Jesus. God has no mother! Christ was miraculously conceived of the Holy Spirit, not by a human father. Jesus’ deity was the work of the Holy Spirit, not Mary. God blessed Mary in allowing her to provide Christ’s physical body, but the Holy Spirit gave Jesus His deity and power. This biblical doctrine is important to grasp because the New Age movement, Wicca witchcraft and feminist theology all errantly teach that God has a feminine side.

Counterfeit Bible Revisions

There are now literally HUNDREDS of English Bible revisions! The Bible teaches in 1st Corinthians 14:33 that God is not the author of confusion. Having more than one Holy Bible is confusing, let alone hundreds!

According to the American Bible Society (ABS), there are approximately 900 different English Bible versions (That is insane!):

> I am afraid no one can give you an exact number for the English translations and paraphrases of the Bible printed since Tyndale’s New Testament of 1526. In part this is due to the difficulty of determining what should be defined as a new translation as opposed to a correction or a revision of an existing translation. There is the additional question of how we should count translations that include not a complete Bible or Testament, but just a group of books or even a single book. And then, of course, there is the difficulty of sheer numbers. With all these caveats in mind, the number of printed English translations and paraphrases of the Bible, whether complete or not, is about 900. [emphasis added]
> SOURCE: [25]Number Of English Translations Of The Bible; BIBLE Q & A; December 2, 2009

I know Independent Baptist churches where multiple plans of salvation are permitted and taught. Again, what saith the Scripture? 1st Corinthians 14:11, “For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints.” Here’s [26]THE UGLY TRUTH ABOUT THE DIFFERENT BIBLE VERSIONS TODAY, WHICH ARE ANYTHING BUT HONEST SCHOLARSHIP. Please don’t become the Devil’s fool. Get an inspired King James Bible and love it, defend it, cherish it, read it, mediate on it, memorize it, proclaim it, study it, obey it and abide (live) therein!

God only authored ONE BOOK, and I believe that is the inspired King James Bible. The modern Bible revisions may seem easier to reader, but they are corrupted doctrinally, which means they are useless.

Beware of Satan’s Deception of Lordship Salvation

One of the biggest deceptions today is the Devil’s fraud of Lordship Salvation. What is this?

> “Lordship Salvation is the unsupportable and unbiblical belief that the performance of good works, the promise of good works, or the evidence of good works, must accompany faith in Christ to establish or provide evidence that such faith has resulted in eternal life.” —Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold, [27]“Jesus Versus John MacArthur”

Amen! That’s right. Lordship Salvation foolishly teaches that more than faith is required to get to Heaven. But false prophets will lie. They will claim that salvation is by faith alone, while at the same time lying, saying that you have to turn away from your sinful bad habits to e to Heaven. That is WORKS, not God’s GRACE! Most false prophets are sincerely in denial, caught between grace and works. Biblically, faith is the only righteous thing that I can do.

Anyone who says that you must “ repent of your sins

is a liar. Repentance in the Bible simply means a change of mind,

but ungodly preachers embellish the word to mean a bunch of other things, like forsaking a lifestyle of sinning (which is WORKS). That is not what repentance means. The Greek word for

“metanoeo,” which means “to think differently.” Woefully ignorant pastors ass-u-me that this word means to radically think differently so that you no longer desire to commit sin. They have inadvertently added works to grace, so that the Gospel is no longer the Gospel and cannot produce the new birth.

Here are [28]MANY more deceivers that you need to be aware of.

Have You Been Deceived?

There is no way that one blog could possible expose all of the deceptions and deceivers in the world. By the grace of God I have tried to expose many of them. It is my desire and prayer that God will continue to bless as I try to help others find the truth of God’s Word. The world is being deceived. We as true born again Christians must not remain idle in these last perilous days. Won’t you join me in contending for the faith and leading lost sinners to Jesus Christ?

Dear reader, the way to ensure that you are never deceived is to become grounded in the inspired Word of God. The Apostle Paul bragged on the Bereans in Acts 17:10-11, because they didn’t just believe what he taught them, they went home and daily searched the Scriptures to verify those things. Paul was impressed. Paul also mentioned that he was disappointed with the Thessalonicans for not searching the Scriptures. Thus, it is not surprising that in 2nd Thessalonians chapter 2, Paul rebukes them for not listening when he had previously met with them, and taught them about Christ's return. I don't know about you, but I am a Berean. I search the Scriptures daily to verify everything that I hear preachers say, to confirm if it is the truth, or if they don't know what they're talking about.

No one can deceive you friend if you do your homework. God's indwelling Holy Spirit will guide you into all truth (John 16:13).

2nd John 1:7, " For many deceivers are entered into the world, who confess not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh. This is a deceiver and an antichrist. "

5.3.11 God's Unchanging Eternal Word (2024-03-18 11:24)

Matthew 24:35, "Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away."

Mark 13:31, "

Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away.

Luke 21:33, "

Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away."

I thank God for my website ministry. I am a nobody, but God uses nobodies. I give God ALL the credit and praise for anything good accomplished through my humble ministry labors since 2002. All I've ever wanted and prayed for is to be a blessing to others for Christ. By God's grace, I've never lost the passion for my ministry work, and Lord willing hope to continue for many years to come.

When I look back to the time when I was a kid 50 years ago, I am shocked how much the United States has changed. I remember back in the 1970's that there were no credit cards, no computers, no mobile phones, no microwaves. I used to like when my Mom bought us Swanson Tv dinners that came in a metal tray (no plastic trays back then). Since we didn't have microwaves, everything was heated in convention oven.

I enjoyed the 1970's. All cars were rear-wheel drive back then, and they all got stuck in the snow, since there was no weight over the rear axle. There was no LGBTQ garbage back then. Kids were still boys and girls, and at Toys-R-Us they had a boys section of toys, and a girls section of toys, the way that it should be. There were no illegal immigrants back then. No one was living in a tent on the street homeless. There were no female cops.

There was no rap music. We didn't see crazy commercials on Tv mentioning 30 different horrible things that the latest "helpful" drug might do to hurt you. I don't even recognize this insane country today. Anyway, I can't believe that I just turned 57 years old on March 5th, 2024. I still feel like a teenager, but my body with hurting neck feels 87 sometimes...lol.

In these unprecedented perilous times of CHANGE, I am so thankful to God for giving us His UNCHANGING Word. In Matthew, Mark and Luke we find the same exact Bible verse,

Luke 21:33, "

Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away." I don't know about you, but I have anchored myself to the UNCHANGING Word of God. That is, I look to the Holy Bible for all the answers. The heathen world turns to substance abuse, sin, psychiatrists, thrills and anything else they can find, but they refuse to heed God's Word. When all else fails, read the instructions! The Bible is our guidance book.

I have suffered through much heartache, bodily afflictions, an unwanted divorce in 2006, inexplicable emotional trauma, abuse from people (especially pastors), and yet I have no complaints to God. The Lord has been very good to this undeserving sinner. THANK YOU dear reader for your continued interest in my website ministry. I appreciate that you read my blogs. Even so, come, Lord Jesus!

In closing I will share this interesting meme with you. Truly an image is worth a thousand words. It doesn't matter if we vote for Republicans or Democrats, the diabolical New World Order (NWO) is still marching forward. At the end of the next 4 to 8 years, it doesn't matter who is the next U.S. President, because at the end of their term that NWO will be further advanced. Their ultimate goal is to achieve a Godless Global Totalitarian Tyrannical Communist Police State! The coming Man of Sin (Antichrist) will head up the now forming NWO.

Thankfully, God's Word never changes. In these times when our government is changing almost daily, it is comforting to know that God's Word never changes. The churches have changed drastically from 50 years ago. Our American culture has deteriorated so much that I don't even recognize society. People change, societies change, laws change, churches change, Bible colleges change, times change, technology changes, moral values change, " but my words shall not pass away" (Luke 21:33b).

5.3.12 The Biggest Problem With Pensacola Christian College (2024-03-18 16:36)

1st Timothy 3:15, “But if I tarry long, that thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thyself in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth.”

There is nothing more important in a Christian’s life than attending a local Bible-believing church! Now, beware of counterfeit churches. Sadly, most so-called "churches" are actually cults. A "cult" is a group of people led by a man (or a group of men). In a genuine New Testament church (i.e., a church patterned after the one’s in the New Testament), the inspired Word of God is the only authority. When men are in charge you have a cult.

Having said that, kindly, Pensacola Christian College (PCC) is a religious cult. I was listening to Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) today. This Wednesday evening Bible study is titled, "[1]The Science Of Calling A Pastor." [2]Here is a brief excerpt from the study, in which Dr. Hyles explains that a church must control a school (college), and not the school control the church, or a school that operates independently of a church. When PCC was started in 1975, it was started as a mere school. There has never been a church associated with PCC. So, PCC sent their students as interns to participate in local churches around Pensacola. God never promised divine perpetuity to a college, He promise it to the Church (Matthew 16:18).

Dr. Hyles is so right! The biggest problem with PCC is that they operate independently of a New Testament church. Their tens of thousands of alumni have the wrong mindset that a college supersedes the church. PCC is cult headquarters, home base, which is wrong! PCC is nothing in God’s sight!!! Yet they hold considerable power of influence over thousands of churches nationwide. Whatever PCC supports, their lemming graduates support. What one generation tolerates, the next generation will embrace.

This makes PCC spiritually dangerous because they wickedly bid Godspeed to infidel Ken Ham, and his young earth circus (the Bible teaches an old earth - Psalms 102:25). Kindly said, [3]Pensacola Christian College is a CULT that needs to be exposed! PCC wickedly bids Godspeed to [4]Bob Jones University & [5]Ken Ham. Being in many Baptist churches today feels like being in communist North Korea, where you are not allowed to have a differing opinion from the pastor. At PCC, you must accept their [6]demonic Lordship Salvation lies or else they will excommunicate your butt.

Even today in 2024, with their newly constructed giant “Campus Church” on the property of PCC, they still don’t have a true church. “Campus Church” is a misnomer, not a real church; it is a mere chapel for PCC’s thousands of students. If Campus Church were a genuine church, then everyone would be welcome, but they are not. Their senior pastor Jeff Redlin unkindly emailed me on August 2, 2022, to let me know that my “ remarks were consequential

and I am banned from attending Campus Church. Only a cult selectively cares about people.

Pastor Jack Hyles in a million years would never tell someone that they cannot attend church. How can people hear Bible preaching if you drive them away? Dr. Hyles even permitted the wicked Hammond Times reporters to attend services at the First Baptist Church of Hammond, Indiana, because he wanted them to hear the Bible preached, in prayerful hope that they’d get saved and live for Jesus Christ. The Word of God is powerful (Hebrews 4:2).

Romans 1:16 teaches that

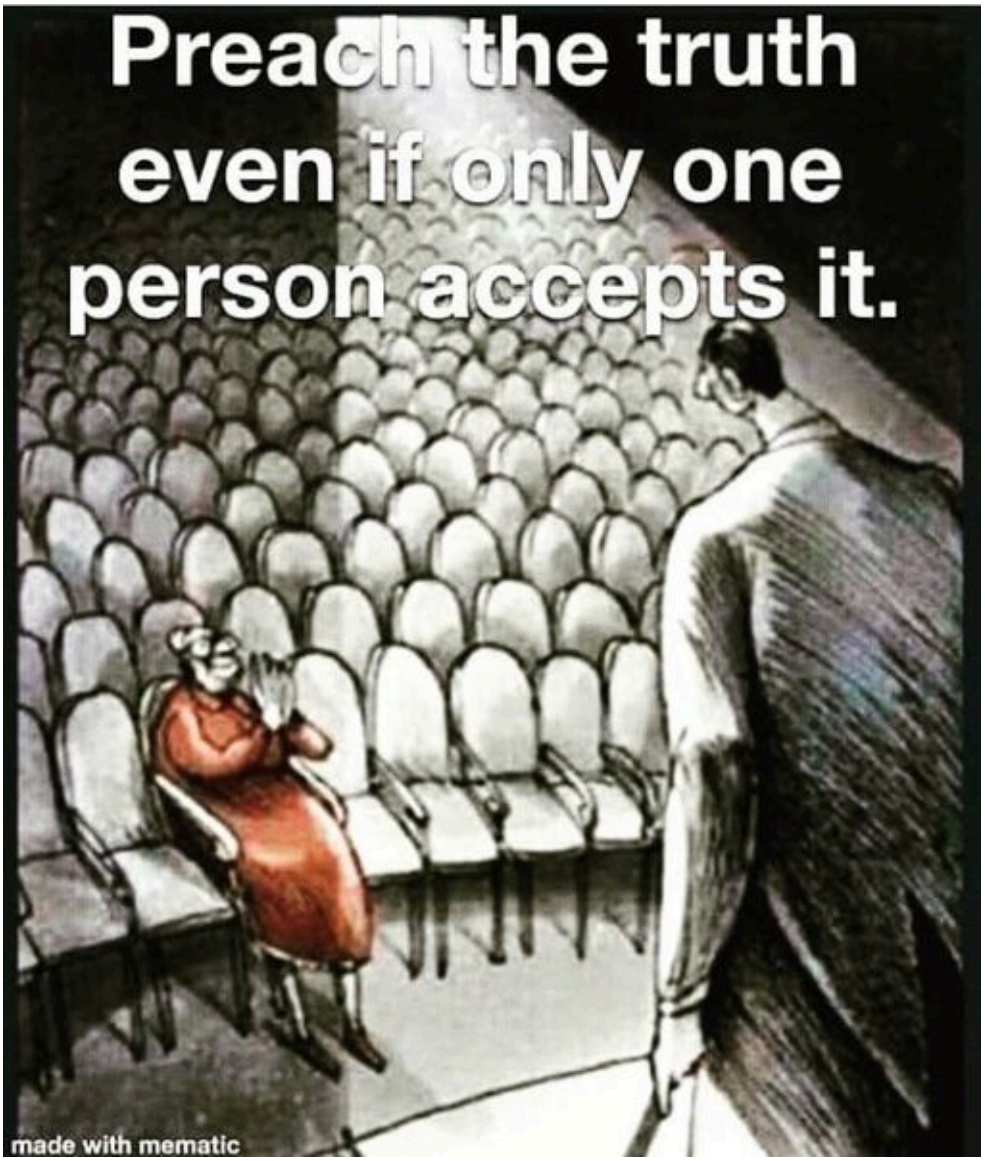
unto salvation to them that believe it. The Gospel is the Good News that Jesus died on a cross to pay for our sins, He was buried, and three days later He physically resurrected from the dead (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Just BELIEVE IT dear friend and you’ll instantly and forever have eternal life!!!



The Church is the House of God, the pillar and ground of THE TRUTH. 1st Timothy 3:15, “But if I tarry long, that thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thyself in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth.” Thank God for local churches! But, make sure that you are attending a genuine church, and not a deadly religious cult. Mormon churches are cults! Jehovah’s Witness churches are cults! Seventh-day Adventist churches are cults! Roman Catholic churches are cults! Lutheran churches are cults! Church of Christ churches are cults! Baptist churches that teach Lordship Salvation are cults! Pastor John MacArthur’s Grace Community Church in California is a cult! Joel Osteen’s Lakewood Church in Texas is a cult!

All of the aforementioned groups have men in charge instead of God’s Word.

[7]Dr. MacArthur foolishly teaches that salvation is an exchange, a trade of sorts. The Bible says that eternal life is a free gift, not an exchange or trade where you must surrender your will to receive Christ. Campus Church and PCC legally exist and operate as separate entities. Campus Church does not have any control over PCC. The college started a church and controls it. That is 100 % unbiblical. The false gods at PCC are guilty of having huge misplaced egos, petty prejudices and a woeful lack of human compassion.

The sad fact that in writing I have been forbidden to attend Campus Church proves what I say. There is no Christian love, concern or compassion for people at PCC. The cult system always comes first at PCC, individual people do not matter. I know that hardly anyone will listen to my preaching rants on social media, while PCC wickedly laughs in scorn at me and my truth-telling ministry. However, PCC has a growing army of hurting victims (the 1 % who fall through the cracks who PCC throws under the bus; including hurting people like me). Those 1 % of victims do find my ministry and writings that expose PCC’s cruelty, unfairness, pompous self-righteous attitudes, hatred and religious bigotry. If nothing else, I am thankful that God is using my humble writings to comfort, encourage and befriend [8]PCC’s countless victims of abuse.

God knows that I love everyone at PCC and Campus Church. I refuse to become bitter or hate people for any reason. Life is too short to live with a burden of hatred. The issue is one of authority. PCC are the authority in their college system; in a New Testament church only the inspired Word of God is the authority. Who is in charge makes all the difference in the world.

Galatians 1:6-8, "I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.”

One of the most dangerous FALSE PROPHETS today is Evangelist Ray Comfort. Sadly, this man is honored and accepted in many Baptist churches and Bible colleges today, but he should be avoided and banned as a hellbound infidel. On page 1197 of "THE EVIDENCE BIBLE," Ray Comfort comments on Matthew 7:22-23...

> "These are perhaps the most frightening verses in the Bible. Vast multitudes of professing Christians fit into the category spoken of here. They call Jesus ’Lord,’ but they practice lawlessness. They profess faith in Jesus, but have no regard for the divine law. They tell ’fibs’ or ’white’ lies, take things that belong to others, have a roaming eye for the opposite sex, etc. They are liars, thieves, and adulterers at heart, who will be cast from the gates of heaven into the jaws of hell."

Dear reader, Ray Comfort is preaching the Devil’s lie of LORDSHIP SALVATION! If what Ray teaches is true, then everyone is going straight to Hell when we die, because everyone still commits sin. If having a “roaming eye for the opposite sex” means that someone is unsaved, then most people are going to spend eternity burning in the Lake of Fire. What Ray is doing is foolishly combining sanctification with justification, and in so doing he corrupts the inspired Word of God and casts stumbling blocks before the people.

Read what Pilgrim’s Progress author John Bunyan (1628-1688) wisely wrote:

> “If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people.” —Evangelist John Bunyan

My ministry friend Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold accurately defines Lordship Salvation:

> “Lordship Salvation is the unsupportable and unbiblical belief that the performance of good works, the promise of good works, or the evidence of good works, must accompany faith in Christ to establish or provide evidence that such faith has resulted in eternal life.” —Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold, “[1]Jesus Versus John MacArthur”

Ray Comfort is heretically saying that if you’re still living in sin, you’re not saved. Kindly said, Ray is a theological LIAR! Friend, EVERYBODY lives in sin, I don’t care who you are! The ONLY thing that makes a Christian believer any more righteous in GOD’S SIGHT than convicted serial murderer John Wayne Gacy (1942-1994) is the precious blood of Jesus Christ that washed all our sins away (James 2:10; 1st Peter 1:18-19; 1st Corinthians 6:9-11). Apart from the sin-cleansing blood of the slain Lamb of God, you and I are no more righteous than Adolf Hitler (1889-1945),

Ted Bundy (1946-1990). THANK GOD FOR THE BLOOD OF JESUS!!!

Please beware of Ray Comfort's partial faith in Christ PLUS works counterfeit plan of salvation. Jesus has already paid your debt of sin dear friend, and He doesn't need your help to reform yourself of sin to get to Heaven. The very idea is preposterous!

Salvation is not a reward for the righteous, it is a gift for the guilty!

The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU.

Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

Turning away from sinful ways would be a work. Faith puts all of the merit where it belongs, on the object of our faith, Jesus and His work.

If to "repent" means to forsake our sinful ways TO BE SAVED, but Jesus already paid for our sins by dying on the cross, then what are we repenting from?

A Correct Interpretation of Matthew 7:21-23

I have included verse 21 also...

> Matthew 7:21-23, "Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity."

The correct interpretation of Matthew 7:21-23 is that trusting anything more than Jesus alone (i.e., relying upon what He did through Calvary's cross to save you) cannot produce the new birth which is required to enter into God's Kingdom. John 6:40, "And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day." The will of God the Father concerning getting saved is that you BELIEVE ON JESUS!!! That's it, that's all, no more.

Sadly, Ray Comfort says that MORE is required. According to Ray you must live a lifestyle of repentance. Please don't take my word for it, r ead for yourself what Mr. Comfort horribly teaches this woman in this transcript from Living Waters:

> "So if the plane goes down, you'd end up in Hell! There are two things you have to do to be saved. Do you remember what they are? I told you what they are—You've got to repent and trust the Savior! ... God's offering you everlasting life upon your repentance and faith in Christ. Who in his right mind wouldn't say, 'Whoa! That's a good offer!' (The curious woman asks what it means to "repent"?)... Have you ever said you're sorry to someone you did something wrong to? That's all repentance is—You've sinned against God; it's a matter of saying, 'God, I'm sorry,' and then LIVING A LIFESTYLE that proves the reality of your repentance. That's what repentance is, it's a continual thing! God, 'I'm sorry, but I'm not going going to lie or steal or blaspheme Your name ever again. It has that attitude! And the second thing—trust in Jesus!" [emphasis added]

Dear reader, I triple-dog dare you to show me even one verse from the Holy Bible that teaches that “LIVING A LIFESTYLE” is required as part of being saved. You cannot! Now my friend, “a double-dog dare” is serious business, but a triple-dog dare is something you don’t want to mess around with! I triple-dog dare you to show me even one Bible verse that agrees with these false statements by Ray Comfort.

The Gospel of John is God’s Gospel track. John 20:31, “But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name.” PLEASE DON’T MISS THAT! God authored the Gospel of John specifically so “that believing ye might have life through his name.” That means we don’t need any other Scripture than what is found in the Gospel of John to be saved. Where in the Gospel of John are we taught that, “LIVING A LIFESTYLE,” is necessary to receive eternal life? You cannot! Mr. Comfort is a bold-faced theological liar! Ray is ADDING to the Gospel, perverting it! This means Mr. Comfort is accursed by God. Galatians 1:9, “As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed.” I didn’t say that, almighty God did!

Furthermore, where in the Gospel of John are we taught that to be saved, we must have a drastic change of attitude that is resolved to reform? Ray errantly says to be saved we must have the new attitude, “GOD, I’M SORRY, BUT I’M NOT GOING TO LIE OR STEAL OR BLASPHEME YOUR NAME EVER AGAIN!” And then he horribly says, “IT’S A CONTINUAL THING!” None of this is biblical! There is absolutely nothing in the Gospel of John about having a sincere desire to reform our ways, clean up our life of sin, turn over a new leaf, do better, forsake the world, turn away from sins, nor any other garbage that false prophets are teaching nowadays in churches, poisoning people with their lies!

Jesus wasn’t teaching in Matthew 7:21-23 that you’re not saved if you haven’t reformed your life! The dear Savior is simply saying that you cannot get into heaven SOME OTHER WAY! John 10:1, “Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber. ” Kindly said, Ray Comfort is a thief and a robber! Why? It is because instead of simply walking through the DOOR of Jesus (John 10:9), he is trying to climb up some other way into Heaven by turning away from living a lifestyle of sinning, which is WORKS and not GRACE (Romans 4:4; 11:6). Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do.

5.3.14 Country Singer Luke Bryan Has Riley Strain's Blood On His Hands (2024-03-22 23:26)

Proverbs 23:29-35, " Who hath woe? who hath sorrow? who hath contentions? who hath babbling? who hath wounds without cause? who hath redness of eyes? They that tarry long at the wine; they that go to seek mixed wine. Look not thou upon the wine when it is red, when it giveth his colour in the cup, when it moveth itself aright. At the last it biteth like a serpent, and stingeth like an adder. Thine eyes shall behold strange women, and thine heart shall utter perverse things. Yea, thou shalt be as he that lieth down in the midst of the sea, or as he that lieth upon the top of a mast. They have stricken me, shalt thou say, and I was not sick; they have beaten me, and I felt it not: when shall I awake? I will seek it yet again.

I thank God that my parents sent me to an old-fashioned Independent Baptist Church and school as a teenager, which set my course in life. I decided as a young boy, from hearing my pastor preach against the dangers of booze, that alcoholic beverages would never touch my lips. By God's grace, I have kept that wise decision. I hate booze!!!

Dear reader, you cannot take two drinks of alcohol if you don't take the first, and if you don't take the first drink you'll never run the risk of getting drunk once, or worse, becoming a lifetime alcoholic. Booze ruins lives! The beer companies have much blood on their hands. They cannot hide behind the lame excuse that 99 % of beer drinkers are responsible, because THEY FULLY KNOW that some people when down and depressed, or seeking a good time, will drink in excess and suffer for it, or kill someone else in the process while inebriated.

Tragically, Friday evening on March 8th, 2024, [1]a young 22-year-old college student visiting from Missouri, Riley Strain, got drunk at Country singer Luke Bryan's bar in downtown Nashville. The bar's employees kicked Riley out of the bar, because he was visibly drunk. Riley was recorded on numerous security cameras stumbling down the street, in the park and at one point ran into a post and hit his head. For 2 weeks everyone's been searching for Riley, because he hadn't been seen since the night he got drunk at Luke Bryan's bar.

Sadly, Riley's dead body was found floating in the local river 8-miles downstream. Evidently he stumbled into the river drunk and drowned.

I was upset when I learned about this matter, because it further shows how selfish, rotten and irresponsible we are as Americans in this wicked generation. Sadly, it has become the "norm" for young people to get drunk at bars and then just be kicked out. It upsets me because Luke Bryan's ungodly tavern helped Riley get intoxicated, while allegedly " having a good time.

" When they got all his money, and he clearly had too much booze to drink and was now becoming a problem for the business, they just kick him out and made him somebody's else problem. Well, that act of cruelty cost Riley his life on earth!

Granted, Riley is mostly to blame for being foolish to drink booze. I don't know what his parents taught him when raising him, but every parent should teach and warn their child about the stupidity and danger of drinking alcohol, and the terrible sin in God's sight of getting drunk (1st Corinthians 6:9-11). Yes, drunkenness is a sin! Drinking booze is not a sin, but it is unwise (Proverbs 20:1). Very few people know when they've had too much to drink! All it takes is ONE TIME of drinking too much alcohol and it may cost you your life, or worse, cost someone else's life that you stole from them because of your wickedness.

If I had my way, all alcoholic beverages would be outlawed, because they have been proven time and time again to be nothing but a menace to society. I have stood over the white caskets of a dead mother and her baby, who were ruthlessly murdered by a drunken driver. The murderer only suffered minor injuries. I doubt if he spent more than a year or two in prison, if that. I'll never forget seeing that little tiny white coffin being lowered 6-feet into the dug grave. You couldn't pay me to drink booze!!! I thank and praise God that I learned at an early age about the evils of drinking booze.

My humble thought in this matter concerning Riley Strain is that we've got a serious alcohol consumption problem in the United States, that no one wants to talk about. Alcohol consumption is the white elephant in the living room. All I've been hearing and reading in the news today is that the city of Nashville is mourning the death of Riley Strain. Sadly, they are mourning the wrong thing! They should all be mourning the alcohol problem in our ungodly society, which has been ongoing since 1933 when the Prohibition Era ended, and it is only getting much worse. It is tragic that the court system actually protects drunk drivers more than the victims they murder.

As far as I'm concerned, Luke Bryan should be sued and held responsible for Riley's needless death, since it was his employees that sent a drunken man out onto the street, who was clearly not in his right mind. It is unsafe for anyone who is so intoxicated that they are stumbling, and talking incoherently, mumbling. Riley was drunk, period. What kind of society do we live in today, when bar businesses only care about taking a customer's money, but then when that individual gets drunk on THEIR ALCOHOL, they throw them out the door and wash their hands of the problem, sending that patron into harm's way without a concern in the world for him. Luke Bryan doesn't give a damn about Riley as a human being. His accursed bar sold Riley a bunch of alcohol, got him drunk, and then threw him under the bus (or in this case the local river). Luke Bryan might as well as have pushed Riley in the river himself.

There needs to be a new federal law nationwide, which requires bars, night clubs, casinos, hotels and restaurants to contact police when someone is clearly inebriated with alcohol, because they are a risk to them self and others. If that is too much burden for the police to handle, then the sale of alcohol must be banned, except by a doctor's prescription for medical purposes only. We cannot continue to allow people to get drunk and just die.

Sadly, Riley drank the booze, and then the booze drank him, and then the river. Since the beginning of human civilization, alcohol has been a menace. Noah got drunk, which caused his son to sin, and it strained their father and son relationship permanently. Lot got drunk, which resulted in him impregnating his two daughters, and fathering two heathen races. I dare you to show me even one good thing that happened in the Holy Bible when someone was drunk. Kindly said, you cannot!

When I lived in Chicago, I was fishing for perch one summer day at Olive Park at Lake Michigan. As I was fishing, a man walked by and warned us to be on the lookout for a dead body, which we might snag, because a drunk man had drowned. I am a caring person, so I walked quickly over to the park overhang platform over the lake, where the drunken man had climbed over the safety railing and jumped into the water. He couldn't swim (likely because he was too drunk to remember how), so he drowned and went under. Rescue divers came several minutes later from the local fire department. They went into the water where the man had jumped in, and that is exactly where they found his lifeless body. I'll never forget seeing his swollen feet and body, pickled with water. To my horror, people were laughing and having a good time who stood around, telling jokes, watching the paramedics attempt to revive the dead man. He was gone! To this day I wonder where he went in eternity, Heaven or Hell?

Oh, the foolishness of drinking booze! What a dangerous thing to do. If you drink alcohol I am not condemning you, that is not my place. By as a Christian and a Bible Baptist preacher, I feel compelled to warn everyone about the dangers of consuming booze. My father was a Skid Row minister. Over the years of my childhood, I saw hundreds of bodies laying in the sidewalk, in the street gutter, not knowing if they were dead or alive. Even in the dead cold of winter, I saw men (and some women too) laying on the ground drunk. Many were huddled in doorways, and wherever they could seek shelter from the fierce freezing wind.

My Dad took all of the following photos for the Mission's monthly bulletin, to try to raise money to keep the Mission's doors open to help these broken men. This first photo is of the Chicago United Mission, located at 34. S. Desplaines in downtown Chicago. The building was torn down nearly 40 years ago. I grew up tagging alongside my father at this rescue mission...

The Truth About Beer And Whiskey

[7]More Pictures

The Devil is a beautiful liar! Satan only shows you the bright neon lights of Sin City Las Vegas, he doesn't show you the local morgues, hospitals, courtrooms, prisons and cemeteries where sinners end up. The Devil always pays with counterfeit money. All of Satan's apples have worms! Sin will take you farther than you wanted to go, cost you more than you intended to pay, and keep you longer than you planned to stay. I could mention the names of thousands of famous people whose lives have been forever ruined because of alcohol. Just ask idiot Leif Garret (born 1961):

> Garrett admitted that he started using drugs when he was 14. On November 3, 1979, five days before his 18th birthday, he crashed a Porsche 914 that was being leased to his mother after a midnight party while he was driving to buy more cocaine. His blood alcohol level was three times over the legal limit of that time and place, and he was high on Quaaludes. The accident left his passenger and friend, Roland Winkler, > a paraplegic. Garrett had only met Winkler about a month earlier. Neither Garrett nor Winkler was wearing a seatbelt. Garrett was later tried as a juvenile on drunk-driving charges; his driver's license was suspended for a year and he was placed on a year's probation. Winkler sued in January 1980, claiming Garrett was at fault in the accident. [8]WIKIPEDIA

Garrett got a slap on the wrist for completely ruining his so-called "

friend's

life. And while we're on the subject of friends, I'd like to mention Riley Strain's so-called

"friends" who saw him drunk as he left Luke Bryan's bar. THOSE WERE NOT HIS FRIENDS!!! No true friend lets you stumble home drunk! Riley was trying to stumble back to the hotel where he was staying with his "friends," but ended up dead from drowning in the local river. With friends like Riley's who needs enemies? Friends don't allow friends to get drunk, and then leave them in harm's way so they can get hit by a car, bust their head open on the sidewalk concrete, or drown in a river. Where were Riley's so-called "friends"? They didn't care about him one iota!!!

Dear reader, our culture has deteriorated so much into selfishness and greed, that people don't care anymore about someone who is obviously intoxicated with booze, until they get slammed into by a speeding bus, fall down a flight of stairs and crack their skull open, stick a fork in their eye, et cetera. What is wrong with people? Why don't we care about each other? A police officer's bodycam in Nashville recorded Riley stumbling by. Since when don't cops care about drunk people who cannot even stand up properly? Likely the cops were told by their bosses to let people have a good time, and look the other way, to keep the tourists coming. Nashville is the SIN CITY Las Vegas of the south!!! The people and major of Nashville have blood on their hands and should all be ashamed. These types of insane deaths shouldn't be happening. This was no accident, this was reckless behavior (both on the part of Riley, his friends, Luke Bryan's stupid bar, the police and a city that is used to wickedness).

Dear reader, nothing will change until we change it. If we are to change the future, we must disturb the present. Governor Ron DeSantis in Florida today just outlawed homeless people living in tents in public places. I say Amen and amen! The new law goes into effect in October 2024. Taxpaying citizens are sick and tired of being harassed by homeless people squatting in tents all over the community. There are shelters, missions and places where the homeless can seek refuge, but they don't want to follow any rules. Well then jail will be their new home! I am proud of governor DeSantis. There must be rule of law in any society!

And I'll tell you something else, in Florida the government doesn't put up with squatters stealing your vacant home to live in. In idiotic liberal places like New York and Chicago, [9]illegal immigrants are breaking into empty houses and living there. When the landlord finds out and tries to evict the illegal tenants, the [10]landlord is threatened with arrest and jail. It takes YEARS to get a legal eviction for those criminal squatters, and they don't pay a single penny in rent all the time they steal your home from you. Two centuries ago the illegal tenants would have been shot. You don't just steal someone else's home. Where is our government? I really hate what American has become! Don't try that in Florida, because illegals will go to jail, as they should. Florida is paradise compared to New York, Los Angeles and Chicago.

Anyway, I am upset over the needless death (murder) of Riley Strain. The police in Nashville said there was no "

involved. Are you kidding me? In Michigan this past month, a mother and father were both found guilty of manslaughter for giving their 14-year-old son access to a gun that he used to murder for peers at school. What hypocrisy! So why a bar can help get people drunk, and then toss them out on the street while intoxicated and barely able to stand up, without any consequence when they die? Our justice system is messed up! If somebody gets plastered drunk at YOUR ESTABLISHMENT, and then you kick them out the door, then you should bear the responsibility to make sure they get home safely.

Taverns accept no liability at all for helping to get people drunk! You couldn’t offer me enough money to start and own a tavern, because I fear God and realize that someday I have to give account for everything in my life (Ecclesiastes 12:13-14; Romans 14:10-12). We live in a very selfish, greedy and irresponsible culture today in America, where people want to make money at all cost, giving no thought to the people and families they hurt in the process. It is evil.

In the Old Testament in Deuteronomy 22:8, if you had a roof with no railing, and somebody fell off and got hurt or died, you were responsible for their blood. It is a matter of being ethical. Beer producers and bars just want to make money, without accepting any liability for the shady nature of their illicit business. Alcohol was banned during Prohibition for a good reason. There were (and still are) dry counties in the United States for a good reason. That reason is because booze destroys families and lives!!! If you want to drink LIQUID DEVIL, then you are the fool, but I refuse to put that poison into my body. As

Roland Tembo says in The Lost World: Jurassic Park, “

No thank you. I believe I’ve spent enough time in the company of death.

5.3.15 Beware Of Bad Role Model Taylor Swift (2024-03-24 08:57)

Numbers 25:1-5, “And Israel abode in Shittim, and the people began to commit whoredom with the daughters of Moab.

And they called the people unto the sacrifices of their gods: and the people did eat, and bowed down to their gods.

And Israel joined himself unto Baal-peor: and the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel.

And the LORD said unto Moses, Take all the heads of the people, and hang them up before the LORD against the sun, that the fierce anger of the LORD may be turned away from Israel.

And Moses said unto the judges of Israel, Slay ye every one his men that were joined unto Baal-peor. ”

This is what singer [1]Taylor Swift is doing. She is a daughter of Moab and drawing millions of people (including ignorant Christians) in to worship their gods Baalpeor at her wicked concerts (or via a livestream). Case in point is her recent Eras Tour, and her wicked music video Willow where [2]she literally summons devils. There is a great plague in America today of the Truth. [3]TIME magazine shamefully picked Taylor as their person of the year for 2023. Really? That is how low we’ve gone in the United States, [4]honoring wicked people. God damn America!

We are living in unprecedented wicked times in America, when young people have lost all respect for authority. Marriage is now a thing of the past to a large degree. All of this LGBTQ nonsense is blatant social engineering being used to destroy the backbone of our culture, making way for the New World Order. the Luciferian elite are trying to destroy the Old World Order. That is why everything is so confusing today. Young people today are deliberately being confused about their gender. This is so wrong, evil and insane!

Taylor Swift is no friend to young people. She is nearing a net worth of one billion dollars, yet she is not worth the time for your child to meet her. I wouldn’t want my children to meet and idolize a wicked person who has sold her soul to Satan for money. [5]Taylor uses vulgarities in her music videos. The sordid scene which the Bible describes in Numbers 25:1-5 is synonymous with what is going on today in America. Famous rock stars, country and pop singers, and entertainers walk among the people as gods. Their ungodly filthy lifestyles of sin influence hundreds of millions of sinners to follow their wicked example. Woe unto the wicked!

Dear reader, I care about you. I got saved (born again) at age 13 in 1980. I know beyond any shadow of a doubt that I am going to Heaven when I die someday. That is not cocky or arrogant, because in the inspired Holy Bible God has promised “to save them that believe” (1st Corinthians 1:21b). If you died today friend, do you know 100 % that you’d go to Heaven? [6]You can KNOW right now. Jesus, please don’t leave earth without Him!

5.3.16 And Others (2024-03-25 10:19)

“AND OTHERS had trial of cruel mockings and scourgings, yea, moreover of bonds and imprisonment: They were stoned, they were sawn asunder, were tempted, were slain with the sword: they wandered about in sheepskins and goatskins; being destitute, afflicted, tormented; (Of whom the world was not worthy:)" —Hebrews 11:36-38

We often hear preachers and Bible teachers make reference to Hebrews 11, which is sometimes referred to as "The Hall of Faith." We read in verse 7 about Noah, who moved with fear at the command of God, and built an ark for 120 years BY FAITH. We read in verse 17 about Abraham who, offered up his only begotten son Isaac BY FAITH. We read about the faith of Jacob, Joseph, Moses, Rahab, Samson, Samuel, David, and other great heroes of the faith. But little do we hear about verses 36-38 tucked away in Hebrews chapter 11. "...AND OTHERS."

The truth I am about to teach you will transform your thinking forever if you'll let it. We read in the Bible about great men and women of God, who did great things for God BY FAITH. But sometimes it is God's will for us to suffer. Noah built an ark BY FAITH, but the apostle James was beheaded by Herod BY FAITH! David fought Goliath BY FAITH, but Stephen was stoned to death for preaching the Gospel BY FAITH. Rahab hid the Hebrew spies BY FAITH, but Jeremiah was thrown into a miry pit of clay and left for dead BY FAITH. You see my friend, it may actually be God's will for you to be tormented, sawn asunder, fed to the lions or burned alive. "...AND OTHERS."

Beware of Anyone Who Associates Prosperity With Righteousness

We've got a bunch of health, wealth and prosperity garbage being taught in our churches today in the United States. It's usually the Satanic Charismatic movement (i.e., T.D. Jakes, Benny Hinn, Pat Robertson, The 700 Club, Peter Popoff, Bill Hamon, Don Stewart, Mike Murdock, Oral Roberts, et cetera). The speaking-in-Tongues heresy has crept into many religious camps. Beware of the Devil's Charismatic and Pentecostal groups who practice healing meetings, speaking-in-tongues and teach that salvation can be lost. I wouldn't give you a dime for the whole caboodle of Charismatic churches!

These shady groups teach the heresy that it is always God's will for Christians to be healthy, wealthy and prosperous, and if you're not, it's only because they say you haven't been giving enough money to support their so-called "ministries"!!! The truth is that Christians who are 100 % right with God suffer with most of the very same health problems, afflictions and burdens that unsaved people do. Being a Christian doesn't make life any easier, but it makes life better, because you have the promises of God in the Bible to comfort your soul. James 5:10, "Take, my brethren, the prophets, who have spoken in the name of the Lord, for an example of suffering affliction, and of patience." Suffering is a part of our human existence.

Suffering is part of being a faithful Christian. 2nd Timothy 3:12, "Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution." Don't ever let anyone tell you that you're not right with God because you're broke, sick and suffering. Lazarus had all of these, and he was right with God (Luke 16:19-31). And please don't gauge God's goodness or blessings upon your circumstances, because that's not how the Lord works. The greatest things in life are not things. God is good is you've got money in the bank, and God is good if you're in debt and broke.

It may be God's will for you or me to suffer in a wheelchair the rest of our life. Who are we to question our Creator... why made me thus? That's not to say that God causes accidents that cause you to lose your legs, but everything that happens, good and bad alike, happens within the permissive will of God. Most people refer to people with bodily impairments as "crippled" or "disabled," but the Bible teaches that God sometimes makes men disabled. Exodus 4:11, "And the LORD said unto him, Who hath made man's mouth? or who maketh the dumb, or deaf, or the seeing, or the blind? have not I the LORD?" I love that Bible verse! John 9:1-3, "And as Jesus passed by, he saw a man which was blind from his birth. And his disciples asked him, saying, Master, who did sin, this man, or his parents, that he was born blind? Jesus answered, Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents: but that the works of God should be made manifest in him." "...AND OTHERS."

John the Baptist is one of the "OTHERS," who was martyred for his uncompromising stand against Herod's adultery. The newly elected church Deacon, Stephen, is one of the "OTHERS," who was literally gnashed upon by the teeth of an angry mob, and then they slew him with stones. The Apostle James was one of the "OTHERS," who was beheaded in Acts 12:2 by Herod for his Gospel preaching... AND OTHERS. Revelation 20:4, "And I saw thrones, and they sat upon them, and judgment was given unto them: and I saw the souls of them that were beheaded for the witness of Jesus..." "...AND OTHERS."

According to the writings of secular history by [1]Josephus, Philip, the first ever to be called a disciple, was scourged with a whip (likely a cat-o-nine tails type of whip). Matthew, the tax-collector, was slain with a halberd (a two-sided ax made for military purposes). Matthew's head was split open with a razor-sharp sledgehammer. James, who wrote the book of James, at the age of 94 was beaten, stoned, and his brains beaten out with a fuller's club (a blacksmith's tool used to smash iron). Matthias was stoned at Jerusalem and then beheaded. Andrew, the brother of Peter, was crucified on a cross. They laid his cross on its side, face down, after he was crucified. Mark, a convert of Peter, was dragged to pieces by an angry mob in the city of Alexandria. "...AND OTHERS."

Peter was crucified upside down because he said, "I am not worthy to die the same way my Savior died." 16 times in the Book of 1st Peter, he mentions suffering. Nero took Christians, tarred them, and then hung them above his flower garden, setting them on fire as human torches to light his garden (while his drunken whoremongers had their parties and wanted to examine the beautiful flowers). Paul had his throat cut with a sword. Jude was crucified. Bartholomew was cruelly beaten and crucified. Thomas was thrust through with a spear by pagan priests. Luke was hanged on an olive tree. Simon was crucified. "...AND OTHERS."

John, the beloved disciple, was exiled to the island of Patmos, and left for dead, where he wrote the Book of Revelation under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit. Timothy rebuked some people for celebrating a pagan feast and they beat him with clubs, he died two days later from internal hemorrhaging. Ignatius, a bishop at Antioch who followed Paul, was thrown to wild beasts. "...AND OTHERS."

Jonah didn't want to go to Nineveh for good reason, the Assyrians were known for their cruel torturing methods. They commonly would drive a spear into the ground, then impale their victim upon the spear. Next, they would take glass or metal and make incisions, each a few inches long, throughout the body. Then they'd take pliers are mercilessly peel off all the flesh from head to toe. I don't blame Jonah for fleeing Nineveh! It is believed that Isaiah was SAWN ASUNDER (Hebrews 11:37) by wicked king Manasseh.

Sawing limbs off of victims, or completely in half, was an effective form of psychological warfare in the Old Testament, and still is today. The U.S. led coalition killed Saddam Hussein's two sons, gut them like pigs from head to toe, and then stapled them back together with hundreds of staples. They took photos and released them for the world to see. Wonderful people, huh? War is a result of man's wickedness and greed, and all rules are broken on the battle field. The saying "All is fair in love and war" is a malicious lie, because there's nothing fair in life.

Alexander was beaten with staves, torn with hooks, and burned with fire. Romanius, a deacon at the church of Caesarea, was scourged and put on a rack. His body was pulled with hooks. They cut him with knives and took tools to scrape all the skin, a little at a time, from his face. They decided to torment him as much as they could, and they beat his teeth from their sockets, one at a time. After pulling out all his hair by the roots, they strangled him to death. "...AND OTHERS."

> 1st Timothy 6:3-5, "If any man teach otherwise, and consent not to wholesome words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine which is according to godliness; He is proud, knowing nothing, but doting about questions and strifes of words, whereof cometh envy, strife, railings, evil surmisings, Perverse disputings of men of corrupt minds, and destitute of the truth, supposing that gain is godliness: from such withdraw thyself."

God's Perfect Will For Us May Be Cancer, Blindness Or A Wheelchair

The health, wealth and prosperity crowd have it all wrong. In John 9:1-3 Jesus and His disciples saw a blind man. The disciples asked, "Who sinned, this man or his parents?" Jesus replied that neither had sinned to cause the man's disability—the man had been born blind so that the works of God could be made manifest in him. Ecclesiastes 3:11 teaches that God has made everything beautiful in HIS TIME. Ecclesiastes 3:11, "He hath made every thing beautiful in his time: also he hath set the world in their heart, so that no man can find out the work that God maketh from the beginning to the end." That word "world" is the fascinating Hebrew word olam olam and means "concealed, that is, the vanishing point." Literally, God has hidden His divine times from mankind so it will always remain a mystery in this earthly life. God wants us to trust Him.

Hebrews 11:36-38 plainly teaches that it is God's will sometimes for His children to suffer. In John 16:33 Jesus said that we shall suffer tribulations in this world. Yet the Lord said in John 17:15, "I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that thou shouldest keep them from the evil." So the Lord knows that we're suffering, and that's the way He wants it for now. God has a purpose. Amongst many reasons, suffering teaches us to trust upon the Lord.

There's an amazing truth to be gleaned from Deuteronomy 8:3, which I've written an article on titled, [2]MAN SHALL NOT LIVE BY BREAD ALONE. God deliberately led the Israelites into a desert Wilderness of hunger, thirst, stinging scorpions, biting serpents, peril and danger so that He could test them, to see whether or not the Jews would obey His Commandments. They failed the test. They complained every step of the way, even contemplating returning to slavery in Egypt where they least had fish, garlic and lemons (Numbers 11:5). Can you imagine? After 430 years of slavery and hard bondage, God finally heard their cries and freed them; but now they're upset because God gave them new burdens to carry and it wasn't Walt Disney World as they had expected. Every Christian must carry a cross, because the servant is not greater than his Lord.

Malachi 3:6 says that God never changes. The Lord Who wanted to test His people 3,500 years ago still desires to test His children today. A faith must be tested. It was God who planted the tree of knowledge, which provided the only opportunity for Adam and Eve to sin. Within God's perfect will, God tested them and gave them a way to commit sin. So the next time that you think the Devil is out to get you, remember that God allows and plans the trial of our faith. Nothing occurs to God. The Lord doesn't need to recount the number of hairs on our head. He is omniscient and knows all. God cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempteth He any man; but God can allow us the freewill and opportunity to decide to do right or wrong.

Apostasy Today—Living for Self

In sharp contrast to today's [3]contemporary believer, Christians throughout history often suffered, even to the point of death for their faith. And might I add, some of them were forced to watch their loved one's be raped, tortured, and killed for their faith. Truly, this was a fate worse than death for many. Today, professed Christians are following religious IMPOSTERS like The Pope, Peter Popoff, Don Stewart, Mike Murdock, Melissa Scott, Joel Osteen, Pat Robertson, Rick Warren, John MacArthur, Creflo Dollar, Paul and Jan Crouch, Benny Hinn, Joyce Meyer, T.D. Jakes, Ravi Zacharias, James Robertson, and hundreds more. All of these questionable men and women are personally raking in TENS-OF-MILLIONS OF DOLLARS! Pat Robertson is worth an estimated $200,000,000!

The Atlanta Journal-Constitution, March 5, 2000 says this about shady Pastor Creflo DOLLAR...

The Rev. Creflo Dollar Jr. has unabashedly embraced his name by building a reli> gious empire on the message that his brand of piety leads to prosperity. He drives a black Rolls-Royce, flies to speaking engagements across the nation and Europe in a $5 million private jet and lives in a $1 million home behind iron gates in an upscale Atlanta neighborhood... The World Changers campus sits on a slight hill... Inside the church is a lobby befitting a five-star hotel. Chairs are scattered about on baby blue carpet thick enough to muffle the sound of the stadium-size crowd arriving for a Sunday service... There are no visible traditional Christian symbols - no cross, no image of Jesus, no stained-glass windows...Dollar lives in a $1 million home owned by the church in the Guilford Forest subdivision in southwest Atlanta. World Changers purchased another $1 million home on 27 acres in Fayette County in December. The church has amassed a fortune in real estate, mostly in College Park... As World Changers grew, so did Dollar's emphasis on prosperity. Dollar has no degree in theology. Much of his prosperity message, according to church and his family members, is based on the teachings of friend and spiritual mentor Kenneth Copeland... And a frequent criticism - that the church refuses to help non-tithers - isn't true either, Lett said. Tithers simply "have priority," she said. People are not allowed to touch Dollar during services, she said, simply because "the anointing is flowing at that point." She said the church purchased a Rolls-Royce for Dollar's use because "he deserves the best."

2nd Timothy 3:12 teaches that Christians who live godly in Christ Jesus WILL suffer persecution. Do you know why? It's because preaching THE TRUTH always causes either revival or riot. People will either love you or hate you for speaking THE TRUTH (John 15:19). The Christian life is not a playground, it is a battleground. We are at war with the Devil, the world, and the flesh (1st John 2:15-17; Ephesians 6:12).

Don't Underestimate All the Hardships and Failures in Your Life

It may be God's will for you to be killed by an angry mob. In fact, Jesus said exactly that in John 16:2, "They shall put you out of the synagogues: yea, the time cometh, that whosoever killeth you will think that he doeth God service." Killing Christians who proclaim the truth for God is nothing knew, it's been happening since Cain killed his brother Abel in Genesis. Don't underestimate the hardships, failures, and sorrows throughout your life, for God has PROMISED to make "all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose" (Romans 8:28).

It was David's very sins of adultery and murder that enabled God to use him to pen the 51st Psalm and others. Before God ever spoke the universe into existence, the Word of God was already settled in Heaven (Psalm 119:89). David's sins were already recorded in Heaven before the world began, and his repentance, and entire life. God knew what horrible sins David would commit as king of Israel, even before God told Samuel the prophet to anoint David, a man after God's own heart. What, an adulterer and murderer, a man after God's own heart? You see, God doesn't judge as men do, by a few events in a person's life; but rather, God looks at the whole picture, from one's birth until death (2nd Corinthians 5:10). I speak to Christians. If you are unsaved, then you are without hope if you die in your sins, and nothing good you have ever done will be rewarded in Hell. This is what [4]Ezekiel 18:24 means.

It was the very act of betrayal by Joseph's 10 half-brothers, selling him into slavery, that would one day enable God to raise up Joseph as governor over all of Egypt. There is no doubt that Joseph was very sad while in prison for many years, having been falsely accused and wrongly judged. Joseph couldn't see God's hand of divine providence. Joseph no doubt thought God had abandoned him and didn't understand why so much evil had come upon him. But Joseph kept his faith, praising His God anyhow, and decades later was able to look back in hindsight and see how God was working behind the scenes in his life the entire time.

God hasn't changed my friend. He is still the same wonderful God today, Who reigns supreme over the lives of men. Our part is not to figure God out, nor even to attempt to understand life; but rather, to obey the precious words of Proverb 3:5-7, "Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths. Be not wise in thine own eyes: fear the LORD, and depart from evil." Jesus is precious!

So wherever you're at in life, whatever your burdens and hardships may be, whatever heartaches you may have, whatever failures you have made, whatever your financial situation may be, whatever health problems you may suffer and endure... God has PROMISED to make it all work out for good if you are His child. Every Christian is called according to God's purpose. If you have a pulse you have a purpose. Everything happens for a reason.

It was Saul's very hatred and zeal for murdering Christians that one day would enable God to raise him up as Paul, becoming an aggressive soul-winner and missionary. Paul never thought for a moment that his strict upbringing as an unsaved religious Pharisee would one day enable God to use him to pen 14 books of the New Testament. God can truly take the lemons in your life and use them to make lemonade.

Tortured and Killed for Their Faith

It was by faith that Noah built an ark. It was by faith that Rahab the harlot hid the Jewish spies. It was by faith that Abraham left his home and journey afar into another country. It was by faith that David went out to fight Goliath. It was by faith that Isaiah said to God, "Here am I; send me" (Isaiah 6:8). It was by faith that Abraham offered up Isaac as a sacrifice. It was by faith that Daniel prayed, thus breaking the law made by tyrants. It was by faith that Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego resisted the tyranny of king Nebuchadnezzar, refusing to bow and worship His golden image. These were all done by faith.

But James was beheaded by faith. It was by faith that John the Baptist was slain by the sword. It was by faith that Moses led millions of Jews into the desert with few provisions. It was by faith that Stephen was martyred. It was by faith that Paul was imprisoned, stoned and left for dead, shipwrecked, and despaired even of life (2nd Corinthians 1:8). It was by faith that John was exiled to the island of Patmos. It was by faith that Jeremiah was cast into a miry pit of clay and left for dead. It was by faith that Daniel was cast into a den of hungry lions. "...AND OTHERS."

It was by faith that Esther risked her life to stand before her king and beg the lives of her people. Esther said, "If I perish I perish" (Esther 4:16). Brother, we need some of that kind of faith again in our churches! Esther was willing to die for a cause. "...AND OTHERS."

Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego by faith refused to bow to king Nebuchadnezzar's image. They said, "our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and he will deliver us out of thine hand, O king. BUT IF NOT, be it known unto thee, O king, that we will not serve thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up" (Daniel

3:17-18). Those three lads were cast into a raging fiery furnace, and their God did deliver them. They said, we'd rather die than disobey our God. That my friend is the attitude and resolution that we all should have as born-again believers in Christ. Jesus was willing to die for us, and we should be willing to die for Him. "...AND OTHERS."

Our faith in the Lord may lead us to a wheelchair, or martyrdom, or hiding in the catacombs... all in according with God's perfect will for our life. God wanted the man born blind in John 9:1-5, so that God might be glorified. It may be God's will for you to end up crippled in a wheelchair for His glory and purpose. Faith in God doesn't mean that health, wealth, and prosperity will come your way. That kind of thinking of heathendom, demonic in origin.

The Devil offered Jesus something for something in Matthew 4:9. That is the way of the world. Satan offered all the glory of this world in exchange for worship. Why do you think so many rich and elite men and women today are flashing [5]Satanic hand signs all over the place? They have sold their souls to Satan for worldly fame, fortune and prosperity. But Judgment Day is coming (Hebrews 9:27). I'd rather be poor and on the Lord's side; than rich and serving the Devil.

The Blight Of Homelessness In America

I heard a local Baptist pastor recently say something foolish (surprised, huh?). Preachers say the darndest things...lol. He said that the homeless people on the street are there because they failed to obey God's Word. He cited Psalms 37:25, "

I have been young, and now am old; yet have I not seen the righteous forsaken, nor his seed begging bread.

" But there was a man that David and that pastor never saw, whose name was Lazarus. Luke 16:20-21,

And there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, which was laid at his gate, full of sores,

And desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man's table: moreover the dogs came and licked his sores.

" Lazarus was the saved man in the true story of The Rich Man And Lazarus in Luke 16:19-31.

So, we do see biblically that you can be saved and poor. We have no reason to believe from the Bible that Lazarus was poor because of his own sins or bad decisions. We simply do not know the circumstances and it would be wrong to speculate. I humbly disagree that all homeless people are there on the street because they didn't follow the Bible. No doubt some of them are guilty of disobeying the Bible. Many of them have broken minds. They are stuck in a self-destructive rut. Some of them are drug addicts, alcoholics and have ruined their lives with substance abuse. Some have criminal records. Some have schizophrenia, anger issues and other mental illnesses.

And to be clear, many people need help but some of them don't want help. When I lived on Guam, I felt compassion for a homeless man who lived in the park. He smelled so bad that I could hardly breathe. His clothes were tattered and he looked disheveled. So, with my own money I drove to K-mart and bought him a big bag of items to help himself. I bought him shaving crème, razors, shampoo, soap, new shoes, a nice shirt to wear and a bunch of other stuff to make his day. I really thought he would love me like a brother for showing Christ's love to him, a guy who owned nothing and lived in a beach park. The park had running free showers 24 hours a day. There was a public restroom with a mirror for him to shave.

I really expected when I returned a week later to see a whole new man. Sadly, he smelled just as bad. His hair was still in knots and matted up. He was wearing the same tattered clothes with holes in them. He had the same torn up shoes on. He smelled atrocious! But I quickly noticed that he had a few packs of cigarettes in his pockets. I was so naïve that I hadn't figured it out yet, what was going in.

In frustration, I later went and told my x-wife what had happened. She opened my eyes when she told me that he sold everything I gave him for money to go buy booze and cigarettes. She was absolute right! I felt like a fool for helping that fool.

In hindsight, I now realize that I was blinded by my desire to be a Good Samaritan, to help someone in Jesus' name.

I learned the hard way that some people just like being homeless, having nothing, being nothing and being a problem for society. They simply don't care! They have no dreams. They don't think ahead where they'd like to be in 5, 10 or 20 years. Like rats, they scurry from one garbage pail to the next, looking for something else to eat or sell. Since that unfortunate day I have a different attitude toward the homeless. I literally spent about $150 at Kmart for that one man! Never again! The old adage is very true: Fool me once, shame on you; fool me twice, shame on me!

I am glad that the state of Florida just outlawed squatting in tents in public places. The law goes into affect in October 2024. People will be arrested and put in jail for squatting, and I think it is a good thing. No one has a right to become a menace and a nuisance to the public. If homeless people refuse to accept the free help from rescue missions and social services that is offered to them, then they have no one to blame but themselves. People must be held responsible for their own behavior. No society can function otherwise! So, in the case of the man I just mentioned on Guam, he definitely is violating Scriptural principles, by being lazy and not working to sustain himself. He is a leech on society, a recluse and a problem.

Sadly, since I have moved from the island of Guam to Pensacola, Florida, in July of 2021, I have seen ten times more homeless people here in Pensacola. Panhandlers are everywhere! When I first moved here I felt compassion toward them. I used to give out $20 bills on Guam, but my x-wife suggested I only give $5, so I took her good advice. My big heart gets the best of me oftentimes, and I am too kind and generous toward people. But giving them money only enables them not to get a job and get their life together.

I learned last year online that it is actually illegal in Pensacola to give somebody money from a car window in traffic. So I don't give money away anymore while driving, which is where 99 % of the panhandlers stand, by traffic lights. The penalty is a $500 fine in Pensacola if the police catch you. So I don't give money while driving anymore, even though it is hard not to because I love people. Sometimes problematic people need tough love, which is so mething that I need to work on. It's hard for me to not to give, but doing so only makes the overall problem worse for society.

There are literally THOUSANDS of businesses now hiring throughout Pensacola (but the jobs all pay minimum wage). The lack of affordable housing is the big problem. You cannot sanely expect people to work 16 hours a day! The average rent price in Pensacola is $1,300 a month. You won't be able to afford that (and other basic essentials needed to survive) if you are working full-time for $13 an hour at Burger King. No one can survive who is taking home $1,600 a month, when your rent is $1,300. Who can live on $300 a week? Your utility bills alone with take that away! Now you need a phone, transportation, food, personal grooming items, clothes, shoes, et cetera. So, not everyone who is homeless on the street is to blame for their situation, as that local Baptist pastor foolishly stated in his sermon.

The root of the problem is our crooked federal government. Three great evils are the root cause of homelessness in the United States:

1. Deindustrialization (sending tens of millions of American jobs to foreign soil)
2. Illegal immigration (60,000,000 people have illegally entered into the U.S.)
3. Federal Reserve Banks (a massive Ponzi Scheme since 1913 that has bankrupt the American people through fraud and theft of our honest labors)

Sometimes We Suffer In God's Perfect Will

May we all resolve in our heart to acknowledge God in all our ways, trusting upon the Lord; and let us not lean upon our own flawed and limited understanding of the things of God, for He has PROMISED to "never leave thee, nor forsake thee" (Hebrews 13:5). No matter what happens in this life, good or evil, we know that it will all work together for good for every born-again believer who loves God. 1st Peter 2:7 says that Jesus is precious to every believer.

So keep in mind and heart Hebrews 11:36-38, teaching us that not all believers build an ark, fight a Goliath, or journey into a far land by faith; sometimes you get sawn in half, afflicted, tormented, or burned at the stake for Christ. It may be God's perfect will for you to be blind (as was true of the blind man in John 9:1-5). It may be God's will for you to end up in a wheelchair to glorify the Lord. It may be God's will for you to suffer, bleed and die! The important thing is to never place God on trial. We must exclaim with faithful Job in the Old Testament, who said in Job 13:15, "Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him: but I will maintain mine own ways before him." Have faith in God (Mark 11:22b).

Romans 3:10-18, "As it is written, There is none righteous, no, not one: There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God. They are all gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable; there is none that doeth good, no, not one. Their throat is an open sepulchre; with their tongues they have used deceit; the poison of asps is under their lips: Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness: Their feet are swift to shed blood: Destruction and misery are in their ways: And the way of peace have they not known: There is no fear of God before their eyes."

We are all sick sinners. I don't care how long you may have been a born-again Christian, you are still sick with sin, and so am I. Understanding this truth is very important to maintaining a proper Christian perspective, so we can live for God. If we always keep in mind that we are sinful, then that will compel us to stay closer to God by abiding in His Word and prayer. There is nothing worse than a saint who has forgotten that they're still a sinner by nature and choice. To be the best Christian you can possibly be, then you must live with the constant awareness that "when I would do good, evil is present with me" (Romans 7:21).

I've been saved since age 12 or 13, I cannot remember the year. I am the biggest sinner that I know. That is simply because I live with myself, and know myself better than anyone else. And if you are honest with yourself and God, then you also feel like you're the biggest sinner you know. If I foolishly looked at the sins of others to measure how good I am doing as a believer, then I would feel like a pretty good Christian. That is what many saints do, they look at tarnished professed Christians like Jim Bakker (from the infamous PTL Club), and Jimmy Swaggart (who couldn't keep his zipper closed), and Lot (who offered his two virgin daughters to be raped by sodomites).

But dear friend, you are just as sick with sin as those sinful men (and so am I). The only thing that makes me or you (if you are saved) any more righteous than infidels John Wayne Gacy, Ted Bundy or Judas Iscariot is the precious sin-cleansing blood of the Lamb of God, Jesus. My sin belongs to me, but my righteousness is Jesus Christ's (Romans 4:1-7, 10:3-4; Philippians 3:9). Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do.

Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU. To be saved, you just need to believe that Jesus did it all for you through Calvary's cross. Christ died for the ungodly (Romans 5:6-9).

People Equal Pain

One thing that we have all learned as Christians (and people in general) is that dealing with people will eventually cause us some grief and emotional pain. I've had people ask to borrow money and never pay me back. I let it go and never asked them for the money, because I didn't want to risk our friendship over a few hundred dollars.

In a sermon, I heard Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) say that he co-signed on numerous loans for church members, who never paid back what they owed and had promised to pay, and Brother Hyles legally had to pay $50,000 to cover those loans. Dr. Hyles said he never once mentioned the money to those people, because he valued them more as church members (so that he could continue helping them in Christ), than he did getting his money back. That is a true friend and a genuine man of God! I love and miss Dr. Hyles and look forward to seeing him again in Heaven someday. What a great guy!

As we grow older we'll all either become more bitter or better. I want to become better, not bitter. Life is not fair. People will hurt and disappoint you. People will gossip and tell you things you don't want to hear, and then one day blame you for those words. People will ask to borrow money, and then never pay you back. I'm including churchgoers. Christians are still people, and all people are sick with sin. I have been hurt by more people than I can possible remember.

Forgiveness After Divorce

If I allowed my feelings to go unchecked by God's Word, I could easily become a bitter man. If I wanted, I could hate my former wife for breaking her vows to God. She cruelly abandoned and divorced me in 2006, yet I still love and care about her. She still refuses to accept responsibility for the damage she has caused. Yet, I show Christ's love for her, voluntarily over the years giving her tens of thousands of dollars in financial help. I suffer in constant agonizing neck pain, suffering all alone.

Trying to find a woman to get remarried is next to impossible when you're suffering in horrible neck pain all the time. I don't feel like going anywhere or doing anything. So how can I have a social life? I've tried eHarmony, Christian Mingle and Match.com, which are all horrible websites with mostly fake profiles. I didn't have any luck on those websites finding someone. My former wife likes her newfound independence (an act of rebellion if you ask me), and she doesn't want to be by my side in my physical pain and suffering.

Pastor Jack Hyles said it best: "Divorce is a sin that perpetuates for a lifetime." Yes, that is so true! My former wife doesn't want or need a husband, but I want and need a wife. I am reminded of our wonderful Savior who bled and died on a cross for my sins. Jesus didn't deserve that! The soldiers spit upon Him. They beat Jesus beyond recognition and ripped the flesh off His back with whips. Yet, our dear Savior didn't complain, He forgave them and died for their sins on the cross of Calvary. So, when I am tempted to become bitter, and sulk in my loneliness and bodily pain, I throw the cross into it.

Nothing Is " Fair

In Life

Dear reader, life is not fair! People are not fair! The U.S. government has poisoned marriage, by allowing divorce. They have poisoned marriage by making it so risky for men to get married nowadays, that fewer and fewer men each year are willing to ever get married. You cannot reasonably blame the MGTOW (men going their own way) movement in lieu of the feminist controlled court system today in America! Why would a young man get married, knowing that his wife can divorce him (for no reason at all), and the court take half of everything he has brought into the marriage, and force him into becoming a weekend father? This is all Satan!

Albeit, God is always fair and just. God makes no mistakes! No matter what happens in life, I refuse to put God on trial. I admit that I have sometimes become angry at God, voicing my frustrations; but the Lord knows that I always apologize later and thank Him for His patience and understanding. The Lord sees how hard I work on my website ministry, and I know that He appreciates my effort (1st Corinthians 15:58).

We Get On Each Other's Nerves

I just go to church and try to mind my own business, but it's impossible.

We are sick with sin folks. I admit that people sometimes get on my nerves. People at church get on my nerves. I have to constantly be on guard against people wanting to gossip under the pretense of, "We need to pray for our friends." And then it is gossip, gossip, gossip about some couple's marriage problems and consequent divorce and everything else. I just don't want to hear it.

I came to church a few months ago when it got cold outside. The church was having a special function with food and drinks. So I walked over to get some lemonade (I love lemonade). All I said to a woman standing next to me was, "It's getting nippy out there." She replied, "Yep, we're always complaining, never happy about anything." The Lord knows I wasn't complaining at all. I actually love the cold weather, the colder the better. She assumed that I was complaining, which hurt my feelings. This is just the way people are. My response for all these many years has [1]just been to love the hell out of people. We're all sick with sin, so we have to learn to have a Christlike spirit to look beyond someone's faults to see their needs. That's not always easy to do, but something that we should ask God to help us with.

People are going to do what sinners do, sin. They are behaving the way that they are supposed to. I admit that I am not much of a people person. That is why after spending eight years at Hyles-Anderson College to get my degree in Pastoral Theology, I chose not to become a pastor. My internet ministry allows me to labor for Christ behind the scenes, which is important missionary work. For several million Americans, their sole source of religious guidance is the internet. God knows that the Devil has enough websites promoting lies and a false gospel. By God's grace, I do what I can for Christ in His strength to help others. I give God all the praise and credit for anything good accomplished through my ministry labors. Jesus is precious!!!

It is our differences as human beings that cause conflict. We look at things differently. To make matters worse and complicated, I suffer in constant chronic neck pain (since 2004). I got rear-ended by a church bus (of all things...lol) in 1992, and then fell down a large package slide at work in 2005. I suffer in perpetual misery. I can tell people a hundred times that my pain adversely affects me, but they don't allow me any consideration or slack if I offend them. When you are suffering in pain (which is right next to my head) 24 hours a day, 365 days a year, a person gets irritated easily. It is easy to lack patience. You get frustrated more easily. Sadly, less than 5 % of people are understanding, and they can be cruel.

What usually happens once someone is offended is that they won't say anything, but they'll hold a permanent grudge. It ought not be that way but it sadly is—once people become offended and feelings are hurt, it's over. I have experienced that dilemma too many times not to know that it is horribly true. Those are carnal people! What saith the Scripture? Ephesians 4:31-32, "Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice: And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you." Less than 5 % of Christians today obey this commandment from God to love one another. They won't even allow me to attend Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College, because PCC's leaders are sinfully holding a grudge. That is what wicked heathens do, not God's children who walk in sweet fellowship with the Lord (1st John 1:6).

We are sick with sin. Get that into your thinking dear friend. Psalms 106:6, " We have sinned with our fathers, we have committed iniquity, we have done wickedly." David had a proper attitude toward himself as a sinner. The psalmist said,

"We have sinned." A shallow Christian says, "He has sinned" or "She has sinned," but the mature believer says, "We have sinned!" Galatians 6:1-2, Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, restore such an one in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted. Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ.

" The Bible teaches that I am not supposed to look down my look Pharisaical nose upon you when you sin. No, I am supposed to push you up from the bottom. That is, I am supposed to view myself as being a bigger sinner than you!

Philippians 2:3, " Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves. " If I look down on others when they sin or annoy me, I am not esteeming them as being better than myself. Boy, this is good stuff!

We live in a selfish world. It is so easy to only think about our self. I heard a great needful sermon today by Pastor Jack Hyles titled: "[2]What You See Is What You Get." Everyone should hear this sermon. It will change your life.

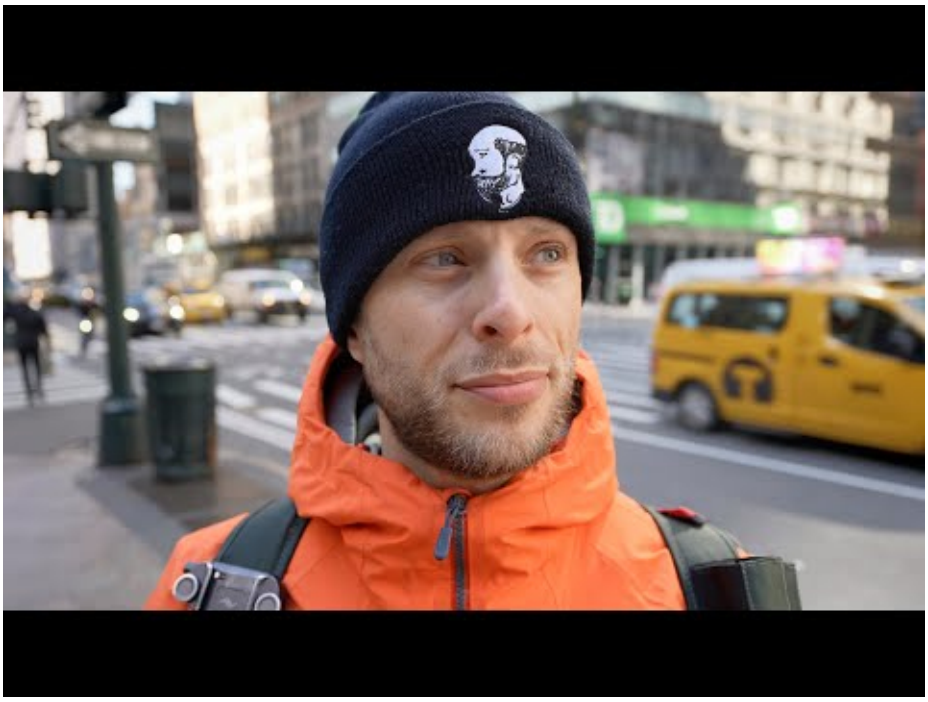
5.3.18 The Old World Order Must Be Destroyed (2024-03-27 09:13)

Revelation 17:10-12, "



And there are seven kings: five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, he must continue a short space. And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and goeth into perdition. And the ten horns which thou sawest are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet; but receive power as kings one hour with the beast."

The New World Order is now forming dear reader. This is the Beast system of the coming Antichrist, the Man of Sin. 2nd Thessalonians 2:3-4, " Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition; Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God.

For their Luciferian New World Order to succeed, they must first destroy the old world order. Tucker Carlson in February of 2024 took a trip to Moscow to interview Russian president Vladimir Putin. While visiting Moscow tucker said that when he saw how clean, homeless free, drug free and nice the city of Moscow is, he realized that the problems in the United States are deliberate. All of the homelessness, open drug abuse, illegal immigration, filthy neighborhoods, skyrocketing crime and Black Lives Matter riots are on purpose. I fully agree with Tucker Carlson.

NYC Is Finished

[1]Multi-billionaire Warren Buffet has been funding much of the civil unrest and insanity in the United States. These are hellbound wicked people with an agenda to build a New World Order. [2]Warren Buffet gave $50 billion to the Bill Gates Foundation. Beware of false information from the mainstream media. For example: You cannot trust anything that fake websites like [3]Popular Mechanics tell you! They blatantly lied about 911. Crime is exploding across the country. On average, there are about 600 mass-shootings each year now in the United States. Smash and Grab theft is out of control.

Entire NYC Mall Closes Because Of Crime

Businesses across the country in major cities are closing down due to crime. Walmart, Target, In and Out burger and Taco Bell are just a few companies who are closing sites. In many cities the police have actually been defunded. You couldn't make this stuff up!

Our federal government is now $33,000,000,000,000 in massive debt! Personal credit card debt for Americans is now at a staggering $1,300,000,000,000. And 6 % of Americans have defaulted on making their monthly required minimum payment. People are financially hurting. Inflation is out of control. Food prices have soared in recent years. Due to COVID-19 and the lack of new car manufacturing for a couple years, automobile prices have soared. Used car prices have soared. Homelessness is now at unprecedented levels since The Great Depression of the 1930's. Bad economic and moral times are ahead for America!

We've [4]gone insane in the United States! I believe this is all be design, intended to destroy society as we have known it. Senator Ted Cruz' father (Rafael) grew up in communist Cuba. [5]Rafael warns Americans about the socialist agenda at work now in the United States. He warns that the homosexual agenda has nothing to do with " it is really about CONTROL over people; it is about destroying the family. So far their Luciferian socialist agenda is working!

This month the governor of New York has called out the National Guard, armed with machine guns to patrol NYC subways due to out of control violent crimes in recent years. Video after video online show [6]criminals pushing people onto the train tracks.

In this [7]horrific scene, a woman dropped her cellphone onto the train tracks. She jumped down to get her phone, and then tried to get to a ladder to climb back up to the platform, but a speeding train killed her before she could get to the ladder. Some evil people standing on the platform actually took photos of her severed body parts all over the train tracks and uploaded them to the internet. What monsters! Those people didn't offer to help her. Someone could have gave her a hand and pulled her up, but they did nothing. What evil.

The world has always been a wicked place (1st John 5:19), but today we are seeing evil times not existent since before the flood of Noah's day (Matthew 24:37-39). Jesus foretold in Matthew 24:12 that because of unpunished evil (iniquity, lawlessness) the love of MANY would wax cold, and it sure has. Lawlessness in American society, and the transgendered insanity being forced upon our children, rampant legalized theft by the Federal Reserve Ponzi Scheme, and every form of debauchery and sinister corruption imaginable today is undermining our nation. A nation cannot survive treason from within!

I have never seen things so bad as they are today. It is becoming very hard to find a good church to attend. Most Baptist churches today are preaching another gospel (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4) that requires you to surrender all, turn from your sinful bad habits, and trade your selfish desires in exchange to get to Heaven. That is not the Gospel of free grace! The churches today are full of Satan's [8]corruptible seed (a great sermon by Dr. Jack Hyles). Beware of neo-evangelical churches!!! Also, beware of pseudo (fake) churches, like Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College (PCC). [9]They also preach a counterfeit gospel. You'd be shocked to find out how many pastors today are preaching a partial faith in Christ PLUS being willing to forsake your sinful bad habits to be saved, crap. PCC is guilty! [10]Bob Jones University is guilty!

as foretold in 2nd Timothy 3:1-7. But dear saint of God (I hope you are saved, if not, [11]please do it now), Jesus comforted us with these precious inspired words from John 16:33, "These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world." Because Jesus triumphed over sin and death, and is physically risen from the dead, we have the glorious hope of eternal life. As Pastor Jack Hyles rightly said:

"We don't hope we have eternal life; We have the hope of eternal life." Titus 1:2, "In hope of eternal life, which God, that cannot lie, promised before the world began; " And what a precious hope it is!!!

5.3.19 The Way To God Is Through The Blood Of Christ (2024-03-30 11:32)

Hebrews 9:11-12, " But Christ being come an high priest of good things to come, by a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building; Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us."

1st Peter 1:18-21, " Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers; But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot:

Who verily was foreordained before the foundation of the world, but was manifest in these last times for you, Who by him do believe in God, that raised him up from the dead, and gave him glory; that your faith and hope might be in God."

I purchased '[1]The Strand Study Bible' last year, which I cherish. Pastor Strand was one of my Bible professors at Hyles-Anderson College (1985-1993). I was delighted to learn about his study Bible, which took him over 30,000 hour to complete, in 33 years. It is well worth the money. I was reading Psalm 77:13 yesterday, "Thy way, O God, is in the sanctuary: who is so great a God as our God?" Here is

Brother Strand's helpful Bible commentary:

> The " WAY " to God has always been through the shed blood of an innocent sacrifice (Lev. 17:11, 12). The LORD planned it that way before the world began (Rev. 13:8 and Titus 1:2). CHRIST , the innocent One (II Cor. 5:21), fulfilled what all the animal sacrifices pictured (Heb. 9:1-14) and became the LAMB OF GOD (Jn. 1:29), our SANCTUARY (Rev. 21:3), and the only WAY to God (Jn. 14:6). Once the blood of CHRIST was applied to the Mercy Seat within the sanctuary in Heaven, the WAY to God was established.
> SOURCE: Pastor Brad Strand, The Strand Study Bible, p. 905

I was delighted to learn that Pastor Strand correctly teaches that it was absolutely necessary for Jesus' literal liquid blood to be applied to the heavenly Mercy Seat. Many theologians and preachers deny this critically important truth (e.g., Merrill F. Unger, Robert B. Thieme Jr., John MacArthur, et cetera). The inspired King James Bible plainly states:

> Hebrews 9:22-26, "And almost all things are by the law purged with blood; and without shedding of blood is no remission. It was therefore necessary that the patterns of things in the heavens should be purified with these; but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these.
> For Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us*:
> Nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the high priest entereth into the holy place every year with blood of others;

> For then must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world: but now once in the end of the world hath he appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself.

The Bible could not be any more clear that Jesus absolutely needed to sprinkle His OWN blood upon the Mercy Seat in Heaven (Hebrews 12:24). I am shocked that any preacher could actually deny this great truth. As you will see for yourself in the following disturbing quotes from Pastor John MacArthur, he adamantly denies the efficacy (power) of Jesus' liquid blood.

John MacArthur's Deception On The Blood Of Jesus

“Of how much sorer punishment, suppose ye, shall he be thought worthy, who hath trodden under foot the Son of God, and hath counted the blood of the covenant, wherewith he was sanctified, AN UNHOLY THING, and hath done despite unto the Spirit of grace?” ” —Hebrews 10:29

The April 1986 edition of Faith For The Family quotes Pastor MacArthur as saying in a 1976 article entitled, “Not His Bleeding But His Dying”:

> “It was His death that was efficacious . . . not His blood . . . Christ did not bleed to death. The shedding of blood had nothing to do with bleeding . . . it simply means death . . . Nothing in His human blood saves . . . It is not His blood that I love . . . it is Him. It is not His bleeding that saved me, but His dying.” [emphasis added]

Mr. MacArthur is a hellbound heretic infidel who states:

> "It is not the actual liquid that cleanses us from our sins, but the work of redemption Christ accomplished in pouring it out." —Dr. John MacArthur
> SOURCE: [3]http://www.spurgeon.org/ phil/articles/blood.htm

In MacArthur's more recent Revised and Updated Study Bible, he avoids Exodus 12:13 like the Bubonic Plague:

> Exodus 12:13, "And the blood shall be to you for a token upon the houses where ye are: and when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and the plague shall not be upon you to destroy you, when I smite the land of Egypt."

Dr. MacArthur doesn't comment directly concerning this verse. It baffles me as to why any professed Gospel preacher would make light of the literal blood of Jesus Christ.

Pastor R.B. Thieme Jr. in Texas popularized the false teaching denying the literal blood of Christ. Perhaps MacArthur learned this heresy from R.B. Thieme Jr., but I do not know. One thing is certain, they BOTH teach the same damnable heresy denying the efficacy (redeeming power) of Jesus' physical blood. Hebrews 9:12 tells us that Jesus entered into the heavenly Holy Place "BY HIS OWN BLOOD." Yet, MacArthur claims that the Bible does not really mean what it says. Says who? That is just more MacArthurology!

Dr. MacArthur has nothing good to say about Jesus' physical blood, because he doesn't think it has any value in and of itself. What good is a "Study Bible" that ignores the most important doctrine in the entire Bible?

MacArthur's Deceitful, Confusing and Misleading Philosophies On the Blood of Christ

Deceitfully, in MacArthur's Revised and Updated Study Bible, he comments concerning 1st Peter 1:18,19 on page 1941:

> "The price paid to a holy God was the shed blood of His own Son."
> SOURCE: The Revised and Updated edition of 'The MacArthur Study Bible,' Thomas Nelson publishers, p. 1941

Yet, to show you how deceitful MacArthur is, take a look at his comments concerning Hebrews 9:22 (i.e., "without shedding of blood there is no remission") on page 1912 of his Revised and Updated Study Bible:

> "'Shedding of blood' refers to death."
> SOURCE: The Revised and Updated edition of 'The MacArthur Study Bible,' Thomas Nelson publishers, p. 1912

Wow! What a deceiver! If God meant "death," then He would have said "death"; BUT He didn't, He said "shedding of blood."

Christ's virgin birth, sinless life, death, burial and bodily resurrection all led up to the application of His precious blood to the mercy seat in Heaven. MacArthur denies this vehemently. Take at look at what MacArthur comments on page 1910 of his Revised and Updated Study Bible concerning Hebrews 9:12 (i.e., “Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us”):

> “A better translation would be ’through His own blood.’ ... Nothing is said which would indicate that Christ carried His actual physical blood with Him into the heavenly sanctuary.” [emphasis added]
> SOURCE: The Revised and Updated edition of ’The MacArthur Study Bible,’ Thomas Nelson publishers, p. 1910

On the contrary, the King James Bible states, “Moreover he [Moses] sprinkled with blood both the tabernacle, and all the vessels of the ministry ... For Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us” (Hebrews 9:21, 24; also, see Hebrews 9:12). If you’ll take the time to carefully read the entire chapter of Hebrews 9, you’ll find the word “blood” mentioned 12 times. It is gross theological incompetence for Dr. MacArthur to teach that Jesus’ blood merely refers to His death. The Bible doesn’t agree with that. God said what He meant, and He meant what He said. If God intended to say “ death, then He wouldn’t have used that word instead, but God chose to use the word

Clearly, Mr. MacArthur has an agenda.

You’ll also learn that the Old Testament tabernacle was a “figure” of the true Tabernacle in Heaven. Just as the Old Testament high priest was required to bring the lamb’s literal physical shed BLOOD into the holy place and sprinkle it upon the mercy seat, so did Jesus Christ enter into the heavenly Holy Place with His own literal blood and sprinkle it upon the mercy seat (Hebrews 12:24). MacArthur is very wrong!

Hebrews 9:12 in the King James Bible states, “Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but BY HIS OWN BLOOD he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us.” MacArthur claims that the phrase “by his own blood” should have been translated “through his own blood”; however, then this means that we would also need to change the phrase “by the blood of goats and calves” to “through the blood of goats and calves.”

So then why did God require the blood of animals UPON THE MERCY SEAT in the Old Testament? Leviticus 17:11, “For the life of the flesh is in the blood: and I have given it to you upon the altar to make an atonement for your souls: for it is the blood that maketh an atonement for the soul.” Perhaps Mr. MacArthur needs some better reading glasses.

Here are MacArthur's comments for Leviticus 17:11, i.e., the phrase "the life of the flesh is in the blood":

> "...the shedding of blood represents the shedding of life, i.e., death ... NT references to the shedding of the blood of Jesus Christ are references to His death."

There is NO such teaching in the Scripture! John MacArthur has fabricated his own corrupt way of thinking. Hebrews 9:6-7, "Now when these things were thus ordained, the priests went always into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the service of God. But into the second [i.e., the holy of holies] went the high priest alone once every year, NOT WITHOUT BLOOD, which he offered for himself, and for the errors of the people." How can Mr. MacArthur be so naïve and unbiblical as to claim that Jesus' literal physical blood didn't need to be applied to the Mercy Seat in Heaven, in consideration of such overwhelming Scriptural evidence? What part of " NOT WITHOUT BLOOD doesn't Mr. MacArthur understand?

The inspired Word of God clearly teaches that the Old Testament ceremonial laws were SHADOWS of future things to come. All of the Old Testament high priests, sacrificial lambs, tabernacle, holy of holies and mercy seat were symbolic of the true one's in Heaven. Hebrews 10:1, "

For the law having a shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually make the comers thereunto perfect."

A shadow is cast when the sun is at a distance, but when the sun rises directly overhead the shadow is gone. Likewise, when Christ fulfilled the law (Romans 10:3-4) by becoming the sacrificial Lamb to pay for the sins of mankind through Calvary's cross, and He sprinkled His shed blood upon the Mercy Seat in Heaven, the shadow was gone. The realities of the shadows were fulfilled.

Romans 10:4, " For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth."

MacArthur really gets confusing in his commentary of Hebrews 9:7 on page 1910, the phrase "not without blood":

> "...the shedding of blood in and of itself is an insufficient sacrifice. Christ had not only to shed His blood, but to die ... Without His death, his blood had no saving value."

While it is true that Jesus' death was absolutely essential to His work of redemption, MacArthur attempts to use this Scriptural fact as a means of completely disregarding the efficacy (power) of the literal physical blood of Jesus. Hebrews 9:7 isn't talking about the "death" of the sacrificed animal, it is talking about the "blood" of the sacrificed animal. The truth is that Jesus' virgin birth, sinless life, vicarious death, burial and bodily resurrection were all EQUALLY as important as the blood sacrifice itself; but all those things led up to the blood being applied to the Mercy Seat in the heavenly Holy Place (Hebrews 9:12, 22-24, 12:24).

To deny this is to deny the entire Old Testament, all the types, all the blood sacrifices, and the FACT that God would have killed any high priest who dared enter into the holy of holies WITHOUT BLOOD.

John MacArthur's entire "Study Bible" maliciously, but subtly, attacks the precious blood of Jesus Christ. Again 1st Peter 1:18,19 states: "Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers; But with the precious blood of Christ..." Now how can Jesus' blood be PRECIOUS if it is only representative of His death?

MacArthur continually badmouths the literal blood of Jesus Christ, while simultaneously claiming that he views it as precious of something else it represents. That makes no sense at all. The blood of Jesus is "precious" to the genuine born-again believer because it is LITERAL, having obtained literal redemption for us, washing our sins away just as 1st John 1:7 promised!

To no surprise, on page 1964 of MacArthur's Revised and Updated "Study Bible," in his comments concerning 1st John 1:7, he doesn't even address the blood of Jesus. How could any preacher completely avoid such a precious Scripture which teaches that Jesus' blood washes our sins away?

God says that Jesus' blood cleanses and washes our sins away (1st John 1:7). We read in Revelation 7:14, "And I said unto him, Sir, thou knowest. And he said to me, These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb." How does someone like MacArthur just keep explaining all these Scriptures away? What a false prophet! MacArthur is of the Devil. How does a saint wash his robe with death? It makes no sense. Ah, but if you believe the Word of God, i.e., that Jesus' literal blood washes our sins away, then Revelation 7:14 makes perfect sense.

John MacArthur Trots Under Foot the Son of God

Anyone who denies that Jesus Christ is almighty God (i.e., deity) is NOT saved. Anyone who denies Jesus' virgin birth is NOT saved. Anyone who denies Jesus' bodily resurrection is NOT saved. Anyone who denies the sinlessness of Jesus is NOT saved. Anyone who denies that Jesus is the Son of God is NOT saved! MacArthur correctly believes all of these doctrines; but when it comes to the literal blood of Jesus, he falls short utterly. Anyone who denies the redemptive power of Jesus' literal physical blood is NOT saved! These are absolute fundamental doctrines of the Christian faith! These are all part of what the Bible calls, the "[4]DOCTRINE OF CHRIST" (2nd John 1:9)!

Many ministers have been deceived by John MacArthur, because he is doctrinally correct in most areas. Unfortunately, MacArthur is WRONG on salvation and the blood of Christ. If a man is wrong on salvation, then he is wrong on everything. MacArthur is a [5]5 point Calvinist, teaching predestination and limited atonement. This explains his Calvinistic views on Lordship Salvation and the perseverance of the saints in order to be saved. The Bible condemns Calvinism in all its tenets.

Certainly no two preachers agree on everything; but when a preacher is wrong on salvation and the blood of Christ, and teaches other ministers those heresies, a faithful man of God needs to cry aloud and expose that false prophet by proclaiming the Word of God. The Bible proclaims the blood of the Lamb from Genesis to Revelation; whereas MacArthur tramples Christ's holy blood underfoot as if it were something unholy:

> Hebrews 10:29, "Of how much sorer punishment, suppose ye, shall he be thought worthy, who hath trodden under foot the Son of God, and hath counted the blood of the covenant, wherewith he was sanctified, an unholy thing, and hath done despite unto the Spirit of grace?"

The Greek word for "unholy" here is koinos and means "common, that is, shared by all." It means regarding the blood of Jesus as nothing special, common. Although MacArthur states in one breath that Jesus' blood is precious, he deceitfully then states that Jesus' blood soaked into the ground at Calvary. MacArthur teaches that it was the "pouring out" of Christ's blood that was precious, and not the physical blood itself. MacArthur teaches that the blood of Jesus is only precious in that it represents the death of Christ on the cross for our sins. That is unbiblical.

The Bible calls John MacArthur a liar and false prophet, because the blood had to be applied in Heaven, just as the Old Testament high priest had to apply the lamb's blood once a year to the mercy seat in the earthly tabernacle.

Jesus' Precious Blood Is On The Mercy Seat In Heaven

Brother Strand's helpful Bible commentary:

> The " *WAY " to God has always been through the shed blood of an innocent sacrifice (Lev. 17:11, 12). The LORD planned it that way before the world began (Rev. 13:8 and Titus 1:2). CHRIST , the innocent One (II Cor. 5:21), fulfilled what all the animal sacrifices pictured (Heb. 9:1-14) and became the LAMB OF GOD (Jn. 1:29), our SANCTUARY (Rev. 21:3), and the only WAY to God (Jn. 14:6). Once the blood of CHRIST was applied to the Mercy Seat within the sanctuary in Heaven, the WAY to God was established.
> SOURCE: Pastor Brad Strand, The Strand Study Bible, p. 905

Amen and amen! I thank God for doctrinally sound preachers! Beware of anyone who falsely teaches that Jesus' literal liquid blood doesn't matter. Beware of any theologian or preacher who says that Jesus' pouring out of blood on the cross saved us, but not His blood applied to the Mercy Seat in Heaven. That is exactly what MacArthur teaches! MacArthur foolishly teaches that Jesus' blood is only important in that it represents His death. In sharp contrast, the Bible says that Jesus' literal liquid blood needed to be applied to the Mercy Seat in Heaven.

Redemption Was Not Finished On The Cross

Having said that, I am so sick and tired of hearing ignorant preachers falsely claim that redemption was FINISHED on the cross. They misinterpret Jesus' words on the cross, "It is finished" (John 19:30b). If they would simply read the verses before verse 30, then they would see that Jesus was speaking about all Old Testament prophesy concerning Him had been completed, not redemption. ...

> John 19:27-29, " Then saith he to the disciple, Behold thy mother! And from that hour that disciple took her unto his own home. After this, Jesus knowing that all things were now accomplished, that the scripture might be fulfilled, saith, I thirst. Now there was set a vessel full of vinegar: and they filled a spunge with vinegar, and put it upon hyssop, and put it to his mouth."

When Jesus uttered the memorable words, "It is finished," He hadn't died yet. He hadn't been buried yet. He hadn't physically resurrected from the dead yet. These three things comprise "the gospel" by which we are saved (Romans 1:16; 1st Corinthians 15:1-4). So there is no way that redemption could have been finished when Christ uttered those classic words.

The Death of the Passover Lamb Was NOT Enough

When the Lord was going to pass over Egypt and destroy the firstborn, he said to Moses and Aaron in Exodus 12:13:

> Exodus 12:13, "And the blood shall be to you for a token upon the houses where ye are: and WHEN I SEE THE BLOOD, I will pass over you, and the plague shall not be upon you to destroy you, when I smite the land of Egypt."

The death of the lamb wasn't enough, the blood had to be applied Mr. MacArthur. God wasn't looking for a dead lamb in the backyard; No, rather, God was looking for the APPLIED BLOOD on the doorposts and lintel (doorplate) above the door. The blood had to be [6]applied. John MacArthur's entire ministry is flawed, and he is a false prophet, simply because he is WRONG on the most important Christian doctrine of all—Jesus precious, literal, liquid, blood! No genuinely saved person would ever deny the redemptive power of Jesus' physical blood!

> "Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but BY HIS OWN BLOOD he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us." —Hebrews 9:12

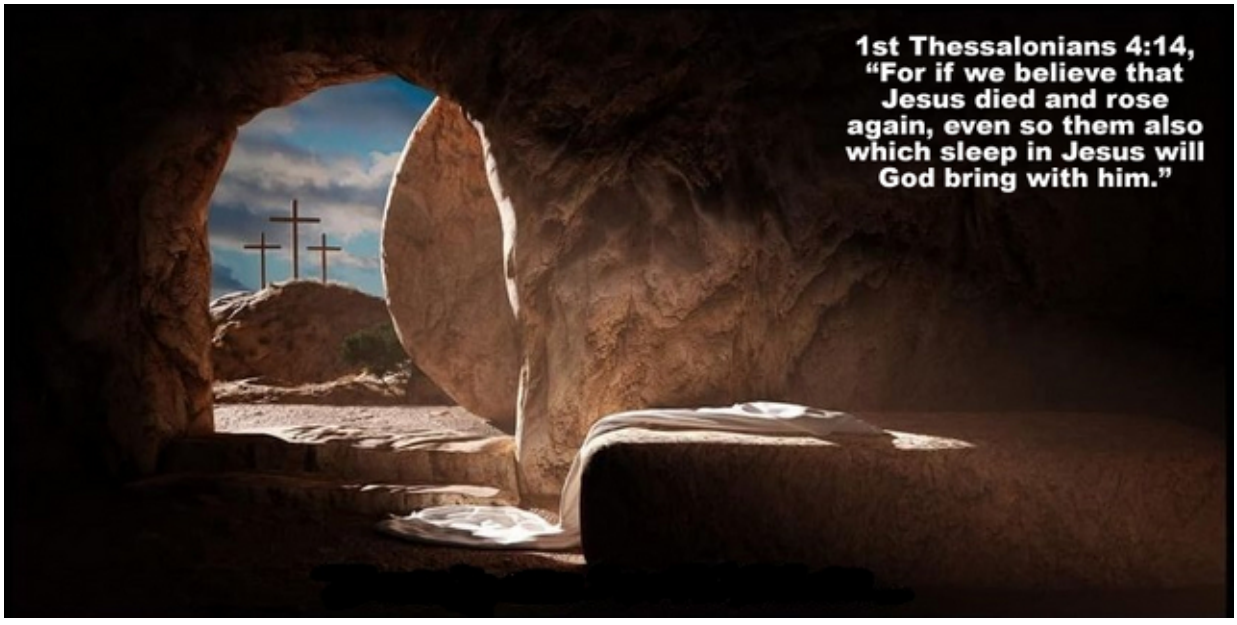
5.3.20 Why Do We Love God? (2024-03-31 09:12)



1st John 4:19, "We love him, because he first loved us."

Why do we love God? The inspired Holy Bible plainly gives us the answer. We love God because He first loved us. I cherish the following passage of Scripture:

> Romans 5:6-9, "For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly. For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die. But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him."

How many people do you know that would sacrifice their life for someone? How about for a righteous man? How about even for a good man? Or how about for a convicted criminal? Jesus did dear friend. Jesus died for murderers! Jesus gladly sacrificed His life for pedophiles! Jesus laid down His life for thieves, adulterers and false prophets! Would you be willing to make such a sacrifice? I know that I wouldn't. I wouldn't give my life to die for a criminal. Oh, but the dear Savior did. Jesus paid a debt He did not owe, because we owed a debt we could not pay. JESUS PAID IT ALL!!!

I have to admit that I am a bit baffled as to why God would love somebody like me. 1st John 4:19, "We love him, because he first loved us." I am awkward around people, a bit of a social misfit. I am shy and even have some social anxiety around people at times. I once heard Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) say that he felt like nobody wanted to be around him because of his personality as a preacher. People saw a bombastic aggressive preacher in the pulpit. Dr. Hyles was known for taking an uncompromising stand and promoting biblical separation. He oftentimes had to use tough love in his daily ministry work. Yet, most people loved Brother Hyles, including myself.

In hindsight, I am glad that I didn't have the opportunity to get to know Pastor Hyles any closer than I did. We are all human and have our faults. Everyone has an ugly side that we don't want others to see. I want people to see my good side, my loving side, not my cranky side because of my chronic neck pain that afflicts me. I also feel like nobody wants to be around me. However, they are just feelings, not necessarily reality. So often what we think about ourselves is not based upon what we think, or even upon what other people think, but upon what we think other people are thinking about us. That is very true and interesting.

1st John 4:19, "We love him, because he first loved us." Dear reader, God loves you and me regardless of how we may feel. There is not even one human being whom God created that He doesn't love. We know this truth because Jesus died for all mankind. John 3:16, "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life."

"And he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world." Please don't ever believe any liar who says that Jesus didn't die for all humanity.

In the two Scripture passages that I just shared with you, we clearly see that Christ died for all mankind. That was the entire point of Romans 5:6-9 that we read earlier—Jesus was willing to sacrifice His life on the cross for even the vilest of wicked sinners! Ungodly people who you might cringe at their very presence, Jesus was willing to be crucified to give them a chance to be redeemed if they so choose to be by faith in Him.

Telling The Truth Makes Enemies

We love God because He first loved us. What a precious truth! I can name a handful of preachers, churches and ministry websites who despise me. They have banned me from attending their neo-evangelicals churches. When I lived on Guam for 17 years, I was cruelly banned from attending the Harvest Baptist Church by senior pastor, Marty Herron (a wicked Lordship Salvation infidel). When I moved to Pensacola in 2021, I was banned from attending Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College (PCC) by their ungodly senior pastor, Jeff Redlin ([2]who promotes a counterfeit gospel). What wicked wolves in sheep's clothing!

[3]PCC's students are hurting, but their carnally-minded arrogant leadership is so apostate that you cannot reason with fools. God's curse is upon PCC for preaching another gospel. You do not have to be willing to forsake sinful bad habits to get to Heaven. Self reformation is not a prerequisite to saving faith.

Pensacola Christian Christian Cult Exposed

If it wasn't for the hatred, bigotry and shameful unchristian behavior of their Campus Church pastors at PCC, I wouldn't be preaching against them. All I humbly wanted was to come back to church, but their ungodly pastors refused. Only a religious CULT selectively cares about people. The sad truth is that [4]PCC doesn't care about anybody.

Here are [5]umpteen negative reviews of PCC, revealing the dark underbelly of the filthy religious beast. Bigotry done under the pretense of prayer is still bigotry. PCC are full of religious bigots! Divorced people are shunned, as I was at PCC. Single divorced people are condemned to forever remain unmarried, even after 15 years of being divorced. You need to beware of PCC's hateful culture of authoritarian abuse. You won't find any genuine love or compassion at PCC. They are college yuppie types, woefully lacking in understanding and love.

> "The pastors have destroyed the churches, and they've been [6]trained by people that have never built churches, and [7]they have no compassion." —Pastor Jack Hyles, "[8]Many Pastors Have Destroyed My Vineyard"

I wouldn't give you a dime for the pseudo-Christian culture of bullying and abuse at PCC! To survive at PCC you must dot your i's, cross your t's, and walk a very fine line. If you veer even a little bit to the left or right, you'll be on the outside looking in before you realize what happened. It doesn't matter if you're a senior student, who has invested years of hard work to earn your degree, PCC leaders will throw you under the bus and axe your head off like a turkey on Thanksgiving Day! Just ask senior [9]PCC student Allen Armentrout! I commend and stand with Allen Armentrout. PCC only cares about protecting their cult institution's name at all cost, even if it means crucifying and sacrificing their own students as pawns.

Unlike God who loved us FIRST so that we would love Him, PCC mistreats people and holds grudges first, and then wonder why they have so many enemies. It is a biblical principle that Christians are supposed to love people FIRST, to show them God's unconditional love:

> Matthew 5:44-46, “But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you;
> That ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven: for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust.
>
> For if ye love them which love you, what reward have ye? do not even the publicans the same?

Although some people might consider this truth an advanced teaching only for mature believers, it is actually kindergarten for saints. Every Christian, even new babes in Christ who just got saved, should be taught to love everyone unconditionally with Christ’s compassionate love. PCC is a cesspool of rules, strictness, policies, security, scrutiny and coldness. I do not recommend that anyone attend PCC, unless you want to waste 4 years of your life, tens of thousands of dollars, and be corrupted by their Laodicean phony type of Christianity which in Revelation 3:17 Jesus Himself called: wretched, miserable, poor, blind and naked.

1st John 4:19, “We love him, because he first loved us.” May we all do the same, to be like our heavenly Father.

5.4.1 Our Incredible God (2024-04-05 10:18)

Acts 26:8, “Why should it be thought a thing incredible with you, that God should raise the dead?”

There is no God like our God, the God of the Bible, the God of true Israel. In fact, there is no other true and living God. I was admiring some tasty pitted olives with pimento that I was eating. I crave olives every time I read about them in the Old Testament. I also enjoyed some delicious salsa that I bought which is made of tomatoes, onions, some hot peppers, et cetera. I thought, "What if God had never created tomatoes?" Could you imagine if there were no tomatoes? There would be no pizza! There would be no spaghetti sauce. There would be no marinara. There would be no recipes containing tomato sauce! What if God had never created lettuce? There would be no salads?

Do you know that our heart beats an astonishing 100,000 each and every day of our life? It's true. That's 36,000,000 times a year! The human heart beats a shocking 2,500,000,000 times in a 70-year lifetime! Wow! Even when we are sleeping, our heart is still pumping blood faster than once each second. Truly, the human heart is beyond amazing. God is truly incredible and amazing!

Did you know that a rocket must travel at speeds of 25,000 miles per hour to overcome the earth's gravitation forces to leave the planet? That's fast! That would be equivalent to traveling 7 miles in one second. You could travel 100 miles in just 14 seconds! Wow! Scientists have developed a jet plane nowadays that can travel 4,200 miles per hour. They [2]can fly from London to Sydney in just 2-hours. They have unmanned drones that can travel even faster!

God is so awesome! I could mention a thousand different things which all testify of God's existence, His omnipotence (all-powerful), omnibenevolence (all-loving), omniscient (all-knowing) and omnipresence (all-present). Truly, the Lord is greatly to be praised. If you have never received Jesus Christ as your personal Savior dear reader, then [3]I plead with you to do so right now. John 1:12, "[4]But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name: Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God." I encourage you to watch the following free online documentary, which covers various subjects, all testifying to OUR INCREDIBLE GOD!

God Of Wonders

A Star That Spins Over 1,000,000 MPH!

If you think that is fast, then this will blow your mind away. Astronomers have discovered a star that spins over 1,000,000 miles per hour on its axis. I cannot even comprehend such incredible destructive speeds.

> Fastest Ever Spinning Star Found In Nearby Galaxy
> SPACE. COM | December 5, 2011
> Astronomers have spotted the fastest rotating star yet found — a massive and bright young star located in our neighboring dwarf galaxy, the Large Magellanic Cloud.
> The giant star lies in the Tarantula Nebula, approximately 160,000 light-years away from Earth, and spins 100 times faster than the sun — at a dizzying pace of 1 million miles (1.6 million kilometers) per hour. The star, officially called VFTS 102, is approaching the point when it will be torn apart by centrifugal forces if it spins any faster, the researchers said.
>
> Based on their observations, the international team of astronomers thinks the star may have had a violent past and was likely ejected from a double-star system when its companion erupted in a supernova explosion. ...
> SOURCE: [5]Fastest Ever Spinning Star Found in Nearby Galaxy

The following information from NASA tells us that the star spins so fast that it has become flattened due to centrifugal force. Centrifugal force is the tendency of a spinning object to move in a straight line. This is incredible science, and it testifies of our incredible God Who made it all . . .

> The massive, bright young star, called VFTS 102, rotates at a million miles per hour, or 100 times faster than our sun does. Centrifugal forces from this dizzying spin rate have flattened the star into an oblate shape and spun off a disk of hot plasma, seen edge on in this view from a hypothetical planet. The star may have "spun up" by accreting material from a binary companion star. The rapidly evolving companion later exploded as a supernova. The whirling star lies 160,000 light-years away in the Large Magellanic Cloud, a satellite galaxy of the Milky Way.

Amazing Facts About Our Universe

I love astronomy. Scientists have determined that there are at least one trillion billion stars (1,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,000) and they cannot see far enough into the vast universe to count any higher. By the way, that number I just gave you is one octillion!!! How can anyone deny or even question the Word of God?

> There Are More Stars In The Universe Than Sand On Earth, But More Atoms In One Grain Of Sand

Wow! Can you imagine? There are more stars in the universe than all the sand grains of every seashore on earth! If that's not mind-boggling enough, consider that each star of the universe is separated by TRILLIONS of miles. The nearest star to our earth, besides our local sun, is named Alpha Century, which resides a shocking 27,000,000,000,000 miles away!!! That's 4.6 light-years! In other words, if you could travel at the speed of light (which is 186,282 miles per second), it would take you nearly 5-years to reach Alpha Century.

If you were to leave the earth, you would have to travel for 100,000 light years before you'd recognize the Milky Way Solar System. You would have to travel for 10,000,000,000 light years just to get a glimpse of the KNOWN universe. Mankind has yet to discover how big the universe really is, and man never will. Psalms 145:3, "Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised; and his greatness is unsearchable."

Light travels at a mind-numbing speed of 670,616,629 mph! The Ant Nebula (Mz3) is a planetary 3,000 light years away. It spans one light year across in width, producing streams of charged particles which travel up to 2,000,000 miles per hour. God is incredible!

The much anticipated [8]James Webb Space Telescope (JWST) is due for launch in 2018. It will replace the old but wonderful Hubble Space Telescope. The JWST will be 7-times more powerful than Hubble. Lord willing, it will be exciting to see the new images taken with the advanced technology. The new [9]JWST requires an operating temperature of just 7 degrees Fahrenheit above absolute zero. "Absolute Zero" is -459.6 degrees (BELOW zero) Fahrenheit, which is the coldest temperature obtainable. At Absolute Zero everything turns into solids. To say that the JWST is incredibly amazing is an understatement, but it is God Who makes all these incredibly amazing sciences a reality.

The planets of our Solar System are amazingly intriguing:

1. Mercury’s temperature’s vary by as much as 1,000 degrees from one side of the sphere to the other.
2. For unknown reasons, Venus is the only planet that rotates the opposite of earth, from east to west. Venus’ cloud cover is 140 miles thick. Venus temperatures rise to a shocking 900 degrees Fahrenheit. Venus turns once on its axis every 240 earth days. A year is 32-weeks-long. That’s quite amazing!
3. Known as “the red planet,” Mars has seasons, like earth. The largest volcano on Mars is three times higher than Mount Everest on earth.
4. Jupiter is large enough to hold 1,000 earths. It rotates on it’s axis once every 10-hours! Wow! Jupiter is composed of hot liquid and gas. Jet Stream winds turn in opposite directions, creating amazing art on the planet’s colorful surface. Discovered over 400 years ago, a giant storm has been raging on the surface of Jupiter, with a diameter of twice the size of the United States. The storm rotates once every 6-days.
5. Saturn is half the size of Jupiter. Saturn’s rings are composed of thousands of layers of ice and debris.
6. Uranus’ polar regions face almost directly into the sun.
7. Neptune in the windiest planet. Winds reach up to 1,500 mph. The planet has 8 known moons. Neptune’s surface is hot liquid, with a solid core. The atmosphere is poisonous methane gas.
8. Pluto is so cold that its atmosphere is gel.

It’s been estimated that only 2 % of our solar system falls within temperatures which can sustain life. The earth’s temperature is just right. Even though the moon is the right distance from the sun, there’s not enough gravity to hold an atmosphere, nor any water. There are thousands of factors all involved for life to exist. Only God could have made all these conditions happen. There’s no place like home on earth! Only a wicked fool would blindly deny the existence and wise hand of an all-powerful Creator!

Since there is intelligent design in creation, it is reasonable to conclude that there must also be an intelligent Creator. I am amazed how many people are willing to believe in the possibility that aliens created mankind, yet those same people refuse to acknowledge the possibility of a divine Creator, God.

God’s Incredible Creation is Seen Under a Microscope

Just as incredibly humbling, awesome and breathtaking as looking through the [10]Hubble Space Telescope at the universe, so also is God’s omnipotent and omniscient, all-wise, handiwork [11]seen at work under a powerful microscope. If you’ve never viewed common things in our daily life as seen under a microscope, you’re going to be absolutely amazed and awed. Take a look at the trillions of frightening looking creatures that live on our human body, which all serve a useful purpose to keep us healthy. When you die, the only thing that dies is your body (2nd Corinthians 5:8). Your soul and spirit do not die. Albeit, if you die in your sins, God will cast your spirit, soul and a special body (able to tolerate incredible pain without being destroyed) into the Lake of Fire forever.

God's wondrous creation extends far beyond what the human senses can perceive. [12]Scientists Inscribe Entire Bible On Head Of A Pin. God is amazing. Psalms 145:1-4, "I will extol thee, my God, O king; and I will bless thy name for ever and ever. Every day will I bless thee; and I will praise thy name for ever and ever. Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised; and his greatness is unsearchable. One generation shall praise thy works to another, and shall declare thy mighty acts."

I encourage you to search online for images taken under a microscope, which testify further of our incredible God.

God's Incredible Power is Seen in Energy

Did you know that [13]the nuclear energy contained in a medium-sized oak tree could power all of the United States for 10-years? It's true. The U.S. consumes 4,500,000,000,000 kilowatts hours of electricity each year. One medium-sized tree would produce 45,000,000,000,000 kilowatt hours of electricity if all of its nuclear energy were released.

Mankind hasn't even begun to tap into the incredible energy of which our universe is composed. I am totally convinced that solar energy is the wave of the future. Most people would be totally amazed if they knew how powerful the sun's rays are. I know people who have solar panels on their roof and don't pay a penny for electricity. They save thousands of dollars each year, and in many cases people sell electricity back to the power company. [14]Take a look at this video, where a man with a simple screen from a [15]Rear Projection TV focuses the sun's rays to produce temperatures of 2,000 degrees Fahrenheit. He melts concrete, glass and steel. Wow!

In this video a young man aligned 5,800 small mirrors to focus on one point, which produces enough heat to set wood on fire instantly. Scientists have fabricated giant magnifying glasses that [16]can literally redirect the sun's heat rays to burn holes through solid thick plates of steel. God is amazing!!! It is wonderful what God has allowed mankind to discover and achieve over the past 200 years. I often think how interesting it would be if I could go back through time to the times of the Egyptians or Babylonians, and could introduce them to the science of magnetism and teach them how motors and generators work based upon the basic principles of magnetism. I would teach them about oil, engines and mechanics.

Did you know that the first Diesel engine was invented in the year 1900 by Robert Diesel and ran on pure peanut oil? Isn't that beautiful? The best fuel in the world is hemp seed oil, which yields the highest amount of power per unit. Did you know that there are male and female plants? God is truly incredible!!! I've always loved that Diesel engines can run on pure vegetable oil, a renewable source of fuel energy.

The incredible world of electricity was right under the nose of mankind for thousands of years, but no one knew how to produce or harness that power. In order for all these convenient, beneficial and practical, inventions to become a reality, there had to first happen the industrial revolution, basic chemistry, basic physics and other basic sciences. If the Lord tarries His return, humanity is going to behold mind-boggling inventions and discoveries in the next 50 years!!! The whole of man's knowledge doubles every 8-years!

If the Lord tarries His return, I believe that in the future solar energy will supply most of mankind's energy needs. We've all enjoyed the intense warmth of the sun on a bright sunny day. At high noon, just an hour under the sun's intense rays can produce bad sunburn. It's the infrared rays that produce the heat we feel from the sun. Ultraviolet ray cannot be felt, but produce the sunburn. The suns produces radiation (gamma rays), and the visible white light spectrum. The brilliant colors of the white light spectrum are produced when the sun's rays are refracted, bent, by particles of moisture, smoke, dust, debris and air itself in the atmosphere.

The sun is an absolute necessity for all life in our solar system, because God made it that way. This is why the Bible calls Jesus the "SUN OF RIGHTEOUSNESS"! Malachi 4:2, "But unto you that fear my name shall the Sun of righteousness arise with healing in his wings; and ye shall go forth, and grow up as calves of the stall." Jesus is the sole source of spiritual life. Christ is the foundation of Christianity (1st Corinthians 3:11). Apart from faith in Jesus Christ crucified on the cross for our sins, buried and risen from the dead, there is no salvation nor eternal life (Acts 4:10-12).

Just think if something went wrong and our sun's rays were intensified even the slightest bit... our earth would burn up! Our forests would burn immediately! The earth's oceans would evaporate violently and the consequent storms would be fiercely abundant, merciless and totally destructive. Life would no longer be sustainable upon the earth. The sun is an astonishing distance of 93,000,000 miles away from the earth. If the sun were merely a few million miles closer, our earth's temperatures would rise drastically and could no longer sustain life.

There is no way that anyone with a working brain can reasonably deny the existence of a supernatural Creator Who made the universe. We see incredible INTELLIGENCE in all of creation, and intelligence cannot come from an accidental, chaotic, cataclysmic, Big Bang! We see incredible DESIGN in all of creation, which shouts loud and clear that there is a Creator. To deny God as our Maker is just as foolish as to deny that a complex Swiss watch just happened, without any designer or maker.

The truth is that men love their sins, walking in darkness (John 1:1-12), and hate the light, who is Christ (John 8:12). The latest trend is for the wicked to claim that aliens created mankind, who they say are our gods. Certainly, by very definition God Himself is extraterrestrial (not of the earth), and is an alien, respectively. God doesn't need a spaceship, teleport technology (like on Star Trek), or all the other things which Hollywood has put in our minds concerning monstrous aliens and Martians.

> *By the way, the creature designer (H.R. Giger, 1940-2014) of the popular Alien series starring Sigourney Weaver was a devout Satanist. The alien creature is patterned after Baphomet, the horned goat head, Satan. The ram, or goat's head, is a mockery of the Lamb of God, Jesus Christ.

Thousands Of Varieties Of Foods Couldn't Have Just Happened

In a recent episode titled, “How The Earth Was Made” by Walt Disney’s H2 (History Channel), the narrator (Mike Rowe) refers to the earth’s creation as an “[17]Accidental Aftermath” and a “Cosmic Glitch.” Do you really think it was mere astronomically improbable coincidence that we have a choice to eat between beef, lamb, chicken, pork, lobster, fish (and other varieties) of meat? If there were no divine Maker, then what factor determined that there would be cattle? What factor in the evolutionary process decided that we would have pork? Can you image the world without any of the awesome varieties of fruits, vegetables, meats, spices and foods that we enjoy?

When I enjoy the fresh taste of a flavorful Oscar Meyer bacon sandwich (crispy cooked bacon under higher heat), loaded with fresh crisp lettuce, and Miracle Whip spread on soft white bread (one of my favorite meals), I am reminded how ungrateful the unbelieving world is when they deny the existence of God while eating all of God’s delicious foods. We read that God is kind to evil and unthankful people in Luke 6:35, “But love ye your enemies, and do good, and lend, hoping for nothing again; and your reward shall be great, and ye shall be the children of the Highest: for he is kind unto the unthankful and to the evil.” As Christian believers God also wants us to be kind to evil and unthankful people, so that we may exemplify our dear Savior to the world.

There are many wicked people who choose to worship Satan as their god in exchange for worldly fortune and fame. The Bible even calls Satan “the god of this world” (2nd Corinthians 4:4), but it was Jesus Who created Lucifer, who became Satan by his own rebellion in Heaven.

It is a sin for anyone to ungratefully enjoy God’s delicious foods, breath His clean air, enjoy the warmth of His sun, and all the blessings which God has freely given to us. How do you think God feels when people curse Him and speak evil of Him, while enjoying all His bountiful blessings. The heathen world blames God for man’s wars, greed and wickedness. At the same time those critics fail to thank and acknowledge God for all the wonderful fruits, vegetables, meats, spices, milk, water, et cetera. People fail to thank God for the gift of marriage and the enjoyments sacred within a marriage commitment (Hebrews 13:4). God has been so good to all of us, no matter how bad you may think you have it in life. Psalms 145:9, “The LORD is good to all: and his tender mercies are over all his works.” Oh, praise the Lord all ye land for His goodness. Praise the Lord all you in the world for His kindness, even to the evil and to the unthankful (Luke 6:35). Don’t you dare criticize God for the bad in this world, while totally being oblivious to all the abundant goodness, blessings and benevolence by our holy God. PRAISE YE THE NAME OF THE LORD ALL YE LAND!!!

The Sin Of Being Slow Of Heart To Believe The Holy Scriptures

No wonder Jesus said to the doubting disciples on the road to Emmaus in Luke 24:25-26, “Then he said unto them, O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken: Ought not Christ to have suffered these things, and to enter into his glory?” Jesus Himself calls you a fool if you are slow to believe the Bible (all that the prophets have spoken).

The following passage of Scripture is nothing less than totally amazing. We often here that Mary Magdalene came to Christ’s empty tomb, but we learn here that other women were with her, including Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and other women. Two angels appeared to the group, comforting them by reminding them that the Lord has told them of His crucifixion and resurrection beforehand. Then they returned from the empty tomb as a group and told the eleven apostles and other disciples all that they had seen and heard. The Bible says that their words seemed as fairy tales and THEY DIDN'T BELIEVE THEM! ...

> Luke 24:1-11, "Now upon the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they came unto the sepulchre, bringing the spices which they had prepared, and certain others with them. And they found the stone rolled away from the sepulchre. And they entered in, and found not the body of the Lord Jesus. And it came to pass, as they were much perplexed thereabout, behold, two men stood by them in shining garments: And as they were afraid, and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said unto them, Why seek ye the living among the dead? He is not here, but is risen: remember how he spake unto you when he was yet in Galilee, Saying, The Son of man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again. And they remembered his words, And returned from the sepulchre, and told all these things unto the eleven, and to all the rest. It was Mary Magdalene, and Joanna, and Mary the mother of James, and other women that were with them, which told these things unto the apostles. And their words seemed to them as idle tales, and they believed them not."

Can you image Christ's very apostles not believing? None of them believed the women who had been to the empty tomb. Then Peter and John went to the tomb to see for themselves, but they didn't see Jesus at that point. Two of the disciples went walking down the road to Emmaus and Jesus appeared to them, but they didn't recognize Him. Jesus said to them...

> Luke 24:25-26, "Then he said unto them, O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken: Ought not Christ to have suffered these things, and to enter into his glory?"

My friend, do you really believe that this awesome world just happened, evolving from a Big Bang? Are you slow to believe the Word of God concerning Jesus, the Christ? Do you accept Jesus as the Christ, the Messiah? You cannot have eternal life unless you receive Christ's payment on the cross for your sins. You must believe that Jesus died on the cross for your sins, and that He raised up from the dead three days later for your justification (that is, justifying your faith in Him). Jesus foretold while He was alive that He would be crucified and raise up from the dead after three days, AND HE DID!!! Do you believe that?

When Christ arose, He validated the faith of everyone Who had placed their trust in Him. Their faith wasn't in vain. Their faith was justified. If Christ did not raise up from the dead, then is our faith in vain. 1st Corinthians 15:14, "And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain. And if Christ be not raised, your faith is vain; ye are yet in your sins."

Praise God, Jesus is bodily risen! The demonic religious cult of Jehovah's Witnesses errantly teach that Jesus' spirit was resurrected, but not His physical body. In sharp contrast, the Bible says that Jesus raised up from the dead, bodily, and was seen by over 500 brethren at one time (1st Corinthians 15:6). Amen!

Our good Creator offers to all mankind forgiveness, hope and eternal life through faith in Christ Jesus. Matthew 11:28, "Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest."

The Goodness Of God Leadeth To Repentance

Thank God! Thank God! Thank God, for He is good! The Bible teaches that a thankful attitude precedes a person coming to Christ to be saved, for if a person refuses to acknowledge God's goodness, they WON'T come to Jesus Christ to be saved...

> Romans 1:20-22, "For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse: Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened. Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools."

When a person comes to Christ for salvation, it is because they have repented, that is, they have seen God's goodness and holiness and have acknowledged that they are an unholy sinner in need of a Savior. This is what the Bible means in Romans 2:4, "Or despisest thou the riches of his goodness and forbearance and longsuffering; not knowing that the goodness of God leadeth thee to repentance?" This passage of Scriptures doesn't mean that when God is good to you, that compels you to get saved. The opposite is true. It is God's blessings upon America that have caused us to become spoiled, ungrateful little brats, destroyed by prosperity.

Romans 2:4 means that when we see how wicked we are in comparison to the goodness of our holy God. Romans 2:5, "But after thy hardness and impenitent heart treasurest up unto thyself wrath against the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God; Who will render to every man according to his deeds." As you just read, the opposite of a repentant heart is a hard and impenitent heart.

The word "goodness" in Romans 2:4 is the Greek word chrēstotēs and means "moral excellence" (that is, God's holiness). The word "impenitent" in Romans 2:5 is the Greek word ametanoētos and means "unrepentant." The modern dictionary defines "impenitent" as remorseful, but this is NOT the Biblical meaning, as I just showed you. The Biblical meaning of repentance unto life is "a change of mind." Repentance is changing your mind about your sin (John 3:20) and self-righteous dead works (Hebrews 6:1) which were previously keeping you from coming to Christ to be saved. The man who believes the Gospel has repented.

Hence the Bible is teaching that the person who fails to see God's holiness, consequently also fails to realize their own guilty condition of sin and wickedness. This is what Romans 2:4-5 mean, which is plainly revealed when we examine the Greek. In other words, you cannot get a person saved until you first get them lost (that is, they must realize their lost condition before they will come to Christ to be saved). The most common attribute that we see in unbelievers is that they continually place God on trial by blaming Him, accusing Him, challenging Him and refusing to acknowledge His holiness. The Bible says they are unthankful and their foolish heart is darkened.

Dr. Jack Hyles 100 % correctly and Biblically states concerning repentance...

> “Repentance is not some little silly, ’I’m sorry.’ Repentance is not simply a fear of God. Repentance is not a monk fasting and afflicting his body in a monastery. Repentance is not remorse because of sin’s consequences. Repentance is not penance performed before the pope as you kiss his toe… Repentance is not being sorry for what I’ve done wrong. It is not confessing one’s sins to a priest. It is not just conviction of sin. It is not the signing of a pledge of abstinence. Repentance is that thing when you come before God and see yourself as you are, and see Him as he is, and say with Isaiah ’Woe is me, for I am unclean!”’ —Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001), a quote from the timeless MP3 sermon, [18]THE GOODNESS OF GOD LEADETH TO REPENTANCE!

Amen and amen!

All you have to do to be saved is believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, receiving His death on the cross as full payment for your sins, believing that Christ raised up from the dead, and you will be instantly born-again. Just believe that Jesus did it all for you.

5.4.2 The Science Of Not Becoming Bitter (2024-04-06 08:00)

“The Spirit of God hath made me, and the breath of the Almighty hath given me life.” Job 33:4

by Dr. Jack Hyles (1926-2001)

“Surely thou hast spoken in mine hearing, and I have heard the voice of thy words, saying, I am clean without transgression, I am innocent; neither is there iniquity in me. Behold, he findeth occasions against me, he counteth me for his enemy, He putteth my feet in the stocks, he marketh all my paths. Behold, in this thou art not just: I will answer thee, that God is greater than man. Why dost thou strive against him? for he giveth not account of any of his matters.” Job 33:8-13

The more sincere someone is, the easier it is to become bitter. The more you try to serve God the easier it is to become bitter. Over the years I have found that most of the time it is the Christians who are trying to do the most for God who end up becoming bitter.

Job was such a good man that God bragged on him to the devil. Job was probably the best man who ever lived. He lost his children, his wife, his health, his wealth, and his friends, but he still trusted the Lord. This was not a bad man. He was a great man who had great faith; yet Job became bitter. How could a man of this caliber become bitter?

Let me give you some principles regarding this matter of avoiding bitterness. I will begin by making five statements that will set the stage for the rest of this chapter. These statements may seem strange until you read the next part of the chapter.

1. I do not live by my convictions.
2. I try not to do what I think is best.
3. I often go against my better judgment.
4. I often disagree with God.
5. We may disagree more than we agree.

These may seem like strange statements, but they are the truth in most of our lives, if we will be honest. There are things that seem unfair to me. For example, there are times when I have a tough time understanding how there could be a Hell where people will burn for eternity. There are many things that do not seem fair to me and with which I disagree with God. How do I keep these things from making me bitter?

Let me tell you how God and I settle our differences.

> "For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the LORD. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts. For as the rain cometh down, and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower, and bread to the eater: So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it." Isaiah 55:8-11

Now then, I will tell you my step-by-step procedure. This is truly the formula I use to avoid bitterness. This is the method I follow.

1. I face a decision.
2. I try to figure the right thing to do.

I want to do right. I do disagree with God, but not because I do not care about doing right. I want to do right as much as a man can want to do right. The fact that I disagree with God has nothing to do with not wanting to do right, but it has everything to do with the fact that I see things differently than God sees them. In trying to figure out the right decision to make, I end up in a disagreement with God. So what do I do in these situations?

3. I try to figure what God thinks is the right thing to do.

The best way to do that is to get into the Word of God. God is a God of principles. The Bible is a Book that teaches us what is right, so the best way to find out what is right is to get into the Word of God. This should be done before we form our own opinions.

I go to the Bible and try to find a principle in the Bible that tells me what is right to do. Next, I try to find an illustration that shows me what is right. Notice the story of Jehoshaphat and Ahab. This story teaches a principle of God that we need to follow.

Jehoshaphat was the king of Judah, the southern kingdom, when the wicked king, Ahab, was the king of Israel, the northern kingdom. Jehoshaphat was a good king while Ahab was a wicked king, but they had something in common. Both of them wanted God's people to have Ramoth-in-Gilead. There was a constant fight between the Syrians and Israel for Ramoth-in-Gilead. At one point Syria was too strong for Ahab and Israel as well as for Jehoshaphat and Judah, so Ahab decided to invite Jehoshaphat to talk to him about the possibility of them going in together and recapturing Ramoth in Gilead.

God does not want His people yoking up with heathen people. Ahab was a Baal worshipper; he had led the entire kingdom into pagan worship. Jehoshaphat should never have talked with Ahab because it was a violation of God's Word. Jehoshaphat yielded to the temptation of yoking up with Ahab for this cause. As a result, his son, Jehoram, met Athaliah, the daughter of Ahab and Jezebel, and they fell in love with one another. As a result, Athaliah went down to the southern kingdom and corrupted it just as her mother, Jezebel, had done to the northern kingdom. Why? Because a good man had yoked up with a bad man for a good cause.

Whenever I am contacted by the mayor of Hammond for a good cause, I refuse to do it, not because I am not for the cause, but because it goes against what is right according to the Bible. It does not make sense to me, but it is what God commands. My job is not to do what I think seems right, but to do what God says is right. When I disagree with God, I must do what is right even if I do not see it. So many make terrible mistakes because they do what seems right to them rather than what God says is right.

Christians need to know the Word of God for this very reason. We must be familiar enough with God's truth that we are able to find God's opinion on a matter.

4. We often disagree.

You do not have to agree with God to be a good Christian, but you do have to obey what is right. Often God and I will disagree on what is right. What do I do then?

5. Then I go against my better judgment and do what He thinks is best.

This takes me back to my original five statements. Now, perhaps these statements will not seem so strange after all.

(1) I do not live by MY convictions.

(2) I try not to do what I think is best.

(3) I often go against MY better judgment.

(4) I often disagree with God.

(5) We may disagree more than we agree.

Notice where sincere and earnest Christians get in trouble with bitterness.

This is how sincere Christians get bitter. This is their downfall. This is why I contend that those who are trying to do right are in the greatest danger of getting bitter. Let me now show you how this happens to many of us.

1. We say, "What do I think is right?"

This is a seemingly good question. Many Christians spend too much time asking God to lead them to do what is right, instead of just going to the Bible to find out what is right. If the Bible tells you, then you do not need to ask God because God will not lead you to violate what He has said in His Word. Notice why this is a danger.

When you pray, "Lord lead me to do what is right," you are still leaving the final decision in your hands. You are saying that you are going to decide what God wants you to do instead of letting God decide what you are going to do. Forget what you think is right, and live doing only that what God says is right. What makes sense to you is based on your limited ability to understand situations the way God does. Never trust your own opinions over God's.

2. Then we do it. That is exactly what Satan wants.

A sincere Christian decides to do what he sincerely thinks is right, and that is the beginning of his mistake. Why?

> "All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the LORD hath laid on him the iniquity of us all." Isaiah 53:6

A Christian who is sincere and wants to do right can turn to his own way as much as the rebel who has no interest whatsoever in doing right. You will get into serious trouble if you reason what is right and what is wrong. There are few decisions you will face in your life that do not have either a direct command or an illustration of what is right in the Word of God. We need to stay in the Word of God so that we can learn what God wants us to do.

We Baptists have our own version of a word of the knowledge. We criticize the Charismatics for their word of knowledge; then we go out and do what we think is right. There is no difference in the two. Sometimes we like to say that God led us to do something, even though it is not what the Bible says is right. Saying that we are following the leadership of the Holy Spirit is dangerous when we ignore what the Bible says about a matter. That is exactly what happened to Eve in the Garden of Eden. She did what seemed right to her rather than what God said to do.

The devil was not trying to get Eve to go his way; he was trying to get her to go her own way. She may have sincerely felt that she was doing what was right, but what she did was sin. Good Christians fall into sin by doing what they think is right.

3. It does not turn out for the best.

We do what we think is right, and it does not turn out well. We wonder why things are not going well in spite of the fact that we are sincerely trying to do what we feel is right. I am concerned by Christians who say God is leading them to do something that is in direct violation of something that is in the Word of God. It has become our excuse for doing what we think is best; yet, in so doing , we do wrong. The result is that things do not turn out well for that Christian who does what he sincerely feels is right. Things never will turn out well when we do what we feel is right rather than what the Bible says is right.

4. We get bitter at God.

This is why sincere Christians get bitter. We go our own way, sincerely, and when it turns out bas, we get bitter. What do we do? We continue doing the same thing. We continue to do what seems right to us, and it continues to go bad. We continue to get more and more bitter. It is amazing the things people say they are "led" to do that are in direct violation to the Word of God. As a result, we get bitter. Notice again what Job said:

> "Surely thou hast spoken in mine hearing, and I have heard the voice of thy words, saying, I am clean without transgression, I am innocent; neither is there iniquity in me. Behold, he findeth occasions against me, he counteth me for his enemy, He putteth my feet in the stocks, he marketh all my paths. Behold, in this thou art not just: I will answer thee, that God is greater than man. Why dost thou strive against him? for he giveth not account of any of his matters." Job 33:8-13

Most Christians do wrong, not because they are not sincere about doing right, but because they do not know the Bible well enough to know what the Bible says. As a result, they do what they think is right. When it does not turn out right, they get bitter.

5. We want God to explain His reasoning to us.

"Why dost thou strive against him? for he giveth not account of any of his matters." Job 33:13

God's wisdom is above man's; yet when we see things not turning out right because we have gone our own way, we cannot understand, and we feel like God owes us an explanation. Our way makes sense to us and looks like the right way, but it is in conflict with what God commands. Because our way seems to make sense, we wonder why God will not bless us since we did what was sincerely right in our own minds.

Many times I have had Christians who were not going God's way come to me and ask me why God was allowing things to go so badly in their lives. They were bitter at God because they felt they deserved better since they were sincerely doing what seemed best to them, in spite of the fact that it was in disagreement with God.

6. We get more bitter.

When we do what we think is right, it does not turn out right; yet, most of the time we continue in that pattern because we still do not know God's Word well enough to know what God says is right in a matter. So when things do not turn out right again, we get even more bitter. That pattern continues.

7. We get even more bitter, and on and on.

Whenever we do what we think is best, it is personal humanism. We like to criticize the political humanism of society; yet we do the exact same thing on a personal level. We do what we think seems right because we do not live in the Word of God enough to know what is right. We do what we think is right rather than what God says is right.

The Devil is that one who knows that the quickest way to destroy us is to get us to do what we think is right rather than what the Bible teaches is right. That is humanism.

How To Avoid Bitterness

Now I am going to try to give the formula for preventing ourselves from getting bitter, not only at God, but also at other people.

1. Only one has perfect justice.

Only God has perfect judgment. That means that when we disagree with someone, there is the potential that the other one is right and we are wrong. Since God is the only One who is always right, we must accept the fact that at times of disagreement we may be the one who is wrong. Too often we assume we are right because we are sincere, but others may be just as sincere as we are. We must not hold to much confidence in our own opinions and ideas. We are prone to be wrong.

2. No two people have the same justice.

There are times when others are going to see justice differently than I do, and at those times I must accept the fact that the other person may be right and I may be wrong.

I must remind myself of this all of the time, or else I may get bitter at others when I see justice differently than they do. There are so many times when I am in the position of seeing things differently than another, but I do not want to get bitter. Sometimes we get bitter at even those to whom we are the closest, including the one to whom we are married.

Sincere people need to give others the courtesy of believing that they are sincere when the two of them disagree.

3. I must not expect everyone's justice to reconcile with mine.

I must allow others to see things differently than I see them. My opinion must not be final in my mind. There are many times when others will handle matters differently than I would have handled them, but I must be willing to allow them their differences. I must not insist that their judgment must reconcile with mine.

4. I allow sincere people to differ with me.

There are many good and sincere people who see things differently than I see them. It is important for me to recognize that they may be as sincere as I am about my opinion. Rather than demanding that my opinion is right, I must allow them their opinion, based on their sincerity.

5. God is the only One who always has perfect justice.

6. When we disagree, I trust His justice, not mine.

This is the way that I keep from getting bitter with God. It is the way I keep from getting bitter with those with whom I disagree. This is the science of keeping ourselves from being bitter. You may be sincere, but you better beware of bitterness and do what you ought to do to avoid it.

You may think that you would never get bitter at God, but I have seen it happen to many good and sincere Christians who allowed their opinions to blind themselves to the fact that only God's opinion matters. Many sincere Christians have allowed their usefulness for God to be destroyed by bitterness that could have been avoided.

Job was perhaps the greatest man who ever lived; yet Job became bitter because He questioned God when he could not see things the way God saw them. Use these formulas to prevent bitterness from hurting you.

5.4.3 Another Hurting Student At Pensacola Christian College (2024-04-07 10:05)

Ephesians 4:30-32, "And grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption. Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice: And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you."

Here are [1]innumerable negative reviews of Pensacola Christian College (PCC). These reviews are public information. Dear reader, one thing I have learned in my 57 years of life is that PEOPLE JUST WANT TO BE LOVED, something that PCC has not learned in the 50 years of their college's existence since 1974. I'll start with my negative review of PCC first, and then share with you innumerable more from their hurting victim students.

As a humble redeemed sinner, I care. I care because God cares (1st Peter 5:7-8), and if you know God as a born-again Christian and spend time walking with Him, then you will love everyone with God's unconditional love too, regardless of their sins and flaws as humans. There is nothing worse than religious snobbery, which is all they know at PCC and their Campus Church cult. The way that we treat people matters. It really does!

As I regularly do, I comb social media for victims of PCC's cult. I don't do it to be mean or malicious, but simply because they have a serious problem at PCC with how they treat people. I know firsthand the religious abuse, hatred and woeful lack of compassion and forgiveness that exists at PCC. As of August 2, 2022, their senior pastor Jeff Redlin has banned me in writing from attending Campus Church, so now we are enemies by his choosing. It didn't matter that I sincerely apologized in 2022 for offending the gods at PCC, they have no room to forgive or permit me to just come back to their so-called " church." In hindsight, they did me a favor because I have since learned much more about the workings of their authoritarian abusive cult at PCC, where the cult system always comes first but individual people do not matter. People just want to be loved. PCC personifies sinful pride and arrogance.

I found the following criticism of PCC this morning from one of their present female students. For obvious reasons she cannot disclose her real name, or she'll face a clergical firing squad. The details she provides is evidence enough that she is telling the truth. If you don't dot your i's and cross your t's at PCC, walking a very fine line, you will be on the outside looking in before you realized what happened. PCC is a cold-hearted cult of strict rules without any love, compassion or understanding for human beings. PCC lacks proper spiritual leadership.

> I had many bad experiences at this school but the most recent one was when I woke up late for chapel and my RA [Resident Assistant] came in the room and woke me up, urging me to hurry and she said just throw [on] my clothes and and leave. I ended being written up and getting 10 demerits for being "disrespectful" because the RA's told Student Life on me. (Mind you these girls are my peers and they can easily get me kicked out of school if they wanted to.) I went to Student Life to resolve this, but all the woman did was keep on making excuses for the girls and blaming me saying: "maybe you were feeling a little upset that day?" "Do you think you had the attitude first and that's why they responded the way they did?" She told me to talk to my RA and ask her about the situation and email her when I did. I ended up emailing her and was ignored after. Nothing was resolved. This is the email I sent:

> "I did ask my RA Gracie why I was written up for being disrespectful, and she said it was because I took so long getting ready when they kept asking me to hurry up (even though I took about 15 Minutes or less.) After she told me this false statement, I told her I went to Student Life, and that Student Life explained that she and the other RA wrote me up due to disrespect. She then changed her statement and said it was due to my tone of voice. And when I asked her about the other RA's tone of voice towards me she said, "that's just how she is." I don't think it's right that I get disrespected by other young women who are supposed to be my examples and leaders, when all I did is confront them concerning their behavior and it leads to a situation seemingly untruthful and unnecessary. I was also told during my Student Life appointment that they said I was taking long to get ready and that's why another RA came to my room but I don't believe that's the case, as she came about 5 minutes after I started
> The situation that occurred this day was that I slept through my alarm (a few minutes past 10 am) and I was late to chapel. My RA Gracie came and woke me up and I rushed to get ready. She told me to get ready as soon as possible. She came in another time a few minutes later telling me to try and be ready in a few minutes. Shortly after the other RA came and they began chatting in my doorway for a few minutes. I was putting my shoes on and was ready to go, when the RA was very rude in her tone of voice and overall demeanor and as well what she said. She said "let's get going, we've been waiting for you let's go!" She was waving her hands to motion for me to come and seemed very fed up and had an attitude.
> So I responded in a normal way, not escalating anything, saying, "I don't appreciate the way you're talking to me. I'm an adult too. That is very rude." She didn't say a word to me after that but my RA Gracie just replied as we started to head downstairs that she wasn't being rude. I responded that "it just seems like it." And neither of them would look me in my eye or explain why that wasn't the case if it was. This was the situation that occurred that morning. I was very confused to be called to the Student Life concerning this situation because I thought it wasn't a huge ordeal."

That was the email and this was just one minor incident that happened last semester. It's so awful that students have no control or say in these situations. [SOURCE: Google reviews]

Yes, dear student, PCC leadership has some serious issues with their attitudes. Clearly they have a double standard at PCC, one for students and another for staff. I am sorry for the horrible conditions at PCC and that you were clearly mistreated. You trusted them with the best years of your life, and they treat you like crap while taking your money, like they did me as a 54-year-old grandfather in 2021. Sadly, PCC have religious bullies for leaders, who elevate their own bigoted authority over God's authority in the inspired Word of God.

The letter of the law comes before all else, but there is no spirit of the law, which is love. At PCC it's their way or the highway. When your time of the month as a female comes at PCC, you must obtain a doctor's note to miss class or chapel each and every month. That sounds like North Korea to me! What the hell is wrong with PCC leadership? I'll tell you what is wrong, [2]they don't know and walk with God. PCC is a carnal institution with a religious label slapped across the building. RUN FROM THIS PLACE!!!

5.4.4 What Is Heaven Like? (2024-04-07 19:49)

Luke 18:16, "But Jesus called them unto him, and said, Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God."

Kindly, the former pastor of Harvest Baptist Church on Guam told me in 2017 to "ALWAYS SEEK GOD." That is godly advice, and I love that pastor (God knows my heart); but he doesn't truly know God. That pastor promotes Dr. John MacArthur—[1]a heretic on the blood of Christ and the [2]plan of salvation. I heard that pastor say from his pulpit on a Sunday morning, that: "It's not enough to merely admit you are a sinner to be saved, you must turn away from a lifestyle of sin." That is NOT the Gospel of free grace! I am not mentioning this to criticize him, but to edify YOU dear reader. Don't be like him, be better than him!

That same pastor uses, sanctions and promotes multiple Bible versions, shewing that he is incompetent to be the pastor of any church. Now he is getting paid a 6-digit salary as Executive Vice President of a messed-up Bible College in Iowa—ruining young people's lives elsewhere—promoting corruptible seed, an accursed gospel, and the reprobate theology of John MacArthur. Does he really "SEEK GOD," as he advised me? No, he does not; for if he did seek God he would SEEK TRUTH! John 4:24, "God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth." That same senior pastor drove the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam in the ground for nearly 20 years. Today Harvest is a cesspool of ecumenical apostasy, using dozens of fake Bible versions, trusting in a false gospel of Lordship Salvation, and devoid of the truth!

[3]Island Of Guam Becoming A Police State Just Like I Said, Government Control Is The Agenda

> Revelation 21:3-4, "And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God. And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away."

People foolishly believe a lot of things they see and hear on television (e.g., Oprah Winfrey), or read in a book by a New Age author (e.g., James Praagh), forming unbiblical conclusions that are untrue. May I say, not everything said by Jerry Springer is true! There is much fake news nowadays! I heard President Donald Trump say this week in a press conference that 'The Wall Street Journal' publishes a lot of "FAKE NEWS!" That's no better than [4]Bob Jones University and their [5]"FAKE BIBLES![6]" Despite all the fake news and theological frauds today, thankfully we have the unchanging Words of God in the KING JAMES BIBLE, teaching us about Heaven (and you can trust the inspired Words of God). [7]What the Bible says is so! To keep the list brief, I have saved Scripture quotations until afterwards, which can can read for yourself.

Here are 40 heart-warming truths about Heaven:All the inhabitants of Heaven are part of a big family (Ephesians 3:15)Heaven is a city measuring 1,500 miles wide, long and high (a cube). That would cover most of the United States and part of Canada and Mexico to fit. All of the saved from all humanity will be there.

1. The city is encompassed by a 216-foot-high wall, made of jasper.
2. 12 entrance gates, 3 on each of the four sides, each made of a single pearl.
3. Heaven has 12 foundations, each of a different precious gem stone.
4. The city is made of pure gold, crystal clear in it's 100 % purest form, resembling glass.
5. There's a beautiful river flowing from the throne of God.
6. At the heart of the city is the glittering throne of God.

7. There's a beautiful rainbow around God's throne with every color. Revelation 4:3, "And he that sat was to look upon like a jasper and a sardine stone: and there was a rainbow round about the throne, in sight like unto an emerald."

8. Before the throne of God are four Cherubim beasts who praise God continually.

9. Heaven is a holy city, the house of God the Father. We are going to live in God's home. Amen, amen, amen!

10. Only saved people or angels may enter into Heaven.

11. We'll all be in the city of God and be very pleased to be there.

12. Saints in Heaven know what's going on here on earth, but do not see our sins.

13. Our loved ones in Heaven are awake (Hebrews 12:1 - "witnesses" see and hear something). They're not called "role models," but "witnesses," because they are watching us run the race from Heaven).

14. The inhabitants of Heaven see, hear and interact. They have a life, eternal life. They are alive and alert.

15. There are horses in Heaven (Revelation 19:14)

16. Saints in Heaven remember us (Samuel remembered Saul when he returned to pronounce judgment upon him, and Samuel knew what was going on here on earth. They were familiar with one another, nothing was erased; also, see Luke 15:7 - there is rejoicing in the presence of the angels; Luke 16:19-31 - Lazarus and Abraham recognized each other).

17. We will recognize our loved ones in Heaven (Peter, James and John recognized Moses and Elijah on the Mount of Transfiguration; Saul and Samuel recognized each other; Mary recognized Jesus after He arose from the dead; the disciples recognized Jesus after His death).

18. Our bodily imperfections will be made perfect in Heaven. There are no cripples in Heaven. There are no obese people. There's no wheelchairs. There's no deaf, dumb or blind in Heaven. Philippians 3:21 promises we shall receive a body fashioned like unto the Lords. Jesus ate and drank in His resurrected body. He ascended in the air, defying gravity. The Lord walked through walls, walked on water, spoke and is alive physically somewhere in the universe today (He bodily ascended from the earth in Acts 1:9-11).

19. God is going to be with us. (the worst part about Hell is being separated from God. People in Hell realize what they have missed, and gnash in bitter regret and tears).

20. God Himself will wipe away all tears. No more death. No more pain. No more crying and tears. No more sorrow.

21. There's no night there, no darkness. The Lord's holiness lights the city. There's no need for candles, the sun or flashlights.

22. There will be no more hunger pains. Americans by far don't know what it feels like to have no food, but many people in afflicted parts of Africa do. The saints will thirst and hunger no more. The food and drinks present are strictly for pleasure, without calories.

23. There will be no need for a heating system. The Lord's presence will warm us in Heaven.

24. There are many mansions in Heaven, not cookie-cutter type homes. We will receive individualized mansions and nice homes, depending on our earthly service for Christ, with everything we need and want. Romans 8:32, “He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things?” We will have everything we need and desire in Heaven! There are no mortgages in Heaven. No home is ever foreclosed upon.

25. Soulwinners will shine as the brightness of the stars in Heaven forever (Daniel 12:3).

26. We will work in Heaven, serving God day and night. Work is enjoyable in Heaven, in pleasant conditions, without pressure or troublesome co-workers. Only perfect Christians live in Heaven in glorified bodies. In Heaven, the saints are as children; that is, loving, trusting, humble, pure, innocent and pleasant to be around. Jude 1:24, “Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy.” Because of the precious blood of Jesus, the saints have been justified, JUST-IF-I’D never sinned at all. What an awesome God!!!

27. Heaven’s gates are never closed. There are no creeps, thieves or shady characters in Heaven. The gates are open all the time. The saints leave their doors unlocked, because there are no locks on their doors, because there is no need for them. Can you imagine how beautiful it will be to live in such a place, that you don’t even need locks on your car or home? God is beautiful!

28. There is no crime in Heaven; there is no need for police or detectives.

29. Our loved ones are alive and conscious in Heaven. They will remember and recognize us, and we them.

30. Saints will be as the angels is Heaven, not given in marriage (Matthew 22:30)

31. There won’t be any fine print or shady advertising in Heaven. Everything is free!

32. There is no fear in Heaven, because there will be nothing to fear. 1st John 4:18, “There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love.”

33. There is no night in Heaven, it is always daytime.

34. We won’t need to sleep in Heaven. it would be weird to need to sleep with no night.

35. There is rejoicing in Heaven when people get saved.

36. The awesomeness of Heaven is indescribable with human tongue.

37. Heaven is a real, literal, physical, place.

38. Heaven is a wonderful PLACE!!!

John 14:1-3, "Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also."

Heaven is a wonderful PLACE!!! Here are but a few precious Scripture passages about Heaven.

Revelation 21:10-27, "And he carried me away in the spirit to a great and high mountain, and shewed me that great city, the holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God, Having the glory of God: and her light was like unto a stone most precious, even like a jasper stone, clear as crystal; And had a wall great and high, and had twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names written thereon, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel: On the east three gates; on the north three gates; on the south three gates; and on the west three gates.

And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and in them the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

And he that talked with me had a golden reed to measure the city, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof. And the city lieth foursquare, and the length is as large as the breadth: and he measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs. The length and the breadth and the height of it are equal.

And he measured the wall thereof, an hundred and forty and four cubits, according to the measure of a man, that is, of the angel. And the building of the wall of it was of jasper: and the city was pure gold, like unto clear glass.

And the foundations of the wall of the city were garnished with all manner of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, a chalcedony; the fourth, an emerald; The fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolite; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, a topaz; the tenth, a chrysoprasus; the eleventh, a jacinth; the twelfth, an amethyst.

And the twelve gates were twelve pearls; every several gate was of one pearl: and the street of the city was pure gold, as it were transparent glass. And I saw no temple therein: for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are the temple of it. And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof.

And the nations of them which are saved shall walk in the light of it: and the kings of the earth do bring their glory and honour into it. And the gates of it shall not be shut at all by day: for there shall be no night there.

And they shall bring the glory and honour of the nations into it. And there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie: but they which are written in the Lamb's book of life."

Revelation 7:15-17, "Therefore are they before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple: and he that sitteth on the throne shall dwell among them. They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; neither shall the sun light on them, nor any heat. For the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters: and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes."

Revelation 22:1-6, "And he shewed me a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb. In the midst of the street of it, and on either side of the river, was there the tree of life, which bare twelve manner of fruits, and yielded her fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations. And there shall be no more curse: but the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it; and his servants shall serve him: And they shall see his face; and his name shall be in their foreheads. And there shall be no night there; and they need no candle, neither light of the sun; for the Lord God giveth them light: and they shall reign for ever and ever."

The most beautiful thing about all of these Scriptures is that, like all Scripture, they are PROMISES from God. The entire Holy Bible is [9]a book of PROMISES from God. Also, please read: [10]Abiding In The Promises Of God.

"Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; (for he is faithful that promised)" —Hebrews 10:23

> "Remember, you don't know the Bible, until the Bible controls your life. You can memorize every verse in the Bible and not know the Bible, until the Bible controls you, and permeates your thinking. You can know a lot of things about God, but until you walk with God and live with God, and abide in the Lord, then you don't know THE LORD intimately like you should." —Pastor Ralph "Yankee" Arnold, "[11]They Loved The Praise Of Men More Than The Praise Of God"

Here are the compassionate words of Dr. John R. Rice (1895-1980), founder of the Sword of the Lord, concerning the theft of Arab homes by the Illuminati-controlled United Nations in 1948:

> I have a great deal of sympathy for that spirit of nationalism among Arabs who feel they have been robbed and defrauded and abused and imposed upon and who want back their own land. I can understand that. I think they will never be given back the land that was given Israel by the United Nations in 1948, but I think that provisions must be made for those millions and a third refugees in refugee camps in Jericho, in Amman, in Beirut, in the Gaza strip, and elsewhere. God loves those people and they must have the Gospel."

Amen and amen. Since May of 1948 Israel's horrible leaders have [1]persecuted the Palestinian people, making their daily [2]lives difficult and unbearable. On October 7, 2023 the [3]Palestinian terrorist group Hamas attacked Israel and murdered 1,200 people. Another 200 Jews were taken hostage. The vengeful retaliation by Israel against the people living in Gaza since has been untenable. As of April 7, 2024 [4]Israel has murdered 33,596 innocent people in Palestine.

Kindly said, I do NOT stand with Israel. Just because someone murders one of your loved one's doesn't give you the right or permission to go murder their entire extended family. In fact, you don't have a right to murder even one person! Israel has no right to genocide the Palestinian people. Seventy percent of the 33,596 dead people in Gaza were defenseless women and children. How is that justice? That is vengeance, not justice! If you are okay with Israel slaughtering 33,596 Palestinians, then you are an ungodly monster!

I don't understand so-called "

Christian

Zionists who continually demonize the Arabs and whitewash the Jews. Just like Gentiles, so also are Jewish people dirty, guilty, rotten, Hell-deserving sinners (Romans 3:10-23, 6:23; Revelation 20:11-15, 21:8). The Arab people are the descendants of Abraham, just as are the Jews. As Christians we must love everybody with God's unconditional love. No one is right with God who hates anybody. I love Jews and Arabs alike with God's unconditional love. Jesus was willing to die for them all (Romans 5:6-9).

Only Born-Again Jews and Gentiles Are Among

The Chosen

What saith the Scripture? Romans 2:28-29,

For he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh*: But he is a Jew, which is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God. The inspired Holy Bible is very clear that someone is NOT A JEW who is only one outwardly. That is, your DNA. Regardless of how your ethnicity may be according to your DNA marker, the Bible says you are not considered a Jew in God's sight unless you're born-again.

We further read in Galatians 3:26-29,

" For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.

For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ.

There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus.

And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise*.

" Only those who have been born anew by the Holy Spirit of God are included in Abraham's seed (i.e., part of the heavenly family).

Romans 11:22-23,

“ Behold therefore the goodness and severity of God: on them which fell, severity; but toward thee, goodness, if thou continue in his goodness: otherwise thou also shalt be cut off.

And they also, if they abide not still in unbelief, shall be graffed in: for God is able to graff them in again.

“if.

” This promise from God is CONDITIONAL. If a Gentile or Jew refuses to trust in Jesus Christ as personal Savior, then they won’t be graffed into the olive tree (God’s blessings and salvation). Tragically, 99 % of the 7,000,000 Jews living in Israel today still abide in unbelief. They are lost hellbound infidels.

Love The Arab People

One of the things that I love and admire about Dr. John R. Rice is that he had a heart of concern for people. Dr. Rice cared about the displaced and suffering people of Palestine.

The Jews were scattered throughout the world in 70 AD when Rome annihilated Jerusalem.

I sincerely believe that the Jews are “God’s people.”

However, they are not “The Chosen” unless they have faith in Jesus Christ. Throughout the Holy Bible God’s promises ALWAYS followed a line of faith.

Romans 2:28-29a,

For he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh: But he is a Jew, which is one inwardly... ” Jesus plainly warned Nicodemus (a Jew) that “Ye must be born again” to enter into God’s Kingdom. It doesn’t matter how good or religious you are, Ye must be born again. It doesn’t matter how dedicated or loyal you are to a cause, Ye must be born again. It doesn’t matter if you are Jewish or Gentile, Ye must be born again. John 3:3, “Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God. ”

What saith the Scripture? Romans 9:6-7, “

Not as though the word of God hath taken none effect. For they are not all Israel, which are of Israel:

Neither, because they are the seed of Abraham, are they all children: but, In Isaac shall thy seed be called.

” Here again we plainly see that a physical Jew is not necessarily a spiritual Jew. God’s promises always followed a line of faith, which we see through the line of Isaac.

It saddens me that most professed Christians today blindly support Israel. I am not on any-one’s personal side, I am on the side of truth and righteousness. It is very important that any Bible student differentiate between heathen Jews and saved (born again) Jews. I have shared numerous Scripture passages with you that teach that only saved Jews are of the true seed of Abraham. No Christ-rejecting Jew will ever enter into the Kingdom of God. Faith is the key that unlocks the blessings of God.

Present-Day Israel Is Not The Fulfillment Of Bible Prophecy

Here is some accurate, biblical and gentlemanly commentary from Pastor J. Vernon McGee (1904-1988) concerning why present-day Israel is NOT the fulfillment of Bible prophecy:

> "Israel is just like any other nation. Some think they're a little brutal, but my friend, they're on the defense over there, you can be sure of that. And they have to exercise a strong defense system. They're not backing that land in fulfillment of prophecy. They have returned to the land, but they have not yet returned to the Lord. When they return to the Lord there will be blessing. They have not yet done that!
> ...they went out in 70 A.D. And they actually have never returned to the land according to the Word of God. Now hear me very carefully because this is very important to see. They have returned to the land today, and it's remarkable what has happened over there, but it's not the fulfillment of prophecy, because the prophecy says when they return they'll return TO GOD!"
> SOURCE: Pastor J. Vernon McGee; THRU-THE-BIBLE; [5]Hosea 2:19-23 and Hosea 3:4

In his 5-year "THRU-THE-BIBLE" commentary for Hosea 3:5, Dr. McGee stresses the truth that there are more Arab Christians in Israel today than there are Jewish Christians. Hosea 3:5, "Afterward shall the children of Israel return, and seek the LORD their God, and David their king; and shall fear the LORD and his goodness in the latter days." This hasn't happened yet. Millions of Jews have returned to the Holy Land, but they have not returned to God yet.

Upon a return trip to visit Israel, Pastor McGee made the startling comment: "Over there there's no turning to God, at all." While visiting he saw a big motto in Israel which read: "SCIENCE WILL BRING PEACE TO THIS LAND." Israel is a Godless nation today! Pastor McGee cites a credible source as saying that there are less than 300 Israelites that are real believers in Israel today.

The Russian Catholic Church owns much land in Israel today, as do Greek Orthodox and Muslims. Dr. McGee rightly states:

> "We're a nation of biblical ignoramuses! We do not know the Word of God today in this land" (Pastor J. Vernon McGee, 'THRU-THE-BIBLE,' commentary from Hosea 4:1-2)

Hosea 3:5 in the Old Testament evidences the fact that Israel's present return to the land is not the fulfillment of biblical prophecy today. When Jesus Christ returns at His Second Coming, Hosea 3:5 says they will SEEK AND FEAR THE LORD THEIR GOD, and true Israel shall be restored.

[6]Click here if you'd like to listen to Pastor J. Vernon McGee's commentary on Hosea .

Would to God that more Christians today would express some sympathy and empathy for their suffering and struggles. You need to understand that their parents and grandparents were driven from their homes at gunpoint. The homes of one million Arabs were robbed from them in 1948 by the military, and given with all their personal possessions to Jewish strangers. If you understand that injustice, then you might be able to grasp why Arabs are willing to die for their cause. If a foreign nation invaded the United States and stole men's homes and all that they owned, we wouldn't just walk away and let the matter go. We'd justly fight to the death for what is ours!

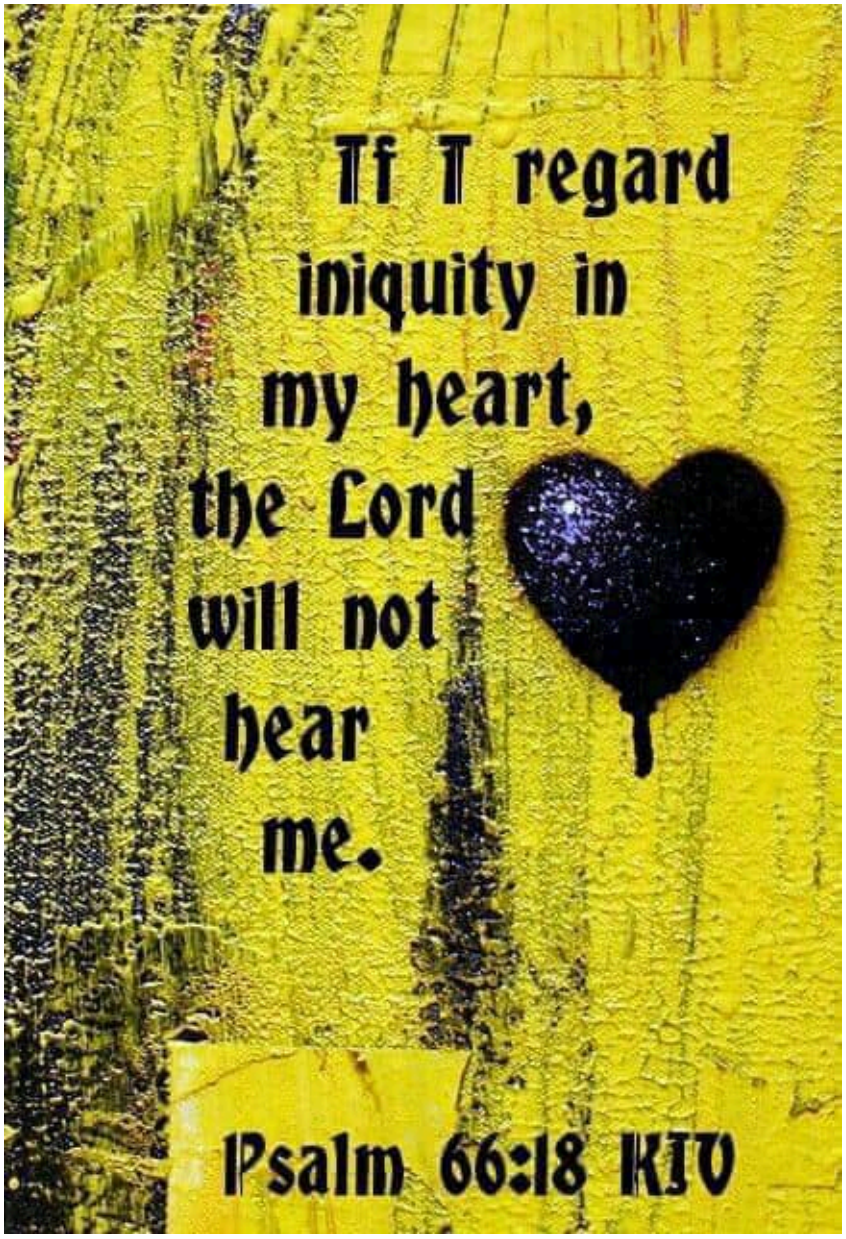
Shame on any child of God who automatically sides with Israel and has zero compassion toward the Palestinian people. Brother John R. Rice cared about the Palestinian people. He saw their suffering and frustration, and he expressed sympathy and empathy for their dilemma. Where are those people supposed to go? They are refugees, militarily displaced since 1948 from their homes. The mainstream newsmedia demonizes Hamas (an estimated group of 21,000 Arab activists). All the Palestinian people want is recognition as a proper nation. They want their own legitimate existence! Can you blame them? Israel wants to keep their foot upon the neck of the Palestinian people, controlling and limiting them to prevent any prosperity. Jewish people are no better than Gentiles. Racism is a horrible sin!

Years ago I saw a caption in a book written by Christian author Salem Kirban (1925-2010). The photo showed a police officer beating a male student with a Billy Club during the college riots during the Vietnam War era. The caption asked the question: What do you see? Do you see a punk getting what he deserves? Or do you see a police officer abusing his authority? If you are a Christian you should see two people who need Jesus Christ. I have never forgotten that image and caption because it is so true. So often we look at situations with a carnal frame of mind, failing to see the great need in people's lives for Jesus Christ as their Savior.



It is sad what is going on in Israel and Gaza today. I cannot "

when they are murdering tens of thousands of innocent people with impunity. That is vengeance not justice!

5.4.7 Beware Of Matt Slick's Damnable Counterfeit Gospel (2024-04-17 12:29)

Galatians 1:6-8, "I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed."

We are surrounded today by false teachers. They are in the churches. They are on social media. They author books. They produce religious documentaries and movies. If a man is wrong on repentance and the Gospel, then we cannot trust any of his theology. Matt Slick is the president of [1]CARM (Christian Apologetics and Research Ministry).

I read a heretical blog today by Matt Slick titled, "[2]What Is Lordship Salvation And Is It Biblical?" Matt states:

> ...If lordship salvation is meant to say that a person must believe the Gospel and also repent of sin in order to be saved, then it is teaching that salvation is not by faith alone in Christ alone. Instead, it would be by faith and also the act of turning from sin as a person makes Jesus Lord of "all" of his life. In other words, salvation is obtained by faith in God and turning from sin——which amounts to keeping the Law. This would be, of course, false. Now, we are not saying a person need not repent from his sins. Instead, repentance is the result of God's regenerative work in us. Let me explain.
> The position of CARM is that regeneration precedes faith the way electricity precedes light in a lightbulb. The order is logical——not temporal. Electricity must be present for light to occur in a lightbulb, but it's not true that light must be present in order for electricity to occur. We would say that whenever electricity is present in a lightbulb, the automatic and natural result is light. The electricity is "logically" prior to the light——not temporally prior. In other words, it is logically necessary that electricity precedes the light; and when electricity is present, light is also present.

> With this analogy, I think it is easier to understand that it is God who regenerates us (2 Corinthians 5:17; 1 Peter 1:3; John 1:13) and that the necessary result of His regenerative work in us is our faith and repentance. God grants that we believe (Philippians 1:29) and grants that we repent (2 Timothy 2:25). Therefore, our position is that repentance is a necessary result of God's work in us (yet it's also something that we do). The issue of Lordship salvation incorrectly addresses the order of salvation by implying that faith leads to regeneration, which leads to repentance. I believe this mistakenly puts the focus on man's ability instead of God's work, and this is where the error of Lordship salvation arises. The truth is that we are saved by grace alone, through faith alone, in Christ alone. Repentance from sin is the result of salvation——not a contributing factor to it. [3]SOURCE
> If it is God who grants us repentance (2 Timothy 2:25) and faith (Philippians 1:29), then there is no room for the Lordship salvation controversy. Instead, we understand that the Lordship of Christ and our repentance are both the natural result of the work of God—not the work of our faith and repentance.

Kindly said, Matt is preaching the Devil's lie of Calvinism. He falsely claims that God does everything. If that were true, then what would be the purpose of repentance (i.e., a change of mind). If a man cannot change his mind unless God causes it, then where is freewill? How could a man choose to trust Christ if he cannot do so without God intervening first? I like how Pastor Harry Ironside (1876-1951) explains it:

> "Which comes first, repentance or faith? In Scripture we read, 'Repent ye, and believe the gospel.' Yet we find true believers exhorted to 'repent, and do the first works.' So intimately are the two related that you cannot have one without the other. The man who believes God repents; the repentant soul puts his trust in the Lord when the Gospel is revealed to him. Theologians may wrangle over this, but the fact is, no man repents until the Holy Spirit produces repentance in his soul through the truth. No man believes the Gospel and rests in it for his own salvation until he has judged himself as a needy sinner before God. And this is repentance." ('[4]Except Ye Repent,' p. 16)

This is what Jesus meant in John 6:44, "No man can come to me, except the Father which hath sent me draw him: and I will raise him up at the last day."

John 12:32, "

And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me.

" Calvinists love to take these passages of of context. The Bible is not doing away with freewill. Jesus simply meant that the Holy Spirit convicts lost sinners of sin, righteousness and judgment (John 16:8).

> Titus 2:11-14,
> "For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men,
>
> Teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world; Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ;
> Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works."

What Matt Slick is foolishly preaching is that if you are saved, then God will automatically cause you to turn away from your sinning and follow Christ as the Lord of your life. It is nothing short of blaming God for the heresy of Lordship Salvation!

One of my favorite sermons by Pastor Jack Hyles is titled, "[5]Your Salvation Did Not Change You A Bit." When you get born-again (saved), the ONLY thing you receive is the gift of the indwelling Holy Spirit. Your character is still the same after you are saved, as it was before you were saved. When you receive Jesus Christ as your personal Savior, there is a transfer of ownership from Satan to God. You're now a child of the King!

But dear friend, just because you get saved doesn't mean your behavior will improve. I am so sick of this heresy in churches today, which says you're not saved unless you're behavior has changed. [6]Pensacola Christian College teaches that Satanic garbage. Kindly, Matt Slick is wrong. He is errantly teaching a backdoor approach to Lordship Salvation. God doesn't repent for us. God doesn't force a Christian to follow Christ as his or her Lord.

And furthermore, regeneration does not precede faith as Matt teaches. You are born-again (regenerated) the moment you put your trust in the Lamb of God, not before. [7]Paul Washer teaches the same junk theology that you must be regenerated before there is faith. That is unbiblical. 2nd Timothy 2:25-26, " In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth; And that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will. " Carefully notice that the Bible teaches repentance is to acknowledge the truth, not turn away from your sins. Woe unto pastors who pervert God's simple plan of salvation by embellishing the Gospel.

Don't Corrupt The Gospel To Try To Force People To Live Right

Here is: '[8]The Crystal Clear Gospel Of Jesus Christ.' I highly recommend for you to read " [9]I NEVER KNEW YOU " by my ministry friend, Michael P. Bowen. This book is a brilliant defense of the free grace Gospel. Please don't allow some suave false prophet to lead you astray from the true Gospel. Following Christ as your

"Lord" has absolutely nothing to do with the new birth. It is a matter of discipleship (service), not of justification (salvation). It is the job of the local church to convert the lives of redeemed sinners, to make them useful to serve God.

The reason why millions of saved people are sitting idle at home today instead of serving God in the churches, is simply because pastors have failed to teach their congregation to mentor new converts. We need to invite people to come to church and then put them to work serving God. Sadly, when you attend 99 % of churches today, you sit there and go home week after week, but there are no ministries to get involved serving God. There is no scheduled time to go soulwinning. There is no nursing home ministry. There is no sailor ministry. There is no public school ministry. There is no prison ministry. There is no truck-stop ministry. There is no bus ministry. When I attended Hyles-Anderson College between 1985 to 1993, the First Baptist Church of Hammond, Indiana, had 114 MINISTRIES!!! Praise God!

We don’t need to corrupt the simplicity that is in Christ (which is the Gospel) to get people to live right. Pastors need to stop being lazy and teach their people to get busy for God. If churches have ministries, then people will come and get involved. I’m tired of attending McDonald’s type churches. That is, you go in to get your stuff and then leave, and come back next time. There are no ministries to get involved. It is no secret why the First Baptist Church of Hammond under Dr. Jack Hyles’ leadership from 1959 to 2001 grew to a membership of over 125,000 people! Those 114 soulwinning ministries work!

Preachers need to stop tampering with the Gospel. You get saved by trusting Jesus as your Savior, receiving His sacrifice on the cross as full payment for your sins, believing that He was buried but then resurrected bodily three days later. This is the Gospel (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). But just because you get saved doesn’t guarantee that you will turn from your sinful bad habits, nor that you will follow Christ as the “Lord” of your life. We all continue living in sin, every last one of us (Romans 7:14-25).

I heard a great sermon today from 1979 by Pastor Jack Hyles called, "[10]Don’t Kick A Man When He Is Down." What a beautiful message! The very idea that getting saved will somehow guarantee you’ll become less of a sinner is flawed. The only thing different after you get saved is that now you have God’s Holy Spirit living inside of you, convicting you of the sin in your life. If you choose to walk in the Spirit, then you will depart from iniquity and live to please God. You will still falter daily and commit sin. We all do, even the best saints! But there are plenty of believers who choose not to walk in the Spirit, and they live carnal lives of gross immorality and wickedness (e.g., Lot, David, Esau, Samson, Solomon, Demas, Ananias and Sapphira, Peter, the couple fornicating in the church at Corinth, et cetera).

If pastors who stop playing church and start preaching against sin as they used to, we’d see revival across the nation. There is nothing wrong with the free grace Gospel, the problem today are corrupt pastors!

5.4.8 The Sackler Family Are Not To Blame For OxyContin Deaths (2024-04-23 09:15)

I have been listening for several years to society beat up on the Sackler family, who own the Purdue Pharma company that makes the drug Oxycontin, since 1996.

As a chronic pain sufferer myself, I have been prescribed the drug OxyContin since 2010, after my second neck surgery. I like the drug. It is a time-release drug that lasts for 12 hours. The drug is mild on my system, and doesn't have the severe withdrawal effects of other pain drugs like Dilaudid, Morphine Sulfate and Percocet. Perhaps that is because it is a time-release pill. Albeit, I really appreciate the medication to help alleviate my neck pain.

Over the past 20 years, upward of one million Americans have died from opiate drugs. But most of these deaths have been caused by Fentanyl, a deadly drug that is 50 times more powerful than Morphine. I refuse to take Fentanyl. About 10 years ago my former doctor prescribed a 25 MCG patch of Fentanyl. That is the closest I've eve come to feeling drunk. I don't drink booze, so I don't know what it feels like to get drunk. But I do know that the Fentanyl affected me in ways that I never want to feel again. It is a powerful drug, not in good ways. Please avoid Fentanyl.

What the critics of OxyContin all refuse to admit, while suing the Sackler family, is that their loved ones who died while taking OxyContin were abusing the drug. They took too much, or recklessly took it with other drugs not prescribed to them, or drank alcohol while taking the drug (which overrides the time-release function), et cetera. I have been taking OxyContin responsibly since 2010, and I've never had any close calls, Emergency Room visits or problems using the helpful medication.

If you go buy a circular saw at HomeDepot and then cut your hand off while drunk, do you have a right to sue Craftsman, Makita or Milwaukee? Is it their fault that you got hurt using their saw, because you didn't use it in a safe manner? No, it is not their fault in any way. What? Now companies must install breathalyzer safety locks on their power tools? We've gone insane in the United States.

I am listening to the inspired King James Bible while working, as I often do. We all need to hear from God's Word every day. I am listening to the [1]Gospel of Luke. I just heard the true story of the man who was demon possessed and out of his mind. He set himself on fire. The towns people had bound him with chains, but he broke free. He roamed around naked, night and day, totally insane. Let me say dear reader, that the insanity we are seeing in American society today is sourced in demonic spirits. The filth of Hollywood, the wickedness of Sin City Las Vegas, the insanity of transgenderism and the blatant corruption in our government have all been inspired by demons. The sinful human spirit is influenced by demonic spirits. That is why my favorite Scripture for many years has been Proverbs 4:23, "

Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life.

Like Adam blamed Eve whom God made for him (Adam was also blaming God), and Eve blamed the serpent who beguiled her, so also do humans by nature blame others for our failures and bad choices in life. This is especially true of today's younger generations. I once heard a young woman horribly blame her parents for not giving her more attention as a child, which she attributed as the cause of her social awkwardness. What an ingrate! Don't you dare blame your Mom and Dad for your shortcomings in life. The old adage is very true: You've got nobody to blame except yourself.

The Sackler family has refused to cave into legal and political pressure from alleged "victims" of deceased loved ones who died while taking OxyContin. It is not their fault. If you properly use the drug as specified by your doctor, then you won't die. Granted, there are always extremely rare instances of death while taking prescription medications, but they are super rare. Ninety-nine percent of the people dying from opiate drugs are overdosing deliberately to get buzzed. That is not the fault of the Sackler family!!! You're an idiot if you abuse the drug, that's the problem!

I saw ruthless angry family members holding up photos of their dead loved ones. I heard their angry words directed at the Sacklers. Of course, they all want millions of dollars in damages, with their scum of the earth lawyers standing next to them. People are so foolish and predictable. The families are claiming that OxyContin is addictive, which the Sacklers knew but didn't disclose. I've been taking OxyContin for 14 years, since 2010. I've never been addicted. I have taken as much as 140 mg per day. Unfortunately, the state of Florida doesn't care about suffering people, so I can't get more than 40 mg a day now, which is almost useless.

We've got a bunch of idiots making our laws, who know nothing about drugs. Evidently they aren't listening to the people who do either, or else they wouldn't be overreacting as they are to the opiate death epidemic. All they need to do is make it harder to obtain the drugs. I am willing to jump through whatever hoops I need to jump through to get the amount of OxyContin that I need, but the government doesn't care, so I suffer needlessly.

Our government (federal and state) are grossly incompetent! They are like children who have found their father's loaded gun and have no idea what they are doing. It is blatantly clear from seeing the open borders, children intentionally being confused about their gender, a needless epidemic of poverty and homelessness nationwide, widespread drug abuse, deplorable filth and uncleanliness in our cities, thousands of mass-shootings nationwide and all the other ills in American society today, that this is all deliberately being done to destroy our nation.

Ultimately we are all to blame for tolerating this craziness. Just like prescription drug abusers and their families blame the drug manufacturers instead of themselves, so also do people blame God for their problematic life. God wrote the inspired Holy Bible to show us how to live. He gave us an instruction book to guide us through the mountains and valleys of life. Yet, people refuse to follow or even read God's instruction book, and then when their life turns to ruin they blame God for not caring about them. Whose fault is it really? That's right, ours!

Until we stop blaming others for our failures in life, we cannot grow. The Sacklers and OxyContin are not the problem, the people who abuse the drug are to blame!

5.4.9 Why There Is No Love At Pensacola Christian College (2024-04-23 10:02)

Luke 7:40-47, " And Jesus answering said unto him, Simon, I have somewhat to say unto thee. And he saith, Master, say on. There was a certain creditor which had two debtors: the one owed five hundred pence, and the other fifty.

And when they had nothing to pay, he frankly forgave them both. Tell me therefore, which of them will love him most?

Simon answered and said, I suppose that he, to whom he forgave most. And he said unto him, Thou hast rightly judged.

And he turned to the woman, and said unto Simon, Seest thou this woman? I entered into thine house, thou gavest me no water for my feet: but she hath washed my feet with tears, and wiped them with the hairs of her head.

Thou gavest me no kiss: but this woman since the time I came in hath not ceased to kiss my feet.

My head with oil thou didst not anoint: but this woman hath anointed my feet with ointment. Wherefore I say unto thee, Her sins, which are many, are forgiven; for she loved much: but to whom little is forgiven, the same loveth little."

I love this true story that Jesus told. Pastor Jeff Redlin at Pensacola Christian College's (PCC) Campus Church reminds me of Simon the hypocrite in the Bible. Like Simon, Jeff Redlin loveth little because he has never gone into what some would term “deep sin.” It is obvious from this beautiful story that the woman was guilty of sexually immoral sins. She couldn’t stop crying and washing Jesus’ feet with her tears, and drying His feet with her hair, while Jeff Redlin sat there looking down on her.

When I attended Campus Church in 2021 Pastor Redlin mistreated me. I was suffering in physical pain from an old neck injury from 1992. I was lonely (my former wife divorced me in 2006) and I’ve lived alone reluctantly since. I was surviving out of a suitcase in a cheap motel in Pensacola, because I had just moved here from the island of Guam. My life was upside down when I sincerely contacted Pastor Redlin. It took my 5 hours to compose my email to him, wanting to carefully articulate my words and share my broken life with him. I was horrified when he couldn’t have cared less about anything I said. He actually scolded me, a complete stranger to him, for making a brief mention that I hoped to find a wife at Campus Church.

I was so hurt be Pastor Redlin’s cold-heartedness and abuse that I left the church. He couldn’t have cared less, as is true of Pharisees. It is tragic that PCC leadership hired such a shallow, incompetent and heartless man to spiritually influence their thousands of students. No wonder our churches are pathetic, our nation is failing and people are leaving the churches by the droves to find God. PCC is a cult! You are required to dot your i’s and cross your t’s, and walk a very find line in submission to cult authority at PCC, or they will axe you like a turkey on Thanksgiving Day!

After I left Campus Church I criticized their pastors on social media, for not caring about broken people like me. Their hateful response from Campus Church and PCC was to completely ignore me for 6 weeks. I got upset by their hatred and decided to criticize them some more. Only at that time on August 2, 2022 did their shameful pastor Jeff Redlin email me to inform me that I am permanently banned from attending Campus Church. This is the type of hateful hypocrite that are running the Bible colleges today Bob Jones University is just as bad.

Therefore, PCC’s enemies are my friends. I stand with Samantha Field (who says she was raped at PCC as one of their abused female students). PCC has shunned and blamed her, which doesn’t come as a surprise in lieu of how horribly they have mistreated me as a hurting sinner. PCC are cold hearted jerks! The cult system always comes first at PCC, but individual people do not matter. I have [1]heard that allegation from countless of their former students.

PCC has never learned that hatred only begets more hatred. What is their problem? Jesus told us in Luke 7:40-47, they woefully lack love because they’ve not been forgiven of much. They are snobby and self-righteous at PCC, full of themselves. Like perverse Hollywood, PCC falls all over themselves with self praise and self glorification. The adage is true: Tyranny is rarely seen except by those who are oppressed by it.

Most people have no need for love from PCC, so they don’t see the abusive problem there. But ask Allen Armentrout, a former PCC senior who was kicked out of school for being patriotic in Virginia. Ask Peter Gage, a former student whom PCC deeply hurt and even sued for $100,000. Real great Christians, huh? PCC only cares about protecting their public image and getting their way, but they couldn’t care less about anyone as an individual human being. I am living proof of that. As long as the tens of millions of dollars continue to flow into their accursed cult, they will never start caring.

> “The pastors have destroyed the churches, and they’ve been trained by people that have never built churches, and [2]they have no compassion.” —Pastor Jack Hyles, “[3]Many Pastors Have Destroyed My Vineyard”

Dr. Hyles practically gives the address of Pensacola Christian College at 250 Brent Lane in Pensacola. The leaders at PCC are a bunch of self-righteous Pharisees who have never truly suffered a day in their life. They don't know what it feels like to have your spouse abandon and divorce you against your will, and then be told be a bunch of hateful hypocrites at PCC that you can never get remarried. Yet they go home and enjoy their spouses, while you languish in loneliness and misery. What rotten people! For someone who is suffering in bodily pain, and hurting in inexplicable emotional pain of soul, PCC are ungodly monsters.

I cannot warn everyone enough to RUN FROM THIS PLACE!!! They attempt to drown out the cry of their victims at PCC with their orchestras and singing, but God hears the cries of their many victims. I will never shut up about the abusive cult at PCC. They need to be exposed for their woeful lack of love for hurting people. In 2022 I kindly gave Pastor Redlin and PCC my mobile phone number and pleaded to reconcile with their church family, but they wickedly refused. Only cults selectively care about people. There is NO LOVE OR COMPASSION at Pensacola Christian College. As I type, PCC and Campus Church have my contact information, but they still refuse to make peace. In hindsight, I am thankful, because I have since learned that PCC is [4]preaching a counterfeit Gospel.

God hears their arrogant laughing at PCC, seeing that they refuse to love hurting people; but the table will one day be turned on them. You cannot ignore hurting victims, and mistreat people, and think that you'll get away with it forever. God will not be mocked. The Bible warns that you will someday reap what you have sown (Galatians 6:7). If I had my way, PCC would go out of the religious business permanently. The sooner the better! The sooner that we rid our churches, homes and schools of the phony type of hateful Christianity that PCC promotes, the better off our country will be. SHAME on Pensacola Christian College and their fake church!

Jesus rebuked Simon for his lack of love, because he looked down on the sinful woman. Likewise, they look down on me as a divorced man at PCC. God sees their religious hypocrisy and woeful lack of love or compassion. I am the biggest sinner I know. I have been forgiven by God of much sins, and I'm going to love everyone, regardless of whether they love me back or not. That is the heart of our great God and Savior. I thank God that I am not a part of their hateful Pharisaical cult at PCC, a good ole boy network of religious thugs and vengeful jerks.

The religious snobs who run PCC and Campus Church have never been drunk. They've never commit adultery. They've never been arrested and faced criminal charges, locked in a jail cell or incarcerated in prison for decades. They've never used illegal drugs, been homeless or murdered someone. They've never stolen from their employer, cheated on their taxes, or had premarital sex, et cetera. So, they woefully lack God's love and forgiveness for others, because they have never experienced the depth of God's mercy and grace as a guilty sinner. Oh sure, they think they understand God's grace, but they truly do not. Until you've hit rock bottom in life, shunned by society as an evildoer, you cannot even begin to comprehend God's grace.

In the Old Testament, king David murdered Uriah to hide his sin of adultery with Uriah's wife, Bathsheba. David unintentionally impregnanted her. He wickedly tried to lure Uriah to sleep with his own wife, but he was such a dedicate soldier and a good guy, that he refused to enjoy his wife while his brothers in arms were still fighting on the battlefield. In shar[contrast, David was a scumbag of human flesh.

One of [5]David's worst enemies in the Bible is Ahithophel, the grandfather of Bathsheba, who wanted to kill David. You can't blame him after what David did to murder Uriah and destroy their marriage. David was a horrible wicked man! Yet, God in His mercy forgave David. Albeit, David didn't get away with his sin, he paid for it dearly for the rest of his life, and so did his entire family in Israel. Oh how the Devil is a beautiful liar! Sin will always take you farther than you wanted to go, keep you longer than you planned to stay, and cost you more than you intended to pay. The Devil's apples all have worms!

But in all this, David learned compassion. David saw a new side of God's grace that he hadn't seen before, because now he was living the Blues himself. There's an old adage which says: You cannot sing the Blues until you've lived the blues! That is very true. PCC have never lived the blues! They have no genuine comprehension of God's forgiving grace, for if they did they would love and embrace hurting people like me and Samantha Field, not shun us away.

We need a revival across the United States of loving hurting people. You sure won't find any love at PCC, BJU or other so-called "fundamentalist" authoritarian abuse places. They have become so accustomed to the machinery that generates tons of money, that they've lost sight of the true purpose of the ministry, which is to help broken people in Jesus' name. I am in the salvaging business. Anybody who knows me knows that for the past 22 years of website ministry, I am one of very, very few preachers who will take hours to write you back with a sincere outpouring of my heart to help you with God's love. I care! PCC doesn't care. The way we treat others quickly shows whether we care or not.

I sincerely love you dear reader, whoever you may be. I am not a respecter of persons. Our great God and Savior loves you, more than you or I could ever comprehend, so much that He sacrificed His life on Calvary's cross to pay our massive debt of sin. What a precious Savior!!!

5.4.10 People Still Haven't Changed In Thousands Of Years (2024-04-24 11:59)

Luke 12:13-15, "

And one of the company said unto him, Master, speak to my brother, that he divide the inheritance with me.

And he said unto him, Man, who made me a judge or a divider over you?

And he said unto them, Take heed, and beware of covetousness: for a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth.

While I was working at my computer, I was [1]listening to Alexander Scourby read the Gospel of Luke yesterday and was intrigued by some of the things I heard. As I listened to Jesus' interactions with people, I realized that humans haven't changed over the past 2,000 years.

The Covetous Man

In our text Scripture passage, a man in the crowd approaches Jesus to ask Him if He will speak to his brother about sharing his parent's inheritance with him. We don't know the whole story. Did this man receive nothing from his parents when they passed away because he was a bad son? Did he squander his portion of the inheritance left to him, like the Prodigal Son did? We simply don't know. I find it interesting that a complete stranger came up to Jesus with money on his mind, not just asking for advice, but wanting Jesus to somehow coerce his brother to give him some money. That is sickening. I don't like money-hungry people. Truly, the love of money is the root (source) of all evil (1st Timothy 6:12).

I heard Jesus say something profound in Luke 6:30, "

Give to every man that asketh of thee; and of him that taketh away thy goods ask them not again.

" Wow! How many of us would let someone keep our stuff and not ask for it back, ever? Jesus taught that if someone steals our stuff (or permanently borrows it...lol), we should just let it go and not ask for it back. That intrigued me when I heard Jesus say that. Great fluffy biscuits in the morning! What is God trying to teach us here? The lesson I humbly think is that the greatest things in life are not things. Fearing God and keeping His commandments is worth more than all the money in the world.

Yet, we've all seen people go crazy in excitement when they win a lot of money or a big prize. My Mom used to watch The Price Is Right game show hosted by Bob Barker (1923-2023). Amazingly, the show aired on Tv between 1972 and 2007. As a boy, I remember seeing people on a daily basis jumping up and down on the show, screaming and crying in happiness when they won a lot of money, or a new car, or a world vacation, or all of the above. Even as child I can still remember thinking that it was just money and things. Money cannot buy anyone a home, family or love. I've never seen anyone get that excited over the things of God.

Sadly, over 90 % of people are very materialistic. That is why everywhere I turn while driving my car in Pensacola, I see disgusting billboards by shady ambulance-chasing covetous lawyers enticing people to sue others for money. It just reveals the dark underbelly of our ungodly American society, showing how materialistic and covetous we really are today. It is sad and pathetic! Our culture has become so rotten that I don't even want to go out my front door anymore. I just want to stay home and watch the world destroy itself on Tv. I know that I am not alone in my feelings, because some of my blog visitors have told me so. Even so, come, Lord Jesus!

You will never be the mature Christian that God wants you to be, until you come to the place spiritually where having money means nothing to you. I don't have a lot of money and don't care about getting it. A Christian man, whom I consider a ministry friend, recently suggested an idea for making money online. He asked me if I wanted to partner with him. I didn't need to think more than one second to give him my answer. No thanks! I'm not interesting in making money. Since 2002 when God put the strong desire in my heart to start a website ministry, from day one I decided that money would never be a part of my ministry for the Lord. I have never, nor will I ever, ask or take a single penny for my labors for Jesus Christ. I don't need or want the money. I live a simple life. God takes care of me. I have never owned s new car and don't plan to. My used 2013 Honda FIT might as well be a $250,000 fancy sports car (I couldn't even give you the name of an expensive model). My old car gets me from point A to point B, which suits me just fine. ...

> There's a roof up above me
> I've a good place to sleep
> There's food on my table
> And shoes on my feet
> You gave me your love Lord
> And a fine family
> Thank you Lord, for your blessings on me
> [2]Here the song

We were all born with nothing and we will die with nothing (1st Timothy 6:7). What matters most is that we are right toward God in this life. That doesn't mean giving most of your money to some covetous pastor who is living large. It does mean that you wisely spend and give the money which God has entrusted to you. If someone has more money than me, good for them, it doesn't impress me. My name is written in Heaven (Luke 10:20), and that is wealth that all the money in the world cannot buy. Thank God!

The Demon Possessed Man

As I listened to the Gospel of Luke, I heard the amazing true story of the maniac of Gadarenes. He ran around by the Sea of Galilee naked, throwing himself into the fire, cutting himself the Bible says. The townspeople had tried binding him with chains, but he broke free with super human strength (cf. Mark 5:1-19). The poor man was demon possessed! ...

> Luke 8:26-39, "And they arrived at the country of the Gadarenes, which is over against Galilee. And when he went forth to land, there met him out of the city a certain man, which had devils long time, and ware no clothes, neither abode in any > house, but in the tombs. When he saw Jesus, he cried out, and fell down before him, and with a loud voice said, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of God most high? I beseech thee, torment me not. (For he had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For oftentimes it had caught him: and he was kept bound with chains and in fetters; and he brake the bands, and was driven of the devil into the wilderness.) And Jesus asked him, saying, What is thy name? And he said, Legion: because many devils were entered into him. And they besought him that he would not command them to go out into the deep. And there was there an herd of many swine feeding on the mountain: and they besought him that he would suffer them to enter into them. And he suffered them. Then went the devils out of the man, and entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the lake, and were choked. When they that fed them saw what was done, they fled, and went and told it in the city and in the country. Then they went out to see what was done; and came to Jesus, and found the man, out of whom the devils were departed, sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed, and in his right mind: and they were afraid. They also which saw it told them by what means he that was possessed of the devils was healed. Then the whole multitude of the country of the Gadarenes round about besought him to depart from them; for they were taken with great fear: and he went up into the ship, and returned back again. Now the man out of whom the devils were departed besought him that he might be with him: but Jesus sent him away, saying, Return to thine own house, and shew how great things God hath done unto thee. And he went his way, and published throughout the whole city how great things Jesus had done unto him."

I was intrigued when I heard this passage, because the townspeople tolerated the insane man. They tried to bind him. They all knew who he was, where he dwelt, and what he did. But when Jesus cast out the demons and they saw the man sitting at Jesus' feet in his right mind, the Bible says they were terrified. Go figure! That is amazing! They were afraid of success!

I've never seen so much fear of a prospective U.S. President as toward Donald Trump. Countless famous celebrities (Tom Hanks, Cher, Ellen DeGeneres, et cetera) have said that they will leave the United States if Mr. Trump is reelected in 2024. I hope Mr. Trump does get reelected, and that they do leave and please do not come back! What is so wrong with President Trump? He helped the farmers. He helped the veterans. He did MUCH good for our country, more so than any U.S. President since Theodore Roosevelt. It is the ungodly liberals, kooks, heathens and socialists who despise and hate him!

President Joe Biden is an incompetent fool who has done great harm to our nation in many ways, especially by opening the borders. President Trump spent $15,000,000,000 of taxpayer money to build a border wall, which Mr. Biden has mocked and undone. It is a travesty of justice. Jesus warned that a house divided cannot stand and America is divided on everything today. We cannot exist like this indefinitely. If something doesn't change soon, our country will crumble.

The Humble Man

I enjoyed listening to the Gospel of Luke yesterday. I heard the Apostle Peter tell Jesus in Luke 8:5 to depart from him, because he was a sinful man. I like that humility in Peter. And then again in Luke 7:6 the centurion whose servant was sick told his men to go tell Jesus there was no need to come to his home, because he was not worthy for Jesus to enter under his roof. I love that humility! I don't know about you friend, but I feel the same way as Peter and the centurion. I feel so unworthy of Christ's presence in my life, and that a King should bleed and die for a guilty sinner like me. I am speechless of what to say, except THANK YOU!

As I listened to the Gospel of John, I was reminded of how people are the same still today as back in Bible times. One man came to Jesus, wanting him to go convince his brother to split his inheritance with him. That sounds so typical of covetous people today! Some people only think in terms of making money, and it is sinful. Our affections (mind) should be set on things above (Colossians 3:1). This earthly life is short, too short if you ask me.

In 1977, I remember seeing Harrison Ford for the first time in Star Wars (one of my favorite movies), but today he is an old aged man with health issues, frail and it is difficult for him to walk. Time truly does change everything! We will all die someday. Hopefully we will all have the privilege to grow old, which many people do not get. Two children were just murdered this week in Florida, when a 66 year old drunken woman sped her car into a building where a group of children were gathered having a party. She was legally drunk! I have always hated booze and wish our ungodly government would stop sanctioning Liquid Devil and ban it. Sadly, we are governed by fools who don't care how many innocent people are murdered by booze.

Jesus met humble people. He met arrogant people. He met covetous people. I love the true story in Luke when Jesus was teaching the Bible, and suddenly He saw a group of men tearing a hole through the roof, and they lowered down a paralyzed man so Jesus could heal him. God loves that kind of faith! I commend those wise men for taking the initiative to find a way to get Jesus' attention, at all cost. That was clever! It also impresses upon my heart how much they loved and cared about the man whom they brought to Jesus.

Sadly, in our shameful American society today most people don't care about each other. But thankfully some people still do. I saw a tear-jerking news video this week where a group of strangers along a California highway, smashed out an SUV window to rescue a frantic driver who was about to be burned alive after a multiple vehicle accident involving a truck. Those courageous people are heroes!

The Sinfully Proud Man

Our dear Lord met all kinds of people. I also heard in the book of Luke where the wicked Pharisees, scribes, lawyers and unbelieving Jews were oftentimes attempting to trap Jesus in His words. I love how Jesus outsmarted them every time, shaming them with their own foolish plots. Job was right, who said in Job 9:3, "

If he will contend with him, he cannot answer him one of a thousand.

" It is rare that a man can win an argument with God.

Moses once did, when God wanted to destroy the Hebrew for worshipping the golden calf. Moses talked God out of doing it, lest the heathen nations would say God only led the Hebrews out of Egypt to utterly destroy them. So, it is possible to win a debate with God, if you are in the right. I love how that situation with Moses and God, shows how our Creator's personality exists in us humans. God gets upset, just like we do. God loves to be praised, just like we do. God loves to forgive and show mercy, just like a righteous man does.

Pride is a horrible sin, which precedes all other sins. I was thinking this week how we are to blame for the mess in America, not God. The Lord gave us the Holy Bible to guide us through life. It is our instruction Book. Yet, how many people regard God's Word. Not men, that's for sure.

I've been following the news concerning the abortion issue in the United States. It is sad to see thousands of woman rallying and protesting for their right to murder babies. I like what the state of Tennessee is doing. For the past few years, before being allowed to have an abortion, a doctor must legally let a pregnant mother hear her baby's heartbeat. I love that! It shows the mother that she is about to stop a beating heart. It let's her realize that a living human being is in her womb, and it is her precious child. Our ungodly society, and monstrous organizations like Planned Herodhood, have deceived pregnant women to view their living child as material in the womb, nothing more. The blatant disregard for human life in America is staggering!

The Bible commands in Exodus 12:13,

“Thou shalt not kill.” Abortion doesn’t make a woman unpregnant, it just makes her the mother of a dead baby.

People Are Still The Same

We serve a wonderful risen Savior! As I listened to the book of Luke, and heard about Jesus healing and helping sinful people everywhere He went, it humbled my soul to know that this same Jesus knows and loves me as one of His redeemed sheep. THANK YOU LORD!!!

5.4.11 What Is Backsliding? (2024-04-25 11:39)

Proverbs 14:14, "The backslider in heart shall be filled with his own ways: and a good man shall be satisfied from himself."

Do you know what it means to backslide? It means that you are walking backwards in your soul from God. You are smiling and waving at God, trying to convince Him that everything is okay in your life, and that you know what you are doing, and there's nothing to worry about. All the while you are still walking backwards away from God, going into a life of self and sin.

We've all done it! We are all guilty of backsliding. In fact, one of the greatest sermons I've heard heard was by Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001), titled: "[1]The Necessity Of Backsliding." I sincerely hope and pray dear friend that you will take the time to hear the sermon, because this truth will change your life if you let it. As Dr. Hyles rightly says, you cannot be upstream until you've been downstream. You cannot ascend the mountain until you've been in the valley beneath. You cannot have joy without sorrow. Psalms 30:5, " For his anger endureth but a moment; in his favour is life: weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning. " We cannot have any asset in life without the corresponding liability.

It is not okay to backslide, but it will happen nonetheless because we are sinful by nature and by choice as humans. No one is above committing sin, not even the best saint (Romans 7:14-25). Romans 3:10-23 teaches that all humanity are guilty sinners. We sure are! There is none that doeth righteous, no not one. Certainly not me. I am the biggest sinner I know, because I know me better than anyone. And if you are an honest person and know God, then you also see yourself as a big sinner.

Read what the prophet Isaiah said in Isaiah 6:5, " Then said I, Woe is me! for I am undone; because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips: for mine eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts.

Read what the Apostle Peter said to Jesus in Luke 5:8,

"When Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, Depart from me; for I am a sinful man, O Lord."

Read what the Apostle Paul said in 1st Timothy 1:15, " This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief.

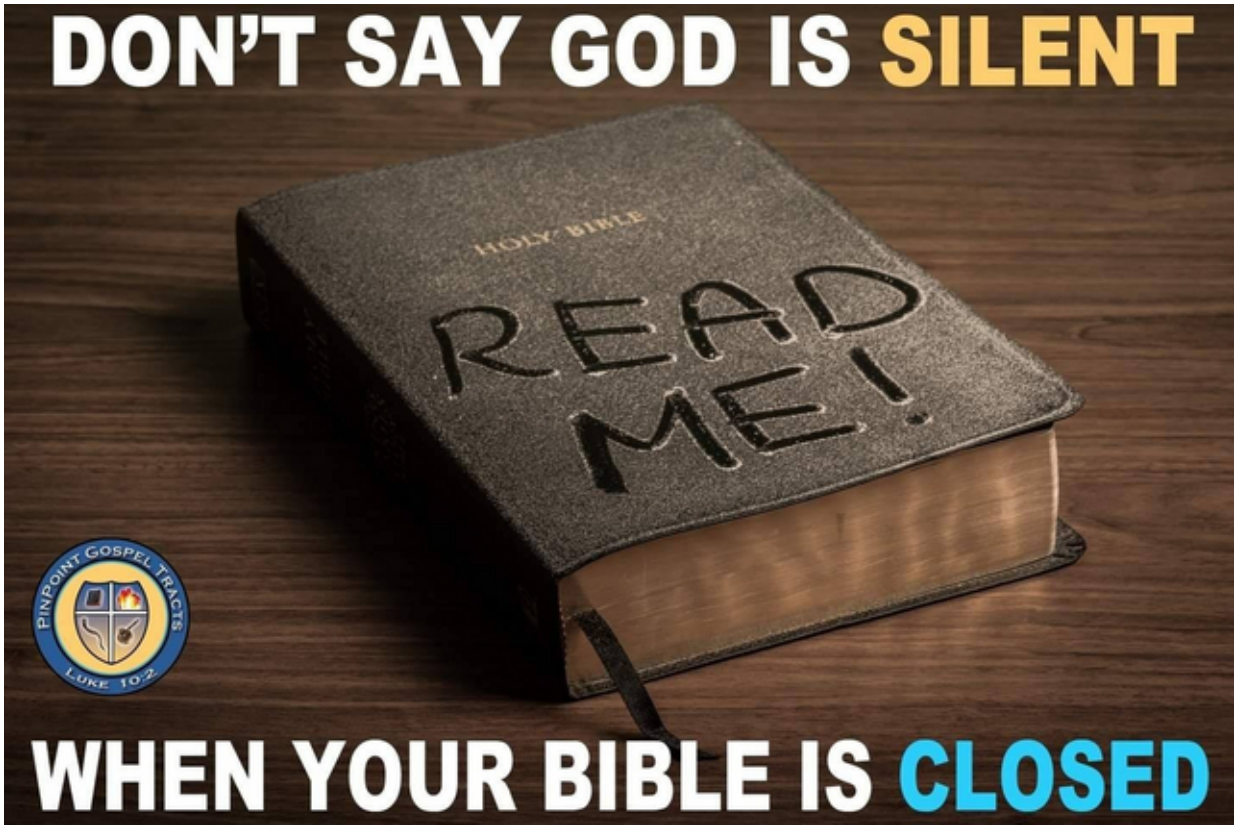
As you draw closer to your holy God, you will feel worse about yourself because you will see your sinnership. That is a good thing. Dr. Hyles used to wisely say that he knew he was inferior, but he didn't have an inferiority complex. I think many of us struggle with feeling inferior. I have always tended to be down on myself as an adult. Some people see that in me, and a couple have even told me so. I admit that I tend to be too hard on myself.



I have to continually take my focus off myself, and put it instead on Jesus my precious Savior. If we focus on self, we will be discouraged because we are sinners at best. If we focus on family, they will let us down. If we focus on friends, they will disappoint us. If we look up to our leaders at church, they are only sinful people too. The only perfect standard in the universe is God and His inspired Word. Hebrews 12:2,

"Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God."

We all backslide at times, waving and smiling at God that everything is going to be okay, while we slowly walk backwards away from Him. The truth is that we will eventually be in a world of hurt, and may back off a cliff. James 4:8, " Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts, ye double minded." Every saint is either drawing nearer to our God, or backsliding away from Him.

For many years now, I have tried to be honest with God and myself, by not insanely thinking that I can make it without God in my life. I desperately need God! When we don't read the inspired King James Bible, and we fail to take the time to pray, we are literally telling God that we don't need His help and we can go it alone without Him. We all need God. Backsliding is walking backwards away from God, while pretending that all is well. Thank you for reading.

5.4.12 Satanists Control The United States And Israel (2024-04-27 12:16)

Revelation 17:9-11, “

And here is the mind which hath wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth. And there are seven kings: five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, he must continue a short space. And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and goeth into perdition.”

In this blog I want to give you a little crash course about what is going on in the world today. The inspired King James Bible teaches us the Satan, formerly known as Lucifer the archangel in Heaven, is the malign god of this world (2nd Corinthians 4:4). Earth is his domain and he controls it. Albeit we read in 1st Corinthians 10:26 says, “For the earth is the Lord’s, and the fulness thereof.” So the earth itself belongs to almighty God, but Satan (an inferior angel who wants to be God) is in charge of all the wickedness of this world.

We see signs of Satan everywhere today...

What is the meaning of covering the right eye? The Bible tells us in Zechariah 11:17, "Woe to the idol shepherd that leaveth the flock! the sword shall be upon his arm, and upon his right eye: his arm shall be clean dried up, and his right eye shall be utterly darkened." This is an Old Testament prophecy about the coming Antichrist, who will be a literal man.

Hey, do you want to see something really creepy? Check out a scene from Mel Gibson's 2004 hit movie, The Passion Of Christ. Jim Caviezel is a devout Roman Catholic who starred in the film as Jesus. Carefully look at the following photo of Jesus and see if you notice something creepy. ...

Did you see it? Jesus' right eye is darkened!!! The movie's producers are portraying Jesus as the Antichrist. BLASPHEMY!!!

[16]We Are Being Manipulated

What do all these occult symbols mean? I could show you thousands more such photos. Search the internet and you will find them. What they mean is that the Bible is true dear friend. There is a God, and He is a good and powerful God. And there is a real Devil, whom the Bible calls Satan, the accuser of the Christian brethren (Revelation 12:10). The battle between good and evil started long before the first human being was ever created by God in the Garden of Eden approximately 6,000 years ago. Humanity has been caught in the crosshairs of this ongoing spiritual war.

> Ephesians 6:12-13, “ For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places.
> Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand.

Our struggle is not with the flesh and blood the Bible says, but with evil spiritual forces at work behind the scenes. Humans are not bodies with a spirit; but rather, a spirit living within a body. When the body dies, “ the spirit shall return unto God who gave it

” (Ecclesiastes 12:7b).

Very few saints today understand what is going on with Israel. Kindly said, they are ignorant on the matter. They have been misled by their naïve pastors to think that we have an obligation as Christians to support Israel. Nothing could be further from the truth. Why would God want us to bless a wicked group of Christ-rejecters whom He has cursed? There is a reason why Israel was judged, annihilated in 586 BC by Babylon, and then the remnant of Jews scattered throughout the world in 70 AD by Rome. Until the Second Coming of Jesus Christ, the true nation of Israel will not exist (Hosea 3:4-5).

In May of 1948, The Council On Foreign Relations (not God) used military force to drive the Arab people from their homes and land in Palestine. Since that time, Israel has had their foot on the necks of the Palestinian people. Evangelist John R. Rice (1895-1980) wrote these words of empathy for the Palestinian refugees:

> "I have great sympathy for more than a million Arabs who live in refugee camps, either driven out or terrorized until they fled from their homes and lands in Palestine—theirs by purchase and theirs by possession and theirs for centuries in their families. And I have a great deal of sympathy for that spirit of nationalism among Arabs who feel they have been robbed and defrauded and abused and imposed upon and who want back their own land. I can understand that. I think they will never be given back the land that was given Israel by the United nations in 1948, but I think that provisions must be made for those millions and a third refugees in refugee camps in Jericho, in Amman, in Beirut, in the Gaza strip, and elsewhere. God loves those people and they must have the Gospel."

Amen and amen! I don't understand so-called Christian Zionists who continually demonize the Palestinian people in Gaza, while sanctioning the cruel genocide by Israel that's been going against the Palestine people since October of 2023 until present. As of April 25th, 2024, there are [17]34,305 murdered Palestinians (70 % of whom were defenseless women and children). Why does the U.S. government sanction this ongoing genocide with impunity? The answer is simple. The Luciferian elite (i.e., the same evil people who formed and control Israel) also control the United States. These people are Satanists! You need to understand that. Look at all the photos I showed you. Those hand signs all show allegiance to Satan!

Hollywood is run by Satan. The [18]U.S. government is run by Satan. Ultimately, our court system, top universities, FEMA, FBI, CIA, the corporations, our military, and even our churches are being influenced and controlled by the Devil. Why do you think there are literally hundreds of Bible versions for sale today? Satan is the author of confusion, not God (1st Corinthians 14:33). The Devil has children confused nowadays about their gender. This is insanity!

Dear reader, the Arab people are the descendents of Abraham, just as are the Jews. As Christians we must love them all with God's unconditional love and not take sides. I love the Jewish people, but I also equally love the Arab people. Sadly, I personally know of Christian saints who couldn't care less about the skyrocketing death toll in Palestine. They've been brainwashed with Zionist propaganda that is being spread like manure in the churches today. It makes me sick and angry what is going on in Gaza, and I wish I had the power to stop the murdering of innocent people. Israel continues to murder Palestinians with impunity, while the rest of the world's nations sit back (for the cowards they are) doing absolutely nothing. It is shameful.

We read in Revelation 17:16-18, "And the ten horns which thou sawest upon the beast, these shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and burn her with fire.

For God hath put in their hearts to fulfil his will, and to agree, and give their kingdom unto the beast, until the words of God shall be fulfilled. And the woman which thou sawest is that great city, which reigneth over the kings of the earth*.” During the 7-year Tribulation (which I believe is coming very soon), a confederacy of ten nations will join the Antichrist to fight against apostate Israel. As you just read for yourself, Israel controls the kings of the earth. Jerusalem is The Great Whore, the woman who rides and controls the Beast (world powers).

Concerning the two prophets from God who will be murdered during the Tribulation, we read in Revelation 11:8,

“And their dead bodies shall lie in the street of the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where also our Lord was crucified.” Carefully notice that the Bible likens Israel today with Sodom and Egypt, two of the most wicked places in human civilization. Jerusalem is the city where the Lord was crucified. Tel Aviv, Israel, today is the gay mecca of the homosexual world. You can easily verify that online. The Huffington Post sickeningly called Tel Aviv, a “gay paradise.” Well, it won’t be paradise where the wicked are going in eternity! Revelation 20:15, “ And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire.

It is not a mere coincidence that we see [19]insanity like this today. Check [20]this insanity out! If you think these evils are mere happenstance, then you are woefully deceived friend. I like Tucker Carlson. He is not a Christian, but he is definitely a conservative and I think a good guy. He visited Moscow, Russia, in February of 2024 to interview Russian president Vladimir Putin. While in Moscow, Tucker was amazed how clean the place was, literally. He didn’t see any druggies, homeless people or homosexuals parading down the streets.

When he returned to America, Tucker said that while in Moscow he came to the realization that all of the problems in the United States today are deliberate (i.e., the homelessness crisis, the open border crisis, the Fentanyl crisis, the housing crisis, feminism, transgenderism lunacy, et cetera). We are being destroyed by design.

Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) back in 1970 saw the handwriting on the wall, in this incredibly insightful sermon titled, "[21]Why The Antichrist Must Come Soon.” The basic gist of the sermon is that out of history’s chaos world dictators (Alexander The Great, Julius Caesar, Napoléon, Hitler, et cetera) arose to power. Likewise, out of the ashes and chaos of the United States will arise the Antichrist, and the people will love and embrace him as a great solver of the problems which have decimated our nation for so long. Now you know why things are intentionally being made a mess everywhere we turn today.

The ungodly powers at work behind the scenes want as much chaos as they can create. They want more mass shootings, so they will have an excuse in the future to disarm the American public. It’s coming, you just wait and see. Guns will be confiscated and banned in the United States. As of October 2023 guns cannot be sold, bought or traded in Canada anymore! It will happen here in the United States, I assure you! It’s just a matter of time. Then we will be completely at the mercy of a thug tyrannical Satanic government.

There’s no way that one man, President Joe Biden, had the power to illegally allow 8,500,000 strangers to illegally flood into the country. None of those illegal immigrants were screened to see if they are murderers, terrorists or pedophiles. No background checks were done. Yet, TSA’s thugs are forcing elderly U.S. citizens to remove their diapers at all the airports, to check for explosives and contraband. Hell will be hot enough!

Dear reader, things are not looking very good for the future of the United States! What the ungodly Democrats are wickedly doing right now, trying to destroy Mr. Donald Trump with the court system, is unprecedented in our country. I hope this all backfires in their faces! We need a revival of justice in our country. We need a revival of caring and loving each other as our neighbours. Something is very wrong when we've got tens of millions of Americans who are either homeless, living out of their vehicles, or just one paycheck away from being homeless.

This is the consequence of the sinister Federal Reserve Act of 1913, which gave private crooks (Banksters) exclusive control over our nation's money supply. The Federal Reserve is a massive Ponzi Scheme destined to utterly fail. That is why the government wants to [22]take away your right to defend yourself. They want your firearms!!! Our U.S. economy is going to ultimately IMPLODE, and it won't be too long from now the way things are going.

I could go on for hours about this stuff. Do you really think that it takes 30 to 40 years to pay down your house's mortgage? The banksters planned it that way, to keep you slaving away your entire life and then die broke. It was all calculated by financial scientists! They are the scum of the earth, and they control nearly every facet of your daily life. By making it harder for you to earn a livable wage, they can force your spouse into the workplace, which makes it much more difficult to bear children and raise a family. This is why the [23]birthrate has been steadily decreasing since the 1980's in the United States. The [24]fertility rare is dropping off the chart. This is all by evil design folks! Please watch the full-length documentary, [25]America Destroyed By Design, by Alex Jones.

Lest you doubt that Satanists control everything, [26]check out this article I wrote exposing one of the sickening music videos by Taylor Swift. This is horrifying! Nobody (and I mean nobody) in their right mind would do what she is doing in her raunchy video, Wildest Dreams. Why aren't parents outraged and angry? Truly, we are a very ungodly society. The problem is not that society is dying spiritually. The Bible says unsaved people are already dead in trespasses and sins (Ephesians 2:1-2). An unsaved person biblically is a child of the Devil (John 8:44). As Bruce Willis said in the movie The Sixth Sense, "

I see dead people.

Also, you might want to read Charlotte Iserbyt's shocking book titled, [27]The Deliberate Dumbing Down Of America. It is no coincidence that the [28]majority of American children today are falling behind at school. The [29]public fool system is failing massively!!!

The rabbit hole runs deep friend. I have only showed you the tip of the iceberg. Since 2002 when God put the earnest desire in my heart (Philippians 2:13) to start a website ministry, I haven't looked back. I have a passion for the ministry work that I do. I love writing blogs and webpages. I have always loved being helpful, giving and doing my part to be a blessing to others for my precious Lord and Savior, Jesus.

I have learned much since 2002 about a lot of things. I am a truth-seeker! In fact, on countless days I've had to just go take a walk, to process the insane and horrifying truths that I have discovered over the many years. Truth is stranger than fiction! That I can tell you assuredly. The Devil is a real person. We read in Job chapter one that the Devil roams about as a bum, going to and fro the earth (Job 1:7), seeking whom he may devour (1st Peter 5:7-8). Thankfully, the Devil cannot harm a child of God unless we let him, because as born-again saints we have the indwelling blessed Holy Spirit (1st John 3:24, 4:4; Romans 8:9).

What shall we do in these perilous times? What should we be doing in these last days? Stay faithful to abide in the inspired King James Bible. Walk with God humbly. Don't stop praying and trusting the Lord in all things. Attend the best Bible believing church that you can find, although admittedly they are becoming harder to find these days. Love everyone around you, even strangers with God's unconditional love. Be good to everyone, because everybody's having a tough time. Be unkind and mean to no one. Be merciful and have empathy for others who are hurting and lonely. Get out of the self life! I am baking [30]my homemade flan desert today, two of them. One is for a 94 year old lady in our church. The other is for a blind woman at church. I wanted to do something nice for others. You should try it sometime if you don't already, because living for others is a way to find some happiness in this miserable life.

Jesus told us in John 16:33, "These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world." That is not just good advice from our dear Savior, it is His command. Let us all be of good cheer in the Lord. Thank you for reading my blog.

5.4.13 Those Little Awkward Moments in Life That Hurt Our Feelings (2024-04-29 09:36)

Psalms 139:1-6, "O LORD, thou hast searched me, and known me. Thou knowest my downsitting and mine uprising, thou understandest my thought afar off. Thou compassest my path and my lying down, and art acquainted with all my ways. For there is not a word in my tongue, but, lo, O LORD, thou knowest it altogether. Thou hast beset me behind and before, and laid thine hand upon me. Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is high, I cannot attain unto it."

I was thinking today about all the awkward, embarrassing and strange little things that have happened in my life, that hurt my feelings.

For example: When I moved to Pensacola in 2021, I shopped at Walmart for the first time in decades. I had lived on the island of Guam for 17 years, where there is no Walmart store. So, I went to one of Walmart's self-checkout machines. I scanned each of my item's barcode and I heard the scanner beep. I scanned all of my several dozen items. When I finished I went to swipe my credit card, but only then did I notice that the machine was closed. I looked up and saw that the light was red instead of green, which up until that time I didn't understand what those lights meant. When I realized the mistake that I had made, I heard a mother and daughter laughing at me in the checkout line next to me. That hurt my feelings.

I'll give you another example. I ordered something recently. The item came this week through UPS and required my signature. When the UPS man came to my door and asked me to sign, I signed only my first name. I have no idea why I didn't sign my last name also. In hindsight, I am always suffering in neck pain, and I take prescription medications, and I get a bit nervous around strangers, so I think all those things factored into the reason why I only signed my first name. At the store I usually just scribble my name, which is not even legible. The driver asked me if my last name was "Stewart," and I confirmed that it is. He then told me to have a nice day, and I said likewise. Nothing bad happened. There were no unkind words spoken. But because I forget to sign my full name, and he needed to ask if my last name is Stewart, it hurt my feelings.

I am sure that you also could share with me umpteen similar awkward moments. I could literally share hundreds more with you, that hurt my feelings. This is just a part of life dear friend. We cannot escape our frail humanity. I am writing this blog to help and encourage you, because I suspect that many people go through the same hurt feelings that I do. I have to counsel myself when such awkward moments occur. I remind myself that nothing bad actually happened, it was just an embarrassing moment. I remind myself that there's a lot of hurting people in this world, stuck in wheelchairs and dying of cancer, with real burdens.

is one of my favorite, because it confirms that God monitors my life 24 hours a day, 365 days a year. Nothing escapes the eyes of God. Nothing ever happens where God needs to apologize that he missed it because He was distracted elsewhere. As only God can do, and in ways we cannot even begin to possibly understand, God can give millions of Christians His undivided attention at the same time. That is amazing!

I am now 57 years old. There have been thousands of times in my life when I got my feelings hurt. There are things which happened in my past, that still today pain my soul when I am reminded of them. I "[1]Throw The Cross Into It" (an excellent MP3 sermon by Pastor Jack Hyles). Hurt feelings are a part of life. Awkward and embarrassing moments will happen, and they are unavoidable, regardless of how much we may all try to prevent them from occurring. The reason why we cannot prevent them is because we cannot know every thing that there is to know. We are not omniscient like God is. I cannot even remember what I ate the day before most of the time. People ask for my phone number and I pause, because I never call myself and cannot remember my number quickly.

So when those small awkward, strange and embarrassing moments in life happen to you, remember friend that you are definitely not alone. I have them all the time too. Just focus on Jesus, the Author and Finisher of our faith (Hebrews 12:2).

5.5.1 Senator Bernie Sanders Rightly Condemns Israel's President Benjamin Netanyahu As A Thug War Criminal (2024-05-03 09:50)

I thank God for the few respectable leaders that we have left in the United States. I don't agree with everything Senator Bernie Sanders says or does, but I stand 100 % with him in the following truthful rebuke of Israel today . . .

> WASHINGTON, April 25, 2024 — Sen. Bernie Sanders (I-Vt.) today released the following statement in response to Israeli Prime Minister Netanyahu's claim yesterday that criticism of the Israeli government's policies is antisemitic:
> No, Mr. Netanyahu. It is not antisemitic or pro-Hamas to point out that in a little over six months your extremist government has killed 34,000 Palestinians and wounded more than 77,000 – seventy percent of whom are women and children.
>
> It is not antisemitic to point out that your bombing has completely destroyed more than 221,000 housing units in Gaza, leaving more than one million people homeless – almost half the population.
>
> It is not antisemitic to note that your government has obliterated Gaza's civilian infrastructure – electricity, water, and sewage.
>
> It is not antisemitic to realize that your government has annihilated Gaza's health care system, knocking 26 hospitals out of service and killing more than 400 health care workers.
>
> It is not antisemitic to condemn your government's destruction of all of Gaza's 12 universities and 56 of its schools, with hundreds more damaged, leaving 625,000 students with no education.
>
> It is not antisemitic to agree with virtually every humanitarian organization in saying that your government, in violation of American law, has unreasonably blocked humanitarian aid coming into Gaza, creating the conditions in which hundreds of thousands of children face malnutrition and famine.
> Mr. Netanyahu. Antisemitism is a vile and disgusting form of bigotry that has done unspeakable harm to many millions of people. But, please, do not insult the intelligence of the American people by attempting to distract us from the immoral and illegal war policies of your extremist and racist government. Do not use antisemitism to deflect attention from the criminal indictment you are facing in the Israeli courts. It is not antisemitic to hold you accountable for your actions.

Senator Sanders is 100 % correct. Israel's government is extremist and racist to the core! I am ashamed of our country's international reputation, in lieu of our government's shameful incompetence and gross negligence in so many areas. Our leaders should be greatly ashamed for sanctioning the genocide in Israel. Even worse, our nation's clergy couldn't care less. The one's that do are deceived Zionists who support apostate manmade Israel.

I thank God for faithful preachers like Pastor Chuck Baldwin, who in the following video justly condemns America's incompetent wicked clergy for not crying out against the genocide which has taken place in Gaza over the past several months with impunity.

It is tragic that over 95 % of U.S. clergy today don’t care about injustice. Tens of thousands of college kids across the United States are protesting in anger against the slaughter of the Palestinian people in Gaza. Since October 7th, 2023 [1]Israel has brutally murdered 34,622 innocent people (70 % of whom were defenseless woman and children). Benjamin Netanyahu is a monstrous war criminal who needs to be held accountable by the international courts for criminal genocide!

College Kids Are Putting Clergyman To Shame

Sadly, 99 % of professed Christians today are like ostriches with their heads buried in a hole in the ground. Such wicked believers will one day give account to God in eternity for not doing their part to contend for the faith (Jude 1:3), for not standing against the evildoers (Psalms 94:16), and for not speaking up (Matthew 12:36). Well, I’m speaking up for God!!!

As a born-again Christian, I do NOT stand with the manmade extremist and racist nation of Israel, and shame on you if you do!

Exodus 33:1-3, "

And the LORD said unto Moses, Depart, and go up hence, thou and the people which thou hast brought up out of the land of Egypt, unto the land which I sware unto Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, Unto thy seed will I give it: And I will send an angel before thee; and I will drive out the Canaanite, the Amorite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite: Unto a land flowing with milk and honey: for I will not go up in the midst of thee; for thou art a stiffnecked people: lest I consume thee in the way."

We read in our Old Testament text passage that God was fed up with the Hebrew people. They murmured (complained) about everything. The Lord is longsuffering and patient the Bible teaches. Romans 2:4, "

Or despisest thou the riches of his goodness and forbearance and longsuffering; not knowing that the goodness of God leadeth thee to repentance?

" Albeit, even God's patience has a limit. The Hebrews were a stiff-necked people. That means they were extremely prideful and arrogant, refusing to bow their heads in humility before the Lord. They challenged Moses (God's man) on nearly everything.

In so doing they indirectly challenged God. They complained when they came to bitter waters and didn't have any water to quench their thirst. They complained when their food ran out. Then when God fed them manna from Heaven, they complained that they had it better back in slavery in Egypt, where at least they had leeks, onions and meat. So God fed them quail until their bellies were full and they couldn't eat another bite. Yet, they still complained and complained about everything. So, God told Moses in our text passage in Exodus 33:3b, " I will not go up in the midst of thee; for thou art a stiffnecked people: lest I consume thee in the way." Literally, God didn't want to go with them because His patience had worn thin toward the Hebrews, and He was ready to annihilate them!

But take a look at what Moses said to the Lord in Exodus 33:15-17, "And he said unto him, If thy presence go not with me, carry us not up hence. For wherein shall it be known here that I and thy people have found grace in thy sight? is it not in that thou goest with us? so shall we be separated, I and thy people, from all the people that are upon the face of the earth. And the LORD said unto Moses, I will do this thing also that thou hast spoken: for thou hast found grace in my sight, and I know thee by name."

Moses told God that if He does go, neither will he go.

Boy, I love that! Moses knew that he desperately needed God's presence in his life. And so do you and I dear friend. Whether you realize it or not, you need God every ever-living moment of your life. I sure do!!! Without God I'm just an idiot. Receiving Jesus as my personal Savior at age 13 in 1980 was the greatest decision of my life. The blessed indwelling Holy Spirit has been with me ever since, convicting, chastising, teaching, guiding, comforting and inspiring me to work hard each day for Christ. God is so good.

Moses said,

"God, if you aren't going, neither am I." The Lord changed His mind and decided to go after all. We learn from this Scripture passage that God's mind can be changed. We learn from this passage that we all need grace from God. We got saved by God's grace through faith in Jesus, and that is the same way we live the Christian life. You cannot live the Christian life dear reader, and neither can I. It is utterly impossible in our own human strength to live the Christian life. What saith the Scripture?

> Galatians 2:20-21, "I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me. I do not frustrate the grace of God: for if righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain."

Could the Bible be any plainer? I think not. Jesus lives the Christian life through us. That is, this is the "fruit" of the indwelling Holy Spirit, which we read about in Galatians 5:22-25, "But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, Meekness, temperance: against such there is no law. And they that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts. If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit. Let us not be desirous of vain glory, provoking one another, envying one another." Amen! All we need to do to let Jesus live through us is to yield to the inspired Word of God.

Trust and obey,

for there's no other way;

to be happy in Jesus,

but to trust and obey

[1]Hear this hymn

Moses realized that he needed God's presence in his life. I sure do too! And so do you friend. Only a fool think he or she can make it in life without God. When we don't pray and abide in the Scriptures, we are saying to God that we don't need Him, that we can go it alone. Moses refused to go on the journey without God's presence, and I refuse to live life without God's presence. I NEED GOD!!! I need His inspired Words. I need to know that I prayed about everything, putting the ball into God's court, so to speak (Philippians 4:6-8).

I was reading about Lutheranism on your website and found it helpful. I almost joined a wels Lutheran church until I found out about the vows. These seem to almost be a secret because it's not online anywhere and wasn't included in confirmation Bible class. I found out about it online but then the pastor sent them to me when I asked. I would love to share this with you so you can warn others about the vows in Lutheranism in wels. I am also curious what you would say or think. I can email the pages to you. Thank you tianagray@gmail.com

5.5.3 You Don't Have To Be Afraid To Die (2024-05-09 13:29)

John 11:12, "And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this?"

Many people are afraid of dying. I was astonished when I learned that heathen people are paying $140,000 to have cryonics companies like Alcor, [1]freeze their body upside down in liquid nitrogen after they die. The hope is that when technology advances that Alcor will be able to cone a new body and reunite the thoughts, memories and feelings of the brain with that new body. Dear reader, Alcor is conning people! Mankind will never be able to reverse death. Romans 6:23, "For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord. "

No one can escape or reverse the death process. Everything born living is also dying. How long we live depends upon chance and how much we fight to live (i.e., maintain good health). But even though we all must die a physical death, we don't need to die twice. The old adage is true: If you're born once, you die twice; if you're born twice, you die once. Jesus exclaimed in John 3:3b, "Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God. " [2]Have you been born again dear friend?

This past week I was looking at the things that I own in my living room. The somber realization crossed my mind that everything I was looking at will return to the dust one day. Everything that we see around us in our homes came from the earth. The metal in our possessions was mined from ore in the earth. The wood came from trees that were cut down, tress which grew slowly over time from the earth. The objects made of plastic came from chemicals derived from the Periodic Table of Elements from the earth.

Everything that we see around us will someday return to the ground from which it came, including our human body. That is a humbling thought. I don't know about you dear friend, but I THANK GOD with all my soul for the precious blood of Jesus Christ that washed away all my sins. We are all horrible hell-deserving sinners! That includes you and me. But if you put your childlike trust in Jesus Christ because of what He has already done to pay for your sins, you will instantly have eternal life. You can KNOW that you are going to Heaven (1st John 5:13).

Life is short, Hell is hot and eternity is a long time. We've heard a lot in the news lately about the Middle East, concerning the never-ending conflict between the Arabs and the Jews. Something that makes me sad is that BOTH the Arabs and the Jews are 98 % non-Christians. Go check and see online and you can confirm that less than 2 % of Jews and Palestinians profess faith in Jesus, and that includes all the cults. That means at least 98 % of the Jews and Arabs in Palestine are going to Hell forever when they die. That is tragic and sad. What did Jesus say? Luke 13:23-24, "Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them, Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able."

I cannot get saved for you. I cannot force anyone to be saved, nor would I, for God Himself will not force Himself upon anyone. If you go to Heaven someday in the future, it will only be because you willingly of your own freewill chose Jesus Christ as your personal Savior. I received Jesus as my personal Savior at age 13. I have never regretted my decision, but I have been persecuted much since I got saved, because I lived for Christ (2nd Timothy 3:12).

I heard a great truth today preached by Pastor Jack Hyles. The sermon is titled, " [3]Don't Be Afraid To Die .

" Ladies and gentlemen, there is absolutely no reason for the child of God to fear dying. If you are unsaved, then you have much to fear. Hebrews 10:31, "It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God." If you are saved and right with God as His child, then you have nothing to fear when you leave this world.

I heard another great truth today from Pastor Jack Hyles, in a sermon titled: " [4]The Secret To A Happy Old Life .

" I hope you will take the time to hear this wonderful sermon. I love Bible preaching! We all need preaching to help us think right. Dr. Hyles preached this sermon as an old man at age 74, still happy and excited about God's work, right before he graduated to Heaven in 2001. The sermon was almost like a goodbye message. Brother Hyles shares some great wisdom in this sermon. One day when you get old, you will either say:

I'm glad I did, or I wish I had.

" Young people, listen to the fundamentalist Bible preacher!

> "Find what God wants you to do and do it!" —Pastor Jack Hyles, '[5]The Secret To A Happy Old Life'
> "Don't you ever let your guard down!" —Pastor Jack Hyles, '[6]When You Have To Stand Alone In The Midst Of Them That Stand Alone'

I cannot encourage you enough to listen to Bible preaching daily. I'm not talking about all the neo-evangelical garbage today that you'll hear on the radio. [7]I'm talking about Pastor Jack Hyles! Brother Hyles asked his secretary for a list of all his recent appointments for the previous few months. Pastor Hyles found that of 140 counseling appointments with members of his church, 135 of them could have been avoided if people would simply listen to his sermons. That was a startling realization. I often think of this fact which Brother Hyles shared with us, and it compels me to listen to lots of Bible preaching.

Now, you won't be edified in the Lord if you listen to neo-evangelical preachers who are dry, dull, spiritually dead and shallow. We all need fundamentalist Bible preaching from soulwinning preachers! I'm talking about inspired King James Bible only preaching!!! Most of the bad things we do in life are not bad things in themselves, but we do them at the wrong time. God has a proper timing for everything.

Our children are growing up too quickly today. We need to let kids get back to being kids. No grade school girl should be wearing high heels, makeup and a wig. No teenage boy should be married. The Devil wants to turn everything upside down. He wants to make everything backwards. He wants to pervert and confuse youth today. I heard another great sermon today by Dr. Jack Hyles titled, " [8]Tarry In Jericho Until Your Beards Be Grown .

I am 57 years old. I am now entering the last phase of my life on earth. If I live to be 70 years old, I have almost 13 years remaining. If I live to Dr. Hyles' age when he went to Heaven, I have almost 17 years remaining. Life is short! The $64,000 question is: Are you ready to meet your Maker? I am dear friend, and [9]I hope you are too.

Heaven is a wonderful place,
filled with glory and grace;
I want to see my Savior’s face,
Heaven is a wonderful place.

Nathan Qi (2024-05-22 19:24:17)
Preach it, Brother. I have been following your website (jesus-is-savior.com) for many years (since I was a young teenager). Your website and blog have been a BLESSING to me and I am glad to constantly receive encouragement in the faith. And honestly, the biggest thing we can have is JESUS CHRIST. I am less than half your age (26 years old as of date) but honestly, I am looking forward to going home with my Savior. But as long as I live, will keep winning souls for him and preaching HIS TRUTH. I am not afraid to go because I KNOW that I will be going to Heaven. And why? The Lord Jesus Christ SHED HIS BLOOD FOR ME on the Cross. THIS is the biggest gift in the world. The BIGGEST TREASURE that ever existed. Honestly, I can think of NO BIGGER GIFT than this. Writing this as I am feeling rather weak and sick (fatigued) and honestly, I thank the LORD for HIS GIFT. I will keep winning souls for Him as long as live on EARTH. Praise the Lord for great men like YOU, Brother!

5.5.4 God Knows Everything We Think, Say And Do (2024-05-15 09:15)

Psalms 139:1-6, “O LORD, thou hast searched me, and known me.

Thou knowest my downsitting and mine uprising, thou understandest my thought afar off.

Thou compassest my path and my lying down, and art acquainted with all my ways.

For there is not a word in my tongue, but, lo, O LORD, thou knowest it altogether.

Thou hast beset me behind and before, and laid thine hand upon me. Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is high, I cannot attain unto it.”

I cherish and think often about this passage of Scripture.

I woke up today and as I do daily, thanked God for another day of life. I sat up and through about Psalms 139:2, “

Thou knowest my downsitting and mine uprising, thou understandest my thought afar off.

” I love that Scripture passage, because it continually comforts me that God sees my suffering and loneliness.

I suffer with constant neck pain and burning nerves. It is medically called Peripheral Neuropathy and Cervical Osteoarthritis. I have Cervical Degenerative Disk Disease from getting severely rear-ended by a church bus in 1992 (which permanently misaligned my neck), and then sustained a steep fall at work in 2004 (which worsened my condition and caused radiating pain down my arms and legs). I’ve already exhausted all convention treatments (physical therapy, EMG test, CT scans, MRI’s, three steroid injections, trigger-point injections, multiple chiropractors, four dozen different medications), and I underwent two major neck surgeries in 2009 and 2010, all of which have failed to alleviate my suffering. Consequently, I don’t have a social life. I need to stay home where I am safe. I get frustrated, irritated and wear out physically easily, due to the relentless pain in my neck (which is right next to my head). The constant pain and neck stiffness is debilitating, draining my batteries (so to speak).

My faith in God sustains me. Knowing that I have God's promise of a new immortal body (1st Corinthians 15:51-58), and a body fashioned like unto Jesus' resurrected perfect body (Philippians 3:31), greatly encourages me day by day in my present suffering. Romans 8:18, " For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us. " I heard a Christian lady once say: Our future is so bright as Christians that we need to wear sunglasses. I like that! She is right.

Dear reader, the Lord watches everything you think, say and do. We are being monitored continually by God. Nothing escapes His eyes. Hebrews 4:13, " Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do." I am far from perfect as a human being. I oftentimes wish I could live my life over and undo some of the foolish decisions that I made in the past. Unfortunately I cannot. But even if I could go back in a time-machine and undo those bad decisions, I still would have made other bad decisions, sinful choices that caused pain and heartache. The Bible declares Ecclesiastes 7:20, "

For there is not a just man upon earth, that doeth good, and sinneth not.

I have little patience with hypocrites who desire to condemn others for their past sins. Religious people are the worst! A well-meaning Christian man wrote me today, asking for my help to write a book exposing a pastor who committed a bunch of sins at a church over 40 years ago. I won't do it. No way!

Proverbs 10:12, " Hatred stirreth up strifes: but love covereth all sins." If a man wants to be a manure-spreader and go around digging up dirt to destroy his neighbour, then he'll do it alone without my help, because I fear God.

Proverbs 11:9, " An hypocrite with his mouth destroyeth his neighbour: but through knowledge shall the just be delivered."

God sees everything that we think (Proverbs 24:12), say (Matthew 12:36) and do (Ecclesiastes 12:14). God will hold us accountable for all those things (Romans 14:10-12). You are a horrible sinner friend, and so am I. There's nothing more disgusting than meeting someone who thinks they are better than others. You can identify such a wicked person quickly when they start talking trash about another human being. What they ought to be saying is: There but for the grace of God, go I. We live the Christian life the same way that we got saved, by God's undeserving grace. No one has the power in their own strength to live the Christian life. No one! Jesus lives the Christian life through us (Galatians 2:20).

All my life as a Christian I have been condemned by wicked sinners. The Bible says in 2nd Timothy 3:3b that wicked sinners are " despisers of those that are good.

" If you are a Christian, the whole world is waiting for you to fall. I am not a perfect man, far from it, but I was never ashamed of Jesus in the workplace. I let it be known that I am a Christian. I refused to go with co-workers to the strip clubs in Chicago. I didn't want to hear their filthy jokes. I didn't drink alcohol or smoke cigarettes like many of them did. I didn't listen to their rock music when I worked as a mechanic. I was always different, not better than them, and they hated me for it. In their sinful eyes I was good,

and they despised me for it, just as the Bible teaches.

The adage is true: You may be the only Jesus that someone knows. Pastor Dwight L. Moody (1837-1899) wisely said:

“Out of 100 men, one will read the Bible, the other 99 will read the Christian.” That is so true! What do people see when they read you? I have not always been a shining example of what a Christian should be. In fact, I shamed the Lord sometimes. Like I said, I wish I could go back and relive my life, but I cannot. But even if I could, I would have made different mistakes, sins and failures. The tongue cannot be tamed the Bible says (James 3:7-8). The only safe way to avoid saying something we shouldn’t say is to keep quiet most of the time. Let’s face it, most of us talk too much. I know I do.

Proverbs 10:19, “ In the multitude of words there wanteth not sin: but he that refraineth his lips is wise.”

Our great God sees us 168 hours a week. He watches over us 10,080 minutes a week. Our human heart beats 100,000 times a day. In a lifetime of 70 years, our human heart will beat an astonishing 2,555,000,000 times! Wow! God is more than amazing!!! Reputation is what others know about us; Character is what God knows about us.

5.5.5 I Want To Leave This Horrible World (2024-05-20 13:55)

John 16:22, “And ye now therefore have sorrow: but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no man taketh from you.”

I love this Bible verse dearly. During the dark times in my life when I was being persecuted at my various jobs by some wicked men, I clung to the inspired Scriptures. Jesus' precious promise in John 16:22 gave me the courage and hope to keep going and hang in there. I fully know what it's like to work in a hostile work environment as a Christian man. I don't hate those sinful men for what they did to persecute me, but I do want them to answer to God (and they will, just as we all will according to Romans 14:10-12).

I've never seen such rottenness in people as I have in recent years. A few months ago I simply kindly waved at a black woman walking down the street in my neighborhood. She cussed me out at the top of her lungs. I don't even know who she is. Yesterday I gave into temptation and went to McDonald's, the first time in six months. Someone laid on their horn just to be mean, bulling me to move. However, I hadn't blocked anyone. I drove forward as soon as the car in front of me moved forward, but the person laid on the horn anyway. People can be so rotten and mean. I am often reminded of something true that Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold said, "Sometimes all you have to do to be hated by someone is to show up." He is so right.

I thank God for my website ministry. Since 2002 it has been the silver lining of my trainwreck of a life filled with problems, heartaches and losses. God is always good and I don't blame Him for anything. Humans are sinners and they do sinful things. It's not God's fault for the people who hurt each other. So, I don't blame the Lord. Many people get angry and blame God for their woes. Why is God to blame for the wickedness of mankind? God didn't create this mess one earth, we did as humans. Blessed be the name of the good Lord.

I am at the place nowadays that I don't even want to go out my front door anymore, because of how terrible people have become in the United States.

I am so disgusted with pastors, and I know most of you are too. Pastors today are mere overpaid employees. Our nation's first U.S. President refused to take a salary. President Donald Trump refused to take a salary. Yet, show me the preacher who won't take a salary. By God's grace, I have invested over 50,000 hours of intense labor into my website ministry, but have never taken a single penny from anyone. I do it for my blessed Savior, Jesus! I am so sick of professed Christians with their PayPal donation links on YouTube and websites. If they weren't making money, they'd disappear overnight! They only care about getting donations. Sadly, 95 % of them are theologically toxic, incompetent and dangerous.

A few months ago a black man panhandled for money as I entered into a local grocery store. I kindly told him to wait a moment, went back to my car to grab a Gospel of John, and I put about $40 in his hand in spare change that I had saved. I expected him to be grateful and thank me, but instead he asked for more money. I was disgusted that he was an ingrate. That is the way heathens behave. There's an important truth in Romans 1:21, " Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened." One of the hallmark characteristics of a Christ-rejecter is a spirit of ingratitude toward God and man.

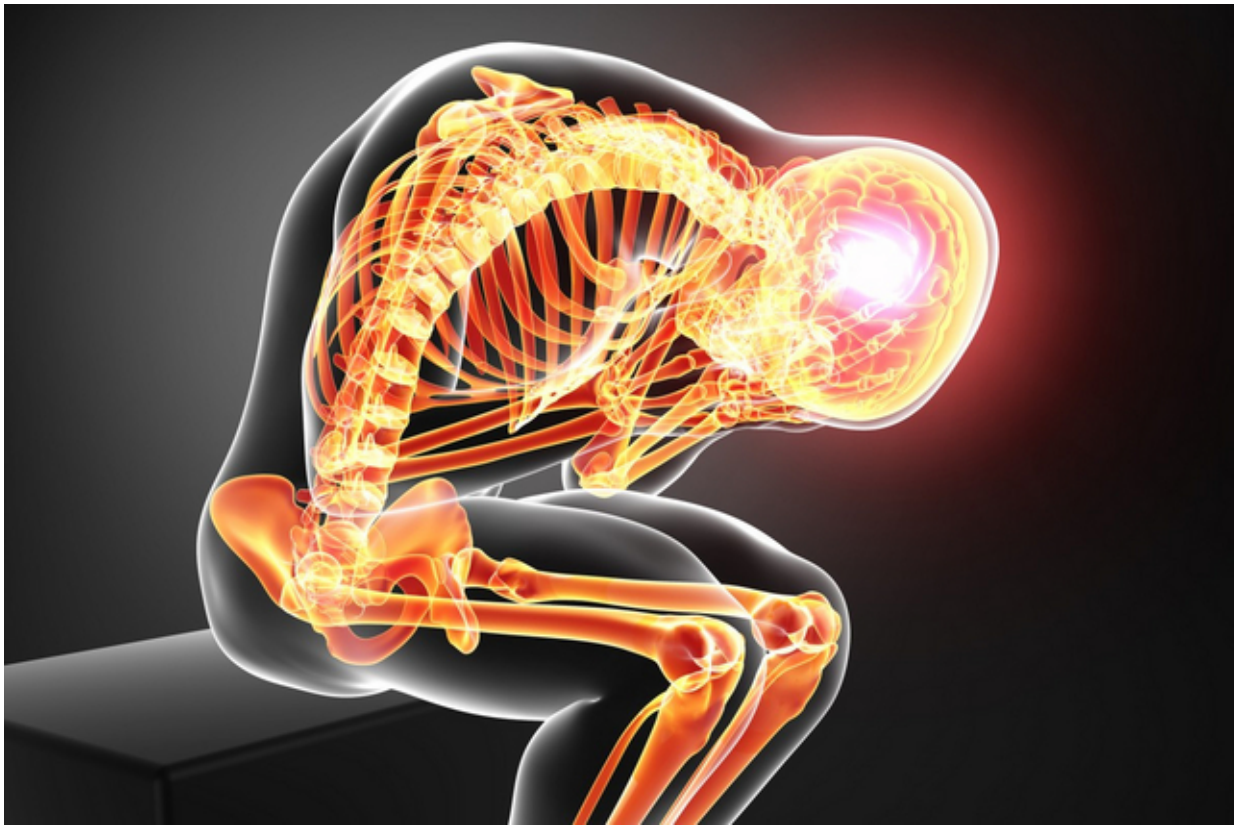
Get A Job!

I am reminded of the ten lepers who came to Jesus in Luke 17:12, and He healed them all of their horrific disease. Only one man bothered to return to thank Jesus! Wow. That's blows my mind. What ingrates those nine men were! Yet, we see this same level of ingratitude among so many Americans today, who spit in God's face, demanding their "rights" to commit the evils of abortion, homosexuality, rob others of their wealth and homes, walk around in public butt naked, and all manner of depravity.

There is a campaign to silence Christians today who take a stand against evil. Ungodly YouTube [2]removed this sermon excerpt from my YouTube channel. Big tech companies are censoring THE TRUTH. Sodomites, kooks, quacks and weirdos can promote all manner of wickedness and filth, but if a redeemed child of God takes a stand against the sin, perversion and abnormality of homosexuality, they are [3]banned on social media.



You can censor the truth, but you cannot destroy it. I look forward to being there in eternity when God judges the wicked, when the Lord holds heathens accountable for censoring Christians who were simply telling THE TRUTH. I want to leave this horrible world, but for now God needs me here to [4]preach the Gospel to the lost. Job:20:5, "

That the triumphing of the wicked is short, and the joy of the hypocrite but for a moment?

You cannot even talk to people anymore without somehow offending them. Somehow you will become the target of their gossip and slander.

I suffer in constant agonizing chronic neck pain. I've had this relentless pain for 20 years since 2004. The pain is always accompanied by aggravating stiffness in my neck. It is a constant burden, a monkey on my back, a raincloud hanging over my head everywhere I go. I underwent two major neck surgeries in 2009 and 2010, which didn't alleviate my pain at all. Suffering in constant pain makes everything more difficult for me on a daily basis. Unfortunately, people don't cut me any slack. I can tell people until I'm blue in the face that my neck pain adversely affects me, but they don't understand or care.

Therefore, I need to take precautions to avoid conflicts with people. I only attend church half of the time. Since I get irritated easily due to my pain, I need to stay home and avoid people when my pain feels overwhelming. I have actually had horrible church members berate me for missing church, putting me down. One jerk actually quoted to me Hebrews 10:25b, "Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is..." That was a very horrible thing that he said, trying to bully me to come to church in my pain.

In truth, he is a darn fool who lacks understanding and compassion for others. I cannot tell you how many times I have wanted to quit church and never go back again, because of the ungodly self-righteous attitude of 90 % of professed Christians. Listen to me, you have no right to bully someone for missing church. You have no right to scold, berate or make someone feel ashamed for missing church on a regular basis. You don't know their situation. What saith the Scripture?

> 2nd Corinthians 10:12, "
>
> For we dare not make ourselves of the number, or compare ourselves with some that commend themselves: but they measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves among themselves, are not wise.

It's bad enough that I suffer in constant physical pain, but having to deal with people is too much for me. I just need to stay home as much as I can, where I am safe. People equal pain. As a child of God I love people. I have no ill will toward anyone, although there are some pastors I would like to see put into prison for a very long time for hurting people. This world is getting worse every day. John 16:22, "And ye now therefore have sorrow: but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no man taketh from you." In this world we can only know sorrow.

Isaiah 53:3, "

He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief: and we hid as it were our faces from him; he was despised, and we esteemed him not.

" Every child of God (unless they are a selfish abusive pastor like Jeff Redlin or Marty Herron) is acquainted with sorrow and grief.

I have been hurt by people my entire life. I have had co-workers spit on me, throw hammers at me, lie about me, steal my uniforms, physically assault me, slam doors in my face, et cetera. Humans can be rotten! What helps me is to throw the cross into it. Pastor Jack Hyles preached a helpful sermon using that very title, "

[5]Throw The Cross Into It.

" I long to go home to be with my blessed Savior, and someday soon I will.

I am now 57 years old, so I am entering into the last part of my earthly life. My Mom went to Heaven at age 65, my Dad at 75. So, I might have 20 years left, at most. This horrible world is nothing but misery, loneliness and pain for me; but knowing the indwelling Holy Spirit is my constant encouragement. God is my friend and Savior. The promises of His inspired Word in the King James Bible burns in my heart and keeps me going each day.

Being a Christian doesn't make life any easier, but it makes it better, since Jesus promised in Hebrews 13:5 to never leave nor forsake us. What a great Savior!!!

Even so, come, Lord Jesus!

Many "pastors" are pope wannabes. Churches claim to believe in the priesthood of ALL believers, but practice the priesthood of one believer - the pastor.

Thank you, Brother David! Your posts are always a blessing to read, my friend. God bless you and I will keep you in my prayers. Even as a young man, I often feel the same way; the world is getting worse. I pray for the Rapture every day.

5.5.6 Some Of The Smartest People Are Fools (2024-05-22 09:09)

According to [1]Wikipedia, Marvin Lee Minsky (August 9, 1927 – January 24, 2016) was an American cognitive and computer scientist concerned largely with research of artificial intelligence (AI). He co-founded the Massachusetts Institute of Technology's AI laboratory and wrote several texts concerning AI and philosophy.

Tragically, it is tragic that Minsky was an avowed atheist who rejected Jesus Christ as his personal Savior. Biblically, that means he went to Hell forever in 2016 when he died. Strangely enough, I just read on Wikipedia that Minsky was [2]a member of the pseudo life-extension company, Alcor, who freeze corpses upside down in liquid nitrogen, hoping one day to have eternal life as technology advances.

However, as compelling of an idea that it may be, we know from the inspired Holy Bible that this will never happen, at least not with Alcor's insane methods. The only true way to have eternal life is by God's grace through faith in Jesus Christ. John 3:16, " For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. "

Minsky was a so-called genius, and yet he was a big fool, dying in his sins without Christ...

> 1st Corinthians 1:19-21, "For it is written, I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent. Where is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world? For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe.""

It is tragic that some of the world's best and brightest minds (Steve Jobs, Stephen Hawking, Thomas Edison and Marvin Minsky, to name just a few, were all Christ rejecters). Jesus warned everyone in John 3:3, "Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God."

Praise the Lord, Brother! It is sad that some of the biggest geniuses in history are/were fools since they reject GOD and HIS FREE GIFT of salvation. The honest truth is that the biggest thing is really JESUS. When we have JESUS, we have THE BIGGEST THING. We are SONS of the Creator of the word and WE ARE SAVED. Honestly, I can find NO BIGGER THING than this. Praise the Lord for SALVATION.

5.5.7 The Righteous Lord Loveth Righteousness (2024-05-23 17:36)

Psalms 11:5-7, "The LORD trieth the righteous: but the wicked and him that loveth violence his soul hateth. Upon the wicked he shall rain snares, fire and brimstone, and an horrible tempest: this shall be the portion of their cup. For the righteous LORD loveth righteousness; his countenance doth behold the upright."

I cherish Psalms 11:7 and have often thought about this verse since I first read it several years ago. Our dear risen Savior is a righteous God, and He loves righteousness!!!

The word "righteous" here comes from the Hebrew word tsedadqah which means,

"rightness (abstractly), subjectively (rectitude), objectively (justice), morally (virtue) or figuratively (prosperity)." God loves to do the right thing, and He loves when we do the right thing!

There is a popular false teaching in most New IFB (independent fundamental Baptist) churches today, which says that God hates unrepentant sinners. We know this cannot be true because of what Jesus said in Matthew 5:46, "

For if ye love them which love you, what reward have ye? do not even the publicans the same?

" If we only selectively love certain people, but hate others, then we are guilty of becoming a respecter of persons. That is the woeful sin of Pensacola Christian College (PCC), selectively caring about people. That is why they have banned me from attending their Campus Church, even though I live in the city of Pensacola and pleaded in 2022 to come back to their church, but they shunned me away instead. That is false Christianity. They do not love righteousness at PCC. They love religion, education, socialization and lots of money. No one is right with God who shuns people from attending a church. I speak that to their utter shame!

Our great Savior is not a respecter of persons (Romans 2:11), and neither ought we be (James 2:1). When the Bible says that God hates the wicked, it means He hates what they have become (their Avatar if you will...lol). I hate Jeff Redlin's arrogant Richie Rich heathen attitude as the incompetent senior pastor of Campus Church at PCC. [1]I hate the PCC cult culture and their snobby pride, misplaced egos and petty prejudices. God knows that I do not hate the people themselves at PCC. Quite the contrary, I love them very much, a concept that is foreign to them.

In Revelation 3:15-17 Jesus practically gives the address of PCC at 250 Brent Lane in Pensacola. I hate what they have become, wicked and selfish, only thinking about themselves and their cult.

The inspired Holy Bible is very clear in 1st Corinthians 13:1-7 that even if a religious leader has enough faith to move mountains, it means absolutely nothing without love for people. There is a woeful lack of love for people at PCC. I am fully convinced that God is utterly disgusted with 99 % of churches today!

I don't know about you, but I want God's face toward me. That is, I want to please the Lord by doing the right thing. It feels good to do what is right, knowing that the righteous Lord loveth righteousness. God hides His face from those who do evil. Genesis 33:10, "And Jacob said, Nay, I pray thee, if now I have found grace in thy sight, then receive my present at my hand: for therefore I have seen thy face, as though I had seen the face of God, and thou wast pleased with me." When God is pleased with His children, He turns His face toward us in approval.

But if we hurt others and commit wickedness, then the Lord's face will be against us, which is why David prayed in Psalms 102:2,

Hide not thy face from me in the day when I am in trouble; incline thine ear unto me: in the day when I call answer me speedily.

" David had sinned horribly when he commit adultery with Bathsheba and murdered her husband, Uriah the Hittite. I don't know about you friend, but I want God's face toward me. The righteous Lord loveth righteousness, but He hates evil.

COUNTRY PREACHERS BUILT THIS NATION. MOST OF THEM HAD NEVER SEEN THE INSIDE OF A SEMINARY, BUT THEY HAD SEEN THE INSIDE OF A BIBLE.

5.6.1 God Doesn't Believe In You (2024-06-05 22:33)

Psalms 7:11, "God judgeth the righteous, and God is angry with the wicked every day."

John 3:36, “He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him.”

I was watching a 1999 religious film called, “Revelation.” It’s a great film which I enjoy watching each year, starring one of my favorite actors, Jeff Fahey. In the film Fahey is cast as an unsaved atheist who tells a Christian woman that he doesn’t believe in God. She caringly replies that God believes in him. Although that is clever play on words and sounds cute, it is totally unbiblical.

Dear reader, if you are an atheist I need to warn you that God’s wrath rests upon your head. You are a marked sinner! Psalms 7:11, “God judgeth the righteous, and God is angry with the wicked every day.” Satan wants to take you to the Lake of Fire forever with him (Revelation 14:11; 20:6). Only a darn fool denies the existence of God in lieu of an abundance of evidence in nature and the universe (Psalms 19:1).

We read in Romans 10:17 , “ So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God. ” If you struggle to believe in God, then I encourage you to saturate your mind and soul with the inspired Holy Bible. As we just learned, faith comes by hearing the Word of God. The Bible is not just another book written by man, it was authored by God. The Lord dictated His Words to sinful men whom he made holy. The Bible was penned by approximately 40 different sinful men. All humans are sinful (Romans 3:10-23). That is why we cannot labor to save ourselves, we need a Savior, Jesus Christ the righteous.

Dear friend, God does not believe in atheists, He simply honors their choice to go to Hell when they die. What saith the Scripture? 2nd Timothy 2:13, “ If we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself. ” No one will be able to blame God in eternity if they go to Hell (Romans 1:20). The Lord is faithful (1st Corinthians 1:9). 1st Corinthians 1:9, “ God is faithful, by whom ye were called unto the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord.” The problem with the world is not that God has stopped loving humanity, but that mankind has never started loving God. 1st Corinthians 16:22, “

If any man love not the Lord Jesus Christ, let him be Anathema Maranatha.

God the Father doesn’t believe in the atheist, He is angry with all who reject Jesus, His only begotten Son. The Bible commands all sinners to repent toward God of their unbelief, and instead place one’s childlike trust in the blessed dear Savior, who paid the price for our sins with His shed blood. The clock is ticking down. Time is running out for all Christ rejecters. Once a person dies, their eternal fate has been forever sealed and is unchangeable. Everyone either dies in the Lord (Revelation 14:13), or they die in their sins (John 8:24). Please don’t die in your sins, today could be the last day of your life.

Just a couple months ago a 43 year old man in Pensacola where I live was killed[1]3 year old man in Pensacola where I live was killed in a tragic car accident. I read a couple weeks ago about a another man in Pensacola, who was killed when he pulled out with his vehicle in front of a speeding dump truck. Life is short, Hell is hot and eternity is a long time. Proverbs 27:1 warns that there is no guarantee of tomorrow. Today could be your last day alive on earth!

Are you ready to meet your Maker? I am, by God’s grace. [2]Make sure you’ve been born again (John 3:1-7).

5.6.2 Thank You For Reading My Blog (2024-06-05 23:43)

Philippians 2:20, "For I have no man likeminded, who will naturally care for your state."

I apologize that I haven't been writing as much lately, I'm just overwhelmed with everything due to my chronic neck pain, burning nerves and health afflictions. I just need a break. I've been faithfully working day and night on my website ministry for 22 years since 2002. I've never made a penny and don't accept any money, although many people have generously asked if they could give me money to show their love for me. THANK YOU, but I never accept money. I pride myself (in a good way) to serve God freely, without any compensation on earth. My rewards are laid up in Heaven, where thieves cannot steal (Matthew 6:19-20).

A few weeks ago a thief came onto my front porch and stole a package that was delivered by Amazon.com. I hate thieves! They are lowlife humans, robbing other men's labors, taking away the life thereof. Proverbs 1:19, "

So are the ways of every one that is greedy of gain; which taketh away the life of the owners thereof.

" When a criminal steals from you, he or she is taking away your time that you spent laboring for that possession. Literally, in God's sight when you steal from someone you are murdering them. Sadly, the police these days don't do anything to catch the thieves, because they know it is a waste of time due to the soft on crime policies in the corrupt courts. I heard yesterday that Walgreens and CVS are closing their stores in New York City (NYC) due to out of control shoplifting. Walgreens alone lost $200,000 to theft in just two months in NYC. So far this year there have been 21,000 calls to the police in NYC to report shoplifting crimes. Our nation is worse than Sodom today!!!

I have no intentions of quitting my ministry, but I am very tired and need a break from everything. I don't know how long. I live alone without a wife, which is depressing for me. For the past 18 years my life has felt worse than death due to utter loneliness living all alone. It doesn't help when ungodly selfish incompetent pastors like Marty Herron, Gary Walton and Jeff Redlin refused to allow me to attend their churches. That just shows how phony, far from God and hateful they really are, not having God's love shed abroad in their hearts. God will judge those wicked self-righteous Pharisees. I judge no one, I am the biggest sinner I know.

I appreciate everyone's patience. Some months I write dozens of articles, but other months I might only write one article. I have eight websites, and eight blogs, praise God. God knows that I am doing the best I can. For several years now I have neglected my music. I haven't hardly played my dozens of musical instruments, due to depression from physical pain and loneliness of life living alone. Some people enjoy being alone, but I hate it. I've searched for a wife far and near, but haven't found anyone who is interested, single or not a fat slob or nutcase. I'd rather stay single than marry the Devil's daughter! Pastor Danny Castle is right, who said: The only thing worse than not being married, is being married and not wanting to be married. Amen! It's better to wait long than marry wrong. If the Lord sees fit to bless me with a companion as a wife, He will do so. If not, blessed be the precious name of my Lord Jesus. God is so good to all of us! Psalms 145:9, " The LORD is good to all: and his tender mercies are over all his works."

I've been [1]spending some time with my musical instruments, relaxing and catching up on some ministry work that needs to be done behind the scenes. I love the 5-string banjo. Dave Hum (1966-2012) is one of my musical heroes! He died of Myeloma cancer in 2012 at only age 46 in Salisbury, England, where he lived. I am learning the same songs that Dave Hum played, the way he played them, which is beautiful music from the heart. If I don't slow down and take some time for myself to invest in my music, I will burn out and quit my ministry. So, it is important that I take some quality time to do something human, something good and honest, like picking folk music on my banjo.

I've been having fun making backing tracks to play along with and freely share with others. It is difficult for me to get things done due to my relentless agonizing neck pain, burning nerves, insomnia at night due to the burning pain, tingling, numbness, et cetera. I cannot work on my ministry all the time and never have a life. No doctor will prescribe more than the absolute lowest amount (called "BID," which stands for "Basic Initial Dosage"). That's 40 mg of OxyContin per day, which is only half of what I need. My doctor couldn't care less because she is afraid of Big Brother. I've tried to find a better doctor, but haven't. I look forward to receiving my new resurrected immortal body without any pain, burning nerves and fatigue (Philippians 3:21; 1st Corinthians 15:51-58).

I have over 13,000 webpages on my eight ministry websites. I praise and thank God for working through a broken sinner like me all these many years to help others for Christ. Eventually, all my 13,000 webpages will need to be updated to be Mobile Friendly for mobile devices. I've completed about 2,500 pages so far, but it will take me a couple years at least to finish the rest, which I will likely never get done. By God's grace I am trying.

I also receive hundreds of ministry emails on a regularly basis, and hundreds of Facebook messages, et cetera. Also, a lot of people have personal, marital and family problems and they request for my help. I need to give them priority. I sometimes spend hours replying to just one email. One thing that all my web visitors know is that I am one of few preachers who takes the time to email back, sometimes book length emails to pour out my heart to help them. I love helping others for Christ. That is why I am here by God's grace, to be a servant. Jesus said he that is greatest among you shall be your SERVANT.

They are bullies over at Pensacola Christian College (PCC), not humble servants. That is why they have banned me in writing since August 2, 2022 from attending Campus Church, because they throw people under the bus whom they are bigoted against. I have read countless horror stories from their alumnus, who all share the common complaint that PCC is a strict cult of authoritarian rules without love or compassion for individual people. I am living proof of that sad fact. All Pastor Jeff Redlin (their senior pastor at Campus Church) cares about is his sickening 6-digit annual salary. PCC is a financial whorehouse of ungodly religious Pharisees (Romans 16:17-18).

I love you all with Christ's love. Please be patient with me. Even preachers burn out. I have invested over 50,000 hours since 2002 into my website ministry. 50,000 hours (divided by 22 years, divided by 365 days, divided by 24 hours in a day) averages out to only 43 hours spent per week labouring. God knows I have work seven days and nights a week for 22 years, often laboring 80 hours a week. On at least three occasions I worked for 37 hours straight, because I couldn't sleep. I just took short breaks to eat and stretch my legs. I do this work because I love Jesus, truth and people.

What did David say when his older brothers scolded him for going to fight the giant, Goliath? 1st Samuel 17:29, "And David said, What have I now done? Is there not a cause?" Yes, David, there is a cause!!! There is still a cause today. The churches have been flooded with counterfeit Bible versions, which pervert the Words of the Living God. The fraud of Zionism has crept into most churches, leading the churches to support the sinister New World order. The Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation has crept into most Baptist churches, turning them into Satanic cults instead of soulwinning New Testament churches. No one can be saved if the Gospel is not presented accurately. Adding turning from one's sinful ways to faith is another gospel which cannot produce the new birth in Christ (Galatians 1:6-9; 2nd Corinthians 11:3-4).

By God's grace I am not going anywhere. I will likely be alone for the rest of my life without a wife, lonely and struggling to cope without an adequate level of prescription pain medications, and battling depression because of my chronic pain and loneliness, but God is faithful (1st Corinthians 1:9). The Lord promises in Hebrews 13:5 to NEVER leave nor forsake us, no not ever. The indwelling Holy Spirit sealed us the moment we were saved (Ephesians 1:13-14).

THANK YOU dear reader for your patience and understanding. I'd appreciate your earnest prayers for my health, family and ministry. God bless you all. Jesus is precious!!!

Jeremiah 10:21, “

For the pastors are become brutish, and have not sought the LORD: therefore they shall not prosper, and all their flocks shall be scattered.

Jeremiah 12:10, “

Many pastors have destroyed my vineyard, they have trodden my portion under foot, they have made my pleasant portion a desolate wilderness.

I have seen a sore evil in my lifetime of people idolizing their pastor, and in some cases even worshipping him as if God on earth. The Catholic Pope is said to speak “Ex Cathedra” (in the place of God). I hope you’re not that gullible friend to believe that lie. I say the Pope is a dope and he has no hope! The Pope is an unsaved false prophet—a fake, a cheap imitation of a clergy member, a sinister minister—a hellbound child of the Devil. What did Jesus say? Mark 7:9, “And he said unto them, Full well ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition.” The Roman and Orthodox Catholic churches are steeped in manmade traditions, which they elevate over the inspired Word of God.

Your pastor being Your Idol.

is what occurs when congregants idolize their pastor as being more than a leader, allowing him to control and manipulate their decisions. In some cases they elevate their own pastor over Jesus Christ, which is how cults exist. When a man or group of men usurp authority over God’s inspired Words, you have a religious cult like [1]Pensacola Christian College (PCC).

You may be unknowingly worshipping your pastor if:

1. Obeying your pastor’s teachings instead of God’s inspired Word.
2. Defending your pastor when he preaches false doctrine.
3. Allowing your pastor to interfere with your marriage, when the wife esteems her pastor’s words more important than her own husband’s words. It is a sin for any wife to obey her pastor instead of her own husband. Your pastor has zero authority in your life! The Holy Bible should be the church’s authority.
4. Sowing seed money to a pastor on the pulpit while he is preaching.
5. Giving compulsory money to your pastor who is living large instead of giving to the poor.
6. Telling others how extremely anointed your pastor is, and how you should always be doing more for him instead of Christ.
7. Testify and boasting about the goodness of your pastor instead of God. (e.g., you were allegedly healed by him, or you received a financial breakthrough from him through the laying of his hands).
8. Standing when a preacher enters a room as his bodyguard pushes people out of the way, so the pastor can walk. Christ said for him to be a humble servant. Christ himself said He came to serve.
9. Putting on a show to please your pastor to seek his glory or approval.

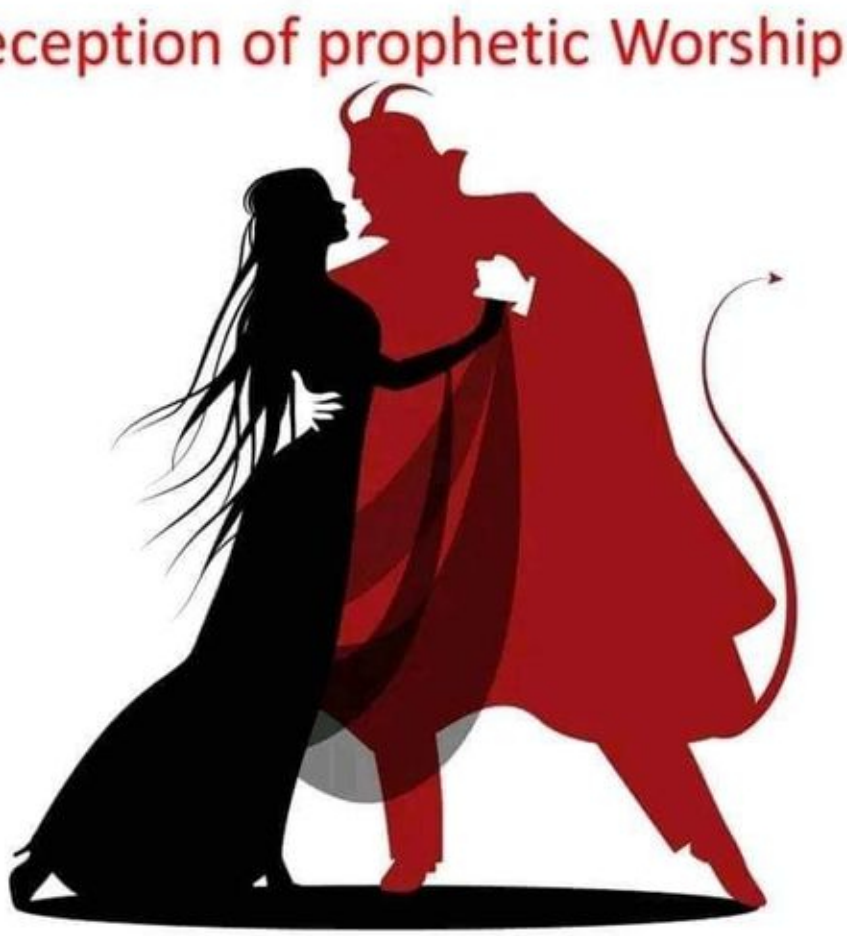
10. Being told you are not a good Christian unless you travel with your leader when he preaches, or you must give him extra money, cook for his family, clean his house and take care of all his personal needs. A pastor should work and be a good steward of his own salary (just like you and me). If we cannot afford life's luxuries, we must go without. Asking a church congregation to purchase expensive things, mansions, luxuries, cars, et cetera for the pastor is greed. The Bible says that every man should work and provide for his own family.

11. There are many people who naively put their pastor first place in their lives, errantly thinking doing so will bring them benefits such as healing, financial breakthrough, or a prophetic word to secure a career promotion or position.

12. Glorifying your pastor instead of Jesus Christ.

13. Kissing your minister's hand's or the Pope's feet.

14. Believing everything your pastor says without searching the Scriptures to verify if what he preaches is true or false.



Freedom comes from Jesus Christ, not your pastor, and the decision to be free comes from reading the inspired words of God and knowing the dear Savior for yourself!

In the 1970's, the [2]Forest Hills Baptist Church in Decatur, Georgia (when Dr. Curtis Hutson was their pastor) was a thriving, soulwinning, free Gospel church. Sadly, today in 2024 that same church has deteriorated into a Lordship Salvation preaching religious cult. How did this happen? I'll tell you how, the people blindly followed their next pastor, who misled them doctrinally and they went for the bait hook, line and sinker. Now they are caught on the hook, being reeled in by Satan for the fish fry.

> "It is impossible to enslave mentally or socially a Bible-reading people. The principles of the Bible are the groundwork of human freedom." —Horace Greeley (1811-1872)

Beware of man worship! The only power that your pastor should have in your life and family is the power of godly influence. Your pastor has no right to try to control your marriage or life, nor does he have a right to stand between a husband and his wife. It is a wicked evil thing for any religious leader to tread upon someone's sacred marriage. I have seen wicked pastors ruin marriages, helping and encouraging the wife to file for divorce. God will punish those villains!

I firmly believe that a pastor shouldn't live above the lifestyle that the common man lives. I felt sick when I learned that Pastor Steven Furtick and his wife (of the Elevation Church in Charlotte, North Carolina) purchased a personal mansion for $1,600,000. That is ungodly folks!

5.6.4 Donald Trump Will Not Make America “Great” Again (2024-06-09 11:32)

2nd Chronicles 7:14, “If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.”

I like Mr. Trump, but we must understand as born-again Christians that Donald Trump is not a savior for our nation. If re-elected he will likely do many good things for our nation, but the answer has never been in the White House. The answer has always been in the church pulpits of our country. A nation’s spiritual health can be measured by the health of its pulpits.

We must not forget that [1]Donald Trump made some of his billions of dollars from casinos, booze, strip clubs and ungodly things.

With cesspools of neo-evangelical apostasy like Pensacola Christian College (PCC), with their damnable lies of Lordship Salvation and Wrong Repentance, and the horrible way that they mistreat and throw unwanted people under the bus, our nation is in big trouble. The stench of PCC's arrogance and stiffnecked pride reaches unto Heaven's gates, infuriating the good Lord. PCC does a lot of good, but they mostly do good for themselves.

I admire Mr. Trump and welcome him much more than the creepy criminal U.S. President, Joe Biden. But my brain hasn't fallen out yet as have many folks, thinking that Trump will "Make America Great Again." He is a Zionist. God will not bless a wicked nation who blesses wicked Christ-rejecting Jews! Mr. Trump has already made laws prohibiting students in colleges from exposing Zionism, on penalty of being expelled. What ever happened to freedom of speech?

Kindly said, I do not fully trust Mr. Trump. He may be controlled opposition, as said Professor G. Edward Griffin in an Alex Jones interview. I share his concerns. I am concerned he may take our nation into another senseless war, which is the primary method for the Military Industrial Complex to make money. The American people were charged $6,200,000,000,000 just for the illegal Iraqi War. Thieves and criminals have hi-jacked the U.S. government! We all see how Democrats totally undid the $15,000,000,000 border wall that President Trump had built to keep out illegal aliens. President Biden flaunted Mr. Trump's efforts, allowing 10,000,000 illegal aliens to flood into the country, some of which have been identified as known terrorists. Mr. Biden should be tried in an honest court and then hung if found guilty. God will judge and punish them all (Ecclesiastes 5:8; Isaiah 13:11).

I am so sick and tired of all the evil in our country. I just want to go home to be with Jesus (John 14:1-3). Anyway, we should not place all our hopes in Mr. Trump. Whatever good he does will certainly be undone by the next scumbag Democrat who follows him. Jesus warned that a house divided cannot stand. The conflict between Republican and Democrat is destroying our country, and the Luciferian elite who are pulling the puppet strings from behind the scenes fully know it. We are doomed as a nation unless we repent toward God by faith in Christ to be saved, and then turn from our sins as a people.

God will NEVER bless a nation that honors homosexuals marriages, abortion, public nudity wherever there is water, the fraudulent Federal Reserve (which i a massive Ponzi Scheme), corporate greed, the betrayal of the American worker by outsourcing tens of millions of manufacturing jobs overseas, et cetera. God's hand of blessing has departed from the United States, evidenced by seeing things wax worse and worse each year. [2]Shoplifting is so out of control in cities like New York that hundreds of businesses are closing stores permanently. Sadly, only a tyrannical thug police state will contend with this nightmare!

A punk thief stole a package delivered from Amazon.com to my home. He boldly walked on my porch and stole what belonged to me. When I called the police, a creepy looking female cop arrived with gangster tattoos all up and down both arms, making her look ridiculous. There was also a male cop, who insanely told me that I am not a victim, since I explained that Amazon kindly replaced the stolen $30 clothing rack free of charge. Just yesterday, my neighbour across the street knocked on my door. He said thieves stole his motorcycle within the precious 24 hours and was hoping that my video cameras caught the theft. Unfortunately, I didn't install my security cameras to monitor my neighbours houses too, and the cameras have limitations. My camera could only see part of his property, but a big tree was in the way blocking the view, and at night my infrared cannot see 150 feet away. I had nothing to help him. I hate thieves!

I am aware of seven robberies in my neighborhood. There is nothing that the police can do. I even handed the cops a flashdrive, showing them the identity of the thief in the very act of stealing my package, but they said nothing could be done since Amazon replaced the item free of charge. This is another episode of [3]The Outer Limits!!! What the hell is wrong with the United States today? I mean, when you record a dirty thief in the very act of stealing, and his face can clearly be identified, but the police cannot do anything, you know we are living in perilous times of woeful injustice and wickedness (2nd Timothy 3:1-7).

Bible preachers are hated today! I have known people who considered me their friend, until I shared my website ministry with them, and I've never heard from them again. The truth greatly offends people! Taking a biblical stand against sin, false prophets, heresy, corruption and wickedness offends ungodly people. I make no apologies! Proverbs 12:17, " He that speaketh truth sheweth forth righteousness: but a false witness deceit." I have been kicked out of churches and thrown under the bus, banned from returning, because I befriended them with THE TRUTH that the modern Bible revisions are corrupt, that Lordship Salvation is a lie of the Devil, that Bible repentance doesn't mean to turn from your sinful bad habits, that Martin Luther wasn't a born-again Christian because he taught the heresy of Baptismal Regeneration all his life, et cetera. For telling these truths I am hated by pastors and churches who follow those fools.

I'm talking about [4]the hellhole at Pensacola Christian College and there wicked Campus Church .

Truthfully, Mr. Trump will not make America great again, not so long as he sanctions and funds same-sex perversion and LGBTQ transgendered insanity. While U.S. President, Trump called for the global decriminalization of homosexuality. A moral man would not do that! What does Mr. Trump care about what goes on in Zimbabwe and other countries regarding moral laws? In his classic sermon titled, "The Titanic," Brother Lester Roloff (1914-1982) said it best: "America was 'Great' when she was good, and she was good when she had great churches." Having said that, I thank God that at least Mr. Trump is trying, which is a good start.

Having said all that. I support Mr. Trump and humbly believe he will win re-election later in 2024. He is a strong leader, an all-American guy, and I think that Mr. Trump genuinely cares about making our nation a better place to live for U.S. citizens, the way it should be.

5.6.5 Fools Consider Bacteria On Mars "Life," But Not A Baby On Earth (2024-06-10 08:41)

Romans 1:22-23, "Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools, And changed the glory of the uncorruptible God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and fourfooted beasts, and creeping things."

The world has always been a wicked place (1st John 5:19). One of the most hideous of all sins is abortion, which according to the inspired Holy Bible is cold-blooded, first-degree, cruel, premeditated murder. I like what the state of Tennessee has been doing now for several years. By law in Tennessee a doctor is required to let a mother hear the heartbeat of her living baby in the womb, before she can get an abortion. The purpose is to ensure that the mother fully understands that she is killing a living human being. No doubt some mothers have changed their mind about getting an abortion. And may I kindly say, having an abortion doesn't make a woman unpregnant, it just makes her the mother of a dead baby. Abortion is evil.

Some of the smartest people on earth work at NASA, the space agency. According to news from NASA on February 28, 2001, bacterial life once existed on Mars...

> Scientists Find Evidence of Ancient Microbial Life on Mars
> "An international team of researchers has discovered compelling evidence that the magnetite crystals in the martian meteorite ALH84001 are of biological origin." — [1]SOURCE

Yet, ungodly liberals, kooks and selfish Americans (including our incompetent U.S. Supreme Court) wickedly [2]insist that a living human being in the womb is not a person. Go figure! Heathen liberals consider bacteria on Mars " life,

NASA doesn't impress me for supposedly being such smart people. Case in point is their [3]official position that the moon formed by two rocks colliding billons of years ago. Really? Is that the best that NASA can come up with? You've got to be kidding. This is like a new episode of [4]The Outer Limits. Shame on NASA for being atheists.

It is tragic and utter hypocrisy that ungodly liberals, kooks and selfish narcissists think a living baby in the womb is not life. If the child were not alive, then butchers wouldn't need to murder it, robbing a human being of his or her precious life. If someone thinks that bacteria on a distant planet is life, but a child in the womb is not, that individual is a wicked person. Please take a stand with me against the evils of abortion. Every born-again believer should make their voice known, letting the world know that they are a child of God who is against abortion. Nobody has to wonder where I stand as a Christian on the issues. Jesus is precious!!!

5.6.6 ALLAH — The Greatest Deceiver of Them All! (2024-06-11 22:50)

The religious myth of Allah is a cruel hoax which has been perpetuated upon the Muslim world for millenniums.

How can the Prophet Muhammad be a prophet if he has no prophecy? The Quran contains no prophecy at all, whereas the King James Bible contains 31 % prophecy.

The Quran unashamedly calls Muhammad's god the best liar and deceiver of them all!

According to the despicable Quran, God has no son; but the inspired Holy Bible teaches that Jesus is the only begotten Son of God (John 3:16). Islam says that Allah has no son, but the true and living God does have a biological Son, and His name is Jesus.

The Quran describes Allah as the best deceiver there is, a liar who is not above using the same evil and wicked schemes of his opponents.

For example: the Quran calls Allah a makr, in fact the best makr there is:

> But they (the Jews) were deceptive, and Allah was deceptive, for Allah is the best of deceivers (Wamakaroo wamakara Allahu waAllahu khayru al-makireena)! S. 3:54; cf. 8:30

Other texts that identify Allah as a makr include:

> Are they then secure from Allah's deception (makra Allahi)? None deemeth himself secure from Allah's deception (makra Allahi) save folk that perish. S. 7:99

So, they schemed a scheme: and We schemed a scheme (Wamakaroo makran wamakarna makran), while they perceived not. S. 27:50.

The word for deception/ deceiver/ scheme is makr. The lexical sources define the term as:

> Miim-Kaf-Ra = To practice deceit or guile or circumvention, practice evasion or elusion, to plot, to exercise art or craft or cunning, act with policy, practice stratagem.
> makara vb. (1)
> perf. act. 3:54, 3:54, 7:123, 13:42, 14:46, 16:26, 16:45, 27:50, 40:45, 71:22 > impf. act. 6:123, 6:123, 6:124, 8:30, 8:30, 8:30, 10:21, 12:102, 16:127, 27:70, 35:10 > n.vb. 7:99, 7:99, 7:123, 10:21, 10:21, 12:31, 13:33, 13:42, 14:46, 14:46, 14:46, 27:50, 27:50, 27:51, 34:33, 35:10, 35:43, 35:43, 71:22

pcple. act. 3:54, 8:30

LL, V7, p: 256 ([1]Source)

And:

> He practised DECEIT, GUILE, or CIRCUMVENTION, desiring to do another a foul, an abominable, or an evil action, clandestinely or without his knowing whence it proceeded. (Lane's Arabic-English Lexicon; [2]source)

Lest Muslims accuse these lexicons of bias or distortion notice what Muslim scholar Dr. Mahmoud M. Ayoub says when he asks,

> "how the word makr (scheming or plotting), which implies deceitfulness or dishonesty, could be attributed to God." (The Quran and Its Interpreters – The House of Imran [State University of New York Press [SUNY], Albany 1992], Volume II, p. 165; italic emphasis ours)

After listing several Muslim sources he quotes a renowned Muslim expositor named ar-Razi who wrote that,

> "scheming (makr) is actually an act of deception aiming at causing evil. It is not possible to attribute deception to God. Thus the word is one of the muttashabihat [multivalent words of the Quran]." (Ibid., p. 166; italic emphasis ours)

Unfortunately for ar-Razi, the Quran attributes deception to Allah since it identifies him as the best makr there is.

Ayoub also sources one Muslim who actually boasted of Allah being the best conniver/deceiver/schemer et cetera.

> "Qurtubi observes that some scholars have considered the words 'best of schemers' to be one of God's beautiful names. Thus one would pray, 'O Best of Schemers, scheme for me!' Qurtubi also reports that the Prophet used to pray, 'O God, scheme for me, and do not scheme against me!' (Qurtubi, IV, pp. 98-99; cf. Zamakhshari, I, p. 366)." (Ibid., p. 166)

And here, also, is how one of the earliest sources on the life of Muhammad interpreted Q. 8:30:

> Then he reminds the apostle of His favour towards him when the people plotted against him 'to kill him, or to wound him, or to drive him out; and they plotted and God plotted, and is the best of plotters.' i.e. I DECEIVED them with My firm GUILE so that I delivered you from them. (The Life of Muhammad: A Translation of Ibn Ishaq's Sirat Rasul Allah, with introduction and notes by Alfred Guillaume [Oxford University Press, Karachi, Tenth impression 1995], p. 323; capital emphasis ours)

Thus, the Quran unashamedly calls Muhammad's god the best liar and deceiver of them all! I love Muslim people; which is why I must expose Islam as a fraud and Muhammad as a liar. John 8:44 calls Satan the father of all liars. The Quran calls Allah the deceiver of all deceivers. They sound like the same person to me. They're both lying, deceiving, cutthroat scoundrels. Allah is a fraud. Muhammad was a false prophet who [3]worshipped the moon.

Kindly but truthfully said, Islam is of the Devil! John 14:6,

Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

5.6.7 America's Ungodly Zionist Churches (2024-06-14 08:42)

Galatians 3:26-29, "For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ. There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus. And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise."

Today's churches in the United States disgust me, and I know they disgust God. The churches are pathetic today. I am ashamed to be called an American these days. Since October of 2023, [1]Israel's monstrous government has murdered 37,616 innocent Palestinian people in Gaza. I have heard countless loved ones of dead victims in Gaza crying out, "We have nothing to do with Hamas!" Israel is punishing a group of innocent people in retribution for what evil Hamas has done. I do not support Hamas, God forbid. But I also do not support Israel's rampage against innocent families who have done nothing to hurt anyone.

Sadly, most of the murdered Palestinians have been defenseless woman and children. All of the families in Gaza are defenseless. Israel has murdered 37,616 innocent Palestinians with impunity and immunity. It is wickedness! There is no justice, only cruel vengeance and hatred from Israel. God will punish Israel's leaders and citizens who rally behind them in these senseless murders. The life of a Palestinian human being means absolutely nothing to cold-hearted Israeli leaders and soldiers, because those thugs do not know Jesus Christ, they gleefully reject Him as the Messiah. Israeli President Benjamin Netanyahu is a demon-possessed racist monster, a human piece of trash, who will one day get what he deserves when almighty God casts him into the depths of a burning Hell forever (Revelation 20:11-15).

Having said that, I am sick and tired of our ungodly stupid American churches. There is something wrong with a carnal pastor and complicity church congregation who wickedly support the manmade nation of Israel, idolizing them allegedly as "God's chosen people," while completely despising the Arab people and disregarding the slaughter of 37,616 in Gaza as a form of justice. You are a wicked fool if you support Israel, and if you in any way think that those 37,616 Palestinians deserved by be murdered. The [2]evil that Israel is committing is textbook genocide!

I DO NOT STAND WITH ISRAEL, and shame on you as a Christian if you do. I thank God for Bible preachers like Pastor Chuck Baldwin in Montana, who has exposed Israel for trying to [3]Erase Palestine (preached by Pastor Baldwin in November of 2023). I stand with the innocent people in Palestine, but not Hamas. It is a crying shame that thousands of U.S. college students had to speak up in support of the Palestinians victims, and demand for U.S. universities to stop funding the ungodly nation of Israel, while America's pastors remained eerily silent.

What is wrong with preachers today?

I'm not staying silent. I am not a coward like they are. Tragically, most Baptist pastors couldn't care less about what Israel is doing to murder a bunch of innocent people. I care because God cares! And of the pastors that do speak up about the massacre in Gaza, they wickedly support heathen Israel, brainwashed by Zionist propaganda originating back to Cyrus I. Scofield's (1843-1921) Zionist heresies in the despicable Scofield Reference Bible.

Some upset people have asked me why Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) chose to exclusively use the Scofield Reference Bible at the First Baptist Church of Hammond, Indiana. I do not know why, but it is obvious that effectively Dr. Hyles supported manmade Israel, or else he would not have promoted a wicked Zionist publication. In that regard, I respectfully disagree with Brother Hyles. No Christian should support manmade Zionism. No pastor should endorse the Scofield Reference Bible.

Mr. Scofield was a wicked man who was recruited by the Luciferian Rothschilds to help prepare the religious world for the coming preplanned Holocaust, that would be used as a pretext to invade Palestine with the military and steal the homes of one million Arab families, who had lived peacefully in Palestine for centuries before. The world felt sympathy for the Jews after the Holocaust, so they stood back idly as one million Arabs were defrauded of their homes and many even of their lives. You cannot blame the Palestinians for hating Israel for what they have done to them. [4]Present-day Israel is a counterfeit.

I fully agree with Pastor Chuck Baldwin scolding America's shameful pastors and churches for wickedly supporting ungodly manmade Israel...

Why Christians Must LEAVE Christian Zionist Churches Before God Can Again Bless America

God Himself has rejected Israel since 586 BC because of their idolatry with other gods. Israel today in 2024 is even worse! Less than 2 % profess faith in Jesus as the Messiah, and that includes all of the pseudo-Christian cults. Manmade Israel is NOT the fulfillment of Bible prophecy. Unsaved, Christ-rejecting, Jews are NOT God's chosen people (Romans 2:28-29). Only born-again believers, Jews and Gentiles alike, are of the true seed of Abraham (Galatians 3:26-29).

Please do not be deceived dear reader. It is a sin to support the wicked nation of Israel today, whom God Himself has rejected for thousands of years. True Israel will not exist again until the Israelites repent toward God and trust in Jesus as their Messiah (Hosea 3:4-5). Israel today is no different than any other heathen nation, and as Christians we ought not praise, support nor rally behind Israel's ungodly genocide in Gaza.

5.6.8 It’s 10 PM, Do You Know Where Your Pastor Is At? (2024-06-14 22:31)

1st John 4:1, “Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world.”

There was a popular Tv news slogan decades ago that is still legendary today: “It’s 10 PM, do you know where your children are?”...

The history of

It’s 10 p.m. Do you know where your children are?

I would like to apply the same question to you dear reader regarding your pastor. It’s 10 PM, do you know where your pastor is at? In other words, do you know what he believes doctrinally? Do you care? Do you know enough about the inspired Word of God to discern if your pastor is teaching you false doctrine, lies and deceptions?

I cannot find one passage of Scripture that commands believers to “Search the pastor,” but Jesus did command us to “Search the Scriptures.” John 5:39,

Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me.

Another one of my favorite passages of Scripture is found in Acts 17:10-11,

“And the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night unto Berea: who coming thither went into the synagogue of the Jews. These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so.” Carefully notice that the group whom the Apostle Paul scolded for not studying the Bible was the Thessalonicans. In 2nd Thessalonians 2:1-5, Paul is addressing a debate that had erupted among their church group over the timing of Christ’s return. Notice what Paul said in 2nd Thessalonians 2:5, “

Remember ye not, that, when I was yet with you, I told you these things?

” This is a rhetorical question. The implication is that they in fact DIDN’T remember what Paul had taught them. The Thessalonicans were not diligent to search the Scriptures.

With this disturbing truth in mind, I would like to appeal to you dear reader not to merely go along with whatever your pastor teaches you. What if he is wrong? What if he is a theological liar? He may be completely sincere, but still be very wrong in his teachings. You are likely familiar with the unsaved religious group which Jesus rebuked in Matthew chapter seven:

> Matthew 7:21-23, "Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity."

The most frightening thing that they said is the phrase, "have we not prophesied in thy name?" That is, they taught others! These hellbound false prophets were sincere.

Proverbs 16:25,

"T here is a way that seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death. "

They followed Christ as their Lord, calling Him "Lord, Lord." (There's your Lordship Salvation crowd in the Bible.) They did not just a few, but "many" good works. Yet, they were horrified when Jesus told them,

"I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity.

It saddens me to read that these hellbound false prophets with their damnable heresy, had spent their lives teaching others the same Satanic lies, thus leading them into Hell. Beware of anyone who deceptively tells you that to get to Heaven you must turn from your sinful ways, follow Christ as " of your life, get water baptized, forsake a lifestyle of sinning, become a disciple of Jesus, or anything else that constitutes WORKS.

Lord

Biblical salvation requires only that you realize you are a guilty sinner (Romans 3:19-20), and by faith receive Christ's sacrifice on the cross as full payment for your sins, believing that He was buried but then raised up physically from the dead three days later. This is "the gospel" (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). There are many liars, wolves in sheep's clothing in church pulpits today.

I'm talking about most Independent Baptist Churches and nearly all neo-evangelical churches. Beware of the deadly Southern Baptist Convention (SBC) and their Lordship Salvation heresy. Beware of Pacific Garden Mission's deadly [2]UNSHACKLED radio program, who propagate the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation.

Good works are not the payment for sin, the payment for sin is death.

Salvation is not a reward for the righteous, it is a gift for the guilty!

Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

Turning away from sinful ways would be a work. Faith puts all of the merit where it belongs, on the object of our faith, Jesus and His work.

If to "repent" means to forsake our sinful ways TO BE SAVED, but Jesus already paid for our sins by dying on the cross, then what are we repenting from?

The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU.

Please don't ever give any pastor your brain [3]Carte Blanche. No pastor should be idolized with blind trust, which is how cults get started. The only authority in a local church should be the inspired Holy Bible. When a man or men usurp authority, and the congregation let's him (them) do it, you now have a religious cult instead of a New Testament church.

We must search the Scriptures ourselves to verify what a pastor is preaching and teaching. Is it biblical, or a manmade commandment. For example: I've heard pastors all my life browbeat people that they owe God a 10 % tithe, yet you won't find any such commandment in the New Testament for believers today. Covetous clergy fabricate that deception to get your money.

You've likely heard umpteen preachers require you to "turn from your sinful ways" if you want to be saved and go to Heaven. Yet, no such commandment is found in the inspired King James Bible (the Devil's corrupt modern Bible revisions add those lies). Lies, lies and more lies will be found in 99 % of churches today!!!

You must do your own homework friend, so that you can know THE TRUTH directly from God's inspired Word, lest you end up in the Lake of Fire (because you believed a corrupt plan of salvation by some lying neo-evangelical Baptist pastor, Catholic priest, Lutheran minister or Jewish rabbi). Right doctrine matters! 1st John 4:1, "Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world." It's 10 PM, do you know where your pastor is at?

2nd Thessalonians 3:1-2, "

Finally, brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may have free course, and be glorified, even as it is with you: And that we may be delivered from unreasonable and wicked men: for all men have not faith."

I have been sad the past couple days. I had been wanting a professional banjo for a long time. I ordered a Hatfield Buck Creek banjo a couple months ago. I received it on Wednesday. The FedEx driver left the $3,000 banjo sitting on my porch, but didn't knock or let me know it was here. Thankfully, by chance I found it before a thief did. I don't know why Arthur Hatfield didn't require my signature. People are something.

Then I opened the cardboard box with anticipation to see my new dream banjo, but saw that the case was filthy, covered with a thick layer of fine shop dust. Even though that made a bad impression, I let it go, figuring it's just dust that I can wipe off myself.

When I opened the case I was delighted to see a nice handsome looking banjo in a green velvet interior. But when I lifted out the banjo a part fell off. It was a nut that came off the tailpiece. So I removed the pot cover and fastened the nut. I noticed that the tailpiece hadn't been adjusted at all, and was sticking all the way up. So, I adjusted the tailpiece parallel with the banjo head.

I tuned the banjo and went to play it but immediately noticed that the intonation was way off the mark. That is, when you strum the banjo strings open (unfretted) it sounds very nice, but when you fret the strings to play a chord it sounds awful because the distance is incorrect from the nut to the bridge. I spend 4 hours trying to set the bridge in different positions, but nothing worked. When I moved the bridge 1/2" toward the tailpiece, the intonation became accurate on the lower frets, but the higher frets were way out of pitch. When I moved the bridge back slightly, I couldn't get the banjo to have proper intonation, which made it worthless to me.
The Hatfield is the nicest sounding banjo I have ever played (I haven't played many). I have a Recording King Elite 85 with a maple 27 3/8" scale neck. The Hatfield has a standard 26 1/4" scale mahogany neck. The Hatfield sounded MUCH better than my Recording King in tone and resonance. Unfortunately, the best sounding banjo is worthless if it won't play in tune. It was late on Wednesday, so I went to sleep for the night.

Thursday morning I went back to work trying to resolve the intonation problem with the Hatfield. I had purchased a Deering Goodtime Special student banjo earlier this year. When it arrived the bridge was laying sideways. I didn't mind setting the bridge position and intonation, and I did, which took me about 10 minutes and has been very accurate since. The point being that I DO know how to adjust a bridge and set the intonation on a stringed musical instrument. I used to work as a truck mechanic, so I am mechanically inclined. I couldn't get the Hatfield banjo to adjust.

There was also a bad buzz on string four, because the truss rod was too tight. So, I removed the truss rod cover on the headstock and loosened the truss rod, but in the process stabbed my hand on one of the four 1/2" sharp strings ends that Arthur Hatfield carelessly left sticking out on the tuning pegs. Blood was all over my hand. I was frustrated, so I took a photo and sent it to Arthur, to let him know kindly that he needs to trim the string ends in the future at the tuning peg, and not leave them sticking out 1/2" for someone else to cut them self. He got mad at me and at no time ever bothered to apologize for anything. He just wickedly didn't care.
I asked him for any suggestions to remedy the bad intonation, but he didn't want to deal with it and just insisted that I return the banjo to him for a full refund. I was heart broken. I didn't want my money back, I wanted a professional banjo. The guy couldn't have cared less. Like my pastor said a couple months ago in his Sunday morning sermon, the heathens are just doing their job being heathens.

So, yesterday I shipped the Buck Creek banjo back to Arthur Hatfield in Glasgow, Kentucky, but I am very sad. I loved the sound of the banjo, but it was unplayable because of the poor intonation and the builder wasn't willing to make things right with me, except to refund my money. He even horribly rubbed it in my face that he has deposits from three people waiting to buy a Buck Creek banjo from him. I kindly asked him what that had to do with the fact he sent me a defective banjo? What a horrible man.

Well, praise the Lord anyhow. I'm back to square one wanting to purchase a professional banjo. I'm coming along nicely in my banjo practice. [1]I've been making backing tracks for the banjo and freely sharing them with other banjo enthusiasts online.

Lord willing, I plan to make many more backing tracks, and also some banjo recordings at some point down the road. I'm working on learning several songs right now. The progress is slow but rewarding. I enjoy making backing tracks and freely sharing them with other banjo enthusiasts. [2]My favorite banjo artist is Dave Hum (1966-2012). I love this man's music!

Dave had three banjos, a Chinese made Epiphone (Gibson's cheaper banjo line), an Ode banjo (made in the 1970's in Arkansas), and his main banjo that he played 95 % of the time, a 1992 ESS (Earl Scruggs's Standard) Gibson banjo. I am in a peculiar situation. I live in Pensacola. Even though it is the deep south, and we do have a few music stores here, they don't sell any high end banjos. So I don't have any way to play different banjos to see which make and model I like and want to purchase. I have to rely on watching YouTube videos and reading reviews online.

That is why I chose to buy a Hatfield Banjo. I had read a bunch of positive comments about Mr. Hatfield and his banjos online, so I am bewildered that the banjo he sent me was so shoddy in quality and that his attitude is so horrible and unwilling to cooperate to work with me to remedy the problem. I had offered to send him more money and swap banjos with a different one with proper intonation, but he was mean and refused. I don't know what his problem is. Evidently his success has gone to his head, like PCC.

Perhaps it is the Bible verses in my email signature. Perhaps he resents me as a Christian and this is really about his anger against Jesus Christ (John 7:7), and has nothing to do with me at all. I'm still scratching my head, wondering what happened (Ephesians 6:12).

When you pay someone $3,000 for a banjo—you don't expect to randomly find it laying on your front porch, and receive it filthy with dust all over the case, and then a part falls off the banjo the first time you pick it up, and it won't play in tune, and the tailpiece hasn't been adjusted, and it has a bad buzz on string four, and then you cut your hand open on a sharp string sticking out trying to adjust the truss rod that the builder failed to do right at his shop, and then the builder gets mad at you when you kindly complain to him. □□□ □□□□□□□□□□□□□ □:□, "□□□ □□□□ □□ □□□ □□ □□□□□□□□□ □□□□ □□□□□□□□□□□□ □□□ □□□□□□ □□□: □□□ □□□ □□□ □□□□ □□□ □□□□□."

I kindly told Arthur on Thursday that I am praying for him, but emphasized that he did me wrong, and this is all his fault for not doing better quality work. I told him that it seems like he didn't even bother to play the banjo before boxing it up. This is so sad and unfortunate, because I really had my hopes set high to get a nice banjo. □□□□□□□□ □□:□□, "□□□□ □□□□□□□□ □□□□□□ □□□ □□□□□ □□□□: □□□ □□□□ □□□ □□□□□□ □□□□□□, □□ □□ □ □□□□ □□ □□□□."

I know it's just a stupid banjo, but I love music. A banjo is a tool to make music. I greatly enjoy playing the banjo, making backing tracks to play along with, and sharing it all with others. Music makes the world a better place! Finding a nice sounding banjo is not easy. I spent $1,795 for my Elite 85 Recording King in 2018. It is a sturdy built banjo with accurate intonation (after I put a compensator bridge on it), but it just doesn't have "that sound" which is coveted by banjo players who desire great tone, like I do.

The Hatfield has a beautiful tone, but without good intonation it was worthless to me, so I reluctantly returned it to banjo hell where it came from. My Deering Goodtime Special I paid $1,099 for earlier this year. It has excellent intonation for a student model. That banjo doesn't even have a truss rod, because the neck is made of hard rock maple. Yet, the intonation is very accurate. The pot is made of violin grade maple. The Goodtime Special has a tone ring inside the pot, and the sound quality is very nice, but not near as exceptional in resonance as the Hatfield Buck Creek was. I've never had the opportunity to play a Gibson, Huber, Deering Golden Era or Calico, Nechville Phantom, Stelling or other $5,000 plus banjos.

I have learned that the average going price today for a great mandolin, Dobro or Banjo is about $5,000. The Dad of the Gospel Bluegrass group from Texas that comes to our church each October to perform at our 3-day revival (my favorite event of the year), showed me his new Dobro in 2022 which cost him $8,000. Great fluffy biscuits in the morning! He sure plays it sweetly. I bought a Gold Tone solid mahogany body Dobro last year for $2,000, which included a Nashville pickup system installed. I love the beautiful quality sound that the Dobro has. I love stringed musical instruments.

Lord willing, I need a quality mandolin after I get a banjo...lol. I'm getting my one man band together. I've been playing a cheap Donner mandolin (a boat anchor), but it's good to learn on. The mandolin I think I'll buy is the Eastman MD505 which comes with a hardshell case for $849 (not a bad deal). It has a solid spruce top. It lists at Eastman for $1,199. If you're not into music you likely won't understand spending insane amounts of money for musical instruments, but if you love making music and want great tone then you know those instruments are worth every single penny. A professional American made mandolin costs about $5,000. A [3]quality ukulele made of koa wood can easily cost $5,000.

That's crazy! Thankfully, there are cheaper high quality Chinese imports like Eastman. Due to the insanely high cost of musical instruments, rising inflation and the struggling U.S. economy, [4]in the future we will see many more Chinese imports in music stores.

I am content with what the Lord has given me over the years. I dropped and cracked my $130 Cort acoustic guitar last month, but it is my favorite guitar, because it plays easy and sounds very organic (natural wood without a lacquer coating to deaden the sound). I bought it locally at Guitar Center in 2022.

Anyway, I was very sad for the past few days because the banjo I had hoped to play for the rest of my life turned out to be a LEMON. But the good thing is that when (Lord willing) I do finally get a great banjo, I will appreciate it all that much more. Dave Hum was a skilled musician on mandolin, harmonica, bongos, guitar and banjo. I don't think he ever played the Dobro or steel guitar. Steel guitar will always be my favorite instrument to hear and play.
I'm okay on mandolin and banjo, but getting better as I play. I've been trying to play the banjo each day, depending on how my neck pain feels. I rarely feel like doing anything due to my constant chronic neck pain and burning nerves. The good thing is that acquired skills on one instrument carry over to others. So, as I increase my dexterity, speed and accuracy playing single note scales on the mandolin, it helps me also play the banjo better (and vise versa).

Having said all that, please pray for God to help me with my sadness. I keep telling myself that it was only a banjo, but it sure sounded nice. It just wasn't playable because of the poor intonation. I asked the Lord today to please give me a wonderful sounding banjo in Heaven. I had prayed for the Lord to make this Hatfield banjo a special one, and it was, but not in the way that I had hoped...lol. God knows what He is doing and I trust Him though He slay me (Job 13:15).

It is not the Lord's fault that Arthur Hatfield took my money and didn't take the necessary time to make sure that my banjo was Kosher, ready to play and accurate in intonation. He didn't do a good job at all, which is sad and pathetic. Mr. Hatfield said he'll refund my money, and I have no doubt that he will, but we'll see. Albeit, even if he does return my money, I still lost over $200 in shipping costs because of his incompetence, and he wasted a lot of my time. That is what a wicked and unreasonable man does! 2nd Thessalonians 3:1-2, "

Finally, brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may have free course, and be glorified, even as it is with you: And that we may be delivered from unreasonable and wicked men: for all men have not faith." The hardest thing that I deal with in life is rotten people.

One of the most comforting Scripture passages I've ever read is found in John 16:22, "And ye now therefore have sorrow: but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no man taketh from you." I read that Bible verse about 24 years ago and wrote it on the inside of my toolbox at work, to help me cope with hostile co-workers who persecuted me as a Christian. The dear Lord promises that one day when He return, no man will ever take away our joy again. Thousands of times throughout my life my day has been ruined by another human being. Case in point was what Arthur Hatfield did to hurt me this past week.

What saith the Scripture? Matthew 18:2-6, "

And Jesus called a little child unto him, and set him in the midst of them, And said, Verily I say unto you, Except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven. Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven. And whoso shall receive one such little child in my name receiveth me. But whoso shall offend one of these little ones which believe in me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea." The dear Savior clearly intended this passage to apply to little boys and girls, but He specifically applies it to those who "believe in me," that is, the redeemed saints. Woe be unto the person that offends a child of God. Woe be unto Arthur Hatfield!

One of my favorite quotes by Pastor Jack Hyles is:

> "The most important job is the one that doesn't get done."

Thank you for reading about my sad heart. It's been a down few days for me, because I had such high hopes to finally have a great banjo. But I rejoice that my name is written in Heaven (Luke 10:20). God is so good and I count my many blessings. Jesus is precious!

I am sorry you got ripped off. As a banjo nerd myself I would not be too happy being ripped of with a poor quality banjo that cost thousands of dollars. Out of curiosity what styles of banjo have you played? Have you played 2 finger and clawhammer style? It is quite fun. Anyways hope the guy who ripped you off gets saved. God bless

5.6.10 Learn To Be A Friend At Midnight (2024-06-19 21:29)

Luke 11:5-8, “

And he said unto them, Which of you shall have a friend, and shall go unto him at midnight, and say unto him, Friend, lend me three loaves; For a friend of mine in his journey is come to me, and I have nothing to set before him?

And he from within shall answer and say, Trouble me not: the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot rise and give thee. I say unto you, Though he will not rise and give him, because he is his friend, yet because of his importunity he will rise and give him as many as he needeth."

A few months ago my x-wife told me that she scolded our adult daughter for quitting church. According to my x-wife our daughter got into an argument with the pastor's wife, and our daughter got her feelings hurt, so she stopped going to church. My x-wife got into an argument with our daughter over the matter and they weren't talking at the time.

I kindly told my x-wife that she needs to learn to become A Friend At Midnight, instead of making matters worse with her big mouth. She didn't like that, but she needed to here it anyway. I learned a long time ago that the worst thing you can do to a person who is having a rough time is to criticize them. Remember, five minutes of praise will do more for a person than a lifetime of criticism. What saith the Scripture? Proverbs 25:20, "

As he that taketh away a garment in cold weather, and as vinegar upon nitre, so is he that singeth songs to an heavy heart.

" Taking the high ground and browbeating someone who is already down and frustrated, the Bible says is like taking away their coat in sub-zero weather. It is also like pouring vinegar (or alcohol) into an open would. Ouch!

The best thing that you can do when someone is having a bad day, angry, frustrated or down is simply stay quiet and let them talk it out. If you do speak, try to relate to them to comfort them. If someone told me that they quit church, I would immediately let them know that I've been there more times than I can remember. People will do that to you! Scolding someone who has quit church is a sure way to guarantee that they won't come back anytime soon.

It is in our sinful nature to be critical, judgmental and to be hypocritical Pharisees. To be honest, some church people really annoy me! Fundamentalist Baptists are the worst when it comes to being snobs, judgmental and bigots. [1]Pensacola Christian College (PCC) is shameful proof of what I say. You must dot your i's and cross your t's exactly as they do. You must walk a fine line. If you veer even a little bit to the left or to the right, you'll be on the outside looking in before you realize what happened. Sadly, they are a cult at PCC.

A godly church only recognizes the inspired King James Bible as the authority. The pastor's only power is to influence the people with the authority of God's Word. When a man (or group pf men) usurp authority in a church, it has now become a religious cult. That is what's wrong with Mormonism, Seventh-Day Adventism, Church of Christ, Lutheranism, Judaism and the Jehovah's Witnesses (these are all deadly manmade cults).

I decided a long time ago that I am going to be A Friend At Midnight. A friend at midnight always tries to encourage his friend when he or she is down and hurting. If somebody hurts your feelings, I am going to befriend you with comfort, unconditional love and encouraging words. I am going to help bear your burden (Galatians 6:1). And if I think you are wrong, I won't say anything critical. If I believe you need to be rebuked, I won't do it until a few days later. I don't want to force you to choose between your burden and me as your friend.

Pastor Jack Hyles taught me that principle. He said if your teenage son comes home past curfew, you shouldn't scold him when he walks in the door. If you do, you'll force him to choose between the good time he just had, and you. Dr. Hyles recommended to wait until the next day, and I agree. We should be quick to hear, slow to speak, and slow to wrath (James 1:19).

When I am having a bad day, or a bad week, the last thing I need is for some jerk to make things worse by pouring salt into my emotional wounds. The best friend is one who always tries to encourage you. I have a ministry friend who reads my articles and blogs. He is aware of my bloody spiritual battles with PCC, Bob Jones University, Marty Herron, Jeff Redlin, and the pathetic Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. These are ungodly neo-evangelical phonies and institutions who shame the name of Jesus Christ. My friend has often encouraged me in my fight, sharing his own hurt feelings and wounds because of evil clergy like [2]Chuck Phelps.

I challenge you dear reader to become a friend at midnight to the people in your life. That includes your family, friends and acquaintances. Our text Scripture passage is about a neighbour who came to his neighbour's house at the midnight hour, knocking on his door to beg for a loaf of bread for a friend who stopped by in his long journey. Not many people are a friend at midnight. Nowadays you need to be very careful about who you choose to hang around, because they could land you in prison.

I feel so sorry for that [3]neighbour in Georgia who got into the pickup truck with his neighbour across the street (a father and his adult son). The incident happened in 2020. The father and son saw a young black man running down the street and assumed he was up to no good. So, they grabbed their guns and jumped in their pickup truck to go after him. Their neighbour, William Bryan, just happened to be standing outside in front of his house, so they yelled for him to get in the truck with them, but the poor guy didn't know what was going on, he just trusted his " friends.

Long story short, in a scuffle over a gun the young black man was shot and killed. The father and son got life in prison, and William Bryan got 35 years. It's not fair! William shouldn't have gone to prison. He even testified against his neighbours, for their racist language during the events, but it didn't matter because the kangaroo court crucified him too. Anytime you have Jesse Jackson, Al Sharpton and a mob of African Americans at the courthouse demanding justice, it's a kangaroo court. Those men didn't stand a chance at fairness.

The sad truth is that hoodlums are committing crimes with impunity all across the country, and there's absolutely nothing you can do about it. People are sick and tired of crime. Those men never should have followed Arbery, but the sad truth is that calling the police doesn't work anymore. The police are effectively useless because of the corrupt court system. I literally recorded a thief in May of 2024 stealing my Amazon delivered package from my front porch, and showed the security video to the police, but they said there's nothing they can do. The video clearly identifies the criminal. But the worthless police told me that since Amazon replaced the stolen item, I am not the victim, Amazon is. What worthless cops! Welcome to the Corrupt States of America. I am really starting to hate this damned country.

The Baptist church that I have been visiting is having a patriotic service soon. I won't be there, because I cannot stomach being patriotic to this cesspool of iniquity anymore. Our government is as corrupt as can be. Americans are as rotten as ever. There is so little love in people anymore. I've been robbed four times in 16 months. I was cheated recently on a banjo that I purchased. The man who built the banjo cost me hundreds of dollars and couldn't have cared less to make things right. So, I returned it for a refund, because he wouldn't do the right thing and fix the poor intonation. He also refused to sell me a different banjo. People just don't care anymore about others. It is so sad. I am at the place where I don't go out my front door anymore unless I absolutely have to, because of how insane society has become in the United States. Staying home sounds good, real good.

I also rarely go out to eat anymore (about twice a year), because of the thieving restaurants that rip you off with 15 % gratuity and then expect a 10 % tip on top of that. It's as unethical as can be! I hate their greed these days. Even McDonalds has become insane in their ridiculous prices. It cost me $18 for a Big Mac meal and Fish Fillet sandwich. That was a few months ago, and I don't plan to go back for the rest of the year. McDonalds are greedy!

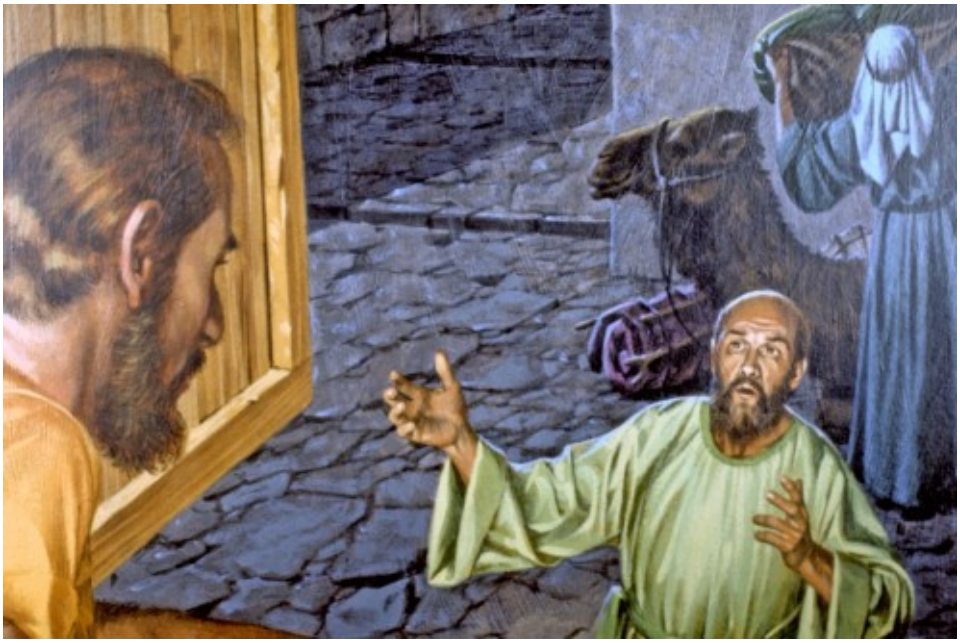
And let me tell you friend, the economy and inflation are going to get MUCH worse. I have known that for the past 20 years, since I first learned about the [4]criminal Federal Reserve banking Ponzi Scheme (since 1913), which is intended to steal wealth from the American people. It is no mere coincidence that the banks force you to slave away for 30 to 40 years to pay off your house's mortgage. They calculated and made it that way! To add insult to injury, our treasonous leaders are complicit to the crimes! That is why they assassinated President John F. Kennedy, because he wanted to pass Executive Order 11110 getting rid of the Federal Reserve. They murdered him first! Add to that mandatory home insurance, mortgage insurance, property taxes, et cetera, and you're financially in the dog house my friend! I digress.



I encourage you to be a friend to your family, neighbours and friends. But in so doing, be very careful whom you choose to hang around as friends, because you could get life in prison if they commit a crime. The old adage is true: Be nice to everybody but trust no one. At a minimum we can all season our words with grace, as the Bible teaches, when somebody is down and needs our words of comfort.

I am reminded of Job in the Old Testament, whose friends were total jerks at the lowest point in his life. ...

> Job 16:1-4, " Then Job answered and said, I have heard many such things: miserable comforters are ye all.
> Shall vain words have an end? or what emboldeneth thee that thou answerest? I also could speak as ye do: if your soul were in my soul's stead, I could heap up words against you, and shake mine head at you."

Job's three friends were self righteous hypocrites. They falsely accused him of committing sin that caused his calamity. They accused his children of sinning. They were dead wrong! Instead of being friends at midnight, they were as rotten as could be to Job, pouring burning acid in his deep hurting emotional wounds. Job's ten children had all been killed. Job's wealth was gone. The poor guy lost everything. And then his friends condemned him.

We can learn a very important lesson from Job's horrible friends about WHAT NOT TO DO when your friend is hurting. Don't browbeat people, criticize them or make matters worse by telling them what they should of, could of or would of done. Be a friend at midnight!

5.6.11 Look At People As Broken Instead Of Bad (2024-06-20 17:28)

Luke 17:11-19, " And it came to pass, as he went to Jerusalem, that he passed through the midst of Samaria and Galilee. And as he entered into a certain village, there met him ten men that were lepers, which stood afar off: And they lifted up their voices, and said, Jesus, Master, have mercy on us. And when he saw them, he said unto them, Go shew yourselves unto the priests. And it came to pass, that, as they went, they were cleansed. And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, and with a loud voice glorified God, And fell down on his face at his feet, giving him thanks: and he was a Samaritan. And Jesus answering said, Were there not ten cleansed? but where are the nine? There are not found that returned to give glory to God, save this stranger. And he said unto him, Arise, go thy way: thy faith hath made thee whole. "

I learned a life changing truth a long time ago from Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001), that we should look at people as broken instead of bad. People need the Lord.

I often am reminded of the true story of ten lepers in the Holy Bible whom Jesus healed of their horrible disease. Few people understand how horrifying having leprosy meant for someone living in history past, before the miracle of modern medicine. ...

> For millennia, a diagnosis of leprosy meant a life sentence of social isolation. People afflicted with the condition now known as Hansen's disease—a bacterial infection that ravages the skin and nerves and can cause painful deformities—were typically ripped from their families, showered with prejudice and cruelly exiled into life-long quarantine.

Jesus in mercy healed these ten afflicted men, Astonishingly, only one bothered to return to thank the dear Savior. Things haven't changed in 2,000 years. People today in 2024 are just as ungrateful, unkind and cold toward people who help them. I gave a homeless African American man $40 and Gospel of John. He was ungrateful and asked me for more, but I told him that he had enough already.

Those ten lepers were afflicted by something much worse than leprosy, they didn't have the fear of God in their souls. They didn't appreciate the Savior, nor the good things provided to them by God. There is a direct link between one's gratitude toward God and repentance (Romans 2:4). Romans 1:21, " Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened."

But when I think about those ten lepers, I don't view them as bad men; but rather, broken men. American society today is filled with ungrateful sinners who know not God. They don't want the knowledge of God (Romans 1:28). That is why we see nature documentaries on YouTube by atheists who teach that two rocks slammed into each other to form the earth and moon. The Bible plainly teaches that God formed the moon, stars and planets (Psalms 8:3-4). Evolution is a lie of Satan. Astronomy that tries to explain the origin of the earth and universe without God is evil nonsense. Yet, wicked fools teach these baseless lies as if it were a fact of science.

I encourage you dear reader to join me in viewing people as broken rather than bad. When a Rolex watch breaks people don't say it is bad and throw it away. No, they say it is broken and pay to have it repaired. If we view people as being bad, then we tend to write them off. That is not a good attitude to have. However, if we view troublesome people as broken, then we ought to pray for them and seek to help them with a spirit of meekness (Galatians 6:1-2).

We've all been hurt by others. I've heard numerous people talk about how rotten people are these days, and some of them sure are rotten. But if we always keep in mind that they are not right with God, and likely not even saved, then it will compel us to have compassion and love for them. I refuse to hate people. Unsaved people are simply behaving the way they should, like total heathens. As a child of God, I have been redeemed and know better. So, God expects more from me. To whom much is given, of the same much shall be required, the Bible says. I choose to forgive and love people, rather than hate and give up on humanity.

5.6.12 The Foolishness Of Comparing Our Self With Others (2024-06-22 09:54)

2nd Corinthians 10:12, "For we dare not make ourselves of the number, or compare ourselves with some that commend themselves: but they measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves among themselves, are not wise."

It is an important Bible truth that we compare our self only to the inspired Word of God. If we foolishly compare our self to other people, then we might think more highly of our self than we ought. Luke 18:11, "The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, God, I thank thee, that I am not as other men are, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican." This Pharisee foolishly compared himself to other sinners, instead of measuring himself by the Holy Bible. The Word of God is as a mirror, showing us who we really are. When I read the Scripture I see myself as a guilty sinner deserving of God's wrath, but if I foolishly compare myself to other humans, then I might errantly view myself as being self righteous. So, don't ever evaluate yourself by comparing with other sinners.

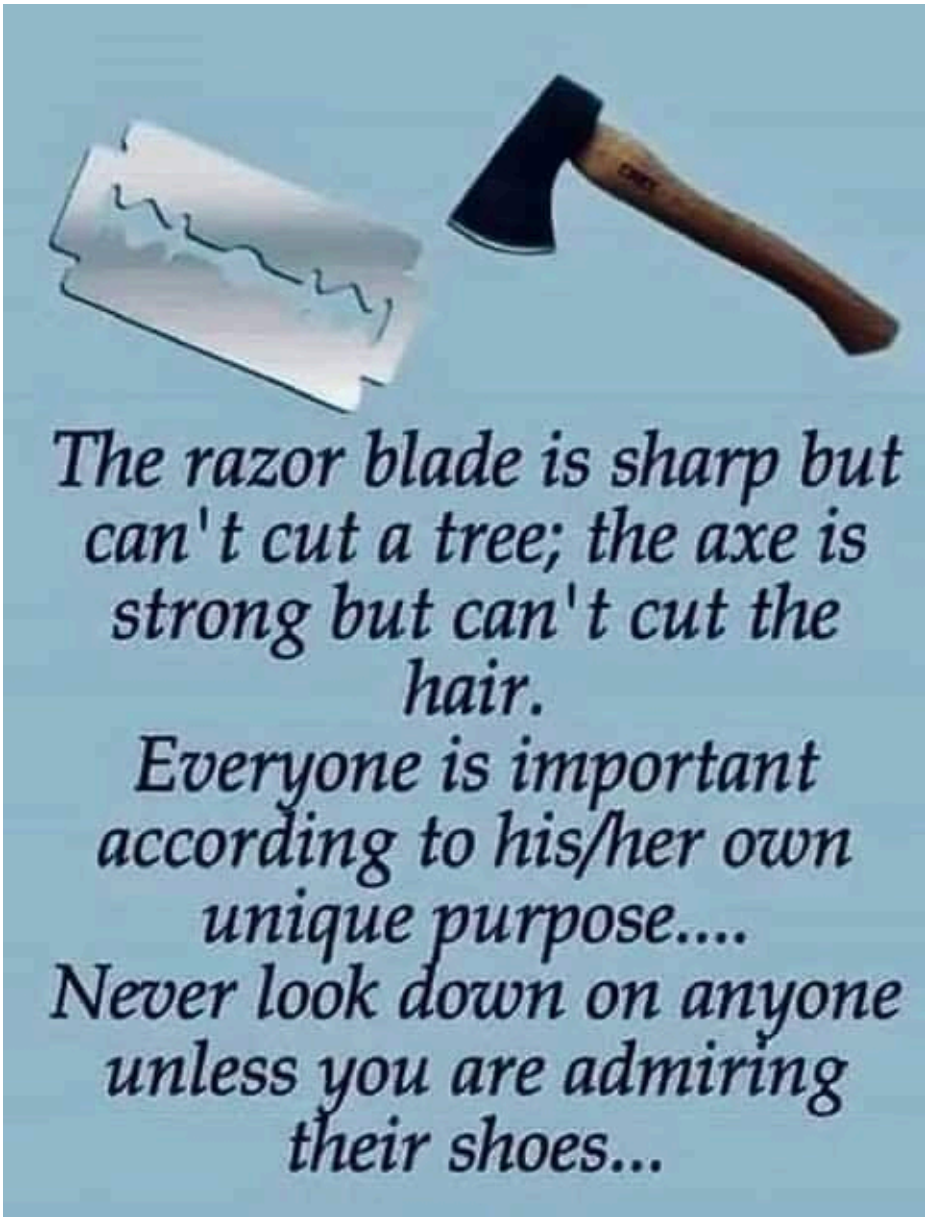
We are living in a generation that does not look up. They do not look up to God. There is no fear of God, nor regard for man, in their character. They will steal, hurt and betray anybody for personal gain. From the punk on the street, to the crooked politician, to the corrupt White House, to the greedy cutthroat lawyer—thieves abound today in America! I fear God. I regard other people. How we treat others matters. They treat people like garbage at Pensacola Christian College (PCC). Their leaders are a disgusting cult of rich snobs, hypocrites and self-righteous Pharisees. I wouldn't enroll a dog into that cesspool of iniquity. The cult system always comes first at PCC, there is no concern or compassion for individual people. SHAME on PCC!!!



I have learned as a born-again believer to only compare myself to the King James Bible, which is the inspired Word of God. If I compare myself with others, I may become down and disillusioned. I often feel so little, like I should be doing so much more to serve God. I forget that I continually suffer from an old neck injury. Since I live with the pain, burning nerves and discomfort all the time, I actually forget about it sometimes, because it has become the new norm. Yet, the relentless pain and related bodily afflictions constantly irritate, frustrate and cause me to lack patience with everything. So, I need to keep this in mind and limit my activities. God is always good and I have no complaints. Blessed be the name of the Lord.

So, please don't compare yourself with other people dear reader. God has a unique plan for each of us. God made us all different. You are unique and so am I. God never intended for us to all conform to the standards of a religious cult, cutting our hair the same, dressing the same, looking and talking the same, et cetera. My suffering will be different than your suffering. My burdens, trials and hardships will be different than yours. So, I encourage you to be yourself, embracing the unique individual that God intended for you to be.

I never wanted to be divorced, but my former wife horribly abandoned and divorced me in 2006. I could sit around and become bitter why other men have loyal wives, but I didn't. I choose not to dwell upon such negative thoughts; but rather, I sincerely thank God for His goodness each day, for His bountiful provisions, for my remaining good health, for my family, for the musical instruments that I love to play, for local churches, and for all the blessings in my life.

Anybody can be happy if we choose to be happy. People who are unhappy choose to be unhappy, by choosing to focus on the negative things in their life. I choose to focus on the good things in my life. I thank God that my name is written in Heaven in the Lamb's Book of Life (Luke 10:20). I thank God for the banjo and steel guitar that I love to play. Although I suffer in constant chronic neck pain, and burning nerves, I thank God that I can still function normally and take care of myself. I have no complaints.

"The foundation of gratitude is the expectation of nothing." —Pastor Jack Hyles

5.6.13 Tender Hearted And Cold Hearted People Just Don’t Mix (2024-06-24 15:52)

Ephesians 4:32, “And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ’s sake hath forgiven you.

7070

When I was married (1987-2007), I worked my entire career at secular jobs in the workplace. Pastor Jack Hyles was right when he warned us, “Fellas, it’s a jungle out there!” The world is a deadly jungle. As I born-again Christian, I was constantly the target for criticism, sinful gestures and teasing from ungodly co-workers who didn’t fear God nor respect my Christian beliefs.

One day in the 1990’s, I came home from work with tears in my eyes. I had endured about all I could take of working with unsaved wicked heathens, who were worldly and cruel at times. My former wife at the time said something that stuck with me all these years. She said, “You’re a tender-hearted man working with some cold hearted people, and the two just don’t mix.” She nailed it. Still today, I am the same tender-hearted Christian man that I was back then.

My feelings can get hurt easily. That is the flipside of being a caring, passionate and detailed person. My website ministry is not just my life’s work, it is my life’s passion, in which I’ve invested well over 50,000 hours of diligent labor since 2002 when I began by God’s grace.

Here is an excellent quote

which made an impact upon me as a young Christian man over 35 years ago:

> ’The world’ includes the mass of humanity that is alienated from God and therefore hostile to the cause of Christ. It involves worldly affairs, earthly things, riches, pleasures, and pursuits that are shallow, frail, and fleeting. These things stir desire, draw us away from God, and are obstacles to the cause of Christ. The divorced or torn relationships between Heaven and earth, between God and His creatures, finds its expression in the term ’the world.”’ —Pastor Edward M. Bounds, a quote from chapter 7 - Overcoming The Enemy Of God, from the classic book titled: “GUIDE TO SPIRITUAL WARFARE”

This sin-cursed world is so horrible. I eagerly long to leave this ungodly place to go home to be with Jesus my precious Savior in Heaven...

> 1st John 2:15-17, “Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world. And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever.”

The world is a cold-hearted place. The world never meets anybody halfway on anything. Someone has rightly said that the world is like a man who holds a saxophone in one hand and a gun in the other; he blows his saxophone to drown out the cries of his shooting victims. The world protects their own (John 15:19). The world hates Jesus (John 7:7). The inspired Holy Bible warns that no one can be friends with the world, and also be friends with God (James 4:4). We must all choose either God or the world, there is no middle ground.

I am a loving type of person. As such I also tend to be way too hard on myself. I often feel guilty if I tell someone off for mistreating me as a customer, even though I am in the right. At times I have had difficulty discerning between the convicting voice of the indwelling Holy Spirit versus experiencing mere human feelings. One way to tell the difference is to search the Word of God.

If our feelings ever go contrary to the written Word of God, then we know that our feelings are wrong. The Holy Bible is always right!!!

Such emotional feelings in theology are called, “Religious Scrupulosity.” These type of feelings can ruin a person’s life if left unchecked. The wise thing is to saturate one’s mind and heart with the inspired Scriptures (John 5:39; Psalms 1). We ought never trust our uncertain feelings in absence of the Scriptures. Our feelings can mislead us. We see this truth bared out in the Old Testament book of Job. His three friends horribly misjudged Job, falsely accusing him of harboring secret sins in his life, which they alleged were the cause of his calamities. We know that Job’s calamities were not the result of anyone’s sins; but rather, testing from God.

In another biblical example, when Isaac went by his feelings, he was deceived by Jacob, who was wearing animal skins to trick Isaac into thinking he was Esau. Jacob was a supplanter, that is, a trickster, a deceiver. Abraham’s son, Isaac, had very poor eyesight in his old age. If Isaac had gone by the VOICE (which he said sounded like Jacob), instead of going by his FEELINGS (which felt hairy like Esau), then Isaac wouldn’t have been deceived by his wicked son. The point to be learned is to never trust your feelings!

A common negative feeling that people experience is thinking that God is displeased, angry or is holding a grudge against with them. We tend to feel this because we are sinful by nature. But if you understand the biblical truth of the precious blood of Jesus that washed all our sins away the moment we were born-again, then you know that God only sees Jesus’ righteousness when He looks at you, regarding your position in Christ. If we choose to live in unrepentant sin as a Christian, then that doesn’t change God’s view of us as His redeemed child whom He unconditionally loves.

Psalms 7:11 warns that God is angry with the wicked, that is, with those who knowingly reject Jesus as their Savior. John 3:36 teaches that God’s wrath abides upon Christ-rejecters, not the redeemed child of God. We may grieve, disappoint and sadden God our Father when we disobey Him, but He still sees Christ’s righteousness instead of our sins, as far as our POSITION in Christ is concerned. Our CONDITION may be wrong, but our POSITION is always right through faith in Jesus.

I have been defrauded by many people throughout my adult life. They cheated me out of tens of thousands of dollars. There was nothing I could do to remedy the situation, because they were unreasonable and wicked men.

2nd Thessalonians 3:2, “ And that we may be delivered from unreasonable and wicked men: for all men have not faith.” The Bible exhorts Christians not to attempt to avenge ourselves outside of the legal system. Taking the law into one’s own hands is wrong. Vengeance belongs to God alone (Romans 12:19-21). I can assure you on the authority of the Holy Bible that no one will ever get away with anything.

Jesus warned everyone in Matthew 12:36 that all men shall someday in eternity give account for EVRY IDLE WORD SPOKEN. How much more shall we all be held accountable for our hurtful words, gossiping words, hateful words and lying words? If God will hold all men accountable for our very idle words, then how much more shall we all be held accountable for our actions (Ecclesiastes 12:14)? God can read our mind and knows our very thoughts, so that no one can deceive or withhold the truth from Him (Proverbs 24:12).

Sadly, I’d say that over 95 % of humans are cold-hearted, lacking genuine compassion and love for others. Jesus foretold in Matthew 24:12 that because iniquity (unpunished evil) shall abound, the love of MANY shall wax cold. [1]We see MUCH unpunished evil in American society today. The love of many people have already waxed cold. Tragically, spiritually rundown lifeless religious institutions like Pensacola Christian College (PCC) are woefully lacking in compassion and genuine concern for people. PCC are cold-hearted and focus on the letter of the law (i.e., strict rules in an oppressively authoritarian cult system), but they woefully lack the spirit of the law which is centered in God's unconditional law. RUN from places like PCC!

Tender-hearted people just don't mix with cold-hearted people. If you have a tender heart like me, then good for you! We should all have tender hearts.

Ephesians 4:32, "And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you.

" Sadly, over 95 % of Americans today are wickedly cold-hearted.

I was thinking yesterday about how unethical nearly everyone in the United States has become these days. For example: I typed into a search engine, and one of the [2]results which came up was Country Instruments.com , but at the bottom of the page they have a disgusting disclaimer posted which reads:

Best Professional Banjo

> Affiliate Disclosure CountryInstruments.com is a participant in the Amazon Services LLC Associates Program, an affiliate advertising program designed to provide a means for sites to earn advertising fees by advertising and linking to Amazon.com.
> This means that some of our posts contain affiliate links, so we may receive a commission if you click through and make a purchase. [emphasis added]

In other words, they're dirty liars! They're admitting in a disclaimer that they're lying to your face on this webpage, by recommending crap that is as far from "professional" as can be. Look at this total piece of crap banjo that they recommend, which with the case and add-ons only costs $219. A truly "

banjo will cost you about $5,000 and up. Do you see how they just lie to make money on kick-backs? This is unethical, dirty, dishonest and ungodly. Sadly, there are millions of webpages just like this, which post disclaimers at the bottom to legally protect themselves while they tell you a bunch of lies. It is WICKEDNESS!!! These are cold-hearted people. Cold-hearted people are wicked people!!!

The world is a wicked place and always has been (1st John 5:19). I thank God for the gift of the indwelling Holy Spirit, and the love that He shed abroad in my heart toward every living creature. I wouldn't want to live without love. The world is filled with cold-hearted people.

When I visited Honolulu many years ago, I got lost. I kindly asked a young college-aged white couple for their assistance to figure out where I was, but they cold-heartedly just kept walking and totally ignored my pleas for help. I kindly asked them three times for their help, but they didn’t say a word and just walked away smirking. I have often prayed for God to repay their evil for evil that day, so they can see what cold-heartedness feels like. I truly hope that one day they are in dire straits and need someone’s help, but no one cares and just ignores them.

A moment later I asked a Japanese married couple for their help because I was lost. They kindly befriended me, took out their mobile phones with GPS and pointed me in the right direction to the Queen Kapiolani Hotel where I was staying. I have often prayed for God to bless that kind couple. But those white piece of trash brats need to be humbled. I have met innumerable cold-hearted people throughout my life, God pity their wicked souls.

Sadly, many of them were ungodly rotten neo-evangelical pastors like Marty Herron, Jeff Redlin, Timothy Zacharias, Joe Hensen, Jared Baldwin, Gary Walton, Sean Quinlan and other incompetent clergy who don’t genuinely care about truth or people. Thankfully, I have also met a small handful of tender-hearted people as well, God bless them both. Thank you for reading.

Acts 16:27-31, “

And the keeper of the prison awaking out of his sleep, and seeing the prison doors open, he drew out his sword, and would have killed himself, supposing that the prisoners had been fled. But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, Do thyself no harm: for we are all here.

Then he called for a light, and sprang in, and came trembling, and fell down before Paul and Silas,

And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house.”

Somebody sent me this beautiful documentary today, which exposes hundreds of damnable false prophets who preach the Devil’s lie that to get to Heaven you must, “

Repent of your sins.

” No such phrase exists in the inspired King James Bible.

I bought a Sony Blue-ray player at Walmart which allows me to access YouTube for free. So, I can watch YouTube videos on my television, which is really nice. I’ve already watched this entire documentary, and am watching again because I love truth-tellers. This is a great film!
...

I hope dear reader that you will watch this complete 2:24 hour film. We need resources like this. I have already [1]converted the film to an MP4 and downloaded it to my computer to preserve it, just in case it disappears one day.

This is a brilliant documentary which brings honor to our Lord Jesus Christ, because it tells THE TRUTH that Christ came into the world to die on a cross to pay our debt of sin, but God does not require that we forsake our sinful bad habits to receive His free gift of eternal life. Ungodly but sincere men ADDED those words to the Holy Bible. Proverbs 30:5-6, "

Every word of God is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him. Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar."

Good works are not the payment for sin, the payment for sin is death.

Salvation is not a reward for the righteous, it is a gift for the guilty!

Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

Turning away from sinful ways would be a work. Faith puts all of the merit where it belongs, on the object of our faith, Jesus and His work.

If to "repent" means to forsake our sinful ways TO BE SAVED, but Jesus already paid for our sins by dying on the cross, then what are we repenting from?

The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU.

We must stay true to the simplicity of the Gospel!! Repentance regarding salvation is a change of mind from unbelief to belief!!! We must earnestly contend for the faith (Jude 1:3).

You get saved by trusting in Christ, not by cleaning up your life of sin. NO ONE has ever cleaned up their life of sin. You may become less of a sinner in your own eyes, and the eyes of fellow humans, but in God's sight you are either utterly full of sin, or else you are clothed in the imputed righteousness of Jesus Christ, which is by faith alone in Him (Philippians 3:9).

If you ever go to Heaven someday Oh guilty sinner, it will solely be on the merit of Christ alone because of your faith in His death, burial and resurrection. Trusting even in the slightest work to be saved cancels grace, and ensures that you will go to a burning Hell when you die. Either Christ does the saving, all of it, or else you don't get grace!

Our only part in salvation is to get out of the way (i.e., cease from our labors) and rest only in the finished work of the dear Savior (Hebrews 4:10-11). John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life."

5.6.15 Grace Is Not "Cheap," It Is Totally FREE (2024-06-29 09:59)

Romans 4:1-5, "

What shall we say then that Abraham our father, as pertaining to the flesh, hath found?

For if Abraham were justified by works, he hath whereof to glory; but not before God.

For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness.

Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt*.

But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.

The inspired King James Bible promises that any sinner can live forever if we will simply trust in Jesus Christ, who is the only begotten Son of God. Some critics of free grace Gospel Christians (such as myself) have horribly accused us of preaching: "easy-believism," "cheap grace," a "1-2-3 Gospel"

or

"greasy-grace"; but dear friend, God's grace is not

it is completely FREE. It is 100 % free to every human being simply because Jesus has already paid for our sins in full, through the blood that He shed on Calvary's cross and then sprinkled on the heavenly Mercy Seat (Hebrews 10:9, 22-24; 12:24; 1st Peter 1:18-19).

The Devil is a liar, we all know that (John 8:44). But tragically most people don't realize that 99 % of preachers are working for the Devil, and they are liars too (2nd Corinthians 11:13-15).

One of the biggest and most popular lies today is that you cannot go to Heaven without repenting of your sinful ways. That is, turning away from your sinful bad habits. This damnable heresy is being taught in over 95 % of all churches today and is of the Devil.

Nowhere in the Holy Bible (if you have a Bible that hasn't been tampered with) will you find the phrases "

repent of your sins

turn from your sins.

Sincere but wicked misled men added those words, perverting the inspired Words of almighty God. Jeremiah 23:36,

"And the burden of the LORD shall ye mention no more: for every man's word shall be his burden; for ye have perverted the words of the living God, of the LORD of hosts our God.

" There is no worse sin than to put words into God's mouth that He didn't say, or to remove them from God's mouth (Deuteronomy 4:4; Proverbs 30:5-6). Woe unto the modern Bible publishers who have corrupted the inspired Word of God.

Someone recently [1]sent me this wonderful documentary that earnestly contends for the faith. The Christian man who composed this film exposes hundreds of neo-evangelical false prophets, who pervert the grace of God by adding works to grace, contaminating the Gospel and shaming the name of Jesus. I am convinced that all Bible colleges do today is neuter the pastors of tomorrow. The biggest threat to Christendom today are the shallow Bible colleges with their superficial spirituality, dead pulpits, corrupt view of repentance as meaning to "

to be saved, and their woeful lack of compassion for individual people, especially for those who are hurting.

God deliver us from today's greedy apostate religious seminaries, like the ungodly Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary in Ankeny, Iowa (where that rotten devil Marty Herron corrupts young people with his demonic lies of Lordship Salvation). Neo-evangelicals have utterly destroyed the churches, turning them into deadly cults. BEWARE dear reader of the apostate Southern Baptist Convention (SBC) and their wrong repentance. The SBC has 45,000 member churches, who all adhere to their Satanic perverse teaching that to get to Heaven requires turning away from your sinful bad habits with all your heart. No such nonsense is taught in the inspired King James Bible. Let God be true but every man a liar!!!

Grace is not "cheap." Oh no dear friend, it is 100 % completely FREE to you and me, received by faith alone in the death of Christ on Calvary's cross, His burial and bodily resurrection three days later from the dead. This is " the gospel

" according to 1st Corinthians 15:1-6. BELIEVE IT, oh sinner, and you will be immediately, irrevocably and permanently saved (Romans 1:16).

5.7.1 Nothing Is More Important Than The Truth (2024-07-02 10:14)

Psalms 138:2, "I will worship toward thy holy temple, and praise thy name for thy lovingkindness and for thy truth: for thou hast magnified thy word above all thy name."

Jesus said that the entire purpose for which He came into the world was to bear witness unto the truth. John 18:37, "Pilate therefore said unto him, Art thou a king then? Jesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a king. To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. Every one that is of the truth heareth my voice." The truth is important. Satan's only real power is at hiding the truth, through cleverly fabricated deceptions and religious lies. Satan has filled the world with the lies of religion, the lies of evolution, the lies of Hollywood, the lies of secular philosophy, et cetera. The best defense against Satan's lies is the truth of God's Holy Word.

Kindly, I cannot sit under any pastor who allows, uses and refuses to expose the modern corrupt versions of the Bible. Satanic [1]occultists Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort corrupted the Word of God, deliberately to deceive the churches. The evidence is readily available for research. Tragically, most preachers just don't care. Our churches are being deceived. The most important thing in any Christian's life should be THE TRUTH!!! Sadly, it seems that the truth is the last thing that matters to churches these days.

This is evidenced by the widespread teaching of the false plan of salvation of Lordship Salvation. This is evidenced by the corrupted Bible versions which have been embraced whole-heartedly by most churches today. This is evidenced by the deafening silence in our churches concerning the reality, horror and eternal damnation of a burning literal Hell. This is evidenced by the heresy of [2]Zionism in our churches (a concise one hour MP3 history of the New World Order, Zionism and apostate Christianity).

The reason why pastors today lack zeal, fire and a burning passion in the pulpit in their preaching is because they don't walk with God as they should. Hebrews 10:29 says that our God is a CONSUMING FIRE!!! I have a burning passion in my heart for THE TRUTH of God's Word, for THE TRUTH in general. I must have the truth! I want the truth! I hate lies and deception!

Most pastors teach the Bible as a humdrum devotional sermonette. I firmly believe that truth should be preached with fervor and excitement. Do you know why most churches are totally empty of any youth? It's because teenagers want to be a part of something worth dying for, something bigger than life, something exciting. Go attend the average church today and the truth is presented as if it were a funeral. It's as boring as can be, nothing more than a vague doctrinal statement.

Brother, we need preachers again like Billy Sunday who holler the truth, throw chairs, jump up and down, run around, throw a fit at the Devil and get mad at sin!!! But you say, people might think I'm nuts. May I say, if your audience doesn't think you're nuts over truth, then you're a lousy preacher! It's OK to be a nut if you're screwed onto the right bolt! Jesus is the right bolt! We've lost the fire in our church pulpits!!! We've got a bunch of apostate religious centers these days, passing off as New Testament churches. Is there a fire burning in your heart? If not, Get right with God. Isaiah 59:14, "And judgment is turned away backward, and justice standeth afar off: for truth is fallen in the street, and equity cannot enter.” Obamacare is not the problem these days; but rather, “

We Don’t Care

is the big problem. I care, do you?

5.7.2 How To Forgive Others (2024-07-02 18:29)

Matthew 6:15, "But if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses."

One of the hardest things in the world is oftentimes to forgive someone who has woefully wronged you. Victims of crimes often ask, "Do I have to forgive?" You certainly have a choice not to forgive, but if you don't forgive them, then it's like drinking poison and expecting the other person to die. The Bible reminds us as Christians that God forgave us of our sins for Christ's sake, and teaches us to do likewise...

> Ephesians 4:30-32, "And grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption. Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice: And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you."

When bitten by a snake, there are two things you can do: You can either hunt down the snake while the poison kills you, or you can tend to the wound and live. It's better to tend to one's wounds and live.

The Bible teaches us how to deal with our enemies. The way to forgive others is to place them into God's hands for judgment. It is a matter of faith that God will avenge us in eternity. It is easy to let things go when you truly believe that God will hold all men accountable, even for the idle words they speak (Matthew 12:36). Romans 10:19 teaches us not to avenge ourselves against our enemies. Romans 12:19, "Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord." God commands us as Christians "to give place unto wrath." When you get angry, have a place to redirect it. The next time you get angry, pass out some Gospel tracts! The next time that you become bitter, do something nice for a homeless person. The next time you feel depressed, put $5 in a Gospel of John and hand it to a poor person! Brother, if you want to be happy in the Lord, then get busy living for OTHERS like you're dying! That's how to develop a forgiving spirit.

God commands us as Christians to forgive, not just seven times a day, but seventy times seven times (that's 490 times). Matthew 18:21-22, "Then came Peter to him, and said, Lord, how oft shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? till seven times? Jesus saith unto him, I say not unto thee, Until seven times: but, Until seventy times seven." God was willing to forgive us of all our terrible sins (Matthew 18:23-35).

Matthew 18:34-35, "And his lord was wroth, and delivered him to the tormentors, till he should pay all that was due unto him. So likewise shall my heavenly Father do also unto you, if ye from your hearts forgive not every one his brother their trespasses." Luke 6:37, "Judge not, and ye shall not be judged: condemn not, and ye shall not be condemned: forgive, and ye shall be forgiven."

Jesus Set the Example to Forgive On the Cross

While on the cross, Jesus asked God to forgive the men who crucified Him. Luke 23:34, "Then said Jesus, Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do. And they parted his raiment, and cast lots." 1st Corinthians 2:8 says that Pilate would not have crucified the Lord had he known the truth. It was the Lord Himself who taught us to love our enemies. Matthew 5:44, "But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you." The Bible says that Jesus did not come into the world to condemn men, but to seek and save that which was lost (John 3:17; Luke 19:10).

As Christians we should take a step backward and try to view the big picture, as God does. This is understanding. Instead of seeing people as bad, view them as broken. Of course, all men are woeful sinners in God's eyes (Romans 3:23). Most people who get into trouble with the law are good people who are just at a bad point in their life. Oftentimes it is hurting people that hurt other people. It is human nature to want someone to burn in Hell because they tore a page out of our book, but as Christians we ought to learn to forgive quickly and give place to wrath, knowing that God will avenge all wrongdoing in eternity. Ecclesiastes 12:14 says that EVERY WORK shall be brought into judgment by God. Knowing this truth makes it much easier to forgive those who trespass against us. No one is going to get away with anything! God even knows the number of hairs upon our head. God is omniscient (all-knowing).

Every Work Shall Be Brought into Judgment By God

To help you forgive someone who has wronged you, realize that God is the ultimate Lawgiver and Judge. James 4:12, "There is one lawgiver, who is able to save and to destroy: who art thou that judgest another?" Ecclesiastes 12:13-14, "Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man. For God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil."

In Matthew 12:36 Jesus said that men will be held accountable even for the idle words they have spoken. No one is going to get away with anything. Proverbs 24:12 says that God even reads men's minds and motives and will judge them accordingly. Proverb 24:12, "If thou sayest, Behold, we knew it not; doth not he that pondereth the heart consider it? and he that keepeth thy soul, doth not he know it? and shall not he render to every man according to his works?" God is the keeper of men's souls. You cannot harm another human being and avoid the judgment of God (Matthew 7:1-2). Hebrews 9:27 teaches that every individual will be judged in eternity by God.

Please understand that to forgive someone does not release them of responsibility, restitution, punishment and other consequences for their wrongs (or crimes). Forgiveness is a choice!

Certainly it is understandable that someone who has been deeply wronged by another person would require a time period of emotional healing, sometimes a lifetime. But this is separate from forgiveness. So what is forgiveness? Forgiveness is releasing a person's offenses into God's omnipotent hands for judgment. You don't want to mess with God by messing with a child of God. Matthew 18:6, "But whoso shall offend one of these little ones which believe in me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea."

Overcome Evil with Good

> Romans 12:19-21, "Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord. Therefore if thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink: for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head. Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good."

My advice to you if someone has hurt you is to get busy soul-winning, work a bus ministry, teach a Sunday School class, support missions, help the poor, visit a nursing home, tell someone that God loves them, go street-preaching, buy an extra pack of pastries at the store for your neighbour, get busy for God laying up treasures (souls, crowns, possessions and rewards) in Heaven. When people hurt me, I work that much harder serving God, so that I'll have even more treasures in Heaven. It will be worth it all when we see Jesus!!!

There are many evils that go unpunished in this world; such as, the Japanese Unit 731 torture labs in World War II and Joseph Stalin's brutal murder of 60 million people under the Communist Soviet Union between 1920-1950, and a trillion other wrongs. God will judge each and every one of them, that is, wrongs committed. He must, for He is holy and just. Even men's thoughts will be judged (Proverbs 24:12). God is a good God. Matthew 25:40, "And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me." When someone hurts a Christian, a child of God, they are hurting Jesus! That's exactly what the Lord said in Matthew 25:40.

Even though it may take time for you to emotionally heal from something devastating that someone has done to you, you can forgive them in your heart right away, knowing that they must give account to almighty God. When a person hurts you, they must seek forgiveness from God. You cannot forgive their sins. You may choose to forgive them in your heart for what they've done to hurt you, but that in no way gets them off the hook with God. They still must make things right with God or face the consequences, and part of making things right with the Lord as a Christian is making restitution.

Never seek vengeance or be vindictive against anyone. God has promised to take care of the matter and avenge all wrongs (Romans 12:19). I would 10,000 times rather have other people hurt me (and many have), than me hurt them!!! I would rather wait a lifetime to be avenged by God, than to have to answer to God one day for hurting someone else.

How to Forgive Yourself

If you're a human being, you have also hurt people in life, whether intentionally or not. It's easy to think only in terms of others hurting us, but we are all guilty of hurting others. Humans are creatures of emotion. Anyone is capable of committing any sin under the right circumstances. This is why the Bible teaches in Proverbs 4:23, "Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life." Protect your heart (which is your subconscious mind).

Oh be carefully little eyes what you see,
for the Father up above is looking down in love,
Oh be careful little eyes what you see.

Oh be carefully little ears what you hear,
for the Father up above is looking down in love,
Oh be careful little ears what you hear.

Oh be carefully little feet what you go,
for the Father up above is looking down in love,
Oh be careful little feet what you go.

The hardest thing in life is to forgive yourself. God invites the vilest sinner to come and reason with Him. Literally, God offers complete forgiveness to anyone through faith in Christ Jesus. Isaiah 1:18, "Come now, and let us reason together, saith the LORD: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool." The blood of Jesus cleanses deeper than the darkest stains of sin. Revelation 1:5, "And from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful witness, and the first begotten of the dead, and the prince of the kings of the earth. Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood." Hebrews 10:19, "Having therefore, brethren, boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jesus." If it weren't for the precious redeeming blood of Jesus Christ, we'd all go straight to Hell to burn forever!

God will forgive you, even if people don't. That's why king David said in Psalms 51:4, "Against thee, thee only, have I sinned, and done this evil in thy sight: that thou mightest be justified when thou speakest, and be clear when thou judgest." If you've been forgiven by God, washed in the blood of Jesus through His sacrifice on the cross, keep your head up. Colossians 1:20, "And, having made peace through the blood of his cross, by him to reconcile all things unto himself; by him, I say, whether they be things in earth, or things in heaven." What a precious Savior!!!

Capital Punishment is Biblical

I heard about two thug burglars, rapists and mass-murderers in Connecticut, who raped and murdered two teenage girls and the mother in 2007, murdering all three of them. The killer had a younger accomplice. They tormented the father, cracking his skull open with a baseball bat, nearly killing him. The surviving father was on Oprah and other national media, painfully sharing his nightmare. The older of the two assailants apologized to the family of the dead victims in court and said that "forgiveness is not mine to have." That man is very wrong! Forgiveness is his to have FROM GOD ALMIGHTY if he'll receive Christ's payment on the cross for his sins and believe in the resurrected Christ! This in no way diminishes the awfulness of their inexplicable evil deeds. They should have been executed long ago, but they likely never will be because of America's liberal, leftist, unbiblical, laws.

We live in a faithless society. In an attempt to spare his client the death penalty, I heard the younger assailant's attorney say that executing him would end his punishment. The attorney reasoned that locking the man away for a life sentence will force him to suffer behind bars for the rest of his earthly life, which he thinks is better than just executing him. Biblically, that is all wrong.

First, the Bible teaches capital punishment (the death penalty), and when men disobey God, there's always consequences. Ecclesiastes 8:11, "Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil." If murderers were executed in the United States, then these two men very likely would have been deterred from committing these awful crimes. Is it any wonder why America's crime rate is so high and our prisons are filled to double their capacity? The rich executives who own the prison system profit handsomely from keeping prisoners locked up instead of executing them as the Holy Bible commands. Prisons have become a lucrative trillion-dollar profitable industry. Those attackers should both receive the death penalty, but our ungodly legal system won't obey God by exercising justice. The older assailant was given the death penalty, but he appealed it, which according the news reports will likely take 25 years to happen. There is little justice in America!

Second, the attorney assumes that God doesn't punish evildoers in eternity. Hebrews 10:31, "It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God." Hebrews 9:27, "And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment." Matthew 10:28, "And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell." It is wrong to keep criminals worthy of the death penalty alive, allegedly to make them suffer more, when God Himself is waiting in eternity to deal with them. So by keeping these two men alive, the hearts of other youth won't have any deterrent not to burglarize, rape and murder other families! Oh, how foolish are men not to obey God's Holy Word.

It brings tears to my eyes when I think about the poor surviving father/husband. What kind of Christmas do you think he has each year? I doubt if the murdered family's victims will ever forgive those monsters. I can certainly understand why they wouldn't want to forgive. Do you know what forgiveness is? It is looking to God by faith and releasing our hatred for those who've hurt us, knowing that God will judge all men for their every thought, word and deed (Ecclesiastes 12:14).

The U.S. Supreme Court removed the Holy Bible and prayer from our nation's classrooms in 1963. It's not that hard to figure out folks why atrocities like this are happening. God will not be mocked. We are a Godless nation today! Brother Lester Roloff was the biggest blessing America's youth ever had through The Roloff Homes for troubled youth. Only God knows how many thousands of young thugs, criminals, prostitutes, burglars, rapists, atheists and troubled youth were saved and turned around into decent and respectable citizens by the power of Jesus Christ. The Roloff Homes were a Godsend, but the wicked state government shut them down. I cannot comprehend how hot Hell will be for those who've harmed thousands of children by stopping Brother Roloff from helping our nation's troubled youth.

You see, the Illuminati want to destroy our youth, evidenced by the kooks, queers and sickos in the music industry that [1]target our youth with perversion of every sort . Evidenced by the indoctrination of innocent children with the satanic lies of Evolution. Did you ever wonder why they don't teach morality, courtship and marriage to our youth in the schools? It's because there can be no morality without the Holy Bible. Truly, [2]We Americans Get What We Deserve!

God Chastises His Children When They Hurt Others

1st Thessalonians 4:6, "That no man go beyond and defraud his brother in any matter: because that the Lord is the avenger of all such, as we also have fore-warned you and testified." You can rest assure in knowing that God never lets anyone slide. Romans 2:11 teaches that God is not a respecter of persons. There is no favoritism with God. You're either saved or unsaved. If your unsaved, God will judge you according to your works (Revelation 20:11-15). If you are saved, God will still judge you according to your works, but He won't send you to Hell to be punished for them (2nd Corinthians 5:9-11).

Although the believer cannot go to Hell, we can and will be chastised of the Lord. The unsaved dead will be judged by God the Father, because they rejected the Son of God. However, Jesus Christ will be the believer's Judge in eternity, Who paid for our sins with His precious blood. Isn't that great that our dear Savior will also be our Judge? 1st Corinthians 11:31-32, "For if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged. But when we are judged, we are chastened of the Lord, that we should not be condemned with the world." Knowing this truth should compel us to let trespasses against us go into God's omnipotent hands. Since God chastises those who do wrong, we can let the matter go for now, knowing that The Judgment Seat of Christ is coming for all believers, and The Great White Throne of Judgment for the lost.

A Lesson From the Life of Joseph

Consider the Old Testament true story of Joseph, whose jealous and wicked half-brothers threw him into a pit, and then he was carried away and sold into slavery in Egypt. Twenty years later God sends a famine to the whole land, forcing the brothers to travel down to Egypt for food. Long story short from Genesis, when Joseph's brothers find out that the brother they betrayed is now the most powerful man in Egypt next to Pharaoh, they get scared. They told Joseph they would be his slaves...

> Genesis 50:18-20, "And his brethren also went and fell down before his face; and they said, Behold, we be thy servants. And Joseph said unto them, Fear not: for am I in the place of God? But as for you, ye thought evil against me; but God meant it unto good, to bring to pass, as it is this day, to save much people alive."

Ah, but notice how Joseph beautifully expresses God's unconditional love for them, letting them know that he is not in God's place to judge them. Joseph says, "AM I IN THE PLACE OF GOD?" Joseph could have had them all executed just because he wanted to. He could have sold them all into slavery, treating them just as horribly as they did to him twenty years earlier. Joseph was separated from his father for all those years because of his rotten half brothers. He could have taken vengeance upon them for breaking their father's heart. Joseph had a hundred justifiable reasons to hate his brothers and murder them!!! Yet, we learn a great lesson concerning forgiveness from Joseph, and see the dear Savior exemplified by Joseph's willingness to forgive.

We learn three things from the story of Joseph about forgiveness:

1. Joseph didn't seek vengeance against his brothers for betraying and hurting him.
2. Joseph released the offense into God's omnipotent and omniscient hands for judgment.
3. Joseph spiritually discerned how God was able to use his personal suffering to help and bless others.

The most important thing to realize is that Joseph understood the Biblical truth that GOD IS THE JUDGE OF ALL MEN.

Joseph was able to give place to his wrath by understanding that God is the Judge of all humanity. If Joseph's ten brothers were in trouble, they were in trouble with God. If anyone was going to judge them, it was going to be God.

Please understand that forgiveness is NOT an emotion, it is NOT excusing someone, it is NOT forgetting. Forgiveness is placing a matter into God's hands for judgment, trusting that the Lord knows what is best.

Jesus said in Matthew 12:36, "But I say unto you, That every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment." God holds us accountable even for the words that we speak.

Proverbs 24:12, "If thou sayest, Behold, we knew it not; doth not he that pondereth the heart consider it? and he that keepeth thy soul, doth not he know it? and shall not he render to every man according to his works?" God reserves the eternal right and power to judge all mankind because only God knows every thought and intent of the mind and heart. Hebrews 4:13, "Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do." Understanding these Scripture passages helps the Christian believer to forgive, knowing that everything ultimately falls into God's holy, just and righteous hands.

Matthew 10:30 says that God knows the very number of hairs on your head. Do you really think God doesn't see the mean person trying to get under your skin at work, or the hypocritical person at church gossiping about you, or the family member who resents you, or the thieves who stole your car last year? God sees everything. Proverbs 5:21, "For the ways of man are before the eyes of the LORD, and he pondereth all his goings." Proverbs 15:3, "The eyes of the LORD are in every place, beholding the evil and the good."

The most important thing is how we treat others. "THE GOLDEN RULE" is taught in Matthew 7:12, "Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets."

If you believe the Bible that God is the Judge of all men, then you can place all wrongs into His hands, instead of carrying those mountainous burdens upon yourself. I choose to continually place everything in my life into God's hands through prayer, so that I can continually claim the promise from God that "the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus" (Philippians 4:6-7).

Luke 7:47-48, " Wherefore I say unto thee, Her sins, which are many, are forgiven; for she loved much: but to whom little is forgiven, the same loveth little. And he said unto her, Thy sins are forgiven." My friend, if you have ever been forgiven of much sins, as I have, then you will be compelled to love much and forgive everyone. The truth is that we are all horrible sinners, but most Christians fail to see their sinfulness. I recently heard a Christian man at church say that he has "never sinned really bad" in his life. Oh, yes he has, he just doesn't realize it. Won't you join me at the feet of Jesus, washing His precious feet with our tears?

There is nothing in this world that anyone could ever do to hurt me, but that I would forgive them, for I have been forgiven of so much in Christ. Don't judge others because they sin differently than you do! We are all sinners. 1st Timothy 5:24, "Some men's sins are open beforehand, going before to judgment; and some men they follow after." My dear friend, you'll never know true joy and peace in life until you learn to forgive everyone with God's love. Jesus is precious!

5.7.3 The Worst Part About Going To Hell (2024-07-04 09:59)

2nd Thessalonians 1:8-9, "In flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ: Who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power."

The Bible says in our text passage of Scripture that when a person dies in their sins without having obeyed the Gospel, God takes vengeance upon them with flaming fire in Hell. This is not just fire, but "flaming" fire. The Greek word for flaming is "phlox," which means: "(to 'flash' or 'flame'); a blaze." It means a strong fire that burns intensely, producing intense heat and smoke. Revelation 14:11, "And the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night..." Yet, in lieu of clear Biblical evidence that Hell is a literal place of intense fire, burning and torment, foolish people dismiss it as a fable.

Look again at our text Scripture. Interestingly, the word "PUNISHED" wasn't placed in front of God taking out His vengeance upon the wicked with flaming fire; but rather, the PUNISHMENT will be perpetual ruin "FROM THE PRESENCE OF THE LORD." The worst part about Hell is not what you will GET, but what you DIDN'T GET! The worst part about Hell, will be the agony of knowing that you could have had a blessed eternal existence, in the presence of the best friend a human being could ever want, God Himself. People in Hell this moment are miserable, knowing that they rejected an omnipotent Savior Who wanted to give them everything to make them happy. Romans 8:32, "He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things?"

A precious promise in the Bible is that God Himself will live among the saints in Heaven. There will be no more hunger, no pain, no thirst, no suffering and no health afflictions. Despite our abundance of food in America, many Christian believers in third-world countries don't have enough food. In Haiti, people commonly mix dirt and salt with cooking oil to form mud pies to survive. We are so spoiled in America! Whereas adversity built our once great nation, prosperity has ruined America. Albeit, the Bible teaches that in Heaven, there will be no shortage of water or food for anyone. Jesus Himself will provide our every need as believers.

God will wipe away every tear. Notice in the following precious passage of Scripture that it doesn't merely say there won't be any more tears; but rather, God Himself shall WIPE AWAY our tears. God is going to console and befriend us, personally and compassionately wiping our tears away. Revelation 7:15-17, "Therefore are they before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple: and he that sitteth on the throne shall dwell among them. They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; neither shall the sun light on them, nor any heat. For the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters: and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes."

The worst part about Hell is that you won't be able to live with God in Heaven. You'll have no one to wipe away your tears. You will be in eternal mental anguish, alone and destitute without any hope. What a terrifying thought. If you are foolish and wicked enough to brush aside the Bible's warning of an eternal Hell for all Christ-rejecters, then you will have no one to blame but yourself when you go there! 2nd Timothy 2:13, "If we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself." Luke 24:25, "Then he [Jesus] said unto them, O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken." I believe, do you?

When all the foolish Christ-rejecters suffering in Hell, see all the wonderful blessings that they could have had, but willingly forfeited and will never enjoy, they will weep in bitter tears of sorrow, gnashing their teeth in regret. Luke 13:28, "There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when ye shall see Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, and all the prophets, in the kingdom of God, and you yourselves thrust out." And carefully notice from this passage that people who go to Hell have the ability to cry, feel and gnash their teeth. I read one Bible teacher's commentary concerning the statement, "Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched" (mentioned three times in Mark 9:44-48). He suggested that one possible interpretation is that people who go to Hell are turned into worms. He cited a scientific article about sea worms being found in volcanic vents on the ocean floor. Now I disagree with his exegesis, because as we just read in Luke 13:28, sinners in Hell will gnash THEIR TEETH (and worms don't have teeth). Worms don't cry. Worms don't wail. I'm not critiquing the man's exegesis, not at all, I'm just giving you my exegesis.

How does all the blessings promised by God to the righteous, compare to the Christ-rejecter's fate in the Lake of Fire? How does Heaven's happiness compare to Hell's hardships? Woe unto the wicked! Unrepentant sinners who die in their unbelief will be punished with separation from God for all eternity. Oh, my friend, please don't go to Hell. Billions of fools will one day weep in bitter tears of horror, as they behold the intense flames of the Lake of Fire where they will spend eternity, and realize that they could have had eternal blessing, happiness and the most wonderful heavenly family imaginable—all for free through faith in the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ. Millions of fools will look around for their atheist hero when they die, George Carlin. They'll look and see him bowing his knees and confessing that Jesus Christ is Lord, and then he'll be cast into the Lake of Fire forever. ...

> Philippians 2:9-11, "Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name: That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth; And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father."

The worst part about being in HELL is not being in HEAVEN. The most painful part about being in Hell with NOTHING, will be knowing that you could have had EVERYTHING. The most horrible part about being in the Lake of Fire with the DEVIL (who lived to ruin you), will be knowing that you could have spent eternity with JESUS (Who died to save you). Hell will be awful. Hell is a literal place of fire, torment, outer darkness and a bottomless pit; but the worst part about going to Hell is realizing day-and-night that YOU COULD HAVE ENJOYED ALL OF THE BLESSINGS OF GOD FOR FREE in Christ Jesus!!!

One hard thing that most people learn as they grow older, is that life has a way of taking away the things that you worked so hard to earn in your youth. As many people have painfully learned, you spend the last half of your life losing all the wealth that you spent the first half earning. Ah, but there is one way to obtain sweet revenge against the whole corrupt system in America, and that is to take the Lord's good advice in Matthew 6:19-20, "Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal: But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal." I have decided to spend the rest of my earthly life investing all my time and effort into eternity, for the sake of the Lord Jesus Christ and the Gospel. Why amass treasures in this world, when you cannot take one penny with you into eternity? [1]INVEST FOR ETERNITY!!!

I don't claim to understand it all, but we read in the Bible that people in Hell can see into Heaven. Luke 13:28, "There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when ye shall see Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, and all the prophets, in the kingdom of God, and you yourselves thrust out." People in Hell will be able to see what they could have had, and it will cause them to weep, wail and grit their teeth together with inexplicable anguish and excruciating mental horror. The realization that they fool-heartedly rejected an incredibly loving, patient, generous, caring and compassionate God, Who wanted to be their best friend, will burn in their mind forever. Whereas they could have dwelt with God, and enjoyed the pure water from the river of life in Heaven (Revelation 22:1); they won't be allowed to have even a single drop of water to cool their intolerable thirst (Luke 16:19-31).

The worst part about going to Hell will be knowing that you could have had it all, but you rejected Jesus Christ as your personal Savior. People spend their earthly life laying up temporary treasures and security, while not giving any consideration to eternity, which lasts forever and ever. The world is filled with thousands of billionaires and millions of millionaires, 99 % of whom will spend eternity burning in Hell without Christ. You can have all the money, fame and pleasures that this sinful world has to offer, just give me Jesus Christ!!! I wrote this article because I want you to enjoy Heaven with me. If you're reading this, it's not too late. God will save you, no matter what evil things you have done. Jesus died for the vilest sinner, because God loves YOU!

5.7.4 If Ye Have Faith As A Grain Of Mustard Seed (2024-07-04 17:25)

Matthew 17:19-20, "Then came the disciples to Jesus apart, and said, Why could not we cast him out? And Jesus said unto them, Because of your unbelief: for verily I say unto you, If ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place; and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible unto you."

Jesus told the disciples that the reason why they could cast the demon out of the child was because of their lack of faith. Then the Lord said that if they had even the tiniest degree of faith, God would move mountains for them. Do you know what that means? It means that the disciples didn't have any faith at all. They didn't even pray in the matter.

One of my favorite truths in the inspired Word of God is found in Acts 12. In versus 1 and 2 we read that wicked Herod had already murdered the Apostle James, cutting his head off like John the Baptist. In Acts 12:3-15 we read that when Herod saw how glad the wicked Jews were to see James executed, he decided to murder the Apostle Peter too. So, the Christians began to pray earnestly to God for Peter to be delivered from certain death.

God did answer their prayer and sent angels to rescue Peter. While they were singing hymns on death row, the chains and shackles fell off and the prison doors swung open from a great earthquake. Peter had been delivered from prison and imminent death, by the Lord in answer to the prayers of the saints!!!

Now carefully read the disturbing response of the saints, were when they learned that Peter had been rescued from prison and was knocking at their front door...

> Acts 12:13-15, "And as Peter knocked at the door of the gate, a damsel came to hearken, named Rhoda. And when she knew Peter's voice, she opened not the gate for gladness, but ran in, and told how Peter stood before the gate. And they said unto her, Thou art mad. But she constantly affirmed that it was even so. Then said they, It is his angel."

They said, "You're crazy Rhoda!" While they were in the very act of praying, and learned that God had answered their prayers, they had so little faith in God that they were in total disbelief and denial when He answered them. This is so encouraging!!! It means that even when we doubt God, He may still answer our prayers simply because we had enough faith to pray and ask Him for something. "

Prayer is asking,

as Evangelist John R. Rice (1895-1980) used to often say. They prayed and God answered.

I don't know about you friend, but that encourages me to keep praying to God about everything. Who knows if the Lord will answer. I admit that most of my prayers throughout my Christian life have gone unanswered. I have been praying for God to find me a wife for over 15 years, but the Lord for whatever good reason hasn't answered that prayer. I trust the Lord. God is good and everything that He does is right. I may die a lonely man but, "T he Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want

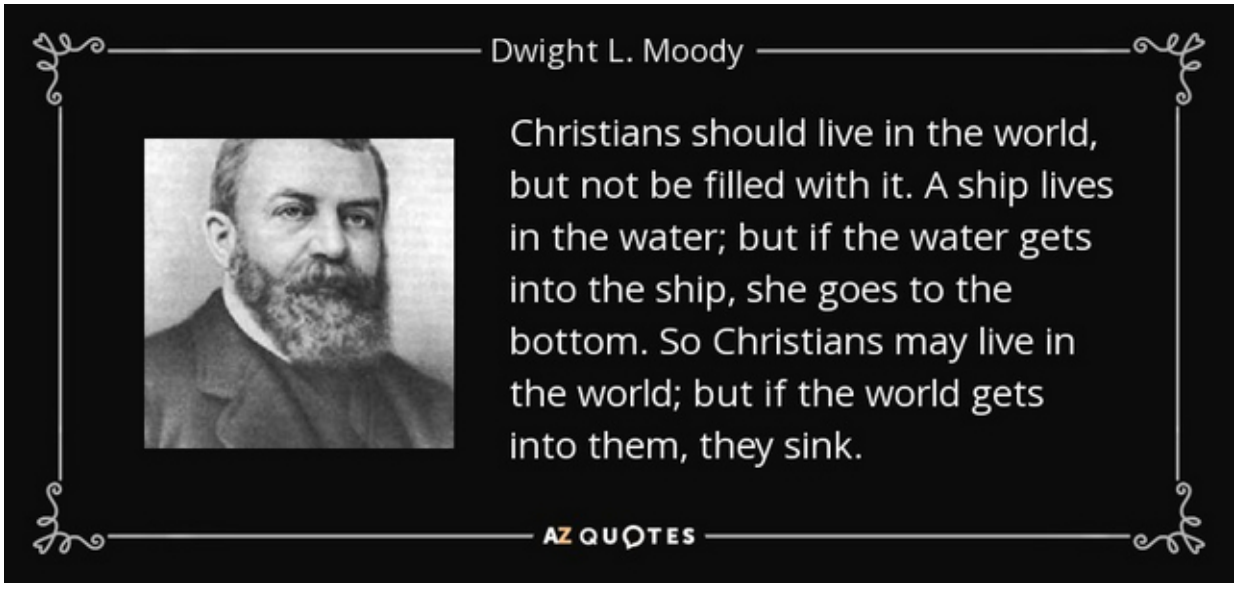
In the Old Testament, when King Nebuchadnezzar erected a Golden Obelisk 90 feet tall and 9 feet wide (the same occultic ratio as The Washington Monument), Meshack, Shadrach and Abednego all courageously refused to bow down to worship the wicked king's golden image.



> Daniel 3:16-18, "Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, answered and said to the king, O Nebuchadnezzar, we are not careful to answer thee in this matter. If it be so, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and he will deliver us out of thine hand, O king. But if not, be it known unto thee, O king, that we will not serve thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up."

I absolutely love those three words, "But if now." They had enough faith to proclaim that their true and living God would deliver them from being thrown alive into the fiery furnace, BUT IF NOT, they said that at least everyone would know they had refused to worship a false god, an idol. Thankfully, God did deliver them!

The ungodly king had ordered his soldiers to turn up the intensity of the furnace seven times hotter. In fact, the Bible says it was so hot, that the soldiers who cast the three Hebrew young men into the furnace were consumed by fire themselves and died. Yet, not a hair on their head was cinched, nor did they have any smell of smoke or being burned when they exited the furnace. The Bible says that the kind didn't see three, but four men in the fire, and the fourth was like unto the Son of God. The lesson dear reader is simply that when God's children are going through the fire, Jesus is in the fire with us, faithfully standing right by our side.

What precious Bible truths! Dear friend, have faith in God in 2024!

5.7.5 What Is That In Thine Hand? (2024-07-07 10:33)

Exodus 4:2, "And the LORD said unto him, What is that in thine hand? And he said, A rod."

You can identify religious churches by the corrupt Bible versions they allow, use and refuse to expose. My friends, it is no light thing that greedy and unholy hands have butchered the Word of God for money. Please don't take my word for it, read for yourself. Take Biblica for example, the company that translated (and still translates, regularly making new changes to) the New International Version (NIV). Kindly, here's a brief quote from their website...

> "Every change to the NIV must be thoroughly vetted — and changing the text isn't easy. In order to become part of the NIV, a change must receive the support of at least 70 percent of the translation team.
> Such a high threshold among a denominationally diverse team of scholars helps to protect the NIV from agendas, bias, and outside influence — ensuring that any changes are backed by the very best biblical scholarship.
>
> The result of such a rigorous translation process? A Bible you can trust, now and in the future."
> SOURCE: [1]Translation Process — Biblica

What you've just read is a big bunch of bullcrap! What Biblica will never tell you is that their NIV is based upon the Alexandrian, Egypt, manuscripts (allegedly older and more reliable than our beloved Textus Receptus from which the King James Bible was translated). The manuscripts for the Textus Receptus originated in Antioch, Syria. The King James translators were challenged with having to sift through literally thousands of ancient manuscripts, trying to decide which ones were authored by God, and which ones were manmade to deceive people.

The King James Bible translators noticed that the majority of the manuscripts agreed, which become known as the "Majority Text" (or the "Received Text," aka, Textus Receptus), and they recognized that God had safeguarded His Words in the majority of the manuscripts. The stray dogs (clearly manmade deceptions) were rejected. The NIV is based upon some stray dog manuscripts!!!

> [2]The Hidden History Of The English Scriptures (an excellent .PDF book by [3]Dr. Gail Riplinger)

So you see, you really cannot trust your NIV as Biblica claims! If you'll take the time to [4]compare Bible translations, you'll find that the NIV savagely attacks the doctrines of the deity of Jesus Christ and the Godhead. The word "godhead" is completely removed in Acts 17:29, Romans 1:20 and Colossians 2:9, which is every passage in the Bible mentioning the word). Instead they call God the "divine nature," which is exactly what the Antichrist is going to worship, that is, "the God of forces" (Daniel 11:38). New Age portrays God as an energy force permeating the universe, the god force within us, teaching that all men can attain personal godhood through occult enlightenment (such as Kabballah, Freemasonry, Mormonism, Rosicrucianism, et cetera). In reality, these satanic deceptions are a substitute for the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ! Please read, [5]Occult Roots Of The Modern Bible Versions.

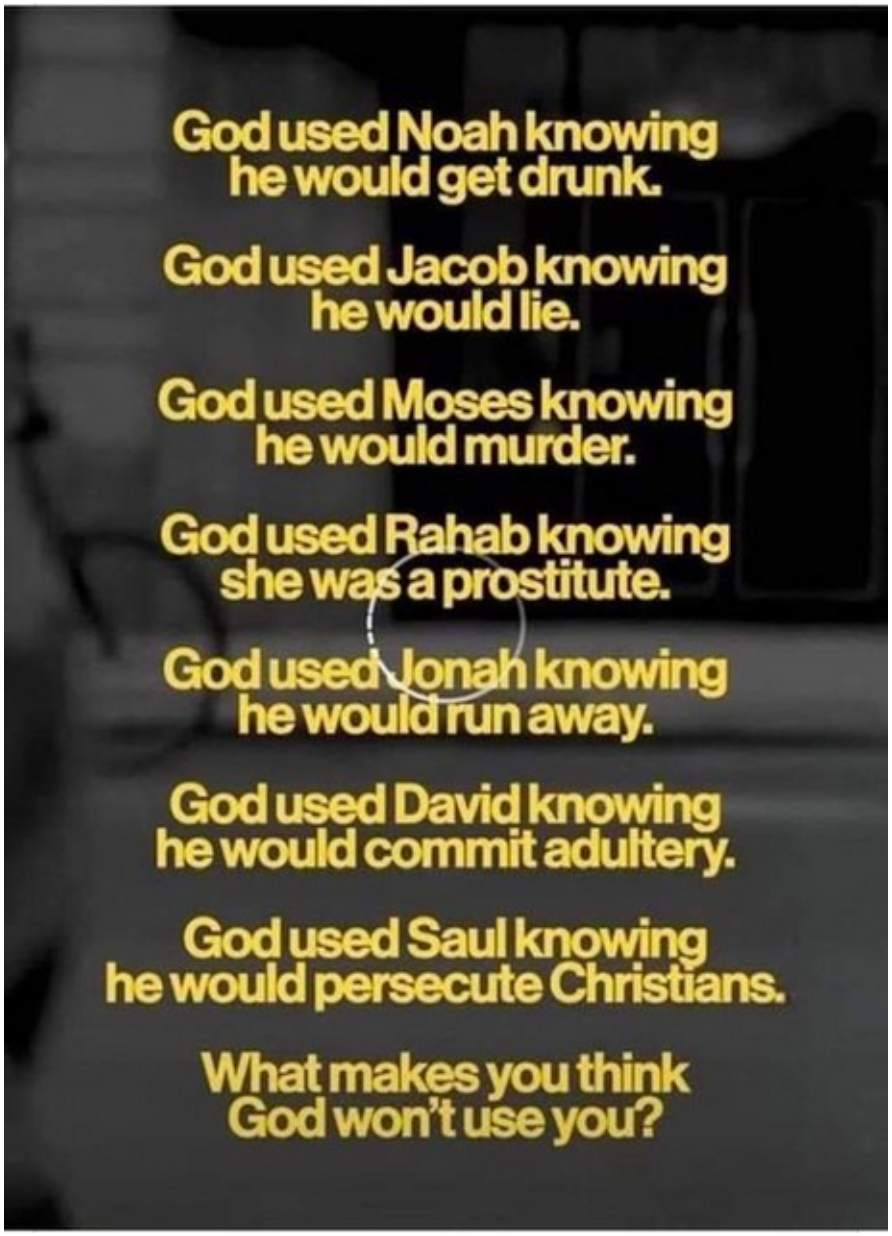
If your pastor(s) don't care about this issue and prefer rather to continue using a occult inspired fake translation, then you seriously need to get out of that place and go find a legitimate local New Testament Church that hasn't been corrupted and deceived. The Holy Bible is our spiritual food and meat, and if that food supply becomes tainted and poisoned, then you're going to get spiritual food poisoning.

Our churches today are absolutely overrun with sick saints and spiritual miscarriages who never got saved at all, because of the damnable influence of the lie of these so-called "[6]easy-to-read" Bible versions!!! Jumping out of an airplane without a parachute will help get you to the ground faster, but at what expense? As is typical with the Devil, he has once again cleverly hidden a lie between two truths to deceive people.

- TRUTH: The newer Bible versions are easier to read.
- TRUTH: There were over 100 so-called "experts" involved.
- LIE: You can trust the NIV.

If you'll take a look back to the earlier quote I provided from Biblica, you'll notice that they invited representatives from umpteen different religious denominations to get involved with butchering God's Word. They claim the reason was to prevent sectarian bias (religious prejudice), but I say the real reason was to increase the marketability of the NIV.

In the 2011 NIV, Biblica have changed the content of their Bible version 38.8 % as compared to the 1984 NIV!!! Yet, Biblica claims (in the quote I gave you earlier) that it is not easy to change their Bible version. What a sham! It sure seems easy from the statistics! Has God's Word changed that much in 30 years? No, not at all, but American society has changed 38.8 % over the past 30 years, becoming queer as can be, which is why the NIV has turned their Bible version into [7]a religious lesbian's feminist dream come true.



I wrote this article to bring attention to the spiritual disease in our churches today of INDIFFERENCE!!! Most pastors are shamefully going along to get along with apostate mainstream evangelical circles, avoiding the controversial Bible version debate, lest they become theological outcastes and be labeled as being in that dreaded "King James Bible only cult!" Brother, I would 10,000 times rather be in some alleged King James Bible only cult than to unwittingly be sucked into using and supporting an occult Bible version translated by occultists for Satan. Awake to righteousness! I speak this to your shame! 1st Corinthians 15:34, "Awake to righteousness, and sin not; for some have not the knowledge of God: I speak this to your shame."

> "I've been preaching a long time, and I've watched a lot of things happen. To me the saddest thing that I've watched in my life, apart from my own country going to the > Devil nearly, has been the change of preachers and churches. I find myself amazed and stunned with near disbelief, as I see men who once stood who don't stand anymore ... I know every week I cry some, I mean cry, I mean tear cry, because of preachers who are turning."

> SOURCE: Pastor Jack Hyles, from the 1972 sermon titled,[8] I SHALL NOT BE MOVED

You can identify today's spiritually lifeless churches by the lack of hard-preaching from the pulpit. You can spot these lukewarm churches by the woeful absence of aggressively contending for the faith. Brother, if people don't think you're crazy, you're not living right for God. Most churches today have spiritually malnourished members. Good luck finding a soul-winning program of any sort. You likely won't hear any preaching that warns sinners of imminent Hell, fire and damnation. We've got a bunch of wimpy churches today!!!

Jeremiah 5:5, “

I will get me unto the great men, and will speak unto them; for they have known the way of the LORD, and the judgment of their God: but these have altogether broken the yoke, and burst the bonds.

My all-time favorite Bible preacher is Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001). Dr. Hyles was truly a great and godly man. He was a good man as far as sinful men go.

I was thinking today about something Brother Hyles said in a sermon that amazed me about his goodness. He said that over the years several of his church members (in the First Baptist Church of Hammond, Indiana) came to his office and asked him to cosign for their loan.

All banks and lending institutions require that someone who asks for a loan have a cosigner. That means if you fail to repay your loan, the person who cosigned is legally obligated to repay the loan. If they don’t pay it, their credit will be ruined and likely taken to court by the lender. Pastor Hyles said that he got burned on $50,000 worth of unpaid loans that church members had asked him to cosign for. That makes me angry when rotten people do that to others. If you ask someone to vouch for your character by cosigning for your loan, and then you drop the ball and fail to repay what you borrowed, that person has to sacrifice for your wickedness.

Just to show you how awesome Pastor Hyles was as a friend to his church members, not once did he ever ask anyone why they didn’t repay their loans, he just paid it for them. Dr. Hyles lost $50,000 because of the dishonesty of others!!! That is ’[1]A Friend at Midnight’ (a life changing sermon by Pastor Hyles). Brother Hyles said the reason why he just repaid the loans without confronting the people who didn’t repay their debts, is simply because he loved them as his church members and didn’t want to risk losing them over money. What an awesome pastor and true friend!!!

Having said that, although it is not a sin to cosign for others, it is unwise. God gave us the Old Testament book of Proverbs to give us wisdom to live. I was listening to [2]Alexander Scourby this morning read the Proverbs . I noticed that he repeatedly mentioned having to deal with a horrible loud-mouthed woman. Proverbs 21:9, " It is better to dwell in a corner of the housetop, than with a brawling woman in a wide house." Proverbs 25:24, " It is better to dwell in the corner of the housetop, than with a brawling woman and in a wide house. " With 700 wives and 300 concubines, Solomon must have witnessed countless nasty cat-fights erupting between his one thousand women. I have no doubt that they fought like cats and dogs! I humbly believe that Solomon is writing from his own painful experiences when he warns about being trapped in a house with a brawling woman on the warpath.

Getting back to the main point in this blog, King Solomon warns about cosigning (i.e., becoming surety) for someone else.

Proverbs 6:1-2, "My son, if thou be surety for thy friend, if thou hast stricken thy hand with a stranger, Thou art snared with the words of thy mouth, thou art taken with the words of thy mouth."

Whenever you vouch legally for someone else's loan, you are taking a great risk upon you. Solomon warns that you will be sorry. Proverbs 11:15, "He that is surety for a stranger shall smart for it: and he that hateth suretiship is sure." People still haven't changed in 3,000 years! The very fact that a person needs to secure a loan for money, already shows that they have money issues.

I humbly believe that Dr. Hyles fully anticipated he might end up repaying those $50,000 worth of loans. I believe the only time you should ever cosign for someone, is if you are perfectly okay with having to fully repay the loan and lose all that money. If you are not willing to take a large loss, then you ought not cosign for anyone, and you're a fool if you do because YOU WILL GET SCREWED. Proverbs 17:18, "A man void of understanding striketh hands, and becometh surety in the presence of his friend."

I have never, and never ever will, cosign for anyone!!! I've had web visitors beg me for money for other people, but I never do it. On Facebook, I immediately unfriend anybody who asks for money, or tries to sell something on my Facebook page. I hate covetousness and greed! I get sick of seeing Renee Roland and Matthew Gordon Correll (aka, JackSmack77) continually beg for PayPal donations on YouTube for all their videos. I have never taken a penny for all my website ministry labors since 2002. I do what I do for Jesus Christ alone (2nd Corinthians 5:20-21). My full reward is in Heaven. You can keep your money, I don't want it. Our nation's first U.S. President George Washington refused to take a salary. So also did President Donald Trump refuse to take a salary, he gave it away to charity.

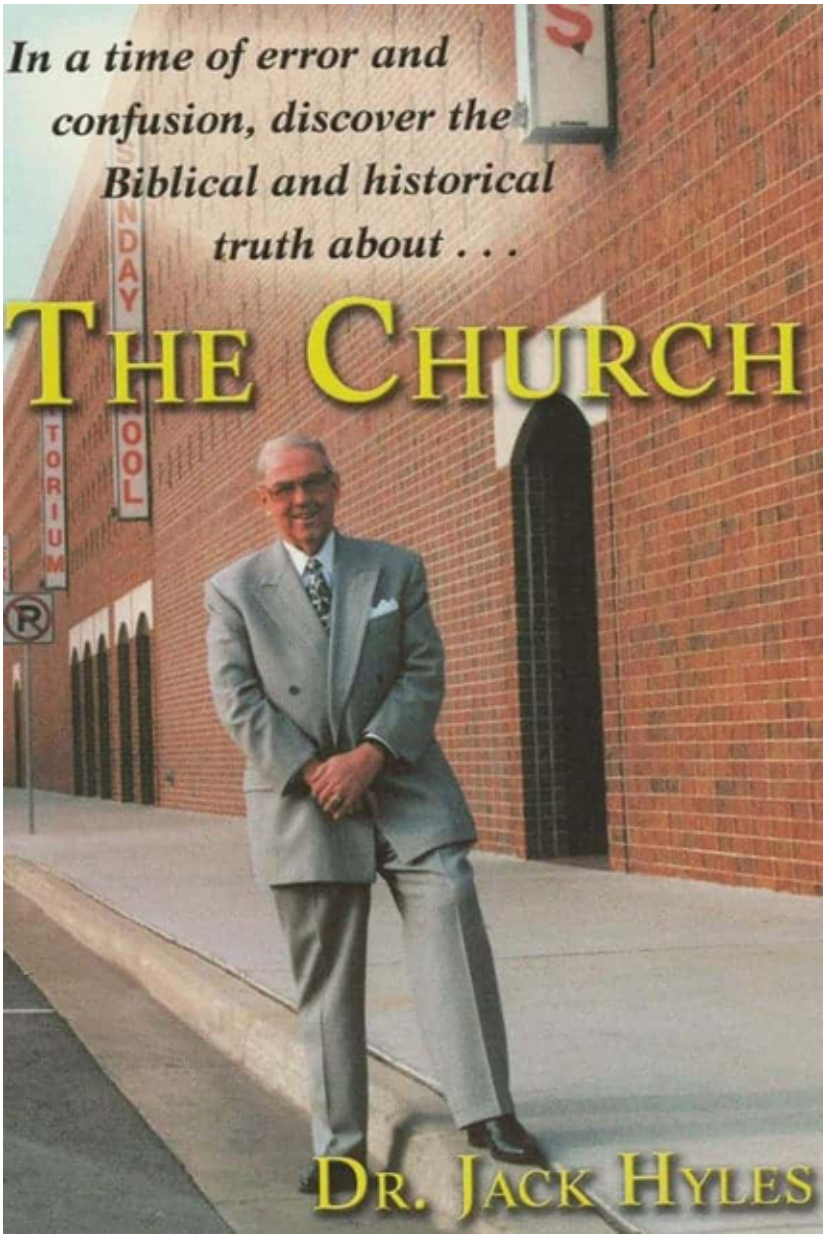
There are some ungodly fools on social media who slander Pastor Jack Hyles, but they don't know what their talking about. They've never met him, as I did. They didn't have the privilege of shaking his warm hand and counseling with him, as I did in 1993. They didn't have the blessed honor to sit under Dr. Hyles' preaching an serve in his soulwinning ministry, but I thankfully did. I attended and graduated from Hyles-Anderson College in 1993, after 8 long sacrificial years of hard work and struggle to earn my degree in Pastoral Theology. I literally earned my degree with my own physical blood, sweat and tears. I am so grateful for it all.

Dr. Hyles wisely taught me that the foundation of gratuity is the expectation of nothing. That is, if you expect nothing, then you'll be grateful for everything. I am just thankful to wake up each morning, so anything more than that is a bonus for which I am grateful to God. I receive quite a few emails from miserable saints. Their problem is that they choose to focus on the wrong things in life, instead of focusing on all the blessings and goodness of God. Romans 2:4, "Or despisest thou the riches of his goodness and forbearance and longsuffering; not knowing that the goodness of God leadeth thee to repentance?"

Carefully notice that the Bible identifies an unthankful spirit as the root cause of man's rebellion. Romans 1:21, "Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened." People are not thankful because they are happy, they are happy because they are thankful. The foundation of gratitude is the expectation of nothing. Lower your expectations to zero and you'll be happy every day.

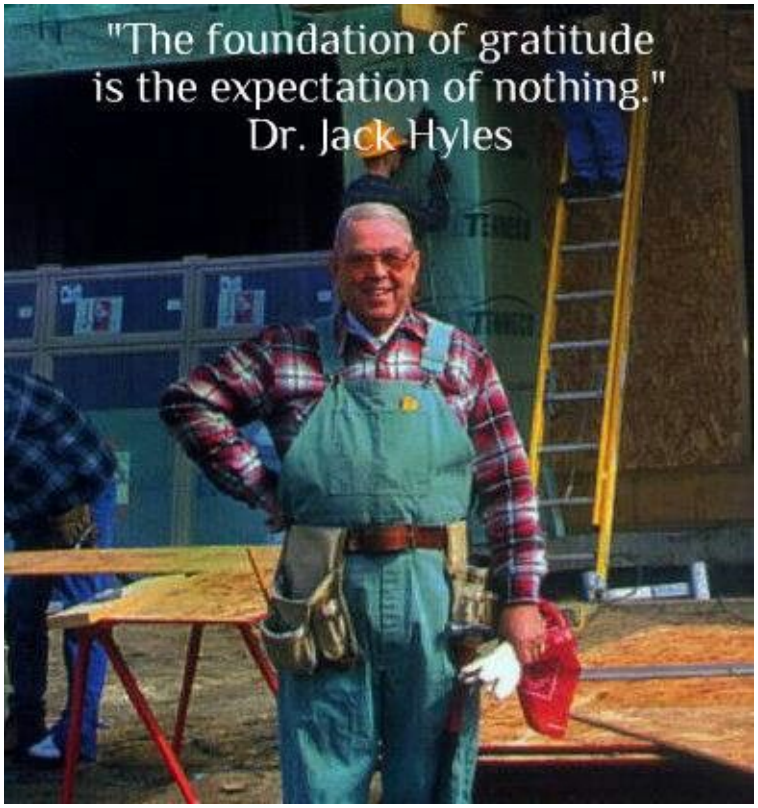
Pastor Hyles was a happy man in his old age, because he was faithful to do what he was supposed to do for God throughout his life. Pastor Hyles was the first to admit imperfection, and confess that he had feet of clay, but Brother Hyles died a happy man in the Lord at age 74. Listen to the sermon: '[3]A Good Old Age,' by Dr. Hyles. You'll hear jealous critics and hateful neo-evangelicals slandering Pastor Hyles, but you'll never hear them talk about how he generously paid $50,000 in unpaid loans for church members who burned him.

I'll give you another example of Dr. Hyles' greatness. One of the men on his church staff came to him with a proposal, to save the church hundreds of thousands of dollars. The proposal was to switch to a different insurance company that offered a cheaper premium. Dr. Hyles rebuked his staff member, reminding him that in the 1960's an arsonist deliberately set fire to the old First Baptist Church of Hammond (FBCH) auditorium and burned it to the ground. The insurance company stood by the church and build a brand new church auditorium.



Pastor Hyles informed his staff member that the insurance company suffered a gigantic loss, because they were honest to honor the insurance and stand by the church in her time of need. So, Dr. Hyles felt it was only ethical for FBCH to stand by the insurance company, so that they could over the decades try to recoup their losses. I love that about Brother Hyles!!! He wasn't short-sighted to only care about saving money for the church. He had empathy to put himself as a businessman in the shoes of the insurance company that lost millions of dollars. Dr. Hyles told his staff member who wanted to change insurance companies to save money, "The insurance company stood by us, and now we're going to stand by them!"

How many pastors today would care at all about helping an insurance company recoup their losses? Less than 1 % I guarantee you! Pastor Hyles was a very ethical man, which is how a genuine man who walks with God will behave. We've lost our ethics in the United States. From greedy rental car agencies to shady realtors, from crooked lawyers to incompetent pastors, from dishonest politicians to ungodly insurance companies who find every little reason to deny a claim—Americans have lost their sense of ethics (doing what is right).



Dr. Hyles said that back in the 1940's in Texas, as a well-known pastor he could just walk into any bank in town and obtain a loan with just a handshake and his word. Men had backbone and character back then, and their word was their bond. Today you cannot trust anybody, [4]not even pastors. Wicked people can talk trash all they want, but I know that Pastor Jack Hyles was a great man of financial integrity, personal character, unconditional love and compassion for all people. I sure miss him!

Thank you for reading my blogs.

5.7.7 You're Not a Good Christian Because You Go To Church (2024-07-10 10:04)

Matthew 15:7-9, "Ye hypocrites, well did Esaias prophesy of you, saying, This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips; but their heart is far from me. But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men."

How Religious is Your Church?

Most people will recognize what I'm about to say is true if you've visited different churches. Most churches today are nothing more than an empty shell, going through the motions, lifeless, lacking any youth department and dying (if not dead) as a church. I've been to numerous Catholic services, because I wanted to see firsthand what they are about. The one big thing I noticed is the total lack of the Holy Spirit in the Roman Catholic Church. Their churches are coffins! Since Catholics are not born-again, they don't have the Holy Spirit indwelling them as we do as believers (Romans 8:9). The Catholic church is dead!!!

Tragically, I see that same deadness in many Baptist churches as well. There is no teaching or preaching about the Holy Spirit. There is no warning about Hell, fire and damnation for the unsaved. There is no hard-preaching from the pulpit. There is no concern for lost souls. There is no soul-winning program. The alters are empty at invitation time, if there's an invitation at all. Please read Pastor Harry Ironside's excellent chapter titled, "[1]The Preaching That Produces Repentance," from his great book, "[2]Except Ye Repent." Most churches are fortunate to use the baptistry every 6 months for two saved people. This is because the pulpit is dead!

Ladies and gentleman, we've gotten into the business of religion in our churches. Christianity is about sinners being washed in the blood of Jesus! Christianity is about God dealing in mercy with sinners, and about [3]sinners dealing in mercy with other sinners (MP3 sermon by Dr. Jack Hyles titled, "The Happiest Man"). All this garbage in our Bible colleges these days about entertainment, banquets, pool tables, playing sports and shopping amenities is foreign to Christianity. The Christian life is a war, not a vacation!!! Bible colleges are trying to lure new students by pampering them! I'd rather have 100 students that mean business for God and have to lay off 90 % of my teachers and staff, than dip my sails in sinful compromise, trim my convictions and turn the Bible college into just another run-of-the-mill college to attract worldly students. No Sir, I'd close the doors first!!! We've gone backwards!!!

> "Nobody can love God who doesn't love sinners!" —Dr. Jack Hyles, "[4]The Happiest Man" (happiest is the man who will not impute sin to others!)

I can tell where your church is at spiritually simply by seeing how you respond to the truth. My concern is NOT where a church is at spiritual; but rather, are they willing to bring their views into line with the truth? There's a big, big, difference between an imperfect church verses a church that doesn't want to be perfect. If a church's congregation and pastor are unresponsive, indifferent and nonchalant toward important doctrinal issues; such as, the truth that the literal blood of Jesus Christ is sprinkled upon the mercy seat in Heaven, and the truth that all modern Bible versions have been corrupted by Satan, and the truth that you don't have to surrender to serve God (which is human effort) to be saved, then they have become religious and don't care about truth. If your church rejects these truths, then they have embraced religion rather than truth, and you should look for a caring local New Testament church. Something is spiritually wrong with any pastor who desires to GO ALONG TO GET ALONG!!!

I'm sick and tired of pastors who won't take a stand and don't care about doctrinal issues because they are content just to have a job and make money. No wonder Jesus said that no man can serve God and money (mammon), because he WILL hate the one and love the other (Luke 16:13). The Church is the ground and pillar of THE TRUTH; thus, if a church stops fighting for and upholding the truth, then they have ceased to qualify as a church. Roman Catholicism is not a church! Seventh Day Adventism is not a church. Why? It's because they don't have the truth. Churches that drop the ball concerning truth have become a religious institution instead of a local New Testament church.

A church is not a big building adorned with stained-glass windows, plush-carpeting, padded-pews and a choir. Literally, this is what most churches have deteriorated into. The pastor's function has been diminished to merely performing weddings and funerals. I'm not against those things by themselves, but this is not the purpose of the church. Jesus said in John 4:24 that the Father MUST be worshipped in spirit and truth! Truth seems to be the least important concern in churches today; but it should be our very first concern! Without truth there is no reason for everything else! Our churches need to have a revival concerning their loyalty, attitude and commitment to THE TRUTH!!!

I triple dog dare you to hand Dr. Al Lacy's book titled, "NIV: The Antichrist's Bible" to most pastor's today and see how they respond. In all likelihood the pastor will either give the book back to you, throw it away or ignore it, and then ask you not to show it to anyone else in the church. A respectable pastor would announce the following Sunday that he has changed his position to the King James Bible only, and will not pastor the church anymore unless they do the same!!! Honestly, I cannot stomach most churches today!!! They're a nauseating joke! I say that kindly with a loving spirit. I care about you!

Genuine Christianity means being born-again and then allowing Christ's Holy Spirit to live through us. Galatians 2:20, "I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me." [5]I Am Crucified With Christ (MP3, Dr. Hyles; you cannot crucify yourself, someone else must do it! You can only nail one hand, but then you have no free hand to crucify your other hand. God must crucify us!). You won't hear about the power of the Holy Spirit in most churches today, because they don't seek Him. They are attempting to serve God in the arm of human flesh.

Brother Lester Roloff (1914-1982) rightly states:

> Folks, the end time's come. The field is white, the laborers are few. We have the greatest opportunity of any generation, that ever lived, to reach desperate souls for the Lord Jesus Christ! —Brother Lester Roloff, from the classic MP3 sermon, "[6]JESUS IS LORD!!!"

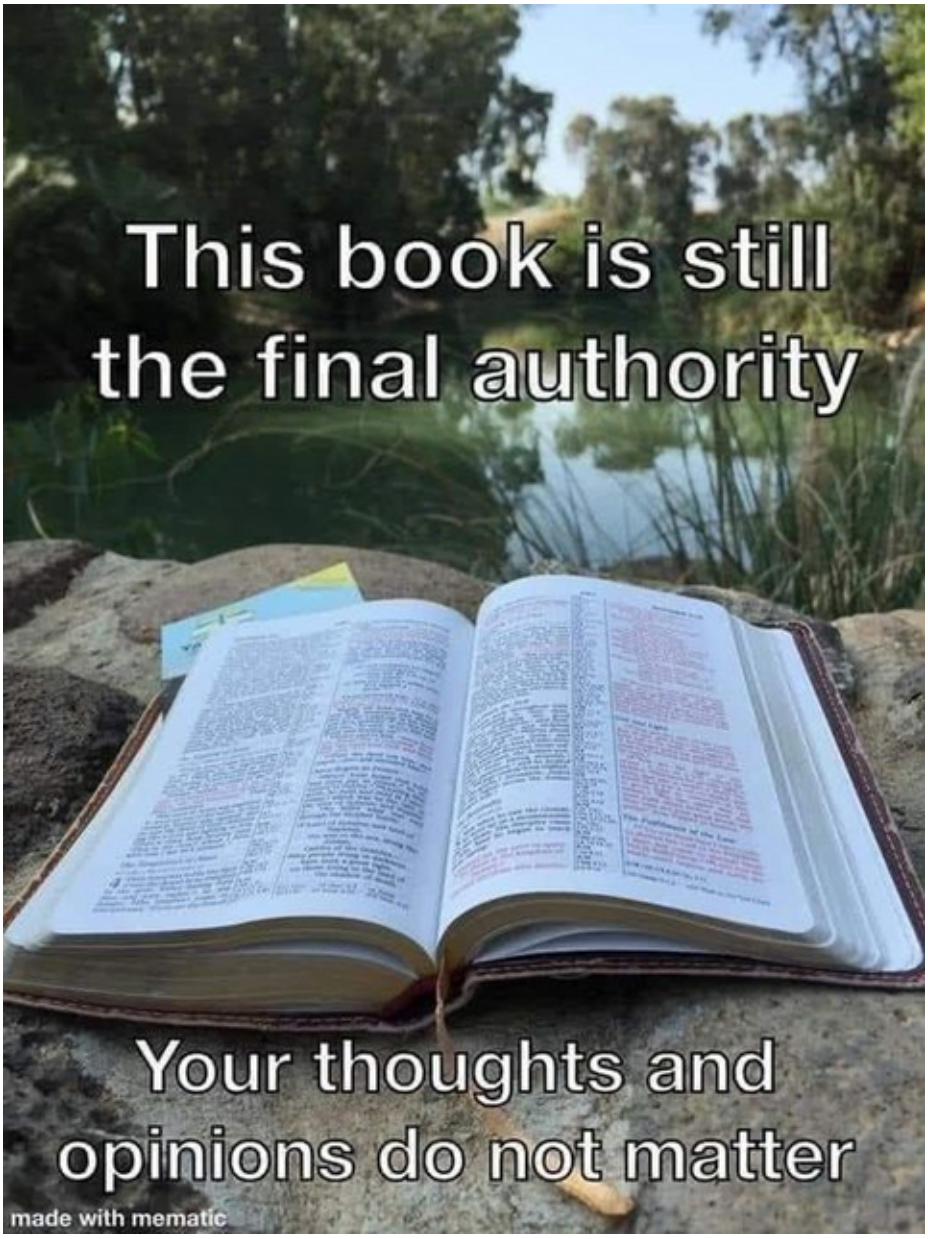
You're Not a Good Christian Just Because You Go To Church

Listen, you're not a success in God's eyes just because you go through the motions at church each week. God is far more pleased with a Christian who doesn't attend church in disgust over today's apostate churches (knowing that his life falls short of pleasing God); than God is with some apostate church member who is at ease on Zion, complacent in the pew, playing church three times a week, never lifting a finger to do anything for God (who thinks he is doing just fine in God's eyes!!!). Many of you need to stop kidding yourself. The man with no hope is better off than the man with a false hope, because the man without hope is still looking.



The same is true of a Christian whose out of church, but knows that he or she needs to find a good church to attend. God is far more pleased with this person than He is with the lukewarm believer who faithfully attends a lukewarm church and never does anything for Christ. And may I say, I am so sick and disgusted with churches who think that they've done something for God just because they donate school packs to poor kids once a year. That's a nice good work to do, but what about having a soul-winning program???

There's nothing worse than seeing hundreds of staff members, teachers and full-time church workers in a church congregation who are obligated to attend church services that are boring, dry, dead and lack hard-preaching! Kids are playing video games. Parents are surfing the internet. All during church!!! The staff are spiritually starving for doctrine. I've seen it in independent Baptist churches. This is religion, not Christianity. No church can be pleasing to God with a dead preacher behind the pulpit.

The pastor sets the tone in the church. A loving and morally upright pastor cannot compensate for a lack of doctrinal integrity, a lack of contending for the faith, a lack of preaching against sin, a lack of soul-winning, a lack of warning lost sinners of hell-fire and eternal punishment, a lack of preaching against women wearing pants, a lack of teaching about the power of the Holy Spirit, et cetera. Truly, a lot of pastors don't belong behind the pulpit. Do it right or don't waste your time doing it at all.

Oh Christian, if you're not very careful, over time you'll swap out genuine Spirit-led Christianity for a religious life that renders you useless for the cause of Jesus Christ!!! Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born-again. But if Satan cannot hinder you from being saved, then he'll do the next most damaging thing by conning you into living a religious life totally void of serving God. Our churches are filled with people who go through the religious motions of singing, tithing, fellowshipping, eating, helping each other, buying the pastor ties, enrolling their kids in religious school, et cetera; but they have been inoculated from the genuine Christian life.

Many churches today fail to seek the power of the Holy Spirit, fail to preach the Gospel (instead they teach the satanic heresy of [7]Lordship Salvation), fail to preach against sin, fail to love sinners, fail to warn lost sinners about a burning Hell where Christ-rejecting sinners will suffer for eternity, fail to care about doctrinal correctness, and fail to even use an uncorrupted translation of the Holy Bible (if you ain't got a King James Bible, you don't have a Holy Bible).

5.7.8 God's Court Room (2024-07-11 09:03)

Revelation 12:10, "And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night."

1st John 2:1-2, "My little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous: And he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world."

Gods court room is different than our. Imagine Satan as the prosecutor (a person, especially a public official, who institutes legal proceedings against someone).

Then imagine Jesus as your defense attorney (lawyer). He represents you and presents evidence for your legal defense before the impartial judge (God the Father).

By the way, there is no trial by jury in Gods courtroom, just bench trial (i.e., trial by judge only, no jury). Since God is omniscient (all-knowing), He doesn't need a jury to determine ones guilt or innocence's (Proverbs 24:10). Nothing ever escapes the eyes of God (Hebrews 4:13). Every human being must one day in eternity stand before God, to be judged for every good and evil work (Ecclesiastes 12:14), every word (Matthew 12:36), and every thought (Proverbs 24:10). No man has ever escaped God's righteous judgment (Hebrews 9:27).

The prosecutor (Satan), will charge the defendants (you and me), with specific crimes and then present evidence establishing our guilt beyond a reasonable doubt. Our defense lawyer (Jesus, if you are a born-again Christian) has the responsibility to defend His clients against Satin's charges.

Here's the amazing thing

God Himself will be our the judge. If Jesus is our defense attorney we cannot lose. We can just sit back and watch the proceedings with joy and assurance that all is going to work out okay (Romans 8:28). Kindly said, i f you do not have Jesus as your Savior (which also makes Him your lawyer), you are ALREADY GUILTY (John 3:18, 36) cannot win and you will pay for all eternity for them in a burning Lake of Fire (Revelation 20:11-15, 21:8).

The final judgment by God in your case depends entirely upon you, right NOW, whether or not you are chargeable for your sin. If you've trusted Jesus as your personal Savior dear reader, then He has taken away all of your sins. At the moment of the new birth, God credits (imputes) our SINS to Christ's record, and credits Christ's RIGHTEOUSNESS to our record. Someone has called this "The Great Transfer." I like that truth. This happens by simple childlike faith (reliance, trust) in the GOOD NEWS (Gospel) that Jesus is the Christ who died on a cross, was buried, and then three days later bodily resurrected from the dead (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). BELIEVE the Gospel and be instantly, irrevocably and forever saved (Romans 1:16).

Please beware of all the theological garbage that is circulating on social media today. For example: [1]I found this junk today. Notice that the author of this publication calls it "the Gospel," and yet there is absolutely NOTHING in this presentation about Jesus' death, burial and resurrection (which is the true Gospel according to 1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

Will you let Jesus take your penalty for your sin, or would you rather pay for your own sins in Hell forever? The choice is yours alone to make dear friend. The Bible describes the horrifying future scene at The Great White Throne of Judgment, when the dead (damned) will be judged by God the Father for their works, and then they shall be cast by the angels into Hell forever to be tormented day and night without rest (Revelation 14:11, 20:11-15, 21:8).

I THANK GOD for the precious blood of Jesus that washed all my sins away in 1980 at age 13, when I trusted Jesus as my personal Savior. (1st Peter 1:18-19; Revelation 1:5). I am now clothed solely in Christ's righteousness, which is by faith alone in Jesus Christ (Romans 10:3-4; Philippians 3:9). Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do!

2nd Corinthians 5:21,

"For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him."

5.7.9 The Church As The Bride Of Christ (2024-07-12 10:21)

by [2]Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001)

Submitting yourselves one to another in the fear of God. Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord. For the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the church: and he is the saviour of the body. Therefore as the church is subject unto Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands in every thing. Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it; That he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word That he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish. Ephesians 5:21-27

Baptists have been educated by inter-denominationalists, so we have garnered much of the doctrine that was taught by the Protestants and not by our Baptists forefathers. One of those doctrines is concerning the bride of Christ. Our inter-denominational friends have influenced us to believe that all believers are the bride of Christ, the body of Christ, and the church.

Recently, I was reading a book by a well known interdenominationalist. All through the book he presumed that all believers formed the church, and if you are saved, you are a member of the church. No, if you are saved, you are saved, but you are not automatically a member of the church. I have no axes to grind with him about salvation. I strongly disagree with him about the church. Likewise, most Christians have automatically assumed that everybody who is saved is a member of the bride of Christ.

All believers do not form the bride of Christ.

1. The word bride is mentioned only five times in the entire New Testament.

John the Baptist used it once when talking about being the friend of the bride. They thought he must be the Saviour. He told them that he was just a wedding guest and that the Bridegroom was coming later. He was not referring to all Christian people. He was merely talking about himself.

The word bride is not mentioned in any of the Epistles. In fact, it is not mentioned again until Revelation 18:23. It is also mentioned in Revelation 21:2, Revelation 21:9 and Revelation 22:17.

And the light of a candle shall shine no more at all in thee; and the voice of the bridegroom and of the bride shall be heard no more at all in thee: Revelation 18:23a

And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. Revelation 21:2

And there came unto me one of the seven angels which had the seven vials full of the seven last plagues, and talk with me, saying, Come hither, I will show thee the bride, the Lamb's wife. Revelation 21:9

And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. Revelation 22:17a

Apart from John talking about the bridegroom in a brief illustration about himself, there is not a single mention of the word bride, in any connection, until Revelation 18:23. The rapture takes place in Revelation 4:1, so the word bride is not mentioned until after the rapture.

Revelation 21:2 refers to the New Jerusalem coming down from God out of Heaven after the millennium.

Revelation 21:9 and Revelation 22:17 refer to the same thing, all of which transpires after the rapture.

All saved people do not become a bride until after the rapture. There is no bride of Christ today. There is no place in the Bible where it mentions anything about us now being the bride of Christ. That is only in some inter-denominational theologian's commentary. It is not in the Bible.

I make an issue out of this because I am bothered by the fact that fundamental Baptist churches are swallowing the fallacy that all believers form the church, the body of Christ, and the bride of Christ; none of which is true.

Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honour to him: for the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready.

And he saith unto me, Write, Blessed are they which are called unto the marriage supper of the Lamb. Revelation 19:7, 9a

The marriage supper of the Lamb takes place after the marriage. It is the reception. Revelation 19:7 talks about the marriage of the Lamb. The marriage of the Lamb takes place during the seven years after the rapture. We are caught up in the air and during that seven year period, there is the marriage of the Lamb.

A woman becomes a bride at marriage and not before. The marriage of the Lamb is in the air after the rapture. Only then will we become a bride. You become a bride after the marriage, so we will not form the bride of Christ until after the rapture. The word bride is not mentioned in the entire Bible concerning God's people until after the rapture, because we are not His bride until the wedding has been performed.

All believers are members of his family, but all believers are not members of the church. You must join a church to be a member of a local body. The church is His body, so all believers are not in His body. All believers are not in the church, and all believers are not in His body. When Jesus comes again, at the rapture all believers will be called out and will assemble in Heaven. All believers will then become members of the church, because then we will all be a called out assembly. That called-out assembly, or church, will become his bride, but this does not happen until the rapture.

2. There is no mention of the church now being His bride.

In all of the letters to the churches there is no mention of them being His bride. In fact, the word "bride" is not mentioned in any of them.

3. The bride and the body are never the same in this age.

There are people who believe that they are the same. Consequently, they believe that only the people who belong to the New Testament church are members of the bride and that everybody else will be wedding guests in Heaven. That is not right. All people who belong to a New Testament church are simply church members now. At the rapture when all of us form a church in the sky, all believers will be the bride and the church, but this is after we have been called out and have assembled.

4. The future church will be the bride.

For the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the church: and he is the saviour of the body. Ephesians 5:23

The local church is His body by possession. When it says that He is the saviour of the body, it means that the only way to continue being called a local church is to continue being purified by Jesus.

Speaking to the church at Ephesus, Revelation 2 says, .. . repent, and do thy first works; or I will come unto thee quickly, and will remove thy candlestick.... The candlestick is the church. He is saying that He would not recognize them as a church unless they got back to soul winning.

Jesus is the saviour of the body. The body is the church, or the called-out assembly. The only way a church can continue being a New Testament church is to yield to Him and He will preserve it.

Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you the overseers, to feed the church of God which he hath purchased with his own blood. Acts 20:28

And from Miletus he sent to Ephesus, and called the elders of the church. Acts 20:17

Paul called for the preachers of the church, not churches, in Ephesus. It is referring to the local church in Ephesus. These preachers at Ephesus could not possibly feed all believers. They could feed only that local assembly; yet, he commands them to feed the whole assembly of God which He hath purchased with His own blood. Jesus purchased, not only our salvation, but He also purchased the local church when He died on the cross. He not only died to save us from our sins, but also so that we could have an organization to feed and mature us in the Lord.

Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it; That he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word That he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish. Ephesians 5:25

The word sanctify means to set apart. The local church is not the bride of Christ, but it is set apart to become the bride of Christ. In Bible days, an engagement was stricter than it is now. It was a legal and binding contract, and could not be broken.

I will be His bride, but nothing can allow the contract to be broken. Neither party can break the contract.

We sing, "A glorious church without a spot or wrinkle, washed in the blood of the Lamb" I am not against singing this, but it is not yet true. The church has spots, and it has wrinkles, otherwise Jesus would not need to keep on washing it. At the rapture we will be a glorious church. The word glorious means perfect. We will be a glorified church when all the believers are caught up in the air. Our bodies will be changed, we will be like Him, and we will be without spot or wrinkle. Then we also will be His bride. We are not yet fit to be His bride. He wants a glorious bride without a spot or wrinkle.

When the rapture takes place and all of us are caught up in the air, the church, the body, and the bride will all be the same. We will not be the bride until we get to the wedding, but we are already sanctified or set apart.

The church is the only institution in this world that was purchased by the blood of Jesus Christ. It is His unit of battle. It is His dining hall where we are fed. It is His arsenal where we get our weapons.

The Bible gives no evidence that all Christians are a church. The word church is the ekklesia, meaning called-out assembly. When did all believers ever assemble? They did not. In Acts 7, the Israelites were called a church, but they were not called a church in Egypt because they were not assembled in Egypt. It talks about the church in the wilderness. They became a church when they were called out of Egypt and assembled in the wilderness.

On the Passover night, they were delivered from the bondage of Egypt and were called out into the wilderness where they assembled around the tabernacle. A pillar of cloud by day and a pillar of fire by night guided them. There they assembled and were called a church because they were a called-out assembly. There was no church in the Old Testament, except when God's people assembled in the wilderness.

Likewise, God's people will not be a church until we are out of this heathen land and are caught up to assemble in the sky. Then we become the church, and then we will be married to Christ at the marriage of the Lamb. We are already members of the family of God. We are going to Heaven when we die, and we are going to form a group at the rapture that will be His bride. Until then, the church and the body are the same because the church is the called-out assembly and that called-out assembly is the body of Christ.

Maybe this worries you a little. All of your life you have been taught that we are the bride of Christ. What I have explained in this chapter is exactly what Baptists were taught historically. Too much of our theology has come from those who came from Protestant backgrounds, like the inter-denominational colleges. We must go back to the truth of the Bible and teach our people the truth concerning the church and its importance to the work of Christ.

There was a man in the land of Uz, whose name was Job; and that man was perfect and upright, and one that feared God, and eschewed evil. And there were born unto him seven sons and three daughters. His substance also was seven thousand sheep, and three thousand camels, and five hundred yoke of oxen, and five hundred she asses, and a very great household; so that this man was the greatest of all the men of the east. And his sons went and feasted in their houses, every one his day; and sent and called for their three sisters to eat and to drink with them. And it was so, when the days of their feasting was gone about, that Job sent and sanctified them, and rose up early in the morning, and offered burnt-offerings according to the number of them all: for Job said, It may be that my sons have sinned, and cursed God in their hearts. Thus did Job continually. Job 1:1-5

God chose a family in the patriarchal age, of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, to use as an example of a typical Jewish family. They knew that some day God would provide a sacrifice, and they looked forward and trusted in that future sacrifice in the same way that we look back and trust in that past sacrifice. With that in mind, follow this logic.

The New Testament church is supposed to be a family. I often say at the beginning of a service at the First Baptist Church, "Welcome to our thrice weekly family reunion." Every Sunday morning and Sunday night we have another family reunion. That is a scriptural term because it is in keeping with the fact that the church is a family.

1. The book of Job is a perfect example of the Old Testament family.

2. The book of Job is a perfect example of the Old Testament church.

There was an Old Testament church. The word church means, a called-out assembly. In the seventh chapter of Acts, the Israelites were called out to assemble in the wilderness and were called the church in the wilderness. The New Testament church was not founded in the Old Testament, but there was an Old Testament assembly. That Old Testament assembly was the family. I am not referring to the little unit, of mom, dad, and the children. I am referring to an extended family that included grandparents, great-grandparents, as well as mom, dad and, children. The church unit of the Old Testament was the family.

When Esau sold his birthright to Jacob, there were three things involved in that birthright, including the right to the priesthood of the family. The worship or public gathering of the Old Testament was the family.

3. Notice what size these families were.

Job had ten children, which in those days was really not that large of a family, but I will use it as the average size of a family.

If each of Job's children had ten children, there would have been a total of one hundred.

If each of them had ten children, there would have been one thousand.

If each of them had ten children, there would have been ten thousand.

If each of them had ten children, there would have been one hundred thousand.

That is five generations. A Bible generation is usually considered to be thirty-five years. Five generations would have been 175. In 175 years there would have been 111,111 people in that extended family. In the Old Testament patriarchal days, a man who died at 175 was just a boy. The average man lived much longer than that. For this example we will assume that everybody died at 175 years of age. That means that each family consisted of over 100,000 people. I am referring to the extended family.

Each of these families formed the Old Testament unit of a church or a called-out assembly. They were the worship unit. They assembled for sacrifices and worship to God.

4. The oldest or firstborn son was in charge.

The other firstborn sons in all the individual family units assisted him. In each family the oldest son held the priestly rights in his own family.

5. Soul winning was within the family.

Cities were not popular in those days. Most people lived in the country. A family of 100,000 people covered a large amount of land. Many of the children were not going to believe. Soul winning was to be within the family. They had plenty of prospects. One family could have been larger than the city of Hammond, Indiana. They had no cars or buses, so they had to walk or go on a beast of burden to get to each other. They would explain to the family members who did not believe that one day God was going to send a sacrifice, and that sacrifice was going to pay the penalty for their sins. The lambs, bullocks, turtledoves, pigeons, doves and goats were offered according to God's sacrifice. God one day would provide Himself as a sacrifice.

God told them audibly that by faith Abel believed, and they passed this story down from generation to generation. Every person had to believe in the coming Messiah to be saved, just as we must believe in the Messiah Who has already come. Somebody had to tell them these things, but there were some who would not listen. Some people would not even come to the assembly, just as we have family members who will not come to church. Those people were human beings also. They had to reach them, so there was Old Testament soul winning. Somebody had to tell every person in those days about the Gospel.

I reject the heresy that there is one Gospel in the Old Testament and another in the New Testament. Anybody who goes to Heaven will get there by faith in Jesus Christ. God uses human instruments to get us saved. Most of those human instruments are through the local New Testament church. Likewise, most of the instruments that got them saved were through the Old Testament assembly.

When the Jews came to the promised land, God gave them certain places to live. God not only gave certain land for the tribes, but for their families. Each family was given a certain job in the tabernacle and lived in a certain place. They may have gone many miles before they found somebody who was not in their own extended family. (The Mennonites and Amish have done much the same thing. They settle by families.) It was a matter of geography, or of transportation. They could not get to somebody else's family to go soul winning because they lived too far away. They went to their own relatives and witnessed to them.

6. The entire life was built around the family.

This group of people or relatives assembled on a regular basis for worship, but their social life was also built around this extended family unit. Their business life was together. Their education was together.

7. The family was the city. They did not live in cities; the family was the unit of organization, especially spiritually.

Something happened.

1. Cities came.

Cities have been the destruction of civilization. When the cities came, it broke down the family life.

2. Families scattered.

They went to cities. We are a perfect example in America today. We have two daughters who live a thousand miles from us, and a son who lives five hundred miles away. Many families have grown children scattered across the country.

3. Many families lived near each other.

This caused the building of cities. With the coming of cities, people migrated together and many different families or portions of families lived together in the cities.

4. They started synagogues.

A synagogue was not a patriarchal term. It came about because of cities. Any time ten responsible Jewish men were together, they were allowed to start a synagogue. These were not the same family members. God still wanted His people together.

5. The synagogue became what the big family had been.

The synagogue was an alternative measure started by God to form a family of these people in cities, so that they would have what they had back home when they were together in families. The synagogue was started so God's people could have a family even though they did not have a family.

6. The church became to New Testament Christianity exactly what the family was to Old Testament Judaism.

It is an improvised family. God wants His people to have what the old patriarchal families had, so He started a New Testament group called the assembly, or ekklesia where His people could gather and form a family.

Did you ever wonder why no rural churches are mentioned in the Bible? Every church mentioned in the Bible was in the city. With the breakdown of the family and with the coming of cities, God wanted a family atmosphere for His people, so they could have the same thing they had when they lived in the rural areas and all the families lived near each other.

And they continued stedfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers. Acts 2:42

That sounds like what Job's family did. Job's family got together to have a feast and to have a service for God.

And sold their possessions and goods, and parted them to all men, as every man had need. And they, continuing daily with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread from house to house, did eat their meat with gladness and singleness of heart, Praising God, and having favour with all the people... Acts 2:45-47a

That sounds like family. The local church is exactly what God intended to take the place of the Old Testament family. God wants his people to get together and God wants his people to belong to a family. That is what the church is to be. We must build our lives around the church. That is what they did. Our children's activities ought to be centered around the church and not the world. The same is true for our teenagers.

The church was not primarily started as a place where we come to meet God. Nor was it primarily started as a place where we preach the Gospel and get people saved. We are supposed to do that outside of the church. The church was started so that God's people could get together and have a family to encourage each other to be stronger. The church is to be as close as the kinfolks were in the Old Testament because we are the improvised Old Testament family.

That is why we call each other brothers and sisters. We are in the same family unit, and that means we should be there every time the doors are open. We are to support it with our tithe: We are to have our fun through the church and educate our children through the church.

We are supposed to build our lives around the church.

God did not intend for the people in the Old Testament days to spend all of their time at the meeting. They had crops to harvest, and they had work to do at home, but they had regular meeting times.

The New Testament church is not the successor to the Temple. The Temple was not a place where God's people came to learn in fellowship.

The church is not the successor to the Tabernacle.

The church is the successor to the Old Testament family.

When they came together for their services they were so glad to see each other. They shook hands and fellowshipped with one another. That is what it was all about. The church is not a place where we come to worship God. We can worship God much better alone with Him. The church is a place to assemble as God's people so we will have a family. We must get born again before we can join the church just as we must get born before we can join a family.

What a wonderful institution the local church is! It is the New Testament family.

Although we are in a church family, it is also important that we train our own little family where we are. It was not the job of the leader of the entire extended family to do all the training. Every little local family unit was also supposed to do training. In our homes, we must teach the Bible to our children, sing Gospel songs with our children, and should praise God with our children. Then we come together as individual units into a big family meeting just like Job's family did in his day.

5.7.11 Americans Don't Care Like They Used To (2024-07-17 10:14)

Psalms 66:18-20, "If I regard iniquity in my heart, the Lord will not hear me: But verily God hath heard me; he hath attended to the voice of my prayer. Blessed be God, which hath not turned away my prayer, nor his mercy from me."

I think the number one biggest difference between the United States today versus 75 years ago is that people don't care like they used to, and that apathy and indifference manifests itself in everything in society today (from the recent raw meat in my burger at McDonald's, to Pensacola Christian College refusing to allow me to attend Campus Church; from Facebook censoring the truth, to Pastor Marty Herron refusing to heed the truth I gave him; from the Secret Service dropping the ball at a Trump Rally, to places like New York City allowing squatters to steal taxpayer's homes; from all the shady advertising in American culture today, to an epidemic of homelessness across the U.S., et cetera). I could mention thousands of other things which clearly show how Americans don't care like they used to.

We have come to the frightening point in America where people will only do right, if there is a law and the power to enforce that law. If there is no law to prevent a crime, nor the power to enforce that law, ungodly sinners will take it to the limit.

Case in point, the punk who walked up past all my security cameras and stole my Amazon package. This happened in May of 2024. The police couldn't do anything. They told me the courts won't do anything. They said because Amazon kindly replaced the stole item, Amazon would have to prosecute the thief (which they are not doing to do over a $30 clothing rack). You couldn't make this stuff up. The cop said am not the victim, Amazon is. No wonder theft is out of control in society today. Two centuries ago the local magistrates would have hung that ungodly punk, and rightfully so! I have his sickening face recorded on my video security camera. The cops can't do anything to stop him from committing more crimes.

In the Old Testament book of Judges, "every man did that which was right in his own eyes," because there were no police or magistrates in the land. Judges 21:25, "In those days there was no king in Israel: every man did that which was right in his own eyes."

Today, we have police and magistrates, but every man still does right in his own eyes. Go figure! The more that Americans commit open sin, the worse our society is becoming (Hebrews 3:13).

We have just seen the beginning of how bad crime is going to get in America. You just wait and see!!! This is the dire consequence of our wicked government removing God's inspired Holy Word from children's daily lives at school since 1963. Today's dysfunctional adults are yesterday's confused children with no moral compass to spiritually guide them. You cannot remove God from children's curriculum without raising up immoral educated fools.

5.7.12 Anybody Can Be Happy If You Choose To Be Happy (2024-07-17 12:38)

Acts 16:22-25, "And the multitude rose up together against them: and the magistrates rent off their clothes, and commanded to beat them. And when they had laid many stripes upon them, they cast them into prison, charging the jailor to keep them safely: Who, having received such a charge, thrust them into the inner prison, and made their feet fast in the stocks.And at midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and sang praises unto God: and the prisoners heard them."

My favorite preacher, Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001), preached a wonderful sermon in 1996 titled, "[1]The Secret To My Christian Joy." I encourage you to listen to this helpful sermon. I receive thousands of ministry emails each year. Some of them are from miserable unhappy Christian people. Most of them complain about God not answering their prayers. They complain about today's spiritually dead churches, which I agree with them about. Indeed, today's churches are pathetic! Some of my web visitors are down, depressed and have given up on life. I never criticize, discourage or berate them, they are already discouraged. I always try to help them by encouraging them to focus on the blessings in their life.

The basic gist of Dr. Hyles' sermon is that anybody can be happy if we choose to be happy. Happiness is a choice. The word "happy" comes from what "happens" to you. In sharp contrast, joy is an inner virtue that is not determined by what happens to us. This is why the Apostle Paul and Silas could sing hymns while imprisoned and chained in shackles. They had a joy in the Lord that couldn't be taken away from them, regardless of what happened.

Lower your expectations to ZERO and you'll be happy every day. The foundation of gratitude is the expectation of nothing. In other words, if you expect nothing then you'll be grateful for everything. Whenever I am planning to go somewhere to have a nice time, whether it be a restaurant or a trip somewhere, I never set any expectations. That way I won't be disappointed.

Have you ever gone somewhere and had a great time, and then planned to come back in the future to do it again? I'm sure you've done this, I know I have. But 90 % of the time the second time when I come back I didn't enjoy it near as much as I did the first time. The reason why is because I didn't have any expectations the first time I went. But when I returned the second time I had a bunch of positive expectations based upon my memories of the first trip. So, when the experiences of the second trip didn't match the memories of the first trip, I was disappointed. So, to prevent that from happening again, I never set any expectations. I just go with the flow and enjoy the ride, not expecting anything. That was everything is a blessing.

In our text Scripture passage from Acts 6:22-25, Paul and Silas were bound in shackles in prison. Ninety-nine percent of people would be angry, sad, frustrated and complaining about the situation; but Paul and Silas were singing songs of praise to the Lord. They chose to be happy in their dire circumstances. Anybody can CHOOSE to be happy, even in the worst of conditions and dire circumstances. It all depends on what you choose to focus on.

I mentioned earlier that my ministry receives thousands of emails each year. Some of those emails are from discouraged and hurting saints, who are discouraged with life and today's horrible churches. Hebrews 12:2, " Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God."

The key to living the Christian life is to abide continually in the inspired Holy Bible. Psalms 1:1-3, " Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful. But his delight is in the law of the LORD; and in his law doth he meditate day and night. And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper." Romans 10:17 teaches that FAITH COMETH BY HEARING AND HEARING BY THE WORD OF GOD. Even Christians need to have our faith boosted daily, which is what abiding in the Scriptures does for us. In every case when I find discouraged saints, they have neglected to abide in the Scriptures.

You can be happy dear reader, if you will simply choose to be happy, by focusing on the blessings in your life instead of the negative things, problems, cruel people and cruel uncaring pastors. Looking at people, family and friends can only lead to eventual discouragement. Christians at best are still people, and people at best are still sinners. When you are at a low point in your life—that is usually when family will hurt you, your wife or husband will divorce you, fair-weather friends will forsake you, and no pastor will genuinely care about you. I know because I have been there, and have painfully experienced all of these betrayals. I know exactly how David felt in the Old Testament when he said in Psalms 142:4, "I looked on my right hand, and beheld, but there was no man that would know me: refuge failed me; no man cared for my soul. "

I don't know about you dear friend, but I choose to be happy. I have problems like everybody else. I suffer continually with chronic neck pain, burning nerves and the entire right side of my body feeling half asleep. I am thankful to God for the health that I have. I was driving yesterday and saw a man rolling his wheelchair down the sidewalk. I praised God for the health that I still have, despite my chronic neck pain and health afflictions. Somebody always has it worse than you do, and someone else has it better. This is just the nature of life. I choose to thank God for the blessings that I have, and not to compare myself or situation with others.

If you are sad and miserable dear reader, I do not condemn you. I love you unconditionally with God's love. I want to be a blessing to encourage you, not discourage you. What you need to do if you are sad and miserable is to start focusing on the blessings in your life. If you have pain in your leg, thank God that you still have a leg to hurt, because many military veterans have lost their limbs on the battlefield. I saw a veteran who lost an arm in Afghanistan from an I.E.D. (Improvised Explosive Device).

So, surgeons surgically attached a replacement arm from a cadaver to his body. You could visually see the misalignment of the new forearm to his upper arm, crooked. The veteran soldier was expressing his gratitude that he could finally touch his wife again when they made love, with another dead man's forearm and hand. How creepy is that? But he was very thankful. Of course, it takes years of healing and therapy just to regain even a small fraction of feeling back into the nerves. I am amazed that someone with a surgically attached cadaver arm and hand could feel anything at all. Modern medical advancements are astounding!

As I watched the documentary about the soldier's dilemma, and tried to feel empathy for his emotional pain and physical loss, I was compelled to thank God that I still have my own arms and hands. Dear reader, we are so blessed of God!!!

I read in one of his books where Evangelist John R. Rice (1895-1980) in the early 1960's fell down some basement stairs in Wheaton, Illinois (the [2]Sword of the Lord used to be in Wheaton since they moved there in 1940, but Dr. Rice decided in 1963 to move their ministry to Murfreesboro, Tennessee instead). As a consequence of the steep fall down the stairs, Dr. Rice said his olfactory nerve in his brain was severed, which resulted in loss a smell for the rest of his life. My olfactory nerve was blocked for several weeks in 2021 when I caught the COVIS-19 Delta strain. I was unable to smell or taste anything during that time. Thankfully my smell and taste came back to normal eventually.

I try not to watch too much daily news, because the newsmedia loves spreading manure. The old adage is still true: If it bleeds it leads! Let's face it, people love negativity. The old carnal nature loves to hear bad stuff, gossip and all the juicy details of someone else's dirty laundry. I certainly don't have all the answers, but I do know that focusing on bad things all the time can only lead to more unhappiness. You show me someone who is down, discouraged and has a very bad attitude and I know they didn't just get there in a day. It took time. Behind every tragedy in human character is a slow process of wicked thinking. That is why my favorite Bible verse for several years now has been Proverbs 4:23, "

Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life.

I encourage you to listen to Bible preachers on a regular basis. Beware of all the neo-evangelical con artists today who want your money and have something to sell. They just want your money. Avoid Paul Washer, Joel Osteen, Pat Robertson, John MacArthur, Max Lucado, Jimmy Swaggart, Jim Bakker, and all the horrible greedy Tv preachers. They are bums! There are too many charlatans to mention. Remember, if they have something to sell or want donations, RUN! A genuine man of God doesn't want your money. I have never made a single penny in my 22 years of website ministry, and I never will. I have had countless people beg me to allow them to send me money, because God used my preaching to change their life and they love me. I just ask for your prayers friend, for my personal health and my ministry, please.

Thank you for reading my blog.

5.7.13 The Blatant Deception Of Evolution (2024-07-19 18:00)

Genesis 1:1-2, "In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth. And the earth was without form, and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep. And the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters."

1st Timothy 6:20-21, "O Timothy, keep that which is committed to thy trust, avoiding profane and vain babblings, and oppositions of science falsely so called: Which some professing have erred concerning the faith. Grace be with thee. Amen."

Psalms 8:3-4, “When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained; What is man, that thou art mindful of him? and the son of man, that thou visitest him?”

It is impossible to believe both the inspired King James Bible versus the blatant ungodly deception of evolutionary theory. Here is what the fools at National Geographic magazine absurdly claim about how the earth’s massive oceans formed. ...

>
> Other events were occurring on our young planet at this time as well. It is believed that during the early formation of Earth, asteroids were continuously bombarding the planet, and could have been carrying with them an important source of water. Scientists believe the asteroids that slammed into Earth, the moon, and other inner planets contained a significant amount of water in their minerals, needed for the creation of life. It seems the asteroids, when they hit the surface of Earth at a great speed, shattered, leaving behind fragments of rock. Some suggest that nearly 30 percent of the water contained initially in the asteroids would have remained in the fragmented sections of rock on Earth, even after impact.
> SOURCE: [1]Formation of Earth

And here is how the earth began according to the fool at the University of Chicago...

> The Earth formed over 4.6 billion years ago out of a mixture of dust and gas around the young sun. It grew larger thanks to countless collisions between dust particles, asteroids, and other growing planets, including one last giant impact that threw enough rock, gas, and dust into space to form the moon.
> SOURCE: [2]How the Earth and Moon Formed, Explained

The heathen refuse to acknowledge the inspired Word of God, which teaches that God created all things. What saith the Scripture? Psalms 146:5-6, “ Happy is he that hath the God of Jacob for his help, whose hope is in the LORD his God:Which made heaven, and earth, the sea, and all that therein is: which keepeth truth for ever:” God alone by the omnipotent power of His Word created the universe and all therein.

Television, Netflix, HBO, YouTube and social media are saturated with Satanic films and documentaries attacking the inspired Holy Bible, by claiming that some rocks collided to form the earth and moon. And then they bizarrely claim that millions of asteroid struck the earth over billions of years, depositing ice crystals that formed the massive oceans.

Dear reader, I hope you are not dumb enough to accept such ridiculous nonsense as fact. To believe something as insane and implausible as the foolishness of evolutionary theory, you’d have to deliberately take leave of your mind. No intelligent thinking person would ever accept the ludicrous claims of NASA, National Geographic and other ungodly institutions that tell us the earth and all life therein just happened by accidental aftermath and cosmic chaotic. I hope you appreciate God and have enough gratitude for His blessings, than to deny His mighty hand and wisdom in all of creation. I am thankful to God for His many blessings!

Evolutionary theories are rooted in heathen atheistic attacks against a holy God.

5.7.14 Three World Wars (2024-07-20 13:12)

"For the mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way." —2nd Thessalonians 2:7

We are truly living in the End Times and the Beast system of the coming Antichrist is upon us. World War Three is around the corner and the Lord's return ever so imminent. Navy commander and prolific author, William Guy Carr, in his eye-opening book [1]PAWNS IN THE GAME, exposes the predatory elite Banksters who have financed every war and revolution on both sides since the Revolutionary War of 1776.[2][1]

Here is an excellent quote from the inspiring author, Henry Makow . . .

Countdown to World War Three

August 15, 2004 | By [3]Henry Makow, Ph.D.

As fighting resumes in the holy city of Najaf, more may hinge on the outcome than we realize.

In a [4]provocative article, Joe Vialls reveals that Iran and Saddam's Iraq have a covert military alliance and began joint preparations for this war after the Gulf War ended in 1991.

[5]Iran already has nuclear capability and recently threatened to "wipe Israel off the map" if Israel attacked its nuclear facilities. Vialls says the cleric Al Sadr is tied to the Iranians.

"As we shall see, if Moqtada al-Sadr is killed or maimed, we will be into an altogether new and exceedingly lethal ball game," says Vialls.

As you know, a large part of the US fleet is out of port and probably near Iran. Many observers believe there will be a US attack on Iran after the US election, no matter who wins. Iran has a [6]military alliance with Russia.

These events should be seen in the perspective of [7]a letter written by Albert Pike, the Grand Commander of American Freemasonry in 1871 and published in 1925. The letter foresaw three world wars designed to bring about Illuminati world hegemony.

Each war planted the seeds for the next. For example, the Second World War was designed to ensure the destruction of Germany, the expansion of Communist Russia and the establishment of the State of Israel. It unfolded exactly as Pike described and set the stage for the next war.

"The Third World War must be fomented by taking advantage of the differences caused by the "agentur" of the "Illuminati" between the political Zionists and the leaders of Islamic World," Pike wrote.

"Agentur" means "agent." The same term is used in another Illuminati document "The Protocols of the Elders of Zion" which dates from the same period.

The key point here is these wars are contrived. They are "caused by agentur of the Illuminati" on both sides. These agents owe their first loyalty to the Illuminati not to their countries.

Their aim is to destroy their respective countries and profit from the carnage.

Pike continues: "The [third] war must be conducted in such a way that Islam (the Moslem Arabic World) and political Zionism (the State of Israel) mutually destroy each other."

The rest of the world will be drawn in. "Meanwhile the other nations, once more divided on this issue will be constrained to fight to the point of complete physical, moral, spiritual and economical exhaustion..."

At this point they will be constrained to accept the Luciferian one-world government.

Iran is rumored to have missiles that would reach England. I suspect China is also being built up by the illuminati to attack and destroy the USA.
See [8]"Elite Sets the Stage for World War Three"

Pike's complete letter and valuable background can be found on an excellent web site [9]"Three World Wars.com" operated by Michael Haupt of Cambridge UK. Readers who object that the terms Nazism and Zionism were not known in 1871 should remember that the Illuminati invented both these movements.

The Illuminati refers to a tightly organized network of family dynasties representing Anglo American and European aristocracy and Jewish finance joined by intermarriage, belief in the occult, and hatred of Christianity. Freemasonry is their instrument. They care nothing for their non-Illuminati brethren, Jewish or not. They will destroy billions as they create a neo feudal world characterized by the superrich, their support staff, soldiers and serfs.

As you've read, Albert Pike (1809-1891) foretold of World Wars one and two and has provided us with vivid details of World War three. Pike was a 33rd degree Freemason and an admitted Luciferian worshipper. The [11]New World Order is upon us.

Look closely at the following picture and you'll see clearly why Iran must be conquered by the elite Globalists...

As of January 2011 the U.S. military has troops occupying every nation surrounding Iran. We will be going to war against Iran, it's just a matter of time. When it happens, it will happen quickly. Here are two historical books that describe what is happening in the world today with uncanny accuracy...

[17]The New World Order (by Samuel Z. Batten, published in 1919)

[18]World Conquest Through World Government

November 2011...

It appears that U.S. President Obama or his successor, possibly former Florida governor Jeb Bush in 2016, will lead the U.S. into an unprovoked war against Iran. Everything is being staged. Tragically, there will be much needless bloodshed! Iran will defend herself by launching attacks against America. It is very possible that we will see a preemptive U.S. nuclear strike on Iran. The sabers have been rattling for a long time, war is imminent. The global criminal elite want Iran badly and they will get it!!! Once this final acquisition is completed and another million people are dead (if not several million), the criminal globalists will own and control the entire Middle East.

Shortly after Iran is conquered, Chinese troops will likely police American streets, torturing and shooting patriots and Bible-believing Christians who fight against the New World Order. The North American Union will be completed in 2012 (which will effectively eliminate the Mexican and Canadian borders). [20]Elderly Losing Their Paid Homes Because of High Property Taxes (Hell will be filled with bankers). America is falling apart across the board. Our economy has gone to ruin because of the criminal Federal Reserve Banksters (owned by the Rothschilds and other Illuminati families). As of November 2011, [21]10,400,000 American Families are Sliding Toward Losing Their Homes in Foreclosure.

Islamic Jihadist refugees are being forced into European and American culture. Our national borders are deliberately being left wide open by Illuminati-controlled top government departments for illegal immigrants to flood in by the tens-of-millions. [22]President John F. Kennedy Warned The American Public About A Secret Society Takeover. The Illuminati's goal is to destroy national borders, Christianity, individualism, traditional marriage, the family, culture and language. To succeed in constructing their diabolical New World Order, they first have to destroy the Old World Order. This is what the Latin words displayed on the [23]back of every U.S. one dollar bill mean... "ONE OUT OF MANY," or, "ORDER OUT OF CHAOS"! The Latin 'E Pluribus Unum' means 'One out of many' (that is, order out of chaos) which is the foundation of the New World Order's plan to unify the world's governments, courts, religions and money systems under one umbrella so the world can effectively be controlled. [24]WHY THE ANTICHRIST MUST COME SOON!!!

Crime will surge in the U.S. as Mexican drug cartels move north into the United States! Already the crime is awful. The [25]Elderly are Losing Their Paid Homes Because of High Property Taxes (Hell will be filled with greedy bankers who steal widow's and the elderly's homes). America is falling apart across the board. Our economy has gone to ruin because of the criminal Federal Reserve Banksters (owned by the Rothschilds and other Illuminati families). This is all deliberate and leading to a breakdown of law and order, total anarchy in the United States, which [26]must happen before the Antichrist can rise up as a savior of the world's economic woes. Remember, order can only arise OUT OF CHAOS!!!

When President Obama won the election for U.S. President in 2008, it was a beta test for the coming Antichrist. People were literally worshipping Mr. Obama, so much so that he even stated he "wasn't born in a manger" as some people had rumored about him. The very fact that Obama was compared to Jesus Christ (the only true Savior) is frightening. Some pictures even portrayed Mr. Obama hanging on a cross as a savior. There are still [27]YouTube videos of children singing praises to President Obama, which is the same propaganda technique used by the Nazi's during the era of Hitler Youth.

It conclusively proved to the global elite that the wicked world would eagerly bow and follow anyone who is of mixed race, intelligent, non-Christian, immoral on social issues and caters to homosexuals. The most important factor is the evil globalist-controlled [28]mainstream newsmedia. The criminal Bush administration wouldn't have gotten away with their part in the 9/11 attacks, and the illegal Iraq War atrocities, if it weren't for the complicity of the [29]ungodly American newsmedia.

As it appears before our very eyes on [30]every U.S. dollar bill, chaos will rise out of order... [31]New Street Lights to Have Homeland Security Applications (all federally funded for the [32]NWO)

A network of street cameras that record audio and video are now being installed nationwide. Homeland Security is spending billions-of-dollars on surveillance equipment in all of America's large cities. Eventually those living in smaller cities will be forced to move into the cities for medical, economic and oppressive new laws. The Trans Texas Corridor don't have on-ramps nor exits for smaller towns.

We will likely see schools and buses being exploded in the U.S. with massive bloodshed. Iranians have not attacked anybody. Much lying propaganda is being fabricated to demonize the Iranian people. They ought to call it “impropaganda,” because there’s nothing “proper” about all the bogus and malicious propaganda being fed to the American people. We are being lied to. We already know that WWIII will be initiated by tension between the Arabs nations and Israel, and the world will be dragged into the conflict. I don’t claim to understand it all, because I don’t. I DO know that Satan is the god of this world (2nd Corinthians 4:4). I DO know that the Illuminati exist (who are Satan’s willing servants, who rule the world), and that they have 100 % hi-jacked the United States government via The White House since George H. Bush took office as U.S. President in 1988.

Let me quote to you again the words of Dr. Henry Makow, who is quoting Albert Pike...

> "The Third World War must be fomented by taking advantage of the differences caused by the ’agentur’ of the ’Illuminati’ between the political Zionists and the leaders of Islamic World," Pike wrote.
> SOURCE: [37]savethemales.ca - Countdown to World War Three

My friend, what you just read is HAPPENING NOW!!! Listen to world news and you’ll hear about Islamic Jihadists committing acts of terror. In November of 2015, 129 people were brutally murdered in Paris by radical Muslims on Friday the 13th!!! The Illuminati are going to nurture, supply weaponry and instigate both sides of the conflict, to ensure that World War III happens! This is all necessary to achieve World Government. The most important thing is that YOU make sure you’ve been born-again by faith in the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ, Who died on the cross for your sins, was buried, and raised up the third day for our justification. Don’t be caught dead without Jesus!!!

Old men start wars, young men fight wars, and everybody in the middle loses! I say to everybody who wants to go to war, and approves of war... Send your money, send your kids, and send yourself... or shut your mouth! Leaders who want to go to war should be required to send their money, their children, and them self first. All wars would cease forever!

God is not a warmongering God. Proverb 20:18, “Every purpose is established by counsel: and with GOOD ADVICE make war.” The Bible teaches going to war only by “good advice,” not by maliciously staging events like the [38]Gulf of Tonkin that drew America into the Vietnam War. God is a God of war, but not unjust wars. Our nation bear false witness against Iraq. God hates that kind of lying deception. We stole their oil. We murdered 1,455,590 Iraqis! Woe unto America!

The American people were lied to in 2001 to draw us into war against Iraq. It was an unprovoked war. We were told by the Bush Administration that Iraq had Weapons of Mass Destruction, but later The White House openly admitted that no such weapons were ever found. Yet the occupation of Iraq, and the theft of their trillions-of-dollars in oil, continue. A shocking 1,455,590 Iraqis have been brutally murdered and many tortured. What right does America have to do this woeful evil? Who do we think we are? God will punish us! Americans will soon learn they are not supreme. We are a hypocritical nation!

As I speak, a Police State is being empowered to enslave the America people. TSA are sticking their hands in passenger's pants and blouses at all U.S. airports, touching citizen's genitals. This type of intrusive tyranny will become commonplace to board a train, enter a sport's stadium, even go into a shopping mall. Wal-Mart has already installed 9,000 telescreens to recruit citizen spies, creating a paranoid society through fear-mongering, lying propaganda, and tyrant oppression.

America beared false witness against Iraq, killed over 1,300,000 Iraqi's and stole their oil (all violations of God's Ten Commandments). The American people are accountable for what OUR leaders do, with OUR money, in OUR name, and with OUR children in the military; hence, it is OUR business. Only a woefully ignorant or evil person would dare claim that God approves of the [39]tyranny in Iraq. Everyone today is doing [40]what is right in their own eyes.

As mentioned earlier, every war and revolution since the Revolutionary War of 1776 has been financed on both sides by the International banking cartel, the elite Globalists, aka, the Banksters.

> "While the general public has been lead to believe that Communism is a movement of the workers (soviets) to destroy Capitalism, Pawns In The Game proves that both British and American Intelligence Officers obtained authentic documentary evidence which proved that internationalist capitalists operating through their international banking houses had financed both sides in every war and revolution fought since 1776."

As believers, let us [42]redeem the time, for the [43]Lord's return is nearer than ere before and we must work while it is still light. In John 9:4 Jesus said, "I must work the works of Him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work." May we abide in Christ and His Word abide in us that we may bear much fruit, i.e., souls saved. John 15:5, "I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in Me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without Me ye can do nothing." Amen!

Psalms 12:6a, "The words of the LORD are pure words..."

Satan's greatest achievement over the past 150 years has been publishing literally [1]HUNDREDS of English Bible versions. Consequently, the inspired Words of God have been secularized, diminished, weakened, removed, altered, butchered, changed and perverted by mostly sincere people who were inspired by Satan to corrupt the very pure Words of God.

I found a website today called [2]LearnReligions.com. On their webpage titled: "A Quick Overview Of Bible Translations," they make the despicable statement, "Decide which versions fit you with this summary of major Bible translations." NO SIR! That is way wrong! That is a wicked attitude! You don't decide what Bible "VERSIONS FIT YOU," you take God's Word as it is, like it or not. The Lord didn't write His Word so that ungodly men could rewrite it into hundreds of different styles TO FIT different demographic groups of society. God's Word is supposed to be IN YOUR FACE, it is supposed to be OFFENSIVE, it is TRUTH, the Bible is HARSH AND SHOWS A MAN HIS TRUE SINFUL STATE! It is blasphemy to change the inspired Words of God to fit humanity!

is the New Life Version (NLV), first published in 1986. Here is some information on this work of darkness...

> The translation was born out of the Ledyards' missionary work in the Canadian Arctic to First Nations populations, who did not always speak English fluently. The NLV uses a limited vocabulary of about 850 words, not including proper names. This was done to make the text easier to read and understand, a goal that the Ledyards felt was not adequately met by existing English translations of the Bible. The NLV uses gender-specific language and uses no contractions. Confusing wording is avoided. Weights and measures are worded so that anyone can understand them; For example, Noah's ark is described as being: "...as long as 150 long steps, as wide as twenty-five long steps, and eight times taller than a man." The translation of the New Testament was completed in 1969, and the complete NLV Bible with Old and New Testaments was first published in 1986. The NLV Bible is published by Christian Literature International. It can be accessed online. —[3]New Life Version, Wikipedia

According to Amazon.com's deceptive [4]product information, the New Life Version (NLV) is:

...used around the world in mission work. It is one of the most readable versions available today. Based on a limited vocabulary of approximately 850 words, this Bible clarifies difficult words and passages for the modern reader.

The following additional information about the New Life Version (NLV) is provided by Barbour Publishing, Inc. This is very disturbing false information, which I will explain to you in a moment...

> The NEW LIFE Version, available SINCE 1969 - continues to be the most readable and most understandable Bible without sacrificing accuracy. It is not a paraphrase, or man's idea of what the Bible says. Truths expressed in the original are in no way violated. Leading clergy from most denominations endorse and approve its use. This unique translation is gender-correct (same as the King James Version). All pronouns referring to Deity are capitalized. Short sentences are used with the subject usually preceding the predicate. No contractions are used. Many paragraphs are preceded with captions which summarize the content. There are no confusing foot-notes. No obscene words are used in the text. Most Old Testament quotations in the New Testament are followed by the reference. [emphasis added]
> SOURCE: [5]https://www.biblegateway.com/versions/New-Life-Version-NLV-Bible

The publishers of this counterfeit Bible version very deceitfully claim the New Life Version (NLV) "TO BE THE MOST READABLE AND MOST UNDERSTANDABLE BIBLE WITHOUT SACRIFICING ACCURACY. IT IS NOT A PARAPHRASE, OR MAN'S IDEA OF WHAT THE BIBLE SAYS. TRUTHS EXPRESSED IN THE ORIGINAL ARE IN NO WAY VIOLATED." Ladies and gentlemen, the translators and publishers of the New Life Version (NLV) belong in prison! They are worthy of the death penalty in God's court for corrupting the inspired Word of God!!! Let's compare some key Scripture passages in the New Life Version (NLV) with the trustworthy King James Bible, and see how accurate it is.

Jesus is Our Intercessory High Priest, Not Our Religious Leader

I couldn't believe how horribly they butchered the following passage of Scripture. Contrary to their deceitful claim that the New Life Version (NLV) is the "MOST READABLE" and "MOST UNDERSTANDABLE" Bible, which is "NOT A PARAPHRASE" nor "MAN'S IDEA OF WHAT THE BIBLE SAYS," read for yourself how retarded and senseless the following translation is...

> KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) - Hebrews 4:14-16, "Seeing then that we have a great high priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession. For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need."

> NEW LIFE VERSION (NLV) - Hebrews 4:14-16, "We have a great Religious Leader Who has made the way for man to go to God. He is Jesus, the Son of God, Who has gone to heaven to be with God. Let us keep our trust in Jesus Christ. Our Religious Leader understands how weak we are. Christ was tempted in every way we are tempted, but He did not sin. Let us go with complete trust to the throne of God. We will receive His loving-kindness and have His loving-favor to help us whenever we need it."

The preceding garbage from the NLV woefully lacks Bible theology. They have removed grace! They have removed Christ's important role as our heavenly High Priest (Romans 8:34; Hebrews 4:14). Religious Leader? What a joke! Folks, Jesus is not our RELIGIOUS LEADER!!! I can't believe anybody actually published this piece of trash, calling it a "Holy Bible"! Remember, the NLV publishers advertise that this is "NOT A PARAPHRASE" and not "MAN'S IDEA OF WHAT THE BIBLE SAYS"! The term "high priest" in Hebrews 4:14 is the Greek word [6]archiereus, meaning, "high priest, or chief priest." Jesus is our "GREAT HIGH PRIEST" (Hebrews 4:14), which has passed into the heavens. So where in the world did they get the term "Religious Leader"?

Instead of attributing God's mercy to His grace made possible through the intercessory work of Christ, Who is our heavenly High Priest, the ungodly translators of the NLV attribute God's loving-favor and loving-kindness merely to Christ as a Religious Leader. Do you see how rotten, corrupt, senseless and meaningless the new Bible versions are? Why doesn't Pensacola Christian College (PCC) care? PCC is eerily silent, completely A.W.O.L. from "[7]THE BATTLE OF THE AGES!" (MP3 by Pastor Jack Hyles). [8]Please watch THE MOVIE.

Shame on Pensacola Christian College and their gutless interns! shame on Bob Jones University and their gutless alumni! Shame on Moody Bible Institute and their shallow graduates! Shame on every dead Bible college in America that is idly SITTING ON THE PREMISES instead of STANDING ON THE PROMISES! Somebody's got to care! The inspired Word of God is under attack by the Devil. God only authored ONE SACRED BOOK, not hundreds! The man with two watches never knows what time it is! Shame on America's apostate Bible colleges who are sitting idle on the sidelines while their brethren go to war...

> "God has a special rebuke, again and again and again in the Bible, toward those people who keep their neutrality in the work of God!" —SOURCE: Dr. Jack Hyles, a quote from the great MP3 sermon, "[9]Where Were You In The Battle?"

Never Confess Your Sins To Anyone Except God

The following mistranslation always humors me. Anyone who is bold enough to "TELL YOUR SINS" to another human being is a fool. You and your sins may be on social media by sundown. Do you really think God wants you to confess your sins to me? I am dying to know your dark secrets. Ha ha ha! Yell me, please! Would you really expect a man to tell someone—"Sir, I must apologize, I have been lusting upon your lovely wife for three years. Please forgive me!" You'll probably need a good dentist and some implants after that! Evangelist Phil Kidd is right—If you knew what some of the folks around you in church are thinking toward your wife and children, you'd run out that door with your family and never come back again!!! The human soul is depraved, "The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it?" (Jeremiah 17:9)...

> KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) - James 5:16, "Confess your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed. The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much."
> NEW LIFE VERSION (NLV) - James 5:16, "Tell your sins to each other. And pray for each other so you may be healed. The prayer from the heart of a man right with God has much power."

A "fault" is something obvious that another person is already aware of. If you tend to show up late, admit it and apologize for it. If you tend to talk over other people, admit it and apologize for it. If you tend to worry or complain, admit it to the people you've wearied with your bad attitude, apologize and ask God to help you overcome those faults. A fault may be a sin, but it is something obvious and known, not your secret Skeleton Closet. Pastor Jack Hyles use to wisely say: "Don't be reluctant to admit to others that you have feet of clay, but don't ever show them your feet." Never confess your personal sins to anyone. It is a matter between you and God alone. Psalms 51:4, "Against thee, thee only, have I sinned, and done this evil in thy sight: that thou mightest be justified when thou speakest, and be clear when thou judgest."

Lucifer is Missing in All Modern Perversions

Let's move on shall we. Without turning to it, the only mention of the name of "Lucifer" is missing from Isaiah 14:12 in the NLV. That is really bad! Surprisingly, the NLV actually does have the word "Calvary" in Luke 23:33, which most modern versions don't. You'll find that each of the modern Bible versions have different problems with them, but they are all corrupt nevertheless! In particular, they all attack the deity of our dear Lord Jesus Christ.

All of the Modern Bible Revisions Attack Jesus' Deity

Notice below that the NLV says that Jesus has always been "AS GOD IS," which implies that Jesus is not actually God. Subtle word changes drastically change the intended meaning. The King James Bible makes it adamantly clear that Jesus did not consider it robbery to be EQUAL with God. Those are some beautiful bold words attesting to Christ's deity...

> KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) - Philippians 2:6, "Who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God*."
> NEW LIFE VERSION (NLV) - Philippians 2:6, "Jesus has always been as God is. But He did not hold to His rights as God*."

All three mentions of the important word "godhead" are completely removed from the NLV (cf., Romans 1:20; Acts 17:29; Colossians 2:9). Although such changes may seem harmless, it obliterates the very important theological concept of the Trinity (i.e., Godhead). The NLV actually left 1st John 5:7 alone, still faithfully conveying the truth of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, Who are all one God. However, the NLV horribly butchers and does injustice to the Scripture elsewhere concerning the Trinity...

> KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) - Colossians 2:2, "That their hearts might be comforted, being knit together in love, and unto all riches of the full assurance of understanding, to the acknowledgement of the mystery of God, and of the Father, and of Christ*;"
> NEW LIFE VERSION (NLV) - Colossians 2:2 "May their hearts be given comfort. May they be brought close together in Christian love. May they be rich in understanding and know God's secret. It is Christ Himself*."

Whoa horsey! There are two very different ideas being conveyed between these two versions. The King James Bible conveys the idea that the Godhead is a mystery, but the NLV conveys the idea that Christ is a secret. They get this passage horribly wrong! The NLV translators have irresponsibly removed God the Father and God the Holy Spirit from this Bible passage, making it only about Christ. This is junk theology and a lie!

And again, here we see another blatant attack against the Lord's deity. Instead of declaring that "GOD WAS MANIFEST IN THE FLESH" (a clear attestation of Christ's deity), the NLV merely says that "CHRIST CAME TO EARTH AS A MAN" (which says nothing to declare Jesus' deity)...

> KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) - 1st Timothy 3:16, "And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh*, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory."
> NEW LIFE VERSION (NLV) - 1st Timothy 3:16, "It is important to know the secret of God-like living, which is: Christ came to earth as a Man*. He was pure in His Spirit. He was seen by angels. The nations heard about Him. Men everywhere put their trust in Him. He was taken up into heaven."

As in all the modern perversions, every mention of someone "worshipping" Jesus has been diminished to a mere "knelt" or "bowed." Well you can kneel before a king without worshipping him. ...

> KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) - Matthew 8:2, "And, behold, there came a leper and worshipped him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean."
> NEW LIFE VERSION (NLV) - Matthew 8:2, "Suddenly, a man with leprosy approached him and knelt before him*. "Lord," the man said, "if you are willing, you can heal me and make me clean."

Do you see how Satan is reducing our great Savior to a mere historical figure instead of the only begotten Son of God?

You need to understand that all of the modern Bible versions haves been translated from an entirely different Greek source (Sinaiticus Vaticanus) than the inspired King James Bible. The King James Bible is based upon the Textus Receptus (or, Received Text), which the 54 King James translators accepted as being inspired by God, rejecting all others (including the Apocrypha). The Apocrypha is still valuable in its historical content, but it is not inspired by God.

By "inspired" I mean that God authored the Bible, they are His Words. The horrible idea is blasphemous that inspiration only refers to the original act of God breathing out His Words in time of old, but then those words someone became no longer inspired when translated, and despite scholarly men doing their very best to faithfully preserve God's Word, they were incapable of being as exact and perfect as God, so at best today we only have an imperfect, flawed, errant, translation. That is exactly what Bob Jones University teaches! That is exactly what Hyles-Anderson College teaches! That is exactly what every apostate religious institution today teaches! Don't you dare tell me that we only have an "at best" Bible today, but not a perfect Bible! I know good men who teach that we only have an "at best" Bible today, and I love them in the Lord, but I do not agree with them, and I must preach what I believe to be THE TRUTH!

NLV Bible Perverts God's Promise to Preserve His Inspired Words

In the following Old Testament passage, we find an atrocious error, in which the Bible-butchers have totally removed God's solemn PROMISE to "preserve" His "PURE WORDS" unto every generation. They changed it (as do ALL modern corrupt versions) to say that God protects the saints from people. Only the reliable King James Bible retains this important PROMISE to preserve God's inspired words (which means they must still be INSPIRED today)...

> KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) - Psalms 12:6-7, "The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times. Thou shalt keep them*, O LORD,thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever."
>
> NEW LIFE VERSION (NLV) - Psalms 12:6-7, "The words of the Lord are pure words. They are like silver that has been made pure seven times in a stove of earth. O Lord, You will keep us. You will keep us safe forever from the people of this day."

I could literally go on and on, mentioning hundreds of major doctrinal problems with the New Life Version (NLV). Tragically, most churches and pastors couldn't care less. Bible colleges like Pensacola Christian College in Florida are only concerned with making money. Dead theological corpses like Faith Bible Baptist College And Theological Seminary in Iowa couldn't care less. No one wants to join "THE BATTLE OF THE AGES." They just go along to get along like the cowardly lion in the popular 1939 film, "The Wizard of Oz."

The purity of God's Word means NOTHING to them, evidenced by their tolerance of dozens of different Bible versions. I tell you that 99 % of pastors have no business standing behind any church pulpit, and they are even more dangerous working in Bible colleges where they influence the next generation of reckless apostate pantywaist pastors!!!!!! SOMEBODY'S GOT TO CARE!!! God's Word is important!

The King James Bible is verbally-inspired by God. Every word of the King James Bible is inspired by God almighty!!! God didn't just preserve the words that He long ago inspired, but God preserved those very inspired words and THEY ARE STILL INSPIRED 100 % IN EVERY WAY TODAY! Hyles-Anderson College doesn't believe that! West Coast Baptist College doesn't believe that! Ambassador Bible College doesn't believe that! Moody Bible Institute doesn't believe that! The Crown College doesn't believe that!

They only believe that the "original manuscripts" were inspired by God, but today at best we only have God's "preserved words," but not inspired. You'll never find a direct statement in any of these religious intuition's Statement of Faith where they say: "THE KING JAMES BIBLE IS VERBALLY INSPIRED!" They don't believe it!!! Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) understood this woeful evil and he also exposed it, sick and tired of shady dishonest Bible colleges who advertise that they used the King James Bible, but do not tell the truth that they don't believe it is VERBALLY-INSPIRED WORD-FOR-WORD...

> "The biggest split that has ever come will come in the next ten years, if not sooner, over the King James Bible - and it couldn't come soon enough for me. I'm tired of colleges and universities advertising that they 'use' the King James Bible - tell the whole story! Tell everyone that you do not believe that it is inspired word for word." —Pastor Jack Hyles, from the Wednesday night Bible study titled, "Revelation to Illumination" (1998)

Thank God for men of God like [10]Pastor Al Lacy who cared about THE TRUTH of God's Word. The average shameful Bible college president, vice president and staff members are merely working a job, collecting a paycheck, trying to stay employed. The truth means little if anything to them! They typically have the pathetic rational that they are being ethical not to change what they didn't start. So they just get the good while the getting is good, milking the money cow for all they can, until they go their selfish way. I just described over 95 % of religious leaders in America today! I'm talking about the Bob Jones University camp and their graduates! They don't care, evidenced by their deafening silence in the ongoing battle over the inspiration of the King James Bible.

> '[11]THE BATTLE OF THE AGES' (by God's grace, I made this 4 hour film last year [12]upholding the inspiration of the majestic 'King James Bible')

The New Life Version (NLV) contains all the SAME corruptions as the other [13]Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort Greek based translations.

Modern Corrupt [14]Alexandrian Bible Versions Pervert the Biblical Meaning of 'Repentance'

Again, look at how the NLV perverts the Words of the Living God...

> KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) - Acts 2:38, "Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost."
> NEW LIFE VERSION (NLV) - Acts 2:38, "Peter said to them, "Be sorry for your sins and turn from them and be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ, and your sins will be forgiven."

Heresy! Nowhere in the inspired Word of God are we commanded to "be sorry for your sins and turn from them!" To turn away from sins for salvation is "[15]ANOTHER GOSPEL" (Pastor Harry A. Ironside, 1876-1951) of self-righteousness!!! The Gospel is the wonderful story of God's beloved only begotten Son, Who was crucified on a cross for our iniquities! The Gospel is not a heavy burden to be placed upon the shoulders of sinners, requiring them to turn from their sins to be saved. Jesus Christ bore the full weight of our sins upon Calvary's cross, so we wouldn't have to, paying the price for our many sins with His blood.

Look at what the satanic New Life Version (NLV) teaches compared to the trustworthy King James Bible. Just as in Acts 2:38 that I just showed you, so also have they changed repentance from being "a change of mind" to meaning "turning away from sins" to be saved. The modern perversions have subtly changed the plan of salvation to include works (turning from sinful behavior), which is an accursed thing, that is, "ANOTHER GOSPEL" (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4; Galatians 1:6-9)...

> KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) - Mark 1:15, "And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel."
> NEW LIFE VERSION (NLV) - Mark 1:15, "He said, 'The time has come. The holy nation of God is near. Be sorry for your sins, turn from them, and believe the Good News."'

Look how they corrupt Hebrews 6:1...

> KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) - Hebrew 6:1, "Therefore leaving the principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on unto perfection; not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith toward God."
> NEW LIFE VERSION (NLV) - Hebrew 6:1, "So let us leave the first things you need to know about Christ. Let us go on to the teaching that full-grown Christians should understand. We do not need to teach these first truths again. You already know that you must be sorry for your sins and turn from them. You know that you must have faith in God."

"DEAD WORKS" include ALL WORKS, good and bad alike. Many of the Jews were stuck on the Old Testament LAW, thinking that to get to Heaven they had to perform the ritualistic ceremonial laws. It was for this reason that the apostle Paul said in Romans 10:3-4, "For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God. For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth." Many of the Jews errantly thought they could obtain eternal life by keeping the law.

Paul explains to the Romans that salvation is without the works of the law. Romans 3:20, "Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin." Effectively, when a bad preacher tells you that you must "turn from your sins" to be saved, he is telling you to keep the LAW to obtain eternal life! By "turning from your sins" they plainly mean that you cannot willfully continue in them, you must have a sincere desire to forsake them. This is exactly what [16]Dr. John Goetsch errantly teaches at the West Coast Baptist College in Lancaster, California teaches, where Dr. Paul Chappell is the pastor. It is a shame! These are "DEAD WORKS!" Hebrews 6:1 teaches repentance from "DEAD WORKS," not from bad works, nor to good works!

The New Life Version (NLV) uses the English dictionary meaning of repentance, which is completely different than the Biblical Greek meaning. Biblical repentance concerning salvation always means "a change of mind" (the Greek noun, [17]metanoia). The Greek word for "repent" in Mark 1:15 is the verb form, metanoeo, which meaning "to think differently." Pastor Bob Gray Sr. accurately explains the true meaning of Bible repentance for salvation this way:

> "Repentance means to change your mind—change your mind—change your mind about how you want to get to Heaven to what God says you've got to do to get to Heaven. If you've got to repent of all your sins, you're still headed for Hell tonight." —Pastor Bob Gray Sr., a quote from the awesome MP3 sermon, [18]Why You Should Be A Part Of A Growing Church

Here is the best quote that I've found on repentance, by Dr. Harry A. Ironside (1876-1951):

> "Which comes first, repentance or faith? In Scripture we read, 'Repent ye, and believe the gospel.' Yet we find true believers exhorted to 'repent, and do the first works.' So intimately are the two related that you cannot have one without the other. The man who believes God repents; the repentant soul puts his trust in the Lord when the Gospel is revealed to him. Theologians may wrangle over this, but the fact is, no man repents until the Holy Spirit produces repentance in his soul through the truth. No man believes the Gospel and rests in it for his own salvation until he has judged himself as a needy sinner before God. And this is repentance." ([20]Except Ye Repent, p. 16)

As I have showed you, what the modern Bible versions are teaching is DRASTICALLY DIFFERENT than what the inspired King James Bible reads. Either repentance means "to turn away from sins" or it means "to change your mind," but it cannot mean both. In the Word of God, the word for “repent” is [21]metanoia, which only means “a change of mind.” We don’t know what to change our mind about, because the word itself doesn’t tell us. It is an open-ended term, which requires supplemental information. God did this deliberately, so that repentance would include anything and everything which hinders a person from believing the Gospel. Hence, to “repent” means to think differently about whatever it is that has been hindering you from BELIEVING THE GOSPEL to be saved.

1st Corinthians 1:21, “For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe.” Please notice that the Bible doesn’t say God “saves them that repent”; no, it says, “TO SAVE THEM THAT BELIEVE”! But don’t you have to repent to be saved? Yes, but repentance is automatic. No one has ever believed the Gospel who didn’t simultaneously turn away from unbelief. You obviously have to turn FROM something in order to turn TO something, but we are not saved by turning from anything, we are saved by BELIEVING on the name of Jesus. John 6:47, “Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.”

This is why we find the words “believe,” “believest” and “believeth” mentioned 87 times in the Gospel of John, which is God’s Gospel tract according to John 20:31, “But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name.” Not once, NOT ONCE, is any mention made of “repentance” in the Gospel of John. The word “repent” is not mentioned even once! That is because repentance is an automatic thing. That is, the person who believes has also repented. No one can place their trust in the Gospel without first turning away from whatever was hindering them from believing the Gospel in the first place. Therefore, it is not necessary to mention repentance when sharing the Gospel with someone.

> “I believe any man in this world can love any other man in this world, if he thinks right! The reason you hate is because you think hate. The reason you love is because you think love.” —Dr. Jack Hyles, a quote from the excellent MP3 sermon, “[22]What The Law Could Not Do” (July 5, 1987 - First Baptist Church of Hammond, PM service).

KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) - Hebrews 4:14-16, "Seeing then that we have a great high priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession. For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need."

NEW LIFE VERSION (NLV) - Hebrews 4:14-16, "We have a great Religious Leader Who has made the way for man to go to God. He is Jesus, the Son of God, Who has gone to heaven to be with God. Let us keep our trust in Jesus Christ. Our Religious Leader understands how weak we are. Christ was tempted in every way we are tempted, but He did not sin. Let us go with complete trust to the throne of God. We will receive His loving-kindness and have His loving-favor to help us whenever we need it."

5.7.17 Be Careful About Repeating What You Hear (2024-07-24 12:22)

Psalms 1:1-5, “Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.

But his delight is in the law of the LORD; and in his law doth he meditate day and night. And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper. The ungodly are not so: but are like the chaff which the wind driveth away. Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous. For the LORD knoweth the way of the righteous: but the way of the ungodly shall perish."

I have heard countless people repeat old adages and sayings that they've heard from someone else. That is fine to an extent. However, much of the things that we hear is just plain garbage and untrue.

For example: You've probably heard that the word "fear" can be expressed by the phrase, "False Evidence Appearing Real" (F.E.A.R.). The problem with that idea is that it's not always true. If you are on a wilderness hike in Alaska and meet a raging Grizzly Bear, your fear is not false evidence that only appears to be real. You're in great danger and will likely be eaten alive and killed, and in that morbid order. Fear oftentimes is justifiably real.

My point is that if we're not careful, we may allow other people to cause us to think things that are untrue, foolish and even harmful. I humbly disagree that fear means false evidence appearing real. Perhaps paranoia or worry can be defined as false evidence appearing real , but most fear is because of things that are very real.

What saith the Scripture? 1st John 4:1, "Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world." The Greek word for "

try

" is dokimazo, which means "to approve" (to "

Hence, we should TEST everything that we see and hear, to ensure that it is biblical.

Another untrue adage that I hate is: "If it's meant to be, it will be." That is a terrible saying. I know a divorce woman, who abandoned her husband to go her own selfish way. He wants to remarry her, but she doesn't want to get remarried. Yet, when he brings up the matter is remarriage, she foolishly says,

"If it's meant to be, it will be." She is a fool. How will their marriage ever be restored, if she keeps throwing the issue under the bus. Folks, if you refuse to lift a finger to make something happen, I can tell you with all certainty that it's not going to happen. If you only do what you've been doing, nothing will change. So, this is another example of a damaging saying that we ought not repeat.

Another saying that I detest is:

"Good things come to those who wait." Uh, I don't think so! I've been waiting for 18 years for a wife to come along, but nothing good has come from it. I am now realizing that if I don't go find someone, I will be alone for the rest of my life. I don't know what idiot made that statement, but good things don't come to those who wait. You need to make things happen, if you want them to happen. Life is what we make of it.

Someone else has made the untrue statement,

"Follow your heart." Jeremiah 17:9,

"The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it? " It is not advisable dear reader to ever follow your heart, because the Holy Bible says our heart is wicked and deceitful above all things. Never trust the man who trusts himself. I'm just giving you some of the popular adages that we hear all the time in society. Due to our human nature it is very easy to start repeating (parroting) these dangerous sayings.

Psalms 1:1a, "Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly..." Sometimes you may walk in the counsel of the ungodly and not even realize it friend. We're all guilty of it. I have adopted foolish sayings myself in the past. Since then I have become very on guard against things that I hear. 1st John 4:1, "Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world." Sometimes even the false prophets themselves don't realize they've been deceived. Deception is everywhere in society today.

The crafty serpent (Satan) gave Eve the worst advice possible in the Garden of Eden, convincing her to disobey God. Because she heeding the serpent's ruthless lies, Eve and her family were evicted from Paradise. You can always tell when the Devil is lying, anytime his lips move. The world is full of sinful ungodly advice. That is why it is very important for every child of God to abide in the Scriptures day and night (John 5:39).

5.7.18 Soulwinning Is The Greatest Job In The World (2024-07-24 13:59)

1st Corinthians 9:16, "For though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for necessity is laid upon me; yea, woe is unto me, if I preach not the gospel!"

There is not a more respectable, noble and important job in the universe, than that of preaching the Gospel with lost sinners. By preaching I simply mean sharing how you got saved with others, so that they can be saved too. If you can explain to someone why you are going to Heaven, then you should be able to lead someone else to the Lord.

Being President of the United States is not as great a job as soulwinning. Being a fireman, policeman, paramedic or Cost Guard rescue worker is not anywhere near as important as being a SOULWINNER!!! Sharing the Gospel with lost sinners is the greatest duty and job there is in the universe.

Sadly, 99 % of Christians would rather have a high-paying job, than to go soulwinning. What saith the Scripture? Luke 8:15, "But that on the good ground are they, which in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit with patience." If you are not a soulwinner, you have not yet matured in the Lord. The parable of The Sower And The Seeds is about maturing in the Lord, not about salvation. Luke 8:15 teaches that an honest saint with a good heart will heed God's inspired Word and share the Gospel with others.

A believer who doesn't share the Gospel after being taught the truth is rebellious. Luke 8:14 indicts most Christians as failures, because they have allowed themselves to become choked by the cares, riches and pleasures of this world, hindering them from focusing on soulwinning. Sharing the Gospel is every believer's responsibility, not just the pastor's. Jesus gave The Great Commission in Matthew 28:19-20 to all believers, not just His twelve disciples. The Great Commission involves teaching our converts to go out and preach the Gospel, and so forth. The idea is to perpetuate the Gospel from one generation to the next.

When I was a boy I wanted to grow up to become a firefighter. I wanted to help and rescue people. But I became something much better, I became a SOULWINNER, rescuing people from the everlasting fires of Hell with the saving power of the Gospel of Jesus Christ (Romans 1:16; 1st Corinthians 15:1-4). There's not a more important job I could have chosen in life.

As a boy I also wanted to become a superhero, from watching the [1]Super Friends cartoon every Saturday morning. You can [2]see the opening theme on YouTube. I have always wanted super powers to help people, just like every other kid who grew up with super heroes for mentors. But I have something much better, I have God almighty as my friend. God can do anything. He often doesn't answer my prayers to do what I want Him to do, but I trust the Lord that He knows what is best, and wants what is best for me as His redeemed child. Jesus told us to, "Have faith in God" (Mark 11:22b).

You'll never come closer to being a superhero than as a soulwinner, rescuing people from the everlasting damnation of Hell with the Gospel of peace (Romans 5:1). That is why we read the precious promise in Daniel 12:3, "And they that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness as the stars for ever and ever."

Tragically, 99 % of so-called "Bible" colleges today deny that we have an inspired Holy Bible in these modern times. They deny that the King James Bible is inspired. Pensacola Christian College (PCC) is a classic example, who state in their [2]corrupt Statement of Faith that only the original auto[graphs were inspired. You can also go check the Statement of Faith at Hyles-Anderson College (HAC), Bob Jones University (BJU), Faith Baptist Bible College and Theological Seminary, Maranatha Baptist University, and nearly any other corrupt religious institution today, and you’ll sadly find that none of them believe we have an inspired perfect Holy Bible in 2024.

They’ll say stupid things like, “We believe the Bible has been preserved,” but they won’t say it is inspired. That is ridiculous. What is the significance of God’s inspired Words being “preserved” if they are no longer perfect and inspired by God? Preservation is meaningless without perpetual inspiration. Folks, if the King James Bible is not inspired by God, then it can only be inspired by men and possibly Satan. If mere mortal men translated the Bible the best that they could, but failed to preserve a perfectly inspired Holy Bible, then we cannot trust it. If any portion of the Bible might be corrupt and false, then any portion of it could be corrupt. Either we have God's inspired Words today or we don't, there is no middle ground.

Dear reader, I tell you that we DO have an inspired Holy Bible today, and it is the inspired King James Bible in the English language. All other English Bible revisions are fraudulent, corrupt and untrustworthy. Only the King James Bible is truly a literal translation. The preface to the English Standard Version (ESV), the inferior weapon of choice at Bob Jones University (BJU), claims to be a literal translation. But if you [3]compare versus in the ESV with other modern perversions of the Scripture, against the tried and true inspired King James Bible, you will sadly find that the ESV is no different than all of the other Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort corrupt revisions of the Bible. Westcott and Hort are considered the fathers of all modern Bible versions. The ESV is of the Devil. Shame on BJU for using, selling and promoting corruptible seed.

PCC is a disgrace today! And the churches that support them are dry and dead, all refusing to fight the good fight of faith. You'll never hear false prophets exposed in their affiliated churches. You'll never be told the truth about the evils of Lordship Salvation, or warned about Satan's fake bibles, or cautioned about other damnable toxicities threatening churches today. The PCC cult are at ease on Zion, languishing in mediocrity and money. Despite their self-proclaimed worldly success at PCC, Jesus calls them spiritually poor, naked, blind, wretched and miserable (Revelation 3:17). Shame on Pensacola Christian College!!!

This matter of Bible inspiration is important folks! It is utterly tragic that since 2008 the First Baptist Church of Hammond, Indiana, has changed their long held belief that the King James Bible is inspired. Today, they merely say is has been "preserved," but not inspired anymore. According to FBCH and their HAC school, we don't have a perfect inspired Holy Bible today. They are woefully mistaken!!! If I didn't believe that the King James Bible is inspired by God, I would toss it into my garbage can and never preach again!!!!!!!

Don't you dare tell me that the omniscient, omnipresent and omnipotent Creator of the universe was too inept, weak and incompetent to preserve His inspired Words forever as He promised...

> Psalms 12:6-8,
>
> The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times.
>
> Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever.
> The wicked walk on every side, when the vilest men are exalted."

Not surprisingly, the [4]Devil's crowd have corrupted this passage in all of the modern Bible perversions, thus removing God's solemn promise to preserve his PURE WORDS forever. Dear reader, the very fact that they would change this vital passage proves their ill intent. Please burn your modern Bible version if you possess any, because they are poisonous! You'd be safer playing with a venomous Rattle Snake, cyanide or nuclear waste, than to read from these contaminated modern Bible perversions!!! The Devil is a liar (John 8:44). Don't you forget that! Whenever Satan's lips move, he is lying! Whenever the Devil's ministers on unrighteousness, like [5]Dr. John MacArthur and [6]Evangelist Ray Comfort move their lips, they are lying. Have you believed a lie friend?

It matters if we have an inspired Holy Bible, it really does. Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) was so right, we must have a perfect inspired Bible today, because if we do not we cannot live by every Word of God. Matthew 4:4, " But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God." If we are commanded to LIVE BY EVERY WORD OF GOD, then we absolutely must have an EVERY WORD BIBLE. We must have a Holy Bible that contains every Word of God. That means there can only be one true Holy Bible in any particular language. Think about it.

I hope that you will join me dear reader, to contend for the Christian faith once delivered unto the saints (Jude 1:3). One voice on social media can do a lot of good for the cause of Christ. There are enough losers helping the Devil's cause. I challenge you to fight the good fight of faith, by starting to tell everyone that the King James Bible is 100 % verbally inspired (every word) and plenary inspired (the entire cannon of 66 books) by God almighty.

5.7.20 God Rewards Labor, Not Motives (2024-07-26 12:17)

2nd Corinthians 5:14-15, "For the love of Christ constraineth us; because we thus judge, that if one died for all, then were all dead: And that he died for all, that they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again."

I was reading Pastor Brad Strand's [1]The Strand Study Bible today (which I love and appreciate), but I sometimes disagree with things that he teaches. No preacher is correct on everything, including me. You reader must decided for yourself what the truth is through the lens of the Scriptures (1st John 4:1; John 5:39; Acts 17:10-11).

I read Pastor Strand's commentary for 2nd Corinthians 5:14a today. 2nd Corinthians 5:14, "For the love of Christ constraineth us;" He says that it's not enough to merely serve Christ, he said you must have the proper motives or you won't receive a reward at the Judgment Seat of Christ. I humbly disagree with him. Kindly said, there's nothing about having proper motives in 2nd Corinthians 5:14.

As a side note, I see another teaching by Pastor Strand that I disagree with in his commentary for this verse. He says that we don't serve Christ because we love Him, but because Christ loves us. Brother Strand is basing his doctrine on one Bible verse, not considering the whole of Scripture. Based upon 2nd Corinthians 5:14b alone, "For the love of Christ constraineth us;," it does seem like we serve Christ because He loves us. However, what about John 14:15 , " If ye love me, keep my commandments. " So we see here that if we love Jesus we will obey His commandments, which includes serving Him faithfully. The truth is that we serve Christ both because He loves us and because we also love Him. They key is that Jesus loved us first. 1st John 4:19, "We love him, because he first loved us."

Now let's get back to our original subject of motives. I agree with Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001), who taught that there's nothing in the Bible about having proper motives to receive a reward from Christ. 1st Corinthians 3:8 says, "Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one: and every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labour.

" As we just read for ourselves, the inspired Word of God promises a reward to every man according to his own labour.

" Nothing is mentioned about having the proper motives to qualify one's labor for Christ.

Jesus promised in Mark 9:41, "

For whosoever shall give you a cup of water to drink in my name, because ye belong to Christ, verily I say unto you, he shall not lose his reward.

" Again, we don't see any stipulations about having proper motives. If you give a cup of water to someone who is serving Jesus, you will be rewarded because they belong to Christ. God is very ethical, He rewards everyone who does anything to help the cause of Christ. That greatly encourages me to work longer, freely and harder. It bothers me that nearly every layman believer I know who is serving Christ begs for PayPal donations. Albeit, if they are accurately sharing the Gospel they will still be rewarded by Christ in eternity.

Brother Strand, in his commentary for 2nd Corinthians 5:14, cites Matthew 20:1-16 as evidence that we must have the proper motives to receive a reward. This passage is the parable of the household who hired many labourers to work in his vineyard, some for 12 hours, others for nine, six or just one hour. The hired men who worked all day were angry at the householder, for paying the latecomers the same wage that they had received.

I am now going to share with you Dr. John R. Rice's (1895-1980) commentary for Matthew 20:1-16, which is a brilliant exegesis presented in layman's terms. I dread the average Bible commentary, such as, The Pulpit Commentary, which is so boggled down with theological jargon that it is virtually useless to aid the common man to better understand the Scripture.

Dr. Rice states concerning The Parable Of The Workers in Matthew 20:1-16:

Several lessons are intended here by the Saviour. May the Holy Spirit help us to learn these lessens. Some of them are these:

1. The rewards for serving Christ will be decided by Him and not by human wisdom. "Many that are first" in men's sight will not be first in God's sight. It is not wise for us to compare ministers or Christians, Apollos, Peter, Paul, etc., judging this one to be greatest and this one least, since none of us knows the heart or the outcome and relative value of their labors. First Corinthians 4:1-7 gives clear teaching. There we are told that faithfulness is the great virtue rewarded (I Cor, 4:2), that the Lord Himself is the One who judges (I Cor, 4:4), that we are not to judge until the Lord comes, bringing to light the hidden things, the counsels of the hearts (I Cor, 4:5), that, therefore, one should not be puffed up against another (I Cor, 4:6), that whatever good things we have we get from others and are given by God , so we should not boast (I Cor. 4:7).

   Men often give us credit we do not deserve. In John 4 is recounted the marvellous revival in Sychar when the woman at the well and many others were saved. Yet the disciples were warned by the Saviour that the fields so "white to harvest" had been cultivated by others, and He said, "And herein is that saying true. One soweth, and another reapeth. I sent you to reap whereon ye bestowed no labour: other men laboured, and ye are entered into their labours" (John 4:37, 38). In many a great revival one man or two gets most of the credit when his ministry was primarily reaping where others had sown, and entering into the labour of others. Thus only God is able to evaluate the rewards due each workman.

2. In point of time, the last often come first. We are promised to reap "in due season . . . if we faint not" (Gal. 6:9). But the exact time of our reaping is not told. Often bread cast on the water will return "after many days" (Eccles. 11:1). Sometimes it returns at once. The eleventh hour labourers were paid first.

3. Salvation and rewards are both of grace. It is clear in this case that the labourers who only worked one hour, others who only worked only a quarter of a day, others a half day, and others three-quarters of the day, did not earn a full days' wages. Their reward then, was of grace. But from Luke 17:7-10, another parable of the servants which Jesus gave about the same time as this parable, it is clear that we never deserve all the rewards that Christ gives. We are commanded after we "shall have done all those things which are commanded" us, to say "We are unprofitable servants" (Luke 17:10). In the instruction of the twelve apostles about rewards in Matthew 19:28, 29, Jesus did not see fit to make a marked distinction between the blessings faithful workers will receive in the regenerated kingdom when He reigns on His throne, and everlasting life (Matt. 19:29). We know from many, many plain statements that salvation, everlasting life, is given freely, immediately, and eternally to those who simply believe (John 3:15, 16, 18, 36; 5:24; 6:40, 47; I John 5:11-15), that everlasting life is wholly of grace. Likewise if a man gives one dollar and gets back one hundred dollars, or loses one friend and gains one hundred more, as is promised here, that is also grace.

   To be sure, salvation and rewards are two entirely separate things. Salvation comes from believing, and rewards come from service, but both properly represent the mercy of God, not really our deserts. No wonder that we are told even if our bodies are literally every day living sacrifices, with no will and way of our own, yet it is only our "reasonable service" (Rom. 12:1, 2). It is true that "He hath not dealt with us after our sins; nor rewarded us according to our iniquities (Ps. 103:10). Most of the workman did not really deserve their wages, and none of us deserves all the good things God will give us. However, we must not forget that rewards will be proportionate to our labor and sacrifice as is clearly taught in Matthew 16:27, I Corinthians 3:12-15, and Revelation 22:12. Christ will not only pay every Christian for his labor, but will overpay him.

4. As a fourth lesson, let us beware of jealousy of Christian workers. There is a semblance of justice of the cry of these "which have borne the burden and heat of the day" (vs 12) and feel they should receive more than others who have done less. Workers who have kept the Sunday School or choir or other religious work going for years are often jealous of newcomers who get more attention, inject new life into the work and are given leadership. Older preachers are often jealous of successful young pastors or evangelists who have not spent the labor or study or sacrifice their elders have. But all such jealousy is a sin. We have no right to be thinking about our deservings. All of us have already received of the Lord manyfold more than we have ever deserved. If our hearts were really concerned about the carrying on of the work of Christ and His honor, then we should rejoice gladly when new workers come, even if at the eleventh hour of the day. "In honour preferring one another" (Rom. 12:10) is God's plan about Christian work, Here is a severe testing point. Here we need to manifest Christian grace. Here personal ambition and selfishness show themselves in most of us.

   We think the immediate application of the parable was to the apostles. They must understand that many others workers would come after them who would have right to high places in the kingdom of Christ. Paul was not even converted then, yet he came to be behind those apostles in no gift, and was more abundant in labor than them all (I Cor. 15:9, 10; II Cor. 11:5, 23-28). God has a great place in the kingdom for Moody. The apostles must not think that because they would sit on the twelve thrones in Israel, others coming later might not have and deserve as great honor from God when rewards are given.

   Another application given to these apostles now would involve Gentiles. Jewish Christians, even as apostles, were very slow to accept Gentile Christians on the same basis as Jewish Christians (Acts 10; 11:1-3). Jewish converts later would jealously watch young Gentile Christians, feeling that they were newcomers, so did not have the proper background of the law which Israel had. Even Jewish Christian leaders would have a tendency later to insist on the Gentiles being circumcized and really becoming Jews before they would be Christians (Acts 15:1, 2). The book of Galatians was written to answer these Judaizers. Jesus was here warning His disciples and succeeding generations not to be jealous of those who came later in the vineyard to labor. We need it now. There is a widespread distrust of Christians who profess to have been saved in old age, and many believe deathbed repentance impossible despite the case of the thief on the cross (Luke 23:39-43). Let us rejoice in God's mercy to others instead of having wickedness in our hearts to envy others their blessings.

   On this point remember the sin of Jonah, angry because God forgave the Ninevites (Jonah chap. 4). Some Israelites were jealous when seventy elders were filled with the Spirit and prophesied (Num. 11:16-29). Even John forbade others to cast our devils, though they were doing it in the name of Jesus and should have been praised (Mark 9:38-40; Luke 9:49, 50). This was the sin, too, of the elder brother who was not willing that the prodigal son should be forgiven, feasted and restored by the father (Luke 15: 25-32).God forbid that our eye should be evil because God is good and deals in abundant mercy with others (as. 15).

   Compare verse 16 with Matthew 22:14. Many are invited to be saved, but only those who wholeheartedly turn to Christ in faith are chosen as children of God, chosen to be saved (Mark 13:20; Rom, 16:13; II Thess. 2:13).

   In this parable if the vineyard, Jesus deals a blow at socialism, Here is vindicated private ownership of property, ownership of means of production, the hiring and firing of laborers. Jesus has the owner say with divine approval, "Is it not lawful for me to do what I will with mine own?" So for a Karl Marx, Stalin, a Hughey Long, or a Roosevelt, or a social labor leader to advocate "redistribution of the wealth," whether by communist revolution or by New Deal law, taking away from an individual his right to own, to control, to give his children by inheritance, his property, is to violate a moral standard of God, and violate a precious human right.

SOURCE: Matthew, Dr. John R. Rice, pp. 304-307; Sword of the Lord Publishers

Boy, that is great Bible truth! I would just like to clarify something that Dr. Rice said, to make sure there is no confusion. When he mentioned that saints are "chosen" to salvation, carefully notice that he started by saying that God only chooses those who have of their own free will wholeheartedly put their trust in Jesus Christ. In other words, we don't believe because God chose us, God chose us because we believed. The "elect" are only chosen because they have already of their own free will chosen to believe on Jesus for their salvation. No one is ever chosen against their own free will to go to Heaven, nor does God ever decide not to choose someone so that they are incapable of coming to Christ by faith to be saved. The gift of everlasting life is freely offered by God to all humanity without prejudice.

I wanted to share this wonderful exegesis by Dr. Rice from Matthew 20:1-16, because it is so full of meat to sink your teeth into doctrinally. To me the key take away is that BOTH salvation and rewards are obtained by God's mercy and grace, not by our deservings. Yes, God will reward those of His saints who work night and day to reach others for Christ with the Gospel pf peace, but we are simply doing what we're supposed to do, which is our "reasonable service" (Romans 12: 1 2).

In all rights, God could have insisted that we serve Him diligently without any promise or expectation of rewards. I mean, after all He did sacrifice His only begotten Son to redeem us. 1st Corinthians 6:20, "For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's." That "price" was the precious blood of Jesus (1st Peter 1:18-19; Revelation 1:5). It is only reasonable that since Jesus sacrificed His life by dying on the cross to pay our dent of sin, that we would return the favor by living our life as a sacrifice to serve Him. Albeit, God does NOT mandate this exchange, because that would eliminate grace. Salvation cannot be free if there are any stipulations or obligations attached to it; if there are any "strings attached" so to speak. But there are none! It is only "reasonable" that we should serve God with our life, but if we selfishly choose not to, we still have 100 % assurance of eternal life, which was obtained by grace alone without works (Romans 4:6).

The Lord graciously chose to reward us for our labors, even though He doesn't have to.

I find nothing in the inspired Holy Bible which teaches that believers who have wrong motives won't receive their hard-earned rewards at the Judgment Seat of Christ. The Lord is not unjust not to reward those who have laborers in His vineyard to win souls. Whether you voluntarily drive a church bus, mow the church lawn, clean the ministry restrooms, repair church vehicles, prepare meals in the kitchen, help missionaries, or whatever, " For God is not unrighteous to forget your work and labour of love, which ye have shewed toward his name, in that ye have ministered to the saints, and do minister " (Hebrews 6:10).

So, if the only reason you serve in a church soulwinning ministry is because you like one of the ladies there, you won't lose your reward, if you are a child of God. Now I need to warn you, if you are an unbeliever (i.e., you have never been born-again by faith in Jesus Christ), then you have no expectation of anything from God except eternal damnation in the Lake of Fire. This is what I humbly believe the Bible means in Ezekiel 33:13, "When I shall say to the righteous, that he shall surely live; if he trust to his own righteousness, and commit iniquity, all his righteousnesses shall not be remembered; but for his iniquity that he hath committed, he shall die for it." The key phrase is "if he trust to his own righteousness." Self-righteousness is a guaranteed road to Hell. You need God's righteousness, which is imputed (credited) to the believer by faith in Jesus Christ (Romans 4:5-6; 10:3-4; Philippians 3:9).

Also, I believe that people who get paid to work as pastors, church secretaries, maintenance men, already have some of their rewards. I have worked night and day for over 50,000 hours over the past 22 years since 2002, without being compensated a single penny for my labors. So, I humbly believe that God is going to reward me greater than a pastor who got paid $80,000 or more per year for his time spent 40 hours a week "serving God" at his job.

Then again, in the Parable of the Workers that we just studied, everyone didn't receive the same reward. Some of the workers who did far less work were paid the same as those who had worked all day long, in the scorching heat of the day nonetheless. So, whatever rewards God gives me in Heaven, I trust that my dear Savior is fair, ethical and knows what is best. So, I won't complain whatever happens, I'll just be eternally grateful to be saved and in Heaven by God's grace, and to receive rewards by His grace too. In all my diligent ministry labors, I am just doing what I am supposed to do as a redeemed sinner, which is my "reasonable service" for my Great King, God, Lord and Savior, Jesus!!!

For the redeemed child of God who is trusting in Jesus Christ alone for eternal life, as I am, God promises to reward all of our labors. You may disagree with me, and that is fine, but please make sure that you have solid Scripture to support your claim that God won't reward wrong motives, because I cannot find that stuff in the inspired King James Bible.

Thank you for reading my blog.

5.7.21 Seven Truths You Should Settle Once And For All Time (2024-07-28 00:21)

Luke 7:20, "When the men were come unto him, they said, John Baptist hath sent us unto thee, saying, Art thou he that should come? or look we for another?"

In Matthew 11:11, Jesus said that there has never been any human being born greater than John the Baptist, yet the dear Savior said he that is least in the Kingdom of God is greater than John.

I often am reminded of John's humanity while in prison. John became discouraged and for a time disillusioned, even doubting if Jesus were the Christ, as we see in our text verse.

I want to share with you seven eternal truths dear reader that I settled in my soul a long, long, time ago, so that I never have to revisit or doubt these truths again. Settling these biblical principles once and for all will spare you much needless worry, grief and emotional pain...

1. Jesus is the Christ, the only begotten Son of God. Just settle it friend! No, John the Baptist, you do not need to look for another. John 20:31, "But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name."

2. God cares about you. 1st Peter 5:7, "Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you." We all tend to wonder if God really cares about us. Yes, He sure does! I'm sure the apostle James had some doubts just before Herod beheaded him in Acts chapter 12. We just saw that John the Baptist had doubts in prison. Just settle it dear friend that God does care about you.

3. God is good. Psalms 145:9, "The LORD is good to all: and his tender mercies are over all his works."

4. God hears the prayers of the righteous. 1st Peter 3:12, "For the eyes of the Lord are over the righteous, and his ears are open unto their prayers: but the face of the Lord is against them that do evil." If you are a born-again believer, you have been made righteous by the Lord's grace alone through faith in Jesus. Therefore, God the Father hears your prayers. You have every right as a saint of God to "come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need" (Hebrews 4:16b). Nearly every saint knows that God rarely seems to answer their prayers, but if we could see the things that God sees, we'd never question His wisdom again.

5. God will never leave nor forsake you. Hebrews 13:5, "Let your conversation be without covetousness; and be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee." g

6. God loves you. 1st John 4:19, "We love him, because he first loved us." f

7. Ultimately everything is going to work out for good. Romans 8:28, "And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose."

Just settle these truths dear reader. When you feel discouraged, like God never answers your prayers, like nobody cares about you, like things will never improve in your life—God does care, and He is faithful to keep His promises in the Scripture, and He loves you very much. NEVER trust your feelings! Listen to the voice of God in the inspired King James Bible (Hebrews 1:1-2). Thank you for reading my ministry blog.

5.7.22 The Lord's Way Is Always The Straight Way (2024-07-28 16:31)

Isaiah 30:21-22, " And thine ears shall hear a word behind thee, saying, This is the way, walk ye in it, when ye turn to the right hand, and when ye turn to the left. Ye shall defile also the covering of thy graven images of silver, and the ornament of thy molten images of gold: thou shalt cast them away as a menstruous cloth; thou shalt say unto it, Get thee hence."

In our text passage from the Old Testament book of Isaiah, the right way was to just keep going forward, and not stray to the right or to the left. Deuteronomy 17:11, "According to the sentence of the law which they shall teach thee, and according to the judgment which they shall tell thee, thou shalt do: thou shalt not decline from the sentence which they shall shew thee, to the right hand, nor to the left." Here are some related Scriptures:

> Job 6:18, "The paths of their way are turned aside; they go to nothing, and perish."

Isaiah 59:8, “The way of peace they know not; and there is no judgment in their goings: they have made them crooked paths: whosoever goeth therein shall not know peace.”

Hebrews 12:13, “And make straight paths for your feet, lest that which is lame be turned out of the way; but let it rather be healed.”

We are living in a crooked generation who have strayed off the straight path. In my 57 years of life, I have watched my country go from a decent place to live to being a large insane asylum. From legalized sodomite marriages to murderous abortion, from the fraudulent Federal Reserve Ponzi Scheme to greedy corporations, from corrupt Bible revisions to the demonic counterfeit gospel of Lordship Salvation, from public nudity wherever there is water to an epidemic wave of unpunished crime across the country—we are living in the “ perilous times ” foretold in the inspired Holy Bible in 2nd Timothy 3:1-7.

Times sure have changed in America. There was a time not too long ago that if you had a phone in your car you were considered a rich person, but today you’re considered poor if you don’t have a phone in your car. Interesting!

I remembered studying diligently in early 1993 to take the test in Chicago to obtain a Chauffer’s License, so I could drive a taxicab. I bought a study guide to help me. Yo pass the lengthy test, you had to know where all of the tourist attractions, hotels, museums and places of key interest were located. There were no mobile phone or GPS yet. I didn’t get my first computer until 1994. It used a Windows 3.1 operating system (wow, that’s old), with an Intel 25sx microprocessor chip (ancient dinosaur technology by today’s standards). I remember how blown away I was when Microsoft Windows 1995 first came out. It was totally revolutionary in comparison to the Windows 3.1 operating system. Times have changed.

Most young to middle-aged people today cannot remember a time when there was no internet, cell phones, credit cards or microwaves, but I do. In the 1970’s we didn’t have microwaves yet. All vehicles were still only rear-wheel drive; front-wheel drive didn’t come out until the 1980’s. When I was a kid video games didn’t exist, we just had board games and pinball games. I loved the simplicity of the old days. In my youth we only had LP records, 8-tracks and cassettes. CD’s didn’t exist until the 1980’s, and really didn’t become popular until almost 1990. The MP3 wasn’t invented until 1987, but didn’t become popular until the 1990’s.

When I was growing up everyone had a big thick phonebook. There was the Yellow Pages and then the White Pages. I lived in Chicago, so these phonebooks were very thick (about 4" thick each). I was disgusted when I went to work at the U.S. Postal Service in 1993, to see for the first time in my life that they actually publish the “ just for homosexuals. I am not kidding! The USPS publishes a phonebook of sodomite-friendly businesses. I thought I had seen it all, but that surprised me. The world is very different today than it was in 1974, fifty years ago.

I thank God for choosing to place my spirit in this body during this time of human history, in these amazing modern times of convenience and technology. I thank God that I wasn’t born into slavery in North Korea, or as a Negro slave before the Civil War in the United States, or as a Hebrew slave during their 400 years of bondage in Egypt.

Dear reader, Lordship Salvation is a crooked path. Heretical Baptismal and Sacramental type plan of salvation are crooked paths. The Devil's plethora of modern corrupt Bible revisions are crooked paths. CHOOSE THE STRAIGHT PATH, THE OLD PATHS!!! Jeremiah 6:16, " Thus saith the LORD, Stand ye in the ways, and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls. But they said, We will not walk therein." The following Scripture describes America today...

> Isaiah 30:1-2, " Woe to the rebellious children, saith the LORD, that take counsel, but not of me; and that cover with a covering, but not of my spirit, that they may add sin to sin: That walk to go down into Egypt, and have not asked at my mouth; to strengthen themselves in the strength of Pharaoh, and to trust in the shadow of Egypt!"

Instead of following the voice of God in the inspired King James Bible, Americans have obeyed the voice of self and Satan. I saw this ungodly billboard which blasphemes our holy Creator...

> Judges 21:25, "In those days there was no king in Israel: every man did that which was right in his own eyes."

[2]

Ezekiel 2:4, “For they are impudent children and stiffhearted. I do send thee unto them; and thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD.”

Millions of rebellious, impudent, angry women today demand their selfish

to murder an innocent child, but that doesn’t change THE TRUTH that killing in God’s sight is premeditated first-degree murder. Exodus 20:13, “Thou shalt not kill.” It is a fact that 99 % of abortions are not necessary to save the life of the mother, or for the other popular lame excuses that ungodly people use to justify murdering a living child.

Very few people fear God anymore. I was recently defrauded out of $619.20 by Alamo car rental and Priceline. They have no fear of God, so in their ungodly greed these wicked companies hurt and cheat people. Ecclesiastes 8:12-13,

Though a sinner do evil an hundred times, and his days be prolonged, yet surely I know that it shall be well with them that fear God, which fear before him:

But it shall not be well with the wicked*, neither shall he prolong his days, which are as a shadow; because he feareth not before God.

” If you decide to have, pay for or encourage an abortion, woe unto you!

All of these defiant wicked rebels today who protest in anger against the righteous who oppose their evil, they cannot escape the coming judgment of almighty God.

Psalms 2:1-5, “Why do the heathen rage, and the people imagine a vain thing?

The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the LORD, and against his anointed, saying,

Let us break their bands asunder, and cast away their cords from us.

He that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh: the Lord shall have them in derision.

Then shall he speak unto them in his wrath, and vex them in his sore displeasure.”

I am the biggest sinner I know, so I don’t condemn anybody for their sins. Albeit, I can say with all biblical authority that abortion is evil, it is wicked murder! No woman should ever consider having an abortion for any reason! Jacob’s wife Rachel died in child birth while delivering Joseph’s younger brother, Benjamin. God didn’t choose to murder Benjamin to save Rachel’s life. The Lord allowed Rachel to die.

It is never okay to do wrong in order to get a chance to do right. If a wicked law were passed, that permitted abortion clinics to perform abortions to save mother’s lives, you know as well as I do that 90 % of those ungodly clinics would falsely claim that the abortions were all necessary. In other words, if you give them an inch they’d take a mile. We see this evil in every profession today, where shady companies are preying upon Americans whenever they can where there is no law to protect the public. That is why Alamo car rental cheats thousands of consumers, because they can with impunity. Those crooks belong in prison!!!

God’s righteous way may not usually be the popular, convenient or financially prosperous way, but it is always the straight way, the right way. Doing the right thing may mean losing some money. It could be a substantial amount of money, but if it is for the right reason, then so be it.

I once heard Attorney David Gibbs Jr. tell a beautiful story about his late grandfather. His family got involved in the cattle business. At one particular auction, the Gibb’s family made a killing, buying a bunch of cattle dirt cheap (way too cheap), at the woeful expense of another local family who lost a tremendous amount of money. David Gibbs’ grandfather knew that he had bought the cattle way too cheap, unfairly so; but it was all legal. The grandfather felt convicted as a child of God, and wanted to reimburse the other local family, but young David Gibbs respectfully told his grandfather that they had bought the cattle fair and square within the confines of the law. Admirably, grandfather Gibbs said, “No, we got those cattle way too cheap, and the other family has sustained a large loss. We’re going to make it right!”

So, his grandfather sent him 300 miles away to the other family’s home, to give them a substantial check.

When David Gibbs, who was just a teenager at the time, handed the check to the man and his wife saw the amount of the check, she was so emotionally shaken that her nose began to bleed. She was crying and asked, “Who does this? Who gives money away like that?” Her husband replied, “A Christian, that’s who!” I absolutely love this true story, because that is the godly way that we should all treat each other. This is The Golden Rule (Matthew 7:12). You can hear the story for yourself, if you’d like, a little after 35 minutes into the following sermon titled, “Second Mile Christianity”...

Second Mile Christianity (2011)

That is exactly the opposite of how Alamo car rental cheated me out of $619.20 in July of 2024. I had rented a car for 4-days, that I would have needed in 5 weeks. But due to a misunderstanding concerning the Banjo Camp I was planning to attend in Montana, I needed to cancel my travel reservations 36 hours after I made them. Although I was able to obtain a full refund from United and American Airlines, and the hotel in Kalispell, Montana, the greedy sharks at Alamo car rental refused to refund a single penny of my $619.20 because they have no mercy, compassion or ethics. God will hold them accountable and show no mercy toward Alamo's executives in eternity (Matthew 7:1-2). What goes around comes around!

I thank God that I can still look in the mirror at the end of each day, and see an honest man who doesn't defraud and cheat people of their hard-earned money. Like the ungodly woman who refuses to apologize to God for her abortion, so also has Alamo hardened their wicked hearts.

I cannot control what other sinners do, but this repentant redeemed sinner chooses to sin as little as possible and make restitution and reconciliation (if applicable) when I do. I love Jesus and want to keep His commandments (John 14:15).

I drove by a powerful billboard message today, which read: "Abortion leaves one dead, one hurting; and a lifetime of regret and sorrow." Truer words were never spoken. A spoiled brat in her youth may boast of having an abortion, snuffing out the precious life of another human being; but the inspired Holy Bible promises that the time will come when she will woefully regret what evil she has done. Numbers 32:23, " But if ye will not do so, behold, ye have sinned against the LORD: and be sure your sin will find you out." No one ever sins with impunity! You may get away with it down here on earth for fifty years or more, but the Bible warns in Hebrews 9:27,

"And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment:

" We must all give account to God (Romans 14:10-11; Ecclesiastes 12:14).

I stand 100 % with Joshua, who boldly declared in Joshua 24:15,

“And if it seem evil unto you to serve the LORD, choose you this day whom ye will serve; whether the gods which your fathers served that were on the other side of the flood, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: but as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD. ” Thank you for reading my blog. Jesus is precious!!!

5.7.23 Inspiring Quotes By Missionary To China, C.T. Studd (2024-07-29 12:01)

Charles Thomas Studd (1960-1931) was born in 1860. He was commonly known as, “C.T. Studd.” He became an expert Cricket player in his youth, but decided to become a missionary to China later on. Charles was born-again at age 18, through faith alone in Jesus Christ. You can [1]read his biography here if you’d like. In this blog I wanted to share some of his notable inspiring preacher quotes:

> “Only one life, ’twill soon be past, Only what’s done for Christ will last.” —C.T. Studd
>
> “Some want to live within the sound of church or chapel bell; I want to run a rescue shop, within a yard of hell.” —C.T. Studd
>
> “If Jesus Christ be God and died for me, then no sacrifice can be too great for me to make for Him.” —C.T. Studd
>
> “Let us not glide through this world and then slip quietly into heaven, without having blown the trumpet loud and long for our Redeemer, Jesus Christ. Let us see to it that the devil will hold a thanksgiving service in hell, when he gets the news of our departure from the field of battle.” —C.T. Studd
>
>
> “The “romance” of a missionary is often made up of monotony and drudgery; there often is no glamour in it; it doesn’t stir a man’s spirit or blood. So don’t come out to be a missionary as an experiment; it is useless and dangerous. Only come if you feel you would rather die than not come. Don’t come if you want to make a great name or want to live long. Come if you feel there is no greater honor, after living for Christ, than to die for Him.” —C.T. Studd
>
> “God’s real people have always been called fanatics.” —C.T. Studd
>
> “True religion is like the smallpox. If you get it, you give it to others and it spreads.” —C.T. Studd
>
> “WE ARE FRITTERING AWAY TIME AND MONEY IN A MULTIPLICITY OF CONVENTIONS, conferences, and retreats, when the real need is to go straight and full steam into battle, with the signal for "close action" flying.” —C.T. Studd
> “Some wish to live within the sound of a chapel bell, I want to run a rescue shop within a yard of Hell.” —C.T. Studd

“I am getting desperately afraid of going to heaven for I have had the vision of the shame I shall suffer as I get my first glimpse of the Lord Jesus; His majesty, power, and marvellous love for me, who treated Him so meanly and shabbily on earth and acted as though I did Him a favour in serving Him! No wonder God shall have to wipe away the tears off all faces, for we shall be broken-hearted when we see the depth of His love and the shallowness of ours.” —C.T. Studd

Hebrews 10:17-22, "

And their sins and iniquities will I remember no more. Now where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sin.

Having therefore, brethren, boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jesus,

By a new and living way, which he hath consecrated for us, through the veil, that is to say, his flesh;

And having an high priest over the house of God; Let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water."

I often am reminded of the phrase from Hebrews 10:19b, " having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience..." Sprinkled with what? With the precious blood of Jesus of course! I love the lyrics of [1]this Gospel hymn...

> What can wash away my sin?
> Nothing but the blood of Jesus.
> What can make me whole again?
> Nothing but the blood of Jesus.
> Refrain:
> O precious is the flow > that makes me white as snow;
> no other fount I know;
> nothing but the blood of Jesus.

Dear reader, whatever sins, failures and atrocities may be in your Skelton Closet (and we all have one), by faith sprinkle Jesus' precious blood upon your past and move on for God. If you have trusted Jesus with childlike faith as your Savior, then you've been born-again and your sins are all under the blood. Please don't wallow in guilt for past sins that Christ has paid for with His blood.

Now, to clarify, if you've hurt people in your past, but still haven't sincerely attempted to make restitution and reconciliation to make things right, then you should feel guilty. If you've done your best to right your wrongs, then there's nothing more you can do except put the matter into the Lord's hands for judgment. There are people who have deeply hurt and defrauded me of tens of thousands of dollars throughout my life. They have never tried to reconcile with me. I have already forgiven them, for my sake so I can move on and live. Biblical forgiveness oftentimes means letting a matter go into God's hands for judgment, so you can stop worrying about the injustice for the time being, trusting God's solemn promise that He will avenge you (Romans 12:19-21; 1st Thessalonians 4:6; Matthew 12:36; Ecclesiastes 12:14; Matthew 7:1-2; Romans 14:10-12; Galatians 6:7; Proverbs 24:12; Hebrews 4:13). I assure you friend that NO ONE ever gets away with any sin, crime or injustice; God sees and will judge all.

About 25 years ago at work one night (I worked the ungodly graveyard shift for seven miserable years from 1993 to 2000, I read the following sign posted by our Part's Department, which made an impression on me that I have never forgot:

There's Always Something You Thought You Could Have Done To Make Things Better

I love that statement! When I first read that truth it encouraged my heart, because we all live with a certain degree of guilt for past failures, sins, bad decisions, doing nothing when we should have taken action, and shortcomings. As we grow older especially, regrets start to creep into our mind and convict us. I humbly think that is why the older folks departed first in the true story of the woman caught in the very act of adultery. The Jewish religious leaders wanted to stone her to death per Moses commandment, and they asked Jesus what He thought about the matter. They were trying to entrap Jesus in a messy situation, to wrongly accuse and prosecute Him to death. When Jesus wrote something on the ground with His finger (we don't know what He wrote), the inspired Holy Bible says from the eldest to the youngest they departed. Here is the biblical account...

> John 8:1-11, "Jesus went unto the mount of Olives. And early in the morning he came again into the temple, and all the people came unto him; and he sat down, and taught them. And the scribes and Pharisees brought unto him a woman taken in adultery; and when they had set her in the midst, They say unto him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act. Now Moses in the law commanded us, that such should be stoned: but what sayest thou? This they said, tempting him, that they might have to accuse him. But Jesus stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground, as though he heard them not. So when they continued asking him, he lifted up himself, and said unto them, He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her. And again he stooped down, and wrote on the ground. And they which heard it, being convicted by their own conscience, went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, even unto the last: and Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst. When Jesus had lifted up himself, and saw none but the woman, he said unto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee? She said, No man, Lord. And Jesus said unto her, Neither do I condemn thee: go, and sin no more."

I have often wondered what Jesus wrote on the ground, but my guess is that He either wrote, "Where's the man?" or He simply drew the symbol of a man and they figured it out. They claimed that they'd caught her "in the very act," so then why didn't they also bring the guilty man to Jesus? Why did they only condemn the woman? Their sin of self-righteousness was greater than her sin of adultery! In this historical moment we see Matthew 7:3 in action, "And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye?" What ungodly hypocrites!!!

No matter how much we may try to do things a better way, we still mess up. Thousands of times throughout my lifetime I have regretted in hindsight that I didn

't do something a different way, or word something differently than I did, or should have spoke up when I stayed silent, or should have kept quiet when I ran my big mouth and made things worse, et cetera.

I am very forgetful. If it's out of sight, I will forget to do it, or forget about it. I actually have a policy that I started several years ago for myself, that I never allow my car's fuel tank to get lower than half full. I have to do that or I may run out of gas on the road. I've actually had that happen to me in the past, running out of gas on the highway because I forgot to full my tank. I have to set email reminders to pay my credit card, or I will forget. I am just a flawed human being made of the dust of the earth. I have so many regrets in my past, things that I wish I could erase from my memory, but I cannot. But I can sprinkle my past sins, failures and regrets (i.e., an as the Bible says in Hebrews 10:19) with the precious blood of Jesus, My God and Savior.

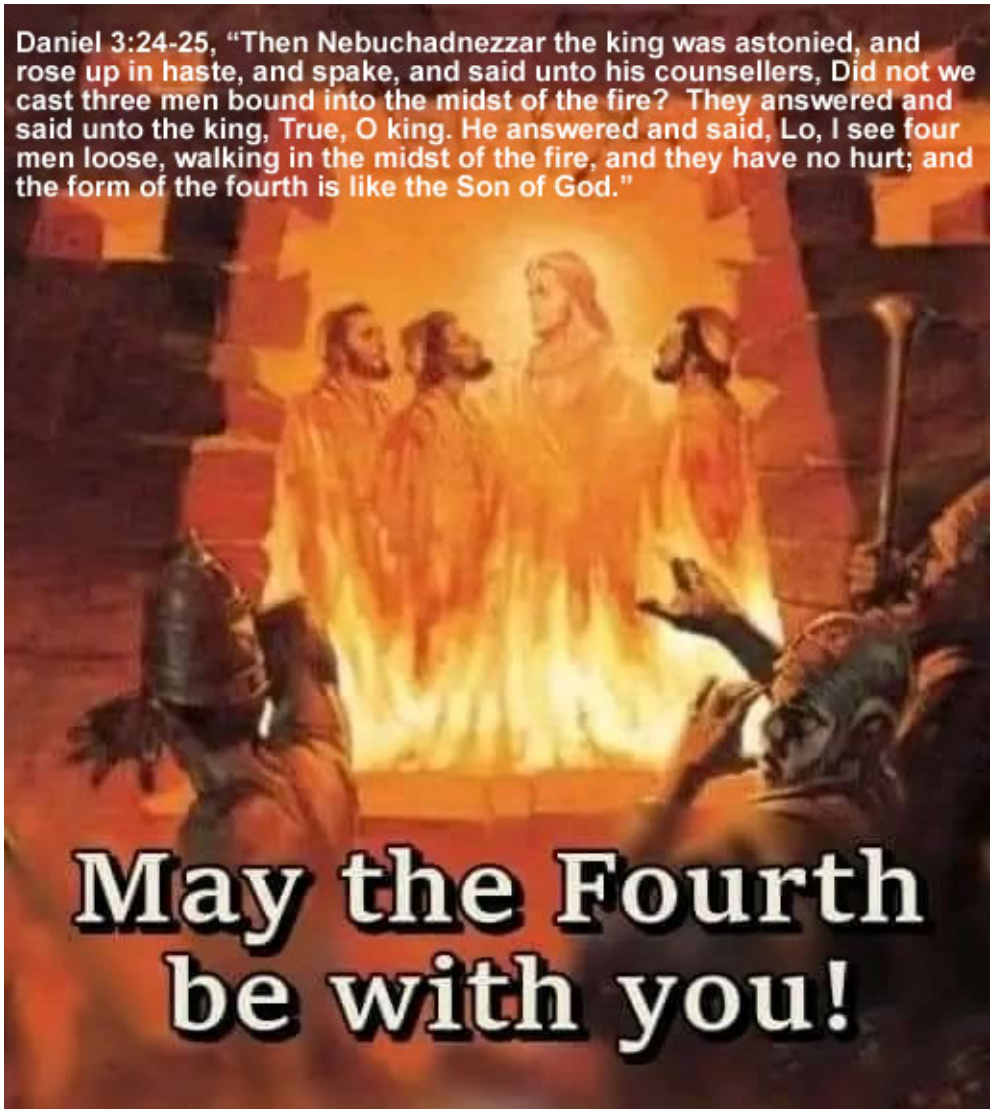
There is always something that you thought you could have done to make things better. Don't beat yourself up for being human. We've all blown it big time in the past. No believer is a shining example to the rest of Christendom of what a saint should be. No one! The only person who is sinless is our blessed Redeemer, Jesus Christ (Hebrews 4:15).



1st Timothy 5:24, " Some men's sins are open beforehand, going before to judgment; and some men they follow after." That Scripture is saying that some believers do a good job of hiding their horrible sins from others, but the sins are still there! One day in eternity those gross sins will be manifest for all to see, so that NO ONE will be able to boast of what a great Christian they were while on earth. I echo the words of King David in Psalms 106:6, "

We have sinned with our fathers, we have committed iniquity, we have done wickedly.

Thank God for the gift of His dear only begotten Son, Jesus, who shed His blood on the cross and sprinkled that literal liquid blood on the heavenly Mercy Seat (Hebrews 9:12), on our behalf in the presence of God the Father (Hebrews 9:24; 12:24).

Romans 5:9, " Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him. "

5.8.2 Preaching THE TRUTH Will Make You Enemies, Mostly Among Church-goers (2024-08-04 18:09)

Galatians 4:16-17, "Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth? They zealously affect you, but not well; yea, they would exclude you, that ye might affect them."

I've been banned from attending Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College (PCC), because I called out and exposed their INCOMPETENT pastors (Timothy Zacharias and Jeff Redlin) for [1]preaching wrong repentance and Lordship Salvation.

I was also kicked out and banned from attending the neo-evangelical Bob Jones University (BJU) cult at the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. Harvest plays Pastor Redlin's sermons at PCC on their KHMG 88.1 FM radio station in Micronesia. Birds of a feather flock together! These spiritual retards are dangerous to churches everywhere!!!

Tragically, 99 % of Baptist churches today couldn't care less, and wickedly bid Godspeed to the cults at PCC and BJU. They've horribly labeled me as a "trouble-maker," like Elijah. [illegible] [illegible]:[illegible]-[illegible], "[illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible], [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible], [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]? 5.8.3 Be Grateful For The Blessings In Your Life (2024-08-06 12:32)

Psalms 27:13, "I had fainted, unless I had believed to see the goodness of the LORD in the land of the living."

There was a young man who was only 19 years old, in Chicago, who got hit in the neck by a stray gun bullet from a drive-by gang shooting. He was turned into a quadriplegic instantly. His name was Carlos. We used to go visit Carlos every Saturday on our Bus Ministry route in the Wicker Park neighborhood on Chicago's northside. I felt so sorry for Carlos, who was only in his early twenties at the time. This was the late 1980's.

I don't know if he is still alive, but for his sake I hope he's not. I know that may sound cruel, but I'd rather be dead than be stuck in a wheelchair all my life, and not even able to go for a walk, go fishing, strum a banjo or eat on my own. Can you imagine spending your entire life crippled in a wheelchair, unable to even lift a spoon to your mouth to eat? Carlos cannot clean himself, use the restroom, or do anything. What a miserable existence!

Carlos will never be married, never have any children or grandchildren. When I start to feel depressed and down that I am divorced (my wife abandoned me in 2006) and cannot find a wife, and for all the traumatic things that have happened in my life in the past, and all the rotten people who have deeply hurt me (especially ungodly church people and pastors), I think about Carlos and realize how blessed I am just to be able to type on a keyboard, eat a cheeseburger, play my banjo, drive to church, brush my teeth, comb what's left of my hair, and live a normal life. God is so good and I have no complaints.

I have been thinking about Carlos lately, and praising God for His many blessings in my life. I can think of at least three Christian men, who at a troubled time in their life commit suicide. What a waste of life! No matter how bad things may get in your life, there is someone in this world who needs you! I need your help with my ministry; not financially, but prayerfully. I appreciate when others promote my articles on social media, pray for me, and let me know that God has used a redeemed nobody like me to influence their life for Jesus Christ. Suicide is a very selfish thing to do to your family and loved ones. I would say that I'd rather die than commit suicide, but that wouldn't make any sense, would it...lol.

I knew a young man that used to come down to our rescue mission to volunteer on holidays. My father was the pastor and told me one day that the man, Greg, killed himself. He was in debt. His fiancée had just dumped him to go marry another fella. He lost all hope and took his own life. So sad. But I often think how much God could have done through Greg, if he has maintained a proper biblical mindset, knowing that our purpose here on earth is to please God (Revelation 4:11). My purpose in life is not to find a wife. I struggle daily with deep loneliness.

I heard Mr. Trump defending his running mate for Vice President this week, Senator J.D. Vance from Ohio, who had made some comments about old women with cats who never got married or had any children. The rotten liberal media went after him. Mr. Trump said he couldn't speak for his running mate, but explained the way he sees it. I was comforted by what the former U.S. president said. Trump said that some people have never been blessed to meet someone to marry. They wanted to get married, but for one reason or another they never met anyone. That is why I am still single since 2006. I have tried to find a wife. As a born-again believer the Bible strictly forbids me from marrying anyone other than another saved person. That drastically narrows down the lottery.

I almost found a wife in 2014, but that devil pastor of Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, Marty Herron, ruined my life by refusing to even allow me to attend their church, to date the woman that I know (as sure as I am saved) would have married me. Marty Herron is a degenerate scumbag, who is going straight to Hell with his damnable lies of Lordship Salvation, and the corrupt Bible revisions that he loves so much, and his butt-buddy John MacArthur. Marty Herron is a demon! Herron is lucky that I don't have the power to ruin his life, because I would in a second, to humble that arrogant fool, but vengeance is the Lords (Romans 12:19-21).

God knows that I don't hate a living soul, but I do hate the Devil's neo-evangelical toxic cult at Bob Jones University (BJU) and Pensacola Christian College (PCC). These are pseudo-fundamentalist institutions. That is, they are FALSE fundamentalist. In truth, they are closet neo-evangelicals who ALL teach the damnable Satanic fallacy of Lordship Salvation. Tragically, 99 % of clergy and layman today are asleep at the wheel, driving Christianity into the ground.

Sorry for the rant. I do that...lol. That's just the Baptist preacher in me. My worst enemies in life have been neo-evangelical churchgoers who masquerade as Christians. In hindsight, the woman that I had hoped to marry on Guam wasn't the best for me. She wore pants (not modest), she was a BJU graduate (a Lordship Salvation cult), and she was a career-oriented female as a nurse, hardly wife material. I suppose I should be singing Garth Brooke classic song titled, "[2]Thank God For Unanswered Prayer."

Thank God For Unanswered Prayer (Garth Brooks)

I lost all respect for her the day she sided with her God-cursed pastors at Harvest Baptist Church, who are spiritual criminals. Pastor Jack Hyles taught me, "To lose something in the will of God is to find something better." If I hadn't taken a stand at Harvest Baptist Church for the inspiration King James Bible, and taken a stand against their toxic counterfeit gospel of Lordship Salvation, she would have married me, because I never would have been forced to leave the church by that wolf in sheep's clothing, Marty Herron. These are the demons from my past. 2nd Timothy 4:14, " Alexander the coppersmith did me much evil: the Lord reward him according to his works:

Let us all be grateful that we are not quadriplegics stuck in wheelchairs. I was driving to CVS Pharmacy yesterday to pick up my pain medication, and I saw a woman riding in her electric wheelchair down the sidewalk. I immediately thought how fortunate I am to still be able to walk, and I thanked and praised our good and faithful God. I love what Pastor Jack Hyles taught me:

"The foundation of gratitude is the expectation of nothing."

5.8.4 The Fallacy Of Having To Call, Pray Or Ask To Be Saved (2024-08-07 17:21)

John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life."

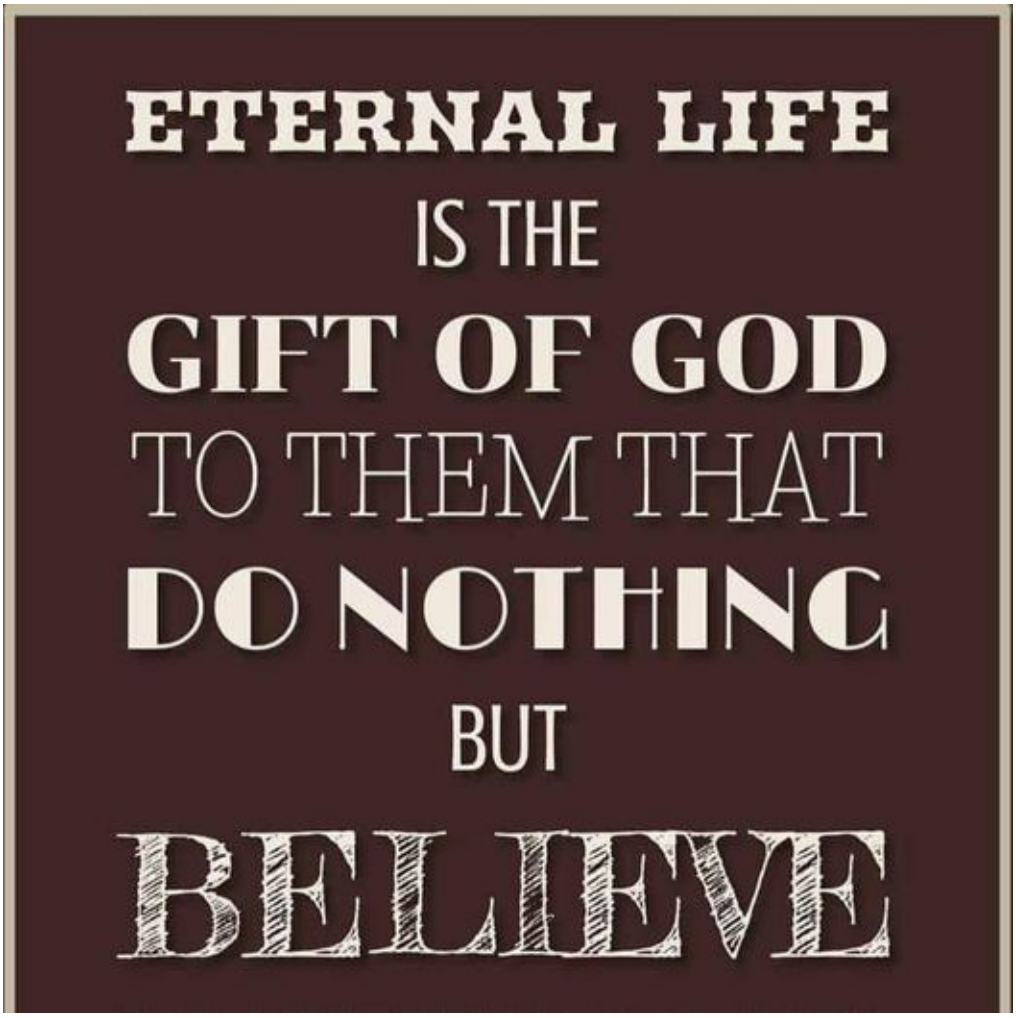
I like what Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) said: "A good rule to follow when interpreting the Bible is to never use an obscure passage to contradict a clear one." It would be bad Bible interpretation to base a doctrine on one verse, like Romans 10:9, "

That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.

" Countless fools have lifted this Scripture text out of context to create a new pretext (heresy). When properly interpreting the inspired Holy Bible, we must compare Scripture with Scripture to solve the puzzle. If a puzzle piece (i.e., your suggested interpretation) fits, by making sure that it agrees with the whole of Scripture, then you know you've got the correct meaning. If your suggested interpretation doesn't fit, then you've got the wrong meaning and need to keep studying.

The entire Gospel of John was authored by God for the specific purpose of showing humanity how to get to Heaven (John 20:31). In the book of John we find the word "believe " mentioned 85 times without any mention of confessing with the mouth. If "confession" were required to obtain the new birth, then John would have mentioned it. Likewise, in the book of John neither will you find any mention of following Christ, water baptism, surrendering all, or repenting of your sinful ways to be saved. Ungodly, but well-meaning, religious men added these embellishments to pervert God's simple plan of salvation. Woe be unto them in eternity when they are judged!

Also, the same Apostle John who penned the book of John penned the Epistle of 1st John. According to 1st John 5:13 the purpose of John's book is so that believers can "know" that we are saved. Nowhere does John require that we must "confess" to be saved. Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) shared this wisdom:



> "'Pray to be saved. Ask the Lord to save you.' This is what I heard a minister say to a convicted sinner who came forward for prayer at the close of an evangelistic service. Nowhere in the Bible are men told to pray to be saved. There are examples where men did pray and were saved. Men are told to repent, to believe, to obey the Gospel, but the Bible never says to pray for salvation. It does say that whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved, but nowhere does the Bible command men to pray to be saved. I think I know why, God, who made the human heart, knew that it was not necessary to tell convicted sinners to pray. If a sinner can see Jesus Christ on the cross, it is as natural for him to pray as it is for birds to sing or flowers to bloom. 'Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved."' —Dr. Bob Jones

Sr., “Comments On Here And Hereafter,” chapter: Prayer And Praise, page 163; Bob Jones University Press, Inc., © 1942

It is heresy for anyone to tell someone that they must pray, call or ask to get to Heaven. The inspired King James Bible is abundantly clear that the man who BELIEVES is saved. John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life."

Jesus did tell the Samaritan woman in John 4:10 that if she knew who He was, she would have asked Him for the water of life; but if you read the rest of the chapter, nowhere does it say that any of the Samaritans asked, called or prayed to be saved, it says they BELIEVED on Him. There is nothing wrong with calling, praying or asking Jesus to save you, just so long as you don’t trust in prayer to save you. But to say that a person cannot be saved without praying, calling or asking is a perversion of God’s simple plan of salvation.

5.8.5 BEWARE Of Dangerous Chick Tracts! (2024-08-07 19:15)

As a boy I loved Chick Tracts because of the art work. They were (and still are) intriguing. But when I grew up and realized that Lordship Salvation has crept into most churches, because of the incompetent Bible colleges that train 90 % of pastors today, [1]I took a closer look at Chick Tracts and was very disappointed.

Jack Chick (1924-2016) was an artist, not a preacher, and he got the Gospel wrong. According to Mr. Chick, admitting you're a sinner is not enough to get to Heaven, he requires that you also be willing to turn away from your sins. Not one verse in the inspired King James Bible teaches to "repent of your sins" or "turn from your sins" to be saved, ungodly religious men added those extra words and requirement.

NO ONE has ever turned from their sinning. At best all we can do is clean up our life of sin, reform in the eyes of men, and walk uprightly to hide our sinful heart; but we would still be just as a vile, unholy, unclean and sinful in God's sight. THE ONLY thing that makes the best Christian on the planet any more righteous than Jeffrey Dahmer or John Wayne Gacy (both convicted mass-murderers) is the precious blood of Jesus that washed all our sins away (Romans 5:9).

In other words, we are only made righteous by GOD'S RIGHTEOUSNESS (which is imputed to every believer by faith at the time of the new birth - Romans 4:5-6). With this great fundamental biblical truth in mind, it should become obvious what is so wrong about Jack Chick telling lost sinners that they must be willing to reform (i.e., turn from their sins) to be saved. A willingness to self-improve has no place in God's simple plan of salvation. Sadly, Jack Chick was a false prophet, responsible for misleading millions of lost sinners concerning how to get to Heaven.

5.8.6 Being Catholic Or Baptist Does Not Make You A Christian (2024-08-09 23:00)

John 3:1-3, "There was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews: The same came to Jesus by night, and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him. Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God."

Jesus warned in Matthew 7:13-15 and Luke 13:23-24 that MOST people will not enter into Heaven in eternity. Luke 13:23-24, "Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them, Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able." The dear Savior in no uncertain terms exclaimed in

Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God."

Being a Catholic doesn't get you to Heaven. Joining a Baptist church doesn't get you to Heaven. You can join every church in your city, and give all your earthly possessions to them, and serve in the church all your life, but still die in your sins and go to Hell forever. You must experience the new birth, which is by faith alone in the Gospel (Good News) of Jesus Christ.

I read that there are an estimated 350,000 church in the United States. In my humble opinion, it would be a wonderful thing if 99 % of them closed their doors forever. I dare say that only 3,500 of those 350,000 churches are worth salvaging! In all likelihood only about 350 of those churches are worth saving. It is now VERY difficult to find a doctrinally sound, soulwinning, people-loving, King James Bible only, local church that contends for the faith.

The average church today is merely a glorified social club. The rest are religious cults that are wrong on the Gospel, falsely teaching that to get to Heaven you must forsake your sinful bad habits, follow Christ, or surrender all to be saved. In sharp contrast the inspired Holy Bible teaches that Christ died for our sins, and all we need to do to be saved is BELIEVE that Jesus did it all for us. John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life. "

Tragically, someday at the Great White Throne of Judgment (Revelation 20:11-15), billions of the dead will stand before God the Father and be sentenced to the everlasting Lake of Fire. John 3:18 says that the unbelieving are already condemned, because they have not believed on the name of the only begotten Son of God (John 3:36). Time is running out friends! No amount of religious devotion, sacrifice and good deeds can rescue a guilty sinner from the eternal damnation and punishment of Hell. All unregenerated sinners go to Hell forever without rest or hope. The choice is yours alone to make.

The

Gospel

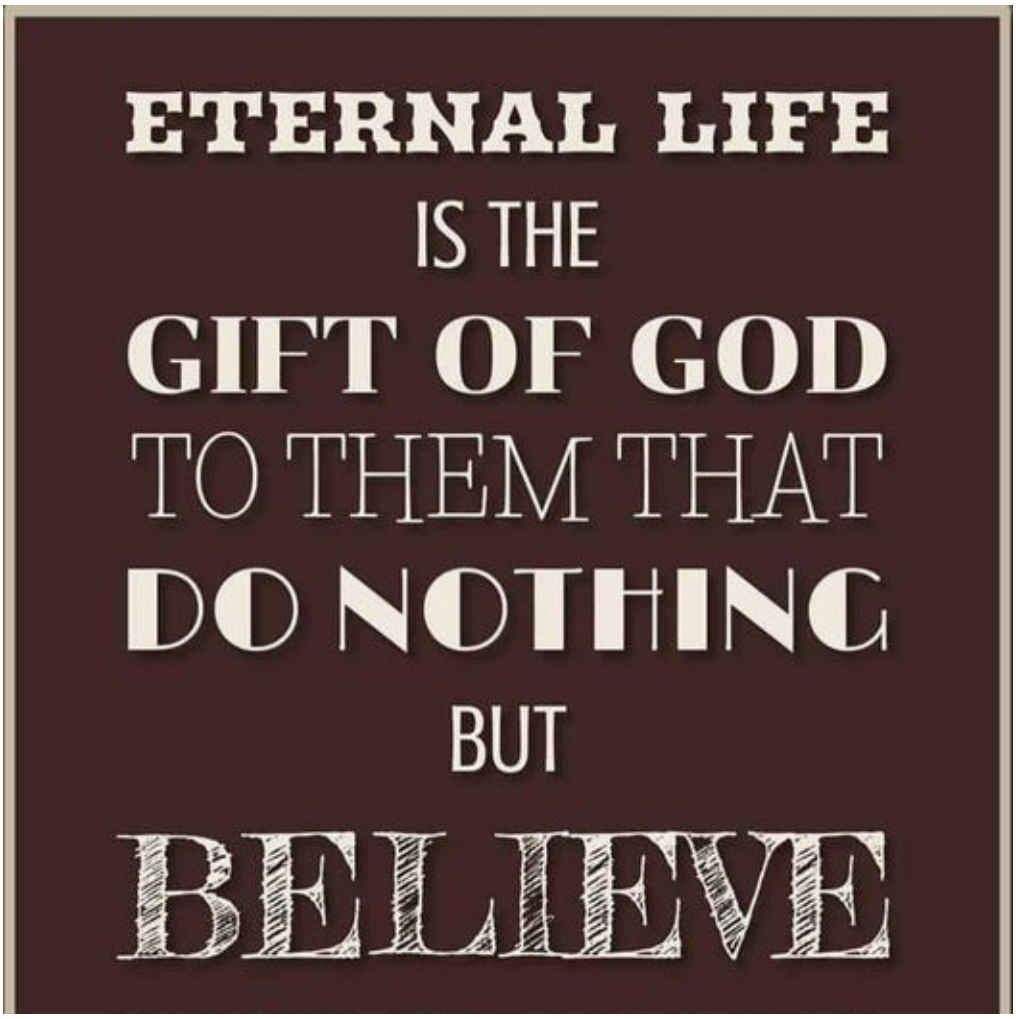
in the Scripture is defined as three things in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4:



1. Jesus DIED on a cross to pay for our sins.
2. He was BURIED.
3. Jesus RESURRECTED three days later from the dead.

Any admitted guilty sinner who by faith (childlike reliance, trust) BELIEVES these three facts is immediately, irrevocably and permanently saved. You have God's promise of it in Romans 1:16, "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek." Being Catholic, Mormon, Jehovah's Witness, Seventh-Day Adventist, Church of Christ, Lutheran or Roman Catholic doesn't make you a born-again Christian, it makes you religious. Religion is the worst thing that ever happened to this world, because religion never saved anybody!

Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God."

5.8.7 Here's Some Of My Banjo Playing (2024-08-13 12:52)

I wanted to take a break in this one blog from my preaching, to share some of my music with you.

I started playing acoustic guitar when I was 15 years old. My Dad bought me a used Takamine guitar for $50 from a local pawn shop. In the late 1980's. or perhaps early 1990's (I cannot remember), I bought a banjo and learned to play the song, Cripple Creek. But living in Chicago, before there was any internet, I lost interest quickly. I saw a man playing a saxophone in downtown Chicago, which inspired me to buy a Bundy Alto Saxophone. I paid $600 for it. I became pretty good with it, but again lost interest. It just wasn't my thing (even thought it was my thing...lol). I also can play the harmonica.

At age 25, I started to learn to play the Pedal Steel Guitar in 1992. The [1]steel guitar is my favorite instrument, which I am passionate about still today. [2]I love the steel guitar!

Over the years I have learned to play the mandolin, Dobro, lap steel guitar, autoharp, electric bass, lute, 21 string harp, ukulele and other stringed instruments. I love the lap steel, playing Hawaiian music with it. I understand piano basic and can play basic chords. Anyway, without further ado, I recorded the song "Arkansas Traveller" last evening, and I hope you like it. I'm playing a Deering Golden Era banjo, recording through a Shute 57 microphone...

[4]My Grandfather's Clock

(Deering Golden Era)

[5]My Grandfather's Clock

(Deering Calico)

The Golden Era cost me $4,376 (Fuller's Guitars in Houston, Texas, gave me a much appreciated 15 % discount off of their dealer listed price of $5,149). Deering sells the Golden Era for $5,719). But to compare, I recorded the song "The Old Spinning Wheel" the other night with my $1,099 Deering Goodtime Special (a student banjo)...

[6]The Old Spinning Wheel
(Deering Goodtime Special)

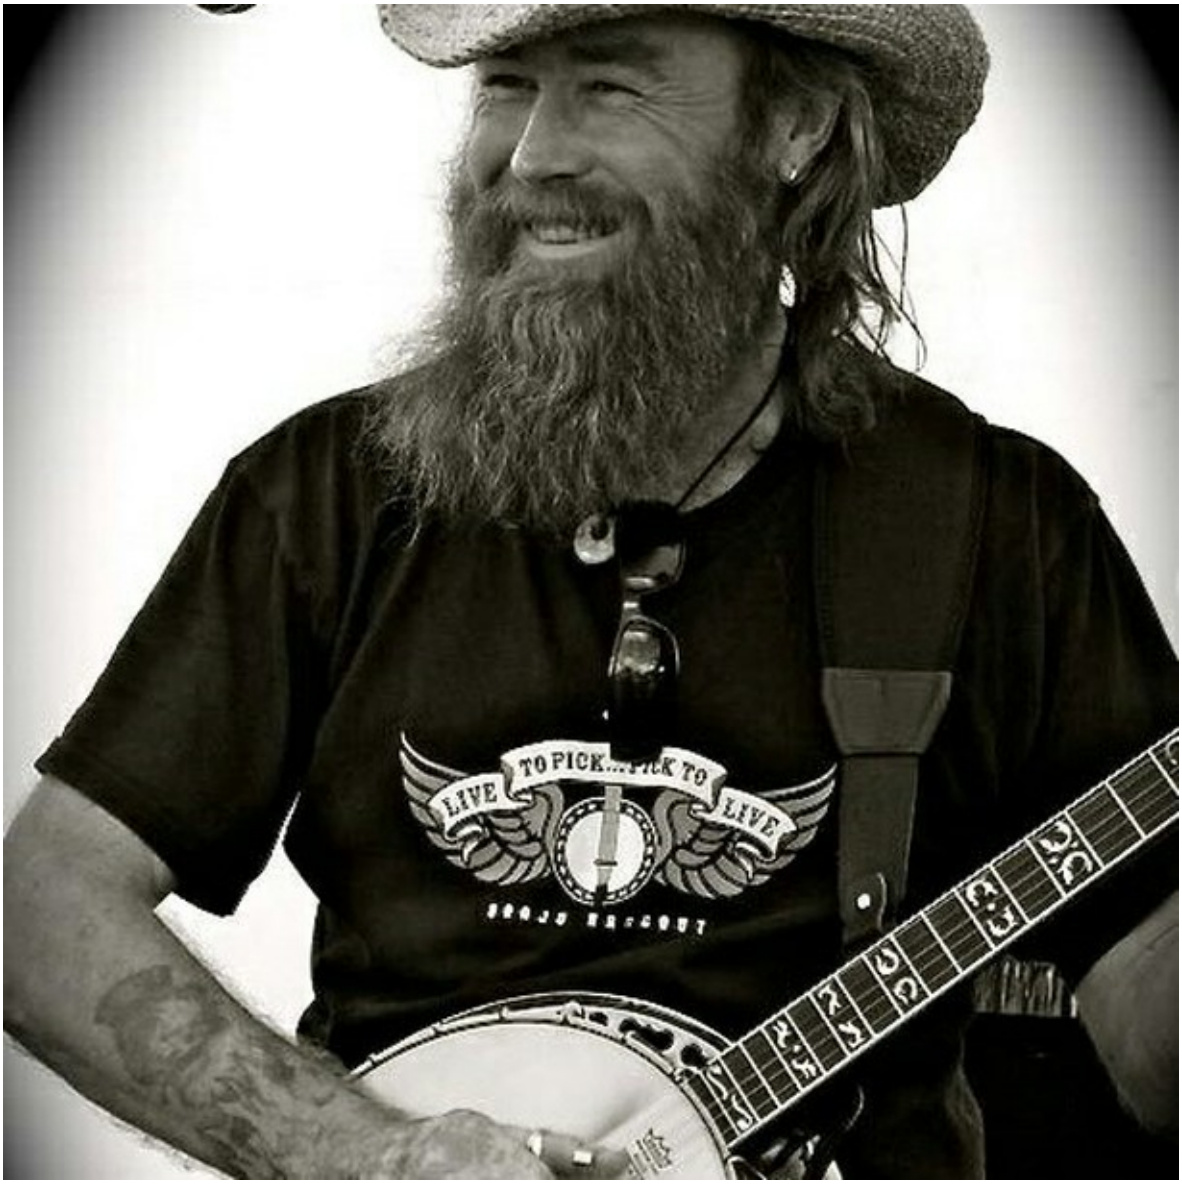
I may not keep the Golden Era. I am waiting for a Deering Calico banjo, to try it out. The Golden Era has a buzzing issue in the first string when I do pull-offs on the 2nd fret, which I made [7]an audio recording of so you can hear the issue for yourself. For that kind of money, there shouldn't be any buzzing issues! So, I'll make a decision when the Calico arrives. If I want the Golden Era, I'm going to send it back and request a different one that doesn't buzz. One day at a time.

I also recorded the following song, "Mason's Apron," the other night on my Golden Era banjo. I'm using [8]backing tracks that I purchased from Dave Hum's (1966-2012) family. Dave died at age 46 in 2012 of cancer. Dave is one of my musical heroes. You can watch [9]Dave Hum's 219 YouTube banjo videos if you'd like. They bring me much joy! Music makes the world a better place.

[10]Mason's Apron

(Deering Golden Era)

Lastly, I recorded 'The Old Spinning Wheel' with the Golden Era a couple nights ago. The previously recording you listened to, in this blog, was recorded using my Deering Goodtime Special (student banjo). ...



[11]The Old Spinning Wheel

(Deering Golden Era)

I hope you've enjoyed hearing some of my music. It was in 2018 that I first discovered Dave Hum's videos on YouTube, and the rest is history (as they say). Dave's music inspired me, rekindling my old love of the banjo. I had never heard the banjo played in that way before, the way Dave plays it, and I knew in my heart that I wanted to play just like he does. [12]This is the first song that I ever heard Dave play, and it made me cry how beautifully he plays starting at about 49 seconds into the video. My playing is still rough. I miss notes here and there. Lord willing, I plan to keep learning and picking the banjo, until death do us part...lol.

5.8.8 Beware Of The Satanic 'Church Of Christ' False Religion (2024-08-15 10:44)

Mark 7:7-9, "Howbeit in vain do they worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men. For laying aside the commandment of God, ye hold the tradition of men, as the washing of pots and cups: and many other such like things ye do. And he said unto them, Full well ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition."

Someone sent me an invitation to attend the local [1]Gateway Church of Christ in Pensacola. As I always do, the first thing I did was go look for their Statement of Beliefs. [2]What I found is a laughable joke! Clearly, as cults often do, they are hiding their beliefs. Seventh-Day Adventist and Jehovah's Witness church cults do this all the time. Beware of these cults! And may I add, any Baptist church that preaches [3]Lordship Salvation is equally a deadly religious cult!

I had to go searching online for what other Church of Christ (COC) cults believe. They all essentially believe that you must stop living a lifestyle of sin to get to Heaven, which is a counterfeit gospel. Case in point, here is a quote from the Statement of Faith of the Clovis Church of Christ in California...

> Again, in Acts 3:19 Peter says
>
> "Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord;"
>
> So, if repentance is a requirement, what does it mean and what must we do to meet this requirement? To repent is to change our mind and make the decision that we will change our life to begin serving the Lord as He desires us to serve Him. This is brought about by understanding what God has done for us, and realizing that we are not right with Him in our current condition and that we desire to change so as to please Him. This means, that an immoral person must become moral and upright in lifestyle*. For the religious person who has tried to live a life pleasing to God, repentance may involve recognizing that we have not done what God requires of us with regard to salvation and that we must obey the inspired plan in order to be right with Him. If we are in the denominational world, belonging to a church that has a creed or doctrine other than the Bible and/or in addition to the Bible, then we must turn away from such a religion and find a congregation of people that believe in the Bible and only the Bible. (We are certainly happy to help you in any such search.) Repentance then is produced by Godly sorrow (2 Corinthians 7:10) which leads to a change of heart and a change of mind, which is the beginning of a changed life... one that is dedicated to God*. [emphasis added]
> SOURCE: [4]https://www.clovischurchofchrist.org/resources/the-plan-of-sal vation

What you have just read is Satanic! You don't have to "become moral and upright" of your own doing to get to Heaven, you need to receive Jesus' sacrifice on the cross as full payment for your sins. Simply believe that Jesus did it all for you! There is no requirement to become a moral person to be saved in the inspired King James Bible. They started off right in COC by teaching that repentance is "

a change of mind,

but then they embellished repentance by adding other things to it which are totally unbiblical. The Bible does not say to clean up your life of sin, commit to do better, promise to turn away from sinful bah habits nor to dedicate your life to God to get to Heaven. These things are all proper in their place, but you may do all of these things are never have been saved at all. Jesus emphatically stated in John 3:3b, "

Ye must be born again.

I love and share David's attitude. Psalms 84:10, "

For a day in thy courts is better than a thousand. I had rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God, than to dwell in the tents of wickedness.

Amen and amen! I'd rather be a doorkeeper in a local Bible-believing church, than to rule in Satan's Hollywood kingdom. I'd rather cut the grass for God's house, than to dwell in Hugh Hefner's mansion. Like Joshua, I'm on the Lord's side (Joshua 24:15).

Here is more damnable heresy taught by the ungodly Church of Christ...

> Finally, we must live our lives in faithful and loyal service to our Lord Jesus Christ as God has directed (Revelation 2:10).
> SOURCE: [5]https://www.clovischurchofchrist.org/resources/the-plan-of-salvation

That is pure Lordship Salvation, not the free grace Gospel presented in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4. Works have no part in God's simple plan of salvation. Romans 4:5, "

But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.

" Having to live a faithful life and loyal service to Christ to be saved is self-righteousness, not trusting saving faith. Remember, we are saved by GOD'S RIGHTEOUSNESS, not our own goodness (Philippians 3:9). Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do.

Water Baptism Is Not Required To Get To Heaven

The Satanic Church of Christ also corrupts the Gospel by adding a requirement to be water baptized to get to Heaven. Here is what the Clovis Church of Christ errantly teaches...

[6]

> "Therefore let all the house of Israel know assuredly, that God hath made that same Jesus, whom ye have crucified, both Lord and Christ. Now when they heard this, they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter and to the rest of the apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we do? Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost. For the promise is unto you, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call."

This tells us that baptism is necessary for the remission (forgiveness) of sins.

SOURCE: [7]https://www.clovischurchofchrist.org/resources/the-plan-of-salvation

Pastor Curtis Hutson made this helpful statement: A good rule to follow when interpreting the Bible is to never use an obscure passage to contradict a clear one. Bravo! Yes, that is exactly right! In umpteen places in the New Testament where we are told to " believe

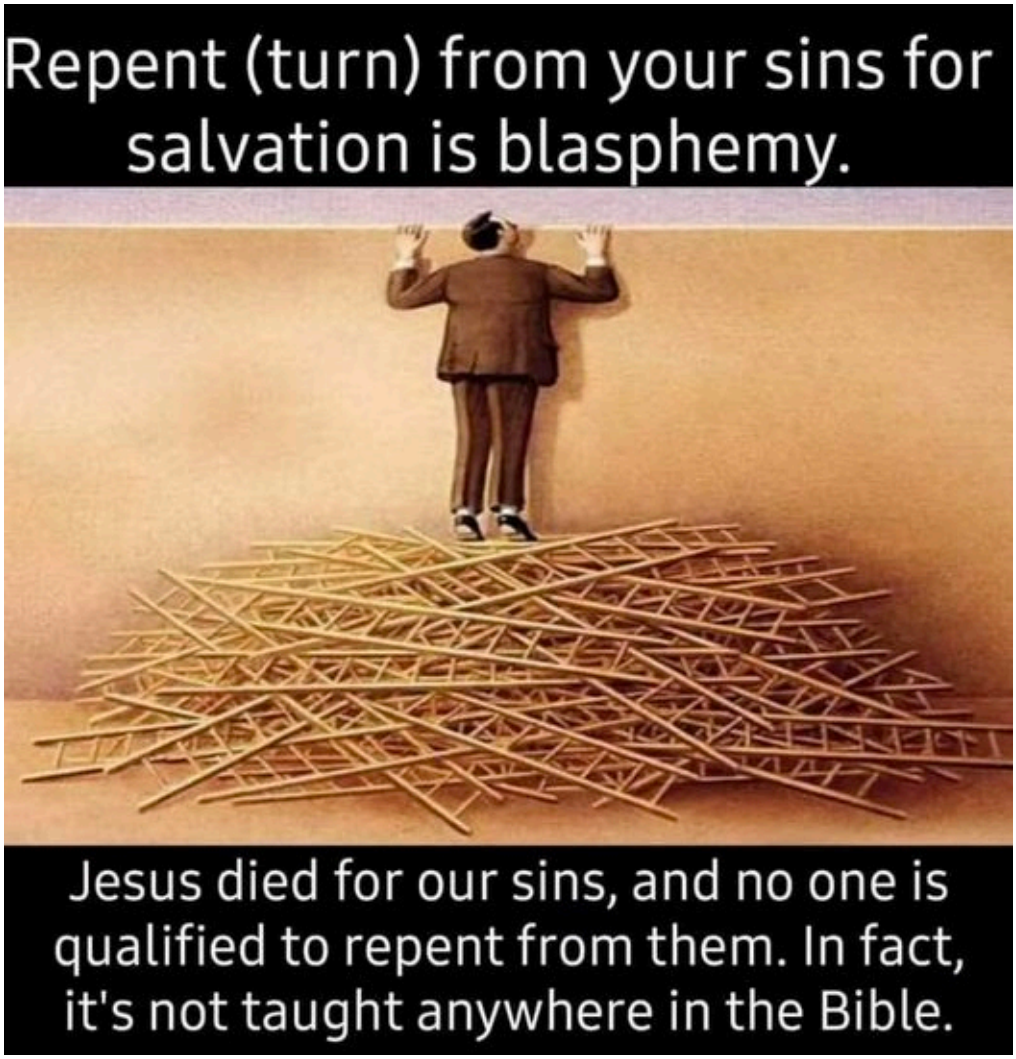
" on Jesus to be saved, there is no mention of water baptism. For example: John 6:47,

"Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life. " If water baptism were necessary to get to Heaven, then Jesus would have mentioned it here, but He didn't. The thief on the cross didn't have time to be baptized. It would be very wrong to say that God made an exception, when we are plainly told in Galatians 1:6-7 that there is only one Gospel.



The Church of Christ wrest (twist) the Scripture to their own destruction (2nd Peter 3:16-17). No one in the Old Testament was baptized with water to get to Heaven. In the Epistle of First John, the apostle tells us the purpose of his epistle is so that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God" (1st John 5:13). Yet, John never once mentions baptism. This speaks volumes as to this unnecessity of water baptism to be saved. The ungodly Church of Christ have changed God's simple plan of salvation, making it works-based instead of faith-based. Please don't buy into their lies!

My father was right, religion is the worst thing that ever happened to this world. Salvation is not found in any religion, but in the person of the Lord Jesus Christ.

IF YOU'RE PREACHING &
TEACHING THE GOSPEL
AS GOD'S WORD
COMMANDS US TO DO,
YOU WILL HAVE ENEMIES.
AND THEY'LL MOSTLY BE CHURCH GOING PEOPLE.

Repent (turn) from your sins for salvation is blasphemy.
Jesus died for our sins, and no one is qualified to repent from them. In fact, it's not taught anywhere in the Bible.

5.8.9 The Tragic Life And Death Of Elvis Presley (1935-1977) (2024-08-15 20:28)

1st Corinthians 3:11-15, “For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ. Now if any man build upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble; Every man’s work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man’s work of what sort it is. If any man’s work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward. If any man’s work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire.”

I love this song that Elvis Presley (January 8, 1935 - August 16, 1977) sang. I know that he lived a wicked life. Pastor Jack Hyles once met Elvis in an elevator in Garland, Texas. Dr. Hyles asked Elvis if he was saved and he affirmed that he was indeed a Christian. Elvis said he attended a revival with his grandmother as a boy and got saved. Dr. Hyles asked him why he was living in sin. Elvis said he wanted "to be free." Brother Hyles taught us that there is more freedom within the fence (the rules, God commandments), than there is outside the fence (where the hungry Pitbull, the Devil is lurking). This is a beautiful song...

Are You Lonesome Tonight (Elvis Presley)

God gave Elvis such a beautiful voice. After "the king" (as the music industry called him) died in 1977, an autopsy showed that Elvis had at least 10 different prescription drugs in his blood. In just one year his personal physician prescribed over 10,000 pills to Elvis. Anyway, I really like this song that Elvis sings. It is so surreal. He died a short time after this concert. If he were still alive today, Elvis would have been 89 years old. In fact, tomorrow (August 16th) is the 47th anniversary since Elvis passed away in 1977. I do believe that Elvis went to Heaven. A man’s salvation is determined by where he is looking, not upon the life he is living. Isaiah 45:22, “Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth: for I am God, and there is none else.”

Elvis lived a horrible life of sin, shaming the name of Jesus with his sexual immorality, substance abuse and worldliness. I chose 1st Corinthians 3:11-15 as our text passage because I thought it was fitting for Elvis. Specifically

1st Corinthians 3:15, “ If any man’s work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire.” I do believe that Elvis was saved through faith alone in Jesus, having the correct foundation; but upon that solid foundation he built a house of wood, hay and stubble. At the Judgment Seat of Christ Elvis’ works will all be burned up, but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire. That is, he barely escaped the fires of Hell.

Elvis received adoration from millions of fans, but he never honored God with his life. I’ve heard Elvis thank God here and there, but when everyone was idolizing and worshipping him he accepted their worship, just like wicked Herod (Acts 12:22-23). There are millions of comments of praise expressed on social media toward Elvis, as if he were a god. That is evil and wrong. Woman by the thousands fantasized about kissing Elvis. They melted and fainted at his concerts. Elvis had a habit of kissing (even smooching) with female fans in the audience. They paid good money to deliberately sit up front, hoping to kiss

” Elvis loved the attention and fanfare and I don’t blame him. Who wouldn’t? [1]Uh Huh-Huh!

Personally, I love many of Elvis’ songs, especially his earlier stuff from the 1950’s. But as a Christian I also realize that Elvis did not honor God with his sinful life. He did sing some beautiful Gospel songs from time to time, and I do believe he was saved. But not once at any place in his music career have I ever found where Elvis ever shared the Gospel with anyone. If he did preach the Gospel, the world would have rejected him (2nd Timothy 3:12).

I read some fool’s comments are YouTube, where they said Elvis was classy for not answering personal questions about his views on Women’s Liberation, et cetera. No, Elvis was an opportunist, a coward, who didn’t want to commit career suicide. He intentionally stayed vague and avoided sharing his personal views at risk of being crucified by the ravenous media, and I don’t blame him, but he wasn’t being “ classy.

Another person expressed admiration for Elvis that he forgot his words while singing a song, but said Elvis was “classy” for laughing instead. It is so obvious as I watched the video that Elvis didn’t forget anything, he was just chuckling a little while sinning. It annoys me that there’s an army of worship-mongers who idolize Elvis, micro-analyzing him to the point of insanity. If they could, they’d claim that Elvis’ was “

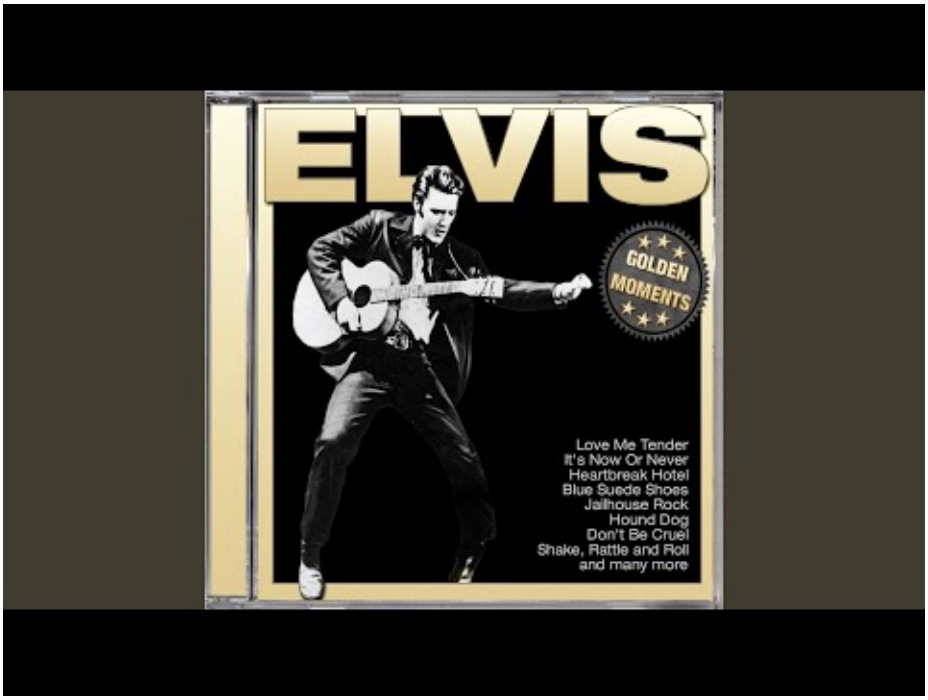
classy



” for not washing his dirty underwear because he didn’t want to waste water. People are moronic idiots! Elvis was the king of sin and shame, who died on his throne (a toilet) at age 42 when he overdosed on drugs. The inspired Holy Bible warns in James 4:4, that no one can be a friend of the world, and also be God’s friend. To be a friend of the world is to be God’s enemy!

Here is what Pastor Hyles said about meeting Elvis:

> "Many years ago when I was pastoring in Garland, Texas, I had a daily radio broadcast. Ordinarily the broadcast was live. However, on occasion, if I were scheduled to be out of town for a day or so, I would make a tape and take it to the radio station located on the eleventh floor of the Stoneleigh Hotel of Dallas, Texas. On one occasion I took a tape to the station. When I got on the elevator, I told the operator, who was an attractive young lady, that I wanted to go to the eleventh floor. She didn't hear a word I said! She was in a daze because Elvis Presley had just ridden her elevator. Finally I convinced her that I needed to go to the eleventh floor, and all she talked about was the fact that she had been alone with Elvis Presley for a few minutes. She finally gathered herself together and took me to the eleventh floor. She waited as I took the tape across the hallway to the station and then took me back to the main floor. On the way, however, she stopped the elevator, and Elvis Presley got on. He had on a green satin suit and at that time was in his heyday. I introduced myself to Elvis, we shook hands, and then I asked him, "Elvis, do you know, if you died today, you would go to Heaven?" His answer was startling. "I certainly do," he said. "I was saved when I was a child." Then he proceeded to tell me the circumstances. As best I remember, he said that his grandmother or some other relative had taken him to hear an old-fashioned Gospel preacher. He had received Christ as his Saviour. He told me in clear, positive language of his salvation. I then looked him square in the eye and said, "Elvis, how could a person who is born again live the kind of life that you are living?" He said, "Jack, I got tired of the rules. I wanted to be free." Need I say more? The very type of death that he died is living proof that though he thought he was leaving slavery to go to freedom; he was leaving freedom to go to slavery."

5.8.10 We Have Total Liberty In Saving Grace (2024-08-16 16:20)

salvation; with the Gospel of grace, you get to be you. I love that truth! In false religion there is always something else that you must do either be or remain saved; but in the true Gospel Christ did it all for us, and there are no stipulations, obligations or requirements to keep saved. It’s a done deal from the moment that you trusted Jesus!

People are so very confused nowadays about The Gospel. Anything past Grace is you doing the work that Christ has already done. Anything that you do in addition to just resting (trusting) in what Christ has already done through Calvary’s cross to pay for your sins is WORKS.

A ministry friend shared the following precious testimony with me today...

> People are so very confused about The Gospel: Anything past Grace is you doing the work that Christ has already done. I witnessed to a customer yesterday, to the point that tears were coming from his eyes, when I told him that he is free in what Jesus has already finished [what he (the customer) is trying to do]. I told him Jesus has Nothing to Work with, until he accepts the Freedom and the gift that has already been given to him the day he believed.
> His mind was bound by things he thought he had to be doing. It’s like giving a child a bicycle and they keep coming back asking if they can keep the bike. Well, yes, I gave it to you. It’s Free. Then a few days goes by and she says, “Daddy are you sure I can keep this bike, I really love it?” To which the Dad says, “Girl you gotta quit asking for something you already have.” Now go on and have fun with your new bike, it’s Finished.

I wanted to share this moving story with you, because it’s a big problem everywhere today. Billions of churchgoers are still trapped in bondage to religion, trying to turn from their sins and live an upright life for fear of not going to Heaven. Dear reader, Jesus has already paid the full price for your sins! You’re either resting in His finished work, or else you are only partially trusting Christ, plus something more (which is a counterfeit plan of salvation).

Religion is the “try harder”

salvation; with the Gospel of grace, you get to be you. That is, you can still live a lifestyle of sin and go to Heaven.

Sonja Lee Lester England Is An Unsaved False Prophet

I have some friends on Facebook who are not saved. However, if they are a hardened false teacher, I don’t accept (or I unfriend them if I unknowingly have already accepted them as a friend). I unfriended [1]Sonja Lee Lester England today, because I want no part of her wickedness. I don’t want to wickedly bid her Godspeed (2nd John 1:11). She posted the following junk theology on her Facebook page. I put a cancellation mark over it to warn others that this is Satanic ideology. ...

Dangerous False Teaching!

Kindly said, Sonja is a fool. She is mixing works with grace, wickedly perverting the Gospel of grace. The slanderous term “

Greasy Grace

blasphemes the grace of God! You’ve likely also heard the derogatory phrase

Cheap Grace.

” Dear reader, grace is not cheap, it is completely FREE! Jesus paid the ultimate price, sacrificing His life on the cross to pave the way for humanity to have eternal life, for anyone who wants it.

Sonja is a false convert, whose mind has been poisoned by neo-evangelical preachers. You'll find such ungodly [3]wolves in sheep's clothing at Pensacola Christian College. The Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ is under malicious attack today like never before. Sadly, the biggest threat is coming from tainted neo-evangelical Bible colleges!

Sonja's mind has been blinded by Satan concerning the Gospel. In her rotted brain, you're not saved if you're still living a lifestyle of sinning. But dear reader, we ALL live a lifestyle of sin! You are woefully deceived if you think that you're not as sinful as the next guy. In God's eyes you're either washed in the blood of Jesus, or you're not. In God's mind there are only two groups of people: Saved and Lost.

Here is another junk theology meme from Sonja's Facebook page. I also put a red cancellation mark on the image to warn others that this is dangerous untrue propaganda. ...

The ESV Corrupts Matthew 18:6

Whoever made this meme used the corrupt English Standard Version (ESV) of the Bible. The Bible doesn't use the word " sin,

the ESV translators did. The inspired King James Bible uses the word "offend."

Let's examine Matthew 18:6, shall we? ...

> KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) - Matthew 18:6, "
>
> But whoso shall offend one of these little ones which believe in me*, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea.
>

> ENGLISH STANDARD VERSION (ESV) - Matthew 18:6, "
>
> but whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in me to sin*, it would be better for him to have a great millstone fastened around his neck and to be drowned in the depth of the sea.

Carefully notice Matthew 18:7, "

And whoso shall receive one such little child in my name receiveth me.

" Jesus is warning everyone not to harm a child, and by extension a child of God (i.e., one who believes in Him). The ESV translators perverted God's Word, totally altering the meaning of the Scripture. Sonja's mind has been poisoned by Satan's corrupt Bible revisions. The Devil's modern Bible PERversions are the shaky foundation of the accursed neo-evangelical movement. Bob Jones University uses the toxic ESV, [5]preaches the damnable heresy of Lordship Salvation and is a bigoted hateful religious cult. I learned that painful fact firsthand at the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam (a repository of shameful BJU graduates).

I beseech you dear reader to reject the Satanic idea that you cannot commit adultery, fornicate, get drunk, steal, lie, lust, be a homosexual and still go to Heaven. But wait a minute! Doesn't the Bible warn that sinners cannot go to Heaven? What saith the Scripture? ...

> 1st Corinthians 6:9-11, "Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind, Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God.
>
> And such were some of you: but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God.
> **"

Please don't overlook verse 11, "but ye are washed..." That is the key! If you have been born-again by faith alone in Jesus as your Savior, then you're sins have all been WASHED AWAY by Jesus' precious blood. So, from that time forward (from the moment you were saved), God the Father only sees the imputed righteousness of His only begotten Son, and not our sins (Romans 4:5-6).

Your POSITION in Christ was forever settled at the time of the new birth; but your CONDITION in Christ is a separate matter of SERVICE, not SALVATION.

My favorite preacher's quote is from John Bunyan (1628-1688)...

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without, and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." —John Bunyan

Bravo John Bunyan! He clearly understood the vast difference between justification (the new birth), versus sanctification (discipleship). We absolutely must put a distinct difference between these two things, lest we corrupt the inspired Word of God and cast stumbling blocks before the people. Pastor M.R. DeHaan (1891-1965) also well understood this truth.

Here is an excellent quote by Pastor DeHaan explaining the difference between coming to Christ for salvation versus coming after Christ in discipleship:

> "There is a vast difference between coming to Jesus for salvation and coming after Jesus for service. Coming to Christ makes one a believer, while coming after Christ makes one a disciple. All believers are not disciples. To become a believer one accepts the invitation of the Gospel, to be a disciple one obeys the challenge to a life of dedicated service and separation. Salvation comes through the sacrifice of Christ; discipleship comes only by sacrifice of self and surrender to His call for devoted service. Salvation is free, but discipleship involves paying the price of a separated walk. Salvation can't be lost because it depends upon God's faithfulness, but discipleship can be lost because it depends upon our faithfulness." —M.R. DeHaan, Hebrews; Zondervan Publishing House, 1959 (p. 117)

Amen and amen. Christ died for our sins and only asks that we place our trust in Him alone to be saved. Christ does NOT demand that we first promise to be willing to reform our life of sinful ways in order to receive His free gift. Remember, a gift to truly be a "gift" must be completely free, having no stipulations or obligations to receive it.

Very few churchgoers understand this vital foundational truth from the Bible. So, if you choose to commit adultery, fornicate, lust, cheat and hurt other people, you CANNOT lose God's free gift of eternal life. How could you lose by BAD WORKS, that which you did not acquire by GOOD WORKS? Salvation is by God's undeserving GRACE. Someone has expressed GRACE as an acronym: (God's Riches At Christ's Expense).

Please do not misunderstand, I am not teaching that God is okay with a believer living in sin. Yet, that is exactly what we all do. No matter how much you may think that you've reformed your life of your former sinful ways, you are still a horrible sinner. James 2:10, "

For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all.

" So, there is no such thing as turning from all your sins. At best all you can do is clean up your life, but in God's sight you'll still be guilty if you're not saved. And if you are saved, no amount of sinning could ever jeopardize your security in Christ as His redeemed child. As long as someone associates human behaviour with God's gift of eternal life, they cannot be saved.

In the following Scripture passage, the Apostle Paul makes it abundantly plain that ONCE SAVED, ALWAYS SAVED! If we choose to continue in sin (a flagrant disregard for God's law), GRACE will much more abound, so that we could NEVER lose God's PROMISE of eternal life to them that believe

> Romans 6:1-2, "What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound? God forbid. How shall we, that are dead to sin, live any longer therein?"

But Paul also says that just because we can sin with impunity (as far as eternal life is concerned), this does NOT make it okay to disregard God's law. Romans 3:31, "Do we then make void the law through faith? God forbid: yea, we establish the law." Now that we are no longer under the curse of the law (Galatians 3:10-13), but are under grace and have complete liberty in Christ—we are expected by God to KEEP THE LAW (not to be saved, nor maintain salvation status); but rather, to please our heavenly Father as His redeemed child.

Dangerous False Teaching

Do you see how Sonja exaggerates and perverts the truth of God into a lie? Lordshippers always imply that just because we believe in a free grace Gospel without behaviour modification, that we endorse living in gross immorality. But nothing could be further from THE TRUTH! No Christian has God's permission to commit sin!!! Hebrews 12:6-8 warns that God will scourge and chastise His children when we sin (and we all do sin continually).

Sonja's memes gives the false impression that free grace believers are glad to commit sin with impunity, which just shows how wilfully arrogant they are against the truth of a free grace Gospel. The Bible teaches that the new birth is WITHOUT WORKS (Romans 4:5-6; Ephesians 2:8-9; Titus 3:5). Getting saved in no way obligates nor guarantees that your behavior will change as a believer. Please RUN away from anyone who associates behavior modification with being born-again.

The new birth is a free gift from God, because Jesus paid for it with His precious blood.

Religion is the “try harder” salvation; with the Gospel of grace, you get to be you. Anyone who tries to put a guilt trip on you as Christian, for the sins in your life, they are of the Devil. The fact that the saved man in 1st Corinthians 3:15 received no rewards at the Judgment Seat of Christ; yet was still saved, proves that you can live a wasted sinful life and still go to Heaven. The manner in which a believer chooses to live will determine our REWARDS in Heaven, not our DESTINATION. Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do.

The inspired Holy Bible says in Titus 2:12, “

Teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world;

- Roman Catholicism errantly says you MUST do works to be saved.

- Calvinism errantly says you WILL do good works if you are saved.

- The Holy Bible says you SHOULD do good works if you are saved.

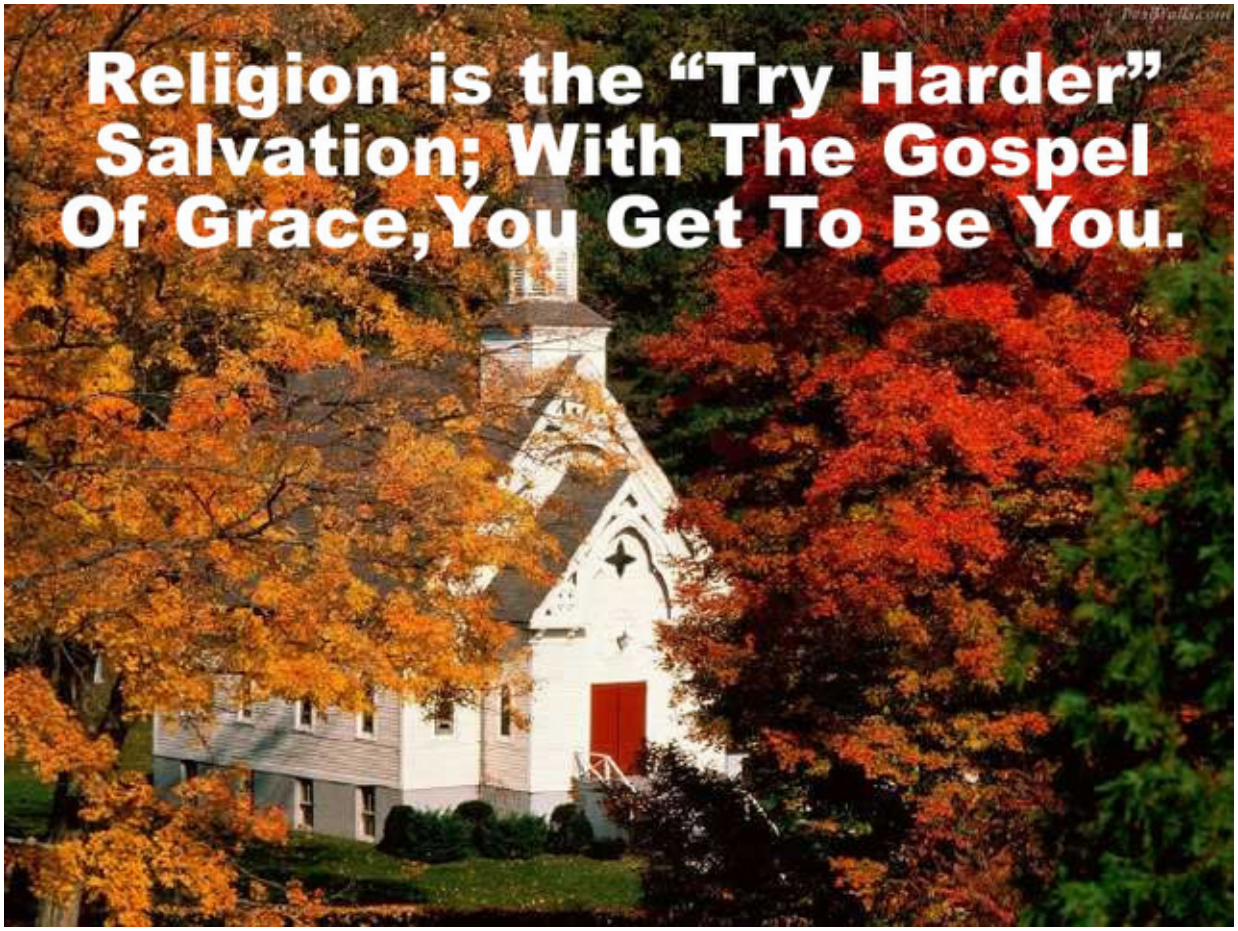
Religion is the “try harder” salvation; with the Gospel of grace, you get to be you. I am not picking on Sonja; but rather, I am using her as an example of someone who is woefully caught between grace and works, still unsaved, hellbound in false religion. I hope and pray dear reader that you see the great folly in her false teachings.



Salvation is not a reward for the righteous, it is a gift for the guilty!

Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ’s best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

Turning away from sinful ways would be a work. Faith puts all of the merit where it belongs, on the object of our faith, Jesus and His work.

If to “repent” means to forsake our sinful ways TO BE SAVED, but Jesus already paid for our sins by dying on the cross, then what are we repenting from?

The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU.

5.8.12 Why Are You Against Calling On The Name Of The Lord? (2024-08-18 11:12)

Romans 10:13-15, "For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher? And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!"

A Facebook friend asked me today why I am against calling on the name of the Lord. Kindly, I didn't say it is heresy to call upon the name of the Lord. I said it is heresy to say you cannot be saved without praying, calling or asking. Pastor Curtis Hutson rightly said: "A good rule to follow when interpreting the Bible is to never use an obscure passage to contradict a clear one." Romans 10:9-14 is definitely an obscure passage of Scripture, because it is highly controversial as to what it actually means. The very fact that I am writing this blog proves my point. In the Gospel of John, we find the word "believe" mentioned 85 times, without any requirement to pray, call or ask God to save us. Repeatedly in the Scripture we are taught to simply BELIEVE to be saved. We ought not base a new doctrine solely on Romans 10:13, while totally ignoring the entire Gospel of John!

The demonic Church of Christ (COC) base their false teaching that you must publicly "confess" the name of Jesus to get to Heaven on Romans 10:9. They totally ignore John 12:42-43 where the Bible says many of the chief rulers believed on Jesus, but they DID NOT CONFESS HIM. I showed that Bible truth to a COC member and he claimed that those chief rulers weren't really saved. Dear reader, many people are deceivers and liars (especially religious people). As Pastor John Ricci (pronounced “Ritchie”) rightly says: “They’ve been smoking T.U.L.I.P.!” That is, they’re all wicked Calvinists who require partial faith in Christ, [1]plus turning from your sinful bad habits, to be saved.

In acts 2:41, the Bible says that 3,000 people were saved when they “ gladly received his word. ”

No mention is made of anyone praying, calling or asking to be saved. They simply BELIEVED the (Gospel) that they heard the Apostle Peter preach to them. There was no probationary period to examine the lives of the 3,000 people saved, to see if their lives changed to confirm their faith. This is the junk theology that is peddled in 95 % of corrupt churches today, which sadly includes Baptist churches. The average Baptist church today is a [2]Lordship-Salvation-preaching religious cult.

“

In Acts 16:30-31, when the Roman jailer asked Paul and Silas what he needed to do to be saved, they told him to "BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST." There was no requirement to pray, call, ask, turn from his sins, follow Christ or get water baptized. The man simply BELIEVED the Good News of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen and was saved.

There is nothing wrong with calling upon the name of the Lord. It is natural to desire to ask God to save us. In John 4:10 Jesus told the Samaritan woman at Jacob’s Well that if she knew who she was talking to, she would have asked Him for the Water of Life.

Respectfully, I heard Pastor Anderson try to use John 4:10 to justify the New IFB that you have to pray to be saved. Ironically, if you read the rest of chapter 4, none of the Samaritans who were saved ever called, asked or prayed to be saved; the Bible says they simply BELIEVED. □□□□ □:□□, “□□□ □□□□ □□ □□□ □□□□□□□□□□ □□ □□□□ □□□□

□□□ □□□ □□□□□□ □□ □□□ □□□□□, □□□□□ □□□□□□□□□, □□ □□□□ □□ □□□ □□□□ □□□□ □ □□□.” No one is said to have "called" on the name of Jesus to get to Heaven. Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do.

To clarify, I never said that it is heresy to call upon the name of the Lord. When I was saved at age 13, I silently prayed in my soul for Jesus to please save me. I begged Him to save me. It is very normal to ask Jesus to save us. But when I learned around 2005 from Pastor Max D. Younce, in his helpful book "[3]Salvation And The Public Invitation," that you can be saved simply by BELIEVING, it finally solidified my salvation beliefs and gave me 100 % perfect peace about the simplicity that is in Christ.

You see, for several years after I was saved I was confused. I often cried if fear, worried that I might not be saved. I was terrified of missing Heaven and going to Hell. I was scared of something that I couldn’t fully comprehend, God’s simple plan of salvation. In hindsight, I came to realize many years ago that I had been woefully deceived by Baptist preachers. They had all taught me that you need to pray a Sinner’s Prayer to get to Heaven. I knew that saying a prayer couldn’t save me. I knew that faith in Christ alone saved me. However, I sincerely thought that the way you put your faith in Jesus is by praying to be saved. So, I repeated the Sinner's Prayer at least 50 times, maybe 100 times over the next several years.

I remember that I used to reason with God. I would say something like:

> "Now Lord, if I am your redeemed child, then respectfully, you owe it to me to let me know, so I can finally put this matter to rest about salvation. But if I am not saved, I absolutely do want to be saved. I know that I am a sinner. And I know that I deserve to be punished in Hell forever, burning, because of my own sins. I believe that Jesus is the Christ, the only begotten Son of God. And I do trust Jesus as my only way to Heaven. Please save me Lord if I am not saved, and don't let me go to Hell when I die someday."

God knows that I was 100 % sincere as a teenager, and He also knows that I was 100 % confused. I kept wondering if there was more. Perhaps I had missed something. What if? What if I am not saved? How can I know for certain. Why am I so worried about this? I believe the inspired Holy Bible, so why cannot I settle this important matter. Nothing I thought could solve my dilemma, I was worried to tears for years that I might not be saved. I realize now that no one had ever properly presented the Gospel to me.

Now, I love Pastor Jack Hyles, but even he used the famous The Roman's Road method to lead lost sinners to Christ, which confused me, because it always ended with praying a Sinner's Prayer. I am not blaming Dr. Hyles. I am saying that there is nothing in the Bible which teaches to pray a Sinner's Prayer to get to Heaven. In Acts 2:41, as I mentioned earlier, when 3,000 souls were saved, no Sinner's Prayer was said. In Acts 16:30-31, Paul and Silas did NOT lead the Philippian jailer to pray a Sinner's Prayer. So we do thousands of pastors today teach their church congregations to use the Sinner's Prayer?

I am telling you from my own inexplicably painful experience, that by using the Sinner's Prayer you run the real risk of confusing someone, as I was confused for many years. What did the blessed Savior say? John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life. " Jesus didn't say to pray a Sinner's Prayer, did He? No, He simply said to

BELIEVE ON ME.

" Oh, who do men complicate everything?! The simplicity that is in Christ (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4) is THE GOSPEL (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). The gospel is comprised of three elements:

1. Jesus DIED for our sins on a cross
2. He was BURIED.
3. Jesus bodily RESURRECTED from the dead three days later.

Any admitted guilty sinner who BELIEVES (put trust in, relies upon) these FACTS is instantly, irrevocably and eternally born-again. Nothing else is required or allowed by God to be saved.

Nowhere in the Gospel of John are we taught to pray, call or ask to be saved. God is already freely offering "□□ □□□□ □□□□ □□□□ □□□□□□□" (□□□ □□□□□□□□□□□ □:□□□). We don't need to ask God for a gift that He is already offering to us. Any guilty sinner who by faith receives Christ's sacrifice on the cross as full payment for their sins, believing that He was buried but bodily resurrected three days later is saved. This is "the gospel" according to Jesus (Galatians 1:12; 1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

So, I am perfectly okay with men calling upon the name of the Lord to be saved, whether silently in one's soul or audibly to be heard aloud; but I adamantly reject the heretical teaching that a lost sinner cannot be saved without calling, praying or asking for it. God has promised "□□ □□□□ □□□□ □□□□ □□□□□□□" (□□□ □□□□□□□□□□□ □:□□□). I am simply being true to the inspired Scripture, not following the traditions of men.

Dr. Curtis Hutson is 100 % correct, we ought not base a new doctrine on an obscure passage of Scripture, while ignoring a clear one. According to John 20:31, the purpose for which the Gospel of John was written is so that we might be saved through faith in Jesus Christ, the only begotten Son of God. So, we could read just the book of John, apart from the other 65 books of the Holy Bible, and learn how to be saved. That was the specific purpose for which God authored John.

Throughout the book of John we are simply taught to BELIEVE. □□□□ □□:□□-□□, "□□□□□ □□□□ □□□□ □□□, □ □□ □□□ □□□□□□□□□□□□, □□□ □□□ □□□□: □□ □□□□ □□□□□□□□□ □□ □□, □□□□□□ □□ □□□□ □□□□, □□□ □□□□□ □□ □□□□: □□□ □□□□□□□□□ □□□□□□ □□□ □□□□□□□□□ □□ □□ □□□□□ □□□□□ □□□. □□□□□□□□□ □□□□ □□□□?" The invitation to Martha was simply to BELIEVE.

So, to clarify, I am not against a lost sinner calling, praying or asking God to be saved. But I am against the heretical idea that someone cannot be saved unless they call, pray or ask for it. Nothing in the Bible supports such a claim. I also do not personally use the Sinner's Prayer, nor do I recommend that anybody else use it either. It is perfectly proper to pray with someone who just received Christ as their personal Savior. Albeit, I think it is best that we refrain from leading people to pray to get saved. If you do, you may be the reason why they struggle with the assurance of God's gift of eternal life for years, if not decades, to come.

5.8.13 You Don't Need To Pray To Be Saved Because God Sees Your Heart (2024-08-18 21:49)

1st Samuel 16:7, "But the LORD said unto Samuel, Look not on his countenance, or on the height of his stature; because I have refused him: for the LORD seeth not as man seeth; for man looketh on the outward appearance, but the LORD looketh on the heart."

There is [1]a popular heresy being propagated by the NIFB (New Independent Fundamental Baptist) [2]movement today, which errantly preaches that you cannot get to Heaven without prayer a Sinner's Prayer. This is 100 % unscriptural. My daughter today read one of my posts on Facebook, where some NIFB followers are attacking me for exposing their heresy that you must pray to be saved. My daughter said something very good. She said that God sees our heart, so there's no need to pray to be saved. I told her that was excellent, and I decided to write an article to share this truth.

I remember something that my ministry friend, Michael P. Bowen wrote in his helpful book in defense of a free grace Gospel titled, "[3]I Never Knew You"...

> When you look at John 3:16, the very words of Christ to Nicodemus who asked Him how he could be born again, notice where Christ said "whosoever believeth in Him..." and ask yourself why would Christ leave out "and repent of your sins" or "make it public" or any other combination of good works you can imagine. Did Christ lie to Nicodemus? Is Christ lying to us, today, through this verse? Of course not. When Christ said to someone that he or she had to "believe" in Him, He was always referring to the fact that He was the one who would pay for the sins of the world through His death on the cross, that He would be buried for three days, and that He would rise from the dead. The Greek word for "believe" is "pisteuo" which means "to trust." When we "trust" that Christ paid for our sins by His death, burial and resurrection from the dead, He saves us. How? Because He knows all of our thoughts. He knows every single thing you are thinking at this very moment. He even knows the content of your dreams as you sleep. He knows every star and planet in the universe by name. He knows every process of every molecule and atom in His creation. He knows every single thing about "every single thing." God knows the "instant" that you trust in His Son, Jesus Christ, to save you, and when you do, He saves you. He "knows" whether or not you have trusted Jesus as your savior. [emphasis added]

I love that. Brother Bowen is right, God knows the instant that you trust His Son, Jesus Christ, to save you, because God knows all of our thoughts. King David echoed this very truth...

> Psalms 139:1-5, "O LORD, thou hast searched me, and known me.
>
> Thou knowest my downsitting and mine uprising, thou understandest my thought afar off. Thou compassest my path and my lying down, and art acquainted with all my ways. For there is not a word in my tongue, but, lo, O LORD, thou knowest it altogether. Thou hast beset me behind and before, and laid thine hand upon me.

God knows everything about everything. He knows the number of hairs ion your head (Matthew 10:30). He knows your intentions (Proverbs 24:12). The inspired Holy Bible says that “ all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do

(Hebrews 4:13b). NOTHING is hid from the eyes of Almighty God!!!

Yet, the NIFB would have us to believe that God is incapable or unwilling to save a sinner who doesn’t ask to be saved, or pray some form of Sinner’s Prayer to seal the deal. Dear reader, in view of these Scripture passages I have shown you, it should be painfully obvious that you don’t have to ask or pray to be saved. God is already offering everyone His free gift of eternal life.

I heard Pastor Bob Gray Sr. make a beautiful statement. He said that, “Jesus doesn’t forgive sin.” When I first read that, I thought Dr. Gray had gone off the reservation...lol. But then he beautifully explained that Jesus has already paid for everyone’s sins with His blood, so that we don’t have to “ ask

for a gift that God is already offering to us. What saith the Scripture? John 6:47, “Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.”

Repeatedly in the inspired Word of God we are taught to simply BELIEVE on Jesus Christ to have our sins forgiven. Acts 10:43, "To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins." Carefully notice that "all" the prophets gave this witness, that salvation comes through faith in Christ alone. Isaiah 45:22, "

Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth: for I am God, and there is none else.

" Do you see any requirement to ask or pray, or to call? No, the Scripture simply invites all mankind to unto the Lord. It's not what you're doing that gets you to Heaven, it's where you're looking!

LOOK UNTO ME,

God sees your every thought dear reader. The Lord knows more about you than you do! He knew you before you were conceived in the womb, just like He did the prophet Jeremiah (Jeremiah 1:5). Nothing can be hidden from the sight of Almighty God, and He has promised to judge all men individually for their good and evil (Ecclesiastes 12:14).

I have a video recording of a thief stealing my Amazon.com package on May 10, 2024 from my front porch. The inept local Sheriff's office in Pensacola said they cannot do anything, unless Amazon prosecutes the thief. I kindly made mention that Amazon replaced the $30 stolen clothing rack. The cops said that since Amazon replaced the item, I am not the victim, Amazon is. So, only Amazon can prosecute the ungodly criminal. A multi-billion dollar corporation like Amazon won't prosecute a petty thief, so I am victimized without recourse, even though I have a video recording clearly identifying the dirty thief. You couldn't make this stuff up! Only in America! Only in America can a pizza delivery order arrive at your house faster than the cops! Don't get me started...lol. Thankfully, God sees everything and He will punish that dirty thief for stealing what he didn't labor to earn, but stole from someone who did (Isaiah 13:11).

Nothing escapes the sight of God. The Lord doesn't need a secretary to help Him. Nothing ever occurs to God. He never needs to remember anything. God doesn't need to schedule things. There are no courtroom juries in Heaven, God already knows all the facts and who's guilty.

I really like Roku. I bought a Roku Box at Walmart for $35, which gives me free access to 1,000 television channels. On the Roku channel itself,

I watched an episode of 'Unexplained Mysteries' yesterday.

The police found a woman's head, but the detectives don't know who she is, or who murdered her, or how her head ended up placed alongside a road. Thankfully, our omnipotent faithful Creator knows every detail of what happened, and the case will be dealt with and judged properly in eternity. There will be justice! Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) in his Bible study series on 'Justice' says:

veryone deserves justice, whether 3-years-old or 90-years-old, everyone deserves justice!

" Amen to that! And God will give them all justice!!!

Dear reader, I will say it again and again, you DON'T have to pray or ask God to save you to get to Heaven. You simply need to BELIEVE ON JESUS. Jesus said this Himself in John 6:28-29, "Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God?

Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent." Do you see any requirement to pray, call or ask? No, you don't, and neither do I; Jesus simply invites all humanity (as individuals) to BELIEVE ON HIM to receive the gift of eternal life. And it is a gift, a FREE GIFT (Romans 5:15-18). You simply TAKE a gift. Salvation is a TAKE proposition, not a GIVE proposition.

Let's say for the sake of argument that I buy you birthday gift and I hand it to you. I say, "Happy Birthday! I bought you this gift, please take it!" Would you say, "Can I please have that gift?" If you did that would be really weird...lol. Now, you could ask me for the gift if you wanted, and I would still give it to you because it is a gift, but you'd be wasting your breath to ask for what is already being freely offered to you. Likewise, God is freely offering His gift of eternal life to all humanity, and all you need to do is by faith (trust, reliance) receive it. John 1:12, "But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name:" Again and again the inspired Scripture simply invites us to BELIEVE ON JESUS to be saved, nothing more.

So, please don't allow anybody to deceive you with a corrupt Gospel, mandating that you ask or pray to be saved. It is a big deal, because if you MUST pray, then faith is not enough to be saved, and that is another Gospel (Galatians 1:6-9). Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do. Thank you for reading my blog. God bless.

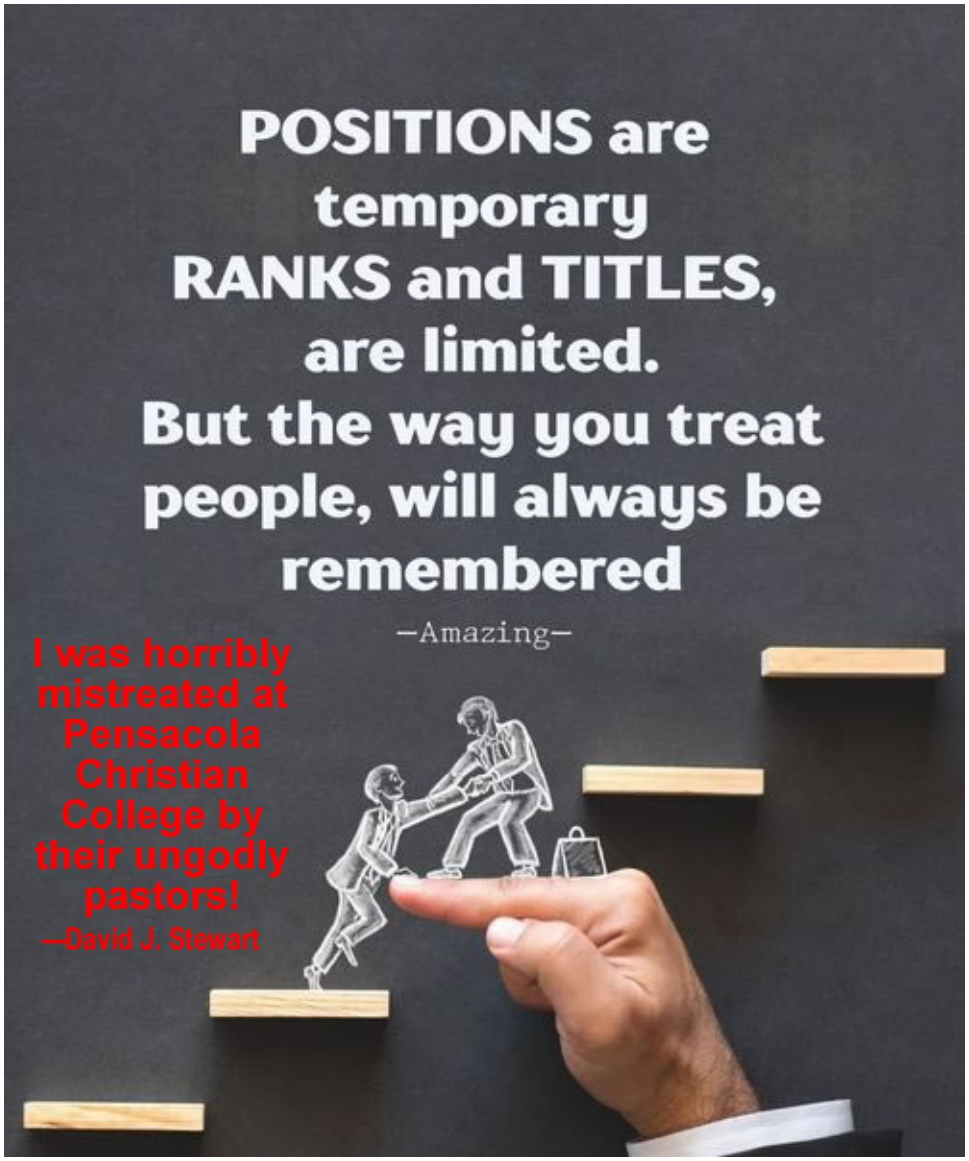
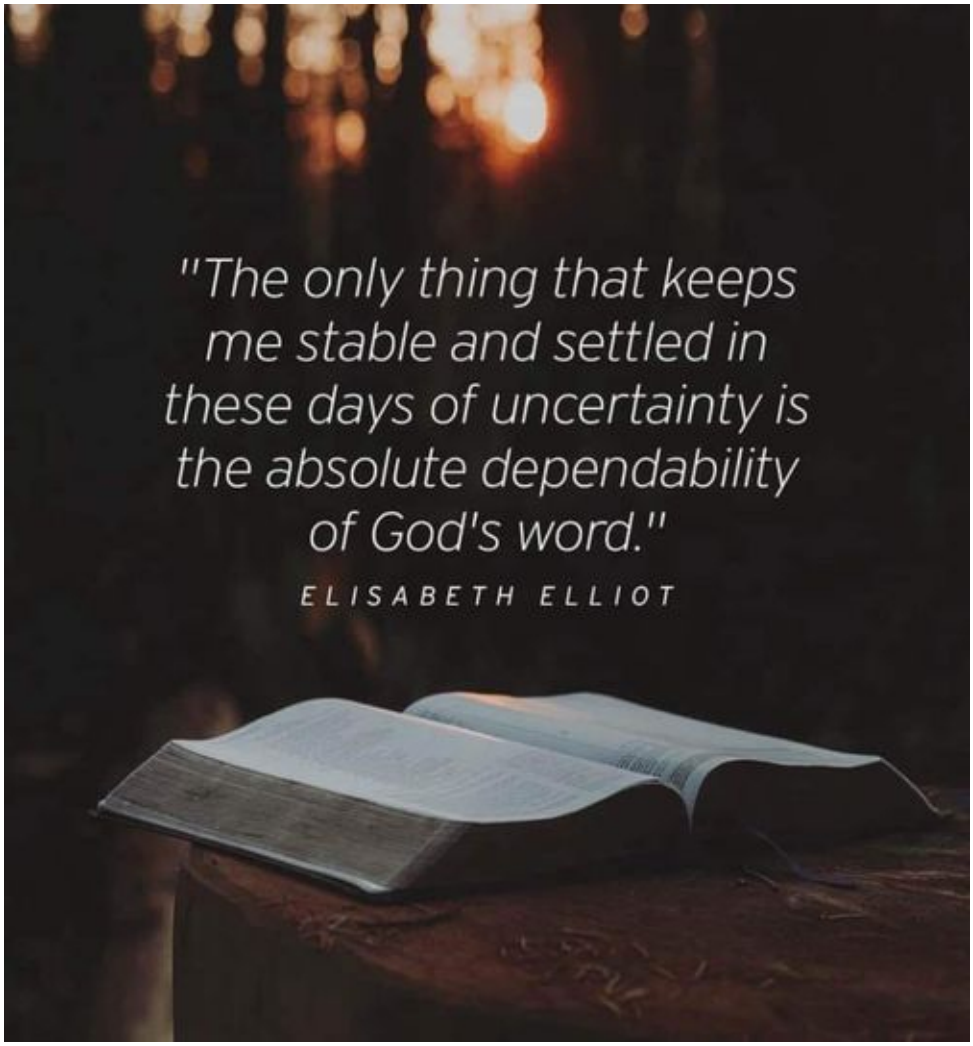
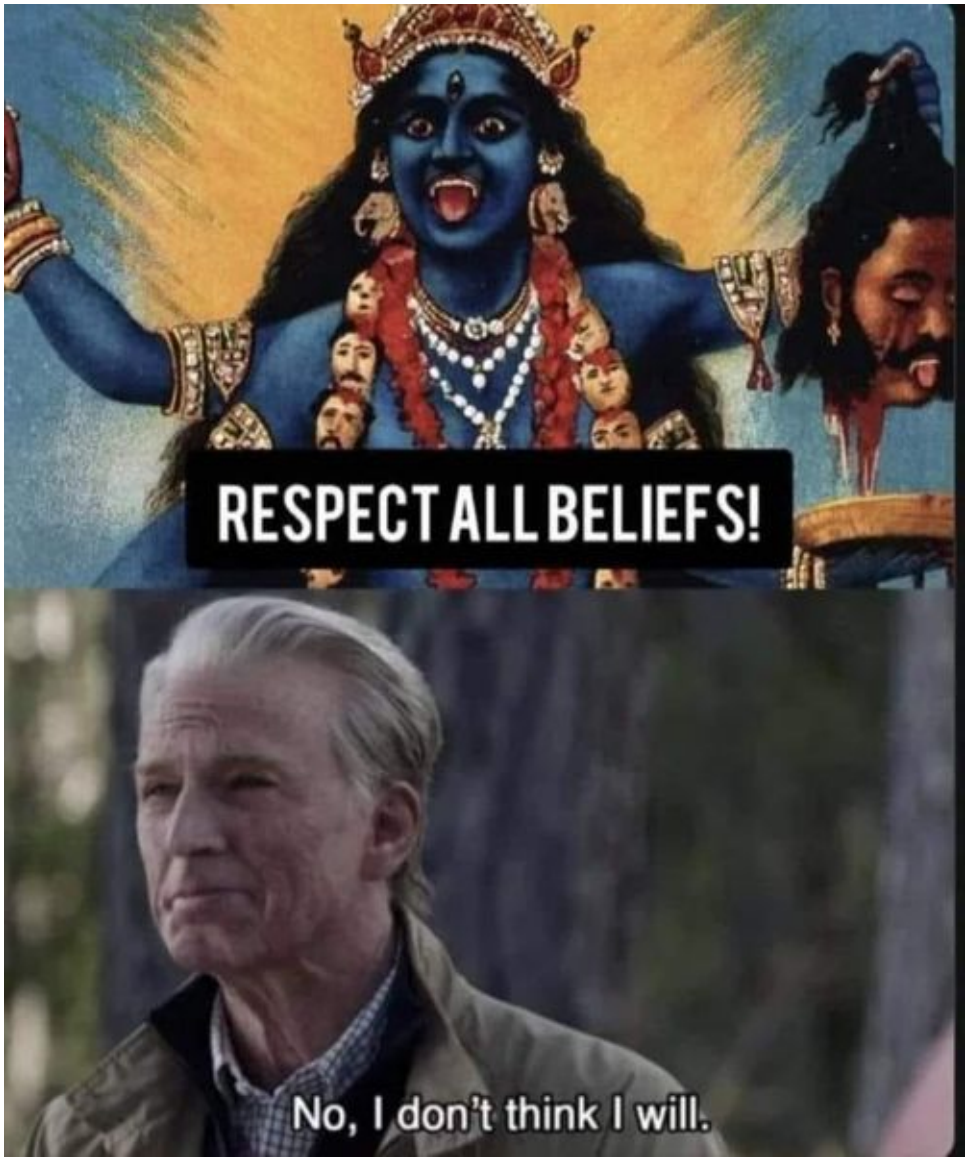
5.8.14 Wounded Soldiers: Get Up And Fight For The Lord (2024-08-20 19:45)



I love music like this! Mike Jones is playing the pedal steel guitar.





Wounded Soldiers (sang by The Vincents)

All human life is sacred.
Our culture praises and idolizes female presidents and politicians. God praises godly women who lovingly care for their husband, children, and homes. “Who can find a virtuous woman? for her price is far above rubies...She looketh well to the ways of her household” (Pr. 31:10,27).

5.8.15 Preachers Are To Blame For The Mess In The World (2024-08-20 19:54)

I fully agree with Pastor Loran Livingston, the country and the world are in the mess it's in because of preachers! They have dropped the ball for God.

[1] Preachers Are To Blame For The Mess

It is because of spiritually dead [2]Lordship Salvation cults like Pensacola Christian College, Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary, and [3]Bob Jones University. There is little if any love toward people in today's churches. Love and truth go hand in hand. I guarantee you that where you find THE TRUTH, you will also find UNDONDITIONAL LOVE for all people.

You show me a pastor who bans difficult people from coming back to church, and I'll show you a slacker who refuses to CONTEND FOR THE FAITH (Jude 1:3). He won't warn people about the Devil's Bible revisions. He won't warn people about infidels like Billy Graham, John MacArthur or Joel Osteen. He just wants to coddle his members as they all play church.

The love of money has overtaken the Bible colleges and churches. The 99 % of sheep are all that matter, the 1 % of hurting lambs are thrown under the bus. □□□□□□□□ □□:□, "□□□ □□ □□□□ □□□ □□□□□□□ □□□□ □□□□□□□ □□□ □□□□□□□ □□□ □□□□□ □□ □□ □□□□□□□! □□□□□ □□□ □□□□."

5.8.16 YouTube Are The Enemies Of Jesus Christ (2024-08-20 21:56)

I found this article today, about [1]pedophiles hiding in plain sight on YouTube, and nothing is done about it. Yet, YouTube has removed and banned Alex Jones, several New Independent Fundamentalist Baptist pastors (like Steven Anderson), and conservative Christians. My long time friend Pastor Max D. Younce (1935-2023) received a second threat from YouTube in 2022 for his Bible preaching against the sin of homosexuality. Job 20:15, "That the triumphing of the wicked is short, and the joy of the hypocrite but for a moment?"

The owners of YouTube have no idea of what horror is coming upon them in eternity when they are judged by God. Isaiah 13:11, "And I will punish the world for their evil, and the wicked for their iniquity; and I will cause the arrogancy of the proud to cease, and will lay low the haughtiness of the terrible." The [2]wicked arrogancy of these big tech social media companies will soon come to an end when God deals with them.

YouTube has banned me from making any comments with [3]my Redeemed Sinner account. I didn't threaten anyone. I didn't make any inappropriate comments. Some ungodly progressive liberal just hates my guts at YouTube, because I am on the Lord's side (John 7:7). They hate the very name of my channel, "Redeemed Sinner." So, they won't allow me to post any comments. YouTube are guilty of stifling free speech! The ungodly God-hating sinners at YouTube vehemently despise God's redeemed children who fear God. Woe unto YouTube and the world!

1st Peter 4:17, " For the time is come that judgment must begin at the house of God: and if it first begin at us, what shall the end be of them that obey not the gospel of God?"

YouTube can censor me and other God-fearing Bible preachers all they want, they are just digging their own graves for eternity. The Lord will not be mocked. What saith the Scripture? Proverbs 29:27,

"An unjust man is an abomination to the just: and he that is upright in the way is abomination to the wicked." YouTube loathes me as much as I loathe them. Since Google controls over 92 % of all internet searches, they in fact do control public opinion in America. Google acquired YouTube in 2006.

Also, [4]Google for the past several years have horribly censored 95 % of my web traffic for [5]Jesus-is-Savior.com, taking away all my web visitors. But they are only amassing judgment against themselves in eternity, for hindering the truth of God's Word. Google has removed over 400 of my anti-abortion images, while allowing Planned Parenthood murderers, perverted transvestites and God-hating queers total freedom to promote their sickening degenerate wicked filth. I am reminded often of what my dear risen Savior Jesus said in John 15:19, "

If ye were of the world, the world would love his own: but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you. "

Even so, come, Lord Jesus!

Tucker Carlson: Google Tries To Censor Content It Disagrees With

I am sick and tired of being silenced by Google, not allowed to comment on YouTube, and threatened that they may terminate my account, by ungodly big tech bullies. The tables will be turned on them in eternity, the inspired Holy Bible promises us dear saints of God. Big tech's days of helping the wicked and persecuting the righteous are numbered! Psalms 50:22, " Now consider this, ye that forget God, lest I tear you in pieces, and there be none to deliver."

Google's army of scumbag lawyers won't be able to help them escape God's justice! They can terminate my blog too, if they want, God is on my side. I am tired of being bullied by Google and their YouTube. I am not allowed to post comments, not even to thank people for their videos. YouTube has blood on their hands, MUCH BLOOD! When they silence God's children, they are persecuting us, and hindering THE TRUTH from the people who need it the most. Shame on Google. Shame on YouTube. Shame on Facebook. Shame on X. Shame on all of them! Even so, come, Lord Jesus!!!

5.8.18 Even A Fool Is Considered Wise If He Stays Quiet (2024-08-22 13:33)

Proverbs 17:28, "Even a fool, when he holdeth his peace, is counted wise: and he that shutteth his lips is esteemed a man of understanding."

I think about this Bible passage quite often, because my mouth has often landed me into trouble. When I was younger I had a bad habit of blurting out the first thought that came into my mind, which was very immature and foolish of me. When I was still married, in my twenties, a man on the phone told me that he was divorced. I blurted out, "You're a lucky man!" He replied, "I don't know how 'lucky' I am for being divorced." In hindsight I am ashamed of what I said to him. What a horrible and stupid thing to say! To this day I have no idea why I said what I did, which was insensitive and cruel (even though I didn't intend for my words to be).

My own wife tragically divorced me in 2006, abandoning her marriage vows and me. My life was devastated. I cannot express in words the inexplicable emotional trauma, feeling of betrayal and loss, and nightmare that I endured since my wife divorced me in 2006. In a thousand years, I would NEVER again tell someone that they are "lucky" to be divorced. What saith the Scripture? Proverbs 10:19, "In the multitude of words there wanteth not sin: but he that refraineth his lips is wise.

" As a good general rule, we should be quiet.

I could share many more times in my past, when I opened my mouth to later regret it. Matthew 12:34, "O generation of vipers, how can ye, being evil, speak good things? *for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh." We read in Jeremiah 17:9, "The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it?" The Apostle James in his Epistle tells us that "For every kind of beasts, and of birds, and of serpents, and of things in the sea, is tamed, and hath been tamed of mankind:" (James 3:7). The reason why the human tongue cannot be tamed is because neither can the wicked human heart be tamed.

Jesus taught that from the human heart proceeds EVIL THOUGHTS...

> Mark 7:20-23, "And he said, That which cometh out of the man, that defileth the man. For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders, Thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness: All these evil things come from within, and defile the man."

Since our sinful heart cannot be tamed, and we speak from the abundance in our heart, we would be wise to refrain our lips from speaking too much. I love to talk, since I live alone and don't have a companion to conversate with. So, I need to be careful when I am in public at church or wherever, not to talk too much. The inspired Scripture tells us that even a fool will be deemed a wise person, if they'll just keep their mouth shut. Proverbs 17:28, "Even a fool, when he holdeth his peace, is counted wise: and he that shutteth his lips is esteemed a man of understanding." Lord help me to SAY LESS, SIT LESS and SIN LESS!

5.8.19 Most So-called "Christians" Are Not Christians (2024-08-22 16:51)

Romans 4:3-5, "For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness. Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt. But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness."

There is probably not a more misunderstood and abused word in the world than "

Christian.

7230

” The Bible says Jesus’ followers were first called “

Christians

in the city of Antioch. The disciples reminded people of Jesus so much, that the heathen world called them

“

>
> And when he had found him, he brought him unto Antioch. And it came to pass, that a whole year they assembled themselves with the church, and taught much people. And the disciples were called Christians first in Antioch.
>

So, technically a “

Christian

is a born-again believer who is also a disciple of Christ. But practically speaking, as saints we consider a someone who has experienced the new birth. Thus, only someone who has been born-again by faith alone in Jesus Christ is a true Christian. So, the latter is the definition that I am going by in this blog.

“

With that truth in mind, we must differentiate false Christians from true Christians. This all boils down to what is and is not the Gospel. The Roman Catholics have their own unique plan of salvation, which requires obeying Seven Sacraments (water baptism, holy Eucharist, last rights, confirmation, et cetera). Mormons errantly teach that you must be water baptized to get to Heaven. So also do Jehovah’s Witnesses, Church of Christ and Lutherans require water baptism to be saved.

Lutherans will play with words, but if you dig closer into their tenets you’ll find that Lutherans consider someone lost if they refuse to be water baptized. All of these different contradicting religions cannot be correct! All may be wrong, some may be wrong, but all of them absolutely cannot be right. Either water baptism is necessary to get to Heaven, or it is not, but it cannot be both. So, obviously not all of the members of these different religions can be saved. They cannot all be Christians!

And then there is the Lordship Salvation mess today. Tragically, 90 % of Baptist churches have become cults, preaching the Devil’s lie that you must turn away from your sinful lifestyle to get to Heaven, which is a works-based counterfeit plan of salvation.

Romans 4:4, “Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt .” If you are trying to turn away from your sinful bad habits to do your part to get to Heaven, then you are foolishly trusting in your own WORKS instead of God’s GRACE.

So, you see dear reader, very FEW churchgoers are actually born-again Christians.

Our country’s former U.S. President, Donald Trump, revealed recently in an interview that he is as lost as the Devil. Mr. Trump plainly testified that he is trusting in his own goodness to save him. ...

Trump Reveals His REAL Religious Beliefs About HEAVEN!

Listen, NO ONE has ever succeeded in working his way to Heaven.

Romans 4:4, “Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt .” Mr. Trump is effectively saying that God owes him eternal life because he has been good enough to deserve admittance into Heaven. Trump didn’t make any mention of Jesus, nor of faith in Jesus, which is disturbing. I remember back in 2016 that Donald Trump met with a group of evangelical pastors, to secure their vote for the upcoming U.S. Presidential election. The news media reported that Mr. Trump had become a Christian. I was leery when I heard that, because a political candidate will say anything to get elected. Sure enough, I was correct!

Dear friend, you and I could NEVER be good enough to merit entrance into Heaven. Isaiah 64:6: “But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags; and we all do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away.” James 2:10, “For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all.” All it takes is to commit one sin and you are doomed to spend eternity burning in Hell. You don’t have to be 99 % perfect to enter into Heaven, you must be 100 % completely sinless, like Jesus Christ is sinless. Obviously that is IMPOSSIBLE!

That is why we all (every human being other than Christ who has ever lived) needs a Savior. Jesus lived a sinless life. He perfectly kept the Old Testament law. As such Jesus qualified to be the sacrifice for the sins of mankind. 2nd Corinthians 5:21, “

For he [God the Father] hath made him [God the Son] to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him.

Please don’t miss that truth,

“in him.” We can only be made righteous “in Jesus.” I love this passage of Scripture...

> Philippians 3:9-11, “And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith: That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death; If by any means I might attain unto the resurrection of the dead.”

Our best attempt to turn away from our sinful ways to follow Christ CANNOT save us, or even contribute to obtaining eternal life. JESUS PAID IT ALL!!! I am so sick and tired of bad preachers corrupting God’s simple plan of salvation, by embellishing the Gospel with ADDITIONAL requirements nowhere found in the inspired King James Bible. Nowhere does the King James Bible (all modern Bible revisions are corrupt) tell us to repent of our sins to be saved. We are commanded to repent toward God in Acts 20:21. We are commanded to repent to acknowledge the truth in 2nd Timothy 2:25. But nowhere does the Bible command anyone to repent “ of their sins

to be saved. Wicked but well-meaning religious men ADDED those extra words. What saith the Scripture? Proverbs 30:5-6,

“Every word of God is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him. Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar.” And let me say to clarify, the man who BELIEVES ON JESUS has repented. He has changed his mind from unbelief to belief, and is now saved.

I dare say that among everyone who professes to be a “

Christian,

that less than 2 % are really born-again believers. If there is a born-again Christian within the Roman Catholic cult, they are a stranger and a sojourner, not a bonafide member. The indwelling Holy Spirit would strongly convict a true believer, if they continued to attend such a damnable religious cult like Roman Catholicism that blasphemes God’s Word. Catholicism is a prisonhouse of religion!

Please don’t make the foolish mistake of assuming that everyone who claims to be a Christian is one, because they very likely aren’t.

5.8.20 How Are Children Sanctified In 1st Corinthians 7:14 (2024-08-23 10:11)

I often use [1]BibleHub.com, which is a helpful resource. Pastor John Ellicott (1819-1905) says this about [2]1st Corinthians 7:14 in his Bible commentary:

> The children of such [Christian] marriages were considered to be Christian children; and the fruit being holy, so must we regard as holy the tree from which it springs. It must be remembered that the "sanctification" and "holiness" here spoken of is not that inward sanctification which springs from the action of the Holy Spirit in the individual heart, but that consecration which arises from being in the body of Christ, which is the Christian Church (Romans 9:16.) [3]SOURCE

In his The Strand Study Bible, on page 1885, Pastor Brad Strand comments concerning 1st Corinthians 7:14:

> “God’s view of a home changes whenever there is a Christian within the household. Because of the presence of a believer within the home, God sanctifies that home in a positional sense. That is, the couple will share in God’s blessings because of the saved spouse.” —Pastor Brad Strand, ’The Strand Study Bible,’ p. 1885; Rood Scholar Press, ©

5.8.21 Martin Luther (1483-1546) Was No Christian (2024-08-23 12:46)

Galatians 1:8-9, “But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed."

We've got a bunch of woefully ignorant Baptist pastors in America, who still go around praising Martin Luther (1483-1546) as a great hero of the Christian faith. But in fact, Mr. Luther was a hellbound infidel who preached the Devil's damnable heresy of Baptismal Regeneration all his life. Roman Catholics love Martin Luther, in part because he taught Sacramental Salvation up until his death in 1546 AD.

Shame on any fundamentalist or neo-evangelical preacher who praises and uplifts Martin Luther as a born-again Christian. In truth, Mr. Luther is sadly burning in the fires of Hell forever, unless he repented of his Sacramental Salvation heresy on his death bed, which no one knows for sure. I think not. But you say, isn't Martin Luther famous for reading in the Scripture: "The just shall live by faith." Yes, but it is deceptive not to mention that Mr. Luther also taught Sacramental Salvation all his life. Here is a disturbing quote from the U.S. Catholic website:

> "Finally, his teaching on grace is his legacy. For Luther God is both hidden and revealed. Even in the revelation you still don't get inside the divine majesty. You get God through the bread and wine of the sacrament, through the waters of Baptism, through scripture and prayer. That's a means of grace." [1]SOURCE

You get God through the bread and wine of the sacrament?

You get God through the water of baptism?

You get God through prayer?

Those are the means of grace?

NO SIR! You are a bold-faced liar Mr. Luther! If you have any doubts, you can read Martin Luther's [2]SMALL CATECHISM for yourself (which he wrote in 1529, 12 years after Luther was alleged saved in 1517).

In case you didn't go read it for yourself, here is a brief quote from Luther's catechism...

> "What benefits does Baptism give?
> It works forgiveness of sins, rescues from death and the devil, and gives eternal salvation to all who believe this, as the words and promises of God declare." [3]SOURCE

Say what? No, that is Satanic garbage! Water baptism does NOT give forgiveness of sins and eternal life. Perhaps you say in his defense, Mr. Luther was just confused, because he was a former Catholic priest, God understands.

If that were true, then the religious false prophets in Matthew 7:21-23 should have been allowed to slide too, but Jesus said: "I never knew you, depart from me ye that work iniquity." The dear Savior called them workers of iniquity. These hellbound false teachers followed Jesus as their Lord. They even called Him, "Lord, Lord." (There is John MacArthur's deadly Lordship Salvation in the Bible). Jesus didn't let them slide because they were confused, and neither did Christ allow Martin Luther to slide with his damnable Sacramental Salvation, and neither will he allow Pensacola Christian College to slide with their deadly Lordship Salvation heresy.

Like the Devil's hellbound Lordship Salvation cult, those who foolishly trust in Sacramental Salvation have perverted the Gospel of grace. They are trusting in partial faith in Christ PLUS something else.

Case in point, Seventh-Day Adventists (SDA's) put partial faith in Christ PLUS keeping the Ten Commandments. SDA's will deceitfully claim to trust only in Christ, but upon further investigation you'll discover that they actually teach you must keep God's Ten Commandments to prove that you love God. If you fail to obey the Ten Commandments, then SDA's say you don't truly love God which proves that your faith is invalid, and you were never saved. So the SDA plan of salvation is very much a works-based system. In fact, it is LORDSHIP SALVATION!

Whether it be Martin Luther foolishly adding sacraments to the Gospel, or SDA's foolishly adding keeping the Ten Commandments (especially the Sabbath in their false religion) to the Gospel, or Pastor Joel Osteen foolishly adding making Jesus the "Lord" of your life to the Gospel, or Pensacola Christian College foolishly

adding

turning from your sinful bad habits to the Gospel—the inspired Word of God calls them all ACCURSED BY GOD (Galatians 1:6-9).

BEWARE of the Martin Luther deception, and warn people about him, so that they won't sinfully idolize him as a man of God, like 90 % of ignorant Baptists do today. The corrupt Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, as well as the cult at Bob Jones University, idolize Martin Luther to their impressionable students as a man of God. In truth, Mr. Luther was a dangerous infidel.

RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!!

Matthew 7:15, “Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep’s clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves.

5.8.22 Jesus Did Not Burn In Hell (2024-08-24 10:49)

Luke 23:42-43, "And he said unto Jesus, Lord, remember me when thou comest into thy kingdom. And Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, To day shalt thou be with me in paradise."

Pastor Jack Hyles said years ago that, " [1]Heresy is creeping into our fundamental churches by the hour! " He was absolutely correct! I am disturbed when I learn of Baptist pastors who teach that backslidden Christians will suffer temporarily in the Lake of Fire. And it disturbs me when I hear pastors teaching that our Lord Jesus died and went to burn in the fires of Hell, which goes against the plain statement of Christ on the cross in Luke 23:43, "To day shalt thou be with me in paradise."

Could our Lord have been referring to Heaven? No! Here's why—Jesus exclaimed in Acts 2:27, "Because thou wilt not leave my soul in hell, neither wilt thou suffer thine Holy One to see corruption." Matthew 12:40, "For as Jonas was three days and three nights in the whale's belly; so shall the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth." We have just read the incontrovertible, uncontestable and plain truth from the inspired Word of God that Jesus DID NOT go to Heaven after drying on the cross. So where did Jesus go during the three days and three nights after He died? By cross-referencing the three preceding passages of Scripture, the diligent Bible student who rightly divides the Word of Truth can only conclude that there must have been a literal place called "Paradise."

The Holy Bible says that Jesus went to Hell, which is the Greek word Hades. We learn from the true story in Luke 16:19-31, of the rich man and Lazarus, that Hell (Hades) is compartmentalized. On one side there is the place of TORMENT, and on the other side there is the place of PARADISE, and a "GREAT GULF" fixed between them the Bibles says in Luke 16:26, "And beside all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed: so that they which would pass from hence to you cannot; neither can they pass to us, that would come from thence." Some preachers mock at the expression, "Abraham's Bosom," but this is what God Himself called the place of Paradise in Luke 16:22-23, "And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels into Abraham's bosom: the rich man also died, and was buried; And in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom."

Thus, "Abraham's Bosom" is a term of endearment, not a literal place. Galatians 3:29, "And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise." All of God's promises to Israel in the Old Testament apply to born-again believers. The Scriptures are very plain that there is neither Jew nor Gentile in Christ. Galatians 3:28, "There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus." No unsaved Jew will ever enter into the Kingdom of God, and no saved Gentile will be left out! No unsaved Jew will escape the fires of Hell, and no saved Gentile will miss the blessings of Heaven!

Our precious Lord Jesus Christ did not go to burn in Hell after leaving the cross, He went to the place of Paradise. That is the plain teaching of Luke 23:43. This is not strange doctrine, it is solid Bible doctrine! Furthermore, according to Matthew 12:40, which I quote quoted to you, Jesus spent three days and three nights in the "HEART OF THE EARTH." I think this makes it clear that Christ literally went to the inward parts of the earth, which is where Hell is located. Hell is always referenced as being downward in the Bible. Isaiah 14:9, "Hell from beneath is moved for thee to meet thee at thy coming: it stirreth up the dead for thee, even all the chief ones of the earth; it hath raised up from their thrones all the kings of the nations."

Some Bible students believe that Jonah died and went to Paradise for three days and nights, but I disagree for a couple reasons:

1. Jonah was doing a lot of praying and thinking while in the whale's belly. Jonah 2:1, "Then Jonah prayed unto the LORD his God out of the fish's belly." This ole boy was having a personal one man revival, I'll tell you for sure!
2. Jesus said that Jonah spent three days and three nights in the belly of the whale. Matthew 12:40, "For as Jonas was three days and three nights in the whale's belly; so shall the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth."

Also, there is another piece of Scriptural evidence that a place called Paradise exists. John 3:13, "And no man hath ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man which is in heaven." At the time Christ walked this earth, NO MAN had ever ascended up to Heaven the Bible says. Well, if the saints didn't go to Heaven in the Old Testament, then where did they go? The man of God, Enoch, was taken that he should not see death. The prophet, Elijah, was caught up into a fiery whirlwind (firenado) into heaven (2nd Kings 2:11). The word "heaven" in 2nd Kings 2:1 and 11, refers to the sky, not the celestial city of Heaven. We must not go by human logic or what seems reasonable, but by the plain teachings of the Scripture. The Bible plainly tells us in John 3:13, spoken by Christ Himself to Nicodemus, that NO MAN before Christ had ascended up into Heaven. Since Elijah ascended up into "heaven," the Lord could not have been referring to the same place, or the Scriptures would be in error. The Holy Bible is never wrong!!!

So Jesus clearly meant that no man had ever ascended up into Heaven where God is seated on His throne. The only logical conclusion, based upon Scriptural evidence, is that a literal place existed in the Old Testament, where saints were held until Christ ransomed them. This place is Paradise, which is located in Hell (Hades), as evidenced in the true account given in Luke 16:19-31 of the rich man and Lazarus.

To clarify, I am NOT talking about the ungodly [2]Roman Catholic heresy of Purgatory, which is a manmade doctrine fabricated by Gregory the Great in 593 AD. There is no temporary place of punishment for believers. Once a person dies, it's over! You either "DIE IN THE LORD"

(Revelation 14:13), or else you “DIE IN YOUR SINS” (John 8:24). Once your spirit and soul depart from the tabernacle of your earthly body, your eternal fate is sealed, and it cannot be changed by anyone, not even God, lest He break His Word.

Anybody who says that Jesus burned in Hell is a liar, a poor student of the inspired Holy Scripture, and blinded to the truth. Jesus never spent one second burning in the fires of Hell.

Please Don’t Go to Hell

Oh, my dear reader, I wish you could know my heart, but you cannot. I am immersed with nothing but a desire to help others in the Lord. Some people are their own worst enemies, and you cannot help them, and that always grieves my heart. More than anything I want you to KNOW that you have eternal life and that your sins have been forgiven. ...

> John 3:16-20, “For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved. He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God. And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil. For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved.”

In the preceding Scripture, we see the need for repentance. Humans are sinners by nature and by choice. The Holy Bible teaches that mankind because of his love for sin (evil) won’t come to the light of the Gospel to be saved. Repentance is when a person acknowledges being a guilty sinner in the sight of a holy God (Romans 3:19-20), and that person turns to the Good News of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen (1st Corinthians 15:1-4)! Repenting and believing are ONE ACT, not two. You don’t repent AND believe; but rather, you repent TO believe. If you get this truth wrong, you will go to Hell. To repent as a separate act is manmade reformation, which constitutes human effort (works) for salvation. Grace plus anything crosses out grace!

We are saved by BELIEVING, not by REPENTING; but no one has ever believed who didn’t also repent! Repentance is an automatic thing, so that you don’t even need to mention the subject when witnessing to a lost person. John 20:31, “But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name.” In the Gospel of John, which is God’s Gospel tract, the words “believe” and “believed” and “believeth” are mentioned 87 times, but the word “repent” is not mentioned even once! That is because the person who BELIEVES the Good News (Gospel) of Christ crucified on the cross, buried and resurrected three days later, has also repented.

There is NO SUCH THING as a person who believes but has never repented. I hear corrupt preachers, like [3]Pastor Charles Lawson , teach that if a believer is still living in willful sin, it may be because they have never repented and are not saved. That is unbiblical! A man who believes is saved, period, end of story! I am so sick of meddlers changing the Gospel in an attempt to force people to live right. God's salvation doesn't work that way! Repentance is simply "a change of mind" unto the Gospel itself. How do I know if I have repented? Look, if you have trusted Christ's sacrifice on the cross as the only payment for your sins, believing that He raised up from the dead the third day, you have repented! You are born-again by the Holy Spirit of God!!!

Perhaps you don't believe in Hell. If that is so, I say to you kindly Sir or Mame, you are A FOOL! Are you willing to take that eternal risk? Are you willing to gamble with eternity? Think about that. And if you do one day go to Hell, my words will haunt your soul for ever, because I was the best friend you ever had, warning you of the fiery judgment to comes in a burning eternal Lake of Fire without love, without anybody to care about you, without hope, without a single drop of water to quench your unquenchable thirst!!! Please don't be stupid! Billions of fools are already burning in Hell. Will you join them? Not me buster, no way, my faith is built on nothing less, than Jesus Christ and His righteousness. I dare not trust the sweetest frame, but wholly lean on Jesus' name...

My hope is built on nothing less,
Than Jesus' blood and righteousness;
I dare not trust the sweetest frame,
But wholly lean on Jesus' name.

Refrain:
On Christ, the solid Rock, I stand;
All other ground is sinking sand,
All other ground is sinking sand.

2nd Corinthians 5:21, "For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him." The perfect sinless Lamb of God, Jesus, because as sin for you and me, suffering a horrifying death as a criminal. He did that for you and me! I do not claim to understand it all, and there is no way anyone ever could. How could the Son of God pay for the sins of billions of people in one event on a cross? What you must keep in mind is that Jesus was not a sinful man, He was perfect. If Jesus hadn't dismissed His Spirit, He would have lived forever. The wages of sin is death (Romans 6:23). Jesus never sinned (Hebrews 4:15).

Jesus bled, suffered and died on the cross, so that you wouldn't have to be punished for your sins in Hell for ever and ever! If you go to Hell someday, you'll have nobody to blame except yourself! Please [4]get saved before it is too late. Death can come at any moment!

5.8.23 It Is Easy To Share The Gospel (2024-08-24 12:51)

Colossians 4:5, "Walk in wisdom toward them that are without, redeeming the time. "

In our text passage, the phrase " them that are without

refers to lost sinners. They do not understand the things of God, that is, the truth about spiritual things (1st Corinthians 2:14-16). The greatest way that we can walk in wisdom is to share the Gospel with the lost.

Last night I had the privilege to share the Gospel with one of my neighbours. I use a passive method to share the Gospel, where I don't put the other person under any pressure. I don't make them uncomfortable or put them on the spot to make a decision. All they need to do is listen to me, the way it should be I humbly think.

In fact, if you read Acts chapter 10, you'll see that the Apostle Peter never put Cornelius on the spot to get saved. Peter simply told Cornelius and his friends the GOOD NEWS of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen.

Acts 10:43-44, “

To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins.

While Peter yet spake these words, the Holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the word.

Galatians 3:2 helps shed some light upon the meaning of this passage,

“This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?” When a person trusts Christ as their personal Savior, the Holy Spirit of God forever comes in to indwell (to live inside) that individual (Romans 8:9; 1st Corinthians 3:16-17; 1st John 3:24). Cornelius and his friends were indwelt with the Holy Spirit because they BELIEVED the the Gospel truth which Peter preached unto them, and they were saved. The beautiful phrase “the hearing of faith” simply means that we get saved when we BELIEVE the Gospel that we hear preached unto us (cf. Hebrews 4:1-2).

Regardless of what the conversation is about, I can easily lead into a Gospel presentation by simply mentioning how good our God is, and that opens the door to share the Gospel. When I witness to someone, I'll say something like the following words:

> We're living in very interesting times. The news is getting crazier every day. I am so glad that I know I'm going to Heaven when I die. The Bible teaches that it is very easy to go to Heaven. We don't have to go to church. We don't have to get water baptized. We don't have to keep the Seven Sacraments of the Catholic Church. All we need to do is BELIEVE that Jesus died on the cross to pay for our sins, and that He was buried, and then three days later He physically resurrected from the dead. Those three things comprise the Gospel. Jesus DIED, He was BURIED, and He physically RESURRECTED from the dead three days later. That is the Gospel, which in the Bible means, GOOD NEWS. Anybody who comes to God as a guilty sinner and puts their trust (reliance) in that GOOD NEWS of Jesus crucified, buried and risen is instantly and forever born-again, a child of God.

Without asking them a single question, I have just presented the Gospel, giving them instructions how to obtain eternal life. I don't ask them if they believe what I told them, because that is their own personal decision, which is none of my business. I have provided all the facts that they need to know in order to get to Heaven, all they have to do is BELIEVE IT!

And also to mention, I am fairly good at sizing up people. I already knew my neighbor's temperament from speaking with him previously over the past year. If I just met someone, I might not be as bold to start preaching the Gospel to them. In such a case I will use wisdom and discernment to decide if it is the proper time to witness to them. For example: My doctor is a very intelligent and educated woman. I felt in my heart that because she is busy, and I only met with her for a medical appointment, she very likely wouldn't agree if I asked her for some time to share my faith with her.

So, what I did instead was to kindly ask her if I could share my faith with her, by giving her a book. I assured her that I would never ask if she read the book, nor ask what she thinks about the book. I didn't want her to feel pressured, awkward or uncomfortable. She kindly agreed and I gave her the book. I gave her a new hard copy of Michael P. Bowen's helpful book, "[1]I NEVER KNEW YOU" (here's [2]a free .pdf version) which explains what is and is not the Gospel in detail. I use this method of witnessing to people whom I think won't give me the time to share the Gospel. This way they can read the truth of God's simple plan of salvation in the quietness of their home or office, without feeling any pressure or awkwardness.

After I finished sharing the Gospel with my neighbour, he said to me that he is a Christian. I don't know if I led him to Christ, or if he was already saved, and I didn't ask him. I was just overjoyed to hear him say that he is a Christian, after he quietly listened to me share the Gospel with him for about 10 minutes. This is how I witness to most people.

Now, most Christians who share the Gospel have been wrongly trained to buttonhole people, asking them if they will trust Christ, so that they can brag at church (or Bible college) how many people they led to Christ. I want no part of that boasting. What saith the Scripture?

> 1st Corinthians 3:5-5, "Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos, but ministers by whom ye believed, even as the Lord gave to every man?
>
> I have planted, Apollos watered; but God gave the increase.
>
> So then neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase*.
>
> Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one: and every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labour.

It doesn't matter whether you plant a seed, or have the blessed privilege to lead someone to Christ, only God can save a sinner. God rewards us individually according to our OWN LABORS. So, it doesn't matter who plants the seed, or who actually has the opportunity to lead a lost sinner to receive the new birth, our part is solely to preach the Gospel to the unsaved, so that God can save them by faith. Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do.

When I was a young Christian, I was taught to put people on the spot, by asking them if they know for sure they are going to Heaven. I am not against using such a tactic, but now that I am 57 years old, I prefer a more subtle approach that doesn't make others feel awkward and pressured. I think we should be considerate and ethical. I realize that Hell is real and burns forever with fire, and there is great cause to win the lost to Christ. However, we should respect the feelings of others, and not attempt to bully them to get saved. God Himself won't force Himself on lost sinners to get saved, so neither should we.

I also humbly think that the reason why most saints won't share the Gospel, is because they have been wrongly taught by ambitious pastors to put people on the spot, to buttonhole them, and not take no for an answers. No doubt such harsh tactics have worked in a small percentage of cases in the past, but I humbly think in the majority of cases it caused the listener to harden their heart and close their mind to the truth. You cannot bully people to come to Christ.

Furthermore, forcing people to walk down a church aisle to learn how to get to Heaven is a bad practice. It is unbiblical and unnecessary for someone to be saved. The truth dear reader is that a lost sinner can be saved right in their pew, without being required to stand up or walk down an aisle to find out how to get to Heaven. Every preacher should tell the congregation how to be saved right in their pew. The sad reason why preachers don't is because they want folks to come forward, so they can shamefully boast about how many souls they got saved. I have seen this done all my life in Baptist churches... "

Looky here, looky here what we did!

Shame on any pastor who fails to preach the Gospel to the crowd.

Beware Of Pensacola Christian College And Their Corrupt Uncompassionate 'Campus Church'

In 2021, I attended the convocation exercise at Pensacola Christian College (PCC). This is the official first service of each new school semester, when all the students return, and new students arrive. Thousands of student's families are present for this special occasion. I am guessing, because I don't know the size of the giant auditorium at PCC's Campus Church, but I'd say there must have been at least 12,000 people present in attendance. Pastor Kurt Skelly from Virginia preached. In my humble opinion he sounded arrogant and puffed up in pride that night when he preached.

During the invitation, Pastor Skelly invited anyone who didn't know they were saved to WALK DOWN THE AISLE TO THE FRONT (which feels like a city block in distance from the back of the auditorium), to learn how to go to Heaven. I felt sick to my stomach when he said that, because I realized the LOST OPPORTUNITY he wasted to preach the saving Gospel to several thousand people. No doubt there were hundreds (if not thousands) of lost family members present that evening. SHAME on PCC's incompetent pastors, and Pastor Kurt Skelly for horribly dropping the ball.

PCC has since wickedly banned my in writing from attending Campus Church, because their ungodly leadership and pastors couldn't care less about people or truth, they just love more money. PCC rakes in upwards of $200,000,000. [3]PCC is a religious cult, who preach the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation. They banned me because I exposed their institution's ungodly lackidaical attitude toward heresy and false prophets. Their senior pastor, Jeff Redlin, is a spoiled rich snob, getting paid a disgusting 6-digit annual salary. They are cocky, arrogant and woefully lacking in love and compassion at PCC, which I speak to their utter shame.

One of the sore evils in the United States today is that large corporations and mega religious institutions receive so much money and support from 99 % of their customers (supporters), that they can throw the 1 % of hurting people under the bus with impunity. I have seen this all my entire life, especially in recent decades. People just don't care anymore about their neighbour. It is a deadly spiritual disease that has infected American society as a whole. It is also happening in Europe, Australia, Canada and other first world places. It is part of our sinful human nature to succumb to success, to let it destroy our good character, spirit and morals. Where adversity has destroyed one man, prosperity has ruined one hundred. PCC's success has gone to their heads, corrupting their institution. "

Mature Christians Go Soulwinning

Soulwinning is the dearest thing to the great caring heart of God. Many Bible students misunderstand the parable in Mark 4:1-9 and Luke 8:11-15 of The Sower And The Seeds. [5]Evangelist Ray Comfort is one such FALSE PROPHET, who interprets this parable to mean turning away from your sinful behavior to prove that you’re saved. I found this excellent meme this week with a truthful quote from Evangelist George Muller (1805-1898)...

[6]

The parable of The Sower And The Seeds is about SOULWINNING, not SALVATION. Ray Comfort corrupts the Scripture, making this parable about true and false converts, which is wrong. The purpose of this parable is to challenge God’s saints to mature in the Lord to bear fruit as soulwinners. Luke 8:11 identifies the “ seed

as God’s Word.

There are FOUR groups:

1. THE UNSAVED MAN (Luke 8:12) - This first group didn’t get saved, because the Devil snatched away the seed of God’s Word (vs. 11) to prevent the new birth from happening.
2. THE UNGROUNDED CHRISTIAN (Luke 8:13) - The second group did get saved, because the seed germinated and began to grow, but because of shallow roots they were uprooted and never matured to win souls.
3. THE CHOKED CHRISTIAN (Luke 8:14) - I humbly think most Christians fit into this group. We know they got saved because the seed germinated and began to grow, but they became choked by the cares, riches and pleasures of this world, never maturing to preach the Gospel to win souls.
4. THE MATURE CHRISTIAN (Luke 8:15) - This group are saved and serving Christ faithfully as soulwinners. The Bible says they have a good and honest heart (because the indwelling Holy Spirit renewed their mind with the inspired Word of God). They have matured in the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ. They win souls to Christ with the saving power of the Gospel of free grace.

Ironically, most soulwinning is done by baby converts who haven’t been saved for more than a few years. Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) said that some of the worst Christians do the most for God, and he was sadly right. It is easy to share the Gospel, but the hard part is getting out of the self life. I once heard Dr. Hyles say in a sermon that if he could tell his people one truth next to the plan of salvation, it would be to: “

GET OUT OF THE SELF LIFE!

” We are all selfish by nature as human beings, we cannot help it. But if we will choose to walk in the Holy Spirit, who lives inside us permanently as God’s redeemed children (Romans 8:9; 1st Corinthians 3:16-17; 1st John 3:24), then Jesus will live through us (Galatians 2:20). This is the “ fruit

of the blessed Holy Spirit (Galatians 5:22-25).

I encourage you dear reader, if you are a born-again child of God, to share the Gospel with the people in your life, and those whose paths you come across daily. To some, you and I are “the uttermost part of the earth”

(Acts 1:8b). You may be the only Jesus that someone will ever know, and their eternal fate is in your hands friend.

Thank you for reading my blog. God bless you and have a good day.

5.8.24 A Word About Pastor Charles Spurgeon (2024-08-25 10:30)

Acts 17:10-12, "And the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night unto Berea: who coming thither went into the synagogue of the Jews. These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so. Therefore many of them believed; also of honourable women which were Greeks, and of men, not a few."

Do you know what the great Baptist preacher [1]Charles H. Spurgeon (1834-1892) said concerning those who require giving up sinful living to be saved? Here's what Spurgeon said.

> "'Repentance' is a grace. Some people preach it as a condition of salvation. Condition of nonsense! There are no conditions of salvation." —Charles Spurgeon

Spurgeon didn't mean that repentance (metanoia) wasn't necessary for salvation; but rather, that repentance (metamellomai) is not required. What's the difference? Metanoia is "a change of mind"; whereas metamelomai means "regret, to feel remorse afterwards." In Matthew 27:3 we read that Judas "repented" (metamelomai), but Judas still died in his sin of unbelief and went to Hell. Those false ministers (like Paul Washer, Ray Comfort, Paris Reidhead, John MacArthur, Aiden Tozer, R.C. Sproul and William Lane Craig)—who teach that a person cannot be saved until they literally turn away from the act of sin, have intent to reform and make a full surrender to do Christ's will from that day forward—are preaching "ANOTHER GOSPEL" of damnation (2nd Corinthians 11:4-5).

Clearly, Charles Haddon Spurgeon DIDN'T believe that making full surrender to serve Christ as Lord, or grieving, or feeling sorrow, or being willing to stop committing sins, is necessary to be saved. Spurgeon did in fact teach, as have other great men of God, that a sinner ought to turn from his or her sins as evidence of being saved; but this is after-the-fact, and not a requirement for salvation itself. Spurgeon plainly taught "there are no conditions of salvation," which is what the Bible teaches. We are SINNERS and Jesus is the SAVIOR, Who died upon the cross for our sins, was buried, and then resurrected from the dead after three days (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Jesus is precious!

Having said that, I am careful to warn people about Charles Spurgeon, because he was at least a 2-point Calvinist who errantly taught the Calvinist heresies of Limited Atonement (i.e., Jesus didn't die for all sinners); and the Perseverance Of The Saints (i.e., a true believer will perseverance in holy living). The inspired Holy Bible is full of saints who lived lives of sin (Esau, Saul, Lot, Samson, Demas, Solomon, et cetera). [3]I disagree with all 5-points of Calvinism. We simply cannot trust the theology of Mr. Sprugeon.

The irony of the matter is that Charles was only about 20 years old when he preached most of his famous sermons. He was just an ignorant kid!!! So, please keep this in mind before you join the herd who run around on social media quoting Charles Spurgeon, because it is not a wise thing to do. Quote the Bible!

5.8.25 You Should ALWAYS Look A Person Directly In The Eyes If You Shake Their Hand (2024-08-25 13:43)

Kindly said, I visited a local Baptist church today in Pensacola. I've visited this church off and on since the last week of January in 2024. I've been to the church a couple dozen times over the past 7 months. As I was leaving the church today, the senior pastor was standing by the front door greeting people, and I took the initiative to shake his hand. I could have just walked out the door, but I felt it would not be proper to at least greet the pastor, so I did. I was deeply hurt when he looked to the hard left as I looked him in the face, as we shook hands. That is DISRESPECT! That was VERY rude what he did. He never made eye contact with me. That is VERY bad.

Perhaps he was nervous or felt uncomfortable shaking my hand, which is immaturity in him. Or worse, perhaps he doesn't respect me, which makes him a coward for hiding his true feelings. It could also be that he was distracted, which means that he lacks focus. Regardless, it is totally unacceptable for a pastor to shake somebody's hand, while looking off to the side and never making eye contact with that person. It tells the person who cared enough to kindly come over to shake your hand, that it wasn't important enough for you to acknowledge them as an individual. You either are immature as an adult or don't respect them, which either way is very unchristian.

I love that particular pastor. I enjoy hearing him preach. He's okay as a preacher, because he takes a stand against sin, but he needs to show respect for other people. I can only speak for myself. I guarantee that he would have looked me in the eyes if I were the mayor of Pensacola, which makes him a respecter of persons. Dear reader, if you don't respect someone enough to look at them, then you shouldn't shake their hand at all; and you should be honest about how you feel. I will never take the initiative to shake his hand again. I came to church happy and left sad, because the pastor dissed me.

I have refused to shake some pastors' hands in the past (e.g., at the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam cult), because they preach the lie of Lordship Salvation and use Satan's corrupt Bible revisions, and I wasn't going to bid Godspeed to false teachers (2nd John 1:11). I respect the pastor of the church I have been visiting since January of 2024, but he disrespected me today horribly, and that is really bad when you shake someone's hand. I am not being oversensitive, unless you think that people's feelings don't really matter.

I am not mentioning the pastor or church's name at this time. I have given the church a negative review on Google, and I did mention my name. If the pastor gets upset with me, then we'll become enemies and I will mention his name, and the name of their church. I won't be mistreated by any pastor. Pastors are supposed to walk head and shoulders above everyone else. That's why they're the pastor, and everyone else are the laymen. It matters how we treat people.

All my life I've had a pet peeve about grown men looking off at the wall, or down at the floor, while you're shaking their hand. It is rude, immature and childish. Please don't be like that. If someone comes over to shake your hand, you give them your undivided attention. If you cannot do that, then don't shake their hand in the first place! I hate when people play their stupid games, and I have little patience with games. Say what you mean, and mean what you say!

And if you do go to shake someone's hand, and for whatever reason you become distracted and look away, make sure that you sincerely apologize! It's sad that I have to write a blog about common sense courtesy and ethics, but Americans today are so rude, uncouth, ill mannered and uncaring.

I read [1]an interesting true story about a 100-year-old New York mobster who was released from prison after serving 40 years behind bars. His name is Sonny Franzese. Mr. Franzese was asked what it takes to survive in prison. I was amazed by his simple answer. He said all you need is to remember are these three phrases: "Excuse me," "I'm sorry" and "Please." That is profound if you think about it! His wisdom reminds me of the popular book titled, "[2]All I Really Need To Know I Learned In Kindergarten." The way that we treat other people matters, it really does. People just want to be loved.

Tragically 99 % of pastors today have either forgotten or never learned that vital truth. If you visit the average church today, you'll leave feeling like they couldn't care less if you ever come back. I have been attending two local Baptist churches in Pensacola (one for almost 3 years now, and the other for 7 months here and there). Neither church has ever asked how to contact me. If I just decided to never go back, they wouldn't care less. That is horrible and carnal of them! I feel like I am unwanted in both of those Baptist churches, and they cannot blame me when they haven't even tried to befriended me.

The only way that I keep going in my faith day by day is that I LOOK TO JESUS, who is the Author and Finisher of my faith (Hebrews 12:2). The churches discourage me. Sadly, people are having to leave the churches to walk with God, because all you get at church nowadays is a superficial and shallow form of Christianity. Most churches today are just playing a game of religion, but there is no genuine love or compassion for people; there is little or no truth.

Whether you care or not, people will pick up on it very quickly. A pastor who refuses to look someone in the eyes while shaking their hand, sends a hurtful message of rejection to that individual. And the more that you look up to the person in admiration with whom you are shaking hands, the more hurt you will be if they diss you. I hope someone is listening, because this is a really important issue. ALWAYS look someone in the eyes if you shake their hand, to show that you respect them as a human being. If you cannot do that, then don't be a coward, just refuse to shake their hand and tell them exactly why. That is what mature adults do.

5.8.26 Limited Atonement: A Calvinist Perversion Of The Gospel (2024-08-25 21:26)

1st John 2:2, "And he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world."

Just like John MacArthur, Pastor Charles H. Spurgeon (1834-1892) preached the Calvinist heresy of Limited Atonement, the Devil's lie that Jesus didn't die on the cross for all men, He only died for the saints. That directly contradicts the plain teaching of Hebrews 2:9, "But we see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honour; that he by the grace of God should taste death for every man." Although Spurgeon made many prolific statements in his sermons which are often quoted, I don't trust his theology, and I humbly don't think anybody else should either.

1st John 4:1-6, "Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world. Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesseth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is of God: And every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and even now already is it in the world. Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them: because greater is he that is in you, than he that is in the world. They are of the world: therefore speak they of the world, and the world heareth them. We are of God: he that knoweth God heareth us; he that is not of God heareth not us. Hereby know we the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error."

We live in a world of deception. The Apostle John emphasizes the fact that "many false prophets are gone out into the world" (1st John 4:1b). Concerning the future Tribulation period Jesus said in Matthew 24:11, "And many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many." I learned a new adage this week: Religion is the "Try Harder" Salvation; With The Gospel Of Grace, You Get To Be You. In other words, God saves you JUST AS YOU ARE, so you don't have to forsake one sin to be saved. We're not saved by giving up anything; we're saved by putting our childlike faith (trust, reliance) in Jesus.

We know that a known liar can tell the truth, and a trusted pastor can tell lies.

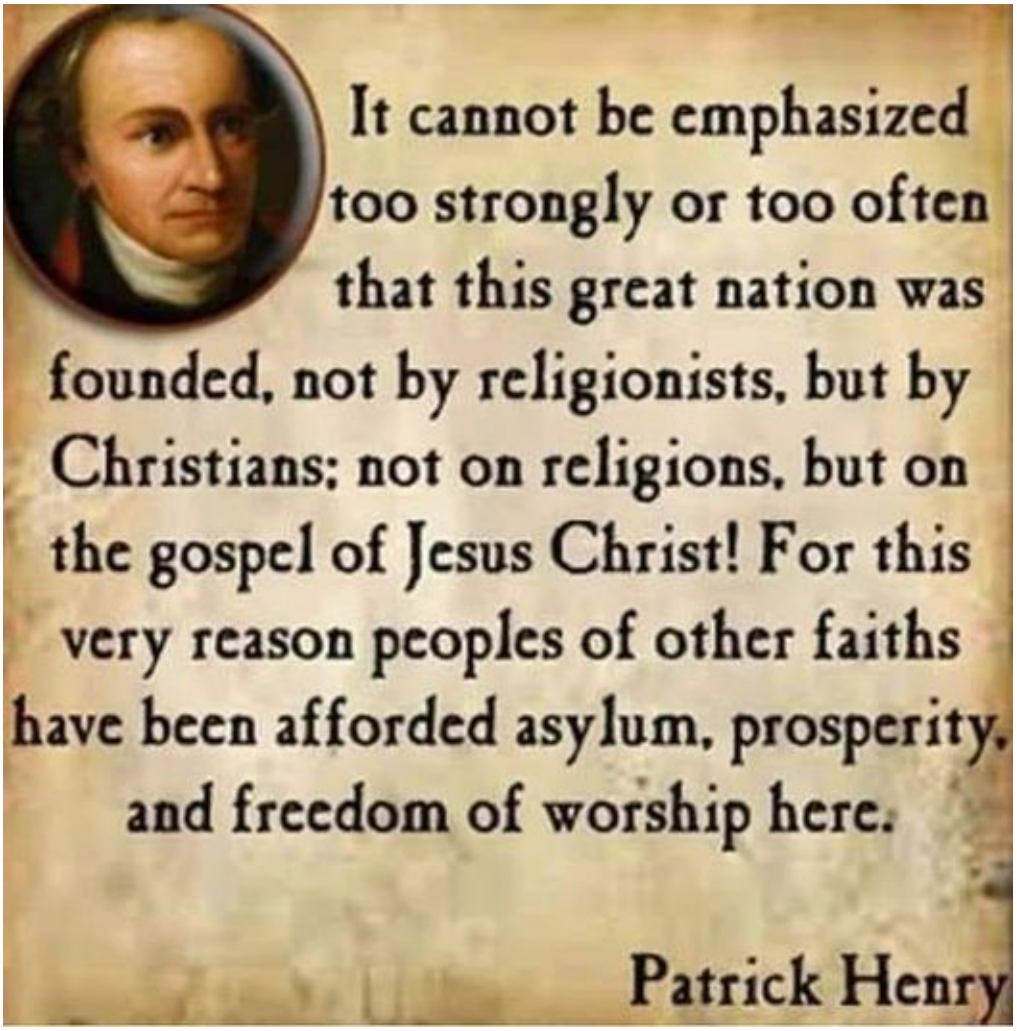
5.8.27 Some Infamous Atheist's Horrifying Last Dying Words (2024-08-26 23:20)

Founder of the Church Of Satan, the famous satanist, Anton Szandor LaVey's last death bed words were: "Oh my, oh my, what have I done! There's something very wrong, there's something very wrong, there's something very wrong!"

Voltaire (1694–1778), an atheist, said: "I am abandoned by God and man! I shall go to hell! O Jesus Christ!"

David Hume (1711–1776), an atheist, said while dying in utter despair: "I am in the flames!"



Thomas Payne (1718–1799), an atheist, said: "I would give worlds, if I had them, if the Age of Reason had never been published. O Lord help me! Christ help me! Stay with me! It is hell to be left alone!"

Thomas Scott (1808–1878), an atheist, said: "Until this moment I thought there was neither a God nor a hell. Now I know and feel that there is both, and I am doomed to perdition by the just judgement of the Almighty."

Aleister Crowley (1875–1974), England's most wicked man said: "I am perplexed. Satan get out."

Eternity is too long to be wrong!!!

5.8.28 If You're Frustrated With People, So Am I (2024-08-27 08:27)

2nd Thessalonians 3:1-3, " Finally, brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may have free course, and be glorified, even as it is with you: And that we may be delivered from unreasonable and wicked men: for all men have not faith. But the Lord is faithful, who shall stablish you, and keep you from evil."

I have been hurt by more people than I can remember. I once heard Pastor Marty Herron say from the church pulpit, "Life is about people hurting people." Ironically, that ungodly pastor deeply hurt me, when he forced me out of the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam in 2014, and then banned me from returning. He was offended because I befriended him with THE TRUTH that Lordship Salvation is a perversion of the Gospel. He was also offended because I showed him that the modern Bible revisions are corrupted by Satan. Harvest is a cesspool of iniquity. Harvest employs a bunch of incompetent Bob Jones University graduates who all use the modern perversions of the Bible, and trust in the Devil's damnable lie of Lordship Salvation (which is nothing less than repackaged Calvinism).

Lately I've been cheated, lied to, mistreated, ignored and hurt by several people.

I Was Defrauded By 'Ben Clarks General Store'

In July I had read about an upcoming Banjo Camp in Montana. I rarely ever travel. I don't do it because it is just way too expensive. In 2024 hotels and rental cars cost $150 per day. I cannot afford $2,000 a week for a car and hotel. But I really wanted to attend the Banjo Camp and I had been saving some money. So I contacted Banjo Ben Clarks Banjo Ben General Store in Exeter, Missouri. I asked if there was any spots left for the Banjo Camp. A woman named Amy that works for the store sent me a link to a webpage to sign up. She didn't write any words, Amy just sent me the sign-up link. So I happily signed up. Moments later, I received e-mail confirmation and a receipt for $899 from Ben Clark's General Store. I was elated.

The next day, I went to Priceline and made travel reservations on July 6th for $2,077.25 (that included two-way airfare from Pensacola, Florida to Kalispell, Montana; 4 days in a hotel; a rent car for 5 days). The event was to take place in Bigfork, Montana. To my horror, two days later on July 8th, 2024, Amy emails me to say that all the banjo spots are full. I was stunned and immediately contacted her, letting her know that I have a confirmation and $899 receipt for the 'Banjo Camp.' I had even told her on July 5th that I planned to bring my Deering Goodtime Special banjo to the Banjo Camp event. She said on July 8th that I had signed up for Guitar Camp. I was hurt and upset that she was so stupid to send me a sign-up link for the guitar, when I had clearly told her that I wanted to attend the "Banjo Camp" and bring my "banjo."

She actually blamed me, as losers always do, accusing me of not noticing the drop-down menu on their website (which is hidden out of sight). But I trusted her when I wrote to ask if there were any spots left for the "Banjo Camp." Amy deceived me by sending a link for Guitar Camp. I don't think she did it on purpose, but she did mislead me and she is responsible my my $619.20 loss. When I went to cancel my travel reservations, Alamo car rental refused to refund a single penny of my $619.20 that they bilked me for. The car rental date was still 5-weeks into the future. So I wasn't cancelling at the last minute. In fact, it had only been 36 hours since I had made the reservations.

I also blame Priceline for putting me into that hurtful situation. Priceline are greedy thieves, no better than the evildoers at Alamo. God will harshly deal with those greedy thieves (Isaiah 13:11). I pray for it!!! These ungodly greedy companies are run by evil millionaire executives, who pay peanuts to poor folks in the Philippians (and illegals immigrants from Mexico) to handle angry customers who've been defrauded. Those scum executives cannot hide from God's wrath and judgment (Hebrews 4:13). Anyway, I am out $619.20 because of Amy at Ben Clark's General Store. The store's ungodly manager, Jake Stogdill, didn't even have the manhood to reply to my complaint emails, he has totally ignored me. What a coward! And worst of all, Ben Clark himself is aware of the issue and has also totally ignored me. Ben is a Baptist pastor who lives in Tennessee. As far as I am concerned, Ben Clark is a fake, a respecter of persons, and a wicked person.

2nd Thessalonians 3:2, " And that we may be delivered from unreasonable and wicked men: for all men have not faith."

Ben Clark owes me $619.20. I kindly asked Jake Stogdill in late July of 2024 if they'd help me recoup my $619.20 (which their store caused), by simply allowing me to attend one of their future Banjo Camps for a discounted price. They refused to even talk with me. What wicked jerks! I pray for God to avenge me of Ben Clark and his ungodly employees.

Very few Americans today even know what the word "ethics" means. Ethics is doing the right thing. If Ben Clark's store manager was an ethical person, and that includes Ben himself, they would have allowed me to attend on of their banjo camps for a reduced price, to help me recoup the $619.20 loss which they inflicted upon me. I had to pay that money on my credit card, but it wouldn't cost them anything to let one extra body attend a future Banjo Camp. But they are so wicked that they couldn't care less, because it doesn't afflict them in any way. Screw the other guy, right!

When You Ignore Someone, It Is Stinking Pride

I have been wanting to buy a nice banjo for a long time. I've been saving money. I wrote a man whom I thought would be kind enough to email back. I spent half an hour composing my email to him, articulating all my questions, to make sure my words were well written and easy to understand. I asked him kindly for his advice. He just totally ignored me. This is what ungodly people do. I'd expect some heathen lawyer to ignore me (which I've had happen numerous times in my lifetime while they were financially bilking me).

Dear reader, when someone takes the time to compose an email (especially if it is a lengthy one), you should have the human decency to reply, even if just to let that person know you cannot help them. It is ethical to be courteous to others. One of my pet peeves is when arrogant people look down on others, so much so that they don't even deem the lesser person (in their proudful eyes) to be worthy of a response. Proverbs 8:13, " The fear of the LORD is to hate evil: pride, and arrogancy, and the evil way, and the froward mouth, do I hate. "

If someone takes the time to contact you, you should be dignified enough as a fellow human being to acknowledge their time that they took to write to you. Very few Americans today even know what the word "ethics" means. Ethics is doing the right thing. I don't think I've ever blown anybody off, who took the time to write me. God knows that I am doing my best to make people feel loved and acknowledged who email me. It's the least that I can do. We're all wicked sinners who deserve to burn in the fires of Hell forever. Thank God for His amazing grace, that had made a way of escape through faith in His only begotten Son, Jesus.

Arthur Hatfield Defrauded Me

l bought a Hatfield Buck Creek banjo in April of 2024. When I received it in June, the case was filthy, covered in brownish/orange shop dust. When I opened the banjo case and lifted up the banjo, a part fell off. It was a bolt from the tailpiece. So, I reattached it. The tailpiece hadn't been adjusted at all, it was sticking all the way up over the banjo head. So, I had to adjust that too. Then when I tuned the strings and went to strum the instrument, the intonation was so bad that it was unplayable. Arthur had used a pencil to mark the bridge position on the head, but he was way off. I spent hours trying to fix the problem, but couldn't, because something was wrong with the banjo.

I contacted Arthur, but to me shock he didn't care. he was cold and abrasive, insisting that I return the banjo for a refund. But I didn't want a refund, I wanted a banjo. By returning the banjo, I was going to lose $230, which I didn't want to do. I had paid him $3,000 for the banjo, but it had an issue. The truss rod also needed to be adjusted, because the strings were buzzing (they were too close to the fretboard). So, I had to loosen the truss rod, and I did, and it worked. But in the process of adjusting the action, I cut my hand open on one of the jagged sharp 1/2" strings that he left sticking out at the tuning pegs on the headstock. When I sent him a photo of my bleeding hand, he didn't even have the manhood to apologize.

This was in June of 2024.

Arthur couldn't have cared less and hurt me deeply. He had shipped a lemon to me. He didn't even take the time to properly set-up the banjo before sending it. The delivery man just left the banjo sitting on my front porch, which a thief could have stolen. I had a package from Amazon stolen in May that the U.S. Postal woman left laying on my porch, and didn't bother to knock on my door. Americans have become so lazy, rotten, irresponsible and cold these days.

Injustices Abound In American Society Today

Our government is just pissing on the American people. YouTube has been posting advertisements in 100 % Spanish, so that English speaking Americans cannot understand a word of what is being said. YouTube is catering to the illegal immigrants. There should be a U.S. federal law that requires every company to only post commercials in English. This is gross wickedness being allowed by our treasonous and incompetent rotten government. That includes state as well as federal government. This is America, we speak English!!!

I went to McDonald's last month to buy Pastor Jack Hyles' favorite meal, a Quarter-Pounder with Cheese. Look at what they gave me (raw hamburger)...

Gross! Raw Hamburger At McDonalds

I contacted McDonald's at their official complaint webpage. No one ever bothered to reply. So, I filed a complaint at Consumer Affairs, but no one has responded to that complaint either. This is America today, no one gives a damn anymore. Matthew 24:12, "And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold." With ungodly legalized abortions, ungodly legalized same-sex perversion, ungodly public nudity at every beach in the United States, wickedness everywhere we turn in American culture today, and ungodly gender-bending propaganda being forced upon our impressionable precious children, what can we expect? In lieu of all these evils, it is no wonder that THE LOVE OF MANY HAVE WAXED COLD.

Everything that I have shared with you in this blog has happened to me in only three months!!! Good night in the morning. I've been cheated, defrauded, mistreated, ignored and horribly done wrong by dozens of individuals and companies. This is just the tip of the iceberg how rotten our society has become!!! People have died from E.coli food poisoning. Raw hamburger is no light matter, but McDonald's couldn't care less! When they kill their customers, the blood will be on McDonald's hands, not mine.

Now, having said all that. I am often reminded of a beautiful truth that my pastor taught us a few months ago. He said that we ought not be flabbergasted when heathens commit sin! They are just doing their job. That's right. Think about it. Unsaved heathens don't know Jesus. They only know darkness, sin and Satan. Every unsaved person (whether they realize it or not) is a child of the Devil, and they are susceptible to Satan's spirit (Ephesians 2:1-2). So, as hard as it is for me to accept, Alamo's hellbound executives are behaving like heathens should.

Arthur Hatfield is a Christless man, who is behaving as a Christless heathen. The ungodly thieves at Priceline are behaving the ay heathens should, just doing their wicked jobs. The world has always been a wicked place according to 1st John 5:19. God will someday punish the world for their evil and iniquities. Isaiah 13:11, "And I will punish the world for their evil, and the wicked for their iniquity; and I will cause the arrogancy of the proud to cease, and will lay low the haughtiness of the terrible."

We Need To Stay Focused On Jesus

I have been very frustrated lately with all the rotten people—crooked companies, lying politicians, arrogant jerks, warmongering leaders, greedy thieves, wicked heathens, uncaring police, perversion and insanity in our corrupt American society today! Albeit, I choose to stay focused on the Lamb of God—the Author and Finisher of our faith—Jesus Christ the righteous. Hebrews 12:2, "L ooking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

I can look in the mirror at the end of each day, knowing that other ungodly people hurt, cheated, defrauded and and did me wrong in various ways; but I treated them the way I want to be treated, with respect, honesty, ethics and love. Atheist singer Billy Joel was so right...

> Honesty is such a lonely word,
>
> Everyone is so untrue;

Honesty is hardly ever heard,

And mostly what I need from you.

Bravo Billy Joel, you nailed it!

Honesty (Billy Joel)

Pensacola Sheriff’s Office Ignores Thieves

When I called the Pensacola Sheriff’s office police to report my stolen package in May of 2024, I showed them both (a male and a female cop covered in thug gangster tattoos) a video on my laptop when they came, in which you can clearly recognize the thief’s identity as he takes my package and walks off with it. …

A Dirty Thief Caught In The Act (May 10th, 2024)

I was shocked by what the male cop said. I had kindly told them that Amazon replaced the $30 stolen clothing rack. The cop then said that I wasn't the victim, Amazon is. He said even if they caught the perpetrator they couldn't do anything to him, because Amazon (a multi-billion dollar corporation that doesn't care) would have to have the thief prosecuted. You couldn't make this stuff up!!! So what the cop is essentially telling me is that neighborhood thieves can now steal with impunity and immunity. The cops are basically worthless nowadays, unless someone is being murdered and they arrive in time to stop it (which is less than 1 % of the time). I am really ashamed to be called an American. [4]Our nation has become the laughing stock of the world.

I hate this sin sick world. I am now 57. Thank God my journey is closer to being finished than beginning. I want to go home to be with the Lord. but I echo the somber words of the Apostle Paul in Philippians

1:21, "

For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain.

" I wrote this blog to encourage others. No doubt you've also been defrauded, cheated, mistreated, abused, ignored and treated like garbage by certain people.

1st Peter 5:9, " Whom resist stedfast in the faith, knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren that are in the world. " We all suffer the same afflictions, plus tax...lol.

But the most important truth that I want you to take away is that, unlike the wicked world, as God's children we can go to the Lord with our burdens and leave them there!

> Hebrews 4:13-16, "Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do. Seeing then that we have a great high priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession. For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need."

I read that beautiful encouraging passage in my first year at Hyles-Anderson College, in my dorm after chapel one day, which has been a source of comfort ever since. As a born-again child of God, we have a right to come before God's throne of grace BOLDLY, to obtain mercy to find grace to help in TIME OF NEED. Let the world defraud me, let them hurt and ignore me, let those greedy dogs steal everything I own, but I rejoice that my name is written in the Lamb's Book of Life (Luke 10:20). People will hurt us, but the Lord never will (1st Peter 5:7).

In these unsettling times of uncertainty, rampant crime, confusion and woeful wickedness, the saints need to run to the inspired Word of God like a starving man! God bless you dear reader, and thank you for reading my ministry blog. I just want to be a blessing for Christ in the lives of others. By God's grace, I hope He has done that through my humble labors since 2002 when I began my [5]Jesus-is-Savior.com website. Have a good day.

5.8.29 Ray Comfort Requires Keeping The Law To Be Saved (2024-08-27 11:01)

Hebrews 4:10-11, "For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his. Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief."

This is THE SAME damnable heresy that is being [1]shamefully taught at Pensacola Christian College (PCC). PCC invited and honored [2]false prophet Ken Ham, who also teaches this damnable heresy that you must turn from your wicked ways to get to Heaven, which is really being required to KEEP THE LAW to be saved. These false prophets, and corrupt Bible colleges like PCC, MUST be exposed because RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!

I typed out this helpful commentary just now from [3]The Strand Study Bible (page 2132) for 1st John 5:13a, " These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God;

> 5:13a There are two reasons why people need to "rethink" the Deity of CHRIST (that believe on the name of the Son of God):
>
> 1. It is a necessary part to salvation (Jn 8:24)
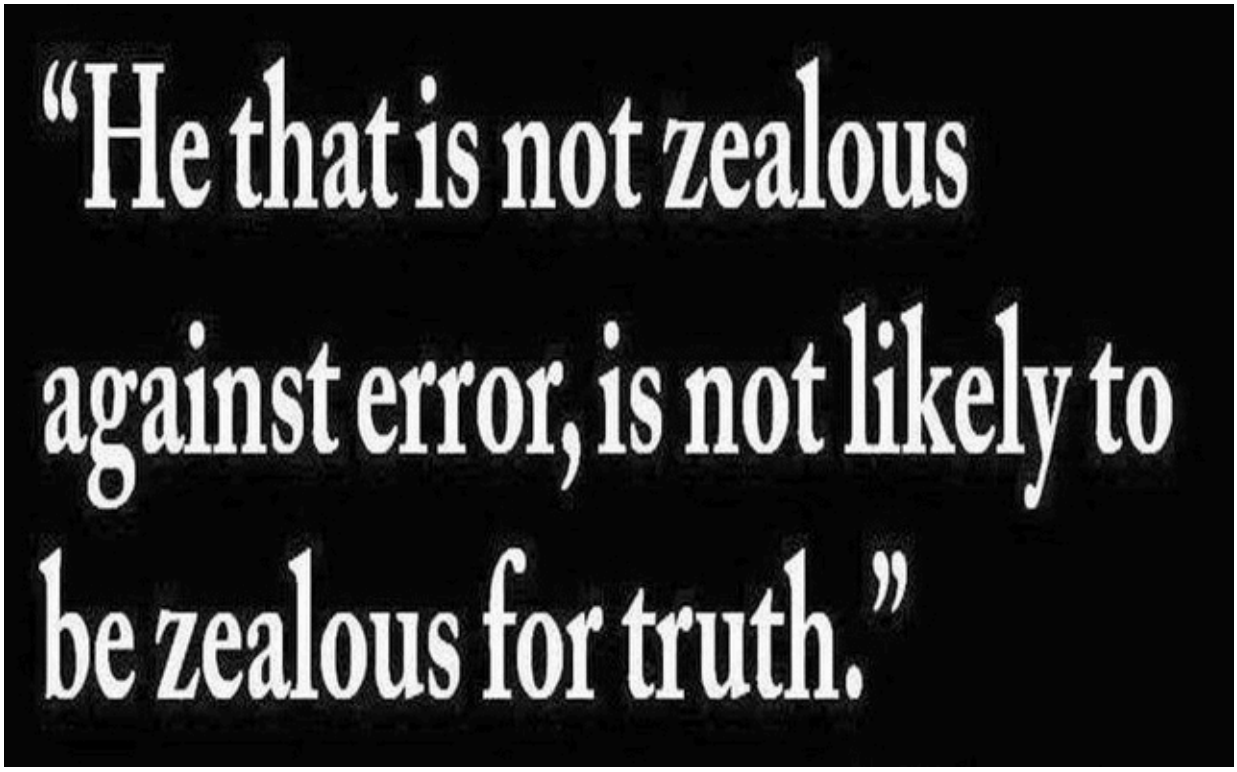
> God tells us that there are two areas in which we must repent if we are to be saved: (1) we must change our minds as to who we are (Lk 5:31-32 & 13:1-5 and Mt 27:3). We are "sinfully" sick and in need of the Savior and cannot save ourselves (Rom 3:10, 23); and (2) We must change of minds as to who CHRIST is (Mt 4:13-17 & 11:20-24, Mk 1:15, Acts 3:12-19 and Acts 2:38). He's God (Jn 8:24, 58-59) and our only Savior (Acts 4:10-12).

Bible repentance is NEVER to turn away from your sinful bad habits, which would be human REFORMATION, not REPENTANCE. Pastor Strand is correct, we must repent (change our mind) about TWO things to be saved: (1) Who WE ARE; and (2) Who JESUS IS. We are Hell-deserving guilty SINNERS (Revelation 21:8), but Jesus is the crucified and risen SAVIOR (1st Thessalonians 4:14). That is the simplicity of the Gospel—you just have to stop trying to save yourself by WORKS (Hebrews 4:1); and rest in the finished sacrifice of Jesus which He made through Calvary's cross (Hebrews 4:10-11), so that Jesus could apply His precious shed blood to the Mercy Seat in Heaven in the presence of God the Father (Hebrews 9:12, 22-24; 10:1, 12:24).

Ray Comfort False Gospel Given To Millions

What Ray Comfort, Ken Ham, Jack Chick, Pacific Garden Mission's UNSACHKED, Bob Jones University (BJU), and Pensacola Christian College are preaching is something entirely different, where you are required to be willing to KEEP THE LAW in addition to childlike faith in the name of Jesus.

PCC is a cult today! Here is page 62 of the "John & Romans" booklet, which Campus Church delivered right into my mailbox last year. It tells the reader that to be saved you must make a mental check to forsake your sinning:



> "I repent of my sins. I realize that sin is something that God hates and I no longer want to hold onto sinful bad habits in my life."

Do you still think I bumped my head? PCC has MUCH blood on their incompetent hands for preaching a counterfeit plan of salvation. PCC's Campus Church mailed this damnable corrupt booklet to 50,000 homes in Pensacola! PCC must be held accountable for perverting the Gospel of free grace, for leading souls into Hell. I am not just barking up an empty tree here folks! If we could stop sinning on our own, we wouldn't need Jesus (Galatians 2:20).

The false gospel that Ray Comfort, Ken Ham, BJU and PCC preach gives you nothing but a burden. Jesus said in Matthew 11:28, "Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest." Jesus gives rest; Ray Comfort gives you a heavy burden to bear (by trying to stop sinning to get to Heaven). How is the latter a free gift? The reason why PCC has been corrupted is because they refuse to contend for the faith.

5.8.30 God Will Punish The Ungodly Bigoted Liberals At Amazon (2024-08-29 11:06)

Isaiah 13:11, "And I will punish the world for their evil, and the wicked for their iniquity; and I will cause the arrogancy of the proud to cease, and will lay low the haughtiness of the terrible."

I have been one of their best customers at Amazon.com for over 15 years. I have reviewed several hundred products in that time. In fact, last year Amazon by invitation only asked me to join their special program, where they would send me FREE merchandise if I would simply review the products. I was excited about it at first, until I learned that I would be legally required to pay taxes on all the merchandise, and I would have no idea what they'd be sending me. So, I kindly declined.

On Amazon, I recently purchased a movie (Lord Of The Flies, 1990) that looked interesting, but I should have read what the movie was about better before buying it. As it turns out, the movie is about a group of young boys stranded on an island, who turn into savages, even committing abominable sexual acts. I was shocked and threw the movie into the garbage (but I should have returned it for a full refund). I was so upset at the time that all I could think of was trashing the film. I gave it an honest negative review, using the word sodomite to describe on of the gross scenes, for which I DO NOT recommend the movie.

A few days later I received a threatening email notice from Amazon, falsely accusing me of using “ Hate Speech.” I replied by telling them that they can kiss me where the sun don’t shine. Then they suspended my ability to post any further product reviews. So, I contacted corporate headquarters in Washington state to complain, which I did today. I was transferred to a woman (I think in India) who seemed to care and documented my complaint. She directed me to contact the very same idiots who are the problem, which disappointed me. So, here is what I wrote to them today, which I stand behind with 100 % boldness...

> To whom it may concern,
>
> I am only contacting you because Shivangi (the friendly woman whom I spoke to on the phone today about the abuse from Amazon against me) asked me to. In her country they despise homosexuality, which is why she said she agrees with me. The United States is going to Hell. In fact, the Amazon corporation is DISCRIMINATING against me as a Bible-believing Christian. Shame on Amazon!
>
> I have filed the first of numerous complaints against you, and I will be following up with corporate management about this issue (as well as giving negative reviews of Amazon on social media; Google, Yelp, my blogs and elsewhere). Your progressive liberal views are in violation of my biblical beliefs as a Christian. And you will be held accountable by God one day (Isaiah 13:11). You are welcome to terminate my account if you feel compelled to do so. You have abused me by falsely accusing me of "hate speech," and by discriminating against my Christian values.
>
> You didn’t send me a full copy of my review, so I cannot remember what I said. However, if memory serves correct, I used the word "sodomite" which comes directly from the inspired King James Bible, which I have read since age 13 when I became a born-again Christian. I am now 57. I didn’t call anybody a "sodomite," I simply said that there is a "sodomite" scene in the 1990 movie, "Lord Of The Flies," for which I do not recommend the movie. Whoever at Amazon has a problem with my use of that word needs to go see a psychiatrist, really. You ungodly people are the ones with the problem, not me. THERE WAS NOTHING WRONG WITH MY REVIEW!!!
>
> This country has gone to hell, evidenced by the LGBTQ perversion which is being forced on society today. If you support that crap, which I don’t, then feel free to terminate my account if you have a problem with that. And again, you can kiss my rear if you don’t like it, I won’t be bullied by the liberals at Amazon. You way overreacted to my movie review. I don’t like being threatened.
> I called corporate management today to complain about you bullies. I kindly told the lady what you did to mistreat me. She documented my complaint against Amazon. I don’t have a problem refraining from using the word "sodomite" if that is your issue. You never did tell me exactly what I wrote to offend you so badly (the full review was blocked out), so how the hell am I supposed to know what I said that offend YOU. My guess is that I used the word "sodomite." If that is not the issue, then please elaborate, because I cannot read your minds. You could have simply kindly asked me not to use the word, but by threatening me you have made an enemy.

You will please kindly reinstate my ability to write further reviews, or I'll be shopping at Walmart a lot more in the future. I don't like bullies, which you are! I never used HATE SPEECH on Amazon; you did by threatening me. You need to learn to better communicate with customers, instead of threatening and falsely accusing people of "hate speech." Those are fighting words, inflammatory. You are not too wise to use such language. You don't intimidate me one bit.

If you think the word "sodomite" is hate speech, then you are in conflict with our Creator God who authored the King James Bible, so I'll let Him deal with you in eternity. Shame on you for bullying people. Your "terms of community standards" are extremely vague. In a wicked homosexual tolerant community, the word "sodomite" is highly offensive; but in a Bible-believing church community the word "sodomite" is perfectly appropriate. So, who are you to play God to decide what is "appropriate"? You people make me sick!

Mistreated customer,

To God be the glory! The dictionary defines "bigot" as: "a prejudiced person who is intolerant of any opinions differing from his own." There is no group more bigoted today than the LGBTQ community and their liberal supporters. Anyone (like me as a mistreated former customer at Amazon) who doesn't go along with their ungodly liberal acceptance of THE SIN OF HOMOSEXUALITY is labeled as a bigot who uses hate speech, but in reality they are the ones guilty of being bigots and using hate speech. Amazon.com abuses their customers. Today I called [1]Amazon corporate headquarters to speak to a manager, but instead they brushed me off to someone in India. This is how rotten Amazon mistreats people. I pray for God to punish Amazon for their wickedness.

The sad truth is that sodomites can bash Christians all they want with impunity (case in point is the ungodly 2012 television series: [2]Good Christian Bitches), but just let a Christian mention the word "sodomite" and the wicked all pounce on him with rage. Isaiah 13:11, "And I will punish the world for their evil, and the wicked for their iniquity; and I will cause the arrogancy of the proud to cease, and will lay low the haughtiness of the terrible."

I desperately want the Lord Jesus Christ to return and rule the world during the Millennium with a ROD OF IRON. Revelation 2:27a, "And he shall rule them with a rod of iron..." Even so, come, Lord Jesus!

5.8.31 We Live In A World Of Ungodly Liars And Deceivers (2024-08-29 16:10)

Matthew 7:12, "Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets."

I hate doing business in today's shady world. The United States leads the world in fraud, greed and lack of ethics when it comes to how the government, churches and businesses treat people. The Golden Rule is on the endangered species list today!

I have been a loyal customer at Amazon.com for over 15 years, but they have ZERO loyalty for me as a customer. I recently wrote a movie review for the 1990 film, Lord Of The Flies. I regret buying the film. I should have read more carefully what the movie was about. I took a brief glance and it seemed interesting, so I bought it. I was horrified when I watched the movie, about a group of small boys stranded on an island, committing barbarian evil acts of sexual depravity to one another.

So, in my review on Amazon I mentioned that there is a sodomite scene in the ungodly film and warned people not to buy the sicko movie. A few days later I received an email notice from Amazon threatening to terminate my account, falsely accusing me of "Hate Speech." I hadn't said anything of a hateful nature. Amazon has some ungodly liberal weirdos working for them, who are biased against Bible-believing Christians.

I emailed back and told them to kiss my rear, and that whoever thinks my review is "Hate Speech" needs to go see a psychiatrist. They responded by suspending my ability to write any more product reviews. So I went online today to find a contact for Amazon's corporate headquarters. Sadly, Amazon makes it IMPOSSIBLE to contact a living person to speak to when there's a problem at their company. I hate dealing with Amazon, where they crap on their customers! So I found a number to "corporate headquarters" and called. A woman answered the phone and said she would forward my call to someone who could help me, but the next thing I knew I was speaking to a foreign woman in India who could barely speak English.

So I went back online in frustration, to find another way of contacting Amazon's corporate headquarters, and I was sickened to find that [1]the "corporate headquarters" I had contacted earlier is a scam company! Here is what the website states at the bottom...

What lying bastards! They tricked me to think that I had contacted "corporate headquarters" for Amazon, but they lied. I'm telling you, our American culture has gone to hell. I wouldn't be surprised if Amazon themselves set up that fraudulent company as a "red-herring." Do you know what a red-herring is? In the old days if you wanted to throw the scent off so that hunting dogs couldn't track you, you'd drag some Herring fish behind you on a stringer, to throw off the dogs. I think Amazon intentionally deceives customers to prevent people from actually contacting corporate headquarters, so they use a red herring company to misdirect everyone.

I couldn't help but see the spiritual application in this sad matter. All cross the world today, in millions of churches, lying pastors and Catholic priests tell a counterfeit plan of salvation to mislead people. Satan uses them as a red-herring to prevent lost sinners from truly getting saved. 2nd Corinthians 4:3-4, "But if our gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost: In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them."

That is why Satan has entered into the Bible publishing business, publishing literally HUNDREDS of different English Bible revisions (which are all corrupt). The average church pastor today is a total idiot, using and promoting the Devil's corruptible seed. The new Bible versions all horribly change and corrupt what it means to "

repent.

" Instead of meaning a simple " change of mind

(Greek: metanoia), the new Bible PERversions all define repentance as turning away from your sinful behavior to get to Heaven. Case in point, take a look at Hebrews 6:1 in the King James Bible versus the Easy-To-Read Version (ESV)...

KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) - Hebrews 6:1,

“Therefore leaving the principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on unto perfection; not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith toward God,”

EASY-TO-READ VERSION (ERV) - Hebrews 6:1, “So we should be finished with the beginning lessons about Christ. We should not have to keep going back to where we started. We began our new life by turning away from the evil we did in the past and by believing in God.”

Repentance from DEAD WORKS is very different than turning away from the evil you did in the past. The phrase “DEAD WORKS” refers to the dead things you were trusting in before to save you (e.g., good works, turning from bad works, sacraments, religion, idols, et cetera). You get saved by ceasing from your DEAD WORKS, and resting in Jesus Christ alone by faith (Hebrews 4:10-11). The toxic ERV has it all backwards, actually requiring you to do DEAD WORKS (turning from your bad works, which is doing a good work) to be saved, which cannot produce the new birth. I hope you see dear reader how dangerous these modern Bible PERversions truly have become. They are more toxic than nuclear waste!

We live today in the “

foretold in 2nd Timothy 3:1-7, when ungodly companies are lying and deceiving the public, and ungodly preachers are lying and deceiving the churches. That is why my favorite Bible verse for many years now has been Proverbs 4:23, “Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life. ” We need to question everything and test it with the inspired Word of God (1st John 4:1). We need to double and triple check everything, because liars and deceivers are everywhere in the world today.

2nd Timothy 3:13, “

But evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived.

” Even so, come, Lord Jesus!

5.8.32 Should I Care About Being Justified In The Eyes Of Men? (2024-08-30 03:32)

James 2:17-26, “Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being alone. Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith without thy works, and I will shew thee my faith by my works. Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: the devils also believe, and tremble. But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead? Was not Abraham our father justified by works, when he had offered Isaac his son upon the altar? Seest thou how faith wrought with his works, and by works was faith made perfect? And the scripture was fulfilled which saith, Abraham believed God, and it was imputed unto him for righteousness: and he was called the Friend of God. Ye see then how that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only. Likewise also was not Rahab the harlot justified by works, when she had received the messengers, and had sent them out another way? For as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also."

A man emailed me yesterday and asked me to explain James 2. Here is what I told him...

> James chapter 2 is one of the most debated passages of Scripture, but it need not be. Notice that Abraham was justified by "works" in verse 21 when he offered up Isaac, "Was not Abraham our father justified by works, when he had offered Isaac his son upon the altar?" What saith the Scripture? Genesis 15:6, "And he believed in the LORD; and he counted it to him for righteousness." The Apostle Paul cites and refers to this passage in Romans 4:1-7. So, Abraham was saved in Genesis chapter 15, by faith alone in Christ. But if you read Genesis, Abraham didn't offer up his son Isaac until chapter 22 (seven chapters later).
>
> The answer is simple, Abraham was justified in the sight of God by faith in chapter 15. His faith was validated outwardly in the eyes of the world in chapter 22, when he offered up Isaac in obedience to the Lord. In Romans, Paul addresses the root of the believer's salvation, which is justification by FAITH alone.
>
> But in the Epistle of James, the apostle addresses the justification of the believer's faith in the eyes of men, which is by works. 1st Samuel 16:7, But the LORD said unto Samuel, Look not on his countenance, or on the height of his stature; because I have refused him: for the LORD seeth not as man seeth; for man looketh on the outward appearance, but the LORD looketh on the heart." Since God can see our heart, we are justified by faith in His sight. Since men cannot see our heart, they need to see our works to justify our faith. Of course, many unsaved false prophets do good works, so this can be misleading.
>
> Also, notice in James 2:18 that he says "shew me" and I will "shew thee" my faith by works. James didn't say I will shew God, he said, I will shew you my faith by works. James 2:18, "Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith without thy works, and I will shew thee my faith by my works." James said faith without works is dead, but even a dead faith is still faith. There are many believers today whose faith is dead. They have fallen by the wayside (Luke 8:13). Other are choked by the cares, riches and pleasures of the world (Luke 8:14). Their faith is dead while they live. The lost hellbound world have no faith in Christ at all.
> I hope that helps my friend.

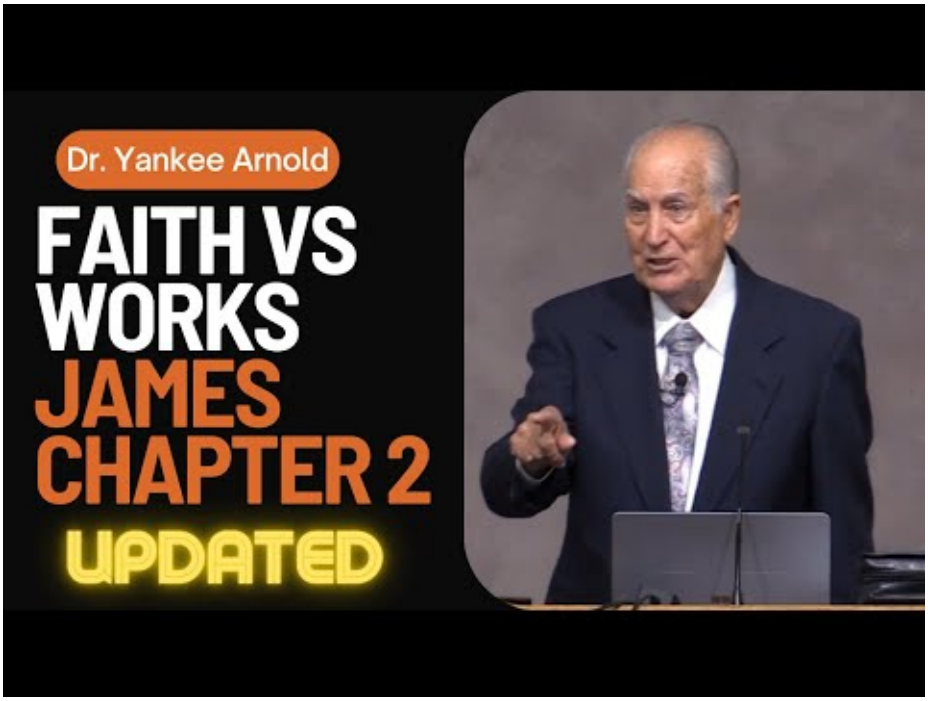
He replied by asking, " isn't justification before men useless? Like I don't care what people think about me, I would rather be (and I am by simply believing the Gospel) justified before God than being justified before men.

" Here is my second reply...

> Kindly, you may not care what men think about you, but God absolutely does. Matthew 5:16, "Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven." If we don't live holy lives, God does not get glorified.



> And also, our poisonous testimony may cause lost sinners to spend eternity burning in Hell. Hebrews 12:15, "Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord: Looking diligently lest any man fail of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and thereby many be defiled;" Millions of unsaved people won't step foot into a church today because of hateful, bigoted, hypocrites, like the religious phonies at Pensacola Christian College and Bob Jones University. The world is always watching us as Christians. God cares what they think.

So, you see dear reader, just as the Apostle James said in James 2:24, a man is justified by both faith and works—BY FAITH in the sight of God, and BY WORKS in the sight of men.

5.8.33 The Devil Controls YouTube (2024-08-30 20:35)

2nd Peter 3:3-4, "Knowing this first, that there shall come in the last days scoffers, walking after their own lusts, And saying, Where is the promise of his coming? for since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation."

The world is getting stranger every day! I just received two email notices from YouTube. The first one notified me that they have removed my video titled, "[1]THE RAPTURE." And the second notice says they are worried in the YouTube community that I might kill myself because of THE RAPTURE. You couldn't make this insanity up!

The video was an excerpt from the 2012 Youth Rally at Shining Light Baptist Church in Morganton, North Carolina, by Pastor Danny Castle, in which the excerpt shows the Rapture suddenly happening while the pastor is preaching about it. I found the video. It is at 29:30 in this sermon, "[4]WHAT WILL HAPPEN WHEN JESUS COMES?"

What Will Happen When Jesus Comes
(Pastor Danny Castle - [5]Watch 29:30 in sermon)

The ungodly world mocks, blasphemes and attacks the things of God; but they allow all manner of voyeurism, homosexuality, adultery, debauchery and filth. I suggest that YouTube stops persecuting Bible-believing Christians, and start doing something to stop the [6]pedophile groups who use YouTube to exploit children. 5.8.34 The Bible Is Full Of The Sins And Failures Of Saints (2024-08-31 10:10)

Romans 15:4, "For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope."

At some point in every Christian's life we all need to painfully learn that we cannot live the Christian life, because we are hopeless sinners in need of God's grace and help. The key to living the Christian life is NOT to do it, let Jesus Christ live through you. ...

> Galatians 2:20-21, "I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me. I do not frustrate the grace of God: for if righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain."

The Bible teaches in our text passage from Romans 15:4 that the Old Testament was written FOR OUR LEARNING, that we through the patience and comfort of the Scriptures might have hope. My ministry friend Dave Hyles wrote these edifying words:

> One of the remarkable aspects of the Bible is its unflinching honesty about the people within its pages. It presents them with all their flaws, failures, and frailties. Scripture reveals the full scope of its characters' humanity — their strengths, weaknesses, triumphs, and failures.
> The Bible doesn't shy away from revealing the shortcomings of its most revered figures. We see David, a man after God's own heart, committing adultery and orchestrating a murder. We witness Moses, the great leader of Israel, struggling with anger and doubt. Even the apostle Peter is depicted denying Christ in a moment of fear. These accounts are not designed to diminish these individuals but to highlight something far more significant—the relentless grace of God.
>
> Against the backdrop of human sinfulness and failure, God's grace shines brightly. In these moments of weakness, God's power is made perfect. The Bible's honesty about human imperfection reminds us that God's work is not dependent on our strength, wisdom, or righteousness. Instead, it is the delight of the Spirit of God to work upon the platform of human impossibilities.
>
> When we recognize our limitations and failures, we open ourselves to God's grace's transformative work. The stories of the Bible encourage us to embrace our weaknesses, not with despair but with hope. For it is in our inadequacies that the power of God is most clearly displayed. The heroes of the Bible are not glorified because of their perfection; they are celebrated because, despite their flaws, they allowed God to work through them.
> In this way, the Bible teaches us that true greatness is not found in human achievement but in the grace of God that triumphs over human failure. As we reflect on the lives of those who have gone before us, let us be encouraged that the same grace that worked in them is available to us today, ready to turn our impossibilities into platforms for God's glory.

Amen and amen! No Christian has arrived. At best we are all struggling woeful sinners. You may have been able to live above reproach all your life, but NO ONE has ever lived above sinning. YOU ARE A SINNER, AND SO AM I! Don't judge others because they sin differently than you do. 1st Timothy 5:24, " Some men's sins are open beforehand, going before to judgment; and some men they follow after." You may have been able to hide your sins thus far, but in eternity all sins will be revealed. The point is clear: WE HAVE SINNED! So, please don't point fingers to condemn others who have sinned, because SO HAVE YOU.

God authored the inspired Holy Bible to share with us the lives of saints before, during and after their time on earth. The Lord gave us this gift to teach us, to give us comfort and patience with our earthly burdens, frustrations, struggles and sorrows. So, we can all echo the promise of God in Romans 8:28,

"And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose."

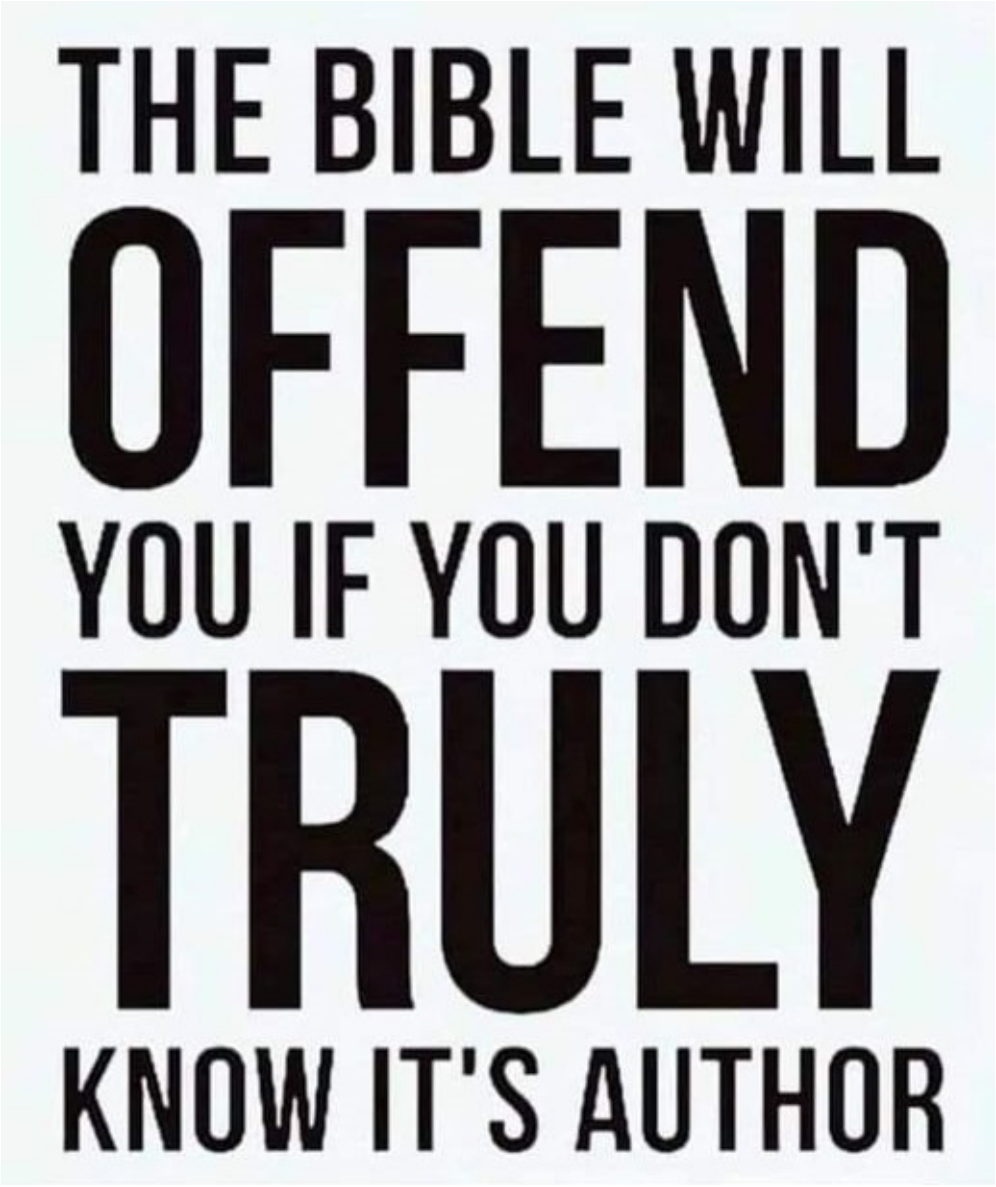
5.9.1 How We Know Jesus Didn't Go To Heaven When He Died (2024-09-02 23:08)

Luke 23:43, "And Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, To day shalt thou be with me in paradise."

Jesus plainly said that He and the repentant man on the cross next to Him would be in PARADISE that very same day.

Someone on Facebook challenged my teaching today, insistent that Jesus went to Heaven first and then came back to go to Paradise. But we know that he is wrong in his theory. Everyone certainly has a right to their own opinion, but no has a right to their own FACTS. Jesus went to "Paradise" the very same day He died according to Luke 23:43. This is a FACT.



Another FACT that the Bible is very clear about is that Jesus spent THREE DAYS AND THREE NIGHTS (72 hours) in Hell.

Matthew 12:40, " For as Jonas was three days and three nights in the whale's belly; so shall the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth.

" This leaves no time for a secret rendezvous to go to Heaven somewhere in between. It would be wicked and very inappropriate to say that Jesus went to Heaven after He died, when the Bible plainly teaches otherwise.

The ONLY logical biblical conclusion we can make is this—Hell is compartmentalized with the place of TORMENT on one side, the place of PARADISE on the other side, and a GREAT GULF fixed in between (Luke 16:19-31).

Some people are just idiots, belligerent fools who like to debate and argue everything in the inspired Holy Bible. It looks like I'll be unfriending another troublemaker soon.

5.9.2 God Will Punish This Evil World Of Sin And Shame (2024-09-04 08:40)

Isaiah 13:11, "And I will punish the world for their evil, and the wicked for their iniquity; and I will cause the arrogancy of the proud to cease, and will lay low the haughtiness of the terrible."

I am in a battle right now with Amazon.com over a movie review that I wrote. I used the phrase "ungodly sodomite scene" to recommend that customers DON'T buy the 1990 movie, "

Lord Of The Flies.

" It was because I referred to homosexuality as ungodly

” that Amazon’s moronic “Safety Community” falsely accused me of “

Hate Speech.

Today’s ungodly corporations and big tech companies like Facebook are hiding their wicked liberal agendas behind the pretense wall of “

The Community.

” The Bible calls their so-called “community” THE WORLD. Isaiah 13:11, “And I will punish the world for their evil, and the wicked for their iniquity; and I will cause the arrogancy of the proud to cease, and will lay low the haughtiness of the terrible.”

Here is an excellent quote from Pastor E.M. Bounds (1835-1913) which made an impact upon me as a young Christian man over 35 years ago:

> ’The world’ includes the mass of humanity that is alienated from God and therefore hostile to the cause of Christ. It involves worldly affairs, earthly things, riches, pleasures, and pursuits that are shallow, frail, and fleeting. These things stir desire, draw us away from God, and are obstacles to the cause of Christ. The divorced or torn relationships between Heaven and earth, between God and His creatures, finds its expression in the term ’the world.”’ —Pastor Edward M. Bounds, a quote from chapter 7 - ’Overcoming The Enemy Of God,’ from the classic book titled: “GUIDE TO SPIRITUAL WARFARE”

This sin-cursed world is so horrible. I eagerly long to leave this ungodly place to go home to be with Jesus my precious Savior in Heaven...

> 1st John 2:15-17, “Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world. And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever.”

The world is a cold-hearted place. The world never meets anybody halfway on anything. Someone has rightly said that the world is like a man who holds a saxophone in one hand and a gun in the other; he blows his saxophone to drown out the cries of his shooting victims. The world protects their own (John 15:19). The world hates Jesus (John 7:7). The inspired Holy Bible warns that no one can be friends with the world, and also be friends with God (James 4:4). We must all choose either God or the world, there is no middle ground.

I’ve never seen such ugliness in people as I have in recent years. Americans are as greedy, rude, selfish and rotten as ever, and things only seem to be headed downhill from here.

5.9.3 Don't Teach To "Give Your Life To Christ" To Be Saved (2024-09-04 22:27)

Acts 16:29-31, "

Then he called for a light, and sprang in, and came trembling, and fell down before Paul and Silas, And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house."

Repeatedly in the inspired Holy Scripture we are taught simply to BELIEVE ON JESUS to get to Heaven, nothing else. Yet, in most churches today (which are really religious cults), we hear foolish teachings to "Become a Christ follower," "Invite Jesus into your heart," "Make Jesus your Lord," "Surrender all to Christ," and "turn from your sinful ways" to get to Heaven, all of which are lies of Satan intended to prevent lost sinners from seeing and believing the truth of the Gospel of free grace (1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

Here is the Gospel which Jesus directly gave to the Apostle Paul (Galatians 1:12)...

> 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:”

The Gospel is comprised of THREE elements:

1. Jesus DIED on a cross to pay for our sins
2. He was BURIED.
3. Christ physically RESURRECTED from the dead three days later.

These FACTS are what you must place your trust (faith, reliance) in to get to Heaven, and NOT the following junk theology:

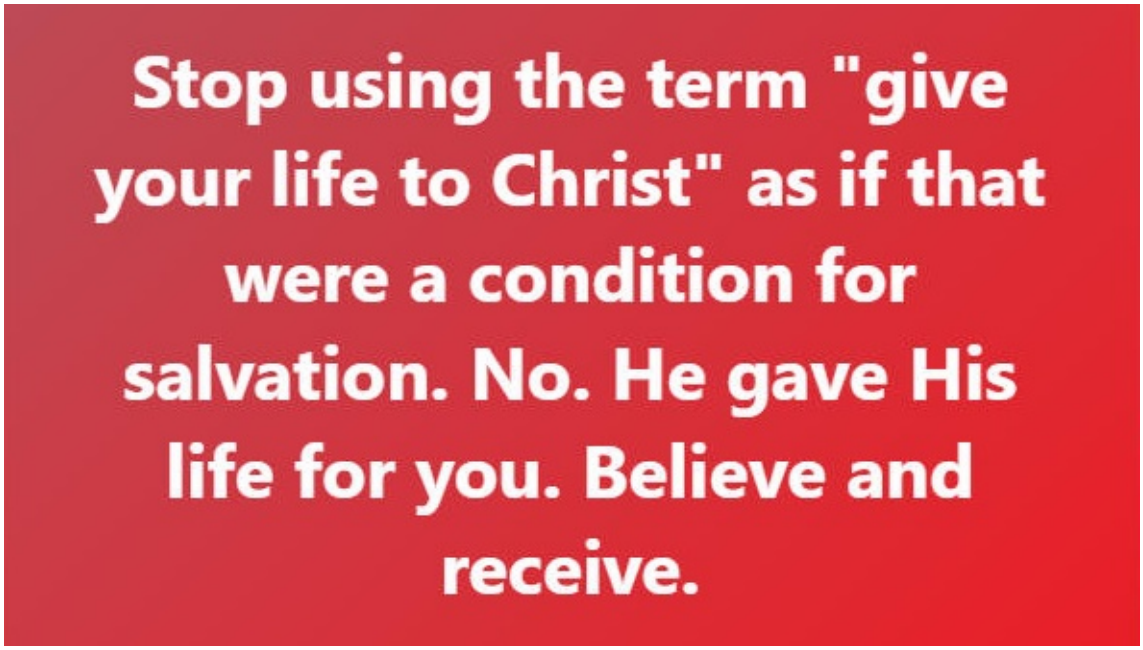
1. get water baptized
2. become a Christ follower
3. forsake a lifestyle of sin
4. turn from your past sins
5. surrender your will to God
6. confess your sins to a priest
7. pray a Sinner’s Prayer
8. speak in tongues
9. keep the Sabbath Day
10. join a church
11. keep the Seven Sacraments
12. live a holy life
13. live a lifestyle of repentance from sin
14. perseverance in holiness to the end
15. faithfully run the race
16. be willing to turn from your sin
17. love God
18. keep the Ten Commandment (the law)
19. tithe
20. ask Jesus into your heart
21. publicly confess Jesus
22. do good deeds

You may do all of these religious things and yet never have been born-again (saved) at all. Jesus said in no uncertain terms in John 3:3b, 'YE MUST BE BORN AGAIN.' The only way you can be born again is the BELIEVE THE GOSPEL (the GOOD NEWS) of Jesus crucified and risen. 1st Thessalonians 4:14, "For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him." Getting to Heaven is so simple. You just need to BELIEVE that Jesus did it all for you. Simply by faith, taking God at His written Word, receive Christ's sacrifice on the cross as full payment for your sins, believing that He was buried but then raised up from the dead three days later. That is THE GOSPEL by which all who BELIEVE IT are instantly, irrevocably and forever saved (Romans 1:16).

The truth is that don't don't have to give your life to Christ to get to Heaven, Jesus gave His life for you on Calvary's cross, to pay your debt of sin. Romans 5:10, "For if, when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life." Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do.

Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born again. No amount of religious devotion, faithfulness to life a holy life, or good works can save you from eternal damnation burning in the fires of Hell. John 3:3b, 'YE MUST BE BORN AGAIN.' Salvation is not a reward for the righteous, it is a gift for the guilty!

Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.



Turning away from sinful ways would be a work. Faith puts all of the merit where it belongs, on the object of our faith, Jesus and His work.

If to "repent" means to forsake our sinful ways TO BE SAVED, but Jesus already paid for our sins by dying on the cross, then what are we repenting from?

The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU. God's simple plan of salvation is we we are SINNERS and Jesus is the SAVIOR.

Biblical repentance to be saved involves changing your mind about two things: 1) WHO YOU ARE, and 2) WHO JESUS IS. When you change your mind to acknowledge that YOU ARE A guilty SINNER in God's sight (Romans 3:19-20), and Jesus is the only SAVIOR (John 1:29); and you place your TRUST (hope) in Jesus Christ as your only means for eternal life, you are saved (Galatians 3:26). All God the Father requires to be saved is that you trust in the name of His only begotten Son, Jesus. John 20:31,

"But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name."

Jude 1:22-23, " And of some have compassion, making a difference: And others save with fear, pulling them out of the fire; hating even the garment spotted by the flesh."

Tragically, I have learned firsthand that most Baptist churches today woefully lack God's love and compassion for people. I started attending the Smyrna Baptist Church in Pensacola in January of 2024. I was very kind to the people and pastors at the church. From day one I was a marked man because of my website ministry, and because of my harsh preaching against Pensacola Christian College (PCC) [1]for their woeful lack of love for people, and for [2]preaching the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation. I attended Smyrna for 7 months without any problems.

But then on August 25th, 2024, I walked over to shake their senior pastor's hand, and he looked off 45 degrees hard left as we shook hands, which really hurt my feelings, showing utter disrespect toward me as an individual. So, I emailed him and let him know he hurt my feelings. He emailed back to apologize, saying he didn't know why he did it. I had also asked him a direct question, "Am I wanted at Smyrna Baptist Church?" He didn't answer my question.

I emailed back and accepted his apology. I shared the details of my broken life, about my loneliness from an unwanted divorce in 2006 (18 years ago), my adverse health afflictions from getting hit by a bus in 1992, et cetera. I mentioned that I planned to be at Smyrna the following Sunday on September 1st. I couldn't have been kinder and more transparent and humble. He didn't bother to reply.

The next Sunday when I went back to church, his wife came over to shake my hand (which she hadn't done for 5 months), and as we shook hands she looked hard right 45 degrees off at the wall. I was sickened, not again,

I thought to myself. What are the chances of a pastor and then his wife both dissing me just one week apart? So, I emailed Pastor Bill Adams again to let him know what happened, reminding him that he never did answer my question, “Am I wanted at Smyrna.” I began my email with the word “Dear Pastor, Respectfully...” I also mentioned that he had hurt my feelings by not replying after I shared my broken life, divorce, bodily pain and I even gave him my address and phone number, but he ignored me. He didn’t respond.

So, I emailed him again, sending him the same email, to make sure he received it, but he never bothered to reply. I had mentioned in my last email that if I didn’t hear back, I would reasonably conclude that my feelings were correct all along that I am not wanted at Smyrna Baptist Church. The jerk never wrote back, which speaks volumes about Pastor Adams’ woeful lack of love, compassion or walk with God. This is the shameful condition of pastors today.

Pastor Bill Adams Lacks Love For Hurting People

Pastor Adams is a tough guy. BIG MAN! He [3]sued the city of Pensacola in 2012 for not allowing him to distribute religious literature where he wanted to downtown (and he won). I can’t blame him for suing the city to protect his right to free speech. But respectfully, Pastor Adams is harsh, a bully in my humble opinion, a selfish jerk, who woefully lacks God’s unconditional love and compassion for hurting people. He didn’t give a damn about me as a human being when I shared my broken life and health afflictions with him. That is a bad pastor! Pastor Adams has strength without beauty. He is tough but lacks gentleness. I was kind and honest with him, expressing my heartfelt feelings, for which he just threw me under the bus and blew me off, treating me like garbage. Shame on him as a pastor! He should be fired.

Why Smyrna Baptist Church Is Always 80 % Empty

By the way, that is why the church auditorium is always 80 % empty, because people don’t want to be in a hateful place where there is only superficial love. Oh sure, they have their 5 minutes of handshaking time (bullcrap, bullcrap, bullcrap) in each service, but without proper leadership that teaches church members by example to genuinely love one another, it won’t happen. I attended the church for over 4 months before any of the pastors bothered to come over and shake my hand, and it was Pastor Jamie (the youth pastor) who took the initiative to come over to make me feel welcomed. Pastor Jamie is the only one who cared. Pastor James in 7 months never once shook my hand, the guy has issues. We never met. That is messed up when you attend a church for 7 months and only one pastor makes you feel like he gives a damn that you came. Smyrna is a cold-hearted place!

I attended the church’s Memorial Day picnic in 2024. Pastor Adams sat in a chair under a tree and never bothered to greet me. I am the new guy, so why the hell am I obligated to make the pastor feel welcomed? Unreal. You couldn’t make this stuff up. I did enjoy the picnic, but I met some horrible people there. I kindly said “H three times to one of the female church members at the picnic, but she totally rudely ignored me.

Screw you too!,

I felt like saying, but I just stayed quiet.

Then I went in after the picnic by invitation to watch the religious film, “Redeeming Hope,” inside the church. I kindly asked the few ladies in the kitchen if I could “have something to drink, please, because my pain medications dehydrate me.” Pastor Adams’ snob for a wife rudely said with a sarcastic tone, “Why didn’t you get something to drink outside?” She is a real piece of work, in the worst way! What a spoiled brat! Mrs. Adams needs to learn some proper manners and respect for others, because she is a mean person. I felt like telling her to “G o to hell!,

but I stayed quite because I wanted to watch the movie.

I had hoped for some popcorn, but the selfish woman operating the machine only made some for herself and her personal friends, and I never got any popcorn. She never bothered to ask anybody if they wanted some. I’ve never seen such selfish people! They wouldn’t give me any water. I didn’t get any popcorn. What asswholes! These are church people, the PCC camp. I have said it many times, and it is completely true of Smyrna Baptist Church as well,

“The cult system always comes first, but individual people do not matter.” People just want to be loved.

Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) was so right...

> “You can’t love anybody, until you love everybody!” —Pastor Jack Hyles, “[4]The Test Of Spiritual Maturity”

In my humble opinion, Pastor Adams woefully lacks love for people. He knows how to play church, administrate a 501c3 non-profit business, be a bully, but he is incompetent as a pastor as far as I am concerned. When I attended the church’s Cake Auction, I was still new to the church, but he walked right by me without even acknowledging me as a human being. I actually took the initiative to greet him, for which he should be ashamed. I’m more of a pastor to him, than he is to me.

Again, Pastor Hyles said it best, I humbly think...

> “The pastors have destroyed the churches, and they’ve been trained by people that have never built churches, and they have no compassion.” —Pastor Jack Hyles, “[5]Many Pastors Have Destroyed My Vineyard”

I have seen so many horrible churches, because of incompetent leaders. Smyrna Baptist Church is a clone of PCC. In fact, Smyrna often has staff from PCC speak at their church. The PCC’s youth Bell Choir perform at Smyrna. Pastor Adam’s daughter attends PCC. The cult at PCC and Smyrna are closely connected. In my personal view, Smyrna is a cult, just like PCC.

In these institutions their leaders are very authoritarian. You are required to show absolutely allegiance to cult leadership, or else you are thrown under the bus, like I have been. I dared to point out Pastor Adam's mistreatment toward me, when I just needed his love and help as a hurting divorced man. He cannot handle correction, because of his stinking wicked pride. I sure could have used his friendship and love, but he didn't care about me one iota as a human being. Pastor Adams gets paid either way, so what the hell does he care? He doesn't!!!

That wicked imposter, Pastor Jeff Redlin, senior pastor at PCC's Campus Church did the same thing to me in 2021. I shared my broken trainwreck of a life, unwanted divorce, chronic pain and health afflictions, but he didn't say a damn word, because he didn't give a crap. When I asked him if I am welcome at PCC, Pastor Redlin totally ignored me. The jerk gets paid a 6-digit ridiculous salary.

Smyrna Baptist Church Is Wrong On The Gospel

Both Smyrna and PCC teach a counterfeit plan of salvation which requires being willing to turn from your sins to be saved. They erroneously think this is what Bible repentance means, but they are very WRONG. Bible repentance involves changing your mind about two things: 1) WHO YOU ARE, and 2) WHO JESUS IS. To get to Heaven, you must change your mind (repent) to admit that YOU ARE A SINNER, and that JESUS IS THE CHRIST (who died on a cross for your sins, was buried and resurrected from the dead three days later). If you TRUST in these facts (as your only way to have eternal life), then you are saved.

Now [6]look at what PCC foolishly teaches.

On page 62 of the "John & Romans" booklet that Campus Church at PCC distributed throughout Pensacola (including my mailbox), they tell the reader that to be saved you must make a mental check to agree to:

>

Oh My! Folks, this is NOT part of the Gospel which the Apostle Paul preached in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4...

> 1st Corinthians15:1-4, "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures: And that he was seen of Cephas, then of the twelve: After that, he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once; of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep."

There you have it! The "Gospel" is the "GOOD NEWS" that Jesus Christ DIED on a cross for our sins, He was BURIED and after three days He physically RESURRECTED from the dead. In Paul's Gospel (which Paul said he received directly from Jesus in Galatians 1:12), did you see anything that reads: "follow and obey God's will instead of your self-serving sins." No, that is not what Paul taught. So why is PCC and their Campus Church promoting this filth?

The only requirement to believe the Gospel is to know why you need to be saved. You need to know what you're being saved from. You are a guilty sinner, and so am I. No one has ever lived who didn't sin (Romans 3:10-23), except Jesus (Hebrews 4:15). He is the perfect sinless Lamb of God (John 1:29). The Bibles teaches and warns that the wages we earn from our sinning is death (Romans 5:12, 6:23). This includes a second death in Hell, fire and brimstone forever (Revelation 20:11-15; 21:8). If you admit by faith to God that you are a guilty sinner deserving of Hell, then that is all you need to know to believe the GOOD NEWS that Jesus Christ died on a cross to pay for your sins, was buried and three days later He bodily raised up from the dead for your justification. BELIEVE THE GOOD NEWS, oh sinner, and you are saved!

The booklet of "John & Romans" says inside the front cover that it was published by "Concerned Independent Baptist Churches" and is distributed by the First Baptist Church in Milford, Ohio. Shame on PCC for distributing this toxic poison to mislead people about how to get to Heaven. Smyrna Baptist Church preaches the same wrong view of repentance.

Smyrna also distributes toxic [7]Chick Tracks, which teach wrong repentance. [8]Jack Chick preached another gospel, not the free grace Gospel taught in the Scripture. Shame on Smyrna Baptist Church in Pensacola for pulling on the same rope as the Devil by wickedly bidding God-speed to Jack Chick, by handing out his hell-spawned poisonous Chick Tracks. RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!!

The entire PCC camp (which includes Smyrna Baptist Church and Fairfield Drive Baptist Church) are cold-hearted illegitimate Christians! Yes, the Bible calls them "bastards" (Hebrews 12:6-8). They are without chastisement from God, they don't care, and I doubt their salvation because they are wrong on repentance. You cannot reason with these people, because they have HUGE EGOS! God hates pride and arrogance and so do I. Proverbs 8:13, " The fear of the LORD is to hate evil: pride, and arrogancy, and the evil way, and the froward mouth, do I hate."

RUN from Pensacola Christian College and any corrupt church who wickedly bids them God-speed (2nd John 1:11). The United States is going to Hell because of apostate religious colleges and churches, cults, who pervert God's plan of salvation. So, it doesn't surprise me that unsaved religious people mistreat, shun, ostracize and throw hurting people under the bus. All I wanted was to have a church family, but they have no respect at PCC or Smyrna. God will deal with them in His own time. I love everyone and can only pray for them, for God to open their eyes and convict their wicked hearts. Thank you for reading my blog.

5.9.5 The Damnable False Gospel Of Pastor Jack Hibbs (2024-09-06 12:26)

Galatians 1:6-7, “I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed.”

Jack Hibbs is the senior and founding pastor of Calvary Chapel Chino Hills, based in Southern California, the Founder & President of Real Life ministry, and a nationally syndicated TV & Radio host. On his ministry website on the webpage titled, "[1]Yes - You Can Know God," Pastor Hibbs errantly states:

> “Becoming a Christian is not merely believing some creed or going to church. It is having Christ Himself take residence in your life and heart.” [2]SOURCE

Getting saved has nothing to do with Christ taking residence in your life. That is the heresy of Lordship Salvation, which has plagued today’s church, turning them into deadly cults.

Pastor Hibbs further heretically states:

> “The Bible tells us, “Repent of your sins and turn to God, so that your sins may be wiped away.” The word repent means to change our direction in life.” [3]SOURCE

No, the Bible does NOT tell us to repent “ of your sins

to be saved. I triple-dog dare you to show me anywhere in the inspired King James Bible, where it teaches to repent of your sins

or

to get to Heaven. Wicked men added those extra words to the Holy Bible (Proverbs 30:5-6).

Pastor Hibbs further heretically states:

>
> Receive Jesus Christ into your life.
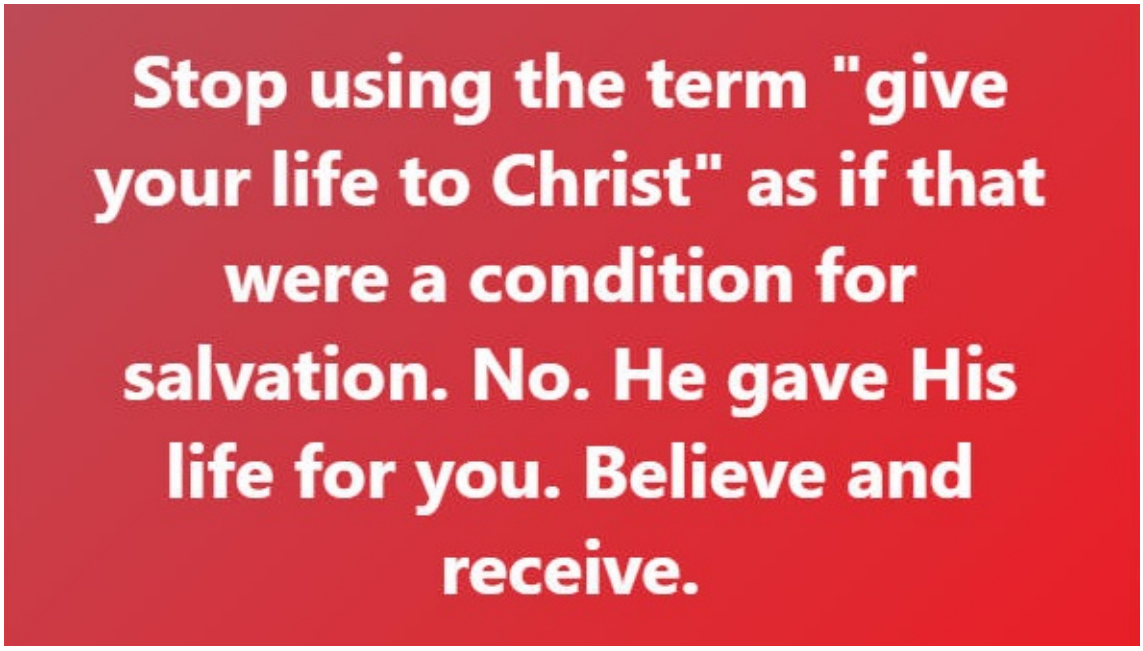
> ” [4]SOURCE

Again, nowhere does the Word of God require this action to be saved. You can invite Christ into your life and split Hell wide open when you die. Judas invited Jesus into his life, but he sadly went to Hell forever. The false prophets in Matthew 7:21-23 follow Jesus, even calling Him “Lord, Lord.” (There’s the false doctrine of Lordship Salvation exposed in the Bible.)

The Bible promises salvation to the person who simply BELIEVES ON JESUS. John 6:47, “ Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life. ” Don’t let any liar deceive you into thinking that you have to follow Christ as the Lord of your life to be saved.

Pastor Jack Hibbs requires the reader to pray a Sinner’s Prayer, but he doesn’t bother to tell anyone that you could simply BELIEVE without praying a prayer to get to Heaven. You DON’T have to ask, call or pray to be saved, God is already asking you to take His FREE GIFT of eternal life (Romans 5:15-18). It is not a sin to ask God to save you, but it is totally unnecessary to get to Heaven. Why would you ask someone to give you what they are already freely offering for you to take?



Pastor Hibbs further leads readers to repeat this corrupt prayer to be saved:

> "Dear Lord Jesus, I know I am a sinner. I believe You died for my sins. Right now, I turn from my sins and open the door of my heart and life. I confess You as my personal Lord and Savior. Thank You for saving me. Amen."" [5]SOURCE

First, he leaves out Jesus' burial and resurrection from the dead, which are a part of the Gospel (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Pastor Hibbs unbiblically requires you to turn from your sins to be saved. Let me tell you something friend, NO ONE has ever turned from their sins, Jesus came to die on a cross to pay our massive debt of sins. You're either saved and your sins have been washed away by the precious blood of Jesus (1st John 1:7), or else you're still trying to turn from your sins to get to Heaven and are headed straight for the eternal Lake of Fire when you die (John 10:1).

The counterfeit plan of salvation which Pastor Jack Hibbs is preaching is NOT the [6]simple plan of salvation which is taught in the inspired Word of God.

5.9.6 Lady Gaga's Satanic New Age Religion Of Self Worship (2024-09-08 22:25)

Daniel 11:37, "Neither shall he regard the God of his fathers, nor the desire of women, nor regard any god: for he shall magnify himself above all."

I watched an interesting 2-hour YouTube concert tonight by “ [1]Lady Gaga ” (real name:

Stefani Joanne Angelina Germanotta, born 1986)

in Tokyo, Japan. I love music as a musician. Although I would consider her public performances more of a perverse art form than I would actual music. Lady Gaga’s real Italian name is Stefani Joanne Angelina Germanotta (born 1936). I’ve been working on learning more songs on the banjo. I have a fascination with celebrity singers, actors and bands, as a biographical hobby. I love people, they fascinate me, particularly their religious beliefs. So, I looked up Lady Gaga’s religious beliefs and found this information on the popular website, Hollowverse ...

> Religion
> Lady Gaga was raised as a Catholic. But now she believes that god is one’s self. She’s a selfist. [2]SOURCE

That about sums it up as far as what she believes, she thinks SHE IS GOD! That is pathetic!

According to Lady Gaga, everybody is THEIR OWN GOD...

> It’s more self-worship, I think, not of me. I’m teaching people to worship themselves. [3][4]

Lady Gaga has a lot of influence with over 12 million followers on Twitter alone, and another 36 million Facebook fans.[4][5] She has so far sold over 40,000,000 albums, and has a staggering net worth of $150,000,000. She is 38 years old (born 1986).

When Lady Gaga speaks of her faith in “

God,

she is not talking about the righteous God of the inspired King James Bible; but rather, humans gods (i.e., humanism). She has plainly stated publicly that she worships her fans, because they are her

God.

” Please do not follow Lady Gaga’s distorted religious views, because you will end up burning in the Lake of Fire with her when this life is over.

Eddie Van Halen died in 2020. I sadly do not think he went to Heaven. Eddie was Roman Catholic. They trust in Sacramental Salvation, not the free grace Gospel taught in the inspired Word of God. Olivia Newton John died in 2022. She was another Catholic. Dear reader, my heart breaks for Catholics, because they have been deceived by Satan to think that salvation is found in the Catholic Church. But Jesus said, **“

Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God”

(John 3:1-7). The Bible teaches in 1st Timothy 2:5-6,

“For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus;

Who gave himself a ransom for all, to be testified in due time.

” The Virgin Mary is NOT a mediator. Neither can the Pope, priest or Lutheran minister forgive sin as a mediator between God and man. Jesus is the ONLY Mediator, as we just learned in 1st Timothy 2:5. Amen and amen!

Carefully notice in our text Scripture passage from Daniel 11:37 that the coming Antichrist will “magnify himself above all else.” That is, the Man of Sin will worship HIMSELF! This is the very religion of Stefani (aka, “Lady Gaga”).

Lady Gaga Is Serving The New World Order

As I was doing some research, I ran across the following disturbing writing by Alice Bailey (1880-1949), which prompted me to warn my web visitors about an increasing trend in American society and our churches to pursue spirituality without theology. That’s all we hear nowadays from Oprah Winfrey, Lady Gaga and umpteen new agers, who speak of spirituality while expressing disdain for organized religion and Christian fundamentalism. Lady Gaga is no exception! I think it is safe to say that Alice Bailey could be called the mother of new age today. According to Alice Bailey, this trend is ushering in the New World Order (NWO) faster than she thought possible. Listen to what this evil woman, devil in disguise and mega false prophetess says...

> “The new world religion is nearer than many think, and this is due to two things: first, the theological quarrels are mainly over non-essentials, and secondly, the younger generation is basically spiritual but quite uninterested in theology. The intelligent youth of all countries are rapidly repudiating orthodox theology, state ecclesiasticism and the control of the church. They are neither interested in man-made interpretations of truth nor in past quarrels between the major world religions.
> At the same time, they are profoundly interested in the spiritual values and are earnestly seeking verification of their deep-seated unvoiced recognitions. They look to no bible or system of so-called inspired spiritual knowledge and revelation, but their eyes are on the undefined larger wholes in which they seek to merge and lose themselves, such as the state, an ideology, or humanity itself. In this expression of the spirit of self-abnegation may be seen the appearance of the deepest truth of all religion and the justification of the Christian message.
> Christ, in His high place, cares not whether men accept the theological interpretations of scholars and churchmen, but He does care whether the keynote of His life of sacrifice and service is reproduced among men; it is immaterial to Him whether the emphasis laid upon the detail and the veracity of the Gospel story is recognised and accepted, for He is more interested that the search for truth and for subjective spiritual experience should persist; He knows that within each human heart is found that which responds instinctively to God, and that the hope of ultimate glory lies hid in the Christ-consciousness.

> Therefore, in the new world order, spirituality will supersede theology; living experience will take the place of theological acceptances. The spiritual realities will emerge with increasing clarity and the form aspect will recede into the background; the new emerging truths. These truths will be founded on the ancient realities but will be adapted to modern need and will manifest progressively the revelation of the divine nature and quality. God is now known as Intelligence and Love. That the past has given us. He must be known as Will and Purpose, and that the future will reveal." [emphasis added]
> SOURCE: Alice Bailey, [5]The Externalisation of the Hierarchy, pp. 201-202

Please don't miss this dear reader, because its impact is monumental! Alice Bailey was a devil. I don't know if you caught it in the preceding quote, but Miss Bailey teaches that Jesus doesn't care if people accept or reject the Gospel, just so long as they have what she terms, "the Christ-consciousness." She further states:

> "Christ, in His high place, cares not whether men accept the theological interpretations of scholars and churchmen, but He does care whether the keynote of His life of sacrifice and service is reproduced among men; it is immaterial to Him whether the emphasis laid upon the detail and the veracity of the Gospel story is recognised and accepted, for He is more interested that the search for truth and for subjective spiritual experience should persist; He knows that within each human heart is found that which responds instinctively to God, and that the hope of ultimate glory lies hid in the Christ-consciousness." [emphasis added]
> SOURCE: Alice Bailey, [6]The Externalisation of the Hierarchy, pp. 201-202 [[7]here is the full article that I wrote]

In other words, Alice Bailey is teaching people to reject everything that the Word of God teaches, except for Christ's life of sacrifice for others. In the shameful, satanic, world of Miss Bailey, Christianity is summed up and limited to living for others without being born-again. This is why we often hear new agers talking about Christ's love, helping others and forgiveness; but they reject Christ's preaching against sin (John 7:7), the need for the new second birth, His command to "SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES" (John 5:39b) and the Lord's teachings on everlasting Hell, fire and damnation for the unsaved (Matthew 18:8; 25:41). Effectively, new age retains the outer shell of Christianity, while hollowing out the interior and instead filling it with Luciferian doctrine. Or in other words, new age is repackaging Devil-worship in a Christian wrapper. The Bible warns us that this is how Satan normally operates...

> 2nd Corinthians 11:13-15, "For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ. And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works."

My Christian brethren and sisters, what I have just shared with you ought to compel you more than ever to do three things:

1. Support your local New Testament church*. You can learn all about the Church from Pastor Jack Hyles' awesome Scriptural Bible study titled, what else, "[8]THE CHURCH." Alice Bailey said that the NWO is happening faster than expected because today's youth are uninterested in orthodox theology (Bible fundamentals) and the Church. Again, as you just read, she states: "the younger generation is basically spiritual but quite uninterested in theology. The intelligent youth of all countries are rapidly repudiating orthodox theology, state ecclesiasticism and the control of the church. They are neither interested in man-made interpretations of truth nor in past quarrels between the major world religions." Isn't that terrible. Do you know why youth are no longer interested in the Church? It is because the Church is no longer interesting. [9]Pastors don't preach with authority anymore, because our churches have been infiltrated with corrupt authorityless Bible versions. The churches have lost their authority. We've been hearing a lot of talk lately from actors, singers, athletes and religious people, saying that they are "spiritual" but not religious. They are caught up into new age without even realizing it. This is why believers must support their local fundamental churches, who use only the King James Bible, go soul-winning, run bus routes, preach the simplicity that is in Christ and teach Biblical theology. Remember, [10]the Church is the pillar of truth, which is build upon the foundation of Jesus Christ (1st Corinthians 3:11). 1st Timothy 3:15, "But if I tarry long, that thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thyself in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth." Matthew 16:18, "And I say also unto thee, That thou art Peter (Greek: petros, pebble, a small piece of rock), and upon this rock (Greek: Petra, a mass of rock, a mountain) I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it." The foundation of new age is Lucifer and their pillars are manmade occult doctrine.

2. Preach and teach the great theological doctrines of the inspired Word of God in our churches*. It is alarming that so many churches these days are telling children's stories, singing songs, watching religious YouTube videos on large overhead projection screens, having Watchcare (cell block) Groups, enjoying special music and orchestras; but the doctrines of the Word of God are not taught, or barely taught. Every pastor and Christian worker ought to regularly teach the fundamental doctrines of the Christian faith; namely, the Godhead, Christ's deity, the inspiration and inerrancy of the Holy Scriptures, the blood applied in Heaven on the mercy seat, the virgin birth of Jesus, Christ's sinless life, the simplicity that is in Christ (the Gospel), Christ's imminent return (Rapture) and the Second Coming, Christ's vicarious (substitute in our place) death on the cross, the Lord's bodily resurrection, and all the Word of God.

3. Beware of spirituality creeping into the church without theology*. Theology is the study of God. Increasingly we are hearing America's most famous preachers give motivational speeches (like Joel Osteen and Steven Furtick), deliver political speeches (like Mike Huckabee), and teach religious psychology (like Pat Robertson and James Dobson). This is not biblical preaching! The great need of the hour is preaching preachers who preach nothing but the pure inspired Word of God. I agree with Pastor Lester Roloff that our Bible colleges ought to require preacher boys to memorize one full chapter of the Holy Bible each month. [11]Our churches have lost their authority because our preachers don't abide in the inspired King James Bible anymore . Jesus said concerning the human heart of man, "for of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaketh" (Luke 6:45). Most preachers merely surf the internet, read blogs, listen to liberal heretics like MacArthur and it shows in their lame authorityless sermonettes on Sunday. We've got to get into the Word of God if we are to preach with authority, because the Word of God is authoritative. Acts 4:13, "Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they > were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus." These days our church pulpits are filled with all kinds of substitutes for Biblical theology. Beware of teachings of spiritually that are empty of the Scriptures, and talk of bettering human nature without the need for the new birth by faith in the Gospel (good news) of the Lord Jesus Christ. Religious humanism and new age go hand-in-hand. Any spirituality without the Holy Bible is satanic. "Ye must be born again" (John 3:5-7).

God deliver our churches from the curse of Joel Osteen's motivational messages, Rick Warren's Purpose Driven Life ecumenical garbage that eviscerates the old-time religion, Billy Graham's Catholic-embracing ecumenical nightmare, John MacArthur's false plan of Lordship Salvation and his error that Jesus' blood is not applied to the heavenly Mercy Seat, and so forth! Our churches are in trouble.

Remember that [12]Helena Blavatsky said occultists would infiltrate the churches . The founder of "Lucifer" Magazine in 1887, Helena Petrovna Blavatsky (1831-1891), and editor Annie Besant (1847-1933), along with other occultists believed that Christian churches were the key to introducing the doctrines of Lucifer to large masses of people. The 1904 annual report of the Theosophical Society stated:

> "I believe it is through the Churches and not through the Theosophical Society that Theosophy [the worship of Lucifer]... must and should come to large bodies of people in the West."
> SOURCE: Transactions of the Theosophical Society, H. P. Blavatsky, Annie Besant, 1904, p. 377

Wow, did you get that? Miss Bailey said the Luciferian ideologies of Theosophy (Lucifer worship) would be introduced to the west (America) through THE CHURCHES. We are seeing this firsthand in today's mega-churches like Hillsong, Elevation Church (Steven Furtick), Lakewood Church (Joel Osteen), et cetera. In these so-called churches Bible theology is no longer taught; but rather, self improvement seminar type messages. It is apostasy!

Christianity Is Under Relentless Attack In 2024

Increasingly, we are seeing ungodly hostility build in society against Bible-believing Christians who fear God and rightfully strongly oppose the LGBTQ agenda. It is not uncommon these days to hear celebrities blaming the Bible and fundamental churches, who preach and uphold biblical standards. Christians are unfairly blamed for suicides, hate crimes and bullying. Read what Lady Gaga foolishly says:

> The influence of institutionalized religion on government is vast. So religion then begins to affect social values and that in turn affects self-esteem, bullying in school, teen suicides, all those things.[13][2]

Such ungodly liberal minded heathens are literally claiming that enforcing moral standards in schools, government and society causes suicides, bullying and depression. That is absurd! So should adultery be legalized? How about pedophilia? Stealing? Shoplifting has practically been legalized in insane cities like Los Angeles, Seattle and New York. Who decides where to set the moral standard? Should homosexuals be allowed to grope, fondle and kiss in front of children in public?

We hear so much about women's rights, but what about human rights? Doesn't a living child in its mother's womb have any rights? Any women who demands the legal "right" to murder her own child is a monster! Folks, there would be no controversies if we simply obeyed the inspired Holy Bible. God hasn't changed, society has! As recently as 1962, homosexuality was a punishable crime in all 50 states, as it rightfully should be. Sodomy is perverse, disgusting and extremely unhealthy. God's curse is upon a sinful nation. Proverbs 14:34, "Righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach to any people."

If the Lord tarries His return, the time will come in America when Bible-believing Christians will be persecuted and prosecuted for opposing the LGBTQ agenda. It is already happening across the country. Only one view is allowed today in society, and it's not the biblical view. Corporations and social media companies are relentlessly pushing the LGBTQ agenda, censoring anybody who speak out against it.

I mentioned in a post today in Facebook that "

American women have become toxic, and a warning notification came up, accusing me of hate speech.

Facebook is of the Devil! This is really bad folks when big tech companies have become the thought police! Prolific author George Orwell (1903-1950) predicted this type of Godless Totalitarian Police State, in his dystopian novel titled, 1984

. George Orwell suggest that to get a glimpse of the future, that the reader should picture the government's boot pressing down upon our neck. So true!

The United States is already well on its way as a socialist nation to becoming totally communist. Gun confiscation is coming, you know it! With an average of over 600 mass shootings each year across the United States, the tired American people will gladly accept a total ban on gun sales, trades and purchases. The day we allow this injustice will be the nails in our coffin as a free country! Canada has already passed such a tyrannical law in October of 2022. The last thing the American people want is for only the government to have all the guns!

[14]Look what happened in 1936 Spain when guns were taken away from the people. They were defenseless and slaughtered! The problem in the United States is not guns, it is our toxic culture of violence on television, violence in video games, violence in music, et cetera. Do you really think it is merely a coincidence that transgendered perversion is being forced on children today? Not a chance. The Devil is alive and well. [15]Look at this perverted Taylor Swift video, and then tell me honestly that Satanists don't control the music industry. You cannot if you are an honest concerned parent.

I do not hate Lady Gaga. I do not hate any living creature. God is love and I love everyone. I love LGBTQ people, for whom Jesus Christ died on a cross to pay for their sins. People need the Lord! But I am compelled to warn you about wolves in sheep's clothing like Lady Gaga, because she often speaks of God, uses Christian symbols in her concerts, and professes to be a very religious person. Unfortunately, her deadly false religion is Luciferian New Age! Let me remind you of what Lady Gaga said earlier:

> It's more self-worship, I think, not of me. I'm teaching people to worship themselves. [16][4]

Exodus 34:14, " For thou shalt worship no other god: for the LORD, whose name is Jealous, is a jealous God..." It is the sin of idolatry to worship one's self. In her Tokyo concert that I watched tonight, I heard Lady Gaga tell her 36,000 fans in the audience to obeis me!

" (worship her). Lady Gaga's self worship and religion of SELF is of the Devil. Certainly there is nothing wrong with having healthy self-esteem, but not self-adoration. Lady Gaga sadly is NOT saved. She is a child of the Devil (John 8:44).

Miss Gaga has said much to condemn organized religion, which unfortunately includes a rejection of Jesus Christ and the written Holy Bible (John 3:36; 1st John 2:22-23).

5.9.7 The Tragic Sad Unsaved Ending Of James Earl Jones (2024-09-09 22:44)

There was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews: The same came to Jesus by night, and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him. Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.”

I was so sad to hear in the news yesterday that James Earl Jones (1931-2024) died at age 93. I am sad because [1]he was a devout Roman Catholic, and Catholics do not follow the Holy Bible, they follow manmade tradition. Listen to what Jesus said about false religion in Mark 7:9 and 13, “And he said unto them, Full well ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition. ... Making the word of God of none effect through your tradition, which ye have delivered: and many such like things do ye.” Catholicism is a prisonhouse of religion!

James Earl Jones was a good man, as far as sinful men go, and we’re all sinners. Jones said the greatest honor of his life was reading the King James Bible for everyone to hear, similar to what Alexander Scourby also did. There is no doubt that James loved God, so he thought, but loving God is not enough to get to Heaven you must be BORN AGAIN through faith alone in Jesus Christ.

The Satanic Counterfeit Salvation Of Roman Catholics

In a heretical article by Jimmy Akin at Catholic.com, he horribly teaches in his article: “How To Go To Heaven”

“

> I can summarize it in two sentences. The two sentences are these: To come to God and be saved, you need to repent, have faith and be baptized. If you commit mortal sin, you need to repent, have faith and go to confession. That's it. That's all there is to it, and we can show each of these things from the Bible. ...if you do these things, you'll be in a state of grace; and as long as you remain in a state of grace, you'll go to Heaven. But we still have free will, and we can still turn our backs on God and fall from grace.
> " [2]SOURCE ([3]listen to James Akin's audio plan of salvation)

What a dirty theological liar! Kindly said, James Akin is NOT saved. He knows enough about the inspired Holy Bible to be dangerous! Mr. Akin cites 1st Peter 3:21 as alleged " that you must be water baptized to go to Heaven. But that is untrue. Let's look at the passage, shall we...

> 1st Peter 3:20-22, "
>
> Which sometime were disobedient, when once the longsuffering of God waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was a preparing, wherein few, that is, eight souls were saved by water.
>
> The like figure whereunto even baptism doth also now save us (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience toward God,) by the resurrection of Jesus Christ:
>
> Who is gone into heaven, and is on the right hand of God; angels and authorities and powers being made subject unto him.
>
> **"

Akin just quotes the phrase

"baptism doth also now save us," to deceive you. He doesn't include the rest of the verse. He ignores the surrounding context entirely, which is bad Bible interpretation.

Pastor Brad Strand gives the correct interpretation in his excellent The Strand Study Bible on page 2109...

> Sadly, there are some religious movements that have tried to use this Scripture to prove that baptism (saved by water) is essential to salvation and thus part of the saving Gospel. It is not (Mk 16:16). Noah and his family were not saved by getting "into" the water, but by staying "out" of the water. The ark (i.e., a type of Christ) is what saved Noah and his family, not the water. According to verse 21, baptism is nothing more than a "like figure" (i.e., a symbol of illustration) of spiritual cleansing. Baptism is simply an outward and visible declaration of an inward change , i.e., the public evidence of a penitent spirit (Rom 6:4-5). Only the Gospel saves (Rom 1:16 and 1 Cor 1:17).

Amen and amen! I couldn't have said it any better dear reader. James Akin is a FALSE PROPHET!!! Beware of this infidel of the faith, he is not saved at all. I showed you this corrupt man and his popular Catholic website to help you to see why I DO NOT think James Earl Jones went to Heaven. What I just showed you is typical Catholic teaching. There are over 1,000,000,000 Roman Catholics on the planet, and none of them are going to Heaven, if they are trusting in the garbage that I just shared with you from James Akin's toxic religious website.

In fact, biblically you DON'T have to repent of your sins to go to Heaven. Jesus died on a cross to pay for your sins. You just need to receive Jesus\ sacrifice as payment, by resting (relying completely) in what He did to redeem you through Calvary's cross. You DON'T need to go to some stupid Catholic confessional booth. Those wicked priests are sinners just like you and me, so they cannot forgive anyone's sins, not even their own.

Dear friend, Jesus has already paid for your sins with His precious blood (1st Peter 1:18-19). So, you don't need to repent of your sins to be forgiven; but rather, you need to receive Christ's sacrifice on the cross as FULL PAYMENT for your sins. God is already freely offering you the gift of eternal life, if you'll just accept it by taking Him at His Word in the Scripture.

The True Saving Gospel Of Free Grace

Now here is what the inspired King James Bible really teaches how to go to Heaven...

> 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, "
>
> Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the
>
> gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand;
>
> By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain.
>
> For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures;
>
> And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:
>

The Gospel (which means GOOD NEWS) is:

1. Jesus DIED on a cross for our sins.
2. He was BURIED.
3. Christ RESURRECTED three days later from the dead.

Those are the FACTS that you must know and trust in to get to Heaven when you die someday. The only other thing you need to know is that you are a guilty SINNER in God's sight (Romans 3:19-20). You need to know what you're being saved from, Hell. And why you need to be saved, because you deserve to burn in Hell for your sins (and so do I). But Jesus paid the ransom (Matthew 10:28). 1st Timothy 2:5-6, "

For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus; Who gave himself a ransom for all, to be testified in due time." Jesus died as a ransom for ALL! That refutes the Calvinist heresy of Limited Atonement, which falsely claims that Christ only died for saved people.

Anyone who comes to god as a sinner, and by childlike faith (reliance, trust) receives Christ's sacrifice on the cross as full payment for their sins, believing that He was buried but is risen from the dead, is saved. 1st Thessalonians 4:14, "For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him." It's that simple.

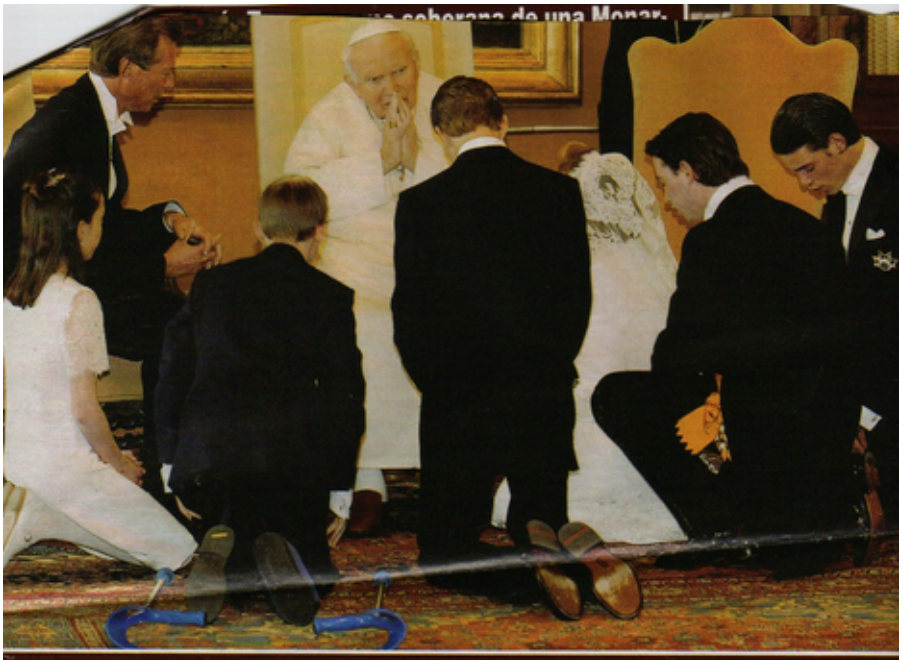
This is a VERY different plan of salvation that what I shared with you earlier by James Akin, in which he requires you to go to the Catholic confessional booth, to confess your darkest and dirtiest sins to some pervert priest who wears a dress.

James Akin earlier also mention that to go to Heaven you must REMAIN in a state of grace. He errantly teaches that Galatians 5:4 means you can lose salvation. Dear reader, you CANNOY lose God's free gift of eternal life once you have it. ONCE SAVED, ALWAYS SAVED (OSAS) is 100 % biblical. James is horribly in error to teach that you can fall out of grace. A redeemed believer falls "in grace" (Romans 6:1), but never "from grace." The only person who can fall from grace is an unsaved person who is trying to do works to get to Heaven, like James Akin is doing. James has indeed fallen from God's grace. That is, he has never been saved at all, and won't be until he repents (changes his mind) to forsake his religious "DEAD WORKS" (Hebrews 6:1), to REST in Jesus Christ alone (Hebrews 4:10-11).

James Early Jones Very Likely DIDN'T Go To Heaven



I realize that many people get upset when I say things like this, but I care about you friend, and I don't want anyone to die in the sins and spend eternity suffering in Hell. James Earl Jones was a devout Catholic. You can verify that easily by doing a quick web search. There is no salvation in the seven sacraments of Catholicism. Sacramental Salvation is NOT God's simple plan of salvation, which I just showed you from 1st Corinthians 15:1-4. The Apostle Paul said he received this Gospel directly from Jesus Christ Himself (Galatians 1:12).

Oh how foolish are the masses of this world, to follow some foolish manmade religious cult. I could spend hours showing you how phony, unscriptural and rotten Catholicism is. For example: The [4]Vatican removed the second of God's Ten Commandments, which forbids bowing down to graven images and idols. Gee, I wonder why Catholics would change the Bible to remove the Second Commandment...

Catholics Commit The Horrible Sin Of IDOLATRY!

The old adage is very true: A picture is worth a thousand words!

Now you can see exactly why Catholics have removed the Second Commandment from the Holy Bible, to deceive their followers. Dear friend, please don't follow the Roman or Russian Orthodox Catholic religions into the fires of Hell. Although these two factions of Catholicism are headquartered in different countries, and have different leaders, they share 95 % of the SAME damnable heresies and idolatrous practices. These are PRISONHOUSES OF RELIGION!

John 3:3, "Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God."

James Akin didn't say anything about being born again. He just said you need to get water baptized, go to the confessional booth, remain in a state of grace, and have faith. Faith in what? The Catholic Pope? The Catholic church? The confessional booth? The seven sacraments? What saith the Scripture? Galatians 3:26 , " For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. " Philippians 3:9-11,"And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:

That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death;

If by any means I might attain unto the resurrection of the dead."

James Akin didn't even mention Jesus! He tells you to go confess your sins to a Catholic priest. He tells you to go get dunked in a baptistery. But the fool never mentions Jesus the sinless Lamb of God (John 1:29), the risen Christ (John 20:31), the precious only begotten Son of God (John 3:16).

Unless James Earl Jones secretly trusted Christ and REJECTED the manmade teachings of his Catholic faith, he didn't make it to Heaven. The inspired Word of God is very clear in this matter, that you MUST be " born again.

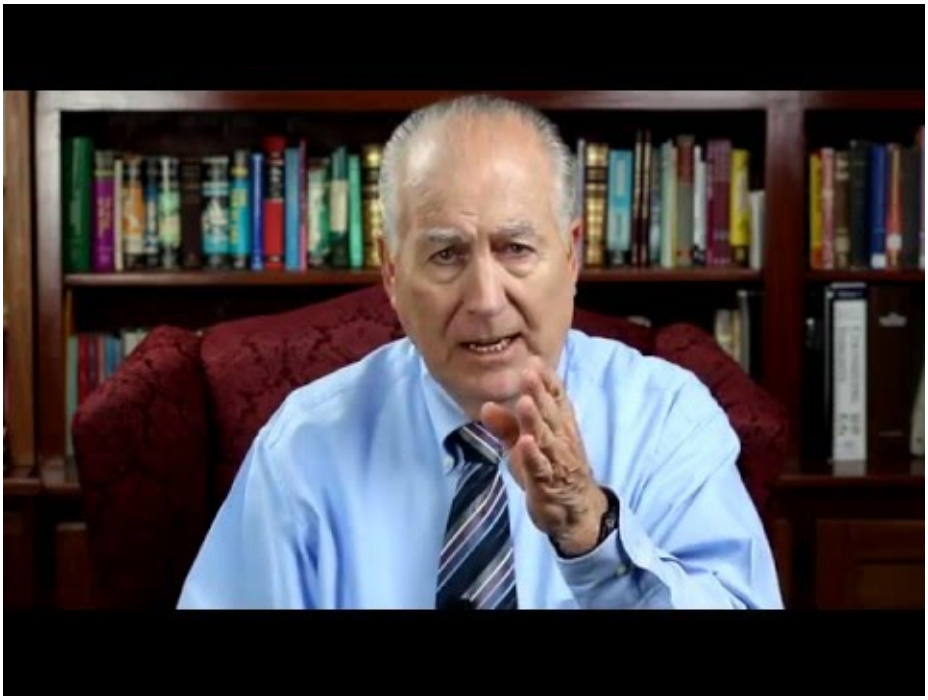
" Dear reader, you DON'T have to repent of your sins to go to Heaven, you need to repent (change your mind) to acknowledge THE TRUTH (2nd Timothy 2:25). The truth is that you are a SINNER (and so am I), and Jesus is the SAVIOR. Religion cannot save you. Getting water baptized no more makes you a Christian, than walking into a garage would make you an automobile! Noah and his family were saved by the ark, not the water. God sealed the door on the ark (Genesis 7:16).

God knows that I am not trying to upset anybody by saying that I don't think James Earl Jones went to Heaven. I believe he sadly went to the Lake of Fire forever. The fact that Mr. Jones boasted of being a lifelong devout Catholic tells me that he never trusted Christ for his salvation, he trusted in the false doctrines and dead rituals of the accursed Catholic church.

Catholics call their priests "Father" when the Bible strictly forbids reverencing men (Matthew 23:9). Catholics forbid marriage for priests, and eating meats on Fridays, which the Bible exposes as false religion (1st Timothy 4:1-3). Catholics teach the Perpetual Virginity of Mary heresy, but the Bible plainly says that Mary bear at least 2 daughters and 4 sons (Matthew 13:55-56). Joseph was their biological father; but God almighty alone was Jesus' biological father (Matthew 1:23; John 3:16). Joseph raised Him as his Dad. These are but just a few of the contradictions which are prevalent in Roman Catholicism; totally contrary to the Holy Bible.



Is it possible that James Earl Jones repented of his false religion on his death bed? Sure, anything is possible, but I sincerely doubt it. When you've been brainwashed your entire life by a wicked false religion for over 70 years, you don't just come to your waking senses in a moment at age 93. It is astronomically rare. I hope he did go to Heaven, but from everything I have ever learned about the inspired Holy Bible (as a born again child of God myself since age 13), I humbly don't think James Earl Jones went to Heaven.

> "Nothing in my future can ever affect the salvation that I have... Once you trust the Lord Jesus Christ as your Savior, you are eternally secure!" —Pastor Hank Lindstrom (1940-2008), a quote from the classic MP3 sermon titled, "[9]How Permanent Is Your Salvation?"

> "Salvation is based upon purely what Jesus Christ has done. And if you've trusted Jesus Christ here, you're saved forever! Nothing in your life, nothing in your death, angels, principalities, nothing—nothing in your future—could ever undo that relationship that has been made when you trusted Jesus Christ as Savior. And there are many people who are confused over this whole thing." —Pastor Hank Lindstrom (1940-2008), a quote from the classic MP3 sermon titled, "[10]How Permanent Is Your Salvation?"

> "There are many people who name the name of Jesus Christ, who are not saved, because they're trusting in living the Christian life, or in their works, or in some efforts that they're doing, in order to obtain their salvation." —Pastor Hank Lindstrom (1940-2008), a quote from the classic MP3 sermon titled, "[11]How Permanent Is Your Salvation?"

Kindly said, I also don't think Eddie Van Halen (1955-2020), another Roman Catholic all his miserable wicked life, went to Heaven. Olivia Newton John (1948-2022) was also a devout Catholic. She didn't shy away from telling the world that she was a Christian, but sadly just claiming to be a Christian doesn't make you one. YE MUST BE BORN AGAIN!!! Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born again.

5.9.8 Eric Skwarczynski's Allusive "Transforming Power Of The Gospel" (2024-09-10 04:35)

1st John 2:19, "They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us: but they went out, that they might be made manifest that they were not all of us."

A guy named Eric Skwarczynski is one of the most hateful enemies of Bible Christianity today. This is the self-professed "agnostic" monster who runs the evil "[1]Preacher Boys Podcast," accusing the brethren in a malicious effort to kill, steal and destroy churches (John 10:10; Revelation 12:10). Eric is an alumni of Pastor Jack Trieber's Westcoast Baptist Bible College in California. Eric is very bitter against God, now a despicable preacher for Satan. His toxic rants have been featured on HBO, Peacock, CBC and other ungodly media outlets, slandering the saints for profit. Eric is making a ton of money ruining lives. Woe unto this wicked fool in eternity!

In the following video Eric explains why he has turned away from his former profession of Christian faith, to instead becoming an agnostic who exposes and condemns Independent Fundamental Baptist (IFB) believers. What Eric is doing is truly shameful, further destroying lives by spreading manure to make money. The heathen world loves him! ...

Why I Am No Longer a Christian | Eric Skwarczynski

In the preceding video Eric says that when he saw that the "transforming power of the Gospel" was missing in the lives of professed Christians, he lost his faith. But dear reader, you cannot show me anywhere in the Holy Bible where the Gospel itself was ever intended to TRANSFORM your behavior. You cannot show me the term transforming power of the Gospel

” in the inspired Holy Bible.

What saith the Scripture? Romans 12:2, “And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.” This verse applies to believers, not the unsaved. The Gospel doesn’t change you! Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) preached a helpful sermon titled, ’[2]YOUR SALVATION DID NOT CHANGE YOU A BIT.’ As Dr. Hyles rightly explains, when you get saved hands of OWNERSHIP change. You have gone from being a child of the Devil to a child of God, but now your life needs to be RENOVATED by the local church. This is where churches have dropped the ball for God. [3]Pastors are to blame for not preaching the Word!

The so-called “Preacher Boy’s” podcast is toxic. Sadly, Eric is making money asking for PayPal donations on YouTube for his hateful rhetoric and slander against God’s saints. Revelation 12:10,

“ And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night.” Satan is the accuser of THE BRETHREN. The Devil doesn’t accuse THE WORLD, he accuses THE BRETHREN. You’re never more like the Devil than when you accuse Christians. Eric is using the fall of Christians to further his evil agenda to tear down God’s imperfect children.

Having said that, even the best saint is still a horrible sinner. Psalms 130:3, “ If thou, LORD, shouldest mark iniquities, O Lord, who shall stand? ” 1st Timothy 5:24, “

Some men’s sins are open beforehand, going before to judgment; and some men they follow after.

” Eric

Skwarczynski is as much a guilty sinner and Pharisaical hypocrite as the saints whom he condemns!!! There are no perfect churches. There are no perfect pastors. The Bible is full of true stories of sinful saints who messed up. Cain killed Abel.

Noah got drunk.

Abraham and Sarah doubted God. Lot was a righteous man who got drunk and impregnanted two of his daughters. Samson chased unholy skirts all his life. Saul consulted with the Witch of Endor. David was an adulterer and murderer. Solomon was a sex pervert. The Bible says God gave us these biographies to give us comfort and patience in our faith, that we might have hope. Romans 15:4b, “ For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope.

” Yet, Eric foolishly says he has abandoned faith in Jesus, because of the hypocrisy and wickedness he has beheld in professed Christians over time. What Eric fails to realize is that he is just as wicked and hypocritical as the saints that he attacks (Matthew 7:1-5).

Dear reader, there are an estimated 6,500 Independent Fundamental Baptist Churches across the United States today! What critics like Eric are doing is foolishly focusing on the small faction of church leaders who have gone into open sin, who have blown their testimony for Jesus Christ, who have hurt people and failed as leaders to honor the Lord. This is not some new phenomena in these modern times! Read what the psalmist said in

Help, LORD; for the godly man ceaseth; for the faithful fail from among the children of men.

” Sinful human nature hasn’t changed in thousands of years! Jesus told us in John 15:19 that the world would receive their own, but hate Christians. They really hate Jesus (John 7:7).

Kindly said, Eric Skwarczynski is foolish to blame the Gospel for the failure of God’s children. In the preceding transparent video, he says the reason why he’s abandoned his Christian faith is because he has become frustrated with church people who have gone into woeful sin. He has personally been hurt by church people (I have too). Eric is tired and at the end of his rope with the hypocrisy, abuse and woeful lack of love that he sees in churches today. I have to say that I agree with him largely on this point. The churches are pathetic today.

When I moved from the island of Guam to Pensacola in 2021, I chose to attend Pensacola Christian College’s (PCC) Campus Church. [4]I learned quickly that their senior pastor is a cold-hearted ungodly religious snob. These [5]horrible religious people have no idea how ungodly and far from the Lord they really are. I left in disgust and wounded, after being horribly mis-treated and insulted by their hateful pastor, Jeff Redlin. The problem is that they only see what they want to see at PCC, so they are blind, which is exactly what Jesus called the Laodicean church in Revelation 3:17. PCC are “blind to their own spiritual nakedness, failing to see that they are miserable, wretched and poor. Instead, [6]they are arrogant, high-minded and have huge egos at PCC. I speak this to their utter shame! So, I fully understand Eric’s absolute disgust toward problematic fundamentalists today, and I share his disgust.

The only reason why I haven’t turned agnostic like Eric is because I properly understand the Gospel. There is no alleged “transforming power of the Gospel.” Pacific Garden Mission’s ’[7]UNSHACKLED’ radio program is guilty of promoting that utter heresy, saying that getting saved will automatically rid your life of chemical addictions, sinful lusts and lifelong bad habits. It’s simple NOT true folks! Getting saved didn’t change you one iota! If you are addicted to drugs (including the narcotic drug booze), you will need medical intervention to break free from your chemical addition. Getting saved doesn’t change your life, it changes your destination.

Coming to Christ to receive God’s free gift of eternal life rescues you from the wrath of God in Hell, but you are still the same old rotten you! Now that you’re saved, your life needs to be transformed (renewed by the inspired Word of God). 1st Peter 2:2-3, “As newborn babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby: If so be ye have tasted that the Lord is gracious.” Tragically, Eric Skwarczynski is another victim of Lordship Salvation, having been woefully lied to by corrupt pastors and churches, taught that getting saved should radically change a person’s life, which it simply doesn’t.

As [8]Pastor Loran Livingston rightly says, pastors are to blame today for not preaching the inspired Word of truth. Preachers have dropped the ball for God, far more interested in making money than they are preaching the truth to help people. The reason why millions of professed Christians are living woeful lives of sin and shame is because preachers don’t preach anymore! Listen to Brother Lester Roloff (1914-1982) preach this needful sermon titled, ’[9]RUNNING SHORT ON AUTHORITY!’ Pastors no longer preach upon the authority of God’s inspired Word. When men usurp authority in a church, you now have a cult! Many IFB churches today are cults!!! The ONLY authority in any church should be the inspired King James Bible.

Pastors are no longer preachers! Sadly, 99 % of pastors today cannot preach their way out of a wet paperbag. The clergy have lost their power with God. There is a woeful lack of love and compassion in today's awful Bible colleges and churches. I am convinced that all Bible colleges do today is neuter the pastors of tomorrow. We're in trouble folks! As much as churches despise Eric Skwarczynski, he is merely holding up a mirror to the churches, to show us how bad we really have become in the United States.

Please don't get me wrong, I am totally against what Eric is sinfully doing, slandering God's children. However, there is much truth to his accusations. Christians at best are still rotten hell-deserving sinners! I've said it often, that the only thing which makes the most upright saint any more righteous, than the vilest criminal who ever walked the face of the earth, is the precious blood of Jesus that washed away all our sins the moment we were born again (1st John 1:7; 1st Corinthians 6:11; Revelation 1:5).

In closing, there is no allusive " transformative power of the Gospel.

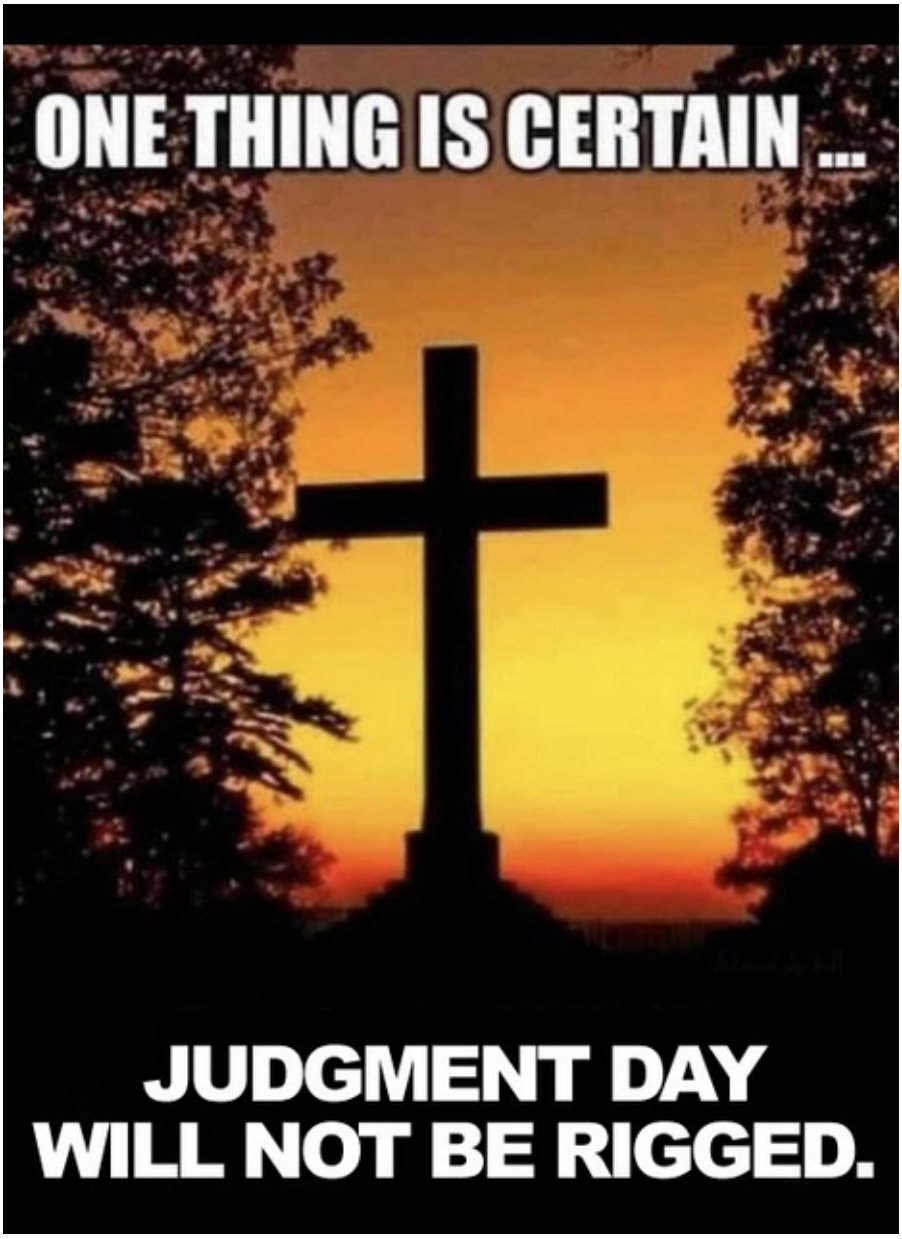
So, get that out of your mind. Just because you have received God's free gift of eternal life, which is by faith alone in Jesus Christ (Galatians 3:26), doesn't mean now that your behavior will somehow drastically improve. You simply took God at His Word to trust on His only begotten Son, the Christ. But now you need to grow in the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ (2nd Peter 3:18), and this requires abiding in the Word (1st Peter 2:2), and attending church to hear preaching (Titus 1:3). Preaching helps us think right to live right!



Dear friend, we must always keep SERVICE separate from SALVATION. Eric is confused between the two, caught between grace and works. Since he doesn't see any SERVICE in professed saints today, he is doubting their SALVATION. He has turned agnostic, failing to understand that salvation doesn't produce a changed life; it simply opens the door of spiritual enlightenment, equipping the believer with the indwelling Holy Spirit (1st John 3:24; 1st Corinthians 2:14-16; 2nd Corinthians 5:17). The local church has the responsibility to mentor new believers,

Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you

" (Matthew 28:2-b). It is because local churches have not obeyed The Great Commission that professed Christians are in such a mess today, and not because the Gospel has failed to transform their lives as Eric alleges.

Eric Skwarczynski's tragic path of destruction is just further evidence of the dangers of Lordship Salvation, misleading people about the Gospel.

5.9.9 My Ministry Friend, Pastor David Baker, Has Commit Suicide (2024-09-11 20:42)

Psalms 116:15, “Precious in the sight of the LORD is the death of his saints.”

It was [1]reported in the news today (September 11, 2024) that my ministry friend, Pastor David Baker, in Columbia, Tennessee, [2]killed himself. This is so tragic. Brother Baker walked into a local hospital, went into the men’s restroom, and then shot himself twice in the chest with a handgun. A hospital trauma team tried to save his life, but they couldn’t. I was shocked when a friend sent me an email to let me know about this tragedy. If there was one man on the planet that I never thought would do something like this, it was Brother Baker. This is a good man! For 28 years Pastor Baker ministered as chaplain to inmates at the local jail. Pastor Baker is survived by his beloved wife and 10 adult children, who are all faithfully serving God in the ministry today. I love Pastor Baker and am absolutely heartbroken!

Pastor Baker has been accused of a horrible crime, charged by the local court one day before he took his own life. We must remember that allegations are not proof of guilt. And just because he took his life is not an admission of guilt. We don’t know all the details, or why he took his own life, and quite frankly I don’t want to know. The wicked haters and ungodly critiques of God’s children are already having a heyday, salivating over the negative news, sharpening their sharp bear claws to devour Independent Fundamental Baptist Churches.

Dear reader, don’t jump on the bandwagon of unjust fools who ass-u-me that everything they read is 100 % true. Pastor Baker died an INNOCENT MAN. Until an individual is found guilty in a proper court of law, he is still legally deemed INNOCENT. To assume and assign guilt to someone who has merely been accused of wrongdoing is beyond evil. We can only speculate as to why he took his own life. He likely was overwhelmed with life’s burdens, and had endured enough of this horrible world (1st John 5:19). I know that I would love to go home to be with Jesus, my God and Savior.

The Apostle Paul felt the same way, who exclaimed in Philippians 1:21, “ For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain. ” 2nd Corinthians 5:8, “ We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.” A disgruntled unbeliever once pointed a gun at Evangelist John R. Rice (1895-1980) and threatened to pull the trigger. Brother Rice kindly said to the man:

“Fella, you can’t scare me with Heaven!” It takes genuine faith in God to have that kind of resilience in the face of imminent danger. Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do.

Yes, The Sin Of Suicide Can Be Forgiven

The Roman Catholic church has a heretical teaching of venial versus mortal sins. Venial sins can be forgiven without confession, but serious sins like adultery and murder require confession to a Catholic priest who can absolve your sins. This is what Catholics teach and it is totally contrary to inspired Scripture. The inspired Word of God doesn’t make any distinction between different types of sins. James 2:10 says that committing even ONE SIN is enough to send us to Hell forever, making us guilty of breaking ALL of God’s Commandments.

Only God can forgive sin. The Bible is very clear in 1st Timothy 2:5-6, “For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus; Who gave himself a ransom for all, to be testified in due time.” The Catholic priest or Lutheran minister CANNOT forgive your sins. The Pope is the Vicar of Hell on earth, not of Heaven on earth. Catholics are foolishly taught that when the Pope speaks, he speaks "Ex Cathedra" (the voice of God). In truth, when the Pope speaks, he is just a sinful man full of hot air! Only the nail-scared Lamb of God can forgive your sins (John 1:29).

Dear friend, the moment you were saved (i.e., born again into God's family), ALL of your sins (past, present and future) were washed away forever. Your POSITION in Christ was permanently settled. This is why we love to sing the popular church hymn, "

The Old Account Was Settled Long Ago

"...

> There was a time, I know,
> When in the book of Heaven,
> An old account was standing
> For sins yet unforgiven;
> My name was at the top
> And many things below,
> I went unto the Keeper,
> And settled long ago.
>
> Refrain:
> Long ago, long ago,
> Yes, the old account was settled long ago;
> And the record's clear today,
> For He washed my sins away,
> When the old account was settled long ago.

I love that song! When Pastor Baker was saved decades ago, all of his sins were forever washed away, included taking his own life, so that he had eternal life from the moment he trusted Jesus. Eternal life and eternal security are NOT separate doctrines, they are one and the SAME teaching in the inspired Holy Bible.

Everything's Alright In My Father's House

Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) used to often [3]sing this comforting song at Hyles-Anderson College and First Baptist Church of Hammond. Brother Hyles knew that people worry by nature. He understood that we all carry burdens, some very heavy burdens. I've had my share of difficult burdens to bear. There have been dark times in my life when I despaired even of life like the Apostle Paul did in Asia. People want to be loved. As a pastor for over 55 years, to over one hundred thousand people, Dr. Hyles understood human nature well. He was amazing with people.

Read what type of pressures Paul and his friends suffered on the mission field...

> 2nd Corinthians 1:8-11, "For we would not, brethren, have you ignorant of our trouble which came to us in Asia, that we were pressed out of measure, above strength, insomuch that we despaired even of life: But we had the sentence of death in ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God which raiseth the dead: Who delivered us from so great a death, and doth deliver: in whom we trust that he will yet deliver us; Ye also helping together by prayer for us, that for the gift bestowed upon us by the means of many persons thanks may be given by many on our behalf."

There is theological debate over what Paul meant in these verses. Did they contemplate suicide? Did they suffer so much that they just wanted to die? Were they facing execution or deathly circumstances? We simply don't know. I humbly think they didn't want to live anymore, because all quality of life was gone. I don't think they contemplated suicide, but we don't know.

I humbly think Brother Baker despaired even of life, and he made a choice. The man was tired, living with a broken heart. I hear Christians all the time, who contact my ministry and tell me how tired they are, and that they feel like quitting church altogether. They are tired of the heresies being preached in pulpits everywhere today. Like the Devil's lie that you cannot go to Heaven unless you forsake your sinful bad habits. And the Devil's lie that you must make Jesus the "Lord" of your life to be saved, which is nowhere taught in the inspired Holy Bible.

To complicate matters, most pastors today (especially Baptist clergy) are cold-hearted, indifferent, and don't genuinely care about individual people. They just want a paycheck and an easy life. They won't contend for the faith (Jude 1:3). They mistreat some people. Dr. Jack Hyles was absolutely right, who said:

> "You can't love anybody, until you love everybody!" —Pastor Jack Hyles, a precious quote from the MP3 sermon titled, "[4]The Test Of Spiritual Maturity"

The [5]Devil's fraud of Lordship Salvation has crept into most Baptist churches today. Lordship Salvation is an enemy of soulwinning, because if prevents lost sinners from understanding the Gospel to be saved. As long as you errantly think you must start or stop doing something to get to Heaven, you cannot be saved. Jesus has already done it all for you friend, through His body and blood sacrifice on Calvary's cross (1st Peter 1:18-19).

I am so sad this evening to have learned just a couple hours ago that my dear ministry friend, Pastor David Baker, has died by shooting himself. Brother Baker went into a local hospital in Columbia, Tennessee where he lives and works, into the men's restroom and shot himself. I humbly think he ethically chose that location to spare his own family from finding his lifeless mutilated body. Hospitals deal with shootings, car accidents and serious trauma on a daily basis, so it wouldn't have traumatized them as it would have his wife. I respect him for being considerate. Brad Delp of the rock band, Boston, did the same thing in March of 2007, when he also took his own life under very similar circumstances. Brad wrote notes to warn anybody entering into his home to be careful about carbon monoxide poisoning in the air. Brad used two barbeques to asphyxiate himself to death in his bathroom. Brad was only age 55.

You couldn't have found a better man than David Baker. He spent his life selflessly living to HELP OTHERS. Pastor Baker faithfully pastored churches for many decades, preaching the inspired Word of God to several thousand of people. By God's grace, he had the privilege of leading several hundred souls to Jesus Christ. I love this dear saint of God and I will miss him. We just messaged each other a couple weeks ago on facebook. He posted some edifying comments this past week on my Facebook page, about where Jesus went after He died.

Something that really bothers me is that Pastor Baker's so-called "friends" instantly abandoned him when he was charged with a crime. Read what News Channel 5 said:

> "Baker served as the pastor for Family Baptist Church and served at Independent Baptist College Online. Website links have been severed to his connection to both organizations." [6]SOURCE

Whatever happened to a man being INNOCENT until PROVEN GUILTY? For merely being accused, his fair-weather friends have abandoned him on a whim. Not me Buddy, I'm letting the world know that Pastor David Baker was my dear ministry friend, and I love him and defend his good name. Since he is gone, we'll never know how the court case would have gone. But I will NOT judge a man based on mere accusations. Anybody can say anything about anyone, but that doesn't make it true. Only a very wicked person would condemn someone based on allegations without a court trial. David Baker died with his good name!!!

I thank God for the precious life and ministry of Pastor David Baker, he helped so many hurting people, as a true friend does. Please be in prayer for Brother Baker's wife, ten children and dozens of grandchildren. Pastor Baker has simply gone home to be with Jesus a little early, we're all just a few years behind him. I am 57 years old now. I might have 20 years remaining on earth, but you never know (Proverbs 27:1). Hollywood actor, Tom Sizemore, dropped dead at age 61 of a brain aneurism. In 2019, in Indiana a precious [7]11-year-old Girl Scout was suddenly killed when a tree toppled over from recent heavy rain. Death often comes without notice. Dear reader, the $64,000 question is: [8]Have you been born again?

5.9.10 The Christian Army Is The Only Army In The World That Kills Its Wounded (2024-09-13 16:11)

Luke 11:5-6, “And he said unto them, Which of you shall have a friend, and shall go unto him at midnight, and say unto him, Friend, lend me three loaves; For a friend of mine in his journey is come to me, and I have nothing to set before him?”

Proverbs 17:17, “A friend loveth at all times, and a brother is born for adversity.”

What the heck is wrong with everyone? You know, I just went to read Pastor David Baker’s Facebook page, but it’s GONE! The Family Baptist Church website, where he was their beloved pastor, has completely erased his memory from the church, like he never existed. The same with Independent Baptist Online College, they’ve totally erased Brother Baker from their ministry, like he never was. This is bizarre! Is this how we mistreat each other now?

Dr. Jack Hyles was 100 % right: “THE CHRISTIAN ARMY IS THE ONLY ARMY IN THE WORLD THAT KILLS ITS WOUNDED!” I’m letting the whole world know that Pastor David Baker was (and still is my friend). I love the man tremendously, and his family! What good is a friend if we’re not a FRIEND AT MIDNIGHT? I cannot help but think in lieu of all this mistreatment of our dear Brother in Christ and friend, that this will be his gravestone...

Pastor Baker has been accused of a serious crime, but an accusation is not factual guilt. Anybody can accuse anyone of anything, but that doesn't make it true. That is why in God's system of justice, someone was not even legally allowed to bring forth an accusation alone. Deuteronomy 19:15, " One witness shall not rise up against a man for any iniquity, or for any sin, in any sin that he sinneth: at the mouth of two witnesses, or at the mouth of three witnesses, shall the matter be established." Biblically, it would be better to let nine guilty men go free, than to convict one innocent man. If you know that one of ten men is guilty, but cannot determine who is the guilty party, then to be just you must released all ten men.

Since Brother David Baker took his own life (for reasons we will likely never know), he won't get his day in court, and will never be convicted of any crime. So the man went to his grave INNOCENT as far as the law is concerned, which means we must honor his presumed innocence. To assume that someone is guilty without due process of law is wickedness, unfair and tyranny. Yet, there are very wicked haters in this world, like Eric Skwarczynski (he runs the hateful 'Preacher Boys Podcast') who has already assigned guilt to Dr. Baker, condemning him as an evildoer and fraud. I wouldn't want to be in Eric's shoes when God judges him in eternity (Matthew 7:1-5).

Our ungodly American newsmedia has been condemning people since it began, based on mere allegations without evidence. When an accusation is made against a man, local newspapers print the story on page one or somewhere closer to the front of the publication. But a couple years later when that same devastated man (because of what the evil news media did to ruin his name) is exonerated in court, and the Prosecutor says: "

In the name of justice the charges are dropped,

” the news paper might print a retraction on the last page (if they print any retraction at all). God will hold these wicked news papers

these manure-spreading parasites who destroy men’s lives for profit accountable for every name they dragged through the mud, every person and family they hurt, every life that adversely afflicted for their greed to make money. God will hold every ungodly news media outlet accountable for the evil they have done, for the countless lives which they have destroyed for filthy lucre’s sake!

Tragically, the Christian Army is the only army in the world that kills its wounded. I seem to recall a man in the Holy Bible whose name was Jesus. He was accused of a horrible crime, but Jesus’ friends all forsook Him. Some of them, like Peter, vehemently denies ever knowing Him. Matthew 26:73-74, “ And after a while came unto him they that stood by, and said to Peter, Surely thou also art one of them; for thy speech bewrayeth thee. Then began he to curse and to swear, saying, I know not the man. And immediately the cock crew.” Peter, one of Christ’s very apostles whom Jesus hand chose to serve alongside Him, denied ever even knowing the Lord.

Likewise, since Pastor David Baker was accused this past week of committing a horrible crime, his friends have abandoned him. The dear pastor took his own life in a local hospital restroom. He shot himself twice in the chest. Doctors in the Emergency Room desperately tried to save his life, but couldn’t. It would be wrong to speculate with any certainty, simply because we don’t know the reason why he killed himself. Only a wicked person would assume that his suicide confirms his guilt. We don’t know all the details. His church likely fired him when they heard the accusation against him, which could have played a role in his decision. We simply don’t know dear reader what went on, or what compelled him to take his own life. I will say that no one should ever commit suicide, under any circumstances, because it is a sin. Our God is able to deliver us from the fiery furnace (Daniel 3:17).

It grieves my heart to see Pastor Baker’s friends in the ministry—people that he dearly loved, served alongside and trusted year after year—completely abandon his memory, erasing his name from their website databases, pretending like he never existed in the first place. Is that what we’ve become as fundamentalist believers today? Is this how little loyalty we have anymore for our loved ones and friends? I am saddened to see the Family Baptist Church, where Brother Baker pastored for many years, throw him under the bus in one day! They have removed every memory of Pastor Baker from their church website, like he never was.

The same is sadly true of Independent Baptist Online College, where Pastor Baker taught Bible classes for several years, and was on the executive board (he was their Vice President and co-founded the college). The school has erased every memory of Brother Baker, as if he never existed. What is wrong with Christians today? Pastor Baker is our redeemed Brother in Christ! He is our dear friend! I want the whole world to know that I am still Pastor Baker’s loyal friend. I love the man dearly, and his surviving family. My heart goes out to his wife and ten children, I can only imagine the horrific emotional trauma they must be enduring right now.

On my Facebook page, over 40 rotten people posted laughing emojis on my post announcing that Pastor David Baker commit suicide. The unsaved world absolutely hates Jesus Christ (John 7:7), and because we are Christians the world hates us too (John 15:19). These are the “ perilous times ” as foretold in 2nd Timothy 3:1-7. When ungodly people think it is funny that a pastor killed himself, you know that their souls are filled with Satan their father (John 8:44).

Dear reader, Galatians 6:1 teaches that when a fellow saint chooses to go into sin, we are NOT to abandon them, throw them under the bus or deny that we ever knew them; but rather, “ye which are spiritual, restore such an one in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted.” Sometimes the greatest thing that a friend can do is to just BE A FRIEND. Don’t condemn them. Don’t try to analyze or fix the unfixable. You’re not God! Only the Lord can repair a broken life. All we can do is be a friend.

It is because of the deliberate Satanic agenda today to attack, intimidate and destroy Independent Baptist Churches (soulwinning churches that make a difference for Christ), that everyone in these institutions are scared. This is why they ran for cover immediately upon hearing the accusation against Pastor Baker, pulling up their anchors and throwing Brother Baker like Jonah over the side of the ship to drown in the sea. It is shameful the way that believers mistreat each other, especially in our darkest hour of need. That is not God’s love.

Independent Baptist Online College should be proud that Pastor Baker was a part of their ministry, not completely erase him from their database. And his own Family Baptist Church, where he preached and led God’s sheep for several years, has distanced themselves from Brother Baker, like he never worked there. What they’ve all done is unjustly condemn him as if he is guilty, when the man hasn’t even had a court trial yet. It is sad, sickening and injustice! Whatever happened to the true adage: A man is innocent until proven guilty?

5.9.11 ’Cultural Christianity’ Cannot Get You To Heaven (2024-09-15 16:11)

John 3:3, “Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.”

7320

I found an interesting and equally disturbing article yesterday from the CHURCH LEADERS website titled, '[1]The Rise Of Cultural Christianity.' Here is a quote from the article written by James Emery White on September 13, 2024:

> In an earlier blog, I noted with surprise the growing number of people who grieved the loss of what Christianity has historically brought to bear on culture who, themselves, are not Christians. [2]SOURCE

Mr. White follows this statement by giving an example of infamous avowed atheist Richard Dawkins, who has publicly mourned the steady deterioration of Christianity over the past century. That is quite amazing! I am aware of several good examples myself of what is today called 'Cultural Christianity.'

In June of 2024, [3]singer Justin Timberlake was arrested for a DUI. The media approached singer Billy Joel, who just happened to be eating lunch at the same upscale hotel where Mr. Timberlake had eaten dinner the night before. The reporter asked Billy Joel what he thought about the arrest of Justin Timberlake. Billy simply replied in classic fashion by quoting Matthew 7:1, "Judge not, that ye be not judged." Bravo Billy Joel! But the very strange thing is that Billy Joel as an avowed atheist! I found it interesting and equally frustrating that a famous atheist would quote the inspired Holy Bible which God Himself authored. Go figure!

Another example is my 83-year-old atheist neighbour, Maggie. When I first met her in early 2022 after I moved in, I gladly told her that I am a Christian. She instantly replied, "

I am an atheist!

We became friends right away. I told her that our common brotherhood as humans trumped our religious beliefs. She was glad to hear that. We are both hermits...lol. We don't talk often, but I have shared the Gospel with her briefly on a couple occasions, which she strongly rejected.

I kindly tried to give her a hard copy of Michael P, Bowen's helpful book, '[4]I NEVER KNEW YOU,' but she refused to take it. She said her decision that there is no God was no light decision, she had taken a long time to come to her final conclusion. I am so sad for he, because the Lake of Fire will be her eternal damnation according to Revelation 20:11-15. Anyway, I mentioned Maggie because whenever I see her she asks me to pray for her. That is very interesting for an atheist to ask for my prayers to God for her. I think it is because as James Emery White wrote about in his intriguing article, praying for others is a part of our American culture. So that even atheists still want someone to pray for them. People just want to be loved.

I kindly wrote this article to emphasize the biblical truth that without being born again, no one can go to Heaven. John 3:3, "Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God." Increasingly we are hearing unsaved people, Christ rejecters, quote the Holy Bible, as for prayers and express their grief over the deterioration of Christendom in the United States. Only [5]3 in 10 Americans regularly attend church today. Sadly, today's churches are pathetic. With the sexualization of our American culture because of perverse Hollywood, the [6]Satanic music industry and inappropriate sex education in public schools for children, our whole rotten society is collapsing in on itself. Foolish parents are ignoring the giant white elephant in the living room. I mean, look at this actual screenshot from Taylor Swift's YouTube video, "Wildest Dreams"...

Taylor Swift at 2:12 in her YouTube music video ’[8]Wildest Dreams’

Only Satanists create and promote this kind of perverse content to minors. Why doesn’t YouTube filter this? I mean, they keep filtering Bible preachers who preach hard against the sin of homosexuality, but then they allow this kind of wickedness. My friend Pastor Max D. Younce (1935-2023) in 2021 received his second threatening notice from YouTube, over his Bible preaching against homosexuality. [9]Only one viewpoint is allowed today, which insists that you must be in favor of the demonic LGBTQ agenda, keep silent or be censored. Job 20:5, “ That the triumphing of the wicked is short, and the joy of the hypocrite but for a moment?”

Satan’s greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born again. We’re seeing it everywhere today. Celebrities by the droves are speaking highly of the Holy Bible, but they are hellbound themselves. I heard inventor Elon Musk recently praising the teachings of Jesus in the Bible, but Elon himself as an avowed atheist. This is

’Cultural Christianity.’

Christianity began in the New Testament with Jesus Christ and the new birth. When it went to Greece, Christianity became a philosophy. When Christianity went to Rome, it became an organization (the Roman Catholic Church). When Christianity spread throughout Europe, it became a culture. And when it came to America, Christianity became a dirty business. God never intended for Christianity to deteriorate into a career for the clergy. John 3:3, “Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.” When is the last time you heard any pastor, missionary or evangelist preach the truth that you cannot go to Heaven unless you get BORN AGAIN? I haven't heard any preacher in years say it! So sad. So tragic!

Every Bible preacher in the world should be warning lost sinners about God's coming fiery judgment upon unsaved sinners in Hell. Dear reader, you don't go to Hell because of your sins, you go to Hell because you failed to receive Christ's sacrifice on the cross as full payment for your sins. You can live the Christian life all you want, and still go straight to Hell when you breathe your last breath.\

In Matthew 7:21-23 we read a startling true story about a group of people who spent their lives on earth following Jesus. They boasted of their many wonderful works.

" They boasted that they had even cast our devils. They called Jesus "Lord, Lord" (there's the heresy of Lordship Salvation exposed in the Bible). They followed Jesus devoutly as the supreme "

(Master) of their miserable lives, but Jesus denied knowing them as His redeemed sheep. Jesus tells us exactly why in verse 21, because they failed to do THE WILL OF THE FATHER. John 6:40 tells us what the Father's will is to get to Heaven. John 6:40, "And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day." Paul and Silas reiterated this truth in Acts 16:30b,

"Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved..."

We are now living in the "perilous times" foretold in 2nd Timothy 3:1-7. I've never seen so much evil and hatred against Christians as I do today in the United States. My dear ministry friend (whom I just communicated with earlier this week), Pastor David Baker, took his own life on Wednesday, September 11, 2024. I am still in emotional shock that my friend is gone. But to make matters much worse, at least 50 evil haters on Facebook targeted my Facebook page, posting laughing emojis to let me know they think it is funny that Pastor Baker committed suicide. They have no decency, love or shame!

To sink to that level of hatred, you have to be possessed by your father the Devil (John 8:44). Can you imagine someone so filled with hatred against a Christian pastor, that they think it is funny he killed himself? Woe unto those fools on Judgment Day! 1st Peter 4:17, " For the time is come that judgment must begin at the house of God: and if it first begin at us, what shall the end be of them that obey not the gospel of God?

Hebrews 10:31, "It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God. "

I cannot warn everyone enough to stay away from ALL modern Bible revisions, because they’ve all been horribly corrupted by the Devil to mislead you. The popular New International Version (NIV) is still one of the most popular Bible revisions being sold.

ESV Strips Your Saviour of His Title

King James Bible John 4:42
And said unto the woman, Now we believe, not because of thy saying: for we have heard him ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, the Saviour of the world.

English Standard Version John 4:42
They said to the woman, "It is no longer because of what you said that we believe, for we have heard for ourselves, and we know that this is indeed ___ _____ the Savior of the world."

The ESV folks believe that the Lord NEVER WANTED the title "the Christ" to appear in John 4:42 in his Bible in the first place.

Yet his exalted title "the Christ" has been IN PRINT in John 4:42 for more than 400 years in billions of King James Bibles.
This is the ONLY place in scripture where common folks make this appellation, and you can't find it in the ESV.

There are lots of saviors in the world, but ONLY ONE Lord Jesus who is "the Christ."

Only an inferior quality "Bible" would strip your Saviour of his title in John 4:42.

King James Version (KJV) Mark 1:40-41	2011 New International Version (NIV) Mark 1:40-41
40 And there came a leper to him, beseeching him, and kneeling down to him, and saying unto him, If thou wilt, thou canst make me clean. 41 And Jesus, moved with compassion, put forth his hand, and touched him, and saith unto him, I will; be thou clean.	Jesus Heals a Man With Leprosy 40 A man with leprosy came to him and begged him on his knees, "If you are willing, you can make me clean." 41 Jesus was indignant. He reached out his hand and touched the man. "I am willing," he said. "Be clean!"

OK, So did Jesus have compassion on the man? Or was He raving mad?

in·dig·nant adjective \in-ˈdig-nənt\
: feeling or showing anger because of something that is unfair or wrong
: very angry

4 Reasons Why You Never Meet NIV, ESV, or NKJV Onlyists

❶ The scholars who build the Greek and Hebrew texts underlying all modern versions and their English translations believe that their texts may have errors in them.

❷ Then they teach pastors and students that ONLY the (nonexistent) original autographs "are" inspired and inerrant.

❸ Who then teach that NO book on earth contains ALL of God's words and ONLY God's words without error.

❹ Finally, the poor Christian BELIEVES the scholars, their pastors, and teachers and gives up hope of EVER getting an inerrant Bible.

5.9.13 Sadly, Barbra Streisand Won't Be Going To Heaven (2024-09-18 14:58)

1st John 2:22-23, "Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son. Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: (but) he that acknowledgeth the Son hath the Father also."

Last night on YouTube, I watched a 1967 public concert by Barbra Streisand (born 1942) in Central Park New York. Wow, she is an amazing singer! I had tears in my eyes as she sang, "Silent Night." She has a wonderful personality and great sense of humor. She is Jewish. Her father died when she was only 1 year old, sadly. She grew up in poverty in New York. Her mother worked hard to keep food on the table. She loved singing as a child and her friends knew that she had a gifted voice. She started playing piano at age 4, the same age that my mother began to learn piano in Sweden. Barbra is now 82 years old. She has a net worth of $460,000,000, making her one of the richest women in the world.

Tragically, [1]she is a devout follower of Judaism, a deadly false religion which vehemently denies that Jesus is the Messiah, denies that He is God, and denies that He is the only begotten Son of God. ...

> Adherents of Judaism do not believe that Jesus of Nazareth was the Messiah nor do they believe he was the Son of God. In the Jewish perspective, it is believed that the way Christians see Jesus goes against monotheism, a belief in the absolute unity and singularity of God, which is central to Judaism; Judaism sees the worship of a person as a form of idolatry, which is forbidden. Therefore, considering Jesus divine, as "God the Son", is forbidden. Judaism's rejection of Jesus as the Messiah is based on Jewish eschatology, which holds that the coming of the true Messiah will be associated with events that have not yet occurred, such as building the Third Temple, a Messianic Age of peace, and the ingathering of Jews to their homeland. [2]WIKIPEDIA: Jewish Views On Jesus

That means, according to the inspired Holy Bible, Barbra is going to plunge into the fires of Hell the moment she dies, which at age 82 won't be much longer. When she mentions the name of Jesus ( the name above every other name - Philippians 2:9-10) in the lyrics to her popular song, "Stoney End," she snarls with mockery at the name of the Son of God, blaspheming the Lord. Miss Streisand is still in her sins. John 8:24,

"I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sins: for if ye believe not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins." I thank God I am a Christian!

According to the information on Wikipedia about Judaism, they reject Jesus as the Messiah. Instead, followers of Judaism think that the true Messiah will appear when the Third Temple in Jerusalem is rebuilt. As unbelievable as it is, these deceived Jews will in fact embrace the Man of Sin (Antichrist) as their False Messiah. We read in 2nd Thessalonians 2:3-4,

"Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition;

Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God.

" Contrary to the tens of millions of Christians who for centuries have thought that the Antichrist is coming to Rome, the Bible plainly teaches that the Antichrist is going to Jerusalem! Revelation 17:18 clearly identifies the woman

(

he Whore - Revelation 17:15-16

as Jerusalem.

I feel sad and sorry for her, such a beautiful lady with a blessed musical gift, who has everything a woman could want in the world today; yet she has absolutely nothing without Jesus, and will soon spend the rest of eternity burning and suffering in the tormentuous brimstone and fires of the everlasting Lake of Fire (Revelation 20:11-15). Judaism is of the Devil. What saith the Scripture?

> 1st John 2:22-23, "Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son. Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: (but) he that acknowledgeth the Son hath the Father also."

Jesus made it abundantly clear (in no uncertain terms) that unless someone is BORN AGAIN they cannot enter into the Kingdom of God. ...

> John 3:1-3, "There was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews: The same came to Jesus by night, and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him. Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God."

Being a good person is not enough to get to Heaven (Titus 3:5). Having faith in God like Barbra Streisand is not enough. The demons also believe there is a God (James 2:19). Miss Streisand prides herself in her family's Jewish traditions, in keeping the Sabbath Day, lighting candles and all the rituals of Judaism. Unfortunately, none of that can wash away someone's sins. Of the estimated [3]16,783,105 Jews in the world, 44.5 % live in the United States, and 44.3 % live in Israel today. Most of them deny that Jesus is the Messiah, they reject Him as the Christ.

What saith the Scripture? John 3:36, “He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him.” The inspired King James Bible warns that Barbra Streisand has GOD’S WRATH abiding upon her every second, of every moment, of every hour, of every day, because she rejects Jesus as the only begotten Son of God; she rejects Jesus as her personal Savior, the crucified, buried and risen Christ.

I can only hope and pray that Miss Streisand repents of her unbelief before it is too late. So many rich people already think they have a form of Heaven on earth, so they don’t take eternity seriously. I thank God that as a 13 year old boy

I received Jesus as my Savior. John 1:12-13, “But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name: Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.”

The blessed only begotten Son of God made a bold declaration in John 14:6, “

Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

” There is NO OTHER WAY to Heaven than through faith in the precious name of Jesus.

Isaiah 2:11, “ The lofty looks of man shall be humbled, and the haughtiness of men shall be bowed down, and the LORD alone shall be exalted in that day.”

5.9.14 A Victim Of Wrong Information (2024-09-20 10:08)

Proverbs 14:12, "There is a way which seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death."

I am reading through an old classic book from my book collection, authored in 1945 by Pastor Harry A. Ironside (1876-1951) titled, "Illustrations Of Bible Truth." On page 35, there is an illustration called, "A VICTIM OF WRONG INFORMATION," in which Dr. Ironside states...

> "Though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto . . . . let him be accursed" (Gal. 1:8).

I remember I was reading a story of a woman who with her little babe was traveling by train through one of the north-eastern states. It was a very wintry day. Outside a terrific storm was blowing, snow was falling, and sleet covered everything. The train made its way along slowly because of the ice on the tracks and the snowplow went ahead to clear the way. The woman seemed very nervous. She was to get off at a small station, where she would be met by some friends, and she said to the conductor, "You will be sure and let me know the right station, won't you?"

"Certainly," he said, "Just remain here until I tell you the right station."

She sat rather nervously, and again spoke to the conductor, "You won't forget me?"

"No, just trust me. I will tell you when to get off."

A commercial man sat across the aisle. He leaned over and said, "Pardon me, but I see you are rather nervous about getting off at your station. I know this road well. Your station is the first stop after such and such a city. These conductors are very forgetful, they have a great many things to attend to, and he may overlook your request, but I will see that you get off all right. I will help you with your baggage."

"Oh, thank you," she said. And she leaned back greatly relieved.

By and by the brakeman called the name of the city the commercial traveler had mentioned, and the latter said to the woman, "Yours is the next station. Better get ready and I will assist you to get off."

The train moved on and shortly afterwards came to a full stop. The woman hurried to the end of the car, the man who was helping her carrying her bag. When they reached the vestibule, there was no one there. "You see," said the stranger, "these trainmen are very careless. The conductor has quite forgotten you." But he opened the door, assisted the woman with her baby down the steps, and just as he boarded the train again it moved on.

A few minutes later the conductor came through the train and looking all about, said, "Why, that is strange! There was a woman here who wanted to get off at the next station. I wonder where she is."

The commercial man spoke up and said, "Yes, you forgot her, but I saw that she got off all alright."

"Got off where?" the conductor asked.

"When the train stopped."

"But that was not a station! That was an emergency stop! I was looking after the woman. Why, man, you have put her off in a wild country district in the midst of all this storm, where there will be nobody to meet her!"

There was only one thing to do, and, although it was a rather dangerous thing, they had to reverse the engine and go back a number of miles, and then went out to look for the woman. They searched and searched; finally, somebody stumbled upon her body. She was frozen on the ground, her little babe dead in her arms. She was the victim of wrong information.

If it is such a serious thing to give people wrong information in regard to temporal things, what about the man who misleads men and women in regard to the great question of the salvation of their immortal souls? If men believe a false gospel, if they put their trust in something that is contrary to the Word of God, their loss will be not for time only, but for eternity.

SOURCE: Pastor H.A. Ironside, "Illustrations Of BIBLE TRUTHS," A VICTIM OF WRONG INFORMATION, pgs. 35-37; © 1945, The Moody Bible Institute of Chicago

When I read this heart-touching true story, I immediately thought about the corrupt Alexandrian-based Bible versions today, which didn't exist in the English language prior to the year 1881, when Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort introduced them to the intellectual world. It is not difficult to see how Satan has masterminded the entire Bible revision movement over the past century and a half! So many naive pastors, religious teachers and evangelists have bought into the Devil's counterfeit Bible versions!!! Consequently, they are guilty of pulling on the same rope as the Devil, helping to spread corruptible seed. They are as the deceived mother, who got off the train at the wrong place, listening to a sincere man (effectively a fool) who didn't know what he was talking about.

Similarly, such sincere but foolish pastors (wicked servants) are also as the commercial man, who deceived the woman. Today's shallow pastors, who go along to get along with apostate mainstream evangelicalism instead of thinking for themselves, are giving their congregations WRONG INFORMATION! These modern Bible versions are WRONG INFORMATION!

For example: Look at this comparison between the trustworthy King James Bible (KJB) and the satanic Common English Bible (CEB)...

> KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) — Acts 20:21, "Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ."
>
> COMMON ENGLISH BIBLE (CEB) — Acts 20:21, "You know I have testified to both Jews and Greeks that they must change their hearts and lives as they turn to God and have faith in our Lord Jesus."

Good night in the mornin' everybody! Do you see how evil and reckless these new Bible translations are? ([1]Here is the true meaning of repentance.) Folks, the horrifying truth is that the evil people who are producing these new Bibles, aren't basing their translations on ANY ancient language; but rather, they're just making stuff up as they go!!! There is no place in any Hebrew, Greek or Chaldean manuscript that teaches what today's ungodly Bible versions are claiming!

There is no Greek text anywhere that teaches that a person "MUST CHANGE THEIR HEARTS AND LIVES" to be saved!!! Now, if an unsaved person, who is completely ignorant of the things of God, reads Acts 20:21 in the Common English Bible (CEB), they are going to be horribly misled (like the woman on the train who died with her little baby). They are going to errantly conclude that reformation (behavior modification) is an essential requirement for salvation. Romans 3:20, "Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin."

Do you see how dangerous these new Bibles really are? What bothers me greatly is the arrogance and sinful pride of today's shameful pastors. I spoke with the assistant Baptist pastor of a large Baptist church on Guam (i.e., the Bob Jones University crowd), who attempted to defend his church's use of the modern Bible perversions, by claiming that he doesn't approve of all the versions.

But when I asked him which versions he was against, he couldn't name even one! You see folks, they are religious frauds and liars, conmen, who instill a false sense of "confidence" (which is what "conman" means), just like the commercial man on the train instilled a false sense of confidence in the nervous woman, which led to her untimely death and also the death of her precious child. So you see, WRONG INFORMATION is deadly!!!

Wrong Information Concerning Salvation is Deadly

Billions of people will one day spend eternity burning in the fires of Hell, because they died in their sins without the righteousness of God, which is solely by faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. Philippians 3:9, "And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith." The Devil's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born-again. Kindly, when I hear [2]Evangelist Paul Washer saying you cannot write the date, time and place that you were saved in back of your Bible, because your life must evidence your faith to be valid, then I know Paul is not saved. Paul predicates salvation upon a changed life, which is works for salvation. That is reformation, not regeneration!!! God saves a man, and then the Holy Spirit changes that man, not himself!

The Bible plainly teaches that eternal life is a "gift" from God. Romans 6:23, "For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord." Now, if I were to buy you a gift, and offer it to you on the condition that you improve your behavior in any way, it could not truly be a gift. It would be a reward, for your good behavior! If something is truly a gift, you can freely take it without obligation. So when any false preacher; such as, Paul Washer (who is a staunch [3]Calvinist in doctrine), says that you cannot write your name, date, time and place in the back of your Bible that you were born-again, he is teaching an accursed false gospel (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4). That false prophet is conditioning receiving the free gift of God upon reformation. If eternal life (which includes the forgiveness of all our sins) is truly a free gift from God, then you can receive it instantly, confidently and without any obligation whatsoever, now or hereafter. You simply take a gift!

I feel sorry for that nervous mother on the train, who blindly trusted a man whom she had no reason to trust. What expertise do today's pastors have? What makes me right? How do you know what I am telling you is the truth? Well, you need to investigate for yourself! "SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES" as the Lord commanded us in John 5:39. In fact, Jesus said the very reason for searching the Scriptures is to "THINK YE HAVE ETERNAL LIFE." John 5:39a, "Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me." You cannot show me anything in the Holy Bible to support the heretical teachings of Calvinists, who ADD reformation (a changed life) to regeneration (being born-again). I say this all kindly. I do not condemn anyone for their difference of opinion. I respect the right of others to disagree with me, for that is what makes America great! Albeit, the Word of God very plainly teaches that salvation is only for the ungodly man with faith, who "worketh not" (Romans 4:5b).

Just as the commercial man on the train instilled a false sense of confidence ("conman") in the nervous woman, which led to her untimely and tragic death, and also the death of her precious child, so also do Calvinists instill false confidence in their victims. Please watch this awesome video sermon by Pastor Ralph "Yankee" Arnold titled, [4]Calvinism Destroyed With A Parable." Every Christian leader and believer ought to be against Calvinism, which is a doctrine of devils. Calvinism is a powerful weapon of the Devil, which combines holy living with faith, perverting the Gospel truth. The gift of God is eternal life, which is without works.

So you see, WRONG INFORMATION is deadly!!!

5.9.15 Dispensational Teaching Of The Bible Is A Bad Thing (2024-09-20 12:43)

Hebrews 13:9, “Be not carried about with divers and strange doctrines. For it is a good thing that the heart be established with grace; not with meats, which have not profited them that have been occupied therein.”

It was from chapter 3 of Philip Mauro’s (1859-1952) excellent book, "[1]The Gospel Of The Kingdom" (1927), that I learned God has already made TWO great divisions to His Word, not 7 or 8 as dispensationalists foolishly teach, butchering the inspired Holy Bible.

Essentially, dispensational teaching was fabricated in the late 19th century to promote man-made Israel (Zionism). The Rothschild family needed the churches on their side when they invaded Palestine in 1947, and at gunpoint ruthlessly forced one million Arabs from the region, stealing their homes and possessions to give to the Jews. I can’t say I blame the Arabs for strapping dynamite to themselves and blowing up restaurants and buses in Israel to seek revenge. God took the land away from the Jews since 586 BC, and He won’t give it back until Jesus’ Second Coming, after the Rapture and 7-year Tribulation.

If for any reason this link below goes dead, email me and I’ll gladly send a .pdf copy of the book, to God be the glory. ...

[2] The Gospel Of The Kingdom

If nothing else, please read just chapter three, which I have made into a webpage for your convenience to read...

[3]The Law And The Gospel

I agree with Brother Mauro that dispensational teaching is a bad thing. Nowhere does the Bible teach this nonsense, and you have to wildly stretch the meaning of the four existing mentions of the word "dispensation" in the Bible, to come up with The Outer Limits theology of dispensationalists today. I reject all dispensational doctrine (and it is indeed strange doctrine). Hebrews 13:9, “Be not carried about with divers and strange doctrines. For it is a good thing that the heart be established with grace; not with meats, which have not profited them that have been occupied therein.”

5.9.16 But If Our Gospel Be Hid (2024-09-21 18:47)

2nd Corinthians 4:1-4, “

Therefore seeing we have this ministry, as we have received mercy, we faint not; But have renounced the hidden things of dishonesty, not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of God deceitfully; but by manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every man’s conscience in the sight of God. But if our gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost: In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them.”

I thought about this Scripture passage today, and how it relates to the [1]False Bibles, [2]Misunderstood Repentance and [3]Lordship Salvation evils which are being taught in most churches today. Tragically, this includes most Baptist churches as well. When you see any church advertising that they preach “Reformed Theology,” run for the hills because it means they preach [4]deadly Calvinism!

Dear reader, if you are caught up into the Devil’s deceptions of Misunderstood Repentance, Calvinism, Lordship Salvation and/or Sacramental Salvation, you are NOT saved. The modern corrupt Bibles are teaching these heresies. You cannot be born again through those counterfeit things. The “Gospel” is the Good News that Jesus died on a cross to pay for our sins. He was buried. And three days later he physically resurrected from the dead. What saith the Scripture?

> 1st Corinthians 15:1-6,

Anyone who comes to God as an admitted hell-deserving guilty sinner (you need to know why you need to be saved, and what you’re being saved from), and believes (put your trust, reliance) in the GOSPEL is saved instantly, irrevocably and permanently. Nothing more is required nor allowed by God to go to Heaven. Eternal life is a FREE GIFT (Romans 5:15-18).

You don’t need to forsake your sinning to be saved, nor even be willing to turn away from your sinful bad habits. That would be works! Christ came into the world to die for your sins on the cross, to pay your debt of sin with His precious blood (1st Peter 1:18-19). All that God the Father asks to get to Heaven, is for you to simply BELIEVE that Jesus did it all for you!

John 3:16, “For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.” [5]Listen to this one minute excerpt from Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold's tremendous sermon, "[6]Calvinism Is Works Backloaded." There's nothing in John 3:16 about turning from your sins, being willing to turn from your sins, following Christ as the Lord and Master of your life, keeping sacraments, living a lifestyle of repentance, doing good works, joining some religion or anything else to get to Heaven. Jesus (who is God almighty) simply told us to BELIEVE IN HIM. John 3:16, " For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life."

It is tragic that most churches today are hiding their Gospel, because they don't have the Gospel correct, they are propagating a perversion of God's grace instead. Remember that deadly rat poison is only 1 % poison, the other 99 % is good wholesome food that a human could safely eat. Satan knows that if he can change the Gospel even slightly, he has successfully hindered anyone from being saved. Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born again.

- Sadly, [7]Pensacola Christian College are hiding the Gospel
- [8]Bob Jones University are hiding the Gospel
- Pacific Garden Mission's '[9]UNSHACKLED' radio is hiding the Gospel

Just these three religious institutions combined influence tens of millions of people. Yet, tragically and to their utter shame, they all corrupt God's simple plan of salvation, adding works to grace to hinder people from coming to Christ to receive the new birth. BUT IF OUR GOSPEL BE HID, the Bible says it is HID TO THEM THAT ARE LOST!

The Catholic prisonhouse of religion influences over ONE BILLION people...

- The [10]Roman Catholic religion is hiding the Gospel

A lost sinner cannot be saved from a counterfeit plan of salvation. In Matthew 7:21-23 we read about a group of false prophets who were devout followers of Christ. They boasted of having done " many wonderful works.

" They boasted they had **"

cast of devils.

" They called Jesus **"

Lord, Lord,

" but the dear Savior denied knowing them as His sheep. Wow! So, from this remarkable passage of Scripture we learn that it is possible to live the Christian life without ever being born again, and end up in Hell forever.

Please read Acts chapter 10 sometime about Cornelius, an Italian centurion. The Bible says he "feared God with all his house." Cornelius tithed, gave alms to the poor, fasted and prayed to God. Yet, he was NOT saved. So, again we learn from the inspired Scripture that it is possible to live the Christian life without ever being born again. Thankfully, later in Acts 10:43-44 Cornelius did get saved through faith in Jesus.

All across the world today billions of people are mistakenly trying to live the Christian life to get to Heaven. They are foolishly trying to outweigh their bad deeds without some good deeds. They partake of ineffective to save religious rituals. Some of them foolishly confess their sins to an unsaved Catholic priest, thinking that some sinful man can redeem them. They've all been lied to by the father of all liars, the Devil (John 8:44). Nothing can substitute for the new birth. Jesus said in no uncertain words,

"Ye must be born again" (John 3:7b).

Carefully notice the phrase from our text passage, " nor handling the word of God deceitfully" (2nd Corinthians 4:2b). Those false teachers today (e.g., John MacArthur, Joel Osteen, Steve Pettit, Marty Herron, Jeff Redlin, Timothy Zacharias, Ray Comfort, Kirk Cameron, Paul Washer, Beth Moore, Joyce Meyer, Todd Friel and Franklin Graham) who preach another gospel are mishandling the inspired Word of God. Most of them don't even use the right Bible, and the few that do pervert it! They are deceitfully handling the Word of God, for which God will punish them in eternity.

Proverbs 19:9, " A false witness shall not be unpunished, and he that speaketh lies shall perish."

5.9.17 The Good Man Versus The Spiritual Man (2024-09-23 17:24)

Acts 27:40-44, “

And when they had taken up the anchors, they committed themselves unto the sea, and loosed the rudder bands, and hoised up the mainsail to the wind, and made toward shore.

And falling into a place where two seas met, they ran the ship aground; and the forepart stuck fast, and remained unmoveable, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the waves.

And the soldiers’ counsel was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim out, and escape.

But the centurion, willing to save Paul, kept them from their purpose; and commanded that they which could swim should cast themselves first into the sea, and get to land:

And the rest, some on boards, and some on broken pieces of the ship*. And so it came to pass, that they escaped all safe to land.

I love this Bible passage. The ship was wrecked and the lives of everyone onboard in jeopardy. The inspired Holy Bible says some of the passengers were rescued on the ship’s boards, and others on broken pieces of the vessel. Dear reader, perhaps your life is a shipwreck! If so, God can salvage your life with the broken pieces of your life.

Dave Hyles (Pastor Jack Hyles’ beloved son) is my ministry friend. I read something that he said today, which was so beautiful that I typed it out to share with my blog visitors:

> “All of us are supposed to serve the Lord. ...And see, that’s the saddest part for me, is that we throw people away as if they are garbage, and not realize that long before they sinned (and that sin may have been a crime), that God knew they were going to commit it. But could not possible have said: ’Okay, I’m not going to cause you to sin, but you’ve chosen to do so.’ Is it not possible that that person could win dozens if not hundreds of people to Christ, as a result of the crime they have committed? I don’t think we value people like God does. I don’t think we see people in the way that God sees people. And to restore them spiritually, gives them an opportunity to mend relationships (they’re not all going to get mended, they’re not all going to get fixed); it often gives them an opportunity to still find a way to serve God. ...Everybody has a purpose; everyone does! I think the spiritual people sees that; unspiritual people, they just wanna throw rocks at the person. They just want to make accusations.” —Dave Hyles

Amen and amen! Brother Dave’s humble words reminded me today of a tremendous sermon that his father preached years ago titled, “[1]THE GOOD MAN VERSUS THE SPIRITUAL MAN,” in which he reiterates the same truths which Dave Hyles mentioned.

Very few saints walk in the Holy Spirit. Very few of God’s children view others who have gone into sin as being in the SAME BOAT as we are. King David in the Old Testament viewed himself as being an EQUAL SINNER with his parents and ancestors. Psalms 106:6, " We have sinned with our fathers, we have committed iniquity, we have done wickedly." Boy, I love that spiritual attitude: WE HAVE SINNED!!!

And may I kindly add, the reason why over 95 % of today's shameful clergy and layman alike, don't care enough about right doctrine to "earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints"

(Jude 1:3), is because they don't walk in the Holy Spirit. They are not spiritual. They walk in the flesh by default. Such carnally-minded pastors are merely concerned about their future paychecks. [2]Pastors are to blame for the destruction of churches today! It is because of ungodly institutions like Pensacola Christian College (PCC), [3]whose wicked pastors preach the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation, that their incompetent graduates are ruining thousands more churches! God knows that I love everybody, but I am convinced that all Bible colleges do today is neuter the pastors of tomorrow.

Let me ask you a question dear reader: Are you a good Christian or a spiritual Christian? If you rejoice that you no longer run to enjoy sin like you once did, then you are a good Christian. But that doesn't make you spiritual. How do you view other Christians today who are worldly, who still run to commit their horrible sins? Do you look down on them like PCC does those who have gone into sin? Or do you say with David in the Old Testament: "We have sinned!" I emphasis the pronoun "We."

The Apostle Paul said in Romans 7:24, "O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me from the body of this death?" Paul did say, "O wretched man that I was." No, he said, "O wretched man that I am." The good man mourns what he used to be, but the spiritual man mourns what he still is, a dirty sinner. When a good Christian hears about a carnal pastor who has fallen from his lofty position, having run off with the church secretary in adultery, he or she feels disgust toward those sinners for what they have done. But the spiritual Christian says, "There but for the grace of God, go I." The good man is judgmental, because he tries to live above reproach and hates iniquity, so he feels righteous indignation. But the spiritually minded man is humble, considering himself left he also be tempted. The saint who walks with God humbly says: "We have sinned,"

he has sinned,

or

e has sinned."

The world is filled with sinfully proud sinners. One of God's jobs is to look upon the proud and bring them low to humble them. Job 40:12, " Look on every one that is proud, and bring him low; and tread down the wicked in their place." We've got a bunch of arrogant, proud and stiff-necked pastors today (Jeff Redlin, Timothy Zacharias, Marty Herron, Jared Baldwin, Joe Hensen, Sean Quinlan, Gary Walton, Steve Pettit, Sam horn, John MacArthur, Ray Comfort, Paul Washer), who all woefully corrupt the saving Gospel of free grace. God will bring these evildoers low in their stinking pride!

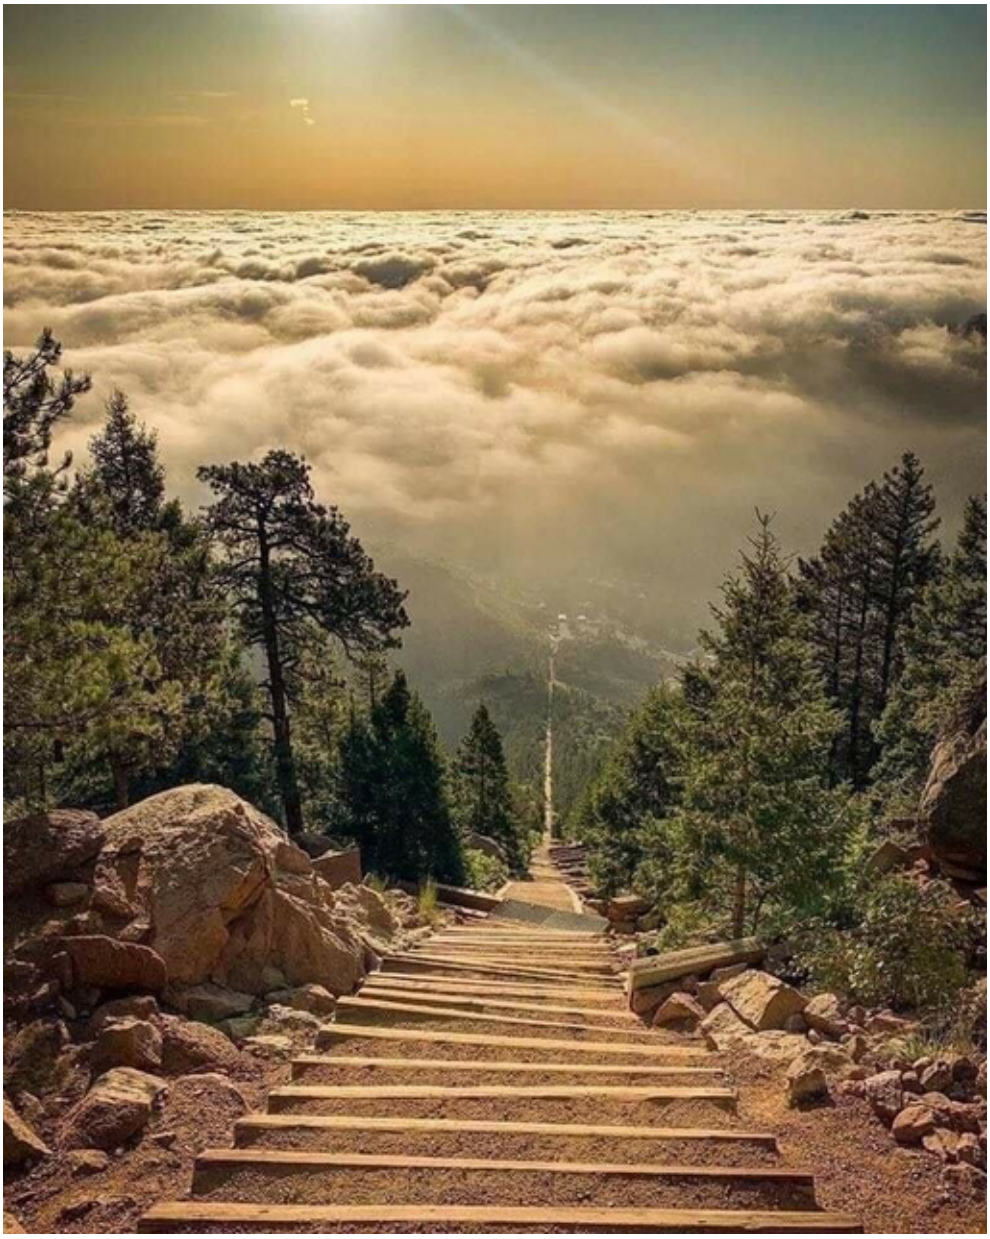
The Spiritual Christian:

1. Walks with God and is filled with the Holy Spirit (Galatians 5:22-25)

2. Loves everyone unconditionally (1st John 2:10)

3. Cares about everyone (1st Peter 5:7)

4. Earnestly contends for the faith (Jude 1:3)



5. Abstains from all appearance of evil (1st Thessalonians 5:22)

6. Speaks the truth (Proverbs 12:17)

7. Says: “We have sinned,” not “You have sinned”

8. Treats other people with respect, kindness and fairness (Matthew 7:1-5)

These are but a few of the character traits of a Christian who is spiritual. Going to church is NOT a sign of being spiritual; but rather, it just makes you religious.

5.9.18 A Helpful Way To Overcome Hurt Feelings In Public (2024-09-25 11:01)

Luke 8:15, "But that on the good ground are they, which in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit with patience."

I've always been somewhat of an introvert. That is, I don't have an outgoing type of personality. I am more reclusive, a loner and quiet in nature. I am reserved and careful in nature. That is a good thing, I humbly think. I have a big heart and I care. Unfortunately there is a flip side to this, which is that I am sensitive and get my feelings hurt quite easily.

When I was a young man, I used to get my feelings hurt whenever I went to any store, and the cashier wouldn't make eye contact with me. It would literally ruin my whole day. So, for years I dealt with the issue by never looking at people. I would look anywhere but at the cashier, to avoid getting my feelings hurt. As I grew older, and suffered through many inexplicably difficult and emotionally traumatic experiences in my life (including an unwanted horrible divorce in 2006 that destroyed my life), those afflictions changed me, helping me to grow thicker skin (so to speak). Psalms 119:67 and 71, "Before I was afflicted I went astray: but now have I kept thy word. ... It is good for me that I have been afflicted; that I might learn thy statutes. "

Today, decades later, most store cashiers refuse to make eye contact. I went to the CVS Pharmacy and Grocery Advantage stores yesterday, and neither cashier would make eye contact when they handed me my receipt. It doesn't offend me anymore, because now I understand why they won't make eye contact, to protect their own feelings from being hurt. It hurts the soul when you're having a happy day, and you look at someone at the checkout counter, and they diss you and then walk away. So, those cashiers have learned never to look at people, and that way they cannot be hurt. I understand why they do it.

But the reason I am writing this blog is to share with you something that I started doing that really helped me when I was younger. I started passing our Gospel tracts. I kept tracts in my pocket. So, whenever I looked at someone and they dissed me, and didn't let them get away with it, I said: "Excuse me, here is a Gospel tract that shows you how you can go to Heaven." Usually they looked at me and smiled, letting me know that it wasn't personal why they hadn't looked at me before, they either didn't want to get their own feelings hurt, or they were upset about something, having a bad day. But some of them still didn't look at me, even when I handed them a Gospel tract, but that'\s okay, because I had taken everything to a whole new level by sharing the Gospel with them, so that nothing bothered me after this. It worked!

I am a problem fixer by nature. I don't want to be the type of person who complains about everything, but never lifts a finger to change anything, to make things better. I kept forgetting things when I left the house. So, I took my small Craftsman tool pouch from Walmart, took all the tools out, and out all my car stuff inside instead. I religiously take that small red pouch with me whenever I drive anywhere. My MP3 player, some cash, phone, grocery shopping list and everything else that I will need stay in that bag, so I won't forget it. I still sometimes forget my phone, because I take it out of the bag, but I am working on solving that problem. I like to fix problems, not keeping making the same dumb mistakes umpteen times.

So, share the Gospel with others dear reader, and use that as a tool to cope with hurt feelings. Even if you are shy, you don't have to say a single word to hand someone a Gospel tract. I implore you to please stay away from using the free religious tracts (junk theology) from Billy Graham's website. Be careful about buying tracts on Amazon, or using anything that contains poisonous Lordship Salvation, or Misunderstood Repentance, et cetera. I recommend buying some tracts from the [1]Sword Of The Lord. Or perhaps you might want to write your own tract. I used Microsoft Publisher to [2]write my own tract, which is a trifold using a standard size sheet of paper. Whatever your burdens, issues and heartaches may be, take it all to a higher level dear friend, by passing out Gospel tracts to lost sinners. Live for others!

5.9.19 Chick Tracks' Statement Of Faith Contradicts Their Tracts (2024-09-30 09:34)

I am astounded how many professed Christians today couldn't care less about the accuracy of God's simple plan of salvation. The Apostle Paul felt the exact same way, as we just read. Paul was astonished how quickly the Galatian churches had deviated from the Gospel he had preached unto them (1st Corinthians 15:1-4), which he received directly from Jesus Christ (Galatians 1:12). Paul was amazed how easily they were led astray by false teachers.

The Pensacola Christian College (PCC) cult and their associated cult churches are pseudo-fundamentalists. They are false Christian fundamentalists! They all distribute [1]toxic Chick Tracts , which preach another gospel. Cartoon evangelist Jack Chick (1924-2016) errantly taught his entire ministry, that more than faith is required to get to Heaven. Mr. Chick added to God's simple plan of salvation, mandating that you also "Be willing to turn from sin," which he wrongly thought to mean Bible repentance. In truth, Mr. Chick mistook reformation (a change of behavior) for repentance (a change of mind). On the back page of every Chick Tract you will find his false plan of salvation.

As an example of a corrupt church, Smyrna Baptist Church in Pensacola shamefully promotes Jack Chick's false repentance and counterfeit gospel, which makes them partakers of his evil deeds (2nd John 1:11). Smyrna is very close to PCC, where [2]they also preach a counterfeit gospel . These are spiritually dangerous places, which everyone should run away from.

Like the PCC cult, the Chick Tracts organization are theological liars and deceivers! Look at their [3]Statement of Faith at Chick Tracts. Nowhere do they mention repentance! Nowhere do they teach on their website that you have to "Be willing to turn from sin" to get to Heaven. Yet, they teach these damnable heresies in all their Chick Tracts. Why the hypocrisy? Why the double standard? This sad FACT proves the owners of the Chick Tract ministry know that Jack Chick was WRONG on repentance, and thus WRONG on the Gospel.

In [4]over 1,000,000,000 religious Chick Tracts , which have been sold over the past 63 years since Mr. Chick wrote his first tract in 1961, a FALSE GOSPEL MESSAGE has been preached to the masses of the world, hindering lost sinners from being saved. They cannot wash the blood of over one billion people off their guilty hands by posting the true Gospel on their website, while continuing to preach a counterfeit gospel in Chick Tracts. God's curse is upon Jack Chick, and his accomplices at Chick Tracts, for corrupting the Gospel (Galatians 1:6-9).

Why don't Chick Tracts teach in their Statement of Faith that you must "Be willing to turn from sin"? Why is there a serious Double Standard in doctrine? Why don't they mention their belief about repentance in their ministry's Statement of Faith? They are indicting themselves by admitting their guilt! If there's nothing wrong with Chick Tracts, then why do they preach a DIFFERENT PLAN OF SALVATION on their website than they do in their Chick Tracts?

I am so sick and tired of being labeled as a troublemaker and banned from attending churches. The ungodly pastors of Campus Church at PCC banned me in 2022 from attending their church.

So, the hell with them! They mistreat me because I TELL THE TRUTH. I have been blocked by the jerks at PCC from even viewing their Facebook page, and also blocked by Campus Church's pastors from viewing their Facebook page. These wicked people are wolves in sheep's clothing. The PCC crowd couldn't care less about anyone except themselves, and their hundreds of millions of dollars in filthy lucre. RUN from this place!

People pick up real quick on whether they are loved or not in a church. I knew something was very wrong from the first few weeks I attended Smyrna Baptist Church in 2024, and Campus Church in 2021. In these ungodly institutions the system always comes first, but individual people do not matter. People are expendable. They're no more sincere than when Taylor Swift or Van Halen tell their fans how much they "love them," but they only love what the crowd does for them, they don't love them as individuals.

Likewise, the PCC cult love the indoctrinated crowd for the self-glorifying praise they give PCC's gods. Literally, PCC's leaders walk as gods among the people, because of the popular reputation of the college since they began in 1974. I learned a very long time ago that tyranny is rarely seen except by those who are oppressed by it. I clearly seen the tyranny at PCC. So does Samantha Field, Allen Armentrout and Peter Gage (all hurting and disgruntled PCC alumni). I love people. God knows my heart, but I hate corruption and evil. The Bible commands every believer to hate evil (Psalms 97:10). We ought never hate people.

Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do. Anyone who teaches that you must be willing to turn from your sins to get to Heaven is preaching another gospel, an accursed damnable lie. Dear reader, there is only one Gospel (Galatians 1:6). There has always been only one plan of salvation, which is through faith alone in Christ (Acts 10:43). Beware of the false prophets in today's religious circles, who are polluting the Gospel by embellishing it. It appeals to the carnal flesh that a man needs to make self atonement, clean up his behavior, depart from a sinful lifestyle, and follow Jesus as the Lord and Master of his life to get to Heaven. Such thinking makes sense to the unsaved man, but it is totally contrary to the inspired Scriptures.

I have nothing against Jack Chick. I grew up admiring his artwork. I loved Chick Tracts as a child and even as a young adult. But one day someone warned me about Chick Tracts, and showed me his false teaching. At first I was in denial for several months, refusing to turn against Mr. Chick, whom I had admired for so many years. But the seed of THE TRUTH had been planted in my soul. As a truth-telling preacher I had to make a decision about Chick Tracts. The blessed Holy Spirit was convicting my soul. I finally laid the axe to the root and I came to my senses, realizing that Jack Chick was simply WRONG about how to be saved.

It felt strange writing my first articles to expose [5]Jack Chick and his toxic false doctrine on repentance. But after some time passed, I saw clearly to continue contending for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints (Jude 1:3). The very fact that Chick Tracts preach a DIFFERENT plan of salvation on their website, than they do their Chick Tracts, speaks volumes. This is a classic example of loyalty to a man instead of loyalty to God and truth. The issue is not about Jack Chick; but rather, he preached another gospel that contradicted the Gospel presented in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4.

When the Philippian jailer asked Paul and Silas what he needed to do to be saved in Acts 16:30, their simple answer in verse 31 was to, "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved." They didn't tell the man to be willing to turn from his sins, follow Christ as Lord and Master, invite Jesus into his life, forsake a lifestyle of sin, get water baptized, speak in tongues, keep the Ten Commandments, repent of his sins, chew bubblegum, or anything other unbiblical stuff. They simply told him to BELIEVE ON JESUS.

So, why do so many preachers corrupt the Gospel? It is because they listen to other fools in the clergy, instead of studying the inspired Word of God as Jesus commanded (John 5:39; Acta 17:10-11). They follow the herd mentality instead of thinking independently for themselves. They are afraid to stand alone on their own two feet, so to appease their neo-evangelical friends in the ministry they go along to get along, for the sake of avoiding leaving their comfort zone.

I triple dog dare you to show me even one Bible verse that teaches to be willing to turn from your sins to get to Heaven. You cannot do it! Christ came into the world to die on a cross to pay our debt of sin with His precious shed blood (1st Peter 1:18-19), which He sprinkled on the Mercy Seat in Heaven when He ascended into Heaven (Hebrews 9:12, 22-24; 12:24).

5.10.1 Another Angry Student At Pensacola Christian College (2024-10-02 00:16)

Romans 16:17-18, “Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them. For they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple.”

The negative reviews about Pensacola Christian College keep coming, like a flow of pus oozing from a wound that won't heal. Drew nails it in the following review! PCC is superficial. The sermons are carefully scripted to coddle the students in their spiritual coma. There is nothing real, sincere or authentic about the place. PCC is a mere assembly line for neo-evangelical losers; a bunch of spoiled rich brats from self-righteous homes, and other kids who don't really want to be there. The sinful love of money is the name of the game at PCC, where the cult system always comes first but individual people do not matter. Here's the latest negative review on Google against PCC by another disgruntled alumnus. ...

Drew Clark (September 2024)

> This is NOT a place for true believers. It is full of very shallow and toxic people. People will shame you and exclude you for petty things like status and looks to make their friend groups "appear" more Christian. I also got accused by a fellow student of doing drugs for PARKING NEAR a cannabis store. They finally dropped the accusation when the student admitted lying about me. Everyone there either wants to rebel and doesn't care about the Lord or tries so hard to be the best looking Christian on the surface for likes on Insta or to impress their crush. The preaching here is mostly surface level to attract a broader audience (for tuition money), and not very practical for real life outside the bubble of the campus. Most of the people there are either spoiled rich kids who were forced to go by their parents and don't care about serving the Lord, or homeschoolers who are very behind in social skills and embrace drama like its high school on steroids.

Amen and amen! Drew took the words right out of my mouth. The people at PCC are toxic! The sanctimonious hateful self-righteous environment at PCC is toxic! PCC is a religious cult!

What is happening is that 99 % of the churches and Bible colleges today are carnal. That is, they are full of carnally-minded people. They enforce the LETTER of the law (rules and strictness), but without the SPIRIT of the law (which is love). 2nd Corinthians 3:6 says the letter killeth, but the spirit giveth life. Pensacola Christian College (PCC) enforces the letter (tons of rules), but without any love or compassion. That is what we happening in most churches, religious colleges and homes today. Hatred begets more hatred.

The New IFB movement (New Independent Fundamental Baptist) are full of hatred for people. They hate the LGBTQ community. They are so hateful that their own adult children are turning against them. Children who are exposed to the letter of the law without love will rebel at some point. From homes to churches to Bible colleges, there is a woeful lack of love today.

5.10.2 You Will Never Be "Well Adjusted" Without Faith In God (2024-10-06 11:34)

Isaiah 26:3, "Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee: because he trusteth in thee."

Isaiah 48:22, " There is no peace, saith the LORD, unto the wicked. "

2nd Timothy 1:7, " For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind."

In an interview recently, heard rock band Van Halen's infamous lead singer David Lee Roth (born 1954 in Bloomington, Indiana) answer the question why he never got married. David's answer was simply that, "

I am not well adjusted.

I thought that was a very honest answer. So, I got to thinking, what exactly does it mean to be a well adjusted person? I looked at various websites, but one in particular caught my attention at Psychology Today . I mean, these are the so-called in human behavior, right? They have earned degrees in psychology. They've all attended heathenistic, atheistic, evolutionistic, humanistic, secular universities to earn their degrees. Here is a quote from their website...

> A new [1]paper published in Frontiers in Psychology attempts to define an important yet elusive term in positive psychology: psychological balance. According to the researchers, it has to do with the degree to which someone is able to possess a consistent yet flexible outlook on life while also knowing how to spend the right amount of time taking care of oneself versus others.
>
> "In the literature, absence of psychopathology infers psychological balance, which is associated with psychological continuity across time and an ability to cope with daily challenges," say the authors, led by Anastasia Besika of the University of Zurich in Switzerland. "In spite of [...] a strong association between psychological balance and well-being, investigations of how an individual remains psychologically stable in a constantly changing environment are missing."
>
> To fill the gap, the researchers constructed a model of psychological balance containing, at its center, the following 10 value domains: Self-direction (e.g., "I decide about which way my life goes")

> 1. Self-direction (e.g., "I decide about which way my life goes")
> 2. Stimulation (e.g., "I am open to discovering new things in life")
> 3. Hedonism (e.g., "I can enjoy life to the fullest")
> 4. Achievement (e.g., "I strive to do my best and succeed in what I do")
> 5. Power (e.g., "I strive to gain resources and influence over others")
> 6. Security (e.g., "I want to be safe wherever I am")
> 7. [2]Conformity (e.g., "I follow social rules out of respect for others")
> 8. Tradition (e.g., "I follow ideas of my culture or religion")

9. Benevolence (e.g., “I care about my family, friends, and other people”)
10. Universalism (e.g., “I care about all things on the planet”)

> “All of the 10 universal values are important and they all influence psychological balance to a different degree,” says Besika. ...

As a born again Christian, I couldn’t help but notice right away that they left out God completely. I chose a few Bible passages of hundreds that I could have cited for our text. Isaiah 26:3, “Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee: because he trusteth in thee.” Apart from faith in God, no one can have perfect peace. No matter how well-adjusted you may be as a person, you will be a mess spiritually without God.

I also noticed (as you will find is true of all secular psychologists), they didn’t mention the reality and problem of sin. Isaiah 48:22, “ There is no peace, saith the LORD, unto the wicked. ” A person who is unsaved, or saved but living in wickedness, will never have any peace. I have known plenty of saints during my lifetime who strayed away from God and ended up ruining their lives, and other people’s lives too. I could name a handful of Christians I have known personally who commit suicide. Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) was correct that anybody is capable of committing any sin under the right circumstances. That is why years ago I chose as my favorite Bible verse Proverbs 4:23,

Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life.”

> “Don’t you ever let your guard down!” —Pastor Jack Hyles
>
> “I do not think I’ve ever seen fundamentalists as carnal as I do now.” —Pastor Jack Hyles, “[4]What Blocks You From The Spirit Filled Life?”
>
> “A strong pulpit is the safeguard to a nation’s life” —Pastor Jack Hyles, “[5]The Importance Of Preaching”

You’ll never be well-adjusted if you choose to live a life of rebellion against your Creator. Happiness begins with fearing God, to obey His Word in the Holy Bible. Ecclesiastes 12:13, “Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man.” I am not being unkind, God knows my heart. I do humbly think that some people need psychiatric help. I heard Dr. Jack Hyles say that, and I fully agree with him. Some people need medications to help them cope with mental illness. However, I also humbly think that most of our mental issues in society are caused by rebellion against God’s Word. Pastor Max Younce addresses this subject...

Human Wisdom Versus Divine Wisdom
(Pastor Max D. Younce)

I mentioned singer David Lee Roth at the beginning of my article. I feel sorry for Mr. Roth. He has no wife, no children and no grandchildren. I am sadly divorced (not by my own choice). My former wife abandoned me in 2006. I regret ever meeting her, because she quit and left me alone. I haven't been blessed to meet a woman to remarry for the past 18 years. I will very likely live alone for the rest of my sad life. But God is good and I am by his grace going to continue preaching the Gospel, contending for the faith, and making a difference for Christ. I give God ALL the praise and credit, for without Jesus I can do nothing (John 15:5).

Having said that, at least I was once married. At least I have four children and seven grandchildren. So, I've been there and done that, so to speak. I feel sorry for a guy like David Roth, who has no family of his own. When he sings Van Halen's popular song, "Running With The Devil," he really is giving his own autobiography

. It is so sad and tragic. David's life will soon be over. He is 69 years old. Unless he repents of his unbelief to trust in Jesus Christ before he dies, Hell will be David's eternal doom. God loves Mr. Roth and doesn't want him to go to Hell, but the Lord won't force anyone to get saved (2nd Peter 3:9).

Tragically, I am 100 % convinced that Eddie Van Halen (1955-2020) went to Hell forever, since he was a devout Roman Catholic (his brother Alex is an ordained Catholic minister, go figure). There is no salvation in keeping the Seven Sacraments of Catholicism, which is a prisonhouse of religion. Salvation is found only by faith in Jesus Christ (Galatians 3:26), apart from all works (Romans 4:5-7; Ephesians 2:8-9).

I didn't write this blog to criticize David Lee Roth, not at all. David just got me thinking when I heard him say that he is " not well adjusted,

which is why he never got married. I don’t think anyone is a complete package. As humans we all have weaknesses, areas in our character that need improvement, sinful tendencies and Skelton Closets. We’ve all done things that we’re not proud of. I am the biggest sinner I know, so I am not looking down on David Lee Roth or anyone else. I don’t want to be a religious Pharisee (Matthew 7:1-5). We all deserve to go straight to Hell forever (Romans 3:10-23). I am at best a redeemed sinner.

I wrote this blog to emphasize the biblical truth that the ONLY way to become a well adjusted person starts with faith in God. Mark 11:22, “

And Jesus answering saith unto them, Have faith in God.

” The fear of God is the beginning of wisdom. It bothers me that Psychology Today looks at ten different aspects of our human character to determine who is “well balanced,” none of which include faith (which is effectively obedience) to God.

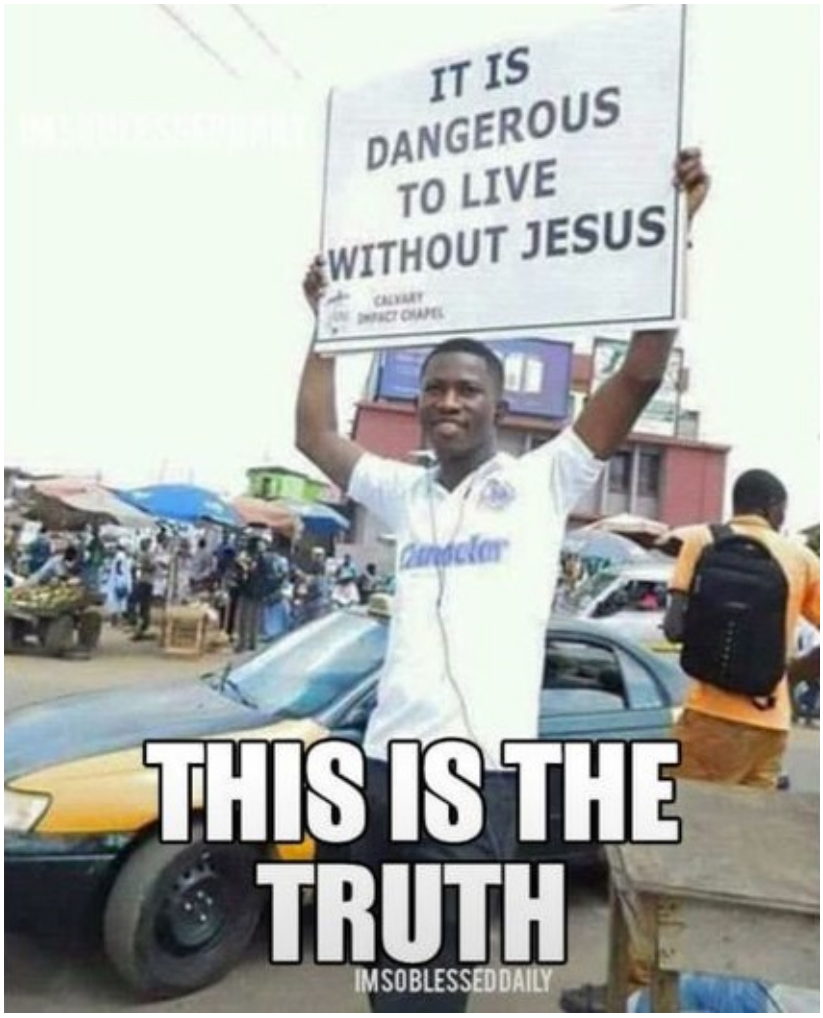
John 3:36, “He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him.” Dear reader, if you have not yet by faith (trust, reliance) received Jesus Christ as your personal Savior, accepting His sacrifice on the cross as full payment for your sins, believing that He raised up physically from the dead, as your only hope for Heaven, then God’s wrath abides upon you continually.

If you are not born again, you are still in the boat of the wicked. If you died this moment in your sins friend, you’d plunge forever into the fires and brimstone of Hell beneath (Revelation 21:8). This is the truthful message that every psychologist should be telling their patients! If they did so, they’d lose their license and get sued for malpractice. This simply evidences how far away from God this world has become. When an impressionable student goes to university to train to become a psychologist, the concept of sin is never introduced or taught to them. They don’t learn about how sin destroys people’s lives.



You see, in the inspired Scripture the homosexual deathstyle is a sinful abomination to God (Leviticus 20:13). The LGBTQ community have perverted the Holy Bible (Romans 1:25), in a wicked futile attempt to lessen and justify their sins. Job 20:5 tells us that the triumph of the wicked, and the joy of the hypocrite is but for a moment. The LGBTQ community are accursed by God almighty, awaiting judgment (Romans 1:24-32). No one ever escapes God’s scrutiny, judgment and wrath (Hebrews 4:13), except through faith in Jesus Christ (Romans 5:9). Even as saints, we still have to give account for the good and bad done in the body (2nd Corinthians 5:10-11). We will all be judged as individuals by almighty God (Romans 14:10-12; Ecclesiastes 12:14).

A truly well-adjusted person takes care of themselves spiritually, emotionally and physically. God is a threefold being: God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit. Mankind was created in God’s threefold image. Man is comprised of: spirit soul and body. Psychologists only focus on the body and soul, ignoring the spiritual. If they do delve into anything spiritual, it is only in a secular sense, but woefully lacking any biblical truth. Yet, true psychology is the study of the soul and absolutely MUST deal with one’s relationship to God, sin and the Holy Bible. Sadly, most people have a strong relationship with the sins in their life, but rarely if ever read the inspired King James Bible (all modern Bible revisions are corrupt).

A well-balanced person is right with God, both in POSITION as God’s redeemed child; and in their CONDITON, living in holiness as God’s commands (1st Peter 1:15-16). From living a wicked lifestyle of fornication, nerve-racking heavy metal rock music, chronic substance abuse and blasphemy against God, I can easily see how David Lee Roth's life became unbalanced. It's still not too late for "Diamond Dave" as Roth is well known by his fans. But the moment when David Lee Roth breathes his last breath, it will be too late for him to repent (change his mind) to trust Jesus as his personal Savior. I hope and pray that he does get saved.

5.10.3 Modern Bibles Do Woeful Injustice Removing “Imputation” (2024-10-10 14:27)

Romans 4:5-6, “But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness. Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works, Saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered.”

The same Greek word for “counted” in verse 5 is used for “

in verse 6. So, we can use those words interchangeably. You could say in verse 5 that a man’s faith is IMPUTED for righteousness by faith. And you could say in verse 6 that God counts righteousness to a man without works. They are the same words in meaning. What a beautiful truth!

The theological word (and biblical word as well)

impute,

” is a tremendously important doctrine. It conveys the idea of a Great Transfer, where our sins are counted to Christ by faith, and His righteousness is counted to us by faith. This is what the Bible means in 2nd Corinthians 5:21, “For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him.”

Now, with this foundational truth in mind, it will help you to understand what is so wrong with the Devil’s modern Bible perversions, which completely removes the concept of imputation by removing the word “impute” from the Bible. For example:

> EASY ENGLISH BIBLE (EASY) - Romans 4:5-6,
>
>
> But someone may believe in God. He does not work to cause God to accept him. God accepts that person because of their faith. God says that people who have turned away from him are right with him, if they trust him. That is God’s gift to them. David also wrote about the same thing. He describes those people that God has accepted as right with himself. God has not accepted them because they have done good things, but as his gift to them. David tells us how happy people like that are.
>

> EASY TO READ VERSION (ERV) - Romans 4:5-6, “
>
> But people cannot do any work that will make them right with God. So they must trust in him. Then he accepts their faith, and that makes them right with him. He is the one who makes even evil people right. David said the same thing when he was talking about the blessing people have when God accepts them as good without looking at what they have done:

KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) - Romans 4:5-6, “But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness. Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works, Saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered.”

The word “imputation” is legal word used in the courtroom.

According to the LAW DICTIONARY:

As used in legal phrases, this word means attributed vicariously; that is, an act, fact, or quality is said to be “imputed” to a person when it is ascribed or charged to him, not because he is personally cognizant of it or responsible for it, but because another person is, over whom he has control or for whose acts or knowledge he is responsible. Imputed knowledge. [emphasis added] [1]SOURCE

Did you understand that? When you get saved by trusting Christ, He is now fully responsible for your sins! The word “

imputation

means that Jesus Christ paid our debt of sin, so that God can impute (count) Jesus’ goodness to us by faith. By removing the word from the modern Bible revisions, they have removed the basis for which God can attribute righteousness to us without works by faith, because JESUS PAID IT ALL!!!

God does not merely credit righteousness to you without works. If Christ hadn’t sacrificed His life on the cross, and shed His precious blood and sprinkled that blood on the heavenly Mercy Seat, then God couldn’t count any righteousness to us by faith.

5.10.4 People Are Such Ungodly Hypocrites (2024-10-11 15:37)

1st Kings 18:17-18, " And it came to pass, when Ahab saw Elijah, that Ahab said unto him, Art thou he that troubleth Israel? And he answered, I have not troubled Israel; but thou, and thy father's house, in that ye have forsaken the commandments of the LORD, and thou hast followed Baalim."

The prophet Elijah was known around Israel by wicked people as a " troublemaker.

” You see, when a Bible preacher tells THE TRUTH—that homosexuality is a sin, abortion is first degree murder, feminism is Satanic rebellion, Lordship Salvation is damnable heresy, repentance to get to Heaven doesn’t mean to be willing to give up your sinful bad habits, sex outside of a legal marriage is the sin of fornication, divorce is wicked and stealing is a sin, et cetera—ungodly people consider him a TROUBLEMAKER!

There’s not a more infamous Bible preacher today than Pastor Steven Anderson. I certainly don’t agree with all his views, but I am on his side because he is on God’s side. Brother Anderson has been under relentless Satanic attack for many years by the world because of his tough preaching against sin, particularly his biblical stand against the wickedness of homosexuality. The Devil’s crowd have ruthlessly taken control over the newsmedia, the entertainment industry, the government and even the churches, to promote their demonic homosexual agenda. This is all being done deliberately to subvert America’s families, to prepare the world to receive the coming Man of Sin (Antichrist, or “in place of Christ”

).

I watched a video this week by one of Pastor Anderson’s enemies, who condemned Brother Anderson for allowing a man to attend his Faithful Word Baptist Church who allegedly is a convicted former rapist. Another hateful critic condemned Pastor Anderson for having a man in his church who was convicted years ago for beating his wife. But dear reader, where are these sinful people supposed to go to church? What hypocrites! Pastor Anderson’s enemies are talking utter nonsense. Are they literally saying that once someone is convicted of a horrible crime (and those are horrible crimes), that they can never attend church again? Yes, that is exactly what they are saying, which is insanity.

Dear reader, everyone is a wicked sinner! I am a wicked sinner, and so are you. If you think that you are less of a guilty sinner in God’s sight, then you are woefully deceived. What saith the Scripture? James 2:10, “For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all.” The Bible teaches that even if you commit just one sin, you are disqualified for membership in Heaven. The only other place you can spend eternity is burning in the fires and brimstone (sulfur) of Hell beneath. It’s Heaven or Hell friend, nothing in between. Life is short, Hell is hot and eternity is a long time. [1]Have you been born again?

I didn’t write this article to address the recent attacks against our brother in Christ (if you are saved). I wrote this blog today to teach everyone that every local New Testament church should be a hospital for sinners. You don’t get better before going to the hospital; you go when you are sick and hurting terribly, to get the help you need. How crazy it is then, to scold a pastor for welcoming convicted criminals and guilty sinners into his church flock. Let me tell you dear friend, in case you don’t already know, you are just as much a rotten, filthy, dirty, guilty, Hell-deserving, sinner as anyone else!

The ONLY thing that makes you or me any more righteous than serial killers’ John Wayne Gacy, Jeffrey Dahmer and Ted Bundy is the precious shed blood of Christ that washed our sins away, the moment we trusted Jesus as our personal Savior (1st Peter 1:18-19). For me that was in 1980 at age 13 in an old-fashioned Baptist church on Chicago’s northside. The pastor preached the Gospel that morning and I believed it and was saved.

For anyone to criticize Pastor Anderson (or any pastor) for allowing a repentant former rapist, child molester, homosexual, wife beater or even somebody like you dear reader, to be a member of the church, is 100 % biblical. 1st Corinthians 6:11a, “And such were some of you: but ye are washed...” We are all horrible guilty sinner (Romans 3:19-20). The Bible says even liars deserve to go to Hell forever (Revelation 21:8). You only have to tell one lie to become “ a liar.

” And as we just read in James 2:10, committing just one sin makes us guilty of violating all sins. The reason is simply because committing even one sin makes us flawed and sinful, which excludes us from being worthy to enter into Heaven.

Obviously then, NO ONE is worthy to enter into Heaven, because we all have Skelton Closets. So, how then can anyone go to Heaven? The answer is very simple friend, we need God’s righteousness, which we can only obtain through imputation. I love that biblical word. That’s another reason why I detest and reject all modern Bible revisions, because they completely remove the word and in so doing eliminate the beautiful doctrine of imputation. ...

Imputeth,

> Romans 4:3-7, “For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness.
>
> Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt.
>
> But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.
>
> Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works,
>
> Saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered.

What is imputation? It simply means that God credits your sins to Jesus by faith, and He credits Jesus (God’s) righteousness to you by faith. The moment that you trust Jesus—receiving His sacrifice on the cross as full payment for your sins, believing that He was buried, but then resurrected physically three days later—God credits all your sins to Christ, and all His righteousness on you. It’s that simple. The Greek word for “counted” in Romans 4:5 is the SAME exact Greek word as is used for “

in verse 6. They are the SAME word, so you can interchange counted

“

with

“

imputeth,

because they mean the same thing. That is such a beautiful truth! What a wonderful and merciful God we have!!!

When I hear some fool, criticizing a Christian who did some terrible wicked things 20, 30 or 40 years ago, still berating and condemning and tearing that person down, I know that the critic is not right with God. That person is hateful. Proverbs 10:12, "Hatred stirreth up strifes: but love covereth all sins." Proverbs 16:27, "An ungodly man diggeth up evil: and in his lips there is as a burning fire." You're never more like the Devil in character than when you accuse Christians, for Satan in the Scripture is called "the accuser of our brethren" (Revelation 12:10b).

I am a friend of Dave Hyles (Pastor Jack Hyles' only biological son) and his 'Fallen In Grace' ministry. I know Dr. Hyles up in Heaven is proud of Dave for hanging in there, serving God with the broken pieces of his life, which is 100 % biblical. Dave admits publicly that he did some wicked things over 40 years ago, for which his name and reputation has been irreparably tarnished. Yet, the man has repented of his sins, failures and shortcomings.

And yet, there are wicked hateful people galore who hate that man's guts, and won't leave the skeletons alone. Critics dig up and turn over every rock, hoping to find more ammunition to condemn and destroy him. The truth is that they won't be satisfied until Dave Hyles is either dead or locked in a cage for the rest of his life. That is wicked and wrong! That is hatred.

I've read endless comments on social media from people who are angry that Dave Hyles would even dare to have a ministry helping fallen pastors and clergy. Who better for that job than a fallen preacher himself? Dave has found the perfect ministry, helping others. I am not saying that I approve of his past sins and failures, God forbid. But dear reader, you are just as wicked as any other sinner. The only difference is that you didn't get caught. That is why the Bible says in 1st Timothy 5:24, "

Some men's sins are open beforehand, going before to judgment; and some men they follow after.

" We already know what many of Dave Hyles' sins are, but we're going to learn about your sins too in eternity. That is what the Bible teaches! No one can hide their sins forever (Hebrews 4:13; 10:31).

If a former convicted rapist attends your church, you ought to thank and praise God that he is going to church at all, and not condemn him. The Bible is very clear in this matter. When a man and woman in the church at Corinth were shacking up in fornication, the Apostle Paul rebuked them for allowing the sinful situation to go unchecked. Per Paul's instruction, the church elders confronted the man, ready to kick him out unless he repented to stop living in open sin. The man repented and cleaned up his life.

In 2nd Corinthians 2:7, Paul tells the church to forgive and befriend the repentant man, lest he be overwhelmed with grief, and perhaps commit suicide. If it weren't for God's wondrous grace, I can think of many Christians who went into grievous sin and were publicly humiliated, who might have killed themselves because of people's unwillingness to forgive and welcome them back into the church family. The Christian army is the only army in the world that kills its wounded.

If the shoe fits, wear it! I hope you haven't been one of the self-righteous hateful critics on social media, who refuse to let someone's past sins and bad choices go. We're all flesh and blood. We're all woeful dirty sinners. We all need God's saving grace, apart from which there is no hope. I am going to love everyone with God's unconditional love. If you know of something wicked that a person has done, and they've paid the price for their evil deed, let it go. I believe everyone deserves a second chance, and a third, and a fourth, et cetera.

Please understand that I am not saying to overlook crime. If someone has done something illegal, but they've never been caught and punished by the law, that's a whole different matter. I'm not talking about that. I'm talking about someone who has paid the price for their past sins and bad decisions, and they are trying their best to start a new life. If a man raped a woman and was convicted for it in a court of law, and he went to prison to be punished for his crime, then it's time to let it go. We have no biblical, ethical nor moral right to continue to condemn that sinner. No one has a right to condemn anyone, lest we be condemned also (Matthew 7:1-5). God is the only eternal Judge (James 4:12).

May we all learn to love, forgive and give others the benefit of the doubt, who messed up in the past, but today are sincerely trying to do better. I am not talking about trust. Trust is something that must be earned, and once lost may never be regained. That's a different matter. I'm talking about letting sinners come to church, to hear the Bible preached and so they can sing the great hymns of the faith, without being shunned and condemned by self-righteous hypocrites. Everyone has a right to come to church. When any church bans cooperative and repentant people from attending, that is a cult!

Thank you for reading my blog.

Thank you for writing this.

5.10.5 I Recorded The Irish Reel, “Green Gates” This Week (2024-10-14 01:17)

I finished making a new backing track yesterday for the tune, "Green Gates." It’s [1]an old popular Irish reel. I recorded along with the track, to share it with everyone. I hope you like it. I’m playing my Deering Calico banjo. I enjoy playing this song on the 5-string banjo.

[2]Green Gates

(I’m playing my Deering Calico banjo)

Here is the [3]new backing track that I made of "Green Gates." I used MIDI for the bass and drums. I am playing an Eastman 505CC mandolin and Cort acoustic guitar.

Thank you for listening!

Below is one of my favorite musicians, Dave Hum (1966-2012). Dave lived in Salisbury, England. He died of bone/blood cancer in 2012. He recorded [4]219 beautiful banjo videos and posted them to YouTube, if you’re interested.

5.10.6 Our Great God And Savior Knows What Is Best (2024-10-15 13:54)

I asked for strength,

And God gave me difficulties to make me strong;

I asked for wisdom,

And God gave me problems to solve;

I asked for courage,

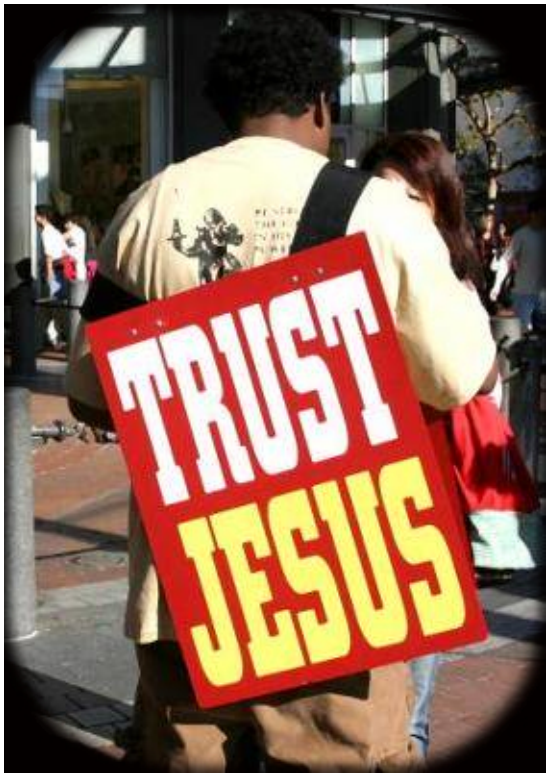
And God gave me dangers to overcome;

I asked for patience,

And God placed me in situations where I was forced to wait;

I asked for love,

And God gave me troubled people to help;



I asked for favors,

And God gave me opportunities.

I asked for everything so I could enjoy life, instead He gave me life so I could enjoy everything;

I received nothing that I wanted, but I received everything that I needed.

5.10.7 Simp Husbands, Rebellious Wives And Teenage Punks (2024-10-17 12:48)

I listened top this tremendous sermon today by Pastor Steven Anderson, that I'd like for everybody to hear...

[1]2 Chronicles 23: Simp Husbands, Rebellious Wives, and Teenage Punks - OCTOBER 16, 2024

I agree 200 % with Pastor Steven Anderson. We have a serious problem with authority in America. I wish to God that divorce was illegal in America, but it's sadly legal. We live in a sordid society of rebellious, loud-mouthed, stubborn, contention, wives! A wife should obey because God commands her to, not because her husband earns her respect. A husband is commanded by God to love his wife, whether she submits to him or not. This is just the way it has to be. REBELLION IS DESTROYING AMERICA!

To God be the glory!

5.10.8 Where Is The America? (2024-10-19 10:18)

These edifying words were written by Pastor Max D. Younce’s (1935-2023) wife, [1]Marjorie A. Younce...

Where is the America?

The land of our youth?

When a handshake was your bond,

And every man spoke truth.

When each life was precious,
And to abort a child unheard,
We viewed them as God’s gift
To nurture with God’s Word.

We were free to bear arms
Our home-fires to defend,
And preach the Gospel freely
In the churches we attend.

Every man could have a job,
And kept his honest gain.
Not given to those who shirk,
So a hand out they obtain.

"One nation under God"
Was pledged in every school.
"In God we trust" on our money
Was the legal tender rule.

We felt a lump in our throat
To see Old Glory passing by.
We saluted with hand over heart
As she waved against the sky.

We stood to sing our national anthem.
From each word our freedom rings.
We respected all for which it stands,
And the pride in country that it brings.

When one man and one woman
The marriage vows would say.
They promised before God and man
To love, honor, and obey.

When people knew the power of prayer
Would uplift them through their day.
With God’s Word to guide their steps,
It was hard to go astray.

When leaders went to Washington,
They went to work on our behalf.
Not seeking the power and prestige,
Which has become the golden calf.

Where is the America,
The land of our youth?
When a handshake was your bond,
And every man spoke truth.

The America of today,
Is a very different place.
We must be politically correct,
No matter what we face.

We've taken prayer out of schools,
We must not mention God by name,
Lest we offend some atheist; or,
Set some terrorist's thoughts aflame!

You'd probably be expelled,
If you took a Bible to school!
Read instead "Rules for Radicals,"
And learn to instigate mob rule.

The immoral life of free love's not free,
And without the benefit of marriage,
Innocent children will pay the price,
In the resulting abortion carnage!

Criminals are viewed as victims,
And judges turn them loose.
The law does not arrest them.
Actually, what's the use?

But even in this wicked world,
Christians have a job to do.
As in the wicked days of Rome,
The Gospel can still shine through.

"But as we were allowed of God,"
To have the gospel trust,
"As good soldiers of Jesus Christ," Endure the hardness, we must!

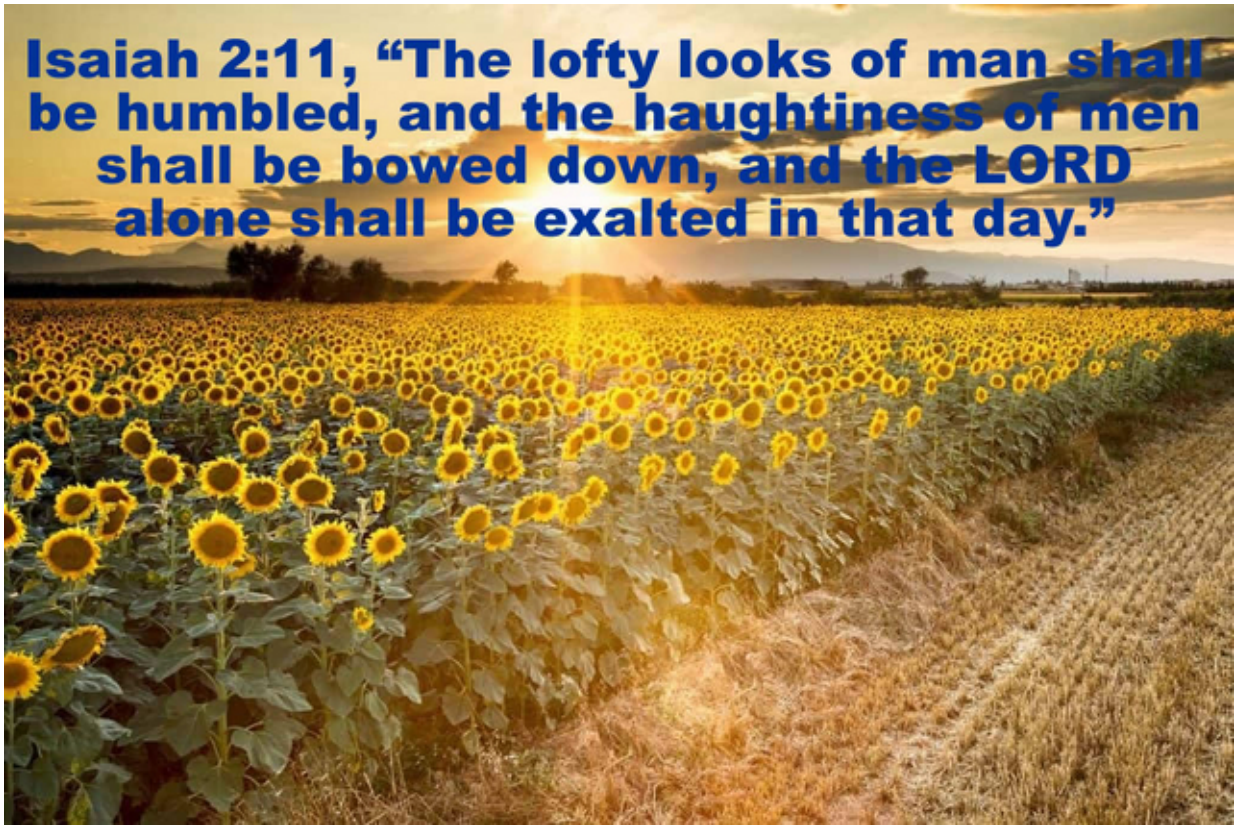
"For God so loved the world,"
Even the America of today,
And He gave His Son upon the Cross,
Their price for sin to pay.

If they believe Christ died for them,
God promised "They will never perish,"
He will give them "everlasting life,"
And a home in Heaven to cherish.

God's Righteousness At Christ's expense,
Gives us an Eternity without end.

A gift that simply can’t be earned.
You must take it by faith, my Friend.



The America of our youthful days,
Seems now forever gone.
But, don’t look back at Sodom!
Look forward and move on.

"Press toward the prize of the upward call,"
For there is no retreat from this fight!
"The days of perilous times have come";
And Jesus may come tonight!

I Shall See Him, Christ My Savior

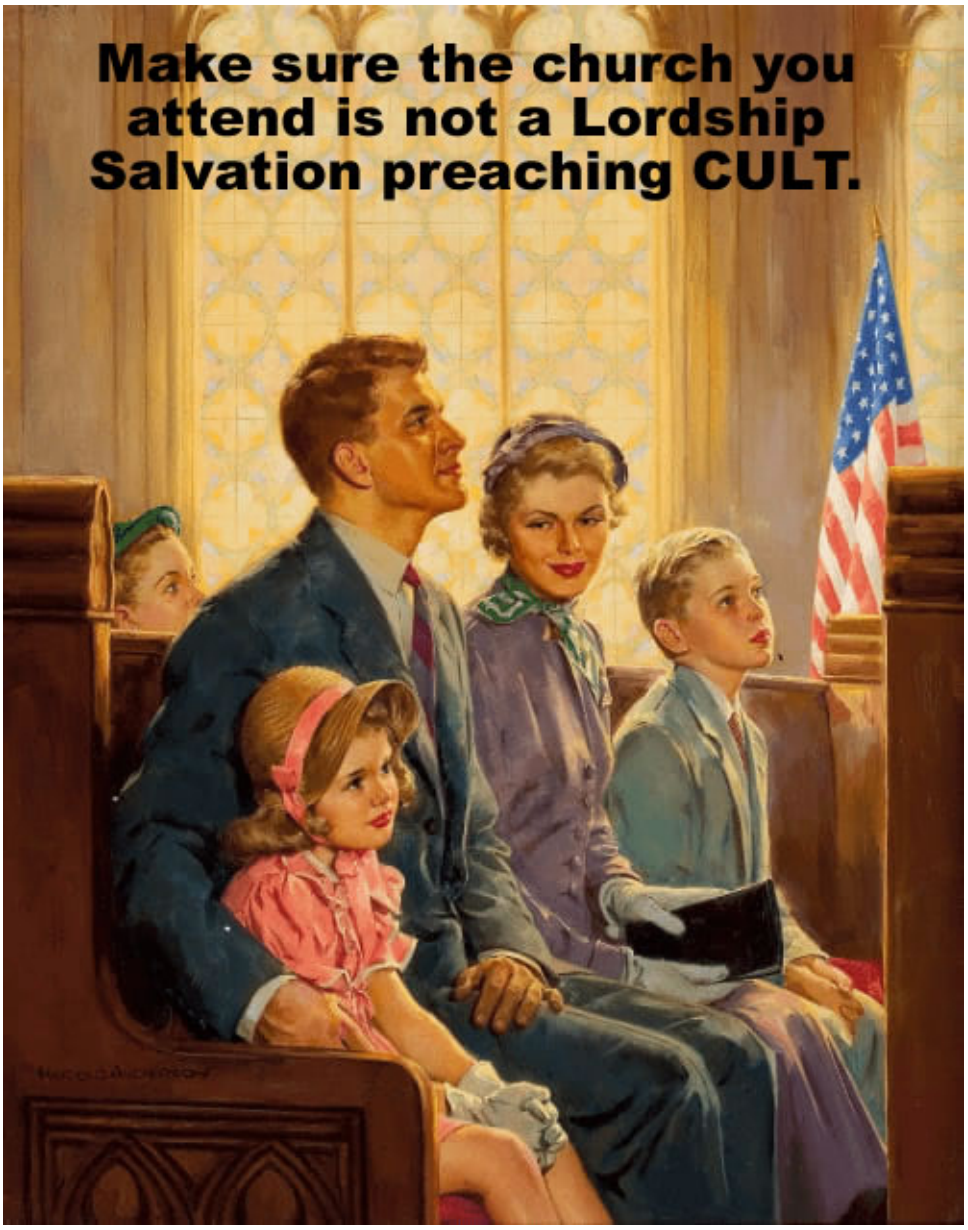
5.10.9 Something Women Don’t Understand About Men (2024-10-23 14:08)



I found this helpful advice today on one of my Christian friend’s Facebook page and thought it was great to share...

> LADIES PLEASE TAKE NOTE!!!!!
>
> Men attend to Women for two reasons, SEX, and LOVE, but in most cases, men do not Marry for Sex or for Love, they marry for STABILITY.
>
> Let me explain:
>
> A man can Love you and not Marry you. A man can have sex with you for years without marrying you. But immediately he finds someone who brings stability in his life, he marries her.
>
> What I mean by Stability is "Peace of Mind" I have seen some guys who made this statement "I love this lady but I don’t think I can spend the rest of my life with her." Men are visionaries when they think about marriage, they do not think about wedding dresses, bridesmaids, anything that most Ladies thinks is fanciful.

They think whether this woman can build me a home. Can she take care of my kids and I? Can she give me PEACE of mind? Men don't like Ladies who gives them discomfort. This is why a man can stay with a woman for years and meet another in a month, then get married to her instead.

It's the comfort of having, Peace of Mind, that they want. Sex is a pleasure, love is an affection, RESPECT is Stability.

5.10.10 Adultery Is A Heinous Crime Punishable By God's Law (2024-10-25 11:47)

Job 31:9-11, "If mine heart have been deceived by a woman, or if I have laid wait at my neighbour's door; Then let my wife grind unto another, and let others bow down upon her. For this is an heinous crime; yea, it is an iniquity to be punished by the judges."

I learned something new from Pastor Steven Anderson today, which I hadn't seen before in the Scripture. We all know that adultery is a horrible sin, but the inspired Holy Bible actually calls adultery a "HEINOUS CRIME" and says it should be a punishable crime in a court of law by the judges.

Job 31:9-11, "If mine heart have been deceived by a woman, or if I have laid wait at my neighbour's door; Then let my wife grind unto another, and let others bow down upon her. For this is an heinous crime; yea, it is an iniquity to be punished by the judges*."

[1]Outside Your Jurisdiction
(if this video goes dead, click on the above Rumble link instead)

Tragically, adultery is widely practiced in our wicked American cuoture today. Adulterous Hollywood actors and producers make adulterous movies to inspire adulterous people. Never before In America's history have we seen such a flagrant disregard for biblical morality and standards. I love God and am thankful that He is a holy, good and faithful Creator! I am trusting in His only begotten (biological) Son, Jesus, who is the promised Christ in whom we have eternal life through faith in His shed blood (1st Peter 1:18-19; Romans 5:9; Revelation 1:5). God is so good!!!

The old adage is very true: An ounce of prevention is worth one pound of cure. Filthy communication leads to filthy living! Dirty talk leads to dity behavior. As God's redeemed children we should all carefully guard against listening to or repeating dirty jokes, looking at ir sharing indecent images, and giving credence to anything that is immoral and wrong. I cringe when I hear men telling dirty innappropriate jokes. I hate filthy talk!

It can be extremely difficult in a group of men to take a stand and tell them kindly that you don't want to hear their filth. But if we start taking a stand, in time we will gain boldness to walk away. We don't want to make enemies, especially at work, so we sometimes find our selves in difficult situations. Another helpful old adage comes to mind: Perfect practice makes perfect. We should at a minimum make some type of effort to avoid hearing and repeating gossip, dirty jokes and slander. It's not always easy or even possible to avoid hearing siuch horrible things, but not repeating them is much easier if we love the Lord.

I am of the firm belief that no married person ought ever be alone with someone of the oppossite sex to whom they are not legally married. Nor should two unmarried people ever casually talk about sexual matters, including engaged couples. Filthy communication opens the door to sin. 1st Corinthians 15:33, "Be not deceived: evil communications corrupt good manners."

By taking simple precautionary steps, adultery can be avoided. I heard court testimony from a man who brutally murdered his best friend, to steal his wife. He testified to the court (as part of a plea agreement), that it all began when he and his best friend's wife were alone in a car, talking about sex. He admitted to the court that they were talking about sexual matters that no two unmarried people should ever be talking about, and he is absolutely correct!

A few years ago I watched a couple hundred of the 400 episodes of the popular Tv series Forensic Files. You can watch them for free on Roku, Live Tv, YouTube and other venues. I closely paid attention to the small details that led to major crimes being committed, mainly murder. In nearly every case someone began their downward spiral by drinking booze, going to a Strip Club, a married person flirting with someone to whom they were not married, stealing, dressing immodestly, et cetera. Small sins often lead to bigger sins!

No one merely wakes up one day and decides to go murder someone! Behind every tragdedy in human character is a slow process of wicked thinking. Many sexual predators testify in court that they were sexual abused as children. Abuse often begets further abuse! The human condition is toxic. Jesus taught in Matthew 24:12 that when evil goes unpunished (iniquity) in a society, many people become hardened to the needs of others, and their love is quenched. Matthew 24:12,

"And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold." Although Jesus is specifically speaking about conditions during the coming Tribulation period, this truth applies universally to humanity in every generation. Whenever sin is allowed to flourish and crime goes unpunished, things only get much worse (Ecclesiastes 8:11; Jeremiah 7:10-11).

Thousands of online dating websites and services openly allow, promote and support committing adultery, sanctioned by both federal and state governments. Why hasn't our lawmakers and leaders gone after these wicked sinners to shut them down? Why does YouTube openly allow and promote lewdness, indecent images and pornography? Why does our government look the other way, while social media companies censore God-fearing Christians and conservatives, while empowering liberals, kooks and criminals? Truly, Satan is the god of this world (2nd Corinthians 4:4).

The Devil wants everybody committing woeful sins. Jesus warned that the Devil only comes to kill, steal and destroy (John 10:10). Satan knows if he can get young people to start committing sexual sins, he has taken control over their life and has ruined them! If you doubt that there is a Satanic plot to recruit your child, you [2]NEED TO SEE THIS ABOUT TAYLOR SWIFT!!! Miss Swift belongs in prison for corrupting children! If a pastor and church did this, making sexually immoral videos targeted at children like Taylor Swift does, the media would go ballistic! What evil hypocrities!!! Thankfully, no one can escape God's judgment (Hebrews 4:13). The hypocrities will give account to God (Job 20:5; Ecclesiastes 12:14; Matthew 7:1-5).

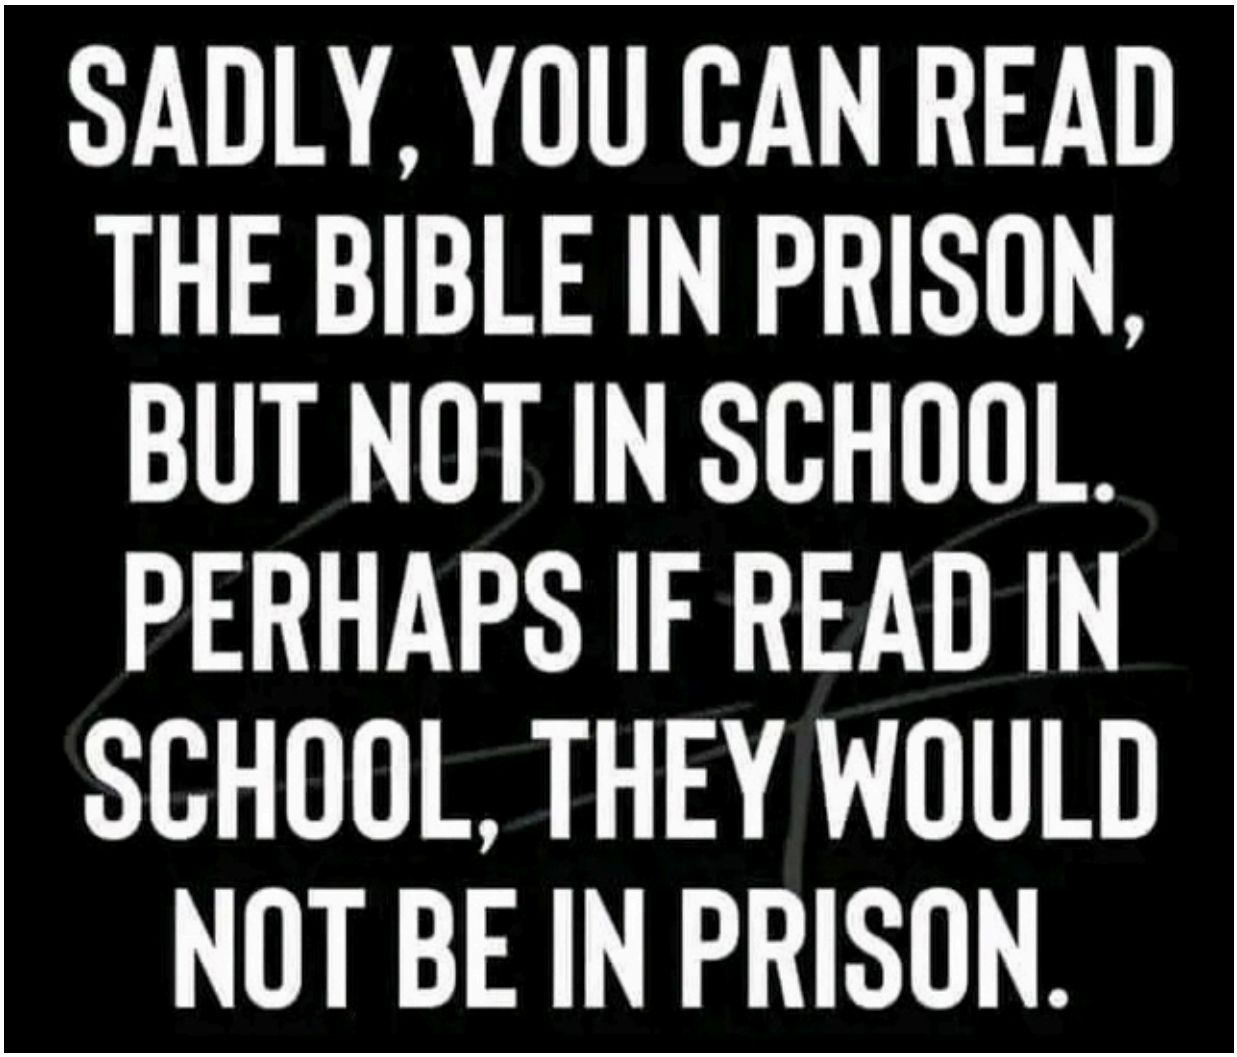
5.10.11 The Diminishing Word of God (2024-10-26 11:03)

I dug out a classic old sermon by [1]Evangelist Tom Williams (born 1935) today titled: "DIMINISHING THE WORD OF GOD"...

[2]THE DIMINISHING WORD OF GOD

7382



(by Evangelist Tom WIlliams)

Brother Williams exposes the AMPLIFIED BIBLE (AMP), which reads:

> [illegible] (AMP) - [illegible] 22:22, "[illegible], [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]. "[illegible]'[illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]," [illegible], "[illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]! [illegible] [illegible] [illegible], [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible], [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]!"

Maybe God is out sitting on the toilet? This is the so-called "higher learning" scholarship behind the Devil's never-ending rash of new modern Bible revisions. The KING JAMES BIBLE is the only inspired Words of God in the English language today!!!

5.10.12 Beware Of Toxic Feminist Poison (2024-10-26 15:07)

Ephesians 5:22, “

Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord.

The inspired Word of God is very clear about a women’s role in the marriage and home. Biblically, a woman’s place is in the HOME. 1st Timothy 5:14-15, “I will therefore that the younger women marry, bear children, guide the house, give none occasion to the adversary to speak reproachfully. For some are already turned aside after Satan.” The Bible warns that a woman pursuing a career instead of marriage and motherhood is a sin. She has turned aside after Satan.

> Last year, with her 45th birthday looming and no sign of Mr. Right, Brigitte Adams excitedly unfroze the 11 eggs and selected a sperm donor
> National Post | January 29, 2018
>
> MANHATTAN BEACH, Calif. — Brigitte Adams caused a sensation four years ago when she appeared on the cover of Bloomberg Businessweek under the headline, “Freeze your eggs, Free your career.” She was single and blond, a Vassar graduate who spoke fluent Italian, and was working in tech marketing for a number of prestigious companies. Her story was one of empowerment, how a new fertility procedure was giving women more choices, as the magazine noted provocatively, “in the quest to have it all.”
>
> Adams remembers feeling a wonderful sense of freedom after she froze her eggs in her late 30s, despite the $19,000 cost. Her plan was to work a few more years, find a great guy to marry and still have a house full of her own children.
>
> Things didn’t turn out the way she hoped.
>
> In early 2017, with her 45th birthday looming and no sign of Mr. Right, she decided to start a family on her own. She excitedly unfroze the 11 eggs she had stored and selected a sperm donor.
> Two eggs failed to survive the thawing process. Three more failed to fertilize. That left six embryos, of which five appeared to be abnormal. The last one was implanted in her uterus. On the morning of March 7, she got the devastating news that it, too, had failed. [1]READ MORE

That true horror story is so tragic and unnecessary. The world is a very wicked place, where women regularly forfeit marriage and motherhood in pursuit of the love of money (1st Timothy 6:10-11). I recommend that no Christian woman ever have her eggs frozen. That is NOT God’s plan for your life ladies! Our wise Creator made your body to conceive children in your youth, not have your frozen eggs thawed and put back into your womb 20 years later, when your body is worn and weak from age. Freezing a woman’s eggs is like an eposide of The Outer Limits! God never intended for a woman’s living eggs to be frozen.

In the wicked world today shacking up in fornciation and adultery are today considered acceptable alternatives. The dating websites are full of so-called "swinger couples." It is wickeness! Sexual sins are rampant in the United States. Social media has exponentially caused an increase of sexual sins. Most people just don't care anymore about doing right. Sin has become so accepted in America today that people don't think twice anymore about fonicating, cheating and committing sin. It is wickedness! Our good and faithful Creator, God, deserves so much better from us.

I'm sure that you've noticed the continuous disparging Tv commericals that put men down, portraying them as dumb, weak, foolish and irresponsible. If the roles were reversed so that women were portrayed in such a negative light, there would be massive public outrage and intense anger! This clearly further evidences the Satanic agenda at work to destroy men, ruin the godly institution of marriage, and erase the traditional family. ...

Anti-Men Commercials Compilation (Part 1)

Anti-Men Commercials Compilation (Part 2)

Anti-Men Commercials Compilation (Part 3)

The inspired Holy Bible is also very clear that women are forbidden from ruling over men; they're not even allowed to teach men. ...

> 1Corinthians 14:34, " Let your women keep silence in the churches: for it is not permitted unto them to speak; but they are commanded to be under obedience, as also saith the law.

1st Timothy 2:11-12, “

Let the woman learn in silence with all subjection. But I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence.”

ALL women preachers are FALSE PROPHETS! Women bishops and pastors are an abomination unto the Lord, rebellious. Men are supossed to lead. But you say, “What if there are no men to rule?” That hypothetical situation doesn’t negate the clear teaching of God’s Word that women are not to rule the church, period.

It is sad and tragic that America today has [2]succumbed to feminist engineering since the 1960’s. Please read the truthful article by Professor Henry Makow titled, "[3]The Rockefellers Alientaed Women From Men." Here is an excerpt...

The Rockefellers Alienated Women from Men

October 18, 2019

Feminism is an excellent example of how the central banking cartel uses the awesome power of the mass media (i.e. propaganda.) to brainwash women.

In 50 short years, many women have been taught to fear and distrust men. They have lost touch with their natural loving instincts.

Consequently, the family is in disarray, sexual depravity is rampant and birth rates have plummeted.

We need constant reminders of this egregious attack on our humanity and what it has done to us. [4]READ MORE

That is so true! Women are frightenied of men today because of all the toxic women’s Tv programming that instills fear into their souls of mascilinity. All we hear about on toxic daytime shows is how horrible men are, and what they’ve done to women. This is Satanic indoctrination! It’s common knowledge that [5]Kamala Harris has a problem with men. God pity our nation if that [6]evil woman becomes the highest leader in our nation, which would be a travesty of justice, by passing all the noble, qualified and capable men who should lead.

God knows that I am not down on women. God created Eve to be the mother of all humanity. Women are beautiful and precious, each having her own uniqueness and charm. But God has preordained that women and men fulfull different important roles in life. A women’s role as a wife and mother is no less important than a man’s role as a husband and father.

“When the Devil decides to destroy a society, he starts off with the woman.”
—Pastor Jack Hyles, ’[7]How To Destroy The Human Race’

I didn;t write this blog to degrade women, God forbid. I wrote this article to warn everyone about the Satanic agenda at work to destroy women today. The Devil knows that if he can influence young people to commit sexual immorality, he has gained mastery over their life. If you give the Devil an inch, he will take a foot, and then he will be a ruler.

Divorce is a serious problem in America today. The United States is the divorce capital of the world, with over half of all women filing for divorce today. In some places in California, the divorce rate exceeds 75 % today. What a tragic testimony upon our society! Our ungodly government's court have made it so easy to get a divorce nowadays, that pretty much anybody who wants a divorce can get one for any reason, no questions asked. That is evil. God hates divorce (Jeremiah 3:20; Malachi 2:16). Divorce is a sin that perpetuates for a lifetime!

Millions of foolish ungodly American women have filed for divorce, angry at their husbands, thinking that the grass is greener elsewhere. Social media is full of such wicked women, crying and complaining that they cannot find Mr. Right. They had a good man for a husband, a nice home, plenty of provisions and security, but they hated the rules and restrictions (which everyone has, regardless of your circumstances). If a woman divorces her hsuabdn to escape his authority and rules, she'll just exchange him for a 9 to 5 job and a BOSS at work, who will give her orders and rebuke her if she doesn't do her job. If she rebels, she WILL BE fired!

My former wife divorced me in 2006. She is stubborn and rebellious in many ways. She thought I was so horrible for expecting her to clean the house, care for our four children, and cook meals. She wanted to be free and do her own thing, as a fool. She was fired from three jobs over the past 2 years, because she is lazy. Now she has a boss! I don't care who you are, you cannot escape life! Women cannot escape having an authority over them! If you don't want to answer to a husband at home, then you WILL answer to a boss at work.

I remember during the divorce (that my wife fied against my will), that she kept violating the court's order not to contact me, to harass me at work. She kept saying that she is going to go to college, earn a degree, and change the world. She was talking smack! Well, she didn't do even one of the things she said she would do. She ended up working miminum wage jobs for the rest of her life, because she has a problem wiuth authority and work. She is lazy and incomperent, kindly said. I have lived alone for 18 years without a wife, because my former wife is a darn fool, a rebel and stubborn (which the Bible says is equal to witchcraft - 1st Samuel 15:23). I pray for her daily, but she is long gone in her delusions. So sad.

I relish the peace of mind which I have enjoyed for the past decade. I've never found another woman to marry, so I serve the Lord quietly, focusing on my ministry and music. To God be the glory, great things He hath done (and is still doing). The only reason my former wife can get away with her rebellion and wickedness is because our Satanic controlled government empowers women to destroy their homes, crucify their husbands, and go their own way. It is Women Going Their Own Way (WGTOW), not men!

Please RUN from this wicked world's feminist philosophies. Our American society is so toxic today. I read some women's literature published by the government of Guam (a U.S. Territory). The pamphlet said that if a husband wants to know where his wife is going, and when she is coming back home, that is legally defined as "Domestic Abuse." Those idiots are insane! Do you see what they are trying to do? The liberals, kooks, rebels and feminists want to make it so that a husband is totally crippled in his husbandly authority, so that he has ZERO say, control or power over his own wife. That is evil, unbiblical and just plain destructive thinking.

The U.S. government (federal, state and places like Guam) totally REJECT the biblical teaching that a man has a right to rule over his own wife (Genesis 3:16). Guam is a Sodom and Gomorrah island in the Pacifc! The island is overrun with homosexuals and transvestitues, which are everywhere. The present liutenant governor is an open sodomite. When a corrupt society has wickedly decided to openly show honor toward homosexuals, they do not fear God. Proverbs 28:4, " They that forsake the law praise the wicked: but such as keep the law contend with them." If a God-fearing Christian contends (opposses) a homosexual, that saint is labeled and treated as a hateful bigot by society. It is society, and not the God-fearing saint who hates sin, who is in the right and pleasing to the Lord. The wicked will be judged (Job 20:5; Hebrews 4:13). No one ever gets away with sin and evil, NO ONE!

Those foolish women who pursue a career and money over marriage and motherhood, will live to rue the day. Please don't let feminism ruin your life ladies. Please don't have sex until you are legally married, or that bum will dump you (a painful lesson which young women never seem to learn). Serve the Lord and follow the inspired King James Bible and you'll find happiness in obeying the Lord's ways. Avoid toxic females who will feed your mind with demonic advice. Hordes of feminist women will advise you to divorce your husband, don't return to your husband, don't remarry your husband, et cetera. Tell them all to go to Hell where they are ultimately going to spend eternity in brimstone and sulfur!

5.10.13 Never Require Sinners To Walk An Aisle To Be Saved (2024-10-30 15:00)

Acts 16:28-31, "

But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, Do thyself no harm: for we are all here. Then he called for a light, and sprang in, and came trembling, and fell down before Paul and Silas,

And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house."

One of my pet peeves as a Bible preacher are foolish pastors who require lost sinners to walk down a church asile to learn how to go to Heaven. My long time ministry friend, Pastor Max D. Younce (1935-2023), thankfully wrote and left behind free .pdf copies of his dozens of books and materials to edify the world for generations to come. I cannot thank Pastor Younce enough for his role in helping me solidify my salvation beliefs. ...

[1]Salvation And The Public Invitation (.pdf)

I first met Dr. Younce online around 2005, after I had just moved from Chicago to the island of Guam in 2004. Pastor Younce had found my Jesus-is-savior.com website online (which by God's grace I started in 2002), and noticed that I was exposing Martin Luther (1483-1546) as a fraud, for which he was greatly intrigued. The first time that he emailed me, Dr. Younce said that other than himself, I am the only preacher he knows of who recognizes and exposes Martin Luther as an unsaved heretic. Brother Younce's praise and friendship has meant the world to me over the past 20 years. I love that man of God!

In the preceding needful book by Dr. Younce, 'Salvation And The Public Invitation,' he scolds preachers who add the uneccesary and unbiblical requirement to the Gospel, to walk an aisle to get to Heaven. God only knows how many souls are burning in Hell forever, simply because some preacher refused to share the Gospel unless he could selfishly take the credit and glory for himself, instead of just preaching the Gospel and leaving the praise to God alone.

I am leery of Baptist churches today where the pastor is bragadacious, always touting how many people they got saved last year, and how many baptisms they had. I have been in plenty of churches like that, and in every case people were required to walk down an aisle to the front altar to learn how to go to Heaven. It ought not be folks! The truth is that you can be saved right from your pew. I was saved in a pew at age 13 in 1980.

Dear reader, no preacher should ever require someone to walk down an aisle to the front of a church auditorium to learn how to go to Heaven. Why don't those preachers tell people how to be saved in their pew? I'll tell you why! It is because those wicked pastors want to exploit you. They want to make a public spectacle of people who come forward to trust Christ, boasting of how God's power is upon their ministry. I loathe the irresponsible preachers today who are braggadious about how many people THEY'VE led to Jesus Christ. I humbly give God all the praise and criticism in my ministry work, good and bad alike. The day I got saved at age 13 my life became hidden with Christ in God (Colossians 3:1-3). What happens to me happens to Jesus (Matthew 25:40, 45). As believers, we're in this called Christianity together, with our dear Savior.

No pastor ought ever require anyone to walk down an aisle to learn how to be saved. Every preacher should tell the audience how to go to Heaven from where they are seated or standing. Millions of people will someday burn in the fires and torments of the Lake of Fire, all because of foolish preachers who refused to share the Gospel without adding the unbiblical obligation to walk forward in a church or revival service to be saved.

Many people won't walk forward during an invitation due to fear of the unknown, or perhaps they don't want to be made a spectacle of in front of a group, or maybe they don't feel well physically, or they will be put on the spot, et cetera. By sharing the Gospel with them in their pew, it eliminates all of those potential hindrances to them getting saved (2nd Corinthians 4:3-4). If there is one place in the world where the Gospel ought not be kept secretive, it is in a local New Testament church. Thank you for reading my ministry blog. God bless.

5.11.1 To Hell And Back (Pastor Jack Hyles) (2024-11-01 13:33)

by [2]Pastor Jack Hyles

Preached on February 23, 1997

Tonight I close the series of messages on the Second Coming by giving a rather detailed Bible study on the subject of Hell. Now I will not necessarily preach an evangelistic sermon; rather, I would like to acquaint you with Hell and explain exactly what the Bible teaches about it, using twenty-two different verses of Scripture. Rather than look them up, perhaps I could quote them, or give you the references as I bring the message, and make a note in the margin of your Bible, or on a piece of paper as to what the Bible says about Hell, then you may have them for future references.

There are three worlds in existence. The world about us here who live on this earth. Then there is the world about which we spoke this morning. I always like to preach something about Heaven close to the time when I preach on Hell, because invariably somebody will nip at me and say that all I do is preach on wrath, Hell, and judgment. So I preach on Heaven to balance it off.

I will teach awhile tonight, with a little preaching interspersed, on the subject, "To Hell and Back." Actually the Bible teaches that people do go to Hell and come back.

The Bible has a great deal to say about Hell. In fact, it has more to say about Hell than about Heaven. There are more Scriptures In the Bible that teach about Hell than teach about Heaven; there are more verses in the Bible which tell about the conditions of Hell than you find telling about the conditions of Heaven. Now for a person to close his eyes on the subject of Hell is to refuse to believe a portion of the Word of God.

Modern scholarship says, "There is no such thing as Hell." For example: Dr. DeHaan, the famous radio preacher, had preached many years ago on the subject of Hell on the radio. Some preacher—I say preacher—"reverend"—wrote him and in these words he said:

> "Dear Dr. DeHaan:
>
> "I am surprised that a man of your training and background, from college, university, and seminary, could believe in that antiquated, moth-eaten, disproved theory of the age of superstition that there is a literal Hell. No modern scholar believes that any longer."

Well, no modern scholar believed the flood was coming either, but it came. No modern scholar believed that Sodom and Gomorrah would be destroyed, but it was. In fact, all the modern scholars were destroyed with them.

Don’t misunderstand me; I believe in education. It seems I spent all my life in school. I spent eighteen years hunting the "x" in algebra! I never found it, but I spent eighteen years hunting for it! I hate to disillusion you, but It ain’t there! You can’t find it. I believe in education. I believe in study. I believe in reading. I read three and a half books last week. Usually I read three to five books a week. I believe in study. But I want to say that if modern scholarship does not believe the Bible, modern scholarship can go down the garbage can of human history as far as I am concerned. I am going to believe the Word of God. And a fellow who is an educated person but who does not believe the Bible, is just an educated fool. I would rather be a little fellow who had never seen the inside of a school, and believe the Bible is the Word of God, and be born again and love God and love the Word of God and believe the Bible and what God says In the Bible, than to be a man with all the degrees a mile long and not be able to understand and believe the Word of God.

There is no truth without the One who says, "I am the Truth." And when you get to the place in your life where you think you are too modem for this Bible, you are too modern for God and you will go to Hell like all the other scholars will who do not believe the Word of God.

The Bible is very plain. You will have to decide one or two things: whether you do not believe the Bible, or you believe in Hell, because if you believe the Bible, you have to believe in Hell. A lot of people would say, "I don't believe in a burning Hell. I don't believe that folks who die in their sins burn forever." You do not believe the Bible then. "Oh, yes, I believe the Bible." No you don't. If you don't believe there is a Hell, if you don't believe there is a burning Hell, you do not believe the Bible is the Word of God, for the Bible is very clear about this matter. We will discuss many Scriptures tonight that will leave no doubt in any Bible-believer's mind about the truth and the doctrine of an eternal, literal, burning Hellfire where people who die in their sins must spend eternity and must live forever without God.

Several years ago Audie Murphy, I think the most decorated of all the World War II heroes, wrote a book entitled To Hell and Back. Audie Murphy likened World War II to Hell. He told about the men whose heads were disengaged from their bodies; about the men who were mangled; about seeing horror and death and bloodshed and mangled bodies, the torn battlefields and all the horrors of World War II. Then in coming back—he likened that as to coming back from Hell. So he titled the book, To Hell and Back.

Audie Murphy had an awful time In World War II. My heart certainly goes out to all those who suffer in all wars, and who give their lives and their health and many times the members of their bodies for our lives. But may I say this, my precious friends: World War II, World War I, the coming World War III, the Battle of Armageddon and all the rest of them, will never have one little iota compared to the suffering of Hellfire where the worm dieth not and the fire is not quenched.

I will give you Bible facts about Hell tonight. I will not say one thing in this pulpit tonight unless it is authenticated by the Word of God.

The first thing I would call your attention to is The Reason for Hell.

In Matthew 25:41 the Bible says, "Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels."

What is the purpose for Hell? Why was Hell made? Often children ask that question.

One little girl asked her mother one day, "Mother, what does the world rest on? What does the world rest on?"

The mother didn't know what the world rested on any more than the child did. So she said, "Oh, the world rests on er. . .er. . .er. . .on a big man. . .a big man. A big man holds the world up." Then she went about her business.

"Mama, what does the man stand on?"

"Oh, honey, the man stands on a...a.. .a. . .a. . .oh, he stands on a big... a big rock. That is what the man stands on.

"Mama, what does the rock sit on?"

"Oh, the rock sits on a big pole. A great big long pole."

"Mama, what does the pole sit on?"

"Ah, hush, honey! The pole just goes all the way down to the bottom.

Now many boys and girls have many questions to ask.

Many have asked me this question, "Brother Hyles, why was Hell made? What is Hell for? Who made Hell? Why was Hell prepared in the first place?" So I will discuss with you the reason for Hell. There was a reason.

Before the world was ever created, before there ever was an earth, a Mars, a Jupiter, a Venus; before there ever was a sun, or moon, or stars, there was a Heaven. God lived in the Heaven, in fellowship with His angels. It is thought there were three different companies of angels under three different archangels, Gabriel, Michael, and Lucifer, who is the Devil. Three different (you might say) battalions or regiments of angels. Now Lucifer decided he wanted to take over Heaven, so Lucifer rebelled against God and took his group of the angels and started a war in Heaven. Immediately God put down the rebellion of Lucifer, and cast him and his angels out of Heaven. They were excommunicated from Heaven.

If that be so, immediately God prepared a place for the Devil and these angels, Heaven's fallen angels and the Devil. The place was called Hell. In Matthew 25:41 it says they were cast into everlasting fire "prepared for the devil and his angels." As I have said many times, if you go to Hell, you will be an intruder. Hell was not made for you. But if you do not receive Christ, you will go there, and you will burn forever. I don't care how many degrees you have; I don't care how smart you are; I don't care how rich you are; I don't care how influential you are; you will go to Hell and you will burn forever unless you have been born again. So Hell is a place made for the Devil and his angels.

Let me tell you something. I get a little sick sometimes with certain classes of people. The only thing I can't stand in this world is prejudice. This idea that there are two kinds of preachers—the Hell-fire-and-brimstone preacher, and then there is the educated kind. The Devil thought that up. "There is that Hell fire and brimstone preacher, the kind that hangs you over Hell. Then there is the kinder, sweeter type." Let me tell you something, if you are going to Hell and a fellow doesn't tell you about it, he isn't sweet; he is the biggest enemy you have! If a world is lost without God, if a world is headed for damnation forever, to live in the fires of an eternal torment forever, and a man stands in a pulpit and some of his people are headed for Hell, and that man does not tell them about Hell, he is the worst enemy they have. I don't care how sweet he is, or how kind. The best friend you have, the sweetest preacher who stands in anybody's pulpit is the one who reminds you to escape the fires of Hell, for there is a prepared place for unprepared people somewhere, where people suffer in the world to come forever and forever. The reason for Hell.

In the second place, I call your attention to The Location of Hell.

Where is Hell? People are always asking me. Where is Hell located? How do you go there? In what part of the universe is Hell? I am not sure about that except to say this: the Bible seems to imply that Hell is down. Usually in the Bible when Heaven is mentioned, it is up, and when mentioning Hell, it is going down. So Hell must be down. I personally believe that Hell is in the heart of the earth. I believe that future Gehenna, Hell will be in the heart of the earth. Scientists say that beneath the earth there is a boiling volcanic disturbance constantly going on in the heart of the earth. And so I personally believe Hell will be in the heart of the earth.

Now then, Hell is also called "a bottomless pit." In Revelation 9:2 it says the angel "opened the bottomless pit; and there arose a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace... " A bottomless pit.

My precious friend, you can be a Baptist, you can be a Methodist, you can be a Presbyterian, you can be a Catholic, you can be an Episcopalian, you can be a Lutheran and all the rest of them; you can be baptized in this pool, and sprinkled in another church, and confirmed in another, and reared in another, but if you die without Jesus Christ, without being born again, the Bible says you will go to Hell and suffer in a bottomless pit.

I believe in Hell people constantly fall forever and forever. There is no bottom to Hell. It is a bottomless pit. While people are burning, they shall also be falling. While people are screaming and crying and begging for mercy, and pleading for water, and while they are gnashing their teeth, and chewing their tongues, and looking to God and saying, "O God! Send Lazarus that he may dip his finger in water and cool my tongue, for I am tormented in this flame"—the Bible says that is a bottomless pit. Constant falling! Constant falling! Again and again; no foundation, no rock, nothing to stand upo—a bottomless pit forever and forever and forever!

In World War II, I was in the paratroopers. I made nineteen parachute jumps or "push-outs"! I know what it is to fall. On my fifth parachute jump, my parachute did not open. One hundred feet from the ground... one second from death, my reserve parachute finally opened. I know what it is to fall. I fell seven hundred feet in the air. I twisted. I did not know whether my head was up or down. My arms were completely uncontrollable. I could not hold my body with any coordination at all. I was just falling and twisting in the air, just completely uncoordinated... falling... falling... falling; turning... turning; twisting... twisting.

Think of it. In Hell—a bottomless pit. Forever and forever! Falling and burning and crying and twisting in a bottomless pit forever!

The location of Hell is a bottomless pit, which I believe is down.

We have seen the reason for Hell; we have seen the location of Hell; now I call your attention to The Prophecy of Hell.

In the Bible it plainly teaches that people can go to Hell and get out. In fact, people who are in Hell tonight will get out someday. I am not talking about the person going to purgatory and if he gets enough prayers and enough money paid for him, he can get on up to the next place. I am talking about the fact that people who are in Hell shall some day be discharged from Hell. Here is why.

Revelation 20:13, 14 says this: "And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works. And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire."

Ken (our song leader), I will use you for an example. You be in Hell for a minute. The place where you are sitting represents Hell. It is torment, constant soul-torment. But in Hell tonight the soul-torment is all there is. The body is not tormented in Hell tonight, but just the soul. The body of the lost man goes to the grave; the soul goes to Hades or what is commonly called now Hell. The soul goes to torment.

Now John (assistant pastor), you be the body of an unsaved person. Ken is the soul. The soul is in Hades burning; the body is in the grave. Now one day, at the resurrection of the unsaved, at the end of the thousand-year millennium, the soul shall come out of Hell, the body shall come out of the grave and body and soul shall be reunited, for Hell now is only disembodied spirits. But in that day it shall be embodied spirits, and the body and soul shall be together again, and both body and soul shall stand before God at the great judgment that Ken sang about a bit ago, they will stand before God and He will give them degrees of punishment in the lake of fire, and every one of them will be cast again, both body and soul, back into the lake of fire to be tormented forever and forever.

So the soul which is in Hell tonight will come out of Hell, and be delivered for awhile, just for a moment as it stands before God and then God will take body and soul and cast them into the lake of fire.

That word "cast" in the Greek is a very interesting word. It is the word ekballo, which means to hurl as you would hurl a ball or throw a rock. In the Bible when someone would throw something, as a rock or stone, it was ekballo. They would hurl it, throw it. And that word "cast" in Revelation 20:14 actually means people shall be taken both body and soul and shall be thrown into the lake of fire.

I tremble when I think about these preachers standing before God one day and He looks at them and says, "My Bible was full of Scriptures about Hell and you were afraid to tell them about Hell. You had some educated folks, and you were afraid to tell them about Hell. You had some folks who thought Hell wasn’t true, and you cut your message, you trimmed the corners." Woe be unto any preacher who stands before his people and for fear of preaching something the folks don’t like, he fails to warn them of the wrath of God to come!

There is going to be a time when the body shall come from the grave and the soul shall come from Hades, and body and soul together shall be hurled into the lake of fire. Like it or not, it is there. It is in the Bible. If you don’t believe it, it is still in the Bible. The Bible is clear about the prophecy of Hell.

We have seen the reason for Hell, we have seen the location of Hell, we have seen the prophecy of Hell; now I would have you notice The Duration of Hell.

How long is Hell? What is the duration? I believe in purgatory, but not the purgatory that some of our friends believe in. The Bible says in Hebrews that Jesus purged our sins on the tree. And if you want to know what the Bible says there, in the original language it says He purgatoried our sins. It is the same word as purgatory. Jesus purgatoned our sins. On the cross of Calvary, Jesus Christ suffered and purged our sins for us.

Consequently, we who are in Him will not go to purgatory, and those who are out of Him have not had their sins purged already, and so Hell will be forever. In Revelation 14:11 it says, "And the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever...."

Go home tonight, turn on your kitchen stove, put your finger in the fire, hold it there ten minutes, and see what you pull out. You go home tonight, you put your finger in the fire, you hold it five minutes, just five minutes, then see what you pull out.

"Oh," you say, "I wouldn't do that." Okay; what about four?

"Why," you say, "I am not that big enough fool." How about three?

"Why," you say, "preacher, you are foolish." How about two?

"Why," you say, "I still am not going....

How about one?

"Why," you say, you are crazy.

All right, how about ten seconds then? We will leave the minutes off. How about ten seconds?

"Why," you say, "preacher, I wouldn't pull back anything but a stub."

Well, how about five seconds? Turn the fire on, you put your finger in the kitchen fire one... .two... three.. .four... ... five seconds—see what you pull out.

You say, "I won’t do it."

Well, how about four seconds? How about three? How about two? How about one? How about putting your finger in the fire and saying, "One second"—pull it out?

No, you wouldn’t do it. Yet my friends, Hell is longer than one second! Hell is longer than two seconds! Hell is longer than five seconds! Hell is longer than ten seconds! Hell is longer than ten minutes! Hell is longer than ten days! Hell is longer than ten weeks! Hell is longer than ten months! Hell is longer than ten years! Hell is longer than ten thousand years! Hell is longer than ten million years! Hell is longer than ten billion years! Hell is longer than ten trillion years! There are many people who would not be so foolish as for one single second to put their finger in the fire of the kitchen stove, yet who are plunging their souls toward a place of torment where they will burn for millions and billions of years forever, without hope in the world to come! Oh, think of it! Hell is eternal. It never ceases. The duration of Hell!

We have seen the reason for Hell, the location of Hell, the prophecy of Hell, the duration of Hell; now we come lastly to the sufferings of Hell.

We will spend most of our time tonight on the sufferings of Hell. I don’t want anybody to go to Hell. God knows I don’t. And I want to make this clear. If I did not believe in Hell, I would get out of this business. If I did not believe in Hell, I would close my Bible and not preach another sermon. If I did not believe that people who are lost and die without God will burn forever, I would close my Bible and get in some lucrative profession and I would get as much out of life as possible. I would say the Epicureans are right: I will live and eat and drink and be merry, for tomorrow I die. Because I believe in Hell, the motivating power of my ministry is the fact that I believe people to whom I preach may go to Hell.

Sometimes I am criticized for being evangelistic all the time. Many times people say, "Why don’t you give the Christians more?" I do try to give the Christians more. The crowd that thinks I don’t give the Christians enough is the crowd that doesn’t come back on Sunday night or Wednesday night. I try to give Christians something. But there Is always that constant inner motivating power that people to whom I preach on Sunday morning and Sunday night and Wednesday night are eternity-bound people headed somewhere, and some of them will live forever in the place of the unprepared.

Oh, as I have preached sermon after sermon after sermon, and many people have heard me preach and have not been saved, and they have plunged their way toward Hell, they have died without hearing the Gospel again; I stop and think there are people tonight burning while I am preaching tonight; they are screaming while I am preaching tonight; they are in Hell, falling in the bottomless pit, gnashing their teeth, in darkness forever and ever and ever and ever! How in the name of good common sense can any man who calls himself a preacher of God’s Gospel help but warn people about the wrath of God to come is more than I can understand.

I promised God years ago that I would be the kind of a preacher to preach all the Bible. I promised Him that nobody would change it. I promised God that no one would influence my preaching but Him. If you want to make me real mad, where I tell you to sit back where you belong, you just try to tell me what to preach. Oh, you will have your hands full! You really will! You can tell me my tie isn't straight, and I will try to straighten it up. You can tell me that my suit isn't exactly the right color, and I will try to buy a new one. But you leave my preaching alone. That is between me and God.

I want to say this tonight: the Bible plainly teaches that there is a place of suffering called Hell.

There are several things about suffering. In the first place, it is fire.

F-I-R-E—fire! In Mark, chapter 9, verse 43, we read: "And if thy hand offend thee, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter into life maimed, than having two hands to go into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched."

Suppose you have a hand that is keeping you from Jesus Christ. Suppose you have a hand that is sending your soul to Hell. Suppose your hand has some sin; there is something your hand does you cannot give up, and that thing keeps you from salvation in Jesus Christ. The Bible says cut it off. Better for you not to have any hands than to go to Hell.

Again in Mark 9, verse 45, it says: "And if thy foot offend thee, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter halt into life, than having two feet to be cast into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched."

If that foot has an enjoyment that you cannot quit; if that foot has a sin it commits that keeps you from God and will send you to Hell, the Bible says "cut it off." Better for you to enter into life without a foot or hand than having feet and hands to be cast into the lake of fire where the worm dieth not and the fire is not quenched.

Verse 47 says: "And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out: it is better for thee to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye, than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire."

If there is something that your eye does that makes you reject Jesus Christ, if there is something your eye does that makes you say no to the Gospel and plunges you toward Hell, the Bible says "gouge it out," "pluck it out." Better for you not to have any eyes or hands and feet than to be cast into the lake of fire where the worm dieth not and the fire is not quenched.

Hell is fire!

I wish people who don't believe the Bible would quit riding under the name of Christianity. I wish people who don't believe what God says in the Bible would quit calling themselves Christians. Oh, my soul hungers for a simple belief in the Word of God.

I wrestled with this thing when I was a kid preacher. Numbers of people tried to counsel with me. Older preachers far down the line tried to tell me I should not preach Hellfire and brimstone. I had to wrestle about this thing. I went through a brief period where I wondered if there really were fire in Hell. But I had to have a basis; there must be a foundation. There has to be something as the criterion for what you believe. So I decided the Bible is true. I decided this Book is the Word of God, and if this Book says it, I am going to believe it. And this Book is plain about the fires of Hell.

Matthew 25:41 says "everlasting fire." Revelation 20:15 says "the lake of fire," which means liquid fire, lava. Revelation 21:8 says, "The fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the LAKE WHICH BURNETH WITH FIRE AND BRIMSTONE: which is the second death ."

In Luke 16:24 the rich man said, "Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame."

My precious friend, if you have not received Christ as your Saviour, I plead with you, receive Him, come to Him, for in Him alone is escape from the fires of Hell. If you tonight belong to this church, you may be a respectable member, but if you have never been born by the Spirit of God, if you have never been saved, I beg you to come to Christ and be saved. Far better for you to be embarrassed tonight than to be embarrassed when you stand before God.

The second suffering besides fire is Weeping and Gnashing of Teeth.

In Matthew 22:12, 13 it says about the man who came to the wedding feast having no garment: "Then said the king [Jesus] to the servants, Bind him hand and foot, and take him away, and cast him into outer darkness; there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth."

Falling, burning, weeping, gnashing of teeth! I wish I could describe it—a person gnashing his teeth because of pain.

Recently I got a call from the Chairman of the Board of Deacons at my former pastorate in Garland—one of the best friends I ever had. He said, "Preacher, little Bobby was out in the barn (they live on the farm) playing with some gasoline and the gasoline turned over and little Bobby was just a bundle of fire. He was burned terribly and he has been in the hospital. He will live, but he was burned terribly. Pray for little Bobby."

My heart was broken, crushed! We are so burdened for Bobby; and the folk at Miller Road Church are so heartbroken for Bobby because Bobby has been burned.

Listen, nobody said, "Don't be a fanatic." Oh, they rushed Bobby to the hospital. They got him, smothered the flame, they rushed him to the hospital. Pastor Tom Landers spent all night at the hospital. The deacons gathered around his bed and had prayer because Bobby had been burned. Nobody called them fools; nobody called them fanatics. Nobody said they were narrow-minded because here was a little boy who had been burned. But if these same people plead all night for a sinner to stay out of Hell where they will burn forever, somebody will say they are religious fanatics, fools for Christ.

Not only is there gnashing of teeth and weeping, but there is Darkness.

Years ago Mrs. Hyles and I were in Colorado for a few days' rest. We went to the Cave of the Winds. This Cave is like Carlsbad Caverns in New Mexico. They took us way back through one tunnel, then we went through a smaller tunnel. All these stalagmites and stovepipes! They were hanging down. One fellow said they were 40 thousand, or 40 million years old—I don't know which. We went through. Water was seeping on our heads. I thought, "Man, oh, don't anybody kick these electric wires! We have been in here thirty-five or forty minutes and if these lights go out, we have had it! Boy, don't anybody kick these electric wires!"

Then all of a sudden it got dark! I looked at my wife—and I didn't look at her! I looked at my hand, and it wasn't there! And I thought, "Dear Lord in Heaven, don't blow a fuse now on these wires!" So dark! So dark you couldn't even see your wife, you couldn't even see your hand—couldn't see a thing, just darkness, total darkness.

And think of it! People who live with you; folks who work with you are headed for eternity without Christ forever, to burn and scream and cry and gnash their teeth in total darkness forever! If you loved them, you would tell them about Jesus. If you cared for them, you would witness to them. We dress in our robes of righteousness, pull our Christianity around us and show off how good we are in a world going to Hell and nobody cares! Our soul in Heaven, when people are headed for outer darkness, without God forever!

Darkness! How many times in the night have I been at the hospital. I can recall in a little town way down near the Louisiana border I received a call at three o'clock in the morning from a little lady who had a one-year-old baby. Our little Becky was a year old then. We stayed all night at the hospital. Little Sheila never pulled out of it completely. Though she still lives, she is afflicted. No one knew what the disease was. I can hear that dear mother as she looked outside and saw the darkness. "Brother Hyles, I wish morning would come! I wish morning would come! Oh, it is not so bad in the daytime, but in the nighttime, at two or at three o'clock in the morning!" I can still hear the cries of that little mother saying, "Brother Hyles, I wish morning would come! I wish morning would come!"

Think of it! In Hell, no morning! No sunshine! No brightness! No glow of God's love! No radiance of the presence of our Saviour! Oh, darkness forever and ever and ever! In a bottomless pit which burneth with fire and brimstone. Darkness! Gnashing of teeth! Suffering! Fire forever!

The suffering of Hell is fire, darkness, weeping and gnashing of teeth, and in the next place the suffering of Hell is Conscience.

People who know more about the Bible than I do say that when it says in Mark 9:44, ...where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched," their worm means the worm of their conscience. It does not say "the worm," but "their worm." In Mark 9:46 again it says, "Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched." In Mark 9:48 the third time it says, "Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched." What worm? The worm of conscience.

Somewhere I heard about a picture entitled "Napoleon in Hell ." It pictured the little General Napoleon in Hell. Here was his hell: Around him were gathered all the mothers he had left with dead little babies. Around him were gathered all the little orphaned children caused by his tyranny. Around him were gathered all the widows who were left because of Napoleon's ruthlessness. Napoleon had to look at them, had to look forever in Hell at those orphans, at those widows, at those maimed bodies, and the empty places in the homes. He had to look forever at those because Hell was the conscience of thinking of the awful things he had done on the earth.

My Bible says when people stand before God, the books will be opened, and the deeds done in the body shall be manifest. Oh, the conscience of Hell! I believe there will be songbooks. You will have to hear the songs you heard sung about Jesus, but refused to accept the Gospel. I believe there will be books of sermons that you will have to hear over and over again—sermons you heard but rejected the Gospel after you heard them. Conscience! Oh, the conscience of all the sins, to remind you of all the wickedness, and all the vile, and all the corruption in Hell forever and forever.

We hasten on. Suffering of Hell is fire, darkness, weeping and gnashing of teeth, conscience; but the suffering of Hell also is Lust.

Revelation 22:11 says: "He that is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still."

So that which is unjust here shall be unjust in eternity. That which is filthy here shall be filthy in eternity. The drunkard here shall be a drunkard in Hell. He will crave liquor in Hell. The lustful here will lust in Hell. The abominable here will be abominable in Hell. There will be no difference except one thing: Brother, when you get to be an alcoholic here, you can find some liquor to satisfy your crave, but in Hell it will be an unsatisfied hunger all the time. Filthy still! No liquor!

How many times have I seen men reach for the bottle in my own presence! I was in a home one time when a man said, "Preacher, I hate to drink in your presence, but I have got to have a bottle." He took that hand, shaking like a leaf in a storm, opened the refrigerator, pulled out the bottle when he could hardly hold it still enough to drink it, and poured it down his mouth, into his stomach, and said, "Preacher, I had to have it!"

But in Hell he will beg and lust for it, but it won't be there. The adulterer will lust, but his lust will not be satisfied. Hell is a place of constant lust. The same unholy passions you had here, you will have there, except there will be no satisfaction offered. Same desires, unholy lusts. He that is filthy shall be filthy still.

Suffering of Hell is fire, darkness, weeping and gnashing of teeth, conscience, lust; and then Hell is a place of Eternal Death.

Revelation 2:11 speaks about Hell as being the second death. Revelation 20:14 calls Hell the second death. Revelation 21:8 calls Hell the second death. Hell is called eternal dying, eternal death. I believe Hell is that state constantly on that little narrow divide between life and death.

Several years ago I was called into a home at midnight. An eighty-odd-year-old man was dying. I felt his pulse. His hands were cold, his eyes were set in death, it seems. I can hear him as he cried in the night, "Preacher, Preacher, pray for God to let me live! Pray for God to let me live!"

I said, "I will."

Then after awhile he said, "No Preacher, pray for God to let me die."

I can hear the screams of the eighty-year-old man as he said, "O God, let me live! Let me live! Let me live! Let me live!" Then he would scream again and say, "O God, let me die! Let me die! If I can't live, let me die! If I can't die, let me live! But the horror of being here on the borderline! I can see life on one side and death on the other.

God, let me go from one to the other!"

The Bible says Hell is eternal dying. People in Hell shall be dying all the time. They will never live. It will be a constant, never-ceasing, endless dying process always, forever and ever.

Sixty people die a minute. Since I have been preaching tonight, over two thousand people have died. March... march... march! Onward! Onward! Two thousand people in the last thirty-five minutes, sixty every minute, thirty-six hundred an hour, eighty-six thousand a day, thirty million people a year! O God, help us! Every time we have a service on Sunday morning in this church, over five thousand people plunge out into eternity, and most of them without God.

How can we sleep at night? Oh, it is a wonder that God doesn't destroy the church of the twentieth century. The churches of our day were built and born in the revival fires of Charles Finney, and Jonathan Edwards, and Dwight Moody, and Billy Sunday. They were born in those revivals. Somebody has said, "Since the days of Billy Sunday, the church of Jesus Christ has made no progress whatsoever." The last shaking this world had was in the days of these fellows who preached Hellfire and brimstone.

When Jonathan Edwards preached the old sermon, "Sinners in the Hands of an Angry God," people fell under such conviction they reached for the pillars in the church building and held on for fear they would fall that night in the fires of Hell.

Sixty people a minute! Every tick of my watch, another. Tick.. .Tick. . .another! Tick.. .another! Every tick of the watch, every hour of the day, march... march... march—thirty-six hundred people die! Hell, a place of fire! Hell, a place of lust! Hell, a place of conscience! Hell, a place of weeping! Hell, a place of darkness! Hell, a place of eternal separation from all that is good and all that is holy!

But, Thank God, You Don’t Have to Go There!

A famous artist painted a picture showing a beautiful forest, a lovely wooded area. But his teacher said, "Never paint a forest without painting a path leading out."

Tonight I have described the doctrine of Hell—the reason, the location, the prophecy, the duration, the sufferings—all of it; but I am so happy there is a path out. What is the path? Jesus said, "I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me." If you will come to Jesus Christ tonight, you will never have to go to Hell. But if you reject Him, as sure as this Bible is true, without Jesus you will go to Hell. But just as sure as it is true, with Christ you can go to Heaven.

I am so happy tonight that I will never go to Hell, Jack Hyles has taken care of all that already. Thank God, I will never burn one minute in Hell. I will never cry in the darkness of Hell, for Jesus paid it all, all to Him I owe. You say, "Oh, you must be pretty good. If you are not going to Hell, and you know you are going to Heaven, you must be pretty good."

No, I am a scoundrel—just like you. I am no good.

"Oh," you say, "you must live a pretty good life."

The best I can, but I fall short.

But you say, "You know you are going to Heaven; you know you are not going to Hell. You must be spotless, pure."

No, I am not, but I will tell you what. I am trusting Someone who is spotless, pure.

My college president said he was preaching in a revival campaign. He went down to a local restaurant to eat a noon meal. He walked out to pay his bill and he asked the little waitress, "Little Lady, do you know Jesus?"

She looked at him and said, "You are preaching in a revival down at the First Baptist Church, aren't you?"

"Yes, I am."

She said, "Huh! I am not going to go down there because those folks are all hypocrites ."

He looked at her and said very tenderly, "But little lady, I didn't come to tell you how wonderful the folks are down there. I came to tell you about Jesus. Can you find anything wrong with Him?"

Great big old tears welled up in her eyes as she looked up at him and said, "Sir, if more of the people down there would live like Him, more of us people out here would come down there."

I am telling you about Jesus tonight, not the First Baptist Church, not the Baptist denomination. If you will trust Him as Saviour, you will never know what Hellfire will be for yourself.

Tonight, are you bound for the Promised Land? Or are you afraid if you died tonight, you might go to Hell? If you will come to Jesus, you can settle all that. Bow your heads for prayer, please.

Our Father, we come tonight at the close of this sobering sermon on the subject, "To Hell and Back." Oh, our hearts think of those again and again and again plunging every second into Hell, over and over and over and over again plunging into eternity. Thirty-six hundred an hour, sixty every minute, thirty million people a year, the army continues to march. We pray, O God, that You would help us to be concerned. Help us to care. Help us to witness, and love, and warn, and plead with people not to go to Hell.

While our heads are bowed, our eyes are closed, I can put one hand on the Bible and the other hand high in the air and say, as for me, I will not go to Hell because I know Jesus. I deserve to go to Hell, God knows, but I am not going there because of Jesus. Three cheers for Jesus! Hallelujah for Him who made it possible through His death on the cross. And since I have trusted Him, I am going to Heaven.

How many of you can say, "Brother Hyles, I believe in Hell as much as you do, but, preacher, I'm not going there, for I am in Christ. He is my Saviour and I am His child." Are you willing to lift your hand tonight and say, "I am saved, too, and I am going to Heaven when I die"? As your hand goes up, there ought to be a hallelujah in your heart.

Now dear precious unsaved friends, do you believe the Bible? If you do, you must believe in Hell. How many of you would say tonight, "Preacher, I couldn't raise my hand, couldn't lift it, for I have never trusted Jesus. I do not know that I would go to Heaven if I died, but I wish I did. I believe in Hell, and I don't want to go there"?

5.11.2 Only Few Are Going To Heaven The Bible Says (2024-11-02 21:11)

Luke 13:23-24, "Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them, Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able."

We are living in the “perilous times” foretold in the inspired Holy Bible in 2nd Timothy 3:1-7. There has never been more corrupt Bible revisions than there is today in America. There has never been more false religion in the United States than there is today. Satan is pulling out all the stops, reltnlessl working to kill, steal and destroy.

The Bible tells us in 2nd Corinthians 4:3-4 that the Devil deliberately BLINDS THE MIND of unbelievers to keep them lost, “But if our gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost: In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them.” The Devil wants to take as many people to Hell with him as he possibly can. Please don’t take that truth lightly dear reader. The Devil has your number and he knows where you live! We just read that Satan blinds unsaved people, so that they won’t see the light of THE TRUTH of the Gospel to be saved.

Jesus made it clear in no uncertain terms that to go to Heaven a person MUST BE BORN AGAIN!!! John 3:1-3, “There was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews: The same came to Jesus by night, and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him. Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.” The word “verily” means “truly.” Jesus said to Nicodemus (a Jew), I am telling you THE TRUTH, that unless someone is born from above they cannot enter into God’s Kingdom.

Now you can understand why Satan’s greatest weapon is to con people unto living the Christian life without ever being born again. Religion is the worst thing that ever happened to this world! Religion is man trying to reach God through human effort and understanding; whereas Christianity is God to to reach mankind through faith alone in the sacrifice of His only begotten Son through Calvary’s cross. Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ’s best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

There are not many people today who are giving out the clear Gospel message. The Gospel has been so embellished, changed and butchered that no one can even recognize God’s simple plan of salvation anymore. I believe our time as saints is short. Romans 10:15 says that the feet of soulwinners are PRECIOUS!

Carefully notice that the Bible doesn’t say the “

tongue

is precious, but the soulwinner’s

feet.

The reason why is because even the most eloquent speech and cunning wisdom is completely worthless if we don’t use our feet to bring the Gospel to the lost sinners who need to hear it to be saved.

Salvation is not a reward for the righteous, it is a gift for the guilty!

Repeatedly throughout the inspired Word of God we read that people were saved by simply believing the Gospel when they heard it preached. As the Apostle Peter preached the Gospel in Acts 10, we see that Cornelius and his friends were saved in verse 43 by [1]simply BELIEVING the Gospel they heard preached unto them.

That is why the Apostle Paul said in

Galatians 3:2, " This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?" A person gets saved simply by BELIEVING the Gospel which they read or hear preached unto them. It is that simple to be saved. There is no biblical requirement to "be willing to turn from your sinful bad habits," nor to "become a Christ follower," nor to "give your life to Christ." These embellishments are deadly alterations to God's simple plan of salvation. Remember, the Bible warns that Satan intentionally "blinds" the minds of unbelievers.

The Devil blinds many people with false science. Evolution is false science. The word "science" means "the study of" something. You cannot study evolution because there is nothing to study, it is a make-believe theory. Evolution is bogus conjecture, and a waste of human mental power. The teaching of evolution is one of the greatest injustices ever committed against our children in the United States, deliberately lying to them to alienate them from their Creator, God. Any honest person must concede that evolution is a farce! I digress.

Jesus answered the disciple's question as to whether few people are saved, with the shocking revelation that very few people will ever enter through Heaven's pearly gates in eternity. Jesus tells us the reason why in Matthew 7:21, "Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.

" Jesus tells us what the will of the Father is in John 6:40,

"And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day." The will of God the Father is that you BELIEVE ON HIS SON, JESUS!!! Only Christ has the nail-scared hands and feet.

It's not difficult to see why Jesus said so few people will ever go to Heaven, in lieu of all the counterfeit plans of salvation being preached today across the world. There are over one billion hellbound Roman Catholics today, who have been woefully deceived to trust in Sacramental Salvation instead of Christ alone as the Bible teaches (Galatoans 3:26). The Vatican's Seven Sacraments are a road to Hell, not Heaven. Catholics have what the Bible terms " another gospel

" (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4).

There are an estimated 1.6 BILLION Islamic Muslims in the world, who all reject Jesus as the Savior. According to the toxic Koran (which I have read in detail), Jesus was kidnapped and someone else died on the cross. I'm not kidding! The Koran contains ZERO prophecy! It is clearly NOT God's inspired Words; but rather, the ravings of a religious lunatic, Mohammad. Not one Muslim who trusts in the Koran will ever step foot through Heaven's pearly gates. According to the wicked Koran, Jesus is not God's only begotten Son. In fact, Islam says God has no son at all. The Devil is a beautiful liar!

And then there are the Mormons and Jehovah's Witnesses who deny that Jesus is almighty God. They have what the Bible terms "another Jesus" (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4). The Scripture proclaims Jesus as God in the flesh (1st Timothy 3:16 - all citations are only from the trustworthy King James Bible). Revelation 1:8b calls Jesus, “the Almighty.” If you don’t believe that Jesus came to earth as almighty God in the flesh, then you have “another Jesus” from the dear Son of God presented in the Bible. As God’s only biological (begotten) Son, that makes Jesus God too (John 14:1), since He literally had God the Father’s blood flowing in His veins (Acts 20:28). Remember, Jesus was born of a virgin and did NOT have an earthly father, God almighty was Jesus’ biological Father (Isaiah 7:14; Matthew 1:23).

Then there is the Church of Christ (COC) cult, who add more to the Gospel than God requires to be saved. Official COC dogma says that you absolutely must be water baptized to be saved. You must also (they say) publicly confess faith in the name of Jesus. If you don’t make this audible public confession, COC deems you still unsaved. And finally, COC insists that you turn from your sinful bad habits to get to Heaven. They misunderstand this heresy to mean Bible repentance. This is the same damnable heresy sadly being taught at [2]Pensacola Christian College and [3]Bob Jones University today. RUN from this dangerous places! Dear reader, RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!! It reall does! That is why Jesus said in Mark 4:24b, “ Take heed what ye hear...

Likewise, the Apostle Paul exhorts the saints in 1st Timothy 4:16, “Take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine; continue in them: for in doing this thou shalt both save thyself, and them that hear thee.” Take heed what ye hear! Hell is eternally full today of billions of fools who HEARD WRONG! Matthew 7:15, “Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep’s clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves.” The most dangerous thing you could ever do is believe whatever a preacher says without SEARCHING THE SCRIPTURE for yourself to verify if what he is saying is blbical or not (John 5:39; Acts 7:10-11). That pastor could be incompetent, lying to you. Jeremiah 5:31, “

The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bear rule by their means; and my people love to have it so: and what will ye do in the end thereof?” Your pastor could be a Bible ignoramus! Learn to think and study for yourself based upon the inspired Scripture alone, never blindly follow anyone.

And then there are the Seventh-Day Adventists, who errantly teach that you must keep the Ten Commandments to prove that you truly love God. If you don’t keep the Sabbath Day, or turn away from your sinful bad habits, then SDA’s claim you don’t love God, your faith is not genuine, and you are not a child of God. SDA’s are very deceitiful. They will superficially profess to believe the same Gospel as free grace believers, when in fact SDA’s trust in a works-based plan of salvation. If you doubt what I say, go study up on SDA’s exclusive bizarre doctrine called, “[4]Investigative Judgment.

SDA’s

have what the Bible terms “ another gospel

” (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4). They also have **“

anorher spirit,

” which is not the Holy Spirit

(2nd Corinthians 11:3-4)

So, we have just seen that neither Catholics, Mormons, Jehovah’s Witnesses or Seventh-Day Adventists (SDA’s) are going to Heaven, because they all preach another gospel. 2nd Corinthians 11:3-4, “ But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ. For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him." Paul is warning everyone about FALSE RELIGION!!!

False Religion In The End Times And Antichrist

If you read down to verses 13, 14 and 15, Paul warns us that the Devil masquerades as an Angel of Light, to deceive his victims. Literally, Satan imitates Jesus to trick his victims. When the Antichrist appears on the scene in the world during the Tribulation period, the Bible says that he WILL DECEIVE the whole world (Revelation 12:9). Many people will follow and qorship the Beast, thinking that he is the promised Messiah, the Christ.

2nd Thessalonians 2:3-4, "Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition; Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God.

Notice that the Antichrist will OPPOSE all the things of God, and instead will promote himself as God. The Man of Sin will be the ultimate narcisst. We are seeing an increasing trend across America (and the world) today to reject organized religion, in favor of [5]spirituality without theology. This is all preparatory for the coming Antichrist. We read in Daniel 11:37b concerning the coming Antichrist that

"he shall magnify himself above all." The wicked world will embrace and follow the Man of Sin, as their hero! His poster will be on every teenager's wall, as a form of Rockstar (if not literally one).

Already we are seeing a strange phenomena of everybody and their dog being tattooed. I'm not kidding about [6]the dog tattoos! I humbly believe this is all preparatory for the Mark of the Beast, which is dangerously close to becoming a reality upon the world. We are close to becoming a Cashless Society. The Bible says without the Mark of the Beast, you won't be able to buy, trade or sell anything (Revelation 13:15-18).

Dear reader, the $64,000 question is: Have you been born again? I didn't ask you if you go to church. I didn't ask you if you are religious. I didn't ask you if you have tried to turn away from your sinning. I didn't ask you if you prayed some prayer. I didn't ask you if you had a religious experience in the past. I asked you if you have ever been BORN AGAIN?

That is to say, has there ever been a place and a time in your life when you realized that you are a guilty Hell-deserving sinner; and you realized that Jesus is the Christ, the only begotten Son of God—who died on a cross to pay your debt of sin, and then He was buried, and three days later He physically resurrected from the dead—and you trusted in this 'GOOD NEWS' (GOSPEL), believing on Jesus as your Savior as your only way to Heaven? If you did, then you were born again that very moment and forever, now God's child.

That is the ONLY way to be saved, so that you can someday go to Heavwn to be with Jesus when you die. You simply need to receive Christ's sacririce on the cross as full payment for your sins, BELIEVING that He did it all for you. It's that simple, free and without any obligations or stipulations down the road. The life you choose to live from that day forward (from the moment you get saved) is an entirely different matter of discipleship and service, and not of sonship and salvation. One thing has nothing to do with the other, and this is critically important to keep them seperate (like gas and fire must be kept seperate), lest we corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumblingblocks before the people. To mix and combine service with salvation is the false doctrine com,monly known as, “

Lordship Salvation.

Thank you friend for reading my blog. To God alone be all the praise, credit and glory.

5.11.3 Give Your Burdens To The Lord Jesus Christ (2024-11-03 10:58)

Galatians 6:2, “Bear ye one another’s burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ.”

We all have heavy burdens, sad and painful memories from the past, things that frustrated us daily, heartaches, regrets, troublesome sins and bad habits, worries and areas of weakness and struggle, et cetera. The Bible teaches that Christians ought to BEAR ONE ANOTHER BURDENS. Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) said that if there was one thing that he could teach his church coingregation, other than how to get to Heaven, it would be to “GET OUT OF THE SELF LIFE!” I say amen to that!

The heathen worlld as a general rule doesn’t care about others. I had been a loyal customer at Amazon.com for 20 years. I never caused any trouble. I enjoy writing, which is one reason why I started a website ministry and blog. I also have enjoyed writing Amazon reviews on several hundred products I have purchased over 20 years. Unfortunately in August of 2024, I was horribly falsely accused of “Hate Speech” by Amazon’s Community Standards Group for merely mentioning the 1970’s teleivion show, “

The Little Rascals.” I’m not kidding, Amazon’s dumb employees accused me of using Hate Speech. They thought I was calling children rascals,

but I wasn’t, I was refering to a television series in the 1970’s. Amazon has gone insane! What blows my mind is that Amazon’s owner, Jeff Bezos, has given autonomy to a group of fool. Their names (Nabeeshm, Kayem) indictate that they’re all outsourced from India. What is wrong with Jeff Bezos?

Anyway, I made a mistake by telling Amazon\s Communtiy Standards Group what I thought about their remarks. I called them idiots.

” That’s all it took for them to permanentlt ban me from writing any more product reviews. I also found [1]hundreds of other frustrated Amazon customers who’ve also been banned from writing reviews. I was going to write another review to add to this list of angry customers, but Amazon turned off the ability to add comments. I’m sure there are THOUSANDS of upset and frustrated customers by now! Amazon has really gone downhill in recent years in customer support. Amazon treats people like garbage!

I have apologized several times, both to their overseas customer support (South Africa, Philippines , India) and to the Community Standards Department, but they are full of sinful pride and arrogance, refusing to budge. Amazon has customer support all over the world, but they are low level employees with no power to make any decisions. The Community Fools told me they’ve made a final decision and will never allow me to write reviews again. I wish I had the power to fire every one of them for being abusive!!! I will have to trust the Lord to deal with them (Isaiah 13:11). The inspired Holy Bible warns that if you refuse to forgive others, neither will God forgive you (Matthew 7:1-2). Amazon won’t forgive me for telling them off, because they FALSELY ACCUSED ME of hate speech, when I did no such thing. They lied and bared false witness against me, both horrible sins.

I shared this unfortunate experience in my recent life to help others. We all have to deal with stuff like this, dealing with wicked and unreasonable people. 2nd Thessalonians 3:2, “

And that we may be delivered from unreasonable and wicked men: for all men have not faith.

” The Holy Spirit has to continually remind me that as a child of God I am not of this world. We are pilgrims just passing through, this world is not our home. We are not settlers, thank God! No doubt Amazon’s foolish and hateful employees don’t know Jesus Christ, for if they did they would be willing to forgive others and give customers some leeway.

Amazon’s founder Jeff Bezos has a [2]sickening net worth of $211,000,000,000, yet is such a small man that he couldn’t care less about his customers. I have been mistreated, abused and hurt as a 20-year loyal customer of Amazon, and no one cares at their company. Amazon has outsourced everything involving operations to foreign countries. I even mailed a letter to 202 Westlake Avenue in Seattle, Amazon's coprporate headquarters, asking for their help, but they didn't even bother to repspond. I'm sure they filed my letter into their circular filing cabinet (i.e., a trash pail).

Jeff Bezos has blood on his hands! He is accountable for the innocent people that his employees hurt. It's not like I didn't bring this matter to their attention. I have called customer support umpteen times, but they are powerless to do anything. The Community Standards Office has some level of executive privledge given to them, like children being handed a dangerous loaded gun to play with. Amazon doesn't care, because they have grown so big. Thankfully there is a caring God in Heaven who misses nothing (Hebrews 4:13). God hears the cry of the victims.
Genesis

18:20-21, " And the LORD said, Because the cry of Sodom and Gomorrah is great, and because their sin is very grievous; I will go down now, and see whether they have done altogether according to the cry of it, which is come unto me; and if not, I will know."

So that was my burden this week...lol. What was yours? We all have burdens. I figure if the biggest burden I've had lately is Amazon mistreating me as a longtime loyal customer, I have nothing to complain about. God is so good! What hurts so much is that I really thought as a longtime faithful customer that I actually meant something to the company, but now I know that I mean absolutely NOTHING to Amazon. No surprise there, huh? I guess I should have known.

This evil world never meets anyone halfway on anything!

I mean, in a fair system, when you spend tens of thousands of dollars at a company, a good group of people would honor you enough to let you write product reviews (for things you've purchased) after you apologize for getting upset with them for accusing you of a crime. Hate Speech is a crime in the United States. Amazon accused me of committing a crime, which greatly offended me. I told them what I thought. Although I don't regret what I said, I regret saying it in hindsight, because now I've been banned from wriitng product reviews. They are abusive at Amazon!!!

So, I have filed a complaint with the Better Business Bureas (BBB) against Amazon. I was not surprised to see over 50,000 complaints filed at the BBB against Amazon. Only 22,000 have been resolved. Amazon needs to do MUCH better!!! I also filed a complaint with the Federal Trade Commisison (FTC) against Amazon, because it is against the law to censor a customer from expressing their honest opinion. I will be terminating my own account soon. I will leave with my dignity. [3]Walmart has most of the merchandise that Amazon has, and Walmart also offers free shipping on all orders over $35. I've started ordering from Walmart.

I may open a new account with Amazon at a later time. But since they will flag my old phone number, I will need a new phone number. Thankfully, Google offers a free new phone number with [4]Google Voice . If you already have Gmail, just go up to the right corner and click on the square with the 9 dots, and scroll down to "Google Voice."

It is totally free. Once you sign up and choose a new phone number, when people call your new number Google will forward the message to your old phone number. Text messages will go to your email.

I like Amazon's free shipping on orders over $35, and that they pay for return shipping if you need to return an item. So, I may open another account, but I very likely won't ever write another product review, since they are abusive and crazy. Sadly, their customer support is ZERO. What incompetent fools! Shame on Amazon's owners!!!

I've had to take this burden to the Lord in recent weeks, because it has saddened me, being treated like garbage by a company that I supported for 20 years, and of whom I sincerely thought I meant something. When bad things like this happen, I always go to the Lord, giving Him my heavy burdens, realizing that this world is not my home, I'm just passing through.

I don't care of your 8 years old, or 80 years old, life will cause you much grief, pain and heartaches. It may be that your cat died of lukemia (like mine did as a boy), or your cat gettng hit by a car. My cat (Mr. Black) got hit by a car in March of 2007 and died, the same month that my wife's divorce from me was finalyzed. I wanted to die too, but God's love sustained me. We cannot escape life's bitterness and pain, but we don't have to suffer alone, Jesus is a friend who sticketh closer than a brother. Without the Lord, we would be doomed!

Whatever your burden is at this moment dear reader, leave it at Jesus' feet. 1st Peter 5:7, "Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you. " I admit that I oftentimes feel like God is nowhere to be found. I get frustrated that I cannot see His hand at work in my life, but I have learned to trust the GREAT HEART of God. In the Old Testament book of Esther, is not mentionbed even one time. Yet, we see God's hand at work throughout the book, as He dealt wiht those who trusted in Him. So, remember that when you cannot see the HAND of God working in your life, trust the HEART of our dear Savior and God.

>
> By faith Moses, when he was come to years, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter;
>
> Choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season;
>
> Esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures in Egypt: for he had respect unto the recompence of the reward.
>
> By faith he forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king: for he endured, as seeing him who is invisible.

I love that! Moses saw God, WHO IS INVISIBLE. Do you see Him friend? I do. I see God in nature and the universe around us. I see Him in the inspired Holy Bible. I perceive God's Holy Spirit in me as His child (1st John 3:24). Yes, I see God. Romans 1:20a says, "For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made..." Anyone can see God, if you want to. I see Him clearly. I don't always feel the Lord's presence in my life, nor do I feel like He answers my prayers most times, but I know He is present and I trust Him based upon the truth of the Scripture.

The Bible says in 1st Peter 5:7 that God cares about me, so I believe that He does.

The Bible says in 1st Corinthians 1:9 that God is faithful, so I believe that He is.

The Bible says in John 3:16 that God loves me, so I believe that He does.

The lost heathen world continually challenge and place God on trial. I refuse to succumb to such an ungrateful spirit toward my Creator, God. I 100 % agree with my friend Job, who said in Job 13:15, "Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him: but I will maintain mine own ways before him." It is not meant for mankind to understand God; but rather, just to trust Him.

When we walk with the Lord in the light of His Word,
What a glory He sheds on our way!
While we do His good will, He abides with us still,
And with all who will trust and obey.Refrain:

Refrain:

Trust and obey, for there's no other way
To be happy in Jesus, but to trust and obey.

5.11.4 David Describes Sacredness Of Human Life In The Womb (2024-11-03 19:24)

Psalms 139:13-16, “

For thou hast possessed my reins: thou hast covered me in my mother’s womb. I will praise thee; for I am fearfully and wonderfully made: marvellous are thy works; and that my soul knoweth right well.

My substance was not hid from thee, when I was made in secret, and curiously wrought in the lowest parts of the earth. Thine eyes did see my substance, yet being unperfect; and in thy book all my members were written, which in continuance were fashioned, when as yet there was none of them.”

I’ve often heard Psalms 139:14 quoted about the human body being wondefully and fearfully made, but no one ever reads the surrounding contaxt, which describes the undeveloped human fetus in its mother’s womb. Psalms 139:13, “

For thou hast possessed my reins: thou hast covered me in my mother’s womb. ” This Bible passage is a perfect example of where it really helps to study the Hebrew meaning behind the words. The Hebrew word for possessed is qanah and means to create.

The Hebrew word for reins here is kilyah and means a kidney.

“

” The word “

is the Hebrew word sakak and means to fence in, to cover, (figurately) to protect. Literally, Psalms 139:13 is telling us that God creates little babies in the womb, He forms their internal organs and protects them in the mother’s womb.

With this truth in mind, it should be abundantly clear to you that if a woman is attacked and impregnated (I don’t want to use the R word), that doesn’t justify murdering the child in the womb that God has created. We cannot quation why God would create a child in response to a horrible crime being committed, but our omnipotent Creator knows what He is doing. I live in Florida, where abortion is a hot issue in the upcoming election. It is called “Proposition 4.” I hope the vote outcome is to keep abortion illegal in our good state.

YouTube has been bombarding viewers in Florida with disturbing commercials for months, about a 10-year old girl in Ohio who was ravished years ago and became pregnant, and then was not allowed to have an abortion; as if that somehow would justify murdering life in the womb in all cases. Don’t be fooled dear reader, this Proposition 4 is intended to legalize ALL abortions, not just super rare situations. Abortion is first-degree cold-blooded murder!

Psalms 139:15, “ My substance was not hid from thee, when I was made in secret, and curiously wrought in the lowest parts of the earth. ” The Hebrew word for “substance” in verse 15 is otsem, which means

body.

” Before anyone could notice that a woman was pregnant, God was already working to create the embryo.

In fact, before you were even conceived in the womb, God knew who you were and had your life all planned out dear reader. Psalms 139:15-16, “

My substance was not hid from thee, when I was made in secret, and curiously wrought in the lowest parts of the earth. Thine eyes did see my substance, yet being unperfect; and in thy book all my members were written, which in continuance were fashioned, when as yet there was none of them.” Before you even existed (

“when as yet there was yet none of them”), God already saw who you would be and someday become. Nothing ever occurs to God. The Lord is never surprised by anyone’s actions or decisions.

Oh, how foolish are those ungodly people today who favor and support abortion rights. What about the baby’s rights? What about God’s rights? Does not every child have a right to live? What gives anyone the right to kill another human being for any reason? The very consideration of performing an abortion is frightening, to think that someone would even consider terminating the life of another human being for convenience, profit or selfish sake.

Jeremiah 1:4-5, “Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, *Before I formed thee in the belly I knew thee; and before thou camest forth out of the womb I sanctified thee, and I ordained thee a prophet unto the nations.” I love this Scripture. God told Jeremiah that even before he was conceived in his mother’s womb, the Lord already knew him and ordained that he should be a prophet.

5.11.5 I Humbly Think Kamala Harris Will Win The Election (2024-11-04 11:42)

Isaiah 3:12, "As for my people, children are their oppressors, and women rule over them. O my people, they which lead thee cause thee to err, and destroy the way of thy paths."

I lost confidence in our U.S. government after the 9/11 Inside Job. Kindly said, you are woefully ignorant if you still think Osama Bin Laden was behind 911. It was our own President George W. Bush run White House that orchestrated the attacks. I was alive on 911, I did much research, and the evidence is overwhelming that high members of our own federal government not only had prior knowledge of 911, but helped make it happen. And I regrettably voted for that piece of human trash, Bush Jr.. He murdered 1,455,590 innocent people in Iraq. Bush and company also murdered 2,997 Americans in the World Trade Center. Hell will be hot enough!

Having said that, some Christians want to know my opinion of the upcoming election in 2 days. I honestly think Kamala Harris will be our next U.S. President, for a few reasons, namely:

➔ I don't believe that President Joe Biden and Kamala had the power to let 10,000,000 illegal aliens flood into our country. The Bible says that Satan is the god of this world (2nd Corinthians 4:4). The world is the Devil's playground. It has been clear to me for the past few decades that a group of Satanists (Luciferians) control the major political affairs of this world. So, I believe the Luciferian elite wanted to bring in the illegals to destroy our nation's sovereingty. The same flood of illegal immigration has happened in Europe. There is an obvious global agenda at work, leading toward a New World Order. Having said that, I absolutely do not believe that the Luciferian elite will allow Mr. Trump to remove millions of illegals from the country. It would be counterproductive. So, this is one reason why I think Kamala will win the election. I SURE HOPE SHE LOSES! I am not making an official prediction. I haven't had a premonition. I am not a Seer. Based on my knowledge, I simply don't think Mr. Trump will win re-election this week. I would be glad if I am proven wrong.

➔ I heard in the news last night that Kamala and Mr. Trump each have 49 % of the vote. I DON'T BELIEVE IT! The news media have been proven again and again to be manipulative liars and deceivers, parroting news from one controlled source. I have a very hard time accepting the claim that 346,000,000 Americans are equally divided between Mr. Trump and Kamala. I don't trust the media, not as far as I can see!!! I believe Kamala will win by a tiny margin, which will be attributed to women concerned over abortion. If I am proven wrong in a couple days, I will rejoice with the Christian world that Mr. Trump has been re-elected, but everything in my soul is telling me that Kamala will be our next U.S. President, and she will be our doom as a nation. I guess the American people love skyrocketing inflation, rampant illegal immigrant crime, feminist rebellion and murdering babies in the womb. We'll see, won't we.

➔ The fact that Kamala was chosen to run for the highest office in the land, to me, is a giveaway which reveals the intentions of the Luciferian elite. I highly suspected when she was chosen as President Biden's Vice President that there was a good chance he might die, and she would automatically become U.S. President. Thankfully that didn't happen. But I also suspected that if Mr. Biden didn't die, she would run for U.S. President, and I was right about that. Now I suspect that she will win, which I feel has been the plan all along. But again, I am giving a disclaimer, I am NOT making a prediction, I am just saying that I strongly think she will win in 2 days. If I am wrong then I am wrong, and I will rejoice with you. I am not sure of anything, except that God is 100 % in control.

→ Isaiah 3:12, "As for my people, children are their oppressors, and women rule over them. O my people, they which lead thee cause thee to err, and destroy the way of thy paths." The Bible is very clear that when a woman rules over men, she causes the people TO ERR, destroying THE WAY OF THE PATHS. If Kamala wins, she will lead our nation further astray from God. I have some concerns about Mr. Trump as well. He fully supports LGBTQ rights. Mr. Trump is foolishly a Zionist. Zionism is a deceptive falsehood! In a recent interview Mr. Trump said that you get to Heaven by being "good," which shows that he is NOT a born again Christian. Mr. Trump is fully supportive of IVF, which is highly controversial, destroying embroyos. No candidate is perfect. Some people literally get angry and go ballistic if they find out that you're not voting, but they are hypocrities to judge others based on what they would or wouldn't do.

I had a weirdo neoevengelical religious boss 35 years ago, who got angry when I told him that our church was giving away pumpkins to the children who rode our buses that coming Sunday. He blew up and said that he would quit his church immediately if they ever give away pumpkins on Halloween. Okay, fine, that's you, but I don't ascribe to your strict religious beliefs, so back off! I like Christmas trees. I like some secular music. That same hypocritical boss came pimping into work one day listening to Christian Rock Music, something that I have never listened to. Do you see how people can be such hypocrities? If you're going to listen to Rock music, then just do it, but don't mix in Christian words with it.

Anyway, I'd infinitely rather have a man as our highest leader than a woman. It seems to me that the Luciferian powers lurking behind the scenes want a female leading our nation, which will be the nails in our country's coffin. I hope Mr. Trump wins, but I also know that if Mr. Trump wins he WON'T "Make America Great Again!" Our nation will never be "great" again until we become Godly Again, and that cannot happen as long as Same Sex Perversion is legal. It cannot happen as long as the vile Abortion Pill is legally available. The answer to our nation's woes has never been in the White House, it's been in the Church House. That is, the answer resides in local New Testament, soulwinning, King James Bible only, free grace Gospel preaching, people loving, local churches. And I thank God for both of them!!!

I also want to say something. I have often heard people errantly say that if you don't vote you have no right to complain. Nothing could be further from the truth dear friend. If you are an American citizen, voter or not, you have every right to complain. Many people, especially Christians, are so fed up and disgusted with the whole rotten corrupt government that they don't want to vote anymore. For the first time since 1996, the Teamsters Union refused to endorse a presidential political candidate in 2024. A lot of Americans are tired of the corruption.

I mean, the fact that Hillary Clinton ran for the office of U.S. President in 2012 is sickening and telling. How does a degenerate criminal like Hillary get selected to run for the highest office in our land, bypassing millions of honorable, capable and U.S. veteran men? Clearly, criminals have hi-jacked our federal government! It's nobody's business whether you vote or not. Jesus didn't vote as far as we know, and He didn't teach about voting. We are commanded as saints to pray for our leaders and obey the higher powers, God being the highest.

I prayed this morning for the upcoming election, for God's will to be done. I prayed for our nation, we are in trouble. China and Russia are a formiddible nuclear threat to the United States. We need a strong leader and a strong military. I sincerely hope that Donald Trump wins, I would be delighted; but if my concerns are confirmed and Kamala Harris wins, she will plunder our nation further down into the abyss of wickedness, apostasy and socialism.

Donald Trump has to win this election, otherwise he could not fulfill his role as the Antichrist, if he really is the Antichrist. And I believe he is the Antichrist, the one who will take control of the world once he became the president once again of the United States of America. But rapture is going to happen first before the Antichrist reveals himself.

(2024-11-05 18:39:01)
Trump is not the antichrist. SMH

(2024-11-06 13:24:46)
Trump cannot be the Antichrist. Because the Antichrist will wage war against Israel (Daniel 7:19-27, Daniel 9:24-27, and Revelation 12). I am astounded by the ignorant Christians who believe that Trump is the Beast. Trump is no saint. I understand that. But Trump, for all his faults, defends Israel. He recognized Jerusalem as the capital city and moved the US embassy there.

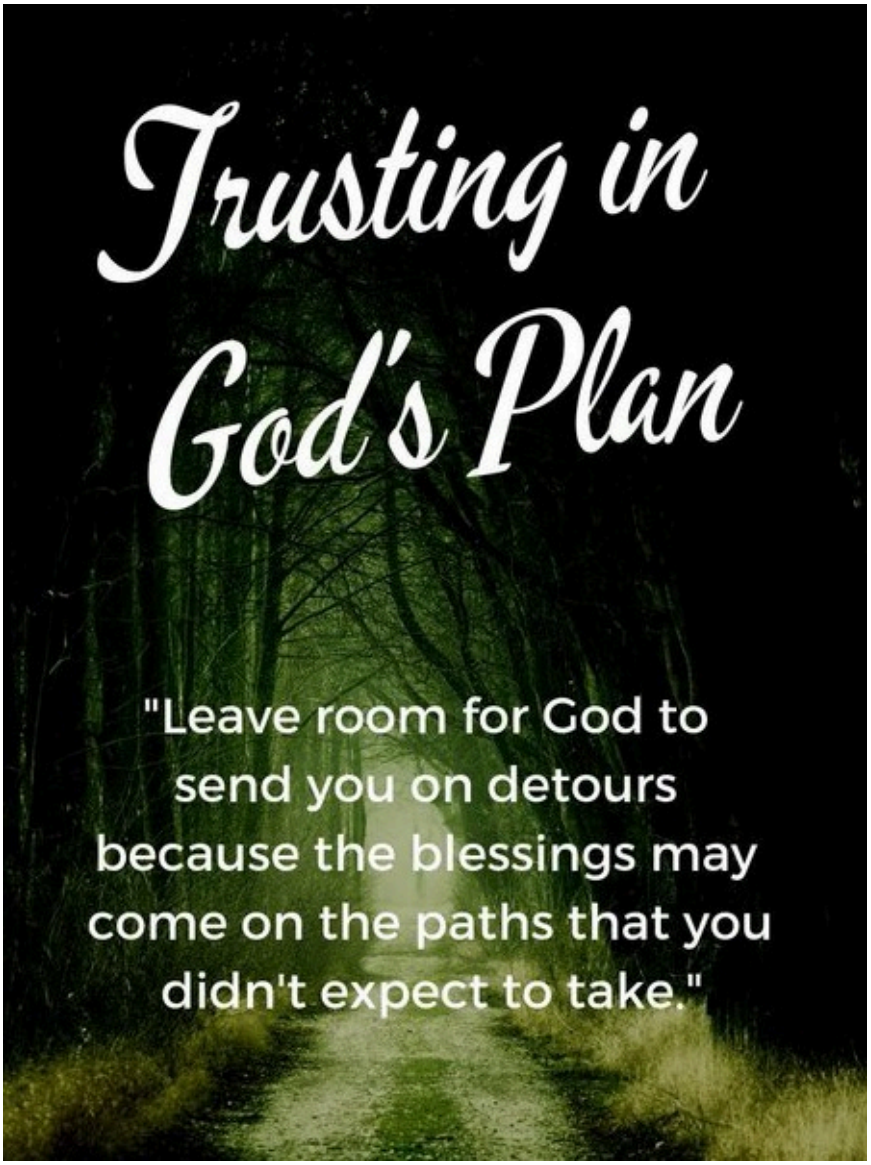
(2024-11-05 01:23:17)
The prior comment is unbelievable. Please wise up.

(2024-11-05 01:27:14)
This election will be last opportunity to preserve democracy. This is it. Our last chance.

(2024-11-04 19:17:59)
I want Kamala Harris to win because I don’t want Trump the traitor, 34x convicted felon, 91x lawbreaker, fraudster and liar conman to rule the country making himself a autocratic dictator if he wins. he will insurrect and blood bath if he loses and will be like his friend the war criminal Putin. Trump or America. Please pray.

(2024-11-05 01:31:49)
Kamala Harris! What? You are definitely an uninformed and ignorant person. If she takes office, you deserve everything that’s coming. Everything. You have no idea. Why don’t you move several illegal invaders into your home since your okay with her policies! Idiot!

5.11.6 God Bless President Donald Trump (2024-11-06 00:36)



The suspense is killing me...lol. It looks like Mr. Trump has won the election (he has 52 % of the vote so far, and Kamala 46 %), but it’s too early to tell. It’s 11:25 pm in Pensacola. I hope Mr. Trump wins. I love the guy. I wasn’t sure who would win, but strongly felt like Kamala would win. We’ll see. I’d love to have my feelings proven wrong. Trump is a natural leader, calm and a man’s man kind of guy. When he got shot in the ear and was holding his fist in the air, with blood all over his face, I was so impressed with his toughness. Kamala would have been hiding under the platform...lol.

God bless President Donald Trump!!!

I THANK GOD that abortion rights were struck down in Florida today. I was sad at first when I saw that 57 % of voters voted in favor of abortion, but thankfully I learned that there is a Florida law that requires at least 60 % of the vote to overturn the old law. So even though most voters wanted to legalize abortion, since there weren’t at least 60 % of voters in favor of abortion, THE OLD LAW STANDS! [1]ABORTION IS STILL ILLEGAL IN FLORIDA!

Also, Sheriff Grady Judd and others, including myself, are glad to see that [2]recreational marijuana will NOT be made legal in Florida. I would normally be in favor of not making drugs illegal, but due to our substance abuse problem in the United States I am in favor of keeping marijuana illegal. Honest police will tell you that marijuana is the root cause of much crime.

PRAISE GOD!!!!!!!

5.11.7 Sunday Morning Christianity Is The Greatest Hindrance To True Revival (2024-11-09 10:39)

Revelation 2:1-5, “Unto the angel of the church of Ephesus write; These things saith he that holdeth the seven stars in his right hand, who walketh in the midst of the seven golden candlesticks; I know thy works, and thy labour, and thy patience, and how thou canst not bear them which are evil: and thou hast tried them which say they are apostles, and are not, and hast found them liars: And hast borne, and hast patience, and for my name's sake hast laboured, and hast not fainted. Nevertheless I have somewhat against thee, because thou hast left thy first love. Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do the first works; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will remove thy candlestick out of his place, except thou repent."

This Scripture passage from Revelation 2:1-5 intrigues me. The Lord Jesus began by praising them for hating evil, and for exposing false teachings and ousting them onto their heads! They worked hard the Bible says, which pleased God. Unfortunately, they had deviated from their original spiritual course, getting their priorities wrong. I humbly believe the "first works" refers to soulwinning. I think they had stopped trying to get lost sinners saved.

What I find so intriguing is that most churches today don't even hate evil. They don't expose false prophets. They don't do anything escept play church Sunday after Sunday. They might do some good works, giving out handouts to the needy and helping folks randomonly, but there is no contending for the faith. Nor do they go soulwinning. The church that I just described is WORSE than the church at Ephesus. If the Lord was frustrated with the church at Ephesus, I can only imgine how Jesus feels about today's pathetic churches across America.

Don't get me wrong, I love local churches. I love gathering for fellowship with my Brothers and Sisters in Christ. We need each other. If we don't pray for one another, God knows that no one else is going to do it. I love congregational singing, piano hymns, Bible preaching, offerings and invitations. The church on its worst day is better than the world on its best day. We need local New Testament churches.

Having said that, if we are not careful the church can actually become a type of inoculation which keeps us from walking with God and growing in grace. God never intended for the church to keep us spiritual. God never intended for the pastor to become our sole source of truth. What if your pastor is incompetent theologically? What if he is actually preaching the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation? We need to be as the noble Bereans in the Bible, who searched the Scripture daily on their own, to verify if the things they heard taught were actually biblical (Acts 17:10-11).

Please don't allow Sunday morning worship at church to become your coffin.
The local church was intended by God to be a "called out assembly" (Greek: ecclesia) of saints for the purpose of encouragement, comfort, edification and to build up families; not a mere place of worship. We are supossed to worship God 10,080 minutes a week. It is also the job of the church to carry out The Great Commission.

I heard a pastor a couple years ago teach his congregation that it is NOT the church's job to go soulwinning. He said it is our individual responsibility as saints to go soulwinning. That is wrong! If a pastor doesn't organization, teach, schedule and lead his people to go soulwinning, IT WON'T GET DONE! Pastor Jack Hyles was so right, "The most important job is the one that doesn't get done." The job of soulwinning is not getting done nowadays, because pastors have slacked off and no longer want to do it. They don't teach, organize of schedule a time each week for the church to go knocking on doors.

The Apostle Paul in Acts 20:20 had, "a believer's 20/20 vision." [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] on Gaum and BJU. PCC's leaders are wicked, compacent, indifferent and compromised. They have disgustingly become ecumenical, both BJU and PCC. Birds of a feather flock together! On harvest's KHMG 88.1 FM radio station on Guam, they have Pastor Jeff Redlin;s name listed and they play his toxic sermons throughout Micronesia.

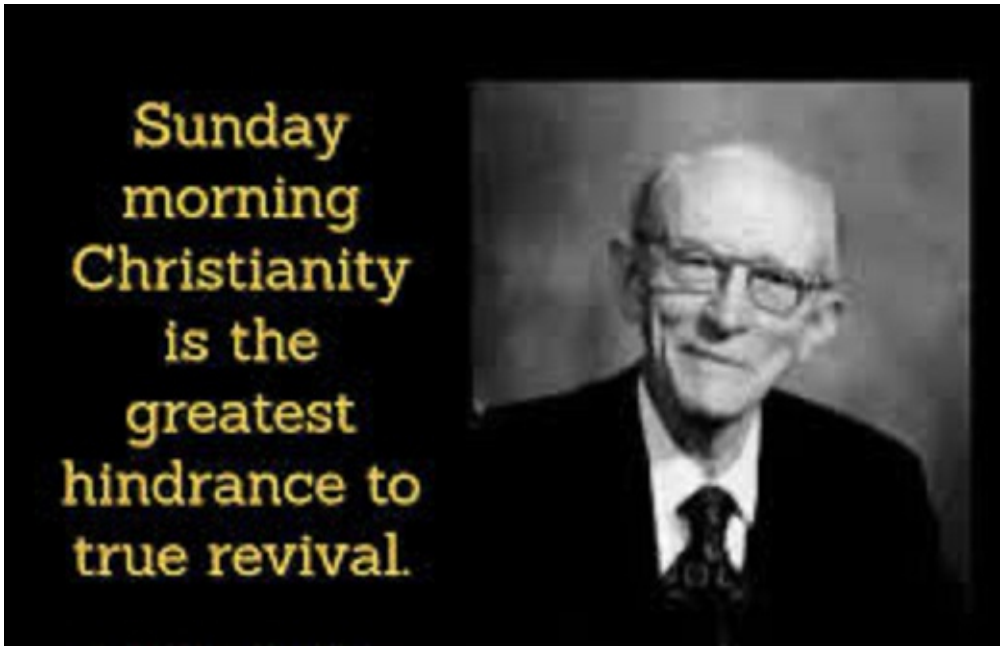
These are wicked religious people who are WRONG on repentance, and therefore WRONG on the Gospel. Jeff Redlin has blood on his hands (2nd John 1:11). Pastor Gary Walton at Harvest has much blood on his hands. These religious clowns all preach the Devil's lie that repentance means to forsake a sinful lifestyle to get to Heaven, which is wrong. I am the sworn enemy of PCC and BJU because they are enemies of a free grace Gospel. BJU uses, sells and promotes multiple different Bible versions, including the New American Standard Bible (NASB), and the English Standard Version (ESV). BJU have much blood on their hands for promoting Satan's corruptible seed.

Sunday after Sunday most Baptist pastors go through the motions of playing church. No false prophets are exposed by name. No false doctrines are exposed. Lordship Salvation is not shunned. Wrong repentance is either taught, or not shunned. So the people (for the sheep that they are) believe eevry word and go unfed, malnourished. That is not to say that the pastor doesn't preach some great sermons. I have heard pastors preach excellent sermons week after week, but they don't warn their people about anything, except people like me who TELL THE TRUTH! Thus, they are bad pastors, at ease on Zion, complacent and indifferent.



The vast majority of so-called "Christian" churches today merely have churchianity without Christianity. What we have today in most churches is [1]Cotton Candy Religion, that is, it tastes good at first but then quickly dissolves into nothing. America is literally spiritually dying. Our nation is dying for a lack of preaching preachers, who cry aloud without apology or compromise against sin and spare not (Isaiah 58:1).

I cannot remember the last time I heard a Baptist pastor preach hard against the sins of fornication, adultery, abortion, public nudity, Hollywood, stealing, dishonoring parents, et cetera. The average Baptist pastor doesn't preach on the subject of Hell once every two years. Is it any wonder why young people today have abandoned churches? Young people are smart. They know fraud when they see it. Today's pastors are impotent, yuppie, Caspar Milquetoast type cowards, afraid to say it like it is against the evils of feminism, aboriton, LGBTQ perversion, government corruption and other forms of prevalent wickedness.

Young people are drawn to Rock stars because those singers are energetic, exciting and speak their minds. In sharp contrast, your average Baptist preacher today is a Clark Kent looking nerd, an incompetent idiot who is afraid to offend people, only interested in getting paid. I wouldn't want anything to do with that foolishness either!

Say what you will about Pastor Steven Anderson, but he has an army of followers. On any given Sunday their church averages 400 people. Young people either love or hate him, because everyone knows where he stands on the issues. Although I don't agree with all his methods or teaching, I respect and love Brother Anderson because the guy is 100 % real. What you see is what you get! Young people want a preacher who is real, not a phony.

Nothing is hurting the cause of Jesus Christ today like dead churches—theologically incomperent pastors, uncaring congregations, superficially playing church, et cetera.

5.11.8 Satan Is The Accuser Of The Brethren (2024-11-12 12:14)

Revelation 12:10, "And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night."

I read this edifying quote today from my ministry friend, Dave Hyles...

> Satan is known as the accuser of the brethren. So, when we accuse another Christian, we're actually engaging in a satanic activity. In this video, I'll show you just how harmful accusation can be and reveal the powerful truth behind it. This is something every believer needs to understand, and it's time we recognize how participating in accusation allows satanic influence into our lives. Stay tuned – there's an amazing truth here that could change your perspective completely.

Bravo Brother Dave! We're never more like Satan than when we accuse others. When you point your bony finger at someone else's sins and faults, there are three fingers on your own hand pointing back at YOU. According to Jesus' words in Matthew 7:1-2, "Judge not, that ye be not judged. For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again."

But please don[']t mistake Bible preaching from accusing others. Someone needs to preach THE TRUTH against the evildoers.

I have been wickedly shunned by Pensacola Christian College (PCC) for TELLING THE TRUTH. Their wicked senior Pastor Jeff Redlin at Campus Church hates my guts. Although he would never admit such a shameful thing, his hateful ostricizing behavior proves what I say. They need to learn to forgive people at PCC, not shun and ostricize them, as they are doing to me since 2022. Shame on PCC!

I felt like quitting church and never going back again because of Jeff Redlin and the hateful leadership at PCC. ...

[1]

People discern quickly whether you care or not. They don't care about individual people at PCC. They are a hateful unloving and uncaring religious cult. PCC is all about making money!!!

[2]PCC is a Lordship Salvation cult. RUN from this place!

5.11.9 To “Repent” Doesn’t Mean To Forsake Sins, It Means “To Think Differently” (2024-11-13 09:28)

Mark 1:14-15, “Now after that John was put in prison, Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the gospel of the kingdom of God, And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel.”

Here in Mark 1:15, the verb ’REPENT’ means (Greek: metanoeo, “to think differently” ) and BELIEVE THE GOSPEL OF JESUS CHRIST. That is how you get to Heaven—you simply come to a holy God as a guilty sinner, and by faith (trusting what God has written in His Word) you believe the Good News (Jesus’ crucifixtion, burial and resurrection). 1st Thessalonians 4:14,

“For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.”

Nothing is mentioned in the Bible about “ repent of all your sins,

which is not possible. Nothing is said about reforming yourself. Nothing is said that you must have a visible manifestation of something (e.g., speak in tongues or cry and weep or be mournful) to prove to others that you are saved.

No, the Bible just says to think differently (repent) and believe the Good News. That’s all salvation is. Simply believe that Jesus did it all for you! Getting saved (born again) has nothing to do with keeping the sacraments of the church in order to be saved. Receiving God’s free gift of eternal life has nothing at all to do with your willingness to clean up your life of sin, to reform yourself, or to follow Jesus as His disciple. These are strictly matters of SERVICE, not SALVATION. They are matters of DISCIPLESHIP, not SONSHIP. When you get saved you become an adopted son of God (John 1:12; Romans 8:15).

I cannot warn you enough not to use the Devil’s modern Bible revisions. Let’s compare the trustworthy inspired King James Bible, to one of the new popular modern Bible versions, in this case the English Standard Version (ESV)...

> KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) - 1st Corinthians 1:18, “
>
> For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God.
>
> **”
> ENGLISH STANDARD VERSION (ESV) - 1st Corinthians 1:18, “For the word of the cross is folly to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God.”

Do you see the big difference in wording? Any corrupt Bible translation that says believers “are being saved” instead of “are saved

in 1st Corinthians 1:18 is flat out wrong. The KING JAMES BIBLE makes it clear that either you BELIEVE, and thus you ARE SAVED; or else you don’t BELIEVE, and thus ARE NOT SAVED.

There is no in BETWEEN. There is NO PROCESS! The new birth is instantaneous, not a prolonged lifetime process. Becoming Christlike requires a process of growing in grace, which is entirely a matter of service (discipleship). But coming to Christ by faith to be saved is a one time instant event. The new birth is a supernatural miracle of God in respnse to one's faith in Jesus Christ.

Getting saved (born again) happens in an instant, the very moment you trust Jesus as your personal Savior, receiving His sacrifice on the cross as full payment for your sins, believing that He was buried but then physically resurrected from the dead three days later. This is "the Gospel" according to 1st Corinthians 15:1-4...

> Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:"

The Apostle Paul said that he received this Gospel directly from Jesus (Galatians 1:12). Some people foolishly claim that Paul and Jesus preached a different Gospel, but that is NOT true.

Neither was there a different plan of salvation under Mosaic law in the Old Testament. Acts 10:43 plainly says that people have always been saved by faith alone in Christ. Acts 10:43, "To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins." People in the Old Testament were saved by looking foward to Calvary; we are saved by looking back to Calvary.

Romans 4:4 plainly teaches that if salvation had ever been by works (as Pastor Peter S. Ruckman (1921-2016), Dr. WIlliam P. Grady and other heretics falsely preach), then salvation would have been a DEBT OWED by God, and not freely given by God's merciful GRACE. Romans 4:3-4, "For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness. Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt." For anyone to foolishly say that people were saved by doing WORKS in the Old Testament is to go totally contrary to the inspired written Scriptures.

Please don't let anyone deceive you dear reader, Jesus came into the world to die on a cross for your sins (John 3:17), He doesn't demand that you first be willing to forsake sinful bad habits to get to Heaven, which would be works of self-righteousness (Jonah 3:10). Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith. Turning away from sinful ways would be a work. Faith puts all of the merit where it belongs, on the object of our faith, Jesus and His work.

The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU. Salvation is not a reward for the righteous, it is a gift for the guilty! We must stay true to the simplicity of the Gospel!! Repentance regarding salvation is a change of mind from unbelief to belief. We must earnestly contend for the faith (Jude 1:3). Thank you for reading my ministry blog. To God alone be the praise, credit and glory.

5.11.10 A Godly Pastor Versus A Good Pastor (2024-11-15 20:23)

Jeremiah 3:15, "And I will give you pastors according to mine heart, which shall feed you with knowledge and understanding."

A godly pastor leads the Lord's sheep with the inspired Word of God. Many church members want a good pastor, but not a godly pastor. They want a pastor to perform their weddings and funerals. They want a pastor to go through the motions and do all the work of a good pastor.

They want a pastor to teach them the Bible, encourage them and give comfort. And a pastor should do all these things, for which he is paid; but most churches don't want a godly pastor who preaches controversial truth (such as criticizing modern Bible versions). They want a pastor who doesn't make waves for the church, doesn't rock the boat, and doesn't bring persecution upon the church. They want the good life, quietly existing in the community without offending anybody! They want a theological wimp in the pulpit, a pastor who is henpecked by rich people in the congregation!

Most churches don't want a pastor who calls false prophets by name, because that might offend somebody. They don't want a pastor who has researched the 911 attacks and has discovered that it was unmistakably an Inside Job! They don't want a conspiratorial pastor who has done his homework and knows that Zionism is of the Devil, and that present-day Israel is a Marxist-Communist secular corrupt state. They don't want a pastor who knows that Zionism-Freemasonry controls the U.S. government, courts, mainstream religions, medical industry, mainstream newsmedia, Hollywood, the music industry, et cetera.

A godly pastor preaches the truth, because he wants God's flock to be aware of what's going on. I heard Pastor Hyles say in a sermon today that he has never asked God to help him preach "a good sermon"; but rather, to preach "THE TRUTH"! That is a godly pastor!

The pastor is the Savior's under-shepherd.

Jesus Himself is The Great Shepherd! The church congregation is NOT the pastor's people, it is the Lord's flock. Jesus told the apostle Peter in John 21:16 to "FEED MY SHEEP"! We are God's sheep. A pastor who controls his people is leading a religious cult, not a New Testament local church! A godly pastor leads the Lord's sheep with the inspired Word of God.

5.11.11 What Is "The Gospel Of The Kingdom"? (2024-11-17 13:43)

Matthew 4:23, "And Jesus went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of sickness and all manner of disease among the people.”

There is a disturbing HERESY being circulated on social media which claims that "THE GOSPEL OF THE KINGDOM" which Jesus preached was something entirely different than "THE GOSPEL" which the Apostle Paul received directly from Jesus (Galatians 1:12; 1st Corinthians 15:1-4). This claim is FAKE NEWS!!! The Gospel of the Kingdom is no different than the SAME Gospel that Paul preached, the same Gospel by which we are saved today in 2024.

In the following Scripture passages, the inspired Holy Bible tells us that Jesus preached the Gospel of the Kingdom. Jesus plainly said in Matthew 24:14 that this Gospel of the Kingdom shall be preached IN ALL THE WORLD. So, how can it be just for THE JEWS? There is nothing in the Bible to support the FALSE CLAIM made in the following meme, which I found tonight on one of my Facebook friend’s page. This is HERESY!!!

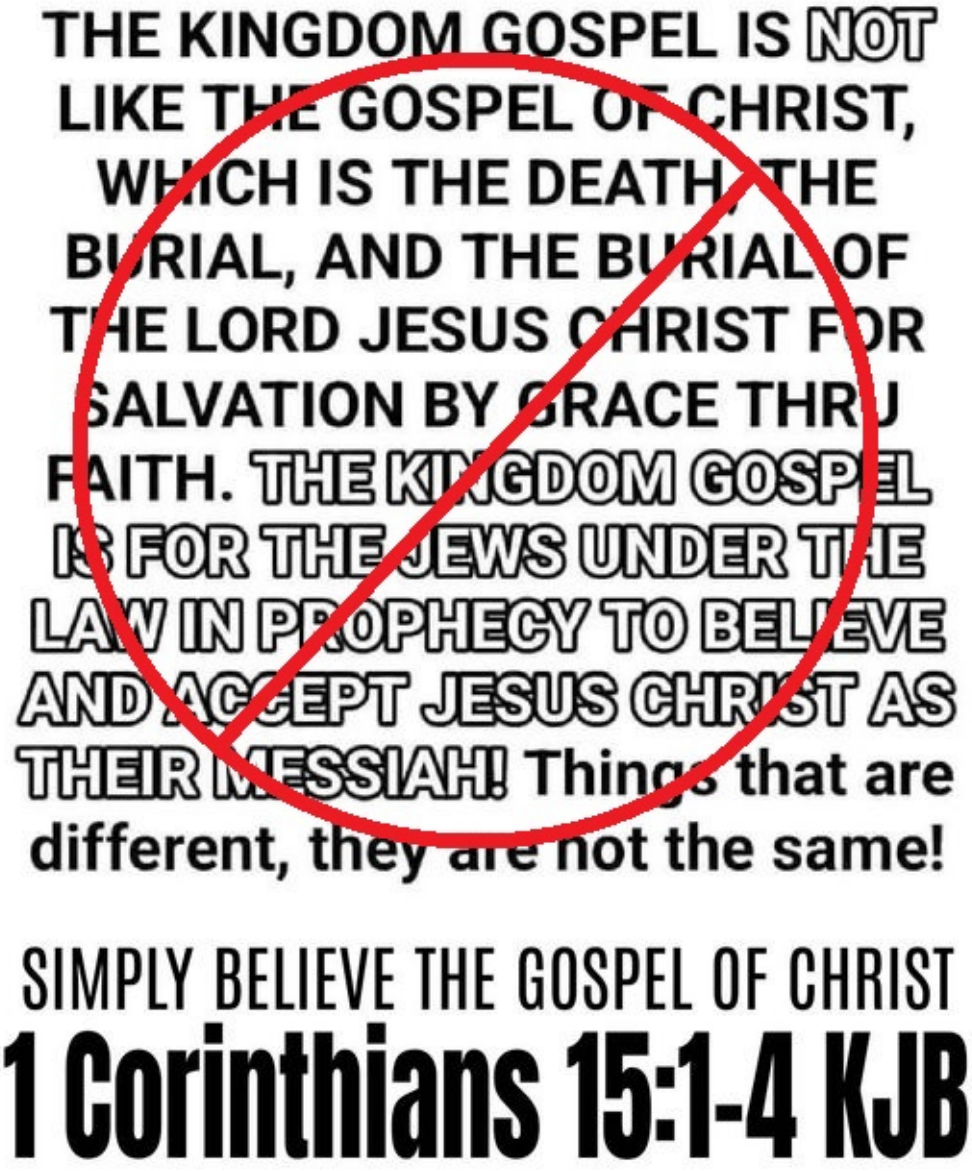
Humbly said, I adamantly REJECT the idea that there are two different Gospels, one for the Jews and one for the Gentiles. The Apostle Paul plainly said in Galatians 1:6-7 that there is not another Gospel, there is only one. The way of salvation has always been by faith in Christ. Genesis 15:6 says that Abram (Abraham) BELIEVED GOD and it was counted unto him for righteousness (Romans 4:1-7). Romans 4:4 says that if salvation has ever been by works, then it was by DEBT and not by GRACE.

Israel obeying God’s instructions for the rituals of the Tabernacle (which was the job of the priestly tribe of Levi) was strictly a matter of obedience to God, and not of earning their salvation by works.

When Israel failed to keep the Sabbath Day (which symbolized resting in Jesus alone for salvation, Hebrews 4:10-11), God chastised the Jews by giving them 1 year in captivity for every 7 years they had failed to keep the Sabbath Day (490 years divided by 7 = 70 years). God punished the nation, but no one lost God’s promise of salvation.

One of my former Bible professors at Hyles-Anderson College has gone off the reservation! Ungodly false prophet [1]Pastor William P. Grady, errantly teaches that people didn’t get saved by faith in the Old Testament; but rather, by WORKS (he says).

If the works of the law were required for salvation, then how could any of the Jew’s children have been saved as they grew older during their 70 years of captivity 400 miles away in Babylon? The Jews didn’t have a Tabernacle, Holy Place, High Priest or Mercy Seat in Babylon. They couldn’t do the work of the Tabernacle. Clearly they were saved by faith alone in Christ (Acts 10:43).



> [illegible] 8:28, “[illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible], [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible], [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible], [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

Notice "the gospel of the kingdom which Jesus preached (vs. 23). It was simply the one, unchanging Gospel, an offer of salvation through an atoning Saviour, but preached with special urgency, since the kingdom was "at hand" (vs. 17). The pressing immence of the kingdom, with the King Himself present, justified calling that Gospel "the gospel of the kingdom."

However Jewish leaders and the Jewish people as a whole rejected the King, and the suceeding events which must be fulfilled (Christ's sufferings, crucifixtion, death, and resurrection) did not lead at once into the overthrow of Gentile kingdoms, the restoration of David's throne and Christ's reign over Israel as one supposses it might have done, had the Jews as a nation repented and turned to Him in saving faith. It is not profittable to speculate as to what might have been. Certainly what did occur was foreknown to God.

...the terms "Kingdom of Heaven" and "Gospel of the Kingdom" seem to be used in the Gospel of Matthew because of a peculiar Jewish cast of this Gospel. The Jews were more immediately interested in the restoration of David's throne and the regathering of scattered Israel and their delivery from Roman rule than Gentiles would be. So the Gospel according to Matthew, which is more clearly Jewish in color than those written by Mark, Luke and John, uses these terms looking toward the reign of Christ. (pages 75, 76) END QUOTE

I agree with Brother Rice. Matthew was NOT preaching a different Gospel than Moses, Paul, Jesus, John or Jonah. Matthew presents Jesus as a King, which is why he uses these interesting terms ("the gospel of the kingdom") to give the Gospel a Jewish flavor to appeal more to the Jews.

5.11.12 The Tragic Story Of Mother Teresa (2024-11-17 22:28)

Matthew 15:7-9, "Ye hypocrites, well did Esaias prophesy of you, saying, This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips; but their heart is far from me. But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men."

One of Catholicism's most beloved nuns, Mother Teresa (1910-1997), might be the most famous and most widely admired Catholic personality of the 20th century. And in 2016, she was canonized by Pope Francis. I read an intriguing article today about [1]the sad story of Mother Teresa. In the article you will learn that Mother teresa had a weird habit of baptizing dead people. Yes, you read right, DEAD PEOPLE! These are the bizarre and unscriptural Satanic rituals of Catholics in third world areas like Calcutta, India. There is not a more dangerous, demonic and bigger CULT than Roman Catholicism (and its whorish diabolical twin sister in Russia, the Orthodox Catholic religion based out of Moscow).

I found the following helpful article which highlights the disturbing lack of God's presence in Mother Teresa. ...

> By Tyler Arnold
>
> Washington, D.C. Newsroom - September 10, 2024
>
> The "spiritual darkness" that Mother Teresa describes in her writings can be difficult to comprehend, but this feeling of emptiness was not caused by either depression or a loss of faith, according to a lecturer at an academic conference organized by the Mother Teresa Institute.
>
> St. Teresa of Calcutta's "[2]dark night of the soul" was a distinct charism that helped her build her faith and serve others rather than a mere chemical imbalance that induces depression or an abandonment of the Catholic faith, said Loyola University Maryland philosophy professor Derek McAllister at a Sept. 6 symposium held at The Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C., one day after the saint's feast day.
>
> "If it's a mental emotional problem, they do not of themselves promote virtue or increase depth of relationship with God," McAllister said. "Whereas we know with the dark night, the nights do of themselves greatly increase love, humility, patience, and the like. And they decidedly prepare one for deeper prayer."
>
> The lecture focused on some of Mother Teresa's letters, which describe an emptiness and a spiritual darkness — essentially an inability to feel the presence of God. St. Teresa, who founded the Missionaries of Charity, was an Albanian sister who spent most of her life serving the poor in Calcutta, India. She was canonized in 2016.
>
> "The darkness is so dark, and I am alone," St. Teresa wrote. "Unwanted, forsaken. The loneliness of the heart that wants love is unbearable. Where is my faith? Even deep down, there is nothing but emptiness and darkness. My God, how painful is this unknown pain? It pains without ceasing."
>
> St. Teresa wrote that "the place of God in my soul is blank, there is no God in me" and "I just long and long for God and then it is that I feel he does not want me — he is not there." [3]READ THE WHOLE STORY

So sad and tragic, but dear reader this is the expected fruit of a false religion like Roman Catholicism. You see, Jesus plainly said that to enter into God's Kingdom you MUST BE BORN AGAIN (John 3:1-7). The new birth is not optional if you desire to escape God's wrath in Hell for your sins, and to go to Heaven instead. I was gratefully born again at the tender age of 13. It was in an old-fashioned Baptist church. Before that day all I remember in hindsight is darkness in my life. There is no awareness of God's presence in my life. So it doesn't surprise me one bit that Mother Teresa felt the same darkness throughout her life, entagled in the spider's web of Roman Catholicism, a merciless prisonhouse of religion.

As you just read for yourself in Mother Teresa's writings, she said:

"the place of God in my soul is blank, there is no God in me." She didn't know how right she was when she penned that. What saith the Scripture?

Matthew 6:23, "But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness!" The light that was in Teresa was darkness, that is, a lie. She thought she'd found the truth, but that perceived truth was a falsehood. Over one billion Catholics think they have found the truth, but it is really a pack of lies!

I watched a video the other day by a Catholic priest. YouTube randomly plays another video after the one you wanted to watch ends, and that is what happened. I was shocked when the priest said that you cannot be right with God unless you first go to the priest, and get his blessing. He cited the Scripture from Luke 5:14, " And he charged him to tell no man: but go, and shew thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing, according as Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them." Based on that one Bible verse alone, the wicked Vatican have concocted a false doctrine of going to your priest to have your sins absolved.

As usual, Roman Catholics wrest the Scripture to their own destruction (2nd Peter 3:16-17), perverting the truth. The Bible plainly tells us in verse 14 the reason why Jesus told the leper to go to the priets, "for a testimony unto them." It was to testify of the power of Jesus, that He had the authority of His heavenly Father to perform miracles; and it verified that He was indeed the only begotten Son of God, the promised Messiah. Nowhere does the Bible even remotely hint that the priests forgave or healed the man in any way. Please RUN away from the Roman Catholic prisonhouse cult of religion!

5.11.13 Our Wonderful God, Lord And Savior (2024-11-18 14:35)

Matthew 6:19-21, “

Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal: But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal: For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.”

7440

I was thinking today about how awesome our God and Savior is! Jesus gave His life, dying on a cross to pay for our debt of sin. Jesus paid a debt that He did not owe, because we owed a debt that we could not pay. Romans 5:6-8, "

For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly.

For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die. But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us."

I love this passage of Scripture. The Bible says some people would sacrifice their life for a godly man. Perhaps a few might sacririce their life even for a good man. But who would lay down their life for a criminal? Jesus, that's who. The Bible says that

"while we were yet sinner," meaning that even before we were born God already knew all the horrible wicked things we would do. Yet, knowing how rotten we would be, Jesus still eagerly sacrificed His life on Calvary's cross to redeem us from Hell.

God could have reasonably said in the Scriptures, that because He sent His only begotten Son to die for our sins, we owe Him. But the Lord doesn't obligate us like that. Nowhere does the Bible teach that those who have received God's free gift of eternal life are in debt, that we owe God to serve and live for Him. No, instead the Bible says in Romans 12:1 that it is "our reasonable service."

It is only proper and reasonable that a rdeemed believer should want to lay down our life as a living sacrifice

" (Romans 12:1)

to serve and live for Christ.

God could have wrote in His Word that since He made a way of escape freely available to us, that we should serve God without expectation of any reward. God could have wrote that He is not going to reward us for our service, sacrifice and a life lived in obedience to Him. Why would He, since God has already given the ultimate sacrifice of His only begotten (biological) Son.

Oh, but dear reader, not only did God the Father give us His dear Son as a sacrifice to die a cruel death on the cross (after being beaten and mocked and spat upon by thug soldiers), but God promises in His inspired Word to reward us for everything we do for Christ. Let me repeat our text passage from Matthew 6:19-21, "

Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal: But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal: For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also." I love that!

In that wonderful passage of Scripture, Jesus encourages every saint of God to lay up for ourselves treasures in Heaven, where thieves cannot steal anything, and rust never corrodes stuff. My Deering banjos continually build up tarnish on the chrome. If I don't polish the chrome a few times a year with special chrome polish, the corrosion will become permanent. I now have a leaking front tire on my car. There must be a nail in the tire. I have to put more air into the tire every week, or it will go flat. I need to get it fixed soon, so I don't end up breaking down on the roadway.

I have also been the victim of theft four times in two years where I live in West Pensacola. Punks stole my propane tank on my barbeque, which was new and cost me $79. They stole my King James Bible from my car, and two radios with the cables, and some money. They are ungodly sinners, evildoers, thieves who shed innocent blood, taking things which they did not labor for, but I did. My video camera recorded a punk stealing my Amazon package on May 10, 2024. I called the police and showed them the video. I told them that Amazon was nice enough to replace the stolen $30 clothing rack. The cop said I am not the victim then, Amazon is. I couldn't believe what he told me, which is ridiculous, because he said even if they caught the identified thief they couldn't do anything, unless Amazon pursued to prosecute him.

Amazon takes in $600 billion annually and couldn't care less about perrty theft. But I need to be a bit paranoid, to take extra care to prevent more thefts from happening.

Thankfully, Jesus understands the problem (Hebrews 4:15). There were theives in Jesus' generation too! I have no doubt that thieves stole stuff from Jesus and his family. One of His own apostles, Judas, was a known thief. So, the dear Lord comforts us by assuring you and me that there are no thieves where we are going in eternity. No one will steal from us. And by the way, this means that no one will be able to steal from us during the Millennium either. Revelation 20:6 says that the saints will help reign with Jesus during His millennial reign over the earth. Jesus will rule the earth from Jersualem. He will need for us to be mayors, governors and magistrates to help Him rule "with a rod of iron" (Revelation 2:27).

I often think about what it will be like when we reign with Christ. How much power will Jesus give us? I am often frustrated by the mistreatment, unethical behavior and abuse from companies. I was falsely accused by Amazon.com of using "Hate Speech" for mentioning "The Little Rascals." Amazon has outsourced all customer relations to foreign countries. Unfortunately, the people in those third world places are woefully ignorant of American culture. So the ignorant Amazon employees in India assumed I was calling children "rascals" and falsely accused me of Hate Speech. I ignored the first notice, because it was ridiculous. But Amazons ent it a second time, and then a third, threatening to terminate my account if I continued using "Hate Speech."

So, I got upset and told them off using harsh words. I later regretted doing that when they banned me from writing any future product reviews. I apologized several times, and even mailed an apology letter to Amazon Headquarters in Washington state on Westlake Avenue. Amazon refused to forgive me, and won't let me review any future product purcahses. I received another notification letting me know that I cannot write reviews ever again. Amazon is so unethical. I laid the ax to the root in a final correpondance to Amazon, reminding them of Jesus' warning in matthew 7:1-2, that God will judge everyone by the same standard by which they judge others. Since Amazon refuses to forgive me, God won't forgive them either!

I have found thousands of complaints online by other abused Amazon customers. One man was a loyal Amazon cutomer for 20 years, a small business owner, but they also unethically banned him from writing any future product reviews. The guy's feelings were hurt, that his 20 years of loyalty as a customer means ZERO to management at Amazon. The truth is that for some insane reason Amazon corporate headquarters has given complete autonomy to some fools in India to handle their Community Standards Department, and those foreigners are woefully ignorant and incompetent.

So, I opened a new account and abandoned the old one, deciding that I will NEVER write another product review for Amazon, since the same fools who abused me are the same fools still handling all reviews. Shame on Amazon the first time, I won't allow a second time to be abused by Amazon's shady policies and terrible employees overseas. I honestly believe that their outsourced foreign employees are using Reverse Discrimnation and hate Americans, so they enjoy harassing Americans because they simply can. Why else would they be so belligerent? SHAME on Amazon's owner Jeff Bezos and managment for allowing this abuse! Bezos has a net worth of $211,000,000,000, so he couldn't care less. Thankfully, there is a caring God in Heaven who sees everything, to whom we must all give acount one day (Hebrews 4:13). God is partial toward His children (Matthew 18:6).

Having said all that, I humbly believe that during the Millennium that this type of unethical company behavior, abuse and lack of concern for mistreated customers won't be swept unfer the rug as it is today. If the Lord gives me total pwoer as a ruler, I will declare war on shady and uncaring companies. I will severely punish dishnoest taxi drivers. I will put companies out of business who cheat and hurt customers, not merely fine them. I would eliminate all fine print in contracts which are intended to mislead and hurt consumers. By law I would not allow companies to advertise in any larger text than they write their disclaimers. I am so sick of the unethical practice of companies advertising in giant colorful font, but then you can barely read all the legal jargon that later is used to hurt you in court. That is so unethical.

I could go on for hours about all the changes I would make, if I were a king or had absolute power. I am so sick of shady companies like Alamo car rental, Priceline and other wicked companies. Alamo on the Big Island in Hawaii charged me a penalty for returning a rent car 5 minutes late, but I wasn't late. I had parked the car in the return stall at 10:05 am. But I cleaned the car and by the time I gathered my belongings and walked down to the check-in counter, it was 10:35 am. Alamo are greedy.

On another occasion, in Pensaocla, I rented a car for 3 days. But I later needed it for one more day. When I called the number on my contract to extend my rental for one more day, the belligerent woman on the phone at Alamo said I had to pay for 7 days! She said I had entered into a "weekly rate," which was so unethical and shady. I refused and went elsewhere! Alamo wasted my time, ran me around needlessly and tried to financially gouge me. Jerks!

I could tell you hundreds of things that are extremely unethical today. I'll give you one more. If you type "professional banjo" in a search engine, you'll get hundreds of lying websites that will recommend $199 banjos which are cheap Chinese importated garbage. At the bottom of every webpage you will find a shady disclaimer that says they are getting compensated with financial kickbacks for recommending products. What they're really saying is that they are intentionally lying to you, but it's okay to lie in their world since they are telling you upfront what they are horribly doing. That is so wicked and unethical. If I had the power, I would ban such shady beahvior. I hope one day in the Millennium that the Lord gives me absolute power to go after companies. I will help the Lord rule "with a rod of iron."

Dear reader, we serve such a wonderful, amazing and ethical God. Do you know that God is going to reward His saints for even giving a cup of water in Jesus' name? Mark 9:41, "For whosoever shall give you a cup of water to drink in my name, because ye belong to Christ, verily I say unto you, he shall not lose his reward.

" What an awesome Savior!!! The Lord could have said,

"Look, you were going to Hell forever, but I suffered in your place and paid your massive debt of sin, so that you could escape wrath and live. Now you owe me and I expect you to work hard to show your appreciation for what I did for you, but don't expect any rewards from me in eternity." Truthfully, God would have every right to say that, wouldn't He? It would not be unreasonable for God to say such a thing to His children.

But dear friend, our wonderful God and Savior says that we don't owe Him anything. Eternal life is a "free gift" (Romans 5:15-18). Ephesians 2:8-9 says that eternal life is a " gift.

” Romans 6:23 says eternal life is a “gift.” Yet, thousands of lying preachers today insist that to get to Heaven, YOU must first be willing to forsake your sinful bad habits, and they foolishly think this is what it means to “ repent.

” Bible

“

repentance

means

to think differently

(Greek verb: metanoeo). Whoever said that repentance means to forsake your sinning is a LIAR!!!

God offers every sinner eternal life as a FREE GIFT, which you simply need to TAKE. Simply by faith receive Christ’s sacrifice on the cross as full-payment for your sins, believing that He was buried, but then physically resurrected from the dead. This is the (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). We are saved by BELIEVING the Gospel, the GOOD NEWS of Jesus crucified, buried and risen.

“

I just wanted to share my thoughts this morning with you. God is so beautiful. Since I work night and day on my blog and website ministry, I often think of the rewards I am laying up in Heaven. While the heathen world is laying up money for their retirement here on earth, trying to amass a large fortune, I couldn’t care less about laying up treasures on earth, just for some thieving lawyers to take away someday. I hate lawyers by the way! Jesus warned us about lawyers. Luke 11:46, “

And he said, Woe unto you also, ye lawyers! for ye lade men with burdens grievous to be borne, and ye yourselves touch not the burdens with one of your fingers.

” The Lord sure knew what He was talking about! Most lawyers are predators.

God not only offers everyone salvation for FREE, since Jesus paid for it with His precious blood (1st Peter 1:18-19), but God also encourages all believers to earn rewards in Heaven, treasuring up wealth for eternity

(1st Corinthians 3:8-9). I love how faithful, loving, generous, caring, fair and ethical the good Lord is!!! He not only saves us for free, just for the taking; but He encourages us to earn rewards, which Christ promises to give those who serve Him for the Gospel’s sake. God will someday generously reward me for every mouse-click, every stroke of my computer’s keyboard, every penny that I give to a poor person, every good deed, for everything done for Jesus’ sake and the Kingdom of God. What a wonderful Savior!!!

5.11.14 Be Careful Not To Have Jonah's Bad Attitude (2024-11-19 21:20)

Jonah 3:10, "

And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not.

Jonah 4:1-5,

But it displeased Jonah exceedingly, and he was very angry*.

And he prayed unto the LORD, and said, I pray thee, O LORD, was not this my saying, when I was yet in my country? Therefore I fled before unto Tarshish: for I knew that thou art a gracious God, and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repentest thee of the evil.

Therefore now, O LORD, take, I beseech thee, my life from me; for it is better for me to die than to live.

Then said the LORD, Doest thou well to be angry?

So Jonah went out of the city, and sat on the east side of the city, and there made him a booth, and sat under it in the shadow, till he might see what would become of the city.

Jonah lived during the time when the Assyrian Empire ruled the entire world in the 8th century BC. Before Assyria Egypt ruled the world, and afterwards Babylon ruled the world. The Assyrian military was infamous for their horrifying torture methods, in particular nailing a man to a tree and with pliers stripping the skin from his body while the victim was alive. With this fact in mind it is not hard to understand why Jonah fled from going to Ninevah (the capital city of Assyria) to preach the Gospel to them as God had commanded.

I’m sure that you are familiar with the amazing story. Jonah fled on a ship to Tarshish. While at sea the Lord caused a severe storm that threatened to sink the ship. Jonah told the men that it was the curse of God because of his disobedience, so they threw him overboard. God caused a big whale to swallow Jonah. In the belly of the whale Jonah had three days to think about his life and situation. In Jonah 2:9b he exclaimed that, "Salvation is of the LORD." He also renewed to keep his vow to God. Jonah 2:9, “

But I will sacrifice unto thee with the voice of thanksgiving; I will pay that that I have vowed. Salvation is of the LORD.

” In my humble opinion, it seems that Jonah had promised God to go to Ninevah, but didn’t go. That is just Stewology (my speculation), but you just read for yourself what Jonah said. It was at this time that God told Mr. Whale to drop Jonah off at the next whale stop on dry ground.

The Bible says once freed from his nightmare in the whale’s stomach, that Jonah ran and made a 3 day’s journey in just 1 day (Jonah 3:3-4). Wow! The ole boy ran his butt off! When he arrived, Jonah began to warn the Assyrians that God would utterly destroy Ninevah in just 40 DAYS!!! I have heard some preachers speculate that Jonah’s skin must have been dyed green from the digestive stomach acid in the whale’s belly. We simply don’t know if Jonah’s appearance was disheveled, frightening, strange or normal. I think it is safe to assume that Jonah was full of zeal in his urgent message of coming judgment upon the Assyrians, considering the ordeal he had just been through for three days.

You Don’t Have To “ Turn From Your Sins ” To Get To Heaven

The Bible says that the people of Ninevah repented of their sins. I would like to stop for a moment here and point out that no one has ever been saved by turning from their sinful behavior, which would be works. Proof of what I say is found in

Jonah 3:10, “

And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not.

” Here is clear biblical evidence that turning from one’s evil way is WORKS! Tragically, over 85 % of Baptist churches today are preaching a corrupt plan of salvation.

Look at the [1]Satanic garbage that is being taught at Pensacola Christian College (PCC) today in their Campus Church. Anybody who teaches that you must be willing to forsake a lifestyle of sin to get to Heaven is preaching ANOTHER GOSPEL (Galatians 1:6-9). So, the Ninevites didn’t get saved, they repented to turn away from their wickedness and God spared them judgment. A century later the Assyrians had returned to the vomit of their evil ways, so God sent Naham the prophet to pronounce doom upon them! Sin always leads to judgment!

Be Careful Not To Hate Sinners Like Jonah Did

Jonah 3:10 and 4:1, “

And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not. But it displeased Jonah exceedingly, and he was very angry.

” I have a confession to make. Sometimes I have a bad attitude like Jonah. I get angry about the horrible things wicked people—whether it be backslidden Christians or false believers—who have done to hurt me in the past. At times, I feel a strong desire to see them punished by God. I’m sure you have felt the same at times toward people who have done you wrong.

I could take a pen and paper and write down 100 rotten things people have done to hurt me in the past, particularly pastors. Some of the most evil people I have known were pastors. When a pastor preaches a counterfeit plan of salvation, and you befriend him with biblical truth, but then he drives you out of his church and bans you from returning —that pastor is evil incarnate! I have had that done to me multiple times by different ungodly pastors.

Jonah 4:1,

But it displeased Jonah exceedingly, and he was very angry.

” Have you ever felt angry that people who have hurt you didn’t get punished? I have. It upsets me to see a wicked pastor who is living large, getting paid a disgusting 6-digit salary, while he preaches the Devil’s fraud of Lordship Salvation and gets away with it. My only comfort and peace of soul comes from knowing that the time of reckoning will come, when those ungodly arrogant pastors will be punished by God almighty (Galatians 6:7).

Loving Justice Versus Hating Sinners

I have often said that there is a fine line between faith and foolishness. It is okay to pray impreccatory prayers. David did this often. For example: Psalms 58:6, “

Break their teeth, O God, in their mouth: break out the great teeth of the young lions, O LORD.

” David felt righteous indignation toward the wicked, wanting to see them burn. It is biblically okay to desire to see justice. I could list several dozen names of people whom I pray and desire for God to severely punish, to avange me of their evils against me (Matthew 7:1-2). God has promised to avenge me (Romans 12:19-21; 1st Thessalonians 4:6).

The Bible says in Revelation 18:15a that

“The merchants of these things

” cried aloud saying that God has avenged the saints in Heaven, who were tormented and marytred on earth. Revelation 18:19-20, “

And they cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and wailing, saying, Alas, alas, that great city, wherein were made rich all that had ships in the sea by reason of her costliness! for in one hour is she made desolate. Rejoice over her, thou heaven, and ye holy apostles and prophets; for God hath avenged you on her.” So, here we see that biblically it is okay to rejoice when there is justice.

However, in Jonah’s case he was still upset even after the guilty party repented of their wrongs. The inspired Scripture tells us that the Ninevites turned from their evil ways. They changed their minds from committing horrible wickedness, to obey the Lord. They didn’t get saved, because turning from your evil ways is WORKS, which the Bible plainly says. Anybody who teaches that people were saved by WORKS + FAITH in the Old Testament is a LIAR! Romans 4:4, “

Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt.

” This lone Bible verse proves that NO ONE has ever been saved by WORKS, because to do so would have meant God OWED them salvation, which cannot be GRACE. I marvel that any preacher could be so woefully ignorant to think that people were saved by WORKS under the Mosaic law. The prophet Habakkuk lived under the Mosaic law, who plainly said in Habakkuk 2:4 that the just man shall live by his faith.

Dear reader, there is an amazing passage of Scripture in the Old testament that I am reminded about often, concerning Job and his horrible friends. Poor Job had once been very wealthy. He was a happy man with a wife and 10 children. But then God made a wager with Satan (the reason for which I will never understand), to allow the Devil to destroy Job’s life, to see if he would curse God. Satan robbed Job of his wealth. Job’s servants were murdered, his fields burned, his thousands of heads of livestock stolen, his 10 children all killed by a tornado, his health taken away, and then to seal his fate Job’s wife suggested that he curse God and die. In fairness to Mrs. Job, she had just lost her 10 precious children. I cannot blame her for being bitter against God. I don’t know how I would have held up under such dire circumstances, and neither do you honestly know friend, until you and I have been in Job’s shoes.

As if that all weren’t bad enough, then Job’s rotten hypocritical friends blamed him, accusing Job of harbouring sin in his life. Then they suggested that perhaps his children were sinning in secret, which tempted the judgment of God upon the family. What jerks for friends! With friends like Job’s, you don’t need any enemies! Look at what Job said about his losers for friends in

Job 16:1-2, “Then Job answered and said, I have heard many such things: miserable comforters are ye all.”

They made Job more miserable!

But here is the beautiful truth that I want you to see dear reader.

Job 42:10, “

And the LORD turned the captivity of Job, when he prayed for his friends: also the LORD gave Job twice as much as he had before.

” Wow! Job was a much better Christian than I have been over the years. I have often prayed over the many years, for God to curse the ungodly pastors who have added misery to my miseries. But ever since I read this Bible verse about Job several years ago in Job 42:10, I have started praying for the professed Christians who've deeply wounded my soul and added misery to my hardships, inexplicable emotional trauma, losses and bodily pain. It's not easy to pray for those who have hurt me, but if God was pleased with Job's forgiving spirit, then our Creator who never changes (Malachi 3:6; Hebrews 13:8), will be pleased today thousands of years later when we also pray for those who hurt us.

Is that not what our blessed Savior taught in The Beatitudes (or as I like to say, "The Attitudes That Should Be")? Look at what Jesus said to do when people hurt us, use us and curse us.

Matthew 5:44-45, "

But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you; That ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven: for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust.

" Very few believers have grown to the point of unconditionally loving their enemies with Christ's love. Remember, GOD IS LOVE!!! Luke 6:28, "

Bless them that curse you, and pray for them which despitefully use you.

When the disciples went to Samaria to preach the Gospel of free grace, the Samaritans rejected them. The disicples were so angry that they asked Jesus for permission to pray down fire and brimstone to consume and annihilate the people. Jesus sternly rebuked them and reminded the disciples that He came to save men's lives, not to destroy them. ...

> Luke 9:51-56, "
>
> And it came to pass, when the time was come that he should be received up, he stedfastly set his face to go to Jerusalem,
>
> And sent messengers before his face: and they went, and entered into a village of the Samaritans, to make ready for him.
>
> And they did not receive him, because his face was as though he would go to Jerusalem.
>
> And when his disciples James and John saw this, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we command fire to come down from heaven, and consume them, even as Elias did?
>
> But he turned, and rebuked them, and said, Ye know not what manner of spirit ye are of.
>
> For the Son of man is not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them. And they went to another village.

I don't know about you, but on a regular basis I need to be reminded that I am not enough like my precious Savior, Jesus. I sometimes get upset with mean and foolish people. I told someone off a few months at Amazon.com, for falsely accusing me of "Hate Speech" for mentioning "The Little Rascals" in a movie review. The Amazon employee lives in India and isn't familar with our American culture, so they assumed that I was calling children "rascals," which they deemed hate speech. They threatened to terminate my acocunt if I did it again.

I'm not making this insanity up, it really happened.

I had been a loyal customer at Amazon for 20 years, but the company has ZERO loyalty for me as a customer. Amazon's owners have outsourced all customer operations to foreign countries in the Philippines, South Africa and India; and has unfortunatelt given full autonomy to these incompetent idiots).

Anyway, I apologized several times to Amazon, for telling off their employees. I even wrote a letter and mailed it to Seattle, Washington to their corproate headquaters. It didn't matter, Amazon's thugs refused to forgive me and that is that. So, I am permanently banned from ever writing any product reviews again. The Bible warns that if someone refuses to forgive others, God will NOT forgive that person (Matthew 6:14-15). Amazon will not be forigven by God.

But regardless, they are not born again Christians, I am, so the burden falls upon me to be Christlike at all times. I shouldn't have told them off using the harsh language that I did. I told them to kiss me where the sun don't shine. I told them what they could do with their reviews. They didn't like that. It seems that Amazon has given full control to young brats in their Community Standards Department, who have zero people skills and lack compassion. So, it didn't surprise me when I went to file a complaint at the Better Business Bureau, to find over 50,000 complaints against Amazon by their mistreated customers, 60 % of which have never been reseolved.

One upset man said that as a small business owner, he had been a loyal Amazon customer for over 20 years, but they banned him from writing product reviews and didn't even give him an explanation of why. The gigantuan company was wicked and unreasonable with the man, as they also were toward me.

2nd Thessalonians 3:2, " And that we may be delivered from unreasonable and wicked men: for all men have not faith."

If you are a driver like me, then you know that drivers will test your Christian faith to the max. In the 17 years I lived on Guam I never stuck my middle finger up once, but I did it last year when a speeding driver was on top of me out of nowhere and laid on the horn. I was startled and angered by the rackless driver, and I flipped him the bird. I am ashamed to admit what I did, because that is not the Lord's way. We're not going to win souls to Christ by being worldly, angry and retaliatory toward ungodly sinners.

That is exactly what the inspired Holy Bible means in Hebrews 10:14-16, "Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord:

Looking diligently lest any man fail of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and thereby many be defiled;

Lest there be any fornicator, or profane person, as Esau, who for one morsel of meat sold his birthright.

Hebrews 10:14 is a quote from the Old Testament in Deuteronomy 29:18, "

Lest there should be among you man, or woman, or family, or tribe, whose heart turneth away this day from the LORD our God, to go and serve the gods of these nations; lest there should be among you a root that beareth gall and wormwood;

” When a child of God chooses to live a life of open sin and wickedness, their light for Christ is hidden under a bushel. When we don’t emulate Christ in our daily life, lost sinners may go to Hell because they won’t see Jesus in us. Dear reader, you are the only Jesus that someone knows.

This is why when Lot tried to warn his two son-in-laws about coming fiery judgment upon the city of Sodom, the Bible says they laughed him to scorn as one who mocked. It was like Late Night comedy on television for their time. Lot might as well have been Jay Leno or Conan O’Brien telling jokes! Neither of his son-in-laws took him serious because of the lack of holiness in Lot’s life. Lot was Abraham’s nephew. His family did not respect him as a man of God; to his family, Lot was a phony and a hypocritie.

Proverbs 25:19, “ Confidence in an unfaithful man in time of trouble is like a broken tooth, and a foot out of joint.” To put the cookies on the bottom shelf for everyone to reach: Our walk talks and our talk talks, but our walk talks louder than our talk talks!

May we all do better with God’s grace, to show forth the Lord Jesus Christ in our daily lives. Let us unconditionally love and pray for those who hurt us and add misery to our miseries, and not have the bad attitude of Jonah who wanted to see Ninevah crash and burn.

5.11.15 The Sad Case Of Pastor Max Younce's Wife (2024-11-20 17:43)

2nd Timothy 3:16-17, " All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: That the man of God may be perfect, throughly furnished unto all good works."

Please hear me out dear reader. My heart is broken and heavy. I want to present my appeal to you, and you can be the jury if you'd like, but God will be my only Judge (James 4:12). Be patient with me as you read, because I need to first lay down some foundational information, so that you will understand the issue.

I BELIEVE THAT THE KING JAMES BIBLE IS 100 % INSPIRED!!! If that offends you, then so be it. I humbly believe that the King James Bible is VERBALLY INSPIRED, which means every word in the Bible was put there by God almighty. They are His inspired Words, not mere words inspired by mortal men. I also believe in the PLENARY INSPIRATION of the King James Bible, which means that all 66 books (the entire canon) is inspired by God.

Having said that, there are some preachers whom I love and have tremendous respect for; namely, Pastor Max D. Younce (1935-2023), Dr. John R. Rice (1895-1980) and Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) in his early ministry, who all denied the inspiration of the King James Bible. They sat in judgment upon the Word of God, CORRECTING THE BIBLE. I am against doing that. I respect those men, but I humbly disgree with their position. In Dr. Hyles' book titled, "[1]Let's Study The Revelation" (1967), he often CORRECTS the King James Bible. Dr. Hyles was about 40 years old at the time.

Thankfully, Pastor Hyles woke up around 1980 after Dr. John R. Rice (1895-1980) went to Heaven, and repented of his correcting the King James Bible. Dr. Hyles honestly explains that he had been lied to by corrupt Bible professors...

> Pastor Jack Hyles On The Importance Of Bible Infallibility
>
> John 12:47-48, "And if any man hear my words, and believe not, I judge him not: for I came not to judge the world, but to save the world. He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him: the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day."
>
> John 14:23, "Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him."
>
> Folks, I'm going to go to seed [to become worn] before I die on defending this Book—I'm going to go to seed on it! I'm a little tired—by the way, every preacher in America, before he met a theologian, believed exactly what I'm preaching tonight! Theologians messed us all up—they messed me up for a while, I'll be honest with you—messed us all up! When I went off to college, I thought I had the words of God in this Book right here. When I was in college for awhile I found out I didn't. Not only that, I found out nobody did! Not only that, I found out you couldn't have them! Not only that, I found out there was no such thing as any book in all the world that had the words of God in 'em!
>
> But my Bible said that we're supposed to keep His "WORDS"; not His truths, not just His doctrine, but His "WORDS"! ...

Mark 8:38,“Whosoever therefore shall be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation; of him also shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in the glory of his Father with the holy angels.”

> Folks, here’s what’s happening in America. The old-time preachers that built this country believed that this Book right here had the words of God in it! Your grandpa and grandma, that built this country, shed their tears on this Book, thinking they had the very words of God in their hands. And fundamentalists ALL believed what I’m preaching tonight, until we got our own Bible colleges, and seminaries, and sent our professors off to train at the feet of Karl Barth, and Reinhold Neuber, Emil Brunner, and others, who said that the Bible does not have the “words” of God, it is the Word of God, and that all the Bible is not inspired word-for-word. So we did not want to be considered “unintellectual” by the intellectual community; we’re not willing to be called “nuts” and “fools”—just chalk me up as a nut! Chalk me up as a fool! Yea! Chalk me up as an uneducated illiterate if you want to, but I guarantee Ya—I’d rather study my A-B-C’s in Heaven, then Greek and Hebrew in Hell!
>
> Whosoever shall be ashamed of “ME AND MY WORDS”; it didn’t say His “WORD,” it says His “WORDS”!
> SOURCE: Pastor Jack Hyles, a beautiful quote from the sermon, “[2]There Are Too Many Smiths In The Land.”

As I mentioned, around 1980, after Dr. Rice died, Brother Hyles changed his position and stopped correcting the King James Bible. In fact, Pastor Hyles became a champion for the inspiration and perfection of the King James Bible, and as you just read for yourself he attributed his former wrong attitude to corrupt college professors who shook his faith in the inspiration of the Holy Bible. You can hear Dr. Hyles call himself a "champion" for the King James Bible in this classic 1996 sermon titled: "[3]THE BATTLE OF THE AGES."

Having said that, one of my Facebook friends asked me a question on Friday, November 15th, 2024. Here is his unedtied question to me:

> Dr Thomas M Cucuzza said something strange the other night in one of his sermons i was listening to. He said something regarding the KJV Bible along the line of (he wished they would’ve chose better wording for the readers) and then he opened up the NKJV translation and read from it. I can’t remember which scripture has was referring to but regardless it made me a little uncomfortable when he read from the NKJV to the flock. I’m not making any judgment . He does teach the true gospel regarding salvation faith through grace in Jesus alone and the finished work on the cross , but what he did made me uncomfortable. The NKJV is a corrupted bible.

And here is my unedited Facebook reply to his question:

> I have learned to give my Christian brethren in the ministry some "room to swim" doctrinally. Pastor Max D. Younce (1935-2023) is one of my heroes of the faith, but he didn’t believe the King James Bible is inspired. He believed the King James Bible > is the BEST, but not 100 % perfect. I humbly disagreed with my ally in the ministry, yet we remained good ministry friends until he graduated to Heaven last year. I miss my friend.

>
> Another free grace preacher whom I greatly admire is Dr. John R. Rice (1895-1980), who also didn't believe that the King James Bible is inspired. It wasn't until he went to Heaven in 1980 that Dr. Jack Hyles switched from correcting the King James Bible, to being King James only and never correcting it again. I think Dr. Hyles out of respect for Brother Rice, who was 31 years older than Dr. Hyles, didn't want to start a fight over inspiration with him. That is just my personal opinion.
>
> But I do know for a fact that by the 1980's Pastor Jack Hyles believed and taught that the King James Bible is 100 % flawless, inspired, preserved, inerrant, holy, incorruptible and perfect in every way. He taught that for the rest of his life, which is what I also believe and teach. I believe the King James Bible is VERBALLY (every word) INSPIRED, and also PLENARY (the whole canon of 66 books) INSPIRED.
> So, even if Pastor Cucuzza may correct the King James Bible (which I haven't confirmed), it wouldn't change my respect and admiration for him as a free grace preacher. No two Bible preachers agree on everything.

The next thing I knew, Mrs. Younce not only unfriended me, but completely blocked out my Facebook page, so that she has vanished from Facebook. I have confirmed that she is still on Facebook, and that without saying one word to me she threw me under the bus. The reason why is obvious to me, because of my post, which is the only thing it could be. I make NO APOLOGIES for my comments. I did nothing wrong. It is clear if you carefully read my post that I didn't slander, bad mouth or criticize my longtime ministry friend. Pastor Younce first contacted me in 2004, and we became lifelong ministry friends up until he went to Heaven in 2023.

To say that I am deeply hurt by what Mrs. Marjorie Younce has done to me is an understatement. I thankfully understand that she is an individual, just like my friend Max Younce was an individual, so she DOESN'T speak or even represent how he feels. I know Dr. Younce never would have mistreated me like this.

It is also clear to me that his widow is more loyal to her husband than she is to THE TRUTH. If she loved the truth, then she would respect my right as a Bible preacher to have my own opinions, even though mine might differ from her own husband's. God knows that in our 20 year friendship, I NEVER ONCE criticized Pastor Younce behind his back, nor in public. I never once even told anyone that I disagree with him. I only mentioned Dr. Younce in my Facebook post the other day, to help a friend on Facebook understand that it is normal for preachers to disagree on some issues.

Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) is my hero of the faith, but I don't agree with Brother Hyles on everything. For example: I don't agree with him when he uses the term "Shekinah Glory" in his books and sermons. It is an occult term related to Jewish mysticysm, not a biblical term. No preacher should ever use such pagan terms.

Also, Dr. Hyles was big on using a Sinner's Prayer when soulwinning, but I don't use it anymore and discourage others from using it too, because for several years after I got saved at age 13, I needlessly struggled with the assuance of God's salvation because the Sinner's Prayer confused me. I kept wondering if I had prayed correctly. I knew that faith saved me, but I was misled to think that praying to be saved was how you put your faith in Jesus. Boy was I deceived by pastors! Baptist preachers and religious tracts had LIED TO ME!!! You can be saved just be believing on Jesus. What saith the Scripture?

John 6:47, " Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life. " My point is that it is normal for preachers to disagree sometimes. There's not even one preacher, dead or alive, with whom I agree with on everything.

It deeply hurts my feelings that Mrs. Younce doesn't understand this fact. She didn't even have the decency to contact me, to give me a chance to apologize if I hurt her feelings, and to make a mends. If she had let me know that I had hurt her feelings, I would have gladly promised never to mention her husband again in such a manner, although I didn't do anything wrong. There is absolutely NOTHING wrong with my post, and I am being transparent to share my post with everyone, so you can see what is going on. You have already read my words earlier.

I very kindly mentioned in my comments that me and Dr. Younce were good ministry friends for 20 years, even though we disagreed on Bible inspiration. Now I see that his widow has completely blocked me out on Facebook. I have no way of contacting her. She moved recently somewhere in Grand Rapids, Minnestoa, to an Assisted Living complex. In hindsight, it is obvious to me that no one overreacts like this to a mere post. She must have had a burr in her saddle for a long time that I was not aware of. This is strange and bizarre. People don't just write Christian friends off in the ministry, whom they have known for 20 years, unless there is some underlying river of animosity, which I was not aware of.

Anyway, since I started my website ministry in 2002, I have been an open book to the world. Since I don't have a wife, and don't have any family in Pensacola, the only friends I have are online or at the local church I attend. But the sad truth is that if I decided tomorrow to never return to the church I've been attending for the past 3 years, no one would ever come looking for me, they wouldn't care. They have never asked for my contact information. I feel lonely.

Robert Serreyn Mistreats Me Too

It hurts me when the only so-called "Christian" friends I have online, block me out and don't even explain why. I sent a message to Robert Serreyn (who attended Pastor Younce's church for many years) and asked him if he knows what's going on, but he's being a jerk and won't reply. So, I messaged him again and said that I understand if he doesn't want to get involved, but please at least send me a smiley face or something to acknowledge me, but he refused to do that too. So, I have already unfriended him and blocked him out. If I mean so little to someone that they refuse to even acknowledge me as a human being, after I plainly told Serreyn that he was hurting my feelings, then he is NOT really my friend, not one iota. I am his friend, but he's not mine.

I don't know what is going on with Mrs. Younce and Robert Serreyn, but I have done nothing wrong by preaching what I believe to be THE TRUTH. I know that Robert is a devout Zionist, who was praising Israel all the time they were murdering 44,000 defenseless Palestinians. He got upset with me on Facebook for saying that I DO NOT STAND WITH ISRAEL. I don't stand with homodical maniacs, and shame on you if you do!

I also have never agreed with Dispensaitonal Teaching, even though Dr. Younce teaches a mild form of it (he wasn't an Ultra-dispensaitonal Zionist). I have never criticized Pastor Younce for using dispensational teaching, even though I don't use it and expose it as rubbish in my own ministry. In our 20 years of ministry friendship, me and Dr. Younce NEVER ONCE had any disagreements or cross words. We always respected each other's differences, and relished in our shared beliefs, particularly that Martin Luther (1483-1546) was an unsaved infidel. That is how we became friends. Pastor Younce first emailed me in 2004 when I still lived in in Chicago, and he said I was the only preacher he knew who exposes Martin Luther as a fraud.

I feel like I'm in a new episode of The Twilight Zone. You don't just block out someone who has been a ministry friend for 20 years, without letting them know why. And when a Christian brother or sister contacts you and requests a reply, you should reply, not horribly blow them off by ignoring them. That is NOT the Lord's way. Matthew 7:12, "Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets."

Pastor Younce Was Very Wrong For Correcting The Bible

Here is Dr. Younce's heretical teaching about Romans 10:11 and Isaiah 28:16, in which you can see where he clearly sadly CORRECTS the King James Bible, but it DOESN'T NEED CORRECTING (as I will show you)...

> 4. Isaiah 28:16 and 1 Peter 2:6.
>
> Since we are this far, we might as well examine two other verses that are mistranslated. One in the Old Testament is Isaiah 28:16 and the other is 1 Peter 2:6.
>
> > "Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner stone, a sure foundation: he that believeth SHALL NOT make haste." (Isaiah 28:16)
>
> "Wherefore also it is contained in the scripture, Behold, I lay in Sion a chief corner stone, elect, precious: and he that believeth on him SHALL NOT be confounded." (1 Peter 2:6)
>
> In both passages, "shall not" is translated wrongly and should have been translated "should not." This mistranslation not only endorses a false doctrine of Lordship Salvation; but, also contradicts other doctrinal teachings such as the following. God knows a Christian is capable of sinning because they still possess the old nature they were born with. [4]SOURCE: An Exposition Of Romans 10: 9, 10

Kindly said, Pastor Younce doesn't know what he's talking about here. He foolishly CORRECTS the King James Bible, again, as he does HUNDREDS of times in his books and sermons. The Hebrew word for "haste" in Isaiah 28:16 is chush, which means "to hurry." Pastor Younce is very wrong to correct the inspired Holy Bible, accusing the 54 brilliant King James Bible translators of being incompetent.

The correct interpretation of Isaiah 28:16 and Romans 10:11 is that if you believe on Jesus you will never be disappointed, you won't have to hurry away in embarrasment that Jesus failed your faith. These passages of Scripture have absolutely NOTHING to do with being ashamed of Jesus. These Sripture passages are not focusing on your faithfulness dear reader; but rather, upon Jesus' faithfulness to honor His promise to save them that believe. Here is [5]100 % irrefutable proof that Dr. Max Younce denied the inspiration of the King James Bible, in his own words from his book. You can also [6]read it on his church website.

Now, this is the FIRST TIME in 20 years that I have criticized Dr. Younce's work. But I want to set the matter straight right now. Brother Younce believed and taught that only the original autographs of the Word of God were inspired, and that at BEST all we have today are imperfect, manmade translations of God's Words. I humbly disagree! I believe that we have a perfect inspired Holy Bible today. I believe in the Englsh language that Book is the inspired KING JAMES BIBLE. I find no fault with the King James Bible. You will never once find me correcting the Bible, it should correct us. I am NOT going to sit in judgment upon God's Word.

[7]Pastor James Sightler (1937-2019) [8]wrote this helpful article in defense of the inspiration of our beloved King James Bible. Dear reader, if the King James Bible is not inspired by God, then it can only be inspired by flawed men, which means we cannot trust it. I agree with Pastor Jack Hyles, that if I believed for one moment that I didn't have God's infallible, incorruptible, inspired, perfect Word in my hand, I'd toss it into the trash and I'd never preach again. Why should I spend my life laboring and preaching from an imperfect book, not knowing which parts are reliable or corrupt?

I'm sure not going to trust a bunch of deeper-life Hebrew and Greek scholars who cannot even agree among themselves over which ancient manuscripts are true or false. By "inspired" I mean that the King James Bible are God's Words. He alone is the divine Author!

My ministry friend, Eddie Boston, got upset with me a few years ago because I promote Pastor Younce's books, in lieu of the fact that Dr. Younce incessantly corrects the Bible. Eddie was right! Thankfully, me and Eddie are still friends. I have taken a lot of criticism and heat over the years from ministry friends, because of my loyalty and friendship with Pastor Younce. I took an unknown country preacher and gave him an international presence through my website ministry. I certainly deserve more gratitude than for his widow to block me out completely without explanation.

Albeit, regardless of what she does, I will not correct Pastor Younce again, as I did in this blog. I promote Pastor Younce's books because I love Jesus Christ. I love Pastor Younce too and I respect his scholarly brilliance as a man of God. Despite his correcting of the King James Bible, his books are extremely helpful for new believers, which is why I share them with people. I have learned so much about God's Word from Dr. Younce's books. To God alone be the glory.

Pastor Younce looked up to Dr. John R. Rice (1895-1980) as a mentor, just as I look up to Dr. Younce as a mentor. Dr. Younce taught the same position on the Bible as did Dr. Rice. Brother Rice often corrected the Bible, and taught that it is okay to use several different Bible revisions. I couldn't disagree more!!! In fairness to Dr. Rice, he died long before the internet came about, which has exponentially increased man's knowledge base. Today we have quick access to a wealth of information that people 50 years ago couldn't even have imagined. If Dr. Rice were alive today, I am fully convinced that he would have changed to a King James Bible only position. Pastor Younce preached a helpful series titled: "[9]KING JAMES TRANSLATION—STILL THE BEST."

Let me be clear that I am still a loyal friend to Pastor Younce. I love the guy. He's up in Heaven with our blessed Savior now. Pastor Younce was 31 years older than me, the same age difference between Dr. Rice and Pastor Hyles. I have often refered to Brother Younce as: "The Dr. John R. Rice of our generation," and I mean that. They literally shared the SAME position on the Bible, with which I humbly disagree. I don't apologize for my beliefs, nor for standing up and preaching what I believe. Dr. Hyles taught me as one of his preacher boys, to be loyal to truth and principles and not to men or institutions. I love Pastor Younce and his family, but my loyalty is to the inspiration of the King James Bible first and foremost.

If we don't have a perfect inspired Holy Bible today, then God broke His promise in Psalms 12:6-7. That is why ALL of [10]the Devil's modern Bible revisions have corrupted this passage of Scripture, removing God's promise completely. I believe that God has kept His solemn promise to preserve a perfect, incorruptible, inerrant and inspired, Holy Bible for every generation. If you disagree, good luck with that. The matter is not open for discussion. Psalms 12:6-7, "

The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times. Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever." Don't you dare tell me that our perfect, omniscient, omnipotent and omnipresent God was too inept to give us a perfect inspired Holy Bible in these modern times.

It is a shame that my worst enemies aren't the abortionists, witches, homosexuals or atheists; it is professed Christians, Baptists, who don't believe that God has kept His promise to preserve His INSPIRED Words forever. It is Baptists who foolishly think you must be willing to turn away from your sinful bad habits to get to Heaven, which is a counterfeit gospel. It is Baptists who preach the Satanic lie of Lordship Salvation. I will stand alone if need be, but I WILL STAND.

If I perish, I perish.

Hello, my friend. I stand with you! You did nothing wrong. Let GOD be the judge. Carl

(2024-11-21 00:24:56)
What an awesome article David. You introduced me to Past. Younce. KJV is the only Bible.

(2024-11-21 21:33:43)
I did not know pastor Younce died....

5.11.16 Dr. John R. Rice Didn't Think Present-Day Israel Is The Fulfillment Of Bible Prophecy, And Neither Do I (2024-11-22 13:36)

Revelation 11:8, "And their dead bodies shall lie in the street of the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where also our Lord was crucified. "

Our text passage of Scripture plainly identifies Israel as a wicked place. I DO NOT STAND WITH ISRAEL!

I refuse to support counterfeit Israel, esspecially when their leaders are homocidal maniacs, who have [1]brutally murdered over 44,000 innocent Palestinians with international impunity, because the ungodly United States has sanctioned the genocide.

And for those of you who don't know, Evangelist John R. Rice also rejected present-day Israel (since 1947) as being the fulfillment of Bible prophecy...

> "Some say that Jesus must come soon because the little modern nation Israel is established in Palestine. I do not believe that is the restoration of Israel promised in the Bible." —[2]Dr. John R. Rice (1895-1980)

I am 100 % against the Satanic fraud of ZIONISM! It is tragic that 80 % of Baptist churches today idolize FAKE ISRAEL. I hear these misled pastors, like Paul Chappell in Lancaster, California, saying: "We must support Israel." Pastor Chappell even flew to Jerusalem, to tell the mayor that their church will do anything to help the Jews. What a sad thing! Chappell is pulling on the same rope as the Devil, fighting against the Lord Jesus Christ. Why in the world would God command saints today, to bless a nation whom GOD HAS CURSED?

Humbly said, I reject modern fake Israel. They are awaiting their False Messiah, Antichrist. The New World Order is his fake kingdom. I reject Zionism. I love Jewish people no more or less, than Arabs, Africans or Chinese people. God is no respecter of persons and neither am I (Romans 2:11; James 2:1). Shame on anyone who supports manmade Israel.

Zionists are making the same fatal error as Abraham and Sarah, when they took matters into their own hands, impregnating Hagar instead of waiting upon the Lord for the son He promised to give them. According to Hosea 3:4-5, God will restore the true nation of Israel when the Jews in the future repent toward God. This will happen at the time of Christ's Second Coming. For now, less than 2 % of the 7,000,000 Jews living in Israel profess faith in Christ (and that includes all the pesudo-Christian cults, like Roman Catholicim).

The present-day manamde state of Israel has no divine promise of protection from God (Luke 21:24). As saints our focus should be upon preaching the Gospel, and not Israel.

5.11.17 God Is So Good (2024-11-25 16:37)

Psalms 145:9, "The LORD is good to all: and his tender mercies are over all his works."

God is so good. I tell Jesus multiple times every day that I love Him. I can only try by God's grace to prove that I love Him with my life (John 14:15). Below is a photo of an amazing pretty flower that I found growing by my front steps. And this is my neighbour's new sweet dog in my kitchen looking for food, Ene. She's my newest buddy. God is so good to all of us.

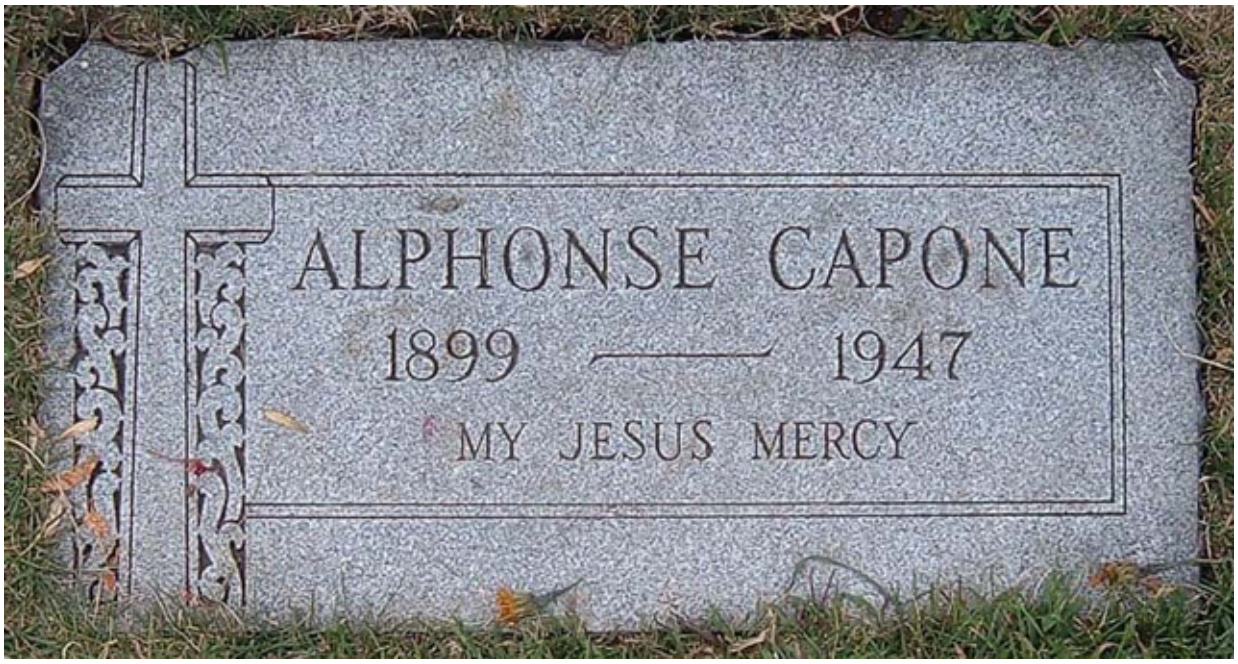
5.11.18 Infamous Gangster Al Capone May Be In Heaven (2024-11-26 13:50)

The most notorious American gangster in history is [1]Al Capone (1899-1947). He began his reign of crime and mayhem as the infamous Chicago mob boss at just age 25. His reign of terror would endure for the next 7 years, until the IRS would catch up with him for tax evasion.

At age 33 in 1932, Al Capone was sentenced to 10 years in prison, but the incarcerated former gangster only served 7 of those years due to his failing health because of the deadly Sexually Transmitted Disease (STD) of syphilis. His brain had been rotted so badly, that he now had the mentality of a child between ages 7 and 12.



During Capone's prison time in the early 1930s, doctors diagnosed his health condition, which included syphilis, gonorrhea, and a cocaine-perforated septum (the cartilage that separates the right and left nose cavities). [2]Capone's health was a nightmare! The Devil is a beautiful liar! Satan always pays with counterfeit money. Sin always thrills until it kills. Sin always fascinates until it assassinates.

History tells us that a Baptist minister preached to Al Capone and the other inmates in prison, and it is said that [3]Mr. Capone found religion.

We can only hope that Al Capone trusted Jesus Christ while in prison and became born again. Time will tell. That is, we'll learn the truth in the afterlife. I sure hope Al's up in Heaven. It is interesting, and I think telling and precious, that Mr. Capone's epitaph on his gravestone doesn't read: "The World's Greatest Gangster"; but rather, "My Jesus Mercy."

Amen.

5.11.19 Beware Of "2020scripturalvision.com" (2024-11-28 14:21)

Romans 3:7-8, “For if the truth of God hath more abounded through my lie unto his glory; why yet am I also judged as a sinner? And not rather, (as we be slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say,) Let us do evil, that good may come? whose damnation is just.

I found [1]this defamatory article online at the 2020scripturalvision.com website. The malicious article is attacking my ministry friend, [2]Dr. Douglas Stauffer. I was shocked when I read the serious allegations against Douglas Stauffer. I want to go through these claims, one by one, and refute their lies. The author of the preceding article is a COWARD, choosing to remain anonymous. There’s nothing I hate any more than when some COWARD slanders a child of God (or anyone) on social media, but don’t have the honesty or inegrity to reveal their name. What a Loser!

The other day from Amazon I ordered a used copy of Dr. Douglas Stauffer’s book in question, "One Book Rightly Divided"

(

1999)

. I wanted to verify if the allegations were true! The author of the preceding slanderous article on 2020scripturalvision.com

is a devilish LIAR! The website falsely accuses Dr. Stauffer of teaching damnable heresy, but the accuser (to no surprise) doesn’t provide any actual quotes from Dr. Stauffer’s book. The accuser merely cites alleged pages in violation. Here is a quote from the 2020scripturalvision.com website, and my rebuttals (which will be set in bold red font):

1. Dr. Stauffer claims Paul preached a different gospel than Peter, and Peter didn’t preach the gospel of the grace of God (p. 26).

   The names of Paul and Peter don’t even appear on page 26. I couldn’t find anything to verify the accuser’s claims anywhere in chapters 1 or 2. They lied! As proof that the accuser lied, here is what Dr. Stauffer wrote on page 186, “Why would God lead Peter to express his association with Paul if their messages contradicted one another? The direct association is emphasized because their writings were not contradictory but complimentary! Once people compare the writings of Peter and Paul, those who continue to teach that Peter’s message contradicts Paul’s writings are simply perpetuating an error to support a man-made system of Bible teaching.” As you just read for yourself, clearly Dr. Douglas Stauffer DIDN’T teach that Peter and Paul preached different plans of salvation. What damnable evil LIARS at 2020scripturalvision.com! Unlike the liars who have falsely accused Brother Stauffer, I have given you actual quotes from his book, so you can see and decide for yourself based upon EVIDENCE, and not merely upon unfounded accusations.

2. He claims in some dispensations people were saved by works.

   That is a bold LIE! On page 702, Dr. Staffer plainly writes: "Even with Israel's repugnant history, there are those who teach that the Israelite's salvation was based upon obedience to the Law. With this in mind, simply consider a few of the problems associated to specific times when the Jews could not keep the Law. 1) How were the Israelites saved when they had no place of worship to offer their necessary sacrifices?" Dr. Stauffer also points out the Jew's 111 years under the Judges, the Jew's 70 years in Babylonian captivity, the Jews in their homeland when their temple had been destroyed, the Jews who lived and traveled outside the borders of Israel, et cetera. Brother Stauffer is right! If the Jews had been saved by keeping the Law, then no one could have been saved during the aforementioned time periods, when the Jews were without a Temple or sacrifices. Clearly, Dr. Stauffer didn't teach that Old Testament saints were saved by works.

3. He claims Hebrews and James teach losing salvation (pp. 23, 29).

   Again, I could not find anything to verify these LIES by the 2020scripturalvision.com website. The author LIED about Brother Stauffer! James and Hebrews are not even mentioned on the alleged pages.

4. He claims 1 John teaches salvation by faith plus works (p. 56).

   There is nothing on page 56 (nor the surrounding dozens of pages) that even mentions 1st John.

5. He claims only Paul's epistles are for the churches and that Paul was the spokesmen for the church (p. 17).

   There is nothing on page 17 or the surrounding pages to verify this accusation. The accuser pulled this lie from his behind.

6. He claims the four gospels and general epistles of Hebrews to Revelation, while containing some church age applications, are actually written for Great Tribulation saints (pp. 20, 27).

   Again, there is nothing on either of these pages to verify what the accuser claims. 2020scripturalvision.com lied!

7. He claims the book of Acts was not given "to show how to establish the local church or its functions" (p. 72).

   The book of Acts is not mentioned on this page, nor even the surrounding pages. Page 72 mentions the book of Revelation.

8. He claims the seven churches of Revelation 1-3 are not local bodies of Christ (p. 29).

   Page 29 is about the Rapture. The 7 churches of Revelation are not mentioned at all, nor on the surrounding pages. The accuser lied!

9. He teaches lots of other heresy in the book.

   Although I reject dispensational teaching (because it is extrabiblical), so far I haven't found any heresies in the book.

10. He zealously embraces hyper-dispensationalism, as noted here in all these errors, which is plain heresy and irreconcilable with God's Word.

    Again, I reject dispensaitonal teaching, and the book does promote it a lot, but so far I haven't found any serious false teachings. I certainy haven't found anything to verify the erroneous claim that Peter and Paul preached a different plan of salvation. As far as I can tell from reading his book, Douglas Stauffer preaches a free grace Gospel.

This fake website at 2020scripturalvision.com just goes to remind us that you CANNOT trust everything we read, see or hear on the internet. If someone didn't spend the money and take the time (like I did) to actually purchase Brother Stauffer's book and verify for them self if the allegatiobns are true, they'd most likely just believe the lying hurtful slander. God hates liars (Proverbs 6:16-17).

I do want to kindly mention that I reject Dr. Stauffer's unbiblical teaching that John the Baptist and Jesus preached a different Gospel than Paul and Peter did. According to Dr. Stauffer, the phrase "gospel of the kingdom" in Matthew 9:35 refers to a different gospel exclusive to the Jews. I [3]humbly agree with Dr. John R. Rice (1895-1980) that Jesus presented the SAME Gospel that we preach today, but He gave the Gospel a Jewish flavor to appeal to the Jews.

I need to also bring to your attention dear reader, that the ungodly 2020scripturalvision.com website [4]preaches the Devil's counterfeit gospel of Lordship Salvation. BLASPHEMY!!!

The wicked website also horribly attacks and slanders Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) and Pastor Steven Anderson for their free grace Gospel view. SHAME on the unsaved malicious editors of 2020scripturalvision.com! They are false prophets, slanderers and liars!!!

5.11.20 The Absense Of Evil Is Not An Automatic Indicator Of The Presence Of Good (2024-11-29 06:51)

Ephesians 4:30-32, " And grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption. Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice: And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you."

I have several YouTube channels that I like to watch. One of them is [1]Cash Jordan. Another in [2]Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold. Another is [3]Onorato Diamante. And I also like to watch [4]Far From Eden. On the following video she features a hilbilly man (Dewayne) who gives some manly advice on his to be a man. The first thing he mentioned caught my attention, because he is 100 % correct. He said that the absence of evil is not an automatic indicaiton of the presence of good. Dewayne specifically mentions phony religious people.

Masculinity is POSITIVE by definition.

Men like this PROVE it.

Lefties and wom@nists LIE about MEN.

When I heard Dewayne's first point, I instantly agreed with him and thought about the hypocrites at Pensacola Christian College (PCC), who he describes perfectly. At PCC they have the absense of evil. They don't smoke, don't drink booze, don't commit prostitution, don't steal, et cetera. But they lack the presence of good. PCC doesn't care about hurting people. When I shared my divorced broken life, burdens, health afflictions and heavy heart, their ungodly pastors at Campus Church threw me under the bus. Pastor Jeff Redlin and Timothy Zecharias couldn't have cared less. I was so disgusted that I kindly wrote a letter to PCC's leaders for their help, but they also didn't care one iota. SHAME on PCC!!!

Dewayne is right, you're not a good man just because you lack the presence of evil. If you don't truly care about people, you are a BIG ZERO! Jeff Redlin is a big zero! Timothy Zecharias is a big zero! These wicked people woefully lack compasison for others. PCC woefully lacks compasison and love for others. Proof of what I say is that I have an email from August 2, 2022 forbidding me from attending Campus Church at PCC. We've been enemies ever since, and will continue to be. This is the type of hateful bigotry that exists at PCC. The cult system always comes first at PCC, but individual people do not matter. People just want to be loved, but you won't find any love at PCC.

The deeply religious world (like Bob Jones University and PCC) are full of people who would never commit an evil act, but they also woefully lack goodness. They would never say a cuss word, smoke marijuana or look at a dirty magazine; but their lives are devoid of love and compasison for hurting people like me, who are divorced, suffering in constant bodily pain and need their help and friendship. Sadly, Pastor Jeff Redlin is a self-centered narcissist who doesn't care about anyone except himself. Redlin gets paid a sickening 6-digit salary. Creeps like him represent everything that is wrong with Christianity today in America!

People pick up on whether you care or not quickly. So, if you don't care, just don't try to care about people, and they will become bitter and leave. One of the biggest problems that I see in Bible colleges and the corrupt churches who hire their incompetent students as pastors, is a woeful tragic lack of love and compassion for people. Jesus cared about people. The dear Savior went out of His way to help people—whether it meant leaving the 99 sheep safe in the fold to go search for that 1 lamb in need, or healing 10 afflicted lepers, or feeding 5,000 hungry people with one little boy's modest lunch, et cetera. The $64,000 question dear reader is: DO YOU CARE?

Remember, the absence of evil in someone's life is NOT an indicator of the presence of good. Some of the worst jerks I have ever met were religious people, pastors in particular. On Judgment Day those ungodly pastors (and layman) won't be able to hide behind the lame excuse that, "We'll we're all just sinners!" Not caring about others is a horrible sin!

Let me ask you another question: If you died right now, would you leave a hole in the world? Most people wouldn't be missed. You're not a good person just because you don't smoke, steal, drink, cuss, fornicate or do illegal drugs. When's the last time that you really helped someone? When's the last time that you comforted and encouraged someone who is hurting and lonely?

I am so sick and tired of today's pathetic dead churches. I see churches with vehicles to go pick people up, but those people have to take a taxi to church instead. Why is that?

I see frustrated people leaving churches by the droves, but the pastors don't lift a finger to try to stop them from leaving. And God pity the pastor who doesn't care enough when people leave, to invite them back to church. We're just playing church folks.

I can name umpteen pastors with whom in the past I had shared my broken divorced life and chronic bodily pain since 2004, but those pastors couldn't have cared less and dissed me. Men of God? I think not. The more I cared, the less they did. Today's average Baptist pastor is a salary-sucking failure! He's a religious parasite! God deliver us from brutish pastors who lack good sense! The most important job is the one that doesn't get done. The job of caring and loving others is not getting done in today's luewarm churches. We go through all the motions of playing church, while hurting people continue to fall through the cracks and go unloved.

Proverbs 25:19, " Confidence in an unfaithful man in time of trouble is like a broken tooth, and a foot out of joint." No minister (which means servant) is faithful in his duty, who fails to unconditionally love people. I am talking about cold-hearted pastors like: Jeff Redlin, Marty Herron, Bill Adams, Timothy Zecharias, Jared Baldwin, Gary Walton, Josh Thompson, Sean Quinlan and Joe Hensen, to name but a few incompetent clergy and jerks. These religious hypocrities should all be fired and banned from ever standing behind any pulpit again! They've all horribly dropped the ball for God as ministers, corrupting the Gospel.

Dewayne in the video is right, the absence of evil in someone's life is NOT automatically an indicator of the presence of good. You're not a good person just because you dress the look and play the part of being a Christian. And no one can call them self a "good person." It is what God knows about you that matters! God knows that I truly do care. I am far from perfect, but I do try to care about people. Sometimes I fail, and it bothers me immensely, but I get back up and by God's grace do better. Many Christians these days aren't even trying to do right, and pastors are the worst offenders!

I encourage you to [5]watch the full video if you haven't already, it contains some manly advice for men. Thank you for reading my ministry blog. To God be the glory.

5.11.21 I Encourage You To Listen To 'DEMONOLOGY' (2024-11-30 23:04)

[illegible]

Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) taught an excellent 6-part Bible study series in 1974 titled, "[1]DEMONOLOGY." I encourage you to listen to it dear reader, because it is excellent. This was one year after the blockbuster Hollywood movie came out in 1973, "THE EXORCIST." Scaaary! The film sparked much curiosity in the general public (and the churches) about demon possession and the Satanism. Dr. Hutson taught this course to address these questions.

The series was presented as a Wednesday evening Bible study at the Forest Hills Baptist Church in Decatur, Georgia. In his study Pastor Hutson explains why he Scripturally believes in an old earth view and the GAP PRINCIPLE (or, GAP THEORY). I do not think it is s mere theory, because the Bible offers MUCH credible evidence for an old earth.

Scientists tell us that Carbon Dating reveals the earth is 4.5 billion years old. I don't refute that. Paleontologists estimate that dinosaurs lived between 60,000,000 to 220,000,000 years ago. I also don't refute that figure. The Bible doesn't go into detail about life before the 6-day creation.

In his insightful book, "[2]The Truth About Evolution; Or, Don't Let Satan Make A Monkey Out Of You," my friend Dr. Max D. Younce in chapter 12, '[3]THE REMODELING,' explains the 6-days of creation as a time of remodeling, with which I fully concur.

Dr. Arthur C. Custance (1910-1985) has also written a helpful booklet titled, "[4]WITHOUT FORM AND VOID" explaining a GAP PRINCIPLE from Genesis chapter 1 and 2.

I believe that Lucifer and some of the angels lived on earth. When Lucifer rebelled, God in his anger destroyred the earth, making it void. The Bible teaches that God's Word never returns to Him void. [illegible] [illegible]

In Genesis 1:2, God began to REMODEL His creation. The Hebrew word bara (created) in Genesis 1:1 is an absolute words, which means to create something from nothing. God bara the universe and all that is therein. The word bara is not used again until God created man and the mammals. In between the Bible uses different broader Hebrews words, which suggests that a different creative process was at work (i.e., God was remodeling His creation). Pastor Younce and Dr. Arthur Custance explain these things better than I can.

Regardless of one's doctrinal position on the age of the earth, it won't affect salvation. [illegible] [illegible] David penned this Scripture at about 1,000 BC. The Bible specifically identifies the foundations of the earth as being "Of old." I humbly think that statement is significant. Why would David make a distinction between the age of the earth itself, versus the age of all creation? He specifically mentioned that THE FOUNDATIONS OF THE EARTH are "old."

My Dad was a Gospel preacher and a Moody Bible Institute graduate. My father once told me when I was a boy, that he believed Adam could have built a nuclear bomb if he wanted. I have never doubted that.

The Bible says that God brought the creatures He had made, to see what Adam would name them. I love that! The Bible says that Adam named every living creature. [illegible] [illegible] That implies to me that God must have given Adam incredible knowledge, to be able to name EVERY LIVING CREATURE.
By the way, this is another reason why I don't believe dinosaurs lived among humans 5,000 years ago, because Adam didn't name them. If you look online to see who named the dinosaurs, it was 19th century scientists. Adam couldn't name the dinosaurs and prehistoric creatures because they weren't alive anymore. The Bible plainly says that Adam named every "living" creature, not the dead ones. I am a firm believer in the GAP PRINCIPLE (i.e., an old earth view). Dr. Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) also taught an old earth view.

Having said all that. I believe that earlier civilizations were more advanced than historians like to give them credit. Modern scientists and archeaologists still cannot explain how the pyramids were built, or how the mystery of Stonehedge was erected, and other mindboggling wonders of the world.

At a minimum, I think Adam was given absolute knowledge by God. It could be that with the sinful fall of mankind that humanity lost that knowledge, but that is mere speculation. We simply do not know, but I tend to agree with you.

I believe that the fallen angels used to have bodies. I mean, since every angel that God sent in the Bible had his own body, what happened to the demons that they became disembodied? Not once in the Bible did a demon ever appear in their own physical body, as the good angels always did. Demons then and today need to find a host, either a human or an animal to posses.

I humbly believe that the demons lost their bodies when God destroyed the earth and laid it waste in His anger because of Lucifer's rebellion. It makes a lot of sense, albeit I cannot prove this theory Scripturally. I am glad that you are listening to Dr. Hutson's intriguing Bible study on 'DEMONOLOGY.'

There are so many reasons why I believe in an old earth. Nowhere in the inspired Holy Scripture do we find where Lucifer and the angels who followed him went astray. Nowhere do we find where they lost their bodies. I think it is obvious that these events happened BEFORE the 6-days of creation.

That is why I am firmly convinced of the GAP PRINCIPLE. My long time ministry friend Pastor Max D. Younce (1935-2023) used to say, "It's not a Gap 'Theory,' it's a factual Gap 'Principle.'" Dr. Younce was absolutely certain of an old earth, and I agree. I think it is ridiculous for anyone to suggest that dinosaurs lived with humanity 5,000 years ago.

It always bothers me when I hear the so-called "experts" telling us about human civilization 10,000 years ago, which is a big lie. Anyone can easily verify that the earliest civilization were Egyptians around 2,000 BC. Noah's flood is [5]calculated to have happened in 2,348 BC.

The flood destroyed everything!!! That is why there is no available history of human civilization prior to the flood.

Respectfully, Dr. John R. Rice taught that Noah left the dinosaurs behind. Dr. Henry Morriss III taught that Noah took baby dinosaurs aboard the ark and God stunted their growth. I am not kidding...lol. I humbly think dinosaurs lived 65 to 220 million years ago, just as scientists tell us. But humanity didn't exist until approximately 4,000 BC. I reject all forms of evolution.

5.12.1 This Is Why I Hate Theology (2024-12-03 09:10)

Acts 17:11, "And the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night unto Berea: who coming thither went into the synagogue of the Jews. These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so."

The following picture is why I hate theology! You are looking at Evengelist Robert Breaker's mind in action, confusing people with the world's theology. This is a screenshot from one of his YouTube video Bible studies. What a nightmare! ...

Robert Breaker's Jumbled And Confusing Theology

Robert lives in Milton, Florida, located about 50 minutes northeast from me in Pensacola. Studying the inspired Holy Bible is something very different than studying theology, which is man's filtered perspective of God's Word. I dread theologians, 99.99 % of whom are not soulwinners. I don't ever want to become that edurcated.

Notice that Mr. breaker wrote the word "Dispensations" in the upper right hand corner of his chart. Folks, the word "dispensation" appears four times in the New Testament and not once does it refer to the theoligical system which was popularize by heretic Cyrus I. Scofield (1843-1921). For example: In 1st Corinthians 9:17 we read, "For if I do this thing willingly, I have a reward: but if against my will, a dispensation of the gospel is committed unto me." The word "dispensation" here is the Greek word oikonomia, which means "administration." Paul was simply saying that God had given him the responsibility of administering the Gospel. In no way does the Bible teach that there are seven divisions (dispensations) to the Scriptures, which dispensaitonaism makes, focusing on the Jew instead of the Gospel. Therefore, I hate and reject all dispensaitonal teaching as rubbish and false doctrine.

To be fair, there are some brilliant Bible scholars who utilize a basic form of dispensaitonal teaching, such as my longtime ministry friend Pastor Max D. Younce (1935-2023), which I am tolerant of but still don't like. This is drastically different than the Ultra-dispensational teaching of wacky Zionists, who idolize manmade Israel today. In my humble opinion, dispensational teaching adds confusion to the Scrupture. God has already made TWO great divisions to His inspired Word of Old and New Testaments. There is no need for furhter divisions to be made by men. Thankfully Dr. Younce was NOT a Zionist, nor did he foolishly believe that people were saved by doing WORKS in the Old Testament, as most dispensationalists do.

Mr. Breaker heretically teaches that people were saved by WORKS in the Old Testament. He is a 1998 graduate of Dr. Peter S. Ruckman's (1921-2016) corrupt Bible college in Pensacola. Breaker falsely predicted the Rapture in 2015, 2016, et cetera. Although he is a zealous YouTube preacher, I do not trust his THEOLOGY. I recommend to believers that you "SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES" as Jesus commanded in John 5:39 (cf., Acts 17:10-11). You can spend your life learning theology and never do anything for Jesus Christ. Sadly, there are theologians galore throughout the world who are woefully ignorant of biblical TRUTH.

□□□□□□□ □□:□□, "□□□□ □□ □□□□ □□□□ □□□, □□□ □□□□□ □□ □□; □□□ □ □□ □□□□ □□□ □□□□□ □□ □□□□□: □□□ □□ □□□□□ □□□□ □□□□ □□□□ □□□□ □□□□□." We learn about Jesus when we are working in the yoke together with Him soulwinning. A yoke is a wooden harness placed across the shoulders of two large animals (e.g., oxen) for the purpose of sharing the workload. Jesus invites every saint to take His yoke upon you of living to further the Gospel, and in so doing (helping to bear the Lord's burden to win the lost) you will learn of Him.

5.12.2 The Bible Never Says To Kick Somebody Out Of Church (2024-12-05 13:48)

1st Corinthians 5:1-5, "It is reported commonly that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not so much as named among the Gentiles, that one should have his father's wife. And ye are puffed up, and have not rather mourned, that he that hath done this deed might be taken away from among you. For I verily, as absent in body, but present in spirit, have judged already, as though I were present, concerning him that hath so done this deed, In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, when ye are gathered together, and my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ, To deliver such an one unto Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus."

Kindly said, nowhere does this passage of Scripture teach to kick somebody out of a church for sinning. The Bible says to turn them over to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, not throw them under the bus and ostricize them. 1st Corinthians 5:11, "But now I have written unto you not to keep company, if any man that is called a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such an one no not to eat." This verse teaches that if someone claims to be a Christian, but they are choosing to harbor open sin in their life, we ought not to closely fellowship with them.

But, read what God's inspired Word commands in Galatians 6:1, "Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, restore such an one in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted." This is very different than the proud, holier than thou, sanctimonious evil attitude of many hypocritical religious people today in Bible colleges and churches.

Beware of Pensacola Christian College

As of August 2, 2022 I have been banned in writing from attending Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College (PCC). I had been mistreated by their senior pastor Jeff Redlin in 2021, so I left the church and criticized him on social media.

But I felt sad and lonely, so in the summer of 2022 I apologized to the pastors of Campus Church, and also to PCC leadership. Although PCC is considered one family, legally PCC and Campus Church operate independently from each other. But PCC is responsible for the decisions that their pastors make, since it is all th same place. PCC and their ungodly pastors have kicled me out of their church, refusing to allow me to attend, which is immoral and evil. I pray for God to hold PCC's wicked leadership accountable for their hatred and lack of mercy.

I now fully see why former female student, [1]Samantha Field (who was sexually attacked at PCC) is angry at the college. According to Samantha, a PCC staff member told her to repent and be quiet about the crime, when she reported being assaulted by a male student who allegedly assulted her on campus. [2]PCC sickens a lot of concerned people, including myself. God knows that I love the folks at Campus Church and PCC, including there pastors. But they are wicked to prohibit me from attending their Campus Church, when I live just several minutes away.

Pensacola is my home and I should be welcomed with God's love into any real church. Clearly, Campus Church is nothing more than a glorified religious chapel for their students, fraudulent pretending to be a New Testament church. SHAME on PCC!!! People just want to be loved. I kindly offered to remove all my criticisms from social media, if their hateful pastors would simply humble themselves in Christian love to allow me to come back to church. They refused. So, what does that say about them as men? It says they are religious heathens!

1st Timothy 5:20, "

Them that sin rebuke before all, that others also may fear." Nowhere does this Scripture passage teach to kick somebody out of church or to ban them from returning. This verse says that a pastor should rebuke open sin in a church, that other church members may fear. But the Bible never said to kick anybody out the door. Wicked and hateful churchgoers added that junk!

People need to be loved. I need to be loved. PCC hates certain people, evidenced by their shameful actions. That is NOT God's redeeming love! Pastor Jack Hyles was so right, the true test of your character as a Christian is not if you love Jesus, it is whether you love Judas. Dr. Hyles also wisely said you either love everybody or you don't love anybody.

I wish more Christians loved nobodies like Pastor Hyles did. He wasn't perfect, which Brother Hyles often admitted, but he did love everybody, evidenced by the way that he treated others. Despite his human flaws, Brother Hyles followed The Golden Rule (Matthew 7:12) better than any Christian I ever knew. PCC couldn't care less, they just don't give a damn about individual people. PCC has deteriorated into a cold-hearted cult system, a religious machine, where the system always comes first but individual people do not matter. I have heard that same complaint from countless of their disgruntled alumni. Many former students feel like they wasted their time and money attending such a shallow religious institution.

Everybody Should Be Welcomed At A Local Church

Obviously, no one has a right to disrupt a church service, harass others or cause trouble. Such people should be asked to leave, or removed if they refuse. But someone who has apologized sincerely and wants to return to church ought to be welcomed back with love and open arms. This Satanic practice of kicking people out of a church, and then permanently banning them from returning is pure evil. The Bible says that the only begotten Son of God Himself, Jesus, never turned anyboidy away who came unto Him. John 6:37, "All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out." Only a religious cult selectively cares about people, which is what PCC has become, a private cult.

We are living in apostate times, where religious organizations only care about making money to support their careers. That is all PCC is doing today, making tens of millions of dollars. The way that we treat others matters. It really does!

Another commonly abused passage of Scripture is found in Matthew 18:16-17, Moreover if thy brother shall trespass against thee, go and tell him his fault between thee and him alone: if he shall hear thee, thou hast gained thy brother.

But if he will not hear thee, then take with thee one or two more, that in the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established.

And if he shall neglect to hear them, tell it unto the church: but if he neglect to hear the church, let him be unto thee as an heathen man and a publican.

” This passage is often cited to kick people out of a church, but if you honestly examine this passage, there is nothing said about kicking somebody out of a church.

This passage means that if you think somebody has done you wrong in a church, you should go get two or more people to be witnesses. They are NOT witnesses to the wrongdoing; but rather, witnesses to the confrontation between you and the person who has allegedly wronged you. If that person refuses to cooperate, then the matter should be taken before the entire church. If that person is defiant and still refuses to cooperate, nowhere does this passage teach to throw them out of the church.

The Bible says to treat them like you would any other heathen (unsaved) person. We are nice and friendly toward heathens, but we won’t be inviting them over for dinner or closely associating with them. I firmly do not believe it is ever proper to kick someone out of a church. How can we help sinners if we won’t allow them to attend church to hear the Bible preached?

You don’t have to like somebody, but you do biblically have to love them. Sadly, there is way too much grudge holding, hatred and childish bickering in the churches. This is nothing new, it existed in Bible times too (Galatians 5:15).

I cannot find one passage of Scripture that teaches to kick a person out of a local church. Even if they’ve been voted out of a church, they should still be invited and welcomed to attend.The Baptist church that I have been now attending for three years is my church. They are my surrogate family in the Lord, since I don’t have any biological family members living in Pensacola. But I have never official joined the church. That is, I haven’t been voted in. I am a member of God’s heavenly family, since I was born again at age 13. So, I consider myself a member of the local church that I attend, even though I have never been voted into any church my entire life. It’s just not something that I am used to or have ever done. If they keep asking me, Lord willing, if they will still have me, I might join one day.

But even if a church members sins and is voted out, that sinner should be welcomed to still attend the church. When I attended the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, they had just voted a man out of the church for divorcing his wife, and told him never to come back. How does that help anyone? That is hatred folks, not God’s love. People just want to be loved.

No one should ever be kicked out of a church, or told that they are prohibited from attending a local church. The only exception is if they are deliberately disrupting the service to cause trouble. In that case, they should be asked to leave until they learn to behave in church, but that should clearly be explained to them. I have seen umpteen people mistreated by their pastor, who left the church upset, and the pastor didn’t make any attempt to invite them back. That is NOT the Lord’s way.

I have even heard Baptist Pastors teach that we should go invite people back to church who have left, but those same pastors wickedly didn’t follow their own preaching. I am thinking of a local Baptist pastor right now, who upset numerous people and they quit the church, but he is too proud and stubborn to go invite them back to church. Sadly, that immature pastor couldn't care less about those hurting people. I know because I am one of those hurting people.

The shameful pastor of Smyrna Baptist Church in Pensacola, Bill Adams, won't have anything to do with me. He looked off at the wall when I went over to shake his hand. So, I emailed him about what he did and he apologized. One week later his belligwrent wife came over to shake my hand in church, and she looked off hard right at the wall. So, I emailed him again about the matter, asking him if I am welcome in his church. He never wrote back. So, I emailed again, and sent a copy to his secretary, but he never replied. That is a very bad pastor!

The churches today are pathetic! I honestly think a trained chimpanzee would be a better pastor, than the incompetent fools standing behind most church pulpits today. The Bible never teaches to throw people away, kick them out of church, throw them under the bus, hate and shun them away, but this is exactly the shameful type of immature and hurtful behavior that exists in many so-called " today. Thank you for reading my blog.

5.12.3 Frustrated Americans Are Cheering The Assassination Of United Healthcare CEO (2024-12-06 11:43)

Many Americans (including myself) are cheering with joy over the 50 year old United Healthcare executive Brian Thompson (paid a sickening annual salary of $10,200,000) who was assassinated walking down the street in New York City this week. Truly, a picture is worth 1,000 words. This screenshot below is from NBC News this morning. ...

[1]

Millions of Americans die every year because of greedy insurance companies that deny their healthcare claims. People are fed up, tired and angry at the demonic insurance companies who rip people off. People see this execution as vigilante justice, and so do I. It's wrong, but it just feels so damn good! If you want to watch a heartbreaking documentary, watch "[2]SICKO" (2007) by Roger Moore on YouTube.

Investigative journalist Roger Moore documents that millions of Americans die annually because of greedy wicked insurance companies who deny patient's legitimate claims. I hate greedy insurance companies!!!

Having said that, it is sad that the 50 year old executive (who was married with two children) was murdered. God does not have pleasure in the death of the wicked (Ezekiel 18:23). But people are fed up and tired of watching their loved ones suffer and die because of these greedy private insurance companies. MANY INSURANCE COMPANIES ARE WICKED MONSTERS!!!

The ungodly love of money is why that greedy United Healthcare executive was assassinated.

5.12.4 One Million People Have Been Killed In The Ukraine War (2024-12-06 23:24)

John 3:3-7, "Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God. Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born? Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.

That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again."

The Wall Street Journal reported in September of 2024 that an estimated [1]ONE MILLION people have been killed in the Ukraine War. According to Ukraine's General Staff, as of October 1st, more than 654,000 Russian personnel have died. War is so needless and sad.

I was thinking tonight with a heavy heart, wondering how many of those one million dead soldiers and civilians were born again. I dare say not many. Jesus explicitly warned in no uncertain terms that "Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God."

Churches all around the world are full of religious people, who are trying to live the Christian life, but have never been born again as Jesus commanded. There are [2]over 41,000 different Christian denominations worldwide! That is astounding! Yet, despite there being an estimated 4,400 different religions, and thousands of denominations within each of those religions, there is ONLY ONE WAY TO HEAVEN—by faith in Jesus Christ!

> Acts 4:10-12, "Be it known unto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye crucified, whom God raised from the dead, even by him doth this man stand here before you whole.
>
> This is the stone which was set at nought of you builders, which is become the head of the corner. Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved."

Salvation is NOT found in any religion; but rather, in a person—the Lord Jesus Christ. Galatians 3:26, " For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.

Hundreds of millions of unsaved people falsely think they are going to Heaven, because they joined some religious organization, like Roman Catholicism. You cannot be born again by joining a church, a denomination, or an institution. You can only be born anew from above by faith in the only begotten Son of God, Jesus, the Christ.

Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without being born again. Billions of people foolishly think that belonging to some religion, like Buddhism or Islam, will get them to Heaven. Unfortunately, that is not how you become born again by the Holy Spirit of God. Only by faith in Jesus can a lost sinner be saved. Only Jesus has the nail scared hands and feet.

Many hellbound church members have been lied to by a corrupt pastor, falsely told that you can get to Heaven by becoming a Christ follower, turning away from your sinful ways, or making Jesus the "Lord" of your life. You may do all of those things and yet never be born again. The only way to secure God's solemn promise of eternal life is to cease from all your own human efforts, and rest compleyely in the finished work of Jesus (Hebrews 4:10-11).

JESUS PAID IT ALL!!! Jesus paid your debt of sin and mine, through His crucifixtion on Calvary's cross, burial and bodily resurrection three days later. This is THE GOSPEL according to 1st Corinthians 15:1-4. Trusting in anything more than Jesus' death on the cross, burial and resurrection is a counterfeit plan of salvation, which cannot produce the new birth. 1st Thessalonians 4:14, "For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him."

My heart breaks for all those soldiers and civilians being killed in Ukraine. And now thousands of the North Korean soldiers who've joined the war effort are dying. I heard today that 1,200 Russian soldiers are killed each day in the Ukrainian conflict. Human life seems so cheap and expendable! Several thousand innocent Ukrainian civilians are killed each month by enemy mortars, missiles and gun fire. I hate war!

The $64,000 question dear reader is: Are you saved? Luke 13:23-24, "

Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them, Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able." This is one of the most disturbing passages in the Holy Bible. Jesus said that only a few people will be able to enter into Heaven in eternity. Jesus tells us one reason why in Matthew 7:13-15 because of FALSE PROPHETS. Only a few people will ever enjoy the splendors of Heaven.

Tragically, 99 % of religious people have never been born again. They have been deceived by false bibles, false prophets, false gospels and false christs. To be saved you must believe on the true Savior—Jesus, the only begotten (biological) Son of God, the Christ (John 20:31).

Some people (like Jehovah's Witnesses and Mormons) deny that Jesus came to earth as God in the flesh. If that is you, then you have **"

another Jesus

" (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4).

I plead with you dear friend to settle the important matter of your salvation before it is too late. I highly recommend the helpful book by Michael P. Bowen titled, '[3]I NEVER KNEW YOU.' The book is based upon Matthew 7:21-23. Many people will seek to enter through those heavenly pearly gates someday, but will be denied entrance. Jesus plainly said in Matthew 7:21 that only by doing THE WILL OF THE FATHER can anyone be saved. We find the will of the Father in John 6:40, "And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day." Faith in Jesus is the ONLY way to Heaven!

We don't know how many of those one million deceased soldiers and civilians were saved, but the Bible says not many. That is so sad, but reality. I cannot do anything about those lost lives, but I can warn you dear reader. As long as you are breathing, there is still hope. Being born again is very easy. Simply believe that Jesus did it all for you through Calvary's cross. Rely in Christ alone for forgiveness of sins and eternal life and you will be instantly saved.

Salvation is not a reward for the righteous, it is a gift for the guilty!

Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

Turning away from sinful ways would be a work. Faith puts all of the merit where it belongs, on the object of our faith—Jesus and His work.

The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU.

The vast majority of religious people throughout the planet merely have churchianity without Christianity. I care about you dear reader. I don't want you to die in your sins and go to Hell forever. Ungodly neo-evangelicals in churches everywhere today are preaching a counterfeit plan of salvation of partial faith in Christ PLUS works. Turning from one's evil ways is works (Jonah 3:10). No one has ever been saved by works (Romans 3:19-20). The only saving Gospel is the truth that Jesus died on a cross to pay for our debt of sin. He was buried. Three days later Jesus resurrected from the dead for our justification. Those three things comprise THE GOSPEL: Jesus' death, burial and resurrection.

I am tired of hearing wicked pastors preach the lie that in order to get to Heaven, you must first be willing to forsake a lifestyle of sinning. That is reformation, not Bible repentance! The idea that YOU are obligated to give up something in exchange for God's free gift of eternal life is foreign to the Word of God.

Thank you for reading my ministry blog.

5.12.5 Daniel Penny Is An American Hero (2024-12-10 22:32)

□□□□□□ □□□□□ - is a U.S. Marine with ZERO prior arrests. He physically restrained a violent male named Jordan Neely on a New York City subway train.

□□□□□□ □□□□□ was a homeless derelict + he was on illegal drugs + Jordan had 44 preceeding arrests + he threatened to kill all passengers on the subway train. As Jordan moved toward a mother and her child, Daniel courageously stepped in and subdued the lunatic until the police arrived, but Jordan was dead.

□□□□□□□□□□ □□□□□□-□□□□□□ - A ludicrous, Woke, progressive liberal retard, representative who insanely said publicly: “Penny is why trains are unsafe!” What balderdash, poppycock, tommy-rot, claptrap, flapdoodle, blahblah, nonsense. Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez is a racist nutcase!!! These Woke leftists have lost their marbles!

Daniel Penny didn’t intend to kill Jordan Neely, but it happened as a consequence of Jordan’s threatening behavior on a public train. Thank God for Good Samaritans like Daniel Penny.

5.12.6 Keep The Faith When You Feel Like God Has Failed You (2024-12-11 13:14)

Hebrews 11:6, “But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.”

This is a great truth.

[1]THE HALL OF FAITH
(a beautiful truth by Pastor Steven L. Anderson)

Abraham waited for years for God to keep His promise to give him a son, but it seemed like God lied. As the years came and went, Abraham became discouraged. Abraham thought it might be his nephew Lot at first, but time proved it wasn't. Then Abraham thought it might be his servant, Eleazar. But time proved it wasn't. Abraham still had zero children!

So, in frustration Abraham and Sarah contrived a plot to impregnate their servant girl, Hagar, but God also rejected Ishmael as the son of promise. Abraham had to wait, thinking week by week, and month by month, and year by year, that God had failed him.

I Often Feel Like God Has Abandoned Me

Now, I don't know about you dear friend, but I have been in the same situation as Abraham for as long as I can remember. I have been praying for God to give my a wife for over 15 years. The Lord promised to meet my needs (Matthew 6:8). But sadly, I am still all alone, sad and hurting in bodily pain each day with no companion. There is a passage of Scripture in the Old testament that discourages me every time I read it...

> 2nd Samuel 12:8, "
>
> And I gave thee thy master's house, and thy master's wives into thy bosom, and gave thee the house of Israel and of Judah; and if that had been too little, I would moreover have given unto thee such and such things.

God told David that He had given him the house of King Saul. The Lord told David that if he had simply asked, He would have given David more wives. Unfortunately, David murdered Uriah to steal his wife, Bathsheba, which was terribly wicked. David already had at least 17 wives! I have only asked God for one wife, but He hasn't answered my prayer. Does God care more about David than me? That is how I feel. Why the double standard? Why was God willing to give David whatever he wanted, but I suffer alone? That hurts my heart.

When I almost found a wife on Guam, the nurse that I loved was coerced by her wicked boss to get rid of mem and she did. Her Satanic wicked pastor, Marty Herron, prohibited me from coming back to church because I befriended him with THE TRUTH that Lordship Salvation is a lie of Satan, and that John MacArthur is a deadly Calvinist false prophet, and that repantance does NOT mean to forsake a lifestyle of sinning to be saved, and that Martin Luther (who taught the heresy of Baptismal Regenerariton until his death in 1546) was NOT a born again Christian.

For sharing these SOLEMN TRUTHS with the incompetent pastors at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam in 2014, I was wickedly counted as their enemy (Galatians 4:16). I was wickedly shunned and banned from attending the church anymore, and Kristen Hurlburt (whom I know as sure as I am saved would have married me) was coerced to get rid of me by her wicked boss (her thug pastor). Anybody who says otherwise is a liar. God knows that I speak THE TRUTH! So, I live alone without a wife, because of Marty Herron's evil rebellion, false religion and hatred against THE TRUTH, and me as a servant of THE TRUTH. I pray for God to avenge me of that hellbound Calvinist Devil, Marty Herron. My blood is on his evil hands.

It has been very depressing for me since my former ungodly wife selfishly abandoned and divorced me in 2006. God will punish her for betraying her marriage vows. I feel abandoned, not just by my x-wife, but also by God, since He won't help me find a mate. I have contemplated taking my own life at times, because I was so lonely. Every Baptist pastor I know has a wife. They are selfish and couldn't care less about anybody except themselves. I am at the point where I am starting to hate Baptist pastors, for their utter hypocrisy, tolerance of damnable heresy, and love of money. The emotional pain from being alone is unbearable at times. When I walk through any store, I feel like dying because I am so lonely. Nobody knows your pain.

I often feel down in the dumps because of my physical neck pain (since 2004 when my disability began), burning nerves throughout my upper body (since 2010 when my second neck surgery went wrong), and utter loneliness daily (since 2006 when my former wife quit her marriage). I choose to share my own heavy burdens and pain of soul with my blog visitors, to help others by being transparent.

Don't Browbeat Or Condemn Hurting People

I hate religious hypocrities who put me down—pompous and haughy, belittling me while I am hurting and discourging—shoving the Bible in my face. They meanly tell me why I should be joyful and rejoicing in the Lord all the time, having zero understanding or compasison for my grief, loneliness, bodily pain, sorrow and daily grief. People can be so mean and cruel. Sometimes people just need a true friend to stay quiet and just listen.

One horrible man at the Harvest Baptist Church that I attended on Guam years ago, when I explained that I couldn't be at church the previous Sunday due to my neck pain, cruelly remarked by quoting part of Hebrews 10:25. He cruelly remarked: "Forsake not the assembling of ourselves together, Brother!" What a wicked thing to say to a physically hurting person! He had no idea of what I was feeling inside my body, nor what I was (and am) suffering through. No one knows your pain except you!!!

Dear reader, please don't ever browbeat anyone for skipping church, no matter what the reason. You are not God. You are not the church attendance police. It is not your job to do the work of the Holy Spirit to convict others. PEOPLE JUST WANT TO BE LOVED. Simply unconditionally love them with Christ's love. Tell them that you are so glad they came to church this week, and that you missed them while they were gone.

Have Faith In God No Matter What Happens (Or Doesn't Happen)

Have you ever found yourself asking these quesitons (I have):

- Why is God ignoring my prayers?
- Where is the Lord?
- Why am I going through life's hardships all alone?
- What's the point of praying if God never answers my prayers?
- If God cares about me why won't He help me?

I absolutely HATE those stupid religious books which provide reasons for unanswered prayers, because EVERYONE violates multiple reasons at any given time (which would justify God not answering our prayers). I mean, we know that if we regard sin in our heart God won't hear our prayers. Psalms 66:18, "

If I regard iniquity in my heart, the Lord will not hear me...

" You can drive yourself crazy thinking about this Bible verse. We're all guilty of wondering if we've done something wrong, because we all sin continually every day. When God doesn't answer our prayers we tend to go to the dark side in our thinking. That is a part of our sinful human nature.

But dear reader, Hebrews 4:15-16 teaches that as a redeemed saint, you have a RIGHT to "come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need " (Hebrews 4:16b). I think many Christians feel the same as Abraham did, and as I often do, like God has dropped the ball. God must have forgot about me! The Lord must not care about me. If you'll be honest, I think everyone entertains these negative self-defeating thoughts at times. I know I do. Most people say that it is the Devil talking, but I humbly think we give the Devil too much credit. The Bible teaches in Jeremiah 17:9, "The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it?"

Faith includes believing and doubting, but it is acting on the belief. It is impossible to have faith without doubt. Faith is not the absence of doubt; but rather, it is the presence of belief. No matter how much you may doubt the inspired Holy Bible, if you will simply put a childlike trust in the Lord Jesus Christ, you will have eternal life immediately and forever (John 6:47).

Abraham had to stay by the stuff, even when he felt like God wasn't answering his prayers, until things finally worked out.

And then when God finally gave Abraham a son, the Lord commanded Abraham to kill his son. Unreal! Wow! This remarkable true story teaches us to HAVE FAITH IN THE WORD OF GOD no matter what life throws at us, no matter what happens. Should it be surprising then, that our dear Savior echoed these eternal words in Mark 11:22b, "Have faith in God."

God will come through on His promises! Ultimately our rewards will come when we die.

What a beautiful truth!!!

God may never answer my prayer to help me find a wife. As a child of God I cannot marry an unsaved woman. That greatly limits my choices. At age 57, there are not many choices. American women frighten me because of our Satanic court system that makes divorce super easy. That is the only reason my former wife abandoned and divorced me in 2006, because the wicked U.S. government makes it easy to divorce.

I would love to marry a Filipina girl, but the lengthy legal process is cumbersome (it takes up to 5 years to obtain a K-1 fiancee visa), and I am simply not up to flying 10,000 miles to run around the Philippines and deal with all the hassles and potential bandits. My neck hurts so bad that I don't want to do anything, or go anywhere. So, I am in a difficult situation. I wish the Philippine government didn't make it so hard to marry a Filipina woman. I am also considering Vietnam, Lord willing. Anyway, I love, thank and praise God for His blessings. There's never a bite of food that I put into my mouth, without thanking God for it. I probably say "Lord willing" and "God willing" (when speaking of future plans), more than 99 % of Christians, as the Bible commands us to do (James 4:15-16).

I am encouraged when I think about Abraham. He waited patiently year after year for God to keep His promise to give him a son, but nothing ever happened. After ten years, Abraham still didn't have a child. Sarah was now already in her 90's, a very old woman, incapable of bearing any children. Abraham must have felt like Charlie Brown in the Pumpkin Patch waiting for "The Great Pumpkin" to arrive, but he never came. I think Sarah, being Abraham's wife, saw his grief, frustration, doubt and pain of fruitlessly waiting year after year after year for nothing.

But finally, after 16 miserable long years of waiting, God came through. Perhaps when I am 80 years old God will give me a wife...lol. I don't know. I admit that sometimes I get angry at God, for ignoring my prayers. I admittedly don't see the hand of God working in my life, but I do trust the great heart of God. In the Old Testament book of Esther, God is not mentioned even once. Yet, we (as the reader) can see the migyty hand of God working throughout the situation. Esther and her people couldn't see their hand in front of their face. For all Esther knew, she was about to die, when she approached the king without his express permission. God was with Esther and everything worked out well in the end.

Despite my doubts and frustration, I trust God. I echo the words of Job in Job 13:15, "Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him: but I will maintain mine own ways before him." So, when you feel frustrated like Abraham, as I often am, just KEEP GOING IN FAITH.

The Lord's thoughts and ways are above our thoughts and ways. Who am I to challenge or question our omnipotent Creator? I am the creature; God is the Creator! I haven't been happy in many many years, but my purpose for being created wasn't to be happy in life, it was to make God happy with my life. Revelation 4:11 says that all things were created for God's pleasure. 1st Corinthians 6:20, " For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's."

Since 2002 I have labored diligently night and day on my website ministry. In 2020, I started my blog ministry. Only God knows how many hours I have invested into my ministry work, but it must be well over 50,000 hours over the past 22 years. On numerous occassions, since I live alone without a wife, I have worked for 37 hours straight through. I couldn't sleep. My neck pain is debilitating and makes it difficult to sleep at night. God is so good and I have no complaints. Blessed be the name of the Lord, for He is faithful and good. Jesus is precious!!!

Genesis 22:9-12, “And they came to the place which God had told him of; and Abraham built an altar there, and laid the wood in order, and bound Isaac his son, and laid him on the altar upon the wood. And Abraham stretched forth his hand, and took the knife to slay his son. And the angel of the LORD called unto him out of heaven, and said, Abraham, Abraham: and he said, Here am I. And he said, Lay not thine hand upon the lad, neither do thou any thing unto him: for now I know that thou fearest God, seeing thou hast not withheld thy son, thine only son from me.”

5.12.7 What About UFO’s And Aliens? (2024-12-12 14:49)

2nd Peter 1:16, “For we have not followed cunningly devised fables, when we made known unto you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but were eyewitnesses of his majesty.

I remember one time when I worked at MacDonald's as a 16 year old teenager. One of my bosses kindly offered to give me a ride home, which I gladly accepted. It was evening, just before sunset. We were driving westbound on Diversey Avenue in Chicago. Up ahead in the horizon we saw bright flashing lights, which was intriguing to say the least. We were both fascinated by these flashing lights, which appeared just above and below the flying object. We were reasonable both thinking an alien spaceship...lol.

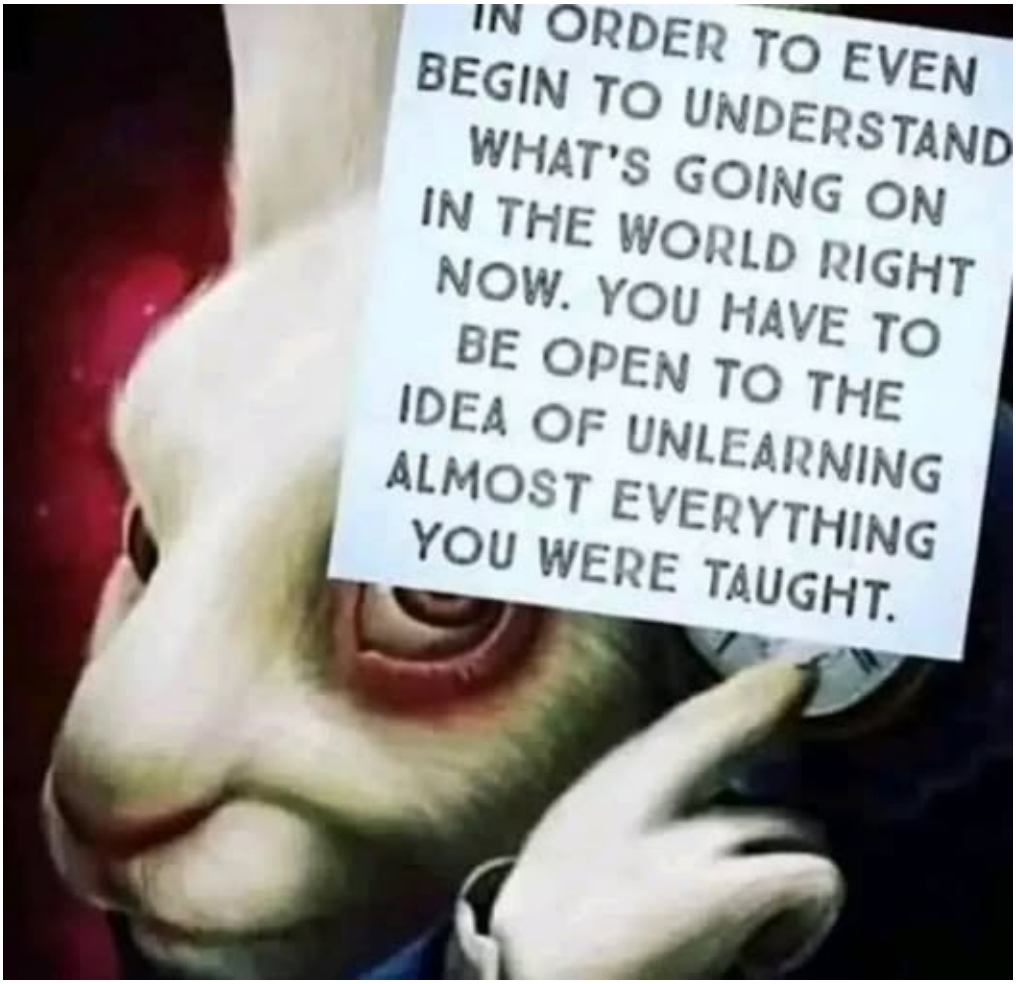
So, my boss asked if I would mind if we drove ahead to inspect the mysterious lights and I gladly agree. I was very curious too. Let's go check it out! We'll, when we drew much closer, my boss was the first to realize that the flashing lights were being caused by a long freight train passing by over a bridge, and the bright setting sun in the background was flashing each time another train car broke the light beams. Since the train was passing over a bridge, with sunlight shining above and below, it gave the FALSE appearance that the object was flying. I am convinced that most UFO sightings are false. They are visual deceptions.

Having said that, it is obvious to me that many UFO sightings are legitimate. With [1]compelling stories like this, and [2]this one, and [3]this one, one is left to shake our heads in curiosity. As usual, there are hundreds of claims of UFO's, [4]but no solid evidence. Call me a skeptic, but I don't believe in little green aliens, and I think you are foolish if you do. I do however believe that the USA, China, Russians and other countries have experimental spacecrafts that sometimes get photographed. Biblically we have no ground to suspect that any biological life exists elsewhere in the universe.

If you consider the angels and God extraterrestrial alien (which by definition they are), then I do believe in alien life. But as far as Star Trek type entities existing in the vast deep reaches of the universe, I do not believe in aliens. Our text Scripture passage is from 2nd Peter 1:16, "For we have not followed cunningly devised fables, when we made known unto you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but were eyewitnesses of his majesty." I believe that 99 % of claims of UFO's and aliens are cunningly devised fables (lies).

The All-Domain Anomaly Resolution Office (AARO) [5]received 757 reports of Unidentified Anomalous Phenomena (UAP) from May 1, 2023 to June 1, 2024. This occurred one day after a declassified report prompted a high-stakes hearing on the issue.

Albeit, they are just reports. In my mind, all of the bizarre claims of UFO's and aliens are in the same boat as goofy Charismatic speaking in tongues, fake healing crusades and other Pentecostal shenanigans.



Whether Charismatics or UFO's enthusiasts, they have NO EVIDENCE!!! If aliens truly existed, there would be some solid proof by now. I'm not talking about videos on YouTube, which A.I. could have generated. I'm not talking about renegade websites. Just like the demonic Charismatics, alleged miracles always seem to happen in the most remote places on earth where there was no camera, no witnesses and no evidence. You can only expect what you inspect. Without solid verifiable proof, claims of UFO's and aliens are just that, mere claims. With all the articulate photo shop software available today, and now A.I. technologies, anything is possible to create elaborate deceptions to fool the gullible public.

The old adage is very true: To the man with a hammer in his hand, everything looks like a nail sticking up. Alien enthusiasts [6]so desperately want to believe in aliens, that they will bite on any bone you throw them. I have learned that whether it be religion, politics or the existence of aliens, once people have decided what they believe, there is no changing their mind. All you can do is present the truth to people, and then allow time for the truth to work on them, which usually takes several months, if not years for them to wake up. But for many people, no amount of time will change their mind, because they don't care about seeking the truth, they only care about their agenda or self-induced delusion.

I am bewildered by how many fools I have met on social media, who sincerely think that the earth is flat. I have met just as many fools who think that the earth is stationary and doesn't move. It is a scientific fact that the earth travels 66,700 miles per hour around the sun. I have encouraged doubters to contact NASA for information to answer their questions about the shape of the earth and its movement through our solar system, but then they begin to criticize NASA, saying that we cannot believe everything they say. I came to the logical conclusion that some people are just insane, and there is no cure. The Apostle Paul had limited patience with such willfully ignorant people. (1st Timothy 6:20; 2nd Timothy 2:23; Titus 3:9; Galatians 2:5).

No doubt many UFO sightings are real, but that doesn't mean they are from outer space. Someone can mistake a flying Frisbee for a UFO...lol. I have heard some very compelling testimonies on social media from Air Force soldiers, about strange things they have seen while flying. I don't doubt that they speak the truth. However, at best that is mere speculation about alien life. THERE IS NO CONCLUSIVE PROOF OF ALIEN LIFE, and anybody who says otherwise is swimming upstream against all odds. If you want to entertain the possibility of alien life, knock yourself out friend and have fun, but I won't get into your banana boat.

5.12.8 Those Contemptible Baptists (2024-12-12 17:07)

Acts 17:10-11, "And the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night unto Berea: who coming thither went into the synagogue of the Jews. These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so."

"But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies..." —2nd Peter 2:1

I am horrified by how wicked and willfully ignorant most Baptists are. There is no profession as shameful and contemptible today than that of being a Baptist pastor. The stench of their haughty arrogance and willful ignorance sickens me. I became a born again Baptist at age 13 in 1980, and I also am a Baptist preacher, so I am fully qualified to criticize my own denomination.

Here is a perfect example of why I called them

"Contemptible Baptists."

[1]The Alabama Baptist publication sinfully titles their article:

"Hero of the Faith—

Martin Luther." The $64,000 question is then:

"Was Martin Luther a hero of the faith?" No, he was an unsaved infidel all his life and a lying deceiver, which I will prove to you. Martin Luther (1483-1546) is burning in Hell forever, because he put his trust into a counterfeit plan of salvation. Adding water baptism to one's faith is a failure to trust Jesus Christ alone.

John 6:40, "And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day." The ONLY way to get to Heaven is to REST in Christ's sacrifice on the cross as full payment for your sins, believing that He was buried but then physically resurrected from the dead after three days. This is the Gospel (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Romans 1:16, "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek. " Whosoever BELIEVES THE GOSPEL (i.e., the GOOD NEWS) of Jesus crucified, buried and risen is saved.

Kindly said, our fundamental Bible colleges and Baptist churches today are filled with woefully and willfully ignorant believers, who view Martin Luther as a great hero of the faith. Tragically,

Martin Luther was a heretic! I realize this comes as a shock to many Christians, but the proof is undeniable. The biblical teaching of being saved by faith alone is often attributed to Martin Luther, but nothing could be further from the truth.

Mr. Luther also taught the damnable false doctrine of [2]Infant Baptism. My long time ministry friend, Pastor Max D. Younce (1935-2023), wrote a helpful book titled, "[3]MARTIN LUTHER: MASTER OF DECEIT." This book does an excellent job exposing Mr. Luther as a fraud. When I personally handed a hardcopy of this book to Marty Herron (senior pastor at the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam in 2014), he cowardly had his associate pastor Joe Hensen scold me the next time I came back to church. I was disgusted at the cowardice of Marty Herron (who since 2018 has been the incompetent vice president of Faith Baptist Bible College and Theological Seminary in Ankeny, Iowa). Mr. Herron is a Lordship Salvation trusting hellbound infidel, who is an enemy of the cross of Jesus Christ. Hell is coming up to meet Marty at his coming at the end of this life (Isaiah 14:9).

Indeed, Luther and the other reformers did challenge the Catholic Church that sold indulgences and offered a “works-based” type of salvation. However, just because Martin Luther protested against the Catholic Church doesn’t mean that he was saved. Martin Luther often taught that salvation was based on faith alone, and not received based upon a person’s meritorious works; however, Luther’s idea of faith alone does not conform to the biblical teaching that baptism is not required for salvation. Luther errantly taught that faith without works (specifically water baptism) is invalid. This is NOT biblical faith! Biblical faith is simply RESTING in Jesus because of His finished work on the cross of Calvary.

In his Large Catechism, Luther wrote:

> [I] affirm that Baptism is no human trifle, but that it was established by God Himself. Moreover, He earnestly and solemnly commanded that we must be baptized or we shall not be saved. No one is to think that it is an optional matter like putting on a red coat. It is of greatest importance that we hold Baptism in high esteem as something splendid and glorious. The reason why we are striving and battling so strenuously for this view of Baptism is that the world nowadays is full of sects that loudly proclaim that Baptism is merely an external form and that external forms are useless.... Although Baptism is indeed performed by human hands, yet it is truly God’s own action (1978, pp. 98-99). [emphasis added]

Where does the holy Bible “solemnly command that we must be baptized or we shall not be saved”? From Luther’s own comments, it is clear that he required water baptism for salvation. This is called the heresy of [4]Baptismal Regeneration . Many Protestant denominations today have been infected with Luther’s damnable heresy. Sadly, most fundamental Bible-believing churches have also been caught up in the woeful Martin Luther deception.

Luther wrote his catechisms in the year 1529, which was 12 years after he alleged became saved in 1517. A truly born again child of God fully understands that salvation comes solely through faith alone without works. Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do! For Mr. Luther to teach that water baptism was not optional to get to Heaven, speaks volumes as to his status as a true Christian. Beware of the foolish teaching in many churches today that you can be wrong on the Gospel and still be saved. Galatians 1:8,

“

But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.

” The Gospel which the Apostle Paul preached is defined in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4 as Jesus’ death on the cross, burial and His bodily resurrection three days later. Adding water baptism is not part of the true Gospel; it is fraud, another gospel.

Martin Luther was subtle, just as Satan is clever and subtle—teaching that salvation is by faith alone, while simultaneously requiring water baptism to be saved. Obviously, Luther didn’t consider baptism a self-righteous work. The inspired Word of God states in John 3:18, “He that believeth on him is not condemned...” I don’t see any mention of “baptism” there. John the apostle professed in 1st John 5:13 the purpose of his Epistle... “These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life.” Carefully notice that John never mentions baptism in 1st, 2nd, or 3rd John.

Romans 11:6 plainly tells us that if something is by works then it is no longer by grace, “And if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work.” If you add anything to simple childlike faith in Jesus, then you have corrupted the saving grace of God and the Gospel. Such is the way of the Devil. Martin Luther taught a perverted gospel.

Every hellbound Catholic today who speaks of faith, also believes that salvation comes only through keeping the Seven Sacraments of the Church in Rome. Of course, that is a false view of the Gospel and a road straight to Hell, fire and damnation. Likewise, for Martin Luther to demand water baptism for salvation is damnable heresy. How in the world could any respectable Baptist call Mr. Luther, a “

Hero of the faith?

” Luther was a theological fraud!

There is no argument that Martin Luther was a great man historically, and that he was instrumental in translating the Bible. However, it is clear to any honest observer that Mr. Luther preached another gospel of partial faith in Christ plus works. Any Baptist (whether it be a college professor, clergy or church layman) who praises Martin Luther as a hero of the faith, after the truth I have shown you, is a darn FOOL. Luther was NOT a born again Christian!

5.12.9 I Met With My Diabetes Doctor Today (2024-12-13 17:13)

□□□□□□ □□:□□, “□□ □□□□□ □□ □□ □□□□□□ □□□ □□□□, □□□□ □□ □□□ □□□□□ □□□ □□□□□□ □□□□ □□□□□□.”

I met with my diabetes doctor today. They did an A1C blood test while I waited. It only took a few minutes. She said she’s never seen a patient with blood sugar as low as mine today, an A1C of 4.9 %. She said that’s great, but she cautioned me to keep an eye on my daily sugar. If it goes below 70 mg/dL I am supposed to let her know, to lower my dosage of Mounjaro. I kindly requested if she’ll prescribe 15 mg of Mounjaro for the next 3 months and she agreed. I just have to monitor my sugar once per week. My blood pressure today was 132/83. That’s pretty good.

I backslid a bit dietary over the past few months. It’s not eating more processed foods that’s so bad; but rather, the absence of fruits, beans and vegetables (high fiber foods) in one’s diet that is really bad. Only 5 % of American men get enough fiber in their diet. Among women, only 7 % eat enough fiber. Processed foods are devoid of healthy fiber. WHAT YOU EAT TODAY, YOU WILL CRAVE TOMORROW.

Whereas I had reached 162.8 pounds (empty stomach) back in August 2024, I weighed 181.6 today (full stomach). So my true weight now (on an empty stomach) is about 175 pounds. So, I’m back on a healthy diet of more fruits and vegetables. I just drank a smoothie with some water, a couple raw brown eggs, cinnamon, vanilla extract, whole milk, a scoop of pure collagen, peaches, strawberries and cherries. Since it’s a high protein smoothie, it will fill me up all afternoon. I fried about a dozen baby Bok Choy earlier (with garlic, brown sugar, salt, soy sauce and culinary peanut oil for flavoring). I bought a pack of a dozen thin cut ribeye steak. I cooked one of the slices today to go with the Bok Choy.

Yesterday morning, I drank a smoothie containing blueberries, blackberries, a yellow Kiki, one apple, some flax seeds, water and red grapes. I ate Bok Choy and ribeye for lunch yesterday too.

I bought some all natural 100 % fruit popsicles at Walmart, which I had for desert. For snacking I bought a couple boxes of Mary’s Super Seed Gone Crackers, which are 100 % whole grain. I put Mild Salsa and guacamole dip on them. Lord willing, by my next doctor’s appointment in March, I want to get my weight down to at least 159 pounds on an empty stomach. THE KEY TO LOSING WEIGHT IS TO EAT. That goes 100 % contrary to how most people think, including myself. But you must eat healthy foods! If you eat a high protein, high fiber, diet, you’ll feel full and eat less. By eating healthy (high fiber, high protein, fruits, vegetables) you can steadily expect to lose 1 to 2 pounds per week.

Sure, starving one’s self is the fastest way to lose weight, but it’s also the hardest thing to do. I’ve heard people say that if you stop eating, your body will go into "starvation mode" and slow down your metabolism and you won't lose weight. That may be true for a day or so, but trust me, if you stop eating the bottom will fall out on the scale in a few days and your weight WILL plummet at least 1/2 pound per day (2,000 calories). I've lost 5 pounds per week before by starving myself, but it's something that I've only been able to do three times throughout my entire lifetime. The other hundreds of times I tried to lose weight, I couldn't lose an ounce over the course of years. Millions of Americans struggle with the same obesity problem.

I know how to lose weight. My problem is that I get emotionally depressed not having a wife and being alone all the time. The holidays are especially difficult for me. I hate Christmas! I avoid the stores and radio channels that play Christmas music. It's depressing. Last summer I weighed 210 pounds. My A1C was 10.7 %. The Mounjaro injections once a week helped me lose 40 pounds. It's like a miracle drug. Unfortunately, after 6 months my body became used to the drug and my hunger came back. I just need to get back into the habit of eating healthier foods.

I heard actor Nicole Kidman say something very helpful. When asked how she stays so skinny, she said that she easts 75 % healthy foods, and 25 % whatever she wants. I like what she said, and have learned that it works for me. My constant chronic neck pain and loneliness tempt me to eat more comfort foods. To be honest I don't like eating fruits and vegetables. I'm a city kid. But when I make myself eat (or drink) them, I always feel good afterwards, especially the next day overall. I bought a Nutri-Ninja mixer, which rotates at 24,000 RPM. I LOVE IT!!! I hate juicers, because they remove and waste all the beautiful healthy FIBER that your body so desperately needs. With the Nutri-Ninja, all the fiber stays in the drink, and you get LOTS OF FIBER!

Any kind of beans is a super foods. I bought several small bags of super healthy black beans, ready to eat. I just need to heat the bag. I season the beans with Adobo and other favorite flavors. The beans are very high in fiber and protein, making me feel satiated most of the day. I have felt better the past couple days, because I am eating healthy again, and Lord willing with His help I want to continue eating healthier foods. You don't have to eat all healthy foods, but just include them in your daily diet. I ate a nice homemade Romaine lettuce salad with Italian dressing on Wednesday. I learned from a Nephrologist (a kidney doctor) that most people errantly think if you drink a gallon of water every day, your kidneys will be healthy, but that's not true at all. He said the best thing you can do to have healthy kidneys is to eat green leafy vegetables at least a few times each week. I thought that was interesting.

Anyway, I just got back from my doctor's appointment and wanted to share my day with everyone. I stopped at the local Vietnamese deli and grocery store just 5 minutes away from where I live, and bought two bags of fresh baby Bok Choy. I ate some for lunch.

Look at these beautiful cashew nuts! ...

I also bought a big canister of fresh cashew nuts still in their shell coating (pictured above).

They are big nuts! They taste delicious, lightly salted with nothing else added. I must have some squirrel in me, because I go nuts for nuts...lol.

Pictured below is [2]powdered collagen from cattle hides. It's an excellent source of pure protein. I bought a big 2-pound bag and add 1 scoop to some of my smoothies.

The collagen goes well with milk, peaches, vanilla, cinnamon, nutmeg, et cetera. I don't use collagen with berries, apples or Kiwis. To each his own. Walmart sells smoothie packs. You get 4-packs per bag. They come in various flavors, which include cut up fruits and vegetables. The bags are very convenient for making smoothies. Stuff like this didn't exist 40 years ago. We are so blessed (and spoiled) in America. God is more than good.

Thank you to those who prayed for me, and who keep me in your prayers to our good and faithful Creator. I love you all with God's unconditional love. □□□□□□□□ □:□□, "□□□ □□□ □□□□ □□ □□□ □□□□ □□ □□ □□□ □□□□□□□ □□□□□, □□□□ □□□□□□□ □□□□ □□□ □□□□ □□□□ □□□ □□□□□□□ □□□."

5.12.10 Beware Of The Jehovah's Witness Religious Cult (2024-12-14 18:20)

2nd John 1:9, "Whosoever transgresseth, and abideth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not God. He that abideth in the doctrine of Christ, he hath both the Father and the Son."

On their demonic website at JW.org, the cult of Jehovah's Witnesses (JW's) have an article titled: "[1]Who Is Jesus?," in which they teach the following lies:

1. JW's Falsely Teach That God Created Jesus. The Bible teaches that Jesus always existed (Hebrews 13:8). Jesus is the beginning and the end (Revelation 1:8; Hebrews 7:1-3).

2. JW's Falsely Teach That God Created All Things Through Jesus - All of the Devil's modern Bible revisions corrupt John 1:3, changing "by him" to "through him." The inspired King James Bible rightly reads that Jesus directly made all things, but the Devil's modern perversions change the Bible to say all things were made through Jesus.

3. JW's Falsely Teach That Jesus Is Not Almighty God -

   The Bible teaches that Jesus is "the Almighty"

   (Revelation 1:8), God in the flesh (1st Timothy 3:16), and He always existed. Jesus was NOT a mere man, prophet or Michael the angel incarnate as JW's teach, He was God almighty in the flesh. Jesus claimed to be God (John 10:33, 14:1).

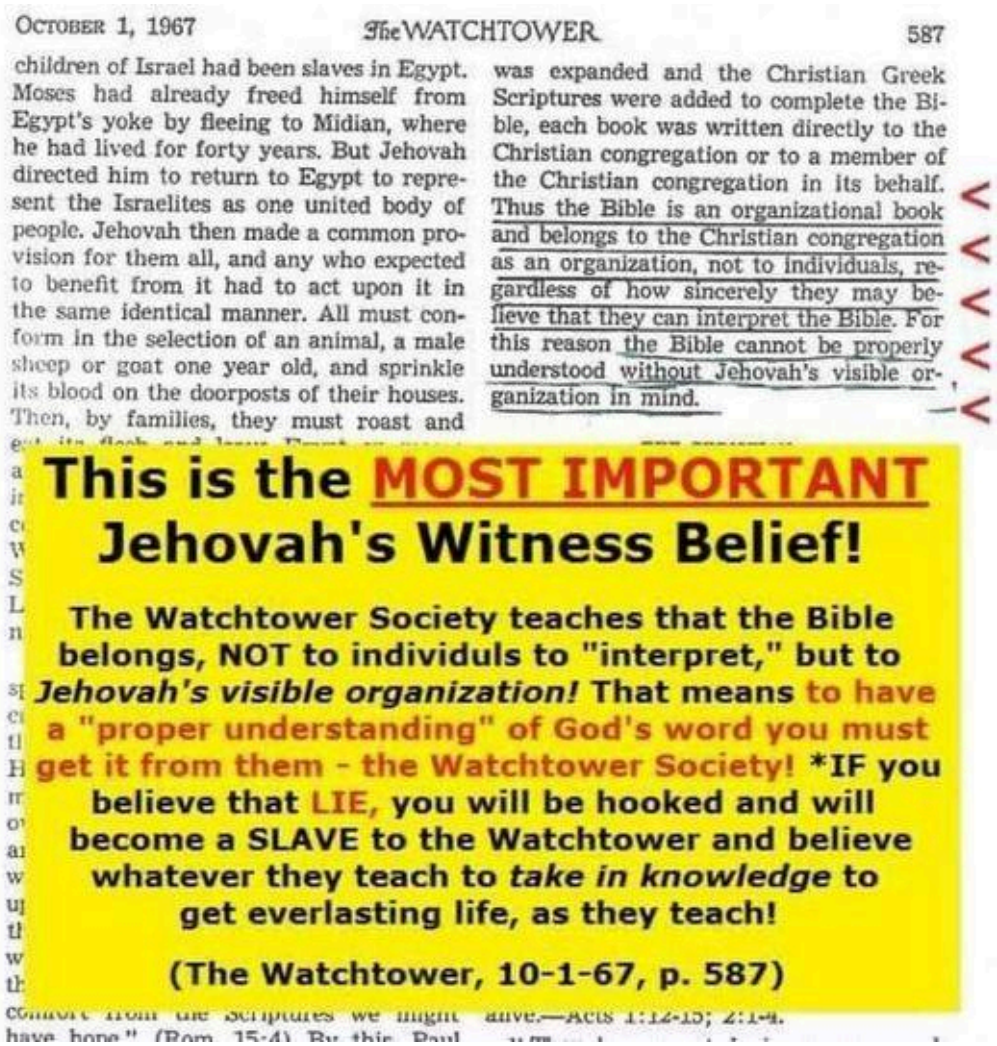
4. JW's Falsely Teach That Jesus Is Merely A Spirit Creature In Heaven - The Bible teaches that Jesus resurrected from the dead in a physical body. Doubting Thomas touched Jesus' hands and feet, to feel His scars. Jesus physically ascended in His resurrected body into Heaven (Acts 1:11). Jesus sits on a physical throne in Heaven on the right hand of God the Father (Colossians 3:1). JW's falsely teach that Jesus only raised up in spirit, but not in a physical body. That is why I always mention that Jesus resurrected bodily, that is, in a physical body. If you deny this truth, you are not saved, because Christ's physical resurrection is a part of the Gospel (Good News) by which all who believe it are born again.

This false religion was founded in 1874 by Charles Taze Russell, who was a 33rd degree Freemason occultist. If you research the cults, you will find that there is a common association with Freemasonry. This is true of Mormonism, Seventh-Day Adventists, Roman Catholicism, Christian Science and others cults. RUN from the dangerous cult of Jehovah's Witnesses...

1. JW's deny Jesus' bodily resurrection. They claim He exists in Heaven as a spirit.

2. JW's deny the triune nature of God. That is, they deny the Godhead (Acts 17:29; Romans 1:20; Colossians 2:9). In theology, the Godhead is termed, the "Trinity." I prefer the biblical word, "Godhead." Matthew 28:19-20 and Colossians 2:2, among numerous other passages, teach that God exists in the three persons of; namely, God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit. There is only one true and living God (Deuteronomy 6:4), but He exists as a Godhead. Colossians 2:2 calls the Godhead a "mystery." So, don't try to figure God out because you'll never be able to do it my friend. God is God! He is the great, "I AM" (Exodus 3:14).

3. JW's teach that Michael and Lucifer are brothers. JW's teach that Michael came down to earth from Heaven as Jesus, and went back to Heaven to become Michael again.



4. JW's also deny that there is a Hell with burning fire where all Christ rejecters will be punished for eternity. Instead, they errantly teach that unbelievers will be annihilated. This is also what the Seventh-Day Adventists cult foolishly believe and teach, denying a literal burning lake of Fire for the wicked. The Bible says there is a literal place called Hell, where there is fire and brimstone (Revelation 14:11, 20:11-15, 21:8).

5. JW's don't believe in fighting in the military or having any national allegiance.

6. JW's refuse to celebrate Christmas and other holidays.

7. JW's refuse to get medically necessary blood transfusions.

These are but a few of the many reasons why you should avoid this cult. JW's elevate their cult over the inspired Word of God, as you can see for yourself in the following meme...

5.12.11 God Never Gives Up On Anyone (2024-12-16 20:28)

2nd Peter 3:9, "The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance."

Part of my website ministry as a Baptist preacher for the past 22 years, since 2002, has been to refute false teachers on the internet. As you can imagine, this has been a full-time job in my ministry. Most people are proud and stubborn, so religiously indoctrinated that no one can change their views. This is why I have often said, that the hardest part about getting somebody saved is first getting them lost. Proverbs 26:12, "Seest thou a man wise in his own conceit? there is more hope of a fool than of him."

For this blog I want to do something different than usual. I'm going to share with you an actual unedited Facebook debate that I had today with a fella, who insisted that God gives up on sinners. It all started with the following meme that I uploaded in a new post. ...

[1]

CARLOS: When God gives unsaved people who repeatedly reject Him to reprobate minds like Romans 1:21-32 proclaims that's when God permanently rejects them that they are doomed for hell with no hope of salvation ALL BEFORE PHYSICALLY DYING.

ME: Kindly, I totally disagree with that teaching. Pastor Steven Anderson is guilty of hating sinners with his unbiblical rubbish (aka, his infamous "Reprobate Doctrine"). He errantly teaches from Romans 1 that God gives up on someone ever being saved. That is not true doctrine.

Nowhere does the Bible say in Romans 1 that God gives up on a lost sinner ever being saved. The Bible says God gives them over to their uncleanliness to dishonor their bodies between themselves. [illegible] "[illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [ willing for ANY man to perish. As long as a human being is breathing air and their heart is still beating, there is hope for their salvation. God desires for ALL MEN to repent (change their mind) to be saved by faith alone without works.

CARLOS: no one doesn't disagree that God wants all to be saved.... Yes, it is true....however the Bible makes it totally clear that there is such thing as unsaved people crossing the line with God...how else do you think satan got to who he is? What else are you to make of Jesus telling the pharisses who blasphemed the Holy Ghost in Matthew 12 that committing such blasphemy causes them to never have forgiveness in neither THIS LIFE or the life to come? With all due respect, only someone who's really shallow on this subject believes Pastor Steven Anderson started this doctrine....what he said is true whether he ever spoke it or not....Christians have been conditioned to believe such a lukewarm view of hell thanks to "progressive modernist ideologies that have been undermining Christianity for centuries and you know exact what I'm referring to (contemporary Christianity)...

ME: I didn't say he started this doctrine. Pastor Steven Anderson has popularized the heresy of being a "reprobate" beyond hope of ever being saved. He is teaching blatant heresy to say that homosexuals cannot be saved. He dishonestly tries to convince people that he is preaching the same truth as Dr. Jack Hyles, but as I evidence in the following eye-opening article, Pastor Jack Hyles taught something VERY different about reprobates than does Pastor Anderson. I fully agree with Dr. Hyles, but [2]disagree with Brother Anderson.

Yes, there is a point of no return that a lost sinner can cross, but it's not because God refuses to save them; but rather, it is simply because God knows that they will never be saved, so God gives them over to their unbelief and sin. [illegible] "[illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [ of his life he's crying out to God for mercy are really not of reality or even Biblical, and the thief on the cross is not a good example because people will blindly assert he was everything Romans 1:21-32 describes and be like "see? Not every God hating reprobate was beyond hope" (thereby insinuating scripture contradicts itself).... The problem with that assertion is that if the thief on the cross was a reprobate Christ wouldn't have told him that he would be with Him in paradise.

ME: Kindly, I totally disagree with you on this matter. I don't think God ever gives up on even the worst sinner being saved. Nobody is ever beyond the hope of the Gospel. I won't argue or debate with you on this, I think you're biblically wrong. The things you said are based on assumptions, not facts.

CARLOS: respectfully, you're disagreeing with The Bible in that regard because there's several instances where it's made clear that God DOES give up on CERTAIN UNSAVED IN-DIVIDUALS...from King Pharoah, to Balaam, to the sodomites (gee, if they weren't without hope the why did God drop fire and brimstone on them? He said He'd spare the population if He found even at least one righteous person) to the scribes and pharisses in Matthew 12 THAT SAID JESUS WAS POSSESSED WITH A DEVIL ...Matthew 23:33 He rips on them more basically saying to them "what makes you filthy people think you're gonna avoid going to hell now?" (Obviously not verbatim but this surely means the same thing)... This is almost the calvinistic approach you're taking even though Ive read your articles ripping on Calvinism because calvinists are the ones who say that those whom He elected for salvation before birth will get saved no matter what because they're eventually gonna submit to His predestined will.

ME: You are way off base. The Bible never says that God gave up on anybody. Jesus rebuked His disciples when they wanted to pray down fire and brimstone to destroy the Samaritans. [redacted]

Like the wayward New IFB, you are deceived to think that God actually wants His children to hate sinners, instead of the sin. Psalms 97:10 commands saints to "hate evil," not hate evil people. God loved the sinful world so much according to John 3:16, that He gave His only begotten Son to die for all of us. Yet, you and the wacky New IFB falsely claim that God gives up on hardened sinners and throws them under the bus. That is heresy!

I humbly think that your thinking is backwards friend. The problem has never been that God gives up on man; but rather, God in His omniscience knows that some people reach the point of no return, where they are never going to come to Christ; but this is not because God has given up on the unrepentant sinner, it is because they have given up on God.

Furthermore, God alone knows when a hardened sinner has crossed the line of no return, not you or the New IFB. For anyone to foolishly say that homosexuals have crossed the line and can never be born again is 100 % blatant heresy! You are literally elevating yourself to the place of God, becoming a judge over that person, condemning them to Hell in your self righteousness. Who do you think you are, to deem any human being beside yourself as unreachable with the Gospel? You are NOT God!!!

The Bible plainly says in Jude 1:7 that God destroyed Sodom and Gomorrha as an EXAMPLE of what He would do to the ungodly in Hell, burn them! Kindly said, you are confusing God's justice, holiness and judgment with His mercy, love and grace.

I don't like to unfriend people, I really don't; but unfortunately, it is the only way I can silence the heretics, since Facebook doesn't allow me to turn off your commenting ability. So, Carlos, I have already unfriended you. I refuse to allow anyone to spread lies, heresy and false teaching on my ministry webpage, whether it be my blogs, websites, Twitter, Facebook, Pinterest, et cetera.

The Bible says in □□□□ □:□, "□□□ □□□ □□□□ □□□□□□□□, □□□□□□ □□□□ □□ □□□□□□?" There's no reason for me to keep so-called "friends" who wrongly accuse me of going against the inspired Word of God, which is very harsh language. Clearly, you think that I am going against the Holy Bible, by my preaching that God never gives up on any sinner being reached with the Gospel. Obviously we all have an appointed time to die (Hebrews 9:27), and at that moment one's opportunity to get saved will have forever ended.

God's mercy, love and grace have their limits for the disobedient sinner who refuses to rest in the imputed righteousness of Jesus Christ to be saved; but I biblically contend that until each living sinner breathes their last breath, God desires for that individual to repent (change their mind) to come to Christ by faith as a needy sinner to be saved (2nd Peter 3:9).

END OF DEBATE

Dear reader, I run into religious fools like this all the time. Carlos is not a fool because he is ignorant, he remains ignorant because he is a fool. He mentioned Sodom's destruction in Genesis as an example of God giving up on people.

God sent His angels to deliver the righteous from Sodom before destroying that city with fire and brimstone.

Previously, God had made an agreement with Abraham, that if he could find just 10 righteous (saved) people, the Lord would spare Sodom of being decimated. Abraham desperately tried no doubt, but utterly failed to find even 10 righteous people. Abraham's nephew Lot was the only bonafide righteous man that he could find (2nd Peter 2:7). We don't know if Mrs. Lot was saved or not, the Bible doesn't say. We do know that she looked back at Sodom, likely because her heart never left the city, and she was turned instantly into a pillar of salt.

God delivered Lot's entire family, who were willing to flee the city him and the angels, but no one else. This is NOT because God gave up on the sinners in Sodom; but rather, because God knew that they had permenently given up on Him. I find no evidence in the inspired Word of God, where God ever gave up on anybody if there was even a ray of remaining hope for their salvation. The Apostle Peter writing under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, said in 2nd Peter 3:9 that GOD IS NOT WILLING FOR ANY TO PERISH!!! So, for anyone to claim to the contrary, saying that God gives up of Sodomites—so we shouldn't bother sharing the Gospel with them because they are beyond hope—is totally unscriptural.

The most important truth I want you to see here, that Carlos totally ignored, is that God HADN'T given up on Sodom's sinners, even though the Lord was about to destroy the place. Abraham went to Sodom preaching the Gospel, desperately searching for 10 righteous people. Do you think that Abraham spoke softly and only told a few people what was about to happen? This was literally a matter of life and death. If Abraham could only find 10 righteous people, God would change His mind and spare Sodom from being annhilated.

You had better believe that Abraham told everybody he could, running through the city, diligently warning the people of the imminent coming judgment.

So, God hadn't given up on them, the good Lord gave everyone in Sodom a chance to repent. It should be clear to you now, that it was the sinful people of Sodom who gave up on God, and not God who gave up on them. God knew (as only God knows) that no one in Sodom would have ever repented, otherwise I don't believe the good Lord would have destroyed the city.

The same situation existed before the flood of Noah's day, when for 120 years Noah preached the Gospel, but not even one person got saved. Jesus foretold in Matthew 24:37-39 that in the end times, conditions in society will once again return as it was in the days of Noah. As we draw nearer to the End Times, fewer people will heed the truth. With all the false bibles, counterfeit plans of salvation, false prophets and ecumenical apostasy in the churches today, we already clearly see the conditions of Noah's time now developing.

I love you dear reader with Christ's uncondiitonal love, whoever you may be. I enjoy answering emails, so whatever may be burdening your heart, or any hankering Bible question(s) you may have, or perhaps you just need a Christian big brother while going through a tough time, I am your humble servant in Christ. Everything you share with me is kept confidential. I am here by God's grace to help others, which has always been my heart's sincere desire since I surrendered to serve God for the rest of my life at age 15. I got saved at age 13. I just want to be a blessing. Thank you for reading my ministry blog.

5.12.12 The Incredible Power Of A Wife Over Her Husband (2024-12-19 23:19)

1st Kings 21:25, "But there was none like unto Ahab, which did sell himself to work wickedness in the sight of the LORD, whom Jezebel his wife stirred up."

1st Peter 3:1-4, "

Likewise, ye wives, be in subjection to your own husbands; that, if any obey not the word, they also may without the word be won by the conversation of the wives; While they behold your chaste conversation coupled with fear. Whose adorning let it not be that outward adorning of plaiting the hair, and of wearing of gold, or of putting on of apparel; But let it be the hidden man of the heart, in that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price."

I chose two appropriate passages of Scripture, to show the contrast between a bad wife and a good wife. In the case of wicked Jezebel, the Bible says that she stirred up her husband's heart to do evil against the Lord. But in the case of the wife in 1st Peter 3:1-4, the Bible says that her submission to her husband is so powerful, that even if that husband refuses to obey God, he will listen to his wife because of her godly testimony. This is an amazing truth!

Ladies, you have much power over your man. A wife is her husband's significant other. God took one of Adam's ribs to create Eve. The Lord performed the first surgery in the Bible. Genesis 2:21-22, "And the LORD God caused a deep sleep to fall upon Adam and he slept: and he took one of his ribs, and closed up the flesh instead thereof;

And the rib, which the LORD God had taken from man, made he a woman, and brought her unto the man.

" Like Adam, God could have simply created Eve without using one of Adam's ribs.

I humbly believe the reason why God took one of Adam's ribs, was to forever show the human race that in marriage a wife literally becomes united as one with her husband. Jesus seems to confirm this truth in Matthew 19:5-6, "And said, For this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife: and they twain shall be one flesh?

Wherefore they are no more twain, but one flesh*. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder. " In God's sight, when a man and a woman are united in marriage, they now appear as one unit in God's sight, until death do they part.

Ladies, what kind of wife are you? Do you stir up your husband's anger? Do you discourage him from attending church because of your laziness at home, sassy mouth and tendency not to submit to his authority? How would you compare to the type of wife described in Proverbs 31? A rebellious heathen wife has the power to cause her husband to quit church and never go back. But a submissive godly wife has the power to encourage her husband to repent and live for Christ. It's your choice Ma'am. 1st Peter 3:1-4, "

Likewise, ye wives, be in subjection to your own husbands; that, if any obey not the word, they also may without the word be won by the conversation of the wives; While they behold your chaste conversation coupled with fear." There you have it directly from the inspired Holy Bible

—a wife has the incredible power to steer her husband toward or away from God.

Proverbs 19:14, "House and riches are the inheritance of fathers and a prudent wife is from the LORD."

Proverbs 12:4, " A virtuous woman is a crown to her husband: but she that maketh ashamed is as rottenness in his bones."

5.12.13 I Hate Liars And Shady Companies (2024-12-20 13:09)

Proverbs 19:22, “The desire of a man is his kindness: and a poor man is better than a liar.

I hate a liar. I don’t hate people, but I hate the liar in the sinner. My house was built in 1957. I have a very old Tappan wall oven that is only 22" wide. The oven door springs were broken when I bought the home, and the door would come crashing down if you tried to close it, so I had to leave it open for safety. I searched near and far to try to find replacement oven door springs but couldn't, because the oven is so old. Tappan has discontinued making this part.

So God gave me the bright idea to twist the broken spring coils together to extend their life, which is what I did. Thankfully, it worked for a couple years, Unfortunately, yesterday when I opened the door to bake my Homerun-Inn pizza from Chicago, I heard a loud snap and the door became heavier. I knew right away what had happened, one of the return springs broke again. They are old and due to heat fatigue over the decades they're on their last legs.

So, this morning I went online to search for replacement springs, hoping they had become available after two years, but they are not longer made. So, I then decided to look for a replacement wall oven. The problem is that my oven is a rare 22" wide model. Anything bigger will not fit into the wooden housing built into my wall. All of the available wall ovens are at least 24" or wider, which absolutely will not work. The wood is antique and cannot be remolded to fit the larger ovens. So I searched online for a 22" wall oven and here is what I found from Best Buy...

The add clearly implies that Best Buy sells 22" wall ovens. Their website appeared at the top of the search engine. The problem, [2]as you can easily verify for yourself, is that BEST BUY LIED!!! I triple-dog dare you to find any 22" wall ovens for sale at Best Buy! You cannot. It is obvious why retailers blatantly lie all the time. It is because they are unethical, greedy and wickedly couldn't care less about being honest, they will stoop lower than low to deceive you, all in a selfish attempt to lure you to their website, hoping that you'll buy something else. I HATE LIARS!!! Literally, I could write a big book of these types of unethical, shady and crooked business practices employed today by ungodly companies. THEY ARE LIARS!!! Duckduckgo are LIARS!

I am so sick and tired of shady people! The world is increasingly sinking into the mire of Sodom and Gomorrha. Jesus foretold in Matthew 24:37-39 that in the end times the world would return to the ungodly wicked conditions as seen in Noah's time, before the flood that destroyed all of humanity, save Noah and his family alone. I don't blame God for ridding the planet of mankind. Sadly, society today is getting very bad.

This month an immoral 23-year-old woman in London named [3]Lily Phillips had sex with 100 men in one day as a Only Fans stunt. If that wasn't bad enough, now the ungodly female has announced to the world that [4]she is preparing to have sex with 1,000 men in one day. She needs to be arrested and sent for a psychiatric evaluation. The media are having a hey day. The public can't get enough of the sensationalism. Even as wicked as the Old Testament city of Sodom was, I seriously doubt if things were this bad! I could share hundreds of similar shocking horror stories with you from the news, but I'll spare you. This world has always been wicked (1st John 5:19), but things have gone nuclear today! Even so, come, Lord Jesus.

We live in a shameful culture of liars, from lawyers to realtors to pastors, they are all LIARS! Your average pastor today preaches a counterfeit gospel of partial faith in Christ plus YOU have to do something (e.g., turn from your sinful ways, be willing to give up your sinful bad habits, follow Christ, make Jesus the " of your life, et cetera). None of these requirements are found in the inspired King James Bible!

The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU.

People sometimes ask me if they should settle for a church that uses a corrupt Bible version but preaches an accurate free grace Gospel, or attend a church that uses the trustworthy King James Bible but preaches the heresy of Lordship Salvation. My answer is definitely attend a church that is correct on the Gospel. You can always choose to use the King James Bible, even though they are using the Devil's garbage revisions. But nothing is more important than being correct on God's simple plan of salvation. Choose a church that is correct on the Gospel.

We've all seen bank advertisements that offer you a gift in exchange for opening a new account. The bank is lying to you. If you have to open a new account to get the toaster (or whatever gift they are offering), that is a reward, not a gift. It something were truly a gift, then you could walk into the bank and take it without any obligations or stipulations. Clearly, they are not offering you a gift.

I am teaching myself to play the piano. It is a difficult instrument to learn to play. There are 12 different keys and each requires completely different finger positions, muscle memory and knowledge that complicates things. It is quite a challenge, to say the least, which requires years of practice to become even remotely good at playing. I recently bought a Yamaha P-225 keyboard piano to learn on and the accompanying housing and floor pedals for it. It is very nice and practical, easy to be taken down and stored or moved when necessary.

In sharp contrast, I have been playing the pedal steel guitar since 1992 and am good at it. To change keys, all I have to do is move my playing bar to a different fret marker. Nothing changes, except having different chord/open string options available in various fret positions. Changing keys is super simple, whereas on a piano it can be a nightmare and throw everything off kilter for the musician. [5]I will always love the pedal steel guitar! I also have been playing the Hawaiian steel guitar since 2006. Bud Tutmarc (1924-2006) is a famous Christian steel guitarist. He loved the C #m9th tuning, which I used to record this song in his eloquent style, " [6]God Understands .

" Here is [7]the original song I found on YouTube without the steel guitar that I added, by God's grace. I switched to the C6th tuning at the very end to finish the song.

Anyway, I said all that to say this. I went online a couple weeks ago to find a website to learn the piano, and I found "

Simply Piano.

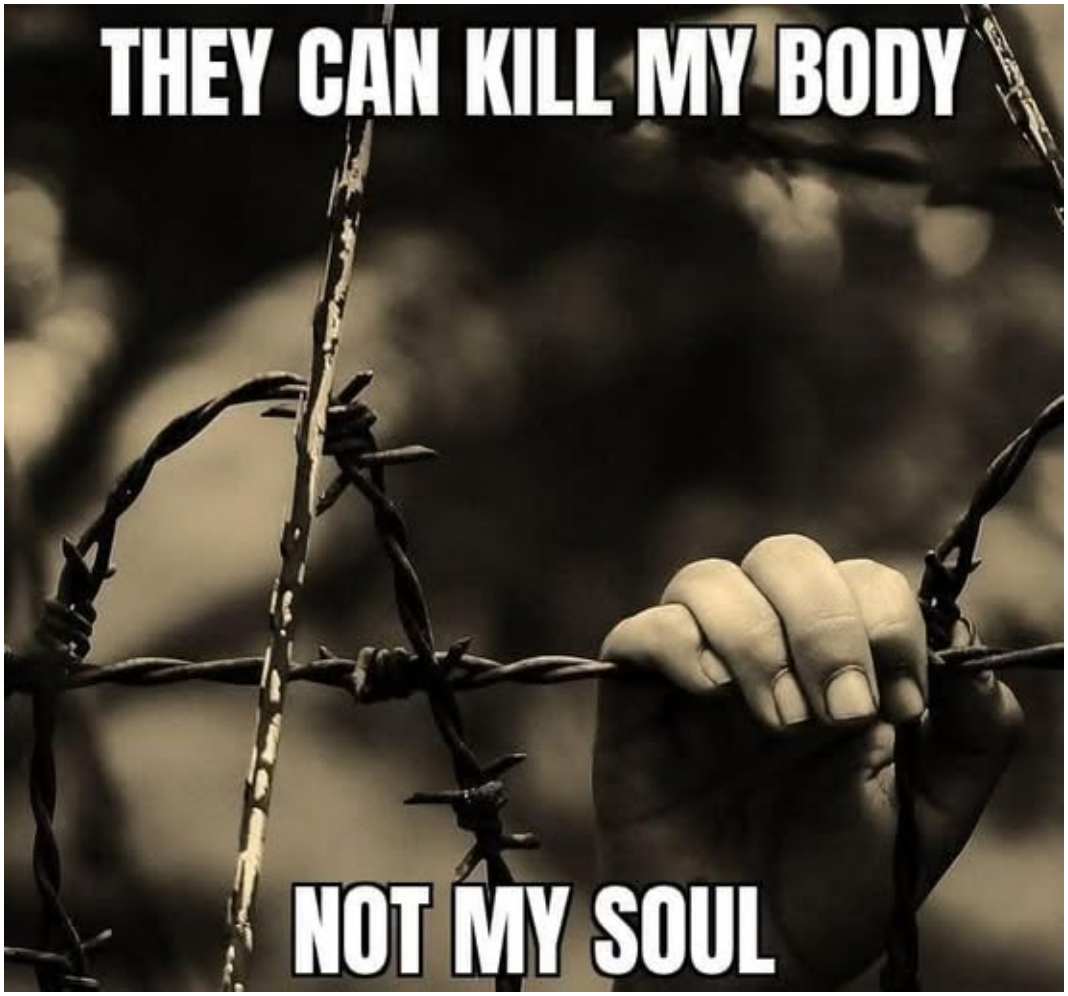
They FALSELY advertise that they’ll give you 7 FREE days of trying their learning software, BUT ONLY if you surrender your credit card information to them. They are LIARS at Simply Piano. Those 7 days are NOT free, because they require YOU to give them your credit card number and necessary information to charge you at the end of 7 days, unless you search through their obscure submenus in your frustration to try to find a way to cancel your subscription.

They deliberately make it difficult to cancel your subscription, hoping that you will throw your hands in the air and keep their software for $19.99 per month. That is why they demand your credit card number in the first place, to suck you in and take advantage of your frail human nature. They fully know that if they can lure you into surrendering your credit card information, they’ll have you in a vulnerable position. People are far more likely to continue with Simply Piano, if they already have your credit card, then if they don’t. They are liars and deceivers, shady and unethical. I will NEVER sign up for anything that FALSELY advertises to be FREE, but they demand that I surrender my credit card information to them. I resent being played!



The Holy Bible teaches in Revelation 20:6 that the saints will help reign with Christ during the 1,000 year Millennium. If the Lord puts me in charge of anything, I have many plans. I will outlaw all legal fine print! It will be illegal to advertise anything in vivid colors, pleasurable music and exciting fanfare, but then cut your throat with tiny fine print so small that you need a magnifying glass to read and a lawyer to understand. No way, those crooked days will forever be gone!

I will also make it illegal for anyone to call anything "free" of a "gift" if you are required to do anything, even lift a finger to get it. I will ban lying. I have seen injustices again and again in the wicked corporate world. Countless times I have companies defraud, hurt and destroy people’s lives for over 10 years, bilking BILLIONS out of their victims; and then when they’re finally taken to court over a decade later, the court fines the company a mere three hundred million dollars in damages (pennies on the dollar when compared to the billions they made ruining people’s lives). If the Lord gives me the authority, I won’t ever allow a shady corporation to hurt people for years, while lawsuits are tied up in court by greedy lawyers, crooked judges and an incompetent legal system that is anything but just, honest or fair. Justice will be swift and the punishment will meet the crime!

There is little true justice in this evil world. We’ve all seen that there are people who are above the law (e.g., the Bush family, the Clinton family, 9/11, OKC Bombing, HSBC banking scandal, et cetera). There are literally billions of injustices. I can personally list several hundred That I’ve seen in my lifetime. I don’t have a living soul, but I hate the sin. I hate liars! Many people will lie, cheat, connive and steal to get your money.

Proverbs 19:22, “The desire of a man is his kindness: and a poor man is better than a liar.

5.12.14 You'll Never Get Justice In This Evil World (2024-12-22 15:17)

Hebrews 4:9-16, " There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God. For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his. Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief. For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any twoedged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do. Seeing then that we have a great high priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession. For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need."

I learned something a very long time ago about studying the Bible, that forever changed my life. Most heresies are caused by sincere unlearned or shady dishonest people who lift a particular text out of context, to create a new pretext. That is, they wrest the Bible to teach a lie. [1]2nd Peter 3:15-17. As a general rule dear friend, always read the Scripture verses before and after a particular passage, to make sure that you rightly divide the Word of Truth. Also, get into the habit of connecting Bible chapters, pretending like there are no chapter divisions. This will wonderfully enrich your Bible study.

The main verse I chose for this blog is Hebrews 4:13, " Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do." One day in the afterlife, we all shall stand before God almighty to be judged according to our works. This is true of the unsaved (Revelation 20:12), and of the saved as well (2nd Corinthians 5:10). The only difference is that the former will be judged as eternally damned Christ-rejecters, but the latter will be judged as redeemed sinners who trust in Jesus; but the Bible says we will all be judged according to our works. This has nothing to do with salvation. For the unbeliever, their works will determine their degree of punishment in the Lake of Fire; for the believer, our works will determine our degree of rewards we receive.

I had never noticed it before, but the pronoun "his" in Hebrews 4:13 refers to Jesus, "THE WORD OF GOD," in verse 12, Hebrews 4:12-13, " For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any twoedged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do." Jesus, who is God almighty, sees everything! One day every believer will have to stand before Jesus to be judged at the Judgment Seat of Christ (2nd Corinthians 5:10-11). Unbelievers will be judged by God the Father at The Great White Throne of Judgment (Revelation 20:11-15).

I have been hurt, cheated, defrauded and betrayed by people throughout my life. One man named John Coop Sr. in Indiana stole $2,800 from me on a pedal steel guitar I paid him to rebuild. He kept my guitar and the money that I paid him to rebuild it. There was nothing I could legally do. I could have sued him in small claims court, but I would have been responsible to pay all court costs, regardless if the man ever paid a penny if there was a judgment again him. Since he was an elderly man collecting social security, I knew that I would never see one penny of the money. He is a dirty thief! That man died of cancer a couple years later and is in God's hands now for judgment.

Another man named James Moorehead in Oklahoma stole $600 from me, that I paid him to manufacture some pedal steel guitar parts for my Sho-Bud Pro-II, but he kept my money and never sent me the parts. He is a dirty thief. He also died a few years after, now in God's hands for judgment. Another man, a crooked pastor in Chicago, cheated me out of $10,000. He is a dirty thief, a liar and a wicked person, whom I have placed into God's hands for judgment.

Some thieves stole my car in Chicago in 2004. Police found it two weeks later smashed into a telephone pole in an alley. The car was totaled, because the thieves drove it at high speed into the alley pole, doing major damage to the front of the car. It was beyond repair and I cried when I saw my car in the city pound. A lot of living went on in that car. Those rotten thieves will answer to God for shedidng innocent blood, since I worked hard to pay for that car. I gave many hours of my life to labor for that vehicle, which they stole from me, depriving me of my labors, which is equivalent to shedding innocent blood.

I could go on and on. I have been falsely accused, had my keys stolen at work, had my work unforms stolen (which I had to pay for). Dirty thieves stole my new propane tank, stole my inspired King James Bible from my car, stole my two radios from my car and the cables, stole the solar lights I put down on my front lawn, stole my Amazon delivered package from my front porch, et cetera.

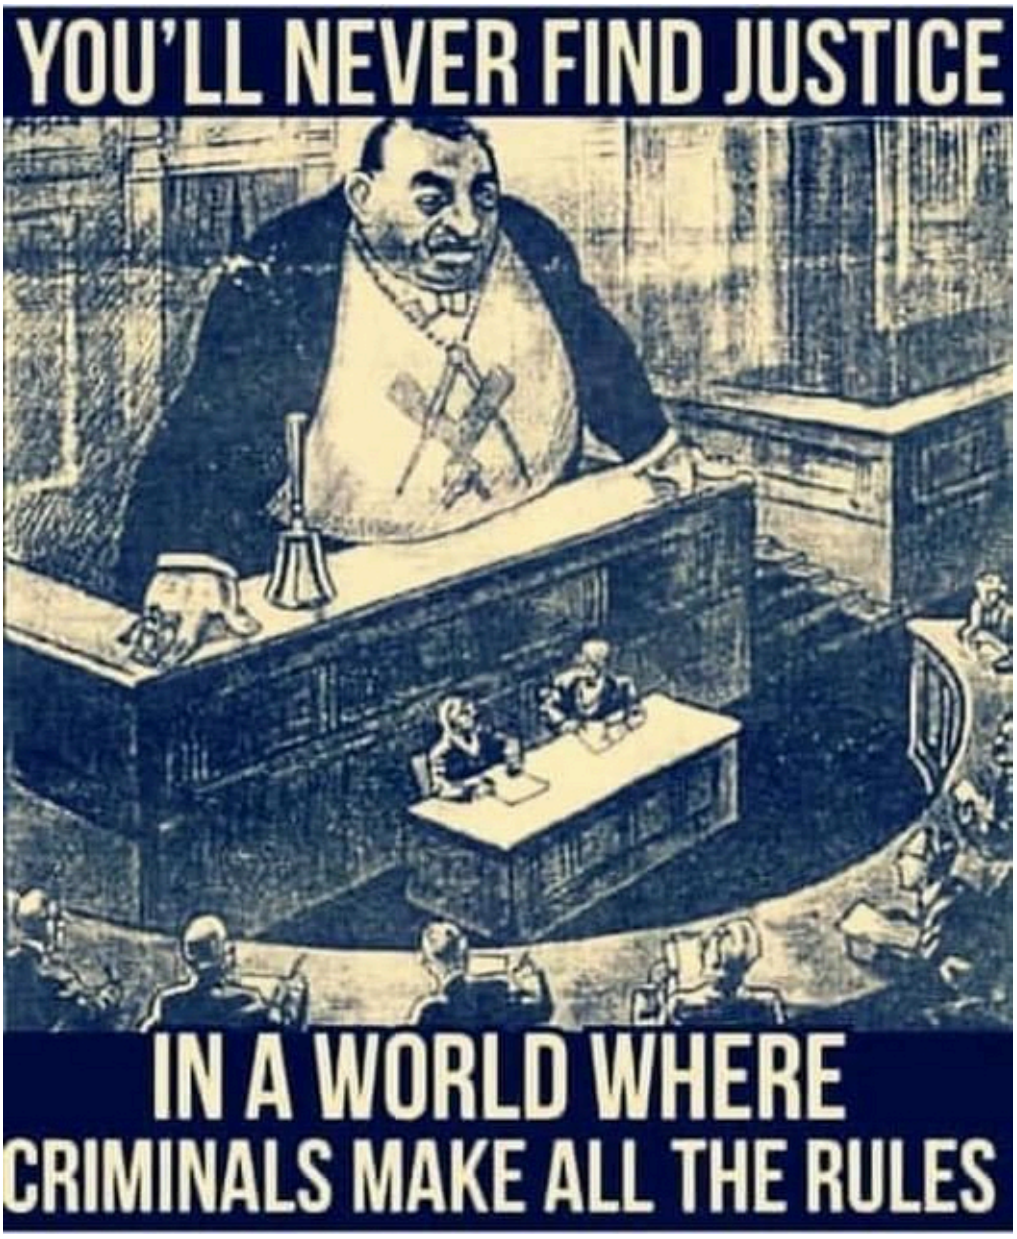
I had a drunk driver (an illegal immigrant many years ago) slam into my car twice and the police wouldn't do anything about it. I told them the truth that I saw that drunk slam into several parked cars along his drunken rampage, but neither the Chicago or Cicero police would do anything. What lazy bums! They should all be fired! State Farm insurance only paid me $400 for over $3,000 in damages to my car, saying that this was the Bluebook value of my 1973 Buick Oldsmobile car, and if I wanted more money then I should have bought collector's car insurance instead. My nice red car didn't have a dent on it when I insured it, until that piece of drunken human trash slammed his car into mine and ruined it! State Farm are dirty thieves!!! I HATE INSURANCE COMPANIES!!!

I refuse to buy insurance on anything that I don't legally have to, because they are all shady CROOKS!!! Trust me when I say that 99 % of all insurance policies are scams intended to screw you, the consumer! READ THAT FINE PRINT!!!

By the way, that is one thing that I absolutely love about God's Holy Bible, there is no fine print. No parts of the inspired Holy Bible are any less or more important than the rest. Every jot and tittle, from the first word in Genesis to the last word in Revelation, is inspired by God.

I have never received JUSTICE in this world. The thives who stole my car were never caught. I never did get back the $2,800 that John Coop Sr. stole from me, nor did I get back the $600 that James Moorhead stole from me. I never did get back the $10,000 that the Baptist pastor defrauded me out of in Chicago. I was taken advantage of by three lawfirms in my lifetime, bilked for $77,000 for ridiculously little actual work done. Lawyers are shady crooks, sharks on land!!! These wicked thieves are in God's hands for judgment. I do not hate them, but I certainly want justice. Thankfully, our text passage from Hebrews 4:13 says that the Lord sees everything, and God will judge all men (cf. Ecclesiastes 12:14).

I recently filed a complaint with the Better Business Bureau (BBB) against Amazon.com for falsely accusing me of "hate speech." I had mentioned 'The Little Rascals' (a 1970's popular children's Tv show) in a product review, for which Amazon's ignorant employees wrongly accused me of using hate speech. They thought I was calling children "rascals." What idiocy! The problem is that the Amazon corporation (located in Seattle, Washington) outsource all of their customer operations to foreign countires, who don't understand American culture. I was stunned that Amazon was actually falsely accusing me of hate speech. What they did is evil.



So, I reasonably told them off! I later apologized multiple times for my harsh words, after they took away my priviledges to write any more product reviews. I even mailed an apology letter to Seatlle, to their headquarters, but they just forwarded the letter to a foreign country. They still refuse to allow me to write any more reviews. So, I abandoned that account, after being a loyal customer for 20 years!!! I HATE AMAZON.COM! I love their business model and ordering stuff from them, but I hate the company itself for the way they abuse their customers. Jeff Bezos is NOT a good man! His net worth is a sickening $211,000,000,000. I found out that there are over 50,000 complaints filed with the BBB against Amazon, 60 % of which are unresolved.

Did you know that Amazon has 1,500,000 employees? Did you know that Amazon made over $600,000,000,000 last year? That's $50,000,000,000 a month. That's $1,800,000,000 per day! That's about $70,000,000 per hour! That's about $1,200,000 per minute. That's $20,000 per second!!! Amazon makes in 2 or 3 seconds what the average American earns in a whole year!!! Now you know why being a loyal customer for 20 years, and spending $100,000 during that time for products, means ZERO to Amazon. The company makes $100,000 in just 5 seconds!!! So, they couldn't care less about you as a faithul top-spending customer. You'll never get justice filing a complaint against a Goliath company like Amazon, not without God. Thankfully, we read in Isaiah 13:11, "And I will punish the world for their evil, and the wicked for their iniquity; and I will cause the arrogancy of the proud to cease, and will lay low the haughtiness of the terrible."

You will rarely, if ever, get any justice in this evil world, but God PROMISES that you will get justice in eternity (Romans 14:10-12; 1st Thessalonians 4:6; Matthew 7:1-5; Galatians 6:7; Romans 12:19-21). God is omniscient, that is, He knows all. God is omnipotent, that is, He is all powerful. God is omnipresent, that is, His Spirit is everywhere. God is omnisapient, that is, He is all wise. God is omnibenevolent, that is, He is all loving. And God is immutable, that is, He cannot change. We have a wonderful Creator!!!

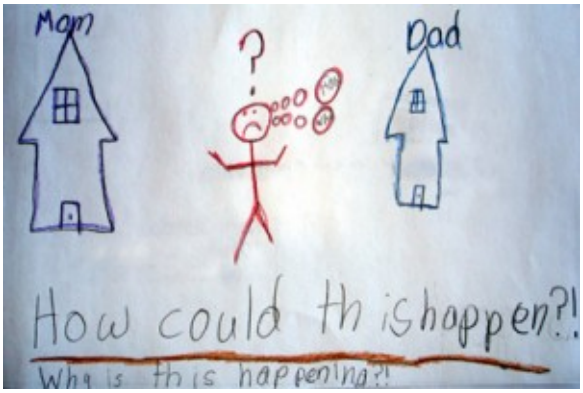
5.12.15 We All Either Place God On Trial, Or We Blindly Trust Him (2024-12-23 16:48)

□□□ □□:□□, "□□□□□□ □□ □□□□ □□, □□□ □□□□ □ □□□□□ □□ □□□: □□□ □ □□□□ □□□□□□□□ □□□□ □□□ □□□□ □□□□□□ □□□."



Every human being comes to the place in life, where we have to decide whether we are going to place God on trial for judgment; or else we are just going to blindly trust God, without being able to see our own hand in front of our face. I chosen the latter, as Job did in □□□ □□:□□,

“□□□□□□ □□ □□□□ □□, □□□ □□□□ □ □□□□□ □□ □□□: □□□ □ □□□□ □□□□□□□□ □□□□ □□□ □□□□ □□□□□□ □□□.”

I am in the same frustrating boat with literally millions of other frustrated single men, desiring a wife but there is no one in sight. Men are afraid to get married these days because of feminism and the unfair American court system. Getting a divorce in America is an easy as changing your underwear. If divorce were permanently made illegal and banned in the United States, the MGTOW movement would disappear overnight. Men would no longer fear marriage and the devastating consequences that often follow when a tired wife files for divorce. Then a God damned greedy lawyer destroys that poor husband’s life. I am a victim of the ungodly American divorce court system.

My own biological son is 35 years old and cannot find a wife. He was sitting next to me when the demonic greedy lawyer demanded $50,000 from me when my wife divorced me. It ended up costing me $64,000 in legal fees. I hate lawyers! My son had to pack up all of my possessions, because the judge refused to allow me to go back into my own home. The house was sold and I never saw my home again. I never saw my pets again, they were just given away to strangers. In my new rental apartment, I was turning over food in my frying pan with needle-nose pliers, because all my kitchen stuff was given away to strangers. I got screwed over big time, all because my incompetent rebellious wife wanted a divorce. God knows that I do not hate her or anybody else, but my x-wife should burn in Hell someday for the evils she has done. American woman stay away from me!!!

I wept profusely for days, having lost everything. I almost commit suicide. I bought two barbeques and charcoal, and was going to asphyxiate myself with carbon monoxide in the bathroom. Only by God’s merciful grace, I didn’t do it. I wanted to die. I used my prescription drugs to sleep 15 hours a day. I was holed up in my rental house for months at a time, only leaving to buy food and survive. I hated life. Meanwhile, my piece of trash x-wife was going to fiestas and having a good day, bragging that two men were interested in dating her. What a spoiled little brat! The divorce didn’t cost her a single penny, but I lost everything. I did as Jesus commanded in □□□□ □□:□□, “□□□□ □□□□□ □□ □□□.”

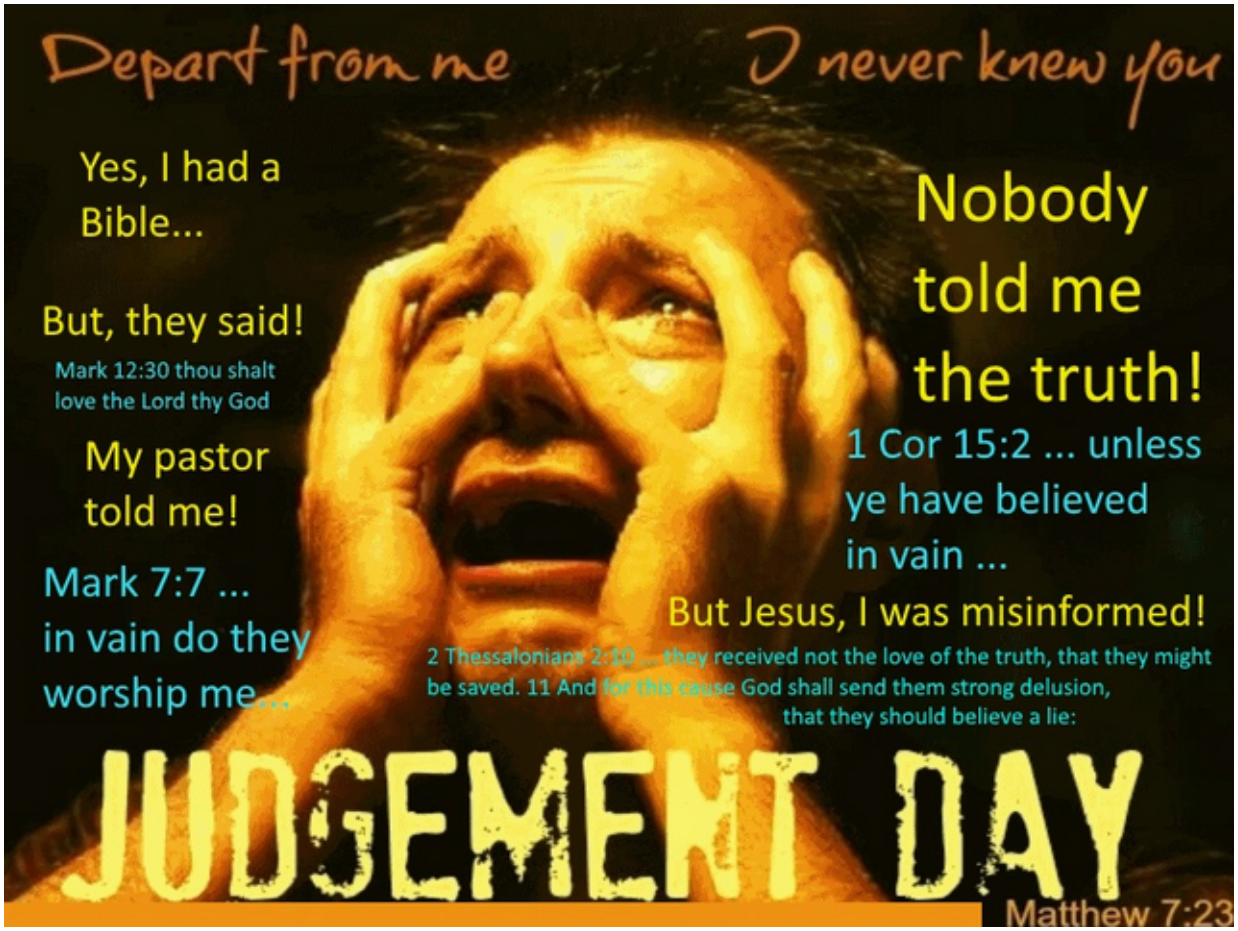
5.12.16 The Most Evil People In The World Are False Prophets (2024-12-24 09:13)

Matthew 23:15, "Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte, and when he is made, ye make him twofold more the child of hell than yourselves."

If I were to ask you dear friend to tell me who is the most evil person in history, I'm confident that many of you would mention such despicable names as: Jeffrey Dahmer (mass-murderer), John Wayne Gacy (mass-murderer), Ted Kaczynski (aka, The Unabomber), Adolf Hitler (mass-murderer) or Kim Jong Un (North Korean president). Dahmer murdered 17 people. Gacy murdered 33 at the time of his conviction, but more bodies have since been discovered, making the total now over 40. Kaczynski murdered 3 people and wounded 23. Hitler murdered millions. Kim Jong Un has murdered millions. I would add President George W. Bush to this list, who murdered 1,455,590 Iraqis in an illegal war that he started based on fraud. We could also add the names of everyone involved in the ongoing fraudulent Federal Reserve Act, which has been ripping off hard working Americans since 1913. They are murderers!



Yes, dear reader, the evil deeds of these evil characters were beyond imagination, and I could literally mention thousands more names of evildoers throughout human civilization. However, these evildoers merely killed the human body and defrauded the innocent, but a false prophet causes people to go to burn in Hell forever and ever without mercy, rest or hope.

Revelation 14:11, " And the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name." This will be the eternal fate of all Christ-rejecters (Revelation 20:15).

I therefore contend, based upon solid biblical evidence, that those evil men (and women) who preach a counterfeit plan of salvation, will rue the day they were born when they appear before God in judgment someday (Galatians 6:7). I'm talking about false prophets like the Roman Catholic Pope, and hundreds of thousands of Catholic priests. I'm talking about ungodly false prophets like, namely: Marty Herron, Steve Pettit, John MacArthur, Sam Adams, Jon Piper, [1]Ray Comfort, Paul Washer, Gary Walton, Unshackled radio, Billy Graham, Franklin Graham, Dave Snyder, Joel Osteen, Rick Warren, [2]Charles Lawson, John Calvin, Martin Luther, R.C. Sproul, Adrian Rodgers, Charles Stanley, John Hagee, Beth Moore, [3]Joyce Meyer, Ellen G. White, Joseph Smith, Charles Taze Russell, Jeff Redlin, Timothy Zacharias, Jack Chick, Sam Gipp, [4]William P. Grady, [5]Peter S. Ruckman, Dan Corner, Bryan Denlinger, Todd Friel and countless more evil teachers who all pervert the Gospel of free grace.

Every one of the shameful names I just mentioned, in one way or another corrupt God's simple plan of salvation. If you want additional information, please email me and I'll be glad to send you why these men are evil false prophets. There is no one as evil as the lying pastor who gives you a counterfeit plan of salvation, because they will send you to the Lake of Fire forever. The [6]way of salvation is super simple.

5.12.17 A Christmas Visit To The First Baptist Church Of Pensacola (2024-12-24 22:16)

2nd Corinthians 2:17, "For we are not as many, which corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ."

I live alone, so I get lonely. I am on the mailing list for the First Baptist Church of Pensacola (FBCP). I admire and like their senior pastor, Dave Snyder, who is originally from St. Louis, Missouri. He became the pastor of FBCP in 2018. I am originally from Chicago, so we're both Midwest boys. Anyway, I received an invitation to attend their Christmas Eve service and I gladly went, just to get out of the house on Christmas Eve. Being alone is no fun.

I had a good time and enjoyed singing Christmas carols. There must have been 1,000 people in attendance. The church was packed, except for some empty extra charis set out in the aisles, one of which I was sitting in. I took several photos below, so you can see what I saw. But first I want to say a word of disappointment. The FBCP used to use the New International Version (NIV), but when Pastor Snyder came in 2018 he changed it to the English Standard Version (ESV). I hate both the NIV and the ESV because they are horribly corrupted.

During tonight's Christmas Eve service, as the Scripture was read, I immediately knew that something was very wrong when I heard what the pastor read from the ESV. This first passage almost made me fall off my chair, which was read from Luke 2:14. ...

> ENGLISH STANDARD VERSION (ESV) - Luke 2:14, "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace among those with whom he is pleased!"

I knew that was way wrong. Here is what the inspired King James Bible reads...

> KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) - Luke 2:14, "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men."

The Greek word for "

good will

is eudokia and means

kindness, delight, satisfaction

" toward mankind, unconditionally, regarding the birth of the Savior. This verse DOES NOT mean what the ESV says, that God's good will is conditional upon men pleasing God. Where in the world did the ESV translators get this erroneous idea from? They have completely altered and corrupted the meaning of this verse. The angel announced peace and good will toward man because the Savior was about to be born in a manger. Jesus was God the Father's gift to the world! The ESV is corrupt!

As the service at FBCP continued, I heard the pastor read the following Scripture passage from the ESV, and again I cringed as I heard him read it...

> ENGLISH STANDARD VERSION (ESV) - "The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it."

> KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) - John 1:5, "And the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not."

The Greek word for

comprehended

is katalambano, which means “ to take eagerly,

that is, to seize, possess.” The 54 King James Bible translators wisely understood this to mean that the unsaved man cannot understand the things of God, because they are spiritually discerned (1st Corinthians 2:14-16). For the lost sinner who is destined to perish in the Lake of Fire for eternity, the preaching of the Gospel that can save them is FOOLISHNESS (1st Corinthians 1:18). That is what John 1:5 means when it says that the darkness could not comprehend the light. The whole concept of being

makes no sense to the unsaved man, as evidenced by Jesus’ interaction with Nicodemus in John 3:1-7. Nicodemus had a hard time grasping what Jesus was trying to teach him about the necessity of the new birth.

Here again is what the ESV errantly reads...

> ENGLISH STANDARD VERSION (ESV) - “The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.”

There is a 180° difference between not being able to comprehend the light of the truth of the Gospel, as versus the darkness not being able to overcome the light. The ESV doesn’t even make any sense! Verse 6 tells us that God sent John the Baptist to bear witness to the light, to lead lost sinners to Jesus Christ to be saved. The purpose of John’s entire ministry was to prepare the way for the coming of the Messiah, who would bring men true eternal salvation.

I had a bitter/sweet time tonight at the First Baptist Church of Pensacola. I sure wish that they would burn those damnable ESV perversions of God’s Word, and go back to using only the King James Bible that the church used 100 years ago. By the way the FBCP was founded in 1848, before the Civil War. The church has a rich heritage to be proud of, but sadly are dishonoring God by using, selling and promoting Satan’s corruptible seed. The only inspired Words of God today are in the King James Bible.

Here are several photos that I took tonight during the Christmas Eve service...

We were all given personal candles, and then lit each other’s candles

I was holding a candle in my left hand, taking photos in the right...lol

The church’s main sanctuary is humongous!

A close-up zoom from the back where I was sitting Pastor Dave Snyder is a good man, but messed up doctrinally as a pastor.

Christmas Eve Service 2024

Unfortunately, they preach the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation at FBCP. Sadly, the Gospel was not preached tonight. The service was open to the public. What a missed opportunity to share the Gospel with a thousand people! Pastor Snyder merely said that we must turn from the darkness to the light by trusting in Jesus. That's all he said! Any hellbound Roman Catholic, Mormon, Jehovah's Witness, Church of Christ, Lutheran or United Methodist infidel wouldn't have had any qualms with Pastor Snyder's weak, watered-down and vague salvation message.

Pastor Snyder never mentioned Jesus' death on the cross for our sins, nor Christ's burial, nor His physical resurrection from the dead three days later. Those three things comprise THE GOSPEL according to 1st Corinthians 15:1-4. And no Gospel presentation would be complete without warning people that we must NOT add any self-righteous works; such as, turning from our sinful behavior, following Christ as the "Lord" of our life, getting water baptized, keeping the Sabbath, keeping sacraments, church membership, or anything else. Sadly, I sincerely doubt if even 5 % of the 1,000 people present tonight were born-again believers.

Jesus plainly warned in John 3:3b that "Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God." The new birth is not optional. I don't care if you have been a faithful member of a Baptist church for 50 years, that won't get you to Heaven. I was so disappointed with Pastor Snyder this evening. No doubt there were many unsaved people present tonight who will never come back. Some will die of old age or disease. Others will move away. Some just won't come back. To tell someone vaguely to "trust Jesus" says so little. The Apostle Paul's defines the Gospel in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4...

> 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, “Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:”

Telling a bunch of lost sinners to “ trust Jesus

is not enough to get them saved. They must first forsake their trust in religion, They must forsake their trust in the Seven Sacraments of the Catholic cult. They must repent (change their mind) to stop trusting in their own human effort to reform, clean up their life of sin and live a holy life to get to Heaven, et cetera. Getting saved requires ceasing from all else and resting only in Christ (Hebrews 4:10-11).

A preacher’s goal should never be not to offend the audience; but rather, to warn them about the coming judgment of God in the fires of Hell for unrepentant sinners, and the free gift of God which is available through faith in Jesus Christ our Lord. Some people may accuse me of splitting hairs and being picky, but I humbly think not. I just believe that in any public service, a clear Gospel presentation should always be given to the audience. To merely tell an audience to leave the darkness and trust in the light of Jesus is lame at best.

Let’s face it, people are confused nowadays about the Bible, salvation and God. They have been taught all kinds of lies by religious false prophets, greedy television evangelists, who are all dangerous wolves in sheep’s clothing. I find that most pastors today are afraid of offending anyone, so they intentionally speak with vague words to coddle the crowd. We need old fashioned preachers once again, like Billy Sunday, who spoke the truth without apology.

If I had the opportunity and privilege to speak to 1,000 people (and I do by God’s grace through my blogs), I would tell them that adding anything to faith alone in Jesus negates faith. Partial faith in Christ plus something more cannot produce the necessary new birth. Trusting in Christ plus water baptism is mere dead religion, and cannot produce the new birth. Faith in Christ plus being willing to turn away from your sinful bad habits, cannot produce the required birth. Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do!

The only reason that I am going to Heaven is because at the age of 13 I realized that I was a guilty sinner in God’s sight. I trusted in the name of Jesus as my personal Savior, believing that He died for my sins on the cross. He was buried. Then, three days later Jesus resurrected from the dead and went to Heaven. I am only trusting in Jesus because of what He did through Calvary’s cross to pay for my debt of sin, to get me to Heaven.

The life that I choose to live has absolutely NOTHING to do with God’s free gift of eternal life. If I chose tomorrow to go out and live like the Devil, it wouldn’t affect my salvation one iota. I might lose some rewards in Heaven, and lose God’s hand of blessing upon my life, but my gift of eternal life would not be in jeopardy. That is what the Bible means in Romans 6:1, “

What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound? ”

Pastor M.R. DeHaan (1891-1965) said it very well...

> "There is a vast difference between coming to Jesus for salvation and coming after Jesus for service. Coming to Christ makes one a believer, while coming after Christ > makes one a disciple. All believers are not disciples. To become a believer one accepts the invitation of the Gospel, to be a disciple one obeys the challenge to a life of dedicated service and separation. Salvation comes through the sacrifice of Christ; discipleship comes only by sacrifice of self and surrender to His call for devoted service. Salvation is free, but discipleship involves paying the price of a separated walk. Salvation can't be lost because it depends upon God's faithfulness, but discipleship can be lost because it depends upon our faithfulness." —Pastor M.R. DeHaan, "Hebrews"; Zondervan Publishing House; 1959 (p. 117)

I love this quote from my ministry friend, Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold...

> "There is power in this [8]Gospel message. Most people just don't know how to present it... The clarity of the Gospel is what makes it easy for them to believe."—Pastor Yankee Arnold, "[9]WHY GRACE CAN SAVE THE WORST MAN!"

Pastors are guilty of not making God's simple plan of salvation crystal clear to lost sinners. To merely tell someone to "trust Jesus" leaves them in the dark. They also need to acknowledge that they are a guilty sinner (Romans 3:19-20; 1st John 1:8-10). They also need to acknowledge that Jesus is the Christ, the only begotten Son of God (John 20:31). They also need to acknowledge that Jesus died on a cross for their sins, was buried and resurrected three days later (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). They need to cease from all works (Hebrews 6:1).

I guarantee you that if you ask any hellbound Roman Catholic if they are trusting Jesus, they will immediately say, "Yes." So will any hellbound Mormon. You get the picture. The hardest part about getting people saved is first getting them lost. Most religious people mistakenly think they are going to Heaven (as evidenced by Luke 13:23-24 and Matthew 7:21-23). Jesus said in Luke 13:24, "Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able." From listening to the shallow, lame, empty and devoid salvation invitations given by today's compromised pastors, I can see why Jesus said that.

I have been to other services at the FBCP, but I rarely go because of their position on Lordship Salvation. I attended their 10:45 am Traditional Service one Sunday (they also have a Contemporary Service at 8:15 am). I cringed when I heard Pastor Snyder preach the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation. He foolishly taught that to get to Heaven, you must follow Jesus as your "Lord," and turn away from your sinful ways. This is NOT the Gospel found in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4. He didn't preach Lordship Salvation tonight, but he didn't preach the Gospel either. It was so vague tonight that no one could have been converted from darkness to light by the lame message he gave. I guarantee you that many of the people who attended the church this evening, wrongly have been taught elsewhere that works are required to be saved. I felt like crying as I listened to his wishy-washy words.

The FBCP Is An Ecumenical Disgrace

I went tonight because they announced that we would all be singing Christmas carols. Sadly, they had a guy on stage playing a guitar with a woman next to him, singing Contemporary Christian Music (CCM) that annoyed me. The old-time religion is dead folks! The FBCP is a member of the Southern Baptist Convention (SBC). They pay an annual membership fee of $50,000. That money sure could feed a lot of local homeless people on the street at Christmas. Did you know that the average salary paid to SBC employees is $38 an hour. That is sickening when the average American is fortunate if they earn $19 an hour (half). I detest the ungodly Southern Baptist Convention with their ecumenism, misunderstood repentance (aka, 'turn from your sins' to be saved garbage), Lordship Salvation, CCM, Satanic perverted Bible revisions and worldliness. It's a crying shame how pathetic churches have become.

Only two of the Christmas hymns that we sang tonight were sang as written from the hymnal, the others were modified to include CCM, which ruined the evening in my humble opinion. The younger fella with the guitar and the woman singing along with him, kept going off on a tangent singing something contemporary. Each time they did that, I heard the people around me stop singing, and no one new the melodies to follow along with. It was terrible! I hate CCM. I love the old hymns as written. I dread today's 7/11 music (i.e., 7 words repeated 11 times).

It breaks my heart to see the old big church in downtown Pensacola so ecumenical—full of dead CCM, wrong on repentance, preaching another gospel of Lordship Salvation, hobnobbing with [10]apostates like SBC president J.D. Greear, going through the motions of playing church—worse than the lukewarm church of Laodicea. Did you know that [11]J.D. Greear advocates for homosexual rights? The FBCP shamefully supports this by being a member of the SBC! The FBCP took in $4,900,000 of donations in 2023. Wow!

I thank God that I was saved in an Independent Fundamental Baptist Church—where only the King James Bible was used, and only a free grace Gospel was preached (or I wouldn't have been born age at age 13), and we only sang the old timeless hymns of the faith (none of this modern contemporary crap), and a public invitation was given to receive Christ at the end of the service. Every time I visit the FBCH, I feel so sorry for all those misguided people. They are being led by an ecumenical fool for a pastor, who doesn't know what he is doing.

To make matters worse, they must have had some serious trouble in the past at FBCP, because they always have a strong police presence. They had an armed cop at the entrance door, scrutinizing everyone who entered the church, with two squad cars outside the church. That is creepy if you ask me. This is a typical occurrence every Sunday at their church. It is a crying shame that you have to have multiple police officers with guns standing watch at church services these days. Truly, apostasy has set in like rigor mortis across the United States of America. For all the aforementioned reasons, I only attended the FBCP about once or twice a year, just to visit and say hello to a few casual friends I have made over there.

They're not bad people at the FBCP, but their pastors have been deceived by the Devil. Lordship Salvation is a perversion of God's grace; it is not the Gospel. Repentance simply means a change of mind; it doesn't mandate a change of behavior to get to Heaven. Dear friend, you must be absolutely as righteous as Jesus Christ Himself to enter into Heaven. Obviously that is impossible for anyone. That is why Jesus took your place when He died on the cross. Jesus paid your debt of sin (and mine) with His precious blood.

All God requires for you to be saved is that you come as a needy sinner by faith (taking God at His written Word). Simply receive Christ's sacrifice on the cross as full payment for your sins, believing that died, was buried and physically resurrected from the dead these days later. You get saved by simply believing that Jesus did it all for you. When you believe these truths, God who can read your mind, saves you instantly, irrevocably and eternally.

At the moment of faith, God transfers all your sins to Jesus, and transfers all of His righteousness to you, so that forevermore your POSITION in Christ is settled. You now appear in the sight of God the Father as righteous as His only begotten Son. This is God's imputed righteousness (Romans 4:5-7, 10:3-4; Philippians 3:9). No one can go to Heaven without God's imputed righteousness. By the way, don't bother looking for the word "impute" in the English Standard Version (ESV), because you won't find it. This is just another reason why you should only use the inspired King James Bible. You will find the word “impute” mentioned 8 times in the New Testament of a King James Bible, but not once in an ESV New Testament.

Thank you for reading my blog dear friend and God bless.

5.12.18 Baptists Are Some Of The Most Offended People Today (2024-12-26 03:15)

2nd Timothy 3:12-13, “

Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution. But evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived.”

When most Christians read this passage of Scripture, they think of persecution from the heathen world, and you will be rejected and persecuted by the lost world if you live godly in Christ Jesus. But dear reader, you will also be rejected and persecuted by professed Christians in the churches, especially among Baptists. That is so sad and strange. The Apostle Paul encountered this same evil. Galatians 4:16, “Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?”

Things haven’t changed in 2,000 years. Even still today in 2024, you will be kicked out of a church faster than you realized what happened and then forbidden to return, if you dare to tell a pastor that he is wrong to preach misunderstood repentance (aka, “be willing to turn from your sinful ways” to get to Heaven)

, wrong to teach the fallacy of Lordship Salvation, or wrong to use the Devil’s false Bible revisions. These three evils have infected most Baptist churches today. Tragically, nearly every Baptist wickedly tolerates these corrupt Bible colleges and churches today, which is apostasy. I refuse to go along to get along!

Shame on each pastor who wickedly bids Godspeed to [1]Billy Graham (1918-2018) and [2]Franklin Graham, who are infidels of the faith, preaching another gospel of partial faith in Christ plus works.

I have made many enemies over the years, particularly among Baptists, because I told the truth and refused to back down. I have been forced out of church and then banned from returning, just for telling the truth. Tragically, most Baptist churches today preach the Satanic falsehood of Lordship Salvation. If you think the Lordship Salvation crowd are still saved, but just confused, then you are woefully mistaken dear reader.

If you think that those in the [3]Pensacola Christian College (PCC) camp are saved, who insist that you must first be willing to forsake your sinful bad habits to be born again, then you are going against the plainest and simplest teaching of the inspired Scriptures. I have church members and pastors who are angry at me, just because I criticize PCC. They view me as a troublemaker who goes around looking for weakness in preachers. Nothing could be further from the truth. I don't look for weakness, I refute wickedness as the Bible commands me to do in Titus 1:13-14, "This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith; Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men, that turn from the truth."

One wicked pastor, Sean Quinlan at the Lighthouse Baptist Church on Guam, horrible accused me in 2018 of not being an apostle. He said that because in his mind only an apostle has the right to rebuke a church that is teaching damnable heresy. He knew that I had been rebuking the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, a cesspool of Bob Jones graduates and Calvinism.

First, I never said that I am an apostle. Titus wasn't an apostle either, yet the apostle Paul exhorted him to **"

rebuke them sharply

" who preach another gospel, subverting whole families with a counterfeit plan of salvation. PCC is subverting whole families [4]with their counterfeit plan of salvation, requiring people to be willing to forsake their sinful bad habits to be saved. That is NOT what the Bible teaches in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4.

I have had countless angry people unfollow me on Facebook. Others have unfriended and even blocked me out completely, just because I am a truth-teller. You should see the hate mail that I have received over the years, a lot from professed Christians. If you love PCC and think they can do no wrong, you are a darn fool. If you think Bob Jones University (BJU) are doctrinally sound, you are woefully mistaken friend.[5] BJU is a Calvinist cesspool of iniquity today! BJU even invited and honored Calvinist Paul Washer as a guest speaker in December of 2022. SHAME on BJU!

I echo the same words as Esther in the Old Testament who bravely said: "If I perish, I perish!" In today's terminology she would have said: "

Damn the torpedoes!

" Esther was willing to die for her cause, and so am I. Let all the hordes of Hell attack me. The Bible says that our fight is against principalities and powers, not against flesh and blood. When I attend a church and some of the members hassle me over my ministry websites, criticizing and talking bad about me behind my back, and the pastor avoids and ostracizes me, they are serving the Devil.

God knows my heart, that my only goal since 2002 when I began my [6]Jesus-is-Savior.com website ministry has always been to honor and please God—by upholding the precious name of Jesus, preaching the Gospel, telling the truth, exposing false doctrines, and declaring the inspiration of the King James Bible. By God's grace I have done that. I have run the course faithfully. God knew that I would fail him in many ways, but [7]His amazing grace has carried me here. It pains my soul that I cannot even attend a local Baptist church, without my website and blog ministry preceding me, causing problems for me. People get angry when someone like me stands up and proclaims THE TRUTH. I expose Billy and Franklin Graham for the infidels that they are, and that makes some fools angry.

I expose Ray Comfort, John MacArthur and Paul Washer as unsaved infidels who preach another gospel. That makes a lot of people upset, and they mistreat me because of it. One of the assistant pastors at the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam had invited me after the Sunday evening service to eat dinner the next night, Monday, at his house with his wife and children. After he invited me, I kindly handed him the excellent book in defense of a free grace Gospel "[8]I NEVER KNEW YOU." The truthful book offended him so bad, bashing all of his ecumenical false prophet heroes, that I never heard from him again. Our dinner engagement was cancelled. I was blackballed and shunned for telling the truth. What a wicked pastor!!!

God knows that I have been abused, mistreated, shunned, ostracized and counted as an enemy by Baptist pastors and layman alike, because I TOLD THE TRUTH and they couldn't handle it. God will avenge my preaching! God will make everything right. I was mistreated at Campus Church, which is owned and run by Pensacola Christian College. They should be honest and change their name to Pensacola Religious College, because they're about as Christian as "

Christian Dior

" fashion company.

I was mistreated at the Smyrna Baptist Church in Pensacola, dissed by Pastor Bill Adams and his horrible mean stuck-up wife. Mr. Adams is a tough pastor with zero love or compassion for people. Sadly, I have found this to be the case in over 95 % of churches that I attend. Those places are cold, abrasive and unwelcoming toward newcomers. I shouldn't have to walk on thin ice when I attend a church, but because of my website ministry I am treated badly. The problem is that my website exposes 99 % of bad churches today. So they don't want me.

The church that I am attending now is in bed together with the cult at PCC. So that creates tension. But I am not for sale folks! I won't compromise, back down or let PCC off the hook for preaching another gospel of partial faith in Christ plus works. Somebody needs to care! I may eventually not have any churches left to attend, and they would be fine with that sadly, but no one can accuse me of not caring about the truth. 2nd Timothy 3:12-13, "

Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution. But evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived."

Today's average pastor is cocky, arrogant and stubborn. You cannot tell him anything that questions his teachings. Pastor Jack Hyles was so right, who said:

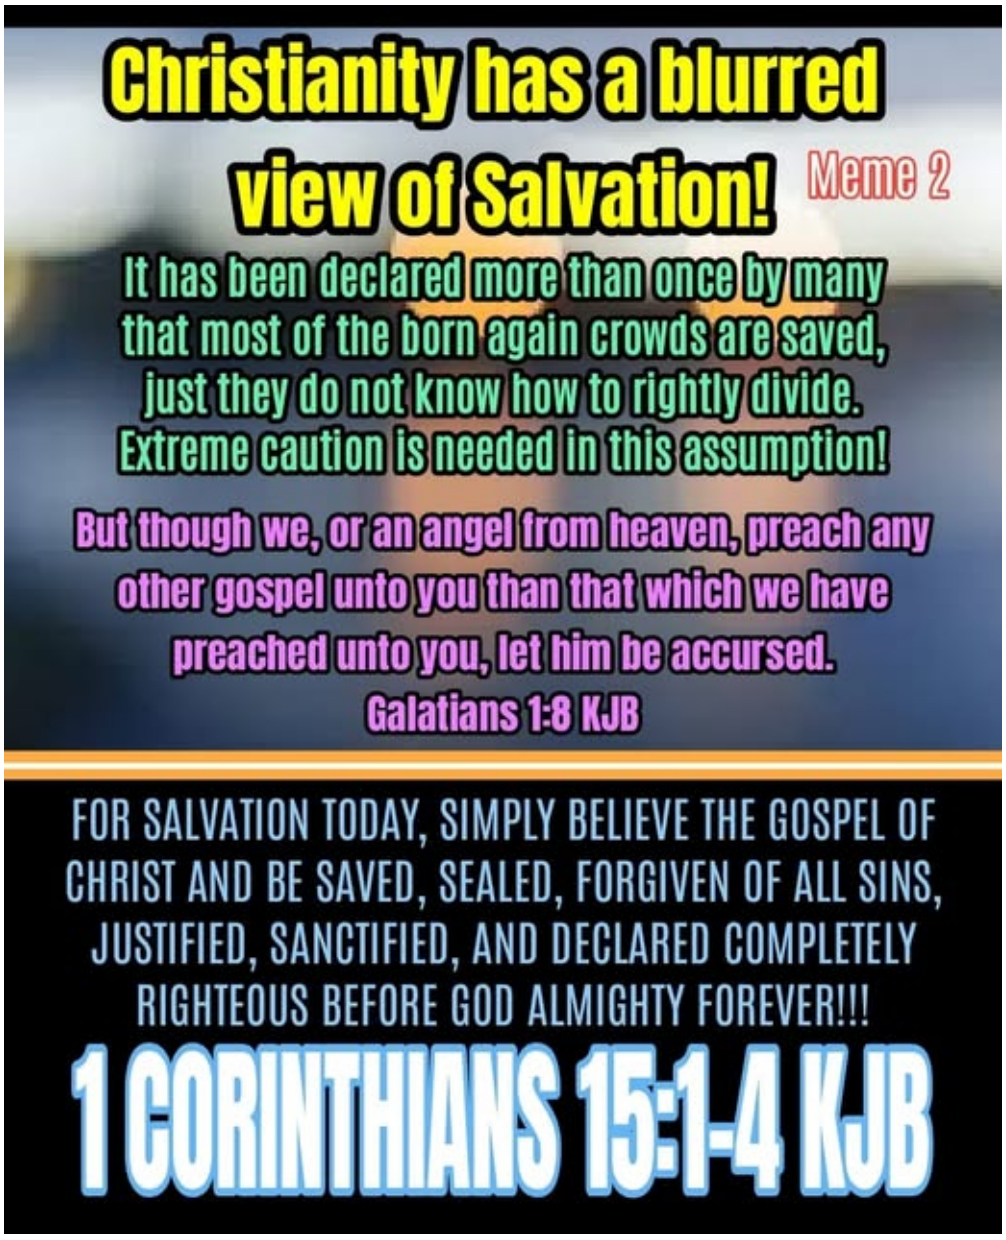
Unsought advice is seldom taken and usually resented.



" I am sick and tired of haughty pastors with an ego problem. The more that a church congregation rallies behind their pastor, the more arrogant and likely he will be to throw truth-tellers like me under the bus.

Since such haughty pastors know that 99 % of the church members will support them to the hills, no matter what, they have zero tolerance for anyone who dares to correct them. Those ungodly pastors will suffer the severest wrath and judgment of God in eternity, who preach wrong repentance, Lordship Salvation, and refuse to contend for the faith or warn people about corrupt

Bible versions. A pastor has a duty as a Watchman to warn God's flock. By the Lord's grace, I have done the work of an evangelist for the past 22 years online, afflicting the comforted with the truth. The truth can be dealt with, a lie cannot.

To God be the glory. Thank you for reading my blogs.

5.12.19 The Sin Of Being A One-Sided Christian (2024-12-28 13:28)

Hosea 7:1-8, "When I would have healed Israel, then the iniquity of Ephraim was discovered, and the wickedness of Samaria: for they commit falsehood; and the thief cometh in, and the troop of robbers spoileth without.

And they consider not in their hearts that I remember all their wickedness: now their own doings have beset them about; they are before my face.

They make the king glad with their wickedness, and the princes with their lies. They are all adulterers, as an oven heated by the baker, who ceaseth from raising after he hath kneeded the dough, until it be leavened. In the day of our king the princes have made him sick with bottles of wine; he stretched out his hand with scorners.

For they have made ready their heart like an oven, whiles they lie in wait: their baker sleepeth all the night; in the morning it burneth as a flaming fire.

They are all hot as an oven, and have devoured their judges; all their kings are fallen: there is none among them that calleth unto me. Ephraim, he hath mixed himself among the people; Ephraim is a cake not turned."

The Old Testament book of Hosea took place historically during the time of the northern kingdom of Israel, which existed for 249 years from 970 BC to 721 BC. The Jews rebelled against God's commandments. They went into idolatry, committing spiritual adultery with idols.

In the context of Hosea, "Ephraim" (a city in Palestine) is often used to represent the northern kingdom of Israel. Theologically, Ephraim's actions are a reflection of Israel's spiritual state. The imagery of an "

cake unturned

is illustrative of the Jew's hypocrisy. In ancient times, bread or cakes were cooked on hot stones, requiring turning frequently to prevent burning the food. An unturned cake would be burned on one side and raw on the other, which God uses here to symbolize a spiritual imbalance in the lives of His people.

This metaphor reflects Ephraim's dire spiritual condition—externally, they may appeared to be religious; but internally, they were spiritually immature and corrupt. They had a superficial faith that lacked a genuine walk with God (Matthew 15:8). Ephraim was consumed by the strange fire of Baal worship. Israel's idolatry and sinful relationship with pagan countries, and their unfaithfulness to God, brought God's judgment upon Israel.

Having shared these truths with you, I cannot help but apply them to Christians today. We've got a bunch of one-sided churchgoers today who are half-baked. The churches are filled with do-gooders who refuse to contend for the Christian faith. They honor themselves for preparing Christmas boxes for infidel Franklin Graham's Operation Christmas Child (OCC), but those churches won't lift a finger to go door to door soulwinning (Acts 20:20), earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints (Jude 1:3), expose false teachers by name (Titus 1:9-14), or reach out to welcome back hurting people who have left the church (Jude 1:22; Galatians 6:1).

Tragically, our Baptist churches today are full of self-righteous hypocrites! I am thinking about a hurting man who lives right across the street from a Baptist church not too far from me. The man made a rude comment to another church member in a moment of foolishness. The pastor not once, but twice, sharply rebuked the man, so he left the church and hasn't been back since. That was months ago! I cannot help but wonder why his pastor doesn't care about that hurting man. Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) was so right when he said: "The Christian army is the only army in the world that kills its wounded."

Hosea 7:2, " And they consider not in their hearts that I remember all their wickedness: now their own doings have beset them about; they are before my face." Oh how foolish are the American people! We think that our holy and omnipotent, omnipresent and omniscient Creator has forgotten about our nation's wickedness. But I assure you dear friend that God has not forgotten all the 63,000,000 murderous abortions (Hebrews 4:13). Nor has God forgotten the millions of abominations which our government wickedly calls, "Same Sex Marriage" (Ecclesiastes 12:14). It is evil, unnatural and perversion! God sees the filth and He hears the cry of the victims!!!

Many Christians today lack hatred for sin. Others hate sin vehemently, but woefully lack love for sinners, who are people created in the image of God. Sadly, the New Independent Fundamental Baptist (New IFB) movement is notorious for hating sinners. That is unscriptural and wrong! We ought to never reject the sinner with the sin, nor accept the sin with the sinner. There is a balance! Most churchgoers these days are a cake unturned. They are burned on one side and raw on the other. If the shoe fits, wear it!

By God's grace, may we be more balanced as believers. It saddens me to see a group of professed Christians going through all the motions of playing church, Sunday after Sunday, month after month, years after year; but there is a disturbing woeful lack of genuine love and compassion for people. When I attended Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College for several months in 2021, there was a vacuum of love and compassion for people there. RUN from the religious cult at PCC, where the system always comes first, but individual people do not matter. I was there personally and experienced firsthand the abuse and lack of sympathy by their ungodly pastors, especially Jeff Redlin (their incompetent senior pastor). SHAME on PCC for hiring fools and sanctioning such shameful heathen behavior. At PCC, they are going through all the motions, but their hearts are far from God (Matthew 15:7-8).

By God's grace, I don't want to be a one-sided believer. I want to be a well-rounded Christian. If you will be sensitive to the Holy Spirit's leading, then He will direct your heart into the truth, to hate every false way, to unconditionally love everyone with Christ's love, and to stand for the faith. Your average Baptist pastor today is a religious clown, who is only concerned about his next paycheck. God deliver us from corrupt clergy!

The Jews were not seeking the Lord in their problems for help...

> Hosea 7:9-16, "Strangers have devoured his strength, and he knoweth it not: yea, gray hairs are here and there upon him, yet he knoweth not. And the pride of Israel testifieth to his face: and they do not return to the LORD their God, nor seek him for all this."

Israel, depicted as a crazy dove, asks for help from Egypt and Assyria instead of turning to God. The Jews do not realize that they're preparing for their own destruction, as a bird caught in a net to entrap them. ...

> Hosea 7:11-13, "Ephraim also is like a silly dove without heart: they call to Egypt, they go to Assyria. When they shall go, I will spread my net upon them; I will bring them down as the fowls of the heaven; I will chastise them, as their congregation hath heard. Woe unto them! for they have fled from me: destruction unto them! because they have transgressed against me: though I have redeemed them, yet they have spoken lies against me."

In their hour of need, the Jews sulked upon their beds, but didn't cry unto the Lord for mercy...

> Hosea 7:14-16, "And they have not cried unto me with their heart, when they howled upon their beds: they assemble themselves for corn and wine, and they rebel against me. Though I have bound and strengthened their arms, yet do they imagine mischief against me. They return, but not to the most High: they are like a deceitful bow: their princes shall fall by the sword for the rage of their tongue: this shall be their derision in the land of Egypt."

It offends the Lord when we seek help from man, but not Him. This is why King Asa died from his foot disease. 2nd Chronicles 16:12-13, "

And Asa in the thirty and ninth year of his reign was diseased in his feet, until his disease was exceeding great: yet in his disease he sought not to the LORD, but to the physicians. And Asa slept with his fathers, and died in the one and fortieth year of his reign. " There is an important truth to be learned here from the inspired Word of God! We should always pray for God's healing before we do anything! You may pray in your soul while on the way to dial 911, but you should pray, even of very briefly. As saints, we should all get into the good habit of immediately running to our heavenly Father.

Having said that, we don't want to be foolish like the religious cult of Jehovah's Witnesses, who don't believe in going to the doctor when ill. We should always go to our doctor when sick or diseased, but not before going to the Lord in prayer.

Is your spiritual life balanced dear reader? Are your eating habits balanced? Much of our troubles as Christians is caused by our lack of discipline and character. Israel were one-sided! The prophet Hosea called them a burned cake which hadn't been turned. I see so many Baptist churches today who are merely playing church, going through the motions, not making much of an impact (if any) for God. God pity the local church that is nothing more than a spiritualized social club.

Sadly, I am not aware of even one church in Pensacola that weekly goes out door to door soulwinning. They don't care about soulwinning. That is why their churches are 85 % empty, like the Smyrna Baptist Church at 7000 N. Pensacola Avenue is always empty. Their senior pastor, Bill Adams, is a cake unturned. Pastor Adams is all strength without beauty, denim without lace, a hardened fighter without any genuine love or compassion for hurting people. I learned that sad truth firsthand when I attended his church for several months in 2024.

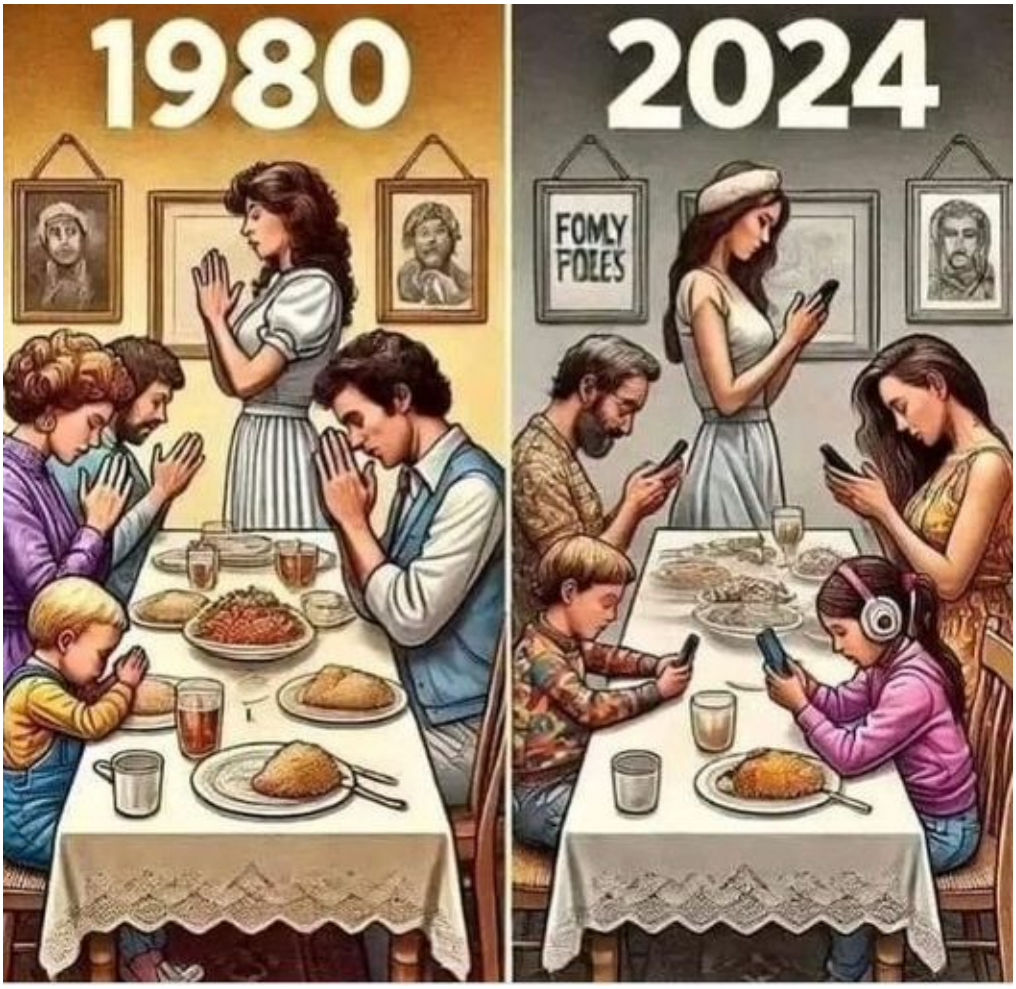
The adage is very true: People don't care what you know, until they know that you care. Pastor Adams couldn't have cared less about me as a hurting human being, when I sincerely reached out to him and shared my broken life. The man is heartless and has no business being a pastor. He's living large parasiting off the church, compliments of Pensacola Christian College who help financially support the church. There is no love in the PCC cult. I have never met such an arrogant, holier than thou, snobby, group as the PCC cult. Shame on all of them! PCC is a cake unturned, burned to a cinder on one side, and raw as can be on the other.

And don't even get me started about the Satanic counterfeit plan of salvation which is sadly being preached at PCC today. RUN from this place!!!

May we all strive by God's grace and mercy to be balanced Christians, and not go off halfcocked into politics, or becoming a one issue person (like fighting abortion all the time), or get so caught up in Operation Christmas Child (OCC) that we don't ever bother to contend for the Christian faith, or focus on church dinners more than going soulwinning, et cetera.



I am one of the most hated Bible preachers in America, because I don't bite my tongue. I SPEAK THE TRUTH without apology or compromise. My enemies have combed over social media looking for all the scuttlebutt they could find to slander me. They have contacted churches I've attended and turned the pastors against me, which is what happened at Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College in 2021. My enemies hate my guts, and many of them are neo-evangelicals from the Bob Jones University cult. God pity the preacher that the world don't hate!

My enemies are many, but my friends are few. The fastest way to make enemies is to simply TELL THE TRUTH. Your average Baptist church today is a cesspool of demonic Lordship Salvation, misunderstood repentance (a false gospel), and Satan's corrupt Bible revisions. When I attended the shameful Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, their Satanic senior pastor Marty Herron forced me out of the church and then banned me from returning, telling me to go find a church that believes like I do. WOE BE UNTO MARTY HERRON WHEN THAT INFIDEL FALSE PROPHET STANDS BEFORE GOD!!!

I handed him THE TRUTH, but Mr. Herron wickedly rejected it in his arrogance and pride (Hosea 4:6). Pastor Herron idolizes Dr. John MacArthur, the Godfather of Lordship Salvation, whom Mormons love. Did you know that [1]Pastor MacArthur's book on Lordship Salvation titled, 'Faith Works,' is required reading at the Mormon Brigham Young University!

[2] Listen and watch for yourself

Dr. John MacArthur is a confusing liar to accuse Mormons of preaching another gospel, when IN FACT [3]MacArthur AGREES 100 % with the Mormon view on repentance. Remember, Mormons agree so much with MacArthur perverse Lordship Salvation that they've made his book REQUIRED READING for all their students! That speaks 1,000 words as to the perversion of Mr. MacArthur's theology!!! Birds of a feather flock together!

5.12.20 Soul Winners Will Shine In Heaven As The Stars (2024-12-28 17:18)

Daniel 12:3, "And they that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness as the stars for ever and ever."

The Holy Bible says that Christian believers who "TURN MANY TO RIGHTEOUSNESS" will shine as the brightness of the stars in the universe for ever and ever. The Bible doesn't say anything about professional sports athletes shining. The Bible doesn't say anything about musicians shining. Nor does the Bible say anything about religious leaders shining in eternity. The Bible doesn't say anything about hard-working people with booming businesses shining in eternity. The Bible doesn't say anything about Christian nurses shining in eternity.

The Bible doesn't say anything about Christian politicians shining in eternity. The Bible does say anything about Christian missionaries shining in Heaven. Nor does the Bible say anything about Christian pastors or full-time Christian workers shining in Heaven! People who make a living off of Christianity aren't going to be the ones who shine up in Heaven throughout eternity; but rather, "they that turn many to righteousness" (Daniel 12:3b).

...THEY THAT TURN MANY TO RIGHTEOUSNESS!!!

Only those faithful believers who turn many to the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ will shine. In order to get into Heaven someday a person must be absolutely 100 % perfect. Since no one can live up to God's perfect holy standard (Romans 3:23), we all need someone else to pay four our ticket to Heaven. That is what Jesus Christ did for us on the cross, through His death and the precious blood that He shed for our sins (Romans 5:9), and His burial and bodily resurrection as our High Priest (Romans 8:34; Hebrews 4:15-16).

Thus, we are literally saved by God's righteousness (Romans 10:3-4). The righteousness of God is what the Gospel teaches! Philippians 3:9, "And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith." There is no other way into Heaven apart from [1]God's imputed righteousness through faith alone in the only begotten Son of God, Jesus Christ. John 20:31, "But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name."

The wicked world honors ungodly people foolishly, but they WON'T shine for five seconds in eternity. Hebrews 11:6 teaches that only by faith can God be pleased. The Communist kooks, adulterous athletes, sensual celebrities, liberal loonies, leftist losers and all the hordes of Hollywood Hell, won't shine for 5-seconds in eternity. When this earthly life is over, all that will matter is if you "DIE IN THE LORD" (Revelation 14:13) and went to Heaven, or "DIE IN YOUR SINS" (John 8:24) and went to Hell. All Christ-rejecters will spend eternity burning mercilessly in the Lake of Fire, which Revelation 20:6 says burns with fire and brimstone. Revelation 14:11 says, "they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name."

Only What's Done for Christ Will Last

Every born-again believer will be judged according to their earthly works. The Holy Bible says that our "works do follow" us into eternity. Revelation 14:13, "And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them." One of my favorite soulwinning MP3 sermons is by Evangelist Lester Roloff (1914-1982) called, "[2]What Are You Laboring For?" What are you laboring for dear friend? Are you laboring for money? Are you laboring for a nice home? Are you laboring for a big retirement fund? Are you laboring for the material things of this temporary world.

Listen carefully friend to the admonition from God in 1st John 2:15-17, "Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world. And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever." Everything that you see around you will one day be gone! Everything that you see around you on this planet will someday return to the dust from which it came. The court houses and all the court records will be gone. The prisons will be gone. The hospitals will be gone. The churches will be gone. Nothing will remain!

In fact, the Bible teaches in 2nd Peter 3:10-12 that God will burn the earth over with fire to renovate it, to cleanse it of all the filth! All the works of mankind will be burned up and gone forever! All of your favorite Hollywood movies will be gone forever! All of the musical recordings of your favorite singers and bands will be gone forever! Nothing will remain except the treasures that believers laid up in Heaven (Matthew 6:19-20), and most of all, the people saved because we witnessed the Gospel (Good News) of Christ crucified, buried and risen to them.

> Daniel 12:3, "And they that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness as the stars for ever and ever."

There is no greater task in the world than witnessing the Gospel to lost sinners. The average person is not saved. In fact, I'd guesstimate worldwide that only .001 % (one in every 1,000 people) are born-again!!! There are an estimated 1,600,000,000 (1.6 billion) Muslims in the world who are unsaved Christ-rejecters! There are an estimated 1,000,000,000 unsaved Roman Catholics, who are trusting the sacraments of the Catholic Church to save them. There are another estimated 600,000 Christ-rejecting Buddhists!

There's 127,368,088 people living in Japan. Yet, [3]less than 1-in-200 profess Christianity (005 %) .

Most of the world's population are going to Hell, "Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it" (Matthew 7:13-14). You see, the world is always searching for answers (2nd Timothy 3:7, "Ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth"), but Satan has provided many substitutes for the Gospel to blind and deceive people (2nd Corinthians 4:4). Revelation 12:9b, "...that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world." It is our duty as born-again believers to preach to the lost, to show them THE TRUTH of the Gospel which Satan has kept from them.

C.S. Lewis: The Devil's Favorite Deception

In 2005 Dave Mustaine, frontman of the band Megadeth, refused to perform on stage with the openly satanic Greek band, "Rotting Christ." That's like a Jehovah's Witness refusing to share a platform with a Roman Catholic because of their corrupt religious beliefs (since both of those religious groups are of the Devil). Dave Mustaine claims to be a Christian, but he's not fooling everyone. His recent album "Th1rt3en" was finished on 31313 (March 31, 2013). The album contained 13 songs. There are 13 lit candles on the album cover.

It had been 13 years since Megadeth recorded their last track, "Silent Scorn." Dave Mustaine is serving the Devil, and is still fulfilling his lifetime contract with the Illuminati. Mustaine sold his soul to work evil. Many people think Mustaine is a true Christian, but I have yet to hear him provide testimony that evidences faith in the Gospel. Mustaine said on The Alex Jones Show that the use of the number 13 was pure coincidence. You're a fool of fools if you believe that! [4]13 is the number of rebellion, death, chaos and anarchy!

I've said that to mention another big phony, C.S. Lewis! A lot of Christians are misled and confused about C.S. Lewis, who was equivalent to the Rick Warren ecumenical sellout of his day. The Bible teaches that to praise the wicked is a sign of apostasy. Proverbs 28:4, "They that forsake the law praise the wicked: but such as keep the law contend with them."

Clive Lewis praised the Catholic religion much in his later life, although he was a bit critical in his youth. Lewis changed for the worse. J.K. Rowling, the wicked woman who authored the Harry Potter series to introduce children into witchcraft, calls C.S. Lewis her favorite author. That speaks volumes against Mr. Lewis. The reason why is obvious, that is, because Lewis was the perfect shill, a compromiser, who fooled many evangelicals into following him, while at the same time Lewis was influencing them to tolerate and eventually embrace false religion.

Instead of being a soul-winner and turning many to righteousness, C.S. Lewis was famous the world over for being a religious schmuck!!! Don't take my word for it, here's an article from [5]The Catholic Herald, praising C.S. Lewis for coming so close to being a Roman Catholic. Here's another article titled, [6]6 Reasons Why Mormons Love C.S. Lewis! I could show you many other articles from various religious denominations, who all loved and praised C.S. Lewis for his ecumenical apostasy. Rick Warren has taken Billy Graham's place, who took C.S. Lewis' place as the Balaam (prophet for hire) of our time. Although [7]C.S. Lewis influenced tens-of-millions of people during his lifetime (and still today), it is plainly evident to the spiritually discerning Christian that Lewis never led even a single person to Jesus Christ.

When C.S. Lewis speaks of "faith in Christ," he includes unsaved Catholics, Mormons, the apostate Church of England and every heathen religion. Lewis sought for "common ground" between all religions, that he could use to justify accepting everyone, regardless of their doctrinal differences. Consequently, unbelievers were given false hope, and the true Biblical Gospel that excludes all forms of self-righteousness was hidden. Lewis has much blood on his hands. Mormons love him! Catholics love him! Remember that Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light, and so are his ministers of unrighteousness (2nd Corinthians 11:13-15). Satan's primary character traits are being an accuser (Revelation 12:10), a murdering liar and thief (John 10:10), and a deceiver (Matthew 7:15).

C.S. Lewis was loved the most by Satan, because he published tons of religious literature, confusing fiction with non-fiction, further confusing an already confused world. As I've researched the writings of Lewis, I've found nothing but a bunch of eloquent religious quotes which amount to really nothing. Every hellbound Roman Catholic and Mormon believes in faith in Christ. There is nothing more dangerous spiritually to the churches than vague, obscure, wishy-washy, undefined usage of terms and teachings concerning the doctrine of Jesus Christ. Lewis attempted to present Scriptural truth under a cloak of pagan mythology in order to give it popular appeal, and in so doing confused the reader, preventing people from ever seeing the light of the Gospel.

That's why J.K. Rowling praises Lewis as her favorite writer and mentor. Miss Rowling does the same thing, confusing children's minds to discern between fact and fiction, while making sure they don't see the glorious light of the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ. In Satan's kingdom of darkness, he who deceives others the best is king. C.S. Lewis is a superstar amongst apostate evangelicals and heathens alike, and that's how the Devil likes it. If a deadly wolf can put on sheep's clothing and dupe Christians to follow his teachings and advice, then the Devil can kill, steal and destroy with ease.

Ecumenicalism Is An Enemy Of Soul-Winning

Everything that I have just shared with you about C.S. Lewis falls under the evils of Ecumenism, which is the promotion of better cooperation between the various religious denominations, at the expense of contending for the faith, moral convictions and preaching the Gospel accurately.

No one is going to fraternize with their enemy and maintain a stronghold against them. As born-again Christian believers, the Bible plainly teaches separation between believers and unbelievers...

> 2nd Corinthians 6:14-17, "Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness? And what concord hath Christ with Belial? or what part hath he that believeth with an infidel? And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you."

As born-again Christians, we have a responsibility to preach the Gospel (Good News) that Jesus died on the cross for the sins of everyone (2nd Corinthians 4:3), and He was buried, and then after three days bodily resurrected (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). 1st Corinthians 9:16, "For though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for necessity is laid upon me; yea, woe is unto me, if I preach not the gospel!" It is tragic when a professed Christian singer (and I could name hundreds), becomes famous and has millions of fans, but they refuse to share the Gospel with those fans. The blood of each and every one of those fans will be on their hands if they are truly saved. We have a responsibility to witness the Gospel to others. 2nd Corinthians 4:3, "But if our gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost."

> "The existence of the Bible, as a book for the people, is the greatest benefit which the human race has ever experienced. Every attempt to belittle it is a crime against humanity." —Immanuel Kant

Let's All Get Busy Soul-Winning

I didn't write this article to scold anybody; but rather, to encourage you to get busy sharing the Gospel with others. At a minimum, we can all plant seeds by passing out Gospel tracts. Every believer ought to be soul conscious, that is, concern about the eternal destiny of their soul. Are you on your way to Hell? Do you know for certain if you died right now that you would go to Heaven? You can know for sure (1st John 5:13). I KNOW THAT I AM SAVED. I know because salvation is not conditioned upon my goodness, but upon God's goodness.

I know that I am saved because I have God's PROMISE that He saves those who believe the Gospel. 1st Corinthians 1:21, "For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe." That's the only way to be saved. God will not save anyone who is trying to be saved, He will only save those who are trusting to be saved. Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith. If you admit that you are a sinner and receive the Gospel as payment for your sins, you are saved.

Will You Shine As The Brightness Of The Stars, Or Wish That You Did?

I wrote this article because I was thinking recently about all the frivolous, meaningless and wasteful temporal things that people invest so much time, money and resources in, which will amount to absolutely NOTHING in eternity. It won't matter how many football games you watched or played throughout your life. It won't matter in eternity how much earthly wealth you amassed. None of that will mean a hill-of-beans then. It won't matter in eternity how talented you were, or how many friends you had.

It won't matter when you stand before God how successful you were in the world's eyes. It won't matter how many people you impressed with your razzle-dazzle fancy guitar picking. People spend their lives exercising their body, but they still have to die. People spend their lives trying to get ahead. They divorce in pursuit of a better marriage. They save every dollar they can for an earthly future that is guaranteed to end. No one ever took a single penny with them into eternity. Our culture trains youth to get the most they can out of this temporal life, through greed, lust and competition; but there is no concern nor preparation for eternity.

> "The things that are right in life always follow suffering; The things that are wrong in life always precede suffering." SOURCE: Dr. Jack Hyles (from the MP3 sermon, '[8]COUNT THE COST')

If you believe the Holy Bible, then you ought to count the cost of not being a disciple of Jesus Christ. You don't get saved by discipleship. Eternal life is a free gift that you simply receive by childlike faith in the Gospel. Then, after you're saved, there's a second decision that God wants you to make, to follow Jesus as His disciple. Salvation is free, but discipleship costs us the pleasures of sin and worldliness. Salvation, once received, cannot be lost; but discipleship can be lost. Salvation is dependant upon God's faithfulness, but discipleship is dependant upon the believer's faithfulness. Few people understanding this distinction, which is why the heresy of Lordship Salvation has invaded the churches, confusing Salvation with Discipleship.

I promise you, those of you who are Christians and don't care about soul-winning, that you will hate yourself in eternity. When you see Christians like me (and I say this humbly by God's grace alone) relishing in the presence of thousands of souls who were saved through my soul-winning efforts, and you had no souls saved at all. You will feel ashamed. I have received innumerable "Thank you!" e-mails over the years, from people who said they found the Lord Jesus Christ and were saved through my website ministry. Of course, I cannot save anybody, God does that. Albeit, the Scriptures teach that without a preacher no one will hear the glad tidings of the Gospel, so how can they be saved...

> Romans 10:13-15, "For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher? And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!"

If you are saved, then you have God the Father and God the Son living inside you as God the Holy Spirit. This is called the "indwelling" of the Holy Spirit. The Bible calls this Triune nature of God, the "GODHEAD" (which all of the new satanic counterfeit Bible versions remove from Acts 17:29, Romans 1:20 and Colossians 2:9 - Only the King James Bible contains this important theological word). Beware of the new plethora of fake Bible version, which Satan has unleashed upon the churches under the disguise of being “new, better and more accurate” Bibles, but in reality they have caused utter confusion and rejection by today’s youth. Thank God for the trustworthy and inspired King James Bible!!!!!!!

I give the Lord all the credit for any good accomplished by my frail human labors. It is the Holy Spirit working through me that makes the difference. I sometimes read some of my older articles and recognize that it was the Holy Spirit working through me, because I could never figure out those great truths on my own. PRAISE THE LORD!!! To God be the glory, great things HE HATH DONE!!! The Lord plainly said that without Him we can DO NOTHING! John 15:5, “I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing.” Most churches today are doing everything in their own human strength. Although there might be religious converts, there are no souls born-again by the Spirit of God. That is, they have churchianity without Christianity as Pastor J. Vernon McGee (whom I admire) used to say.

I’ve heard some Bible teachers identify the “fruit” of John 15:5 as the fruit of the Spirit, but I think it means much more. I think the Bible is referring to souls saved, as evidenced by Matthew 13:8, “But other fell into good ground, and brought forth fruit, some an hundredfold, some sixtyfold, some thirtyfold.” And of course, a desire to win souls is part of the fruit of the indwelling Holy Spirit. Matthew 13:8 Scripture refers to Jesus’ parable of the sower and the seeds. The “seed” is the Word of God (Luke 8:11). The Lord said that believers with “an honest and good heart” (Luke 8:15), will take heed and bear much fruit. This does not mean that we can win anyone to the Lord in our own strength; but rather, the Lord can work through a surrendered vessel to lead others to Him, through the witnessing of the Gospel.

It Will Be Worth It All When We See Jesus

Perhaps one of the greatest compliments I have ever received was from a web visitor who said, “Thank you for allowing God to do all this through you” (referring to my website ministry). I was greatly humbled at first. Who am I to limit the God of the universe if I chose not to allow Him to work through me? But friend, that is exactly what we are doing if we do not yield to the leading of the Spirit of God by obeying the written Word of God. 2nd Corinthians 10:5, “Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ.” This one Scripture alone eliminates 95 % percent of our wicked American culture, which exalts itself against a holy God.

Friend (I am being your friend), this life is an illusion, because it is not even a blip on the screen of eternity. Everything that you see around you will be gone in time. Unsaved people realize this truth, but since they lack faith in the Holy Bible, they choose to live life to the fullest. However, as Christians we do have faith in the Word of God, the very seed by which we were born-again (1st Peter 1:23), and so we choose to live our life for eternal results. So we see that our view of eternity directly affects how we live now on earth.

Like I said earlier, I dare say 1-in-10,000 people are saved. I’ve known religious people all my life who claimed the name of Christ, but clearly only had a dead form of religious devotion. This is exactly what the Lord said in Matthew 7:21-23 and Luke 13:23-24. Many shall seek to enter into Heaven, but few shall be able. You need God’s righteousness friend, not your own! This is one of the hardest truths for man to grasp, because by nature we feel that we must impress God to satisfy His holy demands. Neither you nor I can impress God (Isaiah 64:6). The only thing that impresses God is when we trust upon the Son of God, Jesus Christ.

All of the fame, money and success in this temporal world ends at the grave. In this wicked, selfish and warped world of sin—all of the overpaid professional sports athletes, Noble Prize winners, idolized media celebrities, singing sensations and Hollywood actors—are big losers in Heaven's eyes. No one is a true success in life unless they fear God and obey His commandments. Ecclesiastes 12:13, "Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man." Do you fear God? Do you keep His commandments dear reader? God knows that we are incapable of being perfect, but we ought to at least try. Matthew 5:48, "Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect." The word "perfect" in the Greek is in the linear, which means "to be being perfect."

In other words, God knows that we cannot live a perfect life, but He wants us to keep trying with His help. The Bible teaches that Jesus lives the Christian life through us. Galatians 2:20b, "I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me." I earnestly long for the day in eternity when God rids me of this cursed flesh (2nd Corinthians 5:1), and I am given a new glorified body fashioned like unto the Lord's resurrected body (Philippians 3:21). But until that blessed time, I CAN live right at any given time by yielding to the indwelling Holy Spirit, in obedience to the inspired Word of God. 2nd Corinthians 10:5, "Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ." Anyone can obey God if they want to, and for the unsaved person it must begin with [9]believing the Gospel!

In sharp contrast, the ungodly world couldn't care less about living right to please God. The wicked person does what "feels good," with little or no regard for God nor man. They just don't want to get into trouble with the law! That is why when there is a breakdown of social order during times of natural disaster or war, wicked people commit all manner of evil. What evil crimes would you commit if you could and get away with it? As believers, we should desire to live as perfect a holy life as possible, motivated by our love for the dear Savior Who gave His life for us on the cross. Revelation 4:11, "Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created."

Time Is Running Out!

I often feel inadequate when I write articles, grasping for words to express what I desire to say. I deliberately avoid fancier complicated words, to keep it simple. I want to place the cookies on the bottom shelf, so-to-speak, so that even a child can understand what I am teaching from the Bible. I try to be a porcupine preacher, so that everyone will GET THE POINT! Amen!

I heard Pastor Steve Anderson preaching the other day in his excellent video on [10]New World Order Bible Versions. In the video he says that a lot of people didn't like the Amplified Version of the Bible because IT WAS TOO LOUD! It took me a minute to figure that one out, but I thought that was pretty funny. The Bible tells us in Revelation 12:12, "Therefore rejoice, ye heavens, and ye that dwell in them. Woe to the inhabiters of the earth and of the sea! for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time." Time is short friend. If you've been following world events, you know that the Illuminati (Satan's architects of the New World Order) are working relentlessly to destroy national borders, sovereignty, individualism, parental authority, Christianity, honest capitalism, faith in God and all barriers of race, religion and culture. This is all necessary for the Devil to create a world system friendly to receive the Antichrist. It is happening!

Satan is already working night-and-day to corrupt the churches, bring chaos to the world, destroy our liberties and eliminate the traditional family. It is tragic that the average Christian believer is asleep spiritually, sitting back while the Devil changes our Bibles and churches. It is rare that a church goes bad by itself. What we are seeing in America today is the systematic dismantling of the churches. Satan fully knows that churches seek pastors from the Bible universities. So if I were the Devil, I'd try to corrupt the Bible colleges and religious institutions that train preachers. That's why I call them preacher's "cemeteries" instead of seminaries.

[11]Moody ministries prints all of Dr. John MacArthur's books. MacArthur says [12]children can't be saved, Jesus' blood is [13]not on the mercy seat in Heaven, [14]it will cost a person everything to be saved, and that [15]Jesus didn't die for everyone (limited atonement). APOSTASY!!! Thousands of pastors have been duped to idolize and follow MacArthur, simply because he is popular on radio stations nationwide, publishes hundreds of books, and Moody all but worships him at their annual Founder's Week.

In short, the Devil is using influences like MacArthur, Joyce Meyer, Pat Robertson, Rick Warren, Joel Osteen, Ray Comfort, Paul Washer, John Piper and Max Lucado to corrupt the churches. They all PERvert the plan of salvation! Satan has introduced a demented message in our churches today that says eternal life is a gift, but you have to clean-up your behavior to receive it. It's called [16]Lordship Salvation. What a contradiction! The aforementioned false prophets say some wonderful things, but they all support the counterfeit Bible versions and add human effort to the Gospel! Anyway, don't get me started preaching against these yardbirds or I'll never stop typing!

I will close with our opening thought. The Holy Bible says that Christian believers who "TURN MANY TO RIGHTEOUSNESS" will shine as the brightness of the stars in the universe for ever and ever throughout eternity. The true measurement of our success in life won't be how many people show up to say goodbye at our funeral, but how many people are waiting to greet us when we get to Heaven! Amen! Although it is true that we cannot take anything temporal out of this world with us when we die, we can send it ahead by getting people saved and serving Jesus Christ (Matthew 6:19-21).

6.1.1 The Disappearance Of The Male Role (2025-01-01 22:19)

I frequently read recent articles by Dr. Paul Craig Roberts. I love his prolific style of writing, his wisdom and hard hitting truthful writings. I recommend that you check out his website and stop be regularly to read his stuff.

I found this needful very true article today...

> The Disappearance of the Male Role
>
> [1]December 30, 2024 | Categories: [2]Articles & Columns
>
> Paul Craig Roberts
>
> Over the course of my lifetime I have watched the role of men taken away. The role of the male as provider, defender, and disciplinarian is no more. It was destroyed by feminists.
>
> To clarify “feminist”: In the past when I have criticized feminists older women who had careers asked why I thought women shouldn’t have careers. Their idea is that a feminist is a woman who has a career. But women have always had careers as mothers, homemakers, grandmothers, school teachers, nurses, secretaries, writers, artists, musicians, scientists, and even spies such as Eve Gordon who made during World War II 112 parachute jumps into occupied Europe. Even in pre-feminist days, one of my aunts despite being married had a career outside the home. She enjoyed the discipline of getting to work on time, the interaction with other people, and meeting new ones.
>
> By feminist I mean a person with an ideological agenda of obliterating the difference between men and women. When I was young men were raised to respect women. When a woman entered a room, the men stood. Doors were opened for women and their entrance proceeded the man’s. Car doors were opened for women who were helped in and out. At the dining table men stood until the women were seated. In those days men still wore hats. A gentleman passing a lady on the sidewalk was expected to tip his hat in respect. A man who struck a woman or used a four-letter word in a lady's presence suffered a ruined reputation.

Feminists derided the many ways in which respect was shown to women as "placing women on a pedestal." Showing respect for women was somehow undervaluing them and treating them unequally. Feminists insisted on women being pulled down into the gutter with men.

Big brothers were taught to protect little sisters. It was little brother's job to learn to protect himself, and fights on the school playground was part of the learning process.

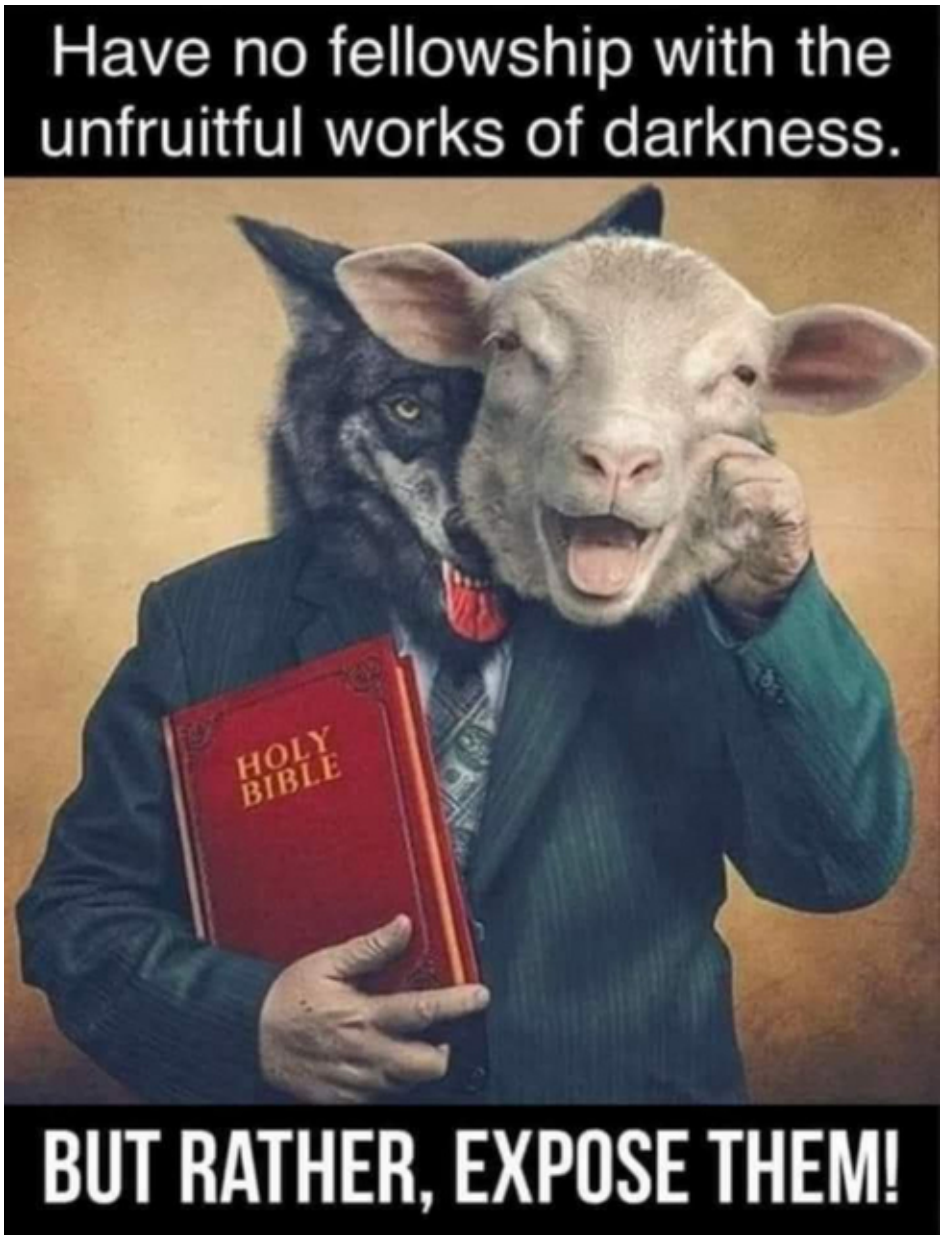
Today men are no longer taught to protect women. But it is a natural inclination in men. Studies have concluded that the introduction of women soldiers into conflict causes a loss of cohesion and focus, because men become distracted by concern for the women.

Feminists were not happy until they destroyed men's colleges, male leadership in politics, military, and business, men's clubs and male organizations such as the Boy Scouts which was forced to take in girls. Even the military has been taken from men. How is there a band of brothers when the commander is female?

Men have lost their role. They are no longer the provider. The wife might have, thanks to gender preferences in university admissions, employment, and promotion, the better job bringing in more income. Studies conclude that boys suffer depression from loss of a role. Reportedly, the suicide rate of boys and young men has been rising.

What the feminists have established is a new form of male deference to women. Males must stand aside and give up their role to women.

Feminist were not content to only destroy men. They destroyed women also. The idea of a chaste woman was objectionable because it held women to a higher standard than men.



Helen Gurley Brown, editor-in-chief of Cosmopolitan magazine, used the magazine to encourage women to be harlots. In the 1960s, 1970s and 1980s Cosmopolitan was a fixture in the waiting rooms of doctors and dentists. I often wondered what my mother and grandmothers would have thought of a woman's magazine, the cover of which heralded articles titled "How to be unfaithful to your husband without being caught," "how to find a sex partner when on vacation without your boy friend," "how to manage multiple sex partners."

Today young women support themselves with their porn sites. Women brag on social media about having had 150 sexual partners, sparking rivals to vow attaining higher levels of wantonness. Female school teachers get themselves pregnant by their under age students. Mothers have 12-year old daughters on birth control pills. School children are sexualized at an early age to get them ready for the legalization of pedophiles, now euphemized as "minor attracted persons."

> I often refer to the United States as a Sodom and Gomorrah Tower of Babel, which is what we have become. It will be a big chore for Trump to rescue us from this predicament. [3]READ MORE

6.1.2 The Patient Waiting Of Christ (2025-01-02 14:56)

Revelation 1:9, “

I John, who also am your brother, and companion in tribulation, and in the kingdom and patience of Jesus Christ, was in the isle that is called Patmos, for the word of God, and for the testimony of Jesus Christ.

I love this MP3 sermon from 1988 by Pastor Jack Hyles. It is called:

“ [1]THE PATIENT WAITING OF CHRIST ”

Sometimes a heavy burden comes to stay. I was severely rear-ended by a church bus in 1992. I didn’t realize at the time that the accident had permanently misaligned my neck (medically called ’Reverse Cervical Curve’). This abnormal alignment of my neck caused undue pressure in the Thorax region of my neck, causing the disks between bones C5, C6 and C7 to slip and place pressure on my spinal cord.

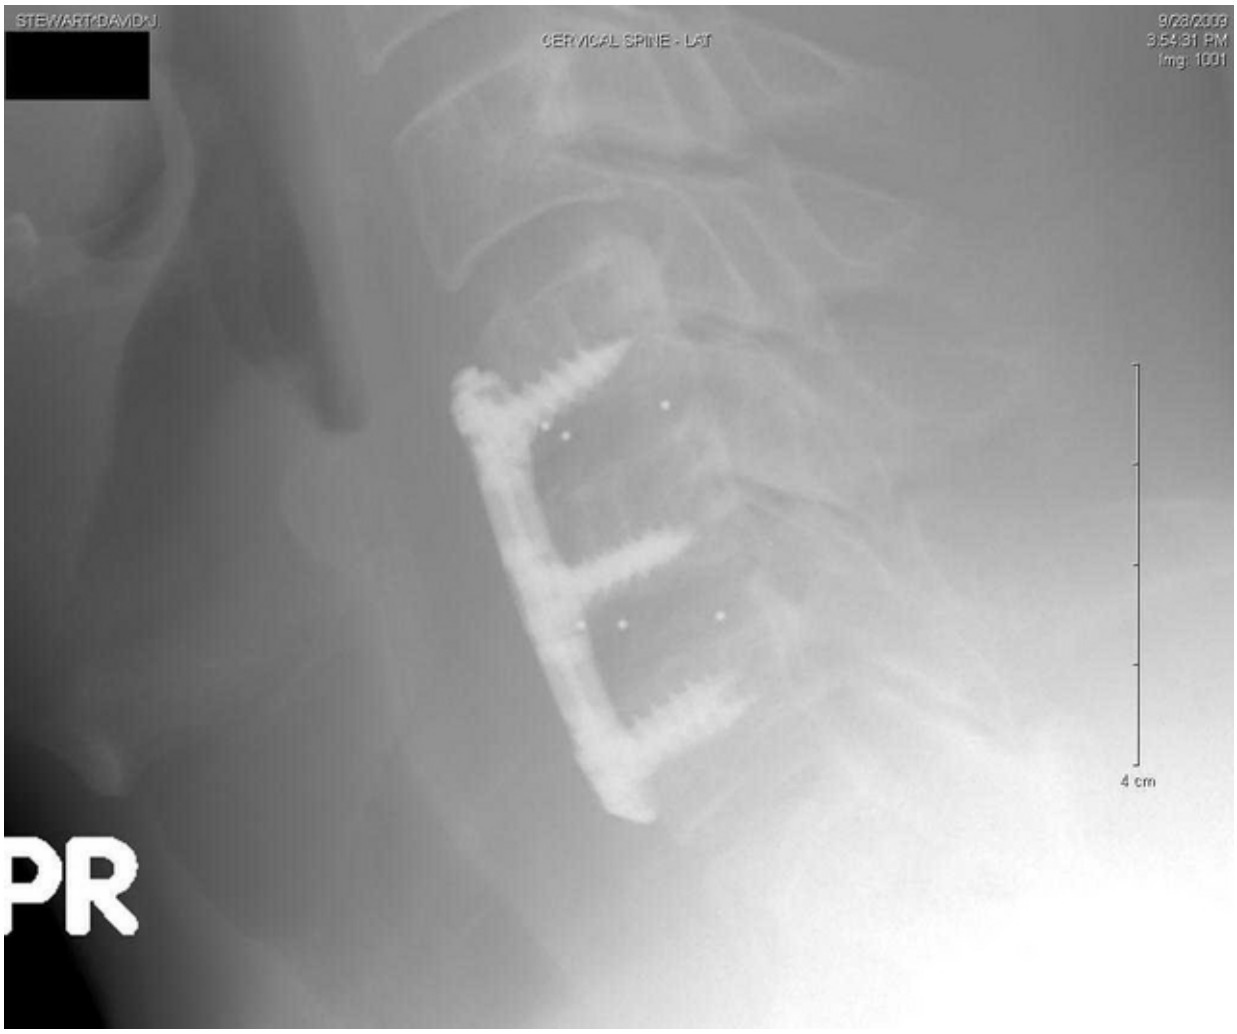
In 2004, my neck finally gave way, and the agonizing pain and tension started in my neck, never to leave. My life has been adversely afflicted by my bad neck pain, burning nerves, both arms feeling inflated with air, tight tension in my neck, et cetera. This heavy burden is here to stay, it will never go away.

In this beautiful sermon, Pastor Hyles teaches: “Bible patience is when the burden is here to stay, and there’s nothing you can do about it—it will never leave—and you hold up.” Amen! This needful sermon has my name written all over it, because of my debilitating neck injury that causes constant neck tension and pain which will never leave.

To make matters much worse, my former unfaithful wife selfishly abandoned and divorced me in 2006, leaving me to sink with the Titanic of our marriage, which is now at the bottom of the Atlantic ocean. For the past 19 painful years I have had to suffer alone—having no companion, no cheerleader, no nurse, no lover, no friend—but thankfully, Jesus’ grace has been sufficient to sustain me (2nd Corinthians 12:9).

The following photo is an actual X-ray of the titanium surgical hardware that is permanently in my neck. My relentless constant neck pain and tension, and related bodily discomforts, make me long to go home to be with Jesus, because I spend a lot of time with Him, my companion in suffering. [illegible] 1:1, “1 [illegible], [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible], [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible], [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible], [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible], [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible], [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible].”

In his sermon, Brother Hyles quotes from [illegible] 12:12, “[illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible].” Do not allow your burdens to control your behavior; you decide how you’re going to act, don’t react. Be your own man! If you too are suffering with a permanent burden dear reader, like I am, congratulations, because you are a member of the Companionship Club with Jesus Christ and all those who suffer with a burden that will never leave; it will never go away.



Revelation 1:9, “

I John, who also am your brother, and companion in tribulation, and in the kingdom and patience of Jesus Christ, was in the isle that is called Patmos, for the word of God, and for the testimony of Jesus Christ.

” Jesus is precious!

6.1.3 Who Can Forgive Sins? (2025-01-04 12:52)

Mark 2:7, " Why doth this man thus speak blasphemies? who can forgive sins but God only?"

My long time ministry friend Pastor Max D. Younce (1935-2023) wrote this helpful book titled: '[1]WHO CAN FORGIVE SINS?.' Only Jesus has the nail-scared hands and feet, and the pierced side. The Pope and Catholic priest didn't die on a cross to pay for your sins, but Jesus did (Romans 5:6-9). The Lutheran minister didn't shed his blood at Calvary to pay your debt of sin, but Jesus did. What saith the Scripture? 1st Timothy 2:5, "For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus; Who gave himself a ransom for all, to be testified in due time." You either go through faith in Jesus to get to Heaven, or else you won't be going; you'll die in your sins and perish into the Lake of Fire.

I learned recently that in Yellowstone National Park there are geysers that spew scorching steam upward hundreds of feet into the atmosphere. They are surrounded by pools of acidic water in which the temperatures can reach 400°

Fahrenheit. In a tragic true story, a visiting man's dog jumped into the pool, thinking it was just another lake. To the owner's horror his dog was being burned alive and couldn't escape his tragic fate. The owner instinctively dived in to save his dog, acting on impulse out of love for his best friend, which ended up costing him his life too. That is so sad. But dear friend, this is only a fraction of what Hell's torment and miseries will be like. The inspired Holy Bible horrifically describes Hell as a literal place inside the earth (Isaiah 14:9), a place of brimstone (sulfur) and fire (Revelation 21:8).

Thankfully, Jesus CAN forgive sin. The wicked Pharisees were offended when Jesus forgave the crippled man's sins and healed him. Those ungodly religious Jewish leaders doubted that Jesus was who He claimed to be—God among men. John 10:33, "The Jews answered him, saying, For a good work we stone thee not; but for blasphemy; and because that thou, being a man, makest thyself God." Clearly, Jesus claimed to be God in the flesh. John 1:1-3 and verse 14 make this abundantly plain to see in the Scripture. The inspired Word of God teaches in Colossians 2:9, "For in him dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily." In the earthly spirit, soul and body of Jesus dwelt God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit (all of the Godhead). Jesus was 100 % a man, and He was 100 % God. Anybody who doubts these truths is evidencing that they are not a born again child of God. That is why the Apostle Paul warned in 2nd Corinthians 11:4 about "another Jesus."

Paul also warned about "another spirit." As my long time ministry friend, Pastor Max D. Younce (1935-2023), used to rightly say: "Any spirit that is not the Holy Spirit is a familiar spirit (a demon)." Beware of the demonic Roman Catholic priest and Lutheran minister who errantly and arrogantly think that they have the power to forgive sins. ONLY GOD CAN FORGIVE SINS, AND JESUS IS GOD!

6.1.4 Welcome To The Church (2025-01-06 00:49)

Luke 22:26-27, “But ye shall not be so: but he that is greatest among you, let him be as the younger; and he that is chief, as he that doth serve. For whether is greater, he that sitteth at meat, or he that serveth? is not he that sitteth at meat? but I am among you as he that serveth.”

A friend of mine wrote this and I think it is worth sharing. We need a revival in churches today of loving the unloving—the misfits, losers, smelly, sinful and contemptible of society—people for whom Jesus Christ was willing to sacrifice His life on Calvary’s cross! ...

The pastor says they sit front and center. The gay boys. Sometimes they hold hands. And some folks have said he should address the issue. But the pastor tells me he doesn’t know what to say.

There is the couple who are pregnant and not married. Walks in shame as her father a “Man of God”, physically slaps her legs while she is having morning sickness and the Boyfriend who is not wanting to marry her. But the pastor tells me he doesn’t know what to say.

And then there’s the man who sneaks in the back door. Fresh off the street. After the service starts. And leaves before altar call. The people sitting close complain about how bad he smells. Of beer and smoke and sweat. But the pastor tells me he doesn’t know what to say.

And then there’s the young mama who wears dirty clothes and lets her four children come in and eat all the donuts and drink all the watered-down juice. Some church staff say they “…eat like little pigs. Like they haven’t eaten in weeks.” While the Mama just stands there and lets them. And the elders say something must be done and said. But the pastor tells me he doesn’t know what to say.

And there’s the whore sitting among the faithful. And everybody knows her. She sits with a painted-up face, cheap perfume, and a broken heart. And those who sit close, well, they all treat her for what they think she is. And at the last staff meeting, her name came up.

Something must be done about her. But the pastor tells me he doesn’t know what to say.

The pastor is a good man. Holy and just. And he wants to do the “right and loving” thing. And he wants to “look like Jesus”. And he asks me if I have any thoughts on anything he could say. Yes, sweet Pastor. I do. Start with this and say it Louder than any other words:

“Welcome to Church. This is a place of love and hope and safety and forgiveness. There will be food for the hungry. Living water for the thirsty. We are so glad you are here. You are invited. You are loved. Come on in—we’ve been waiting on you. Welcome here. We are the church.”

Say that. To the called and to the called-out. To the leaders and the greeters. To the dirty and the clean. We are all the same. We are.

May we blow the dust of religion out of our souls and choose affection instead. May our words and actions and reactions be a sanctuary for all.

Jesus broke many laws to love. So, Jesus, be our voice. Be the only words we should ever speak. I believe this with all my heart. Years ago we were kinder. Everybody looked out for one another. We need to go back to that. It takes us all. We gotta do better at looking out for each other instead of breaking each other down.

6.1.5 Satan: The Great Imitator (2025-01-07 17:26)

2nd Corinthians 11:13-15, "For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ.

And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works."

The words

"transforming" and

"transformed" in our text passage of Scripture is the Greek word metaschēmatizo which means, "to transfigure or disguise." The Bible teaches and warns in our text passage that just as Satan imitates an angel of light, so also do the Devil's counterfeit ministers of unrighteousness (hellbound infidels) imitate godly preachers. They dress and appear like fundamentalist Bible preachers, but in reality they are dangerous wolves in sheep's clothing who teach false doctrines. The Bible warns everyone that Satan and his evil ministers of darkness disguise themselves to deceive people.

The English dictionary defines "disguise" as:

1. An outward semblance that misrepresents the true nature of something (noun)
2. Any attire that modifies the appearance in order to conceal the wearer's identity (noun)

3. The act of concealing the identity of something by modifying its appearance

   (noun)

4. Make unrecognizable (verb)

I thought it very very interesting and telling when I learned that both Billy Graham and singer Amy Grant were honored by Hollywood, by being awarded stars on the Hollywood Walk of Fame. How interesting that two of the biggest religious phonies in the world would both be awarded a Star of Fame by Hollywood. Any Grant belongs to the demonic Church of Christ, and in her religious singing career has been a follower of Billy Graham.

Satan is the Boss of Hollywood!

Beware Of False Prophet, Billy Graham

One such minister of unrighteousness is [1]Billy Graham (1918-2018). I cannot warn people enough about the lying counterfeit plan of salvation of Billy Graham, and his son Franklin Graham. Here is a quote from the official website of the Billy Graham Evangelistic Association (BGEA)...

> “Many people come to Christ without first counting the cost. The cost includes repentance, the forsaking of sin, and a continual, daily, open acknowledgment of Christ in your life.” [emphasis added]
>
> SOURCE: [2]How to Be Sure You’re Saved | Decision Magazine | BGEA

Liar, liar, soul and body on fire in Hell!!! Nowhere does the inspired King James Bible teach those lies!!! Bible repentance is “ a change of mind

(Greek: metanoia)

, not a change of behavior. Changing one’s behavior is reformation, not repentance. A changed life for a believer is produced by the

“

of the indwelling Holy Spirit (Galatians 5:22-25), and by not one’s decision to straighten up as a requirement to be saved. Billy Graham is a liar!!!

Billy Graham has woefully confused service with salvation (confused discipleship with sonship), mixing the two, which is another gospel that cannot produce the new birth by the Holy Spirit of God. One of my very favorite quotes, comes from one of my favorite Gospel preachers, John Bunyan:

> “If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people.” —John Bunyan (1628-1688)

That is brilliant! Every pastor and every layman should memorize that precious quote, as I have also. John Bunyan fully understood the free grace Gospel. Bunyan understood that the fruit produced by the indwelling Holy Spirit (aka, the Spirit of Christ) was a matter of sanctification, and not of justification. The heresy of Lordship Salvation confuses people by combining sanctification with justification.

Tragically, both Pensacola Christian College (PCC) and Bob Jones University (BJU) today teach the Devil’s lie that: “J ustification, sanctification and glorification are a package deal which cannot be separated.

There has never been a bigger lie! What PCC and BJU are teaching are the exact opposite of the truth which John Bunyan tried to get across to humanity

—the simple Bible truth that if we do not keep sanctification separate from justification, we will corrupt the Word of God and cast stumbling blocks before the people. That is what is happening all across the world today, especially in America.

Tens of thousands of apostate churches today preach the Devil’s lie of Lordship Salvation, which errantly says faith is not enough to get to Heaven; but in addition, Lordship Salvation says that you must forsake a lifestyle of sinning, become a follower of Christ as Lord, and surrender your will to live in holiness. Dear reader, the Devil’s greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born again. That is exactly what Billy Graham and company have wickedly done! They have attached to faith, living the Christian life as a requirement to get to Heaven. That is a counterfeit plan of salvation.

On their BGEA website the following demonic heresy is what they teach you must do to be “born again”...

> So how can we be born again?
>
> First, we must admit our sin—that we can’t live up to God’s perfect standard on our own.
>
> Then we must ask forgiveness for that sin and repent, which means to make every effort in turning away from that sin.
>
> Finally, we ask Jesus to be part of our lives.
>
> That’s when God’s Spirit penetrates our hearts to guide us and help us be more like Him. That’s when we’re born again. [emphasis added]
>
> SOURCE: [3]What Does It Mean To Be Born Again?

[4]

Where does the inspired Holy Bible tells us to “make every effort in turning away from sin” to be born again? That is, to get to Heaven? It doesn’t! Billy Graham is a lying false teacher!

Also, where does the inspired King James Bible tell us to ask Jesus to be part of our life to be saved? It doesn’t! Billy Graham and his followers are hellbound infidels—imposters who masquerade as children of God. What you just read is a false plan of salvation which cannot produce the new birth in Christ. Mr. Graham is guilty of mixing and confusing living the Christian life with God’s free gift of eternal life, which is received by faith alone in the GOOD NEWS of Jesus Christ.

In 1st Corinthians 15:1-6, the inspired Word of God plainly defines “the gospel” as three things:

1. Jesus DIED on a cross to pay our debt of sin.
2. Jesus was BURIED.
3. Jesus physically RESURRECTED from the dead three days later.

The only prerequisite necessary to believe the Gospel is to admit you are a guilty sinner, because you need to know what your being saved from. You are a sinner and so am I (Romans 3:10-23). There is a penalty (wages) for our sins, which is death (Romans 6:23). This includes a second death in the Lake of Fire forever (Revelation 20:11-15, 21:8).

The Bad News is that we are all guilty sinners deserving of being punished in the fires and torments of Hell forever. The Good News is that God sent His only begotten Son, Jesus, into the world to die on a cross for our sins, to make a way of escape through His shed blood (Romans 5:9).

Biblically, you don’t have to turn from your sins to go to Heaven; but rather, Christ died on the cross to pay your debt of sin (and mine). Jesus fully bore the weight and curse of our sins so that we don’t have to. The Devil’s fallacy of Lordship Salvation (which Billy Graham and his followers errantly preach) place the weight and burden of sin upon the sinner instead, which is an impossible burden to bear. Who can turn away from their sinning? That’s right, no one. Psalms 130:3, “If thou, LORD, shouldest mark iniquities, O Lord, who shall stand?”

Please be awake to righteousness! These devilish false prophets need to be exposed (Titus 1:9-14). I am saddened when I attended local churches in Pensacola, Florida, and I hear pastors quoting and bragging on Billy Graham. By partaking of Operation Christmas Child (OCC), tens of thousands of compromised churches across the country are supporting, wickedly bidding Godspeed (2nd John 1:11), to Franklin Graham (whose corrupt plan of salvation is the same as his father’s plan of damnation). Franklin Graham’s OCC has taken in billions of dollars, which [5]Charity Watch Dog Groups have exposed for the organization’s lack of transparency to reveal where the money is going. I won’t give OCC a penny!

The world is going to Hell while the corrupt churches are dropping the ball about how to get to Heaven. Merely “ becoming a Christ follower

is the popular teaching today in neo-evangelical dead churches, but that won't produce the required new birth to get to Heaven. Salvation only comes to those who cease from all their own works, and rest in Christ alone, relying upon His death on the cross, burial and bodily resurrection from the dead three days later. We get saved by receiving Christ's sacrifice on the cross as full-payment for our sins, believing that He was buried, but then raised up from the dead the third day. 1st Thessalonians 4:14, "

For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.

The Devil is the greatest imitator in history! When the Man of Sin (Antichrist) comes, he will imitate Jesus Christ. The Antichrist won't merely be against Christ, he will claim TO BE CHRIST! The Man of Sin will show himself as being God, in the future soon to be rebuilt Jewish temple in Jerusalem. Satan's ministers look just like God's ministers, but they preach another gospel, another Jesus and have another spirit (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4).

6.1.6 Zionism Versus The Holy Bible (2025-01-08 16:49)

Exodus 19:5-6, "Now therefore, if ye will obey my voice indeed, and keep my covenant, then ye shall be a peculiar treasure unto me above all people: for all the earth is mine: And ye shall be unto me a kingdom of priests, and an holy nation. These are the words which thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel."

by Pastor Thomas Williamson

Much of our Christian emphasis on foreign policy in the Middle East today is based on the promise that God made to Abraham in Genesis 12:3, "And I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee: and in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed."

The first half of this verse is a promise that God made to just one person, Abraham. The original Hebrew is in the second person singular, meaning that God is speaking only to Abraham. The King James Version correctly reflects this grammatical construction, since "thee" is singular, referring only to one person, whereas "ye" would refer to multiple persons.

Matthew Henry's commentary states of Genesis 12:3a that "This made it a kind of league, offensive and defensive, between God and Abram."

Of the second half of the verse, Matthew Henry says, This was the promise that crowned all the rest; for it points to the Messiah, in whom 'all the promises are yea and amen.' Note, (1), Jesus Christ is the great blessing of the world, the greatest that ever the world blessed with."

Recently Genesis 12:3 has been spiritualized by Christian Zionist preachers, who say that this verse applies not just to Abraham, but also to Abraham's descendants, specifically to the modern state of Israel founded in 1948. Supposedly, it means that evangelical Christians as individuals, and America as a nation, are bound to provide unquestioning support, financial and otherwise, to the state of Israel. It is said that if America fails to back up Israel in every way possible, financially, militarily and otherwise, then God will be through with America and will have us nuked.

When it is pointed out that the various Arabs nations, including Palestine, are also descended from Abraham, the Christian Zionists say that the promise of Genesis 12:3 applies only to the descendants of Isaac (Of course, there is no mention of Isaac in Genesis 12:3. They often misquote the verse, saying it refers to "blessing Israel," but Israel is not mentioned in the verse either).

Zionists say, based on their non-literal, speculative, spiritualized interpretation of Genesis 12:3, that we are to give total, unquestioned support to some of Abraham's children, while others of Abraham's children are to be hated, persecuted, ethnically cleansed, bombed back into the Stone Age, maybe even nuked.

But in Genesis 21:13, 17-18 God also bestows His blessing on Ishmael and his descendants, saying, "For I will make him a great nation." According to the same principles of interpretation by which we have made Genesis 12:3 a command for political support of the modern nation of Israel, Genesis 21:18 must be taken as a command for political support of the modern Arab nations. (Anybody want to start up a "Christian Ishmaelist" movement to lobby for Arab national greatness?)

Christian Zionists claim to have 70,000,000 followers in America, who insists that our politicians render unquestioning obedience to the military and political agenda of the Israeli Government.

Does God really demand that we support all actions and activities of the Israeli Government, even if those actions violate God's moral standards of righteousness?

It should be pointed out that even in Old Testament times, when Israel was a nation specially chosen by, and ruled over by, Jehovah, He did not expect His people to support and endorse all actions of the government of Israel.

When the Government of Israel committed human rights violations, the prophets openly condemned them, 2 Kings 6:21 –23, 2 Chronicles 28:9-11, Nehemiah 5:7-11, Jeremiah 34:11-17, Amos 2:6-7, etc. Nowadays, liberal Jewish groups still protest human rights violations in Israel. Nevertheless, most fundamentalists Christians would never dream of doing such a thing – it is against their religion. It is their duty to either deny that such violations take place, or else to endorse and commend such violations. We have been told that God will smite us if we disagree with anything that Israel does.

The lawgiver Moses commanded the Hebrews that they should not oppress the strangers or non-Jews in their lands, Exodus 12:49, 22:21, 23:9, Leviticus 19:33-34, 25:35, Deuteronomy 10:18-19, 23:7, 24:17, 27:19. That message, of course, is not mentioned today – it is considered "politically incorrect."

When King Ahab and Queen Jezebel unjustly expropriated the vineyard of Naboth, the prophet Elijah publicly denounced the kind for this unjust action, 1 Kings 21:17-24, Jehu cited this official action of the government of Israel against Naboth as justification for overthrowing that government, 2 Kings 9:25-26.

But nowadays, when the Israeli government expropriates the lands and properties of Palestinians without compensation, we look the other way and say nothing about it.

In Jeremiah 27:1-5, the prophet Jeremiah picketed a public meeting of the government of Judah with representatives of Edom, Moab, Ammon, Tyre and Sidon. He was protesting the foreign policy of Judah. We would never do anything like that today – it would be considered a violation of the command to "bless Abraham."

In Jeremiah 27:6-17, the prophet advocated the surrender of Israel's territory to the King of Babylon, in return for peace – today, we would call it "land for peace." But today, our warmongering televangelists denounce "land for peace" as unthinkable for any reason whatsoever, and threaten God's wrath against anyone who would support such a thing.

Supposedly it is better for Jewish and Arab children of Abraham to keep on killing each other over the land (while these sanctimonious war profiteers collect the money from sales of their Armageddon videos. Could it be a conflict of interest to allow American foreign policy to be dictated by these mega-millionaire preachers, who stand to make a profit if there is a war in the Middle East?)

We have seen that God's inspired prophets did not meet the Christian Zionist standard of blind, unquestioning support for Israel. As it turns out, today's Christian Zionists do not meet that standard, either.

Whenever the modern Israeli government takes any action that does not fit in with the speculative doomsday scenarios of the Armageddon Theology, the Christian Zionists will loudly protest and insist that the Israelis are doing wrong.

For instance, in 1994 Christian Zionist leaders, including Pat Robertson and Ralph Reed, publicly condemned the policies of the Israeli government under Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin, who was seeking a peace settlement with the Palestinians. Robertson has also attacked the policies of Israeli foreign minister Shimon Peres.

It seems hypocritical for Christian Zionists to threaten the wrath of God against those who express disagreement with any policy of the Israeli government when they have done the same thing themselves.

Modern-day Israelis and other Jews are well aware of the fact that the Christian Zionists believe, based on a mistaken interpretation of Zechariah 13:8, that there must be a devastating war in the Middle East in which two-thirds of all the Jews will be slaughtered. It is commonly understood that the Christian Zionists do not really care about what is best for the Jews, as evidenced by their constant lobbying efforts to stir up World War III in the Middle East. Million Jews may wind up dead, but it will be good for sales of the Armageddon videos that are peddled on the televangelists' broadcasts and web-sites.

This raises the question who is really "blessing Israel;" those who are working for peace in the Middle East, or those who are agitating for a war designed to get two-thirds of all Jews wiped out?

Some gullible evangelical Christians may not understand these issues, but our Jewish friends understand what is at stake very well – they are being prepared to serve as cannon fodder for the next Holocaust.

Gershom Gorenberg, in his book "The End of Days: Fundamentalism and the Struggle for the Temple Mount," says, "I've listened to….American evangelical ministers who insist on their deep love for Israel and nevertheless eagerly await apocalyptic battles on Israel's soil so terrible that the dry river bed will, they predict, fill with rivers of blood."

Rabbi Eric Yoffie, president of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations, has stated that "People who say there can be no peace are not really friends of Israel."

Robert O. Freedman, political science professor at Baltimore Hebrew University, says concerning Christian Zionists, "Once you get in bed with them, you are, to a certain extent, subscribing to their view of what America ought to be. And that, in my view, is not in the best interests of the Jewish people."

Former Shin Bet secret chief Carmi Gillon and former police commissioner Assaf Hefetz, commenting on the activities of Temple Mount extremists who are financially supported by fundamentalist Americans, warned that an attack on the Al-Aqsa mosque in Jerusalem "would lead to an all-out war and unleash destructive forces that would imperil Israel's existence."

The eagerness of some televangelists, to get a war going in the Middle East (along with their vociferous Arab-bashing and Muslim-baiting), must be considered in context of their belief in the infamous Armageddon Theology, which insists that 2/3 of all the Jews must die.

Grace Halsell, in her book "Prophecy and Politics" observed: "Convinced that a nuclear Armageddon is an inevitable event within the divine scheme of things, many evangelical dispensationalists have committed themselves to a course for Israel that, by their own admission, will lead directly to a holocaust indescribably more savage and widespread than could have generated in Adolf Hitler's criminal mind."

American Christians who really want to be a blessing to all the children of Abraham (Jews and Arabs) need to realize that they do not have to render blind, knee-jerk support to the most extremist elements of Zionism, or to those who are actively trying to foment massive wars in the Middle East that would be contrary to the interests of the Israeli people. Not everyone is going to agree that stirring up a war to get 2/3 of all Jews killed is a good thing for the Jews.

Nor should we forget that our Prime Directive as Christians is found in the Great Commission. Our mission is to evangelize, baptize and teach, not to try to hasten Christ's coming by agitating war and violence in the Middle East.

Zionism is based on a total misunderstanding of what the Bible teaches. It is true that God gave Palestine to Hebrews in ancient times. But the Bible teaches that their possession of the land was under a conditional covenant with Jehovah. If the Hebrews disobeyed their God, they would lose the land. This is clearly taught in Genesis 17:9-14, Exodus 19:4-5, Leviticus 26:40-45, Deuteronomy 7:12, Joshua 23:15-16, 1 Kings 9:6-9, 2 Chronicles 7:19-22, Jeremiah 34:12-22, Ezekiel 33:23-29, Matthew 21:43, etc.

When the Jews rejected their Messiah, God sent the Romans to dispossess the Jews from their land in 70 AD. This was God's complete punishment on the Jews for crucifying Christ – therefore, the Jews today should not be persecuted for something that happened 2000 years ago. However, their former title deed on the land of Palestine is not abrogated.

The New Testament teaches that Christians are to focus on the heavenly Jerusalem, not the earthly one, John 4:21, Galatians 4:24-28, Hebrews 12:18-24. We are told in Hebrews 11:13-16 that even Abraham has no further interest in a restored Jewish state on earth, because he is in a much better place in heaven.

Christian Zionism is a movement that claims to be based on the Bible, but as we have seen, it is actually contrary to what the Bible teaches. All Christians should repudiate Zionism and should work for a peace settlement in the Middle East that will be of mutual benefit to Abraham's Jewish and Arab children in Palestine.

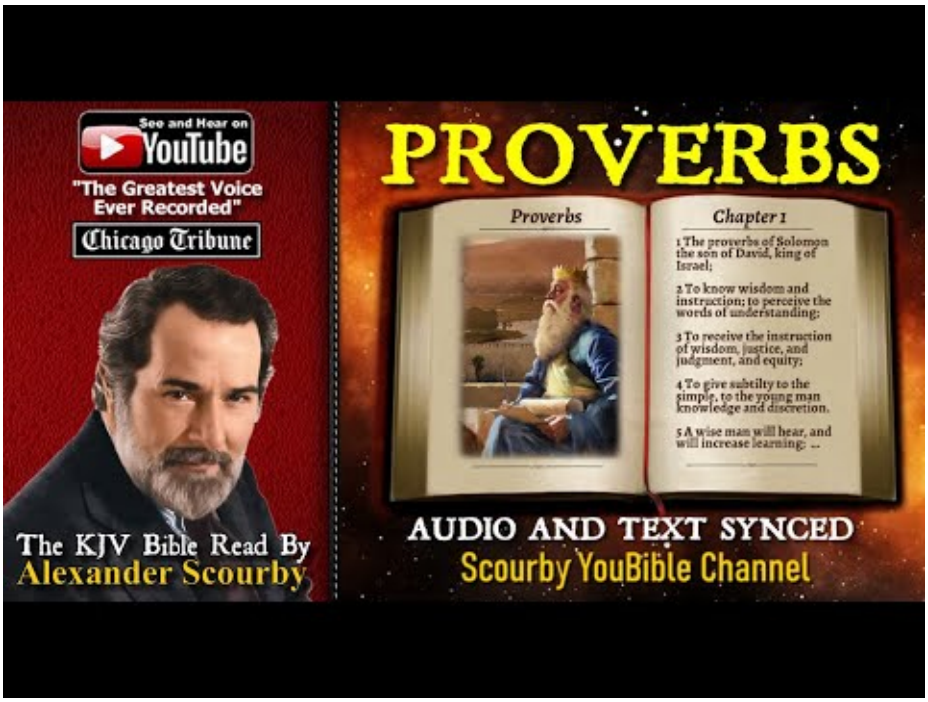
6.1.7 Listen To The Old Testament Book Of Proverbs Regularly For Wisdom (2025-01-09 17:15)

Proverbs 4:7, "



Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore get wisdom: and with all thy getting get understanding. "

I love the inspired book of Proverbs in the Holy Bible! I don't know about you, but in the past I have said some foolish things that I later wish I hadn't said. One of the many things that I love about God's book of Proverbs for humanity is that much is said about keeping one's mouth shut. Let's face it, we all tend to talk too much. I sometimes wonder if God made us with two ears and one mouth, to teach us that we ought to listen twice as much as we talk. The adage is true: You cannot listen until you are willing to hear.

Lord willing, I will turn 58 years old on March 5th, 2025. I've never been the type of person to make New Years resolutions, but I think it's a good idea to at least have some general ideas about things we'd like to improve each year. One of my goals each new year is to: SIN less, SAY less and SIT less! I learned this great truth from one of my favorite Bible preachers, Pastor Danny Castle, from his life-changing sermon titled: '[1]If I Could Live 2010 Again.'

Having said that dear reader, here is Alexander Scourby (1913-1985) reading the book of PROVERBS. I encourage you to bookmark this video and listen to it weekly from now on:

Proverbs

I just heard a precious Scripture read from Proverbs 29:10, "

The bloodthirsty hate the upright: but the just seek his soul.

" I love that! This is a beautiful snapshot of our dear Savior and Lord, Jesus. The Lord was hated by the bloodthirsty religious Pharisees and unsaved Jews, who were thirsty for His blood. That is, they were trying to murder Him (John 10:33). Yet, our beautiful Savior sought the salvation of their soul. I cannot think of a more appropriate verse to describe our precious Redeemer. After the brute Roman soldiers had spat upon, stripped naked, driven a piercing crown of thorns into His head, beat Him to a pulp and crucified Jesus upon a cross, and further humiliated Him by mocking and taunting Christ as He suffered in excruciating pain on the cross

—Jesus uttered the astonishing words: "Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do

" (Luke 23:34b).

Proverbs 29:10, "

7570

The bloodthirsty hate the upright: but the just seek his soul.

” We should all learn a divine lesson from this Scripture. That truth is that even when wicked sinners torment, persecute and afflict is in their hatred for Jesus Christ (John 7:7), we ought to emulate our dear Savior’s love and wisdom by seeking the salvation of their soul. That is, we should love them unconditionally with God’s love. We should keep praying for God to convict their heart and work in their life to bring them to Christ.

We should view the unsaved who afflict us as being broken instead of bad. They don’t fully realize what they are doing. What saith the Scripture? 1st Corinthians 2:7-8,

“

But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom, which God ordained before the world unto our glory:

Which none of the princes of this world knew: for had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.

” Before the Apostle Paul was saved, he was named Saul. As such, he relentlessly persecuted the Christians in his hatred. It is commonly believed that it was Paul (then Saul) who held the garments of the Jews who murdered Stephen in Acts 7. Acts 7:58, “

And cast him [Stephen] out of the city, and stoned him: and the witnesses laid down their clothes at a young man’s feet, whose name was Saul.

I Was Persecuted For Decades In The Secular Workplace

If you are a born again Christian and you are living separated from this terrible world of sin

—the world will persecute you (2nd Timothy 3:12). All my working life, for decades, I had been horribly persecuted in the workplace for my faith. If you are a Christian the whole world is waiting for you to fall. I had my work uniforms stolen twice when I worked as a mechanic. I had nude centerfolds placed on my locker. I found booze bottles in my toolbox. One man spat upon me in the workplace. My equipment that I was responsible to maintain was sabotaged to make extra work for me. One wicked man blocked the urinal and flushed it to flood the entire restroom while I was in there. One ungodly man stole my keys (car, house, et cetera).

Another unsaved man in his hatred for Christ threw a 3-pound sledge hammer at me and thankfully missed. Another man threatened twice to kill me. Thankfully he did it in front of an Operations Supervisor at the U.S. Postal Service when I lived on Guam. I filed an EEO (Equal Employment Opportunity) complaint because my rights were being violated and I was awarded $42,000 in damages in 2009. The Post Master was terminated for not doing his job. Sometimes you have to fight back or those evil punks would have had me fired, or worse. I led a co-worker to Christ at that job, and two more where I previously worked in Chicago. As a Christian you need to watch your back Jack! Abusive people will do to you whatever you let them do to you. Thankfully, unlike most places in the world today, we do have legal protections in America (unless you are a human being in your mother’s womb, then you have no rights).

There is a fine line between faith and foolishness! I once knew a Caucasian young Christian man. He was taking a nap on the back seat on a church bus on Chicago’s southside. Am ungodly minority punk gangster opened the rear door and crushed-in the entire side of that Christian young man’s face with an aluminum baseball bat, while he was sleeping. The surgeons had to operate for several hours through his nose to reconstruct his left jaw. When I saw that young man with his face all wired shut, I kindly asked him if he called the police to file a report. He said he hadn't and wasn't going to. I was shocked and asked him why. He calmly said, "What would Jesus do?" Dear reader, that guy is a darn fool! By doing nothing he is ensuring that there will be further victims. That was about 35 years ago.

If you are a victim of a crime, you should call the police. God never intended for you to look the other way when a crime has been committed. Sometimes you need to fight back when you are in the right. There is another true adage: You must choose your battles wisely. I couldn't fight every abusive incident, every hurtful word and every injury in my life. In nearly every case it was my word against someone else's who had violated me, and the police or management couldn't do anything since there was no evidence.

Then again, in some cases I did have any evidence of abuse, but wicked managers looked the other way and didn't care, which is why I needed to file an EEO complaint in 2006 against my employer. I was being forced to struggle in a Hostile Work Environment, while a group of punks were having a fun time persecuting, stalking and harassing me, making my life hell on earth. God will also be their Judge.

By the way, just for your information, if you are ever being harassed or victimized by someone, keep a diary of every incident. Write down what happened, what was said, the date, time and place. Even though it will boil down to your word against someone else's, keeping a log of the incidents is powerful evidence if things escalate and the police need to get involved, or a lawyer or you go to court, like I did. I am so glad that I recorded every incident, writing down all the details. And if you are working in the workplace dear reader, you would be wise to learn about YOUR RIGHTS. Join the union if you haven't already, because that protects you. Learn the union book rules well and become an expert on policies, rules and laws which impact you. The old adage is very true: Knowledge is power. And if you are a working man with a family, you should learn all about the Family Medical Leave Act (FMLA). You are entitled to take time off work, by law, to care for a pregnant wife, sick family members, et cetera.

We all need knowledge and wisdom, especially God's knowledge and wisdom. Someone has said that knowledge is knowing that a tomato is classified as a fruit, but wisdom is knowing not to put tomatoes in a fruit salad. I like that. Knowledge is knowing your rights in the workplace, and your rights as a citizen of the United States. Wisdom is knowing when to stand up for your rights and take the necessary action. People often feel fear and stress in the workplace because they simply don't know how to handle an ongoing bad situation. I didn't learn what my Bill of Rights was until 2001 when I started my Jesus-is-Savior.com website ministry. I was already 34 years old! That is sad. Do you know your [2]Bill of Rights dear friend?

You Have Every Legal Right To Pray Out Loud Publicly

When I went to Norman, Oklahoma, in 1999 for job training, I was walking alone outside the facility on my own time, praying outloud to God as I walked. Two punk security guards approached me and said that a woman complained that there was "a crazy guy outside talking to himself." I was deeply hurt by his rude remark. They wouldn't tell me who the woman was. I had been walking alone on a big field with a walking pathway, and as far as I could tell there was no one else around. I told the guards that perhaps I had been praying, because really it was none of there business. They one thug guard violated my rights (but I didn't know it at the time) when he horribly said: "Why don't you go and pray in your room." I don't like police or security for that very reason, that many of them are abusive and bullies. So I ended my walk and went up to my room.

In hindsight 26 years later, I have often deeply regretted that I didn't know about my Bill of Rights back in 1999, because the first thing I would have done is continue praying outloud while I was walking, just hoping that those two stupid fascist guards did something to me. If they had, I would have had a million dollar lawsuit against the U.S. Postal Service! Folks, this is not communist North Korea. I was 32 years old at the time and ignorant of my rights.

Second, I would have called an attorney right away, to see if I could sue my employer for [3]violating my rights to free speech and religion. You as an American have every legal right and protections to pray outloud in public. Effectively, if you don't stand up for your rights, you don't have any! We've all seen it with cops and security types—when someone gives them a badge and a gun with some authority—they abuse it;

they become a fool with a John Wayne attitude, always looking for trouble and eager to bully others with their peon power.

Police Abusive Is Increasing Across America

For this good reason, for years now I have avoided big public events where there is an increased police presence and heightened security. There's just to many ungodly idiots with badges these days! That sadly includes interacting with the local police. When a punk stole my Amazon.com delivered package on May10th, 2024, I called the local sheriff's department. Two young goons came to my residence, looking like punk gang members. The female in particular was covered with ugly multi-colored tattoos all up and down her arms.

I live in West Pensacola, which is considered rural and not part of the official city of Pensacola, even though I'm just 10 minutes from downtown Pensacola. My address still says Pensacola. That's weird. Anyway, the female cop looked like a retarded circus clown! This is American society today, and it's a shameful disgrace. Ladies, please DON'T pollute your God-given fleshly beauty with manmade tattoos. As a normal man, and I can speak for men in general, I love plain old skin on a woman with no markings, butt-lifts, rhinoplasties or plastic surgery. I love a woman without any makeup, and a long dress turns me on more than a miniskirt does. Virtue and chastity are major turn-ons for real men. I digress.

I showed my home video security camera recording to the cops, in which you can clearly see the thief's face. To add insult to injury, when I told the police that Amazon kindly replaced the stolen $30 item free of charge, the cops said even if they did catch the thief, there was nothing that they could do. They said Amazon is the victim now, since they replaced the stolen item. That is so awful! Amazon would have to prosecute the thief. That is so messed up and corrupt! I complained about that to the Sheriff's Office too. I told them no wonder theft is so bad in West Pensacola, when the police are telling victims that there's nothing they can do! This country is getting worse and worse every day.

We All Need God's Wisdom

I could share hundreds more stories with you of disturbing things I've seen and personally experienced in my lifetime. One thing that I've learned is that I desperately need God's wisdom. The inspired King James Bible is our INSTRUCTION BOOK on how to live. The old adage is true: When all else fails, read the instructions. Most people will refuse to read God's Word until their life is in absolute shambles and everything is in chaos! It doesn't have to be that way dear friend. We all wise-up eventually. Wouldn't it be great if we'd wise-up before ruining our lives, and ruining the lives of others?

Proverbs 4:7, "

Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore get wisdom: and with all thy getting get understanding. " Wisdom is the most important thing in a person's life, next to being born again so you can have eternal life (John 3:1-7). Knowledge can be acquired through learning (books, social media, college), perception (learning from watching others; their mistakes and successes) and experience (what happens directly to us); but wisdom cannot be acquired those ways, it is a gift from God. James 1:5,

“

If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him.

” Have you ever asked God to give you wisdom?

I love the book of Proverbs! I just heard another great Scripture from Proverbs 29:20, “Seest thou a man that is hasty in his words? there is more hope of a fool than of him.” May we all learn to hesitate before speaking. I need to work on this for sure. I live alone without a wife, so when I am in the presence of people, I desire to talk as much as I can. That puts me in a more vulnerable position, so that I need to especially be careful what words leave my mouth. Jesus warned in Matthew 15:19-20, “ For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies:

These are the things which defile a man: but to eat with unwashen hands defileth not a man.

The prophet Jeremiah 17:9. “The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it?” The human heart should never be trusted. That is Proverbs 3:5-7 exhorts us not to lean upon our own understanding; but rather, we should trust in the Lord, departing from iniquity, and acknowledging Him in all our ways. Jesus said in Mark 11:22b, “Have faith in God.” Every day we should pray for God to give us wisdom. We need wisdom to live. We need wisdom to serve God by leading lost sinners to Christ with the Gospel. Knowledge is useless without wisdom how to apply it.

My favorite Bible verse for many years now has been Proverbs 4:23, “

Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life.

” The Hebrew word for

“

keep

in this verse is natsar, which means:

“to guard, in a good sense (to protect, maintain).”

This Scripture means to be on guard always!

We must guard what we allow to enter into our heart, and what we choose to dwell upon in our thoughts (our heart), because such things will ultimately affect our behavior. Only a fool harbors hatred, lust, bitterness and anger on a continual basis. Life is too short to live with a burden of hatred.

There are numerous wicked religious people who have deeply hurt me, but I don’t hate anyone. I have put them into God’s hands for judgment (Romans 12:19-21; Galatians 6:7).

Case In point, I loathe arrogant pastors like Marty Herron and Jeff Redlin who get paid sickening 6-digit salaries to corrupt people, who have no regard for the truth of God’s inspired Word. Both of the names of contemptible false prophets I just mentioned preach the Satanic falsehood of Lordship Salvation. Jeff Redlin is the incompetent senior pastor of Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College. [4]Look what evil doctrine PCC is teaching today! Pastor Redlin is a fool for bidding Godspeed to doctrines of devils (2nd John 1:11; 1st Timothy 4:1).

I heard Pastor Marty Herron with my own two ears, at the ungodly Harvest Baptist Church on Guam in 2014, tell hundreds of people in his Sunday morning sermon that it is not enough to admit being a sinner to be saved, but (he said) you must also forsake a lifestyle of sinning to get to Heaven. That is blasphemy against the truth of the Gospel! Pastor Herron is personal buddies with infidel Dr. Steve Pettit (the longtime incompetent president of Bob Jones University from 2014 to 2023). These men are evil. Look at the [5]demonic Calvinist Lordship Salvation preached by Steve Pettit. This is exactly what Marty Herron and company teach. Dr. Herron quit as senior pastor of Harvest Baptist Church on Guam in 2018, and is now the horrible incompetent vice president of Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary in Ankeny, Iowa. These ungodly false prophets will take you to Hell forever with themselves, if you foolishly let them. RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!

Dear reader, wisdom is having the courage to expose false teachers and their damnable lies. Proverbs 9:10, "

The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom: and the knowledge of the holy is understanding.

" I fear God. Men who don't care about right doctrine, who choose to merely go along to get along with their corrupt neo-evangelical peers, do not fear God. For if they did fear God, they would heed THE TRUTH even if it meant standing alone as I have done all these many years.

In late 2014, I was banished from attending Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. My great fault was caring enough to befriend the ignorant pastors of Harvest with:

1. THE TRUTH that Lordship Salvation is a perversion of God's grace
2. THE TRUTH that the modern English Bible revisions are all corrupt
3. THE TRUTH that Martin Luther (1483-1546) taught the damnable heresy of Baptismal Regeneration all his life and couldn't have been a born again Christian
4. THE TRUTH that repentance does not men to forsake a lifestyle of sinning to get to Heaven

Proverbs 12:17, "He that speaketh truth sheweth forth righteousness: but a false witness deceit." I TOLD THE TRUTH, for which I was formally called into the church office and falsely accused by the wicked pastors of Harvest Baptist Church on Guam of "causing confusion and divisiveness in the church." They forbade me to speak THE TRUTH anymore about the aforementioned items. That's like forbidding a bird to fly anymore! That's like forbidding a dog from barking anymore. I was saddened, offended and shocked that I was being told by pastors NOT to TELL THE TRUTH at church. They have much blood on their hands, for rejecting THE TRUTH (Hosea 4:6). My Bible preaching will be avenged by God.

I was the only one who did the right thing at Harvest. I told THE TRUTH, but they wickedly counted me as their enemy (Galatians 4:16). Proverbs 17:13, "

Whoso rewardeth evil for good, evil shall not depart from his house."

They rewarded me EVIL FOR MY GOOD! The wicked pastors at Pensacola Christian College did the same evil thing to me. As of August 2, 2022 I have been banned in writing from attending Campus Church. PCC and Campus Church have blocked me from even reading their Facebook pages. PCC's evil leaders rewarded EVIL FOR MY GOOD, which means evil shall not depart from PCC's house! Evil will not depart from Marty Herron's house. God's curse is upon these Lordship Salvation heretics! They all threw me under the bus for TELLING THE TRUTH!!!

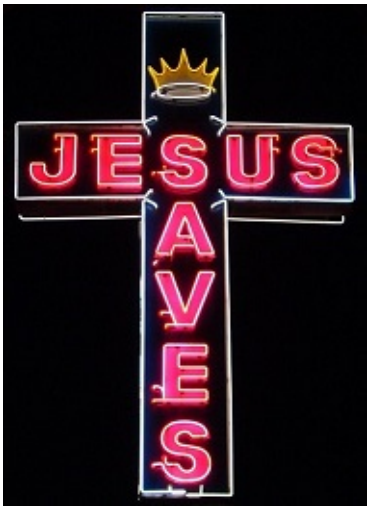
Proverbs 12:19, "

The lip of truth shall be established for ever: but a lying tongue is but for a moment.



" I have told THE TRUTH that a free grace Gospel is biblical, but Lordship Salvation is a deadly perversion of God's grace. We find biblical proof that Lordship Salvation is false in Matthew 7:21-23. Those people boasted to Christ of having done not just a few, but many wonderful works.

" They also bragged about prophesying (preaching) in Jesus' name wherever they went. They bragged of casting out devils in Jesus' name. They called Jesus "Lord, Lord." Sadly, they had never been born again. Jesus denounced them, literally calling them WORKERS OF INIQUITY. They failed to do the will of God to be saved, which according to John 6:40 is to BELIEVE ON JESUS. Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born again (John 3:3).

Thank you for reading. Jesus is precious!

6.1.8 Don't Ever Allow Anyone To Intimidate You Not To Pray Aloud In Public (2025-01-11 18:24)

Philippians 4:6-7, "Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus. ”

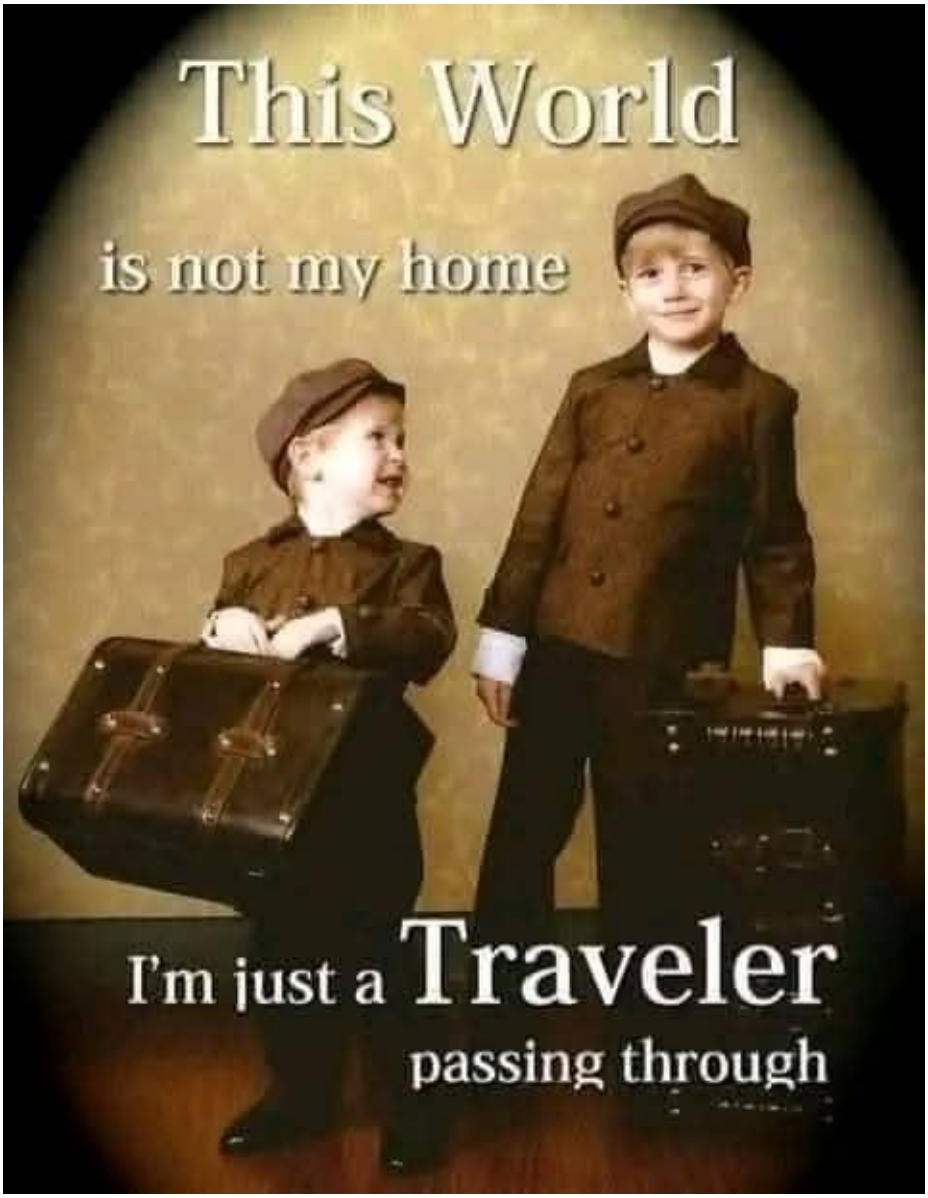
In 1999, when I was sent by the U.S. Postal Service for maintenance training in Norman, Oklahoma, I was horribly told by a punk security guard to go pray in my hotel room, because someone had allegedly complained that I was talking to myself. He violated my legal rights to freedom of speech and religion.



[1]Know Your Rights To Pray In Public

I had been praying out loud as I walked outside alone, on the designated walking path in a big field, talking to the Lord. It is sad that we live in a faithless world of unbelievers. Had I known about my rights, I wouldn't have felt intimidated, and I would have continued walking and praying out loud; and then called an attorney to start a $5,000,000 lawsuit against the U.S. Postal Service if their thug security guards did something to stop me from praying in public. That was the last time I ever stepped foot into the training center, because I refused to go. This is not communist North Korea! It will always bother me that I ignorantly allowed those bullies to violate my freedom of religion and speech.

In 1999, I didn't know my Bill of Rights. If my life had depended on it, at age 32, I couldn't have told you what the First Amendment was. But in 2002, I finally woke up from my American slumber—I learned about Alex Jones, the New World Order, my Bill of Rights (the first 10 amendments to the U.S. Constitution), and I started my website ministry to PREACH THE TRUTH!!!

This coming April 2025 will be the 23rd year of my [2]Jesus-is-Savior.com website ministry. To God be all the praise, credit and glory (John 15:5). Jesus is precious! Over the past 22 years I have encountered many enemies along the way, by God's grace I've thankfully led countless lost sinners to Jesus Christ, and I've even made a few friends. My life is the Lord's—good and bad alike—the Lord knew that I would fail Him before I was even conceived, yet He loved me and gave Himself for me on the cross (Romans 5:6-9). [illegible] "[illegible]

In the past, I have been horribly accused by foolish laymen and incompetent pastors alike of finding weakness in preachers and of being judgmental toward others; but in reality, for the past 22 years as an evangelist preacher, I have taken a biblical stand against the evildoers. [illegible] "[illegible]" I have honored God with my earnest labors, night and day, faithfully running the course for Jesus Christ. Thank you for reading my blog.

6.1.9 Shame On Any Church That Supports Ken Ham And 'Answers-In-Genesis' (2025-01-12 16:55)

Titus 1:9-14, "Holding fast the faithful word as he hath been taught, that he may be able by sound doctrine both to exhort and to convince the gainsayers. For there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, specially they of the circumcision: Whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre's sake. One of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The Cretians are alway liars, evil beasts, slow bellies. This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith; Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men, that turn from the truth."

It grieves my heart that Pensacola Christian College, their pathetic Campus Church, and corrupt churches nationwide continue to wickedly bid Godspeed to Ken Ham and his Answers-in-Genesis cesspool of iniquity. [illegible] "[illegible]" Nobody is born again who trusts in their own efforts to turn away from their sinful bad habits. That is works!

Some people are quick to rebuke me for pointing out the problems in churches today, but it needs to be done! ...

> "[illegible]!" —[illegible], "[1][illegible]"
> *By the way, here is [2]my cherish collection of 3,334 sermons and Bible studies by my favorite Bible preacher, Dr. Jack Hyles)

I have been shunned by pastors, received dirty looks from haughty pastor's wives, had insults hurled at me from ignorant church members for many years—for my well-known website ministry in which I take an uncompromising biblical stand against doctrinal, ecclesiastical, and moral error. If the shoe fits, wear it! The vast majority of today's so-called "churches" are spiritually waning (a gradual decrease in magnitude or extent) and wanning (to become pale and sickly). Most Baptist churches today are pathetic!

THE TRUTH offends those who resist it! The folks at [3]Pensacola Christian College (PCC) are pulling on the same rope as the Devil, and so are all the local churches who support and follow their counterfeit plan of salvation, which requires that you first be willing to forsake your sinful bad habits to be saved. PCC and Ken Ham errantly understand this to be Bible "repentance." They are woefully deceived.

[4]The FALSE GOSPEL Of ANSWERS IN GENESIS And KEN HAM

There is a BIG difference between a church not being perfect, versus a church that doesn't want to be perfect. These churches that blindly follow the PCC cult, couldn't care less about RIGHT DOCTRINE! They only care about being accepted by PCC. I am not going to bow to some almighty, idolatrous, overgrown for their britches, egotistical religious school who have wickedly added to God's inspired Words (Proverbs 30:5-6).

SHAME on PCC! SHAME on Ken Ham and Answers-in-Genesis! SHAME on any pastor and church who support, go along with, honor, invite or bid Godspeed to infidels' [5]Ken Ham, [6]Billy Graham, Franklin Graham, [7]John Calvin or [8]John Piper, et cetera. These evil men are enemies of the cross of Jesus Christ! They all preach a distorted perverse view of God's simple plan of salvation. If my words offend you friend, then repent of your false religion, get right with God and start caring about THE TRUTH, because RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!

6.1.10 Divorce Should Be Against The Law (2025-01-13 16:10)

Matthew 19:5-10, "And said, For this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife: and they twain shall be one flesh? Wherefore they are no more twain, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder. They say unto him, Why did Moses then command to give a writing of divorcement, and to put her away? He saith unto them, Moses because of the hardness of your hearts suffered you to put away your wives: but from the beginning it was not so. And I say unto you, Whosoever shall put away his wife, except it be for fornication, and shall marry another, committeth adultery: and whoso marrieth her which is put away doth commit adultery. His disciples say unto him, If the case of the man be so with his wife, it is not good to marry."

Divorce is a very horrible sin. Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) was absolutely right that divorce is a sin that perpetuates for a lifetime. I am sadly the victim of an unwanted divorce. My disloyal former wife selfishly abandoned and divorced me in 2006 at a difficult time in our lives. The old adage is true: Adversely doesn't build character, it reveals one's character.

Consequently, I have reluctantly lived alone for the past 19 years. I was severely rear-ended by a church bus in 1992, which accident permanently misaligned my neck, causing a deteriorating medical condition. In 2004 when my neck pain and stiffness began, I was diagnosed by a neurosurgeon with Cervical Degenerative Disk Disease in 2004. I underwent two major neck surgeries in 2009 and 2010. I was all alone throughout those years. I've never been blessed to find a woman to remarry. I hate divorce and so does God. In filing for divorce, a person is claiming to be a lesser sinner than their spouse, which is hypocrisy. NO ONE has biblical grounds to file for divorce!!! God hates divorce. Jeremiah 3:20, "Surely as a wife treacherously departeth from her husband, so have ye dealt treacherously with me, O house of Israel, saith the LORD."

At some point in nearly everyone's marriage, they contemplate getting a divorce. If divorce were illegal in America, as it is in the Philippines (and it should be illegal), I would still be married and we would have worked things out. Jesus foretold in Matthew 24:37-39, "But as the days of Noe were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

For as in the days that were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark,

And knew not until the flood came, and took them all away; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

" We are living in the last days, when people just want to enjoy entertainment, wine and dine, and go from one failed marriage to the next without even trying to work out their marital troubles.

I begged my x-wife through tears in my eyes to please call off the divorce. Her exact cruel words to me were:

"No, and I have no remorse, no regrets and no tears!" She never shed a single tear! That was 19 years ago. I forgave her long ago, knowing that God will be her only Judge (Romans 12:19-21). I have had no choice but to move forward with my life, which hasn't been easy. I live with a broken heart. am often reminded of Jesus' precious words in Mark 11:22b, "Have faith in God." As for me, myself and I, we will serve the Lord (Joshua 24:15).

I have heard some pastors browbeat, scold and preach sermons against the MGTOW movement. That is, Men Going Their Own Way. But as a divorced man who painfully knows what can happen to a married man in the ungodly feminist-biased courts of America, I can say confidently that the MGTOW movement would vanish overnight if divorce were outlawed. The reason why many men are going their own way and refuse to get married anymore, is simply because of the unfair wicked court system that makes it very easy for an unhappy wife to get a divorce. That is pure evil. Nobody should be able to easily quit their marriage vows, abandon their spouse who trusted them to be faithful unto death, and selfishly go their own merry way. That is what my former wife did to me, because the wicked courts empowered her to rebel.

should never be mentioned in a marriage. Please erase that word from your vocabulary. Divorce has tragically become a $50,000,000,000 per year evil racket in the United States. Covetous lawyers, judges and courts prosper financially from the ruin of your marriage. There are no checks and balances in place to salvage someone’s struggling marriage. The entire evil court system is designed to destroy your marriage! That is why the MGTOW movement exists and is growing by leaps and bounds each year. Men are afraid to get married, knowing that if their wife becomes disgruntled a few years into the marriage, she can just call a shady lawyer and get a divorce, taking half of everything that a man owns.

Getting Married Today Comes With Very High Risks

My good ministry friend, Curtis Smale (1965-2022) would have been 60 years old today! Today is January 13th, which is Curtis’ birthday. He graduated to Heaven on January 17th, 2022. Over a 5-year period, me and Curtis exchanged 1,500 ministry emails. He was a prolific writer and hated the Devil’s lie of Lordship Salvation. We were soldiers together for Jesus Christ in the fox holes of social media (2nd Timothy 2:3-4), fighting the good fight of faith (1st Timothy 6:12).

> Marriage seems like a really good deal for men in America today.
>
> First, you work hard to get a used woman who’s screwed up her soul emotionally by having sex with 5 to 50 men (The more attractive the woman the higher the number of sex partners. kind of like a used car with and endless supply of mechanical problems that you pay new car Prices for.)
>
> But make sure to give her the best, and faithfulness and adoration.
>
> She thinks she’s perfect: she’s rebellious, angry, and very unsatisfied.
>
> As an added benefit, after the wedding, she doesn’t take care of herself, tries to control your life, is domineering, and is not submissive or feminine.
>
> She is lazy and often doesn’t work outside the home long after the children are able to take care of themselves.
>
> She complains and nags you constantly, manipulates you and controls you and denies you sex, all while you work hard to provide for her and the children (sometimes, not your children) and protect and defend your family.
>
> Then, when your youngest child or your marriage are around 18 years old, her testosterone starts kicking in, and she has lost the flower of youth and wants to prove her sexual attractiveness to herself, so she cheats on you, and has a secret abortion child murder.
>
> Then she takes more than half of everything that you worked for, ends your sex life, destroys you emotionally, and blocks you from seeing your children, all with the > approval of society and the courts. (This, in whole or in part, has happened to 15 men I know personally.)

>

Amen and amen! I feel the same way as did my ministry friend, Curtis.

Evil People Will Ruin Your Marriage

And may I kindly warn you—evil people will eagerly destroy your marriage if you are weak and listen to their poisonous snake advice (like the malicious serpent fed toxic lies to Eve). My x-wife's mind was poisoned by a wicked Baptist pastor's meddling wife, and three other feminists who all convinced her to file for divorce to show her empowerment to be free. That is the big lie that feminists feeds to married woman. Feminism is rebellion, which the Bible equates with the sin of witchcraft, and stubbornness as the sin of idolatry (1st Samuel 15:23).

Some of the seemingly nicest people can become your marriage's worst enemy if you let them...

> "The wrong crowd's composed of nice guys!" —Pastor Jack Hyles, "[1]She Sojourned Seven Years"

BEWARE of people! No marriage can be destroyed from outside forces; it can only be destroyed from within. A wife who is weak-minded and feeble is vulnerable to devils. Humans are notoriously guilty of giving bad advice! When a marriage is struggling, godly women will counsel a wife to go back to her husband; or at a minimum whatever she does, not to file for divorce. Divorce is the cowards way out! The face of a coward is the back of someone's head as they run away from a battle! I have more respect for a harlot on the street, than I do for a professed Christian woman who divorces her husband.

No One Has Biblical Grounds For Divorce

Do you know that Gloria Chapman, the wife of Mark Chapman who murdered John Lennon in 1980, is still married to Mark? Mark and Gloria had only been married for a year, in 1979, and there were police photos on record of Mark beating Gloria. Then Mark flew from Hawaii (where Gloria still lives today in 2025) to Georgia, to borrow a .22 caliber gun from a friend who was a police officer. Then Mark flew to New York and wickedly shot John Lennon five times. Four of the five bullets hit John. The two in his lungs killed him. What a psycho!

Mark later told the parole board that his original plans considered murdering George C. Scott and other celebrities, but Mark chose John because he was the easiest to access in New York.

Mark asked John to sign John's latest album, and he did. Then John asked if there was anything that he could do for Mark, and the scumbag murdered him. So sad. Anyway, my point is that even after being abused by her new husband, and even after her husband murdered John Lennon, Gloria stayed faithful to her marriage vows, for which I highly respect her. By the way, Gloria has been a born again Christian for all those years, since she was young. In view of Gloria's honorable faithfulness to her marriage vows, how shameful in comparison are so many Christian wives who abandon and divorce their husbands. Lord willing, if I ever have the privilege to find a Christian woman to remarry, over my dead body will I ever file for divorce.

God Intended Marriage To Be For Life

Divorce should be against the law in every country!!! A marriage is like plywood. You cannot take plywood apart. It is made by taking smaller pieces of wood (or sawdust) and gluing them together under intense heat and pressure in a special big machine. If you try to take a piece of plywood apart, it will splinter into a thousand pieces and be totally ruined and unusable. Likewise, a marriage is formed over years of time, and biological children are born from the union of a man and a woman, and there is no way to take apart that marriage without utterly destroying it! Matthew 19:5, "And said, For this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife: and they twain shall be one flesh?" The Greek word for "cleave" in this passage means "glued." In holy matrimony, a man and a woman are glued together in God's sight, never to be separated. Divorce is an abomination in God's sight.

When Eve sinned, she had THREE seemingly good reasons (excuses) for her decision to disobey God and eat the forbidden fruit (Genesis 3:1-5). But in every case of humans doing the things they do— it will NEVER be the cited reasons for why they did what they did; the true reason will ALWAYS be that they did what they wanted to do, and used the cited reasons afterward to justify their decision. We all do what we want to do, and then look for excuses to justify our decision. This is the standard human method of operation.

I have noticed that whenever women file for divorce, they provide excuses why they did it, seeking justification in the eyes of others. Only an ungodly fool would agree with her. One woman confided in me that she divorced her husband, because he looked at some smutty images online, and cheated on her with another woman. I stayed quiet to be a gentleman, but I felt like congratulating her that she is so much better than her former husband, a perfect angel no doubt. The truth is that she was condemning her former husband, claiming that he was a bigger sinner (in her self righteous eyes) than she was (Matthew 7:1-5). The Bible teaches that we are all woeful guilty wicked sinners! Divorce is a self-righteous act.

Once Married, Always Married.

6.1.11 What Do I Think About The California Fires? (2025-01-14 16:41)

Romans 5:12-13, “

Wherefore, as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned: (For until the law sin was in the world: but sin is not imputed when there is no law.”

I heard Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) say on numerous occasions in his preaching, that every week of his ministry for decades he read the entire book or Proverbs. I have often remembered what Brother Hyles said and I try to regularly [1]listen to Alexander Scourby read the Proverbs. Last week I listened twice to the entire book of Proverbs. You can listen to the entire book of Proverbs in just 98 minutes! That's not bad at all. You can [2]listen to the entire King James Bible be read to you in just 75 hours!!! I love that. There's no reason why a child of God cannot hear the entire Bible read several times each year. If you prefer, you can listen to [3]Willard Waggoner instead read the whole inspired King James Bible.

I was thinking today (Did you smell wood burning?). I was trying to think of some Scripture passages appropriate for the California fires, which has so far destroyed over 12,000 homes, and killed 24 people. It is sad and heartbreaking. One dear woman who was 95 years old burned alive in her own home. She was simply too old to escape the raging inferno!

Incompetent Leadership To Blame For Fire Damage

I've heard in the news this week that the [4]governor of California is fully to blame for the disaster, because he knowingly rejected a plan to use billions of gallons of run-off rainwater to accommodate California's desperate need for water. Everything rises and falls on leadership! Anyone who lives in the state of California fully knows that the state is prone to dry seasons, strong San Andreas hurricane-force winds and forest fires. Fires are nothing new to California. Smokey The Bear was right:

"Only you can prevent forest fires!"

To add injury to insult, the [5]incompetent mayor of Los Angeles defunded the local fire departments, stripping away $17,000,000 of resources from the fire department. Both the governor of California and the mayor of Los Angeles should be in prison! Having said that, a Bible passage came to mind today from Proverbs 6:10-11. " Yet a little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep: So shall thy poverty come as one that travelleth, and thy want as an armed man." When the firemen connected their firehoses to the fire-hydrants, there was no water. The firemen had to shamefully resort to using water from resident's swimming pools to fight the devastating fires. The dear firemen have been fighting against wildfires driven by winds gusting at 100 mph.

The Los Angeles Fires Are Not God's Judgment

Ecclesiastes 9:11, "I returned, and saw under the sun, that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favour to men of skill; but time and chance happeneth to them all."

The Bible teaches that there is such a thing as " luck." Ecclesiastes 9:11 says that "time and chance happeneth to all." That means we are all vulnerable to chance. We all heard the old adage: It was the wrong place at the wrong time. Well, that adage is FALSE! Think about it. How can you be in the wrong place at the wrong time? You cannot. If it was the wrong time, then you wouldn't be there! It is possible to be in the right place at the right time. It is also possible to be in the wrong place at the right time. And you could also be in the right place at the wrong time. But you simply cannot be in the wrong place at the wrong time! Please don't forget that.

God is not raining down fire upon Los Angeles. Nor did God judge New Orleans in 2005 when Hurricane Katrina wreaked havoc on the city. The [6]9/11 attacks were clearly an Inside Job, which even [7]Rudy Dent (a 32-year retired NYC firefighter) said was an Inside Job that murdered 343 of his firefighter brethren. 9/11 was not God's judgment upon the USA, it was a conspiracy by a subversive faction working within our own high government. Remember, the Bible teaches that our battle as Christians is " against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places

" (Ephesians 6:12b).

California has been prone to forest fires for millenniums. If the local mayor hadn't defunded the fire department of $17,000,000; and if the state's yuppie governor had cared enough to prepare for such emergencies, giving the people the much needed rainwater run-off, then the present calamity wouldn't have happened. This disaster was manmade! The 9/11 attacks were manmade! The Oklahoma City Bombing in 1995 was manmade! God didn't do these things.

We live in a fallen world because of sin in general, so that bad things happen to everyone. If you are driving down the highway at a high speed and your tire suddenly blows out, and your car crashes and you perish, it was an accident. God wasn't judging you! Some superstitious people foolishly think that God is punishing them every time they sneeze.

> "Ladies and gentlemen, this is a jungle we live in here. Life is a veil of tears." —Pastor Jack Hyles, "[8]The Patient Waiting Of Christ"

Children are innocent, yet they oftentimes suffer with cancer and from other afflictions in this world. I don't think God is fair to let that happen. I have a problem with an omnibenevolent, omniscient, omnipotent and omnipresent God allowing little children to be hurt, abused and suffer. Albeit, I am not going to condemn God in my own limited mortal thinking. What saith the Scripture? Isaiah 55:8-9, "For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the LORD. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts." Thankfully we don't have to understand God to please Him; we just need to trust Him.

Except Ye Repent, Ye Shall All Likewise Perish

I saw a meme on Facebook asking people to pray for California. It bothers me when tragedy happens, and only then people want to start praying. California is getting what they deserve for being one of the most evil places on earth. Hollywood is a curse upon America—one thousand times worse than Sodom. San Francisco is infamous for their high homosexual population. Los Angeles has completely ignored the cries of 70,000 homeless victims of our covetousness culture of pleasure-seekers, fornicators, abortionists, nudists and blasphemers.

My only prayer for Californians is that they repent to get saved. The proper attitude of a Christian is not that God should destroy the wicked, but that they might come to repentance to be saved (Luke 9:52-56). The world's judgment will come soon enough (Isaiah 13:11). When told about 18 people who died in a local disaster when the wall of Siloam fell, Jesus warned in Luke 13:1-5 that “except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.” This Scriptural warning is perfectly applicable today regarding the fires in California. The United States is in big trouble with God! We are guilty are murdering over 63,000,000 babies in the womb by abortion. Abortion is cold-blooded, premeditated,

first-degree MURDER!

I humbly am fully convinced that Revelation chapter 18 vividly describes the future total destruction of the United States by a nuclear holocaust. Revelation 18:8-10,

“

Therefore shall her plagues come in one day*, death, and mourning, and famine; and she shall be utterly burned with fire: for strong is the Lord God who judgeth her.

And the kings of the earth, who have committed fornication and lived deliciously with her, shall bewail her, and lament for her, when they shall see the smoke of her burning,

Standing afar off for the fear of her torment, saying, Alas, alas, that great city Babylon, that mighty city! for in one hour is thy judgment come.

” In just one day death, mourning and famine will come the Bible says.

It all makes perfect sense. If there is a nuclear attack from Russia, China and/or North Korea in the future against the United States, the roads will be unusable. The food will stop coming into the cities. Crime will skyrocket. Just in California this past week, there have been nearly 100 arrests for looting and burglary. Can you imagine? While people’s homes are burning to the ground, ungodly thieves are sneaking into those homes to steal what they did not earn. They should be executed on sight.

Can you imagine what would happen in cities across America if there is a nuclear attack? There will be a total breakdown of law and order nationwide. It will become like the old west—everyman for himself. Families will need guns to protect themselves from punks. Families will need to take watch on shifts, warding off bandits, rapists and murderers. I believe it’s coming! The Bible foretells that this place, Babylon, will be destroyed in one day, by a calamity which will happen in just one hour! This nation will be annihilated by fire. Revelation 18:8, “Therefore shall her plagues come in one day, death, and mourning, and famine; and she shall be utterly burned with fire: for strong is the Lord God who judgeth her.” What else could do that except a nuclear attack?

America has sadly become a very wicked place! The Arabs call us: The Great Satan! I would have to agree with them, even though I reject Islam, which is a false religion. We deserve to be called, The Great Satan, for legalizing homosexual marriages in 2015. Sodomy is not okay! God created Adam and Eve, not Adam and Steve. If that offends you, good. My intent is never to offend anyone; but rather, to preach the truth. God loves homosexuals, just as He loves all human beings. John 3:16 teaches, FOR GOD SO LOVED THE WORLD (that includes everybody). Jesus died for the vilest of sinners (Romans 5:6-9). He even died for me. God loves you dear reader, and so do I with Christ’s love. I just want to be a blessing to help others for God.

By God’s grace, I spent eight grateful years at Hyles-Anderson College (1985-1993) preparing to become a pastor. Ironically, by the time I graduated in 1993 I had lost my ambition to become a pastor, but I had a burning desire in my heart to preach THE TRUTH. I worked voluntarily alongside my father at his Rescue Mission in Chicago for the next 8 years, preaching every Sunday. In 2002, I started my website ministry at [9]Jesus-is-Savior.com. It’s hard to believe this this coming April 2025 will be my ministry's 23rd year. Praise God! By God's grace I plan to continue. God has given me a passion for writing blogs and articles, to preach THE TRUTH to help others for Jesus Christ. I am feeding His sheep. I have never made a single penny for all my tens of thousands of hours of diligent labor for Christ. My reward is in Heaven (Matthew 6:19-21); my converts being my greatest rewards (Daniel 12:3).

Thank you friend for reading my blogs. To God be the glory. Please feel welcome to [10]email me if you ever have any Bible questions, need some Scriptural advice, or just need a Christian Brother to whom you can vent. I am your servant in Christ. Matthew 23:11, " But he that is greatest among you shall be your servant." Jesus is precious!!!

6.1.12 Our Unfair God (2025-01-15 14:41)

Matthew 20:1-15, “For the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is an householder, which went out early in the morning to hire labourers into his vineyard. And when he had agreed with the labourers for a penny a day, he sent them into his vineyard. And he went out about the third hour, and saw others standing idle in the marketplace, And said unto them; Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right I will give you. And they went their way. Again he went out about the sixth and ninth hour, and did likewise. And about the eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing idle, and saith unto them, Why stand ye here all the day idle? They say unto him, Because no man hath hired us. He saith unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard; and whatsoever is right, that shall ye receive. So when even was come, the lord of the vineyard saith unto his steward, Call the labourers, and give them their hire, beginning from the last unto the first. And when they came that were hired about the eleventh hour, they received every man a penny. But when the first came, they supposed that they should have received more; and they likewise received every man a penny. And when they had received it, they murmured against the goodman of the house, Saying, These last have wrought but one hour, and thou hast made them equal unto us, which have borne the burden and heat of the day. But he answered one of them, and said, Friend, I do thee no wrong: didst not thou agree with me for a penny? Take that thine is, and go thy way: I will give unto this last, even as unto thee. Is it not lawful for me to do what I will with mine own? Is thine eye evil, because I am good?”

I listened to a life-changing sermon today by Pastor Jack Hyles (1925-2001) titled:

“[1]□□□ □□□□□□ □□□”

(Pastor Jack Hyles)

Dr. Hyles used the same passage of Scripture that I just quoted to you from Matthew 20:1-15. The men who had worked hard for 11 hours, thought it was UNFAIR when the householder in charge paid the men the same wages who only worked for the last one hour. I can completely understand why they were upset. I’d be upset too! But the Scripture teaches that since it was the householder’s land and operation, he had the right to pay whomever he chose, whatever amount he wanted, if they agreed to it. The men who had worked for 11 hours agreed to a certain wage for their time and labor. I love this Scripture passage because it teaches a very important principle—that when we oftentimes think something is totally unfair, is in fact fair.

Jesus said that this parable illustrates Heaven. It doesn’t seem fair that a man who gets saved much later in life, and lives like the Devil as a child of God; should be given the same gift of eternal life as a man who gets saved at a young age, and then faithfully serves God his entire life. But we who have been born again by faith alone in Jesus alone, are all saved BY GRACE!

We have all felt at times that God hasn’t been fair with us; that we got a raw deal. I’ve often felt that way. Dr. Hyles said that he felt that way at times. As humans we all tend to feel wronged by God sometimes. But we all receive THE SAME GRACE! Let us all say: “AMAZING GRACE, HOW SWEET THE SOUND, THAT SAVED A WRETCH LIKE ME!”

I’m sure that Jacob in the Old Testament thought it was unfair when his beloved wife Rachel died while giving birth to Benjamin. God could have spared her life for Jacob’s joy and pleasure, but God allowed his beloved Rachel to perish.

It doesn’t seem fair that Lazarus was eating from the rich man’s garbage in Luke 16:19-31.

It doesn’t seem fair that Moses wasn’t permitted by God to enter into the Promised Land, after all the suffering and hard work that he endured to lead the Hebrews for 40 years in the Wilderness. It seems like God was too harsh on Moses, chastising him for striking the rock twice in anger. God told him to smite the rock once, so that water would come forth from it.

I have always thought it was unfair that God killed Uzzah, who steadied the Ark of the Covenant. Uzzah saw it wobbling and reached out his hand to secure the Ark so it wouldn’t topple over. God killed him instantly. The lesson is clear—don’t mess with God’s Word! But was it really necessary to kill the man, depriving him of his entire life?

I could go through the Bible and give you hundreds of similar situations that seem unfair. But dear reader, God is always fair. At some point in everyone’s life, we will either place God on trial in our own mind, or else we will just have to blindly trust God’s goodness and righteousness. God is incapable of being tempted with or doing evil (James 1:13-14).

Just settle it once and for all that GOD IS GOOD! Did it ever occur to you, that nothing ever occurs to God? God is omniscient (He knows everything). Don’t you think God who knows everything does know what you needs? God is omnibenevolent (He is all-loving). Do you think that God who is all-loving doesn’t know your need for a wife or husband to love and be loved? We would be wise not to accuse God of being unfair. Don’t you think that God knows what is best for you? **“

Have faith in God

” (Mark 11:22b). God is holy! God knows what you need (Matthew 6:6-8).

God is omnipotent (He is all-powerful). If God wanted, He could do anything. Trust Him that the Lord knows what is best for you! God is righteous and just, He is fair. There are some things in life that I have missed, that I would have really liked to have. If I were God, I would have let me have those things. My former wife abandoned and divorced me 19 years ago. I didn’t want the divorce in 2006. I have tried since umpteen times to repair my marriage, but my x-wife refuses to reconcile, which is also written in the official divorce document. If I were God, I would have given me a different wife who is loyal and submissive, but the Lord hasn’t answered my prayers. I have struggled with loneliness and depression for the past 19 years.

If I were God, I would make sure that every Christian man has a good wife. I would make sure that no righteous man was ever alone without a loving gal by his side, to be his help meet, and be his cheerleader, and be his nurse when he’s is sick, and his best buddy. It saddens me to be alone, and to see other Christian men alone. Feminism has ruined women by indoctrinating them to be empowered and rebel against their husbands. The U.S. government has ruined marriage by allowing the sin of divorce. These are perilous times (2nd Timothy 2:1-7).

I have often in my soul said that life is not fair, but I know better than accuse God of being unfair. The Bible teaches that God is holy (1st Peter 1:15-16). God cares about me (1st Peter 5:7-8). God is faithful. God is faithful. 1st Corinthians 1:9,

“

God is faithful, by whom ye were called unto the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

” Who am I to accuse God of being unfair? Lazarus in the Bible was a righteous man, yet he was eating out of the garbage of a rich man. If I were God, I would have given Lazarus a Smorgasbord of fine dining at a clean well-prepared table. But no, Lazarus was dining from a trash can. But God is good. Oh yes He is.

I was watching a video documentary about the homeless problem in Los Angeles. There are now 70,000 homeless people just in Los Angeles. One man in particular made an impression upon me a couple years ago. In the video the man was searching for food in a dumpster. The other man who was interviewing him, asked him how he felt about having to eat from a dirty dumpster. That poor and homeless man quoted the Holy Bible from Philippians 4:19,

“ But my God shall supply all your need according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus.” I was amazed and humbled by what that homeless man has said. I was astonished that instead of being bitter and blaming God for his situation, he praised and thanked God for the food out of a dirty dumpster. Wow! When I saw that, I decided to never forget that poor man’s godly Christian spirit. I want to be like that humble man! I certainly don’t want to ever have to eat food from a dumpster (There but for the grace of God, go I), but if I do, I will praise and thank God for supplying my needs.

God will be our eternal Judge. Psalms:50:6, “ And the heavens shall declare his righteousness: for God is judge himself. Selah.” Life is often unfair, but God is fair! Dear reader, Romans 5:12 teaches that we live in a fallen world because of sin. When Adam sinned, he opened the floodgate of sin and death upon the world. Every human being that has been born since, was born with a sinful nature. We are all sinners by birth and by choice.

Sometimes we suffer because of our own sins. Sometimes we suffer because of the sins of others. The reason why 12,000 homes burned to the ground in California, and so far 24 people are dead (in January of 2025), is because the government failed to prepare. It has been in the news that the governor of California rejected a proposal to use the billions of gallons of run-off rain water for the people. The governor wanted to help the Smelt fish!

I agree with President Trump that the governor of California is totally to blame! It is common knowledge in California that their state is prone to fires. Then the mayor of Los Angeles took away $17,000,000 of resources from the fire department. The people of Los Angeles are suffering because of incompetent leadership!

This whole ordeal with the recent forest fires in Los Angeles, compel me to apply the situation to the Gospel. Life is short, Hell is hot and eternity is a long time! The vast majority of humanity are ignoring the reality of death. They are not prepared to meet God. They have never been born again (John 3:1-7). The only way to escape the raging fires of Hell is to be born again by faith alone in the GOOD NEWS (Gospel) of Jesus Christ. Jesus died on a cross to pay for your sins and mine. He was buried. Three days later Jesus bodily resurrected from the dead. Jesus ascended into Heaven and is alive for evermore.

Anyone who comes to God by faith as a hell-deserving needy sinner, and receives Christ’s sacrifice on the cross as full payment for their sins, believing that Jesus was buried, but then raised up from the dead the third day, is instantly and forever born again.

Trust Him! When God seems unfair, trust Him blindly. Say with afflicted Job in Job 13:15, “Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him: but I will maintain mine own ways before him.”

6.1.13 Without Followers Evil Cannot Spread (2025-01-17 08:24)

Proverbs 26:24-25, " He that hateth dissembleth with his lips, and layeth up deceit within him; When he speaketh fair, believe him not: for there are seven abominations in his heart."

It is a true saying that WITHOUT FOLLOWERS EVIL CANNOT SPREAD. My first thoughts take me to the demonic false religions of Roman and Orthodox Catholicism. These two branches of Catholicism comprise 1,620,000,000 human beings (1.39 billion Roman Catholics and 230 million Orthodox Catholics). Sadly, 486 million Roman Catholics exist in Latin America alone, showing the damning power of the biggest religious cult in the world on Hispanics. There is no salvation within the Catholic religion. Catholicism is a prisonhouse of religion.

Be careful dear reader what or who you choose to follow, because it could destroy you. The world is full of beautiful beneficial and ugly deadly things alike. In this world can be found the amazing Gospel of free grace, by which all who believe it are saved. But there are also thousands of false religions that can damn your soul and body to Hell forever, if you are foolish enough to choose to follow them. Without followers evils cannot spread.

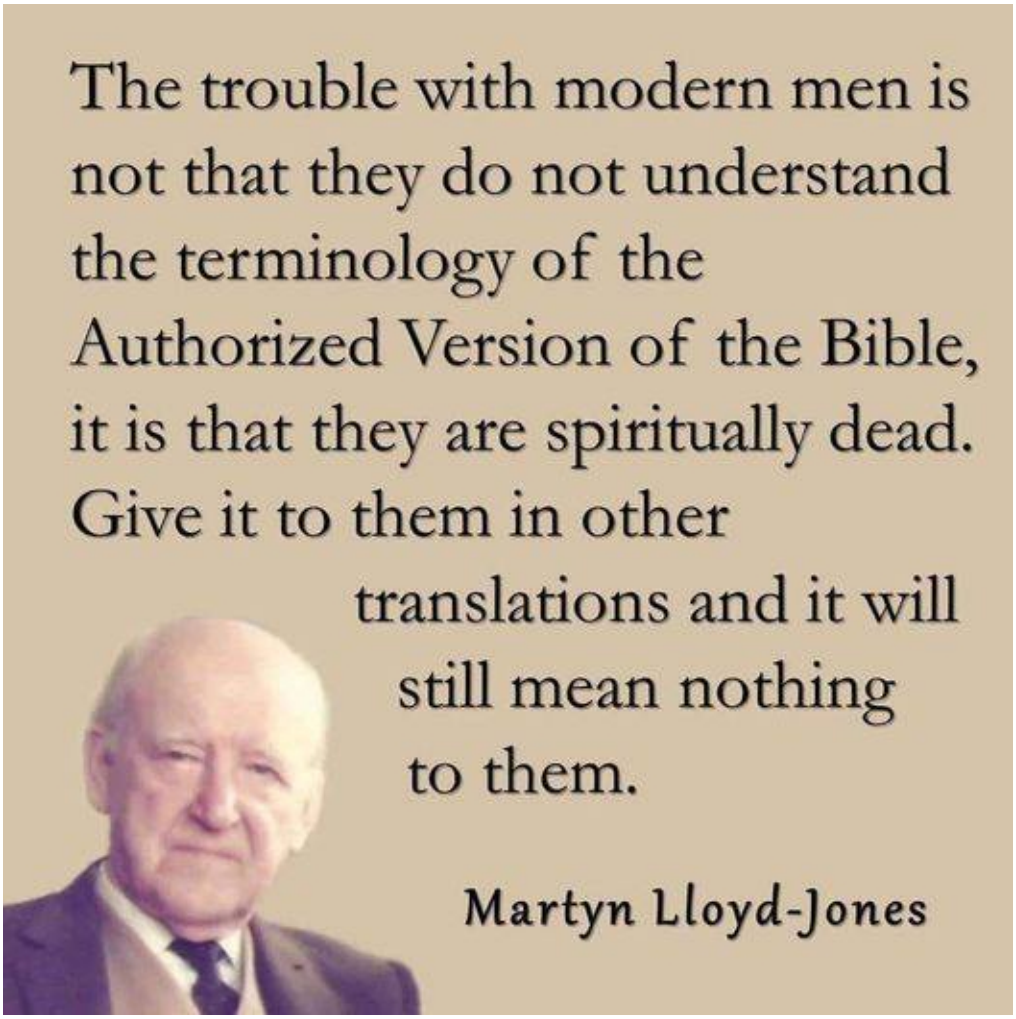
When we think of evil, people usually think of Adolf Hitler and the Holocaust. When most people think of evil, they think of John Wayne Gacy and Jeffrey Dahmer. But when I think of evil, I think of Roman Catholicism. When I think of evil, I think of Pensacola Christian College (PCC) and [1]their Lordship Salvation heresy. When I think of evil, I think of the fraudulent Federal Reserve Act, which since 1913 has robbed Americans of their hard-earned wealth, and has caused an epidemic of homelessness due to inflation across the United States.

When I think of evil, I think of Seventh-Day Adventism (SDA) with their hellish heresies of Lordship Salvation and Investigative Judgment. When I think of evil, I think of Bob Jones University (BJU) and their multiple counterfeit Bible revisions, and their lie of Lordship Salvation. Yes, evil abounds around us today in many different forms. The $64,000 questions is: Are you a follower?

Evil can only prevail if it has followers. The tragic reason why the Devil's dangerous lies of [2]Lordship Salvation, [3]False Bibles and [4]Misunderstood Repentance are so popular nowadays is because these Satanic deceptions have gathered many followers. By adopting the Devil's lies of Misunderstand Repentance and Lordship Salvation, Pensacola Christian College is pulling on the same rope as the Devil. By local church (including PCC's Campus Church) promoting and using Ken Ham's toxic Answers-In-Genesis Bible lessons, which are rooted in Lordship Salvation and Misunderstood Repentance, those corrupt churches are helping Satan.

It is a crying shame that so many professed "Christians" today are the worst enemies of Jesus Christ. In truth that are not true Christians, they are churchgoers who have never been born again by faith alone in Christ alone. Anyone who is trying to turn from their sinful ways to get to heaven is still not saved. Such a person must first cease from their own self-righteous works, and rest in Christ alone to be saved (Hebrews 4:10-11).

Evil can only prevail if it has followers. Without followers evil cannot spread.



So, dear reader, be very careful what you ascribe to and follow, because your eternal destiny may depend on it. It breaks my heart to see 21 million deceived people following Seventh-Day Adventism, which religion teaches Lordship Salvation. It breaks my heart to see 16 million deceived people following the sex-perverted cult of Mormonism. It breaks my heart to see over one billion deceived people following the demonic religion of Islam. And of course, the Roman Catholic religion is the biggest cult in the world, which 1.3 billion deceived followers. Always remember, Satan is a beautiful liar!

The Apostle Paul warned everyone in 2nd Corinthians 11:3-4 about three dangerous things:

1. another Gospel
2. another Jesus
3. another spirit

Please make sure that you haven't been deceived by a suave lying false prophet. It never ceases to amaze me how gullible and foolish people are, so easily drawn into a false religion. The evils of Mormonism couldn't exist if it weren't for their foolish followers. Evil cannot exist unless it has a willing servant. By God's grace, I will never support, partake or bid Godspeed to evil.

Any preacher who bids Godspeed to infidel Ken Ham and his [5]Answers-In-Genesis counterfeit plan of salvation is helping the Devil (2nd John 1:11). Without followers this evil spawned by Ken Ham could not spread. Tragically, corrupt churches all across America, including Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College, and all PCC affiliated local churches, support this demonic filth. RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!!

6.1.14 Don’t Get The Tickets Mixed Up! (2025-01-18 14:07)

Matthew 7:21-23, “Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity.”

“□□□’□ □□□ □□□ □□□□□□□ □□□□□ □□” (Pastor Jack Hyles, 1997). In this helpful sermon, Dr. Hyles presents the Gospel as simply as he knows how. This is awesome! ...

[1]Don’t Get The Tickets Mixed Up!

Years ago Brother Hyles visited a museum. He was issued TWO tickets. The first one was to get into the museum, and the second ticket was for refreshments to enjoy the museum. Dr. Hyles explains that false religions confuse these two tickets, making people think that the second ticket is necessary to get into Heaven. This is what the damnable heresy of Lordship Salvation is, mixing service with salvation. ...

1. Ticket number 1 is God’s Righteousness.
2. Ticket number 2 is my righteousness.

Trusting in what you can do is trying is get into Heaven with ticket #2. In Matthew 7:21-23 the people were trying to get into Heaven with ticket #2 (by their own self righteousness). I encourage you to listen to this practical life changing sermon.

6.1.15 Pastor J. Vernon McGee's Contradictory Theology (2025-01-18 18:48)

Acts 19:32, "Some therefore cried one thing, and some another: for the assembly was confused; and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together."

Sometimes I just have to walk away scratching my head in bewilderment, wondering what was going on in a pastor's brain while he was majorly contradicting himself in his preaching. Case in point is Pastor J. Vernon McGee (1904-1988). In this video sermon excerpt from YouTube, you will hear Dr. McGee preaching damnable heresy. ...

Dr. J. Vernon McGee Q &A - Is Repentance Part of Salvation?

The following is a heretical quote from Pastor McGee's preceding video excerpt:

> "[illegible]

Yet, in the following video Dr. McGee strongly refutes the heresy of Lordship Salvation.

Pastor J. Vernon McGee Refutes Lordship Salvation Heresy

Will the real J. Vernon McGee please stand up! The old boy must have started losing his mind in his old age. If you listen carefully to the heretical excerpt below, you will hear Dr. McGee say that a fellow pastor accused him of leaving off repentance, which prompted him to counter his own previous teaching with this damnable heresy. I learned a long time ago that I will NEVER be able to please everybody with my biblical beliefs and preaching. I don't care what you preach, someone will criticize you! The important thing is to make sure that what you are preaching can be 100 % backed-up with the inspired KING JAMES BIBLE!!! Dr. McGee really messed up! He messed up because he cared what other preachers thought about his doctrine. Sadly, in an attempt to clarify his preaching to appease his critics, he perverted the Gospel.

Having said that, every pastor I know has been wrong at times. Pastor Max Younce (1935-2023) denied the inspiration of the King James Bible. He was wrong! I love Pastor Younce and he will always be one of my heroes, but as a man he was flawed, sinful and mortal (which he would have been the first to admit).

Pastor Harry Ironside (1876-1951) was 100 % free grace, Dr. Ironside is one of my favorite free grace preachers; but he really messed up in his '[1]The Eternal Security Of The Believer' book, in which he teaches that "endure" in Matthew 24:13 means you must persevere in your profession of faith until the end to be saved.

That is NOT what Matthew 24:13 means. It has nothing to do with salvation; but rather, with physically surviving the 7-year Tribulation period. We see this from Matthew 24:22, "□□□ □□□□□□ □□□□□ □□□□ □□□□□□ □□ □□□□□□□□□□, □□□□□ □□□□□□ □□ □□□□□ □□ □□□□□..." Dr. Ironside got this passage of Scripture wrong, but he was merely a sinful, flawed and mortal man.

So, having humbly said these things, Pastor J. Vernon McGee was only a man, vulnerable to ecclesiastical peer pressure, which I believe he succumbed to in a moment of weakness, when he made these foolish statements. Unfortunately, he is dead and cannot clear up the matter, leaving his followers to wallow in confusion. That is why dear reader that why are commanded by the Lord Himself in John 5:39 to SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES! I love all these faithful men of God, but I do not follow any of them when they contradict the inspired Holy Scriptures (and sometimes they do).

I read where Pastor Younce corrected the translators of the King James Bible. Dr. Younce said that they messed up on Romans 10:11, “□□□□□□□□□ □□□□□□□□□ □□ □□□ □□□□□ □□□ □□ □□□□□□□.” My friend said that the translators should have translated it as: "“□□□□□□□□□ □□□□□□□□□ □□ □□□ SHOULD NOT □□ □□□□□□□.” That would only be true if the Bible was talking about us being ashamed of Jesus, but that is NOT what God is saying here. The Holy Bible is saying that if you put your trust in the only begotten Son of God, JESUS WILL NOT DISSAPOINT YOU. That is, you will not be ashamed because Jesus failed you. That is the proper context. So, respectfully, Dr. Younce was very wrong to CORRECT God’s inspired Words. The Bible doesn’t need correcting, WE DO!!!

I love Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001), but he really messed up when he preached a sermon in which he teaches that if you are not saved, you are not human. I’m not kidding. He also says in that particular sermon that if you are saved, but walking in the flesh, you are not human. That is simply strange doctrine. Dr. Hyles even stops half way through the sermon, looks at everybody in the congregation, and says: "I feel like I’m not coming across to you." Uh, yeah! I didn’t create this post to criticize my heroes, but simply to caution everyone about the dangers of following men. I do not give 100 % doctrinal loyalty to any human being. I am always testing (trying) everything I hear against the Acid Test of the inspired Word of God (1st John 4:1; as did the Bereans in Acts 17:10-11). You cannot deceive a believer who is settled and grounded in the inspired King James Bible!!!

It is unfortunate that Pastor J. Vernon McGee said that a drunkard who claims to be saved, but then continues drinking his booze, didn’t really get saved. That is FALSE INFORMATION! These lies came off the lips of the same preacher who told us that Lordship Salvation is a false Gospel. Well which is it, because it cannot be both ways?

Either you cannot be saved if you continue living in sin, which is what Lordship Salvation teaches; or else you can be saved by faith alone in Christ alone, and it doesn’t matter how you behave, as far as getting saved is concerned. But it absolutely cannot be both ways! The latter is what the Bible teaches. Your behavior has nothing to do with your decision to receive the free gift of God. Eternal Life is A FREE GIFT (Romans 5:15-18).

6.1.16 America’s Woeful Lack Of Spiritual Leadership (2025-01-19 10:43)

Isaiah 9:16, “For the leaders of this people cause them to err; and they that are led of them are destroyed.

A nation’s spiritual level cannot rise above that of its churches. America’s pastors and churches are pathetic nowadays! There is a wicked spirit of lull over the churches, like bees who’ve been mesmerized and disoriented by a Bee Handler’s smoke.

In his classic book titled, “ Power Through Prayer,”

Pastor E.M. Bounds

(1835-1913)

made these intriguing statements about spiritual leadership...

> Preachers are preeminently God's leaders. They are primarily responsible for the condition of the Church. They shape its character, give tone and direction to its life.
>
> Much every way depends on these leaders. They shape the times and the institutions. The Church is divine, the treasure it incases is heavenly, but it bears the imprint of the human. The treasure is in earthen vessels, and it smacks of the vessel. The Church of God makes, or is made by, its leaders. Whether it makes them or is made by them, it will be what its leaders are; spiritual if they are so, secular if they are, conglomerate if its leaders are. Israel's kings gave character to Israel's piety. A Church rarely revolts against or rises above the religion of its leaders.
>
> Strongly spiritual leaders; men of holy might, at the lead, are tokens of God's favor; disaster and weakness follow the wake of feeble or worldly leaders. Israel had fallen low when God gave children to be their princes and babes to rule over them. No happy state is predicted by the prophets when children oppress God's Israel and women rule over them. Times of spiritual leadership are times of great spiritual prosperity to the Church.

> Pastor E.M. Bounds, " [1]POWER THROUGH PRAYER ," p. 50

It is tragic and sad that America's churches have deteriorated so badly. You'll be hard pressed today to find a Baptist church that hasn't been infected by the fallacies of Misunderstood Repentance, Lordship Salvation, Zionism and False Bibles. The biggest mistake that you'll ever make is to blindly follow a pastor without verifying his teachings with the inspired Word of God (1st John 4:1). The Apostle Paul commended the Bereans for SEARCHING THE SCRIPTURES to verify his preaching (Acts 17:10-11). Paul said that the Thessalonicans weren't as noble! What a shameful testimony upon the churches of Thessalonica.

Should it be surprising then, that the Thessalonian churches seemed to have forgotten what Paul had previously taught them about Christ's future return (2nd Thessalonians 2:5)?

I cannot help but think about the disqualified leadership at Pensacola Christian College (PCC). The religious institution opened its doors in 1975. You won't find a more lethargic, spiritually lifeless and impotent example of apostasy today than PCC and their shameful Campus Church. For years now PCC has wickedly invited, honored, promoted and bid Godspeed to [2]infidel Ken Ham and his Answers-In-Genesis heresies. RUN from this place! [3]Ken Ham is very bad news. It's bad enough that Ken Ham promotes the [4]fallacy of Young Earth Creationism, but to add injury to insult he preaches another gospel (Galatians 1:6-9).

PCC's incompetent leaders are pulling on the same rope as the Devil, by wickedly bidding Godspeed to a false prophet who is wrong on God's simple plan of salvation (2nd John 1:11). Ken Ham errantly teaches that to get to Heaven, you must turn from your wicked ways. Jonah 3:10 in the Old Testament says that God saw THEIR WORKS, that they turned from their evil ways. The Ninevites did not get saved, they simply forsook their sinful ways to obtain a temporary reprieve from God of looming judgment. A century later God sent the prophet Nahum to pronounce judgment upon the Assyrians in Nineveh, and they were destroyed by Babylon. Unrepentant sin always brings the judgment of God.

PCC has blood on their hands for wickedly bidding Godspeed to false prophets. PCC also bids Godspeed to Bob Jones University (BJU), a cursed cesspool of hellbound Calvinists. BJU promotes the Devil's False Bibles, and preaches the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation. Sadly, [5]PCC is also guilty of preaching Lordship Salvation. By laying down with dogs, PCC has been infested with BJU's ticks and fleas. Birds of a feather flock together!

PCC doesn't contend for the Christian faith. The local churches where I live in Pensacola have been corrupted by PCC's strong influence in the region. Since PCC is idle for Jesus Christ—not fighting the good fight of faith, not contending against false doctrines and false prophets, not exposing the Devil's fallacy of Lordship Salvation, not exposing the Devil's false Bibles—PCC is having a detrimental influence upon thousands of affiliated churches. It is so sad. PCC has set the bar very low for serving God. They cannot even get the Gospel correct at PCC!!! Pastor Lee Roberson (1909-2007) was so right: Everything rises and falls on leadership!

We've got a bunch of religious clowns leading the mega-churches today. These neo-evangelical imposters are dangerous, the blind leading the blind—who all preach the accursed heresy of [6]LORDSHIP SALVATION. This sadly includes all 45,000 Southern Baptist Convention (SBC) member churches. These churches represent approximately 15,000,000 Baptists in America. The official doctrinal position of the SBC is that to get to Heaven, you must turn away from your sins with all your heart. Nowhere does the inspired King James Bible teach that nonsense! The only sin that you need to repent (change your mind about) to be saved is UNBELIEF. Since unbelief is the only sin which can prevent you from going to Heaven, then unbelief is the only sin you need to repent of to be saved.

The United States is going to Hell in a wheelbarrow! Our apostate, lukewarm and dead churches are leading the frontal assault on Christendom! Christianity doesn't have a worse enemy today than those pastors and churches which promote the falsehoods of Lordship Salvation, Misunderstood Repentance and False Bibles.

Sadly, I receive emails all the time from frustrated believers who cannot find a good church to attend. I don't really know what to tell them. All I can do is encourage them to listen to online fundamentalist Bible preaching, and pray for God to bring a great church to their area. A common suggestion that I give people is to move to a city with a great church. That is a very wise thing to do, so that you and your family will have a stable and healthy church life. I understand that this is a drastic step, but if it is possible for you, it will solve your problem of not being able to find a good church to attend. America is hurting for great churches today.

I fully agree with Pastor Lester Roloff (1914-1982), who said in his classic sermon titled, 'Titanic': "America was 'great' when she was good, and she was good when she had great churches." The era of great churches is long, long, gone! The average church today is fat, lazy and dead, just like the lukewarm Laodicean churches (Revelation 3:15-17). Pastors are to blame! Jeremiah 12:10, " Many pastors have destroyed my vineyard, they have trodden my portion under foot, they have made my pleasant portion a desolate wilderness."

> "The pastors have destroyed the churches, and they've been [7]trained by people that have never built churches, and [8]they have no compassion." —Pastor Jack Hyles, "[9]Many Pastors Have Destroyed My Vineyard"

Today's pastors are a disgrace. There is a woeful lack of genuine love, compassion or concern for hurting people. I have seen countless situations where pastors mistreat people and they leave a church. Instead of the pastor going after them to invite them back, nothing is done and the person never returns. Shame on those horrible shallow pastors for not caring. In the local Baptist church that I have been attending for over three years, I have seen a dozen people quit and leave the church in frustration, while the pastor let them go. That is shameful.

One woman who had often visited our church, was confronted by a Lutheran pastor who showed sincere interest in having her in his church, so now she attends the Lutheran cult instead. The pastor of the Baptist church I have been attending couldn't care less who comes or goes. This is just another reason why I have never officially joined the church. People just want to be loved. Everything rises and falls on leadership. Until pastors start caring about people, neither will the church members care. Today's churches are more resemblant of spiritual morgues than a hospital for sinners. The way we treat people matters. It really does!

We need a whole new breed of preachers in America! Sadly, I heard that very statement from Evangelist Johnny Pope when I was a student at Hyles-Anderson College (1985-1993). Johnny Pope worked on college staff at the time. Tragically, recently in 2023, Johnny Pope was a guest speaker at Pensacola Christian College (PCC), who preach the Devil's deception of Lordship Salvation and wickedly bid Godspeed to the Calvinist crowd at Bob Jones University (BJU). Johnny Pope has become part of the problem instead of the solution!

Jeff Redlin is the senior pastor at PCC's Campus Church, which is [10]a cesspool of heresy and false doctrine concerning how to get to Heaven. PCC is a disgrace today! Their pastors and leaders are arrogant, have huge egos and refuse to heed correction. I tried to help them in 2021 and 2022, but was banned from attending Campus Church. I was also completely blocked from accessing both Facebook pages at PCC and Campus Church.

The PCC cult has thrown me under the bus and ostracized me, but they cannot silence and bully God. PCC's day of reckoning is soon coming, when they will by punished by God for shedding innocent blood. The [11]cry of their victim's reaches unto Heaven's pearly gates. PCC's counterfeit plan of salvation is one million times more dangerous than Hollywood's filth and wickedness. Hollywood's movies will corrupt your good morals, but PCC's false gospel will damn your body and soul to the fires of Hell forever (Matthew 10:28).

Our churches are in trouble. I am convinced that all Bible colleges do today is neuter the pastors of tomorrow. How can we make America great again, when most Baptist pastors are preaching a counterfeit gospel of Lordship Salvation and Misunderstood Repentance? We must first make America godly again. ...

> "IF YOU WANT TO SAVE AMERICA, GET AMERICA SAVED!" —Pastor Ralph 'Yankee' Arnold

I can only think of ONE Bible college today which teaches that the King James Bible is verbally (word for word) inspired. The other ninety-nine percent of Bible colleges errantly teach that only the original autographs were inspired, and that we do not have an inspired Holy Bible today. Nearly all of the apostate religious institutions today foolishly teach that the King James Bible is not inspired by God, and that it has errors in it, and is inferior.

I humbly disagree with them all! I firmly believe that God has kept His solemn promise to preserve His inspired pure Words unto every generation. Psalms 12:6-7, "The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times. Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever." God solemnly promised in Psalms 12:6-7 to preserve His inspired very pure words unto every generation. The Devil's modern Bible publishers are fully familiar with this promise, which is why all of them [12]changed God's Word to remove this promise. What other reason would Bible publishers have to remove God's promise, other than to deny that we have an inspired Holy Bible today. I believe the King James Bible to be that one inspired Book!!!

What good is a spiritual leader who denies the inspired Word of God? What good is a spiritual leader who is wrong on God's simple plan of salvation? What good is a spiritual leader who uses, sells and promotes multiple versions of the Holy Bible, confusing people?

Today's pastors are dangerous. Most pastors woefully lack love and compassion for people. I have been victimized firsthand by several pastors, who mistreated me, mistreated my family, and couldn't have cared less about doing the right thing, rejecting the truth. When I told Marty Herron the truth at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam—the truth that they ought not be using the Devil's corrupt bibles, the truth that Lordship Salvation is a false gospel, and the truth that repentance doesn't mean to forsake a lifestyle of sinning to be saved—I was wickedly forced out and banned from attending their church.

Likewise, when I attended Campus Church at PCC in 2021, I was sickened as I listened to Pastor Timothy Zacharias errantly teach that repentance to be saved will result in a change of behavior. That is the deception of Lordship Salvation. I contacted their senior pastor Jeff Redlin about the matter, but he quickly sided with Pastor Zacharias. Subsequently, I was horribly mistreated and compelled to leave Campus Church in 2021, and then permanently banned from returning in 2022 by their ungodly narcissist pastor. This is the hateful, bigoted and cultic environment at PCC. At PCC the system always comes first, but individual people do not matter! PCC has grown too big for their britches and will someday fall hard at the sovereign hand of God (Romans 16:17-18). RUN from PCC!

All across America today, spiritual leadership is either pathetic or non-existent. Everything rises and falls on leadership.

6.1.17 God Knows That We Are Made Of Dust (2025-01-21 01:30)

Psalms 103:14, " For he knoweth our frame; he remembereth that we are dust. "

My favorite preacher is Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001). He was born to his mother when she was 39 years old. Children with older parents are usually more mature, which I believe is the case with Jack Hyles. He was very mature for his age as a young man. His mother's name is Coystal Mattie (Frasure) Hyles (1887-1984). I never had the opportunity to see or meet her at the First Baptist Church of Hammond, Indiana. I enrolled into Hyles-Anderson College in 1985, but Brother Hyles Mom had passed away the year before in 1984.

Brother Hyles said that his mother's favorite Bible verse was Psalms 103:14, " For he knoweth our frame; he remembereth that we are dust. " I love that Scripture passage too! Here is more of the surrounding text, so you can get a clearer idea of the text. I cannot think of a more precious, beautiful and comforting passage from God's Word...

> Psalms 103:10-16, He hath not dealt with us after our sins; nor rewarded us according to our iniquities. For as the heaven is high above the earth, so great is his mercy toward them that fear him. As far as the east is from the west, so far hath he removed our transgressions from us. Like as a father pitieth his children, so the LORD pitieth them that fear him. For he knoweth our frame; he remembereth that we are dust. As for man, his days are as grass: as a flower of the field, so he flourisheth. For the wind passeth over it, and it is gone; and the place thereof shall know it no more."

There are a dozen precious truths found in the preceding passage of Scripture. Our Creator is a merciful God. Micah 7:18, "

Who is a God like unto thee, that pardoneth iniquity, and passeth by the transgression of the remnant of his heritage? he retaineth not his anger for ever, because he delighteth in mercy.

" What a wonderful passage. We serve a loving, compassionate, faithful, fair and good God.

Psalms 97:1, " The LORD reigneth; let the earth rejoice; let the multitude of isles be glad thereof."

In the life of our Lord Jesus Christ, He never browbeat people for past sins. Jesus always said to them:

Go, and sin no more

(John 5:14, 8:11). Delilah removed Samson's hair, BUT Delilah couldn't stop it from growing again. If you live with deep regrets over past sins, there is hope my friend. Cheer up. Just by God's grace don't repeat the same mistakes. God is not concerned about your past failures, He is concerned about right now and moving ahead.

The Reason Why I Don't Make Vows To God

Someone recently asked me what to do if you've broken a vow to God. Dear reader, if that is you also, humbly confess your broken vow to God and tell Him you won't be so careless in the future with your vows. God just wants us all to do better moving forward. I heard Pastor Jack Hyles teach that in a sermon. I sure wish I could remember which sermon it was, but I cannot. God is not an ogre in Heaven that shows no mercy.

Other than my marriage vows in 1987, I have never made any vows to God, because of the seriousness of a vow. Sadly, my former wife broke her marriage vows in 2006. Consequently, I have painfully lived alone for the past 19 years. Since I know that I am a sinful human being by birth and by choice, I dare not trust myself to make a vow to God. But I have made some vows to myself. Job wisely did the same thing. We read in Job 31:1, "I made a covenant with mine eyes; why then should I think upon a maid?" Job didn't vow to God that he wouldn't lust upon his maid; but rather, he made a vow to himself.

1st Corinthians 2:16b , "For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ." The Bible says as saints that we have Christ's mind, so that we can judge righteously in matters.

Sometimes people make a vow to God that they later realize they either cannot or don't want to keep. The Bible says that you should pay that which you have vowed. Making a vow is a serious matter. If you break a vow to God, he will hold you fully accountable. Ecclesiastes 5:4-5, "When thou vowest a vow unto God, defer not to pay it; for he hath no pleasure in fools: pay that which thou hast vowed.

Better is it that thou shouldest not vow, than that thou shouldest vow and not pay. "

Only a fool breaks a promise to God.

However, I do not believe that God is a thug who expects you to keep a promise that will wreak havoc in your life. If a bad situation has arisen, such as losing your job after promising God to give your local church a certain amount of money each month, I humbly believe that God allows for extenuating circumstances. God is not unjust and unreasonable to force you to keep a vow that you can no longer keep; not without causing undue stress, loss and hardship for your family. The Lord understands, He really does friend.

The Lord fully knows that we are made of mere dust. Isaiah 64:8, "But now, O LORD, thou art our father; we are the clay, and thou our potter; and we all are the work of thy hand." This Scripture passage proves that abortion is the sin of murder. God forms every child in its mother's womb. We are the work of our Creator's omnipotent loving hands.

As human beings, we are comprised of the elements (clay) from the earth. Ecclesiastes 3:20, "All go unto one place; all are of the dust, and all turn to dust again." Ecclesiastes 12:7, "Then shall the dust return to the earth as it was: and the spirit shall return unto God who gave it." When we ultimately die someday, our body returns into the earth from which it came. Ecclesiastes 12:13, "Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man."

God bless you dear reader, hang in there. The Lord desires to fellowship with you (James 4:8). As I mentioned, Pastor Jack Hyles' mother's favorite Bible verse was Psalms 103:14, " For he knoweth our frame; he remembereth that we are dust. " God knows that we are made from the dust of the earth—mortal creatures prone to weakness and failure.

When a woman was caught in the very act of adultery in John chapter 8, the hypocritical Pharisees dragged her out of bed, dumping her on the ground at Jesus' feet. As a testimony against them for selectively condemning people, they didn't bother to bring the man. That is very interesting! No one knows what Jesus wrote on the ground with His finger, but I have always speculated that perhaps He wrote: "Where's the man?"

Whatever Jesus wrote, it convicted the crowd.

The inspired Holy Bible says that from the oldest to the youngest, they put their stones down and walked away. In this true story, we learn that we are all guilty sinners as humans (Romans 3:10-23). No one has a right to condemn others for their sins (Matthew 7:1). The legal system holds people accountable for their poor behavior, but on an individual basis we do not have a right to become the judge, jury and executioner. The Bible says if you condemn me for my sins, it just reveals that your sins are much greater (Matthew 7:1-5).

God understands that we are all sinners by birth (nature) and by choice. Jeremiah 17:9, "The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it?" Never trust a man who trusts himself! The inspired Word of God teaches and warns not to trust the human heart, because it is desperately wicked and deceitful ABOVE ALL ELSE! This is why the humble shepherd boy turned king, David, said in Psalms 19:12, "

Who can understand his errors? cleanse thou me from secret faults." Since the human heart is wicked and deceptive, we all tend to overlook our own sins but are quick to see other's sins. I am guilty of doing it sometimes and so are you.

Humans Hurt Each Other's Feelings

To be transparent, sometimes certain people at church get on my nerves. I've actually skipped church at times, when I felt tension because of inconsiderate people who were rude, Smart Alecs or ran their big mouth. I take pain medications to cope with my constant chronic neck pain. The last thing I need is for someone at church giving me a hard time. Sometimes people don't mean any harm, they're just foolish and immature, blind to how horrible they can be. God remembers that we are made of dust. Psalms 103:14, " For he knoweth our frame; he remembereth that we are dust. " I try to be like my dear Savior, by letting hurt feelings go and remembering that people are just made of clay. Albeit, that is difficult to do for me sometimes. I am a caring person, and the flipside of having a caring heart is that I have sensitive feelings.

I have been praying for God to help me let things go, and not to be so upset when people are ungrateful, rude and make fun of me; but that is easier said than done. I have noticed that people who don't care are much better able to handle mean people. To the same degree that you are a caring and loving person, you will get your feelings hurt by others. Pastor Lee Roberson (1909-2007) used to say that you cannot hurt or offend a dead man. So he taught his church congregation to DIE TO SELF. I like that truth.

In the story of the Ten Lepers that Jesus healed, only one bothered to return to thank Him. That hurt Jesus' feelings.

Luke 17:17, " And Jesus answering said, Were there not ten cleansed? but where are the nine?" I love this Bible account, because it reveals that our wonderful Lord and Savior got His feelings hurt, just like us. I have had my feelings trampled upon and wounded thousands of times throughout my life. I could tell you a hundred stories about times when people have deeply wounded my feelings, and they couldn't have cared less. People can be so cruel. One web visitor emailed me a long time ago and said: PEOPLE EQUAL PAIN! Yes, my friend, people often do equal pain. That is what Jeremiah 17:9 teaches —that the human heart is desperately wicked and deceitful above all else.

Therefore, I have painfully learned to just love the hell out of people, pray for them, and be kind to everyone regardless of how they treat me. I cannot control what others say or do, but I CAN control my own thoughts, words and behavior. I have had a few pastors reject THE TRUTH when I placed it into their hands, and then ban me from attending their churches in sinful pride.

False Prophets Easily Deceive People

When I attended the shameful Harvest Baptist Church on Guam in 2014, their incompetent senior pastor, Marty Herron, preached the Devil's lie of [1]LORDSHIP SALVATION. I befriended him with the truth that Lordship Salvation is a perversion of the Gospel of grace. I also exposed their multiple counterfeit Bible revisions. I also exposed their false idea that repentance means to forsake a lifestyle of sinning to get to Heaven, which is a falsehood.

I also heard Pastor Jack Hyles teach that if he could teach his people one thing next to the plan of salvation, it would to: GET OUT OF THE SELF LIFE. I couldn't agree more. I desire to grow in my Christian faith to the point, where inconsiderate people can no longer bother me. I don't know if that is even possible, but I am trying. You might now be thinking about a popular passage of Scripture from Psalms 119:165, " Great peace have they which love thy law: and nothing shall offend them." This passage has nothing to do with being offended by others. It means that if you abide in the inspired Scriptures, you won't stumble. The Hebrew word for

"offend

here means

to stumble.

" Put another way, the man is not falling apart whose Bible is!

Because we are made of dust, we are easily deceived by False Prophets. People are like sheep. If you know anything about sheep, they are defenseless animals. Sheep have no sharp teeth or claws like bears do. Wolves have sharp teeth to grip, tear and fight with. But sheep are essentially lamb chops waiting to be devoured by wolves, bears and other predators. Sheep cannot defend themselves, which is why they desperately need a good shepherd to herd and protect them.

We are as sheep the Bible says in Isaiah 53:6, " All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the LORD hath laid on him the iniquity of us all. " Jesus warned us in Matthew 7:15 about ravening wolves who come disguised as sheep. Matthew 7:15, "

Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves.

" Wolves are cunning, shrewd and dangerous, even eating humans. I could show you hundreds of tragic wolf stories, but here is a story that I randomly found. This one is from India, where [2]9 children and 1 adult were carried off by a pack of wolves and eaten alive! Wolves can be deadly enemies to all land creatures. There is strength in numbers. Wolves learn quickly that in large numbers they are invincible and can take down even the largest of creatures to kill and eat. The same is true with false prophets!

Psalms 103:14, " For he knoweth our frame; he remembereth that we are dust. "

Our great God is merciful to them who fear and obey Him. The Lord understands that we are just dust, and He invites every human being to reason with Him (Isaiah 1:18). Jesus is precious!!!

6.1.18 Works Of Darkness Have Been Committed By Israel (2025-01-22 21:34)

1st Corinthians 10:20-21, “But I say, that the things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to devils, and not to God: and I would not that ye should have fellowship with devils. Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of devils: ye cannot be partakers of the Lord’s table, and of the table of devils.”

The modern religion of Judaism is NOT the Old Testament Jewish religion. Judaism is the false religion of the Pharisees!

2024: The Year Evangelicals Took Fellowship With Devils
(12/29/24 - by Pastor Chuck Baldwin)

What evils Israel committed in Gaza last year, and the evils that the United States wickedly sanctioned in Gaza—mercilessly slaughtering, torturing and murdering 46,000 Palestinians—is the work of Devils. They have taken fellowship with the prince of darkness! These are THE WORKS OF DARKNESS!!! I do NOT stand with Israel.

6.1.19 I Built A Big Snowman In Pensacola, Florida (2025-01-22 21:58)

We had a historic heavy snowstorm in Pensacola yesterday on January 21st, 2025. It snowed about 8 inches. I felt like a little kid again today, even at age 57, playing in the snow...

My Snowman!

I used some 5-gallon buckets that they gave me for free at Harbor Freight. I filled the buckets with snow to make snow blocks. I used charcoal briquettes for the eyes, nose and mouth. I used my John 3:16 hat for Mr. Snowman. I found that old Christmas decoration in my den. I took several dozen photos of the snowstorm yesterday, and my snowman today, for you to see. Enjoy them...

[42]Watch a Video of Birds Enjoying My Feeder

I built a big snowman in my front yard today. The snow was perfect packing! I used my John 3:16 hat, some sticks from my yard, and some charcoal briquettes for the eyes, nose and mouth. Here are some videos of my cool snowman (no pun intended)...

1. [44]Video 1 of My Snowman
2. [45]Video 2 of My Snowman
3. [46]Video 3 of My Snowman

Here’s [47]a video of yesterday’s storm.

It was a [48]WINTER WONDERLAND in Pensacola, Florida, on January 21st, 2025. I talked with one of my neighbours today, showing him my snowman as he walked by. He said that he has lived in Pensacola for 24 years, but has never seen a major snowstorm like this. God is good. I love snow! Since I moved away from Chicago in 2004, and lived on the island of Guam for 17 years, this is the first time I have seen snow in 21 YEARS! I had a blast yesterday and today!

Here is [49]a video of the birds enjoying the feeder I put up for them with food. Unbelievably, the hundreds of birds that come to my feeder will eat 10 pounds of bird seed in just 4 days...

God is so good and awesome! I felt like a kid again today. People were stopping in their cars to take pictures. I loved it! THANK YOU friend for reading my blogs. Jesus is precious!!!

6.1.21 All Women Pastors Are Serving The Devil (2025-01-24 23:43)

1st Corinthians 14:34, “

Let your women keep silence in the churches: for it is not permitted unto them to speak; but they are commanded to be under obedience, as also saith the law.

1st Timothy 2:11-12, “Let the woman learn in silence with all subjection. But I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence.”

Kindly, all women preachers are false prophets! Only men can preach with the authority of God’s inspired Word. Women are commanded in the Bible to be quiet in the church business.

The fact that some people would argue with the inspired Word of God that women are not permitted to be pastors, just evidences how much Satan has corrupted this generation. ... "[1]WOMEN PREACHERS EXPOSED" (by Pastor Max D. Younce).

The Bible is an authoritative Book authored by an authoritative God, and it is only supposed to be preached with authority by men, not females. Ladies can share the Gospel and teach Bible on a personal level to others, but they are not permitted to interfere with church affairs. Women are not permitted to open the pastor’s church mail without his permission. Women are not allowed to have a say in what is preached. Women have no biblical right to control the local church in any capacity, only men do! Female pastors are the ultimate rebellion!

Ladies can serve in the church kitchen. They can work in the church nursery. Ladies can write Sunday School lessons, but only if the pastor gives them permission. Ladies can speak from the pulpit with the pastor’s permission, such as to give their testimony, but they CAN NEVER preach the Word of God! This is a matter of authority! Women have no say in the church.

Some of my readers won’t like me after reading this blog, but as a born-again Christian for 45 years, I do not think women should have a right to vote in political elections. Men ought to control society. Women belong at home being homemakers, mothers, wives and cooks. 1st Timothy 5:14-15, “I will therefore that the younger women marry, bear children, guide the house, give none occasion to the adversary to speak reproachfully. For some are already turned aside after Satan.” A young women in the Bible is any gal under the age of 60! Career women are turned aside after Satan. If that offends you, good, the truth should.

ALL WOMEN PASTORS ARE NOT RIGHT WITH GOD!!!

[2]Pastor Joyce Meyer is a wicked woman, rebellious and greedy. She is wrong on the Gospel, preaching partial faith in Christ plus works. She teaches the lie of Lordship Salvation. I will never support women preachers, nor attend any church which has a rebellious female for a pastor. It’s not a matter of male chauvinism; but rather, it is a matter of obeying the inspired Holy Bible. When women take control of society, all havoc ensues (abortion, homosexuality, public nudity, divorce, MGTOW, et cetera). Biblically, men must rule! Isaiah 3:12,

“

As for my people, children are their oppressors, and women rule over them. O my people, they which lead thee cause thee to err, and destroy the way of thy paths.

6.1.22 Being “Born Again” Doesn’t Mean To Live A Changed Life (2025-01-25 17:34)

John 3:1-3, “There was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews:

The same came to Jesus by night, and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him. Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.”

I was curious today what I would find if I typed “How To Go To Heaven” into DuckDuckGo. So, I tried it. The first website that appeared was wikiHow, an article titled: “[1]How to Get to Heaven (Christianity).” Here is a quote from their corrupt plan of salvation...

> Ask Jesus to come into your life through the prayer of salvation. Simply acknowledging that Jesus is the Son of God and he died for our sins isn’t enough to get you into heaven. You have to make a conscious decision to become a follower of Jesus, praying to God for forgiveness for your sins. This is known in Christianity as being “born again,” because your life should be different from that moment forward. In John 3:3, the Bible explicitly states that you can not go to heaven without doing this: "Jesus answered to him, ’Truly, truly, I say to you, unless one is born again he cannot see the kingdom of God.’"
> [emphasis added]
> [2]SOURCE

It upsets me as a born-again Christians and a Baptist preacher, to see incompetent fools like wikiHow pervert the Gospel, distort the truth and mislead lost sinners about how to get to Heaven. They are like children who have found their father’s loaded gun and are playing with it. WikiHow gets it right that we are all sinners and cannot save ourselves, but they get it woefully wrong that you get born-again by becoming a follower of Christ.

Are you familiar with the disturbing story in Matthew 7:21-23 about a group of people who were standing in judgment before their Creator? They boasted of following Christ, doing many wonderful works, casting out devils and they even called Jesus, “Lord, Lord.” This is the deadly falsehood of Lordship Salvation! They were devout FOLLOWERS of Christ, serving Him with all their heart, but they failed to trust Christ alone for eternal life. Jesus rebuked them, calling them workers of iniquity. Sadly, they were cast into Hell forever to burn.

Remember, Satan’s favorite weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born again. That was their fatal mistake in Matthew 7:21-23. Essentially, they were trying to work their way into Heaven. Romans 3:20, “Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin.” The purpose of God’s Old Testament law is to be used as a measuring stick, by which when men compare themselves, they see their sinnership and need for the dear Savior (Galatians 3:24-26). The sole purpose of God’s law in getting saved is to show men their need as sinners for faith in Jesus Christ (Romans 3:19-20). God never intended for men to first commit to keep the law to the best of their ability, as a prerequisite to receiving God’s free gift of eternal life.

Jesus told them in Matthew 7:21, “Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.

” We find the WILL OF THE FATHER in John 6:40,

“

And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.

” The will of the Father to get to Heaven is to BELIEVE ON JESUS. You cannot get to Heaven by becoming a mere follower of Christ.

WikiHow are very wrong to teach that the biblical phrase

“

in John 3:3 refers to a changed life. That is not what it means to be born anew from above. The inspired King James Bible teaches that when Adam sinned in the Garden of Eden, he opened the floodgate of sin and death upon the world (Romans 5:12). Consequently, we live in a FALLEN WORLD. This is why there have been horrible deadly forest fires in California recently. Contrary to [3]what Pastor Steven Anderson errantly preached, blaming Californian’s sins for their situation; the fires are simply the consequence of living in a fallen world because of Adam’s sin.

I remember hearing in the [4]news in 2019 about a little 11 year old girl. She was at a Campground in Indiana with the Girl Scouts. It had been raining heavily the week before. In a freak accident, a tree fell over and killed her instantly. Do you think God was judging that little girl? Was the tree falling on her God’s way of sending a message to local sinners? No, of course not. She was just in the wrong place at the right time, and she tragically died.

Life is a veil of tears. The fires in California happened because the region is naturally prone to dryness and forest fires, just as the country of Indonesia is prone to volcanic eruptions more than anywhere else on planet earth. God is not judging those people! Death is the wages of sin for all humanity (Romans 6:23). We all must die. How and when differ for everyone. Ecclesiastes 9:11 in the Bible warns that TIME AND CHANCE happens to everyone. That is, there is such a thing as luck.

If your city burns down, I can be mean by looking to find someone who recently sad something bad about God, and then blame that person for the entire city burning down. This is what people do! By using this type of shallow thinking, you could literally attribute all natural disasters to sinful humans and God’s judgment. I humbly do not believe that the fires in California are God’s judgment, just as I don’t think A.I.D.S. was God’s judgment upon homosexuals in the 1970’s through 1990’s. We all suffer because we live in a fallen world because of sin in general, and not because we individually did something sinful. Granted, if you get drunk and drive into a tree, that is on you.

You Don’t Get To Heaven By Praying

WikiHow are darn fools, who speak with authority on the matter of How to Get to Heaven, as if they know what they are talking about, when clearly they don't. It is a very wicked thing to put words into God's mouth, making one's self a liar (Proverbs 30:5-6). Here is what wikiHow foolishly teaches it means to be born again...

> You have to make a conscious decision to become a follower of Jesus, praying to God for forgiveness for your sins. This is known in Christianity as being "born again," because your life should be different from that moment forward. [emphasis added] [5]SOURCE

Nowhere does the Bible teach that you get your sins forgiven by "praying to God."

Repeatedly in the inspired Holy Scriptures we are simply taught to BELIEVE ON JESUS to be saved. John 6:47,

"Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life." You do not have to pray to have you sins forgiven. WikiHow are liars!

You Don't Get To Heaven By Following Jesus

Furthermore, nowhere does the inspired Word of God teach to become a follower of Jesus to get your sins forgiven. You may follow Christ your whole life and yet never be born again at all. John 6:26, " Jesus answered them and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Ye seek me, not because ye saw the miracles, but because ye did eat of the loaves, and were filled." Notice that they followed Jesus, but were not saved. They had selfish motives. They just wanted a handout of food to eat, and to likely take some home for later.

One of my favorite Baptist preachers, Pastor Harry Ironside (1876-1951), wrote these excellent words:

> "The Gospel is not a call to repentance, or to amendment of our ways, to make restitution for past sins, or to promise to do better in the future. These things are proper in their place, but they do not constitute the Gospel; for the Gospel is not good advice to be obeyed, it is good news to be believed. Do not make the mistake then of thinking that the Gospel is a call to duty or a call to reformation, a call to better your condition, to behave yourself in a more perfect way than you have been doing in the past ...
>
> Nor is the Gospel a demand that you give up the world, that you give up your sins, that you break off bad habits, and try to cultivate good ones. You may do all these things, and yet never believe the Gospel and consequently never be saved at all." [emphasis added]
> SOURCE: Harry A. Ironside, from the sermon: '[6]What Is The Gospel?'

I absolutely love that quote from Pastor Ironside, because it is 100 % true! I marvel in sadness that at least 85 % of Baptist pastors today have been poisoned with the toxicity of Lordship Salvation, Misunderstood Repentance and Satan's corrupt Bible revisions. As my regular blog visitors know, I write about this topic quote often. I only do so to counter the woeful lack of preaching today against these deadly evils in the churches. Somebody has got to care! People are going to Hell with a false sense of security, blinded by the falsehoods of False Repentance and Lordship Salvation. By God's grace, I must diligently and faithfully exposes these dangerous lies!

WikiHow have got God's plan of salvation very wrong! Living a changed life is NOT what it means to be born-again. Ephesians 2:1 teaches that we were all born as humans in trespasses and sins. That is, we were all born spiritually dead. This is why we must be born anew from above by the Holy Spirit of God. The new miraculous supernatural birth has nothing to do with one's behavior improving.

1st John 5:20, "And we know that the Son of God is come, and hath given us an understanding, that we may know him that is true, and we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life." The passage we just read teaches that Jesus is eternal life. If you have Jesus, you will live forever. If you haven't been born again, then you don't have the Holy Spirit in you. Romans 8:9 calls the Holy Spirit, the "Spirit of Christ," which ever born again person has indwelling them.

You Get Saved By Believing The Gospel Of Jesus Christ

1st Corinthians 15:1-4 clearly defines 'THE GOSPEL' as Jesus' death on the cross, burial and bodily resurrection from the dead after three days. Any needy sinner who by faith receives Christ's sacrifice on the cross as full payment for his or her sins, believing that Jesus was buried but then raised up from the dead the third day is saved instantly, irrevocably and forever. Simply BELIEVE that Jesus did it all for you. Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith. Salvation is not a reward for the righteous, it is a gift for the guilty.

[7]

What is Lordship Salvation?

Lordship salvation is a phrase/concept introduced to Christianity by an influential Californian preacher named John MacArthur in the 1970's and 80's.

He is a Calvinist and what he has done is to take the teaching of Calvinism and try to make it acceptable to those who are non-Calvinists. This teaching ends up being partly the teaching of Total Inability, which requires regeneration before faith, and also the Perseverance of the Saints, where a sinner have to hold on and keep working to prove that he can persevere or else he were never saved in the first place.

Why is Lordship Salvation so controversial?

The basic idea of Lordship Salvation teaches that a sinner must be willing to forsake all his/her sins and change their life completely in order to secure their eternal salvation which is absolutely not true.

6.1.23 The California Fires Were Not God's Judgment (2025-01-28 11:10)

Luke 13:1-5, " There were present at that season some that told him of the Galilaeans, whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices. And Jesus answering said unto them, Suppose ye that these Galilaeans were sinners above all the Galilaeans, because they suffered such things?

I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

Or those eighteen, upon whom the tower in Siloam fell, and slew them, think ye that they were sinners above all men that dwelt in Jerusalem? I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish."

I have tremendous respect for Pastor Steven Anderson of the Faithful Word Baptist Church in Tempe, Arizona. I love my Brother in Christ and support his aggressive soulwinning ministry.

Having said that, Pastor Anderson is considered the founder and leader of the New IFB (New Independent Fundamental Baptist) movement in the United States and abroad. This all began in 2006 when Brother Anderson started the Faithful Word Baptist Church. He has a strong influence over hundreds of thousands of people worldwide. I have been slandered, attacking and horribly criticized by some members of the New IFB for daring to disagree with Pastor Anderson, who is effectively the New IFB Pope in the eyes of some followers. Regardless, I am going to preach what I believe to be THE TRUTH, even if it harelips every dog in the county.

I heard a sermon last week by Pastor Steven Anderson titled: " [1]California Wild Fires Are The Judgment Of God .

" I humbly disagree. When told about some victims whom Pilate sacrificed upon an altar with the animal sacrifices, Jesus mentioned the Tower of Siloam that fell and killed 18 victims. Jesus asked the group if they thought the victims were more sinful than they are. The Lord makes it very clear in this passage from Luke 13:1-5 that accidents and disasters are NOT God's judgment upon specific sinners; but rather, they are the result of living in a fallen world because of Adam's sin (Romans 5:12).

If Jesus were here today and you told Him about something bad in the news, He might mention the wild fires in California. Jesus might ask you if you think those victims in California are worse sinners than you? This was a rhetorical question with the implication that we are all equally guilty sinners. James 2:10,

"For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all." One sin is enough to send a person to Hell.

The wild fires of California are simply a natural occurrence in that region. In recent years southern California had above average rainfall, which made the grass and brush grow. Then a drought affected the area this past year. All of that extra grass and brush dried out and became fuel for the fire this year. The fires are not God's punishment upon California.

I saw some fool holding a sign recently in Hollywood, which said that Californians don't want God in their state. Many superstitious churchgoers are using that one person's foolish sign to claim that the wild fires are God's judgment on Californians. In fact, the state of [2]Mississippi had the most murders in 2024. The state of [3]Florida had the most abortions in 2024. The state of [4]Alaska had the most rapes in 2024. I hope you get my point. If God were going to judge a state, why would it be California when you've got more murders, rapes and abortions in three other states? If I were God and I wanted to punish a city, I would judge "

Sin City

Las Vegas

a cesspool of iniquity if ever there was one! Religious people can become so foolish in their thinking. Always remember that there is a fine line between faith and foolishness.

What is happening in California is simply a natural part of living on planet earth. Granted, there has been much mismanagement by Democratic government in California. The mayor of Los Angeles cut the fire department's annual budget by $17,000,000. That was very foolish. The governor of California rejected a bill that would have redirected billions of gallons of rain run-off water to be used to fight fires and help the people. The governor felt that the Smelt fish in the Pacific Ocean needed the additional water more than the people he serves do. That also was very foolish. Everything rises and falls on leadership. The 12,000 homes that recently burned down and $250,000,000,000 in damages could have been mostly prevented by responsible government. Regardless, forest fires have always been, and always will be, inherent to southern California due to their dry climate.

I remember when Hurricane Katrina hit New Orleans in 2005, which caused $160,000,000,000 in damage an d killed 1,392 people. Then, just as now, the superstitious religious crowd were claiming that it was God's judgment upon New Orleans.

In 2019, a little 11 year old [5]Girl Scout was instantly killed in a freak accident when a tree fell over and landed on her. It had been raining all week, which loosened the soil. Was God judging that little girl or her parents? Some ignorant people would say yes. God was not judging her anymore than He is judging California in 2025. Bad things happen. It's just a part of living. Life is a veil of tears.

Certainly, the Bible teaches in Romans 6:23 that the wages of sin is death. We all must eventually die as a result of our fallen sinful state. When a person gets born-again by trusting the Good News (Gospel) of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen the third day, that person's soul is redeemed. The flesh won't be redeemed until the Rapture, when we receive our glorified body fashioned like unto the Lord's perfect risen body (Philippians 3:21; 1st Corinthians 15:51-58).

When something bad happens to a person, unless it is a direct result of their own foolishness (e.g., a drug overdose), we ought never think that it is because of God's judgment. Jesus made it clear in Luke 13:1-5 that we are all equally guilty as sinners. California has always had wild fires, so this is nothing new to southern California. I think it is a horrible thing for Pastor Anderson (or anyone) to take the high ground in hypocrisy, by condemning the people of southern California as if they are worse sinners than we are. That is not fair, honest or right.

How would you feel if your home burned down, and all your neighbour's homes burned down too, and some self-righteous hypocrite said that it is because you are all sinners? The New IFB do a great disservice to their movement by preaching hatred, unforgiveness and vengeance on everyone with whom they disagree. Just because it snows 10 feet in New York doesn't mean that God is judging them. I am wearied from hearing superstitious Christians cite every accident, disaster and hardship as God's judgment. If God were to judge humanity, the ground would immediately open and swallow all of us whole into the everlasting fires of Hell.

There are many forms of judgment. There is judgment when someone breaks the law of man. That is why millions of American citizens are incarcerated in prison. Then there is God's judgment when we die. Hebrews 9:27-28, "And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment*: So Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many; and unto them that look for him shall he appear the second time without sin unto salvation." Death itself is a form of judgment because of Adam's sin, which allowed sin and death into the world according to Romans 5:12.

In the Old Testament, God often used a heathen nation to judge His people in Israel. We see this in Judges chapter 6. Judges 6:1 teaches that because of Israel's wickedness, God gave them into the hands of the Midianites for seven years as judgment. So we see that there are different forms of judgment.

The $64,000 question arises then:

Does God sometimes cause bad things to happen in a person's life as judgment against them?

When King David sinned by committing adultery and having Bathsheba's husband murdered, evil never departed from David's house. David's sons commit rape, murder and conspiracy against their own family. Absalom revolted against his own father's leadership, which eventually led to his untimely death. But I do not believe God caused these evil things to happen. James 1:13 teaches that God cannot be tempted with evil nor can He commit evil. God is completely holy, righteous and innocent.

God does curse evildoers. Proverbs 17:13,

Whoso rewardeth evil for good, evil shall not depart from his house.

" Galatians 1:6-9 warns that God's curse is upon anyone who tampers with the Gospel. Revelation 22:19 warns that anyone who tampers with God's Word is not saved, because God promises to remove their name from His Book of Life. That is, corrupting the inspired Holy Bible is effectively the same as rejecting Jesus Christ, who is The Word Of God (Revelation 19:13).

We know in Hebrews 12:6-8 that God promises to scourge and chastise His children when we sin. I dare not speak for God. I do not claim to understand all the ways and intricacies of how God's deals with mankind. I know that God convicts His children when we sin. I believe this is what is part of chastisement. Sometimes God chastises us with human courts and magistrates, if we do evil. But I caution you dear reader not to become superstitious. I have seen some believers who thought God was judging them every time they sneezed. I think it will be obvious if God is judging us. But I humbly believe that 99 % of the tragedies, disasters and hardships in everyone's life is simply because we live in a fallen world.

I heard in the news years ago about a deadly tornado that set down in Georgia. The tornado destroyed a Baptist church and killed 7 people. Was that God's judgment? No, I think not. We live in a fallen world. Bad and good things happen to good and bad people alike. And to be clear, even so-called people are still guilty sinners in God's sight. We are all wicked.

I do not believe that A.I.D.S. in the 1970's through the 1990's was God's judgment against wicked homosexuals, anymore than I believe that COVID-19 was God's judgment against children and elderly people whom it affected the most.

Nor do I think that the 9/11 attacks were God's judgment upon America. Evil men in positions of high powers had prior knowledge of the 9/11 attacks (Ephesians 6:12). President George W. Bush and Vice President Dick Cheney had prior knowledge of 9/11. The White House helped orchestrate and coverup the attacks. Fox News were instrumental in whitewashing the attacks. I still vividly remember paid LIARS Sean Hannity and Bill O'Reilly demonizing anyone who dared to question the official 9/11 narrative (which was fabricated by the government).

I still remember that ungodly liar at Fox News, Sean Hannity, calling former Minnesota governor Jesse Ventura and telling the governor that he should move out of the United States, for daring to question the official 9/11narrative. I'll never forget what Governor Ventura wisely said: How do TWO planes bring down THREE buildings? No one would answer his simple loaded question. That is because carefully planned Controlled Demolition brought down all three World Trade Center buildings on 9/11. [6]No plane struck building 7, but it imploded in [7]classic demolition fashion to the ground in less than just 10 seconds!

It is clear to anyone who has honestly done their homework that 9/11 was an INSIDE JOB!!! 9/11 was not God's judgment upon our nation; but rather, subversion from within by our own White House.

I encourage you dear reader to be careful not to blame God for disasters (e.g., Katrina in 2005, California's wild fires in 2025, the Blizzard of 1979 in Chicago, the devastating Chicago fire in 1871, et cetera). We live in a fallen world where bad things happen to everyone. That is why we get sick and eventually perish. That is why children sometimes get cancer and die at an early age. When Jesus disciples saw a blind man in John 9:1-5, their first impression was that either the man or his parents had sinned. Jesus rebuked them for thinking so foolishly. Jesus said that the man's blindness had nothing to do with anyone's sins; but rather, he was born blind so that God would be glorified. Amen and amen.

6.1.24 A Dire Warning About Billy And Franklin Graham (2025-01-30 13:09)

2nd Corinthians 11:13-15, "For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ. And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works."

This is an often overlooked and disturbing passage of Scripture. The Apostle Paul well understood the danger of false prophets, who appear to look just like God's true prophets. Jesus said, "Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them" (Matthew 7:20). There is much debate and confusion today over the meaning of "fruits" in this passage. Most Bible students say that fruits refers to our works, but they couldn't be more wrong. Proof that they are wrong is found in Matthew 7:21-23. These accursed false prophets were standing in judgment before the Lord Jesus Christ in eternity. They boasted of having done "many wonderful works." They had plenty of good works; not just a few, but many of them. Yet, Jesus called them "ye that work iniquity." That proves that fruit cannot mean works in Matthew 7:20. The fruit is one's doctrine (1st John 4:1).

The reason why Jesus called them workers of iniquity is found in Isaiah 64:6, "But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags; and we all do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away." Your best works are rotten filth to God, because no matter how much good you may do, the bad works are still there. You cannot undo your sins with good works. The payment for sin is death, not good works (Romans 6:23).

That is why Jesus had to die on the cross in our place.

Having said that, one of the most dangerous preachers today is Franklin Graham. He still continues his father's legacy at the Billy Graham Evangelistic Association (BGEA). Tragically, like his corrupt father, Franklin Graham preaches a perverted plan of salvation which requires human effort (works) to get to heaven. Read for yourself. The following is a quote from an article written by Billy Graham (which is the same heresy that his son teaches) titled, "Peace With God." Billy Graham has been deceased since 2018, but this webpage is still active...

> We suggest a prayer like this one:
>
> "Dear God, I know I am a sinner. I want to turn from my sins, and I ask for Your forgiveness. I believe that Jesus Christ is Your Son. I believe He died for my sins and that You raised Him to life. I want Him to come into my heart and to take control of my life. I want to trust Jesus as my Savior and follow Him as my Lord from this day forward. In Jesus' Name, amen."
>
> Did you pray to receive Jesus Christ and begin a relationship with him? [emphasis added] [1]SOURCE

What you have just read may seem reasonable, but there are SIX damnable heresies in the alleged 'Sinner's Prayer.' Let us review them:

1. "I want to turn from my sins" - Nowhere in the inspired King James Bible (which is the ONLY English Bible that hasn't been corrupted) will you find any teaching that you must turn from your sins to be saved. Ungodly religious men sincerely added these words to the Holy Bible, perverting it. The Bible sternly warns in Proverbs 30:5-6 about adding words to God's Words, making yourself a liar. Jesus came into the world to die on a cross to pay our debt of sin as guilty sinners (Romans 3:19-20, 5:6-9); He does not require that you first reform of your wicked ways to qualify to receive God's free gift of eternal life (Ephesians 2:8-9). Billy and Franklin Graham are dirty liars!
2. "I want Him to come into my heart" - The heart is a muscle about twice the size of your fist which pumps blood. How do you invite Jesus into a muscle? This ridiculous terminology has been confusing children for decades. Nowhere does the Bible teach such nonsense!
3. "and take control of my life" - You cannot show me this perverted teaching in an inspired King James Bible! The Gospel of John was penned for the specific purpose of showing us the way to obtain eternal life (John 20:31). Nowhere does the Apostle John mention giving Jesus "control" of your life to get to Heaven. They are confusing discipleship with sonship. They are mixing service with salvation. They are confusing sanctification with justification. The Apostle Paul warned others in 2nd Corinthians 11:13-15 that Satan's minions transform (meaning in the Greek language: imitators) themselves into ministers of righteousness. They are deceivers! Satan's preachers look just like godly preachers, but they are actors. You might find it interesting dear reader, that [2]Billy Graham was honored by Hollywood with a star on their Walk of Fame. You see, Billy Graham was a religious actor—he transformed himself to pretend to be a minister of righteousness!

4. “and follow Him as my Lord from this day forward” - There is nothing in the Word of God about becoming a follower of Jesus as one’s Lord to get to Heaven, let alone continuing doing it for the rest of your life to be saved. This is works, not God’s grace (Romans 4:4). If you recall, the workers of iniquity in Matthew 7:21-23 were loyal followers of Jesus. They even called Him, “Lord, Lord.” Yet, Christ denied knowing them as His sheep. If you trust in following Jesus to get to Heaven, you won’t be going.

5. “Did you pray” - Not one verse in the Holy Bible requires someone to pray to be saved. Many people within the New IFB (Independent Fundamental Baptist) movement have been caught up into this unbiblical heresy, requiring sinner’s to pray and ask Jesus to save them, or else they are told they cannot be saved without saying a prayer. Anyone who teaches that you must pray to be saved is a LIAR! Jesus taught us simply to BELIEVE (John 6:28-29).

6. “and begin a relationship with Him” - And lastly, nowhere does the Holy Bible require that a lost sinner begin a relationship with Jesus to get to Heaven. Why use such confusing terms when the Bible does not? Although it is true that every born again believer is related to Christ as a child of God, the terminology implies that you must fellowship with Jesus to be saved. And again, why should we confuse people by telling them to do something that is nowhere taught in the inspired Word of God. Where does the Bible command us to begin a relationship with Jesus to get to Heaven? It does not.

Dear reader, we have examined the suggested Sinner’s Prayer of the Billy Graham Evangelistic Association, and it is way off the mark when compared to the inspired Holy Scriptures. These people are lying false prophets, who have adopted another gospel.

If your church partakes of Franklin Graham’s ’Operation Christmas Child,’ then you have blood on your hands because of the counterfeit plan of salvation that they propagate. It breaks my heart to see thousands of foolish Baptists today wickedly bidding Godspeed to hellbound false prophets who espouse a different Gospel than the one presented in the inspired King James Bible in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4. Have you been deceived?

Don’t Confuse Sanctification With Justification By Foolishly Mixing Them

Jesus plainly taught that we are saved by faith in Him. John 6:47, “Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.” Nowhere in the inspired Holy Bible can you show me where Jesus ever said to give Him control of your life, start a relationship with Him, turn from your sinful bad habits, or pray a prayer to have eternal life. No, the dear Savior simply said to BELIEVE ON HIM. Even a small child can do that. Even a retarded person can do that. Even a college professor with a PhD can do that! BELIEVE ON JESUS and be saved. John 6:40,

“And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.”

Here is my favorite quote of all, from Pilgrim’s Progress author John Bunyan

> “If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people.” —John Bunyan (1628-1688)

John Bunyan fully understood the danger of confusing and mixing service with salvation, which is LORDSHIP SALVATION. Lordship is a matter of service, which has nothing to do with the free gift of eternal life. To be saved simply BELIEVE that Jesus did it all for you through Calvary's cross. Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do.

Beware Of Pensacola Christian College And Bob Jones University

There is a very dangerous teaching that is circulating in both the Bob Jones University (BJU) and Pensacola Christian College (PCC) religious camps (cults) today, which says: "Justification, sanctification and glorification are a package deal which cannot be separated." I have heard their pastors preach it!

For example: Pastor Josh Thompson teaches a class at PCC. He is a local pastor at the Fairfield Drive Baptist Church in Pensacola, just five minutes away from my home. I have attended their church, which feels a lot more like a classroom than a New Testament church. Their church is essentially a recruiting ground for PCC. If I had my way, PCC would be out of business! PCC horribly mistreats people (as they did me multiple times in 2021 and 2022), and have [3]wickedly perverted the Gospel. Woe unto PCC!

In a disturbing conversation with Pastor Josh Thompson in 2022, he told me that, quote: "Justification, sanctification and glorification are a package deal which cannot be separated." Neo-evangelical pastors are like parrots, repeating this damnable teaching again and again. When I attended PCC's Campus Church in 2021, I heard them teach this same damnable lie—confusing service with salvation, mixing sanctification with justification and thus perverting the Gospel of free grace. And remember, Pastor Thompson teaches at PCC.

Dear reader, if you've been following what I have shown you, then you can clearly see that what John Bunyan taught and what Josh Thompson teaches are diametrically opposed to each other. These two philosophies are worlds apart from one another! PCC and BJU foolishly teach that if your behavior hasn't changed (sanctification), then you're not justified. They have wickedly corrupted God's simple plan of salvation, by linking your changed behavior (reformation) with God's free gift of eternal life (which is obtained by faith alone, Galatians 3:26).

Salvation is not a reward for the righteous, it is a gift for the guilty!

Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

Turning away from sinful ways would be a work. Faith puts all of the merit where it belongs, on the object of our faith, Jesus and His work.

If to "repent" means to forsake our sinful ways TO BE SAVED, but Jesus already paid for our sins by dying on the cross, then what are we repenting from?

The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU.

We must stay true to the simplicity of the Gospel!! Repentance regarding salvation is a change of mind from unbelief to belief!!! We must earnestly contend for the faith (Jude 1:3).

By Supporting Operation Christmas Child (OCC), You Are Sinfully Bidding Franklin Graham Godspeed

What saith the Scripture? 2nd John 1:11, "For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds." We are living in apostate times. In 2nd Timothy 3:1-7, the Bible foretells of "perilous times" when people would become very selfish and have "a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away." That power is the Gospel according to Romans 1:16. PCC and BJU appear to be godly, but they are very wrong on the Gospel. [4]Look at the garbage that BJU teaches how to get to Heaven. These are dangerous hellbound ministers of unrighteousness, whom the Bible says will be judged according to THEIR WORKS!!! Since their faith is in turning from sins, surrendering control of their life to Christ, and praying a prayer (WORKS) instead of solely trusting Christ, they can only be judged according to their works. The $64,000 question dear friend is: Are you relying upon your works to get to Heaven?

I know a professed Christian lady who has an older brother and sister-in-law who are caught up into the cult of Church of Christ. This lady told me that she thinks her brother and sister-in-law are saved, even though they are relying upon water baptism and forsaking a lifestyle of sinning to get to Heaven. They are NOT saved, and I question the lady's salvation as well. My mindset as a born again believer is that JESUS PAID IT ALL, period, end of story. But someone who sincerely thinks that they must be water baptized to be saved, has a completely different mindset concerning Christ and salvation.

Folks, there is ONLY one acceptable mindset to be saved, which the Bible defines in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:" There you have it, Jesus' death on the cross, burial and bodily resurrection after three days. Trust in the Gospel and you are saved!

Now how does what we just read from God's inspired Word, compare to Billy and Franklin Graham's distorted and embellished plan of damnation? They are ballparks apart. It is time for pastors and laymen alike to get right with God, by ridding their churches of these imposters.

6.1.25 You Don’t Have To Be Willing To Reform To Be Saved (2025-01-31 13:13)

Matthew 1:21, “And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS: for he shall save his people from their sins.

John 3:17, “For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved.”

The inspired Holy Bible plainly teaches that Jesus is the only begotten Son of God, who came into the world to save mankind from our sins. Luke 19:10, “For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost. ” I have shared just a few Scripture passages with you that clearly teach why Jesus came into the world and died on a cross, which was to save humanity from our sins. This is what the inspired Word of God teaches.

Unfortunately, false religion has infiltrated many once New Testament churches, perverting their doctrine and turning them into religious cults. One of the biggest deceptions which Satan has crept into churches today is False Repentance. In his helpful book titled: ’Enemies Of Soul Winning,’ Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) gives six reasons why you DO NOT need to repent of your sins to be saved:

1. God says to the unsaved, "Repent of your unbelief."

It’s very interesting that in I John the word "repentance" is never mentioned, and yet the purpose of I John was to give people the assurance of salvation. I John 5:13, "These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God." Of course, repentance is certainly implied throughout the entire book, because the book tells us that what saves is believing on Christ (or relying on Him) to save, which, of course, implies that that person must repent of what makes him lost, which is unbelief.

2. God says to the saved people, "Repent of sin."

This is done by the Holy Spirit as He comes in to live to remind us to take the clothes off the bedpost, the shirt off the chair, put the shoes into the closet, etc.

3. If a person must repent of his sins to be saved, of what sins must he repent?

Can he repent of all of them? Isn’t that sinless perfection or holiness? Isn’t that salvation by works? Of what sin must one repent? He must repent of the sin that makes him lost, and that’s the sin of unbelief.

4. If turning from sins would get you saved, then turning back to sins would get you lost.

In Acts 16:30 the very simple question is asked, "What must I do to be saved?" This is the one time in the Bible where this question is asked. Now the answer to this question must be what saves a person. Acts 16:31, "And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house." There’s the answer—belief. There is nothing about repentance here, except, yes, there is something about repentance, because you can’t believe without repenting from unbelief.

5. If a person has to clean up his own life before he gets saved, we are back to Arminianism or salvation by works.

6. We cannot do what the Holy Spirit can do.

The Holy Spirit first convicts us of our sin of unbelief to bring us to Christ. Once He brings us to Christ, He comes in us to live. Romans 8:9, "But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his." I Corinthians 6:19, 20, "What? know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own? For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's."

Then when the Holy Spirit is in us, He begins to convict us of things in our lives that should be changed. Then the Christian life becomes a constant repenting until we wake in the likeness of Christ. SOURCE: Pastor Jack Hyles, '[1]Enemies Of Soul Winning'; chapter 4, '[2]Misunderstood Repentance'

Amen and amen! Not one verse in the inspired King James Bible teaches that to get to Heaven you must forsake a lifestyle of sinning. Neither does the inspired Word of God teach that you must " be willing

to turn away from sinful bad habits. Yet, in nearly every Baptist church today, you will hear such blatant lies preached from the pulpit, telling lost sinners that if they desire to go to Heaven they must forsake their past sinful ways, and promise to do their best to follow Christ for the rest of their life. No such teachings are found in the Holy Bible.

Sad to say, but true nevertheless, we've got a bunch of misled lying ministers behind America's pulpits today. In nearly every Bible college today, a counterfeit plan of salvation is being preached, requiring lost sinners to give up their sinful ways to be saved, which is an impossible thing to do. Those lying preachers will say that no one is perfect, so we can only do our best with God's help to forsake our sins. Although this statement in itself is very true, it is false doctrine when required to get to Heaven, because it is WORKS.

Pacific Garden Mission Is Wrong On The Gospel

A changed life has nothing to do with someone freely receiving God's gift of eternal life, which Jesus paid for with His precious blood (1st Peter 1:18-19). A changed life is the fruit of the indwelling Holy Spirit (Galatians 5:22-25). This fruit is produced AFTER a person is saved, not before or as a condition of the new birth. This is what the Bible means in 2nd Corinthians 5:17,

"Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new." Notice carefully that this man is already "

in Christ

who has become a new creature. That new creature is wrought by the indwelling Holy Spirit. Nowhere in this Scripture passage does it imply behavioral modification.

Tragically, Pacific Garden Mission in Chicago, on their '[3]UNSHACKLED' radio program, horribly misapply this passage of Scripture, using it to coerce lost sinners to commit to forsaking their sinful bad habits and addictions as a prerequisite to be saved. This is a perversion of the Gospel of free grace! The Bible in multiple passages called eternal life the gift of God. It is not something that must be earned, merited or some form of reward that requires a trade of sorts.

John MacArthur Is Wrong On The Gospel

In his popular 1988 book titled, "The Gospel According to Jesus," infidel [4]Pastor John MacArthur even heretically uses the word "exchange" concerning being saved. What you are about to read by John MacArthur is totally unbiblical dam nable heresy:

> "Thus in a sense we pay the ultimate price for salvation when our sinful self is nailed to a cross. . . . It is an exchange of all that we are for all that Christ is. And it denotes implicit obedience, full surrender to the lordship of Christ. Nothing less can qualify as saving faith." [emphasis added] —Pastor John MacArthur; The Gospel According to Jesus, p. 140

Dear reader, salvation is not an exchange! Receiving the free gift of eternal life is not a trade. John MacArthur is preaching another gospel of partial faith in Christ plus works (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4). Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith. Salvation is not a reward for the righteous, it is a gift for the guilty.

Ray Comfort Is Wrong On The Gospel

Kindly, [5]Evangelist Ray Comfort says that "repentance" means "LIVING A LIFESTYLE THAT PROVES THE REALITY OF YOUR REPENTANCE!" And then he adds, "IT'S A CONTINUAL THING!" Read for yourself what Mr. Comfort horribly teaches this woman, in this transcript from the Living Waters video...

> "So if the plane goes down, you'd end up in Hell! There are two things you have to do to be saved. Do you remember what they are? I told you what they are—You've got to repent and trust the Savior! ... God's offering you everlasting life upon your repentance and faith in Christ. Who in his right mind wouldn't say, 'Whoa! That's a good offer!' (The curious woman asks what it means to "repent"?)... Have you ever said you're sorry to someone you did something wrong to? That's all repentance is—You've sinned against God; it's a matter of saying, 'God, I'm sorry,' and then LIVING A LIFESTYLE that proves the reality of your repentance. That's what repentance is, it's a continual thing! God, 'I'm sorry, but I'm not going going to lie or steal or blaspheme Your name ever again. It has that attitude! And the second thing—trust in Jesus!" [emphasis added]
> SOURCE: Evangelist Ray Comfort, "[6]I've never killed anyone" ([7]MP3 clip from video)

Dear reader, I triple-dog dare you to show me even one verse from the Holy Bible that teaches that “LIVING A LIFESTYLE” is required as part of being saved. You cannot! Now my friend, “a double-dog dare” is serious business, but a triple-dog dare is something you don’t want to mess around with! I triple-dog dare you to show me even one Bible verse that agrees with these false statements by Ray Comfort.

Beware Of False Prophets!

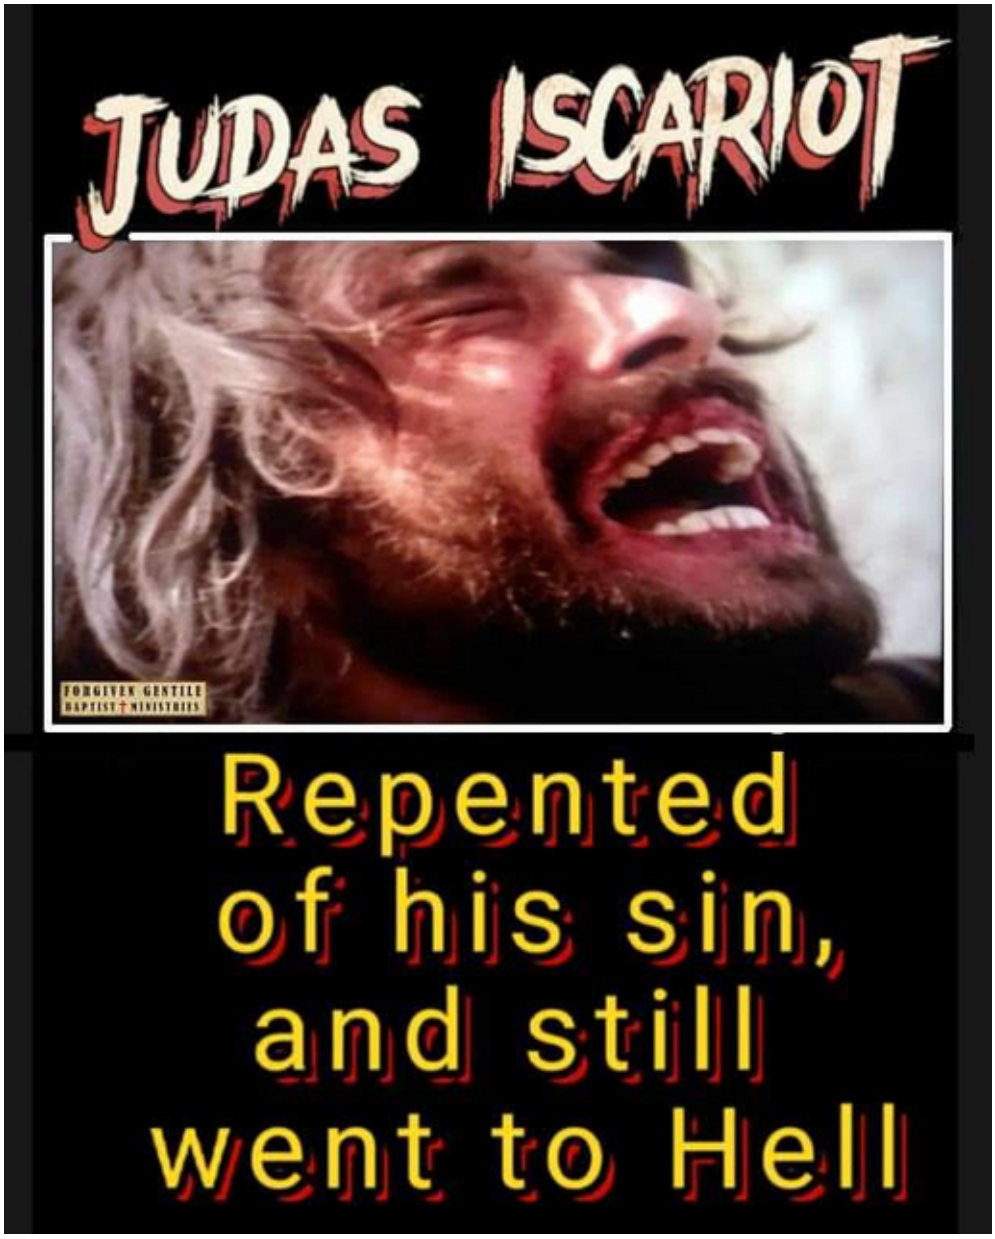
All of these men and institutions that I have just exposed are pulling on the same rope as the Devil, the blind leading the blind into Hell forever.

Kindly said, John MacArthur has God’s plan of salvation very wrong!

Pacific Garden Mission and their popular ’UNSHACKLED’ radio program have God’s simple plan of salvation very wrong!

Evangelist Ray Comfort has God’s simple plan of salvation very wrong!

In fact, biblically, you DON’T have to try to turn away from your sins for the rest of your life to get to Heaven.



The Gospel of John is God’s Gospel track. John 20:31, “But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name.” PLEASE DON’T MISS THAT! God authored the Gospel of John specifically so “that believing ye might have life through his name.” That means we don’t need any other Scripture than what is found in the Gospel of John to be saved.

Where in the Gospel of John are we taught that, “LIVING A LIFESTYLE,” is necessary to receive eternal life? You cannot! Mr. Comfort is a bold-faced theological liar! Ray is ADDING to the Gospel, perverting it! This means Mr. Comfort is accursed by God. Galatians 1:9, “As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed.” I didn’t say that, almighty God did!

It grieves my heart to know that most Baptists and neo-evangelicals today have fallen hook, line and sinker for the Devil’s lies of Lordship Salvation and Misunderstood Repentance. I wrote this article to warn others of what is happening today in the churches, so that you will be informed and prepared to deal with it. You shouldn’t attend any so-called “church” that is wrong on the Gospel.

I don’t like churches that use the Devil’s corrupt bibles, but I humbly think it is even worse when they are wrong on the Gospel. Usually the two go hand in hand! You’ll have a difficult time finding a church that uses the modern corrupt Bibles that is correct on the Gospel. If you are attending a local church that uses only the inspired King James Bible, and the church preaches a free grace Gospel, then count yourself very blessed dear friend because such churches are becoming rare in these perilous times. Thank you for reading my blog.

6.2 February

6.2.1 Pastor Aiden Tozer Was An Unsaved False Prophet (2025-02-02 16:15)

Galatians 1:6-9, “I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed.”

Pastor Aiden W. Tozer (1897-1963) was a false prophet! Mr. Tozer unquestionably taught the Devil’s lie of Lordship Salvation. At one time I viewed him as a great man of God, but then one day realized that he taught a false gospel.

I humbly think that Tozer’s teachings are arrogant, highbrow, snobbish, pompous and self-righteousness. No man is going to Heaven who preaches a perverted plan of salvation that requires human effort.

For example: Pastor Tozer errantly states:

> "In the Bible the offer of pardon on the part of God is conditioned upon intention to reform on the part of man. There can be no spiritual regeneration till there has been a moral reformation*" (The Best of A.W. Tozer, Book 2, pg. 115-117; Compiled by Warren W. Wiersbe).

That is very wrong! Salvation is receiving, not achieving. Mr. Tozer requires sinners to "reform" themselves before they can be saved. This goes totally contrary to the plainest teachings in the inspired Holy Bible. Romans 4:5, “But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.”

Pastor Tozer is teaching works for salvation!!! Salvation is a free gift, freely given and freely received. Reformation (changing one’s behavior) has absolutely nothing to do with going to Heaven.

Dr. Jack Hyles (1926-2001) fully understood this biblical truth...

> “The wickedness of a life has not one thing in this world to do with where you go when you die; not one thing!” —Pastor Jack Hyles, “[1]Religion Or Christ?”

> “Religion and Christ are in opposition to each other!” —Pastor Jack Hyles, “ [2]Religion Or Christ?”

I made this brief [3]excerpt from Pastor Hyles’ preceding sermon, if you’d like to hear it.

Let me quote infidel Pastor Tozer again:

> "In the Bible the offer of pardon on the part of God is conditioned upon intention to reform on the part of man. There can be no spiritual regeneration till there has been a moral reformation*" (The Best of A.W. Tozer, Book 2, pp. 115-117; Compiled by Warren W. Wiersbe).

Now at first glance the preceding statement from Mr. Tozer seems logical, but it cannot be supported with Scripture. If a person must be willing to reform (change) to be saved, then what about the young couple who are shacking up in fornication and have no intentions of getting married? Does Tozer mean that God will not save them unless they are willing to marry? Yes, that is exactly what Pastor Tozer foolishly taught. I marvel that men like Aiden Tozer often forget the fact that eternal life is the free gift of God (Romans 5:15-18, 6:23; Ephesians 2:8-9). To truly remain a free gift, there can be no exchange or trade of sorts; but rather, you simply take it by faith in Jesus Christ.

Or how about a woman who is a drunkard, chemically addicted. Does she have to commit to attend alcohol rehab to be saved, because there's no way that a person can be delivered from chemical alcohol or drug dependency without medical treatment. Maybe some people can, but most cannot. I've suffered inexplicable afflictions (withdrawal symptoms) just trying to give up prescription Percocet, Dilaudid, Morphine Sulfate, and Oxycontin. You don't just walk away from alcohol, crystal meth and heroine addiction and all the sins associated: theft, prostitution, gangs, et cetera.

In the real world it's not that easy to just "stop sinning." That's why a person needs Jesus Christ, that is, to get saved and then the Holy Spirit of God can begin to work in that person's life, but it TAKES TIME, depending how far gone a person has sunk into the depths of Satan (Revelation 2:24). The matter of salvation has nothing to do with a willingness to reform or change. Pastor Harry Ironside makes this abundantly clear in his excellent sermon, [4]WHAT IS THE GOSPEL? God saves any sinner that trusts upon Jesus as the Christ, the Son of God, without any demand that the sinner be willing to change.

May I remind you of the precious Words our Lord spoke in John 6:28-29, "Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent." Believe and the work is done!

Pastor Harry Ironside (1876-1951) Has it Correct

Please read the following excellent explanation of the Gospel by former Moody Memorial Church pastor, Harry A. Ironside (1876-1951)...

> "The Gospel is not a call to repentance, or to amendment of our ways, to make restitution for past sins, or to promise to do better in the future. These things are proper in their place, but they do not constitute the Gospel; for the Gospel is not good advice to be obeyed, it is good news to be believed. Do not make the mistake then of thinking that the Gospel is a call to duty or a call to reformation, a call to better your condition, to behave yourself in a more perfect way than you have been doing in the past …

> Nor is the Gospel a demand that you give up the world, that you give up your sins, that you break off bad habits, and try to cultivate good ones. You may do all these things, and yet never believe the Gospel and consequently never be saved at all."
>
> SOURCE: Dr. Harry A. Ironside, from the sermon: [5]What Is The Gospel?

Clearly, Ironside correctly taught a Free Grace view of the Gospel. Amen! Don't mess with the Gospel. Just believe it!

Aiden Tozer's False Gospel

According to Mr. Tozer's errant theology, a lost sinner who wants to get saved, but is unwilling to marry his live-in girlfriend, cannot. Tozer clearly states that a person's salvation is CONDITIONED upon one's intention to reform. This is the same heresy that [6]Jack T. Chick teaches in his Chick tracts. This is the same heresy that [7]John MacArthur and [8]Ray Comfort teach. Salvation is not conditional upon anything other than a person coming as a sinner in need of the Savior. John 6:29, "Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent." The only prerequisite to being saved is that you become guilty before God (Romans 3:19), and then believe on the Lord Jesus Christ to remedy those sins (Acts 16:31).

I realize that Aiden W. Tozer is a highly respected man by many people, BUT we must follow the teachings of the Word of God and not men. Psalms 118:8, "It is better to trust in the LORD than to put confidence in man." Mr. Tozer is dead wrong when he states: "There can be no spiritual regeneration till there has been a moral reformation." If we have to reform as a prerequisite to being saved, then where does the gift of God fit in? According to Romans 5:5 and 6:23, eternal life is a FREE GIFT, paid for by Jesus' precious blood (1st Peter 1:18,19). Mr. Tozer taught heresy, a false gospel called " [9]Lordship Salvation ."

The proponents of Lordship Salvation (or the notion that a person must be willing to change to be saved) allege that preachers such as myself believe that a person can get saved and then go out and live like they never found Christ at all. That is not what I believe, nor do I know anyone else who believes that. Although I do believe that a person can be saved and continue in sin without fear of losing their salvation (for the gospel is free to whosoever believes), the Bible plainly teaches in Hebrews 12:6-8 that God will chastise His children. If you do get saved and choose to continue in sin, God will chastise you and deal with you in His own manner and time. God doesn't give anyone permission to continue in sin (Romans 3:31). God gives all men the freedom to make their own choices, but no one has God's permission to sin, no one.

Please keep in mind that reforming, living a consecrated life and surrendering one's life to Jesus Christ have absolutely NOTHING to do with the gift of eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord (Romans 6:23; Ephesians 2:8-9). Eternal life is a free gift, paid for by Jesus' precious literal blood (1st Peter 1:18-19; 1st John 1:7; Revelation 1:5). Salvation is freely available to all humanity though the finished redemptive work of Christ. There are no requirements, nor strings attached, nor obligations... it is a gift, paid in full.

All you need to do is believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God Who came into the world and died, was buried, and rose again for your sins. Believe and the work is done (John 20:31). When I say "believe" I don't mean head knowledge, I mean that you make a decision that you're going to rely upon Jesus, because of what He did to pay for your sins to get you into Heaven. You trust upon the name of Jesus and you're saved. Simply believe that Jesus did it all for you.

6.2.2 Pensacola Christian College Does Not Love People (2025-02-04 13:00)

1st Peter 2:12, "Having your conversation honest among the Gentiles: that, whereas they speak against you as evildoers, they may by your good works, which they shall behold, glorify God in the day of visitation."

Here is the latest angry complaint against PENSACOLA CHRISTIAN COLLEGE, this time on Google Reviews. PCC doesn't care about people. They are cowards who wickedly hide behind the Bible, pretending to be something that they are not. Again and again, PCC's actions show that they are a bunch of phonies. I feel sorry for this victimized family by PCC. With their hundreds of millions of dollars, PCC won't help this woman. According to Galatians 1:6-9, [1]GOD'S CURSE IS UPON PCC and you're a wicked person if you continue to support that damned place!!!

Shallow local churches in Pensacola which bid Godspeed to PCC are selfish, indifference, complacent and shameful. Just as Jesus said in Revelation 3:17, they are blind, naked, poor, wretched and miserable; but today's pastors are so arrogant and stuck in their Comfort Zones that they couldn't care less, so they just go along to get along, part of the big problem. ...

> "I do not know why God's allowed a tragedy to happen to me but I do believe God allowed it to happen for a reason. God sometimes puts us through trials... He doesn't cause me to go through it but He allows it. God has promised me a future and a hope. Sometimes God's timing is not ours, God's timing is perfect.. God bless. God sometimes puts us through trials and God sometimes sometimes sometimes we don't understand why we go through it but we can trust God's plan. We don't see the end.. We sometimes don't, we sometimes we don't see the end but we know God is. We love God!!! We know God has a purpose, know know, we sometimes, God knows exactly what we need and when we need it and He provides it. I know sometimes.. know.. know we can't see the end but we can trust God's plan. We can sometimes feel like we're all alone in this world but we're not. We have God and we have each other. Sometimes we don't understand why we go through what we go through but we can trust God's plan. I know sometimes it feels like we're all alone in this world but we're not. We have God and we have each other. We can't see the end but we can trust God's plan. We don't understand why we go through what we go through but we can trust God's plan. We don't see the end but we can trust God's plan.

[4]PCC's income for 2023 was $172,551,208. That is sickening! Yet, the greedy jerks at PCC refuse to pay $38,440 in hospital bills to a father of four injured children because of the recklessness of one of their students at the front gate of their school. What ungodly LOSERS!!!

By the way, the Executive President of PCC got paid a disgusting [5]salary of $205,069 in 2023. What greedy dogs!

Woe unto PCC when they stand before God in eternity!

It is a shame that a victim of a popular professed " should have to resort to posting their complaint on social media, because the ungodly spoiled leaders at PCC couldn't care less about his family's suffering. Pensacola Christian College represents everything that is wrong with Christendom in America today!!! Our nation is going to Hell in a wheel barrow, while today's dead religious schools continue to produce impotent students, which are a curse upon the churches. [6]PCC cannot even get God's simple plan of salvation right.

Look for yourself at the [7]damnable heresy being wickedly taught at PCC. If you wickedly bid Godspeed to PCC, then you are a partaker of their evil deeds and coming judgment from God.

6.2.3 Things You Need To Know About Drinking Booze (2025-02-04 13:30)

Few beer drinkers realize how quickly and significantly that alcohol affects the human body...

According to CNN medical correspondent Dr. Steve Salvatore, i t doesn’t take much alcohol to impair someone very quickly...

> It Doesn’t Take Much
>
> Actually, a driver can be impaired with a U.S. blood-alcohol level as low as .03.
>
> When you drink alcohol, it goes straight from the stomach into the bloodstream. Alcohol can be detected in the blood as fast as five minutes after drinking, and its effects—most obvious in the central nervous system—peak in about 30 to 45 minutes.
> Alcohol depresses the central nervous system which, in turn, impairs motor function, motor performance, speech and eye movements. These skills are not only slowed down, they are performed more inaccurately. Alcohol also affects the ability to think and reason clearly. —SOURCE: ’[1]For A Driver, Even A Few Drinks Can Be Lethal’

Do you see the great DECEPTION of the .08 BAC legal limit? At just .05 BAC, the human body is already experiencing impairment of coordination. This is serious folks! What is wrong with our legislatures? Are they brain dead? Get this ... our very SAME government which sets the BAC legal limit at .08, also states the following...

> "The National Highway Traffic Safety Administration’s (NHTSA) position on the relationship between blood alcohol concentration and driving is that driving performance degrades after just one drink."
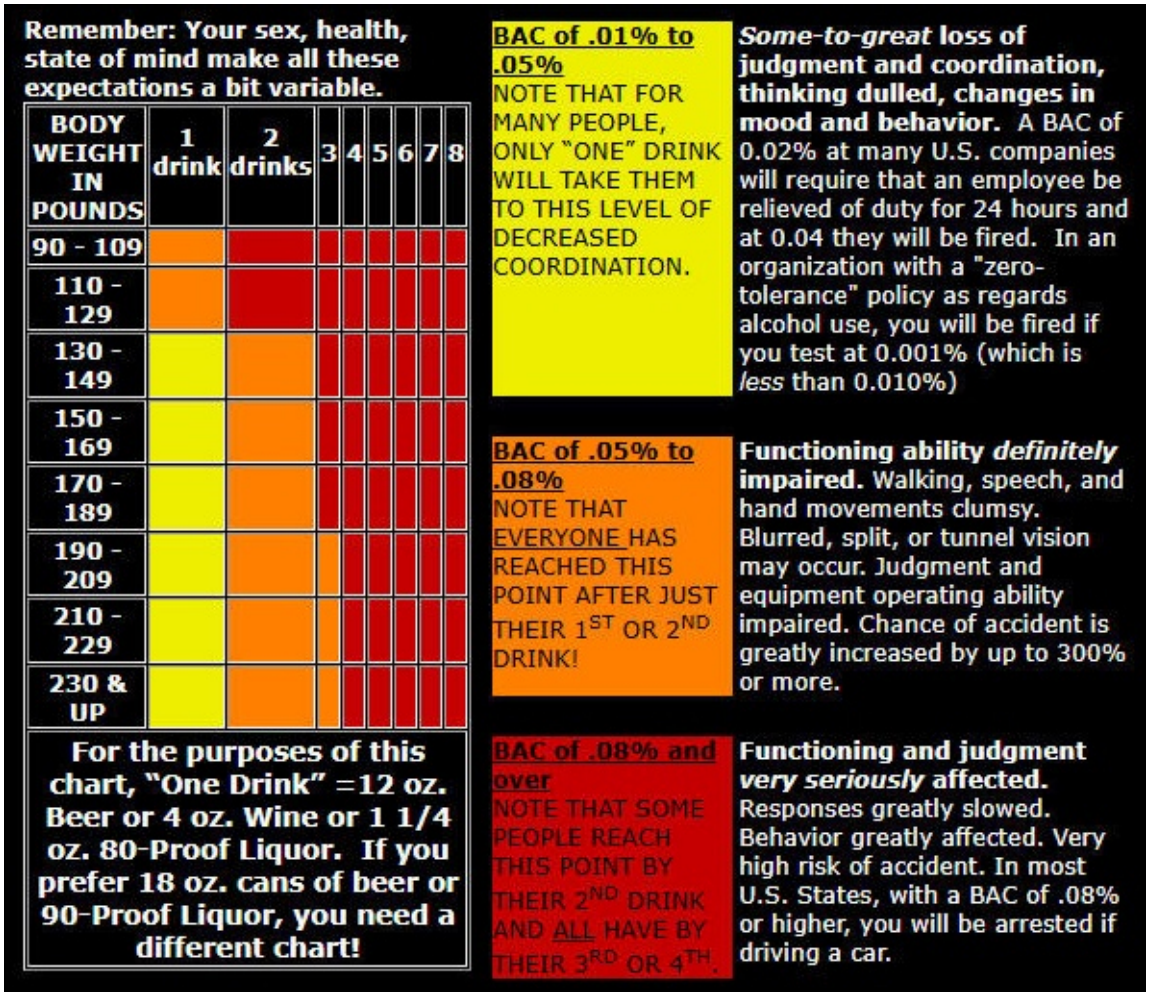
> SOURCE: [2]http://www.nhtsa.dot.gov/people/injury/New-fact-sheet03/Point08BAC.pdf



Am I missing something here? Since the NHTSA (our U.S. federal government) admits that even ONE ALCOHOLIC DRINK degrades a person’s driving performance, then why in the name of common sense doesn’t our government’s lawmakers lower the BAC to equate to ONE DRINK? Tragically, our government leaders are playing games with people’s lives, and millions of innocent people ARE DYING! This is spiritual wickedness in high places (Ephesians 6:12). The government has much blood on their hands!

Alcohol Tastes And Feels Good, But Is Misleading

The following helpful chart is from OHS Health and Safety Services Incorporated.

EXPECTED BLOOD ALCOHOL CONCENTRATION (“BAC”)

BASED ON THE NUMBER OF DRINKS YOU’VE CONSUMED IN A ONE-HOUR PERIOD...

[4]CLICK HERE for the BAC levels in each U.S. State at which you will be (and should be!) arrested if you are caught driving a car while under the influence of alcohol.

As anyone can clearly see from the chart above, having even ONE 12oz. DRINK of beer can cause a person weighing over 200 lbs. to have a BAC of up to .05! What strikes me as strange and a definite double-standard, is that many companies will fire an employee who comes to work with a BAC of .04 % or more; but the legal system won't do anything to punish that person for driving under the influence until their BAC hits .08 %. Why the double-standard? Why are private companies more concerned about their employees than our government's lawmakers are concerned about it's own people who entrusted them with power to rule? Something is very rotten in Washington DC!

What saith the Scripture? Proverbs 20:1, "Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging: and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise." The inspired Holy Bible warns that alcohol has a deceitful nature. No one ever wakes up one day and says, "I can't wait to get drunk and murder someone with my car." No young person someday dreams of becoming a casualty because of booze. Yet, it happens everywhere around the world because of the deceptive nature of alcohol. I thank God times 10,000 that I have never drank a single drop of booze in my life. My father was a Skid Row preacher. I grew up seeing Skid Row and what booze does to men, to ruin their lives, families and health. Alcoholism is not a disease, it is a wicked sin that becomes a chemical addiction! Medical intervention is usually necessary for recovery.

> "I've stood for more sneers and scoffs and insults and had my life threatened from one end of the land to the other by this God-forsaken gang of thugs and cutthroats because I have come out uncompromisingly against them." —[5]Billy Sunday

[6] Beware Of Pacific Garden Mission's 'UNSHACKLED' Garbage Theology

Case in point is [7]'UNSHACKLED' program #3590 (aired in 2019). A man named Matthew gets a flat tire and stops in a little church, meeting a church member named Ted, who listens to Matthew's troubled life's story and offers some horrible advice. I n the UNSHACKLED program (after being coached by his religious sister to "REPENT and RECEIVE THE INVITATION"), Matthew prays some religious junk and tells Jesus that he wants Him to be his Savior, but there is no mention of Christ's death, burial or resurrection (The Gospel). PGM is guilty of preaching another gospel (Galatians 1:6-9). Upon praying the prayer, Matthew says:

> "I got up from my knees and I was free. I was new. That day God delivered me from my addictions! Within minutes of my spiritual salvation, he took away my impulse to use [drugs]."

Folks, that is junk theology! Here is the truth...

> "Good character is not formed in a week or a month. It is created little by little, day by day. Protracted and patient effort is needed to develop good character." —Heraclitus of Ephesus (535-475 BC)

No one just overcomes their lifelong substance abuse addictions in a second. PGM should know better but they don't, because foolish yuppie-type neo-evangelicals are running the rescue mission today. They are running it into the ground!

What saith the Scripture? ...

> Romans 12:1-2, "I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God."

I am unalterably opposed to Pacific Garden Mission's junk theology, which says that a sinner must "REPENT and BELIEVE" (two steps) to be saved. The problem is that PGM wrongly understands repentance to mean full surrender to Christ, and to turn away from one's sinful bad habits. This is the heresy of Lordship Salvation. Turning from one's sinful ways is REFORMATION, not REGENERATION. I am against the heretical idea that if a person comes to Christ they will instantaneously be changed in behavior. The only difference when you get saved is the presence of the indwelling Holy Spirit of God (1st Corinthians 3:16-17; Romans 8:9; 1st John 3:24).

A wise doctor once said that if you don't take the first drink of alcohol, you can't take the second drink. I really like his reasoning! If you never take the first sip of booze, you cannot become a drunk! Let him that hath ears to hear, hear.

6.2.4 Beware Of Ungodly Advice Because It's Everywhere (2025-02-06 13:02)

Psalms 1:1-2, "Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.

But his delight is in the law of the LORD; and in his law doth he meditate day and night.

We are surrounded with carnally minded people in the world. People give some of the worst advice, and if you are weak and ungrounded in the inspired Holy Scriptures, you are vulnerable.

The first matter that comes to mind is marital problems. People are infamous for encouraging others to divorce their spouse, but it is wicked advice. I once heard a lawyer tell a husband to " strike first

on his wife, encouraging the man to file for divorce before she might. Thankfully, the Christian man didn't take that ungodly attorney's toxic advice. The lawyer just wanted the man's money! Sadly, that husband's wicked wife did divorce him a year later, and she must answer to God one day in eternity for ruining her husband's life, causing him decades of loneliness and suffering. That woman is a monster!

The wicked woman that I just mentioned was encouraged by a meddling Baptist pastor's ungodly wife to file for divorce. That pastor's wife is a witch! Heads will roll on Judgment Day! There is nothing more wicked in this world than for someone to break apart another person's marriage. That is what the serpent did to Eve in Genesis. The serpent (Satan) gave her the worst advice possible, convincing her that she was doing the right thing to disobey God. Eve did disobey God by eating the forbidden fruit. And then in Genesis 3:15 she gave the fruit to her husband and he did also eat. Eve ruined Adam's life! His rotten spoiled wife destroyed their family's happiness because she wasn't content with what she had. Eve wanted more!

I cannot warn you ladies enough to stay away from people's ungodly potty advice concerning your marriage, because 99 % of other women will give you their feminist biased angry advice. I am talking about Bible college staff women! I am talking about pastor's wives and even pastors! They will hurt your family and destroy your marriage when you are down and going through a rough time in your marriage. Most people in this ungodly perverted generation are toxic to your marriage!!! We are living in a selfish generation of lazy, spoiled, ungrateful and characterless adults. That includes professed so-called "Christians."

The average adult today is a big baby!

We live in a toxic culture in the United States. I hate television commercials, which are mostly humanistic in nature. For example: Burger King's slogan is: "Have It Your Way." What saith the Scripture? Ecclesiastes 12:!3, " Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man." Burger King is wrong! We need to have it God's way! I know they are talking about the way your food is prepared, but the slogan is intended to appeal to our humanistic sinful nature.

Another example is McDonald's slogan:

"You Deserve A Break Today!" What saith the Scripture! Romans 6:23a, "For the wages of sin is death...

" The truth is that we all deserve death because we are sinners! This includes the Second Death in the Lake of Fire forever (Revelation 20:11-15, 21:8). We all deserve to go directly to Hell, do not pass Go, do not collect $200. I borrowed that from the game, Monopoly. Seriously, we all deserve nothing better from God than for Him to allow us to burn in Hell forever. We are all wicked sinners!

No, you don't deserve a break today! You don't deserve to have it YOUR WAY! The famous singer, Frank Sinatra, sang his popular song: "

I Did It My Way.

" Sadly, I have no doubt whatsoever that Mr. Sinatra is burning in the fires of Hell now and forever, because he died in his sins without faith alone in Jesus Christ. Frank never got born-again! I hope I am wrong. Only God and Frank Sinatra know for sure. The heathen world look at everything from a humanistic viewpoint, not a biblical viewpoint. The world says you have to be strong to survive, but the Word of God says you have to be weak...

> 2ndCorinthians 12:9-10, " And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me. Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong."

Did you read that? I am strong when I am weak the Bible says. Wow! You'll NEVER hear that kind of truth from a secular psychologist or psychiatrist. A shrink will just prescribe to you psychotropic drugs and take your money! The world is a lost cause. I cannot encourage you enough to get into the inspired Holy Bible and familiarize yourself with its teachings. That is why I made this blog, by God's grace, to help feed Jesus' sheep and also win the lost to Christ. I am your ministry servant for Christ! Matthew 23:11, " But he that is greatest among you shall be your servant." I am one of less than 1 % of preachers today who doesn't beg for donations for my ministry work. For the past 23 years since I started my Jesus-is-Savior.com website ministry, I have never asked for nor received a single penny from anyone for my ministry labors (and I have well over 50,000 hours invested so far).

What saith the Scripture? Proverbs 1:10, " My son, if sinners entice thee, consent thou not." Some people will try to get you to do something wrong. DON'T DO IT FRIEND!!! Never allow anyone to convince you to do something wrong that could land you behind bars, in legal trouble or in debt. Be kind to everybody, but trust no one! I am not saying that we should be paranoid, but always be on guard. That is what I am saying here. Always keep your guard up, because you never know what is going on in someone else's mind.

Be very careful who you choose to get into a car with. I am serious! Their reckless driving could get you killed. I met a woman named Teresa in church when I lived on Guam who lost her left eye. She foolishly got into a car with her boss (because he told her to get in) who had been drinking alcohol. Her boss crashed and the steering column went through her head. I made friend's with Teresa at church and she told me the tragic story. Her own selfish rotten senior pastor, Marty Herron, at the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam didn't care enough about Teresa to ever ask for her story, but I did care. So, she told her story to me and I still pray for her. Pastor Herron doesn't care! Teresa was in a coma in the hospital for 6 weeks until she finally woke up. Her creep for a boss fled the island to avoid prosecution. What a monster! The lesson here is to NEVER get into a car with anyone who has had even one drink of booze, because you may regret it!!!

The world will tell you to lay up treasures here on earth for your old age and retirement, but Jesus said to lay up treasures in Heaven instead (Matthew 6:19-21). That is why I spend most of my time laboring day and night on social media to help influence people for Jesus Christ. I am living day by day by God's amazing grace! It's all about Jesus, not about me or you. If you are foolish, the world will advise you to go into massive debt to earn a college degree that is worthless to get you a high paying job. There are millions of college graduates across America who are barely making a little more than minimum wage, and they're in debt for tens of thousands of dollars or more. College has become a big scam in the United States! You are much better off attending a much lower priced Trade School to learn how to do something.

If I were a young person today, unless you're planning to serve God full time, I'd go to Culinary School (cooking) and also take a course in Business Management. I'd start my own restaurant. If you can prepare delicious food, people will come from across the country to your place. Unlike Auto Repair and Computer Science (coding) which always become outdated with new technology, once you learn to cook it will never become outdated. As long as you work for someone else, you'll always be broke (with few exceptions).

Someone who meant well recently suggested that I should start drinking a glass of wine with each meal for good health. Dear reader, that was the Devil talkin to me! Nothing has menaced societies throughout human civilization like alcohol has. I hate booze because of its very deceptive and destructive nature. Nearly everybody who drinks booze thinks they can handle it, but the statistics show otherwise.

What saith the Scripture?

What saith the Scripture? Proverbs 20:1, "Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging: and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise." The inspired Holy Bible warns that alcohol has a deceitful nature. No one ever wakes up one day and says,

"I can't wait to get drunk and murder someone with my car." No young person someday dreams of becoming a casualty because of booze. Yet, it happens everywhere around the world because of the deceptive nature of alcohol. I thank God times 10,000 that I have never drank a single drop of booze in my lifetime. I am now 57 years old.

My father was a Skid Row preacher. I grew up seeing Skid Row firsthand and what booze does to destroy men, ruining their lives, families and health. Alcoholism is not a disease, it is a wicked sin that becomes a chemical addiction! Medical intervention is usually necessary for recovery. [1]Pacific Garden Mission's radio program, 'UNSHACKLED,' is not well scripted. In many episodes I have heard the characters and narrator foolishly saying that when a man comes to Christ, he instantly forsakes his addictions. That is so irresponsible of PGM. Substance abuse addictions require proper medical intervention to overcome. Merely placing one's trust in Christ will not rid an addict of chemical addictions.

Always be on guard dear reader, because ungodly advice surrounds us today. Abide in the inspired Scriptures and pray for God to give you His wisdom to make right decisions. True wisdom can only come from God (James 1:5). BEWARE! BEWARE! BEWARE! There are many serpents in the world today, just like the crafty serpent lurking in the Garden of Eden, who seek only to poison and destroy your life. If you are foolish enough, they can talk you into anything bad situation.

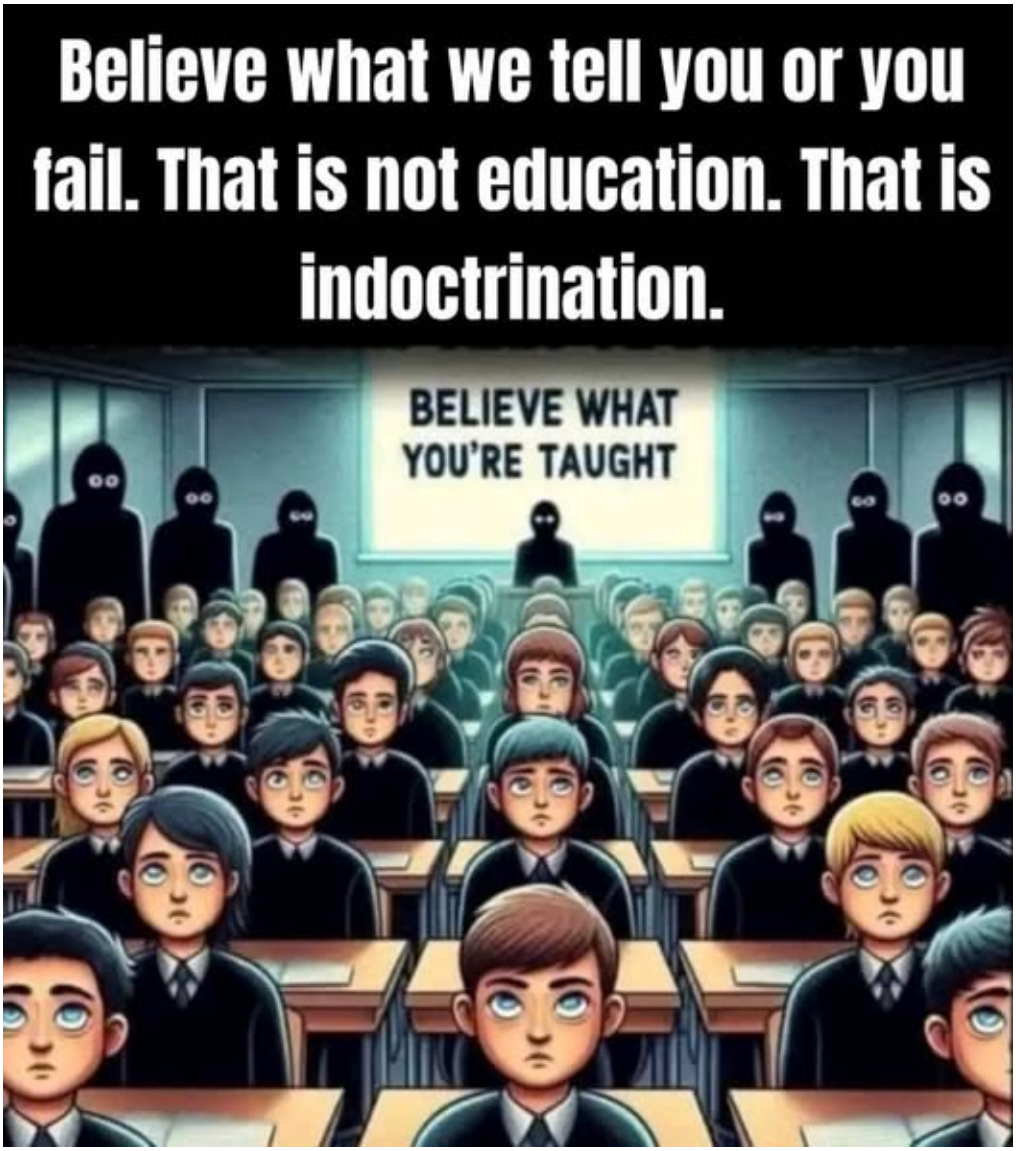
You young girls, don't ever have sex with a boy until he legally marries you! Otherwise he almost assuredly won't marry you once he gets what he wants. No marriage equals no sex! Make that your motto!!! Men are like wolves hunting their prey, young girls. Don't be stupid girls, save your chastity for your wedding day. Do you really want to give leftovers to the man whom you marry later on? This is what 90 % of girls do, whoring around before getting married. Walt Disney's perverted programs try to normalize fornication, but the Bible condemns it as sin that brings the judgment of God (Colossians 3:5-6; Romans 1:32).

Any advice that goes against the inspired King James Bible is of the Devil. We live in a world today filled with darkness, evil and fools who do not fear God. The Bible commands all humanity to fear and obey God (Ecclesiastes 12:13). This is man's whole duty!

We are living in ungodly perilous times. In this wicked generation we see a lot of women pastors, which is against the Scriptures. All women preachers are false prophets! There was a woman pastor in the news last week, [2]Bishop Mariann Edgar Budde, preaching with authority against the President of the United States. That is evil beyond words! To no surprise, she is supportive of lesbian, LGBTQ+, transgendered, sodomite rights. Mariann is of the Devil. You'd be shocked if you ask 1,000 people how many of them think it is okay for women to be a pastor. I dare say at least 90 % would support females leading the churches. In every case where women run a church there is heresy taught. Women are forbidden biblically from usurping authority over men in the churches (1st Timothy 2:12).

Many wicked people today will try to encourage a young woman to have an abortion. That is the Devil talking ladies!

Proverbs 1:10, " My son, if sinners entice thee, consent thou not." Abortion is cold-blooded murder!



The sad truth is that 99 % of people in the world base their opinions on their own flawed, sinful, humanistic thinking, and not upon God's eternally inspired Word. I tell people that I am as narrow-minded as the Bible. I have lost fair-weather friends when they learned of my strong Christian convictions. I have met people who once called me their "friend," but when I shared my website ministry with them, I never heard from them again. That saddens me, but I understand that it is Jesus whom they really have a problem with (John 7:7).

When we think about it, everyone's life is a series of choices (decisions). We've all made bad decisions. Bad decisions often limit future opportunities. All we can do as God's children is to familiarize ourselves with the inspired Word of God, and by using biblical principles try not to make the wrong decisions, and to do what is best and right. Sometimes a choice that we need to make won't be a choice between right or wrong; but rather, what is the best thing to do.

Thank you for reading.

6.2.5 Beware Of Pastor Charles Spurgeon’s False Gospel (2025-02-07 14:43)

Galatians 1:6-9, “I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed.”

I don’t like quoting [1]Pastor Charles Spurgeon (1834-1892) anymore, since I learned the depth of his corruption. From reading his book, "[2]All Of Grace," Spurgeon seemed to understand that salvation was by God’s grace alone without works, but at the same time he foolishly taught that if someone is truly saved there will be works, which is the error of Lordship Salvation. I sincerely think Spurgeon was confused in his theology.

From reading his sermons, I noticed that Spurgeon was being subject to ecclesiastical pressure from other preachers, which I humbly think he succumbed to and became perverse in his teachings. A preacher’s greatest external enemy is other preachers! Preachers tend to give considerable weight to the opinions of other preachers, which can be dangerous if we fail to SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES as our only source of divine truth (John 5:39; Acts 17:10-11).

On pages 66 and 67 of his book, "All Of Grace," Spurgeon foolishly writes:

>
> hat mercy which could forgive the sin and yet let the sinner live in it would be scant and superficial mercy.
>
>
>
> Charles Spurgeon, ’ [3]All Of Grace,’ p. 66

>
> But if we could be forgiven, and then could be permitted to love sin, to riot in iniquity, and to wallow in lust, what would be the use of such a forgiveness?

> Charles Spurgeon, ’ [4]All Of Grace,’ p. 67
>
>
> But, so long as God lives, there can be no promise of mercy to those who continue in their evil ways, and refuse to acknowledge their wrongdoing. Surely no rebel can expect the King to pardon his treason while he remains in open revolt. No one can be so foolish as to imagine that the Judge of all the earth will put away our sins if we refuse to put them away ourselves.
>

>
>

[6]

Spurgeon totally ignores the fact that eternal life is the FREE GIFT of God. To truly remain a gift, there can be no required exchange or trade of sorts to obtain it. To receive a gift, you just take it. Salvation is received, not achieved.

These are heretical ridiculous statements by Pastor Spurgeon, because we all continue living in sin after getting born again. The concept that a king will not pardon a man who remains in open revolt is a very bad analogy for salvation, because eternal life is a “ free gift

” from God (Romans 5:15-18). Eternal life is free to every human being who wants it, simply because Jesus paid for our sins with His precious literal liquid blood (1st Peter 1:18-19).

All that God requires to receive His free gift of eternal life, is for you to simply BELIEVE that Jesus did it all for you through Calvary’s cross. Simply by childlike faith (reliance), receive Christ’s sacrifice on the cross as full payment for your sins believing that He died on the cross, was buried , but then physically resurrected three days later. This is

“

(the GOOD NEWS) according to 1st Corinthians 15:1-6.

Like so many false prophets today, such as [7]Pensacola Christian College and [8]Bob Jones University who preach the same garbage, Charles Spurgeon misunderstood the biblical true meaning of repentance. True Bible repentance means a change of mind, not a change of behavior, attitude or priorities. Bible repentance is a change of mind about the only sin which can hinder a man from entering into Heaven, “ unbelief.

” You must change your mind from unbelief to BELIEVE the Gospel (the GOOD NEWS of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen the third day) to be born again. Nothing more is required nor permitted to be saved.

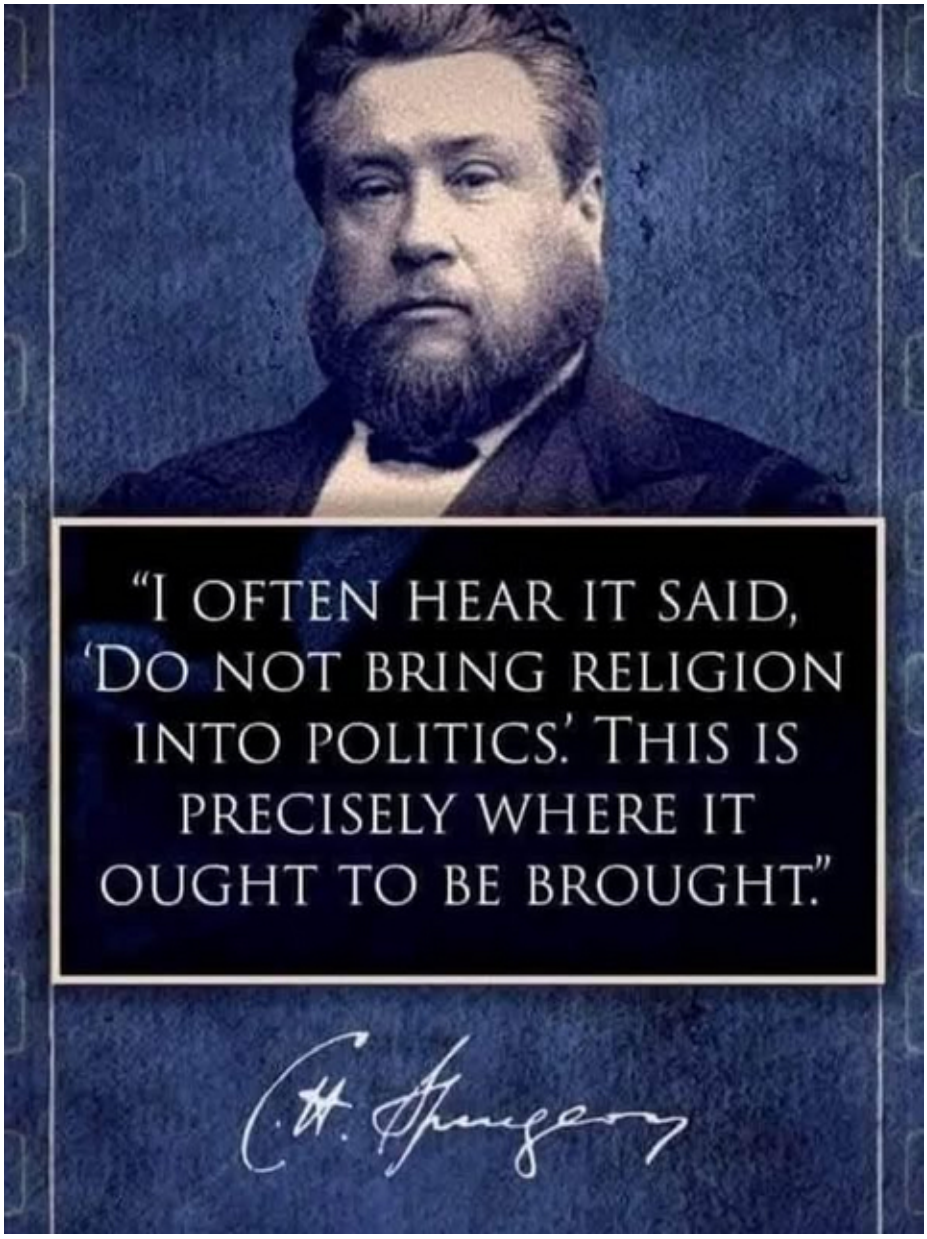
[9]Pastor John MacArthur is a modern-day Charles Spurgeon, a FALSE PROPHET, poisoning the minds of millions of religious lost sinners with his toxic Lordship Salvation message that cannot produce the new birth. ETERNAL LIFE IS THE FREE GIFT OF GOD!!! You don’t have to forsake a lifestyle of sinning to obtain it. The truth is that NO ONE has ever stopped living a life of sin. We will all continue sinning until the day we leave this cursed fleshly body (Romans 7:14-25). Thankfully, God’s saving grace always abounds greater than our sins, so that we always have assurance of salvation, which is eternal life (Romans 5:20; 6:20). Eternal Life and Eternal Security are not two separate Bible teachings, they are one and the same doctrine.

Dear reader, the inspired Holy Bible is full of saints who chose to live sinful lifestyles. We read in 2nd Timothy 4:10 that Demas forsook the Apostle Paul on a missionary journey, having loved this present world. If it weren’t for 2nd Peter 2:7-8, we would never know that Lot was a Christian if all we had to observe was his wicked lifestyle in the Old Testament. Samson chased unholy skirts all his life and ministry (Judges 16:1). David’s family was a disaster! No doubt the Lordship Salvation crowd today would have denied David’s salvation.

I cannot warn you enough dear reader to avoid Charles Spurgeon. He died at only age 57, which is my present age. Since Spurgeon was a gifted writer and orator, his eloquent style of expressing his views gave him incredible power of influence, even until this very day in 2025, which is unfortunate considering his heretical Calvinist views.

I am so thankful for free grace preachers; namely, Curtis Hutson, Harry Ironside, Jack Hyles, Max Younce, Ralph Yankee Arnold, Hank Lindstrom, Ray Stanford and others. My hero of the faith, Dr. Jack Hyles (1926-2001) said it well...

> "The wickedness of a life has not one thing in this world to do with where you go when you die; not one thing!" —Pastor Jack Hyles, "[10]Religion Or Christ?"



> "Religion and Christ are in opposition to each other!" —Pastor Jack Hyles, "[11]Religion Or Christ?"

Charles Spurgeon was corrupt and bad news! I understand that his sermons provide amazing intriguing quotes to share on social media, but in so doing you are causing people to think that you bid Spurgeon Godspeed. I am guilty in the past of doing it myself, but I made a decision a few years ago not to share quotes by hellbound false prophets anymore. I won't share any quotes from Charles Spurgeon ever again, since he was WRONG on God's simple plan of salvation, which is without works.

Turning from one's sins is a work. Jonah 3:10 says that God saw their "works" in Nineveh, that they turned from their evil way. Jonah 3:10, " And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not." Romans 3:20 warns that NO ONE has ever been saved by works! Romans 4:4 teaches that if people in the Old Testament had been saved by their works, then salvation would have been by debt instead of by God's grace. Salvation has always been by God's unmerited grace! Sadly, Charles Spurgeon was a fool who is likely burning in Hell today, unless he repented of his false repentance. Religion is a highway to Hell.

I found this meme on Facebook today, shared by professed Christians, and I felt compelled to warn others about Mr. Spurgeon. This is a truthful great quote, but it was made by a man who is very wrong on God's simple plan of salvation. If a man is wrong on repentance and the Gospel, we cannot trust anything that he teaches. Jesus warned everyone in Matthew 7:15, "Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves.

6.2.6 Shame On President Trump For Hiring Paula White As White House Spiritual Advisor (2025-02-08 16:05)

2nd John 1:9-11, " Whosoever transgresseth, and abideth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not God. He that abideth in the doctrine of Christ, he hath both the Father and the Son. If there come any unto you, and bring not this doctrine, receive him not into your house, neither bid him God speed: For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds."

I was absolutely sickened this morning to learn that President Trump has hired infidel 'Prosperity Gospel' preacher, Paul White-Cain (born 1966), as spiritual advisor to the White House. This is bad! Paula is married to Jonathan Cain (born 1950), keyboardist for the rock band Journey. Here are some disturbing things you need to know about her...

> [1] 9 Things You Should Know About Prosperity Gospel Preacher Paula White

ALL women preachers are FALSE PROPHETS! Paul White is a wicked Zionist. She is now on her third failed marriage. She preaches a counterfeit plan of salvation. On this webpage titled, 'THE MIRACLE OF GOD'S GRACE,' she errantly teaches in a video to pray this prayer to be saved:

> 'Father, I come to you in the name of Jesus. Please forgive me for all of my sin. I receive Jesus Christ as my personal Lord and Savior. Devil, let go of my life. I'm done with you. I renounce you right now. Holy Spirit, give me power that I may serve God until I see Him face to face.' If you prayed that prayer, welcome to the family of God. [2]SOURCE

BLASPHEMY!!! What Paula White is teaching is NOT the Gospel. Nowhere does the inspired King James Bible require a lost sinner to pray a prayer, renounce Satan, make Jesus one's Lord, serve God and be done with the Devil to get to Heaven. Paula is a lying false prophet!!!

Miss White has a [3]net worth of $5,000,000 . Truly, the love of money is the root of all evil. Miss White clearly doesn't understand or know what the Gospel is. It is obvious to me that she is merely repeating key words that she has heard, exploiting religion for fame and fortune. In a word, Paula is INCOMPETENT. Moreover, the inspired Word of God strictly forbids women preachers!

1st Corinthians 14:34-35, " Let your women keep silence in the churches: for it is not permitted unto them to speak; but they are commanded to be under obedience, as also saith the law. And if they will learn any thing, let them ask their husbands at home: for it is a shame for women to speak in the church."

Miss White is also a wicked Zionist, which makes her an ungodly respecter of persons. I heard Pastor Robert Jeffress, senior pastor of the First Baptist Church of Dallas shameful say as a consultant on Fox News a few years ago, that the United States should launch pre-emptive nuclear strikes against the Arab nations. That is very evil to say. Mr. Jeffress is a wicked, hateful, Zionist, racist fool. If you favor Israel over the Palestinian people, you are NOT right with God. The Lord is not a respecter of persons and neither should we be (James 2:1). Every saint of God is commanded to love everyone unconditionally with Christ's love (Matthew 7:12). This is the fruit of the indwelling Holy Spirit (Galatians 5:22-25).

Robert Jeffress is such a wicked and bought off man, that [4]he blindly endorses Paula White's book in 2019, for which he was criticized by other preachers. In response, Mr. Jeffress shamefully admitted that he had never even read the book, and had not researched Miss White's theology. What a darn fool. The truth is that Robert Jeffress is a wicked Zionist, and so also is Paula White. Birds of a feather flock together. Since Zionists control the entire media, it would be career suicide for any minister not to support other ungodly Zionists. It all makes me sick!!!

Dear reader, these people are religious parasites, self-made multimillionaires who prey upon the churches. They serve their own bellies. Romans 16:1-7-18, "Ro:16:17: Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them. For they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple."

I cannot warn you enough to RUN from infidels like Paula White, Robert Jeffress, T.D. Jakes and other Prosperity Gospel preachers. Shame on President Donald Trump for wickedly bidding Godspeed to evildoers!!!

2nd John 1:10-11, "

If there come any unto you, and bring not this doctrine, receive him not into your house, neither bid him God speed: For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds." Not every choice President Trump makes will be a Home Run, we understand that. But this? This is a train wreck.

Not only is Paula White not biblically qualified to be a pastor, she is a false teacher leading people into Hell. The Devil is a beautiful liar.

6.2.7 A Counterfeit Plan Of Salvation Is Being Preached In Nearly Every Pulpit Today (2025-02-09 17:08)

Matthew 7:15, “Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep’s clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves.”

7708

One of my favorite books is titled: “

[1]I NEVER KNEW YOU,

by Michael P. Bowen. The following prolific words are from page 17 of chapter one...

> I am at eternal odds with the false, counterfeit messages of salvation-by-works that are taught from virtually every pulpit today, on every television channel, and on every Christian radio station; however, I am not at eternal odds with the individuals who preach these counterfeit messages. My heart literally goes out to all of them because they simply do not understand Christ’s plan of salvation. They have been lied to by a crafty enemy named Satan, whose sole aim is to take as many people with him to the lake of fire as he can possibly manage to steal away from God using a counterfeit plan of salvation that appears so real, so genuine, and so holy that few ever realize they have been deceived by it. Oh reader, so many of today’s professing Christians who think they are going to heaven when they die are not going to make it to heaven as they had assumed because they’ve been lied to by today’s error-filled gospel messages. Radical? Yes. But I am nonjudgmental toward the bearers of false messages; I am only judgmental toward the false plans of salvation they emphasize as being equal to the plan of Christ. There is only one plan of salvation in the bible; therefore, there cannot be two plans. [2]SOURCE

Michael Bowen is so right! A counterfeit message is being preached in nearly every religious college, church pulpit, YouTube video, book and film today.

Paula White Preaches A Counterfeit Gospel

For example: Here is the suggested salvation prayer of Pastor Paula White...

> ’Father, I come to you in the name of Jesus. Please forgive me for all of my sin. I receive Jesus Christ as my personal Lord and Savior. Devil, let go of my life. I’m done with you. I renounce you right now. Holy Spirit, give me power that I may serve God until I see Him face to face.’ If you prayed that prayer, welcome to the family of God. [3]SOURCE

BLASPHEMY!!! What Paula White is teaching is NOT the Gospel. Nowhere does the inspired King James Bible require a lost sinner to pray a prayer, renounce Satan, make Jesus one’s Lord, serve God and be done with the Devil to get to Heaven. Paula is a lying false prophet!!! Miss White has a [4]net worth of $5,000,000. Truly, the love of money is the root of all evil. Miss White clearly doesn’t understand or know what the Gospel is. It is obvious to me that she is merely repeating key words that she has heard, exploiting religion for fame and fortune.

In a word, Paula is INCOMPETENT. Moreover, the inspired Word of God strictly forbids women preachers! 1st Corinthians 14:34-35, “Let your women keep silence in the churches: for it is not permitted unto them to speak; but they are commanded to be under obedience, as also saith the law. And if they will learn any thing, let them ask their husbands at home: for it is a shame for women to speak in the church.”

Tragically, President Donald Trump just hired Paula White as official spiritual advisor to the White House. That is a shame.

'UNSHACKLED' Preaches A Counterfeit Gospel

'UNSHACKLED' radio is produced by Pacific Garden Mission in Chicago, since 1950. In 'UNSHACKLED' episode #3187, the story of Henry Christian, the narrator says:

> "Jesus said, 'he that is not with me is against me and he that gathereth not with me scattereth aboard.' Salvation begins with repentance: Turn from your wicked ways and follow the One Who said, I am the way, the truth and the life; no man cometh unto the Father, but by Me." [emphasis added]

My friend, that is NOT the Gospel. PGM preaches a forked-tongued Gospel. They speak of the free grace of God in one statement, but then they tell people they must forsake sinful behavior to be saved. That is works! Receiving the "free gift" (Romans 5:15; 6:23) of God does not require turning away from your wicked ways. That is reformation! We read in Ephesians 2:8-9, "For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast." Romans 4:5, "But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness."

UNSHACKLED is really unbiblical sometimes. Later in episode #3187, Henry Christian heretically says to his mother:

> "I'm saved mom, I gave my life to Jesus Christ... Jesus will change your life too. Please, think about giving your life to Christ... Mom, if you put your trust in Jesus for salvation, He'll lead your life**."

Being saved doesn't mean having your life changed! Being saved doesn't mean letting Jesus lead your life! You don't have to give your life to Christ to be saved! You don't get better to get saved, you get saved to get better. Growth in grace takes time, as a new believer nurtures on the milk of the Word (1st Peter 2:2). UNSHACKLED's rhetoric may sound really good, but it is NOT the Gospel. PGM is wrongly mixing discipleship with salvation.

Nearly all of the UNSHACKLED episodes that I've listened to, automatically conclude that receiving the free gift of God mandates: following Christ, being led by Christ, turning away from sinful behavior, surrendering your life to serve God, forsaking the world and being completely transformed; yet, none of this is required to be saved. Pacific Garden Mission teaches Lordship Salvation, which is Calvinism, a false doctrine of devils.

Dear reader, RUN from false prophets!!! Any preacher who says that you must turn from your sins, or repent of your sins, to be saved is a liar. Christ came into the world to die on a cross to pay your debt of sin, and mine. Eternal life is the free gift of God; it is not an exchange or trade of sorts. Eternal life is a free gift that you simply receive by faith in Christ's death, burial and resurrection (1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

6.2.9 Please Pardon My Indignant Anger At Times (2025-02-11 14:12)

Matthew 21:28-31, “But what think ye? A certain man had two sons; and he came to the first, and said, Son, go work to day in my vineyard. He answered and said, I will not: but afterward he repented, and went. And he came to the second, and said likewise. And he answered and said, I go, sir: and went not. Whether of them twain did the will of his father? They say unto him, The first. Jesus saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, That the publicans and the harlots go into the kingdom of God before you.”

I love this passage of Scripture! In this humble passage, Jesus tells a parable about two sons: one with a GOOD ATTITUDE who didn’t go work in the Father’s field; and the other son who had a BAD ATTITUDE, but later repented and did go work in his father’s field. Jesus said that the son who had the poor attitude was the victor, because ultimately he obeyed his father’s will. I love this passage because it often encourages me when I get angry, frustrated, tired and sometimes in my writings use colorful metaphors and language that I probably shouldn’t use.

I recently expressed my anger at Pensacola Christian College in a Facebook post. I called them “

sons of bitches

for the horrible way that the college shuns, ignores, mistreats and throw hurting people under the bus. I know firsthand, because they did all those things to me as a newcomer in 2021. As if August 2, 2002 I have been banned in writing from attending their Campus Church and we have been bitter enemies since. My great crime was trying to help their [1]wicked pastors at PCC stop preaching a counterfeit plan of salvation. Tragically, PCC’s leaders and pastors are cocky, arrogant, have huge egos and think they are above God’s law.

Anyway, as a result of using the phrase

“

sons of bitches

” to describe PCC’s leaders, one of my longtime Facebook

“friends

” unfriended herself and completely blocked me. That hurt, but I make no apologies for being human. I admit that I get really pissed off sometimes at the Devil and his malign crowd. I get angry at abortion (which is first-degree premeditated murder), same-sex marriage (which is perversion), and the fraudulent Federal Reserve Ponzi Scheme (that has been stealing from hard-working Americans since 1913).

I also get very angry at the Devil’s lies of Lordship Salvation, Misunderstood Repentance, Baptismal Regeneration, Sacramental Salvation and other damnable heresies that send people to Hell forever. Sometimes I express myself in sharp and harsh words to get my point across, and my anger comes out. If that offends you dear reader, I apologize; not for my anger or biblical message, but for the times when I use inappropriate foul language. Humbly said, I am who I am. If you are so much of a religious legalist that my street language from time to time offends your delicate sensibilities, then what can I say? Anyone who has followed my writings for a long time, knows that I rarely use street language.

When I was a little boy, I think around age 7, I innocently asked my grandma (my Mom’s mother) what words like “ fu-k

ass-ole

meant (I had heard those words and many more from my father when he was angry). She wisely said,

“T hose are silly words,

but she told me never to take God's name in vain. Grandma was right! Still, as a Baptist preacher, and moreover a child of God, I try not to talk like the world, but I sometimes fail.

I am a fighting soldier for Jesus Christ. 2nd Timothy 2:3-4, " Thou therefore endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ. No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier."

Whenever I get angry and use some strong off color words that I probably shouldn't have wrote, the Holy Spirit always comforts my soul, reminding me in a still small quiet voice within how proud of me He is, that I care enough to get worked up and angry over sin and evil.

I vividly remember a wonderful true story that Pastor Jack Hyles told in a sermon. It was about a pastor who got very angry one Sunday morning in his pulpit. He got up and started cussing up a storm at the Devil. He told his church congregation how tired and worn out he was, and fed up with that blankety-blank, blank, brickety-brackety ole Devil. His congregation's ears were burning on fire after several minutes, hearing their pastor use foul language that they had never heard him use before. He apologized for the things he had said, but said he stood behind how he felt. Then gave his resignation from the pulpit and walked out the church door with intentions of never returning.

A moment later the chairman of the deacon board and some other men ran out into the parking lot to catch the weary pastor before he drove away. The chairman said: "Pastor, you are the best preacher we've ever had and we love you! We want you to stay and we're going to give you a generous raise. Please stay as our pastor!" The pastor and chairman and church members all wept, and their pastor stayed.

My friend, that is true Christianity!!! Not this garbage where PCC has banned me from even attending their Campus Church, because their little man for a senior pastor, Jeff Redlin (a twerp who gets paid $200,000 a year salary) is a high brow pompous rich snob who won't even allow me to attend their church. I hate the PCC cult! [2]They are money-grubbing religious whores!!!

The ironic thing is that [3]I sincerely attempted multiple times in the summer of 2022 to make peace with PCC's pastors and leaders, but they cold-heartedly refused. They can sue me like they did Peter Gage (a PCC alumni) for $100,000, but I won't cower like Peter did. An Escambia county judge can take every penny I have and throw my ass in prison, but I won't shut up about how evil Pensacola Christian College is! They don't intimidate me. God called me to be a Bible preacher before I was born, and I will preach against evil and hatred wherever I find it. Until a judge takes away my freedom of speech, I will never stop preaching against the evildoers at PCC, BJU and other apostate religious institutions today! God is on my side, because I am telling THE TRUTH.

The entire PCC network, which includes several local Baptist cult churches in Pensacola, are all the same! They have the 99 % of sheep, so they couldn't care less about the 1 % of lambs. I saw an elderly man (who was 82 years old) tell his younger 35 year old pastor, that as a pastor he ought to be warning his congregation about the modern corrupt Bibles. The pastor was greatly offended and showed the old man the door, telling him to leave, and he did. When the elderly man tried to return to the church, the pastor shamefully threatened to call the police on him. This is where our churches are at today. That is NOT biblical Christianity. That elderly man is 100 % right in what he told that younger pastor, but the PCC crowd are haughty and filled with pride. The Devil's bibles are dangerous! The corrupt PCC camp couldn't care less.

That elderly Christian man (who is still a good friend of mine) is 47 years older than that young whipper-snapper cocky pastor. I often pray for God to humble that wicked pastor's heart. RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS! We are commanded as Christian men that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints

" (Jude 1:3b). The PCC crowd refuse to contend for the Christian faith. They are wickedly hobnobbing with neo-evangelicals in the [4]Bob Jones University cult, who preach Calvinism! PCC's students partake in intercollegiate sports with BJU, which is shameful. It just tells the students that right doctrine doesn't matter. Making money is what really matters to PCC and BJU!!!

Jesus Became Indignant Over Exploiting The Things Of God To Make Money

The English dictionary defines the word "indignant" as: "Anger at something unjust or wrong." Jesus became indignant when He saw the things of God being exploited by greedy people to line their own pockets...

> John 2:13-16, "And the Jews' passover was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem,
>
> And found in the temple those that sold oxen and sheep and doves, and the changers of money sitting:
>
> And when he had made a scourge of small cords, he drove them all out of the temple, and the sheep, and the oxen; and poured out the changers' money, and overthrew the tables;
>
> And said unto them that sold doves, Take these things hence; make not my Father's house an house of merchandise.

The inspired Word of God tells us in our text passage of Scripture that Jesus became very angry. The Lord became angry when He saw the House of God being exploited to make money. I cannot think of a better example than the demonic Prosperity Gospel crowd today.

> ...in an Easter Sunday service in 2016, [Paula] White said salvation would come to a TV viewer if they donated a "[5]resurrection seed" to her ministry:
>
> > There's someone that God is speaking to, to click on that donation button by minimizing the screen. And when you do to sow $1,144. It's not often I ask very specifically but God has instructed me and I want you to hear. This isn't for everyone but this is for someone. When you sow that $1,144 based on [6]John 11:44, I believe for resurrection life. [7]SOURCE

Isn't that sick! That is evil beyond words to describe it! I am disgusted that President Trump just hired Paula White as spiritual advisor to the White House. [8]Paula White preaches another gospel of partial faith in Christ plus works. She is a child of the Devil.

Beware Of The Pensacola Christian College Cult

But there are many other religious predators among us besides Paula White, such as [9]Pensacola Christian College (PCC), who preach the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation. PCC take in roughly $175,000,000 per year in revenue. Religious crime pays well! Although they would deny it, today's religious colleges by their actions evidence that all they care about is making money. The Bible warns that THE LOVE OF MONEY (i.e., prioritizing money) is the root of all evil (1st Timothy 6:12).

Like Jesus, I am indignant over the exploitation of the things of God for the sake of filthy lucre. These damned Bible college today don't even believe or teach that we have an inspired Holy Bible in 2025. They ALL teach the gross error that only the original autographs (which don't exist anymore) were inspired. These apostate religious institutions ALL foolishly teach that at best all we have today is an inferior King James Bible full of mistakes. Dear reader, I find NO FAULT in the inspired King James Bible.

SHAME on PCC, BJU and Hyles-Anderson College (of which I am an alumni, 1985-1993) for denying that the KING JAMES BIBLES is inspired by God. Since 2008, the [10]First Baptist Church of Hammond, Indiana, no longer believes that the King James Bible is inspired. The truth hasn't changed, so why did they? Their present pastor John Wilkerson is sadly henpecked, told by [11]those meddlers who control the church not to rock the boat or open old wounds, so he won't address the issue. That is so sad and pathetic!

> "Now you say, 'Brother Hyles, you make an issue.' You dead sure better know I'll make an issue!" —[12]BATTLE OF THE AGES (MP3, Dr. Jack Hyles, "The King James Bible crowd is going to come out on top!")

Yes, I make an issue! I appreciate my ministry followers who have bared with my rants over the years. I apologize if at times my harsh language offends you. God knows that was never my intention to offend anyone with my colorful use of words. I say: If the shoe fits, wear it! I am just a passionate Christian man with a burdened heart to PREACH THE TRUTH! I spent eight years training in Bible college to become a church pastor, but by the time I graduated I realized that I didn't want to become a pastor after all, I wanted to PREACH THE TRUTH to help others. So, I became an evangelist and missionary to cyberspace. My heart since I got saved at age 13 has always been to HELP OTHERS! God knows my heart.

I was hurt this week by the woman on Facebook, who I had considered a friend, blocked me out for calling PCC's corrupt and greedy selfish leaders " sons of bitches.

Well, that is how I feel folks! I guess I'm the Rambo preacher of fundamentalism...lol. Have you ever heard Pastor Steven Anderson preach? Like me, he uses some harsh and offensive words at times, and I love him when he does it because I feel the same way about sin, corruption and evil.

God Knows That I Just Want To Be A Blessing

I can only hope in my heart of hearts dear reader, that you would look beyond my faults and see a heart that genuinely cares about truth, righteousness and loving people. I have never received a single penny for all my 23 years of website and blog ministry (which is a rare thing in today's covetous world). I want everybody to know where my heart is at, in helping others for Christ. I don't want anyone's money, but I welcome and ask for your earnest prayers.

When my lazy, lying, disloyal, ungodly, former wife wickedly abandoned and divorced me in 2006, my attorney said that my wife's lawyer wanted my tax returns for the past 5 years. Her lawyer wanted to make sure that I wasn't hiding any money. So I surrendered my tax returns. My attorney later told me that my wife's lawyer was impressed that with a website as big as [13]Jesus-is-Savior.com, I didn't use it to make any money. My tax returns showed that my only income was from my secular job. My former rebellious wife never had to work a single day in 19 years of marriage, yet she cost me everything by divorcing me! God hates divorce and so do I. I have never wanted nor asked anyone for any money to serve Jesus Christ. I have a full reward waiting for me in Heaven (Matthew 6:19-21; 1st Corinthians 3:8-9). I love giving my life away as a living sacrifice to serve God (Romans 12:1).

My greatest reward will be my converts whom I had the privilege of leading to Jesus Christ. If you dear friend are one of them, then you are my children. That is why the Apostle John said in 3rd John

1:4, "

I have no greater joy than to hear that my children walk in truth.

" John could call them his

simply because John had led them to Jesus with the Gospel. By God's mercy and grace, I have many spiritual children around the world. Jesus is precious!!!

I honestly think God likes when humble preachers like me get angry at sin, corruption and false doctrines. I know that it pleases our great God when His children contend for the faith (Titus 1:9-14). God pity the preacher that the world don't hate! I said: GOD PITY THE PREACHER THAT THE WORLD DON'T HATE!!! Would to God that a lot more pastors will shed their Caspar Milquetoast demeanor, and start preaching like Billy Sunday (1862-1935). Oftentimes it's not what a preacher says that makes him a false prophet, it's what he doesn't say. The vast majority of Baptist pastors today couldn't preach their way out of a paper bag. They are afraid to speak THE TRUTH, more concerned about their income than the outcome!

Today's vast majority of shameful pastors are mere employees sucking a salary. Jeff Redlin (senior pastor) at PCC's Campus Church is a millionaire, who gets paid well over $100,000 a year. T he president of PCC got paid a disgusting [14]salary of $205,069 in 2023. What greedy dogs! Woe unto PCC when they stand before God in eternity! Just like Jesus in the Bible, I get upset (His indwelling Holy Spirit working through me) when I see the things of God being exploited for money. These accursed religious institutions love the praise of men more than the praise of God (John 12:42-43). I love the praise of God!

I make no apologies for offending people with THE TRUTH. I make no apologies for being controversial, for delving into issues that most pastors are too cowardly to preach against. We need a whole new generation of preachers who are not afraid to offend people with biblical truth. Sadly, nearly every pastor today is a henpecked pansy, afraid to preach against the evils of feminism. ALL women preachers are FALSE PROPHETS, including Paula White! Shame on President Trump for hiring her as spiritual advisor to the White House!

RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!! I am one of less than 1 % of Bible preachers today who get upset and bent out of shape over the evils of Lordship Salvation, Misunderstood Repentance and False Bibles. I hope that you can appreciate that dear reader. I might type some strong words sometimes, which might even offend you, but at the end of the day I AM PREACHING THE TRUTH. I am as the son with the bad attitude who refused to go work in his father's field, but then he later repented and went to work in the field. THANK YOU for your understanding and continued interest in my writing ministry. I love you all unconditionally with God's love.

6.2.10 The Counterfeit Plan Of Salvation Of The First Baptist Church Of Pensacola (2025-02-14 15:29)

Galatians 1:6-10, "I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel:

Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.

But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed*.

As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed. For do I now persuade men, or God? or do I seek to please men? for if I yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ."

Our nation's churches are in big trouble! I have been a Baptist since I was saved at age 13 in Chicago in 1980. As a Baptist, I am qualified to criticize Baptists who are departing from the faith. I know my own camp! Sadly, the Devil's perversion of Lordship Salvation has crept into MOST Baptist churches today, perverting the Gospel of free grace.

A Counterfeit Plan of Salvation At The FBCP

The following [1]Statement of Faith is a quote from their website at the First Baptist Church of Pensacola (FBCP). Before I share the quote with you, let me say that I have visited their church dozens of times and I love the people there. Pastor Dave Snyder is a good man. He's originally from Missouri, and myself from Chicago, so were both from the Midwest. I like Pastor Snyder, who has been their pastor at FBCP since 2018. However, I humbly disagree with his teaching of Lordship Salvation, because I sincerely believe that the Bible disagrees with Lordship Salvation. To be saved you just need to take Jesus as your Savior!

The following is damnable heresy...

> VI. Salvation
>
> Since all persons are separated from God by sin and are in need of forgiveness, God offers the free gift of salvation. Each person must individually accept this gift, repent of sin , and place faith in Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord .
>
> [2]Ex 6:2-8 ; [3]Matt 16:21-26 ; [4]John 3:15-16 ; [5]John 17:3 ; [6]Rom 3:23 ; [7]Rom 5:1 ; [8]Rom 6:23 ; [9]Eph 2:8-9 [10]SOURCE

BLASPHEMY!!! There are FOUR major problems with the preceding Statement of Faith:

1. The Gospel is not even mentioned. 1st Corinthians 15:1-6 defines "the gospel" as Jesus' death on the cross, burial and physical resurrection.

2. Nowhere does the inspired King James Bible teach that to get to Heaven you must "repent of sin." Many of the modernized Bible revisions corrupt the Word of God, adding repentance from sins to be saved (Proverbs 30:5-6).

3. Nowhere does the inspired King James Bible teach that to get to Heaven you must place faith in Jesus as your "LORD." 1st Timothy 4:10b says Jesus is "the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe." You just need to trust Jesus as your personal Savior to be saved, not your Lord (which would mean that you must follow Christ in service to be saved). Many people followed Jesus in the Bible, but they were not saved (John 6:26).

4. Neither Exodus 6:2-8 or Matthew 16:21-26 have anything to do with getting saved. Matthew 16:21-26 is addressing discipleship, not sonship. Nowhere does the Holy Bible teach that you must follow Christ in service to get to Heaven. God specifically authored the Gospel of John to show us how to have eternal life (John 20:31).

Dear reader, ask yourself, where did the FBCP (and other false teachers today) get the wrong idea that you must do these extra biblical requirements to be saved? I am so sick and tired of religious people ADDING things to God's inspired Word. Proverbs 30:5-6, " Every word of God is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him. Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar." It is a serious violation to tamper with God's Word. Again, you cannot show me anywhere in the inspired King James Bible where it says to "repent of sin" or "place faith in Jesus as your Lord" to be saved. Wicked, but well-meaning, people ADDED these things!

There are two main reasons why pastors today preach a counterfeit plan of salvation:

1. They have been adversely influenced by other corrupt preachers.

2. They have been adversely influenced by Satan's false bibles.

Peer pressure is a dangerous thing. The FBCP is 1 of 45,000 member churches in the [11]apostate Southern Baptist Convention (SBC). Sadly, most pastors and churches today prioritize prosperity over pleasing God. That is, they prioritize increasing their church attendance and keeping the money flowing in. The same sad thing is true of most religious colleges today, like Pensacola Christian College [12]who also preach a counterfeit plan of salvation.

I thank God for doctrinally sound preachers like Pastor Harry Ironside (1876-1951), who wrote these edifying words:

> "The Gospel is not a call to repentance, or to amendment of our ways, to make restitution for past sins, or to promise to do better in the future. These things are proper in their place, but they do not constitute the Gospel; for the Gospel is not good advice to be obeyed, it is good news to be believed. Do not make the mistake then of thinking that the Gospel is a call to duty or a call to reformation, a call to better your condition, to behave yourself in a more perfect way than you have been doing in the past …
>
> Nor is the Gospel a demand that you give up the world, that you give up your sins, that you break off bad habits, and try to cultivate good ones. You may do all these things, and yet never believe the Gospel and consequently never be saved at all."

SOURCE: Harry A. Ironside, from the sermon: '[13]What Is The Gospel?'

Amen and amen! Bravo Pastor Harry Ironside!

God's Curse Is Upon Anyone Preaching Another Gospel

Sadly, Moody Ministries today (77 years after Dr. Ironside's pastorate ended in 1948) has become doctrinally corrupted by false prophets such as Dr. John MacArthur (Moody publishes all of MacArthur's new books and have repeatedly honored him at their Founder's Week for many years). John MacArthur plainly teaches a false plan of salvation in his heretical book titled, '[14]HARD TO BELIEVE.'

> "There's no room for passive spectators: words without actions are empty and futile... The life we live, not the words we speak, determines our eternal destiny" (Hard to Believe, p. 93)."

First, it is not hard to believe. The reason why most people aren't saved is NOT because it is hard; but rather, because they love their sins and won't come to Jesus to be saved (John 3:20; 5:40). It is a matter of unbelief and not of forsaking one's sinful bad habits. Jesus paid for our sins on the cross with His precious blood (1st Peter 1:18-19). Jesus came to save us from our sins, not demand that we promise to reform as a condition of salvation.

The upright life that we try to live as believers is the FRUIT of the indwelling Holy Spirit, and not a part of the ROOT of saving faith (Galatians 5:22-25). We live righteousness because WE ARE saved (as we grow in grace), not as a requirement TO BE saved. The Holy Bible teaches that Jesus Christ lives the Christian life through us. Galatians 2:20, "I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me." The life we live cannot get us to Heaven, because God does NOT accept works of self-righteousness. Isaiah 64:6, "But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags; and we all do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away."

We are saved by HIS RIGHTEOUSNESS (that is, Christ's robe of righteousness), and not our own. I try to live upright because I love my Lord and don't want to grieve Him. I fail horribly sometimes, and it makes me mad at myself, and I get up and ask God to help me to do much better. That's how the Christian life is lived, "For all have sinned and come short of the glory of God" (Romans 3:23). Even the best Christians are still sinners who battle daily with the flesh.

> [16]Misunderstood Repentance: An Enemy Of Soulwinning (a doctrinally-sound book by Dr. Jack Hyles)

The word "repent" (metanoeo, such as in Mark 1:15, "Repent ye, and believe the gospel"), simply means "a change of mind." [17]Evangelist David Cloud errantly defines the meaning as “a change of mind that results in a change of life.” That’s not what the Bible teaches. Biblically, a changed life is the fruit of the indwelling Holy Spirit, which is not required for salvation.

I think Michael P. Bowen, in his excellent defense of the Christian faith titled, I NEVER KNEW YOU, says it best...

> I am at eternal odds with the false, counterfeit messages of salvation-by-works that are taught from virtually every pulpit today, on every television channel, and on every Christian radio station; however, I am not at eternal odds with the individuals who preach these counterfeit messages. My heart literally goes out to all of them because they simply do not understand Christ’s plan of salvation. They have been lied to by a crafty enemy named Satan, whose sole aim is to take as many people with him to the lake of fire as he can possibly manage to steal away from God using a counterfeit plan of salvation that appears so real, so genuine, and so holy that few ever realize they have been deceived by it. Oh reader, so many of today’s professing Christians who think they are going to heaven when they die are not going to make it to heaven as they had assumed because they’ve been lied to by today’s error-filled gospel messages.

A tree without fruit is still a tree with roots. This is evidenced by the [20]parable of the sower and the seed in Luke 8:12-15. Of the four groups, only the first are unsaved, because the Devil removed the seed from their heart before it could sprout into new life. The second and third group represent believers who never mature to bear fruit (leading others to Christ). They never mature into fruit-bearing Christians because of shallow roots, or because they are choked by the cares, riches and pleasures of this life. Ah, but the fourth group mature, having an honest heart, keeping the Lord’s Word, bearing much fruit unto Christ (John 15:1-7). Just because the second and third groups don’t bear fruit doesn’t mean that they are not saved, as Ray Comfort and David Cloud errantly teach.

[21] Wrong Repentance = No Salvation
(MP3 by Pastor Hank Lindstrom, 1940-2008)

Most pastors today are full of pride, arrogant and unapproachable on the matter of correcting their false teachings. Dr. Jack Hyles was so right: “Unsought advice is seldom taken and usually resented.” So I don’t waste my time trying to correct corrupt pastors, because I have been literally forced out of numerous churches when I did do.

When I lived in Guam for 17 years, I was listening to KMHG 88.1 FM, a local radio station broadcast by the [22]shameful Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. While listening to their radio station, I heard the following wonderful statement: “

A friend helps a friend to see.

” Ironically, when I befriended their pastors at Harvest with the truth in 2014, they threw me under the bus! I showed them Scripturally that Lordship Salvation, Misunderstood Repentance and False Bibles are of the Devil.

I also kindly showed them that Martin Luther (1483-1546) taught the damnable heresy of Baptismal Regeneration all his life, and they ought not be promoting Mr. Luther as a born-again believer to their hundreds of students in their school. For trying to open the eyes of those wicked pastors at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, I was forced out of church and banned from returning! God will avenge my preaching in eternity. God knows that I pray incessantly for that glorious day of reckoning, when my truthful preaching will be justly vindicated! [23]Martin Luther taught Sacramental Salvation and is sadly burning in Hell forever. No one goes to Heaven who adds trusting in water baptism to their faith in Christ (Acts 15:1).

My heart goes out to the First Baptist Church of Pensacola. It breaks my heart, it really does! The church had humble beginnings, originating back in 1848. What a beautiful heritage! Yet, like so many churches today, the FBCP have fallen prey to the neo-evangelical fallacies of Lordship Salvation, Misunderstood Repentance and the Devil's False Bibles.

There is only one Gospel dear reader. Either you must turn from your sinful bad habits to be saved, or you do not, but it cannot be both ways. Either you must follow Christ in obedient surrender in your daily life to make it to Heaven, or you don't, but it cannot be both. The Bible says that eternal life is the free gift of God (Romans 5:15-18). A gift cannot have any stipulations, requirements or demands, except that you simply take it by faith.

And let me also say, I sincerely think the reason why so many pastors are perverting the Gospel is in an attempt to force people to live a holy life. Although I can understand their frustration, that doesn't justify perverting God's simple plan of salvation. The reason why there are so many professed Christians today living wicked lives is not because of a shallow Gospel message; but rather, it is because cowardly pastors refuse to preach hard against sin—afraid of a bully Pulpit Committee or afraid of losing their career. Isaiah 58:1,

Cry aloud, spare not, lift up thy voice like a trumpet, and shew my people their transgression, and the house of Jacob their sins.

The problem today is not insincere conversions; but rather, compromised preachers! Jeremiah 23:1-2, "Woe be unto the pastors that destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture! saith the LORD. Therefore thus saith the LORD God of Israel against the pastors that feed my people; Ye have scattered my flock, and driven them away, and have not visited them: behold, I will visit upon you the evil of your doings, saith the LORD." The pastors weren't caring about the people! I have attended several Baptist churches around the city of Pensacola and am utterly disappointed in what I have found. People are sadly expendable in most Baptist churches.

I have visited FBCP numerous times since I moved to Pensacola in July of 2021, but not once has Pastor Snyder ever bothered to introduce himself to me. Not once has their pastor even shaken my hand. I have attended numerous Wednesday evening services, enjoying eating a meal with some of the people. I went to their Christmas Candle Service on Christmas Eve in 2024. I had a good time...

I attended the FBCP picnic at Bayview Park for the past two years in the spring. They are some of the best people you'll find. The FBCP does a lot of good works to help the poor, hurting and needy, but none of that matters since they are WRONG on the Gospel. There are not variations of the Gospel. The Apostle Paul warned that there is only ONE GOSPEL (Galatians 1:6-7). In hundreds of Scripture passages we are told to simply BELIEVE ON JESUS to have everlasting life. John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life. "

I triple-dog dare you friend to show me one place in the inspired King James Bible where it says to repent of sin to get to Heaven. Acts 20:21 says to repent toward God. 2nd Timothy 2:25 says to repentance to acknowledge the truth. But nowhere does the Bible teach to repent of your sin, or to turn from your sin, to be saved.

A commonly misinterpreted Scripture passage is

Isaiah 55:7, "

Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the LORD, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon.

" Carefully notice the invitation to unto the Lord. This passage is addressed to backslidden Israel, not lost sinners. It never ceases to amaze me how people will totally ignore the entire Gospel of John, which doesn't teach to turn from sin or follow Jesus as Lord to be saved. The Book of John is God's Gospel tract (John 20:31).

I love what Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) wisely said:

"A good rule to follow when interpreting the Bible is to never use an obscure passage to contradict a clear one." It is poor scholarship and just plain wrong to base a doctrine on a single passage of Scripture while ignoring dozens of clear passages. John 6:28-29, "Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent."

Again and again we are taught in the inspired Holy Bible to simply BELIEVE ON JESUS to be saved. That is, to believe on the 'GOOD NEWS' of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen the third day (1st Corinthians 15:1-6; 1st Thessalonians 4:14). So, where in the world do preachers get the erroneous deception that you cannot be saved unless you are willing to first forsake your sinful bad habits, and surrender to follow Jesus as " of your life from now on? Their neo-evangelical poison may sound good to the carnal mind, but it is completely unscriptural my friend.

Good works are not the payment for sin, the payment for sin is death.

Salvation is not a reward for the righteous, it is a gift for the guilty!

Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ’s best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

Turning away from sinful ways would be a work. Faith puts all of the merit where it belongs, on the object of our faith, Jesus and His work.

If to “repent” means to forsake our sinful ways TO BE SAVED, but Jesus already paid for our sins by dying on the cross, then what are we repenting from?

The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU.

A Double Standard Exists At The FBCP

I visited their Contemporary Service last year at the FBCP. They also have a Traditional Service at a later time every Sunday. The Contemporary Service is way too contemporary for me (with their electric guitars, boring modern religious music and emotionalism). And the Traditional Service is way to traditional for me (with their lifeless deeper-life Episcopalian type hymns and formal worship of which they pride themselves).

I attended their Discover Class for potential new members by request in 2022. I was encouraged at first, when the associate pastor who held the class said that the church simply believes that you get saved by faith alone in Jesus Christ. Tragically, several weeks later when I attended one of their Traditional Services, Pastor Snyder broke my heart by preaching hardcore Lordship Salvation. I cringed as I lowered my head in my pew in disappointment. What is wrong with pastors today? Why don’t they search the Scriptures as Jesus commanded in John 5:39, “Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me.”

Pastor Dave Snyder preaches for both services. He wears blue-jeans for the Contemporary Service, and a suit for the Traditional Service. I heard Pastor Snyder last year announce at the end of a service that a 12 year old boy had been saved that morning, by deciding to become a Christ follower. Ladies and gentlemen, that is NOT how you get to Heaven! Matthew 7:21-23 tells the story of a group of people who followed Christ—who did many wonderful works in Jesus’ name, who prophesied (preached) in Jesus’ name—yet the dear Savior Himself rebuked them, calling them all WORKERS OF INIQUITIY, and they went to Hell forever in their sins. You see friend, you cannot merit your way to Heaven by becoming a Christ follower, you must be BORN AGAIN (John 3:1-7).

According to John 6:40, the will of God the Father is for you to BELIEVE ON JESUS to be saved. There is no other way to enter into God’s Kingdom, except through faith in the name of Jesus (Acts 4:10-12). You must place your childlike faith in the GOOD NEWS (i.e., the Gospel) that Jesus is the Christ—the only begotten (biological) Son of God—who died in your place on the cross of Calvary. He was buried and then three days later resurrected from the dead. Jesus raised up forevermore as every believer’s heavenly High Priest (Romans 8:34; Hebrews 4:14-16). All you need to do to be saved is simply BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST (Acts 16:30-31). Just believe that Jesus did it all for you!

Sadly, they have a Double Standard at the FBCP. What was told to me in their Discovery Class in 2022, does not match up to what Pastor Snyder actually teaches from the pulpit. Their website confirms what the church believes and teaches, which I have refuted in this important blog article. Folks, RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!

You Don't Have To "Repent Of Sin" To Be Saved

I love what Pastor M.R. DeHaan (1891-1965) said on the issue...

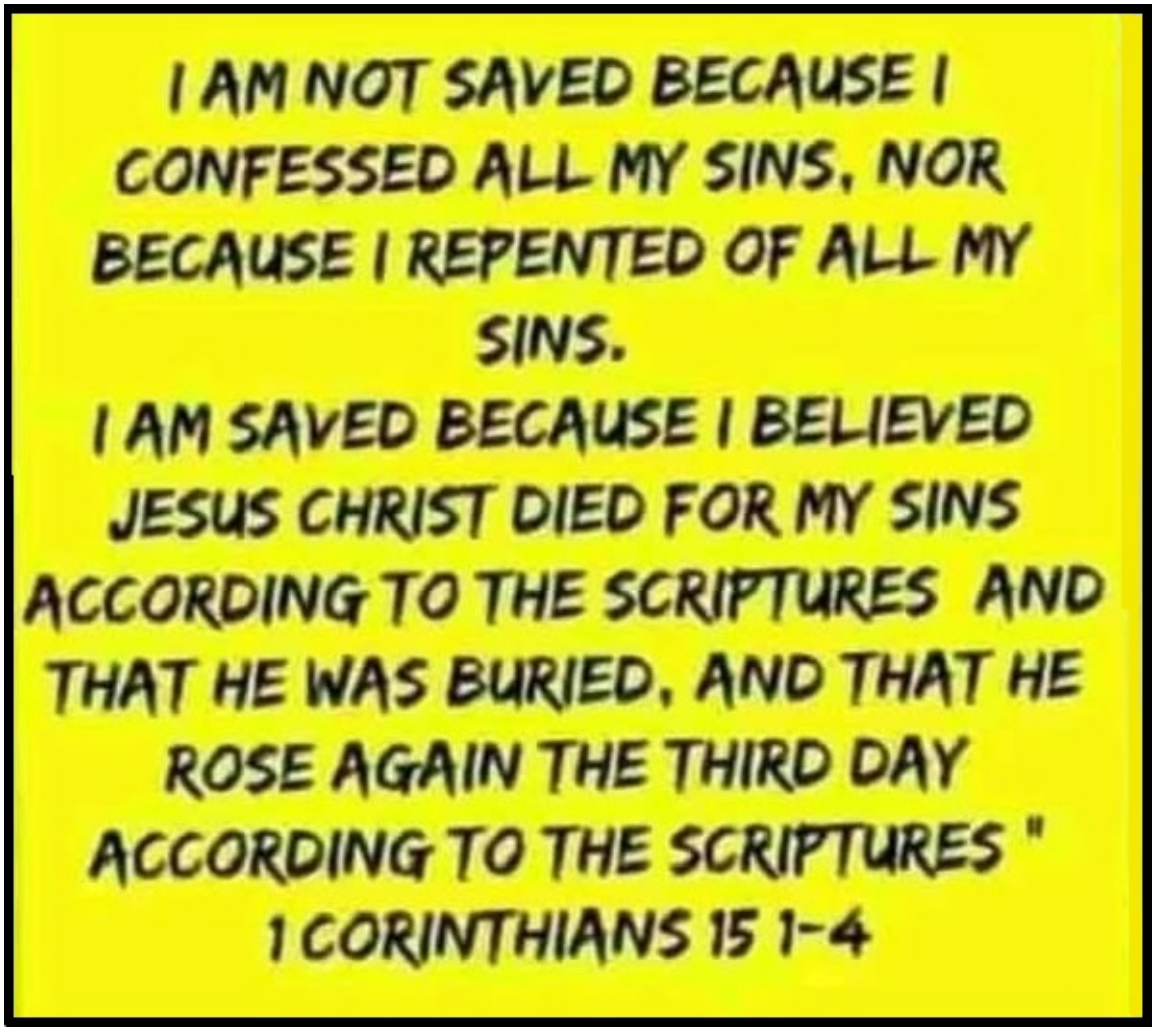
> "There is a vast difference between coming to Jesus for salvation and coming after Jesus for service. Coming to Christ makes one a believer, while coming after Christ makes one a disciple. All believers are not disciples. To become a believer one accepts the invitation of the Gospel, to be a disciple one obeys the challenge to a life of dedicated service and separation. Salvation comes through the sacrifice of Christ; discipleship comes only by sacrifice of self and surrender to His call for devoted service. Salvation is free, but discipleship involves paying the price of a separated walk. Salvation can't be lost because it depends upon God's faithfulness, but discipleship can be lost because it depends upon our faithfulness." —Pastor M.R. DeHaan, "Hebrews"; Zondervan Publishing House; 1959 (p. 117)

John Bunyan (1628-1688) fully understood the dire consequences of mixing sanctification (service) with justification (salvation)...

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." —Evangelist John Bunyan

They are not able to rightly divide the Word of Truth at the FBCP, because they have refused to make a distinction between salvation (Galatians 3:26) and service (Romans 12:1). Until you settle it once and for all in your mind that sanctification has nothing to do with justification, you will continue to wallow in confusion, doubt and worry about eternal life.

By faith alone in the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ, I became a born again child of God in 1980 at age 13. It doesn't matter how I choose to live my life, as far as going to Heaven is concerned. We will all be held accountable by God in eternity for the choices that we make on earth (Ecclesiastes 12:13-14; Romans 14:10-12). Some believers will receive no rewards (1st Corinthians 3:11-15), because they didn't earn them (1st Corinthians 3:7-9). Others will shine as the stars forever, cherishing their many converts (Daniel 12:3).



The life that we live now on earth is strictly a matter of Civil Court and potential rewards at the Judgment Seat of Christ (Revelation 13:14; 2nd Corinthians 5:1-11). The unsaved damned will be tried in Criminal Court at the Great White Throne of Judgment (Revelation 20:11-15). Oh to God, that churches today would embrace the biblical truth that eternal life is the free gift of God, which is without works.

Sadly, most Baptist colleges and churches today have adopted the demonic lie that the unbiblical requirement to forsake a lifestyle of sinning is not works, but it definitely is salvation by works. Jonah 3:10, " And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not." The people of Nineveh did not get saved, they merely repented of their sins.

Did you know that Judas in the Bible repented of his sins? Matthew 27:3-4, "Then Judas, which had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented himself, and brought again the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders, Saying, I have sinned in that I have betrayed the innocent blood. And they said, What is that to us? see thou to that. " Judas was sorry (penitence) for what he had done to betray Jesus. Judas even returned the 30 pieces of silver (penance). He was a changed man (reformation). Judas changed his mind about his sins. But tragically, Judas failed to repent of his unbelief, which is the only sin that can keep someone out of Heaven. Judas hung himself and died in his sin of unbelief. Judas sadly went to Hell to burn forever. He could have been saved, but Judas didn't believe Jesus is the only begotten Son of God, the Christ (John 20:31).

God knows my heart, that I hold no animosity toward the FBCP. I know a few people there, whom I feel sorry for, having been blinded by deceived religious leaders. The FBCP take in about $5,000,000 annually in revenue. The church pays an annual fee of $50,000 just to continue being a member of the Southern Baptist Convention (SBC). What a waste of money! I wouldn't join the ungodly SBC even if they paid me $50,000 a year!

The inspired Holy Bible warns in Galatians 1:6-7 that there is a curse upon anyone who preaches ANOTHER GOSPEL. Argue as some people will, the fact remains that nowhere does the Bible teach you must repent of your sins, or trust Jesus as your Lord, to get to Heaven. Hopefully this won't seem like a trifle matter to you dear reader. If you've been paying attention, they you know that the Gospel is being embellished everywhere today. There is a drastic difference between teaching that Christ died for our sins, versus teaching that God won't save you unless you're first willing to forsake a lifestyle of sinning. The former is grace, the latter is works. Romans 4:4, "Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt." True salvation only comes to the individual who rests solely in Christ's redemptive work apart from all else (Hebrews 4:10-11).

6.2.11 Beware Of Peter S. Ruckman's Dangerous Cult (2025-02-17 14:40)

Acts 13:39, "And by him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses."

Oh how foolish and incompetent are corrupt preachers like Peter S. Ruckman (1921-2016), his corrupt [1]Bible Baptist Church in Pensacola that continue to preach his poisonous heresy, William P. Grady (a devout Ruckman follower), Robert Breaker (a graduate of Rockman's cult school), and other idiots who teach that people were saved by works under the law of Moses in the Old Testament. Acts 13:39 plainly teaches the NO ONE was justified under the law of Moses.

I cannot warn people enough to avoid the Bible Baptist Church in Pensacola, whose founder was the late Dr. Peter S. Ruckman. Mr. Ruckman is no doubt burning in Hell today, because he preached [2]a perverse works-based plan of salvation. Their ungodly cult in Pensacola also distribute [3]toxic Chick Tracts, which pervert the biblical meaning of repentance and thus corrupt God's simple plan of salvation. RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!!

6.2.12 Why You Shouldn’t Be Using Google For Searches (2025-02-18 18:57)

2nd Timothy 3:1-5, “This know also, that in the last days perilous times shall come.

For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, Without natural affection, trucebreakers, false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good, Traitors, heady, highminded, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God; Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away.”

We are living in perilous times in 2025. Put another way: Watch your back Jack! Pastor Jack Hyles wisely said: “

Always be on guard!

Countless people have been convicted and sentenced to life in prison based upon their Google searches! Even though like me, you may think that since you are an honest person who is trying to obey the law and live right, that you don’t need to worry about your searches. If that is you friend, [1]THINK AGAIN!

DuckDuckGo cannot even give your search history to the police if they demand it, because [2]DuckDuckGo doesn’t collect any data to begin with. There is nothing to surrender to the police!

In fact, your [3]Google searches CAN get you arrested!!! Albeit, I use Google searches for [4]my ministry search box for two reasons:

1. My code to search multiple websites at the same time doesn’t work on any other browser except Google. DuckDuckGo doesn’t work, so I don’t use it for my search function.

2. The searches are strictly ministry related, which is safe enough.

However, in your personal searches dear reader, I strongly encourage you to use [5]Duck-DuckGo or [6]Startpage that won’t track you.

You are a fool if you trust Google with your data! We are now living in the unprecedented time of the forming New World Order. This will ultimately bring to fruition the Beast System of the coming Man of Sin, that is, Antichrist (or “ in place of Christ

). The Devil is an imitator! Satan doesn’t want to force religion on humanity. He knows he cannot succeed by using that tactic. So the Devil is imitating Christianity, creeping the heresies of Lordship Salvation and Misunderstood Repentance into the church and religious colleges to corrupt everyone. Satan has also perverted the inspired Words of God, introducing hundreds of corrupt English Bible revisions into society to confuse, corrupt and mislead everyone.

I am being your friend to warn you not to use Google for your search activity dear reader. Always protect your privacy. We’re living in perilous times. Anything you type on Google can and will be used against you in a court of law.

I also recommend that you install the [7]free Ad Block Plus extension to your browser that blocks all annoying ads and pop-ups. I love this program! Tens of thousands of ads and pop-ups have been blocked on my computer. I hate those pesky ads, which are worse than termites!

6.2.13 Can Alcoholic Wine Be Used For The Lord's Supper? (2025-02-18 19:09)

1st Timothy 4:16, " Take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine; continue in them: for in doing this thou shalt both save thyself, and them that hear thee. "

No, alcoholic wine cannot be used for the Lord's Supper! Unfermented juice is fine to use for the Lord's support, but alcoholic beverages should never be used. Intoxicating wine is made by allowing the wine to ferment (rot). It would be inappropriate to symbolize the dear Savior's precious sinless blood with corruption. I humbly believe that it is wrong for Roman and Orthodox Catholic priests to use alcoholic wine in the Eucharist.

During the Eucharist ritual, Catholics practice what is known in theology as "transubstantiation," in which the bread and wine allegedly turn into Jesus' actual flesh and blood, to renew spiritual life in the participant's body.

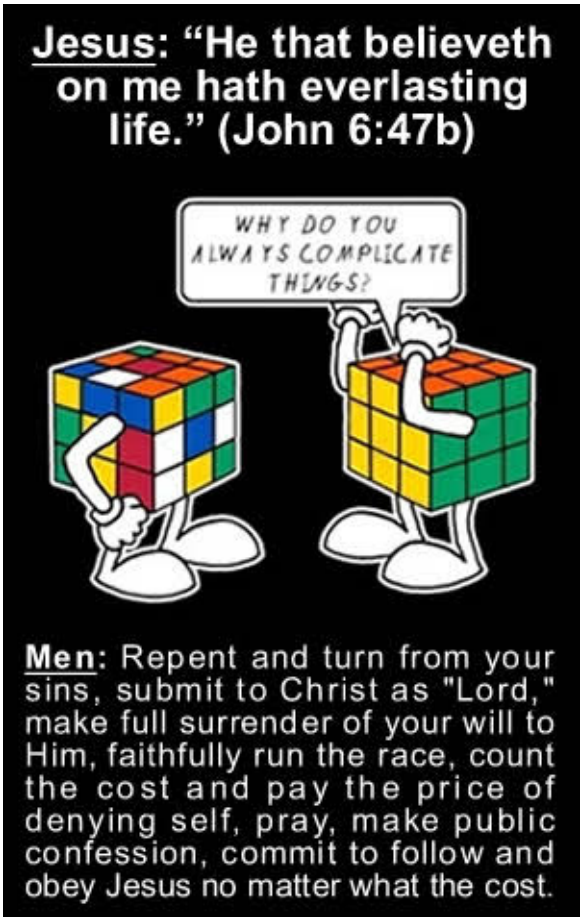
Lutherans practice a similar belief called "consubstantiation," in which it is thought that the bread and wine don't literally become Jesus' blood and flesh, but these elements do produce a divine supernatural grace upon the participant. Of course, that is poppycock and tomfoolery!

Both ideologies are unbiblical and wicked!

The Bible teaches that the Lord's Supper is simply a time when true believers in a local church REMEMBER Jesus' sacrifice on the cross of Calvary. The Lord's Supper ought not be done so often that it loses its meaning, nor observed so infrequently that the Body of Christ forgets what the dead Lord has done for us to rescue us from eternal damnation in the Lake of Fire.

There is no magical power of efficacy bestowed upon the participants of the Lord's Supper, or "Eucharist" as Catholics choose to call it. Presbyterians also errantly teach that the Lord's Supper bestows a spiritual grace, an efficacy (or power if you will) upon the participant. There is no such strange teaching in the inspired Word of God.

Neither is the Lord's Supper (nor water baptism for that matter) a church "sacrament." Sacraments are NOT taught in the inspired King James Bible. Religion and Christ are opposed to each other.



> "Religion and Christ are in opposition to each other!" —Pastor Jack Hyles, "[1]Religion Or Christ?"

Religion always complicates the things of God. I humbly believe that is why Jesus warned in Matthew 7:13-14, "Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat: Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it." Jesus said that only a FEW people ever find the true way of salvation.

The Devil's corrupt modern Bible PERversions, like the New King James Version (NKJV) corrupt this passage, replacing the word narrow with difficult. Salvation is not difficult, it is easy! I humbly think the reason why Jesus warned that only a "few" people will make it to Heaven is because the way of salvation is so easy, free and simple that most people miss it! Religion adds, embellishes and complicates God's simple plan of salvation (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4).

God’s simple plan of salvation is like a tiny town that if you hiccup, you might drive past and miss it entirely. Please don’t let religion blind you to [2]the truth of the Gospel.

Religion blinds lost sinners to the light of the truth of the Gospel (2nd Corinthians 4:3-4).

6.2.14 God Is More Than Amazing! (2025-02-18 19:35)

Song of Solomon 2:11-13, “ For, lo, the winter is past, the rain is over and gone; The flowers appear on the earth; the time of the singing of birds is come, and the voice of the turtle is heard in our land; The fig tree putteth forth her green figs, and the vines with the tender grape give a good smell. Arise, my love, my fair one, and come away.”

My neck pain has been unbearable yesterday and today. I caught a chest cold or something, which has made my neck pain much worse. My throat has been sore all day and my voice hoarse.

7734

The pain is so bad that it radiates into my face, causing sharp pain (especially behind my right eye). I have endured this horrible inexplicable physical suffering over the years, since 2004 when it began. I was hit by a church bus in 1992 (of all things), and then fell down at work in 2005, which worsened my existing injury. Over time my neck began to deteriorated, which medically is called Cervical Degenerative Disk Disease. It has been a dreary journey.

Anyway, to try to forget my woes, I went down to Home Depot last night to look at their flowers and took these pretty photos to share with you.

DIANTHUS

[10]

I have two palm trees in my front yard. They looked like they were dying. So I trimmed them yesterday. Here is the larger one, what it looked like before I trimmed it...

And here is what the palm tree looked like after I finished trimming it...

By pruning the dead branches and rogue ground foliage from the tree, it frees up valuable resources to help restore the tree's health. I also bought 2 packs of Palm Fertilizer Spikes from Walmart. I pounded 5 spikes into the ground in a circle around each tree, two feet away from the trunk, as the instructions specified. And then I watered both trees very well. Lord willing, hopefully in 3 months the two trees will be in much better robust health.

In the same way dear reader, sometimes God needs to prune our lives of the dead branches, which can be painful at the time, but ultimately it will make us healthier spiritually in the Lord. Hebrews 12:11, " Now no chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous: nevertheless afterward it yieldeth the peaceable fruit of righteousness unto them which are exercised thereby." Amen and amen. God is so good to all of us!

I planted these pretty flowers today outside my front door by the steps...

The yellow flowers are perennials and will rebloom each year. But the pretty red flowers are annuals, which will only bloom for this year and then die. Lord willing, each year I will replace them with something pretty. Our earthly life is as an annual flower, a one time shot. But eternal life is as a perennial flower plant that will live and bloom in perpetuity. John 10:27-28, "My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me: And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand. "

6.2.15 Who Are The “Synagogue Of Satan” In Revelation 3:9? (2025-02-20 10:31)

Revelation 3:9-10, “ Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of Satan, which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie; behold, I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee. Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, I also will keep thee from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world, to try them that dwell upon the earth.”

Someone asked me the question today: Who are the “s ynagogue of Satan

” mentioned in Revelation 3:9? There is considerable debate over the interpretation of this Scripture passage, but the Bible plainly gives us the answer if we rightly divide the Word of Truth.

I dug out my Bible commentary this morning titled, “

Revelation: ’Behold He Cometh’

by Dr. John R. Rice (1895-1980) to seek Brother Rice’s wisdom regarding this passage, and I fully agree with his exegesis...

> ’Which Say They Are Jews, and Are Not’
>
> (Vs. 9)
>
> Could a Jewish synagogue be a synagogue of Satan?
>
> “

“

? Yes, if it opposed Christ and rejected Him. Although they might be physically of the race of Israel they are not real Jews in the Bible sense. Romans 2, 28, 29 tell us:

> “For he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh:
> But he is a Jew, which is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God.

The promise of Christ and His blessing were promised to “Abraham and his seed,” but the future seed of Abraham were promised to be like the sand of the seashore and so a great group of literal Israelites. But the seed were also likened to the stars of Heaven, which we think mean a heavenly seed of the faith of Abraham. So Galatians 3:29 says, “And if ye be Christ’s, then are ye Abraham’s seed, and heirs according to the promise.”

Unsaved Jews claimed to be Abraham’s seed, but Jesus denied it as John 6:39 tells us: “And this is the Father’s will which hath sent me, that of all which he hath given me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day.” So those who are descended physically from Abraham are not spiritually his children unless they have faith in Christ as did Abraham.

Bravo Dr. Rice! I fully agree.

By the way, that’s not a typo above. I had a difficult time trying to understand what Dr. Rice was saying by quoting John 6:39. Brother Rice is simply showing us that God draws those who come to Christ, which proves that all physical Jews are not automatically saved. If the physical descendants of Abraham were automatically among the redeemed seed of Abraham, then there would be no need for God to draw them. John 12:32,

“

And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me.

” Calvinism errantly says that God draws SOME men, but the inspired Holy Bible says that God draws ALL men (cf., Titus 2:11). The Holy Spirit of God draws all men to salvation. Whether they accept the invitation is up to the individual.

No unsaved Jewish person is a true Jew biblically. God divorced Himself from the rebellious nation of Israel in the Old Testament. Jerusalem was finally conquered in the year 586 BC by Babylon and still does not exist today. What does exist (since 1948) in Palestine is a manmade secular state, an abomination to the Lord. Present-day Israel is NOT the fulfillment of Bible prophecy to restore Israel when Christ returns.

Just as Abraham and Sarah in the Old Testament sinfully doubted God's promise of receiving a son, who took matters into their own hands by impregnating Hagar to conceive Ishmael; even so have wicked impatient men taken matters into their own hands once again in modern times, by creating the manmade state of Israel in 1948 and demanding for a holy God to bless a bunch of heathen Christ-rejecting Jews. That dog won't hunt!

Seven million Jews have returned to the land of Palestine, but they still haven't repented to turn back to the Messiah, Jesus (Hosea 3:4-5). Shame on those Zionist churches today who support manmade counterfeit Israel. Less than 2 % of Jews living in Israel today profess faith in Jesus Christ. Psalms 33:12, " Blessed is the nation whose God is the LORD: and the people whom he hath chosen for his own inheritance." Their God is not Jesus today!

As I mentioned earlier,

God divorced Himself from the rebellious nation of Israel in the Old Testament (Jeremiah 3:8). But God did not forever cast away His people, the Lord made a way of restoration for every Jew, through faith in Jesus Christ.

Romans 11:23, " And they also, if they abide not still in unbelief, shall be graffed in: for God is able to graff them in again. " Unbelieving Jews have no stake in God's promises of blessing, except that Hell will be their eternal doom unless they repent of their unbelief to be saved (Revelation 20:15).

Dear reader, I cannot warn you enough not to be sucked into the deception of Zionism that has infected so many churches today. I have heard some insane teachings from Zionist Baptist pastors. For example: James Modlish (born 1944) while pastor years ago in Rochester, New York, said that he wanted to [1]hire a Jew to witness only to unsaved Jews (you can listen directly to the [2]sermon audio excerpt), so that God would bless their church. That is the sin of racism! As if witnessing to Asians or African Americans wouldn't bring God's blessings! Preachers say the darndest things!

So, the "synagogue of Satan" in Revelation 3:9 refers to unsaved Jews who claim to be the children of Abraham, and who also falsely claim to be recipients of the promises of God to the Jews. Tragically, 98 % of Jews living in Israel today are members of the synagogue of Satan. They vehemently reject Jesus as the Messiah. Jesus made it abundantly clear in John 3:3b when speaking to Nicodemus (a Jew) that "Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God."

President Trump's new White House spiritual advisor, false prophetess Paula White, has [3]stated publicly that Christians ought not bother to share the Gospel with the Jews; but rather, to learn from the Jews instead. What arrogance! What blasphemy against the inspired Word of God! Kindly said, [4]Paula White is a hellbound infidel. Miss White is very wrong! To enter into God's heavenly Kingdom, Jews must be born again by faith alone in the GOOD NEWS (Gospel) of Jesus' death on the cross, burial and bodily resurrection from the dead three days later (1st Corinthians 15:1-6)—just the same as the Gentiles! John 6:47, " Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life."

> “□□□ □□□□□□ □□ □□□□□□□□□ □□□□□□□ □□□□□□□□□□□□□ □□□□□□□.” —[5]□□□□□ □□□□□□□□□□ □□□□□ □□□□□

I love some of the changes that President Trump has made in 2025, but he really blew it by hiring Paula White as spiritual advisor to the White House. She is a Zionist religious clown!

Monsters Are Real: Benjamin Netanyahu

Please do not buy into the Devil’s lie that Jews are more special to God than Gentiles, because they are not (Romans 1:16, 10:12; James 2:1). Galatians 3:28-29 plainly teaches that whether Jew or Gentile, we are all “ in Christ through faith,

ONE

“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus.

And if ye be Christ’s, then are ye Abraham’s seed, and heirs according to the promise.

” God favors those who obey Him, whether Gentile or Jew, but He loves everyone unconditionally (Romans 5:6-9).

I have been absolutely sickened and disgusted over the past year, watching over 46,000 innocent Palestinians (mostly defenseless women and children) be brutally murdered in cold blood by Benjamin Netanyahu (a real life evil racist and monster).

I am really disappointed with President Trump for effectively giving immunity in 2025 to President Netanyahu for his heinous war crimes! The International Criminal Court (ICC) [6]issued Arrest Warrants in November of 2024 for [7]Benjamin Netanyahu and Yoav Gallant, two monstrous Israeli leaders. They should be arrested and tried for mass murder and genocide! [8]President [9] Trump has wickedly imposed sanctions against the International Criminal Court (ICU) for doing their job to call for justice.

Ironically, President Trump yesterday called Ukrainian President Zelensky

but if anybody is a dictator it is Mr. Trump! President Trump is bullying the ICC to ignore the atrocities committed by Israel against the defenseless Palestinian people. And now President Trump is stealing the displaced refugee’s land and homeland in Gaza, planning to turn the region into an upscale hotel resort community.

Zionism is a false doctrine, and it is evil. True Israel hasn’t existed since 586 BC, and won’t exist again until the future Second Coming of the Lord Jesus Christ. What Israeli nation exists today in Palestine is an imitation, awaiting their False Messiah (Antichrist, who is the Man of Sin). When the Antichrist comes he will rule over his counterfeit kingdom, which is the New World Order. The true Messiah (Jesus Christ) will return someday and reestablished true Israel, and will reign over the earth from His throne in Jerusalem for 1,000 years. Beware of the Devil’s present-day counterfeits!

6.2.16 Fireworks Don’t Last (2025-02-23 14:34)

"For now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known. And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity." —I Corinthians 13:12,13

by Pastor Lee Roberson, D.D.

[2] Watch Fireworks!

"For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory; While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal." — II Corinthians 4:17,18

And I suppose "temporal" in verse 18 is the one and only time it is found in the translation, from the original in the King James Version.

Go to now, ye that say, today or tomorrow we will go into such a city, and continue there a year, and buy and sell, and get gain:

Whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow. For what is your life? It is even a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away.

For that ye ought to say, If the Lord will, we shall live, and do this, or that. But now ye rejoice in your boastings: all such rejoicing is evil. Therefore to him that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin. — James 4:13-17

I can still recall quite vividly the occasion back in Louisville,

Kentucky when, as a young man, I would go out to the fairgrounds on July 4 and watch the display at night of the fireworks given by the city for the people to enjoy.

Some Roman candles would shoot high into the air, then burst into ten thousand glittering stars, which would quickly fade away as they fell toward the ground.

At the state fairgrounds, the displays were always elaborate, as I can recall them now. Some in this city, in years past, have indeed been very elaborate.

The American flag was often pictured in fireworks, in beautiful color. The crowd would stand, the band would play a very patriotic moment. Ofttimes we would see some historic places pictured by fireworks, such as Mount Vernon or "Ole Kentucky Home." Sometimes it would be the display of a galloping horse, a barking dog, or something else, each with special sound effects.

These displays always created great excitement. The people who had gathered watched with wide-open eyes. The children covered their ears when the firecrackers were too loud. You can almost see the scene, can you not?

There was always a strange unity of the people as they watched. Every eye was fastened upon the scene in front of them - the exploding machines and the building up of the pictures as they came on little by little. There was no dozing, no sleeping, but a wholesome concentration as everyone looked, marveled and expressed pleasure.

But after a while it was all over. The fireworks ceased. The last Roman candle had been shot into the air; the last sparkler had made it’s beautiful color; the last firecracker had sounded off; and the last glowing ember on the great display turned black. Then, the field became dark and dead as all the people walked away.

I can still recall that many would exclaim, including myself, "Wasn’t that beautiful! Wasn’t it something wonderful to see!" Then it was all over. We saw it for just a few moments, not to see it again for perhaps another twelve months. Some of the display might be given next July 4th.

Now I use that to illustrate things that fade away, things that change, and things that stand. That brings us to the portion of our message I want to emphasize this morning - the things that abide.

There are some things that do last. The fireworks of this world are gone. The firecrackers and the sound - these are over. The light made by these inventions of men have disappeared. But there are some things that stand.

I. GOD'S ETERNAL WORD STANDS

Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away. —Matthew 24:35

But the word of the Lord endureth for ever. And this is the word which by the gospel is preached unto you. —I Peter 1:25

The Bible is the Book of the ages. The Word abides. The Bible is the world's best-seller, but it is also the most neglected Book in the world.

No one is smart, no one is well read without the reading of the Word of God.

The Bible endures. It is God's message to man. It speaks with authority. It has the answers to all our questions. And it is ever the same.

My son-in-law mentioned this morning about his first Bible. I can recall my first one from Sears and Roebuck in Chicago, obtained by mail order at $1.90 - a very nice buy back in that day.

The interesting thing about the Bible enduring is that the one I bought fifty-two years ago from Sears and Roebuck catalog is exactly the same in content as the one I hold in my hand now.

That leads me to say that I like the King James Version. I'm not much in favor of all the modernistic translations and the so-called interpretation worked into it by some men. The Old Bible endures.

The Bible enlightens. "The entrance of thy words giveth light. . . " (Psalm 119:130).

The way of salvation is clearly given. Christ, ... the way, the truth, and the life. . . " (John 14:6).

The Bible points the way from paradise lost to paradise regained.

The Bible gives us the beginning of sin and the result of sin. This penetrates the darkness of today. We see the trend of society, the behavior of men, and the behavior of nations. The Bible enlightens. We can see things from the Word.

The Bible encourages. There are rough places. There are steep hills to climb. There are shadows to face. There are deep waters to cross. And the Bible encourages us when we face all of this.

The Bible encourages us in the time of death and in times of sorrow, when loved ones go from us.

Sitting here this morning is our brother, Gene Payne, who sang so beautifully with Neil Queen at the funeral service for his father last Friday. Gene said, "I felt I had to sing. I wanted to sing."

The Bible strengthens in the time of suffering. How much the Word can do for all of us. In the hour of suffering, when these bodies will fail, when things are not quite the same, rest upon God’s eternal Word. It’s here to help and to strengthen when suffering is our lot. We all suffer. If you haven’t, you will. That is a part of this body, the breakdown of the body, that comes to us after awhile.

From her sick bed Florence Nightingale organized the hospitals of England and of London especially. Her mighty work is still remembered.

Though Louis Pasteur was partially paralyzed and suffered all the time, yet he did a monumental work that still abides today.

Francis Parkman, an American historian, suffered endlessly. He could work only about five minutes at a time. He would write with letters so large that it would take almost a half page for one single word. He would write for five minutes, stop, then pick it up again when his eyes would allow him to do so, until he wrote twenty volumes which are among the best volumes of history produced in this nation.

The Bible came out of dark hours. The Psalms came out of dark hours. Read the Psalms. You'll find much to help you. Read the prison epistles by the Apostle Paul, the Apostle Peter, John on the Isle of Patmos, and others. Greatness comes from men who have gone through suffering. The Bible strengthens in the time of suffering. So rest upon the Word of God.

The Bible strengthens in the time of disappointment. My friends, I could not tell you how many times I have had to pick up my Bible, in hours when I've been disappointed in certain situations, maybe even in this church, or around this church, or maybe in Tennessee Temple University - situations here in the operation of our work. I had to come back to the Word of God. When I was disappointed - disappointed in people, disappointed in myself, disappointed in the situations surrounding me, I had to come back to resting upon the Word of God.

What am I saying? That the Bible comforts, that it strengthens, that it encourages - all this and far more.

"The Word of God endures forever," says the Word of God about itself. You'll always find treasures in the Word, blessed things, things that you never thought you could find. Even though you may have read your Bible for a lifetime, there are still things to be found in God's holy Word because He wrote it. So rest upon the Word of God.

A man up in New Jersey had an aunt who passed away and left him some money in the will, perhaps $400 or $500. Then she left him some possessions that he could keep. He put them away. Then when he got older, he had to move from his home to his son's. He began picking up what he had. Here was the Bible left by his aunt. Carelessly, and somewhat thoughtlessly, he sat down and began turning through its pages. He discovered something. Inside the pages of the Bible he found bills which amounted to more than $5,000.00. Though he had been suffering a lack, suffering for needs in his own life, yet he had never stopped to look into the Word of God.

We may not find actual money, as he did, yet here are the promises of God, worth more than all the money of this world. You can rest upon what God has to say to you.

The Word of God stands. When all the firecrackers have displayed themselves, you still have the Word of God. Rest upon it.

II. GOD'S NEW TESTAMENT CHURCH

I may surprise you by saying that, but for this age, for this time until Jesus comes again, the New Testament church will abide. I don't care what the fanatics say; I don't care what the depressing remarks may be, or what people in some forms of churchanity might think when they say, "The church will be no more," the New Testament church will abide until Jesus Comes. It may be small, it may be large, it may have to go through all sorts of persecutions, but it will abide until Jesus comes to take us home.

Persecution may come, but the church will live. Modernism may invade, but the church will live. Indifference may claim many, but the church lives. Sin may lay hold on many, but the church lives. Satan will fight and deceive, but the church lives.

This is what we want to see regarding the New Testament church. The church that stands for and preaches the pure holy Word of God is the church with the largest crowds. We see this around the whole nation. The New Testament church will stand. It will live.

Now what is our business? First, to exalt Christ, to preach Christ, to lift Him up. The world must see Him. The world must know Him. It is our business to preach Christ.

Second, we are to obey His commands. We are to do what He says. We are to win souls. The Bible says, "He that winneth souls is wise." We are to send out missionaries to the ends of the earth. We are to baptize converts. We are to do the job that God has given us to do. We are to obey His commands.

Third, we are to live righteously'. Keep your heart right. "Abstain from all appearance of evil" is our business as members of the New Testament church. We are to live righteously. We are to live so that Christ may be seen by others.

Keep your emotions right. Ephesians 4:26, "Be ye angry, and sin not: let not the sun go down upon your wrath."

Listen; you may be angry for a righteous cause, and that is good. We ought to get upset about sin, about wrongdoing, until we express ourselves about it! Let trivialities, the meaningless things of life, pass by. But, about those things that are important, those things that are the meaningful, these are the things for which we must stand.

That is where we should always take our definite stand for righteousness.

Fourth, we must worship God. Our business in the local church is worshipping God. Our empty pews cry out against us. Whether on Sunday night, Sunday morning, Wednesday night prayer meeting, or whenever, this speaks against the church, against the people of God. We need to worship God and be faithful in attending God’s house.

Down through the years I’ve been driving home in all of my meetings, in all of my work, in every church where I’ve pastored, the matter of going to church Sunday morning, Sunday night, and Wednesday night prayer meeting. God has honored this. Here we’ve seen things happen because of the faithfulness of God’s people in coming to church. That’s the way it should be.

I recall holding a revival meeting years ago at the First Baptist Church in Ensley, Alabama. While there, I stayed in the home of a couple. I was put in a room near the front of the house. The bedroom for the man and wife was next to mine.

We went home after the Sunday morning service. The couple began talking. The walls were thin, so I could hear them. He said to his wife, "Now I went to church this morning, but I’m not going back tonight. I’ve never gone to more than one service in my life on Sunday, and that’s all I’m going to now."

I heard his wife say to him, "But I think you might break the habit this time and go to church. We’ve got the evangelist with us. He is right next door, in the next room. He’s preaching and I think you ought to be there."

"I don’t care if he is there. I’m not going. Once is enough for me. That’s all I can take. That’s all I’ve ever had. That’s all I want."

She talked on and won the battle. That night he sat with her. I can see them now sitting in front of me. Ordinarily I’m not a lengthy preacher, but that night I put together every sermon I could think of! I had him here and I would let him have it so he couldn’t forget it. I preached something from almost every message I had. I wanted to get hold of that fellow.

Going to church and worshipping God is important. The New Testament church will abide, will stand in this age, until the coming of our blessed Saviour.

Some people say, "Well, Brother Roberson, you do so many unusual things in your Sunday school. Yes, and what we do at Highland Park will last, and it has for these forty years that I’ve been here.

Back in the first or second year when we started doing some new things, the folk were so fine. The Sunday school was growing and abounding. People were being saved in every service. A pastor in another Baptist church stood up on a Sunday morning and expressed himself about Highland Park, and Lee Roberson and all the rest, saying, "He's running a three-ring circus. I want to prophesy to you that it will soon be gone. A thing like that can never last."

His words came right back to me, within a few minutes after the service was over. That man was voted out of his church. Then he tried another church. After a while he failed there and then quit the ministry. He is dead now, and Highland Park is still going ahead. He was criticizing just the outward thing of attracting people to the house of God. He missed the whole point of what we are doing here - trying to get people to the Lord Sunday after Sunday.

III. GOD'S UNCHANGING PURPOSE

First, God's eternal Word; second, God's New Testament church; and third, God's unchanging purpose. The purpose of God is to redeem man, to take out a people for His name (Acts 15:14).

We have been called and commissioned for God's great purpose. Jesus said, ". . . as my Father hath sent me, even so send I you." We are God's messengers to proclaim the message of everlasting life through Jesus Christ, the blessed Son of God.

Our position and our job is to preach Christ. Paul said: "But we preach Christ crucified, unto the Jews a stumbling block, and unto the Greeks foolishness" (I Corinthians 1:23).

As we preach, we are to win souls. We are to press upon people the great need of the Saviour. We are to urge them to receive the Son of God!

This is what the Lord Jesus meant when He talked about bearing fruit. To be fruit-bearing Christians is what He demands of us.

On this day of July 4, we talk about the rights and liberties that we have in our country. This is the right given to us, and we express it.

God has some rights, too. He has the right to say to you that you are to bear fruit. You are to be a soul winner. You are to get people to Jesus. You are to so live daily that others can see Christ in you. You are to bear fruit. ". . . we preach Christ."

We are to preach the abundant life through our Saviour. He said, "I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly." This is ours. Not just a little skimpy life, but an abundant life in Jesus, a life that abounds, a life that brings joy and happiness hour by hour - living abundantly and living courageously.

We are to preach an eternity of joy in the presence of God. How many verses we could give on the joy in Heaven that we have through Jesus Christ our Lord.

The Christian abides forever. It's not a firecracker existence. It is a matter of knowing Christ. We shall be in the presence of our eternal God and eternal Saviour forever and forever. The things of this world pass away, but the Word of God abides. Yes, it abides.

Some months ago some fellow on a motorcycle was shooting himself up into the air. His name is Evil Kneivel. He was crazy. One can have the headlines for awhile, then it is all over. But, the child of God abides. The work that God has given us to do abides.

I remember reading this past week, in one of the books that I picked up, about Thomas Edison. At one time a fire destroyed his plans, his factory - everything he had. All of his inventions seemed to be gone in just a moment's time. Edison was walking through the charred remains and wreck of the buildings. As he came to the area of his office, he looked down on the ground and saw a picture of himself, a picture that had been placed on the wall in his office. Edison bent over, picked it up and looked at his picture, untouched by the fire. It wasn't even scorched by the flames which had destroyed the entire building. He took a pen out of his pocket and wrote across the picture, "It never touched me, so I must be fireproof."

I've got something better than that. If you are in Christ Jesus, you are fireproof. If you are in the Son of God, you have nothing to fear, for Christ is your Saviour and Heaven is your home.

Modern pleasures do not bring happiness. Most amusements and pastimes are just miserable escapes from reality. Science brings no pleasure, no joy, no salvation. Death thrives on the jet planes. Education does not have all the answers. Mental institutions are full of college graduates. Religion is an all-time failure. Followers of Baal illustrate that to us.

Honest, sensible people are looking for that which will last. They are tired of the fast disappearing fireworks of this age. They look for that which will stand. My dear friend, I have it. It's in the Word of God, this Book the Bible.

God the Heavenly Father, Christ the Saviour, and the indwelling Holy Spirit - they are for all of us.

On this special day, as we think of our nation and of our needs, as we see what is happening all around us, we need to come back to the holy Word of God and rest upon its promises.

There are three things that I have given that never change: God’s Eternal Word; God’s New Testament church; and God’s holy purpose. I trust this morning that you know Christ as Saviour and that you can rest in Him today. I know that all things are mine for eternity through my blessed Lord. Can you, too, say that this morning? If you are a child of God, you can. If you are a child of God, you abide. You have everlasting life in Jesus Christ. You can rejoice throughout all the days to come.

I trust this morning that God will speak to your hearts and that you will say, "0 God, let me use my life in the best way possible. Let me see others and their needs. Let me see the unhappiness of people around me, that I might point them to Jesus Christ, that I might be a soul winner, that people might be saved through faith in the Son of God."

Marie Antoinette was made the queen of France. With the king, she was riding down the main boulevard of the city on the day of coronation. They say that the officials of Paris took all the poor, the beggars, the ill and afflicted and shoved them into the back streets.

As the queen rode down the street, she saw the well-dressed people, the beauty of their attire. She saw the culture of their faces. But she saw none of the people of the back streets.

With the king, she went to live in the palace. And she lived there altogether blind to the needs of the people until the beginning of the French Revolution, then came the awakening to the fact that she had not seen it all, just a small part.

This is what I want you to see. This is a needy world. Don’t you try to hide a thing. This is an ugly, dirty, needy world. The only answer is Jesus Christ. My friend, try any- thing or anybody you want to. There is only one answer - Christ. He is the answer to all of the illnesses, all of the afflictions, all of the ugliness that this world has.

Do you know Him as your Saviour? Can you say, "He is mine"? Have you accepted Him but turned away from following Him? Would you come back this morning and confess to Him, "I want to follow Thee and do Thy will for the rest of my days"?

6.2.17 God Wants You To Enjoy Your Life (2025-02-24 18:40)

Ecclesiastes 2:24-26, "There is nothing better for a man, than that he should eat and drink, and that he should make his soul enjoy good in his labour. This also I saw, that it was from the hand of God. For who can eat, or who else can hasten hereunto, more than I? For God giveth to a man that is good in his sight wisdom, and knowledge, and joy: but to the sinner he giveth travail, to gather and to heap up, that he may give to him that is good before God. This also is vanity and vexation of spirit."

The inspired King James Bible teaches that God wants the labouring man to enjoy the sweet fruits of his labors. So many people make the dire mistake of pursuing life, rather than to enjoy living. God gave Solomon a great life to live, but Solomon always wanted more. Ten wives wasn't enough, he wanted eleven, and then twelve, and ultimately ended up with 700 wives and 300 concubines. But even with all that Solomon possessed, he was still miserable and hated his life. ...

> Ecclesiastes 2:15-17, "Then said I in my heart, As it happeneth to the fool, so it happeneth even to me; and why was I then more wise? Then I said in my heart, that this also is vanity.
> For there is no remembrance of the wise more than of the fool for ever; seeing that which now is in the days to come shall all be forgotten. And how dieth the wise man? as the fool. Therefore I hated life; because the work that is wrought under the sun is grievous unto me: for all is vanity and vexation of spirit."

Solomon had it all, yet he hated his life. He made the mistake of failing to accept the life which God had blessed him with. I have suffered much in my life. I was severely rear-ended by a full-sized school bus in 1992, which misaligned my neck permanently. By 2004 that misalignment caused Cervical Degenerative Disk Disease, which led to two major neck surgeries in 2009 and 2010. The second surgery made me much worse, leaving both of my arms feeling inflated with air all the time. The whole right side of my body feels half asleep all the time. I feel burning in my nerves throughout my upper body. These afflictions are mere words to you dear reader, but they are a miserable reality to me–continually adversely affecting my emotions and how I feel. consequently, I live alone and try to enjoy the life that God has given me.

By the end of Solomon's miserable life, he finally learned to enjoy living, instead of always trying to make a better life. There are tens of millions of people who work so very hard, stashing away all the money that they can for an early retirement, just to watch it all get eaten up by a legal matter, health issues or some other devourer. I have seen people work hard for 30 years, then retire and die within just a couple years of retirement. James Mack comes to mind. He was a black man that I worked with in Chicago. He used to talk about how excited he was to someday retire. He told me that he was ready to retire in 5 years, then 4, then 3, 2, and 1, boom, he retired, and then died two years later. All for what?

There are billions of people in this world who refuse to enjoy living. They are so preoccupied with saving up for the future, and worked toward the future (e.g., buying a house, buying a boat, saving for marriage, et cetera), that they haven't learned to enjoy living now.

I take pictures sometimes, to share with my web visitors. I try to enjoy myself when I go anywhere. I pay attention to the little things. When the snowstorm came on January 21, 2025 to Pensacola, Florida, I took this picture of a red cardinal in my back yard to share with others on social media...

[1]

I built a snowman the morning after the snowstorm (on January 22, 2025), and I had so much fun. I used charcoal briquettes for the eyes, nose and mouth. I put a 'JOHN 3:16' hat on my snowman, and I dug out an old Christmas ornament from my den...

[2]

I love severe weather and I always have. I love tornadoes! I love snowstorms! I took this photo from my front porch during the heavy snowfall on January 21, 2025 (in Pensacola, can you believe it?). It went down to 18 degrees Fahrenheit that night and I loved it...

There is nothing wrong with enjoying life, just so long as you always honor and glorify God in all that you do. 1st Corinthians 6:20, " For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's."

One of my favorite sermons by Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) is titled: "[4]Learn To Enjoy Where You Are While On Your Way To Where You're Going." Dr. Hyles counseled with thousands of people each year, who shared their burdens, dreams and unhappiness with him. As a pastor, Brother Hyles learned that so oftentimes people choose to be miserable while waiting for better times to come along, when they ought to make the best of their present situation.

God wants us to enjoy our life.

6.2.18 The Victims Of 911 Will Get Justice In Eternity (2025-02-24 20:38)

The truth is being censored by the CONTROLLED NEWS MEDIA. I wrote this article back in 2015 titled, "[1]□□□ □□□□□□□□□□ □□□□□□ □□□□ □□□□□□□□□□□□ □□ □□□□□□□." If you search for this title on Google, it does not appear anywhere! When I search for the title on Duckduckgo, it comes up fourth in the search engine. Google is censoring THE TRUTH!!!

Thousands of lying shady websites today downplay THE TRUTH of what really happened on 911. The FACT that World Trade Center buildings 1, 2 and 7 were brought down by carefully planned DEMOLITION (using thermite charges in buildings 1 and 2) is undeniable. [2]Thousands of licensed engineers and architects from around the world have agreed that planes DIDN'T bring down the WTC on 911.

The University of Alaska Fairbanks did their own private investigation and determined that fires did NOT bring down WTC building 7 on 911. We have been deceived by our own treasonous ungodly lying government! The wicked U.S. Justice Department refused to investigate the crimes of 911, citing matters of national security.

Former FBI Deputy Director John O'Neill raised serious concerns prior to 911 that something strange was going on, and he suspected a terrorist attack in the works. John O'Neill was given a promotion as security director for the WTC. 911 was his first day on the job, and [3]he was murdered in the aftermath. Truth is stranger than fiction.

President George W. Bush's younger brother Marvin Bush headed up the electronics security company that oversaw all security cameras for the WTC complex for the 2-years leading up to 911. Marvin also handled the Dulles Airport in Dallas, where the plane came from that attacked the Pentagon. This is how these criminals were able to have contactors plant demolition charges throughout the WTC.

On 911, first responder New York City (NYC) firefighters testified that they heard multiple chains of explosions (bombs) going off just before the buildings came down. A corrupt NYC judge put a gag order on the firemen, ordering them to shut up! [4]Rudy Dent was a 32-year veteran of the FDNY. He passed away in Arizona in 2021 at age 75. Rudy was interviewed in 2001 by Infowars...

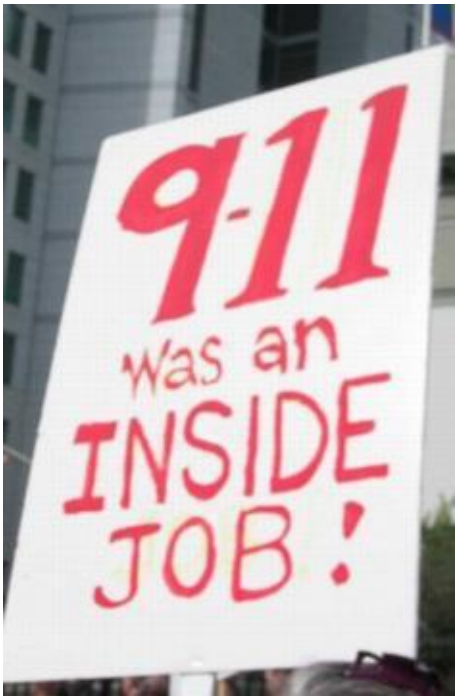
Rudy was also a Vietnam veteran and a police officer for 4 years in NYC. Rudy in the interview grieves for his 343 firefighter brethren who were murdered on 911. Rudy 100 % was convinced that 911 was an INSIDE JOB!!! Umpteen lawsuits were filed against President George W. Bush by victim's families, claiming that he had prior knowledge, hoping that the lawsuits would spark some legitimate investigations, but none were ever done.

All of the debris from 911 was immediately shipped off to China and no metallurgical testing was ever done to determine if thermite charges were used. There's no way that things went down this way unless it was a massive evil cover-up. It couldn't be more obvious from the improper way that things were handled that it was a cover-up. To no surprise, my article, "[5]□□□ □□□ □□□□ □□□□ □□□ □□□□□?" has also been banned on Google, but it appears a dozen links down on Duckduckgo. ...

The lying White House and controlled media have lame excuses for everything, but they're not fooling everyone. When told that our nation was under attack, President Bush just sat there in a kindergarten class, like nothing happened. Clearly, he was creating an alibi to avoid culpability in the attacks. George W. Bush, Dick Cheney, Donald Rumsfeld and company have blood all over their hands! I am firmly convinced that the White House had prior knowledge of 911. They FALSELY ACCUSED Iraq of having Weapons of Mass Destruction, which were never found. Thankfully, [6]not all of our elected leaders are asleep at the wheel.

TWO planes cannot bring down THREE buildings! In the history of skyscrapers, not once has a fire ever caused the entire building to implode to the ground within less than 10 seconds, let alone THREE BUILDINGS in one day!

When any honest observer takes into consideration the literally HUNDREDS of pieces of concrete damning evidence, one can only conclude that 911 was an INSIDE JOB that was carefully plotted, implemented and orchestrated by our own criminal White House.



The way that CNN, others and Fox News attacked and demonized sincerely Americans for merely asking questions about what really happened on 911 is clear evidence of a thug campaign to white wash the crimes. I still remember Bill O'Reilly literally getting heated and angry at people for daring to just ask questions. HOW DARE YOU!!! That devilish clown Sean Hannity did the same thing.

Just as with the alleged Sandy Hook Shootings in 2012 in Newtown, Connecticut, no one was allowed to challenge the official bullcrap story or even ask sincere questions. The corrupt governor of Connecticut even threatened to have anyone arrested who questioned the official story. THAT IS COMMUNISM!!! It couldn't be more obvious that there was a cover-up for the truth.

I thank God for God's promise of justice in [redacted] 9:9, "[redacted]" NO ONE ever gets away with doing evil.

There still are thousands of unsolved mystery crimes. No one knows who the Zodiac Killer was in California in the 1960's, but they have some guesses. Only God knows! There will be justice! There are mass murderers walking around free, who still have not been caught, but even if they escape justice in this world, they won't escape God (Hebrews 10:31). I find great comfort in knowing that truth!

George W. Bush and his monster accomplices won't get away with 911. I long to see their day of reckoning, so that all the murdered 343 firemen and their hurting families will finally be given JUSTICE! I long to see justice for the 1,455,590 murdered people in Iraq, whose blood is upon the Bush Administration's hands, who FALSELY ACCUSED them of something their nation didn't do. Woe unto the United States for all the innocent blood that we have shed.

6.2.19 Vengeance Is Mine; I Will Repay, Saith The Lord (2025-02-27 11:45)

Romans 12:19-21, "Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord. Therefore if thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink: for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head. Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good."

Someone sent me an email with a link today, to a website containing some slander about me. He suggested that I sue the accuser. Here is my unedited response to him...

> Kindly, I never read anything negative about myself as a standing policy. I didn't and won't read the link you sent me. I had to start doing this over 10 years ago, because people were sending me crap left and right, so I just don't read it. It is discouraging, so I leave it alone. God knows my heart and my labors. Jesus said in Matthew 25:40, "And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me." My enemies are the Lord's enemies. They aren't just attacking me, they're attacking Jesus.

Revelation 12:10 identifies Satan as "the accuser of the brethren." The people who attack saints are doing Satan's bidding. I have peace hiding in Christ's identity (Colossians 3:1-3). Mark Twain wisely said:

> "It takes your enemy and your friend, working together, to hurt you to the heart: the one to slander you and the other to get the news to you."

I always share that quote with people who forward slander to me. There's nothing any enemy can say about me that I haven't heard before, so I couldn't care less anymore what my enemies say. They are attacking the dear Savior, since I am a child of the great King. I relish in the people who have been helped for Christ through my humble ministry labors since 2002. To God be all the glory!

On social media, hateful people lie and say all kinds of malicious garbage about others, with no cross examination at all. In a legitimate court of law there is always cross examination, to force the accuser to prove their claims. But in the sick court of public opinion, any wicked person can say anything without being challenged, and stupid fools believe every word. I have received dozens of accusations in recent months that Donald Trump is the evil Antichrist. People are unreal. Humanity is diseased with the curse of sin. I thank God for the blood of Jesus that cleanses all our sins away, to those who believe on Jesus' precious name. Woe unto the accusers (Matthew 7:1-5).

Again, I know that you sincerely just wanted to be helpful, but I never read anything negative about myself or my ministry. That has served me well over the years. I'm not curious what the Devil's crowd thinks. As far as suing someone, I survive on a disability income and don't have the money to sue the hundreds of idiots on social media slandering my name. The inspired Holy Bible says that God will avenge all evil in Romans 12:19. Wicked people called Jesus (the sinless Son of God) a bastard (John 8:41), a devil (John 7:20), crazy (John 10:20), and a deceiver (Matthew 27:63). So, by faith, I trust that God will deal harshly with my critics, as they have harshly dealt with me. Let the heathen rage. My ministry friends wouldn't care if the slander were true, and my enemies wouldn't care if the slander were false because they'll still believe it anyway. A critic is a critic. My faith is in God.

Kindest regards and have a good day

God knows that I told him the truth, I didn't visit the link that he sent me. I stopped reading slander about me over 10 years ago. I never go looking online to see what people say about me. I really don't care, because I have zero control over public opinion. Jesus plainly warned all believers in John 15:19 that the servant is not greater than his Master. If they persecuted Jesus, they'll persecute us as saints. I find great comfort in Jesus' calming words.

When Jesus spoke about being "

in Matthew 5:48, he was specifically referring to loving our enemies and doing good to those who do evil against us...

> Matthew 5:44-48, “But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you; That ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven: for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust. For if ye love them which love you, what reward have ye? do not even the publicans the same? And if ye salute your brethren only, what do ye more than others? do not even the publicans so? Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect.”

6.2.20 Shame On President Donald Trump (2025-02-28 11:51)

Daniel 3:5-7, “That at what time ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, dulcimer, and all kinds of musick, ye fall down and worship the golden image that Nebuchad- nezzar the king hath set up: And whoso falleth not down and worshippeth shall the same hour be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace. Therefore at that time, when all the people heard the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and all kinds of musick, all the people, the nations, and the languages, fell down and worshipped the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up."

The following image appeared in the mainstream news this week and it is truly disgusting.

Idolatry: [2]Trump's Golden Image

Just seeing shameful presidents' Trump and Netanyahu laying on beach chairs in their swimwear in Gaza in the [3]released propaganda video this week is despicable. This is their response to over 46,000 murdered Palestinians! Donald Trump is a racist who pisses on the Palestinian people. I am so sick of stupid Christian people who idolize President Trump.

Although I admire and like many of the positive things he is doing to improve our government, this wickedness cannot be excused.

Over 2,300,000 Palestinians just lost their homes and land, and now President Trump is mocking them and stealing their lives. I have unfriended some wicked Christians, like Robert Serreyn. He wouldn't even communicate with me anymore because I DO NOT STAND WITH ISRAEL.

If someone despises my beliefs so much that they refuse to reply to my messages, I will unfriend that mean person. I have never unfriended anyone on Facebook for their beliefs, but I do if they are bullies and put me down for disagreeing with their views. I have had to unfriend numerous New IFB bullies. No Christian is right with God who is a respecter of persons!

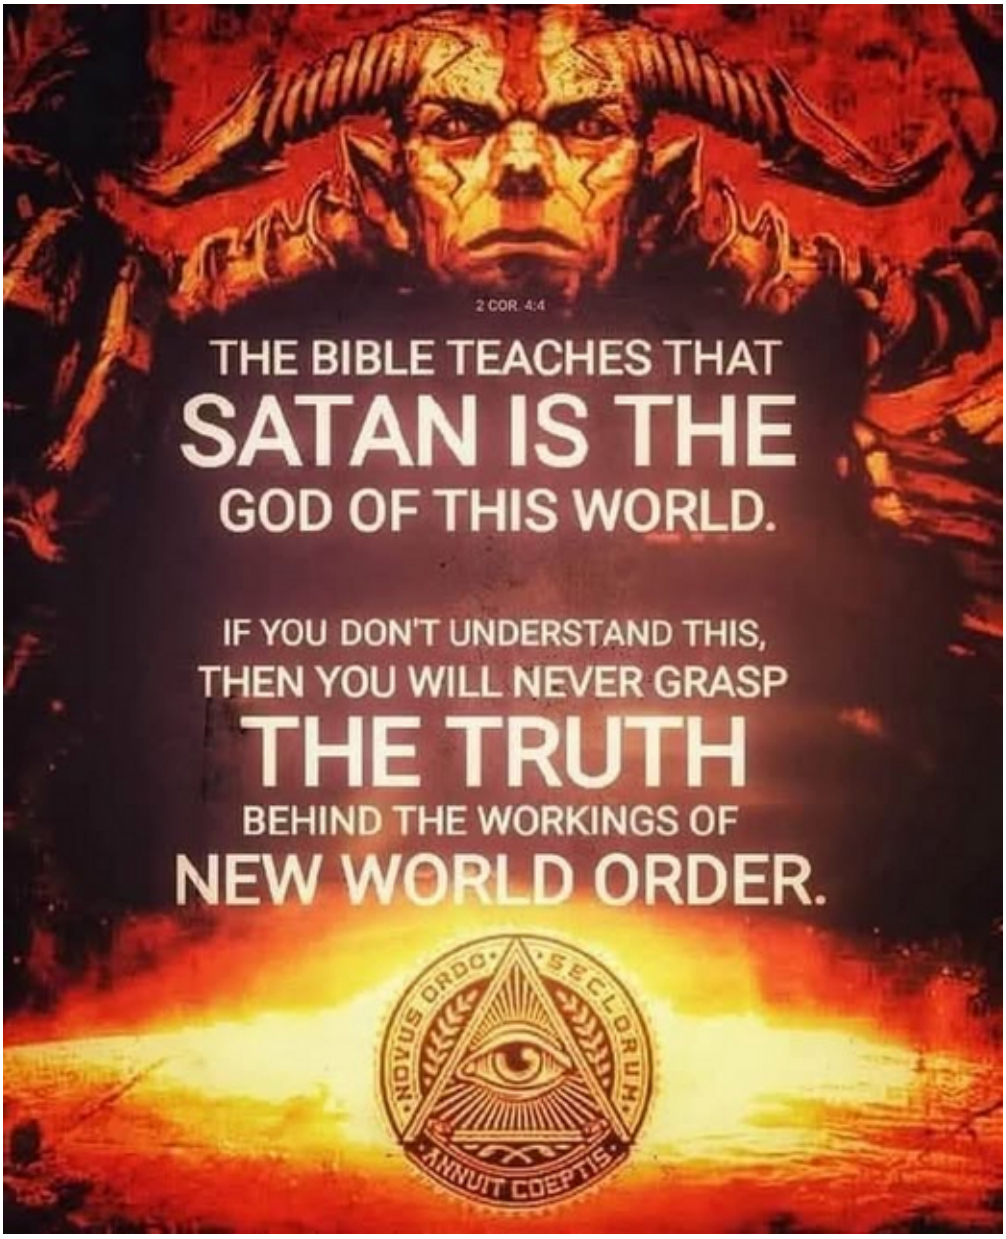
Mr. Trump should be ashamed of himself for abusing the Arab people.

And for that matter, Mr. Trump is NOT a born again believer, which he made clear last year in an interview [4]when he said that you get to Heaven by being "good." The [5]Trump Gaza video released this past week is nothing less than creepy and bizarre. Clearly, Trump, Musk and Netanyahu couldn't care less about the Palestinian refugees. I hope you're not a stupid Zionist as a professed Christian. These people are pulling on the same rope as the Devil. You are woefully in error if you foolishly think that our holy God is a racist who favors Christ-rejecting Jews over Christ-rejecting Arabs. Cyrus I. Scofield (1843-1921) was a puppet of the Zionists, who helped spread the heresy of dispensational theology. I strongly reject all dispensational teaching!

I am thankful that we have a U.S. President today who is getting rid of the DEI (diversity, equality, inclusion) insanity which has perverted our government and society. I love many of Mr. Trump's new policies and Executive Orders. However, I cannot stand behind President Trump concerning Israel. Shame on Mr. Trump for imposing sanctions against the International Criminal Court (ICC) for calling for the arrest and prosecution of Benjamin Netanyahu as a war criminal. Netanyahu is a warmonger! The message from the White House is clear that Arabs can be murdered nowadays with impunity.

President Trump is such a big hypocrite! He hasn't stopped expressing sympathy and empathy for Laken Riley, the 22-year old female young college student in Georgia who was raped and murdered by a punk illegal immigrant. Yet, Mr. Trump has expressed zero sympathy or empathy for over 46,000 murdered Palestinian people by Israel. President Trump is merely using rhetoric for his political advantage. He couldn't care less about Laken Riley, for if he truly cared, then he would care about everyone.

Dr. Jack Hyles (1926-2001) said it well:



> "You can't love anybody, until you love everybody!" —Pastor Jack Hyles, "[6]The Test Of Spiritual Maturity"

President Trump couldn't care less about the Palestinian victims, evidenced by the extremely insensitive video mocking them this past week. That golden image of Trump towering over Gaza is creepy, reminiscent of King Nebuchadnezzar's idolatrous golden image. Time will tell if President Donald Trump is Controlled Opposition, or a true friend of the American people.

In this [8]intriguing interview of Dr. G. Edward Griffin by Alex Jones in 2020, Dr. Griffin expresses concerns that Trump may be Controlled Opposition. I share Dr. Griffin's deep concerns. President Trump could indeed just be another ruse to deceive the American public. Don't forget dear reader that Satan is still the god of this world according to 2nd Corinthians 4:4.

6.2.21 I Am Ashamed On President Trump And J.D. Vance (2025-02-28 17:10)

Proverbs 16:12-13, “It is an abomination to kings to commit wickedness: for the throne is established by righteousness. Righteous lips are the delight of kings; and they love him that speaketh right.”

This is so shameful. President Trump and J.D. Vance shamefully ganged up on President Zelensky today during talks in the Oval Office at the White House. I saw two bullies on their home turf beat a guest down. All Zelensky said to upset them, was to point out that President Putin broke all his previous promises to Ukraine in 2019. Then J.D. Vance threw a tantrum and went off on him like an idiot.

Watch Tense Oval Office Argument Between Zelensky, Trump & Vance

Then Zelensky got angry and said that the United States is going to "feel" what happens down the road, and that made President Trump angry. I watched a bunch of grown men, world leaders, behave as spoiled children on national television today. That is sad. President Zelensky is the one in my humble opinion who behaved more honorably. If I were in President Zelensky’s shoes, I likely would have told Trump and Vance where they could go and walked out the door. I think under the circumstances, after being horribly humiliated by Trump and Vance ambushing him, that Zelensky deserves a Noble Prize.

Today, convicted disgraced felon, former Illinois governor [1]Rod Blagojevich, received a full pardon from Trump. He was justly convicted in 2009 for trying to sell Barack Obama’s empty senate seat for $1,000,000. Today, Blagojevich boasted about how "innocent" he is. What lies! I lived in Illinois when that scumbag became our governor in 2003. He said today that he kept his promise never to raise taxes for Illinois taxpayers. WHAT A LIAR!!! I remember what that LIAR did. He didn't raise taxes directly, instead he started charging taxes on over 200 items that were previously untaxable.

For example: Before he became governor you only paid taxes on the auto parts used to fix your car, but not the service. Blagojevich started charging everyone taxes on service done to your vehicle. So in fact HE DID raises taxes! WHAT A LYING PIECE OF TRASH!!! I hate politicians.

Back to the main issue, either President Trump or J.D. Vance, if they had used a little better tact today, could (and should) have diffused the tense situation today by assuring Zelensky that the Trump White House will make sure the agreements are honored. It is clear that none of them have any respect for Zelensky. Instead, J.D. Vance attacked President Zelensky, belittling him in front of the world. We saw two bullies today on their home turf beating up a guest. What a disgrace! J.D. Vance should have kept his big mouth shut in the first place! Mr. Trump is like a gangster! If you're for Trump he's for you; if you're not, look out! That a mob boss, not a good leader. What Mr. Trump is now doing in Gaza is extremely unethical and disturbing.

This is obviously a heated subject. President Zelensky hasn't taken advantage of us. We voluntarily helped Ukraine. Zelensky has agreed to allow the U.S. to acquire the rights to their natural minerals. As far as I can tell Zelensky has been mostly agreeable. Our country is going to do very well in the end, reaping hundreds of billions of dollars in natural resources from Ukraine (and possibly even Russia).

But that has nothing to do with the issue here. J.D. Vance attacked Zelensky today. It is obvious to me that tensions were already high prior to the meeting. Zelensky didn't say anything to deserve such harsh treatment. I am increasingly starting to see Mr. Trump as a dangerous dictator. He punishes his enemies and rewards his friends. That is not justice. President Trump is creating a regime of fear around him, for anybody who dares to oppose him. What they did today was SHAMEFUL!

I think all three of them as world leaders lacked tact, but President Zelensky has trouble speaking English. They ganged up on him today, which in my humble opinion was very unprofessional and unethical. I was ashamed of my White House today!

I am sick and tired of Donald Trump's BULLYING!

I am so sick of professed Christians worshipping President Trump. When he does good, I praise him; but when I humbly think he does bad, I will speak up as an American citizen and a born-again Christian.

I humbly think that as a decisive leader, President Trump had already decided what he was going to do with Ukraine before President Zelensky's plane even landed in the United States this week. The meeting was a mere formality for show. That would explain why President Trump didn't have enough respect for President Zelensky to allow him adequate time to express his concerns during the meeting. Instead they bullied him. The meeting was an ambush, not a negotiation. The disastrous meeting was no way to handle things. The U.S. Ukrainian ambassador in the room even buried her head down into her hands in shame.

It disgusts me how President Trump has flagrantly abused the Palestinian refugees. It's bad enough that thug Israel murdered over 46,000 innocent people in Gaza. Then Trump punishes the International Criminal Committee (ICC) with sanctions for justly calling for Netanyahu's arrest. Now the monster is laughing in the faces of the victim's families with his Trump Gaza blasphemy. What a horrible thing Mr. Trump has done! To the hurting Palestinian victims, presidents' Trump and Netanyahu are scary monsters!

J.D. Vance started the argument today and I cannot blame President Zelensky for not trusting the negotiation process, in lieu of the fact that Russia broke all their promises to Ukraine in the past. Someone sarcastically said that it's not Trump's job to ensure that President Putin honors his agreements with other nations. Then why is the United States wasting President Zelensky's time? Russia has a proven track record of breaking their agreements, just as Israel does. Why did the Vice President get upset today at the Ukrainian President for simply questioning Russia's integrity in the negotiation process? They unfairly expect Zelensky to just shut up and be grateful, since he has no cards left to deal with. Europe wants nothing to do with Ukraine. The United States is the ONLY reason why Ukraine is still free.

Sadly, I see Ukraine losing out in the long run. Ukraine has a sordid history of being the most corrupt country in Europe. So much so, that the 32 members of NATO refuse to allow Ukraine to join (for protection from Russia). Plus, [2]Zelensky appears online in sissy attire dancing effeminately. No world leader respects him. But all that aside, Ukraine is a sovereign nation. If it weren't for the United States, South Korea wouldn't exist today. My Dad's brother (my uncle) was killed in the Korean War. I humbly think that the meeting today should have been done behind closed doors. The meeting was SHAMEFUL!

I humbly think a big part of the problem is that Zelensky speaks broken English and has difficulty articulating his words, so he sometimes comes across as being brash, but I think his heart was in the right place today. Zelensky simply wants an honest lasting peace agreement that the Ukrainian people can count on. Russia lied and broke all their agreements in 2019 made to Ukraine. Russia did NOT exchange prisoners as they promised in 2019. Russia attacked Ukraine after promising in 2019 never to do so again. J.D. Vance clearly had a chip on his shoulder. It is obvious that the White House's patience has worn thin with President Zelensky. We don't need hotheads in the White House! Proverbs 25:28,

“

He that hath no rule over his own spirit is like a city that is broken down, and without walls.

According to President Zelensky, the United States gave Ukraine $119,000,000,000 for the war against Russia. But President Trump claims we have given Ukraine $350,000,000,000. Who is right? [3]According to USAfacts.org, the U.S. so far has given $113,000,000,000 to Ukraine since Russia invaded in 2022. Mr. Trump is absolutely right that Zelensky has no cards to play. He is a dead duck, Ukraine is broke and their people are desperate.

I agree with most these statements made by commenters on YouTube about our shameful leaders in the United States:

1. ➡ I'm not an American, but I'm embarrassed on behalf of the country for how they treated Zelensky.
2. ➡ Trump would NEVER talk to Putin like this.
3. ➡ Must be a nightmare for Zelensky having to deal with these thugs.
4. ➡ There is no need for enemies when you have friends like America.
5. ➡ Never expected that kind of confrontation on Live TV. This will go down in history for sure.

6. ➡ My respect for Zelensky, has just surged off the charts.

7. ➡ Wow, the decline of the American empire. Congrats Zelensky for standing firm.

8. ➡ This is so painful to watch. Why is JD Vance throwing a tantrum to try to get Zelensky to say thank you? It's embarrassing.

9. ➡ This looks more like an ambush than a negotiation.

10. ➡ Trump and the beard dude are clowns. I don't know how the American people got tricked into putting him in oval office.

11. ➡ Ukrainians voted for a comedian and got a leader. Americans voted for the show host and got a clown.

12. ➡ Why doesn't Trump talk to Netanyahu this way?

13. ➡ Zelensky deserves a Nobel Peace Prize for not slapping the mascara right off JD's face.

14. ➡ Most uncomfortable ever, watching a bully with a vice bully be disrespectful to a visitor, disgraceful and embarrassing- it's a shame to beyond.

15. ➡ Everyone in the USA should be HUGELY embarrassed about Donald Trump and J.D. Vance.

16. ➡ This is insane!!!!! He's literally blaming Zelensky for the war it's like blaming Britain, France and Poland for starting ww2 or America attacking Japan at Pear Harbor.

17. ➡ This was one of the most disgraceful things I've ever seen in politics in the United States.

18. ➡ As an American I am deeply ashamed of our country right now. Sorry Ukraine, close to half of the US population is disgusted by this administration.

19. ➡ President Zelensky was the only leader in the room worthy of the title of "President."

20. ➡ I'm from Sweden. It's absolutely disgusting and shameful that U.S. president and vice president were so disrespectful towards another president of a sovereign country. I can't believe U.S. is sinking so low and so fast.

SHAME on President Trump and Vice President J.D. Vance. You don't treat the President of a sovereign nation like that. Clearly, this was an ambush and not a negotiation. Trump and Vance had already decided what they think about President Zelensky before his plane even landed in the United States. SHAME on our leaders!

6.3 March

6.3.1 God Comforts Those Who Are Cast Down (2025-03-01 12:37)

2nd Corinthians 7:5-7,

“ For, when we were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but we were troubled on every side; without were fightings, within were fears. Nevertheless God, that comforteth those that are cast down, comforted us by the coming of Titus; And not by his coming only, but by the consolation wherewith he was comforted in you, when he told us your earnest desire, your mourning, your fervent mind toward me; so that I rejoiced the more. ”

I read our wonderful text passage of Scripture today from the inspired King James Bible. I had never noticed this passage before. The Bible teaches that God comforts believers when we are cast down (depressed). The Greek word for the phrase “cast down” in this verse is tapeinos , which literally means, “depressed, that is, figuratively, humiliated.”

The Greek word for “

comforteth

is parakaleo , which means,

to call near.

That is, when we are cast down in our mind and feelings, God draws near to us to solace our grieving soul.

Also, one of the ways that our good God comforts us as saints is with another believer (in this case Titus).

2nd Corinthians 7:6b,

“ God, that comforteth those that are cast down,comforted us by the coming of Titus... ”

I love that! This Scripture passage confirms the precious truth God sometimes uses other saints to comfort us in our humiliation and depressed state of soul. The Holy Spirit works through believers. This is the fruit of the Spirit (Galatians 5:22-25).

Don’t Become A ’Dead Sea’ Christian

One of my favorite sermons by Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) is titled, ’[1]FILLED WITH HIS FULNESS.’ In his sermon, Dr. Hyles teaches the biblical truth that God doesn’t give the fruit of the Holy Spirit TO ME; but rather, THROUGH ME to give to you. That is a beautiful truth!

God never intended for us to become DEAD SEA saints. Let me explain. The Jordan River in Palestine flows downward into the Dead Sea, but the Dead Sea has no outlet. That is why the Dead Sea is so, well, dead. The Jordan River is a fast moving river, which makes it very muddy. You might remember the Old Testament story of Naaman the leper, whom the humble prophet Elisha told go bath in the muddy Jordan River seven times to be healed. Naaman was angry and humiliated, preferring to bath in the Damascus River that was clean. The reason why the Jordan River was so filthy is because it flows fast down south into the Dead Sea.

"What makes the Dead Sea dead? Because it is all the time receiving, never giving out anything. Why is it that many Christians are cold? Because they are all the time receiving, never giving out anything." —

Pastor

D.L. Moody

[2]The Dead Sea (997 feet deep) has the highest salt concentration of any body of water in the world (34 %). The Dead Sea is so salty that you can easily float on its surface without even holding your breath. You don't want to become a Dead Sea Christian, where you take in blessings all the time, but never pass on any of those blessings to others. A mature Christian walks in the indwelling Holy Spirit, so that God can love, care and help others THROUGH that believer. That is why we read in Galatians 2:20,

"I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me. " Jesus lives the Christian life through us as born again children of God, by His Holy Spirit (Romans 8:9).

God Comforts His Hurting Children

What a beautiful passage.

2nd Corinthians 7:5-7,

" For, when we were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but we were troubled on every side; without were fightings, within were fears. Nevertheless God, that comforteth those that are cast down, comforted us by the coming of Titus; And not by his coming only, but by the consolation wherewith he was comforted in you, when he told us your earnest desire, your mourning, your fervent mind toward me; so that I rejoiced the more. " The Apostle Paul spoke praises that not only had Titus comforted him and his companions, but the church at Corinth had comforted Titus when he was among them. We need encouragement and comfort in the Lord from each other as Christian believers.

6.3.2 God Can Do Exceedingly Above All That We Ask Or Think (2025-03-02 15:35)

Ephesians 3:14-21, " For this cause I bow my knees unto the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, Of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named, That he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, to be strengthened with might by his Spirit in the inner man; That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith; that ye, being rooted and grounded in love, May be able to comprehend with all saints what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height; And to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that ye might be filled with all the fulness of God. Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us*, Unto him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus throughout all ages, world without end. Amen."

My pastor taught on Ephesians chapter 3 today and I want to share with you some of his wisdom. This is a tremendous passage of inspired Scripture. Keep in mind that the Apostle Paul is incarcerated behind bars in prison while writing this remarkable epistle.

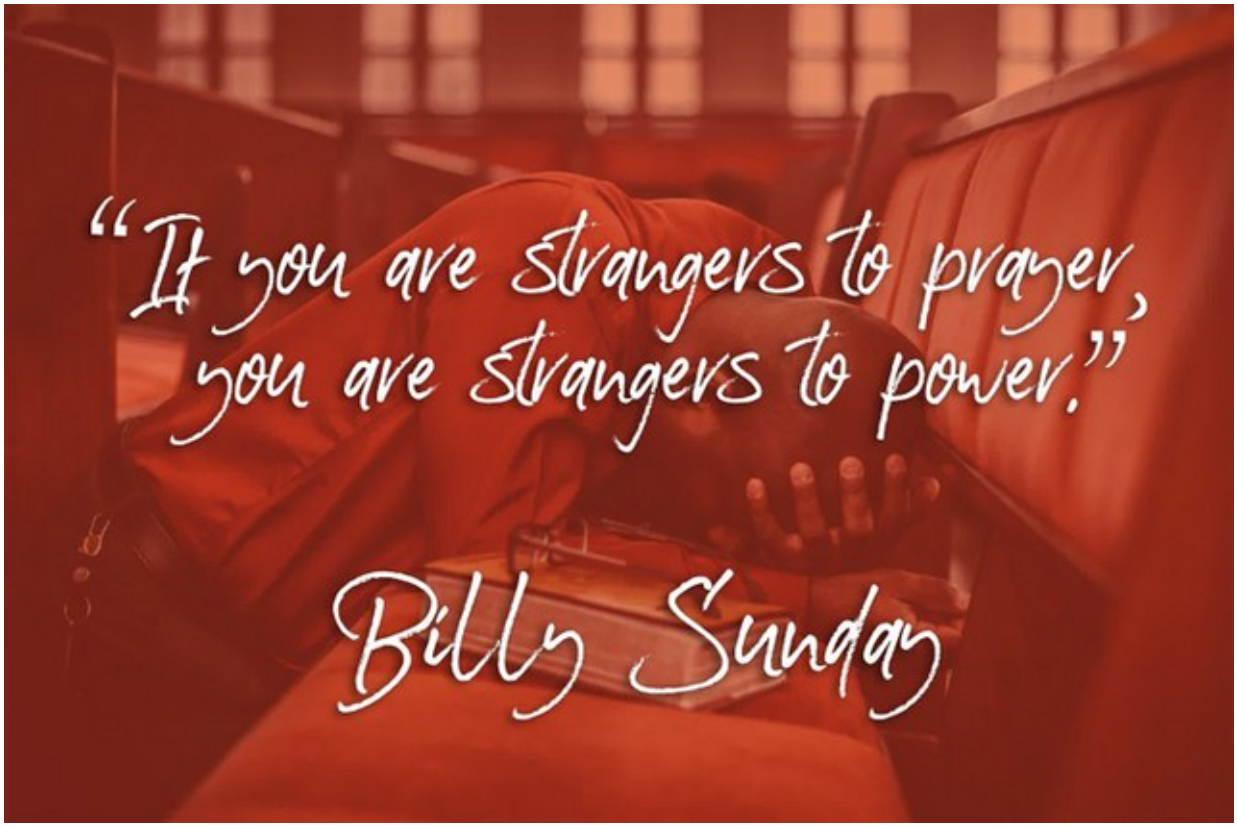
I love verses 14 and 15, which teach that every Christian believer is named after Jesus Christ, of whom the whole FAMILY in Heaven and earth is named. You may be an abandoned orphan here on earth dear friend, but if you are a born again child of God you have a surrogate FAMILY in Heaven and upon earth in the local New Testament church. More than anything else, I love going to church to be around my Christian FAMILY in the Lord.

Verse 16 speaks of being strengthened in might by the Holy Spirit in the INNER MAN. When you attend a funeral and view the deceased body in the casket, that is the outer man, not the inner man. The inner man is the soul and spirit when returned to God at death. Ecclesiastes 12:7, "Then shall the dust return to the earth as it was: and the spirit shall return unto God who gave it." Death is a separation of the soul and spirit from the mortal body.

Verse 17 says that Christ dwells in our hearts BY FAITH. This is not speaking about the new birth, which is also by faith. From beginning to end, the entire Christian life is lived BY FAITH. 2nd Corinthians 5:7, " (For we walk by faith, not by sight:)" Although a seemingly small passage of Scripture, this single Bible verse embodies the entirety of Christianity. We are saved by faith alone without works (Ephesians 2:8-9). And by yielding to the indwelling Holy Spirit by faith, Jesus lives the Christian life through us (Galatians 2:20). We walk by faith, not by sight. If we stop praying because we don't see the results we expected, then we are walking by sight instead of by faith. If we walk by faith, we will continue to pray unconditionally.

Verses 18 and 19 speak of Christ's abiding love, which PASSETH ALL KNOWLEDGE. I love that! So oftentimes in life we cannot understand why things are the way they are, but the love God supersedes all things, so that regardless of what circumstances life may throw at us, we can always be at peace in Christ's love.

I love these next verses. Ephesians 3:20-21, " Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us, Unto him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus throughout all ages, world without end. Amen." What a remarkable Bible verse!!! I have received so many emails from discouraged saints, who tell me that they THINK God has abandoned them. They THINK that God is unfair toward them. They THINK that God doesn't answer their prayers. But this tremendous passage teaches that GOD IS ABLE TO DO EXCEEDINGLY ABOVE ALL THAT WE ASK OR THINK in our prayers. What a beautiful statement from the inspired Word of God!



The inspired Holy Bible teaches that God is able TO DO exceedingly above all that we think. God's omnipotent power is no limited by our finite human imagination. The moment we got saved, God indwelt us with His Holy Spirit. No one has any more of the Holy Spirit than anyone else. But the Holy Spirit may not have as much of us as He wants. It is you and me who limit the Holy One of Israel, and not God who is limited. It is our lack of faith that hinders the power of the Holy Spirit in our ministry.

Put another way, Jesus never turned anyone away empty handed, except those who came full of themselves! If a glass is already full of water, then there is no room for oil. In order to be filled with the Holy Spirit, we must first empty our self of our own selfish ideas, ambitions and thoughts. I want to be as narrow-minded as the King James Bible! The reason why our American society is in such a mess today is simply because people refuse to yield to God's Word. Instead of obeying the inspired Holy Bible, the vast majority of American society reject, blaspheme and ignore God's Word, to their own destruction.

Our great God is able to do EXCEEDINGLY ABOVE all that we ask or think. What an awesome Scripture passage in Ephesians 3:20! I don't know about you dear reader, but that encourages me to pray more. Whether God answers or not in visible ways is not my concern. God knows what is best and I trust Him. I have prayed all my life, and I admit that I haven't seen many answers to prayer. However, God continues to take care of me and bless my ministry labors online since 2002. So, I am not going to place God on trial in my mind, as the heathen world so often sinfully does. I echo the words of Job in Job 13:15, "Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him: but I will maintain mine own ways before him."

6.3.3 We Live In A Society Of Paid Liars (2025-03-03 11:24)

Proverbs 28:22a, "He that hasteth to be rich hath an evil eye..."

I detest greedy people who lie to get money. I was looking for the best home air purifiers today online and found this website at [1]ConsumerTestedReviews. Here is what is reads at the top of their web page...

> Are you looking for an air purifier that's both powerful and energy-efficient? If you answered 'yes' to any of these questions, you've come to the right place. Our team has thoroughly tested the leading home air purifiers available at Amazon, Best Buy, and Walmart to address these common concerns.

Wow, what dirty liars! They're essentially telling you that they will lie to your face, if it is in their best financial interests to do so. Sadly, you'll find this type of unethical dishonest behavior on over 95 % of websites today. Unbelievably, they somehow think that because they are informing you that they are lying to you, for their own financial profit, that makes it okay. Well, it's far from okay, it is WICKEDNESS!!!

Tragically, you just CANNOT trust or rely upon the internet for accurate and trustworthy information about anything. Shady sinners will lie, cheat, connive and steal from you. I have been horribly swindled by Priceline, Alamo Car Rental, Ben Clark's Music Store, Barry Waldrep's 'Banjo.com' Store, Amazon and other dishonest businesses. Once they get your money, that's when you find out that they're dirty thieves!

The first thing that I do now on all webpages that I visit for product reviews is to scroll down to the bottom of the web page, and look for some shady disclaimer where they shamefully admit to lying to manipulate people to get your money. Have they no shame? No, they are so calloused, ungodly and hard-hearted that they have no shame.

Don't even get me started about the paid professional liars at Fox news and CNN. I remember after the 9/11 attacks on the World Trade Center (WTC) in New York City. Bill O'Reilly and Sean Hannity shamefully bullied anyone who dared to question the official 9/11 Narrative from the White House. They demonized former Minnesota governor, Jesse Ventura. Jesse simply asked the $64,000 question: How do TWO planes bring down THREE buildings? The answer is obvious—they cannot! 9/11 was an INSIDE JOB orchestrated by our own White House. The Bush administration are complicity in the 9/11 attacks on the WTC. They had prior knowledge! Fox News more than any other media outlet whitewashed the crimes and coverup of 9/11.

I am so thankful that the omnipotent God of the universe and beyond—our awesome divine Creator—is a good and faithful and honest God. God is fair with mankind. This is exactly what the Bible means in Romans 1:11, " For the scripture saith, Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed." Unlearned preachers misunderstand this passage to mean that we ought not be ashamed of Jesus, but that is not what the Bible is teaching. This passage means that if you place your trust in Jesus as your personal Savior, He will never disappoint you. You can count on Jesus to keep His promise to save them that believe on Him. John 6:47,

"Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life. "

6.3.4 I Support President Trump, But I Don't Trust Him (2025-03-03 19:04)

Revelation 17:10-12, " And there are seven kings: five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, he must continue a short space. And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and goeth into perdition. And the ten horns which thou sawest are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet; but receive power as kings one hour with the beast."

I'm still not confident that President Trump will export millions of illegals. Time will tell. President Biden allowed over 10 million illegals to flood into the country. They're ALL criminals and should ALL be deported! Unfortunately, that will NEVER happen!!!

I am proud of Mr. Trump so far for the things he has achieved, but after having seen nothing but lying criminals, occultists and deceivers in the White House for the past 100 years, I have a difficult time believing that President Trump is going to make any dent in the sinister New World Order. I am confident that when President Trump leaves office, the NWO will be much stronger.

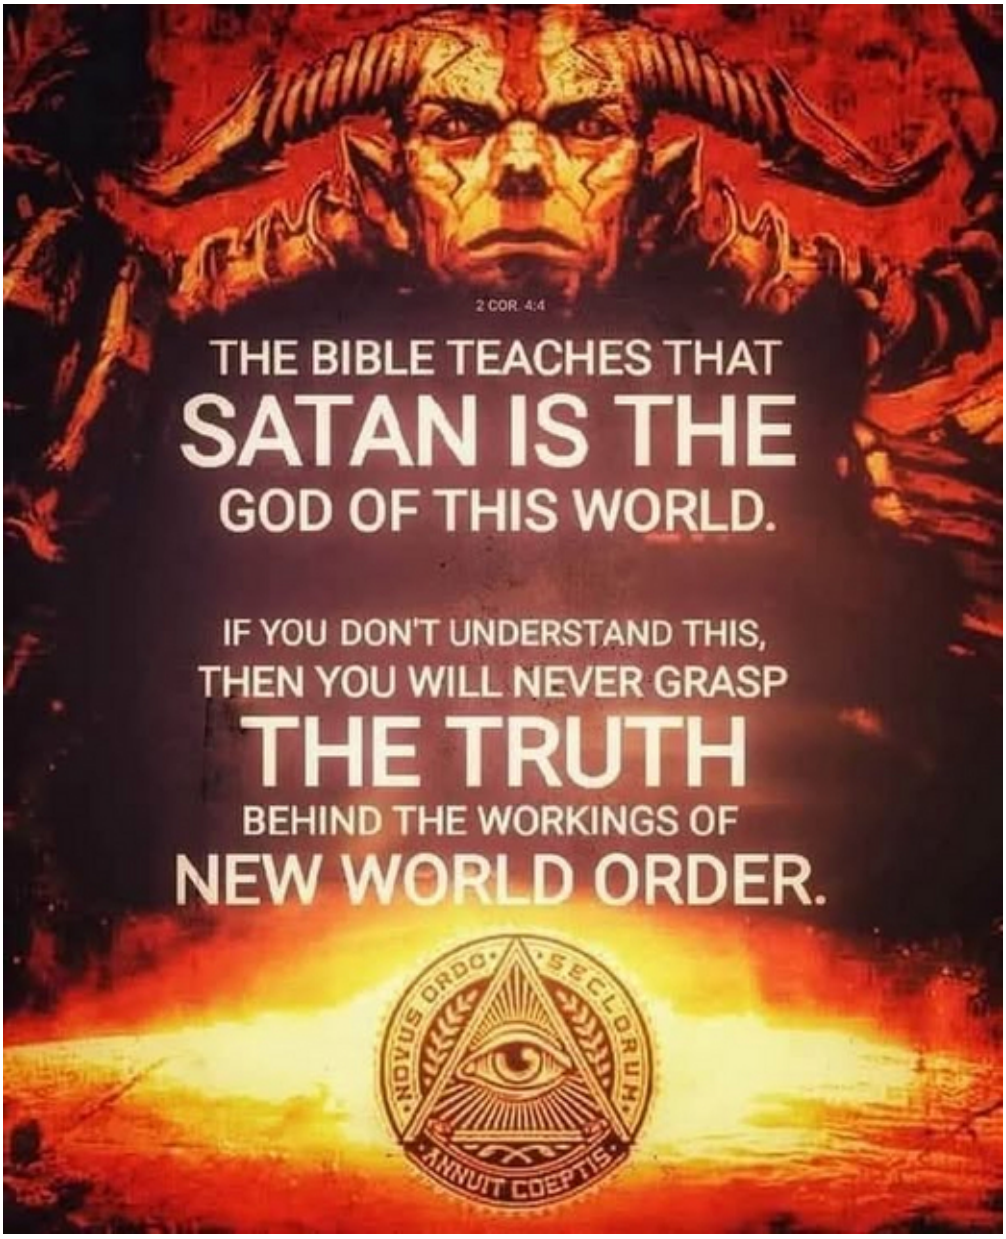
God only knows the incalculable damage that the next Democrat regime will do to our nation. I am concerned that Mr. Trump is just paying down our national debt, so that the next Democrat losers like Biden and Harris can spend even more of our taxpayer money recklessly. The Federal Reserve is still a corrupt institution, which we need to get rid of permanently.

The last time I voted was in 1999 for George W. Bush and I got burned. I sickeningly voted for a warmongering monster who mercilessly murdered 1,455,590 innocent people in Iraq, and murdered 343 firemen on 911, among the 2,997 total victims. As a testimony against our criminally complicit government, I will never vote again until the victims of 911 receive justice! The U.S. Justice Department refuses to investigate or prosecute 911, citing reasons of national security. The Bush administration are ABOVE THE LAW!

I simply don't trust Mr. Trump, because the Satanic powers operating behind the scenes blatantly control our federal government. They blatantly control the news media. The American people are waking up!



Sadly, I am fully convinced that the entire Trump presidency is a ruse to further deceive the American people, which only time will tell. That is what Dr. G. Edward Griffin suspects, and I fully share his suspicions.

Our text passage of Scripture teaches that there have been 6 kings so far, which I believe refers to world powers; namely, Egypt, Assyria, Babylon, Medo-Persia, Greece and Rome. Rome fell in the 5th century AD. The seventh king I believe will be the New World Order (NWO), from which the Man of Sin (Antichrist) will arise. Thus, the NWO will march forward! Whatever positive changes, debt pay down, and permanent improvements that President Trump and his team make to the United States won't stop the coming NWO.

As God's children we have nothing to worry about. Jesus said in John 16:33b, "In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.

" We are already on the winning side, by faith in Jesus.

Romans 8:37, " Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us."

6.3.5 I Planted Some More Flowers Today (2025-03-03 22:28)

I went to Lowe's today and bought some more flower for my front yard. Praise God. I bought 2 Yellow Rose bushes, 2 Red Azalea bushes and 2 blue Diamond Delphinium plants. They are all perennials (i.e., they'll continue to grow every year). The flowers in my shopping cart are the one's that I bought. The other photos I took at Lowe's to share with you. God is so good.

[1]

I wanted to add some pretty colors to my front yard, so people will glorify God when they see the beauty, as I do. Psalms 19:1-3, “

The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament sheweth his handywork.

Day unto day uttereth speech, and night unto night sheweth knowledge. There is no speech nor language, where their voice is not heard.

Pink Azaleas

Romans 1:20-21, “For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse: Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened.” There’s no such thing as an atheist.

Yellow Roses

Most people go through life day by day without ever taking time out to enjoy the splendid things of God’s remarkable creation.

I enjoy feeding an army of birds of all varieties in my back yard. They eat 10 pounds of birdseed in just 4 days. Wowza! I have a few beautiful red cardinals that I love to watch. I only saw hummingbirds once hanging out in my flowers. There are a few awesome owls in the neighborhood, and some amazing woodpeckers that I hear regularly at work. I love God’s handiwork seen all throughout nature!

Blue Diamond Delphiniums

Red Azaleas

This earthly life is so short and will be over before we know it. Lord willing, I will turn 58 years old on March 5th, 2025 in just two days. I cannot believe how fast my life has gone! I was just randomly looking at the early age that many famous people have died. [6]Here is a list of 434 famous people who died at only age 42. That is disturbing! If you have ever walked through a graveyard, which I have numerous times, then you've noticed an alarming number of people who died at a young age. Life is so fragile and unpredictable. I feel blessed by God to have had the opportunity and privilege to make it to age 57. One day at a time.

Very few people care to think about death until it happens. I am prepared to die and meet my Creator. I became prepared at age 13 when I [7]became a born again child of God, by faith in Jesus Christ. John 6:47, “Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.

I have eternal life because Jesus is eternal life and I have Jesus in me.

1st John 5:20, “And we know that the Son of God is come, and hath given us an understanding, that we may know him that is true, and we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life.”

And, although imperfect and a struggling sinner (Romans 7:14-25), God knows that I have labored day and night online since 2002 to preach the truth to help people for Christ. It’s hard to believe that my [8]Jesus-is-Savior.com ministry will be 23 years old in April of this year. I thank God and give Him ALL the credit and praise, for without Jesus we can do nothing. We are the branches, Jesus is the vine (John 15:1-5). It is so wonderful to be a Christian.

Psalms 103:15, “ As for man, his days are as grass: as a flower of the field, so he flourisheth. ”

6.3.6 You Cannot Stop The Book (2025-03-04 10:38)

Matthew 5:18, “ For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled.”

Someone recently sent me an email and asked, “H ow can we stop the New World Order?

”.

I kindly replied that we cannot stop the New World Order! The inspired King James Bible makes it very plain that there will be an Antichrist system (aka, New World Order). We read in the last inspired book of the Holy Bible...

Revelation 13:11-18,

"And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon.

And he exerciseth all the power of the first beast before him, and causeth the earth and them which dwell therein to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed.

And he doeth great wonders, so that he maketh fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men,

And deceiveth them that dwell on the earth by the means of those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast; saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, which had the wound by a sword, and did live.

And he had power to give life unto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast should be killed.

And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads:

And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name.

Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man; and his number is Six hundred threescore and six."

That is the New World Order dear reader! You Cannot Stop The Book!

We further read in the inspired Holy Bible...

Revelation 17:10-12, "And there are seven kings: five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, he must continue a short space. And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and goeth into perdition. And the ten horns which thou sawest are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet; but receive power as kings one hour with the beast."

The "five" kinds (I humbly believe) were the world powers of Egypt, Assyria, Babylon, Medo-Persia and Greece. The " sixth

was Rome. Historically, these nations ruled the world at their respective times in human civilization. The "seventh" king will be the New World Order, which which the Bible teaches the "eight" (Antichrist) will arise. At present, there are several super powers in the world (e.g., Russia, China, United States and India), but there is no one world power (no one nation) that controls the entire planet. When the New World Order is complete (and it is obviously forming before our very eyes today), the Man of Sin will rise to power and will rule the world.

You Cannot Stop The Book!

Slowly but surely we are headed toward a Cashless Society, which is what we read about in Revelation 13:15-18. Already, I make 95 % of my financial transactions electronically. We really don't need hard currency anymore. With the incredible intriguing advances in Artificial Intelligence (A.I.) technology, we've just seen the beginning of what lies ahead for the world.

You Cannot Stop The Book!

There WILL BE a New World Order! The Bible teaches in 2nd Corinthians 11:13-15 that Satan is an imitator,

" which is what the Greek word for transformed means in the following passage of Scripture:

> 2nd Corinthians 11:13-15, "For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ. And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works."

The world is fill of deadly lying False Prophets; namely, Joel Osteen, Billy and Franklin Graham, Rick Warren, Ray Comfort, Todd Friel, Paul Washer, John MacArthur, Marty Herron, Jeff Redlin, Sam Horn, Steve Pettit, Beth Moore, Joyce Meyer, Steven Furtick, Ken Ham, John Hagee, Paula White, Charles Stanley, James Dobson and countless more damnable false teachers who are wrong on God's simple plan of salvation!

You Cannot Stop The Book!

All of the aforementioned toxic preachers pervert the Gospel of free grace—adding turning from your sins, following Jesus as 'Lord' of your life, living a lifestyle of repentance, becoming a Christ follower, faithfully running the Christian race, surrendering control of your life over to God and other nonsense—to get to Heaven. In sharp contrast, when the Philippian jailer asked Paul and Silas what he must do to be saved, they said in Acts 16:31b,

"Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved..." Nothing more was required. If you believe that Jesus died on the cross to pay for your sins, and that He was buried, but then resurrected bodily from the dead three days later—and you receive that GOOD NEWS as full-payment for your sins and your only way to Heaven—then you are saved (1st Corinthians 15:1-8).

Matthew 5:18, " For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled." I am not a betting man, but if I were, I would not be so foolish as to bet against the inspired Holy Bible!

I hear fools sometimes challenge God in their sinful talk. For example: Atheist actor Robert DeNiro blasphemed God [1]when he said:

If there is a God he has a lot to answer for.

” Well, we’ll see about that Mr. DeNiro, won’t we? God has nothing to answer for, we do! Romans 9:20, “Nay but, O man, who art thou that repliest against God? Shall the thing formed say to him that formed it, Why hast thou made me thus?” No human being has the right to place God on trial. We are the creatures, God is the Creator. And may I say, our Creator is a very good and fair God. The Lord is not to blame for the mess this world is in; humans are to blame because of our own sins. Sin always undermines any nation! Isaiah 64:8,

“

But now, O LORD, thou art our father; we are the clay, and thou our potter; and we all are the work of thy hand.

” You Cannot Stop The Book!

So, be at peace dear reader, if your faith is in Jesus Christ alone as your Savior. We are already on the winning side in Christ Jesus! Now, I said earlier that there is nothing that we can do to stop the New World Order. We CAN fight against communism and tyranny and we should, but ultimately the Beast system of the coming Antichrist will succeed. However, at the end of the future 7-year Tribulation period, Jesus Christ Himself will return. In Bible theology we call this THE SECOND COMING OF CHRIST. The Battle of Armageddon will be fought between the forces of Satan and God, and Jesus will put down and defeat Satan (the Dragon), the Antichrist (the Beast) and the False Prophet. So, in the end the New World Order will fail. But it will be the Lord Jesus Christ Himself who defeats Satan and his minions.

You Cannot Stop The Book!

Jesus gave us this wonderful exhortation in John 16:33, “

These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.

” While the heathen around us toil in worry and fear and love of wickedness, our dear Savior encourages us as God’s saints to knowing that through faith in Jesus we have already won the war.

1st John 5:4, “ For whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith. ” Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do.

I encourage you to listen to this edifying sermon by Pastor Lester Roloff (1914-1982) titled: ’[2]THE BOOK THAT MAKES THE DIFFERENCE.’

6.3.7 We Need More Respect For The Lord Today (2025-03-05 15:23)

Proverbs 19:23, "The fear of the LORD tendeth to life: and he that hath it shall abide satisfied; he shall not be visited with evil."

I have heard umpteen foolish preachers falsely teach that "the fear of the Lord" doesn't literally mean to be afraid of God. Any pastor who says something that ignorant shouldn't be in the clergy! The inspired Holy Bible means exactly what it says. Only a fool doesn't fear God!

I was watching an episode of Modern Marvels today on YouTube about ice-cream. I remembered that I have some BLUE BELL vanilla ice-cream in my freezer and I am eating some now...lol. I love ice-cream! You scream, I scream, we all scream for ice-cream!!!

As I watched about ice-cream on Modern Marvels, the narrator talked about an ice-cram shop in Evanston, Illinois, where the famous "S desert was first invented in 1881. I was amazed by what he said. The narrator said the business owner wanted to draw more customers on Sunday's after church, so he invented his famous Sundae desert. But out of respect for the Lord, the owner changed the spelling of

undae

Sunday

“

I thought that was beautiful, back when people in American society still respected and feared a holy God.

It’s my 58th birthday today, amen! I thank God for the gift of life. I have had some close calls with death throughout my life, so I am very grateful to still be here. When I woke up today I thanked God for another day and another year of life. I went outside and water blasted my deep fryer which was caked up with oil after a year of use.

To celebrate my birthday, I just took two small containers of BLUE BELL vanilla ice-cream out of my freezer. I poured Smucker’s MAGIC SHELL chocolate on top, which hardens when it contacts the very cold ice-cream. Then I sprinkled plenty of cinnamon over the top (I bought a big 16 ounce container of cinnamon). Then I put a dozen Maraschino cherries over my Sundae. And then I topped it off with a delectable layer of crushed nuts. Heaven came down!!!

They were also talking about Soft Serve at Dairy Queen in the episode of Modern Marvels. Dairy Queen has been serving Soft Serve since the 1940’s. So, you know where I’m headed soon, Lord willing! Yummy in my tummy. God is so good to all of us!

There is little fear of God left in American society today, evidenced by the epidemic of crime and homelessness across the country. Psalms 36:1, “The transgression of the wicked saith within my heart, that there is no fear of God before his eyes.”

People just don’t care about their neighbours anymore. Our incompetent U.S. federal and state governments don’t care about the homeless. The politicians speak a bunch of rhetoric and spend hundreds of billions of dollars, but the money never gets to the poor people and homelessness just gets worse and worse! I’ve never seen so many panhandlers at every major intersection in Pensacola! What a crying shame and horrible testimony upon our leaders and culture today!

Meanwhile, NASA, Hollywood, professional sports, the travel industry and every other facet of our American culture today continues to spend trillions of dollars annually, but couldn’t care less about society’s problems. President Donald Trump cannot Make America Great Again by himself, with our entire spoiled rotten ungodly society working against him. Sadly, the vast majority of the American people are spoiled brats who make all of their political decisions based upon what works best for themselves and their own families. I haven’t heard President Trump speak a single word about helping the homeless to find rehabilitation, jobs and ultimately, housing. Those people surviving on the streets need to be FORCED into rehab.

No one has a right to become a public nuisance!

I’m telling you dear reader, and I hope I am wrong, but knowing what I know about the ungodly Federal Reserve Ponzi Scheme, I humbly think that the homelessness problem is just getting started across the United States. I see food prices continuing upward. Someday our American culture may become like the sordid dystopian 1973 science-fiction movie, “Soylent Green,” staring Charlton Heston, Leigh Taylor-Young and Edward G. Robinson (in his final film role). In the film strawberry preserves cost $500 a jar! A head of lettuce was almost unheard of, so rare. Beef? Forget it! Seeing pretty flowers were a thing of the past. I was shocked the other day that ribeye steak now costs $19 a pound at Walmart. A cartoon of eggs costs $10. Unbelievable! I've been eating chicken thighs and pork chops instead. I paid $5.75 for a large package of pork chops. I wouldn't expect food prices to drop any time soon.

A couple months ago I stopped by Burger King. Just a Whopper meal cost me $12. I haven't been back. The same goes for McDonald's. I'm not paying $11 for a Big Mack Meal! I remember back in the 1980's often buying McDonald's 2 Big Macs for $2 special. Now it's 2 Big Macs for a $15 ripoff! No thanks, I'll eat at home. For my birthday, I'm making homemade French Fries this afternoon from cut up Russet potatoes, and a homemade cheeseburger on my barbeque! Soylent Green! Just kidding. " was food made from ground up humans in the movie...lol. This time I used hamburger from cows!

Soylent Green

I cannot speak for others, but I definitely fear God. I have to give account to God in eternity for my life—my deeds, words and thoughts (Romans 14:10-12; Ecclesiastes 12:14; Matthew 12:36; Proverbs 24:12). I already have enough to answer to God for at the Judgment Seat of Christ, I don't want to add to the list (2nd Corinthians 5:10). Every human being ought to fear our Creator, if we live in rebellion against Him. If we have trusted in God's only begotten Son Jesus Christ, and we are living for the Lord to please our heavenly Father, then we need not live in fear of judgment. Hebrews 10:31, "It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God." God only expects that we do our best with His help (Galatians 2:20).

Back in the early 1900's, it was a common practice for store owners to pull down their front window shades, to prevent people from window-shopping on Sundays instead of going to the Lord's house at a local church. People respected the Lord back then! Today, businesses don't even think twice about opening on Sundays. It is standard practice for churches to either cancel or reschedule their Sunday evening service to accommodate the annual Super Bowl game. This is America today, where God is made to sit in the back of the bus.

Our good God deserves so much better from all of us! I cringe every time I hear some wicked Hollywood actor taking God's name in vain, blaspheming the precious name of Jesus. Woe unto the wicked on Judgment Day. Deuteronomy 5:11, "Thou shalt not take the name of the LORD thy God in vain: for the LORD will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain." Jesus Christ's middle name is not " fu _king.

" Nor is it the initial

H.

" Woe unto the ungodly who blaspheme the holy name of the Messiah who died on a cross to pay for THEIR SINS! Can you imagine their shock and total horror in eternity, when God the Father requires them to give account for blaspheming the precious name of Jesus? It won't be a pretty sight!

Proverbs 19:23, "The fear of the LORD tendeth to life: and he that hath it shall abide satisfied; he shall not be visited with evil." May we all purpose in our souls to fear, honor and respect God, who is our omnipotent loving Creator. There are 10,080 minutes in one week, have you thanked God with just one of them? Jesus is precious!

Thank you friend for reading my blog.

6.3.8 'The Strand Study Bible' Is Superb (2025-03-07 16:39)

I took my vehicle (a Honda 2013 FIT) in yesterday for service. The dealership charged me $416.76 to change the engine oil and service the transmission (replace the fluid). I'm not sure if they ripped me off or not. They charged me $67.97 for the oil change ($32.36 for labor, $23.40 for OW20 FS oil, $11.64 for an oil filter and 57 cents for a 14mm drain washer). I think I'm going to look for a reliable local repair shop. Dealerships are always more expensive.

For the transmission service they charged me $290.63 [$161.50 labor, $122.94 for 9 (I think quarts) of transmission fluid at $13.66 each, and $6.19 for a 18mm drain washer]. Then they charged me $29.08 for, "Miscellaneous Shop Supplies." And finally they charged me another $29.08 for sales taxes. That all adds up to $416.76. Yikes! I'm just glad that the service is done and I don't need to be concerned about it. My front driver's side tire has been losing air for several months. I just keep filling it (about 10 psi per week) but they couldn't find a leak yesterday. So I need to go elsewhere.

Anyway, while waiting I read my cherished, "The Strand Study Bible," in the dealership waiting room and had a great time learning. Brother Strand was one of my favorite Bible professors at Hyles-Anderson College in the late 1980's. He was already laboring on his study Bible back then, which ultimately took him 33 years to complete (with 30,000 hours invested). Brother Strand has been a faithful Baptist pastor in Texas for many years now. The Strand Study Bible [1]costs about $119 on Amazon, but you my fine non-feathered friend [2]can read it ALL FOR FREE online.

I was reading from Genesis yesterday, in which [3]Pastor Strand does an excellent job explaining the FIVE different theories of creation. Brother Strand believes in an old earth, as I do too.

Also, check out his comments for Isaiah 65:17 on creation. Pastor Strand is sadly right that most churchgoers merely go along with whatever someone else teaches them about young earth creation, without ever doing their own study to find the truth of an old earth. I guarantee you that 99 % of people who follow the young earth fallacy are followers of Ken Ham, Kent Hovind, Henry Morris III or some other false teacher. Case in point is the shameful cult at Pensacola Christian College (PCC), who mindlessly follow unsaved infidel Ken Ham (who [4]preaches the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation).

As Brother Strand points out in Isaiah 65:17 and Exodus 20:11, the Bible says that God "made" heaven and earth in 6 days, it doesn't say He created it. Exodus 20:11, "For in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the LORD blessed the sabbath day, and hallowed it." The particular Hebrew word used here for "made" is asah (pronounced aw-saw) which means " to do or make, in the broadest sense.

I commend Pastor Strand for an excellent job done explaining the different views on creation. I humbly agree with him on an old earth.

I also learned yesterday from Pastor Strand that [5]The Great Pyramid of Giza and The Great Sphinx were built BEFORE Noah's flood. Both of these mysterious architectural wonders show irrefutable signs of water wear, and that at one time they were completely submersed under water. AMAZING!!! Ken Ham gets this WRONG, claiming that these monuments were build after the flood. They were built BEFORE the flood, as Brother Strand teaches in his study Bible.

I cannot encourage you enough, if you desire to greatly learn fascinating truths from the inspired Holy Bible, to read: '[6]The Strand Study Bible.'

I also learned yesterday a great truth from Genesis 3:10. Even after Adam sewed fig leaves together to cover his nudity, Adam told God that he was hiding because he was still "naked." Adam recognized that his fig leaves were insufficient to cloth his nakedness for the sin he had done.

In Genesis 3:12, Adam blamed Eve, Eve blamed the serpent, but the serpent had no one to blame. Brother Strand says the closer that you get to the truth, the less excuses you have. Satan walks in the very presence of God (Job 1), so he has no room for excuses.

I also learned yesterday from Pastor Strand's book that there is no such thing as "cold." Cold is just a word we use to describe how we feel in the absence of heat. There is a limit to cold, which is -459.6 degrees Fahrenheit, but there is no limit to heat. Scientists tell us that the center of the sun is millions of degrees hot. There is no high limit to how hot something can get, but there is a limit to how cold it can get.

Likewise, darkness doesn't exist. Dark is not the opposite of light, but rather the absence of light. Light is visible darkness! And finally, there is no such thing as evil, but rather, evil is the absence of good. God is good. So, evil is the result of doing anything without God. These are philosophical truths which are very intriguing and fascinating. I enjoy reading The Strand Study Bible and I think some of you will too. Hey, it's free online!

On my way home yesterday, I went to Chipotle's restaurant for the very first time. Yummy! I bought their big burrito with black beans, mozzarella cheese, lettuce, tomato salsa, white sauce, et cetera). Wow, it was delicious! I don't consider Chipotle an authentic Mexican dinning experience, to be sure, but the food is pretty good, I humbly think. I saw the owner of Chipotle being interview on NBC news the other day and decided to go try it out. I was not disappointed, but the service could have been better, they messed up my order at first. I also got their Chips & Salsa and Chips & Guacamole sides, with an Organic Lemonade. I really enjoyed it! Thank you Lord.

6.3.9 The Beautiful Gospel Of Free Grace (2025-03-10 12:58)

1st Corinthians 15:1, 3-4, "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel... how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures."

Someone has accused fundamental Baptists like myself of preaching a Gospel of "cheap grace." Why my friend, it is not only "cheap," God's grace is completely "free"! Salvation is entirely the free gift of God, because Jesus Christ paid for it with His own precious blood. 1st Peter 1:18-19, "Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers; But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot." The price for our redemption was Jesus' precious blood.

What exactly is the Gospel? The word "Gospel" means "Good News" or "Glad Tidings." There is no need to guess what the "Gospel" is because the Bible plainly tells us. The "Gospel" is the GOOD NEWS of Christ's DEATH on the cross for our sins, His BURIAL and bodily RESURRECTION three days later. The BAD NEWS is that we were all born into the world as sinners, and unless a person believes (relies upon) the GOOD NEWS they will die in their sins, perishing into Hell forever and ever without hope. That is what the Bible teaches. John 3:36, "He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him." God's holy wrath abides upon all Christ-rejecters! Romans 5:8-9, "But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him."

To simplify, "THE GOSPEL" is: Christ DIED on the cross for our sins. He was BURIED. Jesus physically RESURRECTED from the dead after three days.

If you simply believe (solely trust) the GOOD NEWS (Gospel) that Jesus is the only begotten Son of God, the risen Christ, Who became the sacrifice for YOUR SINS on the cross, paying your sin debt so that you could obtain the free gift of forgiveness of sins and eternal life, then you are saved...

> 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures."

We are saved by BELIEVING (placing our confidence) in "the Gospel," which is the power of God unto salvation. Romans 1:16, "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek." John 6:28-29, "Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent." It is that simple to be saved. If you admit that you are a needy sinner in God's sight, and you receive Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, believing that He was buried and bodily resurrected three days later—YOU ARE IMMEDIATELY, SECURELY AND FOREVER SAVED!!! Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through [1]receiving Him by faith .

> "Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do!" —Pastor Jack Hyles, a quote from the MP3 sermon titled: "[2]God's Reversal Of Psalm 51"

Salvation is Completely Free to Anyone Who Wants It

If you stop reading right here, there is nothing else that you need to know to be saved, but if you'd like to know more, please hear me out. Here is a great quote from Dr. Harry Ironside (1876-1951)...

> "THE Gospel needs only to be preached in the power of the Holy Spirit to hold its own against every imitation and substitute that the mind of the natural man energized by Satan can devise." —Pastor Harry Ironside, from his sermon, "[3]ANOTHER GOSPEL"

Religion wants to fit us with glasses, but the Lord wants to open our eyes! Thank God for the truth of His precious Word, which is a lamp unto our feet. Psalm 119:105, "Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path." America's churches influence the world, so if Satan can corrupt our churches here at home, then he can corrupt the world. The United States sends out more missionaries than any other nation. Sadly, there is MUCH heresy and false teaching circulating on the radio, internet, television and in our churches nowadays concerning what a person must do to be saved. One of my favorite MP3 sermons on salvation is by Pastor Jack Hyles, called: " [4]Fundamentalist Heresy! "

One of the most ungodly false prophets of our time is [5]Pastor John MacArthur of Grace To You ministry in California, who complicates The Gospel, foolishly stating in his book, "HARD TO BELIEVE":

> "Don't believe anyone who says it's easy to become a Christian. Salvation for sinners cost God His own Son; it cost God's Son His life, and it'll cost you the same thing." [emphasis added]
>
> SOURCE: [6]Dr. John MacArthur, Grace To You, an updated quote from his book 'Hard To Believe', p. 93

PASTOR MACARTHUR LIES!!! Getting saved won't cost you ANYTHING! Salvation did cost God His only begotten Son, and it did cost Jesus His life, which is exactly why it WON'T COST YOU! I can't even believe that Mr. MacArthur is teaching this trash! What saith the Scripture? Acts 8:20a, "But Peter said unto him, Thy money perish with thee, because thou hast thought that the gift of God may be purchased..." John MacArthur is of the Devil! Shame on any preacher who says that salvation will COST YOU! Read the plain statements of the Word of God for yourself...

> Romans 3:23-26, "For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God; Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus: Whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God; To declare, I say, at this time his righteousness: that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus."

We are saved BY FAITH alone. It'll cost you NOTHING! Repeatedly in the Bible we read the words "FREE" and "GIFT." Romans 3:24 says we are FREELY JUSTIFIED BY HIS GRACE!!! What part of that doesn't John MacArthur understand? A gift cannot cost the recipient anything, in order to remain "a gift." Eternal life won't cost you anything!!! MacArthur spits on God's grace by teaching that IT'LL COST YOU! No, it cost Jesus His life, body and blood! The Devil sure is subtle. Kindly, get it through your head dear reader—JESUS PAID IT ALL!!!

I attended the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam for one year in 2014, where they shamefully honored, promoted and exalted John MacArthur. When I tried to warn their Senior Pastor about [7]MacArthur's false teachings , he drove me out of the church instead. As I just quoted to you from Mr. MacArthur himself, he does not believe it is easy to be saved; but rather, he says IT WILL COST YOU EVERYTHING!!! Who are you going to believe—John MacArthur who says it is not easy to be saved, or "the simplicity that is in Christ" (2nd Corinthians 11:3b) ? Kindly, Mr. MacArthur is a theological liar! My friend, it is so easy, free and simple to be saved, that all God requires of you to be saved, is to [8]BELIEVE THE GOOD NEWS of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen!

Sincerely, I love the people at Harvest Baptist Church, God knows, but they are blinded fools following fools!!! They use, sell and promote the Devil's counterfeit Bible versions (as does Bob Jones University, [9]cult headquarters), they love John MacArthur's Calvinism (aka, Lordship Salvation). Humbly, I came along (since 2014) as the best friend their church has ever had, trying to HELP THEM SEE, but they berated me and drove me out of their church instead. Respectfully, SHAME ON HARVEST'S LEADERS!!! The Lord rebuke thee! Romans 3:4, "God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged." Psalm 118:6, "The LORD is on my side; I will not fear: what can man do unto me?" Proverb 12:17, "He that speaketh truth sheweth forth righteousness: but a false witness deceit."

Jesus Doesn't Forgive Sins

Did you know that Jesus DOESN'T FORGIVE SIN? You read right! Jesus doesn't forgive anyone's sins. That is because Jesus has ALREADY PAID FOR OUR SINS! The sins of the whole world have already been PAID FOR by Jesus' precious blood. Hence, Jesus is called "THE SAVIOUR OF ALL MEN," and "SPECIALLY OF THOSE THAT BELIEVE." 1st Timothy 4:9-11, "This is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptation. For therefore we both labour and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe. These things command and teach." Jesus is the Savior of ALL MEN, meaning that He died on the cross to pay for everyone's sins!!! That is why the Lord doesn't need to forgive anyone's sins, because they are already paid for; but what YOU DO NEED TO DO IS TO BELIEVE!

Anyone who believes the 'GOOD NEWS' receives Jesus' sacrifice on the cross as payment for their sins. It is simply a matter of childlike faith in the Savior. I learned that beautiful truth about Jesus not forgiving sins from [13]Pastor Bob Gray Sr. , and I never forgot it! All you need to do is BELIEVE on the name of Jesus Christ, trusting that He died on the cross to pay for your sins and resurrected three days later, to receive God's free gift of forgiveness of sins. It is a free gift because it is already paid for, so you don't have to ask for it, nor does Jesus have to forgive you. Since it is already paid for, it is a gift, which you can FREELY accept by faith. Just believe oh sinner, and forgiveness of sins and eternal life are yours!!! John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life."

Another one of my favorite preachers, Pastor Ralph “Yankee” Arnold makes this helpful statement:

> "That payment that Christ made, He put it to your account... Do you realize the opportunity that God has given to us, to be able to “GO INTO ALL THE WORLD.” And the thing that bothers people, is this thing about sin, because of the guilt that it brings, and all the wickedness that it brings; and you and I are the ONLY hope the people in this world—God has left us here and we are their only hope, if we don’t explain the Gospel and make it clear!"

1st Thessalonians 4:14, “For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.” It’s that simple to be saved... “For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again...”

> “How sweet are thy words unto my taste! yea, > sweeter than honey to my mouth!” —Psalms 119:103
>

What About Repentance and Salvation?

In the Gospel of John in the inspired King James Bible, the word “believe” is mentioned 87 times, but the word “repent” is not mentioned even once. Clearly, the person who BELIEVES has also repented. This is not difficult to understand, when you learn the truth that the Greek meaning of “repent” in the Bible to be saved is [15]metanoia , which is simply “a change of mind.” Repentance is a change of mind unto the Gospel itself. All that is required to be saved is to acknowledge that one is a guilty sinner in the sight of a holy God, placing one’s faith in the death, burial and resurrection of the Lord Jesus Christ. [16]LAW and GRACE!

We learn in the Bible that God gave His law to humanity, to show us our sinnership. Romans 3:19, “Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God.” The law of God shows us that we are guilty sinners in God’s sight (see also Galatians 3:24-26). We are woeful sinners, deserving of death and punishment in the Lake of Fire (i.e., Hell). This is the BAD NEWS! No one ever got saved who didn’t admit to being a sinner in God’s eyes. 1st John 1:7, “If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us." To be saved, you MUST realize that you are a guilty sinner for breaking God's commandments. We are all horrible sinners! We've all lied! We've all coveted! We've all sinned! Romans 3:23, "For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God." This is the BAD NEWS!!!

Repentance is simply the admission that I am as guilty a sinner, as God has declared me to be in His Word. Let me make it very simple—YOU ARE A GUILTY SINNER IN GOD'S SIGHT, and unless you accept Christ's sacrifice on the cross as full-payment for your sins, you will spend eternity burning in the fires of Hell.

> "More people will die and burn in Hell, because they're trusting too much!"
>
> —Pastor Jack Hyles, a precious quote from the MP3 sermon, " [17]Yea, Yea, And Nay, Nay! "

What Repentance is Not!

Repentance is NOT turning away from sinful behavior, not reformation, not a desire to clean up one's life of sin, not forsaking the world, not turning over a new leaf, not a willingness to turn away from sin, not a change of heart toward sinful bad habits, not a change of life, et cetera. As we have already learned from examining the Greek word, metanoia, repentance is simply a change of mind. Acts 20:21, speaks of "repentance toward God." Repentance is toward God by faith in the Gospel, evidenced by the hundreds of New Testament Scriptures that simply tell us to BELIEVE to be saved. For example: 1st Corinthians 1:21, "For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching TO SAVE THEM THAT BELIEVE."

Also, please notice that the entire purpose for which the Epistle of 1st John was written, is so that "ye may know that ye have eternal life" (1st John 5:13). Yet, carefully notice that the apostle John doesn't mention the word "repent" even once in all of 1st John. THAT SPEAKS VOLUMES!!! If turning away from sinful behavior was required to be saved, then no doubt John would have made a big deal of it in his Epistle. And remember, "all Scripture is given by inspiration of God" (2nd Timothy 3:16a). That means every word in the holy Bible came from almighty God!!!!!!!

Repentance is necessary for salvation, but it doesn't mean what many corrupt preachers are saying. False prophets on repentance include: John MacArthur, Billy Graham, Ray Comfort, Aiden Tozer, Jack Chick, William Lane Craig, Joseph Prince, David Cloud, Kirk Cameron, Mormons, Jehovah's Witnesses, Ellen G. White, Seventh-day Adventists, John Piper, Chip Ingram, Charles Lawson, Joel Osteen, Rick Warren, Beth Moore, Charles Stanley, John Hagee, James Dobson and Franklin Graham, to name a few. Without repentance, no man would ever come to the light of the Gospel to be saved (John 3:20; 2nd Corinthians 4:3-4). It is not the act of sin itself that a person must turn from to be saved; but rather, toward God from their sins which have hindered them from believing the Gospel to be saved. Do you see the difference? We are not saved by repenting, we are saved by placing our trust in Jesus Christ!!!

So few people have a clear understanding of how salvation works. You cannot add or subtract anything to Christ's payment. Many churches today have been deceived by religious men, straying away from God's Word. Psalms 118:8, "It is better to trust in the LORD than to put confidence in man." Roman Catholicism traditionally has a wrong view of repentance, which is what the modern English meaning adheres to. Look in any English dictionary for the meaning of "repentance" and you'll find something like, "To turn away from sins; penance; to feel remorse and contrition for past sins."

This is not the Biblical Greek meaning of the word repent. The Greek meaning is "a change of mind," nothing more. Since we don't know what to "change our mind" about, we need supplemental (additional) information, which is the whole reason behind God's usage of this beautiful word, [18]metanoia . Metanoia is all-inclusive! It includes turning toward the Gospel from EVERYTHING!!! It is a false Gospel to teach people to turn from sinful behavior to receive the free gift of God, which is eternal life. Romans 3:23, "For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord."

Unless you trust CHRIST ALONE for your salvation, you CANNOT be saved. [19]I don't think Chip Ingram is saved . I also [20]don't think Billy Graham is saved . They both require HUMAN EFFORT to be saved, that is, to try to stop sinning, which is a false gospel. Also, please read [21]my rebuttal of Pastor Charles Lawson's heresy on repentance . If we have to change our sinful behavior to be saved, then we're all going straight to Hell. Repentance is a change of mind, not a change of behavior. A changed life is the FRUIT of the indwelling Holy Spirit (Galatians 5:22-23), and not manmade repentance (Matthew 27:3). But you ask, couldn't a person still be saved even though they are confused about salvation? I find that hard to believe, because if you believe wrong then you trust wrong, and unless you are totally resting in the blood of Jesus that washes our sins away, then you haven't been born-again by the Spirit of God.

Please remember that a man named Cornelius in Acts chapter 10 was a devout religion man. Cornelius feared God, prayed, tithed and fasted, yet he was a religious lost man on his way to Hell. God sent the apostle Peter to witness to Cornelius and thankfully he got saved later in the chapter. God is good! Many good people go to Hell, because they fail to understand that no amount of goodness can cleanse away our past sins. Only the blood of Jesus can wash away a person's sins (1st John 1:7; Revelation 1:5; 1st Peter 1:18-19; Romans 5:9 - all Scripture quotes are only from the trustworthy [22]King James Bible).

[23]What Is The Gospel? (a helpful tract by Pastor Harry A. Ironside, 1876-1951)

Beware of a Crossless Gospel

There is a cross-less Gospel that has crept into today's churches which merely says to "trust Jesus" or "invite Jesus into your heart" or "commit your life to Christ" to be saved. You can do all of these things and go straight to Hell when you die. My friend, the Gospel truth is that Christ "Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures." Surrendering to Christ's Lordship is NOT a requirement to be saved. Forsaking the world and having intent to reform is NOT a requirement to be saved. If you are trusting in the risen Christ, Jesus Who died in your place on the cross for YOUR SINS, then you are saved! It's that simple.

Now to clarify, no one ever got saved who didn't admit that he or she is a sinner! This truth is confirmed in Romans 3:19, "Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God." The Bible silences the boasting of self-righteous men who brag of keeping the law of Moses. We see the rich young ruler in Luke 18:18-21, boasting that he had kept all of God's commandments "FROM MY YOUTH UP." Then we see the unsaved group of religious people boasting in Matthew 7:21-23 of their own "MANY WONDERFUL WORKS."

Ah, but the law of God was intended by God to be used as a measuring stick, by which when compared we see ourselves as A GUILTY SINNER in God's sight. This then leaves us with only one option if we would desire to enter Heaven one day in eternity, and that only option is to BELIEVE THE GOSPEL (the good news of Christ's death, burial and resurrection).

The Scriptures explain themselves very well. Galatians 3:24-26, "Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith. But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster. For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus." Repentance is a change of mind about what we want to do to get to Heaven, to what God says that we must do to get to Heaven. Repentance is simply admitting that I am a guilty sinner in God's eyes, realizing that I am totally incapable of saving myself in any way.

The man who comes to Christ has repented, which is the very reason he is coming to Jesus to be saved from his sins. Repentance and faith happen at THE SAME TIME, and are inseparable. Repentance without faith is mere reformation (turning over a new leaf), but is not Biblical repentance unless it is accompanied by faith in Christ. Judas repented (a different Greek word, metamellomaiin, meaning "to feel remorse afterwards, regret") in Matthew 27:3, but still went to Hell in his sins. Judas had no faith in Jesus as the Messiah. Judas was sorry he got caught, but he hadn't realize that he is a guilty sinner in God's eyes for breaking God's commandments. Regret is not required to be saved. We are saved by BELIEVING the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ!!!

Simply BELIEVE the Gospel to Be Saved

If you acknowledge your guilty condition and inability to save yourself, simply believe on the Lord Jesus Christ (Who died in your place) and receive His payment (the Gospel) to be saved. That's how salvation works, that is, you cease from your own DEAD WORKS, and you simply REST in what Christ has done to pay for your sins instead. We are saved through believing; Jesus does the saving! We are saved by God's grace and mercy.

1st Corinthians 1:18, "For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God."

You do NOT have to be [24]water baptized nor doing anything to get to Heaven other than trust upon the Lord as your Savior. Romans 4:5 proclaims... "But to him that worketh not, but believeth on Him (Jesus) that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness." What a wonderful truth! Our faith is COUNTED for righteousness! There is NO self-righteousness involved in salvation. It is the gift of God. You see, we have no righteousness of our own to offer God. No amount of good can undo the bad we've done. Thus, Jesus paid a debt that He did not owe, because we owed a debt that we could not pay. Salvation is receiving, not giving. We are Sinners and Jesus is the Savior. Jesus is precious!

Unbelief is the only sin which can keep you out of Heaven.

Just take God at His word and claim His salvation by faith. Believe, and you will be saved. No church, no lodge, no good works can save you. Remember, God does the saving. All of it!

Trusting Jesus is meaningless without the cross. You must believe that Jesus died for YOUR SINS on the cross, was buried and physically raised up. 1st Corinthians 15:1-4 teaches that the Gospel is the death, burial and resurrection of the Lord Jesus Christ.

God's simple plan of salvation is: You are a sinner. Therefore, unless you believe on Jesus Who died in your place, you will spend eternity in Hell. If you believe on Him as your crucified, buried, and risen Savior, you receive forgiveness for all of your sins and His gift of eternal salvation by faith.

You say, "Surely, it cannot be that simple!" Yes, that simple. It is scriptural; it is God's plan. My friend, to have eternal life simply receive Christ as your sacrifice on the cross as full payment for your sins. Jesus died on the cross for our sins, was buried and resurrected three days later.

This is the gospel according to 1st Corinthians 15:1-4.

If you've never been saved, then now is the time to believe upon the name of Jesus, the Christ, that your sins will be blotted out forever and you can know that your name is written in Heaven. Jesus died on the cross as the Lamb of God (John 1:29), He raised up from the dead as our High Priest (Hebrews 4:15-16) to sprinkle His blood onto the heavenly mercy seat (Hebrews 9:12,24; 12:24), and then He sat down on the Father's right-hand as our Intercessor (Romans 8:34). What an awesome Savior!!!

Christ died for your sins. You are a sinner by nature and by choice (and so am I and every-one else). Jesus took our sins and charged them to His own record. He went to the cross and paid the penalty for our sins. He says if you're willing to receive Him in faith, He will transfer His payment to your debt, and His righteousness to your sins. He will impute to you His goodness, and impute to His own record your sin; if you in faith will trust Him as your Savior. Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith. [25]WHAT IS THE GOSPEL? (by Dr. Harry Ironside, 1876-1951).

> "Everything that's hard and complicated about salvation is God's side of it!"
>
> —Pastor Jack Hyles, a precious quote from the MP3 sermon, " [26]Yea, Yea, And Nay, Nay! "

Please Don't Go to Hell Forever!

Religion is man trying to reach God through human effort, but Christianity is God trying to reach man by the sacrifice of His Son on the cross. Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

Jesus doesn't forgive sins. That is correct! Jesus has already paid for our sins with His blood. Forgiveness of sins and eternal life are free gifts, which Christ has already paid for with His own precious blood. 1st Peter 1:18-19, "Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers; But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot." You don't get to Heaven by meriting anything. We are woeful sinners, who all deserve to burn in Hell forever. I don't claim to understand it all, but I believe the Word of God. We just read in Romans 6:23 that "THE WAGES OF SIN IS DEATH." We earn death!

That includes a "second death" in Hell. Revelation 20:15 says, "And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire." Revelation 21:8, "But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death.” If you tell one lie, you are a “liar.” We have all lied!!! We all deserve to burn in the lake of fire and brimstone. The bottom line my friend is that whether or not you think you deserve to burn in Hell, YOU WILL if you reject God’s free gift of forgiveness of sins through the blood of Jesus Christ.

1st Thessalonians 4:14, “For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.” It’s that simple to be saved... “For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again...”

6.3.10 Murdered 911 Victims By White House Are Not Forgotten (2025-03-13 09:43)

Ecclesiastes 5:8, “If thou seest the oppression of the poor, and violent perverting of judgment and justice in a province, marvel not at the matter: for he that is higher than the highest regardeth; and there be higher than they."

FALSEbook (otherwise known as Facebook), tagged the following image yesterday as FALSE INFORMATION. ...

[1]

That makes me so angry! I HATE FACEBOOK and will likely close my account eventually. I am so sick of media censorship! If you think this image's message is FALSE, there is little if any hope for you as a total idiot and ignoramus fool. Check this damning evidence out...

[6]News Media Is Controlled From One Source

Please don’t believe FACEbook’s LIES!!! The 9/11 attack on the World Trade Center is a perfect example of a MEDIA WHITEOUT. CNN, Reuters, The Associated Press, Fox News, ABC, CBS, NBC and all of the major networks, helped in covering up the crimes orchestrated by our own wicked White House administration. The corrupt magazine [7]Popular Mechanics blatantly LIED about what really happened on 911. Shamefully, Google has censored 95 % of my website’s traffic. Go ahead and [8]search for some of my articles and see for yourself.

I HATE FACEBOOK because THEY ARE FILTHY LIARS! President Bush censored 28 pages of official congressional investigation documents, to hide the truth from the American public.

U.S. News Media Covered-Up 911 Crimes [11]

We've NOT been told THE TRUTH about 911, and who was really responsible. Thankfully, they cannot escape God's judgment and wrath in Hell. George W. Bush and company will be going to Hell to burn with his wicked CIA father. The American public have NOT been told THE TRUTH about what really happened on 911. The Devil is in the details.

6.3.11 I Encourage You To Listen To Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold (2025-03-14 13:16)

Ecclesiastes 12:9, "And moreover, because the preacher was wise, he still taught the people knowledge; yea, he gave good heed, and sought out, and set in order many proverbs.

To help stay close to the Lord, for many years I have listened to fundamental Bible preachers on a regular basis. When we listen to godly King James Bible preachers, we are walking with WISE MEN. Proverbs 13:20, “He that walketh with wise men shall be wise: but a companion of fools shall be destroyed.” Having said that, I highly recommend that you listen to Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold. He was born again at age 18. He’s a remarkable man.

The Destiny of Hell or the Free Gift of Heaven!
(Dr. Ralph Yankee Arnold)

[1]Pastor Yankee Arnold Videos

Just to give you an idea of what a tremendous man Dr. Yankee Arnold is, many years ago a man murdered his son. Pastor Arnold went to the prison and witnessed to the man who killed his son and won him to the Lord. Who does that? A genuine man of God does, that’s who! This is public information, which Pastor Arnold has mentioned in some of his sermons. I love this dear man of God! Pastor Arnold preaches a 100 % free grace Gospel.

Thank you for reading my ministry blogs. I love you all with God’s unconditional love. To God alone be the glory! Jesus is precious!

6.3.12 I Encourage You To Read Pastor Max Younce’s Books (2025-03-15 14:26)

I encourage everyone to visit the [1]HERITAGE BAPTIST BIBLE CHURCH website to take advantage of the edifying books written by my long time ministry friend, Pastor Max D. Younce (1935-2023). I have often sincerely called Dr. Younce "the Dr. John R. Rice of our generation."

I have read Dr. Rice's books and Bible commentaries at length. Dr. Younce's commitment and labor to study, understand and share what he learned with the world reminds me of Brother Rice (1895-1980). You will be blessed!

[3]THE BOOK OF REVELATION: GOD'S FINAL WORD TO MAN

Pastor Younce wrote dozens of books and articles and graciously made them freely available to the world. That means so much to me personally! I have seen umpteen preachers who were skilled in the Word of God, die and then their greedy children horde their books, requiring people to purchase them for money, and over time the books perished with the author. Thankfully, Dr. Younce's books and sermons (just like Pastor Jack Hyles' books and sermons) are freely available online for anybody who wants them. Amen and amen.

6.3.13 The United States Is Being Destroyed Intentionally (2025-03-15 17:38)

Revelation 17:10-13, “And there are seven kings: five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, he must continue a short space. And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and goeth into perdition. And the ten horns which thou sawest are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet; but receive power as kings one hour with the beast. These have one mind, and shall give their power and strength unto the beast.”

Kindly said, I agree with Tucker Carlson that this is all being done intentionally to destroy the United States. Drug abuse is a major problem in every U.S. city today. There is no way that this is an unfixable problem! It didn’t surprise me after 4 years of President Joe Biden further destroying the country that he was promoted to Master Freemason in 2025. Now we know whose evil bidding he was doing all along.

[1]On Sunday, January 19, 2025, M.W. Victor C. Major, Grand Master of the [2]’Most Worshipful Prince Hall Grand Lodge’ of South Carolina, made then-President Joe Biden a Master Mason "at sight" in a private ceremony in Washington, D.C., "in recognition of his outstanding service to the United States of America." This despicable action makes Joe Biden officially the 15th American President who has received the degrees of Freemasonry, as well as the first Prince Hall Affiliated U.S. President.
