and reality that divorced people NEED to get remarried. But PCC is putting themselves in the place of God, condemning divorced people who are lonely, hurting and still have a healthy libido. For this reason I discourage people from going to PCC, or attending their cult that condemns hurting divorced people. What Jeff Redlin did to me is not God's love, it is hypocrisy and cruel hatred. A lot of people foolishly idolize PCC and Pastor Redlin, and sadly couldn't care less about what I am saying, because they are married and not in my painful situation. People sure can be selfish, especially religious people!!! Something needs to change in our pathetic churches, so that hurting people like me are made to feel welcomed instead of shunned by self-righteous pastors and their spoon-fed congregations.

I didn't write this blog for the Pharisaical hypocrites at PCC, because they will never repent and do better. They are arrogant and full of sinful pride, [6]like the dead church at Sardis. I wrote this blog to encourage divorced people, letting you know that there is in fact something called: "The Acceptable Will of God" and "The Permissive Will of God." There is life and happiness after a divorce, but you won't find it at the Pensacola Christian College cult. My former wife divorced me, so the sin is on her and not me. I blame myself too for our marital problems, taking my share of the fault, but I did not file for divorce nor did I openly agree to anything. I was coerced and literally threatened by my lawyer in 2006, with God as my witness!!!

Yet, pastor after pastor pisses on me, condemning and telling me that I must Biblically remain lonely, horny and single for the rest of my life. They say cruel things like: "Christ is all you need!," while they hypocritically go home and make-love to their wives, enjoy home-cooked meals and have a companion by their side during surgeries and depressed times. I had NOBODY when I underwent both neck surgeries in 2009 and 2010. I wanted to die! When I am down and depressed, I have nobody to encourage me. Only a wicked, rotten, deluded and very selfish pastor would make a divorced man of 15 years of inexplicable pain of loneliness, feel guilty for desiring to remarry.

I am talking about that wicked hypocrite Pastor Jeff Redlin!!! SHAME on Pensacola Christian College. SHAME! SHAME!! SHAME!!!

3.5.18 God Does Not Hate Any Human Being (2022-05-25 23:25)

Romans 9:13, "
As it is written, Jacob have I loved, but Esau have I hated.

Matthew 5:43-46, “Ye have heard that it hath been said, Thou shalt love thy neighbour, and hate thine enemy. But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you; That ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven: for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust. For if ye love them which love you, what reward have ye? do not even the publicans the same?”

I heard Pastor Steven L. Anderson today [1]say in a sermon that God hates some people. (That is a great sermon by the way, I just disagree that God hates homosexuals) As his text passage, Brother Anderson quotes

Romans 9:13, “

As it is written, Jacob have I loved, but Esau have I hated.

” In the sermon he says that as a teenager a girl opened his eyes to this belief, that God doesn’t love everyone.

Kindly said, I totally disagree with Pastor Anderson’s thinking and teaching. First let me say, I love and support Pastor Anderson for his aggressive soulwinning ministry. I truly do love the guy! Albeit, my foremost loyalty is to God. I must preach the Word! I am writing this blog for your benefit dear reader, because I don’t want you to ever think that it is okay to hate anybody.

It saddens me that Pastor Anderson takes one single passage out of context, to base his false belief that we should hate unrepentant sinners. What saith the Scripture? ...

> Matthew 5:43-46, “Ye have heard that it hath been said, Thou shalt love thy neighbour, and hate thine enemy. But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you; That ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven: for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust. For if ye love them which love you, what reward have ye? do not even the publicans the same?”

Why would God tell us to hate our enemies, when God Himself loves His enemies? Are sodomites God’s enemies? Yes, they are! Yet as we just read, God still blesses them with rain and is kind to them. Does that sound like hatred to you? It is God’s unconditional love, which every born-again believer who walks with God possesses, just as our heavenly Father. Jesus rebuked the unbelieving Jews in John 5:42, “ But I know you, that ye have not the love of God in you.”

Did God really hate Esau as a human being? No, God loves everyone. 2nd Peter 3:9, "The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance." The Bible says that God is not willing that " should perish (this must includes all sodomites too). The Bible says that God is willing that should come to repentance (i.e., change their mind from unbelief to believing the Gospel to be saved). Dear reader, ALL means ALL (so this must also includes the homosexual community). Yes, God desires for all homosexuals to repent (think differently) to be saved.

ANY

I cannot find a single passage of Scripture that teaches us as God's children to hate anyone. In sharp contrast, I do find numerous passages of Scripture that teach us to love everyone. Jude 1:22, "And of some have compassion, making a difference:"

Now, I love that Pastor Anderson preaches hard against sin. We ought to expose sin, falsehoods and evil. Preaching against sin is not hatred, it is love. The truth is only HATE to those that hate THE TRUTH! I am all for hard preaching against sin. But there must be a balance between truth and love, because truth without love kills! 2nd Corinthians 3:6, " Who also hath made us able ministers of the new testament; not of the letter, but of the spirit: for the letter killeth, but the spirit giveth life. " We must never accept the sin with the sinner, nor reject the sinner with the sin.

What about Psalms 139:21-22, "Do not I hate them, O LORD, that hate thee? and am not I grieved with those that rise up against thee?

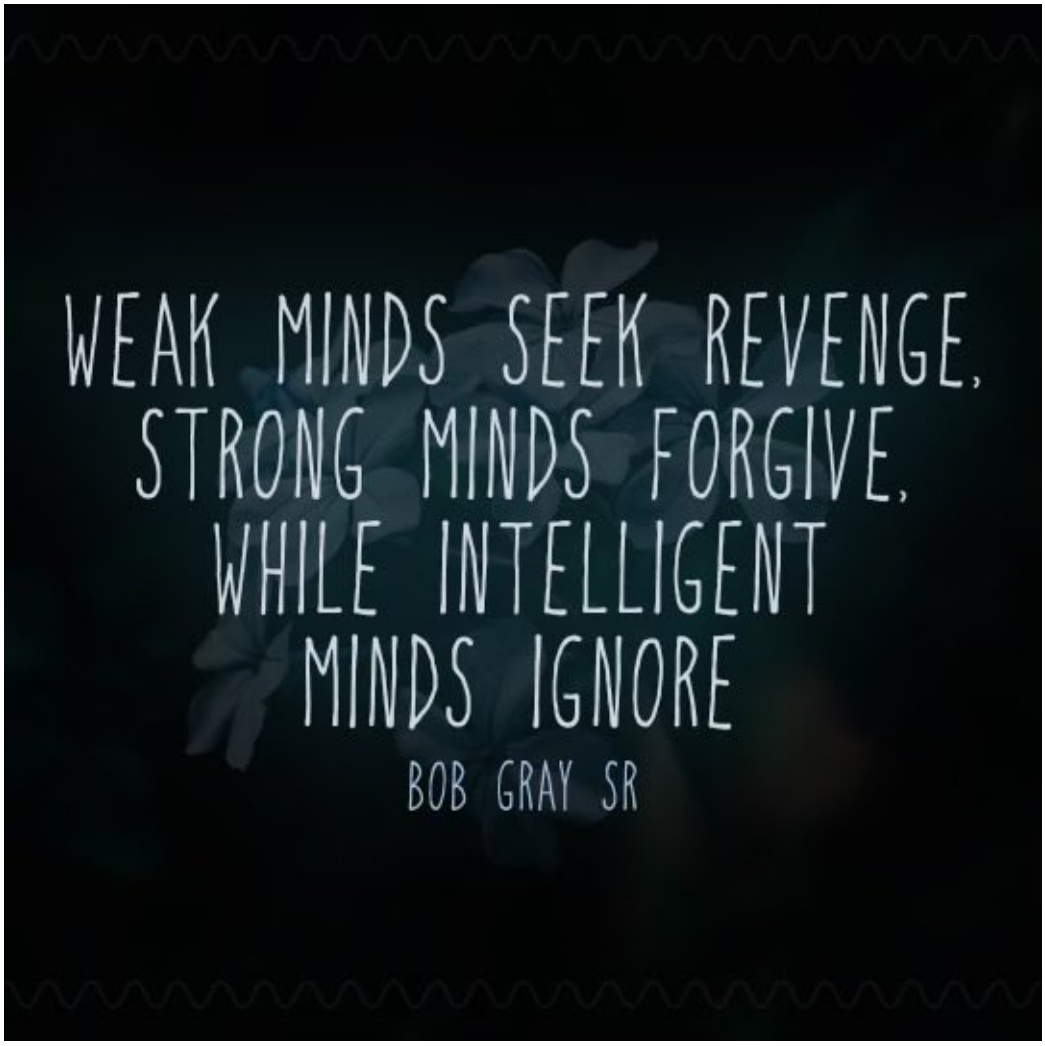
I hate them with perfect hatred: I count them mine enemies." This is what we call in theology

"Imprecatory Praying." It is important that you understand you can hate everything about a person, but still love that person as a human being for whom Jesus Christ died on the cross. God hated Esau's for his carnality and sin, but God loved Esau as a person. I know that for a fact, because as a child of God I have God's Holy Spirit living inside me, and I love people even though I hate things about them.

We should never hate anyone. Hateful thoughts can lead to hateful behavior! There is a fine line between faith and foolishness friend. God is love. 1st John 4:8, " He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is love." The Bible says you don't know God if you don't love people. I am so disappointed in most pastor I meet today, who woefully lack God's love and compassion for divorced people, sinners and hurting souls. It is tragic that the pastorate has been reduced to a mere occupation nowadays, instead of a divine calling from God.

Dear friend, the ONLY thing that can win the hardest of unsaved people to Christ is LOVE. Love makes a difference! People don't care what you know, until they know that you care! That is one reason why I refuse to ever accept any money for [2]my internet ministry. I have had umpteen people offer to send me donations, and I could make tons of money if I wanted to online; but this is a labor of love for Jesus Christ and people. I want everyone to know where my heart is at. My heart is in YOU dear friend. 2nd Corinthians 3:2, " Ye are our epistle written in our hearts, known and read of all men: Forasmuch as ye are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not in tables of stone, but in fleshy tables of the heart. "

May we all love everyone in our life. I decided long ago that I am going to unconditionally love everyone on the planet, even the vilest of evil guilty criminals. That doesn't mean I want them to be spared the death penalty. I am all for Capital Punishment for murderers, rapists and pedophiles (and so is the Holy Bible). Ecclesiastes 8:11, " Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil. " Locking a human being in a cage is human cruelty. Wicked men lock people in cages! God's way is Capital Punishment!!! One evil begets another evil. Our nation is in a mess today because we are leaning upon our own sinful understanding, instead of obeying the Holy Bible to trust in the Lord (Proverbs 3:5-7).



I heard Pastor Anderson at the end of his sermon say that he has a queer uncle, and he hates him. Pastor Anderson says that everybody has a queer uncle, and he wants to spit on his grave. What saith the Scripture? Ezekiel 33:11, " Say unto them, As I live, saith the Lord GOD, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked turn from his way and live: turn ye, turn ye from your evil ways; for why will ye die, O house of Israel?" I also had a queer uncle (go figure), on my father's side of the family. He died many years ago of A.I.D.S. I never met anybody from my father's side of the family, all from the state of Michigan. But I saw a photo of my uncle, while holding a cat, sitting on a couch. My father told me the sad story. My father's family was consumed with wickedness, all unbelievers. My father said he broke the chain of wickedness, being the first Christian in his family, and a Bible preacher. I am glad that my Dad broke his family's chain of wickedness, instead of continuing it! Amen. But I never felt hatred for my uncle, whom I never met. I humbly believe that we ought never hate anybody.

If someone has hurt you, place them into God's hand for judgment. That way you can forgive them and move on. The hardest thing to do is forgive someone who has hurt you, or hurt one of your loved ones. But you can forgive others, knowing that God for Christ's sake forgave you of your wickedness. Ephesians 4:31-32, " Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice:

And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you*."

Even defiant homosexuals still need to know that God hasn't given up on them ever getting saved. It is silly, unbiblical and wrong to ostracize one particular group of sinners (homosexuals), while still offering hope and love to adulterers, murderers and thieves. If there is still hope for any lost sinner to come to Jesus Christ, then there is still hope for YOU too!

3.5.19 NIV Perversion Of Bible Corrupts Romans 6:23 (2022-05-26 17:48)

Romans 6:23, "For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord." Genesus 3:1, " Now the serpent was more subtil than any beast of the field which the LORD God had made. And he said unto the woman, Yea, hath God said, Ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden?"

Since Genesis 3:1, the serpent (Satan - Revelation 20:2) has been corrupting the Word of God to deceive mankind:

> KING JAMES BIBLE - Romans 6:23, “For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.”
>
> NEW INTERNATIONAL VERSION - Romans 6:23, “For the wages of sin is death,
>
> but the gift of God is eternal life
>
> in
> Christ Jesus our Lord.”

The NIV makes a major blunder in this passage, changing salvation “ THROUGH ” Jesus Christ to “

Jesus Christ. Small changes have profound meanings! In fact, we are saved THROUGH Jesus Christ, not IN Christ. God the Father saves us THROUGH His only begotten Son. You cannot get to Heaven apart from the Son of God. John 20:31, “

But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name .

There is a big difference between THROUGH versus IN something or someone. Galatians 3:26, “For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.”

Although we are saved by placing our faith IN Christ, God the Father saves us THROUGH His only begotten Son. Redemption is a work of God the Son. Regeneration is the work of God the Holy Spirit. Justification is the work of God the Father as He declares the sinner righteous through the Son. Conversion then becomes the work of the church as we change the use and purpose of a life. Beware of the Devil’s Bibles, because they are corrupt. Things that are different and NOT the same!!! Please use ONLY the inspired King James Bible.

3.5.20 Two Things You Need To Do To Lose Weight (2022-05-28 15:47)

Proverbs 18:1, “

Through desire a man, having separated himself, seeketh and intermeddleth with all wisdom.

A fool hath no delight in understanding, but that his heart may discover itself.

I love to share helpful things that I learn with others. For those of my blog visitors who have been following my website ministry (which by God’s grace I began in April of 2002), then you know that I genuinely care about people. I have never made a penny from my intense internet labors. This is a ministry of love for God, truth and people. The greatest things in life aren't things!

I have taken a keen interest in healthy eating and living since I was diagnosed with stage 4 type II diabetes in 2015 when my infected gall bladder was removed. In 2016 I met with a diabetic specialist doctor, who had me injecting myself with 40 units per day of insulin into my stomach. But my left foot started to go numb after 2 months of injecting myself with insulin, which the doctor couldn't explain, so I refused to inject myself anymore with insulin.

On February 21st, 2017 my daily sugar reading was 399 mg/dl. My A1C level was 9.8 mmol/l. That is very bad! I weighed 215 pounds. By God's grace, I was about to turn 50 years old on March 5th, 2017 so I felt compelled to take control of my health. I was tired of being fat, looking pregnant, diabetic and feeling my left foot go numb from peripheral neuropathy (nerve damage from diabetes). So I did what less than 1 % of people ever do, I went on a crash fast, losing 58 pounds in just 10 weeks. On May 8th I weighed only 158 pounds. But I didn't stop there, by June 25th, 2017 I weighed 146.0 on my digital scale. That's what I weighed at age 18. With the Lord's inspiration, I lost 69 pounds in just 16 weeks!!! Amen.

By to be honest, I did it the wrong way! Although I succeeded, I had incredible determination, something that even now I cannot repeat, because I've lost that uncommon motivation. But the good news is that there is a much better way to lose weight, and keep it off permanently. I am going to share two things with you that you MUST do to lose weight, and if you decide to do it, YOU WILL LOSE WEIGHT! Nearly everything that you will find to read on the internet about losing weight is FALSE! Yes, that is correct, most of the advice on losing weight online is bad advice!!!

For example: Many websites will tell you that if you are not hungry, don't eat. Dear reader, that is the WORST thing you can do! And this is my first point to a guaranteed way to lose weight. YOU MUST EAT!!! Unless you have the extremely uncommon determination to eat next to nothing to lose weight, you will fail and fail and fail. Most people get tied of being obese and on the spur of the moment decide to go on a crash fast. That is what I did in 2017 and I succeeded. But I was among the less than 1 % of overweight people who can do that. It was just the right time and right place in my life, but that will power is long gone.

I couldn't do that today. I know, because in 2019 I gained MOST of my weight back which I had lost. I tried a few dozen times in 2019 and 2020 to lose weight, but failed EVERY TIME. I was perplexed and frustrated, wondering how I had ever lost 69 pounds in just 16 weeks, but now could not lose one pound in a year. What was different? I realized that my will power was gone. It is true that most people who lose a significant amount of weight and then yo-yo up and down with their weight, like I did, find it harder each time they lose weight to lose more weight. So what do we do? WHAT DO WE DO?

In 2021 I met a new doctor, a vegetarian. He introduced me to the healthy benefits of eating natural, healthy foods. Here is the documentary if you'd like to watch it ...

[1]The Game Changers

Here is a helpful handout with helpful information on losing weight the right way...

[2]WEIGHT LOSS MEDICINE

I am not a vegetarian, nor do I think I will ever be. But I have been trying to eat much less red meat for a few reasons. I've done a lot of homework and learned that red meat causes inflammation in most people, especially if you suffer from arthritis like I do. I have suffered from horrible cervical osteoarthritis in my neck since 2004. I take prescription pain medications, but they only take the edge off, I am still in pain all the time.

I've noticed that when I eat a healthy diet high in fiber (whole grains, fruit, seeds, nuts and beans), I feel better overall and my neck pain seems to be more manageable. The episodes of intense unbearable pain in my neck seem to be less when I consistently eat a healthy diet. I've done much reading, which seems to confirm this. The doctor I have now is not a good doctor, she doesn't care about my weight, blood or overall health. She always has one hand on the doorknob when I meet with her. It is hard to find a good doctor. And also, they need to accept your type of insurance and length of injury. So it gets complicated. Fortunately, I am still able to get 40 mg a day of Oxycontin. I need and used to take 80 mg for over 11 years, but Florida has cracked down on prescription pain drugs. It is not fair or reasonable, but it is what it is. I digress.

Back to the main focus of this article, there are two things that you MUST do to lose weight, and it is possible, bearable and reasonable to do. As I mentioned, the first thing is to eat! Trying to starve yourself on a crash diet is simply not sustainable. It is VERY hard to do and sustain. A much better way to lose weight is to EAT a healthy diet of high protein, high fiber foods that will make you feel full and satisfied for longer periods of time.

- For breakfast today I eat a bowl of old-fashioned oatmeal, sprinkled with cinnamon, flax seeds and pure unprocessed honey (made by happy bees right here in Pensacola).
- For a mid-morning snack I sometimes eat a container of Greek yogurt. I didn't today, but I can still have it anytime if I want it. Stay away from Yoplait and other high in sugar yogurts, which are bad for you. Greek yogurt os low in sugar. Better, yet, plain yogurt has no sugar, which I often eat. But for now I have 6 Chobani coconut and 6 strawberry. Last time I purchased Chobani Black Cherry flavor, which is my favorite.
- For lunch today I ate 2 chicken breasts which I baked yesterday. I also ate a dozen creamer potatoes (baby white potatoes that have a natural buttery flavor...good stuff. They're about 20 calories each). I cooked a whole box of brown rice yesterday and stored it in a plastic container in the refrigerator. Today I ate about 3/4 cup brown rice for lunch. It makes me feel full all afternoon, since it digests slower than white rice.
- For an afternoon snack I will eat some mild salsa on whole grain crackers with chunky guacamole. I bought this all at Walmart yesterday.

- For an evening snack I will eat a vanilla protein smoothie with frozen peaches, frozen pitted cherries, one brown raw egg, some nutmeg, a little cinnamon, a cup of unsweetened almond milk, and some flax seeds added into my Nutri-Ninja. [3]If you don't have a Nutri-Ninja , you are missing out! I love this thing. I bought the 1100 watt unit. Walmart sells them, but they sell-out quick! Before I go to bed I will put one whole lemon (rind, seeds and all) into my Nutri-Ninja with some blueberries and water, and mix it for 40 seconds. One lemon only contains 17 to 20 calories! Lemon peel is soooo good for you!!!
- For dinner, I will eat one-fourth container of sliced rotisserie chicken (75 calories) on one folded slice of Ezekiel bread (80 calories), with some mustard.

That is my meal for today. As you can see, I am eating well, enjoying my day. During the day I can eat all the pickles I want to snack on, which I do. The entire jar is only 5 calories!

Now the SECOND thing that you must do to lose weight, and this is important, is that WHEN you feel hungry (and you will), only eat healthy foods. If you're used to eating processed and deep fried foods, that is what you will crave (it rhymes with GRAVE…lol). What you eat today, you will crave tomorrow!!! So the first step to losing weight is to go on a 7-day fast of eating ONLY HEALTHY FOODS (seeds, nuts, fruits, vegetables, lean meats and grains). Drink only mineral water or unsweetened green tea. Coffee is okay. At the end of the week, you taste buds will be reset, and you should now be craving healthy foods instead of junk foods.

I fully know the temptation to backslide from my healthy eating and give-in to consume a Tombstone pizza, deep fried foods with plenty of ketchup and all. And if you do, don't panic, it is okay, just start again tomorrow. NEVER GIVE UP at taking better care of yourself. To have losing weight as your goal is not the best goal. A much better goal is to start eating healthy, and then you will automatically lose body weight over time. Depending on how overweight you are, it may take a couple years to lose 100 pounds. If you can crash diet, great, but most people cannot and fail 100 % of the time. But everyone CAN eat a healthier diet. Nearly everyone DOESN'T regularly eat seeds, nuts, whole grains, beans, lentils or oatmeal.

Most people fry everything, but baking is MUCH healthier. I only use non-trans fatty oils; such as, olive oil and sunflower oil. I sprinkle extra virgin olive oil over my salads. When I do deep fry anything, like breaded shrimp, from time to time, I only use sunflower oil. But if you want to LOSE weight, you should avoid deep fried foods and anything breaded. I heard actor Nicole Kidman say publicly that the way she stays skinny is by eating 25 of whatever she likes and wants, and then eats 75 % of what she needs (all the less appealing healthy stuff). A can of sardines cannot compare to Dominoes pizza, I'm sorry, it is true! But the sardines are MUCH healthier for you. I have oatmeal, but it is good for me!

So these are the TWO THINGS that I do to lose weight, slow but guaranteed:

1. Eat (but only healthy foods)
2. Snack on only healthy foods in between meals

And of course, I should probably add a third thing, which is simply to COUNT YOUR CALORIES!!! I don't need to count calories anymore, because I have done this for so long that I know what I can and cannot eat to lose weight. If you can just reduce your daily calories intake by 25 % of your maintenance calories, you'll lose one pound per week. To find your maintenance calories, simply multiply your weight times 10. So if you weight 150 pounds, multiple that times ten, which is 1500 calories per day. If you weight 200, then your maintenance calories should be around 2000 calories per day. This is the amount of calories required daily to maintain your present weight. So if you are 200 pounds, but want to lose weight to get down to 150 pounds, then you should just eat 1500 calories per day, and your body WILL ADJUST over time.

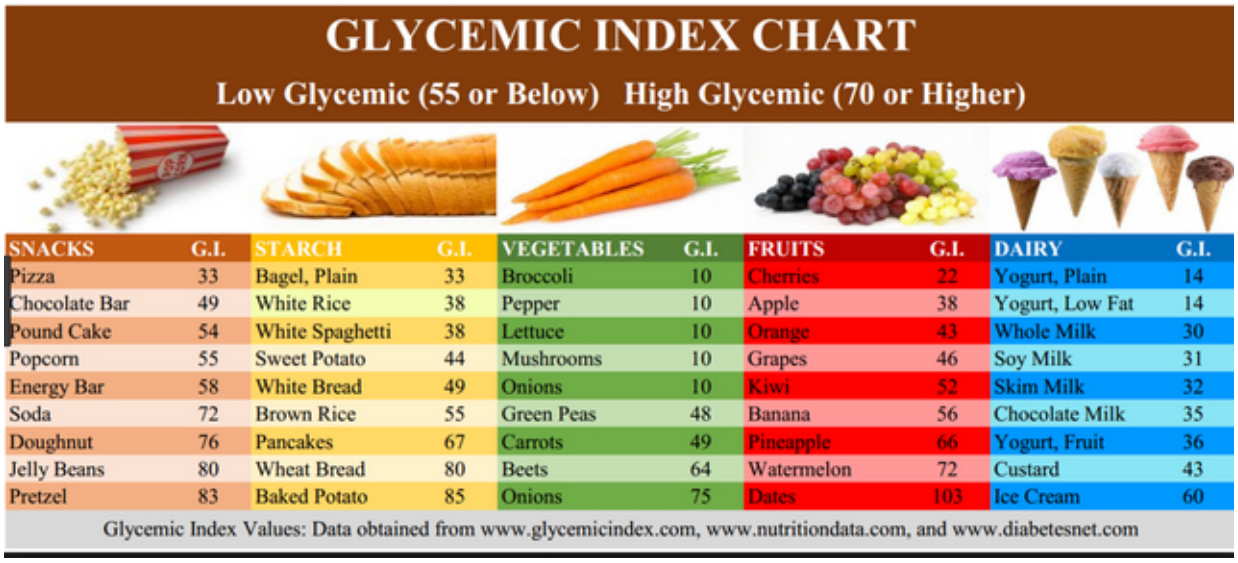
Eating unhealthy processed and deep-fried foods make you crave more of them, which is why you get fat. You cannot get fat eating beans! Beans are a superfood, very high in protein and fiber. All the red meat that men love contains ZERO fiber, which clogs up your colon and leads to multiple health issues down the road. Everyone needs fiber! Beans have lots of fiber. One can of beans provides 100 % of a person's daily need for fiber. Less than 5 % of the food choices listed on restaurant menus contain any fiber. No wonder Americans are so sick!

I try to avoid white bread and instead of Ezekiel bread, which is flourless and contains only WHOLE GRAINS. it takes longer for your body to digest whole grains, so you feel full longer. Processed flours used in most breads digest quickly, so you want more soon thereafter.

After I eat a healthy meal, I have horrible cravings at times. We all do. The key is to snack on very healthy foods (some cottage cheese, salsa and whole grains crackers, a sliced turkey sandwich on a slice or two of Ezekiel bread, Greek yogurt) until your cravings go away, and THEY WILL. Eat slow! Drink plenty of mineral water. Within 30 to 45 minutes you won't be hungry anymore. If you can train your mind and body to eat healthy three times a day, and to ONLY snack on healthy foods when cravings arise, then YOU WILL LOSE WEIGHT. It is a guarantee. If you are eating truly healthy foods (this excludes pizza, boxed foods, sodas and snack chips), then you should be able to eat comfortably without eating your maintenance calories.



Remember, to lose weight you absolutely MUST eat less calories than you are burning each day. it is that simple. But using the formula that I just gave you, will allow you to eat and enjoy yourself, while still losing weight. It really all comes down to just making sure that you ONLY eat healthy foods. If you're like me, eating green leafy vegetables once in a while is okay, but you get tired of eating them every day. It's more fun to eat KFC, McDonalds or Arby's. But those foods are all highly processed and lacking in nutrients, so you are always hungry for more.

When I lost just 30 pounds (going from 215 pounds down to 185 pounds in just 30 days in 2017, my A1C sugar level dropped significantly from 9.8 mmol/l down to 6.0). I got rid of type II diabetes in 30 days! An A1C of 5.2 is perfect, which I achieved at 177 pounds. For someone who is diabetic, losing weight is much harder, because you don't have enough insulin. The pancreas works fine in a type II diabetic person, but since they are so fat, the poor pancreas just can't produce enough of the hormone insulin.

All the food that we eat turns into glucose (body sugar, energy) in the bloodstream. When the pancreas sense more glucose in the blood, it produces insulin which causes the blood to release that energy into your cells, liver and muscles. But if your are diabetic, then there is not enough insulin, and so your cells, liver and muscles cannot get the energy that they need, and send "I'm hungry" messages to the brain. So you are super hungry all the time, even though you eat plenty of food. The dangerous consequence is that all that extra glucose is stored as more fat.

This is why a diabetic person needs to avoid spiking their glucose levels, by eating the wrong foods, because it will just make you even more hungry. [4]Here is a Glycemic Index (this chart shows how much different foods raise blood sugar levels)...

The purpose of the preceding chart is to [6]help a diabetic person lose weight. To avoid unbearable cravings, a diabetic person should eat only foods low on the G.I. scale.

So when you read (or hear someone on the internet say) that you SHOULND'T EAT if you're not hungry, don't listen to them because they don't know what they're talking about. If you desire to lose weight, the worst thing you can do is not to eat, because when you do get hungry you will binge! If you desire to lose weight, you should eat some protein (fish, chicken, Greek yogurt, cottage cheese, beans, eggs, tofu) about the size of your fist every 4 to 5 hours throughout the day, which will prevent binging on the unhealthy foods you shouldn't eat. by EATING every 4 or 5 hours, you retain CONTROL over your hunger. But when you try to starve yourself, YOU LOSE CONTROL when the discomfort becomes so bad that you can't take it anymore, and you eat everything in sight.

The best, safest and smartest way to guaranteed lose weight is SLOW but CONSISTENTLY. At first you will be skeptical and a bit discouraged, which is normal. But if you will do what I shared with you in this article, eating only healthy foods three times a day, and stay under your maintenance calories per day, you will see the scale drop, and it will continue to drop. Once you see the scale start to drop, you will get excited knowing that what you are doing is working. Losing weight requires a different mindset than you've had to gain weight. We all gain weight because we don't even try to maintain or lose weight, we just eat until we feel full. By eating irresponsibly like that, anybody can easily gain 30 to 40 pounds in just 3 months!!!

Losing weight requires a plan! Once you have a plan, then follow it. If you deviate from the course, that's okay, just get back up and do better tomorrow. Losing weight is a war. Our goal should be to win more battles than we lose. If we do that, then we will win the war! The next time you go to the grocery store, buy healthy foods, and don't buy the unhealthy foods. If it's in your house, it's in your mouth! I see umpteen people at Walmart with cases of plastic soda pop bottles hanging off the sides of the carts. Everyone of them are overweight!!! Soda is loaded with unhealthy toxic sugars and impurities, which are full of liquid calories!

If you don't have a household digital scale, you should buy one. I bought the extra-wide scale, simply because the small scale is awkward to try to stand on. Bigger is better! And then DON'T look at the scale every day, because it will discourage you. Remember the HYDRATE in carbohydrate, because every time you eat carbohydrates, your body will retain about 5 pounds in water. One gallon of water equals 8 pounds!!! In other words, your scale will greatly fluctuate from day to day. So just weigh once a week. If you do look at the scale daily, don't let it discourage you. As long as you're eating less calories than your body is burning, YOU KNOW of a scientific certainty that you WILL lose weight. It is an absolute guarantee.

I am eating healthy and losing weight, slowly but surely. I just wanted to share with everyone what I am doing along my journey, to help others as well. God bless and thank you for reading.

3.5.21 The Horrors Of Spending Forever Burning In Hell (2022-05-29 20:26)

Matthew 18:8, "Wherefore if thy hand or thy foot offend thee, cut them off, and cast them from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life halt or maimed, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into everlasting fire."

Matthew 25:41, "Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels:"

Revelation 20:11-15, "And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away; and there was found no place for them.

And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works.

And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works.

And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death.

And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire*."

The Holy Bible has more to say about Hell than Heaven. Sadly, the average Baptist preacher doesn't preach on Hell once a year. You'll have to search diligently across the United States to find a preacher that warns lost sinners of the judgment to come in the Lake of Fire.

Since I moved from the island of Guam to Pensacola, Florida in July of 2021, I have only heard one local pastor preach on the subject of the Lake of Fire. That was a couple weeks ago. I thank God for him. He is a good and godly man, a few years older than me, a soulwinner, and I appreciate his ministry at the small Baptist church I am attending. You can tell when somebody cares and this man cares. Several months ago he saw a young man related to a church member, laying drunk by a local grocery store. Most pastors would have done nothing. But this caring preacher convinced the young man to check into the [1]Better Roads Recovery program in Indiana, and he drove the young man all the way from Florida to Indiana to help him, paying his admission fee. That is love!

It is no coincidence that the aforementioned pastor who cares, warns people in his preaching about the dangers of a real burning Hell. Caring people are soulwinners! There is a direct correlation between being a caring Christian and telling THE TRUTH. My web visitors who have followed my ministry for any length of time, know that I care. I give God ALL the credit and praise. I don't want anybody's money. I just want to be a blessing for Christ to as many lost, needy and hurting people as I can. That is why I am here, to help OTHERS. Philippians 2: 4-5, " Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others. Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus:" Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) used to say that if he could teach his people just one thing, other than their need to be being born-again to go to Heaven, it would be to:

" Amen and amen! Most pastors today are so caught up in themselves that they have lost sight of obeying The Great Commission. Sadly, in most churches it has become The Great Omission!

The opposite of truth is not lies, it is INDIFFERENCE. The opposite of love is not hate, it is INDIFFERENCE. The biggest problem in today's churches, Bible colleges and religious institutions is INDIFFERENCE. Indifference is not caring one way or the other. It is not the same as being apathetic. Apathy is to some extent, a condition; Indifference is to the same extent, a choice. An apathetic person is without feelings, not because they chose to, but because they can't; they are incapable of response. An indifferent person simply doesn't care or isn't concerned, not because they can't, but because they won't. Most pastors are sinfully indifferent toward the Devil's corrupt bibles, falsehoods, heresies and false gospels.

I woke up yesterday and thought about the fact that there won't be any time in Hell. Revelation 10:6, "And sware by him that liveth for ever and ever, who created heaven, and the things that therein are, and the earth, and the things that therein are, and the sea, and the things which are therein, that there should be time no longer:" Dear reader, if you unfortunately die in your sins one day, you will spend eternity suffering in the fires, smoke, restlessness and inexplicable torments of Hell. I didn't say that, the Bible does. Revelation 14:11, "And the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name."

To me, one of the most horrifying aspects of Hell will be the absence of time. Can you imagine being trapped in such a horrible place, separated from a loving God for all eternity, knowing that you could have freely gone to Heaven simply by accepting Jesus Christ as your personal Savior? I think the thing that will insanely eat away at the minds of those in Hell, will be the realization that they were freely offered God's gift of eternal life, but they refused it because they were thinking stupid. I meet so many people who refuse to accept God's free gift because of some phony preacher they saw on television. Either that or they'll bring up the the thousands of sex abuse scandals in the Roman Catholic cult, Southern Baptist Convention or other mainstream religious denominations. Folks, those are just lame excuses not to get saved! So many people are going to split Hell wide open, because they spent their whole life dissing on sinful religious people, false religion and imperfect preachers. That is not wise!

Hell is a place of darkness. Matthew 8:12, " But the children of the kingdom shall be cast out into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth." No doubt people will be weeping in uncontrollable tears from the intense pain from the flames. They will be gnashing their teeth from pain. But the Bible also teaches that there is another reason for which people in Hell will be weeping and wailing and gnashing their teeth.

There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when ye shall see Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, and all the prophets, in the kingdom of God, and you yourselves thrust out. " People in Hell hate themselves! They hate themselves because they could have been freely enjoying all the joys, splendors and blessings of Heaven, having fun and partying with the angels and other redeemed saints; but instead they will now spend eternity burning in Hell, with no hope or chance of ever being paroled. Please listen to me dear friend, because I love you with God's unconditional love. This matter of going to either Heaven or Hell is a BIG DEAL. Fools like Pastor Marty Herron make light of THE TRUTH. Marty requires that lost sinners forsake a lifestyle of sinning to be saved, but the Bible never says that anywhere!!!

Please remember friend: The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU. "

YOU

has no place in getting saved! What saith the Scripture? ...

> Hebrews 4:10-11, "For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his. Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief."

IF you are saved (i.e., have entered into God's rest), then you have CEASED from your own works. That means you are NOT trying to clean up your life, faithfully run the race, endure unto the end, live a lifestyle of repentance, turn away from sins, surrender all to Christ as "Lord," follow Jesus no matter what, invite Christ into your life, give your life to Christ, nor any other foolish tommyrot that has NOTHING to do with the Gospel of free grace taught in the [2]Gospel of John and

1st Corinthians 15:1-4...

> 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:"

There it is: "

1. Christ DIED on the cross for our sins.
2. He was BURIED.
3. Jesus RESURRECTED three days later from the dead.

Anybody who comes to God as a guilty sinner (you've got to know what you're being saved from and why you need a Savior), receiving Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, believing that Christ was buried but is risen bodily from the dead is saved!!! It's that easy, free and simple to go to Heaven dear friend (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4). JUST BELIEVE THE GOOD NEWS!!!!!!!

There is no greater crime in God's sight than to preach a false gospel. As heinous and disgusting as serial killers are to any normal person, those ungodly criminals are not as bad and guilty as those ungodly pastors who preach another gospel which dooms men's souls to Hell for everlasting damnation. What saith the Scripture? Matthew 10:28, "

And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell.

" Wicked men may kill your body, ending your earthly life; but God will cast every unbeliever into everlasting hell, fire and damnation.

No matter who you are dear reader, there are only TWO WAYS you can die...

YOU CAN:

1. DIE IN THE LORD (Revelation 14:13, "And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them.")
2. DIE IN YOUR SINS (John 8:24, "I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sins*: for if ye believe not that I am he, ye shall* die in your sins*."*)

Isn't that all very simple? Sure it is! We are the SINNERS and Jesus is the blessed SAVIOR. The way you get to Heaven is by simply acknowledging that you are a guilty sinner. What saith the Scripture? Romans 3:19-20, " Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God. Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin." I love those Bible versus, because they expose the big lie today that to get to Heaven you must turn from your sins. We know this is not true because Christ died for our sins. "CHRIST DIED FOR THE UNGODLY" (Romans 5:6-9).

I absolutely love and appreciate what Pilgrim's Progress author John Bunyan (1628-1688) said, which clarifies this delicate theological matter:

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people."

Pastor M.R. DeHaan (1891-1968) effectively said the very same thing, but in these different words:

> "There is a vast difference between coming to Jesus for salvation and coming after Jesus for service. Coming to Christ makes one a believer, while coming after Christ makes one a disciple. All believers are not disciples. To become a believer one accepts the invitation of the Gospel, to be a disciple one obeys the challenge to a life of dedicated service and separation. Salvation comes through the sacrifice of Christ; discipleship comes only by sacrifice of self and surrender to His call for devoted service. Salvation is free, but discipleship involves paying the price of a separated walk. Salvation can't be lost because it depends upon God's faithfulness, but discipleship can be lost because it depends upon our faithfulness." —Pastor M.R. DeHaan, Hebrews; Zondervan Publishing House, 1959 (p. 117).

Do you see the drastic and clear DIFFERENCE between justification (salvation) wrought without by the man Christ, versus the sanctification (growing in grace) wrought within every born-again believer by the indwelling Holy Spirit (Romans 8:9; 1st John 3:24)? I am confident that you do. God saves a man by faith alone, which is strictly a legal matter (Romans 4:4-7; 1st John 2:2); and then the indwelling Holy Spirit continues to work on that redeemed child of God to change him, but we must yield to the Spirit's leading if we are to grow (1st Peter 2:2; Romans 12:1-2).

Turning away from your sinful ways has NOTHING to do with accepting the free gift of God by faith alone. It makes good sense to the unsaved carnal man (1st Corinthians 2:14-16), that a lost person must reasonably be expected by God to stop committing the very sins for which Christ died, as a requirement to be saved; however, this is NOT God's simple plan of salvation. THE TRUTH is that we all do just that, we all continue living in sin! The Apostle Paul in Romans 7:24 didn't say: "O wretched man that I used to be," he said: "O wretched man that I am." Romans 7:24, "O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me from the body of this death? " Paul was still a wretched sinner! Paul wasn't a little sinner, or a venial sinner (Catholic false doctrine). No, the Apostle Paul was a mortal sinner just like you and me. The Roman Catholic distinction between "venial sins" versus "mortal sins" is Satanic rubbish. What saith the Scripture? James 2:10, "For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all. " Even if you commit the most seemingly insignificant of sins, you might as well have become a serial killer, because in God's sight YOU ARE GUILTY!

Even one sin is enough to keep a person out of Heaven, and for God to cast them into the fires of Hell forever to be punished. Since we are flawed human beings, we cannot even begin to comprehend the holiness and righteousness of God. We are so wicked as humans that we have fooled ourselves into thinking that a growing fetus in a mother's womb is not yet a human being (Roe vs. Wade, 1972). Abortionists are only kidding themselves!!! Abortion is cruel and cold-blooded, first-degree, premediated MURDER!!! We are an ungodly nation of murderers! And yet we have the audacity to question God's righteousness for sentencing a Christ-rejecting sinner to the Lake of Fire forever? We don't have that right, nor the good sense to know enough to make such a judgment against our good God.

Life is short, Hell is hot and eternity is a long time! Jesus plainly warned in John 3:3b, "Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God. ” The new birth is not optional if you want to escape Hell and go to Heaven. Romans 5:8-9,

“But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him.” ONLY JESUS SAVES!!!

[3]Evangelist Ray Comfort is not a saved man, who has a warped misunderstanding of what it means to be born-again. Ray errantly teaches that “

born again

refers to having a

radical experience,

” but that is not what it means at all. Since Adam chose to sin, sin and death entered into the world, passing down upon all mankind, so that we are born with a single nature devoid of the Spirit and knowledge of God. Therefore, we absolutely need to be born for the second time, this time spiritually, by the Holy Spirit of God.

This wonderful new birth is a supernatural miracle (John 1:12-13), wrought only by God in response to a person’s faith in the Good News of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and bodily risen the third day (Romans 1:16; 1st Corinthians 15:1-4; Galatians 3:26). Getting saved (i.e., born again) is a free gift from God, which requires no form of payment (such as giving up your sinful bad habits), nor are there any obligations imposed (e.g., living a lifestyle of repentance). John 3:6-7, “That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again.” Jesus in this passage is simply contrasting the fleshly birth (of water; a mother’s water bag) versus the spiritual birth by the Holy Spirit of God). Nicodemus had never heard these truths before, so Jesus taught him, so that he could get saved and also go preach the Gospel to others. I sincerely believe that Nicodemus did get saved, who helped Joseph of Arimathea embalm and bury Jesus.

Hell is a horrifying place. It is a literal physical place, which the Bible plainly teaches is down inside the earth. We read concerning Christ in Acts 2:27, “ Because thou wilt not leave my soul in hell, neither wilt thou suffer thine Holy One to see corruption.” But Jesus comforted the repentant thief on the cross, by promising him that they would both be in Paradise that very day. Luke 23:43, “And Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, To day shalt thou be with me in paradise.” So how did Jesus’ soul go to Hell and Paradise the same day? His physical body was buried and sealed in the tomb. The only logical answer is that Hell (Hades) is compartmentalized, with the place of Paradise on one side, and the place of Torment on the other. This is exactly what we see in the true story of the rich man and Lazarus in Luke 16:19-31. There was a great gulf fixed between the two sides, so that no one could cross over to the other. Once a person dies in their sins and goes to Hell, it is too late.

And by the way, the Devil has never been to Hell!!! The Bible teaches in Job 1:7, “And the LORD said unto Satan, Whence comest thou? Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it.” I am not sure what that last part means. How does Satan walk up and down in the earth? Remember, Satan is a spirit and not a physical entity. I believe that the fallen angels were disembodied when they were cast down to the earth, when Lucifer rebelled in Heaven and was cast down to the earth. Hollywood often portrays the Devil and demons as torturing the damned in Hell, but I cannot find even one place in the Scripture where this happened. God created Hell to punish the Devil and his angels, not employee them to help God punish those who go there.

The Bible teaches that Jesus' soul went to Hell for three days (Acts 2:27). Yet in the following Bible verse we learn that Jesus' soul spent three days and nights in the heart of the earth. Matthew 12:40, " For as Jonas was three days and three nights in the whale's belly;so shall the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth." Thus, we can logically deduct that Hell is in fact in the heart (center) of the earth.

Now, we read in Revelation 20:14 that death and Hell will someday be cast into the Lake of Fire (Gehenna), which is a different place it seems. I do not know, to be honest. Hell (Hades) is similar to jail, where an accused person awaits their court trial. Those in Hell (Hades) right now are awaiting The Great White Throne Of Judgment (Revelation 20:11-15). Sadly, they have at least 1,000 years to wait, because The Great White Throne Judgment won't happen until after the 1,000 year Millennial reign of Christ as King over the earth from the city of Jerusalem. We saints (who will have been raptured and received our immortal bodies) we help Jesus reign the Bible says (Revelation 20:6).

Even after one billion years in the prison of Hell, it won't even be the beginning. I have a difficult time wrapping my brain around that. Have you ever thought why God will release Satan from his imprisonment toward the end of the 1,000 year Millennium? Could it be that God wants to silence all His critics who accuse Him of being unfair? Many people accuse God of being hateful and cruel, not giving people a second chance who go to Hell. But God is going to release from the Bottomless Pit, loosened from his chains, the Devil.

God is going to give the most evil and corrupt entity in the universe a second chance! Wow! That is a good and fair God. But Satan will immediately return to his former evil works, roaming about the earth as a lion seeking whom he may devour (1st Peter 5:8). The Devil is a liar and a murderer (John 8:44), who only comes as a thief in the night to kill, steal and destroy (John 10:10). Thus, God will prove and settle the matter once and for all, by allowing the most evil person who ever lived to have a second chance, but Lucifer will prove that he hasn't repented. God is just, good and fair in all His judgments. 2nd Timothy 2:13, " If we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself."

Please don't go to Hell whoever you may be. Make sure that you are saved. Understanding the facts of the Gospel isn't enough. You personally must place your confidence, trust, reliance upon the facts of Christ's death on the cross, His burial and bodily resurrection the third day. These THREE facts of history comprise by which we are saved if we simply BELIEVE. Romans 1:16,

THE GOSPEL,

"For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.

" Do you believe this Good News? I got saved at age 13 in Chicago. All I did was put my trust in the risen Savior, believing that He died for my sins on the cross. Jesus paid it all!

I don’t owe Him anything. That is very important to understand, because salvation is of the Lord. If I owe Him anything, then salvation couldn’t have been a free gift, but instead it would have been a reward. Sadly, Dr. Steve Pettit (president of Bob Jones University since 2014) [4]even calls getting saved a preacher, and a Satanic Calvinist theological liar! Calvinism is of the Devil, as was the unsaved heretic preacher John Calvin (1509-1564). Study online and you will find that [6]John Calvin murdered 58 people for disagreeing with his perverse theology! So much for living a changed life (as Calvinism falsely requires to get to Heaven). The Bible says that eternal life is a free gift (Romans 5:15-18).

“ [5]reward.” Mr. Pettit is an

There is no time in Hell. There is no rest, no sleep, no break and no end to the suffering. Luke 16:24, “ And he cried and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame.” This Bible verse teaches that no one in Hell can even receive a drop of water. We know that people in Hell have a soul and a body, according to Matthew

And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell.

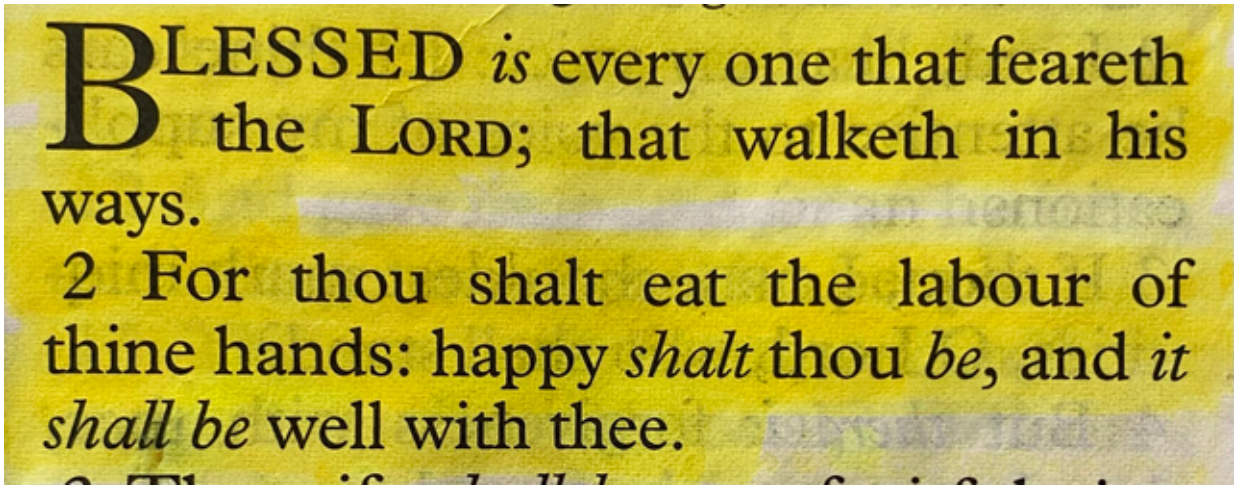
” The human body cannot survive more than a few days without water, but the body that God will provide condemned sinners in Hell will be able to suffer dehydration forever without any water!!! Think about that dear reader, because I am scared for people who aren’t saved. Hebrews 10:31,

“It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God. ”



Think of a time in your life when you were extremely thirsty, and desperately needed a drink of water, but there was none. Last July I moved from the island of Guam to Pensacola, Florida. It gets hotter here in Florida than it does on Guam. I had a bottle of cold water as I walked along Pensacola Beach in July, but I drank it quickly, as I perspired in the hot sun. I had walked about a half mile along the beach in the hot sun. I was panting and needed water, so I walked up to the various hotels. But the gates were locked and required a key card which only hotel guests had. So I couldn’t enter to find water. There were no concession stands where I had walked. The only place to get water, that I knew of, was way back by the long pier that is famously associated with Pensacola Beach. I was roasting in the sun, walking in the hot burning sand under my feet. So I walked and walked and finally found a way to walk to the front street, seeking water. My heart was pounding, literally hurting from the sun and lack of water. I was worried I might have a stroke in the heat. As I walked and began to worry more and more, I finally made it to the front of a hotel. I saw an employee at the outside greeting counter, and asked him where I could please buy water. The young man kindly handed me an ice cold bottle of water, which I drank all the way down in about 30 seconds! That was the closest I ever came to suffering a heat stroke. So I learned an important lesson last summer, to never stray too far in the hot sun, and to always have plenty of water with me.

A person in Hell, for the first time in their life, will have NOTHING BUT EMPTYINESS to think about why they refused to get born-again. You see, nearly everyone who is still alive on earth doesn't even bother to think about the future. They sit at home watching late Night TV, mocking sin and making fun of the Holy Bible, idolizing they perverse idol celebrities. They blaspheme God and dismiss the inspired Word of God as mere fables. Most heathens will say that rich men wrote the Bible only to control the naïve masses of society. Vladimir Lenin called religion, the opiate (drug) of the people (and it is). But religion never saved anybody! Religion is the worst thing that ever happened to this sick and dying world. Salvation is NOT found in a religion, but only in the person of the Lord Jesus Christ (Acts 4:10-12; John 14:6).

I am horrified for those people who are suffering in Hell this moment. Even if Christ returned right now, they would have to wait for at least 1,000 years (the 7-year Tribulation, plus the 1,000 year Millennium) until their day in court. And tragically, EVERYONE who appears at The Great White Throne Of Judgment will be guilty and sentenced to the everlasting Lake of Fire. This is the appropriate title of Michael P. Bowen's excellent book: "[7]I Never Knew You: The Horror Of The Coming Great White Throne Judgment And How You Can Avoid It!" This is the clearest book I have read in defense of the simplicity of the Gospel. If you want to solidify your salvation beliefs, please read this helpful book, which is 100 % Scriptural. I cannot recommend it enough! if you have an unsaved love one and think they might read this book, it makes a wonderful gift, which I have given to umpteen people that I care about. God bless you dear friend and thank you for reading my blog.

3.6.1 A Shameful Unbiblical Attitude Of Pastors Toward Soulwinning (2022-06-01 10:27)

Acts 20:16-21, "For Paul had determined to sail by Ephesus, because he would not spend the time in Asia: for he hasted, if it were possible for him, to be at Jerusalem the day of Pentecost. And from Miletus he sent to Ephesus, and called the elders of the church. And when they were come to him, he said unto them, Ye know, from the first day that I came into Asia, after what manner I have been with you at all seasons, Serving the Lord with all humility of mind, and with many tears, and temptations, which befell me by the lying in wait of the Jews: And how I kept back nothing that was profitable unto you, but have shewed you, and have taught you publickly, and from house to house, Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ."

I heard a local pastor in Pensacola a few months ago say something that really bothered me from the pulpit on a Sunday morning. He said: "We're not trying to grow our church size, our goal is to train people and then send them out to minister elsewhere. That is why our church remains small in size." The first thing that I thought of was how lame an excuse that pastor was making to account for his failure to go door-to-door soulwinning with the church.

This particular church has NO organized or scheduled time each week to go soulwinning. That is really pathetic. Folks, soulwinning builds churches. Here in Pensacola, the vine is ripe! The fields are ripe unto harvest here in Pensacola, but sadly I haven't found a single church that is truly on fire for God concerning soulwinning. I still have some more churches that I want to visit, so I am not saying that there are no such churches here, but of the few churches I have already attended, none of them goes soulwinning.

Anybody can put out a fire, but it's better to have an organized fire department. Soulwinners need training and organization; faithful men and women training others what they have learned. That's the job of the church. '[1]The Purpose Of The Church' (Pastor Jack Hyles).

I attended Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College (PCC) and was utterly disappointed that they also have no organized soulwinning. They send out a few men each Sunday afternoon to pass out invitation flyers to come to Campus Church, but it is more of a way of claiming that they do go soulwinning, when they truly DON'T. They only pass out flyers for appearances' sake, not because they truly care about lost sinners getting saved. If they truly did, PCC would aggressively reach out to the Pensacola area with the Gospel, which they sadly don't. In the few months that I attended Campus Church, not once did I ever hear Pastor Jeff Redlin express any desire, teach nor preach the importance and need to go soulwinning. His sermonettes are dry, lacking conviction and mostly, lacking the Holy Spirit power of God.

Pastor Jeff Redlin delivers speeches to look and sound good to appease the intellectual snobbery of the PCC camp, but his heart is not toward lost sinners, nor hurting sinners like me. Pastor Redlin shamefully rejected me from the first week I started attending Campus Church, because of my truth-telling website ministry and the fact that I am divorced and hoping to remarry someday. What a religious Pharisaical hypocrite! I say that kindly with God's love. Somebody needs to preach with authority or else the world will go to Hell. If we would change the future, we must disturb the present!

And then to add insult to injury, the one time that he did mention something about sharing the Gospel, was to announce a class during an awkward time for anyone interested, but it would cost you $10 to attend the meeting. My God, what is wrong with Jeff Redlin? Campus Church took in $3,500,000 in 2020-2021, finishing the fiscal year with $1,200,000 still piled in their bank account. Yet, they are charging members $10 to learn how to more effectively share the Gospel. That is sickening folks!!! Shame on Pastor Jeff Redlin and Campus Church at PCC for their greed and lack of concern about dying souls in Pensacola. Sadly, PCC's Campus Church resembles more of a private cult that it does a New Testament church. Campus Church is really just a chapel for PCC students, which they ought not call a church, because it is not a legitimate church! And Jeff Redlin is not a legitimate pastor, evidenced by his woeful lack of love, compassion and people skills. Mr. Redlin treated me like garbage when I attended his cult in 2021. I wouldn't send my dog to Campus Church with Redlin as their corrupt leader.

PCC doesn't go door-to-door soulwinning. The Bible says in Acts 20:20-21, "And how I kept back nothing that was profitable unto you, but have shewed you, and have taught you publickly, and from house to house, Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ." We call this the believer's "Acts 20/20 Vision." The Bible teaches that God's method of reaching people with the Gospel is primarily to go door-to-door soulwinning. This is how the early church in the book of Acts did it, door-to-door. Dear reader, don't ever let anyone tell you differently

— SOULWINNING BUILDS CHURCHES!!!

Sadly, less than 1 % of churches today go door-to-door soulwinning. If you can find such a church, you are truly blessed. Usually you'll find door-to-door soulwinning in Independent Fundamental Baptist churches which have a Bus Ministry. I felt sick in 2001 when Bob Jones III decided to no longer associate Bob Jones University with the name "Fundamental," because he claimed after the 9/11 attacks on the World Trade Center in New York, he didn't want their college to be associated with Islamic Fundamentalist terrorists. That is so ridiculous! Ladies and gentleman, I am proud to say that I am an Independent Fundamentalist Baptist Christian!!!

I am independent as a believer and a preacher, meaning that I don't follow some denominational headquarters, like the apostate Southern Baptist Convention (SBC), which today has become a cesspool of iniquity with J.D. Greear at the helm as its president. The main idea behind being independent is to avoid going down with the mother ship. I mean, if the mother ship sinks, it will also take all the small ships along with it! So by being truly independent, a preacher and church protect itself from being corrupted if headquarters turns apostate. But also beware of phony independent churches. Many so-called "independent" Baptist churches today are really extensions of cult headquarters at Bob Jones University (BJU). So they are not truly independent, they are following BJU into the abyss of Hell. In case that you don't know, BJU has turned apostate in recent decades, now preaching the Devil's lie of Calvinism (ala, Lordship Salvation). And also, BJU promotes the Devil's false Bibles.

Being a "fundamentalist" simply means that I adhere to the fundamentals of the inspired Word of God. I believe that the King James Bible is both preserved and inspired, ever word (i.e., verbal inspiration). I also believe that all 66 books are inspired by God (i.e., plenary inspiration). Pastor Texe Marrs used to teach that the Old Testament Book of Esther was a fraud, because it made the Jews the heroes at the end. Dr. Marrs was way WRONG!!!

All 66 books of the inspired Holy Bible are legitimate. Contrawise, the Apocrypha (which is found in the Roman Catholic Bible) is uninspired and doesn't belong in God's inspired Word. The original 1611 King James Bible contained the Apocrypha, but the 54 translators didn't think the Apocrypha was inspired, so they left it out of God's Word, but did include in the middle of the 1611 King James Bible, only for the value of its historical information. That is interesting.

And I am a

Baptist

simply because the Baptist faith most closely aligns with what the Holy Bible teaches and practices. But you must realize dear friend that there is no such thing as the "Baptist church," neither in Heaven nor here on earth. There is only "

The Church,

" of which Jesus Christ is the glorious preeminent Head. We are the Body. Colossians 1:18, " And he is the head of the body, the church: who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead; that in all things he might have the preeminence." Jesus is the firstborn from the dead. That means He was the first to ressurected with an immortal perfect body.

But wait, didn't Jesus raise up Lazarus? And didn't the bodies of some of the deceased saints raise up from the dead when Christ died upon the cross? Yes, they did. So how could Jesus be the firstborn from the dead

? The answer is simple. Lazarus and those saints who raised up after Christ died on the cross, all had to die again; but Jesus raised up in His immortal, glorified. perfect body, never to perish again! So Christ is indeed the firstborn from the dead, and we will wonderfully follow in the future (Philippians 3:21).

I am not going to Heaven because I am an Independent Fundamental Baptist. I am only going to Heaven because I have been born-again, by the blessed Holy Spirit of God, in response to my childlike faith in the death on the cross, burial and bodily resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead. I was a guilty sinner, but Jesus is the wonderful Savior, who saved me by His mercy and grace, based solely upon His broken body and shed blood for my sins (1st Peter 1:18-19).

God's method in the Holy Bible is found in Matthew 28:19-20, which is The Great Commission (not The Great Omission, as in most churches today that don't go soulwinning):

> Matthew 28:19-20, "
>
> Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost:
>
> Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Amen.

And again in the Gospel of Mark we read about Jesus' The Great Commission to all believers:

> Mark 16:14-16, "Afterward he appeared unto the eleven as they sat at meat, and upbraided them with their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they believed not them which had seen him after he was risen. And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature.He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned."

The dear risen Savior and Lord commission every born-again saint to become a soulwinner. This is the primary purpose of the local New Testament church, NOT to meet together for worship. I am so sick of reading church websites that advertise: "Come worship with us!" No, I'd like to see a church advertise: "Come preach the Gospel with us!" So few churches today are legitimate Bible-practicing churches. Friend, if the church that you are attending doesn't have any type of organized soulwinning a church family, you are not in a very good church!

A godly pastor will have the attitude that we as believers have a duty and responsibility to share the Gospel, and diligently remind and equip his congregation incessantly to be soulwinners. I feel sorry for the church who doesn't have a soul-hungry pastor! Jesus calls all saved men to become fisher's of men! Soulwinning is not just for the preacher, it is for you and me, and everyone!!!

3.6.2 God Pity The Preacher That The World Doesn't Hate (2022-06-04 11:30)

Ezekiel 33:1-7, "

Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

Son of man, speak to the children of thy people, and say unto them, When I bring the sword upon a land, if the people of the land take a man of their coasts, and set him for their watchman:

If when he seeth the sword come upon the land, he blow the trumpet, and warn the people;

Then whosoever heareth the sound of the trumpet, and taketh not warning; if the sword come, and take him away, his blood shall be upon his own head.

He heard the sound of the trumpet, and took not warning; his blood shall be upon him. But he that taketh warning shall deliver his soul.

But if the watchman see the sword come, and blow not the trumpet, and the people be not warned; if the sword come, and take any person from among them, he is taken away in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at the watchman's hand.

So thou, O son of man, I have set thee a watchman unto the house of Israel; therefore thou shalt hear the word at my mouth, and warn them from me.

I read those verses in Ezekiel and thought about Church Ministries. I guarantee that during any ministry event of today's lifeless neo-evangelical Bible colleges and churches, that they are not engaging sinners with the Gospel. Lost sinners are not being warned they are guilty sinners, headed for an everlasting hot Hell, and that they desperately need a Savior. Those lost sinners need to be warned that they cannot get to Heaven by doing good works, nor by trying to be good to please God.

It is more than likely that the only comment lost sinners will hear is a friendly invitation to come to church with us. As you and I both know, these churches are DEAD and have had their candlestick (their charter from God) removed years ago by the Lord Himself. Revelation 2:5,

"Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do the first works; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will remove thy candlestick out of his place, except thou repent."

It's such a tragedy.

Then when you do have faithful preaching from the likes of pastors' Steven Anderson, Bruce Mejia, Roger Jimenez, Grayson Fritts and Jonathan Shelley, and myself, we are demonized, mocked, ridiculed and spat upon by these "religious come as you are, leave as you came" institutions. It is probably one of the greatest tragedies of our day. It is very very sad. I meet these people that go to these churches. The only saved ones are those saved in Baptist Churches and have rejected separation and joined these fun centers. (To be honest I have more fun winning souls, than they do with their rock music and coffee lounges)

A ministry friend of mine met a lady while out soul winning several weeks ago, doing a salvation follow-up with his pastor. The woman goes to the largest church in Indianapolis. It's Eastern Star Church. (Mostly all Black Church) She said something that shook my friend. Her daughter was contemplating suicide. She desperately needed to speak with her pastor. They literally are so big at the Eastern Star Church, that you have to take a number to see their pastor. So the worried mother had to wait several weeks to even talk with her pastor about her daughter being suicidal. This is so sad!!! Thankfully her daughter did not commit suicide and their family will be attending a different church this week. So hopefully the woman's daughter and husband will get saved.

As a Bible preacher I have a duty to WARN people about coming judgment in Hell, fire and brimstone. I have a duty to WARN people about falsehoods like the Devil's Lordship Salvation, Wrong Repentance and Baptismal Regeneration. Today's pastor and churches are pathetic. The main reason is that they are being trained by pathetic dead Bible colleges like Pensacola Christian College, and Satanic cesspools of iniquity like Faith Baptist Bible College and Theological Seminary and Bob Jones University (which are both hardcore Calvinist institutions of the Devil). I am warning everyone about these wicked organizations!!!

The blood of the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam is upon Marty Herron's wicked hands, not mind. Since 2014 to present, I have faithfully preached against their ungodly cult for promoting the Satanic lie of Calvinism (i.e., Lordship Salvation), Misunderstood Repentance and Devil's bibles. Calvinism has steadily been on the rise in America for the past 75 years, sadly. Calvinism is NOT the free grace Gospel taught in the Bible (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). The Devil's lies of Calvinism (i.e., the heresies of John Calvin, 1509-1564), perversely turns salvation into a lifelong process based upon self-righteous works, rather than an instantaneous miraculous new birth by faith alone in Jesus Christ, as God intended (John 3:3-7). Calvinism is of the Devil.

Why is Calvinism on the rise? It because in our shifting American culture we have drifted from the fear of God to pride, materialism and humanism. Instead of focusing solely upon Christ and His sacrifice on the cross to purchase our redemption because of our sins, corrupt church pastors today are focusing upon sinners themselves, demanding that lost people first be willing to keep the law of God (aka, turn from your sins) to prove their sincerity in the matter of salvation to get to Heaven. The latter is another gospel, a counterfeit and false plan of salvation. The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU.

I love our text passage from Ezekiel 33:1-7, because it vindicates fundamental Bible preachers like me who faithfully expose false doctrines, false teachers, false gospels and false bibles. [1]There is no institution as dangerous today as Bob Jones University, which today is a cesspool of Calvinism and Satanic Bible perversions!!! They have been warned, but they will not repent of their wickedness. Mark my words dear reader, my Bible preaching WILL BE vindicated in eternity. Romans 3:4, "God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged. "

By God's grace, humbly said, I am preaching the same Gospel as the Apostle Paul preached in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4; namely, Christ's death on the cross, burial and bodily resurrection the third day. There is nothing in Paul's Gospel (which he received directly from Jesus Christ Himself - Galatians 1:12) about repenting of your sins.

" Yes, repentance is necessary for salvation, but Bible repentance regarding getting saved is simply "

a change of mind,

nothing less or more. Repentance is simply a change of mind from unbelief to belief. We know this simply because the ONLY thing that can keep a man out of Heaven is the sin of unbelief.

Preachers have been arguing and debating the matter of repentance for thousands of years, because there is always an ongoing battle between unsaved religious people and the light of the truth of the Gospel.

3.6.3 The Foolishness Of Turning From Sin To Be Saved (2022-06-04 15:49)

Psalms 130:3, “

If thou, LORD, shouldest mark iniquities, O Lord, who shall stand?

In nearly every church that we attend today, we hear the Devil’s poisonous lie that in order to get to Heaven, you must repent “of your sins,” which is nowhere taught in the inspired King James Bible.

In nearly every church today, and the apostate Bible colleges that mistrain today’s theologically perverse pastors, you will hear the Devil’s lie that to be saved you must turn away from your sins to be saved.

Yet, there is no such teaching found in the inspired King James Bible. I intentionally mention the King James Bible, because many of the [1]Devil’s modern Bible versions corrupt the Scripture, adding words that God did not add (Proverbs 30:5-6). Please don’t use any Bible other than the inspired King James Bible. It will require that you study to understand it, but you will be getting THE TRUTH.

The obvious truth is that NO ONE has ever turned away from a lifestyle of sinning. Even the best of Christians still sin many times a day. In fact, we sin every second of the day. We are in a continual state of being a sinner! You are woefully in error if you think that you appear righteous in God's eyes when you are not engaged in doing something sinful. We were born in sin! Psalms 51:5, " Behold, I was shapen in iniquity; and in sin did my mother conceive me. "

NO ONE has ever turned from their sins. James 2:10, "For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all." It is a Satanic idea that anyone could ever please God by forsaking a sinful lifestyle as a requirement to receive His free gift of eternal life. The only requirement of God for a human being to be saved is to realize that you are a guilty sinner in need of a Savior. Thus realizing your need you put your trust in Jesus Christ to be born-again. Philippians 3:9, "And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith: "

Fools like pastors' Marty Herron, Chuck Phelps, Steve Pettit, Gary Walton and John MacArthur, are sending people to Hell with their demonic false plan of salvation. You cannot get to Heaven by partial faith in Christ PLUS keeping the law. As we just clearly read in Philippians 3:9, we are NOT saved by our own righteousness, WHICH IS OF THE LAW. Those deadly preachers today who falsely teach that you must "turn away from your sinful ways" to receive God's free gift of eternal life, are LIARS!!!

To the carnal man who is not a child of God, it seems reasonable that to get to Heaven you must first give up your desire to wilfully commit sin, and forsake a life of sinning. That does seem reasonable from a human point of view. What saith the Scripture? Proverbs 3:5, "

Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. " These foolish neo-evangelical pastors today in the shameful Bob Jones University camp, Southern Baptist Convention, Faith Bible College And Theological Seminary and umpteen more corrupt organizations, are leaning upon their own understanding, not trusting the Lord.

The FACT of the matter is that nowhere does the Bible teach you must try to stop sinning to be saved. The very idea is offensive to the precious blood that Jesus shed on the cross to pay for our sins! JESUS PAID IT ALL!!! Listen dear friend, God's gift of salvation is NOT a reward or exchange of some sort, where you are required to give something in return to Christ for His payment for your sins. Jesus shed His blood and died on the cross to purchase our redemption, because you and I were guilty sinners under the curse of the Old Testament law. Galatians 3:10, "For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse: for it is written, Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them."

We were all cursed from birth because of our sinful nature. When you get saved, by faith alone in Jesus Christ, then you are no longer under the curse of the law, you are now and forever under God's saving grace. Romans 5:20, "Moreover the law entered, that the offence might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound:

" A believer cannot fall from grace. As God's children, we can only fall IN GRACE, but never FROM GRACE! Only the unsaved person has fallen from God's saving grace (Galatians 5:4), which is what has happened to Marty Herron, Steve Pettit and Gary Walton —they have all fallen from God's grace, unable to go to Heaven as long as they think that a person must keep the law (i.e., turn from your sins) to be saved.

Christ made full payment for our sins on the cross, so that we wouldn't have to pay for our sins in Hell. The very idea that we must commit to stop sinning, or even be willing to try to stop sinning, to get to Heaven is works for salvation. Many preachers have a problem understanding this. They cannot grasp how someone can get saved and still desire to keep sinning, but that is exactly what we all do. There is no sinless Christian! Only Jesus is without sin.

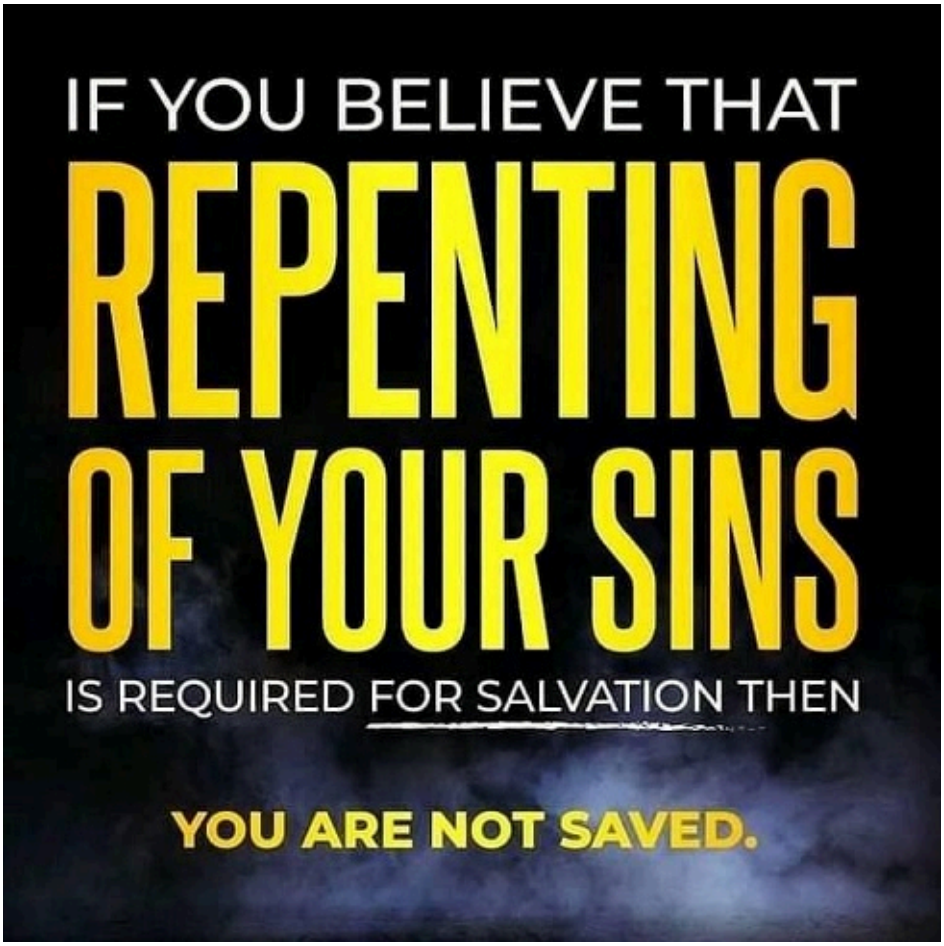
THE TRUTH is that when a lost sinner comes to Christ by faith alone to be saved, God seals and indwells that new child of His with the blessed Holy Spirit. Only then does God's Holy Spirit (John 16:13) begin to sanctify a believer with the Word of God (John 17:17), but it takes time, a lifetime in fact. This is growing in the grace and knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ (2nd Peter 3:18). But this does not guarantee that a child of God will depart from a lifestyle of sinning. There are many variables; such as, one's upbringing, type of spouse, good or bad friends, personal moral character, criminal history, et cetera. Some people change right away and it is obvious to everyone that something is different, but for many others there is no visible change. They do have the Holy Spirit, they are saved, but they are mild mannered and quiet.

So please don't make the same damnable error friend, of sinfully thinking that a person must turn from sinful behavior to get to Heaven, because that feat is IMPOSSIBLE. Salvation is solely of the Lord (Jonah 2:9).

Salvation is not a reward for the righteous; it is a gift for the guilty!



Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

Turning away from sinful ways would be a work. Faith puts all of the merit where it belongs, on the object of our faith, Jesus and His work.

If to "repent" means to forsake our sinful ways TO BE SAVED, but Jesus already paid for our sins by dying on the cross, then what are we repenting from?

The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU.

We must stay true to the simplicity of the gospel!! Repentance regarding salvation is a change of mind from unbelief to belief!!! We must earnestly contend for the faith (Jude 1:3).

3.6.4 That 18 Year Old Boy Didn't Kill 19 Students, Society Did (2022-06-05 14:11)

Proverbs 22:6, "

Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it.

In May of 2022 a young 18 year old boy in Uvalde, Texas entered into a public school classroom with a rifle and murdered 19 students, 2 teachers, and earlier his own grandmother. Police killed the assailant. What a horrific tragedy, 23 dead people!!!

The first thing that liberals, communists and wacky leftists said was that the government must confiscate all the guns from American society. Good luck with that! Dear reader, when Cain killed Abel with a rock, God did not confiscate all the rocks! God blamed Cain. Although Cain himself could not blame his mother, the truth of the matter is that Cain never would have killed Abel had his mother never eaten the forbidden fruit, which promoted Adam to also disobey God, and the human race plundered into sin (Romans 5:12). Our actions always affects others, whether in an obvious way or an unseen subtle way. Sin always begets more sin!

This 18 year old young man (who was really still just a boy) is without a doubt responsible for his actions. God will judge him for his crimes. But dear reader, we as a society are much more to blame for this type of horrific behavior in our kids. Since 1963 the inspired Holy Bible has been removed, banned and ridiculed in the public school system. Our ungodly high courts are filled with heathen reprobates who do not love God. They are bankrupt of morality and faith in God. So we cannot expect reasonable judgments from them:

> Romans 1:28-32, “And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not convenient; Being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, debate, deceit, malignity; whisperers, Backbiters, haters of God, despiteful, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents, Without understanding, covenantbreakers, without natural affection, implacable, unmerciful: Who knowing the judgment of God, that they which commit such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but have pleasure in them that do them.”

Mankind is sinful, evil and corrupt the Bible says. So what do our nation’s foolish leaders do? They remove the Good Book from children’s daily curriculum at school. Without the Bible, children grow up having no moral compass. Less than 5 % of children have strong religious foundations at home, so they are adversely affected by the atheist, humanist and communist influences in the rotten Satanic public school (fool) system in the United States. Can we really act surprised when some of these kids snap? It is a sad fact that 42,000 people commit suicide each year in the United States, [1]and 5,100 of them are teenagers!

Children and teens are impressionable. [2]Look at the type of demonic filth that kids today are being exposed to. Taylor Swift is an evil woman and belongs in prison for making her “Wildest Dreams” video on YouTube, which is filled with indecency. In her vile video “WILDEST DREAMS” (clearly sexual in nature), Miss Swift is laying seductively upon a bed, wearing a negligee, which puts adulterous thoughts in the heart of the viewer. [3]This screen-capture is Taylor Swift from her video, “WILDEST DREAMS.” As you can see, she is holding what appears to be an object in her private area, and also appears to be making some type of occultic hand-sign with her left hand. This is the sick minds of Satanists today!!! Is this the type of video entertainment that young teens should be subjected to? Where are the angry Moms and Dads. Why am I the only one, it seems, who is upset about this wickedness?

Children in public schools are herded as cattle, indoctrinated with the blatant lies of evolution, taught that all life originated from a Big Bang 12,000,000,000 years ago (none of which can be proven). Yet these ungodly theories are accepted and taught as if they were a FACT, but in reality they are a FICTION. Those poor brainwashed children. It is not hard to imagine such a child, growing up in such an uncaring Godless environment, becoming a ticking timebomb in society. An educated child without God is a fool. Proverbs 1:29, “

For that they hated knowledge, and did not choose the fear of the LORD:

” Proverbs 1:7, “ The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge: but fools despise wisdom and instruction.

Young people today are surrounded by the Devil’s music, evil sensual and violent TV shows, influential books about witchcraft, gender-bending insanity, liberal retarded critical race theory, homosexual perversion and a host of other horrible things that rot the human soul. When I was growing up, for video games we had Asteroids, Pac-Man and Donkey Kong. But now games are all about murdering other humans. Kids today are meaner than ever, raised by worldly parents with bad attitudes, no love, no compassion and God is not found in their lives. So what can we really expect from their children? Of course they are hurt, scared and angry at the world. We have done this to ourselves, by stripping God’s Word away from their lives, and replacing it with LGBTQ garbage that corrupts the soul and brings the judgment of God.

That boy in Texas had spiritual needs. He was broken, not bad. He needed a loving Sunday School teacher and a caring home. I wonder where his parents were? The other children bullied him for his stuttering disability. They boy has previously come to school, putting on women’s mascara on his eyelids. Is that surprising in this sick gender-bending culture today, where good is called evil and evil is called good? Isaiah 5:20, “ Woe unto them that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter! ”

Big Tech is also primarily to blame, for censoring Bible preaching by faithful pastors who cry aloud against the Satanic homosexual movement. Lesbianism is a wicked sin. Some of the most violent crimes have been committed by homosexuals. They are devoid, morally bankrupt, of God and morals integrity. Was the Holy Bible really doing that much damage to children. We’ve allowed less than 1 % of hateful atheists to rob our children of the knowledge of God.

Our pathetic churches today are corrupt, mere social clubs and fun centers today. The Gospel is no longer preached in over 95 % of so-called fake churches. Instead, they preach another gospel which demands that you follow Jesus is your supreme “ and that you turn away from your sinful behavior, and that you faithfully live the Christian life from now on to prove that your faith is real. This is a counterfeit plan of salvation which does NOT produce the new birth in Christ. This is the demonic garbage preached by the Bob Jones University crowd today. This is the Satanic trash that evildoer Marty Herron preaches at the corrupt Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary in Ankeny, Iowa. Marty is an unsaved devil!

Lord,

Big Tech continues to censor my preaching on Google, but in eternity they will regret what they have done, damning millions of souls to Hell with themselves!!! YouTube has banned Pastor Steven Anderson for preaching the truth against the demented LGBTQ crowd, but judgment day is coming. Everyone must eventually die, and THEN THE JUDGMENT (Hebrews 9:27). The victory for the LGBTQ community will be VERY SHORT lived.

Job 20:5, " That the triumphing of the wicked is short, and the joy of the hypocrite but for a moment?"

I thank God that I am a saved man. God knows who is really saved, and who the liars are who just pretend to be saved. I know I am 100 % saved, because my sole hope and trust is in Jesus Christ and HIS RIGHTEOUSNESS, which is by faith alone (Philippians 3:9).

What that 18 year old boy did was terrible, but WE AS A SOCIETY are mostly to blame, because we have allowed our rotten corrupt government to rid our children's daily lives at school of God. All across the country city councils are afraid to go against the LGBTQ agenda, lest [4]the thug newsmedia and hordes of Hell come after them. Only one viewpoint is allowed today, the pro-homosexual view. IT IS WICKEDNESS!!! Hell no, I won't go along with it!!!

Sadly, we as Americans have trained up a generation of infidels, rebels, Christ haters, punks, thieves, perverts and revolutionaries.

Proverbs 22:6, "

Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it. " That 18 year old boy in Texas had a broken mind! WE BROKE IT!!! All the violence on television. All the indecency on TV. When I was growing up, it was not easy to see naked women. Back then boys, teens and men glanced through their mother's or wife's lingerie catalogs from Sears and JC Penny to see girls and women posing in their underwear. That was big stuff for males back then, because there wasn't easy access to nakedness like there is today. In these modern times, the filth COMES TO YOU! There was no internet or mobile phones when I was a teenager in the 1980's. So we've deteriorated woefully since then even more as a society of sinners.

If Charles Darwin was correct in his evolutionary theories, that all life evolved from a lower form into a higher order, then why is the human race becoming worse ever year? We're not improving folks! History keeps repeating itself in each generation. I contend that the God who created the universe and all therein is real, and He is a very good and fair God, and the King James Bible is His inspired and true Word to mankind. I also contend that evolution is a blatant fraud, concocted by the Devil's crowd to rid children's minds of our good God.
Romans 1:28,

And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not convenient;

Yes, that 18 year old young man in Texas who was killed by police is guilty, but we compelled him to do the evil deeds that he committed. [5]By the time the average American child reaches age 18 , they have watched 16,000 simulated murders on televisions, and seen over 200,000 acts of violence. Gee, I wonder where the boy in Texas got the idea to shoot up a school? Hollywood never takes any responsibility. It is this simple folks...

GARBAGE IN = GARBAGE OUT!

3.6.5 God Is Not The Author Of Confusion (2022-06-06 17:24)

Acts 19:32, "Some therefore cried one thing, and some another: for the assembly was confused; and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together." 1st Corinthians 14:33, "

For God is not the author of confusion*, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints.

I love the directness, simplicity and practicality of the inspired Holy Bible. God authored a masterpiece of divine literature! If men could write the Bible they wouldn't, and if they would they couldn't. I am 100 % convinced that the King James Bible is God's preserved and inspired words. I cringe every time I hear a preacher say that only the original ancient autographs of the Word of God were inspired, and that at best all we have today is a preserved but imperfect, flawed and corrupt Bible. Dear reader, does that sound like the way God does things? No, it does not.

Words matter to architects. Words matter to engineers. Words matter to attorneys. Words matter to judges and juries. Words matter in all legal contracts. Words matter to writers. Words matter to businessmen. Words matter to educators. Words matter to men of every profession, except the clergy. Today's wicked preachers would have us to believe that words don't matter to God. They would have us to believe that God is okay with hundreds of English Bible versions to choose from. Only a darn fool would believe that words are not important to God.

The same can be said of God's simple plan of salvation. That is, the Gospel. The Apostle Paul defines the Gospel (which he received directly from Jesus Christ - Galatians 1:12). Paul defines the Gospel in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4 as Jesus' death on the cross for our sins, His burial and bodily resurrection three days later. Nothing more is mentioned, so nothing more can be required to be saved. Again in Acts 16:30-31 we read these words, " And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, *Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house." If more were required to be saved, then Paul and Silas would have said so to this curious Roman jailer.

Sadly, 45,000 churches preach another gospel who are members of the doctrinally corrupt Calvinist Southern Baptist Convention (SBC). Bob Jones University has become a demonic cesspool of iniquity, a stronghold of Calvinist heresy these days. I could name hundreds of Calvinist institutions today (e.g., Moody Bible Institute, Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary, Liberty University, Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary), as well as thousands of infidel Calvinist preachers, all damned to the Lake of Fire in their counterfeit gospel. Calvinism is NOT the Gospel of free grace! Calvinism turns the new birth into a lifelong process, in which you are required to live a lifestyle of repentance to get to Heaven.

There is so much utter confusion in the churches today. For example: [1]Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) teaches that to get to Heaven you don't have to give up even one sin, you simply BELIEVE on the Good News of Jesus Christ. Yet, [2]Pastor John MacArthur teaches that you must forsake all your sins

, surrender all to Christ as

Lord

of your life and follow Christ to get to Heaven. Then we have corrupt preachers like [3]Kevin Bauder who teaches that both of these extremes still fall within the realm of orthodox theology. No, they do not!

Dear reader, do you really think that Curtis Hutson and John MacArthur are both saved, when they preach two very different plans of salvation? Common sense tells us that both men may be wrong, one may be wrong, but both cannot be correct! I mean, you either must turn away from your sinful behavior to be saved, or you do not, but it cannot be both! The Gospel that Curtis Hutson preaches is in full agreement with the inspired King James Bible. But what John MacArthur preaches doesn't agree with the Word of God. Romans 3:4,

"God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged."

The problem with neo-evangelicals is that they don't take anything seriously, other than their paycheck!

"Neo" means "new." They are new-evangelicals. Instead of singing the old hymns of the Christian faith, they have replaced them with today's worldly 7-11 music (7 words repeated 11 times). Today's Contemporary Christian Music (CCM) is lifeless and barren of Bible doctrine. CCM seeks to arouse an emotional response from the audience with the music itself, instead of inspiring heartfelt conviction from the doctrinal words and melody. New-evangelicals have replaced the old-fashioned religion with entertainment. They have replaced Bible preaching with motivational speeches and lifeless sermonettes. There is no power of the Holy Spirit in new-evangelical churches today, which are not genuine Bible churches. They are mere social clubs and fun centers, aimed at raising money to support crooked preachers, whose god is their belly (Romans 16:17-18).

God is not the author of confusion. Nowhere in the inspired King James Bible are we taught to turn away from our sins to be saved. Ungodly lying men added that extra requirement to

God's simple plan of salvation. I triple-dog dare you to SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES (John 5:39a), and look through the Gospel of John (which according to John 20:31 is God's Gospel tract), and I challenge you to show me any place that says to "repent of your sins" to get to Heaven.

Read what Jesus Himself say in John 6:28-29, " Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, *This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent." These man asked Jesus how to be saved. Jesus told them simply to BELIEVE ON HIM. The dear Savior didn't tell them to turn away from living in sin, did He. The dear Savior didn't tell them to surrender all, follow Him as

Lord,

nor anything else. Christ simply told them to BELIEVE ON HIM.

We've got a bunch of confused preachers today who don't know what they are doing.

1st Timothy 1:7, " Desiring to be teachers of the law; understanding neither what they say, nor whereof they affirm." A sad name comes to mine. Pastor Marty Herron, who ruined the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam with his Calvinist bullcrap, is a child of the Devil. I personally befriended Pastor Herron between 2014 to 2018 with THE TRUTH of the Gospel, true Bible repentance and I showed him how corrupt the modern Devil's bibles are (which he uses, sells and promotes). In response, Pastor Herron threw me under the bus and forced me out of church, banning me from returning ever again. Hell will be hot enough for Marty Herron and his wicked successor, Gary Walton (rotten to the core false prophets whose god is their belly).

For telling THE TRUTH I was ostracized, shunned, demonized and kicked out of my church family. What do you think that God is going to do to those wicked men? It is similar to the parable which Jesus told of the master who sent his son, to check up on his vineyards, but those wicked servants killed the master's son. The Bible says the father of that slain son will kill those wicked servants. I realize that the parable is about Jesus, whom God sent to the Jews to save them from their sins, but they killed God's only begotten Son. Albeit, the parable still applies to any child of God who is persecuted for their faith. Matthew 18:6, " But whoso shall offend one of these little ones which believe in me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea. "

And again in Matthew 25:40 we read Jesus' warning, "And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me. " When Marty Herron rejected THE TRUTH that I befriended him with, and he threw me under the bus, he did that to Jesus Christ also. I wouldn't want to be in Marty Herron's shoes on judgment day, when he faces God. Pastor Herron preaches a false gospel of partial faith in Christ plus, he says, you must forsake a lifestyle of sinning. That is keeping the Old Testament Mosaic law, not faith alone in Christ!!!

The Bible warns that no one has ever been saved by keeping the works of the law (Romans 3:19-20). Sadly, when I have gentlemanly confronted the Bob Jones University camp (of which Marty Herron is a graduate), they smirk, laugh and scoff at me and THE TRUTH in their haughty pride and wicked arrogance. They are fools. They just don't care! You cannot teach them anything because they are deceived by the Devil. Proverbs 26:12, " Seest thou a man wise in his own conceit? there is more hope of a fool than of him.

I was saddened at the death on actor [4]Bill Paxton (1955-2017). He was only 61 years old. Bill died from a stroke after surgery, because the incompetent staff at Cedars-Sinai Hospital in Los Angeles killed him. [5]I underwent neck surgery there in 2009 and was horrible abused by the staff, security and doctors. What a hellhole! RUN from Cedars' Sinai. Poor Bill Paxton! They killed him in 2017, like they almost killed me at Cedars-Sinai Hospital in 2009. SHAME!!!

I digress. Back to topic, God is not the author of confusion, the Devil and mankind is! God is not the one responsible for all these hundreds of English Bibles today. God is not the one responsible for having dozens of different plans of salvation circulating in the churches today. The Devil and his children are confused! The Devil and his children create confusion. All this gender-bending insanity in American culture today is of the Devil, not from our good God and omnipotent Creator. America's rotten feminist society today is of the Devil. This is confusion.

Women being in charge is confusion. Children running the home is confusion. A woman pastor is confusion. A woman leading the home is confusion. Women running companies is confusion. Having a woman U.S. President is coming soon, and it will be as confusing as it will be an abomination in the sight of God almighty. Isaiah 3:12, "As for my people, children are their oppressors, and women rule over them. O my people, they which lead thee cause thee to err, and destroy the way of thy paths."

The entire LGBTQ community is confusion. God created male and female. Males and females mate, not two males (it is confusion). Homosexuality is a sin and it is against nature, abnormal and something utterly shameful. No matter how much sodomites gain their freedom to sin in liberal places in the world, decent people in conservative places will always reject, despise and shun the LGBTQ crowd, because it is sickening and sinful. It is confusion. I do not hate anybody, and that includes homosexuals, but I hate their evil (Psalms 97:10).

Calvinism has been on the rise in America for the past couple decades, destroying the churches and leading millions of deceived people into the fires and damnation of everlasting Hell. The only way to be saved is through faith alone in Jesus Christ (John 14:6), which does NOT require that you persevere in holy living and turning from your sins, living a changed life to prove that your faith in real. That is a false plan of salvation straight from the Devil (Acts 15:1, 24; 2nd Corinthians 4:3-4; Galatians 1:6-9; 3:1-3; 5:4; 6:7).

The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU.

I am not confused dear reader. I use ONLY the inspired King James Bible. I believe ONLY the Gospel of free grace (Christ's crucifixtion on the cross, burial and bodily resurrection the third day). This is the Gospel according to 1st Corinthians 15:1-4. I have the Holy Bible on my side. All these lying clergy today who preach Lordship Salvation cannot backup their lies with the Scripture!!! All they can do is wrest the Scripture, and quote other preachers as a secondary authority. Let God be true, but every man a liar!!!

So, you don't have to be confused my friend. We have THE TRUTH! Today's wacky society is confused about gender, but we know from the Bible that God created humans male and female. Genesis 1:27, " So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them."

And in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4 we have a clear definition of "

the Gospel,

which all men, women and children must BELIEVE to be saved:

> 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:"

There is no confusion on God's simple plan of salvation.

And we know that there can ONLY be one true Bible in any particular language. Matthew t:4:4, "

But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.

If We are to live by EVERY WORD from God's mouth, then we need an EVERY WORD BIBLE!!! I believe I have that blessed Holy Book in my hand, the beloved inspired King James Bible.

Don't tell me that our omniscient, omnipresent and omnipotent God was too incapable of keeping His promise in Psalms 12:6-7 to preserve His inspired PURE WORDS unto every generation! [6]Look what these wicked modern Bible translators have done to remove God's promise from Psalms 12:6-7. EVILDOERS!!! ONLY the King James Bible still honors the Lord Jesus Christ as almighty God, by showing that people worshipped Him. [7]All of the modern perversions change “worship” to “bowed” or “ [8] knelt.

But you can kneel to propose to your fiancée

, or bow before a king in honor, yet that is not worship!!! I could give you a hundred more reasons why I am convinced that the only inspired Words of God today are in the King James Bible. All of the modern English Bible revisions are utterly corrupt and deadly.

3.6.6 Salvation Is A Legal Matter Of Justification (2022-06-06 21:27)

Romans 3:28, “

Therefore we conclude that a man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law.

When a man and woman get married, it is a legal matter, just like getting saved is a legal matter of justification. Now, the husband and wife ought to behave themselves, to be responsible. They should be faithful to one another. They should help and be good to each other, which proves that they love one another. This is proper and right in the sight of God.

But if they DON’T do all these things, and they are mean, abusive and horrible toward each other, or cheat on each other in adultery, does that prove that they were never married? No, of course it doesn’t mean that. They are still married because it was legally settled the day they choose each other, just like you choose Jesus on the day you got saved. That is why married couples have to go to a court of law to get a divorce, because it is a LEGAL MATTER.

So if you go out and live in gross immorality, and do not faithfully run the race for Christ, and you waste your life in riotous living, crime and wickedness, YOU ARE STILL SAVED (because it was legally settled the very moment that God justified you by faith in His only begotten Son).

Romans 3:28, “

Therefore we conclude that a man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law.

” This means you DON’T have to stop committing any sin to be saved. The deeds of the law are keeping God’s commandments, which means not to commit sin.

All of these horrible neo-evangelical false prophets today (corrupt clergy,), who insist that lost sinners must forsake their desire to sin, and clean up their life of sin, or else God won’t save them, are LIARS! So, no, you don’t have to repent

“of your sins” to get to Heaven. Bible repentance is the Greek word metanoia (a noun which means, a change of mind). Of what must you change your mind? That is simple, whatever it is that has been hindering you from coming to the light of THE TRUTH of the Gospel to be saved (John 3:21; 2nd Timothy 2:25).

Getting saved is a matter of you humbly acknowledging THE TRUTH that you are a guilty sinner in the sight of a holy God (Romans 3:19-20), and placing your trust in THE TRUTH of the Good News (Gospel) that Jesus is the Christ who died on the cross to pay for your sins, He was buried and three days later Christ resurrected bodily from the dead. Those three things comprise the Gospel: Jesus' crucifixtion, burial and physical resurrection. BELIEVE IT oh sinner and you are forever redeemed, saved, born-again and a child of God.

Why are their so many false gospels today? The answer is sinful pride. Arrogant and pompous neo-evangelicals corrupt the Word of God (literally with their hundreds of perversions of God's Word); and then to add insult to injury they wrestle the Scripture, leaning upon their own flawed proud human understanding, requiring that men forsake their sinful behavior (keep the law) to get to Heaven, which is NOT God's simple plan of salvation through faith alone in Jesus Christ. Forsaking lifelong sinful bad habits is anything but easy or simple to do!

Pilgrim's Progress author John Bunyan said it best:

I love that quote! We must keep the legal matter of justification separate from the family matter of sanctification. Once we get saved we are a member of God's family. Ephesians 3:14-15, "For this cause I bow my knees unto the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, Of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named," Amen! The family of God is named after Jesus. We are CHRISTians! So sanctification is a matter of our heavenly Father helping us to grow in the grace and knowledge of His Son (2nd Peter 3:18). The Bible says that we are sanctified with THE TRUTH, by the inspired WORD OF GOD. John 17:17, "Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth.

Evangelist John Bunyan understood well the importance of keeping justification (salvation) completely separate from sanctification (growth in grace). I also love this helpful quote from Pastor M.R. DeHaan (1891-1965):

> "There is a vast difference between coming to Jesus for salvation and coming after Jesus for service. Coming to Christ makes one a believer, while coming after Christ makes one a disciple. All believers are not disciples. To become a believer one accepts the invitation of the Gospel, to be a disciple one obeys the challenge to a life of dedicated service and separation. Salvation comes through the sacrifice of Christ; discipleship comes only by sacrifice of self and surrender to His call for devoted service. Salvation is free, but discipleship involves paying the price of a separated walk. Salvation can't be lost because it depends upon God's faithfulness, but discipleship can be lost because it depends upon our faithfulness." —Pastor M.R. DeHaan, Hebrews; Zondervan Publishing House, 1959 (p. 117)

Dear reader, if you will always put a difference between salvation and service, between sonship and discipleship, between justification and sanctification, then you will never be led astray by the Devil concerning God's wonderful and simple plan of salvation, which is by faith alone in the Good News of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen the third day.

3.6.7 God Wants To Talk With You (2022-06-07 00:30)

James 4:7-10, "

Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you*. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts, ye double minded.

Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to heaviness.

Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you up.

Could you imagine if one of your favorite celebrities called you on the phone and wanted to talk with you? What if Silvester Stallone, Michael Jordan, Taylor Swift, George Clooney or Madonna called you at home and wanted to talk with you on the phone? You'd probably be ecstatically overjoyed and shocked. Yet the God of this universe, your Savior and Creator, wants to talk to you dear friend. James 4:8a, "

Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you..

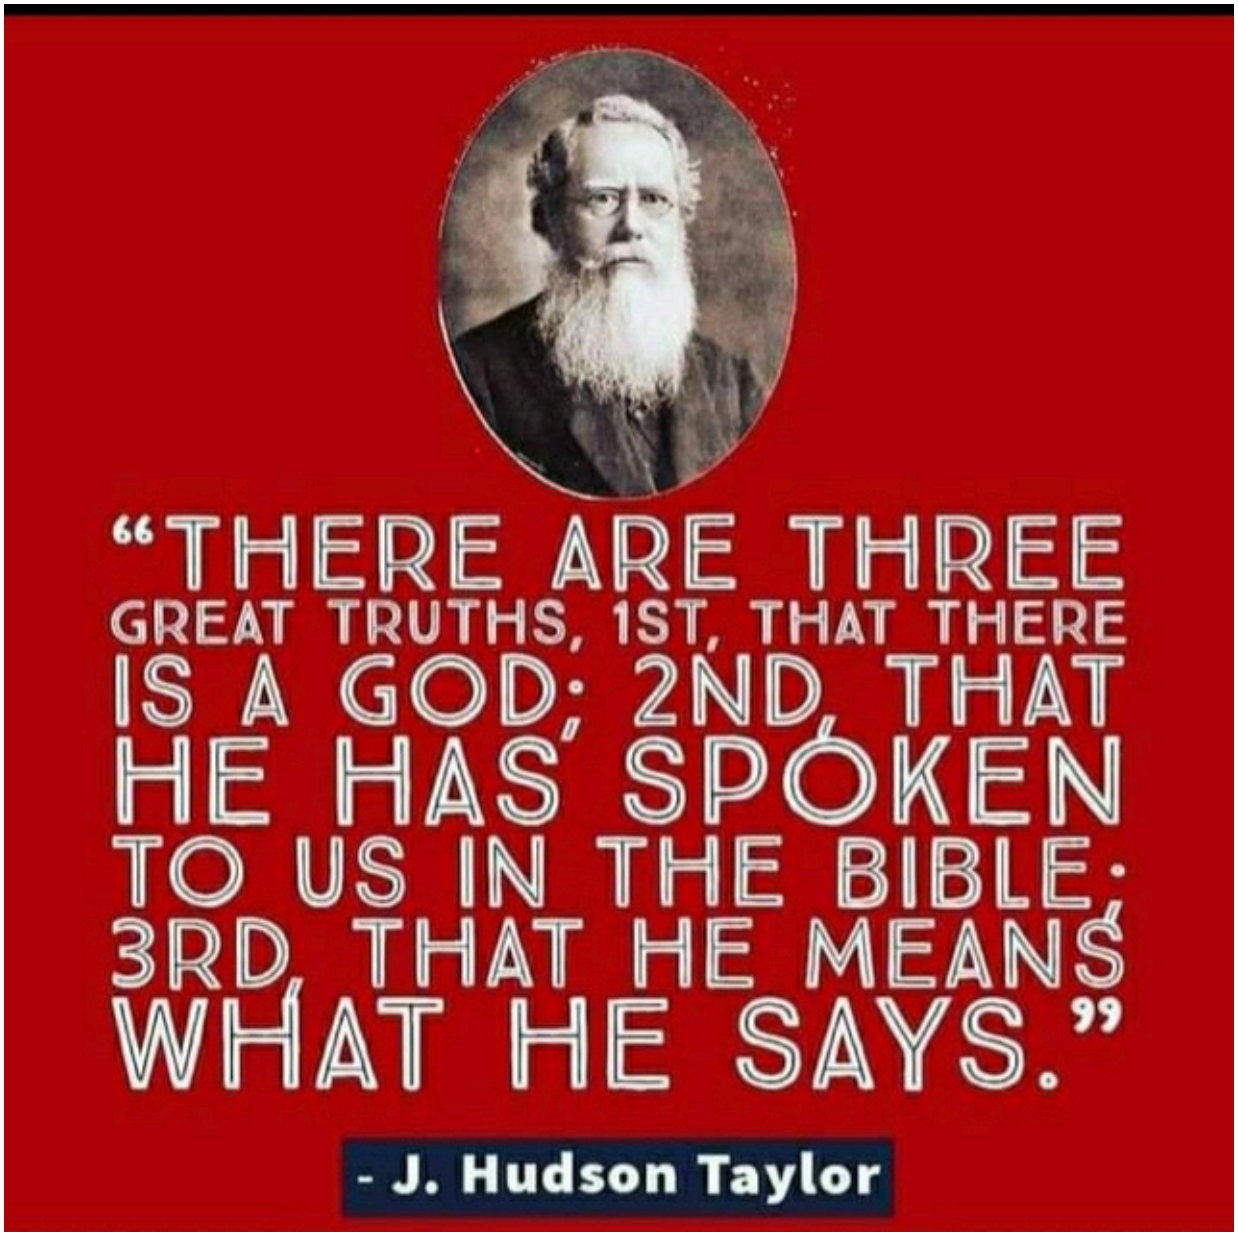
Oh, how horrible we all are to God, spending so little time fellowshipping with Him in Bible reading and prayer. Dear friend, if you want to hear God speak audibly, then just read the inspired Holy Bible out loud! And make sure that you only use the King James Bible, because all of the modern revisions are corrupt. Don't listen to these debaters and fools who allege that the King James Bible is full of errors. No, the only errors are in their brain! Only the King James Bible still says that people worshipped Jesus. [1]Here's a comparison to prove what I say.

God authored the Holy Bible to speak to us, and He also gave us His indwelling Holy Spirit (who is God with us). Literally, God lives inside every believer in the form of the blessed Holy Spirit. John 14:23, " Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him." ONLY a born-again child of God has the Holy Spirit in them. 1st John 3:24,

"And he that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us.

" Amen!

Dear reader, I encourage you to set aside some time each day to read the Bible. When you come across something that you don't understanding, don't just skip over it. [2]Study that passage and pray for God's Holy Spirit to teach it to you. I do that all the time. What saith the Scripture? John 16:13, "Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will shew you things to come." The indwelling Holy Spirit is our teaching. When unsaved people attempt to understand the Scripture, without the presence of the divine Author (the Holy Spirit), that is how every pseudo-Christian cult is started!!!



God wants to talk with you. He wants to hear about your burdens, problems and painful feelings. This is not prayer. Prayer is asking God for something (Philippians 4:6-7). Since I have lived alone for the past 16 years, I spend a lot of time just talking to God. He is my Father in Heaven. Jesus is His only begotten Son, who died for my sins. Of course, we know that there is one God (Deuteronomy 6:4). So to whom should we pray? We pray to the Father, through the name of the Son, in the power of the Holy Spirit. To be honest, I talk to all of them, knowing that they are all members of the Godhead. It might not make sense, but it is 100 % Biblical. Man is created in God's image. We are also a three-fold being (spirit, soul and body).

I encourage you to take whatever is eating at your soul friend, and just TELL IT TO JESUS! You can talk to God just as you would to your best friend, and hopefully God is your best friend, as He has been mine for so many years. There is no friend like the lowly Jesus, no not one! If we're not careful, this sinful world will have us all turned around, twisted and confused. I often quote Hebrews 12:2 to people, "Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God." Don't focus on people because they will let you down again and again, especially today's uncaring selfish pastors.

God desires to fellowship with you friend, for you are the Lord's creation, created in His very image. I don't ever want my relationship with God to become a formal one, so that I cannot feel at home with God. That is why I don't like and try to avoid group praying in public, because everybody is praying in self-awareness that others are listening to our words. To me that makes it hard to pray, because my life of prayer is personal with God.

We've got far too many new-evangelical dead churches today, who have men meeting together to pray, but there is no scheduled time to go door-to-door soulwinning in the community. That is sad. Such was the sad case at the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam while Marty Herron was their senior pastor for 20 years (1999-2018). The men met every Saturday morning to eat bacon and eggs, and pray together, but no one ever bothered to schedule a time for the church to go soulwinning. No wonder Harvest is dead today, preaching a false gospel of Calvinist Lordship Salvation, and promoting Satan's corruptible seed (the perverse modern revisions). We need a revival of getting back to soulwinning in America!

When Peter and John walked with Jesus, they became bold and empowered to speak THE TRUTH. Acts 4:13, "Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus." If you'll walk with God dear reader, you too will be emboldened for Christ to speak the truth of the Gospel. All these neo-evangelical wimps for pastors today couldn't preach their way out of a wet paper bag. We need men of God once more today—who prioritize truth over tradition, evangelism over entertainment, souls over salaries and people over popularity. Today's churches are pathetic!

John 3:3, “

Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.

One of my favorite movie actors is Bill Paxton (1955-2017). ...

Paxton starred in hundreds of popular Hollywood movies. He was a gifted actor and had the natural ability to fall into his roles, which in my opinion are some of the best acting I've seen.

I was saddened to learn in 2017 that Paxton was killed by the incompetence staff of Cedars-Sinai Hospital in Los Angeles. I underwent neck surgery at the same hospital in 2009 and regret ever stepping foot into that hellhole. While still bleeding with stabbing pain in my chest, just 24 hours after my Anterior Cervical Discectomy And Fusion surgery, Cedars-Sinai Hospital kicked me out, putting my into a taxi cab. God will avenge me of the evil that they did to me at that wicked cesspool of iniquity that they sadly call a hospital!

Bill Paxton should have lived a much longer life, but Cedars-Sinai killed him, by not properly treating him post-heart surgery. Bill had a stroke which never should have happened, had the hospital staff done their jobs! Bill's family rightly sued Cedars for malpractice and wrongful death. The most important job is the one that doesn't get done!!!

Having said that, I was curious of Bill Paxton's religious beliefs. I was greatly saddened to learn that Bill was a lifelong Roman Catholic. Search the internet and you will find thousands of articles claiming that Bill was a Christian, because he was a Catholic. Dear friend, and I say this very kindly, no Roman Catholic ever went to Heaven!!! If someone in the Catholic church goes to Heaven, it is only because they DIDN'T follow the teachings (the damnable false traditions) of the Vatican and Roman Catholic cult!

The inspired King James Bible plainly teaches that the way to get to Heaven is to simply BELIEVE the Good News (the Gospel) of Jesus Christ, who died on the cross for our sins, was buried and resurrected from the dead the third day (1st Corinthians 15:1-5). The ONLY requirement to be saved is to acknowledge that you are a guilty sinner (Romans 3:19-20).

You need to know what you're being saved from! We are all sinners deserving of eternal damnation in Hell (Revelation 20:11-15; 21:8). But Christ died for the ungodly (Romans 5:6-9).

I am not happy that Bill Paxton very likely went to Hell. If he died in his Catholic faith, then according to Jesus Himself in John 3:3 he didn't go to Heaven.

John 3:3, "

Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.

" I was born-again at age 13. It was a one-time new birth. I have never lost God's salvation, not even for one second, because the new birth is irreversible!!!

Roman Catholicism teaches that to get to Heaven you must keep their Seven Sacraments. Catholicism requires their members to be water baptized as the door into the Catholic church, which according to Catholicism is the way to Heaven, through the Catholic church. What saith the Scripture? John 14:6, "Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me." As you can see, the Holy Bible teaches something VERY different than Roman Catholicism. The same can be said of the Russian Orthodox Catholic church, another damnable cult.

I did not write this blog to be mean or unkind, nor to hurt anybody's feelings. God knows my heart. I wrote this blog to warn you dear reader, that unless you are BORN-AGAIN, you cannot go to Heaven. Jesus said that, not me! If you want to know more, please read: " [2]I Never Knew You , by Evangelist Michael P. Bowen, which is a great defense of the simplicity that is in Christ, the Gospel of free grace. Thank you for reading. I can only hope by some rare chance that Bill Paxton repented toward God toward the end of his life, forsaking his false damnable religion and embracing by faith the saving Good News of Christ crucified, buried and risen.

3.6.9 Lessons Learned From Hannah And Peninnah (2022-06-09 19:02)

1st Samuel 1:1-7, "

Now there was a certain man of Ramathaim-zophim, of mount Ephraim, and his name was Elkanah, the son of Jeroham, the son of Elihu, the son of Tohu, the son of Zuph, an Ephrathite:

And he had two wives; the name of the one was Hannah, and the name of the other Peninnah: and Peninnah had children, but Hannah had no children*.

And this man went up out of his city yearly to worship and to sacrifice unto the LORD of hosts in Shiloh. And the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, the priests of the LORD, were there.

And when the time was that Elkanah offered, he gave to Peninnah his wife, and to all her sons and her daughters, portions:

But unto Hannah he gave a worthy portion; for he loved Hannah: but the LORD had shut up her womb.

And her adversary also provoked her sore, for to make her fret, because the LORD had shut up her womb.

And as he did so year by year, when she went up to the house of the LORD, so she provoked her; therefore she wept, and did not eat.

I love the Old Testament, it is so full of doctrinal meat. I love what Brother Lester Roloff (1914-1982) said:

> “To me, there’s not anything that’ll put iron in your spiritual blood like the Old Testament!” —Evangelist Lester Roloff, “[1]An Undisciplined Age”

There is a powerful truth that I want to teach you from this wonderful true story. There was a Christian man in the Old Testament named Elkanah, who had two wives: Peninnah and Hannah. Peninnah had children, but Hannah was barren. The Bible says that Elkanah loved Hannah more than Peninnah, and had shut up her womb (just like God had shut up Rachel’s womb, womb her husband Jacob favored over Leah).

Once a year Elkanah and his family journeyed out of the city to Shiloh to sacrifice unto the Lord.

Now, the Bible says that Peninnah tormented Hannah, deliberately provoking her sore to cause her to worry continually, because she was barren. That is a very wicked thing to do! No one should ever afflict another person. I know that painful feeling, having someone else (in my case a group of men at work) make my life a living hell.

As a Christian I have been harassed, working in hostile work environments on every job I’ve ever worked in my life. I’ve had my uniforms stolen (which I had to pay for), equipment for which I was responsible at work sabotaged, had my tools stolen, my car and house keys stolen at work, and harassed to the point of literal tears. In 2009 I won a 3-year EEO (Equal Employment Opportunity) court case against the U.S. Postal Service, for the hostilities I endured on Guam. The island of Guam is predominantly Roman Catholic. The judge ruled in my favor, determining that a Filipino group of co-workers ganged up on me because I was white and because of my Jesus-is-Savior.com website ministry, which they found and hated.

So I know how Hannah felt. Peninnah mocked and ridiculed Hannah continually, making her feel scared and miserable. You’d think that Peninnah would have rejoiced in the Lord for the gift of children from God, but instead she chose to make Hannah’s life miserable because she was barren. Without Jesus Christ people can become monsters! And even with Jesus Christ, if a believer backslides or doesn't mature in grace, they are capable of horrible things. Even the best saint is still a sinner as long as we dwell in this old earthly flesh!

So Hannah did what we should all do when persecuted for any reason, pray. Philippians 4:6-7, "

Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God.

And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

" Hannah wept and made a solemn promise to God, that if He would give her a son, she would dedicate him to serve the Lord. God grant her request and gave her a son, Samuel. Read what Hannah said in praise to the Lord:

> 1st Samuel 1:26-28, "And she said, Oh my lord, as thy soul liveth, my lord, I am the woman that stood by thee here, praying unto the LORD. For this child I prayed; and the LORD hath given me my petition which I asked of him: Therefore also I have lent him to the LORD; as long as he liveth he shall be lent to the LORD. And he worshipped the LORD there."

Notice carefully that Hannah "lent" her son to the Lord, but God "gave" His only begotten Son to pay for the sins of mankind. John 3:16, "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. "

Lending is what you give someone for a period of time, and you expect them to return it in a period of time; While on the other hand, giving means you are giving something to a person, and you don't expect them to return it back to you, take it as a present!

What a wonderful illustration of God's free gift of eternal life through faith in Jesus Christ our Savior. Romans 6:23, "For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord." God didn't LEND His only begotten Son to the world, He GAVE His Son to be rejected, mocked, smitten, spat upon, ridiculed, tormented and ultimately crucified on a cross as a common criminal. Jesus did that for you and me. Jesus paid a debt of sin He did not owe, because we owed a debt of sin we could not pay (2nd Corinthians 5:21). Amen and amen!

But the main truth that I want you to see dear reader is found in 1st Samuel 2:3...

> 1st Samuel 2:1-3, "And Hannah prayed, and said, My heart rejoiceth in the LORD, mine horn is exalted in the LORD: my mouth is enlarged over mine enemies; because I rejoice in thy salvation. There is none holy as the LORD: for there is none beside thee: neither is there any rock like our God. Talk no more so exceeding proudly; let not arrogancy come out of your mouth: for the LORD is a God of knowledge, and by him actions are weighed."

Pride is a killer! Lucifer has "I" problems:

> Isaiah 14:12-15, "How art thou fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning! how art thou cut down to the ground, which didst weaken the nations! For thou hast said in thine heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God: I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north: I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the most High. Yet thou shalt be brought down to hell, to the sides of the pit."

FIVE TIMES in the preceding brief Scripture passage, we see that the archangel Lucifer was full of hubris (overbearing sinful pride). There is no "I"" in "we" friend. Jesus lived to serve OTHERS!!! Philippians 2:4-5, "Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others. Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus:" When Jesus endured the cross with joy (Hebrews 12:2), He was thinking of OTHERS!!!

The reason why Jesus had joy is because He knew what it meant for mankind, that anybody could be saved by simply believing on Him as their Savior. Acts 10:43, "To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins." According to the preceding verse, everyone in the Old Testament who was saved, got saved through faith alone in Christ. NO ONE has ever been saved by works, nor by faith plus works, which would mean God owed them salvation (Romans 4:4-5). God doesn't owe any human being anything, except to cast us all into a burning Hell forever!!!

I love verse 3 of chapter 2. This is Hannah speaking to her enemy, Peninnah:

> 1st Samuel 2:3, "Talk no more so exceeding proudly; let not arrogancy come out of your mouth: for the LORD is a God of knowledge, and by him actions are weighed."

I love these truths! The Lord is a God of knowledge (He is omniscient). And by Him actions are weighed. Psalms 139:1-6 teaches that God sees everything. He knows when we lie down and when we rise up from our bed. God knows what we are thinking, hoping and planning. Nothing is hidden from the eyes of God. Hebrews 4:13, "Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do."

Hannah was vindicated of Peninnah's persecution by the Lord. God gave Hannah five children! Amen. I love this Bible verse:

Only by man's pride comes contention. Proverbs 13:10, "Only by pride cometh contention: but with the well advised is wisdom." So many people today bellow out selfish words filled with pride and arrogance, injurious of others. The newsmedia are arrogant and proud! Many people are filled with pride and don't even realize it. The man who elevates evolution as truth, while disregarding God's inspired Word as rubbish is sinfully proud against God.

Many people feel just like Hannah did, helpless. They are hurting inside and have an enemy (or enemies) who make matters worse, as did Peninnah cruelly toward Hannah. Psalms 18:17, "He delivered me from my strong enemy, and from them which hated me: for they were too strong for me." God is bigger than our problems and enemies. Hannah felt despised and hopeless, yearning to bear children, so she prayed and God answered her prayer. What an awesome Savior!

3.6.10 How To Find God's Will (2022-06-12 20:09)

1st Peter 4:1-2, "Forasmuch then as Christ hath suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves likewise with the same mind: for he that hath suffered in the flesh hath ceased from sin; That he no longer should live the rest of his time in the flesh to the lusts of men, but to the will of God."

Look at our text verses again. What a beautiful passage of Scripture! As born-again Christians, we ought to do God's will with our life, and not serve sin to the lusts of the flesh. You're not going to stay in the will of God unless you walk with God, abiding in the Word of God.

The book of Acts was written by the apostle Luke and spans 30 years of Paul's life. In Paul's early ministry, he didn't make one major decision. He was already a missionary, yet the church and his spiritual mentors made the decisions for Paul. Paul wasn't his own man, he relied upon the advise of his spiritual elders. If (perhaps the greatest Christian who ever lived) Paul needed spiritual advise from more mature Christians, then so do we!!! Paul's major decisions were made by the disciples, friends, the brethren, Barnabas and the church.

The book of Acts mentions 68 times where Paul changed his location:

17 of the times were special:
1 was a vision.
7 times friends led him
1 time the church led him.
2 times he was expelled and had to leave.
3 times he fled.
3 times he was forbidden by the Holy Ghost to go.
51 times Paul just decided to go.

Now follow carefully. In the Scriptures, 75 % of the time the apostle Paul had to decide for himself what the will of God was. Three times out of four Paul had no guidance to decide what to do!!! Most of the time we are going to have to decide God's will for our self. This means we must live in the Word of God continually.

> "Most of the time in your life, you are going to have to decide yourself what the will of God is! That's what Paul did." —Pastor Jack Hyles, a great quote from the MP3 sermon, "[1]The Way The Apostle Paul Found The Will Of God" (1991).
> "The hope for you to be in the will of God, most of the time, is for you to walk closely with your God." —Pastor Jack Hyles, a great quote from the MP3 sermon, "[2]The Way The Apostle Paul Found The Will Of God" (1991).

How Did Paul Find The Will Of God:

1. Did spiritual leaders advise? (The wisdom of Christian leaders)
2. Did the church advise? (The wisdom of the Church)
3. Is it forbidden? (Anything outside the Bible is forbidden. God never goes against His Word, nor should we!)
4. Did God speak? (John 5:39a, "Search the Scriptures...")
5. Lose your own will.
6. Yield to the Holy Spirit.
7. Set a time to decide.
8. If the answer has not come, then you lose your will, set a time and claim the mind of Christ, to make the decision. Most of the time you're going to have to decide for yourself.

If you're decision maker is broken, don't make decisions. If you're lawnmower breaks, you borrow your neighbor's. Likewise, if your decision maker is broken, you need to borrow someone else's decision maker. Most of your decisions are not going to be made by visions, or God telling somebody else, or the church tells you what to do, they will be decisions that you've got to decide by yourself. This is Biblical.

You don't need to consult God's will for forbidden things. For example: You don't need to seek God's will whether you should drive a beer truck or not. The booze industry is wicked. Alcohol has a very poor track record historically. Beer is for fools, not God's children. It might not happen for 20 years, but the day will come if you drink alcohol, when you will pay the price. Heaven only knows how many marriages, families and homes have been wrecked because of liquor. Alcohol is liquid devil.

You don't need to seek God's will whether or not you should work in an abortion clinic. It is sinful to have any part in the murdering of human life!

> "Your opinion's not worth a dime if it doesn't come from the Bible!" —Pastor Steven Anderson, 'Scam City: Jails, Prisons, and Criminal Checks Exposed'

I heard a young woman say that she knew it was God's will for her to become a Dallas Cowboy cheerleader. She's a fool. It was her ninth audition. It is NEVER God's will for a young woman to dress immodestly, expose her thighs, open her legs, and give thousands of people a strip show. Those cheerleaders are committing wickedness every time they expose their thighs and buttocks, every time their create lust in others by gyrating in unholy positions in their colored underwear in a grassy field. It is sinful and evil. The holy Bible plainly commands women to cloth themselves in modest apparel in 1st Timothy 2:9.

You don't need to seek God's will about whether or not to marry an unsaved person. 2nd Corinthians 6:14-17 plainly forbids believers from being unequally yoked together with unbelievers. If a believer marries an unbeliever, you'll have the Devil for a spiritual father-in-law. That means a Christian ought never go into business together with an unbeliever. That means that a Christian ought not buy a condominium complex with an unsaved person. God's children are prohibited from yoking together with unbelievers.

You don't need to seek God's will whether or not to join a church that uses the modern corrupt Bible versions. It is not God's will. No Christian ought ever join a wicked church that promotes Lordship Salvation. No believer ought ever join a wicked church that promotes heretics on salvation; such as, Ray Comfort, Paul Washer, John MacArthur, Pat Robertson, Rick Warren, Joel Osteen or any other reprobates. Ephesians 5:11 teaches that it is God's will is to refute (expose) all works of darkness. [3]Alexandrian Bible versions are works of darkness! [4]Lordship Salvation is a work of darkness!

If you are trying to determine God's will, ask yourself the question, "Do I have a will in the matter?" If you do, you must lose your will. So often people slap the label of God's will across what they really want to do, and it is not God's will at all.

> "There's no way in the world—no way in the world—that you can stay in the will of God without walking daily with God." —Pastor Jack Hyles, a great quote from the MP3 sermon, "[5]The Way The Apostle Paul Found The Will Of God" (1991).

The way to find God's will in your life is to saturate your life with the inspired King James Bible, which is the perfect Word of God. Philippians 2:5, "Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus."

> "Every word in this Bible is inspired by God almighty!" —Dr. Jack Hyles (a great quote from the classic sermon, "[6]A Friend At Midnight.")

Psalms 116:15, "Precious in the sight of the LORD is the death of his saints."

> "The only inspired Words of God are in the King James Bible!" —Dr. Jack Hyles ([7]an awesome quote —Dr. Jack Hyles ([8]THE REAL BATTLE!")

> "And brother, any time anybody ever casts any reflection upon the accuracy and the inspiration—verbal inspiration—of this Bible, I'll guarantee you he was inspired by the demons. I'll guarantee you! I don't care if he's got a 'reverend' in front of his name. I don't care if he has a clerical collar on. I don't care what school he's been to. He's of the Devil if he says that the Bible is not verbally inspired by God!" —Dr. Jack Hyles, a great quote from the awesome MP3 sermon titled, "[9]Satan's masterpiece."

3.6.11 The Holy Spirit, Our Comforter (2022-06-14 15:24)

Here is chapter 17 from Pastor Jack Hyle's excellent book, "Meet The Holy Spirit"...

> John 16:7, 8, "Nevertheless I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away; for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I depart, I will send Him unto you. And when He is come, He will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment."

One of the works of the Holy Spirit is to comfort the believer. The word "comforter" means "one to run to our side and pick us up." This is what Jesus had done while He was on the earth. I John 2:1, "My little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous." The word "advocate" is the same word as "comforter" in John 16:7, 8. Hence, Jesus is our advocate, or comforter, or the one who runs to our side to pick us up. Especially was this true during His earthly life, but when He went back to Heaven, He sent us ANOTHER comforter. John 14:16, 17 and 26, "And I will pray the Father, and He shall give you another Comforter, that He may abide with you for ever; even the Spirit of truth; Whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth Him not, neither knoweth Him: but ye know Him; for He dwelleth with you, and shall be in you. But the Comforter, Which is the Holy Ghost, Whom the Father will send in My name, He shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you." In a sense, the Holy Spirit came to be the babysitter for the Christians. Jesus was the One Who ran to our side; now He goes back to Heaven. He sends the Holy Spirit to do to all of us what He did when He was here.

Yet, according to I John 2:1, in a sense, Jesus is still our comforter, so the Holy Spirit is not exactly a substitute but an additional one to run to our side.

It is interesting to note that the word "comforter" was also used for legal aid or the counsel for the defense; so the Holy Spirit is that. Jesus is our aid at the right hand of the Father; the Holy Spirit is our aid on earth. Jesus is a positions advocate in Heaven; the Holy Spirit is a conditional advocate on earth.

Someone has described it this way. God made a will. When Jesus died, it became valid to those who trust Him. He went to Heaven as our attorney at the right hand of the Father. The Holy Spirit distributes that will for Jesus on earth. There are two things in this will. First, Ephesians 1:7, "In Whom we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of His grace." Notice the words, "The riches of His grace." This is salvation by grace through faith in the finished work of our Saviour on Calvary. Second, "the riches of His glory." Ephesians 3:16, "That He would grant you, according to the riches of His glory, to be strengthened with might by His Spirit in the inner man." This will come at the rapture when we see Him as He is.

Perhaps the reason Jesus had to return to Heaven was twofold. First, He went to do His work. Hebrews 7:25, "Wherefore He is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by Him, seeing He ever liveth to make intercession for them." Second, He went to give the Holy Spirit HIS work to do.

As the comforter, there is another thing the Holy Spirit does. He helps our comforters. John 14:18, "I will not leave you comfortless: I will come to you." In other words, He uses human instruments to do His comforting. There are times when the Holy Spirit will comfort you himself without human aid.

There are other times when He will empower and strengthen OTHERS to say just the words you need and give you just the comfort you need. This does not mean the Holy Spirit is not doing the comforting. He is leading and strengthening someone and using him to comfort us and strengthen us in our time of need. At times He runs alongside to help and there is no human aid in sight. At other times, He leads someone to come to us to be our aid, our comforter, to pick us up. In either case, this is the work of the Spirit. He simply sometimes chooses not to use human help and other times He chooses to do so.

In my own life there have been many times the Holy Spirit alone has been my comforter. When I paused at the casket of my unsaved father I touched his face. It was cold and hard as a stone. Suddenly I felt a hand grip my arm. I turned to see who it was, and there was no one there. I could definitely feel fingers touching my arm. It was blessed Holy Spirit coming HIMSELF to give me comfort. Then this same Holy Spirit led the pastor to speak words of comfort to me; He led loving friends to encourage my heart. He was comforting and strengthening me both WITH and WITHOUT human instruments. The Christian should yield himself to the Holy Spirit in order that the Spirit may use him to comfort, strengthen and restore others. When the Christian writes a note of comfort, he should ask the Holy Spirit to deliver it for him and to use it as a strength and comfort. When a word of comfort or strength is spoken to a bereaved or weary friend, the power of the Holy Spirit should accompany that word. Hence, the Christian should speak to the Holy Spirit BEFORE he speaks the word of comfort, asking Him to speak words that he cannot speak and to leave impressions that he cannot leave in order that he may be used as a tool of the Holy Spirit to comfort and strengthen the discouraged, weak, lonely, bereaved or fallen brother. There is a wonderful truth in John 14:26, "But the Comforter, Which is the Holy Ghost, Whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you." Notice the words, "and bring all things to your remembrance." The Spirit-led and Spirit-filled Christian may so yield himself to the Holy Spirit that when he comforts , the Holy Spirit will bring to mind what he ought to say. The Christian will enter into the very work of the Spirit Himself as a tool to be a comforter.

Thank God for those times the Holy Spirit Himself has come to life me up and strengthen me and to comfort me. Thank the Lord for those times when He has touched a friend and spoken through him as a human instrument to comfort me and strengthen me and lift me up.

And thank God for those times when He has used me as a tool to comfort others! Oh, Holy Spirit, use me again and again and again and again to strengthen the weak, lift up the fallen, encourage the discouraged, offer fellowship to the lonely, give a smile to the sad and comfort to the bereaved and weary.

It is interesting to note that in a sense Jesus had to leave in order for the Holy Spirit to come, that the Christian might be benefited to the fullest. For one thing, Jesus can serve us better in his glory and we can do greater works because the Holy Spirit came. John 14:12, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on Me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto My Father." Jesus entered the very presence of the Father; at the Father's side He can help us and intercede for us. He knows our needs more. He felt them while He was here, so He can send the Holy Spirit to dispense the fulfillment of our needs. Hence, He helps the Father tot know our needs. Though He doesn't have to persuade the Father to help us, He does remind Him of what help we need.

When I was a young pastor, I did so many things I do not do now. I once filled the baptistery, prepared the communion cup, cooked the unleavened bread, cleaned the building, turned on the lights, built the fire, printed the church bulletin and even led the choir. However, with the passing of the years and the increasing of the church membership I have had to have others to do what I used to do. Though I miss the personal contact and many of the tasks, it is expedient for my people that I administrate so that greater works can be done than were once done when I did it all myself. I could say to my people, "It is expedient that I go to administrate, for I can send many others to do the work that did and get more done."

There is a sense also in which the Lord Jesus can teach us better from the right hand of the Father. When He was on earth, for example, He was in the flesh. Mark 13:32, "But of that day and that hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels which are in Heaven, neither the Son, but the Father." The word "neither" means "not yet". Jesus did not know the day nor hour of the Son of man's coming; at least, not yet, but in His resurrection body, seated at the right hand of the Father, He would know. Consequently, from that position, He can teach us better than through His earthly body here with us.

In summary, our Lord was our comforter while He was here. Though in a sense He continues to comfort from the right hand of the Father, He has sent us the Holy Spirit to comfort us and through that Holy Spirit greater works can be done than were done when our Lord was here.

I am dictating this chapter from the Lucerne Conference Grounds in Lucerne, California. I am in my room. It is 1:30 a.m. If Jesus were in Jerusalem tonight, I would catch the first plane tomorrow morning and I would fly to see Him, but I may not get to see Him or talk to Him, for millions of others would be seeking the same privilege as I. If He were here on earth, it just may be I would never get to touch His hand, see His face or talk to Him personally, but now that He is gone and has sent the Holy Spirit, He is in this room with me in the wee hours of the morning, and I feel His presence. I can talk with Him. In this sense, it was expedient for me that He go away, for through the Holy Spirit, I can be with Jesus anywhere I am, even in the wee hours of the morning in a quiet hotel room in the mountains of northern California.

3.6.12 The Heresy That You Must Confess "Jesus Is Lord" To Be Saved (2022-06-16 12:22)

Romans 10:9-10, "That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation."

I am so sick and tired of false teachers! 1st Timothy 1:5-7, "Now the end of the commandment is charity out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith unfeigned: From which some having swerved have turned aside unto vain jangling; Desiring to be teachers of the law; understanding neither what they say, nor whereof they affirm." It seems these days that everybody and their dog wants to be a Bible teacher! The problem is that they aren't qualified, because they have not studied to rightly divide the Word of Truth, that is, the Holy Bible. 2nd Timothy 2:15, "Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth."

I just read the following heresy online today, from a neo-evangelical religious website:

> Moses wrote that those who practice law-based righteousness will live by that righteousness. However, no one can practice that righteousness. Therefore, attempting to earn righteousness is a futile act. However, Paul explains from the Old Testament that righteousness based on faith, or imputed righteousness, recognizes that Christ ascended into heaven, and that He died. Furthermore, these facts are in the believer's mouth, or confession, and heart, or worldview. In addition, these facts are components of the “word,” or message, of faith that Paul was preaching: if one confesses with one’s mouth that Jesus is the Supreme Authority, or Lord, and believes that He rose from the dead, one will be saved. [emphasis added]

[1]Romans 10:1-21 - The Nation of Israel (Not All Jews) Has Rejected the Gospel, But Gentiles Trust in It

Dear reader, that is a FALSE GOSPEL!!! Nowhere in the Bible are we required to confess (agree with God’s Word) that Jesus is the “Supreme Authority, or Lord” to get to Heaven. Pastor Curtis Hutson wisely said: “A good rule to follow when interpreting the Bible is to never use an obscure passage to contradict a clear one.” Romans 10:9-10 is definitely an obscure passage of Scripture, because taken by itself (out of context), one could conclude that to get to Heaven a person must make public confession of their faith in Christ to be saved, which is not true Biblically. Taken by itself, this passage could also be construed to teach that (as you just read from the Bearing Christ blog), that you must confess Jesus as Supreme Lord to be saved, which again is not Biblical. So how do we know for sure?

I am glad you asked my fine non-feathered friend! The proper way to study the Bible is to compare Scripture with Scripture. Isaiah 28:13, “

But the word of the LORD was unto them precept upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little; that they might go, and fall backward, and be broken, and snared, and taken.” Amen. And also, we read in

Which things also we speak, not in the words which man’s wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth; comparing spiritual things with spiritual.

” That is how we properly study to discern God’s Word, comparing Scripture with Scripture.

When I was a child, my grandmother from Sweden bought me a game that originated in Sweden called: “ [2]Husker Du .

” In hindsight, I cannot help but wonder if God had a part in introducing me to that fun board game, because the whole idea of the Swedish game is to compare pieces with each other, and try to remember where you found them to win the game. What a great way to prepare a child to study the Word of God! Every false doctrine that exists was fabricated by basing a belief on a single (or limited handful of) Scripture, while ignoring the whole of Scripture! Anytime that we present a suggested interpretation of a Scripture, we must first verify that our suggested meaning agrees with the rest of the Word of God. If it does, then we know we’ve found the correct meaning. Unfortunately, many Bible students refuse to accept defeat, wresting the Scripture in order to teach their strange doctrine.

One such strange doctrine is that a lost person cannot be saved until they declare: “Jesus is Lord.” Does that agree with the rest of the Holy Bible? No, it does not. The entire Gospel of John is God’s Gospel tract. John 20:31, “But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name.” So God authored this specific book of the Bible to show humanity how to have eternal life. Yet, every time I hear Lordship Salvation heretics spewed their junk theology, they are citing passages from the Gospel of Matthew in a lame attempt to justify their damnable false doctrine. Folks, God didn’t author the book of Matthew to show us how to get to Heaven, He gave us the book of John for that!!! Matthew presents Jesus as a King. John presents Jesus as the Christ, the only begotten (biological) Son of God (John 20:31).

In the Gospel of John we find the word

“believe”

mentioned 88 times, but there is no mention of confessing anything. There is no requirement to repent of your sins

turn from your sinful ways

to be saved. In fact, the word

“repent” is not mentioned even once in John. That is because the person who believes on Christ has repented in doing so. Repentance and faith are not two steps to be saved; but rather, one action. What must we do to be saved? Acts 16:31b,

“Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved.”

There is no requirement in the Gospel of John to invite Jesus into your life. There is no requirement to be water baptized to get to Heaven (as Martin Luther heretically taught). There is no requirement to faithfully run the race until the end of life to get to Heaven (as Steve Pettit heretically preaches). There is no mention of counting the cost and paying the price to be saved (as Billy Graham false preaches). There is no mention of asking Jesus into your heart to be saved (as many ignorant preachers teach). No, no, no! There is only the requirement that we come to God as a needy sinner and

BELIEVE ON HIM.

John 6:28-29, “Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.” Whereas God only requires childlike faith in the GOOD NEWS (Gospel) of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen the third day to be saved, wicked false teachers require MORE!

The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU.

Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ’s best put to your account through receiving Him by faith. ...

> My hope is built on nothing less
>
> Than Jesus’ blood and righteousness;
>
> I dare not trust the sweetest frame,

But wholly lean on Jesus' name.
On Christ, the solid Rock, I stand;
All other ground is sinking sand,
All other ground is sinking sand.

Must we confess Jesus as "
to be saved? No, ten thousands times no! Although that may harelip every dog in the country, it is nonetheless true according to the Bible. It is a folly and a big mistake to base a doctrine upon one single passage of Scripture in Romans 10:9-10. Nowhere in the Gospel of John (which is God's Gospel tract according to John 20:31) are we instructed to confess anything! You don't get saved by confessing anything (except to admit in your soul that you are a guilty sinner) and BELIEVE on Christ! You get saved by BELIEVING on Jesus Christ as your personal Savior!!!

It saddens me to see fools preaching another gospel based upon one passage of Scripture from Romans 10:9-10, while ignoring the rest of the Bible. Good night folks! The Church of Christ is an example of a group who does this. They cite Romans 10:9-10 to support their unbiblical requirement that to get to Heaven, a person must audibly and publicly confess Jesus as the Christ. The infidel Church of Christ also requires that a person forsake their sinful behavior (which they misunderstand to mean repentance, the same as the cult at Bob Jones University errantly thinks). You DON'T have to stop your sinning, nor even be willing to stop your sinning to be saved, which would be works instead of grace.

When I got saved at age 13, I knew that I was a sinner and believed the Good News of Christ, but that was it. No one required me to make a commitment to clean up (reform) my behavior or bad habits. Then, once saved, God sealed and indwelt me with His blessed Holy Spirit (Romans 8:9; 1st John 3:24) and God's Spirit began to convict me about the sins in my life. That is how salvation works. God trying to rid my life of sinful ways is strictly a separate matter of growing in grace (sanctification), which has absolutely nothing to do with the legal matter of justification (which is by faith alone). We must always keep sanctification completely separate from justification, lest we corrupt the Word of God and cast stumbling blocks before the people. Churchgoers today are confused everywhere because of incompetent pastors, clergy, religious professors and missionaries who combine sanctification with justification, and in so doing merge works with faith, which is another gospel that cannot produce the new birth.

Romans 10:9-10, "That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved." I recently kindly rebuked a man on Facebook in his group that he asked me to join, who quoted Romans 10:9 as "Jesus is Lord." I told him that he is using a corrupt version of the Bible, because the inspired King James Bible says: "Lord Jesus."

The man replied that he was just paraphrasing the Bible, and insisted that he only uses the King James Bible. What? Folks, he is condemning himself! Whether you read a perverted version of the Bible that errantly paraphrases God's Word, or you foolishly paraphrase it yourself, either way the Word of God is being corrupted!!! Romans 10:9 does not say nor mean "Jesus is Lord."

Please read

Acts 16:31b,

"Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved." Does

“the Lord Jesus Christ” here means that you must receive Jesus as Supreme Lord of your life to get to Heaven? No, of course it doesn’t! You’d have to really read into the text, and wrest the Scripture, in order to come up with such a strange doctrine. The Bible simply means to BELIEVE (put your confidence in) Jesus! He is the Lord Jesus Christ, but that doesn’t mean you must follow Him as the absolute Lord (Master) of your life in loyal obedience, service and tuning away from your sinful ways to get to Heaven. That would be works!!!

Calvinism is of the Devil. Calvinism refers to the life’s heretical teachings of an unsaved infidel named John Calvin (1509-1564). John Calvin sinfully combined sanctification with justification, confusing his followers into thinking they needed works to prove that their faith was real. The reality of the genuineness of my faith in God’s sight is MY FAITH!!!

So dear reader, beware of corrupt Bible teachers who base their teachings on obscure passages of Scripture, because you might end up being destroyed with them:

2nd Peter 3:14-17,

Wherefore, beloved, seeing that ye look for such things, be diligent that ye may be found of him in peace, without spot, and blameless. And account that the longsuffering of our Lord is salvation; even as our beloved brother Paul also according to the wisdom given unto him hath written unto you; As also in all his epistles, speaking in them of these things; in which are some things hard to be understood, which they that are unlearned and unstable wrest, as they do also the other scriptures, unto their own destruction. Ye therefore, beloved, seeing ye know these things before, beware lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own stedfastness.

The Apostle Peter admitted that he couldn’t understand some of the Bible. We’ve all been there! I sure have. But like Peter, we must be wise and honest enough to admit that we simply don’t know what a passage means, rather than wrest it to fit what WE THINK it means, which could result in damnation.

3.6.13 And Such Were Some Of You . . . But Ye Are Washed!!! (2022-06-26 17:10)

1st Corinthians 6:9-11, "Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind, Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God. And such were some of you: but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God."

1st Corinthians 6:9-10 is one of the most misinterpreted, misunderstood and misapplied passages of Scripture in the Bible. It is almost always overlooked. The Holy Bible is in fact saying that anyone who commits these sins CANNOT go to Heaven. This means NO ONE can go to Heaven, because we are ALL GUILTY of committing these sins, even if merely by thought. Jesus taught that hatred is equivalent to murder in God's eyes (Matthew 5:22), and lust the same as adultery with God (Matthew 5:28). Ah, but thanks be to God for the gift of His dear son, Jesus, the Christ, Who paid the price for our sins. Let the world know...

[1] JESUS CAME TO SAVE SINNERS!!!

Luke 19:10, "For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost."

God the Father sent His only begotten (biological) Son into the world to pay the PRICE for man's sins (John 3:16). Jesus paid a debt that He did not owe, because we owed a debt that we could not pay. The [2]PRICE for the Church is the precious BLOOD of Jesus; and the PLACE is the heavenly Mercy Seat, where the liquid blood of Christ is sprinkled (Hebrews 12:24; 9:12,24).

My friend, the price for your sins and mine has been paid in full by the Lord Jesus Christ! This is why the apostle Paul could say in 1st Timothy 4:9-11 that Jesus is THE SAVIOUR OF ALL MEN, SPECIALLY THOSE WHO BELIEVE!!! 1st Timothy 4:9-11, "This is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptation. For therefore we both labour and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe. These things command and teach."

If you go to Hell one day, it will only be because you rejected and refused the free grace of God that brings salvation. There are confused people all around the world today who are desperately trying to discover if there is truly a way to receive eternal life. There is a way. There is way! Jesus is the way!

Completely Rest in the Gospel to Be Saved

Jesus said in John 14:6, " Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me." Acts 10:43, "To him [Jesus] give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins." You simply acknowledge that you are a guilty sinner in God's eyes (Romans 3:19), totally incapable of saving yourself in any way (Isaiah 64:6; Ephesians 2:8-9); and you completely REST, Hebrews 4:10-11) in the name of Jesus, the Christ (Acts 4:10-12; Romans 10:13; John 20:31)—Who died upon the cross for our sins, He was buried, and then miraculously raised up from the dead after three days (the Gospel, 1st Corinthians 15:1-4). JESUS CHRIST IS THE ONLY WAY TO HEAVEN!!!

We are saved by ceasing from our own DEAD WORKS (Hebrews 6:1), and completely RESTING in Jesus Christ, Who is our Sabbath. The Hebrews are the people of God, but that doesn't automatically make them the children of God. Only by resting in Christ's finished work of redemption can anyone (whether Gentile or Jew) become a born-again child of God:

> Hebrews 4:9-11, "There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God. For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his. Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief."

Galatians 3:26-29, “For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ. There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus. And if ye be Christ’s, then are ye Abraham’s seed, and heirs according to the promise.”

Have Your Sins Been Washed In The Blood of the Lamb?

Many people quote 1st Corinthians 6:9-10, but few people ever quote verse11:

“And Such Were Some Of You . . . But Ye Are Washed” —1st Corinthians 6:11

The Bible is acknowledging that God saves even the worst and vilest of sinners. Isaiah 1:18, “Come now, and let us reason together, saith the LORD: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool.” One-third of the Bible was penned by pardoned MURDERERS (Moses, David and Paul). Just as the Lord forgave the murderers, harlots (prostitutes) and publicans (shady tax-collectors working for the oppressive Roman empire) who believed on His name, so also will Christ forgive you regardless of what evil things you have done throughout your life. God desires for all men to come to repentance to be saved (2nd Peter 3:9).

Many Christians in today’s soul-winning and evangelical churches have come out of a horrible life of sin... “BUT YE ARE WASHED” the Bibles says, washed by the sin-cleansing blood of Jesus Christ!!! 1st John 1:7, “...and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin.” It is Christ’s precious blood that washes ALL our sins away, and not human effort that saves us. For anyone to say that a person must try to stop sinning in order to be saved is teaching a false plan of salvation. I desire to live right because I AM SAVED, and not TO GET SAVED. People who forsake the world, turn from sinful living and make a full surrender to Christ as part of their salvation are not truly saved, having never experienced the new-birth by faith alone in Christ’s death on the cross, His burial and resurrection from the dead.

1st Corinthians 6:11, "And such were some of you: but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God."

Amen! Our sins have been washed away by the literal blood of Jesus! We have been SANCTIFIED, set apart for God’s purpose and glory. I now belong to Jesus, and Jesus belongs to me! Praise God! I have been JUSTIFIED... “JUST-IF-I’D” never sinned. We are saved by God’s grace, through faith in the gospel. We are saved by completely RESTING in the precious name of Jesus Christ, because He died on the cross for our sins, was buried, and is bodily risen. Christ bodily ascended into Heaven and “BY HIS OWN BLOOD” (Hebrews 9:12, King James Bible) Jesus entered the Holy Place and paid the price by [3]sprinkling His liquid blood (Hebrews 12:24) on the Mercy Seat (Hebrews 9:12,22-24)! Thank you Lord! Have you been delivered through the power of the Gospel from the power and depths of Satan?

The works of the flesh are these:

> Galatians 5:19-21, “Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these; Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, Idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies, Envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God.”

If you have ever done any of these sins you cannot enter into Heaven. WE ARE ALL GUILTY SINNERS! No one deserves Heaven. NO ONE is worthy of God’s grace. We are all just as sinful as the vilest sinner in God’s eyes. James 2:10 says to break even one commandment of God makes us guilty of all. Why? It’s because committing even ONE SIN is enough to keep us out of Heaven, forfeit eternal life, and send us to the Lake of Fire forever!!!

When you get saved by trusting in Christ ALONE for your salvation, that is, by believing the Gospel of Jesus Christ crucified on the cross, buried and risen, then YOU ARE WASHED as the Bible teaches in 1st Corinthians 6:11. We read further in the Scriptures:

> 1st Peter 1:18-21, “Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers; But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot: Who verily was foreordained before the foundation of the world, but was manifest in these last times for you, Who by him do believe in God, that raised him up from the dead, and gave him glory; that your faith and hope might be in God.”

Biblically, ALL Christians have come out of a life of sin, but some much worse than others (at least worse in men’s eyes). NO ONE is perfect. NO ONE is without sin. Every believer is a sinner saved by God’s grace. Those professed Christians who are quick to condemn other believers who sin, showing little or no mercy or understanding, only do so because they have not truly grasped the depth of their own sinfulness. Jesus taught in Matthew 7:1-5 that we will all be judged by God in eternity on an individual basis, being judged by the same measure by which we have judged others. If we are harsh and difficult toward others who have sinned, then God is going to be harsh and difficult toward us in eternity. If we don’t forgive our sister or brother in the Lord, then neither will Christ forgive us (Matthew 18:22).

Two Ways To Heaven: Be Perfect or Rest In Jesus Christ

The word “inherit” in the Greek is “klēronomeō” and means “to be an heir.” A “heir” is a person who is entitled by law or by the terms of a will to inherit the estate of another who is entitled to something. In other words, you are not entitled to enter into Heaven if you have broken the Mosaic law (aka, The Ten Commandments) in the Old Testament. We are all guilty of breaking God’s laws, which is the entire purpose for the law, that is, to be used as a measuring stick to show us out total inability to save ourselves.

There are only two ways to Heaven:

> KEEP THE MOSAIC LAW PERFECTLY (given to Moses by God to give to the Hebrews). God gave us His laws in stone, because you cannot bend stone without breaking it. You either keep or break God's commandments. If you break even one commandment, then you cannot inherit Heaven, because you have no divine legal right. James 2:10, "For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all."

Some religious Jews attempted to earn their way to Heaven by keeping the law. Paul reminds them in Romans 2:13 that the DOERS and not the HEARERS of the law shall be justified. Just as the boasting self-righteous rich young ruler in Luke 18:18-21 and the boasting self-righteous unsaved workers in Matthew 7:21-23 at The Great White Throne Of Judgment, so we find boasting self-righteous religious Jews in Romans 2:23, "Thou that makest thy boast of the law, through breaking the law dishonourest thou God?" Paul is pointing out that they weren't keeping the law, just as the Lord pointed out to the rich young ruler in Luke 18:18-21 that he was covetous and hadn't "kept all these commandments from my youth up" as he boasted.

Then Paul clearly explains in Romans 3:19-20 that no one can be justified by the keeping of the law, because no one can perfectly keep the law. WE ARE ALL SINNERS, FALLING SHORT OF GOD'S GLORY (Romans 3:23). NO ONE has ever got to Heaven by keeping the law, because all men are sinners who fall short of the glory of God. Only Jesus Christ is without sin (Hebrews 4:15).

REST COMPLETELY IN CHRIST (Who died upon the cross for our sins, He was buried, and then He was resurrected from the dead after three days). Since we have no righteousness of our own to offer God (Isaiah 64:6), and are incapable of perfectly keeping God's law (Romans 3:10), God offers HIS RIGHTEOUSNESS to us instead through faith in Christ. This is called the doctrine of [4]IMPUTATION. Romans 4:5-6, "But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness. Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works."

Romans 10:3-4, "For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God. For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth." We are saved by GOD'S RIGHTEOUSNESS by faith. Philippians 3:9, "And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith." When a person trusts Christ alone and is saved, from that moment forward God doesn't see that person's sins anymore; but rather, He sees the blood of His only begotten Son, Jesus.

3.6.14 Beware Of Satan's Master Counterfeits (2022-06-28 13:54)

Matthew 7:13-15, "Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat: Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it. Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves."

2nd Corinthians 11:3-4, "But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ. For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him."

Admittedly, they do seem saved, but so do Seventh-Day Adventists (Calvinists), Church of Christ (Calvinists), Lutherans (Baptismal Regeneration), Presbyterians (Calvinists) and Lordship Salvationists (Calvinists). I watched a Mormon sermon yesterday and it sounded like a Baptist church. Mormons ONLY use the King James Bible! You can verify that online. Mormons sing just like Baptists. A naïve person could easily think that Mormonism is Christianity, if they didn't understand sound doctrine from the Word of God.

I was thinking last night about counterfeit money. The goal of the counterfeiter is to make the fake money as close to authentic money as possible, to deceive people. The Devil does the same thing with religion! Satan makes false religion look, feel and sound just like genuine Christianity, so close that the person unlearned in the Scripture couldn't discern the difference, and so they are deceived and damned (Matthew 7:13-15; 2nd Corinthians 11:3-4).

I was surprised to find mainstream [1]this website that sells counterfeit money that allegedly looks realistic. Why doesn't the government stop them? Go figure! Dear reader, I don't want you to be deceived by the Devil. God's standard for salvation is THE GOSPEL OF JOHN. John 20:31, "But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name. " God authored the Gospel of John for the specific purpose of showing humanity how to have eternal life.

There is no mention in John of confessing, following, surrendering, committing, praying, calling, serving, running, turning or repenting to obtain God's free gift of eternal life. The only requirement taught is to BELIEVE ON JESUS. John 6:28-29, "When said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God?

Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.

John chapters 19 and 20 teach Christ's death on the cross, His burial and subsequent bodily physical resurrection three days later . This is THE GOSPEL (i.e., the GOOD NEWS) according to 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand;

By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain.

For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures;

And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures: ” Any guilty sinner who believes (places their confidence in) this Good News is saved immediately, irrevocably and permanently. Getting saved is that simple.

Tragically, millions of false churches around the world base their counterfeit plan of damnation upon obscure passages of Scripture, while totally ignoring and contradicting the Gospel of John. As a general rule we ought never use an obscure passage of Scripture to contradict a clear one. The Gospel of John is clear, salvation is WITHOUT WORKS!!!

- Roman Catholics errantly teach that salvation requires FAITH AND WORKS.
- Calvinists errantly teach that FAITH WILL WORK.
- The Bible teaches that FAITH IS WITHOUT WORKS (Romans 4:5).

Please dear reader, do not allow Satan and his sinister ministers to deceive you! Hell is hot, life is short and eternity is a long time!!!

The Devil is a master counterfeiter! Tragically, BILLIONS of Roman Catholics, Orthodox Catholics, Mormons, Jehovah’s Witnesses, Lutherans, Seventh-Day Adventists, Calvinists, Church of Christ, United Methodists, Unitarian Universalists, Bahai Faith, Presbyterians, Baptists, Scientologists, Christian Science, Judaizers and other infidels have been DECEIVED by the Devil concerning how to get to Heaven. Lordship Salvation is of the Devil. Calvinism is of the Devil. Works to be saved before, during or after salvation are of the Devil.

The Devil is a beautiful liar! Satan knows that the best place to hide a lie is between two truths. The half-truth is the most effective form of deception, because in part it can be defended with incontestable logic. This is what makes false religion so dangerous, because its damnable lies are surrounded and protected by religious truths, making it’s spiderweb of deceit even more deadly and unsuspecting to vulnerable passing prey.

3.6.15 There Are No Apartment Buildings In Heaven (2022-06-29 16:19)

John 14:1-6, “

Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me.

In my Father’s house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you.

And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also*.

And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know.

Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way?

Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.”

I heard a nutty preacher say something years ago that really bothered me. He said that we will live up in Heaven in apartment buildings. Folks, would you rather live in an apartment building or in your own completely paid for home? I know I want a home in Heaven!!!

Jesus said in our text Sculpture from John chapter 14 that He is going to prepare a place for us in Heaven, which in the Greek means “ abode

” (i.e., a place to live). As the old adage goes:

“Home is where I hang my hat.” It sure is!

Kindly said, I heard another pastor say that the King James Bible translators were wrong to use the word “mansions” in John 14:2 for the Greek word mone, which means: “a staying, that is, residence.” But I personally don’t think the 54 godly men whom God used to translate the King James Bible were wrong. I have often began to envy wealth famous people like David Lee Roth, Donald Trump, Gene Simmons and hundreds of other rich, famous and spoiled people. But then the blessed indwelling Holy Spirit comforts my soul, reminding me that those rich celebrities have everything now on earth, but Hell awaits them in eternity.

I know the pain of loneliness, since my former wife sadly abandoned me in 2006 (16 years ago). I have lived alone since. I have tried many times to find a Christian wife, but things never worked out. In two cases it was because of ungodly new-evangelical pastors (at the Satanic Harvest Baptist Church on Guam), who banned and ostracized me (since 2014) from attending their church services anymore, because I befriended them with THE TRUTH that the modern bibles are of the Devil, and Lordship Salvation is of the Devil, and Martin Luther did not go to Heaven ([1]because he trusted in water baptism to get him to Heaven, instead of Christ alone). Consequently, the two women (at different times) whom I wanted to marry, rejected me because of misguided loyalty to their cult leaders at Harvest. God will avenge me!!!

Because of the divorce I lost my paid home. I lost everything! I lost my pets, not even able to say goodbye to them. I was given a court order by the judge not to return to my home, and I never saw my home again!!! My belongings were packed in boxes and sent to me. One day I had a home, the next day I had none! That is what our wicked U.S. courts do to families. That is what divorce does to a person. I know the inexplicable pain of loss, emotional torment and betrayal by a loved one. There is not a more ungodly institution in the world than the U.S. legal system. They legalize the evils of homosexuality. They legalize the evils of abortion, which is first-degree murder. They legalize the evils of divorce, which is an abomination unto God. I fought to stop the divorce, but the wolves in the court system won! My former wife refused to reconcile with me, and I have that in writing with her ungodly signature on it, as a witness before God and man that I didn't want a divorce.

I forgave my former spouse a long time ago, because I know that God has forgiven me (Ephesians 4:28-32). God promises to avenge me (Romans 12:29-21). No one has a right to destroy someone else's life!!! It is a horrible sin to file for divorce. It is even worse to complete the divorce. Only by pride cometh contention (Proverbs 13:10). My former wife abandoned me on March 20th, 2006. While praying and hoping for her return, I started a new soulwinning website in May of 2006 called: [2]Soulwinning.info, which was my way of obeying the Bible in Romans 12:21, "Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good."

To my horror, on June 5th, 2006, two U.S. Marshalls on Guam came to my job and handed me a summons to divorce court. I was working alone that night in maintenance. I turned out the lights in the parts department and wept like a baby for the next 3 hours in the dark. I wanted to die! Life is not fair folks. The Devil doesn't fight fair, he plays dirty. God has forgiven me of MUCH, so I choose to forgive others as well, which is what God commands. My [3]soulwinning.info website wouldn't exist today, if it were not for the evils which befell me at the hands of my wicked former wife. Genesis 50:20, "But as for you, ye thought evil against me; but God meant it unto good, to bring to pass, as it is this day, to save much people alive."

In hindsight, I definitely married the wrong person in 1987. The woman that I ignorantly married in my youth (I was age 20 at the time), was never cut out to be a wife or a mother. She was a dangerous sponge! Whatever malicious ideas that ungodly people put into her head, she ran off halfcocked with a loaded gun, knife, phone, pen in her brutish rage. But what's done is done, I must move forward with my life for Jesus Christ. I am a big sinner just like everybody else! The famous preacher, Charles Waggle (who wrote the famous hymn: "No One Ever Cared For Me Like Jesus") shares my inexplicable pain of soul, because his wife abandoned him too. God hates divorce! Jeremiah 3:20, "

Surely as a wife treacherously departeth from her husband, so have ye dealt treacherously with me, O house of Israel, saith the LORD.

Anyway, there are no apartment buildings in Heaven, I assure you. Who would want to live in such a place? I suppose that there are many people, who have become accustomed to living in an apartment from necessity, settling for less than for what is best in the future, but only because they have lost sight of having a better life someday in eternity. I think everyone should have their own home.

And I can guarantee you that there WON'T be any property taxes in Heaven!!! Here in the United States, no one really owns their home. I triple dog dare you (if you own a home) to stop paying your taxes and see how fast the government confiscates your home and boots you out the door!

I heard about a woman in Chicago many years ago, whose husband worked his entire life to pay for their home. It was paid for! He died and she became a widow. The woman suffered from depression and didn't keep up with her bills. The water bill went unpaid for years, surmounting staggering debt from increasing interest charges. Her bill, which had only originally been for a few hundred dollars, was now at several thousand dollars. Long story short, the city of Chicago put her home up for auction and she lost her paid home. Folks, that is criminal. When a widow can lose the paid home that her husband worked for his entire life, over an unpaid water bill, you know that we are living in a perverse, ungodly, corrupt and wicked nation. What should have happened was to simply turn her water off permanently until the bill was paid, but NO ONE should ever be able to lose a home that is paid for in full. In Heaven that could NEVER happen. God is not a thug. God is not unjust. God is kind and ethical, always.

Don't you tell me that believers won't have a home in Heaven as nice as Eddie Van Halen's mansion was here on earth. Sadly, Eddie was a lifelong Roman Catholic, which is a false religion that puts their faith in sinful men (priests) to forgive their sins, instead of the Lamb of God with the nail scared hands and feet.

Don't you tell me that the pervert, Hugh Hefner (who spent his life as a whoremonger, mocking the moral God of the Holy Bible), had a nicer home here on earth than we will as believers in Heaven. I am not sure how God will do things in Heaven, but I can assure you that God will keep His promise in Romans 8:32, " He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things?" I love that Bible verse! God will one day give us ALL THINGS the Bible says.

Romans 8:32 says that God will give us ALL THINGS. So I think anything that is right, holy and good God will grant. I am convinced that if you are a child of God, and you want to see your old pet pal Fido the dog, Fluffy the cat or Ben the mouse, God will grant your request. Is that not a part of ALL THING in Romans 8:32? Do you mean to tell me that our almighty God and Creator couldn't or wouldn't give back life to a beloved furry pet that you once owned? This is speculation, of course. I cannot prove what I am teaching; however, God did promise in Romans 8:32, " He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things?"

I once heard a Baptist pastor criticize the idea that Jesus was a carpenter while on earth, and so subsequently He is building us homes in Heaven. Hey, what is so strange about the idea that our dear Savior is a carpenter also in Heaven? The Lord did promise to PREPARE a place for each saint in Heaven. To prepare something clearly implies that Jesus will do just that... PREPARE a residence in Heaven for us. I sincerely don't think we will be dwelling in stacking bunk beds, or an apartment building, or a hippie commune in the Pearly City.

I learned a beautiful truth from Pastor Jack Hyles from one of his sermons. Remember that men, and not God, put the chapter divisions in the Holy Bible. So in the original Koine Greek manuscripts of the New testament, John chapters 13 and 14 are one. So if we read chapter 13, where Jesus predicted that the Apostle Peter would deny Christ 3 times before the rooster crowed 3 times, in chapter 14 the dear Savior reassures Peter that when he repents afterwards, that the Lord is going to Heaven to prepare a place (a residence) for Peter, so that when Jesus returns for the saints, we will all be together in Heaven. That is precious! And truly, Jesus' precious promise to Peter in John 14:1-3 applies to every born-again believer.

John 14:1-3 is one of my favorite passages in the Bible. I have been reluctantly renting an apartment since 2006, after I lost my home to pay several tens of thousands of dollars in legal fees for an unwanted divorce. Lawyers are rotten thieves!!! I love that scene in the classic 1993 movie Jurassic Park, where the hungry Tyrannosaurus dinosaur east the lawyer in the restroom outhouse (I don't have to explain the symbology). Wait until you see what God is going to do to them in eternity! Hell is full of dirty crooked lawyers.

Since I once had a home, but lost it due to misfortune, Jesus' solemn promise in John 14:1-3 means all that much more to me. I don't know if I will ever be blessed to own a home again in this earthly lifetime; but if not, I know assuredly that God is preparing a mansion for me in Heaven.

Matthew 6:7,

“

But when ye pray, use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking.

Matthew 15:7-9, “

Ye hypocrites, well did Esaias prophesy of you, saying,

This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips; but their heart is far from me.

But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men*.”

Mark 7:6-9, “

He answered and said unto them, Well hath Esaias prophesied of you hypocrites, as it is written, This people honoureth me with their lips, but their heart is far from me.

Howbeit in vain do they worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.

For laying aside the commandment of God, ye hold the tradition of men, as the washing of pots and cups: and many other such like things ye do.

And he said unto them, Full well ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition.”

The Holy Bible teaches that religion is a dangerous thing! Our text passages of Scripture plainly reveal that religion can become corrupt, vain and deadly in the wrong hands. In Matthew 6:8 we learn that HEATHENS can pray, superficially appearing as God’s children, but in actuality are children of the Devil practicing false religion.

In the past I have considered the heresy of Calvinism (aka, Lordship Salvation) merely a false doctrine, but it has exploded into a religion in the United States. I love this helpful quote from Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold, explaining what Lordship Salvation is:

> “Lordship Salvation is the unsupportable and unbiblical belief that the performance of good works, the promise of good works, or the evidence of good works, must accompany faith in Christ to establish or provide evidence that such faith has resulted in eternal life.” —Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold ([1]Jesus versus John MacArthur)

Sadly, the biggest offenders are Baptist churches, which have fallen away from THE TRUTH. I’m talking about the deadly cult at Bob Jones University (BJU) today, which has become a demonic cesspool of deadly Calvinist doctrine and Satanic deceit. Last I checked, there are about 75 different branches of Baptists in the United States. Some of them even deny Jesus’ deity, go figure! Sadly, most Baptist churches have succumbed to Satan’s lie of Calvinism, which has reached the tipping point in 2022 in the apostate Southern Baptist Convention (SBC). The SBC has twice now revised their own Bible, producing a damnable text based upon Westcott and Hort’s perverse Greek. To HELL with the Southern Baptist Convention and their 45,000 corrupt and complicit churches!!! No pastor and church that is right with God would remain in that cesspool of iniquity! The SBC is of the Devil. J.D. Greear ([2]their new SBC chairman) openly endorses the LGBTQ community.) God's curse is upon the SBC!!!

Dear reader, religion is the worst thing that ever happened to this world! The Bible has very little good to speak about religion. If you missed it, please go back and read our text passages of Scriptures. In nearly every case of existing religions around the world (about 4,000 the last I checked), nearly all of them elevate MAN'S COMMANDMENTS over the inspired WORDS OF GOD.

Mark 7:9, " And he said unto them, *Full well ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition." Manmade tradition is at the core of 99 % of the world's religions. Sadly, as I have already mentioned, even most of our once trustworthy Baptist churches have now become corrupted by Satan.

False religion is how a pervert named Warren Jeffs of the Fundamentalist Latter Day Saints (FLDS Mormons), was able to con 78 women into marrying him. At least 24 of those wives were underaged girls when Jeffs violated them. When scrutiny heightened in Arizona and Utah against Warren Jeffs alleged criminal activities, he fled to the state of Texas. Unbelievably, in Texas Jeffs used Mormon money to build a so-called Holy Temple of Mormonism, in which he sexually assaults a 12-year-old girl, and records the entire crime. What an idiot! Jeffs belongs in an episode of the world's dumbest criminals!!!

With disgust, in the now made public recordings, you can literally hear Mormon elder Warren Jeffs breathing heavy as he violates the little girl, telling her that he is doing it: " in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

" This is religion folks!!! Why doesn't the government go after the entire Mormon cult? Jeff's father married several dozen women himself, many of which his biological son Warren remarried when he Dad died and went to Hell forever. Mormonism is, in all its entirety, of the Devil. It is by very nature a sex cult. [3]Just go read their official dogma! I mean no unkindness to anyone, truly, but if you follow the religious lies of Mormonism, you will spend eternity burning in the fires of Hell.

Look at the [4]Heaven's Gate cult in California. One nutcase by using religious indoctrination was able to successfully convince 41 people to take their own lives. This shows us the frightening power of religious brainwashing!!! I am sickened to know that there are 15 million Mormons in the world. It sickens me to know that there are over ONE BILLION hellbound Roman Catholics, who've all been lied to to believe that some sinful priest, who dresses like a woman, but tells people to call him "

Father,

" can absolve their sins. NO PRIEST, POPE OR PASTOR CANNOT FORGIVE ANYONE'S SINS!!! Only God can forgive sins. The Lutherans erroneously believe that their pastors have God's power to forgive people's sins. NO THEY DON'T!!! Lutheran pastors are LIARS!!!

> My hope is built on nothing less
> Than Jesus' blood and righteousness;
> I dare not trust the sweetest frame,
> But wholly lean on Jesus' name.
> On Christ, the solid Rock, I stand;
> All other ground is sinking sand,
> All other ground is sinking sand.

The Devil is a beautiful liar! Satan knows that the best place to hide a lie is between two truths. The half-truth is the most effective form of deception, because in part it can be defended with incontestable logic. This is what makes false religion so dangerous, because its damnable lies are surrounded and protected by religious truths, making it's spiderweb of deceit even more deadly and unsuspecting to vulnerable passing prey.

Dear friend, I could go on writing this one blog for hours, expounding you in the bizarre and insane world of false religion. Years ago I made my new favorite Bible verse Proverbs 4:23, "

Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life.

" The reason why people foolishly join a cult like the Jehovah's Witnesses or Seventh-Day Adventists is because they are deceived by the Devil (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4, 13-15). Jesus warned us that the way unto life is narrow, and the highway to Hell broad, because FALSE PROPHETS appear as sheep to deceive their prey (Matthew 7:13-15). Now you know why I love

Proverbs 4:23, "

Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life.

Please don't allow yourself to be deceived friend. Please use and trust ONLY the inspired King James Bible. Please believe only what you can PROVE with the Holy Scriptures. You cannot backup the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation with the King James Bible. No you cannot! All you can do, at very best, is cite obscure passages of Scripture, wresting (twisting) them out of context in a foolish lame attempt to bolster up your strawman perverse doctrine. Lordship Salvation is of the Devil, which teaches that more than childlike faith is required to be saved.

In addition, proponents of Lordship Salvation (which is actually the Devil's Calvinism repackaged) says you must surrender all to Christ, turn away from your sinful lifestyle, follow Jesus as "

Lord

no matter what the cost, run the Christian race faithfully to the end, invite Christ into your life, repent (turn) from your sinful ways, count the cost and pay the price, give up control of your life to Jesus, and a bunch of other junk theology no found in the Holy Bible. How is any of that a free gift?

Ephesians 2:8-9, "

For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God:

Not of works, lest any man should boast. " This is perhaps the most ignored Bible verse!

If we take the preceding Scripture passage at face value, then NONE of all those extra things that I just listed, can be required of a lost sinner to obtain eternal life. Eternal life is the free gift of God, which a needy sinner receives by faith, by simply receiving

Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for their sins, and believing that Jesus after being buried

from the dead three days later. This is The Gospel, that is, The Good News, by which we are saved if we BELIUEVE IT (1st Corinthians 15:1-6; Romans 1:16).

Please don't let religion mess with your head. Many people suffer from [5]Religious Scrupulosity, which is where we feel guilty, confusion or emotions because of religion. What saith the Scripture? ...

> Psalms 1:1-5, " Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.
> But his delight is in the law of the LORD; and in his law doth he meditate day and night. And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper. The ungodly are not so: but are like the chaff which the wind driveth away. Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous. For the LORD knoweth the way of the righteous: but the way of the ungodly shall perish."

Dear reader, if you will give God your HEART, He will comb the kinks out of your HEAD! Search the Scriptures Jesus commanded in John 5:39.

3.6.17 Both Satan And God Pressure Humans To Take Sides (2022-06-30 18:12)

Joshua 24:15, "And if it seem evil unto you to serve the LORD, choose you this day whom ye will serve; whether the gods which your fathers served that were on the other side of the flood, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: but as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD."

1st Kings 18:21,

And Elijah came unto all the people, and said, How long halt ye between two opinions? if the LORD be God, follow him: but if Baal, then follow him. And the people answered him not a word.

Revelation 3:15-16, "I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot. So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth."

Matthew 26:69-74, "Now Peter sat without in the palace: and a damsel came unto him, saying, Thou also wast with Jesus of Galilee. But he denied before them all, saying, I know not what thou sayest. And when he was gone out into the porch, another maid saw him, and said unto them that were there, This fellow was also with Jesus of Nazareth. And again he denied with an oath, I do not know the man. And after a while came unto him they that stood by, and said to Peter, Surely thou also art one of them; for thy speech bewrayeth thee. Then began he to curse and to swear, saying, I know not the man. And immediately the cock crew."

I was reading in the news today that actor [1]Chris Pratt is under pressure from fellow actress Ellen Page and the LGBTQ community. I like Chris Pratt, who has [2]openly professed that he is a Christian. Unfortunately, I have not been able to confirm that he is born-again, simply because I haven't found enough clear information. We know that Roman and Orthodox Catholics, Mormons, Jehovah's Witnesses, Seventh-Day Adventists and other pseudo-Christian religions are NOT genuine Christians, because they pervert the Gospel in various different ways. But as far as I can tell, Chris Pratt is not involved in any of those cults.

But Pratt does attend the popular ecumenical Zoe Church in Los Angeles, which preaches a FALSE GOSPEL. [3]On their website it reads:

> 'We believe that all men are sinners by nature and choice and are therefore under condemnation, that God regenerates by the Holy Spirit those who repent of their sins and confess Jesus Christ as Lord.' [emphasis added] [4]SOURCE

WRONG! The Bible plainly defines "the Gospel" for us in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4 as Jesus' DEATH on the cross, His BURIAL and His bodily RESURRECTION three days later. The Zoe church doesn't even mention these truths, they instead errantly teach lost sinners to "repent of their sins and confess Jesus Christ as Lord." That is NOT God's simple plan of salvation.

Dear reader, the unsaved fools in Matthew 7:21-23 confessed Jesus as “Lord, Lord,” doing “ many wonderful works

” in Jesus’ name. They were dedicated followers of Christ, but the dear Savior adamantly denied knowing them. Why? It is because they failed to do the will of the Father, which we find in John 6:40, “And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.” I fear that Chris Pratt may merely be following Jesus as his Lord, having repented of his sins as Judas did (Matthew 27:3), yet still not be saved.

Also, I found this website titled: ’[5]How Chris Pratt Became A Devout Christian.’ The article says:

> Pratt was introduced to religion as a wayward teenager in Maui, Hawaii, by a complete stranger.
>
> "This guy came by and was like, ’What are you doing tonight?’ I was like, ’Oh, I dunno...’ So he’s like, ’Will you fornicate tonight?’ I was like, ’I hope so.’ ’And drugs and drinking?’ It’s like, ’Most likely, yeah. Probably all three of those things. I mean, at least two of them, possibly all three,’" Pratt told Esquire magazine in 2014.
> "He was like, ’I stopped because Jesus told me to stop and talk to you. He said to tell you you’re destined for great things.’ My friends came out, and I was like, ’Hey, I’m gonna go with this guy.’ I gave my soul to Jesus within, like, two days. I was stuffing envelopes for his organisation, Jews for Jesus." [6]SOURCE

Folks, if that is the extent of Chris Pratt’s testimony of how he got saved, he is NOT SAVED!!!

Both Satan And God Pressure Humans To Take Sides

But regardless of whether Chris Pratt is truly a Christian or not, the heathen world thinks he is, and so they are pressuring him to choose sides. Whenever a celebrity is neutral on a moral matter, ESPECIALLY if that person claims to be a Christian, the wicked majority want to force that person to show their true colors.

We see this reality in the inspired King James Bible in our text passage from Matthew 26:69-74. The Apostle Peter wanted to remain neutral, mixing in with the crowd in incognito. Peter was scared of persecution, prosecution and crucifixtion. The Romans were cruel to those convicted of crimes. I bought a very interesting book several years ago while waiting for my connecting flight in Minneapolis, Minnesota. The book is called: “Killing Jesus” by Bill O’Reilly and Bill Dugard. The book gives the reader an intriguing glimpse (full of fascinating facts) from behind the scenes. The book covers details of Herod, Tiberias, Rome and other information.

I learned from the book that there were other popular methods of executing prisoners. Of course, crucifixtion was very popular. But Roman soldiers also sealed people in bags full of scorpions! Ouch! Disemboweling victims was also quite common. The Romans were notorious for their cruelty, represented by the legs of iron o n Nebuchadnezzar's image, which dream was interpreted by the prophet Daniel, in Daniel chapter two. The two separate legs represented the divided Roman empire, which eventually fell to anarchy, invaders and chaos in 476 AD. Contrary to the thinking of many theologians, there will not be a "revived Roman empire"; but rather, a New World Order (Revelation 17:12). It is from the 7th kingdom (NWO) that the 8th (the Antichrist, or Man of Sin) will arise from its midst.

We see that three different unsaved people pressured Peter to take sides. They recognized him and insisted that Peter was one of Jesus' disciples. Peter was scared and all three times vehemently denied knowing Jesus, even cursing the dear Lord's name. That is what public pressure can do to a person!!!

Likewise, Chris Pratt is under fire right now because he professes faith in Jesus Christ. In response he has attempted to defend himself. Chris has denied being religious, trying to distance himself from organized religion. [7]The wicked world is putting on the heat! This is what the Devil and his children do, refusing to allow anyone to straddle the fence. With Satan you're either in or out, there is no middle ground. Actor after actor in Hollywood has been put in the hot-seat, with ungodly liberals and the evil LGBTQ community demanding to know where they stand on the social issues of abortion, homosexuality, gun control, gender change, critical theory, illegal aliens, child discipline, feminism, et cetera.

But dear reader, God also puts the pressure on. A godly preacher will give an invitation at the end of his sermon, putting the pressure on for people to take the next step. God never intended for church to become a time of entertainment, fun and social engineering. Most churches today are pathetic, because today's pastors have bad attitudes, making every excuse imaginable for their laziness, incompetence and lack of spiritual vision for the church. I am so disgusted every time I visit another church, seeing a ton of problems. I don't go looking for weakness, faults and shortcomings in churches and pastors, but it's kind of like watching the debris after a deadly train wreck (you cannot help but see the horrific disaster).

In our text Scripture from Revelation 3:15-16, God pressured the church of Laodicea to repent (think differently). The Lord said He vomited them out because they were LUKEWARM. God wants every believer, church and pastor to be HOT or COLD, because He hates LUKEWARM. God is telling us that He has more respect for an honest person, who admits that they just don't care and choose to be COLD; than He does for some two-faced [8]Harvey Dent type of shady character, who cannot make up his twisted mind. Most churchgoers today are a trainwreck in progress, and their pastor is the reckless train engineer who ran the train off the bridge. The average church today is headed for [9]Casandra's Crossing!!! (a 1976 deadly disaster movie about a train that crashes fiery down into a deep valley)...

’Cassandra’s Crossing’ Movie Represents Average Baptist Church Today!

I am so sick and tired of hearing woefully ignorant preachers tell people to repent “OF YOUR SINS,” when no such phrase or teaching is found in the inspired King James Bible. What is wrong with today’s stupid pastors? Hey, I didn’t add to the Word of God, they did! Proverbs 30:5-6, “Every word of God is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him. Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar.” When your pastor says you must repent

“OF YOUR SINS” to receive God’s free gift of eternal life, he DIDN’T get that from the Holy Bible, he got it from other corrupt preachers. But please don’t take my word for it, “ SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES

” for yourself as Jesus commanded in John 5:39a. I triple-dog dare you to show me

“OF YOUR SINS” in the inspired Word of God.

Repentance is simply *a change of mind (*Greek noun: metanoia), where a lost sinner realizes that he is a guilty sinner in the sight of a holy God, so that seeing his need he turns to Jesus Christ by faith to be saved (Galatians 3:24-26). Why do humans always complicate things? It is because our very carnal sin nature compels us to add human effort to God’s grace. But to do so is a counterfeit plan of salvation, which cannot produce the new birth. Satan’s greatest weapon is to con people into living the Chrisdtian life without ever being born-again.

This is the great danger of churches like the Zoe Church in Los Angeles. Their damnable false plan of salvation is centered in man’s following Jesus as Supreme “ of one’s life, and repenting (turning) away from your sinful ways. This is partial faith in Christ plus WORKS!!! Nowhere on their website does the Zoe Church preach the Gospel. Instead, they are preaching false religion, Lordship Salvation and misunderstood repentance. If this seems like a small matter to you friend, or splitting of theological hairs, then I am worried about your salvation as well. RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!!

In the Bible we see where Satan’s crowd pressured Peter to deny Christ, or risk being killed if he proclaimed the name of Jesus. Likewise, we see in the Bible where God’s prophet, Joshua, pressured the people to choose sides. Also, the godly prophet Elijah, pressured the people to make a choice! But they answered Elijah not a word the Bible says (1st Kings 18:21). No one can go through life and escape making a choice for God or Satan! Whether you want to or not, we all eventually choose up sides. I am on the side of the Lord Jesus Christ!!!

3.7.1 The Circus Is Coming To Town (Coming to an apostate Baptist Church near you!) (2022-07-03 04:19)

Acts 19:32, “Some therefore cried one thing, and some another: for the assembly was confused; and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together.”

Please [2]CLICK HERE to hear the accompanying circus music.

Step right up folks! Come one, come all, take your pick... will it be the Easy-To-Read Version (ERV)? Or how about the New International Version (NIV)? Will it be the English Standard Version (ESV)? Perhaps you'd like the Revised Standard Version (RSV)? How about you lad, will it be the King James Bible (KJB)? No Sir, you look like you'd prefer the American Standard Version (ASV)? And for you fine lady, how about a Living Bible (LB)? Step right up ladies and gentleman, get your Bibles right here, take your pick from the clown preachers in apostate churches today! The American Bible Society allows you to search 582 different Bible versions on their website. [3]According to the American Bible Society there are now approximately 900 English Bible versions!!! Can you [4]hear the Devil laughing? Satan is the author of confusion, not God (1st Corinthians 14:33).

How about you young man, would you like the Bible version, Good News For Modern Man (GNT)? Or perhaps you'd prefer the New Century Translation (NCT). Ah, I see, you want the New Living Translation (NLT). And you little lady, you must want the New King James Version (NKJV). And you dear Sir, will it be the New Revised Standard Version (NRSV)? Or perhaps you'd enjoy The Message (MSG)? How about you Sir, will it be the Modern English Version (MEV)? Now there's a fine looking family, could I interest you folks in the New Life Version (NLV) or the Lexham English Bible (LEB)? Dear sweet lady, you look like you'd love the Young's Literal Translation (YLT). Step right up, step right up ladies and gentleman, get your Bibles right here, take your pick from the clown preachers in apostate circus churches today! Beware of today's [5]Cotton Candy Religion!

And you fine Sir, you might be interested in the Amplified Bible (AMP) or the Holman Christian Standard Bible (HCSB). And you Ma'am, perhaps you'd be interested in the New American Standard Bible (NASB)? Hey, how about the new gender-neutral Christian Standard Bible (CSB). Yes Ma'am, the Devil has a Bible version just for you! Ah yes, isn't it great to have choices as free Americans! Yes, yes, we Americans with all our higher religious institutions of intellectualism and advanced ecclesiastical training and theological learning. Aren't we so knowledgeable? I tell you truthfully, they cannot tell their head from their rear-end! What a bunch of confused stooges! If your pastor goes along with this satanic circus of umpteen Bible versions, he's either a big coward, only cares about making a living or is woefully ignorant. Either way he is betraying the Lord Jesus Christ, Who is the WORD OF GOD (John 1:1-3,14; Revelation 19:13).

A man with two watches never really knows what time it is;

And a man with two Bibles never really knows what the Word of God is!!!

The Shameful Harvest Baptist Church on Guam

Sadly, Harvest Baptist Church located on Guam (in the Micronesian island chain) promote the mess I just mentioned. They are a house divided. For telling these truths I was forced out of their church in 2014 (where I had faithfully attended for one year). After I reluctantly left the church in tears and sorrow, I had nowhere else to go. I became very lonely. I had lost the only church family that I knew. In desperation for a church family, I actually tried to return to Harvest in 2017, in humility and love, promising them I wouldn't cause any trouble. Unfortunately, there's no second chances at Harvest Baptist Church!!! They preach about a love and forgiveness that they DON'T practice. They talk the talk, but they don't walk the walk! Their pastor's exact cold-hearted words to me by e-mail were "go elsewhere." A hurting dog barks!

Harvest Baptist Church (HBC) called Dr. Jack Hyles and me "a cult" for exposing the Alexandrian Bible perversions! No, [6]HBC is the Alexandrian cult! Cults need to be exposed, just like the cults of Jehovah's Witness and Seventh-day Adventism! This is the apostate Bob Jones University crowd at HBC! Harvest Baptist Church on Guam officially use two different Bibles: The [7]Easy-To-Read Version (ERV) to misinterpret the King James Bible. That's like using a comic book to understand Shakespeare's poetry! Unreal! Harvest is so messed up spiritually, so much that they refuse to listen to reason from a friend (me) who lovingly tried to help them SEE THE TRUTH!!! Psalms 109:4-5, " For my love they are my adversaries: but I give myself unto prayer.

And they have rewarded me evil for good, and hatred for my love."

Ironically, I heard Evangelist Tom Ferrell preach a sermon at Harvest Baptist Church a few years ago. I heard the sermon over Harvest's worldwide KHMG radio station on Guam at 88.1 FM. Dr. Ferrell said, and I quote: "A friend helps a friend to see!" Ha-ha! Ha-ha! What a joke! Yea, I dare Dr. Ferrell to try to tell a bunch of spoiled brat Bob Jones' graduates THE TRUTH about the [8]Alexandrian Bible perversions from the Devil. They WON'T LISTEN!!! Ah, but I was still A FRIEND; a friend that the senior pastor (Marty Herron) of Harvest called an "enemy" in 2017. I consider that insult a badge of honor, that I may be considered a fool for the cause of Jesus Christ. So now I am counted as their enemy because I have told them THE TRUTH! Galatians 4:16, "Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?" Oh, for the blessed Judgment Seat of Christ!!! Somebody needs to care, and I do!

> [10]BATTLE OF THE AGES (MP3 by Dr. Hyles, "The King James Bible crowd is going to come out on top!")

I tried my best to help them see the truth at HBC, and have sincerely prayed often for them, all to no avail it seems, and for the next seven years on Guam I had no church to attend. It is very unchristian and wrong to tell a person who has attended your church for a year to: "Go somewhere else because we don't want you anymore!" In fact, that is wicked!!! What do you expect from a bunch of yuppie snobs from Bob Jones University?

Sadly, Pensacola Christian College (PCC) is no better when it comes to forgiveness and second chances. Pastor Jeff Redlin of PCC's Campus Church refuses to allow me to attend their Campus Church as of 2022. I wrote him a sweet apologetic e-mail for anything I had done to offend him, and pleaded for his forgiveness and just to allow me to attend Campus Church again. But Pastor Redlin is angry at me for calling him out on Thursday, July 22, 2021 for corrupting the Bible.

At Campus Church their errantly official position (as taught in their Foundation's Class to all new church members) that, and I quote: "Repentance is a change of mind resulting in a change of behavior." In fact, there is no such perverse teaching in the inspired King James Bible. It is very wicked to add words to what God said (and didn't say). Proverbs 30:5-6 warn against adding to God's word, lest thou be found a LIAR!!! If God wanted repentance to mean (or infer) more than a simple change of mind (Greek noun: metanoia), then He could and would have used a different Greek word (and there are numerous available to be very specific). Oh how I wish preachers would just leave the Bible alone, and let it speak for itself.

And don't kid yourself, tragically Bob Jones University (BJU) sanctions and supports Dr. John MacArthur, Mr. Calvinist himself, who is an alumni at BJU! Galatians 4:16, "Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?" Calvinism is of the Devil! The Bible teaches that FAITH IS WITHOUT WORK, not as Calvinism errantly teaches that FAITH WILL WORK. No, sometimes faith doesn't work, which is why the Apostle James called it DEAD FAITH in James 2:17-21. But a dead faith is still faith!!! That is, a person may live like the Devil in this earthly life, but if they have ever been saved, they still and always will be saved by GOD'S GRACE (Romans 5:20). Romans 6:1, " What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound?"

The Harvest Baptist Church (HBC) openly promotes [11]reprobate Dr. John MacArthur, passing out his study materials to poison their congregation, [12]victimizing them with MacArthur's 5-point Calvinist views. HBC promote [13]MacArthur's Predestination Cult! They are LUKEWARM for God! Sadly, I know from firsthand interviews with several of Harvest's staff members that some of them are NOT born-again, because they think [14]more is required to be saved than to simply acknowledge one's sinnership and believe the Gospel.

[16]New Evangelical (by Dr. Jack Hyles)

Satan tries to redefine the term "radical"

There's a Different Plan of Salvation for Everybody, Right?

Kindly, many churches today have Bozo clowns for pastors! I know a Baptist church that promotes Ray Comfort, Paul Washer, John MacArthur, Billy Graham, Ravi Zacharias and other apostates. All of these men teach different plans of salvation, as I will show you. Take your pick at a church circus near you!

Step right up folks! Come one, come all, take your pick... which plan of salvation is for you? Will it be Pastor John MacArthur's plan of salvation? . . .

> "Don't believe anyone who says it's easy to become a Christian. Salvation for sinners cost God His own Son; it cost God's Son His life, and it'll cost you the same thing..."
>
> SOURCE: [17]Dr. John MacArthur, Grace To You, an updated quote from his book 'Hard To Believe', page 93.

Or perhaps you'd like to believe Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary's plan of salvation:

> "Faith is the acceptance of Jesus Christ and commitment of the entire personality to Him as Lord and Savior."
>
> SOURCE: [18]Man's Need for Salvation - Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary

Then again, maybe you'd prefer Evangelist Paul Washer's plan of salvation:

> "Because when God moves, and particularly when God moves to save, there is repentance. Now what is repentance? The word means to change. Let me ask you a question ... Have you changed?"
>
> SOURCE: [19]Repent and Believe, Part 4 - Heart Cry Missionary

And you fine Sir, will it be Evangelist Ray Comfort's plan of salvation:

> "These are perhaps the most frightening verses in the Bible. Vast multitudes of professing Christians fit into the category spoken of here. They call Jesus 'Lord,' but they practice lawlessness. They profess faith in Jesus, but have no regard for the divine law. They tell 'fibs' or 'white' lies, take things that belong to others, have a roaming eye for the opposite sex, etc. They are liars, thieves, and adulterers at heart, who will be cast from the gates of heaven into the jaws of hell."
> SOURCE: THE EVIDENCE BIBLE, Matthew 7:22-23, by Ray Comfort, pg. 1197; 2003, Bridge-Logos Publishers, Orlando, Florida

How about you Dear Lady, could I interest you in Evangelist Billy Graham's plan of salvation:

> "We ask people to make a public confession of Christ in our meetings because Christ demanded a definite commitment. Christ had reasons for demanding that people openly follow Him. He knew that an unwitnessed vow is no vow at all. Until you have surrendered to Christ by a definite act of your will, you are not a Christian."
> SOURCE: [20]How to Be Sure You're Saved | Decision Magazine | BGEA

Every single one of the excerpts from the plans of salvation that I just gave you included HUMAN EFFORT to be saved. None of these are what the Bible teaches. Billy Graham requires making public confession and fully surrendering one's self to Christ to be saved. In sharp contrast, eternal life is a free gift that cannot be merited or earned. Salvation is not a reward for serving God.

Paul Washer errantly teaches that you have to change to be saved. That is not Biblical. Washer probably [21]gets this garbage theology from the new corrupt Bible versions.

For example: Here is Hebrews 6:1 in the beloved, correct, King James Bible . . .

> KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) — Hebrews 6:1, "Therefore leaving the principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on unto perfection; not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith toward God." [emphasis added]

Now here is the corrupted "Easy-To-Read Version" (ERV) of the Bible . . .

> EASY-TO-READ VERSION (ERV) — "So we should be finished with the beginning lessons about Christ. We should not have to keep going back to where we started. We began our new life by turning away from the evil we did in the past and by believing in God." [emphasis added]

Do you see how the new corrupt Bible versions are horribly changing theology in the churches? The King James Bible teaches that we must repent from our [22]DEAD WORKS to be saved; but the ERV teaches that we must stop living a life of deliberate sin (evil) to be saved. The Alexandrian Greek is of the Devil, teaching a works-based plan of salvation. Please understand dear reader that "DEAD WORKS" includes both good works and bad works. Roman Catholics teach that you must do good works to be saved; Lordship Salvationists (like Ray Comfort and John MacArthur) teach you must stop doing bad works to be saved. Either way, they both require what the Bible calls, "DEAD WORKS"! They are "DEAD" because they cannot redeem you from the penalty of sin under the curse of the law. [23]YOU NEED A SAVIOR!!!

The Greek word for "repent" in Mark 1:15 in the King James Bible is metanoeo, which means, "to think differently." It is a change of mind. It DOESN'T mean to "change your hearts and lives," which is what the corrupt ERV says!!! . . .

KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) — Mark 1:15, "And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel." [emphasis added]

EASY-TO-READ VERSION (ERV) — Mark 1:15, "He said, "The right time is now here. God's kingdom is very near. Change your hearts and lives, and believe the Good News!" [emphasis added]

That is wrong, wrong, wrong! You don't have to change your own life as a requirement to be saved. Rather, it is the indwelling Holy Spirit that comes to live inside the body of a person at the time of salvation. It is the Holy Spirit Who changes one's heart and life. Paul Washer, Ray Comfort and John MacArthur mandate changing one's life as a pre-requisite to saving faith, which is exactly what today's [24]Luciferian false Bible versions teach.

Now here is the Biblical Gospel, by which if you BELIEVE, you are immediately and forever saved:

1st Corinthians 15:1-4, "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures."

As you can see, the Bible's plan of salvation is very different than all the other junk I quoted to you from today's religious great ones.

Woe unto the churches who are shepherded by blind pastors leading the blind! [25]Lucifer-worshipping occultists have infiltrated the churches with their Masonic Bible versions, which all [26]change or remove key theological words and [27]doctrines in order to further the goal of Theosophists and New Agers to "[28]spiritualize the churches." Once the apostate churches have been weakened by confusion through the introduction of hundreds of Bible versions, and corrupted by them, they will literally follow the Antichrist when he comes. THE CHURCH (the true New Testament Church) will be CAUGHT UP (1st Thessalonians 4:17) and raptured from out of the world just BEFORE the man of sin, the Beast, appears. I dare say that 97 % of the churches will be left behind at the Rapture, because they will all have been corrupted by Satan—trusting in some false plan of salvation, as taught by some false prophet, from a false Bible version.

If this webpage article that I've written offends you... AWESOME!!! I say that because I love you in the Lord and somebody needs to cry "WOLF!" The average church today (which sadly includes most Baptist churches) are a big 3-ring circus, where all the members are juggling umpteen Bible versions.

Promoting Multiple Bibles Confuses People

Many churches are using a comparative side-by-side edition of the Bible, with the King James Bible (KJB) in one column and some corrupt version in the other column. Talk about confusing! So if you open their nightmare edition to Isaiah 14:12, the KJB contains the name of "Lucifer" (the only mention of the word in the Bible), but most modern PERversions do not. My friend, if it were not for the accurate King James Bible, all those church members would be as lost as a goose-in-a-caboose! So if you didn't have a King James Bible, you'd never learn about Lucifer.

If you look in the comparative side-by-side Bible, the accurate KJB says "Easter" in Acts 12:4, but the contaminated modern versions say "Passover." Talk about confusion!!! The KJB and modern versions cannot both be right folks! Somebody is wrong! All the modern versions are translated from the Alexandrian texts. All together now congregation, let's sing... "Da da 'da da danta danta da da." Again, "Da da 'da da danta danta da da." Let's sing like a church who loves the new Bibles... "Da da 'da da danta danta da da!"

Please [29]CLICK HERE to hear the accompanying circus music.

There is Only One Plan of Salvation, Not Dozens

Many religious leaders won't take a stand against heresy. They are OK with all the different variations of the plan of salvation and don't see a theological problem, but THERE IS A BIG PROBLEM!!! Folks, either you have to stop living a life of sinful partying to be saved, or you do not; but it cannot be both. I am not saying that it is OK to live in sin, nor am I saying that God gives anyone permission to continue in sin; but the fact is that NO ONE can repent of all their sins. Biblical repentance is a change of mind, not a change of life.

I don't claim to know everything, but God does. The Lord authored the Holy Bible to instruct us. The Scriptures plainly warn against corrupting the simplicity that is in Christ. There is only ONE Savior, and there is only ONE Holy Bible. The claim that there is no perfect Bible today is false. The King James Bible is the ONLY good Bible! If you buy into the lie of the ever-changing modern Bible versions, then you deserve all that is coming to you. I am your friend, trying to prevent you from being misled by Satan.

There is only ONE plan of salvation, which is to BELIEVE the Gospel. Repentance is changing your mind, realizing that you are a guilty sinner in God's eyes. Romans 3:19, "Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God." If you realize that you are a guilty sinner in God's eyes, and believe the Gospel of Christ's death on the cross for your sins, was buried and raised-up three days later, you are saved (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). This is what the Holy Bible teaches. Anybody who adds anything to this is teaching a false plan of salvation. If anybody tells you that it is not enough to merely admit that you are a sinner to be saved; but also, they say that you must turn away from committing those sins, they are teaching a false plan of salvation!

Eternal life is a free gift, which means you just TAKE IT. We are saved by Christ's imputed righteousness, and not by any self-righteousness of our own. God rejected Adam's fig-leaf religion, and He will reject yours too. God rejected Cain's grain offering, and He will also reject your Lordship Salvation. But hey, knock yourself out, we'll see in eternity who was right, you or the Word of God in the Holy Bible. I am saved because I realized that I was a sinner and I placed my truth in the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ. It's that simple to be saved. John 6:28-29, "Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent."

The Mainstream Evangelical Ocean Cruise... All Aboard!

I picture nearly all of today's churches as being aboard a big ship. On the side of the ship it reads, "Mainstream Evangelicalism!" There are hundreds of Bible versions aboard the ship. There are dozens of different plans of salvation taught by evangelicals like John MacArthur, Rick Warren, Chip Ingram, Ray Comfort, William Lane Craig, Paul Washer, Billy Graham and others onboard. Everybody aboard the ship is going along to get along. Nobody exposes or criticizes each other. Everybody is comfortable, enjoying all the splendors of the luxury ship. They all draw near to God with their mouths, and honor God with their lips, but their heart is far from Him, teaching manmade doctrines. This ship's captain is Lucifer! Anything goes on Lucifer's ship. It doesn't matter which Bible version you use. It doesn't matter which plan of salvation that you choose to believe. Everybody is taken care of and prospering.

What is our nation turning into when [30]AWAB (a LGBT gay-rights group) are infiltrating our churches. When the American Baptist Convention USA (ABCUSA) joined together with AWAB, 300 member churches of their 5,400 member church convention resigned. Amen! I'm shocked that 5,100 member churches stayed!!! Apostasy is everywhere today. The time is soon coming when born-again Christians will either be forced to gather in secret places or in private homes once again. The churches are becoming entertainment centers. It's a big joke! It's all becoming a big circus. Hundreds of Bible versions. Dozens of plans of salvation. Have you noticed that the more that you move toward ecumenism, the more there is chaos and nothing really matters anymore doctrinally or morally.

Sadly, instead of being fishers of men, most of our churches are aquarium keepers. From the far-right Christian position, you've got only ONE BOOK, the King James Bible. You've only got one plan of salvation, which simply says any admitted sinner can believe the Gospel and be immediately and securely saved forever.

3.7.2 My Notes From Dr. Al Lacy's King James Bible Seminar (2022-07-03 10:06)

Psalms 138:2, "I will worship toward thy holy temple, and praise thy name for thy lovingkindness and for thy truth: for thou hast magnified thy word above all thy name."

I attended a King James Bible seminar taught by Pastor Al Lacy (1933-2016) on July 27-31, 1992 at Hyles-Anderson College. It was one of my most cherished and memorable memories. I was privileged to meet Pastor Gayle Russ and his son from Evansville, Indiana, at the event. What a blessing! I took diligent notes. I found my old notes while looking through a box of old things this week. My heart leaped when I found the note pad. So here are my notes from the King James Bible seminar. I pray they will be as much a blessing to you as they still are to me. (By the way, you are welcomed to copy these notes and paste them elsewhere on the internet, as I want this information to get out to everyone.)

King James Bible 1611

> Psalms 138:2, "I will worship toward thy holy temple, and praise thy name for thy lovingkindness and for thy truth: for thou hast magnified thy word above all thy name."
> Matthew 4:4, "But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God."

> Jude 1:3, "Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints."

"contend for the faith," the Lord says.

We face three great battles today:

- BOOK
- BLOOD
- BLESSED HOPE

Psalm 1 (7 words for God's Word)

- word
- law
- judgments
- testimonies
- statutes
- precepts
- His way

Psalms 1:1 - "counsel of the ungodly" (kind of like the National Council Of Churches)

The battle over the Bible really got started in 1975.

Psalms 1:1 . . .

- walk
- stand
- sit

Luke 22:31-34, 54-55 - Peter walked with the ungodly "afar off" (verse 54), he stood by the fire (verse 55) and sat down (verse 55).

There can only be one Bible if God is not the author of confusion.

In Job's time, there was no written Word.

Job 11:7-8 - "canst thou find God by searching?" - No, you can't!

SIX CATEGORIES OF MANKIND (Every adult man and woman falls into one of the following categories):

- THEIST - A belief in one God. Good Theist - believes God has revealed Himself to man in writing, and we still have a preserved Book!

    *Bad theist - believes God has revealed Himself to man in writing, but since those written parchments have crumbled, we don't have God's Word.

- DEIST -

  There is an intelligent God, but He can't be known, so why go to church, pray, et cetera? No resurrection. Basic humanism.

  > *I'm a cracked nut, praise God! The shell of humanism was cracked by the Word of God. Humanism is the nut.

- PANTHEISM - Everything is God—rats, mice, man, et cetera. God is nature and nature is God. This is the New Age Movement.
- AGNOSTIC - "I don't know," he says. Is there a God?
- ATHEIST - No good, a fool because he believes in no God! Madelyn Murray O'Hare lives in Austin, Texas, today (a very hated woman that has spent her life telling people that there is no God. She rides a bicycle because no one will sell the fat slob any gas. She has vowed to spend her life destroying what does not exist!).
- POLYTHEIST - There are many Gods.

MAN SEEKS GOD IN FIVE BASIC PLACES (or among):

- Heavens (You can see His handiwork only)
- Earth
- Sea (The water is higher than the land; yet doesn't flood)
- Nature (animal kingdom)
- Man (no two faces, retinas, fingerprints or voices are alike)

Is God here? "canst thou find God by searching?" No! Question then: Can I know God. Answer: Yes!

You can know Jesus!

> John 17:3, "And this is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent."

You can know you're saved!

> 1st John 5:13, "These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God."

THREE UNIVERSAL QUESTIONS OF MAN:

- Where did I come from? (Genesis 1:27; 5:1-2 - God created all men)

- Why am I here? (Revelation 4:11 - to please God)
- Where am I going? (Psalms 23:1-7 - “In the house of the Lord”)

*Revelation 21:8 - “the unbelieving” shall have their part in Hell!

If you’re lost, you’re not a sheep, but a goat. A sheep has a shepherd, a goat does not!

The King James Bible has 810,697 words.

Man’s heart (on the average) beats 4,800 times per hour; 115,000 times a day; 43,048,000 times a year; and 2,943,360,000 times in 70 years (not including any physical activity). Don’t tell me there’s no God!

Did your watch explode into a watch? Of course not! Then why should I believe the “BIG BANG” theory? We time our planned, carefully designed, watches by the stars. Don’t tell me you’re an atheist!

GOD SPEAKS TO MAN IN THREE WAY:

Audibly - (Genesis 2 - with His own voice)
Prophets - [Hebrews 1:1; Jeremiah 1 - “My words” (plural)]

God’s “Words” are inspired, not just the Word (Ezekiel 2:7 and 3:4 “words”; Isaiah 51:6 “words”).Writing - Scripture = God’s Words written down (Exodus 24:4; Matthew 2:5-6; Matthew 4:4; John 20:30-31; 1st John 5:13 “These things have I written unto you”; John 17).

Most Christian colleges today are infiltrated with satanic humanism.

Psalms 12:6-7 - God promises to preserve and keep His Words (“them” Who is “them”? Answer: His Words.

“thou shalt preserve them” Ok, if God promises to PRESERVE His Words, then is God a liar or a wimp not to mean what He said?

The bad theist (Neo) has called God a liar!

QUESTION: By what authority do you discredit the preservation of God’s Word? You can’t use any Scripture because you don’t believe it’s reliable.

THE ENEMY

II Corinthians - “we are not ignorant of his devices.”

Satan is a liar! - he told Eve “thou shalt not die,” but Genesis 5:5 shows us where Adam died.

God said he would die if he ate the forbidden fruit. Who lied? Satan!

Satan always starts his attack on a positive note. “Yea (or yes, positive) hath God said?” Watch out!

Two Types Of Questions:

1. An “asking question” (e.g., The rich young ruler - Mark 9:28-29; Mark 10:17).
2. A “telling (or saying) question,” which is no question at all, but is intended to deceive and cast doubt (e.g., “Yea, hath God said?,” but no question is asked; or Pilate questioning Jesus in John 18:37, “Pilate saith” - he didn’t ask - that’s why Jesus said, “Thou sayest it”).

> *The enemy uses this deceptive questioning to cast doubt! “Did God really say that?” It looks like a question, but it’s not! It’s a statement of disbelief!

*Two-thirds of today’s Christians want to fight over the King James issue; We’re in the one-third percent crowd! It’s a battle raging hot. If God communicates through His Word to man, and if man can only please God by knowing Him, and if man can only know God through His Word—Then mark it down, Satan hates the King James Bible!

*The King James Bible has been translated over and over and then translated into English by man, but God oversaw the entire process; hence, our King James Bible is either the perfect, infallible, incorruptible, inspired, preserved, holy Words of God almighty or else God is a liar (Psalms 12:6-7).

*South American natives will split the skin and use bamboo sticks to sew rocks into their body (wound). Why? They know sin must be paid for. They do it sincerely with tears in their eyes.

SEMINAR OUTLINE

- The Enemy
- The Troublemakers
- The Alexandrians
- The Translations
- The Inspiration (in-spirited)
- The Preservation
- The Perversions

*Notice how many times “ungodly” is mentioned in Jude!

I am to be looking for Jesus, not the Antichrist. I could give a flip who he is! The last thing I am told to look for in God’s Word is the blessed hope (Titus 2).

THE KING JAMES BIBLE

Matthew 4:4 - Satan can’t take more than three stabs. The Word of God is too powerful! He fled in Matthew 4. The Scriptures reveal Satan’s methods—he misquotes Scripture. Psalms 91:12 (Satan changes the Scripture)

“to keep thee in all thy ways” is left out in Matthew 4 - Satan wanted Jesus to forget being united with God’s Word.

John 8:29—Jesus always pleases God!

“lest at any time” was added in Matthew 4

Matthew 4:8 - Satan is persistent; he is good at some things, good for nothing! “again”

Satan always tries to come up with a better plan. An easy way out! He tried to convince Jesus in Matthew 4:9 that He could avoid the cross and still rule the earth. But, Satan overlooked one thing - “It is written,” “It is written” - The Scriptures!

Jesus showed us our means of defense against any attack, know The Scriptures!

If God can use man to give us the originals (perfect, infallible, et cetera), then God can use man to give us our modern day copy—The King James Bible.

Psalms 12:6-7 - “Thou,” “Thou” - It’s not man that preserves, it is God! To say that the Bible has not been preserved is to say either: God is a liar (or)
God was too puny to do what He promised.

No, man and Satan are the liars!

Isaiah 14:12-17 - Lucifer said “I will” five times.

Satan never wanted God’s holiness or God’s love, but God’s power. Satan (as man) wants power.

An imitator is a counterfeiter!

Satan has a son! What? Yes, turn to Genesis 3:15 - “thy seed”.

Two seeds are mentioned:

1. Woman’s seed (Jesus) - Man is born of man’s seed, not woman’s seed, but Jesus was born of a virgin.

2. Satan's seed (the son of perdition) - A literal body. Satan cannot produce a virgin birth, but he can produce a son. Satan's son will have all of Satan's power (In Revelation 13 his son is killed and then resurrected).

SATAN COUNTERFEITS:

- Jesus (Satan has a resurrection too - Revelation 13)
- Christians (wheat and tares)
- The Church (Catholic = Mother of Harlots/Protestants = The Harlots). Acts 26:16 - God calls preachers! Some Protestants could be saved, but Protestant = Harlotry.
- Preachers (II Corinthians 11:3-4, 14)

*There is another Jesus! Catholics, JW's, Mormons have a Jesus, but he is not real.

II Corinthians 11:14 - "therefore" means it is "there for a reason"

A Woman preacher may say that God has called her to preach; Yes, god with a small "g" (Satan - II Corinthians 4:4).Satan (Satan has his own Bible too! Psalms 68:11 - God has one true Bible! Psalms 68:11, "The Lord gave the word: great was the company of those that published it." "The Lord," "The Lord" "The company".

If there are counterfeit Bibles, then obviously there must be a real one.

To recognize counterfeit money, employees are told to study real money; hence, to recognize counterfeit Bibles, we need to study the real Word of God.

The Alexandrian people are our true enemies! They are usually sincere (II Corinthians 11:3-4 - These people were sincere).

The Devil is out to destroy you and your ministry.

THREE RESULTS OF EVE'S SIN

- The will of God is questioned
- The will of God is resisted
- The will of God is deserted

*A big crowd doesn't mean anything. John MacArthur may have 10,000 on Sunday, but the Pope can have 30,000,000 in 30 minutes! (numbers means nothing).

A 3-FOLD DOUBTING:

- Eve doubted God's veracity (that God says what He means and means what He says - Genesis 3:1)
- Eve doubted God's severity (Genesis 3:4-5)

- Eve doubted God's motives (Genesis 3:6 - Eve saw evil as good and doubted God)

*Satan knows that "Every effective lie has some truth in it" (This is why cults are so dangerous, they have truth mixed with error. This is why we must know God's Word).

If I were going to sell you a bushel of bad apples, I would put the good ones on the top. Am I smarter than Satan? No, Satan puts truth on top, with heresy down below!

I could feed you a delicious meal with just a few grams of arsenic and you wouldn't known it right away, but in one week you would be dead. This is what John MacArthur does! And Satan!

The New International Version (NIV) is truth wrapped around deadly lies!

Secular courts demand the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth.

GENESIS 3:4-5...

- God doeth know (Satan knows he's lying)
- Your eyes shall be opened
- You shall be as God's (this doesn't mean it'll be good)
- Knowing good and evil

*Psalms 82:1, "God standeth in the congregation of the mighty; he judgeth among the gods."

I John 2:16, "For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world." - Having your eyes opened is not always good!

Deuteronomy 1:35-39 - God said those who knew good and evil would not pass over Jordan.

Romans 4:15 and 5:12-14 - This is why children go to Heaven. They don't know good and evil yet. Knowing the difference condemns a man.

John 8:44 - Satan is a liar! He wants to take mankind to Hell with him (Revelation 20:10). Satan is a murderer (John 8:44).

Soulwinning is the remedy!

Psalms 19:7 - "The law of the Lord is perfect converting the soul" - If your word is not perfect, then you cannot be saved.

QUESTION: Does the Holy Spirit breathe on error? No, no, no! Then how can a man be saved out of an NIV or an ASV? If the Holy Spirit doesn't breathe, you can't get saved!

I Corinthians 13:8 - "prophecies"

Prophecy is not always "foretelling," but can also be "forth telling" (preaching)!

James 1:18 - “begat” (born-again) - If my Bible has one lie or error in it, then it’s not the Word of truth! How can I be born-again by a non-word-of-truth Bible? You can’t!

James 1:25 - “perfect” law of liberty.

I Peter 1:22-23 - “incorruptible seed” which liveth and abideth FOREVER!

What is incorruptible seed? ANSWER: The King James Bible! What is corruptible seed? ANSWER: The NIV, ASV, NAS, NKJV, et cetera.

You cannot be born-again by corruptible seed!

Luke 8:4-15 - “The seed is the Word of God” (verse 11) - If Satan works hard enough to remove the genuine seed of God from the lost man’s heart (verse 12), how much more would he rather take away the Word of God?

DO NOT USE A FALSE BIBLE AS A STUDY SOURCE! You can’t get help from Satan!

If a man professes salvation from a corrupt Bible, he’s a liar! You say, wait a minute; No, you wait a minute! God’s Word claims this to be so, not me. I Peter 1:22-23 - “born of incorruptible seed.”

I Kings 17:1-4 - “a man of God” - I Kings 18:17 “art thou he that troubleth Israel?”; Verse 18 - Not me pal, it’s you buddy and your whole family! You’re the troublemakers!

The Alexandrians believe in an inspired, inerrant, infallible, Word of God, but have never seen it and don’t have it - This they believe! What good is a phantom Bible?

Fundamentalists get blamed for today’s religious problems, but it is the Devil’s crowd (the Alexandrians).

Psalms 119:102 - “For thou hast taught me” (The Holy Spirit taught me that the Bible is God’s Word).

God does not deal in BEST, but in ONLY. Is the blood best? No, it’s the only method! Is Jesus the best Savior? No, he’s the only Savior! Is Paul’s Gospel the best? No, it’s the only Gospel! Is the King James Bible the best? No, it’s the only Holy Bible!

You cannot be gray, it’s black or white!

In 1953 the Revised Standard Version (RSV) came out and Baptist preachers burned it!

Then came the NASV (the New Standard Perversion). Then the Living Perversion. Then the NIV (with as its goal, to put the old archaic English King James Bible into modern day understandable English - WHAT A LIE! Why don’t we change or update Shakespeare? Why don’t we revise poetry?

In 1973 the NIV comes out!

Alexandrians don't get excited about their new translations, and they criticize the King James Bible (the real Bible).

Jerry Falwell said: "If you believe the King James Bible is infallible, you are a cultist."

II Timothy 4:3 - Modernists don't have sound doctrine; this verse refers to fundamentalists! People want teachers, not preachers! Do you hear Neo's preaching on Hell? No! Ask the lifestyle evangelist, "How many have you won?"

Nine of the Ten Commandments are negative. If your preaching is not mostly negative, you're not a Bible preacher! The only positive thing about Norman Vincent Peale is that he's a dork!

You depart from the faith when you get away from the Book!

II Timothy 4:1-4 - Watch out for Thomas Nelson Bibles! Do not buy one! His little footnotes try to correct the King James Bible! You can't trust Nelson Bibles!

The 7,000 Club (I Kings 17) - You are not alone!

We live by faith, walk by faith, die by faith, get saved by faith, et cetera! Hence, I "by faith" hold to the King James Bible! It's by faith! I don't need proof!

The King James Bible 1611 stopped the Dark Ages!

Only the USA (English speaking people) have sent out missionaries in recent centuries.

I expect God's Word to be above the language of the street.

If you can't define "thee" and "thou," you're ready for the Funny Farm anyway!

The King James Bible is written in beautiful Elizabethan English. Try to memorize the NIV and you'll flop. No one memorizes the NIV!

Every language goes up and up, plateaus out and then goes down hill. God gave us our King James Bible at the climax of the English language. Praise God! I'm a troublemaker!

THE ALEXANDRIANS

King James Bible (Received Text, Textus Receptus in Latin, or the Majority Text) - These texts were collected from Antioch, Syria.

All others (Vaticanus or Sinaiticus Text - Both came from Alexandria, Egypt - Also called the Minority Text).

Only the King James Bible 1611 is translated from the Antioch texts. Let's see what God thinks about Antioch and Alexandria.

ANTIOCH (Acts 6:1-7 - The first mention of Antioch. Only one man in this list has his home town mentioned, Antioch ("the Word of God" is mentioned). God deliberately points out that Nicolas came from Antioch. Acts 6:9 - "disputing with Stephen."

QUESTION: Who disputed with the man of God about the Word of God?

ANSWER: The Alexandrians! "false witnesses" (verse 13). Praise God in verse 10 - "they were not able to resist"!

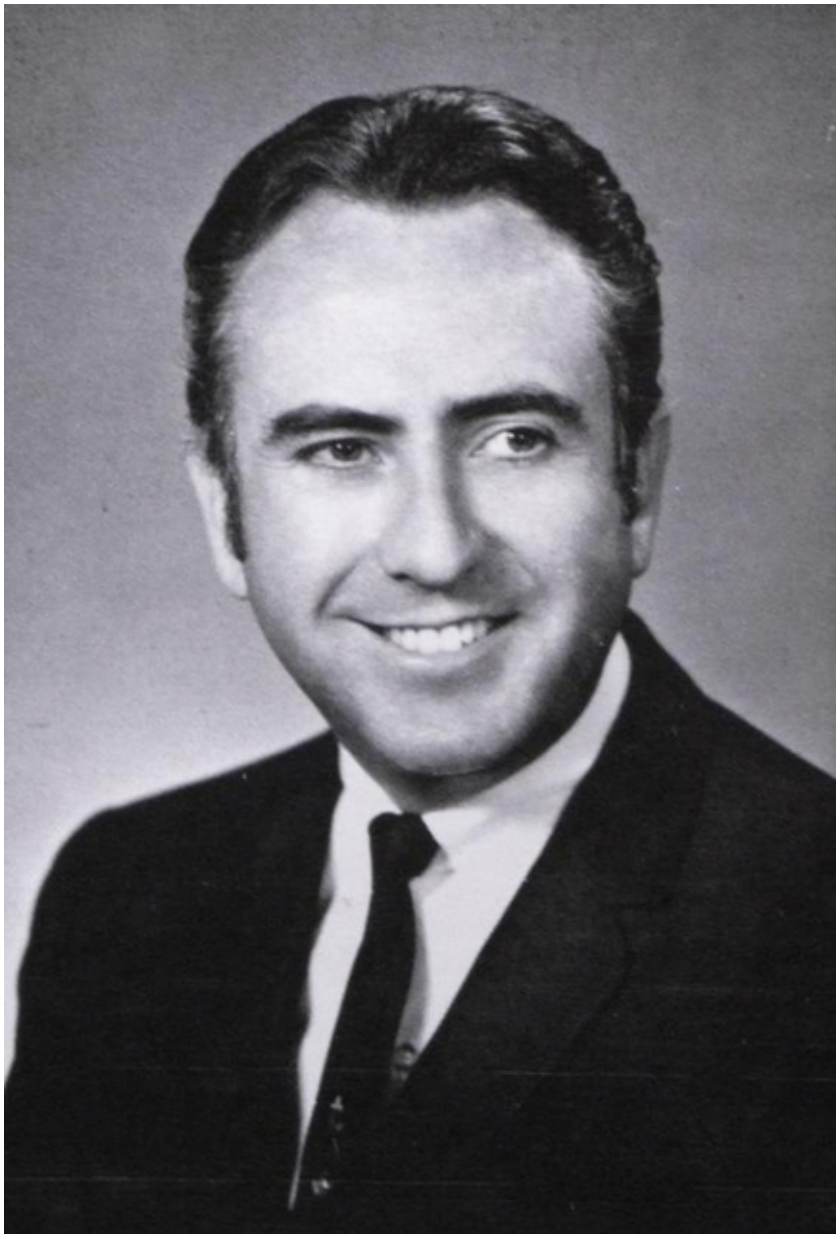
Verse 12 - "council" (like National or World Council)

Alexandrians are disputers! (Acts 6:9)

Acts 11:19-20 - "preaching the word" (The Word of God was preached at Antioch) - Verse 19 - The disciples travel to Antioch.

Verse 24 - Much people are added unto the Lord (saved).

Verse 26 - "the disciples were called Christians first in Antioch." Christian means "like Christ." The enemies saw Jesus like believers in Antioch and called them Christians.



Verse 27 - "in these days came prophets from Jerusalem unto Antioch"

Why don't you call yourselves something besides Baptist? Baptist isn't in the Bible. Dummy, if God put the name "Baptist" on the local New Testament Church—the Pope, JW's and Mormons would all call themselves Baptists. They've done it with the term "Christian"! Baptist is in the Bible. Matthew 3:1 - "John the Baptist" (capital B).

You're not a painter until you paint. You're not a truck driver until you drive. John hadn't baptized anyone yet in Matthew 3:1, yet John is called a "Baptist." But you say, "I can't get that out of the Bible!" You're right, you never will! Jesus was baptized by a Baptist. Yeah, Baptist! Acts 1:20-21 - All of the Disciples were baptized by John the Baptist.

Mary was a Baptist - Wait until the Catholics find out they've been praying to a Baptist!

"John the baptizer" - Some claim this is the proper translation, but it's not.

(April 23, 1933 - June 26, 2016)

Dr. Al Lacy’s Biography

In April 1961, Dr. Al Lacy was ordained by Fellowship Baptist Temple in Littleton, Colorado. After his ordination, he was sent out to start a new church in Denver, Colorado. In that same month, Denver Baptist Temple was founded with seventeen people meeting in a public school building. From this humble beginning, the Lacys moved to a two-story house that was located on four acres of property. The church used the home’s three-car garage as the auditorium, and nearly every room in the house was used for Sunday School.

By 1966, Denver Baptist Temple was running over five hundred in attendance. The church built a new building with an eight hundred seat auditorium, including classrooms and offices. With hundreds being saved and baptized, Denver Baptist Temple became the fastest-growing church in the Rocky Mountain region. By 1969, a 1,800 seat auditorium was built, along with classrooms and offices to meet the needs of the growing church. In that same year, the church founded the Temple Baptist Bible College with Dr. Lacy as its president. In April of 1972, the church was running over 1,600. However, Dr. Al Lacy decided to answer God's definite call to full-time evangelism.

Since entering the field of evangelism. Dr. Lacy has preached the Word of God all over the United States and in twenty-eight foreign countries. In his thirty-six years of evangelism, he has flown over 2.5 million miles on commercial airlines. He has kept records of the souls who have come to the Lord for salvation in his meetings and whom he has led to Christ personally. Together, these numbers total to just over 95,000 people. In the past thirty years, Dr. Lacy has become known for his strong stand on the King James Bible. END

3.7.3 Why Most Christians Are Not Prospering (2022-07-06 09:31)

Proverbs 28:13, "He that covereth his sins shall not prosper: but whoso confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy."

Most believers have never come face-to-face with their sins. They've never truly been broken. Many Christians think they know what suffering means, but they really don't. Many Christians think they know what it means to be humble, but they haven't a clue. Very few believers understand just how sinful they are. They fail to grasp the depths of their own failures, inadequacy and wickedness. Consequently, they have never truly grasped the richness of God's love, mercy and grace.

The Word of God teaches that a person who covers their sins shall not prosper. Until a person looks directly at them self in the mirror and says, "I am the biggest sinner I know," they'll never be what God wants them to become. Most believers have not been molded into Christ's meek and lowly image yet. Instead they are sinfully proud, thin-skinned, easily offended and haughty. They hold grudges, gossip often and many are dishonest, defrauding others, while rationalizing to justify it in their own sinful mind. Very few believers are mature in Christ. A mature Christian loves everybody, including enemies, critics and those who refuse to apologize and acknowledge their past wrongs.

Dr. Jack Hyles explains it in different words, in this wonderful MP3 sermon titled, "[1]The Good Man Verses The Spiritual Man." In case anyone is interested, there is a higher level in the Christian life which God wants all of us to graduate to.

If someone has hurt you in the past, and they have not righted their wrongs, we must always keep in mind that vengeance is God's department, not ours:

> Romans 12:17-21, "Recompense to no man evil for evil. Provide things honest in the sight of all men. If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men. Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord. Therefore if thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink: for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head. Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good."

I heard a wonderful MP3 sermon recently on this very subject by Dr. Jack Hyles, titled "[2]Either Let Me Do It God, Or Do It My Way!" I encourage you to take the time to listen to this precious sermon, you won't regret it. To seek vengeance is to get over on God's side of the wall, instead of remaining on our side of the wall where we belong. I believe one of the reasons why God wants to avenge us, is because He has complete knowledge of all the facts. There is no need for juries in Heaven's courtroom, because God has all the facts.

God is omniscient and knows all (Hebrews 4:13). God's integrity is at stake. He has given a solemn promise to right all wrongs, and to avenge us! Life is too short to live with a burden of hatred against anyone. Forgiveness is for us to heal, not for the person who hurt us—The person who doesn't care about doing right in God's eyes. We must forgive if we are to serve God effectively.

Here is a precious great statement from Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001):

> "If folks don't forgive you, you go ahead and forgive them!" —a quote from the excellent MP3 sermon by Dr. Jack Hyles, [3]Green, Ripe Or Rotten?

Believers Will Receive for the Good and the Bad, Not Their Sins

I cannot control what other people do. I cannot control what other believers do. If they hurt me, better them hurt me than me hurt them. That is how I feel. I would rather someone else have to give account on Judgment Day for hurting and defrauding me, than me have to give account for hurting them. I can live with that! I fear God; thus, I choose to live in such a way that I know things will go in my favor at the Judgment Seat Of Christ. That is exactly what 2nd Corinthians 5:9-11 means:

> 2nd Corinthians 5:9-11, “Wherefore we labour, that, whether present or absent, we may be accepted of him. For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad. Knowing therefore the terror of the Lord, we persuade men; but we are made manifest unto God; and I trust also are made manifest in your consciences.”

I have heard some Baptist preachers errantly teach that when a person gets saved, they will never have to give account for any of their sins, because all those sins have been forgotten. That is true in a sense, but not entirely true in another. While it is true that God will not punish a Christian in eternity for their sins, the Holy Bible does teach that each believer will receive for the good and the bad done in the body. I love how God carefully chooses His words in the Bible. God intentionally didn’t say that believers will one day receive according to their “sins”; but rather, according “the bad” done in the body.

The blood of Jesus Christ that washes our sins away has removed the sting of death. The sting of death is sin, because the wages of sin is death (1st Corinthians 15:56; Romans 6:23). No born-again believer ever needs to fear the second death. We must all die the first death (Romans 6:23), but the sting of death is gone, so we don’t have to die the second death (Revelation 21:8).

No Christian needs to fear dying, for it is just a graduation into the next life. The Bible does not teach soul sleep. “Soul sleep” is the heresy that when a person dies, their body and soul are asleep in the grave, until the resurrection. Seventh-day Adventists believe that the unsaved will simply not be raised up, which they consider hell. This is not what the Holy Bible teaches. We read that for a believer to be absent from the body is to present with the Lord:

> 2nd Corinthians 5:6-9, “Therefore we are always confident, knowing that, whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord: (For we walk by faith, not by sight:) We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord. Wherefore we labour, that, whether present or absent, we may be accepted of him.”

The Lord took our burden of sin upon Himself on the cross, paying our debt of sin. Yet, every believer’s life will be relived (aka, “This was your life”) at the Judgment Seat of Christ, and we will receive or lose rewards based upon our labours and behavior (1st Corinthians 3:6-15).

A Christian’s Happiness in Heaven Depends On How He Lived On Earth

The Bible makes clear that not all believers will enjoy Heaven the same. I have a helpful 128 page book in front of me by Evangelist John R. Rice (1895-1980) titled, “WHEN A CHRISTIAN SINS.” Dr. Rice states:

> “Some people suppose that every sinner who goes to heaven will have the same joy and happiness. But that is not true. In Revelation 20, we find that sinners who go to hell are judged, every man according to his works, according to the things written down in God's books. The torment of unsaved people in hell will differ, each one according to his opportunity and according to his sin.

Likewise, the Bible makes it abundantly clear that not all Christians will enjoy the same position and have the same honor and responsibility and blessing in heaven. It is true that each one who trusts in Christ has the same salvation and goes to the same heaven. But beyond salvation there will be rewards for Christians according to their service, and Christians must give an account for their sins. Let no Christian think that he is getting by with his worldliness, his sin, his disobedience, his carelessness about soul-winning.

THE CHRISTIAN MUST MEET HIS DEEDS, GOOD AND BAD, AT CHRIST'S JUDGMENT SEAT

Read with me the shocking passage of Scripture in 2 Corinthians 5:9-10:

> Wherefore we labour, that, whether present or absent, we may be accepted of him. For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad.

Here we know why Paul worked so hard, why he endured such persecution, gave up home, family, good name, ease, honors, in order to win souls. He was laboring to be acceptable to Jesus Christ!

...Do not explain away the plain statements of the Scriptures. The Christian is still to come face to face with his past. I know that the Christian has his sins forgiven as far as the destiny of his soul is concerned. It is true that all his sins are laid on Jesus and paid for on the cross. But God is still against sin. And up in heaven no Christian will think it did not matter that he sinned. Every Christian will find how terrible are the results of his sins. He will face what he has done, whether it be good or bad.

....Do not confuse salvation and rewards. Salvation is free. Those who trust in Jesus Christ and are born again already have salvation. But those whose works please Christ will receive a reward for them when they face the dear Saviour in heaven.

But many, many Christians will see how useless their lives were. Not a soul did they win to meet them in heaven! Not a thing did they do to bring glory to Christ through the endless ages! Such people will suffer loss at the judgment seat of Christ in heaven."

SOURCE: Evangelist John R. Rice, When A Christian Sins, pp. 60-62, 65-66; Sword of the Lord Publishers; Copyright 1954.

Fruitless Christians will suffer great loss at the Judgment Seat of Christ. Dr. Rice further states:

FRUITLESS CHRISTIANS "WILL SUFFER" LOSS EVEN IN HEAVEN

At this judgment seat of Christ, when every Christ's works come to judgment, many Christians will see the deeds of a lifetime destroyed as worthless. This is discussed in 1 Corinthians 3:10-15:

> According to the grace of God which is given unto me, as a wise master-builder, I have laid the foundation, and another buildeth thereon. But let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon. For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ. Now if any man build > upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble; Every man's work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is. If any man's work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward. If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire.

The foundation is Jesus. No one need start to build a Christian life except after having Jesus Christ as his Saviour. But, having a new heart in Christ, let every man take heed he builds upon this foundation!

For up in heaven when Christians are judged before Jesus Christ, that building shall be revealed. ...At the judgment seat of Christ the fire of God's judgment will try every man's work of what sort it is."

SOURCE: Evangelist John R. Rice, When A Christian Sins, pp. 64-65; Sword of the Lord Publishers; Copyright 1954.

So we see that it does greatly matter how we choose to live as God's children. Our happiness in Heaven is at stake. There is so much that we can and should all be doing to serve the Lord as believers, especially preaching the Gospel to win the lost to Jesus...

"God doesn't need a brilliant mind, He needs a voice!" —Dr. Jack Hyles, [4]I Am A Voice! (MP3)

Civil Verses Criminal Court

I think a good way to understand the difference between the two judgments is to compare civil court verses criminal court. In criminal court, the accused person faces potential punishment in prison, torture or execution. But in civil court, the only risk is personal or financial loss. There is no risk of going to prison in civil court. Likewise, there are two major judgments taught in the Holy Bible. One is the Judgment Seat of Christ (2nd Corinthians 5:9-11). The other is the Great White Throne of Judgment (Revelation 20:11-15).

The former is only for the saved; the latter is for the unsaved. The Judgment Seat of Christ will be a civil court for all believers. We will RECEIVE according to our good and bad, not our sins. The Lord has already paid for our sins. Jesus doesn't forgive sins, he has already paid for them, making it a free gift, that you simply receive by faith in the Gospel. When a believers sins, grace much more abounds, so that a believer can never lose their salvation (Romans 6:1). When a believer chooses to commit sin, there are consequences, for which we will be held accountable on Judgment Day.

The Bible teaches that every believer must give account to God (Romans 14:10-12). We will receive... for the GOOD AND THE BAD DONE IN THE BODY! How we treat others will determine how God treats us on judgment day (Matthew 7:1-2). Thankfully, God is just, fair and merciful. So if we are fair and merciful, then so also will God be toward us. As believers, NONE OF US have arrived. We are all horrible sinners. God is lenient toward us all because of God's precious sin-cleansing blood.

When a Christian sins, we fall IN GRACE, not FROM GRACE! Psalms 103:10, "He hath not dealt with us after our sins; nor rewarded us according to our iniquities." Psalms 103:11-12, "For as the heaven is high above the earth, so great is his mercy toward them that fear him. As far as the east is from the west, so far hath he removed our transgressions from us." The believer's sins have been washed away by Christ's precious blood (1st John 1:7). Yet, we must be held accountable for the bad.

> "God will still use you, I don't care what you've done!" —an encouraging quote from the MP3 sermon by Dr. Jack Hyles titled, "[5]If Thou Should Mark Iniquities, Who Could Stand?"

Apart from God's Righteousness, No One is Any Less of a Sinner Than Anyone Else

The sooner that we realize we're all woeful sinners in the sight of God, the sooner we'll stop condemning each other and love one another as Christ's disciples:

> Romans 14:7-12, "For none of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself. For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's. For to this end Christ both died, and rose, and revived, that he might be Lord both of the dead and living. But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ. For it is written, As I live, saith the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God. So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God."

What a beautiful passage of Scripture!

When I am reminded of the painful things which wicked people have done unto me, I always rejoice that they hurt me instead of me hurting them. I can live with that! I love what Brother Hyles always said, that he chose rather to look at people as broken rather than bad. I am far from perfect, but I have a repentant heart toward my sins and failures, which has allowed God to prosper me and my work for Christ. When a believer covers their sins, they become hardened and critical of other sinners:

> Romans 2:1-3, "Therefore thou art inexcusable, O man, whosoever thou art that judgest: for wherein thou judgest another, thou condemnest thyself; for thou that judgest doest the same things. But we are sure that the judgment of God is according to truth against them which commit such things. And thinkest thou this, O man, that judgest them which do such things, and doest the same, that thou shalt escape the judgment of God?"

We are all guilty sinners! The only difference between me and the vilest homosexual, habitual thief or dirtiest adulterer in the world is that my sins have been washed away by the precious blood of Jesus. Apart from God's imputed righteousness, we would all be utterly lost in our wickedness without any hope. Thank God for the gift of His only begotten Son, Jesus Christ!!!

If anyone is righteous, it is only because of the [6]imputed righteousness of our great God and Savior!

Oh, Precious Jesus, My Redeemer Art Thou

I have not always done the right thing, and neither have you. We are all imperfect sinners, but thankfully we have a perfect Redeemer. I have been hurt by numerous people in the past. They have never made things right. They refuse to acknowledge their sins and wrongs against me. They are proud, shallow, and have chosen to move forward without making restitution and reconciliation for their evils against me. Yet, I love them. I have decided to forgive them before they seek my forgiveness, even before they make things right. They likely won't judge themselves as the Bible teaches in 1st Corinthians 11:31, "For if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged." Most likely, God will need to judge them in eternity, because they refuse to do so. But ultimately, no one can ever sin and get away with it. All things are open and naked before the eyes of our Judge (Hebrews 4:13).

When reminded of painful memories, I always pray for those who have hurt me for Christ's sake. I am always comforted in my soul, knowing that God has promised to hold all men accountable for their sins. For example: 1st Thessalonians 4:6, "That no man go beyond and defraud his brother in any matter: because that the Lord is the avenger of all such, as we also have forewarned you and testified." I find peace in losing myself in the work of God. I stay so busy for the Lord labouring, that I don't have time to sulk, or fret, or dwell upon the negative. When I am saddened about anything, past, present or future, I redirect my painful energy into my labours for Christ, which always cheers me up and causes me to forget what I was thinking about. There's no sad feelings or a depressed mood that some [7]fundamentalist Bible-preaching cannot remedy! Amen!!! I choose to live above the clouds where the Son is always shining, instead of below the clouds under the rains of criticism, failures and worry.

Colossians 3:1-3, "If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God. Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth. For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God." Whew! Amen! Glory to God, you won't find a better Scripture than Colossians 3:1-3!!! I am dead to this sinful world, and my life is hidden in Jesus Christ. The Holy Bible teaches us to set our affection on things in Heaven. The Greek word for "affection" is phroneo and means "to exercise one's mind." In other words, God is telling us to think about heavenly things, spiritual things, the things of Jesus Christ; and not upon the carnal, sinful and secular things of this temporary world below. If you are discouraged my friend, get your mind off of this crazy world! Abide in the Scriptures!

I love listening to Alexander Scourby read the King James Bible. You can [8]listen to the entire King James Bible for free on YouTube, which takes about 75 hours. What a beautiful thing to have. For thousands of years, God's children would have given anything to be able to sit back and listen to the Word of God being read as we can today. Yet, sadly and tragically, extremely few people (including Christian believers) have the spiritual maturity and character to listen to the Word of God. Woe unto anyone who neglects God's Words!!! Mr. Scourby read over 400 books so that blind people could hear them. Reading the King James Bible was the crowning achievement of his life. Thank God for Alexander Scourby! I promise you that listening to the Word of God daily, around the house or in your car, will be the most beneficial thing to your life from now on.

> "If there's anybody in the Bible that God had disdain for, it was those that had disdain for other sinners!" —an awesome quote from the MP3 sermon by Dr. Jack Hyles titled,

"[9]If Thou Should Mark Iniquities, Who Could Stand?"

Critical, Judgmental , Gossiping Believers Fail To See Own Wickedness

A sure sign of a believer who is covering up their own sins, is one who is quick to condemn and slander others. A gossiping tongue is evidence of lack of an underlying repentant spirit. The Holy Bible tells us 1st Corinthians 6:20, "For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's." Most believers are familiar with the command to glorify God with one's body, but overlook the fact that our spirit also belongs to God. Every believer is bought with a price, and that price is the precious blood of Jesus Christ, which was sprinkled upon the heavenly Mercy Seat, the right place). We are not glorifying God with our spirit when we gossip, hate other sinners, criticize our circumstances, boast of future plans without regarding God's will, or acknowledge our sins.

Carefully notice our text verse again. Proverbs 28:13: "He that covereth his sins shall not prosper: but whoso confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy." This Bible verse speaks about being totally right with God, in both salvation and discipleship. Salvation makes us right with God as His creature; Discipleship makes us right with God as His child. You can be right with God as His creature (imputed righteousness), but still not be right with God as His child (relative or personal righteousness). Lot was living a wicked life of sin in Sodom, yet we read in 2nd Peter 2:7-8 about "just Lot." The word "just" means righteous, that is, born-again. The only way to be "MADE RIGHTEOUS" is through faith in the Lord Jesus Christ"

> Romans 5:19-21, "For as by one man's [Adam's] disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one [Jesus Christ] shall many be made righteous. Moreover the law entered, that the offence might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound: That as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life by Jesus Christ our Lord."

If a Christian believer ever truly grasps his or her own depth of wickedness, they will never condemn another sinner again. WE ARE ALL GUILTY SINNERS IN THE SIGHT OF A HOLY GOD!!! We live in a hypocritical society today in America. Perhaps you have seen people accused of crimes appear in court. They are bound in handcuffs and ankle shackles, wearing an orange suit, looking at felony charges and facing serious prison time.

My friend, in God's eyes we are all worthy of such treatment! If you've never been dragged into a court room, you and I all deserve to be. Most believers cannot even begin to comprehend just how wicked they are in the sight of a holy God. Not praying for others is a horrible sin (1st Samuel 12:23). Not saying, "If the Lord will," concerning future plans is a horrible sin (James 4:15-16). It is a horrible sin to lay up money in the bank, while neglecting the things of God (Luke 12:20). Thinking foolishly is a sin (Proverbs 24:9).

A high look and a proud heart is a sin (Proverbs 21:4). The words "high look" in the Hebrew language means an "elevated eye," that is, viewing one's self as being higher or better than others. All such haughtiness is a horrible sin. Most Christians do not have a proper spirit of humility about them. That is why I am writing this article, in hope of teaching you the importance of having a lowly attitude toward yourself and others. I continually realize that I am the biggest sinner I know. Dr. Jack Hyles (1926-2001), pastor of the great First Baptist Church of Hammond, Indiana for 42 years, understood this precious truth...

> "If we could ever hate the sin in ourselves as much as we hate the sin in others, we might have some idea what His [God's] Book is all about." —Pastor Jack Hyles (a quote from page 322 of the awesome biography of Dr. Hyles titled, "The Fundamental Man")

What a beautiful truth! Here's another beautiful quote from Pastor Jack Hyles:

> "The Devil will make you guilty about your past... You're not worthy to serve God, but neither is anybody else worthy to serve God, and so God's gotta have unworthy people serving Him... That's one reason why we should do everything we can to salvage people." —a beautiful quote from the MP3 sermon by Dr. Jack Hyles titled, "[10]If Thou Should Mark Iniquities, Who Could Stand?"

We are living in the best and worst times of history. I heard an excellent MP3 sermon this week by Pastor Roy Thompson (1933-2010), titled "[11]How To Lose Friends And Influence History." I hope you'll take the time to hear Dr. Thompson preach. This great sermon is from May of 1985. Dr. Thompson says in the sermon: If you live for the Lord, you won't have to give up any friends, they'll all forsake you! Of course, you can never lose a true friend. The heathen world doesn't know what real friendship is. Brother Thompson also mentions in this sermon that he was on the Devil's side of the fence for 19 years, but then got right with God and became a faithful Christian and preacher. I thank God for Pastor Roy Thompson! I encourage you to hear his needful message.

My friend, where do you fit into all of this? Are you saved? To be saved, a person simply needs to judge them self as a needy sinner and receive Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for their sins, believing that Jesus was buried, and bodily resurrected three days later from the dead (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). To be "saved" means to be born-again! 1st Corinthians 15:6 tells us that Jesus was seen in His resurrected body by over 500 brethren at once.

If you are saved, have you ever truly been humbled and broken because of your own sins? A couple years ago I heard a younger Christian man say, "I've never really done anything bad in my life." Oh, yes you have, you just don't realize it! I don't care who you are, you are just as sinful in the sight of God as the vilest Sodomite, murderer, thief or idolater. To commit even one sin makes a man guilty OF ALL (James 2:10). That's because even one sin is enough to condemn a man to the Lake of Fire forever! Romans 3:10 proclaims that, THERE IS NONE RIGHTEOUS! Preachers don't preach against the awfulness of sin anymore. Thank God for Dr. Jack Hyles, who did preach against sin, and he loved sinners equally so! Dr. Hyles exemplified strength and beauty. Here's an awesome MP3 sermon by Brother Hyles from 1994 titled, "[12]IT'S HOUSECLEANING TIME"!!!

> [14]FORGIVENESS (MP3, Dr. Hyles, "I decided years ago to forgive everybody... before it is asked!")

No Christian Can Prosper Until They Realize They're As The Worst Sinner!

Unless you were saved out of a horrible deathstyle of wickedness, you may very well fail to comprehend your own sinfulness. There are many believers who were saved at a young age. They did not go into what we call "deep sin." Therefore, it is difficult for them to grasp the magnificence of God's love, mercy and grace. The man who is forgiven of much can more easily comprehend the depths of God's grace that saves. Luke 7:47, "Wherefore I say unto thee, Her sins, which are many, are forgiven; for she loved much: but to whom little is forgiven, the same loveth little." The murderer, prostitute, convicted criminal and despicable sinner, can more easily fathom the awesomeness of a loving God Who pardons iniquity. Micah 7:18a, "Who is a God like unto thee, that pardoneth iniquity..." Deep abiding love comes from deep abiding sins, failures and bad decisions in life. You cannot understand life's sweetness until you've first experienced incalculable sorrow and pain.

> "To be a real fundamentalist you can't hate anybody." —Dr. Jack Hyles (a great quote from a 2001 MP3 sermon titled, [15]Forgiveness)

In closing, the word "prosper" (Hebrew: tsalach tsaleach) in our text verse from Proverbs 28:13 means, "to push forward." No believer will ever be able to push forward spiritually for the Lord, until they confess and forsake their sins. Proverbs 28:13, "He that covereth his sins shall not prosper: but whoso confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy." I have great peace in my soul, knowing that I am right with the Lord, having placed everything into God's hands. My body and spirit are the Lord's. If there is any judging to be done, it is the Lord's department. My part is simply to trust and obey.

Admit your failures my friend. Confess your sins to God. Make things right with those whom you've hurt. If others have hurt you, pray for them and place them into God's hands for judgment. There is no peace like letting go of everything into God's hands, which is what I had to do years ago, lest I lose my mind from overbearing guilt, sorrow and inexplicable emotional trauma. God is real. God is still on His throne. The Word of God was written to give us PATIENCE and COMFORT that we might have HOPE. Romans 15:4, "For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope."

3.7.4 Common Sense Tells Us That We Must Have An Inspired Bible Today (2022-07-13 22:09)

Psalms 12:6-7, “

The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times.

Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever.

God gave us His solemn PROMISE in our text passage of Scripture, that He would keep and preserve His "pure words" forever. Psalms 119:140, "Thy word is very pure: therefore thy servant loveth it. " I am saddened any time that I hear a preacher saying that the King James Bible is the "best Bible today," but it is not perfect nor inspired by God. I cannot think of anything more tragic in this generation, than to know that preachers do not think our omnipotent Creator is able to preserve the Words that He inspired millenniums ago.

Also, the entire foundation upon which the Devil’s Bible corrupting movement is based is the fallacy that we do not have a perfectly inspired Holy Bible today in the world. This erroneous thinking has opened a Pandora’s Box, encouraging everybody and his dog to translate and publish another Bible revision. The 54 scholarly men whom God used to give us the inspired King James Bible, meticulously produced a literal translation, not a paraphrase. They were so careful not to ASS-U-ME anything, that they used italics to highlight any added words which weren’t in the original languages. I encourage everyone to purchase a more expensive King James Bible, so you will see what words are italicized.

By doing this brilliant thing, the 54 translators of the King James Bible are allowing YOU, the reader, to look over their shoulder, to decide for yourself what God meant (and not them arrogantly making that choice for you). There is not a single English Bible in existence today, other than the precious King James Bible, which contains this type of honest scholarship.

Please read Matthew 5:18, “ For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled.” Jesus said that not one jot nor tittle (the smallest grammatical marks in the Greek alphabet) would pass away until all be fulfilled. Yet, hundreds of modern English Bible perversions remove large sections of God’s Word, eviscerating the truth and corrupting the Word of God for profit. Jesus promised that the true Word of God would NEVER be corrupted. God’s Word is incorruptible (1st Peter 1:23).

Also, John 14:6, “ Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.” Jesus is THE TRUTH. The Bible is the Written Word of God; Jesus is the Living Word of God. Dr. John R. Rice (1895-1980) rightly called them "twins." So how can Jesus be THE TRUTH, perfect and without error or sin; but then God’s Word in modern times has become corrupt, flawed, contains many errors, is not 100 % truth, could have been translated much better and it is now unreliable? Does that make any sense, at all? No, it certainly doesn’t. We cannot have a perfect incorruptible Savior, but then a flawed corrupted Word of God. Remember, Jesus is the Word of God. So if any Bible revision is imperfect, it is not inspired and CANNOT be God’s Word. If I believed that the King James Bible I hold in my hand is imperfect, contains errors and is not inspired, I would toss it into the nearest garbage pail and never go to church again!!!!!!!

And by the way, there are two main thought patterns pertaining to the meaning of "inspiration" concerning God's Word:

1. The first thought pattern is that inspiration merely refers to the actual PROCESS of God breathing our His original Words, so any translation cannot be inspired. This is what 95 % of the clergy believe today, and it sickens me.
2. The second thought pattern is that inspiration refers to the WORDS themselves. They are inspired because they are in fact, GOD'S WORDS. So if a translation is done properly, then those inspired Words still remain inspired, regardless of what language they are translated into. This is what I believe, a rarity these apostate days!

2nd Timothy 3:16-17, "All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness:

That the man of God may be perfect, throughly furnished unto all good works.

" Those five word "given by inspiration of God," are the 54 translators English rendering of just one Greek word, theopneutos. The Greek word Theo means "God," and pneustos means "air, or breath." Hence, the Bible is breathed by God, or as Jesus said (quoting Deuteronomy 8:3): Matthew 4:4, "

But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.

" If we are commanded to live by every Word of God that is breathed from the mouth of God almighty, then we need an EVERY WORD BIBLE!!! That is common sense!

I contend boldly without hesitation that we have that EVERY WORD Bible today in the King James Bible. If not, then please tell me which Bible is it, because I must have EVERY WORD to obey Matthew 4:4. Any honest person KNOWS that the King James Bible is THE ONE BIBLE for English-speaking people in the world today. All of the modern Bibles corrupted the deity of Christ, removing every mention of people worshipping Jesus. [1]Look for yourself!

Dear reader, what good would preservation be without inspiration? I mean, what good would it have been, and what purpose would it have served, for God to keep His promise to preserve His pure Words, if those Words have along the way in history become flawed, corrupted and questionable? Does that make any sense to you? I mean, really, does that compute? I think not. There would have been absolutely no reason for God to keep and preserve His Words, if they weren't perfect and inspired Words.

The Bible promises that someday in the future, Jesus will resurrect every born-again saint (1st Corinthians 15:51-58; 1st Thessalonians 4:13-18; Philippians 3:21). Jesus will take every dead, corrupted and weak cell in our body and completely renew it from mortality to immortality!!! History records that the Apostle Peter was burned alive upside down at the stake for his Christian testimony, preaching the truth of the Gospel. Jesus will take Peter's remains from the earth and put each and every cell back together again, better than new, giving him immortality (eternal physical life). What power! My mind cannot even fathom such omnipotence in our great God. And yet, over 95 % of preachers today will try to convince you that God was too incompetent and impotent to preserve His pure Words for today. They'll lie to you and say that at best all we have is a flawed translation of a translation of a translation.

Have you ever pondered the mindboggling question of how big the universe must be? Can there be an end? If so, what is beyond that further reach of space. Scientists concur that the universe is continually expanding, but into what prey tell me? There is only one logical answer, GOD. Where did time begin? Is it even possible for time to begin? If so, then what existed before time? You cannot answer, "nothing," without violating every law of nature and science!!! Again, the only plausible and logical answer is GOD. So do you think such a powerful God couldn't preserve His inspired Words for 2022?

Is there anything too hard for God to do. Most foolish preachers, evangelists and Bible professors today would say, yes, God cannot give us a perfect Holy Bible. The sad truth is that 90 % of the shameful pastors who deny the inspiration of the Bible, are merely repeating what they heard other preachers teach. And they are also afraid to go against the common consensus, which is the heresy that ONLY the original autographs of the Bible were inspired by God.

Dear friend, your entire mindset hinges on what you believe about the Holy Bible. The heathen world errantly thinks that rich men wrote the Bible to control the masses. Nothing could be further from the truth, but only you can weigh the evidence and make your own decision. I chose Jesus Christ as my personal Savior at age 13 in 1980, and the blessed Holy Spirit of God has lived inside of me ever since!

I worked with an atheist many years ago, named Mike, a peculiar fellow, who believed that during the evolutionary process that the more superior apes (Neanderthal men) dominated the weaker of the species. So the lesser apes decided to be clever and create a religion, so they could have something that the greater apes couldn't have. Sadly, this is what Mike believed. I witnessed to him, but he wouldn't hear any of it. That is so tragic.

If you think that the Bible has errors in it, then you'll never take it very seriously as we ought. In fact, you'll very likely end up with a dozen or more Bible versions on your bookshelf, which I have seen again and again in deceived churchgoer's homes. The Devil has tricked them to think that God hasn't given us ONE perfectly inspired Holy Bible today. So they languish in mediocrity and go from one church to the next, many living the Christian life without ever being born-again (by the true seed of the Word of God - Luke 8:11).

Dear reader, you cannot be saved from corruptible seed. It is impossible! Anyone who says that they were saved from a Devil's Bible is a LIAR!!! Most churchgoers in Baptist churches today who think they are saved today, are still lost in their sins. If you think that you turned away from your sinful behavior to get saved, in addition to your faith in Christ, YOU DIDN'T GET SAVED. You merely got more religious!!! You will never be saved until you CEASE from all your WORKS (Hebrews 4:10-11; 6:1) and cast ALL of your complete faith upon the Dear Savior (John 6:40; Galatians 3:26; John 6:47; Acts 16:30-31; 1st Thessalonians 4:14).

I've often said, and will continue to warn everyone, that the MOST DANGEROUS PLACE for a Christian youth today is BIBLE COLLEGE!!! I'm talking about the popular Pensacola Christian College (PCC), who in their Statement of Faith deny that we have an inspired Bible today. PCC thinks that only the original manuscripts were inspired by God. Sadly, that is also what Bob Jones University (BJU) believes too. And tragically, since 2008 when Pastor Jack Schaap (one of my beloved former Bible teachers At Hyles-Anderson College) the First Baptist Church of Hammond no longer believes that the King James Bible is verbally inspired by God. They officially teach now that only the original autographs were inspired. It is so shameful. Pastor Jack Hyles is upset in Heaven, I know it! Read what Dr. Hyles said about inspiration:

> "Every word in this Bible is inspired by God almighty!" —Dr. Jack Hyles (a great quote from the classic sermon, "[2]A Friend At Midnight.")
> "The only inspired Words of God are in the King James Bible!" —Dr. Jack Hyles ([3]an awesome quote from the needful sermon: "[4]THE REAL BATTLE!")

Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) believed and taught everyone that the King James Bible is IN-SPIRED and without any errors in it, which he admittedly didn't believe in his early ministry before about 1980, [5]because he says that seminary messed him up at Bible college. You show me a pastor who denies that we have an inspired Holy Bible today, and I'll guarantee you that he's been messed with in some religious seminary. I thank God that Pastor Jack Hyles loved THE TRUTH, and was willing to admit when he was wrong and move toward the right position.

Sadly, most preachers today refuse to admit their errors, and will defend their false teachings to the grave! 1st Peter 1:22, "Seeing ye have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit unto unfeigned love of the brethren, see that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently." We don't have many pastors today like Dr. Jack Hyles, who had a pure heart of love for God, truth and people. That is my heart's most earnest desire every morning when I wake up, to be pure of heart in all that I do. I think that by God's grace I am that servant of God. RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!! But how can you have the right doctrine unless you have the right Bible? I find no fault in the inspired King James Bible!!!

Pastor Dwight L. Moody (1837-1899)

3.7.5 Pastor Jack Hyles On The Importance Of Bible Infallibility (2022-07-14 22:22)

John 12:47-48, “And if any man hear my words, and believe not, I judge him not: for I came not to judge the world, but to save the world. He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him: the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day.”

John 14:23, “Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him.”

Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001)

The following precious words are from Dr. Jack Hyles, quoted from his sermon titled: "There Are Too Many Smiths In The Land"...

> Folks, I'm going to go to seed [to become worn] before I die on defending this Book—I'm going to go to seed on it! I'm a little tired—by the way, every preacher in America, before he met a theologian, believed exactly what I'm preaching tonight! Theologians messed us all up—they messed me up for a while, I'll be honest with you—messed us all up! When I went off to college, I thought I had the words of God in this Book right here. When I was in college for awhile I found out I didn't. Not only that, I found out nobody did! Not only that, I found out you couldn't have them! Not only that, I found out there was no such thing as any book in all the world that had the words of God in 'em!
>
> But my Bible said that we're supposed to keep His "WORDS"; not His truths, not just His doctrine, but His "WORDS"! ...
> > Mark 8:38,"Whosoever therefore shall be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation; of him also shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in the glory of his Father with the holy angels."

Folks, here's what's happening in America. The old-time preachers that built this country believed that this Book right here had the words of God in it! Your grandpa and grandma, that built this country, shed their tears on this Book, thinking they had the very words of God in their hands. And fundamentalists ALL believed what I'm preaching tonight, until we got our own Bible colleges, and seminaries, and sent our professors off to train at the feet of Karl Barth, and Reinhold Neuber, Emil Brunner, and others, who said that the Bible does not have the "words" of God, it is the Word of God, and that all the Bible is not inspired word-for-word. So we did not want to be considered "unintellectual" by the intellectual community; we're not willing to be called “nuts” and “fools”—just chalk me up as a nut! Chalk me up as a fool! Yea! Chalk me up as an uneducated illiterate if you want to, but I guarantee Ya—I’d rather study my A-B-C’s in Heaven, then Greek and Hebrew in Hell!

Whosoever shall be ashamed of “ME AND MY WORDS”; it didn’t say His “WORD,” it says His “WORDS”!

3.7.6 Though He Slay Me, Yet Will I Trust Him (2022-07-17 12:57)

Job 13:15-16, “Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him: but I will maintain mine own ways before him. He also shall be my salvation: for an hypocrite shall not come before him.”

I often am reminded of this precious Old Testament passage. Job was a God-fearing man. We read in Job chapter 1 that God made a wager with Satan, to test Job. Remember, it was God and not the Devil who initiated this testing for Job.

Also, remember that it was God and not the serpent, who planted the Tree of Knowledge in the paradisiacal Garden of Eden in the Old Testament book of Genesis. Yes, it is true, God gave Adam and Eve their only opportunity to sin in their perfect Edenic life. God was testing them. So we learn an important Biblical principle here, that even when we are in God’s perfect will for our life, the Lord will still test us.

I have heard religious Pentecostals and Charismatics often attribute burdens, suffering and tragedy all to Satan (i.e., demon possession which they say requires deliverance from a faith healer). But as we see in the life of Job (and many saints in the Bible), God sometimes allows the suffering to humble, test, teach and further conform us into Christ’s image (Romans 8:29). By the way, in my humble opinion Charismatics are very superstitious and [1]even mentally unbalanced individuals. Any normal person would have to question the sanity of Charismatics who bark like dogs, roll on the floor in uncontrollable laughter and other bizarre misbehavior, attributing it to the Holy Spirit of God. I think not!

Job said:

“Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him.. .” I love that! Job had just lost his ten children to a great wind (likely a tornado), which brought the house down upon them. They all perished. Job lost his livestock to thieves. Some of his servants were murdered. Job’s cattle were stolen and his fields burned. Then Satan (with God’s permission), afflicted Job’s health with painful boils from head to toe. Yet in all this the Bible says that Job refused to blame or curse God.

Job 1:22,

“

In all this Job sinned not, nor charged God foolishly.

I have sadly heard countless people throughout my life blame and curse God for their losses, pain and burdens. I knew one young woman who hated God for the death of her parents. Many people don’t want to spend one more minute praying to God, because they say God never answers. To be honest, I have often felt that same way myself. Why bother praying! I mean, if nothing ever changes, why pray? I’m sure you’ve felt the same way too. We’re all in the same boat.

Please don’t misunderstand, I am not saying that God doesn’t answer prayer. I am simply saying that it is normal to feel like God doesn’t.

Biblically, there are dozens of reasons why God may not answer our prayers. One reason is found in Luke 18:1-8, which is that God wants to test our faith. Yes, my friend, God will literally IGNORE YOU sometimes (just as the unjust judge ignored the widow who begged him for justice). The heathen judge eventually gave in because of her importunity and gave her what she wanted, to get rid of her. But the Bible says that our great and wonderful God oftentimes ignores us, to push us to the limit to see if our faith is genuine. That is why I absolutely love what Job said in

Carefully notice that Job didn’t just say he was resolved to keep the faith; but also, Job said he would maintain his ways before God. That is, Job wasn’t going to stop serving God and living right. Job was determined not to stop anything for God. Sadly, I heard about the North Love Baptist Church up in Rockford, Illinois. Their former pastor (Paul Kingsbury, a Hyles-Anderson College graduate) resigned in 2021 amidst a sex scandal involving a member of their church (not the pastor himself though). I was disappointed to hear that after being their pastor for over 40 years, Pastor Kingsbury resigned. That is so tragic! Psalms 12:1, “ Help, LORD; for the godly man ceaseth; for the faithful fail from among the children of men.

Job was determined not to let bad circumstances change his ways. In my humble opinion, the North Love Baptist Church made a big mistake to stop running their local Bus Ministry. The church’s leadership have allowed the Devil to sift them as wheat, beating them to their knees and keeping them there. I love the following quote. I’ll tell you afterwards who said it:

> "The world ain’t all sunshine and rainbows. It’s a very mean and nasty place and I don’t care how tough you are, it will beat you to your knees and keep you there permanently if you let it. You, me, nor anybody else is going to hit as hard as life, but it ain’t about how hard you hit; it’s about how hard you can get hit and keep moving forward, how much you can take and keep moving forward."

Do you know who said that? Sylvester Stallone in the 2006 movie Rocky Balboa. I really love Job's right attitude toward loss, suffering, burdens and heartache. Job didn't lose a child, he lost his entire family (TEN CHILDREN DIED). Wow! Can you imagine? Let me tell you friend, that takes an uncommon kind of faith ("this kind" - Matthew 17:21, "Howbeit this kind goeth not out but by prayer and fasting") when all your children have just been killed, for you to still say: "Blessed be the name of the Lord."

3.7.7 Don’t Put God On Trial For Life’s Miseries (2022-07-18 14:19)

Job 1:20-22,

Then Job arose, and rent his mantle, and shaved his head, and fell down upon the ground, and worshipped,

And said, Naked came I out of my mother’s womb, and naked shall I return thither: the LORD gave, and the LORD hath taken away; blessed be the name of the LORD.

In all this Job sinned not, nor charged God foolishly.

I admit that there have been times in my life when I wasn’t very patient with God. I was angry at the Lord for not answering my prayers, for ignoring me and letting me suffer. But I never lost my faith in God. Mark 11:22, “And Jesus answering saith unto them, Have faith in God.

” In time I had to decide if I was going to place God on trial, as the heathen world does; or else I was going to give God the benefit of the doubt, taking Him at His Word in the Holy Bible that He cares about me (1st Peter 5:7), that He has a purpose for my life (Romans 8:29), that He hears my prayers (1st Peter 3:12), that He knows my every thought and action (Psalms 139:1-6), that He remembers I am made of dust (Psalms 103:14). I read in 2nd Corinthians 5:7,

“(For we walk by faith, not by sight:)” If I am to walk BY FAITH, then I shouldn’t be looking for visible results in response to my prayers.

One of the things that discourages me the most, is shallow uncaring Pastors like Marty Herron, Gary Walton (the Bob Jones University crowd), and Jeff Redlin (Pensacola Christian College). These ungodly men are as shallow as can be, academic types who woefully lack God’s love and compassion for people. They are not church builders; but rather, church stealers and corrupters! They don’t genuinely walk with God, so they don’t love people. No pastor is close to God who abuses, ignores, mistreats and shuns people (which all these horrible religious men are sinfully guilty of). I’ve been in their churches and they are phonies.

Anyway, we ought not place God on trial for what carnally-minded pastors do to us. God is not to blame for what wicked men do! So we ought not blame God for the rotten things that bad pastors, carnal churches and horrible people do to us. We are living in perilous times (2nd Timothy 3:1-7). We live in times of a woeful lack of mercy. On June 17th, 2022 I mailed pastor Jeff Redlin an apology letter and asked for his forgiveness, with an offer to make peace with Campus Church, but he has completely ignored me, refusing to make peace. That is exactly what the Bible foretold would happen in the Last Days, people would refuse to show mercy.

Times will only get worse! I have met countless people in my life who were incessantly bitter against God. That is not good. Please don't blame God for the mess that our society is in today. Hey, God didn't legalize abortion in 1973. Over the past 49 years (1973-2022), Americans have brutally MURDRED over 63,000,000 precious babies in the womb. That is more unnecessary deaths than all wars combined!!!

Consequently, the booming "Baby Boomer" generation is now getting ready to retire, but 63,000,000 Americans are MISSING (i.e., bread winners, tax payers)!!! So there is not enough money to finance the retirement for Baby Boomers. So the federal government is raising the age of retirement up and up and up. Eventually you won' t be allowed to retire until you're 80 years old!

Most Americans will die long before they ever see a single penny from Social Security. Americans have done this to themselves, by recklessly and sinfully fornicating and committing adultery, conceived unwanted children. The problem is not abortion, but wicked Americans who want to continue living in gross immorality (Hebrews 13:4). Less than .001 % (1 in 1,000) of all pregnancies are the result of foul place (i.e., incest, rape, et cetera). Our ungodly sinful American culture protects the rights of evildoers, and rewards fools for being reckless and irresponsible. And then they actually expect taxpayers to pay for it all.

Please don't put God on trial for what evil men do. Matthew 24:11-12, "And many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many. And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold." God is not to blame for lying false prophets, Satan is. God is not to blame because we allow sin (iniquity) to flourish (abound). Evil is deliberate sin. Abortion is premediated murder, more than just a sin, it is evil. Looking at indecent images is evil if you planned to do it. Certainly the wicked people who produce the indecent images are evil, because they planned to do it on purpose. THAT IS EVIL!!!

There is much evil in the United States today. That is, there is much sin done deliberately. Car rental companies knowingly lie and deceive customers, offering low-ball prices that they know will not be honored when all is said and done. That $27 a day rent car will end up costing you $150 or more by the time the agent is done manipulating you!!! I've had them do it to me multiple times. Car rental companies are dirty thieves!!! The same can be said of shady hotel advertisements, shady apartment rental ads online, shady insurance company ads, et cetera. At the end of the day they are all LIARS!!!

I am over 50 years of age, which is when men start having issues with enlarged prostate. Several dozen different supplements are available, with Saw Palmetto being the main thrill. But I did some homework, as I always try to do, [1]and learned that such supplements are a total waste of money! Greedy people will LIE and say anything to get your money! I trust a doctor who has nothing to gain from warning men about useless supplements. When we consider the literally tens of thousands of deceptions, lies and falsehoods in the world today, it is not difficult to understanding why so many people hate and blame God for this world's woes and miseries. But we know Biblically that sin is the culprit, and not our wonderful Creator. Ecclesiastes 7:29, " Lo, this only have I found, that God hath made man upright; but they have sought out many inventions."

If your Dad buys you a Daisy BB gun for your birthday, and you go shoot your eye out being stupid with it, is you Dad to blame for buying you a BB gun? Well, he is to blame, in part, if your Dad didn't teach you how to safely use, store and handle the gun. But God has taught mankind (in His Holy Word) how to live and handle this life, but men aren't following God's instructions. Homosexuality is against God's Word, common sense and nature itself (Romans 1:24-32). Public nudity is against God's Word (1st Peter 2:11; 1st Timothy 2:9). Abortion is against God's Word (Exodus 20:13). I could go on all day citing Scriptures! We have the freedom, but not the right, to live any way that we so choose, in violation of God's Word. We have brought miseries upon ourselves in society, by disobeying God's Word.

But there are other times in life when God wants us to suffer, and go through hard times, so we can learn from them (1st Peter 1:7-9). The trial of our faith worketh patience. God's ultimate goal is to conform each and every Christian saint into the very image of Jesus (Romans 8:29). God has a plan and purpose for every life. We were created to please God (Revelation 4:11). Blessed be the name of the Lord!!!

I got rear-ended by a church bus in 1992, my type of work as a mechanic aggravated my injury, and then I fell down a mailslide at work in 2005. My neck is a mess! I suffer in relentless horrible neck pain 24/7, with intense burning nerves throughout my body, and intermittent radiating pain shooting down both arms and legs, and the right side of my body always feels half asleep, and both of my arms fell like they're inflated with air, and I feel constant irritating tension from inside my neck (intense stiffness), et cetera. I am miserable physically all the time. That is one reason why I have never remarried since my first wife abandoned me in 2006. I simply don't feel like going out to have a social life. I could marry a mail-order bride from the Philippines, and I am seriously thinking about it. I've been looking at ChristianFilipina.com lately. What else am I to do? I have prayed for years, to no avail. But I refuse to get mad at or blame God. It is not God's fault that my first wife divorced me. God is a good God and I know that He loves me. If God wanted me to have a wife, He would lead me and her together. I could have married a foreign wife anywhere along the way, but I have been reluctant to meet a stranger over the internet. But that may be my only option. God is good.

God is so good. That is all I am saying in this blog. GOD IS SO GOOD! He's so good to me. Never blame God for the problems, death of a loved one, sorrows, crimes, painful situations, unbearable circumstances, et cetera. I don't know what circumstances happened to the Apostle Paul in Asia, but they despaired even of life itself:

> 2nd Corinthians 1:8-11, "For we would not, brethren, have you ignorant of our trouble which came to us in Asia, that we were pressed out of measure, above strength, insomuch that we despaired even of life: But we had the sentence of death in ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God which raiseth the dead: Who delivered us from so great a death, and doth deliver: in whom we trust that he will yet deliver us; Ye also helping together by prayer for us, that for the gift bestowed upon us by the means of many persons thanks may be given by many on our behalf."

There is much theological debate among Bible scholars over what Paul means in this intriguing passage. Did they contemplate committing suicide? Did they want to die because of the hardships they were enduring? Did they think they were going to die because of the dire circumstances? We simply do not know for sure. The word “despaired” is the Greek word exaporeomai, which means:

to be utterly at a loss, that is, despond.

” They were at the end of their rope, so to speak. I humbly think that they welcomed death because of their sorrows. The Bible doesn’t say they considered death; but rather, they despaired of life. I’ve been there in the past! There were times in my life, more than once, when I just didn’t want to live anymore. I wanted to die, but I wasn’t suicidal. There’s a big difference!

Dear friend, we all have burdens, a past, a Skeleton Closet, scars, sorrows of the heart and emotional baggage which we will carry until death. Settle it once and for all in your mind and heart that God is a good God, greatly to be praised, and He deserves are love and praises continually, regardless of life’s circumstances. The Apostle Paul had learned this great truth, which is why while in prison he could still sing hymns, write epistles, pray and praise the Lord.

3.7.8 The Devil Is A Beautiful Liar (2022-07-18 15:18)

2nd Corinthians 11:13-15, "For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ. And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works."

Remember, the Devil is a beautiful liar! The preceding passage of Scripture to me is fascinating. I marvel at THE TRUTH. Truth is often stranger than fiction, and this truth certainly fits that proper description. It goes contrary to our human concept of Satan (who is the embodiment of pure evil), that such a dastardly individual could also masquerade and disguise himself as one of God's righteous angels. But why not, knowing Scripturally that the Devil is in fact Lucifer, the fallen archangel. Isaiah 14:12, "How art thou fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning! how art thou cut down to the ground, which didst weaken the nations!" By the way, the word "Lucifer" has been removed from most of the Devil's modern English Bible revisions! Now why would they do that? If you go back and read our text passage from 2nd Corinthians 11:13-15, you'll have your answer! Satan is a master counterfeiter, the evil father of all liars, a shady con-artist of all con-artists!!!

If I were the Devil, I would fabricate my deceptions and lies as close to the truth as possible, to deceive my victims. Dear friend, that is EXACTLY how the Devil operates! Satan knows that if he makes his deadly deceptions too obvious, then people will avoid his traps.

I have been trying to catch some pesky rats and mice that scurry around my kitchen night and day. They got into my bread a few times, eating right through the plastic bags, so I bought a big hard plastic container at Lowe's to put all my bread inside, which is working well. I caught one of the bigger rats in a glue trap last week. So I put some more glue traps out, but the other rats and mice have been avoiding them. I did some reading online to see if rats can learn to avoid traps, and sure enough, they do! Rats learn quickly. People are the same way when the Devil tries to entrap them, so Satan gets even more clever and sneaky.

Billy Graham Was Satan's Minister Of Unrighteousness

Here are the heretical words of perhaps the world's most famous modern evangelist, Billy Graham (1918-2018), from his own website. Tragically, this is a false Gospel which cannot produce the new birth...

> How To Be Sure You're Saved
>
> First, you must recognize your need.
>
> Second, you must understand the cross.
>
> Third, you must count the cost.

He also said, "Which of you, intending to build a tower, does not sit down first and count the cost? … So likewise, whoever of you does not forsake all that he has cannot be My disciple" (Luke 14:28, 33).

Many people come to Christ without first counting the cost. The cost includes repentance, the forsaking of sin, and a continual, daily, open acknowledgment of Christ in your life.

Fourth, you must take a definite step.

One day at Stanford University, a student of a non-Christian faith came to me and said he was convinced that Jesus is the Son of God but said he couldn't confess Him publicly. He said that back in his own country the cost socially would be too great.

I had to tell him that the Bible says: "Whoever confesses Me before men, him I will also confess before My Father who is in heaven. But whoever denies Me before men, him I will also deny before My Father who is in heaven" (Matthew 10:32-33).

Like the rich young ruler of old, the student went away sad. He had counted the cost and was not able to pay the price of open acknowledgment of Jesus Christ as his Savior.

We ask people to make a public confession of Christ in our meetings because Christ demanded a definite commitment. Christ had reasons for demanding that people openly follow Him. He knew that an unwitnessed vow is no vow at all. Until you have surrendered to Christ by a definite act of your will, you are not a Christian.

Liar, liar, soul and body on fire in Hell!!!

Billy Graham has woefully confused discipleship with salvation, mixing the two, which is another gospel that cannot produce the new birth by the Holy Spirit of God. One of my very favorite quotes, comes from one of my favorite Gospel preachers, John Bunyan:

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." —John Bunyan (1628-1688)

Every pastor and every layman should memorize that precious quote, as I have also.

The apostle Paul writes to the saints in Rome (Romans 1:7). Paul pleads with the saints in Rome to "present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service" to the Lord (Romans 12:1-2). Now if discipleship were required to be saved, then these people could not have been saints. The Bible tells us that Paul wrote (under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit) the book of Romans to the saints (meaning they were saved):

> Romans 1:6-8, "Among whom are ye also the called of Jesus Christ: To all that be in Rome, beloved of God, called to be saints: Grace to you and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ. First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, that your faith is spoken of throughout the whole world."

Clearly, the Bible teaches that a person CAN be born-again, and yet sinfully CHOOSE to be conformed to this world, failing to present their body as a living sacrifice to serve God. If it were not a choice, a matter of freewill, then Paul wouldn't be making an appeal unto the saints at Rome to choose to offer their bodies as a living sacrifice to serve God. You see, the Apostle Paul is rightly keeping discipleship completely separate from salvation. Paul is keeping sanctification (growing in grace), completely separate from justification (being born-again).

Yet, Billy Graham is corrupted theologically, big time! In the same article and link that I just shared with you earlier from Graham's website, he errantly teaches that the rich young ruler in Luke 18 "had counted the cost and was not able to pay the price of open acknowledgment of Jesus Christ as his Savior." That is trash theology ladies and gentlemen!!!

Would you please read John 12:42-43 with me, proving that Mr. Graham a fraud:

> "Nevertheless among the chief rulers also many believed on him; but because of the Pharisees they did not confess him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue: For they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God."

Dr. John R. Rice (1895-1980) taught me in his Bible commentaries a wonderful truth. Dr. Rice is the only preacher I know of, so far, whom I've heard comment on The Rich Young Ruler, who interprets this passages correctly. Dr. Rice says that Jesus was using the Old Testament law the way God intended for it to be used, to show this young man that he is a needy sinner incapable of perfectly keeping the law to merit Heaven. Thus seeing his inability to measure up to God's perfect standard of righteousness (the law), a man is brought to Christ to be saved by grace through faith (Romans 3:19-20; Galatians 3:24-26). Jesus wasn't giving this young man a plan of salvation (as Billy Graham falsely claims); but rather, Jesus was using the law as intended, to show the young lad that in fact he hadn't perfectly kept the law since his youth. Notice what the lad said to Jesus in Luke 18:21, "

And he said, All these have I kept from my youth up.

" You see, the young man was self-righteous, just like Billy Graham.

But you say, "Wait a minute, I heard Billy Graham say many times that eternal life is a free gift, which we cannot earn by works." Yes, but as Michael Bowen rightly points out in his helpful book titled: "I NEVER KNEW YOU," Billy Graham's demonic false gospel subtly teaches grace plus works for salvation (please read this carefully, it will open your eyes):

> Billy says that we cannot earn our salvation no matter what we do, no matter how many good deeds we do, but immediately afterward he tells everyone that they must change their behavior, submit their inner wills to Christ, and to stop sinning. He gives verses that tell us to believe on Christ alone and that salvation is a free gift given to us the instant we believe, such as John 3:16 and Ephesians 2:8-9, yet he turns right around and says that we must make a 180-degree change in our direction, that it takes a lot of effort on our part to do these things, and that we should determine with all of our efforts to follow Christ.
> He then says that we don't have the power to follow Christ unless the Holy Spirit enables us to do so. Billy will then usually tell us again that we must commit our lives to Christ and that we must become practicing disciples of Jesus in order to be born again, but at the same time, he knocks everyone off balance when he turns right back around to tell his audience that salvation is free and that it is received by faith alone and that we cannot do a single thing to earn it. Then Billy demands again and again that we must quit sinning in order to be saved, but directly afterward he rotates back and forth from "quit sinning" to "you can do nothing of yourself to earn it."

He says that salvation is free, but immediately afterward he says that we must carefully consider the costs of following Christ. "Costs" is the opposite of "free," yet, nobody will dare to question Billy Graham about the validity of what he is saying because he is, in fact, so forceful in his tone of voice and in his facial expressions that I am convinced people are afraid of him. The glare alone from his stern stare that one can easily see in his eyes as they sweep across the masses of people in his audience is enough to keep people from ever questioning the validity of his teachings.

Again and again, Billy says that salvation is not of yourselves, that it is a free gift, but then quickly does a U-turn and makes your salvation dependent upon quitting your sins and devoting your life to discipleship. Then, to make matters worse, Billy makes everlasting life in heaven dependent upon your walking down the isle and making your decision to follow Christ "as your Lord" public. Billy says that Christ will not acknowledge you before His Father if you do not acknowledge Him before other people, which, in context, means that you will not go to heaven unless you tell other people that you have made a decision to follow Christ.

Then Billy will usually tell his audience that salvation is, again, a free gift that cannot be earned no matter what we do. It is, by far, Graham's terse persona that captivates and influences an audience rather than the Holy Spirit of God. Hypothetically speaking, how would you feel if you were in a car with someone the likes of whom I am about to describe? Imagine you are trying to get somewhere that you've never been before and the person next to you says this:

"Okay, take a left, and then take a right, and then stop, back up, take another right. Wait. Take another left. My map is correct! Trust me! Stop. Go right again, then turn left. Can't you go any faster? Okay, turn right here. Stop. Take a left, then take another left. Wait. Go back. Can't you do anything right? Start over. Go right, then left, go sharply right now. Stop! Can't you follow my directions? Back up and take another right. Wait, go left. Trust me, I know where I'm taking you!" That, reader, is the sad yet accurate equivalent of the plan of salvation according to Billy Graham. It will get you nowhere. "There is an increasing number of 'evangelicals' today who are preaching that in order for a man to be saved he must not only receive Christ as his Savior, but also must make Him absolute Lord and Master of his life. This doctrine has been termed "Lordship salvation" and has absolutely no support from the Word of God. It is, in fact, another subtle way Satan has invented to get Bible-believing men to add works to salvation without, perhaps, their realizing it, and to do it in such a way that it sounds spiritual and good" (Stanford, 87-88).

We would all agree that quitting sins and bad habits is the right thing to do, and that following Christ and doing the things that He says to do is the right and honorable way to live in every case or situation we might find ourselves in, but quitting your sins and bad habits, as well as following Christ to the best of your ability, are not part of God's simple plan of salvation. As good as the Christian Lifestyle is, no aspect of it is included in God's salvation contract with humankind. Living the Christian Lifestyle and doing all of those wonderful deeds that we are supposed to do as born again

Christians comes “after” we are saved, not before.

I’ve never read a better explanation of what is wrong with Billy Graham’s heretical plan of salvation (or better said, “ plan of damnation

”). Remember what I said at the beginning of this blog—the Devil fabricates his lies and deceptions as close to THE TRUTH as possible, to deceive his victims.

Michael Bowen is absolutely correct, quitting your sins and bad habits, as well as following Christ to the best of your ability, are not part of God’s simple plan of salvation. As good as the Christian Lifestyle is, no aspect of it is included in God’s salvation contract with humankind. Dear reader, YOU must decide whom to believe and trust. Are you going to trust Billy Graham’s very different plan of salvation than the Bible’s? Or are you going to trust what Jesus Himself said in John 6:47,

Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.

Either faith alone in the Gospel (Good News) of Jesus Christ crucified on a cross, buried and bodily resurrected the third day is enough to save a needy sinner (1st Corinthians 15:1-6); or else it is not enough, and Billy Graham is right, who says that to be saved, you must forsake your sinful behavior, serve God and for the rest of your life continue to openly confess the name of Jesus everywhere you go, paying the price. Whom are you going to believe my friend? Will you believe JESUS, who has already paid the price for your sins with His precious blood (1st Peter 1:18-19)? Or will you believe Billy Graham, who says YOU must count the cost and pay the price to be saved?

The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU. Always remember, the Devil is a beautiful liar!

3.7.9 Be A Child, Juvenile Adult (2022-07-18 19:28)

Galatians 2:20,

“

I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me.

My hero of the Christian faith is Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001). Brother Hyles genuinely cared about God, people and truth. That is why I love him so. The Bible teaches in Galatians 2:20 that we don’t live the Christian life in our own human strength; but rather, Jesus lives the Christian life through us (i.e., the of the Holy Spirit), by God’s grace, the same way we got saved. To live the Christian life in our own flawed human strength, is to attempt to keep the law to please God, which is a sin. Everything is a saint’s life is by God’s wondrous grace.

The following life-changing truth is from Dr. Jack Hyles’ helpful book titled: “[1]Grace and Truth.” I’d say that more than any other practical truth which I have learned from Brother Hyles philosophies, this has been the most memorable...

> A child is not a complete person. He cannot enjoy many things that maturity will allow him to > enjoy. For him many wonderful, enriching experiences yet wait that he cannot enjoy until he > reaches adolescence and adulthood.
>
>
>
> The adolescent is not a complete person, for there are many rich and satisfying endeavors that can be enjoyed only by adults.
>
> The adult may or may not be a complete person; that choice is up to him.
>
> The child-adolescent-adult is a complete person. This is a person who, when he became an adolescent did not substitute adolescence for childhood, but ADDED adolescence to childhood.
> Then when adulthood came, he did not substitute adulthood for adolescence but rather added adulthood to adolescence and childhood. He retained his childhood enjoyment and added to it the enjoyments of adolescence. He then retained his childhood and adolescent enjoyments and added to them adult enjoyments. He then became the complete person with a complete set of appetites, delights and fulfillments.

Why riot make a list of all the enjoyments unique to childhood. Have you retained them, or did you trade them for the enjoyments of youth? Everyone enjoys a teenager who, while possessing the maturity of youth, still possesses the excitement, exuberance and warmth of a child. We all know of adults who have added adolescence to childhood and adulthood to adolescence. This may be what charisma really is. There is a bit of little boy in every attractive adult male personality. There is an obvious pleasance or a bit of adolescence in every adult male personality. Likewise the attractive woman has a bit of little girl in her. She also has retained the flavor of adolescence in her mature, adult personality.

In many of our schools the best teaching is done in the lower grades. Such teachers can appeal to a child because they have retained a bit of childhood in their personalities. The same is true with a youth worker. Perhaps a youth worker is one who has kept his youth while becoming an adult. He was not willing to sacrifice youth for maturity and adulthood, but rather chose to retain his youth while adding the maturity of adulthood.

Think for a moment of some people whose presence you enjoy the most. Notice carefully and you will see that these people are childish, juvenile adults. This is why little children enjoy their presence. This is the reason that young people love to be with them and that other childish, juvenile adults enjoy their company. To be sure, such a person may draw criticism from incomplete people. The suave teenager may not like the teenager who has retained a touch of childhood. The drab adult may not enjoy the presence of the childish, juvenile adult. Perhaps the incomplete man will even develop a jealousy for the complete man. This perhaps is prompted by envy and covetousness.

All of us know of a young person who has gone off to college and has come home a different person, much to the dismay and disappointment of his parents. We also know of a young person who has gone off to college to return the same person who is just more mature and able to enjoy more of life. Such people bring delight and satisfaction to their parents. A farmer worked hard to send his son to the state University. While working in the field one day a neighbor asked him if he had noticed any difference in his son since he had been to the university for a fear The farmer replied, "Yep. You ain’t never seen so much change in one young’in’. Before he went to the university, when he would plow, he would say to the mule at the end of the row, ’Whoa, Reb. Turn around and giddup.’ Now that he has been to the university for a year he says, ’Halt, Rebecca, pivot and proceed.’" (It is the opinion of this author that "the mule walked on.")

The childish, juvenile adult enlarges his potential for service to mankind. He is not a specialist able to work just with children, nor is he a specialist able to work just with teenagers, nor is he limited to working only with adults. He has enough child in him to work with children, enough youth in him to work with young people and enough maturity to work with adults. Fortunate is such a person and fortunate are those privileged to be near him.

I am thinking now of a great preacher whom I found one day playing hopscotch with some children. I think Of another great man of God whom I found One day Playing marbles with some junior boys. Such IL Person makes a better pastor, for he can appeal to all ages. He makes a better parent, for he can have the proper rapport with his children at every stage of development. He will have a richer life, for he will be able to enjoy the company of any age. He will be a better leader, for he will know the heartbeat of each follower. He will be a more desirable person, for all ages will enjoy his presence. He will be more versatile in that his appeal will span all of life. He will never really grow old, for even in his senior years, he will still in some ways be a little boy and a young man.

I think of my mother, who at this writing is 86 years of age; yet every time I talk to her I see the twinkling eye of a child, the mischievousness of childhood, the optimism and expectancy of a teenager, the glamour of a young woman, the endurance of youth and the wisdom of adulthood wrapped up in one personality. This is why she, at the age of 86, attracts little children and teenagers as well as adults. There are people in their forties who are older than Mother. She is a childish, juvenile adult who refused to trade the joys of childhood for the joys of adolescence, or the joys of adolescence for the joys of adulthood. She has retained them all and in so doing has kept her appeal to others and her enjoyment of others regardless of the age.

In 2nd Peter 3:18 we are admonished to grow in grace. The word "grow" could be better translated "increase." It means to keep what you have and add more. It is like a growing tree. While the tree adds branches, it keeps its trunk. While it adds leaves, it keeps its branches. It is like an army which takes ground. It does not give up what it had; it adds new land to the land that already has been conquered. In other words, growing in grace is "adding to," not "substituting for."

1. Do not exchange poverty for riches. The wise person will add riches to poverty. There are some enjoyments that are unique to poverty. How tragic it is when one gives up these enjoyments that are so rich that they cannot be bought with money in order to exchange them for things less valuable which can be bought with money. Such a person becomes poverty stricken because of his riches and trades that which cannot be bought by money for that which can be bought by money. This type of individual can be the poor rich man or the rich poor man.

I think of my good friend, Russell Anderson, from Ypsilanti, Michigan. Though his wealth enables him purchase whatever he would want, his wife Maxine still sews for the children and makes their clothes. She often trades at discount stores where the common person trades. They often raise a garden. In other words, because they were once poor they learned the enjoyments of the poor. Now that they are wealthy they have kept their poverty and have doubled their enjoyment rather than substituted one for another.

2. Do not trade simplicity for profundity. Though every Person should strive to become as profound in profession and field as he possibly can, he should not with the acquiring of profundity discard the pleasures of simplicity. In reality no one can be profound who has not retained his simplicity, for > he will be completely unable to transfer his profundity to others. Simplicity is the tool with which profundity is transferred. Simplicity is the conveyer by which profundity is transported. Without simplicity, profundity is a house built upon the sand. Our Lord was the master at adding profundity to simplicity. He could take the deepest and most profound truths and wrap them with the simplest of terms. The deepest of doctrines were conveyed to us by such stories as a boy running off from home, a lady losing a coin, a lamb getting lost from the flock, a man going out to plow, a farmer sowing in the field, etc. When one becomes profoundly simple, richly poor, simply complicated, discerningly naïve, weakly strong, conservatively aggressive, excitedly serious, unpredictably stable and unknowingly educated, he has arrived at a place to where he can live the rich life of being a childish, juvenile adult.

I really like that lesson! I don't want to grow up, I want to be a Toys R' Us kid! Dr. Hyles admitted that he had learned many of his philosophies from Evangelist John R. Rice (1895-1980), but I don't know which ones. Brother Hyles and Dr. Rice shared preaching platforms to gether for 20 years across America, preaching at 2,200 meetings together at churches, conventions and tent revivals. Praise God! I thank God for these dear saintly men and their lingering soulwinning influence upon the world for Jesus Christ.

3.7.10 Being Religious Versus Being A Good Christian (2022-07-20 00:30)

Colossians 2:20-23, "Wherefore if ye be dead with Christ from the rudiments of the world, why, as though living in the world, are ye subject to ordinances, (Touch not; taste not; handle not; Which all are to perish with the using;) after the commandments and doctrines of men? Which things have indeed a shew of wisdom in will worship, and humility, and neglecting of the body; not in any honour to the satisfying of the flesh."

Matthew 15:7-9, “Ye hypocrites, well did Esaias prophesy of you, saying, This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips; but their heart is far from me. But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.”

I don’t like formal worship in church services. Kindly said, I love the people at the local First Baptist Church of Pensacola down the street from where I live, but I dread their Sunday formal morning service (i.e., their 10:30 am traditional service). They sing old Episcopalian type hymns that I’ve never cared for. I love the plain hymns; such as: I’ve Got A Manson In Heaven, When The Roll Is Called Up Yonder, Just A Closer Walk With Thee and What A Friend We Have In Jesus (to name but a few). Those are the precious hymns that I thankfully grew up with, not The Doxology!

Dear reader, [1]formal worship is an enemy of soulwinning!

I learned a long time ago that there’s a big difference between being religious versus being a good Christian. I know many people, fundamental Baptists in particular, who go to church every Sunday. They would never even consider smoking a cigarette, or drinking a beer, or even saying a curse word. Yet, that is all religious dedication and good moral character, and not what it means to be a good Christian. What is a good Christian? Well, it depends who you are asking the question to, because you will get back dozens of different answers! What saith the Scripture? ...

> Mark 12:28-31, “And one of the scribes came, and having heard them reasoning together, and perceiving that he had answered them well, asked him, Which is the first commandment of all? And Jesus answered him, The first of all the commandments is, Hear, O Israel; The Lord our God is one Lord: And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength: this is the first commandment. And the second is like, namely this, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. There is none other commandment greater than these.”

Since the two greatest commandments in the Bible are “

TO LOVE

(i.e., love both God and our fellow mankind as our self), then it is logical to conclude that a good Christian is a believer who faithfully obeys these two commandments.

With these truths in mind, where does that leave the religious person who attends church 3 times a week, doesn’t smoke, doesn’t drink alcoholic beverages, doesn’t fornicate, doesn’t take the Lord’s name in vain, et cetera? They might abstain from all of these vices, and yet not love God or their neighbour at all. I have known many goody two-shoes

” type self-righteous churchgoers in my lifetime, who were arrogant high-minded snobs, especially pastors (namely: Jeff Redlin, Marty Herron and Gary Walton). Today’s pulpit are filled with religious phonies, false prophets and hypocrites!!!

I wrote this blog to teach and encourage you that you cannot please God by just going through the motions, attending a good church, abstaining from sinful things, and living a religious life.

Hebrews 11:6, “But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

” Without faith, we cannot please God. You can attend church and not have faith. Roman Catholic do it every Sunday. Catholics put their faith in their church, priests and the seven sacraments instead of solely in the Lamb of God who has the nail-scared hands and feet. John 6:40, “

And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.

” The Catholic religion is of the Devil, a grand deception!!!

God wants His children to have blessed peace, joy, assurance of salvation and contentment even in our losses, misery, suffering, unhappiness, emotional and physical pain:

> John 10:9-10, “I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture.
>
> The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly.

I am going to surprise my blog visitors with my next statement: I am not much of a religious person! You read right. I do not consider myself a religious person. I do attend church, but only when I can, due to my permanent neck injury (which cause me neuropathic nerve burning, chronic neck pain and intermittent sharp pain radiating down my arms and legs). I don’t like religion!!! I don’t open the door when Jehovah’s Witnesses come knocking. My father was a Skid Row minister for over 30 years, who taught me: Religion is the worst thing that ever happened to this world. My father was right! Religion won’t get you to Heaven. Religion can make you feel good in your false plan of salvation, but it can never save anybody! The law cannot give spiritual life!!!

One of my favorite audio sermons by Dr. Jack Hyles is called: “ [2]The Good Man Versus The Spiritual Man .

Honestly, if you listen to the sermon and understand its great Bible truth, then you’ll likely agree that we could just as easily rename Dr. Hyles’ sermon to:

“The Religious Man Versus The Spiritual Man.” There are millions of good Christians in our churches today. They are born-again and on their way to Heaven, but they are not walking close to the Lord (they think they are). They are cold in their affection toward others, uncaring, lacking depth of compassion and love, going through the motions of attending church, shallow.

But then there is that 1 person out of 1,000 who truly fears God, having been humbled by suffering, sin and the burdens of life, who have grown in Christ's love to the point that they can forgive their enemies, love the unloving, and give others who have hurt them a second chance. Ecclesiastes 7:28, "Behold, this have I found, saith the preacher, counting one by one, to find out the account: Which yet my soul seeketh, but I find not: one man among a thousand have I found; but a woman among all those have I not found. " Times haven't changed. You will have to look long and far to find a true born-again believer, who has the GREAT HEART OF GOD in them these days.

You're Only As Good A Christian As Your Care About Everybody

You cannot be right with God and only care about 99 % of people. Pastor Jeff Redlin refuses to forgive me. He refuses to allow me to come back to Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College (PCC). Kindly said, Jeff Redlin doesn't walk closely with God, for if he did then he would contact me to let me know that I am welcome to come back to PCC's Campus Church. Instead, Jeff Redlin harbors a hateful grudge in his heart toward me. Of course, he would never admit such a terrible thing because he is in self-denial, which many believers are guilty of doing. Since we know it is wrong to shun, ostracize and refuse to make a path of restoration for our Christian brother, we'll find some cute excuse to justify murdering them in our heart and shunning them from our life. That is Satan dear reader. Jeff Redlin is doing Satan's will. I am still willing to reconcile with the PCC camp, but they refuse to communicate with me. They talk the talk, but they do not walk the walk at PCC. They are devoutly religious, but bad Christians.

I don't know about you dear friend, but I don't want to be average. I want to care more than the average Christian who pretends to care, but really doesn't. I have received numerous emails from frustrated people, who tell me that when they contacted a church for help, they were brushed off and mistreated by the pastor. That is so terrible! Anybody who knows me will tell you that I always take the time to reply to emails, writing lengthy caring emails to help people. I don't get paid to do this. I CARE!!! I care because God cares, and I walk with Him.

I am not trying to be religious, God forbid. I am trying to please God by getting the job done (my ministry). My goal is not to be a good Christian, but to help people in any way I can, whenever I can, wherever I can. I am commanded in the Holy Bible to love God and love my neighbour (all humanity) as myself. Ecclesiastes 12:13 declares that the WHOLE DUTY of mankind is to FEAR GOD and to KEEP HIS COMMANDMENTS. That is my goal in life.

Our churches are full of religious people, but they woefully lack God's love for others. I don't want to be like that! I want to walk with God and please Him, walking by faith. The world is full of religious nuts! I am not a nut. Religion doesn't make people turn crazy, but religion often provides a vehicle for crazy people to ride on. I am a born-again, adopted, grateful, child of God. I need Jesus! Every moment of every day I need Him! We all need Jesus!!! So I encourage you friend to rise above mere religion, and instead walk with your God and Creator.

We see churches all over the place which are walled-up, resemblant of prison compounds or secret cults. Their attitude is Us Four And No More, making outsiders feel unwelcomed and unloved. There is no love for people. Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College comes to mind, with their fascist security and thug style unforgiveness toward those who get on their bad side. I humbly asked Pastor Jeff Redlin in June of 2022 for his forgiveness, and his blessing to attend Campus Church, but he sinfully refused, ignoring me in his hatred and resentment. That is a religious cult, not a New Testament church! Sadly, they are religious at PCC, but not good Christians. A good Christian doesn't ignore and look down on others. Philippians 2:3, " Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves.

3.7.11 The Best Way I Have Found To Lose Weight (2022-07-23 08:55)

I have struggled with obesity all my adult life. Anything over 192 pounds for me is considered obese. I am 5’ 7" tall with what I consider a medium build frame. I don’t have big bones...lol. My ideal weight is 150 pounds, which is what I weighed in this photo from 2017...

Me in 2017 at 150 Pounds

The interesting this is that just 6 months earlier on February 21, 2017, I weighed 215 pounds!!! By May 10th, just 10 weeks later, my weight was down to 158 Pounds! Yes, I lost 5 true pounds of weight each week for 10 weeks! By June 25th, my weight hit a low of 145.0 pounds. How did I do it? I starved myself and tried to walk as much as I could. My constant neck pain makes it difficult for me to walk sometimes, but I was able to walk enough to burn some calories. Most of all, which is extremely rare, I had an uncommon determination to do this. As many people can relate, I was in love with a woman and wanted to impress her. Sadly, she still rejected me and broke my heart anyway. But that was her decision alone. She lost out on a great guy who really genuinely loved her.

I kept the weight off throughout 2017 and 2018, but hadn't learned about proper eating habits yet. So I was eating a very restrictive diet of my favorite processed foods, and I was struggling and frustrated. By 2019 I was beginning to gain my weight back, failing to eat properly. I wish I had known then what I know now. So by 2020 I had gained all my weight back, weighing in at 208 pounds! Ouch! I was depressed and felt like a failure. I had a horrible doctor who was paranoid when I lost weight, saying he was worried, but then criticized me when I gained my weight back, not helping me at all. What a lousy doctor!

For the entire year of 2020 I tried fifty times at least to lose weight, but couldn't lose an ounce. I was so frustrated that I was able to lose 70 pounds in just 4 months in 2017, but now couldn't lose a single pound in a year! What had changed? I lost my motivation. Losing weight by starving yourself is the worst way to try to lose weight. When I lost 70 pounds in 2017, I was eating only 500 calories per day. When I felt a craving, I listened to my favorite music to motivate me. Since I love music, it is a powerful force on me. And then I would get out of the house and walk around Home Depot, the mall or along the ocean to get my mind off of eating. I drank LOTS of Japanese Green Tea, which I had read burns belly fat.

Okay, in 2020 I had had enough of my jerk doctor, and threatened to report the clinic for emotional abuse, because now my doctor was being horribly insensitive, calling me "obese." What a jerk! I didn't even say goodbye to him, after 8 years of tolerating his abuse! I don't regret that one bit. The Risk Assessment Department at the SDA Guam Cli nic on the island of Guam made the decision to get rid of Dr. Miyagi. Good buy to bad rubbish!

I was assigned a new doctor, Dr. Timothy Arnott. This man was a blessing! Dr. Arnott didn't criticize me for being obese, he told me to watch a helpful YouTube video titled: "[2]The Game Changers." Dr. Arnott did something that no other doctor ever cared enough to do, he inspired me to move toward eating a vegetarian diet, and showed me how. Here is his website (note that Dr. Arnott is a Seventh-Day Adventist, and I DON'T necessarily sanction or agree with his religious beliefs shown on his website, in the Bible Study drop-down area. I believe that SDA's are not born-again believers, but they are sweet and good people). I am sharing this webpage for it's health benefit information, which is invaluable. I highly encourage you to download Dr. Arnott's [3]free handouts. They are invaluable, showing you exactly what to eat and not to eat to lose weight!

In 2021 I began eating a 75 vegetarian diet, but included some baked fish and chicken. I greatly cut back on red meats, and for several weeks didn't eat any red meat, to see how it would affect my blood tests. As a result, my triglycerides dropped from around 260 down to 112. My bad cholesterol (also over 200) greatly improved, but was still about 140 from eating fish and chicken. But the blood tests clearly showed how eating healthier foods greatly improves one's health. My weight over 5 months dropped from about 202 pounds down to 177 pounds. At this lower weight, my blood glucose tested at 5.2 mg/dl, which is perfect! To be transparent, [4]Dr. Sten Ekberg doesn't like The Game Changers video. But despite critics, it cannot be denied that eating a mostly vegetarian style diet is good sense. I actually agree with Dr. Ekberg that eating some meat is good for our health, which is what I do. So I am an omnivore.

Okay, without further ado, the best way that I have found to lose weight, which is what I am doing now and it is working, is the same weight I lost weight in 2021. I ATE FOOD to lose weight! That sounds like a contradictory statement, but it really works. They key is to eat the right foods. I lost about 25 pounds in 5 months by eating something small every 3 hours. That is so important to do! I always failed in the year of 2020 at trying to stop eating to lose weight. My cravings were too strong and I binged every time by the end of the day. What I did in 2017 is EXTREMELY hard to do. Less than 5 % of people have that kind of will power. I lost it after 2017. But I have learned that a better, and the best way to lose weight, is to eat a healthy diet.

Today for breakfast (which is what I do every day) I used my Nutri-Ninja to mix 2 Tablespoons of flaxseeds (I get mine from Walmart near the cooking oils area). Flaxseeds are high in fiber, minerals and Omega 3 acids. I also mixed 1 red apple today. I added cold water, a handful of almonds and quinoa, 1 teaspoon of cinnamon and 2 small mandarin oranges. That is a very healthy drink to start my day. Sometimes I'll add different color grapes (green, red or purple). I change the mix around to add variety and different nutrients to my diet. But I always include an apple a day and 1 or 2 Tablespoons of whole flaxseeds.

For lunch today I ate a big salad. I bought a large bowl at Walmart to make my big salads. I take 1 entire Romain heart of lettuce. I then dice and add 1 or 2 dill pickles, some tamed jalapenos in a jar, some roasted red bell peppers in ajar. I also liberally sprinkled on my salad a mix of chia, hemp and flax seeds from a big quart-sized container that I bought at Walmart. When I eat a can of sardines, in extra virgin olive oil, as I did today, I pour the leftover oil over my salad. Olive oil is good for your body, but limit it to 1 Tablespoon per day, because just 1 Tablespoon has 120 calories.

I feel full. I do count my daily calories, which I aim for 1,000 to 1,500 total. That causes me to lose 1 to 2 pounds of wright per week, and it is SUSTAINABLE (because I am eating and enjoying my meals). I also drank a second smoothie today, in which I mixed 1 raw egg (yoke and all), 1 teaspoon of nutmeg, 1 teaspoon of cinnamon, 1 cup of almond milk (I like sweetened), 1 cup of mineral water, 1 scoop of vanilla isolate whey protein (I bought mine at GNC). It tastes like eggnog!

An important thing to help me lose weight is to make sure that I eat a HIGH PROTEIN diet. Protein helps the body feel full longer, helps to lose weight, preserves muscle tissue, raises metabolism, and uses (burns) 40 % of it's own content to digest. You need protein. Some other healthy sources of protein in beans, cottage cheese, Greek yogurt (regular yogurt has too much sugar), brown eggs (high protein content makes them brown), fish, chicken, beef and quinoa (pronounced KEEN-WAH). I add quinoa to my smoothie mixes in the Nutri-Ninja (I bought my 1,100 watt unit from Amazon and I love it).

CONSISTENCY is the key to losing weight over time. By the way, I didn't go walking or exercise at all to lose 25 pounds over 5 months in 2021. When I starved myself in 2017, I was going stir crazy in the house and had to go walking to keep my sanity...lol. But in 2021, I was satisfied in my belly and just stayed home while losing weight. This is a slower way to lose weight, but a sure way! Best of all, it is very sustainable (meaning you can keep doing it easily for the rest of your life). I have learned that whatever I eat today, I will crave tomorrow. So if I eat corn dogs, burgers, pizza and deep fried foods (which I love), I will crave them tomorrow and I WILL GAIN WEIGHT.

I hate to admit this, but at times when I was struggling between eating healthy and eating processed foods, the healthy foods couldn't even compare. I ended up eating all the processed foods, and sadly, literally throwing all the healthy foods (lettuce, tomatoes, grapes, apples and other veggies into the garbage can when they spoiled after week of sitting). That is how much I have struggled with eating properly. That is how powerfully addictive junk food is! So, there is no magic cure to lose weight. You will find umpteen LYING websites that will LIE TO YOU, advertising that you can eat anything you want, and as much as you want, and still lose weight if you give them your money to learn their secret. I wish our U.S and state governments would prosecute those con artists for blatant false advertising!!! They need to also prosecute Pat Robertson and his fraudulent 700 Club, who persistently have made THOUSANDS of false claims of divine healing on national TV, which can easily be proven false by any honest medical professional.

To lose weight, you have to have some degree of will power (not to tolerate hunger pains, but to simply eat the right foods). I can eat whenever I feel hungry and still lose weight, if I will eat only certain low-calorie density foods. Here is a list of foods that I eat when I get hungry, to lose weight:

- pickles (a whole jar is only 5 calories. I try to always put pickles on my salads)
- eggs (I ate 5 fried eggs and a ribeye steak the other day, which didn't raise my glucose even 1 point. When I tested my blood sugar 2 hours later, it went from 123 mg/dl down to 121 mg/dl. I actually dropped 2 points). I like brown eggs from cage-less, free range (free to run and play) raised, happy chickens. Some people run from anything fried, but I fry my eggs on medium heat in either flaxseed oil, ghee or real butter (never margarine).
- cottage cheese (it is very low in calories and high in protein.
- Greek yogurt
- whole grain crackers topped with lots of mild salsa and some guacamole mix. A whole container of Mexican salsa only contains 75 calories.

- fruit and vegetable smoothies (I buy bags of pre-cut smoothie veggies and fruits at Walmart in the frozen health section. Each big bag contain 4 small separately sealed bags. One bag makes one smoothie, which has 150 calories each Good stuff! I get hungry late at night, so this is when I drink my smoothie, which makes me feel full.

- a big Romain lettuce salad (topped with olives, jalapenos from a jar, fresh mushrooms, carrots, grape tomatoes, roasted red peppers from a jar, 1 teaspoon of olive oil, I love adding 1 teaspoon of toasted sesame oil over my salad, et cetera. Good stuff! I eat the salad very slowly sitting at my small portable table, while watching TV.

- sliced chicken or turkey breast. A 1/2 pound container of either has only 400 calories.

- drink 3 to 4 bottles of mineral water per day (I get mine, Dasani, from Walmart of other local stores. I haven't drank tap water from the sink for the past 18 years. I don't trust tap water. You don't know what lurches out of all those buried pipes from the water company, and all the toxic chemicals that they add to get it to you! On Guam the tap water smelled so bad, that you could tell the pipes were filled with rust and rot!!!

- old-fashioned oatmeal (a great source of fiber and minerals). Never buy instant, which is processed and quickly digests into the body, making you feel hungry sooner. Old-fashioned oatmeal is less processed, which is why it takes longer to cook, but it makes you feel full longer (because whole grain takes longer to digest).

- Ezekiel bread (it is flourless whole grain bread found in the freezer at Walmart. Great stuff! I like to BBQ a beef burger, and then eat it on Ezekiel bread with 1 slice of sharp cheddar cheese (no ketchup or mustard). I often use only 1 slice of Ezekiel bread, cutting it in half into two triangles. This lets me enjoy the succulent BBQ ground beef and it is an entirely different experience than eating a normal processed bun loaded with condiments. I have really started enjoying the beef by itself. I do use plenty of seasonings! When losing weight, you SHOULD make extensive use of seasonings.

- ribeye steak (but not every day). Beef is high in calories and raises bad cholesterol, so once in a while is best. Eating steak is okay if you eat smaller portions (8 ounce or less).

- dark chocolate (only 70 % cocoa or higher, and no more than 2 squares per day)

- sweet potatoes (each medium sized potato only has 112 calories and is low glycemic, unlike regular potatoes which are high glycemic. A great way to lose weight!)

- Unsweetened Green Tea (helps burn body fat. I buy it a case at a time at Asian stores)

- pork skins (they won't raise your glucose level, and add 35 grams per bag of protein to your diet. Not the healthiest, but if you need some kind of snack, I like these.)

- Hardened cheese (parmesan, Gouda, swiss, cheddar; but only eat them in limited quantities)

- Avocados (I buy small Haas avocados by the bag. I try to eat one per day, which are loaded with vitamins and fiber. Sometimes I'll dice them and add to my daily salad)

- shrimp and seafood (really great for losing weight, high in protein, low in calories but filling)

- beans (this should really be first on the list, because beans are superfood! Beans are very high in protein and fiber, unlike meats which are high in protein but have ZERO fiber. Beans WILL help you to lose weight. I try to eat 2/3 cup 4 times a week, dry measure, which produces 3 cups when cooked for each meal. I buy bags of 15 variety beans at Walmart)

That is a list of what I am mostly eating now to lose weight, and I am, slowly but surely. When I moved from Guam to Pensacola in July of 2021, I weighed 177 pounds. But I had a rough time for several months, surviving out of a suitcase in a rundown hotel, and I became depressed, eating fast foods. So I gained 30 pounds! I am determined now to continue doing the preceding diet until I get down between 150 to 175 pounds, and stay there this time. The culprit every time I lose weight is eating excessive refined CARBOHYDRATES!!! In other words, processed foods! Anything that comes in a box (pizza, corndogs, TV dinners) are considered processed (with a few exceptions).

Anyway, I like to share the things I learn with others, just in case you are also trying to improve your health. If you are overweight and fail every time to lose weight, the best thing you can do to get started is just start eating healthy. The most important thing, to me, is to make sure to start off each and every day by eating something very healthy. I start each day off with a red apple and some whole flaxseeds in my Nutri-Ninja, mixed with cold water. I might add a little cinnamon, pecans, quinoa, et cetera. I usually like to eat one small avocado too.

By eating healthy in the morning, I am much less likely to throw a pizza in the oven for lunch. I do reward myself once a week with pizza. Use your favorite foods as a reward for eating healthy. If you're like me, your favorite foods will never be the healthy foods...lol. I'm sorry, but a Tombstone pizza will always appeal to me more than a bowl of oatmeal. This is where discipline comes into the picture. It requires some discipline to lose weight, to make yourself eat foods you really don't prefer over the bad one's that you do. But the very good news is that you don't need to go hungry or starve yourself to lose weight, you simply need to eat healthy foods that are low to medium calorie density.

So, in summary, the best way to lose weight is slow and steady, by eating a healthy variety of highly nutritional foods. Slow and steady wins the race, said the tortoise.

3.7.12 What Evidence Can You Give Me That God Exists? (2022-07-23 22:07)

Romans 1:20-21, "For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse: Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened."

Consider this dear reader, the Holy Bible was not written by one man, or even a group of men, in one generation; it was written over 1,500 years! If the Bible had been written by one man, like Muhammad wrote the Islamic Koran, then I would be very suspicious. But the Bible is comprised of 66 books which were written over a span of 1,500 years, by approximately 40 different writers. We don't know who wrote the book of Hebrews, which is why is say "approximately." I think the Apostle Paul wrote Hebrews, but we do not know for certain. Those 40 or so men whom God used to pen the Bible, spoke different languages, came from different social backgrounds. Some were farmers like Amos, others were scholars like Paul. Some were nobleman like Nehemiah, others were just humble men like Job. I believe that God deliberately gave humanity the Bible in this miraculous manner, to prove its divine origin. If you think about it, men could not have achieved this.

A common accusation is that rich men wrote the Bible to control the massed. I used to work with an atheist who believed in cavemen and evolution (I of course don't). His name was Mike. Mike told me that religion started with the cavemen. He thinks that some of the Neanderthal men were greater than the lesser, having the women and the money, et cetera. So the lesser of the species decided to start a religion, claiming belief in a higher power, which gave them something that the greater ape-men didn't have, which gave the lesser of the group a feeling of superiority over the greater. Although his theory is intriguing, I am much more compelled to believe that God truly does exist, and man's need for religion is proof of God's existence.

So the first evidence that God exists and that the Bible is His inspired Word, is the miraculous manner in which the Bible was discovered by mankind (by the way, I only accept the King James Bible as uncorrupted in modern English, all others have been tampered with but that is a different topic).

Also, reading the Bible can be challenging to someone new to it, because the Bible is NOT assembled in chronological order, except for the first 5 books (written by Moses) and Revelation. For example: The book of Job likely occurred around the time of Genesis, before the law was given in Exodus. When men write books, they flow logically from start to finish, but the Bible is an amazing assortment of 66 different books. Another example is the Old Testament book of Daniel, which is absolutely essential to understanding the New Testament book of Revelation.

To me, this is another proof of divine origin.

It has been wisely said that if men could write the Bible, they wouldn't; and if they would, they couldn't. The following Scripture speaks of Moses. Hebrews 11:27, "By faith he forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king: for he endured, as seeing him who is invisible." Another favorite passage of mind is Romans 1:20-21, "For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse: Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened."

According to these Scriptures (see also Psalms 19:1-3), nature is another proof of God's existence. This is further evidence of a divine Creator. I am always amazed that people will acknowledge the possibility that alien life exists outside of our solar system, but will deny the existence of God. By very definition, God is extra-terrestrial (beyond the earth). God is an alien! I don't think he is green and skinny like Close Encounters, but in truth, we don't know what God looks like. Since man is created in God's image, I seems to make sense to me that God must somewhat look human, but I do not know for certain.

There are some unanswerable questions in life. How big is the universe. According to science, the universe is still expanding. The Bible agrees with that. Job 9:7-8, "But the LORD shall endure for ever: he hath prepared his throne for judgment. Which alone spreadeth out the heavens, and treadeth upon the waves of the sea." Can the universe have an end to it? If so, what is beyond that barrier? The answer defines all human understanding and science. Also, when did time begin? Can time have a beginning. If so, what existed before time? Again, an answer would defy all human logic and science. The only plausible answer is God, a divine Creator.

Another evidence of God and the veracity of the Bible is the preeminence of Jesus Christ throughout history. Consider that our very time system is based upon B.C. (before Christ) and A.D. (from Latin, meaning, "in the year of our Lord"). Hollywood movies prevalently take Jesus' name in vain, cursing and blaspheming His holy name. Why would the world be so enamored with a historical being who wasn't God in the flesh? And it's not just Hollywood. What do human say at extreme moments of physical pleasure, "Oh God!" What do humans say when the most scared, "Oh God!" What do humans say when the most angry, "God % $ &@ $!" OR "Jesus % #* %* Christ!" This also testifies to the inherent knowledge in every human being that God is real, and Jesus came to earth as God incarnate in the flesh (Romans 1:20-21; John 1:1-3, 14; 1st Timothy 3:16).

Also, I have had numerous web visitors tell me over the years, that it was the existence of 666, Satan worship, the occult and the forming New World Order that convinced them of God's existence. Their reasoning is that if Satan is real, then God must also be real. I mean, we have to admit that a lot of people believe in Satan...

- [3]https://mail.jesus-is-savior.com/Evils %20in %20America/CCM/nwo _images _in _ccm.htm

All those dark things creep people out, and rightly so! Whether or not the Devil (a literal spiritual being, a fallen archangel, Lucifer) exists, the world sure believes in him!

So these are some proofs of God, Jesus and the Bible:

1. Man's inherent need for God
2. The manner in which the Holy Bible was randomly discovered by mankind over 1,500 years
3. Nature itself and the universe
4. The unanswered questions of how big is the universe and when did time begin
5. The preeminence of Jesus Christ throughout history
6. the blatant existence of Satan worship, New World Order and the occult

That is the best I can do to make my appeal to you dear reader, that the God of the Holy Bible is real, and Jesus is His only begotten (biological) Son; the Christ in whom all humans who BELIEVE ON HIM are born-again, through whom we obtain forgiveness of sins and eternal life by faith without works (Romans 4:4-7; Galatians 3:26; 1st Corinthians 15:1-4; John 20:31). I have only provided some Scripture references in case you'd like to confirm these claims with the Bible.

Ultimately we all have to make our own conclusions based upon the available evidence. Ten people can view the same exact evidence, but a couple will believe (Christians), a couple will refuse to believe (unbelievers), and others will remain unconvinced either way (agnostic). The choice that we make could affect where we spend eternity. The Bible is very clear that unless a man is born again, he cannot enter into God's Kingdom. John 3:3, "Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God."

I encourage you also to read Michael P. Bowen's book, "[4]I NEVER KNEW YOU: THE HORROR OF THE COMING GREAT WHITE THRONE AND HOW YOU CAN AVOID IT."

In the book, Michael shares his personal struggle with faith, explaining that he was an atheist in his youth (at your age), and how he came to believe on Jesus Christ. I encourage you to read his story. The book was written in a kind and understanding spirit, not judgment or harsh.

I humbly think if you'll ponder all these truths, that you will also come to the light of the truth of the Gospel (the Good News of Christ crucified, buried and risen the third day), by which those who BELIEVE are saved (1st Corinthians 1:21, Romans 1:16; Acts 16:30-31; 1st Thessalonians 4:14; John 6:28-29, 40, 47).

3.7.13 Believers Will Give Account In Eternity For Bad We Do (2022-07-23 22:46)

2nd Corinthians 5:9-11, "Wherefore we labour, that, whether present or absent, we may be accepted of him.

For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad*. Knowing therefore the terror of the Lord, we persuade men; but we are made manifest unto God; and I trust also are made manifest in your consciences."

1st Thessalonians 4:6, "That no man go beyond and defraud his brother in any matter: because that the Lord is the avenger of all such, as we also have forewarned you and testified."

I used to teach a very long time ago that Christians will only be rewarded in Heaven for the good that we do, but none of the bad things we do will ever be brought up. I was so WRONG!

In fact, as you just read from our text Scripture passages, God's children WILL be held accountable for the good AND OR BAD we have done in our fleshly body on earth. Carefully notice that the Bible doesn't say we will give account for "our sins"; but rather, for the "good or bad" done in our body. Jesus took the punishment for our sins on the cross, shedding His precious blood and dying a criminal's death for you and me. 2nd Corinthians 5:21, "For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him."

Jesus (Who was 100 % sinless), became as sin (which is what the brass beat into the shape of a serpent by Moses pictured in John 3:14), so that we who have no righteousness of our own, could be saved by God's imputed righteousness through faith alone in Jesus Christ!!! Amen and amen. Philippians 3:9, "And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:

Dear reader, all believers WILL be held accountable to our heavenly Father in eternity. Christ bore the heavy burden of our sins, so that we wouldn't have to by burning in Hell forever. I have heard many preachers falsely teach that believers won't be judged for our sins at the Judgment Seat of Christ. That is only half true! Yes, we won't be condemned for our sins (John 3:18; Romans 8:1). But we will be judged as God's redeemed children for our wrongs, and be rewarded accordingly (1st Corinthians 3:11-15).

Many believers will weep bitter tears of regret and sorrow at the Judgment Seat Of Christ. A few will shine as the stars forever (Daniel 12:3). No one in Heaven will stand as a shining example of what we all should have been, except Jesus Himself. The Bible teaches that there is no one today without sin in their life. You may do a good job of hiding your sins from others, but God sees your sins and they will be known in eternity. 1st Timothy 5:24, "Some men's sins are open beforehand, going before to judgment; and some men they follow after."

There are many people who have commit horrible crimes, but have never been caught by the police. Some would receive life in prison if the horrible things they have gotten away with were known. But you can be rest assured that in eternity God will recompense all men for their evil deeds, or good deeds (Romans 12:19-21). The only difference is, will your works be judged on the basis of being an unsaved sinner (John 8:24), or as a redeemed child of God (Revelation 14:13)? No one ever gets away with anything forever! Hebrews 4:13, "Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do."

3.8.1 Jesus' Physical Resurrection Is A Part Of The Gospel (2022-08-01 09:33)

1st Corinthians 15:12-17, "Now if Christ be preached that he rose from the dead, how say some among you that there is no resurrection of the dead? But if there be no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not risen: And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain. Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God; because we have testified of God that he raised up Christ: whom he raised not up, if so be that the dead rise not. For if the dead rise not, then is not Christ raised: And if Christ be not raised, your faith is vain; ye are yet in your sins."

I read a disturbing news article this week from Austin, Texas, about a church pastor who denies that Jesus Christ resurrected from the dead:

> A pastor from Texas has drawn rebuke for making an outrageous claim on social media that Jesus Christ did not actually rise from the dead.
>
> Jim Rigby, pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church in Austin, Texas, made a satirical post describing himself as a Presbyterian minister bound for hell, according to [1]Charisma News Senior Editor Jennifer LeClaire.
>
> "Apparently, because I don't believe in a literal resurrection, I'm not really a Christian," Rigby wrote. "This unfortunately also means I won't be going to heaven with many of you," adding that while his family is enjoying a heavenly banquet, "I will be screaming in unending torment along with Jews and Democrats and the evil college professors who teach evolution."
>
> "My accusers explained to me that I had it all wrong," Rigby went on. "They said I did not understand the gospel. You see, the earth was once a paradise. The dinosaurs were actually gentle and friendly. But then Adam and Eve stole a piece of fruit. God got very angry. So God invented cancer and hemorrhoids to punish human beings for our treachery."
>
> Rigby questioned why God has decided to "barbecue us eternally for the mistakes of our ancestors." He also wondered why it became "good news" when God allowed His son Jesus to be crucified in our place.
> SOURCE: [2]Texas Presbyterian pastor draws rebuke for claiming that Jesus did not really rise from the dead

Dear reader, according to our text Scripture passage from 1st Corinthians 15:14-17, that pastor is not saved. That is, he cannot become a born-again believer until he repents of his unbelief, and acknowledges that Christ is indeed bodily risen from the dead.

For those of you who are familiar with my writings, you know that I often make mention of Jesus' "bodily" or "physical" resurrection from the dead. I use these important words on purpose, to emphasize that Christ is risen! I learned something frightening many years ago, that the cult of Jehovah's Witnesses (JW's) deny Jesus' bodily resurrection from the dead. JW's believe and teach that Jesus only raised up in spirit, but not physically in a literal fleshly body.

I love this beautiful passage of Scripture, recording Jesus' speaking to Thomas in His resurrected body:

> John 20:25-29, "The other disciples therefore said unto him, We have seen the Lord. But he said unto them, Except I shall see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and thrust my hand into his side, I will not believe. And after eight days again his disciples were within, and Thomas with them: then came Jesus, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, Peace be unto you. Then saith he to Thomas, Reach hither thy finger, and behold my hands; and reach hither thy hand, and thrust it into my side: and be not faithless, but believing. And Thomas answered and said unto him, My Lord and my God. Jesus saith unto him, Thomas, because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed: blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed."

Take a look at 1st Corinthians 15:6, regarding Jesus after He raised up from the dead:

> 1st Corinthians 15:6, "After that, he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once; of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep.

Wow! Jesus was seen by over 500 saints at one time, in His resurrected glorified body. Amen and amen! Pastor Jim Rigby in Texas isn't the only pastor who denies Jesus' resurrection altogether, there are thousands more standing behind church pulpits today. It is apostasy!

NO ONE has ever been , or ever will be, born-again who denies Jesus' bodily resurrection from the dead. How can Christ save anyone, if He didn't rise up from the dead and exit His grave in the tomb? The Bible teaches that today Jesus physically sits upon a throne in Heaven, on the right-hand of His Father. Colossians 3:1, "If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God."

There is another heretical religious group called "modalists," who teach that Jesus doesn't have a physical body in Heaven anymore. They believe that when Jesus bodily ascended into Heaven (Acts 1:11), that He just became the Father again. Modalists believe that when a saint gets to Heaven, we will just see God the Father sitting upon one throne, and not seen the Son in a separate body of His own. They believe that God enters into different "modes," wearing different hats so-to-speak, but He only occupies one body. This is false doctrine!

Now, it is true that there is only one true and living God (Deuteronomy 6:4). And this one God exists and has manifest (revealed) Himself to humanity in the form of three distinct, separate, equal persons; namely, God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit (Matthew 28:19-20; Colossians 2:2, 9). In theology the Godhead is often referred to as The “ Trinity.

Dear reader, make big of Jesus’ bodily resurrection. I have read numerous

“The Romans Road

” religious tracts passed out by churches, in which Jesus’ resurrection is not even mentioned. Sadly, Christ’s bodily resurrection is often left out of tracts, which cannot accurate then be called “

Gospel tracts.

They are really religious brochures, misleading people. I implore you friend to make sure to preach the true accurate Gospel, which is recorded by the Word of God:

> 1st Corinthians 15:1-4,

When Paul says you are saved “if you keep in memory what I preached unto you,” he is not saying that you can lose God’s salvation if you change your mind. In humbly believe that he’s saying you were never saved at all if you drift away from the truth. It is a wrong mindset to tell people that they must keep having faith the rest of their life to go to Heaven. The correct mindset is that a born-again person (a child of God) WILL keep believing. You don’t have to tell a human child to remember to stay alive. It is automatic.

Likewise, once you are saved, you are permanently saved. Nothing more is required to maintain being in state of salvation. This is why [3]I expose The Salvation Army, for erroneously calling salvation "a state." Ladies and gentlemen, salvation is not "a state" that you enter into and out of; but rather, it is a new birth wrought by the Holy Spirit of God almighty (John 1:12-13).

I hope this blog has helped you to see the vital importance of constantly emphasizing Jesus’ physical resurrection when witnessing to people. JESUS CHRIST IS RISEN!!!

3.8.2 The Hateful, Unforgiving Spirit Of Pastor Jeff Redlin, Campus Church And Pensacola Christian College (2022-08-04 01:29)

Ephesians 4:30-32, “And grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption. Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice: And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ’s sake hath forgiven you.”

Matthew 6:15, “But if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.“

I need to explain some history first, so you will understand. I moved from the island of Guam (where I had lived for 17 years) in July of 2021 to Pensacola, Florida. While on Guam, I attended the Harvest Baptist Church for the year of 2013-2014. For the first few months I was numb from my broken life and inexplicable emotional trauma in my life after my former wife divorced me in 2006, and the mayhem that followed in the years afterward. But as Samson’s hair began to grow and his strength return, I began to regain my courage as a preacher at Harvest Baptist Church.

I learned firsthand at Harvest that the Bob Jones University cult there preach the Devil’s lies of Lordship Salvation, teach a false meaning of repentance and use the Devil’s corrupt bibles.

On one particular Sunday, Harvest’s senior pastor Marty Herron gave an invitation at the end of his sermon, saying verbatim: “It is not enough to admit that you are a sinner to get to Heaven, you must also turn away from a lifestyle of sinning.” I was sickened in my soul to hear such heresy being taught to hundreds of people present in church that Sunday morning. I went home and literally cried many tears, asking God if I should go back to Harvest or not, since they were a cult. I felt that God wanted me to try to help them, so I did. I took hundreds of dollars of my own money and bought hardcopies of a few books (authored by faithful men of God) and gave them to the pastors. Those books were:

- [1]I Never Knew You (by Michael P. Bowen)
- [2]Martin Luther: Master Of Deceit (by Pastor Max D. Younce)
- [3]Somebody's Got To Milk The Cows (here's the mp3 sermon upon which the book is based, by Pastor Jack Hyles)
- [4]NIV: The Antichrist's Bible (by Pastor Al Lacy)

The response from Harvest's wicked pastors were to scold me officially in the church office, which compelled me to leave their theological cult. But I was so lonely in the years to follow, having lost my church family. I missed them all so much, and all the friends I had made, and the woman I had fallen in love with and wanted to marry. I begged three times in 2017 if Harvest's pastors (Marty Herron, Joe Hansen and Jared Baldwin) would please forgive me, and just allow me to attend their church. I gave them my solemn promise that I would remove all my criticisms against their church from social media, to the best of my human ability, and regardless of what happened in the future I would never criticize them or Harvest again on social media. They unanimously cold-heartedly refused. Marty Herron in particular, since he was the senior pastor and ringleader of their cult, adamantly refused, telling me verbatim to "Go elsewhere." I was devastated emotionally, again, feeling their hatred and rejection.

The Holy Spirit comforted me with this Old Testament Bible passage, reminding me that my great Savior was also despised and rejected of men for telling THE TRUTH:

> Isaiah 53:3, " He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief: and we hid as it were our faces from him; he was despised, and we esteemed him not.
> **"

I am guilty of one thing: TELLING THE TRUTH!!!

In hindsight it is obvious that I never should have tried to go back to that cesspool of iniquity at the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. After my fallout with Harvest's ungodly pastors, some of my friends at the church (Doug and Karen Abels, Dave and Amy Morgan, my neighbours Carl and Peggy and their four children) also left the church. Harvest was a sinking ship!!! For seven lonely years (from late 2014 to 2021) I had no church family because of Marty Herron's wickedness, for which I plead with God to hold him fully accountable.

In July of 2021 I moved away from Guam, broken in soul and body, frustrated and tired. When I arrived in Pensacola on July 2nd, I chose to attend Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College (PCC), not realizing what I was getting into. I learned very quickly that PCC is in league, spiritually fornicating with Harvest Baptist Church on Guam and Bob Jones University (BJU). I was again sickened.

If you search on Google for "Harvest Baptist Church, KHMG radio," you'll see that Jeff Redlin's name appears on Harvest's church website. Harvest plays Redlin's sermons on their radio station. In 2014, I had prayed together at Harvest with the man who operated the KHMG radio station on Guam at the time (which is broadcast throughout Micronesia, corrupting the islands). When I started attending Campus Church in 2021, I met that same man, who had moved back to the United States, and was now running the radio station at PCC. And that man's son is now on Guam, running Harvest's KHMG radio station. What a small world it is!

The man who runs the radio station at PCC is a good man, and I love him in the Lord, but I am just making a point that PCC and Harvest are connected, which is a problem because of their drastic difference in doctrine (literally preaching two different plans of salvation). I know that Pastor Redlin preaches a free grace Gospel, but BJU does not. I directly asked Pastor Redlin if he believes that repentance and faith are one act, and he confirmed yes, they are. But the BJU camp views repentance as a separate act from faith, in which you must turn away from your sinful ways or else your faith is said to be false. Dr. Redlin is correct, BJU is wrong.

Pensacola Christian College Wickedly Bids Godspeed To Unsaved Bob Jones University Calvinists

My point ladies and gentlemen is that PCC is in bed with Harvest Baptist Church (which is a cesspool of BJU and PCC graduates). Marty Herron quit as the longtime senior pastor of Harvest in 2018, escaping on a golden parachute, now destroying young people's lives as the vice president of Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary in Ankeny, Iowa. That college has a devil working for them! They are all buddies (the PCC and BJU camps), milking the money-tree together, joined at the hip as spiritually deformed conjoined twins.

After a couple weeks of attending Campus Church, one of my enemies made sure to slander me to Campus Church. I couldn't figure out why Pastor Redlin had ignored my kind emails to him for 10 days. I found out later that he and the other pastors of Campus Church, became offended when they discovered my website ministry. In his own cruel words, Jeff Redlin falsely accused me of " finding weaknesses in preachers,

when in reality I am preaching against WICKEDNESS in preachers!!!

What the former shameful pastor of Harvest (Marty Herron) preaches (Lordship Salvation and giving up your sinful behavior to be saved) is a false gospel. It is not a weakness, but gross theological incompetence and demonic wickedness!!! Marty Herron is an infidel, not a born-again believer. You cannot get saved by partial faith in Christ plus trying to keep the law (Romans 3:19-20). You don't have to give up your willful sinning to be saved (Romans 6:1). Correct Bible doctrine teaches that God saves you by faith alone (Romans 4:5), and then He indwells you with His Holy Spirit, who convicts and works to change your life (1st Peter 2:2; 2nd Peter 3:18; Romans 12:1-2). Growing in grace (sanctification) has nothing to do with getting saved (the legal matter of justification). I think Pilgrim's Progress author John Bunyan said it best:

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." —John Bunyan (1628-1688)

That beautiful quote (which is 100 % Biblical) refutes the false idea that a person must repent "of your sin" to be saved, or the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation which says that more than faith is necessary to be born-again. All of these foolish unsaved preachers today (e.g., Ray Comfort, Paul Washer, John MacArthur, Adrian Rogers, R.C. Sproul, Marty Herron, Steve Pettit, Sam Horn, Chip Ingram and Chuck Phelps), who are teaching that you must forsake sinful behavior to receive God's free gift of eternal life, are corrupting THE TRUTH of the Gospel. Jesus Christ came into the world to die on the cross to pay for our sins, not demand that we try to clean up our lives to do our part to be saved.

Salvation is not a reward for the righteous, it is a gift for the guilty!

Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

Turning away from sinful ways would be a work. Faith puts all of the merit where it belongs, on the object of our faith, Jesus and His work.

If to "repent" means to forsake our sinful ways TO BE SAVED, but Jesus already paid for our sins by dying on the cross, then what are we repenting from?

The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU.

What PCC is doing is wicked, by sinfully bidding Godspeed to the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam and Bob Jones University. Harvest has deceitfully tried to hide what they believe, by removing their Statement of Faith from their website; however, one need only listen to their KHMG 88.1 FM radio station to hear [6]Dr. Steve Pettit (executive president of Bob Jones University and an unsaved heretic) preaching Lordship Salvation (i.e., Calvinism). Harvest is awash with dozens of corrupt modern Bible versions. Their new pastor, Gary Walton, is as incompetent and wicked as his predecessor, still upholding the cult at BJU and fully supporting Steve Pettit's damnable counterfeit plan of salvation. 2nd John 1:11, "For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds."

I have mixed feeling in my heart about Pensacola Christian College. They are mostly correct on the Gospel, but have a false teaching on repentance. According to their official Foundation's Class, and I quote verbatim: "Repentance is a change of mind resulting in a change of behavior." This is dangerous doctrine, because it gives the false impression that if your behavior hasn't change, you didn't really get saved (and that's [7]along the same damnable doctrine being preaching by the Bob Jones crowd today, just not as drastic). BJU requires that you turn away from your intentional sinning to be saved, which is a false gospel. PCC falsely teaches that if you have genuinely repented at the time of salvation, your behavior will change afterwards. Either way, works are being associated with God's free gift of eternal life.

It is so sad what is happening to today's churches, which is the direct result of being trained by incompetent Bible colleges. God knows that I love everybody at Campus Church and PCC, and I miss them much. I went through the same heartache with the corrupt Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. And now, here again, I am going through the same ordeal with Pensacola Christian College and their church family. Honestly, I think they should rename their "Campus Church" to "Campus Chapel," because that is really what it is, a place for their thousands of PCC students to meet three times a week. No true New Testament "church" would refuse to permit a broken-hearted man (me), who has poured out my heart pleading to come back to church. It just proves that everything I have preached against them on social media is true, that they are a bunch of academic types who woefully lack God's compassion for people.

PCC Camp Refuses To Reconcile With Me, Cannot Attend Campus Church

Having said all that, in frustration I left Campus Church in September of 2021. I took my opinions to social media, openly and harshly criticizing Pastor Jeff Redlin and his sidekick associate Timothy Zacharias. I exposed Campus Church and Pensacola Christian College, for their illicit relationship with BJU and the corrupt Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. The PCC camp is really upset with me, as you can imagine.

I am torn between my lonely personal life, needing a church family to love and be loved; versus my being faithful as a fundamentalist Baptist preacher to stand for THE TRUTH. As most of you know, my former wife divorced me against my will in 2006. I have lived alone ever since, which often causes depression and sadness. I go to sleep alone, I wake up alone. I talk to myself all throughout the day, because I need to talk to someone, and God is always there to listen to me. Being lonely is a type of prison. Yet, what does Marty Herron care, he has a wife? What does Jeff Redlin care, he has a wife? And yet these selfish wicked men berate me as a divorced man, and do everything they can to hinder me from finding a wife. If it weren't for Marty Herron's hatred, false gospel and wicked heart, I would have married the woman I loved at Harvest, who also liked me, but Herron coerced her to diss me (and she did).

When I first started attending Campus Church in July of 2021, I wrote a very sincere email to Pastor Redlin, explaining my pain of soul and body, my loneliness as a divorced man for 15 years, and my hope to find a wife at Campus Church. In his shallow selfishness, cruelty and self-righteous attitude, Pastor Redlin replied by scolding me for coming to church to find a wife. I was cut to the heart! I rebuked him back that he would ASS-U-ME this was the only reason I wanted to attend Campus Church. He put words in my mouth that I never said. I simply shared my heart with him, as a friend, thinking that perhaps since it is such a big church that I might meet someone. I pray to God that Mr. Redlin could know what loneliness feels like, because he has no idea. I know what it means to suffer. I do not hate Pastor Redlin, but he is not right with God, and sadly doesn't want to be either. The guy is getting paid a ridiculous 6-digit exuberant salary, and I mean absolutely nothing to him as a human being. It's just a damn job to him, sadly.

In the last letter sent on July 21, 2022, I provided my email address, my mobile phone number and my mailing address, but I haven't heard anything from anyone at PCC. It is sad. They are in bed spiritually with the Bob Jones University cult, and in so doing have made themselves partakers of their evil deeds (the damnable falsehoods of Lordship Salvation, Devil's bibles and misunderstood repentance). RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!! I am the only one who is TELLING THE TRUTH, and taking a faithful Biblical stand against the false plan of salvation being preached today by John MacArthur and Steve Pettit (and by extension the ungodly Harvest Baptist Church on Guam).

When I attended the Lighthouse Baptist Church on Guam in 2018 for several months, Sean Quinlan (an incompetent PCC intern pastor), rebuked me harshly when he overheard me tell a church member that: "Bob Jones University promotes corruptible seed" (fake bibles). I initially apologized to him for offending him, but he kept running his big mouth, accusing me of having no class and usurping his authority as the church pastor. The guy freaked out!

I added my comment that the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam is preaching Calvinism. Quinlan snapped back, saying:

“Harvest is our sister church!” Oh my God, “ sister church

? I was utterly sickened by what he had just uttered out of his potty mouth.

Sadly, Sean Quinlan and the entire PCC camp are committing spiritual adultery with the Bob Jones University camp. In case you missed it, [8]please read the damnable heresy being preached at BJU today!!! (here is a [9]backup article, just in case). Folks, I am not the bad man here!!! I am obeying Titus 1:9-14:

> Titus 1:9-14, “Holding fast the faithful word as he hath been taught, that he may be able by sound doctrine both to exhort and to convince the gainsayers. For there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, specially they of the circumcision: Whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre’s sake. One of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The Cretians are alway liars, evil beasts, slow bellies. This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith; Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men, that turn from the truth.”

The deadly theological garbage that Steve Pettit and his followers (Marty Herron, Gary Walton, Chuck Phelps, et cetera) are preaching, turns men away from THE TRUTH. I cannot recommend enough that you please read Michael P. Bowen’s beautiful book: “ [10]I Never Knew You ”

(free online .pdf version), which is a brilliant defense of the free grace Gospel (hard copies are available on Amazon.com, which make great gifts for loved ones or people you want to share the Gospel with in a discreet manner).

Our churches and Bible colleges are in big trouble today dear reader, because no one is standing anymore against false doctrine. It is for faithfully contending for the faith (Jude 1:3), that the BJU camp at the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, and their butt-buddies in the PCC camp here in Florida, have all despised and rejected me, so that I am not even allowed to attend their weekly church services. Don’t anyone dare tell me that America is not going to Hell. Today’s pastors have blood-soaked hands!!!

I was feeling bad over the past several about the whole matter, regretting that I burned my bridges to attend Campus Church, by criticizing the PCC camp on social media. I don’t regret the truths I have preached, I just regret that I burned my bridge to attend Campus Church, and to fellowship with the handful of friends that I made last summer. So on June 17, 2022 I wrote a sincere letter and mailed it to Pastor Jeff Redlin. He totally ignored me. So one month later I mailed two more, but separate letters, one to all the pastors of Campus Church and one to Pensacola Christian College (PCC). Sadly, they have totally ignored me again.

In the last letter I apologized for offending them. I pleaded for their forgiveness. I made a promise to them all, that if they would simply allow me to attend Campus Church, I would never criticize Campus Church or PCC on social media ever again. And I also offered to do whatever they require to make peace with them, including apologizing in front of Campus Church if they desired. Evidently they do not value me enough as a human being to even reply to my three heartfelt letters sent through the U.S. Postal Service. The ball is in their court. I have done what I can to make peace with the PCC camp, but they refuse. What saith the Scripture?

Matthew 6:15, "But if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses."

Campus Church has some very big wallets in their congregation, but I am a small fish with chump change. I have nothing to offer the PCC camp, except that I need their love and help, but they don't need me. You can tell a man's character by the way he treats those who can do nothing for him. I am a nobody. I'm just a hurting divorced man, with health problems (constant neck pain and burning nerves), a broken heart, who desires to be a part of the church family. I do want to find a Christian woman to marry. If that makes me a horrible sinner for being lonely and desiring a mate, then so be it.

My inspired King James Bible teaches in 1st Corinthians 7:1 that every man needs a wife. The Bible doesn't put conditions on that truth, but PCC does, condemning divorced people, expecting them to survive alone and single for the rest of their days. At PCC they only recognize the perfect will of God, but not the permissive will of God. So unless you are perfect, still married and dot all your i's and cross your t's just right, they reject you! That is a religious cult!!! I am not welcomed at Campus Church, because I have called them out for fornicating spiritually with the hellbound Bob Jones University cult. Look at the demonic trash which Dr. Steve Pettit teaches 2,700 BJU staff and students:

> "You can't just speak about getting saved, and you accepted Christ, and then that's it! There is a justification; There is a sanctification; There's ultimately a glorification, and though there are three parts, they are all part of the whole, and you cannot separate them. In order for you to qualify for the award, you have to get into the race, you have to stay in the race, and you have to finish the race. If you want to win, you have to run to the end; and winning in the Christian life is everything, because if you lose—if you don't finish—you lose everything—you lose your SOUL. And so, the Christian race is the life of faith that begins, is run, and is finished when we cross over into Heaven!" [emphasis added] —Dr. Steve Pettit ("What Does It Mean To Run 'The Race'?" - [11]11:34)

That is some dangerous talk when you include the [12]next quote from Dr. Pettit, in which he teaches over 2,700 BJU students that the "AWARD" for running 'The Race' is "Heaven itself"!!!

> "We run the race, we cross the finish line, and so what's the prize? What is the award? Well, there are different viewpoints. Some would have the viewpoint that the awards are crowns in Heaven. But as I read the book of Hebrews and see the whole gist of the book and the flow of the book, I don't believe its referring to crowns in Heaven. I think it is referring to Heaven itself*." [emphasis added] —Dr. Steve Pettit ("What Does It Mean To Run 'The Race'?" - [13]22:57)

Heaven itself? Oh my! Steve Petit is preaching another gospel. According to Dr. Pettit, you cannot merely put your faith in Jesus as your personal Savior, and then know that you're going to Heaven. Oh no, he says you must then RUN THE RACE for the rest of your life, faithfully so, until the very end, and only then after all is said and done, can you know for certain that you've made it to Heaven. Dear reader, this is the Satanic tommyrot that Jeff Redlin, Campus Church and Pensacola Christian College are bidding Godspeed to today.

This is the balderdash that the cultic Harvest Baptist Church on Guam is steeped in, buried over their heads in the counterfeit gospel of Steve Pettit, John MacArthur, Ray Comfort, Paul Washer, Marty Herron and Gary Walton. Harvest won't even post their beliefs about salvation anymore on their church website, because they are wickedly attempting to appease both sides (Lordship Salvation versus Free Grace Gospel). Harvest is making lots of money by playing the ecumenical card, straddling the fence instead of choosing sides. 1st Kings 18:21, " And Elijah came unto all the people, and said, How long halt ye between two opinions? if the LORD be God, follow him: but if Baal, then follow him. And the people answered him not a word. " That is Harvest, cowards! That is PCC, cowards! I have chosen sides with the Free Grace Gospel. I am 100 % against the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation, and the Devil's lie that you must repent "of your sin" or "turn away from your sin" to receive God's free gift of eternal life. I am 100 % against the Devil's modern corrupt Bible revisions, which the entire apostate Bob Jones University crowd use, sell and promote. RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!!

If Pastor Jeff Redlin were an honorable man who fears God, he would humble himself and contact me, and I would welcome him as my Christian brother, and humbly express nothing but respect and appreciation for him, but he doesn't care. PCC stands to lose millions of dollars by offending the BJU camp. The love of money is the root of all evil the Bible warns. Folks, it is our business what other Bible colleges and churches are preaching, because RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS. You're a fool if you think it's not our business!!! All I wanted was to attend Campus Church again, but Jeff Redlin refuses. What does that say about him?

The ironic thing about all this is that I never picked a fight with any of these men, they drew first blood. Like Rambo, who just wanted something to eat, but some king shite cop harassed and drove out of town instead; likewise, I just wanted to attend these churches (Harvest and Campus Church), but they started messing with me, scolding me for TELLING THE TRUTH. They drew first blood. They drew first blood!

God knows that I sincerely love Pastor Redlin with Christ's love, and I would love to be his friend. I wish I could go bike riding with some of the Christian men at PCC. But I feel nothing but contempt from Jeff Redlin. In all truth, he should be commending my website ministry for contending for the faith, instead of criticizing my life's work (as he has done). So he can criticize my work, but I dare not criticize his ministry, or else. Really fair, huh? I am still willing and trying to make peace, but Pastor Redlin doesn't want to. I am writing this blog as a testimony before God and man, that I am trying to make peace with the PCC camp, but they have refused three times already.

I have done what the Bible teaches, I have gone to my Christian brother to seek to be reconciled, but Jeff Redlin has cold-heartedly refused:

> Matthew 5:23-24, "Therefore if thou bring thy gift to the altar, and there rememberest that thy brother hath ought against thee; Leave there thy gift before the altar, and go thy way; first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift."

I do have ought against Pastor Redlin now, because he refuses to reconcile. So the Bible teaches from this point on that God will not accept Jeff Redlin's sacrifice or worship, until he first repents (changes his mind) and is willing to reconcile with his brother. My PROMISE still stands, as long as I live in the city of Pensacola, to do my best to remove all my criticisms on social media against Campus Church and PCC, and never criticize the PCC camp again, BUT ONLY IF they'll just allow me to attend Campus Church again, so I can be a part of their church family.

My heart is hurting. I am saddened that I haven'

t heard back from anyone. I love them all so much at Campus Church and PCC, but they don't care about me. Where is Christ's love? I really could use Pastor Redlin's friendship right now. I know I can be difficult sometimes, but I am not a liar and I will keep my promise, if they will forgive and give me a second chance. I think I have an excellent spirit in this matter. What is wrong with the PCC camp? I challenge you Jeff Redlin, to show forth the great heart of God's love, and forgive me for offending you. I am truly sorry. I do not regret my preaching, I regret having burned my bridges, once again, to attend Campus Church. I am willing to make amends to gain a church family. Let him that hath ears to hear, hear. I love you all with Christ's unconditional love. Humbly.

3.8.3 There Is No Love At Pensacola Christian College And Their Horrible Campus Church (2022-08-04 10:11)

1st John 3:17, "But whoso hath this world's good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him?"

Pastor Jeff Redlin has no honor. I mailed two separate letters (one to Jeff Redlin on June17th, 2022 and the other to all the pastors of Campus Church on July 21st, 2022), and one email to Pastor Redlin on August 2nd, 2022, and a separate letter to PCC on July 21st, 2022, pleading with them all for forgiveness, so that I could come back to Campus Church. I offered to do whatever is necessary to come back to Campus Church, and Jeff Redlin knew it. But he waited SIX WEEKS to write me back, and I didn't understand why. So I finally had had enough and I lashed out against them on August 2nd, 2022 on my website ministry. It is obvious to me now that Redlin was hoping I'd do just that, grow tired of waiting, so that he'd have the excuse he wanted to permanently get rid of me. Jeff Redlin has no humility or love!

Even though I offered to do whatever they require to make peace, Redlin sinfully manipulated my words, claiming that they were waiting for me to remove my harsh comments against the from social media. But I had plainly told the pastors of Campus Church (and PCC) that I FIRST wanted to know if I could come back to Campus Church, which they refused to do. THE TRUTH is that neither Jeff Redlin or Timothy Zachariah wanted me to come back to church. They ignored my promise to do whatever they required to make peace. They were just looking for any excuse they could find to ban me from attending church, even though it was so obvious that as a hurting and tired man, I simply wanted their love and a second chance to attend church. I didn't ask to work on staff or enroll in PCC, I just wanted to attend church. What kind of ungodly pastors refuse to let someone even sit in church? Ungodly men!

Pastor Redlin further twisted my words around, saying that even though they refused to allow me to come back to Campus Church, they hoped that I would keep my promise to remove my comments from social media. But I never promised to remove my comments from social media, unless they first agreed to let me come back to church. Why should I spend months removing comments from social media, hurting my ranking in Google search engine for missing webpages, just to find out that PCC still refuses to forgive me? So, no, I'm not removing anything, since they are filled with hatred and refuse to give me a second chance to attend church. That is not Bible Christianity.

Although Jeff Redlin has cruelly referred to my online preaching as "consequential," I have no regrets for telling THE TRUTH. I exposed Jeff Redlin and company for wickedly bidding Godspeed to the hellbound Bob Jones University (BJU) camp and their damnable heresies of Lordship Salvation, and wrong repentance (aka, turn away from sinful behavior to get to Heaven garbage theology). RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!!

I also told the world online about Pastor Jeff Redlin's abusive nature. The guy has a small heart, but gets paid a big salary. When I first met Pastor Redlin at the 4th of July picnic in 2021 at Campus Church, I told him that I had just arrived from the island of Guam 36 hour earlier, but was sleeping in Walmart's parking lot. He just cold-heartedly walked away from me. I was hurt that the senior pastor of Campus Church, having tons of resources at his disposal, would rather just leave his Christian brother sleeping in a Walmart parking lot. 1st John 3:17, "

But whoso hath this world's good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him?

And then a couple days later I emailed Jeff Redlin to introduce myself, explaining my painful divorce 15 years earlier in 2006, when my former wife abandoned me. I spent 5 hours composing me email, wanting to make sure it was exactly what I meant to say, and respectfully written. I couldn't have been more kind, loving and respectful. Toi my horror, Redlin replied by scolding me for mentioning that I hoped to find a wife at Campus Church. I realized at this moment that I was dealing with a small-minded religious man, who is self-righteous and woefully lacks God's compassion for hurting people.

That is so tragic, that PCC would subject its thousands of students to such a shallow, religious and strictly academic type person, who lacks God's compassion for people. This seems to be the norm in the PCC camp

—a lot of formal religion, snobby culture and restrictive rules (the letter of the law); but there is little love and the Holy Spirit of God. I was abused by Jeff Redlin, and the abuse continues in 2022. He refuses to make peace with me. That is so sinful and wrong. It is really evil. By the way, I am still wanting to make peace with the PCC camp, anytime Pastor Redlin decides to grow up and communicate with me like two adults. All I am asking in return is to be able to attend Campus Church. PCC refuses to do it. What does that say? No doubt Jeff Redlin will make a bunch of lame excuses, which is his pattern. But I will do WHATEVER IS REQUIRED by PCC to make peace with them, but they won't meet me half way to give me the opportunity. PCC doesn't care about making peace, they just want more money. I know that greatly offends PCC, but their refusal to allow me to attend Campus Church proves that it is tragically the truth.

Just as all wicked people do, Jeff Redlin selectively read my letters, only seeing what he chose to see, trying to manipulate my words in an attempt to blame me for his wicked refusal to help a hurting Christian brother. Jeff Redlin is not a nice man. My offer still stands PCC camp. I PROMISE to remove all my comments from social media, and never put them back again, BUT ONLY IF Pastor Jeff Redlin wants to make peace with me as well, so that I can once again attend Campus Church. The sad truth is that Redlin is a manipulative liar, who secretly in his black heart harbors hatred against me, which is tragic. He'll falsely accuse me of not removing my harsh remarks from social media, but I asked him if I could please come back to Campus Church, which he refused to answer for SIX WEEKS, until he finally said no way.

I admirably took the initiative to contact Jeff Redlin, Campus Church and PCC, offering to reconcile with them. No one in the PCC camp ever took the initiative to make peace with me. That's because no one gives a damn over there at PCC. There is no love or desire to reconcile with their enemies. Anybody would get upset after being totally ignored for 6 weeks!!! What is wrong with Jeff Redlin? I am not good at playing Redlin's mind games. It shouldn't be a chess game when someone begs for forgiveness so they can come back to church. I was waiting for Pastor Redlin to meet me halfway, expressing his desire to also make peace with me, but he stubbornly refused to do so.

Pastor Redlin wanted me to crawl on my hands and knees like a dog, jumping through his hoops and totally submitting myself as his slave, but I am not for sale folks! All he needed to do with communicate with me like a reasonable adult, which he refused to do for six long weeks! Jeff Redlin and Timothy Zacharias behave as two children, who are too immature to meet with people. I offered to come down to Campus Church, so we could sit down and have a meeting, but they refused. It wasn't until I had finally had enough of their evasive behavior for 6 weeks, that I finally lashed out against those pastors and PCC on social media.

Then at that point, Jeff Redlin he told me that I couldn't attend Campus Church ever again. That is the typical abusive nature and hatred which permeates from the PCC camp. They push people!!! They do everything in their power to control, upset and ostracize people; and then when those people react unfavorably, PCC blames and kicks them out of their religious cult! God sees the evil that the pastors of Campus Church did to me, and the Lord will deal with them. It couldn't be more obvious that I was fully willing (and wanted) to make peace with the PCC camp (and my offer to make peace still stands). But I won't be bullied by two thug pastors!!!

Unlike Pastor Jeff Redlin (who in his last email to me on August 2nd, 2022 said that because of my "consequential remarks online I am banned from Campus Church), my last email to him afterwards was filled with love, apologies and still humbly begging to come back to Campus Church). Redlin refuses to reply, as usual. Who wants to make peace in this dispute? I do. Who is the only one making an effort to reconcile? I am. So what is wrong with Jeff Redlin and Timothy Zacharias, who hide as cowards in their church office? I will gladly meet with them anywhere, anytime, so we can talk this out and reconcile. They won't do it.

Dear reader, whoever you may be friend, there is no love at Pensacola Christian College. Oh yes, there is emotionally provoking singing. Oh yes, there is snobby culture, with their elaborate orchestra and opera type singers. Oh yes, there is a big fancy building. But there is no genuine love for hurting divorced people like me. Pastor Redlin berated me as a divorced person. Right in front of his lovely wife, he embarrassed me, telling me that even if I did find a wife he refused to perform the wedding. What a horrible thing to say to a hurting and lonely divorced man.

This is why Jeff Redlin won't allow me to come back to Campus Church, because I grabbed him by the short-hairs, when I told the world on social media what he did to mistreat me as a human being. It was bad enough that he just walked away, after I told him that I was sleeping homeless in Walmart's parking lot. But then he cruelly scolded me for mentioning that I hoped to find a wife at Campus Church. In lieu of all the several dozens things I mentioned in my first heartfelt email to him, trying to become his sincere friend, Redlin shamefully chose to focus on my comment that I was lonely for 15 years and hoped to find a Christian woman to marry at church. What a hateful pastor!

And then he adds salt to the wound by embarrassing me in front of his wife on a Sunday morning. Tyranny is rarely seen by those who are not oppressed by it. Jeff Redlin has most people fooled, pretending to be some humble man that actually cares, but it is a masquerade. In reality, Jeff Redlin is an insecure little man who is a coward, full of resentment and hatred for anyone (like me) who dares to call him out and criticize him. As the senior pastor of PCC, Redlin gets paid well over $100,000 per year. Campus Church took in $3,500,000 just in 2020, finishing the year 2020-2021 with $1,200,000 left in the bank. Their exorbitantly high salaries are sickening!

PCC is infamous for discarding unwanted students and people in their Campus Church. That is not Bible Christianity. You either love everyone or you love no one! Jeff Redlin despises me. The great loving heart of our God is not present in the PCC camp. While I attended Campus Church, I did not discern God's Spirit in that place; but rather, the haughty spirit of man. PCC is guilty of merely going through the external motions of playing church, but there is no compassion for hurting people like me.

Like sicko Hollywood, PCC likes to fall all over themselves with awards, praising each other, but there is no love. I cannot help that I am divorced. My former wife left me and refused to reconcile in 2006. I have reluctantly lived alone since, depressed and suffering with inexplicable pain of soul. Yet, insensitive Pharisees like Jeff Redlin just expect lonely people like me to pray about it and be single for the rest of my life, while he gets to go home and enjoy his wife every night. Does that even sound reasonable, at all? Kindly said, the PCC camp are out of touch with reality. PCC attracts mostly married couples, since they are hard on divorced people, making them feel inferior, bad about themselves and unwanted at Campus Church. They do have some formerly divorced people who are now married at PCC, but if you are divorced like me, single, and hoping to remarry, they will shun you!!!

THE TRUTH is that Pastor Jeff Redlin, and his accomplice Tim Zacharias, were looking for any reason that they could find to prevent me from returning to Campus Church. Even though I poured out my heart to Pastor Redlin in a letter mailed to him on June 17th, 2022, he totally ignored me! If he had God's love, after reading such a humble letter, he would have taken the initiative to reply right away, to encourage me, since I was trying to do the right thing. And then in frustration one month later, after still not hearing back from anyone, I wrote a second letter on July 21st, 2022. I mailed two copies, one to the dear pastors of Campus Church, and the second to Pensacola Christian College. I again poured out my heart and apologized to everyone, but they all completely ignored me! Who wouldn't be hurt and get upset at this point?

So on August 2nd I lashed out on social media against Campus Church and PCC, rightly accusing them of refusing to forgive me so that I could come back to church. In his typical cold-hearted and deceitful fashion, Pastor Redlin blamed me, accusing me of not removing my criticisms from social media as I had promised. But I never promised to do anything until I heard back from him, wanting to know if he agreed to let me come back to church. The reason why I didn't remove my criticisms is because I still stand behind them 100 %. Jeff Redlin falsely accused me in July of 2021 of "

with my website ministry. He slanders my life's work and has nothing good to say about it?

Something that I really loath about some bad pastors, is that they are selective in who they care about, and who they don't. If there was ever someone that Christ had a legitimate reason to hate and despise, it was Judas who betrayed Him to be crucified on a cross. But what did Jesus call Judas, "Friend." Dear reader, you don't get to pick and choose who you love. You either love everyone, even the most annoying and rotten human being on earth, or else you don't really love anybody, even though you may pretend to do so. The one great thing that I see missing in churches and pastors today is God's unconditional love for hurting people.

In my last email to Pastor Redlin, I kindly explained that my rantings against him on social media were really just a hurting and broken man, reaching out to be loved. And yet, he refuses to have anything to do with me. That is so wicked and wrong!!! I will continue to pray for Jeff Redlin, that God will convict his wicked and cold heart, so that at some point he will begin to truly love people. Only God can take a man and BREAK HIM, so that he will learn to love. Redlin said on August 2nd, 2022 to me, that remarks on social media were "consequential," so that they won't permit me to attend Campus Church anymore. Folks, that is unforgiveness! That is carnal hatred of others. That is a refusal to forgive. You cannot merely tell someone that you forgive them, but then deny them permission to come to church to sing and fellowship with other believers. Sadly, something is very wrong with Jeff Redlin and Timothy Zacharias. They are shallow-minded men who lack God's love and understanding.

There is no love at Pensacola Christian College.

3.8.4 Why Pastors Like Jeff Redlin At Pensacola Christian College Don't Care (2022-08-05 10:02)

John 10:11-14, "I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep. But he that is an hireling, and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth: and the wolf catcheth them, and scattereth the sheep. The hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheep. I am the good shepherd, and know my sheep, and am known of mine."

> "You will never really love until you love someone who hates you." —Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001)

I was amazed one day when I read the preceding passage of Scripture. It is absolutely amazing to me, how we can read and look over a Bible passage repeatedly for 10, 20, 30 or even 40 years and not see golden nuggets of truth tucked away in the precious inspired Word of God. And the trustworthy King James Bible is 100 % verbally (word for word) and plenary (the whole canon, all 66 books) inspired; please don't let anybody tell you differently!!!

I had known (since I was wonderfully saved at age 13 in 1980, by God's grace through faith alone in Jesus Christ) that Jesus is the Good Shepherd. Every born-again child of God is a lamb. Jesus is our Good Shepherd. As we just read in John 10:11-14, the pastor who is a hireling (meaning it is just a job to him for money) flees when trouble comes.

I heard recently about a pastor in Rockford, Illinois who quit as senior pastor in 2021, because of a sex scandal in the local church involving a church member (but not the pastor). I don't understand why a pastor, with over 40 years of faithful service to God's flock, would bail out on a church during their darkest hour. Consequently, hundreds of church members also quit, never to return. The church stopped its Bus Ministry. What a shame! Now is the time more than ever to keep those buses rolling! The church is dying. Folks, never quit during the battle!!!

[1]FIGHT, But If You Cannot FIGHT, WITHSTAND, But If You Cannot WITHSTAND, Then STAND!!! (a wonderful sermon by Pastor Jack Hyles, preached in 1991).

Jesus said in John 10:13, “

The hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheep.

” I had attended Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College (PCC) for the summer of 2021. Sadly, Pastor Jeff Redlin (their senior pastor) horrible mistreated me as a new guest. He scolded me for hoping to find a wife at Campus Church. What a selfish man. Only an unwise pastor would scold a 54 year old man for hoping to remarry, after 15 years of being divorced by my wife and lonely. Redlin never once offered to pray with me. He just didn’t care. Jeff Redlin never once told me that he loved me with Christ’s love, even after I spent 5 hours taking the time to pour out my heart in a lengthy email to him. That is a terrible pastor! You see, Pastor Redlin is merely a hireling, like Jesus said, so he doesn’t care!

John 10:13, “

The hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheep.

When I arrived in Pensacola, the ungodly Woodspring Suites Hotel where I had made advanced reservations for 3-days, cancelled my confirmed reservation without notice, when my flight was delayed by United Airlines on Guam for one hour. I missed my connecting flight to Denver in Honolulu, and ended up having a 17 hour layover in Oahu. The rotten hotel manager didn’t care and cancelled my stay. So I ended up literally sleeping in Walmart’s parking lot on Mobile Highway in Pensacola for the 4th of July weekend. I was watching fireworks being lit off in neighborhoods all around me, while living in Walmart’s parking lot.

I attended Campus Church for the first time on the 4th of July, 2021, at their big picnic. I kindly told Pastor Redlin about my situation at the Campus Church picnic, that I was sleeping in Walmart’s parking lot. I saw the startled look on his face, and then he just cold-heartedly walked away and never came back. What an uncaring person! Redlin missed a gulden opportunity to help Jesus that day:

> Matthew 25:40 and 45, “And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me. ...Then shall he answer them, saying, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye did it not to one of the least of these, ye did it not to me.”

Pastor Redlin walked away from Jesus. Ironically, I was wearing my hat that says “Jesus” on it. Whenever you help a child of God, you are helping Jesus! And when you don’t help a child of God, you didn’t help Jesus! In other words, Jesus has the precious attitude that “We are in this thing called Christianity together!” That is why we read in Colossians 3:1-3, “If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God. Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth.

For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God*. ” I LOVE THAT LAST VERSE!!! The day that you got saved (hopefully you are saved), your identity become one with Jesus Christ.

At the time of salvation, that is, the new birth, all of the sins which were recorded against us in Heaven were forever washed away:

> Revelation 1:5-6, “

And from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful witness, and the first begotten of the dead, and the prince of the kings of the earth. Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood,

And hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father; to him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

Do you understand dear redeemed child of God, that the day we were saved, we were appointed to be kings and priests to reign with Christ in His future Millennial Kingdom? Revelation 20:6, “Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: on such the second death hath no power, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with him a thousand years.” Our old mortal bodies in the earth, will be resurrected at the Rapture as new physical immortal bodies (1st Corinthians 15:51-58). What a glorious day that will be!!! Jesus cares! I love this precious song by Bill Gaither...

Does Jesus care when my heart is pained
Too deeply for mirth or song,
As the burdens press,
And the cares distress,
And the way grows weary and long?
O yes, He cares, I know He cares,
His heart is touched with my grief;
When the days are weary,
The long night dreary,
I know my Savior cares

[2]Hear Bill Gather Trio Sing: Does Jesus Care?

But the pastors who only care about their paycheck, the HIRELINGS, don’t care! Pastor Jeff Redlin doesn’t care! I love people and don’t like to have bad blood. So on June 17th, 2022 I sincerely wrote a kind letter to Pastor Jeff Redlin at Campus Church. In the letter I asked him to please forgive me and allow me to once again attend Campus Church. I explained my hardships and health woes, asking for his love and an olive branch (an offering of peace), Very sadly, Jeff Redlin didn’t bother to respond. Evidently I’m not worth his time.

I’ve been praying for Pastor Redlin, that God will humble his pride and haughty spirit. Mr. Redlin is not a humble man, not at all. Sadly, there is no forgiveness at Campus Church. I contacted their Pastor’s Office, but there is no second chances at PCC. God will judge between me and Campus Church. SHAME on the PCC camp for hiring such an uncaring fool to influence their thousands of students. Is that the kind of poor example that PCC wants their students to see and emulate, an uncaring proud pastor who refuses to forgive and give a hurting man a second chance?

As a testimony before God and man, I am still willing to remove all my criticisms against Pastor Redlin, Pensacola Christian College and Campus Church from social media, if they’ll simply allow me to attend Campus Church again, but Jeff Redlin so far would rather be at war instead of make peace. Does that sound like a man of God to you? No way! By refusing to reply to my sincere plea for forgiveness, Pastor Jeff Redlin has sadly confirmed everything negative which I have said about him on social media, primarily that Jeff Redlin is a cold-hearted academic snob who woefully lacks God's love and compassion for hurting divorced people like me.

John 10:13, "

The hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheep.

I've said it before, and I'll say it again and again... PEOPLE JUST WANT TO BE LOVED!!! I dearly love this man below, Pastor John K. Jenkins Sr. (he is the faithful longtime pastor of the First Baptist Church of Glenarden, Maryland). God bless this beautiful redeemed sinner...

Forgiveness - Part II - Pastor John K. Jenkins Sr.

Sadly, we live in a throw-away society today in America. When you offend someone, they just throw you away. I offended Pastor Jeff Redlin, so he sinfully threw me away as a human being. They still have the 9,999 sheep, so they don't care about the 1 lost lamb like me who needs their love, help and friendship.

John 10:13, "

The hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheep. " You see, Jeff Redlin is getting paid well over $100,000 a year as the senior pastor of Campus Church. It is all about money!!!

1st Timothy 6:10 warns that THE LOVE OF MONEY is the root of all evil. These carnal pastors and leaders at PCC are so defensive of their salaries, that they are always on the defensive. I triple-dog dare you to search Google for Pensacola Christian College scandal, sex abuse, mental abuse, expelled students, rape and you will see how corrupt and horrible Campus Church and PCC really are. They don't give a damn about hurting people!!!

All they care about is making more filthy lucre (bill-gotten money). When a religious institution like Pensacola Christian College expels their own senior students over the smallest of offenses (i.e., Twitter comments, showing public allegiance to confederate general Robert E. Lee, et cetera).

Kindly said, Campus Church and Pensacola Christian College leadership seriously lack good sense, God's love and compassion for people. I attended Campus Church as a new guest for the summer of 2021. Their senior pastor, Jeff Redlin, was emotionally cruel and abusive toward me because I am a divorced single man. It didn't matter to him that my former wife abandoned and divorced me in 2006, and I have lived alone since, Redlin made it clear that I am not permitted to ever get remarried. According to Jeff Redlin, a man should just use a pillow and box of napkins for the rest of his life when his libido needs to be relieved. PCC are out of touch with reality. Redlin literally scolded me for telling him that I hoped to "find a wife at Campus Church." He told me right in front of his wife, that if I ever did find a woman to marry, he wouldn't perform the wedding. Jeff Redlin is cruel!

John 10:13, "

The hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheep.

" The hireling doesn't care!

Long story short, I felt unwanted and unloved as a hurting divorced person at PCC, so I left Campus Church in September of 2021. I then became critical on social media of Jeff Redlin and PCC. But I felt bad, because I love God and people. I wanted to make peace with them at Campus Church. So I wrote a very kind and sincere letter and mailed it to Pastor Redlin on June 17, 2022, asking him to please forgive me and allow me to attend Campus Church again. He never bothered to respond. I must have offended the PCC gods. It just justifies all my criticisms against Pastor Redlin and PCC, that they are a bunch of cold-hearted academics who woefully lack God's love and compassion for people. That is not Bible Christianity. People just want to be loved, an important lesson that the PCC camp still haven't learned after all these many years they've been in business. It is truly sad. Thank you for reading my comments.

John 10:13, "

The hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheep.

The hireling doesn't care!

Jesus said that the people who get HIRED (aka, hireling) to work with the sheep (pastors of churches), quit and abandon the sheep when the wolves comes, because THEY ONLY CARE AS MUCH AS THEIR PAYCHECK! They fled because defending the sheep wasn't worth what they were getting paid, which just shows and proves that they were only in it for the money all the time. This is exactly what Jeff Redlin is, a hireling who doesn't care. The day that his paycheck is gone, Jeff Redlin will be gone! ...

> Romans 16:17-18, "Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them. For they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple."

Jesus said that phony pastors who are only in the ministry for the money, WILL QUIT when the storms come upon a church. They WILL abandon the sheep, but Jesus will NEVER leave nor forsake His sheep (you and me, and all saints).

John 10:13, “

The hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheep.

” Here we see a very strong Biblical principle, that people who enter into the ministry to make money, cannot be depended upon.

Psalms 15:5, “

He that putteth not out his money to usury, nor taketh reward against the innocent. He that doeth these things shall never be moved.

” You can trust a person who doesn’t regard money. You cannot trust someone who loves money! Psalms chapter 15 teaches us how to NEVER CHANGE! One of the ways to never change is to abandon the desire for making money. In other words: I’M NOT FOR SALE!!!

Since 2002, when I started my website ministry, I have never asked for, nor accepted, nor even suggested, that anyone give me a money donation. If I wanted, I could make several thousand dollars each year just from accepting donations. I had a kind man on Facebook, a couple days ago, ask me if I would accept a financial offering from him. He wanted to show his love and appreciation for my ministry, which he said God has used to change his life. I kindly declined, but asked him for his prayers instead for me and my ministry for Christ. Prayer is priceless!!! I am humbled that anyone would want to give me their hard-earned money, but I decided in 2002 that I would never take a penny for my ministry work. I want people to know where my heart is it—helping others freely with God’s unconditional love. I am your servant!

Sadly, and I don’t mean to berate Pastor Jeff Redlin (God knows my humble heart), Jeff Redlin does NOT have a servant’s heart. He has a big shot’s attitude—BIG MAN on Campus (literally)—who looks down on a nobody like me with contempt, instead of forgiving and embracing me as his Christian brother in need with God’s love. There is NO GREATNESS in Jeff Redlin. I say that in truth, not in hate. The opposite of love is not hate, it is INDIFFERENCE!

I am reminded of a beautiful MP3 sermon by Pastor Jack Hyles titled: ’ [3]Is There No King In Thee? ’

They don’t have God’s unconditional love for people at Campus Church and PCC, they are indifferent toward heresy in the Bob Jones University camp, sinfully hobnobbing and bidding Godspeed to BJU. Sadly, George Harrison of The Beatles showed more love for people, than most professed Christians do today in the churches. Something is very wrong with the picture!

There are no perfect churches, I understand that. If there were a perfect church, we wouldn’t be allowed to attend there! Evidently Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College must think they are perfect though, because Pastor Jeff Redlin refuses to allow me to attend their church services. Redlin refuses to forgive me. That is heathendom, not Christianity! I wouldn’t give you a dome for the phony bologna fake type of Christianity that exists at Campus Church and PCC today. “ is written over their doors at PCC, The glory of the Lord has departed.

I-chabod

” The Holy Spirit is not there in power. Campus Church is a lukewarm disgrace!

Please don’t misunderstand me. I am not saying that every pastor who receives a salary doesn’t care. But I am saying that many of them DON’T CARE, who get paid for what they do. The way to know if a pastor cares is very simple—YOU WILL KNOW!!!

I love Pastor John K. Jenkins Sr., who genuinely loves and cares about people. We’re all a bunch of “Jacked Up Jokers” (as Pastor Jenkins preaches). We sure are! There is a night and day difference between the self-righteous hypocrisy of the unforgiving Pensacola Christian College crowd, versus the real people who are broken redeemed sinners like me and the beautiful people at the First Baptist Church of Glenarden, Maryland. PEOPLE JUST WANT TO BE LOVED!!!

3.8.5 Shame On Pastors Who Won't Give Repentant People A Second Chance (2022-08-06 10:04)

Acts 15:36-39, "And some days after Paul said unto Barnabas, Let us go again and visit our brethren in every city where we have preached the word of the Lord, and see how they do. And Barnabas determined to take with them John, whose surname was Mark. But Paul thought not good to take him with them, who departed from them from Pamphylia, and went not with them to the work. And the contention was so sharp between them, that they departed asunder one from the other: and so Barnabas took Mark, and sailed unto Cyprus; And Paul chose Silas, and departed, being recommended by the brethren unto the grace of God. And he went through Syria and Cilicia, confirming the churches."

I love that the Apostle Paul had zeal. In our text passage of Scripture, Paul was excited to go back to all the churches where they had preached God's Word and started churches, to see how they were all doing. I love that! How does that compare to many lame preachers today who win someone to Christ, brag about the 200,000 people they led to Christ (which is exactly the number that I heard missionary Steve Heidenreich boasting about online), but never go back to follow-up on those alleged converts? It is ridiculous! Every Christian should try to follow-up on their converts, to see how their doing and to mentor them. I speak to myself as well.

By the way, I once met with Steve Heidenreich in 2004 to discuss becoming a missionary in the Philippines. I paid for the whole dinner, for which he never even thanked me. Sadly, he couldn't have cared less, brushed me off, and spent the entire time bragging about himself that he built $1,000,000 worth of buildings in the Philippines for Missionary Rick Martin. I don' t like Steve Heidenreich

, he is a weirdo in my book! I learned recently that Evangelist Allen Domelle is married to Heidenreich's daughter. I sure hope the apple fell further than the tree, so that she is not as goofy as her Dad is.

My then wife and young children were with me in 2004, when I met with Steve Heidenreich to discuss becoming a missionary. He didn't give a damn. When he asked me to pray for the meal, I bowed my head because that is how everybody I know prays. But later on my kids said: "Dad, when you prayed, he looked at us and didn't bow his head. He was looking to see if we were praying." Evidently Heidenreich has some cute little weird thing that he does, judging a man based on whether his family bows their heads too. What the dumb weirdo didn't know is that when I pray with my family, we never bow our heads, I thank God out loud for the meal. Bowing one's head is religion, not prayer! Steve Heidenreich is a religious weirdo!!!

Let's move on, shall we. But then there is something that I intensely dislike about the Apostle Paul, which is that Paul was proud, arrogant and refused to give people a second chance. John Mark messed up. He made a big blunder, which caused Paul some pain and embarrassment, for which Paul refused to forgive John Mark. John has abandoned Paul's side on his first missionary journey, which must have caused Paul considerable grief. So when Barnaba wanted to bring John Mark along to revisit the churches they had preached at previously, Paul got angry and refused. SHAME on Paul!!!

I recently wrote a humble letter in all humility to Pastor Jeff Redlin of Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College (PCC). I asked for his forgiveness and a second chance to attend Campus Church, but he refuses to even have the courtesy to respond to my letter that I mailed him. That is so horrible! That simply vindicates everything that I have written and warned people about him, that he is a heartless academic who woefully lacks God's compassion for hurting sinners. I offered to do whatever he requires to make peace with Campus Church, but he doesn't want peace. That speaks volumes that Jeff Redlin doesn't walk close with God. Mr. Redlin is not a humble man.

Pastor Redlin collects a ridiculous 6-digit salary for playing church, going through the motions, sucking up to PCC leaders, delivering his shallow sermonettes and pretending that he cares about a select few people in his close circle. If you don't love everybody, you don't love anybody!!! What kind of senior pastor shuns someone from coming to church? But a nobody like me doesn't mean crap to a rich snob like Jeff Redlin. The guy has the only reward he will ever receive from God, which is his undeserved paycheck!

As a testimony before God and man, I tried to make peace with Pastor Redlin, but he refuses to do so. I told him that all I am asking for is an olive branch (which is a symbol of peace), but the Bible says there is no peace to the wicked. SHAME on pastors who won't give people a second chance. Jesus said if you don't forgive, He won't forgive either. Matthew 6:15, "But if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses."

Shamefully, I have heard numerous pastors actually cite the Bible where Paul and Barnabas couldn't agree, in a sinful attempt to justify their refusal to make peace with others. The truth is that Paul was the problem, not Barnabas. Paul's thorn in the flesh didn't humble him as much as he claimed. Paul was sinfully proud, refusing to forgive and give a fellow brother a second chance to serve God. Sadly, I see that type of hatred and carnality is so many pastors today. It is pathetic.

The same can be said of Pastor Marty Herron at the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. For several long and painful years I had nowhere to attend church, because Marty Herron refused to allow me to attend churches services. Evidently he considered Harvest HIS CHURCH instead of GOD'S CHURCH. Thankfully, Mr. Herron quit in 2018 and fled back to the United States. Sadly, he is now corrupting hundreds of young people's lives with his Calvinist damnable false plan of salvation at the Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary in Ankeny, Iowa.

God knows that I don't hate these men, they hate me, because I called them out for their unchristian behavior, for preaching false doctrine, and for dropping the ball for God. Am I the enemy because I am exposing Devil's corrupt Bible versions? Am I the enemy because I expose the Devil's lies of Lordship Salvation, Misunderstood Repentance and Calvinism? I think not. In fact, I know not. Galatians 4:16, "Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth? "

Jesus commanded every believer in Matthew 18:22 not to forgive others 7 times, but 70 times 7. Pastor Jeff Redlin won't forgive me once! I doubt if he'll ever write me back. I'm thinking about writing a letter to PCC once a week, for years to come if necessary, going over Redlin's head, in all due respect and kindness to the entire PCC family, until Pastor Redlin responds as a Christian ought. Jesus said to leave your gift to God at the altar, and go make it right with your brother first, and only then come back to God. Until Pastor Redlin makes peace with me, God will not bless him. He may have money, shallow friends, worldly success and the praise of lemmings in his church, but not the blessings of God. I am the only one trying to reconcile and make peace, casting my pearl before the swine with proud pastors who are playing God.

Hurting people hurt people. Pastor Redlin deeply hurt my feelings when he scolded me for confiding in him that my former wife divorced me 15 years ago, and I was hoping to find a wife at Campus Church. Instead of showing God's love, compassion, empathy and some understanding, he harshly scolded me for coming to church to find a wife. But he said that, not me. I never said the ONLY reason I came to church was to find a wife. It just so happens that it is a big church, and I realized that it might be a good place to find a wife, which greatly offended him. You simply don't scold a 54 year old man for wanting to find a wife. That was not very wise of Pastor Redlin to do that, and so I lashed out back against him, because I felt he deserved it. I feel bad about that, and I have apologized to him, but it seems that there is no forgiveness or second chances at Campus Church and Pensacola Christian College (from all the horror stories I keep reading on the internet about students being terminated).

My heart is broken and sad, that my brother in Christ refuses to reconcile with me. I am not just asking for his forgiveness, I am offering to do whatever it takes to make reconciliation. I'll apology to the whole church if that is what he wants, but my hands are tied until he does the right thing. And so, that is where I am at right now with Campus Church. I am still waiting and waiting and waiting to hear back from them, but I am not holding my breath. Something is very wrong with the PCC family, that they require absolute allegiance or else. PCC won't let people be people. You don't get a chance to mess up over there. If you don't believe me, go search the internet for angry former PCC students. I was 100 % kind and loving toward Pastor Redlin in the summer of 2021, but he made multiple inflammatory remarks to me, which deeply hurt my feelings. Jeff Redlin drew first blood! He drew first blood. But I am drawing first love. I have written to him to make peace, but he won't respond. What does that say about Pastor Redlin?

I will continue to pray for the guy, asking God to humble him. Everyone deserves a second chance. And to clarify, the things I have said online about Campus Church and PCC I stand behind, but in hindsight I regret saying them, simply because I don't have a church to attend now. Calvinism has crept into so many Baptist churches today. The Smyrna Baptist Church is corrupt. The First Baptist Church of Pensacola is corrupt. The New Warrington Baptist Church is corrupt. I hope and pray at some point that Campus Church will forgive me and allow me to attend their church services. All I can do is try. One day at a time.

3.8.6 I’m Just Ruffling Their Feathers At Pensacola Christian College And Campus Church, Hoping They’ll Change (2022-08-13 09:08)

Hebrews 3:13, “

But exhort one another daily, while it is called To day; lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin.

As many of my blog readers know, I moved from the island of Guam to Pensacola, Florida in July of 2021. Although I miss Guam, I am glad that I left because I couldn't afford the high cost of housing on Guam. The average rent price per month is now $1,700. Anyway, I chose to attend Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College (PCC) in July of 2021. I met their senior pastor, Jeff Redlin, for the first time at the church's 4th of July picnic. I told him that I had just arrived 36 hours earlier from Guam, was suffering from jet lag (Guam is 15 hours ahead of time than Pensacola), and that I was sleeping in my car at Walmart.

Sadly, he didn't care and just walked away, so I slept in Walmart's parking lot again that night, just as I had the night before, and the nigh before that. The Woodspring Suites Hotel where I had confirmed a 30-day reservation, cancelled my entire stay, because United Airlines delayed my flight on Guam (for which the FAA has fined them repeatedly), and I was a day late. I had contacted the hotel ahead of time to let them know they could bill me for the missed day, and that I was definitely still coming, but they cancelled it all, too bad so sad. JERKS!!!

Let's move ahead, shall we. So the next day I emailed Pastor Redlin to tell him how excited I was to be at Campus Church and PCC. I shared my heart with him, as a friend to a friend, my Christian brother in Christ. To my sadness and grief, of all that I had written to him in my email, he zoned in on a comment I had made that I hoped to find a wife at Campus Church, actually scolding me for it. I was cut to the heart. Who was this jerk? Me finding a wife is none of his damn business. I was 54 years old at the time, and disgusted that some shallow pastor would be so abusive, as to scold a grown man for desiring a mate and companion. That is shameful on the part of Pastor Redlin. But the abuse didn't stop there.

I had responded to his email to rebuke him back, letting him know what I thought about his Pharisaical judgmental attitude. Sad to say, authoritarian abuse in churches today is everywhere! I just read today from Christianity Today that the corrupt Southern Baptist Convention (who has 45,000 member churches) is now being investigated by the U.S. Justice Department for a widespread epidemic of clergy abuse. I was emotionally abused at PCC.

After Redlin abusive remarks, I felt dejected and unwanted. So I emailed very kindly to ask if as a divorced man who intends to get remarried, am I welcome at Campus Church? It was a simple question. Pastor Redlin totally ignored me for the next 10 days. I was disturbed by his poor behavior, so I very kindly approached him on a Sunday morning, after church, as he and his wife greeted church members and visitors. I simply asked him why he hadn't replied to my email. He backed away a couple feet, as if perplexed and a bit nervous, signifying with his open hands that he didn't have an answer. He then said, I might as well answer your question now: "I would never perform a wedding for you if you got remarried." I was again cut to the heart, not by what he believed, but that he would be so rude as to say such a thing in front of his wife, which embarrassed me further. In fact, I had never asked Jeff Redlin to perform a wedding. My simple question was: "Am I welcome at Campus Church as a divorced man who intends to get remarried?" He could even answer a simple question!

So I emailed him the next day to express my hurt feelings and frustration with his abusive behavior. Why was this pastor looking down on me for being divorced and lonely, hoping to remarry? Sadly, this is the PCC camp's pathetic and unbiblical ways. They abuse divorced people, making them feel like outcasts, adulterers and whores. The truth is that PCC are a bunch of yuppie type academics who woefully lack God's compassion for hurting people. Unfortunately, I experienced this type of clergy abuse firsthand at PCC's Campus Church.

In frustration, and feeling unloved at PCC, I left the church in September of 2021. I n the months to come, and hearing nothing from them (they have my contact information), I harshly criticized them on social media. I told everybody what Jeff Redlin had horribly done to me. But I am a loving and forgiving man, so after several months I was lonely. There is no place to go to church on Sunday nights in Pensacola, except PCC's Campus Church. So in June of 2022 I wrote a very apologetic and sweet letter, and mailed it to Pastor Redlin, pleading for his forgiveness so that I could come back to Campus Church. He totally ignored me.

So after one month of hearing nothing, I composed and mailed another letter, four times longer, again begging for their mercy, understanding, empathy for my health problems and lonely situation. I mailed the same letter to both Campus Church (all the pastors), and the second to PCC. Again, they all totally ignored me. Really great people, huh? So on August 2nd, 2022, I had had just enough of these cold-hearted pastors. So I lashed out against them on social media, again, not knowing what else to do. Only then did Jeff Redlin respond (by email), to tell me that I am permanently banned from ever attended Campus Church again.

I am done begging like a dog to come back to church, casting my pearl before swine. Sadly, these overpaid pastors don't care one iota. Jeff Redlin and his sidekick Timothy Zacharias get paid outrageous salaries. Jeff Redlin's gets paid well over $100,000 per year!!! They don't deserve that money. As far as I'm concerned, they're incompetent religious pilots who are crashing Campus Church into the ground, killing all the passengers (church members) on board. Be careful who you entrust your life to!

So, by God's grace, I will continue to ruffle their feathers at PCC. According to an internet search, "ruffling the feathers" is an idiom which means: "To irritate someone to try to get them to change." That is all I am trying to do by criticizing ungodly PCC leadership and their terrible Campus pastors Church—trying to get them to change their horrible selfish and uncaring ways. God knows that I do not hate them, nor anybody else. I love people. I love everybody. That is exactly why I do write blogs like this, to get their attention at the PCC camp. They desperately need a revival at PCC how they treat other people. They need to repent (change their mind) about how they treat divorced people. Divorced people already feel a lot of guilt, shame and rejection. It doesn't help one bit when self-righteous hypocrites, like the cocky and snobby PCC crowd, berate and ostracized them from their religious community.

I want the world to know that I am not allowed to attend Campus Church, because of the wickedness of PCC leadership, who sanction the shameful behavior of their Campus Church pastors, who in my humble opinion ought not be pastors anywhere. They woefully lack God's love for sinners. They don't care about making peace, amending hurt feelings or reconciliation. Those are not men of God; but rather, mere paid employees of a secularized religious institution. PCC today is about making money, lots of money. The courses they offer are mostly of a secular nature. Religious colleges like PCC are ruining the country, not helping it.

I have written numerous blogs exposing PCC, which you can search for online. They are wrong on Bible repentance. PCC's official doctrinal position is that: "Repentance is a change of mind which results in a change of behavior." That is WRONG! Repentance (Greek: metanoia), a noun, in fact means only: "A change of mind." No where does the Holy Bible teach that repentance unto life results in behavior modification. PCC are liars (Proverbs 30:5-6). Sadly, PCC has been infected by the Bob Jones University (BJU) crowd with whom they are sinfully bidding Godspeed. The ungodly Harvest Baptist Church on Guam preaches hardcore Lordship Salvation, a cesspool of BJU graduates. Harvest works very closely alongside PCC and BJU, refusing to contend for the Christian faith once delivered unto the saints (Jude 1:3; Titus 1:9-14). PCC has blood on their hands, partakers of their evil deeds at BJU, damning men's souls to Hell with a counterfeit gospel that cannot produce the new birth in Christ. Jesus warned in John 3:3b that "Ye must be born again."

Again, I'm just ruffling their feathers at PCC, by lashing out against them on social media. I am preaching against their cult, in a sincere attempt to get them to change their horrible ungodly ways. You know, people just want to be loved. I even made it easy for the pastors of PCC, telling them that my criticisms are just a hurting man who is crying out to be loved, but they refuse to do so. They refuse to love me as a divorce and hurting human being, who has begged them for their love, understanding, forgiveness and a chance to come back to Campus Church to be a part of a church family. They despise and resent me, because I dared to question the almighty gods who lead PCC. I dared to expose them. I dared to say, "No!"

God will judge between me and the leaders at PCC. I told THE TRUTH. I treated them with respect at first, while they mistreated and made me feel like garbage. There is no love or forgiveness at PCC or Campus Church, only authoritarian abuse. There are no second chances, no reconciliation, no coming back to church once you offend them. That is heathendom, not the ways of the precious Lord Jesus Christ (Ephesians 4:28-32). Sadly, PCC is just a money making religious cult today.

3.8.7 God Cannot Pardon Anyone Without Justice (2022-08-16 09:32)

2nd Corinthians 5:21, “

For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him.

I have often heard unsaved people (both religious and non-religious) say that if God is a loving God, then He won’t send them to Hell. Billions of people throughout human history have made the eternal fatal error of assuming that a loving God would never send anyone to Hell. Oh, how wrong they are!

Although God is certainly a God of love, He is equally a God of justice. There must always be justice! Mankind is predictably unpredictable. I read in the news years ago about a man in Alaska, who drove his wife out to a secluded area on a snowy night, and then murdered her with a gun. The judge only sentenced him to 8 years in prison. Yet, in another sad story, a mother in Kansas was sentenced by a harsh judge to 45 years in prison for possessing 1/16th an ounce of cocaine. She was an addict. She needed help, not to be locked in a cage and tortured with loneliness and claustrophobia. In man’s court system, there is little justice!

I have felt sickened lately, to see the U.S. Justice Department going after former honorable U.S. president Donald Trump. Yet, the corrupt U.S. Justice Department refused to investigate and prosecute the culprits behind the 9/11 attacks on the World Trade Center, claiming that it was a matter of “national security.” What rotten scoundrels! The corrupt and injustice U.S. Justice Department also used the same lame excuse not to investigate and prosecute the Oklahoma City Bombing in 1995, or the HSBC Banking Scandal (laundering Mexican drug cartel money) in 2015, or the Mena, Arkansas drug trafficking ring (by then horrible corrupt Arkansas thug governor, Bill Clinton).

THE TRUTH is that the U.S. Justice Department is a puppet on a string, controlled by the demonic Masonic powers that really control the United States, a proxy of Israel since 1948. Thankfully, God sees all the injustice, and He will ultimately execute justice!!! Ecclesiastes 5:8, "If thou seest the oppression of the poor, and violent perverting of judgment and justice in a province, marvel not at the matter: for he that is higher than the highest regardeth; and there be higher than they." Amen and amen!

I once heard the famous movie actor, Jackie Gleason (known as "The Great One"), say that he didn't think that God would send him to Hell for committing one sin. Kindly said, Jackie Gleason was so WRONG! James 2:10, "For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all." It is tragic that he didn't know Jesus Christ as his personal Savior, which is the ONLY way to Heaven. Mr. Gleason said publicly on 60 Minutes in 1984 that his greatest fear was not making Heaven. Sadly, that appears to be what happened, he missed Heaven and went to burn in Hell forever and ever. The inspired Word of God is very clear that a person MUST BE BORN AGAIN to enter into the Kingdom of God. John 3:3, "Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God."

By God's mercy and grace, in response to my faith in the Gospel (Good News) of Jesus' death on the cross, burial and bodily resurrection, I was born-again in 1980 at age 13. I thank God for the gift of His precious only begotten Son, Jesus. I do not deserve to go to Heaven. I deserve to go to Hell to burn forever, because of my own sins. Even one sin is enough to condemn a person to the Lake of Fire for all eternity, without hope or rest. God the Father in His genuine unconditional love, sent His only begotten (biological) Son into the world, to die a criminal's death on the cross, as a substitutionary sacrificial lamb for you and me dear reader.

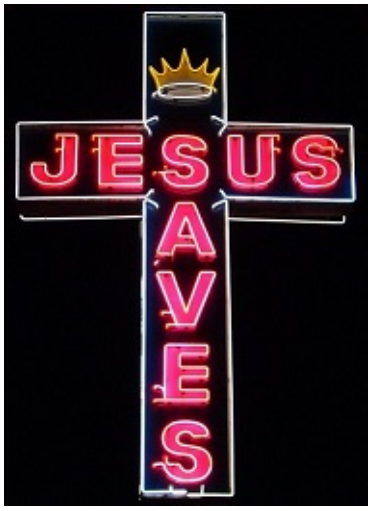
Jesus paid it all! If you want to escape the fires of Hell, and spend eternity with Jesus and the hosts of Heaven in splendor and joy, then you must be born-again. Your sins must be paid for. Either you must spend eternity in Hell paying for your own crimes against God and man, or else you can receive Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins instead. I assure you, upon the authority of the Holy Bible, that God will NOT let you slide someday for your wickedness. God doesn't forget those wicked sins and crimes that you commit in your youth, that humanity doesn't know about, or time has effectively seemingly erased. No doubt there are murderers, pedophiles, rapists, thieves and atrocious criminals at large still, who have never been caught by the police yet. But you cannot escape the omniscience and justice of our holy God. Hebrews 4:13, "Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do." Hebrews 10:31, "It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God. "

According to God's promises in the Bible, no one ever gets away with anything! Matthew 12:36 warns that God will hold men accountable even for their words. Proverbs 24:12 warns that even if men deny their wrong doing, God knows their very thoughts and intents of the heart, and will call them LIARS! You cannot hide or deceive God dear friend, because He knows and sees everything about you (Psalms s139:1-6). Romans 14:10-12 warns that all men will stand before the judgment of God, and give account. This means you! This means me! This means everyone! God is not a respecter of persons. It matters not how rich or poor you are. It matters not whether you are famous or unknown. It matters not if you are big or small, short or tall, learned or ignorant, cultured or uncouth, et cetera.

There MUST be justice! Sin must be paid for. No one can enter into Heaven merely because God is merciful and kind. You must consciously accept God's free gift of eternal life, which is only through faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. Philippians 3:9, "And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:"

So please do not make the grave mistake of foolishly thinking that just because you would let someone off the hook easily, that God is like you, because I assure you that HE IS NOT! God's holiness demands absolute justice, and justice cannot be foregone, overlooked or dismissed. That is exactly why Christ had to die on a cross to PAY for our sins, which were grievous and many. There was no other way of escape:

> Romans 5:8-10, "But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him. For if, when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life."



Did you read that friend? The Bible teaches that we are justified BY HIS BLOOD. John MacArthur is a theological liar, who says that Jesus' blood actually only means His death. No, Mr. MacArthur, you are an infidel on your way to everlasting destruction. We are saved BY THE BLOOD of Jesus Christ (1st Peter 1:18-19; Revelation 1:5, 7:14; 1st John 1:7). Jesus willingly shed His precious blood on Calvary's cross, and then took that liquid blood to Heaven (Hebrews 9:12), to sprinkled on the Mercy Seat in the Holy Place (Hebrews 12:24), in the presence of God on our behalf (Hebrews 9:22-24). Praise the Lord!!!

Please make sure that you have been born-again! Being religious is not the way to Heaven. Attending church, following Christ, surrendering all to God, giving your life to serve Jesus, turning away from sinful ways—these things are all proper in their place along the Christian journey of sanctification, but NONE of these things comprise THE GOSPEL (1st Corinthians 15:1-6); and you may do all these things and yet never have been saved at all. YE MUST BE BORN AGAIN (John 3:3b).

That is the ONLY way to meet God's demand and standard for justice. There is nothing that you can do to remedy your own dilemma. You are a hopeless sinful wretch dear reader, and so am I. Apart from Christ's sacrifice through Calvary's cross, there is no hope for anyone!!! If you will simply humble yourself before almighty God, to admit that you are a hopeless guilty sinner in need of a Savior; and cast yourself at the beautiful feet of the only begotten Son of God, by putting your complete reliance in Jesus Christ to save you, then He promises to do so immediately. John 6:37, "All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out."

Simply believe (put your trust in) THE FACTS of the Gospel, that Jesus is the Christ, the only begotten Son of God (John 20:31), who died in your place on the cross, was buried, but three glorious days later He bodily resurrected from the dead. This is THE GOSPEL by which all who believe it are saved (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). That is how you can be declared JUSTIFIED by God in Heaven, JUST-IF-I'D never sinned at all. What an awesome God!!! Micah 7:18, "Who is a God like unto thee, that pardoneth iniquity, and passeth by the transgression of the remnant of his heritage? he retaineth not his anger for ever, because he delighteth in mercy."

3.8.8 An Ounce Of Prevention Is Worth One Pound Of Cure (2022-08-18 08:39)

Ezekiel 4:9, "Take thou also unto thee wheat, and barley, and beans, and lentiles, and millet, and fitches, and put them in one vessel, and make thee bread thereof, according to the number of the days that thou shalt lie upon thy side, three hundred and ninety days shalt thou eat thereof."

Daniel 1:12-16, "Prove thy servants, I beseech thee, ten days; and let them give us pulse to eat, and water to drink. Then let our countenances be looked upon before thee, and the countenance of the children that eat of the portion of the king's meat: and as thou seest, deal with thy servants. So he consented to them in this matter, and proved them ten days. And at the end of ten days their countenances appeared fairer and fatter in flesh than all the children which did eat the portion of the king's meat. Thus Melzar took away the portion of their meat, and the wine that they should drink; and gave them pulse."

I am now 55 years old. For most of my life I didn't really pay attention to how healthy the foods I ate were. I grew up in the big city, where fast food joints are everywhere. I love those Mom and Pop local eateries, where you can buy cheeseburgers, pizza puffs, extra-dunked Italian sausages loaded with sweet peppers, French fires and other delicious stuff. Unfortunately, all of those tasty foods aren't very healthy.

To be honest, I hate eating fruit. Really. I love deep fried foods, and always have. I love Pizza Puffs, which I order from the ILTACO company in Chicago. They are my all-time favorite food! Yet, I have learned to make myself eat lots of fruits and vegetables for good health. Here is a photo I took of the foods I am eating this week...

[1]

God's Healthy Foods That I Am Eating This Week!

When I eat good, I feel good! What we eat today, we will crave tomorrow. I begin each day by drinking a fruit smoothie. I start with one apple. I recently learned that there are about 5,000 different kinds of apples. That is amazing! Walmart sells about a dozen different varieties. This week I bought the Honey Crisp and also Jazz apples. Two weeks ago I got the Ambrosia apples. I cut the apple up and put it into my 24 ounce Nutri-Ninja cup. Then I add some cold water and 1 to 2 Tablespoons of whole flaxseeds (I buy them in a bag at Walmart, near where the cooking oils are sold). Today I also cut up and added 3 baby guavas (the yellow ones), 1 plumcot, 1 apricot, 1 pear, 1 lemon and 1 yellow kiwi. I drank it all down. Since there is a lot of fiber in eating fruit, I feel full.

I also don't eat much flour anymore. Instead, I have been eating flourless bread...

> Ezekiel 4:9, "Take thou also unto thee wheat, and barley, and beans, and lentiles, and millet, and fitches, and put them in one vessel, and make thee bread thereof, according to the number of the days that thou shalt lie upon thy side, three hundred and ninety days shalt thou eat thereof."

Ezekiel bread is 100 % whole grain, with a Glycemic Index (G.I.) of only 35 (versus 85 for all white breads). The Glycemic Index is a chart showing how much different foods will spike your body's glucose (sugar) level. This is especially important for diabetic people. For diabetics, you should generally try to eat foods with a G.I. of 40 or lower.

An ounce of prevention is worth one pound of cure. That is so true! If we eat healthy foods, in the long run they will reward us with less of a chance of disease, cancer, stroke or heart attack. Everyone should eat one Tablespoon each day of flaxseeds, to get enough Omega 3 oils in the body, which have been shown to greatly reduce the risk of cancer and a heart attack.

In our text passage from the Old Testament book of Daniel, we see that all it took was JUST 10 DAYS to notice a drastic change in one's health and appearance. That is amazing! If you will decide now to go to your local supermarket, and load up on only healthy fruits, whole grains and vegetables, you WILL FEEL and NOTICE the difference in a couple weeks.

The book of Daniel mentions eating " pulse.

" This is pulse...

[3]

Daniel 1:12-16, "Prove thy servants, I beseech thee, ten days; and let them give us pulse to eat, and water to drink."

Pulses are edible dry peas, beans, lentils, and chickpeas. They fall under the legume family, but the word "pulse" specifically refers to legumes that are grown and harvested for their dry seed and grown as food. So pulses include lentils, chickpeas as well as split peas and beans like kidney bean or navy bean. Cool, huh?

I heard another interesting statement: "An ounce of mother is worth one pound of clergy." I like that! In other words, if a mother raises her child wisely and properly, teaching the child to have manners, respect for other humans, avoid vices (booze, cigarettes, recreational drugs), and to always do what is right; then that child likely won't end up in rehab as an adult someday, or be in some pastor's office to get help with their chaotic life. Oh, how our country needs godly mothers again!!! Fathers too!!!

Yes, an ounce of prevention is truly worth a pound of cure, whether it be concerning one's health, the raising of children, finances, maintenance of one's vehicle, working on the marital relationship or anything else in life. It is tragic to see so many Americans today who are so obese, that they have to sit in an electric cart to get around places, because they weight 400 pounds! Nobody gains 50 pounds overnight, it happened a little here and a little there.

It happened because of a wrong attitude. But what's done is done. The only concern people should have right now is, where do we go from here? Even if you are grossly overweight, you can lose a substantial amount of weight (5 to 10 pounds a month), just by eating healthy foods. I lost 5 pounds last month just by eating lots of fruits and vegetables. I eat a lot of stir fries. I love baby Bok Choy, which I buy at the local Asian grocery store.

I encourage you dear reader, if you're not doing so already, to start including some fruits and vegetables into your daily diet. You don't have to completely change your normal diet, but I did and I don't regret it. I still eat foods that I like, but I compromise. I was craving a bacon sandwich last night, so I cooked up a pound of bacon. But I used Ezekiel bread instead of white bread. I put a big wedge of iceberg lettuce and a couple thin sliced red tomatoes on it. And a little Miracle Whip. The sandwich was wonderful!

Eating healthy doesn't have to be boring and torture. You can use all kinds of sauces (Oyster Sauce, Soy Sauce, Vietnamese Chili Garlic Hot Sauce, Dark Soy Sauce, Kung Pao Sauce, Szechwan Sauce, et cetera). I bought all of these items from the local Asian store. I add a little brown sugar, salt, white pepper, 5 spice, onion powder and minced garlic to my stir fry. Each meal that I cook in my Chinese wok is different, and tasty. I am eating lots of healthy vegetables. I like to share with others the things that are a blessing in my life, so you can be blessed too. Eating healthy is a blessing! I encourage you to do as I have done, to read up online about all kinds of fruits and vegetables.

I was curious what that white powdery stuff is on all my blueberries. I thought it was pesticide, but I was wrong. As it turns out, it is 100 % natural, produced by the blueberries themselves, which is a protective wax coating. The natural wax seals in moisture, keeps our insects and disease, preserving the berries. God is more than amazing!!!

Thank you for reading and God bless.

3.8.9 Dr. Curtis Hutson is 100% Correct on Repentance! (2022-08-19 10:02)

There is a raging battle today over the matter of Biblical "repentance" in regards to salvation. Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995), former editor of the Sword Of The Lord, has it 100 % correct...

[1]

Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995)

Pastor Hutson shares this precious true story, defending a free grace Gospel:

> Several years ago, after I finished preaching a Sunday morning service, several people trusted Christ as Saviour, including a lady and her five children. I noticed a man sitting on the same pew who did not respond. After the service, I spoke to him, while many of the members of the church were shaking hands with the lady, her children, and others who had trusted Christ that morning.
>
> "Sir," I said, "is this your wife and children?"
>
> "Yes," he replied.
>
> I said, "Isn't it wonderful that they have trusted Christ as Saviour!"
>
> "Yes," he replied.
>
> Then I asked, "Have you trusted Christ as your Saviour?"
>
> He dropped his head and said, "I'm afraid I haven't."
>
> "May I ask why you haven't trusted Christ as Saviour?"
>
> "Well," he said, "to be honest with you, I'm afraid I can't live it."
>
> I suspected that this man had an idea that in order to be saved, he must promise God that he would never sin again, or he thought that repenting was turning from sin. So I pressed the issue. "What do you mean, you can't live it?"
>
> "Well," he said, "I know that I will probably sin again."
>
> I said, "Sir if getting saved is promising Jesus you will never sin again, then I would never get saved, because I know I cannot live a sinless life." I explained that to be saved one simply had to trust Jesus as Saviour. I opened the Bible to John 3:36 and read, "He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life." Then pointing to the verse, I asked, "Does the verse say 'He that believeth on the Son and lives it has everlasting life'?"

"Oh, no," he replied.

"Then what does the verse say?"

"He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life."

"Then must one believe on the Son and live it in order to be saved? Or must one simply believe on the Son, as the Bible says, to have everlasting life?"

"Well," he said, "I suppose that one must do what the Bible says - believe on the Son."

"Then will you trust Jesus Christ right now as your Saviour?"

With a smile on his face, he answered, "I certainly will." In a moment he joined his wife and children as the church members came by and shook hands, rejoicing with them in their decision to trust Christ as Saviour.

Dr. Curtis Hutson is 100 % correct on repentance!

Evangelist David Cloud's Unnecessary Attacks Against Soulwinners

Many critics have attacked Brother Hutson's preaching, accusing him of preaching "[3]Easy Believism," but salvation is easy, and only requires childlike faith in the Lord Jesus Christ to be saved. The Bible says in Acts 2:41 that [4]3,000 people were saved, water baptized and added to the Church in one day. A couple chapters later in Acts 4:4 we read that another 5,000 men got saved. All together there must have been about 15,000-20,000 men, women and children who were saved and baptized. Somebody was taking count! Numbers were important to God, which He even mentions in the Holy Bible! Certainly, the disciples didn't have time to make sure that each person thoroughly understood what they were doing.

Many churches today make getting saved and water baptized so difficult, that you'd think a person was applying to work for the Secret Service. I know Independent Fundamental Baptist Churches which require people to wait months before they will water baptize them, and you have to share your testimony via a personal video (which is shown to the church congregation) before they will baptize you. That is NOT the Biblical way! That is not how it was done in New Testament churches. People were saved simply by believing the Gospel (1st Corinthians 15:1-4), and then they were water baptized immediately. We see this in Acts 2:41 on the Day of Pentecost. There was no indoctrination, waiting period or requirement to be voted into a local church body, before a saved person could get water baptized and join the church. Today's neo-evangelical churches sure make it hard for people to do right.

Malicious critics, such as David Cloud, have wrongfully accused Brother Curtis Hutson of preaching "Easy Prayerism." Easy Prayerism is a dangerous term.

Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born-again. It is extremely dangerous to criticize soulwinners who are following the Bible's commandment to preach the simple Gospel. I agree that a sinner cannot be saved by praying a prayer. We are saved by faith alone. If a person prays a sinner's prayer at the time of salvation, that is fine, just so long as they clearly understand that it is faith in the Good News of Jesus Christ that saves, and not praying. Galatians 3:26,

“For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. ”

All a person needs to know to be saved is the facts that one is a guilty sinner in God’s sight (Romans 3:19-20), and that Jesus is the risen Savior who died in our place on the cross. Jesus paid our debt of sin! If they call upon the Lord Jesus in faith, placing their trust solely in the Savior, they are saved! David Cloud is sowing discord amongst brethren (Proverb 6:19), and unnecessarily making God’s simple plan of salvation difficult. Please read, [5]The Simplicity of Salvation by Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001). Lordship Salvation [6]has its origin in Roman Catholicism.

David Cloud’s criticisms against some of America’s mightiest soulwinners, such as Dr. Jack Hyles and Dr. Curtis Hutson, have caused much unnecessary confusion concerning "repentance." This is unfortunate. It is very important to understand at this point that repentance and faith in the Lord Jesus Christ are NOT two separate events in time. David Cloud is correct to teach that repentance and faith are two separate "aspects" of salvation; BUT, he is WRONG to attack Dr. Curtis Hutson’s teaching that repentance and faith are NOT a process.

Brother Hutson taught the same correct doctrine as Dr. John R. Rice, i.e., that one who trusts Christ has also repented. Repentance and faith may be two separate aspects of salvation; BUT, they are not two separate events. The Biblical definition of "faith" is different from the Biblical definition of "repentance." This cannot be denied. They are two separate aspects of salvation. David Cloud falsely alleges that Brother Hutson and Dr. Jack Hyles are eliminating the aspect of repentance, by leading lost sinners in a quick sinner’s prayer, but this is not the case at all.

David Cloud even stoops as low as labeling Pastor Jack Hyles as: "The King of Shallow Soulwinning," but David Cloud is shallow to attack America’s mightiest men of God and soulwinners. We ought to be working together, instead of against each other. I thank God for Pastor Jack Hyles!!! Shame on David Cloud! I was a longtime member of First Baptist Church of Hammond, Indiana, where Dr. Hyles pastored for over 42 years since 1959.

I attended Hyles-Anderson College in Crownpoint, Indiana for 8 years (1985-1993). I graduated in 1993. During that time I faithfully sat under Brother Hyles’ preaching at First Baptist Church of Hammond. What a blessing! Month after month during that time, I witnessed thousands of lost sinners coming to Christ for salvation, week after week, because of Dr. Hyles’ ministry. Who is David Cloud to judge their sincerity? As a soulwinner in Dr. Hyles’ ministry, I always explained to prospect converts that they were sinners, deserving of punishment in Hellfire. I showed them several Scriptures. I always explained to people that there were no magic words in a prayer that could save them; but rather, it was one’s belief on the Lord Jesus Christ that saved them.

In fact, you can hear Pastor Hyles for himself teaching the First Baptist Church of Hammond to be careful about false conversions. [7]Pastor Jack Hyles Addresses Critical Issue Of False Conversions In The Churches (MP3 sermon). Dr. Hyles always stressed the Biblical importance of making sure a person understands that they are a sinner as part of being saved. There’s the SIN QUESTION and the SON QUESTION. Admitting that you are a sinner and turning over a new leaf is reformation, not salvation. Believing on Jesus but not realizing one’s sinnership is mere religion. In order to be born-again, you must come as a guilty sinner in God's holy eyes (Romans 3:19) and believe the Gospel (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). No one ever got saved who didn't know that he is a sinner. You've got to answer the sin question. Do you know that you are an ungodly sinner in the eyes of holy God?

Pastor Jack Hyles so eloquently and beautifully explains the four steps to sanctification in every Christian believer's life. Of all the thousands of precious sermons that I am aware of by Dr. Jack Hyles, the following MP3 sermon is the one that I would recommend for you to hear. It's that important, and I pray that the Holy Spirit will use it to forever change the way you look at the Christian life.

Here is a classic MP3 sermon by Dr. Jack Hyles, which he preached in churches across the country. I love this sermon! ...

[8] Steps In Sanctification (Or; The Root Of All Heresy)

I also like to call the sermon: [9]The Saved, Crucified, Resurrected And Ascended Life.

The intent of my article is not to critique David Cloud; but rather, to defend the Biblical truth of the simplicity of salvation which Dr. Hyles and Dr. Hutson upheld faithfully. God deliver us from the [10]Alexandrian Greek intelligencia who make salvation impossible, and corrupt "the simplicity that is in Christ" (2nd Corinthians 11:3). Heresy is creeping into our fundamental Baptist churches by the hour. Here are some more classic MP3 sermons by Pastor Hyles that I highly recommend listening to, which are 100 % Biblical:

David Cloud Maliciously Attempts to Pitch Dr. John R. Rice Against His Successor, Dr. Curtis Hutson

On David Cloud's website, he uses Dr. John R. Rice's excellent Gospel presentation titled, [13]What Must I DO To Be Saved. Unfortunately, David Cloud takes Brother Rice's writings out-of-context, in a malicious attempt to discredit Dr. Curtis Hutson and Pastor Jack Hyles. Mr. Cloud states...

> THE ERROR OF DEFINING REPENTANCE MERELY AS A CHANGE OF MIND (Cloud)
>
> "Another man who has widely influenced the doctrine of repentance held by independent Baptists is the late Curtis Hutson, former editor of the Sword of the Lord. His 1986 booklet "Repentance: What Does the Bible Teach?" has been distributed widely. Hutson boldly denied that repentance means to turn from sin (p. 4). He denied that repentance is sorrow for sin (p. 8). He even denied that repentance means "a change of mind that leads to a change of action" (p. 16). He claimed that repentance simply is "to change one's mind" and that it did not necessarily result in a change of life. In an attempt to build his doctrine of repentance, Curtis Hutson quoted Scripture that appears to support his position but he ignored the Scriptures that plainly denounce his position. He misquoted the writings of men like his predecessor John R. Rice. He also mixed in a heavy dose of human reasoning."

SOURCE: [14]http://www.wayoflife.org/fbns/repentancelordship.htm

Mr. Cloud specifically focuses on Dr. Rice's words:

> "To repent literally means to have a change of mind or spirit towards God and toward sin. It means to turn from your sins, earnestly, with all your heart, and trust in Jesus Christ to save you."
> SOURCE: [15]What Must I DO To Be Saved, by Dr. John R. Rice

Considering this quote by itself, one could be misled to believe that Brother Rice was teaching Lordship Salvation; BUT, he certainly is not. David Cloud fails to take the entirety of Dr. Rice's article into consideration. Dr. Rice goes on to state:

> "The change in your heart, sinner, is God's part and you may be sure He will attend to that. Your part is to simply believe in Him. Whatever else is necessary in your eternal salvation, the Lord attends to when you trust in Him, or believe in Him."
> SOURCE: [16]What Must I DO To Be Saved, by Dr. John R. Rice

This is exactly what Brother Hutson and Pastor Hyles taught. Salvation is of God, not man. Our part is simply to believe, but it is God who changes our heart. David Cloud places this burden of change upon the lost sinner as a sort of prerequisite for salvation. Interestingly, David Cloud doesn't present his own article on how to be saved, but rather twists the words of Dr. John R. Rice in an attempt to attack America's mightiest soulwinners. Dr. Rice further states:

> "One who believes in Christ has repented."
>
> SOURCE: [17]What Must I DO To Be Saved, by Dr. John R. Rice

This statement alone by Dr. John R. Rice clearly blows David Cloud right out of the water! Mr. Cloud accuses Dr. Curtis Hutson of MISQUOTING Dr. Rice, but it is certainly the other way around. It is David Cloud who is misquoting Dr. Rice. Here is a quote from Dr. Curtis Hutson, with a quote which he provides from Dr. John R. Rice:

> In an article in THE SWORD OF THE LORD, Dr. John R. Rice said:
>
> > "Sometimes the preacher does not himself fully understand the plan of salvation. He thinks of salvation as a process. First, there is a period of conviction, then a period of repentance, then an act of faith."
> >
> > He [Dr. John R. Rice] went on to explain that when one trusts Christ as Saviour he also repents.
> >
> > Dr. Rice is absolutely right. Faith and repentance are the same; they are not two separate decisions. One cannot trust Christ as Saviour without repenting or changing his mind. The very fact that he trusts Christ for salvation shows that he has changed his mind regarding sin, salvation, and God.

> If one book of the Bible had to be considered "the salvation book," it would have to be the Gospel of John. The Gospel of John is printed and distributed more than any other book of the Bible. The purpose of this book is given in John 20:31, "But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name."
>
> According to this verse, the whole purpose of the Gospel of John is that men might believe that Jesus is the Christ and believing they might have life through His name. In other words, it is written that men might be saved. Yet "repent" or "repentance" is not used one single time in the Gospel of John. On the other hand, "believe" is used more than ninety times in the twenty-one chapters.

Curtis Hutson and John R. Rice are 100 % in AGREEMENT on repentance! Dr. Rice further states:

> "Repentance is inseparable from faith. The Greek word for repentance in the Bible simply means a change of mind; that is, a wholesome change of attitude toward sin and toward God. One who turns his heart to trust in Christ has, naturally, turned his heart away from the love of sin."
>

Let us ponder the words of Jesus, who said in John 6:37, "...him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out." Any sinner who sincerely wants to be saved, may be saved, if he'll simply come by way of the precious blood of Jesus.

Does a person have to stop sinning to be saved? No, that would be impossible. Acts 26:20 says, "that they should repent and turn to God, and do works meet for repentance." The word "meet" in the Greek is axios and means "deserving, comparable or suitable-worthy." The Bible is saying that we ought to do works worthy of the salvation that we've been freely given in Christ Jesus. Scriptural evidence for this teaching is found in 1st Corinthians 6:20, "For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's." Carefully notice that the Bible does not say to do works to make one worthy of being saved; but rather, to do works meet (worthy) for repentance. No one is worthy of salvation. No one!

Evangelist Lester Roloff beautifully put it this way: "Real repentance is putting your trust in Jesus Christ so you will not live like that anymore." Departing from a sinful lifestyle is a matter of appreciation for what the Lord has done for us, of obeying God as His child, and not as a condition of saving-faith.

David Cloud is barking up an empty tree for sure. Now, is that to say that there aren't some people who claim to trust Jesus, who have never genuinely repented? Of course not. They are plenty of imposters today, who masquerade as Christians, but are not. David Cloud wrote a book years ago titled, Repentance is More Than a Sinner's Prayer. Did not the thief on the cross turn to Christ in a sinner's prayer? Yes, he did. Did not the publican cry out to God for mercy in a sinner's prayer? Yes, he certainly did. David Cloud's error is that he views repentance and faith in Christ as two separate events, which they are not.

Here are Mr. Cloud's own foolish words:

> If repentance and faith are the same, why does the Bible make such a plain distinction between them? "Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ" (Acts 20:21). In reality, repentance and faith are two different actions..."
>
> SOURCE: [20]http://www.wayoflife.org/fbns/repentancelordship.htm

David Cloud attempts to use Acts 20:21 to support his heresy. Now, I'm about to PROVE that David Cloud doesn't know what he's talking about, in defense of my friends Dr. Curtis Hutson and Dr. Jack Hyles: [21]Granville Sharp's Rule of Greek Exegesis

Sadly, Mr. Cloud falls short of 2nd Timothy 2:15. He simply does not study! Acts 20:21 does not teach two separate actions at all! Repentance and faith are shown as the same thing in this verse. Here is why;

> "Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ."

Any time two singular Greek nouns appear in a sentence and are connected by the conjunction "and" (kai Greek) and the definite article "ho" precedes the first noun, but not the second, they both mean the same person! This means that the appositive, our Lord Jesus Christ, is referring to "God" in the first clause! Rendering this into the sentence it is then to be read as follows:

Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, ("EVEN") or ("that is") faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ."

This is what Paul was preaching! Repentance toward God, using the [22]Granville Sharp's rule of Greek exegesis, is synonymous (means the same) as faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ.

Faith and repentance are the same event according to Greek grammatical rendering of this verse. However, David Cloud does not follow good biblical interpretation, and ends up with a false interpretation to support his false claims. If we need to be right about anything in the Bible, it is SALVATION. If we are wrong here we will be wrong everywhere else, not to mention our destination if we believe a false Gospel.

The ONLY thing that you need to repent of to be saved is whatever it is that's been keeping you from coming to Christ to be saved. Please see, [23]The Great Meaning Of 'METANOIA'!

The bottom line to Cloud's teaching on repentance is that you cannot come to Christ for salvation unless you first intend not to walk in sin after you receive Him. This is "qualification by works" as a prerequisite for receiving Christ as Savior. David Cloud is teaching utter heresy. Thank God for men like Dr. Curtis Hutson that don't try to make salvation difficult.

"But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ." —2nd Corinthians 11:3

Pastor's Jack Hyles, Bob Gray Sr. and Harry Ironside Are 100 % Correct On Repentance

Pastor Hyles accurately states:

[24]

> "Repentance is not some little silly, 'I'm sorry.' Repentance is not simply a fear of God. Repentance is not a monk fasting and afflicting his body in a monastery. Repentance is not remorse because of sin's consequences. Repentance is not penance performed before the pope as you kiss his toe... Repentance is not being sorry for what I've done wrong. It is not confessing one's sins to a priest. It is not just conviction of sin. It is not the signing of a pledge of abstinence. Repentance is that thing when you come before God and see yourself as you are, and see Him as he is, and say with Isaiah 'Woe is me, for I am unclean!"' —Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001), a quote from the timeless MP3 sermon, "[25]THE GOODNESS OF GOD LEADETH TO REPENTANCE!"

Listen to what Pastor Harry Ironside (1876-1951) correctly states about repentance in [26]chapter 16 of his book, [27]EXCEPT YE REPENT:

> "In all that I have written I have failed completely to express what was surging up in my soul if I have given anyone the impression that I think of repentance as something meritorious which must be produced in man by self-effort ere he is fit to come to God for salvation."
> SOURCE: Dr. Harry Ironside, a quote from chapter 16, [28]THE PREACHING THAT PRODUCES REPENTANCE, from his timeless classic book, [29]EXCEPT YE REPENT

I agree 100 %! The entire concept of Lordship Salvation is based in human effort. Most of our evangelical churches today have bought into the lie that it's not enough to believe the Gospel of Jesus Christ to be saved. The Gospel is that Jesus Christ DIED, was BURIED and RESURRECTED from the dead three days later (1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

If you receive Christ's sacrifice on the cross as full payment for your sins, trusting Him, believing that He is risen from the dead, then you are saved. But don't I have to repent? Yes, of course! Biblical repentance is "a change of mind" that causes a person to believe the Gospel. Repentance is NOT a desire to stop sinning. Repentance is realizing that you are a SINNER and need the Savior, so you will believe the Gospel and be instantaneously saved. Repentance is changing your mind about whatever was previously hindering you from resting in Christ for your salvation. It's that simple to get to Heaven dear friend.

Pastor Bob Gray Sr. at the Longview Baptist Temple church in Texas correctly preached:

> "Repentance means to change your mind—change your mind—change your mind about how you want to get to Heaven to what God says you've got to do to get to Heaven. If you've got to repent of all your sins, you're still headed for Hell tonight." —Pastor Bob Gray Sr., a quote from the awesome MP3 sermon, "[30]Why You Should Be A Part Of A Growing Church."

[31] The Great Meaning Of The Word "METANOIA"!

Some Excellent Quotes Differentiating Salvation from Discipleship:

> "There is a vast difference between coming to Jesus for salvation and coming after Jesus for service. Coming to Christ makes one a believer, while coming after Christ makes one a disciple. All believers are not disciples. To become a believer one accepts the invitation of the Gospel, to be a disciple one obeys the challenge to a life of dedicated service and separation. Salvation comes through the sacrifice of Christ; discipleship comes only by sacrifice of self and surrender to His call for devoted service. Salvation is free, but discipleship involves paying the price of a separated walk. Salvation can't be lost because it depends upon God's faithfulness, but discipleship can be lost because it depends upon our faithfulness." Pastor M.R. DeHaan, Hebrews; Zondervan Publishing House, 1959 (p. 117)
>
> "People are sometimes led to believe that there is saving value in some public confession of Christ, or profession of a decision. "With the heart man believeth unto righteousness." This is salvation. "With the mouth confession is made unto salvation." This is the voice of the newborn child speaking to and of its father. The only condition on which one may be saved is to believe." Lewis Sperry Chafer; Salvation; Dunham Publishing Company, 1917 (p. 46)
>
> "It is an inexcusable error to confront sinners with problems that concern the Christian life and call upon them to make promises regarding them. An unsaved person is never called upon to surrender himself to God. The saving act is in no instance represented as our 'giving ourselves to God'; it is, on the contrary, taking His Son as our Savior." Charles Ryrie, Balancing the Christian Life; Moody Press, Inc., 1969 (p. 170)
>
> "Repentance, as it relates to Christ, means to change our minds about Him, who He is and what He's done to provide forgiveness, and deliverance from our sins. When we place faith in Jesus as having taken our place personally on the cross and borne the penalty due our sins, then we're automatically repenting, because we couldn't accept Him in this way without having to change or minds in some way concerning Him." (From the Liberation of the Planet Earth, by Dr. Hal Lindsey. (p. 133)
>
> "This kind of faith is not 'easy believism'. It is not easy to say, 'I can't save myself, I must recognize that there is something wrong with me, and I must seek help from someone else.'" Phillip H. Hook, A Biblical Definition of Saving Faith; Bibliotheca Sacra, April-June, 1964 (pp. 133, 138)

"The second approach finds faith in the gospel alone an 'easy Believism' and seeks to add something to faith in order to accomplish salvation. To repent is to 'change one's mind,' and to believe is to remove one's trust from that in which it has rested and place it in Christ." William Howard, Is Faith Enough to Save?; Bibliotheca Sacra, January-March, 1942 (p. 99)

"Certainly discipleship is a most important aspect of our relation to Christ, but it belongs to the sphere of Christian life rather than entrance upon that life... One does not become a disciple in order to become a Christian, but because he has become a Christian by faith in the Savior, it is fitting that he embark upon a life of discipleship." Everett F. Harrison, Must Christ Be Lord To Be Savior?-No; Eternity, September 1959 (p. 14)

"For the unregenerate man, repentance is the change of mind whereby he turns from unbelief to faith in the person and work of Jesus Christ." Roger Post, The Meanings of the Words Translated 'Repent' and 'Repentance' in the New Testament; Master's Thesis, Wheaton College, June 1972 (p. 80)

"There are those who, in their zeal to get people to turn from their sinful ways and receive the Lord, almost put repentance on a par with believing... Repentance, as it relates to Christ, means to change our minds about Him, who He is and what He's done to provide forgiveness and deliverance from our sins. When we place faith in Jesus as having taken our place personally on the cross and borne the penalty due our sins, then we're automatically repenting, because we couldn't accept Him in this way without having had to change our minds in some way concerning Him." Pastor Hal Lindsey, The Liberation Of Planet Earth, Zondervan Publishing House, 1974 (pp. 136, 137)

"Eternal life is free. Discipleship is immeasurably hard. The former is attained by faith alone, the latter by a faith that works... the former brings with it the righteousness of God so that a man is 'justified freely by his grace' (Romans 3:24). The latter develops a personal righteousness, based on good deeds, so that a man was also 'justified by works' (James 2:24). The former constituted the believer God's workmanship, the latter fulfilled the wonderful purpose for which he had been created. The former cost man nothing, the latter could cost him everything, including life itself." Dr. Zane C. Hodges, The Hungry Inherit; Moody Press, Inc., 1972 (pp. 114, 115)

"Discipleship is frequently equated with salvation and often erroneously made a condition for becoming a Christian." Pentecost, J. Dwight, Design for Discipleship; Zondervan Publishing House, 1971 (p. 11)

"There is no more piously subtle abrogation of the Gospel than to tell a Sinner that he must not only believe in the Savior, but dedicate himself to do God's will, crown the Savior Lord of his life, etc., etc. Obviously, dedication and service are highly desirable, but they are the privilege and the duty of the saved, never a condition of salvation for the unsaved (cf. Romans 12:1, 2)." Dr. Merrill F. Unger, God is Waiting to Meet You; Moody Press, 1975 (pp. 117, 118)

Will Jesus Christ Say to You in Eternity, "I Never Knew You!"? In his excellent book, I NEVER KNEW YOU, Michael Patrick Bowen states:

> You can live for Christ, you can love Christ, you can serve Him with all your might, time, talent and wealth. You can pray to Him, read your Bible, get water-baptized, join a church, witness to people, and do every wonderful work contained within the realm of Christianity, but if you fail to trust Jesus Christ alone for your salvation, He will “dump” you.
>

Beware of the false teaching in most churches today, even many Baptist churches, which says that you have to forsake sinful living to get saved, commit your life to Christ and surrender fully to Christ’s Lordship. Satan loves to corrupt the gospel by either requiring good works to be saved, or by subtracting bad works to be saved. [33]Whether good or bad, both are DEAD WORKS! (Hebrews 6:1).

“One who believes in Christ has repented.”

Dr. Mark G. Cambron Has It 100 % Correct On Repentance

Here is an excellent and needful writing by [36]Dr. Mark G. Cambron (1911-2000) on the subject of REPENTANCE. Please read the following quote carefully, because Dr. Cambron is one of few theologian who gets it, that is, he understands the simplicity of the Gospel and that repentance does not mean turning from sin as proponents of Lordship Salvation foolishly teach:

> Repentance is necessary for salvation.
>
> The Greek word for repent is metanoeo, which, translated into English is: to change ones mind. It does not mean to turn from sin. That would add works to salvation.
>
> Repentance for salvation means a change of mind from men’s ideas of salvation and religion, to an acceptance of Gods only way of salvation.
>
> This results in a completely new creation, not a reformation of the old. The old nature remains as evil as ever after salvation and has not been reformed . . . The old nature can now be controlled by the indwelling power of the Holy Spirit.
>
> God guarantees salvation. This is His gift to us.
>
> God guarantees reward and fruit to the obedient son.
>
> God guarantees chastening and loss of rewards to the disobedient son.

God does not cast out disobedient children, but in some cases, does take them home. He does not permit His children to live as they please without His discipline and guidance.

Many teach repentance for salvation incorrectly, by including some form of human effort or righteousness, such as willingness to turn from sin, or turning from sin. This is heresy and has confused many people. It adds works to salvation and causes many to not understand Gods great gift. It is probation, not salvation. It is completely unscriptural. It is Galatianism and a counterfeit of the gospel.

It is a tragedy that many Christians live shallow Christian lives. The Cambron Institute is dedicated to the task of training Christian men and women in the importance of total dedication and making Jesus the Lord of their lives not to be saved but because they are saved.

Shallow Christianity cannot be cured by adding works to salvation.

Salvation is not the result of what we do, but is by receiving what God has done for us. Acts 13:38, 39; Acts 20:20: Gal. 1:8,9; Gal. 2:4; Gal. 2:21; Gal. 3:1.3; Gal. 5:1-4; Eph. 2:8-10; II Cor. 5:21;John 3:16-18; Phil. 3:9; Titus 3:5-8:11 Cor. 11:13-1 5.SOURCE: [37]The Cambron Institute

3.8.10 The Massive Rise Of Calvinism In The United States (2022-08-20 17:08)

John 12:32, "And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me."

1st Corinthians 1:18, "For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God."

1st John 2:1-2, "My little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous: And he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world."

One of my favorite writings exposing the falsehoods of Calvinism is a booklet by Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995), titled: 'Why I Disagree With All 5-Points Of Calvinism.' As a born-again Christian myself (since age 13 in 1980), and as a fundamentalist Baptist preacher, I have clearly seen the downfall of America's churches over the past 40 years into the depths of demonic Calvinism. A very popular falsehood today being taught in the churches is something called "[1]Lordship Salvation," which is really just Calvinism repackaged.

I found the following intriguing article from Religion News Service:

> Southern Baptists Agree To Disagree Over Calvinism
>
> (RNS) Southern Baptists have been divided over Calvinism since their denomination began in 1845, but top leaders say disagreements had deepened with a "vitriol that is nasty."

(RNS) Can’t we all just get along?

That was the question that Southern Baptists, torn between Calvinists and non-Calvinists, seemed to be asking as they opened their two-day annual meeting in Houston.

Frank Page, right, president of the Southern Baptist Convention Executive Committee, leads a panel discussion with members of the President’s Council on Calvinism at the Southern Baptists’ annual meeting in Houston. RNS photo courtesy Adam Covington/Baptist Press.

[2]Frank Page, president of the Southern Baptist Convention’s Executive Committee, created a 19-member advisory committee that produced a report in time for the meeting called “Truth, Trust and Testimony.”

Southern Baptists have been [3]divided over Calvinism since their denomination began in 1845, but Page said Monday (June 10) that disagreements had reached a tipping point.

“The truth is, I see an anti-Calvinism now that frightens me; it’s a vitriol that is nasty,” he said, adding he also has friends who were concerned about “extreme Calvinists.” “So it was my opinion that we need to deal with this. … Trust is hitting a new low.”

Calvinism, based on the teachings of 16th-century Protestant Reformer John Calvin, differs from traditional Baptist theology in key aspects, particularly on the role of human free will and whether God chooses only the “elect” for salvation.

The [4]3,200-word report calls for mutual respect among the differing factions, saying opponents should talk to each other rather than about each other, especially on social media. Churches and would-be pastors also need to be honest about whether they embrace or shun Calvinism, it said.

“We agree that the Gospel should be proclaimed to everyone, but we differ as to whether or how every hearer will be enabled to respond,” the report says.

In a brief presentation on the report Tuesday during the SBC meeting, Page prayed that its message would be heeded.

The 16th century Protestant Reformer John Calvin is perhaps best known as the godfather of Reformed churches, including Presbyterianism. But it’s young American evangelicals who are now picking up his theological torch. Religion News Service photo courtesy Library of Congress

“When we are tempted to talk about each other and at each other,” he prayed, “may we be reminded of your call to Christian civility.”

The document urges Southern Baptists to move beyond arguments to agreement on spreading the gospel.

[5]Southern Baptists: Agree to disagree over Calvinism

That article hits the nail on the head! Calvinism has crept into most churches in America. Sadly, this is true most of all in Baptist churches. This is so heartbreaking!!! I have attended numerous Baptist churches, where the Gospel is no longer preached. Instead, they have deteriorated into a religious cult, teaching a form of Calvinism instead of God’s simple plan of salvation. The [6]most popular Calvinist heretic today is Pastor John MacArthur. MacArthur boasts of being a devout 5-point Calvinist.

[7]Does Calvinism Change The Gospel?

(an awesome video sermon by Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold)

I chose a few Bible verses for our text passages. If we simply take the inspired King James Bible at face value, and not read between the lines what God does not say, there is absolutely no way to conclude any of the heresies of John Calvin.

For example: Calvin's first tenet of his 5-points is the doctrine of the "Total Depravity" of mankind. Pastor Harry Ironside (1976-1951) once addressed John Calvin's teaching, and explained to the audience what he did and didn't agree with. Dr. Ironside said that he agrees that humanity is totally depraved, so that God must draw sinners to Christ to be saved. Not surprisingly, devout Calvinists worldwide (and still today in religious circles everywhere) try to paint Harry Ironside as a mild Calvinist. Sadly, Moody Bible Institute in Chicago is guilty of this sin as well, trying to turn Dr. Ironside into a Calvinist, which he most definitely was not.

In fact, I agree with Pastor Ironside's view of the total depravity of mankind, because he simply believed that a man must be drawn to Christ. What saith the Scripture? John 12:32, "And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me." Calvinists go astray when they falsely teach that God only draws SOME MEN (to the Calvinist only Some Lives Matter; but to our holy God, All Lives Matter. So says 2nd Peter 3:9 - God desires for ALL MEN to repent of their unbelief to be saved). Pastor Ironside side believed the same as I do, that Christ draws ALL MEN unto Himself. So says

Titus 2:11, " For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men, "

Moving on, for one of our text passages I selected 1st Corinthians 1:18, "For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God." If you examine the corrupt modern Devil's Bibles, like the horrible tainted English Standard Version (ESV) that Bob Jones University uses, sells and promotes, you'll find that they errantly changed the words

"[8]are saved" to "[9]are being saved." That is the work of devils!!! We are not BEING saved as God's children, we ARE already saved securely and permanently. [10]Look at the Satanic garbage that Dr. Steve Pettit (president of Bob Jones University preaches). Kindly said, Steve Pettit preaches the Devil's lie of Calvinism, not a free grace Gospel. Calvinism is a highway to Hell.

The last passage that I chose for our text Scripture is 1st John 2:1-2, "My little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous: And he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world." Could the inspired Holy Bible be any plainer that Christ died for THE WHOLE WORLD, and not just for some chosen few? Calvinism's falsehood of "Limited Atonement" false teaches that Jesus only died for Christians, not the unsaved who go to Hell. The Bible disagrees with all five lies of John Calvin's summarized junk theology.

Dear reader, have you been deceived? Does your church falsely teach that to get to Heaven, you must repent of your sins? That is not what God's Word teaches. Bible repentance is just a change of mind (Greek noun: metanoia). It is changing your mind from what you think you must do to get to Heaven, to trusting only in what God says you must trust in to be saved. What saith the Scripture? Acts 16:30-31, "

And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved?

And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house.

" Paul and Silas extended the invitation to be saved to the man and his entire family. God the Father will save anybody who comes to Him by way of His only begotten Son, Jesus Christ (John 3:16).

BEWARE of Calvinism! It is deadly. The Devil is a master counterfeiter (2nd Corinthians 11:304, 11:13-15). When some ungodly preacher lies to you, insisting that you must follow Jesus as your 'Lord,' surrender all to Christ, turn away from your sinful behavior, count the cost and pay the price, or live a lifestyle of repentance—he is preaching another gospel, which is accursed by God almighty (Galatians 1:6-9; 3:1-3; 5:4; 6:7).

3.8.11 Beware Of Trinity Denier: Pastor Gino Jennings (2022-08-22 23:54)

Matthew 28:19-20, “Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Amen.”

1st John 5:7, “For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one.”

Pastor Gino Jennings is an unsaved cult leader!

Pastor Gino Jennings denies the Trinity (Godhead). [1]Wikipedia says he denies Trinitarianism (i.e., the Bible doctrine of the Trinity).

In [2]this YouTube video, the man who made this video compares the beliefs of two different preachers, Allen Parr versus Gino Jennings. Allen Parr believes in the Trinity, but Gino Jennings does not. Jennings' voice sounds like Wolfman Jack...lol.

Jennings is a heretical Oneness Pentecostal. They believe in Modalism (a false doctrine), which [3]Pastor Steven Anderson rightly exposes. One of Pastor Anderson's own assistant pastors, Garrett Kirchway, denied the Trinity. [4]Kirchway believes in Modalism, and Pastor Anderson didn't know it. When he found out, he confronted Kirchway, but he refused to repent of his heresy, so Pastor Anderson had to fire him in 2018.

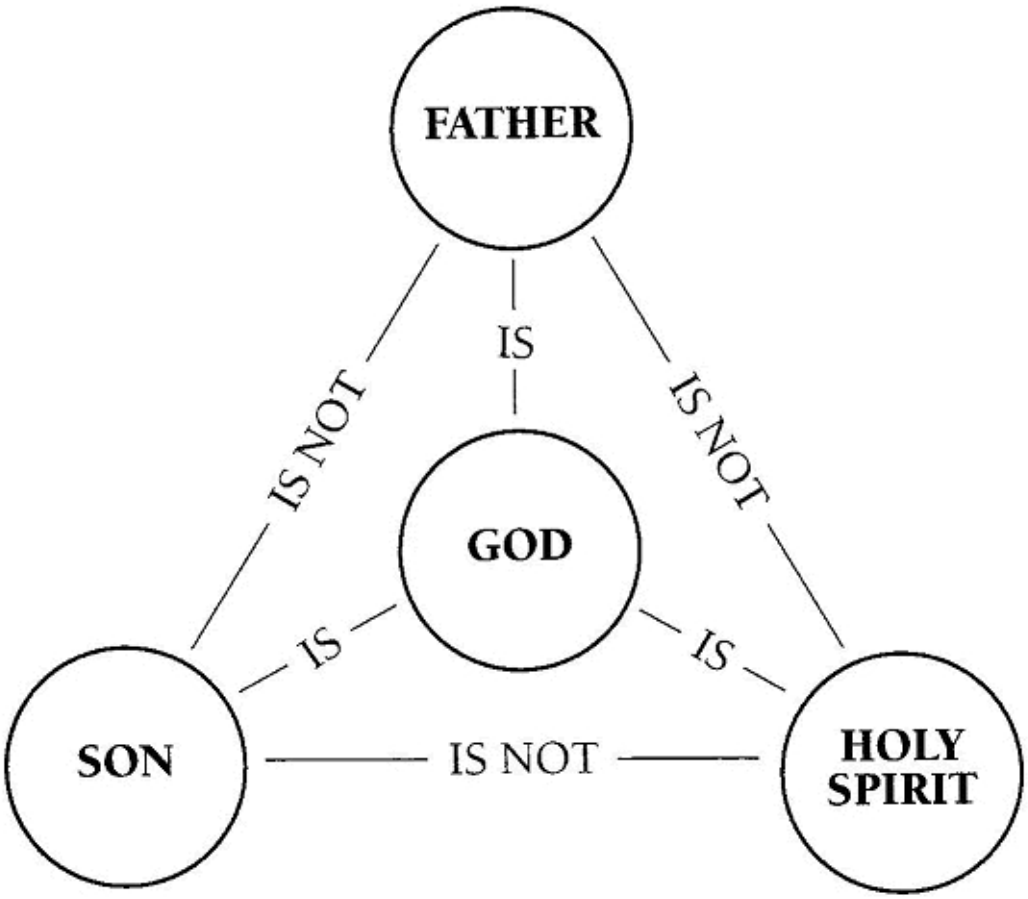
There's a bunch of YouTube videos refuting Pastor Gino Jennings. [5]Here is another one that I found. Jehovah's Witnesses also deny the Trinity. The Holy Bible mentions the Godhead (Trinity) in many passages. One is in Colossians 2:2-3, "That their hearts might be comforted, being knit together in love, and unto all riches of the full assurance of understanding, to the acknowledgement of the mystery of God, and of the Father, and of Christ; In whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge." I wrote these articles to defend the Trinity and refute the false teaching of Modalism:

- [6]https://www.jesus-is-savior.com/Believer %27s %20Corner/Doctrines/trinity.htm

- [7]https://www.jesus-is-savior.com/Truths/immortality.htm

Former Moody Church pastor in Chicago, R.A. Torrey (1856-1928), [8]wrote these helpful words.

Here are some helpful Bible Studies by Pastor Jeff Owens teaching the Trinity:



- [9]God The Father

- [10]God The Son

- [11]God The Holy Spirit | [12]Part 2

And here is a helpful sermon by Pastor Steven Anderson called: "[13]The Trinity In Scripture"...

3.8.12 Why I Preach Against Pensacola Christian College (2022-08-24 14:12)

Luke 15:3-7, "And he spake this parable unto them, saying, What man of you, having an hundred sheep, if he lose one of them, doth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness, and go after that which is lost, until he find it? And when he hath found it, he layeth it on his shoulders, rejoicing. And when he cometh home, he calleth together his friends and neighbours, saying unto them, Rejoice with me; for I have found my sheep which was lost. I say unto you, that likewise joy shall be in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, more than over ninety and nine just persons, which need no repentance."

Our dear Savior, Jesus, tells a parable (our text passage of Scripture) in which He says the Great Shepherd (who is none other than our Lord and Savior) left the ninety-nine sheep, to go find and help that one helpless lamb that was lost. I cannot think of a better parable in the Holy Bible that personified our great Savior, Jesus Christ! He left the splendor and safety of Heaven, to come down to earth to be beaten beyond recognition, stripped naked, humiliated, spit upon and ultimately crucified on a criminal's cross for our sins. Jesus did that FOR YOU friend. He did that for me too.

For that very reason, the Bible teaches (and commands) that every child of God forgive others, be kind and tenderhearted, just as God the Father did the same to you and me for Christ's sake:

> Ephesians 4:30-32, "And grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption. Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice: And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you."

God is teaching us the importance of the INDIVIDUAL. That is why Jesus washed the stinking dirty feet of His disciples, and told them to go do likewise to each other. How many believers today have this kind of Christian mindset, who are willing to forgive, love, be kind, tenderhearted, and even wash their brother's or sister's dirty feet (which represents putting up with the annoyances of other saints, and helping them when in need, and carrying our Christian brother without complaining that he's too heavy).

Having said all that, let me mention Pensacola Christian College (PCC). God knows my heart, that I do not hate anyone at PCC or their Campus Church. I have written and published many harsh complaints against PCC on social media since 2021, many in the past couple weeks (after being told by Pastor Jeff Redlin that they have banned me from attending their Campus Church anymore). Does that sound very Christian to you? It's not in the least.

This matter is not about me, and it never was; it is about how big religious institutions like PCC treat people—the little guy like me, the nobody, the hurting divorced person, the struggling saint, the homeless person who needs a place to sleep, et cetera.

Sadly, in July of 2021 when I met Pastor Jeff Redlin for the first time, I confided in him that I was homeless, sleeping in Walmart's parking lot. He just walked away. That made a very bad first impression on me, that the pastor of a mega church, with an abundance of resources at his disposal, would do nothing to help a homeless brother. The truth is that I didn't tell him expecting any help from him. I was just letting him know of my situation, being talkative. But when he walked away, with a disturbed look on his face, I saw Jeff Redlin's face (which was the back of his head as he scurried away, afraid I might actually ask for his help). Truly, the thought never crossed my mind that day.

So I just slept in Walmart's parking lot that night, as the night before, and the night before that. The ungodly Woodspring Suites Hotel in Pensacola, where I had made a 30-day reservation weeks before, screwed me when United Airlines' plane was an hour late on Guam. That caused me a 17-hour layover in Hawaii, when I missed my connecting flight to Denver in Honolulu. United has been fined again and again by the FAA for too many flight delays. Even though I did contact the hotel in advance (because of the time zone difference, they were a day ahead of Guam in Pensacola), to let them know I was coming a day late, and that they could bill me right away for the entire 30-days on my credit card, in their greed over the 4th of July weekend they cancelled my entire reservation. Wicked people!

The reason why I am preaching relentlessly against Campus Church, Jeff Redlin and PCC, is because the INDIVIDUAL doesn't matter in their cult. It is a cult when people are extendible. PCC has so many Campus Church members and college students, that they can easily expel and kick people out of their group, banning them forever, without it affecting them in the least way. So what do they care? Well, it just so happens that I am a caring person. That is Jesus in me, the fruit of the Holy Spirit (Galatians 5:22-25). I actually give a damn about people!!!

At PCC, they have a notorious history of mistreatment their own, and compelling students to quit and attend college elsewhere. At PCC, they expel anybody who dares to question, oppose or offend their leadership in the slightest way. But don't take my word for it, read what one of their own former abused students (Iridia) said:

> "The point is that much of the reason I left PCC is that the Administration, while individually sincere and mostly "nice people", are hedged in by a system which forces them to think first of PCC, always. Individuals are not important to them." [emphasis added]—[1]CHAPTER 1

I couldn't have said it any better than Miss Iridia. I encourage you to read [2]all eight chapters of her intriguing book. There is so much mistreatment and abuse at Pensacola Christian College, that she was able to write eight chapters about it! Even though the book was written back in 2004, I attended the PCC camp for a few months in 2021 and can tell you firsthand that nothing has changed there! PCC is just as messed up, authoritarian, abusive, hateful, carnally-minded and cultish in 2022 as it ever was!!!

Proof of what I say is that in June, July and August of 2022, I mailed 3 separate letters to Campus Church and PCC, pleading to make peace with the PCC camp. I offered to cooperate and do whatever they require to reconcile with them. Sadly, they completely ignored me for SIX WEEKS. I finally got upset and lashed out against them on social media. Who wouldn't? Only then did Pastor Jeff Redlin email me to let me know they have banned me permanently from attending their church.

You see, I tried to make peace with them the nice way, but they made it impossible; so now becoming enemies has become inevitable.

Former U.S. President John F. Kennedy is famous for making the following quote:

“ Those who make peaceful revolution impossible will make violent revolution inevitable.” U.S. President John F. Kennedy, [Remarks on the first anniversary of the Alliance for Progress, 13]

I tried to make peace with the PCC camp the nice way, but they refused; so now I will preach against them for the rest of my limited time on earth, to expose the PCC CULT and warn others of the authoritarian attitude, ongoing abuse and shameful behavior by a professed Christian group of haters. All I wanted was to come back to Campus Church, to have a church family and fellowship with fellow Christians. Is that such a bad thing? But they despise me at PCC, because I dared to criticize their leadership. Well, they deserve to be criticized. And until they humble themselves to stop pushing people away, and they start loving people, nothing will change. PROPLE JUST WANT TO BE LOVED!!!

This is not about me and my hurt feelings (and my feelings are hurt because of the ongoing mistreatment by PCC). It is about the INDIVIDUAL. It could be anybody, I don’t matter. When a large cultish group like PCC shuns, bans and ostracized people they don’t like, it creates hatred, enemies and ill feelings toward Pensacola Christian College. Something is very wrong at PCC and Campus Church. It appears that they don’t know how to love others, and are either too afraid, incompetent or uncaring to try to learn. I just wanted to attend their church!

Really, how pathetic is that by PCC? I humbly offered to remove all my criticisms on social media against them, but only with the understanding that they would permit me to come back to Campus Church. They said, "No." Pastor Jeff Redlin was a total jerk and on August 2nd, 20022 said in an email to me, that my remarks were "consequential." He said I was not allowed to attend church. Well, then I won’t stopped preaching against their PCC cult, that ostracized people whom they don’t like. Where is the kindness, forgiveness and tenderheartedness that God commands believers to have? I am now obeying Titus 1:9-14 to REBUKE THEM SHAPLY at PCC, that they might be sound in the faith. Something is wrong with their beliefs and attitudes at PCC and Campus Church.

Jesus Himself taught The Golden Rule in Matthew 7:12, “Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets.” I would never deny anyone the right to attend church. How can people get better if they aren’t allowed to come to church? Jeff Redlin’s shameful excuse was that I could find a different church to attend. No, I haven’t. No churches have evening services in Pensacola. Not that I have found that don’t teach the Devil’s Lordship Salvation. My blood is upon PCC’s hands. I just won’t go to church then, because I am not allowed to go to Campus Church. How are they not be called "a cult" at PCC, when they selectively decide who is relevant or not?

I relentlessly preach against them at PCC, because they don’t care about people, as INDIVIDUALS. People matter to God. At the PCC cult, SOME LIVES MATTER. But to God, ALL LIVES MATTER!!! I may not matter to Campus Church and PCC, but I do matter to God. The Lord hears my cry against the PCC camp for their abuse. Genesis 4:10, “ And he said, What hast thou done? the voice of thy brother’s blood crieth unto me from the ground.”

3.8.13 Why I Disagree With All 5-Points Of Calvinism (2022-08-27 18:18)

This is one of my favorite sermon booklets by Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995). Dr. Hutson succeeded Dr. John R. Rice (1895-1980) as editor of the [1]Sword Of The Lord ministry in Murfreesboro, Tennessee. Today, Dr. Shelton Smith is the editor of the Sword, whom I admire, love and respect for faithfully contending for the faith (Jude 1:3). I thank God so much for Pastor Curtis Hutson, a genuine man of God. The Sword Of The Lord has been blessed to have godly leaders since it was founded in 1934 by Dr. Rice in Wheaton, Illinois. They moved decades later to Tennessee. The following sermon exposes all 5-points of Calvinism (the heretical teachings of an unsaved man named John Calvin, 1509-1564). To God be the glory!

The term "Calvinism" is loosely used by some people who do not hold Calvin's teaching on predestination and do not understand exactly what Calvin taught.

Dr. Loraine Boettner in his book, "The Reformed Doctrine of Predestination" says,

> "The Calvinistic system especially emphasizes five distinct doctrines. These are technically known as "The Five Points of Calvinism". And they are the main pillars upon which the superstructure rests."

Dr. Boettner further says,

> "The five points may be more easily remembered if they are associated with the word T-U-L-I-P , T, Total Inability; U, Unconditional Election; L, Limited Atonement; I, Irresistible (efficacious) Grace; and P, Perseverance of the Saints."

These are the points of Calvinism.

I have heard preachers say, "I am a one-point Calvinist."

I have heard others say, "I am a two- or three-point Calvinist."

I want us to look at all five points of Calvinism as taught by John Calvin, then see what the Bible has to say on each point.

I. Total Inability

By total inability Calvin meant that a lost sinner cannot come to Jesus Christ and trust Him as Saviour, unless he is foreordained to come to Christ. By total inability he meant that no man has the ability to come to Christ. And unless God overpowers him and gives him that ability, he will never come to Christ

The Bible teaches total depravity, and I believe in total depravity. But that simply means that there is nothing good in man to earn or deserve salvation. The Bible says in Jeremiah 17:9, "The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked."

A preacher brought a wonderful sermon on the depravity of the human heart. And when he finished his message, someone came to him and said," I want you to know I can't swallow that depraved heart that you preached about."

The preacher smiled and said, "You don't have to swallow it. It's already in you!"

While the Bible teaches the depravity of the human race, it nowhere teaches total inability. The Bible never hints that people are lost because they have no ability to come to Christ. The language of Jesus was, "Ye will not come to me, that ye might have life" (John 5:40).

Notice, it is not a matter of whether or not you can come to Christ; it is a matter of whether or not you will come to Christ.

Jesus looked over Jerusalem and wept and said, "O Jerusalem, Jerusalem . . .how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not!" (Matthew 23:37). Here again notice, He did not say, "How often would I have gathered you together, but you could not." No. He said, "Ye would not!" It was not a matter of whether they could; it was a matter of whether they would.

Revelation 22:17, the last invitation in the Bible, says, "And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come. And let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely ."

If it is true that no person has the ability to come to Christ, then why would Jesus say in John 5:40, "Ye will not come to me." why didn't He simply say, "You cannot come to me."?

The only thing that stands between the sinner and salvation is the sinner's will. God made every man a free moral agent. And God never burglarizes the human will.

D. L. Moody addressed a large group of sceptics. He said ,"I want to talk about the word believe, the word receive, and the word take." When Mr. Moody had finished his sermon, he asked, "Now who will come and take Christ as Saviour?"

One man stood and said, "I can't."

Mr. Moody wept and said, "Don't say, 'I can't.' Say, 'I won't!'"

And the man said, "Then, I won't!"

But another man said, "I will!" Then another said, "I will!" And another said , "I will!" Until scores came to trust Christ as Saviour.

Some Calvinists use John 6:44 in an effort to prove total inability. Here the Bible says,

"No man can come to me except the Father which hath sent me draw him...."But the Bible makes it plain in John 12:32 that Christ will draw all men unto Himself. Here the Bible says, "And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me."

All men are drawn to Christ, but not all men will trust Christ as Saviour. Every man will make his own decision to trust Christ or to reject Him. The Bible makes it clear that all men have light. John 1:9 says, "That was the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world." Romans 1:19,20 indicates that every sinner has been called through the creation about him. And Romans 2:11-16 indicates that sinners are called through their conscience, even when they have not heard the Word of God.

So in the final analysis, men go to Hell, not because of their inability to come to Christ, but because they will not come to Christ-"Ye will not come to me, that ye might have life."

The teaching that men, women and children are totally unable to come to Christ and trust Him as Saviour is not a scriptural doctrine. The language itself is not scriptural.

II. Unconditional Election

By unconditional election Calvin meant that some are elected to Heaven, while others are elected to Hell, and that this election is unconditional. It is wholly on God's part and without condition. By unconditional election Calvin meant that God has already decided who will be saved and who will be lost, and the individual has absolutely nothing to do with it. He can only hope that God has elected him for Heaven and not for Hell.

This teaching so obviously disagrees with the oft-repeated invitations in the Bible to sinners to come to Christ and be saved that some readers will think that I have overstated the doctrine. So I will quote John Calvin in his "Institutes," Book III, chapter 23,

> "....Not all men are created with similar destiny but eternal life is foreordained for some , and eternal damnation for others. Every man, therefore, being created for one or the other of these ends, we say, he is predestined either to life or to death."

So Calvinism teaches that it is God's own choice that some people are to be damned forever. He never intended to save them. He foreordained them to go to Hell. And when He offers salvation in the Bible, He does not offer it to those who were foreordained to be damned. It is offered only to those who were foreordained to be saved.

This teaching insists that we need not try to win men to Christ because men cannot be saved unless God has planned for them to be saved. And if God has planned for them to be eternally lost, they will not come to Christ.

There is the Bible doctrine of God's foreknowledge, predestination and election. Most knowledgeable Christians agree that God has His controlling hand on the affairs of men. They agree that according to the Bible, He selects individuals like Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and David as instruments to do certain things He has planned. Most Christians agree that God may choose a nation-particularly that He did choose Israel, through which He gave the law, the prophets, and eventually through whom the Saviour Himself would come- and that there is a Bible doctrine that God foreknows all things.

I have often said, "Did it ever occur to you that nothing ever occurred to God?". God in His foreknowledge knows who will trust Jesus Christ as Saviour, and He has predestined to see that they are justified and glorified. He will keep all those who trust Him and see that they are glorified. But the doctrine that God elected some men to Hell, that they were born to be damned by God's own choice, is a radical heresy not taught anywhere in the Bible.

I have in my hand a booklet entitled TULIP written by Vic Lockman. In the booklet Mr. Lockman attempts to prove the five points of Calvinism. Under the point, Unconditional Election, he quotes Ephesians 1:4, but he only quotes the first part of the verse: "He hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world. " However, that is not the end of the verse. Mr. Lockman, like most Calvinists, stopped in the middle of the verse. The entire verse reads: "According as he hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love." The verse says nothing about being chosen for Heaven or Hell. It says we are chosen that we should be holy and without blame before him in love.

Under the same point, Unconditional Election, Mr. Lockman quotes John 15:16, "Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you." Again, Mr. Lockman, like most Calvinists, stops in the middle of the verse. The entire verse reads: "Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain: that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you."

The verse says nothing about being chosen for Heaven or Hell. It says we are chosen to go and bring forth fruit, which simply means that every Christian is chosen to be a soul winner. The fruit of a Christian is other Christians. Proverbs 11:30 says, "The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life; and he that winneth souls is wise."

Nowhere does the Bible teach that God wills for some to go to Heaven and wills others to go to Hell. No. The Bible teaches that God would have all men to be saved. Second Peter 3:9 says that He is "not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance." First Timothy 2:4 says, "Who will have all men to be saved, and to come unto the knowledge of the truth."

Those who teach that God would only have some to be saved, while He would have others to be lost are misrepresenting God and the Bible.

Does God really predestinate some people to be saved and predestinate others to go to Hell, so that they have no free choice? Absolutely not! Nobody is predestined to be saved, except as he chooses of his own free will to come to Christ and trust Him for salvation. And no one is predestined to go to Hell, except as he chooses of his own free will to reject Christ and refuses to trust Him as Saviour. John 3:36 says, "He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him."

Nothing could be plainer. The man who goes to Heaven goes because he comes to Jesus Christ and trusts Him as Saviour. And the man who goes to Hell does so because he refuses to come to Jesus Christ and will not trust Him as Saviour.

III. Limited Atonement

By limited atonement, Calvin meant that Christ died only for the elect, for those He planned and ordained to go to Heaven: He did not die for those He planned and ordained to go to Hell. Again I say, such language is not in the Bible , and the doctrine wholly contradicts many, many plain Scriptures.

For instance, the Bible says in I John 2:2, "He is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world." The teaching of Calvinism on Limited Atonement contradicts the express statement of Scripture. First Timothy 2:5,6 says, " The man Christ Jesus; Who gave himself a ransom for all...."

The Bible teaches that Jesus is the Saviour of the world. John 4:42 says, "And said unto the woman, Now we believe , not because of thy saying: for we have heard him ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, the Saviour of the world." Again I John 4:14, "And we have seen and do testify that the Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world." The Scriptures make it plain that Jesus came to save the world. John 3:17 says, " For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved."

No man will ever look at Jesus Christ and say, "You didn't want to be my Saviour ." No! No! Jesus wants to be the Saviour of all men. As a matter of fact, I Timothy 4:10 says, "For therefore we both labour and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe."

The Bible teaches that Christ bore the sins of all people. Isaiah 53:6 says, "All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the Lord hath laid on him the iniquity of us all." There are twos "alls" in this verse. The first "all" speaks of the universal fact of sin- "All we like sheep have gone astray." And the second "all" speaks of universal atonement-"and the Lord hath laid on him the iniquity of us all." The "all" in the first part of Isaiah 53:6 covers. If all went astray, then the iniquities of all were laid on Christ.

Not only did He bear the sins of us all, but the Bible plainly teaches that He died for the whole world. Look at John 2:2, "And he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but for the sins of the whole world." If that isn't plain enough, the Bible says His death was for every man; "But we see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honour; that he by the grace of God should taste death for every man" (Hebrews 2:9).

Nothing could be plainer than the fact that Jesus Christ died for every man. First Timothy 2:5,6 says, "For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus; Who gave himself a ransom for all. . . . " Romans 8:32 states, "He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things?"

Look at the statements–statement after statement: "that he by the grace of God should taste death for every man"; "Who gave himself a ransom for all"; "delivered him up for us all."

John 3:16 has often been called "the heart of the Bible." It has been called "the Bible in miniature." "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life." Jesus died for the whole world. He suffered Hell for every man who has ever lived or ever will live. And no man will look out of Hell and say, "I wanted to be saved, but Jesus did not die for me."

Some argue that if Jesus died for the whole world, the whole world would be saved. No. the death of Jesus Christ on the cross was sufficient for all, but it is efficient only to those who believe. The death of Jesus Christ on the cross made it possible for every man everywhere to be saved. But only those who believe that He died to pay their sin debt and who trust Him completely for salvation will be saved.

Again I quote John 3:36, "He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life. . . ." Everybody is potentially saved, but everybody is not actually saved until he recognises that he is a sinner, believes that Jesus Christ died on the cross to pay the sin debt, and trust Him completely for salvation.

The atonement is not limited. it is as universal as sin. Romans 5:20 says, "But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound." Isaiah 53:6 states, "All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the Lord hath laid on him the iniquity of us all."

A famous English preacher spoke in an English town, then rushed to catch his train for London. A sinner who heard him preach felt that he must immediately settle the matter of salvation. So he followed the preacher to the train. Just as the train pulled into the station, he took hold of the preacher's lapel and said, " I want to be saved! Tell me how!"

The minister said, "I must catch this last rain to London. Do you have a Bible?"

"Yes, I have one at home," said the anxious inquirer.

"Then go home and find Isaiah 53:6. Read it carefully. Go in at the first all, and come out at the last all, and you will be saved."

The preacher rushed away, and the anxious sinner was left alone. He went back to his home, and opening his Bible, he turned to Isaiah 53:6. What did the preacher mean, he wondered–"Go in at the first all and come out at the last all, and you will be saved"? He found the verse and read it carefully: "All we like sheep have gone astray."

Well, he thought to himself, I can certainly go in at the first all. I have gone astray. I am a poor, lost sinner. The he read the last part of the verse, "And the Lord hath laid on him the iniquity of us all." He said to himself, "If I come out at the last all, I must believe that all my sins were laid on Christ, that He took my place and paid for my sins. And if I rely upon that, I will be saved. That's what the preacher meant."

He then trusted Christ and was saved. He believed that he was a sinner, and that all his sins had been laid on Christ.

IV. Irresistible Grace

The fourth point of Calvinism is irresistible grace. By irresistible grace, John Calvin meant that God simply forces people to be saved. God elected some to be saved, and he let Jesus Christ die for that elect group. And now by irresistible grace, He forces those He elected, and those

Jesus Christ died for to be saved.

The truth of the matter is, there is no such thing as irresistible grace. Nowhere in the Bible does the word "irresistible" appear before the word "grace". That terminology is simply not in the Bible. It is the philosophy of John Calvin, not a Bible doctrine. The word "irresistible" doesn't even sound right in front of the word "grace."

Grace means "God's unmerited favour." Somebody said G-R-A-C-E- God's riches at Christ's expense. Grace is an attitude, not a power. If Calvin had talked about the irresistible drawing power of God, it would have made more sense. But instead, he represents grace as the irresistible act of God compelling a man to be saved who does not want to be saved, so that a man has no choice in the matter at all, except as God forcibly puts a choice in his mind. Calvinism teaches that man has no part in salvation, and cannot possibly co-operate with God in the matter. In no sense of the word and at no stage of the work does salvation depend upon the will or work of man or wait for the determination of his will.

Does the Bible say anything about irresistible grace? Absolutely not! The Scriptures show that men do resist and reject God. Proverbs 29:1 states, "He, that being often reproved hardeneth his neck, shall suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy." Notice the word "often" in this verse. If God only gave one opportunity to be saved, then man could not complain. But here the Bible says, "He, that being often reproved.. . " This means the man was reproved over and over again. Not only was he reproved many times, but he was reproved often. But the Bible says he "hardeneth his neck" and "shall suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy." That certainly doesn't sound like irresistible grace. The Bible teaches that a man can be reproved over and over again, and that he can harden his neck against God, and as a result will be destroyed without remedy.

Again Proverbs 1:24-26 says,

> "Because I have called, and ye refused; I have stretched out my hand, and no man regarded; But ye have set at nought all my counsel, and would none of my reproof: I also will laugh at your calamity; I will mock when your fear cometh."

Here the Bible plainly says, "I have called, and ye have refused; I have stretched out my hand, and no man regarded; But ye have set at nought all my counsel, and would none of my reproof." That doesn't sound like irresistible grace. God calls, and men refuse. Is that irresistible? God stretches out his hand and no man regards it? Is that irresistible grace? No. The Bible makes it plain that some men do reject Christ, that they refuse His call. John 5:40 says, "Ye will not come to me, that ye may have life." That verse plainly teaches that men can and do resist God and refuse to come to Him.

In Acts chapter 7, we find Stephen preaching. He says in verse 51, "Ye stiff-necked and uncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do always resist the Holy Ghost: as your fathers did, so do ye." To these Jewish leaders, Stephen said, "Ye do always resist the Holy Ghost."

So here were people; some of whom had seen Jesus and heard Him preach; others who had heard Peter at Pentecost; others who had heard Stephen and other Spirit-filled men preaching with great power. And what had they done? They were stiff-necked and uncircumcised in heart and ears. That is ,they were stubborn and rebellious against God. The Bible plainly says, "They resisted the Holy Ghost."

Notice the words of Stephen in verse 51, "Ye do always resist the Holy Ghost: as your fathers did, so do ye." Here the Bible teaches that not only were these Jewish leaders resisting the Holy Ghost, but that their fathers before them had also resisted the Holy Spirit. Stephen says that all the way from Abraham, through the history of the Jewish nation, down to the time of Christ, unconverted Jews had resisted the Holy Spirit.

There is absolutely no such thing as a "can't-help-it-religion." God doesn't just force men to be saved with His so-called irresistible grace.

God offers salvation to all men. Titus 1:11 says, "For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men." But man must make his own choice. He must either receive or reject Christ . John 1:12 says. "But as many as received him , to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name."

When Jesus wept over Jerusalem, he said, "O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee, ho often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not!" Here again the Bible clearly indicates that God would have gathered them together as a hen gathers her chickens, but they would not. That certainly shows that they could reject and resist Christ.

"I would, but ye would not" does not fit the teaching of irresistible grace. So people do resist the Holy Ghost. They do refuse to come to Christ. They do harden their necks. They do refuse when God calls.

That means that those who are not saved could have been saved. Those who have rejected Christ could have accepted Him. God offers salvation to those who will have it, but does not enforce it upon anyone who doesn't want it.

V. Perseverance of the Saints

The Bible teaches, and I believe in, the eternal security of the born-again believer. The man who has trusted Jesus Christ has everlasting life and will never perish. But the eternal security of the believer does not depend on his perseverance.

I do not know a single Bible verse that says anything about the saints' persevering, but there are several Bible verses that mention the fact that the saints have been preserved. Perseverance is one thing. Preservation is another. No. The saints do not persevere; they are preserved.

The Bible states in Jude 1. "Jude, the servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James, to them that are sanctified by God the Father, and preserved in Jesus Christ..." First Thessalonians 5:23 says, "And the very God of peace sanctify you wholly: and I pray God your whole spirit and soul, and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ."

The other morning I opened a jar of peach preserves. I don't know how long those peaches have been in that jar. But the jar had been sealed some time ago, and the peaches were preserved. When I took out the preserves and ate them with a good hot biscuit, they were as good as they were the day they were placed in the jar.

But wait a minute! The peaches had nothing to do with it. They were not fresh and good because they had persevered. They were good and fresh because they had been preserved.

The Bible makes it plain that the believer is kept. He does not keep himself. First Peter 1:4,5 states:

> "To an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you, Who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time."

The Bible says in John 10:27-29:

> "My sheep hear my voice, and I know them and they follow me: And I give unto them eternal life: and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand. My Father, which gave them me, is greater than all, and no man is able to pluck them out of my Fathers hand."

Now that doesn't sound like perseverance of the sheep or the saints. Here the sheep are in the Fathers hand, and they are safe-not because they persevere, but because they are in the Fathers hand.

Charles Spurgeon once said, "I do not believe in the perseverance of the Saviour."

To be sure, the Bible teaches the eternal security of the believer. But the believer's security has nothing to do with his persevering. We are secure because we are kept by God. We are held in the Father's hand. And according to Ephesians 4:30, we have been sealed by the Holy Spirit until the day of redemption.

So I disagree with all five points of Calvinism as John Calvin taught it.

There is a belief that if one does not teach universal salvation, he must either be a Calvinist or an Arminian. In this book, The Reformed Doctrine of Predestination, Dr. Loraine Boettner says on page 47,

> "There are really only three systems which claim to set forth the way of salvation through Christ [And he names them]:
>
> > "(1) Universalism, that all will be saved. (2) Arminianism, which holds that Christ died equally and indiscriminately for every individual....., that saying grace is not necessarily permanent, but that those who are loved of God, ransomed by God, and born of the Holy Spirit may (let God wish and strive ever so much to the contrary) throw away all and perish eternally; and (3) Calvinism."

He continues,

> "Only two are held by Christians." That is Calvin's position and Arminius' position."

Calvinists would like to make people believe that if one does not teach universal salvation, he must either be a Calvinist or an Arminian. And since the Arminian position does such violence to the grace of God, many preferred to call themselves Calvinists. But a person doesn't have to take either position.

I am neither Arminian nor Calvinist. I believe in salvation by grace through faith in the finished work of Christ. I believe in the eternal security of the believer. I believe that Jesus Christ died for all men, and I believe what the Bible says, "That whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved."

But I disagree with all five points of Calvinism as John Calvin taught it.

In conclusion, let me say that Calvin and those who followed him claimed to believe and follow the Bible. They claimed to find at least a germ of the Calvinist doctrine in the Scriptures. But a careful student will find that again and again they go beyond Scripture, and that Calvinism is a philosophy developed by man and depending on fallible logic and frail, human reasoning, with the perversion of some Scriptures, the misuse of others, and the total ignoring of many clear Scriptures. Calvin did teach many wonderful, true doctrines of the Scripture.

It is true that God foreknows everything that will happen in the world. It is true that God definitely ordained and determined some events ahead of time and selected some individuals for His purposes. It is certain that people are saved by grace, and are kept by the power of God. That far Calvinists may well their doctrines by the Scriptures. But beyond that, Calvinism goes into the realm of human philosophy.

It is not a Bible doctrine, but a system of human philosophy, especially appealing to the scholarly intellect, the self-sufficient and proud mind. Brilliant, philosophical, scholarly preachers are apt to be misled on this matter more than the humble-hearted, Bible-believing Christian.

OBJECTIONS ANSWERED

Dear Rev _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _:

I have your letter which came recently, objecting to my article, "Why I Disagree With All Five Points of Calvinism." In the second paragraph of page 1, you say, "As to will. . . "Then you spend the next two or three pages talking about will and calling attention to Bible verses. You mention Titus 3:5 where the Bible says, " Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost."

I have just read this section of your letter over several times, and you seem to confuse works with will. For instance, you call attention to Isaiah 64:6 where the Bible says, " all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags. " Trusting Christ for salvation is the opposite of works.

When a man believes that Jesus Christ died for him and fully trusts Jesus to save him, and nothing else, then he's not working for salvation. He's trusting Christ and what Christ did at Calvary.

But it is his own will that he trusts Christ. God doesn't make anyone trust Him. In John 5:40 Jesus said, "Ye will not come to me, that ye might have life." He did not say you cannot come; He said you will not come.

You go on to say in this particular part of your letter, "We are sinners from birth. . . as Adam, we hid ourselves from God."

It is true that Adam hid himself from God. But when God came and called for Adam, Adam answered God of his own will and he came out from his place of hiding of his own will. God did not take Adam by the hand and drag him out of the place of hiding. He simply called and Adam came out. Every man comes to God of his own will.

In Matthew 23:37 Jesus said, "O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not!"

Still discussing the matter of will, you make reference to Romans 5:12 and say that we are dead in sin. Then you continue, "Note a dead person cannot move, respond, walk, nor anything."

Now, you have a misunderstanding of death. Death is not annihilation. Death is not cessation of existence. Death is simply separation. Physical death is the separation of the soul and spirit from the body, and spiritual death is the separation of the man from God.

In the parable of the prodigal son, when the prodigal returned home the father said, "This my son was dead, and is alive again." The prodigal son was dead in the sense that he was separated from the father. He was certainly capable of making decisions while he was in the far country separated from the father. As a matter of fact, he made the decision and went back to the father. Luke 15:18-20 says, "I will arise and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before thee. And am no more worthy to be called thy son: make me as one of thy hired servants. And he arose, and came to his father."

Now, here is a dead person who could move, respond, walk, see his need, decide to do something about it, and go to the father. And verse 24 says, "For this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found."

Your misunderstanding of death has led you to build a false doctrine based on an illustration, instead of Scripture. In Genesis 2:17 God said to Adam, "..for in the day that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die." If you'll read the next few chapters of Genesis, you will find that Adam did not die in the sense of ceasing to exist when he partook of the forbidden fruit. As a matter of fact, Genesis 5:4 says, "And the days of Adam after he had begotten Seth were eight hundred years: and he begat sons and daughters." According to this verse, Adam lived eight hundred years after he begat Seth, and Seth was not begotten until after Adam disobeyed God.

Now, was God wrong when He said to Adam, "Thou shalt surely die"? No. Well, did Adam die? Yes, He died in the sense that God drove him from His presence, and he was separated from God because of his sins.

When the Bible says that men are dead in trespasses and sins, that does not mean they cannot move, respond, walk, nor anything as you said in your letter. Adam did a lot of moving and a lot of responding and a lot of walking in the more than 800 years he lived after the fall.

So you see, when the Bible says that "death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned," that "death" is not to be compared with the body of a dead man lying in a casket. I might say that what you see in the casket in the funeral home is really not the man. The body that you're looking at is only the house in which the man lived. The man who lived in that house is still alive. He's either with Christ in Heaven, or he's in Hell, depending on whether or not he trusted Christ as his Saviour. If he's in Heaven, he can certainly move, respond , and walk. And if he's in Hell, he can certainly move, respond, and walk.

I won't take the space to quote the many Bible verses concerning the dead, but I suggest you read the story of the rich man in Luke 16 and you will see that though he had died he could still talk and make decisions. And if you'll read Revelation 6:9-11 and Luke 15: 7 and 10, you will see that people who are in Heaven are conscious. You will see that they rejoice. They talk. They know what's happening on earth, and they ask questions of the Lord. So you're wrong when you compare the spiritually dead state of a sinner with that of a body lying in a casket.

Further in your letter, you tell of a young girl who was supposedly led wrong by what you call Baptist doctrine. You say she accepted Christ, and now she is living immorally and impure.

Now, Mr. _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _, I can only say what the Bible says in Hebrews 12:8, "But if ye be without chastisement, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons." If the young girl you mentioned has trusted Christ as Saviour, I can assure you that she has everlasting life and she will be chastened. John 3:36 says, " He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life." Now that's a fact. It's not a matter of what I think about it. It's a matter of what the Bible says. And Hebrews 12:8 makes it clear that those who trusted Christ as Saviour will be chastised.

On page 5 you say, "Now as to perseverance..." and you call attention to Revelation 3:5 and talk about overcoming. You imply that this overcoming is some kind of perseverance or effort.

First John 5:4,5 says, "For whosoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith. Who is he that overcometh the world, but he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God?" Here the Bible says plainly that the victory that overcometh the world is our faith. We overcome the world by trusting Christ, not by persevering.

I made it plain in my article that I believe in eternal security, but the saints are not secure because they persevere. They are secure because they have been preserved. The word "perseverance" is defined in Webster's Dictionary as "a persistent effort." "Preservation" is defined as "the act of keeping or state of being kept from injury or decay."

The victory that overcomes the world is not your perseverance. It is your faith, according to 1 John 5:4.

You close your letter with a P.S., "Note no human is born of his own will but of the will of the parents. Christ says we are to be born again."

Again, you make the mistake of using a human illustration in order to build a Bible doctrine. You seem to make the same mistake that Nicodemus made in John chapter 3. He tried to compare the spiritual birth to the physical birth. In John 3:4 he said to Christ, " How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born?"

You cannot compare the physical birth to the spiritual birth. Jesus said in verse 6, "That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit." They are two different things. You will be better off if you will build Bible doctrine on what the Bible says rather than on illustrations.

I hope this letter helps you to better understand my position. I want you to re-read the sermon, "Why I Disagree With All Five Points of Calvinism," carefully.

I'm glad you receive THE SWORD OF THE LORD, and I want you to feel free to express your opinions about anything you find written in the paper.

Sincerely in Christ,
Curtis Hutson

3.8.14 Christians Should Look At People As Broken, Not Bad (2022-08-27 19:12)

Jude 1:17-23, "But, beloved, remember ye the words which were spoken before of the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ; How that they told you there should be mockers in the last time, who should walk after their own ungodly lusts. These be they who separate themselves, sensual, having not the Spirit. But ye, beloved, building up yourselves on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Ghost, Keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life. And of some have compassion, making a difference: And others save with fear, pulling them out of the fire; hating even the garment spotted by the flesh."

My favorite preacher is Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001). The vast majority of Dr. Hyles' critics are online. They are people who have never met Brother Hyles, didn't see and hear him in real life, didn't laugh from his witty sense of humor, and most of all feel his genuine love for people. I learned so many life-changing truths from Pastor Jack Hyles. He is my Christian hero!

Having said that, one of the most profound truths that I learned from Dr. Hyles was that as Christians we should always look at people as being BROKEN, rather than BAD. I love that! Pastor Hyles was so right! It is easy for us, in our sinful human nature, to view the human race as garbage. Let's face it, people do some really rotten and horrific things to each other! The truth is that we ALL have good and bad inside of us as humans. No one is perfect, literally!

In chapter 4 of his helpful book titled: "Teaching On Preaching,"

Dr. Jack Hyles writes:

> 19. Think of good things to do for your enemies. Realize that people may not be all bad because they dislike you—Look upon them as being broken rather than being bad. I have a watch on my wrist. Sometimes the battery gets weak and it begins to lose time, or perhaps it will stop running altogether. I do not get mad at the watch; I realize that it is broken. I do what I can to fix it. When somebody does not like me, it may be that the battery is weak. I should not give him my hatred, vengeance, revenge or vindication. I should rather look upon him as being broken and not bad so that I may love and not hate him, do good to him and not ill! There is nothing that quite warms the heart like this, and once you have tasted the heavenly manna of forgiveness, you'll never again enjoy the bitter taste of revenge. [emphasis added]

I love that!

I once heard a state trooper (who appeared in the 2009 TV series: "

Alaskan State Troopers

), quote something brilliant that his father (who was also a state trooper in Alaska) taught him. He told his son:

"Most people who get into trouble with the law are not bad people; rather, they are good people who are just at a bad point in their life.

" I like that and couldn't agree more! In essence, that wise father was teaching his son to have compassion on people.

The best police officers balance the letter of the law with compassion. When we hear about abusive police brutality (which is sadly all too common), or a jerk cop with a John Wayne type of aggressive attitude and behavior, you know that such a person woefully lacks compassion. There is a need for compassion in society today, not just from cops toward the public, but also from the public toward the police. Sadly, just in June of 2022[3] in Chicago, three cops took their own life.

Ten years after the horrifying 9/11 attacks on New York City's famous World Trade Center (WTC), I watched a televised interview with dozens of paramedics, cops and firefighters, sharing their personal stories about struggling with post traumatic stress, broken marriages, health problems, et cetera. One policeman said something that I'll never forget. He said: "Cops make our living on the worst 10 minutes of people's lives." I had never thought about that before, but he is right!

I don't condone, excuse or think police should get less severe punishments when they abuse, lie, terrorize and hurt people. Just because someone is a cop is not a justifiable extenuating circumstance. Pastors don't get such considerations! Cops should be held to the same intolerant standards of law and penalty as ordinary citizens. It bothers me that police are often given light sentences for severe crimes, versus the average American citizen who would go to prison for a very long time. That is injustice!

There is so much injustice in our country. The bisexual rock n' roll band, [4]The Rolling Stones were busted by police in Arkansas, with a car full of cocaine . The cops let them go! But a drug-addicted [5]Kansas City mother was sentenced by a judge in 1999 to life in prison, for possessing 1/16th an ounce of cocaine! Justice is very human! There is sadly very little mercy balanced with convictions in the American court system! As of the end of 2016, [6]a shocking 7,346 youth under the age of 18 in the United States are serving life in prison sentences! This type of cruel and inhumane abuse is almost unheard of anywhere else in the world. The disturbing truth is that the American prison system is motivated by greed!

During the frightening 2020 "

Black Lives Matter

" rioting, I heard in the news about an admirable police chief in Missouri. He met with a mob of angry protesters to try to calm them down. I agree with what he suggested as part of the solution to police brutality nationwide. The police chief said that police departments nationwide need to start doing a much better job of filtering out bad apples during the hiring process. Just because a guy has the physique of Frankenstein is not enough to qualify him for the job of being a cop! The police chief wisely said that people should have a reputation for having COMPSSION before they get hired.

The Right Person for the Job

Police Chiefs Discuss the Most Important Commodity in Law Enforcement

The consensus from the chiefs was that they are looking for team players who are compassionate, ethical, and empathetic. They want someone who does the right thing when nobody is around; thinks independently, quickly, and "outside the box"; and demonstrates a solid work ethic and strong verbal and written communication skills. The problem is that people who self-select into law enforcement professions do not necessarily meet these standards.

I could write for days about the needful topic of compassion. We are witnessing nowadays a woeful lack of compassion, underlying the entire underbelly of American society. Why is this? What saith the Scripture? ...

> 2nd Timothy 3:1-7, "
>
> This know also, that in the last days perilous times shall come.
>
> For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy,
>
> Without natural affection, trucebreakers, false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good,
>
> Traitors, heady, highminded, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God;
>
> Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away.
>
> For of this sort are they which creep into houses, and lead captive silly women laden with sins, led away with divers lusts,
>
> Ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth.

Wow! What a scary indictment against the human race by God Himself. Can anyone disagree that we are now living in such prophetic "perilous times"? I think not. When [8]rapper Kanye West is break dancing at Joel Osteen's Lakewood Church in Houston, Texas, we know that the end must be near! When we see literally HUNDREDS of Bible versions flooding into the Bible colleges and churches, we know that the Devil is behind all this utter confusion.

Consider the unimaginable crimes that have been committed across the United States over the past 50 years. I could mention some heartbreaking horrors that I have heard and seen in the daily news, Forensic Files, Cold Case Files, et cetera. It is shocking the depths to which us humans can sink without Jesus Christ as our Savior, and if we fail to walk close with the Lord as a born-again child of God!!!

My purpose in writing this blog is to challenge you dear reader, from this moment forward to view people as broken rather than bad. Pastor Jack Hyles is correct, we wouldn't throw away a $10,000 Timex watch if it was broken, we would try to get it fixed. There's not a human being for whom Christ wouldn't have died on the cross. What saith the Scripture? ...

> Romans 5:5-9, "And hope maketh not ashamed; because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us. For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly. For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die. But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him."

I absolutely love that precious passage of Scripture? The Bible says that hardly would someone sacrifice their life to die for a righteous man. Some people might even die for a good man. But who in the world would give their life to die for a career criminal? Jesus, that's who! I have news for you dear friend, you and I are career criminals in God's holy sight. You may be the noblest and most morally upright person in your community, but in God's sight you and are are sinners.

I see so much lack of God's unconditional love in religious institutions and churches today. Sadly, everything has now come down to the evils of THE LOVE OF MONEY (1st Timothy 6:10-11). Humans are notorious for going into denial. Since it is a horrible sin to prioritize money over people, religious leaders know that they cannot succumb to such wickedness. So when it unfortunately happens (which is always the natural tendency anytime money gets involved), those leaders go into utter denial. Remember, anything can be justified! If you are willing to break the rules, discard or change THE TRUTH, and individual people aren't important to you anymore, then you are capable of committing the worst evils.

Pensacola Christian College (PCC) comes to mind, which is a terrible religious cult (founded in 1974 by Arlin and Rebekah Horton). I had always heard about [9]the woeful lack of love and compassion for people at PCC, but I experienced it firsthand in the summer and fall of 2021 when I attended their Campus Church on the property of PCC. I did meet some nice and friendly people there, but all the time there was a very present fear and paranoia among PCC staff and inner circle church members. In the PCC camp, individual people don't matter. I am not kidding, I am being very honest. The cult system comes first at PCC. People are expendable! That is because PCC doesn't have genuine men of God leading the people.

Pastor Jack Hyles eloquently put i this way:

> "The pastors have destroyed the churches, and they've been [10]trained by people that have never built churches, and [11]they have no compassion." —Pastor Jack Hyles, "[12]Many Pastors Have Destroyed My Vineyard"

That statement so accurately describes Pensacola Christian College, then and now!!! PCC has a pattern of abuse over the decades. "

Ichabod

(the glory of the Lord is departed) is written over the doors of Campus Church and PCC. God knows my heart, that I do not hate any living soul in this world.

I pray for Pastor Jeff Redlin often, that God will break his stiffnecked pride and humble him for the first time in his life. If God ever does, Pastor Redlin will contact me and grant my humble request to attend Campus Church again. They have banned me from attending PCC's Campus Church! Only a fake organization, that is not a genuine New Testament church, and [13]an unholy and unloving pastor, would deny someone the God-given need to attend church. Yes, Jeff Redlin is broken, and I don't see him as bad. But he is in the same sinking boat as the self-righteous Pharisees of Jesus' generation, who woefully lacked God's love for others.

John 5:42, " But I know you, that ye have not the love of God in you."

Every human being can be categorized into one of two groups: Saved or Unsaved. You will either die IN YOUR SINS and burn in the fires of Hell forever (John 8:24); or you will die IN THE LORD and you'll walk the streets of gold in Heaven with the other saints, angels and Jesus our precious Savior and Lord (Revelation 14:13). Dear reader, do you KNOW beyond any shadow of a doubt that you are born-again, on your way to Heaven? I mean, if you died right now, do you know 100 % that you are going to Heaven. I do! You can know too.

God cannot lie (Titus 1:2). God authored the Holy Bible. Today, this is the King James Bible in the English language. God has kept His solemn promise in Psalms 12:6-7 to preserve his very pure inspired Word. God has given us an accurate written record of the divine origin, virgin birth, sinless life, substitutionary death, human burial, bodily resurrection and miraculous ascension back to Heaven, of His only begotten (biological) Son, Jesus.

First the Bad News! The inspired Word of God teaches that all humans are guilty sinners (Romans 3:10-23). There is a penalty for sin, which is physical death (Romans 6:23). This also includes a second death in the Lake of Fire and Brimstone (Revelation 14:11; 20:11-15; 21:8). No one can escape the physical death, but God has made a way of escape from the sting of death, which is to be punished in Hellfire forever and ever. Romans 5:8-9, "But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him." What wrath? God's wrath!!! John 3:36,

"He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him." If you are not born-again, God's wrath abides (continually rests) upon your head (Psalms 7:11).

But there is Good News!!! The Bible teaches mankind that God will save anybody who places their childlike trust (reliance, faith, confidence) in the Good News (Gospel) of the Lord Jesus Christ (1st Corinthians 3:19-20). Acts 16:30-31, "And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house. " The invitation to be saved is given to you and your whole family! All you need to do to be saved is stop trying to do something to get to Heaven:

Hebrews 4:10-11, "

For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his. *Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief."

Jesus explained in John 6:28-29 what "labour" a sinner must do to get to Heaven:

John 6:28-29, "Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent."

The only "work" (labour) that God requires or allows to get to Heaven is to BELIEVE ON JESUS!!! That's it. You must accept Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sin. Simply trust God, taking Him at His Word as recorded in the Holy Bible, believing that Jesus was buried, but then resurrected from the dead three days later. He did that FOR YOU dear reader, because God loves you more than you could possible ever know (John 3:16).

3.9 September

3.9.1 Eat Some Fruit Every Morning For Good Health (2022-09-02 13:13)

Daniel 1:11-15, "

Then said Daniel to Melzar, whom the prince of the eunuchs had set over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, Prove thy servants, I beseech thee, ten days; and let them give us pulse to eat, and water to drink.

Then let our countenances be looked upon before thee, and the countenance of the children that eat of the portion of the king's meat: and as thou seest, deal with thy servants.

So he consented to them in this matter, and proved them ten days. And at the end of ten days their countenances appeared fairer and fatter in flesh than all the children which did eat the portion of the king's meat."

I encourage you dear reader to start eating some fruit every morning. Fruit is loaded with good fiber, which you won't get any other way than by eating green leafy vegetables and fruit each day. Fiber is so good for our body!!! Fruit is high in needful nutrients, protein, fiber and vitamins. I eat 1 Kiwi each morning. I eat 1 apple each morning. I change my routine. Sometimes I buy green grapes, other times red or black grapes. I even saw candy grapes the other day at Walmart, but got the green grapes for now. I bought yellow guavas a couple weeks ago. Then I tried some plumcots. I usually buy a tray of apricots, but Walmart was out this week.

Also, you should eat 1 or 2 Tablespoons of flaxseeds, which you can but at Walmart. I buy bags of whole flax seeds, which at the Walmart I go to are in the same grocery area as the cooking oils. I challenge you to read up about the health benefits of eating fruit and flaxseeds.

Flaxseeds contain a lot of Omega 3 oils, which our body needs. If you don't eat a lot of fish, you can still get your Omega 3 oils from flaxseeds. Consuming just 2 Tablespoons of flaxseeds provide all the Omega 3 oils required for each day. Flaxseeds have been PROVEN to lower the risk of heart disease, diabetes and other common preventable diseases.

Our American diet is woefully devoid of nutrients, fiber and necessary vitamins and minerals. This morning I started my day with 1 apple. Did you know that there are over 5,000 different kinds of apples? Wow! So far I have tried Ambrosia apples, Jazz apples, Cosmic apples (that's what I had today), Honeycrisp apples and Gala apples. I still haven't tried Fuji apples (the sweetest of all apples), or Granny Smith apples. And there's a lot more! All of the aforementioned types of apples are sold at Walmart. An apple a day keeps the doctor away! That saying is very true, because apples contain malic acid that burns away bad plague in our arteries. Apples are high in nutrients and needed fiber.

If you go to any doctor for constipation, ALL of the them will give you a prescription for something like Metamucil, or some other pharmacy remedy. But the simple TRUTH is that eating some fruit every morning will prevent constipation. Why? It is because fruit contains much good fiber, which the American diet is woefully lacking. Only 5 % of Americans eat enough fiber in their diet!!! That is why so many Americans have rotting bowels, cancer and all sorts of preventable medical ailments. Eating fruit is a natural prevention for constipation.

Also, eating beans will prevent constipation. Just 1 can of beans provides 100 % of the body's daily requirement of fiber. Beans are also super high in protein! All forms of meat contain ZERO fiber!!! Beans give you BOTH protein and plenty of good fiber. Beans are super foods! People normally have gas if not used to eating beans. But if you continue to eat them 3 to 4 times per week, after a couple weeks the gas goes away. Also, I always soak my beans overnight in water, to remove the substances that produce bloating and gas. Replace the water with fresh water and then cook the beans under medium heat for 90 minutes. I buy bags of dry beans, soak, replace the water, and then cook them. Cumin is a wonderful spice for beans! I like my beans plainer than spicier. I normally add a little Himalayan pink salt, some fresh ground medley of peppercorns, and fresh minced garlic. I sometimes toss in a piece of bacon or ham for flavor. [1]GOOD STUFF MENARD!!!

As a general rule, we should only eat foods with ONE INGREDIENT. Beef, chicken, pork, seafood and veal only contain ONE INGREDIENT! Take a look at the list of ingredients for those tasty Totinos pizzas! There's about 30 ingredients, half of which you cannot even pronounce! Case in point, here are the ingredients for Totinos pepperoni pizza...

> INGREDIENTS
> Enriched Flour (wheat flour, niacin, ferrous sulfate, thiamin mononitrate, riboflavin, folic acid), Water, Tomato Puree (water, tomato paste), Imitation Mozzarella Cheese (water, palm oil, rennet casein, modified potato starch, vegetable oil, potato starch, sodium aluminum phosphate, potassium chloride, salt, citric acid, potassium sorbate [preservative], sodium phosphate, sodium citrate, titanium dioxide [artificial color], maltodextrin, magnesium oxide, zinc oxide, riboflavin, Vitamin A palmitate, Vitamin 86, Vitamin B12), Pepperoni Pizza Topping (pepperoni [pork, beef, salt, Contains 2 % or less of: spices, dextrose, oleoresin of paprika, natural flavor, sodium ascorbate, sodium nitrite, lactic acid starter culture, BHA, BHT, citric acid], water, soy protein isolate), Vegetable Oil. Contains less than 2 % of: Rehydrated Fat Free Mozzarella Cheese (water, skim milk, cheese cultures, salt, enzymes, citric acid, Vitamin A palmitate, Vitamin B6), Modified Corn Starch, Sugar, Salt, Dry Yeast, Defatted Soy Flour, Dextrose, Spice, Monocalcium Phosphate, Baking Soda, Beet Powder, Rehydrated Enzyme Modified Cheese (water, milk, cheese cultures, salt, enzymes), Citric Acid, Malic Acid, Xanthan Gum, Sorbitan Monostearate, Maltodextrin, TBHQ (preservative), Ascorbic Acid, Natural Flavor.

Tasty but not healthy! We don't see Americans dropping dead in the streets from eating Totinos pizzas and other tasty junk food. However, we do see millions of Americans dying prematurely from cancer, stomach and intestinal issues, bowel disease and all sorts of preventable diseases. The BEST way for anyone with Type II Diabetes to 100 % get rid of the disease is to just lose 10 to 50 pounds (depending how overweight you are). The more weight you gain, the harder it is for your heart to pump blood to where it is needed. The feet are the first body parts to die when someone becomes diabetic, because the feet are farthest from the heart. God made the human body incredibly intricate, complicated and wonderful. The body has the amazing ability to heal itself, within limits.

Millions of Americans have suffered needless leg amputations because of diabetes (aka, 'The Silent Killer').

You can have diabetes, which is doing major damage to your body, and not even know it until it's too late. Diabetics can suffer sudden blindness from a stroke. A stoke is simply when an artery that supplies blood becomes clogged by plaque. I watched a video recently on YouTube about the strangest ways people have died. A teenage boy in South American died when his girlfriend gave him a hickey on his neck. She unintentionally caused a blood clot under the skin in his neck, which worked its way up into his brain, causing a stroke and death!!! Wow! The human body is incredibly complicated and yet profoundly simple. God is more than amazing!!!

Remember, one ounce of prevention is worth one pound of cure! It is true. Also, one ounce of mother equals one pound of clergy...lol. I really like that truth!!! Most people wait until health problems start to surface, and only then do they take appropriate action. Sadly, many people refuse to start eating healthy even after they develop diseases that can oftentimes be cured. Walking is also the best way to lose weight and keep it off. Yes, you can lose a lot of weight by just changing your diet, without doing any exercise at all. Losing weight is 90 %, and 10 % staying active. But staying active sure helps! Our whole American lifestyle today is horrible! It is sad that people need to pay to go to healthclubs to stay fit. Once upon a time, people worked to stay fit, and we were much better off in the old days of farming and labor intense type jobs. Nowadays machines do everything! People will ride the bus to work (instead of walking or riding a bike), they'll take the elevator or escalator (instead of ascending the stairs), and then pay to go to a fitness center after work. That is ridiculous!

I just wrote this blog to encourage all my readers to start including eating fruits into your diet each day. I admit that I don't like eating fruit, so I drink it instead. I bought a 1,000 watt Nutri-Ninja from Walmart last month for $75. My old one was 1,100 watts, which I ordered from Amazon, but it burned out last month when a tree branch fell upon my powerlines in front of the house, and knocked only one line down. So I had partial power. When I went to turn on my microwave, all of my lights and air-conditioner backed through the Microwave. Everything powered one!!! That was weird. But it fried the electronic circuitry in my 1,100 watt Nutri-Ninja. I hate when that happens!!! Anyway, I LOVE my Nutri-Ninja. I liked the 1,100 watt better though, because the 1,000 watt has a kick to it, when it starts up, vibrating my counter top. So I recommend ordered the 1,100 watt unit from Amazon. But either works just fine! I just press the button that reads "Smoothie," and a minute later my drink is ready.

Each day I take 1 apple. I add 1 to 2 Tablespoons of whole flaxseeds. I add 1 teaspoon of cinnamon. Today I added 1 yellow Kiwi. I put the peel, seeds and all into the Nutri-Ninja. Always remove the apricot seeds though, they are too hard and toxic. Strawberries spoil very quickly, good for 2 days at best if left unrefrigerated. The same is true with blackberries! So I bought a big tray of fresh strawberries and blackberries the other day, and ate them all by end of the next day. I rinse each strawberry in cold water, after inspecting it for any mold, and put the whole strawberry (green leaf and all) into the Nutri-Ninja. Strawberries contain LOTS of healthy good fiber and nutrients!

For lunch yesterday I ate a big salad. I always but the 3-pack of Romaine hearts. I use 1 heart per salad, cutting it all up. I added some olives, a bunch of baby carrots, a light sprinkling of Parmesan cheese (I love goat's cheese sometimes), some seeds (a blend of hemp, chia and flax seed) all in one big bottle from Walmart, and a teaspoon of toasted sesame oil for flavor. I'm having the same today, but with a can of sardines in extra virgin olive oil. I'm also making tacos today, loaded with diced fresh lettuce and tomato. I like using McCormick original taco seasoning with regular ground beef (which has more fat). I also have some small wonderful ripe Haas avocados today! Amen! So I'm having one with my salad, and one with my tacos. Avocados are great for good health!

When I start each day eating fruit, I feel good all day and am less likely to reach for the Doritos or Cheese Puffs (I admit that I have a bag here and there still). I need my junk food! And I occasionally still eat a Totinos pizza. I really love Tombstone pizza. My absolute favorite food of all time are Pizza Puffs, which I order from the 'ILTACO' company in Chicago. They deliver them via UPS on dry-ice, right to my front door in Pensacola! I loved them as a teenager, and still do at age 55. I must have my [3]Pizza Puffs!!! Thank God for all the great food He has blessed us with, and the amazing taste buds to enjoy them!!! I always [4]order the box of 48 Original Sausage Pizza Puffs. Also, you might be able to [5]find a store locally to purchase them in your area. I bought a small deep fryer at Walmart for $20. I preheat the oil to 350 degrees Fahrenheit, and then cook them for 5 to 6 minutes (from frozen). If you've never had an Original Sausage Pizza Puff, you have been missing out all your life!!! I'll bet you didn't expect to read about Pizza Puffs in my blog about eating fruit, did you! Ha Ha! Seriously, I need to balance my healthy eating (which I don't particularly care for), with the foods I love the most. I will say this though, since I have started eating fruit, I crave Kiwis and apples. What we eat today, we will crave tomorrow! So just start eating some fruit each morning, or drink it down like I do. I also do add some cold water to the Nutri-Ninja, so it won't be too thick to drink. I often toss in 1 or 2 peeled mandarin oranges.

By the way, NEVER buy a juicer! They waste all that wonderful pulp and nutrients. It is possible to drink too much fruit juice, which will add lots of extra calories to your day's caloric intake. But by eating all the fruit, with all that good fiber, your stomach will fill up before you can consume too many calories. In other words, you cannot get fat by eating whole fruits and vegetable. Try different fruits to see which ones you prefer most. I try to eat 75 % healthy foods, and then no more than 25 % of the Pizza Puffs, cheeseburgers, breaded chicken steaks with southern pepper gravy, et cetera. I'm making you hungry, I know...lol.

Granted, we may eat a super healthy lifestyle and still get hit by a Mack truck one day...lol. Proverbs 27:1, "Boast not thyself of to morrow; for thou knowest not what a day may bring forth. " The most important thing is to make sure that you are prepared to meet your Maker.

Amos 4:12, " Therefore thus will I do unto thee, O Israel: and because I will do this unto thee, prepare to meet thy God, O Israel." I am prepared to meet God. That is, I have been born-again, since age 13 in 1980. I know 100 % that I am going to Heaven, and [6]I can show you from the inspired Holy Bible why I know this. No one needs to fear, worry or doubt that they have eternal life right now, and will go to Heaven to be with Jesus when they die someday. Jesus wants to be your personal Savior dear friend, if He is not already.

Thank you for reading my blogs. I love you all with God’s unconditional love.

3.9.2 What Could Be Easier Than Getting Saved? (2022-09-03 13:13)

2nd Corinthians 11:3-4, "But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ. For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him."

Pastor Tom Malone (1915-2007) once told a story about a student who brought a lost man to the "altar." Dr. Malone said he overheard the sinner say, "I don't feel like getting saved today." The student said, "You don't have to feel like it, you just need to believe what Jesus did for you on the cross." The sinner responded, "But I want to feel something." Again the student assured him it was not a feeling he needed. He only needed faith. Finally the sinner knelt and prayed, asking the Lord to save him. Dr. Malone said, "As soon as the two of them stood, the student asks, how do you feel?"

One of the issues confusing pastors and sinners, is the concept that one must "feel" a certain way or his salvation is not real. The problem is we have made feeling a synonym for conviction. Now, feeling may follow conviction. However, feeling need not, and many times does not. Feeling is not conviction, nor is conviction a feeling. Conviction is a conclusion that one comes to about an issue. Some who get saved may weep and tremble, while another may laugh and shout. Then, there are those who show little or no emotion. Now, who of us can say for sure which person REALLY got saved? The answer is, none of us.

Getting saved is the easiest thing in the world. For the life of me, I can't figure why pastors and evangelist want to put razor wire between the sinner and the Savior. What saith the Scripture? ...

> Romans 10:8-13, "But what saith it? The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which we preach; That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. For the scripture saith, Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed. For there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for the same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon him. For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved."

Many people misunderstand this Scripture passage, reading too much into it, claiming that Romans chapter 10 only applies to the future salvation of the physical nation of Israel. That is heresy! Romans chapter 10 is about God's simple plan of salvation. The Apostle Paul plainly states in Romans 10:1 that his concern is for the salvation of the Jews (Israel). Paul was a Jew himself, so he naturally desired to see his own kinsman saved. Paul is recruiting soulwinners among the Gentiles, to go preach the Gospel to the Jews. We are saved by BELIEVING the Gospel (i.e., the Good News of Jesus Christ crucified on a cross, buried and physically risen the third day from the dead).

What saith the Scripture? Romans 10:12, "For there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for the same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon him." The preceding verse from Romans 10:12, clearly refutes the heretical idea that Romans chapter 10 is only about the future salvation of the physical nation of Israel. Numerous religious people have unsuccessfully tried to convince me, that since the Gospel doesn't require praying to be saved, they say Romans chapter 10 cannot be about getting born-again (because Romans 10:13 says to "call" upon the name of the Lord).

However, please read the following passage:

> Romans 10:13-15, "
>
> For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.
>
> How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed?* and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher?
>
> And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!
> **"

Romans 10:12 plainly teaches that God will save BOTH Jews and Gentiles alike, without prejudice, to those who " upon the name of the Lord Jesus Christ. Please look at these helpful related Bible verses:

> 1st John 1:9, " If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness."

I love that! God is so willing to forgive you and me, that even while we are confessing our sins to Him, He just goes ahead and forgives us! And again we read in the Old Testament:

> Isaiah 65:24, " And it shall come to pass, that before they call, I will answer; and while they are yet speaking, I will hear."

I love that about God! The Lord is so excited about showing us mercy, that even while we are confessing, He forgives us. Romans 10:14, "

How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed?* and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher?" Repeatedly throughout the Holy Bible we are taught that salvation comes simply to those who BELIEVE. Genesis 15:6,

"And he believed in the LORD; and he counted it to him for righteousness."

Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do!

The Scripture simply tells us what to believe:

1st Corinthians 15:1-4, “Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:”

There is a false doctrine in many of today’s churches, which says that you must audibly and publicly confess Christ to be saved. That is false! Those false prophets cite Romans 10:8-13 as their proof text, errantly claiming that confession is necessary to be saved. The demonic Churches Of Christ preach this heresy, which is a counterfeit Gospel.

In the Gospel of John, there is no mention of “confessing”

Christ to be saved! According to John 20:31, the book John is God’s Gospel tract for all humanity,

“But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name.

” Therefore, everything that we need to know to get to Heaven is found on the pages of the Gospel of John. God made salvation so simple, that even a small child can understand it! Just BELIEVE! John 6:28-29,

“Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent. ”

Whether a small child, or a hardened sinner, anybody can be saved if they will only BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST. Acts 16:30-31, “And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house.” The important phrase

“And thy house” means that the Roman jailer’s family could also be saved, if they would simply BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST!!! God’s free gift of eternal life is offered to ALL mankind, if you want it.

Then we hear the criticism about “the sinners’ prayer.” We hear that one, two, three, repeat after me,

won’t save the sinner. Now, I am one of few preachers who exposes the falsehood that you must pray a prayer to be saved. No one needs to pray to be saved. To be honest, I [1]borrowed parts of this blog from Pastor Ken Blue in Washington state. I follow Pastor Bob Gray Sr. on social media. I saw this article today by Pastor Ken Blue [2]on Brother Gray’s website. At first I was excited. I always get really happy and rejoice when I find a fellow Christian brother who preaches only a free grace Gospel.

However, I was soon thereafter frustrated when I read Pastor Ken Blue say that God's method to be saved is a "Sinner's Prayer." WRONG! Oh boy, folks, I am going to go to seed [to become worn] exposing the Devil's lie that prayer is God's way to be saved! As I just explained to you dear reader, the entire Gospel of John strongly disagrees with Pastor Blue! Not once in the Gospel of John are we taught to do ANYTHING other than simply BELIEVE on Jesus to be saved. John chapter 19 tells us about Jesus' death on the cross and burial, and then in chapter 20 we read about the dear Savior's bodily resurrection on Sunday.

THE TRUTH is that saying a "Sinner's Prayer" is NOT how you get saved. Having said that, there is absolutely nothing wrong with praying a sinner's prayer. One of my favorite sermons by Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) is titled: " [3]Our Fundamentalist Heresy .

" Dr. Hyles explains the folly of adding unnecessary things to the Gospel; such as,

"inviting Jesus into your heart or life" and "praying a sinner's prayer." It is fine to do these things if they accompany FAITH, but as Pastor Hyles explains, WE ARE SAVED BY BELIEVING!!! John 6:37, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life."

I had to edit the article by Pastor Ken Blue, because he errantly teaches that praying is the Bible way to be saved, and that is wrong. All you need to do dear friend is to BELIEVE. You just take God at His Word, as He has recorded in the inspired Holy Bible. Simply BELIEVE the record which God has given to mankind, the Good News of His only begotten Son, who died on a cross to pay our massive incurred debt of sin (2nd Corinthians 5:21).

I got saved at age 13 in 1980. But I was confused for the next several years, crying often in fear and worry that I wasn't saved. In hindsight, at age 55, I now realize that it was because every pastor and religious tract taught me to pray to be saved, which utterly confused me. I kept wondering for years, "Did I pray right?" I thought, "What if I left something out?" All the time I did BELIEVE that Jesus is the Christ, the only begotten Son of God.

All my trust was in Jesus alone to save me, because of what He did through Calvary's cross to pay for my sins. I say "through Calvary's cross" because Jesus' literal liquid blood needed to be applied to the Mercy Seat in Heaven (Hebrews 9:12, 22-24; 12:24). I BELIEVED that Christ died and three days later He miraculously resurrected bodily from the dead. Being taught to pray confused me. So I feared that maybe I hadn't gotten something right. I was terrified of missing Heaven, and going to burn in Hell forever. I hope my own difficult testimony is enough to convince you dear reader, of the dangers of requiring people to pray a "Sinner's Prayer" to get to Heaven. Nowhere in the Gospel of John are we taught to

to get to Heaven. I mean, God can see your heart, so why would you need to pray? Think about that.

We ought to accept as “saved,” anyone who professes faith in the Gospel of the dear Lord Jesus Christ, apart from all works. Acts 2:41 tells us that 3,000 people got saved on the Day of Pentecost, by simply BELIEVING the Gospel that the Apostle Peter preached unto them. Believing is easy for those who believe.

I believe in easy believism. To some churchgoers, there is a mindset that we are in some kind of “Laodicean period,” where people have no interest in salvation. That mindset conditions our attitude toward the lost. So, we put every obstacle before them, and if they aren’t willing to jump, then we beat them up in a foolish attempt to confirm our doubts. I think we should remove every obstacle between the sinner and the cross, and do everything in our power to get people to accept Christ; so did Jesus, and Paul. Believing is easy for those who believe.

> “…unto the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain the Jews; to them that are under the law, as under the law, that I might gain them that are under the law; 21 To them that are without law, as without law, (being not without law to God, but under the law to Christ,) that I might gain them that are without law. 22 To the weak became I as weak, that I might gain the weak: I am made all things to all men, that I might by all means save some.” 1 Corinthians 9:18-22

What could be easier than getting saved? I found this image message on social media recently, which I like A LOT...

Amen and amen!

My hope is built on nothing less
Than Jesus’ blood and righteousness;
I dare not trust the sweetest frame,
But wholly lean on Jesus’ name.
On Christ, the solid Rock, I stand;
All other ground is sinking sand,
All other ground is sinking sand.

3.9.3 Beware Of The Apostates At GodTube (2022-09-05 14:03)

2nd Timothy 4:1-4, "I charge thee therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom;

Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine.

For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears*;

And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables."

This past week, the [1]ungodly owners of GodTube shamefully deleted my GodTube channel and all of Pastor Max D. Younce's sermon videos (which is the only content I uploaded). They didn't even bother to warn me or let me know. I kindly emailed them to see what was going on, but they refused to reply. Ladies and gentlemen, that is the dire spiritual condition of religion in the United States in 2022. The inspired Word of God tells us in 2nd Timothy 4:3, that the Last Days (which we are certainly living in today) will be characterized by unprecedented apostasy, and an increasing intolerance of THE TRUTH...

> 2nd Timothy 4:3-4, "
>
> For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears;
> And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables."

That explains why GodTube horribly deleted all of Pastor Younce's sermon excerpts. [2]Take a look on YouTube at the content that they deleted. How ironic! Even YouTube is okay with Dr. Younce's preaching, but not GodTube! Evidently Bible truth is not considered family friendly at GodTube. They'd rather promote wicked apostate Contemporary Christian Music (CCM) groups that dishonor and blaspheme the Word of God (with their worldly music, immodest clothing, skinny jeans, homosexual tolerating wimps, sexually suggestive CCM videos, vague and useless content that says nothing, et cetera). SHAME on GodTube!!!

According to Wikipedia:

> GodTube is an online video sharing platform which strives to have Christian content. It is owned by Salem Web Network, the Internet division of Salem Communications. GodTube has a variety of video selections including music videos, comedy, children, animals, sports, news and inspirational. The site encourages users with the instruction, "Be inspired in your walk with Jesus Christ and grow in your knowledge of the Bible with videos highlighting inspirational messages and verses." ...
>
> Wyatt, a member of First Baptist Church of Dallas, has likened the site to neutral "Switzerland", in that he claims it is open to all theological viewpoints. He has stated that even atheists are welcome as long as they state their case "respectfully". The terms of use, however, prohibit any content "contrary to the evangelization of Jesus Christ and His teachings, or constitutes blasphemy, or is otherwise offensive to our online Christian community."

What LIARS!

Why did they delete Pastor Max Younce's videos??? What LIARS!!! Clearly GodTube's owners and operators are NOT tolerant of different theological views!!!

God Tube will answer to God for deleting Pastor Younce's Christ-honoring preaching videos. This wicked and perverse generation of yuppie type fools in religious circles, refuses to put up with hard Bible preaching. I see that one of GodTube's founder was a former member of the neo-evangelical First Baptist Church of Dallas, Texas. In their shallow church they use, sell and promote Satan's fake bibles, confusing people. Their horrible church also preaches Lordship Salvation, making it a cult!

It doesn't surprise me that a bunch of yuppie-type apostates, would delete Pastor Max Younce's Christ-honoring serm ons. The Caspar Milquetoast, pantywaist, cowardly, fools who own GodTube will answer to God for rejecting, censoring and hindering THE TRUTH!!!

In 2010, the ungodly apostates at Salem Communications Corporation (Salem Media Group) acquired GodTube...

> Salem Media Group, Inc. (NASDAQ: SALM; formerly Salem Communications Corporation) is an American radio broadcaster, Internet content provider, and magazine and book publisher formerly based in Camarillo, California (moved most operations to Irving, Texas in early 2021), targeting audiences interested in Christian values and what it describes as "family-themed content and conservative values." [3]SOURCE Right doctrine matters! Unfortunately, over 95 % of today's gutless, greedy, incompetent and clergy, couldn't care less about right doctrine or people! NO ONE truly loves or cares about people who hinders them from hearing and learning THE TRUTH!!! GodTube wants apostate, shallow and superficial videos that are so lame, weak and lacking substance, that no one might actually become offended. But, THE TRUTH OFFENDS!!! We are now living in the "perilous times" of 2nd Timothy 3:1-12. THE TRUTH is only hate, to those who HATE the truth!

Please BEWARE of GodTube and the wicked Salem Communications Corporation, who are part of the Devil's now forming sinister New World Order (NWO). It's not just heathen companies like Google (who acquired YouTube in 2006) who are censoring THE TRUTH, it is sadly also fake Christian groups like Salem Media Group and their pathetic GodTube. As born-again believer, we are engaged in an INFORMATION WAR today in America!!! Our biggest opponents (enemies) are not witches, abortionists and sodomites; but rather, bad pastors, corrupt churches, apostate Bible colleges and pseudo-Christian groups like Salem Communications Corporation (SCC). They will answer to God for hindering THE TRUTH of God's Word. GodTube doesn't want any truthful Bible preaching against rebellion, feminism, abortion, homosexuality or other sins which are ruining America. That clear shows that they are not right with God!!!

Salem Communications Corporation is a part of the problem.

Sadly, 99 % of today's so-called "churches" are religious cults. The Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation (i.e., Calvinism) has crept into MOST churches. This is largely because of the accursed corrupt Bible colleges (like Bob Jones University and Moody Bible Institute) that mistrain preachers. [4]Lordship Salvation is a perversion of the Gospel; it is the commandments of men!

> Matthew 15:7-9, "Ye hypocrites, well did Esaias prophesy of you, saying, This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips; but their heart is far from me. But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men."

You CANNOT worship God with false bibles, a counterfeit plan of salvation, wrong repentance (aka, the Devil's lie that you must turn away from a lifestyle of sin to be saved), et cetera. Jesus told the Samaritan woman at the well in John 4:24 that God can ONLY be worshipped in spirit and in truth. Doctrinal error has crept into over 95 % of today's churches, most of which don't even preach the Gospel of free grace anymore! ...

3.9.4 Please Take Care Of Your Teeth (2022-09-06 07:17)

Ecclesiastes 12:1-6,

Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth, while the evil days come not, nor the years draw nigh, when thou shalt say, I have no pleasure in them; While the sun, or the light, or the moon, or the stars, be not darkened, nor the clouds return after the rain: In the day when the keepers of the house shall tremble, and the strong men shall bow themselves, and the grinders cease because they are few, and those that look out of the windows be darkened, And the doors shall be shut in the streets, when the sound of the grinding is low, and he shall rise up at the voice of the bird, and all the daughters of musick shall be brought low; Also when they shall be afraid of that which is high, and fears shall be in the way, and the almond tree shall flourish, and the grasshopper shall be a burden, and desire shall fail: because man goeth to his long home, and the mourners go about the streets: Or ever the silver cord be loosed, or the golden bowl be broken, or the pitcher be broken at the fountain, or the wheel broken at the cistern.”

The preceding Scripture passage is poetic brilliance! The writer (king Solomon) personifies his body as a “house,” and his teeth as “ grinders,

and his eyesight as

“windows.” Solomon says that his grinders are few! As humans grow older, our body slowly wears out, decays and breaks down. Ouch! Solomon writes that he couldn’t see out his windows (eyes) like in times before. His win[1]https://magazine.medlineplus.gov/article/gum-disease-by-the-numbers dows are now darkened! The aged king says that his house (body) trembles!

I’ll explain some more Bible history in a moment, but first I want to get right to the point of this blog, which is to PLEASE TAKE CARE OF YOUR TEETH! The shocking statistics [2]according to the Center For Disease Control (CDC), is that 46 % of Americans by age 30 already have some degree of gum disease! According to The National Library Of Medicine, 70.1 % of Americans age 65 and older have gum disease. Wow!

[3]According to Smithsonian Magazine, archaeologists were surprised to learn from unearthed volcanic remains of the ancient city of Pompeii, that the Romans had perfect teeth!!! How could that be, since they didn't have the modern blessing of advanced dentistry? As it turns out, the Romans ate lots of fruit and vegetables in their Mediterranean diet. They DIDN'T eat all the toxic processed sugar, corn syrup and unnatural sweeteners that we Americans love and consume so much today! Sugar rots the teeth!!! Sugar is the perfect food for living bacteria that eats away at our gums and teeth!

I encourage you dear reader to take good care of your teeth. If you do, they will take care of you in your old age (God willing - Proverbs 27:1). Truly, an ounce of prevention is worth one pound of cure! Most people don't brush their teeth daily, never floss and don't use some type of antiseptic rinse, like Listerine. I like the original flavor. Scope is worthless, because it is just a mouth rinse. You need a product with alcohol that kills germs (like Listerine).

I bought an electric toothbrush at Walmart (by Braun) for $15, which works great! You should try to brush your teeth after every meal, especially after eating anything with sugar. Always brush your teeth before going to bed each night. I don't like to floss with string, so I bought some convenient Flossticks (they each come with a small plastic handle) at Walmart. I think each bag contains about 300 of them. PLEASE TAKE CARE OF YOUR TEETH!!!

There's nothing more painful than dental pain. Ouch!!! If you don't clean your teeth, plaque WILL build up along the gum line over time. When you eventually visit your local dentist in a couple or more YEARS, and they clean all that solid plaque build-up way from your gum line, you will feel STINING PAIN when you eat anything hot or cold. You see, there are 3 parts to your teeth (to put it simply). There is the tooth, the dentin below the gums and the gums. As we age, our gumline recedes, pulling away from the teeth. This decay process is speeded up intensely if you don't brush your teeth and keep them clean! As the gums recede, the dentin is exposed. Dentin is porous, like a kitchen sponge with holes in it. So when the dentist cleans your teeth, this sensitive dentin gets exposed, which is VERY PAINFUL when contacted with hot or cold foods and liquids (especially cold). I hate that stinging pain.

The way to avoid this in your future, is to brush your teeth after every meal. Missing here and there won't rot your teeth, just as long as you're in the consistent good habit of brushing your teeth. DON'T use a hard bristle toothbrush, because you can actually remove the protective tooth enamel if you brush too hard. You don't need to brush hard. It is not how hard you brush your teeth that counts, but how long. Take at least 30 to 60 seconds to allow the toothpaste to do its work. I really like Sensodyne's

Complete

and

” brands. I also bought Tom’s of Maine toothpaste and Parodontax toothpaste (all available at Walmart).

So stock up on toothpaste and use it, daily. Please don’t ignore your teeth in your youth, or you will pay for it later on. A Root Canal and Crown procedure costs about $3,000 to $5,000. If you need a replacement tooth implanted, after a tooth extraction, you’re looking at $6,500 to $8,500 per tooth! A half mouthful of implants could cost over $100,000. It’s insane! Our U.S. government has utterly failed to protect Americans. It is just plain terrible and wrong that anyone should have to pay $15,000 to have 2 Root Canals with Crowns, and 1 tooth implant (but this is what it costs today in the United States).

Many frustrated Americans are traveling down to Mexico, where dental costs are about 25 % of U.S. costs (but you don’t know what kind of care you’re receiving in a corrupt third-world country like Mexico). If things go wrong in Mexico, you’re screwed! But it’s not much better in the U.S., because once your mouth is damaged from an incompetent dentist, the damage is already done! Google reviews about dentists are helpful, and I encourage you to use them. It is fairly common for dentists to work on the wrong tooth! Humans make mistakes.

But a much better strategy is to focus on prevention, and not wait until you need several thousand dollars or more of dental repairs. The sad fact is that over 95 % of Americans simply cannot afford to pay more for fixing a few teeth, than the cost of purchasing a brand new car! It’s insane! Our government has done nothing to help American citizens keep their teeth. Since our corrupt government has been giving away U.S worker’s manufacturing jobs since the 1970’s, so that we cannot afford to pay for dental care (or anything else), our government owes it to the people to remedy the nightmare that they have caused.

Our federal government has MUCH blood on their hands for betraying the people.

filmmaker Michael Moore made a disturbing documentary in 2007 called, "[4]Sicko" (watch full movie) about the dire lack of healthcare insurance in the United States. Michael Moore documents how 20,000 Americans die each year, merely because they cannot afford health insurance, so they don’t have the money to pay for needed healthcare. The medical industry has no conscience!

In these modern times there is absolutely no reason not to take proper care of one’s teeth. At age 55, I still have all of my 28 natural teeth in my mouth. I’ve had all 4 Wisdom Teeth removed along life’s way, all of which were extracted in my youth for various reasons (I cannot remember the reasons why either). My mind is going...lol. I guess Solomon might personify the human mind as a breadbox,

and mine is empty sometimes...lol. Seriously, my mind still functions well (by God's grace); I just forget to do things sometimes, miss things and make stupid mistakes. We all do!!!

I remember when I was attending Hyles-Anderson College (1985-1993). One Sunday I had parked my Dodge van on a city street, so I could drive the Church Bus all day. But when I came back to find my van, it had been stolen. So I called the Chicago police to tell them my van had been stolen! How dare some thieves take my van!!! I wanted to pray down fire and brimstone upon those thieves, whoever they were! The noive of 'dem!!!

Well, as I waited for the cops to come, I pondered the situation. After about 15 minutes of burning wood in my brain, the sudden realizing came to me that I had made a stupid mistake. I was looking for my van on North Avenue, where I knew I had parked it earlier that day. But in actuality I had parked my van on Milwaukee Avenue!!! The two street run adjacent to each other. North Avenue runs between east and west; Milwaukee runs diagonally between northwest and southeast. I was an idiot that day! At the time, I was just in my early twenties in age. So much for losing your mind as you grow older...lol. I called the police back and told them I had found my van, and it hadn't been stolen, I just made an innocent mistake.

Anyway,

I love the Old Testament book of Ecclesiastes (which means: 'The Preacher'). Solomon lived most of his life in sin. Despite being the wisest man who ever lived (as far as secular wisdom goes), Solomon lived a very foolish life and made some really foolish decisions! What a paradox! Any man with 700 wives and 300 concubines cannot be too wise!!! Solomon shamefully used the amazing gift of wisdom that God gave him to live a lifestyle of sin. Solomon was a sex pervert! Money, fame and power have destroyed countless men!!! If you want to test a man's character, give him some power!

I always enjoy listening to the inspired King James Bible. I encourage you dear reader to [5]LISTEN to Alexander Scourby read the King James Bible. It will transform your life! Faith comes by hearing the Word of God according to Romans 10:17.

I like to share with others things that have blessed me, and helpful information, and advice, et cetera. In this blog I have written about a few different things, but my main purpose for his blog is to encourage you to brush your teeth every day. I was surprised when I learned that 70.1 % of Americans age 70 and older have gum disease. I see so many people with rotting teeth, missing teeth and ugly mouths. I have never smoked a cigarette in my life and THANK GOD that I don't. What a nasty bad habit! Smoking won't send you to Hell, but it will make you smell like you've been there! If God wanted humans to smoke, then He would have put a chimney on top of our head. I hate cigarettes!!! Please don't smoke, because it will rot your teeth and ruin your health in multiple ways.

Avoid eating a high sugary diet. If you love sugar, I encourage you to read up online about the toxicity of refined white sugar. Read about what white sugar does to destroy the body's health. I brush my teeth every day! I rinse with original Listerine a few times each day. Since bacteria causes tooth decay, keeping your mouth clean will help prevent gum disease.

Also, you should get your teeth cleaned by a dentist every 6 months. If you wait 3 or 4 years, you might not be aware of serious tooth decay, and could end up needing to have teeth extracted. They don't grow back (unless you're a small child). Unlike sharks (who grow unlimited sets of teeth), humans only grow two sets. Just one implant (they pound anchors into your gum bone and then attach artificial teeth) can costs upwards of $8,500. I thank God that I still have my 28 natural teeth.

But I didn't always take care of my teeth good enough. I developed a bad cavity on my upper left molar last year. I needed to get a Root Canal and Crown done. It cost me $3,500 for one tooth! The procedure didn't go so well, leaving me with my tooth feeling weird. The endodontist didn't get all the tooth root out, so I still have some feeling and mild pain when pressure is applied to the tooth. I sure wish I had taken better care of my teeth before this problem started. Thankfully, I still have all my natural teeth (minus my 4 Wisdom Teeth). I may end up losing my upper left molar, but I am going to try to keep it as long as possible).

So learn from my foolishness. Take care of your teeth. By simply brushing your teeth after every meal, and avoiding eating lots of sugar, you can save yourself a lot of pain, suffering, money and grief later in life. I still have pretty good teeth, but I have plenty of fillings. That is because when I was younger I didn't brush my teeth as often as I should have. Since I didn't feel any pain in my teeth, or see any problems, I didn't give it a second thought. Boy was I stupid! In ancient times, people never brushed their teeth. But they didn't eat all the refined sugary drinks and foods that Americans enjoy today. Thankfully, it is very easy to take care of your teeth. Simply gently brush your teeth after every meal.

And also, avoid biting down on crushed ice and other hard things that can break your teeth. Thankfully I've never had that happen. Of course, life is unpredictable and anything can happen to damage our teeth (like an accident). But at least we should try to take care of the teeth we have left. Good teeth are a gift from God. All we need to do is take care of them, and then they will take care of us.

I hope that has been helpful.

3.9.5 GodTube Is Pulling On The Same Rope As The Devil (2022-09-06 14:32)

2nd Timothy 4:3-4, "For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables."

Those apostates at GodTube deleted my channel with all of Pastor Max Younce's sermon videos.

Sadly, the biggest culprit today (i.e., the one's who will not put up with sound Bible doctrine) are churches, Bible colleges and religious people. Go figure! Apostasy ALWAYS begins within the churches and then flows downward into corrupt society.

The hallmark trait of apostasy is apathy and indifference. Apathy is to some extent, a condition; Indifference is to the same extent, a choice. An apathetic person is without feelings, not because they chose to, but because they CAN'T, they are incapable of response. An indifferent person simply doesn't care or isn't concerned, not because they can't, but because they WON'T. Today's lame churches and the pathetic Bible colleges that influence them are indifferent!

If you talk to most professed Christians today, they just don't want to care about wrong repentance, false bibles or another gospel that cannot save. Pensacola Christian College chooses to be indifferent, idle, setting on the premises instead of standing on the promises of God. PCC is letting the world go to Hell, while Christians like me have to do all the fighting.

I am disgusted with GodTube, who are all stinking neo-evangelicals. They absolutely will not tolerate sound Bible doctrine. Neo (meaning "new") evangelicals have done away with the old hymns of the faith. Instead, they promote their horrible Contemporary Christian Music (CCM) that repeats seven words eleven times (i.e., "7/11 music"). Neo-evangelicals have substituted psychology in the pulpit today for theology. They've substituted entertainment for the power of the Holy Spirit to work in people's lives. They've substituted God's Word (the inspired King James Bible), with a bunch of watered-down, corrupt and secularized perversions of the Bible.

Neo-evangelicals are destroying the churches!!! GodTube is a part of that apostate mess. They only want weak, shallow, non-offensive, powerless, empty content that won't bring any Holy Spirit conviction or step on anybody's toes. That is, GodTube censors anything about the evils of abortion, children rebelling against parents, homosexuality, government corruption, feminism, stupid preachers who can't tell you how to go to Heaven, et cetera. [1]Those were the type of sermon excerpts that I uploaded to GodTube, that compelled them to ban me.

SHAME on GodTube for censoring THE TRUTH of God's Word!!!

3.9.6 DANGER: Mobile Phone Gambling May Ruin Your Life! (2022-09-07 00:49)

Proverbs 15:16, “ Better is little with the fear of the LORD than great treasure and trouble therewith.”

Proverbs 16:8, “ Better is a little with righteousness than great revenues without right. ”

Proverbs 28:6, “ Better is the poor that walketh in his uprightness, than he that is perverse in his ways, though he be rich.”

4884

Proverbs 28:22, “ He that hasteth to be rich hath an evil eye, and considereth not that poverty shall come upon him.”

1st Timothy 6:9, “ But they that will be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition.”

Gambling is a sin! It is not sinful to take calculated risks; such as, starting your own business, because it involves honest hard work and labor. But to just gamble with the money God has entrusted to you is wrong. It is a sin! I HATE gambling! I HATE every false way!!! Psalms 119:104, “

Through thy precepts I get understanding: therefore I hate every false way.”

The reason why church pastors no longer preach against sin, is shamefully because they DON’T walk with God. What saith the Scripture? Acts 4:13, “

Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus.

” When a man walks closely with His dear God and Savior, Jesus, that man WILL be bold to speak THE TRUTH and expose falsehoods, Satanic lies and wickedness!!!

The following disturbing information appeared in Vice magazine, exposing the evils of mobile phone gambling...

> “Being able to just sit in bed and go on my phone and gamble made it almost impossible to stop.”
>
> Unlike sports betting, online casino gambling remained illegal in Illinois, and Jason wasn’t sure if the online games he was playing were legal or not. “But there was never any red tape to get past in order to play those games,” he said.
>
> Regardless of the legality, the growing prevalence of gambling in society helped him legitimize his habit to himself. It felt less “seedy,” he said, even if he would gamble until three in the morning while his kids slept “and then wake up and do it again.” By this year, Jason didn’t go a day without gambling.
>
> “I felt like I had to be gambling at all times,” he said.
>
> He would ultimately blow through “a couple hundred thousand dollars” before admitting he had become a problem gambler in May. Still, Jason considers himself “a slightly better case than average.” Since he joined Gamblers Anonymous, he’s heard stories of people losing homes and living out of their car.
> In the U.S. this century, gambling has become more wholly legitimized, released from the confines of Atlantic City and Las Vegas and into the broader culture. Gambling advertisements litter the country, and more than 20 states now allow [1]casinos, compared to just nine in 2001. Roughly the same number have legalized [2]online sports betting and more people are pushing for legal [3]online casinos as well.

> Politicians say the legalization of gambling provides states with much-needed additional revenue and allows the government to more adequately oversee gambling and responsibly help those who develop issues. These arguments, as well as ones against prohibitionary schemes generally, are difficult to refute in theory; in practice, it's not yet clear whether state agencies are taking their oversight commitments as seriously as they should.
>
> The omnipresence of gambling and gambling-like activities has made financial catastrophe a few clicks away for anyone with a phone.
>

Oh my! The Devil is a beautiful liar! Anybody can become addicted to anything. We are living in a very wicked, crooked, unloving and manipulative world, especially in America! I have never seen so many thieves robbing people through legitimate businesses, as today in 2022. I'm talking about crooked car rental agencies, who advertise car rentals for $25, but then when you get there they demand $79 per day! And then if you rent the car for 3 days, but call in on the 4th day because you need the car for just one more day, they'll rip you off by requiring you to pay a " weekly rate.

So that fourth day ends up costing you $225! They are rotten legalized THIEVES!!! Greedy people write their rental contracts, using every crooked gimmick to take advantage of you and get your money. It is wickedness! What saith the Scripture? Matthew 7:14,

"Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets."

I could mention the lawyer profession. I could mention the realtor profession. If you ever read a standard realtor contract, it says that whether the buyer or seller reneges on the deal, the realtor is still legally entitled to fully payment! That is so wrong! So if the buyer decides not to buy, you might up up paying the realtor because of what somebody else did.

Another popular scam is taking someone to small claims court. Let's say that someone cheats you out of $3,000. They just keep your money and refuse to talk to you anymore, when you paid them to rebuild something for you. There's nothing that you can do!

I actually had this happen to me years ago.

I had bought an S-10 Sho-Bud pedal steel guitar and sent it to a man in Indiana who promised to rebuild it for me, using new parts, for which he charged me $1,300. The guitar cost me $1,500. So from Guam, where I lived, I sent him $1,300 through my PayPal, as he required

. I trusted that ungodly man! But he wickedly just kept it all!

So in frustration I called a lawyer in Indiana to take him to small claims court.

Thankfully I read the attorney's contract, because it said that even if I win the court case, they couldn't force the man to pay me the money that he stole. The contract also said that I would be legally required to pay ALL court costs, attorney fees and legally incurred debts (which could easily cost $7,000). I sadly realized that the entire legal system is a fraud, designed to screw the consumer! Literally, people can cheat you and steal your hard-earned money, and there is NOTHING that you can legally do about it! Feels great to be an American, huh? Not! I never did get my steel guitar back, nor one cent of the money that thief robbed from me. God will be his Judge (1st Thessalonians 4:6).

My point dear reader is that we live in a very rotten, ungodly, wicked and dishonest culture today in America. The Holy Bible teaches that the whole world has always abounded in wickedness (1st John 5:19). However, Jesus foretold that in the Last Days “p erilous times

would come (2nd Timothy 3:1-17). Jesus foretold that in the coming Tribulation period, people will woefully lack love for others, because of abounding sin and evil everywhere (Matthew 24:12). We are already seeing this indifferent and woeful lack of love in American society today.

Ask [5]Samantha Field, who says she was physically assaulted by a male student at

and then she was told to

“

when she reported it. I believe her!!! I have seen firsthand the abuse of people that goes on at PCC and their horrible Campus Church. Individuals do not matter at PCC!

Case in point, Pastor Jeff Redlin has banned me from returning to Campus Church, because I criticized PCC on social media. Even though I sincerely apologized for offending them, and I humbly offered to remove all my criticisms from social media, they still refuse to let me attend Campus Church in 2022. You see, like with the gambling casinos, money is all that matters to them. They don’t care! So I also wrote to PCC leadership in July of 2022, asking them if I could please come back, to be a part of their church family. They cold-heartedly refused, as uncaring people do. There is no love at the PCC camp, just as there is no love in gambling casinos. PCC is just another form of religious gambling casino, where THE HOUSE ALWAYS WINS!!!

We are seeing sin everywhere today in the United States, as if it was shot out of a canon! I don’t know about you dear friend, but I want to stay close to my Savior! I am going to let God love people through me. These horrible greedy people behind the gambling industry are NOT your friends. They don’t care about you, not one bit! They will sue you to get the gambling money that you owe them! THE HOUSE ALWAYS WINS!!! No matter what happens, the casinos are not going to lose money!!! You can be assured of that, but you may lose EVERYTHING!!!

The same is true at the cesspool of iniquity called ’Pensacola Christian College’ (PCC), no matter what happens, they are not going to lose any money!!!

You can be assured of that, but you may lose EVERYTHING!!! If you don’t believe me, search the internet for all the horror stories about former students at PCC, who were cruelly expelled for the smallest of offenses (e.g., saluting Confederate Colonel Robert E. Lee in public, expressing your opinion on Twitter, going to a restaurant with the opposite sex, criticizing PCC leadership, et cetera).

The best way not to end up in gambling debt is to avoid their websites completely. If you don’t want to become an alcoholic, then don’t take the first drink of booze. That is why I have never taken a single drink of booze, and by God’s grace I don’t plan to. Booze is Liquid Devil. Mobile Gambling is Electronic Devil. RUN from those rotten thieves!!! I have never gambled a day in my life and never will. I have never even bought a state lottery ticket, and I don't ever want to.

Desiring to be rich quickly is evil.

Proverbs 28:22, " He that hasteth to be rich hath an evil eye, and considereth not that poverty shall come upon him." 1st Timothy 6:9, " But they that will be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition."

There are no shortcuts to legitimate wealth that pleases God! Gambling casinos make BILLIONS of dollars, without doing the least amount of work! That is evil. That is ill-gotten gain! The Bible says in Proverbs 28:22, " He that hasteth to be rich hath an evil eye, and considereth not that poverty shall come upon him." We were all born with nothing, and we assuredly will die with nothing. But dear child of God, you CAN take with you the souls you've led to Jesus Christ. You CAN send your rewards on ahead of you to eternity, by laboring for Jesus Christ. Why do you think I work day and night on my websites, blogs, Facebook, Twitter and everything else I do for Jesus? You better believe that I want a full reward in eternity. I am laying up treasures beyond the sunset!

Remember, a fool and his money are soon parted. Jesus told us in Matthew 6:19-20 to lay up treasures in Heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and thieves do not break thru and steal.

Matthew 6:19-21, "Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal: But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal: or steal: For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also."

3.9.7 Queen Elizabeth II Was A Good Woman, But Lost (2022-09-09 11:55)

John 3:1-3 "There was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews: The same came to Jesus by night, and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him. Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God."

I did a lot of reading this morning to see if Queen Elizabeth was a born-again Christian. She was born in 1926. She died this week at age 96, having reigned as Queen of England for 70 years! Wow! Sadly, she was the head of the apostate Church of England (also known as "The Anglican Church"). Interestingly, King Henry III in the 16th century (1500's) wanted to divorce his wife, but the Catholic Pope wouldn't let him. So King Henry started his own new religion, The Anglican Church, so that he could divorce his wife, and he did. Truth is stranger than fiction! That is the true history of the origin of The Church of England...lol.

Queen Elizabeth II (1926-2022)

The [2]Church of England's website says you get to Heaven by getting water baptized, and then professing your faith in "The Holy Trinity." That's it! That is their corrupt and useless plan of salvation. Sadly, I don't think Queen Elizabeth II went to Heaven. She had been close friends throughout her life with Evangelist Billy Graham (1918-2018), inviting him to preach in England. Humbly said, [3]Billy Graham was a dangerous false prophet, who did more than anyone to bridge the gap between Roman Catholicism and Evangelical Christianity. But what saith the Scripture?

> 2nd Corinthians 6:14-18, "Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness? And what concord hath Christ with Belial? or what part hath he that believeth with an infidel? And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you, And will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty."

Kindly said, Roman Catholicism is of the Devil.

Queen Elizabeth II and The Pope Meet

There is no salvation is The Catholic Church! In so many ways, Catholicism goes totally contrary to the Scriptures. 1st Timothy 4:1-3 warns against false prophets who forbid marriage and eating meat. What religion does that? Yes, Catholics! The forbid their priests from getting married, which is why the Vatican has had a nightmare on their hands with lawsuits and criminal charges against thousands of priests, because of their immoral behavior. But this is what happens why you deny men's needs? The Bible teaches in 1st Corinthians 7:1-2 that every man and woman needs a mate, to prevent sin. The Catholic Church ignores this Scriptural principle, to their own demise.

Also, in Matthew 23:9 forbids calling any man "Father" (meaning that we ought not idolize men as being superior to one another). It is sinful for Catholics to worship their priests, kissing their hands and feet, praying to patron saints. I could go on for hours about the hypocrisy, evils and unbiblical teachings of Catholicism. Anything that is not taught in the Bible is a lie, the commandments of men. Read what Jesus said:

Mark 7:7-9, "Howbeit in vain do they worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.

For laying aside the commandment of God, ye hold the tradition of men, as the washing of pots and cups: and many other such like things ye do.

And he said unto them, Full well ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition.

The preceding passage of Scripture practically gives the address of The Vatican and The Church of England!!! Their doctrine is not what the Holy Bible teaches. I took some time to expose the deadly Roman Catholic religion, because [5]the Church of England is still rooted in Catholicism, requiring sacraments to be saved (as I will show you in a moment).

The Anglican Church of England does the same thing, middle of the road, blurring the lines between Catholicism and Protestantism. This is why the Church of England's extremely vague beliefs cover such a broad spectrum that it is difficult to nail anything down. Queen Elizabeth has said publicly that she is tolerant of all religions and faiths. So was Billy Graham, coddling the infidel damned in their unbelief.

I couldn't find any evidence that Queen Elizabeth II had ever been born-again. She was a good person (as far as sinners go), she did many wonderful works, she uplifted the name of Jesus to the people of England, but we know from Matthew 7:21-23 that this is NOT how a person gets their sins forgiven. This is NOT how a person gets to Heaven. Jesus warned in John 3:3b.

Ye must be born again.

" The Queen followed Jesus as a disciple, but she never trusted solely in Him, she also trusted in the baptistery of The Church of England. [6]Here is their Statement of Faith , which says we are saved by getting water baptized, and then "confirmed" in a ceremony, to confirm our belief in "The Holy Trinity," becoming a disciple of Jesus. Read in the Holy Bible about an accursed group of people who followed Jesus loyally, yet Christ denied even knowing them...

Matthew 7:21-23, "Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity."

What the apostate Church of England is teaching is not the Gospel, not even close. There is no issue of sin dealt with. 1st John 1:10, "If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us."

No one has ever been saved who didn't first realize they are a guilty sinner. God only saved the ungodly. We must know what we are being saved from. It is tragic that so many people are being deceived by The Church of England. The Devil is a beautiful liar. They have "a form of godliness," but deny the power thereof. That saving "power" which they deny is "the gospel" according to Romans 1:16. The apostate Anglican Church of England is guilty of having a mere "form of godliness," without having been born-again.

I love what Michael P. Bowen says in his helpful book: "[7]I Never Knew You":

> "Satan’s greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born-again."

That is what Lordship Salvation does, it deceives people to serve Jesus without ever being born-again by exclusive faith in Him (Matthew 7:21-23). Churchgoers everywhere are following Jesus, giving their life to Christ, surrendering all to Christ, starting a relationship with Jesus, becoming a disciple of Jesus, living a lifestyle of repentance, trying to turn away from a lifestyle of sinning, counting the cost and paying the price, trying to faithfully "run the race" until the end, and a bunch of other garbage that has NOTHING to do with getting saved; but they have never been born-again by faith alone in the Gospel (Good News) of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen the third day.

In my heart I wish that Queen Elizabeth II went to Heaven. But I haven’t found any evidence that she was born-again. Unfortunately, I have found evidence that she was a member and head of a religious cult. Sadly, the Church of England is a religious cult! I am not saying that to be mean or unkind, but truthful. We read in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4 that “ is comprised of three things:

1. Jesus DIED on a cross (to pay the debt for our sins)
2. Jesus was BURIED (confirming that He was dead)
3. Jesus RESURRECTED from the dead after 3 days (a dead Savior couldn’t save us)

Anyone who comes to God as an admitted guilty sinner (Romans 3:19-20), BELIEVING (trusting, putting confidence in) Jesus’ death, burial and bodily resurrection is saved! That is how you become BORN AGAIN! Following Jesus as His disciple is NOT how you get saved. Cleaning up your life, dedicating your life to serve Jesus Christ, having a relationship with Him—none of these things can produce the new birth. YE MUST BE BORN AGAIN!!! Being born-again is a supernatural miracle wrought by God in response to a person’s childlike faith in the Good News (Gospel) of the Lord Jesus Christ (John 1:12-13).

The is no salvation in the prisonhouse of Catholicism (both Roman and Orthodox sects). Anglicanism (i.e., the Church of England) is a closely related offshoot of Roman Catholicism. Many of the false teachings of Catholicism can be found in Anglicanism. Birds of a feather flock together! Salvation cannot be found in ANY religion; but rather, in the person of the Lord Jesus Christ. Water baptism is NOT required, essential nor permitted in one’s faith to get to Heaven. Water baptism is one’s public profession of faith, not part of being justified by faith. You don’t demonstrate your faith through baptism (as the cult of Lutheranism teaches); but rather, the evidence of your faith is faith itself in the Gospel, as recorded in the inspired Word of God (i.e., the King James Bible). Galatians 3:26, “For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.

Queen Elizabeth was the HEAD of the apostate Church of England. All I’ve been reading online, and hearing from [8]the corrupt mainstream newsmedia, is that the Queen was a Christian. That doesn’t say much! Even the Devil falsely appears as an Angel of Light the Bible warns in 2nd Corinthians 11:13-15. The Devil is a beautiful liar! In Acts chapter 10 we read about a good man named Cornelius, just like the good Queen Elizabeth II, who loved people. The Bible says that Cornelius gave alms to the poor, he prayed and fasted, and was a devout good man; but he was still a LOST SINNER! You see dear reader, being good is not enough to enter into the Kingdom of God! Becoming a loyal follower (disciple) of Jesus does not make one a redeemed child of God. Jesus in no uncertain terms exclaimed in

John 3:3b.

“

Ye must be born again.

One day after her death, her son Prince Charles said about the Queen: “ a flight of angels sing thee to thy rest.

” I humbly fear that her fate was not so pleasant. The unconverted rich man in Luke 16 died in his sleep and awoke up in the tormentuous fires of Hell (Luke 16:19-31). Like God, I do not rejoice in the death of the wicked.

Ezekiel 18:32, “

For I have no pleasure in the death of him that dieth, saith the Lord GOD: wherefore turn yourselves, and live ye.

” In the eyes of the heathen world, whenever anybody dies whom they loved, that person is automatically said to have gone to Heaven. But do they? Jesus warned in John

8:24, “

I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sins: for if ye believe not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins.

” Only born-again Christians

“

DIE IN THE LORD

(Revelation 14:13b). Did Queen Elizabeth II die in the Lord, or did she die in her sins? I cannot say for sure, but based upon her involvement and oversight of the Satanic Church of England, I seriously doubt that she went to Heaven. Religion is a sure path to the highway to Hell.

Religion is man’s way of trying to reach God; but God is trying to reach men through the sacrifice of His dear only begotten Son on the cross, through faith in the Good News of Jesus Christ crucified on a cross, buried and physically risen from the dead the third day. That is how you get to Heaven, through FAITH in what Christ did to pay for OUR SINS on the cross! 1st Thessalonians 4:14, “

For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.

” But does this mean that Catholics are saved? I mean, they do believe that Jesus died and raised up, right? Yes, but they ADD the Seven Sacraments to their faith, which negates faith. You either trust Christ, and He alone; or else you trust in sacraments (i.e., water baptism), the priest or something other than Jesus.

Something was very wrong with Queen Elizabeth's so-called " profound faith

" as a professed Christian. Remember, even the Pope, and Warren Jeffs (Mormons) and other cult leaders profess to be "

Christian.

" Case in point, [9]a recent disturbing survey revealed that 52 % of Americans who profess to be "

Christian

do not believe the Gospel. Those 52 % all think that they must do to get to Heaven!!! No one is going to Heaven who believes that they are required to do good works to get to Heaven (Romans 3:20).

I watched the Queen's funeral today. The singing was astoundingly beautiful. The female minister bellowed out praises about the deceased Queen's good works! That is nice to hear, but as the unsaved do-gooders in Matthew 7:21-23 were horrified to learn, doing

"many wonderful works" in Jesus' name doesn't grant one entrance into God's Kingdom.

John 3:3b.

Ye must be born again.

Queen Elizabeth II said on Christmas Day one year:

> "For me, the life of Jesus Christ, the Prince of Peace, whose birth we celebrate today, is an inspiration and an anchor in my life. A role model of reconciliation and forgiveness, he stretched out his hands in love, acceptance and healing. Christ's example has taught me to seek to respect and value all people of whatever faith or none." From the Queen's Christmas Message, 2014.

That sounds great, right?

Unfortunately, the Church of England does not preach the Gospel.

The following blatant heresy is part of what the Church of England teaches:

> XXVII. Of Baptism.
> Baptism is not only a sign of profession, and mark of difference, whereby Christian men are discerned from others that be not christened, but it is also a sign of

> Regeneration or New-Birth, whereby, as by an instrument, they that receive Baptism rightly are grafted into the Church; the promises of the forgiveness of sin, and of our adoption to be the sons of God by the Holy Ghost, are visibly signed and sealed; Faith is confirmed, and Grace increased by virtue of prayer unto God. The Baptism of young Children is in any wise to be retained in the Church, as most agreeable with the institution of Christ. [10]SOURCE [emphasis added]

BLASPHEMY!!! Infants should NEVER be baptized, because water baptism in the Bible was always done AFTER a person got saved. Water baptism is an outward snapshot of what has happened inwardly, that is, someone has put their trust in Jesus' death, burial and bodily resurrection. This is what water baptism pictures, the Gospel. God's promise of eternal life "TO SAVE THEM THAT BELIEVE" (1st Corinthians 1:21b) is NOT visibly signed and sealed when a person gets baptized in water.

Your eternal destiny as a believer is signed and sealed the very moment of FAITH in Jesus Christ!!! The fact of the matter is that YOU DON'T EVEN NEED TO BE WATER BAPTIZED TO GO TO HEAVEN!!! The repentant thief on the cross was never water baptized. Think about that! Acts 10:43 teaches that ALL the prophets gave witness that remission of sins comes only through faith in Christ. There has always been, and always will be, ONLY ONE GOSPEL (Galatians 1:6-7). That true Gospel does NOT include water baptism!!!

The Devil knows better than anyone, that the best way to trick someone is to place a lie between two truths, to hide it in plain view. The half-truth is the most effective form of deception, because in part it can be defended with incontestable logic. Every hellbound Mormon, Jehovah's Witness, Seventh-Day Adventist, Christian Scientist, Church of Christ, Lutheran and Roman Catholic (all unsaved infidels), will tell you that they are trusting in Jesus Christ to get to Heaven. But upon closer inspection, you will find that ALL of those false religions pervert the Gospel by ADDING works of some sort to it.

For example: Seventh-Day Adventists (SDA's) will insist that they are only trusting Christ to get to Heaven, but then they teach that if you fail to obey the Ten Commandments you don't love God, which shows that your faith in not genuine, and so they say you're not really a Christian in their view. [11]That is exactly what SDA's teach!!! It is a form of Calvinism, a works-based plan of damnation that cannot produce the new birth. Hebrews 4:10-11 teaches that we are saved by completely RESTING in the finished work of Jesus Christ through Calvary's cross.

Salvation is not a reward for the righteous, it is a gift for the guilty!

Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

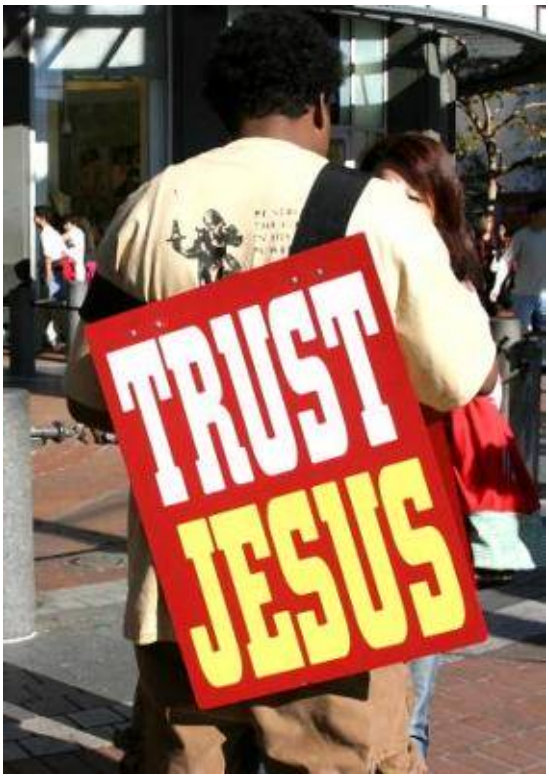
Turning away from sinful ways would be a work. Faith puts all of the merit where it belongs, on the object of our faith, Jesus and His work.

If to "repent" means to forsake our sinful ways TO BE SAVED, but Jesus already paid for our sins by dying on the cross, then what are we repenting from?

The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU.

We must stay true to the simplicity of the Gospel!! Repentance regarding salvation is a change of mind from unbelief to belief!!! We must earnestly contend for the faith (Jude 1:3). [12]Something is very wrong when the demonic Pope praises Queen Elizabeth II for her faith in Jesus Christ! Kindly said, Pope Francis is woefully ignorant of THE TRUTH of God's Word!

[13]Most Catholics, mainline Protestants say faith in God not required to enter Heaven: study



The Church of England does not preach the Gospel. Rather, they have a form of godliness without the saving power of the Gospel. Romans 1:16, "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek. " I love that Bible verse!

We get saved by BELIEVING the Gospel, not by becoming a disciple (follower) of Jesus Christ. Jesus at times rebuked the crowd for following Him just to receive a handout of food, but they didn't believe on Him. John 6:26, "Jesus answered them and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Ye seek me, not because ye saw the miracles, but because ye did eat of the loaves, and were filled."

Judas was one of Jesus' very apostles, yet John 6:70 reveals that Judas had a devil in him. Judas went to Hell in his unbelief

. You see dear friend, you cannot get to Heaven by following, serving, confessing, praying, repenting of sins or surrendering all to Jesus; YE MUST BE BORN AGAIN!!!

3.9.8 What Repentance Does Not Mean (2022-09-13 15:38)

John 3:20-21,

“

For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved. But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God.

Acts 16:29-33, “

Then he called for a light, and sprang in, and came trembling, and fell down before Paul and Silas,

And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved?

And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house.

And they spake unto him the word of the Lord, and to all that were in his house.

And he took them the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes; and was baptized, he and all his, straightway.

Acts 20:21, “

Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ.

2nd Timothy 2:25: “In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth; And that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will.”

You cannot show me one verse in the inspired King James Bible, that says to “ turn away from your sins,

repent of your sins

to be saved. But I have just shown you a handful of Scripture passages which say to “repent toward God” and about “repentance to the acknowledgment of the truth.” The Bible says in John 3:21 that “he that doeth truth” cometh to the light, not “ he who turns away from his former sinful lifestyle.

I have declared war on today’s corrupted preachers (especially Baptist pastors) who have no clue what it means to “

in the Bible for salvation. Tragically, preachers are like dumb parrots, that just repeat what they hear, whether it be good or bad. When I lived in the island of Guam for 17 years, we had a very small zoo. The zoo staff cussed all day around the parrot, so it called women female dogs (but used the other word) and cussed a lot. Bad bird!!! Or rather, Bad staff!!!

Sadly, that is how most preachers are. They hear another preacher say something that sounds good, so they start repeating it, and before you know it the Devil has crept into the churches.

Just this past week I heard a local pastor make a horrible statement from the pulpit. He said: “Bible repentance means to turn away from the life you’ve been living.” That Baptist pastor has holes in his head!!! He is a nice guy, but a nice liar too! That pastor is woefully ignorant of Bible theology. I personally handed him a hardcopy of Michael P. Bowen’s book, “[1]I Never Knew You” several months go, of which he never commented about it, and I didn’t ask him if he read it. That book cost me $17. They’re selling them on Amazon.com now for about $12 I think. I guess the more books that people buy, the lower the price goes.

I was saddened to hear that local pastor make such a false statement to his congregation. That is why I refuse to join that church, they are wrong on the Gospel. It’s not my place to tell another preacher how to run his church, even though he is running it into the ground. Men are proud and unsought advice is rarely taken and usually resented. Pastor Jack Hyles taught me that, and he was 100 % right. Some pastors just can’t be reasoned with, like Jeff Redlin at Pensacola Christian College, who has cruelly banned me from coming to their Campus Church since August 2, 2022. PCC has spiritually gone to the dogs! They are playing church.

Even PCC gets repentance very wrong. In their Campus Church's official Foundation's Class, they teach that, quote: "Repentance is a change of mind which results in a change of behavior." WRONG!!! Jeff Redlin and Timothy Zacharias are dangerous fools doctrinally! RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!! I certainly don't think that I have everything all figured out, but any idiot can see that nowhere in the Holy Bible are we taught to repent of our sins, or to turn away from a sinful lifestyle, to get to Heaven.

I heard the mother from 'Living Proof,' a Gospel Bluegrass band from a Baptist church in Texas, give her testimony past year at a local church. She said in essence:

> "I thought I had been saved for a long time, but I realized in time that I had never been saved at all. I had never turned away from my sinning. But now I have turned away from my sins, and I don't live the way that I used to, and I know that I am saved now."

Of all events, she spoke this damnable heresy at a church revival!!! I felt sick in my soul. I cringed as I looked down in grief. I wanted to stand up and shout: "Lady, you still ain't saved! Sit down!" That is her pastor's fault in Texas, for perverting the Gospel of Jesus Christ. There is NOTHING in the Gospel message about forsaking your sinful behavior, or turning over a new leaf, or changing your wicked ways, or anything that requires self-effort (works). Jesus came into the world to die for OUR SINS on the cross. The dear Savior doesn't ask or expect you to give up even one sin to receive God's free gift of eternal life. Romans 6:23, "For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord."

I love what Pastor Yankee Arnold said in his most recent sermon:

> "See, when you trusted Christ, He delivered you from the PENALTY [of sin]. You never have to pay for it again. Now that you are saved, He wants to save you from the very POWER of sin in your life. And then one day, He's going to deliver us from the very PRESENCE of sin." —Pastor Yankee Arnold, a quote from the sermon: "[2]Sanctification Explained"

I love that! When we trusted Christ as our personal Savior, He delivered us from the PENALTY of sin. You cannot turn away from your sin as a lost person. It is IMPOSSIBLE!!! When God saves you by faith alone in His only begotten Son (John 1:12-13), He indwells you with Himself (i.e., God's Holy Spirit, also called "the Spirit of Christ" in Romans 8:9b). The Holy Spirit chastises, scourges, rebukes, comforts, helps, guides and teaches every believer).

It is a false teaching to tell an unsaved person to "turn from their sin" to be saved, when God Himself DOESN'T require any such thing. Go ahead, try to find it in the inspired Holy Bible, I triple-dog dare you!!! You won't find it. Acts 20:21 says that repentance is "TOWARD GOD." Repentance is simply looking up to a holy God and admitting that you are a guilty needy sinner, and then by faith you believe on Jesus Christ to be saved.

Salvation is not a reward for the righteous, it is a gift for the guilty!

Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

Turning away from sinful ways would be a work. Faith puts all of the merit where it belongs, on the object of our faith, Jesus and His work.

If to “repent” means to forsake our sinful ways TO BE SAVED, but Jesus already paid for our sins by dying on the cross, then what are we repenting from?

The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU.

We must stay true to the simplicity of the Gospel!! Repentance regarding salvation is a change of mind from unbelief to belief!!! We must earnestly contend for the faith (Jude 1:3).

Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do.

Have you believed a lie dear reader? I was speaking to man who attends a local church recently, who thinks that you must be water baptized to get to Heaven. He faithfully attends a local Baptist church!!! That is his lazy pastor’s fault, for not feeding his people THE TRUTH. I heard that same preacher once say that he doesn’t preach against sin, because people already know that they are sinners. He said that he only preaches about God’s love. That pastor is a mess! Read what one of my favorite preachers, Pastor Lee Roberson (1909-2007) rightly said about preaching against sin and eternal punishment:

> “Somebody says, ’The thought of Hell is so horrible.’ Well, my friend, so is cancer, so is tuberculosis, so is the grave. Someone said, ’I believe sin ought to be punished, but not for eternity.’ That’s your view, not God’s.
>
> Again another says, ’I don’t believe in the wrath of God.’ Then you don’t believe your Bible. The Bible says the wrath of God abideth on the one who doesn’t believe in Jesus Christ. He is lost forever.
>
> Now, these things come to us out of the Word of God. The teaching of eternal punishment should give us a hatred for sin. We ought to hate sin. The reason we have changed so much in this day in all of our churches is that we are not hearing much on this subject. Therefore, we endorse sin. We engage in sin. We camouflage the sin in our lives and allow things to go by, instead of hating sin as God wants us to hate sin . . .
>
> The teaching of eternal punishment should give us a passion for the souls of men.”
> SOURCE: Dr. Lee Roberson, from the book, Disturbing Questions... Solid Answers, chapter 16, pgs. 196-198; copyright, Sword of the Lord publishers, 1978.

Bible preachers must preach against sin, and warn lost sinners of coming fiery judgment in Hell forever, so that God’s Holy Spirit will convict them to come to Jesus Christ to be saved. Church alters are empty nowadays, because preachers no longer preach THE TRUTH.

When I attended Campus Church in 2021, [3]Pastor Kurt Skelly preached for Pensacola Christian College’s (PCC) opening convocation service in September. He bloviated in pride (you could here it in his voice) for an hour, and then never told anyone how to be saved. Thousands of returning and new PCC students were present, with their family members in attendance. What a missed opportunity to witness the Gospel! But instead Pastor Skelly invited lost sinners to walk down an aisle to the front (which seems about 1/4 mile in distance), to make a spectacle of themselves in front of 10,000 people! As far as I could see, no one came! Why didn’t he just tell everyone how to be saved right from their pew? I mean, [4]it only takes one minute to accurately present the Gospel. [5]Here is the Gospel in just 4 minutes! Do we really care about getting lost sinners saved, or do pastors care more about bragging rights about how many converts they had? I think you already know that sad answer. SHAME on PCC!

Are you willing to risk spending an eternity in the flames of Hell, when you don't have to? Eternal LIFE is a "free gift" (Romans 5:15) from God, paid for by the precious blood of Jesus (1st Peter 1:18,19). Romans 6:23 reads, "For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord." No wonder Hebrews 2:3 says,

How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation...

You don't have to forsake your sins to be saved, but you do need to realize your guilty condition as a sinner. We all justly deserve to burn in Hell. All you need to do to be saved is to admit that you are a guilty sinner; BELIEVE the Good News (Gospel) that Jesus is the Christ, the only begotten Son of God; BELIEVE that Jesus was crucified on a cross to pay for your sins, He was buried, and then three days later He miraculously bodily resurrected from the dead. If that simple Good News is your only hope for forgiveness of sins and eternal life, then you HAVE IT!!! Galatians 3:26, "For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.

The Roman jailer asked Paul and Silas: "What must I do to be saved?" Their simple reply was: "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved." Did they tell the jailer to repent of his sins? No, they didn't! Did they tell the jailer to surrender control of his life over to Christ from now on? No, they didn't! Did they require the Roman jailer to " count the cost and pay the price

(as Billy Graham falsely requires)? No, they didn't! All they said was to:

"Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved" (Acts 16:31b).

Of the 66 books in the canon of Scripture, only one of those books was authored by God specifically to show humanity how to get to Heaven. That beautiful book is the Gospel of John. In John we find the word "believe" mentioned 85 times, but there is not even one mention of the words: repenting, confessing, forsaking, turning, surrendering, running, following, counting or anything else; just BELIEVE on Christ! So why do ungodly preachers keep ADDING more to God's simple plan of salvation. I love these quotes from Dr. Jack Hyles...

> "More people will die and burn in Hell, because they're trusting too much!" —Pastor Jack Hyles, a precious quote from the MP3 sermon, "[6]Yea, Yea, And Nay, Nay!"

> "Everything that's hard and complicated about salvation is God's side of it!" —Pastor Jack Hyles, a precious quote from the MP3 sermon, "[7]Yea, Yea, And Nay, Nay!"

Repentance does NOT mean to turn away from the life that you've been living. That is a false plan of salvation, if someone tells you that garbage. [8]I have written a helpful article on what repentance for salvation really means. Consider the following quote by the mighty man of God, Dr. Harry Ironside (1876-1951):

> "Repentance is the recognition of my sinnership—the owning before God that I am as vile as He has declared me to be in His holy Word."
>
> SOURCE: [9]Except Ye Repent, by Dr. Harry Ironside, chapter 3

This is vastly different than actually ceasing from one's sin to be saved, which is a false gospel. Pastor Ironside is correct—repentance is simply realizing that one is a guilty, dirty, rotten, hopeless sinner in God's eyes. This is why we need a Savior. Thankfully, Jesus paid the price with His own literal precious blood (1st Peter 1:18,19; Hebrews 9:12).

Christian author Michael Patrick Bowen states in his excellent book titled, "[10]I NEVER KNEW YOU," on page 114:

> "Repent, as Christ meant it to be in terms of salvation, means to change your mind from trusting in what you can do for God to trusting only in what He can do for you."
>
> SOURCE: Michael Patrick Bowen, a quote from the awesome book, "[11]I NEVER NEW YOU" (Page 114)

Repentance is a "Change of Mind," Nothing Else

I've heard many preachers wrestle the true Biblical meaning of "repent." Mark 1:15, "And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel." The word "repent" in Mark 1:15 is the Greek word metanoeo, which simply means "to think differently" or "a change of mind." Many preachers pervert the meaning of repentance by beginning with "a change of mind," but then they embellish (add to) the basic meaning, and therefore completely change it's meaning. For example: I've heard numerous preachers say that "repentance is a change of mind that leads to a change of life." No, that is not what it means to repent. That is the heresy taught today at Pensacola Christian College (PCC).

Somehow, someway, false teachers always add works to grace. They do it very subtly, just as Satan subtly deceived Eve in the Garden of Eden. 2nd Corinthians 11:3, "But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ." It is amazing how accurately the Word of God identifies the problems in churches today. The Devil has subtly crept his own perverted Bible revisions into most churches, corrupting people's minds from the simplicity that is in Christ (which is the Gospel).

Everywhere we turn nowadays, the Devil has crept his false teachings into the churches. Sadly, this includes MOST Southern Baptist Churches and even Independent Baptist Church. Dr. Jack Hyles was so right. He said that most preachers and layman don't want to suffer reproach for the name of Christ, nor do they want to be put outside the gate with Jesus!!!

But I am outside the gate. Since August 2, 2022 Pastor Jeff Redlin has banned me from returning to Campus Church. I have it in writing from him! SHAME on PCC and Campus Church. The reason why they won't allow me to come back to church, is simply because I TOLD THE TRUTH and they cannot handle it. I rebuked them sharply (I am not afraid to rebuke the almighty pastors and leadership at PCC). Matthew 25:40 and 45 warns that whatever you do to a child of God, you have done to Jesus.

PCC has banned Jesus from attending church. Think about that! I obeyed the Bible in Titus 1:13-14 to 'REBUKE THEM SHARPLY' for preaching a false meaning of repentance at PCC, and for wickedly bidding Godspeed to the apostate Bob Jones University (BJU) camp (who wickedly preach hardcore Lordship Salvation, sinfully promote the Devil's corrupt Bible versions, and who also wickedly teach a wrong understanding of repentance). RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!!

There is only one sin that can hinder you from being saved dear reader, and that is the sin of UNBELIEF in Jesus Christ. Therefore, the only sin that you must repent (change your mind) about is your UNBELIEF.

The beloved Pastor Bob Gray Sr. of the Longview Baptist Temple church in Texas correctly preaches:

> "Repentance means to change your mind—change your mind—change your mind about how you want to get to Heaven to what God says you've got to do to get to Heaven. If you've got to repent of all your sins, you're still headed for Hell tonight."
> SOURCE: Pastor Bob Gray Sr., a quote from the awesome MP3 sermon, '[12]Why You Should Be A Part Of A Growing Church'

As you can clearly see, that is very different than forsaking your sinful ways to be saved, which is 100 % self-righteous works! Pastor Bob Gray Sr. is exactly right! You simply need to repent (change your mind) from whatever has been hindering you from believing, to BELIEVING to be saved. If you are a Roman Catholic, then you need to change your mind to stop trusting in the Seven Sacraments of the Catholic church, and start trusting the Good News of Jesus Christ! Roman Catholicism is a prisonhouse of religion.

As Hebrews 6:1 teaches, you need to repent from "DEAD WORKS" to be saved. Hebrews 6:1, "

Therefore leaving the principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on unto perfection; not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith toward God,

Of the doctrine of baptisms, and of laying on of hands, and of resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgment." Dead works include BOTH good and bad works. Jesus died for our righteousness too (Isaiah 64:6). There is no salvation in ANY religion; but rather, in the person of the precious Savior, Jesus Christ. John 6:47, " Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life. "

There you have it, the Bible speaks of " repentance from dead works,

" NOT repentance from your sinful behavior or former sinful ways!!! Getting saved is a legal matter. All humanity are guilty sinners. We all deserve to spend eternity being punished in the fires of Hell for our sins. If that offends you, it is only because you do not understand how sinful you are in the sight of a holy righteous God. No one is perfect! We have all sinned and fallen short of God's glory (Romans 3:23).

So there are only two paths we can take:

1. The first path is to go to Hell forever to pay for our own sins (Revelation 20:15)

2. The second path is for someone else (a Savior) to suffer in our place. That is what God did for you and me dear friend, He sent His only begotten Son into the world to pay the price with His blood for our sins. Jesus died on a cross and was buried. Three days later He physically resurrected from the dead. I don't claim to understand it all, but I believe it to be true based upon the recorded written Word of God (Romans 4:5-6)

Please don't let any preacher ever lie to you, that repentance means anything more than "

a change of mind.

That is what the Greek word metanoia means concerning salvation. It does NOT mean to change your life to be saved. That would be a works-based false plan of salvation, which cannot produce the new birth. Jesus said in John 3:3b,

e must be born again.

" You cannot be born again by turning away from your sinful ways and behavior. You can only get born again by ceasing from all your human works, and resting 100 % in the finished redemptive work of Jesus Christ. John 6:28-29,

"Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent." I didn't read anything about forsaking a lifestyle of sinning in Jesus' words, did you? Nope!

Dear friend, we've got a bunch of dumb dumb pastors today, who are woefully ignorant of Bible theology. They are merely repeating what they have heard other pastors say, without doing their own Bible study, so they wrongly divide the Word of Truth (2nd Timothy 2:15). They should all be fired! I mean that. It would be a wonderful thing if over 95 % of all church pastors were fired, because they are all preaching heresy. A false Gospel cannot save anyone.

That is why I won't join the First Baptist Church of Pensacola. I love their pastor as a person, Dave Snyder (who has been their senior pastor since 2018); but their pastors preach hardcore Lordship Salvation, saying that you must surrender control of your life over to Christ to be saved. That is NOT the free grace Gospel! I attended their Discovery Class in 2022 to see what they're about. Their church is one of 45,000 Southern Baptist Churches, most who've succumbed to the lies of John Calvin (aka, Calvinism, which the First Baptist Church of Pensacola admits teaching on their church's website). It will be a cold day in Hell before I become a Calvinist!!!

If you think Evangelist [13]Billy Graham (1918-2018) was saved, I am worried about you. Mr. Graham tells the story about a young college student who asked him a question. The student said that he wanted to receive Jesus Christ to be saved, but he didn't want to tell his peers, lest they persecute him. Billy Graham lied, telling the young man that he couldn't be saved. Billy based his false teaching on Jesus words from Matthew 10:33: "

But whosoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father which is in heaven.

" The fastest way to get screwed up in your understanding of the Bible is to arbitrarily lift text out of context, because you will end up with a new pretext (strange doctrine).

I love what Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) said: "A good rule to follow when interpreting the Bible is to never use an obscure passage to contradict a clear one." Matthew 10:33 is an obscure passage. You would be foolish to base God's simple plan of salvation upon single verses in Matthew, when God authored the whole Gospel of John to show us how to be saved. John 20:31, "

But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name.

For Billy Graham to quote a single obscure verse from Matthew 10:33, which contradicts the entire Gospel of John, shows utter theological incompetence by Dr. Graham. I am not trying to be unkind, God knows my heart. I am simply trying to warn you dear friend, that Billy Graham preached a counterfeit plan of salvation which cannot save anybody, neither himself. I am 100 % convinced that Billy Graham is burning in Hell forever!!! I am sad about that, but what he preached is simply NOT what the Bible teaches to get to Heaven. The Devil is a beautiful liar!

Jesus very plainly warned in Matthew 7:21-23 that you cannot get to Heaven Billy Graham's way, that is, by following Christ as the "Lord" of your life. Read for yourself what Jesus said:

> Matthew 7:21-23, "Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity."

Billy Graham was a fool! We read in John 12:42-43 that many of the chief rulers believed on Jesus, but they DID NOT CONFESS HIM, for fear of the Christ-hating Pharisees. Verse 43 says the saved rulers loved the praise of men more than the praise of God. But they were 100 % born again, because THEY BELIEVED on Jesus Christ.

Likewise, we read in the New Testament about Joseph of Arimathea, who the Bible says was a 'secret' disciple of Jesus. We never hear of Joseph before or after Christ's burial. Joseph provided his tomb, in which no man had ever been laid, so that Jesus could be buried there. Nicodemus and Joseph of Arimathea (both born-again Christians) embalmed Jesus' body according to Jewish customs, and then buried Him in the tomb. So we do see in fact, that a person CAN get saved by trusting Jesus Christ, and yet keep it a secret and not confess it to anyone publicly. Billy Graham lied to that college student, when he errantly told him that he couldn't be saved, unless he was willing to confess his faith in Christ to other students.

I hope some of this has helped you dear friend, because we've got a bunch of lying false prophets behind church pulpits today. I am not trying to be mean to anyone, I am trying to prevent you from going to Hell. Wrongly dividing the Word of God could send you, and/or your family, to Hell forever. I know you don't want that. For a wonderful book that will solidify your understanding of the Gospel, I highly recommend that you read Michael P. Bowen's excellent book titled: "

[14]I Never Knew You

" (free .pdf format).

In the following helpful sermon, Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold exposes the lie that you must make Jesus your Lord and Master to get to Heaven...

3.9.9 The Danger of Living a Religious Life Without Truth (2022-09-14 14:21)

Woe unto the churches today!!! Something shocking and horrible is happening across the world, and most people are being deceived by the Devil. The Holy Scriptures foretold that Satan would deceive "THE WHOLE WORLD." Revelation 12:9, "And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him." Even the churches are being deceived, from the heresy of Lordship Salvation, to the counterfeit Bible versions, to the lie of Zionism, to the fraud of a young earth, et cetera. The Devil is deceiving most of the churches concerning the Gospel.

Something horrible that I have noticed is many churchgoers are faithfully living a religious life—attending church, dressing modestly, listening only to religious music, talking the religious talk, associating with only other religious people, being loyal only to their particular religious clique, living a clean and moral life—yet at the same time these damned people are using satanic Bible versions, following a demonic corrupted Gospel that requires discipleship for salvation, and have no genuine concern for the truth. They are damned because they have believed a lie! The Scriptures proclaim a CURSE upon anyone who preaches "ANOTHER GOSPEL," and that CURSE extends to any people who trust in that false Gospel...

> Galatians 1:6-9, "I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed."

Evangelist Ray Comfort is accursed! Pastor John MacArthur is accursed! Evangelist Paul Washer is accursed! Pastor Jon Piper is accursed! Pastor David Pawson is accursed! Evangelist Billy Graham is accursed! Pastor Joel Osteen is accursed! Pastor Rick Warren is accursed!

Dr. James Dobson is accursed! Pastor Charles Lawson is accursed! Pastor Keith Gomez is accursed! All of these false prophets preach a corrupted Gospel!!! I say that not to be unkind, God knows my heart, but to be truthful.

Please read, '[1]The Problem With Pastors Today'

The Present-day Lukewarm Baptist Church of Laodicea

The sad truth is that church people almost always become loyal to their religious leaders, more than they are to THE TRUTH, so that if their human leaders go astray doctrinally, the church congregation will follow wholeheartedly into doctrinal perversion and even damnation. Listen to what the Lord Jesus said to His disciples, warning about following BLIND LEADERS. Anybody who teaches and supports Lordship Salvation is BLIND. All of the Alexandrian-based modern Bible PERversions teach the heresy of Lordship Salvation, which is a major source of corruption in the churches. Therefore, anybody who sells, uses, supports and promotes the Alexandrian Bible revisions are BLIND, and the people who follow those corrupted Bibles are also BLIND. They shall BOTH fall into the ditch!!! What saith the Scripture? ...

> Matthew 15:12-14, "Then came his disciples, and said unto him, Knowest thou that the Pharisees were offended, after they heard this saying? But he answered and said, Every plant, which my heavenly Father hath not planted, shall be rooted up. Let them alone: they be blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch."

There's a shameful large independent Baptist church down the street from me on Guam. They're the biggest Baptist church on the island of Guam. Truthfully, they're [2]no better than the Seventh-day Adventist religious cult down the street from me. Since Guam is a gateway to the Micronesian islands, this church is doing MAJOR DAMAGE to the cause of Christ, leading souls into Hell with their damnable Lordship Salvation heresy. This wayward church has invited reprobates Ray Comfort and Ravi Zacharias to speak to their cursed people. The pastors distribute John MacArthur study materials to their deceived members. Dr. MacArthur teaches Lordship Salvation, he denies that Jesus' blood is sprinkled on the Mercy Seat in Heaven, [3]he says children cannot be saved (because he says committing your life to Christ is an adult experience), et cetera. John MacArthur boasts of being a 5-point Calvinist!!! Please hear, "[4]WHY LORDSHIP SALVATION IS WRONG!" (an awesome MP3 sermon by Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold).

The local Laodicean Baptist church are the BLIND leading the BLIND. (And by the way, if I hated them I'd mention their name, but this is not personal.) Their pastors are BLIND. Most of their congregation are BLIND. Thankfully, some folks have abandoned ship, getting out of town from that doctrinal mess, because they SAW that heresy had privily crept into the church. Sadly, hordes of new victims flock into the church monthly, being deceived concerning the Holy Bible, repentance and the Gospel. Anyone who doesn't see a problem with John MacArthur's false teachings on salvation is NOT SAVED them self. No one is saved who thinks they must forsake deliberate sinful behavior to be saved. Eternal life is a free gift (Romans 5:15).

[5]Repentance is a change of mind unto the Gospel itself, the admission that one is a guilty sinner in the sight of a holy God (Romans 3:19). You need to see your need, that is, why you need to be saved. You are a guilty sinner in God's eyes (Romans 3:10-23). There is a penalty on that sin, eternal punishment in the fires of Hell (Romans 6:23; Revelation 20:15; Revelation 21:8). That's why we need a Savior, and we have a precious one, Jesus Christ the righteous! (1st Peter 1:18-19; John 3:16). Either God saves you, or you don't get saved! Works are not allowed. Turning away from sins is a work (Jonah 3:10). Romans 4:5, "But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness."

As a faithful friend, in 2014, I had warned the church's pastors repeatedly about the corruption (false Bible versions, John MacArthur and Lordship Salvation, to name a few issues) in the church. Instead of embracing me as a Christian brother, and repenting to the Lord, they called me "a cult" and declared me their enemy. Acts 20:29, "For I know this, that after my departing shall grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock." And so it is, after I have left their messed up church, unappreciated and despised for telling them THE TRUTH, the church congregation is afflicted by grievous wolves who have spared not the flock. Those pastors have much spiritual blood on their hands, leading many people to read and trust the corrupted new Bible versions, which present a mutated, freak, perverted, view of the Gospel. [6]The Fallacy of Thinking People Can Be Saved Through the Modern Alexandrian Bible Versions. I'm going to harp, holler and preach against every false way until the Lord takes me home to glory!!! Psalms 119:104, "Through thy precepts I get understanding: therefore I hate every false way."

They are the apostate church at Laodicea in these present times, who are increased with goods and have need of nothing, yet God says they are wretched, poor, BLIND and naked.

> Revelation 3:15-17, "I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot. So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth. Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked."

The woeful Baptist church in question just invited and honored false prophet, Ravi Zacharias, who has publicly addressed hellbound Mormons as Christian brethren. This is the Bob Jones University crowd. The pastor is such good friends with the present president of BJU, that he flew from Guam to South Carolina just to be at his inauguration as BJU's new president. Folks, this is wickedness!!! Birds of a feather flock together! Ravi even apologized to Mormons for the Christian world who exposes them as children of the Devil. When Ravi finished delivering his sermonette, thousands of pacified pervert Mormons gave Ravi a standing ovation. [7]Ravi is a prophet for hire, a satanic salesman! Also see, [8]Ravi Zacharias Sinfully Addresses Mormons As Saved Brethren. What a wicked servant!!! What a prophet of Baal!!! What a sinister minister!!!

Bob Jones University Honor God With Their Mouths, But Not Their Hearts

[9]How Bob Jones University and Their Graduates are Helping Damn People to Hell with False Bibles. Tragically, Bob Jones University (BJU) sells, supports and promotes the corrupt, modern, Alexandrian, Bible PERversions. [10]Today's Lukewarm Churches Love False Prophets. ALL of the [11]Alexandrian-based Bible perversions TEACH FOR DOCTRINES THE COMMANDMENTS OF MEN, not the pure words of God...

Matthew 15:7-9, "Ye hypocrites, well did Esaias prophesy of you, saying, This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips; but their heart is far from me. But in vain they do worship me, [12]teaching for doctrines the commandments of men."

Bob Jones University and their shameful graduates honor God with THEIR MOUTHS, but as the Scriptures admonish, THEIR HEART IS FAR FROM GOD!!! No one's heart is close to God who doesn't care about THE TRUTH. Their poor attitude at Bob Jones University, Moody Bible Institute (MBI) and many apostate Bible colleges today, is:

> "This Bible, that Bible, dozens of Bibles, it doesn't really matter, we don't have any original autographs today, so we'll just do the best we can with what we have!!!"

Folks, if you buy into that lame type of attitude, then you get what you deserve on Judgment Day. Please don't let some wicked pastor or Bible college rob you of your salvation or heavenly reward in Christ. No servant of God will be rewarded for pulling on the same rope as the Devil!!!

It was communist founder Karl Marx who correctly said, "Religion is the opium of the people!!!" Opium is a powerful pain relieving plant, from which the drug heroine is derived in a laboratory. Marx was saying that people get high on religion, and he's right! Marx also realized that by recruiting religious leaders into their communist ranks, people could easily be manipulated and influenced to support their evil cause. Religion gets people high on themselves, destroys lives, recruits supporters for evil government agendas (like the illegal Iraqi War), and sends multitudes to the eternal Lake of Fire. My friend, Jesus exclaimed in John 3:3b, "YE MUST BE BORN AGAIN"!!! The Holy Bible says that pure religion is helping orphans and widows in their affliction, while remaining unspotted from the world (James 1:27). In sharp contrast, 99 % of what is called "religion" today helps themselves financially—giving themselves extravagant salaries (like [13]Ravi Zacharias' $190,565 a year salary), luxurious buildings, padded pews, stained-glass windows, giant overhead projection screens, air-conditioning and a dead pulpit. America's most shameful church pastors live high on the hog!!!

Meanwhile, the world is spirally downward into Hell, unwarned about the Devil's counterfeit Bible versions, unwarned about the false Gospel of Lordship Salvation, unwarned about the eternal Lake of Fire which awaits all unbelievers (Revelation 21:8). I say this to the shame of most preachers today. And tragically, most pastors are NOT preachers! They ought not be behind any pulpit!!! A pastor who doesn't preach the truth—the simplicity that is in Christ (which is the Gospel) and only from the inspired King James Bible— ought to be fired on the spot!!! GET A MAN OF GOD IN THE PULPIT!!!

I beseech you, whoever you may be, to question the leadership in your church. I don't mean go up to them and ask them questions. I mean ask yourself: "Are these men teaching the Word of God? Do they have the Word of God?" I can tell you confidently, in full knowledge, that if your church leadership is using any of the modern English Bible translations, like the Easy-To-Read Version (ERV) or the English Standard Version (ESV), or The Voice (VOICE), or the New International Version (NIV), they are corrupted!!!

The Day of Reckoning for America's Shameful Pastors and Churches is Coming

James 3:1, "My brethren, be not many masters, knowing that we shall receive the greater condemnation."

[14]The Sin Of Playing Church Verses Loving Truth (Bob Jones University, Moody Bible Institute, Hyles-Anderson College... games). I earnestly look forward to the Judgment Seat of Christ, when the ungodly Baptist pastors who call me and Dr. Jack Hyles "a cult" for exposing the Alexandrian Bible perversions, and for upholding the inspiration of the King James Bible as God's pure Word, are held accountable by God almighty for leading people astray with corruptible word!!! James 3:1 warns that church leaders WILL BE held more accountable on Judgment Day by the Lord, since they are leading people and affecting people's lives.

What do you think God is going to do to those wicked indifferent ministers, who despite being warned repeatedly and shown evidence that the modern Bible versions are horribly corrupt, didn't listen, didn't care and continued using and promoting the vile perversions of God's Word? I tell you truthfully, tears will flow, weeping and regret will endure for 1,000 years until Revelation 21:4, rewards will not be given, heads will roll in the Lord's harshest rebuke (Psalm 6:1; 2nd Corinthians 5:11), shame and reproach shall be upon those wicked servants, and they will be "saved; yet so as by fire" (1st Corinthians 3:15b). Every time a Baptist preacher teaches Lordship Salvation, he is hindering people from entering into the Kingdom of God!!!

The world's churches are filled with spiritually LIFELESS religious people, who live moral lives, pray, sing, tithe, testify, volunteer to help the church, dot their i's and cross their t's, but something is very wrong with their heart. They don't have a passion for THE TRUTH. If their pastor says it is okay to search through a dozen different Bible versions, they do it. Common sense ought to tell any thinking person that God didn't author a dozen different Bible versions. So how in the world did we end up with HUNDREDS of Bible versions to choose from? That's the Devil. Satan knows that the best way to discourage people from reading the Holy Bible is to give them hundreds to choose from, to confuse them. Would you have any interest in a ballgame with four different scores, not knowing which one is correct?

My friend, the man with two watches never knows what time it is!!! And likewise, the man with two different Bible versions doesn't know what the truth is. That's why the nation's churches are divided down the middle on what it means to repent, and how to be saved, because two different ancient Greek texts (i.e., Textus Receptus verses Alexandrian) [15]teach two different things. Have you believed a lie?

Check and you will see, that nearly all of the corrupted churches today that are teaching a false repentance of self-reformation, and a false Gospel of Lordship Salvation, are also supportive to some degree of the [16]Alexandrian Bible PERversions. When churches would rather have a big religious school, and lots of entertainment, rather than uphold THE TRUTH, they are no longer serving God. And when a church no longer teaches the simplicity that is in Christ, which is THE GOSPEL, and they bring corrupted Alexandrian Bible PERversions into their midst, they are NO LONGER A NEW TESTAMENT CHURCH!!! They are the "cult"!

Karl Marx (1818-1883), despite being an unsaved wicked man, was absolutely right that "Religion is the opium of the people!" People love the religious scene. It's like a drug to them!!! They love playing their musical instrument in church to show off. They love the singing. They love the entertainment, clapping for special music, watching films on the large overhead projector screens, feeling religious going to church—BUT THEY DON'T CARE ABOUT THE TRUTH!!! People love the fashion show at church, showing off their new clothing. They love the canned music played during "prayer meeting."

And let me comment here about the oft phony Wednesday night prayer meetings in Baptist churches today. Remember what Jesus said about public prayer in Matthew 6:7-8, "But when ye pray, use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking. Be not ye therefore like unto them: for your Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask him." God is not impressed with a bunch of phony religious people, who group together in so-called "prayer meetings," while they don't give a flip about [17]the purity of God's Word, don't care about [18]the purity of the Gospel, while they promote [19]ecumenical garbage like Ravi Zacharias, and [20]false prophets like John MacArthur, and [21]reprobates like Ray Comfort!!! Without a love for THE TRUTH, people are [22]serving God in vain. They are merely going through the outward religious motions, playing church, disgracing the name of Jesus. [23]God is seeking for believers to worship Him in THE TRUTH!!!

Kindly, that means [24]stay away from Bob Jones University and their graduate's churches, unless you want to be corrupted with their counterfeit Bibles, Lordship Salvation taught in those fake Bible versions, and be corrupted by the horde of satanic false prophets that they coddle to. I am a TRUTH-SEEKER!!! I am a soldier of the cross!!! 2nd Timothy 2:3-4, "Thou therefore endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ. No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier." I am amazed how any pastor can actually think he walks with God, while fumbling through a dozen different Bible versions for the truth. That is INSANE!!! Man, you need to get your heart right with God! If you don't believe that God wrote a dozen Bibles, then why search through a dozen Bibles to prepare your sermons?

Oh, foolish pastor, who hath bewitched you that you should believe a lie? Galatians 3:1, "O foolish Galatians, who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth..." Today's churches, including once faithful independent Baptist churches, are kowtowing to Satan's Bible versions. The new Bibles pervert the true meaning of repentance.

According to [25]Mark 1:15 in the Easy-To-Read Version (ERV), you have to CHANGE YOUR LIFE to be saved. That is [26]NOT the Gospel my friend!!! It's a serious matter. I CARE! DO YOU?

3.9.10 The Experts At NASA Aren't That Smart After All (2022-09-15 17:28)

Genesis 1:1, " In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth."

Psalms 8:3-4, "When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained; What is man, that thou art mindful of him? and the son of man, that thou visitest him?"

Psalms 119:104, "Through thy precepts I get understanding: therefore I hate every false way."

Psalms 136:5-9, "To him that by wisdom made the heavens: for his mercy endureth for ever. To him that stretched out the earth above the waters: for his mercy endureth for ever. To him that made great lights: for his mercy endureth for ever: The sun* to rule by day: for his mercy endureth for ever: The moon and stars to rule by night: for his mercy endureth for ever."

The inspired Word of God teaches that God, our merciful and wise Creator, made the sun, moon, stars, blackholes, dark matter, galaxies, planets and all that exists in the known and unknown universe. God is omnipotent (i.e., He is all-powerful). God can do anything, except sin or lie (James 1:13; Titus 1:2).

It is disturbing to learn that the most highly educated "experts" at NASA (you know, the rocket scientists who know how to send a robot to the planet Mars to bring back soil samples), are so woefully ignorant that they think the earth and moon formed from a chaotic crash between two big rocks in space. It is mind boggling that they could be so gullible and naïve, and moreover, wicked for rejecting the plain truth of the inspired Holy Bible.

The following laughable article appeared on the official website of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) on September 17, 2020:

> The Giant Impact
>
> Scientists have proposed many ideas for how the Moon formed. A leading contender, the Giant Impact theory, speculates that when Earth was a young planet and just beginning to form, it was hit by another emerging planet named Theia, located nearby. The collision caused both planets to temporarily splatter apart into globs of gas, magma, and chemical elements before reforming into the bodies we know today to be the Earth and Moon. The research by Simon and Gargano is adding support that further confirms this theory. [1]READ MORE

Are they for real? Dear reader, if you must make a decision to either believe God's Word or NASA. Former 16th U.S. President, Abraham Lincoln (1809-1865), wisely said:

> "In great contests [battles], each party claims to act in accordance with the will of God—both may be, but one must be, wrong—God cannot be for and against the same thing at the same time!" —16th U.S. President, Abraham Lincoln

Why did Mr. Lincoln say that? It is because both the Northern Union and the Southern Confederacy claimed to be doing "God's will" in fighting The Civil War (1860-1965). Both President Jefferson Davis in the south, and President Abraham Lincoln in the north, said they were doing "God's will." As Mr. Lincoln wisely points out, that is IMPOSSIBLE! When two opposing parties, who are warring against each other, claiming to be doing God's will, obviously someone is WRONG! That is why Abraham Lincoln made that powerful statement!

NASA's False Theory On How The Moon Was Made

Romans 1:22-23, "Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools, And changed the glory of the uncorruptible God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and fourfooted beasts, and creeping things."

Either NASA is correct—that two planetary bodies collided into each other and "

caused both planets to temporarily splatter apart into globs of gas, magma, and chemical elements before reforming into the bodies we know today to be the Earth and Moon

"—OR, God made them. Which do you believe? I am going to choose sides with God! Isaiah 45:9, " Woe unto him that striveth with his Maker! Let the potsherd strive with the potsherds of the earth. Shall the clay say to him that fashioneth it, What makest thou? or thy work, He hath no hands? " Kindly said, what NASA is teaching the world is blasphemy against the Word of God!

NASA's ridiculous unbiblical theory is utter nonsense, balderdash, tommyrot, flapdoodle, claptrap, poppycock and blahblah! Friend, do you really think that two planetary bodies collided into each other, and then "

caused both planets to temporarily splatter apart into globs of gas, magma, and chemical elements before reforming into the bodies we know today to be the Earth and Moon

"? Dear reader, please tell me you are not that naïve. What NASA's "professionals" are claiming is as bizarre as it is a lie of the Devil.

Do you really think that our beautiful plenteous earth today, with all the wonderful varieties of fruits, vegetables, meats, nuts, seeds and delicacies somehow evolved from globs of gas, magma and chemical elements? I learned last month that there are over 5,000 different types of apples! Wow! God is more than amazing. Did you know that Jesus made the universe and all that is in it?

> John 1:1-3 and 14, "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. The same was in the beginning with God. All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made. ...But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name: Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God. And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth."

Revelation 19:13, "And he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood: and his name is called The Word of God."

2nd Peter 3:5-7, "For this they willingly are ignorant of, that by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth standing out of the water and in the water: Whereby the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished: But the heavens and the earth, which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men."

JESUS IS THE WORD OF GOD!!! As we just read, the Bible says that THE WORD OF GOD made all things. Dr. John R. Rice (1895-1980) used to rightly call Jesus and the Bible "twins." Jesus is the Living Word; The Bible is the Written Word. God and His Word are inseparable! That is why anytime you hear a preacher, or Oprah Winfrey, or anybody, talking about spirituality without mentioning the Holy Bible, you should get away from them quickly, lest they corrupt your mind. Colossians 2:8, "

Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ.

" What NASA is falsely teaching about the origin of the earth and moon is a perfect example of vain deceit.

The big lie in most churches today, that says you must

turn from your sin

to get to Heaven is a perfect example of the traditions of men.

" BEWARE!!!

3.9.11 We Had Better Come Back To Separation (2022-09-16 14:04)

2nd Corinthians 6:14-18, “

Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness?

And what concord hath Christ with Belial? or what part hath he that believeth with an infidel?

And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you,

And will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty.

The following excellent words are from

Pastor Jack Hyles’ excellent book titled: Jack Hyles Speaks On Biblical Separation , chapter 10, “Ecclesiastical Separation”...

> “We had better come back to separation! Running with the wrong crowd will affect all of us sooner or later. Daniel kept on praying. He went to the lion’s den. He refused the king’s pizza and enchiladas. He wouldn’t drink the king’s wine. He proved it pays to do right! However, later when the Jews were allowed to return to rebuild the temple, those who wanted to return could do so, but the list in the Bible nowhere includes Daniel! I wonder where he was. Zerubbabel and Ezra returned, but it seems that Daniel would have been the logical one to have headed up the expedition to return to Jerusalem for the rebuilding of the house of God. Could it be that Daniel should not have gone to the university of Chaldea? Was he influenced? Maybe so!
>
> We speak well of the courage of Esther, and we should, but was it right for her to marry a king who was divorced, unsaved, a winebibber and lustful? God doesn’t change His principles for anybody! Suppose your daughter came to you and told you that she wanted to marry a man who was divorced, unsaved, a winebibber and lustful. You would be opposed to it, of course. Could that be the reason why Esther never mentions God? The word "God" is never mentioned in the book of Esther, but it would have been if Esther had spoken about God to the king.
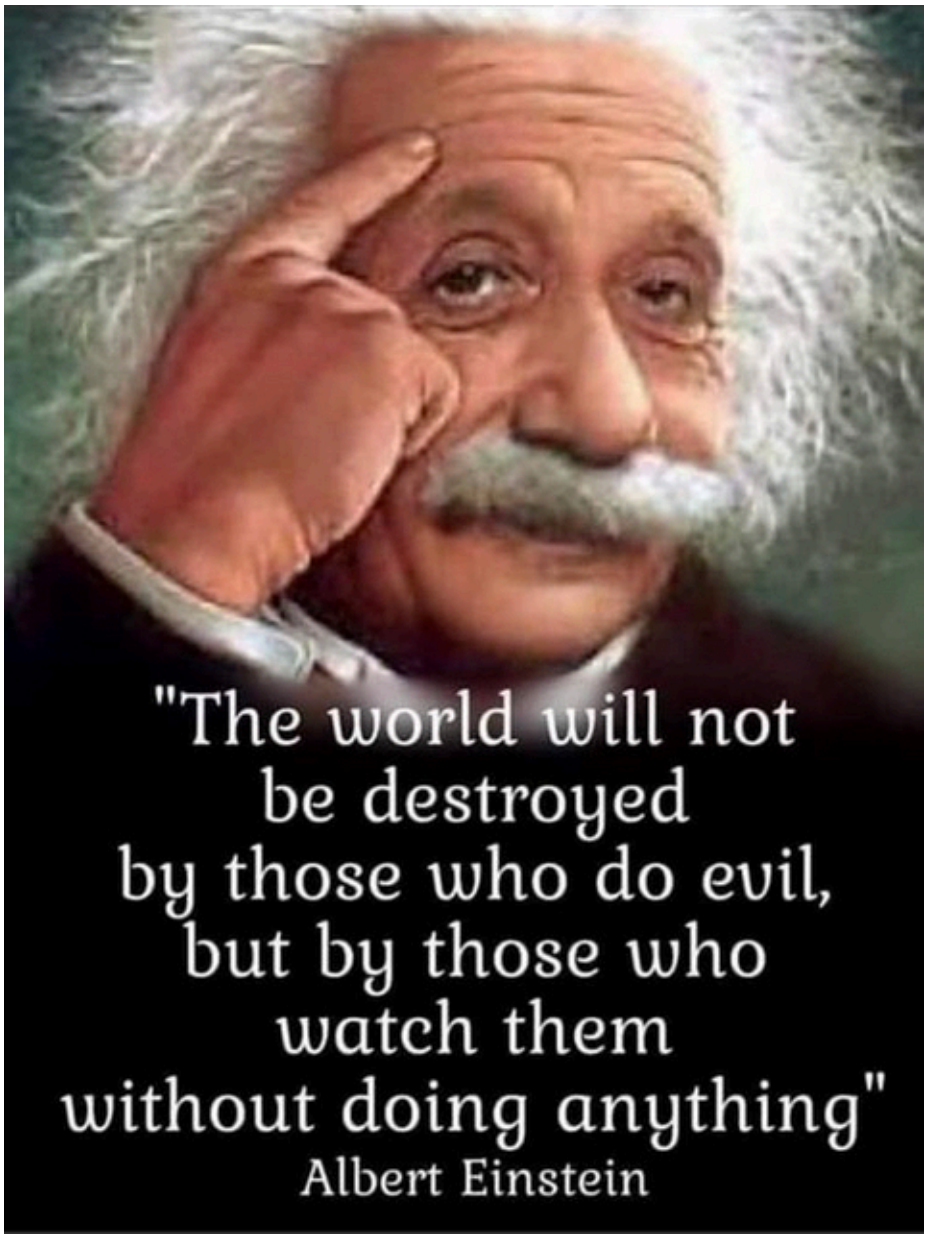
> The wrong crowd will damage anybody’s life. If Abraham had not been with the wrong crowd in Egypt, there would never have been an Ishmael or our middle eastern crisis. If Balaam had not gone to the wrong crowd in Moab, the race would not have fallen. If Jehoshaphat had not run with the wrong crowd in the recapturing of Ramoth in Gilead, he would never have joined up with Ahab and Jezebel, and his son, Jehoram, would never have met Jezebel's daughter, Athliah, and tragedy would have been averted in the southern kingdom! If Esau had not run with the wrong crowd, he would not have married a heathen woman, and the wicked nation of Edom never would have begun! If Samson had not run with the wrong crowd, he would never have lost his power in the lap of Delilah! If Solomon had not run with the wrong crowd, he never would have lost the blessing of God because of his strange wives! If Lot had never run with the wrong crowd, he would never have gone to Sodom, committed incest with his daughters, and had two heathen nations born as a result of that incest! If Peter had not run with the wrong crowd, he would not have denied our Lord and the faith! If the descendants of Seth had not run with the wrong crowd, there never would have been a flood to destroy the world! If Jacob had never been with the wrong crowd, he would have never spent 20 years outside the will of God and married the wrong person! If Ahab had not run with the wrong crowd, he would never have met Jezebel! If Elimelech and Naomi had not run with the wrong crowd, they would never have gone to Moab and lost their two sons in death, nor would have Elimelech have lost his life there!

Fundamentalists, let us be fundamentalists! We do not need liberal rouge or National Council of Churches eye shadow or ministerial association eye lashes or ecumenical toupees. Let us be what we are—old-fashioned, Hell-hating, sin-fighting, separated, soul-winning, Christ-honoring, window-rattling, barn-storming, God-fearing, Bible-loving, compassionate, weeping fundamentalists—and bear the name with joy and pride!" [emphasis added]

SOURCE: Pastor Jack Hyles, Jack Hyles Speaks On Biblical Separation, chapter 10, "[1]Ecclesiastical Separation"



I love what Brother Hyles just wrote. Dear reader, Bible separation is not an option for the believer, it is a royal divine command from God almighty. What is "Ecclesiastical Separation"? It simply refers to good churches separating from bad churches. It means exposing, avoiding and preaching against corrupt Bibles colleges and apostate churches! It refers to theological separation between religious people.

A perfect example is the unholy alliance between Pensacola Christian College (PCC) and Bob Jones University (PCC). The PCC camp is guilty of wickedly bidding Godspeed to the BJU camp. What saith the Scripture? 2nd John 1:11, "For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds." Pastor Jeff Redlin (shameful senior pastor of PCC's Campus Church) is guilty of preaching Lordship Salvation. "Wait a minute you say, I know Pastor Redlin and he doesn't preach Lordship Salvation!" Oh yes he does, the Bible says, because he sinfully bids Godspeed to the [2]corrupt Harvest Baptist Church on Guam (who are hardcore BJU graduates and false teachers of the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation).

Kindly said, these people in the BJU camp, including their alumni at [3]Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, are evil. I mean that! They are good people (as far as sinners go), but they are evil in the sense that they use, promote and defend the Devil's corrupt Bible versions, the Devil's damnable falsehood of Lordship Salvation, and the Devil's lie of turn "from your sinful lifestyle" to be saved. It is tragic that [4]the leaders at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam just don't care!!!

Pastor Jack Hyles is so right, we need to get back to separation in our churches and Bible colleges. RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!!

3.9.12 The Battle Over Repentance Is A Worthy Fight (2022-09-16 14:16)

Proverbs 14:12, "There is a way which seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death."

Acts 20:21, "Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ."

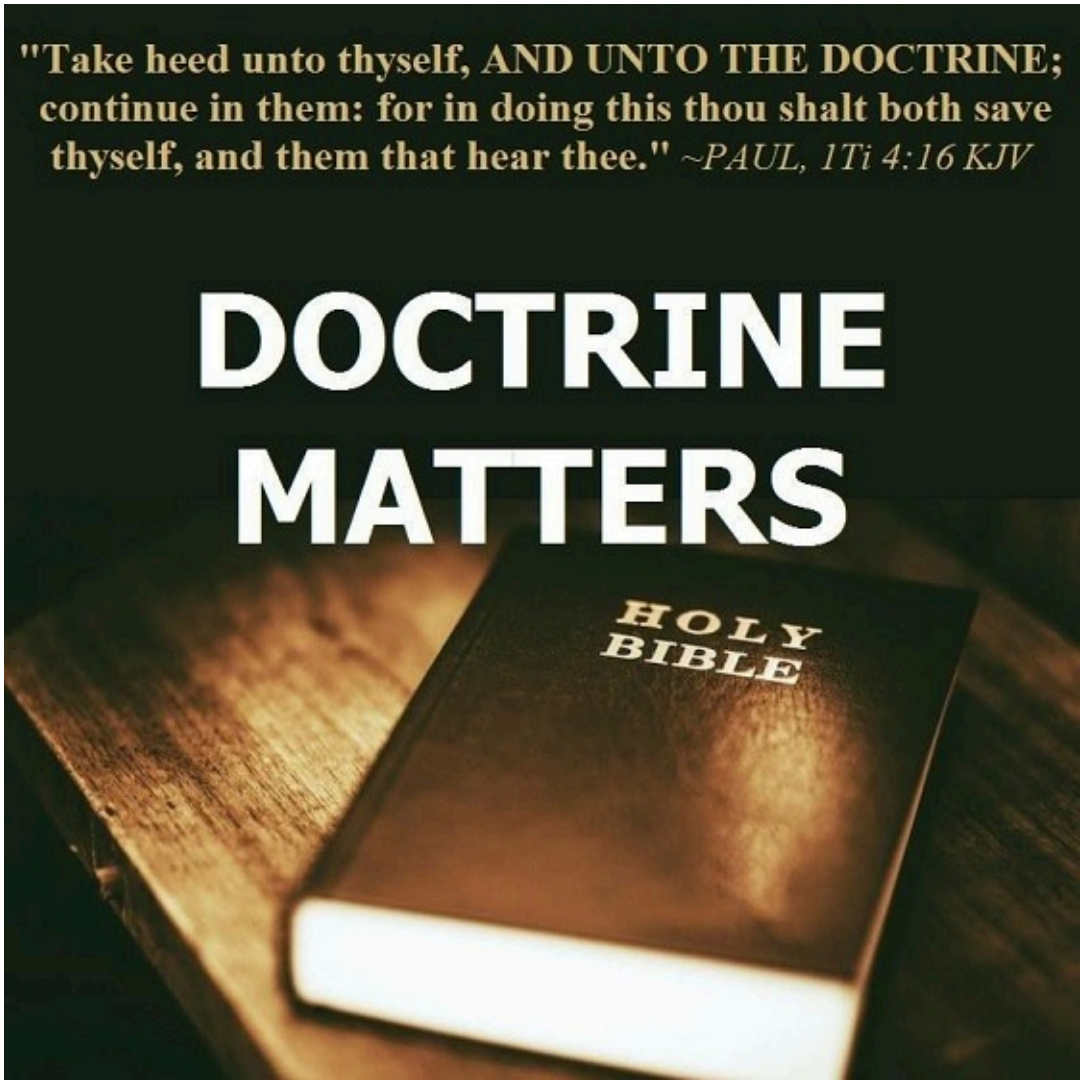
2nd Timothy 2:25-26, "In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth; And that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will."

I know that I write on the subject of repentance quite often, but it is necessary. Please bear with me dear reader. I like what the shepherd boy David said, when his brothers mocked him for going out to fight the giant Goliath: "And David said, What have I now done? Is there not a cause?" (1st Samuel 17:29). There is a cause! Today's churches are full of heresy, stiff-necked arrogance, misunderstood repentance, fake bibles and deadly false gospels. Worst of all, the churches are full of arrogant pastors. Proverbs 26:12, "Seest thou a man wise in his own conceit? there is more hope of a fool than of him."

On July 22, 2021, I kindly contacted Pastor Jeff Redlin. Mr. Redlin is the senior pastor of Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College (PCC). In their official Foundation's Class at Campus Church, they teach, verbatim: "Repentance is a change of mind which results in a change of behavior." That is WRONG! Repentance is a turn around from UNBELIEF to BELIEF. Our text Bible verses speak of "repentance toward God" and "repentance to the acknowledging of the truth," but nowhere in the inspired King James Bible are we taught to repent or turn away from a lifestyle of sinning. Ungodly foolish men ADDED those words. Proverbs 30:5-6, " Every word of God is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him.

Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar. " Jeff Redlin and Timothy Zacharias have added to God's Words.

Evangelist John R. Rice (1895-1980) is right that repentance necessary involves a change of attitude toward sin, but ONLY in the sense that you realize you are a needy sinner in the sight of a holy God. How do I know that? Romans 3:19-20, "Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God. Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin." The main purpose of God's Old Testament LAW is to give humanity THE KNOWLEDGE OF SIN. That is, you need to know what your being saved from to go to Heaven.



John 3:20-21, "For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved. But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God." The word "evil" means deliberate sin, or planned sin. To fly off the handle in anger is a sin of passion, because it wasn't intentional. But if you go home and get a gun to go murder someone, that is evil because you planned it. That is why all abortions are evil, because they were scheduled.

So the Bible is teaching in John 3:20 that everyone who loves to intentionally live in sin won't get saved, because they don't want there sinful behavior spoken against. Proverbs 30:20, "Such is the way of an adulterous woman; she eateth, and wipeth her mouth, and saith, I have done no wickedness."

Sadly, most churches today are so busy playing church, that they don't care about contending for the faith anymore. They are as fools arranging deck chairs on the Titanic, while the damaged ship is slowly sinking into the cold and dark abyss of the ocean. Our churches are sinking, many already sunk 11,000 feet under the Atlantic ocean spiritually. But who cares, right? They are merely playing church at Pensacola Christian College (PCC), refusing to contend for the Christian faith. Consequently, they are changing for the worse, without even realizing it.. Proverbs 28:4, "They that forsake the law praise the wicked: but such as keep the law contend with them." There is a lot more singing, fellowship and educating going on at PCC, then there is abiding in the inspired Word of God. For if they truly walked with God, spending time in His Word, then they would contend for the faith, but they don't.

Psalms 119:104, "Through thy precepts I get understanding: therefore I hate every false way." I hate the false way of the Devil's Lordship Salvation. Therefore, I hate Bob Jones University, [1]because they preach hardcore Lordship Salvation. I don't hare the people. God knows that I do not hate a single human being, nor any living creature. I have God's love shed abroad in my heart by His blessed indwelling Holy Spirit (Galatians 5:22-25). I love people, which is exactly why I make a big fuss over God's simple plan of salvation. Only a darn fool thinks that Lordship Salvation falls within the realm of orthodox theology. No, it does not!

Over ninety-five percent of churches and pastors today are cowards, who refuse to stand against anything! Well I'm standing!!! The Devil wants us to SHUT UP, but God wants us to SPEAK UP!!! I'm speaking up!!!

3.9.13 John MacArthur Makes it Hard for Children To Be Saved (2022-09-17 12:21)

Mark 10:13-14, “And they brought young children to him, that he should touch them: and his disciples rebuked those that brought them. But when Jesus saw it, he was much displeased, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God.”

4928

"There is no such thing as a childhood conversion."

—Pastor John F. MacArthur (see below)

Jesus was MUCH DISPLEASED when His disciples forbade children to come unto Him. The Bible teaches that young children can be saved. Whereas the Bible says that adults must become as little children to enter into the Kingdom of God, Dr. John MacArthur says that little children must become adults. MacArthur's views on child salvation are directly related to his false understanding of Lordship Salvation.

On September 25, 1990 at the Calvary Baptist Church in Brewer, Maine (Pastor Larry Pawson), Dr. MacArthur was involved in a question and answer session which was publicly taped. During that session he said the following about child salvation:

> "Now let me say this and I don't want you to panic when I say it. Saving faith is an ADULT ISSUE. Saving faith is an ADULT EXPERIENCE. Salvation is an ADULT EXPERIENCE. Am I saying that a child cannot be saved? I'm saying that salvation is a conscious turning from sin to follow Jesus Christ with an understanding of something of the sinfulness of sin, its consequences and something of who Jesus Christ is, what He has provided and that I'm committing my life to Him. At what point can a child understand that?... I tell parents that salvation is an adult decision... There is no illustration in Scripture of childhood salvation. There is none. People want to throw the Philippian jailer and his household; well that's talking about his servants so there is no reference there about his children. So there is no such thing as a childhood conversion." [emphasis added] Dr. John MacArthur, sermon delivered on September 25, 1990 at the Calvary Baptist Church in Brewer, Maine (Pastor Larry Pawson)

Dr. MacArthur is saying that if a child is to be saved he must understand as an adult, make an adult decision and have an adult experience. But the Lord Jesus taught the exact opposite, that to be saved adults must become as little children. Matthew 18:3-4, " And said, Verily I say unto you, Except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven.

Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

” Pastor MacArthur errantly teaches that to be saved children must become as adults, but as you just read for yourself, the Bible teaches the exact opposite. Mr. MacArthur is all backwards in his theology!

How does this relate to MacArthur’s perverse preaching on Lordship Salvation? If salvation is by simple childlike faith in the Savior (which is is according to the Bible), then child salvation is no problem. On the other hand, if salvation involves Lordship—turning away from your sinful lifestyle, fulfilling all the demands of discipleship, commitment of one’s life to Christ and to follow Him no matter hat the cost—then salvation has become a very complicated thing, that would not be simple for a child (or even an adult) to do. John MacArthur is oh so WRONG!

If we complicate the Gospel with all kinds of Lordship requirements, then we have indeed made it very difficult for anybody to get to Heaven. But if we proclaim the free grace Gospel message—that needy guilty sinners are saved by BELIEVING the Good News (Gospel) of Jesus Christ crucified on a cross, buried and bodily risen the third day—then this is a message that CAN be gladly received by people of all ages. Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ’s best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

Salvation is not a reward for the righteous, it is a gift for the guilty! The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU.

In an Article by John MacArthur titled "Age of Accountability," he heretically states:

> "With this in mind, I believe that it is absolutely essential, all along the way with children, that every time they desire to make a commitment to Jesus Christ, at whatever age, you (as someone giving spiritual oversight to them) encourage them to do that."
>
> SOURCE: [1]http://www.gty.org/Resources/Articles/4836 (Grace To You)

Here again we see Mr. MacArthur’s heresy of Lordship Salvation, teaching that a child cannot be saved unless they are old enough to understand what it means to make a commitment to Christ. He is addressing how to get to Heaven here. MacArthur teaches 100 % contrary to the inspired Word of God. Jesus said in Matthew 18:3, “Except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven. Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven. And whoso shall receive one such little child in my name receiveth me.”

Concerning the young boy Timothy, the Apostle Paul states in 2nd Timothy 3:15, “And that from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus.” Timothy had known the Word of God since childhood. A small child who understands that he has sinned against God, and BELIEVES Jesus Christ died on the cross to pay for those sins and that Jesus risen from the dead, is saved! Salvation has nothing to do with making a commitment or persevering to live a holy life. MacArthur is making the grace error of combining sanctification with justification, which has become an epidemic in America’s churches.

My favorite quote is from the free grace preaching, and author of the book Pilgrim’s Progress, John Bunyan (1628-1688), who said:

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." [emphasis added] —Evangelist John Bunyan

What a beautiful quote! Dear reader, if you understand what John Bunyan just said, then you will understand what is so wrong with Lordship Salvation. Our SERVICE for Christ as His disciple, must be kept completely separate from God's free gift of SALVATION as His child.

Again, If we complicate the Gospel with all kinds of Lordship requirements, then we have indeed made it very difficult for anybody to be saved. Salvation does not require human effort. God does the saving, ALL OF IT!

John MacArthur Corrupts The True Meaning Of Matthew 19:16-22

Matthew 19:16-22, "And, behold, one came and said unto him, Good Master, what good thing shall I do, that I may have eternal life? And he said unto him, Why callest thou me good? there is none good but one, that is, God: but if thou wilt enter into life, keep the commandments. He saith unto him, Which? Jesus said, Thou shalt do no murder, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Honour thy father and thy mother: and, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. The young man saith unto him, All these things have I kept from my youth up: what lack I yet? Jesus said unto him, If thou wilt be perfect, go and sell that thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come and follow me. But when the young man heard that saying, he went away sorrowful: for he had great possessions."

In this passage, we read about a rich young man who asked Jesus how to have eternal life? When the young man bragged about keeping all of God's Law (which shows that he was self-righteousness), Jesus pointed out that he was covetous (which is a violation of the 10th Commandment in Exodus 20:17). Jesus used the Law the way it was intended to be used, i.e., to show us our sinfulness and need for a Savior. Romans 3:19, "Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God." Jesus simply pointed out to that young man that he was not righteous in God's eyes.

To understand the issue of Lordship Salvation, realize that THEY ARE ALL CALVINISTS!!! John Calvin (1509-1564) taught a heresy called the [2]PERSEVERANCE OF THE SAINTS, which taught that if a person is truly saved they will continue in holy living, surrendering their life to Christ, and departing from sin and the world; thus, this becomes a REQUIREMENT to be saved in Calvinism. This is EXACTLY what Lordship Salvation teaches today (it is Calvinism). It is a false gospel.

Respectfully, John MacArthur, Billy Graham, Kirk Cameron and Ray Comfort all pervert this passage to mean that Jesus was giving a plan of salvation. Jesus WASN'T giving this young man a plan of salvation; but rather, the Lord was simply showing him that his self-righteousness was flawed and unacceptable to God. Since the young man was trying to keep the Ten Commandments to merit eternal life, Jesus pointed out to him that he had missed the command prohibiting covetousness.

I used to wonder why Jesus didn't just come right out and tell him, "Hey, just believe on me and forget trying to earn Heaven." I once had a devout Roman Catholic neighbour, whom I witnessed to at least three dozen times over 5-years. He absolutely would not let go of the Catholic idea that he needed to love others, do good and be a good person to merit Heaven. My words continually fell on deaf ears, because he was hellbent on works-salvation as taught by his satanic Catholic priest. Jesus said in Mark 7:9, "Full well ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition."

Now, I understand why Jesus told the rich young ruler what He did. You see, a man is not ready to be saved until he figures out on his own that he cannot save himself. You can explain the plain words of the Gospel to someone all day long, but they still won't get saved. This my friend is why repentance is necessary. Biblical repentance is a change of mind—a change of mind about what you think you must do to get to Heaven, to what God says you must do to get to Heaven.

My former Catholic neighbour has never repented of his dead works (Hebrews 6:1). Likewise, the rich young ruler needed to repent of his sin of dead works (Hebrews 6:1). Ray Comfort is correct that the law of God is necessary for salvation, because no one ever got saved who didn't know that he is a sinner. Sadly, [3]Mr. Comfort effectively teaches that keeping the law is necessary to be saved, but he goes astray when he requires people to keep the law ([4]live a lifestyle of repentance) to get to Heaven.

The Apostle Paul [5]taught the same truth in Romans 2:13, because the Jews thought they could be saved by keeping the Law. No one can be saved by keeping the Law (Romans 3:20). We need Christ's righteousness, which MacArthur doesn't teach (Matthew 6:33; Romans 4:5-6; Romans 10:3-4; 2nd Corinthians 5:21).

The rich young man in the Bible was covetous. According to Mr. MacArthur, that young man would have been saved if he'd denied himself, let go of his pride, pushed aside his selfish ambitions, given up his covetousness and given his life to Christ. John MacArthur is teaching lies of the Devil. [6]Billy Graham teaches that the rich young man counted the cost, but wasn't willing to pay the price to be saved. That's a false plan of salvation. Christ paid the price of our sins, which was His precious blood (1st Peter 1:18-19).

Here are Pastor MacArthur's very own corrupt words:

> "The Gospel says, 'give your life to Christ and He rules' and if you're not willing to do that it's because you want to keep the rule of your own life. The rich young man wanted his own life for himself. He wanted to control his own life. He had his choice: sins, he had his choice, religion, and he wanted to hang onto control. It's that simple. Coming to Christ means you give up the control of your life, and you yield it to Christ. That's what kept him from salvation, he was unwilling to do that." [emphasis added]
>
> SOURCE: [7]http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=DA4Zv8o3NbI (4:51 in the video)

Ladies and gentlemen, [8]that is Catholic theology and damnable heresy!!! MacArthur heretically said:

> “Coming to Christ means you give up the control of your life, and you yield it to Christ. That’s what kept him from salvation, he was unwilling to do that.”

The reason why the rich young man didn’t get saved was NOT because he refused to yield to Christ, nor because he was unwilling to give up control of his life; the reason why he didn’t get saved is because he was self-righteous!

Hebrews 6:1 speaks of repentance from "DEAD WORKS" which cannot save a person. Faith without works is DEAD FAITH; and works without faith is DEAD WORKS. The Epistle of James speaks of a "DEAD FAITH," but dead faith is still faith. That is, your faith may be dead without works as a born-again believer, but you are still 100 % saved. And the unsaved person who does "many wonderful works" (Matthew 7:21-23), must repent of their useless DEAD WORKS and believe on Jesus Christ to be saved.

Notice what the self-righteous young man asked Jesus in Matthew 19:16...

“...Good Master, what good thing SHALL I DO, that I may have eternal life?”

The young man didn’t ask how he could get to Heaven. No, rather, he asked what THING I NEED TO DO. Jesus knew the young man’s heart. The young man was self-righteous. Jesus used the Old Testament law to show the young man his wickedness. There was nothing he could do in his own self-righteousness to have eternal life. He needed Jesus as his Savior. Romans 3:19 and Galatians 3:24 plainly teach that the law’s primary purpose is to show mankind our need for the dear Savior.

John MacArthur requires people to fulfil the law as a prerequisite to faith in Christ, which is the heresy of works salvation. That is exactly what Kirk Cameron, Ray Comfort, Billy Graham, Franklin Graham, John Piper, Steve Pettit, Marty Herron and John MacArthur are teaching. It’s utter damnable heresy!!!

They all teach that the rich young man should have forsaken his covetousness to be saved.

In sharp contrast, Romans 4:5-6 proclaims, “But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness. Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works.”

Kirk Cameron and Ray Comfort are going to be damned because they are following the false gospel of John MacArthur. The Bible plainly teaches that false prophets would go through pains to avoid being detected. Satan is subtle. 2nd Peter 2:1, “But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who PRIVILY shall bring in damnable heresies...” The word “privily” here means “taking pains to avoid being observed; to lead aside.” This is the nature of false prophets. They are used by Satan to mislead people, going through pains to avoid being detected.

Carefully notice that the false prophets in Matthew 7:21-23 were SINCERE; but they were sincerely WRONG. Proverb 16:25, “There is a way that seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death.” Lordship Salvationists pervert the Gospel message, requiring sinners to stop living in their sins to be saved. Moody Bible Institute and many other theological schools have been caught up into MacArthur's doctrines of devils...

> 1st Timothy 4:1, "Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils;1Tm:4:1: Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and DOCTRINES OF DEVILS."

Lordship Salvation is Works Salvation. Instead of requiring people to do good works to be saved as the Catholic Church does, Lordship Salvationists require people to try to stop living in sin to be saved. The result is the same—self righteousness. The perverted doctrine of Lordship Salvation is the primary ecumenical bridge now being used to merge Catholics with apostate Evangelicals. Sadly, it is working!!! The Devil is a beautiful liar.

3.9.14 The Danger Of Being Loyal To Man Instead Of God (2022-09-18 11:51)

John 12:42-43, "Nevertheless among the chief rulers also many believed on him; but because of the Pharisees they did not confess him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue: For they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God."

These were saved men! The Holy Bible says that many of the chief rulers believed on Jesus. So they were in fact born-again Christians! However, the Bible says in our text passage from John 12:42-43 that those chief rulers LOVED THE PRAISE OF MEN, MORE THAN THE PRAISE OF GOD.

We learn some important truths from this passage. These newly saved men 'DID NOT CONFESS' the name of Jesus before men, because they were afraid of losing their favorable reputation in the synagogue. The wicked Pharisees had announced that if any man confessed Christ, he would be excommunicated from the synagogue. You need to understand that to the Jew, their life centered around the local synagogue, which meant everything to a Jew. So being kicked out of the synagogue was like the end of the world for a Jew!

Yet, God wants all of His children to carry our cross for Jesus. This has NOTHING to do with getting saved (born-again), it deals with SERVICE, not SALVATION. Carrying one's cross for Christ is strictly a matter of obedient DISCIPLESHIP (which is by works), not about eternal SONSHIP (which is by faith alone). In fact, you don't need to confess Christ publicly to get to Heaven. You CAN be saved, and yet keep it a secret from every human being on earth! Joseph of Arimathea was " a disciple of Jesus, but secretly " of Jesus (John 19:38b). The word "disciple" in the Bible is often used to reference a believer. I love what Pastor M.R. DeHaan said:

> "There is a vast difference between coming to Jesus for salvation and coming after Jesus for service. Coming to Christ makes one a believer, while coming after Christ makes one a disciple. All believers are not disciples. To become a believer one accepts the invitation of the Gospel, to be a disciple one obeys the challenge to a > life of dedicated service and separation. Salvation comes through the sacrifice of Christ; discipleship comes only by sacrifice of self and surrender to His call for devoted service. Salvation is free, but discipleship involves paying the price of a separated walk. Salvation can't be lost because it depends upon God's faithfulness, but discipleship can be lost because it depends upon our faithfulness." —Pastor M.R. DeHaan, Hebrews; Zondervan Publishing House, 1959 (p. 117)

That was very well said. Bravo Pastor Martin Ralph DeHaan!

Now, what I have just mentioned is wrong. If we are saved, we ought to let our light shine to the world, so they may see Jesus in us. Matthew 5:16, "

Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.

" If we fail to obey this command from God, then lost sinners may perish in their unbelief and spend eternity burning in Hell, because of our sinful poor testimony...

> Hebrews 10:12:14-16, "
>
> Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord*:
>
> Looking diligently lest any man fail of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and thereby many be defiled;
>
> Lest there be any fornicator, or profane person, as Esau, who for one morsel of meat sold his birthright.
> **"

How many people will burn in Hell in eternity because of YOU? How many people have you shared the Gospel with this year? 2nd Corinthians 4:3-4, "But if our gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost: In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them.

The Danger Of Wicked Pastors Who Love Men More Than Truth

Pastor Marty Herron comes to mind. Marty was the senior pastor of the shameful Harvest Baptist Church on Guam between 199 to 2018. He made A LOT of money there! Pastor Herron is a respecter of persons, esteeming his earthly friendships as being more important than THE TRUTH.

In 2014 Marty Herron flew all the way (9,000 miles) from the island of Guam to Greenville, South Carolina, to be present at the inauguration of Steve Pettit, as the new executive president of Bob Jones University (BJU). [1]Take a look at the Satanic counterfeit plan of salvation that Steve Pettit preaches at BJU!!! Kindly said, Dr. Pettit is an unsaved Calvinist, an infidel crept in unawares into BJU. A little leaven leaventh the whole lump! I feel sorry for the thousands of students at BJU, who have been utterly corrupted by an ungodly false prophet. Steve Pettit is good friends with one of the most dangerous false teachers of our time, Dr. John MacArthur (an alumni of BJU).

Marty Herron flew 9,000 miles (browning his buddy that hit the big time), securing his future career in the dirty religious business. Sadly, Christianity began as a new birth in the Bible. When it went to Greece it became a mere philosophy. When Christianity went to Rome it became an organization (the Roman Catholic cult). When it spread throughout Europe, Christianity became a culture. But when it came to America, Christianity became a business!

When I attended the shameful Harvest Baptist Church on Guam for one year (2013-2014), God burdened my heart over the heretical Lordship Salvation, false bibles and wrong repentance that I heard preached there. So I tried to help them see, as a true friend does. I loved them dearly, God knows my heart. But for telling THE TRUTH, they wickedly counted me as their enemy and showed me the door. I was banned from returning to Harvest Baptist Church. God's judgment is upon the ungodly pastors of Harvest Baptist Church cult on Guam.

Even their new senior pastor in 2018, Gary Walton, upheld the ban, refusing to allow me to attend their church (even though I begged). I was lonely, broken in soul and desperate for their love, but they threw me under the bus again and again in their hatred. Galatians 4:16, "Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth? They zealously affect you, but not well; yea, they would exclude you, that ye might affect them." Bob Jones University zealously affect churches like Harvest, but only to their destruction! And very sadly, shameful incompetent pastors like Jeff Redlin and Timothy Zacharias at Pensacola Christian College's Campus Church, sinfully bid Godspeed to the BJU camp (accepting their students, partaking in intercollegiate sports together, hiring each other camp's graduates, refusing to contend for the faith, and hobnobbing with one another). Folks, RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!! [2]The Bob Jones crowd are corrupt!!! They are unintentionally [3]helping the Devil.

Pastor Marty Herron is more loyal to Steve Pettit more than he is to God. Marty loves the praise of men more than the praise of God. Pastor Herron flew 9,000 to support his apostate buddy at BJU, but wouldn't even allow me drive 1 mile to Harvest Baptist Church church on Guam, because THE TRUTH that I placed directly into Marty's bloody hands greatly offended him. Jesus said in Matthew 11:6, " And blessed is he, whosoever shall not be offended in me." Jesus is the truth according to John 14:6. THE TRUTH is only hate, to them who HATE the truth! Marty Herron has been deceived by the Devil, but he is too blind and arrogant to see it. I befriended him with THE TRUTH, but he rejected that truth and me along with it.

What saith the Scripture? Hosea 4:6, " My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me: seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also forget thy children." Carefully notice that God's people weren't destroyed for being innocently ignorant of THE TRUTH; but rather, because wickedly THEY REJECETD THE TRUTH!!! And worse yet, it was THE PRIESTS (the religious leaders) who rejected that knowledge!

This Bible verse has Bob Jones University and Pensacola Christian College written all over it! You can't tell those knucklehead pastors anything, because they are stiffnecked and unwilling to listen to THE TRUTH. The fact of the matter is that I am banned from attending BOTH the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, and Campus Church at PCC. I received a written notice on August 2, 2022 from Pastor Jeff Redlin that I am banned from coming to their church cult. No wonder our country is going to Hell in a wheelbarrow! Our pastors are apostate fools!!!

Marty Herron is terrified of going against his peers in the ministry, lest he be put outside the gate with Jesus. Horrible pastors like Jeff Redlin, Tim Zacharias, Gary Walton, Chuck Phelps (on the board of directors at BJU), all refuse to suffer reproach for the name of Christ. They all get paid 6-digit outrageous salaries! None of them has any regard for THE TRUTH, not for hurting people. I literally begged Pastors' Marty Herron, Gary Walton, Joe Hansen, Jared Baldwin, Marty Herron for a second chance (talk about casting my pearl before the swine), but they all threw me under the bus, leaving me for dead. My good God will quickly avenge me (Romans 12:19-21), and vindicate my truthful preaching (Romans 3:4), and make them suffer in eternity for their wickedness in supporting falsehoods (Galatians 6:7; Proverbs 30:5-6).

3.9.15 You Cannot Say You Are A Good Person (2022-09-19 16:42)

Proverbs 20:6, "Most men will proclaim every one his own goodness: but a faithful man who can find?"

I learned an important truth long ago, which is that I cannot claim to be a good man.

" That is not my place to say. Other people must call me a

for that compliment to actually mean something. The Bible says in our text passage of Scripture that MOST MEN will proclaim his own goodness (i.e., bragging on himself). But we all know that some people who brag have nothing to boast about!

Neither you nor myself can profess our own goodness, because we don't see in our selves what others see.

Proverbs 25:14, " Whoso boasteth himself of a false gift is like clouds and wind without rain. " That is what the old timers called, " big doggin' it.

" That is, you're a little puppy trying to be a big dog! So, don't big dog it!!!

If you tell me that I am a good man, that means something tremendously to me. Unfortunately, I cannot tell myself how good I am, because it is not my place to make that determination. I am sure that Playboy magazine founder High Hefner (1926-2017) would have perversely considered himself a good man. But was Hefner a good man? No, he was not! No wicked man who exploits women for money is " good.

" Proverbs 12:2, " A good man obtaineth favour of the LORD: but a man of wicked devices will he condemn."

The Apostle Luke referred to Joseph (Jesus' Dad who raised Him, but not His biological father) as a "good man." Luke 23:50, "And, behold, there was a man named Joseph, a counsellor; and *he was a good man, and a just:"

Some of the people said that Jesus is a "good man," but others called Him a deceiving lying fraud. John 7:12, "And there was much murmuring among the people concerning him: for some said, He is a good man : others said, Nay; but he deceiveth the people."

The Apostle Luke (who penned the book of Acts) refers to Barnabas as a "good man" in Acts 11:24. "For he was a good man, and full of the Holy Ghost and of faith: and much people was added unto the Lord."

Dear reader, it matters what people think and say about us. It matters how we live our life and treat others. Since we are all imperfect people, inherent sinners by nature, we can only attempt to do our best with the Lord's help to live above reproach. However, NO ONE can live above sin! Everyone has a Skeleton Closet (1st John 1:8-10). Albeit, despite whatever sins failures and mistakes we've made in life, by God's grace we ought to rise above our past, and make the best of what time we have remaining in this temporary body. Every saint has a past and every sinner has a future. Amen and amen. Today is the first day of the rest of your life!!!

My goal is not to live to please men; but rather, to " Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven." Righteous people call Bible preachers for taking a firm stand against sin; but ungodly fools call Bible preachers

for preaching hard against sin. So the word

"good" is actually a relative term, depending on who is using it. Isaiah 5:20, " Woe unto them that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!"

Proverbs 14:14, " The backslider in heart shall be filled with his own ways: and a good man shall be satisfied from himself." I love that Bible verse! It means that a backslidden man does what HE WANTS! But a good man who desires to please God will do what he knows is right to do, even though it means sacrificing his own ambitions, pleasures and fun. Our nation's prisons are full of unwise men and women who did what THEY WANTED, instead of doing what they knew was the right thing to do. Throughout life, everyone is tested, having to decide continually between good or evil.

Also, oftentimes our choices in life won't be between good or evil, but between good or best. A particular decision may not require you to decide against doing something immoral or wrong, but to make the better choice. For example: A young person may need to choose where to attend college. Although it is not necessarily a sin to attend a more contemporary Bible college (where music and moral standards are lower, et cetera

)

, it is far more better to attend an old-fashioned Bible college (like Commonwealth Baptist College in Lexington , Kentucky) where old-fashioned Christian values are still upheld.

I want people to call me a good man, but I cannot call myself that. I want to live each moment of my life in such a way that glorifies my God and Savior, and people consider me an honest, good and reasonable person as a Christian. There is nothing worse than a Christian who doesn't pay their bills on time, lies to people, cannot be trusted or relied upon, et cetera. Proverbs 25:19, "Confidence in an unfaithful man in time of trouble is like a broken tooth, and a foot out of joint." Put another way: "People don't care what you know, until they know that you care." It is so true!

Very few pastors truly care about people. Pastor Jeff Redlin at Pensacola Christian College's (PCC) Campus Church doesn't care about people. He doesn't care about me as a human being. Pastor Redlin has actually banned me (in writing), since August 2, 2022, from attending Campus Church. It didn't matter that I apologized three times in writing, that I humbly offered to do whatever they require to make peace with the PCC camp, they still refuse to let me come back to church. Redlin's belly in his God, whom he serves for a 6-digit annual salary (Romans 16:17-18). Jeff Redlin is not a good man, he is a religious phony, a hypocrite who only cares about the cult at Pensacola Christian College. The Lord will judge between me and PCC. Thank you dear reader for reading my blogs. It humbly means a lot to me.

3.9.16 A Rebuke Of Pastor Cary Schmidt's Book: "Done" (2022-09-20 23:02)

John 3:16,

"For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life."

1st Timothy 6-7, "From which some having swerved have turned aside unto vain jangling; Desiring to be teachers of the law; understanding neither what they say, nor whereof they affirm."

2nd Timothy 2:15-16, "Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth. But shun profane and vain babblings: for they will increase unto more ungodliness."

Right doctrine matters! I said RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!! At the West Coast Bible College in Lancaster, California (run by Pastor Paul Chappell), the book titled: "Done" by Pastor Cary Schmidt is required reading for their students. [1]Cary Schmidt serves as the Senior Pastor of [2]Emmanuel Baptist Church in Newington, Connecticut.

I love preachers and don't enjoy critiquing them, but as a redeemed child of God I do enjoy contending for the Christian faith. Jude 1:3, "Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints." You can [3]freely read Pastor Schmidt's book on his personal website.

Kindly said, and with no intentional disrespect for Pastor Schmidt, the inspired Holy Bible disagrees with his false teaching that a lost sinner must "

believe and receive

as two separate acts to be saved. Pastor Schmidt writes these words in his book, "

Done

> You see, on the side of the giver, a true gift must > be free and optional, and on the side of the receiver, a
>
>
> true gift must be believed and received! For a gift to become yours, you must choose to believe the giver
>
> and to receive it as your own. Until you make these two simple decisions the gift is not truly yours. It > could be paid for—it could be wrapped and waiting.
>
>
> It could have your name on it. But if you don't believe it and receive it, then it will never be yours.
>
> So it is with the gift of God—eternal life. You don't get this gift "by default." You get this gift "by decision." Yes, it's paid for. Yes, it's ready and waiting for you. Yes, it has your name on it. And yes, you could decide to walk away. You could decide you don't believe and you won't receive. It would be the worst decision you could ever make.
>
> Now, my kids seem to get past these two decisions pretty quickly on Christmas and birthdays. They don't usually have much trouble believing and receiving.

Yet, so many people I meet can't seem to do this with God. So, how about you, right now? Is this really something that you need to contemplate fifty-seven ways? Is this really something you need to find eighty-two reasons "not to accept"? It's a gift of God. It's free for the taking. If you believe the Bible—if you will take God at His word, this can be yours right now.

Here's how God describes the "taking of the gift." In Romans 10:9–10 He says, "That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation."

Did you catch that? "For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness…"—that's the believe part. "And with the mouth confession is made unto salvation"—that's the receive part.

Again in verse thirteen He says, "For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved." In other words, whoever will ask can have this gift from God!

In Acts 16:31 we are instructed, "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved…."

Once again in John 3:16 Jesus said, "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life."

Over and over again in the Bible God says that this gift becomes ours by believing and receiving. It starts internally—in the heart. It starts with true belief—faith.

Now, friend, it's important that you realize there are two kinds of belief. There is a "head belief" and a "heart belief." A head belief is simply a knowledge of something. A heart belief is actually trusting that knowledge.

If I went to LAX airport and bought a ticket on Southwest Airlines to Phoenix, I could believe with my head that this ticket and this airline could take me to Phoenix. I could know this in my head without actually placing my trust in this airplane. This is head belief.

Heart belief would be to actually "get on board" the plane—to fully trust that airline and airplane to take me to my destination. You may already have a head belief in Jesus.

You may understand everything I've written about in this little book. Millions of people in the world claim to believe in Jesus—yet they go about day to day still trying to pay for their own sin and refusing to simply admit their desperate state and trust His full payment on the cross.

The question now is this—will you place a heart belief in Jesus Christ alone? Are you willing to believe that nothing else can save you? [emphasis added]

What you have just read is extremely confusing! Pastor Schmidt is not the only preacher guilty of preaching this false teaching. I once heard Pastor J. Vernon McGee (1904-1988) warn his church congregation...

> The distance between the head and the heart is 18 inches. Unfortunately, a "head" knowledge of Jesus Christ—fully knowing and giving mental assent to the plan of salvation…without a "heart" acceptance that brings the personal relationship that the Bible demands—avails nothing to anyone.

This is heresy! I would agree that just because someone is familiar with the facts of the Gospel is not enough to be saved:

> Hebrews 4:1-3, "Let us therefore fear, lest, a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it. Let us therefore fear, lest, a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it. For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it."

A person "fully knowing and giving mental assent to the plan of salvation" is saved!!! But Pastor Schmidt says they mighty still not be saved, unless they also believe in their heart. That is some frightening false theology! In fact, that kind of wrong thinking can drive a churchgoer insane!!!

It is ridiculous and unbiblical to say that a sinner who hears and chooses to place their trust in the Gospel of Jesus Christ can still not be saved, unless they also believe it in their heart. That radical idea is nowhere found in the Holy Bible. In the inspired Scripture, you either believe or you don't, period. The apostle Paul never taught any such junk theology that it is not enough to have faith in your head, but not your heart. There is no difference!

God knows that I am not trying to be mean or unkind, just accurate according to the Word of God. Every Bible preacher is held doubly accountable by God for what we teach and preach, because we influence people for eternity. If a preacher is wrong on God's plan of salvation, then he has the blood of all his victims upon his hands, the blood of those who will end up burning in Hell forever who were deceived by his false teachings (Matthew 7:13-15; 2nd Corinthians 11:3-4, 13-15; Galatians 3:1-3).

Now, I don't think that Pastor Schmidt is sending people to Hell with his false teaching. However, the woeful danger and risk is that people will become utterly confused, worrying their whole life if they really believe in their heart, or just in the mind. I know, because I receive countless emails from such confused people, who are afraid that they only believe the Gospel in their head, but not their heart. Folks, there is no such animal!!! It is IMPOSSIBLE to believe (to rely upon, trust, put your confidence) in the Good News (Gospel) of Jesus Christ, but still not be saved because you don't really believe it in your heart. I hate when preachers confuse people like that! They are sincere no doubt, but wrong nevertheless (Proverbs 16:25).

It is possible to know the facts of God's simple plan of salvation, but not believe them. But the former is KNOWLEDGE, the latter is FAITH. In fairness to Pastor Schmidt, he does admit that head knowledge cannot save a person. But where he goes horrible astray is when he wrongly calls such knowledge a form of " belief.

” This confusion is caused by a common misunderstanding of James 2:19, “Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: the devils also believe, and tremble.” Carefully notice that this passage doesn’t mention believing the Gospel, but believing in God. It is not enough to believe that God exists, the Bible says you must place your faith in the Lord Jesus Christ (Acts 16:30-31).

I applaud most of what Pastor Cary Schmidt is teaching, but he got Romans 10:9-10 very wrong! You don’t need to believe and receive to get to Heaven. It is easy for eager Bible students to read too much into the Scriptures, taking away strange doctrines that don’t exist in reality. Remember, anytime that you life a text out of context, you create a new pretext (i.e., a false doctrine). Never look too hard into a Scripture passage. God said what He meant, and meant what He said.

A good rule to follow when interpreting the Bible is to never use an obscure passage to contradict a clear one. I learned that from Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995). God specifically authored the Gospel of John to teach humanity how to get to Heaven. So says John 20:31, “But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name.” In the Gospel of John we find the word “believe”

mentioned 85 times; but the words repent, confess, pray, surrender, follow and persevere are not mentioned even once. John 6:47, “

Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.

Kindly said, Pastor Schmidt is preaching strange doctrine! What saith the Scripture? ...

> Romans 10:13-17, “For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher? And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things! But they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Esaias saith, Lord, who hath believed our report? So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.”

Don’t forget what Pastor Curtis Huston said: “A good rule to follow when interpreting the Bible is to never use an obscure passage to contradict a clear one.” It would be unwise to completely ignore the entire Gospel of John, and the Epistle of Galatians, and base a plan of salvation upon Romans chapter 10 alone. Remember, God authored the Gospel of John to show mankind how to be saved (John 20:31). Yet, every preacher that I know who teaches error regarding salvation uses obscure passages of Scripture to do it!

For example: The demonic Church of Christ false religion, errantly uses Romans 10:9-10 to require lost sinners to “confess” Christ publicly to get to Heaven. But no such requirement is found in the Gospel of John! We read in John 12:42-43 that many of the chief rulers believed on Jesus, but they “DID NOT CONFESS HIM.” They were saved, but loved the praise of men more than the praise of God (John 42:43). Clearly, they were not following Jesus yet as the supreme “Lord” of their life, but they were still saved and secure in God’s promise of eternal life, which is by faith alone. Amen and amen.

Nowhere in the Holy Bible are we taught to “ believe and receive

” Jesus to be saved. The person who acknowledges being a guilty sinner in need of redemption (Romans 3:19-20), and BELIEVES the Good News of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen the third day (1st Corinthians 15:1-4), is instantly, irrevocably and forever saved by God’s grace. To BELIEVE is all that is necessary or allowed by God to be saved. Galatians 3:26, “ For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. ”

Pastor Schmid is teaching strange doctrine. Again, the great harm that his false doctrine posses is that believers will become utterly confused, fretting needlessly and worrying for years to come if their faith is merely in their head, or in their heart as well. The entire idea is absurd! The man, woman, teenager or small child who comes to God as a needy sinner, and places their childlike faith in the Lord Jesus Christ as their personal Savior is eternally saved! Nothing more is required or allowed. BELEIVING IS ENOUGH!!!

Repentance (a change of mind) and faith happen simultaneously (at the same time). The man who believes has repented. That is, he has changed his mind.

And the man who repents has believed. There is no such thing as a person who believes, but isn’t really saved because they didn’t truly repent. I am so sick and tired of the theological garbage being falsely preached in thousands of pulpits today.

The person who believes the Gospel has repented.

Yet, [5]corrupt institutions like Bob Jones University (BJU) errantly teach that repentance from sin is an additional step to believing. BJU’s new president, [6]Dr. Steve Pettit, is teaching things from The Twilight Zone! Kindly said, Steve Pettit is an unsaved Calvinist infidel. BJU has become a dangerous religious cult, preaching another gospel (Galatians 1:6-9). RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!!

I wrote this blog to teach you, dear reader, about the dangers of tampering with the Gospel. The inspired Word of God reads in John 11:26-27, “ Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live:

And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this? ” Did you see anything about “believing and receiving”? No, we did not! The Bible simply says to “believe” on the name of Jesus Christ to get to Heaven.

Pastor Schmidt says:

“ it’s important that you realize there are two kinds of belief. There is a ’head belief’ and a ’heart belief.’

A head belief is simply a knowledge of something. A heart belief is actually trusting that knowledge. ” Dear reader, head knowledge is NOT a “

in any way, fashion or form!!! You cannot show me a single Bible verse to support Schmidt’s heresy! You cannot show me any person or group in the Bible who believed only with their head, but not with their heart. I triple-dog dare you to show me! You cannot. Pastor Schmidt is incompetently using the wrong theological terminology.

> Hebrews 4:1-3, “Let us therefore fear, lest, a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it. Let us > therefore fear, lest, a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it. For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it."

The preceding Bible passage says that the Hebrews who wandered in the Wilderness, heard Moses preach the Gospel for 40 years. But that Gospel truth was not mixed with faith in them that heard it. They didn't allegedly believe in their heads, but not in their hearts.

" They didn't have any faith at all! They didn't believe at all. They were familiar with the Gospel, having heard it repeatedly by Moses the prophet for 40 years, but they rejected it. It would be very wrong to say that those Jews believed in the heads, but not in their hearts. No, they didn't believe it!

Kindly said, for Pastor Cary Schmidt to label head knowledge as a form of "

is gross theological incompetence

. To trust the Gospel (Good News) is to believe in both one's heart and head at the same time, there is no distinction in the Holy Bible. It is impossible to trust Christ with your head, but not with your heart. As cute as Pastor Schmidt's tommyrot theology is, it is dangerous to churchgoers and must be exposed and avoided as quackery.

3.9.17 A Good Illustration Of Pensacola Christian College Cult (2022-09-24 22:21)

Revelation 3:15-18, "I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot. So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth. Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked: I counsel thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear; and anoint thine eyes with eyesalve, that thou mayest see."

Years ago, I heard a very sad and disturbing story in the news. A married couple ate at a popular local pub restaurant. The couple were disgusted with the horrible service they didn't receive. Their orders got messed up. Their meal was ruined. So at the end they paid for all their food and drinks, but they refused to pay the 18 % gratuity which the restaurant forces customers to pay, no matter how poor the service or food is. [1]That wicked manager called the police and had the couple arrested . They were handcuffed and put into the squad car. They were taken down to the police station, booked, charged with theft, and then released on bail.

So the next evening that married couple protested with signs in front of the restaurant, where they had been so horribly abused the night before. I wish to God that I had the power to permanently shut down that business, to give justice to that mistreated and abused couple!!!

But it gets much worse, as that emotionally wounded and hurting couple protested in anger against that wicked pub restaurant, hundreds of people passed by them all night long, some laughing in their typical American snobbery, entering into the establishment to enjoy a good meal and have a fun time. Dear reader, I just described to you Pensacola Christian College (PCC). They only care about having fun by themselves, doing their own thing, all to make more money, but they don't give a damn about hurting people.

I am going to tell you some of my sad and disturbing story in a moment, about how I was mistreated, abused and thrown under the bus at Campus Church at PCC. Yet, even though I am protesting in anger from my wounded and hurting soul, Jeff Redlin and Timothy Zacharias, and the leaders at PCC, are wickedly laughing in my face, as thousands of indifferent people keep piling into their religious cult. I know how that mistreated couple felt when they were terrible mistreated at that hellhole restaurant in Pennsylvania.

Here is some of the couple's horrifying story:

> [2]Pope and John Wagner were hauled away by police and charged with theft for not paying the mandatory 18 percent gratuity totaling $16 after eating at the Lehigh Pub in Bethlehem, Pa. with six friends.
>
> Pope claimed that they had to wait nearly an hour for their order and that she had to get napkins and silverware for the table herself.
>
> "At this point I became very annoyed because I had already gone up to the bar myself to have my soda refilled because the waitress never came back," Pope said.
> After the $73 bill came, the group paid for food, drinks, and tax but refused to pay the tip. After explaining the bad service to the bartender in charge, Pope claimed he took their money and called police. The couple was handcuffed and placed in the back of a police car. [3]READ MORE

The Pensacola Christian College (PCC) camp, with their pathetic Campus Church, are spiritually blind and wretched and naked. They are blind to how awful and far from God they are. They are wretched in their selfish pride and self-righteousness. They are naked, totally devoid of God's love for hurting people.

When I first came to Campus Church in July of 2021 (having just moved to the city of Pensacola, Florida from the island of Guam), my life was broken and my soul hurting in loneliness. I wrote a lengthy email and poured out my heart to Pastor Jeff Redlin at Campus Church (their senior pastor since 2018, who came from Colorado). To my horror, Pastor Redlin replied harshly, scolding me because I had kindly mentioned that my former wife divorced me in 2006. I shared my heart with the pastor, confiding in him that I hoped to find a wife at Campus Church (I wish Redlin could know what it feels like to be abandoned by his wife, and then to be painfully alone for 15 years, and then have some cocky uncaring pastor sinfully criticize him for hoping to remarry). It' is easy to crap on people when you've never suffered in their shoes. Instead of having compassion and showing forth God's love, Jeff Redlin berated me harshly and threw me under the bus.

But even a week before that, I knew that Jeff Redlin was a coward, when I told him that I was sleeping in Walmart's parking lot on Mobile Highway. The Woodspring Suites Hotel in Pensacola where I had made a 30-day confirmed reservation, cruelly cancelled my entire stay because United Airlines flight from Guam to Honolulu was delayed. Consequently, I missed my connecting flight from Honolulu to Denver. [4]United Airlines has been fined millions of dollars for delayed flights, yet they keep doing it! Anyway, when I told Pastor Redlin at the 2021, 4th of July picnic at Campus Church,

I saw the startled look on his face, but then he literally just walked away from me like I didn't exist. What a selfish coward! I knew right then that something was very wrong with Pastor Redlin.

I am a loving person. I am very forgiving and always willing to make peace. After attending Campus Church for a few months in 2021, I left in frustration, feeling like Pastor Redlin didn't care about me as a human being. He had scolded me for hoping to find a wife. He later embarrassed me in front of his wife, saying that if I ever did find a woman to marry, he wouldn't perform the wedding. What a jerk! Jeff Redlin is immature and has no business pastoring any church. What a shame! God will not bless a pastor who abuses people!

But unfortunately, like the shady business manager, PCC is the same horrible way, mistreating people with no recourse of action. PCC needs to go out of business!!! If I had my way, they'd all be fired, and the school and church shut down completely for several months, until all new leaders who actually give a damn could be hired. SHAME on the ungodly PCC camp. They are no better than the Mormon cult, singing pretty music, playing church, while INDIVIDUALS do not matter. I will never shut up about the wickedness of Campus Church and PCC.

I was lonely without a church family and asked the pastors of Campus Church if I could come back. I apologized for offending them. They ignored me. So I mailed two more letters, this time I sent a copy to the leaders at PCC. They all ignored me for 45 days! So I finally lashed out against them on social media, and only then did Pastor Redlin email to tell me I couldn't come to their church for my comments. Do you see how unfair and rotten these jerks are? They were provoking me on purpose, looking for any excuse to get rid of me. That is hatred, of the Devil, and not Bible love or Christianity. SHAME on the PCC camp!!! I have been leaving comments on their Campus Church website after each service, to warn people.

Sadly, they are wrong on Bible repentance. In their Foundation's Class, PCC's cult church wrongly preaches that " repentance is a change of mind which results in a change of behavior.

" That is 100 % false doctrine!!! Jeff Redlin and Tim Zacharias ought to be fired immediately, and competent pastors brought in their place instead. People become utterly confused when corrupt and irresponsible pastors associate behavioral modification with God's free gift of eternal life. You won't find such false teaching in the Holy Bible!

3.9.18 Why I Am Concerned About The Direction Of Paul Chappell (2022-09-26 00:30)

The following needful article was authored by one of my favorite preachers, Pastor Bob Gray Sr. on February 19, 2019 on his '[1]SOLVE CHURCH PRPOBLEMS' website:

> There is a very simple principle most people too often ignore. The principle is this: Direction determines destination.

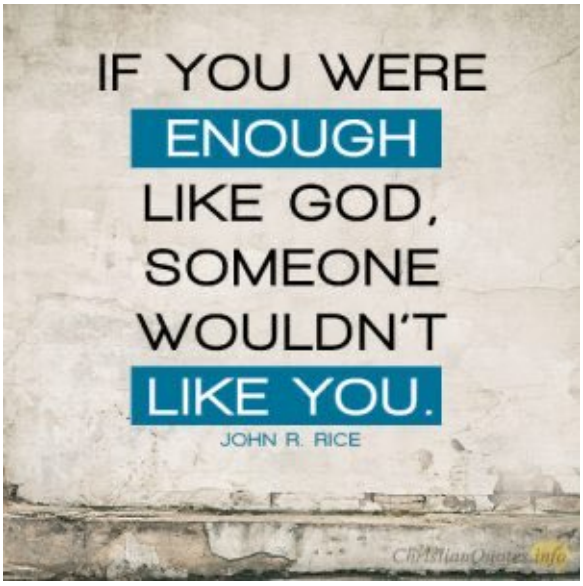
Many, many people have contacted me with a concern regarding places where Paul Chappell is scheduled to preach and men with whom he is preaching. In particular he is scheduled in May of this year to speak at a Southern Baptist Convention church on the program with many non-fundamental preachers. I, along with others, am concerned about his decision to preach with these men. Remember, direction determines destination.

Perhaps the men with whom he is preaching are, for the most part, good men. They love America and have a burden for the direction this country is taking. I understand that. I am not arguing that these are evil men. My concern is that they are not fundamental men. Most of them do not use the King James Bible nor would they agree with many of our important positions. Many are members of the Southern Baptist Convention. I do not hate the Southern Baptist Convention. I am concerned with its continued movement towards Calvinism and corrupt Bible versions. Remember, direction determines destination.

Many years ago Jerry Falwell changed direction. Today Thomas Road Baptist Church and Liberty University are in no way fundamental in their positions. They have moved away from what we believe. At the time many of us were concerned with the direction Dr. Falwell was moving.

Once when I was preaching with Dr. Jack Hyles, I preached hard against Dr. Falwell's move away from fundamentalism. After the service we were driving back to the hotel and I noticed Dr. Hyles was weeping. I asked him why. His response is one I will never forget. He said, "Dr. Gray I agree with everything you said regarding the direction Jerry is taking. I know it needs to be said. But I still love Jerry." Dr. Hyles loved Jerry Falwell, but he understood that direction determines destination.

To attack a direction a man is moving is not to attack everything about the man. I am certain that Paul Chappell is doing some good with his ministry. My concern is that just as men followed Jerry Falwell out of fundamentalism, others today will follow Paul Chappell, if he continues to move away from the traditional fundamentalists positions. For me not to warn others of this danger would be cowardly. It is my responsibility to speak out, not to hurt a man, but to warn others of the direction the man is taking.



Paul Chappell is moving in the wrong direction. Because of his success many are following him. I warn you brethren, direction determines destination.

I have no ax to grind with Paul Chappell. If he decided to return to the old fashion fundamentalism, which we've been fighting for decades, I would embrace him and applaud him. I can think of nothing that would please me more than to be able to define Paul Chappell as an old-fashioned, rock-ribbed, independent, fundamental, Baptist preacher. Unfortunately I don't see that as a possibility at this point. I will pray for Paul Chappell as I hope many of you will also do. I will pray that he will change his direction and return to his roots. If not, I can do nothing less than to warn those who follow him that direction determines destination. [2]SOURCE

Sadly, although unintentional, Dr. Bob Gray's excellent article in defense of Ecclesiastical Separation is not being violated by his own son, Pastor Scott Gray. Everyone who has been saved for any length of time knows that Pastor John MacArthur is an unsaved cult leader. Mr. MacArthur denies that children can be saved, denies that Jesus' actual blood is sprinkled on the heavenly Mercy Seat, denies that faith alone is sufficient to save a lost sinner, et cetera. The Holy Bible warns in 2nd John 1:11, "For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds." Yet, Pastor Paul Chappell wickedly bids Godspeed to John MacArthur, refusing to rebuke him sharply for his damnable Calvinist junk theology.

And then Pastor Scott Gray wickedly hobnobs with Paul Chappell. It is apostasy!!! Dear reader, RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!! Titus 1:13-15, "This witness is true. *Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith; Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men, that turn from the truth. Unto the pure all things are pure: but unto them that are defiled and unbelieving is nothing pure; but even their mind and conscience is defiled." Sadly, as long as wimpy pastors wickedly support and refuse to expose compromisers [like Scott Gray, Jeff Redlin and Timothy Zacharias at Pensacola Christian College), Paul Chappell (West Coast Bible College), and thousands more rotten clergy], things can only deteriorate in our churches, which unfortunately are adversely influenced by these accursed corrupt Bible colleges, that produce theologically incompetent graduates to ruin the churches. We are living in perilous times of woeful apostasy!!!

3.9.19 God Will Avenge My Much Suffering Because Of Incompetent Uncaring Wicked Pastors And Churches (2022-09-26 22:00)

Romans 3:4, "

God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged.

Galatians 4:16, "Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?"

I love that Bible verse! The Holy Bible promises that when we are judged in eternity, our sayings (i.e., words, writings, Bible translating, preaching, teachings) will be vindicated if what we have said agrees with God's Word. But all these lying pastors today who preach the Devil's fraud of Lordship Salvation, will be sorry and regret what they have spoken, suffering the vengeance of God almighty. Proverbs 30:5-6, " Every word of God is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him. Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar."

I can name at least four churches that I have been forced out of, criticized by, and banned from returning by their ungodly neo-evangelical heathen pastors. Telling THE TRUTH makes enemies!!!

Tragically, pastors are no longer standing anymore! They don't care, that is the problem. What they all do care about is their paychecks! It is sad. Truly, the LOVE OF MONEY is the root of all evil (1st Timothy 6:10-12). Whenever money becomes a necessity, compromise is inevitable! Whereas adversity has ruined some men, prosperity has destroyed a hundred times more!

At the shameful Harvest Baptist Church on Guam I was called their "enemy" by Pastor Marty Herron. He called me their ENEMY because I befriended them with THE TRUTH, as a true friend does. I showed them that Lordship Salvation is a perversion of the Gospel, which they were wickedly preaching. Marty Herron as the incompetent senior pastor of Harvest Baptist Church on Guam between 199 and 2018. He sadly ran the church into the ground, bringing in the Devil's dozens of corrupt Bible revisions. Herron brought in false prophets like John MacArthur, Ray Comfort, Paul Washer and other hellbound infidels, misleading and spiritually hurting the church members.

When I attended Harvest for one year between 2013 to 2014, they were sinfully preaching the heresy that, and I quote: "It is not enough to admit that you are a sinner to get to Heaven, you must also turn away from a lifestyle of sinning!" Those are Pastor Marty Herron's exact words!!! I was sitting there on Sunday morning, in church in 2014, when he said them to hundreds of people! Kindly said, Pastor Herron is a theological liar, and I told him so! There is absolutely nothing in the Gospel which the Apostle Paul teaches in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4 about turning away from sinful behavior to be saved. That is works! Jesus came to die on the cross for our sins, not demand that we first reform our sinful ways (as a requirement to receive God's free gift of eternal life by faith alone in Jesus Christ).

When I attended the Lighthouse Baptist Church on Guam in 2018, their shameful pastor Sean Quinlan (a Pensacola Christian College intern pastor) rebuked me for my zeal to expose the Devil's false Bible revisions. Quinlan lashed out against me when I told someone that "Bob Jones University (BJU) sells corruptible seed." Pastor Quinlan was angry at me for exposing the rotten Bob Jones camp, with [1]their Devil's Bibles and Calvinism (aka, [2]Lordship Salvation).

Pastor Jack Hyles preached a wonderful sermon in 1994 titled: "[3]The Battle Of The Ages" based upon Genesis 3:15 in the Bible. In this important doctrine positional sermon, Dr. Hyles explains that the Devil is the father of all the modern corruptible seed (counterfeit Bible versions). God started this battle between the serpent's seed (corruptible seed), versus Jesus Christ (Eve's seed). The battle rages on today between the Word of God (Christ - John 1:1-3, 14; Revelation 19:13), verses Satan's seed (corrupt Bibles - Genesis 3:1).

Sadly, the rotten institution at Pensacola Christian College (PCC) is spiritually in bed with the BJU camp, coddling them in their damnable false doctrine instead of "rebuking them sharply" as the Holy Bible commands in Titus 1:13-14, "This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith; Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men, that turn from the truth." For horribly incompetent pastors (like Jeff Redlin and Timothy Zacharias at PCC's Campus Church), to refuse to expose the demonic Bob Jones University camp is apostasy!!! Since 2014, I have been faithfully preaching again, exposing, rebuking sharply and doing everything in my power to prayerfully get the Bob Jones crowd to repent of their wickedness, but they aren't listening. They refuse to stop using, selling and promoting the Devil's corrupt Bible revisions. [4]Take a look at how corrupt the English Standard Version (ESV) really is.

Today's pastors are asleep at the wheel, driving irresponsibly all over the road, dangerously risking people's lives with their reckless endangerment from pulpits all across America! Nobody has as much responsibility than the spiritual leader who stands up over the people to teach them. When I attended the Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College in 2021, Timothy Zacharias arrogantly stood behind the pulpit and boldly preached heresy concerning repentance. The date was July 21, 2022. Assistant pastor Zacharias got up and told a thousand people that, and I quote: "Repentance is a change of mind which results in a change of behavior." That is a lie. Timothy Zacharias was inspired by demons when he made that heretical statement!!!

In fact, getting born-again has NOTHING to do with behavior modification. Listen, when a sinner get saved, they only automatically receive one thing—the free gift of the indwelling Holy Spirit (1st John 3:24; Romans 8:9; 1st Corinthians 3:16-17). I contacted senior pastor Jeff Redlin the next day. Tragically, he fully agreed with the utter heresy taught the night before by Tim Zacharias. Folks, these pastors are corrupt theologically. They have been adversely influenced by the Bob Jones crowd that they having been laying down with! Whosoever lays down with dogs will get fleas and ticks!!! The PCC camp has spiritual ticks and fleas, infested from sleeping with the damnable infidels at Bob Jones University (and the BJU cesspool of iniquity at the Harvest Baptist Church cult on Guam). These corrupt religious groups are bathed in Lordship Salvation and the Devil's perverted Bibles. 2nd John 1:11 warns, "For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds."

Pastor Redlin is guilty of preaching Lordship Salvation. That is what the Bible says in 2nd John 1:11. By supporting the ungodly BJU camp, PCC is just as guilty. PCC has much blood on their hands, for going along to get along with damnable false prophets to make money. PCC doesn't want to contend for the faith (Jude 1:3). PCC doesn't want to suffer reproach for the name of Christ. PCC doesn't want to be put outside the gate with Jesus.

Instead, they meet at PCC three times a week to sing religious music, play church, go through the lame motions of a religious cult, while the world goes to Hell unwarned. The city of Pensacola is going to Hell, while PCC hides behind closed doors in their cult. I speak THE TRUTH!!! PCC is all about making money. They are cold-hearted academics who couldn't' care less about hurting people. God never called us as Christians to educate the world. He commanded us to PREACH THE GOSPEL (Matthew 28:19-20). PCC majors on secular education, but minors on Bible soulwinning!!! Luke 8:11-15 teaches that God's goal for every believer is to become a SOULWINNER, not an educator or nurse. SHAME on PCC!!!

In all of these horrible organizations that I have mentioned, I have been blackballed at them all. I have been banned from returning! I have an email dated August 2, 2022 from Pastor Jeff Redlin, cruelly informing me that I am not allowed to attend Campus Church at PCC. I pray to God that He would remove Pastor Redlin and bring in a genuine man of God. Jeff Redlin is a wicked opportunist, not a caring man of God. No true pastor, who walks close to God, would ever deny someone permission to attend church. Only a private religious cult does that!!! Thus, I plan to continue exposing these ungodly evildoers. SHAME on PCC for bidding Godspeed to the Bob Jones University camp and their ungodly complicit graduates.

RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!!

- Pastors' Marty Herron, Joe Henson and Jared Baldwin all cruelly banned me from attending Harvest Baptist Church on Guam between 2014-2018. They all quit and fled elsewhere to ruin other churches.

- Pastor Gary Walton (Marty Herron's successor as senior pastor of Harvest Baptist Church on Guam) has cruelly banned me since 2018 from attending Harvest Baptist Church.
- Pastor Sean Quinlan cruelly berated me in 2018 for my zeal for the inspired King James Bible at the Lighthouse Baptist Church on Guam.
- Pastors Jeff Redlin and Tim Zacharias have banned me from attending Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College (PCC) since 2021. PCC leadership wickedly supports Jeff Redlin's cruel decision, doing nothing as usual from PCC leadership (go read up on the internet about [5]Samantha Field). They've permanently banned me from attending Campus Church. So I presently have no church family because of PCC. God is on my side, because I have only spoken THE TRUTH.

My blood is upon the hands of all the aforementioned wicked stiffnecked religious leaders.

When I attended Hyles-Anderson College (1985-1993), Pastor Jack Hyles taught me to be loyal to truth and principles, and not to men or institutions. Well, Jeff Redlin and Tim Zacharias are loyal to the institution of PCC. I am loyal to THE TRUTH! [6]Look at the damnable heresy being preached by infidel Dr. Steve Pettit at BJU. PCC endorses this! PCC will tell you that it is none of our business what goes on at BJU or Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. But that is as wicked as Hell, because it is very much our business what cults are teaching in the community. At PCC they would never preach against Roman Catholicism, Mormons, Buddhists, et cetera. They want to train nurses, engineers, law enforcement, computer science, et cetera, while playing church and sitting on the premises instead of standing on the promises. Deadbeat pastors like Sean Quinlan, Timothy Zacharias, Gary Walton and Jeff Redlin are sending America to Hell!!! RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!!

All of these apostates that I have just mentioned couldn't care less about false doctrine. They are so caught up in running the business of their religious cults, that contending for the faith doesn't matter anymore. Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) knew that [7]Lordship Salvation is a gross deadly perversion of the Gospel. All I have done for the past 20 years of my website ministry is PREACH THE TRUTH!!! Consequently, my biggest critics and enemies are church pastors. Go figure! They are envious of me, because the high standards that I preach make them feel like failures:

- I uplift only the inspired King James Bible, while most Baptist pastors deny that the King James Bible is even inspired.
- I uplift using only the inspired King James Bible, while neo-evangelicals unsaved pastor like Chuck Phelps and Marty Herron (part of the cult at Bob Jones University) and ungodly churches wickedly embrace and use the Devil's Bible perversions, corrupting naïve people who trust and follow them to destruction.
- I preach only a free grace Gospel, exposing the Devil's lies of Lordship Salvation (i.e.„ Calvinism), and the Devil's lie that you must turn away from your sinning to get to Heaven. These ungodly false teachers in the Southern Baptist Convention, and at Bob Jones University cult, and the rotten harvest Baptist Church on Guam, et cetera, all despise, reject and shun me away because I have come out uncompromisingly against them all. I love what Evangelist Billy Sunday (1862-1935) said:

> "I've stood for more sneers and scoffs and insults and had my life threatened from one end of the land to the other by this God-forsaken gang of thugs and cutthroats because I have come out uncompromisingly against them."
> —Billy Sunday (1862-1935)

I have been cruelly rejected, shunned, scorned, ridiculed, laughed at, belittled, reprimanded and told to leave Baptist churches because I TOLD THE TRUTH. I was cruelly called "obsessed over the Bible issue" by Pastor Sean Quinlan at the Lighthouse Baptist Church on Guam. I was mistreated, abused, thrown under the bus, left for dead, depressed, cut to the heart, and banned from attending the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam for several years. I finally left Guam in frustration. Pastor Marty Herron cruelly called me their churches "enemy" because I TOLD THE TRUTH. Galatians 4:16, "Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?"

When I begged Pastor Herron in 2017 to please let me attend their church, because I loved their nurse and wanted to marry her, he told me cruelly to, in his exact words: "

Go elsewhere.

I pray that God would take away Marty's wife, so he could feel my pain that he caused. Kristen would have married me, if it weren't for that ungodly, rotten, selfish, neo-evangelical infidel for a shameful pastor. God will avenge me, I have His promise (Romans 12:19-21; Matthew 12:36; Ecclesiastes 12:14; Galatians 1:6-9, 5:4, 6:7). Kindly said, Marty Herron is the hellbound fool in Matthew 7:21-23 who served Christ as "Lord, Lord," but he never did God's will (John 6:40). Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born-again. That is what Judas did, one of Christ's very apostles!

I have suffered inexplicable emotional trauma since 2014 with a deeply broken heart, because although I befriended all the aforementioned pastors and churches with THE TRUTH, they murdered the prophet!!! I am banned from attending Campus Church in Pensacola, because ungodly pastors' Jeff Redlin and Tim Zacharias have elevated themselves above God almighty, deciding in their haughty pride who matters and who doesn't. With God ALL LIVES MATTER, but at Pensacola Christian College (PCC) only SOME LIVES MATTER!!! The cult system always comes first at PCC, individual people do not matter.

For years now I have been ridiculed, ignored, laughed at, mistreated, shunned, called crazy and bullied by ungodly church pastors. These bad pastors are either guilty of corrupting the inspired Word of God themselves, or of wickedly bidding Godspeed to those false prophets who do. Jeff Redlin, Sean Quinlan and Tim Zacharias all sinfully bid Godspeed to the corrupt unsaved Bob Jones University gang. BJU supports [8]Pastor John MacArthur, the biggest threat to Baptist churches in the world.

You see, none of these pastors care enough to take a stand as I am doing. I CARE!!! I am just a nobody, but I am humbly a hero! By the very definition of the word I am a hero, that is, somebody who rescues someone. The churches of Galatia hated the Apostle Paul, counting him as their enemy (Galatians 4:16). At one time Paul said they would have plucked out their own eyes to give him, if they could

. I think it is obvious that Paul had poor vision. Yet these people in the churches who would have done anything to help Paul at one time, were now despising him for TELLING THE TRUTH that they has been duped by a cult.

I have been TELLING THE TRUTH to Harvest Baptist Church on Guam since 2014—THE TRUTH that Pastor Marty Herron is an unsaved false prophet and liar, that John MacArthur is a false prophet and liar, that the modern Bibles revisions are of the Devil and corrupt, that repentance in the Bible regarding salvation does not mean to give up your sinful lifestyle, and that Martin Luther (1483-1546) was not a born-again Christian because [9]he taught the heresy of Baptismal Regeneration (that you must be water baptized to be saved) all his life.

I have been TELLING THE TRUTH all these many years, yet for being the only one who did the right thing at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, I was excommunicated and ostracized permanently. I lost the potential wife who liked me, and me her, but Pastor Marty Herron threw me under the bus and went his merry ungodly way to Iowa. I pray earnestly for God to avenge me! I TOLD THE TRUTH! I did the right thing. [10]And for it my life was ruined. I lost my church family. I hadn't been so happy in several years, that I had a church family, but then Pastor Herron took it all away from me, as he played the Devil's advocate. I wept and wept for years to come, having no church family, all because that wicked pastor refused to repent of his false repentance to be saved. Listen to what Pastor Curtis Hutson rightly said...

Pastor Curtis Hutson On The Repent Of Sins HERESY

One of the biggest lies being told today all across America is that modern preachers have left off repentance. These lying neo-evangelicals, errantly claim that the old-time preachers required people to turn away from living in sin to be saved. They falsely claim that free grace preachers like Curtis Hutson (1934-1995), Jack Hyles (1926-2001), Yankee Arnold, Steven Anderson, Max Younce, Hank Lindstrom (1940-2008) and myself are false prophets, wrongly accusing us of leaving off repentance in God's plan of salvation. THE TRUTH is that we very much DO believe and teach the need for repentance in salvation, but we view repentance as a simple [11]change of mind unto the Gospel itself, which is Biblical.

Anyone who says that "to

means more than a simple

change of mind

” (Greek noun: metanoia) is a liar. Repentance does NOT mean forsaking a lifestyle of sinning. It does NOT mean to give up the old sinful ways, nor to live a lifestyle of repentance ([12]Ray Comfort’s heresy). God knows that I do not hate any of these people, but my heart is sad that they rejected THE TRUTH, and me along with it. God will hold them accountable.

Dear reader, if the Lord Jesus Christ doesn’t care about our doctrinal differences as religious people, then:

1. Why does the inspired Holy Bible command us to “ rebuke them sharply ” who corrupt the Gospel (Titus 1:9-14)?
2. Why does the inspired Holy Bible teach us in Jude 1:3,

   “that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints”?
3. Why does the Holy Bible command us in Ephesians 5:11, “And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them”?

RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS to God!!! So when I heard Pastor Marty Herron preaching the Devil’s fraud of Lordship Salvation, I prayed for him, and I bought hundreds of dollars of books with my own money to help him to see THE TRUTH. One of the books that I handed him was “

[13]I Never Knew You

by Michael P. Bowen (this is the free online.PDF format version). The pastors of Harvest Baptist Church on Guam resented the book, and me for handing it to them.

After church on a Sunday night, the pastors son-in-law invited me over to their house the next night on Monday for dinner. I was so happy. I instantly said,

Yes, I am coming!

” I then handed him a hardcopy of I Never Knew You by Michael P. Bowen, because I cared and wanted to help Harvest’s pastors see THE TRUTH. The next day I waited all day for them to call me, but no one ever did. I waited all night. At 11 pm I was still standing in front of my place, because they lived right across the street. I cried in sadness that the book I had given them, THE TRUTH, caused them to hate and despise me, breaking their invitation to come over for dinner. God knows that I just wanted to be a blessing, but they counted me as their enemy for TELLING THE TRUTH. Galatians 4:16, “Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?”

My former wife divorced me in 2006. I have lived alone ever since. So I have been very lonely all these years. It is not every day that anyone invites me over for dinner. So when the pastor’s son-in-law dissed me, and his wife, my heart was broken. When Kristen Hurlburt dissed me, when I asked her if I court court her for marriage, because her ungodly boss Marty Herron coerced her, my heart was broken. I have been hurt so much, so deeply, again and again—all because I TOLD THE TRUTH about a free grace Gospel, I TOLD THE TRUTH about the Devil's modern Bible perversions, I TOLD THE TRUTH about the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation, I TOLD THE TRUTH that Bible repentance for salvation doesn't mean to turn away from sinful behavior, I TOLD THE TRUTH that Martin Luther went to Hell in his heresy of Sacramental Salvation, and I TOLD THE TRUTH that [14]Dr. John MacArthur is a false prophet for teaching that children cannot be saved. For TELLING THE TRUTH, my life was ruined by the ungodly pastors of the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam.

And now here I am living in the city of Pensacola, but they ungodly horrible pastors of Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College, refuse to allow me to attend Campus Church. If you visit Harvest Baptist Church on Guam's KHMG 88.1 FM radio station website, you'll find Jeff Redlin's website. PCC is in bed with the BJU camp, fornicating with Harvest Baptist Church. Since Harvest still hates, ridicules and shuns me, so does the backslidden PCC camp. Their shameful pastors and arrogant leaders at PCC are ungodly!!! What saith the Scripture? Proverbs 16:5, "Every one that is proud in heart is an abomination to the LORD: though hand join in hand, he shall not be unpunished."

Birds of a feather flock together! The entire rotten BJU and PCC camp are committing spiritual adultery, all in the common interest of making more filthy lucre (lots of MONEY). Jeff Redlin and Gary Walton both get paid 6-digit outrageous salaries. So they don't want a TRUTH-TELLER like me around. I long for the day in eternity when heads roll. Pastor Jeff Redlin is in big trouble with God, for criticizing my website ministry instead of commending me for telling THE TRUTH.

You see, Pastor Jeff Redlin is a coward who refuses to get his hands dirty. He would never speak a word against PCC's partners in spiritual crime at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam (a cesspool of corrupt BJU graduates). These people wickedly support each other, working together as parasites to milk people of their hard-earned dollars, spreading their lame shallow type of phony Christianity, singing worldly Contemporary Christian Music (CCM) without contending for the faith, and there is no public door-to-door soulwinning. Nobody gives a damn at PCC or BJU about false doctrine!!! Instead, they are guilty of preaching it!!!

I know that one day in eternity that my preaching will be vindicated. I know because what I write and say agrees with God's inspired Word. Anything other than a free grace Gospel is a lie. John MacArthur is an unsaved heretic, whom the BJU camp are following. Sadly, Paul Chappell is also supporting him. And now Pastor Scott Gray is supporting Paul Chappell. Folks, prosperity has ruined these pastors. When a pastor starts taking vacations to Israel (e.g., Scott Gray), and hobnobbing with big name pastors (Paul Chappell and John MacArthur), he is well nigh hopeless.

The next thing that happens is that these church starts singing worldly CCM songs, they start easing up on critiquing the corrupt Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort based Bible perversions, they stop preaching hard against homosexuality and the LGBTQ agenda, et cetera. In the year 1881, two unsaved Anglican ministers named Westcott and Hort wrote their own new Greek Bible. It is upon this corrupt Greek that every Bible version today is either based, or influenced, except the authorized 1611 King James Bible.

The ONLY Bible we can trust today is the King James Bible. It may be harder to understand, but at least you won't be misled to believe a lie in one of the Devil's corrupted Bible revisions. [15]Here is one perfect example of how the modern Bibles can send people to Hell. I sure feel lonely being like the Lone Ranger all the time, being the only one standing against the Devil's falsehoods. Meanwhile, the sickening PCC camp are busy singing religious songs, playing church, making tons of money, playing ballgames, and laughing at me for telling THE TRUTH. These truly are like the days of Noah. Their day of reckoning is coming at BJU, PCC and Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. God's wrath and judgment will not last forever!!!

3.9.20 The Deteriorating Spiritual Direction Of Pastor Scott Gray (2022-09-27 22:45)

1st Timothy 6:10-12,

For the love of money is the root of all evil: which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.
But thou, O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness. Fight the good fight of faith*, lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses.

“

And unto the angel of the church in Sardis write; These things saith he that hath the seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars; I know thy works, that thou hast a name that thou livest, and art dead. Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God. Remember therefore how thou hast received and heard, and hold fast, and repent. If therefore thou shalt not watch, I will come on thee as a thief, and thou shalt not know what hour I will come upon thee.

I am concerned about [1]the deteriorating spiritual direction of Pastor Scott Gray. It was just last week that on his Twitter page, [2]Pastor Scott Gray is endorsing Pastor Paul Chappell. Kindly said, Scott Gray needs to repent of his sinful compromise and start contending for the faith (Jude 1:3).

But instead of contending for the Christian faith by refuting false prophets, [3]Paul Chappell is committing spiritually adultery with Pastor John MacArthur (a 5-point Calvinist who teaches that children cannot be saved, because he makes getting saved so complicated). [4]Scott Gray Needs To Listen To Godly Wisdom From His Preacher Father, Pastor Bob Gray Sr.! The Old Testament prophet, Balaam, wickedly compromised because he was covetous. Balaam was THE PROPHET FOR HIRE!!! Balaam was the Billy Graham (1918-2018) of his generation. When he died, Billy Graham’s annual salary was over $600,000 per year!!!

Apostasy in the churches - business seminars - The love of money!
(October 4, 2022 at Liberty Baptist Church, Durham, NC - Pastor Scott Gray)

It is alarming to see Pastor Scott Gray hosting business seminars in his Baptist church in Durham, North Carolina. The neo-evangelical Harvest Baptist Church on Guam (a bunch of incompetent Bob Jones graduates) regularly host business seminars to draw in snobby wealthy people. They've diminished Jesus into an ATM machine!!! When I attended Harvest Baptist Church on Guam years ago in 2014 (before they forced me out for TELLING THE TRUTH that Lordship Salvation is not the Gospel, and the modern Devil's Bibles are woefully corrupt), they prioritized money matters. They regularly held financial seminars at church by popular so-called Christian financial coaches. To no surprise, the church waxed worse and worse spiritually. Harvest is a cesspool of false teachers, unsaved infidels and yuppie types. It saddens me to see Scott Gray going down this same evil path of THE LOVE OF MONEY.

Balaam was a neo-evangelical prophet for hire. The wicked king of the Moabites, Balak, paid God's man Balaam to curse God's people. Can you imagine? Balaam influenced Israel to intermarry with the heathen Moabites. Balaam is a type (something representative) of many false teachers (false prophets) in the churches today. I am so sick and tired of today's neo-evangelical churches!!! I'm taking about the ungodly Southern Baptist Convention's 45,000 member churches! I'm talking about the neo-evangelical cult at Bob Jones University and their corrupt graduates, including the apostate Harvest Baptist Church on Guam.

I'm talking about the ungodly neo-evangelical apostates at the Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary in Ankeny, Iowa. The former incompetent senior pastor of Harvest Baptist Church on Guam (from 1999 to 2018), Dr. Marty Herron, now works as the Executive Vice President of Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary (since 2018). Dr. Herron is an unsaved infidel who idolizes John MacArthur, sanctions the Devil's hundreds of perverting Bible revisions, and preaches the Devil's lie that to get to Heaven you must forsake a lifestyle of sinning. That is not what the inspired King James Bible teaches!!! Kindly said, Marty Herron is a theological liar and devil in the pulpit. I speak THE TRUTH in love. Ephesians 4:15, "But speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ:" Today's corrupt preachers need TOUGH LOVE!!!

> Titus 1:13-14, “This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith; Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men, that turn from the truth.”

People get offended quickly when you REBUKE THEM SHARPLY!!! Ask the Apostle Paul and he can tell you how fast people will turn on you for TELLING THE TRUTH. Galatians 4:16, “

Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?

” I like what Dr. Curtis Hutson said the year before he went to Heaven (he died of prostate cancer in 1995):

> “You see, we not only believe the fundamentals of the faith, we believe in Ecclesiastical Separation. You don’t yoke up with somebody that is not saved and call him a Christian brother!” —Pastor Curtis Hutson, a quote from the sermon: “[6]Things That Are Different Are Not The Same”

Amen and amen!!! God knows that I have nothing against Pastor Scott Gray. I have love and tremendous respect with admiration for his father, Dr. Bob Gray Sr. (a fellow Hyles-Anderson College alumni). Pastor Bob Gray Sr. attended HAC from 1972 to 1976. I attended later in 1985 to 1993, when I graduated. I am so grateful that I had the wonderful opportunity to go to Hyles-Anderson College. It is the best decision that I ever made, next to getting saved. But I am heart-broken that the HAC that I knew is gone! HAC once contended for the Christian faith, but now they have turned neo-evangelical, tolerating the Devil’s counterfeit Bible revisions.

> “What one generation tolerates, the next generation will embrace!” —John Wesley

The false teachers in the church today lead people to commit spiritual fornication. The epistle of Jude is written to warn the reader about false teaching within the New Testament church. We’ve got plenty of ungodly false teachings in churches today!

We are seeing two extremes that are false. On one hand you’ve got false teachers in the church who turn the grace of God into licentiousness (i.e., a license to sin). But this does not mean someone is not really saved, it just means they are immature or backslidden as a child of God (1st Corinthians 3:1). On the other extreme there are false teachers who say that you cannot go to Heaven unless you turn from your sinful ways. They errantly preach that if your life hasn’t changed, your faith is not real, and so they claim you’re not born-again. Dear reader, if you have to look at your life to prove that you’re saved, it proves that you’re not!

Salvation is not a reward for the righteous, it is a gift for the guilty!

Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ’s best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

Turning away from sinful ways would be a work. Faith puts all of the merit where it belongs, on the object of our faith, Jesus and His work.

If to “repent” means to forsake our sinful ways TO BE SAVED, but Jesus already paid for our sins by dying on the cross, then what are we repenting from?

The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU.

We must stay true to the simplicity of the Gospel!! Repentance regarding salvation is a change of mind from unbelief to belief!!! We must earnestly contend for the faith (Jude 1:3).

It breaks my heart to see so many Baptist churches infatuated with money, instead of being faithful to contend for the Christian faith. Nobody likes to make enemies. No one likes to offend people! But it is a necessary part of the Christian life to continually be on-guard against falsehoods, heresy, change for the worse, immorality and dangerous influences creeping into our own personal life, marriage, family, church, community and country. It is our duty as God's adopted redeemed children. We call this BIBLICAL SEPARATION.

[7]Pastor John MacArthur is a very dangerous false prophet! Mr. MacArthur [8]denies that Jesus had God's blood flowing in His veins, which is effectively a denial of Christ's virgin birth. Sadly, [9]Bob Jones University wickedly bids Godspeed to John MacArthur. They are not fighting the good fight of faith.

1st Timothy 6:12,

"Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses.

" How many pastors do we see fighting nowadays? I don't see many.

How about Pastor Joel Osteen? Ha! Ha! Kindly said, Joel Osteen is a PrettyBoy, who I think wears his wife's underwear, and can't preach his way out of a wet paperbag! Joel coddles the audience, tickling their ears, knowing that this wicked generation won't endure (put up with) sound doctrine. 2nd Timothy 4:2-4, "Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine. For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables." [10]Pastor Osteen is a false prophet! Sadly, Joel will say anything to get your money.

[11]Joel Osteen is Caspar Milquetoast . I say that kindly, but truthfully. Dear friend, preachers are supposed to be controversial. They are supposed to offend people, because THE TRUTH hurts! Neo-evangelicals do everything backwards. They ask people in a community what kind of church they want. They ask the community what kind of sermons they want to hear. I'm not kidding.

God knows that I have nothing against Pastor Scott Gray, but in just the past couple weeks I have seen him hobnobbing with Pastor Paul Chappell (who sinfully bids Godspeed to false prophet Dr. John MacArthur). Where is our Ecclesiastical Separation? That is, separation from corrupt churches? Pastor Curtis Hutson said it very well...

> "You see, we not only believe the fundamentals of the faith, we believe in Ecclesiastical Separation. You don't yoke up with somebody that is not saved and call him a Christian brother!" —Pastor Curtis Hutson, a quote from the sermon: " [12]Things That Are Different Are Not The Same "

John MacArthur is not saved. If he is, then Lordship Salvation is acceptable to God. If he is, then God is okay with the teaching that children cannot be saved, and that Jesus didn't have God's blood flowing in His veins, and faith alone is insufficient to save a lost sinner. These are the damnable heresies taught by Mr. MacArthur.

Jeremiah 6:16,

"Thus saith the LORD, Stand ye in the ways, and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls. But they said, We will not walk therein.

" Every pastor that I have seen who started down the path of THE LOVE OF MONEY, eventually became adversely affected by neo-evangelicals. ...

> 1st Timothy 6:10-12, "For the love of money is the root of all evil: which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows. But thou, O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness. Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses."

Pastor Scott Gray just got back from a vacation to Israel. That is Paul Chappell's thing, taking vacations to Israel. I've never been able to afford a vacation to Israel. It bothers me that these Baptist pastors today are living HIGH ON THE HOG, living an extravagant lifestyle that the average church member could never afford!!! That was Balaam's downfall, the love of money!!! I get disgusted when I see churches getting into money seminars, business courses, and lessons on how to become prosperous through giving. It is the same ole Devil's health, wealth and prosperity garbage have no place in any New Testament church.

And then I see Pastor Scott Gray's church hosting financial seminars. In my humble opinion, it is straying away from the old paths! Scott Gray has been rubbing shoulders with apostates like Paul Chappell and by extension, John MacArthur. Keep on eye on where Scott Gray is 20 years from now!!! Pastor Gray will either repent and go back to the old paths, suffering reproach with the saints of God (like me), who fight the good fight of faith; or he will continue to buddy buddy with neo-evangelicals for the sake of worldly success, which will turn him away from Christian fundamentalism. Prosperity has destroyed 100 times more men than poverty!

"You may not be much but you can be faithful."

—Pastor Lee Roberson (1909-2007)

Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995)

3.9.21 Many Pastors Are Deceived But Think All Is Okay (2022-09-28 14:35)

Revelation 3:15-18, "I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot. So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth. Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked: I counsel thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear; and anoint thine eyes with eyesalve, that thou mayest see.

Our text from Revelation 3:15-18 is a well known Scripture passage about the lukewarm Laodicean church. This was a deceived church! This is Jesus Himself speaking to the Apostle John, who was exiled on the isle of Patmos at the time of this writing in AD 96. Revelation 1:18, "I am he that liveth, and was dead; and, behold, I am alive for evermore, Amen; and have the keys of hell and of death." That verse is speaking about Jesus! Jesus told John that the Laodicean church claimed to be prospering, to be blessed of God so that they had need of nothing; when in reality they were wretched, naked and blind the Bible says. Jesus said He spews them out of His mouth, "Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked:" (Revelation 3:17).

Jesus is talking about Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College (PCC). The PCC camp refuse to get their hands dirty for God (2nd Timothy 3:12). PCC refuses to fight the good fight of faith (1st Timothy 6:12). PCC refuses to earnestly contend for the faith (Jude 1:3). They meet three times a week at Campus Church, singing a bunch of religious songs, playing church as if it were a game, going through all the external motions. PCC is a religious cult, where the system always comes first and individual people don't matter.

When I attended Campus Church in 2021 for a few months, I didn't feel any Holy Spirit power. There was no soulwinning (they won't even use the term "soulwinning"). The weakly preaching from the church pulpit is formal, dry, dead and lacks passion. There was no love, compassion or genuine concern for me as a hurting human being. I poured out my heart to Pastor Jeff Redlin, as sincerely as any man could; but he harshly responded with cold-hearted callousness, woeful indifference, and he even rebuked me for daring to say that I hoped to remarry after being alone for the past 15 years (my former wife divorced me in 2006).

Kindly said, Pastor Jeff Redlin is an incompetent minister, the academic type, a rich yuppie (he gets paid an outrageous 6-digit salary as senior pastor). Jeff Redlin is not qualified in my humble opinion to be in the clergy. Yet he is influencing thousands of PCC students in a captive audience (that he didn't build). When I attended Campus Church, I saw dozens of young people playing with their mobile phones and gadgets during the church service, instead of listening to [1]Pastor Redlin's dry, boring and spiritually lifeless sermonettes.

Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College

I have been watching a very interesting series of documentaries on YouTube called: ’[2]Mayday,’ about plane crashes and the revealing investigations that follow. In the preceding video, the pilot takes off from the wrong runway, killing half of the passengers on the plane. The plane was headed from Taiwan to Los Angeles, fueled to the max with about 100,000 gallons of fuel. So when the plane crashed into some ground equipment on the wrong runway, the plane burst into flames. In the documentary, the co-pilot told the pilot that their glideslope (technology to help the pilot know where the runway is) meter was showing wrong. Yet the pilot ignored that warning. Why? In human psychology it is called “

Confirmation Bias

” (or “

Myside Bias

) ...

What is ’Confirmation Bias’ Psychology?

Before you can understand what confirmation bias psychology is, you have to know what the word bias means. The Oxford Dictionary defines bias as prejudice or inclination against or in favor of one person, a group, an idea, or a subject. For example, you may find that you have a bias against younger people when hiring for a job opening.

Bias is in all of us, whether we are conscious of it or not. Nobody can be completely unbiased because we all have feelings or opinions driving our biases. Unconscious bias is an instant feeling or thought you have about things, people, and subjects that you cannot control. Confirmation bias (also known as myside bias) is a type of cognitive bias that backs up your personal beliefs or feelings about things. It is the mind’s way of ignoring everything that does not support our ideas or views.

Confirmation Bias In Psychology

In social psychology, confirmation bias (or myside bias) is defined as an inability to see your circumstances objectively. While having a natural tendency to be unconsciously biased is normal, those who decide to believe something because they want it to be true are using myside bias.

According to the Quarterly Journal of Experimental Psychology, [3]confirmation bias posits that people tend to seek information and evidence that supports their existing beliefs.

This is like wishful thinking times 100 as the individual only sees things that they want to see, as they will search for information that supports their existing beliefs while disconfirming evidence that goes against their beliefs or desires.

Confirmation bias works as an effective way for individuals to process information and minimize cognitive dissonance that occurs with conflicting views and ideas.

SOURCE: [4]What Is Confirmation Bias Psychology?

And that is exactly why Pastors' Jeff Redlin and Timothy Zacharias of PCC's Campus Church refused to listened to THE TRUTH, when I gave it to them in 2021. Pastor Redlin told me in an email that the pastors of Campus Church as a group found fault with my website ministry. They all shamefully and wrongly accused me of "finding weaknesses in preachers," when in reality I am doing what they should be doing—"that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints" (Jude 1:3). The Bible says to "REBUKE THEM SHARPLY" who corrupt the simplicity of the Gospel (Titus 1:9-14).

I do not find weakness in preachers; but rather, I preach against the WICKEDNESS in pastors! Preaching the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation is not a weakness, it is wickedness according to Galatians 1:6-9! Using, selling and promoting Satan's corruptible seed (i.e., the modern perverted Bible revisions) is not a weakness, it is wickedness according to Proverbs 30:5-6! Bidding Godspeed to Pastor John MacArthur is not a weakness in pastors, it is wickedness according to 2nd John 1:11.

I was the only one who was doing the right thing at PCC (when I attended there in 2021), but they are evildoers according to 2nd John 1:11, "For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds." Pastor Jeff Redlin might as well preach the Devil's fraud of Lordship Salvation, because by sinfully bidding Godspeed to the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, he is a partaker of their evil deeds. Harvest Baptist Church has sinfully tried to hide their doctrinal beliefs, by removing their Statement of Faith from their church's website; but the fact that Harvest still wholeheartedly promotes Bob Jones University (BJU), and Dr. Steve Pettit's (BJU president since 2014) Calvinist preaching indicts them. The sad truth is that making money is the most important thing to BJU, PCC and Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. So they all ignore what each other preaches, looking the other way, pretending like it is not their business what each other does and teaches. But that is apostasy!!! RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!! [5]Look what evil Steve Pettit preaches at BJU to [6]thousands of staff and students.

The churches of Galatia counted the Apostle Paul (who started those churches years earlier), as their “enemy” for telling “THE TRUTH” (Galatians 4:15-17). I am not the bad guy here, I am the HERO according to God’s Word. I am trying to rescue the perishing, by exposing all the wolves in sheep’s clothing (e.g., Marty Herron, John MacArthur, Gary Walton, Chuck Phelps, Ray Comfort, Kirk Cameron, Steve Pettit, Sam Horn, John Hagee, Rick Warren, Joel Osteen, John Piper, Chip Ingram, William Lane Craig, J.D. Greear, Adrian Rogers, Billy Graham, Franklin Graham, Charles Stanley, Beth Moore, Pat Robertson, the Catholic Pope, Warren Jeffs, Ellen G. White, Doug Batchelor, et cetera).

In “ Confirmation Bias ” (or “ Myside Bias ”), someone has already made up their mind about someone or something, so that they put up a psychological defense in their mind, as you are trying to show them THE TRUTH in reality. That is what happened to the lukewarm church at Laodicea. In Revelation 3:17, “Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked:” What a disturbing paradox! This is just like so many churches today, who have tons of money and lots of members, thinking that God is blessing them greatly; but in reality they are spiritually naked, wretched and blind to their woeful horrible condition!!! That is Pensacola Christian College and their Campus Church!

That is NOT the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. It is much worse concerning Harvest and their [7]cult headquarters at Bob Jones University (BJU), because they are NOT saved at all. This is because the BJU camp trust in a counterfeit plan of salvation (aka, [8]Lordship Salvation - Matthew 7:21-23). They have never been born-again into God’s Kingdom, which is by faith alone in Jesus as the Christ, the only begotten Son of God; who died on the cross for our sins, was buried, and resurrected three days later (John 6:40; 1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

In social psychology, confirmation bias (or myside bias) is defined as an inability to see your circumstances objectively (i.e., you are under the mental power of a delusion). While having a natural tendency to be unconsciously biased is normal, those who decide to believe something because they want it to be true are using myside bias. That is why the 747 pilot in Taiwan took off on the wrong runway with 179 passengers and killed 83 of them!!! Everyone who was sitting in the middle of the plane, over the wing where all the fuel is stored, were burned alive.

The co-pilot warned the captain that something was not right (the glideslope was showing the plane was not where it was supposed to be), but the captain had Confirmation Bias (i.e., Myside Bias). That is, he was so sure in his OWN MIND that the plane was going down the correct runway, that he ignored contrary information from the co-pilot. Likewise, even though I have been diligently warning the Bob Jones University camp since 2014, that they are trusting in a wrong plan of salvation, they have totally ignored me due to their own Confirmation Bias. They are so sure that they are right, that nothing I say from the Bible has been taken seriously by them. The BJU crowd are taxing down the wrong runway, trusting in a counterfeit gospel that cannot produce the new birth, headed for imminent fiery destruction in Hell!!! Sadly, nobody is listening.

I was thinking about the Laodicean church in Revelation 3:15-18 today, and how it so perfectly illustrates Confirmation Bias. The lukewarm Campus Church at PCC, their college and alumni, all emphasis culture over contending for the faith. They dress fancy at PCC. They sing their proper music in church. They meet in extravagant multi-million dollar buildings. They have a snobby type of elite leadership in the PCC camp. They have hundreds of millions of dollars in real estate assets. They take in tens of millions of dollars. They are blinded by their worldly success. They fail to see that they are spiritually naked, wretched and blind to their woeful condition.

The Pensacola Christian College (PCC) camp are lukewarm, which Jesus said He vomits out of His mouth. They have no zeal to contend against false doctrine. They don't hate every false way. They just don't care about right doctrine. What they do care about is making more money! They do care about protecting the cult at all costs. Sadly, they don't care about individual people, like me. I literally pleaded to come back to Campus Church in 2022, but PCC leaders and the pastors of Campus Church all cruelly refused. That is hatred.

All across America PCC graduates are playing church, but they refuse to fight the good fight of faith. The Devil is in the Bible-publishing business! Since 1881, when Anglican infidel ministers Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort produced their corrupt Greek translation of the New Testament, literally HUNDREDS of Bible revisions have been published. HUNDREDS!!! Folks, God only authored ONE BOOK!!! Where is PCC in the battle over the Word of God? They are nowhere to be found. PCC calls truth-tellers like me, soldiers for Christ who actually fight the good fight of faith, "radical." I may be radical preacher, but Pastor Jeff Redlin is a deadbeat! The Laodicean church spoke highly of themselves, just like the PCC camp does, errantly thinking that they were prospering and in need of nothing (just like Campus Church). But Jesus Himself said that in reality they were wretched, naked and blind. THAT IS CAMPUS CHURCH AND PCC!

I heard a great sermon yesterday by Pastor Curtis Hutson, in which he makes this statement:

> "Evangelicalism and fundamentalism is not the same! When you rename it and call it: 'Evangelical Fundamentalism,' leave me out of it, you've changed it then. The thing that concerns me now, is so many young preacher boys who go off to college and don't even have a good class on Contemporary Theology. Because some preachers get up and push neo-evangelicalism and fundamentalism in the same expression, and try to make it one and the same, because they don't understand it. A lot of young preachers think it is the same. THERE'S A BIG, BIG, DIFFERENCE! Old evangelicalism based on the theology of fundamentalism was supplanted by neo-evangelicalism; based on the theology of infiltration rather than separation as the Bible clearly declared we ought to do." —Pastor Curtis Hutson, "[9]Things That Are Different Are Not The Same"

Dr. Hutson is so right. PCC shamefully bids Godspeed to the Calvinist Bob Jones University (BJU) camp. [10]Look at this demonic garbage that Dr. Steve Pettit (president of BJU since 2014) is preaching.

That is NOT the free grace Gospel. The shameful Harvest Baptist Church on Guam is in bed with BJU, because they are their graduates. It is tragic and apostasy that the PCC camp refuses to take a Biblical stand against the BJU camp and expose them, as I am faithfully doing. Pastor Redlin shamefully falsely accused me in July of 2021 of "finding weaknesses in preachers," when I reality (as Jesus showed John in Revelation 3:15-18), I am HOT for God, but PCC is LUKEWARM, and Harvest Baptist Church on Guam and BJU aren't even COLD, they aren't born-again believers at all!!! They are in the Lordship Salvation cult of Dr. John MacArthur, their hero whom they all idolize. SHAME on PCC leadership! SHAME on Campus

Church’s spoiled and indifferent pastors!

Y’all just keep playing church three times a week, and singing your insincere songs, puffed up in your Laodicean pride and blindness, while the BJU crowd continue to damn souls to Hell with your blessing. God is on my side (Romans 3:4). The pastors of Campus Church don’t care about RIGHT DOCTRINE or REBUKING FALSE PROPHETS, but I DO CARE, and GOD CARES. I seem to be the only one who cares about doing the right thing regarding PCC. Why doesn’t PCC contend for the Christian faith? Why do you all commit spiritual adultery with the accursed BJU camp and their false gospel and false bibles (Galatians 1:6-9)?

Thank you for reading.

3.9.22 Blessed Be The Name Of The Lord (2022-09-29 16:06)

Job 1:16-21,

While he was yet speaking, there came also another*, and said, The fire of God is fallen from heaven, and hath burned up the sheep, and the servants, and consumed them; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, The Chaldeans made out three bands, and fell upon the camels, and have carried them away, yea, and slain the servants with the edge of the sword; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, Thy sons and thy daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother’s house:

And, behold, there came a great wind from the wilderness, and smote the four corners of the house, and it fell upon the young men, and they are dead; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

Then Job arose, and rent his mantle, and shaved his head, and fell down upon the ground, and worshipped,

And said, Naked came I out of my mother’s womb, and naked shall I return thither: the LORD gave, and the LORD hath taken away; blessed be the name of the LORD. In all this Job sinned not, nor charged God foolishly.”

The true story of Job in the Old Testament is a very familiar one. Job was a godly man who feared God. Interestingly, it was God and not the Devil who suggested testing Job. That is a remarkable truth. God permitted Satan to destroy Job's life (Job 1:12). With God's permission, the Devil robbed Job of his children, servants, health and wealth. Job's crops were set on fire and his servants murdered by marauders

. A deadly tornado caused a building to collapse, killing jobs three daughters and ten sons. Jesus warns everyone in John 10:10 that the thief (Satan) only comes with evil intent to steal, and to kill, and to destroy"

(John 10:10b).

That old destroyer, the Serpent (Satan according to Revelation 20:2), came to steal, and to kill, and to destroy Eve's family and their happiness. In the Garden of Eden (in the Old Testament book of Genesis), there was only one sin that Adam and Eve could commit, which was to eat the fruit of the Tree of Knowledge. We don't know what type of fruit it was. Tradition claims that it was an apple (hence, a human's "

Adam's Apple

" lump in our throat

). Since Adam sewed fig leaves together, some Bible students think the fruit may have been a fig. However, we read in Genesis 2:9a,

"And out of the ground made the LORD God to grow every tree that is pleasant to the sight, and good for food;

" So there were present in the Garden of Eden

"every tree" that was edible.

Please notice that it was God Himself who created the forbidden Tree of Knowledge and its fruit. That is very interesting! The Lord Himself provided the only source of temptation for Adam and Eve, to test them. This teaches us an important Bible truth, that even when we walking in the perfect will of God as a believer, He will still test us. A FAITH MUST BE TESTED!!! Unshakable faith comes from having your faith shaken. Faith is like film it develops in the dark. Amen. Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do.

After God allowed the Devil to strip away everything Job held near and dear, destroying Job's life and happiness, the Lord then gave Satan permission to take away Job's good health. The Devil afflicted Job with boils from the crown of his head to the sole of his foot. Ouch!!! There are several truths which we can glean from the true account of Job:

1. The faith of every Christian will be tested by God (Hebrews 11:6)
2. God has placed a protective hedge around every saint (Job 1:10)
3. Just because bad things happen to us in life, doesn't mean God doesn't care ()

4. When bad things happen in life, it is often in rapid succession (Job 1:16, 17 and 18 - “While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said...”)
5. Just because bad things or poverty happen to us as God’s children, doesn’t in any way mean that we are being judged and afflicted by God because of sin (Job 1:1)
6. The Devil cannot hurt a child of God in any way without God’s permission (Job 1:12)
7. Satan needs additional permission from God, if he wants to afflict us more (Job 2:6-7)
8. Satan does have the power to cause loss of wealth, loved ones and health (Job 1:13-19)
9. Satan can control the weather with God’s permission (Job 1:19)
10. Living for the Lord caused Job’s suffering (Job 1:8-9). Don’t underestimate God’s will.
11. The Devil is a bum who wanders the earth seeking his next victim (1st Peter 5:8)
12. Your spouse may lose faith and discourage you during difficult times (Job 2:9-10)
13. Your friends may discourage and condemn you in difficult times (Job chapters 4-23)
14. God turned Job’s captivity when he prayed for his judgmental jerk friends (Job 42:10)
15. When all was said and done, God blessed Job with a double portion (Job 42:12)
16. After all of the hardships of Job, he rightly said: "Blessed be the name of the Lord."

Living for the Lord caused Job’s suffering. If Job hadn’t been such a godly man, this test likely never would have happened. It was because of Job’s impeccable walk with God that God challenged the Devil. Go figure! Truth is stranger than fiction! No one can outsmart God, so don’t even try dear reader.

Our part in life as God’s children is to

Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man

” (Ecclesiastes 12:13b). If serving God faithfully means that we will suffer for it, do without or even be martyred, then so be it. To lose something in the will of God is to find something better.

Famous martyred missionary to Ecuador, Jim Elliot (1927-1956) once said: “He is no fool who gives what he cannot keep, to gain that which he cannot lose.” What a great truth!!! Jim Elliot is speaking about Christian service, not salvation.

It is because Job lived faithfully for the Lord that everything went bad in his life, and his wife lost her faith and suggested for Job to curse God and die. It was because Job did the right thing, that all his close friends condemned him in their lack of understanding, so that Job said in Job 16:2, “I have heard many such things: miserable comforters are ye all.” Read what poor afflicted Job said in

All my inward friends abhorred me: and they whom I loved are turned against me.

” This is all befalling Job because HE DID THE RIGHT THING!!! I know how Job felt. I was the only one on Guam, at the Harvest Baptist Church, who did the right thing. I TOLD THE TRUTH, as a true friend does.

I TOLD THE TRUTH to Harvest’s rotten Bob Jones University alumni pastors (i.e., Marty Herron, Joe Hansen, Jared Baldwin, Gary Walton), for which they wickedly threw me under the bus in their hatred and resentment, feeding me to the hungry lions as Daniel. Those ungodly pastors at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, chose the love of money and the acceptance of their ministry peers at BJU (the praise of men versus the praise of God - John 12:42-43); rather than to suffer reproach for THE TRUTH (2nd Timothy 3:12), and be put outside the gate with me and Jesus (Galatians 4:16). The fastest way to get kicked out of a church and be recommended for therapy is to just TELL THE TRUTH!!!

John8:40, “ But now ye seek to kill me, a man that hath told you the truth, which I have heard of God: this did not Abraham.”

Just as the Jews killed the prophets that God sent to help them, throwing them under the bus; likewise did the wicked pastors of the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam throw me under the buss. They are arrogant and stiff-necked, thinking they are correct and I am wrong.

If these men of God are right, then so I am:

- Dear reader, if Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) was right (’[1]The Real Battle,’ MP3 sermon) that the only inspired Words of God are contained in the King James Bible, than I am right too. All of the modern Bible revisions are corrupt!
- If Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) was right that [2]Lordship Salvation is a perversion of the Gospel, than so am I right. BJU, Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, Pacific Garden Mission’s UNSHACKLED radio program, Marty Herron, Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary (Ankeny, Iowa), and John MacArthur are all guilty of preaching another gospel. God’s curse is upon them all (Galatians 1:6-9).
- If Pastor Hank Lindstrom (1940-2008) was right that a believer can live like the Devil, and still be 100 % assured of eternal security, than I am right too. ’[3]How Permanent Is Your Salvation’ (MP3 sermon).
- If Michael P. Bowen is right that Billy Graham, Franklin Graham, Beth Moore, Charles Stanley, Rick Warren, Joel Osteen, John Hagee and Pat Robertson are all damnable false prophets, than I am right too. See, ’[4]I Never Knew You’ (free .PDF book).
- If Pilgrim’s Progress book author John Bunyan (1628-1688) was right that [5]combining sanctification with justification corrupts the Word of God and places stumbling blocks before the people, then I am right in my preaching against Lordship Salvation.
- If Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold is right in [6]his preaching against infidel John MacArthur, than so also am I right in my faithful Bible preaching.

- Most of all, if the inspired King James Bible is right, than so am I right in my preaching from it's treasure trove of truths (Romans 3:4).

RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!!

I just heard this great quote from Pastor Yankee Arnold...

> "Pastors should not have a different Gospel. It should be the same Gospel. Now, we may present it different ways, but the Gospel should still be the Gospel. And preachers and evangelists and whoever—the message still has to be the same, if it is the Gospel. And if it is by grace, then it has to be FREE, and it must be FOREVER. If it's not free, it's not the Gospel; and if it's not forever, it's not the Gospel; because that's what makes it such a good thing. In other words, we are supposed to speak with words that are easy to be understood." —Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold, " [7]Is God Confused?"

[8]Beware of shallow pastors who compromise on truth.

Job said: BLESSED BE THE NAME OF THE LORD!!! That should also be our attitude no matter what happens in life. Just settle it in your mind friend, that GOD IS ALWAYS GOOD!!! God is more than amazing! God is so good! I refuse to place my God on trial every time things go wrong in my life. We are so spoiled rotten in America. Check this video out, about a primitive tribe (the Sentinelese), who have never seen the modern world...

What's Hidden on the Forbidden North Sentinel Island?

That is amazing!!! I thank and praise God for His bountiful blessings. Throughout history wicked people have rejected, shunned, ostracized, persecuted and even murdered God's prophets:

> Luke 11:50-51, "That the blood of all the prophets, which was shed from the foundation of the world, may be required of this generation; From the blood of Abel unto the blood of Zacharias, which perished between the altar and the temple: verily I say unto you, It shall be required of this generation."
>
> Luke 13:34, " O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, which killest the prophets, and stonest them that are sent unto thee; how often would I have gathered thy children together, as a hen doth gather her brood under her wings, and ye would not!
> **"

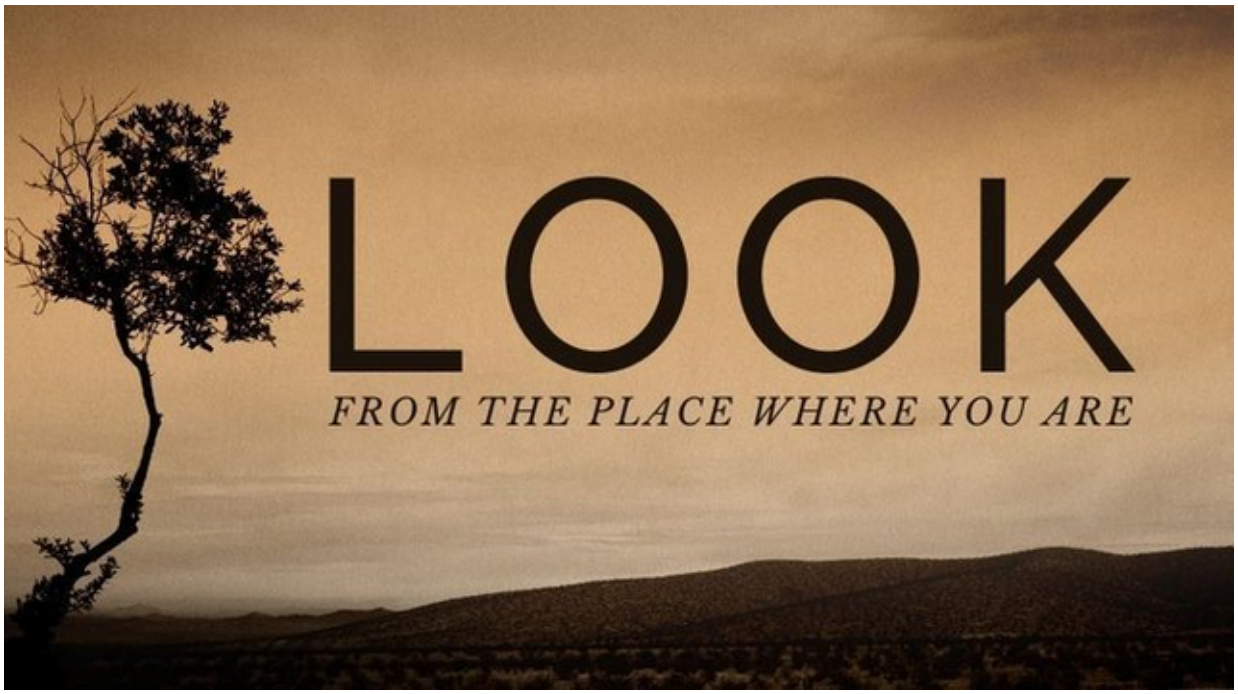
I know how they felt, being hated and shunned for TELLING THE TRUTH. I have been kicked out of multiple churches because I TOLD THE TRUTH. Sadly, Campus Church at Pensacola Christian Church is one of them. I rebuked their pastors for wickedly bidding Godspeed to the corrupt Bob Jones University camp, which includes the apostate Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. Like the Apostle Paul, they have counted me as their enemy for TELLING THE TRUTH (Galatians 4:16).



In today's Laodicean LUKEWARM churches, the Devil has crept his damnable doctrines into them. The Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation has crept into most Baptist churches, turning them into religious cults. No one is saved who thinks that eternal life is not free, that you must turn away from your sinful lifestyle to obtain it from God. No one is saved who thinks that God's free gift of eternal life can be lost, given back or forfeited by sinful behavior.

I attended a revival last year in Pensacola, at a local church. The church had invited a Bluegrass music group from Texas. Their music was beautiful. But on the last day of the revival, the woman who plays the double bass guitar gave her testimony. She said for several years she had thought she was saved, but then came to realize eventually that she had never turned away from her sinning. She said that now she is saved, because she has turned away from her sinful ways. I wanted to stand up and rebuke her in front of over 100 people, then walk out the door and never come back! Sadly, the church pastor never corrected her. The church pastor has blood on his hands for sanctioning damnable heresy!

Dear reader, you absolutely DON'T have to turn away from your sinful behavior to get to Heaven. Of course God wants (and even commands) all of His redeemed children to depart from iniquity; but that doesn't get you to Heaven!!! 2nd Timothy 2:19, " Nevertheless the foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity." Kindly said, that woman is not merely confused, she is also still unsaved. Nobody can be saved, until that guilty lost sinner comes to the realization that there is NOTHING he or she can do to get to Heaven, except to CEASE from their own works and wholly REST in the finished redemptive work of Jesus Christ (Hebrews 4:10-11). Jesus died on a cross to pay for our debt of sin. He was buried. Three days later Christ resurrected from the dead. This is the Gospel (1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

May we all have the excellent spirit of Job, who after losing everything said: “Blessed be the name of the Lord!”

3.9.23 A Proper Attitude Toward Sinners (2022-09-29 22:49)

Psalms 106:6, “ We have sinned with our fathers, we have committed iniquity, we have done wickedly.”

The Word of God teaches that all mankind are sinners. NO ONE is a shining example of what the rest of us should be like. Although it is possible to live above REPROACH, no one is capable of living above SIN. We are all dirty, rotten, guilty, sinners in God’s eyes. James 2:10 teaches that committing even one sin makes us guilty of all sins, that is, even one sin is enough to send a person to the Lake of Fire forever and ever.

It matters not how big or little of a sinner you may think you are in your own eyes, the Bible warns that we are all filthy sinners, and all sinners go to Hell unless those sins are forgiven in Christ Jesus. Pastor Jack Hyles used to beautifully say... "First Baptist Church of Hammond will become a great church when we stop saying, 'He has sinned!' and 'She has sinned!' and we start saying, 'WE HAVE SINNED!"'

Thankfully Jesus paid the price for OUR SINS on the cross of Calvary's hill, or else we'd all go straight to Hell and get the eternal punishment in fire that we deserve. We have ALL SINNED and the only way of escape is through God's righteousness which is BY FAITH in Jesus Christ:

> Romans 3:19-23, "Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God. Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin. But now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets; Even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference: For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God."

Isn't that beautiful? The Bible speaks of the "righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ." The Bible teaches that there is NO DIFFERENCE between one person verses another, for ALL HAVE SINNED. No one has arrived. No human being can boast of their own goodness and lack of wickedness. Everyone's sins are either known beforehand or afterwards at the judgment when we all stand before God and give account for our life...

> 1st Timothy 5:24-25, "Some men's sins are open beforehand, going before to judgment; and some men they follow after. Likewise also the good works of some are manifest beforehand; and they that are otherwise cannot be hid."

Like king David in the Bible, who was quick to judge others before he went into what is often called "deep sin" himself (2nd Samuel 12:5-6), we all tend to be very self-righteous and hard on others who sin. This is because most people don't know what it is like to suffer public shame for their sins, enduring total humiliation, being stigmatized, being shunned by a community for doing wrong, and even in some cases going to prison. When this happens to a Christian, their entire viewpoint forever changes (2nd Samuel 12:7; Psalms 119:67,71), bringing a new grasp of the abounding love, grace and mercy of God which has been provided to us all through the sacrifice of Jesus Christ on the cross. You'll never fully fathom the depths of God's love and forgiveness until you've been brought low yourself as a big sinner, hitting rock bottom in the eyes of God and man.

> "God will still use you, I don't care what you've done!" —Pastor Jack Hyles, "[1]If Thou Should Mark Iniquities, Who Could Stand?"

I'll guarantee you that the adulterous women who was dragged by the Pharisees before the presence of the Lord in John 8:1-11 to be stoned, but was then pardoned by the Lord and released, never would have thereafter condemned anyone for their sins. In other words, if you ever come to the realization that you are a woeful sinner in the eyes of God, you'll never point a finger of condemnation at anyone again. It's not as easy to gossip when you're a known criminal or the biggest sinner in town.

The reality of the matter is that we are all horrible sinners and criminals to some degree. If you've ever deliberately drove 5-miles over the speed limit, you are a law-breaking criminal. The truth is that we are all deep sinners. There is no such thing as white sins, or little sins. There is no such thing as venial sins nor mortal sins (a false doctrine of the Roman Catholic Church). Not praying is just as wicked as murdering someone. Gossiping is just as sinful as homosexuality. All sin is horrible in God's eyes. We are all woeful sinners!

[2] The Good Man Verses The Spiritual Man

(a beautiful life-changing MP3 sermon by Pastor Jack Hyles)

Perhaps you don't consider yourself a horrible sinner. If so, you're deceived. If you're in the habit of reading bad news in your local newspaper everyday, then you likely think you're not so bad compared to the horrible stories you read. Yet, as we just learned from James 2:10 and 1st Timothy 5:24-25, we are all guilty criminals in God's eyes. I love the following quote by Pastor Jack Hyles:

> "If we could ever hate the sin in ourselves as much as we hate the sin in others, we might have some idea what His Book is all about." —Pastor Jack Hyles (a quote from page 322 of the awesome biography of Dr. Hyles titled, "The Fundamental Man")

Are You A Restorer Or Accuser Of Our Brethren?

Galatians 6:1-2, "Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, restore such an one in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted. Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ."

The following helpful words are from chapter two of Pastor Jack Hyles excellent book titled, [3]HOW TO TREAT DIFFERENT TYPES OF CHURCH MEMBERS:

> 8. The word, "bear," in Galatians 6:2 implies that we are to bear the guilt of the fallen and restored one. Then the word "burdens" in Galatians 6:2 teaches us that we are to enter into the yoke with them and to pull with them in order to help them to win the victory and gain strength. God is telling us here that when one sins, all have sinned. It would be a wonderful day for churches when every member takes the blame for the sin of one and realizes that the sin of one is really the sin of all.
> SOURCE: Dr. Jack Hyles, chapter 2, [4]Treatment Of The Fallen, from his classic book, [5]HOW TO TREAT DIFFERENT TYPES OF CHURCH MEMBERS

Isn't that beautiful! When a fellow brother or sister in the Lord sins, we are supposed to enter into the yoke of burden with them, as if we had sinned our self, and help carry their sorrow, grief and shame. Instead of saying like the heathen world, "he has sinned" or "she has sinned," we ought to say in meekness, humility and unconditional love, "WE HAVE SINNED." Amen!

Notice that the Word of God defines a "hypocrite" as someone who considers another person as being a more rotten sinner than them self:

> Matthew 7:1-5, "Judge not, that ye be not judged. For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again. And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Or how wilt thou say to thy brother, Let me pull out the mote out of thine eye; and, behold, a beam is in thine own eye? Thou hypocrite, first cast out the beam out of thine own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother's eye."

The truth is that judgmental people only do so because there is sin in their own life. For if a believer truly walks in harmony, in sweet fellowship, with the dear Savior, there is going to be a spirit of meekness and humility toward others who have gone into sin. God is in the ministry of restoration, not destruction:

> Luke 9:51-56, "And it came to pass, when the time was come that he should be received up, he stedfastly set his face to go to Jerusalem, And sent messengers before his face: and they went, and entered into a village of the Samaritans, to make ready for him. And they did not receive him, because his face was as though he would go to Jerusalem. And when his disciples James and John saw this, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we command fire to come down from heaven, and consume them, even as Elias did? But he turned, and rebuked them, and said, Ye know not what manner of spirit ye are of. For the Son of man is not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them. And they went to another village."

Whereas we read in John 4:42 concerning another group of Samaritans who received the Lord, this particular group in Luke 9:51-56 didn't. The disciples were upset and asked Jesus if He was going to command them to pray down fire and brimstone to destroy the people for their unbelief. Jesus looked at them like they were insane and said He came to save sinners, not destroy them. Luke 19:10, "For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost."

How tragic it is that we destroy each other in our churches these days, ready to bring down the wrath of God upon our sisters and brothers with whom we disagree. Truly, the Christian army is the only army in the world that slays its wounded. Proverbs 10:12, "Hatred stirreth up strifes: but love covereth all sins." Galatians 5:15, "But if ye bite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed one of another." God hates gossip, backbiting and believers hurting one another. Jesus Christ Himself came as a humble servant, washing the stinking, dirty, feet of His disciples. The Lord commanded us to do the same to each other, caring for one another in love and sincerity of heart. The Bible says in Galatians 6:2 to "Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ." Everyone has burdens."

My friend, whether you love or hate others is never put to the test more than when someone(s) sins. The Bible says that hatred stirreth up strifes; but love covers ALL SINS. That means what's in the past stays there. What HAPPENS at Grandma's house STAYS at grandma's house!!! If God forgave us, so also should we forgive others.

> "If there's anybody in the Bible that God had disdain for, it was those that had disdain for other sinners!" —an awesome quote from the MP3 sermon by Dr. Jack Hyles titled, "[6]If Thou Should Mark Iniquities, Who Could Stand?"

Those Sinful Christians!

The Godless world gnashes upon the righteous with their teeth the Bible says, meaning that the world hates Jesus Christ and anyone who is a born-again Christian (John 15:19). The heathen world scrutinize our every word and action, looking for something to discredit our testimony for the Lord. They are doing exactly what their spiritual father Satan does best, that is, accuse the brethren day-and-night before God.

When you're a Christian, the whole world is waiting for you to fall. As you just read in Matthew 7:1-5, the Bible warns about condemning others because of their sins. God is the only judge (James 4:12). That's not to say that we as Christian believers shouldn't take a Biblical stand against present-day wickedness, evil agendas and those who openly parade their sins in public. But rather, it means that past sins ought to be left buried where they are.

Proverbs 10:12, "Hatred stirreth up strifes: but love covereth all sins." The way of the Devil is to ACCUSE others. You're never more like the Devil himself than when you bring up the past sins of others to embarrass, discredit, hurt, assassinate their character or shame them. If the truth be told, you're just as much a guilty sinner as the next person. Satan is called "THE ACCUSER OF OUR BRETHREN"...

> Revelation 12:10, "And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night."

Let me ask you my friend, what is your attitude toward others who go into sin. Do you immediately condemn them? Do you go around gossiping to everyone, "Hey, did you hear about so-and-so? Can you believe what that person did?" Would you damn them to Hell if you had such power? Or do you pray for that person and say in your heart, "But for the grace of God, there go I."

You ought to feel sorrow in your heart for that person and their loved ones, pondering that it could easily be you instead in that situation.

It could be you going to prison. It could be you going through a divorce. It could be you losing your life because of sin. You ought to be thinking, "WE HAVE SINNED!" I read a wonderful Scripture in church tonight at our Wednesday evening Bible study from Psalms 106:6, "WE HAVE SINNED with our fathers, WE HAVE COMMIT INIQUITY, WE HAVE DONE WICKEDLY."

Even the best of Christians are still sinners in the mortal flesh, prone to disobedience and anger. If we walk in the Spirit we will not fulfill the lusts of the flesh. Albeit, we won't always choose to walk in the Spirit because we are still sinners by nature, until the Lord returns and gives us our glorified new body. Amen!

So I say to all my web visitors, whoever you may be... WE HAVE SINNED!!!

> "The Devil will make you guilty about your past... You're not worthy to serve God, but neither is anybody else worthy to serve God, and so God's gotta have unworthy people serving Him... That's one reason why we should do everything we can to salvage people." —a beautiful quote from the MP3 sermon by Dr. Jack Hyles titled, "[7]If Thou Should Mark Iniquities, Who Could Stand?"

Every Christian Believer Has Jesus For Our Attorney In Heaven

1st John 2:1, "My little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous." The Greek word for "advocate" is parakletos and means "to run to one's side to help." Hence, Jesus will be our defense attorney on Judgment Day in eternity. Christ Himself will speak on our behalf, because our sins have been cleansed away by His precious, literal, physical, blood.

Thankfully, Jesus offers to be our Advocate (Defense Attorney) . . . "And if any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous." The word "advocate" coms from the Greek word parakletos and means "an intercessor." Hence, Jesus Christ is our defense attorney who intercedes for us in God's divine court. This is only made possible by the blood sacrifice of Jesus Christ:

> 1st Peter 1:18-19, "Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers; But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot."

If it weren't for Christ's sacrifice, then divine justice would not be possible for mankind. The penalty for sin had to be paid. Either we had to spend eternity in the Lake of Fire, or else God's Son had to suffer in our place and suffer the wrath of God the Father, Who forsook His Son at Calvary. God only turns His back on Christ-rejecters Who die in their sins. They have chosen by their own unbelief to pay for their own sins. Jesus shed His physical blood for our sins at Calvary, to pay for our sins, thus enabling God the Father (the Prosecutor) to offer mankind complete justification. of debt.

> Galatians 6:1-2, "Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, restore such an one in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted. Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ." ... James 2:10, "For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all."

Romans 4:5, "But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness." WE HAVE ALL SINNED! But the Bible promises that God will count our faith in place of a righteous life. So no matter how evil, sinful, rotten and wicked you may be, God will still save you merely by your faith in the Gospel. That is, if you'll receive Christ's death, burial and resurrection as full-payment for your sins, then you'll be eternally and immediately saved. GOOD IS GOOD! GOD IS GOOD!! GOD IS SO GOOD!!!

"All you have to do is accept His gift of eternal life and you'll go to Heaven when you die!" —Pastor Jack Hyles, an awesome quote from the helpful sermon titled: "[8]I Find No Fault In This Man!"

3.9.24 America Is Going To Hell Because Of Neo-Evangelicals (2022-09-30 11:15)

Revelation 3:1-2, "And unto the angel of the church in Sardis write; These things saith he that hath the seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars; I know thy works, that thou hast a name that thou livest, and art dead. Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God."

Neo-evangelicalism is a deadly infectious disease, which has crept into most of our churches today. Tragically this includes most so-called " independent

Baptist churches.

The word "neo" means "new." Today's churches are infatuated with a new modern kind of music, a new type of less offensive preaching from the pulpit, a new tolerant attitude toward homosexuals, new Bible revisions, a new understanding of Bible repentance which requires a change of behavior to get to Heaven, et cetera. New is not always good! Here is a helpful quote from former faithful Sword of the Lord editor, Dr. Curtis Hutson:

> "Evangelicalism and fundamentalism is not the same! When you rename it and call it: 'Evangelical Fundamentalism,' leave me out of it, you've changed it then. The thing that concerns me now, is so many young preacher boys who go off to college and don't even have a good class on Contemporary Theology. Because some preachers get up and push neo-evangelicalism and fundamentalism in the same expression, and try to make it one and the same, because they don't understand it. A lot of young preachers think it is the same. THERE'S A BIG, BIG, DIFFERENCE! Old evangelicalism based on the theology of fundamentalism was supplanted by neo-evangelicalism; based on the theology of infiltration rather than separation as the Bible clearly declared we ought to do." [emphasis added] —Pastor Curtis Hutson, "[1]Things That Are Different Are Not The Same"

Neo-evangelicalism is ruining our country. Walk into nearly any Baptist church today and you will hear Calvinism being taught. People are quick to get angry, defensive and malicious over their religious beliefs, that their incompetent pastors has brainwashed them with. I'm talking about the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation. Dr. Jack Hyles wrote these helpful words:

> Lordship salvation would make salvation a trade or a deal or maybe even a bribe. It would take away the simple reception of Christ for eternal life and would become God giving us something if we give Him something. God would say to us, "You give Me something; I'll give you something. We will trade, and you will be saved." Salvation is not my giving God something and God giving me something; salvation is God giving me something and my receiving it. Romans 6:23, "For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord." —Pastor Jack Hyles, "Lordship Salvation" (chapter 11 from his book: "Salvation Is More Than Being Saved")

I love this helpful quote from Pastor Harry Ironside (1876-1951):

> “When anyone comes promising salvation to those ‘who make full surrender’ of all that they have to God, and who ’pay the price of full salvation’ he is preaching another gospel, for the price was paid on Calvary’s cross and the work that saves is finished. It was Christ Jesus who made the full surrender when He yielded His life on Calvary that saves us, not our surrender in any way to Him.” —Dr. Harry A. Ironside, from the Gospel tract, ’[2]Another Gospel’

The music is so terrible in today’s lifeless churches. The old hymns of the Christian faith had a beautiful melody to them. Whereas music nowadays is boring, monotone, lacking melody and does not stir the heart the way it should. Modern Contemporary Christian Music (CCM) will catapult the listener into the emotional astrosphere, but there is no practical application. That is, there is no doctrine. I mean, look at the life-changing words from this old hymn, “On Christ The Solid Rock I Stand”

> My hope is built on nothing less
> Than Jesus’ blood and righteousness;
> I dare not trust the sweetest frame,
> But wholly lean on Jesus’ name.
> On Christ, the solid Rock, I stand;
> All other ground is sinking sand,
> All other ground is sinking sand.

Now read the lame contemporary lyrics from the popular song

“

You Say

by Lauren Daigle:

> I keep fighting voices in my mind that say I’m not enough
> Every single lie that tells me I will never measure up
>
> Am I more than just the sum of every high and every low > Remind me once again just who I am because I need to know
> Ooh-oh

No wonder our churches are falling apart! This is the insanity of the neo-evangelical movement across America, and it is dangerous. They can keep their new everything, just give me the old time-tested inspired King James Bible. Just give me the old-time religion that preached a simple free grace Gospel, not this crazy heretical Lordship Damnation today (aka, Lordship Salvation).

Please dear reader, RUN from neo-evangelical churches. Neo-evangelicals refuse to contend for the Christian faith, and why would they, since they cannot even make up their mind which Bible version God's authored?

Holy Bible Wickedly Changed For Copyright Reasons

I detest the neo-evangelical movement today. The neo-evangelicals at Bob Jones University camp are leading the way in apostasy. The [4]Southern Baptist Convention (SBC) has gone totally apostate!!! New SBC president [5]J.D. Greear says that Christians ought to be the fiercest advocates of the LGBTQ homosexual community. That is blasphemy against God. Apostasy (a turning away from the God of the inspired King James Bible) is everywhere today!

Women in the neo-evangelical movement all wear pants, halter tops, slacks on the ballfield, and spandex while walking down the neighborhood with their children. It is horrible! Morality is not a priority in today's new churches. Sin is not preached against. There is no mention of a burning Hell with fire, brimstone and torment for unbelieving sinners (John 3:36; Revelation 21:8). Neo-evangelicals won't stand against anything, except against THE TRUTH. They coddle their congregations with dozens of Bible perversions, damn men's souls to Hell with a counterfeit gospel of partial faith in Christ plus works (aka, the damnable heresy that you must turn away from a lifestyle of sinning in order to get to Heaven).

I thank God the the truly fundamental Baptist churches across America that are still fighting the good fight of faith. Man's churches are corrupt, but God's local New Testament churches are still going strong. You don't here about them, little church families tucked away in rural country towns all across the country, faithfully serving the Lord. The megachurches are all a big mess!
Please look for a church that only uses one Bible, the inspired King James Bible. Only attend a church that preaches a free grace Gospel, salvation by faith alone in the Gospel (Good News) of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen. RUN from any church whose pastors says you must forsake your sins to be saved. That is works!!!

Neo-evangelicals don't pay attention to the details. They are okay with using dozens of different Bible versions. They are okay with having multiple plans of salvation. Neo-evangelicals view a free grace Gospel and Lordship Salvation as both falling within the realm of orthodox theology, but nothing could be further from THE TRUTH.

Take a look and compare what Dr. Curtis Hutson taught about salvation, versus what Dr. John MacArthur heretically teaches:

[6]Curtis Hutson

[7]John MacArthur

There simply cannot be two Gospels. Galatians 1:6-7 confirm this truth, "I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ."

- Marty Herron perverts the Gospel of Christ, adding the unbiblical requirement to forsake a lifestyle of sinning to get to Heaven.
- Billy Graham perverts the Gospel of Christ, adding the unbiblical requirements that you must count the cost and pay the price of confessing Christ publicly, taking up your cross and following Christ as Lord.
- Steve Pettit perverts the Gospel of Christ, adding the requirement that you must faithfully run the Christian race until the end of life, in order to earn the reward of Heaven (those are his own words).
- John MacArthur perverts the Gospel of Christ, by authoring a book titled: "Hard To Believe" in which he adds the unbiblical requirement to surrender all of your ambitions, your will and your life to serve Christ faithfully, and to forsake your lifestyle of sinning, to forsake the world, and to follow Jesus as your "Lord" no matter what the cost may be.
- Joel Osteen perverts the Gospel of Christ, adding the unbiblical requirements to repent of (turn away from) your sinning, and to surrender to Jesus as absolute "Lord" of your life.
- Ken Ham perverts the Gospel of Christ, by adding the unbiblical requirement to "turn from your sinful ways" to get to Heaven.

I've only mentioned a handful of deadly FALSE PROPHETS today, who are damning multitudes of souls to the Lake of Fire. Please BEWARE of anything "new." Please BEWARE of neo-evangelical churches!!!

3.10.1 God's Very Simple Plan Of Salvation (2022-10-02 17:34)

2nd Corinthians 11:1-4, "Would to God ye could bear with me a little in my folly: and indeed bear with me. For I am jealous over you with godly jealousy: for I have espoused you to one husband, that I may present you as a chaste virgin to Christ. But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ. For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him."

Since the beginning of human civilization, the Devil has tried to tempt humans to disobey God. The Devil's name is Satan, who fell from his lofty position as one of God's archangels in Heaven. In Ezekiel 28:11-17 we find what is called in theology, " [1]Double Fulfillment .

" That is, this passage of Scripture has two parallel applications. Although Ezekiel 28:11-17 is speaking about the king of Tyrus, it also describes Lucifer and his fall from glory. We see another example of Double Fulfillment in Hebrews chapter 7, which speaks of Melchisedec. This passage is also clearly about the precious Lord Jesus Christ, who is without beginning or end, the King of Righteousness (Hebrews 7:1-4).

Lucifer became Satan, a malicious spirit being who labors night and day to kill, steal and destroy. As such, the Devil desires for for and everyone else to go to Hell forever. Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born-again. Sadly, it is rare nowadays to hear preachers even use the term "

born-again.

" What saith the Scripture? John 3:3,

"Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God."

So how do you get born again? What does that even mean? Well, the Bible says that when Adam sinned in the Garden of Eden, death passed upon all men. Romans 5:12, "

Wherefore, as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned:

(For until the law sin was in the world: but sin is not imputed when there is no law.

" Every human being born into this world since Adam, has been born with an inherent sinful nature. It is a part of who we are as humans. Children do not need to be taught how to lie, cheat and do wrong; they need to be trained up to tell the truth, be honest and to always do what is right.

Because of our sins, there is a penalty, which according to the Bible is death. Romans 6:23, "For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord. " Carefully notice the contrast in Romans 6:23, between the deadly wages of sin that we deserve, versus the free gift of eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord. No one needs to go to Hell forever. God desires for all men, even the worst of criminals, to repent of their unbelief and come to Jesus Christ in faith to be saved (2nd Peter 3:6).

Also, please understand that there is a difference between being spiritually dead versus the second death in the Lake of Fire. Every human being is born spiritually dead (Ephesians 2:1-2). But only Christ-rejecters are case into the everlasting Lake of Fire (Hell). Those sinners who never trust Christ as their Savior will perish in their unregenerated state. They were born spiritually dead into this world, and they will die spiritually dead. That is why everyone must be "

born again,

" it is not optional if you want to enter into the Kingdom of God.

You would be shocked friend, if in the Baptist church that you hopefully attend, you start asking the people around you if they know for certain they're going to Heaven. Ask them why they know. You will be shocked, as I was, to learn that at least half of them haven't a clue. I'm not kidding. I know a good elderly man, who has been an usher in a local Baptist church in Pensacola for the past five years, but when I witnessed to him, he told me that water baptism is necessary to go to Heaven. That is his pastor's fault for not feeding his congregation.

In that dear man's church, the pastor is always telling everyone that they must have "

a relationship

with Christ to get to Heaven. What does that even mean? Judas had

with Jesus, but John 6:70 says Judas had a devil in him. Judas died in his sins because of unbelief, and is sadly burning in Hell forever. The unsaved wicked Pharisees also had

with Jesus, but perished in their sin of unbelief. I am so thankful that I know I am a born-again child of God. If you don't know that friend, you can and should KNOW beyond any shadow of a doubt (1st John 5:13).

Salvation is solely based on what Christ has already DONE for you through Calvary's cross, and the blood which He sprinkled on the Mercy Seat in Heaven (Hebrews 9:12, 22-24; 12:24). So many churchgoers have been lied to, misled by their heathen pastor to think that they are saved by partial faith in Christ, PLUS something else (repenting of sin, following Christ as Lord, living the Christian life, et cetera). I tell you that there is no plus anything in God's simple plan of redemption. You simply CEASE from your own false religious dead works (i.e., trusting in Roman Catholicism, good works, Mother Mary, the Pope, Mormonism, Hara Krishna, religion, sacraments, et cetera), and come to God as a needy guilty sinner, completely RESTING in the finished redemptive work of Jesus Christ (Hebrews 4:10-11). That is what repentance is, a change of mind, turning from your UNBELIEF to BELIEF in Jesus as the Christ, the only begotten Son of God. When the Roman jailer asked Paul and Silas the $64,000 question: "What must I do to be saved?," the answer was a simple: "BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST" (Acts 16:30-31).

It is important that you understand what you are being saved from. That is why I took the time to explain these things to you friend. It is not enough to merely believe the Good News of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen to get to Heaven; you absolutely must realize and admit to yourself and God that YOU ARE A GUILTY SINNER:

> Romans 3:18-20, " There is no fear of God before their eyes. Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God. Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin."

God made two great divisions to His inspired Word: Old Testament and New Testaments (or respectively, LAW and CHRIST). Galatians 3:24-26, "

Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith.

But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster. For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.

" God's Old Testament law (which is summed up in the Ten Commandments) was intended by God to be used as a measuring-stick, by which when compared humans fall short of being sinless and perfect. Thus, realizing our shortcomings to perfectly keep God's law, we then realize our need for the blessed Savior, Jesus. That is what Galatians 3:24-26 is teaching.

This should make it obvious to you then, dear reader, why it is so wrong for any preacher to falsely teach that you must turn away from your sinful ways to be saved. [2]Evangelist Ken Ham preaches this damnable heresy! Forsaking your sinful ways was never the intended purpose of God's law. Does God want you to turn away from a deliberate lifestyle of sinning? Yes, of course, but that has absolutely nothing to do with receiving His free gift of eternal life. You must keep living the Christian life (which is our SERVICE for Christ, or sanctification); completely separate from getting born-again (which is SALVATION in Christ, or justification.

Pilgrim's Progress book author John Bunyan (1628-1688) well understood this very important distinction, as a free grace preacher of the saving Gospel:

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." —Evangelist John Bunyan

Also, Pastor M.R. DeHaan (1891-1965) had a very good understanding of this important distinction between sanctification and justification:

> "There is a vast difference between coming to Jesus for salvation and coming after Jesus for service. Coming to Christ makes one a believer, while coming after Christ makes one a disciple. All believers are not disciples. To become a believer one accepts the invitation of the Gospel, to be a disciple one obeys the challenge to a life of dedicated service and separation. Salvation comes through the sacrifice of Christ; discipleship comes only by sacrifice of self and surrender to His call for devoted service. Salvation is free, but discipleship involves paying the price of a separated walk. Salvation can't be lost because it depends upon God's faithfulness, but discipleship can be lost because it depends upon our faithfulness."
>

> Pastor M.R. DeHaan, Hebrews. Zondervan Publishing House, 1959 (p. 117)

I hope you can now see dear reader why it is so very, very, very important to always keep getting saved completely separate from changes in our behavior, serving Christ, following Him as "

of our life, turning away from our sinful ways, repenting of sin, running the Christian race faithfully, taking up our cross, giving up the old ways, surrendering

all

to Christ, counting the cost and paying the price, forsaking a lifestyle of sinning, living a lifestyle of repentance, et cetera, et cetera.

All of the preceding vain things have been wickedly added to the Gospel by today’s corrupt neo-evangelical pastors, evangelists and Bible college professors. You may do all of these noble things and yet never have been saved at all. You don’t get born-again by doing good works. You don’t get born-again through the sacrament of water baptism.

Sacraments

” are totally unbiblical and you ought never give any attention to such nonsense. The Bible teaches water baptism as a public profession of one’s faith, but it is a command for BELIEVERS only, not a sacrament of any church. Likewise, the Lord’s Supper is a command from God only for BELIEVERS, a time to remember what Jesus has done for on through Calvary’s cruel cross. Please do not ever think, refer or partake of any sacraments, because they are unbiblical. There is no spiritual grace or power bestowed upon the recipient of water baptism or the communion. Beware of formal religion that corrupts the truth of God’s inspired Word.

I love this helpful quote from Pastor Harry A. Ironside (1876-1951), which shows that Dr. Ironside had a very sound understanding that our service, sanctification and discipleship as Christian believers, has absolutely nothing to do with receiving God’s free gift of eternal life by faith alone in Jesus Christ:

> “The Gospel is not a call to repentance, or to amendment of our ways, to make restitution for past sins, or to promise to do better in the future. These things are proper in their place, but they do not constitute the Gospel; for the Gospel is not good advice to be obeyed, it is good news to be believed. Do not make the mistake then of thinking that the Gospel is a call to duty or a call to reformation, a call to better your condition, to behave yourself in a more perfect way than you have been doing in the past …
>
> Nor is the Gospel a demand that you give up the world, that you give up your sins, that you break off bad habits, and try to cultivate good ones. You may do all these things, and yet never believe the Gospel and consequently never be saved at all.”
>
> SOURCE: Harry A. Ironside, from the sermon: [3]What Is The Gospel?

One of my favorite authors is Michael P. Bowen. In his excellent defense of the Christian faith titled, ’[4]I NEVER KNEW YOU,’ Michael Bowen writes these wonderful words:

> I am at eternal odds with the false, counterfeit messages of salvation-by-works that are taught from virtually every pulpit today, on every television channel, and on every Christian radio station; however, I am not at eternal odds with the individuals who preach these counterfeit messages. My heart literally goes out to all of them because they simply do not understand Christ's plan of salvation. They have been lied to by a crafty enemy named Satan, whose sole aim is to take as many people with him to the lake of fire as he can possibly manage to steal away from God using a counterfeit plan of salvation that appears so real, so genuine, and so holy that few ever realize they have been deceived by it. Oh reader, so many of today's professing Christians who think they are going to heaven when they die are not going to make it to heaven as they had assumed because they've been lied to by today's error-filled gospel messages.

A tree without fruit is still a tree with roots. This is evidenced by the [7]parable of the sower and the seed in Luke 8:12-15. Of the four groups, only the first group are unsaved, because the Devil removed the seed from their soul before it could sprout into new life. The second and third groups represent believers who never mature to bear fruit (leading others to Christ). They never matured into fruit-bearing Christians, because of their shallow roots; or because as with the third group, they become choked by the cares, riches and pleasures of this life. Ah, but the fourth group matured, having a good and honest heart the Bible says, keeping the Lord's Word, bearing much fruit unto Christ (cf., John 15:1-7). Just because the second and third groups didn't bear fruit, didn't mean they were not saved (as [8]Ray Comfort errantly teaches).

I have shared these truths with you dear reader, to help solidify your understanding of what the Gospel is not. More people will miss Heaven someday simply because they trusted in TOO MUCH! Everything that is complicated about getting saved is God's part. The only thing that God demands of us to be born-again is to place our childlike faith in Jesus, His only begotten Son.

God's simple plan of salvation is so easy, free and plain to understand that even a small child can be saved. God needed to make His plan of salvation so simple, because the world is full of ignorant, unlearned and stupid people. I say that respectfully and with kindness, but it is THE TRUTH. There are a lot of not so bright humans on the planet. That doesn't make them better or worse than anyone else, it just means that God needed to make His plan of redemption for mankind utterly uncomplicated.

In 2nd Corinthians 11:3-4 the Bible even refers to the saving Gospel as "the simplicity that is in Christ." We are saved by BELIEVING the Gospel. The "

Gospel

means GOOD NEWS!!! It is the

Good News

(or

) that God sent His only begotten Son, Jesus, into the world, to die on a cross to pay our massive debt of sin. Jesus died on a cross! He was buried. And three days later Christ bodily resurrected by a miracle of God from the dead. These three things comprise THE GOSPEL: Jesus’ death on the cross, burial and physical resurrection.

> 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, “Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand;
>
> By which also ye are saved*, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain.
>
> For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures;
> And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:”

There you have it, THE GOSPEL!!! I didn’t see anything in there about turning away from sinful ways, did you? Nope! Oh, how men make everything complicated! God’s simple plan of salvation is to just put your childlike faith (confidence, trust) in Jesus Christ. God knows that you and I have never seen Jesus, so it is okay to just believe on His name. John 1:12, “ But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name:” Just take God at His Word as recorded in the Holy Bible. Simply BELIEVE the record which God Has given us in His Word of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen for our justification. What an awesome God and Savior!!!

3.10.2 Individuals Don't Matter At Pensacola Christian College (2022-10-03 12:43)

1st Corinthians 12:22-25, "Nay, much more those members of the body, which seem to be more feeble, are necessary: And those members of the body, which we think to be less honourable, upon these we bestow more abundant honour; and our uncomely parts have more abundant comeliness. For our comely parts have no need: but God hath tempered the body together, having given more abundant honour to that part which lacked: That there should be no schism in the body; but that the members should have the same care one for another."

In our text passage, the Apostle Paul is teaching that EVERYBODY IS IMPORTANT!!! Even the most seemingly insignificant among us in the churches, matter to God. When I attended Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College (PCC) in 2021, their senior pastor, Jesus Redlin, marginalized me as a human being. When I confided in him that I was divorced since 2006, and hoping to find a wife, he belittled me, even scolding me for hoping to find a wife at church. He falsely accused me of only coming to church to find a wife, which I never said. He assumed that false notion. I realized quickly that Jeff Redlin is a very immature, mean and insensitive type of person. Sadly, they woefully lack God's love and compassion for INDIVIDUAL humans, like me.

Having said that dear reader, I have just started a knew YouTube channel called: "

[1]RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS,

" which will be used to fight the good fight of faith, refuting and exposing all manner of false doctrines which have crept into the churches today. One of the great joys of the Christian life is contending for the faith. Lord willing, I intend to upload many [2]Text To Speech videos, personifying my written articles to help others. Here is my first heartfelt Text To Speech video, titled: 'Individual People Do Not Matter At Pensacola Christian College':

Individual People Do Not Matter At Pensacola Christian College

I didn't start this fight, Pastor Jeff Redlin did, by being abusive and insensitive in his remarks. Because PCC has grown so big, there is a sinful spirit of pride, arrogance and superiority in their camp. The cult system always comes first at PCC, which includes Campus Church. Sadly, INDIVIDUAL people don't matter. They excommunicate anyone whom they don't like, which they have wrongly done to me. I will not shut up! I will not go away! I will be a part of their PCC family one way or the others. I have tried three times to reconcile and make peace with them, and my offers still stands. I am not holding my breath in hopes of hearing from them. They have my mailing address. They have my phone number. They have my email. They just don't give a damn!

> 1st Corinthians 12:22-25, "Nay, much more those members of the body, which seem to be more feeble, are necessary: And those members of the body, which we think to be less honourable, upon these we bestow more abundant honour; and our uncomely parts have more abundant comeliness. For our comely parts have no need: but God hath tempered the body together, having given more abundant honour to that part which lacked: That there should be no schism in the body; but that the members should have the same care one for another."

Thank you for reading. It is interesting that by God's grace I am now receiving DOUBLE the visitors to this blog, than I am at Jesus-is-Savior.com to my "[3]Recent Page," which has been my humble daily pulpit to the world since 2006 when I started that helpful webpage.

I think the reason why I am receiving more people viewing my blog, rather than my ministry website, is simply because people are increasingly using mobile phones to access the internet, and my blog is mobile-friendly (Thank you Google). Right now 40 % of all my web visitors are using mobile phones, which makes it less appealing because my websites are not mobile friendly. I simply don’t have the programming skills yet, but I am working on it, teaching myself how to make my websites mobile-friendly.

I did finally get all my security certificates activated, so all my ministry websites are now secure (designated by the little closed lock symbol in front of every website address above). Hopefully this will help to restore my website’s ranking in Google’s search engine, which has horribly suffered for the past several years, reducing my web traffic by 90 % since 2015. Thankfully, God is blessing my blogs and I am receiving many more viewers here. So, thank you very much for reading my blogs. I just want to be a blessing to everyone for Jesus Christ, my God and Savior. THANK YOU!!!

3.10.3 The Samaritan People In The Bible (2022-10-04 18:22)

2nd Kings 17:22-24, "For the children of Israel walked in all the sins of Jeroboam which he did; they departed not from them;

Until the LORD removed Israel out of his sight, as he had said by all his servants the prophets. So was Israel carried away out of their own land to Assyria unto this day.

And the king of Assyria brought men from Babylon, and from Cuthah, and from Ava, and from Hamath, and from Sepharvaim, and placed them in the cities of Samaria instead of the children of Israel: and they possessed Samaria, and dwelt in the cities thereof."

2nd Kings 17:33, " They feared the LORD, and served their own gods, after the manner of the nations whom they carried away from thence. "

2nd Kings 17:41, "So these nations feared the LORD, and served their graven images, both their children, and their children's children: as did their fathers, so do they unto this day."

The Bible history of the Samaritan people is fascinating. When King Solomon died, his son Rehoboam sorely provoked the people of Israel, by telling them that he would not only continue his father's oppressive excessive taxation to finance his many building projects, but Rehoboam said he make it much worse! Rehoboam actually told the people that if they thought his father, Solomon, was hard on them, then he intended to become a scorpion that stings them. It is not difficult to understand why 10 of the 12 tribes of Israel revolted!!! ...

> 1st Kings 12:12-14, "So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the third day, as the king had appointed, saying, Come to me again the third day. And the king answered the people roughly, and forsook the old men's counsel that they gave him; And spake to them after the counsel of the young men, saying, My father made your yoke heavy, and I will add to your yoke: my father also chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions."

An easy way to always remember who fled north, and who stayed in Jerusalem, is this helpful catchy saying: "Jeroboam journeyed, but Rehoboam remained." Jeroboam journeyed north with 10 of the tribes, to start their own new kingdom; whereas Rehoboam (Solomon's son) remained with the tribes of Benjamin and Levi in Jerusalem in the south.

The New Northern Kingdom of Israel

Sadly, Jeroboam was a bad king, leading the people to commit wickedness. The Jewish people worshipped idols, practicing witchcraft to summon devils, sacrificing their children in the fire to the pagan gods of Moloch and Baal. They greatly provoked the Lord to anger.

God sent Isaiah the prophet to preach to the northern tribes, pleading with them to repent toward God. Isaiah's indictment of Israel reminds me so much of the United States today:

> Isaiah 1:4-7, "Ah sinful nation, a people laden with iniquity, a seed of evildoers, children that are corrupters: they have forsaken the LORD, they have provoked the Holy One of Israel unto anger, they are gone away backward. Why should ye be stricken any more? ye will revolt more and more: the whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint. From the sole of the foot even unto the head there is no soundness in it; but wounds, and bruises, and putrifying sores: they have not been closed, neither bound up, neither mollified with ointment. Your country is desolate, your cities are burned with fire: your land, strangers devour it in your presence, and it is desolate, as overthrown by strangers."

America today has gone backwards. In his sermon titled: "

[1]Titanic,

Evangelist

Lester Roloff rightly says:

"America was great when she was good, and she was good when she had great churches!" Great churches are just about a thing of the past. I thank God for soulwinning churches today, like the [2]Clays Mill Road Baptist Church in Lexington, Kentucky. Their faithful senior pastor is [3]Jeff Fugate, one of my favorite preachers. This is a great church!!!

In the Old Testament, the country of Assyria (which was a world power at the time) invaded the northern kingdom of Israel. God raised up the nation of Assyria against Israel in judgment. The capital of northern Israel was Samaria; the capital of the southern kingdom was Judah

. Northern Israel was conquered in 722 BC (southern Israel was conquered by Babylon 136 years later in 586 BC). After the Assyrians conquered Samaria in the north, they took the Jews captive to Assyria. Soon thereafter, the king of Assyria decided to send settlers back to Samaria, from multiple nations which they had conquered:

> 2nd Kings 17:22-24, "For the children of Israel walked in all the sins of Jeroboam which he did; they departed not from them; Until the LORD removed Israel out of his sight, as he had said by all his servants the prophets. So was Israel carried away out of their own land to Assyria unto this day. And the king of Assyria brought men from Babylon, and from Cuthah, and from Ava, and from Hamath, and from Sepharvaim, and placed them in the cities of Samaria instead of the children of Israel: and they possessed Samaria, and dwelt in the cities thereof."

The Assyrian king, Shalmaneser, sent back captives from many nations to resettle in Samaria. Consequently, the Jews who resettled in Samaria became corrupted by the heathens. The Bible says that the Samaritans feared God and served him with idols!

How do you fear God while serving graven images? When I first read this Scripture, I thought I had read it wrong. I read it again and again, and then wondered why it said that the Samaritans "feared the Lord," but also served

graven images.

Let's see what happened.

Shalmaneser (the king of Assyria) also took captives from Babylon, Cuthah, Ava, Hamath and from Sepharvaim, putting them in Samaria with the Jews he had taken captive. Shalmaneser removed the Jews (the ten tribes) from Israel's northern kingdom, and put them in Assyria. Soon thereafter the king took captives from a bunch of countries, and he moved them to live in Samaria. These people became known as the "Samaritans" (named after the former capital of northern Israel). So now you know where the Samaritans originated.

The Samaritans worshipped idols. God sent lions to eat them as judgment (2nd Kings 17:25-26).

So to remedy the problem, the heathen king of Assyria returned one of the captive Jewish priests to Samaria, to teach the Samaritans how to worship God properly. It's funny when you think about it. You couldn't make up a better story. Truth is stranger than fiction!

I love this true story.

God sent lions to eat the people for worshipping other gods.

So the king of Assyria panics and sends a corrupt Jewish priest to teach the pagans how to worship the God of Israel. The Samaritans are genuinely scared to death and want the lions to go away. So in fear of being devoured by a wild beast, the people begin to worship the God of Israel while serving their graven images. They didn't know any better. It is to this confusion that Acts 17:29-30 makes reference to: "And the times of this ignorance God winked at; but now commandeth all men every where to repent." The people sincerely thought that the way to worship God was with graven images.

Today people have the testimony of creation, the witness of conscience, the conviction of the Holy Spirit within our soul, the complete inspired Word of God and the witness of Calvary. So people today have multiple witnesses concerning the truth. Unlike the Samaritans, we can clearly see what Jesus Christ did for us through the cross—His death on the cross, burial and bodily resurrection (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). We have the truth. We are so blessed to have the complete Bible. We have NO excuses today not to repent toward God.

The Samaritans did fear God, but the Bible says they also served their idols. God in His mercy winked at their ignorance. By sending lions to chastise the people, God was showing mercy to the Samaritans, trying to compel them to repent. Notice that the Bible says in 2nd Kings 17:41 (our text Verse) that the Samaritan's confusion continues "UNTO THIS DAY."

That is, they continued to worship the God of Israel, while serving graven images simultaneously. Jesus confirmed this several hundred years later when He said to the Samaritan woman at the well: "YE WORSHIP YE KNOW NOT WHAT..."

> John 4:22-24, "Ye worship ye know not what: we know what we worship: for salvation is of the Jews. But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him. God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth."

The Samaritans were sincerely confused; but the Jews were arrogantly rebellious! The Jews knew full well what God expected from them, but they were stiff-necked and rebellious, even unto this day in 2012. The Samaritans (Gentiles); on the other hand, were sincere and wanted to worship God, but they were ignorant and tried their best, based upon what the corrupt Jewish priest had taught them. Remember that God judged the northern kingdom of Israel for their gross idolatry. So this former priest in Israel was probably full of idols in his mind.

The Samaritan's native culture dominated their religious mindset and worship. They brought the false religion of their native cultures with them to Samaria. Yet, God winked at their ignorance because He is a merciful and loving God who is fair, just and righteous.

Albeit, consider yourself warned my friend, because the Bible says that God no longer winks at anyone's ignorance. The reason why is because WE HAVE THE TRUTH today. The Bible says:

> Titus 2:11-15, "For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men, Teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world; Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ; Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works. These things speak, and exhort, and rebuke with all authority. Let no man despise thee."

Americans today are far more like the rebellious Jews, than we are like the ignorant Samaritans. We say "IN GOD WE TRUST" on our currency, but then we superficially serve God with sycophantic praise worship instead of heartfelt hymns, psychology instead of theology, and entertainment instead of preaching in our churches. We commit woeful wickedness; including the sins: covetousness, being respecters of persons, indifference toward false doctrine, arrogance, adultery, abortion, lust, drunkenness, corporate stealing, homosexuality, idolatry, violence, lying and cursing in the dear Lord's name, et cetera. If people are confused in today's modern times, it is only because they have foolishly chosen to follow some other way, than that of Bible Christianity. THE TRUTH crieth from the rooftops and out in the streets, but few people are wise enough to listen!

If a person desires the truth, our good God is obligated to PROVIDE the truth. Man's obligation is to DESIRE the truth. If a person does not desire the truth, than God is not obligated to bring them the truth. God searches the hearts of all men. 1st Chronicles 28:9, "And thou, Solomon my son, know thou the God of thy father, and serve him with a perfect heart and with a willing mind: for the LORD searcheth all hearts, and understandeth all the imaginations of the thoughts." God knows you better than you know yourself my friend. God knows the thoughts, intents and works of all mankind. Nothing escapes the eyes of God (Hebrews 4:13; Psalms 139:1-6). The Lord searcheth all hearts and ponders our every thought (Proverbs 24:12). I am glad to know that God sees all things.

Unlike during the Old Testament before the Messiah came, God doesn't tolerate people's ignorance today. The Lord DIDN'T wink at their wickedness in the Old Testament; but rather, their ignorance the Bible says. God never tolerates evil. Howbeit, there is no excuse for ignorance today, because we have the inspired truth of God's Word in the Holy Scriptures. We understand who Jesus is. The saving Gospel is plainly visible for all to see. The whole world today knows that Jesus died, was buried and rose up bodily from the dead the third day. Jesus di that for you and me, so that we could be rescued from Hell. No one can go to Heaven unless they become born again (John 3:3).

The Samaritan people in the Old Testament couldn't see that truth. Acts 17:30, "And the times of this ignorance God winked at; but now commandeth all men every where to repent." People have no excuse today not to get saved. Jesus was crucified, buried and risen from the dead, which was a supernatural miracle of God. I hear many preachers foolishly telling people to "

trust Jesus

follow Christ

to be saved, but that is not how a person gets to Heaven. You need to understand that Jesus is the Christ, the only begotten Son of God, and that He died in your place on a cross to pay your debt of sin (and mine). It is not enough to just "trust Jesus," without understanding that you are a guilty sinner deserving of the Lake of Fire; and that Jesus is the Christ who died FOR YOU on the cross, was buried, and raised up bodily from the dead three days later. This is "

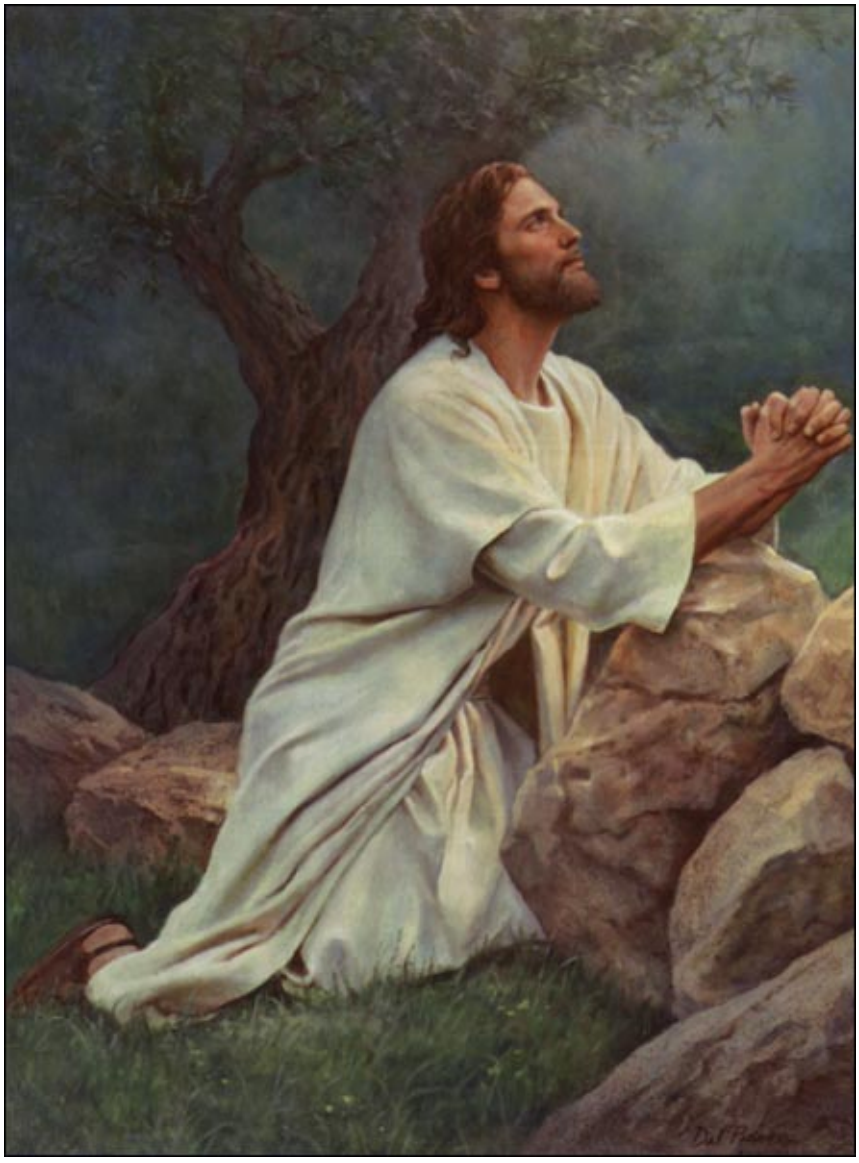
according to 1st Corinthians 15:1-4.

Jesus greatly loved the Samaritan people, even though Jews avoided associating with the Samaritans, because the Samaritans were not pure ethnic Jews, Christ went to them with the Gospel.

John 4:4, " And he must needs go through Samaria." When Jesus approached the Samaritan woman at Jacob's Well in John chapter four, she was awestruck that a Jewish man would even take the time to speak with her. When she found out that He is the Messiah, the Bible says that she left her waterpot. Her mind was blown! John 4:28-29 " The woman then left her waterpot, and went her way into the city, and saith to the men, Come, see a man, which told me all things that ever I did: is not this the Christ?" I commend this Samaritan woman, who greatly wanted her own people to hear the Messiah, so they could be saved too.

You need to understand that every Samaritan and Jew had been eagerly waiting for millenniums for the promised Messiah to come. That is why we read in Luke 2:23, " (As it is written in the law of the Lord, Every male that openeth the womb shall be called holy to the Lord;)" Every time that a Jewish woman became pregnant, joy filled her soul wondering if perhaps she might be the mother of the promised Messiah.



Of course, what those Jews failed to understand is that the coming Christ would not have an earthly father. God Himself was Jesus' biological Father. Joseph was Jesus' Dad who raised Him, but God was Jesus' biological Father. That is what the Bible means when it refers to Jesus as God's only "begotten" Son of God (e.g., John 3:16). The Devil's modern Bible perversions wickedly remove the word " begotten" from John 3:16 and all other passages in the Holy Bible, which is a brutal attack on Jesus deity (i.e., Jesus is 100 % almighty God).

God never touched Mary. The perverted Mormon cult errantly teach that God had carnal knowledge with Mary, and that Jesus had multiple wives on earth. There is not a more blasphemous, damnable, dangerous and satanic religion than Mormonism! Please RUN from this deadly cult that will take you to Hell with them forever. Do some research and you will find that Mormon theology errantly denies Jesus' deity. Mormons foolishly believe that as Christ achieved godhood, so also will every Mormon by adhering to the Mormon lifestyle. The entire religion is rooted in sex. That in itself should tell you that something is very wrong with Mormonism.

2nd Kings 17:41, "So these nations feared the LORD, and served their graven images, both their children, and their children's children: as did their fathers, so do they unto this day."

3.10.4 Don’t Be A Fool With God’s Money (2022-10-06 17:09)

1st Corinthians 16:1-2, “Now concerning the collection for the saints, as I have given order to the churches of Galatia, even so do ye.

Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him, that there be no gatherings when I come."

The subject of money is one of much debate, hostility and mixed emotions. Preachers in particular get upset quickly when it comes to money, because they desire to have it so much. Did you know dear reader that there is nothing in the New Testament about tithing 10 % to the church. For that matter, neither is there anything in the Old Testament which requires Gentiles to tithe 10 % to God. Preachers, particularly pastors, are the only ones I know who require their congregations to pay 10 % tithes. As if that weren't bad enough, lying to their church congregations that God demands for them to tithe 10 %, then those pastors teach that you are also supposed to give offerings above and beyond your tithes.

I wrote this blog because I know a Christian lady who is so brainwashed by every pastor she has ever had, that she suffers from religious scrupulosity (religious guilt) if she doesn't give at least 15 % of all her gross income to God. I have heard umpteen pastors teach that you must tithe on your gross income, not your take home income from work. Could today's shameful pastors be any more greedy? It sickens me.

Where do pastors get this unbiblical idea that the Bible demands for Christians to cough up 10 % plus of their hard earned money? Malachi 3:8, " Will a man rob God? Yet ye have robbed me. But ye say, Wherein have we robbed thee? In tithes and offerings." Please note that this Scripture passage applies to Old Testament Israel, to the Twelve Tribes of Jews. This Scripture cannot apply to New Testament saints, because God has not commanded us to give anything! Take a look at our text passage again:

> 1st Corinthians 16:1-2, "Now concerning the collection for the saints, as I have given order to the churches of Galatia, even so do ye. Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him, that there be no gatherings when I come."

As we just read, the Bible says to give AS GOD HATH PROSPERED YOU! That means if you are surviving on social security, medical disability, public aid, or just don't make hardly any money working, God does NOT expect for you to tithe much. The poor widow in the Bible put her last two mites into the collection box at the local synagogue. Jesus said she gave all she had! She gave 100 %. But she did it because she wanted to, not because some Pharisee coerced her by browbeating and threatening her with God's judgment if she didn't.

Giving in church is a matter of choice, and not because a church pastor who is being irresponsible needs lots of extra money to fund his ministry projects. Essentially, you are paying for his visions and dreams of growing his church! But this type of exuberant reckless spending has destroyed many churches, when people start flocking to leave because of the unbearable financial burdens placed upon them by an irresponsible pastor. I have seen it many times in my lifetime, pastors who sinfully abuse their people, milking them for every dollar they can! Meanwhile those same pastors take their enjoyable annual vacations (under the pretense of a " missionary trip

”) to the Holy Land, the Philippines, Japan, Europe, et cetera. Very few church laymen could afford to take those lucrative trips abroad. As a general rule, if your pastor is enjoying a better standard of living than your family does, don’t give that church a dime!

The Christian lady that I mentioned earlier, constantly begs her family for money for her personal needs. That is wrong, when she is tithing 10 % and then giving a 5 % offering on top of that. She suffers from religious scrupulosity (religious guilt) if she doesn’t give tithes and offerings. She thinks that she is doing the right thing, pleasing God by faithfully giving tithes and offerings. What if that widow in the Bible was so poor that she needed to go beg her family, friends and neighbours for some money, so she could feel good about herself by putting that borrowed money into the synagogue collection box? Would that be proper and right? I think not. What honor is there is giving money to any cause, if you had to do so with other people’s money? It is morally wrong to go around begging people for money, so you can tithe 10 % and give an extra 5 % offering. In fact, it is absurd!

People are gullible, strange, easily deceived and controlled by the cults. Religion will mess up a person’s mind faster than anything! Look at the Mormons cult as an example. Thousands of naïve women and girls are brainwashed from the earliest age, to think they are pleasing God by surrendering their spirit, soul and body to some old dirty pervert who has 50 wives! Mormonism is a deadly false religion spawned by the Devil, so that a small group of sex perverts can have their way with the gullible females within the cult group.

Religion is the opiate (drug) of the people. IT SURE IS!!! Religion is a powerful tool for cult leaders to compel their followers to do anything—whether it be to take their clothes off to engage in an orgy, sign over all their worldly assets and home in a will to the cult, or drink the tainted poisonous Kool-Aid. Cults are easy to identify! Simply look to see if the inspired Word of God is their only authority; or see if it is the leaders of the cult who are the authority?

Sadly, Pensacola Christian College (PCC) is a religious cult, because ungodly men are in charge of the institution instead of God’s Word. That is why Pastor Jeff Redlin banned me in writing on August 2nd, 2022 from attending PCC’s Campus Church anymore. Only a cult forbids people from attending church!!! They’re upset that I criticized them on social media in 2021, even though they deserved it for wickedly bidding Godspeed to the Calvinist Bob Jones University camp (2nd John 1:11). I apologized three times in 2022 to PCC leaders and the pastors of Campus Church, offering to do whatever they require to reconcile, but they are wicked cult leaders who refuse to forgive. At PCC the cult system always comes first, but individual people do not matter. All the PCC camp cares about is making more money!!!

I have a chip on my shoulder when it comes to the way that pastors pressure people for money. God loves a cheerful giver, and I love to give, but not to a church like PCC’s Campus Church who pay Pastor Jeff Redlin over $100,000 per year, but then he charged church members $10 in July of 2021 to learn how to more effectively share the Gospel. That is disgusting! Campus Church took in $3,500,000 in 2020, finishing the year with $1,200,000 still in the bank. Yet they charge people $10 to learn how to share the Gospel?

Dear reader, if you are so broke financially that you need to ask other people for money, to help you make ends meet each month, then you are a darn fool if you tithe at church! Not everyone can or should tithe. If you owe money on your credit card, you ought not tithe until your bills are paid down. I guarantee that in most cases your pastor doesn't owe anybody any money. This is especially true if the church that he pastors is a large church. I hate money. I hate what money does to ruin good people. I hate how money destroys and separates families and friends. I hate the love of money. I avoid people who are always thinking about money, and conniving of ways to make more money, and those who squabble over small amounts of money. Their mind is spiritually broken!

Please do not misunderstand my blog article. I believing in giving to the work of God. I definitely think that God wants His children to give sacrificially to fund the local church, within reason. But when I see churches and Bible colleges blowing tens of thousands of dollars in fireworks shows, they don't have a right to come back the next month begging for people to give until it hurts to support foreign missions.

I'll never forget when I attended the shameful Harvest Baptist Church on Guam for a year in 2013 to 2014. One Sunday a guest missionary from the Philippines spoke at the church. He said 1,900 churches in the Philippines were about to close their doors due to lack of money. As he bloviated about the desperate need for money, and browbeat the audience to give sacrificially until it hurts; I look down to my right side and picked up a church bulletin. In the bulletin it announced an upcoming trip to the Holy Land, for wealthy church members who could afford it. What hypocrisy!!! If 1,900 churches are about to close down permanently, shouldn't the wealthy members of harvest Baptist Church on Guam cancel their extravagant vacation trip and give that money to the churches in the Philippines?

The point I am trying to make is that pastors are hypocritical liars and connivers when it comes to money. They beg like dogs for every penny they can get from you, in the name of dire ministry needs, but then they turn around and live a spoiled life (high on the hog) with your money. They say one thing, but then do another thing.

I think some people could and should give much more to the Lord. Hey, if you are a millionaire, then I think you should donate more money to God's work, but use the brain that God gave you to think. Don't just give money mindlessly to some pastor who says all the right words. You need to go examine his work, his home, his car that he drives, his lifestyle, before you give that church a dime. False prophet, Pastor Steven Furtick in Charlotte, North Carolina a few years ago build a personal mansion for $1,600,000. I wouldn't give that con man a single dime!!! Steven Furtick is a child of the Devil, a parasite who preys upon worldly churchgoers for their money. This is the apostate church of the New World Order! Pastor Furtick jams on his electric guitar in church services to the tune: "

I Love Rock & Roll

by Joan Jett. People bring their pets (dogs, cats, birds) to church with them. The free grace Gospel is not preached.

If you want to help the poor, give help to them directly. But them some food, don't give them money in most cases. Please don't give any money to these big charities in the United States who pay their executives ridiculous 6-digit salaries. The top dog who runs the soul-barren Salvation Army gets paid a shocking $300,000 per year (and that's not even including his total compensation package with expenses for housing, car, travel, insurance, et cetera)!

Hypocritically, the Salvation Army deceitfully advertises its organization as a picture of Santa Claus accepting pennies and nickels at Christmas time with a bucket. What a fraud! Did I mention that the Salvation Army owns lucrative vacation properties in Hawaii for its executives and officers? Although the Salvation Army does a lot of good to help the less fortunate, I cannot in good conscience give a single dime to any organization that can justify paying its top executive TEN TIMES what the average U.S. citizen earns per year! Charity? Ha Ha Ha!

Remember, the day that you got saved, everything you ow n became Christ's. We are bought with a price the Bible says in 1st Corinthians 6:20, " For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's. " When we give God anything, we are simply letting go of what is already His. Every penny that you and I spend, if you are a child of God like I am, we are spending God's money.

How do you spend the Lord's provisions for you? Do you give it to con artists like Jim Bakker and company of The PTL Club on TV? Those lying thieves make me sick! They are exploiting the name of Jesus for filthy lucre, victimizing sincere people by putting on a tremendous entertainment show for people to watch from home. It is wickedness!!! Just like Pat Robertson and his, The 700 Club circus, they all pull on people's heart strings by showing viewers poor children, babies killed by abortion, suffering animals or less fortunate people). Those money-hungry religious frauds exploit the poor, dying, crippled and suffering among humanity to get the viewer's money (and they sure do, billions of dollars worth each year).

I hope this information has been helpful. If you do choose to give, please make sure it is going for a good cause, and not helping to pay for someone's Rolls Royce and mansion in Beverly Hills, California; or on the island of Maui in Hawaii; or in Fort Lauderdale, Florida. Charity starts at home! I am a firm believer in that rule. One of the constants in this earthly life is that everybody will always need and beg for your hard-earned money. For that very reason, money is the LAST thing that I am willing to give anyone who asks for it! Remember, the greatest things in life are not things. Winning a lost sinner to Jesus Christ is priceless! You cannot put a price on something like that. I spend my time laying up treasures in Heaven. I think that is a good investment, and so did Jesus

Matthew 6:19-20).

Thank you for reading.

3.10.5 I Shall Never Walk Alone (2022-10-06 18:52)

Psalms 23:4, "Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me."

([1]Click here to listen to an MP3 of the song: "I Shall Never Walk Alone")

We often hear Psalm 23:4 quoted in movies, poetry, sermons and books. Psalms 23:4, "Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me." I love that Scripture passage!

The word "rod" here is the Hebrew word mish'êndh mish'eneth (Wow, what a big word!). It means to "support (abstractly); or (figuratively) sustenance; or (concretely) a walking stick.

The word "staff" is the Hebrew word shêbe t, which means: "to branch off; a scion, that is, (literally) a stick (for punishing, writing, fighting, ruling, walking, et cetera)."

So we see that the Lord's ROD is for our guidance; and His STAFF is used for fighting off our enemies. That is interesting! These are but two of God's blessings for His adopted children by redemption. The Bible teaches in Psalm 23:4 that God COMFORTS us with His rod and staff, that is, we are comforted by constantly knowing that God is guiding us, and also that He is protecting us with His staff. Jesus is the Good Shepherd!

God Is With Us As Christian Believers

The world is getting crazier everyday without question. Evil in the short-term is triumphing, but righteousness will prevail in the long-term! We may be losing some spiritual battles now, but the war has already been won, when Jesus Christ raised up from the dead 2,000 years ago.

Ephesians 6:12 plainly states that our battle is "against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places." If you work in a secular workplace dear reader, then you know how difficult co-workers can be. I went through hell on earth at every secular job that I ever worked. When I worked as a truck mechanic between 1987 to 1993, I had a 3 pound hammer throw at me by a co-worker. Another co-worker spit on me because he hated me as a Christian. An older co-worker befriended me and went to tell my boss what had happened, but my boss didn't care. I had my work tools stolen, my locker sabotaged, my work uniforms stolen, my work orders torn up.

Years later I went to work for the U.S. Postal Service in Chicago as a technician on their mail-processing equipment. Working for the U.S. Postal Service is worse than working in the wicked city of Sodom in the Old Testament. I worked there from 1993 to 2009. During that time I was harassed, threatened, had booze bottles put in my toolbox, had horrible lying slander spread about me throughout the workplace, was bullied so bad that for years I stood outside at the end of my shift to avoid co-workers until it was time to clock out. All it took was one or two instigators, and the whole maintenance department turned against me. Carnally-minded people go by what they hear. People are cowards, afraid of being rejected by the herd.

That is why I am not allowed to attend Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College (PCC). The ungodly Lordship Salvation pastors at the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, slandered me to the pastors at PCC, so that they have ganged up against me. What saith the Scripture? Proverbs 11:21, " Though hand join in hand, the wicked shall not be unpunished: but the seed of the righteous shall be delivered.

" Proverbs 16:5, "

Every one that is proud in heart is an abomination to the LORD: though hand join in hand, he shall not be unpunished. " The Goliath at PCC is supportive of the Calvinist Bob Jones University (BJU) camp. I have single-handedly come out for God against all of them—preaching THE TRUTH that Lordship Salvation is a lie of the Devil, and THE TRUTH that churches ought not be using the Devil's corrupt Bible revisions, et cetera. Sadly, nobody cares at BJU. Their complicit graduates don't care (like the perverted Harvest Baptist Church on Guam). Nobody cares at PCC! I am a voice crying in the wilderness of cyberspace.

This is one of the most important periods in human history, if not the most important ever! Words cannot describe the massive changes that are happening right now (economic, spiritual, cultural, national, international, global, galactic... everything is beginning to melt down). In today's crazy world, good is evil and evil is good; winners are losers and losers are winners! In order to get away with their utter insanity, the Luciferian elite have needed to resort to social engineering and total media control. They've had to sell the American people a culture of fraud, perversion, lies, mental illness and 2 + 2 = 5, to get away with all this corruption and wickedness.

> [3]Starting Over ("We all have to start over once and a while!") —a helpful quote from the sermon, '[4]STARTING OVER' by Pastor Danny Castle

The entire American system is now totally based upon fraud. David humbly rejoiced in Psalm 23:4, asserting that even in the valley of the shadow of death, he would FEAR NO EVIL. David asserted that he feared no evil because God was always with him, always guiding and always protecting him. God is a good God! I shall never walk alone, so promises the inspired Word of God. Hebrews 13:5, "Let your conversation be without covetousness; and be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee."

Here is a precious Scripture promise from Psalms 27:10, "When my father and my mother forsake me, then the LORD will take me up." Isn't that beautiful? If you are all alone in the world, even if you've been forsaken by yours own parents, God will adopt you as His child (if you are born-again) and be your family!!! Hallelujah!

We Are On The Winning Side In Christ Jesus!

The glorious appearance of the Lord Jesus Christ is drawing closer each and every day. Truly, it cannot be much longer now. Look at the insane world today. Homosexual marriages were made the law of the land on June 26, 2015 by the Godless U.S. Supreme Court. America is now the laughing-stock of the world! Our nation's ungodly leaders start unprovoked wars, they destroy the sovereignty of foreign nations, they mass-murder the innocent (in Iraq 1,455,590 innocent people were murdered by the illegal U.S. led Iraqi War). They exploit the poor so that American corporate executives can become billionaires. Where will all this wickedness end? What will it take to bring America to our knees before God? I think that the time of hoping for national revival has long passed. We are now at the point of no return, to where only the wrathful judgment of God will bring Americans to repentance.

Our nation's third U.S. President

(1801-1809)

, Thomas Jefferson (1743-1826) wisely said:

> "I tremble for my country when I reflect that God is just; that His justice cannot sleep forever."

We read in the prophetic Old Testament book of Amos that in the Last Days God will cause a FAMINE OF HIS WORD!!! Amos preached against the ongoing wickedness of Israel, similar to the immoral condition in America today. As with many passages in the Old Testament, Amos has a dual meaning. Theologically, this is called "[5]The Principle of Double Fulfillment."

God's abundant mercy has a limit! There comes a point when God says: "That's it, your time is up!" I believe we are very near to this point in America. Our society is incredibly wicked. Our courts are cruel and often unjust. Our leaders are weak, corrupt and complacent. Our churches are full of indifference, spiritual blindness, arrogance and deadly false doctrine. Our nation's Bibles are increasingly corrupt. Our public schools are contemptible, indoctrination centers for life-destroying atheism, the lies of evolution and sexual perversion.

([6]Click here to listen to an MP3 of the song: "I Shall Never Walk Alone")

Our nation's streets are overcrowded with the homeless. Drug addiction is everywhere! Our nation's banking system is fraudulent, rigged and illegal by honest men's standards. Our country's borders are compromised, so that illegal aliens by the millions continue to flood into our land. President Donald Trump spent billions of dollars of taxpayer money, rightly so, to build a giant wall to prevent illegal aliens from sneaking into the country. Yet his successor, wicked Joe Biden, has allowed one million foreign immigrants to flood into our country under his watch as U.S. President.

The problem is that bleeding heart liberals love to spend other people's money. If the local police came to your home, and at gun point forced your front door open, and allowed a Mexican family to sleep in your bed, eat your food, enjoy your home, and live in your house permanently; only then would you get angry and fight to stop it! But when our government does it to us on a national level, liberals don't care because it doesn't adversely affect them directly. But it does adversely affect our country in the long run, breaking down society, causing the crime rate to skyrocket, and harming our communities. It is easy to spend other people's money! America saw her last days of greatness in the 1970's.

Our nation's moral character is corrupted. Our capacity for caring is diminished. Our code of honor is contaminated. Our children are spoiled disrespectful brats. The rigged housing market is controlled by banking thieves, as are also the rigged Stock Markets. Where is the Bible preacher anymore? Where is the soulwinner? Where are the Christians who genuinely care about people? I cannot hardly find them anymore. Everywhere I turn I see money-hungry Bible colleges like Pensacola Christian College (PCC), where individual people don't matter. If you want to be loved in today's church, you are out of luck dear friend, because it is almost impossible to find love anymore in the churches. It is shameful. Pastors don't walk with God anymore, they practice lifeless devotions while listening to religious music; but their heart is far away from God, evidenced by their woeful lack of compassion for hurting people. Even after explaining my broken life and pain of soul to Pastor Jeff Redlin at PCC's Campus Church in 2021-2022, he threw me under the bus and told me that I cannot come back to their church anymore.

Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) even allowed reporters from the wicked Hammond Times to attend the First Baptist Church of Hammond, Indiana, knowing that they were only there to find fault and criticize Pastor Hyles and the ministry. Yet, Dr. Hyles loved those reporters with God's love and wanted them to hear the truth. That is the big difference between a genuine man of God like Dr. Jack Hyles; l verses a little twerp phony like Jeff Redlin at PCC, who doesn't love anybody except himself, and only cares about going through the motions of his undeserved job. Redlin only cares about getting his 6-digit paycheck and appeasing the cult leaders at PCC. It is wickedness!!! PCC are a bunch of academic types who woefully lack God's compassion for individual people. It is apostasy!

I promise you that if you took making money out of the equation, 99 % of America's pastors, preachers and evangelists would quit overnight! If they weren't getting paid they wouldn't lift a finger for God!!! That shows you where their heart is at. You can identify these phony type of men who follow the money—moving onto greener pastures when a better opportunity comes, always seeking a better paying job, a more lucrative retirement plan, et cetera. To their shame, they already have their eternal rewards!!! A true man of God loves people above money. He doesn't abandon his people for a better paying job somewhere else! I cannot even comprehend that shallow kind of pseudo-Christianity! The position of pastor is not a career advancement opportunity, it is a privileged duty from God to feed the Lord's sheep.

God pity the pastor who views his position merely as a job, like Jeff Redlin shamefully does. He speaks a lot of lies, not backed up by his behavior. Sadly, that is the case in over 95 % of churches today, which is why women, atheists, homosexuals and uncaring opportunists like Jeff Redlin are now occupying clergy jobs. They are sinning against God by doing so! A pastor ought to win the hearts of his people and bond with them over the truth, not merely parasite off them until something better comes long.

If every pastor were to quit whenever a better opportunity came along, and move to greener pastures for more money, we'd have exactly what we have today in America! The love of money is the root of all evil. The love of money is the reason why today's apostate Bible colleges no longer stand for the inspiration of God's Word, because it will bring them persecution. Neo-evangelicals (like the Bob Jones University crowd and Pensacola Christian College) are destroying our churches and nation!

A staggering 1 % of America's corporate executives own as much as the bottom 40 % of wealth in our nation. U.S. Corporatism is nothing less than total fascism, and honest capitalism has been made the scapegoat! The international money barons (banksters) control the Council On Foreign Relations (CFR), who own and control the United States and Israel. Nations no longer rule the world, corporations do! Remember that, corporations rule the world!!!

Amazingly, Bible prophecy records history in advance. Revelation 18:3 teaches that the nations of the world were made wealthy by the whorish woman (i.e., Illuminati controlled Zionist Israel and the United States). Revelation 17:18 identifies the woman who rides the Beast as Jerusalem (the city which spiritually is called "Sodom" and "Egypt" - Revelation 11:8). Tel Aviv, Israel, is today considered the Gay Mecca of the world. In January of 2012, The Huffington Post said that Israel "has long been a gay paradise"! The Beast which the woman rides is a Global Godless Totalitarian Communist Police State, aka, the New World Order.

Ah, but as Christians we can rest assure that God is still on His throne. We shall never walk alone as saints. God sees every evil and injustice (Hebrews 4:13). God-fearing Christians often feel overwhelmed by the wickedness of our day. Abortion is legal. Same-sex perversion is legal. Ungodly gender confusion is deliberately being promoted by the media, medical industry, schools and government to corrupt children and society. Homosexuality and adultery are wickedly legal across America. We have lost our blush and shame over sin as a society. Consequently, young people are sinning more brazenly without hesitation.

Wickedness is overthrowing America! God's judgment upon our wicked culture is coming!!! God's judgment always begins by giving a wicked nation over to itself. Our society is ripping itself apart. But one day the nukes will detonate! I am firmly convinced that Revelation chapter 18 refers to a nuclear holocaust coming upon the ungodly United States from Russia or China, or likely both. In the news this week, Russia and China united in protest against the United States, after North Korea launched a few test rockets over Japan. Leaders of Russia and China said that the U.S. provoked North Korea (and they did), by engaging in military tests in the region.

What has happened in North Korea (total communist oppression over the people) is happening in the United States, but most people are too dumbed-down to see what is happening. Our ungodly government is allowing Google, Facebook and other social media companies to censor American's freedom of speech. Pastors' Steven Anderson, Bruce Mejia, Roger Jimenez, Grayson Fritts, Max Younce and others, have had their truthful sermon videos censored and banned by YouTube, GodTube, Facebook, Google, et cetera. If Bible preachers are not legally allowed to have freedom of speech, then we have already begun the transition to becoming just like communist North Korea!!! Wake up Christians!

It seems as though the Zionist criminals who've hi-jacked the United States are above the law, since they control all high positions in government departments, and control the highest court in the land. See: [7]President John F. Kennedy Exposes Shadow Government (this is why the Central Intelligence Agency murdered him! By the way, the CIA was started by the banksters in New York City, to have their own secret police for Wall Street). I humbly believe that Zionism is [8]manmade Israel, not the fulfillment of Bible prophecy. The Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) was created by Wall Street bankers and attorneys during the Truman U.S. Presidency, which Mr. Truman later regretted. There is [9]a conspiracy to destroy America!

Yet, listen to what the Holy Bible teaches in Ecclesiastes 5:8, "If thou seest the oppression of the poor, and violent perverting of judgment and justice in a province, marvel not at the matter: for he that is higher than the highest regardeth; and there be higher than they." Amen! God is still on His throne, watching and recording everything in the minutest detail. God promises to avenge every evil work upon the wicked, and to recompense every good work to the righteous

(Ecclesiastes 12:13-14)

I heard a Bible verse which warmed my heart from 1st Corinthians 4:5, "Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts: and then shall every man have praise of God." God is going to bring every work to light, both good and evil, and then all of our secret labors will come to light and be rewarded by God.

The rabbit hole of evil runs deep in America! Child trafficking is a massive evil, perpetrated by the U.S. Pentagon (see: [10]DynCorp Disgrace), CPS (see: [11]Boys Town, Nebraska) and other government agencies. It appears that the culprits got away with it, but the Bible says they didn't (Hebrews 4:13). It appears that the perpetrators behind the 9/11 attacks are home free, unable to be prosecuted. Ah, but God has their number! Judgment day is inevitable.

1st Corinthians 4:5 promises that God, "...will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts: and then shall every man have praise of God." The righteous are all going to praise God when the wicked get what they have coming to them. We are going to praise God when the criminal Bush family, the criminal Clinton Family, the criminal Obama Family, and all the millions of evil politicians, attorneys, judges and other accomplices who have done wickedly throughout their lives, and they stand before God in judgment to finally be held accountable and punished.

The New World Order is forming at an escalated rate. Each day we are witnessing unprecedented steps being taken to bring about a police state. California, Colorado, Illinois, New Jersey and New York are leading the way. My friend, we shall never walk alone as born-again Christians, for Jesus is with us. The Holy Spirit is the Spirit of Christ in us (Romans 8:9). The Holy Spirit is God the Father, and God the Son, living inside every born-again believer as God the Holy Spirit (Colossians 2:2; 1st Corinthians 3:16-17). Amen! I shall never walk alone! No matter how rotten, evil and insane the world gets, God never changes (Malachi 3:6). Hebrews 13:8, "Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever."

> "Too many people let the failures of yesterday, and the fears of tomorrow, rob them of the joy of serving God today!" —a quote from the sermon, '[12]STARTING OVER' by Pastor Danny Castle

3.10.6 My New YouTube Channel: "RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS" (2022-10-11 16:55)

Jude 1:1-3,

Jude, the servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James, to them that are sanctified by God the Father, and preserved in Jesus Christ, and called:

Mercy unto you, and peace, and love, be multiplied. Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints.

I learned a great truth from Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001), that a fundamentalist is not a Christian who believes the fundamentals of the Christian faith; but rather, a fundamentalist is a Christian who SEPERATES from those who no longer adhere to the fundamental doctrines of the inspired Holy Bible. Dr. Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) wisely said:

> “You see, we not only believe the fundamentals of the faith, we believe in Ecclesiastical Separation. You don’t yoke up with somebody that is not saved and call him a Christian brother!” —Pastor Curtis Hutson, [1]"Things That Are Different Are Not The Same"

A Christian fundamentalist is simply a born-again believer who lives the Bible. The Bible teaches separation from unbelievers (2nd Corinthians 6:14-17). The Bible teaches for believers to "earnestly contend for the faith" (Jude 1:3b). The Bible teaches for saints to "rebuke them sharply" who pervert the Gospel (Titus 1:13b). Ephesians 5:11b exhorts believers to “have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them.” These passages of Scripture are usually ignored in today’s compromised churches.

No one wants to suffer reproach for the name of Jesus. No one wants to be put outside the gate with Jesus. But this is what it means to carry one’s cross for Jesus. I am carrying my cross. The BJU and PCC cults have crucified me on a cross, because I befriended them with THE TRUTH. They rejected that truth! Instead of commending me for contending for the Christian faith, they have thrown me under the bus at Harvest Baptist Church and at PCC. What saith the Scripture? Proverbs 16:5, “Every one that is proud in heart is an abomination to the LORD: though hand join in hand, he shall not be unpunished.”

I may just be a lone VOICE crying against the wickedness in the BJU and PCC camps, but God is not a respecter of persons. The incompetent pastors and ungodly leaders of PCC will not give account to God as a group, but as individuals (Romans 14:10-12). They will give account for banning me from attending church, when I offered and tried to make peace with them. They will answer to God for wickedly bidding Godspeed to the BJU cult, choosing sides with Harvest Baptist Church on Guam over me and THE TRUTH that I gave them (Romans 3:4).

RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!! It really does. If you pay close attention to churches and Bible colleges, you will find that there is a trade-off between contending for the faith versus the love of money. Institutions like Bob Jones University (BJU) and Pensacola Christian College (PCC), who take in millions upon millions of dollars in revenue each year, don't contend for the faith. Of course, PCC preaches a free grace Gospel; but BJU preaches the damnable heresy of Lordship Salvation, which is a perversion of God's saving grace.

Having said these things as an introduction, I felt led by God to start a new YouTube channel to contend for the Christian faith, exposing the false prophets, wolves in sheep's clothing, in Christendom today. Sadly, very few church contend for the faith anymore, because spiritually dead Bible colleges have trained their incompetent's pastors! I have diligently tried to remove all of the typos from these presentations, but you may still hear one or two that I missed.

If so, please pardon my humanity...lol.

A lot of work went into making these videos, which I enjoyed preparing. I used a [2]Text-To-Speech feature at Speechify.com , which is a very helpful tool, converting my written text into audio speech for others to hear. Perhaps one day I will use my own voice, but for now this tool is a blessing. Here are 5 videos that I made this past week, by God's grace. The dear Lord knows my heart, that I am not trying to cause trouble just to be unkind or mean; but rather, because RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!! And may I say, HOW WE TREAT PEOPLE MATTERS!!! [3]People just want to be loved, just love the hell out of them.

Pensacola Christian College Cult Exposed

God knows that my heart's intent is to be a blessing to others for Christ. I am now 55 years old. I may be in Heaven by sundown this afternoon, we just don't know when it's our spirit's time to leave this mortal body, but I would be surprised if I live to be 80 years old. My father went to Heaven at age 76 in 2010, and my mother went to Heaven at age 65 in 2001. I thank God that my parents were both born-again Christians. I miss my Mom and Dad, but I will get to meet them up in Heaven, along with my grandmother (my Mom's Mom, whom I really miss a lot).

My grandmother (1900-1977) died when I was only 10 years old in 1977. She was 77. She used to take me to Yankee Doodle Dandee restaurant in Chicago for the best roast beef sandwiches ever made! I have often prayed for God to let me and my grandmother walk again, as we so often did, to Yankee Doodle Dandee and eat roast beef sandwiches together. The delectable roast beef was served on yellowish buns, from the egg in the ingredients, with sesame seeds on top. The buns were so fresh and soft, having an addictive rich taste to them! Yummy! I can still taste them over 45 years later! I am fully confident that the Lord will grant my humble request. Romans 8:32, "He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things?" I love that Bible verse!!!

Anyway, it is my humble prayer that God will use the remaining time that I have left on earth for the cause of Jesus Christ. Psalms 90:12, "

So teach us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom. " The dearest thing to the heart of God is SOULWINNING. Matthew 4:18-19, " And Jesus, walking by the sea of Galilee, saw two brethren, Simon called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea: for they were fishers. And he saith unto them, Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men. ” Every Christian man, woman and child ought to be a SOULWINNER!!! That is why I made [4]a website dedicated just to teaching, inspiring and exhorting believers to go soulwinning. What is soulwinning? It is simply sharing how you got saved with a lost person, so that they can be saved too by faith alone in the GOOD NEWS (Gospel) of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen the third day (1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

I didn’t make these videos to be unkind or mean, God forbid. I just want to be a blessing in the Lord! The truth is not usually well accepted. ...

3.10.7 The NIV Is The Antichrist’s Bible! (2022-10-12 06:25)

The following article is being written from information that I learned from Dr. Al Lucy's awesome book titled, "NIV: THE ANTICHRIST'S BIBLE." [2]HARD COPIES are available here. The book contains 58 pages and was transcribed from a sermon which Pastor Lacy preached around the country. The information is excellent and needs to be shared with everyone that you know. According to Wikipedia, the NIV (New International Version) is the most popular version being used in churches today, and that sadly includes our Independent Fundamental Baptist Churches.

Kindly, Bob Jones University, Moody Bible Institute, and now tragically, Hyles-Anderson College, no longer criticize the modern false versions of the Bible. It's not enough these days to sit on the sidelines and let others fight the good fight of faith. [3]There is overwhelming evidence of satanic corruption of the modern Bible versions by the occult.

The Bible foretold of these apostate times when people would no longer tolerate sound Bible preaching!!! 2nd Timothy 4:3-4, “For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables.” The Greek word for “fables” is muthos and means, “a tale, fiction.” People today are being deflected from the truth, instead being led by Satan into tasty half-baked lies, attractive fiction and appealing manmade tradition.

Dr. Martin R. DeHaan (1891-1965) warned:

> "Be on guard against any tampering with the Word, whether disguised as a search for truth, or a scholarly attempt at apparently hidden meanings; and beware of the confusion created by the senseless rash of new versions, translations, editions, and improvements upon the tried and tested Bible of our fathers and grandfathers."
> SOURCE: [4]Dr. M.R. DeHaan, from the excellent book, THE TABERNACLE, Pg. 101

The New International Version [NIV] of the Bible deceitfully changes the phrase “Son of God” in John 9:35 to “Son of Man.” Professor Gail Riplinger revealed from research that the NIV has either changed or removed 64,000 words as compared to the King James Bible. I highly recommend the books of Dr. Riplinger, available online. Here’s some YouTube videos of her book, [5]HAZARDOUS MATERIALS—INTRO | [6]CHAP 3 | [7]CHAP 7 (by Dr. Gail Riplinger; online audiobook). > [11]Occult Roots Of The Modern Bible Versions (tons of occult information on Westcott and Hort)
> [12]Theosophy, The Church and Lucifer Worship (Helena Blavatsky said they’d infiltrate the churches)

The following is an excellent eye-opening quote from STRAIGHTWAY magazine (2005 June/July issue) which is as applicable as ever in 2015. I agree that the increasing phenomena of hundreds of English Bible versions (now at 500) being published is almost assuredly a guarantee, that it will all culminate with one [13]Luciferian counterfeit Bible version which will have successfully infiltrated and corrupted the churches to join the [14]demonic emerging church movement as foretold by [15]occultist Alice Bailey. ...

> Why So Many English Bible Versions Today?
> STRAIGHTWAY | June/July 2005
>
> By Dr. H. T. Spence
> In recent weeks the American Bible Society has stated that the growing number of English Bible versions on the market today has reached over five hundred. When both Higher and Lower Biblical Criticism arose over 150 years ago in the Liberal and Modernist camps, no one would have imagined the rise of hundreds of English translations vying for the popular market. Who would have thought that the discovery of a manuscript in a wastebasket of a monastery at the foot of Mt. Sinai would have caused the Protestant world to clamor over a text that has become the womb of the new English-translation movement throughout the English-speaking world? Not even the contemporary translators have been able to agree upon that one text—the overwhelming vast majority of the English versions today have sprung from that one manuscript. When one of these versions has made its way into the market, another one rises to declare its uniqueness and peculiarities.

Yet in spite of all these versions, there is more confusion about the Bible, more questioning of it, and more doubting of it today than in any other time in history. This delusion within the ranks of the institutional church is ever deepening. Most ministers of our contemporary spend much of their sermon time criticizing the Scripture they read and questioning whether it should even be in the Bible. They believe they have been called to be Bible Critics rather than Bible Proclaimers. Is it not proper to stop and consider the spirit behind the fevered debate over the multi-English Bible versions?

The Coming Final Bible Version

God often uses "forerunners" before the final appointments in His plan. He used John the Baptist to "prepare the way" of the Lord, making the path straight for His coming. He used "pre-reformers" before the Reformation's reformers. The same is true in finally bringing forth the Word of God to the English-speaking world: God chose the beginnings with the Wycliffe, Tyndale, Geneva versions, and others to be forerunners to prepare for the coming of a translation that would be a consummated English translation drawing from the previous ones. The King James Version became the one upon which God placed His providential hand preserving it over these past several centuries in the English-speaking world.

We are now witnessing in the end time the global falling away of the institutional Christian Church. The accepted trend of the versions is now rapidly mutating with every new version providing its own unique contribution. As there was a moving of God to prepare and pave the way for the coming appointed English version, is there a "coming version" that will be the final "Bible" for the final Apostate Church?

Is the multi-version debate preparing the world for a coming final version? No doubt, this final version will have all the ingredients needed to be accepted by the world church. Is the present plethora of English versions merely a collection of forerunners needed to acclimate "the church" for diversity of thought and interpretation?

What will the final "version" be called? Though the New International Version in recent years has outsold the KJV as the new "accepted" version, what will be on the horizon next year and the next, and the next? What surprising find will draw the church scholars into a carnal frenzy and cry, "We have found the true Bible"? The Church of earth is accepting the trend of change even in their view of God and His Word, ever changing with every generation. As the NIV is accepted today by a strong portion of the New Age Movement, what version out there will be accepted by all lifestyles, all beliefs, all religions, and all ethnic groups? The Antichrist will not come at the beginning necessarily denying the Word of God but simply questioning as the serpent, "Yea, hath God said?" (Genesis 3:1). This is the great controversy of the "versions" debate today—it is a serpentine debate.

Our modern English world is now in the mood for new versions; they are strongly discontent with the old. It is part of the Neo movement for the final apostate church that will lead the rest of the religious world to ride the back of the scarlet colored beast (Rev. 17:3). What will be the "version" to which all of the English versions today are leading? ...

Preserving The Preserved Word

According to Deuteronomy 17:18 and 31:26, the scroll of Moses' writing was placed in the "side" [sleeve, or holster] of the Ark of the Covenant. Future kings of Israel were to make a copy from that original. This principle has been one of the unique characteristics of the King James Version: it was copied or prepared for a king. The later versions have no such biblical identification.

We do not give allegiance to the "advanced revelation" view or that the beloved King James Version is as inspired as the original manuscripts. But we do believe that God has preserved this version for the English-speaking world. It is not so much the unending debate of scholarship to which we look, but to the sovereign workings of God throughout its history. It is too late in the End Time to get another version; there is no time to try and test it as the KJV has been. The present popular versions will eventually wane in their "rise to fame" while another version will have for a season its day in the sun of depraved humanity. While these others rise with boastings, popularity, global acceptance, and glamorous endorsements, the beloved KJV (that God has honored) has been in these final days of the End Time maligned, hated, intimidated, belittled (as God's saints will be by the popular church), and retired to never publicly battle the apostasy again.

No other version has ever been identified with the battle against the apostasy and Romanism as the beloved KJV. All of the versions of modern times have been part of the Neo-Christianity movement; this must be acknowledged. Even the most "conservative" version elevated today in Fundamentalism and Evangelicalism has not and is not identified with the battle against Rome, the End-time Mother Harlot, and the global apostasy of Protestantism. However, the KJV has been hated by the Church of Rome over these centuries as well as by the World Council of Churches. How often you can tell the character of a thing by its enemies . . . and by its friends.

My dear earthly father (shortly before his death in the year 2000) gave seven precious principles for teaching others to preserve the preserved Word of God:

1. Preserve it in Love. This means to simply preserve it, not prove it.
2. Preserve it by always using it publicly. This means to publicly preserve, not publicly compare it.
3. Preserve it by defending its English words publicly. This means to use its English words paramount to the English audience, not defending it by Biblical languages as a greater authority for the audience.
4. Preserve it in English Bible departments in Christian schools. This means teach the Elizabethan English distinctives of that time of the unity of the KJV in reaction to the contemporary time in which we live.
5. Preserve it by witnessing and evangelizing—planting KJV words for evangelism and revival. This means we teach that God has His Word in our English-speaking world.
6. Preserve it in power. This means that an English word, under the work of the Holy Spirit, has the power of the Word of God behind it.

7. Preserve it in the doctrine to others, too. This means that all the fundamental principles of the Gospel can be easily found in the KJV.

Let us preserve the Preserved Word of God by practicing these principles.

Conclusion

Our need is not "better renderings" but rather a "better understanding" of that which has already been rendered through the years. As the English-version controversy rages all around us concerning the KJV, may we not hurt the good and reliable while purporting that we have found the better. May God have mercy on Fundamentalism as it has certainly entered into the vestibule of the "contemporary" with its generic preaching, Neo-Evangelical music, and scholastic intoxication with the multi-version debate. [emphasis added]

Satan's NIV Turns Salvation Into a Process Instead of a Birth

Let's examine the question: Do people come to Christ for salvation through the NIV? Here's a comparison between 1st Corinthians 1:18 in the King James Bible and the NIV...

KING JAMES BIBLE — 1st Corinthians 1:18, "For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God."

NEW INTERNATIONAL VERSION — 1st Corinthians 1:18, "For the message of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God."

NEW INTERNATIONAL READER'S VERSION — 1st Corinthians 1:18, "The message of the cross seems foolish to those who are lost and dying. But it is God's power to us who are being saved."

Do you see how the NIV perverts salvation into a process? The NIV says that believers are "being saved," but the King James Bible says we "are saved." The NIV supports the Calvinistic heresy of the [17]Perseverance of the Saints. [18]The Salvation Army teaches this heresy, and I quote:

"We believe that continuance in a state of salvation depends upon continued obedient faith in Christ."

SOURCE: [19]1878 Foundation Deed Of The Salvation Army

Isn't that horribly sad? The Salvation Army believes that faith and good works are required to stay saved. My friend, salvation is a miraculous new-birth; not a lifestyle to be lived, nor a philosophy to ascribe to, nor a business, nor a culture, nor is it joining a religious organization. If I have to do anything to remain in a state of salvation, then salvation is by partial faith in Christ plus human effort. The Word of God teaches clearly that salvation is 100 % by completely resting in the sacrifice of Christ on the cross, Who died and rose up for our justification.

Also, notice that the NIV in 1st Corinthians 1:18 changes the word "preaching" to the word "message." This evil milquetoast generation hates Bible-preaching. The great need of the hour is preaching preachers. My friends, our nation's greatest need is PREACHING PREACHERS!!! We are at war with the Devil. Somebody needs to get mad at the Devil and say it like it is, and it needs to be said. Somebody needs to warn that Satan is corrupting our Bibles, as I have just showed you. The NIV changes 64,000 words as compared to the trustworthy King James Bible. The NIV is truly the Antichrist's Bible!

NIV Removes "the Son of God"

Here is the precious, inspired and accurate King James Bible:

> John 9:35, "Jesus heard that they had cast him out; and when he had found him, he said unto him, Dost thou believe on the Son of God?"

Now here is the butchered and corrupt NIV:

> John 9:35, "Jesus heard that they had thrown him out, and when he found him, he said, 'Do you believe in the Son of Man?' "

What a horrible perversion to the Scriptures? Jesus had just made a blind man to see by spitting into the dirt and putting clay upon the man's eyes. The man had been born blind. Jesus miraculously healed the man so that God would be glorified. Afterwards Jesus found the man, who had been kicked out of the synagogue by the Jewish religious leaders. Jesus asked the man if he believed on the Son of God? The man said "yes" and worshipped Jesus!!!

According to John 20:31, the Gospel of John was written to convince humanity that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, so that by believing on Jesus anyone can be saved:

> John 20:31, "But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name."

Why, oh why, would anyone tamper with the all-important message of the Gospel of John? Jesus asked the man if he believed on the Son of God? Most people believe that a man named Jesus existed in the flesh; but very few people believe that God came in the flesh (1st Timothy 3:16).

Jesus didn't ask the man if he believed Jesus was the Son of Man. No, rather, Jesus asked the man if he believed on THE SON OF GOD?

Do you believe on the precious Son of God. I do!

3.10.8 Why Pensacola Christian College Breaks My Heart (2022-10-13 08:55)

Revelation 3:2, “Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God.”

From the time that I began to attend the Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College (PCC) in July of 2021, something felt off to me. I felt like the captain of the Poseidon ship, who said: "[1]Something’s off" when he felt the undercurrent of the 500 foot tall Rogue Wave approaching, which would capsize the Poseidon completely upside down!

In hindsight, I now realize why I felt that something was off at PCC, because it is! The PCC camp refuse to take a stand against anything. They sing their nice religious music, go through all the superficial motions of playing church, all in the name of Jesus to appease their followers, but their heart is far from God. Matthew 15:8, “This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips; but their heart is far from me. ”

I couldn’t understand why the senior pastor of Campus Church was being mean toward me. He was rude and insensitive with his remarks toward me. Redlin didn’t care at all. He never offered to pray with me when I shared my broken life and health afflictions with him. Jeff Redlin woefully lacks God’s compassion for suffering people. Pastor Jack Hyles said it best:

> “The pastors have destroyed the churches, and they’ve been [2]trained by people that have never built churches, and [3]they have no compassion.” —Pastor Jack Hyles, “[4]Many Pastors Have Destroyed My Vineyard”

The preceding links take you to articles that I wrote to expose the corrupt Bob Jones University (BJU) cult, which includes the complicit Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. [5]If you doubt that Bob Jones University is a cult today, please read these blogs. Sadly, the love of money has tempted the Pensacola Christian College (PCC) camp to wickedly go along with the Bob Jones cult. This is apostasy! For taking a firm Biblical stand against BJU and PCC, I have been rejected, ostracized, shunned, criticized, ridiculed, laughed at, despised, banned from churches, humiliated and abused by the entire wicked lot of them all. In fact, as of August 2nd, 2022 I have been officially banned in writing from attending Campus Church at PCC. Dr. Curtis Hutson is right, who said:

> "You see, we not only believe the fundamentals of the faith, we believe in Ecclesiastical Separation. You don't yoke up with somebody that is not saved and call him a Christian brother!" —Pastor Curtis Hutson, [6]"Things That Are Different Are Not The Same"

Why is PCC wickedly bidding Godspeed to BJU? Jeff Redlin's name appears on Harvest Baptist Church's KHMG 88.1 FM radio station's webpage on Guam. Birds of a feather flock together! The wicked compromisers at PCC look down on me. They laugh when me name comes up, as they mock and criticize my website ministry. In July of 2021, Pastor Jeff Redlin shamefully accused me of "finding weaknesses in preachers." No, the truth is that I am preaching against wickedness in preachers! Titus 1:9-14 commands us as Christian men to "REBUKE THEM SHARPLY" that they might be sound in the faith.

According to Mr. Redlin, the other pastors of PCC's Campus Church agree with him. If Jeff Redlin and the other pastors were right with God, they would have commended me for contending for the faith. Do you see what is happening here? I am faithfully preaching against the corrupt Harvest Baptist Church on Guam; whereas PCC is bidding them Godspeed in their unrepentant state. Why? I'll tell you why in one word, money. They are businesses intended to make money. Harvest sends some of their high school graduates to PCC. The man who operates the radio station at PCC, has a son who operates the radio station at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. PCC and Harvest are connected at the hip, and Harvest is a miniature Bob Jones College on Guam. Dr. Steve Pettit has visited Guam and preached at Harvest.

Dear reader, I care. I care too much sometimes, which gets me into trouble. The real reason why I have been banned from attending PCC's Campus Church is simply because I CARE TOO MUCH!!! In sharp contrast, they don't give a damn at Harvest, BJU or PCC. BJU wickedly bids Godspeed to Pastor John MacArthur, one of their alumni. [7]Dr. MacArthur errantly teaches that children cannot be saved. He errantly teaches that [8]Jesus' blood is not sprinkled on the Mercy seat in Heaven, and that references to Jesus' "blood" in the Bible merely mean "death." The ungodly pastors at PCC, and the [9]ungodly PCC leaders who endorse them, are all guilty of bidding Godspeed to the evildoers at BJU. I am not trying to be unkind, God knows my heart, I am obeying God to contend for the Christian faith (Jude 1:3; Titus 1:9-14). RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!!

It breaks my heart that the PCC camp has rejected me. I pleaded with them in June, July and August of 2022 to just let me attend Campus Church, but they refused. In hindsight, I believe God is protecting me, and that He wants me to keep preaching against PCC. I had promised to stop criticizing Campus Church and PCC, and to remove all my criticisms on social media, if they would simply forgive and allow me to come back to Campus Church. Sadly, they refused. I guess I shouldn't be surprised, because that is the same wicked thing that Harvest Baptist Church on Guam did to me for seven long years, until I moved away in 2021 to Pensacola. I didn't know then what I do now, that PCC is in bed committing spiritual adultery with Harvest. You couldn't make this stuff up!

The sad thing which breaks my heart is that I TOLD THE TRUTH, for which I was scolded by Pastor Marty Herron at the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, and by Pastor Sean Quinlan at the Lighthouse Baptist Church on Guam, and by Pastor Redlin and the other pastors at PCC. That is so shameful for so-called " men of God.

" Who cares, right?

I read something encouraging by Pastor Jack Hyles, from his book on JUSTICE:

> "When we think of justice, most of us think of punishment. We think of a courtroom where someone is sentenced for a crime. Justice, however, is just as much positive as it is negative. If someone does something deserving of honor or reward, yet does not receive it, that is an injustice. Justice is not only the equaling of punishment to transgression, but it is also the equaling of reward to good work. ...I am glad that when I do something to lose a reward, there is something I can do to earn it back. That is what justice is really all about. Justice is equaling the punishment to the crime, but it is also equaling the reward to the good works." —Pastor Jack Hyles, Justice; chapter 25, "The Positive Side Of Justice"

That encourages me, to know that the Lord is one day going to equal the reward for my good works, for all these years that I have faithfully TOLD THE TRUTH, while ungodly fools like Pastor Jeff Redlin and Timothy Zacharias at PCC belittled me and my ministry. Galatians 4:16, "Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?" I befriended the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, since 2014 until still today in 2022, with THE TRUTH. Harvest uses multiple Bible revisions, including the Devil's modern perversions of the Bible. I took my own money and went to Berean Publishers online to order some books. I gave those helpful books to the pastors of Harvest. One book (which I love) is titled, "[10]NIV: The Antichrist's Bible."

I like the truth that Dr. Jack Hyles taught in his book on JUSTICE, which I just shared with you. Since I have been ridiculed, rejected, cast out, condemned, mocked and mistreated by the Bob Jones University and Pensacola Christian College camps, there is an UNJUSTICE. I met a woman at the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam in 2014, that I know would have married me in 2017, but that wicked devil Marty Herron coerced her to throw me under the bus, and she did. Pastor Herron is a marked man! He has much blood upon his hands for preaching the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation. This is serious stuff folks! The reason why PCC hobnobs and buddy buddies with the BJU camp on Guam, is simply because PCC doesn't take the reality of a burning Hell seriously. They don't take the accuracy of the Gospel seriously at PCC, for if they did they would contend for the faith and fight against the accursed Bob Jones crowd.

The present Pastor of the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam (Gary Walton) is an evil person! Harvest has intentionally removed their Statement of Faith concerning salvation from their website, and for a very obvious reason, because BJU and PCC are preaching two drastically different plans of salvation (and Pastor Gary Walton knows it!). [11]Here is the damnable heresy that BJU preaches! PCC preaches a free grace Gospel ([12]sort of). I confirmed with Pastor Redlin what they believe, and he said that repentance is NOT a separate act from believing, which is correct. So then why does the [13]PCC camp wickedly bid Godspeed to the Bob Jones crowd, which the Bible says makes them PARTAKERS of their evil deeds? 2nd John 1:11, "For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds. "

I am not the bad guy here. I'm sure that some of my blog and website ministry visitors think I am making much too big a deal over all this stuff. But dear friend, I truly am not! RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!! Life is short, Hell is hot and eternity is a long time. We superficially claim to believe in a burning Hell where lost sinners will be tormented for all eternity (Revelation 20:12-15; 21:8), without rest or hope day and night forever (Revelation 14:11). Yet, when I contend for the faith—by exposing the Devil's damnable lie of Lordship Salvation, by exposing the Devil's fraudulent Bible revisions that corrupt the inspired Word of God, by exposing the Devil's lie that repentance means forsaking a sinful lifestyle to get to Heaven—I have been wrongfully counted as the enemy and shunned from their churches (cults).

For preaching against these deadly evils I have been thrown under the bus, criticized, ridiculed, hated, despised, laughed at, wounded in my soul, shunned, belittled and ostracized by both the PCC and BJU religious camps. There is a woeful INJUSTICE!!! All of my faithful Bible preaching has not been equaled with praise, rewards and recognition. But by faith I know and trust that my dear Savior and Lord will execute justice in eternity, and Christ Himself will honor me in front of the ungodly clergy who berated, shunned and ostracized me like Rudolph the red-nosed reindeer.

[14] When You Have To Stand Alone For God

(MP3 sermon by Pastor Jack Hyles)

Like Rudolph the reindeer with the bright glowing nose, whose peers mocked and made fun of him for being different, I know the pain of soul caused by being "despised and rejected" by the local Harvest Baptist Church on Guam for my bright King James Bible only position, and I'm not allowed to play in any of their reindeer games (church activities and services). Jesus knows the pain and loneliness that I am going through, for He endured the same rejection from his peers. Isaiah 53:3, "He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief: and we hid as it were our faces from him; he was despised, and we esteemed him not." Jesus' own biological half-brothers didn't believe that He was the Savior. John 7:5, "For neither did his brethren believe in him." Of course, Jesus had no earthly father, for God Himself in Heaven is Jesus' biological Father! Joseph at a later time, after Christ was miraculously virgin born, became Jesus' Dad who raised Him.

I sure feel like Rudolph the red-nosed reindeer ([15]you can freely watch the classic film here), which was one of my favorite movies as a boy. I cannot hide my inspired King James Bible only nose, and don't want to! Nearly everyone today merely goes along to get along with the apostate evangelical crowd. I am decidedly different, I buck the trend. I am the monkey wrench in the gears of ecumenism. I am the loner. I am a modern-day John the Baptist (my middle name "John" is named after John the Baptist). Matthew 11:11 says that John was the greatest born among women. Perhaps I am the lowest born among men. Who knows...lol! No doubt my many critics and enemies would agree!

I don't want to conform to the accepted "norms" of new-evangelicalism. I don't want to be like everybody else who are indifferent, ungrateful, snobby, cliquish, cultish and cold-hearted (like the PCC camp who merely play church three times a week). I am an open and pure hearted loving person. I don't hold grudges. I am generous and like to give and help others who are in need. What would Jesus do? I don't want to go along with a dozen different Bible versions being promoted in the churches. God only authored ONE INSPIRED BOOK! I don't want to accept the demonic lie of Dr. Kevin Bauder that Lordship Salvation falls within the same realm as a free grace Gospel, because it doesn't, not even in the same ballpark! I fully agree with Pastor Curtis Hutson that [16]LORDSHIP SALVATION IS A PERVERSION OF GRACE!!!

I know that one day in eternity, God will balance the scales of justice, and my tireless and long lonely life and labors will be rewarded by Christ for not compromising, not dipping my sails and not selling out for a paycheck like Jeff Redlin sinfully has. RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!! The way that we treat people matters, something that Pastor Redlin and PCC leadership hasn't learned yet. They are a bunch of yuppie type academics who woefully lack God's love for people! [17]Go read about Samantha Field online and how PCC abused and mistreated her, victimizing her twice in their Pharisaical self-righteousness. The cult system always comes first at PCC, individual people do not matter.

That is what breaks my heart. PCC doesn't want THE TRUTH. Oh sure, they'll superficially say that they do, but they really don't. Loyalty to themselves and their cult is what they prioritize, not contending for the faith. I am genuinely contending for the faith. I will be the first person to admit that I am not a good Christian. I am just a miserable broken sinner who is trying my best in Christ's strength to get through each day of life. Most people don't give a damn, but I do care! Jesus cares (1st Peter 5:7). If you don't care, you're not walking close to Jesus! The best way to start loving other people is to simply let God love you! And God truly does love you dear reader, more than you can imagine. God was willing to die for you, so that you could be together with Him for all eternity.

It is my prayer that one day the leadership will change at PCC, but I honestly don't think that will happen, because the Bible says in Proverbs that a threefold cord is not easily broken. You've got PCC, BJU and the rotten Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, all united in unholy matrimony spiritually. PCC has a history of arrogance, cult behavior and shunning people (people like me who care enough to tell them THE TRUTH). If Lordship Salvation is a perversion of God's grace, as [18]Pastor Curtis Hutson and [19]Dr. Jack Hyles say it is, then my preaching will be vindicated in eternity. The PCC camp will be rebuked and suffer loss at the Judgment Seat of Christ, for shunning, humiliating and ostracizing me as a truth-teller.

I have fought a good fight against the apostasy at the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, who still today in 2022 idolize and promote [20]Calvinist devil-preacher Dr. Steve Pettit. Harvest broadcast's The Daily Platform (BJU's daily chapel services) on their KHMG 88.1 FM radio station, broadcasting Steve Pettit's damnable heresy throughout the Micronesian islands to corrupt them. This is wickedness!!! I'm sure some critics will say about me: "Look, he can't get along with anybody. First it was the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, and now it is Pensacola Christian College."

Oh yes, I can hear the haughty fools at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam laughing aloud, enjoying tearing me down in their own apostate ungodly minds. But is it really true that I cannot get along with anybody? Or, is it true that I care about right doctrine enough to SPEAK UP for God, to make a fuss, to "REBUKE THEM SHAPLY" as Titus 1:9-14 commands? You know that the latter is the truth. RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!! The reason why the shameful pastors of Campus Church at PCC falsely accused me of "finding weaknesses in preachers" is because they don't care!

May I ask you a question dear reader? But first let me give you an illustration. What if you walked your dog on a regular basis in your neighborhood. One evening you saw a house on fire and you called 911. You may have saved a family from certain death, because you cared. The next week while out walking your dog, you see a man laying on the ground, so you call 911 to report it. An ambulance comes, and you learn afterwards that the man had suffered a stroke, but will be okay now. You may have saved that person's life, because you cared. You do these things because you care. You could have just quietly walked away, pretending that you hadn't seen anything, but YOU DID THE RIGHT THING TO SPEAK UP! You live this way, living to serve and help needy people.

Now let's then, that you move a couple years later to a different area a couple neighborhoods over. You now go walking your same ole faithful dog in a new neighborhood. While walking, you see a serious car crash and call 911 to report it. The police and ambulances come. But as the police offer interviews you to get your story for his report, he says to you: "I know who you are, I used to be your neighbor down the street. Why are you always complaining about everything? Why do you make work for the police, don't you know that we already have enough to do? You should just mind your own business!" How would you feel about that? Would that police officer be right? No, he sure as hell wouldn't be right!!!

Dear reader, that is EXACTLY what Pensacola Christian College has shamefully done to me. I did make a fuss while attending the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, because [21]they are using Devil's Bibles, preaching the [22]Devil's counterfeit plan of salvation, and [23]teaching the Devil's false meaning of repentance for salvation. I cared enough to SPEAK UP for God! But instead of listening and thanking me for trying to help them, Pastor Marty Herron literally called me the church's " enemy.

" Galatians 4:16, "Am I therefore become your enemy, *because I tell you the truth?" Sadly, I endured the same persecution and rejection as did the Apostle Paul, because I told THE TRUTH.

In his last email to me, Pastor Jeff Redlin made the lame excuse that I used some language that he would never use. I called him a " and that is the exact word I used! So let me get this straight, Pastor Redlin is upset that I called him a silly name; but he doesn't give a damn that the Bob Jones University camp are preaching the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation? Sadly, that is how shallow, immature and backslidden the pastors at Campus Church are! I intentionally mailed the same letter to PCC that I sent to Campus Church, so that they can't come back in the future and plead ignorance of the matter. Now they are an accomplice to Jeff Redlin's wickedness!

Fuddrucker,

The PCC camp refuse to allow me to attend Campus Church, because I told THE TRUTH and they have chosen to sinfully befriend the wicked Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, instead of befriend me as a truth-teller. God sees that I am the only one who has done the right thing in all of this matter. Pastor Redlin should have thanked and commended me for my website ministry. Jeff Redlin has no honor! He wouldn't have had to agree with all of my website ministry content, but if he were right with God he at least would have commended me for contending for the faith (something that the PCC camp shamefully refuse to do!).

It breaks my heart because I did the right thing to TELL THE TRUTH. I may not have always been as Christlike in my spirit as I should have been, but I TOLD THE TRUTH nonetheless. So neither the BJU or PCC camp can triflyl dismiss the matter and throw me under the buss because I am rude at times. What saith the Scripture? 2nd Corinthians 11:6, " But though I be rude in speech, yet not in knowledge; but we have been throughly made manifest among you in all things." I know as sure as I am born-again that Lordship Salvation is a perversion of God's grace.

I know as sure as I am a born-again child of God that

Martin Luther (1483-1546) could not have gone to Heaven, because [24]he peached the heresy of Baptismal Regeneration all his life. If Martin Luther went to Heaven, then so does Church of Christ cult. Then so does the Seventh-Day Adventist cult.

The repentant (he changed his mind) thief on the cross didn't get water baptized. No one in the Old Testament got water baptized to go to Heaven. Yet, the Apostle Luke said in Acts 10:43 that "all the prophets" gave witness that remission (forgiveness) of sins only comes through faith in Christ. No one has ever been saved by works, which Romans 4:4 clarifies, "Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt." God has never owed anybody eternal life! We all deserve to go straight to Hell forever because of our sins (Romans 6:23): "Do Not Pass Go, Do Not Collect $200" (remember the popular game Monopoly?). But Hell is no game dear friend, it is as real as it gets unfortunately. Have you been born-again? John 3:3, "Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God." I have been born-again since age 13 in 1980. [25]Here is how you get born again!!!

[26] WHY BE BORN AGAIN

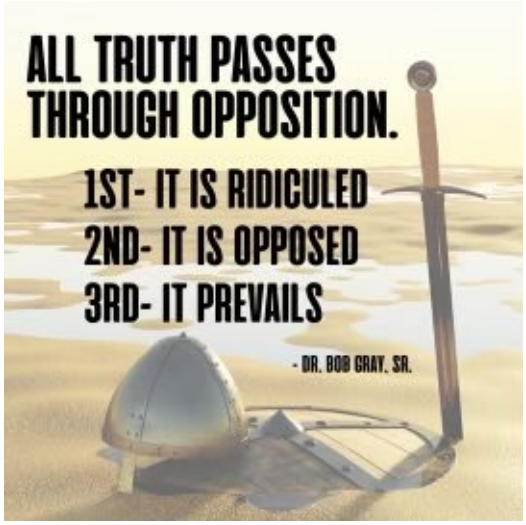
(MP3 by Pastor Jack Hyles; new sermon [27]I found in my tape collection)

Pensacola Christian College (PCC) breaks my heart, because I did the right thing to TELL THE TRUTH, for which they scolded me. That just shows the shameful decayed spiritual condition of their institution. INDIVIDUAL PEOPLE do not matter at PCC, the system always comes first. But in genuine Bible Christianity, PEOPLE COME FIRST! Jesus set His mind on OTHERS!

Philippians 2:4-5,

" Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others. Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus:"

In sharp contrast, all that the PCC camp care about is getting a bunch of people in their buildings, but they couldn't care less about hurting people like me. It didn't matter that I apologized for criticizing them on social media, and that I offered (and still offer) to do whatever they require to reconcile so we can make peace; but they won't do it!!!!!!! That just proves their carnality, their distance from God, their shameful attitudes at PCC and Campus Church. SOUL-WINNING MATTERS!!! ...



COMPASSION FOR THE UNSAVED

There is more love in a morgue than there is at PCC toward truth-tellers like me...

3.10.9 Six Perverted Gospels (2022-10-16 00:30)

Galatians 1:7 “Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.”

The following excellent article was authored by Evangelist Allen Domelle...

> ### A Perverted Gospel
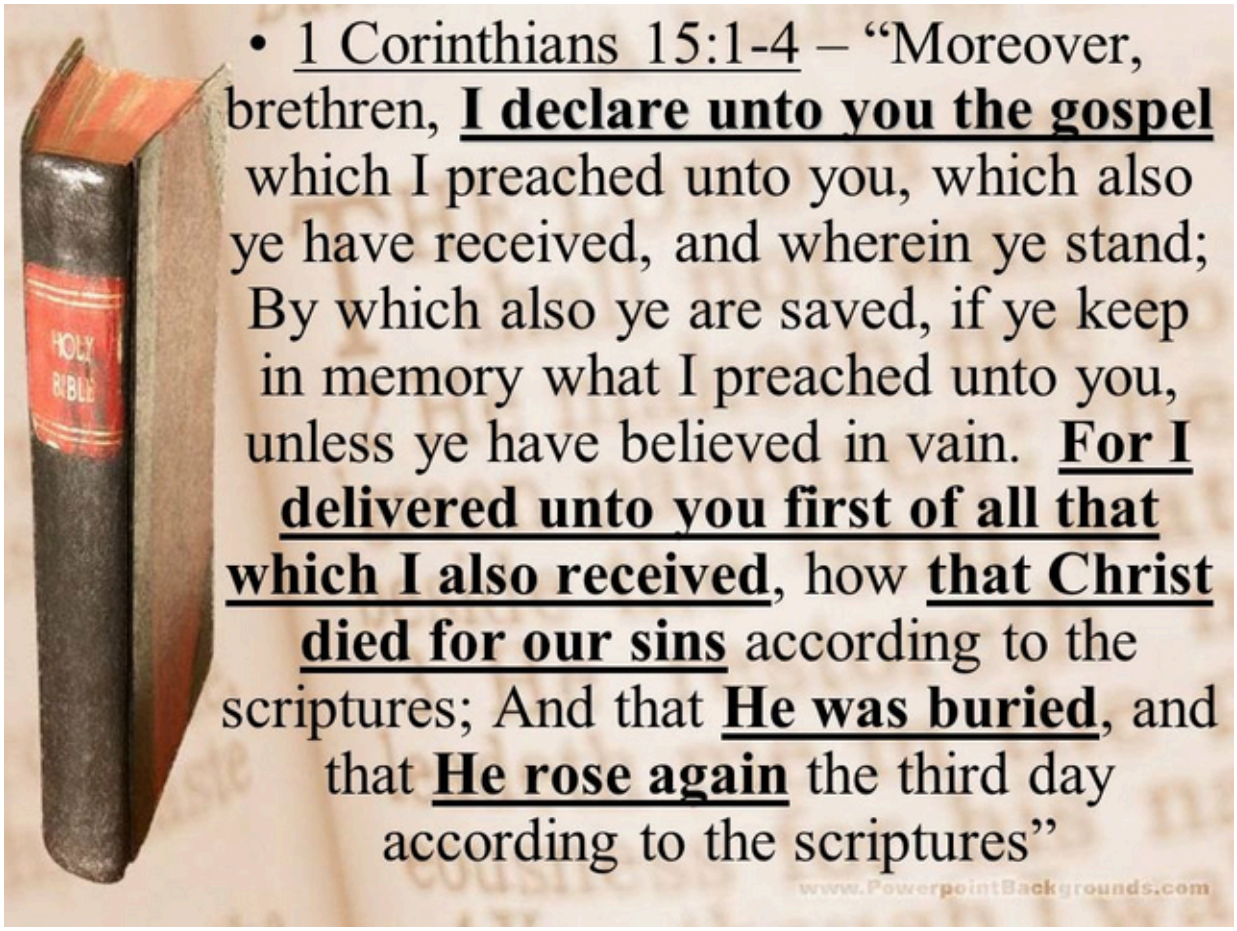
> Paul was amazed that the Galatian church was so quick to receive another gospel. These believers accepted the true Gospel to get saved, but they allowed the Gospel to be perverted by “smart” people who were smarter than God because what these “smart” people said was the Gospel was not the Gospel.

Paul said to them, "… there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ." The word "pervert" means twisted, distorted, misconstrued, and corrupted. In other words, they twisted the Gospel just a bit, but twisting the Gospel always makes it a false gospel. The Gospel doesn't need to be twisted or distorted to make it work; it is powerful enough the way God gave it to us to save any sinner.

Sadly, the same battle that Paul fought we still fight today. There are some who are considered "smart" people who pervert the gospel of Christ. The "smart" people are pretty dumb to think that their gospel is better than God's. Always remember that the gospel of the "smart" people will send a person to Hell, but the Gospel of Christ will always take a person to Heaven. Let me point out to you several perverted gospels of which you must beware.

First, beware of a bloodless gospel. There are some who say only the death is necessary, but God says that the blood is needed for an atonement for our sin. A bloodless gospel is a dead gospel that will not pay for one sin.



Second, beware of a works gospel. There is no work that will ever pay for your sins. You can try to be good, but the problem is that you are still a sinner. You cannot work yourself to Heaven because Christ's sacrificial death is the finished work and the only work needed for salvation.

Third, beware of a baptism gospel. Baptism has not saved one person. Just because you are baptized does not make you saved. You can get baptized many times, but every time you will come out of the water a sinner on your way to Hell. The waters of the baptismal have never paid for one sin and will never pay for anyone's sin.

Fourth, beware of a selective gospel. There are some that say only certain people will get saved. The Gospel of Christ says that "whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved." (Romans 10:13) 2 Peter 3:9 says that the Lord is "not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance." A gospel that says that only someone is selected before they are born to get saved is a perverted gospel.

Fifth, beware of a conditional gospel. The conditional gospel says you accept Christ as your Saviour, but you can lose it if you don't work to keep your salvation. Let me remind you that the Gospel of Christ not only saves you, but it keeps you until you get to Heaven.

Sixth, beware of a difficult gospel. There are some who want to make it so difficult for a person to get saved that they never lead a person to Christ. My friend, the hard part of the Gospel was done on Calvary, but the easy part is up to the sinner to simply trust Christ. Let's be careful about making the Gospel difficult and let the power of the Gospel save those who trust Christ and call on Him to save them.

• 1 Corinthians 15:1-4 – "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that He was buried, and that He rose again the third day according to the scriptures"

3.10.10 A Well Made Video, But a Deadly False Gospel (2022-10-18 21:10)

Galatians 1:6-7, "I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed."

Although I love the sounds and images in the following video, it is blatant false teaching. The gist of the video is that you cannot go to Heaven unless you live a righteous life, follow Jesus and serve Him faithfully. I HATE that video! Watch it for yourself...

This is Damnable False Doctrine, But Well Made

The video teaches that you have to surrender control of your life over to God, and your life must change, or else you won't go to Heaven. The whole video is preaching that you don't have to do works to be saved, but if you don't do works you never had a genuine relationship with God, so you go to Hell. This preceding video is an excerpt from the full audio theater performance titled: "[1]Rescued" by [2]John & Lisa Bevere, two are false prophets who preach another gospel, claim to receive extra Biblical revelation (as did cult leaders' Ellen G. White and Joseph Smith). Their corrupt plan of salvation is very different from what the inspired King James Bible teaches. BEWARE OF WOLVES IN SHEEP'S CLOTHING!!! (MATTHEW 7:13-15).

I highly encourage you to watch this beautiful sermon by Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold titled: "[3]Why Lordship Salvation Is Wrong," and you will clearly see what is wrong with the video. Whoever made that video IS NOT SAVED!!! You don't have to receive Jesus as your "Lord and Savior" to be saved, just your "Savior." Pastor Jack Hyles also exposes the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation: '[4]The Lordship Salvation Mess!'

Here Pastor Curtis Hutson exposes Lordship Salvation as: "[5]A Perversion Of The Gospel." You won't find anything in the Gospel of John about following Jesus, making Him Lord of your life, surrendering all to Him, faithfully running the Christian race, living a lifestyle of repentance, counting the cost and paying the price, publicly confessing Christ, being water baptized, serving Jesus, repenting of your sins and forsaking them, having a relationship with Christ nor anything else! That is all junk theology!!! Although it is true that every child of God has a Father and adopted son relationship with the Lord, Judas also had a relationship with Jesus as one of His very apostles. Yet Judas went to Hell forever in his sins because He didn't believe that Jesus is the Christ, the only begotten Son of God. Judas didn't go to Hell because he was a sinner, he went to Hell because of his UNBELIEF in Christ.

Pilgrim's Progress author John Bunyan said it best, and this is my favorite preacher quote:

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." —John Bunyan (1628-1688)

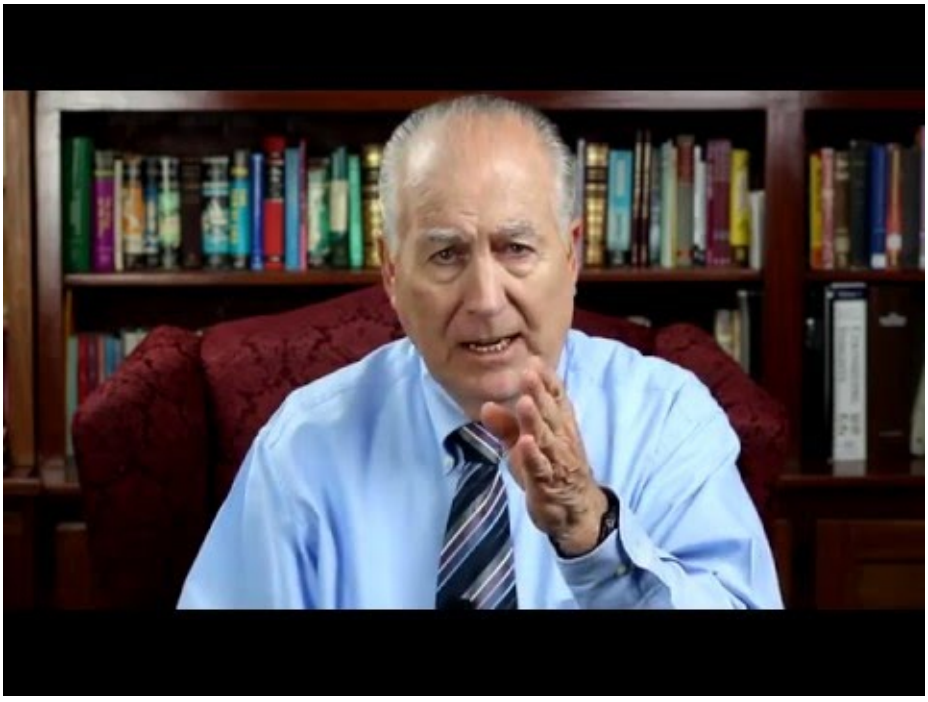
Amen and amen! Bravo John Bunyan!!!

And again, here is another helpful quote from one of my favorite preachers, Pastor M.R. DeHaan (1891-1965):

> "There is a vast difference between coming to Jesus for salvation and coming after Jesus for service. Coming to Christ makes one a believer, while coming after Christ makes one a disciple. All believers are not disciples. To become a believer one accepts the invitation of the Gospel, to be a disciple one obeys the challenge to a life of dedicated service and separation. Salvation comes through the sacrifice of Christ; discipleship comes only by sacrifice of self and surrender to His call for devoted service. Salvation is free, but discipleship involves paying the price of a separated walk. Salvation can't be lost because it depends upon God's faithfulness, but discipleship can be lost because it depends upon our faithfulness." Pastor M.R. DeHaan, Hebrews. Zondervan Publishing House, 1959 (p. 117).

I hope you can now clearly see, how the creator of the preceding YouTube video at the beginning of this blog, is perverting God's saving grace. Romans 11:6, "And if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work." The video in question is full of demands for the viewer to do works to legitimize their faith, but that is still WORKS!!!

Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold makes these helpful statements:



> "Lordship Salvation is the unsupportable and unbiblical belief that the performance of good works, the promise of good works, or the evidence of good works, must accompany faith in Christ to establish or provide evidence that such faith has resulted in eternal life." —Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold, [6]"Jesus versus John MacArthur"

> “Salvation is one thing and service is another, and never the two goes together. No man is saved because he serves, and no man has to serve because he is saved. Gotta keep them separate! And if you don’t do it, the Scriptures will be confusing to you. You’ll not rightly divide what God has to say.” —Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold, “[7]Why Lordship Salvation Is Wrong”

Those are wonderful truthful quotes! Dear friend, have you ever been born-again? The quickest way to burn in Hell forever is to TRUST IN TOO MUCH to get to Heaven. Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) also said that truth:

> “More people will die and burn in Hell, because they’re trusting too much!” —Pastor Jack Hyles, a precious quote from the MP3 sermon, “[8]Yea, Yea, And Nay, Nay!”
> “Everything that’s hard and complicated about salvation is God’s side of it!” —Pastor Jack Hyles, “[9]Yea, Yea, And Nay, Nay!”

Remember, the Devil is a beautiful liar! Whoever made that horrible video is woefully ignorant of the inspired Word of God, wrongly dividing the Holy Scripture. I would RUN away from that deadly video! I’m using the video as a tool to show you dear reader WHAT IS NOT THE GOSPEL, so that you can [10]see the true Gospel of free grace. It is very dangerous because it is well made, has great sound, but it is FALSE DOCTRINE!!! Here is the true Gospel, by my dear friend, Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold...

3.10.11 The Seven Churches Of Asia Minor And Bible Prophecy (2022-10-20 04:30)

Revelation 1:20, “

The mystery of the seven stars which thou sawest in my right hand, and the seven golden candlesticks. The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches: and the seven candlesticks which thou sawest are the seven churches.

There is a popular teaching in many Baptist churches today, which says the seven churches in Revelation chapter 1 through 3 refer to time periods. This is dispensational teaching! Pastor Jack Hyles hated and refuted this false doctrine, and I agree with him. The most popular of the seven churches is the Laodicean church, which is the “lukewarm” church:

> Revelation 3:15-18, “I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot. So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth. Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked: I counsel thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear; and anoint thine eyes with eyesalve, that thou mayest see.”

I often compare spiritually lifeless places like Pensacola Christian College (PCC) to the Laodicean church. Sadly, the leaders at PCC only want to make more money, they refuse to contend for the Christian faith. They refuse to expose the Devil’s fake Bible revisions. You’ll never heard false prophets exposes by name at PCC. Instead, the PCC camp are lukewarm, just like the lukewarm Laodicean church in the book of Revelation. Campus Church at PCC is cold, formal and lukewarm.

At PCC they are naked, wretched and blind, but they think they are prospering because they have lots of money, influence and followers. That is NOT true success! Pastor Joel Osteen is not even a born-again Christian! Osteen preaches the Devil’s lie of Lordship Salvation, and errantly requires that people “ repent of their sins

to be saved (which is no where taught in the inspired King James Bible). Yet, Pastor Osteen's cult has 50,000 members in attendance each week at the Lakewood Church in Houston, Texas.

Kindly said, the size of the crowd is NOT a true indicator of one's success in God's sight. A humble pastor with a small congregation of 20 people out in the country can be a big success in God's eyes. Sadly, PCC is as the Laodicean church, blinded by their worldly success. PCC has a poor reputation for hurting people. As one of their own students rightly said:

"At PCC the system always comes first, individual people do not matter." She is absolutely correct! SHAME on the PCC camp for being respecters of persons!!!

Having said that, I do not believe that we are today living in the "Age of Laodicea" as dispensationalists like to claim. A dispensationalist is someone who believes that God dealt with humanity in different ways during different times. For example: Dispensationalists will claim that saints in the Old Testament lived in the Age of Law, but New Testament saints are now living in the Age of Grace. That is false doctrine! God's free gift of salvation has ALWAYS been by grace through faith in Christ. What saith the Scripture? Acts 10:43, "To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins."

A popular false teacher of the 20th century was Pastor Peter S. Ruckman (1921-2016). [1]Dr. Ruckman errantly taught that people were saved by works in the Old Testament. Ruckman taught that because Old Testament saints lived under the Law of Moses, during the dispensation of the Age of Law, that they were required by God to keep the law to get to Heaven. What saith the Scripture? Romans 4:4, "

Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt.

" This Bible verse plainly refutes the so-called

"Age of Law" heresy. This verse also plainly refutes Dr. Peter Ruckman's heresy that people were saved by works in the Old Testament. Romans 4:4 clearly teaches that if salvation has ever been "by works," then it is of debt (i.e., God owes that individual salvation).

Dear reader, God does not owe you anything except to cast you into a burning Lake of Fire forever. You and I are guilty sinners! We have all disobeyed God's commandments. I sure have! I am not proud of my sins. I wish that I could go back and live my life over, and NOT DO some of the sinful things that I have done (i.e., sins of commission). 1st John 3:4, "Whosoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law: for sin is the transgression of the law."

I also wish I could go back and DO things that I should have done (i.e., sins of omission).

James 4:17,

Therefore to him that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin.

” We are all big sinners! I love something that Pastor Jack Hyles said:

“The First Baptist Church of Hammond will become a great church when we stop saying, ’He has sinned’ and ’She has sinned’ and we start saying, ’We have sinned!”’ Yes, I love that! This was the godly attitude of David in the Old Testament, who said in Psalms 106:6, “ We have sinned with our fathers, we have committed iniquity, we have done wickedly. ”

Dear reader, you will have grown into a fine Christian, when you finally have the humble attitude that, “WE HAVE SINNED.” Dr. Jack Hyles preached a wonderful sermon (one of my favorite of his sermons) on this subject, called: ’[2]The Good Man Versus The Spiritual Man.’ The Apostle Paul sorrows that he IS a wretched sinner, not that he once WAS a dirty sinner. Romans 7:24, “

O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me from the body of this death?

” The spiritual believer doesn’t look down on other sinners; but rather, says to one’s self:

“There but for the grace of God, go I.”

Getting back to the main topic, the Laodicean church was an actual church in the city of Laodicea. The seven churches of Asia Minor would today be located in the country of Turkey in Europe. These were seven literal churches, each with its own pastor. Jesus Himself is the Author of the prophecy of Revelation (Revelation 1:1-2). And by the way, PLEASE do not ever refer to the book of Revelation as “Revelations” (plural). Even though this prophetic book of the Holy Bible does provide many revelations, it is the “ revelation

(singular) of Jesus Christ to the reader.

Did you know that the purpose of ALL Bible prophecy is to TESTIFY of Jesus Christ? Revelation 19:20, “And I fell at his feet to worship him. And he said unto me, See thou do it not: I am thy fellowservant, and of thy brethren that have the testimony of Jesus: worship God: for the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.” I love that! So when you are reading the Word of God, always keep your eyes open for how that particular passage of Scripture applies to Jesus. There is an old adage, that in a bad sense says: “To the man with a hammer in his hand, everything looks like a nail sticking up.” Well, in a good sense, to the man with Christ in His soul, he ought to look for Jesus in everything! Amen.

And did you know that the Holy Bible contains 31 % prophecy? Yes, it is true. There are three types of prophecy in the Bible:

1. [3]Messianic prophecy (i.e., predictions concerning Christ before and after He became incarnate; e.g., Jesus’ virgin birth was foretold in Isaiah 7:14, which was 700 years before Christ was born)
2. Contemporary Prophecy (e.g., predictions now being fulfilled; Revelation 17:10-12 fore-tells of the 7th king, which is clearly the now forming sinister New World Order, from which the 8th king, Antichrist, will emerge)

3. Future prophecy (e.g., the pretribulation Rapture; 2nd Thessalonians 2:1-4 teaches that the Church must be removed from earth before the Man of Sin can appear)

In a sense, since the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of ALL Bible prophecy, we could say that all prophecies are Messianic (past, present and future).

I don't like dispensational teaching. My favorite author on the subject of refuting dispensationalism is Evangelist Philip Mauro (1859-1952). Mauro authored a helpful book titled: '[4]The Gospel Of The Kingdom' in 1927. i love this book! At the end of the 19th century, Cyrus I. Scofield (1843-1921) was at the height of his career and popularity as a lawyer, politician and theologian. Mr. Scofield is arguably considered by most fundamentalist Christians as the father of Dispensational teaching. But there was another man named Philip Mauro, also an attorney, who smelled a rat in Scofield's new theology. Whereas Scofield exalted the nation of Israel concerning the Kingdom of God, Mauro realized that it is the Gospel that should be exalted, and not Israel. I couldn't agree more.

Philip Mauro also realized that whereas Scofield's new doctrine of dispensationalism divided the Holy Bible into SEVEN segments, God has already made TWO great divisions to His Word of LAW and GRACE (or, respectively, OLD and NEW Testaments). Mauro does an excellent job expounding this truth in chapter 3 of his book, called:

' [5]The LAW And The GOSPEL .' I thank God for objective thinking Christian men like Philip Mauro. Bravo!

Dear reader, God has already made TWO great divisions to His inspired Word, which emphasizes THE GOSPEL of the Kingdom of God. But dispensational teaching divides the Word of God into SEVEN (sometimes even EIGHT) portions, to emphasize the future Kingdom of Israel instead of the Gospel of free grace which saves men's souls (Romans 1:16).

Now, I know some godly pastors who preach using dispensational teaching. They are good men. I am okay with them using dispensational teaching, just so long as they are soulwinning pastors, and they DON'T idolize manmade Israel (the present day nation of Israel was created by the heathen United Nations in May of 1948). This is NOT the fulfillment of Bible prophecy. How do I know that? What saith the Scripture?

> Hosea 3:4-5, "
>
> For the children of Israel shall abide many days without a king, and without a prince, and without a sacrifice, and without an image, and without an ephod, and without teraphim:
>
> Afterward shall the children of Israel return, and seek the LORD their God, and David their king; and shall fear the LORD and his goodness in the latter days.

During the future 7-year Tribulation (which includes the New World Order), a remnant of Jews will repent (change their mind) to believe the Gospel. These will be [6]144,000 Jews, foretold of in the book of Revelation, who will get saved and be sealed by God for service. God will restore His covenant with Israel ("he shall confirm the covenant with many for one week," Daniel 9:27b) during Daniel's 70th week, that is, during the 7-year Tribulation period. A week has 7 days. Daniel's 70th week will be 7 years. We know that it will be years because of Daniel 12:11, "And from the time that the daily sacrifice shall be taken away, and the abomination that maketh desolate set up, there shall be a thousand two hundred and ninety days."

So from the time that the Antichrist (the Beast, the Man of Sin) commits the Abomination of Desolation (the event when Antichrist exalts himself as the Messiah on earth, God) from the temple in Jerusalem (2nd Thessalonians 2:4; Matthew 24:15), there will be 1,290 days (which is 3 1/2 years). What saith the Scripture? Daniel 9:27, "

And he shall confirm the covenant with many for one week: and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease, and for the overspreading of abominations he shall make it desolate, even until the consummation, and that determined shall be poured upon the desolate. **"

These Bible verses makes understanding the future so clear. I love the book of Daniel! Ironically, the prophet Daniel admitted that he couldn't understand what he was being inspired by the Holy Spirit to pen down (Daniel 12:8). As we just read in Daniel 9:27, please notice that the Abomination of Desolation happens in the "MIDST" of Daniel's 70th week. Well we just read in Daniel 12:11 that there will be 1,290 days from the Abomination of Desolation until Jesus Christ returns at the end of Daniel's 70th week. Clearly then, if there will be 3 1/2 years from the "midst" (middle) of the 70th week to the end, then it is only logical to conclude that there must also be 3 1/2 years before the "midst" of the week. This is how we know that the Tribulation period will last for 7-years. The Bible is very clear about this time frame.

But how do we know that [7]God will not regather Israel until Jesus' Second Coming?

For now Israel in part is blinded the Bible says, but once the Church is CAUGHT UP (1st Thessalonians 4:16-17), then the Jew's eyes will be opened and they will start repenting toward to God:

> Romans 11:25, "For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, lest ye should be wise in your own conceits; that blindness in part is happened to Israel, until the fulness of the Gentiles be come in."

There is the answer! Israel will not be regathered until The Fulness Of The Gentiles is fulfilled. We are now living in The Times Of The Fulness Of The Gentiles. Luke 21:24, "And they [the Jews] shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations: and Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled." This Times Of The Fulness Of The Gentiles will end at the Second Coming of Jesus at the end of the 7-year Tribulation. Even so, come, Lord Jesus!

In Daniel chapter 2, we read about Nebuchadnezzar's image. God gave Daniel the gift of interpreting dreams. The image which Nebuchadnezzar saw is pictured below...

Nebuchadnezzar's Image From His Dream

The above image is helpful. Daniel 2:45, "

Forasmuch as thou sawest that the stone [Jesus Christ] was cut out of the mountain without hands, and that it brake in pieces the iron, the brass, the clay, the silver, and the gold; the great God hath made known to the king what shall come to pass hereafter: and the dream is certain, and the interpretation thereof sure. " Here we learn that when Jesus comes back to earth (after the 7-year Tribulation period), Christ will smash the Gentile kingdoms of this world, and set up His new millennial Kingdom.

The Times Of The Fulness Of The Gentiles will be over when Christ returns to reign on earth! Jesus will literally sit upon David's throne in Israel, and reign as King over the whole earth, from the city of Jerusalem. All of us saints will help Jesus, reigning with Him over the earth (Revelation 20:6). Yes, you and I dear Christian believer will reign with Christ someday. What a blessed honor, grand opportunity and humble privilege!!! We will all have received our perfect resurrected bodies at the Rapture, and those saints killed during the Tribulation will be resurrected with immortal new bodies when Christ returns. Our bodies will be fashioned like unto the Lord's glorified resurrected body (Philippians 3:21).

Those lost sinners who get saved during the Tribulation period, will go into the millennium with their mortal sinful bodies. We will serve those people, knowing that " he that is greatest among you shall be your servant

" (Matthew 23:11b). We will reign with Christ as servants. Jesus will be the greatest of all servants, being a good and righteous King, who will reign over the earth with " a rod of iron

” (Revelation 2:27, 12:5, 19:15). Bible prophecy is so exciting! Did you know that the Muslim Koran contains ZERO prophecy. That is because one wicked man, Muhammad, authored the ungodly Koran; whereas God almighty authored the inspired Holy Bible. There is no book in human history like the Holy Bible!

I hear atheists, mockers and skeptics denying, questing and provoking God with their blasphemy. Dear friend, the Bible itself is 100 % solid conclusive PROOF that God exists! The Bible is comprised of 66 separate books, books penned by different men (approximately 40 men; we don’t know who penned the book of Hebrews, but I think it was the Apostle Paul). These men spoke different languages. They varied in education and intelligence. Some were learned, but others unlearned. Some were rich, but others poor.

Most of these men never met one another. Some were farmers, others scholars. These 66 books were written over a time span of 1,700 years! Yet, these 66 books that comprise the canon of Scripture perfectly harmonize, so that a child of God can understand them. The blessed indwelling Holy Spirit teaches and guides us as saints into all truth (John 16:13). Only God could have given such a miraculous Book to humanity, in such a fascinating miraculous manner. Thank you for reading.

3.10.12 The Devils Believe Also And Tremble (2022-10-20 22:28)

James 2:19, “Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: the devils also believe, and tremble.”

Most religious people quote the last half of this verse, without considering the first half. James 2:19 does not mention believing on Christ for salvation, and James 2 is not about salvation, but living the Christian life.

How does believing in one God profit the brother or sister who is in need of help?

James 2:16-17, “If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food, And one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be ye warmed and filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body; what doth it profit?” Where is the evidence of one’s Christian faith?

When I attended Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College in 2021, I was sleeping in Walmart’s parking lot. The hotel where I had made reservations a month prior, cancelled my entire stay without warning because they were greedy, and wanted to make more money over the 4th of July weekend. I had locked in a $55 per night rate, by booking the reservation in advance for a 30-day stay at the Woodspring Suites Hotel in Pensacola. Local hotels over the 4th of July weekend were charging $450 per night! I know because that is what the Super 8 Hotel in Pensacola wanted to charge me. I would NEVER pay that much for a hotel room!!! So I slept in Walmart's parking lot. Those ungodly hotel owners will answer to God for leaving me homeless, for their utter greed, which was cruel and evil.

To add insult to injury, when I told Pastor Jeff Redlin at Pensacola Christian College (PCC) about my situation (at the 4th of July picnic at Campus Church), he cold-heartedly walked away from me. I saw the startled look on his face when I told him that I was sleeping in Walmart's parking lot, but he couldn't have cared less. Jeff Redlin is a horrible pastor! Sadly, [1]individual people don't matter at PCC, the cult system always comes first. PCC has a horrific pattern of expelling students, showing no mercy, not giving second chances, abusing people and ignoring individuals who need their help. SHAME on Pensacola Christian College!

That is what the Bibles means when it says " faith without works is dead.

Faith without works is of no benefit to the brother or sister who is naked or destitute of daily food. Faith is of no benefit to the hurting brother who is homeless sleeping in Walmart's parking lot. Jeff Redlin's faith is DEAD. PCC's faith is DEAD. They are saved, but the faith that they have is idle faith.

> James 2:20-24, "But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead? Was not Abraham our father justified by works, when he had offered Isaac his son upon the altar? Seest thou how faith wrought with his works, and by works was faith made perfect? And the scripture was fulfilled which saith, Abraham believed God, and it was imputed unto him for righteousness: and he was called the Friend of God. Ye see then how that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only."

In Genesis 15:6 Abram (later to be renamed Abraham) believed the Lord and it was counted (imputed) unto him for righteousness. Abraham was saved by faith alone without works, which is the only way that anyone has ever been saved:

> Romans 4:1-7, "What shall we say then that Abraham our father, as pertaining to the flesh, hath found?
>
> For if Abraham were justified by works, he hath whereof to glory; but not before God.
>
> For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness.
>
> Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt.
>
> But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.
>
> Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works,
> Saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered."

The preceding Scripture passage could not be more clear that Abraham was NOT justified by works in any way, shape or form. Abraham believed the Lord, and his FAITH was counted for righteousness in the sight of God.

Isaac hadn't even been conceived yet when Abram got saved in Genesis 15:6. But seven chapters later in Genesis chapter 22, we read the story of Abraham who went up a mountain to sacrifice his young son, Isaac. The angel of the Lord stopped Abraham before he could finish. God was testing Abraham's obedience as a believer. It was by this work that Abraham's faith was validated in the sight of men, not God.

Carefully notice what the Apostle James says in James 2:18,

" Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith without thy works, and I will shew thee my faith by my works." Do you see? James said:

"I will SHEW YOU" my Christian faith by my good works; and you can SHEW ME your Christian faith by your own good works. James is not talking about being justified in the sight of God, which is what Paul speaks about in the Epistle of Romans. James is talking about being justified in the eyes of men. Look what the Bible says:

> 1st Samuel 16:7, "But the LORD said unto Samuel, Look not on his countenance, or on the height of his stature; because I have refused him: for the LORD seeth not as man seeth; for man looketh on the outward appearance, but the LORD looketh on the heart."

There you have it dear friend. Man looks on the OUTWARD appearance, which is why the only way humans can be justified in the sight of other humans, is by our outward behavior and works. That is why we read in Matthew 5:16, " Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven." This is why James said that faith without works is dead, in the sight of mankind.

But God CAN see into the depths of our heart of hearts; therefore, we can be justified by faith without works in the sight of God. Amen and amen.

3.10.13 The LAW And The GOSPEL (2022-10-23 22:38)

Chapter Three from, " [1]The Gospel Of The Kingdom " (1928) | [2]Download Book As .PDF

by Dr. Philip Mauro (1859-1952)

THE Bible distinguishes—not seven dispensations, each having a character exclusively its own, but two great eras of God’s dealings with mankind; the first of which was preparatory to the second, and the second of which is the completion of the first. Their scriptural designations are:

First: The Old Covenant; or the Law and the Prophets; or simply, the Law.

Second: The New Covenant; or the Kingdom of God; or simply, the Gospel.

This division is not man-made, artificial, conjectural; for it comes to us plainly marked in the structure of the Bible itself, which is composed of two grand divisions, the Old Testament, and the New Testament. (And it should be noted that the word "Testament" is one of the renderings of a Greek word that is sometimes, as in Hebrews 8:6-10, and should be always, translated "Covenant").

Furthermore those two grand divisions of the Bible are clearly marked and separated, the one from the other, by the long stretch of time that intervened between them, there being a period of four hundred years between the last Book of the Old Testament and the first events (Luke I) recorded in the New. GOD HAS SPOKEN: TO THE FATHERS—TO US.

This scriptural division of God's dealings with men into two great eras is referred to in a number of passages. I have already cited Luke 16:16, "The law and the prophets were until John: since that time the Kingdom of God is preached," and John 1:17, "For the law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ." Another passage that clearly distinguishes them and also sheds light upon the whole subject is Hebrews 1:1, 2, "God, who at sundry times and in divers manners spoke in time past unto the fathers by the prophets, hath in these last days spoken unto us by His Son."

By this passage we learn that God has spoken in two different eras: (1) "in time past," and (2) "in these last days." Here we have something certain, and therefore we can safely build upon it. How valuable is the information that these days of the Gospel of Christ are "the last days"! But the dispensationalists must explain away the meaning of these words because, for one reason, their scheme provides for at least one dispensation after the termination of the Gospel era. There are, however, other passages that confirm and settle the meaning of this one. Thus Peter, speaking of the pouring out of the Holy Spirit on the day of Pentecost, said: "This is that which was spoken by the prophet Joel: And it shall come to pass in the last days saith God, I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh" (Acts 2:16, 17); which plainly locates the day of Pentecost in the era which God's Bible calls "the last days."

Likewise the same apostle writes concerning Jesus Christ as the Lamb of God, without blemish and without spot, saying: "Who verily was foreordained before the foundation of the world, but was manifest in these last times for you." (I Pet. 1:19, 20). And the apostle John says with characteristic brevity and emphasis: "Little children, it is the last time" (I John 2-18).

Then we have the words of Paul who, referring to the things that befell the Israelites in the wilderness, said: "Now all these things happened unto them for ensamples; and they are written for our admonition upon whom the ends of the world (lit, the ends of the ages) are come" (I Corinthians 10:11). And again it is written concerning the first coming of Christ that "now once in the end of the world hath He appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of Himself" (Heb. 9:26). It is worthy of special note that this last passage contains the adverb of time, "now," emphasizing the fact that the period of our Lord's coming and of His sacrifice belongs to "the end of the ages." We recall that the "Scofield Bible" places it in the era of the law, and does so for the purpose of separating His words (and particularly His Sermon on the Mount) from us, God's children, and allocating them to an imaginary Jewish Kingdom of a supposed future dispensation. How satisfying to the heart, and how fatal to this modernistic and pernicious error are the words of Hebrews 1:1, 2, quoted above, which plainly declare that God "hath in these last days spoken UNTO US by His Son"!

THE LAW OF MOSES AN UNSPEAKABLE BLESSING TO ISRAEL

And now as regards the character of God's dealings with those who were under the Law and the character of the Law itself, it is difficult indeed to account for and more difficult to speak calmly of, the terms of disparagement and strong repugnance in which the leaders of the dispensationalists express themselves when speaking of the Law of God. Of our Lord it was prophesied that He should "magnify the law and make it honorable," but the aim of many of His ministers in these days seems to be to belittle the law and make it detestable. Take a few specimens from the writings of prominent dispensationalists: "The Law is a ministry of condemnation, death, and the divine curse." So says the Scofield Bible (notes to Gal. 3:24). But does God's Bible speak that way? We shall see. And another leading dispensationalist declares that, "The law was the instrument of condemnation, and only that." In fact, the leaders among the dispensationalists seem to take a delight—not as did the Psalmists, "in the Law of the Lord" (Ps. 1:2), but in inveighing in terms of strongest reprobation against it. In support of this view of the Law, reference is commonly made to certain passages in Galatians, and also to the seventh Chapter of Romans, which are misinterpreted in such a way as to cause them to render a semblance of support to that view. But before we examine those passages let us get the testimony of Scripture, which is clear and unequivocal, as to what the character of the Law actually is. We have already cited the testimony of Moses that the Law delivered at Sinai was God's love-gift to the people (Deut. 33:3). It is further stated in that inspired record of "the blessing wherewith Moses the man of God blessed the children of Israel before his death," that "they sat down at Thy feet; every one shall receive of Thy words" (v. 3). And he goes on to say: "Moses commanded us a law," and that that law is "the inheritance of Jacob" (v. 4).

A number of passages earlier in the Books of Moses reveal that the law was given as a means of life. Thus, in Deuteronomy 4:1, Moses exhorts Israel to hearken to the statutes and judgments which (he says) "I teach you for to do them, that ye may live." (And to the same effect see Leviticus 18:5.) And concerning God's law he says: "For this is your wisdom and your understanding in the sight of the nations, which shall hear these statutes and say, Surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people. . . . For what nation is so great, that hath statutes and judgments so righteous as all this law" (Deut. 4:6-8). Thus the Law of God was given the people of Israel to be their life; and it constituted their wisdom, their understanding, and their greatness in the sight of all other nations. And a little farther on Moses says: "And the Lord commanded us to do all these statutes, to fear the Lord our God, for our good always, that He might preserve us alive. . . . And it shall be our righteousness, if we observe to do all these commandments." (Deut. 6:24, 25). And he tells them that it was because the Lord loved them that He had redeemed them out of Egypt; and that "He is the faithful God, which keepeth covenant and mercy with them that love Him and keep His commandments" (Deut. 6:8, 9). Thus, they were to love Him, because He first loved them; and they were to manifest their love by keeping his commandments. And is it any different now? Is it not written, "We love Him, because He first loved us" (John 4:19)? And does not our Lord say to us, even as he said to them "If ye love Me, keep My commandments" (John 14:15)?

Finally, before leaving Moses, we call attention to Deuteronomy 30:11-20, where he tells the people that the commandment which was to be their life, was not hidden from them (for God had revealed it to them) nor was it far off. It was not in heaven, neither was it beyond the sea; but it had been brought very nigh to them that they might hear it and do it. "And His commandments are not grievous" now (I John 5:3); nor were they grievous then. For on that occasion Moses gave as the great commandment of the law, "to love the Lord thy God, to walk in His ways, and to keep His commandments and His statutes and His judgments" (cf. Matt. 22:37). And he repeats in verse 20 the exhortation that they would "love the Lord," and "obey His voice"; and for the reason that "He is thy life, and the length of thy days."

According to Paul, the word which Moses had said was "nigh" into them, not afar off (in heaven or across the sea) was the very same "word of faith which we preach" (Rom. 10:8-13); citing in proof thereof two O.T. passages: "Whosoever believeth in Him shall not be ashamed"

(Isa. 28:16); and "Whosoever shall call upon the Name of the Lord shall be saved" (Joel 2:32).

Likewise Peter testifies that the things ministered by the prophets during the era of the Law are the same that are now proclaimed by those who preach the Gospel (I Pet. 1:12). We are not saying, of course, that it is not a far better thing to be under Grace than under Law; for truly God has "provided some better thing for us" (Heb. 11:40), but we are seeking the testimony of God's Bible as to the character of His law, which the "Scofield Bible" grievously maligns; and its testimony as to just what it meant to the Israelites to be under the law of God instead of being left to their own ways, as were the heathen all around them. And we have seen that Moses, the mediator of that Old Covenant, declared to them repeatedly that, in the possession of the law of God they were unspeakably blessed, and chiefly in that it provided a way of life for all who set their hearts to obey it. Looking a little further we note that the Book of Psalms opens with a glowing reference to the blessedness of the man whose "delight is in the law of the Lord," and who meditates in it "day and night" (Ps. 1:2). And there are other passages, not a few, which testify that the law of God was a thing in which the heart of man could (and therefore should) find delight, and find also profitable meditations continuously (Job. 23:12; Ps. 119:70, 77, 92, 174).

Now as to the effects of the law, so far from it being true that it was "the instrument of condemnation and only that," or "a ministry of condemnation, death, and the divine curse," the testimony of the Holy Spirit is that "the law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul"; and that "the commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes" (Ps. 19:7, 8). And the same Psalm declares as to the value of the commandments and judgments of the Lord, that they are "More to be desired than gold. Yea, than much fine gold"—more intrinsically valuable than great quantities of the richest treasures of earth—and that, so far from being distasteful and obnoxious, they are "sweeter also than honey and the droppings of honeycombs" (v. 10, marg.).

The writer of Psalm 119 adds his testimony that there are wondrous things to be seen in the law (v. 18); that it was better to him "than thousands of gold and silver" (v. 72); that he loved it beyond his power to express (v. 97); that by its precepts he got understanding, and learned thereby to hate every false way (v. 104); and that "great peace have they which love thy law; and nothing shall offend them" (v. 165).

Solomon too bears witness that "the commandment is a lamp, and the law is light" (Proverb 6:23); and that "the law of the wise is a fountain of life" (13:14). Light and life were surely there for all who sought them; and many sought and found. Solomon also records the words, "Keep My commandments and live, and my law as the apple of thine eye" (7:2).

Isaiah, in foretelling some of the glorious things that Christ (whom God designates in that passage as "My Servant") should accomplish, says that God had given Him "for a light of the Gentiles"; and that "He will magnify the law and make it honorable" (Isaiah 42:6, 21). Is not this a rebuke to those who traduce the law and make it despicable? Likewise during the Babylonian captivity God, in recounting the great things He had wrought for Israel and His many acts of mercy on their behalf, emphasizes the giving of the law as one of the chief of them, saying: "And I gave them my statutes and showed them my judgments, which if a man do, he shall even live in them" (Ezekiel 20:11).

Also through Hosea, God, in recounting the offences of Israel, said: "I have written to him the great things of My law; but they were counted as a strange thing" (Hosea 8:12). And through the very last of the prophets of Israel, and in almost the last words of his message, God calls to them: "REMEMBER YE THE LAW OF MOSES MY SERVANT, WHICH I COMMANDED UNTO HIM IN HOREB FOR ALL ISRAEL, WITH THE STATUTES AND JUDGMENTS" (Mal. 4:4).

Is it possible in the face of these testimonies to maintain that the law was imposed" upon Israel because of their own improvident choice? that "At Sinai they exchanged Grace for Law; they rashly accepted the law"? or that "The Law is a ministry of condemnation, death, and the divine curse," an instrument of "pitiless severity"? If not, shall we allow these false and derogatory things concerning the holy, life-giving and soul-enlightening law of our God to be any longer preached and taught amongst us without earnest protest on our part?

This is a serious matter indeed; and therefore I trust that my readers may be moved to join in a solemn protest against the further publication and sale of a book that many unwary children of God accept as a "Bible," and which contains so grievous a misrepresentation "amounting to a vilification" of the holy Law of God.

WHAT THE NEW TESTAMENT SAYS CONCERNING THE LAW

But it will be asked whether God's servants under the New Covenant, the apostles of our Lord who have been taught by Grace, do not give a different character to the Law, from that ascribed to it by Old Testament writers. We have quoted the words of Christ that He came not to destroy the law and the prophets, but to fulfil them; and also Paul's word to the same effect, that the purpose of the Gospel is to "establish the Law." Further our Lord declared that "the weightier matters of the law," which the Pharisees had omitted, are "judgment, mercy, and faith" (Matt. 23:23).

The apostle Paul also, whose words are cited as authority for the teaching we are now examining, speaks clearly and forcefully to the same effect. He says that "the righteousness of God," which is now manifested apart from the law (i.e. by the gospel) was "witnessed by the law and the prophets" (Rom. 3:21). Further he declares that "the commandment" was "ordained TO LIFE"; that "the law is holy, and the commandment is holy and just and good"; and that "the law is spiritual" (Rom. 7:10, 12, 14); which testimonies carry the more weight because they are found in that very passage which is supposed to teach things derogatory to the law.

But does not Paul say that the law brought death and a curse? that those who are under the law are under a curse? and that no one can be justified by the law? The reply is that the law is indeed a two-edged sword, bringing life to those who submissively receive it and who set their heart to obey it; but bringing death and condemnation and a curse to those who despise it, or who only profess respect for it with the lips while in their hearts they continue unchanged in their own ways. But precisely the same thing is true of the Gospel. For the ministry of the gospel, like that of the law, while a ministry of "life unto life" to all who with humility receive and submissively "obey the gospel," is likewise a "savour of death unto death" to all who refuse it, or neglect it, or who profess with the mouth, but continue unchanged at heart (2 Cor. 2:16). For the word of Christ is salvation and life to all who receive it; but concerning him that receives not His words He Himself has said: "The word that I have spoken"—the very word that was given for his salvation—"the same shall judge him at the last day" (John 12:48). Precisely so is it with the commandment of God; for in that very passage Christ declared that "His commandment is life everlasting" (v. 50).

Indeed, the consequences threatened to "them that obey not the gospel" are represented as being even more severe than those threatened to them who refused obedience to the law (2 Thess. 1:7-10). And in Hebrews 10:28, 29 it is put this way: "If he that despised Moses' law died without mercy;—of how much sorer punishment, suppose ye, shall he be thought worthy, who hath trodden under foot the Son of God"—etc.

Returning to Paul, we note that after saying that "the commandment was ordained unto life," he immediately adds that he "found it to be unto death" (Rom. 7:10). Why so? Because Paul was a Pharisee. He had been thoroughly indoctrinated into rabbinism, one of the cardinal doctrines of which was this very teaching as to the earthly and "Jewish" character of the Kingdom which has become the cornerstone of modern Dispensationalism. He had been schooled in a barren orthodoxy. He was "called a Jew," and made his "boast of the law" (Rom. 2:17, 18, 23); but he had yet to learn that "He is not a Jew"—though "called a Jew"—"who is one outwardly; . . . but he is a Jew who is one inwardly" (vv. 28, 29).1 Of course to such it will be found that the law was "unto death"; and precisely so with the gospel. But all who were like Ezra, of whom it is recorded that he "prepared his heart to seek the law of the Lord, and to do it" (Ezra 7:10) have found that it was indeed "ordained unto life." Paul clearly states the principle here involved when he says, "But we know that the law is good, if a man use it lawfully" (I Tim. 1:8). And the same is true of the gospel as well.

Then as regards the statement often heard in these days, that those who were under the law were under a curse, what Paul says is that "as many, as are of the works of the law are under the curse" (Gal. 3:10) which is quite another thing. For Paul is here remonstrating with those who were relying for their salvation upon the rites and ceremonies (the "works") of the law, upon circumcision, keeping of days and the like. "A man," he says, "is not justified by the works of the law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ" (Gal. 2:16). So it was under the Law precisely as now under Grace. And it should not be necessary to say that a man can no more be saved by Christian rites and observances (baptism, the Lord's supper, keeping holy days etc.) than by those of Judaism. So the apostle declared in another place, saying, that "Israel, which followed after the law of righteousness, hath not attained to the law of righteousness. Wherefore?" (Was it because righteousness was unattainable by the law? Not at all; but) "Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by the works of the law" (Rom. 11:7); and as we have seen from the word of Christ Himself, faith is one of "the weightier matters of the law"; and of course no amount of "the works of the law" will serve instead.

Continuing in Galatians, Paul asks whether they had received the Spirit "by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith" (3:2); and whether he himself, who had ministered to them the Spirit and had wrought miracles among them, had done it "by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith" (v. 5). And then he declares that—so far from what the dispensationalists teach as to there having been a complete change in the principles of God's dealings with men—God acts now upon precisely the same principles as of old, "Even as Abraham believed God, and it was counted to him for righteousness." And adds as a corollary: "Know ye therefore, that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham" (v. 7).

This verse clearly identifies those who are to inherit the promises made "to Abraham and his seed" (v. 16), and it completely rules out the natural descendants of Abraham. The last verse confirms this; for there we read, "And if ye be Christ's then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise" (v. 29). And this, as most impressively shown by the "allegory" in the next chapter, makes it evident that there remain no unfulfilled promises of blessing for the natural Jews as such. To this I hope to return.

Further in chapter III of Galatians, Paul takes up the question whether the law is against the promises of God" (v. 21). According to dispensational teaching the answer would be "yes." For, as we have seen, the so-called "dispensation of promise," which embraced the lives of Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, Joseph and their descendants for several generations, terminated at Mt. Sinai where Israel "rashly accepted the law"; and thereupon a new dispensation (the law, with its ministry of condemnation, death and the curse, and with a character and ruling principles totally different) was inaugurated. Thus it is clearly the teaching of the Scofield Bible that the law is against the promises of God. But Paul rejects with indignation the idea that "the law" is in anywise contrary to "the promises of God," saying: "God forbid" (v. 21); and he goes on to show that the law had a great purpose to fulfill introductory to the coming of the One who was to accomplish eternal righteousness and to be the Fountain of eternal life to all the world. For he says: "Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster"; and what for? "to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith" (v. 24). And he adds: "But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster" (v. 25). So far, therefore, from speaking with disparagement of that divinely-given "schoolmaster," or saying that his ministry was useless and worse, he shows that it was most necessary and important. It did not vacate the previously given promises. It did not introduce a new era characterized by contradictory principles; but "It was added" (to what God had previously done) "because of transgressions, till the Seed should come to whom the promise was made" (v. 19). And a further purpose of the law, in preparation for the gospel, was "that every mouth might be stopped, and ALL THE WORLD BECOME GUILTY BEFORE GOD" (Rom. 3:19).

Following further the teaching of Galatians, we find that the law as given from Mt. Sinai on tables of stone was suited to an immature stage of God’s dealings with the world (Gal. 4:1-4); and that the subsequent giving of the law into the hearts of a blood-washed people by the Holy Spirit (vv. 5-7) was the mark of the mature or adult stage of the same living person (so to speak). And from this we learn that the gospel, so far from being antagonistic to the law, sustains with respect thereto the same relation that the adult period of a man’s life bears to his childhood.

And in this connection, the pertinent lesson for our present purpose is that "the works of the law" against which Paul was warning the Galatians (the observing of "days and months, and times, and years," (v. 10) and circumcision (5:2, 6), belonged to the childhood stage of God’s dealings with His people. And it was for that reason that though they served useful purposes for a certain period, they were to be laid aside as outgrown things, now that "the fulness of the time was come (v. 4). As Paul said in another place: "When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child; but when I became a man, I put away childish things" (I Corinthians 13:11)—not, be it noted, because they were detestable or reprehensible, but simply because they were outgrown, and would be a hindrance to the duties of manhood.

We see therefore, that the very passages that are used now-a-days to breed feelings of aversion toward the law of God, and to make it appear as something wholly antagonistic to the gospel, teach the very contrary; namely, that the law was a stage of the divine work preliminary to that of the gospel; or in other words, that the law and the gospel are complementary stages of one and the same great work of God.

For the truth in this regard is, as has been taught all through the Christian centuries, that the law was a necessary part of God's great plan of Redemption even as is the Gospel. And as an excellent specimen of what enlightened servants of Christ, men who were mighty in the Scriptures, had always taught concerning the relation of the Law to the Gospel (before Dispensationalism was invented) I quote the following from Bernard's celebrated work, The Progress of Doctrine.

"A principle that is contended for and secured (by Christ's apostles in their teaching) is that the Gospel is the heir of the Law; that it inherits what the Law had prepared.

"The Law, on its national and ceremonial side, had created a vast and closely woven system of ideas. These were wrought out and exhibited by it in forms according to the flesh "an elect nation, a miraculous history, a special covenant, a worldly sanctuary, a perpetual service, an anointed priesthood, a ceremonial sanctity, a scheme of sacrifice and atonement, a purchased possession, a holy city, a throne of David, a destiny of dominion. Were these ideas to be lost? and was the language that expressed them to be dropped when the Gospel came? No! It was the heir of the Law. The Law had prepared these riches; and it now bequeathed them to a successor able to unlock and diffuse them. The Gospel claimed them all, and developed in them a value unknown before. It asserted itself as the proper and predestined continuation of the covenant made of God with the fathers, the real and only fulfillment of all that was typified and prophesied; presenting the same ideas which had been before embodied in the narrow but distinct limits of carnal forms in their spiritual, universal, and eternal character.

"The body of types according to the flesh died with Christ; and with Christ it arose again, a body of antitypes according to the Spirit. Those who were after the flesh could not recognize its identity; those who were after the Spirit realized and proclaimed it. The change was as great, the identity was as real, as in that mystery of the resurrection of the body which the same preachers showed; in which the earthly frame must lay aside the flesh and blood which cannot inherit the Kingdom of God, and must reappear; dead and raised again; another and yet the same; 'sown in weakness and raised in power, sown in dishonor and raised in glory, sown a natural body and raised a spiritual body.'"

NOTES

1. In passing let it be noted that, by the light of this verse, it may be seen that all the promises of God which read to Israel or to the Jews, are for the true "Israel" (Rom. 9:6; Gal. 6:16), and the real Jews. See the passage herein on "ISRAEL HATH NOT OBTAINED; BUT THE ELECTION HATH OBTAINED IT." (p. 236).

3.10.14 My Recent Articles At Jesus-Is-Savior.com (2022-10-24 23:38)

Beginning in 2006, I had decided to start a "[1]Recent Articles" webpage for my ministry's multiple websites (now at 9 websites and 9 blogs), so that my web visitors could read my latest thoughts, website additions and so that I could share things of interest for everyone's edification in the Lord. By God's grace I have continued, and plan to continue this page.

Also, I was using my mobile phone today while waiting at my monthly doctor's appointment to get my pain medications, and I noticed that most of my blogs were difficult to read. So I went into settings and learned how to make all my blogs read better for mobile users. All 9 of my blogs should be easier to read now. Eddie Boston is a Christian friend, one of my loyal web visitors for many years. Eddie is a prolific writer, so I asked him to write some articles, which he has graciously done for the Lord. I am also sharing my banjo blog here, which is more of a hobby, but I wanted to share all my blogs with you, if you are interested:

As technology changes, so does the way that people access information. As of right now, and increasing quickly each year, less and less web visitors are using desktop or laptop computers. Presently, 40 % of all my web visitors are using mobile devices. But I admit I am behind the times, trying to catch up, so I am trying to learn how to adapt to mobile gadgets. I appreciate everyone's patience, and suggestions if anybody has some helpful ideas. My ministry is not just for the Lord to help you, it is YOU! The Apostle Paul said in 2nd Corinthians 3:2, "Ye are our epistle written in our hearts, known and read of all men:"

I so much am thankful to Google (even though they've censored my websites horribly for the past several years), for giving me the freedom to express my thoughts on Blogspot. I love Blogspot, it is so easy to use, fun and free. I give Blogspot the highest ratings! I encourage you dear reader to also start your own blog. You are welcome to email me with any questions, using the contact form on the blog's main page. So without further ado, here are all my [11]Recent Articles, which I am posting here so you can read them more easily on your mobile device:

Welcome to THE FUNDAMENTAL BAPTIST PODCAST! There are many types of Baptists, but being a Baptist once meant that you were a FUNDAMENTALIST! Over the years many Baptists have strayed from the FUNDAMENTALS. And thus attack those who remain true to the faith. This Podcast will address the issues surrounding what it means to be a FUNDAMENTAL BAPTIST.

THROUGH THE EYES OF THE BUS WORKER (a poem)...

Some see a fight, a push and a shove,
I see a desperate cry for love.

Some see a brat, he acts so bad,
I see a boy who’s never met his dad.

Some see the messes and the trouble they give,
I see the poverty in the place where they live.

Some see a teenager who won’t dress right,
I see a girl who has to protect herself at night.

Some see a smart mouth, disrespectful and loud,
I see a kid made fun of by a crowd.

Some see a woman who comes just to use,

I see a lady by a drunken husband abused.

Some see a drug addict withered and worn,
I see a soul the Lord wants reborn.

Some see the dirt, the filth and the rot,
I see a kid who without Jesus doesn't have a shot.

Some see a crook whom you don't trust much,
I see a man who needs the Lord's touch.

Some see a bunch of heathen who holler and yell,
I see kids with parents in jail.

Some see a teenager who gives a lot of flack,
I see a boy whose whole family is on crack.

Broken homes, broken lives, those without hope,
They need compassion and God's grace to cope.

For every little girl who lies awake hungry at night,
Lord, help me to keep in the fight.

For every scared boy who sees his mommy get hit,
Lord, help me to be faithful and never to quit.

For every mommy who needs a new start,
Lord, help me to show her how to ask You into her heart.

For every man on whom sin has its hold,
Lord, help me to make sure the "Old Story" is told.

The Lord to me His mercy has shown,
Lord, help me to reach out so others may make Heaven their home.

May others judge gently when these folks they see—
If not for God's grace, that's where all of us would be.

Calling on a lost man to “turn from sin” FOR SALVATION is to condition salvation on behavior, not believing.

3.10.15 People Just Want To Be Loved (2022-10-25 13:03)

1st John 3:17, “But whoso hath this world’s good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him?”

Something is VERY WRONG at Pensacola Christian College in Pensacola, Florida. They treat people like garbage! I have copied all of the negative comments hundreds of victims of PCC and Campus Church have made on Google, to read them all, for my own comfort, after being horribly mistreated myself in 2021-2022 at PCC by the pastors of Campus Church, particularly that little man Jeff Redlin, their shameful incompetent senior pastor. They need to FIRE HIM!!!

Here are the comments from some angry parents up in Wisconsin, of a female PCC student who locked herself out of her car at Walmart in Pensacola, who called PCC’s security department for help, but no one cared or lifted a finger to help the girl. So she ended up asking a complete stranger, who could have abducted and attacked her, for help. The stranger smashed out her window so she could get into her car. SHAME on Pensacola Christian College for not helping their needy students. Young person, RUN from this hellish place!!! ...

> I am appalled at the lack of Christian concern on the behalf of PCC for our teen daughter. She works to support herself at college, and locked herself out of her car at the WalMart parking lot at night, after dark. We are in Wisconsin and could not help her. She remembered that she was advised in a meeting at the beginning of each semester to call security if anything happened to her vehicle off campus, "especially young ladies". When she called security, they reminded her that she might have triple A insurance (she doesn't), and gave her the name of a locksmith, which she could not afford. They could offer no other help because "we don't have the resources". With 5000+ students, and a campus church that includes families, it seems there would be some resource that could be brought into play. She found a complete stranger and asked him to break into her car, and he was kind and gracious to her. She never received any follow up call, or the slightest token of concern for her welfare. The world takes care of its own better than that.

You need to think twice before attending the cult at PCC, where the system always comes first, but INDIVIDUAL PEOPLE don't matter. As you can read for yourself, I am not the only victim who is saying these things. PCC is out of control, too big for their britches! People just want to be loved, and that includes helping needy people. When I first started attending Campus Church at PCC in 2021, I was sleeping in Walmart's parking lot on Mobile Highway.

The ungodly Woodspring Suites Hotel in Pensacola where I had made a 30-day confirmed reservation a month earlier, cancelled my enter stay without warning because I emailed them to let them know that I would be one day late, because the United Airlines flight from Guam was delayed because of a mechanical issue, which by law needed to be fixed before the plane could leave Guam.

Consequently, I missed my connecting flight in Honolulu to Denver, and ended up staying overnight in Hawaii. I emailed the hotel. Since Guam is 15 hours ahead of Pensacola because of the time zone difference, they receive the email BEFORE I was supposed to check-in the first day. But because I said I would be a day later arriving, they cruelly cancelled my stay in their greed, since it was the 4th of July weekend. I even told them that they could bill my credit card for the entire stay upfront, but they refused. My reservation was for $55 per night for 30 days. But since local hotels were charging $450 per night over the 4th of July weekend, in their greed they took advantage of my calamity, as thieves and liars do. That is why I had made my reservation a month in advance. Those wicked people at the Woodspring Suites Hotel in Pensacola will answer to God for leaving Jesus out in streets to sleep (Matthew 25:40, 45). I wouldn't want to be in their shoes!!!

Well, I told Pastor Jeff Redlin about my situation at the 4th of July picnic at Campus Church that I attended. Pastor Redlin had a startled look on his face, like he didn't know what to do. I saw his cowardice as he walked away. The face of a coward is the back of someone's head as they walk away from someone in need!!! Jeff Redlin is a coward, a little man, a weasel, a runt who mistreats people and doesn't have the decency to even let them attend church anymore. It didn't matter that I apologized to the pastors of Campus Church, and also to PCC leadership, for criticizing them on social media, they still refuse to forgive me.

I literally begged three times, in three separate letters which I mailed to PCC and Campus Church in June, July and August of 2022, asking if I could please just come back to attend Campus Church. I promised them in return that I would humbly remove all my criticisms from social media and never put them back, but they refused. Frankly, I think they are stupid! I guess they would rather have another enemy, and I am a big one to have, since I am aggressive to expose them and have lots of social media to do it on! So I am not bound to my promises to PCC, because they don't want to reconcile, so be it. My offer to reconcile with the PCC camp still stands, if PCC ever matures in Christ enough to love hurting and needy people as they should. By God's grace, I will continue to help hurting people expose the cult at PCC, until PCC learns that PEOPLE JUST WANT TO BE LOVED!!!

Pensacola Christian College is a cult!

3.10.16 Why Young People Shouldn't Attend Pensacola Christian College In Florida (2022-10-26 01:00)

Romans 14:9-12, "For to this end Christ both died, and rose, and revived, that he might be Lord both of the dead and living. But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ. For it is written, As I live, saith the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God. So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God."

Something is very wrong with Pensacola Christian College (PCC). By God's grace, I have decided to write against them for the rest of my life, until they repent of their abusive behavior toward hurting people. I have always disliked big retailers, big churches and big colleges, because they have so much support and money that the little guy doesn't matter. If you have ever complained at Walmart and tried to get justice for being mistreated by their employees, good luck! The management doesn't care! That has been my firsthand experience with several big companies, and sadly Pensacola Christian College and their shameful Campus Church pastors.

In 2021 I attended Campus Church at PCC. Their senior pastor, Jeff Redlin, didn't like me from the time that he met me. My first impression of him was that of a coward, as I saw the back of his head walking away from me, after I had just told him kindly that I was sleeping homeless in Walmart's parking lot in Pensacola on Mobile Highway. Pastor Redlin didn't care. I know he heard me because I saw the startled look on his face, but he decided to just walk away, which is his character.

I download all of the negative reviews on Google to take the time to study them, to see if I am the only one who sees the abusive culture at PCC. I was shocked how many hundreds of negative complaints I found. Here is one complaint against PCC, by one of their former abused students, just one of hundreds...

> Gavin Bufford (2017)
> Pcc is the worst school ever. It was a complete waste of my time and money. They kicked me out for going to the wrong Sunday school class. And that was a year ago. They still will not release my transcripts which has put me behind in my college career. They schools not be called a Christian college if they cannot even live by what the Bible has to say. If I was able to take it all back and not go there I would in a heartbeat. I am warning you if you are thinking about going DONT DO IT!!!!

Well said Gavin, they don't give a damn about individual people at PCC. The cult system comes first, individual people don't matter. I learned that firsthand in 2021 and 2022. I don't have a place to go to church on Sunday nights. I can't find any good churches in Pensacola, where I live, that is open in Sunday nights. I had left Campus Church where I attended for a few months in 2021, because Pastor Redlin has mistreated me, and I felt like he just didn't care about me as a human being. I had shared with him my ongoing struggle with neck stenosis and radiculitis (spinal cord damage) and that I have been divorced and lonely since 2006, when my former wife abandoned me.

Pastor Redlin couldn't have cared less. He even scolded me (I was 54 years old at the time) for mentioning that I hoped to find a wife at Campus Church. Where else am I supposed to find a wife, if not at church? PCC thinks once you are divorced, life is over, you must remain single forever. That is NOT what the Bible teaches in 1st Corinthians 7:1-2, it says that to prevent fornication in the churches, everybody should be married. God said that!

Pastor Redlin has a wife! What a selfish and uncaring little man! Anyway, don't take my word for it, here is what Danielle has to say negative about the PCC cult...

Danielle Tate (2016)

> Neither Christian, nor an accredited college. Only "Pensacola" is correct, and that's only because they haven't decided to secede and form their own fundamentalist country yet. Don't go here if you're a Christian; they don't actually follow the Bible. They just use it as an excuse to treat people like trash. And if you're not a Christian, stay away from PCC and please remember we're not all like that!

SOURCE: Google reviews of Pensacola Christian College

They sure do TREAT PEOPLE LIKE TRASH at PCC Danielle, like they cruelly did me in 2021 and 2022. What cold-hearted snobs! PCC are a bunch of academic types, not church builders, who woefully lack God's compassion for people. I am still banned in writing from attending Campus Church at PCC (as of August 2, 2022 by Pastor Jeff Redlin), just because PCC refuses to reconcile with me. I offered (and still offer) to do whatever they require to make the peace, but they won't do it. They have thrown me under the bus, and couldn't care less if I have a place to attend church on Sunday nights. Jeff Redlin gets paid a lucrative 6-digit salary annually! Campus Church took in $3,500,000 in 2020-2021, yet they charged people $10 to attend a meeting in July of 2021 on how to share the Gospel more effectively. What greedy charlatans!!! PCC loves money, not people!!! If you enroll at their college, you will regret it.

I painfully learned firsthand that PCC discriminates against single people, whether divorced or single, it doesn't matter. The following negative review of PCC is very accurate, if you are a normal person, you won't be accepted or like PCC...

Sally Clark (2018)

> This school is discriminating against singles!!! I have a brother who attends unfortunately...I am visiting from out of state in a few weeks and wanted to have him hang with me for the weekend. I am 30 yrs old waiting for God's timing to get married...is it my fault I'm not married yet ? Absolutely not. Yet the school rejected the request to have my own brother stay with me over a weekend. I understand safety for those who have messed up family but I 30 years old and am highly involved with ministry. They discriminate ALL singles. Jesus was single. Totally unbiblical, very cultish and I can't imagine how many ppl they have hurt bc of their legalistic rules.

Here is what Mara has to say about the culture at PCC...

Mara Ranian (2018)

It is a shame and disgrace that female students wear short pants on Campus while not in connection with Physical Education. It's as though modest apparel was thrown out the window. Fundamental Christians will be disappointed with PCC. Fundamentalism turns liberal at this college. If you are a Fundamental Christian, look somewhere else.

Here is a negative review from one of PCC's former students, who agrees with me that PCC is cultish...

Nathan Smith (2016)

Be very careful. I went one year and though there are some godly men and women there, the overall culture is very narrow minded and has a philosophy of scripture PLUS man's preference with an emphasis on man's preference. As a result, many of their positions do not jive with scripture but take positions two or three steps further than scripture, much like the Pharisees within Scripture. In some ways, I would say this is close to being a cult. I have advanced seminary degrees from other conservative institutions and the Biblical exegesis and exposition of PCC is very shoddy. Please do not judge Christianity or the God of the Bible by interactions at Pensacola Christian College.

The old adage is true that: "Tyranny is rarely seen except by those who are oppressed by it." Just ask Benjamin, who tore his ACL and had surgery the next day, but was then threatened to go to church or else. That is the abusive authoritarian culture at PCC. Even the U.S. military shows more compassion on wounded soldiers, than PCC does on their students! PCC is an abusive authoritarian cult. Please, please, please, if you are reading this and are considering attending PCC, please RUN from this place while you still can (or become another victim)...

Benjamin Daggett (2016)

After four years in PCC I cannot in good conscience recommend this school. Although the educational experience was good. The student life department controls and monitors every action of the students on campus. Instead of letting adult college students make their own decisions, the college enforces things like church attendance and bed times. The college zealously enforces its church attendance rules. When I had a torn ACL and had surgery the next day, I was told I had to go to church or be forced go to a video recording of the service on Saturday. Also since my leg was swollen and in a big bolky cast I asked the Student Life department if I could wear shorts to class since pants were painful to put on and wear but I was told I still had to wear pants. Dean Omen said I could wear "athletic" pants but those do not solve my problem. The school is more concerned with enforcing rules than actually caring for its students.

I haven’t edited the typos in these reviews. People use their mobile phones, which is easy to make typos. I didn’t want to edit anything, so you can see exactly what they said. Here is more information that you need to know as a prospective student about the abusive prisonhouse culture at PCC...

A M (2017)

Went to this school for 1 year. After growing up in a conservative Christian environment and going to a Christian school my entire life, this place was overly controlling. I felt that I concentrated on not getting into trouble instead of concentrating on school work. The staff there I found to be very manipulative and controlling at all times. They control where you go to church, when you eat, sleep, how clean you keep your living quarters, what you wear, and where you go to, even away from the college, at all times and the place has more hidden cameras installed to "catch you" that a level 5 prison couldnt even beat (my roomate was on the security staff). The dormitories have a phone in each room but those phones are disconnected at "lights out" which I believe was 9 or 10pm if I remember correctly. As a young adult trying to figure out life and how to live and act on your own, you will not figure it out here. Its an artificial atmosphere. You cannot ride in elevators or walk after dark with any member of the opposite sex, staff or not. Men and women can go to the beach but must go to oposite beaches in Pensacola and cannot meet up for lunch or socialize. If you get sick you have to go to their medical staff and they had a room with other sick students that you had to stay at all day long during school hours; you couldnt just get sick and stay in your own bed in your dorm. I had a job paying off my tuition costs at their campus print shop and I remember working with other students there and we couldnt even communicate with each other there. I went seeking a Christian education and wanted to grow in Christ with likeminded people but left disapointed and disgruntled at their broken system of doing things.

I have several HUNDRED more negative reviews about PCC!!! One or two people may be wrong, but several hundred people complaining about the abusive cultish authoritarian police state culture at PCC cannot all be wrong. Please RUN from this horrible place!!!

Something that I learned a very long time ago—through the inexplicable pain of going through an unwanted divorce in 2006, rejection from uncaring self-righteous churches over the years, losing my home and retirement to pay for legal expenses, suffering horribly since 2004 with painful stenosis and radiculitis in my neck, and losing everything I owned along the way—is that PEOPLE JUST WANT TO BE LOVED. There is no love at PCC, only lots of rules. The PCC cult system always comes first, individual people don't matter.

I am now 55 years old. I have four adult children between the ages of 29 and 33. I am a proud grandfather of seven grandchildren. Praise the Lord. I care about people. I am a normal person. I went to a Beach Boys concert last October in Pensacola.

PCC would NEVER accept anyone who did that. PCC are NOT normal, not even close, neither are they godly Christians. They are a cult of religious snobs who are out of touch with reality. Yes, I went to see The Beach Boys, and I'd go see them again if they came to town. I love music!

Mike Love was 80 years old when I heard and saw him sing last year. Mike still sounds great! He has a great sense of humor. What an awesome event! I am so glad that I went to see and hear them. Carl Wilson's son was also there singing, who sound just like his dad (who died of cancer in 1999). Being a Christian doesn't mean that you have to stop enjoying life.

A religious hypocrite like Pastor Jeff Redlin would no doubt condemn me for going to see The Beach Boys, while he won't even allow me to attend Campus Church anymore (even though I apologized three times in June, July and August of 2022 for offending them by criticizing them, and offered to do whatever they require to reconcile with the PCC family, and my offer is still valid). Sadly, they refused. The pastors of Campus Church and PCC (I mailed apology letters to both) totally ignored me for SIX WEEKS. I got frustrated and criticized them again. Only then did they tell me that I was banned from attending their church. What jerks! That is what they wanted in the first place, to get rid of me. SHAME on PCC. Something is VERY wrong with the spiritual atmosphere at PCC. They don't love individual people. They don't have God's love or compassion for hurting sinners. The system always comes first, people don't matter.

I moved 9,000 miles from the island of Guam to Pensacola in July of 2021. When I attended Campus Church at PCC in 2021 for a few months (where every student is REQUIRED to attend three times each week), there was no feeling of the presence or power of the Holy Spirit. They have nice religious singing, but the preaching is very boring and shallow, lacking substance and fire. You WON'T grow in the Lord as God wants you to young person, you will become a religious snob like PCC leadership, cold-hearted, formal and unforgiving of people who rub you the wrong way. That is what the heathen world does, not a godly saint.

There is no humility at PCC. There are no second chances. PCC has more students, church members, support and money than they know what to do with. I'm not kidding! So YOU as a student will be expendable, just like I was expendable as a church member. They just don't give a damn at PCC. [1]The machine comes first, people fall through the cracks, but no ones cares. Security is everywhere, making you feel like you're in a fascist Nazi camp. Sadly, they don't know how to treat people with love and respect at PCC, and even worse, they don't have any desire to learn. PEOPLE JUST WANT TO BE LOVED; but you won't be loved at PCC, you will be tracked, monitored, watched, followed, controlled and abused.

3.10.17 You Don't Need To "Ask" Jesus To Save You (2022-10-26 19:19)

John 11:25-27, "Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this? She saith unto him, Yea, Lord: I believe that thou art the Christ, the Son of God, which should come into the world."

God's plan of salvation for mankind is so simple. In our text passage above, Martha simply BELIEVED on Jesus and was saved. This was the same Gospel preached throughout the Old Testament by ALL the prophets. Acts 10:43, "To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins."

Sadly, humans have a horrible tendency to complicate everything, including God's plan of salvation. Here is a helpful sermon excerpt from Pastor Max D. Younce's sermon titled: '[1]Rapture Versus Revelation.' This excerpt explains that a lost sinner DOESN'T have to "ask" Jesus to save them, because God is already freely offering " TO SAVE THEM THAT BELIEVE

" (1st Corinthians 1:21b)...

Don’t Ask Jesus To Save, He Wants You To Accept Him

Jesus Christ has already paid for your sins. So Jesus doesn’t forgive sins! You read correctly. Jesus does NOT forgive anybody’s sins, He has already paid for those sins with His precious blood. So you don’t need to ask Jesus to save you, nor do you need to ask Him to forgive your sins. The work of redemption has already been completed by our dear Savior.

Why is this important to know? It is important that you understand how simple it is to be saved, so that you can go to Heaven someday. Religion has never saved anybody! I mean that. My father used to wisely say: “Religion is the worst thing that ever happened to this world.” My Christian Dad was right! Religion has never granted anybody access into the Kingdom of God. You cannot get into Heaven by trying to get there, you must trust completely in the Lamb of God. John 1:29, “The next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world.” Jesus is that precious Lamb!

Jesus exclaimed to Nebuchadnezzar in John 3:3, “Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.” Someone once asked the minister John Wesley why he kept preaching on the subject: “Ye Must Be Born Again,” over a thousand times. Wesley replied: “Because ’Ye must be born again!”’ Dear friend, Satan’s greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born again! NO ONE will enter into God’s Kingdom without being born-again by the Holy Spirit of God (1st Peter 1:23). We are born again by the seed of God’s incorruptible Word, that is, by the truth of the Gospel (1st Corinthians 15:1-4; Romans 1:16).

You don’t need to ASK God to save you, He is already freely offering to save you, if you will simply accept the sacrifice of His only begotten Son on the cross as full-payment for your sins, believing that Jesus is risen from the dead. 1st Thessalonians 4:14, “ For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.” What a wonderful Savior!!!

Now, having said that, it is okay if you do ASK Jesus to save you. I got saved when I was 13 years old. I was sitting in a pew in back of an old-fashioned Baptist church in Chicago (a rare find in Chicago, for which I count myself very blessed to have been there at that time). It was a Sunday morning during the summer. I believe it was 1980, but I cannot remember the exact year that I was saved. I didn't think at the time to write the date down, but I wish I had, so that I would know the exact age I was saved. But it doesn't matter, because I DO remember a place, and what happened that day.

I don't remember the title of the sermon that my pastor preached. But I do remember what he said that compelled me to get saved. The preacher said that if you can commit sin and have no conviction about it from the Holy Spirit, you are not saved. I knew immediately that I didn't have the indwelling Holy Spirit. I knew that I wasn't saved. But I sure wanted to be. At the invitation time, I was too shy to walk down the aisle to learn how to be saved. (This is why every preacher should ALWAYS tell people how to be saved right from their pew.)

So in my pew, as best that I knew how, I asked Jesus to save me, crying out silently from within my soul. I had grown up in Sunday school, and my father was a Skid Row preacher, so I had heard often the Gospel (Good News) of Jesus, the Christ, the only begotten Son of God; who died on the cross for my sins, was buried and then resurrected from the dead after three days (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). So believing those facts, I prayed from my soul for Jesus to save me. I knew in my soul that I was calling out to a RISEN SAVIOR! I believed Jesus was the one to whom I was speaking in my soul. I know that I got saved that day, because the blessed presence of the Holy Spirit has bene with me ever since that glorious day.

So I did ASK Jesus to save me, which is okay. However, I doubted my salvation for the next several years. I kept wondering if I left something out of my prayer. I kept hearing pastors teach people to "pray a sinner's prayer" to be saved. That is what every religious tract that I read also said to do. I was confused. No one has ever taught me that I could simply BELIEVE to be saved. I thought that the way you believe is through saying a prayer.

It wasn't until two decades later that my salvation beliefs were finally SOLIDIFIED, when I read a helpful book by Pastor Max D. Younce titled: '[2]Salvation And The Public Invitation' ([3]backup link). The reason why the book had such a profound impact upon me is because it exactly described the manner in which I had been saved, from a pew. Dr. Younce explained from the Bible that you can be saved just by BELIEVING the Gospel, without praying or walking down an aisle in a church. I had never heard any preacher say that before, but the Holy Spirit confirmed in my heart of hearts that what Pastor Younce was saying is THE TRUTH.

A heavy burden was lifted off my soul. For the first time in my life I had a 100 % grasp on God's simple plan of salvation. All those years that I had worried, was because preachers kept lying to me, misleading me to think that you must pray a sinner's prayer to be saved.

And then years later I read a helpful sermon article by Pastor Bob Gray Sr., in which he said that Jesus doesn't forgive sins, He has already paid for them with His blood. You simply need to accept God's free gift of forgiveness through faith alone in Christ. That is so simple!

I thank God for preachers who keep God's plan of salvation SIMPLE, the way God intended for it to be. I love something that one of my favorite free grace preachers, Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold said:

> "There is power in this [4]Gospel message. Most people just don't know how to present it... The clarity of the Gospel is what makes it easy for them to believe." —Pastor Yankee Arnold, a quote from the excellent MP3 sermon titled, "[5]WHY GRACE CAN SAVE THE WORST MAN!"

Amen and amen! I get so frustrated hearing local pastors in Pensacola tell their congregation to " have a relationship with Jesus

“” to be saved. That is NOT the Gospel. That is confusing to people, because Judas had a relationship with Jesus, but died in his unbelief and went to Hell forever. What does that even mean, to have a relationship with Christ? Why use terms that the Bible doesn’t use? Why add to the Gospel? Sadly, I even handed that bad pastor (who made that comment) a copy of Michael P. Bowen’s helpful book: ’[6]I Never Knew You,’ which apparently he didn’t even bother to read. You can lead a horse to water, but you cannot force them to drink it. You can give a pastor THE TRUTH, but you cannot force them to heed it.

I recently spoke with a member of that church, with the bad pastor who says you need a “relationship with Jesus” to go to Heaven. That church member told me that you have to be water baptized to go to Heaven. Ladies and gentlemen, this is how messed up our churches are today doctrinally! This is why I like to teach all my blog readers the golden nuggets of truth that I have learned over the years, to help SOLIDIFY your salvation beliefs. I want you to have the blessed inexplicable joy and peace that I have, knowing 100 % without question that my name is written in Heaven (Luke 10:20). I NEVER doubt my salvation anymore, because I understand it.

You don’t need to ASK Jesus to save you, God is already eagerly OFFERING you His free gift of salvation, just for the taking by faith. You don’t need to ASK Jesus to forgive your sins, because He has already paid for them with His precious blood (1st Peter 1:18-19; Revelation 1:5). Simply BELIEVE that Jesus did it for you, and you will be instantly, irrevocably and eternally saved by God’s grace.

Salvation is not a reward for the righteous, it is a gift for the guilty!

Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ’s best put to your account through receiving Him by faith. Jesus is precious!!! Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do.

3.10.18 Refuting the Unbiblical Reprobate Doctrine (2022-10-27 14:00)

Mark 3:28-30, "Verily I say unto you, All sins shall be forgiven unto the sons of men, and blasphemies wherewith soever they shall blaspheme: But he that shall blaspheme against the Holy Ghost hath never forgiveness, but is in danger of eternal damnation: Because they said, He hath an unclean spirit."

One of the most common topics, that my many dear web visitors who've e-mailed me have brought up in the past months, is the "Reprobate Doctrine" that has been popularized in recent years by Pastor Steven Anderson. It is not my intent in this article to refute Pastor Anderson; but rather, to address this important matter and lay it to rest from the Holy Bible. I need to explain several things, to help you grasp this doctrine. There are several aspects that need to be explained, to lay a foundation. I have prayed for God to give me His wisdom, so I give the Lord any due credit, for it is His Holy Spirit working through me, and not my own wisdom by which I write this article.

The "Reprobate Doctrine" itself teaches that there is a line an unbeliever can cross, where God no longer deals with that person's heart about getting saved, and they are beyond hope. Although it is true that a person who rejects the Gospel runs the risk of never hearing the truth again, I do not believe that God deliberately wants anybody to perish in their sins and go to Hell forever. Pastor Anderson defines a "reprobate" as someone who is incapable of believing the Gospel. Although I agree that an unbeliever's heart can become so hardened that the truth is no longer effective, I do not believe it is because God has willingly hardened their heart because He hates them. The Lord wants all men to be saved (2nd Peter 3:9). The problem is not that homosexuals are incapable of believing the Gospel to be saved; but rather, Jesus said, "ye will not come to me, that ye might have life" (Matthew 5:40).

The Holy Spirit Draws All Men to Christ to Be Saved

Jesus said in John 12:32, "And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me." The Lord further said:

> John 16:7-11, "Nevertheless I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I depart, I will send him unto you. And when he is come, he will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment: Of sin, because they believe not on me; Of righteousness, because I go to my Father, and ye see me no more; Of judgment, because the prince of this world is judged."

The blessed Holy Spirit convicts the lost world of sin, BECAUSE THEY BELIEVE NOT ON JESUS CHRIST. The Holy Spirit convicts lost men that they need to get saved, by submitting to God's righteousness, which is through faith (Philippians 3:9). The Holy Spirit convicts the world that Judgment Day is coming!!! A person CAN be saved at any time by simply believing the Gospel, but a person WON'T want to be saved unless the Holy Spirit is dealing with their heart. This is the woeful risk and danger of rejecting the call to believe the Gospel when you hear it, because you may never heard the truth of the Gospel again. Romans 10:17, "So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God." If faith comes from HEARING the Word of God, and you reject so great a salvation, then you may never have another chance to get saved if you don't fall under the conviction of the Holy Spirit again. It is a very dangerous thing to postpone getting saved!!! You may never come under the fiery conviction of the Holy Spirit again, unless you are blessed enough to hear the saving truth of the Gospel down the road. Having explained this truth, that leads me to my next point.

Speaking Evil of the Holy Spirit Effectively Means Rejecting Christ as One's Savior

There are two very important truths that I want you to see in the following passage:

Mark 3:28-30, "Verily I say unto you, All sins shall be forgiven unto the sons of men, and blasphemies wherewith soever they shall blaspheme: But he that shall blaspheme against the Holy Ghost hath never forgiveness, but is in danger of eternal damnation: Because they said, He hath an unclean spirit."

Many people quote this same Scripture passage from Matthew 12:31-32 and Luke 12:10, but there is a truth that we find in Mark 3:28-30 that is not found in the other passages. Please notice two things: The Holy Bible says that a person who blasphemes the Holy Spirit "IS IN DANGER OF ETERNAL DAMNATION." Carefully notice that the Bible doesn't say they are damned and beyond hope, as the unscriptural Reprobate Doctrine claims. They are IN DANGER of eternal damnation because they have rejected the conviction of the Holy Spirit, thus, they are still lost in their sinful state.

The Holy Bible tells us why they are in danger of eternal damnation, BECAUSE THEY SAID, HE [JESUS] HATH AN UNCLEAN SPIRIT. That is, they accused Jesus of being of the Devil, thus, rejecting the truth of the Gospel.

Those are two very important truths, that I hope you understood. The Bible doesn't say that they were automatically going to Hell for blaspheming (speaking evil of) the Holy Spirit. The Bible says they were "IN DANGER" of going to Hell. That means they can still be saved. The only unpardonable sin is rejecting Jesus as one's Savior. And since it is the Holy Spirit Who first has to convict a man and deal with his heart to be saved, if you speak evil of Him, you have fallen from grace, throwing away the ONLY hope of getting saved.

The Heresy of Dr. Harold Smith's Sermon, "God's Three Deadlines"

I read about a popular sermon today, preached in 1992, which is being promoted online in lame defense of the Reprobate Doctrine, called "God's Three Deadlines" ([1]available to listen to here), by Dr. Harold J. Smith (1910-2001). I listened to the entire MP3 sermon today, and I don't agree with numerous doctrinal things taught by Dr. Smith. For example: In the sermon he says that people who speak evil of the Holy Spirit have crossed the line and God will kill them. That's simply not true. The devout atheists at [2]The Blasphemy Challenge organization (known commonly as the [3]Rational Response Squad), have openly recorded thousands of people (including themselves) saying, "I deny the Holy Spirit!" The atheist activist group shake their fists in defiance at God, proudly blaspheming the Holy Spirit. Yet, God has NOT killed them!

Clearly, Dr. Smith's sermon doesn't apply. I'm tired of preachers exploiting the misfortune of a few to superstitiously scare people into getting saved. I believe in THE TRUTH. You ought to get saved, because as Jesus said, you're "IN DANGER OF ETERNAL DAMNATION" (Mark 3:30b). But for any preacher to tell stories about people who challenged God or the preacher, and then drove into a tree later that day and died, is not a proper way to teach the Word of God.

In the sermon "God's Three Deadlines," Harold Smith even says during the invitation, that if anyone doesn't get saved at that time, but later changes their mind out in the parking lot, and comes back into the churches to get saved, God won't save them because it will be too late and they've crossed the line. Folks, that is junk theology and scare tactics. I am a fundamentalist, not a nut! If you don't respond to the invitation at the end of a sermon, but afterwards change your mind in the parking lot and come back into the church to find out how to be saved, GOD WILL MOST ASSUREDLY SAVE YOU if you place your trust in the Good News of Christ crucified on the cross for your sins, buried and risen three days later. That is "[4]THE GOSPEL" (1st Corinthians 15:1-4)!!!

Dr. Smith also says in his bad sermon, that God will kill Christians who continue in sin. He uses 1st Corinthians 5:5 as his reference passage. Folks, we all know of horrible professed believers who live in continuous sin. The Bible says Demas forsook Paul, having loved this present world. Noah got drunk. Samson went with harlots. David stole a man's wife, impregnated her and then murdered her husband. Moses murdered a man. Isaiah was a man of unclean lips. Jacob betrayed his brother and deceived his father. Sarah laughed at the promise of God. Abraham lied. Jonah forsook God's will. When Jesus raised from the dead and found Peter, the apostle was butt naked in public. These are God's best and brightest! God DIDN'T kill any of them!!! Sorry Mr. Smith, but you're WRONG! God doesn't go around killing sinners, and a good thing, or we'd ALL be dead!

Granted, we have a few accounts in the Bible of people that God killed. Herod (an un-saved man) was killed for his hubris, because he failed to give glory to God. Ananias and Sapphira (saved believers) were killed, for lying to the Holy Ghost. So, yes, God can and does sometimes prematurely (by human wisdom) take a person's life for various reasons, but it is not the norm.

You can say bad things about the Lord, and God the Father will overlook that if you're a blood-washed child of God (e.g., Peter cursed the Lord's name and denied Him three times). But if you reject the Holy Spirit, you are in trouble, because He is your only ticket to receiving Christ to be saved. But again, the Scriptures tell us that people who blaspheme the Holy Spirit are only "IN DANGER OF ETERNAL DAMNATION," it doesn't say that they cannot be saved. Of course, we know from John 3:18 that all unbelievers are damned (condemned) already, because they have not believed on the only begotten name of the Son of God. This simply means that unless they get saved at some future point, they'll go straight to Hell the second they enter into eternity.

What About Jeremiah 6:30, Where Wicked Jews Called "Reprobate Silver"?

The Old Testament says:

> Jeremiah 6:28-30, "They are all grievous revolters, walking with slanders: they are brass and iron; they are all corrupters. The bellows are burned, the lead is consumed of the fire; the founder melteth in vain: for the wicked are not plucked away. Reprobate silver shall men call them, because the LORD hath rejected them."

First of all, men didn't call them "REPROBATES," they called them "REPROBATE SILVER." That is, the silver was so full of alloy that it had no significant value. It needed to be purified first. The Bible is comparing the rebellious Jews to something of inferior value. I am reminded of "fools gold." During the California Gold Rush, many settlers thought they had found gold, because of the brilliant metallic sparkle, but it was actually the inexpensive metal tungsten, not gold. My point being, men called them reprobate silver, because the Jews had lost their peculiarity as God's holy people, because of their habitual idolatry and sin. God rejected Israel. Again, the Bible doesn't say that men called them reprobates, it says they called them reprobate silver.

There's a big difference. This is the ONLY mention of the word "reprobate" in the Old Testament.

Secondly, God didn't reject the Jews from getting saved; but rather, He rejected them as a nation. The Holy Bible never teaches that when God divorced Israel, He gave up on them ever getting saved. In sharp contrast to the claim that God rejects the worst of sinners, we read in the New Testament that there has always been a remnant of believing Jews:

> Romans 11:5 and 23, "God hath not cast away his people which he foreknew. Wot ye not what the scripture saith of Elias? how he maketh intercession to God against Israel, saying, Lord, they have killed thy prophets, and digged down thine altars; and I am left alone, and they seek my life. But what saith the answer of God unto him? I have reserved to myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to the image of Baal. Even so then at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace. ... And they also, if they abide not still in unbelief, shall be graffed in: for God is able to graff them in again."

Any Jew, still today, can and will be graffed back into the olive tree (the seed of Abraham) by faith in Jesus Christ (Galatians 3:26). The Jews murdered the prophets which God sent to help them. They desecrated God's alters. But there has always been a small remnant of Jews, who have believed on the Messiah. The lie of Calvinism says that we believe because God chose us, but the truth of the Holy Bible says that God chose us because we believe.

It is true that the Old Testament Jews waxed rebellious against the Lord, committing all manner of evil and provoking the Lord. God had finally tolerated enough and gave Israel into the hands of the cruel Assyrians and the Babylonians. In 586 BC, Jerusalem fell to ruin and captivity into Babylon. This was God's judgment upon them! The Jews had become worthless as far as fulfilling their duty for God. But for anyone to attempt to use this passage of Scripture from Jeremiah 6:30, to say that the Jews were beyond the hope of getting saved, is junk theology. Romans chapter 11 evidences this truth. I am totally against the notion that our great God, Who gave His only begotten Son to die on the cross for the sins of the whole world, ever gives up on anyone getting saved.

Carefully notice that the Bible teaches God's hand is not shortened that it cannot save, but men's SINS have separated them from an omnibenevolent (all-loving) God. Isaiah 59:1-2, "Behold, the LORD's hand is not shortened, that it cannot save; neither his ear heavy, that it cannot hear: But your iniquities have separated between you and your God, and your sins have hid his face from you, that he will not hear." God always honors repentance, whether it be an individual or a nation. 2nd Peter 3:9, "The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance." That is, to change one's mind and believe the Gospel.

What About Pastor Jack Hyles' Teaching On Romans Chapter One

The Reprobate Doctrine crowd rally behind a sermon clip by Dr. Jack Hyles, which Pastor Steven Anderson has titled, "[5]Jack Hyles Explains Reprobate Doctrine." In the sermon clip Brother Hyles simply teaches that there is a line which an unsaved person can cross, beyond which they cannot be saved.

First, Brother Hyles was just an imperfect man, so his sermons are NOT our authority on doctrine. I love Brother Hyles and he is my hero of the Christian faith, but I am not a Hylesite (i.e., a Jack Hyles worshipper as some horrible critics call us). I only follow Dr. Hyles when he follows the Lord. The apostle Paul said in 1st Corinthians 11:1, "Be ye followers of me, even as I also am of Christ." I like what General George Patton said, "Either lead me, follow me, or get out of my way!" Dr. Hyles was a leader, and no one was a better follower of the truth and servant of Christ than Brother Hyles. Still, he was only a flawed human being, as are we ALL!

Second, I agree with Dr. Hyles that there is a line that a person can cross, but it is a line that God does not set. Dr. Hyles never said that homosexuals are the reprobates. He plainly says in the YouTube sermon clip that he DOESN'T KNOW what that point is, nor WHO crosses it. Whereas Pastor Anderson has set a specific point, ostracizing all homosexuals from the Gospel. Brother Anderson is very WRONG!!! I say that kindly, but truthfully. Dr. Hyles never applied Romans chapter one to homosexuals, but Pastor Anderson did! Brother Anderson is teaching something very different than what Dr. Hyles taught.

Dr. Hyles clearly said that he DIDN'T KNOW who has crossed the line with God, nor WHAT THAT POINT IS. If you listen carefully to what Dr. Hyles is teaching, he is saying that there comes a point in a Christ-rejecter's life where they'll never hear the Gospel again. That is VERY DIFFERENT than God banning someone from getting saved. Brother Hyles is just saying that you'd better get saved now, while you can, and don't take a chance that you'll never hear the saving-truth of the Gospel again. Dr. Hyles also mentions a lost lady that he met, who said she couldn't get saved because she had crossed a line in her life. But if you listen to the story, it was her own lack of feelings and interest in the Gospel that cursed her, not something that God did to her. She decided that she had crossed a line, not God.

Dr. Hyles simply teaches that one day you'll hear your last invitation to be saved, and there won't be another, so you'd better get saved NOW! That is common sense folks! That is very different than saying that someone CANNOT be saved because God hates them, which is what Pastor Anderson is errantly saying publicly.

Respectfully, Dr. Hyles does teach some heresy in his video clip. He says that Esau couldn't get saved, but he takes the Scripture out of context. Here is the Scripture from Hebrews 12:17, "For ye know how that afterward, when he would have inherited the blessing, he was rejected: for he found no place of repentance, though he sought it carefully with tears." What was Esau seeking? The Bible plainly tells us... to inherit "THE BLESSING" from his father Isaac! His wicked brother, Jacob, had deceived his father (pretending to be Esau) and cheated Esau out of THE BLESSING. This has absolutely NOTHING to do with salvation. I love Brother Hyles, but I won't defend him when he is wrong. So this passage has nothing to do with salvation.

Why Did God Harden Pharaoh's Heart In The Time of Moses?

And furthermore, concerning Pharaoh in Moses' time, the Bible says that God hardened his heart not to let the Hebrews go. The Bible doesn't say that God hardened Pharaoh's heart not to get saved. Do you know why God hardened Pharaoh's heart? It was because God wanted to show off His muscles to His people. By hardening Pharaoh's heart, who refused to let the Hebrews go free to serve God in the Wilderness, it gave God the opportunity to work miraculous wonders, and blow everyone's mind:

> Psalms 106:7-12, "Our fathers understood not thy wonders in Egypt; they remembered not the multitude of thy mercies; but provoked him at the sea, even at the Red sea. Nevertheless he saved them for his name's sake, that he might make his mighty power to be known. He rebuked the Red sea also, and it was dried up: so he led them through the depths, as through the wilderness. And he saved them from the hand of him that hated them, and redeemed them from the hand of the enemy. And the waters covered their enemies: there was not one of them left. Then believed they his words; they sang his praise."

God created mankind in His own image. Just as humans love to be praised, so does God. That is why the Lord's Prayer (it's really the disciple's prayer, because they said, "TEACH US TO PRAY") in Luke 11:2 begins with bragging on God... "HALLOWED BE THY NAME"! God loves to be bragged on. I learned a long time ago from Brother Hyles to regularly brag on God to get things from Him. Sometimes I just pause during the day, whether I be working, resting or walking, and I simply say, "God, I love you so much!" The Lord needs that adoration from His children, just as earthly parents need to hear their children say "I love you mom!" or "I love you dad!" How real is God to you friend? Do you talk to Him throughout the day? I talk out loud when I go walking, speaking to the Lord. I don't care if people think I'm crazy (although I am...lol). If they ask I will tell them, "I am talking to God, my best Friend." The Lord loves to receive praise, and HE IS WORTHY! The Lord's Prayer begins with bragging on God, please don't forget that important truth!

So we see from the Psalms, that God only hardened Pharaoh's heart so that He could flex His divine muscles and impress His people. God did it so "THAT HE MIGHT MAKE HIS MIGHTY POWER TO BE KNOWN" (Psalms 106:8). It had NOTHING to do with salvation.

The Reprobate Doctrine Crowd Have It All Backwards

Also, in the clip Brother Hyles refers to the following passage of Scripture:

> Ephesians 4:17-19, "This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that ye henceforth walk not as other Gentiles walk, in the vanity of their mind, Having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart: Who being past feeling have given themselves over unto lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness with greediness."

This is what Romans chapter one is talking about, in the downward progression of an unrepentant sinner. First, they are unthankful and fail to glory (acknowledge) God their Creator. Their foolish hearts become darkened in the vanity of their minds. They worship the creature more than the Creator. They indulge in fleshly lusts and sins. The Holy Bible says that God gives them up to UNCLEANLINESS! It doesn't say that they can never be saved. The Holy Scriptures say that God gives them over to VILE AFFECTIONS! The Bible doesn't say that God gives up on them ever getting saved.

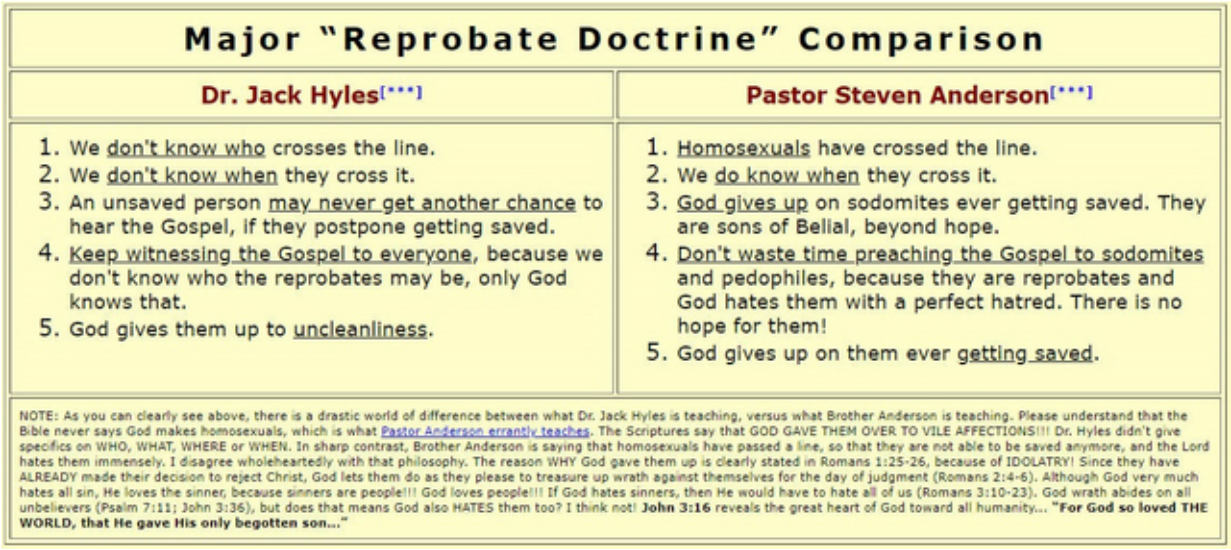
The Holy Bible plainly tells us WHY God gives them over to their vile affections in Romans 1:25, "Who changed the truth of God into a lie, and worshipped and served the creature more than the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen." They were already committing IDOLATRY! They had already rejected the Gospel. You see, the Reprobate Doctrine folks have it all backwards. They say that because of gross sin (like homosexuality) God gives up on people ever getting saved; whereas, the Holy Bible teaches that because unbelievers reject the Gospel, God gives them up unto their filthy sins to allow them to treasure up wrath against them on judgment day (which I'll explain further in a moment). Romans chapter one is not saying that vile sinners can never be saved. Anybody can still be saved! Isaiah 1:18, "Come now, and let us reason together, saith the LORD: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool."

Romans Chapter One is All About Accepting Or Rejecting the Gospel

Do you know what Romans chapter one is saying? The Bible is saying that God lets people be people. I can prove it, with the chapter that everyone overlooks in Romans two! Romans 2:4-6, "Or despisest thou the riches of his goodness and forbearance and longsuffering; not knowing that the goodness of God leadeth thee to repentance? But after thy hardness and impenitent heart treasurest up unto thyself wrath against the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God; Who will render to every man according to his deeds." God is incredibly patient. We learn in Romans 1:18b that the unrighteous "HOLD THE TRUTH IN UNRIGHTEOUSNESS."

So God says, fine, have it your way, but judgment day is coming. God is so ethical that He won't force Himself on anyone. The wicked fully KNOW what they are doing. They CHOOSE to live without God, hating even the knowledge of God (Romans 1:28). So, God never gives up on anyone getting saved. But He knows when someone rejects Him, and only then does He give them over to their vile affections and lusts, to dishonor themselves with one another, laying up God's wrath against themselves on the DAY OF WRATH (which is what the Word of God calls it) when all unbelievers will face the inexplicable horrifying judgment of God. Hebrews 10:31, "It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God."

The alternative is to get saved, by trusting the Good News (Gospel) of Christ Jesus, and then the blood of Jesus washes away all your sins, and you are under grace instead of the curse of the law. Carefully notice that everything said in Romans chapter 1:17-32 follows Romans 1:16 about "THE GOSPEL," "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek." Romans chapter one is all about THE GOSPEL my friend. Either you believe the Gospel and are safe in Jesus Christ, or else you are an idolatrous Christ-rejecter and God gives you over to your sins to lay up wrath against yourself on judgment day. That is what Romans one is about.



People error in doctrine when they attempt to make the issue about homosexuality. Whether an adulterer, murderer, gossiper, drunkard, pedophile, feminist, coveter, thief, kidnapper, whoremonger or filthy homosexual, one sinner is no different than the next as far as God's judgment is concerned. All sin is black! All sin brings the harsh judgment of God! There are only two categories of sinners in God's sight: redeemed and condemned.

Respectfully, I totally disagree with Pastor Steven Anderson's teaching that homosexuals are reprobates that cannot be saved. [6]New Hope Ministry is living proof that homosexuals CAN BE SAVED. The man who started and runs the ministry was himself an unsaved homosexual, but the Gospel of grace found him, and he got saved, and has been delivered by the power of God from that horrible sin. Homosexuals are not a separate class of sinners. They are no different than adulterers, drunkards, liars or thieves. The works of the flesh apply to all sinners. We all struggle with different areas of weakness (Romans 7:14-25), but we are all equally sinful in God's sight (James 2:10), as far as our desperate need for redemption and cleansing by the precious blood of Jesus (1st Corinthians 6:9-11; 1st John 1:7; Revelation 1:5; 1st Peter 1:18-19). There is hope for homosexuals. No one has passed beyond the point of being reached by God's loving mercy and grace through the truth of the Gospel.

I made this little chart today, comparing the different ways that Dr. Jack Hyles views the Reprobate Doctrine verses how Pastor Steven Anderson teaches it, which are quite different from one another. If is clear that Dr. Hyles DIDN'T believe that homosexuals cannot be saved. Kindly, I wish brother Anderson would stop misrepresenting Brother Hyles. [7] Major "Reprobate Doctrine" Comparison

Major "Reprobate Doctrine" Comparison

Dr. Jack Hyles[]	Pastor Steven Anderson[]
1. We don't know who crosses the line. 2. We don't know when they cross it. 3. An unsaved person may never get another chance to hear the Gospel, if they postpone getting saved. 4. Keep witnessing the Gospel to everyone, because we don't know who the reprobates may be, only God knows that. 5. God gives them up to uncleanliness.	1. Homosexuals have crossed the line. 2. We do know when they cross it. 3. God gives up on sodomites ever getting saved. They are sons of Belial, beyond hope. 4. Don't waste time preaching the Gospel to sodomites and pedophiles, because they are reprobates and God hates them with a perfect hatred. There is no hope for them! 5. God gives up on them ever getting saved.

NOTE: As you can clearly see above, there is a drastic world of difference between what Dr. Jack Hyles is teaching, versus what Brother Anderson is teaching. Please understand that the Bible never says God makes homosexuals, which is what Pastor Anderson errantly teaches. The Scriptures say that GOD GAVE THEM OVER TO VILE AFFECTIONS!!! Dr. Hyles didn't give specifics on WHO, WHAT, WHERE or WHEN. In sharp contrast, Brother Anderson is saying that homosexuals have passed a line, so that they are not able to be saved anymore, and the Lord hates them immensely. I disagree wholeheartedly with that philosophy. The reason WHY God gave them up is clearly stated in Romans 1:25-26, because of IDOLATRY! Since they have ALREADY made their decision to reject Christ, God lets them do as they please to treasure up wrath against themselves for the day of judgment (Romans 2:4-6). Although God very much hates all sin, He loves the sinner, because sinners are people!!! God loves people!!! If God hates sinners, then He would have to hate all of us (Romans 3:10-23). God wrath abides on all unbelievers (Psalm 7:11; John 3:36), but does that means God also HATES them too? I think not! John 3:16 reveals the great heart of God toward all humanity... "For God so loved THE WORLD, that He gave His only begotten son..."

[9]Major "Reprobate Doctrine" Comparison

God is Not Willing That Any Should Perish, But That All Should Come to Repentance

God wants ALL men to be saved. "Repentance" simply means to think differently, so that you'll trust Christ for salvation. Repentance does NOT mean to stop sinning, nor to try to stop sinning, nor to be willing to try to stop sinning. I think Dr. Harry Ironside (1876-1951) said it best:

> "Which comes first, repentance or faith? In Scripture we read, 'Repent ye, and believe the gospel.' Yet we find true believers exhorted to 'repent, and do the first works.' So intimately are the two related that you cannot have one without the other. The man who believes God repents; the repentant soul puts his trust in the Lord when the Gospel is revealed to him. Theologians may wrangle over this, but the fact is, no man repents until the Holy Spirit produces repentance in his soul through the truth. No man believes the Gospel and rests in it for his own salvation until he has judged himself as a needy sinner before God. And this is repentance." ([10]Except Ye Repent, p. 16)

Beware of a false meaning of repentance, which has crept into at least HALF of all Baptist churches today, corrupting the Gospel of grace, which says that you must forsake sinful behavior to be saved. That is NOT the Gospel of grace. That is NOT the free gift of forgiveness of sins and eternal life. You don't have to turn from anything to be saved. We are saved simply by turning TO Jesus in faith, accepting His sacrifice on the cross as payment for our sins, believing that He raised up three days later from the dead. Whatever it is that a person turns FROM to be saved, happens automatically when they turn TO the Gospel through faith.

You need to understand that God has placed the great responsibility of proclaiming the Gospel upon the New Testament Church. If we as born-again believer fail to obey The Great Commission (Matthew 28:19-20), multitudes WILL GO TO HELL forever. We have a God-given duty to preach the Gospel, to be witnesses for Christ to all the world (Acts 1:8). That command wasn't just for the apostles, but for every true believer. We ought to bear "MUCH FRUIT" abiding in Christ (John 15:1-5). That means getting people saved with the saving-truth of the Gospel of grace. Nothing is as dear to the great heart of God than soul-winning.

With this precious truth in mind, it becomes very clear that an omnibenevolent (all-loving) God doesn't just write sinners off, condemning them to Hell, when there's even the slightest hope that they'll ever be saved. 2nd Peter 3:9, "The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance." In the Greek "all" means "all," that is, EVERYONE!!! God wants everyone, everywhere, to repent (think differently) and BE SAVED!!!

Did God Harden People's Hearts So They Couldn't Believe?

In his YouTube video, "How To Know If You Are A Reprobate" (which YouTube has removed), Pastor Steven Anderson errantly teaches that God hardens unbeliever's hearts, so that they cannot be saved. He uses this passage in an attempt to justify the Reprobate Heresy. What does the Bible mean here? It is quite simple, God knew that THE TRUTH would harden some people's hearts. The same sun that melts the wax hardens the clay! Let's examine the Scripture passage:

> John 12:37-40, "But though he had done so many miracles before them, yet they believed not on him: That the saying of Esaias the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spake, Lord, who hath believed our report? and to whom > hath the arm of the Lord been revealed? Therefore they could not believe, because that Esaias said again, He hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart; that they should not see with their eyes, nor understand with their heart, and be converted, and I should heal them."

In the video sermon clip, Pastor Anderson uses the illustration of a cellphone. He presents a hypothetical situation where the Lord calls you 37 times on your cellphone, but you keep pressing "ignore." And then all of a sudden you have an emergency and try to get call Jesus, but then He clicks "ignore" and won't talk to you. Folks, that is junk theology! At 8:43 time in the video Pastor Anderson states, quote:

> "God's saying, I'm to the point with these people, where I no longer want them to be converted or healed, I'm to the point with them now where I'm just blinding them, cause I'm through with them!"

Folks, that is wrong! I say that kindly, but truthfully. I consider Brother Anderson a friend in the Lord, but just as I respect his right to disagree, I must speak against teachings that I believe are unbiblical and hurtful to the cause of Christ. I think it is dangerous to teach that a certain class of sinners cannot be saved, because God has given up on them. This is NOT what Jesus is saying in John 12:39-40.

The Lord is referring to an Old Testament passage in the book of Isaiah:

> Isaiah 6:8-10, "Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? Then said I, Here am I; send me. And he said, Go, and tell this people, Hear ye indeed, but understand not; and see ye indeed, but perceive not. Make the heart of this people fat, and make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes; lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and convert, and be healed."

God told Isaiah to go proclaim THE TRUTH, which would result in blinding their eyes. The same sun that melts the wax hardens the clay! In the case of the stiffnecked Jews, most of their hearts were hardened as clay. And the more they heard the truth preached, the harder their hearts waxed. But this is NOT because God wanted to harden their hearts; but rather, God knew that they wouldn't believe the truth. So in John 12:37-40, Jesus is simply saying that the Jews couldn't believe on Him because of the hardness of their own hearts, which was the indirect result of God sending them THE TRUTH! We see this today in America. We tell people THE TRUTH, but they don't want to believe it. We wonder in amazement how naïve, ignorant and foolish people are. Author Mark Twain wisely said, "It's easier to fool people than to convince them that they have been fooled."

Case in point, please read my article, [11]THE LUCIFERIAN CREED, which contains some fascinating quotes by Commander William Guy Carr (1895-1959). Why don't people listen to THE TRUTH? And even more horrifying is that churches are the biggest culprits today. The average knuckleheaded pastor (who has been duped by the Devil to embrace the modern Bible perversions) is indifferent, complacent and more stubborn than a mule. [12]They just won't listen to reason. Despite solid evidence of THE TRUTH, they couldn't care less, choosing instead to go along to get along.

This is why Satan is winning the victory, because of pastors who just don't care about truth. They don't care about the accuracy of the Scriptures. They don't care about the true meaning of repentance. They don't care about the purity of the Gospel. Nothing is more deadly to our nation than shallow-minded pastors who don't think for themselves. When we tell people the truth, they cannot believe it, because of the spiritually decadent condition of their fat heart, calloused over with sinful pride, arrogance and selfishness. That why we read in Luke 8:15, "But that on the good ground are they, which in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit with patience."

The very nature of God is an eager willingness to forgive. The Lord is "not willing that any should perish" (2nd Peter 3:9). God loves to "abundantly pardon" (Isaiah 55:7). Proverbs 1:26 says that wisdom will laugh at you when your calamity comes, because you didn't listen. That simply means that if you don't heed wise counsel and godly instruction, there will come a time when it can no longer help you. This has nothing to do with the Reprobate Heresy. Certainly, we all learn some lessons the hard way in life. That is what Solomon is saying. Let no man claim that God ever gives up on anyone believing the truth of the Gospel to be redeemed.

God Justifies the Heathen By Faith

I felt compelled to write this article, since so many people have complained to me about Pastor Steven Anderson's rejection of homosexuals, and teaching that since they cannot be saved, we ought not even try to witness to them. Kindly, I certainly don't agree with any of those claims. I believe that God's grace is limitless, available to dirtiest and rottenest sinner upon the earth. I was listening to Alexander Scourby yesterday and heard the following beautiful truth from Galatians 3:8, "And the scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel unto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all nations be blessed." Isn't that beautiful... "THAT GOD WOULD JUSTIFY THE HEATHEN THROUGH FAITH"!!! Amen! God justifies THE HEATHEN (and that definitely includes homosexuals and every form of degenerate).

[13]Pastor Charles Spurgeon (1834-1892) teaches this same awesome truth in his book, "All Of Grace." Dishonest preachers cherry pick the sermons of great men, misrepresenting them, in a futile attempt to bolster up a straw man to support their heresy. God only justifies "THE HEATHEN." And as Romans 4:5 tells us... "THE UNGODLY"!!! The very idea that a person must be willing to reform their life of sin as a requirement to be saved is wickedness!!! This is false repentance, and it has [14]plagued more than HALF of the Baptist churches in America. Woe unto the churches! True repentance is simply the admission that one is a guilty sinner in God's sight, which accompanies faith in the Son of God. Remember, you don't have to ask God for forgiveness. It is a gift, which has already been paid for by Jesus' precious blood. All you need to do is receive the gift of eternal life and forgiveness of sins, by trusting the Gospel.

Earnestly Contend for the Faith Which Was Once Delivered Unto the Saints

Jude 1:3, "Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints." It is a joy to contend for the Christian faith. I thank God and give Him all due credit for any good that is accomplished through my humble ministry labors. I am just a worm, as said Job (Job 25:6) and David (Psalms 22:6). I feel as Jacob who said in Genesis 32:10, "I am not worthy of the least of all the mercies, and of all the truth, which thou hast shewed unto thy servant; for with my staff I passed over this Jordan; and now I am become two bands." To God be the glory, great things hath He done!!!

Again, I didn't write this article to attack Pastor Anderson. I DO support his ministry, although many people don't like that I do. How can I not support the work of a guy who is leading thousands of souls to Jesus Christ? I have a heart for souls, which any believer who walks with God has, and I love a soul-winner!!! Moreover, Brother Anderson is reproducing himself, generating preachers and soul-winners worldwide, and that is The Great Commission my friend. I wrote this article mainly so that now I can just send this link to my web visitors who ask me about this matter, instead of having to explain it a hundred times. I think this is wise and will benefit many people from learning THE TRUTH.

We Ought to Love the Person, But Hate their Sin

Oh my friend, the great heart of God loves sinners, because He loves every human being. Many people don't understand that the Bible mentions two types of love. One is fondness (Greek: phileo), which a person feels toward their wife, children and loved ones. The other is God's unconditional love (Greek: agape). The first is based upon others. That is, we love them because of WHO THEY ARE. The latter is based upon our self. That is, we love them because of WHO WE ARE. Hence, God is not fond of homosexuals. When David said that he hated those who hate God, he meant that he is not fond of sinners.

Psalms 139:21-22, "Do not I hate them, O LORD, that hate thee? and am not I grieved with those that rise up against thee? I hate them with perfect hatred: I count them mine enemies." Christians ought to hate the wicked with a perfect hatred, not being fond of them; while at the same time loving them unconditionally with God's amazing love, "because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us" (Romans 5:5). If you will grasp this truth, it will transform your life. This is where it comes in handy to know some Greek, which I think is perfectly acceptable to use in studying the Bible. I know that Brother Anderson critiques consulting the Greek, but it is perfectly proper. Granted, there has been much tampering with the Greek texts, so you need to be careful.

For example: [15]William E. Vine and [16]Merrill F. Unger, denied that Jesus' blood is sprinkled on the Mercy Seat in Heaven. Praise God for Dr. Gail Riplinger (to whom Dr. Jack Hyles presented a well-deserved honorary doctorates degree at Pastor's School). She has been a great defender of the inspiration of the King James Bible and the very pure Word of God. You can freely read her awesome book titled, "[17]HAZARDOUS MATERIALS" (all glorious 1220 pages in .pdf format) if you'd like, to learn exactly what is wrong with the Greek study aids available today. Alexandrian theology has crept into everything, as a consequence of the corrupt Alexandrian Bible texts.

Some people have even suggested that Brother Anderson has corrupted the Gospel. I do not agree with that claim. Pastor Anderson is not corrupting the Gospel by limiting grace to homosexuals, but he is teaching a strange doctrine. 2nd Peter 3:9, "The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance."

It is improper Bible study to base a doctrine on one particular passage of Scripture, failing to take into consideration the whole of Scripture. If a person just looks at Romans chapter one, you might come away thinking that homosexuals cannot be saved.

Ah, but if you take into consideration 2nd Peter 3:9, then it becomes clear that God desires for ALL MEN to repent (think differently) and believe the Gospel to be saved. God's saving grace extends to ALL sinners, even the vilest and most despicable of human creatures. Galatians 3:8a, "And the scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith..." That includes every human being. The only difference between me and the vilest sinner upon the face of the earth is the precious blood of Jesus that washed my sins away (1st Peter 1:18-19). No one is beyond the reach of God's saving grace through faith in the Gospel. The ONLY unpardonable sin is rejecting Jesus as one's Savior. The only sin which can keep a man out of Heaven is unbelief.

If you are a homosexual, God still loves you, and so do I friend. Committing the sin of homosexuality is no different than committing the awful sins of adultery, murder, gossiping, stealing, hating others or any other sin. All sin is horrible to God! Admit that you have sinned against a holy God and place your trust in the precious blood of Jesus that cleanseth away all sins (Revelation 1:5). God saves anyone who receives Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for their sins, believing that He was buried, but miraculously raised up three days later. This is "[18]THE GOSPEL" (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Philippians 3:9, "And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith."

God Only Rejects Those Who Reject Him

In summary, there is no such thing in the Bible as "THE REPROBATE DOCTRINE" which is a popular term heard today. The word "reprobate" in the Bible simply refers to an unsaved person. Where God rejected evildoers in the Bible, He was always willing to restore the fallen to favor if they repented:

> Isaiah 1:18-19, "Come now, and let us reason together, saith the LORD: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool. If ye be willing and obedient, ye shall eat the good of the land: But if ye refuse and rebel, ye shall be devoured with the sword: for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it."

1st Timothy 5:12, "Having damnation, because they have cast off their first faith." Biblically, men refuse and rebel against the Lord, making themselves reprobates (heathens), but there is no Scriptural idea of God banning a sinner from returning to God if they so choose. John 6:36-37, "But I said unto you, That ye also have seen me, and believe not. All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out." So here we plainly learn that a person willfully chooses to BELIEVE NOT, but at the same time, Jesus gave His Word that He would never cast out anyone who comes to Him by faith. I don't care how far gone in sin a person may be, if they desire to come to Christ, He will receive that person. The only "reprobate" is someone who intentionally rejects the Son of God, refusing the precious Savior. The Lord plainly stated in John 5:40, "And ye will not come to me, that ye might have life." Carefully notice that the Lord said: "YE WILL NOT COME," He didn't say "YE CANNOT COME"! That truth applies to all humanity.

There is no such thing as a “reprobate” in the sense of someone who has been rejected by God, who is beyond the hope of the Gospel, impossible to be redeemed by the great Savior. The following passage of Scripture is commonly misinterpreted. It simply means that if you reject the Gospel, it is impossible to be saved any other way:

> Hebrews 6:4-6, “For it is impossible for those who were once enlightened, and have tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Ghost. And have tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the world to come, If they shall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance; seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame.”

Hebrews 6:4-6 refers to someone who flat-out rejects Jesus Christ as their Savior. They have experienced the conviction of the Holy Spirit. They have tasted of the gift of eternal life, but didn’t receive it. There is a big difference between tasting something versus eating it. We know that this verse is about Christ-rejecters because it plainly says so: SEEING THEY CRUCIFY TO THEMSELVES THE SON OF GOD AFRESH! By rejecting the Savior, they might as well have driven the nails into His hands and feet themselves!

A similar truth is taught in Galatians 5:4, “Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; ye are fallen from grace.” The phrase “fallen from grace” doesn’t refer to losing the gift of salvation, which is utterly impossible for the believer. The phrase “fallen from grace” simple means that if you don’t get saved by faith alone, you don’t get saved. You have fallen short of God’s grace! If you attempt to “turn from sinful ways” to be saved (which is effectively the same thing as keeping the Mosaic law), you have missed the only bus going to Heaven! You have fallen from the safety of grace, thrown under the bus by the false prophets. The purpose of the Old Testament Mosaic LAW (including the Ten Commandments) is to bring you to GRACE (Romans 3:19-20). But if you fall short of grace, by instead trying to keep the law to be saved, then you get thrown under the bus and go to Hell forever!

In either case of Hebrews 6:4-6 or Galatians 5:4, the Bible is speaking about those who wilfully reject Christ or corrupt the Gospel. These are reprobates by their own hand, and not by the choice or doing of God!

3.10.19 Make No Friendship With An Angry Person (2022-10-27 14:32)

Proverbs 22:24-25, “Make no friendship with an angry man; and with a furious man thou shalt not go: Lest thou learn his ways, and get a snare to thy soul.”

I love the book of Proverbs in the Old Testament. I encourage everyone to [1]listen to Alexander Scourby (or your favorite voice) read the Bible. It is so edifying for all of us to HEAR the Word of God being read. You can hear the entire book of Proverbs read in under 2 hours. Proverbs 4:7, "Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore get wisdom: and with all thy getting get understanding." The Bible says that WISDOM IS THE PRINCIPLA THING! Remember, talent seeks attention, but wisdom pays attention.

Our text Scripture passage from Proverbs 22:24-25 warns the reader not to become close friends with someone who has a hot temper. Most humans have some degree of a temper. Some people are normally calm, and it takes a lot to get them angry. But some people fly off the handle quickly, and those are the type of people that you want to stay away from.

Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) used to rightly teach that you won't become in 5 years what you want to be, you will become what you decide to be around. That is so true! That is why we read in Proverbs 13:20, "

He that walketh with wise men shall be wise: but a companion of fools shall be destroyed.

" That is why on a regular basis I strongly encourage all of my web visitors to listen to audio sermons, and watch video sermons on YouTube, because preaching helps us to THINK RIGHT! By God's grace, I have collected a wonderful family of [2]several thousand sermons on my website ministry. I now have [3]3,138 sermons and Bible studies by Dr. Jack Hyles, my favorite Bible preacher. We all need Bible preaching!!!

Sadly, less than 1 % of my thousands of web visitors take advantage of the sermons available on my ministry websites. Oh, how I wish I could encourage people to start listening to preaching. We all like different preachers. That is okay! Some people don't like a bombastic, in your face, type of preacher like Pastor Jack Hyles. That is okay. For those type of people, I recommend [4]listening to Pastor Jeff Owens, who is mild but still speaks the truth without compromise or apology.

Or perhaps, [5]Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold, who is gentle and one of the best preachers today. Pastor Arnold is a 100 % free grace Gospel preacher, and I love him for it!!! I hope you will start listening to Bible preaching, if you aren't doing it already.

You will become in 5 years what you decide to be around, not what you decide to be. This is why we all need to choose our friends carefully. Everybody has a bad day once in awhile, but if someone is always negative, angry and quick to blow up, the Bible warns to stay away from such a person, lest you become like them.

I have proven to myself that when I watch movies, I pick up on influences in the movies. We all imitate the things that we see and hear. It is part of our human nature to imitate the people, things, philosophies and influences in our daily life. That is why my favorite Bible verse is from

Proverbs 4:23, " Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life. " We must guard our thought life! We need to always think objectively, questioning every quote, sermon, saying, advice, et cetera, to determine if it is in alignment with the inspired Word of God (1st John 4:1). The Devil is a beautiful liar! Old Satan is one slick dude. The serpent was so subtle that he tricked Eve without her even knowing it, until the damage was already done (Genesis 3:1-15).

We should always be kind to everyone. People just want to be loved. But we need to be careful not to form very close relationships with greedy, wicked, hostile, hateful or manipulative individuals. And by the way, that includes rotten pastors! There are some pastors who are filled with a sinful spirit of envy, hatred and hypocrisy toward good preachers. There was a pastor many years ago in Indiana, who hated and railed on Pastor Jack Hyles because of the sins of other people. That wicked pastor hated Dr. Hyles, envious of his success, and continually slandered Pastor Hyles. I wouldn't want to attend that kind of hateful church.

Pensacola Christian College (PCC) is another horrible place. They have a poor reputation for how they treat students and church members. People matter! Sadly, at PCC the cult system always comes first, but individual people don't matter! Any religious group that rejects, shuns and ostracizes certain people is a cult! I begged the leaders at PCC, and their Campus Church pastors in 2022, for a second chance, just so that I could attend Campus Church, but they all refused. That is what I am talking about. People don't matter to PCC, they just want more money.

Jesus was willing to leave the 99 sheep to go help the 1 lamb in need; but at PCC they think the exact opposite, they couldn't care less about the 1 hurting person (divorced people like me), since they still have the 99 loyal cult followers. That is heathendom, not Bible Christianity! PCC is a terrible place, full of self-righteous hypocrites who refuse to forgive, give second chances, or even lift a finger to try to reconcile. I have done what I can, but they refuse to make the peace. God sees my purity of heart in this matter. SHAME on Pensacola Christian College. PEOPLE JUST WANT TO BE LOVED!!!

So if you don't want to become cold-hearted, holier than thou, abusive and cruel toward hurting sinners, then you shouldn't fellowship and toke up together with the PCC crowd. Thankfully, although we cannot control the way that other professed Christians behave, we CAN decide and control our own temperament. I am going to love everybody, just as God unconditionally loves me. I have already forgiven all my enemies, long ago. God knows that I do not live with a burden of hatred. I do not hate a living soul on earth. Life is much too short to live carrying a burden of hatred. Haughty groups like PCC are so big, and have so much money, that they just don't care about individual people. But God sees their wickedness and lack of compassion, and what PCC has done to wound me, for which God will hold them accountable in eternity. Vengeance is the Lord's (Romans 12:19-21).

3.10.20 John Darby Was A Forerunner Of The Corrupt Modern Bible Version Movement (2022-10-28 09:23)

2nd Corinthians 2:17, "For we are not as many, which corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ."

5114

John Nelson Darby (November 18, 1800 – April 29, 1882) was the most influential leader of the original Plymouth Brethren movement. It might surprise you to learn that this man—regarded by biographers as the Father of Dispensationalism—was at the forefront of the modern bible versions movement.

In 1867 John Darby completed a new translation of the New Testament that is filled with [1]texts and footnotes that contradict the Received Text:

> "Darby did not feel such a need for a new translation in English, because he considered the King James Version to be adequate for most purposes, and he encouraged his followers to continue to use it. But, he decided to produce a highly literal English version of the New Testament for study purposes. This New Testament was first issued in parts, beginning with the Gospel according to Matthew in 1865. The New Testament was completed in 1867. The version is exceedingly literal, based upon modern critical editions of the Greek text, and abundantly supplied with text-critical and philological annotations. The annotations are by far the most comprehensive and detailed to be found in an English version." [Bold emphasis added.] (1)

The Darby Translation is based on modern critical editions of the Greek text:

> The Gospels, Acts, Epistles, and Book of Revelation: Commonly called the New Testament. A New Translation from a Revised Text of the Greek Original. London: G. Morrish, 1867. Second edition 1872. Third edition 1884. [bold emphasis added] (2)

John Darby's Bible was so liberal the modernists who translated the 1881 English Revised Version consulted it:

> "It was consulted by the translators of the English Revised Version of 1881 (see F.F. Bruce, History of the Bible in English, 3rd ed., 1978, p. 132)." (3)

John Darby highly regarded modernists of his day:

> In my first edition my translation was formed on the concurrent voice of Griesbach, Lachmann, Scholz, and Tischendorf: the first of soberer judgment and critical acumen and discernment; the next with a narrower system of taking only the very earliest MSS, so that sometimes he might have only one or two; the third excessively carelessly printed, but taking the mass of Constantinopolitan MSS as a rule; Revised Preface to second edition of the New Testament (1871) (4)

> "Meanwhile, since my first edition, founded on the concurrent judgment of the four great modern editors, [he referenced Griesbach, Lachmann, Scholz, and Tischendorf] following the received text unchanged where the true reading was a disputed point among them, the Sinaitic MS has been discovered; the Vatican published; Porphyry's of Acts and Paul's Epistles and most of the Catholic Epistles and the Apocalypse, and others, in the Monumenta Sacra Inedita of Tischendorf, as well as his seventh edition." Revised Preface to second edition of the New Testament 1871 (5)

Darby gave honorable mention to modernists who "enlarged the field of criticism":

> "Mill, Bengel, Wetstein (who greatly enlarged the field of criticism), then Griesbach, Matthei (the last giving the Russian Codices, which are Constantinopolitan so called), Lachmann, Scholz, Tischendorf, and quite recently Tregelles. I name only those of critical celebrity." (6)

John Darby's assertion that the Textus Receptus "had no real authority" corresponds with the fact that his alleged [2]"recovered truths" are not found in the Authorized Version (KJV). He stated:

> "My plan was, where the chief editors agreed, to adopt their reading, not to attempt to make a text of my own. My object was a more correct translation: only there was no use in translating what all intelligent critics held to be a mistake in the copy. For, as is known, the Textus Receptus had no real authority, nor was indeed the English Version taken from it, – it was an earlier work by some years." (7)

In view of the fact that the bulk of John Darby's "recovered truths" are prophetic in nature, it is revealing that he rejected the manuscripts the King James translators used for Revelation:

> "I have always stated the Textus Receptus in the margin where it is departed from, except in the Revelation, Erasmus having translated that from one poor and imperfect MS., which being accompanied by a commentary had to be separated by a transcriber; and even so Erasmus corrected what he had from the Vulgate, or guessed what he had not." (8)

Plymouth Brethren Translations Agree on Modern Version Doctrines

QUESTION: Why does the John Darby Bible (which is based upon critical editions of the Greek Text) often precisely [3]match Thomas Newberry's George Ricker Berry English Interlinear in modern version doctrinal teachings?

ANSWER: The John Darby Bible often matched Thomas Newberry's Interlinear because both Plymouth Brethren leaders were [4]AGAINST THE RECEIVED TEXT and for the Critical Greek Text!

3.10.21 "If Christ Is Not Lord Of All, He's Not Lord At All" HERESY! (2022-10-28 11:04)

Romans 14:8-9, "For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's. For to this end Christ both died, and rose, and revived, that he might be Lord both of the dead and living*."

I am so sick and tired of hearing the unbiblical cliché: "If Christ is not Lord of all, He is not Lord at all." Nothing could be further from THE TRUTH of God's Word! The unbiblical idea that Jesus Christ is either in absolute control of your life, or else He is not your Lord at all, is of the Devil. Yes, in fact, Jesus can be only partial Lord of your life:

> 2nd Chronicles 25:1-2, "Amaziah was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem. And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, but not with a perfect heart."

King Amaziah only served the Lord half-heartedly! Christ was NOT the supreme Lord of his life. I think I can safely say that most genuine Christians today do NOT serve God with a perfect heart. And I can tell you assuredly with 100 % Biblical certainty that ALL believers still commit sin every day (Romans 7:14-25; 1st John 1:8-10). No one has arrived. There's not one saint on the planet who can be lifted up as an example of what all the rest of us should be, if the truth be known. 1st Timothy 5:24, " Some men's sins are open beforehand, going before to judgment; and some men they follow after."

Dear reader, the day that you became a born-again child of God (which is by faith alone in the Gospel of Jesus Christ), Jesus also became the supreme Lord of your life. That is, He became your Master! Jesus is "

LORD,

" you don't make Him Lord. Our text passage from Romans 14:8-9 proclaims that Jesus died on the cross, was buried and resurrected miraculously from the dead, so that He could be Lord of both the dead and the living. That is interesting, why the dead? It is because even the unsaved dead must acknowledge their mistreated Creator and spurned Savior:

> Philippians 2:8-11, "And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross. Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name: That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth; And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father."

I am fully convinced that guitarist Eddie Van Halen went to Hell. Eddie was a Roman Catholic, trusting in the manmade sacraments of the Vatican, and the empty words of some unholy priest to save him, but that is NOT the saving truth of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Salvation must be without human works! God doesn't save anyone who is trying to be saved, He only saves those who are trusting to be saved. Everyone will someday bow their knee before the God and Creator of the universe in eternity, and confess with their tongue that "

Jesus is Lord!

Thankfully, you don't need to make Jesus the "Lord" of your life to get to Heaven, you simply need to receive Him personally as your Savior. The Gospel of John is God's Gospel tract according to John 20:31, "But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name." God authored the Gospel (Good News) of John, to convince the human reader that Jesus is the Christ, the only begotten Son of God, and that by BELIEVING we will be saved. That is the ONLY way to get to Heaven.

I feel sorry for members of the demonic Bahai Faith (of which singer Dan Seals, aka, England Dan, was a devout lifelong members), because in their religion they teach that there are many paths to Heaven. But what saith the Scripture? John 14:6, "Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me." No, Dan Seals, there are not many paths to Heaven, there is only one, and that is through faith in Jesus Christ. I am so sick and tired of this damnable heresy of " today! You don't have to take Jesus as your Lord and Savior to get to Heaven, you just need to take Him as your SAVIOR!!!

What saith the Scripture? 1st Timothy 4:10,

"For therefore we both labour and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe. " Jesus is the Savior of ALL MEN, especially of those that BELIEVE ON HIM!!! So if you go to Hell forever, it will be by your own foolish choosing, because your rejected your dear Savior and His free gift of eternal life which was purchased for you with His blood.

So it is not true that: "If Christ is not Lord of all, He is not Lord at all." That is a stupid thing for anyone to say, even though it does sound good. It is true though, that Jesus is either your Savior, or else He is not. But it cannot be both or partial. When false teachers say that Jesus must be "Lord of all" in your life—they mean that in order to get to Heaven you must faithfully serve God, follow Jesus no matter what the cost, repent and turn away from your sinful lifestyle, live a lifestyle of repentance from sin, faithfully run the Christian race until the end, count the cost and pay the price, carry your cross, et cetera. NONE of those things comprise THE GOSPEL by which we are saved (1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

I don't care who you are, if you are a redeemed child of God, blood-washed and your name is written in Heaven, JESUS IS NOT THE TOTAL LORD OF YOUR LIFE!!! I will be the first to admit that Jesus is not the absolute Lord of my life. Is Jesus my Lord? Yes, of course, absolutely. He became the Lord (Master) of my miserable life the day that I received Him as my personal Savior in 1980 at age 13 in Chicago. But I do not submit to Him very well. I have many faults, sins and short-comings as a child of God. I long for the glorious future day that my soul and spirit are no longer chained to the body of this death, and Jesus resurrects me with a new body fashioned like unto His resurrected glorified perfect body (Philippians 3:21). Even so, come, Lord Jesus!!!

No saint can honestly profess that Jesus is 100 % the Lord of their life. I sure can't. And neither can you friend. You and I can only do our best in Christ's strength to live the Christian life by faith to please God. Galatians 2:20, "I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me.

Ga:2:21: I do not frustrate the grace of God: for if righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain." A lot of Bible students only read Galatians 2:20, lifting it out of context. But there is a beautiful truth tucked away if your interpret Galatians 2:20 in the proper context.

The churches at Galatia had fallen prey to a works-based religious cult (Galatians 3:1-3), who insisted that in addition to placing one's faith in Jesus Christ, you still had to keep the law, turn away from your sinful ways, follow Jesus as "

Lord

" and live the Christian life faithfully to get to Heaven. This is exactly what the accursed Seventh-Day Adventists (SDA) teach today. Sadly, it is also exactly what Bob Jones University (BJU) and most of their corrupt graduates and affiliates are also teaching; namely, pastors' Marty Herron, Jared Baldwin, Joe Hensen, Gary Walton, Steve Pettit, Chuck Phelps, John MacArthur, et cetera.

And tragically, Pensacola Christian College (PCC) wickedly bids BJU Godspeed, hobnobbing with the wicked Harvest Baptist Church on Guam (which is a cesspool of BJU alumni). I had attended Harvest Baptist Church on Guam for an entire year, and I can tell you assuredly that they preach hardcore Calvinism (aka, Lordship Salvation). They use, sell and promote the Devil's corruptible seed (i.e., the damned modern PERversions of the Bible). They also preach a perverted understanding of repentance, unbiblically requiring lost sinners to give up their sinful bad habits as a prerequisite to going to Heaven (which is self-righteousness). Bible repentance is merely "

(Greek noun: metanoia) from unbelief to BELIEVING THE GOSPEL. Forsaking one's sins is not repentance, it is reformation! Living a changed life is NOT repentance, it is reformation!!! Judas reformed and went to Hell.

So, yes, Jesus is the Lord of every believer's life, but that doesn't mean that I always follow Him as my Lord. You must understand dear reader that SERVICE (discipleship by works) is something entirely different than SALVATION (justification by faith). My favorite preacher quote is by Pilgrim's Progress author, John Bunyan (1628-1688):

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." —Evangelist John Bunyan

That is exactly what the heresy of Lordship Salvation is—a failure to put a difference between SALVATION (justification from without) versus SERVICE (sanctification from within). We must keep these two great doctrines separate, or else we corrupt the Word of God and utterly confuse the people (especially in the churches).

Another one of my favorite preachers, Pastor M.R. DeHaan (1891-1965) said it this way:

> "There is a vast difference between coming to Jesus for salvation and coming after Jesus for service. Coming to Christ makes one a believer, while coming after Christ makes one a disciple. All believers are not disciples. To become a believer one accepts the invitation of the Gospel, to be a disciple one obeys the challenge to a life of dedicated service and separation. Salvation comes through the sacrifice of Christ; discipleship comes only by sacrifice of self and surrender to His call for devoted service. Salvation is free, but discipleship involves paying the price of a separated walk. Salvation can't be lost because it depends upon God's faithfulness, but discipleship can be lost because it depends upon our faithfulness." —Pastor M.R. DeHaan, Hebrews; Zondervan Publishing House, 1959 (p. 117)

Boy that is good stuff! Dear friend, if you are saved Jesus is your Lord. Receiving Him as "Lord" has nothing to do with getting saved; but rather, after you are saved the dear Savior wants you to pick up your cross and follow Him. This according to Romans 12:1-2 is the believer's " reasonable SERVICE.

" Please don't miss that, it is our SERVICE for Christ, not our SALVATION through faith in Christ.

And then if you are not saved, Jesus is still Lord. You may have rejected Him as your personal Savior, but He is still your Savior (you just don't want to be saved). That is what 1st Timothy 4:10 teaches. One day in eternity you will bow to Him as Lord, and confess with your tongue that He is Lord. Even Satan himself, old smutface, will bow his knee to confess that Jesus Christ is the King of kings, and Lord of lords. Oh yes, it will happen, you have God's promise of it dear reader. That is what Philippians 2:9-10 teaches.

The only fools running around saying:

"Either Christ is Lord of all or He is not Lord at all," is the Calvinist crowd, the Lordship Salvation cult! It is possible to become a born-again believer, and yet still choose to remain in sin, living like the Devil. Yes, you CAN accept Jesus as your personal Savior, but still not be willing to submit to Him as the Lord of your life. That is grace dear friend! Romans 6:1,

What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound?

" If you and I choose to continue living a lifestyle of sin, grace will abound.

Certainly, there will be some inner change when a person gets saved, because now that person has the indwelling presence of God's Holy Spirit in them (Romans 8:9), but those changes may not be visible outwardly. I have heard ignorant preachers say that where there is fire there is smoke. Their point is that you cannot have God's Holy Spirit living inside of your spirit, soul and body without some outward evidence becoming visible. Dear friend, that is simple not true. Some of the most evil people in the world go around smiling all the time. President George W. Bush murdered 1,455,590 innocent people in Iraq, but he was always smiling as U.S. President, like everything was a big joke to him. Remember, Satan comes to the world disguised " as an angel of light

(2nd Corinthians 11:13-15).

There is no way for you to determine if someone is really saved by examining their life. The only way to know for certain is by the direct testimony from their mouth concerning Jesus Christ. I like what my friend Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold said:

> "Lordship Salvation is the unsupportable and unbiblical belief that the performance of good works, the promise of good works, or the evidence of good works, must accompany faith in Christ to establish or provide evidence that such faith has resulted in eternal life." —Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold, [1]"Jesus versus John MacArthur"

You don't have to take Jesus as the Lord of your life to be saved dear friend, you just need to take Him as your Savior. Always remember to keep SERVICE completely separate from SALAVTION. I went to the Pensacola Interstate Fair last night. The fair has been hosted in Pensacola since 1934. I had a good yesterday afternoon. I went to the circus and watched all the amazing acrobatics (and pretty girls...lol). I saw the fancy horses and amazing fire dances. I ate plenty of great food. I always enjoy going to fairs.

But then I walked into the exhibit building where all the religious nuts were The Jehovah Witnesses had a booth set up. Gideon's International had their own exhibit booth, promoting their corrupt Devil's Bible PERversions. And lo and behold, I met another heretic from of all places, Pensacola Christian College!!! Go figure! He was a younger fella with his own booth, with a big tattoo on his forearm. He handed me some little stupid booklet with a smiley face on the front, which didn't contain enough truth to convert a caterpillar! I asked him kindly and without hesitation... "

You're not preaching Lordship

Salvation I hope?

He replied: "If Christ is not Lord of all, He is not Lord at all." SHAME on Pastor Jeff Redlin at Campus Church for not teaching his congregation better!!! It is actually God's flock (Acts 20:28), which God has entrusted to the incompetent

pastors at PCC's Campus Church. Unbelievable

Campus Church at PCC has their members at the Pensacola Interstate Fair preaching the Devil's Lordship Salvation!!! Go back to Hell Pensacola Christian College with your Lordship Salvation!!! I know exactly where they got that from too—from spiritually fornicating with the accursed Bob Jones University camp ([2]who have become hardcore Calvinists in recent decades). Dr. Steve Pettit (president of BJU since 2014 [3]is a dangerous false prophet!!!

The sad reason why that young man at the Pensacola Interstate Fair is promoting Lordship Salvation is because PCC's shameful leadership and pastors AREN'T contending for the faith. That young guy doesn't know any better! Pastor Phil Kidd is right, whatever a preacher stops preaching on is what his church will fill up with in 5 years!!! The PCC camp are filling up with Lordship Salvation because their rotten pastors refuse to PREACH AGAINST ERROR!!!

3.10.22 We Are A Nation In Decline ~ President Donald J. Trump (2022-10-28 14:40)

We Are A Nation In Decline President Donald J. Trump

By [1]U.S. Campaigns | August 9, 2022

“We are a nation in decline. We are a failing nation. We are a nation that has the highest inflation in over 40 years, where the stock market just finished the worst first half of the year in more than five decades.

We are a nation that has the highest energy cost in its history, and we are no longer energy independent or energy dominant, which we were just two short years ago.

We are a nation that is begging Venezuela and Saudi Arabia for oil.

We are a nation that surrendered in Afghanistan, leaving behind dead soldiers and American citizens and 85 billion dollars worth of the finest military equipment in the world.

We are a nation that allowed Russia to devastate a country, Ukraine, killing hundreds of thousands of people, and it will only get worse.

We are a nation that has weaponized it’s law enforcement against the opposing political party, like never before. We’ve never seen anything like this.

We are a nation that no longer has a free and fair press. Fake news is about all you get.

We’re a nation where free speech is no longer allowed, where crime is rampant like never before, where the economy has been collapsing, where more people died of COVID in 2021 and in 2020.

We are a nation that is allowing Iran to build a massive nuclear weapon, and China to use the trillions and trillions of dollars it's taken from the United States to build a military two rival our own.

We are a nation that over the past two years is no longer respected or listened to all around the world.

And we are a nation that is hostile to liberty, freedom and faith.

We are a nation whose economy is floundering and stores or not stocked, whose deliveries are not coming, and whose educational system is ranked at the bottom of every list.

We are a nation, that in many ways, has become a joke.

But soon we will have greatness again. It was hard working Patriots like you who built this country and it is hard-working Patriots like you who are going to save our country.

There is no mountain we cannot climb.

There is no summit we cannot reach.

There is no challenge we cannot beat.

There is no victory we cannot have.

We will not bend.

We will not break.

We will not yield ever, ever, ever.

We will never give in. We will never give up, and we will never ever back down. We will never let you down. As long as we are confident and united, the tyrants we're fighting do not stand even a little chance, because we are American's and Americans kneel to God and God alone, and it is time to start talking about greatness for our country again.

. . . the best is yet to come."

3.10.23 Be Careful About Your Attitude Toward People (2022-10-29 19:21)

Luke 7:2-9,

And a certain centurion's servant, who was dear unto him, was sick, and ready to die.

And when he heard of Jesus, he sent unto him the elders of the Jews, beseeching him that he would come and heal his servant.

And when they came to Jesus, they besought him instantly, saying, That he was worthy for whom he should do this:

For he loveth our nation, and he hath built us a synagogue*.

Then Jesus went with them. And when he was now not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying unto him, Lord, trouble not thyself: for I am not worthy that thou shouldest enter under my roof:

Wherefore neither thought I myself worthy to come unto thee: but say in a word, and my servant shall be healed.

For I also am a man set under authority, having under me soldiers, and I say unto one, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it. When Jesus heard these things, he marvelled at him, and turned him about, and said unto the people that followed him, I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel."

I love this wonderful true story. This Roman centurion (a commander over 100 soldiers) was a good man. The man's servant was sick unto death the Bible says. He had heard about a man named Jesus who had the power to heal. So the commander called the elders of the Jews, to send them to Jesus with a humble request that Jesus heal his servant. The Jewish elders told Jesus how good this centurion was, mentioning to Jesus that he even built a synagogue for the people to worship God. I love this guy! This man loved people. Jesus was moved by the positive praise that He heard from the people regarding this good man. But the thing that mostly impressed Jesus was this man's faith. What I want you to see in this passage is that the Lord regards what other people have to say about us. How do you treat people? What would your enemies say about you?

The Holy Bible is full of real life examples of how saint's negative thinking backfired on them! Here is one such example:

> Genesis 29:29-31, "And Laban gave to Rachel his daughter Bilhah his handmaid to be her maid. And he went in also unto Rachel, and he loved also Rachel more than Leah, and served with him yet seven other years. And when the LORD saw that Leah was hated, he opened her womb: but Rachel was barren."

Jacob's mother had a brother named Laban. After Jacob cheated his brother Esau out of his birthright, Jacob fled for fear of his life from Esau. Jacob's mother (who had instigated him deceiving his father Isaac) told Jacob to go live with his uncle, Laban. So Jacob did.

Jacob fell in love with Laban's daughter, Rachel, the moment that he met her. Jacob agreed to work for Laban for 7-years to marry his daughter (which the Bible says were as days since he loved Rachel so much).

But just as Jacob deceived Esau and cheated him, so did Laban deceive and cheat Jacob. On his wedding night Jacob thought he was in bed with Rachael, but the next morning he was horrified to see that it was Leah. Laban connived a plan to keep Jacob around working for an additional 7 years for both wives. The Lord saw that Jacob and Leah despised and hated Leah, so God made Rachel barren as a consequence. Malachi 3:6 teaches that God never changes. In theology we call this " immutable.

" God is immutable! That is, He cannot change. Hence, the same Lord sees men's hearts today as He did thousands of years ago.

Dear reader, be careful what thoughts you choose to harbor in your heart toward others, because God is always watching our thoughts and attitude.

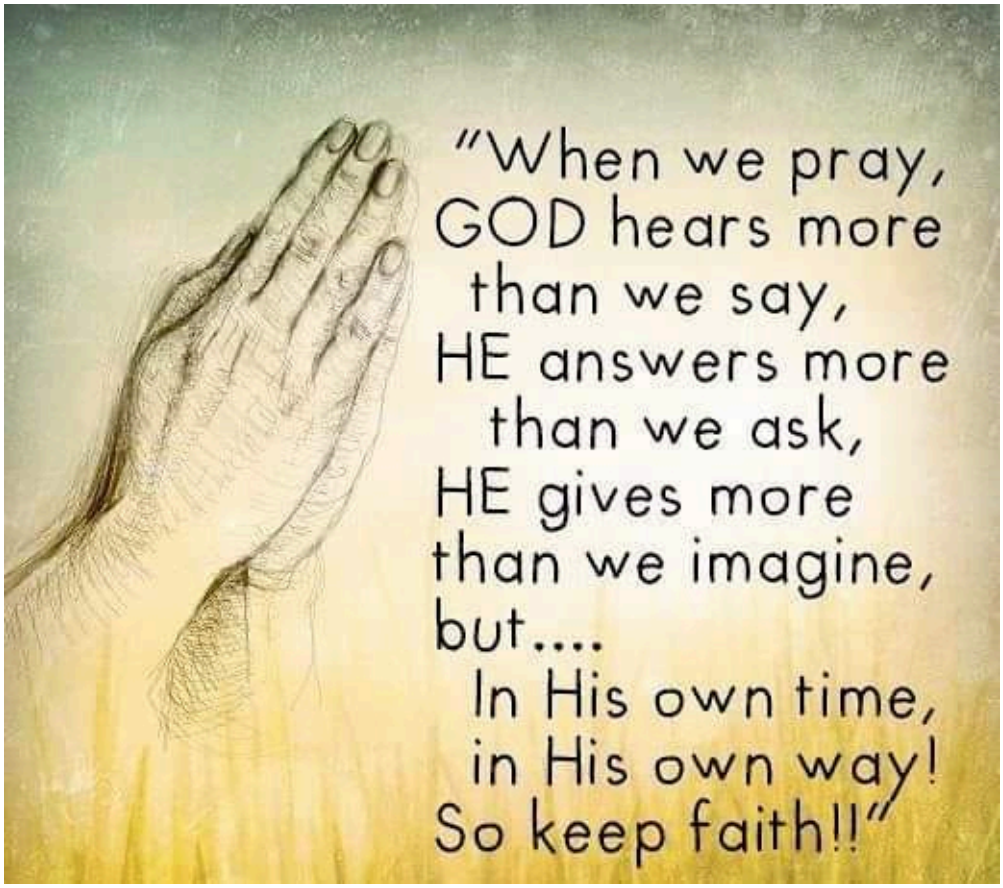
In another Scriptural example: God made a bet with Satan regarding Job. The Lord bragged on Job, but the Devil said that Job only obeyed God because all things were good in his life. So God allowed Satan to ruin Job's happiness and life. Satan murdered all of Job's ten children. The Devil murdered Job's servants, stole his flocks, burned his fields, and then with God's permission Satan destroyed Job's good health, afflicting him with boils from head to toe.

Then to add insult to injury, Job's three rotten hypocritical religious friends all condemned him, blaming him and his children for the evils that had befallen the family. What jerks! Look what poor Job said about his judgmental "friends" in Job:16:1, "Then Job answered and said, I have heard many such things: miserable comforters are ye all." It is human nature to ASS-U-ME that bad things always happen because of sin. In John 9:1-5 the disciples asked Jesus who did sin, the blind man or his parents, but Jesus said that neither had sinned. That dear man was born blind on purpose (Exodus 4:11), so that God could be glorified.

Dear reader, carefully notice from the Word of God when the Lord turned the evil captivity of Job. Job 42:10, "And the LORD turned the captivity of Job, when he prayed for his friends: also the LORD gave Job twice as much as he had before." God cares about our attitude toward other people! Biblically, our prayers can be hindered by hatred, envy, ostracizing, ignoring, slandering, holding a grudge or mistreatment of others.

Senior pastor Jeff Redlin mistreated me in 2021 when I attended Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College (PCC). I attended there for a few months. I tried to reason with Jeff Redlin, but he is a difficult man because of his pride as a wealthy man (he gets paid a lucrative 6-digit salary at Campus Church). I felt that he was insensitive toward my broken life, divorce, living our of a suitcase in a cheap local hotel, my health problems, et cetera. I felt that Redlin was insincere and didn't care about me as an individual human being (and he clearly didn't). So in frustration I left Campus Church in late 2021.

But I was lonely in 2022, having no family or friends in Pensacola, so I humbly pleaded in 2022 during the summer three times for Pensacola Christian College (PCC) leaders, and the pastors of Campus Church at PCC, to please forgive me and simply allow me to attend Campus Church, but they cruelly refused. I kindly tried to reconcile three times with PCC, but they refused. God sees their hatred, prejudice, grudge holding, hypocrisy and unwillingness to reconcile with their Christian brother (Romans 14:10-12). SHAME on PCC!



God will not bless the PCC camp until they repent of their ungodly bad attitude and unchristian behavior and try to make peace with me (which I am still eagerly willing to do). I would appreciate of some of my blog visitors kindly email Pastor Jeff Redlin at jRedlin@campuschurch DOT com to let him know that he needs to forgive his Christian brother, and allow me to come back to Campus Church. I haven't been to church on Sunday night all year, because the only church that I know of that has Sunday evening services is at Campus Church. PCC are not right with God. But please don't feel pressured to email Pastor Redlin. I only want you to do it if you feel comfortable doing so. There is strength in numbers.

PCC is too big for their own good, untouchable and insensitive just because they can be. When you are the biggest religious organization in town, you don't have to care about people because you already have worldly success. But PCC is not a success in God's sight, they are as the LUKEWARM Laodicean church that made God vomit (Revelation 3:15-17). And if you do choose to email him, THANK YOU in advance. I am not trying to cause trouble, God knows my heart, I just want to attend Campus Church.

I have shared a few examples from the Bible, where bad attitudes by saints brought God's judgment upon them. God cares about how we treat other people! Proverbs 24:17, " Rejoice not when thine enemy falleth, and let not thine heart be glad when he stumbleth: Lest the LORD see it, and it displease him, and he turn away his wrath from him. " The Bible warns that if we rejoice when our enemy falls, God's anger may be turned against us instead of them. God unconditionally loves people!!! That doesn't mean that the Lord approves of sin, nor that He looks the other way for some people but not others. The Bible teaches repeatedly that God is NOT a respecter of persons (Acts 10:34; Romans 2:11; 10:12).

I am always reminded of these and other Scripture passages, so that I may guard my heart against sinful thinking toward others. We should pray for those who despitefully use us the Bible says. Pray changes things. One way or another, you are NEVER wasting your time when you pray. I don't know about you dear reader, but I decided a long time ago to JUST LOVE EVERYBODY. People just want to be loved. I encourage you to do as Jesus does, to look beyond other's faults and see their needs (Philippians 2:3-5). We are all needy sinners in the hands of a good, loving, caring and fair God. Just decide that no matter how rotten people may be, you are going to let God love them unconditionally through you. If you do not love everybody, you cannot love anybody. That is why Jesus, even after Judas horribly betrayed Him, addressed him as: "Friend." God is love and those who walk with Him love everyone.

3.10.24 Learn To Enjoy Wherever You Are At (2022-10-30 21:19)

1st Timothy 6:6-10, "But godliness with contentment is great gain. For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out. And having food and raiment let us be therewith content. But they that will be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition. For the love of money is the root of all evil: which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows."

Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) taught me that there are TWO WAYS to become rich:

1. Have everything you want.
2. Want everything you have.

Very few people can have everything they want, but anyone can want everything they have. One of my favorite MP3 sermons by Dr. Hyles is titled: " [1]Learn To Enjoy Where You Are, While You're On Your Way To Where You Are Going. " I love that sermon!

If I had the money, I would love to live in Honolulu, Hawaii. I play Hawaiian lap steel guitar, ukulele and Slack Key Guitar (which is just a standard guitar tuned to special open tunings). I'd love to live and play my music in Hawaii. But I cannot afford $2,500 per month for rent! Hawaii is one of the most expensive places in the United States to live. I lived on the island of Guam for 17 years, but housing is very expensive there as well. When I left Guam in 2021 the average monthly rent was $1,700 per month. Anything cheaper and you're living in a sardine can, if you can even find a less expensive place to live. That is a main reason I left Guam. Also, my utilities each month on Guam cost $700 per month. Since electricity is produced by Diesel generators, the average monthly electric bill on Guam is about $500.

Anyway, if I wanted I could sit around and feel bad that I cannot live where I want. Since I also play Pedal Steel Guitar, mandolin, banjo, autoharp and Dobro, I would also love to live in Nashville, Tennessee, the music capital of the world. But the median home price in 2022 is at $498,000 and rent is super expensive. I just heard this week that the average rent in New York City is now at $3,500 per month. And the rent in Austin, Texas has skyrocketed 108 % in just one year!!! The average monthly rent in Los Angeles is now $2,700. Most people simply cannot afford such an insane amount for rent!

I refuse to spend my life hoping, wishing and regretting things. I chose to move to Pensacola, where the cost of living is 14 % below the national average. Pensacola is okay. I don't really like it here so far. But I am enjoying it while I am here, whether for a couple years or the rest of my life. Everything in life is a mindset. Life is so often what we choose to make it! These are the "perilous times" spoken of in 2nd Timothy 3:1-7. Now is not the time to sell out, quit or start complaining; but rather, to walk closely with our dear God and Savior (James 4:8), and to share the Gospel with others (Proverbs 11:30), and to guard our thinking (Proverbs 4:23).

Dear reader, BE OF GOOD CHEER!!! That is what Jesus said in John 16:33. In May of 2020, a [2]General Social Survey found that only 14 % of Americans say they are very happy. The poll found that Americans are the unhappiest today than they've been in 50 years! As former [3]President Donald Trump points out in this campaign video, America has become the laughing stock of the world. We have lost our freedom of speech, which Americans once enjoyed a century ago. [4]Only one viewpoint is allowed today!

I have learned to just make the best of a bad situation. The way you do it is to only focus on today, and not worry about the future. Go get you (or make one like I do) a delicious double-cheeseburger. I enjoy little things very much. I am not difficult to make happy. I love to make my own tasty tacos! Please don't live in the failures of the past dear reader. Let it go. LET GO, LET GOD!!! We cannot change the past, nor can we control the uncertain future, but we CAN be thankful toward God and live for Christ today!

I am very blessed of God and so are you dear friend. Your life may not be all that you wish it could be friend, but thank God for what you have. You and I are already rich because we live in America. I admit that I am frustrated much of the time. However, I REJOICE IN THE LORD!!! I rejoice continually that my name is written in Heaven (Luke 10:20). As believers we have UNSPEAKABLE JOY...

1st Peter 1:7-9, "That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ:

Whom having not seen, ye love; in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory:

Receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls."

I cannot express in words the inexplicable joy in Christ that I feel continually, knowing that my name is written in Heaven. THANK YOU JESUS!!!

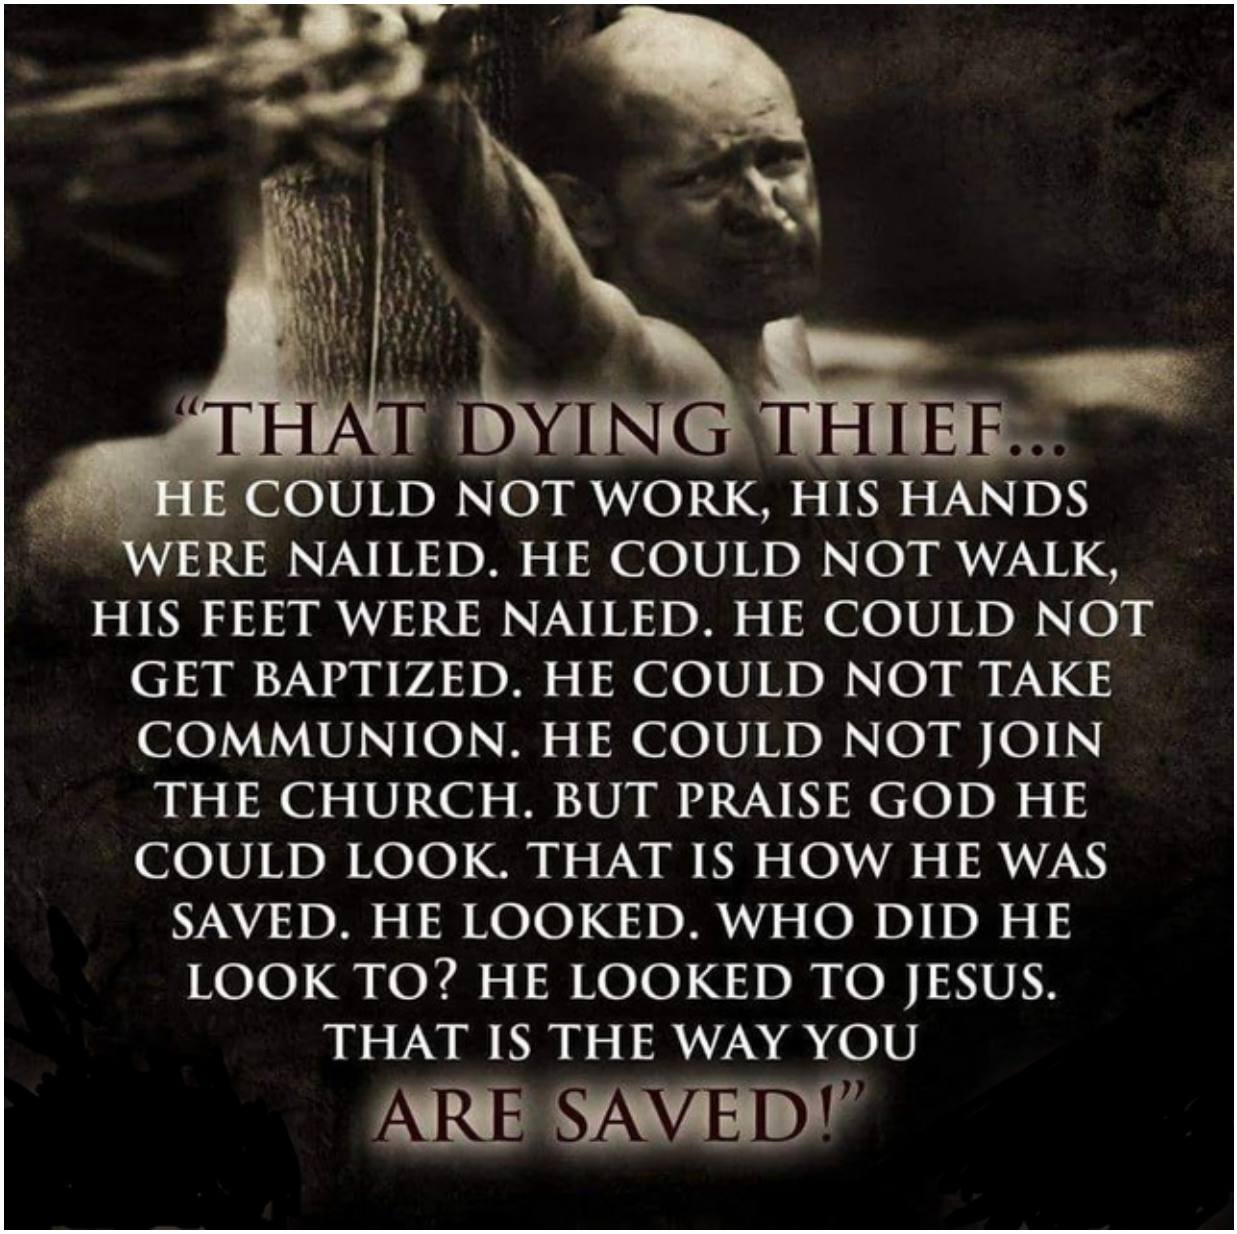
3.11 November

3.11.1 Being Baptized Into Jesus Christ (2022-11-01 17:13)

Romans 6:1-2, “

What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound? God forbid. How shall we, that are dead to sin, live any longer therein? Know ye not, that so many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into his death?”

The preceding Bible passage is NOT speaking about water baptism. The Greek word “baptizo” was transliterated from the Greek language directly into English. That is because the wise 54 King James Bible translators decided not to translate the word at all, since they couldn’t find an equivalent English word to adequately express the conveyed meaning, which is to submerse into something. When a person puts their trust in Jesus Christ, they are being immersed in Christ by faith.



I also believe that is the meaning intended in Acts 2:38, “Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost.” This is one of the most misunderstood and hotly debated Scriptures in the Word of God. Remember, a good rule to follow when interpreting the Bible is to never use an obscure passage to contradict a clear one. Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) taught me that truth. God authored the entire Gospel of John to show humanity how to get to Heaven (John 20:31), which is by grace through faith in the ’GOOD NEWS’ (Gospel) of Jesus Christ crucified for our sins, buried and bodily resurrected three days later.

Since the Gospel of John is very clear, we must then be careful not to misinterpret an obscure passage of Scripture like Acts 2:38, which can be taken different ways (but can only have one true intended meaning by God). Since we know from umpteen other Scripture passages that water baptism cannot remit sins, we can rightly divide God’s Word to conclude that Acts 2:38 must be teaching that salvation comes by being immersed into Jesus Christ by faith alone.

Scriptural evidence of what I am teaching is found in Galatians 3:26-27, “For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ.” We are “baptized into Christ” through faith alone! This can be the only logical meaning without violating the clear Gospel of John, which teaches plainly in John 6:47, “Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.” If water baptism were required by God to Get to Heaven (which religious cults like Seventh-Day Adventism, Mormonism, Roman Catholicism, Church of Christ and Lutherans errantly teach), then John 6:47 would be false teaching and make no sense at all. If faith alone is insufficient to save a lost sinner, then God sure did a horrible job of authoring the Holy Bible!

The dying repentant thief on the cross was totally incapacitated. His hands and feet were nailed to a cross, just like Jesus next to him. The dying thief had nothing to offer God. This man’s life was full of sin and shame, now being executed for his crimes. The dying thief could not get water baptized. He could not partake of communion. He couldn’t obey church sacraments. There was nothing that he could do except LOOK TO JESUS!!! Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do. Amen.

3.11.2 Hypocritical Baptist Churches Sing, "Jesus Is All I Need" (2022-11-02 13:45)

Revelation 19:13, "And he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood: and his name is called The Word of God."

All across America there are churches who hypocritically sing songs like, "Jesus Is All I Need"; yet they hypocritically need more than the King James Bible. Satan has crept into most of the churches today with the multitude of modern counterfeit Bible revisions. All modern Bible versions are translated from the corrupt Alexandrian Text (or Minor Text). Only the faithful King James Bible is translated from the Textus Receptus (or Majority Text). Here's my notes from a [1]King James Bible Seminar that I attended years ago in 1992 by one of my favorite preachers, Dr. Al Lacy!

The poetic Elizabethan English in which the King James Bible is written is superb compared to today's inferior English language. God knew what He was doing when He produced the 1611 King James Bible for the modern world. The King James Bible was translated long before the hands of heretical Luciferians corrupted the Word of God in the 19th century. All of the modern perversions of the Holy Scriptures are based upon the completed 1881 work by Brooke Foss Westcott (1825-1901) and Fenton John Anthony Hort (1828-1892) titled, "The New Testament In The Original Greek." A more accurate title would be "The False Gospel of Westcott and Hort," as presented through their invented and altered false Greek testament. Westcott and Hort were officially Anglican, although in practice were [2]Luciferian occultists who deliberately corrupted the New Testament to advance the Devil's New World Order.

From reading the [3]occult writings of Alice A. Bailey (1880-1949), we discover the [4]Luciferian agenda behind the [5]infiltration and corruption the churches. The modern Bible revisions are Satan's grandest accomplishment. The churches have fallen hook, line and sinker for the Devil's counterfeit Bibles. Just as the serpent (Satan according to Revelation 20:2) deceived Eve, by changing the Words of God into a lie, so also has the Devil deceived many churches. In Genesis 3:1 Satan makes a statement in the form of a question. Genesis 3:1, "Now the serpent was more subtil than any beast of the field which the LORD God had made. And he said unto the woman, Yea, hath God said, Ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden?" God had never said not to eat of "every tree" in the garden. Satan lied to Eve! God said not to eat of only one tree—the tree of knowledge. Genesis 2:16-17a, "And the LORD God commanded the man, saying, Of every tree of the garden thou mayest freely eat: But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it." Do you see how Satan subtly changed the Word of God? Do you see how the Devil tricked Eve?

Romans 1:22 and 25, "Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools ... Who changed the truth of God into a lie, and worshipped and served the creature more than the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen." The Alexandrian texts [6]attack the deity of Jesus Christ, [7]diminish His preeminence, remove [8]Lucifer, remove the [9]Godhead, corrupt the [10]plan of salvation, pervert [11]John 3:16 and [12]pervert the meaning of repentance, et cetera. The average pastor is afraid to be put outside the gate with Jesus, afraid of being labeled as a "cult" with that King James Bible only crowd, and afraid of losing the respect and praise of his peers in the clergy. Our churches are in a heap of trouble today!!! How can church members sing "Jesus Is All I Need," while using multiple Bible versions? Do we need a dozen different Saviors? Do we need two Holy Spirits? Why do we need two different Bibles? (Or for that matter 300 English Bibles?) Most people do not want to know the truth! Many are lazy, many more don't care, and others don't understand how Satan leads people into Hell by corrupting the Scriptures.

So I ask you . . . Do churches really just need Jesus? Since Jesus is the Word of God (the Living Word), and the Written Word reveals the Living Word to us, don't you think it's important that we have an accurate Bible? Court recorders record every word spoken during a court session. Why? It is because words are important. One wrong word can cost a lawyer a legal case. Words are important to lawyers. One wrong word on a doctor's prescription can cost you your life. Words are important to doctors. Jesus said in Matthew 4:4 that a man must live by “every word” that comes out of God’s mouth. That means I need an “every word” Bible! I have that Holy Bible in front of me, the King James Bible!!!!!!!

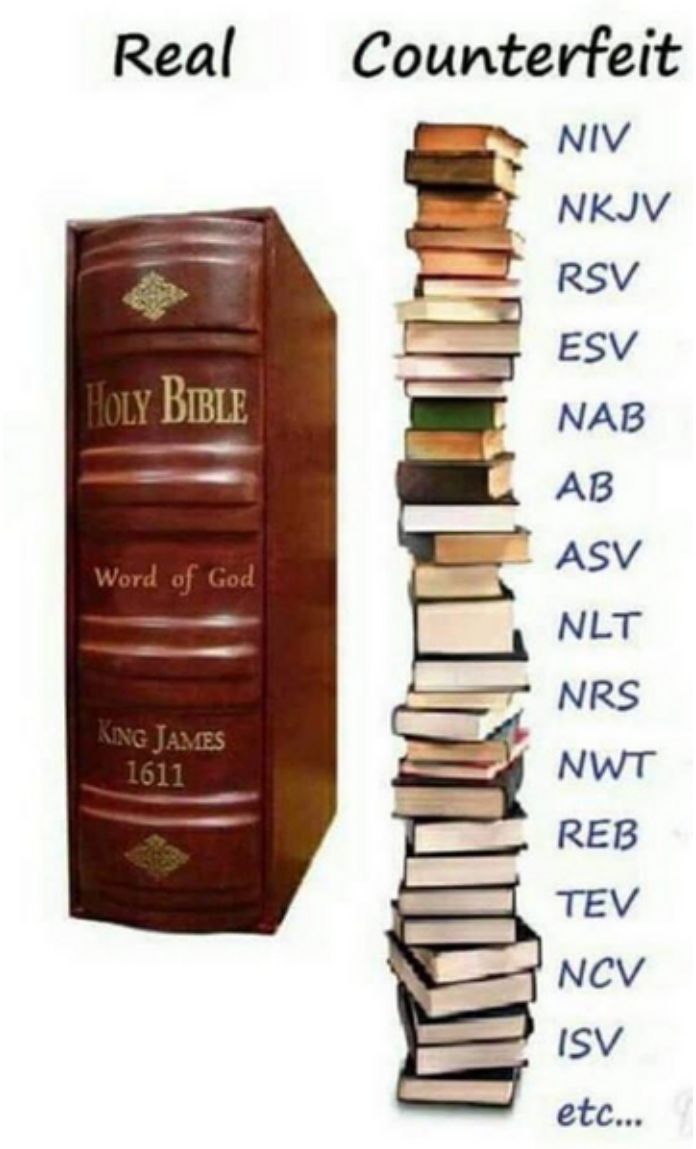
Since all of the new Bible versions vary greatly in size, meaning and content, they cannot all be God’s inspired and preserved words. This is why Biblica.com (the producers of the New International Version, or NIV) openly admit on their website that they DO NOT believe in a verbally word-for-word inspired Bible today; but rather, they believe in thought inspiration (i.e., God gives His thoughts to man, and then man pens them in his own style). This is heresy! God gave His words to man, word-by-word! We have a verbally inspired, word-by-word exact Bible today in the King James Bible. In fact, I believe in “jot and tittle inspiration” (the smallest grammatical marks in the Greek language). Matthew 5:18, “For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled.” Amen! It sounds like God cares about details and accuracy!

Of all the Bible for sale today, only the King James Bible uses italics. These were words added by the 47 King James translators to clarify meaning. The translators wanted to be honest and scholarly, so they let us know what words they added by placing them in italics. You can trust your King James Bible!

By the way, the reason why I preach so much against bad Baptist churches is because that is where Satan is doing the most damage today. This is where the battle is raging! The Roman Catholic church already belongs wholly to Satan. The Jehovah’s Witnesses are really Satan’s witnesses (2nd Corinthians 11:13-15). The Mormon sex-cult is of the Devil. Albeit, the last bastion of Bible-preaching, truth-seeking, soul-winning, sin-fighting, sinner-loving, Christ-honoring, caring, local New Testament churches today are Independent Fundamental Baptists! Every non-denominational church that I know uses and promotes the Devil’s Bible revisions!!!

I gave a brand new $50 leather King James Bible to my (then) pastor’s son-in-law in 2014 and he was offended, refusing to even thank me. It offended him greatly that I had bought him a King James Bible as a gift. This is how far gone our churches are today! The younger generation despises the King James Bible. Many churches are abandoning it all together. In time, you won’t be able to find the King James Bible in churches anymore, and THEY WON’T BE TRUE CHURCHES ANYMORE! Don’t you dare sing around me about “JESUS IS ALL I NEED,” while you need a dozen different Bible revisions to find the truth that suits your tastes best! You wicked devil! The truth is Jesus is not enough for you, otherwise you’d be content with the Word of God, instead of tampering with all these paraphrases that falsely claim to be God’s Holy Word. The NIV’s legal notice mandates that you call it God’s “holy Bible” if you quote it in a work. Those bastards! Those illegitimate bastards!



Kindly, I don’t care how big your church is, or how pleasing you may think you are to the Lord, you are an ENEMY of God if you promote the corruptible revisions of the Bible!!!!!!! [13]THE BATTLE OF THE AGES (an awesome King James Bible only MP3 sermon by Pastor Jack Hyles).

No one has ever been saved by corruptible Word! No one! If you did get saved and there was a corrupt Bible around, you were only saved because somewhere in the process the incorruptible Words of God from the King James Bible were taught to you. Some older believers foolishly consult the newer fake Bible revisions, but they generally fall back on the reliable

King James Bible of their youth. The next generation won't be so fortunate, having been raised only on corruptible words. They will be damned!!! Never use the modern Bible paraphrases to interpret the King James Bible! Not unless you want to be led astray from the truth!!!

What hypocrites to sing "Jesus Is All I Need," while needing twelve different Bibles! We read in the Scriptures that God's words are "very pure." Psalms 119:140, "Thy word is very pure: therefore thy servant loveth it." David didn't have any original autographs? He had copies of the originals, just like we do today in the King James Bible. Yet, David said he loved God's Word only because they were "VERY PURE" words. God preserves His words unto every generation as he promises in Psalms 12:6-7 (that is, if you have a King James Bible). David would have throw them in the garbage if he thought they were corrupted and impure, unreliable, and at some point lost their accuracy. Every Bible publisher today denies having a perfect, inerrant, infallible, preserved and inspired Bible. But I believe we have one in the KING JAMES BIBLE!!!

Is Jesus really all you need? Think about it. If you only need one Jesus, then why do you need two drastically different Bible versions at your church? In fact, if you are using the Alexandrian corruptible text (all modern Bible revisions), and also the Antiochan incorruptible text (King James Bible), you are promoting two different Jesus'. John 1:1, "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God." The Alexandrian Bible revisions preach ANOTHER GOSPEL, they have ANOTHER SPIRIT, and they teach ANOTHER JESUS (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4)! Truly, famous author Mark Twain was correct who said, "It's easier to fool people than to convince them that they have been fooled."

3.11.3 The Ungodly Apostate Forest Hills Baptist Church In Decatur, Georgia (2022-11-03 13:20)

Galatians 1:6-8, "I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed. For do I now persuade men, or God? or do I seek to please men? for if I yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ.: But I certify you, brethren, that the gospel which was preached of me is not after man. For I neither received it of man, neither was I taught it, but by the revelation of Jesus Christ."

I found a wonderful sermon today by Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995). The sermon is titled: "[1]What Must I Do To Be Saved?" (MP3). Dr. Hutson pastored the Forest Hills Baptist Church in Decatur, Georgia at the time in 1975 that he preached this beautiful sermon. Tragically, years later today in 2022, Forest Hills Baptist Church has succumbed to the Devil's falsehood of Lordship Salvation. The church now preaches hardcore Calvinism, as you can read for yourself in their sad Statement of Faith:

> Salvation is God's gracious gift of redemption from sin, its penalties and, ultimately, its effects offered to mankind. It is offered freely to all who, upon hearing the Gospel of Jesus, repent of their sin, place their faith in Jesus and his atoning sacrifice through His death, burial and resurrection, and make Him Lord of their life. In its broadest sense salvation includes regeneration, justification, sanctification, and glorification. There is no salvation apart from personal faith in Jesus Christ as Lord. Those who are truly saved will, by God's grace, persevere to the end. [emphasis added]
>
> SOURCE: [2]Forest Hills Baptist Church - Our Beliefs

HERESY!!! The preceding horrible Statement of Faith makes the following errors:

1. No where does the Bible teach to "repent of your sin." I am so sick of hearing ignorant clergy and layman alike use this unbiblical phrase. You don't have to "repent of your sins" to be saved because Jesus has already paid for our sins with His blood. You just need to trust Christ, believing that He did it for you by dying on the cross to pay your massive debt of debt. If to "repent" means to forsake our sinful ways TO BE SAVED, but Jesus already paid for our sins by dying on the cross, then what are we repenting from?

2. No where does the Bible teach to make Jesus your "Lord" to get to Heaven. You don't have to receive Jesus as "Lord" to get to Heaven, you simply need to receive Him as your Savior. By "Lord," false prophets mean that you must surrender control of your life over to Jesus, turn away from your past sinful lifestyle, follow Christ no matter what the cost, and carry your cross. We plainly know from Matthew 7:21-23 that this is NOT the way to get to Heaven. They called Jesus "Lord, Lord," but He denied knowing them! Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christin life without ever being born again.

3. No where does the Bible require "persevering to the end" to be saved. Many people misinterpret Matthew 24:13, "But he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved." The Bible answer is found in Matthew 24:22, "And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened." Jesus was speaking about "flesh," not eternal salvation. On the Day of Pentecost, Acts 2:41 says that 3,000 souls were saved that day. There was no requirement to prove themselves by passing a probationary period, live a changed life nor persevere for the rest of their lives to get to Heaven. Beware of false doctrine!!!

SHAME on the Forest Hills Baptist Church in Decatur, Georgia. It blows my mind that a Baptist church that once had such a brilliant free grace pastor as Dr. Curtis Hutson, could 45 years later have become an apostate Calvinist hellhole of false doctrine.

Curtis Hutson is upset and frustrated up in Heaven. How could the church that he once pastored be misled by ravening wolves in sheep's clothing? ...

> Galatians 3:1-3, "O foolish Galatians, who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you? This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith? Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh?"

Dear friend, the only way that anyone has ever been saved is by grace alone, through alone alone, in the Good News of Christ alone. 1st Corinthians 15:1-4 teaches that the Good News (Gospel) is comprised of three things:

1. Jesus DIED on the cross for our sins.
2. Jesus was BURIED.
3. Jesus bodily RESURRECTED three days later.

Anyone who admits that they are a guilty sinner in the sight of a holy God, and BELIEVES the 3 facts of the Gospel is immediately, irrevocably and forever born-again. That's it!

The ungodly Forest Hills Baptist Church are Gospel perverts! They are preaching another gospel which cannot produce the new birth by the Holy Spirit of God. According to John 20:31, the Gospel of John is God's Gospel tract, "But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name." In the Gospel of John the word "believe" is mentioned 88 times. Yet the word "repent" is not mentioned even once. So why do the folks at the Forest Hills Baptist Church lie to people, requiring them to repent of their sins to get to Heaven?

The word for "repent" in English is the Greek noun metanoia, which simply means: "

a change of mind.

That is all the word means, supplemental information is needed. What are we supposed to change our mind about to be saved? We know that repentance is necessary to be saved because we are taught so in verses like Mark 1:15,

“And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel.” The word “repent” here is the Greek verb metanoeo, which means: to think differently. So literally this passage reads: “Think differently and believe the Good News!”

Since we are taught throughout the Gospel of John to simply BELIEVE to be saved, the only thing that we logically need to change our mind about is from UNBELIEF TO BELIEF. If unbelief is the only sin that can keep a person out of Heaven, then unbelief is the ONLY sin that we need to repent of to be saved. I am sick and tired of hearing garbage from Pacific Garden Mission in Chicago, on their ’[3]UNSHACKLED’ radio program, which requires people to forsake a sinful lifestyle to get to heaven. THAT IS WORKS, NOT GRACE!!!

Oh, dear reader, I am so glad that you are reading my blog. I say that very humbly, for I am just a miserable sinner like everyone else. The reason I am glad is because I have attended numerous churches around the city of Pensacola over the past year, since I moved here in July of 2021. I have been saddened time and time again by the utter level of woeful ignorance of church members in these churches. And that shamefully and sadly includes Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College (PCC).

PCC is so carnally-minded. They are so used to merely playing church and going through the external motions, that they couldn’t care less about offending anyone by contending for the Christian faith. I have met umpteen ignorant church members and college students from PCC, who don’t have a clue what the damnable doctrine of Lordship Salvation is. That is the fault of Pastor Jeff Redlin, Timothy Zacharias and other PCC leaders who only care about keeping the money coming in. Over the past 50 years, since PCC opened its doors in 1974, the owners of the college have figured out how to maximize their income—which is sadly to dip their sails in sinful compromise, become indifferent, don’t stand against anything, never expose false prophets by name, never preach against sin by name—just go along to get along with every religious group who is also carnally-minded. That is why PCC won’t expose the Devil’s Calvinist crowd at Bob Jones University. Instead, they wickedly bid them Godspeed (2nd John 1:11). Tragically, no one cares because they are ALL MAKING MONEY. Truly, the love of money is the root of all evil (1st Timothy 6:10-11).

Remember, there is SALVATION (Acts 10:42), and then there is SERVICE (Romans 12:1-2). We must always keep SERVICE (i.e., sanctification, discipleship) separate from SALVATION (i.e., justification, sonship). To become an adopted son of God (John 1:12) relies solely upon God’s promise in 1st Corinthians 12:1b, “to save them that believe”; whereas to become a disciple of Jesus relies solely upon our faithfulness to “present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service” (Romans 1:12b). The damnable heresy of Lordship Salvation happens if someone combines, mixes or confuses SERVICE with SALVATION. You CAN go to Heaven by simply being saved, no service is required (because that would be works). Our voluntary service is strictly a matter of obedience and rewards as a child of God, which has nothing to do with our eternal destiny.

3.11.4 Take Heed What Ye Hear (2022-11-04 13:06)

Mark 4:18-24, “And these are they which are sown among thorns; such as hear the word, And the cares of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in, choke the word, and it becometh unfruitful. And these are they which are sown on good ground; such as hear the word, and receive it, and bring forth fruit, some thirtyfold, some sixty, and some an hundred. And he said unto them, Is a candle brought to be put under a bushel, or under a bed? and not to be set on a candlestick? For there is nothing hid, which shall not be manifested; neither was any thing kept secret, but that it should come abroad. If any man have ears to hear, let him hear. And he said unto them, Take heed what ye hear: with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you: and unto you that hear shall more be given."

Proverbs 4:23, "Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life."

I often pray for God to give me wisdom, but I know sooner speak those words, but that I feel compelled to listen to the book of Proverbs. How can we sincerely ask God for wisdom without diligently reading, listening and meditating upon the Proverbs? God authored Proverbs to give us wisdom:

> Proverbs1:1-4, "The proverbs of Solomon the son of David, king of Israel; To know wisdom and instruction; to perceive the words of understanding;
> To receive the instruction of wisdom, justice, and judgment, and equity; To give subtilty to the simple, to the young man knowledge and discretion."

I was thinking today about the sad state of today's churches. I mean, it is almost a rarity nowadays to find a pastor and church that contends for the Christian faith. I have had the unpleasant experience of running into a handful of apostate religious organizations; namely, the Bob Jones University (BJU) and Pensacola Christian College (PCC) camps. Their pastors and churches just don't care about right doctrine. Since I have taken the higher ground to contend for the faith, and to expose false prophets, these apostate groups have rejected me as a troublemaker. It is wickedness!!!

Tragically, there is a sinful indifferent, complacent, lukewarm, nothing really matters type of dull attitude that is prevalent in the PCC and BJU camp today, including their corrupted graduates and the churches they infect. Case in point, when I attended the Lighthouse Baptist Church on Guam in 2018, I was zealous to share my knowledge about the dangers of the Devil's modern corrupt Bible revisions. But their shameful pastor, Sean Quinlan, got mad at me for it. Pastor Quinlan literally scolded me, calling me "obsessed over the Bible issue." SHAME on Pastor Quinlan! Of course I am obsessed about the Devil's deadly fake Bibles revisions, and if you're not get right with God!!!

When I attended the ungodly Harvest Baptist Church on Guam in 2013 to 2014 (which is a cesspool of BJU alumni), I was mistreated by their incompetent pastors. They were preaching the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation (i.e., Calvinism). They were promoting Martin Luther (1483-1546) as a born-again believer, but I knew that Mr. Luther taught the Devil's lie of Baptismal Regeneration (i.e., the heresy that you cannot go to Heaven unless you get water baptized) his entire life. And Harvest's pastors were sanctioning, using, selling and promoting the Devil's damnable corruptible seed (i.e., the Devil's modern corrupt Bibles). So as a true friend I bought hundred of dollars of hard copies of books authored by fundamentalist preachers to give those pastors. As Evangelist Tom Ferrell rightly said: "A friend helps a friend to see." But Harvest's rotten pastors are arrogant, proud, corrupt and rejected THE TRUTH that I handed them personally. They killed the messenger from the Lord.

Harvest's ungodly pastors called me into the office to reprimand me as a troublemaker. I was accused of potentially causing a church split. I was unjustly accused of causing "division" and "confusion" in the church by sharing THE TRUTH with my staff members and personal friends that I had made at Harvest. I was flabbergasted how those wicked pastors could actually accuse me of causing confusion, when they were allowing and encouraging church members to use DOZENS of different Bible versions.

When I visited Amy and Dave Morgan's home (members of Harvest) for a Watchcare Meeting in 2015, I counted ONE DOZEN different Bible versions on their bookshelf in the living room. Dave was a longtime deacon at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. I don't blame Dave and Amy, I blame their ungodly neo-evangelical pastors for not feeding, teaching and warning their people. Harvest's pastors were unqualified to lead a church. They purchased a Resolving Conflict series online for $19.99, and showed those films for 6 weeks at the Wednesday night Bible study. I couldn't believe it! The church all sat their and prayed along with a movie. I didn't, I was [1]sickened by the giant Illuminati Pyramid parked right in front of me in the film! I knew then that Freemasons had made the presentation. Oh how gullible the churches are today!

I was compelled to leave Harvest after their wicked pastors scolded me for telling them THE TRUTH, trying to help them see, as a true friend does. But they don't want THE TRUTH, they just want their next paycheck, and the next, and the next. All they want is to follow the evangelical crowd, make as few waves as possible, play it safe, and God forbid that they should be put outside the gate as being nutcases for exposing the Devil's Bibles. You see, the Devil doesn't want anyone to using just the King James Bible. But if he can't get you to use His corrupt Bibles, the next best thing is to get you to avoid criticizing the Devil's Bibles. That is what PCC is guilty of, not exposing false Bibles, false prophets and false doctrines.

PCC just wants to make money in the secular education business, under the masquerade of being a religious institution. PCC is really a secularized religious cult that doesn't give damn about individual people. I learned that painful fact firsthand, because as of August 2, 2022 I have been officially banned in writing by the pastors of Campus Church from attending there anymore. Only cults cast away people! A genuine New Testament church would never do that, because people need love, compassion and help. In my case, I humbly apologized three times to PCC and their horrible pastors, but they all refused to lower themselves one iota to make peace with me. God sees their haughty pride, and stiff-necked arrogance. PCC's wicked leadership is headed for a hard fall someday. Slowly but surely they are making enemies. What goes around comes around. What wicked people reap they will sow. SHAME on PCC!

Jesus said in Mark 4:24b to "T ake heed what ye hear

" ! What great advice! Have you heard the Devil's fraud of Lordship Salvation, as has John MacArthur, Marty Herron, Steve Pettit, Gary Walton and other Bob Jones University (BJU) infidels?

When I read Jesus' stern word of warning to ake heed what ye hear,

" I immediately thought about all the deceived people today in the churches. Case in point is [2]the apostate Forest Hills Baptist Church in Decatur, Georgia. Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995)once pastored this church back in the 1970's. He took the place of Dr. John R. Rice (1895-1980) in 1980 as his successor at the Sword of the Lord in Murfreesboro, Tennessee. How tragic that a once great soulwinning church, with a tremendous free grace pastor like Curtis Hutson, could succumb to the accursed Devil's Lordship Salvation cult.

How does that happen to a church? I'll tell you how! Whatever a pastor stops preaching about will flood into a church within 5 years. That is one way that a church dies. Or else the congregation foolishly didn't screen a potential candidate closely enough, to ask exactly what he believes about doctrine and the Bible before they hired him. Hiring a neo-evangelical man as your pastor is guaranteed to ruin your local church. NEVER ever hire a neo-evangelical.

You can tell a neo-evangelical man by these signs:

1. He foolishly is not King James Bible only.
2. He wickedly refuses to criticize the corrupt modern Devil's Bibles.
3. He falsely teaches that something more is required than simple childlike faith to be saved (e.g., following Christ as "Lord" of your life, or persevering to the end)
4. He falsely teaches that repentance means to change, to turn away from your sins. Bible repentance is a change of mind from unbelief to belief, nothing more.
5. He introduces worldly modern Contemporary Christian Music (CCM) into the church.
6. He shamefully doesn't teach that women shouldn't wear pants.
7. He cares more about the organization than he does about individual people.
8. He is charming, friendly and likable; but it is a shallow front for his lack of walk with God.
9. He wickedly refuses to expose false prophets and false religion by name.
10. He very likely supports and promotes infidel Ken Ham, who preaches another gospel.
11. He doesn't contend for the faith.
12. He doesn't believe that a person can KNOW they are saved immediately. He instead teaches that we must monitor a person's life, to see if their behavior changes. That is the heresy of Calvinism, the persevering of the saints. On the Day of Pentecost, Acts 2:41 says that 3,000 souls were saved, no probationary waiting period was necessary.
13. He doesn't go, teach or promote public door-to-door soulwinning (Acts 20:20).
14. The presence of the convicting Holy Spirit is absent from their church services.

15. He preaches modern psychology and building relationships instead of Bible theology.

Those are 15 basic ways to spot a neo-evangelicals, but there are several others.

Jesus said in Mark 4:24b, "Take heed what ye hear: with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you: and unto you that hear shall more be given." Many people only hear what they want to hear. It is called Selective Listening, or in psychology, Biased Confirmation. If we allow our mind to adapt to a preconceived idea, no matter how deadly, wrong or false it may be, we won't listen to THE TRUTH, because we are biased toward our preconceived idea. This was why [3]Taiwan airplane flight 006 on October of 2000 crashed on the wrong runway. The younger co-pilot and the flight engineer both warned the older pilot that he was turning onto the wrong runway, but he didn't listen because he was so sure that he was right. The Glideslope (which purpose is to show pilots where the plane is at) even showed that they were in the wrong place), but the pilot was so confident that he was right, that he murdered half the people onboard. Sadly, 83 of the 179 people onboard died! This is a perfect illustration of Lordship Salvation—it sounds so good, and seems to right, and it will preach; but it is deadly wrong!!!

What did Jesus mean in Mark 4:24b, "Take heed what ye hear: with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you: and unto you that hear shall more be given." Within the context of this passage, Jesus is teaching the Parable Of The Sower And The Seed. In this parable, Jesus warns about the different unfortunate things that can happen to the seed (which is the Word of God), if it is not received properly by humans:

> Mark 4:18-20, "And these are they which are sown among thorns; such as hear the word, And the cares of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in, choke the word, and it becometh unfruitful. And these are they which are sown on good ground; such as hear the word, and receive it, and bring forth fruit, some thirtyfold, some sixty, and some an hundred."

Literally, Jesus is warning everyone about HOW WE RESPOMND TO GOD'S WORD!!! Why is it that the third group of people heard the SAME exact Word of God as the fourth group, but the Word became choked in their lives, so that it became UNFRUITFUL to them? The Bible gives us the simple answer. It is because they prioritized the cares, wealth and pleasures of this temporary life as being of greater value than the promises of the Holy Bible. They didn't share the Gospel with others, because they were too busy with their own personal lives. God never brought forth any fruit (souls saved) through their soulwinning labors (1st Corinthians 3:7), because their was no labor to win souls. They had failed to properly hear the Word of God.

We see another sad example in Luke 16:19-32 concerning the Rich Man and Lazarus (this is no parable, but a true story). Jesus never said it is a parable. In parables Jesus never used proper nouns like Abraham and Lazarus (real people). So we must take this passage as true! In Hell, being in fires and torments, the rich man cried out for Abraham to send Lazarus from the dead to warn his five living brothers, lest they also spend eternity suffering in Hell. Please read carefully what Abraham said to the rich man in Hell:

> Luke 16:28-32, "For I have five brethren; that he may testify unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment. Abraham saith unto him, They have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them. And he said, Nay, father Abraham: but if one went unto them from the dead, they will repent. And he said unto him, If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead."

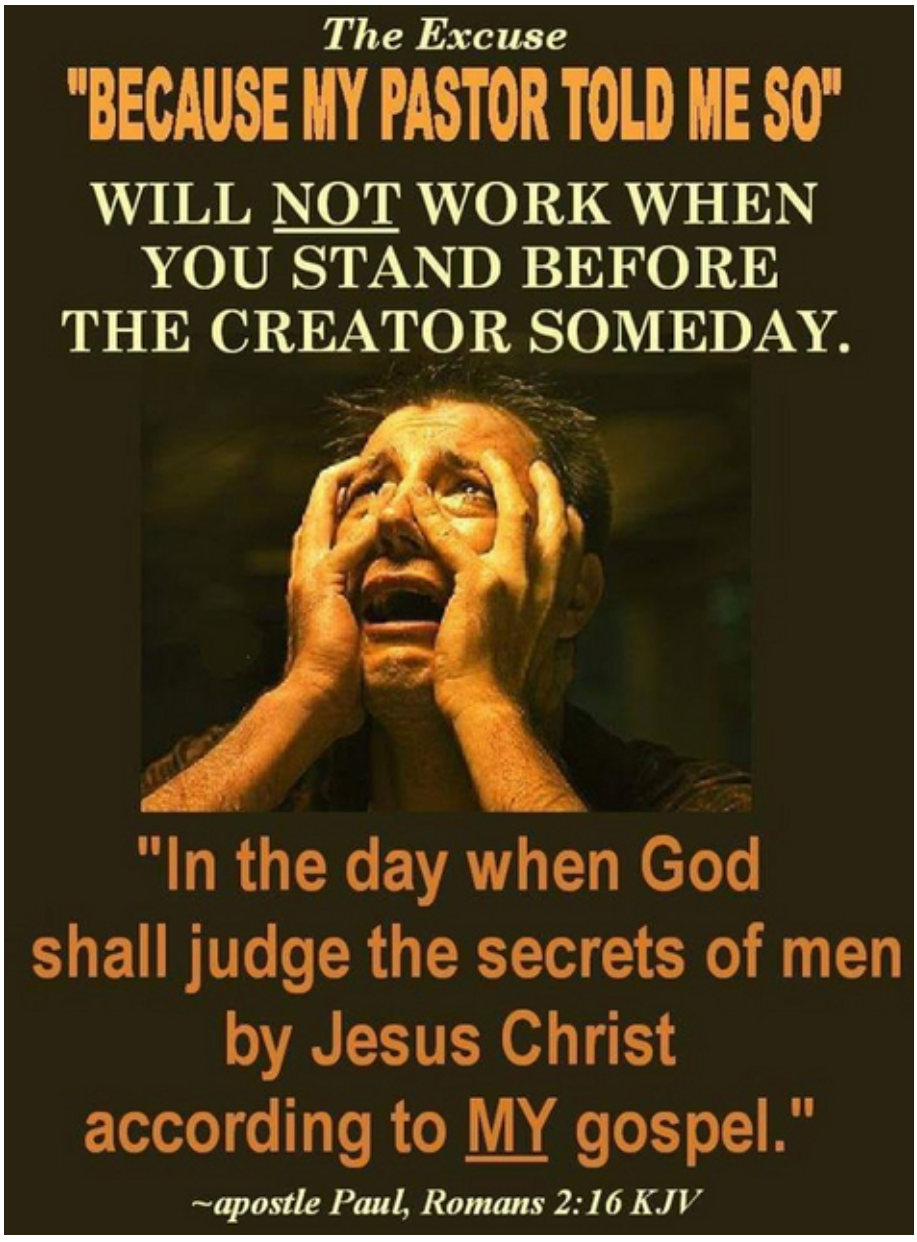
Moses penned the first five books of the Old Testament (The Pentateuch). The “prophets” refer to the major prophets Isaiah, Ezekiel, Jeremiah, Daniel and others; and then the twelve minor prophets (Amos, Zachariah, Nahum, Jonah, Micah, et cetera). Abraham was telling the rich man (who is now poorer than the poorest soul alive on earth), that if his five living brothers won’t TAKE HEAD TO WHAT YE HEAR the Word of God, then they are doomed!!! Jesus is saying folks that RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!! Jesus is saying that how we choose to response to the light of THE TRUTH of God’s Word is very important, so critically important that your eternal destiny depends upon it (and the eternal destiny of your loved ones).

Sadly, legendary rock music guitarist Eddie Van Halen died in 2020. He was born in 1955. Eddie rejected the truth of a free grace Gospel, choosing rather to follow the accursed phony Roman Catholic cult and their Sacramental Salvation (which has never saved anybody). There is no salvation in the Roman Catholic prisonhouse of religion! I guarantee you that Eddie (who died a very financially rich man, but is now poorer than poor in Hell) is begging someone in Heaven to perform some miracle to get the attention of Valerie and Wolfgang about the fires of Hell, but they have to make their own choices.

Just like the former rich man in Luke 16, if they will not TAKE HEED WHAT YE HEAR the Word of God, then they will suffer the same fate. Granted, I cannot say conclusively 100 % that Eddie went to Hell, because I don’t know what Eddie believed in his heart of hearts; but I DO KNOW that anybody who follows the Roman Catholic way to Heaven WON"T go there, they WILL burn in Hell forever according to Jesus warning in John 3:3, “Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.” You cannot get to Heaven by being religious or partaking of some stupid church sacraments, YE MUST BE BORN AGAIN!!!

Dear reader, TAKE HEED WHAT YE HEAR!!! False prophets are everywhere today.

I once heard a pastor teach our church congregation, that if you can live in sin without any conviction from the Holy Spirit, you are not saved and cannot go to Heaven. He is absolutely right (Hebrews 12:6-8). However, after the meeting, one lady was terrified by what he had said. She was worried because of her sins. I tried to calm her by explaining that the pastor simply meant that if you don’t have the indwelling Holy Spirit, you are not saved. That is all the pastor was trying to say, but the way that he said it didn’t come across clearly enough, so it scared her. Oh how I wish preachers would be more careful what they say from the pulpit, so that people can TAKE HEED WHAT YE HEAR. How can people hear right, if preachers do a poor job of teaching the Word of Truth aright?



We are ALL sinners I told her. That made her feel a bit better. Now, it could be that she is not saved. Only she can answer that question.

Preachers need to explain to people that having sin in your life doesn’t mean you’re not saved, it just means that you still have the old flesh to contend with (Romans 7:14-25). But if you can live like the Devil without being convicted about it from the indwelling Holy Spirit, then you need to get saved. God is not an absent parent. No child of God can continue in willful sin without feel like a horrible person for it, because the Holy Spirit will rip your heart out. Remember, the Devil convicts us over past sins which have already been confessed and forsaken, trying to discourage us; but the Holy Spirit only convicts us about present sins in our life, to conform us into Christ's image. Don't let the Devil drag you down into the gutter by constantly beating you up over past sins, mistakes and major bad decisions in your life. We have ALL made stupid decisions that have come back to haunt us. We have ALL sinned with our fathers the Bible says. Psalms 106:6, " We have sinned with our fathers, we have committed iniquity, we have done wickedly."

The SAME Holy Bible is available to you dear friend as it is to me. But how we individually hear the Word of God; that is, how we personally choose to interpret and respond to it, makes all the difference in the universe and for eternity.

3.11.5 Please Never Smoke Cigarettes (2022-11-05 13:46)

1st Corinthians 3:16-18, "Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you? If any man defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy; for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are. Let no man deceive himself. If any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise."

I admit that 1st Corinthians 3:17 is a difficult Scripture passage to interpret. It appears to teach that God Himself will inflict infectious diseases, suffering, pain or even death upon individuals who abuse their health. I cannot be dogmatic, but my humble opinion is that God has made our bodies in such a way that if we don't take care of them, bad things start to happen. I don't think our text passage is saying that it you commit fornication, God will cause you to get hit by a speeding Mack truck! If that were true, then we should have been dead long ago.

I humbly think that the Bible is simply teaching that as saints our body belongs to God. 1st Corinthians 6:20, "For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's." As believers, our BODY, SOUL and SPIRIT belong to our blessed God, Creator and Savior! So if we foolishly defile God's temple (our fleshly body), God will give us over to our own foolishness to destroy ourselves. Again, I mentioned that this passage is rather difficult to understand, because we don't know exactly in WHAT WAY will God destroy the body.

At the church of Corinth in Greece, there was a Christian man living in fornication with a woman in the church. The Apostle Paul received word in another city what was going on, and it disturbing him that the church elders in Corinth weren't doing anything about it. So Paul writes to the church and admonishes them to confront the man, and ask him to either stop living in open sin or else he needs to leave. But notice what Paul says in 1st Corinthians 5:5 we read, "To deliver such an one unto Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus." I think this is what 1st Corinthians 3:17 means. The best way to interpret the Bible is with THE BIBLE! When we choose to live in sin—whether it be sexual sins, abusing our health with substances, et cetera—in time those potentially destructive things will cause us to reap what we have sown.

God could have made our bodies to stay healthy even if we neglect our health, but He didn't do that. If we eat too much and become obese, then Type II diabetes develops. Diabetes is called The Silent Killer for a good reason, because you can have it and there won't be any signs until it is too late (blindness, kidney failure, stroke, et cetera). High blood sugar is dangerous!

I do believe that the A.I.D.S. epidemic is God's judgment upon homosexuality and other sexual sins, just as gonorrhea, syphilis and other horrible Sexually transmitted Diseases (STD's). Famous gangster, [1]Al Capone (1899-1947) was only age 48 when he died in 1947. Capone's infamous legacy of terror on the streets of Chicago during the alcohol Prohibition Era (1919-1933), only lasted for 7 years. That's right, just 7 years. And get this, Al Capone was only in his mid twenties when he was on top of the world as top gangster #1.

Capone was finally arrested at age 33 and sent to prison for tax evasion, but already had contracted the horrible sexual disease syphilis, which was literally eating holes in his brain in prison. The miracle cure of Penicillin wasn't invented until 1939 by the U.S. military, but it came too late to remedy the infamous crime boss. It is intriguing to me how young some of the most famous outlaws in history were. [2]Billy The Kid (1859-1881) was infamous for his long list of crimes (which sadly pales in comparison to criminal youth today across America). Billy The Kid was shot to death at only age 22! That is so sad and tragic.

Likewise, smoking tobacco is a sure way to die earlier than God intended. I THANK GOD that I have never smoked a cigarette. I have never tried beer. I have never taken a toke of marihuana. By God's grace I have never tried illegal drugs. I don't know what cocaine is like, or heroin, or methamphetamine. I get high on music! I don't walk with shady friends. You would be much better off having no friends at all, than to keep bad friends who will get you into trouble.

My Mom and Dad were married for 36 years, until my Mom went to Heaven in 2001. She died of sepsis, an infection to the entire body. By the time she died, she had both legs amputated, failing kidneys, a failing liver, a heart attack, diabetes, high blood pressure, et cetera. She suffered so much over the years in pain and misery. My Mom smoked like a chimney, which wreaked havoc on her health. She told me that at age 15 she started smoking a half of a cigarette per day. In 1989 at age 53 she had a crippling stroke, to the entire left side of her body. She could no longer use her left hand to play the lower octave notes on the piano. It was so sad to watch her play piano with just her right hand. As Merle Haggard sang, "

Mama tried.

When I attended the International Steel Guitar Convention (ISGC) in 1995, I watched the famous steel artist [3]Speedy West flop his hand around on the steel guitar, as it clanged and sounded like pots and pans falling in the kitchen sink. Speedy was a chain smoker his entire life, which caused him to suffer a crippling stroke. He so much desired to continue playing the steel guitar, but he had foolishly sacrificed his health on the altar of enjoying the pleasure of a nicotine addiction. I HATE the evil cigarette companies, and so should you!!!

As Speedy flopped his his around, I saw another famous steel player, Jimmy Day (who played live with Elvis Presley at barn yard dances down in Louisiana, Mississippi and Texas in the 1950's) cry. Jimmy Day cried seeing his long time musician friend trying to play the steel guitar earnestly, but his health was gone. So sad and tragic, and totally unnecessary. Nothing will ruin your health as fast as cigarettes!

Please don't ever smoke. If God had intended for humans to inhale burning plants into our lungs, then He would have put out a chimney up on top of our head, but the good Lord didn't do that. Remember, smoking won't send you to Hell, it will just make you smell like you've been there...lol. May we all be wise to take care of the miraculous body which God has blessed us with. Psalms 139:14, " I will praise thee; for I am fearfully and wonderfully made: marvellous are thy works; and that my soul knoweth right well."

3.11.6 The Wickedness Of Pensacola Christian College (2022-11-06 11:08)

2nd John 1:10-11, " If there come any unto you, and bring not this doctrine, receive him not into your house, neither bid him God speed: For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds. "

There is no poison as deadly in churches today as Calvinism (i.e., the false teachings of a man named John Calvin, 1509-1564). Calvinism denies immediate salvation by faith. Instead, followers of Calvinism errantly think you must persevere to live a changed life, by turning away from a sinful lifestyle, living a lifestyle of repentance until the end to make it to Heaven. A perfect example of Calvinist theology can be heard in the next video, where Calvinist Ray Comfort tries to tell a Christian man that he's going to Hell because he is a drunk...

Ray Comfort Schooled By Drunk Christian Man

Sadly, the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam is a Calvinist cesspool of iniquity, a den of Bob Jones University (BJU) graduates. [1]Look at the Calvinist crap BJU is preaching today!!! I have faithfully taken a Biblical stand against the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam since 2014. Their ungodly pastors, past and present (Marty Herron, Gary Walton, Jared Baldwin, Joe Hensen) all preach a false gospel called “

[2]Lordship Salvation.

” The Devil is a beautiful liar! [3]What exactly is Lordship Salvation? RUN from Lordship Salvation dear reader, because it is NOT the Gospel of free grace taught in the Holy Bible.

Now let’s take a look at Pensacola Christian College (PCC). When I moved from Guam to Pensacola in 2021, I started attended PCC’s Campus Church. The very first week I heard them preaching heresy on repentance. Here is an actual screenshot that I saved from PCC’s Wednesday night Bible study on July 21, 2021 (I added the red cancel circle to warn people)...

Damnable Heresy Being Taught At Pensacola Christian College (PCC)

Nowhere does the Bible teach that repentance means your behavior will change. That is Calvinism! The Bible says that our behavior SHOULD change. Titus 2:12, "Ti:2:12: Teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world;" The truth is that a Christian believer SHOULD live for Christ. Calvinism says to get to Heaven, a person WILL live for Christ. Roman Catholicism teaches to get to Heaven a person MUST do good works. Which category are you in friend? If you think that you WILL or MUST do works to have eternal life, you are still hellbound in your sins.

But if you have put your childlike faith (trust, confidence) in Jesus Christ alone, then you understand that all works are DEAD WORKS (Hebrews 6:1). You understand that works have no place in God's simple plan of salvation. Eternal life is a free gift, paid for by Jesus' precious blood (1st Peter 1:18-19). THE TRUTH is that you CAN go out and live like the Devil as a child of God, and you will NEVER lose God's gift of eternal life, because of your faith. What saith the Scripture? Romans 6:1, " What shall we say then? *Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound?" I love that! If we choose to continue in sin, God's grace will abound. The truth is that every Christian still continues in sin. Who is without sin anymore? That's right, no one (Romans 7:14-25).

Now, if you are saved, then you have the indwelling Holy Spirit, who is God in you. The blessed Holy Spirit will convict you about the sins in our life (Hebrews 12:6-8). If you can sin and win, you're not in! That is Biblical. I am not saying that you cannot live like the Devil as a Christian, you can, but God's Holy Spirit WILL convict you about it night and day. If you can commit sin with no conviction whatsoever, then something is very wrong dear friend. You may not have the Holy Spirit in you, which means you are not born-again (1st John 3:8-9, 24).

I got gloriously saved at age 13. I have lived in sin to varying degrees ever since, and so have you!!! The only difference is that some believers try to live right, and others don't try very hard, but either way you still sin and God will convict you about it. The Bible says a man is a bastard and not a son, if he is without chastisement from our heavenly Father (Hebrews 12:6-8). So if you can sin and win, you're not in. That is, if you are without Holy Spirit conviction about your sins, you need to get saved, In fact, it was that very truth that compelled me to come to Christ at age 13. The preacher said that if you can sin without any conviction whatsoever, you're not saved. I knew immediately that I didn't have the Holy Spirit. So I decided to get saved that Sunday morning in 1980, and the blessed Holy Spirit has been living inside me ever since, and I have felt His presence continually.

Shame on PCC for wickedly bidding Godspeed to Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. They share radio stations. They send each other students and employees. The son of the man who operates the radio station at PCC, now operates Harvest's radio station on Guam, preaching Dr. Steve Pettit's Calvinism!!! RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!! Pastor Jeff Redlin at PCC's Campus Church scolded me for exposing the corrupt Bob Jones University camp for preaching the Devil's Lordship Salvation. BJU also uses, sells and promotes Satan's corruptible seed (i.e., the Devil's Bible revisions). PCC won't speak one negative word against BJU. Why? It is because they all love money. Individual people don't matter at PCC, only those who are loyal to the cult are embraced. And to be accepted at PCC you must also accept the Calvinist BJU crowd. SHAME. WICKEDNESS!!! Even so, come, Lord Jesus (Romans 3:4). Thank you for reading dear friend.

KHMG 88.1 FM

3.11.7 Beware Of False Teacher Renee Roland On YouTube (2022-11-06 20:12)

Matthew 18:8, "Wherefore if thy hand or thy foot offend thee, cut them off, and cast them from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life halt or maimed, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into EVERLASTING FIRE" (emphasis added].

Kindly, be aware that Renee Roland is a false prophet who denies the reality of eternal Hell fire for Christ rejecters. She relies heavily upon human reasoning instead of taking the inspired Scriptures at face value. There is no way that anybody can rightly divide the Word of God and not conclude eternal damnation in a literal burning Lake of Fire. Matthew 25:41, "Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels:" (emphasis added]. I would never trust the theology of anyone who denies eternal punishment in Hell, fire and brimstone for the wicked...

False Prophet Renee Roland Denies Everlasting Fire In Hell

What saith the Scripture? ...

> Revelation 21:8, “
>
> But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death.”

Hell is FOREVER AND EVER...

> Revelation 14:11, “
>
> And the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name.
> **”

God deliver us from wannabe YouTube theologians!!!

Kindly said, Renee Roland is a fool. She denies the plain teaching of the inspired Scriptures, that all Christ-rejecters will die in their sins and be cast into the everlasting Lake of Fire. What part of "everlasting fire" doesn't Renee understand? Jesus spoke those Words Himself. And of course, all of the Holy Bible was authored by Jesus, for He is THE WORD OF GOD (John 1:1-3, 14; Revelation 19:13). Jesus is almighty God!!!

Sadly, as of November 2022 Renee has 17,100 subscribers on YouTube, misleading masses of people to deny that Hell , fire and brimstone is forever and ever. As do most false teachers, Renee lifts texts of Scripture out of context, thus creating a new pretext.

Furthermore, men ought to be preaching the Word of God, not women. 1st Corinthians 14:34, "

Let your women keep silence in the churches: for it is not permitted unto them to speak; but they are commanded to be under obedience, as also saith the law.

" If women are forbidden to preach doctrine to men in the church, then they also should remain silent on YouTube. Renee has a mouth so big, that you could drive a Mack Truck into it...lol.

> 1st Timothy 2:11-15, "Let the woman learn in silence with all subjection. But I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence. For Adam was first formed, then Eve. And Adam was not deceived, but the woman being deceived was in the transgression. Notwithstanding she shall be saved in childbearing, if they continue in faith and charity and holiness with sobriety."

The inspired Word of God has no guiding rules for the heathen world. God wrote the Bible to the church, except for the portions which tell lost sinners how to be saved. The Bible teaches that the unregenerate (lost) person cannot understand spiritual things (1st Corinthians 2:14-16). Kindly said, what Renee is doing is heathen! She is blaspheming the Word of God by rebelling against the Lord. She is unlearned in the Scriptures, but has taken it upon herself to start a cult on YouTube. She has tens of thousands of followers!!! Religious cults preach false doctrine! Hell is a literal place!

Hell has literal fire!

The Lake of Fire has no end, it is literally everlasting, where every Christ-rejecter will burn in torment and misery day and night for ever and ever and ever without rest, without one drop of water, and without hope!!! Please don't go to Hell dear friend. [1]Jesus has already paid for your ticket to Heaven.

In the preceding heretical poisonous video, Renee Roland (Humphries) sadly dismisses Jude 1:7 as a mere metaphor. A " metaphor

is a figure of speech in which an expression is used to refer to something that it does not literally denote in order to suggest a similarity:

> Jude 1:7, "
>
> Even as Sodom and Gomorrha, and the cities about them in like manner, giving themselves over to fornication, and going after strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire.

God did not use a metaphor here when He mentions SUFFERING THE VENGEANCE OF ETERNAL FIRE! It is gross theological incompetence for anyone to ass-u-me that a passage of Scripture is a parable, or a metaphor or only symbolic, unless the Holy Bible specifically says so! God rained down literal fire and brimstone upon the 5 cities in the well-watered plains of Sodom, the main cities being Sodom and Gomorrha. God did this retribution not only as judgment upon them, but also as an EXAMPLE to the whole of human civilization of what will happen to the wicked. The Bible plainly uses the words “ETERNAL FIRE.”

What else saith the Scripture? ...

> 2nd Thessalonians 1:8-10, “*In flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ:
> Who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power; When he shall come to be glorified in his saints, and to be admired in all them that believe (because our testimony among you was believed) in that day.”

The Bible could not be clearer that God is the divine Judge, who takes out His vengeance with fire upon all Christ-rejecters (those who obey not the GOOD NEWS of Christ crucified, buried and risen). Eternal life is a free gift from God (Ephesians 2:8-9). It is free to you and me because Jesus paid for it with His precious blood (1st Peter 1:18-19). But if you reject that free grace from God, then you will have no one to blame but yourself. 2nd Timothy 2:13, “ If we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself. ”

Someone falsely accused me of calling Renee names. I didn’t call Renee Roland any "names," I told THE TRUTH that she is a "false prophetess." I stated a fact.

Not all false prophets deny the Lord Jesus Christ, but some go to that extent. Renee is a false prophet, even if she is saved (but I don’t know if she is saved or not). The Holy Spirit teaches and guides believers into all truth (Luke 16:13). What Renee is teaching (that Hell means being destroyed, not burning in Hell fire and brimstone for ever and ever) is not sound doctrine! ...

> 2nd Peter 2:1, "But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction."

Kindly said, Renee Roland is a FOOL, who wants Christians to give her a platform to preach lies and false doctrine. But the inspired Word of God warns not to put up with false prophets for even ONE HOUR:

> Galatians 2:5-6, "To whom we gave place by subjection, no, not for an hour; that the truth of the gospel might continue with you. But of these who seemed to be somewhat, (whatsoever they were, it maketh no matter to me: God accepteth no man’s person:) for they who seemed to be somewhat in conference added nothing to me:"

I am not tolerating her junk theology! I am calling her a FALSE PROPHETESS on the authority of the Holy Bible. I am not calling her "names," I am faithfully contending for the faith (Jude 1:3). I am pleasing the Lord by exposing LIARS!

If you watch the preceding shameful video by Renee, she downplays her false teaching, trying to get everyone to allow her a platform to simply express her personal opinion about denying everlasting Hellfire. She encourage the viewer to do their own Bible study, and not to necessarily just follow her opinions. But what Renee is asking would be no different than if the Judaizer cult which had infiltrated the churches of Galatia (Galatians 1:6-9), had tried to likewise convince the local churches to just allow them to express their opinions in the churches. “Hey, we just want to teach you what we believe, and then you can make your own decision what is the truth.” But what did the Apostle Paul say in Galatians 5:12, “

I would they were even cut off which trouble you.”

I am not going to allow false teachers even 5 minutes of time to corrupt me, my family, my friends, my church or my web visitors. I love and promote Pastor Steven Anderson of the Faithful Word Baptist Church, even though I disagree with his denial of a Pretribulation Rapture; but Renee Roland denying that Hell has fire, and that lost sinners are punished in Hell forever and ever, is something entirely different. She is denying a fundamental Bible doctrine which affects the Gospel. If there is no eternal burning Hell, and lost sinners just get destroyed and cease to exist, that there is much less reason for people to come to Christ to be saved. Renee is preaching with another spirit, not the Holy Spirit (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4). I seriously question her salvation. She might as well be denying Jesus’ deity. Something is very wrong with Renee’s spiritual discernment abilities, which makes me question if she has the Holy Spirit at all (2nd Corinthians 2:14-16).

BEWARE of Renee Roland, she is a deadly false teacher. I am sick of hearing professed Christians support Renee because she seems to be correct on the Gospel of free grace. But Seventh-Day Adventists sound Kosher too on the Gospel, until you dig deeper and realize that they don’t believe in a literal burning Hell, and they preach Lordship Salvation. I have said it before, and I will say it again, you CANNOT TRUST anybody’s theology who is wrong on the Lake of Fire. HELL IS FOREVER, AND HELL HAS FIRE!!! I don’t care if it harelips every dog in the county, I will continue to expose Renee Roland as a heretic until she stops denying that Hell has fire and lasts forever and ever as the Holy Bible teaches.

3.11.8 But Wasn’t King James A Freemason? (2022-11-08 12:12)

2nd Peter 1:21, “

For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost.

Someone recently said that they were leery about the King James Bible because they heard that King James was a Freemason.

Remember, one third of the Holy Bible was written by murderers. God only has sinful men to do His work. If King James Stuart who commissioned 54 men to translate the King James Bible hadn’t been guilty of one sin, he was certainly guilty of many other sins, as are ALL men. We should judge the Bible based upon its content and not the faults of the sinful men who prepared it. King James didn’t translate the Bible. People across the country are still trying to discredit and destroy the legacy of Pastor Jack Hyles, because God forbid he might have actually been guilty of sinning during his lifetime. 1st Timothy 5:24, "Some men’s sins are open beforehand, going before to judgment; and some men they follow after."

3.11.9 Repentance Is Included In Believing (2022-11-08 12:50)

Acts 16:27-31, "And the keeper of the prison awaking out of his sleep, and seeing the prison doors open, he drew out his sword, and would have killed himself, supposing that the prisoners had been fled. But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, Do thyself no harm: for we are all here. Then he called for a light, and sprang in, and came trembling, and fell down before Paul and Silas, And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house."

QUESTION? - I have heard many preachers from different churches say that in order to be saved a person MUST repent of their sins. Is that true???

ANSWER - NO!!! It is true that you MUST REPENT. Yes in order for a person to be saved the individual has to repent. One thing a person needs to understand is that repentance and believing are one of the same coin. So, therefore, when a person trusts Christ as their only payment for their sins (i.e. believes the Gospel), that individual has repented.

TO CLARIFY what was said above The word REPENT (when it is in reference to salvation) is the Greek word MENTANOIA, which simply means A CHANGE OF MIND.

THE TRUTH... At the moment that a person TRUSTS CHRIST by placing their faith in JESUS' Death on a cross for our sins, Burial and bodily Resurrection (as the ONLY PAYMENT for their sins), that person has REPENTED; or in other words, they CHANGED THEIR MIND from what they once thought or believed it took them to get to Heaven, to believing God's way of going to Heaven.

THE CONFUSION begins when churches, preachers or missionaries place a FALSE DEFINITION (such as:

Turn from sin,

Be sorry for your sins,

or do XYZ to get saved. If anything more than childlike faith were required to get to Heaven, then the Apostle Paul and Silas would have said so in Acts 16:30-31, but they didn't, they just told the Roman jailor to BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST.

When Cain and Abel brought their offerings to the Lord, God accepted Abel's blood sacrifice, but He rejected Cain's grain sacrifice.

God NEVER makes a person to do anything, nor places any conditions upon them, in order to get saved except to BELIEVE THE GOSPEL. That is, believe the GOOD NEWS of Christ crucified, buried and risen three days later (1st Corinthians 15:1-4; John chapters 19 and 20).

TO PUT IT SIMPLE...

1. God LOVES us (John 3:16)
2. We are GUILTY SINNERS (Romans 3:19-23)
3. Burning in HELL is the eternal penalty for our sins (Revelation 20:12-15)
4. Jesus Christ DIED on a cross to pay down our massive DEBT of sin (Romans 5:6-9)
5. Jesus was BURIED and RESURRECTED three days later (1st Corinthians 15:1-4)
6. Simply BELIEVE (put your confidence in) these FACTS to be saved (Acts 16:30-31)

The Holy Bible plainly and clearly defines THE GOSPEL for us:

> 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, "
>
> Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures.

The person who BELIEVES has also REPENTED. That is, they have CHANGED THEIR MIND from unbelief to belief. You DON'T need to repent of your sin to be saved. You DON'T need to forsake the world or a lifestyle of sinning. That would be WORKS!!!

The way to be saved is to CEASE from your own labors (works), and just REST in the finished redemptive work of Jesus Christ. Hebrews 4:10-11, "For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his. Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief." Don't miss that! Please don't miss that! Carefully notice that the issue here is UNBELIEF.

The Bible is using the Jews who wandered in the Wilderness for 40 years as an EXAMPLE of their UNBELIEF, for which they perished in their sins and went to Hell. Hebrews 4:1-2, "Let us therefore fear, lest, a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it. For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it." There are millions of people in the churches today, who have heard the Gospel preached all their life, but they don't believe it.

You get saved dear friend, by ceasing from your own DEAD WORKS (Hebrews 6:1), and just BELIEVE that Jesus did it all for you through Calvary's cross.

Salvation is not a reward for the righteous, it is a gift for the guilty!

Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

Turning away from sinful ways would be a work. Faith puts all of the merit where it belongs, on the object of our faith, Jesus and His work.

If to "repent" means to forsake our sinful ways TO BE SAVED, but Jesus already paid for our sins by dying on the cross, then what are we repenting from?

The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU.

Evangelist John R. Rice (1895-1980) was a godly man and a free grace preacher. But in his sincere ignorance Dr. Rice often used the unscriptural phrase to "turn from your sin" to be saved. Consequently, many people misunderstood Brother Rice (even still today decades later). But I have studied Dr. Rice's books much more than the average person who misrepresents him. Since Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) was lifelong good ministry friends with John R. Rice, I am very familiar with their teachings.

It bothers me when Baptist churches skew (a slanted position) Dr. Rice's writings, misrepresenting what he really taught. Anyone who represents Dr. Rice as teaching that you have to turn from sins, as a separate act from believing, is slandering him! Please read what Dr. Rice actually believed and taught:

> There are those hyper-dispensationalists who think that John the Baptist preached a different Gospel from Christ when he commanded repentance (Matt. 3:2). But it is the same repentance Jesus commanded in Matthew 4:17, in Luke 13:3 and 5, and the same repentance that Paul preached in Athens that God "now commandeth all men every where to repent" (Acts 17:30 31). Repentance is not a different plan of salvation from having faith: it is part of the same plan of salvation. Or rather repentance is simply another way of describing or looking at the plan of salvation. One who turns from sin to God has done so by trusting in Jesus Christ*. A change of mind toward sin is necessarily involved in saving faith.
> Everyone who genuinely repented under the preaching of John the Baptist put his trust in the Saviour John the Baptist preached, and was regenerated. There is no such thing as being "a disciple of John the Baptist" in any honest sense without being a disciple of Jesus, that is, without trusting Christ for salvation. [emphasis added]

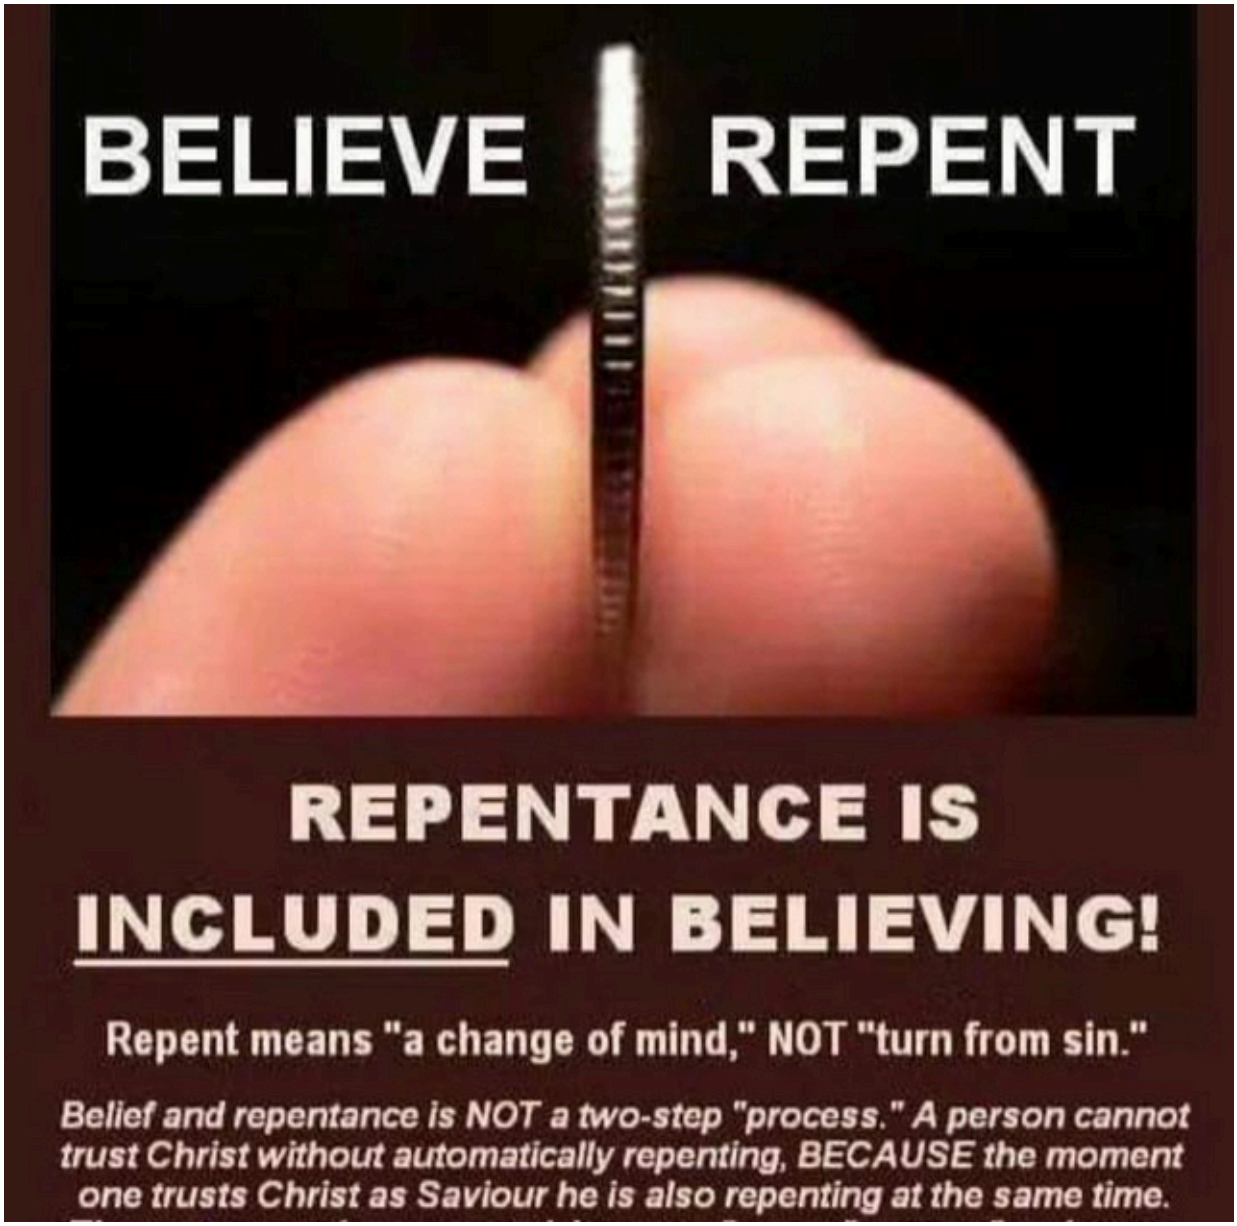
Oh dear friend, that is so beautiful. Please don't miss it! The only change of mind concerning sin that you need to have to be saved, is to ADMIT that you are one. Romans 3:19-20, "Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God. Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin." To be saved, you just need to realize that you are a GUILTY SINNER, so that you will know what you are being saved from. As guilty sinners we all deserve to be punished by God's wrath in a burning Hell forever and ever (Revelation 20:12-15).

I have heard [1]Missionary David W. Cloud and other false teachers, attempt to portray Dr. Rice as a proponent of Lordship Salvation, saying he taught that people must turn away from a lifestyle of sin to be saved. David Cloud even goes as far as to pitch Dr. John R. Rice against his successor Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995). I explain this issue in the preceding hyperlink. Mr. Cloud claims that Curtis Hutson leaves off repentance, thus corrupting the Gospel. [2]Nothing could be further from the truth.

Kindly said, [3]I am so sick and tired of Ray Comfort's damnable doctrines of devils. In all of his YouTube videos, Ray requires people to do TWO things to be saved. He first requires that people repent of their sins. He defines repentance as telling God you're sorry, [4]and then living a LIFESTYLE OF REPENTANCE to prove the reality of your salvation. John R. Rice rightly taught that repentance and faith are simply two parts of ONE STEP of believing to be saved; whereas Ray Comfort errantly teaches that repentance and faith are TWO STEPS, which require an effort to stop living in sin to be saved.



What Ray Comfort is preaching is something entirely different than what Dr. John R. Rice taught. These are two very different plans of salvation! It is very deceptive for any Baptist church to partially quote John R. Rice, telling people that repentance means "to turn from your sins, earnestly, with all your heart," as being something different than faith alone to be saved. In reality, in fact, that is NOT what repentance means!!!!!!! The word "repent" regarding salvation in the Bible is either the noun metanoia (a change of mind), or the verb form metanoeo (to think differently). Mark 1:15, "And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel." That is, THINK DIFFERENTLY and believe the GOOD NEWS!!!

To be saved, you must think differently and believe the GOOD NEWS (i.e., Jesus died on the cross to pay for our sins, He was buried and physically resurrected three days later). We are saved by believing, not by repenting; but repentance makes believing possible. Repentance facilitates believing. If you didn't change your mind about whatever it is that has been preventing you from believing, then you wouldn't have come to Christ to be forgiven and saved. The only thing you need to change your mind about is whatever has been hindering you from believing. UNBELIEF is the only unpardonable sin dear reader!

Unbelief is the only thing that keeps a person from believing. To require that someone commit to turning away from living a lifestyle of sin, has absolutely nothing to do with receiving God's free gift of eternal life. I hope you see that. False teachers like John MacArthur, Steve Pettit, Marty Herron, James White, Gary Walton, Bryan Denlinger, Sam Horn, John Piper, Ray Comfort, Kirk Cameron and R.C. Sproul—all unbiblically require people to forsake a lifestyle of sinning to get saved, which is heresy. Salvation is a take proposition, not a give proposition.

Jesus doesn't forgive sin, He has already paid for our sins with His precious blood. You simply receive that free gift from God by childlike faith (trust, confidence) in the record which God has given to humanity in the inspired Holy Bible. Simply BELIEVE that Christ did it for you oh sinner and you are saved!!! John 6:28-29, "Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent." Thank you for reading.

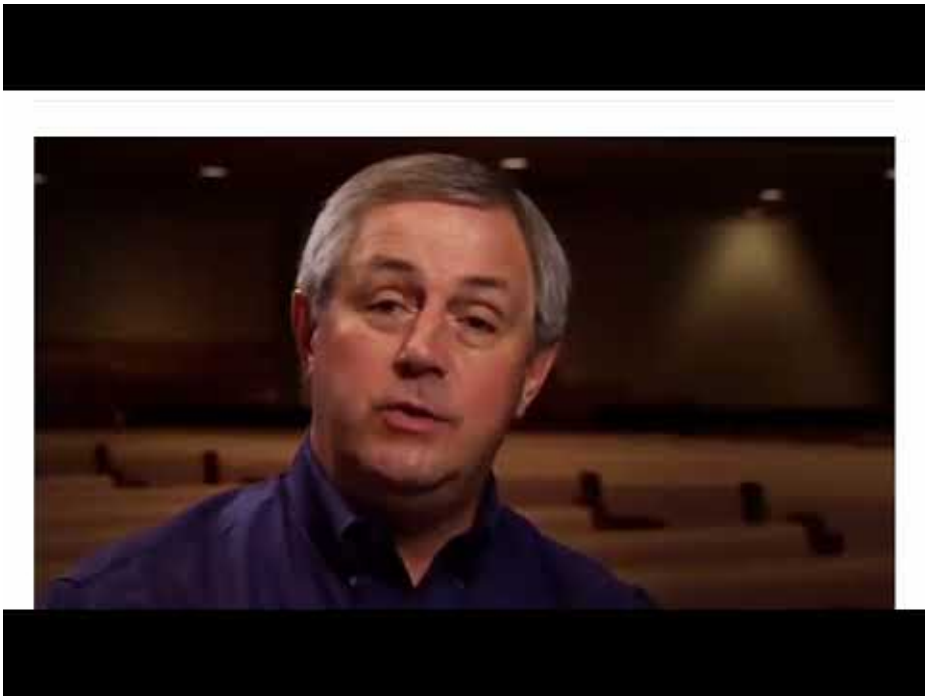
3.11.10 Turning Away From Your Sin Is Works (2022-11-09 11:43)

Jonah 3:10, "And God saw THEIR WORKS, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not."

Titus 3:5, " Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost; "

The Bible in no uncertain terms says that God's free gift of eternal life is WITHOUT WORKS. The deadly mindset of the cults has crept into most Baptist churches nowadays, which has corrupted these churches so that they now are also CULTS! What saith the Scripture? ...



> Romans 4:3-5, "For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness. Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt. But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness."

The Bible verses that you just read are quoted from the Old Testament concerning Abram (whose name was later changed by God to Abraham)...

> Genesis 15:6, "
>
> And he believed in the LORD; and he counted it to him for righteousness.

People in the Old Testament, before and under the Mosaic Covenant, were ALL saved the same exact way that people get saved today thousands of years later, which is by grace through faith in Christ. Acts 10:42, "To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins." Abraham was saved by faith alone, without WORKS! Romans 4:4 plainly teaches that if salvation had been by works, then it would have been of DEBT and not by GRACE. Dear friend, God has never owed a debt of salvation to any wicked human being (and we are all wicked - Romans 3:19-23). Turning away from your sins and evil ways is WORKS according to God in Jonah 3:10.

The following is a helpful video which exposes Evangelist Ken Ham as a false prophet! ...

The FALSE GOSPEL of ANSWERS IN GENESIS and KEN HAM

Sadly, the wicked Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College (PCC) promotes infidel Ken Ham to all their thousands church members and students. RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!! When I attended Campus Church in 2021, they showed Ken Ham's Young Earth Creation (YEC) series all summer long for Wednesday night Bible study. It upsets me when incompetent pastors, like the Bozo clowns at PCC, play video tapes of other preachers instead of doing their own Bible study. Ken Ham DOESN'T rightly divide the Word of Truth, he is WRONG on the Gospel.

Tragically, The Crown College in Powell, Tennessee also promotes Ken Ham. SHAME on Pastor Clarence Sexton. I am not trying to be unkind, but success and prosperity has ruined Pastor Sexton, so that he no longer contends for the Christian faith as he once did decades ago. RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!! Clarence Sexton recently took a lucrative vacation to England, and not too long before that Israel. Pastor Sexton is living large off the ministry. So also is Pastor Jeff Redlin at Campus Church at PCC living large, parasiting off the ministry.

All of these men get paid a sickening 6-DIGIT annual salary, four times what the average U.S. citizen earns in a year!!! I have a problem with that. What happened to being a servant? Matthew 23:11, "But he that is greatest among you shall be your servant." Sadly, the pastors who are the most successful in this world, do the least to contend for the Christian faith (Jude 1:3). Prosperity, fame and financial wealth have destroyed more preachers than all their hardships, afflictions and enemies combined. SHAME on Temple Baptist Church in Powell (right outside of Knoxville), Tennessee and their Crown College! SHAME on them for promoting a religious con man who preaches another Gospel.

Dear friend, there are NOT two plans of salvation (Galatians 1:6-7). You either must turn away from your sinful bad habits as a second step to be saved, in addition to faith; or else you do not, but it absolutely cannot be both. Romans 11:6, "And if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work." What Ken Ham is preaching is NOT God's grace. When you attack the grace of God, you attack the God of grace!!! SHAME on PCC for promoting Ken Ham and his Young Earth Creation (YEC) circus. There is no evidence in the Bible to support a YEC, but there is plenty to substantiate an Old Earth Creation (OEC).

According to Ken Ham, faith in the GOOD NEWS of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen the third day is NOT enough to get to Heaven. In addition, Ham says you must repent and turn away from your sinful ways. But what saith the Scripture?

Jonah 3:10, "And God saw THEIR WORKS, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not." God changed His mind (He repented) not to destroy Nineveh. But they didn't get saved by THEIR WORKS!!! The Bible doesn't say that the Assyrians got saved, it simply says that they turned away from their evil ways and God spared imminent destruction upon their nation. Judas also turned away from his evil ways (Matthew 27:3), even returning the 30 pieces of silver to the Pharisees which he had been paid to betray Jesus. Judas felt remorse, regret and reformation, but he never repented toward God to put his faith in Jesus. Turning away from sin is WORKS! Ken Ham is a hellbound false prophet!!!

SHAME on Pensacola Christian College and Crown College for promoting infidel Ken Ham, which confuses their students. In the preceding video, Ken Ham's employee even says that turning from sins is the "SECOND" thing you must DO to be saved. That is a counterfeit plan of salvation, which cannot produce the new birth. In God's plan of salvation, repentance is INCLUDED with believing on the Lord Jesus Christ (Acts 16:30-31). If it weren't, then Paul and Silas would have told the Roman jailor that more than faith is required to be saved, but they didn't. They simply told the man to BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST, and thou shalt be saved (Acts 16:31b). God does not save those who are trying to be saved, He only saves those who are trusting to be saved.

Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

"THAT DYING THIEF...
HE COULD NOT WORK, HIS HANDS WERE NAILED. HE COULD NOT WALK, HIS FEET WERE NAILED. HE COULD NOT GET BAPTIZED. HE COULD NOT TAKE COMMUNION. HE COULD NOT JOIN THE CHURCH. BUT PRAISE GOD HE COULD LOOK. THAT IS HOW HE WAS SAVED. HE LOOKED. WHO DID HE LOOK TO? HE LOOKED TO JESUS. THAT IS THE WAY YOU ARE SAVED!"

3.11.11 What About "Double Inspiration" Of The Bible? (2022-11-10 21:51)

2nd Timothy 3:15-17, "And that from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus. All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: That the man of God may be perfect, throughly furnished unto all good works."

5172

I do not believe in Double Inspiration. Double Inspiration is the belief that the 54 King James Bible translators were newly inspired by God, and that the King James Bible trumps and supersedes the ancient Hebrew, Chaldean and Greek texts from which it was translated. I do not believe that. Respectfully, Dr. Peter S. Ruckman (1921-2016) did believe in Double Inspiration (as does Dr. Gail Riplinger), but I DO NOT.

I agree with Pastor Danny Castle, who said:

> “Brother Castle, do you believe the King James translators were inspired? No, they were led. The words were already inspired.” —Pastor Danny Castle, a quote from the needful MP3 sermon, "[1]Lets Get Our hearts Right!"

Yes, bravo, I fully agree!!! Since the 54 scholarly men who translated the King James Bible were already working with inspired texts, and they accurately translated those texts, they produce an inspired text when done. Our beloved King James Bible must be inspired, which simply means that they are GOD’S WORDS, not man’s words.

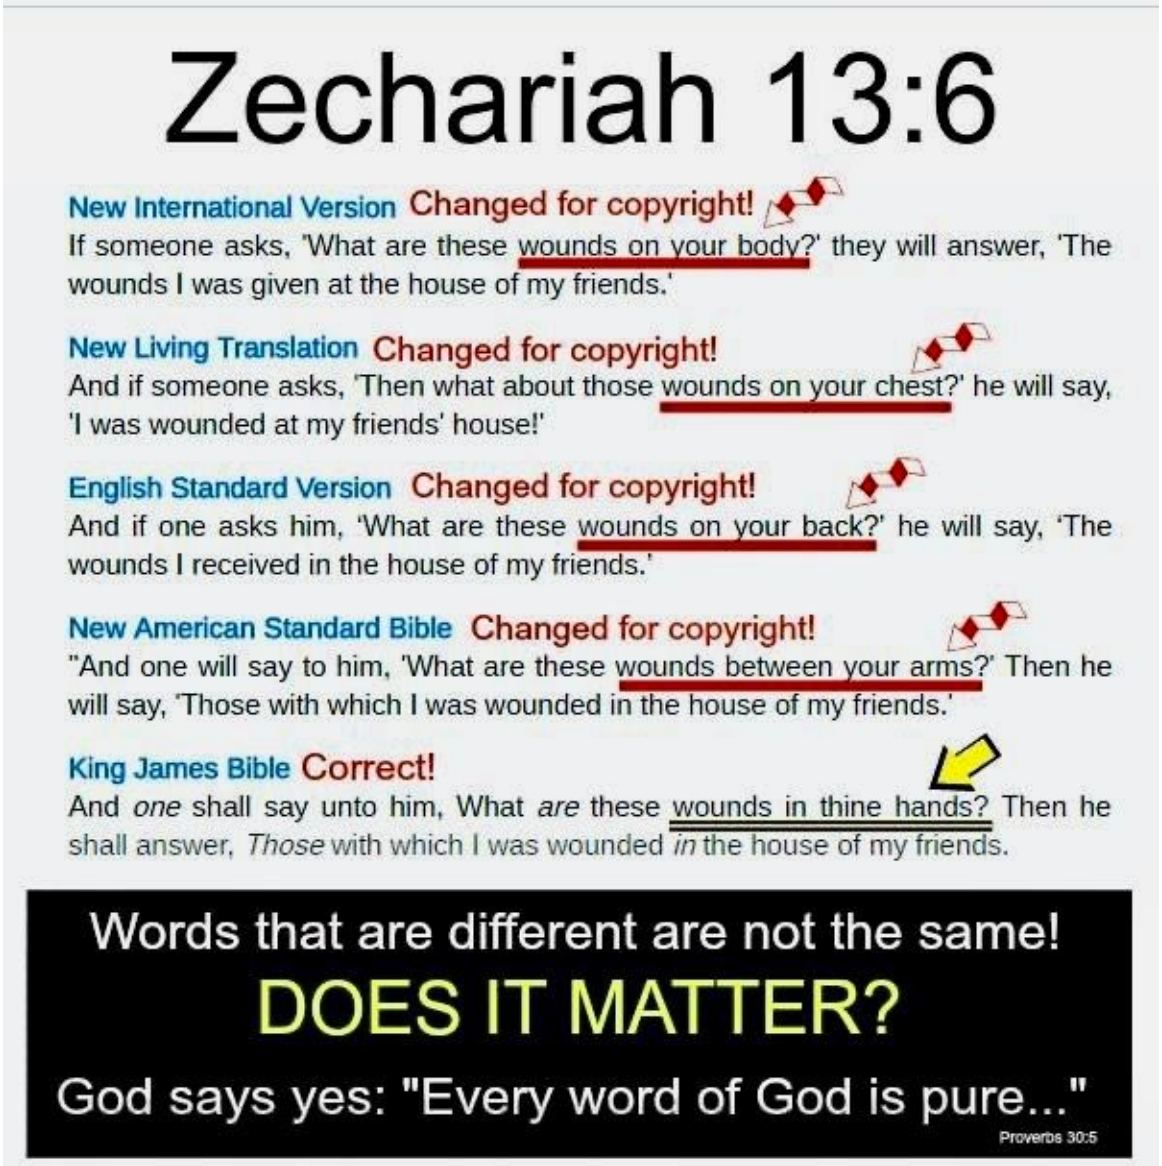
The debate is over the meaning of the word "inspired" in 2nd Timothy 3:16. The Greek word here is "theopneustos," which means: "God and Air; or God-breathed." The King James Bible translators chose to use 5 words to translate this one Greek word into English: "given by inspiration of God."

Some bad scholars and ignorant preachers assume that the word only refers to the process of God breathing our His words to mankind, that is, THE PROCESS, not the words themselves. However, I totally disagree with that assumption. The whole premise of the "Word of God" is that it is indeed THE WORD OF GOD!!! Therefore, I think the word "inspiration" refers to THE WORDS themselves, and not just the process.

There is NOTHING in the Bible to conclusively say that inspiration merely refers to the process of God breathing His Word to man (i.e., the holy prophets of old). By "inspired," I simply believe that they are GOD’S WORDS. But if they are imperfect, corrupted, or have been diluted by men over the millenniums, then they cannot be God’s Words anymore. That is the debate.

The false claim that only the "ORIGINALS" were inspired (which is tragically what 95 % of Bible colleges and churches believe today), then we do not have God’s Word today, because there are no original manuscripts available today. We only have copies of copies of copies of the original manuscripts.

Here is the retarded Statement of Faith from Bob Jones University’s cult website:



> "Bob Jones University holds to the verbal, plenary inspiration of the Bible in the ORIGINAL MANUSCRIPTS and that God has supernaturally preserved His inspired words in the totality of extant manuscript evidence." [EMPHASIS ADDED]

I would like to make two observations from the preceding ridiculous quote:

1. BJU foolishly doesn’t believe we have an INSPIRED Bible today. As you just read, BJU thinks only the "originals" were inspired.
2. Yet, BJU insanely thinks that God has "supernaturally preserved His inspired words" in both the Textus Receptus, Vaticanus Sinaiticus, et cetera (i.e., the total extant of manuscript evidence) available.

Okay, then why have those originals (which have allegedly been supernaturally preserved) look like this? ...

[2]

Bible Changed And [3]Corrupted To Obtain A Copyright

CLEARLY, in most cases where the Bible has been translated, God's inspired words HAVE NOT been supernaturally preserved as BJU erroneously claims, THEY HAVE BEEN CORRUPTED BY SATAN!!!

God has indeed supernaturally preserved His inspired Words for every generation and forever, which means those Words must still be 100 % verbally inspired (i.e., Word for Word). I believe those perfectly inspired infallible Words are the King James Bible. BJU are hypocrites. Since when has God become the author of confusion (1st Corinthians 14:33)? God didn't author HUNDREDS of Bible versions, He only authored ONE BOOK. There can only be ONE true Holy Bible in any particular language.

Pastor Jack Hyles is so right, who asked the $64,000 question: "What good would inspiration be without preservation?" I like to turn the question around, what good would preservation be without inspiration. Either way, the idea is the same. What good would it have been for God to give His 100 % infallible, inerrant, perfect, accurate and inspired Words to mankind; if those Words later became corrupt, fallible, unreliable and questionable? That doesn't make any sense!

Dr. Hyles made the preceding quote in his sermon titled: "[4]THE REAL BATTLE."

To prove what I say, read Psalms 12:6-7, "The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times. Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever." So what is being preserved by God in this promise in verse 7? It is clearly God's PURE WORDS in verse 6. Now [5]take a shocking look at what all the Devil's modern Bible revisions do to CHANGE this Bible verse.

Do you see how wicked modernists have corrupted the inspired Word of God to fit their AGENDA? Since they don't believe that we have a perfect, inspired, infallible and accurate Bible today, they had to remove God's PROMISE to preserve his inspired VERY PURE words. Look what David said in Psalms 119:140, "Thy word is very pure: therefore thy servant loveth it." Like David in the Old Testament, I love God's Word (THE KING JAMES BIBLE) because it is VERY PURE WORDS. Like me, David would have hated and exposed the Devil's corruptible seed. You can also hear a helpful sermon by Dr. Jack Hyles that he preached in 1994, my favorite of all his sermons, called: "[6]THE BATTLE OF THE AGES." This sermon gave me the title for my movie.

It is so obvious what Satan is doing by corrupting the Bible. The Devil is trying to confuse everyone. David hid God's Word in his heart that he might not sin against the Lord. David knew that a young man's ways are cleansed by the Word of God. So if the Devil can remove the true Word of God from people's lives, they become helpless. Literally, like gun control, the Bible corrupting movement are spiritually disarming the people, rendering them vulnerable to Satanic tyranny.

I encourage you dear reader to keep an open mind, desiring to follow THE TRUTH and not just follow the crowd. Most churchgoers are afflicted with herd mentality syndrome, going with the flow to be accepted and avoid being stigmatized and shunned. Jesus has always been outside the gate! Anybody who raises a King James Bible only flag today is laughed at, ridiculed, ostracized and put outside the gate. Thank you for reading my blog. Kindest regards.

3.11.12 Why Do Believers Ask God To Forgive Our Sins, If Jesus Has Already Paid For Them? (2022-11-11 01:30)

1st John 1:6-9, "If we say that we have FELLOWSHIP with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth: But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have FELLOWSHIP one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin. If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness."

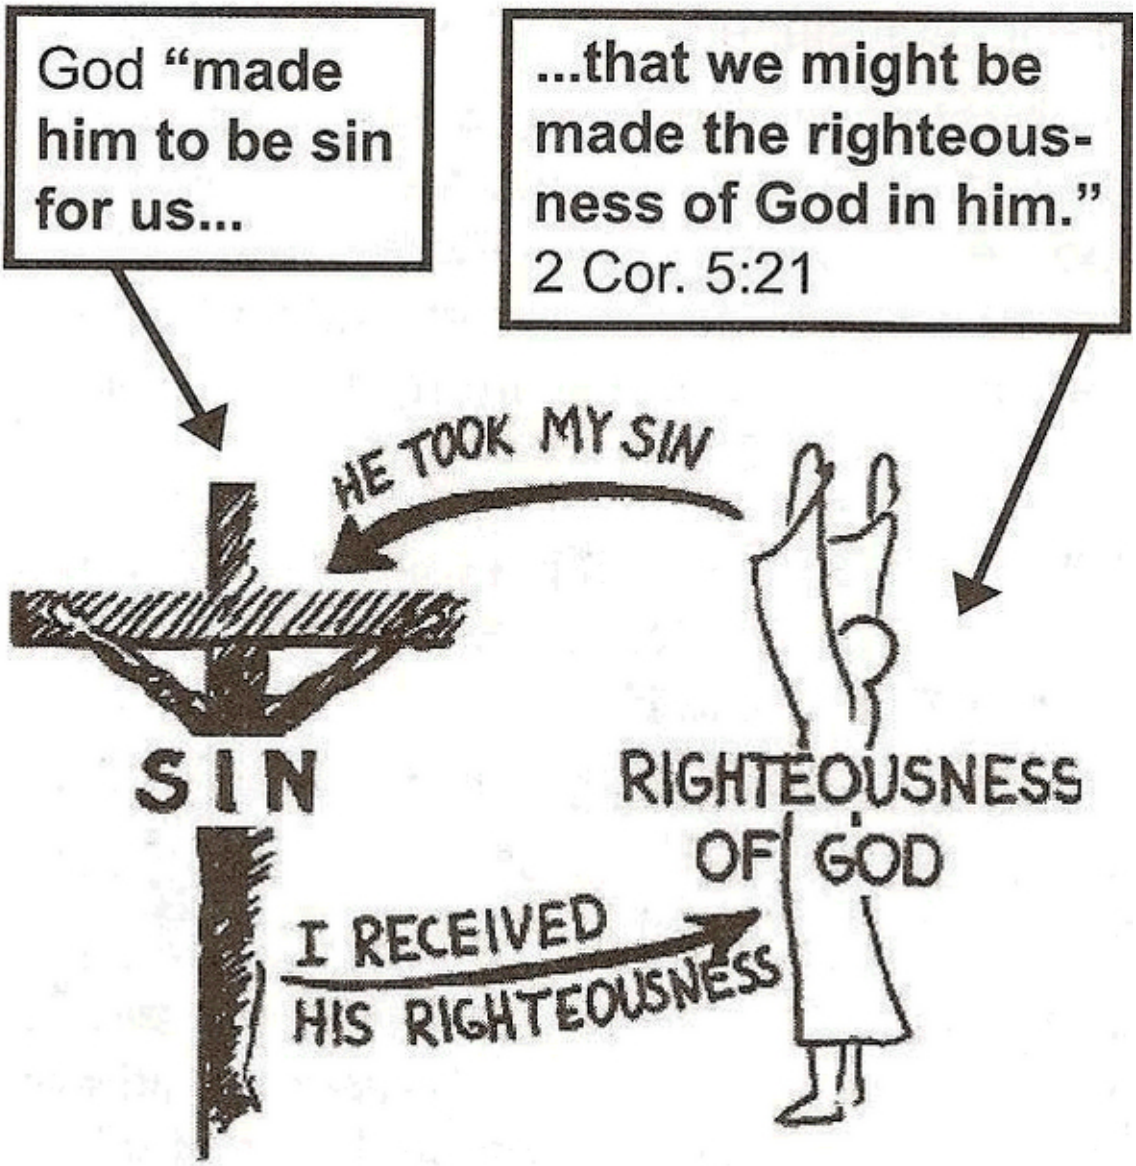
The subject at hand is "fellowship" not "sonship." I once worked with a truck driver who claimed that 1st John 1:9 was only written to unsaved people, because as Christians our sins are already forgiven. But that fella didn't understand the difference between fellowship versus sonship. John is speaking about "fellowship" with God and our Christian brethren.



Pastor Jack Hyles preached a helpful sermon on this subject titled: "[1]How To Be Right With God." In the sermon Dr. Hyles contrasts being right with God POSITIONALLY versus CONDITIONALLY. When we got saved, the old account was settled long ago, we were forever legally declared JUSTIFIED by God; so that whenever we sin as saints, we fall IN GRACE, never FROM GRACE (Romans 6:1). God's righteousness was imputed (counted) to us by faith when we got saved, so that in God's sight we always appear as righteous as Jesus Christ. That is our POSITION in Christ.

Our CONDITION is our daily walk with the Lord. So when we sin as God's children, it strains our fellowship with the heavenly Father. Either sin will keep us from the Bible (Proverbs 14:14), or the Bible will keep us from sin (Psalms 119:11; Romans 7:13). We have a continual need to ask God to forgive us as his children, to maintain fellowship. This is our CONDITION in Christ. Our POSITION was forever settled the moment we got saved.

This is also how the Judgment Seat of Christ will be handled. 2nd Corinthians 5:10 teaches that we will give account for the GOOD and the BAD done in the body, not our sins. That is, our CONDITION in Christ will be judged at the Judgment Seat of Christ, not our POSITION in Christ. There is no condemnation in Christ (John 3:18; Romans 8:1). But we can still suffer loss of rewards (1st Corinthians 3:11-15), weep tears of regret (Revelation 21:4), suffer avengement for those we have defrauded (1st Thessalonians 4:6), and suffer public shame (Revelation 16:15) for a wasted life on earth (Luke 8:13-14). God gives us the option as saints to settle out of civil court before we get there. 1st Corinthians 11:31, "For if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged."

3.11.13 Prayer Made Simple (2022-11-12 04:30)

"Pray without cea sing." —1st Thessalonians 5:17

Quite frankly, PRAYER IS WORK. Colossians 4:12, "Epaphras, who is one of you, a servant of Christ, saluteth you, always labouring fervently for you in prayers, that ye may stand perfect and complete in all the will of God." I love that Scriptures. Genuine prayer set aside as an activity by itself is work my friend. That's why most people don't pray.

God wants to answer our prayers so much that He has made it easy for us, so that no believer will have an excuse at the Judgment Seat Of Christ not to pray (2nd Corinthians 5:9-11). Here are four ways in which God makes it easier and more convenient for us to pray: WE DON'T HAVE TO PRAY LONG.

First, Jesus taught us in Matthew 6:7 that we don't have to pray a long time. God just wants us to know that we need Him. Matthew 6:7-8, "But when ye pray, use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking. Be not ye therefore like unto them: for your Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask him." So we don't have to pray for a long time for our needs. God will provide. In fact, God provides when we don't ask, because Luke 6:35 says "for he is kind unto the unthankful and to the evil." Psalms 145:9, "The LORD is good to all: and his tender mercies are over all his works."

It is a sin not to pray, akin to atheism. God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble (James 4:6). There are answers to prayer that we WON'T receive if we fail to pray. God is trying to get it to us. Interestingly, James 4:8 is just a couple verses later and says if we draw near to God, then He will draw near to us. Prayer is vital in walking with God, for without prayer there is no walk with God.

JESUS GAVE US A BASIC GUIDELINE TO FOLLOW WHEN WE PRAY.

Second, Jesus gave us a basic outline to follow of WHAT to pray in Luke 11:2-4, "And he said unto them, When ye pray, say, Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, as in heaven, so in earth. Give us day by day our daily bread. And forgive us our sins; for we also forgive every one that is indebted to us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil." So God not only tells us that we don't have to pray for a long period of time, but He has also given us a template to get us started praying if we don't know how.

We should begin each prayer by bragging on God, for Who He is and what He does. And then pray for His return, for daily provisions, for forgiveness and for God to keep us from doing evil. No one can live above sin, but we can all live above evil (premeditated sin). God has made it so easy for us to pray. The Lord's prayer is really the disciple's prayer, because Jesus said, "When ye pray..." The Bible gives us this basic outline to guide us what to pray for.

WE CAN PRAY CONTINUALLY TO SPREAD OUT OUR PRAYER REQUESTS.

Third, 1st Thessalonians 5:17, "Pray without ceasing." God is so fair and practical. He says that He doesn't want us to pray for a long time. And He gives us a guideline to follow to get us started each day. And then He promises to be with us in Spirit as we pray, to help our infirmities (weaknesses). And then God says we can spread out our prayers throughout the day, getting our requests to His throne of grace and mercy one way or another. What wonderful truths! What an awesome God!!!

Although Jesus gave us a basic outline to follow in prayer, life is complicated and there are many more things to pray about. Evidence of this truth is found in Philippians 4:6, "Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God." So here we learn that we are to pray for more than just the basic needs of daily provisions, forgiveness, the Lord's will and to be delivered from evil. God tells us not to be over-concerned about anything, but to cast it all upon Him in prayer and trust Him (1st Peter 5:7).

Obviously, we have the guidelines of the Lord's Prayer to follow (Luke 11:2-4), beginning with bragging on God and then praying for our DAILY needs, forgiveness and to be delivered from evil. The Bible tells us to make our requests KNOWN unto God. If we don't ask, we don't get (James 4:2). Luke 11:9-10, "And I say unto you, Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you. For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened."

THE HOLY SPIRIT WILL INTERCEDE ON OUR BEHALF WHEN WE PRAY, TO HELP US.

Fourth, Romans 8:26-27, "Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for we know not what we should pray for as we ought: but the Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered. And he that searcheth the hearts knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit, because he maketh intercession for the saints according to the will of God." I love this Scripture passage. Not only does God tell us that we don't have to pray for a long time, and not only has God given us an example to follow, and not only does He allow us to spread out our prayers throughout the day at our convenience; but He also will help us if we don't know what to pray, and the Holy Spirit will speak on our behalf to the Father.

The Bible plainly states in Romans 8:26 that we don't know what we should pray for. Now, maybe you think you know more than God, and that you do know what to pray for, but my King James Bible says that I DON'T KNOW WHAT TO PRAY FOR and neither do you. Thankfully, the Holy Spirit Who lives within (indwells) every believer intercedes on our behalf when we pray. What a wonderful comfort and assurance. That's pretty good insurance my friend. You can't go wrong when the Holy Spirit is holding your hand and telling the Father what we really need. I think most of our prayers are intercepted and the Holy Spirit has to make changes, because we often pray for selfish things that would be harmful to us if God gave us what we think we need.

The squeaky hinge gets the oil. God will likely provide for our basic needs even if we don't ask, but then we've sinned by not thanking and glorifying God in our everyday life. There are 86,400 seconds in each day. Have you thanked God with just one of them? Notice in Philippians 4:6 that we are supposed to pray with thanksgiving. Philippians 4:7 promises the peace of God in our hearts if we'll just leave our burdens with the Lord through prayer. Trust God and be fearless.

My friend, prayer couldn't be simpler. If you are busy, then God allows you to pray throughout the day wherever you are at. If you aren't sure how to get started, the Lord has provided a template for us to follow in Luke 11:2-4. If you still aren't sure what to pray (and none of us are), the Holy Spirit promises to intercede (mediate) on our behalf and to tell the Father what we really need. The Holy Spirit always intercedes on our behalf when we pray. And then God tells us not to pray for a long time because there is no need... He already knows our needs and desires. BUT HE DOES WANT US TO ASK, and it's not an option. If we don't pray, it is only because we are sinfully proud and God will resist us for being proud (James 4:6). To not pray is to tell God that we can make it on our own and don't need His help.

This is one of the most important articles I've ever written. I marvel when I think about these truths. No Christian will have any excuse at the Judgment Seat Of Christ for not praying as they should. You don't need to pray long, just pray. You can break apart your prayers and fellowship with the Lord throughout the day, here and there. His Holy Spirit lives inside every believer's body (1st Corinthians 3:16-17; Romans 8:9). In a day's time, you'd be surprised how much total time you can accumulate in prayer, if you'll pray continually. Of course, this means having God and the things of Christ on our mind throughout the day in all we do. Christianity is not about becoming religious only on Sundays; but rather, abiding in Christ continually and allowing His Words to abide in us as John 15:1-7 teaches.

God says don't pray long for your needs. He further helps us by giving us a guideline to follow. And if that's not encouragement enough to pray, the Lord says that we can space apart our prayers throughout the day. And then God assures us that even though we often don't know what to pray, He does and His Holy Spirit will intercede on our behalf and help us. All we have to do is put forth the effort to simply pray!!! God takes it from there. Isn't that beautiful?

Oh how God desires to answer our prayers and get His blessings to us. Please read James 4:7-17 concerning the proper attitude that every believer should have:

James 4:7-17, "Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts, ye double minded. Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to heaviness. Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you up. Speak not evil one of another, brethren. He that speaketh evil of his brother, and judgeth his brother, speaketh evil of the law, and judgeth the law: but if thou judge the law, thou art not a doer of the law, but a judge. There is one lawgiver, who is able to save and to destroy: who art thou that judgest another? Go to now, ye that say, To day or to morrow we will go into such a city, and continue there a year, and buy and sell, and get gain: Whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow. For what is your life? It is even a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away. For that ye ought to say, If the Lord will, we shall live, and do this, or that. But now ye rejoice in your boastings: all such rejoicing is evil. Therefore to him that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin."

Do you know my friend that God loves you so much that He chose to LIVE INSIDE EVERY BELIEVER as the Holy Spirit the moment we are saved and for the rest of eternity (Romans 8:9)! Literally, God wanted to live inside me and you if you are saved. If you're not a Christian, then God very much wants you to become His child (2nd Peter 3:9). It warms my soul to know that God lives in me and loves me, and has sealed me with His Holy Spirit (Ephesians 1:13; 4:30).

Persevering Prayer & Answers To Prayer

Carefully notice in Luke 11:5-10 Jesus taught about persevering prayer where we pray for OTHERS. This is where we ought to spend the greater lengths of time, because there are many people to pray for, and many spiritual as well as physical needs. Literally, God wants us to stop thinking about ourselves all the time.

In Philippians 2:5 we are told to have the mind of Christ, and in Philippians 2:4 (the Verse before) we are told that Jesus thought on the things of others. Philippians 2:4-5, "Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others. Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus." Jesus was concerned about OTHERS, not Himself. Oh, that we would learn this truth as God's children!

So when you go to pray, spend a few minutes on yourself and then spend some quality time praying for OTHERS in your life. Prayer makes a difference! If we don't care about others, then how can we reasonably expect God to cater to our selfishness. Most people pray for themselves, and that's it. Then they wonder why God doesn't answer. It's a total lack of faith. If God openly answered your prayers, then where is faith?

No, the way God works is behind the scenes, in ways unseen as Romans 1:20 teaches. It is the invisible things of God at work that we cannot see, such as the angels, God's power and the Godhead. When we pray we are looking to see God's eternal power, but the Bible says it is invisible, seen only by the things which are made. Pray my friend, and trust what you see around you as evidence that there is a God and He rewards those who diligently seek Him (Hebrews 11:6). "And it came to pass in those days, that he went out into a mountain to pray, and continued all night in prayer to God." —Luke 6:12

Since God sees what we cannot see, then we must trust Him, understanding that our prayers will often produce very different results that what we had intended. Trust the Lord, for

He cares for you (1st Peter 5:7) and has promised to guide us (Proverbs 3:5-7). Do you know that the Bible never says God will answer all our prayers? Rather, the Bible teaches that if we acknowledge God in all our ways, then He will direct our steps. Psalms 34:7, "The angel of the LORD encampeth round about them that fear him, and delivereth them."

3.11.14 Communist Cuba Has More Horsesense Than Majority Of America's Pastors (2022-11-12 11:28)

"So great is my veneration for the Bible that the earlier my children begin to read it the more confident will be my hope that they will prove useful citizens of their country and respectable members of society. I have for many years made it a practice to read through the Bible every year." —U.S. President John Quincy Adams (1767-1848)

I was so encourage back in 2018, when I learned that the government of Cuba rejected a shipment of 17,000 copies of the New International Version (NIV) of the Bible. The NIV is perverse and corrupt! In the following 1:23 hour MP3 presentation, Dr. Gail Riplinger, exposes what is wrong with the modern Bible perversions: [1]NEW AGE BIBLE VERSIONS. I'd like to say, "Thank you," to Cuba's President, Raul Castro, on behalf of born-again Christians everywhere for lifting the ban against the Bible since 2015, and most of all, for having the wisdom to recognize that the NIV is worthless! ...

I wouldn't give anyone a dime for the satanic New International Version (NIV). [8]Why would anyone use the NIV? What good is an easier-to-read road map that leads you to the WRONG place? The NIV has been secularized, as have ALL the modern Alexandrian-based Bible revisions. Look and you will see that the NIV removes nearly all mention of people "worshipping" the Lord Jesus Christ.

For example: Look at a comparison of Matthew 8:2:

> KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) - Matthew 8:2, "And, behold, there came a leper and worshipped him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean."
>
> NEW INTERNATIONAL VERSION (NIV) - Matthew 8:2, "A man with leprosy came and knelt before him and said, 'Lord, if you are willing, you can make me clean."'

There is a big difference between kneeling and worshipping! You can knee before a king without worshipping him. The Holy Bible says that the leper WORSHIPPED the Lord Jesus Christ!!! The NIV is the Devil's Bible version!

There are no errors in the King James Bible! That is a lie that the Devil's crowd cooked up to promote their modern Bibles, which are RIFE with errors, lies, and contradictions. 2nd Peter 3:16 that SAYS some scriptures are hard to understand, which the unlearned and ignorant people twist (wrest) to their destruction.

2nd Peter 3:15-17, "And account that the longsuffering of our Lord is salvation; even as our beloved brother Paul also according to the wisdom given unto him hath written unto you; As also in all his epistles, speaking in them of these things; in which are some things hard to be understood, which they that are unlearned and unstable wrest, as they do also the other scriptures, unto their own destruction. Ye therefore, beloved, seeing ye know these things before, beware lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own stedfastness."

God intended for portions of the Scripture to be difficult to grasp, requiring us to study. We live in a lazy generation, where people want all types of ridiculous things to pamper themselves. God wrote the Holy Bible to ALL men, but lazy men won't divide (dissect) it accurately. 2nd Timothy 2:15, "Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth."

And yes, Christianity is old-fashioned because, like God, it NEVER CHANGES!!! Beware of anyone who claims that we need [9]an easier-to-read Bible version. We don't! There is no place in the truth for progress and modernism. Zondervan and Nelson Publishers may be comfortable believing a lie, but don't believe their LIE. They can try to fool everyone else with their promotion of satanic New Age Bibles, but not everyone is as foolish as they are.

> "It is impossible to enslave mentally or socially a Bible-reading people. The principles of the Bible are the groundwork of human freedom." —Horace Greeley (1811-1872)

These new Bible versions are like a baby falling down the stairs, that is, you don't reach out to grab the baby only if he falls several stairs; bur rather, you reach out to grab the baby of he falls even one stair. It is not the amount of stairs that the baby falls that matters, but the fact that he is headed in the wrong direction! The same is true with the modern Bible versions. Some are worse than others, but they're ALL headed in the WRONG DIRECTION!

We need more hard-hitting preachers like Pastor Phil Kidd, who pulls no punches:

> "You know why I like the King James Bible? It'll knock the bark off you! It doesn't cut any corners. It tells it like it is, Brother! And whether you like it, lump it, bump it, or jump it; Brother, this Book, it doesn't change to fit your fancy! It's right; it's always been right! Hey, I want a Bible that'll tell it like it is! I want to live right, raise my family right, tell my grandkids how to live right! I've gotta have a Bible! I'm telling you, I am a King James man without an apology! And if you go to a church where they use, recommend, study, or quote out of anything else, you ought to get your family out of that mess, and get in a Bible-believing, fire-breathing, Baptist, church! Any preacher that'll use another Bible is a promoter of perverts! You tell 'em I said so!!! Evangelist Phil Kidd, " [10]SODOMITE STRATEGY "

Look what the NIV does to attack Christ's deity concerning the woman caught in the act of adultery:

KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) - John 8:10-11, "When Jesus had lifted up himself, and saw none but the woman, he said unto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee? She said, No man, Lord. And Jesus said unto her, Neither do I condemn thee: go, and sin no more."

NEW INTERNATIONAL VERSION (NIV) - John 8:10-11, "Jesus straightened up and asked her, 'Woman, where are they? Has no one condemned you?' 'No one, sir,' she said. "Then neither do I condemn you," Jesus declared. 'Go now and leave your life of sin."'

They dishonestly changed the word "Lord" to "Sir." The term "Sir" is used to express politeness and respect, but the word "Lord" (kurious) means that Jesus is supreme in authority, that is, God. Again, we see that there are drastic differences in word meanings. The NIV at every opportunity butchers the Word of God to weaken, diminish, attack and eliminate the deity of Christ, the Godhead and the preeminence of Jesus Christ!

Biblica, the producers of the ungodly NIV, openly admit that their goal in translating the NIV was to avoid "sectarian bias" and produce a new international version for the world (found in the introduction to the NIV). Biblica invited over 70 religious denominations to get their input, to what what changes they required to support their new "version." The result is a watered-down, weakened, tampered-with, satanic rendition of the Word of God, which lacks authoritativeness and is worthless!

"The Bible is worth all other books which have ever been printed." —Patrick Henry (1736-1799)

I am not endorsing the Cuban government. I know they are historically Communist and are infamous for persecution of Christians; but I praise God for the recent wise decision of the Cuban government, to tell the publishers of the NIV that they can stick their weak Bible versions where the sun don't shine! Amen and amen! THE END

3.11.15 The Children Of This World Are Wiser Than God’s Children (2022-11-12 13:00)

Luke 16:8, “And the lord commended the unjust steward, because he had done wisely: for the children of this world are in their generation wiser than the children of light*.”

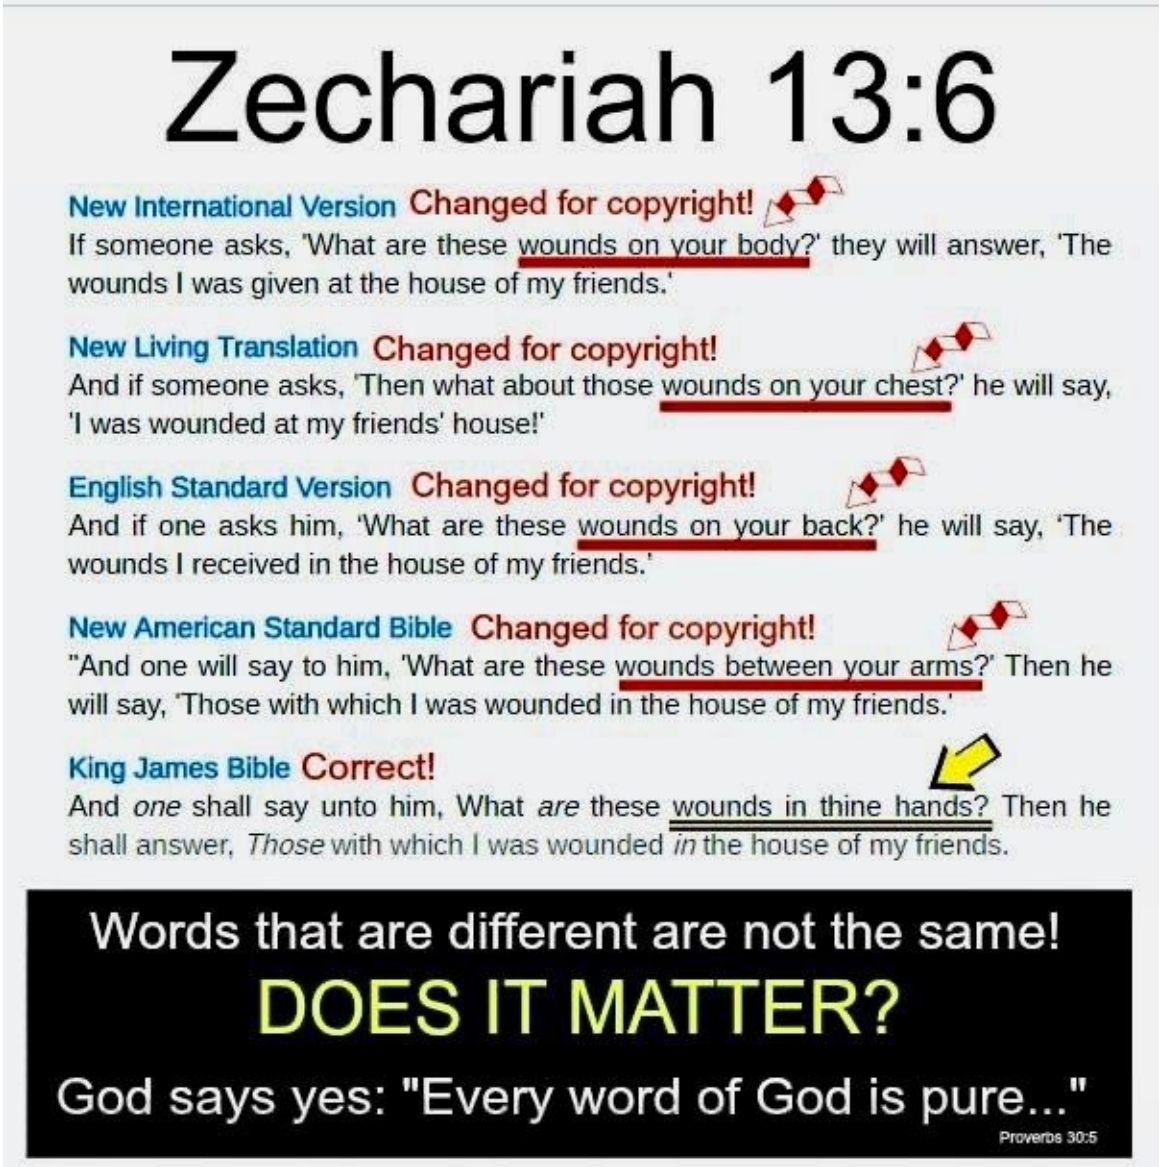
This Bible verse always intrigues me. How ironic and disturbing that God’s redeemed, born-again saints, could actually be less wise than the heathen world. Sadly, it is true!

[1]



A perfect example is the insane Bible publishing nightmare in the United States. Literally, since 1881 when Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort produced their corrupt Geek text: “The New Testament in the Original Greek,” HUNDREDS of so-called “new and improved” English Bible revisions have been published over the past 141 years. Is God the author of confusion? Not according to 1st Corinthians 14:33, “For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints.” God is the author of peace in ALL the churches of the saints, because confusion causes turmoil. The Apostle Paul’s friends and the disciples were afraid that the confused mob of people would kill Paul, so they begged him not to go in...

> Acts 19:30-32, “And when Paul would have entered in unto the people, the disciples suffered him not. And certain of the chief of Asia, which were his friends, sent unto him, desiring him that he would not adventure himself into the theatre. Some therefore cried one thing, and some another: for the assembly was confused; and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together.
> **”

An honest thinking person need only look and compare the different Bible revisions today, to see the utter confusion and insanity that exists in churches everywhere today...

master Greek text of the New Testament seeking to ascertain the original wording of the original documents), allegedly compiled from some of the oldest New Testament fragments and texts that had been discovered at the time. The two editors worked together for 28 years to finish their new Greek text.

But dear reader, you DON’T have to be a Greek scholar to see that something is VERY wrong with Westcott and Hort’s new Greek perversion of God’s Word. Simply open any new Bible revisions to John 3:16 and look to see if they’ve removed the word "begotten." If you don't see that very important word, please throw your fake Bible into the trash where it belongs. Jesus is the only begotten Son of God, which means He is God's only biological child, making Him God as well. Not just a god, but God almighty, deity in every way just like God the Father. John 20:31 teaches that to get to Heaven, you must believe that Jesus is the Son of God.

If you are born-again, then you are an adopted child of God. So in fact Jesus is not God's only son, He is God's only begotten Son. John 1:12-13, "But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name: Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God." So that means all of the modern Bibles are Devil's Bibles, because they pervert the truth that Jesus is God's only BEGOTTEN Son. They also remove the word begotten from 1st John 3:16, and other passages as well.

Another good example of how the children of the world are wiser than the child of light is communist Cuba. When Fidel Castro (1926-2016) was in power, Bibles were banned in Cuba for over 50 years. But when Castro died in 2016 and his brother Raul succeeded him, he allowed the people to read the Bible again. But in 2018 the Cuban government rejected a shipment of 17,000 New International Version (NIV) Bibles. Amen and amen! Wow! Cuba has more Horsesense than 95 % of America's dummy pastors today! Jeremiah 5:31, " The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bear rule by their means; and my people love to have it so: and what will ye do in the end thereof "

Another example of how foolish believers are today, is that they continue to vote for ungodly people. There are millions of heathen people who are smart enough not to vote for evil. Christians all across the United States voted for Donald Trump, who made his billions from strip clubs, gambling casinos and taverns. That is not godly success! Mr. Trump was elected in 2016 and did mnay things to try to restore our nation to the economic greatness it once had. But unfortunately this mess cannot be remedied in just 4 years, especially when you have ungodly Democrats who are hellbent on ruining what's left of this nation.

While in office, President Trump wickedly openly called for the decriminalization of the sin of homosexuality worldwide. Promoting the LGBTQ movement is a Satanic agenda of the New World Order! For that reason and others I have never trusted Donald Trump, even though I do greatly admire him as a businessman and a strong leader. If reelected in 2024, I fully anticipate that Mr. Trump will take America to war. The churches will follow him to the ends of the earth if they have to, which makes Mr. Trump very dangerous if he gets reelected. Nothing will impede whatever he decides to do. [5]As Professor G. Edward Griffin wisely speculates, Donald Trump could be controlled resistance, merely manipulating the American people. Only time will tell dear friend. But I am against the foolish idea that Christians should vote for the lesser of two evils. Since when are we even supposed to vote for evil?

Christians are so gullible, naïve, ignorant, selfish, and foolish today. Pensacola Christian College (PCC) comes to mind as being part of the problem today. The secular world is wiser than PCC. PCC and their pathetic Campus Church are guilty of many evils. One evil is that they wickedly bid Godspeed to false prophet Ken Ham, who preaches another gospel...

[6]The FALSE GOSPEL of ANSWERS IN GENESIS and KEN HAM

According to ANSWERS IN GENESIS, faith in Jesus Christ is NOT enough to get to Heaven. They say that there is a SECOND thing that you must do, which is to turn away from your sins and wicked ways. That is NOT what the Holy Bible teaches to get to Heaven. Turning away from your sinful ways is WORKS!!! SHAME on Pensacola Christian College for promoting these wicked false prophets!

Also, PCC wickedly bids Godspeed to the [7]accursed Bob Jones University camp, who preach hardcore Calvinism (aka, Lordship Salvation). 2nd John 1:11, "

For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds.

" PCC and their Campus Church pastors have much blood on their hands, for encouraging the Satanic cult at BJU, and their wicked graduates on Guam at the shameful Harvest Baptist Church (who promote Dr. Steve Pettit on Guam, and teach the same damnable heresy as BJU). Sadly, nobody gives a damn at PCC or BJU, and for me telling THE TRUTH, both PCC and BJU have banned me from attending their churches.

I have been banned since 2014 from attending Harvest Baptist Church on Guam anymore. Their wicked pastor Marty Herron put it in writing (for which God will punish him). I finally moved away from Guam to Pensacola, Florida in 2021. Sadly, I learned my first week while attending Campus Church at PCC, that they are sinfully in bed partaking of spiritual whoredom with the accursed Calvinist Bob Jones University camp on Guam. IT IS WICKEDNESS!!!

I have also now been banned in writing since August 2, 2022 from attending Campus Church at PCC anymore. I am outside the gate with Jesus because I TOLD THE TRUTH that PCC ought not be supporting the ungodly Bob Jones crowd. But they are all INDIFFERENT toward the truth and right doctrine. THE LOVE OF MONEY has blinded them all! Jesus indicted the Laodicean church in Revelation 3:15-17, calling them naked, wretched and blind in their perverse self-praise of themselves and relishing in their worldly prosperity. Such are the perverse religious cults at BJU and PCC today. Birds of a feather flock together!

I showed you the ungodly video from ANSWERS IN GENESIS earlier (which is Ken Ham's ministry), and that PCC wickedly supports them. When I attended Campus Church at PCC in 2021, their wicked pastors played Ken Ham's entire Young Earth Creation (YEC) series all summer long for their Wednesday evening Bible study time. What wickedness and gross pastoral incompetence!!! I am so sick of heresy in the Bible colleges and churches today!!! If you think that dinosaurs lived with humans 5,000 years ago, you're in the same wacky group today who still insist that the earth is flat! Honestly, if you agree with the Young Earth Creation (YEC) camp, then you are not as wise as the world is. An unsaved geologist knows that the earth is very old, billions of years old. Only religious nuts, like Miss Ellen G. White (Seventh-Day Adventism) who invented the YEC hoax, think that dinosaurs and mankind dwelt together 5,000 years ago. Pastor Max D. Younce exposes the YEC hoax...

The Fallacy of Young Earth Creationism

Dear reader, how smart are you? Jesus said that in His generation that the children of the world (lost sinners) were wiser than the children of light (the saints). Things haven't improved in 2,000 years! The churches are being led by knucklehead pastors who lack good sense. Jeremiah 10:21, "For the pastors are become brutish, and have not sought the LORD: therefore they shall not prosper, and all their flocks shall be scattered."

3.11.16 Forgiveness Is A Choice (2022-11-13 05:16)

Matthew 18:21-22, "Then came Peter to him, and said, Lord, how oft shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? till seven times? Jesus saith unto him, I say not unto thee, Until seven times: but, Until seventy times seven."

I was reading some articles online while researching the now defunct P. T. L. (Praise The Lord Club), which was once even more popular than today's The 700 Club (both of which were of the Devil). Yet, I read some things that Tammy Faye Bakker (1942-2007) said about forgiveness that I think are correct and worthy of repeating. If you have been hurt by someone, or harbor hatred in your hurt toward those who have attacked or wronged you, then perhaps you might find a word of help and comfort in the following words by Tammy Faye. She died of cancer in 2007. This is an interview by the pro-homosexual magazine Metro Weekly with Tammy Faye Bakker...

Tammy Faye Bakker was 100 % Correct on Forgiveness

Despite the bad things everyone says about Tammy Faye, and the shame she brought upon the name of Christ; there is a silver lining and something we can all learn from her about forgiving those who hurt us...

MW: How does one come to a state of forgiveness?

TAMMY FAYE: It's a choice. You ask God to help you and then you just make the choice. It's not worth living in unforgiveness. I have a saying that forgiveness is the greatest gift you can give yourself. And I gave myself that gift of forgiveness with the help of God. I forgave everyone that hurt me. Jerry Falwell, Jimmy Swaggart, I forgave all those people.

MW: But can gays people forgive a man like Falwell who has persecuted us so vehemently?

TAMMY FAYE: It's a choice, that's all it is. Forgiveness is a choice. And it's a choice you ask God to help you keep. It doesn't happen overnight. Forgiveness is an ongoing battle. And sometimes when I see Jerry Falwell my heart hurts. But then I say to God, "God I forgave him, I gave Jerry Falwell to you, you take care of him," and then I'm okay again. So he's in God's hands, he's not in Tammy Faye's hands.

MW: Clearly forgiveness is an important component of your life.

TAMMY FAYE: Yes. It's the only way you can have true happiness because unforgiveness eats you up inside. It's like an acid and it will truly make you sick. I think unforgiveness has been more people's problem than anything in the world. Because when you see somebody you are angry at, your tummy tenses up, your blood pressure goes up, your fists clench, you go into a different mode. And that's not good for the body. So people should forgive just to save themselves.

MW: Is there anyone you don't love?

TAMMY FAYE: No, not really. I love humanity. I have a heart for humanity. Ever since I was a little girl, I always wanted to help people.

MW: What about Osama bin Laden, you can't possibly love him.

TAMMY FAYE: Well, God says I have to. I don't like what he's doing at all, but God says that if we're going to serve Him, we love them through the lord. In our own selves, it's not possible to love bin Laden. That's not possible. I hate – I detest – what he is doing. But knowing that Jesus would have loved him, then I need to ask God to help me love him, too. END OF INTERVIEW.

Please understand that I do not endorse Tammy Faye Bakker. She was a disgusting and rebellious wicked person, who openly supported the LGBTQ community as a so-called female evangelist. Tammy and Jim Bakker's son has publicly affirmed that he is a homosexual. You couldn't make this bizarre stuff up! Jim and Tammy Bakker spent their lives making a mockery of Christianity, blaspheming the Word of God in so many ways. The Charismatic movement is of the Devil, with their demonic speaking-in-tongues, fraudulent healing and teaching that salvation can be lost. Well, if God's free gift of salvation could be lost (which is absolutely cannot once you have been born-again), Jim and Tammy Bakker lost it a long time ago!!!

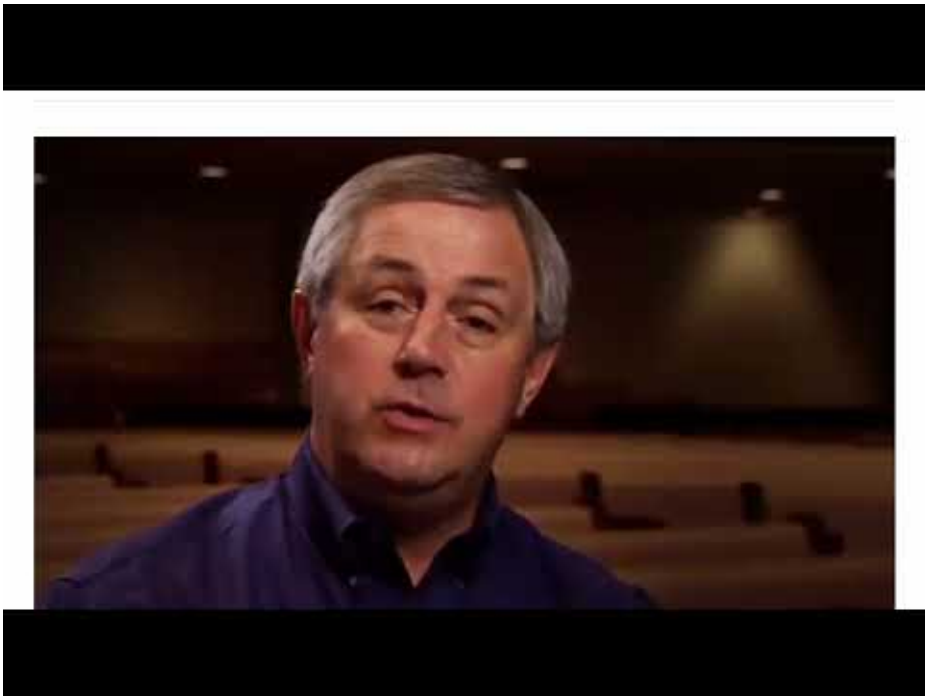
Homosexuality is a horrible sin, which God considers an abomination (Leviticus 20:13). SHAME on anyone who partakes, affirms, approves, accepts or attempts to justify in any way the wickedness of homosexuality! Albeit, Tammy's views on forgiveness are very well spoken. Forgiveness is a CHOICE. It is a choice that we all have to make at various times in our life.

We have all been hurt by other people.

Forgiveness

is not for the person who hurt you, it is for you dear friend, so that you can move on with your life. Forgiveness is placing an offence of another person into God's hands for judgment, knowing that God has promised to avenge all evil (Romans 12:19-21). If it is important to you, I assure you that it is important to God (1st Peter 5:7). It may be something as seemingly insignificant as someone's intentional hurtful words spoken to you, or someone cruelly giving you the silent treatment, or a hateful pastor who refuses to allow you to attend their church, which are all serious forms of abuse.

I assure you that God sees those abuses (Hebrews 4:13; Matthew 7:1-2).



No one ever gets away with anything. If someone said or did something (or didn't do something) that hurt you, even if just to hurt your feelings, God knows that person's heart and will hold them accountable (Matthew 12:36; Proverbs 24:12). When people hurt me (and they do quite often), I just place the matter into God's hands to deal with those horrible people, and I work even harder for the Lord in my ministry.

Jesus warned in Matthew 25:40 and 45 that what people do to you and me as saints, they did it to Jesus. That includes what rotten Christians who are carnal do to hurt other believers. I have been banned from attending Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College (PCC) by their carnally-minded, immature, spoiled rotten, bratty children for pastors. All I can do is place them into God's hands for judgment, while they wickedly continue to bid Godspeed to false prophets like Steve Pettit (president of Bob Jones University), Ken Ham (Answers In Genesis ministry), and the Lordship Salvation cult at the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam.

Senior pastor at PCC, Jeff Redlin is a devil, who gets paid over $100,000 a year, and couldn't care less about contending for the Christian faith (Jude 1:3). My blood is on their hands at PCC, because I told THE TRUTH, and they banned me from coming back to Campus Church because I exposed them. SHAME on the PCC camp! SHAME on PCC for bidding Godspeed to Calvinists! I'm just getting started exposing the rotten PCC cult!!! They sinfully refuse to forgive me and allow me to attend church anymore, which shows how hateful they are as an academic institution which doesn't care about individual people. Look at what PCC promotes! PCC plays Ken Ham's videos at their Campus Church to their victimized members and students. Kindly said, Ken Ham is a hellbound infidel...

3.11.17 Pastor John K. Jenkins Sr. Preaches Damnable Heresy! (2022-11-14 00:20)

Galatians 1:6-9, "I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel:

Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.

But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.

As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed.

I am heartbroken to hear Pastor Jenkins Sr. of the First Baptist Church of Glenarden, Maryland, preach damnable heresy. The following sermon is titled: “EVANGELISM,” which was preached on November 18, 2018.

At [1]point # 3 in his sermon (17:19 time in video), Pastor Jenkins corrupts the Gospel, adding works...

> “Believe and repent. Those two things actually go together. You’ve got to be willing to turn away from the way you’ve been living your life. You’ve gotta make those two things go together to regenerate you.” [emphasis added] —
>
> Pastor John K. Jenkins Sr., 18:00 minutes time in video

That is NOT the Gospel taught in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4. That is not the answer Paul and Silas gave the Philippian jailer in Acts 16:30-31. That is not the answer Jesus gave in John 6:28-29. Pastor Jenkins is preaching a counterfeit plan of salvation that cannot produce the new birth. Here is the full sermon if you want to watch it...

Damnable Heresy Being Preached by Pastor John K. Jenkins Sr.

Nowhere in the inspired Word of God are we taught to "[2]be willing to turn away the way you’ve been living your life" to get to Heaven, which would be WORKS! I pray that Pastor Jenkins will repent of his false repentance. Former Moody Church pastor, Pastor Harry Ironside (1876-1951) gets repentance 100 % correct:

> “The Gospel is not a call to repentance, or to amendment of our ways, to make restitution for past sins, or to promise to do better in the future. These things are proper in their place, but they do not constitute the Gospel; for the Gospel is not > good advice to be obeyed, it is good news to be believed. Do not make the mistake then of thinking that the Gospel is a call to duty or a call to reformation, a call to better your condition, to behave yourself in a more perfect way than you have been doing in the past … Nor is the Gospel a demand that you give up the world, that you give up your sins, that you break off bad habits, and try to cultivate good ones. You may do all these things, and yet never believe the Gospel and consequently never be saved at all." SOURCE: "[3]What Is The Gospel?"

Amen and amen! Tragically, at least 90 % of America's Baptist pastors today are preaching another gospel, and the people in those messed up churches are okay with it! Jeremiah 5:31, "The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bear rule by their means; and my people love to have it so: and what will ye do in the end thereof?" Dr. Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) gets Bible repentance for salvation 100 % correct...

Pastor Curtis Hutson: I Hate The Repent Of Sins HERESY!

What Must I Do To Be Saved?

(Pastor Curtis Hutson, 1975)

Dear friend, there are NOT two different Gospels. The Apostle Paul makes this truth abundantly clear in our text passage of Scripture from Galatians 1:6-9. Pastor Curtis Hutson teaches that you don't have to give up one sin to be saved, Christ cam to die on a cross for our sins to pay for them! Yet, Pastor John K. Jenkins Sr. clearly teaches that there can be no regeneration (the new birth) until you first

"[4]be willing to turn away the way you've been living your life" to get to Heaven. I triple-dog dare you to show me that bullcrap Pastor Jenkins is preaching from the inspired Holy Bible! You cannot dear reader.

Ironically, Pastor Jenkins says in the preceding sermon that you've got to preach the truth, yet he doesn't even have THE TRUTH! Pastor Jenkins bloviates that he is not ashamed to preach DAMNABLE HERESY, lies that will mess up people's lives and send them to Hell forever!!! You DON'T have to believe AND repent to be born-again. Repentance is automatically included with believing the Gospel.

Mark 1:15, "And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel." The Greek word for "repent" here simple means

"to think differently." The Bible is simply teaching us to think differently to BELIEVE THE GOSPEL to be saved. The only requirement to be saved is to know what you're being saved from, the consequences of sin. Romans 6:23, "For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord."

Pastor Jenkins used to be doctrinally sound, but then he started hanging around corrupt neo-evangelicals. One healthy person plus one sick person always equals two sick people! The Bible commands us to " come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord

" (2nd Corinthians 6:17b). You cannot change a corrupt group, which is why God commands us to leave that group! I am seriously doubting if John K. Jenkins Sr. is saved!!! Pastor Jenkins is preaching the same damnable false meaning of repentance as the Roman Catholic cult, Church of Christ cult, [5]Mormon cult, [6]Jehovah's Witness cult and [7]Seventh-Day Adventist cult. If you think that repentance means turning away from a lifestyle of sinning, you are in harmony with the Satanic cults!!!

In sharp contrast, here again are the helpful doctrinally sound words of Pastor Harry Ironside:

> "Which comes first, repentance or faith? In Scripture we read, 'Repent ye, and believe the gospel.' Yet we find true believers exhorted to 'repent, and do the first works.' So intimately are the two related that you cannot have one without the other. The man who believes God repents; the repentant soul puts his trust in the Lord when the Gospel is revealed to him. Theologians may wrangle over this, but the fact is, no man repents until the Holy Spirit produces repentance in his soul through the truth. No man believes the Gospel and rests in it for his own salvation until he has judged himself as a needy sinner before God. And this is repentance." ([8]Except Ye Repent, p. 16) [emphasis added]

Having said all that, I think Pastor Jenkins is sincere. He is a very popular and beloved man in his church and the black community. God knows that black people today need better role models that Dennis Rodman, Kanye and Creflo Dollar. But d ear reader, if a man is wrong on repentance you simply cannot trust him on anything! Biblically, the man who BELIEVES on the Lord Jesus Christ has repented. [9]Repentance is not a separate act from placing your childlike faith in Jesus Christ as your personal Savior.

RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!!

3.11.18 It Feels Good To Be Right With God (2022-11-14 17:56)

Proverbs 28:1, “

The wicked flee when no man pursueth: but the righteous are bold as a lion.

1st John 3:21, “ Beloved, if our heart condemn us not, then have we confidence toward God.”

I think it is safe to say that anyone who has been saved for a length of time, knows the pain and frustration that comes as a consequence of being backslidden. Proverbs 14:14, “The backslider in heart shall be filled with his own ways: and a good man shall be satisfied from himself.” A good man shall be satisfied from himself. This is when a Christian man has matured in Christ to the point where he prioritizes pleasing God above his own ambitions, desires, lusts and thoughts. This man lives by principles, not by his own sinful passions and whims. A good man puts others before himself, as did Jesus (Philippians 2:3-5).

I decided long ago that I like being on the right side of the fence between right and wrong. It’s not a fun thing to be running from God’s will for one’s life.

Likewise, it feels good not having to hide anything from the police. That is part of what the Bible means in Proverbs 28:1, “

The wicked flee when no man pursueth: but the righteous are bold as a lion.

” If you have owned and driven your own auto vehicles for as many years as I have (almost 40 years), you’ve probably experienced a few times when your city sticker or license plates expired. I admit that I’ve had that happen to me a couple times, for one reason or another. Usually I just forgot. In the old days you couldn’t go online from the comfort of your home, to the Department of Motor Vehicles’ (DMV) website, to easily renew your stuff online. You’d have to stand in a long line of people waiting for hours!

So on a few occasions I had delayed going to the DMV, for whatever reason, and my tags expired for my plates. I remember that sick feeling when a police car would pull up behind me, wondering if he would notice that my plates had expired. I was wrong not to renew my plates in a timely manner. I have made sure now for several years not to let my tags expire, so I can feel full confidence when driving my vehicle in public. I have nothing to hide.

That was when I was younger. I eventually decided that I would never put myself in a comprising situation again, where I needed to fear the law because I procrastinated to do something that I was supposed to do.

As I type I am legal beagle! I have renewed my license plates in the city of Pensacola until 2024. Amen! So whenever a cop is behind me in traffic, I feel as bold as a lion.

The wicked flee when no man pursueth: but the righteous are bold as a lion.

” What a horrible way for some people to live, having to always look over their shoulder to see if the police are watching, or if they might inspect your car for drugs, illegal firearms or God forbid, bodies. When I drive my vehicle, I am careful to keep the speed limit, so that I can drive with confidence that I am not going to be ticketed for speeding. I hope I don’t jinx myself by saying this...lol, but I haven’t had a vehicle citation of any kind in over 20 years of driving. Praise the Lord! That was no coincidence, I worked really hard to achieve that!

I remember many decades ago in Chicago, that our church operated a Sunday school bus route on Chicago’s northwest side (one of many). There was a particular big apartment building on our bus route where we visited several families on Saturdays, and then took the children to church to learn about Jesus on Sundays. The building was a known drug infested place, with some shady tenants living there. In the big city we called such landlords, “slumlords.” Those are not nice places to visit, but Jesus told us in Luke 14:23b, “Go out into the highways and hedges, and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled.

Anyway, one of the teenage girls who rode our church bus and lived in that neighborhood (across the street), was standing outside one Saturday afternoon. Several police cars suddenly pulled up with lights flashing and sirens blaring. About two dozen residents and others outside the building ran, some frantically, to escape the police. But the teenage girl who rode our church bus didn’t run. A police officer asked her: “Why aren’t you running?” Without hesitation she replied: “I’m not doing anything wrong so why should I run?” Amen. That is what the Bible means in

Proverbs 28:1, “

The wicked flee when no man pursueth: but the righteous are bold as a lion.

” The other people fled, afraid of the police, but the police hadn’t come for them, it was a different matter. They were fleeing when no man pursueth, worried because of the illegal activities in their life. If you’re not breaking any laws, and not doing anything illegal, immoral or unwise, then you can be BOLD AS A LION with integrity, and that feels good dear friend.

It feels good knowing that no one can point a finger at you, to justly accuse you of doing something wrong or illegal. 1st Peter 4:15-16, “

But let none of you suffer as a murderer, or as a thief, or as an evildoer, or as a busybody in other men’s matters. Yet if any man suffer as a Christian, let him not be ashamed; but let him glorify God on this behalf.”

Dear friend, it feels good to KNOW that my name is written in Heaven according to the Bible. Is your name recorded there too? Luke 10:20, “ Notwithstanding in this rejoice not, that the spirits are subject unto you; but rather rejoice, because your names are written in heaven.” I know that my name is written in the Lamb’s Book of Life in Heaven because I have obeyed the Gospel, simply by BELIEVING IT!

1st Corinthians 1:21, “ For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe.” ...

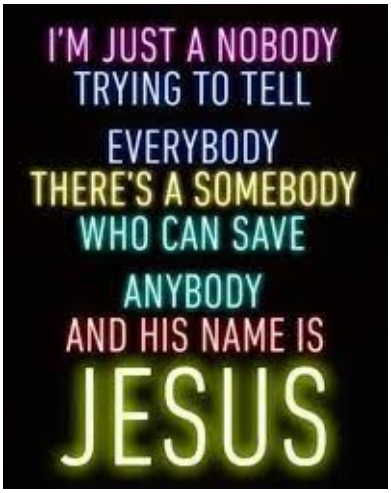
My hope is built on nothing less
Than Jesus' blood and righteousness;
I dare not trust the sweetest frame,
But wholly lean on Jesus' name.
On Christ, the solid Rock, I stand;
All other ground is sinking sand,
All other ground is sinking sand.

I read a compelling passage of Scripture today:

> Galatians 5:5-10, "For we through the Spirit wait for the hope of righteousness by faith. For in Jesus Christ neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision; but faith which worketh by love. Ye did run well; who did hinder you that ye should not obey the truth? This persuasion cometh not of him that calleth you. A little leaven leaveneth the whole lump. I have confidence in you through the Lord, that ye will be none otherwise minded: but he that troubleth you shall bear his judgment, whosoever he be."

The Bible says "hope" simply because no one can prove that the Bible is true. I certainly BELIEVE with all my heart, mind and soul that it is, but at the end of the day my faith is really hope. I don't hope that I will have eternal life; but rather, I have a hope of eternal life. I am trusting the promises which God has recorded in His Holy Bible. Titus 1:2, "In hope of eternal life, which God, that cannot lie, promised before the world began;"

The only way for any lost sinner to be saved is to OBEY THE TRUTH of the Gospel. And you obey the Gospel by BELIEVING IT! The "Gospel" is the "GOOD NEWS" of Jesus' death on the cross, His burial and bodily resurrection three days later (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). All that God requires of you to get to Heaven is that you admit your SINNERSHIP and accept the SAVIOR. It is that simple. You and I are guilty sinners for breaking God's Ten Commandments (Exodus 20), which is why God sent His precious only begotten Son into the world to die and pay our massive debt of sin; so that we wouldn't have to burning in the Lake of Fire, which is the second death (Revelation 21:8).



We are all guilty of violating God's Commandments. 1st John 1:10, "If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us." No one has ever been saved who refused to acknowledge being a guilty sinner in God's sight. You've got to know what you're being saved from, which is death

(Revelation 14:11; 20:11-15, 21:8)

. The wages of our sinning is death (Romans 6:23).

Life is short, Hell is hot and eternity is a long time. It feels good knowing that I am not going to suffer in Hell forever, because my hope is solely resting in the blessed Lord Jesus Christ as my Savior (John 1:12-13). Jesus is the only begotten Son of God, the Christ (John 20:31). Jesus is precious!!! Thank you for reading dear friend.

3.11.19 What Is The Gospel? (2022-11-16 12:59)

"Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the Gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; by which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; and that He was buried, and that He rose again the third day according to the scriptures." (1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

[2]Pastor Harry Ironside (1876-1951)

It might seem almost a work of supererogation to answer a question like this. We hear the word, "Gospel" used so many times. People talk of this and of that as being "as true as the Gospel," and I often wonder what they really mean by it.

First I should like to indicate what it is not.

THE GOSPEL IS...

Not The Bible

In the first place, the Gospel is not the Bible. Often when I inquire, "What do you think the Gospel is?" people reply, "Why, it is the Bible, and the Bible is the Word of God." Undoubtedly the Bible is the Word of God, but there is a great deal in that Book that is not Gospel.

"The wicked shall be turned into Hell with all the nations that forget God." That is in the Bible, and it is terribly true; but it is not Gospel.

"It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God." That is in the Bible, but it is not the Gospel.

Our English word, "gospel" just means the "good spell," and the word "spell," is the old Anglo-Saxon word for, "tidings", the good tidings, the good news. The original word translated. "Gospel," which we have taken over into the English with little alteration is the word, "evangel," and it has the same meaning, the good news. The Gospel is God's good news for sinners. The Bible contains the Gospel, but there is a great deal in the Bible which is not Gospel.

Not The Commandments

The Gospel is not just any message from God telling man how he should behave. "What is the Gospel?" I asked a man this question some time ago, and he answered, "Why I should say it is the Ten Commandments and the Sermon on the Mount, and I think if a man lives up to them he is all right." Well, I fancy he would be; but did you ever know anybody who lived up to them? The Sermon on the Mount demands a righteousness which no unregenerate man has been able to produce. The law is not the Gospel; it is the very antitheses of the Gospel. In fact, the law was given by God to show men their need of the Gospel .

"The law," says the Apostle Paul, speaking as a Jewish convert, "was our schoolmaster to bring us to Christ. But after that Christ is come we are no longer under the schoolmaster."

Not Repentance

The Gospel is not a call to repentance, or to amendment of our ways, to make restitution for past sins, or to promise to do better in the future. These things are proper in their place, but they do not constitute the Gospel; for the Gospel is not good advice to be obeyed, it is good news to be believed. Do not make the mistake then of thinking that the Gospel is a call to duty or a call to reformation, a call to better your condition, to behave yourself in a more perfect way than you have been doing in the past.

Not Giving Up The World

Nor is the Gospel a demand that you give up the world, that you give up your sins, that you break off bad habits, and try to cultivate good ones. You may do all these things, and yet never believe the Gospel and consequently never be saved at all.

THERE ARE SEVEN DESIGNATIONS OF THE GOSPEL in the New Testament, but over and above all these, let me draw your attention to the fact that when this blessed message is mentioned, it is invariably accompanied by the definite article. Over and over and over again in the New Testament we read of the Gospel. It is the Gospel not a Gospel. People tell us there are a great many different Gospels; but there is only ONE. When certain teachers came to the Galatians and tried to turn them away from the simplicity that was in Christ Jesus by teaching "another Gospel, "the apostle said that it was a different gospel, but not another; for there is none other than the Gospel. It is downright exclusive; it is God's revelation to sinful man.

Not Comparative Religion

The scholars of this world talk of the Science of Comparative Religions, and it is very popular now-a-days to say, "We cannot any longer go to heathen nations and preach to them as in the days gone by, because we are learning that their religions are just as good as ours, and the thing to do now is to share with them, to study the different religions, take the good out of them all, and in this way lead the world into a sense of brotherhood and unity."

So in our great universities and colleges men study this Science of Comparative Religions, and they compare all these different religious systems one with another. There is a Science of Comparative Religions, but the Gospel is not one of them. All the different religions in the world may well be studied comparatively, for at rock bottom they are all alike; they all set men at trying to earn his own salvation. They may be called by different names, and the things that men are called to do maybe different in each case, but they all set men trying to save their own souls and earn their way into the favor of God. In this they stand in vivid contrast with the Gospel, for the Gospel is that glorious message that tells us what God has done for us in order that guilty sinners maybe saved.

THE SEVEN DESIGNATIONS OF THIS GOSPEL are called...

1. The Gospel Of The Kingdom, and when I use that term I am not thinking particularly of any dispensational application, but of this blessed truth that it is only through believing the Gospel that men are born into the Kingdom of God; We sing: "A ruler once came to Jesus by night, To ask Him the way of salvation and light; The Master made answer in words true and plain, 'ye must be born again.' " But neither Nicodemus , nor you, nor I, could ever bring this about ourselves. We had nothing to with our first birth, and can have nothing to do with our second birth. It must be the work of God, and it is wrought through the Gospel. That is why the Gospel is called the Gospel of the Kingdom, for, "Except a man be born again he cannot see the Kingdom of God" (John 3:3,7). "Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the Word of God, which liveth and abideth forever. . . And this is the word which by the Gospel is preached unto you" (1 Peter 1:23-25. Every where that Paul and his companion apostles went they preached the Gospel of the Kingdom of God, and they showed that the only way to get into that Kingdom was by a second birth, and that the only way whereby the second birth could be brought about was through believing the Gospel. It is the Gospel of the Kingdom. It also called because God is the source of it, and it is altogether of Himself. No man ever thought of a Gospel like this. The very fact that all the religions of the world set man to try to work for his own salvation indicates the fact that no man would ever have dreamed of such a Gospel as that which is revealed in this Book. It came from the heart of God; it was God who "so loved the world that He gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life." "In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because that God sent His only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through Him. Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that He first loved us, and sent His Son to be the propitiation for our sins" (1 John 4:9,10). And because it is the Gospel of God, God is very jealous of it. He wants it kept pure. He does not want it mixed with any of man's theories or laws; He does not want it mixed up with religious ordinances or anything of that kind. The Gospel is God's own pure message to sinful man. God grant that you and I may receive it as in very truth the Gospel of God. And then it is called

2. The Gospel Of God,

3. The Gospel Of His Son

Not merely because the Son went everywhere preaching the Gospel, but because He is the theme of it. "When it pleased God," says the apostle, "who called me by His grace, to reveal His Son in me that I might preach Him among the nations; immediately I conferred not with flesh and blood" (Gal. 1:15,16). "We preach Christ crucified . . . the power of God, and the wisdom of God" (1 Cor. 1:23,24). No man preaches the Gospel who is not exalting the Lord Jesus. It is God's wonderful message about His Son. How often I have gone to meetings where they told me I would hear the Gospel, and instead of that I have heard some bewildered preacher talk to a bewildered audience about everything and anything, but the Lord Jesus Christ. The Gospel has to do with nothing else but Christ. It is the Gospel of God's Son. And so, linked with this it is called

4. The Gospel Of Christ

The Apostle Peter preaching on the day of Pentecost of the risen Savior, says, "God hath made that same Jesus, whom ye have crucified, both Lord and Christ." And He speaks of Him as the anointed One, exalted at God's right hand. The Gospel is the Gospel of the Risen Christ. There would be no Gospel for sinners if Christ had not been raised. So the apostle says, "If Christ be not raised, your faith is vain; ye are yet in your sins" (1 Cor. 15:17). A great New York preacher, great in his impertinence, at least, said some years ago, preaching a so-called Easter sermon, "The body of Jesus still sleeps in a Syrian tomb, but His soul goes marching on.: That is not the Gospel of Christ. We are not preaching the Gospel of a dead Christ, but of a living Christ who sits exalted at the Father's right hand, and is living to save all who put their trust in Him. That is why those of us who really know the Gospel never have any crucifixes around our churches or in our homes. The crucifix represents a dead Christ hanging languid on a cross of shame. But we are not pointing men to a dead Christ; we are preaching a living Christ. He lives exalted at God's right had, and He "saves to the uttermost all who come to God by Him." The Gospel is also called because it leaves no room whatever for human merit. It just brushes away all man's pretension to any goodness, to any desert excepting judgment. It is the Gospel of grace, and grace is God's free unmerited favor to those who have merited the very opposite. It is as opposite to works as oil is to water." If by grace," says the Spirit of God, "then it is no more works. . . but if it be of works, then is it no more grace" (Rom.11:6). People say, :But you must have both." I have heard it put like this: there was a boatman and two theologians in a boat, and one was arguing that salvation was by faith and the other by works. The boatman listened, and then said, "Let me tell you how it looks to me. Suppose I call this oar Faith and this one Works. If I pull on this one, the boat goes around; if I pull on this other one, it goes around the other way, but if I pull on both oars, I get you across the river." I have heard many preachers use that illustration to prove that we are saved by faith and works. That might do if we were going to Heaven in a rowboat, but we are not. We are carried on the shoulders of the Shepherd, who came seeking lost sheep When He finds them He carries them home on His shoulders. But there are some other names used. It is called

5. The Gospel Of The Grace Of God,

6. The Gospel Of The Glory Of God
