I love that name. It is the Gospel of the Glory of God because it comes from the place where our Lord Jesus has entered. The veil has been rent, and now the glory shines out; and whenever this Gospel is proclaimed, it tells of a way into the glory for sinful man, a way to come before the Mercy Seat purged from every stain. It is the Gospel of the Glory of God, because, until Christ had entered into the Glory, it could not be preached in its fullness, but, after the glory received Him, then the message went out to a lost world.

It is also called...

7. The Everlasting Gospel

because it will never be superseded by another. No other ever went before it, and no other shall ever come after it. One of the professors of the University of Chicago wrote a book a few years ago in which he tried to point out that some of these days Jesus would be superseded by a greater teacher; then He and the Gospel that He taught would have to give way to a message which would be more suited to the intelligence of the cultivated men of the later centuries. No, no, were it possible for this world to go on a million years, it would never need any other Gospel than this preached by the Apostle Paul and confirmed with signs following; the Gospel which, throughout the centuries has been saving guilty sinners.

THE GOSPEL DECLARED

What then is the content of this Gospel? We are told right here, "I declare unto you the Gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; by which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain." There is such a thing as merely believing with the intelligence and crediting some doctrine with the mind when the heart has not been reached. But wherever men believe this Gospel in real faith, they are saved through the message. What is it that brings this wonderful result? It is a simple story, and yet how rich, how full. "I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received." I think his heart must have been stirred as he wrote those words, for he went back in memory to nearly thirty years before, and thought of that day when hurrying down the Damascus turnpike, with his heart filled with hatred toward the Lord Jesus Christ and His people, he was thrown to the ground, and a light shone, and he heard a voice saying, "Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?" And he cried, "Who art thou Lord?" And the voice said, "I am Jesus whom thou persecutest." And that day Saul learned the Gospel; he learned that He who died on the Cross had been raised from the dead, and that He was living in the Glory. At that moment his soul was saved, and Saul of Tarsus was changed to Paul the Apostle. And now he says, "I am going to tell you what I have received; it is a real thing with me, and I know it will work the same wonderful change in you. If you will believe it. "First of all, "That Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures." Then, "that He was buried." Then, "that He rose again the third day according to the Scriptures."

The Gospel was no new thing in God’s mind. It had been predicted throughout the Old Testament times. Every time the coming Savior was mentioned, there was proclamation of the Gospel. It began in Eden when the Lord said, "The seed of the woman shall bruise thy head." It was typified in every sacrifice that was offered. It was portrayed in the wonderful Tabernacle, and later in the Temple. We have it in the proclamation of Isaiah, "He was wounded for our transgressions, He was bruised for our iniquities, the chastisement of our peace was upon Him: and with His stripes we are healed." It was preached by Jeremiah when he said, "This is His Name whereby He shall be called, the Lord our Righteousness" (Jer.23:6). It was declared by Zechariah when he exclaimed, "Awake, O sword, against My Shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered: and I will turn mine hand upon the little ones: (Zech.13:7) All through those Old Testament dispensations, the Gospel was predicted, and when Jesus came, the Gospel came with Him. When He died, when He was buried, and when He rose again, the Gospel could be fully told out to a poor lost world. Observe, it says, "that Christ died for our sins." No man preaches the Gospel, no matter what nice things he may say about Jesus, if he leaves out His vicarious death on Calvary's cross.

CHRIST'S DEATH - NOT HIS LIFE

I was preaching in a church in Virginia, and a minister prayed, "Lord, grant Thy blessing as the Word is preached tonight. May it be the means of causing people to fall in love with the Christ-life, that they may begin to live the Christ-life." I felt like saying, "Brother, sit down; don't insult God like that;" but then I felt I had to be courteous, and I knew that my turn would come, when I could get up and give them the truth. The Gospel is not asking men to live the Christ-life. If your salvation depends upon your doing that, your are just as good as checked for Hell, for you never can live it in yourself. It is utterly impossible. But the very first message of the Gospel is the story of the vicarious atonement of Christ. He did not come to tell men how to live in order that they might save themselves; He did not come to save men by living His beautiful life. That, apart from His death, would never have saved one poor sinner. He came to die; He "was made a little lower than the angels for the suffering of death." Christ Jesus gave Himself a ransom for all. When He instituted the Lord's Supper He said, "Take, eat: this is My body, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of Me. . . This cup is the new covenant in My Blood" (1 Cor. 11:24,25) There is no Gospel if the vicarious death of Jesus is left out, and there is no other way whereby you can be saved than through the death of the blessed spotless Son of God.

Someone says, "But I do not understand it." That is a terrible confession to make, for "If our Gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost: (2 Cor. 4:3). If you do not see that there is no other way of salvation for you, save through the death of the Lord Jesus, then that just tells the sad story that you are among the lost. You are not merely in danger of being lost in the Day of Judgment; but you are lost now. But, thank God, "the Son of Man is come to seek and to save that which was lost," and seeking the lost He went to the cross. "None of the ransomed ever know How deep were the waters crossed; Nor how dark was the night that the Lord passed through, Ere He found the sheep that was lost."

THE NECESSITY OF DEATH

HE HAD TO DIE, to go down into the dark waters of death, that you might be saved. Can you think of any ingratitude more base than that of a man or woman who passes by the life offered by the Savior who died on the Cross for them? Jesus died for you, and can it be that you have never even trusted Him, never even come to Him and told Him you were a poor, lost, ruined, guilty sinner; but since He died for you, you would take Him as your Savior? HIS DEATH WAS REAL. He was buried three days in the tomb. He died, He was buried, and that was God's witness that it was not a merely pretended death, but He, the Lord of life, had to go down into death. He was held by the bars of death for those three days and nights, until God's appointed time had come. Then, "Death could not keep its prey, He tore the bars away." And so the third point of the Gospel is this, "He was raised again the third day according to the Scriptures. "That is the Gospel, and nothing can be added to that. Some people say, "Well, but must I repent?" Yes, you may well repent, but that is not the Gospel. "Must I not be baptized?" If you are a Christian, you ought to be baptized, but baptism is not the Gospel. Paul said, "Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the Gospel" (1 Cor. !:17) He did baptize people, but he did not consider that was the Gospel, and the Gospel was the great message that he was sent to carry to the world. This is all there is to it. "Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, and was buried, and rose again the third day according to the Scriptures."

THE GOSPEL ACCEPTED

Look at the result of believing the Gospel. Go back to verse two, "By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain." That is, if you believe the Gospel, you are saved; if you believe that Christ died for your sins, that He was buried, and that He rose again, God says you are saved. Do you believe it? No man ever believed that except by the Holy Ghost. It is the Spirit of God that overcomes the natural unbelief of the human heart and enables a man to put his trust in that message. And this is not mere intellectual credence, but it is that one comes to the place where he is ready to stake his whole eternity on the fact that Christ died, and was buried, and rose again. When Jesus said, "IT IS FINISHED" the work of salvation was completed. A dear saint was dying, and looking up he said, "It is finished; on that I can cast my eternity." Upon a life I did not live, Upon a death I did not die; Another's life, another's death, Is take my whole eternity." Can you say that, and say it in faith?

THE GOSPEL REJECTED

What about the man who does not believe the Gospel? The Lord Jesus said to His disciples, "Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature. He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned" (Mark 16:15,16). He that believeth not shall be devoted to judgment, condemned, lost. So you see, God has shut us up to the Gospel. Have you believed it? Have you put your trust in it; is it the confidence of your soul? Or have you been trusting in something else? If you have been resting in anything short of the Christ who died, who was buried, who rose again, I plead with you, turn from every other fancied refuge, and flee to Christ today. Repent ye, and believe the Gospel.

"O, do not let the word depart, And close thine eyes against the light; Poor sinner, harden not thy heart, Be saved, O tonight."

3.11.20 Why Pastors Need To Clarify The Gospel (2022-11-16 15:11)

2nd Corinthians 11:1-5, "Would to God ye could bear with me a little in my folly: and indeed bear with me. For I am jealous over you with godly jealousy: for I have espoused you to one husband, that I may present you as a chaste virgin to Christ. But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ. For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him. For I suppose I was not a whit behind the very chiefest apostles."

Billy Sunday Preaching [2]THE TRUTH!

One of my favorite preachers is Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold. who made this tremendous accurate statement:

> “There is power in this Gospel message. Most people just don’t know how to present it... The clarity of the Gospel is what makes it easy for them to believe.” —Pastor Yankee Arnold, a quote from the excellent MP3 sermon titled, “[3]WHY GRACE CAN SAVE THE WORST MAN!”

I have been attending a local Baptist church in Pensacola, Florida for the past year. When I started attending last year in late 2021, the first thing I noticed is that the church’s young pastor preaches a vague and distorted gospel message. He keeps telling the church congregation that to get to Heaven they must “have a relationship” with Jesus. Dear reader, the word “relationship” is not even found in the inspired Holy Bible.

So, to help teach that pastor, I personally handed a hardcopy of Michael P. Bowen’s helpful book titled, “I Never Knew You: The Horror Of The Great White Throne Judgment And How You Can Avoid It.” He never thanked me for the book nor commented about it, which was fine with me because it was a gift for him. Tragically, the pastor must not have read the book, or disregarded it, because Michael Bowen clearly refutes the heresy of telling lost sinners to start “ with Christ to get to Heaven. Here is what the Michael Bowen says on pages 19 and 20, to refute Pastor Joel Osteen’ s counterfeit plan of salvation at Lakewood Church in Houston, Texas:

> Before I was born again, I followed Mr. Osteen’s teachings with great enthusiasm; in fact, I couldn’t get enough of his teachings. From one show to the next, what he had to say made me feel so wonderful that I forgot all about the agony of not being sure of my eternal destiny. At the end of each show, Osteen would tell his audience that everyone needed to have a personal relationship with Jesus Christ, and he instructed everyone to repent of their sins and to make Jesus their Lord and savior. He still teaches the same message today at the end of every service.
> Now, in my case, as a result of watching Osteen and because I was so hungry to know for sure where I would spend my eternity, I did exactly what he said to do at the end of every show, which is to repent of sin, to ask Jesus into my heart, and to make Him both my Lord and my savior. I made up my mind to stop sinning to the best of my ability and to make Christ my Lord at the end of every show I watched, but it never worked. I was never born again according to the way Osteen said we had to be born again, but I was happier as a result because my opinion of myself changed, I was empowered, I felt better about who I was as a person, yet, had I died while believing in Osteen’s plan of salvation, I would never have made it to heaven, according to the bible.
> What is the problem, here? Does the problem arise from a mere lack of understanding of what Mr. Osteen says to do? Or could it be that what Mr. Osteen is telling us to do is not even found in the bible, at all? And what shall we use in order to determine the answers to such questions? For the answers to these questions, let us look at the Greek translation of the English word “repent” as well as look at some key verses about salvation in the bible; however, before we do this, I have to say > on the authority of the Word of God (not my opinion) and with a very disappointed feeling in having to say these things about someone who has meant so much to me in the past, I can say most strongly that Mr. Osteen unknowingly provides an unbiblical, counterfeit plan of salvation to both the members of his church and to his world-wide audience at the end of every presentation and that I honestly believe that no one has ever explained to him how to be saved, and that he, like so many others in the Christian business, simply copy each others' plans of salvation in order to sound similar so as not to be seen as "different" from the mainstream.

My friend Michael Bowen continues on page 22 with these edifying words:

> Salvation, according to Joel Osteen, consists of having a "relationship" with Jesus Christ. In order to have a relationship with Jesus Christ, Osteen says we must 1) repent of sins, 2) ask Jesus into our hearts, 3) ask Him to wash us clean, and 4) "make Him" our Lord and savior. Now, according to the bible, this is not how to go to heaven. What this is, however, is a blueprint for discipleship. More accurately, what we really need is a "savior." When you become born again through faith alone in Christ, you are automatically in a "relationship" with Jesus Christ the very instant you trust in what He did for you by His death, burial and resurrection from the dead. To say that we need a relationship with Christ is not an accurate statement. We need salvation in order to escape the wrath of God, not a "relationship."
> SOURCE: " [5]I Never Knew You ," Michael P. Bowen, p. 22

As I type, the pastor of the local Baptist church that I have been attending, still refuses to stop using the unbiblical phrase for people to have "

with Christ to be saved. That is not how you get saved! If you think that Bible preachers like Michael Bowen and myself are splitting hairs, that we are barking up an empty tree, or that we are being too picky; then humbly said, you are greatly mistaken dear friend. I say that kindly with God's love.

Not surprisingly, the Baptist church I am attending is affiliated with the cult at Pensacola Christian College (PCC), which explains a lot because PCC uses the same unbiblical terms to confuse people. In their official Foundation's Class, PCC's Campus Church heretically teaches that, quote: "[7]Repentance is a change of mind resulting in a change of behavior." That is a lie of the Devil!!! Repentance (Greek noun: metanoia) is a change of mind, period, end of story!

Like other religious cults, PCC is very deceitful, like the Seventh-Day Adventists (SDA). If you look on their Campus Church website, you'll see a free grace Gospel. But as I was horrified to learn firsthand on July 21, 2021, while attending their mid-week Bible study on Wednesday evening, they teach something very different in their church services. Why don't they tell people on their church website that your behavior must change to prove that you've repented to be saved? Why don't they be honest and tell people on their website, as they do in church services, that you must repent of your sins to be saved? I'll tell you exactly why—because PCC's ungodly and incompetent leaders are straddling the fence doctrinally, driving in the middle of the road, playing both sides of the card table!!! As Pastor Curtis Hutson rightly says: "The only thing you'll see driving in the middle of the road are dead skunks!"

He who lies down with sleeping dogs, rises up with ticks and fleas! The accursed Bob Jones University (BJU) camp have been doctrinally corrupt for the past 50 years!!! After Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) went to Heaven, his son and grandson ran the institution into the ground, adopting Calvinism instead of a free grace Gospel. As a clear indicator of the downward spiritual descent of BJU into darkness, [8]they have officially dropped their reference to Roman Catholicism as "a cult." Roman Catholicism is the biggest cult in the world!!! Catholicism is a prisonhouse of religion!!! Shame on Bob Jones University!!!!!!! Why would any parent entrust their precious child to such a rotten, incompetent and corrupt place as BJU? It is the LOVE OF MONEY. Carnally-minded parents and their kids want a money-making career for their children, with [9]no concern for right doctrine and [10]no regard for right morals or ethics.

By the way, [11]PCC teaches the same crap as does Dr. Steve Pettit. They all teach that justification, sanctification and glorification are a package deal and you cannot separate them. They are all WRONG! Pilgrim's Progress author, John Bunyan gets it 100 % correct:

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." —John Bunyan (1628-1688)

The payment for sin is not works! The payment for sin is death (Romans 6:23). That is why Christ had to pay our debt of sin on Calvary's cross with His blood, which He then sprinkled upon the heavenly Mercy Seat (Hebrews 9:12, 22-24; 12:24).

I have been listening and paying attention to what church members are saying, at the church I have been attending. I heard one lady in our church express her worries that she may not be saved, because of the sins in her life. I heard another man, while talking about the Gospel with him, say that he thinks water baptism is necessary to go to Heaven. Oh my! This man has been an usher in the church for the past six years!!! How could this happen in a Baptist church? This is what happens dear reader when pastors don't preach a clear and concise Gospel message!!! As Pastor Yankee Arnold wisely says: THE CLARITY OF THE GOSPEL IS WHAT MAKES IT EASY FOR PEOPLE TO BELIEVE!!! ...

> Acts 16:29-34, "Then he called for a light, and sprang in, and came trembling, and fell down before Paul and Silas, And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house. And they spake unto him the word of the Lord, and to all that were in his house.
> And he took them the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes; and was baptized, he and all his, straightway. And when he had brought them into his house, he set meat before them, and rejoiced, believing in God with all his house."

Amen, they all got saved in Acts 16:30-34, the entire family and all therein. When the Bible says that they "believed in God," I think it is clear from the context that they believed God's written Word concerning the Good News (Gospel) of the Lord Jesus Christ. John 5:39, "

Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me."

I did what I could to help the young Baptist pastor that I mentioned earlier, but he refuses to heed my help. You can lead a horse to water, but you cannot make him drink it. Pastor Jack Hyles is so right, who said: “Unsought advice is seldom taken and usually resented.” A friend helps a friend to see! I have been a friend to that young pastor, but it seems in vain. I handed him the book, “[12]I Never Knew You,” just as I did to the incompetent pastors of the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam in 2014, but they all rejected the book. Michael Bowen’s book is 100 % Scriptural, in which he simply compares the plan of salvation of 15 big name preachers in the United States, versus what the Holy Bible teaches about how to get to Heaven. Their plans of salvation DON’T match up!!!

When I handed a hardcopy of the book: “

I Never Knew You,

” to Pastor Sean Quinlan at the Lighthouse Baptist Church on Guam in 2018, he literally handed it to his children to play with. I kindly informed Sean Quinlan that his church track display contained literature that says you must "turn away from sinful ways" to get to Heaven, which is NOT the Gospel by which we are saved. His lame reply was: “Well, you have to turn FROM something in order to turn TO something.”

I agree, but that something is unbelief, not sinful ways. The only thing that a lost person needs to know to be saved is found in Romans 3:19,

“Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God.” You don’t have to turn from your sinful ways to be saved, the Bible says you need to acknowledge that you are a guilty sinner before God, and that is repentance!!! Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do.

Here is the best quote that I’ve found on repentance, by Pastor Harry A. Ironside (1876-1951):

> “Which comes first, repentance or faith? In Scripture we read, ’Repent ye, and believe the gospel.’ Yet we find true believers exhorted to ’repent, and do the first works.’ So intimately are the two related that you cannot have one without the other. The man who believes God repents; the repentant soul puts his trust in the Lord when the Gospel is revealed to him. Theologians may wrangle over this, but the fact is, no man repents until the Holy Spirit produces repentance in his soul through the truth. No man believes the Gospel and rests in it for his own salvation until he has judged himself as a needy sinner before God. And this is repentance.” ([13]Except Ye Repent, p. 16)

When the Philippian jailor in Rome asked Paul and Silas what he needed to do to be saved, would it have made any sense if their answer to him was:

“Have a relationship with Jesus”? Surely not! In fact, the Philippian jailor would have been utterly confused. It is tragic that over 95 % of clergy today are theologically incompetent, preaching a distorted plan of salvation which cannot produce the new birth. Satan’s greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born-again. That is what 99 % of religious people are doing today, living the Christian life without ever being born-again by the Holy Spirit of God.

Here is a list of some of the unbiblical things that foolish preachers are adding to God’s simple plan of salvation, thus corrupting the Word of God and casting stumbling blocks before the people:

- Be willing to turn away from sin

- Live a lifestyle of repentance
- Turn from your sins (reformation)
- Be sorry for your sins (penitence)
- Make a men for your sins (penance)
- Forsake a lifestyle of sin
- Repent of your sins
- Have a change of behavior
- Get water baptized to wash away sins
- Invite Christ into your life
- Ask Jesus to come into your heart
- Follow Christ
- Surrender to Christ
- Make Jesus “Lord” of your life
- Live for Christ the rest of your life
- Give up the old ways
- Faithfully run the race until the end of life
- Count the cost and pay the price
- Confess the name of Jesus publicly
- Pray a sinner’s prayer
- Pray the Jesus prayer
- Walk down a church aisle to learn how to be saved

Dear reader, you may have done ALL THESE THINGS and yet never be born-again. What saith the Scripture? John 6:40, “And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.” You get to Heaven as a guilty sinner by placing your trust in the crucified, buried and risen Savior (I Corinthians 15:1-4).

[14] The Gospel In Just One Minute

(by Pastor Max D. Younce)

[15]Order Hardcopies Of ’I Never Knew You’ by Michael P. Bowen

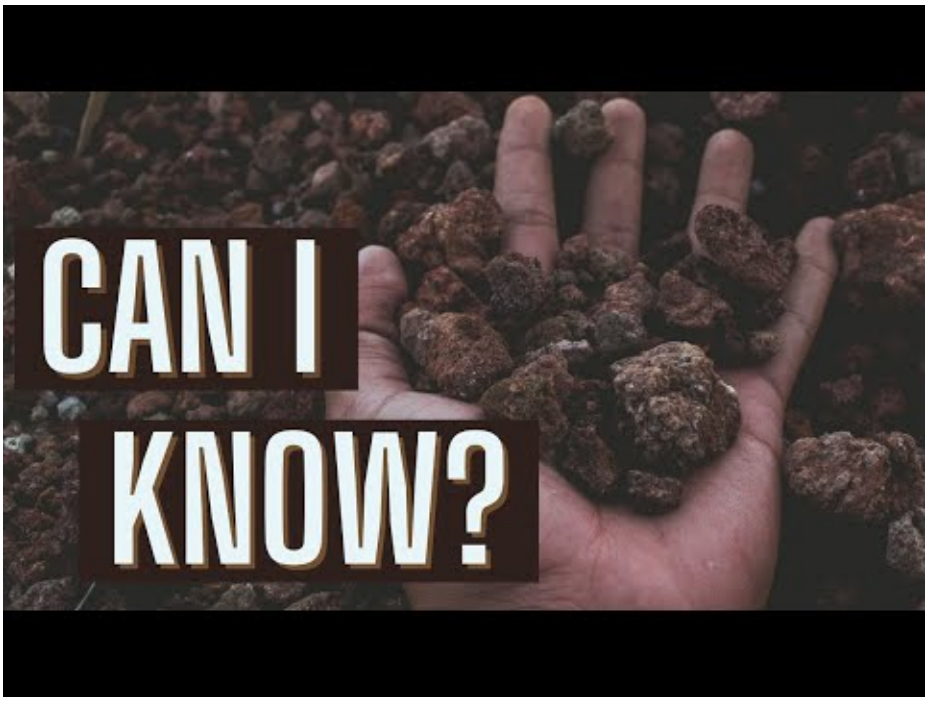
Salvation is not a reward for the righteous, it is a gift for the guilty!



Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

Turning away from sinful ways would be a work. Faith puts all of the merit where it belongs, on the object of our faith, Jesus and His work.

If to "repent" means to forsake our sinful ways TO BE SAVED, but Jesus already paid for our sins by dying on the cross, then what are we repenting from?

The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU.

We must stay true to the simplicity of the Gospel!! Repentance regarding salvation is a change of mind from unbelief to belief!!! We must earnestly contend for the faith (Jude 1:3).

Can I Know I'll Go To Heaven?

3.11.21 Pray For Me, I've Been Told To Vacate My Residence (2022-11-16 16:57)

Psalms 145:9, "The LORD is good to all: and his tender mercies are over all his works."

PLEASE PRAY FOR ME DEAR FRIENDS!!! Some bad news for me. I was asked last night to vacate my residence by the end of February. I was really hoping to stay here for a few years, but it wasn't meant to be. My landlord said he has a family member that needs the unit. So please pray for me that God will give me the knowledge and wisdom to figure out where to relocate. With my burning nerves, chronic neck pain, constant fatigue and relentless neck tension, et cetera, I truly don't feel up to moving again. It was very difficult last summer, and now I need to do it all again. I know that God is with me and loves me. One day at a time. GOD IS ALWAYS GOOD!!! I REJOICE IN THE LORD MY GOD AND SAVIOR!!!

I am not upset at my landlord, but I am hurt and frustrated. He told me just two months ago that I could stay here as long as I want, but now he is telling me to get out. That was terrible of him. Kindly said, he lied. Proverbs 6:2, "Thou art snared with the words of thy mouth, thou art taken with the words of thy mouth."

When I first moved in last November, there wasn't as much as a can opener, cup, plate or chair in the unit. I had to spend $3,500 to furnish the place, so it was livable; but now he wants me out. I don't know what I am going to do. People can be so cruel.

Kindly said, it was also my landlord who multiple times encouraged me to get all my stuff out of storage from the shipping company's warehouse, to bring my possessions to the place I am renting. I was reluctant to unload my crate from Guam, because of this very concern, that I might be asked to leave soon afterward, and my stuff would become a burden for me. But my landlord multiple times encouraged me to bring all my belongings to my residence, so I did in July, and now he is asking me to leave just a few months later. I think that is rotten. But, he was kind to allow me to live here for the time I did, and he has charged me a very reasonable amount for rent, for which I am very grateful. But he did lie to me. One thing has nothing to do with the other. I am not upset, I am disappointed.

Dear friends, I need your prayers. This is a nightmare for me right now. One day I had a man's promise of a place to dwell for the foreseeable future; but now I am on a time limit to vacate the premises because he broke his word. I am glad that God doesn't break his word. Nehemiah 23:19, " God is not man, that he should lie, or a son of man, that he should change his mind. Has he said, and will he not do it? Or has he spoken, and will he not fulfill it? "

I feel overwhelmed right now. I have about a month to figure out what to do, as I am going to need the other two months to prepare to move. I may be leaving Pensacola if I cannot find an affordable rental soon. Rent is cheaper in different areas of the country; and there are other considerations as well. When I first arrived in Pensacola, I had to sleep in my car in Walmart's parking lot last summer. There is a housing crisis nationwide right now, and rental prices have soared ridiculously high, which is why millions of Americans are either homeless or one paycheck away from being homeless. Los Angeles alone has over 69,000 homeless people right now! ...

3.11.22 You're Not A Good Christian Because You Go To Church (2022-11-19 19:38)

Revelation 3:15-18,"I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot.

So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth.

Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked*:

I counsel thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear; and anoint thine eyes with eyesalve, that thou mayest see."

People are weird! I mean that. People are really weird. I have suffered from stenosis and radiculitus in my neck since 1992, which has become intolerable since 2004 after an accident at work. A related affliction is burning nerves throughout my upper body, both arms feeling inflated with air, the entire side of my right body feeling asleep all the time, and chronic tension in my neck continually. These ailments really get me down daily, and make it difficult to do anything, including going to church. Consequently, I am fortunate of I make it to church 50 % of the time.

Having said that, I have had two people within the last month condemn me for missing church. One professed Christian woman asked me if I came to church on Sunday morning. I kindly replied: “No, I didn’t feel well.” She put out her forefinger and started stroking it downward with her other forefinger, signifying: “Shame! Shame!” I looked at her like she was crazy and asked: “What shame is there in missing church because I didn’t feel well?” She was very wrong to try to shame me for missing church because I didn’t feel well. People can be so cruel. It just compels me to stay home from church even more, where at least I know I won’t be condemned by jerk hypocrites in ungodly churches.

And then another horrible professed Christian woman scolded me for saying that I cannot always attend church. I explained to her that I suffer from stenosis and radiculitis. She rudely remarked: “That’s just an excuse!” She is so WRONG!!! She has no right to talk to anyone that way. It just shows how far away from God that she really is. I wrote this article because these two women are devoutly religious. They always attend church.

So they THINK they are right with God and spiritual, when in reality they are naked, blind and wretched (Revelation 3:15-18). We always hear about the church,

but may I point out to you dear reader that the Laodicean church was full of Laodicean “saints.

” Our lukewarm churches today, like Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College (PCC), are full of lukewarm believers. They are deadbeats! They are religious hypocrites! No one has any right to berate and scold someone for missing church, especially someone who has legitimate health problems. The second woman who scolded me for missing church abandoned her husband, quitting her marriage vows, leaving her husband for dead. What a wicked person! Yet she condemns me for missing church when I feel overwhelmed because of my burning nerves and bodily afflictions.

I am writing this blog to educate other believers in this important matter. Please don’t allow anyone to make you feel inferior, or that you are not right with God, just because you aren’t always at church when THEY think you should be there. I go when I can on Wednesday nights for the mid-week Bible study. The first woman who tried to shame me has NEVER one time (not that I have seen) attending our Wednesday night Bible study. I could have shamed her back. I could have said: “No, shame on you for never coming to church on Wednesday night!” I already know what she would have said... “But I can’t find a ride to church.” I could have been a total jerk like her and the second woman, by saying: “That’s just an excuse!”

In 2018 while attending the Lighthouse Baptist Church on Guam, a different woman asked me if I was coming to church next Sunday. I honestly replied: “It depends on how I am feeling at the time. My medications affect me, so I have to wait and see.” Her rotten cruel response was: “Well, we have another man in the church with a heart condition who takes the same medications as you. If he can make it to church, so can you!” I wanted to call her some choice adjectives, one being a name for a female dog. I kindly replied: “First, I don’t take the same medications as the man with a heart condition, I don’t have a heart condition. Secondly, I’ll be here if I can, Lord willing.” I was nice toward her, but she deserved a much harsher response. Do you see how rotten church people can be?

Dear friend, the three true stories I have just shared with you are WICKEDNESS!!! No one has a right to pressure other people to attend church. I think what it is, is that the people who attend church in most cases don’t really want to be there. It is a chore to them. So they resent when I show up infrequently. It pisses them off! When I don’t feel well, I don’t want to drive, and I don’t want to be around people; so I stay home where I can relax in the safety of my dwelling place. There is NOTHING wrong with that! Any pastor or church member who tries to put the guilt trip on you for missing church, you go ahead and skip church whenever you need to, and tell them it is none of their damn business!

People are weird and hypocritical. The church that I have been attending is a mess spiritually. The pastor is a young fella who does a terrible job of presenting the truth of the Gospel. He keeps telling everyone that they must have a “relationship” with Jesus to get to Heaven someday. The big problem is that you won’t find the word “relationship” anywhere in the inspired King James Bible, and it confuses people of what God expects from them to get to Heaven. I also heard our pastor tell the congregation that to be saved you must “turn away from your past life.” Sadly, my pastor is a damnable heretic, and I am about to leave the church in February. My landlord just evicted me, telling me to get out by the end of February. Since I very likely won’t be renting in this area anymore, there won’t be any need to attend this particular church in Pensacola.

I’ve already got some well-meaning web visitors, advising me that I should move to an area with a good church. Unfortunately, it is not that easy for me to do. I need to find a doctor who will accept my not so popular insurance carrier, which is not easy in a smaller town. I also need to find a place that is affordable. There is a housing crisis right now nationwide. Rent prices have skyrocketed.

So anyway, I will likely be leaving this corrupt church where I’ve been attending for the past year. I kindly handed a hard copy of Michael P. Bowen’s helpful book titled: “[1]I Never Knew You,” to the pastor, which he evidently either didn’t read or disregarded, because he is still teaching damnable heresy concerning how to be saved. I love the pastor of the church I am attending, but I love Jesus first and foremost, which means I must love THE TRUTH. When a pastor tells people to “turn away from your past life” to be saved, he has been inspired by demons!!!

In the local Baptist church I have been attending for the past year, the associate pastor promotes Lordship Salvation preaching Calvinists: [2]Billy Graham and [3]Adrian Rogers. The church is also buddies with PCC, who wickedly bid Godspeed and promote Calvinist heretics: Ken Ham, and Steve Pettit at Bob Jones University (BJU). Right doctrine doesn't matter to all these money-making preachers. Getting along for the sake of business as usual is all that matters to them. RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!!

From being badgered, mistreated and put down by church people, I have clearly see firsthand that just because someone is faithful to attend a church, DOESN'T make them right with God or spiritual. There is a man in our church who has been there faithfully for the past six years, who thinks you must be water baptized to get to Heaven! He's not even saved, still on his way to Hell. That is the pastor's fault for not feeding God's flock, and it is God's flock of sheep (Acts 20:28). What can they expect, when their pastor continues to vaguely teach everybody to have a "relationship" with Christ to get to Heaven. May I remind you dear reader that Judas also had a "relationship" with Jesus, being one of His very apostles, but Judas is burning in the fires and torments of Hell forever and ever without rest nor hope.

God knows that I work on my website ministry day and night, because there is a cause. 1st Samuel 7:29, "

And David said, What have I now done? Is there not a cause?

" Yes David, there is a cause! David said this because his elder brothers were mocking him, as he went out to fight the giant Goliath. Dear friend, I am also fighting against the giant of Calvinism! I am fighting against the giants of apostasy at PCC, and the hellhole of wickedness at the BJU cult. I am fighting against the giant of the Devil's Bible revisions, and the two-headed monster of [4]Lordship Salvation and [5]Wrong Repentance. Somebody's got to care!!!

Many carnally-minded shallow churchgoers would condemn me for not attending church half the time; but God sees my heart, that I am laboring night and day online for the eternal Kingdom of God. I labor for free, without expectation of anything in compensation from any human being. God alone will reward me (1st Corinthians 3:7-8; Matthew 6:19-20). Carnally-minded immature Christians condemn me for staying home frequently from church, while they don't lift a finger to preach the Gospel to rescue the perishing from the depths of Hell. In their foolish estimation, you are only as good a Christian as you attend a local church. I triple-dog dare you to show me that teaching in the inspired Holy Bible. You cannot!

All across America there are churchgoers who are devoutly religious. They dot their i's, and cross their t's, while they sit there supporting damnable heresy spoken from the church pulpit. Meanwhile, I am at home doing all that I can to fight against these deadly false doctrines, which have crept into 90 % of today's shallow churches. I warned the local pastors. They didn't heed my warning. I have prayed for God to open their eyes, but those stiff-necked pastors refuse to budge. They are set in their own corrupt ways! Lordship Salvation is NOT the Gospel, it is a perversion of God's grace!

Here is a helpful sermon defending a free grace Gospel by Pastor Dennis Rokser from Duluth, Minnesota. As Pastor Rokser rightly says, all false gospels include faith in Jesus Christ (but they also ADD something else to faith)...

GETTING THE GOSPEL RIGHT & WRONG

Dear reader, God knows your heart! God knows if you love Him. God sees if you are down and depressed, like I am often. Yes, even preachers get depressed. It is a part of life. My landlord just told me to get out, and I have no clue where to go. But I rejoice that my name is written in Heaven, and I have a home up above, with rewards coming that no thief can steal. Some rotten thieves stole my car in 2004. It wasn't insured. Those thieves cost me $10,000 in damages! God will hold them accountable (Romans 12:19-21; Ecclesiastes 12:14; Hebrews 4:13).

Some of the worst Christians are faithful to attend church. I learned long ago that the easiest place in the world to backslide is Bible college, because you hear Bible preaching every day of the week and you get used to it. Pastor Jack Hyles said that some of the worst Christians do the most for God. Dr. Hyles is absolutely correct! Brother Hyles said that the people in his church congregation who had been members for 20, 30 and 40 years did the least to serve God; but the new people in the church did 90 % of the work! That is interesting. Dr. Hyles said that the secret to growing a church is to always be on a Honeymoon with new church members. I like that truth!

Please don't misunderstand my blog's intent. I am not encouraging missing church. The church is our spiritual family in the Lord. Unfortunately, it is now very difficult to find a doctrinally-sound, unconditional people-loving, old-fashioned, Bible-believing, public soulwinning, inspired King James Bible only, free grace Gospel only, local church!

Sadly, what you will likely find are neo-evangelical churches with worldly contemporary Christian music (CCM), women wearing pants, the Devil's corrupt Bible revisions, a denial of Bible inspiration in any modern Bible, Lordship Salvation (another gospel), misunderstood repentance (another gospel), promotion of false teachers (e.g., Ken Ham, Ray Comfort, Paul Washer, Pat Robertson, Adrian Rogers, Billy Graham, R.C. Sproul, John MacArthur), et cetera.

You're not a good Christian just because you sit in a building three times a week playing church, because you sing some religious songs and pray and read your Bible. Yes, we should go to church. We should pray and read the Holy Bible. But I contend that you are better to stay home, and attend no church, than to attend a bad church because of some misguided sense of religious guilty (i.e., religious scrupulosity). A bad church WILL corrupt you! One healthy person plus one infected sick person equals two infected sick people. That is why God commands us to COME OUT FROM AMONG THEM and be ye separate (2nd Corinthians 6:14-17). God knows that neither you nor myself, can change a corrupted institution. [6]Nothing I say will improve the apostate condition of Pensacola Christian College (PCC).

Perhaps God is working in my life now to get me out of this bad church that I have been attending (because I have nowhere else to go). I am willing to relocate ANYWHERE in the United States, if the Lord will please just show me WHERE to move. Of course, I have to find a doctor or pain specialist who accepts my medical insurance, because I need my pain medications each month. I may stay in Pensacola, but housing is expensive here. I was looking at the Cleveland, Ohio area all day yesterday. The Great Lakes city of Cleveland has 367,000 residents. I've also been considering Aberdeen, South Dakota (28,000 residents). Please pray for me, that God will give me knowledge and wisdom to make a decision. One day at a time. God is so good. God is so good to me.

So yes, we should attend a local Bible-believing New Testament church if we can find one. But we ought to be very careful about attending a corrupt one, lest we also become corrupted. A little leaven leaventh the whole lump. As an example, a little mold will spread to mold all of a loaf of bread.

Satan's progression to spiritually corrupt and destroy a Bible college or church

1. The Devil begins by convincing people that we don't have an infallible, perfect, innerant, inspired Holy Bible in these modern times.
2. Then Satan influences them to tolerate and stop criticizing the demonic [7]Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort perversions of God's Word (Pastor Max D. Younce [8]exposes these two devils). ALL modern Bible revisions are corrupt!!!

3. Satan then influences them to start using, selling and promoting the Devil's corrupt Bible revisions.

4. The Devil uses those corrupt Bibles to [9]change God's simple plan of salvation.

The preceding horrifying progression is exactly what has happened to Bob Jones University, who are at step FOUR. Pensacola Christian College is already at step TWO. Where is your Bible college or church? Tragically, the Devil fully knows that if he can corrupt a Bible college, then he has successfully also corrupted THOUSANDS of churches that hire their graduates. Sadly, 95 % of Bible colleges are at step TWO, refusing to expose the Devil's Bible perversions. It is tragic that truth-tellers like me are at war today with the churches!!! RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!!

Dear reader, how good of a Christian you are can only be measured by how much you are obeying the two greatest commandments in all the Bible:

> Matthew 22:35-40, "Then one of them, which was a lawyer, asked him a question, tempting him, and saying, Master, which is the great commandment in the law? Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets."

I agree with Evangelist Lester Roloff (1914-1982) who said that the two greatest commandments in the Bible are really just one—TO LOVE! Amen.

Jesus rebuked the LUKEWARM believers at Laodicea. The dear Savior called them miserable, naked, wretched and blind. Sadly, this same shameful review can be said of 95 % of America's churches and church members today...

> Revelation 3:15-18, "I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot. So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth. Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked: I counsel thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear; and anoint thine eyes with eyesalve, that thou mayest see."

Dear reader, if you are a regular churchgoer (a religious person), are you miserable, naked, wretched and blind? Remember, Jesus is saying this about carnal CHURCH MEMBERS!!! Revelation 3:17, "Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked:" The Bible practically gives the address of Pensacola Christian College (PCC). Sadly, PCC leadership is as carnal as can be. Their response to my Christ-honoring website ministry was to laugh in my face! Their ungodly Campus Church pastors at PCC wickedly accused me of "finding weaknesses in preachers," when in reality I am faithfully contending for the Christian faith as Jude 1:3, Ephesians 5:11 and Titus 1:9-14 commands. SHAME on PCC!!!

Yet, if you go visit PCC and their Laodicean Campus Church, you'll hear them saying that they "I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing..." When in reality PCC is "wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked:" They are not good Christians merely because they know how to PLAY CHURCH really good at PCC!!! They sing their religious songs. They have their stupid college skits. They play their intercollege sports, allowing their female students to dress like the sinful world.

I heard Professor Gail Riplinger rightly say in an interview years ago that the Devil's crowd are trying to SECULARIZE THE BIBLE!!! She is so right! Likewise, Satan has successfully SECULARIZED THE BIBLE COLLEGES along with the Word of God!!! Dear parents, you simply cannot trust 97 % of today's so-called Bible colleges. Going to Bible college has become a big money-making scam!!!

I learned a long time ago that going to church has very little to do with how good of a Christian someone is or isn't. Some of the biggest jerks, hypocrites and rotten people I've known throughout my life were faithful to attend a church somewhere. I encourage you dear friend to walk with God on your own, and not foolishly rely on some pastor to feed you from week to week. If our physical health were dependent upon the nutrition coming from America's church pulpits today, we'd all be dead!

It shouldn't come as a surprise that 99 % of churchgoers nowadays are as carnal as can be, in view of the shallow sermonettes which today's cowardly [10]Caspar Milquetoast pastors are delivering. I DON'T rely on local churches to feed me spiritually. If I did I'd be a mess! I listen to hard preaching throughout the week. [11]I listen to Alexander Scourby read the inspired King James Bible throughout the week. I walk with God at home and in my private life. I just go to church to meet with other believers, who sadly are in pathetic condition because they rely on their pastor to feed them. Many church members don't even know that they're saved.

Sadly, 99 % of churches today are merely PLAYING CHURCH. Most churches are nothing more than glorified social clubs. The particular Baptist church that I have been attending for the past year is a closed knit group, unwelcoming of some people. The pastor has never once initiated a conversation with me. Not once! He has never once asked me if I would like to join their church. They've never invited me to go anywhere with them. I could stop coming tomorrow and they wouldn't miss me. No one has ever asked for my contact information. They just don't care about me. That is pathetic!

Thankfully, I care about them, but there is little I can do except pray for them, share the truth and be there if they need me. Unfortunately, since I am being evicted from my residence soon, I will likely move to a different part of Pensacola. I have no clue yet. One day at a time. Faith is like film, it develops in the dark! Amen! Unshakable faith comes from having our faith shaken. This is a dark time in my life, a time of uncertainty and loneliness. I was reminded of this precious Scripture today from the Old Testament...

> Psalms 23:1-4, “The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name’s sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.”

God is with me! By the Lord’s grace I plan to keep going full speed ahead in my ministry online. The fields are white unto harvest the Lord said, but the labourers are FEW. Matthew 9:37, “ Then saith he unto his disciples, The harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few;” Thank you for reading dear friend.

> Remember, it’s not...
> FAITH IN CHRIST, PLUS;
> it’s...
> FAITH IN CHRIST, PERIOD.

Have a good day! = -)

3.11.23 On Being Mortal (2022-11-24 16:36)

Psalms 145:9, “

The LORD is good to all: and his tender mercies are over all his works.

Today is Thanksgiving 2022. I watched a heartbreaking FRONTLINE documentary today called “

Being Mortal

Being Mortal (full documentary) | FRONTLINE

I remember when my own biological mother was dying in 2001. She suffered a crippling stroke in 1989 which paralyzed the entire left side of her body. I learned that the right side of the brain controls the left side of the body, and vise versa,. She had suffered a stoke in the right lobe of her brain. My mother never walked again. Sadly, she was a chronic cigarette smoker. She once told me that she began smoking a half cigarette per day at age 15, which escalated over her life to 3 packs per day in wheel chair. No doubt the smoking ruined her health and contributed to her having a paralyzing stroke at age 53. Our family sadly watched her suffer year after year.

My mother (Barbara Jean Stewart, 1935-2001) was a wonderful piano player. She started playing piano at age 4 in Sweden. After my grandfather died, my grandmother and Mom at age 13 came to the United States. We had an old upright piano in our home, which probably weighed about 500 pounds at least. I recorded my Mom playing her music in the 1980's with a small push button tape recorded, which is what you will here in this video.

I made these YouTube videos to share her precious piano playing.

There are three videos total...

My Mom Playing Gospel Hymns - Video 1

My Mom Playing Gospel Hymns - Video 2

My Mom Playing Gospel Hymns - Video 3

If you'd like, you can [1]convert and download these videos as MP3 files. I never heard her play anything but Gospel hymns. Her beautiful piano playing reminds me of Rudy Atwood (1912-1992), a famous Christian pianist.

As I watched the preceding FRONTLINE documentary of Being Mortal, it brought back memories of when my mother was dying in 2001. I learned a new term called "Quality of Life." My mother's lungs were failing. Both of her legs had been amputated below the knee, at different times years apart, due to diabetic complications. Her health was a mess! The whole family felt sorry for her suffering, but there was nothing that we could do to remedy her pain. I remember seeing my mother cry after her first leg had been amputated. She was in so much pain, and I saw the bloody stump that remained of her leg. It hurts one's soul to see the woman who brought you into the world suffer like that.

The doctors wanted to put my mother onto a Lung Machine, to help her breath to keep her alive. My Mom and Dad had to face some serious questions. Ultimately, after about a month of heart searching and talking with friends, doctors and the family, decided that God never intended for someone to be kept artificially alive on a machine. When your quality of life is so far gone, that you have to be kept alive by a machine, many people choose rather to die. That would certainly be my choice. Also, I would never want to be kept alive as a quadriplegic. That is me, others may feel differently. No one has a right to judge and condemn other people, who are having to cope with such a difficult situation.

Having said that, I don't believe in assisted suicide. But when the body is naturally unable to sustain life anymore, it is up to the individual alone what choice they make. What will one's quality of life be going forward? This is a delicate and controversial topic. I do not judge anyone for their choices in this matter, because I have seen how difficult it is for families to face such heart-breaking circumstances.

Of course, it is a lot different (being much better) for Christians to face the future, knowing that death for a saint is merely a graduation from this life to the next with Jesus Christ in Heaven. 2nd Corinthians 5:8-9, " We are confident, I say, and willing rather*to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord*. Wherefore we labour, that, whether present or absent, we may be accepted of him." The unbeliever in Jesus Christ as their Savior has no hope according to the Scriptures:

> 1st Thessalonians 4:13, "But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him. For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep. For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord. Wherefore comfort one another with these words."

Please notice 1st Thessalonians 4:14, "For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him."

That is the Gospel! Anyone who comes to God as a needy sinner—receiving Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for their sins, believing that Jesus was buried and bodily resurrected from the dead three days later—is immediately, irrevocably and forever saved.

Dear reader, we don't know what a day may bring. Proverbs 27:1, "Boast not thyself of to morrow; for thou knowest not what a day may bring forth." Dear friend, you and I could already have cancer lurking in our bodies, and not know it yet. If you and I were to find out today that we only have a few months to live, it would turning our world upside down. Yet, we know for certain that we will die within the next 100 years, much sooner no doubt. God willing, I will be 56 years old (or young, depending on how you look at it) on March 5th, 2023. If I am fortunate and blessed to live to THREESCORE AND TEN (70 years old; which is the Bible's average projected lifespan for a human being), then I only have a little over 14 years remaining. My dear biological mother went to Heaven at age 65. My biological father went to Heaven at age 76 in 2010. So at most I MIGHT have 20 years left to live on earth. I still feel like I am 18 years old in my mind and soul.

I was saddened earlier this year when singer Oliva Newton John (1948-2022) died. I love her 1980 song, " [2]Suddenly ,

” sang with Cliff Richard. Although [3]Olivia claimed to be a Christian, I am doubtful because most people who profess to be Christians are deceived by the Devil. All of the following religions claims to be Christians, but they are not; namely, Roman Catholic, Mormon, Jehovah’s Witness, Seventh-Day Adventist, Lutheran, United Methodist, Church of England (Anglican), Unitarian Universalist and Church of Christ (to name but a few major pseudo-Christian cults). Most of those cults add and require water baptism to faith, in order to get to Heaven, thus corrupting God’s grace. Biblically, you just need to realize that you are a guilty sinner in the sight of a holy God, and accept His free gift of eternal life through faith alone in the GOOD NEWS of His only begotten Son crucified, buried and risen (1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

I couldn’t find anything online where Olivia Newton John gives a clear testimony of her faith. This doesn’t mean that she didn’t go to Heaven. We simply do not know. Like so many celebrities, who fear career suicide if they refuse to support the heathen world, [4]Olivia was openly supportive of homosexual rights. The preceding link to Hollowverse states that Olivia praised Buddhism and Hinduism, as well as the Jewish religion (i.e., Judaism).

That is the same mumbo-jumbo testimony of The Beatles’ Paul McCartney. They are afraid to make any bold claims, lest they alienate themselves from millions of fans of a different religion. So we see Paul at different times in his life professing to be agnostic. In his song, “Let It Be,” he praises Mother Mary in Roman Catholicism. Early in Paul’s music career he embraced fellow band member George Harrison’s eastern religion of Hara Krishna, a demonic pagan cult. I do not say that to be unkind, but truthful according to the inspired Holy Bible. We are living in wicked times in 2022, almost 2023. In Timothy 3:1-2 that Word of God calls these “perilous times,” and they sure are. I watched another creepy documentary today called: Growing Up Trans...

Growing Up Trans (full documentary) - FRONTLINE

Young people are confused nowadays. It doesn't help that society caters to their gender-bending confusion by promoting such wickedness. Genesis 1:27, " So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them." No matter how much a biological boy may feel like a female, or desire to become a female, or be told be liberal friends and society that he is a girl, if he had male genitalia at birth, he will always be a male. God doesn't make mistakes. Search online and you will discover that due to manmade toxins and industrial waste (pollutions), environmentalists are finding six-legged frogs, male frogs with female sex organs and other bizarre mutations in nature. Who knows what all these contaminants are doing to humans! We are now living in the PERILOUS TIMES foretold in the inspired Holy Scripture!!!

I have resolved in my soul to dedicate the rest of my life to serving God. I get frustrated often, but that is a part of life. There are people that you know dear reader, whom only you can reach with the Gospel to get saved. You are the only Jesus that someone knows! It is tragic how pathetic the churches have become. The love of money has overtaken 99 % of today's Bible colleges and churches, so that individual people don't matter to them. The system always comes first, and making more money to pay their bills. It is apostasy! I am talking about ungodly cesspools of heresy like Pensacola Christian College (PCC) in Florida, who wickedly bid Godspeed to damnable false prophet Ken Ham.

Here is a list of apostate religious colleges that wickedly bid Godspeed to Ken Ham.

Colleges Suggested by Ken Ham's wicked Answers in Genesis:

1) Cedarville Christian College, Box 601, Cedarville, OH

2) Clearwater Christian College, 3400 Gulf-to-Bay Blvd., Clearwater, FL

3) Pensacola Christian College, 5409 Rawson Rd., Pensacola, FL

4) Masters College, 21726 West Pacerita Canyon Rd., Newhall, CA

5) Mid-America Baptist Theological Seminary, 2810 Curry Rd. ,Schenectady, NY

6) Masters Seminary, 13248 Roscoe Blvd., Sun Valley, CA

7) Appalachian Bible College, 100 N. Sandbranch Rd., Bradley, WV

8) Detroit Baptist Theological Seminary, 4801 Allen Road, Allen Park, MI

9) Southeastern Bible College, 3001 Highway 280 East, Birmingham, AL

10) Bahnsen Theological Seminary, P.O. Box 328, Placentia, CA

11) Word of Life Bible Institute, Pottersville, NY

12) Jackson Hole Bible College, P.O. Box 6490, Jackson, WY

13) Seattle Bible College, 2363 N.W. 80th Street, Seattle, WA

14) Christian Heritage College, 2100 Greenfield Drive, El Cajon, CA

Sadly, Pensacola Christian College appears in the list. Ken Ham is recommending these apostate institutions, where your child will be indoctrinated with false repentance, and the lies of a [6]Young Earth Creation fallacy. We are living in woeful times of deception. SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES Jesus said in John 5:39, so that you won't be misled and deceived by Satan.

3.11.24 What Happens When A Saint Dies? (2022-11-25 19:47)

2nd Corinthians 5:1-3, "For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. For in this we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed upon with our house which is from heaven: If so be that being clothed we shall not be found naked."

Here is a helpful article that I wrote titled: "[1]Where Are The Dead?"

When Jesus died, I believe Biblically that He went to the Paradise side of Hell to bring the Old Testament saints to Heaven. It is my humble opinion, based on Luke 16:19-31 and 2nd Corinthians 5:1-11, that when a saint dies, we will be escorted by our guardian angels to Heaven. Matthew 18:10, "Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones; for I say unto you, That in heaven their angels do always behold the face of my Father which is in heaven." Dying, I think, will be a startling experience. I do not think we will notice a break in conscience when we die. When that moment of death comes, when our soul separates from our physical body, I expect to see my dead body from my departed spirit. I cannot imagine God leaving us to panic, not knowing what is going on when we graduate from this life to the next. Death is not truly death for the believe in Christ, it the the beginning of a new life in Heaven. Death is only true death for the unbeliever (Revelation 21:8). So I think, as Lazarus saw himself, at least two angels will be there to greet us at death, and they will kindly explain to us what has happened to comfort us. That is speculation mind you, I do not know. But we do know that at least two angels met Lazarus when he died in Luke 16:9-31.

In sharp contrast, the unsaved rich man died in his sleep and woke up directly in Hell. There were no angels to greet him, nor comfort him, he just laid his head down on his expensive comfortable pillow, and then woke up burning in the torments of Hell beneath. What a horrifying thing to happen to anyone! But dear friend, this will also be YOUR FATE if you die in your sins without Jesus Christ as your personal Savior. John 8:24, "I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sins: for if ye believe not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins."

Ah, but if you have been born-again dear reader, by simply believing the Gospel (Good News) of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen the third day (1st Corinthians 15:1-6), then you will die in the Lord instead. Revelation 14:13, "And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them." So which will it be for you dear friend? Will you DIE IN YOUR SINS and spend eternity suffering in Hell with the former rich man; OR, will you DIE IN THE LORD with me and others who believe on the Lord Jesus Christ (Acts 16:30-31), without works (Romans 4:4-7), so we can spend eternity with Jesus in glory?

I humbly think we will be taken directly to Heaven when we die as saints. I also think that God gives us some type of temporary body in Heaven. Abraham had a body in Paradise. I agree with Pastor Max D. Younce that Hell (Hades in Greek is compartmentalized. We see this truth in Luke 16:19-31. Abraham was on the Paradise side (also called "Abraham's Bosom"). The place of Torment is on the other side, and there is a Great Gulf the Bible says between them, so that no one can pass over. The rich man (now poorer than poor) begged for a single drop of water, but was denied. That is horrifying! He was conscious, and feeling pain in his body. He did have a body. How else could he find a single drop of water refreshing to quench his dire thirst? How else could he feel pain in the fire?

I highly recommend that you read the book by Dr. Max Younce titled: "[2]A BIBLICAL EXAMINATION OF HELL." You can either purchase a hardcopy of the book, or read and/or download the free .pdf version at the preceding link to the Heritage Baptist Bible Church. Dr. Younce expounds the reader about the topic of Hell in the inspired Word of God.

In the Bible God's good angels always appeared in a physical body, never as a mere spirit entity. [3]I believe that Heaven is a physical place in the northern part of the universe, based on Psalm 75:6-7.

When Jesus ascended to leave the earth, He physically departed, escorted by angels, SEEN by the disciples:

> Acts 1:9-11, "And when he had spoken these things, while they beheld, he was taken up; and a cloud received him out of their sight. And while they looked stedfastly toward heaven as he went up, behold, two men stood by them in white apparel; Which also said, Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? this same Jesus, which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven."

So Jesus left in a physical body. And the angels said that Jesus is coming back in a physical body. Revelation 1:7 says that every eye shall see him. Some flat earth nuts like Pastor David Hoffman, use this passage to prove that the earth is flat. That is crazy. We can see via cameras what is going on all around the world today. But the Bible says even people in Hell, those who crucified the Lord, shall also see Him. I am not sure how God will make this happen, but there is nothing too hard for God to do. But I can say without a doubt that the earth is definitely NOT flat, it is a sphere (not perfectly round, kind of egg shaped scientists tell us, but a sphere nonetheless). Even the book of Isaiah says that the Lord sitteth upon “ the circle of the earth ” (Isaiah 40:22).

I think that Heaven is a physical place, with physical thrones upon which God the Father and God the Son sit. Colossians 3:1, “If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God.”

By the way, this Scripture passage refutes the diabolical heresy of Modalism (the Devil’s lie that Jesus is not a physically separate person from God the Father). As Christians we are what in theology is called “TRINITARIAN” in our beliefs. That is, we believe that God is triune in nature (3-in-1). There is only one God, but He has manifest Himself to humanity in the three persons of; namely, God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit (Matthew 28:19-20; Colossians 2:2, 9; 1st John 5:7 - only King James Bible, all modern Bible revisions are corrupt).

I think the departed saints have physical bodies in Heaven, but not their glorified bodies yet. This is mere speculation, I cannot prove this. But our text passage from 2nd Corinthians 5:1-3 seems to indicate that believers in Heaven have a body of some sort, as did Abraham in Paradise. In the book of Revelation, a saint appeared to John in physical body. When John bowed down to worship him, he rebuked John, because he was a like brother, a saint in the Lord.

I also do not believe in “Soul Sleep,” a popular false teaching taught among Jehovah’s Witnesses and Seventh-Day Adventists, which says that the spirit and soul of a deceased person also stays asleep with the body until a future resurrection. Jesus said that the Sadducees erred in their doctrine, knowing not that God is not the God of the dead, but of the living. This is further evidence against the idea of soul sleep. Our bodies mortal dead bodies will remain asleep until the Rapture, at which time every saint will receive our immortal eternal bodies...

> 1st Corinthians 15:51-58,
>
> “Behold, I shew you a mystery; We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed,
>
> In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.
>
> For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.
>
> So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory.
> O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?
>
> The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law.
>
> But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.
>
> Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.

Amen and amen! Whatever happens to us as saints, we have the blessed Scriptural hope that our future will be bright, cheerful and rewarding in the Lord; versus the eternal damnation, undoable rot, bitter regret, immense tears and inexplicable suffering for all unbelievers. I am so thankful to God for His free gift of eternal life, through simple faith in Jesus Christ...

> 1st Thessalonians 4:14-15, "But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him."

3.11.25 Billy Sunday's Three Sons All Went To The Devil (2022-11-26 14:08)

Proverbs 29:15, " The rod and reproof give wisdom: but a child left to himself bringeth his mother to shame." Ephesians 6:4,

"And, ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.

One of the most famous revival preachers of the 20th century was Evangelist Billy Sunday (1862-1935). Yet, tragically, Billy Sunday himself pained in his soul to admit publicly that his three adult sons were all Christ-rejecting, hellbound, heathens...

> Billy Sunday was the most famous and successful evangelist of the early 1900's. He was a flamboyant professional baseball player who met Christ at Pacific Garden Mission in Chicago. Within a few years he had formed a very successful crusade team which captured media attention all over the country. He is remembered as a colorful preacher who not only led multitudes to Christ, but also led the fight against ending prohibition.
> Billy Sunday would be considered a success by almost any standard. Yet he lamented, "The great tragedy of my life is that though I have led thousands to Christ, my own sons are not saved." Indeed his sons mocked their father's ministry and were drunks with horrible family lives, one of whom ended his life by suicide.
> It was the practice of the Sundays to leave their children in the care of a nanny while they pursued their ministry. Maybe we should note that fact as we discern what truly is redeeming the time.
> SOURCE: [1]Billy Sunday's Children

I do not judge Billy and Helen Sunday, because every human being has their own freewill to choose and decide. In the Old Testament, Josiah grew up in a wicked home, having wicked Amon for his father, and wicked Manasseh for his grandfather. Yet, Josiah chose to serve the Lord.

The inspired Word of God is very clear that God will not hold children accountable for the sins of their parents, nor hold parents accountable for the sins of their children. Ezekiel 18:20, "The soul that sinneth, it shall die. The son shall not bear the iniquity of the father, neither shall the father bear the iniquity of the son: the righteousness of the righteous shall be upon him, and the wickedness of the wicked shall be upon him." We all have nobody to blame but ourselves. But that doesn't mean God won't hold parents accountable for their failure as parents to raise up their children in the nurture and admonition of the Lord. We will all be judged according to our works, even Christians (Revelation 14:13; 2nd Corinthians 5:10-11). The unsaved will be judged at the Great White Throne Judgment (Revelation 20:11-15).

> Billy and Nell Sunday had four children. Nell often traveled with her husband, later becoming his business manager, and the couple hired a full-time governess to take care of their children. Both parents were closest to their oldest child, Helen E. Sunday (1890-1932). She married Mark P. Harris in 1913, and they lived in Michigan. The Sundays' three sons, George M. Sunday (1892-1933), William A. Sunday Jr. (1901-1938), and Paul T. Sunday (1907-1944), worked on their father's campaigns at various times. All three men had unstable lives, including multiple marriages and financial troubles.

SOURCE: [2]Billy Sunday

The Sunday's troubled oldest child, George Sunday (1892-1933) commit suicide at age 40. George had been arrested for public drunkenness and stealing a vehicle. The Sunday's only daughter, Helen Haines

(1890-1932)

, died in 1932 at age 42 of what is commonly believed today to have been Multiple Sclerosis

. I feel so sorry for Billy and his wife Nell, who suffered so much heartache in so little time:

1. The Sunday's daughter Helen Haines dies of Multiple Sclerosis in 1932 at age 40
2. George Sunday is arrested for stealing a vehicle and public intoxication
3. George then commits suicide on September 11th, 1933
4. Some of the ex-wives of Sunday's three sons tried to blackmail their in-laws to pay money for their silence about their son's debauchery
5. Prohibition ends on December 5th, 1933, undoing nearly everything that Billy Sunday worked so hard to fight against most of his adult life as a Bible preacher
6. Billy Sunday himself dies in 1935 at age 72, leaving his wife Helen (whom Billy often called "Nell" or "Ma" Sunday") all alone. She went to Heaven in 1957 at age 88.
7. Billy Sunday Jr. (1901-1938) died of Pneumonia in 1938 at age 37
8. Paul Sunday, a test pilot, died in an airplane crash in 1944 (Helen Sunday outlived ALL of her four children and her beloved husband)

Those are just the tragedies that I am aware of, I am sure that there were many more on top of all that. My heart goes out to Helen Sunday, whom Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) met years later. She suffered so many heartaches during her life, but as God's redeemed saints we know it will be worth it all when we see Jesus.

Sadly, Billy Sunday's three sons caused him and their mother Helen Sunday much grief. T he Sunday's three sons were [3]pampered and largely reared by strangers , because of Billy Sunday's busy lifestyle. The sons embarrassed their parents with their errant sordid lifestyles. As I mentioned earlier, George was arrested for drunkenness and auto theft before he committed suicide in 1932; Billy Jr., died from Pneumonia after an automobile accident in 1938 at age 37; and Paul, a test pilot, died in an airplane crash in 1944. Furthermore, their oldest child, Helen Haines, though happily married, developed a degenerative disease and died of pneumonia in 1932. No parent should have to outlive their children and bear that pain of soul.

The boys' ex-wives remained a continuing dilemma for the Sundays. Some blackmailed the evangelist to keep quiet about their son's infidelities. Others used gentler techniques to extract money, and Nell often provided friendly advice to the women when she responded with financial assistance.

I would never condemn any parent for the sins, mistakes, crimes or failures of their children. Albeit, I think we can learn a lesson from all this. It is obvious to me that Billy and Helen Sunday made an unwise decision when they hired a nanny to raise their children. The Proverbs 31 woman was a mother to her own children. She didn't outsource the job to some paid stranger. It is Biblical for women to stay home to rear their own children. 1st Timothy 5:14-15, " I will therefore that the younger women marry, bear children, guide the house, give none occasion to the adversary to speak reproachfully.

For some are already turned aside after Satan.

I heard Pastor Jack Hyles in person, when I was a member of the great soulwinning First Baptist Church of Hammond in Indiana, crying through tears from his pulpit, blaming himself for the sins and failures of his adult children, particular his son. Dr. Hyles said that while he was so busy trying to save America, he lost his own children. That is tragic!

Yet, I do not condemn Pastor Jack Hyles nor Evangelist Billy Sunday. They did what they believed was right at the time to save a nation for imminent destruction if we don't see great revivals across the nation. Sadly, we've never needed those type of citywide revivals any more than today in 2022. 2023 is just around the corner. Only one of two things will bring America to our knees. One is massive tragedy; such as, a nuclear holocaust nationwide. I sincerely and humbly think that is exactly what Revelation chapter 18 is about, the coming destruction of the United States. I triple-dog dare you to read Revelation 18, and then tell me what other country fits that vivid description any better than The United States of America.

3.11.26 Our No Longer 'Great Country' Is Going To The Devil (2022-11-26 14:09)

Proverbs 30:14, "There is a generation, whose teeth are as swords, and their jaw teeth as knives, to devour the poor from off the earth, and the needy from among men."

The only other thing that can bring revival to America is truth-telling, uncompromising, people-loving, Holy Spirit filled, freely-given, Bible preaching across the pulpits of our nation...

> "Old-fashioned, Spirit-filled, Christ-honoring, sin-hating, soul-winning, Bible preaching! It is the hope of the church! It is the hope of the nation! It is the hope of the world!" —[1]Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001)

I've been hearing a lot in the mainstream media lately about the coming Great Reset (which is just a cute name for the Devil's sinister New World Order). I do not claim to know the future of America, apart from what anyone can read for them self in the inspired Word of God. I have been doing my best to keep up with the news and trends of our country, and in my humble opinion the handwriting is on the wall (a reference to Daniel 5:5, when king Nebuchadnezzar's son Belshazzar read the mysterious handwriting upon his wall).

Having said that, in my humble opinion, guns will be banned in the United States soon (within the next 20 years if not this year). Liberal Democrat, President Joe Biden, vowed this Thanksgiving week to do everything in his power to make it illegal to own, sell or trade "Assault Weapons." I wasn't familiar with that term, since I am not a gun person (i.e., I don't own any guns and never have, except a Crossman BB gun as a teenager that my Dad got for me to kill rats. I haven't even owned a BB gun for the past 35 years). I personally am afraid of guns, so I refuse to own one. You literally couldn't pay me to own one! But I am all for the 2nd Amendment, without which U.S. citizens are vulnerable to government tyranny (which we are seeing everywhere today. A perfect example is the massive censorship of free speech by big tech companies on social media, which the U.S. government sanctions and empowers by use of the courts. The USA is as bad as Communist China today!).

I learned today that the term "Assault Weapons" is a fabricated phrase by the ungodly Democrats, Marxists, Communists and liberals who want to remove guns entirely from society. That is, they want to completely DISARM every American citizen!!! If you don't believe what I say dear reader, [2]then you need to WAKE UP! I say that kindly. The first thing that every monstrous dictator throughout history did, when they invaded a sovereign country, was to disarm the people. If guns are outlawed for U.S. citizens, then only criminals and our oppressive government will have them! What our wicked city, state and federal government requires U.S. citizens to pay in total tax revenues annually is OPPRESSION!!!

I was 100 % correct back in 2002 (the year I started my website ministry), when I humbly predicted that homosexuality would eventually become legal at the federal level. That prediction came true in June of 2015, when the ungodly U.S. Supreme Court legalized Same Sex Marriage (perversion) in all 50 states. In October of 2022, Canada banned guns in their country, because of what is going on across the United States. So far in 2022, the U.S. has seen 600 mass-shootings!!! I couldn't believe that number at first, but it is accurate. What will likely happen is the same tactic that the government used to legalize abortion in 1972 and homosexuality's in 2015, through incremental steps.

We will likely see some individual states outlaw gun ownership first, and then when a majority of the states have piled on the bandwagon, the U.S. Supreme Court will bans guns at the federal level for all 50 states. This is how they always get away with taking away citizen's God-given rights. The problem is not guns, it is broken people. We need to bring the inspired Holy Bible back into the school system. Better yet, I agree with President Donald Trump that we need to get rid of the public school system, and allow local cities and states to run their own schools. That would eliminate the real threat of government indoctrination of impressionable children with blatant Marxist fraud of evolution, which is intended to remove God from every child's life. Your not going to indoctrinate a child for 50 hours a week (including school and homework time) without doing major damage to that child's soul. A mind is a terrible thing to waste, which is the goal of the Public Fool System, to ruin your child and recruit them to be another pawn in the game for the coming Great Reset (aka, the diabolical New World Order).

It is tragic what happened to Billy Sunday's children, but dear friend, it is happening to tens of millions of children today in America. I implore you to get your children out of that damnable public school system as fast as you can!!! You might as well say, "Here Devil is my child, you can have him (or her)." Those teachers DON'T care about your child, they care about their paycheck. Sadly, in ungodly tyrannical states like California, it is against the law now to homeschool your child. We have lost our way in America! Greed is everywhere.

The True Cause Of Homelessness Across America

I watched a documentary today on YouTube about the housing crisis across the United States. One man was frustrated because he bought a mobile home in a community owned by a private contractor. So he has to pay HOA fees. HOA means “Homeowners Association.” That man owns his house outright. It is totally paid for. Yet he has to pay a fee every month to the HOA to have a pet in his own paid house. That should be illegal. I hate HOA’s and it will be a cold day in Hell before buy a house in one. No one is going to nickel and dime me to death!

Anyway, getting back to my predictions. I humbly think that homelessness will get MUCH worse across the country. How can it not get much worse, when that wicked fool President Joe Biden allowed 5,000,000 more illegal (criminal) aliens to flood into our country since he took office in 2020? The main reason for massive homelessness nationwide is an ongoing lack of affordable housing. California alone has over 100,000 homeless people right now. ...

Los Angeles Homeless Skid row - February 11, 2022
(This poverty is caused by the Federal Reserve System)

Dear reader, you will hear the dumbed-down, Zionist-controlled, newsmedia blame everything for the homelessness crisis except the true culprit, which is THE FEDERAL RESERVE ACT passed in 1913. It is a classic [3]Ponzi Scheme, where there is no actual intrinsic wealth involved. President Richard Nixon took all U.S. currency off of the Gold Standard on August 15th, 1971. The measure was allegedly supposed to only be temporary, but like all criminals who lie to steal and deceive people, it was a permanent change. [4]Yes dear friend, your money is TOTALLY WORTHLESS!!!

Since there is no true value, all our corrupt U.S. government can do to pay their bills is either take more wealth away from WE THE PEOPLE, or print more money out of thin air. Every Ponzi Scheme in history has ultimately FAILED (and so will the fraudulent Federal Reserve System). The more trillions of dollars that our federal government keeps BORROWING in OUR name, it causes prices TO INCREASE. Inflation is a tax. INFLATION IS A TAX!!! Don’t forget that. Every time that our irresponsible government borrows more money, the private criminal banking families (who own and control the 12 regional Federal Reserve Banks) use the U.S. treasury to print more money out of nothing (which is called “FIAT money,” or as Dr. Ron Paul rightly calls it, “

Now you know why housing is so insanely priced across America. It is simple Supply & Demand economics. The more of something that exists, the less it is worth. Each time that our rotten government borrows and prints more money into circulation in society, the value of the U.S. dollar decreases, which forces prices up (i.e., inflation increases across the board for everything—food, housing, utilities, water, insurance, rental cars, dining out, prescription drugs, construction, et cetera). As with all Ponzi Schemes, the perpetrators at the top who run the scam profit handsomely, living large at the expense of the unfortunate people at the bottom of the pyramid (i.e., tens of millions of financially struggling Americans, many of whom are one paycheck away from living in their car).

Dear reader, as long as the Ponzi Scheme of the Federal Reserve System still exists, economic hardship in the United States can only continue to get MUCH worse in the future. I read a few months ago that [5]our corrupt U.S. federal government insanely BORROWED $40,000,000,000 from China and then gave that money to Ukraine to help fight THEIR WAR! Rule number one of sound government is that you don’t borrow money when you’re in debt to give to other countries! In case you didn’t know, [6]the United States is over $31,000,000,000,000 in debt!!! Something is VERY wrong when our corrupt U.S. government will borrow $40 billion from China to give to Ukraine, while millions of hurting Americans are homeless, suffer from rotting teeth and cannot make ends meet financially. I truly cannot blame Americans for leaving the U.S. by the droves in recent years.

If you want to learn more about the diabolical Federal Reserve Hoax, I highly recommend that you read Professor G. Edward Griffin’s prolific book titled: "[7]THE CREATURE FROM JEKYLL ISLAND." Here is a lecture of the preceding great book by Professor G. Edward Griffin...

The Creature From Jekyll Island
(by G. Edward Griffin)

Freedom is NOT free dear reader. All it requires for evil to triumph is for good men to do nothing. Our nation's third U.S. President Thomas Jefferson (1743-1826) said that. Jefferson was so right!!! It saddens and frustrates me that less than .001 % of pastors today ever expose the evils of the Federal Reserve scam. Besides myself, I only know of TWO pastors who expose the Federal Reserve hoax. One was Dr. Texe Marrs (1944-2019) and the other is Pastor Steven Anderson. I'm sure that there are some others, but I am not aware of any.

When Americans turn on the television to catch the news, we are told that poverty and the housing crisis in America are the result of anything and everything except the real causes, which include:

1. The treasonous fraudulent Federal Reserve System since 1913
2. The criminal flood of 50,000,000 illegal aliens into the country since the 1970's
3. Deindustrialization (American companies exploiting cheap foreign labor at the expense of American manufacturing jobs),
4. Technology replacing humans in the workplace
5. Misappropriation of tens of billions of dollars designated to help house the homeless.
6. Covetoeusness and indifference among the HAVES toward the HAVE NOTS

In the preceding eye-opening documentary, Professor G. Edward Griffin gives seven reasons why the Federal Reserve needs to be abolished, not audited:

1. It is incapable of accomplishing its stated objectives
2. It is a cartel operating against the public interest
3. It is the supreme instrument of usury
4. It generates are most unfair tax
5. It encourages war
6. It destabilizes the economy
7. It is an instrument of totalitarianism

The Federal Reserve System is truly THE CREATURE from Jekyll Island, Georgia, where it was wickedly devised in 1913 by an ungodly group of thieves, liars and shady con artists. Ecclesiastes 7:29, "Lo, this only have I found, that God hath made man upright; but they have sought out many inventions." Our nation was far better off when our money was 100 % backed by gold. The original intent of paper currency was to remove the burden of carrying around bags of heavy gold coins. But evil men abused this new convenience, concocting a clever scam called: The Fractional Reserve Banking System.

This new scam started in 1913 (aka, The Federal Reserve Act) allowed the U.S. government to spend ten times more money than they had gold in reserve. Hence, the "fractional reserve" banking system. This enabled the banking elite to instigate World War I, making themselves a financial fortune from supplying BOTH SIDES of the war with tanks, uniforms, gas masks, guns, ammunition, et cetera. It was called: "The War To End All Wars," which claimed the lives of over 20,000,000 human beings. Sadly, it was not the end of all wars, it was the beginning of the deadliest kind of warfare that the planet has ever known. [8]War is a racket!

3.11.27 How Do People Get Sucked Into A Cult? (2022-11-27 10:59)

John 5:37-40, "And the Father himself, which hath sent me, hath borne witness of me. Ye have neither heard his voice at any time, nor seen his shape. And ye have not his word abiding in you: for whom he hath sent, him ye believe not. Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me. And ye will not come to me, that ye might have life."

I think it is safe to say that nearly everyone has heard about the creepy Heaven's Gate Cult in California that claimed the lives of 39 people from mass-suicide in 1997. Here is what Wikipedia has to say about the cult...

> Heaven's Gate was an American new religious movement (often described as a cult), founded in 1974 and led by Bonnie Nettles (1927–1985) and Marshall Applewhite (1931–1997), known within the movement as Ti and Do, respectively. Nettles and Applewhite first met in 1972 and went on a journey of spiritual discovery, identifying themselves as the two witnesses of Revelation, attracting a following of several hundred people in the mid-1970s. In 1976, the group stopped recruiting and instituted a monastic lifestyle.
> Scholars have described the theology of Heaven's Gate as a mixture of Christian millenarianism, New Age, and ufology, and as such it has been characterized as a UFO religion. The central belief of the group was that followers could transform themselves into immortal extraterrestrial beings by rejecting their human nature, and they would ascend to heaven, referred to as the "Next Level" or "The Evolutionary Level Above Human". The death of Nettles from cancer in 1985 challenged the group's views on ascension, where they originally believed that they would ascend to heaven while alive aboard a UFO, they later came to believe that the body was merely a "container" or "vehicle" for the soul, and that their consciousness would be transferred to new "Next Level bodies" upon death.
> On March 26, 1997, deputies of the San Diego County Sheriff's Department discovered the bodies of the 39 active members of the group, including that of Applewhite, in a house in the San Diego suburb of Rancho Santa Fe. They had participated in a mass suicide, a coordinated series of ritual suicides, coinciding with the closest approach of Comet Hale–Bopp. Just before the mass suicide, the group's website was updated with the message: "Hale–Bopp brings closure to Heaven's Gate ...our 22 years of classroom here on planet Earth is finally coming to conclusion—'graduation' from the Human Evolutionary Level. We are happily prepared to leave 'this world' and go with Ti's crew."

The name "Heaven's Gate" was only used for the final few years of the group's existence, and they had previously been known under the names Human Individual Metamorphosis and Total Overcomers Anonymous.

"Truth is stranger than fiction," as it has often been said. I encourage you to read the rest of the story on Wikipedia, which is bizarre to say the least. You might want to sit down for some of this, because it is so crazy that it might make you feel weak. I did read it myself and my hair is standing up (what's left of it...lol). I took my time researching this subject, to try to find out how 38 intelligent thinking people allowed themselves to become victims of a psychotic religious madman!!!

As it turns out, the cult's leader and founder

Marshall Applewhite (1931–1997) was the son of a Presbyterian pastor. Go figure! The famous soulwinning evangelist, Billy Sunday (1862-1935), was also a Presbyterian minister. But like Marshall Applewhite, Billy Sunday's three sons caused him and their mother, Helen Sunday, much grief.

Sunday's oldest son, George Sunday (1892-1933), was arrested for public drunkenness and for steaking a vehicle. He commit suicide in 1933, which broke his parent's heart.

he Sunday's three sons were [2]pampered and largely reared by strangers, because of Billy Sunday's busy lifestyle, embarrassed their parents with their errant lifestyles. George was arrested for drunkenness and auto theft before he committed suicide in 1932. Billy, Jr. died in an automobile accident in 1938; and Paul, a test pilot, died in an airplane crash in 1944. Furthermore, their oldest child, Helen Haines, though happily married, developed a degenerative disease and died of pneumonia in 1932.

The boys' ex-wives remained a continuing dilemma for the Sundays. Some blackmailed the evangelist to keep quiet about their son's infidelities. Others used gentler techniques to extract money, and Nell often provided friendly advice to the women when she responded with financial assistance. from Wikipedia on Hellen's bio

Marshall was fired from the University of St. Thomas in Houston, Texas after being exposed for having a homosexual relationship with a male student. The story gets a lot more bizarre...

> Applewhite and Nettles pondered the life of St. Francis of Assisi and read works by Helena Blavatsky, R. D. Laing, and Richard Bach. They kept a King James Bible and studied passages from the New Testament focusing on Christology, asceticism, and eschatology. Applewhite also read science fiction, including works by Robert A. Heinlein and Arthur C. Clarke. By June 19, Applewhite and Nettles's beliefs had solidified. They concluded that they had been chosen to fulfill biblical prophecies, and that they had been given higher-level minds than other people. They wrote a pamphlet that described Jesus' reincarnation as a Texan, a veiled reference to Applewhite. Furthermore, they concluded that they were the two witnesses described in the Book of Revelation and occasionally visited churches or other spiritual groups to speak of their identities, often referring to themselves as "The Two", or "The UFO Two". They believed they would be killed and then resurrected and, in view of others, transported onto a spaceship. This event, which they referred to as "the Demonstration", was to prove their claims. To their dismay, these ideas were poorly received by other religious groups.
> SOURCE: [3]Heaven's Gate Cult

The story gets a lot more bizarre...

> The Two would gain their first follower, Sharon Morgan, in May 1974, abandoning her children to join them. A month later Sharon left The Two and returned to her family. Nettles and Applewhite were arrested and charged with credit card fraud for using Morgan's cards, despite the fact that she had consented to their use. The charges were later dropped. However a routine check brought up that Applewhite had stolen a rental car from St. Louis nine months earlier, which he still possessed. Applewhite then spent six months in jail primarily in Missouri, and was released in early 1975, subsequently rejoining Nettles.
> SOURCE: [4]Heaven's Gate Cult

I'll let you read the rest of the crazy story if you want, but I have shared enough of the ungodly lives of Marshall Applewhite and his wife to make my point. Why did 37 people end up following these cult leaders? Sadly, I see this same deception in many Baptist churches today. Case in point is the Independent Baptist Church in Ocala, Florida. Their cult leader is named Sam Adams, [5]who preaches hardcore Lordship Salvation (i.e., Calvinism). You can find his damnable videos on YouTube on false repentance, in which he requires people to forsake a sinful lifestyle to get to Heaven. Pastor Adams insists that no one can go to Heaven who hasn't surrendered to the absolute Lordship of Christ in every area of your life. That is WORKS!!! I agree 100 % with Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) that [6]Lordship Salvation is a PERVERSION OF GOD'S GRACE!!!

So, the SAME reason why Pastor Sam Adam's church members are following him into the fires of Hell, is the SAME reason why Marshall Applewhite led his followers into the fires of Hell. There is no difference! So how do people get sucked into a damnable cult? The answer is found in our text Scripture passage...

> John 5:37-40, "And the Father himself, which hath sent me, hath borne witness of me. Ye have neither heard his voice at any time, nor seen his shape. And ye have not his word abiding in you: for whom he hath sent, him ye believe not. Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me. And ye will not come to me, that ye might have life."

Jesus said to SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES!!! Dear reader, if you always

SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES

you won't be led astray into a cult. Carefully notice in the preceding quotes from Wikipedia about Marshall Applewhite that he carried a KING JAMES BIBLE everywhere he went. Unfortunately, he also studied the occult writings of Satanist Helena Blavatsky (1831-1891). As we read earlier, s cholars have described the perverse theology of Heaven's Gate cult as a mixture of Christian millenarianism, New Age and ufology, and as such it has been characterized as a UFO religion.

In other words, Marshall Applewhite was once messed up puppy! Dear reader, only a fool adds to what God has said in His Word. Proverbs 30:5-6, "

Every word of God is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him.

Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar."

An idle mind is the Devil's workshop! Or as a popular 1990 country song by Aaron Tippin says: "[7]You've Got To Stand For Something, Or You'll Fall For Anything." If you SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES, and do not add men's words to what God has said, then you won't be misled and deceived to follow a cult. It saddens me to hear Pastor Sam Adams brainwash these people in his cult, wickedly bidding Godspeed to Pastor John MacArthur (2nd John 1:10-11). Lordship Salvation is NOT the Gospel of free grace. Lordship Salvation says that salvation is a trade, or an exchange. [8]John MacArthur even uses those terms!!!

You may be sucked into a deadly religious cult, and end up burning in the Lake of Fire forever, if you place more weight upon the words of some man, instead of the inspired Word of God. Please use only the King James Bible, because ALL modern Bible revisions have been corrupted by Satan. Also, I encourage you to read the helpful book by Michael P. Bowen titled: '[9]I NEVER KNEW YOU.' Thank you for reading. Remember, eternal life is a free gift from God, that you can only obtain through FAITH ALONE in the GOOD NEWS of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen for YOUR SINS and MINE...

3.12.1 Most Of Our Problems Are Caused By Focusing On The Wrong Things (2022-12-01 17:46)

Hebrews 12:1-2, "Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us, Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God."

Thousands of people are leaving the failing state of California for many reasons. Taxes are insanely high in California. There are now over 100,000 homeless people in the state. The state’s leadership is bedeviled with political corruption, selfish leaders and criminal reckless misappropriation of federal funds entrusted to the state to help it’s poor and needy population.

I read that many Californians are feeling to other states like Idaho, Oregon, Washington, Texas, Florida, South Dakota, Tennessee and North Carolina. People who sell their home in California for $1.5 million are moving to Idaho where you can get a bigger home for only a fraction of the cost at $450,000. Homes in Idaho are difficult to purchase, because dozens of potential buyers are placing their bids on the home. Since there are less homes than people wanting move to Idaho, people are making wild offers.

I read about one family wanting to leave California, to move to Idaho.

They saw a home that they really loved in Idaho, but new they’d likely never get it. So they did something amazing. They told the seller that they’d give them the asking price, plus buy them another home of equal or lesser value of their choosing. Wow! They were willing to pay DOUBLE what the asking price of the house was, and they got the house! That family in California didn’t focus on all the money they had. Instead they focused on buying the nice house that they could raise their children in in Idaho. I think that is a perfect true illustration of how our wrong thinking can limit us. Now, that family could have moved to someplace in Ohio, and pocketed all that extra money. But they didn’t focus on the money, they focused on what was best for their family. I admire that.

I’ll give you another real life example. I have been counseling a lady for a couple years. She is engaged to her boyfriend, planning to tie the knot in several months. But she keeps emailing me to tell me that she is having emotional issues with his impurity in the past. She is a virgin, but he had multiple intimate relationships with women before she met him. She gets upset toward him when she thinks about his previous fornication. But he has repented and now wants to marry this young lady. They both attend a local church in their state. No matter what I say to her, she can’t seem to break loose of her feelings of anger, resentment and jealousy about the woman in his past sinful life.

So I told her that she either needs to let the matter go, because her boyfriend cannot change his past; or she needs to be honest to tell him that she cannot marry him. Personally, I told her that from all she has shared with me, he sounds like a good guy. He works to pay the bills. He has behaved himself toward the opposite sex while dating her. She told me that she is worried that he will cheat on her after they get married. I kindly told her that she is focusing on the wrong things. He is a sinner. If she thinks he won’t make a good and faithful husband, then I told her she shouldn’t marry him. But it is wrong to judge someone based upon an evil that they haven’t even committed yet. You see, she is bitter over the unchangeable past, and worried over an uncertain future. So many people make themselves miserable by thinking about the wrong things.

So my most recent advice to her is to stop focusing on her fiancé’s past, nor the uncertain future. I told her that there is no guarantee that he won’t cheat on her after she married him, nor that she won’t cheat on him (or hurt him in some other way). We are all vulnerable sinners! I kindly told her that she needs to focus on her love for him, and nothing else. Does she love him enough to give herself as a gift to him, even though he has a tainted past when he sinned in fornication? That is something that only she can answer.

I also kindly advised her not to marry this man until she feels perfect peace in her soul about the matter, because if she does their marriage will have a lot of trouble. It is not fair to either of them to marry someone that you feel anger and resentment toward. Whatever it is about someone that irritates and annoys you before you marry them, it WILL be magnified ten times over after you get married. What you see is what you get, and a whole lot more!

So if your boyfriend has an explosive hot temper while dating, he will likely be a monster after you get married. You shouldn't marry anybody who has anger issues! Even Jesus got angry in the Bible, flipping over the moneychanger's tables, but Jesus didn't have an anger issue. You have to size somebody up while dating them, to determine if that person is right for you (and you for them). It has to be mutually beneficial. The chemistry needs to be aggregable.

That is the reason why after 17 years I still refuse to marry my ex-wife. She decided to divorce me in 2006. I begged her not to, but she didn't listen to me and filed for divorce anyway. It was her choice alone. When she finalized the divorce in 2007 she gave me a choice. I now have a choice to either stay single, remarry her or marry someone else. No one is Biblically obligated to remarry someone. She is not permitted to remarry, because she was the one who quit her marriage vows (1st Corinthians 7:27). I have never remarried, simply because I have never met anybody. American women are scary nowadays. They are covered in tattoos. They like to hang out in bars with their girlfriends. Stay away from me! In church it is hit and miss trying to find someone to marry. I haven't been that lucky.

Sadly, my former wife still chooses to look at all the wrong things. Even after 17 years she still refuses to apologize for anything. A couple cannot get back together when one of them is too proud to face her demons, repent and determine in her soul to do better. She wants to blame it all on me and get back together on those terms. Hell will freeze over before I remarry someone who refuses to humble herself to apologize. I told her that I couldn't care less about the apology; but rather, it is the condition of her heart that I am concerned with. Will she make a good wife? The answer so far is, hell no!

I'd rather be alone for the rest of my life than remarry someone who talks over my words, laughs in my face when I'm being serious, badgers me when in tears I attempt to rationalize with her, talks in a condescending manner to me in ways that she wouldn't talk to her dog, and has no respect for me as her former husband. Everything about her thinking is all WRONG! That makes me sad, because I would like to remarry her, but I'd be a fool to do so until she repents. Ever since the divorce she has become a totally different person, so that I don't even know who she is anymore. We are distant friends. She lives 1,000 miles north of me, and that's about the right distance. That is how far her heart is from God.

Kindly said, there are seven layers of hubris and pride that need to be stripped away before I will remarry her. One day at a time. I have often kindly tried to lead her to start thinking differently toward things, but she refuses. I am afraid to remarry her, plain and simple, because of her emotional craziness. Four days after having my gallbladder removed in 2015, she was yelling at me on the phone. I started to cry, because I had 17 stables in my belly and was recovering my major surgery, and she was giving me a hard time on the phone. She couldn't have cared less if I had dropped dead. I still remember her excuses that day when I told her that I just underwent surgery and didn't need her verbal abuse... "Well, I'm a sinner just like you" and "Well, sometimes you get upset at me."

You see, she is using any excuse she can find to harass me, when she fully knew that I just had major surgery four days earlier. Who would want to marry someone like that? When she divorced me, she gave me a gift, sad to say. I love my ex-wife with Christ's love, but marrying her is something entirely different. I have been lonely for 17 years and want a wife. I have been thinking for a few years now of marrying a younger Filipina woman, from the rural countryside, one with traditional family values. I see hundreds of their profiles. I search for Baptists. I have been super patient, like Hosea. But unlike Hosea's wife Gomer, she was still his wife. My former wife ceased to legally be my wife in March of 2007. So I am free to remarry whomsoever I choose, but only in the Lord (i.e., she must be a born-again believer).

The biggest problem with people is that they focus on the wrong things, and it hinders them from being blessed. I am guilty of doing it too. I should have found a wife a long time ago, but I haven't diligently pursued it. Life is messy because people are messy! I am no more righteous than my former wife, but we think very differently toward our sins and failures in the past, so that we are not walking in agreement. She has no respect for me as her former husband, and that is really a bad warning sign. I will keep praying for her. I am her friend.

Divorce is probably the most heated and controversial of all topics in the churches today. People can be so cruel, hateful and self-righteous (like the wicked cult at Pensacola Christian College, where divorced people are shunned, belittled and looked down upon). Only a cult shuns people, like they have done to me. I have been banned in writing from attending Campus Church at PCC. They are rotten hypocrites at PCC, and sadly they couldn't care less about hurting people. What uncaring jerks!!!

I think that is what God means in Proverbs...

> Proverbs 3:5-7, "
>
> Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding.
>
> In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.
> Be not wise in thine own eyes*: fear the LORD, and depart from evil.

What does it mean to acknowledge

God in all our ways? I think it means that we should be focusing on people, life, situations and things from a Biblical perspective. That means we need to become familiar with Scriptural principles, so that we will acquire the knowledge and wisdom to make the right decisions in life. Albeit, I don't care who you are, YOU WILL make some poor choices and bad decisions in life. God knows that I sure have!!!

I cannot tell you exactly what you should be thinking about, but the inspired King James Bible is a perfect place to start. I can tell you from the Bible that money should never be an issue when making life's big decisions. Money will grow wings and fly away. For example: It would be unwise to move to a city where you'll get paid a lot of money, but there are no good churches; versus taking a less paying job elsewhere, but your family will be a good church. Of course, that is an oversimplification. In real life there are always dozens of considerations, so that no one has any right to condemn someone else for where they choose to move to live. So don't worry about what someone else is doing, I am preaching TO YOU!

When we all get to Heaven, we will be required to give account to God as INDIVIDUALS (Romans 14:10-14). I truly dread that day at the Judgment Seat of Christ. I have a lot to answer for, and so do you friend. We all do! The good thing is that unlike the heathen world that judges Christians only by our sins, faults and bad decisions in life; God will judge us by the good we have done as well. God looks at the big picture, not just the negative. That is exactly what the Bible says in 2nd Corinthians 5:10, "For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad."

3.12.2 Ezekiel’s Baby And Wife Died, But He Kept Trying (2022-12-04 09:54)

Ezekiel 24:18, “

So I spake unto the people in the morning: and at even my wife died; and I did in the morning as I was commanded.”

> “It is easier to be faithful and succeed, than it is to be faithful trying to succeed.” —Pastor

Pastor Jack Hyles - “ DIE TRYING ”

The Old Testament Babylonian captivity prophet, Ezekiel, could have used his wife’s death as an excuse no to fulfill his duty for God, but Ezekiel kept on keeping on! He refused to quit or let anything hinder him from fulfilling his work for God.

The prophet Jeremiah was told that he would not succeed when he started. When God called Jeremiah to preach. the Lord told him that he would be a flop. Jeremiah went to prison. He was a flop as a prophet. God told Jeremiah that his people would reject him. Kings would oppose him. Jeremiah’s family and country would oppose him. The prophet would face violence. He was lonely and misunderstood by the people. Jeremiah preached under 6 different kings for 41 years. He never had fire fall on Mount Carmel as did the prophet Elijah. He never build a great church. He never saw a great revival. But the prophet DIED TRYING!!!

Anybody can die trying, but not everybody can die a famous person. As men count success Jeremiah was a flop. After all was said and done, the Jews refused to listen to Jeremiah’s preaching and judgment befell the people.

The prophet Ezekiel was told by God that he would be a flop. Ezekiel preached for 22 years and was told that he would never succeed. Ezekiel got married. She was a beautiful woman, which the Bible calls the desire of his eyes. Ezekiel 24:16, "Son of man, behold, I take away from thee the desire of thine eyes with a stroke: yet neither shalt thou mourn nor weep, neither shall thy tears run down." Poor Ezekiel. They had a beautiful child, but the child died. Then Ezekiel's beloved wife suffered a stroke and died. But Ezekiel kept trying! That faithful man of God kept preaching to Jerusalem... "Judgment's going to come, get right with God!!!"

Ezekiel didn't hesitate when his wife died to continue as a Watchman, warning the people. No doubt his friends told him to take a break and go through the custom Days of Mourning, but Ezekiel refused and said: "God called me to preach. I MUST PREACH!!!" Ezekiel grabbed his Bible and went downtown to preach the next day, just like he always did. You may not be able to succeed, but you don't have to become a turncoat that quits. You can keep on going! If you get knocked down, GET BACK UP!!! Keep trying in Christ's strength. Philippians 4:13, " I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me. "

Ezekiel said in

Ezekiel 24:18, "

So I spake unto the people in the morning: *and at even my wife died; and I did in the morning as I was commanded."

- At even my wife divorced me in 2006, but I did in the morning as I was commanded.
- At even I was unjustly fired from my job in 1991, when my wife was pregnant and then we had no health insurance, but I did in the morning as I was commanded.
- At even the state of Illinois in 2002 falsely accused us as parents for not drugging our child with dangerous prescription drugs, and our legal bills skyrocketed over $20,000, but I did in the morning as I was commanded.
- At even some punks in Chicago stole our family car in 2004 and smashed it into a telephone pole, totaling the car without insurance, but I did in the morning as I was commanded.
- At even I suffered a horrible permanent neck injury in 1992, and then again in 2004, but I did in the morning as I was commanded.
- At even I had my infected appendix removed in 1999, but I did in the morning as I was commanded.
- At even I had two major neck surgeries in 2009 and 2010, all alone by myself in the hospitals, wanting to die from loneliness, but I did in the morning as I was commanded.
- At even I had my infected gallbladder removed in 2015, but I did in the morning as I was commanded.
- At even I lost my house and home after the divorce, but I did in the morning as I was commanded.

- At even I was kicked out and banned from attending the wicked Harvest Baptist Church on Guam since 2014, for telling THE TRUTH, but I did in the morning as I was commanded.
- At even I was mistreated and then banned from attending the wicked Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College since 2021, for telling THE TRUTH, but I did in the morning as I was commanded.
- At even I suffer burning agonizing pain and tension in my neck continually without rest or relief, but I did in the morning as I was commanded.
- And innumerable other things...

GOD IS SO GOOD!!! We can all find excuses not to serve God, or to become sidetracked serving Christ. Anybody can quit, but a faithful man who can find?

Proverbs 20:6, " Most men will proclaim every one his own goodness: but a faithful man who can find? " You may never achieve your dreams, nor obtain the success you had hoped, but you can die trying!

I will never be a loved as a Bible preacher the way that I want to. Billy Sunday said that a pastor comforts the afflicted, but an evangelist afflicts the comforted. I am doing the dirty work of an evangelist. I step on people's toes, especially the clergy. I am one of the most hated and loved preachers on social media. The atheists, skeptics, infidels, false prophets and carnal Christians criticize me at every turn; but those people who have been blessed by my humble labors for Christ, view my websites as a treasure-trove of useful information. God knows my heart, that I just want to be a blessing for my dear Savior. I want no money, and have refused donations when offered. I only want to see more people saved. I want to inspire Christians to become soulwinners. That is what really matters in life. My ministry is a labor of love.

Folks, if you don't try, you aren't going to amount to much. I really like Elon Musk. I know that he is an atheist, but I like his way of thinking as a pioneer of invention. NASA's official motto is: "Failure is not an option." But Elon Musk disagrees with that, his motto instead is: "Failure is an option," because that is how we learn. Elon's first round of rockets all failed, blowing up and falling apart before they reached space orbit. Each rocket that exploded cost tens of millions of dollars! Elon's company almost ran out of money and failed, but Elon kept TRYING. He eventually got it right and was the first private entrepreneur to successfully launch a rocket into outer space. NASA then handed him a $1,600,000,000 contract to deliver supplies to The International Space Station. I love stories like that, of a man who refused to stop TRYING.

Pastor Jack Hyles taught me that failure + failure

+ failure

+ failure

+ failure

+ failure

+ failure

+ failure

+ failure

+ failure

+ failure

+ failure = success (but only if you keep TRYING). Your never a failure because you fail, you're only a failure when you choose to make failure the last chapter in your book.

Jesus had a difficult life. He was born into poverty, in a manger with a bunch of farm animals in the hay. Jesus was born to a single mother with no husband, which brought reproach upon Mary and Joseph (because people didn't know that Jesus was born of a virgin by decree and a supernatural miracle of God almighty). The Bible says in the book of Isaiah that Jesus was a man of sorrows, rejected of men and acquainted with grief. I sure know that feeling, being rejected and shunned by umpteen churches. Go figure!

Jesus was falsely accused by His very own people (the Jews) of being: mad (crazy), a bastard (a child of fornication), a deceiver and demon possessed. Whom do you say that Jesus is: lunatic, liar or Lord? I say Jesus is the omnipotent Lord, the blessed Christ, the dear only begotten Son of the Living God.

The famous inventor Thomas Edison failed 6,000 times before he finally succeeded to find a filament (tungsten) that didn't burn up when a current of electricity was passed through it, and the incandescent lightbulb was invented. Mr. Edison failed 6,000 times, but he refused to stop TRYING!!! What if he had given up and quit at 5,999 attempts? NEVER GIVE UP! FAILURE IS AN OPTION, just so long as you keep TRYING!!!

I will never be a popular missionary like Rick Martin in the Philippines. My picture will never be in the Sword Of The Lord newspaper. I will never surpass the massive success of Pastor Jack Hyles. I will never be invited to speak at a Baptist church. I am just a lone VOICE crying in the wilderness of cyberspace, like John the Baptist (after whom I am named; John is my middle name). I am just a layman with a few websites and blogs. I am just a VOICE, but I AM A VOICE!!!

Everybody can die trying. Google has censored 90 % of my web traffic since 2015. In received 15,000,000 total visitors for 2015 at Jesus-is-Savior.com. Sadly, I only had about 1,000,000 visitors in 2021. Google did that! They didn't tell me why. I now have safety certificates for all my ministry websites. By next year, by God's grace after thousands of hours of diligent labor ahead of me, all of my 13,000 website articles will be Mobile Responsive (i.e., easy to be viewed on a mobile device). At present about 50 % of my web visitors are using mobile devices to view my ministry websites. I thank that is awesome! Praise the Lord. Now if Google will just stop using Communist style Chinese censorship.

At even I lost 90 % of all my web traffic, but I did in the morning as I was commanded. I'm not giving up! I'm not going to slow down or work less! I am going to keep on TRYING and do all that I can in God's power to reach lost sinners with the Gospel of free grace! Amen and amen.

I think I have been infected with Omicron this week. I have a horrible chest cold, with upper respiratory congestion in my lungs. I became infected with the COVID-19 Delta variant last year. I lost all smell and taste for a few weeks. I suffered stabbing icepick headaches. Those are common symptoms of the Delta variant of COVID. In contrast, the Omicron variant doesn't cause loss of smell or taste, but it does cause a runny nose, headache, sore throat and upper chest congestion (I have all those symptoms). Thankfully, the Omicron variant is not as severe and goes away after 10 days. I have 5 more days. But I am still working right now at my computer on my ministry for Christ.

At even I was sick with a bad flu, but I did in the morning as I was commanded. By God's grace I will not quit. I must keep TRYING. There is a cause.

Ezekiel 24:18, "

So I spake unto the people in the morning: and at even my wife died; and I did in the morning as I was commanded."

3.12.3 What Does It Mean: A Fool's Heart May Discover Itself? (2022-12-04 19:44)

Proverbs 18:2,

A fool hath no delight in understanding, but that his heart may discover itself.

2nd Timothy 3:5-7, " Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away. For of this sort are they which creep into houses, and lead captive silly women laden with sins, led away with divers lusts, Ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth. "

What does the Bible mean in Proverbs 18:2 concerning the fool, "that his heart may discover itself "? It simply means that a fool refuses to think beyond his own opinions and limited knowledge. The Bible says that a fool is not interested in learning from others, he just wants people to listen to what he has to say. The fool is ever learning in his own world, but in reality he is never able to come to the knowledge of THE TRUTH.

Case in point as a good illustration is singer Kanye West (who has legally changed his name to “Yea”). I heard a really great sermon today by one of my favorite preachers, Pastor Steven Anderson. It is unfortunate that he has been banned in so many social media platforms, and in at least 30 countries for his hard uncompromising preaching against sin. Although I don’t agree with about a dozen of his minor teachings, Brother Anderson is responsible for tens of thousands of lost sinners getting saved through faith in the Gospel.

The Eternal Baby” (Kanye West Exposed)
[1]BACKUP VIDEO

Now, let me say before anything else, regarding the preceding sermon video, that I 100 % disagree with Pastor Anderson that we should hate unrepentant sinners. To support his false teaching that believers should hate certain humans, Pastor Anderson quotes Psalms 11:5, “The LORD trieth the righteous: but the wicked and him that loveth violence his soul hateth.” But look what Jesus Himself said in John 3:16, “For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.”

Here is the $64,000 question to you dear reader—How can God hate the wicked, while loving them at the same time enough to sacrifice His only begotten Son to die for their sins? Well, is it possible for a human being to love and hate somebody at the same time? Sure it is.

Go search online for Kanye West’s Christian testimony and you won’t find it. Still after 5-years of Kanye professing publicly to being a Christian, as a baby he soils and poops his pants every time he opens his mouth, every time he gets in front of a camera for an interview. Kanye just this past week was praising Adolf Hitler on The Alex Jones Show. Sadly, although I love Alex as a person, it is unfortunate that he manipulates and exploits people, perversion and sordid news to boost his show’s popularity to make money. That is what the heathen world does, not what God’s children ought to do (Matthew 5:16).

I was sickened a few weeks ago hearing Kanye speak on the Piers Morgan Show in Britain making a fool of himself, spewing forth hatred against all Jews. There may be a darker more sinister agenda behind Kanye’s inciteful words which promote racial tension and divide...

Professor G. Edward Griffin - Racial Tension and Riots
(The communist Revolution in America, 1969)

It may be that Kanye West is just a loud-mouthed fool. But it could also be that he is a pawn of the Luciferian elite, furthering the systematic dismantling and ultimate destruction of the Unite States. Remember, printed on every U.S. one dollar bill are the Latin words: [2]E Pluribus Unum is a phrase often mistranslated as “many from one.” The Latin phrase: ’E Pluribus Unum’ means, ’One out of many’ (that is, "order out of chaos") which is the foundation of the New World Order’s plan to unify the world’s governments, religions and money systems into one so the world can be controlled.

[3]WHY THE ANTICHRIST MUST COME SOON!!!

To put it much simpler, the Old World Order must be destroyed to make way for the New World Order. If you want a good understanding of this matter, again, please listen to Pastor Jack Hyles preach his 1970 sermon titled: “[4]Why The Antichrist Must Come Soon.”

The Latin words on the seal ’Annuit Coeptis’ means ’Announcing The Birth Of’ and ’Novus Ordo Seclorum’ means ’New World Order.’ So therefore it says ’Announcing the birth of the New World Order’. The date in Roman numerals is "1776," [5]the year the modern Illuminati was formed and also the year of American independence.

The Bible says that false prophets cause the way of truth to be evil spoken of. 2nd Peter 2:2, “And many shall follow their pernicious ways; by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of.” We have all met disgruntled people who are sick and tired of phony, rotten, corrupt, immoral, greedy preachers!!! Many people won’t even step foot into a church because of liars like Benny Hinn, fakes like Pat Robertson and conmen like Joel Osteen. The Bible warns that their damnation slumbereth not, meaning that they are already damned, and the clock is ticking toward their doom in Hell.

Kanye West is a wicked man. He brings up the most ungodly, filthy and obscene sins which he has committed. There is no preaching of the Gospel of free grace. Kayne has an outward form of godliness, but doesn’t have the power thereof. 2nd Timothy 3:5-7, “Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away. For of this sort are they which creep into houses, and lead captive silly women laden with sins, led away with divers lusts, Ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth."

That "power" according to Romans 1:16 is THE GOSPEL. Romans 1:16, "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek." We've got a bunch of Satan's ministers of unrighteousness in the churches today (2nd Corinthians 11:13-15), who preach another gospel of turning away from your sins and following Christ as " to get to Heaven, but there is no mention of THE GOSPEL. [6]What is THE GOSPEL???

The inspired Holy Bible repeatedly teaches for us to seek God's wisdom, and not to lean upon our own flawed human understanding. Proverbs 3:5-7, "Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths. Be not wise in thine own eyes: fear the LORD, and depart from evil." Acknowledging God in all our ways simply means to always seek Biblical principles when making life's decisions. What does the Bible have to say about something?

Jesus told us to SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES in John 5:39. When the Devil came three times to tempt Jesus, He quoted the Scripture all three times to defeat Satan. That means we need to become familiar with the inspired Word of God. Kanye West never quotes any Scripture, unless taking it out of context. It is obvious that Kanye is woefully ignorant of God's Word. Psalms 119:9, "Wherewithal shall a young man cleanse his way? by taking heed thereto according to thy word." Psalms 119:11, "Thy word have I hid in mine heart, that I might not sin against thee." David said that he found comfort from God's Word during his afflictions. Psalms 119:50, "This is my comfort in my affliction: for thy word hath quickened me." There is a direct correlation between how in tune we are with God's Word and the degree of sin in our life.

Even the drunk laying in the gutter can teach me, by seeing where booze can lead. This is perceived knowledge. And then there is Acquired knowledge, which comes from reading books, that is, direct learning. If a child touches a hot stove and burns his or her hand, they have learned a painful lesson. This is experiential knowledge. And then there is divine knowledge from God. Solomon said that a fool cares not to increase in understanding, he just cares about what he thinks. Proverbs 18:2, " A fool hath no delight in understanding, but that his heart may discover itself. " May we not be that vain and foolish. Every man is my teacher.

3.12.4 Don’t Become A Superstitious Christian (2022-12-05 23:15)

Proverb 3:5-7, “Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths. Be not wise in thine own eyes: fear the LORD, and depart from evil.”

John 5:39, “Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me.”

Hebrews 1:1-2, “God, who at sundry times and in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets, Hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds;”

We are all familiar with some superstitious tales. For example: Some people believe that if you break a mirror, it will bring seven years of bad luck. Another superstitious belief is that seeing a black cat is an omen of coming bad luck. These are mere superstitions, not based in fact.

Sadly, there is also a religious form of superstition Among many believers. Such people tend to read into everything, looking for divine meaning and the will of God. I have heard many such silly superstitious beliefs from professed Christians throughout my life. I once heard a radio preaching say that he is always looking for God. Well, you need to be real careful using that mentality. The Big problem with such superstitious thinking is how do you know the difference between a sign from God versus mere coincidence? You don’t.

Hebrews 1:1-2, “God, who at sundry times and in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets, Hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds;” God does not speak today through men. Nor does the Lord speak through signs, visions or dreams as He did in the Old Testament at times. God speaks to humanity through His only begotten Son, Jesus. According to John 1:1-3 and 14, Jesus is the incarnate (made flesh) Word of God. Dr. John R. Rice (1895-1980) used to rightly say that Jesus and the Holy Bible are twins. Jesus is the Living Word. The Bible is the Written Word. Revelation 19:13 says that Jesus’ name is: THE WORD OF GOD.

Jesus commands everyone in John 5:39, “Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me.” The inspired Word of God is no uncertain terms, exhorts God’s redeemed and adopted children to SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES that we may know THE TRUTH. So we ought not go around looking for secret messages, visions, dreams or supernatural signs from God. It is okay to always look for signs of God, just so long as you don’t base decisions upon them, or give credence to unprovable speculation. Some people are going to do it anyway, but I refuse to attribute any supernatural meaning to anything that could just as easily have been happenstance or a coincidence, not matter how unlikely or rare it may be.

I used to work for the U.S. Postal Service. I worked at the Processing And Distribution Center at O'Hare International Airport in Chicago for 11 years. One night I shared something with a co-worker that I had learned in Bible college years earlier by Evangelist Tom Williams in night collage. He said: "The secret to the Christian life is to live in John 19." John chapter 19 is all about Jesus' crucifixtion on the cross of Calvary.

So I shared that excellent truth with a Christian co-worker. The next night, the moment I arrived at my machine to perform maintenance on it, I saw a bunch of pages torn out from a crumpled pocket New Testament. The pages were scattered throughout the Advance Facer Canceller Machine (AFCS). This machine prints a cancellation mark over the stamp, and then faces all the envelopes in the same direction, so they can be sorted on a different machine. When I reached into the feeder to pull out a crumpled page, my mind was blown when it was a page from John chapter 19.

I know what you're already thinking, perhaps my co-worker was messing with me. I thought that too. But for several reason I am 100 % convinced that wasn't the case:

1. My co-worker's nature wasn't to be a prankster, he was a laid back kind of guy
2. I seriously doubt if he would destroy a Holy Bible to play a prank
3. The way that the page of John 19 was crumpled into the inner feeder belts just couldn't have been done by a human
4. There were pages of the Bible scattered throughout the machine
5. We both arrived at our work area at the same time
6. I was so paranoid how that single page of John 19 got jammed into my feeder, that I even wondered if a Postal Inspector had eavesdropped on our conversation from their tunnels above (they can see you but you can't see them), and then played a prank, but I reasonably concluded that such a suspicion was insane at best.
7. I pondered finally if God was sending me a message of confirmation that Tom Williams was absolutely correct, that living in John 19 is the key to the Christian life.

I struggled for months in amazement of such a strange occurrence happening. The odds must have been one in a trillion! To this day I cannot explain that bizarre night. Was it just a rare coincidence? Yes, I think so. Would God rip apart His Word to make a point? Since I already believed what Evangelist Tom Williams taught me (which I why I remembered that truth and shared it with a co-worker in the first place), what would be the point for God to reiterate it to me? Or perhaps, does God just like to mess with people? The possibilities are endless.

In the end, I think the only sane and reasonable conclusion is that it was indeed a mere coincidence. But I'll tell you what, I now fully know that: "The key to the Christian life is to live in John 19." And I'd actually like to change that statement a little bit, to this: "The key to the Christian life is to live in the Word of God." That is what David said in Psalms 1. David meditated in God's Word day and night. And we must include John chapter 20 about Jesus' physical resurrected from the dead. If Christ be not raised, then our faith in in vain!

My point in sharing this true story with you is that superstition can drive a person nutty. I refuse to become a superstitious Christian.

I once heard Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) tell a true story while he still lived and pastored in Texas. The First Baptist Church of Hammond, Indiana, had kindly contacted Dr. Hyles, inviting him to come candidate to be their new pastor. Brother Hyles wasn't sure what to do, so he prayed and prayed about the matter, giving it much thought. Then a few days later he was driving down the road in Texas and saw a big billboard that read:

"Hammond welcomes you!" Brother Hyles said he took that as a sign from God.

Now, I love Dr. Hyles and I would never criticize his logic. However, I would NEVER uses such a sign (literally) in even the slightest way to make a major (or even minor) life's decision. There were other considerations as well that Dr. Hyles made, not just the sign, but I have never liked that story of his, because it could have merely been a coincidence. Having said that, I praise God with all my heart and sure am glad that Dr. Hyles decided to come up to Hammond to pastor, because I might not be saved right now if he hadn't. I would likely have been caught between grace and works like so many neo-evangelicals today, who are trusting in the Devils' lie of Lordship Salvation instead of the Gospel of free grace. If my website and blog ministry means anything to you dear reader, you should in part be thankful toward Pastor Jack Hyles, without whom my blogs and websites would exist. I love and miss Brother Hyles dearly!

I like to stick to what I know as a child of God, and not speculate based upon feelings of having a premonition, likely coincidence or randomness. You'll hear foolish preachers saying stupid things like, "There are no coincidences." But what saith the Scripture? Is that statement Biblical that there are no coincidences? Ecclesiastes 9:11, "I returned, and saw under the sun, that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favour to men of skill; but time and chance happeneth to them all." Solomon came to understand that just because a man is strong doesn't guarantee him a win in battle. And just because a man is wise doesn't guarantee that he will have food to eat.

I was watching some YouTube documentaries last week about the homeless crisis in California. There are now over 100,000 homeless Americans just in the state of California. Hardly anything is being done to help those people. Meanwhile multibillionaire Elon Musk is working 80 hours per week with his 10,000 driven employees to colonize the planet Marrs with humans by 2050. Have we gone totally insane on planet earth? It seems so. I wish that Elon Musk would invent affordable dental care for the 50,000,000 Americans with rotting teeth, because they cannot afford the insanely high cost of dental work. For a so-called “ society we are also dealing with one of the most oppressive greedy cultures in history. I digress.

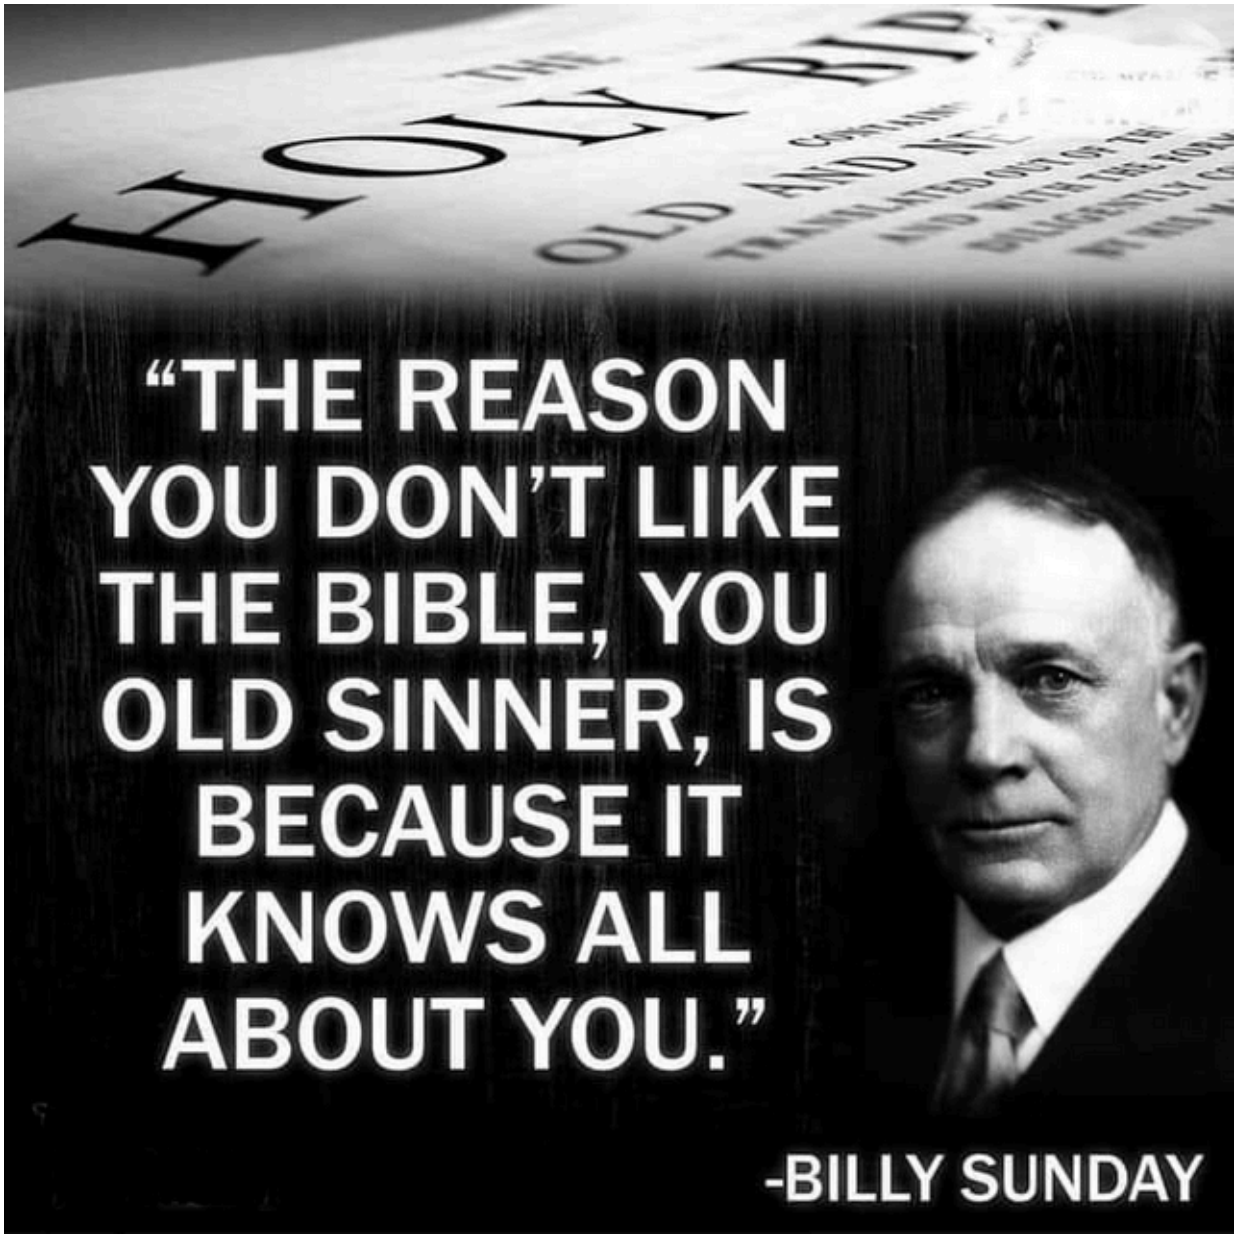
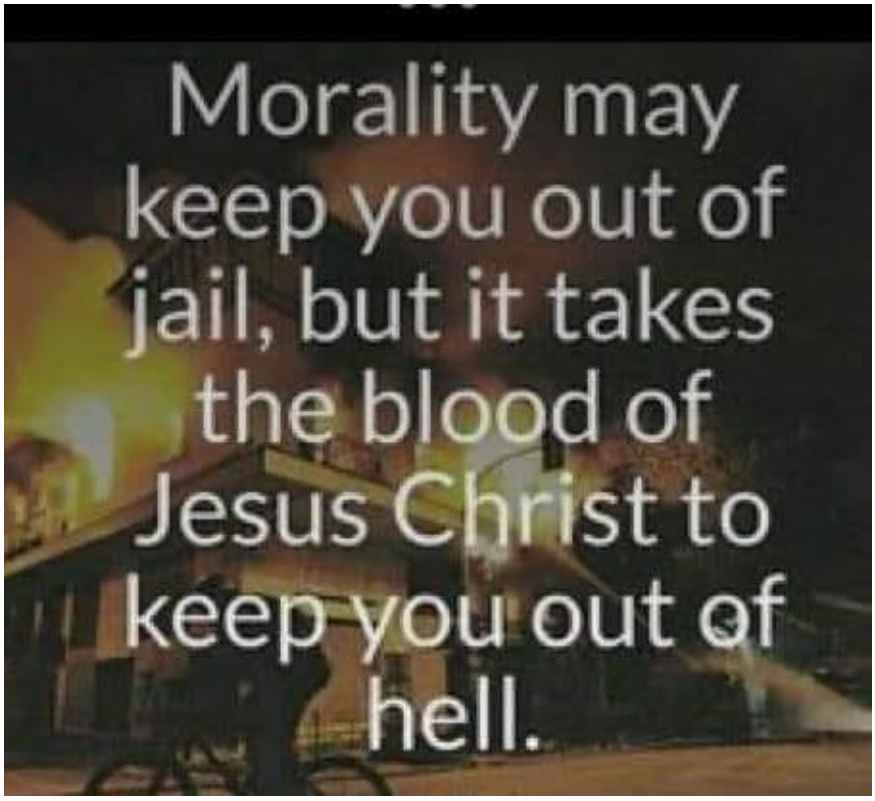
I heard a professed Christian man saying that God had blessed his family by opening a new restaurant, and that they are serving God in the restaurant business. That is no superstition, that is just plain ignorance of what it means to serve God. If you are not doing something to preach the Gospel and get people into Heaven, you’re not serving God. I am disturbed how many professed Christians serve themselves and merely slab a label over it of doing, “God’s will.” Right!

I knew a Christian man many years ago when I worked as a truck mechanic. He literally wrote down the Gospel on a few 3" x 5" cards. He wrote out all the Bible verses. I was really impressed. As he went on his garbage route each day, he handed customers that he met with his 3" x 5" Gospel presentation. He handed me one and I was humbled and thanked God for his soulwinning efforts to win the win to Jesus Christ. Truthfully, that garbage man is serving God a thousand times more than John MacArthur (who preaches a counterfeit plan of salvation). That garbage man is serving God infinitely more than all these deadbeat false prophets today like Benny Hinn, Pat Robertson and Joel Osteen who preach partial faith in Christ plus something else. Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do.

I wrote this blog just to share some common sense with you, because there’s a lot of religious nuts in the churches today. Always stick to what you know, not what you don’t know. Where the Bible is silent we should be silent.



Many years ago I tried my hand at the Stock Market. I knew enough to be dangerous...lol. Like millions of other Americans, I lost everything when the dot.com bubble burst in 2000. Over 5 years I lost $50,000. The ironic thing is that I had actually made $140,000 from Intel stock splits, using a series of long term Call options that I had bought. Call options allow you to control a very large amount of stock shares with a very small amount of money. The risks are high, but so also is the potential to make a lot of money in short amount of time.



Anyway, after the market crashed in 2000 and stayed down for the next 8 years, I vowed to never buy another stock and to this day I have kept my promise to myself. In the year 2000 I got off midnight shift at work, never signed up for overtime at work again, and I have focused all my energies on laying up treasures in Heaven since (Matthew 6:19-20). I began my website ministry in 2002 and have never looked back since, full steam ahead to the gates of Heaven!!!

When I had dabbled in the Stock market back in the 1990s, in Chicago we had a popular show called The Stock Market Observer. On the show they talked about stocks, interesting companies, did interviews with interesting people, and provided a little bit of everything for investors. One segment of the show that always disturbed me was the Stock Market Astrologer. Literally, some goofy looking guy would give financial advice based on the alignment of the stars and planets. I knew it was occultism. You'd by shocked if you knew how many rich people make million and even billion dollar investments based upon astrology!

In the same way, superstitious believers who make life's decisions based upon unbiblical whims, oddities, serendipity and zemblanity, coincidences, uncanny events and abstract things are no better than occultists. The wise saint will SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES daily as one's only source of truth in all matters of faith, living and life's major decisions...

> Psalms 1:1-3, "Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful. But his delight is in the law of the LORD; and in his law doth he meditate day and night. And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper."

3.12.5 Christians Need To Write Books, Make Films, Websites (2022-12-06 17:42)

John 9:4, "I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day:the night cometh, when no man can work."

1st Corinthians 3:6-8, " I have planted, Apollos watered; but God gave the increase. So then neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase. Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one: and every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labour."

Colossians 4:5-6, "Walk in wisdom toward them that are without, redeeming the time. Let your speech be alway with grace, seasoned with salt, that ye may know how ye ought to answer every man."

In these Last Days of time, there is overwhelming curiosity amongst Christian and non-Christian people alike concerning the future. What will happen next? What does the Bible say concerning prophecy? Tragically, many books are published by cult groups like the Jehovah's Witness and [1]Seventh Day Adventist [SDA]. I guarantee you that if you search online for prophetic subjects, you'll come across numerous SDA websites. You can spot them quickly because they use vivid colorful pictures, misquote Scriptures and usually no religious affiliation is found. SDA's know that most people run away when they find out [2]what SDA's really believe, so they [3]deceive people by not telling you [4]who they are.

A good rule of thumb is to only buy materials from sources that exclusively use the inspired KING JAMES BIBLE!!! You still have to be careful. Many books available are written by atheists and agnostics, or New Agers with their polytheism, who teach Star Wars type alien fiction and quote Scriptures alongside to confuse everyone. Horror author Stephen King likes to incorporate Christian elements into his books and films, blaspheming the Holy Bible and confusing people about spiritual things (1st Corinthians 1:14-16).

Certainly, the Bible is all we need in every matter of faith, morals and life, but people are instead buying books, magazines and subscribing to newsletters in an attempt to learn the future. The sad reality is that people will by nature always listen to man, so we might as well point them to Jesus Christ in our own writings. John 5:43, "I am come in my Father's name, and ye receive me not: if another shall come in his own name, him ye will receive."

I think it is sad that 99 % of everything available is written by unsaved heathens and ecumenical apostates, leading the masses of humanity away from the truth of God's Word and into a demonic One World System. The teaching of World Unity in our churches today is a contrived hoax, a sinful idea, intended by Satan to lead churches into the New World Order.

Contrary to popular belief, there will not be a One World Religion; but rather, all existing organized religions will adopt common agendas of the coming One World System, which include (but are not limited to) the following evils:

1. Rejection of the King James Bible as the inspired Word of God for English people
2. [5]Use of the Devil's corrupt modern Bible perversions (all of which attack Jesus' deity)
3. Idolizing present manmade Israel (aka, the heresy of dispensational Zionism fabricated by C.I. Scofield in the late 19th century)
4. Churches substituting Bible theology (sound doctrine) with spirituality
5. Pastors becoming psychologists and motivation speakers instead of Bible preachers
6. Worldliness and entertainment being brought into the churches
7. The Gospel being replaced with the [6]Devil's heresy of Lordship Salvation (e.g., inviting Jesus into your life, turning away from sinful ways and following Christ as "Lord" of one's life to get to Heaven)

Remember, Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born-again. That is what is happening in 99 % of churches today. All you need is morality to stay out of jail, but you need the blood of Jesus to stay out of Hell (1st Peter 1:18-19).

Today's liberal theologians they tell us to lay aside our Bible, lay aside our Biblical doctrines and convictions, and unite together because we all believe in Jesus. It's a trap of the Devil. At all cost they are corrupting the inspired Word of God and attempting to lead people away from the sound [7]Doctrine of Christ (2nd John 1:9). ...

2nd Timothy 4:2-4, "Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine. For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables."

The need is great today in the world for doctrinally sound books written by Bible-believing Christians. So many saints today want to record a singing or music CD, but what about the truth? If the Lord tarries, the next generation will need the truth as much as we do today. I thank God for the doctrinally sound books that we have available from mighty men of God, but they are far and few between. Virtually nothing exists today on prophecy, written by independent fundamentalist Christian authors.

And sadly, the few resources that do exist are often horded by the greedy children of departed saints. Money means more to them than reaching men for Christ with the truth. That is why I have for the past 20 years, and will continue by God's grace until the Lord calls me home to glory, FREELY preach the truth to a lost and dying world. I have never asked or even hinted to my web visitors that I need or want their money, and I never will. I want people to know where my heart is it, in YOU dear reader! I love people because as a born-again child of God I have the blessed Holy Spirit living inside me.

Every saint literally has God dwelling inside (Romans 8:9; 1st John 3:24). And since God is love, the Lord's love is shed abroad in the believer's heart IF we choose to walk in the Spirit. We each have that CHOICE as God's children, whether to allow the fruit of the Holy Spirit to flow THROUGH US to others, or to instead become as the Dead Sea south if Israel, where water only flows in and never leaves, killing everything around it. I sure hope that you aren't a Dead Sea Christian!!!

The great need of the hour is Biblically-based books, publications, DVD films, YouTube videos, blogs and websites about Biblical matters. This may include anything about the New World Order, the Rapture, the occult, secret societies, Armageddon, the end of the world, Bible prophecy, et cetera; because these topics fascinate the masses who are infatuated with these things. It is a great Soulwinning opportunity for believers.

The most visited pages on my ministry website are the ones dealing with Bohemian Grove, Skull and Bones, Freemasonry, the End Times, Satan, et cetera. That and anything dealing with false religions. This is where people's minds are at! So let's give the masses what they want and use it as a wonderful opportunity to lead them into Christianity. Think about it. If nothing else, you can help to share and promote my ministry with others to help them. I don't want any credit. I will never ask or accept money from anyone.

Don't Become A Wicked Compromiser Like Jack Van Impe

Let me bit a bit candid here. If you're just another covetous religious person (i.e., you're not a Christ-loving Christian) who is going to dip-your-sails, use corrupt Bibles, avoid confrontational topics, go soft on the hellish Roman Catholic cult, and only produce materials to make money… YOU WILL BE SHAMED ON JUDGMENT DAY when you stand before the Lord.

A perfect example is Evangelist Jack Van Impe, who was great when he started out in his Bible prophecy ministry, but then he learned that unsaved Roman Catholic were his biggest source of financial donations (simply because Catholics are so woefully ignorant of what their cult actually teaches), Jack Van Impe sinfully compromised and [8]went to the dark side of the force! ...

> “You Catholic people, listen to your priests... Thank God for these Catholic leaders!” —Evangelist Jack Van Impe

> “The Catholic Doctrines Are Right On!” —Evangelist Jack Van Impe

What a wicked preacher!

I wanted to vomit when I read [9]Jack Van Impe say “Catholic doctrines are right on.” What a sellout! I have no doubt that such greedy believers make God very angry and sick! That was the greedy sin of the ungodly Old Testament prophet, Balaam (known today as: “

The prophet for hire!

). My blood boils when professed Christians are out to make a buck. Our dear Savior who gave everything to redeem us from the Lake of Fire deserves better than that!!! The one and only time in the Bible when Jesus deliberately blew-up in violent anger was when a den of religious thieves turned the work of God into a business. 2nd Peter 2:3 says they’re already damned!

Please don’t misunderstand, I’m not against selling something. I AM AGAINST dipping-your-sails, using corrupt Bibles, avoiding confrontational subjects and trimming your preaching because YOU WANT TO MAKE MONEY. That’s what I hate with a passion! Sell all you want; but don’t you dare do like Ray Comfort, John MacArthur, Kirk Cameron, Joel Osteen, Rick Warren, Pat Robertson, Steven Furtick, Kirk Cameron, Joyce Meyer, Benny Hinn and all these other apostates who never step on each other’s toes, never expose the damned Catholic religion, never really get angry over sin, never really tell it like it is to avoid offending people. We should OFFEND THEM!!! The truth is only hate to them that hate THE TRUTH!!!

What Resources Has Given Given To You?

I have been using [10]Visual Studio 2019

and am very pleased with it so far. I think it is easy to use, and so far I haven’t hadn’t any system crashes or problems. I like to make excerpts of Pastor Max Younce’s sermons. I plan to do a bunch more, I’ve just been overwhelmed with everything that I need to get done for the past few months. And now my landlord wants me out so a family member can live here instead. What I do is first [11]download whatever particular YouTube sermon I want. Then I open Visual Studio and open the downloaded sermon in the editing area of the software. Then I right mouse click and select "Multi-trim Video," which opens another window, and this is where the magic happens! I can select the "start" and "end" points for my new excerpt, and then mix it down. Easy!

I encourage YOU dear friend to start a ministry, if you don’t already have one. At a minimum, you should be involved with a local Bible-believing church. Hopefully your church is a soulwinning church. Sadly, 99 % are not! The Baptist church that I have been attending for the past year in Pensacola is not a soulwinning church. It is the pastor’s fault alone. He is incorrigible (unwilling to be corrected), so I cannot help him. He quite often tells church members where the exit door is if they don’t like the way that he runs the church.

Sadly, that is why the church hasn't grown in 10 years, and at best on any given Sunday the auditorium is only 30 % full at best. Of course, on big days like during the annual revival, family day and SOULWINNING BUILDS CHURCHES!!! You will need to knock on about 1,000 home doors in order to get one faithful church member. Pastor Steven Anderson is a master soulwinner! Their Faithful Word Baptist Church literally goes door-to-door soulwinning 7 days a week. That is how they built a church membership of a few hundred solid members!

Our young pastor has the wrong mindset that it is not the church's responsibility to go soulwinning. He says that The Great Commission was only given to individual believers. So there is no organized soulwinning time. I have never heard the pastor even once teach his people how to go soulwinning. It is so sad and pathetic! Pastor E.M. Bounds is so correct, who said that a church congregation rarely rises above the spirituality of the pastor. It is so true!

> "When America lost her way to the right kind of church, she lost her way to living right!" — Evangelist Lester Roloff (1914-1982), [12]"Titanic"

I am still searching and praying for a better church to attend, but for now I am attending the best church on my area. Sadly, I have been banned in writing from attending Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College, by their ungodly shameful pastors (Jeff Redlin, Tim Zacharias, et cetera, which includes the rotten PCC leadership who I also contacted for help). None of them gives a damn and have no compassion whatsoever for hurting sinners like me. PCC are a hateful bunch of authoritarian, cult running, jerk hypocrites who only love money. They would never admit to such a shameful thing, but their behavior speaks loudly and clearly. SHAME on the PCC camp who stand against nothing, love no one except themselves and epitomize everything that is wrong with Christianity in America today. People just want to be loved!

Anyway, I encourage you ladies and gentlemen to let God do something for the cause of Christ through you. There are so many ideas of things that we can all do to further the Gospel. What resources has God entrusted to you? What is in thine hand? Hopefully someone will read this and be challenged to run with it. There is a great need for books, videos, movies and resources that promote THE TRUTH. There is a great need for original content in the world today. Let's face it, nearly everybody is going in circles on the internet, passing articles and information around from other people. I am always looking for more resources to produce new original content.

A good way to do that is to go to a big library, preferably in a big city, where they have books going back centuries. Read, read, read and photo copy pages that interest you. Record source information and make a big collection for your books, videos or media that you want to produce. Start out by choosing some topics you'd like to write about, or a film that you'd like to make and go from there step by step. I am no expert at this stuff, but I am learning as I go. I am having fun doing it too! I enjoy my website ministry tremendously, even though it requires much tedious work. I enjoy it for several reasons, one reason being that I am laying up treasures in Heaven (Matthew 6:19-20). Another reason is that I know God is working through me to help others find their way to the way, the truth and the life, which is Jesus (John 14:6)

People like to send me things of interest, which I use for my articles, videos, books and blogs. One man kindly wrote to me and asked where I get all this stuff. I get it from everywhere! reading a local newspaper, a book, a movie, something someone sent me, a church bulletin, a It might be a Scripture passage I read, or a thought in the middle of the night, a word spoken at a restaurant, or a billboard message that I saw while driving. It could be something that I saw printed on a utility bill, a sermon, a spontaneous idea, news, et cetera. Every man is my teacher. I learned that from Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001), my mentor in the faith.

The world is filled with knowledge. It all depends on what you are alert and looking for. I keep my eyes open for stuff. My website ministry is only a tiny fraction of what I wish it was, or it could be, if I just knew how to make it better. One of my website visitors recently suggested that I make the search box flash, so I did, [13]which you can see here. I always welcome helpful suggestions. I am just an amateur web designer. I am self-taught, which is a lot easier today because of helpful internet resources. You can teach yourself just about anything these days from YouTube and the internet. By God's grace and with His help I am doing the best I know how. Praise God!!!

I get overwhelmed easy due to my Peripheral Neuropathy (nerve damage in my spinal cord). I experience continual burning, tingling, a puffy sensation in my arms and legs, my right arm and leg feel half asleep all the time, I have intermittent radiating pain in my limbs, and constant toothache-like neck pain and chronic neck tension. Whew, that's a lot to type! I get depressed often and need to lay down after taking my pain medications. I don't have 30 employees, it's just little ole me and the Lord who guides my heart. Me and God form a majority, amen!

Anyway, I hope some of these ideas will inspire and challenge you to get started with your own ministry. You learn as you go. You're welcome to copy and use anything from all my websites and blogs. No credit need be given. My reward is in Heaven. I want people to copy as much as they can. You're welcome to copy my articles. Edit them as you like. I've never cared about getting credit, I just want the truth to get out. I'm not trying to make any kind of name for myself. That's the last thing I care about. It's all about the precious name of Jesus. [14]HEAR YE HIM!

I didn't know anything about websites when I started out in 2002. You can still find an old article now and then where I used giant font, tons of annoying colors, poor formatting, et cetera. My website has grown so big that it's like the haunted mansion in the 2002 horror movie based on a book by Stephen King: Rose Red (the mansion kept growing on its own). My website has taken on a life of its own. I'm being funny of course. I'm still trying to weed out and edit old articles that need updating. Little by little I am finding them. I've pretty much stopped linking to other websites in articles, because websites unfortunately have a high turnover rate and suddenly disappear.

For that reason I NEVER change any old links. So if you ever link to anything on my websites, it will work 10 years from now (unless I have died and gone, and then my websites will be gone within one year). I know the frustration of finding dead website links. Some sites I know I can trust, like infowars.com (they never remove old articles).

We are living in exciting and frightening times of Biblical prophecy. Everyone is curious about the future. I've bought videos where the speaker does nothing but talk through the whole film. I don't like those type of films. I like photos, pictures, things happening in the background. Use music in the background, it is very effective. There's an art to making films, books and anything. Try to be original, which is why I strongly recommend going to the library. Focus on older books. I'd avoiding quoting new authors unless you know they can be trusted doctrinally. Look at their sources and go back to the original source for yourself. You don't want to be quoting somebody who quoted somebody who quoted somebody. That's not good scholarship. Go to the source when possible. Many authors don't search century old books, but you should. The truth gets distorted the farther we get from the origin (as a general rule, unless there's been new discoveries or declassified documents). Again, I am preaching to the choir. I am guilty of not following my own advice, but I am trying to do better with God's help. So don't be like me, be better than me...lol.

There are all sorts of sounds, photos and resources which are royalty free in your own projects. [15]CREATIVE COMMONS is all totally free to use (music, sounds, images, video clips, et cetera), so you won't need to worry about copyright claims. People's minds like to continually see and hear something. You don't want a boring monologue video. Use pictures and video clips while a person is talking, enhancing what they're talking about. A boring movie is not likely to have many views.

Getting started is always the hardest part. Just take baby steps. Ask questions. How do I do this? How do I do that? Research online. Talk to others who have done what you're wanting to do. How did they get started? You learn a little bit here and there as you go. Starting any type of ministry for Jesus is an eternal investment. Ecclesiastes 11:1, "

Cast thy bread upon the waters: for thou shalt find it after many days. "

The great thing about living in these modern times is that anybody around the world can literally start an international ministry, right from the seclusion of your bedroom, dark closet or mancave in your garbage...lol. Heck, there are even YouTube entrepreneurs who are making a living out of their car, making videos to teach people how to live out of your automobile; and their doing it! Some of them make over $100,000 dollars a year living in a car with their laptop computer and dog! I'm not kidding. Truth is stranger than fiction! Having said that, I have no interest in monetizing any of my videos, and I never will. Kindly said, YouTube can keep their filthy lucre. Let Jeffrey Star and other ungodly characters have all the money in the world, I'm happy with just having Jesus as my personal Savior, God, Lord and Friend.

Never take somebody's word on anything. You must have evidence or it cannot be used. If you don't have solid evidence to support a quote, then say it is purported (i.e., something commonly reported without proof). Still, I really like to avoid stuff like that if at all possible. I like solid evidence. Your books and films don't have to be long, but make them interesting. You'll get better as you go. I've turned them down due to my health problems, but once you get started doors will open. It's up to you. As the popular adage goes: From 9 to 5 I made a living, but from 5 to 9 I became a success.

I wrote this blog to stir your mind and heart dear reader, so you'll perhaps think about starting some form of new ministry for your dear Savior. I heard Dr. Jack Hyles say once in a sermon that there are millions of saved Christians all across the United States who are sitting idle at home for Christ. For whatever reason they backslid and got out of church, drifting further away from the Lord. Pastor Hyles encouraged everyone to seek out those believers and befriend them with God's unconditional love, inviting them to please come back to church. I love that about Brother Hyles, he was always thinking about the down-and-out person, the person that no one cares about, the homeless person eating from a dumpster tonight, [16]the hurting sinner who just needs someone to give a damn. By God's grace, I give a damn!!!

The Devil's children are flooding social media with heretical videos, blogs, websites, et cetera. I think born-again Christians ought to work more diligently than anyone to contend for the Christian faith. The need is great! I heard a layman years ago say that he doesn't put forth the great doctrines of the church on social media. No doubt his foolish pastor taught him that junk theology. Dear reader, there is no such thing as the great doctrines "of the church." There is only the inspired Word of God. Jesus didn't tell us to search the pastor's latest book and sermons; but rather, our dear Savior commands us to "SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES" (John 5:39a).

Every believer ought to share the Scriptures on social media. What saith the Scripture? Romans 10:17, "So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God." If nothing else dear reader, if you don't know enough about the Bible to teach it, or you just don't feel comfortable doing it, then you can [17]simply copy and paste Bible verses to social media. I cannot think of a better ministry than that!!! Jesus said that even if you are not actively involved in a ministry, but you help that preacher or ministry, you will receive an award in Heaven as a child of God. Mark 9:41,

For whosoever shall give you a cup of water to drink in my name, because ye belong to Christ, verily I say unto you, he shall not lose his reward.

" I love that! Giving even a cup of water to a disciple of Christ (i.e., a believer who is serving Christ) will be rewarded in eternity.

13 And he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood: and his name is called The Word of God.

One of my faithful web visitors used his own money to purchase a domain name called: [19]GOSPELQUESTION.COM to link to my search webpage. I am humbled that he did that. He was also the person who suggested that I make the search box flash on my ministry websites, to help others find it. He told me how much of a blessing the search box has been to him over the years. That encouraged me to work even harder for the Lord on my ministry. It is truly God's ministry, which He has entrusted to me His humble servant to fulfill. I am thankful that God continues to use me as a broken redeemed sinner.

Someone recently asked me why God still uses sinful pastors. The answer is simply that all God has to work with is sinners. There are no perfect pastors. There are no perfect churches or perfect laymen congregation. There are no perfect sweet ladies singing in the church choir. No one is righteous apart from the imputed righteousness of God. If you are not 100 % sure dear friend that you are a born-again child of God, then [20]now is the time to get saved.

1st Corinthians 10:31, "Whether therefore ye eat, or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God."

3.12.6 What Is Our Blessed Hope? (2022-12-08 13:07)

The following helpful words are by Pastor Harry Ironside...

As we thoughtfully read the words of our Lord Jesus recorded in the early verses of John 14 and as we consider the teaching given in the Pauline epistles in regard to the hope of the church, it becomes increasingly evident that there is not the least hint that believers of this dispensation were to look forward to a long series of events preceding the return of the Lord Jesus to raise the dead in Christ and change the living and take them to Himself in the Father's house. This blessed hope is always presented as imminent, which it could not be if one had to suppose that the destruction and revival of the Roman empire, the rise of the antichrist, and the great tribulation, must precede that glorious event. Yet there are other scriptures that distinctly show, as we have seen, that there will be saints on the earth when these conditions prevail. But I trust it has already been made clear that they will not belong to the church, the body of Christ.

There are in fact two distinct stages of our Lord's return presented in the New Testament. He is coming for His saints; this is the rapture that precedes the great tribulation. And He is going to be manifested with all His saints when he descends to exercise judgment on those who have persisted in rejecting His grace; this is when He will establish His glorious kingdom to reign in righteousness over this world. In other words, while the Old Testament and the four gospels, together with other scriptures, plainly predict Christ's second coming to establish His kingdom on this earth, it is part of the mystery hidden from past ages that when He comes He will have with Him a bride to share His throne, as well as a host of other redeemed saints from all past dispensations in His train. This is looked on as a visionary interpretation by many, and the attempt has been made again and again to show that this view, which is often called the futurist theory, was originated by Spanish Jesuits in order to turn away opprobrium from Rome. But the fact of the matter is that the Jesuit writers in question, Alchzar and Ribera, simply set forth what was taught with more or less clearness by some of the church fathers in the first three centuries of the Christian era, and was lost sight of later.

Others again have tried to put the stigma of demonism on the precious truth that the Lord may return at any time to take His saints to be with Himself preceding the great tribulation, endeavouring to link this with certain theories taught by the late Edward Irving and his followers in the early part of the nineteenth century. But anyone at all acquainted with Irving's teaching can see how truly false this is. From the time when long- neglected prophetic truth came again into prominence there was a great deal of confusion regarding the two aspects of the Lord's return mentioned above. But eminent Bible teachers who weighed all the scriptures carefully and prayerfully before God were led to see the distinction between the church as the body of Christ and the saints of a coming age. These saints would be witnesses for the Lord in the time of the tribulation and would share with Him in the manifested kingdom. The more carefully these views have been examined by men of God dependent on the teaching of the Holy Spirit through the word, the more they have been seen to be distinctly in harmony with divine revelation.

In recent years, particularly following World War I, there has been a recrudescence of post-tribulationism, brought about largely by the fact that so many stirring events have taken place which seem to foreshadow the actual conditions that will prevail during the time of Jacob's trouble. Already the Roman empire seems in process of revival. The rise of dictatorship gives us to understand how readily the great world ruler of the coming day will forge his way to the front and be acclaimed as the very representative of God himself. The return of thousands of Jews to Palestine, involving the rehabilitation of that land, is certainly preparing the way for the very events depicted in the prophets and by our Lord Himself, which are to take place in the last days.

All of these things and many others that might be added, seem to have swept some dear brethren away from their moorings. Losing sight of that blessed Hope, they are now fixing their attention on events, rather than on the Person Who is coming. The effect of this is not a healthy thing. It results in occupying the heart and mind with earthly things instead of with the coming Saviour. It has led many to think that perhaps we are entering even now into the great tribulation - perhaps we are actually through the greater part of it and are just waiting for the revelation of the antichrist and then the Lord's actual descent to the Mount of Olives and the establishment of the kingdom.

But the very fact that we see conditions shaping themselves for tribulation times should only lead us to realize the nearness of our hope. At any moment now the Lord may descend from heaven to raise the dead and change the living, and then will come the dark days predicted in both Testaments for apostate Israel and apostate Christendom.

Another view that has clouded the faith of many is what is commonly known as the partial or firstfruits rapture. This, however, is in plain contradiction to the testimony of the Holy Spirit given through the apostle Paul and our blessed Lord Himself. The Saviour made no distinction among His heavenly people when he said, "If I go...I will come again and receive you unto Myself." He had just foretold the defection of Peter, but He did not even hint that unless Peter is restored he will have no part in the heavenly Father's house. In fact, our Lord addressed Himself particularly to Peter when He said, "Let not your heart be troubled." He of course had made provision for the restoration of the soul of his disciples, as He does for all of us; but He gave no suggestion that any would be left behind when He would return for His own. In the epistles the rapture is seen to be all-embracing. We read: "They that are Christ's at His coming."

We do not read that they are eminently faithful, nor that they speak with tongues, but simply that "they that are Christ's." And again, in 1 Thessalonians, we have the statement, "We which are alive and remain shall be caught up together." There are no distinctions made between mature and immature Christians in these words. If other scriptures are cited which seem to indicate that some will not be ready when the Lord comes, a careful examination of the context will show that in each instance the reference is to the coming of the Son of man at the end of the great tribulation, and not to the descent of the Lord to the aid to receive the saints of this dispensation and past ages to be with Himself in the Father's house.

Therefore it may be confidently affirmed that neither post-tribulationism nor partial rapture theories are taught in the word of God. It seems perfectly evident that the blessed Hope is intended to be the daily expectation of the believers, which could not be if certain events had to take place before its fulfillment.

Moreover, if I put anything in my thinking between the present moment and the return of the Lord, I am losing what is of infinite value in connection with my personal walk and Christian experience. "Every man that hath this Hope in him purifieth himself even as he is pure." I know of nothing that is so effectual in controlling the heart and mind of the believer, so that his one aim and object will be to walk in holy separation to the Lord Himself, as the thought that at any moment He Who has redeemed us may return and take us to the Father's house. One may hold certain intellectual views of the second coming of Christ, even the view of the pretribulation rapture, and not be practically sanctified thereby. But if this hope holds me, it cannot but result in increased personal piety.

Then too we need to remember that it is at the return of the Lord for His saints that He will go over our record as servants when we stand before the judgment seat of Christ. At that time, we are to be rewarded according to the deeds done in the body, and our place in the coming kingdom indicated. It is then that the crowns of reward are to be distributed, and in this connection it is significant to note that in the book of Revelation, we see the twenty-four elders crowned and enthroned around the central throne of God and of the Lamb (Revelation 4 and 5), before the solemn judgments begin to fall on the earth. Almost all futurist interpreters are agreed that in chapters 6-19 of Revelation, we have the great tribulation period. It is then that the wrath of the Lamb and the wrath of God will be poured on the habitable earth, and Satan will be cast down from the heavenlies, having great wrath, knowing that his time is short.

These are the circumstances of the great tribulation. We are looking for Christ as our deliverer from the wrath to come. Whatever view we may take of the symbolic elders, whether we think of them as twenty-four individuals, or as representing the entire heavenly priesthood, which to me is clearly the true interpretation, there is this to bear in mind; they are seen crowned in heaven before the judgments begin. Consider these facts: the tribulation period does not begin until the Lamb receives the seven-sealed book and breaks the seals. But the Lamb does not receive the book until crowned saints are seen in heaven. No saints have yet received their crowns, nor will there be crowned saints in heaven until the Judgment Seat of Christ is past. The apostle Paul declares definitely that the crown of righteousness will be given to him and to all who love Christ's appearing in that day; this is the day of the manifestation following our Lord's return for His saints. Therefore it seems plainly evident that the great tribulation cannot possibly begin until after the rapture of the church.

There is much more that might be said, but I leave the matter here, commending the entire subject to the spiritual judgment of the people of God, feeling assured that the more carefully this matter is weighed, the clearer it will be that the church, the body of Christ, is not to look forward to a time when the wrath of God will be poured out on this world, but is to live in daily expectation of the Lord's return to take us to be with Himself before the time of grief begins.

May it be our privilege to search the scriptures daily concerning the truth of these things, and to live in the power of that blessed Hope.

Praise God for our blessed Hope, Jesus Christ.

3.12.7 The Fearful Lifestyle Of Lordship Salvation (2022-12-10 11:38)

John 6:40,

“And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.”

I woke up this morning and thought about how sad it is, that anyone would live in constant fear that they are not truly saved (born-again). This is the consequence of a popular heresy in many churches today called "Lordship Salvation." This is the false teaching that if you are really saved, you WILL live a certain type of lifestyle of turning away from sin, and you WILL surrender your life and will to obey God, and you WILL follow Christ, and you WILL confess Jesus before men, and you WILL commit your life to serve God.

To support what I just said, here is [1]Pastor John MacArthur’s impossible plan of salvation. One of the most deadly false prophets today is [2]Evangelist Ray Comfort, who actually uses the phrase “LIVING A LIFESTYLE,” which he [3]requires of a woman to be saved. Dear reader, living a lifestyle has absolutely nothing to do with getting saved. 1st John 2:3-4, “And hereby we do know that we know him, if we keep his commandments. He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him.” There’s those important words again, THE TRUTH! Please consider another Bible verse from 1st John 3:24, “And he that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us.”

Please don’t make the mistake of assuming that “commandments” means “good works.” The Bible doesn’t say that a saved person does good works, it says they keep God’s commandments! There’s a big difference! The religious people in Matthew 7:21-23 did “MANY WONDERFUL WORKS," but Christ said He never knew them and they went to Hell, because they hadn't DONE THE FATHER'S WILL! They didn't keep God's commandments!

John 6:40 tells us the Father's will—"And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day." 1st John 3:23, "And this is his commandment, That we should believe on the name of his Son Jesus Christ, and love one another, as he gave us commandment." God's first and only commandment to receive the gift of eternal life is to "BELIEVE ON THE NAME OF HIS SON JESUS CHRIST"!!! That is a beautiful truth! So when you read in the Bible about keeping God's commandments to get to Heaven, it doesn't mean doing good works, it means to trust the blessed Savior!!!

Devils In The Pulpit Who Propagate Fear, Worry And Uncertainty

I'm going to give you heretical quotes from three false teachers: Ray Comfort, Steve Pettit and Paul Washer, who all propagate fear and uncertainty regarding salvation. [4]Evangelist Ray Comfort perverts the Gospel, teaching something drastically different than the Holy Bible. Mr. Comfort tells this unfortunate unsaved woman on an airplane, that she must LIVE A LIFESTYLE to have eternal life, which is torment for a person to even try to attempt. I feel so sorry for her, because she will likely go to Hell because Ray deceive her with a counterfeit gospel...

> "So if the plane goes down, you'd end up in Hell! There are two things you have to do to be saved. Do you remember what they are? I told you what they are—You've got to repent and trust the Savior! ... God's offering you everlasting life upon your repentance and faith in Christ. Who in his right mind wouldn't say, 'Whoa! That's a good offer!' (The curious woman asks what it means to "repent"?)... Have you ever said you're sorry to someone you did something wrong to? That's all repentance is—You've sinned against God; it's a matter of saying, 'God, I'm sorry,' and then LIVING A LIFESTYLE that proves the reality of your repentance. That's what repentance is, it's a continual thing! God, 'I'm sorry, but I'm not going going to lie or steal or blaspheme Your name ever again. It has that attitude! And the second thing—trust in Jesus!" [emphasis added]

Ray Comfort further foolishly teaches that no one is "SAFE" just because Jesus died on the cross. Those are some horribly dangerous words! Ray conditions salvation upon turning away from sinful living (which he erroneously understands to mean repentance). So no matter how much faith you may have in Jesus Christ as your Savior, Ray says you are not "SAFE" if you are living in deliberate sin in your life...

> "The forgiveness that is in Jesus Christ is conditional upon 'repentance towards God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ' (Acts 20:21). It is a gift that God offers to everyone, but individuals must receive it by repenting and trusting in Christ, or they will remain dead in their sins. No one has Biblical grounds to continue in sin, assuming that they are safe just because Jesus died on the cross. See 1

John 3:4-6." [Emphasis added]

SOURCE: 'THE EVIDENCE BIBLE,' by Ray Comfort, pg. 1513; 2003, Bridge-Logos Publishers, Orlando, Florida

Dear reader, I triple-dog dare you to show me even one verse from the Holy Bible that teaches that "LIVING A LIFESTYLE" is required as part of being saved. I triple-dog dare you to show me where a believer is not "SAFE" just because Jesus died for their sins on the cross! You cannot! Now my friend, "a double-dog dare" is serious business, but a triple-dog dare is something you don't want to mess around with! I triple-dog dare you to show me even one Bible verse that agrees with these false statements by Ray Comfort. Mr. Comfort propagates a false gospel of fear and uncertainty!

In sharp contrast to Ray Comfort's false plan of salvation, read what the Bible says in Romans 6:1, "What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound?

" If you are a born-again child of God, and you choose to live a lifestyle of sinning, then God's saving grace will abound. In other words, a believer always falls IN GRACE, never FROM GRACE. Only an unsaved person who has wilfully ejected Christ as their personal Savior has fallen "from grace." That is, there is no other way for them to be saved. They cannot go to Heaven until they change their mind (repent), so that they will put their faith in Jesus Christ alone to be saved.

Another reprobate in the pulpit today, who propagates [7]junk theology is Dr. Steve Pettit (president of Bob Jones University since 2014), who horribly preaches fear and uncertainty to their 2,700 impressionable students...

"For the real reality of the genuineness of your faith is that you are faithful to run the race!" —Dr. Steve Pettit ("[8]What Does It Mean To Run 'The Race'?" - 22:44; 'The Daily Platform,' #21, January 26, 2015)

"You can't just speak about getting saved, and you accepted Christ, and then that's it! There is a justification; There is a sanctification; There's ultimately a glorification, and though there are three parts, they are all part of the whole, and you cannot separate them. In order for you to qualify for the award, you have to get into the race, you have to stay in the race, and you have to finish the race. If you want to win, you have to run to the end; and winning in the Christian life is everything, because if you lose—if you don't finish—you lose everything—you lose your SOUL. And so, the Christian race is the life of faith that begins, is run, and is finished when we cross over into Heaven!" [emphasis added] —Dr. Steve Pettit ("[9]What Does It Mean To Run 'The Race'?" - 11:34; 'The Daily Platform,' #21, January 26, 2015)

"God's people HAVE TO continue in the faith! They MUST PERSEVERE, because perseverance is the testimony of the reality of your faith!" [emphasis added] —Dr. Steve Pettit ("[10]What Does It Mean To Run 'The Race'?" - 25:13; 'The Daily Platform,' #21, January 26, 2015)

Again, I triple-dog dare you to show me in the Scriptures where it says a person "MUST PERSEVERE" to obtain the gift of eternal life! Dr. Pettit says you cannot look to a single moment when you were born-again; but rather, he says you MUST CONTINUE IN FAITH TO RUN THE RACE faithfully until the end, otherwise you won't receive the AWARD, which he says is HEAVEN ITSELF...

> "We run the race, we cross the finish line, and so what's the prize? What is the award? Well, there are different viewpoints. Some would have the viewpoint that the awards are crowns in Heaven. But as I read the book of Hebrews and see the whole gist of the book and the flow of the book, I don't believe its referring to crowns in Heaven. I think it is referring to Heaven itself." [emphasis added] —Dr. Steve Pettit ("[11]What Does It Mean To Run 'The Race'?" - 22:57; 'The Daily Platform,' #21, January 26, 2015)

Blasphemy!!! So according to Steve Pettit if you are not faithfully running 'The Race' as a professed Christian, you will lose the "AWARD" of "HEAVEN ITSELF." Folks, that is another gospel! In my humble Christian opinion, Steve Pettit is the worst thing that ever happened to Bob Jones University!!! I say that with love, because I CARE! Remember, the religious people in Matthew 7:21-23 did "MANY WONDERFUL WORKS," but the Lord said He never knew them. Jesus called them "YE THAT WORK INIQUITY"! They did all their many wonderful works in Jesus' name. They said they preached (prophesied) in Jesus' name. They ran the race faithfully, in their own sight, but Jesus said they failed to keep God's Commandments!!!

Dr. Pettit preaches in Jesus' name, doing many wonderful works, but he is preaching another gospel that does not match up with what the inspired Word of God teaches! Who are you going to believe—Steve Pettit or the inspired King James Bible? Romans 3:4, "God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged."

[12]Evangelist Paul Washer teaches the same garbage theology, that causes uncertainty and fear in people, wondering if they are really saved or not...

> "But if you profess to have gone through the narrow gate, and yet you live in the broad way ... just like all the other people who are carnal and wicked ... the Bible wants you to know that you should be terribly, terribly afraid — you know not God." (time: 24:37 in video) —[13]Evangelist Paul Washer - Shocking Message (full length; time - 24:37 in video)

Why should any believer be afraid of going to Hell? Paul Washer is preaching another Gospel. If I buy you a wonderful steak dinner for your birthday with all the trimmings, it's a done deal once you enjoy it. You eat the steak and it's done! You don't owe me anything! You don't have to run a race for the rest of your life! If you'll always keep in mind that eternal life is the "free gift" of God (Romans 5:15, 16 and 18), then you will see how wicked, unbiblical and silly these Neo-evangelical preachers are who add all sorts of unbiblical obligations, requirements and stipulations to the Gospel.

The indwelling Holy Spirit bears witness with our spirit to THE TRUTH. As believers, the Holy Spirit convicts us about the presence of sins in our life, and compels us continually to repent of those present sins and live for God. There will be changes inside a person when they get saved, but those changes may not be evident outwardly to others. It is wrong and dangerous theologically to judge others by appearance alone.

If a person professes faith in the name of Jesus Christ, believing THE GOSPEL, then we ought to accept them as saved, regardless of their lifestyle. Can an unsaved person live a good lifestyle? Yes, of course! So that cannot be used as evidence of salvation. The only commandment that we need to obey to be saved is to "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house" (Acts 16:31b). The phrase "thy house" simply means that the invitation to get saved was also extended to the man's family. You need to keep in mind that the purpose of John's comments in his Epistle is not to predicate salvation upon keeping God's commandments.

God Intended Salvation To Be Free, Easy And Simple

[14]I grew up around Skid Row, tagging along with my preacher father to various rescue missions in downtown Chicago. How does Steve Petite's perverted plan of salvation relate to people on Skid Row? To the man with a hammer in his hand, everything starts looking like a nail sticking up! In Steve Pettit's cushy little religious world, making a 6-digit salary as executive president of BJU, a snob's life, it may seem rational that salvation means living the Christian life. However, to a poor man on Skid Row who has lost everything in his existence, and whose only companion is a booze bottle, it is absurd to even attempt to apply Steve Pettit's high-brow, rich man oriented, running the race bullcrap plan of salvation! What a sad farce!!! The true Gospel reaches down in humility to those broken men in the gutter, offering them eternal life as a free gift, in exchange for nothing more than their faith in the only begotten Son of God.

There is no nutty requirement for those men in the depths of sin to "faithfully run 'The Race'," nor that they "persevere" in holiness, ministry and in service to others! Mr. Pettit's bogus religious teachings are for the wealthy and snobby elite, not the common man. The Biblical Gospel is no more complicated than a father giving his son a bicycle for his birthday! It's a done deal. That son doesn't have to faithfully ride the bicycle for the rest of his life to obtain it!

The Devil has blinded preachers by influencing them with religion. The problem is that preachers no longer "SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES." Instead they listen to corrupt preachers, and become indoctrinated with the poison of heretics like John MacArthur (which Moody Church in Chicago promotes), Paul Washer, Ray Comfort, R.C. Sproul and Steve Pettit! Calvinism, the "turn from sins" heresy to be saved, and Lordship Salvation, are far more deadly and contagious than the Coronavirus!!! There is no fear, worry or uncertainty in the correct Gospel message—you simply come to God as a needy sinner, believing the 'Good News' of Jesus Christ' crucified, buried and risen—and you are immediately, irrevocably, safely, securely and eternally saved!!! Eternal life is the believer's eternal security! Once saved always saved!!!

[15]Evangelist Ravi Zacharias wins the prize for the most vague, boring and wishy-washy preacher in history! I can listen to him for an hour and have no clue what he is trying to say! I think [16]Dr. Sam Horn comes in second, the Vice President of Bob Jones University. I'll take [17]Brother Lester Roloff (1914-1982) any day! Tragically, Harvest Baptist Church on Guam (a pseudo independent Baptist church) invited and honored Ravi Zacharias in June of 2017, bidding him Godspeed. Ravi's sinister ministry took in [18] $47,353,235 in 2016! Not bad for an evil ecumenical ministry of sinful compromise, watered-down truth, and [19]Satanic support of Mormonism. From listening to Ravi present his plan of salvation, it is very clear to me that he doesn't really know how to be saved. To me it appears to be all about the money!

Ravi suggests that his audience pray a prayer, [23]giving 12 things for them to repeat, NONE OF WHICH include Jesus' death on the cross, burial or resurrection. Gospel preacher? You decide! I have nothing personal against Mr. Zacharias, God knows my heart, but why does a preacher need $47,353,235 a year? That is unethical at best, and utterly sinful for a professed man of God (1st Timothy 6:10-11). Ravi is pulling on the same rope as the Devil, which is why the heathen religious world loves him so much. Luke 6:26, "Woe unto you, when all men shall speak well of you! for so did their fathers to the false prophets."

Everywhere that Ravi travels to speak, the apostate religious world loves him, because he preaches a vague message of acceptance by God through sincerely giving your heart to Jesus, which is NOT the Gospel. You can give your heart to Jesus like the people did in Matthew 7:21-23 and go straight to Hell when you die! You had better get BORN-AGAIN by faith alone as a guilty sinner in the '[24]GOOD NEWS' (GOSPEL) of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen the third day (1st Corinthians 15:1-4)!

One of my favorite country preachers, Pastor Danny Castle, gets salvation 100 % correct...

> "Repentance don't save you. Calling on the Lord don't save you. You know what saves you? Receiving what Christ done for you on the cross!" —Pastor Danny Castle, a quote from the needful MP3 sermon, "[25]WHY THERE'S A HELL!"

Amen! The Bible teaches that a person can be saved immediately, and know it immediately! You don't have to wait to prove anything to yourself and anyone else. There is no probationary period, to see how you live, in order to determine if someone is saved. The Bible calls eternal life a "FREE GIFT" (Romans 5:15b). You don't have to live in torment anymore dear friend. God wants you to KNOW, beyond any shadow of a doubt whatsoever, that you have been born-again and have eternal life dwelling in you. You have God's solemn PROMISE, recorded in black and white in the inspired King James Bible. John 11:25, "Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live:" Simply believe on the only begotten Son of God as your Savior! Acts 10:43, "To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins."

The [26]corrupted Harvest Baptist Church on Guam are upset with me for exposing their hero, Dr. Steve Pettit, for the FALSE PROPHET that he truly is; but they will answer to God for bidding Godspeed to such a wicked man, who preaches another gospel of works!!! 2nd John 1:11, "For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds." Woe unto Harvest Baptist Church on Guam for promoting corruptible seed, bidding Godspeed to false prophets, preaching the counterfeit gospel of Lordship Salvation, and ostracizing me for telling THE TRUTH as a true friend does (Romans 14:10; Galatians 4:16). Go read Bob Jones University's website, where they openly [27]require people to turn from sins to be saved. That is another gospel (Galatians 1:6-9). I say that with God's love, because I do love you all so much. The truth offends them! If anyone needs to repent of their sins, it is the corrupted stick-necked Bob Jones' crowd!

Beware of anyone who comes along saying that you must make full surrender, faithfully run the race, persevere in holiness, follow Jesus as "Lord," turn from sinful ways, or anything else that ADDS to the Gospel of free grace, for they are preaching ANOTHER GOSPEL. 2nd Corinthians 11:3-4, "But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ. For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him."

Anyone who fears, worries or has uncertainties about being saved, is either unlearned of the Holy Scriptures, or you've been horribly deceived by the Devil's sinister ministers! The truth of the Gospel gives perfect peace to those who believe it! As a final help, I'd like to share two of my favorite sermons with you by Pastor Hank Lindstrom (1940-2008) titled: '[28]HOW PERMANENT IS YOUR SALVATION?' (MP3).

3.12.8 The God Of All Comfort (2022-12-11 17:39)

“Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort.” —2nd Corinthians 1:3

The Apostle Paul had suffered horrible trials and tribulation while traveling through Asia, so bad in fact that he stated in 2nd Corinthians 1:8b, “we despaired even of life.”

In writing of God’s sustaining grace concerning the poet William Cowper, Joseph Larson said:

> “It was William Cowper on his way in a cab to the Thames River to commit suicide, who, when the driver could not find it for the dense fog, returned to his house and thanking God for the fog, wrote:
> God moves in a mysterious way,
> His wonders to perform;
> He plants His footsteps on the sea,
> And rides upon the storm.
>
> Blind unbelief is sure to err,
> And scan His works in vain;
> God is His own interpreter,
> And He will make it plain.
> Judge not the Lord by feeble sense,
> But trust Him for His grace;

Behind a frowning providence
He hides a smiling face.”

Trials can make life seem not worth living. Paul said in 2nd Corinthians 1:9, “But we had the sentence of death in ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God which raiseth the dead.” In other words, Paul says, “We felt as if we were under a death sentence and all hope was gone. But we suffered so that we would stop trusting ourselves and learn to trust God, Who raises the dead.”

God will oftentimes bring a Christian to the point in life where there is no direction to look except up, to where all we have left is our faith. When all you have is God, God is all you need. God brought the Apostle Paul to the point where he even despaired life itself, so that Paul would learn to trust completely in God.

3.12.9 You Don’t Have To Pray To Be Saved (2022-12-12 13:38)

Acts 16:29-32 “Then he called for a light, and sprang in, and came trembling, and fell down before Paul and Silas, And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved*, and thy house. And they spake unto him the word of the Lord, and to all that were in his house."

Sadly, in what has been dubbed, "The New IFB Movement" (i.e., the New Independent Fundamentalist Baptist Movement), a small but influential group of aggressive pastors are all echoing the beliefs and preaching of Pastor Steven Anderson. Although I do support the ministry of these men of God, and I am thankful for their soulwinning ministries, it disturbs me that they teach the Bible way to be saved is to pray.

Dear reader, you don't need to pray, confess publicly, call or ask Jesus to save you to get to Heaven, you simply need to BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST. More specifically, you need to BELIEVE the facts concerning who Jesus is, what He did for you and why He did it:

- WHO Jesus is - He is the Christ, the only begotten Son of God (John 20:31)
- WHAT Jesus did for you - He died on the cross to pay for your sins and mine. He was buried and then three days later Christ bodily resurrected from the dead (1st Corinthians 15:1-6)
- WHY Jesus did it for you - Because there is a penalty for sin, which is death, including the Second Death in the Lake of Fire forever (Romans 3:23; Revelation 20:11-15)

If you accept those FACTS concerning Jesus as the truth, placing your personal trust in them, then you are saved. Faith plus the Gospel equals eternal life. In the Gospel of John we find the word "believe" in it's various forms mentioned at least 85 times. Not once are we instructed to call, confess, pray or ask Jesus to save us. Read what Jesus said for yourself in these beautiful clear passages from John:

- John 3:16, "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life."
- John 6:28-29, "Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent."
- John 6:40, "And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day."
- John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life."
- John 11:25-26, "Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this?"

In all of these Scripture passages, Jesus simply taught to BELIEVE ON HIM to be saved. In John 11:26, "liveth and believeth" are not two different things, which would contradict the multitude of other passages of Scripture where Jesus simply said to BELIEVE. The sinner who believes on Jesus Christ is indwelt with the gift of the blessed Holy Spirit (Romans 8:9; 1st John 3:24), and is now alive in Christ (Galatians 5:25).

All of the New IFB preachers who are insisting that the Bible way to be saved is to pray, call or ask Jesus to save you are LIARS! I have heard New IFB pastors call people like me “idiots” for preaching that you don’t need to pray to be saved. Respectfully, Pastor Steven Anderson says that it is stupid to go around saying that you don’t need to pray to be saved, because he rationalizes that it is a normal human tendency to desire to pray, call or ask Christ to save them. Although I agree that there is a natural tendency to accompany faith with a prayer, I also think it is VERY important that people be taught that they don’t need to pray, call or ask to be saved, because praying, calling and asking is NOT part of the Gospel.

I Was Deceived By Preachers To Pray To Be Saved

My own personal salvation testimony is the best illustration I can give you of why it is a bad idea to lead lost sinners to pray to be saved. When I was 13 years old I got saved. It was a Sunday morning in Chicago during the summer, at an old-fashioned Baptist church. The day I got saved I was too timid to walk down the aisle to find out how to be saved. This is a big mistake that a lot of preachers make, to require people to walk a church aisle to be saved. They are unfortunately adding an unnecessary step to God’s simple plan of salvation, so they can boast of the number of people who got saved. That is wrong to do!

I had attended Sunday School my entire childhood, but had never personally received Christ as my Savior. In kindergarten my teacher led the class in a “

1-2-3, follow me

” type of prayer, but I didn’t get saved then, because I didn’t personally trust Jesus yet. There was no Holy Spirit conviction about the sins in my life. The teacher told my parents that I got saved and they had me water baptized. Unfortunately, I was still as lost as a polar bear walking down a street in New York City.

It wasn’t until age 13 that I finally came under Holy Spirit conviction and I did get saved. I had heard the truth of Jesus’ death, burial and resurrection all my childhood. I never questioned or doubted those truths, but neither had I personally put my faith in them to be saved. So that day, as best I knew how, I called out in my soul and asked Jesus to save me. Since I had gone down the aisle to learn how to be saved, and the pastor didn’t tell us how to be saved from our pew, I left church that day with a holy horror over my soul.

Little did I know that it would last for the next several years. Every preacher that I had ever heard, and every religious tract that I had ever read (including Chick Tracts, which are eye-candy to children), wrongly told me to PRAY a sinner’s prayer to get saved. So in my impressionable mind as a youth, I thought the way that you put your faith in Jesus is through a prayer. I had been deceived by Satan through sincere, but dumb dumb, preachers!!!

I used to literally cry tears of sorrow, worry and doubt that I was saved. It wasn’t because I wasn’t saved, but because no one had ever showed me THE TRUTH of the Gospel, which is that you can simply BELIEVE the GOOD NEWS that Jesus died on a cross for my sins, was buried and three days later He bodily resurrected from the dead. This is ’THE GOSPEL’ according to 1st Corinthians 15:1-6). Nowhere in the inspired King James Bible are we instructed to pray, call, confess or ask God to be saved. Now, I did ask Jesus to save me from my soul, because Pastor Anderson is correct that it is a natural thing to do.

I was deceived to think that I must pray to put my faith in Christ. I learned the hard way decades later that BELIEVING is God’s way to be saved, not calling. Respectfully, [1]in the preceding video Pastor Jonathan Shelley errantly says that calling and believing are the same thing. Oh really? What saith the Scripture? ...

> Romans 10:13-14, “For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher?”

Clearly, calling is NOT the same thing as believing, because the Bible says you cannot call until you first believe. The word “call” here does not mean to pray. I looked up the English word “call” in a Greek concordance (something New IFB pastors foolishly mock and refuse to do themselves). The word

to invoke,

which simply means to go to the Lord. We go to the Lord in prayer because we have already BELIEVED upon Him in our soul. This is why when people do walk a church aisle to learn how to be saved, they were already saved before they even left their pew, the moment that they BELIEVED on Jesus as Christ. That is what Romans 10:14 is saying. Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do.

Norm Diamante is 100 % Correct That Believing is Enough To Be Saved

I fully agree with Norm Diamante ([2]his YouTube channel is ’Good Hope’) that you DON’T have to pray, call or ask to be saved, you simply BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST. The following video is horribly attacking Norm Diamante for his free grace Gospel preaching...

New IFB Pastors Horribly Attack Norm Diamante For Preaching The Truth

Let me say, at about 10 minutes into the video, Pastor Bruce Mejia attacks Norm Diamante, accusing him of being a hypocrite. THE TRUTH is that like all wise preachers, Norm honed his theology over the years. It is obvious to any honest person that Norm changed his beliefs a bit. Years ago he led people in a sinner's prayer to ask Jesus to save them. But, as I changed my beliefs as well, Norm realized that he had been wrong, and he moved to the right, no longer teaching people to pray or ask to be saved.

I am guilty of doing the same exact thing as Norm. When I attended Hyles-Anderson College (1985-1993), I led lost sinners to pray a prayer and ask Jesus to save them. I did share the facts of the Gospel with them. I believe they DID get saved. However, many years later I learned that I had been improperly taught how to lead someone to Christ. I learned from Pastor Max D. Younce that I didn't have to pray, ask, call or confess Christ at all to be saved, I just needed to BELIEVE. Pastor Younce backed up everything he taught in his books with the inspired Word of God. That helpful book by Dr. Younce that helped me is titled: '[3]Salvation And The Public Invitation' ([4]backup link).

Yes dear friend, you can be saved WITH or WITHOUT confession!!! I and Norm are not "Bozos who attacks soulwinning" as Pastor Anderson says in the preceding video embedding into this blog. I will not call Pastor Anderson names as he does others. There is an inherent danger in telling people to repeat a prayer to be saved, because it may confuse them about what exactly is the Gospel. Pastor Harry Ironside (1876-1951) gets the Gospel 100 % correct in this helpful Gospel tract titled: '[5]What Is The Gospel?' The following helpful excerpt is from the preceding Gospel tract by Dr. Ironside...

> What then is the content of this Gospel? We are told right here, "I declare unto you the Gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; by which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain." There is such a thing as merely believing with the intelligence and crediting some doctrine with the mind when the heart has not been reached. But wherever men believe this Gospel in real faith, they are saved through the message. What is it that brings this wonderful result? It is a simple story, and yet how rich, how full. "I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received." I think his heart must have been stirred as he wrote those words, for he went back in memory to nearly thirty years before, and thought of that day when hurrying down the Damascus turnpike, with his heart filled with hatred toward the Lord Jesus Christ and His people, he was thrown to the ground, and a light shone, and he heard a voice saying, "Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?" And he cried, "Who art thou Lord?" And the voice said, "I am Jesus whom thou persecutest." And that day Saul learned the Gospel; he learned that He who died on the Cross had been raised from the dead, and that He was living in the Glory. At that moment his soul was saved, and Saul of Tarsus was changed to Paul the Apostle. And now he says, "I am going to tell you what I have received; it is a real thing with me, and I know it will work the same wonderful change in you. If you will believe it. "First of all, "That Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures." Then, "that He was buried." Then, "that He rose again the third day according to the Scriptures." Pastor Harry Ironside (1876-1951): '[6]What Is The Gospel?'

As Pastor Ironside says, it is not enough to know what the Gospel is (intellectual knowledge), you must make it personal by trusting the Gospel (Good News) as your only hope for Heaven.

I like what Pastor Curtis Hutson said, “

A good rule to follow when interpreting the Bible is to never use an obscure passage to contradict a clear one.

” Kindly said, these New IFB pastors today (i.e., Steven Anderson, Jonathan Shelley, Bruce Mejia, Roger Jimenez, et cetera) all echo whatever Pastor Steven Anderson says, who is their undisputed leader. They are all doing exactly what Pastor Curtis Hutson said not to do, they are using an obscure passage of Scripture from Romans 10:13 to contradict the entire clear Gospel of John. In John we are taught to “BELIEVE” on Jesus at least 85 times, but not once are we taught to “

God’s Method is Not To Lead Lost Sinners To Pray, But Believe The Gospel

Kindly said, what Pastor Anderson doesn’t seem to understand is that adding a requirement to pray a prayer to be saved OBSCURES the light of the truth of the Gospel. When I got saved at age 13, I did believe that Jesus died for my sins on the cross. I admitted to God that I am a guilty sinner. I trusted that Jesus was buried and then physically raised up from the dead the third day. I believed and personally trusted Christ at age 13. I was forever born-again by faith alone. But those basic beliefs in the Gospel were clouded by the unbiblical requirement to pray a sinner’s prayer, which I had been taught in church for years.

So for many years to come I kept doubting God’s gift of salvation, wondering if I had left something out when I prayed. Did I really know that I was a sinner? I do know now, but did I know back then at age 13? What if? What if I go to Hell forever and miss out on the blessings of Heaven? What if I got something wrong? What if? What if? But when Pastor Younce clearly explained to me the simplicity that is in Christ, through faith alone WITHOUT CONFESSION, WITHOUT CALLING, WITHOUT ASKING or WITHOUT PRAYER, my salvation beliefs were finally SOLIDIFIED. And now for the past 20 years I have been sharing with others the blessed truths that I was taught by other faithful free grace Gospel preachers (e.g., Pastors’ Max D. Younce, A. Ray Stanford, Hank Lindstrom, Ralph Yankee Arnold, Mark Cambron).

To clarify, it is okay for a new convert to ask, call, confess and pray to accompany their faith in Chris, but no preacher should ever tell someone that the Bible says to pray a prayer to be saved, because it doesn’t. When the Philippian jailor in Rome asked Paul and Silas how to be saved, their simple answer was to “BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST” (Acts 16:31b). Paul and Silas didn’t tell the jailer to call, pray, ask or confess!!! So why do these New IFB preachers foolishly ADD words to the Word of God? Why do they make salvation harder than it really is? Kindly said, Pastor Anderson says that the New IFB preachers are “helping” people get saved by leading them to pray. But I am living proof that what Pastor Anderson is saying is untrue. I suffered much unnecessary worry, grief and stress because every pastor I heard preacher said to pray a prayer at the end of their salvation presentation. The problem is that what they were teaching was not the pure Gospel, it was a hybrid.

Dear reader, you don’t need to walk a church aisle to be saved. You can be saved right in your pew. You don’t need to ask, confess, call or pray a prayer to be saved. The Bible simply says to “believe” on Jesus. John 3:16, “For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.” Now, we know that the thief on the cross asked Jesus to remember Him, and the blessed Savior did. It is not wrong to ask Jesus to save you. It is not wrong to pray. However, you need to know that you could just as easily BELIEVE in your soul the Gospel, and never pray, call, confess or ask for salvation, and you are still 100 % born-again by faith alone.

I do not understand why these New IFB pastors are so angry and attacking pastors like Ralph Yankee Arnold, Max D. Younce, Hank Lindstrom (1940-2008) and A. Ray Stanford (1916-2012), who preach the Bible truth that you don't have to pray, ask, confess or call to be saved, the Bible simply teaches to BELIEVE the Gospel (1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

The inherent problem which has developed over the past half century is that many people are merely praying a prayer, a "

1-2-3 repeat after me

" type recital, who don't truly understand what the Gospel even means. Those people are victims, not converts! I am not saying that these New IFB pastors are doing that. I know Pastor Steven Anderson's preaching well enough to know that he DOES believe a person can be saved by faith alone, without praying or confession. But I humbly disagree with him that the Bible way to be saved is to pray a prayer in accompaniment of one's faith in Christ. That is not the Bible way. Yes, the thief on the cross who repented did ask Jesus to remember him, but that was not the norm. Our perfect standard is the Gospel of John. John 20:31, "But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name." The Gospel of John is God's Gospel tract, as we just read in John 20:31.

The worse thing a pastor can do, to a person who is struggling with the assurance of their salvation, is to lead them in a sinner's prayer to be saved. Doing that obscures the truth of the Gospel, confuses the person more, and doesn't help them in the least to solve the problem! You don't have to pray to be saved. Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) emphasizes this great Bible truth...

> "'Pray to be saved. Ask the Lord to save you.' This is what I heard a minister say to a convicted sinner who came forward for prayer at the close of an evangelistic service. Nowhere in the Bible are men told to pray to be saved. There are examples where men did pray and were saved. Men are told to repent, to believe, to obey the Gospel, but the Bible never says to pray for salvation. It does say that whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved, but nowhere does the Bible command men to pray to be saved. I think I know why, God, who made the human heart, knew that it was not necessary to tell convicted sinners to pray. If a sinner can see Jesus Christ on the cross, it is as natural for him to pray as it is for birds to sing or flowers to bloom. 'Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved."' —Dr. Bob Jones Sr., "Comments On Here And Hereafter," chapter: Prayer And Praise, page 163; Bob Jones University Press, Inc., © 1942

Amen and amen! There is nothing taught in the Bible about praying a sinner's prayer to be saved. That is why I stopped using it years ago. When I witness to people now, I simply present to them 'The Gospel' – the Good News of Christ crucified, buried and risen the third day (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Anyone who comes to God as a needy sinner, receiving Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for their sins, believing that He is bodily risen from the dead, is saved. It's that simple!

What such a person needs is to be taught THE TRUTH that salvation does not require a prayer to be saved. Jesus has already paid for everyone's sins with His precious blood. That is why eternal life is a free gift. Anybody can have that free gift. All they need to do is take it, by faith alone in the 'GOOD NEWS' of Christ crucified, buried and risen. When I learned years later that I didn't need to pray at all, it solidified my knowledge that I was saved. I haven't had a single doubt (God knows I speak the truth) in about 30 years. But I really owe it to Pastor Max D. Younce for 100 % solidifying my faith, in his helpful book titled: "[7]SALVATION AND THE PUBLIC INVITATION."

In his book, Dr. Younce admonishes all pastors to give people an opportunity to accept Christ as their Savior from the pew, without requiring them to walk down a church isle to find out how to get saved. Respectfully, if the pastor under whom I was saved had given me the opportunity to be saved in the pew, and simply would have explained to me how to be saved without leaving the pew, it may have saved me seven miserable years of worry and fear. Requiring people to walk an isle ADDS an additional step to the plan of salvation, which God does NOT require. Likewise, praying a sinner's prayer is an ADDITIONAL step which God does NOT require to be saved.

You Don't Have To Ask, God Is Already Offering You Eternal Life

Since Christ has already paid for our sins in full with His blood on the cross, God is OFFERING salvation to us freely. If we ask God to save us, He will say: "Why are you asking me to save you? I already promised that I will save anybody who BELIEVES on the name of my dear only begotten Son." God is offering to us eternal life. It would be silly to ask God to give us something, that He is already freely offering to us. 1st Corinthians 1:21, "For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe."

I did not write this blog to attack New IFB pastors, God knows my heart. I truly love those guys and support their aggressive soulwinning efforts. I think it is wrong for anyone to falsely accuse those New IFB pastors of preaching another gospel. That is not true! Pastor Steven Anderson does preach an accurate free grace Gospel, but by leading people to pray a sinner's prayer he runs the risk that some people may become confused about what the Gospel really is (as I was for several years).

When I got saved at age 13, I believed all the elements of the Gospel and was saved, but because I didn't know exactly what God expected of me to get to Heaven, I was terrified and worried sick for several years to come. Until I read [8]Pastor Max Younce's helpful Bible study books many years later, I had never heard any preacher say that you could simply BELIEVE the Gospel, without praying or asking or confessing or calling or walking a church aisle, and still be saved.

Pastor Jack Hyles did preach many great sermons about being saved by faith alone, but since the entire church and college family were trained to lead people to pray a prayer to be saved, that was engrained in my brain. I didn't even realize how such an unbiblical practice was confusing and hindering me from finding perfect peace concerning God's free gift of salvation. The honest truth is that you DON'T need to pray at all to get to Heaven, faith is enough.

If that offends you, or you think I am barking up an empty tree, it is only because you didn't suffer through the many agonizing years of not being sure that I was going to Heaven. I cannot express in words the emotional trauma that I dealt with for a decade and beyond. Eventually, after several years of fear and uncertainty, I stopped worrying and just decided to trust God regardless of my doubts, but I still didn't have perfect peace. It wasn't until I read Dr. Younce's wonderful book: '[9]Salvation And The Public Invitation,' that I finally had perfect peace. My salvation beliefs were SOLIDIFIED. I guess I just needed to hear someone say what I already knew, but I couldn't nail it down; which is THE TRUTH that the Gospel is simply a matter of believing the GOOD NEWS that Jesus died on the cross for my sins, was buried and bodily raised up from the dead three days later. BELIEVING is all that God requires, not praying or asking or calling or confessing, nor anything else.

The only requirement to be saved is to realize that we are a guilty needy sinner and there is a penalty for our sin. We are all sinners (Romans 3:23). There is a penalty for sinning, which the Bible says is death (Romans 6:23; Romans 5:12). That includes the "second death" (Revelation 21:8b). That is what we deserve, which means we NEED a Savior. That is what I mean by "needy sinner," we all NEED a Savior. That is the purpose of God's law in the Old Testament, to show us our sinnership, and bring us to Jesus Christ to be saved by grace through faith (Galatians 3:24-26).

I strongly suggest that you memorize some of these Bible passages that I have mentioned. It will help you to get the inspired Words of God into your heart. We need to hide God's Word in our heart. God has PROMISED you eternal life in His Word. Titus 1:2, "In hope of eternal life, which God, that cannot lie, promised before the world began;" Jesus said in John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life."

> "Lord, help me to preach today as if it were the last sermon I would ever preach."
> —Dr. Jack Hyles

3.12.10 The Sins Of Campus Church At PCC (2022-12-16 17:47)

Matthew 15:7-9, "Ye hypocrites, well did Esaias prophesy of you, saying, This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips; but their heart is far from me. But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men."

I was reading Isaiah this morning. I couldn't help but think about Campus Church, and the religious Pensacola Christian College (PCC) camp while reading these verses. It is clear that God is not interested in "religious" people, but a sincere people. We see this spiritual rebellion also with King Saul.

PCC are a bunch of religious phonies. They go through the superficial motions of offering their sacrifices and sycophantic worship to God, but their hearts are far away from the truth. ...

Isaiah 1:11-15,

To what purpose is the multitude of your sacrifices unto me? saith the LORD: I am full of the burnt offerings of rams, and the fat of fed beasts; and I delight not in the blood of bullocks, or of lambs, or of he goats.

When ye come to appear before me, who hath required this at your hand, to tread my courts?

Bring no more vain oblations; incense is an abomination unto me; the new moons and sabbaths, the calling of assemblies, I cannot away with; it is iniquity, even the solemn meeting.

Your new moons and your appointed feasts my soul hateth: they are a trouble unto me; I am weary to bear them.

And when ye spread forth your hands, I will hide mine eyes from you: yea, when ye make many prayers, I will not hear: your hands are full of blood.

PCC and Campus Church do not obey God to "rebuke them sharply" (Titus 1:9-14) who subvert the Gospel. Ken Ham perverts the Gospel, requiring lost sinners to forsake past sinful ways in order to get to Heaven, which is **"

” (Jonah 3:10b). God does not allow WORKS in His simple plan of salvation. Why does the PCC camp pal around and wickedly bid Godspeed to Ken Ham, a hellbound infidel? Why does the PCC camp pal around with the accursed Calvinist Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, which is a cesspool of Bob Jones University (BJU) graduates who preach hardcore Lordship Salvation? Why doesn't the pastors of Campus Church have the backbone to stand and contend for the faith as I do? (Jude 1:3). Why have I been rejected and banned from attending Campus Church for telling THE TRUTH? SHAME on Pastors' Jeff Redlin and Timothy Zacharias, two devils, and complicit PCC leadership! Aren't there are godly people at PCC? I don't see any. Jeff Redlin is just as wicked as Saul, doing things his own corrupt way instead of God's way...

1st Samuel 15:22-23,

“ And Samuel said, Hath the LORD as great delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices, as in obeying the voice of the LORD? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, and to hearken than the fat of rams.

For rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft, and stubbornness is as iniquity and idolatry. Because thou hast rejected the word of the LORD, he hath also rejected thee from being king. ”

What is the point of Campus Church and the PCC students and staff meeting every week with backslidden leaders? They tolerate doctrines of devils and pal around with heretics and the ungodly. They are the opposite of what they should be. ...

Isaiah 1:21,

How is the faithful city become an harlot! it was full of judgment; righteousness lodged in it; but now murderers.

The have watered down preaching...

Isaiah 1:22,

“

Thy silver is become dross, thy wine mixed with water:

The leadership is more worried about their outrageous six-digit salaries than training up men and women for the ministry. They actually charge money for learning how to go SOULWINNING!!!! When I attended Campus Church in 2021, Jeff Redlin charged everyone $10 to attend a class on hos to more effectively share the Gospel. Sadly, they don't even know what the Gospel is, promoting BJU's and Ken Ham's damnable heresy. RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!! PCC and Campus Church love money...

Isaiah 1:23, “

Thy princes are rebellious, and companions of thieves: every one loveth gifts, and followeth after rewards: they judge not the fatherless, neither doth the cause of the widow come unto them.

Campus Church and PCC are not on Gods plan. The ungodly pastors of Campus Church and PCC leaders are not willing and obedient to God!!! They need to be first willing to get right with God and start doing right. They won’t even allow me to attend their Campus Church, which speaks volumes against their woeful dilapidated spiritual condition at PCC. ...

Isaiah 1:19, “

If ye be willing and obedient, ye shall eat the good of the land:

God help to fight against ungodly colleges like PCC! SHAME on Campus Church for promoting Ken Ham and Steve Pettit. PCC is poisoning hundreds of churches with their Neo-evangelical apostasy! PCC allows their students to play intercollegiate sports with BJU, a cesspool of Hard-core Lordship Salvation today. By doing so, PCC is effectively teaching their students that contending for the faith is not as important as playing sports together.

Sadly, contending for the faith takes a back seat to making money and playing religion at PCC. One bad decision can only lead to another and another. What one generation tolerates, the next generation will embrace. Already PCC has embraced the damnable heresy of the accursed Bob Jones camp, that you must turn away from sinful ways to know that you are saved, which is Satanic doctrine. Here is a screenshot from July 21, 2021 at PCC’s Campus Church (I added the red warning circle)...

Damnable Heresy Preached At Pensacola Christian College On July 21, 2021

Biblically, repentance regarding salvation is the Greek word metanoia, which means:

a change of mind,

period, end of story. Repentance does NOT mean that your behavior will change. PCC are LIARS!!! Those religious fools Jeff Redlin and Timothy Zacharias ADDED those words to the Holy Bible.

Proverbs 30:5-6, “ Every word of God is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him. *Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar. ” I will be there in Heaven when the wicked leaders of PCC and their ungodly wrong pastors are reproved by God for perverting the inspired Word of God. I will be rewarded for REBUKING THEM SHARPLY at the Bible commands in Titus 1:13-14; but the PCC leaders and Campus Church pastors will hang their heads in utter shame as God calls them LIARS for changing what it means to repent to be saved.

Dear reader, if you have to look at your life to prove that you are saved, it just proves that you are not. The only evidence of salvation according to 1st John 3:24 is the blessed indwelling Holy Spirit, and not because your behavior has changed. Unsaved people can change their behavior. A changed life is called reformation. Cleaning up your bad habits is called rehabilitation. But neither of those are Bible repentance. Being sorry for your sins is NOT required to be saved. You must repent (that is, change your mind) to believe the Gospel.

For PCC to remain silent about the Devil’s Bible revisions makes them accomplices. PCC refuses to stand against anything! Any parent who pays for their son or daughter to attend PCC is a darn fool. Your child will graduate in a few years as a coward who goes along to get along, but they won’t contend for the Christian faith. If that is okay with you, get right with God!!! PCC is a cesspool of complacency, indifference, hypocrites and arrogant corrupt leaders. Individual people don’t matter at Campus Church or PCC.

They are wicked and unreasonable people at Pensacola Christian College, as I found out the hard way in 2021 and 2022 when they refused to reconcile with me. SHAME on Campus Church and the PCC camp, who are a stench to the state of Florida. PCC is wrong on Bible repentance!!! Somebody’s got to preach with Biblical authority to expose false prophets, unlike PCC who pal around with infidel’s Ken Ham, Gary Walton and Steve Pettit. God’s judgment is upon PCC for wickedly bidding Godspeed to damnable heretics (2nd John 1:11). Sadly, PCC leaders laugh it off and think it is funny, typical of yuppie type neo-evangelicals nowadays. They love money so much that contending for the faith is not even on their radar.

What must you change your mind about to be saved? Simply, whatever has been keeping you from BELIEVING ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST to be saved (Acts 16:30-31). God intentionally chose to use metanoia, which is an open-ended, all-inclusive word. The only requirement to be saved is to know what you need to be saved from, and that is the the penalty which sins brings. Romans 6:23 says that the wages of sin is death.

The PCC camp treat individual people like garbage! The cult system always comes first at PCC. It is tragic what has happened across our country to Bible colleges and the thousands of churches which they corrupt. The Devil's Bible revisions have infiltrated these institutions. The Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation has saturated these rotten institutions. The Devil's misunderstanding of repentance has corrupted these places as well, damning men's souls to the Lake of Fire. Just because most pastors are preaching a lie doesn't make it THE TRUTH. Lordship Salvation is a lie of Satan, which cannot produce the new birth.

Campus Church at PCC has much blood on their hands. They are guilty of wickedly bidding Godspeed to false prophets Ken Ham, Steve Pettit and Gary Walton. Campus Church is guilty of promoting a wrong understanding of what it means to repent to be saved. Repentance does NOT produce a change of behavior, as Campus Church falsely teaches. Shame on Campus Church for selling courses on how to share the Gospel more effectively! No one should ever have to pay money to learn how to witness to lost sinners. Shame on Pastor Jeff Redlin!!!

The sins of Campus Church also include not contending for the Christian faith, not caring about hurting people like me. I literally begged for their compassion and mercy, but they threw me under the bus and left me for dead. There is a woeful lack of God's love and compassion for individual people at Campus Church and PCC. Their rules and authoritarian Nazi-style of oppression at PCC are all that matter. They haven't learned yet at Campus Church and PCC that the letter killeth, but the Spirit giveth life. They have no life at PCC, only rules and regulations to obey or else. PCC is a prisonhouses of religion!!! Campus Church of religion!!! RUN from this place!

3.12.11 Are There Few That Be Saved? (2022-12-19 16:29)

Luke 13:23-24, “Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them, Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able.”

Jesus warned that during the end times, the world will return to the deplorable conditions before the flood of Noah’s time. Matthew 24:37-39 that the world would return as it was during the times of Noah before the flood. But as the days of Noe were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be. For as in the days that were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark, And knew not until the flood came, and took them all away; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.”

What were those conditions? Genesis 6:5,

“ And GOD saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually. ”

Everywhere we turn today we are seeing a breakdown in family values, apostate churches, false doctrine, perverted morals, bad ethics and lack of personal moral integrity, from individual Americans all the way up to the highest levels of our government.

I was rejoicing today that my name is written in Heaven (Luke 10:20). I was meditating upon the dear Savior's words in Luke 13:23-24, "And he went through the cities and villages, teaching, and journeying toward Jerusalem. Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them, Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able. "

I was talking with a professed Christian woman recently. She has a sister-in-law married to her older brother, who is a member of the Church of Christ cult. This woman thinks her sister-in-law is saved, even though she believes you must be water baptized to get to Heaven. She thinks that God sees a person's sincerity, and that the Lord judges a person based upon their sincerity. Unfortunately, she is flawed in her thinking. What saith the Scripture? Proverbs 14:12, "There is a way which seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death." The road to Hell is paved with sincerity. Some of the worst ideas in human history have been done with the best of intentions. Jesus warned in John 3:3b, "Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God. " God said what He meant, and He meant what He said. If Jesus said that you must be born again, He wasn't kidding.

The bottom line then is this—have you been born anew from above by the Holy Spirit of God? Can a person believe the Gospel, plus add water baptism or some other so-called "sacraments" and still be born again? The resounding Biblical answer is no! If you disagree, then please show me from the Bible where I am wrong.

I kindly explained to the lady I was talking with, about her Church of Christ relative, that I totally disagree that she is saved by confused. If someone believes the Gospel, but also trusts in water baptism to be saved, that is NOT God's simple plan of salvation. It is religion. No one has ever been saved by partial faith in Christ plus something else. You cannot be born again by partial faith in Christ plus turning away from your sinful ways.

Nowhere does the Holy Bible teach that a lost sinner must forsake sinful bad habits, or be willing to turn away from sinful ways, to get to Heaven. The big problem is that many preachers are unlearned in the Scripture, not dividing the Word of God alright. So instead they corrupt the inspired Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people, confusing them with a false plan of salvation.

Pilgrim's Progress author, John Bunyan, I think said it best:

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." —John Bunyan (1628-1688)

What an awesome statement! From this helpful quote from John Bunyan, I can tell that he had a keen understanding of the free grace Gospel. Unfortunately, most preachers today (including independent fundamental Baptist pastors) don't have a keen understanding of the Gospel. The most dangerous thing you can do dear reader, is to listen to TV, internet and radio preachers, because 95 % of them are woefully ignorant of the inspired Scriptures. You'd be shocked if you knew just how woefully unlearned of the Scripture the average pastor is today. We are a nation of Bible ignoramuses!!!

I love what Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) said: "

A good rule to follow when interpreting the Bible is to never use an obscure passage to contradict a clear one.

” If you examine what passages of Scripture every proponent of Lordship Salvation cites to prove their false teachings, you’ll see that they based their beliefs on single obscure passages of Scripture, while ignoring the complete Gospel of John, and the Epistle of Galatians.

I reasoned with my female friend that if her Church of Christ sister-in-law is saved, then why not Roman Catholics too? How about Seventh-Day Adventists? Jesus said in Luke 13:23-24 that "few" people shall be able to enter into Heaven. If partial faith in Christ plus something else brings salvation, then most people would be going to Heaven. But Jesus said that only a few people shall enter into Heaven, but many shall seek to enter.

Jesus tells us why few people are saved in Matthew 7:15, because of false prophets, ravening wolves, who come to us disguised in sheep’s clothing. Catholics all believe the Gospel. They believe they are saved by Jesus’ shed blood. They believe Christ died on a cross for their sins, was buried and resurrected after three days. Catholics will say that they agree with all the facts of the Gospel, admitting that they are sinners worthy of eternal damnation in Hell fire. BUT, Catholics add their damnable Seven Sacraments, the first of which is water baptism. Are they saved too? The clear resounding answer from the Holy Bible is absolutely NOT!

I agree with what Pastor Dennis Rokser (pronounced "rock, Sir"), that even if you have to trim your toenails once every million years in addition to your faith, you are not going to Heaven. Here is the sermon where I got the quote, titled: "[1]Getting The Gospel Right And Wrong."

Evangelist Lester Roloff (1914-1982) is correct that the great need of the hour is preaching preachers! Sin thrills and then it kills! Sin fascinates and then it assassinates! Hardly any pastors today are preachers anymore. Hardly any pastors preach against sin anymore. There is no preaching from the weak pulpit of Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College. There is no preaching at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam.

Over 95 % of Baptist churches today are lifeless, lukewarm and dead spiritually. Instead of preaching the Gospel of free grace, they foolishly preach the Devil’s Calvinist lie of Lordship Salvation. Instead of teaching the true Bible meaning of repentance, which is “ a simple change of mind

toward God (Acts 20:21), they corrupt repentance to mean giving up your former lifestyle of sin

” (which is 100 % WORKS). Faith plus works equals false religion!

The Bible says in 2nd Timothy 3:7 that men will be, “ Ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth.

” People will seek remedies, answers and solutions from anyone, anything and everywhere, EXCEPT the inspired Word of God.

When someone asked Jesus if there are FEW that be saved, the dear Savior’s frightening answer is that MANY people shall seek to enter into Heaven in eternity, but SHALL NOT BE ABLE. That confirms the rhetorical question that only very few people will ever enter into God's Kingdom, which is through faith alone in Christ alone by God's grace. Luke 13:23-24, "Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them, Strive to enter in at the strait gate: *for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able." It is so obvious to me why MANY people falsely think they are saved, but only a FEW are. It is obvious to me because of all the counterfeit plans of salvation being preached in churches today by corrupt preachers. The bottom line is that Lordship Salvation is another gospel accursed by God. The bottom line is that turning away from your sinful ways to be saved is another gospel.

It sickens me, the damnable heresy, that I hear being preached from church pulpits, religious college pulpits, TV, radio, YouTube video, books and internet today. For example: Pacific Garden Mission's famous 'UNSHACKLED' radio program series since the 1950's has deteriorated over the past few decades to become a cesspool of Calvinism and damnable false doctrine.

Case in point is the story of Keith Becker, program #3756 aired in 2022, [2]which you can listen to here. At 18:55 in the audio presentation, Keith says these blasphemous words:

> I surrendered my life to Jesus and took myself off the throne.
>
> " —UNSHACKLED, p
> rogram #3756 aired in 2022

Dear reader, that is not how to get to Heaven. Judas was one of Jesus' very apostles. Judas had a relationship with Jesus. Matthew 27:3b says Judas even "repented himself" (which Greek word here means sorrow for sin, not the usual word used for "repent" in the Bible which means, a change of mind ). Judas experience *penitenc*e. Judas also returned the 30 pieces of silver, trying to make amends (which is penance). But neither penitence, penance or reformation is Bible repentance toward God. Judas never repented of his unbelief. Judas didn't believe that Jesus is the only begotten Son of God, the Christ (John 20:31).

In their corrupt show, [3]Dick Lane Classic,

[4]Program #3750 - aired in 2022, UNSHACKLED falsely preaches that to be saved you must "

repent of your sins.

" You cannot show me anywhere in the inspired King James Bible where it says to

to be saved. PGM are wicked for preaching damnable heresy!!! In the shameful audio presentation, Dick Lane boasts that he "gave his life to Him [Jesus]" to get saved. That is a counterfeit gospel (Galatians 1:6-9).

Sadly, Pacific Garden Mission has been hijacked by a bunch of yuppie type neo-evangelicals. The mission was very different under the 46 years of supervision by former mission director, Harry Saulnier (1902-1990), decades ago, when my father preached at PGM weekly in the 1970’s and I tagged along to quote Scripture verses to the Skid Row men and some women. It is tragic and sad what has happened to PGM, and how UNSHACKLED has gone to the dogs doctrinally. I cringe nowadays as I listen to the counterfeit gospel being propagated by PGM’s UNSHACKLED radio program. Remember, Satan is a beautiful liar!!!

No wonder Jesus confirmed that there are only “

that be saved in Luke 13:23-24, because of all the false prophets which abound, then and now.

Matthew 24:11, “ And many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many. ” It is obvious to me that Pacific garden Mission is trying to appease all sides of the salvation spectrum. One moment they are teaching a free grace Gospel, but the next moment they are teaching lies, saying that you must live a live of submission to prove that you are really saved (which is what all the pseudo-Christian cults teach). Only the Bible teaches salvation WITHOUT WORKS (Romans 4:4-7).

In UNSHACKLED’s damnable, at 27:30 time in [5]program #3751, aired in 2022, titled: Brady Evan’s Classic, the narrator falsely preaches that getting saved requires beginning: “a lifetime of submissions to the Lord,” which is a counterfeit gospel of Lordship Salvation. As I quote to you earlier by John Bunyan, anyone who fails to put a difference between justification and sanctification is corrupting the Word of God, and woefully casting stumblingblocks before the people, which is what PGM and UNSHACKLKED are wickedly doing...

> “If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people.” —John Bunyan (1628-1688)

You cannot show me anywhere (I haven’t found it yet), where PGM’s UNSHACKLED puts a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without, versus sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within. Ladies and gentlemen, RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!! It is not okay or acceptable for everyone to merely do their own thing, some preaching one thing and other preaching another thing. As Pastor Curtis Hutson rightly preached, ’[6]Things That Are Different Are Not The Same!’ Lordship Salvation is VERY DIFFERENT than the simple free grace Gospel taught by the Apostle Paul in 1st Corinthians 15:1-5. [7]What exactly is ’Lordship Salvation?’

With all the theological garbage being taught at Pensacola Christian College, Bob Jones University, Crown College, Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary, Maranatha Bible College, Liberty University, East Texas Baptist Bible College, West Coast Baptist College, et cetera— it doesn’t surprise me one bit that only a FEW people are saved. The damnable heresies of Lordship Salvation, and misunderstood repentance, has crept into 95 % of Baptist churches today! The Devil’s corrupt Bible revisions have crept into nearly all churches today, including independent Baptists. It is tragic and shameful Doesn't anybody contend for the Christian faith anymore?

To their utter shame, I was kicked out and banned from returning to the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam by their demonic pastors, because I befriended them with THE TRUTH. I loved them enough and had the courage to warn them about the Devil's bibles they are using, and the Devil's hoax of Lordship Salvation which they are preaching, and the Devil's poisonous plan of salvation of misunderstood repentance which they are preaching. Not one of their ungodly pastors would take heed to my Biblical warning. They were stiff-necked and full of arrogance and hubris, thinking that they are God's gift to the churches.

I on the other hand am a nobody, a broken sinner with a humble website, which is why God uses me as He does to preach THE TRUTH to their stony hearts, making their hearts fat with callousness. Isaiah 6:10, " Make the heart of this people fat, and make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes; lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and convert, and be healed." In other words, the same sun that melts the wax, hardens the clay. Those wicked pastors have hearts of clay, rebellious against THE TRUTH, which just makes their hearts more hard and calloused toward my preaching of THE TRUTH. Their day of reckoning is soon coming, mark God's Word in Romans 3:4,

"God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged."

Pastor Marty Herron has the blood of tens of thousands of victims upon his hands in Micronesia, for preaching a counterfeit gospel to them of the Devil's Lordship Salvation for nearly 20 years (1999 to 2018) as the senior pastor of Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. And now Pastor Gary Walton has much blood on his hands, who has also banned me from returning to Harvest Baptist Church cult on Guam, and continues to preach the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation (wickedly bidding Godspeed to [8]cult headquarters at Bob Jones University). Bob Jones University (BJU) is the [9]headquarters of the Alexandrian cult!

[10]On my ministry Facebook page, less than 1 % of my so-called "

Friends

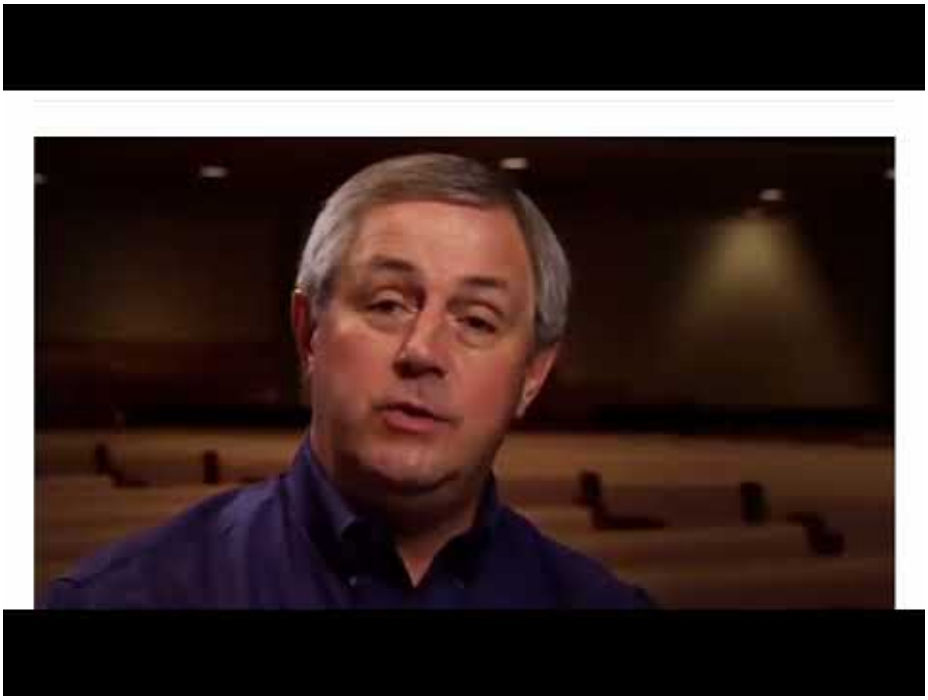
ever agree with me when I expose these corrupt institutions at PCC, BJU, Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, Pacific Garden Mission and other hellholes of apostasy today. I am so close to getting rid of my Facebook page, because all I am doing is catering to religious people on Facebook, not reaching lost sinners with the Gospel. I dread religious people because they are the ones who do the least for God, refuse to contend for the faith and complain (nitpick) about everything.

Why is it that less than 1 % of all church members as a whole, do 99 % of all the work for God? That goes for Christians as well! Sadly, I dare say that only 3 % of all churchgoers as a whole are genuinely born-again believers. I challenge you to kindly start asking individual people in your church if they are 100 % certain that they'd go to Heaven if they die today. You will be shocked as I was! Hardly anyone knows if they are even saved, let alone having the full assurance of being saved. That is their pastor's fault for not teaching their people.

When I attended the rotten Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, one of their deacons approached me after church one Sunday evening. His wife was standing quietly in the background, waiting for her husband. He desired to speak with me about the assurance of his salvation. I opened my heart to share the Scriptures with him, expounding Him in some of the helpful truths I had learned over the years from my own struggles with assurance of salvation. He was amazed at the truths that I shared with him, not that I am anything special (because I am not), but because THE TRUTH is amazing and special! I'll never forget what he asked me: "Why don't they teach these things from the pulpit?" I kindly told him it is simply because they don't know the pain of not knowing that one is saved.

I was being gentle as to not overly criticize the church's multiple pastors. What I really wanted to say is: "It is because this church needs much better pastors!" Since he was a deacon and on staff as a teacher, I didn't want to make an enemy. But I did tell him the truth that the church pastors don't know the pain of uncertainty that you are saved or not. Harvest's pastors on Guam are incompetent, plain and simple. I befriended them with THE TRUTH, placing numerous books directly into their hands to teach them which they all rejected as rubbish. What books did I give them? Here they are:

1. [11]I Never Knew You (by Michael P. Bowen)
2. [12]Martin Luther: Master Of Deceit (by Pastor Max D. Younce)
3. [13]NIV: The Antichrist's Bible (by Pastor Al Lacy)
4. [14]Somebody Has Got To Milk The Cows (by Pastor Jack Hyles)



It was for sharing those truthful books, and some sermons by Dr. Jack Hyles which preach that the modern Bible revisions are of the Devil, for which they forced me out of Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, and wickedly banned me from returning permanently for years to come. My blood and all the years I had nowhere to attend a local church is on Marty Herron's ungodly hands, and that of his accomplices on Guam. SHAME on all of them!!! I told THE TRUTH. God sees my broken soul, loss of a wife and inexplicable pain which those ungodly sinister ministers have caused in my life, in their neo-evangelical cult. RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!!

Having said all that, should it be surprising that only a "

people are going to Heaven, when even professed Christians have been deceived by the Devil? A perfect example of what I am talking about is Evangelist Ken Ham's false gospel. Yet, nearly every Bible college today wickedly promotes, supports and bids Godspeed to this infidel...

The FALSE GOSPEL of ANSWERS IN GENESIS and KEN HAM

It is not okay with God to bid Godspeed to a damnable false prophet. Religious colleges promote Ken Ham because he agrees with the fallacy of a Young Earth Creation (which is totally unscriptural; the Bible teaches an old earth). Psalms 102:25, " Of old hast thou laid the foundation of the earth: and the heavens are the work of thy hands." It is shameful that Pastor Clarence Sexton and Crown College promote Ken Ham, honoring him in their church services, when he is of the Devil.

Dear reader, there are not two Gospels. There is only one way to Heaven, which is through FAITH ALONE in the Good News of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and bodily risen the third day (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Jesus said in John 3:3b, 'YE MUST BE BORN AGAIN.' Turning away from your past sinful ways is NOT a part of God's simple plan of salvation. In fact, read what the Bible says in Jonah 3:10,

"And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not." Did you see that? God saw their WORKS, that they turned from their evil way!!! Romans 4:4-7, Ephesians 2:8-9 and Titus 3:5 plainly teach that we are not saved BY WORKS, but by FAITH WITHOUT WORKS.

Have you been deceived? Beware of preachers! The best thing you can do to prevent being deceived is to SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES for yourself. That is what Jesus told us to do in John 5:39, " Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me." Thank you for reading.

3.12.12 Pacific Garden Mission's Deadly False Gospel (2022-12-21 14:17)

Galatians 1:6-7, "I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed."

Sadly, one of the most damnable institutions today concerning the Gospel is Pacific Garden Mission (PGM) in Chicago. My father was a Skid Row minister, helping the homeless and broken. My Dad used to preach regularly at PGM in the 1970's when Harry Saulnier (1902-1990) was the mission director for 46 years. Back then PGM and their UNSHACKLED radio station still preached a free grace Gospel, but then the neo-evangelical generation arose, which is cursed with the Devil's bibles and Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation.

Tragically, today we've got a bunch of yuppie type academics, who don't have the Christian old-time religion of men of God; such as, Harry Ironside, John Bunyan and Alexander Marshall.

Pacific Garden Mission Preaches Another Gospel

Let's compare two different plans of salvation—one from a recent UNSHACKLED episode (#4736) with what the Holy Bible teaches, to see if they agree. First, here is PGM's corrupt plan of salvation (which is really damnation). David Tripiciano prays this to God to be saved:

> "I want to start a new life with you. I repent of the sins I've committed again you. I'm really sorry for the way I've lived. Would you save me Lord and give me a new life. Would you take the rest of my life and use me for your plans? Use my gifts and talents for your work. Fill me with your Spirit Lord, come into my heart and life, Jesus.

What saith the Scripture? ...

> 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:"

UNSHACKLED doesn't even mention Jesus' death on the cross, burial and bodily resurrection. Like all accursed neo-evangelicals today, PGM is obsessed with YOU repenting of YOUR sins. May I say, the true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU. Pacific Garden Mission (PGM) have been corrupted by Satan. They are pulling on the same rope as the Devil at UNSHACKLED!!! SHAME on the mission director for allowing this Satanic garbage to be preached on UNSHACKLED, damning men's souls to Hell!!!

When Paul and Silas were asked directly by the Philippian jailer, "Sirs, what must I do to be saved?," their simple answer was to "

BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST

> Acts 16:29-31, "Then he called for a light, and sprang in, and came trembling, and fell down before Paul and Silas, And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house."

In sharp contrast to the inspired Holy Bible, PGM's heretical radio program UNSHACKLED falsely teaches that you must do the following to get to Heaven:

1. Tell God you want to start a new life.
2. Repent of your sins.
3. Be sorry for your sins.
4. Ask God to save you and give you a new life.
5. Ask God to take the rest of your life and use it for His plans.
6. Ask God to use your gifts and talents for His work.
7. Ask God to fill you with the Holy Spirit.
8. Ask Jesus to come into your heart and life.

If you missed it the first time, please let me quote UNSHACKLED's damnable lies to you once again, because I really want you to see the junk theology being preached on PGM's ungodly UNSHACKLED today...

> "I want to start a new life with you. I repent of the sins I've committed again you. I'm really sorry for the way I've lived. Would you save me Lord an give me a new life. Would you take the rest of my life and use me for your plans? Use my gifts and talents for your work. Fill me with your Spirit Lord, come into my heart and life, Jesus." SOURCE: [2]Program #3746 - Aired in 2022, David Tripiciano (time - 18:36)

They don't even mention Jesus' death, burial or resurrection. Where is the Gospel? Dear reader, the transcript you have just read from UNSHACKLED is of the Devil! That is NOT the Gospel of free grace taught in the inspired King James Bible (all modern English Bible revisions are corrupt). Please use only the trustworthy inspired King James Bible!!!

I triple-dog dare you to show me anywhere in the Bible, where we are taught to ask God to take control of our life, or to use our talents, or to repent of one's sins! You cannot!!! PGM is guilty of adding to God's Word, which brings dire consequences. Proverbs 30:5-6,

Every word of God is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him. Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar." It is not a trifle matter to alter God's simple plan of salvation. In true salvation, you simply come to God as an acknowledged guilty sinner, and receive Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins.

You don't have to be sorry for your sins, nor turn away from a sinful lifestyle to be saved, which would be WORKS. You just need to acknowledge that you are a guilty sinner according to Romans 3:19-20,

Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God.

Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin."

What saith the Scripture? Jonah 3:10, “

And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not.

” Jesus Christ came to pay for our sins, not demand that we first make an attempt to clean up our life of sinning as a prerequisite to saving faith. The sinful carnal nature wants to include the flesh in God’s plan of salvation. Ungodly but sincere religious men lean upon their own flawed human understanding, which compels them to require sinners to first commit to reform, to feel sorrow for their sins and to have a willingness to turn away from sinful ways as a requirement to be saved. The big problem is that all those things are WORKS! All of the aforementioned things focus on YOU, when the true Gospel solely focuses on CHRIST. Self has no place in God’s simple plan of salvation.

The following wicked men run Pacific Garden Mission and UNSHACKLED: Peter Leavitt, Leon Gombis, A. Ray Charles, Larry Roches, Elwood Chipchase, Phil Kwiatkowski, James Ford Jr., Bob Sheridan and Michael Allen. These ungodly false prophets of Balaam all have much blood on their hands according to Galatians 1:6-9; 3:1-3; 5:4; 6:7. These men all empower false teachers to propagate the Devil’s lies of Calvinism (aka, Lordship Salvation) on UNSHACKLED. Pastor Curtis Hutson got it 100 % right that, ’[3]Lordship Salvation Is A Perversion Of The Gospel.’

And then again at 27:35 in time in [4]Program #3746 (the same # as above), you’ll hear the perverted UNSHACKLED narrator require the listener to “

to get to Heaven, which phrase is nowhere found in the inspired King James Bible. Dear friend, you must choose whether to believe God or UNSHACKLED, because they teach two very different plans of salvation. Things that are different are not the same!!!

What PGM is espousing and teaching to people is VERY different from what the inspired Word of God teaches. The Bible is very clear that we are saved BY FAITH alone without works. Galatians 3:26, “For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.” Yet UNSHACKLED says that faith is not enough to be born-again, they say you must first repent of your sins. I dare you to show me that from the Bible. Acts 20:21b speaks of “repentance toward God,” not repentance from sin.

As we read in Jonah 3:10, repentance from sin is a WORK!!! Christ came to die on the cross to pay for your sins and mine, not demand that we first agree to reform (turn away from our sins) to receive God’s free gift of eternal life. Romans 6:23, “For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

At some point, PGM lost sight of the Biblical truth that eternal life is a free gift from God (Ephesians 2:8-9; Romans 5:15-18), not a trade or exchange of sorts as they are teaching people on UNSHACKLED. God’s curse is upon Pacific Garden Mission for preaching another gospel (Galatians 1:8).

Let me kindly repeat, in UNSHACKLED [5]Program #3746 that I just shared with you, they require eight things to be saved:

1. Tell God you want to start a new life.
2. Repent of your sins.

3. Be sorry for your sins.

4. Ask God to save you and give you a new life.

5. Ask God to take the rest of your life and use it for His plans.

6. Ask God to use your gifts and talents for His work.

7. Ask God to fill you with the Holy Spirit.

8. Ask Jesus to come into your heart and life.

Remember, the goal of PGM's radio show is to lead lost sinner's to Jesus Christ! How in the world could anyone ever get saved after hearing all that garbage? Obviously, they cannot! Sadly, in their greed for more donations (which PGM begs for in the middle of every UNSHACKLED episode), they have sinfully dipped their sails in ungodly compromise, perverting and embellishing God's simple plan of salvation to appease their host of unsaved infidel neo-evangelicals supporters.

THE LOVE OF MONEY is the root of all evil (1st Timothy 6:10). If PGM started preaching the true Gospel from 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, without adding all that mumbo-jumbo crap to it that I just exposed, they would lose most of the mission's financial support (and they fully know it). I will go to seed over this matter of salvation. The Bible teaches that we are saved by faith alone in the GOOD NEWS of Jesus crucified, buried and risen the third day, apart from all WORKS (e.g., turning away from sinful behavior, doing good works, surrendering control of your life over to Christ, living a lifestyle of repentance, running the Christian race and all other forms of human effort). God only saves UNGODLY SINNERS!!! (Romans 5:5-9).

Dear reader, RUN from Pacific Garden Mission's hellhole of apostasy! Listen to UNSHACKLED at your own risk and peril my friend, because they are preaching another gospel, not what the Holy Bible teaches. Also, please read: '[6]I NEVER KNEW YOU.'

3.12.13 Be Not Envious of The Wicked (2022-12-25 13:02)

Psalms 37:1-3, " Fret not thyself because of evildoers, neither be thou envious against the workers of iniquity. For they shall soon be cut down like the grass, and wither as the green herb. Trust in the LORD, and do good; so shalt thou dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt be fed."

Psalms 73:3, " For I was envious at the foolish, when I saw the prosperity of the wicked."

I admit that I have often felt FOMO (Feelings Of Missing Out). Like millions of other hobbyist musicians, I envy the musical artists who tour the world, singing and playing musical instruments together, enjoying the good life. I have always wished that I could have been in a band and cheered people's hearts with beautiful music.

Although I have never been a fan of the rock band KISS, I somewhat admire Paul Stanley in the band. I follow his Twitter channel just to see what he is up to. I have an interest in reading the biographies of famous people, particularly musicians. I just like the way he plays guitar, carries himself in public and how he expresses his opinions on Twitter, et cetera. For a man that is now 70 years old (born in 1952), Paul still looks amazingly young. ...

[2]Paul Stanley of the rock band KISS in 2022

I spend most of my time working hard on my website ministry. I sometimes envy these fellas who tour the world, playing music for millions of people, wining and dining and enjoying the splendors and pleasures of this temporary life. Compared to those guys I don't have much of a life. But dear reader, life is indeed very temporary. What shall a man give in exchange for his soul? What saith the Scripture? ...

> 1st John 2:15-17, "
>
> Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him.
> For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world.

And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever.

Sadly, Paul Stanley is not a born-again Christian. Neither is band lead singer Gene Simmons (real name: Chaim Witz). Both of these men are Jewish in their faith, meaning that they both reject Jesus Christ as their Savior. My moments of envy quickly fade away into the realization that my name is written in Heaven in the Lamb's Book of Life, but Paul Stanley's name is not as a a child of the Devil. That makes me sad, because I love people and don't want anyone to burn in the fires of Hell forever.

I love all kinds of music. As a musician myself, I admire musicians. Lately I've been overwhelmed with getting settled in Pensacola. I've been battling depression, which I suffered all my adult life. I have joy in the Lord, and peace in Jesus, but I am lonely often without a wife, and sad. God willing, I hope to get back into my music at some time in the future. It's just that right now I don't feel like making music, I feel like working harder than ever on my website ministry for Christ (1st Corinthians 3:7-8).

I play most stringed instruments. I love pedal steel guitar, lap steel and 5-string banjo. I started playing guitar at age 15. One of my favorite artists is Tommy Immanuel. I love this guitar arrangement by Chet Atkins, played here by Tommy. [3]The song is called: Windbreaker 57. There are lots of free tablatures online how to play the song. I love and thank God for music!!!

A KISS band fan named Lori Mullins wrote a sad comment:

> "I admire how you [Paul Stanley] have encouraged your children to embrace different faiths. And by the way, that is a beautiful menorah. Happy Hanukkah!"
> SOURCE: [4]KISS Paul Stanley Makes An Unexpected 'Religion Related Statement'

That is the Devil talking. The inspired Word of God is very clear that salvation can be found only in the name of Jesus. John 14:6, "Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me." Sadly, Paul Stanley does not believe in Jesus as his personal Savior. Therefore, Scripturally speaking, Paul is an atheist. Anybody who denies that Jesus is almighty God is an atheist. Sadly, if Paul died today he would plunge into the fiery depths of an eternal Hell. I am not happy about that. The Lord is not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance (a change of mind) to be saved (2nd Peter 3:9). God wants everyone to go to Heaven, but He won't force anyone.

Although I sometimes wish I could travel the world and play music with other musicians, I do not envy unsaved men like Paul Stanley and Gene Simmons, who will split Hell wide open when they breathes their last dying breath someday. Again, I say that with sadness because like God, I don't want anyone to perish in their sin of unbelief (2nd Peter 3:9). 2nd Timothy 2:13, "If we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself."

Psalms 73:3, " For I was envious at the foolish, when I saw the prosperity of the wicked."

David became envious of the prosperity of the wicked. Dear friend, if you have Jesus as your Savior, you have something worth more than all the wealth, fame and pleasures that this world could ever offer you!!! One soul saved is worth more than all the gold in the world. Computer genius Steve Jobs (1955-2011) when he died at only age 56, left behind a whopping estate worth $10,200,000,000. Wow! That's a lot of cheddar! Just like the Bible warns in 1st Timothy 6:8, Steve Jobs couldn't take even a single penny of his amassed fortune with him into eternity.

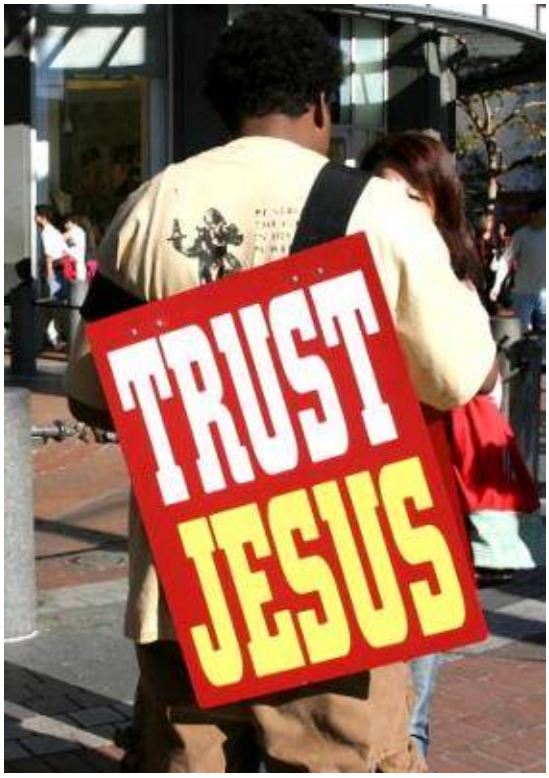
I admit that I have become envious at times, when watching a documentary of such famous bands as, The Beatles. The groups has composed and recorded at least 140 iconic songs. Paul McCartney and John Lennon are musical geniuses. George Harrison was also an amazing song writer, singer and musician. I marvel sometimes how those four lads came together and stormed the world with their music. Yet, what will it all matter in eternity? Where is George Harrison right now? There is no way that he could have gone to Heaven without Jesus as his Savior.

Sadly, Gorge worshipped Hara Krishna, evidenced by his iconic song: 'My Sweet Lord.' I have no doubt whatsoever that George, despite being a tremendous friendly person, went to Hell forever without Jesus as His Savior. No one has ever gone to Heaven who refused to personally place their hope and trust in God's only begotten Son, the Christ John 20:31, " But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name." No one, no matter how morally good or generous and kind a soul, can go to Heaven unless they have received Jesus as their personal Savior.

Where is John Lennon right now? I simply do not know. For a time John did profess to be a Christian. But was he a born-again Christian, or a Christian in name only? We just don't know. Paul McCartney has made it fairly clear that he has no faith in the God of the Holy Bible. With all his $1.2 Billion in accumulated wealth, what else could Paul ever need? Unfortunately for Paul, the Bible warns in 1st Timothy 6:7-8 that no man can take a penny of his wealthy past the grave. Paul will leave this earthly life naked with exactly what he came into it with, nothing.

When I think about these spiritual truths, I jump up and down with joy, knowing that my name is recorded in the Lamb's Book of Life in Heaven (Luke 10:20). Hallelujah! Praise God! I wouldn't trade my new birth in Christ Jesus by the Holy Spirit of God for the universe!!! I got gloriously converted at age 13, by simply putting my childlike faith in Jesus as the crucified, buried and risen Christ. The only reason I am going to Heaven when I die, is because of what Jesus has already done to pay for my sins through Calvary' cross. Nothing I have ever done, am doing now, or will do in the future will help grant my the right to enter into God's Kingdom. JESUS PAID IT ALL!!! This is the proper mindset of a true child of God, that Jesus paid it all and I have nothing to do with saving myself, other than to cease from my own works and rest completely in Christ.

So if you ever start to envy the wicked for all their wealth, pleasures and fame in this sinful world, just realize that you have something infinitely greater as a redeemed child of God. One millions years from now where will The Beatles be? Where will KISS be? Where will Judas be? Where will Bill Gates, Warren Buffet and Elon Musk be (who are all agnostic atheists)? The Bible teaches that they will all be burning in the never-ending Lake of Fire, prepared for the Devil and his angels. The GOOD NEWS is that you don't have to go there to join them. There is still hope if you are reading this dear friend. Please read, '[5]The Simple Gospel.'



I do still sometimes feel envious toward famous celebrities who own homes in multiple places. I'd love to own a house on the Hawaiian island of Oahu, so I can play my Hawaiian steel guitar there. I'd also love to own another house near the Rocky Mountain Range in Colorado. There are some beautiful mountain towns, where I have always wanted to own a house and live there. Only rich people can afford such luxuries in life. I am just an average guy surviving from paycheck to paycheck. Perhaps during the 1,000 year Millennium when the Lord is King of all the earth, and we reign with Him (Revelation 20:6), He will grant my heart's desires. But until then, I am content as 1st Timothy 6:6 teaches God's children should be, **"

But godliness with contentment is great gain.

" Little is much when God is in it.

Proverbs 15:16, " Better is little with the fear of the LORD than great treasure and trouble therewith."

Inventor Elon Musk has a net worth of over $250,000,000,000, yet he is agnostic, not sure if there is a God. Elon doesn't believe in Jesus Christ as his Savior. That is so sad. Perhaps if he did, Elon would abandon his insane project to colonize the planet Mars with humans by the year 2050. Perhaps he would take that waste of money, and use it instead to help solve world poverty and homelessness in the United States; or perhaps make dental care more affordable for Americans. Who cares about colonizing another planet? Atheists and agnostics say and do the darndest things! I do not envy these wicked people.

3.12.14 The Wheat And The Tares (2022-12-26 16:08)

Matthew 13:24-30, “Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man which sowed good seed in his field: But while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat, and went his way. But when the blade was sprung up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also. So the servants of the householder came and said unto him, Sir, didst not thou sow good seed in thy field? from whence then hath it tares? He said unto them, An enemy hath done this. The servants said unto him, Wilt thou then that we go and gather them up? But he said, Nay; lest while ye gather up the tares, ye root up also the wheat with them. Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn.”

Interestingly, the parable of The Wheat And The Tares is only mentioned in the Gospel of Matthew. This is an important Bible truth to understand. In any size church there are going to be tares. What is meant by a “

in the Bible? A tare is an unsaved person. The wheat is a saved person (i.e., a born-again believer). ...

[1]

The Bible Says The Wheat And The Tares Grow Together

The Bible teaches that the wheat and the tares grow alongside each other. We can make several logical conclusions based upon this Bible truth:

1. In every church there will be lost people among the saved (Galatians 1:6-9).
2. We cannot discern the lost from the saved by mere observation (Matthew 5:20).
3. The lost go through all the same outward religious motions as the saved (Matthew 7:21-23).
4. Satan is the enemy who blinds the tares from being saved (2nd Corinthians 4:3-4).
5. God allows the lost and saved to grow together until death (Luke 16:19-31).
6. The tares are dangerous because they hinder others from being saved with their false plan of salvation (Luke 11:52, Galatians 4:16-17).

I have started a new hobby. I now randomly ask members of churches that I visit if they know they’re going to Heaven. You’d be surprised (as I have been) to hear some of the responses that I get from churchgoers. One man who has been a deacon in a local Baptist church for 6 years, told me that you must be water baptized to get into Heaven. I knew immediately that he is not a true born-again Christian. That is so sad. His pastor is to blame, for not properly feeding his congregation.

I am thinking of another woman in a local Baptist church, who became emotionally disturbed when she heard her senior pastor teach that you're not saved if you're living in deep sin. That pastor lied to her. In fact, you don't have to forsake your past sinful ways to be saved. No won't find anything in the inspired King James Bible about giving up your sinning to be saved. Jesus came into the world to pay for everyone's sins, not demand that we forsake them as a prerequisite to saving faith. Satan is a beautiful liar!!!

We read some frightening words in Matthew 7:13-15, "

Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat:

Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it. Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves.

Jesus said that only a few people will ever make it to Heaven, and that most people are traveling the highway to Hell. The dear Savior gives us the reason why in Matthew 7:15. It is because of false prophets who lie to people, preaching a counterfeit plan of salvation. That is why there are so many tares in the churches today.

For example: Pastor Joel Osteen falsely teaches that to be saved you must:

1. Joel says you must "receive Jesus as Lord" to be saved.
2. Joel says you must "repent of your sins" to be saved.
3. Joel says you must "pray" to be saved.
4. Joel says you must "follow Christ" to be saved.

I heard Joel Osteen on TV the other day require those four unbiblical things to be saved. Joel didn't even mention Jesus' death, burial or resurrection in his suggested sinner's prayer. Dear reader, you don't need to do anything of those things Joel requires.

You can simply BELIEVE on the Lord Jesus Christ to be saved (Acts 16:30-31). You don't have to pray. God is already offering you eternal life as a gift, if you will simply BELIEVE. John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life."

Nowhere in the Bible are we taught to "repent of your sin" to be saved. Wicked men added that. Repentance is simply realizing that you are a guilty sinner in need of redemption, a change of mind toward God (Acts 20:21), that is part of BELIEVING on the Lord Jesus Christ to be saved. The man who believes has repented, and the man who repents has believed. They are not two separate acts, but just one. Acts 16:30b-31, "Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house."

Friend, you must choose whether to believe Joel Osteen (who adds at least four additional requirements), or you must believe what the Bible says we must do to be saved. It cannot be both! Something is wrong with Joel Osteen's plan of salvation. It does not agree with God's plan of salvation in the Bible. You only need to receive Jesus as your Savior to be saved, not your Lord. Jesus is Lord, you don't make Him Lord. It is heresy that you must make Jesus your Master, and commit to follow Him, to get to Heaven. If those things were true, then eternal life could not be a free gift, because YOU would have to pay for it.

All of the false Christian cults teach these same heresies that Joel Osteen does concerning how to be saved. All of the cults teach that to be saved you must "repent of your sins." They teach that you cannot receive God's free gift of eternal life unless you first commit to forsake your lifestyle of sin. This heresy has crept into nearly all Baptist churches today, corrupting the Word of God and perverting the Gospel, casting stumbling blocks before the people. You come as a guilty sinner to the Savior to be saved, you don't need to commit to stop your sinning to be saved.

It is the conviction of the Holy Spirit that works repentance in a man unto salvation, and not YOU. 2nd Timothy 2:25 speaks of repentance to the acknowledging of the truth, not turning away from your sinning. Repentance is a matter of the truth that you are a guilty sinner. You need to know what you're being saved from. Galatians 3:24-26 teaches this. The LAW of God shows us our sins and brings us to CHRIST to be saved by God's grace. Joel Osteen fails to understand this biblical truth. CHRIST Himself is sufficient Oh sinner to be saved!

Therefore, you don't need to follow Christ as "Lord" to be saved. It sounds so good and noble, so religious and reasonable, that a person must make Christ their "Lord" (Boss) to get to Heaven. But this teaching goes 100 % contrary to the righteousness of God, which is by faith in Jesus Christ (Philippians 3:9). CHRIST is the end of the LAW to him that believes, not our behavior changes, commitment to do better, desire to turn away from sins, religious devotion or willingness to follow Christ. Romans 10:3-4, "For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God. For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth."

Oh how simple are the Scriptures! Do you see that dear friend. CHRIST Himself is the END of God's Law to all who believe. How beautiful!!! All that is required to be saved is to simply BELIEVE. Do you know what this means? It means that Joel Osteen is not saved. It means that Joel Osteen is woefully ignorant of God's simple plan of salvation. It means that Joel is a damnable false teacher who is leading the masses into Hell. By embellishing the true Gospel with a bunch of garbage theology that is not required, NOR ALLOWED BY GOD, Pastor Osteen has successfully obscured (hidden) the Gospel from the lost (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4).

Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without being born again. You can follow Christ as "Lord, Lord" like Joel Osteen teaches, and you'll one day hear Christ's horrifying Words: "I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity" (Matthew 7:23b).

Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without being born again. You can "repent of your sins" like Judas did in Matthew 27:3, and as Joel Osteen foolishly teaches, and you'll one day hear Christ's horrifying Words: "I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity" (Matthew 7:23b).

Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without being born again. You can pray as did an unsaved religious man named Cornelius in Acts 10:2, and as did the unsaved people in Matthew 6:7, and as heretic Joel Osteen teaches, but you'll one day hear Christ's horrifying Words: "I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity" (Matthew 7:23b).

Dear reader, the Bible plainly tells us what we must do to be saved in John 6:40, "And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day." The only way to God the Father is through faith in God the Son. John 14:6, "Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me."

In the Gospel of John we are taught to simply BELIEVE on Jesus to be saved. You need to know Who Jesus is, He is the Christ, the Son of God (John 20:31). You need to know what Jesus did for you, He died for your sins on the cross (John 19-20). You need to know why Christ died for you, because we are guilty sinners (John 1:29). Nothing more is required nor allowed to be saved, except to "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house" (Acts 16:31). Pastor Joel Osteen gets it woefully wrong!

I dare say that 98 % of church members nowadays are tares. Many religions are full of tares (i.e., lost people). There is no salvation in a damnable false religion; such as: Mormonism, United Methodist Church Of Christ, Church of England (Anglicanism), Jehovah's Witnesses, Roman Catholicism, Church of Church, Lutherans, Charismatics, Pentecostals, Bahai Faith, Moonies, Buddhism, Islam, Hinduism, et cetera. None of these religions preach a free grace Gospel, they all embellished and add to God's simple plan of salvation, which is through faith alone in the GOOD NEWS (Gospel) of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen the third day (1st Corinthians 15:1-6). Jesus warned everyone to BEWARE OF FALSE PROPHETS!!!

If you are not sure that you are going to Heaven, or are struggling to find the assurance of God's free gift of eternal life, then I encourage you to [2]listen over and over to the Gospel of John, until you see the simplicity of God's wonderful plan of salvation.

3.12.15 The Incompatibility Of Lordship Salvation With The Gospel Of Grace (2022-12-28 15:02)

The deadliest threat to New Testament churches in the 21st century is something called: Lordship Salvation. This popular heresy falsely teaches that more than faith is necessary to get to Heaven. In addition, proponents of Lordship Salvation errantly preach one or more of the following unbiblical things are required to be saved:

- Live a changed life.
- Commit your life to Christ.
- Forsake your sinful ways.

- Follow Jesus as the absolute “Lord” of their life.
- Surrender all to God.
- Run the Christian race faithfully.
- Endure unto the end.
- Live a lifestyle of repentance.

My friend in the ministry, Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold, makes the following helpful true statements:

> “Salvation can only be evidenced by works, if works are required to be saved.” —Pastor Ralph “Yankee” Arnold, “[1]Why Lordship Salvation Is Wrong!”
> “Lordship Salvation is the unsupportable and unbiblical belief that the performance of good works, the promise of good works, or the evidence of good works, must accompany faith in Christ to establish or provide evidence that such faith has resulted in eternal life.” —Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold, [2]"Jesus versus John MacArthur"

The following excellent information by Pastor Hank Lindstrom (1940-2008) is from the helpful Christian website: [3]Get God’s Gift...

THE INCOMPATIBILITY OF THE LORDSHIP GOSPEL WITH THE GOSPEL OF GRACE

"But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed." Galatians 1:8,9

The importance of this question can’t be overestimated in relation to both salvation and sanctification. The message of faith only and the message of commitment of life can’t both be the gospel; therefore, one of them is a false gospel and come under the curse of perverting the gospel or preaching another gospel.

> "It is an inexcusable error to confront sinners with problems that concern the Christian life and call upon them to make promises regarding them. An unsaved person is never called upon to surrender himself to God. The saving act is in no instance represented as our ’giving ourselves to God’; it is, on the contrary, taking His Son as our Savior." Ryrie, Charles. Balancing the Christian Life. Moody Press, Inc., 1969 (p. 170).
> "The second approach finds faith in the gospel alone an ’easy Believism’ and seeks to add something to faith in order to accomplish salvation. To repent is to ’change one’s mind,’ and to believe is to remove one’s trust from that in which it has rested and place it in Christ." Howard, William. "Is Faith Enough to Save?" Bibliotheca Sacra. January-March, 1942 (p.99).
>
> "This kind of faith is not ’easy believism’. It is not easy to say, ’I can’t save myself, I must recognize that there is something wrong with me, and I must seek help from someone else.’" Hook, H. Phillip. "A Biblical Definition of Saving Faith." Bibliotheca Sacra. April-June, 1964 (p. 133, 138).

"Eternal life is free. Discipleship is immeasurably hard. The former is attained by faith alone, the latter by a faith that works... the former brings with it the righteousness of God so that a man is ’justified freely by his grace’ (Romans 3:24). The latter develops a personal righteousness, based on good deeds, so that a man was also ’justified by works’ (James 2:24). The former constituted the believer God’s workmanship, the latter fulfilled the wonderful purpose for which he had been created. The former cost man nothing, the latter could cost him everything, including life itself." Hodges, Zane C. The Hungry Inherit. Moody Press, Inc., 1972 (p. 114, 115).

"There is a vast difference between coming to Jesus for salvation and coming after Jesus for service. Coming to Christ makes one a believer, while coming after Christ makes one a disciple. All believers are not disciples. To become a believer one accepts the invitation of the Gospel, to be a disciple one obeys the challenge to a life of dedicated service and separation. Salvation comes through the sacrifice of Christ; discipleship comes only by sacrifice of self and surrender to His call for devoted service. Salvation is free, but discipleship involves paying the price of a separated walk. Salvation can’t be lost because it depends upon God’s faithfulness, but discipleship can be lost because it depends upon our faithfulness." DeHaan, M. R. Hebrews. Zondervan Publishing House, 1959 (p. 117).

"For the unregenerate man, repentance is the change of mind whereby he turns from unbelief to faith in the person and work of Jesus Christ." Post, Roger. "The Meanings of the Words Translated ’Repent’ and ’Repentance’ in the New Testament." Master’s Thesis, Wheaton College, June 1972 (p. 80).

"There are those who, in their zeal to get people to turn from their sinful ways and receive the Lord, almost put repentance on a par with believing... Repentance, as it relates to Christ, means to change our minds about Him, who He is and what He’s done to provide forgiveness and deliverance from our sins. When we place faith in Jesus as having taken our place personally on the cross and borne the penalty due our sins, then we’re automatically repenting, because we couldn’t accept Him in this way without having had to change our minds in some way concerning Him." Lindsey, Hal. The Liberation of Planet Earth. Zondervan Publishing House, 1974 (p. 136, 137).

"Discipleship is frequently equated with salvation and often erroneously made a condition for becoming a Christian". Pentecost, J. Dwight. Design for Discipleship. Zondervan Publishing House, 1971 (p. 11).

"Certainly discipleship is a most important aspect of our relation to Christ, but it belongs to the sphere of Christian life rather than entrance upon that life... One does not become a disciple in order to become a Christian, but because he has become a Christian by faith in the Savior, it is fitting that he embark upon a life of discipleship". Harrison, Everett F. "Must Christ be Lord to Be Savior?-No." Eternity, September 1959 (p. 14).

"There is no more piously subtle abrogation of the Gospel than to tell a Sinner that he must not only believe in the Savior, but dedicate himself to do God’s will, crown the Savior Lord of his life, etc., etc. Obviously, dedication and service are highly desirable, but they are the privilege and the duty of the saved, never a condition of salvation for the unsaved (cf. Romans 12:1, 2)." Unger, Merrill F. God is Waiting to Meet You. Moody Press, 1975 (p. 117, 118).

> "People are sometimes led to believe that there is saving value in some public confession of Christ, or profession of a decision. "With the heart man believeth unto righteousness." This is salvation. "With the mouth confession is made unto salvation." This is the voice of the newborn child speaking to and of its father. The only condition on which one may be saved is to believe." Chafer, Lewis Sperry. Salvation. Dunham Publishing Company, 1917 (p. 46).

SUMMARY

Lordship salvation is where someone teaches that there must be a commitment to Christ as Lord of one's life in order to be saved. Recently there has been a modification of this position to say that willingness to be controlled by the Lord at the time of salvation is all that is required in addition to faith in order to be saved. The message of faith only and the message of faith plus commitment of life can't both be the gospel; therefore, one of them is a FALSE GOSPEL and comes under the curse of perverting the gospel or preaching another gospel.

> Galatians 1:8, 9 says, "But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you, than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, if any man preach any other gospel unto you than that you have received, let him be accursed."

If only committed people are saved people, then where is there room for carnal Christians? What kind of dedication must be preached to people, if in order to be saved, they have already dedicated their lives to the Lord? Where do you stop if you start adding something else to this which is the gospel revealed in the Bible? Look at what God says about adding to the revelation of Jesus Christ (gospel), "For I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book (Revelation 22:18)." The Bible plainly declares that we are saved by faith, and not by works. Where does it say this? Ephesians 2:8, 9 "For by grace are ye saved through faith, and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God. Not of works, lest any man should boast." What are you trusting in to get you to heaven?

Written by Dr. Hank Lindstrom

You are saved in a moment of time, because you are trusting in the true Savior now, not working your way to Heaven day by day, which is not even possible.

Once saved you can never be lost, not for any reason. This is because you were born spiritually into God's family the moment you put your trust in Him. Just like your physical birth, which brought you into this human world, your spiritual birth gave you a new spiritual life that is permanent. You were born-again, made righteous and holy by God's imputed (counted to you by faith) righteousness. You then have the righteousness of God. You are sinless and perfect in God's eyes by faith in His only begotten Son, and that's why you can enter into a perfect Heaven.

One of my favorite sayings is:

God will not save anyone who is trying to be saved, He will only save those who are trusting to be saved.

Another is:

Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do.

You MUST put ALL your trust in Jesus to be saved. Simply trust in the blood that He shed on the cross. Trust that He is God in the flesh. Trust that He made the complete payment for your sins, not just in part. Christ paid for ALL of your sins (past, present and future)! Trust that He rose from the dead after 3 days and 3 nights. In return for your trust, God gives YOU Eternal Life. All false Christians put part of their trust in Jesus, and then some of their trust in a church or baptistery. Some put part of their trust in them self. If you put 99.99 % trust in Jesus and 00.01 % in something else, you will go to Hell. It must be 100 % trust in Jesus and what He did on Calvary's cross to redeem you, and 0 % in your works or your church! This information in critical because grace always cancels works, and works always cancels grace! You are going to Hell if it's by your works, or grace plus works. You are going to Heaven solely by Gods grace. It's as simple as that. Lordship Salvation is a perversion of God's grace!

The $64,000 question comes down to: Who are you trusting? Are you trusting yourself to get to Heaven by being a good person, serving Jesus and giving lots of money to your church; or are you trusting Jesus, the Lamb of God who was slain for the sins of the world to get you to Heaven? You receive the Gift of God (Eternal Life) as soon as you stop trusting in yourself, your church, your synagogue, your mosque, your money, or any other works; and put your childlike faith in Christ ALONE.

False prophets are everywhere, and they will find and kill you (Matthew 7:15). Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born again. Salvation is receiving, not achieving! Getting saved is a TAKE proposition, not a GIVE proposition. It is a free gift. You simply take God's gift of eternal life by faith in His only begotten Son. John3:16, " For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life."

Remember, when you get saved by faith alone, your STANDING in Christ is forever settled. You were saved by God's grace, which has nothing to do with works or service. The way you choose to live your life after you get saved is your STATE in Christ. If you have to look at your life to prove that you're saved, it proves that you're not.

When we get saved, that is SALVATION. But our growth in Christ as a child of God is our SERVICE (Romans 12:2). We must always keep service separate from getting saved . Put another way theologically, getting saved is the believer's JUSTIFICATION. The life we should live for Christ because we love Him is the believer's SANCTIFICATION. These two train rails must never contact each other, or else you will be spiritually electrocuted and die. I love what Pilgrim's Progress author and free grace Gospel preacher, John Bunyan, said:

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." —John Bunyan (1628-1688)

Amen and amen!!!

If all this makes sense to you and you would like to trust Jesus as your personal Savior right now, then simply make your decision to trust Jesus Christ as your only hope of Heaven. You don’t have to pray to be saved, but if it makes you feel better, you may tell Jesus that you are no longer putting your trust in your actions, or your church, or your church membership, or your idols, or in your money, or in your Rabbi, or in your synagogue or your Mosque, or in the baptistery water, but that you are putting all of your trust in Jesus Christ alone.

Somebody asked me if they should put their trust in Jesus, or the Good News about Jesus. Dear reader, they are one and the same! You must agree with the fact that you are a sinner in God’s sight (Romans 3:23), and there is a penalty for sin, which is death (Romans 6:23). This penalty includes a second death in Hell (Revelation 20:11-15; 21:8).

You must agree with the facts of the Gospel, which are threefold: Jesus DIED on the cross for our sins, He was BURIED, and then three days later He RESURRECTED.

All Jesus wants is for you to believe that He did it all for you, and if you will simply place your trust in Him, Jesus will save you. Repentance is a change of mind toward THE TRUTH (John 3:21; 2nd Timothy 2:25-26).

Biblical Salvation is forsaking any other means of salvation but Christ and casting ourselves fully upon Him for eternal life.

3.12.16 The Torment, Fear, Confusion And Anxiety Caused By Lordship Salvation (2022-12-29 11:01)

John 5:39-40,

Search the scriptures*; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me.

And ye will not come to me, that ye might have life.

More deadly than a mother bear robbed of her cubs is the Devil’s damnable lie of Lordship Salvation. What is Lordship Salvation? It is a deadly heresy that teaches faith in the Gospel of Jesus Christ is not enough to be saved. In addition, a lost person is falsely told that they must turn away from their sinful behavior, surrender their life to serve Jesus, follow Christ no matter what the cost, commit your life to Christ, live a changed life, et cetera.

Lordship Salvation requires WORKS as evidence that you FAITH is genuine. So if a professed believer in Christ doesn’t live a changed life, proponents of Lordship Salvation will conclude that the person’s faith is not real and they are still unsaved. See and hear for yourself what the heresy of Lordship Salvation does to wreak havoc on a person’s mind and soul...

The Damage of Lordship Salvation with John MacArthur

(This Should Make You Angry!)

This my dear reader is the sorrowful

of Lordship Salvation: stress, anxiety, worry, guilt, fear, condemnation, confusion and torment. This is what happens when you are taught to focus on the sinner rather than the Savior; analyzing self rather than searching the Scriptures; resting in my performance rather than His promise; looking in the mirror rather than looking unto Jesus, the Author and Finisher of our faith.

Hebrews 12:2, "Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God."

The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU.

Pastor John MacArthur horribly lies to this young woman in the preceding video, telling her:

> "The way you know that you're saved is by your desire." —[1]John MacArthur

That is a lie of Satan! Should we base the assurance of God's free gift of salvation upon the subjective experience of sinful man; or should we base the assurance of God's salvation upon the objective truth of God's inspired Word? Which of these two do not change? Our human feelings can and will change from moment to moment, but God's inspired Words will NEVER change. Matthew 5:18, " For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled." Luke 16:17, " And it is easier for heaven and earth to pass, than one tittle of the law to fail. " Matthew 24:35, " Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away."

We Must Keep Service Separate From Salvation

You don't have to love Jesus to go to Heaven, you have to trust Him as your Savior. I try to serve and please God because I love Jesus (John 14:15); but the only reason I am going to Heaven is because Jesus loves me, who sacrificed His life for me on Calvary's cruel cross (John 3:16; 1st John 3:16).

When you trust Christ as your personal Savior, you have eternal life. John 6:47,

"Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life."

When you got saved God didn't take away the old carnal nature, He gave you a new birth. He gave you His Holy Spirit (Romans 8:9; 1st Corinthians 3:16-17; 1st John 3:24). When we sin, it is only because we are choosing to walk in the flesh ; but when we obey God, it is because we chose to walk in the Spirit (Galatians 5:25). At any given time a believer can choose to walk in the Spirit (i.e., if we yield in obedience as the Holy Spirit teaches, guides, comforts, rebukes and leads us with the inspired Holy Bible). The unsaved person (lost man) doesn't have the Holy Spirit. No lost person has ever possessed the Holy Spirit of God! And no child of God lacks the Holy Spirit.

You can be saved and not love God. You can be saved and not serve Christ. You can be saved by just believing the Gospel. You don't make Jesus the Lord, HE IS LORD!!! Thank God that going to Heaven is not dependent upon our turning away from sins and our performance, or else we'd ALL be going to Hell someday!!! The ONLY thing that makes me (and you if you are a born again child of God), any more righteous than mass-murderer and cannibal Jeffrey Dahmer, is the precious blood of Jesus! The ONLY thing that makes me any more righteous than the worst sinner on planet earth is the precious blood of Jesus that washed away all my sins (1st John 1:7; Revelation 1:5; 1st Peter 1:18-19).

Colossians 1:14, " In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins:" (By the way, nearly all of the Devil's modern Bible perversions butcher this verse, removing,

THE BLOOD.

The great fear and confusion caused by Lordship Salvation is because preachers fail to SEPARATE service from salvation. They fail to separate personal sanctification within from justification without. They fail to keep separate discipleship from sonship. John 1:12-13, “But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name: Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.”

Many Bible students make the mistake of citing Bible references from the Gospels of Matthew, Mark and Luke to support the heresy of Lordship Salvation. For example: Luke 14:27, “ And whosoever doth not bear his cross, and come after me, cannot be my disciple.

” Luke 14:33, “

So likewise, whosoever he be of you that forsaketh not all that he hath, he cannot be my disciple.” False prophet Billy Graham (1918-2018) often quoted these passages out of context to bolster up his straw man heresy of Lordship Salvation.

One of my favorite Bible preachers is Pilgrim’s Progress author John Bunyan (1628-1688), because he clearly understood the theological concept of God’s imputed righteousness, which is BY FAITH ALONE...

> “If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people.” —John Bunyan (1628-1688)

John Bunyan nailed it! Yes, that is exactly what is wrong with Lordship Salvation, it mixes and confuses the lines between sanctification and justification, obscuring the Gospel and perverting God’s grace. Oh, dear reader, please reject the Devil’s lie of Lordship Salvation, for it is “ another gospel

” accursed by God (Galatians 1:6-9; 2nd Corinthians 11:3-4, 13-15).

Pastor Yankee Arnold Responds To Lordship Critics

The religious people in Matthew 7:21-23 FELT like they were saved. They boasted to Jesus of their “many wonderful works,” and that they “ cast our devils,

” and they called Him:

“Lord, Lord.” They felt like they were true Christians. They felt saved. Based upon their own subjective human experience, by all indications they were going to Heaven. But what saith the Scripture?

Lordship Salvation is serving Christ and living the Christian life without ever being born-again...

> Matthew 7:21-23, “Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity.”

As you just read for yourself, Lordship Salvation is serving Christ and living the Christian life without ever being born-again. That is what happened to these cursed false prophets in Matthew 7:21-23. They had churchianity without Christianity! Dear reader, the most dangerous thing you could ever do is to blindly trust some preacher about how to get to Heaven. I feel so sorry for the thousands of people in Pastor John MacArthur’s church cult, who are all victims of his damnable Satanic lies. The only way to stay safe is to SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES...

> John 5:39-40,
> **“

Search the scriptures*; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me.

And ye will not come to me, that ye might have life.

If you have any doubts and concerns about going to Heaven dear friend, [2]I implore you to listen to the Gospel of John over and over and over, until you see the simplicity that is in Christ, which is: THE GOSPEL.

What saith the Scripture? 1st John 3:24, “ And he that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us. ” What does the Bible command all men concerning getting saved? John 6:40, “ And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.” That is God’s commandment to receive eternal life.

Let’[s see what Jesus said in John 6:28-29,

“Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.” Many people wrongly divide the Word of Truth (the Bible), tormenting themselves with a lie. One could easily assume that 1st John 3:24 is speaking about keeping all of God’s commandments to get to Heaven, but that would be foolish, because we should NEVER base a doctrine on a single passage of Scripture. A good rule to follow when interpreting the Bible is to never use an obscure passage to contradict a clear one. We have the entire Gospel of John, which was authored by God specifically to show mankind how to get to Heaven. John 20:31, “But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name.” Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do.

I receive hundreds of emails each year from people who are afraid they are not saved because of the sins in their life. This is the adverse consequence of the Devil’s lie of Lordship Salvation. These poor souls have been lied to by wicked preachers. They have been deceived by the Devil concerning what God requires to get to Heaven. The Devil is a beautiful liar! Lordship Salvation is damnable heresy which causes stress, anxiety, fear, torment, tears and confusion in its victims. Those who trust in Lordship Salvation are always analyzing them self instead of "searching the Scriptures" (John 5:39). They are looking in the mirror, instead of looking to Jesus the Author and Finisher of our faith (Hebrews 12:2).

Dear friend, RUN from Lordship Salvation.

My dear friend in the ministry Michael P. Bowen was also a victim of Lordship Salvation for several years. Michael admits that if he had died during that time of anxiety, stress and confusion over God’s plan of salvation, he would have went to a burning Hell forever. Thankfully, Michael testifies that one day he heard a sermon by Pastor Hank Lindstrom (1940-2008) that finally showed him THE TRUTH OF THE GOSPEL and Michael became a born-again Christian. That sermon is called: ’[3]How Permanent Is Your Salvation?’

Michael Bowen wrote a helpful book about his ordeal, and he shows you exactly how you can also know that you are going to Heaven. The book is titled: [4]I Never Knew You: The Horror Of The Great White Throne Judgment And How You Can Avoid It’ (free .pdf version). You can obtain [5]hard copies at Amazon.com store. I regularly order a few copies here and there to give away to the people in my life. A hard copy is much more likely to get read than a .pdf file.

Lordship Salvation is of the Devil. You get saved by coming to God as a needy guilty sinner (not by forsaking your sinful ways), and simply receiving Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins. Nothing more is required or allowed by God, except faith in the Good News (Gospel) of His only begotten Son crucified, buried and risen for your sins (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). This is the Gospel of free grace! Salvation is not a reward for the righteous, it is a gift for the guilty!

Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith. Thank you humbly for reading my blog. To God be ALL the praise, credit and glory (John 15:5).

3.12.17 Don't Let Religion Inoculate You From Walking With God (2022-12-30 11:25)

2nd Chronicles 25:1-2, "Amaziah was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem. And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, but not with a perfect heart."

Matthew 15:7-9, "

Ye hypocrites, well did Esaias prophesy of you, saying, This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips; but their heart is far from me. But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men."

Sadly, all my life I have seen professed Christians go through the outward external motions of living the Christian life, but they weren't very good Christians. In fact, quite a few of them were rotten as can be. Some borrowed money from me but never repaid what they borrowed. I never asked them to pay me back because I loved them enough to want to avoid a conflict. As a general rule, you should never lend any amount money to someone that you wouldn't be willing to lose. I have lived by that policy for many years. I rarely lend money to anybody, because it is very unlikely that they will ever pay you back.

I have known umpteen professed Christians (I say "professed" because only God knows if someone is truly born again) in my lifetime who lived devout religious lives. They attended a church faithfully. They claimed to read their Bible and pray each day, and I believed them. They tithed and went through all the motions of living the Christian life. Yet, they sinfully filed for divorce from their spouse during times of marital trouble. God hates the sin of divorce (Malachi 2:16). Jeremiah 3:20, “ Surely as a wife treacherously departeth from her husband, so have ye dealt treacherously with me, O house of Israel, saith the LORD.

These devoutly religious people broke their word to me. They held grudges against me.

I have been personally mistreated, shunned, abused emotionally and banned from attending church by ungodly pastors (namely, Marty Herron, Jeff Redlin, Timothy Zacharias, Joe Hensen, Jared Baldwin, Gary Walton, et cetera). I do not think any of the aforementioned pastors are going to Heaven, except maybe Jeff Redlin and Tim Zacharias (the incompetent pastors of Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College). But sadly, PCC’s pastors promote infidel Ken Ham and his [1]Satanic “turn away from your sinful ways to be saved” heresy!

In an earthly court of law, small details can have a profound impact upon one’s verdict in the case. Do you think God pays no less attention to the details of His simple plan of salvation? Do you really think that God allows for discrepancies, embellishments and alterations to the Gospel of free grace? No, God does not!!! So why do so many pastors today change God’s simple plan of salvation, requiring things to get to Heaven which God does not require? It is a VERY serious matter to change and alter the Gospel, requiring more than faith to be saved.

Therefore, I am somewhat doubtful of the pastors’ salvation in the PCC camp, [2]since they wickedly bid Godspeed to false prophet Ken Ham and the [3]Calvinist Bob Jones University cult. When I attended Campus Church in 2021 (before they banned me from returning since 2022), I was disgusted to watch Ken Ham’s heretical Young Earth Creation (YEC) videos all summer for their Wednesday night Bible study. It is shameful that the pastors at PCC are lazy and refuse to study the Word of God for themselves. Instead, they wickedly support Ken Ham financially and doctrinally, making themselves ungodly partakers of Ken Ham’s evil deeds (2nd John 1:11). There is nothing more evil than to corrupt the Gospel. According to Ken Ham, faith is not enough to get to Heaven, he says you must also turn away from your sinful ways (which is “WORKS” according to Jonah 3:10).

I want to point out two things...

First*, it is important to understand that an unsaved person can in fact live the Christian life without ever being born again. That is what we see happening in our text passage from Matthew 15:7-8. Roman Catholics are a perfect example of this truth. They speak high praises of Jesus. They claim to love God. Some of the sweetest and morally good people whom I’ve met in my life were Catholic. God knows that I love Catholic people, which is why I honestly warn them that Catholicism is a prisonhouse of religion. From the cradle to the casket, Catholicism has a religious package for you, but then you will go to Hell forever!

Catholics have been deceived by the Devil, trusting in their manmade Seven Sacraments to get to Heaven, instead of ceasing from their works and resting only in Jesus Christ alone (Hebrews 4:10-11).

Second*, it is important for you to understand that a saved Christian can in fact live like a heathen, while errantly thinking they are pleasing to God. We see this in our text passage from 2nd Chronicles 25:1-2, where Amaziah "did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, but not with a perfect heart." Amaziah trusted in the Messiah, so we know that he is in Heaven today with Jesus. Acts 10:43, " To him [Christ] give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins. "

It is impossible to determine if someone is genuinely saved by merely examining their outward lifestyle. The only way to know for certain is by a direct testimony from their mouth about what they are trusting in to get to Heaven.

Yet, so many believers today live shallow lives. They have been inoculated from the real thing. That is, from real Christianity. In the medical world, inoculations are given to healthy people to prevent them contracting the real disease. Literally, a small amount of the dead inactive virus is injected into a healthy person's bloodstream, which then causes the body to build up an immunity to the real virus. Unfortunately, there are always serious potential risks, even death.

The famous Bible preacher Jonathan Edwards once took a smallpox vaccine to show everyone that there was nothing to fear in taking the vaccine. Well, the vaccine killed him! You can verify that on Wikipedia. Also, few people know that the U.S. federal government has paid out over one billion dollars in compensation to parents whose children became brain damaged because of taking vaccines. The mercury in the vaccine substrate (used to inject multiple vaccines in one shot) has serious potential side effects, including mercury poisoning. I am NOT an expert in these matters, so please do your own homework before taking an vaccine.

However, for the sake of this illustration for my blog, you just need to know what an inoculation does. It protects you from the actual disease. Likewise, millions of Christians have been sucked into so-called "Christian" radio, Tv, magazines, books, films and seminars, so that hardly anyone abides in the Word of God anymore. Sadly, the religious world has become inoculated from Bible Christianity. Most of what we hear preached and taught on social media today is lame, watered down, shallow and empty neo-evangelical garbage.

"Neo" means "new." All of the new music sang in churches today is what is commonly called "7/11 music," that is, 7 words repeated 11 times!!! I detest today's Contemporary Christian Music (CCM) in the churches. CCM is boring, lacks ley changes, uses few chords, has no harmony or melody and fails to touch the heart of the participants. Like a defective firework on the 4th of July, CCM takes the listener into the stratosphere emotionally, but then leaves you feeling empty with no grand finale. There are no Biblical lyrics that the Holy Spirit can use to convict a person's soul.

I love the old Gospel hymn which goes: “What can wash away my sins, nothing but the blood of Jesus!” Today’s retarded song lyrics could just as easily apply to a boyfriend or a girlfriend in many cases, and not the Lord at all. Many songs linger on repeatedly with the lame words: “He is holy. He is holy. Alleluia. Alleluia. Blah Blah Blah Blah!” I dread the new music, which to no surprise matches the dead sermonette that always follows. There is no preaching against sin. There is no contending for the Christian faith. There is no power of the Holy Spirit. Most churches today are mere social clubs, entertainment venues and cults.

All I am saying dear reader is to open your inspired King James Bible (hopefully you have one). All modern Bible revisions are corrupted by Satan and will hurt your faith. The man with two set differently watches doesn’t know what time it is, and likewise the man with two different Bible versions doesn’t know the truth. There is only one Jesus, so why would there by 39 different English Bible versions? Does that make any sense? I mean, at all? Of course it doesn’t. There is only one Jesus (the incarnate living Word of God), and there is only one written inspired Word of God. Anything else is apostasy and fraud!

Pensacola Christian College (PCC) is a perfect example of a group of religious people who have become INOCULATED from true Christianity. At the ungodly PCC camp in Florida, they go through the superficial motions of playing church, enforcing harsh rules and abusive authoritarian cultish control over its members and students. I can testify personally that I am a victim of PCC’s abuse and cruelty. In fact, as of August 2,2022 I have been banned in writing by PCC leadership from attending their Campus Church. That is a cult!!!

Individual people do not matter at PCC or Campus Church. You will find hundreds of complaints on social media, from former PCC students about the abusive atmosphere that is prevalent and ongoing in the PCC cult. Sadly, no one cares in their organization. That is why they banned me from returning. I had attended Campus Church in 2021, but Pastor Jeff Redlin was abusive, rude, inconsiderate, mean and falsely accused me in our conversations. Jeff Redlin ought not be their senior pastor, because he is as phony as they come. It is my daily prayer that God will remove Mr. Redlin, and bring a genuine man of God to lead Campus Church back to God from their apostasy. Ken Ham is a devil, not a born-again Christian. PCC needs to stop wickedly bidding Ken Ham Godspeed, partaking of his Lordship Salvation heresy (2nd John 1:11). RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!!

Have you also been inoculated from walking with God dear friend? Please turn off the Christian radio. Turn off “

[4]The Chosen

” series junk (Mormons are heavily involved in its making and popularity). Please pet down the Christian books, magazines and courses. Jesus commanded us to SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES (John 5:39). It would be a good thing if we’d all put down everything except THE KING JAMES BIBLE. Beware that you don’t become so caught up and enamored with everything that is labeled as “ nowadays, which the Devil will use to hinder you from SEARCHING THE SCRIPTURES as God commanded!!!

3.12.18 The Precious And Highly Exalted Name Of Jesus (2022-12-31 12:13)

Acts 10:43, “To him [Christ] give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins.”

They didn't know the name of "Jesus" in the Old testament, so how could they believe on His name? That is simple, they didn't need to know The Savior's actual name, they just needed to believe on the nameless Messiah. Christ was known by [1]many different names in the Old Testament , but the spelling of His name was not what mattered. What mattered is that sinners believed on the coming prophesied Messiah, the Lamb of God who would take away the sins of the world (John 1:29).

The dear Savior has many names. Isaiah 9:6, "For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counseller, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace." I love that! My favorite name for Jesus here is: "The Everlasting Father." Jesus is the everlasting Father, and the everlasting Father is Jesus. That is, they are both equal members of the Godhead (aka, the "Trinity" in theology). The Godhead (or Trinity) is an absolute fundamental doctrine of the Christian faith. No one is saved who denies the Godhead, after being taught this truth from the inspired Word of God.

You don't have to be a theologian to be saved, you just need to know that Jesus is the virgin born Son of God, the Christ. When I got saved at age 13, I didn't know that Jesus is almighty God. I wasn't taught that Bible truth until I was age 18 while I attended Hyles-Anderson College (which my favorite preacher, Pastor Jack Hyles, started in 1972 to train young men and women to serve God full-time). I am an eternally grateful graduate of Hyles-Anderson College. I thank God and the dear saints at Hyles-Anderson who invested in me, so that I could effectively serve God today in the power of the Holy Spirit, not my own human strength. Zechariah 4:6, "Then he answered and spake unto me, saying, This is the word of the LORD unto Zerubbabel, saying, Not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the LORD of hosts."

Mary And Joseph Commanded To Name God's Only Begotten Son, 'Jesus'

A few years ago there was a big ruckus on social media between Pastor Steven Anderson and Evangelist Sam Gipp. It got ugly and personal, especially with Sam Gipp, whom I humbly feel took some unfair cheap shots at Pastor Anderson. The conflict started when Sam Gipp quoted the following Bible verse, claiming that Mary and Joseph were NOT supposed to name the only begotten Son of God, "Jesus." Sam Gipp teaches that Mary and Joseph were supposed to name Him, "Emmanuel." Matthew 1:23, " Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call his name Emmanuel, which being interpreted is, God with us. "

Unfortunately for Sam Gipp, Pastor Anderson strongly refuted him with Matthew 1:21, " And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS: for he shall save his people from their sins." We can see clearly throughout the New Testament that the only begotten Son of God went by the name of

JESUS.

" Kindly said, Sam Gipp is WRONG!!! ...

Sam Gipp Blasphemes the name of JESUS!!!

Jesus is the Name Exalted Above Every Other Name

The name of Jesus is not like any other name...

> Philippians 2:9-11, "Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name: That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth; And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father."

There is no other name as wonderful and highly exalted as the precious name of "JESUS." Neither is there salvation found in Mary, Muhammad, Hara Krishna, Zoroaster, Confucius or any other name, but that of the precious name of JESUS CHRIST OF NAZAERETH...

> Acts 4:10-12, " Be it known unto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye crucified, whom God raised from the dead, even by him doth this man stand here before you whole. This is the stone which was set at nought of you builders, which is become the head of the corner. Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved. "

The only way to become an adopted child of God is through faith in Jesus' name...

> John 1:12-13, "But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name: Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God."

Amen and amen! No one has ever gone to Heaven who trusted in the Devil's Sacramental Salvation of Roman and Orthodox Catholicism. Salvation is found only through faith alone in Jesus Christ alone (Romans 10:3-4; Philippians 3:9).

Jesus is the Incarnate Word of God Made Flesh

Jesus is the Living Word, the inspired King James Bible is the Written Word. Dr. John R. Rice (1895-1980) rightly called Jesus and the Bible "twins." How is a man a Book, or a Book a man? I cannot explain that truth...

> John 1:1-3 and 14, "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. The same was in the beginning with God. All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made. ...And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth."

Jesus is: THE WORD OF GOD!!! Revelation 19:13, "And he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood: and his name is called The Word of God." I cannot wrap my tiny brain around such a great truth, but I believe it. My humble thought about the matter is the common saying that: A man is only as good as his word. Likewise, God is only as good and trustworthy as His faithfulness to keep His Word (i.e., His promises). Mark 13:31, "Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away."

I am so thankful to God that He made His plan of salvation for humanity very clear in the Holy Bible, so that we can point to God's promises in the Bible. I KNOW that I am going to Heaven because in 1st Corinthians 1:21b, God promised "to save them that believe." I believe that Jesus is the Christ, the only begotten Son of God. I believe the Good News (Gospel) that Jesus died on a cross to pay for my sins, and that He was buried, and after three days He physically resurrected in His glorified body (1st Corinthians 15:1-6). I realized as a 13-year-old body that I was a guilty sinner, but Jesus washed all my sins away by faith in Him, and now God the Father only sees the imputed righteousness of Christ when He looks at me (Philippians 3:9). Praise God!

Dear reader, think about what we have learned here. Jesus is THE WORD OF GOD!!! So why do churches use two dozen different English Bible versions today? If Jesus is the Word of God, then do we have two dozen different Jesuses? No, of course not. So what does this say? It plainly says (shouts in fact) that there can only be one true Bible in any particular language. There cannot be two Bibles! The man with two watches never knows what time it is, and the man with two Bible versions doesn't know what THE TRUTH is!!!

4.1.1 I’m Not A Good Christian And Neither Are You (2023-01-02 18:16)

Psalms 130:3, “

If thou, LORD, shouldest mark iniquities, O Lord, who shall stand?

I humbly learned a very long time ago that I am not a good Christian, nor will I ever be. If you think you are a good Christian, you need to humble yourself in the sight of our holy God and Creator.

I was sitting in a pew at the First Baptist Church of Hammond, Indiana, while attending Hyles Anderson College (HAC, 1985-1993). I graduated HAC in 1993. I have never forgotten what Pastor Jack Hyles said to everyone that Sunday evening. Brother Hyles said: “The best Christian in this auditorium tonight probably feels like the worst Christian, and the worst Christian here probably feels like the best Christian.” I love that truth.

Search the Scriptures and you will find that all of God’s great men of God viewed themselves as horrible Christians. That is because the closer we draw to our heavenly Father as His born-again children (if you have been saved), the more sinful we will see ourselves in comparison to God’s holiness. No one is saved who denies being a guilty sinner in God’s sight. 1st John 1:10,

If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.”

The Jewish patriarch Jacob said:

> Genesis 32:10, “I am not worthy of the least of all the mercies, and of all the truth, which thou hast shewed unto thy servant; for with my staff I passed over this Jordan; and now I am become two bands.”

King David said:

Psalms 106:6, “

We have sinned with our fathers, we have committed iniquity, we have done wickedly.

The Prophet Isaiah said:

Isaiah 6:5,

“

Then said I, Woe is me! for I am undone; because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips: for mine eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts.

The Apostle Paul said:

1st Timothy 1:15,

“

This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief.

The Apostle Peter said:

Luke 5:8, “ When Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus’ knees, saying, Depart from me; for I am a sinful man, O Lord. ”

I often tell people that if you are looking for a big sinner, you found THE BIGGEST SINNER right here! Humbly, I am the worst sinner that I know, and so are you if you walk closely with the dear Lord. As God’s adopted child (John 1:12-13; Romans 8:15), I always feel convicted about the sins in my life.

The Methodist denomination centuries ago adopted the unbiblical heresy called, “Sinless Perfection.” No, they are liars! No one has ever achieved sinless perfection in the flesh. Not even Jesus, because He was already sinless and perfect before He was even conceived. John 1:1-3 tells us that Jesus existed from the very beginning, because He is almighty God. John 1:14 teaches that Jesus is the Word of God, who became incarnate (became flesh) as the only begotten Son of God. John 1:14, “ And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth.”

Please understand that I am not saying it is okay for anyone to live in sin, God forbid. I love what Pastor Jack Hyles said:

“If you want to never do anything that is terribly wicked, then you never do anything that is slightly wicked.” —Pastor Jack Hyles, [1]"Unjust In The Least".”

Amen and amen! I am always praying for God to help me think right, live right and do right. Thankfully, Christ died for our sins so that we could be right, by faith alone in His death on the cross, burial and bodily resurrection (1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

Dear reader, my purpose in writing this blog is to teach you the proper mindset that you should maintain as a Christian. Proverbs 16:18, " Pride goeth before destruction, and an haughty spirit before a fall." When you think you are doing pretty good, beware! WATCH OUT!!! That is why my favorite Bible verse for many years now has been Proverbs 4:23,

"Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life."

The Holy Bible has much to say about the wretched human heart. Jeremiah 17:9, "The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it?" I think that people in general are good, as far as sinners go. The average person doesn't want to deliberately hurt and defraud pother people. That is, I don't think most people want to do evil. But the Bible teaches plainly that we are all sinner by nature and by choice.

What is evil? Evil is simply planned sin. Blowing up in the heat of the moment in road rage is a sin. You didn't plan to do it. In a court of law you would likely be tried for Second Degree Murder, because you didn't plan to do it. But this crime is more than mere manslaughter, like what happened with actor Alec Baldwin. Lucky for him, if convicted of manslaughter the state of New Mexico only imposes an 18 month prison sentence. In Florida he'd get 15 years in prison for manslaughter. Personally, I'd be surprised of Alec Baldwin gets convicted at all. But if Alec had intentionally murdered the woman actor, he would have been charged and convicted with First Degree Murder. And by the way, abortion is First Degree Murder!!!

The Bible teaches that evil comes from within the human heart. That is why the Bible says in Proverbs 23:7, " For as he thinketh in his heart, so is he: Eat and drink, saith he to thee; but his heart is not with thee." We are what we choose to dwell upon in our mind. That is why I refuse to allow any sinful thoughts to go unchallenged in my mind. If you choose to allow thoughts of hatred, lust, bitterness, theft and other sinful things to remain uncontested in your soul, you will become corrupted. What saith the Scripture? ...

> 2nd Corinthians 10:5-6, "Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ; And having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled."

This is not brain washing or mind control, it is walking in the Holy Spirit. An unsaved person cannot walk in the Spirit, because they don't have the Holy Spirit (Romans 8:9). That is what it means to be "born again," that is, you are born for the second time in life, but this time into God's family by His Holy Spirit which He indwells you with (i.e., God literally comes to reside in your body, soul and spirit. When your flesh dies, the Holy Spirit departs along with the believer's soul and spirit from their fleshly body.

Death is a separation of spirit and soul from the body. The second death (Revelation 21:8) in Hell (only for Christ-rejecters) is separation from the body, soul and spirit from God for all eternity. That is frightening! Matthew 10:28. “

And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell.

” Obviously, God provides the unsaved with some type of body in the Lake of Hell, which can withstand the torture and pain of the fire without disintegrating from the intense heat and molten brimstone. Please don’t go to Hell dear friend, [2]the choice is yours alone to make.

If you feel like a horrible Christian, that is a good thing. Hey, the only way from the bottom of life is up! Dr. Hyles used to rightly say that you cannot go upstream until you’ve first been downstream. You cannot ascend the mountain until you’ve been down in the valley (or at the base of the mountain). Great joy only comes out of great sorrow! Psalms 30:5, “ For his anger endureth but a moment; in his favour is life: weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning.

I suffer in constant neck pain. I suffer from burning in my nerves throughout my upper body and arms. The right side of my body always feels half asleep. I suffer from constant chronic neck pain where the bony area is at in back. I take prescription pain medications, which helps take the edge off, but does little to remove the misery from my disability. But it is my suffering that enables me to enjoy life more. When I do simple things—like shop at the grocery store, or feed walnuts and pecans to a family of squirrels, or work on my ministry websites and blogs—I find much contentment in those things.

I love contending for the Christian faith, although it saddens my soul that so many pastors loathe me and despise my preaching, falsely accusing me of finding weakness in preachers, when in reality I am faithfully obeying God to “earnestly contend for the faith” (Jude 1:3b) and “rebuke them sharply, that they might be sound in the faith” (Titus 1:13b). It was shameful senior pastor, Jeff Redlin at Pensacola Christian College’s apostate neo-evangelical Campus Church who make that ungodly comment to me in 2021. SHAME on the PCC camp.

I mailed a letter (two in fact) to PCC leadership in 2022, humbly asking for their cooperation to resolve the matter with their haughty pastors, but they didn’t even have the common decency and courtesy to reply. That shows me how arrogant PCC leadership is, and confirms all of the complaints I have read from former and present students (and church members too) that PCC doesn’t care about individual people. They sure don’t!

That just proves how far away from God the PCC camp is, and how ungodly their overpaid 6-digit salaried pastors are. It is SHAMEFUL. PCC has sadly become a neo-evangelicals cult, wickedly bidding Godspeed to the Devil’s false prophets like Ken Ham, Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, and the accursed Calvinist cult at Bob Jones University (BJU). It is tragic that less than 1 % of my web visitors, Facebook friends, and blog readers agree with my passion to expose these heretics! When I post an image about loving God, 40 or more Facebook friends will give me a like mark. But when I contend for the faith and **“

rebuke them sharply

”(Titus 1:13b) in the PCC cult, who shamefully refuse to contend for the faith, and even worse, wickedly support the Devil’s Lordship Salvation cult at BJU, 1 or 2 people give me a like.

It just goes to prove that nearly all professed Christians today are NOT walking closely with the Lord Jesus Christ. That is why today’s believer’s have no boldness!

What saith the Scripture?

Acts 4:13, “

Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus.

They are NOT abiding in the inspired Word of God. What saith the Scripture? Psalms 119:104, “Through thy precepts I get understanding: therefore I hate every false way.” Sadly, what 99 % of God’s redeemed children do today is blindly listen and hinge upon every word that their incompetent pastors teaches them, without thinking objectively to question what he is teaching, by obeying Jesus’ command to “SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES” (John 5:39a), to verify if what the preacher is saying is so. ...

> Acts 17:10-11, “And the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night unto Berea: who coming thither went into the synagogue of the Jews. These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so.”

Please don’t misunderstand my blog. We should all desire to become better Christians. But I think a much better attitude to have is to focus on pleasing our dear Lord and Savior, and in so doing we will become more like Jesus. That is what it means to become a better Christian, to be further conformed into the wonderful and holy character of our Savior, Lord and God. Whether you obey Jesus as Lord doesn’t change the fact that He is your Lord (Romans 14:9).

JESUS IS LORD!!! There is not a single Christian throughout history, or in the world today, who 100 % follows Jesus as his or her Lord. None of us are great Christians. We’re not even good Christians! We’re all wretched sinners in the hands of a merciful God. Micah 7:18, “ Who is a God like unto thee, that pardoneth iniquity, and passeth by the transgression of the remnant of his heritage? he retaineth not his anger for ever, because he delighteth in mercy.” Our God is a very good God!!! There is only one true and living God, and He sent His only begotten Son, Jesus, into the world to die on a cross to pay our debt of sin (Romans 5:6-9). What a wonderful Savior!!!

None of us are good Christians! You never know what somebody is thinking, unless they open their mouth. Matthew 12:34, " O generation of vipers, how can ye, being evil, speak good things? for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh." I am as guilty as anyone of failing to keep my mouth shut when I ought to. The Epistle of James in the Bible warns us about how deadly and poisonous the human tongue is. Yet we sure do talk a lot don't we? Just keeping guard of my mouth is a full-time job! Here's a prayer for all of us to remember...

> Lord put your arm around my shoulder and your hand over my mouth.

I don't know about you, but I want God to help me do better. The biggest mistake you can make as a child of God, is to foolishly think that you can make it alone. Dear reader, you cannot make it without God. NO YOU CAN'T! Without the Lord people can become monsters! Just listen to the local, regional, national or world news. It's all the same, gloom and doom! I've been following the news this week out of Moscow, Idaho, about the four young college students brutally murdered (stabbed to death) by (as all evidence is pointing to so far), of all people, another college student who has already earned a master's degree in criminology. Talk about twisted! Go figure.

In another true bizarre news story years ago, a series of deadly arsonist fires in California were found out later to have been intentionally set by, of all people, a fire investigator! Truth is stranger than fiction. And it certainly wouldn't be the first time that the most wicked man in town turned out to be the local church pastor!!! Romans 3:10-11, "As it is written, There is none righteous, no, not one: There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God." By nature and choice we are all dirty, filthy, rotten, undeserving of God's grace, SINNERS!!! THANK GOD for His precious saving GRACE!!!

I absolutely LOVE this next Bible verse. Romans 6:1, "

What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound?

This precious Scripture by itself refutes all of these heretics in the pulpit today (e.g., Ray Comfort, Kirk Cameron, John Hagee, Beth Moore, Joyce Meyer, Billy Graham, Franklin Graham, Pensacola Christian College, Steve Pettit, Bob Jones University, Marty Herron, Chuck Phelps, Ken Ham, Answers-In-Genesis, John MacArthur, Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, Pacific Garden Mission's radio 'Unshackled,' Joel Osteen, First Baptist Church of Pensacola, et cetera) who all teach the Devil's lie that you cannot go to Heaven until you

"turn away from past sinful ways."

That is WORKS!

What saith the Scripture? Jonah 3:10,

"And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not."

The Bible says that eternal life is the gift of God. Romans 6:23, "For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

" It cannot be a gift if there are any obligations or stipulations to be saved, or to know for sure that you are saved. Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do.

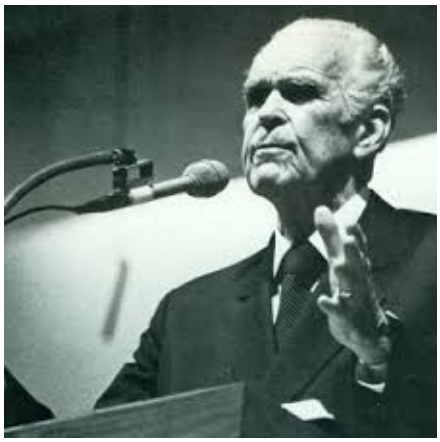
1st John 3:24, " And he that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us." The only way that you can KNOW you are saved, is by the indwelling Holy Spirit who confirms THE TRUTH of the Gospel that you believe. That is what true repentance is, a change of mind to acknowledge THE TRUTH that you are a guilty sinner and to believe the Gospel. 2nd Timothy 2:25,

"In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth;"

To be saved you must admit THE TRUTH that you are a guilty sinner in the sight of a holy God (Romans 3:19-20), and place your childlike trust in His only begotten Son, the Christ, whose name is Jesus (John 20:31). You must BELIEVE that Jesus died on a cross to pay for your debt of sin, and that after being buried He resurrected three days later. That is THE GOOD NEWS, the GOSPEL, by which all who BELIEVE are immediately, irrevocably and forever saved (1st Corinthians 1'5:1-4). You have God's solemn word on it (Romans 1:16; 1st Corinthians 1:21).

I receive so many emails from people who are afraid they are not saved because of the sins in their life. Dear reader, your sinning has NOTHING to do with going to Heaven. Please understand that no matter how much you may attempt to forsake your sinning, YOU CANNOT! Even that seemingly sweet old Christian lady singing in the choir, who people say would never hurt an ant, is a rotten dirty sinner!!! She may not get drunk, gamble, chew tobacco or curse like a sailor; but she still has pride, bitterness, anger, envy and can be manipulative when she wants to! The only difference between Jeffrey Dahmer and that sweet old lady in the choir is that they sin differently. Don't judge others because they sin differently than you! What saith the Scripture? James 2:10, "For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all. " All it requires to go to Hell forever is just ONE SIN!!!

In a [3]60-minutes interview in 1984, the famous Tv actor Jackie Gleason (1916-1987) told the interviewer that he didn't think God would send him to Hell for committing just one sin! WRONG! As I just showed you from James 2:10, God WILL send anyone to Hell for committing just one sin! So then how can anyone go to Heaven? That is why we all need a Savior. His precious name is Jesus Christ. He has already paid for your sins, but that gift will never be yours unless you accept it by faith alone. God will not accept partial faith in Christ plus cleaning up your life of sin (reformation). That would be WORKS, not faith!



All God requires to get to Heaven is for you to BELIEVE that Jesus did it all for you! God loves you dear friend and was willing to die on a cross to pay for your sins, because He didn't want to live without you in eternity.

In closing, even if I were a good Christian, I don't want to know it, because I want to always feel like I can do much better for my Savior. But I know that I CANNOT live the Christian life in my own strength as God's adopted child. Galatians 2:20, "I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me." How do you walk in the Holy Spirit? You simply obey the Holy Spirit's leading from the inspired Word of God (i.e., the King James Bible, which is the ONLY English Bible you can trust today). The Holy Spirit will NEVER lead anyone contrary to the Holy Bible.

by Pastor Lee Roberson

“Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints” —Jude 3

We have announced that this service is going to be different, and different it is. First, it is different because every person here has in his hand a copy of the Scripture to be discussed. Second, it is different because we are going to preach right out of this one little book.

There are many interesting sidelights in this book by "Jude, the servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James" which we would like to discuss, but time will not permit.

We will tell you about the threefold position of believers, as found in verse 1:

First, sanctified by God the Father.

Second, preserved in Jesus Christ.

Third, called.

We want you to see the three eternal things mentioned:

First, eternal life (vs. 21).

Second, everlasting chains (vs. 6).

Third, eternal fire (vs. 7).

Then, the words "keep" and "kept" are mentioned several times.

First, the Lord s people are kept ones. The revised version reads in verse 1... "kept for Jesus Christ." Thank God, we have that assurance that we are kept!

Second, some angels "kept not their first estate," so they are "kept" in chains (vs. 6).

Third, we must keep ourselves in the constant full assurance that God loves us (vs. 21).

Fourth, He is able to keep us, not merely from "falling" but as the revised version gives it, from "stumbling," for stumbling precedes falling (vs. 24).

The key phrase of the book is "earnestly contend for the faith" (vs. 3).

We will make the following divisions for the facility of our study: First, the troublemakers; second, God s judgment against evil and evildoers; third, twofold exhortation to believers.

I. THE TROUBLEMAKERS

"For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ. "—vs. 4.

Yes, false teachers had come into the midst of certain Christian bodies who were turning the grace of God into filthiness and wantonness. These false teachers claimed that because they were free from the law, they were therefore free to indulge in all kinds of sin.

They were also guilty of "denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ." All false teachers are wrong about the person and work of Jesus Christ.

Watch out for "certain men.

II. GOD’S JUDGMENT AGAINST EVIL AND EVILDOERS

The Holy Spirit says, (verses 5-9) We are now going to illustrate God s judgment with a play in three acts.

The first act shows God delivering the children of Israel from bondage.

We see the gracious mercy of God in preserving and caring for His people across the Red Sea and through the desert. But then instead of lovingly obeying God s command to take the land of promise, they refused. God s judgment came upon the disobedient and unbelieving. He decreed that not one of the unbelieving should enter into Canaan.

The second act of the play takes us into Heaven. Certain angels of Heaven are rebelling against Almighty God. Judgment falls; they are cast out and kept in everlasting chains under darkness unto the judgment of the great day. I agree with Scofield that this judgment of angels will take place when Satan is judged after the thousand years. The saints will have a part in this judgment.

Listen, friend! God will not spare sinners, whether in low or high places, for He spared not the angels. As soon as they developed an evil nature, He saw they were not fit for the holiness and joys of Heaven; so He cast them out. God deals first in mercy, but afterwards in judgment.

The third act of this play begins at once after the second. You have time just to see the awfulness of rebelling against God. And now, act three opens upon a scene of great hilarity and merrymaking. The cities of Sodom and Gomorrah are running wide open. Money is plentiful; wild parties and immoral orgies are held nightly. In the midst of it all, God speaks; and fire and brimstone rain from Heaven. Laughter turns to fearful screams. Sin and sensuality are paying off in tears and destruction.

Those who are not on God s side—beware! You can t go on forever in sin, despising God and God s Son and loving evil, without coming under judgment. That fearful day is coming. Don t be foolish!

But now the Holy Spirit comes to say still more about those troublemakers and filthy dreamers. They are like three men of olden days who also called forth the judgment of God.

They are like Cain who rejected redemption by blood. He wanted to do things in his own way. A lot of folks are like that today.

Also, like Balaam, who was a hireling prophet, anxious only to make money. He tried to tell God what to do.

And like Korah—his sin was denial of the authority of Moses as God's chosen spokesman, and trying to come to God without the mediation of God s appointed high priest. The earth opened up and destroyed Korah and his company. The lesson for us is that we can only come to God through Jesus Christ, our High Priest.

Judgment is coming upon evil and evildoers, upon all who are not under the blood. It is coming when Christ comes in power and great glory (Vss. 14,15). Three thousand years before the first coming of Jesus, Enoch prophesied the second coming of Christ. The day of judgment is coming, and the only safe place to be is with the Judge.

III. THE TWOFOLD EXHORTATION TO BELIEVERS

"Earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints" — Vs. 3.

Earnest contenders for the faith are very few in this day. I am afraid the number is going to get less and less. The world is breeding a kind of tolerance for all religions and heresies until there will be but a few voices raised in the next few years for the old-time faith.

I believe in religious freedom. I believe in freedom of expression. Our boys are fighting for it now, fighting so that all groups may have absolute freedom of worship and expression.

In my own mind, they are not fighting for the spread of heresy. But heresy is being spread today; therefore, it is up to the saints who have been called, sanctified, and kept to "earnestly contend for the faith."

In all love I want to express myself plainly. Some of you sitting before me doubtless have an idea that just so a fellow has some kind of "religion," he is all right. It doesn't matter what kind he has.

That is the very kind of tolerance this war is promoting. I SAY,

IT DOES MAKE A DIFFERENCE.

IT MAKES THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN HEAVEN AND HELL.

It makes the difference between getting your prayers answered and just blowing words into the air.

It makes the difference between victorious Christian living and a makeshift farce of pious Sunday morning attendance at the "church of your choice."

There are so many "isms"—first, the Russellites. If they are right, we are wrong. They deny much of the Word of God. They do not believe in Hell. They do not believe in the Trinity of Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Russellism would destroy every church in the world. Russellism denies the deity of Christ. They say He became divine only after His resurrection.

In contending for the faith, also shun profane and vain babblings; they increase unto more ungodliness. Don t allow the deceptive Watchtower literature in your home.

Second, Christian Science. We have been a lot kinder to the Christian Scientists than they have been to us. This group, originated by Mrs. Mary Baker Eddy, is an attempted combination of religion, science and philosophy.

She wrote a book called Science and Health, With a Key to the Scriptures. This book is placed above the Bible. Christian Science rejects the fact of sin, denies blood redemption. Since there is no reality to sin, it thinks, also, there is no reality to Hell and the judgment.

If Christian Science had charge of this country, there would be no hospitals, no doctors, no nurses, no vaccination. Christian Science cannot cure anyone, because, according to Christian Science, you have never been sick.

If you want the truth, unvarnished and plain, read ReligioMedical Masquerade, by Peabody. This book was printed ten times, copies running into the thousands. It was written during the lifetime of Mrs. Eddy. The author invited Mrs. Eddy and the Scientists to sue him for slander if he was wrong. He was never sued.

Christian Science is like a guinea pig, which is neither guinea nor pig; or like grapenuts which contain neither grapes nor nuts, it is neither Christian nor scientific.

Third, the Roman Catholic Church, said to be the strongest religious body in the world. I have no personal grievance against any Roman Catholic. But the Bible and Roman Catholicism both cannot be true. If we are right, they are wrong. If they are right, then we are wrong. WE HAVE ONLY ONE DECIDING AUTHORITY—THE BIBLE.

This copy of a letter recently came to my desk. Listen to some of it:

> "This war time is giving the Catholic church a great advantage in many respects. Protestants and Baptists are gaining but little numerically and spiritually from the war. Catholics are gaining numerically in spheres of influence.
> Catholics are protesting against our missionaries being allowed in South America."

Yes, we are exhorted to earnestly contend for the faith. We are exhorted to "build" up our spiritual lives. Having laid well our foundation in gospel faith, we must build upon it, ever making progress in spiritual things.

We can build ourselves up by:

> Praying in the Holy Spirit. He makes our prayers fervent. He makes them loving. He makes them believing, for a man prevails only as he has faith.
>
> Keeping ourselves in the love of God. This will keep us from mistakes and worldliness.
>
> We are to look for the Lord's return.
>
> We are to build ourselves up by being soul winners. "And others save with fear, pulling them out of the fire; hating even the garment spotted by the flesh."

4.1.3 Are You On A Spiritual Junk Food Diet? (2023-01-13 06:35)

Psalms 119:43, "

And take not the word of truth utterly out of my mouth; for I have hoped in thy judgments.

Psalms 119:103, "

How sweet are thy words unto my taste! yea, sweeter than honey to my mouth!

Psalms 119:131, “

I opened my mouth, and panted: for I longed for thy commandments.

I was thinking today about how difficult it is for people who love junk food to eat right. Most Americans love pizza, cheeseburgers, bacon sandwiches, tacos, sloppy joes, pastas, rice, sweets, breads, et cetera. All of these foods are high calorie-density foods. If you aren’t restrictive and careful when eating these foods, you will gain weight quickly.

Even worse, the healthy foods that we should be eating cannot compare in pleasure and satisfaction with the junk foods that taste so delicious. I don’t know about you, but I’d much rather eat a Big Mac from McDonald’s than an apple, flaxseeds or oatmeal. I understand that eating healthy foods can become a cultivated good habit, so that our body begins to crave healthy foods; but if we do indulge in junk food, almost immediately our body will lose interest in the good foods and crave the junk food, so that the healthy foods sit and spoil. I have had that happen to me countless times. Anyone who has struggled with their weight and eating healthy foods fully understands what I am talking about.

Likewise, the same thing happens to us spiritually if we lack the discipline to read the inspired Holy Bible, pray without ceasing, attend a soulwinning church, and listen to solid Bible preaching by fundamentalist preachers who tell the truth without compromise or dilution. In truth, these godly things cannot compare to watching Tv, binge Tv series, Hollywood movies, video games, listening to music and all the entertainment available nowadays. In comparison, most church services are boring and lack any thrills.

Consequently, an alarmingly increasing number of churches today have brought in the entertainment, trying to woo the audience with electric guitars and drums, worldly celebrities like Kanye West, CCM (contemporary Christian music), motivational speakers like Joel Osteen, watered-down preaching, bringing pets to church (Steven Furtick’s ’Elevation Church’ in Charlotte, North Carolina), rock music, promotions, et cetera. Just like eating healthy foods, we must have the discipline to cultivate cravings for the things of God.

Going to church is not as exciting as watching Tv, movies and all the alluring electronic entertainments common to society these days. Someone who is faithful to attend church, abide in God’s Word, and doesn’t watch Tv would disagree. That is because they have already cultivated proper godly habits. Like everything else in life, it is out choices that make us who we are. I read something this week that resonated with me, great advice...

> Keep your thoughts positive because your thoughts become your words.
> Keep your words positive because your words become your behavior.
>
> Keep your behavior positive because your behavior become your habits.

Keep your habits positive because your habits become your values.

Keep your values positive because your values become your destiny.

That is so true. The inspired Word of God puts it this way...

Philippians 4:8, “

Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.

We are what we think about. When someone emails me, telling me that they are bitter toward people and life, despondent, I know that they’ve been thinking wrong for a long time. A man is what he thinks about. Whether you think you can or not, you are right. Proverbs 23:7, “For as he thinketh in his heart, so is he: Eat and drink, saith he to thee; but his heart is not with thee.” If you sit around and think about all your problems and miseries, and think about how people have hurt and dissed you, you’re going to feel hatred toward life.

So what do we do? Hebrews 12:2, “

Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

” I love this precious passage. Jesus is the author of our faith. That is, the Christian life all began with Jesus Christ

BY FAITH

, the Christian life is lived BY FAITH, and it will all end with Jesus Christ

BY FAITH

. Galatians 2:20,

I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me.

” You don’t live the Christian life dear reader. As a child of God, Jesus lives the Christian life through you. We live by the faith of the Son of God.

The way to overcome bad eating habits is to just start eating healthier foods, and in so doing your body will begin to crave good foods. I have never really cared for fish, but once I started eating baked tilapia, with lemon and butter over it, I crave baked fish. Eating fish is a good way to lose weight, because fish is very low in calories and high in protein. Eating beans is a superfood! Beans contain a very high amount of protein and fiber. Eating fiber makes us feel full longer.

This morning I made a smoothie with my Nutri-Ninja (everybody should have one). I cut up one Ambrosia apple. I added 3 dozen red grapes. I put in a dash of cinnamon. I added 3 Tablespoons of whole flaxseeds. Finally, I added some cold water. Just the 2 Tablespoons of flaxseeds gives me 3 grams of fiber for the day. Eating healthy feels good in both mind and body, because I know why can happen if I don't eat good foods. Diabetes is called 'The Silent Killer," which upwards of 25 % of Americans suffer from these days. Left untreated diabetes can cause blindness, amputation of feet and arms, kidney failure, stroke, heart attack, et cetera.

Most people wait until they are diagnosed with cancer or some other horrible disease, until they start to eat good foods and take control of their health. But by then it is usually too late.

Regarding both our physical and spiritual health, it is 100 % true that an once of prevention is worth one pound of cure. It is amazing what eating healthy foods will do for your body, as compared to what junk food does to your body.

Processed sugar is toxic to the human body over time. The average American eats 20 times more red meat than is considered healthy. All of the additives, dies, artificial flavorings and preservatives added to frozen boxed and other prepared foods is frightening! Some foods (like Korean yellow radish) are labeled to warn consumers that they cause cancer in lab rats. Yummy! I make it a habit to read food labels now, before I purchase any foods, to see exactly what I am putting into my body.

Dear reader, what kind of diet are you on? Many Americans are on a slow suicide diet, both physically and spiritually. Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) rightly said that behind every tragedy in human character is a slow process of wicked thinking. Dr. Bob was right! People don't just wake up one day and decide to commit suicide, there was a long process of negative thinking. The most miserable people in the world are those who spend all their time thinking about themselves, their own problems and what people have done to hurt them. What we all need to do as saints is to LOOK TO OUR BLESSED SAVIOR!!!

Hebrews 12:2, "

Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

When I labor on my website ministry, I am living for others for Christ. I am giving myself away to help other people. 2nd Corinthians 12:15, " And I will very gladly spend and be spent for you; though the more abundantly I love you, the less I be loved." I get lonely often, simply because very few people can reciprocate the unconditional love of God that I have for everyone. I don't claim to be a good Christian, but God knows that I pray for all of my web visitors and work day and night on my website ministry. The dear Lord knows that in His strength alone, I am earnestly trying to make an impact for God. I give God ALL the praise, credit and glory. John 15:5, "

I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing.

The psalmist said that the Holy Bible to his mouth was sweeter than honey. Psalms 119:103, “

How sweet are thy words unto my taste! yea, sweeter than honey to my mouth!

In Matthew 4:4 Jesus quotes a passage spoken by Moses (under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit) in Deuteronomy 8:3,

“But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.” No Christian will be properly nourished spiritually without abiding in the inspired Words of God. The Bible provides our minerals and vitamins spiritually. Sadly, most believers today are malnourished.

4.1.4 You Cannot Grow As A Christian Without The Bible (2023-01-15 23:15)

2nd Peter 3:18, “ But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. To him be glory both now and for ever. Amen.”

I heard a helpful sermon today by Pastor Max D. Younce on Ephesians. Here is an excerpt that I took from the sermon for this blog...

Ephesians Edit 15
(sermon excerpt by Pastor Max D. Younce; [1]full sermon)

Jesus was tempted by the Devil three different times in Matthew 4:1-10 and in Luke 4:1-13. All three times our dear Savior quoted the Scriptures to overcome Satan's temptation. This is one of the most basic fundamental truths of the inspired Word of God—that the Scriptures are our primary weapon of defense against sin, depression, loneliness, temptation, suffering, demonic attacks, et cetera. The Bible has all the answers!!! Christ is the answer to all of your problems. You may not understand or see how that is true, but I assure you that it is indeed very true.

Jesus said in John 8:23 that the truth would set us free, and then in John 8:36 we read, "If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed." Jesus exclaimed in John 14:6 that He is THE TRUTH. John 14:6, "Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me." I counsel with umpteen believers regarding their broken life and depression, many of whom sadly want an answer apart from the Word of God. Dear reader, if you are down and miserable about life for a prolonged period of time, I guarantee you that your mind is broken.

I mean, it is normal to be down in the valley sometimes emotionally. I've been there more times than I can remember in life. But when I counsel myself with the inspired Word of God, reading and listening and meditating upon God's wonderous promises ahead in the future for every saint, I rejoice again ("re-joice") and praise my wonderful God, Lord, Friend and Savior, Jesus.

When I pray, claiming God's beautiful promise in Philippians 4:6-7, I find a peace that passeth all understanding, knowing that God's is now on the job because I prayed for His help. That is exactly what prayer is, asking God for His help. ...

> Hebrews 4:14-16, "Seeing then that we have a great high priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession.
> For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin. *Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need."

Have you prayed about your problems, burdens and needs dear friend? If not, please do so now. You don't need to bow your head, nor get down upon your knees, God just wants you to talk to Him, showing Him through prayer that you humbly need His help. ...

> But he giveth more grace. Wherefore he saith, God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble.
>
> Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.
>
> Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts, ye double minded.

When you don't read your Bible and pray, you are telling God that you can make it on your own, that you don't really need His help. What saith the Scripture? ...

> Psalms 119:9-11, "Wherewithal shall a young man cleanse his way? by taking heed thereto according to thy word.
>
> With my whole heart have I sought thee: O let me not wander from thy commandments.
>
> Thy word have I hid in mine heart, that I might not sin against thee.

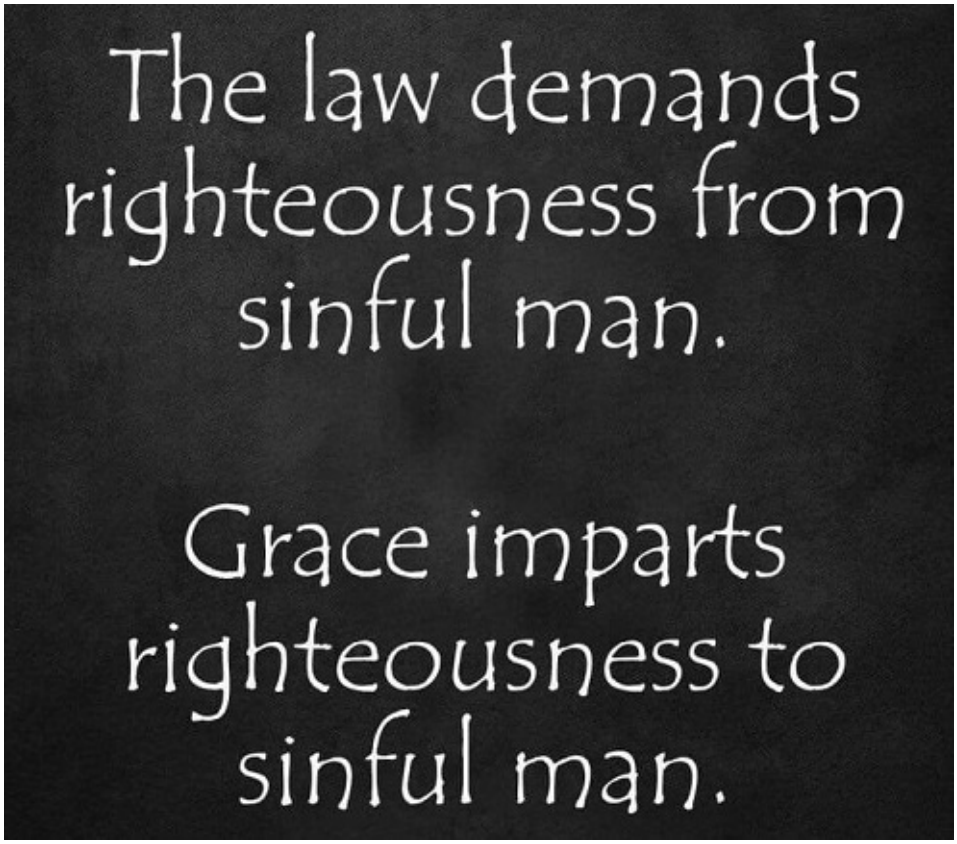
Oh, dear reader, I and you both desperately need God's help. Either sin will keep you from the Bible, or the Bible will keep you from sin. Sadly, ninety-nine people couldn't care less about staying away from sin, they just don't want to be incarcerated in prison. If people could do whatever they wanted without getting into any trouble, I shudder in horror to think what wicked people would do.

One of the evidences that we are saved is having a desire to obey God's commandments. I didn't say that doing good works is evidence of being saved, because it is not. Even many wicked hellbound Mormons, Catholics and Seventh-Day Adventists do good works. So anything that an unsaved person can do, cannot be used as evidence of salvation. The Bible says that the only evidence of being a child of God is the indwelling Holy Spirit.



So if you have God's Spirit in you—convicting you about present sins or unreconciled past sins in your life, and He inspires in you a desire to obey God's commandments—that working of God's Holy Spirit in you is evidence of salvation.

Philippians 2:13, " For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure." 1st John 3:24, "And he that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us. " It is plain and simple, if you don't have the Holy Spirit living inside of you, you're not a born-again child of God. Romans 8:9,

"But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his."

Again, to be clear, if you have to look at your life to prove that you're saved, it just proves that you're not. The Epistle of 1st John is NOT talking about examining your life to determine if you are really saved or not. The Apostle John (the same beloved disciple of Jesus who penned the Gospel of John, showing us how to have eternal life), also penned the Epistle of 1st John to show believers HOW TO KNOW we are saved (1st John 5:13). Unfortunately, John's Epistle is often misunderstood, because it is in our sinful human nature is to add works to God's grace.

In my humble opinion, 1st John 3:24 is the key verse to remember when interpreting John's Epistle.

1st John 3:24, "And he that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us. " The test given is whether or not you have God's Holy Spirit indwelling you, and not what type of lifestyle you are living. I digress.

What most believers do is wait until the storms come in life, and then panic and seek answers quickly; but since they haven't been walking with God in the fair weather, the answers are much more harder to find when you're mind is broken. Proverbs 25:19, "Confidence in an unfaithful man in time of trouble is like a broken tooth, and a foot out of joint." Seeking the Lord only when bad times come just doesn't feel right.

It is just as true spiritually as it is physically, that an ounce of prevention is worth one pound of cure. Please don't wait until the sky is falling to seek the Lord. Seek Him today, right now, while God may be found. ...

> Isaiah 55:6-7, "Seek ye the LORD while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near: Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the LORD, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon."

Dear reader, God keeps you breathing (Daniel 5:23; Acts 17:25). That is how close God is to you. One of the very first life-changing sermons that I heard Pastor Jack Hyles preach, when I attended Hyles-Anderson College, is titled: '[3]God Is Not Far From Every One Of Us.' I hope that you will listen to this precious sermon. I am confident that it will change your life as it did mine, and still does today everything I think about this wonderful Bible truth.

Jesus created all things (John 1:3). He gives to all living creatures breath and life. If you feel like God is distant from you friend, it is only because you don't see Him. Where do we find God? Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me.

> Romans 10:8-9, "But what saith it? The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which we preach; That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved."

The preceding Scripture passage is simply teaching how easy it is to be saved. Unfortunately, this is also another commonly misunderstood passage. The Bible is NOT requiring you to audibly confess Jesus as Christ with your mouth to be saved. We know this because the entire Gospel of John was authored by God to show us how to be saved (John 20:31). Yet there is nothing mentioned in the Gospel of John about confessing, praying, surrendering, repenting or inviting Christ into your life to be saved. No, Jesus simply said in John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life."

Romans 10:8-9 is simply saying that you already have everything you need to be saved, if you will simply BELIEVE in your heart on the Lord Jesus Christ. Please also know that all of the Devil's modern Bible versions pervert verse 9 to accommodate the Calvinist crowd. Instead of "confess the Lord Jesus Christ," the new Bible perversions wickedly change it to "confess 'Jesus is Lord."' The latter is a counterfeit plan of salvation. Nowhere in the Gospel of John are we taught to confess "Jesus is Lord" with our mouth to be saved. Ungodly men added those words to God's Word. Proverbs 30:5-6, "

Every word of God is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him.

Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar.

Dear reader, you and I cannot make it on our own without the blessed Lord. If you are saved, you got saved by trusting Jesus as your personal Savior. You learned the facts that Jesus died on a cross to pay your debt of sin. He was buried, and three days later He miraculously resurrected from the dead. This is 'The Gospel' (i.e., the Good News) by which all who BELIEVE IT are immediately, irrevocably and forever saved (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). There is no other way to be saved than to simply BELIEVE THE GOOD NEWS!!!

But now that you are saved, you need to be recycled. God saved you from being disposed of in Hell. That is justification. But now as a child of God you need to grow in grace, being conformed by God into the very image of Christ (Romans 8:29), which is sanctification. One thing has nothing to do with the other. Lordship Salvation is the wrongful combining of these two great doctrines, which is a false gospel which cannot produce the new birth.

We have a wonderful God, who loves you more than you can know. God is love. He desires to commune with you dear saint of God. He desires to hear your prayers and enjoy sweet fellowship with you. God never gets tired. Nothing ever occurs to God. It is all a matter of faith. The Bible says we walk by faith, not by sight (2nd Corinthians 5:7).

Oh sinner, God loves you!!! Isaiah 1:18, "

Come now, and let us reason together, saith the LORD: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool.

" It doesn't matter how deep you've gone into sin, God wants to forgive and cleanse you of all unrighteousness (1st John 1:9). The choice is yours. God is not far from you, for His very presence gives you life and breath.

I don't know about you, but I need God more than ever as a I grow older. This world is falling apart, but the man whose Bible is falling apart is not. God is not far from every one of us. Simply talk to him, like you would a close friend. God is no different than anyone else whom you talk to. The Lord is not impressed when you get down on your knees, use big theological words and pray for extended periods of time, treating Him like some distant deity.

Remember, you are created in the image of God. When the Lord finished His marvellous work of creation, He rested on the seventh day, looking over His works. I do the same thing all the time, looking over my blogs and articles, seeing if I did a good job for my dear Savior. I usually find a bunch of typos...lol. I am created in God's image, but God makes no mistakes. I love praise, just like God does. I get frustrated, just like God does. My heart feels grieved when fellow believers walk in the flesh; such as carnally minded pastors like Jeff Redlin at Pensacola Christian College (and PCC leaders in general) who don't genuinely care about individual people. Sadly, PCC is a religious cult where the system always comes first, and individual people are expendable. SHAME on PCC.

The Word of God is our spiritual food as God's children. 1st Peter 1:23 says that we have been born-again by the seed of God's incorruptible Word. Someone has rightly said that when all else fails, read the instructions. Dear reader, please don't wait until your life becomes a heaping pile of rubbish to seek God. Multitudes of humanity run from God, shunning the inspired Holy Bible, until they simply cannot run any further and then come back to their senses. The blessed Savior will always take any sinner back who repents. Jesus never turned anyone away empty-handed, except those who came to Him full of themselves! John 5:40, "

And ye will not come to me, that ye might have life.

" Carefully notice that Jesus didn't say

"cannot," but "will not." God is faithful (1st Corinthians 1:9; 1st John 1:9).

I learned many years ago the necessity of walking with God during the fair-weather, so that when the storms of life come, I will feel boldness with God, knowing that I have been walking close to Him all the time. Our great compassionate God will be there for you during the storms of life, but wouldn't it be sweeter knowing that you were there for God during the good times? I listen to Bible preaching regularly, laying up truths for a rainy day (and so that I can share those life-saving truths with others).

You'd be surprised just how many professed saints are at their wits end, some even contemplating suicide. I know, because I receive their heartfelt emails all the time. They trust me because I unconditionally love people, never ask for ministry donations, am very understanding and I don't condemn sinners. You'd have to go to Pensacola Christian College to be condemned and thrown under the bus, as they wickedly did to me in 2021 and still today.

I knew right away at PCC that their leaders don't walk with God, evidenced by their woeful lack of love, understand and compassion for individual people who don't blindly go along with the cult system. I dared to challenge their heresy on repentance, which got me kicked out of Campus Church, banned in writing from returning. If you are divorced, as I have been for 17 years now, and you hope to remarry someday, you will be despised at PCC. What ungodly hypocrites! PCC is the epitome of everything that is ruining churches today! SHAME!!!

Sadly, PCC leadership think they are above the Word of God. The Bible teaches love and forgiveness (Ephesians 4:32), but at PCC they hold never-ending grudges. They have wickedly set me at nought (Romans 14:10). THE LOVE OF MONEY is what matters most at PCC (1st Timothy 6:10-11). Sadly, they have huge egos at PCC, patronizing people like me whom they despise because I dare to question their false teaching. PCC wickedly bids Godspeed to false prophet Ken Ham, who says that faith is not enough to be saved. [4]According to Ken Ham and Answers-In-Genesis, you must also turn away from your past sinful ways, or else you cannot go to Heaven. That is another gospel, not what the Scriptures plainly teach. God's curse is upon PCC for corrupting the simplicity that is in Christ. BEWARE of the dangerous PCC cult!

They are not growing in the PCC camp, because they do not abide in the Word of God. Instead, they live by their own cult rules, blaspheming the Word of God by wickedly bidding Godspeed to the Calvinist Bob Jones University camp (who are the biggest supporters of Pastor John MacArthur's damnable Lordship Salvation mess). PCC only cares about making money, which is why they refuse to take a stand for Christ. PCC doesn't want to be put outside the gate with Jesus, so they sinfully dip their sails in sinful compromise. Jesus has always been outside the gate, which is where PCC has driven me, banning me from attending Campus Church. Pastor Jeff Redlin is a devil, a fake preacher, a con man who only cares about his disgusting 6-digit salary. Campus Church at PCC is WORSE than the lukewarm apostate church of Laodicea in Revelation 3:15-17. Even the church at Laodicea didn't wickedly bid Godspeed to damnable false prophets, as does the bizarre cult at PCC.

In Acts 4:13, the Bible says that the magistrates perceived that Peter and John had been walking with Jesus, because of their BOLDNESS TO SPEAK. Acts 4:13, "

Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus.

" I am BOLD to preach because I have been walking with Jesus.

Psalms 119:104, "T hrough thy precepts I get understanding: therefore I hate every false way." I hate every false way because I have been abiding in the inspired Word of God. I hate the phoniness and woeful lack of love and compassion toward hurting and different people at PCC. I hate their false teaching on repentance (falsely claiming that your life must change to prove that you're really saved). I hate their ungodly support of false prophets like Ken Ham and the Calvinist Bob Jones University crowd. I hate that they charge money at PCC for people to learn how to more effectively share the Gospel. What is wrong with PCC leadership? They finished the fiscal year of 2020 with $1,200,000 left in the bank for Campus Church, and then they charge members $10 to learn how to share the Gospel? SHAME! SHAME!! SHAME!!!

Psalms 119:104, "T hrough thy precepts I get understanding: therefore I hate every false way."

The cowardly PCC camp won't stand against anything, because it's not good for business. They don't care about heresies, falsehoods, false prophets and wickedness. All they care about in the PCC camp is the PCC camp and their fat cat salaries. Dozens of PCC employees take home well over $100,000 annually, which is a disgrace to the cause of Jesus Christ. Since when did Christianity become a lucrative business? The Bible warned us in James chapter five that RICH PEOPLE would be cocky, respecters of persons, arrogant, resistant against THE TRUTH, and abusive toward people like me (those who have nothing to offer them, that is, the poor). I pray for God to condemn PCC for their cruelty, indifference and ongoing malicious abuse toward faithful preachers like me who TELL THE TRUTH.

One thing that I have learned in my Christian life is that there is a direct link between WALKING WITH GOD, and one's attitude toward heresy, falsehoods, false prophets and sin. Those phony pastors (like PCC's leaders at Campus Church) don't truly walk with God; they walk with men, that is, their incompetent peers in the ministry. Those ungodly pastors don't care about RIGHT DOCTRINE, they care about their public image, their personal net wealth and protecting the cult at all cost. God knows my heart, that I don't hate anyone at PCC.

I detest their carnal attitudes. I detest their love of money. What they give away in charity to churches amounts to fractions of a penny, compared to the tens of millions of dollars that they horde and take home for themselves. Please BEWARE of these rotten phonies in Christendom today. I say that all kindly, with a sad heart. I offered to make peace with the PCC camp. I apologized three times for offending them in 2022. But they are so hateful and bigoted at PCC, that they didn't even think I was worth a reply. PCC ignored me. Well, they cannot ignore God, and God is on my side because my preaching agrees with the Word of God (Romans 3:4).

Thank you for reading. You can tell from my blogs that I am upset at the PCC camp. I am only upset with them because they are arrogant, refusing to talk or discuss anything. They just kick people out, and throw anyone under the bus who dares to question their authoritarian cult. Tyranny is seldom seen except by those who are oppressed by it. PCC has a large following of blind lemmings, who go along to get their college degree. But years later, when they are safe from the authoritarian abusive arm of the cult, THE TRUTH eventually comes out on social media. We can expect to see a lot more negative feedback regarding PCC in the future. They simply refuse to repent of their wicked ways at PCC and Campus Church. Only God can humble their sinful pride, and the Lord will, He always does in time.

One of God's jobs is to find proud sinners and bring them low. Job 24:24, "They are exalted for a little while, but are gone and brought low; they are taken out of the way as all other, and cut off as the tops of the ears of corn." God will ultimately bring Pensacola Christian College low. Job 40:12, "Look on every one that is proud, and bring him low; and tread down the wicked in their place." PCC is wickedly bidding Godspeed (2nd John 1:11) to the Satanic cult at Bob Jones University, and the ungodly Harvest Baptist Church cult on Guam. These rotten institutions are all preaching the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation. They all use, sell and promote the Devil's corruptible seed, that is, the Devil's Bibles. They all preach a perverted meaning of Bible repentance to get to Heaven, requiring WORKS from lost sinners to be saved (which is IMPOSSIBLE to do). SHAME!!!

It is because I genuinely walk with God that I care enough to make a fuss, to preach THE TRUTH, which has cost me multiple churches families and shallow friends. I would do it all again for Jesus, my faithful Savior, Lord, Friend and God. WALK WITH GOD dear reader. That is the most important advice I could give to any believer. WALK WITH OUR GREAT GOD!!!

4.1.5 What To Do When You Feel Like Everything Is Wrong (2023-01-19 18:10)

Psalms 61:1-3, " Hear my cry, O God; attend unto my prayer.

From the end of the earth will I cry unto thee, when my heart is overwhelmed: lead me to the rock that is higher than I.

For thou hast been a shelter for me, and a strong tower from the enemy. **"

Please read our text Bible verses again. What a beautiful Scripture passage! The psalmist David said that when his heart is OVERWHELMED, he prayed to God to "lead me to the rock that is higher than I." Boy, that statement will preach! Psalms 18:2, " The LORD is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer; my God, my strength, in whom I will trust; my buckler, and the horn of my salvation, and my high tower. "

The courageous shepherd boy who became an anointed humble king, sought refuge in his great God when he felt overwhelmed with life. Psalms 61:3, "

For thou hast been a shelter for me, and a strong tower from the enemy.

" When I feel like the walls of life are closing in around me, and I feel like everything is wrong when nothing really is, at those awkward emotional times, I run to the dear Lord Jesus for refuge.

Psalms 91:1, " He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty."

Here are some wonderful related Scripture passages...

> Psalms 89:26, "He shall cry unto me, Thou art my father, my God, and the rock of my salvation."

Psalms 92:15, “To shew that the LORD is upright: he is my rock, and there is no unrighteousness in him.”

Psalms 94:22, “But the LORD is my defence; and my God is the rock of my refuge.”

Psalms 16:9, “ Therefore my heart is glad, and my glory rejoiceth: my flesh also shall rest in hope.”

Psalms 22:14, “ I am poured out like water, and all my bones are out of joint: my heart is like wax; it is melted in the midst of my bowels.”

Psalms 55:4, “ My heart is sore pained within me: and the terrors of death are fallen upon me.”

Psalms 102:4, “ My heart is smitten, and withered like grass; so that I forget to eat my bread.”

Psalms 109:22, “ For I am poor and needy, and my heart is wounded within me.”

David often felt sorrow, anxiety and pain in his soul, at which times he sought refuge and relief in His great unchanging and unmovable God. That is the proper response to life’s difficult and emotionally dark times, to seek refuge under the wings of the almighty. Specifically, we need to abide in the inspired Word of God. When I have difficult days where nothing seems to be going right, and I feel overwhelmed with loneliness, grief, frustration and sadness, I draw nigh unto my blessed Redeemer.

To make matters worse, I have suffered from chronic constant neck pain since 2004. I underwent two major neck surgeries in 2009 nd 2010, the first of which didn’t help me much, and the second of which made me 100 % worse. I feel constant pain and tension in back of my neck. Both of my arms always feel inflated with air. The right side of my body feels half asleep all the time. I feel burning nerves in my upper body. The pain medications help tremendously on most days, but are useless on other days. I feel tired and wear out after a couple hours. On most days I just don’t feel like doing anything, overwhelmed with pain and bodily discomfort. All of these physical ailments make me easily irritable and I get frustrated easily.

All human beings are creatures of emotion. Musicians in particular are emotional people, which is why they gravitate toward music, as a way of expressing their emotions. Most musicians have some form of temper. They are passionate people, full of emotions. I love music. I am a passionate man. I am passionate about my beliefs, and my Bible preaching, and my zeal to expose all falsehoods (e.g., false prophets, false Christ's, false Bibles and false doctrines, et cetera).

Sadly, 99 % of professed Christians won't lift a finger to contend for the Christian faith as they Scripturally ought (Jude 1:3; Titus 1:13-14; Ephesians 5:11). The love of money has sinfully captured them (1st Timothy 6:10-11), so that they wickedly serve their bellies while the whole time living in utter denial how spiritually corrupt, blind, wretched, miserable and naked they really are (Revelation 3:15-17).

Dear reader, when you feel like everything is wrong, just humble yourself at the feet of Jesus. I love the true story of Jesus and the maniac who was possessed of a devil in Mark 5:1-5. The Bible says that Jesus cast out the demon, and then the townspeople feared when they saw him sitting clothed and in his right mind at Jesus' feet. Mark 5:15, "

And they come to Jesus, and see him that was possessed with the devil, and had the legion, sitting, and clothed, and in his right mind: and they were afraid.

" Jesus gives calm, peace and stability in a person's life. Ephesians 2:13-14a, " But now in Christ Jesus ye who sometimes were far off are made nigh by the blood of Christ. For he is our peace... "

When the world is in turmoil, panic and worry, the born-again child of God can and should have perfect peace. John 16:33, "These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world." I love that! Jesus is comforting us, that no matter how bad this temporary earthly life may get, as believers we have an expected hope of a better future. Luke 10:20, "

Notwithstanding in this rejoice not, that the spirits are subject unto you; but rather rejoice, because your names are written in heaven.

1st Corinthians 2:9, " But as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him."

When you have days or times that everything feels wrong, just relax. Open the Bible and read a passage or two, chewing in your mind (meditating) upon what you just read. It is so easy for any of us to drift away from God, and before you know our mind and heart are filled with the problems of this world. When Jesus commanded the Apostle Peter to come to Him walking upon the Sea of Galilea, Peter did well at first but then made the same mistake that all of us make—he took his eyes off of Jesus and instead focused upon the blowing winds, raging storm and rough waves, sinking into the depths of the sea. Hebrews 12:2, "

Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith*; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God. "

I don’t claim to be a good Christian. I am just a redeemed struggling sinner saved by God’s grace. I heard my hero of the Christian faith, Pastor Jack Hyles, say once that some of the worst Christians do the most for God. I am glad that I heard him say that, because I always feel like the worst Christian on earth. My goal in life is not to be a good Christian. At Pensacola Christian College (PCC) you will find some of the worst Christians anywhere, yet they blindly think they are good Christians over there at their cult. PCC is as the ungodly church at Laodicea, whom Jesus accused of being blind, naked, wretched and miserable, even though they falsely thought they were prospering. I can’t stand PCC, they disgust me, as I know they make God want to vomit (Revelation 3:15-17).The PCC camp are blinded by their inflow of money from worldly students and parents who only seek a secular education. PCC is a cesspool of iniquity. Individual people don’t matter at PCC, the cult system always comes first!

I have learned to just give all my burdens, frustrations, people mistreating me, rotten abusive pastors like Marty Herron and Jeff Redlin, and all the other dung of this life to Jesus, and let Him handle it all. That is exactly what the Bible teaches us to do in Philippians 4:6-7, “

Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God.

And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

” God will avenge me of Marty Herron, Harvest Baptist Church cult on Guam, Pensacola Christian College cult, and other evildoers who wickedly prioritize the love of money over contending for the Christian faith (Jude 1:3; 1st Timothy 6:10-11; Romans 12:19-21; Galatians 6:7).

4.1.6 Evangelist Sam Gipp's Counterfeit Plan Of Salvation (2023-01-24 10:34)

Galatians 1:6-9, "I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed."

Dear reader, let us begin by defining " the Gospel with the inspired Holy Scriptures. What is the Gospel? ...

> 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, “Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:”

So according to the Word of God, as we just read, the Gospel (meaning “Good News”) is comprised of three things:

1. Jesus DIED on the cross to pay our debt of sin.
2. Jesus was BURIED.
3. Jesus bodily RESURRECTED three days later from the dead.

We know that Jesus is also the only begotten Son of God, the Christ, John 20:31, “But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name.” We know from the Scriptures that a person must realize he or she is a guilty sinner to be saved:

> Romans 3:19-23, “
>
> Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God.
>
> Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin.
>
> But now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets;
>
> Even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference:
>
> For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God;
> **”

In these passages of Scripture we see God’s simple plan of salvation. Anyone who comes to God as a guilty sinner, receiving Christ’s sacrifice on the cross as payment for their sins, believing that Jesus is the only begotten Son of God who was buried after dying on the cross, and raised up three days later from the dead, is saved. It is that simple! Eternal life is a free gift from God, paid for by Jesus’ precious blood (Romans 5:15-18; 1st Peter 1:18-19).

Evangelist Sam Gipp’s Damnable False Plan Of Salvation

Now having showed you THE TRUTH, let me show you Evangelist Sam Gipp’s different plan of salvation, which does NOT match what the inspired Holy Bible teaches. On Sam Gipp’s YouTube channel, in a heretical YouTube video titled: “How To Be Saved,” Gipp states the following (which he admittedly copied in part from cartoon evangelist Jack Chick’s religious tract, “

”)...

> “First, you must admit you are a sinner. You have broken God’s laws. Then, you must be willing to turn from sin and reject it. Believe that Jesus Christ died for you, was buried and rose from the dead. Through prayer, invite Jesus into your life to become your personal Savior.
>
> Simply pray something like this, and mean it with all your heart:
> Dear God, I am a sinner and need forgiveness. I believe that Jesus Christ shed His precious blood, and died for my sin. I am willing to turn from sin. I now invite Christ to come into my heart and life as my personal Savior.” Dr. Sam Gipp

You can watch Sam Gipp’s heretical YouTube video for yourself, from which I transcribed the preceding quote...

Evangelist Sam Gipp’s Counterfeit Plan Of Salvation

That is NOT the Gospel taught in the Holy Bible. To the unlearned Christian believer, the preceding false plan of salvation may not seem like a big deal, but it is dear friend. Remember, the serpent (the Devil according to Revelation 20:2) is the most subtle of all creatures. Genesis 3:1, “Now the serpent was more subtil than any beast of the field which the LORD God had made. And he said unto the woman, Yea, hath God said, Ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden?” Satan is a beautiful liar! The Devil is a cunning liar, manipulator and deceiver.

When criminals counterfeit money, they intentionally try to make their corrupt money appear as close to real money as possible. Satan does the same thing with religion. So it shouldn't come as a surprise that all of the pseudo (false) Christian cults believe that Jesus is the Christ. It shouldn't come as a surprise that Roman Catholics believe Jesus died on a cross, was buried and resurrected three days later. Hey, that is THE GOSPEL! So are Roman Catholics saved? No, they are not, because they also require keeping Seven Sacraments to get to Heaven. The first sacrament in the prisonhouse of Catholicism is water baptism. All of the pseudo-Christian cults require water baptism to get into the Kingdom of Heaven.

We know from the Bible that water baptism is NOT required to get to Heaven. The thief on the cross didn't get baptized. The Bible plainly teaches in Galatians 1:6 that there is only one Gospel, not two or more. So we know that the thief on the cross got saved the same way that everyone does, which is by faith alone in the Good News of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen. No one in the Old Testament was every water baptized for salvation.

Turning Away From Sinful Ways Is WORKS!

The Gospel of John is God's Gospel tract, as we read earlier in John 20:31. In the book of John we find the word "believe" mentioned at least 85 times in various forms, but there is no requirement anywhere in the Gospel of John to be water baptized. And for that matter, neither is the word "repent" mentioned even once in the Gospel of John. This is because repentance is automatic. To "repent" in the Bible regarding salvation simply means "to think differently."

For example: Mark 1:15 says, "And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel." The Greek word for "repent" in this Bible verse is metanoeo, a verb form which means: "to think differently." So a literal interpretation of this Scripture passage is: "Think differently and believe that Jesus died on the cross for your sins, was buried and physically resurrected three days later from the dead." You don't repent AND believe, you repent TO believe.

Repentance facilitates believing, by which we are saved. Romans 1:16, "

For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek. " You don't get saved by repenting, you get saved by BELIEVING; but no one has ever been saved who didn't also repent. Repentance and faith are as two sides of one coin. They are inseparable from each other.

I love this helpful quote on repentance from Pastor Harry A. Ironside (1876-1951):

> "Which comes first, repentance or faith? In Scripture we read, 'Repent ye, and believe the gospel.' Yet we find true believers exhorted to 'repent, and do the first works.' So intimately are the two related that you cannot have one without the other. The man who believes God repents; the repentant soul puts his trust in the Lord when the Gospel is revealed to him. Theologians may wrangle over this, but the fact is, no man repents until the Holy Spirit produces repentance in his soul through the truth. No man believes the Gospel and rests in it for his own salvation until he has judged himself as a needy sinner before God. And this is repentance." [emphasis added] Pastor Harry Ironside, '[1]Except Ye Repent,' p. 16

Yes, that is it! Repentance is simply the acknowledgment that I am as guilty a sinner as God hath declared me to be in His holy Word. Pastor Ironside further offers these helpful words...

> “The Gospel is not a call to repentance, or to amendment of our ways, to make restitution for past sins, or to promise to do better in the future. These things are proper in their place, but they do not constitute the Gospel; for the Gospel is not good advice to be obeyed, it is good news to be believed. Do not make the mistake then of thinking that the Gospel is a call to duty or a call to reformation, a call to better your condition, to behave yourself in a more perfect way than you have been doing in the past …
> Nor is the Gospel a demand that you give up the world, that you give up your sins, that you break off bad habits, and try to cultivate good ones. You may do all these things, and yet never believe the Gospel and consequently never be saved at all.”
>
> SOURCE: Harry A. Ironside, from the sermon: [2]What Is The Gospel?

Amen and amen! When the Philippian jailer asked Paul and Silas in Acts 16:30b, “ Sirs, what must I do to be saved?, in Acts 16:31a was to: “Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house.” The free offer of salvation by faith alone in Jesus Christ was extended to the man’s entire family, if they wanted God’s gift. Dear reader, please notice that Paul and Silas DIDN’T pressure the unsaved man to forsake his sinful ways to be saved. They DIDN’T tell the Philippian jailer to be willing to stop living in sin, turn away from his sin, or be willing to reject his sinful bad habits to get to Heaven. Sam Gipp is a theological liar—a deadly false prophet who needs to be exposed and rebuked sharply in pulpits across America. ...

” their simple reply

> Titus 1:9-14, “Holding fast the faithful word as he hath been taught, that he may be able by sound doctrine both to exhort and to convince the gainsayers.
> For there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, specially they of the circumcision: Whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre’s sake.
> One of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The Cretians are alway liars, evil beasts, slow bellies. This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith; Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men, that turn from the truth.”

In typical cult fashion, Sam Gibb mixes works with grace to confuse people. One of my favorite sermons is by Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold...

Caught Between Grace And Works
(an excellent sermon by Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold)

Tragically, most pastors and clergy today are caught between grace and works, preaching another gospel of partial faith in Christ plus WORKS!!! Sam Gipp and Jack Chick (1924-2016) have blood on their hands. Sadly, Jack Chick printed and sold over 1,000,000,000 religious tracts, all of which lied to lost sinners, requiring them to be willing to stop living a sinful lifestyle to get to Heaven. THAT IS WORKS!!!

Sadly, Sam Gipp has also fallen for the same Satanic deception. Gipp is deceived of the Devil, preaching a false gospel for filthy lucre's sake. [3]I must also warn you about Pastor Keith Gomez in Elgin, Illinois. Pastor Gomez is close personal ministry friends with Sam Gipp. These men are all corrupt in their theology! No where does the inspired King James Bible teach us to "turn from your sinful ways" or to "reject your sins" to be saved. Ungodly religious men embellished God's simple plan of salvation, adding these unbiblical requirements to get to Heaven.

It is man's sinful nature to have a tendency to want to help God save us. If you fully understand that salvation is of the Lord (Jonah 2:9), then it will become obvious that you don't need to give up your sinful ways to receive God's gift. Eternal life is a free gift! You don't have to qualify for a gift, you simply take it. Dear reader, Jesus died for your sins! Christ died for the ungodly (Romans 5:6-9). That means you and me, because we are all ungodly sinners!

You don't have to be willing to turn away from your sins to be saved, because that would be WORKS! Jonah 3:10, "And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not." God spared judgment upon the Ninevites (who were Assyrians) because they turned away from their evil ways, but they didn't get saved. No one has ever been saved by WORKS!!! Romans 4:4, "Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt. " As we just read, if salvation had ever been by works, then it would have been by debt instead of by grace. God would have OWED them salvation because they did WORKS to earn it. Salvation has always been only by God's grace!

One hundred years later the decedents of the Ninevites returned to their evil ways, and God sent the prophet Nahum to proclaim imminent destruction upon them. They destruction came in 612 BC when the kingdom of Babylon conquered the Assyrians. No one has ever been saved by their own self-righteous works. Turning away from sinful ways is WORKS!!!

Furthermore, we read in Jonah 3:10 that God Himself " repented.

" If repentance means to be willing to turn away from one's sinful ways, then we have a big problem here, because God cannot do evil. James 1:13-14, "Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempteth he any man: But every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed." God cannot sin. God is holy, just, sinless and righteous in every way. I am so thankful that the God of the universe is a good, reasonable, fair and righteous being! Could you imagine if Satan were the highest power in the universe? I thank God for God!!!

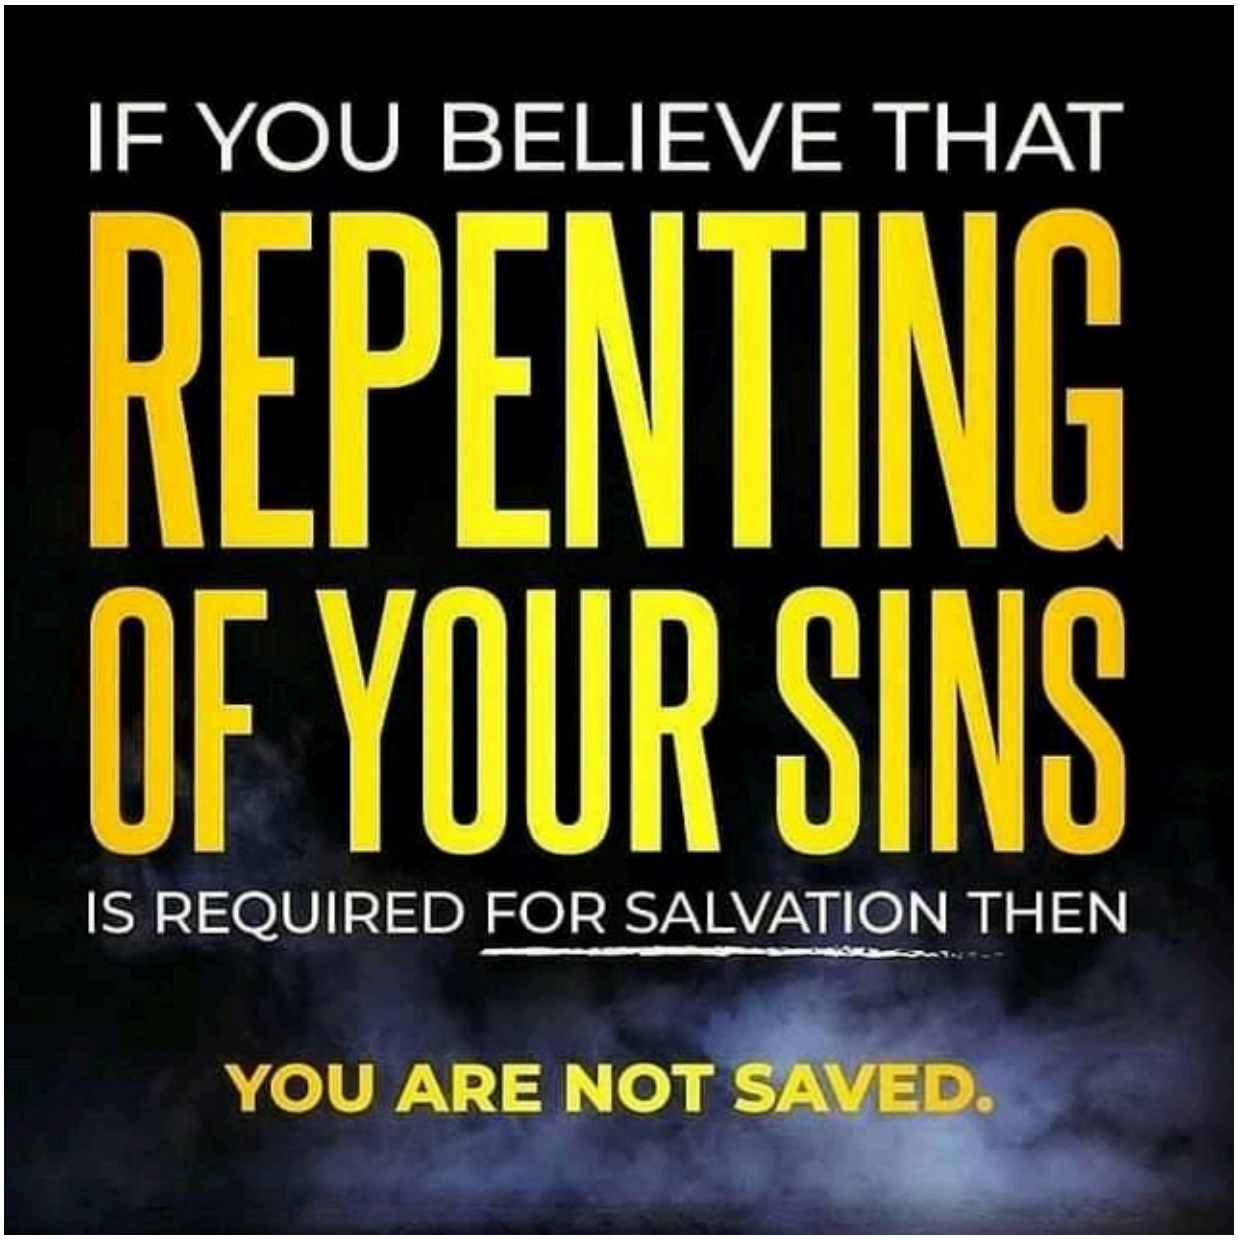
Clearly, God did not turn away from His sins in Jonah 3:10. God simply changed His mind, deciding not to destroy the people of the city of Nineveh at that time. Repentance is simply a change of mind toward God (Acts 20:21), where a lost sinner acknowledges THE TRUTH (2nd Timothy 2:25). The truth dear friend is that you are a guilty sinner. The wages of sin is death (Romans 6:23). That includes the second death in Hell (Revelation 21:8, 20:11-15). The GOOD NEWS is that God the Father gave up His only begotten Son, Jesus, as a sacrifice on the cross to die for your sins and mine. Jesus shed His blood for our sins, and ultimately sprinkled that literal blood upon the heavenly Mercy Seat (Hebrews 9:12, 22-24; 12:24). We are saved by faith in the blood of Jesus (1st Peter 1:18-19). Romans 5:9, " Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him."

My only hope for Heaven is Jesus Christ and His righteousness. Philippians 3:9, "And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:" There is nothing I have ever done or ever will do that can get me to Heaven. My only hope is in Jesus Christ, because of what He did through Calvary's cross to pay for my sins, and that He was buried and bodily raised up from the dead the third day. It is done! Jesus paid it all!!!

Kindly said, I don't have to turn away from my sinful ways, nor even be willing to turn away from my sinful ways, to be saved. Eternal life is the free gift of God. Ephesians 2:8-9, "For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast.

" Anyone who thinks that they must turn away from their sins to be saved, is not saved at all. The only proper mindset that can save is faith alone in Christ alone. WORKS has no place in God's simple plan of salvation.

Tragically, Sam Gipp is not saved. To be saved Gipp must repent of his wrong repentance. He must forsake trusting in his self-righteous efforts to turn away from his sins, and instead trust only in God's righteousness which is imparted by faith alone. What saith the Scripture? John 6:40, "And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day." The will of God the Father for salvation is to BELIEVE ON JESUS, plain and simple. What Sam Gipp is preaching is another gospel. Jack Chick preached another gospel.



The heretical idea that you must forsake a sinful lifestyle to be saved came from the Devil, not the Holy Bible. In God's true plan of salvation, Christ came into the world to pay your debt of sin. In God's true plan of salvation, He wants to give you forgiveness of sins and eternal life as a free gift. In God's true plan of salvation, there can be no stipulations or obligations for it to truly remain a free gift. Woe unto wicked preachers who add to the Gospel, perverting God's simple plan of salvation, which is through faith alone without any works.

Also, no where in the inspired Word of God are we taught to invite Christ into our life to be saved, as Gipp requires. Sam Gipp is a false prophet! Shame on anyone who wickedly bids Godspeed to Sam Gipp and his counterfeit plan of salvation. RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!!

If you feel confused dear reader, I humbly challenge you to sit back and just [4]quietly listen to the entire Gospel of John. If you'll do that, I I love doing often, you will see clearly God's simple plan of salvation. Thank you for reading.

4.1.7 You Either Love Everybody, Or You Love Nobody (2023-01-28 13:27)

Matthew 26:47-50, " And while he yet spake, lo, Judas, one of the twelve, came, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and elders of the people. Now he that betrayed him gave them a sign, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he: hold him fast. And forthwith he came to Jesus, and said, Hail, master; and kissed him. And Jesus said unto him, Friend, wherefore art thou come? Then came they, and laid hands on Jesus, and took him. "

Dear reader, everyone alive or dead on planet earth is your neighbour. In our text passage of Scripture, we read that Jesus called the man who betrayed Him to death, the Apostle Judas: "Friend." That is amazing! Would you call someone your riend,

who just conspired with a group of evil liars to falsely accurse you? Wow! In this act of benevolence toward his fellow man, we learn from Christ Himself how we ought to treat those who hurt us.

Carefully notice in the following Bible passage, that Jesus doesn't call these commandments the "greatest"; but rather, He says that there are no commandments any greater than these two great commandments. All of God's commandments are important! ...

> Mark 12:28-33, "And one of the scribes came, and having heard them reasoning together, and perceiving that he had answered them well, asked him, Which is the first commandment of all? And Jesus answered him, The first of all the commandments is, Hear, O Israel; The Lord our God is one Lord: And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength: this is the first commandment. And the second is like, namely this, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. There is none other commandment greater than these. And the scribe said unto him, Well, Master, thou hast said the truth: for there is one God; and there is none other but he: And to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love his neighbour as himself, is more than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices."

Interestingly, if we examine the Ten Commandments (Exodus 20:1-17), we see that the first five deal with man's relationship with God. This fulfills obedience to the first of the great commandments to love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, soul and mind. The last five of the Ten Commandments deal with man's relationship with man.

This fulfills obedience to the second of the great commandments to love thy neighbour as thyself.

The Apostle James reiterates the second of these great commandments, to love thy neighbour as thyself:

> James 2:8-10, "If ye fulfil the royal law according to the scripture, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself, ye do well: But if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convinced of the law as transgressors. For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all."

The Apostle Paul made an even stronger statement in Galatians 5:14, "

For all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this; Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. " Wow! Paul teaches that all of God's law is fulfilled by love. There are approximately 720 individual Old Testament commandments in the law, which are simplified in the Ten Commandments. Evangelist Lester Roloff says that the two greatest commandments to love God and love our neighbour are really just one commandment, which is: TO LOVE.

The Apostle James emphasizes the importance of not being a respecter of persons, which is a grave sin. The homeless person on the street is also your neighbour. The man struggling to survive on the street is as much your neighbor, as is your neighbors living in nice homes. The person whom the pastor doesn't like is as much his neighbor, as likeable church members. The inspired Scriptures plainly teach here that being a respecter of persons is among the worst of sins. If loving one's neighbor as thy self is among the greatest of all God's commandments, than it is one of the worst sins to break.

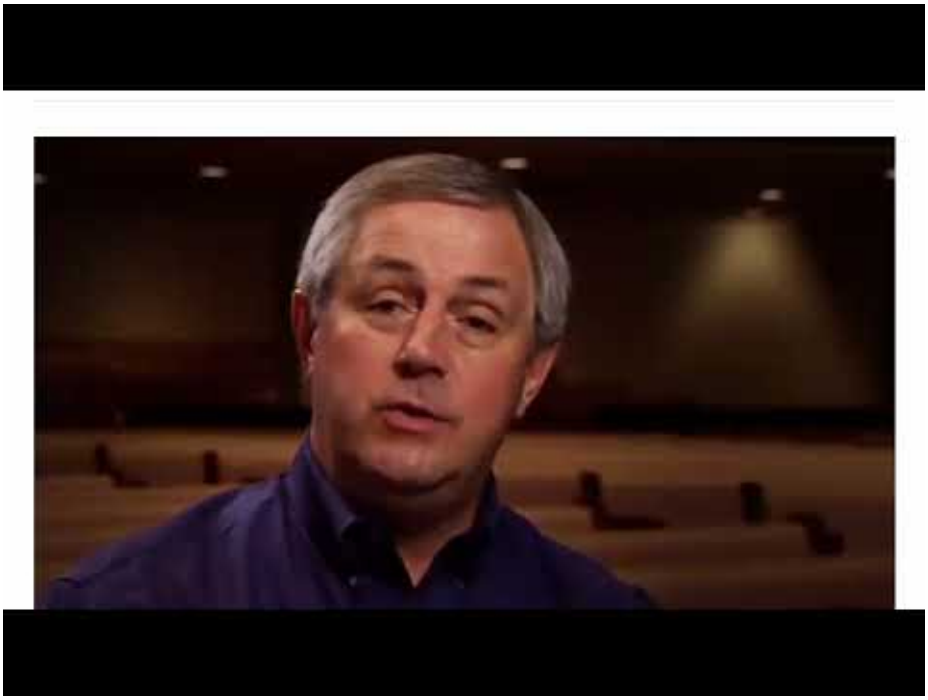
James points out in James 2:10, that breaking even the seemingly least of God's commandments makes one guilty of breaking all of them. To the average religious person being a respecter of persons is no big deal, but IT IS A BIG DEAL TO GOD! How we treat other people matters!!!

The shameful senior pastor since 2018 of Campus Church, Jeff Redlin, at Pensacola Christian College, is a wicked respecter of persons. I had attended Campus Church for several months in 2021. Sadly, Pastor Redlin was abusive toward me, speaking harshly when I kindly mentioned that I hoped to find a wife at Campus Church. He scolded me for coming to church to find a wife, but I had never said that, He did. I simply said that I hoped to find a wife at Campus Church. It was one small statement among hundreds of statements in my lengthy letter to him (which took me 5 hours to compose in July of 2021).

SHAME on Jeff Redlin for being a respecter of persons. If I were the mayor of Pensacola he would have treated me like a king, but he mistreated me, making me feel like garbage. Unfortunately, Redlin was abusive, rude and unkind in his words. He totally ignored my words when I confided in him that I have been suffering from stenosis and radiculopathy in my spinal cord since 1992. He just didn't care. Pastor Redlin totally ignored me when I informed him that I was alone in Pensacola, with no friends or family here. In hindsight, I had cast my pearls before the swine at PCC. I was making my humble appeal to be loved and welcomed at Campus Church to a cold-hearted religious thug. To no surprise, I had also contacted PCC leadership, but they sided 100

% with their unloving thug pastor. All I can do is preach against their hatred and phoniness at PCC, but God alone will be their Judge.

Pastor Redlin just doesn't care about people, which is inexcusable for a pastor of any size church. Dear reader, you either love everyone or else you love no one. That is a divine law. You cannot pick and choose who matters and who does not. You cannot choose to love your agreeable neighbor who lives in a nice comfortable house, and then not love the scruffy run-down belligerent vagrant who lives homeless on the streets of your town. If you truly know and walk with God, then everyone is your neighbour.



All Pastor Jeff Redlin cared about was belittling me because I hoped to meet a woman to marry. Jeff Redlin is as wicked as Hell! Sadly, Redlin, like all of PCC leadership, have huge wicked misplaced egos and are ungodly respecters of persons. They are guilty of petty prejudices and bigotry at PCC. I speak that to their utter shame at PCC and Campus Church. The cult system always comes first in the PCC camp, individual people do not matter.

The horrible truth is that the leaders at PCC only care about making more money, which they can only get from luring more students (victims) into their cult. Any closed off religious group that welcomes some, but shuns others, is a deadly cult! As of August 2, 2022 I have been banned in writing by PCC leadership (primarily Jeff Redlin) from ever attending Campus Church again. They do NOT love people at PCC!!! All they love is their paychecks, bragging amongst themselves like Hollywood does.

They fall all over themselves at PCC with self praise and self glorification, living in their own little cult society, just like Hollyweird. Please steer clear of the cult at Pensacola Christian College.

The Bible commands Christian men in Titus 1:9-14 to "rebuke them sharply" (verse 13b) who corrupt others with a counterfeit plan of salvation. PCC has invited, honored and bid Godspeed to infidel Ken Ham, who teaches that faith is not enough to get to Heaven...

The FALSE GOSPEL of ANSWERS IN GENESIS and KEN HAM

You either care about everyone, or else you don't care about anyone. You cannot selectively decide who to care about; for if you do, you are simply proving that you are a phony who only does good works to be seen of men to please yourself, instead of to please God. If you genuinely love God, then you must love everyone unconditionally with the dear Savior's unfeigned love. I CARE about everyone, because God cares about everyone.

I knew that Pastor Jeff Redlin at Pensacola Christian College was a big phony the first 5 minutes that I met him. I told him that I was homeless, sleeping in Walmart's parking lot, and Redlin just walked away. I know that he heard me, because I saw his countenance drop, with a startled look on his face like he didn't know what to say or do. The face of a coward is the back of someone's head as they walk away. What a coward!!! Pastor Redlin is a disgrace as part of the clergy. I pray and hope that PCC will fire Redlin, the sooner the better. What goes around comes around! That is the reciprocating law of life. You cannot hurt and shun innocent people and expect to get away with it. I did nothing wrong at PCC, yet Pastor Redlin and PCC leadership has banned me from attending their Campus Church. That just proves what I am saying is true, that the cult system always comes first, and individual people don't matter at PCC. SHAME on the PCC camp.

Dear reader, either you care and love about EVERYBODY, or else you really don't care about ANYBODY. You may have the people fooled (like PCC leadership does), but you cannot fool God who peers into all human hearts. Hebrews 4:13, "Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do." We must all give account before God in eternity as individuals.

Jesus set the divine example for everyone, by expressing loving friendship toward Judas, the man whom had just horribly betrayed Him to die. Jesus knew in John 6:70 that Judas had a devil in Him. Yet, our precious Savior still expressed love toward Judas. God knows that I love everyone in the PCC camp. I do not hate any living creature, not even bears (I really don't like bears, especially brown Grizzly bears that are known to be 20 times more aggressive than black bears. They eat humans). I hate their falsehoods at PCC, their false doctrine, their evil support of false prophets and their damaging self-righteous bad attitudes; but I do not hate anybody in the universe.

God knows that I humbly tried three times in the summer of 2022 to make peace with Campus Church and PCC leaders, but they cruelly refused. And so we are at a standoff, and the Lord Himself will need to settle this matter. God knows that I am not the one wickedly bidding Godspeed to devils in the pulpit, PCC are guilty of doing that. Romans 3:4, "

God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged. " Amen and amen.

4.1.8 Look People In The Eye When You Shake Their Hand (2023-01-29 18:44)

1st Peter 2:17, "

Honour all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honour the king.

All my life I have been frustrated when I go to shake people's hands, and they look off to the wall, or down to the ground. It is rude. At first years ago, I thought they were showing me disrespect, and in a few situations I still think that was their bad intention. However, I sincerely think that 90 % of the time when people don’t look me in the eye, when they shake my hand, that it is simply because they are insecure about themselves. I have seen even big grown men look away when I shook their hand. It just shows that we all have immaturities in us.

I am writing this blog to teach you dear reader, whoever you may be, to always look a person directly in their eye when you shake their hand. If you cannot look someone in the eye, because you have a grudge against them. then you should be adult enough to refuse to shake their hand. I would rather tell someone directly that I refuse to shake their hand, then to be a lying phony and go through the motion of shaking their hand, while looking off at the wall. To do so is to play games with people’s minds, which I detest and won’t do to anyone. It is wrong to play such games with people’s minds. If you don’t like someone, then don’t shake their hand. If you do shake their hand, be an adult to look them in the eye, which shows respect.

When I attended the shameful Harvest Baptist Church on Guam for a year in 2013-2014, I was called into the church’s office. Pastors’ Marty Herron and Joe Hensen were present. Pastor Joe rebuked me for sharing sermons with other people that exposed the Devil’s modern corrupt Bible revisions. He insanely accused me of “ confusion and divisiveness

in the church. Joe Hensen admitted to me that the church has at least two dozen different Bible versions circulating in the pews on any given Sunday. How can they horribly accuse me of confusing their congregation, when they already sanction and promote the use of dozens of different Bible versions? That is insanity! They are already a house confused, by their own foolish incompetence.

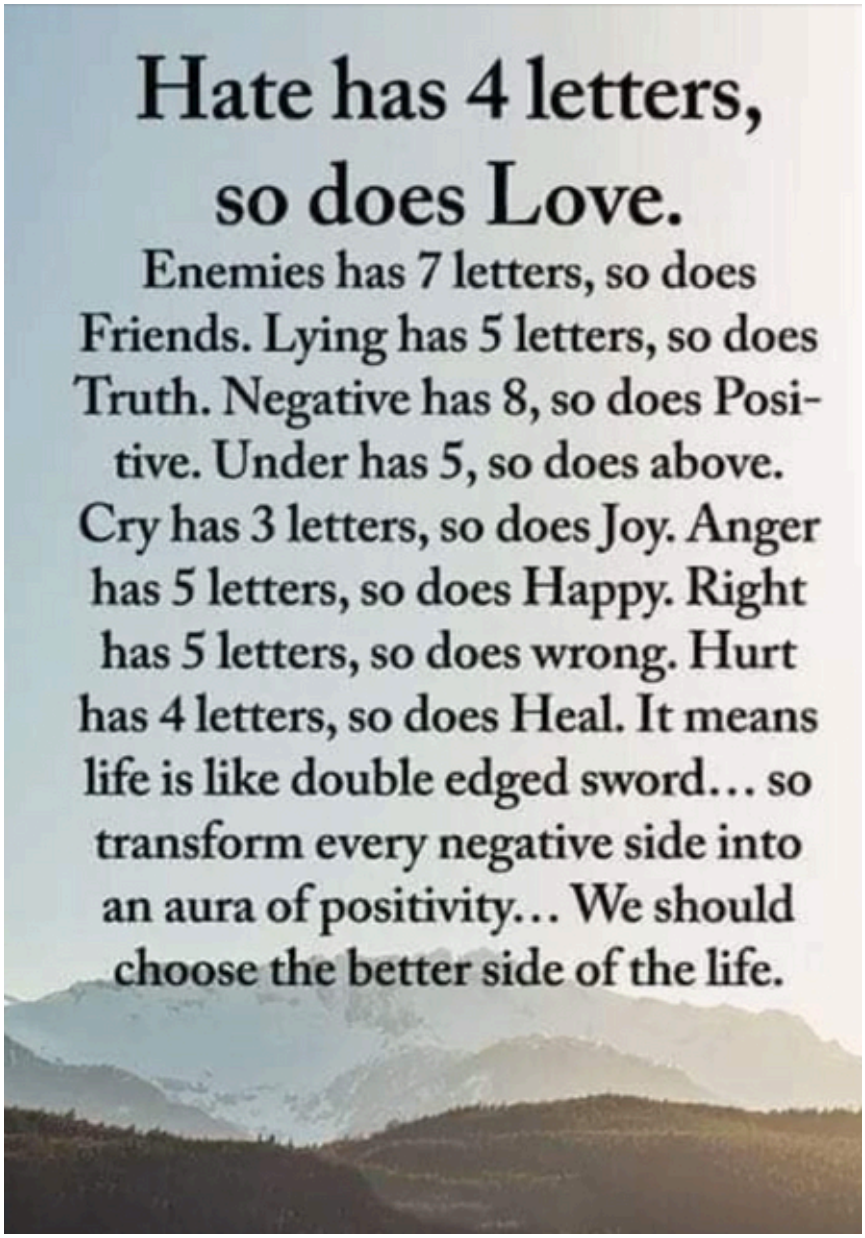
I rebuked Pastor Hensen back, for over an hour, explaining how Satan was using them to confuse people and send them to Hell by preaching Lordship Salvation, which is another gospel. When we were finished, Pastor Hensen put out his hand to shake mine. I boldly refused to shake his hand. I instead told him that he and Marty Herron were pulling on the same rope as they Devil, by preaching Lordship Salvation, teaching wrong repentance (aka, the "turn from your sinful ways" garbage to get to Heaven) and by using the Devil’s fake Bible revisions.

I kindly told Joe Hensen that I was going home to pray for the pastors of Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, that they would get right with God and stop lying to people. I never did shake his hand, but we were both crying tears when I walked out the church door once and for all in November of 2014. I told him that I couldn’t shake his hand, because I disrespected him for defending the Devil’s corrupt Bible, for preaching a counterfeit plan of salvation, and for teaching a false definition of what it means to "repent" to be saved. I just couldn’t bid him Godspeed by shaking his bloody hand. SHAME and WOE unto the theologically incompetent pastors of Harvest Baptist Church on Guam.

And may I say, SHAME on Pensacola Christian College (PCC) for bidding Godspeed to the rotten Bob Jones University (BJU) camp. Harvest Baptist Church on Guam is a cesspool of BJU graduates, mimicking the demonic Calvinist heresy being taught at BJU today.

I just wanted to share my humble opinion about shaking hands with others. You should always look someone in the eye when you shake their hand. With men, I firmly grip their hand to shake; but with women, I gently grip the palm of their hand with my thumb and fingers. So I do shake hands very differently between men and ladies. We need a revival in America of chivalry among men, which is all but non-existent today in our depraved culture.

Also, I always hold a door for women. As a courtesy, I hold doors even for men, which is just being a good neighbour. We need to do a lot better how we treat people as believers. Whenever I go to Home Depot, Walmart or any store, I always grab any empty carts form the parking lot and bring it into the store with me. I always grab one cart, and two if nearby. I'm going that way anyway to the store, so why not be helpful? Sadly, most people selfishly only think about themselves, leaving a mess everywhere they go.



When I lived on Guam, it didn't matter what local park I visited, there was garbage littered all over the ground. People are people are people in this world, no matter where you go. In some nicer suburban areas, you'll find cleaner streets and parks, because people have more money and take better care of what is theirs. All of America's big cities are garbage dumps! I hate big cities. Dr. Jack Hyles is correct, who said that urbanization has destroyed the world. That is, people herding into big cities has ruined society. You won't see homeless people sleeping on the street in smaller well-kept towns and cities, you need to go visit the big cities like Los Angeles, Chicago and New York to find homeless people surviving on the streets for miles and miles of Skid Row. It is shameful that in one of the wealthiest countries in the world, the United States does so little to care for its down and out, the homeless and poor.

If I ever shake your hand, you may look off elsewhere, but I will look you right in the eye. I humbly think that is how everybody ought to shake hands. If you are shy, I encourage you to work at looking at people when you shake their hand. If you disrespect the person, then you should have enough backbone and character not to shake their hand at all, instead of being a big phony and a horrible coward. Shaking someone's hand is a big deal.

I have shaken hands with local pastors here in Pensacola, Florida, who shamefully look off in the distance or at the floor, while I am looking them in the eye. That is very bad for a church pastor to do. They are either immature little boys, or horrible cowards afraid to speak their true feelings. That is not the proper way of Christians who walk with God. I guarantee you that the Lord Jesus Christ would never shake someone's hand, while starring off in the distance. It is important that we show respect for people at all times, as a human being who has been created in God's own image. Every person is someone for whom Jesus Christ was willing to do, and did die, to pay our debt of sin. The way that we treat people matters.

And please never forget dear reader, people just want to be loved.

4.1.9 God's Curse Is Upon Anyone Who Removes Words From The Inspired Holy Bible (2023-01-30 22:23)

Revelation 22:18-19,

“For I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book, If any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book:

And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book*.

It is said by many heretics, that the modern Bible revisions are easier to read in a more “modern” English. Is that really so? Or is it something very different from the trustworthy inspired authorized King James Bible? Rather than getting into a long and complicated argument about it, allow me to just show you a simple, side-by-side comparison of 300 Bible verses from the King James Bible, with their counterpart from the corrupt modern versions of the Bible.

What the following comparisons will show you, is that the ungodly people who created the modern corrupt Bible revisions are in direct violation of our text passage from Revelation 22:18-19.

So with that, ladies and gentlemen, let’s compare the King James Bible with these modern counterfeit versions, side-by-side, and you be the judge...

The truth speaks for itself, doesn’t it. It is a very wicked thing to add or subtract from God’s inspired Word. ...

> Deuteronomy 4:2, “Ye shall not add unto the word which I command you, neither shall ye diminish ought from it, that ye may keep the commandments of the LORD your God which I command you.”
> Proverbs 30:5-6, “Every word of God is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him. Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar.”

All of these accursed pastors today who are going around telling everyone to “turn away from your sinful ways” to get to Heaven are LIARS! They are ungodly false prophets who add man’s words to God’s Words, perverting the Scriptures. I am talking about ungodly false teachers on salvation; such as, Sam Gipp, Jeff Redlin, Timothy Zacharias, Sam Adams, Joel Osteen, Rick Warren, Beth Moore, John Hagee, Billy Graham, Franklin Graham, Ken Ham and his Answers-In-Genesis cult, Bob Jones University, Steve Pettit, John MacArthur, Ray Comfort, Kirk Cameron, William Lane Craig, Jack Chick, Keith Gomez, Marty Herron, Dan Corner, Joyce Meyer, Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, Joe Hensen, Jared Baldwin, Gary Walton, Todd Friel, Jimmy Swaggart, Charles Stanley, Adrian Rogers, Pacific Garden Mission and UNSHACKLED radio, et cetera. These wicked imposters ALL pervert the Gospel, complicating the simplicity that is in Christ, adding or subtracting from the Gospel.

Proverbs 20:1, “ Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging: and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise.”

The following three photos were taken by my father in the 1970’s. My Dad was a Skid Row preacher in downtown Chicago, who dedicated his ministry to helping alcoholics and drug addicts on the streets, the forgotten of our society. ...

Sadly, it was reported in the news today on February 1st, 2023 that a man who got drunk, murdered his fiancée and her baby in the womb, when his car crashed. The man has been officially charged with two counts of murder. Here is the actual wreckage. The automobile hit a street pole and was cut into three parts...

[5]Drunk Driver In New York Charged With Two-Counts Of Murder

The Sad Story Of Denise Wagoner, "[7]Just Call Me Crash"

God knows that I don’t condemn anyone for consuming alcoholic beverages. I take a cup of Nyquil to help me sleep sometimes, which Pastor Jerry Falwell called “ Baptist wine.

” If you are using Nyquil for medicinal purposes, as I do, then I see nothing wrong in drinking it. The state of Florida took away my 10 mg of prescription Ambien, which I had taken for over 10 years. I have difficulty sleeping. Staying active during the day doesn’t help. I also sometimes take over-the-counter sleep aid medications from CVS or Walgreens.

Thankfully, by God’s grace, I have never drank one drop of booze. I refuse to drink beer. I hate alcoholic beverages. Recreational drinking can be deadly. I’ve seen too many horrible things happen to people who drink booze. The best wisdom I’ve ever heard regarding alcohol, is that you cannot take the second drink if you don’t take the first. That man in the earlier article I shared with you, is facing two charges of murder. The state of New York is charging him with manslaughter, but it ought to be second degree murder. Regardless, if convicted of two counts of manslaughter, the man faces 50 years in prison!!! Was it worth it?

According to the law offices of Attorney’s Herrling and Clark in Wisconsin...

> "Any amount of alcohol in a person's system can affect their ability to control a motor vehicle and avoid collisions with other vehicles, motorcycles, bicyclists, pedestrians, or obstacles. The best way to prevent drunk driving accidents is to never get behind the wheel after even one drink of alcohol." [emphasis added] —[8]SOURCE

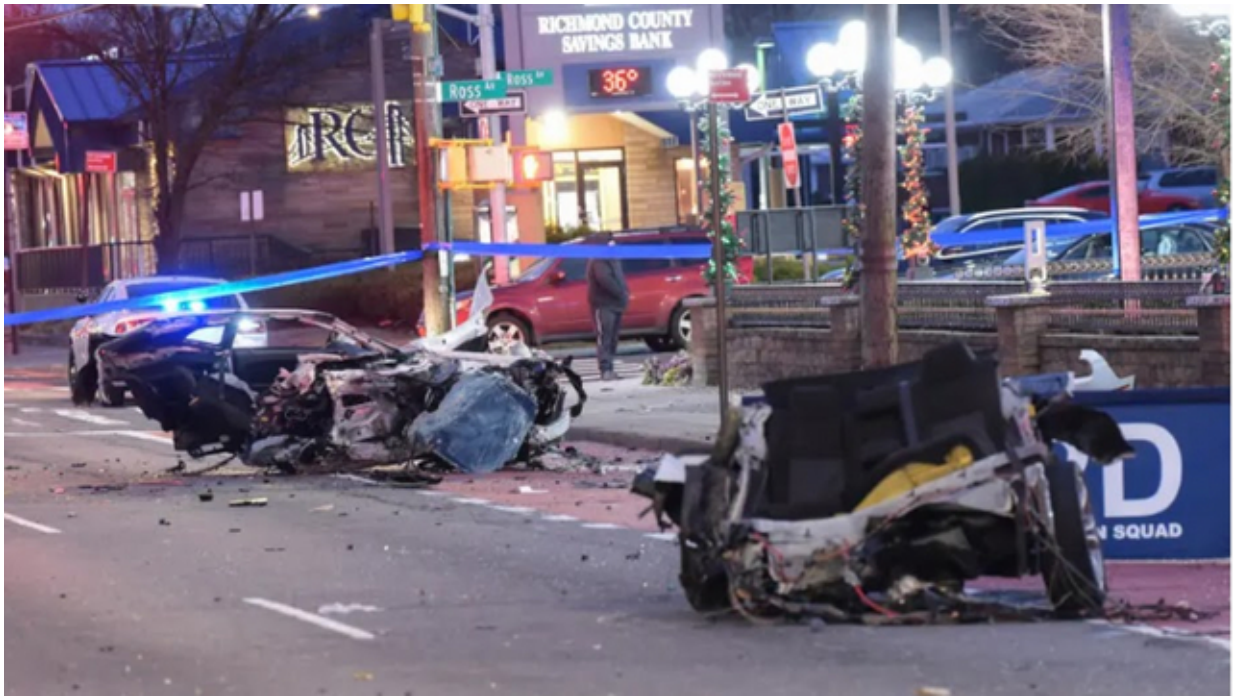
Better yet, don't drink booze at all. Search the internet and you will learn that in Russia alcoholism is a massive problem. I read years ago that in Russia, one in every seven men die because of their fondness of Vodka. That is so sad. This evil trend has led to a shortage of husbands for Russian women. I like what Evangelist John R. Rice (1895-1980) calls alcohol: "LIQUID DEVIL." It sure is too! From the earliest historical records of human civilization, alcohol has been a menace to individuals, families and society.

According to statistics gathered by the NHTSA (National Highway And Transportation and Safety Administration)...

> "Every day, about 32 people in the United States die in drunk-driving crashes—that's one person every 45 minutes. In 2020, 11,654 people died in alcohol-impaired driving traffic deaths—a 14 % increase from 2019. These deaths were all preventable." —[9]SOURCE



When will humanity ever learn from our sins, failures, bad decisions and foolishness? The answer is that each generation must rediscover THE TRUTH for ourselves. Jeremiah 17:9, "

The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it?

" We all have to make our own individual choices in life. By God's grace, I have chosen all my life to abstain from alcohol beverages (e.g., beer, Vodka, wine, Brandy, et cetera). There are so many great beverage choices without consuming alcohol for recreation.

By very consistency consumer alcohol is a schedule one drug. That is, alcohol can become addictive, but has no medical purpose. Although some fools will argue, the statistics speak for themselves, don't they. Every year in the United States, thousands upon thousands of people become victims of alcoholic substance abuse. The inspired Holy Bible speaks plainly on this matter of booze.

Proverbs 20:1, " Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging: and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise." ...

4.2.2 We Ought To Love Everybody, As God Loves Us (2023-02-02 18:52)

Romans 5:1-11, " Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ: By whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God. And not only so, but we glory in tribulations also: knowing that tribulation worketh patience; And patience, experience; and experience, hope: And hope maketh not ashamed; because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us. For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly. For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die. But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him. For if, when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life. And not only so, but we also joy in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have now received the atonement."

I dearly love this tremendous passage of Scripture. In these eleven beautiful Bible verses we find a Smorgasbord (i.e., a Swedish word which means an assortment of foods served as a buffet) of truths. I love a Smorgasbord!!!

#1 - We Are Justified By Faith

The first great truth I see in this passage is in verse one: "Therefore being justified by faith..." It frustrates me that over 90 % of pastors, Bible colleges and churches today have been corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ. Instead of preaching the truth from the Bible that lost sinners are justified by faith alone, they have been deceived by the Devil to add turning away from your sinful ways to get to Heaven. Nowhere in the inspired Word of God are we taught to " repent of our your sins

or

turn away from your sins

to be saved. These phrases are NOT found in the inspired King James Bible. Ungodly men added those unbiblical requirements, and in so doing have perverted the Gospel. We are justified by faith alone.

#2 - We Live The Christian Life By Faith

The second great truth that I see is in verse one through five...

> Romans 5:1-5, "Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ: By whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God.And not only so, but we glory in tribulations also: knowing that tribulation worketh patience; And patience, experience; and experience, hope: And hope maketh not ashamed; because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us. "

If you are saved, you were saved by God's grace through faith. That very SAME grace is available to help you live your life. As seen in the preceding passage from Romans chapter five, the Apostle Paul writes, "Jesus Christ: By whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God. And not only so, but we glory in tribulations also... ” Boy, I love that! The same grace that saved us is still available to every believer BY FAITH, to help us stand, rejoice in hope, glory in tribulations, et cetera. That is why Paul and Silas could sing unto the Lord while locked in shackles and chains in prison in Rome.

A professed Christian man recently contacted me, to tell me how down, discouraged and frustrated he is with life. He mentioned praying to God, but never receiving any answers. He said that he doesn't want to play a useless religious game anymore, where He cries out to a God who never answers. I know how he feels. I think most people do, if we are honest about it. But dear friend, I can tell you with Biblical confidence that living the Christian life is strictly a matter of HAVING FAITH IN GOD. In Mark 11:22b Jesus exclaimed: “ Have faith in God. ”

- When you feel like God has abandoned you dear reader,
  “ Have faith in God. ”
- When you feel discouraged,
  “ Have faith in God. ”
- When your heart is broken,
  “ Have faith in God. ”
- When you lose your job and don't know what to do,
  “ Have faith in God. ”
- When a loved one is sick and then dies,
  “ Have faith in God. ”
- When you are lonely and have no one to hug,
  “ Have faith in God. ”
- When you are mistreated by bad uncompassionate pastors, “ Have faith in God. ”
- When you are kicked out of church for standing for the truth,
  “ Have faith in God. ”
- When your spouse unexpectedly cruelly divorces you,
  “ Have faith in God. ”

- When everything is going fine in life,

  “ Have faith in God.

Always have faith in God dear friend. Any idiot can handle a crisis, it’s this mundane day to day living that gets us down. That is where true character is formed and revealed over time, by those who just stay by the stuff. The true heroes are the people who fulfill their duties, day in and day out for years, being faithful to do what they are supposed to do, just like our great God does. 1st Corinthians 1:9, “ God is faithful, by whom ye were called unto the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord.”

#3 - Suffering Teaches Us To Walk By Faith, Not By Sight

When life is miserable and nothing seems to be going our way, our faith is tested. We have no choice but to be patient, which through years of experience teaches us to wait on God. We learn through tribulation and patience in our sufferings, that the Christian life is lived BY FAITH, NOT BY SIGHT (2nd Corinthians 5:7). The most important thing is to never lose faith in God. The Bibles says that our strength to keep going and not quit, is KNOWING the truth that Jesus has raised up from the dead, and we will too...

> 2nd Corinthians 4:14, “Knowing that he which raised up the Lord Jesus shall raise up us also by Jesus, and shall present us with you. For all things are for your sakes, that the abundant grace might through the thanksgiving of many redound to the glory of God. For which cause we faint not; but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day.”

The same omnipotent (all-powerful) God who raised up Jesus from the dead the third day, also raises up the believer—not only by giving us unspeakable joy, love, hope and peace in this sorrowful lifetime, but God will also resurrect our bodies at the Rapture, transforming mortality into immortality. For those believers who are still alive, they will be changed in the twinkling of an eye (in a fraction of a second) into the likeness of Christ’s glorified resurrected body (Philippians 3:21). What a day that will be! ...

> Romans 5:3b-5, “knowing that tribulation worketh patience; And patience, experience; and experience, hope: And hope maketh not ashamed; because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us.”

By faith we can endure and rejoice in our tribulations and sorrows. When I hear a saint belly-aching about their problems and doubting God, I understand that their faith is weak. That doesn’t make them a bad person, it just means that they haven’t been walking with God. Romans 10:17, “So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.” At the lowest points in my life, I decided to focus more on my website ministry. I labored more intensely. I spent more time in prayer, Bible study and helping counsel down and out people, feeding Jesus’ sheep. That increase in my faith saw me through the tough times!

I was just as sad, miserable, frustrated and lonely in my daily life; but I had peace like a river in my soul, unshakable faith, and the love of God shed abroad in my heart toward everyone. Unshakable faith comes from having your faith shaken. Faith is like film, it develops in the dark. Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do. Everything that we do in the Christian life is by faith. I often work until I cannot keep my eyes open, bobbing my head up and down in my office chair, falling asleep at my laptop computer. God sees my sacrifice of love for Him. I labor by faith, believing that my Lord will one day in eternity reward my labors (1st Corinthians 3:8).

By faith Noah moved with fear to build an ark, which took him 120 years. I have heard Ken Ham and others allege that Noah didn't take 120 years to build the ark, but the Bible calls ken Ham and those other speculators, liars! 1st Peter 3:20, "Which sometime were disobedient, when once the longsuffering of God waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was a preparing, wherein few, that is, eight souls were saved by water." God waited 120 years for Noah to prepare the ark. When Noah was done, God sent the flood to destroy all humanity and life upon the land.

#4 - Christ Died For The Ungodly, And We Should Love Everyone

I love this Scripture passage! The Bible says that some people who sacrifice their life to save a righteous man. The Bible says that perhaps even a few people who sacrifice their life to die for a good man. But who would give their life to save a convicted criminal, to die in the place of an ungodly man? No one! Ah, but Jesus did. Christ died for the ungodly. He died for even you and me friend, both guilty sinners. What uncommon love! ...

> Romans 5:6-11, "For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly. For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die. But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him. For if, when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life. And not only so, but we also joy in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have now received the atonement."

As humans, we have all found ourselves thinking silently in our soul, "She doesn't deserve to be loved" or "He doesn't deserve my prayers." We all have enemies. What saith the Scripture? Matthew 5:44, "

But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you; " Jesus tells us to pray for our enemies who despitefully use and persecute us. That is Christianity 101 for advanced saints who genuinely want to please God. Immature believers won't obey this command from God. The Lord wants us to love people who hurt us. God wants us to be better than the average bear. He wants us to be just like His only begotten Son, Jesus.

Many people don't deserve our love, help, prayers or kindness; but neither do we deserve the unconditional love of God that sent Jesus to be brutally beaten and spit upon by Roman soldiers, as they mocked and ridiculed Him, falsely accused by the Pharisees, and ultimately condemned and crucified to death on a cross as an innocent man. Jesus truly didn't deserve to suffer and die, but He did it to pay for our sins, because God loves us. Jesus is almighty God!!!

Dear reader, I encourage you to love, forgive and do good to all mankind.

If someone has hurt you, let the offense go into God's hands for judgment, so you can forgive them and move forward with your own life. Don't allow bitterness and hatred to consume you. I have been hurt, betrayed, defrauded and abused by countless wicked people in my life (including a half down rotten pastors), but I let the snakes go long ago, by faith entrusting God to keep His promise to avenge me of their wickedness (Romans 12:19-21; 1st Thessalonians 4:6).

Our great Savior died for the ungodly, which includes you and me and all humanity. We are all ungodly (Romans 3:10, 23). If Christ was willing to die on a cross to redeem a guilty sinner like me, then I surely am going to forgive everyone, even before they ask for forgiveness, or if they never ask for any forgiveness. God has forgiven me. And let me say, you don't need to ask God to forgive your sins, because Jesus has already paid for everyone's sins on the cross. Forgiveness of sins is a free gift. Eternal life is a free gift. A gift simply needs to be accepted. We accept God's free gift of forgiveness of sins by faith.

Simply take God at His Word as recorded in the Holy Bible. Put your faith (trust, confidence) in what Christ did for you. Anyone who comes to God as a needy sinner, accepting Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, believing that Jesus was buried, but then bodily resurrected three days later, is saved. It is as simple as that to get to Heaven. Just believe that Jesus did it all for you. John 6:47, "V erily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.

People just want to be loved. They may not deserve it, but neither do we. Humans can be so rotten to each other, committing unimaginable evils. But Christ was willing to die for that person, and for you and for me. We are ALL guilty sinners. Psalms 106:6, "We have sinned with our fathers, we have committed iniquity, we have done wickedly." Always remember: "There but for the grace of God go I." You either love everyone, or else you love no one. Jesus died for everyone because God loves everyone, even the vilest sinner on earth. So what right do we have not to love everyone? But for the grace of God, we might be in that person's shoes and difficult situation. Let God love everybody through you, with the divine fruit of the blessed indwelling Holy Spirit (Galatians 5:22-25). Jesus is precious!!!

4.2.3 1st Thessalonians 4:14 Gives Us God's Simple Plan Of Salvation (2023-02-03 12:13)

1st Thessalonians, "For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him."

I love 1st Thessalonians 4:14. What an awesome Bible verse! Satan has succeeded in changing our Bible versions in most churches today. The Devil has also succeeded in changing our moral standards of clothing in most Bible colleges and churches, which were once considered the most conservative Christian institutions in the United States. It is sad to see everything turning from good to bad in America. Likewise, Satan has crept a false plan of salvation into many of our Independent co-called "Fundamental" Baptist churches, adopting [1]a Roman Catholic understanding of repentance instead of what the Bible teaches. They are only fundamental in name, but not in their stand, lifestyle or convictions.

I love 1st Thessalonians 4:14 because it tells us the plain and simple plan of salvation, "For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him." Amen! If we believe that Jesus died on the cross for our sins and resurrected from the grave three days later, we are saved. This is what the Bible teaches. This is a very different plan of salvation than the unbiblical requirement for a person to cease from sinful bad habits, forsake the world, make a commitment, and become a follower of Jesus Christ to be saved. Whether doing good works or stopping bad works, both are still dead works (Hebrews 6:1). Works have no part in salvation (Ephesians 2:8-9). To teach that a person must commit to turning away from sin to be saved is to teach that we are saved by partial faith in Christ plus human effort, which is heresy.

The Bible defines the "Gospel" for us in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures." This is the good news, which is what the word gospel means. We are saved by believing the good news that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God Who came into the world to die in our place on the cross. Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

Who will Jesus bring with Him at the Rapture? 1st Thessalonians 4:14, "For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him." This Scripture also refutes the false teaching of Soul Sleep that is foolishly taught by Seventh Day Adventists and Jehovah's Witnesses. The Bible says that God is going to bring with Him the saints, who were saved by believing that Jesus died and rose again from the dead.

The dead in Christ will be raised first (1st Thessalonians 4:16-17), a reunion of our new, changed, resurrected, glorified, physical body, fashioned like unto the Lord's perfect new body (Philippians 3:21). Then the saints who are alive and remain on earth shall be "CAUGHT UP," in the twinkling of an eye (1st Thessalonians 4:17b), to meet the Lord in the air (1st Corinthians 15:52; 1st Thessalonians 4:17). All the saints shall be CAUGHT UP to be with the Lord in the clouds. Every saint will receive a glorified new body, incorruptible. What a day that will be!!! This Biblical doctrine is often called "THE RAPTURE," which although it is not a word found in the Bible, the teaching certainly agrees with the Scriptures.

Here is the full passage of Scripture:

> 1st Thessalonians 4:13-18, "But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him. For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep. For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord. Wherefore comfort one another with these words."

1st Thessalonians 4:17 plainly teaches that we will be “CAUGHT UP” to be with the Lord in the air when He returns. Clearly, this is a very different event than the Revelation (Second Coming) of Jesus Christ to the earth, when He will be seen by all humanity. The Revelation comes 7-years AFTER the Rapture. [2]The Rapture Compared To The Revelation | [3]Do Babies Go At The Rapture? (Dr. Max D. Younce). The [4]Bible teaches a pretribulation Rapture, that is, the saints are caught up before the 7-year tribulation period.

Let us be vigilant and always ready to contend for the Christian faith (Jude 1:3), by exposing any false plan of salvation that adds to the simple truth that we are saved by believing the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ. Christ died for our sins on the cross. He was buried. Three days later He bodily rose from the dead for our justification. If you acknowledge that you are a guilty sinner in God’s eyes and believe that Christ died for your sins, and that He raised up from the dead, then you are saved immediately, irrevocably and eternally secure in the promise of God to save them that believe (John 3:16; Romans 1:16; Titus 1:2).

1st Thessalonians, “For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.”

4.2.4 Keep Yourselves In The Love Of God (2023-02-04 23:37)

Jude 1:20-25, "But ye, beloved, building up yourselves on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Ghost, Keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life. And of some have compassion, making a difference: And others save with fear, pulling them out of the fire; hating even the garment spotted by the flesh. Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy, To the only wise God our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever. Amen."

I love that phrase in Jude 21a, "Keep yourselves in the love of God..." What a great motto to live by: KEEP YOURSELVES IN THE LOVE OF GOD!!! I want to love people more and more as I grow older. We hear so much terrible stories in the news about people hurting people. My Christian father used to rightly say: "

People can become real monsters without Jesus Christ.

" Dad was so right! I am so glad to be a born-again Christian, and I desire to please God by letting Him unconditionally loving people through me.

One of the biggest sad stories in recent news, is the horrific murders of four University Of Idaho college students on November 13, 2022, allegedly by Bryan Kohberger. Kohberger's DNA was found on the release buckle of the knife sheath left at the scene of the crime, which is damning evidence against him. Cellphone records show Brian's cellphone at the location of the student's housing, a dozen times in the five months preceding the murders. Since this housing unit is not located near a main road, but rather in a remote area rarely visited except by residents who live there, this is also damning evidence against Bryan, who is 28 years old.

I am fully convinced that Kohberger will be found guilty of all four murders. The evidence speaks for itself. I think any jury based upon existing reasonable doubt would find Bryan guilty. This tragic event is heartbreaking. Why would someone do such an evil thing? The Biblical answer is that humanity is wicked by nature. Let me quote from Romans chapter three...

> Romans 3:10-20, "As it is written, There is none righteous, no, not one:There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God. They are all gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable; there is none that doeth good, no, not one. Their throat is an open sepulchre; with their tongues they have used deceit; the poison of asps is under their lips: Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness: Their feet are swift to shed blood: Destruction and misery are in their ways: And the way of peace have they not known: There is no fear of God before their eyes. Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God. Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin."

Having quoted the inspired Holy Bible to you, I do think that most people are generally good. Although that seems like a major contradiction from Romans 3:10-20 that we just read, as with all truths there is a balance. Pastor Jack Hyles used to rightly say that anybody is capable of committing any sin under the right circumstances. Dr. Hyles is absolutely correct. One of my favorite quotes by Brother Hyles is...

> "If you want to never do anything that is terribly wicked, then you never do anything that is slightly wicked." —Pastor Jack Hyles, [1]"Unjust In The Least"

We are all sinners. I say that there are good sinners and bad sinners, but we are all sinners. As humans we tend to classify sins. Most people dismiss horrible sins such as gossip, drunkenness, hatred, lust, lying and fornicating as minor sins. These alleged “ minor sins

” (or “Venial Sins” in Roman Catholicism)

are commonly tolerated as the norm in society. However, it is these so-called minor sins which often lead to major sins; such as, assault, adultery, murder, et cetera. The wise saint eschews all sins as being wicked. All sins are black, evil and horrible! There is no such thing as a white sin.

” All sins are serious and offensive to God.

If we are not careful as God’s children, we can become to hateful toward sin, that we begin to hate the sinner. We should never accept the sin with the sinner, nor reject the sinner with the sin. This is part of keeping one’s self in the love of God. Jude 1:21, “

Keep yourselves in the love of God*, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life. ”

The reason why some people commit unimageable crimes is because they lack God’s love. God’s love they nailed Jesus to the cross is UNCONDITIONAL love. God’s love is unconditional. You don’t deserve it. You don’t earn it. You cannot qualify for it. …

> Romans 5:6-9, “For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly. For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die. But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him.”

God is love. Those of God’s children who humbly walk with Him, will be encompassed with God’s love toward others.

Jude 1:21, “

Keep yourselves in the love of God*, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life.

” We have a choice as believers. We can either choose to walk in the Spirit (spiritually minded), or we can choose to walk in the flesh (carnally minded). The Christian life is no accident. No one walks with God by chance, but because we deliberately choose to spend time fellowshipping with our great God.

James 4:8-9,

Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you*. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts, ye double minded.

Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to heaviness.

I have met so many carnal pastors, like Jeff Redlin at Pensacola Christian College (PCC). They have no love or compassion toward hurting people at PCC. When I kindly told Pastor Redlin at the 4th of July picnic in 2021 that I was homeless, sleeping in Walmart's parking lot, he just cold-heartedly walked away from me. Redlin couldn't have cared less, while he slept in his big warm bed in his extravagant home. Where dwelleth the love of God. There is no love of God shed abroad in their hearts at PCC. Individual people do not matter at PCC, the cult system always comes first. I speak that to their utter SHAME in the PCC camp.

Dear reader, I encourage you to: KEEP YOURSELVES IN THE LOVE OF GOD!!! There are people all around us that feel unloved and unwanted by this cruel, uncaring and senseless world of sin. Thank God for the few Christians in this world who know, love and walk with God. You can identify them by their unconditional love for other people.

Dear reader: KEEP YOURSELVES IN THE LOVE OF GOD!!!

4.2.5 If You Love Ice Cold Refreshing Water, Don't Go To Hell (2023-02-05 12:46)

Luke 16:19-26,

There was a certain rich man, which was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared sumptuously every day: And there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, which was laid at his gate, full of sores, And desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man’s table: moreover the dogs came and licked his sores.

And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels into Abraham’s bosom: the rich man also died, and was buried;

And in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom.

And he cried and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame*.

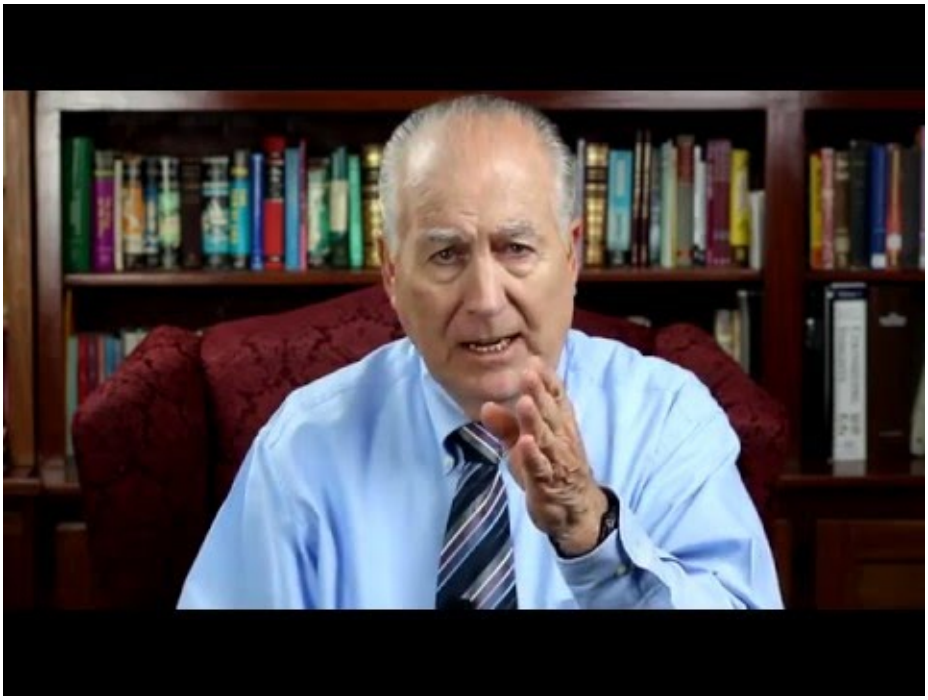
But Abraham said, Son, remember that thou in thy lifetime receivedst thy good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things: but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented.



And beside all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed: so that they which would pass from hence to you cannot; neither can they pass to us, that would come from thence.

I LOVE cold water. I get so thirsty sometimes, and I love drinking lots of fresh spring water. I have an ice-maker on my refrigerator, for the first time in my life at age 56. I had never been blessed to have such a nice thing. I love ice cold water! There’s not a single time when I enjoy cold refreshing water, when I am not reminded of the suffering rich man still in Hell today. It saddens my heart when I think about that poor man, who during his formerly earthly life was very wealthy. He went from being extremely rich to utterly poor.

I never rejoice in his calamity, for that would be sinful and very wrong. Rather, I rejoice as Jesus told us on Luke 10:20 that my name is written in Heaven, in the precious Lamb’s Book of Life. I praise God that I have been a born-again believer since age 13. We don’t hear that term “born again” used hardly anymore in today’s spiritually lifeless, theologically barren and corrupt pulpits. RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!

Dear reader, the choice is yours alone. Please get saved before it is too late...

THE CLEAR GOSPEL IN 4 MINUTE
(Dr. Ralph Yankee Arnold)

God never sent anyone to Hell who didn't choose to go there, by rejecting God's free gift of eternal life through faith alone in Jesus Christ. Dear friend, Jesus died on a cross to pay your debt of sin, and mine. Some people accuse free grace preachers like me of promoting "cheap grace." No dear reader, God's grace is not cheap, it is in fact COMPLETELY FREE!!!

Jesus has already paid for everyone's sins with His own precious blood. 1st Peter 1:18-19, "Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers; But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot:" You don't need to "ask" Jesus to save you, for He has already paid your debt of sin is freely offering you eternal life as a gift. Yes, eternal life is a free gift (Romans 5:15-18). All God expects of you dear sinner is that you take it! Salvation has no obligations or stipulations, nor can it, if eternal life is to truly remain a gift.

Only THE TRUTH of the Gospel of Jesus Christ can set a LOST SINNER free! If you foolishly reject God's great gift, then in Hell someday you will be DENIED even one drop of water. ...

> Luke 16:19-26, "There was a certain rich man, which was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared sumptuously every day: And there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, which was laid at his gate, full of sores, And desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man's table: moreover the dogs came and licked his sores. And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels into Abraham's bosom: the rich man also died, and was buried; And in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom. And he cried and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame. But Abraham said, Son, remember that thou in thy lifetime receivedst thy good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things: but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented. And beside all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed: so that they which would pass from hence to you cannot; neither can they pass to us, that would come from thence."

Please read verse 24 carefully dear reader...

Luke 16:24, " And he cried and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame. "

The Bible warns that if anyone goes to Hell (Greek: Hades), you will be denied even one single drop of water to quench your thirst. I don't know about you friend, but that is enough reason to get saved. If this story in Luke 16:19-31 is not a factual literal story, then Jesus is a liar! But our Lord is not a liar. John 14:1-2, "

Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me.

In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you.

" Our blessed Savior said what He meant, and He meant what He said.

This story in Luke 16:19-31 is 100 % accurate and true. It really happened. The Bible says that God is no respecter of persons (Romans 2:11). If God allowed the rich man to die in his sins, and go to Hell to be tormented forever, you can expect no less horror if you also die in your sins without Jesus as your personal Savior. John 8:24,

"I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sins: for *if ye believe not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins."

Do you BELIEVE that Jesus is the Christ, the only begotten Son of God? John 20:31, "But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name." Do you BELIEVE that Jesus died on a cross for your sins, and that He was buried, and bodily resurrected after three days (1st Corinthians 15:1-6)? BELIEVE the Gospel, that is, the GOOD NEWS, oh guilty sinner and you are saved!

Please get saved, to ensure that in eternity you will be able to quench your thirsty with me from the pure water of life. Revelation 22:1, "And he shewed me a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb." Jesus drank liquid in His ressurected body, and so will we according to Philippians 3:21, when we receive an immortal glorified body at the Rapture, fashioned like unto the Lord's resurrected body. Revelation 7:17, "

For the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters: and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.

" What a glorious day that will be, when my Jesus I shall see! Jesus is precious!!!

I am not glad that anyone ever goes to Hell, and neither should you be either. God has no pleasure in the death of the wicked (Ezekiel 18:32).

When I enjoy cold refreshing water, I always rejoice that I am eternally saved and know it. The Bible says in 1st John 5:13 that we can KNOW we are saved certain. Do you have the Holy Spirit in you, bearing witness with your spirit that the Gospel is THE TRUTH by which all who BELIEVE IT are forever saved (1st John 3:24). I KNOW I am saved because I BELIEVED the Gospel at age 13 and was born-again. The old account was settled long ago! I have been saved certain now for 42 years, since age 13. You can only be born physically into the world one time. Likewise, you can only be born again spiritually into God's family once. If you are born twice, you die once; if you are born once, you die twice!

My faith wholly rests in Jesus' name, because of what He did through Calvary's cross to pay for my sins, and that He was buried and then miraculously raised up physically the third day (1st Corinthians 15:1-6; John chapters 19-20). Jesus ascended into Heaven and sprinkled His literal liquid blood upon the heavenly Mercy Seat in the presence of God the Father (Hebrews 9:12, 22-24; 12:24). That is my only hope for forgiveness of sins and eternal life. Thank you for reading my humble blog. Jesus is precious!!!

4.2.6 Beware Of Dr. Peter Ruckman's Counterfeit Gospel (2023-02-06 00:38)

Genesis 15:3-6, "And Abram said, Behold, to me thou hast given no seed: and, lo, one born in my house is mine heir.

And, behold, the word of the LORD came unto him, saying, This shall not be thine heir; but he that shall come forth out of thine own bowels shall be thine heir.

And he brought him forth abroad, and said, Look now toward heaven, and tell the stars, if thou be able to number them: and he said unto him, So shall thy seed be. And he believed in the LORD; and he counted it to him for righteousness."

Habakkuk 2:4, " Behold, his soul which is lifted up is not upright in him: but the just shall live by his faith. "

Romans 4:1-4, “What shall we say then that Abraham our father, as pertaining to the flesh, hath found? For if Abraham were justified by works, he hath whereof to glory; but not before God. For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness. Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt.”

Acts 10:43, “To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins.”

The preceding Scripture passages, plainly put to rest the heretical idea that anyone in the history of human civilization has ever been, or ever will be, saved BY WORKS!!! The Apostle Paul makes it very clear in Romans 4:4 that if salvation has ever been by WORKS, then it was by DEBT and not by God’s GRACE. That absolutely settles the matter dear friend. God does not owe any lost sinner eternal life. I am surprised at the utter ignorance of Pastor Peter S. Ruckman (1921-2016). I admire Dr. Ruckman for [1]his excellent work in defense of the King James Bible, but unfortunately he drops the ball for God, utterly failing to rightly divide the Word of Truth concerning salvation in the Old Testament and in the future after the Rapture.

The following heretical teachings are from Dr. Ruckman. This is of the Devil, a false plan of salvation, blasphemy against the Word of God, and shameful...

What To Do In Case You Miss The Rapture by Dr. Peter Ruckman:

1. DON’T PANIC.

   You were going to Hell anyway, and you never panicked then. You were just as LOST before the rapture (Eph. 2:1-5) as you are AFTER the rapture. If you didn’t worry then or made fun of Hell then, or if you followed the educated idiots of your day who didn’t believe God would send anyone to Hell, it will be no time to worry after you are left. You are lost either way. You have entered a period of time called ’the tribulation’ and the plan of salvation in the tribulation is faith in Jesus Christ plus your own good works.

2. START WORKING YOUR WAY TO HEAVEN IMMEDIATELY.

   In the tribulation, a man must keep the commandments (Rev. 14:12), and keep them "to the end" (Matt. 24:13). If he doesn’t, he loses his salvation (Heb. 6:1-6) and burns in Hell (Heb. 10:26-31). You always believed in works before the rapture, or else you would have trusted Christ to save you by grace through faith (Eph. 2:8-9). Now that the rapture has happened, there is no more salvation by grace through faith, and you will be given an opportunity to show what a really fine moral character you are. Get to work! ... [2]SOURCE

Oh my! What blasphemy! No Sir, if you miss out on the Pretribulation Rapture, you won’t be able to start working your way to Heaven. If you are foolish enough to follow the deadly advice of Dr. Ruckman, you will sadly spend eternity burning in hell, fire and brimstone. Revelation 21:8, “But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death” (cf. Revelation 20:11-15). Life is short, Hell is hot, and eternity is a long time!!!

The Bible is very clear that “ALL” the prophets (i.e., all Old Testament preachers), taught that remission of sins comes only through faith in the Messiah. Acts 10:43, “ To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins. ” Dear reader, there has always been ONLY ONE Gospel. The Apostle Paul reiterates this truth in Galatians 1:6-7, “

I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel:

Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.

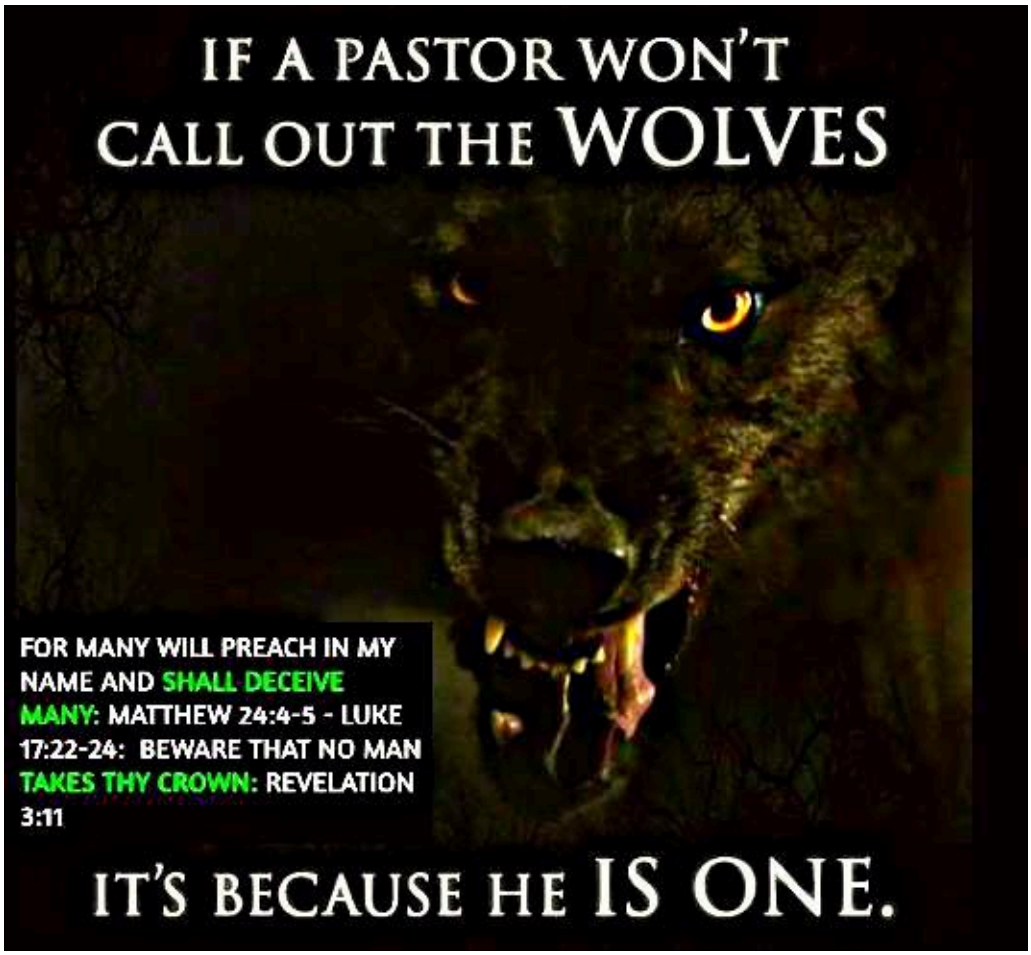
” Dr. Ruckman (even postmortem) is perverting the Gospel, troubling the churches.

Some dispensationalists (I don’t like or teach dispensational teaching) falsely teach that there was a different plan of salvation for Old Testament Jews under the law of Moses. They claim that whereas Abraham’s faith was counted for righteousness (Genesis 15:6; Romans 4:1-7), the Jews under the law given to Moses by God were required to do WORKS in addition to having faith in Christ. Folks, the Bible does not agree with those dispensationalists and Dr. Ruckman (who they follow as their unofficial leader). Dr. Ruckman died in 2016, but he still has a devout cult following of preachers and religious men worldwide.

Dear friend, salvation has never been, nor will it ever be, by partial faith in Christ plus WORKS.

Romans 4:1-4, “What shall we say then that Abraham our father, as pertaining to the flesh, hath found? For if Abraham were justified by works, he hath whereof to glory; but not before God. For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness. Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt .”

God doesn’t owe any lost sinner anything except Hell.



In the Old Testament, if the Jews failed to keep the moral, ceremonial and civil laws of God (there were about 720 laws total), God judged the nation of Israel. It had nothing to do with their salvation. When the Israelites failed to keep the Sabbath Day for 490 years, God punished them by sending them into captivity in Babylon for 70 years (one year for every 7 years they didn’t keep the Sabbath Day).

If keeping the Old Testament law of Moses were necessary to get to Heaven, then those Jews who were carried off into Babylonian captivity couldn’t have been saved, because there was no tabernacle, holy place or mercy seat in Babylon. There was no lamb sacrifice. But we know that they were saved by faith alone, without works. ...

> Romans 4:1-7, “What shall we say then that Abraham our father, as pertaining to the flesh, hath found? For if Abraham were justified by works, he hath whereof to glory; but not before God. For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness. Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt. But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness. Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works, Saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered.”

Carefully notice that the preceding passage of Scripture speaks about being justified by God’s grace through faith WITHOUT WORKS. Also, please notice that this passage speaks about Abraham, who lived before the law of Moses; and then David, who lived under the law of Moses.

The Bible says they were both justified by faith. Romans 4:6-7, "Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works, Saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered. " Dear reader, you just read it for yourself. King David lived approximately at 1,000 BC, and Moses lived at approximately 1,500 BC. Abraham lived around 2,000 BC. So we see clearly that David was under the Mosaic law when he said that God imputeth righteousness WITHOUT WORKS. Kindly said, Peter Ruckman is a dirty theological LIAR!!! In fact, Biblically, no one was ever saved BY WORKS in human civilization.

4.2.7 The Ungodly Hatred At Pensacola Christian College (2023-02-08 17:46)

Ephesians 4:30-32, "And grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption. Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice: And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you."

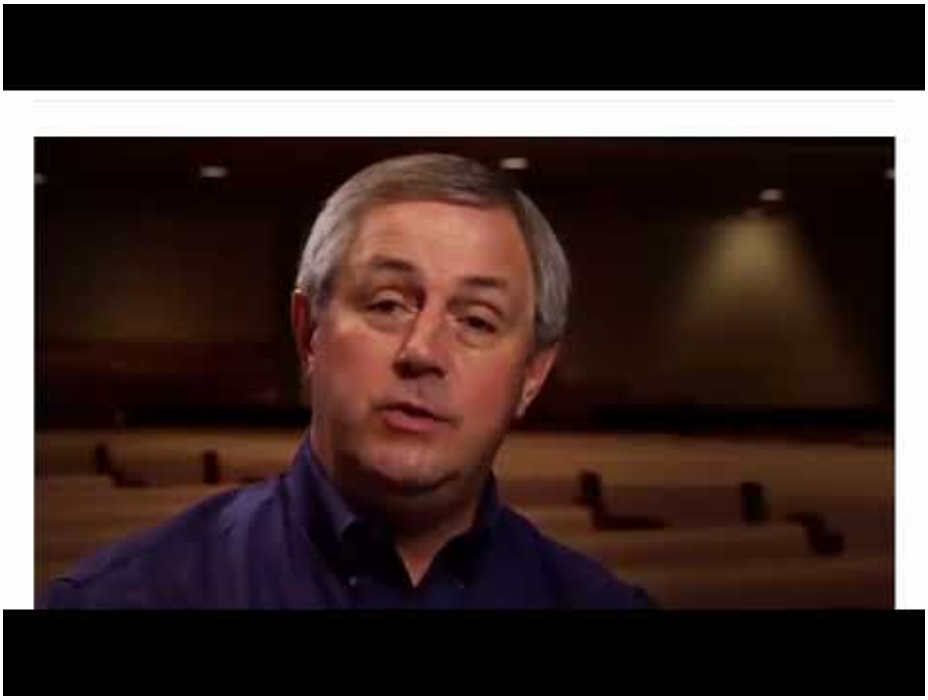
As of August 2, 2022 I have been banned in writing from attending Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College. What was my crime? I criticized PCC's rotten pastors on social media. When I first moved from the island of Guam to Pensacola in July of 2021, I chose to attend Campus Church. My first day there was the 4th of July picnic at Campus Church, at which time I met Pastor Jeff Redlin for the first time. I explained to him kindly that I was sleeping homeless in Walmart's parking lot. He heard what I said and then cold-heartedly just walked away. That made a very bad first impression on me, but I let the matter go, because I was happy to be at PCC's Campus Church.

The next week I emailed a lengthy letter to Pastor Redlin to introduce myself formally, which took my five hours to compose, to make sure it was exactly what I wanted to say. It wouldn't have taken him more than fifteen minutes to read. In the email I explained that I had been divorced for 15 years. i explained that I have been suffering from stenosis and radiculitis in my neck since 2004, due to a series of accidents that injured my neck. I explained kindly that I was now staying in a cheap hotel, living out of a suitcase. I also told him that I was a graduate of Hyles-Anderson College (1985-1993).

To my disgust and sadness, Pastor Redlin ignored everything I said, but only focused on one small comment where I humbly said that I hoped to find a wife at Campus Church. He scolded me for coming to church to find a wife, but I never said that was my reason for coming to church, he said that! What a calloused jerk! I poured out my heart, casting my pearl before the swine in hindsight. At this point, I felt unwanted and unloved at PCC.



So I kindly replied to Redlin and asked him directly if I am welcome at Campus Church as a divorced person who intends to get remarried in the future. Jeff Redlin totally ignored me for 10 days. So I kindly approached him after a Sunday morning service to shake his hand. I simply wanted to ask him when he might reply to me email. To my frustration and disgust, in front of his wife he said that if I ever found a woman to remarry, he refused to perform the wedding. What a monster! I had never asked Redlin to perform a wedding, I simply asked him if I am welcome at Campus Church. In respect for his wife, I refrained from rebuking him sharply for his insensitivity, utter hypocrisy and cruelty as pastor. What a jerk!

So the next day, I humbly emailed him at his church office, letting him know that he was wrong for being abusive toward me, taking liberties that are not proper. I mean, I had never met this man before two weeks earlier, and he is degrading me as a human being. Godly pastors don't do that, they treat people with God's unconditional love. He made excuses to justify his shameful behavior.

Pastor Redlin then let the cat out of the bag, telling me that someone on social media had contacted Campus Church to slander me. Redlin said that he and the other pastors consequently needed to look over my websites, and they concluded that I “find weaknesses in preachers.

” I was as much righteously indignant as I was deeply hurt by his false accusation. In fact, I preach against the wickedness in corrupt preachers, like Ken Ham who wickedly teaches that faith is not enough to get to Heaven. According to Ken Ham and his Answers-In-Genesis cult, you must also turn away from your sinful ways to be saved...

The FALSE GOSPEL of ANSWERS IN GENESIS and KEN HAM

Ken Ham is a damnable false prophet! So [1]why does PCC wickedly invite, honor and bid Godspeed to Ken Ham? SHAME on PCC for [2]their adulterous affair with Ken Ham.

PCC also wickedly bids Godspeed to the [3]Calvinist Bob Jones University cult . So why does PCC support them? The Harvest Baptist Church on Guam is a cesspool of BJU alumni, Lordship Salvation, wrong repentance and the Devil’s corrupt Bibles. Yet, PCC hires their employees and vise versa. These people are all pulling on the same rope as the Devil. 2nd John 1:11, “For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds.”

One arrogant former PCC staff member on Facebook, a female who taught there for eight years, tried to defend PCC by claiming that as a Liberal Arts Institution they have a right to invite infidels like Ken Ham. Since when do the Liberal Arts trump the inspired Word of God? SHAME on her for being such a FOOL. 2nd John 1:11, “For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds.” 2nd John 1:11, “For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds.” 2nd John 1:11, “For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds.” 2nd John 1:11, “For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds." For he that biddeth him Godspeed is PARTAKER OF HIS EVIL DEEDS. Pastor Jeff Redlin might as well being preaching Lordship Salvation himself the Bible says, because by bidding Godspeed to Ken Ham and the BJU cult, the PCC camp has blood on their hands. I didn't say that, God did in 2nd John 1:11, so get mad at God.

The reason why America is going to Hell today, is because pastors have become pantywaist cowards who are afraid to stand against anything anymore. ...

Is Your Pastor A yellow Belly?

Men in the pulpit used to have the guts and backbone to preach THE TRUTH. Nowadays pastors refuse to stand. They refuse to suffer reproach for the name of Christ. Today's shameful pastors don't want to be put outside the gate with Jesus, like I am. Jesus has always been outside the gate. I have been banned since 2014 from attending the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. I begged Pastor Marty Herron and Gary Walton to please let me attend church, but they both refused. Consequently, I didn't have a church to attend for 7 years. So I left Guam in 2021.

Sadly, now I am banned from attending Campus Church. Pastor Redlin said that my " remarks were consequential.

" Those were his exact words on August 2, 2022. What that hateful fool doesn't understand is that his words are consequential. Romans 3:4, "God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged." Let's compare my words to Pastor Redlin's words (the PCC camp are guilty):

- Through my preaching, I am exposing Ken Ham and Answers-In-Genesis for perverting the Gospel; but Redlin and the PCC camp are wickedly bidding him Godspeed, inviting him to speak at their rotten college.
- Through my preaching, I am exposing Bob Jones University for preaching the Devil's lies of Calvinism (aka, Lordship Salvation); but the ungodly PCC camp are wickedly bidding BJU Godspeed, letting their students participate in intercollegiate sports, hiring each others graduates, going along to get along for filthy lucre's sake, refusing to expose deadly doctrinal error (Titus 1:9-14; Jude 1:3; Ephesians 5:11). RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!
- I am preaching the accurate Biblical meaning of repentance, which is simply: "a change of mind"; but the PCC camp are wickedly teaching the same Satanic misunderstanding as the BJU cult, defining repentance as: "a change of mind which results in a change of behavior" (This is official Foundation's Class dogma at PCC's Campus Church). Any teaching that connects works to faith is Lordship Salvation. PCC is wickedly preaching Lordship Salvation!!! They are accursed of God. Here is an actual YouTube screenshot from the Wednesday evening service at Campus Church on July 21,2021 (I added the cancellation circle to warn people that this is a lie of Satan). ....

Damnable Heresy Being Taught At PCC's Campus Church

- I'm not done! In my preaching I expose corrupt preachers who sell, use and promote [5]Satan's perverted Bible revisions; but the PCC camp wickedly bid Godspeed to the BJU cult, which God says makes them partakers of their EVIL DEEDS. I am not a mere troublemaker like Elijah the prophet, I am a faithful servant of God. 1st Kings 18:17-18, "And it came to pass, when Ahab saw Elijah, that Ahab said unto him, Art thou he that troubleth Israel? And he answered, I have not troubled Israel; but thou, and thy father's house, in that ye have forsaken the commandments of the LORD, and thou hast followed Baalim." I am not the troublemaker, Pastor Jeff Redlin and his complicit gang of PCC lemmings are the troublemakers!!! The stench of their apostasy and unwillingness to stand with faithful saints like me reaches to Heaven's gates!

I am TELLING THE TRUTH, because I unconditionally love people. PCC hates people, evidenced by their reluctant to warn them. Instead, PCC just wants people's money, which is why they refuse to stand like I am doing. Even worst, the incompetent pastors of Campus Church falsely accused me of finding weaknesses in preachers. Dead reader, preaching the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation is not a weakness, it is WICKEDNESS!!! Ken Ham is not a weak man, he is a wicked false prophet!!! SHAME on PCC for sinfully bidding Ken Ham and BJU Godspeed, thus promoting their counterfeit plan of salvation.

- I'm not done yet! God knows that I started attending Campus Church in 2021 with a pure heart of love, compassion and sincere willingness to be a blessing to PCC. I even told Pastor Redlin so, multiple times. Pastor Redlin mistreated me multiple times as a divorced person. He horribly embarrassed me in front of his wife. Pastor Redlin is very insensitive to other people's feelings. Unfortunately, something is very wrong with Pastor Jeff Redlin spiritually. I wish I could fire him!

  I do not think Redlin is really saved, since they have a wrong view of repentance at PCC. I am worried about them. This explains why PCC bids Godspeed to unsaved Calvinists and the Lordship Salvation cult at BJU, because birds of a feather flock together! Psalms 119:104, "Through thy precepts I get understanding: therefore I hate every false way." I don't claim to be a good Christian, but God knows that I do abide in His Word, and I love God's commandments. Psalms 119:103, "How sweet are thy words unto my taste! yea, sweeter than honey to my mouth!"

God knows that I love everyone. But I hate what God hates, evil (Psalms 97:10). Only an ungodly pastor would tell someone that they are banned from attending church. Pastor Jeff Redlin is a wicked religious con man, who has since August 2, 2022 banned me from attending Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College. Only a cult does that! Sadly, there is an ongoing intolerant spirit of hatred, lack of compassion and contempt toward truth-tellers like me. I did nothing but speak the truth in love (Ephesians 4:15).

SHAME on Pensacola Christian College and their terrible Campus Church pastors. PCC's pastors are wolves in sheep's clothing, playing God with people's lives. I humbly pleaded in 2022 to come back to Campus Church, but they said "no." I am rightly upset with the PCC camp with a cause, and so is the Lord my God. They are in danger of hellfire at PCC, falsely teaching that good works (i.e., changed behavior) must accompany faith to get to Heaven. That is a perverted plan of slavation, not salvation. I showed you their official dogma in the earlier screenshot. Repentance does not necessarily lead to a change of behavior. PCC is pulling on the same rope as the Devil.

My offers still stands. If PCC's leaders ever contact me and desire to make the peace, I will gladly remove ALL my criticism from social media, and never put them back. All I want is to attend Campus Church. Sadly, I know they will NEVER contact me, because they are too proud and have huge egos at PCC. God will be their Judge (James 4:12; 5:9; Galatians 6:7), for the much blood upon their hands at PCC, for wickedly bidding Godspeed to infidels' Ken Ham at Answers-In-Genesis and Steve Petti at BJU. I have TOLD THE TRUTH!!!

4.2.8 Pleading For The Power Of The Holy Spirit (2023-02-10 15:31)

Luke 11:8, 13, " I say unto you, Though he will not rise and give him, because he is his friend, yet because of his importunity he will rise and give him as many as he needeth. If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children: how much more shall your Heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask Him? "

The following words were authored by Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001). This is chapter 14 from his excellent book titled: "Meet the Holy Spirit"...

When a middle-easterner received guests into his home, it was the custom to set food before them. If the first thirteen verses of Luke 11, we have a guest arriving at midnight. The embarrassed host had no bread to feet him so he went to his friend at midnight and ask him if he would let him borrow three loaves of bread. The friend and his family were all asleep; consequently, he refused to be bothered. The embarrassed host, however, was unwilling to take "no" for an answer and continued to plead for bread.

Though his friend would not give him the bread simply because of their friendship, verse 8 reveals that he did give him bread because of his importunity. The word "importunity" means "much begging." What he could not get just because of friendship, he could get by continuing to beg. Verse 13 teaches us that this represents the Christian begging for the power of the Holy Spirit. "If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children: how much more shall your Heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask Him?" Note the work "ask" in verse 13. This is durative action. It means "continue to ask."

Notice verses 9 and 10, "And I say unto you, Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock and it shall be opened unto you. For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened." The words "ask," "seek," and "knock" are also durative action, which means that we are continually to ask for the power of the Holy Spirit!

Some would say that the power of the Holy Spirit is obtained as salvation is obtained, simply by faith. There is a basic truth that needs to be examined concerning which of the workings of the Holy Spirit are obtained instantaneously by faith and which are obtained by sincere supplication. The answer is determined by whether a certain work of the Spirit is TO us and FOR us or whether it is His working THROUGH us FOR others. Those works of His that are primarily FOR us such as salvation are given to us in response to our faith. However, when the Holy Spirit decides to work THROUGH us and to let us become partners with Him in working for others, it is a different matter! For these things He insists upon such sincerity that we demonstrate to Him our intense desire by paying a higher price than that of faith only.

If a person would come to the First Baptist Church of Hammond to be ministered TO, he simply walks in and we minister to him. If that same person is being considered for a staff position whereby he MINISTERS TO OTHERS, we would take extra care by investigating his past record; we would want references concerning his credit, his service for God, his character, etc. When we minister TO him, he simply presents himself; when we minister WITH him, he must pay a price and be the object of our intense scrutiny. When the Holy Spirit ministers TO us (as in salvation) we must simply come to Him in faith.

When He ministers TO us by teaching the Word, by leading us, by comforting us, etc., we simply come to Him by faith. If, however, we would desire to be used as an instrument OF His, there is a price that we must pay. This price, of course, includes personal separation and purity. It includes, among other things, a complete surrender to Christ. It also includes supplication, or begging for His power.

It is one thing for a son to ask his dad to drive him somewhere in the family car; it is another thing for that son to ask to USE the family car!

In the model prayer, known as the Lord’s Prayer, there are several things for which e are to ask. First, we are to ask for daily bread. The very fact that it is DAILY bread teaches that we simply ask for it and receive it. Then there is the prayer for forgiveness. God offers forgiveness to us by sincere request in faith. Then, we are to ask protection from temptation and deliverance from evil. This is received in response to our earnest request.

The lesson on prayer, however, does not end there with Luke 14:1-4. It goes on to the discussion of the aforementioned host who was embarrassed because he had no bread when his friend came to him at midnight. When one receives bread for himself, he may simply ask his father. When he works in the bakery, he must pay a great price of cleanliness, purity and supplication. God will not allow us to enter into His very work and He will not impart to us the fulness off His Holy Spirit for the winning of others until we have proved our purity and our sincerity.

When our son David was a teenager he could receive his food at the table by simply saying, "Dad, pass the meat, please. Pass the bread, please." One day, however, he said to me, "dad, could I have $20? I want to take my girlfriend out and buy her a steak." Now he got the $20, but not as easily as he got the meat and bread when he said, "Pass the food."

I said, "Twenty dollars? What are you going to do-buy that girlfriend a cow?" He said, "Oh, come on, Dad. This is something special. Please let me have $20 so I can take my girlfriend out to eat and buy a steak." I said, "When are you going? Where are you going? Why are you going? With whom are you going???" I then replied, "I've got to think about this, son." He kept begging and kept on pleading. Finally I realized how important it was to him, and I gave him the $20. It was simple for him to get bread for himself, but when I gave him that which he needed to feed another, it was another matter.

When we employ somebody to work on the staff of the First Baptist Church of Hammond, he is required to be clean. He is required to be faithful. He must share our beliefs. He must convince me of his intense desire to work with me and for me.

When God employs someone to work in His work, He also requires that one be clean, that he be faithful, that he agree with the true doctrines of the faith and that he be in agreement with what God has written in His book.

This is why yielding and praying for His power is constantly necessary. When the Holy Spirit was ministering TO you, He did it in response to your simple faith. When He ministers WITH you, He requires that you pay a great price in your personal life in your supplication.

4.2.9 Except Ye Repent, Ye Shall All Likewise Perish (2023-02-11 16:13)

Luke 13:1-5, " There were present at that season some that told him of the Galilaeans, whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices. And Jesus answering said unto them, Suppose ye that these Galilaeans were sinners above all the Galilaeans, because they suffered such things? I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish. Or those eighteen, upon whom the tower in Siloam fell, and slew them, think ye that they were sinners above all men that dwelt in Jerusalem? I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish."

I’ve been reaching for the box of Kleenex all week, wiping away the tears. A devastating earthquake measuring 7.8 on the Richter scale hit the regions of Turkey and Syria, leaving a path of destruction in its wake. ...

I have felt helpless all week, wishing that I could be a part of the rescue teams. I heard on the news today that 120,000 rescuers are working night and day in efforts to find more survivors. I cried this week as I saw a little 10-day-old baby pulled from the debris, and a 16-year-old girl rescued, then a 4-year-old girl who was buried under rubble for 129 hours in subzero temperatures, and also a 17-year-old teenage boy. It is truly heartbreaking. I have been praying to God that rescuers will find more survivors. My heart is with those dear victims. The news said that this is the seventh worst natural disaster to afflict the world over the past century.

Having said that, this monumental disaster reminded me today of Jesus' words in Luke 13:3, "I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish. " Some local townspeople had come to Jesus with the latest negative news. One person said that the Wall of Siloam had fallen and killed 18 people. Another reported that wicked Herod had sacrificed some humans on the altar where animals were sacrificed. Jesus reminded them that if they don't get saved before it is too late, they may end up in the same predicament, dying suddenly while not being prepared for eternity.

Unfortunately, many ignorant and unlearned preachers like Ray Comfort and Kirk Cameron horribly misunderstand and misinterpret this passage from Luke 13:1-5. They falsely teach that to get to Heaven you must turn away from your sinful bad habits. That is WORKS, not God's GRACE! Many pastors have no earthly or heavenly business being pastors today, because they are woefully ignorant; and even worse, they are too full of sinful pride, hubris and arrogance to listen to rebuke, correction and wisdom from learned believers like me. I am far from being perfect, but I DO understand the Word of God, rightly dividing the Word of Truth. 2nd Timothy 2:15, "Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth." By God's grace I had great Bible teachers like Dr. Jack Hyles, Pastor Curtis Hutson and Pastor Harry Ironside. You would also be wise to read the books of these men, and listen to their Bible preaching.

Never Use An Obscure Passage To Contradict A Clear One

There are a few basic rules of Bible interpretation to follow, which if observed will keep you from going astray. The first I learned from Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995), who said: "A good rule to follow when interpreting the Bible is to never use an obscure passage to contradict a clear one." In literally hundreds of places in the inspired Word of God, we are taught that salvation is by faith alone in Jesus Christ. Yet the proponents of Lordship Salvation always run to a small handful of Scripture passages that mention the word repent, taking all of them horribly out of context.

For example: cartoon evangelist Jack Chick (1924-2016) quotes Luke 13:5 on his web-site's statement of faith, in a failed attempt to justify his heresy that you must "be willing to turn from sin" (which he errantly considered to mean "repent") to be saved. Kindly said, Jack Chick took the text in Luke 13:5 out of context to create his own pretext, to support his heresy. Dr. Curtis Hutson explains Luke 13:5 and gets it 100 % correct:

> In Luke 13:5 Jesus said, "I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish." The context of this verse shows that they needed to repent or change their > mind regarding punishment and sin. In this passage, Christ was talking to good people who believed that people suffered only because of their sins, and they concluded that those in Galilee whose blood Pilate mingled with sacrifices and those on whom the tower of Siloam fell were greater sinners because they died such horrible deaths. Jesus contradicts the thinking of these self-righteous people and tells them that they need to repent or change their mind and see themselves as sinners, too, or they will perish in their own self-righteousness.

> One does not have to know the Greek language to see that “repent” in this passage does not mean feeling sorry for or turning from sin.
>
> SOURCE: Dr. Curtis Hutson, ’[2]Repentance: What Does The Bible Teach?’

So we see that it is very easy to take a passage of Scripture out of context.

What has sadly happened to the people in Turkey and Syria WILL someday happen to the United States. Revelation chapter 18 practically provides the geographical location of the United States on the globe. The inspired Holy Bible foretells that this ungodly nation, which is described in Revelation 18, will be utterly destroyed in just ONE HOUR by fire. In my humble opinion that can only mean a nuclear Holocaust.

I believe that future destroyed nation is the United States. Lately, I’ve been following world news concerning China and Russia, and the U.S. is provoking these super power countries. In 2022, President Vladimir Putin threatened to use nuclear weapons against Ukraine. The U.S. is playing with fire! As technology advances, whatever Patriot Antimissile Defenses that we have will become more obsolete to a nuclear attack. Only a handful of ICBM’s (Inter Continental Ballistic Missiles) need to get through to destroy the United States. Each ICBM carries dozens of thermonuclear warheads, each capable of annihilating a major city. ...

> Each ICBM has the potential to carry multiple nuclear warheads. As of February 2022 the Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists estimated that Russia has a stockpile of nearly 4,500 nuclear warheads, of which around 1,400 are deployed on ICBMs.
> According to the Federation of American Scientists, both Russia and the U.S. each have "around 4,000" stockpiled nuclear warheads—around 90 percent of the world’s total.
> SOURCE: [3]Newsweek: What Are Intercontinental Ballistic Missiles and How Many Does Russia Have?

Tragically, today’s carnally-minded stupid churches are relying upon the apostate Bible colleges to produce their next pastor. Bob Jones University is a shameful cesspool of the Devil’s Bibles revisions, the Devil’s misunderstanding of repentance, and the Devil’s lie of Lordship Salvation (which is nothing less than Calvinism repackaged). Pastor John MacArthur is a devil in the pulpit, who is regarded as the godfather of Lordship Salvation. Dr. MacArthur sinfully boasts that he is a 5-point Calvinist! Calvinism is a lie of the Devil. Calvinism is another gospel, which is based in WORKS, not the free grace of God which is by faith alone. Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do. God’s curse is upon John MacArthur, and Bob Jones University (BJU) for wickedly bidding him Godspeed. MacArthur is an alumni of BJU.

Sadly, the wicked incompetent pastors of Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College (PCC) bid Godspeed to BJU, which according to 2nd John 1:11 makes PCC partaker of BJU’s evil deeds. They are accomplices in spiritual crime. Birds of a feather flock together. There is no honor among religious thieves!!! PCC has much blood on their hands, for pulling on the same rope as the Devil, assisting the Satanic cult at Bob Jones University who damn men's souls to the Lake of Fire. PCC must be exposed!!! Tragically, tens of thousands of fools are supportive of PCC's cult. RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!

Jesus Himself asked the rhetorical question in Luke 18:8, "I tell you that he will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless when the Son of man cometh, shall he find faith on the earth?" The blatantly implied answer is a resounding, "No!" Jesus will NOT find faith upon the earth when He returns. As I type this blog, there are literally several hundred different English versions of the Bible in existence, which all say something different. Things that are different are NOT the same! Satan is a beautiful LIAR!!!

God only authored ONE BOOK! So how can there be hundreds of English Bible versions? God is not the author of confusion (1st Corinthians 14:33); but ungodly men are authors of confusion (which they do for the love of money), creating a diabolical house of confusion. Acts 19:32, "Some therefore cried one thing, and some another: for the assembly was confused; and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together." The Devil is deliberately confusing everyone today about which Bible they should trust, what gender they are, what preacher they should listen to, confusion whether a child in the womb is a human being, if homosexuality is naturally normal or wickedly perverse, what plan of salvation is the right one, et cetera. Satan is the father of all liars, thieves and murderers (John 8:44).

Dear reader, today could be the last day of your life! Are you ready to meet your Maker? Have you been born-again? If not, [4]now is the time to get saved, before it is to late. There but for the grace of God, we could be among the 25,000 dead people in Turkey and Syria (I'm sure that the death toll will tragically rise much higher before this is all said and done). I am not saying in any way that what happened to the people in Turkey and Syria is God's judgment. I am simply saying that death is a reality that we must all face.

We live in a fallen world because of Adam's sin. Romans 5:12, "

Wherefore, as by one man

sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned:

Romans 6:23,

"For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord." Those 18 victims upon which the Wall of Siloam fell where not greater sinners than you or me, and Jesus made that point clear. We are ALL guilty sinners, so that we ALL must perish one day. That is, we must ALL die eventually. We can eat healthy, avoid risky behavior and exercise to extend our life, but we will ALL still die because we are sinners.

The GOOD NEWS is that God loves humanity (everyone), and He made a way of escape so that anyone can have ETERANL LIFE. No doubt some of those 25,000 dead in Turkey and Syria were born-again believers. Of that I have no doubt. But according to the Holy Bible in Matthew 7:13-15 and Luke 13:23-25, MOST people go to Hell, because they refuse to trust in Jesus Christ as their personal Savior, believing that He died on the cross for their sins, was buried and miraculously raised up three days later. No doubt this horrible disaster will lead some people to repent (change their mind) and turn from their unbelief to trust the dear Savior. And also, I am sure that many of them will become emboldened in their bitterness against God. Dear friend, NEVER blame God for life's hardships, losses and pain. We live in a sinful fallen world, where everything eventually wears old, breaks and dies. That is the way of all life.

My heart goes out to the suffering people in Turkey and Syria. As many as 500,000 people are now homeless and surviving in subzero temperatures among the rubble. The local and foreign help being sent cannot arrive fast enough to meet the desperate needs of the victims. Kindly, I wrote this blog to focus on the imminent reality of death, knowing that we are all living on borrowed time from God. Proverbs 27:1, "Boast not thyself of to morrow; for thou knowest not what a day may bring forth."

Dear beloved reader, in the following presentation my friend in the ministry, Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold, kindly explains from the Holy Bible how YOU CAN KNOW beyond any shadow of a doubt, that your name is written in Heaven and your sins have been forever forgiven, and you have ETERNAL LIFE...

4.2.10 Ecumenism (2023-02-12 22:15)

I looked up the word in Webster's book
For ages it has been around.
It means, "All religions should cooperate
And in peace and love abound!"

5450

I remember when first I heard the word;
It was spoken by well-meaning men.
But when faced with the results of this compromise
It was obvious that this was SIN!

The religionists say, "We must forget our differences
And in love and harmony sing!"
But the Bible says, "Come out from among them
And touch not the unclean thing."

This error began back in ancient times;
They called it a "Brotherhood of Men."
Then a proposal was made called "Common Cause".
And the sheep were invited in!

"Evil communications corrupt good manners,"
I once heard a teacher say.
And accommodation with error for a period of time
Will lead the sheep astray!

The sheep thrive only with the Shepherd’s care
And its Spiritual Food they need!
But the goats will eat most anything
And on the trash of the world they feed.

The True Gospel Message is rarely preached
In the average church today;
The "Psychology of Self" is now proclaimed,
And the sheep are being led astray!

The false shepherd’s sound forth on every hand
And the multitudes follow them;
But the True Shepherd is calling His own by name
And the sheep only follow Him!

Some say, "All religions will lead us to Heaven."
But wait, what did Jesus say?
"No man can enter except by me!
And there is no other way!"

"I am the good shepherd, and I know my sheep
And they are saved for evermore;
And by me they enter the Heavenly fold
Because I am the only door!"

4.2.11 Is There A Specific Version Of The King James Bible That We Should Use? (2023-02-13 10:28)

2nd Timothy 3:16-17, "All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: That the man of God may be perfect, throughly furnished unto all good works."

Someone asked me a question this week: "Is there a specific version of the King James Bible that we should use?"

My humble answer is: No, although some people say there is. [1]I wrote an article to expose the arrogant Cambridge Press, for claiming that they own the King James Bible.

In fact, NO ONE except God owns the King James Bible. There is no copyright, proven by the fact that anybody can print King James Bibles in their basement and no one can legally do anything about it. God's Word cannot be copyrighted. Psalms 119:89, "For ever, O LORD, thy word is settled in heaven."

As far as which King James Bible to use, there have been no additional translations of the King James Bible since the original was completed in 1611. It took 54 scholarly men 8 years to complete this masterpiece of literature, as commissioned by the King of England. However, there have been several editions to update the archaic English language.

Humans make mistakes. I have heard some ignoramous pastors try to prove that the King James Bible is not inspired, by showing that some Bibles says "he" and others "she" in a particular passage, but these are typos by the publishers, and not errors in God's Word. Wisdom and common sense tell us that an error on man's part does not constitute an error on God's part.

In my humble opinion, all of the King James Bibles are fine to use (regardless of the edition). Some crazies will argue that the Cambridge editions are the only truly authorized versions, but that is hogwash. A King James Bible is a King James Bible. If someone think that theirs has some typos in it, then go buy another one.

My humble opinion is that whatever edition of the King James Bible that you choose to use, it is still God's inspired Word. Just because one edition capitalizes a certain word and the next doesn't, in no way means that one is superior to the other. These are manmade debates, opinions and preferences.

Albeit, we know that ALL of the modern perversions which are based upon the corrupt Greek text of Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort from the 19th century are of the Devil. Their corrupt Greek text was released to the world in 1881. Even the cult of Jehovah's Witnesses love the perverse Greek of Westcott and Hort, which their founder Charles Taze Russell based his demonic New World Translation (NWT) upon.

I like what Pastor Jack Hyles said: "The King James is not a 'version,' it is THE BIBLE!"

4.2.12 Was The Damar Hamlin Prayer Event An Act Of God? (2023-02-13 11:41)

Matthew 6:7-8, "But when ye pray, use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking. Be not ye therefore like unto them: for your Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask him."

Luke 16:27-31, "Then he said, I pray thee therefore, father, that thou wouldest send him to my father's house: For I have five brethren; that he may testify unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment. Abraham saith unto him, They have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them. And he said, Nay, father Abraham: but if one went unto them from the dead, they will repent. And he said unto him, If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead."

Acts 10:1-2, "There was a certain man in Caesarea called Cornelius, a centurion of the band called the Italian band,: A devout man, and one that feared God with all his house, which gave much alms to the people, and prayed to God alway."

These three Scripture passages teach us some vital truths. I think most Americans have heard about the sudden cardiac arrest of Damar Hamlin on January 2, 2023, which happened during a football game when he was tackled. Hamlin almost died from the incident. Thankfully, he is still alive and doing well, expected to make a full recovery. Fans and teammates did the only thing they could do to help. [1]They prayed. This prayer event has sparked a lot of sensation in the newsmedia, causing some believers to ask if this was an act of God. I humbly think not, and I'll explain my reasons why.

Jesus said in Matthew 6:7-8 not to be like THE HEATHENS when they pray. The first time I read that it struck me. I was amazed to learn that the Bible openly acknowledges that unsaved people pray. These people are headed for the Lake of Fire, Hell. Yet they pray to God in their ignorance, deceived by the Devil. Matthew 6:7-8, "But when ye pray, use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking. Be not ye therefore like unto them: for your Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask him."

Although I think it is great that the masses began to pray for Damar Hamlin, no doubt most of them are hellbound without Jesus Christ as their personal Savior. So why would God initiate a prayer event that won't get anybody saved? Praying never saved anybody. My father used to say that religion is the worst thing that ever happened to this world. Dad was right! Jesus is my Savior, not my religion!

Interesting, in the book of Acts we read about a man named Cornelius, who worked as a centurion (a commander over 100 soldiers) of the Italian army. Cornelius was a good man who gave alms to the poor, he fasted and HE PRAYED. Unfortunately, he was NOT saved. Acts 10:1-2, "There was a certain man in Caesarea called Cornelius, a centurion of the band called the Italian band,: A devout man, and one that feared God with all his house, which gave much alms to the people, and prayed to God alway."

If you read further into Acts chapter 10, you will learn that Cornelius didn't get saved until Acts 10:44, when he believed the Gospel and was indwelt with the Holy Spirit.

The great heart of God does not desire for lost sinners to pray, but to repent (change their mind) to believe the Gospel. 2nd Peter 3:9, "The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance." God desires for all humanity to be saved! The Lord doesn't want anyone to go to Hell, but only we can make that decision. 2nd Timothy 2:13, "If we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself." If you are damned, it will be your own damn fault!

We read in Luke 16 about a man who was very wealthy. The rich man foolishly thought that he had no need for God. Sadly, he died without Christ and realized immediately that he had made a profound mistake. Luke 16:27-31, "Then he said, I pray thee therefore, father, that thou wouldest send him to my father's house: For I have five brethren; that he may testify unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment. Abraham saith unto him, They have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them. And he said, Nay, father Abraham: but if one went unto them from the dead, they will repent. And he said unto him, If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead." Even in Hell, being tormented in flames of fire, this formerly rich man who is now utterly poor, cared about his 5 living brothers. Despite his pleas, Abraham tells the man that it is too late for him, and if his 5 living brothers won't heed the Scriptures, they are doomed!

Dear reader, you are still alive. It is not too late for you; but the time will come when it will be too late, and you won't have a second chance to get saved. Was the Damar Hamlin prayer event an act of God? No, I think not. Why would God nearly kill a man just to raise interest in prayer, something that even heathens do? God is interested in getting people saved, something that requires preaching the Gospel. The world has always been religious, but the Bible warns that only few people get to Heaven. Luke 13:23-34, "Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them, Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able." The Lord's clear answer to the disciple's question is that few people go to Heaven. I think we would be shocked if we knew the ratio of people that pray, compared to how many of those praying people are going to Heaven. I dare say that only 1 in 100 praying people are saved.

Having said all that, I am fully confident that many of those people praying for Damar Hamlin are born-again Christians. Sadly, according to the Bible most are not. If you go read Matthew 7:13-15, you will see in this passage that few people find the strait gate to Heaven. Matthew 7:15 tells us why, because of FALSE PROPHETS who deceive them with a false plan of salvation (e.g., Joel Osteen, Joyce Meyer, Rick Warren, Steve Pettit, Marty Herron, Pat Robertson, Billy Graham, et cetera). Never forget, the Devil is a beautiful liar!

Fox News ran [2]this article saying that Damar Hamlin brought prayer and faith back to the NFL. What saith the Scripture? James 2:19,

Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: the devils also believe, and tremble.

" Faith in God never saved anybody! You must receive Jesus Christ as your Savior. 1st John 5:12, "

He that hath the Son hath life; and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life. " You can pray, do good deeds and have all the faith you want in God, like Cornelius did before he got saved, but you will split Hell wide open unless you've been born-again through faith in Jesus Christ!

Jesus died on a cross to pay our debt of sin. He was buried. Three days later Jesus bodily resurrected miraculously from the dead. This is 'THE GOSPEL' according to 1st Corinthians 15:1-4. The Gospel is three things: Christ's crucifixtion, burial and resurrection. Of all the religious tracts I've read, and of all the sermons that I've heard, very few preachers do a good job of explaining the Gospel. [3]Pastor Harry Ironside (1876-1951) does A GREAT JOB!!!

I am glad that Damar is okay, but I humbly do not think any of this was an act of God. Prayer is nothing new to the heathen world. They need to be born-again to enter into God's Kingdom. John 3:3, "Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God." Unsaved Muslims lay prostrate upon their faces, praying for hours upon hours. Jesus told us this is what the heathen do, thinking they will be heard by God for their much speaking. That is, for their sacrificial WORKS. That is not faith.

There is such a thing in the Christian life as importunity in prayer (Luke 18:1-8), where we prayer at length and fast, to obtain an answer to prayer. The difference is that unsaved people think God will hear them for their much speaking (WORKS); whereas as God's redeemed children we think God will hear us because of FAITH by His grace. James 5:15: " And the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; and if he have committed sins, they shall be forgiven him." God honors faith, but that faith must be rooted in Jesus, the Christ, the only begotten Son of God. John 20:31, "

But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name.

Concerning Damar Hamlin, we've heard a bunch of talk in the media about prayer and faith, but I haven't heard the name of Jesus mentioned even once. On the Day of Pentecost the Apostle Peter preached THE GOSPEL and 3,000 souls were saved (Acts 2:41). As far as I know, nobody was saved as a result of Damar Hamlin's prayer event. That is how I know that it wasn't an act of God. When the Spirit of God moved on the Day of Pentecost, people got saved. Proverbs 11:30, "

The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life; and he that winneth souls is wise.

4.2.13 The Way To Lose Weight Is To Eat Right (2023-02-14 12:34)

Daniel 1:11-16, "Then said Daniel to Melzar, whom the prince of the eunuchs had set over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, Prove thy servants, I beseech thee, ten days; and let them give us pulse to eat, and water to drink.

Then let our countenances be looked upon before thee, and the countenance of the children that eat of the portion of the king's meat: and as thou seest, deal with thy servants.

So he consented to them in this matter, and proved them ten days.

And at the end of ten days their countenances appeared fairer and fatter in flesh than all the children which did eat the portion of the king's meat.

Thus Melzar took away the portion of their meat, and the wine that they should drink; and gave them pulse*."

Daniel knew that healthy living comes from healthy eating. We are what we eat! There are several successful ways to lose weight. The quickest and most effective short-term method to lose weight is an all out fast, where you just stop eating and drink only water; however, this is not healthy, nor a wise long-term decision. In fact, sudden crash fasting can even be dangerous. The best and most effective sure long-term method of losing weight is to simply eat healthy foods.

What foods should you eat? To lose weight you want to eat foods that are high in fiber and protein. These foods will make your body feel full and satisfied for longer periods of time, causing you to eat less food overall. But it is important, if you want to lose weight, that you have a little bit of discipline to LIMIT high caloric, highly refined and high carbohydrate foods.

Let me also say, before I say anything else, that to be successful you SHOULD have a meal plan for each day. Either the night before, or when I wake up each day, I plan my meals for the day. By deciding ahead of time what I am going to eat, it avoids my indulging on junk foods. Now, sometimes I PLAN to eat some decadent junk foods (e.g., ice cream, boxed pizza, processed foods, boxed mashed potatoes, candy, snack chips, donuts, Pizza Puffs, fruit gummies, deep friend shrimp, et cetera).

There is no set plan that you have to follow. Each person is different. So it is very important that you choose a meal plan that is enjoyable. If you go on a sudden healthy diet, completely devoid of the foods that you love, it is very likely that you won't follow through on your new healthy diet.

So, having said that, I try to eat 75 % healthy foods, and then allow 25 % of less healthy foods (the ones that taste so good). I love my Nutri-Ninja blender and use it every day. Wal-mart, [1]Amazon.com, BestBuy and other retailers sell the Nutri-Ninja. The Nutri-Ninja liquefies whatever you put into it. NEVER but a juicer, because it removes all the pulp. The pulp contains all the much needed fiber which helps your body. By just drinking juice you don't get any fiber, and you can easily drink way too many calories without feeling full. Fiber makes you feel full, which is very important to losing and maintaining proper weight.

This morning when I woke up, I thank God for another day, and told Jesus that I love Him. Then I picked up my big sized Nutri-Ninja cup and started to choose what I fill it up with. I start with some water, so nothing sticks to the bottom of the cup. I put about 15 big red grapes in the cup. I cut up and added one Ambrosia apple. Yesterday I used a Gala apple, and the day before a Cosmic Crisp apple. Walmart sells at least a dozen different kinds of apples. I switch each time I go shopping, to try different apple varieties. Variety is the spice of life!

Every morning I add 2-4 Tablespoons of whole or ground flaxseeds to my Nutri-Ninja cup. I prefer whole flaxseeds because I can just pour them into the cup. With the ground, you'll need to use a spoon. Either way is good. The flaxseeds are high in Omega-3 oils, which your body needs. Flaxseeds are GREAT for improving and maintaining great heart health. Just 2 Tablespoons of flaxseed each day, provides 100 % of the body's RDA (Recommending Daily Allowance) of Omega-3 oils. I added some crushed ice today to my cup. I also added a teaspoon of ground cinnamon for flavor. I bought a Trilogy of Chia, Hemp and Flax seeds in a big plastic container at Walmart (by the oils). So I also usually add 1 Tablespoon daily of these seeds. Then I press the "Smoothie" button on my Nutri-Ninja and 60 seconds later it is ready to drink, 100 % liquefied finely. That is a GREAT breakfast!

To keep my meal plan enjoyable, I allow for one regular tasty meal per day. So one some days I'll cook some bacon, eggs and hashbrowns, and also eat 2 slices of buttered raisin Ezekiel (flourless) bread. NEVER use artificial butter, like Margarine. Only use real butter, which is high in fat. There is a popular misconception that fat is bad for you, but the opposite is true. Foods high in fat make you feel full (satiated), which reduces cravings. The best cuts of beef are the ones full of white marbled fat, which I always look for when I go shopping. I try to avoid lean cuts of meat. The best tasting hamburger is regular hamburger with the most fat.

Now today I just had a super healthy breakfast (no bacon, hash browns or eggs), so later I'm planning on eating a barbequed 1/2 pound ribeye steak and a bag of mixed vegetables. Yesterday I ate tacos for dinner. That was my one regular tasty meal for the day. By "regular" I mean a high carbohydrate meal. If you want to lose weight, you need to reduce your carbohydrate intake. All of the diet plans (vegetarian, carnivore, Atkins, Jenny Craig, Keto, et cetera) all have one thing in common—they all focus on drastically reducing your carbohydrate (carbs) intake. All of your favorite foods are high in carbs, which the body converts into glucose sugar, and stores excess amounts as visceral fat, especially in your belly (men tend to store more fat in their upper body and belly, but women in their thighs, belly and buttocks).

If you will just start eating healthy food every day, you will lose about 1-2 pounds per week. Yesterday for breakfast, in addition to my Nutri-Ninja drink, I ate a bowl of 'Great Grains' (whole grain) cereal, sprinkled with cranberries and almonds that I bought in a package at Walmart. It tastes great. I prefer to use whole Vitamin D real milk, but almond milk (sweetened or unsweetened) is also great (and contains only a fraction of the calories of whole milk). Today for lunch, I ate a can of Great Northern Beans that I microwaved. I put 1 Tablespoon of Louisiana spicy cocktail shrimp sauce in there for great flavoring. Just that 1 can of beans provides 100 % RDA of fiber for my body.

Dear reader, you CAN lose weight if you are obese. I read last week that 40 % of Americans are now obese. More important than losing weight so that you can look and feel better, is the prevention of many chronic diseases that being obese and eating processed foods causes. I read a study this week from Europe, in which studies they performed on about 175,000 people, showed that for every 10 % increase in eating highly refined processed foods (ice cream, boxed pizzas, white breads and pastries, white sugar, sugary sodas, sausages, Tv dinners, et cetera), results in a 6 % increased risk of getting cancer. So if all you eat is processed foods, you have a 60 % chance of getting cancer, likely in your colon.

Now, I don’t know about you, but I don’t like the idea of having medical devices shoved where the sun don’t shine to probe me. I think I’ll eat healthy and try to avoid contracting chronic disease. It may still happen, but I am going to eat a lot more healthy foods to try to prevent unnecessary manmade diseases. Last night before bed I drank another smoothie, which had several big fresh strawberries, 1/2 small tray of fresh blackberries, 1 Tablespoon of flax seeds and 1 yellow kiwi (peel, seeds and all). Good stuff!!!

When I put any fruit into my Nutri-Ninja, I never peel anything, I eat the whole fruit (seeds, stem, peel and all). But I do remove the stickers on the fruit from the store. For some reason each kiwi has a sticker on it. I hope I am encouraging you to take control of your health and eat better. That is why I wrote this blog, to be helpful and help others, to be a better you.

I try to drink mostly water, very little classic Coke, and once in a while diet Coke. I love the bite in the Cola. I’ve had lots of people warn me about Diet Coke, but my humble opinion is that Diet Coke is MUCH better for you than all that toxic corn syrup in regular Coke. I’ve done a lot of reading on Diet Coke. Unless you’re drinking 1 1/2 gallons per day of Diet Coke, you’ve got nothing to worry about.

And for that matter, drinking too much water is unsafe, which can kill you. It is a true story, that [2]a radio station in California held a peeing contest. One woman drank so much water, trying to win, that she literally died of water intoxication. The radio station was sued and a jury awarded $16,577,188 damages against the KDND radio station. So my personal opinion is that it is best to drink water (one ounce for every 2 pounds of your body’s weight; so if you weight 160 pounds, you should drink 80 ounces of water per day; one gallon is 128 pounces). If like me you love Cola-Cola, I think Diet Coke is better than regular Coke, especially if you are diabetic). Diet Coke WON’T spike your sugar, but classic coke WILL. No doubt some people will disagree with me on this last point about drinking diet sodas. To each his own.

God bless and thank you for reading.

4.2.14 Some Interesting Things About Evangelist Billy Sunday (2023-02-15 10:02)

I have an old book authored in 1936 by Homer Rodeheaver titled, “

TWNETY YEARS WITH BILLY SUNDAY.

” I am going to share some interesting things about Billy Sunday that you likely have never heard before, and some perhaps you may have. Billy Sunday (1962-1935) was, and still is, considered by many to be the world’s greatest evangelist of all time. Mr. Sunday was famous (or infamous based on your perspective) for preaching uncompromisingly against booze, illicit gambling and immoral dancing. Billy Sunday rightly said that the work of a pastor is to comfort the afflicted, but the work of an evangelist is to afflict the comforted. Amen!

On page 10 we read about Billy Sunday:

“Of his outstanding characteristics first place must be given his unreserved consecration to the task of preaching the Gospel, born of an unswerving faith in the infallibility of the Scriptures and belief in God’s plan of salvation. He had a positive conviction as to the authenticity of Holy Writ which permitted no question or quibble. He was just as certain of his call to preach.

Invariably he opened the Bible and placed his sermon notes upon the passage of Isaiah, first verse of the sixty-first chapter, which reads: ’The Spirit of the Lord GOD is upon me; because the LORD hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek; he hath sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound.’

Many people wanted to posses the Bible Mr. Sunday had used during a campaign. When he granted the request it would be found that these pages in the book of Isaiah were almost worn out.”

chapter 1 -

“THE MAN,” p. 10,

by Homer Rodeheaver; 1936

On page 11-13 the following words describe “

THE MAN,

Billy Sunday

...

“Mr. Sunday fought sin, but not the sinner. He rarely ever attacked an individual. Not

“

Mayor Brown,

but

“any mayor who violates his trust should be put out of office.”

Saloonkeepers admired him for his courage, and many fights started in saloons because the bartender or some customer defended him against lies or personal abuse.

One saloonkeeper said, “You can’t talk about Billy Sunday that way in my saloon. He knocks my business, but he’s a square-shooter.”

He was the foe of so-called modernism in religious thought and attacked impartially in high and low places leaders whom he believed to be traitors to truthful in interpretation of the Bible.

> Many unprintable stories were told about him. These followed him from place to place and were so similar in form as to suggest a common origin. The same stories and attacks attributed to Mr. Sunday had been used in attacks on other evangelists many years previously.
> I never knew him to tell a vulgar story, either on or off the platform. He was clean in his thinking and had a wholesome antipathy for anything savoring of suggestiveness.
>
> Much of his work on the platform gave rise to the impression that he was of a particularly belligerent disposition. Apparently he was ready to fight all opposition at the drop of a hat, giving no odds and asking none. He seemed to delight in stirring up an antagonist and knocking him into a cocked hat; yet off the platform his attitude was far from pugnacious. On the contrary, there were pronounced elements of sweetness and gentleness in his character. When he was in the company of others he had the graces of self-effacement and unaffected modesty—the innate qualities of a gentleman.
>
> He was not at ease in social gatherings. Likewise when folks sought to ionize him it provoked both surprise and amusement. He had no capacity for trivial conversation. He was a good listener and entertained a constant hope that from each new acquaintance he would gain some fresh idea, fact, or illustration which might be embodied in a sermon.
> He had a terror of social functions. ...”

That is very interesting information. I’m not that some of my readers, as I do, can relate to some of Billy Sunday’s traits. I also feel awkward in social functions, a bit nervous in groups of people. I can also relate to Mr. Sunday in that people often think I am belligerent in my Bible preaching, seeing the uncompromising aggressiveness of my Bible preaching on social media; but if you were to meet me personally, you’d see that I am sweet, humble and a gentleman.

On page 34-36 the following words describe the prayer life of > “Mr. Sunday was a man of prayer. He placed entire dependence upon God. He never set aside a long period of time each day, nor shut himself in a closet to commune with his Maker, but constantly through the day he felt the presence of God.

...If you were in his room when he was shaving' or bathing, you would have heard him talking to Jesus about his problems. You would hear him say, 'Now, Jesus, this is a hard problem we have here.' I don't know exactly what we ought to do about it or I don't know how it ought to be done; so if it is done at all successfully, you're going to have to help me with it. I'm depending on you, Jesus. Show me what to do and what to say about this, Give me the wisdom I need. Give me the courage, give me the strength I need for this task.' As he would walk from room to room, you'd see his lips moving, even when you could not hear the words, and you would know that he was talking to his God about some of these intricate, serious, important problems.

As he rode in the automobile to his meetings, while others would be talking about things of local interest, you could hear him saying, 'Jesus, I am depending upon you to help me out at this meeting,' and then he would talk intimately and personally about the important, individual problems and the particular task that was lying just before him.

No one who heard him pray in public could question his sincerity or accuse him of lacking of originality. His approach to God had the same elements of faith and confidence that a little child would have. His intimate conversations with the Lord startled and shocked those of his hearers who were accustomed to stereotyped, dignified form. Yet the manner in which Mr. Sunday did it conveyed not the slightest suggestion of irreverence. The same words from the mouth of another might have seemed almost blasphemous.

Sometimes he would stop in the midst of prayer and say: 'Rody, What was the name of that fellow who took us through the foundry?

—Bill Jones?

—O yes, Lord; bless Bill and his family and the boys at the foundry; Don't let them get hurt.

His prayers were seldom alike. No one knew what to expect when he prayed. One night the whole petition might concern one particular thing. The following night he would race to twenty different subjects.

Sometimes he would be carried away by flights of imaginative fancy. Lovely illuminating phrases would pour forth in a torrent. Sentences would be models of grace and the climax an example of the finest oratory. Then again words would come out in a sort of machine-gun fire, crisp, snappy, sentences broken and interrupted, or even started and then abandoned completely. His sermons were carefully prepared; his prayers were extemporaneous expressions.

In the hearts of many of his hearers often there must have been the wish that they could have the same friendly, intimate, affectionate relationship with their God which it was evident Billy Sunday possessed.

He had an astounding habit of suddenly breaking off his talk with the Lord and beginning a conversation with the devil. When he did this he imagined his Satanic majesty somewhere down below him. He would lean over as if gazing into the pit of hell and fire at the devil all the excoriating, vilifying epithets he could command After he thought he had cleaned up on Satan sufficiently for the time being he would switch back and finish his conversation with the Lord.

There never was a pattern for Mr. Sunday's prayers. Perhaps they were the most original, distinctive things about all his work. No one ever prayed publicly in the same fashion that he did, and probably no one ever will.

chapter 3 -

"PRAYER," pp. 34-36,

by Homer Rodeheaver; 1936

That is amazing information about Billy Sunday. I remember in 1999 when I attended training for my job at the U.S. Postal Service. The training center is still in Norman, Oklahoma today. They also have a 1,000 room Marriott hotel for the trainees. One afternoon I was walking around the outdoor campus and talking outloud to the Lord. I had a heavy heart and was speaking to the Lord as I would to a person walking with me.

Then two younger security guards for the postal service rudely approached and confronted me as I was walking, informing me that a woman said there is some crazy guy talking to himself on the campus grounds. They were rude, insensitive and belligerent toward me over the matter. I kindly replied that perhaps I am a Christian and I'm talking to God, and they and the woman accusing me were misjudging me. One of the guards then rudely said that it would be better if I went up to pray in my hotel room.

That was in 1999,before I truly understood what The Bill of Rights was. I had learned those things back in high school, but at the time it just seemed like boring history. Had I been privileged to have a teacher inspire me about our American rights, I no doubt would have understood the significance of such rights, but no one ever inspired me as such. I didn't learn about the Bill of Rights until after I began my website ministry in April of 2022, at age 35, and my eyes were opened for the first time in my life to the diabolical New World Order.

Thanks be to God, patriotic men like Alex Jones (he was better in the earlier days of his show) helped open my eyes to the evils in this world, and emphasized our duty as free men to stand against the evil, tyranny, corruption in government, and complacency of good men that leads us into Communist slavery. Had I known back in 1999 what I know today, I would have hired the Christian Law Association (CLA) and sued the U.S. Postal Service in Norman, Oklahoma for violating my First Amendment rights to freedom of speech, freedom of religion and freedom or press.

Those two woefully ignorant thug guards were inspired by demons that day! They committed a legal crime against me, by depriving me of my First Amendments rights to free speech and freedom of religion. I could have sued them. Dear reader, you and I as Americans and as God's children anywhere in this world, have every God-given right to talk and pray outloud to our great God. Prayer is asking. Talking is fellowship with God. Please don't ever let anyone tell you that you cannot pray audibly in public, because you CAN pray and talk outloud for others to hear (but don't do it in a library or you'll be kicked out...lol).

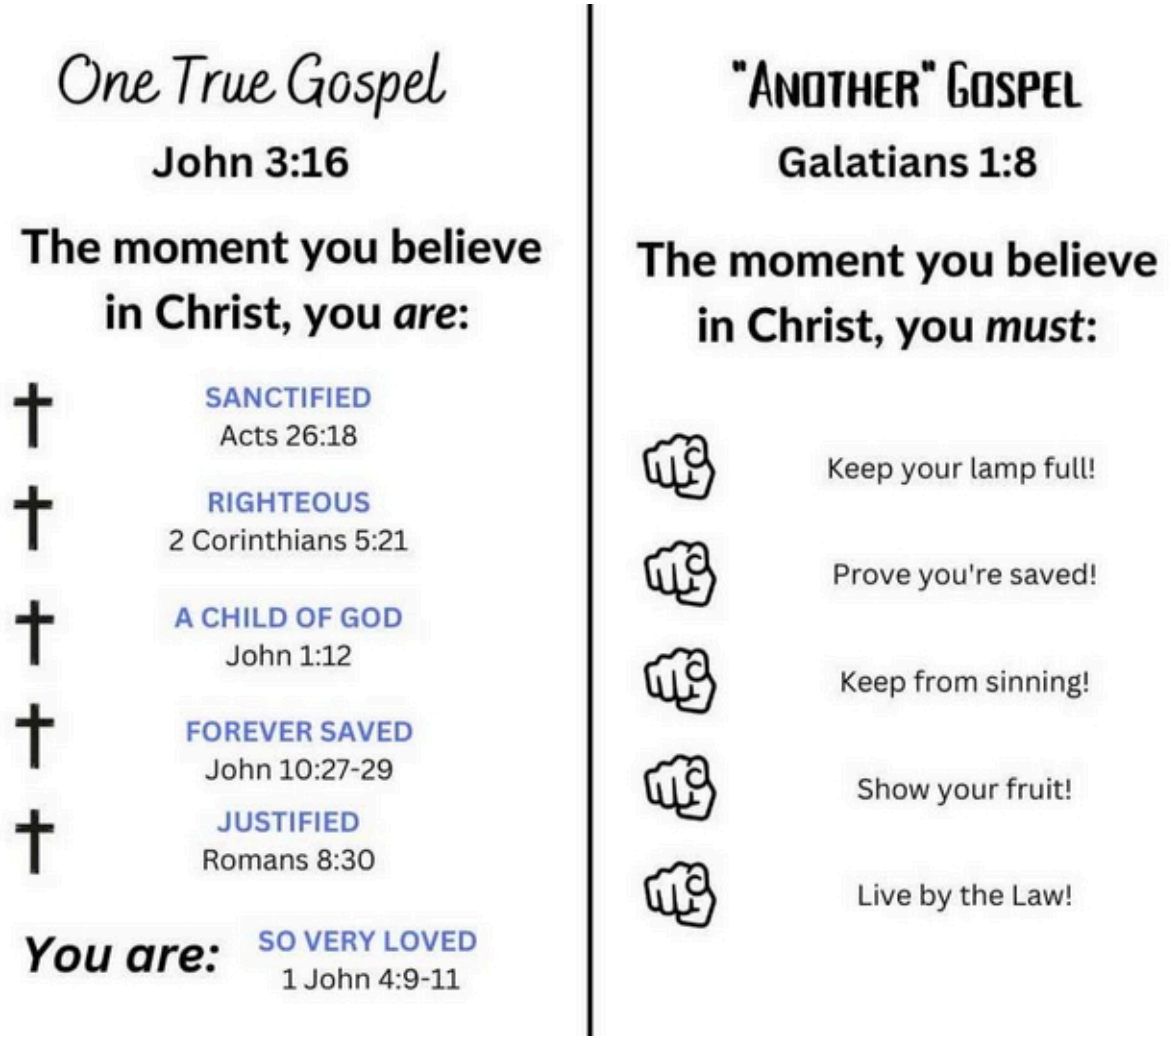
And for that matter, even if you are just thinking outloud and not praying, you still have a legal and biblical right to do so. As a consequence of that horrible injustice in 1999 at the U.S. Postal Training Center in Norman, Oklahoma, I NEVER stepped foot into that hellhole again. I told my boss on Guam that I refused to go, and I didn't go. I refuse to go anywhere that violates my right to free speech and religion. SHAME on the U.S. Postal Service!!!

In the summer of 2009, I was terminated from employment at the U.S. Postal Service, put out of work by their new Employee Reassessment Program, due to a horrible fall at work in 2004 that injured my spinal cord and left me on disability (displaced disks, stenosis and radiculitis). I am very grateful to God for my disability, without which I would be homeless. I tried to continue working for a few years after my injury in 2004, but it progressively got worse to the point that I could no longer function in 2008, because of the intense radiating pain down my arms and legs. The pain is 80 % on my right side, 20 % left. The whole right side of my body feels half asleep all the time. Both of my arms feel like they are inflated with air. I underwent two major neck surgeries. The first in 2009 at Cedars Sinai Hospital in Los Angels, California, which is one of the WORST and ABUSIVE hospitals I've ever been in, but that's another long horror story.

My second surgery was in 2010 in Long Beach, California at the Pacific Hospital Of Long Beach. I had actually flown to San Diego to get the surgery, but it came to light a couple years later that my surgeon had been an accomplice to a criminal outfit, where the hospital was using unapproved illegal surgical hardware to receive kickback money. The OIG (Office of Inspector General) investigated the hospital and dozens of medical staff, surgeons and CEO's were convicted. Some went to prison. I still have the letter from the OIG, explaining what happened. As far as I can tell, the illegal surgical hardware in my neck didn't hurt me in any way (but still remains to be seen in the future). There is so much evil, corruption and tyranny in this world.

Anyway, I mentioned all of this to relate to Billy Sunday's audibly obvious walk with God. Billy Sunday prayed and talked outloud to God everywhere that he went, having no shame or embarrassment over what others might have thought, and I have been doing the same for most of my adult life. Since I live alone (and have since 2006 when my former wife abandoned and divorced me), I need to talk outload to the Lord each day. Everybody needs someone to talk to, even me. Jesus is the only Friend I have when I am alone at home, which is where I am most of the time due to my chronic neck pain and related bodily discomfort. I am often sad, discouraged and depressed from loneliness. I have tried to meet a Christian woman to marry, but haven't found anyone yet.



I almost found a wife on Guam in 2017, but the ungodly senior pastor of Harvest Baptist Church on Guam (Marty Herron) hated me, and refused to allow me to date his employee (their school nurse) that liked me (and I liked her), because I reproved Harvest's incompetent pastors in 2014 for preaching the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation, and for promoting Devil's bibles, and for teaching a perverted meaning of repentance (i.e., the heresy that you must turn away from a sinful lifestyle to get to Heaven). Mr. Herron is now further ruining young people's lives as the incompetent vice president of Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary in Ankeny, Iowa. That ungodly rascal gets paid a much undeserved 6-digit salary.

Marty is a devil, that if I had my way, he would be serving a lengthy prison sentence for his spiritual crimes against God and humanity, and for his cruel abuse toward me as a needy human being. Pastors are destroying America! Jeremiah 12:10, " Many pastors have destroyed my vineyard, they have trodden my portion under foot, they have made my pleasant portion a desolate wilderness. " Jeremiah 23:1, "Woe be unto the pastors that destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture! saith the LORD." Despite my pleas for Pastor Herron's mercy, he cruelly threw me under the bus and left me for dead. God will be His only Judge, and damnation his fate for trusting in a counterfeit gospel. Herron is a graduate of the Bob Jones University cult. [1]Take a look at the Satanic heresy that they and Mr. Herron wickedly preach!!! Here are [2]some backup articles showing BJU's damnable heresy.

Like Billy Sunday, I have taken an uncompromising stand against the corrupt Bob Jones cult, exposing their Satanic Calvinist preaching of Lordship Salvation (which is not the Gospel of free grace). I love this simple but effective chart...

The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST;
a false gospel always points to YOU.

I am no Billy Sunday, and that is not my goal. My sincere goal is to PREACH THE WORD. 2nd Timothy 4:2, " Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine." My goal is to let God's Holy Spirit work through me to help others—to feed Jesus' sheep, to educate and edify believers with THE TRUTH, and to win lost sinners to Christ with a clear presentation of THE GOSPEL.

Dear reader, please never forget:

> There’s a fine line between badass and dumbass.
>
> There’s a fine line between bravery and stupidity.
>
> There’s a fine line between faith and foolishness.

I just had to include those greater words of wisdom...lol.

I just want to let God be a blessing to others, by walking in the Spirit so that God can work through me as His humble servant, and in so doing make an impact for God (Galatians 5:22-25). The greatness of Billy Sunday was that he emptied himself of self, and yielded himself to God’s Holy Spirit. A brilliant quote comes to mind from Pastor Dwight L. Moody:

> “The world has yet to see what God can do with a man fully consecrated to him. By God’s help, I aim to be that man.”

In hindsight, we see the mighty impact that God made upon the world through men like Dwight Moody (1837-1899), Harry Ironside (1876-1951), Billy Sunday (1862-1935) and Jack Hyles (1926-2001). They weren’t perfect men. Their doctrine wasn’t always perfect. They were redeemed sinful men, just like you and me dear friend, but they were yielded to God. May we follow their example, by yielding our spirit, soul and body to be used of God.

These men never sought greatness, but to do the little things greatly. The most important job is the one that doesn’t get done. Dr. Jack Hyles taught me that. If you care dear friend, then YOU WILL be diligent to pay attention to the details. I started doing something 20 years ago. I noticed one day that everyone abbreviates the books of the Holy Bible (e.g., Deut., Psa., Jn.). That bothered me a lot. Does not God’s Word deserve the utmost respect? Yes, it does. Would you abbreviate your mother’s name? Would we refer to President Joe Biden as “JB”? If you do, you shouldn’t.

I have heard new-evangelicals refers to Jesus Christ as “JC.” That is taking the Lord’s name in vain in my humble opinion. Perhaps you think this matter of abbreviating the books and names of the Bible as something small, but it is important to me. Hence, if you read ANY of my articles, blogs and books that I’ve written over the past 21 years of my website ministry for Jesus, you won’t find any abbreviated books of the Bible. I always spell out the whole name of the book, out of respect for the inspired Word of God. There are many little things like that, which I do because I care about the little things, which is a form of greatness.

When I go to any store, I nearly always grab an empty cart in the parking lot to bring with me into the store. I’m going that way anyway. It helps the store. It sets a good example for others to see. Most of all, it keeps me in the humble spirit of living for others instead of myself. When most people think of greatness, they see Jesus feeding the 5,000 hungry people; but God saw the greatness of the little boy who gave up his lunch so that others could eat. Jesus could have just as easily made the food from the dirt of the ground, as he turned the water into desirable quality wine. But the dear Savior chose to use a little boy’s lunch. That is very interesting. Pastor Jack Hyles preached a wonderful sermon based upon this miraculous Bible event, titled: "[4]How Many Loaves Have Ye?"

Lord willing, I am still reading this classic old book about Billy Sunday from 1936, “TWENTY YEARS WITH BILLY SUNDAY,” and plan to write some more articles. Thank you for reading.

4.2.15 The Utter Hypocrisy Of Pensacola Christian College (2023-02-15 11:18)

Psalms 119:104, " Through thy precepts I get understanding: therefore I hate every false way."

Psalms 119:128, " Therefore I esteem all thy precepts concerning all things to be right; and I hate every false way."

It was reported in the news yesterday that Pensacola Christian College (PCC) cancelled The King's Singers, who were scheduled to perform just 2 hours later. The college paid them anyway, which I think was ethical to do. I also think that PCC made the right choice to cancel them. What had happened is that a PCC student did some research on social media, discovering that one of The King's Singers is an active homosexual. He rightly went to tell the college Dean, and the appearance was cancelled. I tried to find out on Duck Duck Go which member of The King's Singers is queer, but couldn't find that disturbing information.

As Christians we ought not bid Godspeed to evil. PCC did the right thing. You can call that " if you want, but the Word of God calls it being faithful. Ephesians 5:11, " And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. " The Greek word for "reprove" here is elencho, which means, " to expose.

" As God's children we are expected by God to reject all sin, hate all evil and depart from iniquity. Homosexuality is a perverse deathstyle that brings shame, misery and disease. The Holy Bible condemns it!

But what really bothers me is the utter hypocrisy at PCC. They knowingly wickedly bid Godspeed to false teachers like [1]Ken Ham, who says that faith is not enough to get to Heaven. PCC also wickedly bids Godspeed to the Bob Jones University (BJU) cult in Greensboro, South Carolina. [2]BJU preaches Calvinism and hardcore Lordship Salvation. BJU also [3]wickedly uses, sells and promotes corruptible seed, that is, the Devil's modern corrupt Bible revisions. Bob Jones University is [4]pulling on the same rope as the Devil.

PCC also hobnobs closely with the [5]ungodly Harvest Baptist Church CULT on Guam, which is a repository of heretical Bob Jones graduates. [6]Harvest is shameful. So PCC leadership is okay with bidding Godspeed to to devil preachers like Ken Ham. PCC leadership is okay with supporting Satanic Calvinism, deadly Lordship Salvation, demonic misunderstood repentance, and Devil's corrupt bible versions; but The King's Singers were banned from singing at PCC because one of their members is allegedly gay. Here is the news story that I found...

Pensacola Christian College cancels The King’s Singers concert over ’lifestyle’ concerns

by WEAR staff
Tuesday, February 14th 2023

PENSACOLA, Fla. — Pensacola Christian College says it cancelled a concert with The King’s Singers this past Saturday after learning "one of the artists openly maintained a lifestyle that contradicts Scripture."

The King’s Singers are a British a cappella group that was scheduled to perform at Pensacola Christian College Saturday night.

The King’s Singers released a statement Monday afternoon, saying the concert was cancelled at "two hours’ notice" due to the "sexuality" of group members.

"The school gave its reason for cancellation as ’concerns’ expressed about the ’lifestyle’ of members of our group," the statement reads. "It has become clear to us, from a flood of correspondence from students and members of the public, that these concerns related to the sexuality of members of our group."

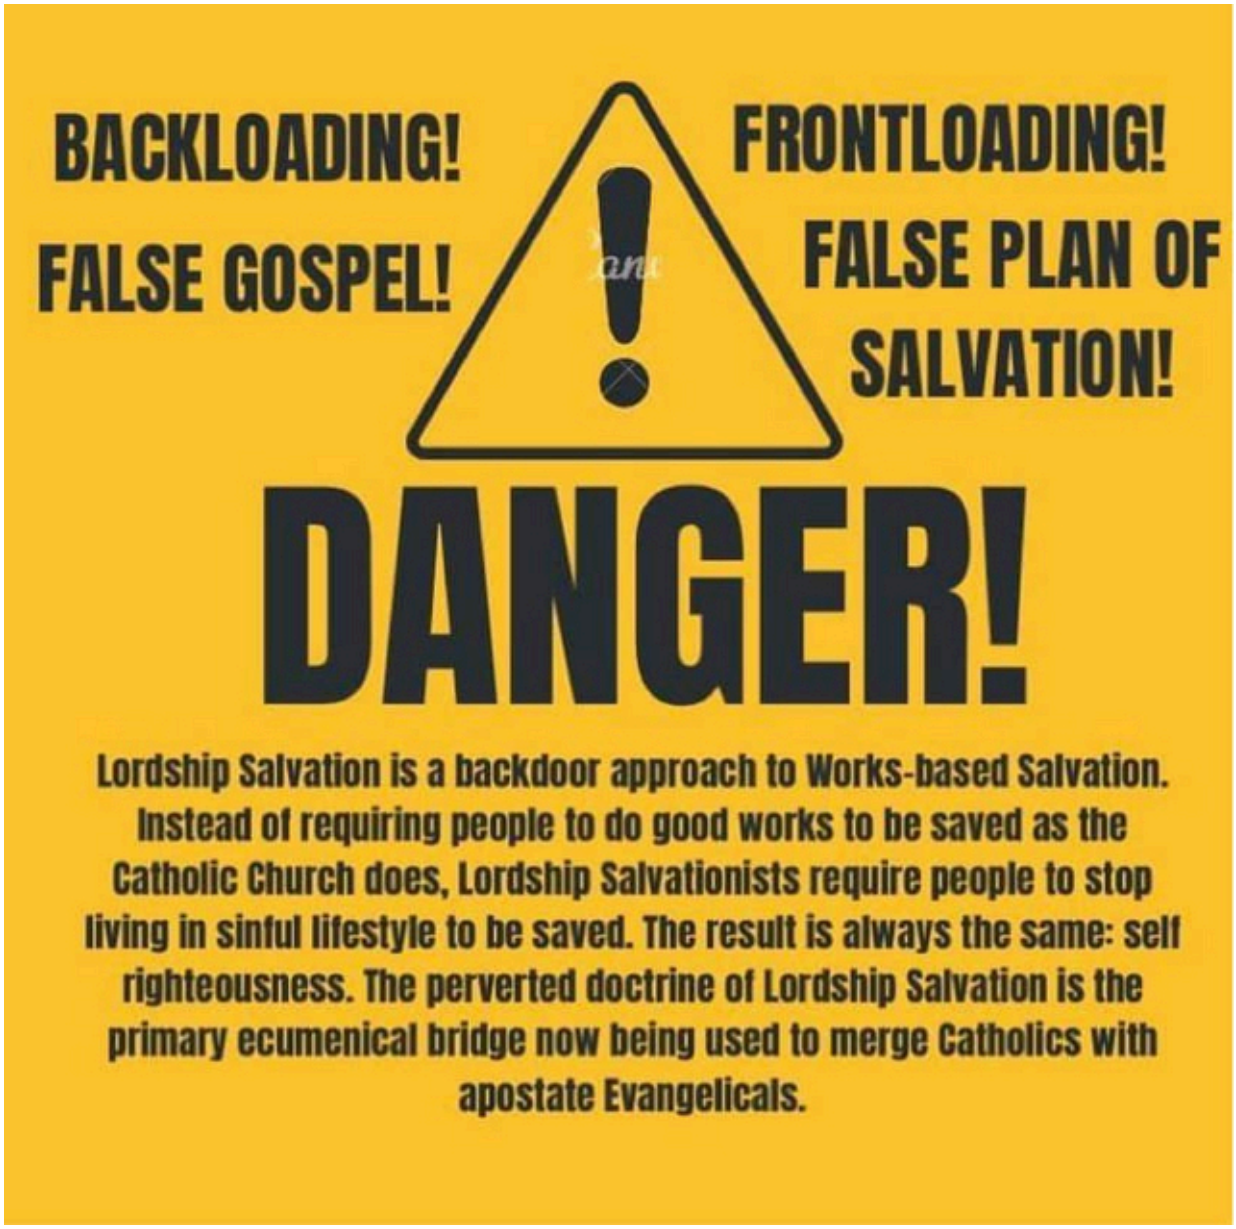
In the statement, The King’s Singers says it has performed at Pensacola Christian College in the past.

> We entered into the engagement in the knowledge that this is a fundamentalist Christian institution. Our belief is that music can build a common language that allows people with different views and perspectives to come together. This is the first time that anything other than bad weather, the pandemic or war has caused a concert cancellation in our 55-year history. We are disappointed not to have been able to share our music and our mission of finding harmony with over 4,000 students of the college and the wider Pensacola community. We hope that any conversations that follow might encourage a greater sense of love, acceptance and inclusion.

Pensacola Christian College released a statement on the cancellation Monday night, saying it could not "knowingly give an implied or direct endorsement of anything that violates the Holy Scripture."

The college also said The King’s Singers "were treated with dignity and respect" when informed of the decision and still compensated despite the cancellation. ...

[7]SOURCE



Why does PCC play God? Why do they have a hypocritical double standard? Why do they support dangerous unbiblical things like Lordship Salvation, Calvinism, Devil’s bibles and wrong repentance? Yet, they throw the gay singer under the bus. Again, I think PC made the right decision to cancel the appearance. The Devil and his children in society today are relentlessly trying to portray the sin of homosexuality as the “norm,” which is anything but normal, it is perversely abnormal and against nature, and a sin (Leviticus 20:13).

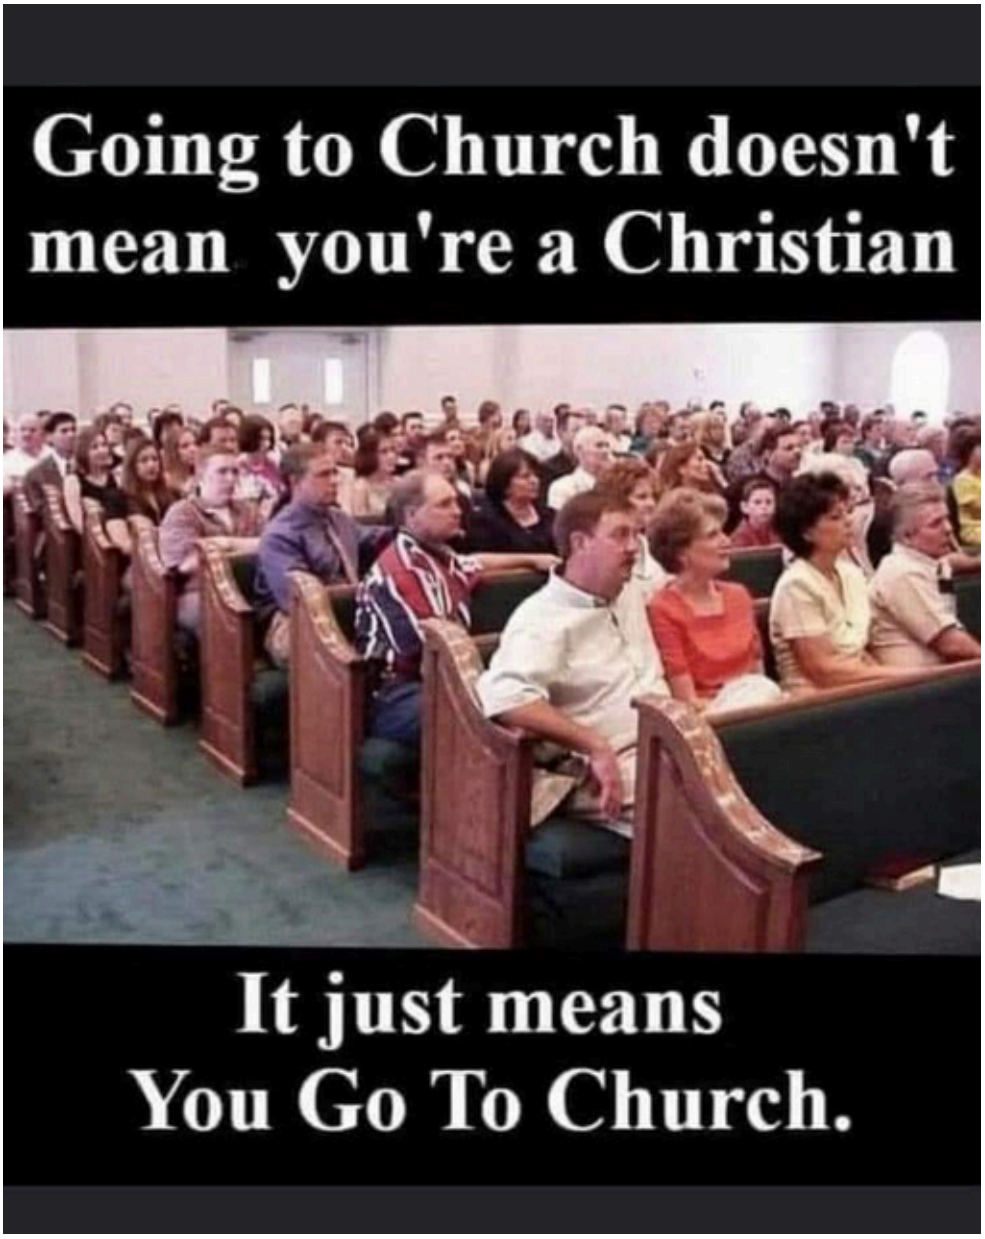
In some of the articles I read about PCC cancelling The King’s Singers (a singing group which began in 1968 in England), they accused PCC of discrimination against the LGBTQ community. This is NOT a legitimate complaint about discrimination. Discrimination is harmful prejudice against someone’s race, color, social status, intelligence, age or gender (things beyond human control); but it does not include immoral behavior (something that is a choice). Homosexuality is A CHOICE!!! Sin is always a choice. No one is born queer. I love all people, including homosexuals, but right is right and wrong is wrong. Homosexuality is just plain WRONG!



It is tragic that the PCC camp hypocritically have a double standard. While they ban sodomites from their college, they invite and praise false prophets who damn men’s souls to Hell forever.

4.2.16 A Wonderful Lesson On Loving People (2023-02-15 20:33)

1st Corinthians 13:1-8, “Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal. And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing.

And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing.

Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not; charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up,

Doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil;

Rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth;

Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

Charity never faileth: but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away.”

I heard a wonderful sermon today at church. I want to share a few of the truths that I learned, exegeting our text passage verse-by-verse. I was hoping that this sermon had been video taped and uploaded to Facebook, but for some reason it wasn’t uploaded this week. So using my notes and less than perfect memory, I will try to convey what I recall. Here goes, verse-by-verse...

Verse One

1st Corinthians 13:1, “ Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal.”

A musical [1]cymbal gets people’s attention. The Bible says that even if our dialect is alluring to others, and our ability to articulate speech is that of angels, it all means nothing if we have not love. Put another way:

“People don’t care what you know, until they know that you care.” That is so true! You may be the most gifted orator on the planet, but if you lack love and compassion for people, you are a mere spectacle.

Verse Two

1st Corinthians 13:2, “ And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing.”

The gift of prophecy means that you are learned and skilled at teaching the prophetic books of the Bible; namely, Psalms, Daniel, Joel, Zechariah, Revelation, et cetera. Some preachers have a keen understanding of the deeper truths of the Word of God; such as, The Rapture, The Godhead, The Seven Seals of Revelation, et cetera. The Bible says that even if we know the Bible inside and out—a theologian—it is worthless IF WE HAVE NOT LOVE.

These are profound statements in the inspired Word of God. Even if we have "this kind" of faith (Matthew 17:21), so that God will move mountains for us, the Apostle Paul emphasizes that it is all for wrought if WE HAVE NOT LOVE. I am nothing.

By God's wondrous grace, I started my website ministry in April of 2022 and have been faithfully working day and night now for the past 21 years. I love the work that I do on my 8 websites. I love writing for my 8 blogs. I enjoy posting helpful truths and information to Facebook, to edify other believers and all my social media friends. I give ALL the credit, praise and glory to God alone, for without Jesus we can do nothing (John 15:5).

Are you starting to understand dear reader how important love is? I have been preaching a lot against Pensacola Christian College (PCC), since they mistreated me in 2021, and then banned me from attending Campus Church anymore, because I criticized them on social media. It didn't matter that I apologized three times in writing, they refused to allow me to come back to church. That is NOT God's love and compassion.

When I started attending Campus Church, I was invited to their Single's Class. So I went. The Sunday School teacher was a younger fella, a PCC graduate on staff, about 30 years of age. I was sickened one Sunday after hearing him say something terrible in class. He said that if you have friends in your life that give you bad vibes, and are difficult and problematic, that you should write them off. He spoke about having a circle of close friends, and not to be hesitant to shut people off who don't enrich your life. I was shocked that PCC would allow such a fool to teach others. Dear reader, that is NOT Bible love!

True Christian living is not loving Jesus, it is loving Judas. Our dear Lord and Savior set the example. Even after Judas betrayed Jesus to death, our blessed Savior called him: "Friend" (Matthew 26:50). Anybody can love those who love us back, and enrich our life; but that is not the test of true love. Matthew 5:46, " For if ye love them which love you, what reward have ye? do not even the publicans the same?" I decided a long time ago that I am going to just love everybody, no matter how unpleasant, mean, smelly, hateful or rotten they are.

I can even love a ridiculously wealthy, arrogant, insensitive, unforgiving pastor like Jeff Redlin, who refuses to allow me to come back to Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College (PCC). I won't stoop to his level. God knows that I regularly pray for the PCC family and Pastor Jeff Redlin. God knows that if Jeff Redlin contacted me, and offered an Olive Branch of friendship (which I have now requested three times but they still refuse), I would gladly bury the hatchet and do whatever they require to make the peace. I CONDITIONALLY offered them my promise to remove all my criticism from social media and not put them back, BUT ONLY IF, they agreed to allow me to come back to Campus Church. Shamefully, they still refuse!

Pastor Jack Hyles said this:

> "The pastors have destroyed the churches, and they've been [2]trained by people that have never built churches, and [3]they have no compassion." —Pastor Jack Hyles: "[4]Many Pastors Have Destroyed My Vineyard"

PCC are a bunch of academics, not church builders, so they woefully lack God's love and compassion for people. You can actually go through all the motions of playing church, and yet not have any love at all for God or people. That is why over 95 % of today's churches are ineffective for reaching the lost with the Gospel. There is no love.

Verse Three

1st Corinthians 13:3, "And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing. "

Wow! Paul says even of you are extremely generous, so that you give away everything that you own to feed the poor, and help the homeless, it means nothing without love. Even if you become a martyr for Christ, sacrificing your body for the cause of Christ, it means nothing WITHOUT LOVE. There is no eternal profit without love. Oh how we woefully lack love in today's churches.

I decided long ago not to get inpatient or upset when I receive bad service. I decided not to lay on the horn in my vehicle when people go slow, cut me off, or do something stupid while driving. I am far from perfect, and on rare occasion I fail at my goals. More times than I can remember, the light turns green and the vehicle in front of me doesn't move. So I just patiently sit there and wait. Even if the light turns red again, I refuse to honk my horn. Why? It is because nearly everybody else lays on the horn, and I hate when they do it. Would Jesus lay on the horn, in a hurry. No, I think not. Part of loving people is empathy. That is, putting our self in their shoes. Do you like when people lay on the horn in anger? I sure don't. So I don't do it. This is The Golden Rule as taught by Christ Himself, to treat others the same way that we want to be treated (Matthew 7:12). That is God's unconditional love.

Verse Four

1st Corinthians 13:4, “Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not; charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up, ”

Love takes a back seat to pride. Love is humble, not seeking attention. Loves chooses to serve, rather than to be served. Love is being happy for someone else’s gain, even when you are suffering a loss. The fact that Pastor Redlin and PCC leadership refuse to have anything to do with me, proves that they lack compassion. PCC didn’t even have the decency to reply to my letter that I mailed to them. Pastor Redlin totally ignored my letters for 6 weeks. The silent treatment is a form of abuse. In frustration I criticized them again on social media, and only then did Jeff Redlin tell me I cannot come back to church.

That is hatred at PCC, not God’s love for people. I want people to know their true colors at PCC, because they are not what they appear to be. PCC are phonies! Everybody has a right to attend church. Sadly, PCC is a religious cult that bans undesirable people. There is no love at PCC. The cult system always comes first, but individual people do not matter at PCC. I say that to their shame. To PROVE my sincerity in the matter, I will make peace with PCC anytime they choose to.

Verse Five

1st Corinthians 13:5, “Doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil; ”

I love this awesome picture, which speaks a thousand words about true love...

True Unconditional Love

Verse Six

1st Corinthians 13:6, “Rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth; ”

I love that. Love rejoices in THE TRUTH. Proverbs 12:17, “ He that speaketh truth sheweth forth righteousness: but a false witness deceit. ” Genuine loves does not rejoice in sin and wickedness. The world has no idea what real love is. The heathen world thinks that love is based on feelings; but true Christian love is a commitment to Christ. If you marry someone and years later all of your feelings for that person is gone, your commitment to Christ will sustain your love for your spouse. In a healthy Christian marriage, each spouse ought to love Jesus more than each other. I treat all people with love, kindness and respect, not because I love them, but because I love God.

Verse Seven

1st Corinthians 13:7, “Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things. ”

Love suffereth long. Love always gives others the benefit of the doubt. Love is not quick to hurt others.

Verse Eight

1st Corinthians 13:8, “Charity never faileth: but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away. ”

Everything in this universe will eventually fade away, even our sun. Nothing lasts forever in this physical world. The unsaved world is constantly seeking for ways to extend their life span. There are now a handful of companies that for payment will [6]freeze dead people in liquid nitrogen, anticipating that in the future science will advance to the extent that scientists will be able to somehow transfer frozen brain memories into new cloned body. The very idea is absurd. Yet, the inspired Word of God promises eternal life to whosoever will BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST (Acts 16:30-31). Yes, you CAN live forever, even in a new glorified body like unto the risen Savior’s glorified body (Philippians 3:21).

In summary, we all need to work on loving people better. When we go into a restaurant and the waitress is less than friendly, instead of complaining about her, I choose to leave a $20 tip (and if I have one with me, a pocket sized Gospel of John, or a Gospel tract). I admit that I horribly fail sometimes. No one among us is a shining example of what a Saint should be. But when I do fail, I make it a point to do much better. 2nd Corinthians 10:6, “ And having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.

I love helping people. Every time that I go to any store, I grab an idle shopping cart left in the parking lot. I figure that I’m going into the store anyway, so why not bring a cart or two with me. I do that to stay in the habit of being thoughtful. And I also do it so cars can see me better, to avoid getting ran over...lol. The world is dying to be loved. May we never forget that the very nature of our holy and faithful God is that: “ God is love.

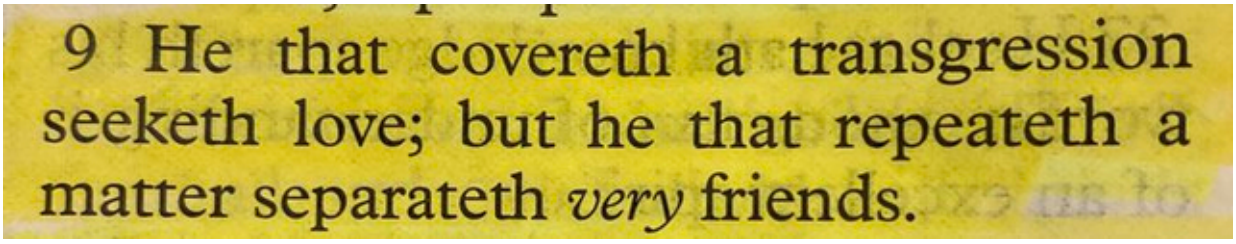
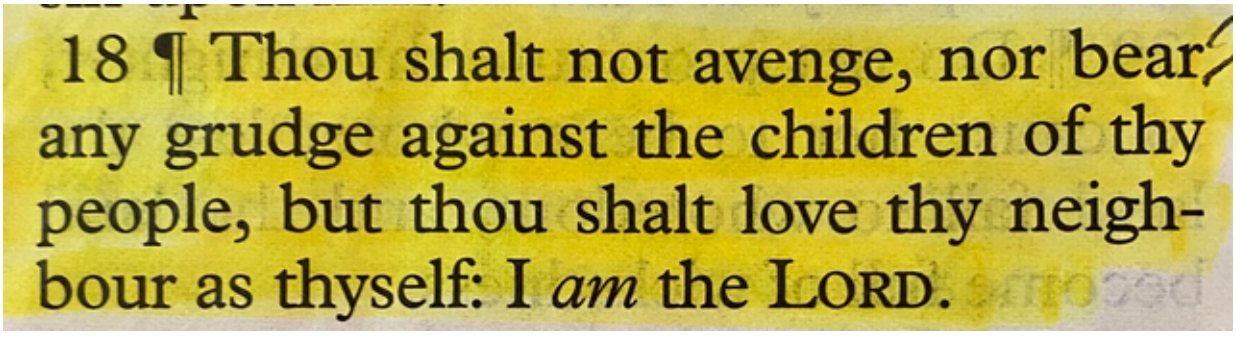
1st John 4:8, “He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is love.) ”

I receive many emails from discouraged saints. When I feel down, I go do something nice for someone else, and I feel on cloud 9. I'm always looking for ways to help people, and to be a blessing. I love what John Wesley (1703-1791) said:



> "Do all the good you can,
> By all the means you can,
> In all the ways you can,
> In all the places you can,
> At all the times you can,
> To all the people you can,
> As long as ever you can."

Yes Sir, I couldn't have said it any better myself.



[7]

6 And this is love, that we walk after his commandments. This is the commandment, That, as ye have heard from the beginning, ye should walk in it.

[8]

9 He that covereth a transgression seeketh love; but he that repeateth a matter separateth very friends.

[9]

18 ¶ Thou shalt not avenge, nor bear any grudge against the children of thy people, but thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself: I am the LORD.

[10]

5 And the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and into the patient waiting for Christ.

[11]

20 If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar: for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God whom he hath not seen?

4.2.17 The Precious PROMISES Of God (2023-02-16 18:18)

2nd Peter 1:4, "Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious PROMISES: that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust."

The great battle of the new millennium is over the Word of God. All across America theological scholars are trying to provide possible solutions to the impossible miracles of God throughout the Bible. I get upset when I hear so-called "scholars" say that the waters in Egypt turned red from a volcano, and the frogs and locusts came upon Egypt because the waters were contaminated from the volcano, and that the fiery hail came from a volcano. What a bunch of horse-manure!

My friend, God is a miracle-working God. Jonah was swallowed by a literal whale. The sun literally stood still for a whole day as the Bible says (Joshua 10:13). Elijah was literally caught up into Heaven by a whirlwind. God literally parted the Red Sea and the Jews walked across on dry ground. According to the intelligencia, the Jews crossed at low-tide. Listen my friend, you either believe in a miracle-working God or you don't. As Christians we "walk by faith, not by sight" (2nd Corinthians 5:7b). Our faith rests secure in the PROMISES of God. There are over 7000 PROMISES from God in the Bible!

The following quote is taken from the Introduction to Dr. Herbert Lockyer's (1886-1984) timeless Christian classic (published in 1962), [1]All The Promises Of The Bible ..

> "It has been computed that there are 30,000 Bible promises. No indication is given as to how this colossal number is reached. Altogether, there are 31,173 verses making up the Bible; 23,214 verses compromising the Old Testament, and 7,959 — the New Testament. Doubtless this total of verses gave rise to the 30,000 — every verse being a promise.
>
> The magazine Time, of Dec. 4, 1956, carried an item to the effect that schoolteacher Everet R. Storms, of Kitchener, Canada, reckoned the 30,000 figure to be off the mark. During his 27th reading of the Bible, this devout student tried to tally up the promises, a task which took him a year and a half. Storms [[2]Everett R. Storms] came up with 7,487 promises by God to man, 2 by God the Father to God the Son, 991 by one man to another (such as the servants who promised to interpret king Nebuchadnezzar's dream), 290 by man to God, 21 promises were made by angels, one by man to an angel, and two were made by an evil spirit to the Lord. Satan made nine, as when he promised the world to Christ if He would fall down and worship him. Storms then gives us the grant total of 8,810 promises.
> Scattered throughout the Bible are hundreds of definite explicit promises forming the category Peter names as "the exceeding great and precious promises" (II Peter 1:4)."

There are in fact [4]31,102 verses in the King James Bible ! I don't know what Bible Dr. Lockyer used (I hope a King James Bible), but nevertheless, many websites are repeating faulty statistics. It could likely be that he relied on faulty data. Nevertheless, the subject at hand is the PROMISES OF GOD... Wow! [5]7,487 promises made by God to man . Isn't God a good God!!! We are so undeserving. God didn't have to make us even one promise, but He did.

No one wants to see us happy and blessed any more than God does (Romans 8:32). It's hard to grasp the reality of God's goodness sometimes in this dark and miserable world of sin. People have waxed worse and worse just as the Bible said. But if we set our affection on things above instead of the things of the earth as Colossians 3:2 commands, then we can have cheer (John 16:33), and joy, and comfort in the PROMISES OF GOD. My friend, we must anchor ourselves to the PROMISES of God to endure these dark times. That's the only way to make it!

Jesus prophesied that in the end times that people would betray and hate one another, turning them over to the Police State to be afflicted (Matthew 24:9-10). We are certainly [6]living in those days now , and it's undoubtedly only going to get much, much worse.

ABC just debuted a New sitcom TV series called [7]'GCB' (Good Christian Bitches). That's the name of the show on regular TV. It's hard to imagine that America has sunk this low in sin. Same-sex marriage became legal in July of 2011 in New York state. In the month to follow, [8]1-in-4 marriages in New York were gay marriages . In the state of Wisconsin there are over [9]13,000 same-sex couples living together according to the 2010 census. Homosexuals nationwide [10]can now legally tie-the-knot and marry in New York . God is not going to bless this ungodly mess we've allowed in America.

Children are being indoctrinated in public schools to come out of the closet that their proudly gay, and to hate those bigoted horrible mean Christians, and how to fist-sex each other [11]by GLSEN in Massachusetts . God promises to punish the wicked in Isaiah 13:11, "And I will punish the world for their evil, and the wicked for their iniquity; and I will cause the arrogancy of the proud to cease, and will lay low the haughtiness of the terrible."

We are living in dark days, evil times of woeful apostasy. It is man's authority verses God's Authority. If you side with men, you will be sorry on Judgment Day, because God's Authority will prevail. You can either build your house upon the sand as foolish men who disregard the Bible do; or you can build your house upon solid ground by obeying the Word of God (Matthew 7:24-27). ...

> Matthew 7:24-27, "Therefore whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man, which BUILT HIS HOUSE UPON A ROCK: And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell not: for it was founded upon a rock. And every one that heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them not, shall be likened unto a foolish man, which BUILT HIS HOUSE UPON THE SAND: And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell: and great was the fall of it.

God has given to us exceedingly great and precious PROMISES..

> 2nd Peter 1:4, "Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious PROMISES: that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust."

What a wonderful God! The power of God rests in the PROMISES of God. The demonic Charismatic Movement, and other apostates in the religious realm today, have taught the masses of humanity to trust in feelings and experiences; and to believe in a false health, wealth, and prosperity gospel of greed. These are of the Devil. The entire platform of New Age doctrine is rooted in feelings and experiences, experiential knowledge; rather than trusting in the character of God Who has given to us exceedingly great and precious PROMISES.

I KNOW I am saved and on my way to Heaven, having "eternal life, which God, that cannot lie, PROMISED before the world began" (Titus 1:2). God promises to save every ungodly sinner who believes on the Lord Jesus Christ. Romans 4:5, "But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness." For those who reject Jesus Christ, the only PROMISE that applies to you is suffering the eternal wrath of an angry God in the flaming fires of Hell (2nd Thessalonians 1:8-9; Revelation 21:8).

The power of God rests in the PROMISES of God. Even eternal life was PROMISED by God before the world began. Amen! Many believers put God on trial, becoming discouraged because God doesn't work in their time, the way they want Him to. Who are we or anyone else to say that it is always God's will for good things to happen, and health to improve, and prosperity to come? The Bible is packed full of real people with real problems, who had real faith in a real God. Don't fall for the fake Pentecostal religion of fruitcakes, twisted tongues-speakers, greedy TV preachers, and fraudulent healing services.

Good is a good God whether we are rich, or whether we are poor. God is still on His throne whether we have a job, or whether we are unemployed. God is still worthy of our praise whether we have good health, or whether we are crippled and suffer in chronic pain every day. God keeps His PROMISES to us, but it's not for us to decide how, when, nor where God works. God ways are not mysterious to God, but to men. ...

> Isaiah 55:8-9, "For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the LORD. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts."

God is the Potter, and we are the clay. Isaiah 64:8, "But now, O LORD, thou art our father; we are the clay, and thou our potter; and we all are the work of thy hand." Oh that men would trust in the Lord and lean not upon their own understanding (Proverb 3:5-7). God knows what He is doing. The unsaved world places God on trial, demanding irrefutable, documentable, incontestable proof that He exists and that the Bible is true; yet those same wicked people unquestioningly accept the bogus theories of Evolution, the scam of Global Warming, and the lies of Satan.

As believers our peace should rest in the PROMISES of God; and not in experiences and feelings that are uncertain, vulnerable, and constantly changing. If you truly live for Jesus Christ, then you will be persecuted in this sin-cursed world (2nd Timothy 3:12). The world will hate you for following Jesus Christ (John 15:19). But Jesus tells us to BE OF GOOD CHEER, because He has risen triumphant! John16:33, "These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but BE OF GOOD CHEER; I have overcome the world."

It is by obeying God's Word that we are able to claim the thousands of exceedingly great and precious PROMISES that God has given to us. This is where our joy and hope rests. Thus, it does not matter how we feel, nor if we see answers to our prayers or not, nor if things are going our way in life or getting worse; what matters is that we trust the HEART of God when we cannot see the HAND of God at work. God is not mentioned even once in the Old Testament book of Esther; yet we see God’s hand of divine providence at work throughout. Amen!

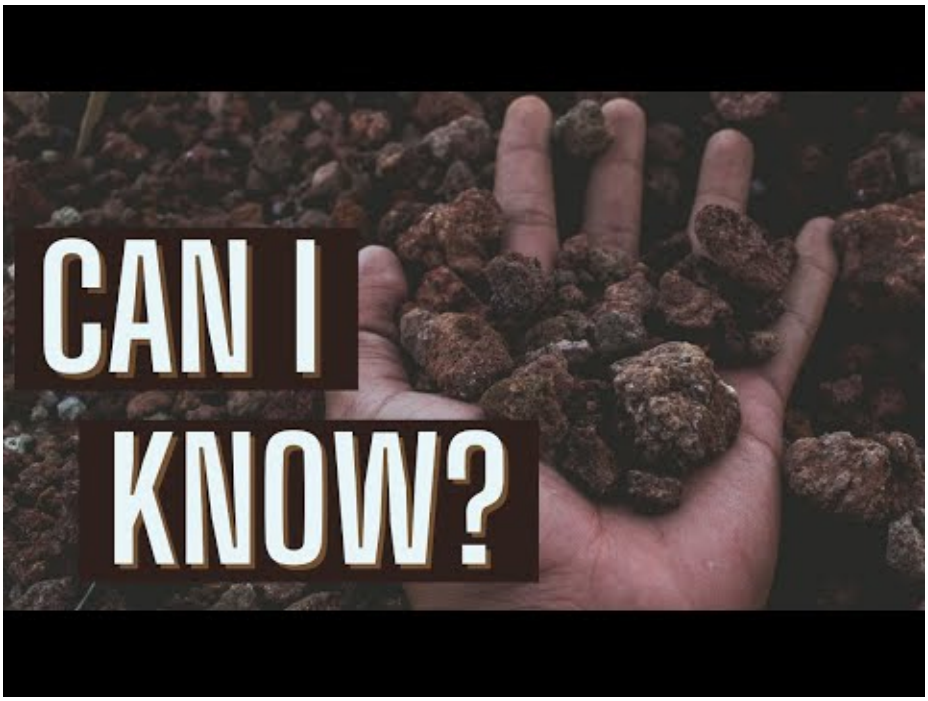
God has PROMISED to guide us throughout life if we’ll “Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths. Be not wise in thine own eyes: fear the LORD, and depart from evil. (Proverb 3:5-7).



In Philippians 4:6-7 God PROMISES to give us peace to keep our hearts and minds in Christ Jesus if we’ll “Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.”

The Roman Catholic Church (which is no church at all) labors in the sinful TRADITIONS of men; instead of resting in the PROMISES of a holy God. A born-again Christian rests in the PROMISES of God for salvation, for guidance in life, for provisions, for comfort, for joy, for peace, for everything that we need. ’Tis grace hath brought me safe thus far, and grace will lead me home.

Wise men still seek Him—Jesus Christ!

4.2.18 Faithful Christians Still Deserve To Go To Hell (2023-02-19 19:33)

Isaiah 64:6, "But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags; and we all do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away."

Philippians 3:9, "

And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith: "

I recently heard someone comment on social media, that Christian believers who aren't faithful to serve God deserve to go to Hell, but they won't because they have eternal security. I kindly replied to her post that even faithful believers still deserve to go to Hell. All humans are bad. There is none that doeth good, no not one. Ecclesiastes 7:20, " For there is not a just man upon earth, that doeth good, and sinneth not. "

One of my favorite sermons by Pastor Jack Hyles is called: "[1]He Died For Your Righteousness Too." Dear reader, I don't care how long you have been saved, or how good of a saint you may think you are, you still deserve to burn in Hell, fire and brimstone for all eternity (and so do I). We are ALL dirty, filthy, guilty sinners.

I have often said truthfully that the ONLY difference between the most noble saint and the vilest wretched criminal upon the face of the earth, is the precious blood of Jesus Christ. Without the blood of Jesus that washes all of our sins away, we are just as ungodly and deserving of Hell in God's sight as Jeffrey Dahmer, John Wayne Gacy and Ted Bundy! You see dear friend, neither you or I have any righteousness to offer God. Isaiah 64:6, "But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags; and we all do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away."

Yes, even our best efforts to please God in our own human righteousness is utter FILTH to God. The "filthy rags" in Isaiah 64:6 actually refers to a woman's rags as pertaining to her unpleasant time of the month. Your self-righteousness does not impress God dear reader.

That is why Jesus said in Matthew 5:20,

"For I say unto you, That except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven." What righteousness did the Scribes and Pharisees have? They had their own self-righteousness. Philippians 3:9, "And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:"

The Scribes and Pharisees had THEIR OWN RIGHTEOUSNESS, which is according to THE LAW. That is, they superficially lived a morally upright life to be seen of men. They lived above reproach, but they couldn't live above sin. NO ONE can live above sin! You may be able to hide your sins from others, but God sees everything. Hebrews 4:13, "Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do." One's SELF righteousness is insufficient to please God. The problem is that no matter how much good we may do, it cannot undo or atone for our past sins. If you have been born-again, then God has erased your criminal record in Heaven. Psalms 103:12, "

As far as the east is from the west, so far hath he removed our transgressions from us.

" But if you have not yet accepted Christ as your personal Savior, then your sins are all recorded against you in God's books (Revelation 20:11-15).

Romans 10:3-4, "

For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God.

For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth.

" I love Romans 10:3-4. Some people errantly claim that Romans chapter 1o has nothing to do with the salvation of the soul; but rather, they ignorantly claim that Romans 10 is about the future salvation of the physical nation of Israel. We know that they are wrong, because as we just read in verses 3 and 4, this passage is plainly speaking about getting born-again by faith in Jesus Christ.

The Jews were “ going about to establish THEIR OWN RIGHEOUSNESS

” [emphasis added]. They hadn’t yet

submitted themselves unto the RIGHTEOUSNESS OF GOD

” [emphasis added]. I absolutely love this precious passage of Scripture. Dear friend, no one is worthy of Heaven. I don’t care how good and righteous you may think you are as a child of God, the ONLY righteousness which you will ever have is GOD’S RIGHTEOUSNESS!!!

4.2.19 God Was Not Directly Judging The People Of Syria And Turkey With Earthquakes (2023-02-19 22:46)

Luke 13:1-5, "There were present at that season some that told him of the Galilaeans, whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices. And Jesus answering said unto them, Suppose ye that these Galilaeans were sinners above all the Galilaeans, because they suffered such things? I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish. Or those eighteen, upon whom the tower in Siloam fell, and slew them, think ye that they were sinners above all men that dwelt in Jerusalem? I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish."

A pastor said this week that the deadly earthquakes in Syria and Turkey were God's judgment upon them, because of the wickedness in those countries. Is that true? Is that biblical? No, I think not. My humble opinion regarding the deadly earthquake in Syria and Turkey (45,000 dead so far) is that, yes, it was God's judgment in the broad sense that we live in a fallen world because of sin in general, but not judgment upon those people in particular. Jesus made this clear in our text Scripture passage from Luke 13:1-5.

As of February 19, 2023 there are 45,000 dead in Syria and Turkey

If God were to judge a city, "SIN CITY" Las Vegas would be smoldering in a heap of fire, rubble and ashes. God destroyed Sodom and other nearby cities in the plains of Sodom, as an example of what will happen to all the wicked. Jude 1:7, "Even as Sodom and Gomorrha, and the cities about them in like manner, giving themselves over to fornication, and going after strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire."

I humbly don't think what just happened to Syria and Turkey is God's direct punishment against them; but rather, is part of living in a fallen world. Why does a drunk driver swerve into oncoming traffic and murder a Christian? Yet, an unsaved atheist has a safe commute to and from work for 30 years? Ecclesiastes 9:11 teaches that "time and chance" happens to all. Ecclesiastes 9:11, “

I returned, and saw under the sun, that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favour to men of skill; but time and chance happeneth to them all.”

Biblically, there is such a thing as "luck."

If a person chooses to build a home near the ocean, as they foolishly did in Galveston, Texas and in New Orleans, Louisiana, it is not God’s judgment when they were submerged a few years later under 20 feet of water. Jesus told the parable of the foolish man who built his house upon the sand.

This week I watched a news interview, with a local architect in Turkey. The reporter asked the man why the 50 buildings that he designed in Turkey are ALL still standing. The architect said that it is as simple as positioning the building’s four main rectangular support beams perpendicular to each other, so that the rocking motion cannot topple the pillars. That was brilliant. The fact of the matter is that all of the buildings that he designed in Turkey are still standing. So the reason why MOST of the buildings crumbled wasn’t God’s judgment, it was incompetent architects, greedy contractors and lackadaisical city building inspectors. God is not to blame for those 7,500 destroyed buildings that collapsed, humans are to blame.

Albeit, we know that everything bad which happens in this world is because of Adam’s sin, and ours also. Romans 5:12, “ Wherefore, as by one man [Adam] sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned: (For until the law sin was in the world: but sin is not imputed when there is no law.” This was the point that Jesus was making in Luke 13:1-5. Since we are all sinners, and we live in a fallen world, DEATH is inescapable. Jesus was warning those people that their turn to die is soon coming, so they had better repent (think differently) to get saved by believing the Gospel.

When dozens of tornadoes set down many years ago in 2008, killing dozens of people across several midwestern states, cartoon evangelist Jack Chick made the absurd claim that God was judging the United States for not helping support Israel more. [2]I wrote this article to refute his Zionist superstition. This is the bizarre Zionist heresy being taught in many Baptist churches today. I am glad that [3]Pastor Anderson exposes the Zionist movement.

I remember when hurricane Katrina hit the New Orleans coast in 2005. Preachers everywhere were calling it God’s judgment on New Orleans because of their annual Mardi Gras. The same with 9/11. Pastors called it God’s judgment upon America. We have since learned that evil men conspired to pull off 9/11, including the Satanic Skull & Bones Bush family. Again, 9/11 was evil men who orchestrated this catastrophe, not God. Christians blame God far too much! It was then President George W. Bush and company who beared false witness against Iraq, and then brutally murdered 1,455,590 innocent people in Iraq. It sickens me.

Just to show you how evil and clever Satan and the Luciferian elite are, I saw a military movie recently about the Iraq war. In the movie, they showed U.S. soldiers finding weapons of mass destruction. As we know, in reality no weapons were ever found in Iraq. So to deceive the American people 20 years later, CIA influenced Hollywood is writing lying fraudulent movie scripts that teach people through movies to believe the big lie. Unreal. The wicked New World Order powers behind the scenes are relentlessly trying to INDOCTRINATE the American people that Iraq had WMDs, to justify the incalculable evil that we did to a sovereign nation. In reality, no WMDs were ever found in Iraq. Those elusive WMDs only exist in Satanic lying Hollywood films. The Devil is the father of all liars (John 8:44).

Years ago an F5 tornado set down in Georgia and killed 7 members of a Baptist church. Was this God's judgment? YES! Not specifically toward those people, but upon mankind in general. That is why we must ALL die, because the wages of sin in death (Romans 6:23). Last month I smashed my finger in the carpet-cleaner that I rented from Lowe's. Ouch! ...

And then a few days later I scratched my right knee while assembling a 7-shelf bookcase that I bought from Walmart...

Ouch! God wasn't judging me, but I suffered such injuries because I am a sinner living in a fallen world. In both instances I got injured because it was my own fault. They were accidents.

Sadly, if the truth be known, I'd dare say that 95 % of man's tragedies are caused by human error, stupidity, pride and the love of money. I like watching [4]Mayday on YouTube, about plane crashes and the NTSB investigations that follow. The one for Guam ([5]Korean flight 801) is heartbreaking, in which 229 people died. There were only 25 survivors. It took rescuers over an hour to reach the victims, as many of them burned to death in jet fuel while waiting for help. So sad.

God wasn't judging them. The pilots messed up. The airport had inoperative equipment because of maintenance that dragged on for 2 months. There was a bunch of problems that contributed to the crash. This is part of living in a fallen world. I have watched a few dozen episodes of Mayday. One big thing that I learned is that 80 % of all plane crashes are due to pilot error. That is scary.

When I was younger I thought everything was God's judgment, but now that I am older I don't think that way anymore. The people in Syria and Turkey KNOW that they live in an earthquake zone. They had a big earthquake in 1999, and vowed that they'd be ready for the next one. Someone dropped the ball.

I remember back in 1980 when a big earthquake hit California. I was shocked that the city's officials were stupid enough to have built double-decker highways. This is what happened, killing many people...

I remember watching the news back then. Doctors were amputating victim's arms and legs to get people freed from the highway that landed on them. It was horrific. Humans cause many of our own disasters and deaths. I'm surprised that I'm still alive...lol. Accidents follow me around...lol. I've broken both arms, got a top fence twist up my chin, busted my head open multiple times (to knock some sense into me...lol), got metal in my eye at work, et cetera. I busted my head open on an ICC bumper on back of a truck at work. Ouch! I got stitches at the hospital.

Anyway, I just wanted to share my humble opinion about the tragic earthquake deaths in Syria and Turkey. My heart goes out to all those families who have lost loved one. Many entire families were killed, buried under rubble. In the book of Acts in the Bible, we read that the believers were first called "Christians" at Antioch, Syria. Acts 11:26, "And when he had found him, he brought him unto Antioch. And it came to pass, that a whole year they assembled themselves with the church, and taught much people. And the disciples were called Christians first in Antioch." The ancient [6]city of Antioch (today called Antakya) was devastated by the recent earthquakes.

Suffering, pain, disease, sickness, death and tragedy will always be a natural part of living in a fallen world. This doesn't mean that people who suffer are worse sinners than others, it just means that we are all vulnerable to time and chance.

I always hear people errantly saying that someone was, "in the wrong place at the wrong time." If you think about that statement, it is IMPOSSIBLE. If you were in the wrong place at the wrong time, you wouldn't be there!

- You can be in the wrong place at the right time.
- You can be in the right place at the wrong time.
- You can be in the right place at the right time.
- But you cannot be in the wrong place at the wrong time.

Unfortunately, those people in Syria and Turkey were in the right place at the wrong time. They lived there. That area was there home. The first earthquake came at about 4 am, while everyone was sleeping. They didn't know what hit them, as the buildings fell upon them.

We live in a fallen world. I think it is cruel and mean to accuse a person, family, group, city or nation of being judged by God when disasters strike, as if we are more righteous than they are. Jesus plainly teaches in Luke 13:1-5 that YOU and I are just as wicked as the next guy. Don't judge others because they sin differently than you do!

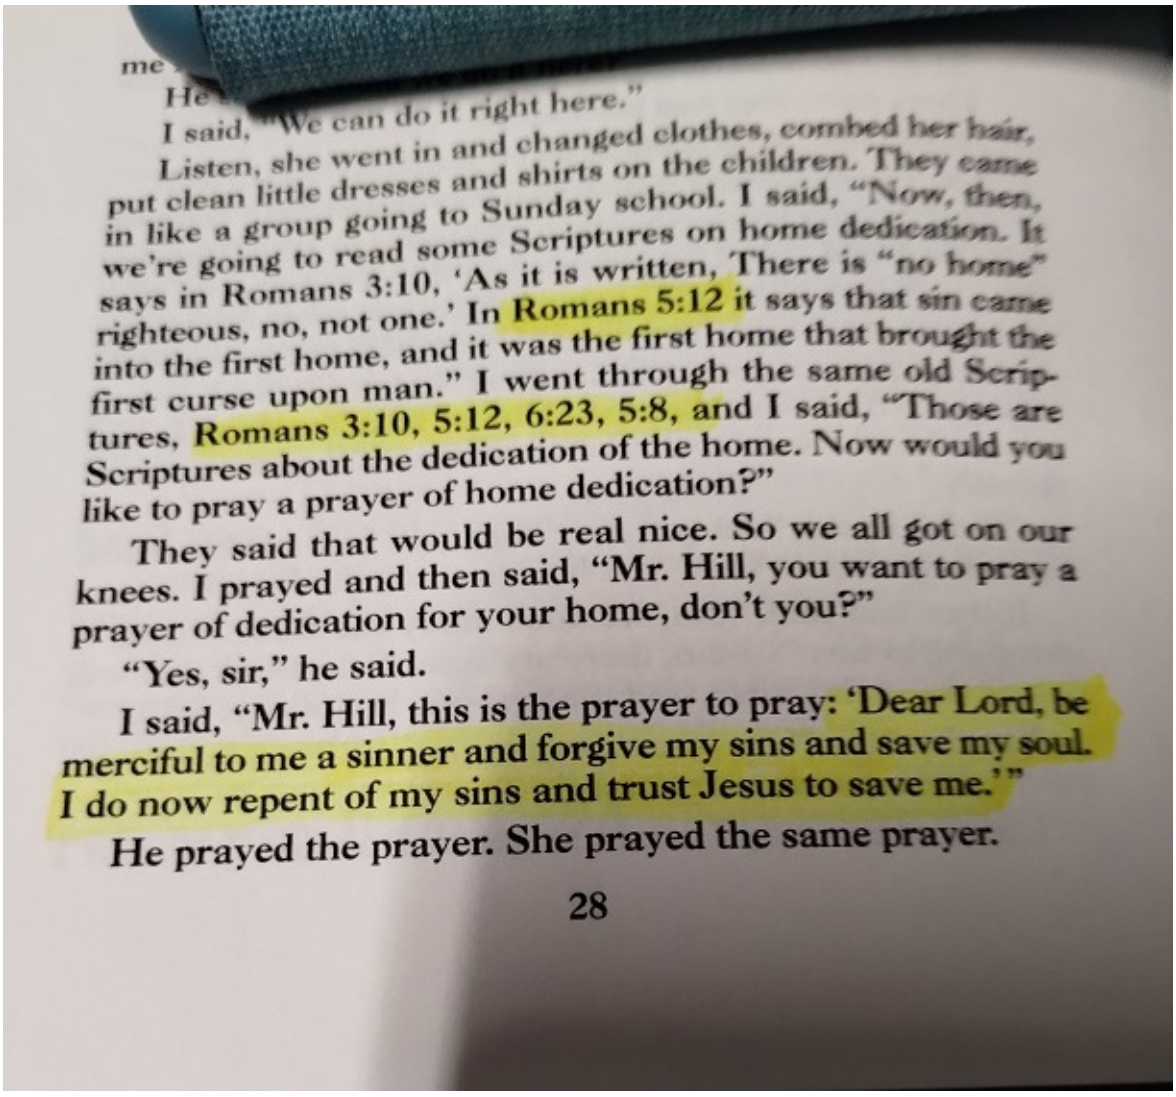
4.2.20 Pastor Jack Hyles' "repent of my sins" Error In His 1962 Book: "Let's Go Soulwinning" (2023-02-20 12:42)



Acts 16:28-32, "But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, Do thyself no harm: for we are all here. Then he called for a light, and sprang in, and came trembling, and fell down before Paul and Silas, And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house. And they spake unto him the word of the Lord, and to all that were in his house."

1st Corinthians 15:1-4, "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:"

Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) wrote his popular book: "Let's Go Soulwinning" back in 1962. Brother Hyles changed some of his doctrinal positions decades later when he grew in knowledge. Here is page 28 from his book, in which he errantly teaches lost sinners to 'repent of my sins' to get to Heaven...

He
I said, "We can do it right here."
Listen, she went in and changed clothes, combed her hair, put clean little dresses and shirts on the children. They came in like a group going to Sunday school. I said, "Now, then, we're going to read some Scriptures on home dedication. It says in Romans 3:10, 'As it is written, There is "no home" righteous, no, not one.' In Romans 5:12 it says that sin came into the first home, and it was the first home that brought the first curse upon man." I went through the same old Scriptures, Romans 3:10, 5:12, 6:23, 5:8, and I said, "Those are Scriptures about the dedication of the home. Now would you like to pray a prayer of home dedication?"

They said that would be real nice. So we all got on our knees. I prayed and then said, "Mr. Hill, you want to pray a prayer of dedication for your home, don't you?"

"Yes, sir," he said.

I said, "Mr. Hill, this is the prayer to pray: 'Dear Lord, be merciful to me a sinner and forgive my sins and save my soul. I do now repent of my sins and trust Jesus to save me.'"

He prayed the prayer. She prayed the same prayer.

Dr. Hyles' Heresy On Repentance in 1962

Biblically, the Bible does not contain the phrases: "repent of my sins" or "turn from your sinful ways." Corrupt preachers added these words. Proverbs 30:5-6,

“Every word of God is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him. Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar.” No doubt, Pastor Hyles was sincere in his words.

Likewise, I was shocked when I discovered [2]some damnable heresy preached by Pastor Danny Castle nearly 40 years ago. Thankfully, today Pastor Castle has changed, and today only preaches a free grace Gospel. Brother Castle no longer preaches damnable heresy. As I said, preachers learn and change, for which I commend them. The same is true of myself. The biggest threat to young preachers today are the apostate Bible colleges, where they are indoctrinated to deny the inspiration of the Holy Bible, wickedly taught a counterfeit gospel of Lordship Salvation, and wickedly brainwashed with a wrong meaning of repentance. Ironically, the greatest threat to a man’s faith is Bible college.

Pastor Hyles stopped teaching that heresy years later. In the following chapter titled: "[3]Misunderstood Repentance," from Pastor Hyles’ 1993 excellent book, "[4]Enemies Of Soul Winning," he boldly exposes the false idea that a person must turn away from sinful behavior to get to Heaven. Here we clearly see that Brother Hyles no longer preached the heresy that he did back in 1962. It is wrong for critics to go around misinterpreting Dr. Hyles, accusing him of preaching heresy, when for the past 30 years of his ministry he preached a true meaning of repentance. People change. [5]Preachers hone their doctrinal knowledge and change. Brother Hyles taught me to always be willing to move to the right, but never to the left. That is, always be willing to admire that you were wrong, and move to a better position; but don’t ever compromise your moral standards or convictions if you know you’re in the right.

Dr. Hyles had three mentors (heroes) of the faith: Lester Roloff (1914-1982), Lee Robertson (1909-2007) and John R. Rice (1895-1980). All of these men were respectively: 14, 17 and 31 years older than Brother Hyles. Dr. John R. Rice rice taught (in his religious tract titled: "[6]What Must I Do To Be Saved?") that a person must turn away from sin with all their heart to be saved. This has confused millions of people. Dr. Rice unwisely chose to use those words "turn away from sin." Albeit, [7]I do know that Dr. Rice was saved, from reading his other writings.

Dr. Rice plainly teaches that the man who BELIEVES has repented...

> There are those hyper-dispensationalists who think that John the Baptist preached a different Gospel from Christ when he commanded repentance (Matt. 3:2). But it is the same repentance Jesus commanded in Matthew 4:17, in Luke 13:3 and 5, and the same repentance that Paul preached in Athens that God “now commandeth all men every where to repent” (Acts 17:30 31). Repentance is not a different plan of salvation from having faith: it is part of the same plan of salvation. Or rather repentance is simply another way of describing or looking at the plan of salvation. One who turns from sin to God has done so by trusting in Jesus Christ. A change of mind toward sin is necessarily involved in saving faith.
> Everyone who genuinely repented under the preaching of John the Baptist put his trust in the Saviour John the Baptist preached, and was regenerated. There is no such thing as being “a disciple of John the Baptist” in any honest sense without being a disciple of Jesus, that is, without trusting Christ for salvation. [emphasis added]

Amen, that is correct! The man who BELIEVES on Jesus Christ has turned from his sins. And that is the ONLY extent to which a man must turn from his sins to be saved, by BELIEVING ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST (Acts 16:30-31). Nothing else is required nor permitted in God's simple plan of salvation.

There is a change of mind toward sin in repentance, but ONLY to the degree that a man acknowledges that he is a guilty needy sinner in the sight of a holy God. Romans 3:19-20 teaches that the LAW of God was given that every mouth would be stopped of self-righteous boasting, and that all the world would become GUILTY BEFORE GOD. Verse 20 says the law as given to humanity to give them THE KNOWLEDGE OF SIN. That is, the law was given to show mankind that we are all desperately wicked and need the Savior, Jesus Christ.

So repentance does in fact involve a change of mind toward sin, but only that we admit we are guilty sinners in need of redemption, lest we receive our just wages in the Lake of Fire for our sins. John 3:20 says that whosoever doeth evil (deliberate sin), refuses to come to the light of the truth of the Gospel to be saved. John 3:21, the next verse, says: "But he that DOETH TRUTH cometh to the light). The Bible didn't say, "But he that turns away from his sins." Repentance is acknowledging THE TRUTH that we are a guilty sinner in God's sight, thus seeing our need, the law then brings us to CHRIST to be saved by grace through faith in Him (Galatians 3:24-26).

> Romans 3:19-22, "Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God. Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin. But now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets; Even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference:"

Boy, I just love those Bible verses! Did you understand Romans 3:19-22 dear reader? All of the Old Testament prophets (including the Jews' greatest prophet, Moses) peached the Bible truth that we are saved by faith alone in the Messiah, the Christ. The imputed righteousness of God is WITHOUT the law! By "law," the Bible is referring to all the laws which Jews were required to keep to please God (there were approximately 720 laws—including moral, ceremonial and civil laws). The Apostle Peter called trying to keep all those Old Testament laws—" a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear? "

(Acts 15:10b). Thank God that His wonderful plan of salvation is WITHOUT the law.

And for that matter, God's plan of salvation has always been WITHOUT the law, even for those Old Testament Jews living in Palestine who were commanded by God to keep the law. What saith the Scripture? Acts 10:43,

"To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins."

Having said that, it is clear to me that John R. Rice was saved. He at times was careless in his words. We read in Acts 15:5 that a certain sect of Pharisees BELIEVED. They were believers. But they told the Gentiles who just got saved that they were required to observe Jewish traditions of circumcision and keeping the law of Moses. The Apostle Peter sets them straight, as well as James later in the chapter (verse 24). Peter tells these confused saved Pharisees that the law was a burden, bondage (slavery) for those who tried to obey it, and couldn't.

Peter teaches that in fact, the Gentiles DON'T have to be circumcised or keep the law of Moses. It is clear to me that the false teachers in Acts 15:1 were not saved at all, because they required words to be saved. But the saved group of Pharisees in Acts 15:5 were just confused, and needed to be corrected in their doctrine.

So, likewise, Dr. Rice needed to be corrected in his doctrine, which unfortunately doesn't seem to have happened.

Dr. Rice is still one of the most widely recognized scholars of his generation, but he was still just a flawed man, fully capable of doctrinal error, and he would have bene the first to admit so.

The phrase "repent of your sins" in itself doesn't make a man unsaved. I don't think that a preacher should use those words, since they are nowhere found in the inspired Holy Bible. [8]Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) addresses this very phrase, "repent of your sins," explaining that it all depends on what the speaker means by using the phrase. If the preacher means to forsake your sinning, then he is a damnable liar and false prophet; but if he means that you must realize you are a guilty sinner condemned under God's law, then I agree.

Dr. Rice meant the latter, which is evident from the earlier quote I shared with you. And because Dr. Rice was one of Pastor Jack Hyles' mentors, and Dr. Hyles preached 2,200 revival meetings together with Dr. Rice over a 20 year period, Dr. Hyles picked up on things that John R. Rice said from the pulpit (and vise versa). So this, in my humble opinion, is what happened. But, as I have shown you, Dr. Hyles was one of the biggest opponents of the heresy that a person must " turn away from their sinful ways to be saved.

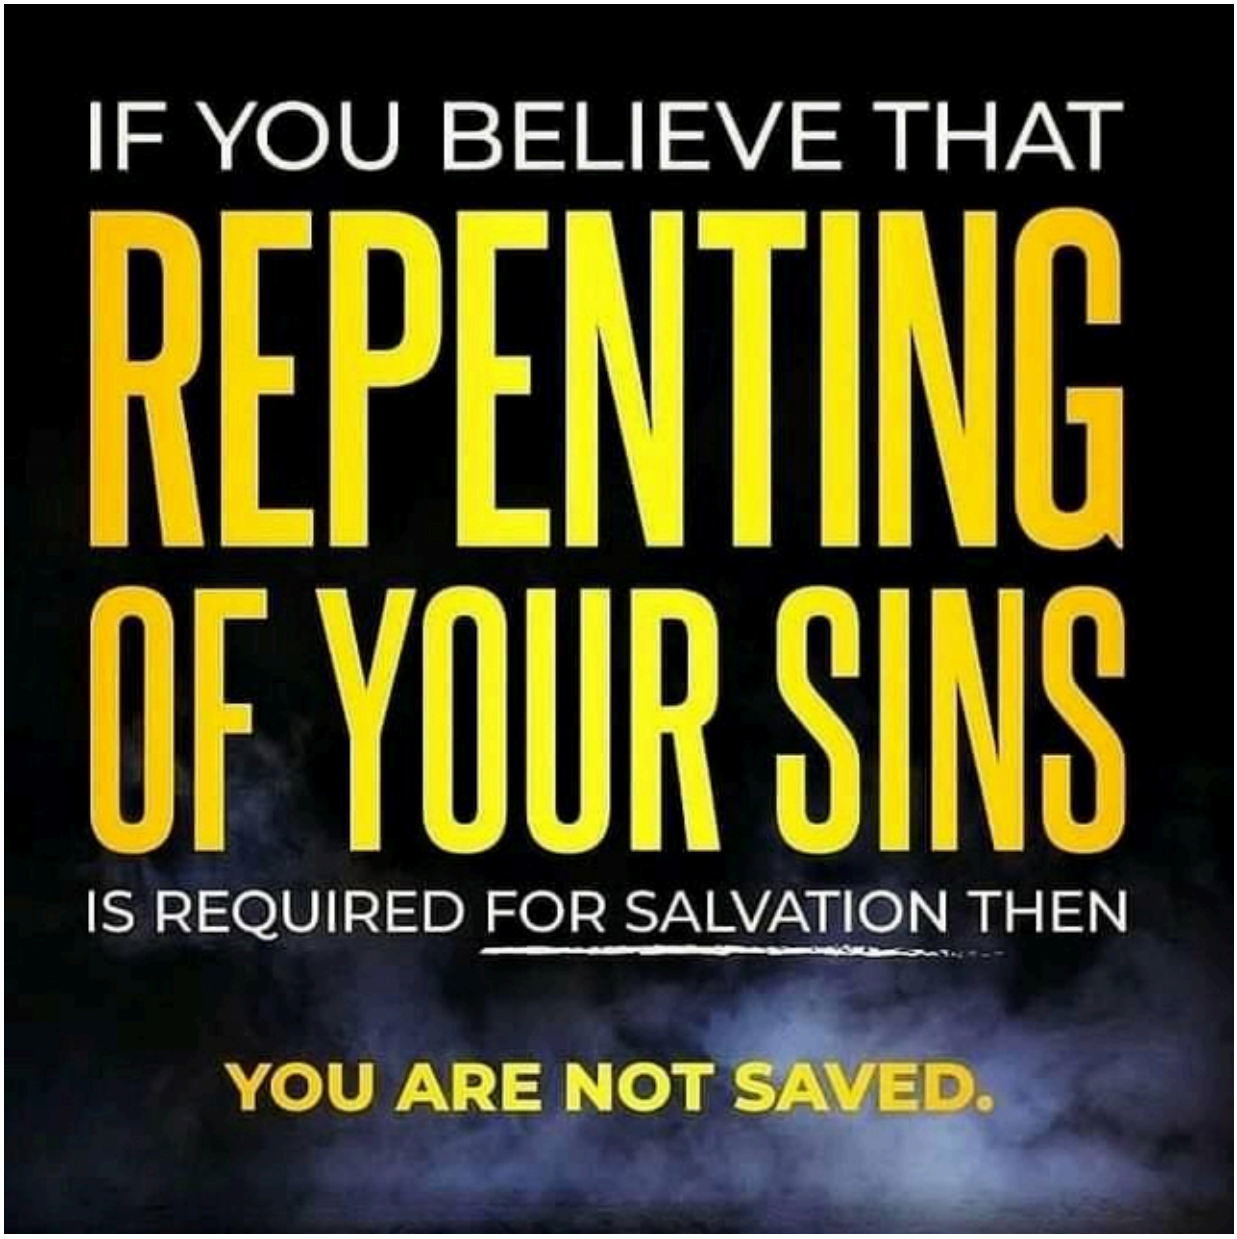
Dr. Hyles considered it an enemy of soulwinning, because you cannot get saved that way. That is, by trying to give up your sinning. That is a false gospel. Turning from your evil ways is WORKS! Jonah 3:10,

" And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not." The people of Nineveh didn't get saved, but because they turned away from their evil ways God changed His mind about destroying Nineveh (the capital city of Assyria).

Dr. Rice's use of the phrase "turn from your sin" in itself doesn't mean that he wasn't saved. As I mentioned, it depends on what he meant by the phrase. As we learned from the preceding quotes, Brother Rice didn't believe that repentance means to forsake a lifestyle of sinning, which would be WORKS. In my humble opinion, Dr. Rice foolishly chose his words, as ALL preachers do from time to time, including myself.

What bothers me is that the internet is full of critics, who have never preached a single sermon, never shared the Gospel with one lost person, never built a hotdog stand; yet they will scrutinize and teardown every preacher they possibly can, cherry picking single statements without doing their homework to see what the man really believes.



I know for a fact that John R. Rice and Jack Hyles believed that the man who believes has also repented. These faithful men of God didn't view repentance as something separate from faith that you must do. [9]Check out this religious infidel, Ray Comfort, who teaches that repentance is something entirely different from faith that a person must do, which is blasphemy against the Word of God.

You'll never read any place where I tell people to "repent of your sins" or to "turn away from your sinful ways" to be saved, because those statements utterly confuse people. Dr. Hyles is right—the only sin that we literally need to turn away from to get to Heaven is UNBELIEF, because unbelief is the only sin which can keep a person from entering into Heaven. Every preacher must choose his words very carefully, lest they be misconstrued and misinterpreted by the audience. This has never been more apparent than in our generation today, where the masses hinge upon every word from preacher's mouths. The inspired Word of God should be our only authority, and we should be diligent to rightly divide the Word of Truth.

The bottom line is that nowhere in the inspired Holy Bible do we find the phrases "repent of your sins" or "turn away from your sins." Preachers who choose to use these unbiblical phrases, do their victims an injustice by confusing them, leaving them wondering what it means to repent of your sins. Obviously that phrase means different things to different people. I encourage you to read our text passages again, so you can see God's simple plan of salvation...

> Acts 16:28-32, "But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, Do thyself no harm: for we are all here. Then he called for a light, and sprang in, and came trembling, and fell down before Paul and Silas, And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house. And they spake unto him the word of the Lord, and to all that were in his house."
> 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:"

God's simple plan of salvation, is that you acknowledge before a holy God that you are a guilty needy sinner, and by childlike faith receive Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, believing that He was buried, but then raised up from the dead three days later. If that is your only hope for Heaven, you are saved dear friend. You don't have to give up your sinning to be saved; God sent His only begotten Son into the world to die on a cross to pay for your sins. Who can give up their sinning? That's right, no one! Eternal life is a free gift from God, which Jesus has already paid for with His precious blood.

Matthew 15:7-9,

Ye hypocrites, well did Esaias prophesy of you, saying, This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips; but their heart is far from me.

But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.

2nd Timothy 4:2-4,

Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine. For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears;

And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables.

It was reported in this news this week that a religious event took place in Wilmore, Kentucky at [1]Asbury University, a non-denominational religious college founded in 1890 which was originally called the, “[2]Kentucky Holiness Movement.” The group is closely aligned theologically with the [3]Wesleyan-Holiness Movement, a Lordship Salvation cult which errantly teaches that Christians can attain sinless perfection in this earthly lifetime.

According to John Wesley’s perverse theology, you are not saved unless you are walking in holiness. That is totally unbiblical. What saith the Scripture? Romans 7:14, “

For we know that the law is spiritual: but I am carnal, sold under sin.

” The Apostle Paul said those sobering words, calling himself

“carnal.” Even the best saint is still a sinner who struggles with the fleshly nature (Romans 7:14-25). Here is some news from INSIDER about the Asbury event...

> A Christian college in Kentucky went viral on TikTok as students worshipped for days on end.

The spontaneous event drew in huge crowds who heard about it through social media.

The university is now dispersing crowds to other venues due to the overwhelming attendance.

A spontaneous Christian worship event at a small college in Kentucky is being dispersed after it went viral on TikTok and crowds in their thousands got too large for townspeople to handle, according to its principle.

On February 8, students at Asbury University, a private Christian college in Wilmore, Kentucky, gathered for a regular, scheduled chapel service but ended up staying in the auditorium for days on end, in what staff say has been a completely unplanned act of 24/7 group prayer.

Videos taken by those in attendance were posted on TikTok, where they went viral, with many labeling the event a [5]revival — a religious service that can stretch for a prolonged period and intends to revitalize the spiritual life of its members and attract new ones.

The hashtag [6] #asburyrevival has 77.9 million views, and videos show [7]huge [8]crowds gathered outside the university’s Hughes Auditorium building, as well as [9]vast [10]numbers of people singing Christian songs inside.

A large number of captions on the videos, some of which appear to have been posted by attendees and others which have been reposted and reshared by other users, [11]point [12]to [13]the [14]fact that many people in the crowds look young, despite reports which [15]suggest that those belonging to Generation Z are less likely to participate in religious institutions in comparison to older people.

One creator addressed the idea that Gen Z is "leaving the church" in a caption [16]under a video of the service, writing, "We are leaving spaces where God is not free to move. We have an urgency to pursue what is real and true. We don’t want a performance. We want the authentic presence of God."

[17]@unapologetic.ally “Generation Z is leaving the church” No. We are leaving religion. We are leaving spaces where God is not free to move. We have an urgency to pursue what is real and true. We don’t want a performance. We want the authentic presence of God. These are the moments I could dwell in forever. This is just the beginning of what is to come. [25]Local CBS affiliate WKYT-TV reported that tens of thousands of visitors have been drawn into Wilmore, which has a population of just over 6,000 people, at various points across the event, which has now been going on for 13 days.

> "It has absolutely been social media that is the mechanism that people found out about this," Mark Whitworth, Asbury University's vice president of communications, [26]told NBC.
> In a video statement shared on February 19 to the Asbury University [27]website, Dr. Kevin J. Brown, the university's principal, said that crowds at the event had gotten so big that school staff and town officials no longer had the resources to accommodate everyone, adding that local authorities had been called upon to redirect traffic away from the town.

My humbly thoughts about this social event is that it is more typical neo-evangelical, shallow, wishy-washy, garbage. The town of Wilmore only has 6,000 residents, but 15,000 people attended the Asbury worship event. Dear reader, where was the Gospel? No Gospel was preached to those 15,000 attendees.

I noticed the following disturbing TikTok comment (by a participant of the Asbury event) mentioned on INSIDER'S webpage...

Several years ago I did much research into the beliefs of occultists' Madame Helena Blavatsky (1831-1891) and her ungodly protégé Alice Bailey (1880-1949). I was shocked by what I learned. Alice Bailey authored a book detailing the Luciferian plot to achieve a New World Order. She called her plot the "[32]Externalisation Of The Hierarchy."

The following shocking quote from Alice Bailey ought to alarm every born-again Christian in the world. I'll explain the Satanic meaning and dark agendas set forth by Miss Bailey after you read this disturbing quote...

> "The Christian church in its many branches can serve as a St. John the Baptist, as a voice crying in the wilderness, and as a nucleus through which world illumination may be accomplished. I indicate the hope. I do not assert a fact. Its work is intended to be the holding of a broad platform. The church must show a wide tolerance, and teach no revolutionary doctrines or cling to any reactionary ideas. The church as a teaching factor should take the great basic doctrines and (shattering the old forms in which they are expressed and held) show their true and inner spiritual significance. The prime work of the church is to teach, and teach ceaselessly, preserving the outer appearance in order to reach the many who are accustomed to church usages. Teachers must be trained; Bible knowledge must be spread; the sacraments must be mystically interpreted, and the power of the church to heal must be demonstrated.

...There is no question therefore that the work to be done in familiarising the general public with the nature of the Mysteries is of paramount importance at this time. These Mysteries will be restored to outer expression through the medium of the Church and the Masonic Fraternity, if those groups leave off being organisations with material purpose, and become organisms with living objectives." [emphasis added]

SOURCE: Alice Bailey, '[33]The Externalisation Of The Hierarchy,' pp. 510, 514

Whoa! Did you understand that? Alice Bailey taught her Luciferian followers (Theosophists), that a New World Order could be advanced by infiltrating and corrupting local churches. She taught her followers to infiltrate and corrupt churches, by maintaining the superficial outer shell (core beliefs) of the church (just to keep up appearances), but then actually teach new age philosophies from the pulpit to convert the congregation to support New World Order ideologies. We see this happening today with the invasion of Devil's Bible revisions, which brutally attack the deity of Jesus, obliterate the Godhead (Trinity), and pervert the true meaning of Bible repentance to be saved. We see this Satanic corruption of the churches by their unbiblical support of manmade Israel (Zionism).

Miss Bailey further stated in her writings that, "t he church must show a wide tolerance, and teach no revolutionary doctrines or cling to any reactionary ideas.

" We see this happening everywhere today. Basically, Alice Bailey was teaching that we must not have pastors like Steven L. Anderson of the Faithful Word Baptist Church in Tempe, Arizona (who is about as radical in his preaching as a preacher can get, for which I love the man dearly). Miss Bailey taught that churches should become Caspar Milquetoast, mundane, wishy-washy, lukewarm if you will; but not dynamic, Holy Spirit-filled and aggressive to preach THE TRUTH of God's Word.

Alice Bailey's demonic goal is to influence the churches to abandon irrefutable Bible theology, and replace it with ambiguous spirituality. She wanted tomorrow's youth to abandon organized religion, and instead pursue personal spiritual experiences. You see, when the Man of Sin (the Antichrist) comes, he will be a spiritual leader, worshipping " the god of forces

" (Daniel 11:38b). In the previous quote which I shared with you from a TikTok youth, he or she even mentions forsaking religion to pursue something true and pure. Seeking God without theology (i.e., without the inspired Holy Bible), is like trying to drive a car blindfolded.

Let's break the preceding quote from Alice Bailey down into a few points, and examine it in light of the inspired Word of God:

1. Apostate Churches Will Be The Nucleus Through Which The New World Order Is Implemented. Bailey says that modern apostate churches can be just as influential as John the Baptist, who prepared the way for the first appearing of the Lord Jesus Christ. Shockingly, Bailey is teaching that the churches can be infiltrated and corrupted so that they actually help prepare for the coming of the Antichrist. Wow! Apostate Rick Warren (who has a personal net worth of $25,000,000) has been dubbed as "America's Pastor," yet he has relentlessly promoted "[34]Chrislam" (Christianity sinfully yoked together with Islam), and has [35]called for all Christians to submit to the Catholic Pope. In essence, and I say this kindly, Pastor Warren is "America's Bastard" (meaning illegitimate). [36]Illuminati Puppet, Pastor Rick Warren, Calls Jesuit Pedophile Devil Pope Francis, "OUR POPE"! What a fraud! Please watch the video titled: [37]Rick Warren Exposed: Roman Catholic End Time Deception! If you understand what Alice Bailey is saying in the previous quote, you can clearly see how the Devil is using Pastor Warren to reform and corrupt the churches with New World Order philosophies. Warren claims that his book on "The Purpose Driven Life" is second in sales only to the King James Bible itself. I don't know if that's true, but that's what he claims. Warren said his book has been translated into 159 different languages. That is sad and tragic, because his book is a blueprint for Alice Bailey's New World Order.

2. These Churches Will Be Ecumenical, Soft-On-Sin, Non-Controversial And Doctrinally Deficient. Bailey states: "The church must show a wide tolerance, and teach no revolutionary doctrines or cling to any reactionary ideas." This defines Rick Warren's ecumenical compromise and shameful teachings. Warren's wishy-washy! Alice Bailey said the churches must refrain from being controversial, by becoming widely "tolerant." Now you know why in March of 2015, [38]20,562 Presbyterian ministers sinfully embraced same-sex marriages in 10,083 churches!!! WOE UNTO THOSE CHURCHES!!! The dictionary defines the word "reactionary" as "extremely conservative." No wonder Rick Warren flip-flops on the issue of homosexuality, apologetically expressing his lame beliefs, telling everyone that he has many gay friends. The word "revolutionary" means "radical." Bailey said the churches must not teach radical doctrines, such as the truth that salvation is by faith alone!!! The churches are infected today with the false doctrine that a person must forsake a sinful life to be saved, which is 100 % works salvation. Reformation is not a requirement for regeneration!!! Amen! Warren is an unsaved spiritual destitute man, who [39]teaches the Lordship Salvation heresy (.pdf book), pulling on the same rope as the Devil. God deliver us from this evil generation!!! Bailey's plan for the New World Order is being successfully implemented, and the average church leader is woefully ignorant of these things. By God's grace, I am trying to wake you up!!! Here's a video clip of reprobate Rick Warren saying concerning Roman Catholics, "[40]If you love Jesus, we're on the same team." No, Catholics are on their way to a burning Hell in their sacramental salvation!!! Salvation is by faith, not human effort.

3. These Churches Will Transform Biblical Theology Into Religious Spirituality. Bailey says, "The church as a teaching factor should take the great basic doctrines and (shattering the old forms in which they are expressed and held) show their true and inner spiritual significance." Whoa! Alice Bailey said that to usher in the New World Order, the churches should change the fundamental doctrines of Christianity into religious forms that put forth New World Order philosophies instead. This is why many churches today are teaching spirituality without Biblical doctrinal soundness and truth. This is why the senior pastor ([41]Miss Gretta Vosper) of the West Hill United Church in Toronto, Canada is a devout atheist!!! She says it's more important how we treat each other than what we believe. In April of 2014, Melanie Johnson-Debaufre of United Methodist Drew University Theological School and Robert J. Miller of Juniata College appeared as part of the Jesus Seminar on the Road program. These two liberal theologians spoke at the United Methodist Church in Washington DC, presenting their argument why Jesus DIDN'T bodily raise up from the dead. Literally, the Methodist church [42]advertised and held a Resurrection-Denying Seminar!!! This is The Emerging Church today, the fulfillment of Alice Bailey's sinister plot to infiltrate the churches and exploit them to achieve a New World Order. I wish I could shake every fool-headed pastor, and wake him up to the horrifying reality that [43]Luciferian-worshipping occultists are behind all modern counterfeit Bible versions!!! Satan is using the new corrupt Bible versions to corrupt and change the churches, transforming them from Biblical churches into Satanic false churches. Please watch the 1:46 hour documentary on the attack against the Word of God, [44]Illuminati Plans 2016: The End Of The World.

4. These Churches Will Have A Superficial Outer Shell, But Lack True Biblical Christianity. Alice Bailey said, "The prime work of the church is to teach, and teach ceaselessly, preserving the outer appearance in order to reach the many who are accustomed to church usages." Do you see how evil this reprobate woman was? Bailey is teaching that the church is to be exploited, as a whore, to deceive the masses of society. As you just read in her shocking sinister quote, Bailey says that in order to maintain the illusion of a real church (i.e., preserving the outer appearance), there should be a continuous flow of information. Now you know why these Satanic ministers always have another New York Times Best-Seller being sold in your nearest bookstore. The purpose of the New Testament Church is not to incessantly teach as Bailey claims; but rather, the Church is the Christian's spiritual family. Church is where we hear preaching to mature in the Lord, get comfort, receive encouragement, tithe and go soul-winning. Church is where we exalt the Savior, evangelize the sinner and edify the saints!!! Please read from the awesome, doctrinally sound book, [45]The Purpose Of Going To Church (by Pastor Jack Hyles, 1926-2001). If your church doesn't have strong-preaching against sin, you're in a sick church! If your church doesn't go soul-winning, your in a sick church! If your church uses modern corrupt Bible versions, and teaches the heresy of Lordship Salvation, your in a religious cult!!! Alice Bailey said that apostate churches should PRESERVE "the outer appearance IN ORDER TO REACH [DECEIVE] THE MANY who are accustomed to church usages." In other words, make it look like a church, but it's not a real church!!!

My friend, what you just read by Alice Bailey is a manual on how to infiltrate, corrupt and destroy the churches! It is happening now!!! Our churches are in ruins. Evangelist Billy Sunday saw this horrifying trend a century ago in 1914...

> "It would be a godsend if the Church would suffer persecution today; she hasn't suffered it for hundreds of years. She is growing rich and lagging behind. Going back." Billy Sunday, 'The Need for Revivals,' from "Billy Sunday: The Man and His Message," by biographer William T. Ellis; Philadelphia: John C. Winston Co., 1914

My humble opinion of the Asbury event is that it was not initiated by God. No Gospel was preached. There was no contending for the faith. There was no Bible preaching against sin. There was no one saved. There was only religious hysteria. Communist Karl Marx said that r eligion is the opiate of the people.

Marx calls religion "das Opium des Volkes" [the people's opium] (Marx: 1976, p. 378) because he sees religion as a means to escape the misery of the world. The people need this opium, that it gives itself, because the individual human lacks awareness and coping mechanisms for the world's lack.

I humbly don’t see that any edifying spiritual significance resulted from the recent Asbury event. Purportedly, 15,000 people descended upon Wilmore, Kentucky to partake of a spiritual experience, a so-called “spiritual awakening.

Isn’t this why 50,000 people attend a music concert? The Guinness World Book Of Records confirms that singer Rod Stewart (on December 31, 1994) drew the biggest crowd in history, an astounding 4,200,000 people to a rock concert at Copacabana Beach, Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. Rod is my older brother! Just kidding, or am I? I don’t know if Rod is related to me, but we both have the same last name. I love my last name, Stewart .

Anyway, my point is that people are drawn to sensationalism, to advertised events. What happened at Asbury University was not a revival wrought by God, it was an event hosted by religious proselytes. Since the Gospel wasn’t preached, sin wasn’t exposed, and nobody got born-again, I see no reason to honor this event as something initiated by the Holy Spirit. As far as I’m concerned, it was a publicity stunt by Asbury University to boost attendance next year.

I am surprised how many religious people lend credence to this religious hoax! So what that a bunch of religious people from nearby towns and cities flocked to Wilmore, Kentucky to worship God. Big deal! James 2:19, “

Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: the devils also believe, and tremble. ” Even the fallen angels believe in God. Sure evidence that an event is NOT of God is anything that is vague, wishy-washy, ambiguous, not clearly defined what they believe, neo-evangelical and ecumenical (multi denominational gatherings).

The Asbury event drew followers from umpteen different religious faiths (including unsaved people), to come and worship God. This is NOT a revival, nor is it a spiritual awakening. It was a mere event of religious people, not born-again Christians, nor lost sinners coming to Christ while hearing the Gospel of free grace preached.

2nd Timothy 4:2-4,

“ Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine. For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears;

And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables.

If an independent fundamental Baptist college like Commonwealth Baptist College in Lexington, Kentucky were to hold revival services, hardly anybody except their own people would attend, because the masses hate THE TRUTH. The Asbury event was attended by hellbound Roman Catholics, Churches of Christ, Lordship Salvation cultists (e.g., Bob Jones University) and other infidels of the faith. They are all children of the devil. The lost and dying world are not going to be reached with the Gospel by hosting worshipping events. Lost sinners need to hear Bible preaching against sin, being warned of the judgment to come in Hell. They need to hear the Gospel, to know how they can escape God's wrath upon lost sinners. Religion is NOT the answer; the Gospel of Jesus Christ is the answer!

As we draw nearer to the now forming Devil's New World Order, we will see a continued trend for society to forsake organized religion and instead pursue personal spirituality devoid of the inspired Word of God. We will continue to see a departure from the inspired King James Bible, and people instead pursuing the Devil's corrupted Bible perversions. Local churches will continue the trend of moving away from preaching a free grace Gospel, and instead promote the Devil's lies of Lordship Salvation, Calvinism and misunderstood repentance (aka, you must "turn away from your sins" to get to Heaven junk theology).

Satan has already crept into 95 % of the churches. Bible preaching nowadays has been replaced with Christian psychology. The power of the Holy Spirit has been replaced with entertainment venues in the churches. A genuine passion for preaching and upholding THE TRUTH has sadly been replaced with THE LOVE OF MONEY in nearly all churches, Bible colleges (like the shameful Pensacola Christian College) and missions. It is very difficult to find a church with a pastor who genuinely love people anymore. Sadly, at Pensacola Christian College (PCC) the cult system always comes first, individual people do not matter. There is a woeful lack of compassion and love at PCC and their Campus Church for people. I speak this to their utter shame at PCC. At PCC there is a rigid set of rules that everyone must follow, executed mercilessly with no sense of love, forgiveness, second chances or compassion. PCC is definitely A CULT!

So don't be surprised dear reader over the apostasy that we see everywhere today in the churches and Bible colleges. The inspired Holy Bible foretold that in the last days people would no longer follow sound doctrine, but instead would heap to themselves false teachers, having itching ears (only hearing what they want to hear). Beware of big religious events like what went down at Asbury University. It was a manmade phenomena, nothing more. When God is truly involved, you'll see 3,000 souls saved, like on the Day of Pentecost (Acts 2:41).

4.2.22 Precious Bible Verse Songs (2023-02-24 18:37)

James 5:13, "Is any among you afflicted? let him pray. Is any merry? let him sing psalms."

One of the best ways to teach children (and adults) the Bible is by singing favorite Scripture passages. Brother Lester Roloff loved singing for the Lord Jesus Christ and continually taught youth Bible verse songs. What a blessing! Here are some awesome Bible verses sang by the girls at the Roloff Homes. There are many more songs scattered throughout [1]Brother Roloff's sermons , which I for one am so thankful to have. I hope many of my web visitors will learn these songs and teach them to your children and the youth in your ministry (right click to download any of the files)...

[2]Roloff Girls Singing, 1st Timothy 1:17
1st Timothy 1:17, "Now unto the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only wise God, be honour and glory for ever and ever. Amen."

[3]Roloff Girls Singing, Psalms 48:1-2
Psalms:48:1-2, "Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised in the city of our God, in the mountain of his holiness. Beautiful for situation, the joy of the whole earth, is mount Zion, on the sides of the north, the city of the great King."

[4]Roloff Girls Singing, Psalms 25:1-4
Psalms 25:1-4, "Unto thee, O LORD, do I lift up my soul. O my God, I trust in thee: let me not be ashamed, let not mine enemies triumph over me. Yea, let none that wait on thee be ashamed: let them be ashamed which transgress without cause. Shew me thy ways, O LORD; teach me thy paths."

[5]Roloff Girl's Singing, 'I'm Ready To Do Thy Will O Lord/ Through It All'

[6]Roloff Boys Singing, "I Walk With The Savior"

[7]Roloff Singers Singing, "I'll Stand For Jesus And Let The World Go By"

[8]Brother Lester Roloff And Friends Singing On 'The Family Alter Program' (1:30 hours)

Psalms 19:14, "Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight, O LORD, my strength, and my redeemer."

[9]Proverbs 1:10, "My son, if sinners entice thee, consent thou not." (click links to hear song melody). . .

Consent thou not. Consent thou not. My son if sinners entice thee, consent thou not.

Consent thou not. Consent thou not. My son if sinners entice thee, consent thou not.

Galatians 2:20, "I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me."

[11]Habakkuk 3:18, "Yet I will rejoice in the LORD, I will joy in the God of my salvation."

Rejoice In The Lord, Always, And Again I Say Rejoice!
Rejoice In The Lord, Always, And Again I Say Rejoice!

4.2.23 My Review Of The Film "The Jesus Revolution" (2023-02-25 17:12)

Jeremiah 6:16, “ Thus saith the LORD, Stand ye in the ways, and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls. But they said, We will not walk therein.”

I recently watched “[1]The Jesus Revolution.” I don’t recommend this religious film to anyone. The movie is about the beginning of the “ hippie movement in California. Sadly, this is where apostate Christendom is at today in America. The saying is very truth, that as the churches become more worldly, so also does the world become more churchy. I read that in the United States there are an estimated 350,000 churches. Of those churches, I dare say that 1 % of them worth attending. That means we have 3,500 churches left in the United States that are worth attending (and I’m not sure about them either).

Jesus Freaks

’The Jesus Revolution’ film promotes a counterfeit plan of salvation, requiring lost sinners to do the following unbiblical things in addition to faith:

1. Repent and turn away from your sins.
2. Invite Christ into your life.
3. Receiving Jesus as your Lord.

Not once in the movie are the words “born again” heard. This type of shallow, ambiguous, ecumenical pleasing junk theology has invaded 95 % of today’s churches. That sadly included independent and fundamental Baptist churches! Satan has corrupted the Gospel on multiple counts of fraud. Proverbs 30:5-6, “ Every word of God is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him.

Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar.

’The Jesus Revolution’ portrays the beginning of the apostate ministry of Pastor Greg Laurie. Sadly, the film promotes Calvary Chapel, which is a Satanic Charismatic cult, where people speak in demonic tongues and partake of fraudulent healing crusades. Greg Laurie has a sickening net worth of $25,000,000. The inspired Word of God warns preachers about THE LOVE OF MONEY (1st Timothy 6:8-11).

On Laurie’s Harvest Church Website, they teach the following about how to get to Heaven...

Salvation

> We believe that the Lord Jesus Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, as the substitutionary atonement in our place, and that salvation is found in none other than Jesus Christ. Before Creation, God chose those who would be saved and granted this unearned grace solely based on His sovereign good pleasure. Jesus Christ's death on the cross was the sole and complete payment for sins, fully satisfying God's righteous wrath, for each person that turns from sin in repentance and places their faith in Christ alone by grace alone. At salvation, each person is made a new creation by the Holy Spirit, declared righteous before God, and secured as an adopted child of God forever. Genuine faith continues in obedience and love for Jesus Christ *with a life eager to glorify God and *persevere to the end (Romans 8:37–39; 2 Corinthians 5:21; 1 Corinthians 12:13). [emphasis added]

As with all LIARS, Greg Laurie combines truth with lies to hide his deceptive false gospel. Nowhere in the Bible did Jesus tell anyone to turn away from their sin to be saved. You won't find that anywhere in the inspired King James Bible. Only in the fraudulent modern perversions of the Bible, which have been intentionally tampered with, will you find such garbage taught.

Also, Jesus never told anyone in the Bible to live a lifestyle of continued obedience to get to Heaven. That is demonic Calvinist trash, and not a free grace Gospel. Jesus never told anyone to persevere unto the end to get to Heaven. Nowhere does the Bible require a lost sinner to live a life eager to glorify God to be saved. Greg Laurie is a religious con artist!

'The Jesus Revolution' was awful. The film sinfully promotes the ungodly idea that churches who practice, teach and enforce biblical separation from the sinful world are doing more damage than good

(2nd Corinthians 6:14-17)

In the film, it begins with such a pastor, who is strict and separated, whose church congregation is small. His church is about half full. The blames the pastor, by indoctrinating movie viewers to think that it is his fault for not lowering his standards to allow hippies, druggies, homeless people and undesirables to interrupt and take over the church service. Throughout the movie, hippies on drugs are being brought to the pastor's home, by a hippie man that his teenage daughter invited into their home. The basic idea seems noble. I mean, if we are going to reach people, then we need to reach them on their level right? Well, yes and no.

Yes, everyone should be invited and welcomed at church; but no, churches ought NEVER bring worldly music, disorder, open sin or anything else that doesn't belong in the house of God. The sad truth is that the hippies wanted to recreate God in their own image, so they started the "Jesus Freaks" hippie movement in the 1960's. This is not honoring to God. The true free grace Gospel is not preached. What Greg Laurie is peddling is of the Devil.

The film was intentionally released in connection and timing with the Asbury University so-called “Awakening Event” in Wilmore, Kentucky. Apostates claim that this is evidence of the hand of God working. In the movie they mention the Asbury event, foolishly claiming that it is a fulfillment of Bible prophecy. What is actually happening is that the heathen world is being drawn into worldly churches today, who preach a counterfeit plan of salvation, bring rock music and ecumenical entertainment for worship into the churches, and have no interest in truly winning souls to Jesus Christ.

The followers of Pastor Greg Laurie’s Pentecostal Calvary Chapel cult have “a form of godliness” as the Bible warns in 2nd Timothy 3:5, “

Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away.

” That

is the true Gospel, which is missing in Greg Laurie’s ministry.

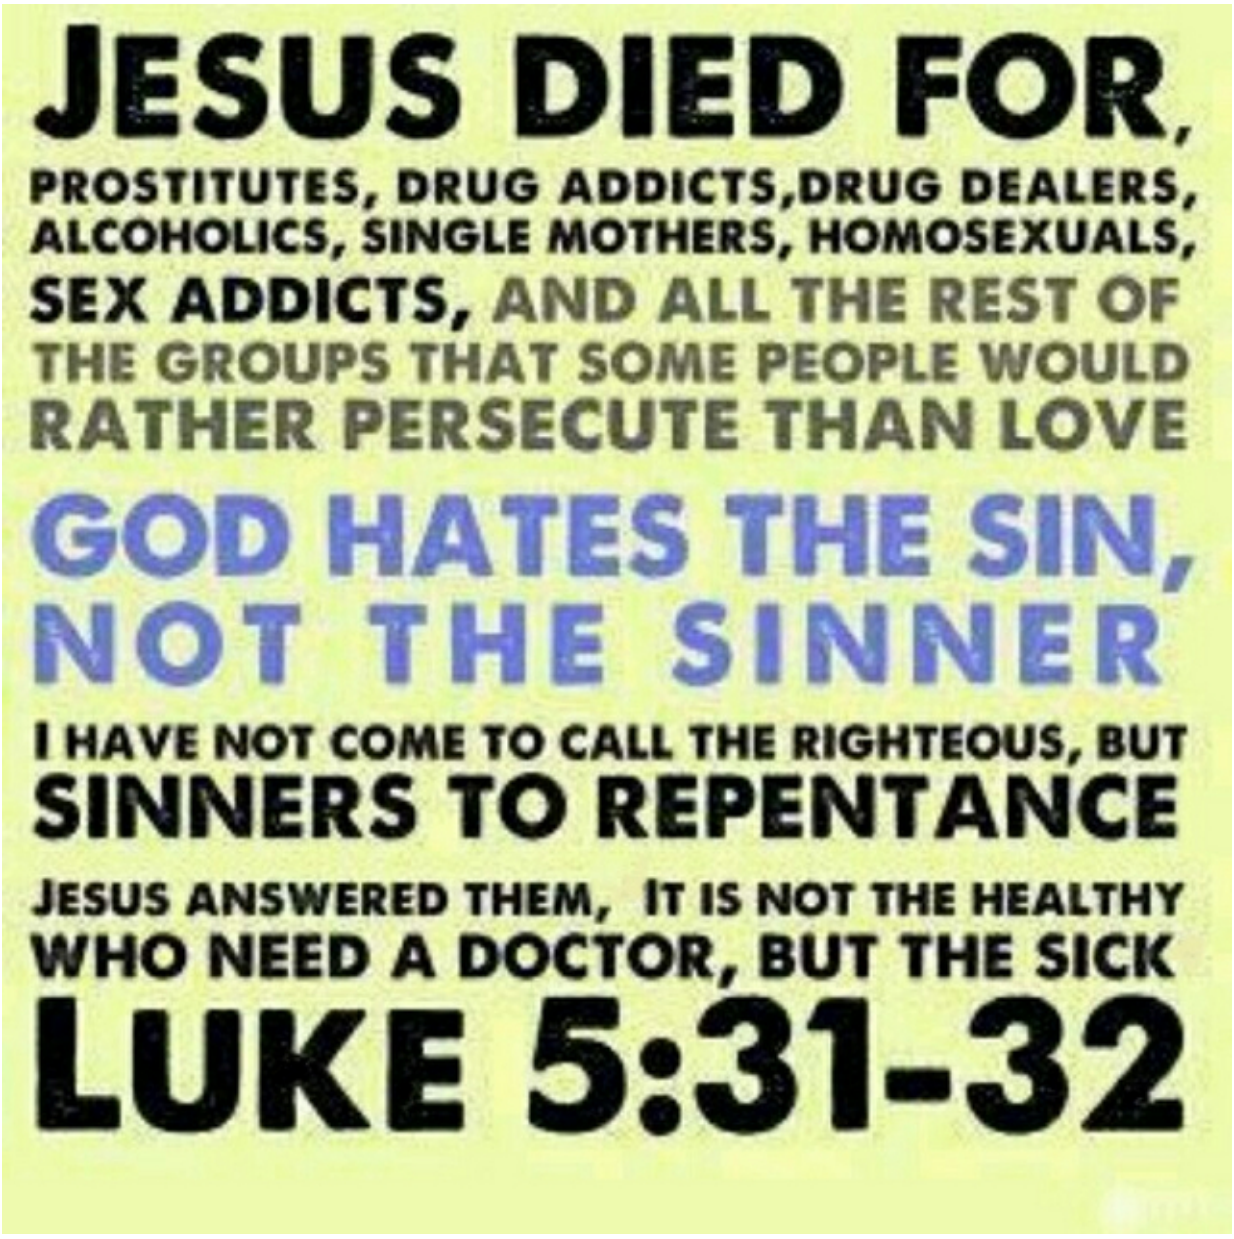
’The Jesus Revolution’ movie is of the Devil. People have always been welcome in the churches. What the wicked film is suggesting is that ungodly people who are worldly and living in sin, won’t ever step foot into a church unless those churches accept unrepentant sinners in good standing. The movie is teaching that churches should just accept wicked people, no questions asked, and let them live in open sin in the church. The Apostle Paul forbade this type of shameful thing (1st Corinthians 5:1-5).

The film promotes the wicked idea that churches should just let it all hang out, to attract worldly people into the church to help them find God. What saith the Scripture?

1st Timothy 5:20, “Them that sin rebuke before all, that others also may fear.”

’The Jesus Revolution’ film shows paid actors kissing each other, which is just plain wrong. If you’re not legally married to someone, you have no business kissing them, let alone on the lips. It is sinful. Our reckless, Godless and immoral American culture today laughs at this type of Bible preaching. We are living in a generation that does not look up! That is, they have no fear of God. It is difficult for any God-fearing believer to grasp the 63,000,000 murdered human beings, assassinated cruelly by abortion in the United States. Yet, people will get intensely angry over the killing of just one puppy. We are well beyond the point of provoking God’s wrathful judgment in America. Oh, how merciful and patient is our great God!!!

I am all for loving everyone. Jesus promised in John 6:37 not to turn away any sinner who comes to Him to be saved. We should never reject the sinner with the sin, nor accept the sin with the sinner. ’The Jesus Revolution,’ in my humble opinion, is trying to promote the latter, accepting sin into the churches, so we can reach them for Christ. Unfortunately, although that sounds good in theory, it is flawed because sin begets more sin.



Concerning the sin of fornication in the church, the Apostle Paul warned in 1st Corinthians 5:6-7, " Your glorying is not good. Know ye not that a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump? Purge out therefore the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened. For even Christ our passover is sacrificed for us: " Allowing open sin in any church is infectious, causing others to go into sin too. Hard Bible preaching drives unrepentant sinners away from church. Neo-evangelicals don't preach hard against sin, which is why they draw such large crowds. It is not because God is working, nor because the church is doing something right. Quite the contrast, the church is dropping the ball for God, drawing in worldly people to a worldly church, and that is not Bible Christianity.

Without Bible preaching that instills conviction over sin, and warns sinners of God's fiery judgment to come in the eternal Lake of Fire, we cannot reasonably expect lost sinners to want to be saved. All I keep hearing about the Asbury event is for people to " join the movement." Dear reader, Jesus warned in John 3:3b,

"Ye must be born again."

4.3.1 The Holy Spirit Convicts Believers Of Sin (2023-03-04 16:46)

John 7:7, “The world cannot hate you; but me it hateth, because I testify of it, that the works thereof are evil.” John 16:8, “And when He is come, He will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment.”

As a born-again Bible believing Christian and a fundamentalist Baptist preacher, I am always on guard about strange doctrine and demonic heresies which surface on social media. I learned yesterday that there is a strange doctrine being circulated on social media right now, which claims that the Holy Spirit does not convict believers about the sins in our life. Nothing could be further from the truth. In fact, the blessed Holy Spirit DOES convict humans about sin, whether saved or lost.

Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) gives a wonderful helpful explanation of the relationship between conviction from our human conscience, the Bible, Jesus and the Holy Spirit...

> 4. The Holy Spirit. John 16:8, "And when He is come, He will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment." We call the Holy Spirit the university of conviction. We have learned form the conscience what NOT to do and from the Bible the type thing we are TO DO; in Jesus we see a model of the above; now the Holy Spirit adds another dimension. He comes to tell us that sin is wrong, but He tells us specifically WHERE to go and WHAT good to do. When one by his conscience has been convicted of his wrong and by the Bible has been taught principles of what is right and sees both of them combined in the perfect life of Christ, he then must come to the Holy Spirit and ask what good he is supposed to do. The conscience says, "You should not be here. You should leave." The Bible comes along and tells you the type of area into which you should go. The Holy Spirit then tells you into WHICH of the desirable areas you should go.
> A man is driving too fast on the highway. He does not know the speed limit and his speedometer is not working, and yet something tells him that he is driving too fast. This is the conscience. He then sees a speed limit sign and his speedometer begins to work, so he finds not only that he is driving too fast but exactly how fast he is driving. The speed limit sign and the speedometer symbolize the Word of God. He then notices another driver who is driving carefully within the speed limit. This typifies Jesus, the pattern of the Spirit-filled life. Then he asks the Holy Spirit to tell him WHERE to drive and EXACTLY HOW FAST to drive.
>
> In summary, the conscience tells us what we should NOT do. The Bible comes along and verifies the conscience and adds the type thing we SHOULD do. Jesus comes along and shows us the perfect EXAMPLE. Then the Holy Spirit tells us WHICH good thing we should do and which acceptable area is God’s place for our lives.
> If one leaves out the Holy Spirit, he may drive properly in the wrong place. If one leaves out the Bible and the Holy Spirit and trusts only his conscience, he may come out of the wrong place but not know where to go and will no doubt, sooner or later, return to the place where he should not be. Hence, the wise Christian will be careful to listen to his conscience concerning evil. He will examine the Scriptures to find Bible principles that tell him what not to do and what to do. He will study the life of Jesus and ask the Holy Spirit to help him become more and more fashioned in His likeness. Then day by day and moment by moment he will walk in the Spirit, asking the Holy Spirit that EXACT place that he should be and the exact thing that he should be doing.

5. [21] Science of Being Close
6. [22] Science of Mystique

The Holy Spirit DOES convict God's children about the sins in our life. There is nothing mysterious or superstitious about this great Bible truth. The Holy Spirit is simply God with us. The Godhead lives inside the spirit, soul and body of every believer in the form of the blessed Holy Spirit. John 14:23, " Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him. " Romans 8:9, " But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his. "

In the Epistle of James, the Apostle James writes in James 4:8, "

Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts, ye double minded.

" It is important to understand the difference between our POSITION as God's children in Christ, versus our CONDITION in Christ. The moment that we got saved, our POSITION as God's redeemed and adopted child was forever settled. The old account was settled long ago. Our sins are forever washed away by Christ's precious blood.

So even if a saint is still a practicing homosexual, he or she is 100 % safe and secure in God's promise of the free gift of eternal life, which is obtained through faith alone in Jesus Christ (Philippians 3:9). Romans 6:1,

"What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound?"

Believers should depart from a lifestyle of open sin, but the truth is that we all still live a lifestyle of sinning, because no one can stop sinning. We are all sinners by nature and by choice. So it is possible for a practicing homosexual, adulterer, gossipier

, thief or any other horrible sinner to still be 100 % safe and secure in God's free gift of eternal life, because we are saved by what Jesus did on Calvary's cross, and not be what we do.

When we sin as God's children, the Lord deals with our heart, convicting us through the Holy Spirit to repent (change our mind) to forsake those sins. So don't let anybody deceive or confuse you theologically to think that God's Holy Spirit doesn't convict us about sin. It is true that our sins have all been forgiven and washed away POSITIONALLY in Christ. Albeit, our CONDITION in Christ is strictly a matter of sanctification and service. Romans 12:1, "I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service." Serving God as a believer is not our "mandatory service"; but rather, it is our "reasonable service."

The conscience tells us what we should NOT do. The Bible comes along and verifies the conscience and adds the type thing we SHOULD do. Jesus comes along and shows us the perfect EXAMPLE. Then the Holy Spirit tells us WHICH good thing we should do and which acceptable area is God's place for our lives.

4.3.2 How Will People Be Saved During The Millennium, Since They Will See Jesus? (2023-03-07 02:02)

John 20:29, "Jesus saith unto him, Thomas, because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed: blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed."

Someone recently asked me a very good question. Bible prophecy teaches that when Jesus Christ returns, 7 years AFTER the Pretribulation Rapture takes place, He will put down the Antichrist and establish His earth Kingdom from Jerusalem. The next 1,000 year reign of Christ (as all saints helping Him reign - Revelation 20:6) is called in theology: the "

Millennium.

So I was asked how will it be possible for anyone to be saved during the Millennium, since everyone will see Jesus in the flesh. I mean, isn't faith trusting in what you cannot see? No, that is not what faith means! Faith is putting your confidence in Jesus, believing that He is the only begotten Son of God, the Christ. Faith is believing that facts that you are a guilty sinner, and that Christ died in your place on the cross, was buried and then bodily resurrected three days later. If that is your only hope for Heaven, then you are saved dear reader. You are a bonafide born-again child of God.

Scriptural evidence of what I say is found in

John 20:29, "

Jesus saith unto him, Thomas, because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed: blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed.

" I love that!

John 20:29b, "

Thomas, because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed...

” Here we see clear Scriptural evidence that a person CAN believe in something that is right in front of their eyes. However, Jesus promised that there is a special blessing for those who BELIEVE, but have never seen Jesus in person. What further saith the Scripture? ...

> 1st Peter 1:7-9, “That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ: Whom having not seen, ye love; in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory: Receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls.”

As an adopted child of God since I was age 13, by faith I have believed in whom I cannot see. Jesus Christ is my blessed Savior. I believe Jesus is the only begotten Son of God, my Redeemer, Creator, God, Friend, Lord and Savior. The true account of Thomas in the Bible is proof that lost sinners will be saved during the Millennial period, by simply accepting God’s written Word as recorded in the inspired Scriptures, concerning who Christ is and what He did for us and why He needed to do it. To be saved you MUST agree with these FACTS:

- WHO

  Jesus is - The Christ, the only begotten Son of God (John 20:31)

- WHAT

  Jesus did - He died on a cross for our sins, was buried and resurrected from the dead the third day (1st Corinthians 15:1-6)

- WHY Jesus needed to die - It is because all humanity are sinners deserving of eternal damnation in Hell (Romans 3:19-23)

Simply BELIEVE IT, oh guilty and needy sinner, and you will be immediately and forever saved!

False Prophet Bryan Denlinger

Bryan Denlinger, who is an unsaved Calvinist, has a popular YouTube channel. Sadly, Bryan is an infidel, an unsaved false prophet, who denies salvation by faith alone...

Bryan Denlinger Exposed - Repentance Blacklist and Works Salvation

Bryan Denlinger hates Pastor Jack Hyles, Steven Anderson and anybody who preaches a free grace Gospel. Mankind by nature wants to help save himself, so he wickedly ADDS works to God's ultimate sacrifice (i.e., His only begotten Son) which was provided solely by Jesus through Calvary's cross. Jesus shed His precious blood and took that blood to sprinkle upon the heavenly Mercy Seat located in the Holy of Holies (Hebrews 9:12, 22-24; 12:24). Without the shedding of Jesus' blood (God's blood - Acts 20:28) there is no remission for sin. That is what the wonderful book of Hebrews is all about.

Bryan rationalizes that since everyone will physically see Jesus during the 1,000 year Millennium, salvation by faith will not be possible. So, he just assumes redemption will be by works. But, Jacob met the Lord face-to-face and still had faith. Genesis 32:30, "And Jacob called the name of the place Peniel: for I have seen God face to face, and my life is preserved."

Abraham had conversations with the Lord; such as, when Abraham begged the Lord not to destroy Sodom if he could just find 10 righteous people. Jesus' apostles saw Him walk through walls, raise the dead and physically ascend into the clouds (Acts 1:11). Yet they had faith in Jesus, without works (Genesis 15:6; Romans 4:4-7). Bryan Denlinger is a darn fool, unlearned and woefully ignorant concerning the Word of God.

Jesus told everyone, everywhere that He went, that if they saw Him they saw God the Father. This is because Jesus came to earth as the Godhead incarnate. That is, God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit, fully dwelt inside the spirit, soul and body of God the Son on earth (Colossians 2:9).

So faith is not just trusting in the invisible, as evidenced when Jesus rebuked doubting Thomas. The risen Savior had already appeared to the other disciples, but Thomas was out to lunch or something. When Thomas came back, he was so hurt in his soul that he vowed that unless he SAW THE SAVIOR, he refused to believe. So Jesus graciously appeared PHYSICALLY to Thomas, and invited him to touch His nail-scared hands, and thrust his hand into Jesus' wounded side. Thomas did so.

Afterwards, Jesus commended Thomas for his faith, but said blessed are they who have not seen, yet they still believe. John 20:29, “

Jesus saith unto him, Thomas, because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed: blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed.

” I love that. We have a special blessing from God because we trust in a Savior we’ve never seen, met nor heard.

Albeit, the fact that Thomas had faith, ONLY BECAUSE HE SAW, proves that you can have faith even in plain sight of the Savior.

Faith is not always a matter of trusting what we cannot see, but also believing what we can see. We have the Holy Bible, which we CAN see. We have nature, which we CAN see. We have the godly testimony of other saints, which we CAN see. Hebrews 11:1, “ Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen. ” Most people interpret this verse wrong. They think it means faith is to trust in something invisible. But faith is believing that Jesus is the Savior, who is whom He claimed to be—the Christ, the only begotten Son of God.

Why did Peter trust Jesus, but Judas didn’t? So we see that faith is trusting upon the Savior, whether visible or invisible. The Apostles all saw Jesus (God) face to face and ministered by His side for 3 years. All believed upon Him, except one, Judas. It will be the same way during the Millennium period. People will see Jesus, who will serve as our worthy omnipotent King, over the whole earth from David’s throne in Jerusalem. Some people will trust Jesus, others won’t, but they will ALL see Him, just as all of the apostles and thousands of disciples did.

4.3.3 The Bible Colleges Are Becoming Secularized (2023-03-07 13:33)

Romans 16:17-18, “Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them. For they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple.”

I was absolutely disgusted this morning when I looked at my Twitter account. Here is a post by Dr. Clarence Sexton, pastor of the Temple Baptist Church in Powell, Tennessee. The church also operates Crown College as one of their many ministries. I think the following is disgraceful...

The Apostasy At Crown College in Powell, Tennessee

That is terrible! What this means is that Crown College will be offering vocational courses (e.g., welding, flying an airplane, nursing, engineering, law enforcement training, et cetera). I am not sure of the specific courses that Crown College will offer, but it is obvious from Pastor Sexton's tweet on Twitter that their college will be offering welding skills. The courses I just listed are offered at Pensacola Christian College (PCC). Crown College is now offering vocational classes, which in my humble opinion is truly sad for several reasons:

1. It evidences that Crown College is money hungry (1st Timothy 6:28-11).

2. It evidences that Crown College is becoming secularized. The now pro-homosexual 'The University Of Chicago' was started by a Baptist preacher in 1890 as a Christian institution. Today the vile college is a cesspool of atheism, fornication and wickedness. Crown College is flushing down the same slippery slope as Bob Jones University and Pensacola Christian College. All of these apostate institutions have become woefully secularized, promoting false prophets like Ken Ham, Steve Pettit and John MacArthur. The love of money has corrupted all of them!

3. It evidences that Crown College is moving away from building churches. When Pastor Jack Hyles started Hyles-Anderson College (HAC) in 1972, it was with the sole purpose of training anybody (young or old, male or female, healthy or disabled) who wanted to prepare for full-time Christian ministry. There were no vocational classes for carnally-minded students. Sadly, since 2008 the First Baptist Church of Hammond, Indiana (and HAC that they own and control) no longer believe and preach that the King James Bible is without error and inspired.
4. It evidences that Crown College has become greedy.
5. It evidences that Crown College is not right with God.
6. It will draw carnally-minded students to Crown College, who care not about serving the Lord, they just want a trade skill.
7. Over time, Crown College will continue to change for the worse, as they have already. Dr. Jack Hyles often said that every Bible college will eventually go apostate, but the church is promised Divine Perpetuity from God. So a college is destined to fail, but a church doesn't have to. Hyles-Anderson College is corrupt today, sadly because the pulpit at First Baptist Church of Hammond, Indiana, became corrupted first.

Tragically, PCC's joke called "Campus Church" is anything but a church. It is a chapel, not a Bible church. PCC leadership have huge egos and epitomize arrogance and sinful bigotry. From all that I have seen, making money is what matters most to all these religious institutions. So they refrain from stepping on anybody's toes. Ecumenism (cooperation between believers and unbelievers) is dangerous to a church. Why doesn't PCC, BJU and Crown College expose damnable heresy and counterfeit plans of salvation? They don't and won't contend for the faith!!!

For example: Pastor Jeff Redlin is a mere employee at PCC. They don't give a damn about individual people. Hurting and broken people are shunned, looked down upon and rejected by the Satanic PCC CULT. They're just playing the game of church. PCC leadership has wickedly banned me since August of 2022 from attending their Campus Church, because they are prejudiced bigots, KKK type haters and ungodly respecters of persons. I criticized Jeff Redlin on social media for mistreating me when I attended Campus Church in 2021, for which they refuse to forgive me at PCC or give me a second chance. That is what the heathen world does, not God's children. I am not one of their indoctrinated cult members, I think objectively for myself (a big no, no at PCC). They just don't care about individual people! I speak that to their utter shame and contempt in the PCC camp.

I was utterly disgusted in 2016 when I heard Pastor Clarence Sexton begging his church congregation for $1,000,000 to renovate Crown College. Pastor Steven L. Anderson is so right—the apostate religious Bible colleges are growing bigger and bigger, while the churches that support them are shrinking smaller and smaller. ...

The Bible College Scam

“By-vocational ministry” refers to working preachers, who serve God while working a secular job at the same time. The Apostle Paul made tents on the side to support Himself. During Jesus’ earthly ministry, He had a few women support Him. Luke 8:2-3, “And certain women, which had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities, Mary called Magdalene, out of whom went seven devils,

And Joanna the wife of Chuza Herod’s steward, and Susanna, and many others, which ministered unto him of their substance.

” Amen.

There is nothing wrong with a man learning a vocational skill. When I attended Hyles-Anderson College my first year in 1985 to 1986, I realized that I needed to find a better paying job than United Parcel Service (UPS). I worked at UPS part time (that’s all they would give us, so they didn’t have to provide any benefits). I hated that job, even though I appreciated the job. We used to call UPS, “Undergoing Personal Suicide.” It was that bad! I had a box of Jorgensen Bolts fall off a conveyer and hit me in the head, which could have killed me.

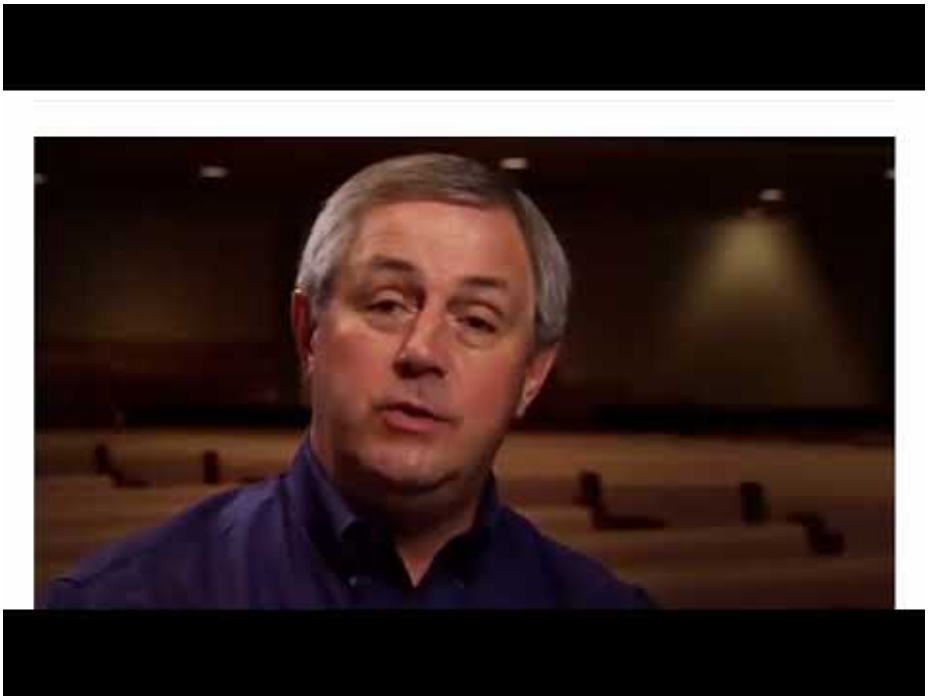
I decided to take a break from Bible college for a year to attend Lincoln Technical Institute to learn auto and truck repair. I worked hard and attained high grades, 9 A’s and 3 B’s. There were 12 classes total. I gave it my best! I then got married in August of 1987 and decided to take 6 more months off from Bible college, to get settled into my marriage without overdoing it. There was no internet back then, so I had to drive 50 miles from Chicago, Illinois to Crownpoint, Indiana every day for school. I couldn’t do it 5 days a week, so I took classes for either 3 or 2 days a week. After classes I had to drive 70 miles to Melrose Park, Illinois, where I worked as a truck mechanic and paid my own way through Bible college. It only took me 8 years...lol. I finally and gratefully graduated in 1993.

In hindsight, I regret deciding to become a mechanic. The school’s TV commercials show all the mechanics with clean hands, neatly pressed clean uniforms, with no sign of grease or dirt; but in reality you become a walking grease rag. Your hands become catcher’s mitts for splintered metal, hitting your hands with hammers and all sorts of painful injuries and lasting scars. The average mechanic only lasts for a few years, because it is rough work. We used to call working on trucks, “bull work,” because it is rough, tough and dangerous work. I am fortunate that I didn’t get killed working under and around trucks.



Also, if I could go back and choose a different trade, hands down it would have been cooking school. The culinary arts never change! People’s taste buds never change. Recipes never change. Once you learn how to cook great tasty meals, you have a lifetime skill. Not everybody owns or has a broken car, but everybody loves to eat good food. Ninety percent of everything I learned about working on cars and trucks in 1986 is obsolete today, just like learning Computer Science (the technology changes almost overnight). So if you want my humble advice on a great skill to pursue, learn how to cook! I would also recommend learning Business Management if you have the opportunity, so when you learn to cook great food you can open and manage your own business (whether it be a restaurant or starting your own ice cream company like Ben & Jerry's did.

Having said all that, I am thankful that Hyles-Anderson College DIDN'T offer vocational classes, because it would have changed the whole atmosphere of the college. I cannot even imagine sitting in my pajamas at my computer, earning a degree in Pastoral Theology without ever leaving my residence. The relentless driving back and forth—in sun, rain, sleet, ice and snow; a few car crashes and near fatal mishaps; umpteen car breakdowns, being stranded on the highway at night in a bad neighborhood, et cetera—that all gave me tenacity, ruggedness and better character! We were required as students to be actively involved in a ministry of the First Baptist Church of Hammond, as long as we attended HAC. I cherish that hard work, group effort, fellowship, daily chapel and character building activities. Earning a degree at home cannot even compare to actually sitting in a classroom with other like-minded students, and attending chapel to hear Gospel singing and Bible preaching every day.

Dr. Hyles had a strong conviction that teachers couldn't reproduce preachers; only preachers can reproduce preachers!!! So Brother Hyles put active soulwinning preachers into all the classrooms, so that we could be trained by preachers to stand for God. That is in part why Pastor Steven Anderson is as fired up as he is, because of Pastor Jack Hyles influence on him. Pastor Anderson is an alumni of Hyles-Anderson College, as am I too. My ministry preaching is bold, in your face, compassionate, offensive to many, unapologetic and uncompromisingly. I got that from being around Dr. Jack Hyles (1926-2001).

My humble opinion is that when a Bible college starts offering secular vocational courses, it is the Devil's foothold in the door. I am fully convinced that the reason BJU, PCC and now Crown College offer vocational classes is for THE LOVE OF MONEY!!! Sadly, I also see that all of these corrupt institutions wickedly bid Godspeed to false prophet Ken Ham...

The FALSE GOSPEL of ANSWERS IN GENESIS and KEN HAM

BJU, PCC and Crown College have all invited Ken Ham to speak at their colleges and churches. IT IS WICEDNESS!!! Why don't these overpaid 6-digit salaried pastors wickedly bid Godspeed to Ken Ham's counterfeit plan of salvation, making themselves ungodly partakers of his evil deeds? It is because none of them give a damn about right doctrine. Nowhere in the inspired King James Bible are we taught to turn away from our evil ways to get to Heaven, which according to Jonah 3:10 is WORKS. Jonah 3:10, "

And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not.

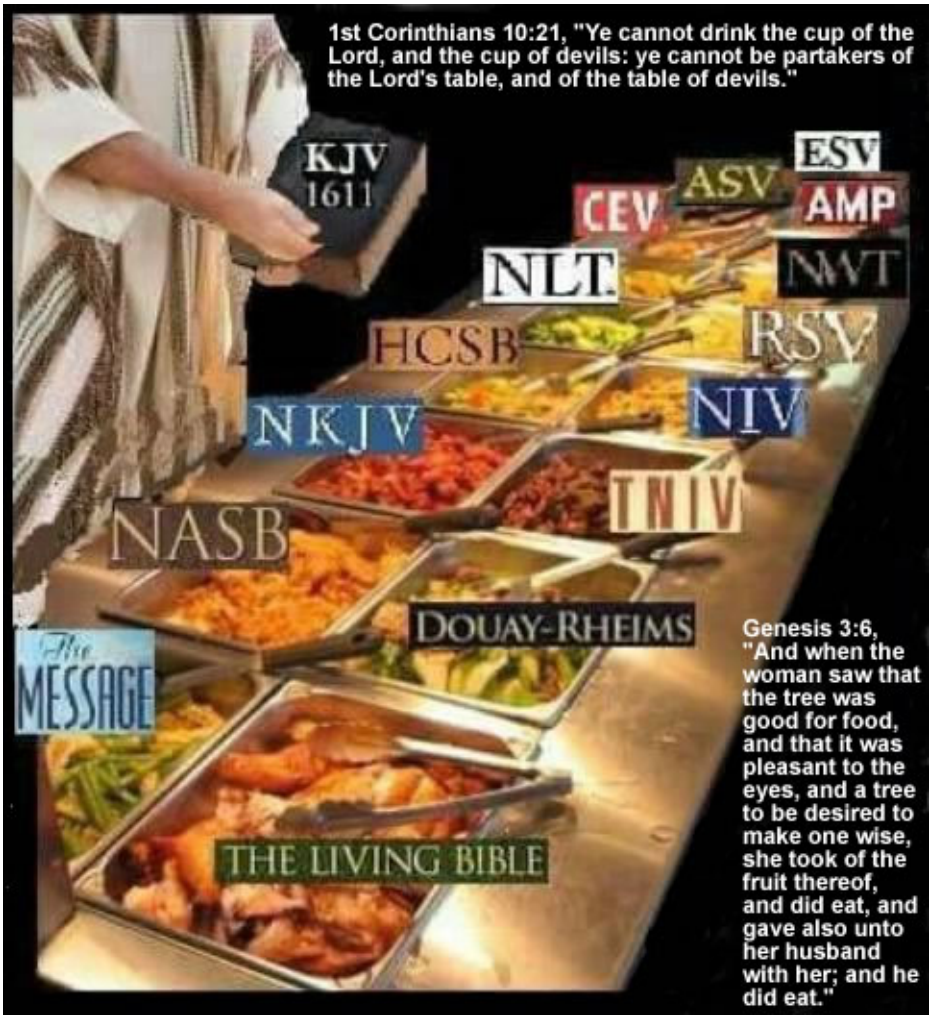
" The Ninevites didn't get saved, they were spared God's wrath and judgment upon their nation, because they repented of their sins. Judas also repented of his sins in Matthew 27:3, but still died in his sins and went to Hell in unbelief.

I think it is tragic that BJU, PCC, Crown College and other money hungry religious institutions are now offering secular vocational trades, which detracts from building churches. Again, I am not against a young person obtaining a trade skill, but Bible colleges ought to remain BIBLE COLLEGES, not welding colleges! Mark my words, examine Crown College in 20 to 30 years, and see where they are at spiritually. The greatest threat to churches today are ungodly compromisers like Clarence Sexton, Jeff Redlin, Marty Herron, Church Phelps, Steve Pettit and other incompetent leaders of the faith. They are dropping the ball for the home team!



It is pathetic to see our nation's biggest Bible colleges becoming 'one stop shops' for all your needs, spiritual or secular, doesn't matter. Evidently Crown College wants to become the Walmart of Christendom. To do so, just cheapens the whole purpose of starting a Christian college in the first place, and encourages the wrong type of students to enroll. Let the heathen world train the welders, veterinarians, bicycle repairman and engineers. Sadly, the end result of today's "Bible colleges gone crazy" will be a whole new generation of incompetent clowns for pastors. We've got too many clowns in the pulpit already. Enough!

America is going to Hell because the ignorant churches that continue to hire incompetent graduates from today's crappy apostate Bible colleges. Dear reader, I encourage you to do everything in your power to convince young people NOT to attend PCC, BJU or Crown College, unless you want their faith in the Holy Bible shaken. Sadly, everybody just wants to get along, sinfully compromise, take the easy path and collect their ungodly 6-digit paychecks.

By the way, NONE of those collages (PCC, BJU, Crown College and Sadly HAC) believe that we have an inspired Holy Bible in the English language today. They all errantly insist and foolishly teach that ONLY the original autographs on the Word of God were inspired, which don't exist on earth anymore. All we have are translations and copies of copies of copies of God's Word. Since we don't have any of the originals, we must have a preserved inspired translation, otherwise God is a liar (Psalms 12:6-7). I humbly believe with all certainty that the King James Bible is that preserved inspired Holy Bible.

I wouldn't give you a penny for 97 % of today's so-called "Bible colleges." In truth, they are preachers cemeteries!!! It is so shameful. The Devil's colleges don't teach how to build churches. So if the churches don't do it, then who will? Yet, professed Christian colleges are now teaching the same secular courses that heathen world does. Go figure! I say, let the Devil's crowd teach the secular courses. There's enough heathen schools where you can learn to weld. We need a whole new breed of preachers in America!

It Matters Which Bible We Use!

4.3.4 What The United States Was Like In 1900 (2023-03-08 11:44)

Daniel 12:4, "But thou, O Daniel, shut up the words, and seal the book, even to the time of the end: many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased."

In the year 1900...

- The average life expectancy in America was 47.3 for women, 46.3 for men, and 33 for blacks.
- Only 14 % of the homes in the U.S. had a bathtub.

- 18 % of American households had at least one full-time servant or domestic.
- Only 8 % of the homes had a telephone.
- Policeman arrested women for smoking in public.
- A three-minute call from Denver to New York City cost $11.
- Sugar cost $0.04/pound. Eggs were $0.14/dozen. Coffee cost $0.15/pound.
- There were only 8,000 cars in the U.S. and only 144 miles of paved roads.
- The maximum speed limit in most cities was 10 mph.
- Alabama, Mississippi, Iowa, and Tennessee were each more heavily populated than California. With a mere 1.4 million residents, California was only the 21st most populated state in the Union.
- There was $46,000,000 in the U.S. Treasury.
- The average wage in the U.S. was $0.22/hour.
- The average worker made $12.98/week for 59 hours.
- The average American worker made between $200- $400/year.
- A competent accountant could expect to earn $2000/year, a dentist $2,500/year, a veterinarian between $1,500- $4,000/year, and a mechanical engineer about $5,000/year.
- More than 95 % of all births in the U.S. took place at home.
- 90 % of all U.S. physicians had no college education. Instead, they attended medical schools, many of which were condemned in the press and by the government as "substandard."
- The five leading causes of death in the U.S. were:

1. Pneumonia and influenza
2. Tuberculosis
3. Diarrhea
4. Heart disease
5. Stroke

- The American flag had 45 stars. Arizona, Oklahoma, New Mexico, Hawaii and Alaska hadn’t been admitted to the Union yet.
- The population of Las Vegas, Nevada was 30.
- One in ten American adults couldn’t read or write.
- Only 6 % of all Americans had graduated from high school.
- Only 5 percent of households consisted of people living alone while 20 percent had seven or more people.

- Electric traffic lights had not yet been invented.
- Fewer than 1 percent of the nation’s men and women (age 15 and over) were divorced.
- There were only about 230 reported murders in the entire U.S.
- Public school students were led each day in prayer and Bible reading.
- The tallest structure in the world was the Eiffel Tower.
- There were no Mother’s Day or Father’s Day.
- Radio and TV had not yet been invented.
- The Ice Cream Cone had not yet been invented.
- Crossword puzzles, canned beer, and iced tea hadn’t been invented.
- Most women only washed their hair once a month and used borax or egg yolks for shampoo.
- Coca Cola contained cocaine.
- Marijuana, heroin and morphine were all available over the counter at corner drugstores. According to one pharmacist, "Heroin clears the complexion, gives buoyancy to the mind, regulates the stomach and the bowels, and is, in fact, a perfect guardian of health."
- Canada passed a law prohibiting poor people from entering the country for any reason.

Wow, I don’t know about you dear friend, but after reading those startling facts, I am grateful to have lived in the latter 20th and early 21st century. We are so blessed today! I am more than amazed how much the world has advanced in KNOWLEDGE, and in man’s ability to travel TO AND FRO, over the past century. We are living in a time of fulfilled Bible prophecy.

4.3.5 Does Matthew 25:24-30 Apply To The Saved Or Unsaved? (2023-03-09 16:25)

Matthew 25:24-30, "Then he which had received the one talent came and said, Lord, I knew thee that thou art an hard man, reaping where thou hast not sown, and gathering where thou hast not strawed: And I was afraid, and went and hid thy talent in the earth: lo, there thou hast that is thine. His lord answered and said unto him, Thou wicked and slothful servant, thou knewest that I reap where I sowed not, and gather where I have not strawed: Thou oughtest therefore to have put my money to the exchangers, and then at my coming I should have received mine own with usury. Take therefore the talent from him, and give it unto him which hath ten talents. For unto every one that hath shall be given, and he shall have abundance: but from him that hath not shall be taken away even that which he hath. And cast ye the unprofitable servant into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth."

I admit that this is an obscure passage of Scripture to interpret. From one perspective it seems to apply to the unsaved, since the unfaithful servant in Verse 30 is cast into outer darkness, where there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. Yet, other servants in previous verses are rewarded, which can only apply to Christian saints. Confused? So are many Bible students.

I have a classic Verse-By-Verse Commentary by Evangelist John R. Rice (1895-1980) of the book of Matthew, which offers these helpful words:

> The Parable Of The Talents
> This passage should properly be considered along with Luke 19:11-27, where Jesus gives a similar parable. That parable was spoken first on the road approaching Jerusalem (Luke 19:28), a few days before. This parable of the talents is spoken later in Jerusalem. In the Luke parable, we find pounds mentioned instead of talents. Ten pounds were given to ten servants, one each. There, however, only three are mentioned in particular: two are promised a good reward, with commendation, as here, and one unfaithful servant is condemned.
>
> SOURCE: "Matthew: The King Of The Jews" (Verse-By-Verse Commentary), by Evangelist John R. Rice, p. 409; Sword Of The Lord, copyright 1955

And then Dr. Rice says this on page 413:

> Both Saved And Lost Warned About Accountability To God
> It is noticeable here in this particular case Jesus does not make a distinction between salvation and rewards. We know that salvation is wholly of grace, "Not of works, lest any man should boast" (Eph. 2:9), and "that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life" (John 3:16). But that is not the special truth that Jesus is teaching here. He is teaching accountability to God. However, it is obvious that the men who received the five talents and the two talents, and by loving industry doubled them, represent saved men who work for Christ. The fact that they appropriated the gifts of God, claimed Him as Lord willingly, tried to do His will, brought their fruits back to Him with rejoicing, indicates that they represent saved people. On the other hand, the man who had one talent "went and digged in the earth, and hid his Lord's money" (vs. 18). Verse 24 shows that the one-talent man in this case had no love for his master, no confidence in him, no surrender to his will. This is not a picture of a saved man.
>
> SOURCE: "Matthew: The King Of The Jews" (V
> erse-By-Verse Commentary), by Evangelist John R. Rice, p. 413; Sword Of The Lord, copyright 1955

I fully agree with Dr. Rice that Jesus is not speaking about salvation in this passage, He is speaking about accountability for the saved and the lost.

> The Wicked And Slothful Servant
> Consider the judgment of the unfaithful servant. His charges against the master in verses 24 and 25 show his wicked heart. This represents the attitude of unsaved people toward Christ. Hating Him, they accuse Him. Satan always teaches man that God is unjust, that God requires more than is right, that it does not pay to serve the Lord.

SOURCE: “Matthew: The King Of The Jews” (V

erse-By-Verse Commentary), by Evangelist John R. Rice, p. 415; Sword Of The Lord, copyright 1955

So we see that this passage from Matthew 25:24-30 applies to both the lost and the saved, depending on whom the shoe fits. The purpose of this parable is accountability. Even the unsaved person has been entrusted with the gift of life. God gives every man a measure of faith (Romans 12:3). You can put that faith in Jesus Christ as your personal Savior, or you can put that faith in man’s religion or yourself. Even the unsaved person will be held accountable by God, their Creator, for all that has been entrusted to them. This is what Jesus is teaching in Matthew 25:24-30. All humanity will be held accountable to God.

Every unsaved person must give account to God in eternity (Revelation 20:11-15), just as the saved do (2nd Corinthians 5:9-11). We are all a part of God’s creation and we are His creatures. Ecclesiastes 12:13-14, “ Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man. For God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil. ”

4.3.6 Baptist Pastors Teach Same Roman Catholic Heresy On Repentance (2023-03-10 10:53)

Mark 1:15, "And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel."

The Roman Catholic understanding of repentance is unbiblical. Roman Catholics corrupt the meaning of repent to mean a change of lifestyle. As do all false prophets, the following description of repentance starts off with the correct meaning of "a change of mind," and then subtly perverts the meaning by the end of the paragraph to mean “a change of lifestyle”...

> But what does it mean to truly repent? The Greek word for repentance that is used in the Gospel is metanoia, which literally means "to change one’s mind." This "change" of "mind" necessarily entails a profound interior conversion in which we firmly turn from worldly darkness, and embrace a new way of life as Christ’s disciples. Thus repentance is not merely to know of Christ, nor is it a matter of picking and choosing—with an intellectual arrogance—some aspects of our Lord’s teaching while coldly rejecting others; rather, it is a union of mind, heart and soul to the Person of Christ. To repent is to die to Christ, discarding our former way of life in favor of the Way, Truth, and Life that is Christ himself.
> SOURCE: [1]A Lenten Reflection On Repentance — Catholic Online

Where in the Bible are we taught that repentance means to “DIE TO CHRIST?” We are saved by trusting Jesus. nothing else. Then as a Christian, God wants us to be crucified with Christ and die to the lusts and desires of the flesh. Please understand that the saved life and the crucified life are separate. If you combine the two, you have a corrupted Gospel, a false plan of salvation. Dr. Jack Hyles does a wonderful job explaining this truth in his awesome MP3 sermon titled, “[2]STEPS TO SANCTIFICATION (OR THE ROOT OF ALL HERESY).” We are saved by trusting Jesus, period. Whether or not you turn away from the old lifestyle of sin DOESN’T keep you from being saved. Eternal life is a free gift (Romans 5:15; Ephesians 2:8-9). You can be saved by simply believing on Jesus Christ, that He died for your sins on the cross, was buried and raised-up from the dead three days later (1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

What Is Genuine Biblical Repentance?

Most churches today have adopted a Roman Catholic interpretation of repentance, which includes penance, forsaking sinful living and changing one’s ways to be saved. The Bible teaches something VERY different. Biblical repentance unto life simply means “[3]a change of mind,” that is, a change of mind about whatever was hindering you from coming to the Lord to be saved. John 3:20 says that sin hinders people from coming to the light (Jesus, John 8:12) to be saved, because people living in sin don’t want to be reproved and told they are wrong. When a man repents, he acknowledges that he is a guilty sinner in the eyes of a holy God, and so now he comes to Christ by faith to be saved.

Repentance simply means that you acknowledge your sinnership and thus need for Christ to save you. Romans 3:19, “Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God.” We are saved by believing, not by repenting, but we wouldn’t believe if we didn’t repent. This is why the words “believe” and “believed” appear 85 times in the Gospel of John, but the word “repent” is never mentioned even once. A person MUST repent to be saved, but repentance does NOT mean changing your sinful ways and turning over a new leaf for God. I am worried about the salvation of umpteen Independent Baptists in our churches today, who have told me that they don’t think believing the Gospel is enough to be saved. They have been caught-up into the heresy of Roman Catholicism.

One Baptist man who teaches in a local Bible college said to me a few months ago, “I think there needs to be a little bit more.” That is, he believes it is NOT enough to trust upon Christ's death on the cross for our sins, His burial, and His resurrection three days later to save us. This is the Gospel (good news) according to 1st Corinthians 15:1-4. The foolish guy also believes that you must purpose in your heart to stop living in a lifestyle of sin. The guy needs to get saved. My friend, there is a fine line between Christianity and the religion of the cults. Grace is not earned, it is offered!

Pastor Harry A. Ironside (1876-1951) correctly understood repentance . . .

> "Repentance is the very opposite of meritorious experience. It is the confession that one is utterly without merit, and if he is ever saved at all it can only be through the merits of our Lord Jesus Christ, 'who gave himself a ransom for all.' Here is firm footing for the soul who realizes that all self-effort is but sinking sand. Christ alone is the Rock of our salvation."
> SOURCE: Harry A. Ironside; [4]Except Ye Repent, p. 36)

Clearly, Ironside taught a Free Grace view of the Gospel. Harry A. Ironside correctly recognized repentance as the confession that "one is utterly without merit" and that if one is "ever saved at all it can only be through the merits of our Lord Jesus Christ." Salvation is without works of self-righteousness. Romans 4:5 plainly teaches that a man's faith is COUNTED for righteousness, i.e., the righteousness of Jesus Christ is imputed to one's heavenly record by faith.

> "Repentance is the recognition of my sinnership — the owning before God that I am as vile as He has declared me to be in His holy Word."
> SOURCE: [5]Except Ye Repent, by Dr. Harry Ironside, chapter 3

All that God requires for salvation is that we receive Christ's death, burial and resurrection from the dead three days later as full-payment for our sins. Concerning salvation, "repentance" does NOT mean to cease from sinful bad habits, nor turn over a new leaf, nor make a full surrender to Christ, nor to forsake the world. A person may do all of these things and yet never have believe the Gospel at all. The Gospel is Good News to simply be believed, and not conditions to be achieved.

Gospel + Faith = Salvation (Hebrews 4:2)

4.3.7 The King James Bible Is Inspired By God (2023-03-11 02:22)

2nd Timothy 3:16-17, “All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: That the man of God may be perfect, throughly furnished unto all good works.”

One of the saddest things I have seen in my life was in 2008, when the First Baptist Church of Hammond and by extension Hyles-Anderson College (HAC) changed their position on the Holy Bible. Since 2008 FBCH and HAC have DENIED the inspiration of the King James Bible. Pastor Jack Hyles is heart-broken up in Heaven. Here is HAC’s 2023 Statement of Beliefs...

> "We believe the Word of God as found in the sixty-six (66) books from Genesis to Revelation is infallible and inerrant and perfect;1 it is the plenary and verbally inspired2 words of God to men.3 We believe God has also preserved every single word4 through the ages.
> 1 Psalm 12:6; Proverbs 30:5; 2 II Timothy 3:16; II Peter 1:21; 3 Deuteronomy 8:3; Matthew 4:4; 4 Isaiah 40:8; Matthew 5:18; Matthew 24:35; I Peter 1:25.
> God has divinely preserved His words for English-speaking people in the King James Version. The King James Version is the translation used in any and all ministries of First Baptist Church for English-speaking people."

What you just read is a cleverly worded Statement of Belief that refuses to state that we have an inspired Holy Bible today. HAC won't say that the King James Bible is inspired. [1]THEY JUST WON'T SAY IT!!!

Sadly, FBCH and HAC believe and teach that God has "preserved" His very pure words, but that those words are not longer inspired. They errantly believe that inspiration merely refers to God's breathing out His Words to holy men of old, and that's it. I strongly disagree, and so did Dr. Jack Hyles.

Brother Hyles asked this $64,000 question: "What good is inspiration without preservation?" That is a great question! What would have been the significance of God inspiring His Words, if those words lost their inspiration? By "inspiration" I mean that they are God's Words!!! Psalms 119:139-140, "My zeal hath consumed me, because mine enemies have forgotten thy words. Thy word is very pure: therefore thy servant loveth it."

The Psalmist, David, said that he loved God's Words because they are "very pure." What do you think David would think of having HUNDREDS of different conflicting English Bible revisions today? David would loath them, as I do!!!

I'd like to reverse Dr. Hyles' question: "What good is preservation without inspiration?" It doesn't matter how you ask the question, because the answer is the same—what good would God preserving His very pure Words be, if they were no longer inspired; and what good would it have been for God to inspire His very pure Words, if He didn't preserve those Words?

In other words, for God not to be a dirty liar, we must have both preserved inspiration and inspired preservation. Psalms 12:6-7, "The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times. Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever."

In a Bible study decades ago, Dr. Hyles taught about preservation, but he didn't mention inspiration. So after Dr. Hyles went to Heaven in 2001, in 2008 some knuckleheads at FBCH decided that the King James Bible is only preserved, but not inspired. [2]Listen to what Pastor Hyles had to say about that while he was still alive.

Lest any liar say otherwise about my friend and mentor, Pastor Jack Hyles, read for your self what Dr. Hyles believed and preached about Bible inspiration (these quotes are priceless)...

"The only inspired Words of God are in the King James Bible!" —Dr. Jack Hyles (an [3]awesome quote —Dr. Jack Hyles ('[4]THE REAL BATTLE!')

What's that you say? You'd like another quote? Okay, here it is my friend...

> "Every word in this Bible is inspired by God almighty!" —Dr. Jack Hyles (a great quote from the classic sermon, "[5]A Friend At Midnight")

> "Students of Hyles-Anderson College, do not give your loyalty to Hyles-Anderson College. You give your loyalty to what we stand for today, and if tomorrow we don't stand for it, you withdraw your loyalty—loyalty to principle, loyalty to right, loyalty to character, loyalty to integrity, loyalty to conviction, loyalty to truth; not loyalty to institutions." —Dr. Jack Hyles, from the sermon titled, "[6]Filled With All The Fulness Of God"

> "Everything born is born dying... Death is inevitable... The length of your life depends on how much you fight the inevitable death... The day will come when the Hyles-Anderson College will be liberal. The day will come when this Bible is not believed in Hyles-Anderson College, if the Lord tarries... The day will come when this church will turn." —Pastor Jack Hyles, from the timeless sermon, "[7]The Church First"

> "Don't come to me with your stinkin' 'only the original is inspired'! You're not intellectual... you're retarded!" —Dr. Jack Hyles, '[8]Keep your Stinkin' Feet Out of My Drinking Water' (1998 Wednesday night Bible study, MP3)

> "And brother, any time anybody ever casts any reflection upon the accuracy and the inspiration—verbal inspiration—of this Bible, I'll guarantee you he was inspired by the demons. I'll guarantee you! I don't care if he's got a 'reverend' in front of his name. I don't care if he has a clerical collar on. I don't care what school he's been to. He's of the Devil if he says that the Bible is not verbally inspired by God!" —Dr. Jack Hyles, a great quote from the awesome MP3 sermon titled, "[9]Satan's masterpiece"

And this next quote from Pastor Hyles ought to cause FBCH and HAC to fall on their knees in repentance and weep, because this is exactly what they are doing, deceiving people!!! FBCH and HAC DON'T believe that the King James Bible is inspired word for word, they only think that the original autographs were inspired; but the shady way that they word their Statement of Beliefs, it misleads and deceives people regarding what they really believe. ...

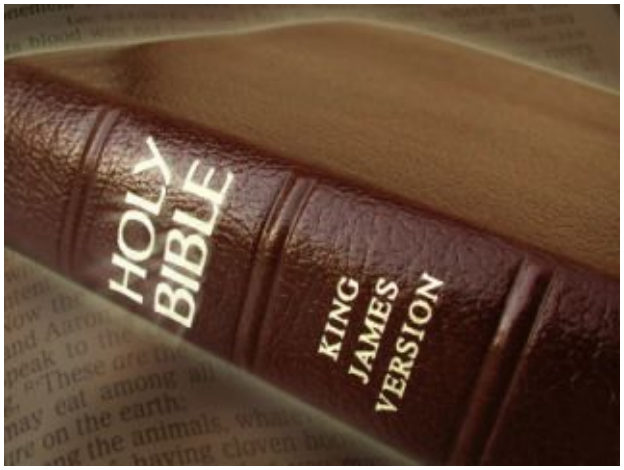
> "I'm tired of colleges and universities advertising that they use the King James Bible. Tell the whole story! Tell everyone that you do not believe that it is inspired word for word." —Dr. Jack Hyles, "The Need For An Every Word Bible," page 54

> "I would not give, knowingly, one thin dime to a college that does not believe in the verbal inspiration of this Book I hold tonight." —Pastor Jack Hyles, from the timeless sermon, "[10]YOU MUST GO THROUGH ARABIA"; preached October 11, 1981

FBCH and HAC are dirty deceivers!!! I hate exposing my own home college, where I attended for 8 years (1985-1993), but my loyalty is to God and truth, and not Dr. Hyles, FBCH or HAC. Brother Hyles was so right, why doesn't FBCH and HAC simply be honest and tell everyone that they DON'T think we have an inspired King James Bible today. Why all the lies and deception? It is because they know if they deny the inspiration of the King James Bible, they WILL lose church support and their students, and thus, lots of money.

Sadly, since their former incompetent pastor, Dr. Jack Schaap (whom I still love and appreciate having as my Bible teacher at HAC for 8 years), foolishly changed the church's position on the Bible in 2008. Dr. Schaap didn't teach that garbage when I knew him in college, because Dr. Hyles would have had his bags packed and fired him. I am the biggest sinner I know, so I am not condemning anybody. However, as a Bible preacher I am compelled to expose error wherever I find it. I have had preachers preach against me. If I deserve it, then so be it. If they are lying (and most are), then God will be their only judge (James 4:12; 5:9; Matthew 12:36). God is no respecter of persons, and neither am I. If the shoe fits, wear it friend!

Here you can [11]read Dr. Russell Anderson's protest letter to Pastor Jack Schaap in 2009, hurt and upset that HAC changed their position on the Bible.



And here is [12]Dr. Russell Anderson's protest letter to Pastor John Wilkerson in 2015, requesting that they remove Dr. Anderson's name from Hyles-Anderson College! Dr. Hyles often called Dr. Anderson: "The brother I never had." I know with certainty that if Dr. Hyles could come down from Heaven, he would fire everybody in leadership at FBCH and HAC and clean house.

FBCH cannot substitute for trashing out Bible inspiration with aggressive soulwinning. Denying Bible inspiration is always the Devil's foot in the door. Mark my words, in a couple generations (if the Lord tarries His return), HAC will start using the Devil's bibles, and then they'll start preaching the Devil's lies of Misunderstood Repentance and Lordship Salvation (which deadly heresies the Devil's Bible revisions promote). They are already changing for the worse. Albeit, I still love the people who invested their lives into mine at FBCH and HAC. To God be the glory, great things He hath done (and is still doing and will continue to do, by His grace through faith). Thank you for reading my blogs.

Jesus is precious!!!

4.3.8 The Big Problem With Pensacola Christian College (2023-03-15 21:14)

Matthew 18:12-13, "How think ye? if a man have an hundred sheep, and one of them be gone astray, doth he not leave the ninety and nine, and goeth into the mountains, and seeketh that which is gone astray? And if so be that he find it, verily I say unto you, he rejoiceth more of that sheep, than of the ninety and nine which went not astray."

No one truly walks with God who doesn't care about individual people. When I moved from the island of Guam to Pensacola, Florida in July of 2021, I chose to attend Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College (PCC). The first time I met Pastor Redlin was at the 4th of July picnic at Camp[us Church. I learned 15 minutes after meeting Jeff Redlin (their senior pastor), that he is a coward who doesn't genuinely care about people. First impressions are lasting impressions. If Jeff Redlin would have passed by the robbed and beaten Samaritan man laying on the ground in the Bible, he would have just scurried away and not helped the hurting man. It is hard to grasp that a senior pastor of a college church, with thousands of buildings and empty dorms during the summer, wouldn't even help a homeless Christian brother in need. 1st John 3:17, " But whoso hath this world's good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him?"

The ungodly Woodspring Suites Hotel in Pensacola, were greedy and cancelled my 30-day confirmed reservation because my plane was one day late coming from Guam (due to United Airlines' plane being delayed to fix an idiot light on the pilot's dashboard), the wicked hotel cancelled my entire reservation. Consequently, I missed my connecting flight in Honolulu to Denver. I had a 17-hour layover in Hawaii. I had responsibly contacted the hotel ahead of time, to let them know the situation, and that I was still coming July 2nd, and they had my permission to bill my credit card upfront for the entire stay. I explained all this to Pastor Redlin, letting him know that I was sleeping homeless in Walmart's parking lot on Mobile Highway. To my dismay, he looked at me and just walked away, not caring. I know then what type of man he was, no man at all.

Jeff Redlin's unkindness would be followed in the weeks to come with his mistreatment toward me, woeful lack of compassion and harsh insensitive remarks. A few days after my arrival in Pensacola, I sent the sweetest email to Pastor Redlin to introduce myself. I mentioned kindly that I am a Hyles-Anderson College graduate and wanted to serve the Lord in a ministry at PCC. I explained that I have suffered from stenosis and radiculitis in my neck since 2004. I explained that I had no family or friends in Pensacola, and that I needed their love and friendship at Campus Church and PCC. To my dismay, the only thing Pastor Redlin took notice of in my email (which took my a few hours to compose), was to scold me for mentioning in a single sentence that my former wife divorced me in 2006 and I hoped to find a wife at Campus Church. What a wicked and uncaring jerk!

I felt unwelcomed and unloved at PCC. So I emailed Pastor Redlin to directly ask him if I was welcomed at Campus Church. He rudely ignored me for 10 days, so I personally confronted him kindly after a Sunday morning church service. He was cold and mean, saying in front of his lovely wife that he would never perform a wedding if I did find a woman to marry. I was shocked that this runt for a pastor, whom I had never met or heard of before 3 weeks earlier, was treating me like garbage, patronizing me and making rude insensitive comments that were highly inappropriate. Sadly, this is the norm in the PCC camp.

So I kindly contacted Jeff Redlin the next day, to let him know how I felt. His lame excuse for ignoring me for 10-days was that someone had contacted the church's information desk, wanting a contact address for the "I-pad preacher." Redlin claimed that he didn't have my address (which was a big lie because I filled out a visitor's card my first Sunday at Campus Church, and they mailed me a welcome letter). So they did in fact have my mailing address. What's more, Pastor Redlin also had me email contact, because we has been corresponding by email. Jeff Redlin is a dirty liar! Then Pastor Redlin said that since they didn't have my contact information, they had no choice but to search through my ministry websites, and saw that I "find weaknesses in preachers."

I have a hard time believing what Pastor Redlin said for a few reasons:

1. I'm sure that the pastors of Campus Church have better things to do than search my [1]ministry websites for my contact information. Jeff Redlin is not a good liar.
2. As I mentioned, I filled out a visitor's card and the church mailed me a welcome letter, which proves that they had my contact information.
3. I emailed Pastor Redlin the day after the first time I met him at the church's 4th of July picnic in 2021. So as of July 5th, 2021, he had my email contact.
4. It is bizarre and ridiculous to even imagine that the pastors of a mega-church (with all the things they have to do each week), would take the time to search my ministry websites just to find my contact information, because someone asked them how to contact me. Why didn't they just tell the man to look at my websites?

Here's what I think really happened. One of my ministry's enemies slandered me to Campus Church. So the pastors of Campus Church went to lift the sewer cover to see what they could find on social media, which is what ungodly religious hypocrites do. They condemned me in their own minds because [2]I have been exposing the rotten Bob Jones University (BJU) cult (including the shameful Harvest Baptist Church cult on Guam). Since they are all in bed together committing spiritual adultery, my battle with Harvest spread to PCC as well. That is what happened. Redlin admitted it when he false accused me of finding weaknesses in preachers. That is inaccurate! In truth, I am exposing WICKEDNESS in preachers! Lordship Salvation is of the Devil, and those ungodly pastors who preach it are incompetent!!!

The biggest threat and danger to churches today are pastors who are indifferent, who refuse to fight the good fight of faith, who embellish and pervert the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ.

> "The worst pervert in America is the Gospel pervert!" —Brother Lester Roloff, "[3]The Gospel Perverts Or Jesus?"

Yes Sir, you said it best! Bob Jones University is preaching another gospel, a wicked deception called Lordship Salvation. BJU says faith is not enough; but also, they errantly teach that you must forsake a sinful lifestyle, which is WORKS!!!

Jesus said in Matthew 18:12-13, "How think ye? if a man have an hundred sheep, and one of them be gone astray, doth he not leave the ninety and nine, and goeth into the mountains, and seeketh that which is gone astray? And if so be that he find it, verily I say unto you, he rejoiceth more of that sheep, than of the ninety and nine which went not astray."

That is the Lord's way of thinking, that the need of the one hurting individual person outweighs the need of the ninety-nine. Sadly, and wickedly, the horrible attitude of Pastor Jeff Redlin and PCC leadership is that individual people do not matter, just so long as their cult institution is doing well. I have heard numerous former PCC students and mistreated former Campus Church members says the same thing

—The system always comes first at PCC, but individual people do not matter. SHAME on the PCC camp.

Kindly said, they need to fire every person in a position of leadership at PCC, and hire God-fearing believers who genuinely care about individual people. Sadly, they have huge egos at PCC. I kindly apologized to PCC leadership and the pastors of Campus Church three times in 2022, because I missed my friends that I had made at PCC. But the pastors and PCC leaders refused to respond for six weeks. When I finally became frustrated and criticized them again on social media, they banned me from attending Campus Church. So you better believe that I am going to tell me story... "Me Too!" Me too, I was abused and mistreated at Pensacola Christian College. They ought to be honest and rename PCC to Pensacola Comfortable College, or Pensacola Crappy College, because that is what it is.

What makes PCC so awful is that they only care about the ninety-nine sheep, but the hurting one individual lamb means absolutely nothing to them (which I am living proof of). If you would kindly like to contact Pastor Jeff Redlin, to voice your opinion or ask him why they refuse to allow me to attend their Campus Church, here are their church emails...

[4]jRedlin@campuschurch.com and [5]info@campuschurch.com

God knows that I do l love the leaders at PCC, but they don't reciprocate that love, because they are carnally minded. Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) is right, that they are academic types at PCC and not church builders, so they woefully lack compassion for people. God knows that I humbled my heart three times in the summer of 2022, literally begging to come back to Campus Church. They ought to be the one's apologizing to me, and expressing God's forgiveness and unconditional love, but they are filled with hatred and pride instead. Most hateful people fail to see their own hatred, but what else do you call it when a group of professed Christians refuse to reconcile and make peace with their brother in Christ? If that's not hate then I don't know what is.

PCC is just like the ungodly mother who aborts her baby. That mother would never admit to hating her unborn child, but yet she just murdered it! Having an abortion doesn't make a woman unpregnant, it just makes her the mother of a dead baby. Likewise, PCC banning me from attending their Campus Church doesn't make it okay, it makes them murderers for killing their hurting brother who needs their love, forgiveness and understanding.

There is no love at Pensacola Christian College or their shameful Campus Church, where only certain people matter. ALL LIVES MATTER to God, but not at PCC. SHAME on all of them for being ungodly religious hypocrites in the PCC camp. Sadly, nobody cares at PCC, all they care about is their paychecks. The LOVE OF MONEY is the root of all evil the Bible says (1st Timothy 6:10-11). Pastor Jeff Redlin's 6-digit undeserved salary is blood money! If they ever want to make peace, they already have my contact information.

God sees their wickedness, stiff-necked pride, haughty spirit and shameful behavior at PCC and Campus Church (Hebrews 4:13; Romans 14:10-12). I kindly dare you to contact Jeff Redlin or Campus Church's information desk with the emails I have provided for you in this blog. Almost assuredly they will completely ignore you, as they have me. That is what bullies do! That is what selfish uncaring hypocrites do! That is what cold-hearted heathens do!

It is becoming very difficult to find genuinely love from leaders in churches and Bible colleges today. Worst, their followers rarely rise above the carnality of those incompetent religious leaders. Albeit, I would rather them reject me at PCC, than for me to stoop to their heathen level and not love them. You can know if someone genuinely walks with God, if they love everybody. Thank you for reading my humble rant from a sorrowful broken heart. Today's Bible colleges and the churches that they corrupt with their alumni are pathetic. Jesus is precious!!!

James 4:13-16, “Go to now, ye that say, To day or to morrow we will go into such a city, and continue there a year, and buy and sell, and get gain:

Whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow. For what is your life? It is even a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away.

For that ye ought to say, If the Lord will, we shall live, and do this, or that.

But now ye rejoice in your boastings: all such rejoicing is evil.”

4.3.10 Revenging All Disobedience (2023-03-18 22:54)

2nd Corinthians 10:3-6, “For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh: (For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds;) Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ; And having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled."

This is one of my favorite Bible passages full of practical truths to live by. To get right to the point of my blog, verse 6 teaches us that when we mess up and sin, the best revenge is to purpose in our heart never to commit that sin again!!! This is such a helpful truth, not only for combatting and overcoming sin in our life, but for dieting or anything else. Like most Americans, I have been battling to control my weight for most of my adult life. When I am on a diet to lose weight, and I have a bad day where I succumb to cravings and binge eat, I take revenge the next day by purposing in my heart to eat only very healthy foods.

Anytime that we sin, we should be upset with our self for disappointing the Lord. A human child that has been properly trained by Mom and Dad, ought to feel sorrow and cry for breaking their parent's heart. Likewise, we as God's children should feel regret, sorrow and sadness when we grieve God by our sins. If we do not, it evidences that something is wrong with our walk with God. If parent's continually shower their child with praise and love, that child will feel regret, sorrow and sadness when they realize that they disappointed Mom and Dad. God has been so good to us all. Love must be unconditional for a child, no matter what they do, just as God unconditionally loves His children (even when we sin). I sincerely believe that God never let anyone perish into Hell without crying over them. Our dear Creator, God and Savior loves all of humanity. John 3:16, "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life."

By the way, a parent ought never spank a child in anger, or suddenly jerk their arm, or discipline them in a fit of wrath for something that the child did wrong. It is not good to spank a child without first explaining to them what they did wrong, and why discipline is required and proper. To spank a child who thinks you are being unfair is counterproductive to their spiritual growth. Children need boundaries, rules and discipline, to let them know that they are loved by caring parents. Albeit, all discipline must be done in unconditional love, or else the child may become resentful, bitter and a delinquent someday. Singer Kenny Rogers (1938-2020) said his mother "force-fed" him and his siblings religion, and that he complained about going to church, to which his mother wisely replied:

> "You can never be more as an adult than what's put into you as a child." —Kenny Rogers' mother, Lucille Lois Rogers (1910-1993)

Amen, that is a great quote!

Here is my humble exegesis of this Scripture passage...

1. Although we walk after the flesh, we do not war after the flesh. This means even though we are temporality stuck in our human body, our daily battle is not of the flesh, but of the spirit. Ephesians 6:12-13, "For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand." Our battle as believers is not against people who ruin our day; but rather, Satan working in their life. The Bible says our battle is of a spiritual nature, against the powers of the darkness of this world. What is that? I humbly think it refers to the Luciferian elite who run this world from behind the scenes.

   If you doubt what I say, simply [1]look at the back of any U.S. one dollar bill, and you'll see all the [2]Luciferian occult symbols. Satan's diabolical conspiracy to bring to reality a New World Order is a generational plot, spanning over thousands of years by members of secret societies, Satanism and the occult. I believe this is what the Bible refers to in 2nd Thessalonians 2:7, "For the mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way."

I believe that this "mystery of iniquity" in the Word of God refers to the coming sinister New World Order (NWO), which will be the completion of what was started by the Devil at Babel in Genesis 11:1-11. Please listen to Pastor Jack Hyles preach an intriguing sermon titled: '[3]THE ONE WORLD SYSTEM.' The city and tower of Babel (meaning confusion) were never finished, because God stifled their progress, scattering the people across the face of the earth to segregate them. God is a segregated God. God also changed their languages, so that they could no longer understand each other. God did this permanent miracle to thwart the New World Order for thousands of years. But today, God is allowing Satan to complete what he started at Babel.

Interestingly, I believe this is what the detached top of 'The Great Pyramid' illustrates, the unfinished system of Babel (man united against God). One of the earliest references to [4]The Great Pyramid of Egypt was made by Diodorus Siculus in 60 BC. ...

Our text passage teaches that the weapons of our warfare as saints are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds. Our weapons are only mighty THROUGH GOD, by faith. Without the good Lord we are vulnerable and helpless. Jesus said in John 15:5 that without Him we can do NOTHING.

2. The Pulling Down Of Strongholds. The Bible speaks of PULLING DOWN STRONG HOLDS. What is that? We find the answer in verse 5,

   Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ;

” As we just read,

“s trong holds

refers to imaginations (reasoning) and every high thing that exalteth itself against the inspired Word of God. A “high thing

is anything that contradicts the Holy Bible. Abortion is a high thing that exalteth itself against the inspired Word of God. S ame-sex marriage is a high thing that exalteth itself against the Holy Bible. Feminism is a high thing that exalteth itself against the eternal Word of God, et cetera.

The phrase “strong holds” in 2nd Corinthians 10:4 is the Greek word ochurōma, which conveys the idea of a castle, or a fortress. The Bible is likening our struggle with sin and overcoming evil with demolishing a fortress by the power of God. This all comes by faith. Hebrews 11:6, “But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.” My favorite preacher and my mentor, Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001), used to wisely say that there is no victory as shallow as victory over another, because all you need to win is an inferior opponent. Proverbs 16:32,

“ He that is slow to anger is better than the mighty; and he that ruleth his spirit than he that taketh a city.” The greatest obstacles, challenges and battles in all of our lives is overcoming our own immaturities, character flaws and shortcomings. Thankfully, God’s power can demolish the strongest enemy fortress!

So far we have learned that our battle as saints are of a spiritual nature, and not of the flesh. Our seven items of battle armour and weaponry are listed in Ephesians 6:10-18; namely: the helmet of salvation, the Sword of the Word of God, the shield of faith, the breastplate of righteousness, our lions gird about with truth, our feet shod with preparation the Gospel, and prayer. Our weapons are not anger, gossip, slander, hate or throwing people under the bus. Ephesians 6:18, “

Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance and supplication for all saints; ” Dear reader, please don’t fall into the trap of trying to fight your own battles in the flesh. Our battles are spiritual, not physical (even though we sometimes need to fight physical battles). All physical wars are fueled by a battle between good and evil on an unseen spiritual plane. If we keep this biblical truth in mind, it will compel us as God’s adopted children to earnestly pray, abide in the Scriptures, preach the Gospel, and have faith in God.

The breastplate is not a weapon, but armour for protection. Is this the imputed righteousness of God by faith that protects us? Is it our practical righteousness, trying to live by faith in God’s power above reproach? I humbly think it is both.

Proverbs 28:1, “

The wicked flee when no man pursueth: but the righteous are bold as a lion.

The Bible mentions our

feet shod with the preparation of the Gospel.

That is an interesting phrase. Why feet? Why preparation? Pastor Jack Hyles used to wisely say that greatness is in the preparation, not in the performance. [6]Eric Honnold is one of my favorite people to follow. Eric did the unimaginable in June of 2017, at age 32, when he became the first person to [7]free solo (no ropes or safety equipment), the rugged 3,000 foot wall of El Capitan in Yosemite National Park in California. The reason I mentioned this is because [8]Eric explained how he was able to free climb a 3,000 foot high mountain with no ropes or safety equipment, being able to overcome his fear of falling. I LOVE THIS GUY!!!

Eric explains in the preceding video that he systematically climbed each portion of the wall, preparing all his life for this incredible one day feat. The climb took him just 3 hours! Wow! Eric climbed a mountain two times higher than the Sears Tower in Chicago. My mind cannot even fathom what Eric did, because it is so amazing. I encourage you dear reader to view several YouTube videos about [9]Eric Honnold and his amazing accomplishments in climbing that boggles the human mind . But the thing that I want you to notice friend is that Eric’s great secret (if there is a secret at all) is that HE PREPARES for his climbs for years, by incrementally mastering each portion of the climb ahead of time, so when the time of the climb comes, he has already done it hundreds of times to perfect his footing, emotions, logistics, surroundings and nuances of the climb.

3. Bring Every Thought Into Captivity To The Obedience Of God. 2nd Corinthians 10:5, “

   Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ;” I love this Bible verse so much!!! This is not brainwashing, this is being led by the Holy Spirit of God, by which every believer is indwelt at the moment of the new birth (Ephesians 1:13-14; Romans 8:9; 1st John 3:24). This verse simply teaches that when a sinful or wrong thought enters into our mind, we ought to immediately seize that thought, and make it conform to align with the inspired Holy Scriptures. Of course, this necessitates having a working understanding and familiarity with the Holy Bible. When the Devil came three times in Matthew 4:1-10 to tempt Jesus, our dear Savior didn’t need to go find a written copy of the Bible, He was already familiar with the Scripture, so much so that the Lord could fluently quote passages from the Psalms and other books of the Old Testament (the New Testament hadn’t been penned yet), to resist and drive the Devil away.

4. Always Be Ready To Avenge All Disobedience Against God. 2nd Corinthians 10:6, “

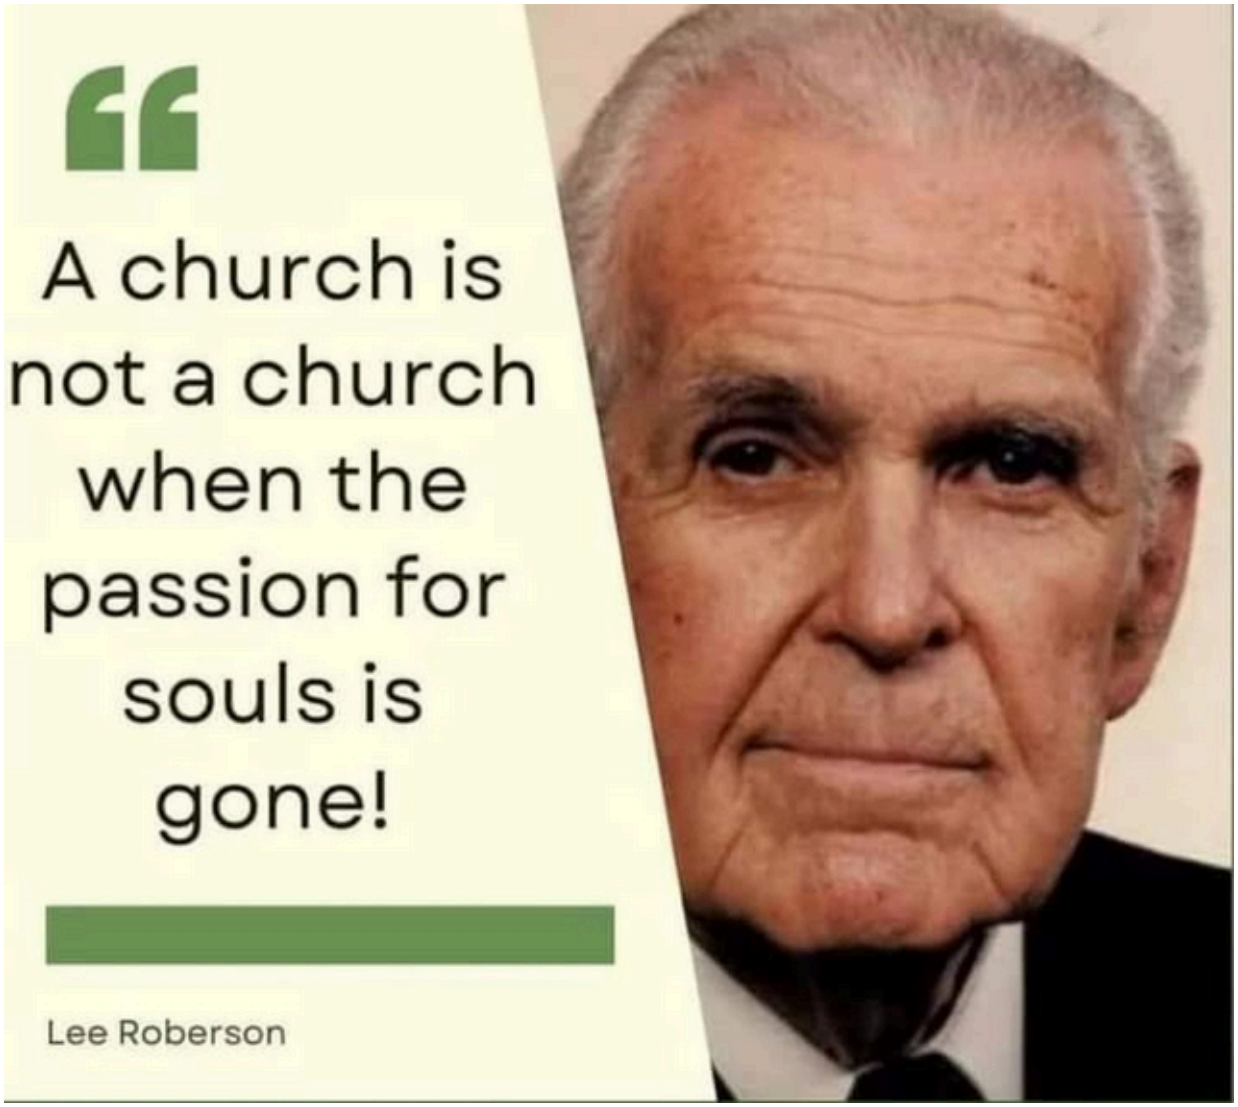
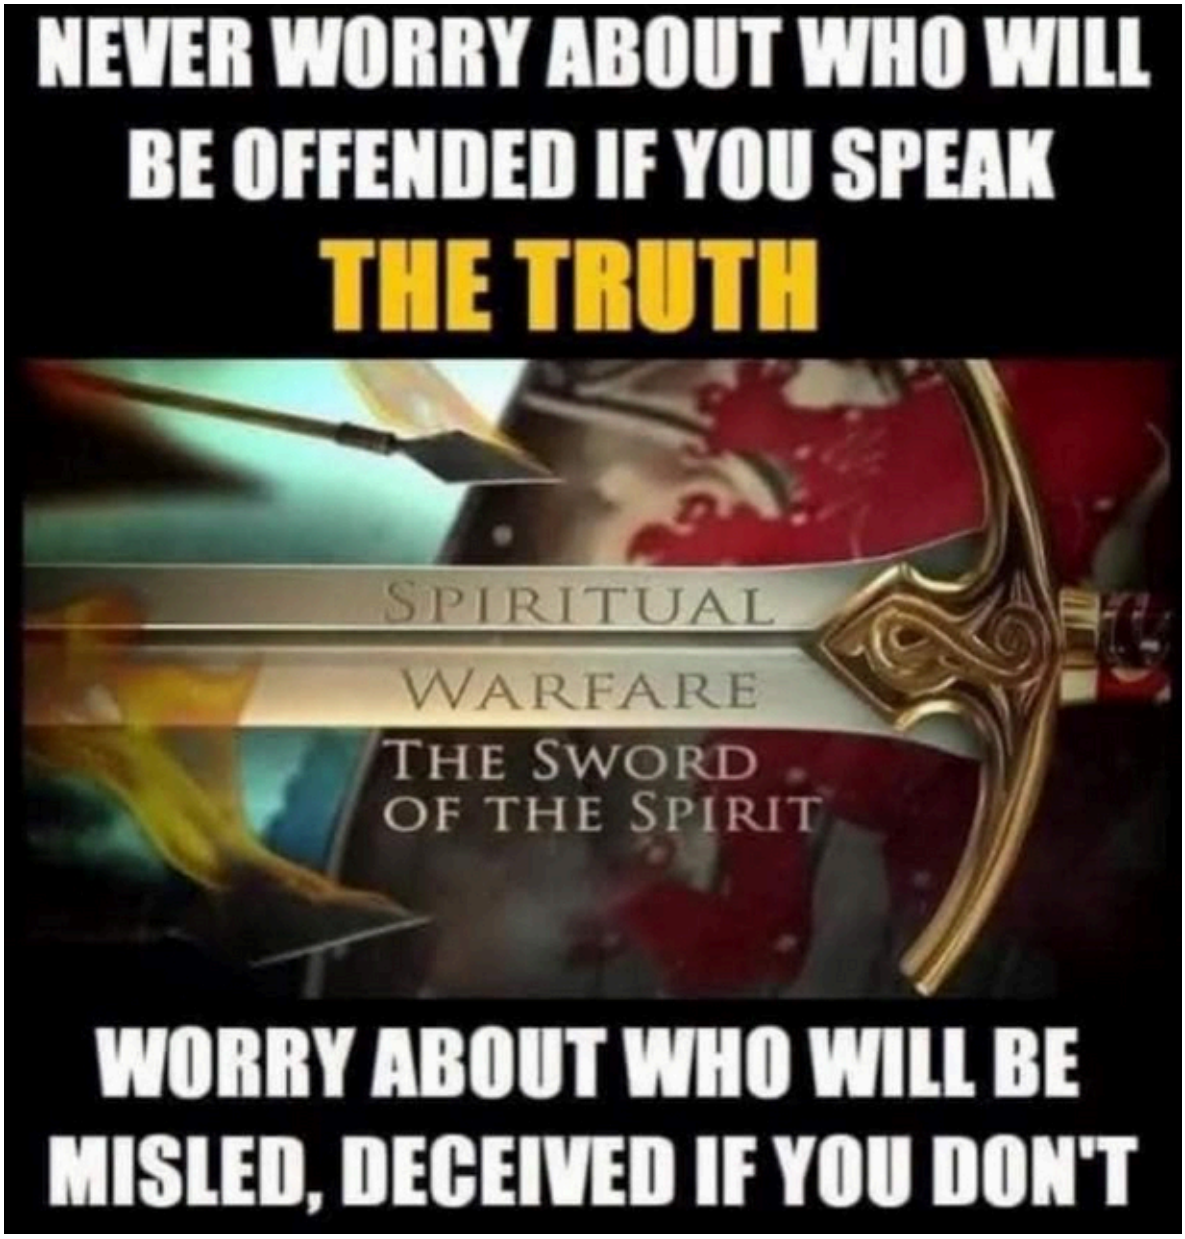
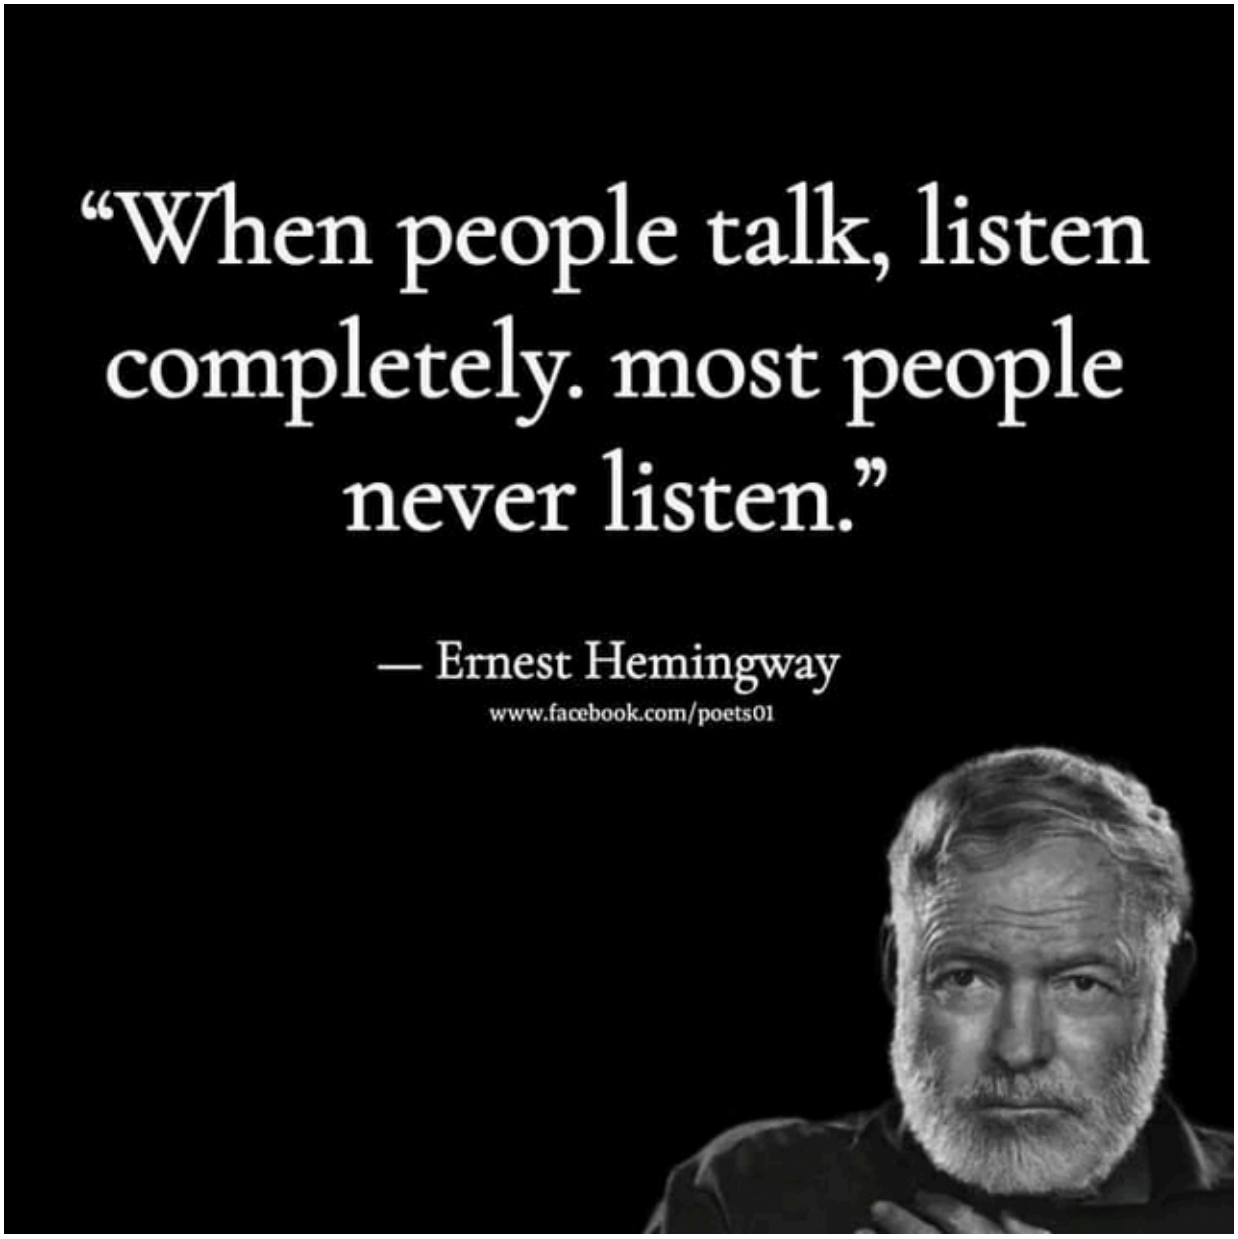
   And having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.” As human beings we are all sinful creatures in God’s sight. It was Adam’s disobedience that opened the floodgate of sin and death upon the world (Romans 5:12). Surely, there is nothing we could ever do to make up (penance), atone or pay for our sins. That is why Jesus Christ needed to come into the world, to die on a cruel cross to pay our massive debt of sin. Jesus paid a debt He did not owe, because we owed a debt we could not pay (2nd Corinthians 5:21).



Galatians 2:21, “I do not frustrate the grace of God: for if righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain.”



All of these ungodly pastors and clergy today, who preach that in addition to faith a person must “turn away from your sins” to be saved, are pulling on the same rope as the Devil. They are frustrating the grace of God!!! As we just read in Galatians 2:21, if a person could attain righteousness (salvation) by the works of the Old Testament law, then Christ died in vain on the cross.



Satan is a beautiful liar!!! The Devil comes along and says that in addition to faith, a person must forsake a lifestyle of sinning to get to Heaven (which is what infidels’ Marty Herron, John MacArthur and Steve Pettit all errantly preach). Jesus fulfilled everything that is necessary and allowed for our salvation through His one-time blood sacrifice (1st Peter 1:18-19). The reason why I harp constantly, fuss uncompromisingly and preach incessantly against the Devil’s lies of Lordship Salvation, fake bibles and misunderstood repentance is because souls are at stake! Life is short, Hell is hot and eternity is a long time!!!

I cherish 2nd Corinthians 10:3-6, because it teaches us how to successfully live the Christian life, by continually sizing any and all wrong thoughts, and bring them into captivity to obedience to God’s inspired Word. It’s no different if you desire to lose weight. When you crave the Doritos and boxed pizza, without a second thought just immediately go get the bag of celery sticks instead, and dip them into a little cream cheese to eat. Any child of God can live right in 2023 if they want to. 1st Corinthians 10:13, “ There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it. ” Our good God ALWAYS makes a way of escape from sin.

So when you sin dear friend, and we all do unfortunately, get revenge when the dust settles and the smoke clears, by purposing in your soul that it will never happen again. 2nd Corinthians 10:6, “And having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.”

A church is not a church when the passion for souls is gone!

4.3.11 Lord Willing If The Creek Don't Rise (2023-03-19 20:04)

James 4:13-17, "Go to now, ye that say, To day or to morrow we will go into such a city, and continue there a year, and buy and sell, and get gain: Whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow. For what is your life? It is even a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away. For that ye ought to say, If the Lord will, we shall live, and do this, or that.But now ye rejoice in your boastings: all such rejoicing is evil. Therefore to him that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin. "

My pastor said in his sermon today that his grandfather used to always say: "Lord willing, if the creek don't rise." I really like that, so much so that I'm going to start using it.

To say "Lord willing" is one of the most important Bible truths I have ever learned. All my life I have paid attention to a lost and dying world boast of their future plans, saying what they plan to do tomorrow, without any consideration or inclusion of God. The inspired Word of God warns that all such boasting is a sin. ...

> James 4:15-17, "For that ye ought to say, If the Lord will, we shall live, and do this, or that. But now ye rejoice in your boastings: all such rejoicing is evil. Therefore to him that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin."

It is a sin to plan for an uncertain future without honoring God in it...

> Daniel 5:23, "And thou his son, O Belshazzar, hast not humbled thine heart, though thou knewest all this; But hast lifted up thyself against the LORD of heaven; and they have brought the vessels of his house before thee, and thou, and thy lords, thy wives, and thy concubines, have drunk wine in them; and thou hast praised the gods of silver, and gold, of brass, iron, wood, and stone, which see not, nor hear, nor know: and the God in whose hand thy breath is, and whose are all thy ways, hast thou not glorified: "

Life is uncertain. No one except God knows what the future holds, which is why we ought to trust Him completely. Proverbs 27:1, "

Boast not thyself of to morrow; for thou knowest not what a day may bring forth. " God is so good!!! I receive thousands of emails each years. Some of the people who contact me have given up on life and are bitter at God. They complain and tell me that the Lord never answers any of their prayers. I write back and tell them God doesn't answer mine either, but I just keep praying and trust Him anyway. That is what faith is, casting our burdens upon the Lord through prayer and then resting in His wisdom and love. Job 13:15, "Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him: but I will maintain mine own ways before him."

Dear reader, never place God on trial in your life. I am amazed when Americans get so down and frustrated with God, that they complain and tell me how horrible their life is. Do they not realize how blessed we are to live in these modern times? Numbers 11:1 says,

AND when the people complained, it displeased the LORD: and the LORD heard it; and his anger was kindled; and the fire of the LORD burnt among them, and consumed them that were in the uttermost parts of the camp.

Of all the sins that the Lord abhorred of the Hebrews, it was their complaining that displeased Him the most. Ten times they complained, until God had finally had enough of them...

> Numbers 14:22-24, "Because all those men which have seen my glory, and my miracles, which I did in Egypt and in the wilderness,and have tempted me now these ten times, and have not hearkened to my voice; Surely they shall not see the land which I sware unto their fathers, neither shall any of them that provoked me see it: But my servant Caleb, because he had another spirit with him, and hath followed me fully, him will I bring into the land whereinto he went; and his seed shall possess it."

Wow! The Jews had seen the Red Sea parted, and crossed from Egypt into the Wilderness on dry ground. We don't know how deep the water was at the area where they crossed over, but the deepest point in the Red Sea is nearly 10,000 feet down. Its maximum width is 190 miles, its greatest depth 9,974 feet (3,040 meters), and its area approximately 174,000 square miles (450,000 square km). The Red Sea contains some of the world's hottest and saltiest seawater. Those are amazing facts! Yet, even after seeing God part the Red Sea, which was likely hundreds of feet high at the area where they crossed over on dry ground, the people still moaned and complained. What ingrates! After being enslaved in Egypt for 400 years, and then freed by God through his servant Moses, you'd think that the people would have been very grateful to God and Moses, but they weren't.

I was in a grocery store years ago and heard the radio being broadcast through speakers in the supermarket ceiling. The commercial was trying to get people to invest for their retirement someday. The man speaking didn't mention God at all, which reminded me of our text Scripture passage from James 4:13-17. The heathen world makes plans for tomorrow with no thought of God. The fear of God is the beginning of wisdom the Bible teaches in Proverbs.

"Lord willing, if the creek don't rise," by God's grace and strength, I will continue this ministry of care and love for God, people and truth. Anybody who spends time around me knows that I always prefix everything I say with the phrase: "Lord willing." I don't speak these words as a mere ritual; but rather, because I truly do believe that God plays a major part in our lives, and most of all because the Bible commands that we do it. We should never tell someone what we plan to do tomorrow (or down the road in the future), without mentioning if it be God's will.

What saith the Scripture? Acts 17:24-25, "God that made the world and all things therein, seeing that he is Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in temples made with hands; Neither is worshipped with men's hands, as though he needed any thing, seeing he giveth to all life, and breath, and all things;" As we read earlier from Daniel 5:22-23 concerning King Belshazzar, and now here again from the Apostle Paul in Acts 17:25, Jesus keeps us alive and breathing. Our very life hangs in the balance in God's hands.

Did you know that the human heart (even a small newborn baby's heart) beats an astounding 100,000 times a day? It is true. Wow, that is amazing! In the average human lifetime, a heart will pump an astonishing 3 railroad tankers of blood. God is more than amazing!!! May we all get into the godly habit of saying "Lord willing" or "if it be God's will" or "Lord willing if the creek don't rise," to acknowledge and glorify our wonderful Savior, Creator and God.

Dear friend, today could be the last day of your life, so live it for Christ as if it were the last; and whatever plans you make for the future, please always remember that there is no guarantee of tomorrow. Lord willing, we will be around to fulfill our hopes, goals and plans in the future here on earth. Philippians 1:21, "For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain."

4.3.12 DR. LAW Brings Us To DR. GRACE (2023-03-24 02:13)

Evangelist Lester Roloff (1914-1982) has a wonderful MP3 sermon called, " [1]The Two Greatest Doctors Who've Ever Lived: Dr. Law And Dr. Grace " ([2]Part Two). One of these doctors is despised and the other is greatly misunderstood by the world...

Romans 5:13 and 20-21, "(For until the law sin was in the world: but sin is not imputed when there is no law. ... Moreover the law entered, that the offence might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound: That as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life by Jesus Christ our Lord."

Romans 8:9-10, "But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his. And if Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the Spirit is life because of righteousness."

Dr. Law is good at his job, the best diagnostic doctor in history. When a bad man runs into a good law, he hates it! Dr. Law is very firm and doesn't get along with a lot of people! Dr. Law diagnoses what is wrong with us, and boldly shows us our problem, that we have heart trouble (Jeremiah 17:9). WE ARE WOEFUL SINNERS!!!

Dr. Religion is a horrible doctor. He tells the sick patient that there's nothing to worry about, everything will be okay, just get water baptized and join a church to get religion. Dr. Religion is very pleasant and likeable, but he is irresponsible and has killed billions of patients. In sharp contrast, Dr. Law is unpleasant, making the dying patient feel bad about them self, telling us the truth that they are dead in trespasses and sin (Ephesians 2:1), and we are the cause of our own sickness. Dr. Law tells the dying patient that they need a surgery. The unsaved man needs heart surgery!

Dr. Law cannot perform the surgery, he can only diagnose the problem! But he brings us across the hall into another room to meet Dr. Grace, Who is an expert heart surgeon. Dr. Grace asks, has the patient tried all other doctors? Dr. Law says, "Yes, he has, but to no avail." Dr. Be Good and Dr. Religion failed him! Dr. Do Good and Dr. Feel Good couldn't help the man either! So Dr. Grace asks the patient, "Are you willing to trust me fully?" The patient agrees and Dr. Grace does the surgery, and that man is redeemed!!! In case you haven't figured it out, Dr. Grace is the Lord Jesus Christ. The surgery is free, it's already been paid for by Dr. Grace!!!

The just shall live by faith!!! Galatians 3:11 and 22, "But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, The just shall live by faith. ... But the scripture hath concluded all under sin, that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe."

The LAW is our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ. Galatians 3:24-26, "Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith. But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster. For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus." Notice that believers are NO LONGER UNDER THE LAW (schoolmaster).

The world is filled with Gospel perverters! God divided His Word into two parts: Old Testament (Law) and New Testament (Grace). God has given us LAW and GRACE. The heresy of Lordship Salvation confuses these two. Wrong Repentance confuses these two.

Dr. John MacArthur is a wicked false prophet, who confuses discipleship with salvation, teaching Satanic Calvinism, perverting the Gospel, complicating the simplicity that is in Christ. Salvation is by grace alone, through faith alone, in the sacrifice of the Lord Jesus Christ on the cross for our sins!!! Christ died on the cross, He was buried, and three days later He resurrected. This is THE GOSPEL by which we are saved when we believe. 1st Corinthians

1:21, “For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe.”

You don’t repent and then believe. Repentance and faith are not two separate acts to being saved. The man who believes has also repented, which is why the words “believe” and “believed” are mentioned in the Gospel of John (God’s Gospel tract according to John 20:31), but the word “repent” is never mentioned, not even once. Repentance is necessary for salvation, but to “repent” concerning salvation, simply means that a person has judged them self as being a guilty sinner, in response to Dr. Law having done his job well. Romans 3:19-20, “Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God.

Romans 3:20, “Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin.” Every unsaved person is still under the curse of the LAW, because of sin, for all men are guilty sinners in God’s sight. Ah, but every born-again believer is no longer under the LAW; but rather, we are under GRACE. This is why we read in Romans 5:20-21, “Moreover the law entered, that the offence might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound: That as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life by Jesus Christ our Lord.”

A lot of well-meaning people on the internet, who are woefully ignorant and horribly deceived, continually try to combine the LAW along with GRACE to be saved. This is what the heresy of Calvinism does. This is what the heresy of Lordship Salvation does. This is what the heresy of Wrong Repentance (i.e., “turn from your sins” or “be willing to turn from sins”) does.

I’ve heard some foolish Baptist pastors try to downplay the seriousness of the issue, by cutting slack to corrupt preachers who teach wrong repentance. It is true that you cannot turn to Christ by faith to be saved, without turning from something (John 3:20). That is repentance. 1st Thessalonians 1:9, “For they themselves shew of us what manner of entering in we had unto you, and how ye turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God.”

They weren’t saved by turning away from their idols, but by turning in faith toward the living God. You don’t get saved by repenting, you get saved by believing on the Lord Jesus Christ (Acts 16:30-31). But turning to Christ to be saved, and in the process turning your back against whatever was hindering you from being saved, does NOT mean forsaking sinful behavior, nor even being willing to forsake sinful behavior. That would constitute self-righteous works! There is a clear and definite line of heresy that cannot be crossed for the Gospel to remain true and thus valid. Satan loves to blur that lines of distinction between truth and falsehood, and thus, between salvation and damnation. No one is saved who thinks John MacArthur’s plan of salvation is correct! We get saved by BELIEVING the Gospel, period!!!

[3]Ye Must Be Perfect

(an awesome MP3 sermon by Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold)

4.3.13 We Are Being Watched From Heaven (2023-03-25 15:11)

Hebrews 12:1-2, “

Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses*, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us, Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

There is some theological debate over whether Hebrews 12:1 is referring to the example of faith set forth by the saints mentioned in Hebrews chapter 11, or that it refers to the saints up in Heaven.

I humbly agree with Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995), who contends that in order to be “a witness,” you must first see something . That is, you must witness something. That is what a witness is. They have witnessed something.

I love Hebrews chapter 11, which I like to call: “

THE HALL OF FAITH.

” By faith Noah moved with fear to build the ark, which took him 120 years. By faith David took 5 smooth stones and a sling to go fight the giant Goliath. Notice that it wasn’t by faith that David defeated Goliath. If David had been killed by Goliath, his faith would have been just as great. It was by faith that David went out to fight Goliath, who stood a towering 9’ 6" tall. Wow!

When most people think about faith, they think about Moses leading the Hebrews our of bondage in Egypt, crossing the Red Sea on dry ground. They think of Gideon, who prayed that the sun stand still and it did, for 24 hours. When most people think of faith, they think of mighty miracles which God performed by the hand of a saint of God. However, the Holy Bible also speaks of “OTHERS,” who had faith just as great as Abraham, Moses and David; yet they were sawn in half, eaten by lions, disemboweled for public entertainment, they starved to death, hid in mountains to survive, drawn and quartered by horses, buried alive, nailed to a tree and filleted alive, stoned, beheaded, burned at the stake, boiled alive in oil, burned alive in the Brazen Bull, drowned, you name it! If you can think it, it happened to some of the saints. ...

> Hebrews 11:36-40, “And others had trial of cruel mockings and scourgings, yea, moreover of bonds and imprisonment:
>
> They were stoned, they were sawn asunder, were tempted, were slain with the sword: they wandered about in sheepskins and goatskins; being destitute, afflicted, tormented;
>
> (Of whom the world was not worthy:) they wandered in deserts, and in mountains, and in dens and caves of the earth.
>
> And these all, having obtained a good report through faith, received not the promise:
>
> God having provided some better thing for us, that they without us should not be made perfect.
> **”

Dear reader, it may be God’s will for you to suffer crippled in a wheelchair for the rest of your life. Jesus said that the man in John 9:1-5 was born blind for the glory of God. The man’s blindness had a divine purpose. Nobody knew that except Jesus (who is God). You and I don’t know why things are as there are, or why things happen as they do, bur God does. Exodus 4:11 “

And the LORD said unto him, Who hath made man’s mouth? or who maketh the dumb, or deaf, or the seeing, or the blind? have not I the LORD?

” I love this Bible verse, because it teaches us that God creates imperfect people. That is, imperfect by man’s flawed standards. But in God’s sight, a person that the Lord creates blind, deaf or mute is perfect. Who are we as sinful humans to decide what is perfect or right?

If you dear friend are a child of God, and you have loved ones who've gone before you to Heaven, then they are watching you. The angels are watching us.

1st Peter 1:12, " Unto whom it was revealed, that not unto themselves, but unto us they did minister the things, which are now reported unto you by them that have preached the gospel unto you with the Holy Ghost sent down from heaven; which things the angels desire to look into." We humans are intriguing to the angels in Heaven. We have something that they don't, a Redeemer. The angels are not the object of Christ's redemptive work through Calvary's cross, but we are as humans! I don't know about you, but that humbles my soul, to know that I am special to God. No doubt, the angels are loved by God who created them too, but mankind is unique, as are the angels. Just as we are curious about the angels, they too are curious about us.

We are being watched by all the hosts of Heaven. Our heavenly Father is watching us. Psalms 139:1-6, "O LORD, thou hast searched me, and known me.

Thou knowest my downsitting and mine uprising, thou understandest my thought afar off.

Thou compassest my path and my lying down, and art acquainted with all my ways.

For there is not a word in my tongue, but, lo, O LORD, thou knowest it altogether.

Thou hast beset me behind and before, and laid thine hand upon me.

Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is high, I cannot attain unto it. "

I don't know about you dear reader, but I am glad knowing that someone up in Heaven cares enough about my life to watch me. I don't want to be a bad example of a child of God. I have my faults, but God sees in my heart that I want to live right, think right, and do right. Thankfully because Christ died in my place on the cross, I can be right (and I am right with God by Jesus' precious blood). The ONLY thing that makes me any more righteous in God's sight than the worst sinner upon the earth, is the precious blood of Jesus Christ that washed all my sins away when I got saved at age 13. One of my very favorite Bible verses is Philippians 3:9, " And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith: "

May we all try in God's strength to live in such a way that God is glorified by our life in the eyes of the saints in Heaven. Matthew 5:16, "

Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.

" We know that no one is saved by good deeds. Romans 3:20,

"Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin." We also know that God desires and commands for all of His adopted children to do good works, not to be saved or prove that we are saved, but simply because we are saved. Ephesians 2:10, "For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them." I like how Evangelist Lester Roloff (1914-1982) said it: "Jesus saved you so you wouldn't live like that anymore!"

Let me clarify, because many people have been misled concerning faith and works:

- Hellbound Roman Catholics errantly teach that you MUST do good works to be a Christian.
- Hellbound Calvinists (followers of John Calvin, 1509-1564) errantly teach that if you are a Christian you WILL do good works.
- The Bible teaches that if you are a Heavenbound Christian you SHOULD do good works. Titus 2:12, "Teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world;"

No one is saved who mixes law with grace! You must trust Jesus as your personal Savior, and Him alone. Literally, we are saved by GOD'S RIGHTEOUSNESS!!! Matthew 6:33,

But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.

" You obtain that righteousness of God through faith alone in Jesus Christ. Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do!

Romans 4:4-5, "Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt.

But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, *his faith is counted for righteousness." Amen and amen!

Someday soon dear saint of God when this life is over, I believe you and I will be up in Heaven, perched at Heaven's window, looking down upon the affairs of men. Hebrews 12:1-2, "

Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us, Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

Let us lay aside the sinful choices that so easily sidetrack us from serving the Lord, rendering us useless for God.

We read in Luke 8:11-15 about The Parable Of The Sower And The Seeds. This parable which Jesus told is commonly misunderstood, applied to salvation instead of soulwinning. Luke 8:15,

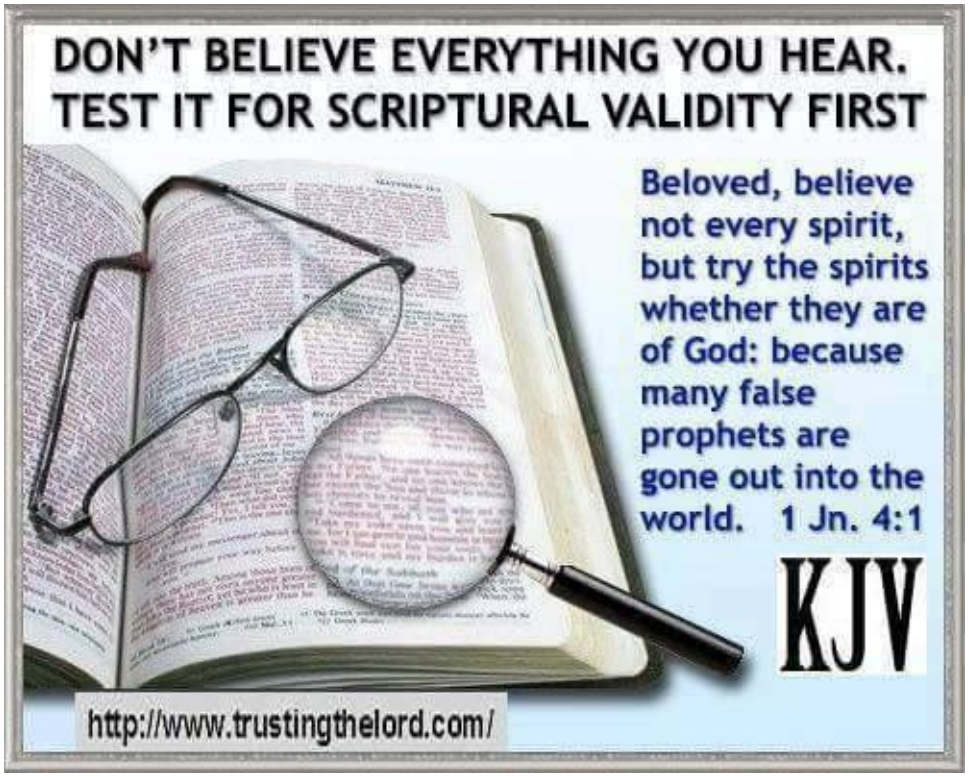
But that on the good ground are they, which in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit with patience. " You see, God's ultimate goal for every believer is to mature to BRING FORTH FRUIT. It requires patience to bear fruit (souls saved). Getting people saved oftentimes takes years of love, patience, prayer and respect for their contrary beliefs to the Holy Bible.



I always tell people never to berate, criticize or show contempt for their loved one's false beliefs. Why? It is because people don't care what you know until they first know that you care!

Jude 1:22, " And of some have compassion, making a difference: And others save with fear, pulling them out of the fire; hating even the garment spotted by the flesh."

One of the biggest problems in churches today are cold-hearted pastors who don't genuinely care, love or have compassion for individual people. You'd be surprised of some of the horrible true stories that people share with me as a Bible preacher, about abusive pastors who couldn't care less about people, they only love their paychecks. When I attended Pensacola Christian College's (PCC), Campus Church, I was very kind and loving; but their ungodly senior pastor, Jeff Redlin, mistreated me, being insensitive in his remarks and even banning me in writing from returning to Campus Church, all because he is filled with childish hatred, resentment and pride. They need a much better pastor at PCC, not the phony that Jeff Redlin truly is, a wolf in sheep's clothing! SHAME on the PCC camp for tolerating such a horrible leader.

We are being watched from Heaven dear friend. How are you doing in your Christian walk? What have you done for the cause of Jesus Christ so far this year? Have you even shared the Gospel with one person? What good works are you doing to glorify God your Savior? To become a witness you have to see something, and the saints and angels up in glory are looking at us continually, to see what's going on down here on planet earth. 1st Corinthians 6:20, " For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's. "

Revelation 1:8,

“

I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty.

Yes, Jesus is almighty God, the eternal Word of God who became incarnate (He came in human flesh). John 1:1-3 and 14, “In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

The same was in the beginning with God.

All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made. ...

And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us*, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth. ” Contrary to the heresy which Jehovah’s Witnesses teach, that Jesus was “ a god,

but not almighty God, the Holy Bible plainly teaches that [1]Jesus is almighty God.

God has only one biological child, Jesus. That is why I make a fuss over these modern corrupt Devil’s bibles that remove every mention of Jesus being the only “begotten” son of God. For example: here is a comparison between the inspired King James Bible (KJB), and the demonic English Standard Version (ESV):

> ENGLISH STANDARD VERSION (ESV) - John 3:16, “For God so loved the world, that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life.”
> KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) - John 3:16, “For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.”

Why in the world would the ESV translators remove the important word “begotten”? It is because all of the modern Bible PERversions are based upon the 1881 corrupt Greek text of Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort, which removes the word “begotten” entirely from the Bible. I encourage you dear reader to [2]listen to this MP3 Bible study of Pastor Max D. Younce exposing infidels Westcott and Hort. You will be as shocked and amazed as I still am!!! Westcott and Hort were ghost chasers, denying the deity of Jesus, denying the Godhead (Trinity), denying Bible inspiration, denying several fundamental doctrines of the Christian faith.

The word

“begotten” is very important dear friend. By removing the word from the Bible, Westcott and Hort (and by extension all of the modern corrupt translators) have perverted the Word of God.

“begotten”

Jeremiah 23:36b, “ ...for ye have perverted the words of the living God, of the LORD of hosts our God.” Proverbs 30:5-6, “

Every word of God is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him.

Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar.

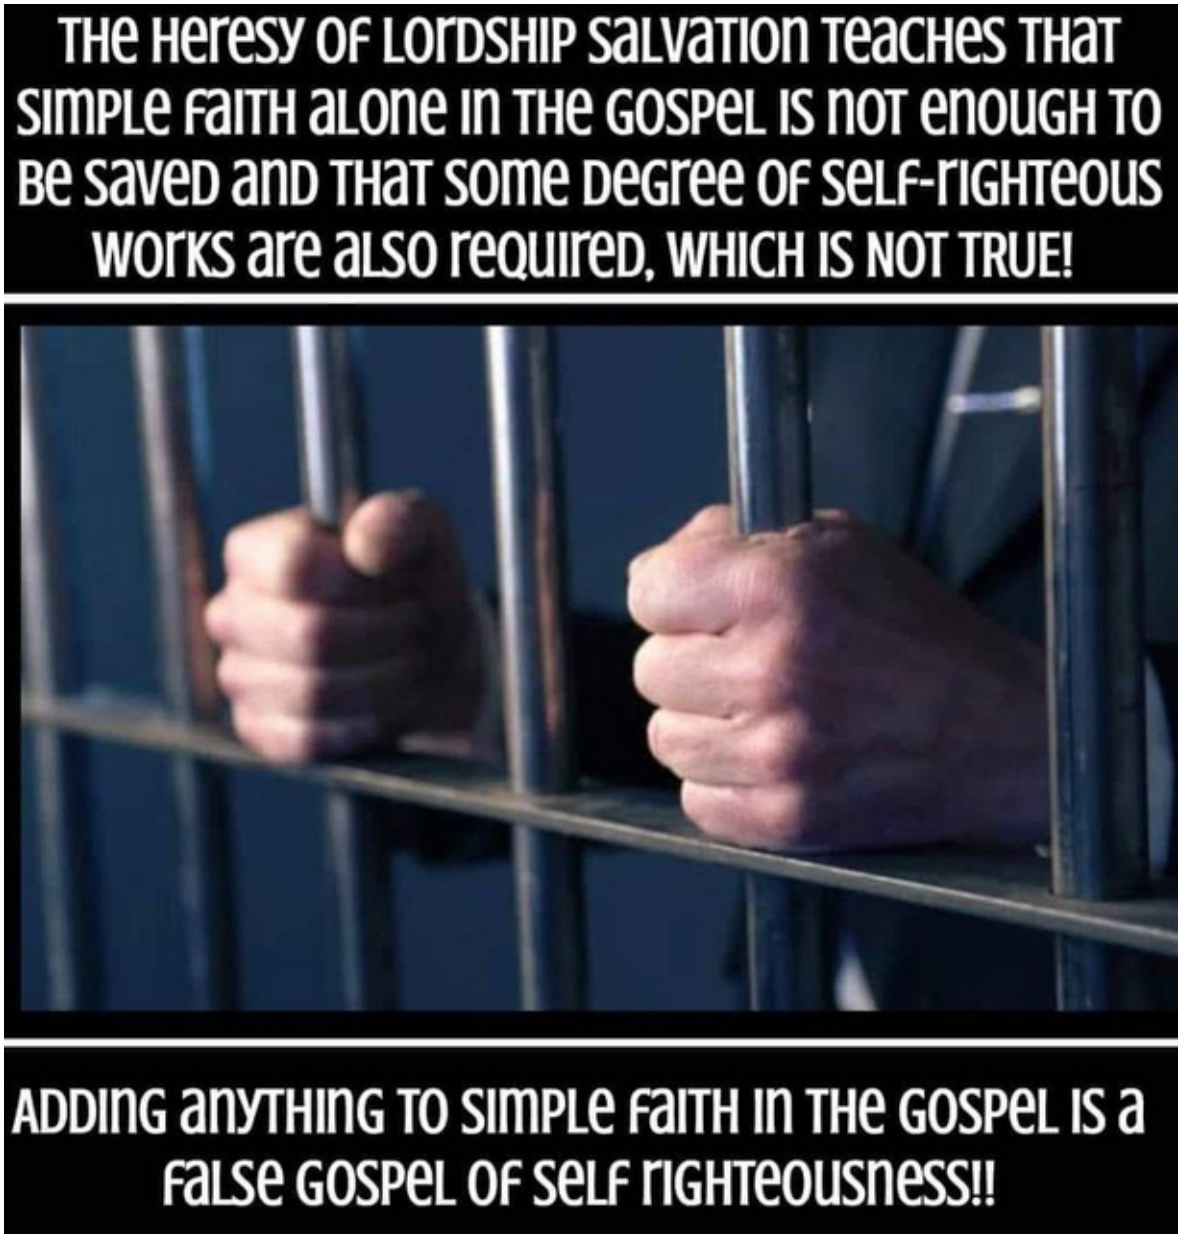
4.3.15 Here Is The Gospel (2023-03-27 22:20)

1st Corinthians 15:1-6, "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures: And that he was seen of Cephas, then of the twelve: After that, he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once; of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep."

Here is the gospel: God says that we are sinners and that no amount of good works or behavioral changes on our part could ever make us holy enough to enter heaven. God sent His Son to pay for all of our sins. Jesus paid for our crimes by dying on the cross for us all. His dead body was buried in a grave. On the third day, Jesus arose from the dead.

The instant you believe this, He knows it and He saves you.



> "Verily, verily, I say unto you, he that believeth on Me hath everlasting life" (John 6:47).

The free gift is based solely upon your trust in what Jesus did for you and has nothing at all to do with what you do for Him.

> "For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast" (Ephesians 2:8-9).

If you have never received Jesus Christ as your Savior dear reader, please do it now. Simply by childlike faith receive Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins. Believe that Jesus did it all for you friend! Jesus died in your place (and mine) on the cross. He was buried and then after three days of being dead, God raised up the blessed Savior. That is the GOOD NEWS (Gospel). BELIEVE IT, oh sinner, and the work is done, you are saved!

John 6:28-29, "Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent." Simply BELIEVE THE 'GOOD NEWS' of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen and you are born again!

4.3.16 Jesus Left The Ninety-Nine Sheep To Go Help One Lamb (2023-03-28 12:10)

Matthew 18:12, “ How think ye? if a man have an hundred sheep, and one of them be gone astray, doth he not leave the ninety and nine, and goeth into the mountains, and seeketh that which is gone astray? ”

Luke 15:4, “ What man of you, having an hundred sheep, if he lose one of them, doth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness, and go after that which is lost, until he find it? ”

This will be a short blog. I was thinking today about our dear Savior. Jesus told a story about a shepherd who left his ninety-nine sheep in the safety of the fold, to go find and help the one lamb that was lost. Without question, this is our Great Shepherd, Jesus Christ!

I was thinking today how most pastors and churchgoers think and behave the exact opposite of how Jesus did. When I attended the shameful Harvest Baptist Church on Guam for one year, I was disgusted by what I saw and heard. They use the Devil’s corrupt bibles. They preach the Devil’s damnable lie of Lordship Salvation. They teach the Devil’s deadly misunderstanding of Bible repentance, requiring lost sinners to forsake a lifestyle of sinning to get to Heaven, which is 100 % works for salvation.

So I took action as a caring truth-teller. I spent a few hundred dollars of my own money to buy books authored by doctrinally sound fundamentalist Bible preachers, and gave those books to the pastors of Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, Unfortunately for them and the church members they deceived, they greatly took offense and resented my help. I cannot say that I was surprised. I mean, if they refuse to listen to God, why would they listen to me? Long story short, I was forced out of the church. I lost my friends which had grown dear to me over the previous year. I greatly missed the Watchcare Meetings at church and school staff members homes, and the singing and fellowship that we enjoyed. It felt like a divorce when I was ousted and then wickedly ostracized, shunned and abused emotionally by the ungodly pastors of Harvest. God will deal with them, as they have treacherously dealt with me (Matthew 7:1-2).

Whereas Jesus left the ninety-nine sheep to go help the one lamb in need, the wicked pastors of Harvest had their ninety-nine, so they couldn’t have cared less about the one. I was weak and tired in my soul at the time, still recovering from my own wife sinfully abandoning and divorcing me in 2006. I felt like dying. I went to Harvest in need of their love and help spiritually. I needed their friendship and care. As I attended church and made friends, my spiritual hair began to grow back, like Samson regaining his strength (after the Philistines paid Delilah about $90,000 in today’s money to cut his hair off). As I grew in strength in my soul, I wanted to help the misled pastors at Harvest, by giving them THE TRUTH. My blood is upon all their hands, including the wicked congregation at Harvest who supports those false prophets (2nd John 1:11).

I wrote this blog to challenge you dear reader to care about the one individual. We’ve got a bunch of hurting broken people all across the United States, who are desperate and feel like God has abandoned this insane country. I feel that way too sometimes! But friend, our dear Creator hasn’t changed! Malachi 3:6 declares that God does not change. In theology we call this attribute the “

of God. Malachi 3:6,

“For I am the LORD, I change not; therefore ye sons of Jacob are not consumed.” Hebrews 13:8, “Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever.” Our blessed Savior never changes! Amen and amen.

The world on the other hand, in particular America, has changed 180 degrees for the worse over the past 75 years. It was in the news today that a broken 28-year-old transgendered woman open fired in a school and murdered 6 people (3 adults and 3 children) in Nashville, Tennessee. Our nation is ripping itself apart! Oh how people need the Lord!!! I challenge you dear friend, to start viewing people as individuals for whom Christ died on the cross. If Jesus was willing to leave the ninety-nine to go find and rescue the one lamb, then so also should we. NO ONE is expendable!

I have sadly been banned from attending Pensacola Christian College's Campus Church by their wicked pastors, and PCC leaders won't lift a finger in the matter. So we are still enemies. PCC deserves all the harsh criticism they get, for sinfully putting their cult system first, while individual people don't matter at PCC, of which I am living proof. I was expendable to PCC, but thankfully I am not expendable to God my maker. You see, they have the 9,999 sheep at PCC, so they couldn't care less about people like me, the individual. PCC won't lift a finger, not even to give me a call with my mobile phone number that I mailed to them multiple times in 2022. I also sent my phone number by email to Pastor Jeff Redlin. SHAME on the PCC camp!

Jesus sets our perfect example, who left the ninety-nine to go after the one. People matter! PCC still haven't learned that God loves people. They lie at Campus Church, printing on their church literature that they love people and God. They are LIARS! If they truly loved God and people, then they would have given me a chance to make things right and reconcile with them, but they don't care about the one hurting person, they have the 9,999 in their fold. Sadly, only some lives matter to PCC's leaders; but ALL LIVES MATTER to Jesus!!!

The great heart of God is concerned about YOU, the individual. You show me some incompetent pastor like Jeff Redlin at PCC, or Gary Walton at the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, or shyster Marty Herron, and I'll show you phonies who don't walk closely with God. For if they did, I would have mattered to these religious leaders as a suffering human being, but they all threw me under the bus and left me for dead. God will be their Judge!!! SHAME on these ungodly religious leaders, who all get outrageous paid 6-digit salaries. They only care about the crowd, the group, the ninety-nine! But God genuinely cares about the one sinner!

Dear friend, you matter to God. You truly do! I am just a broken redeemed sinner, and I care about individual people. So, if I can care by God's grace, then how much more does our perfect and sinless God love and care about everyone? God sure does! I am outside the gate with Jesus, despised and rejected of men for TELLING THE TRUTH! I am among the one, THE INDIVIDUAL, but thankfully Jesus came to me in my darkest hour and sustained my spirit, lest I should have died. God is so good! Individual people matter. I am so glad and thankful that our great Savior is not like Pensacola Christian College, where individual people like me don't matter. The Lord cares about individual sinners, and so will you and I if we walk closely with our omnipotent Creator. People just want to be loved.

Happiness Is The Lord

4.3.17 We Must Separate The Person From Ministry Work (2023-03-29 10:52)

Ephesians 4:30-32. "And grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption. Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice: And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you."

I watched [1]this very interesting interview today by Dr. Brett Feldman in Los Angeles, explaining why so many homeless people are dying. They are now dying at an alarming rate of 5 homeless people per day in Los Angeles. Something that Dr. Feldman said really caught my attention, quote:

> "Yeah, as I was saying, if you want to solve homelessness, first you separate the person from their housing status. And If all we're doing is addressing the housing status by building homes, which we need to do, but not paying attention to the person that we're supposed to be loving, we've missed the biggest part of the solution." —Doctor Brett Feldman, 'CALIFORNIA INSIDER'
> SOURCE: [2]https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=u4SXmixgKvk &t=2428s

I immediately thought about Pensacola Christian College (PCC), because they are guilty of the same exact apathy. At PCC they address Christian education and go through the formal motions of playing church, but PCC fails to pay attention to the individual person that they're supposed to be loving. That is why they have cruelly banned me from attending Campus Church, not caring about my needs as a hurting divorced person with health issues in need of a church family.

Sadly, PCC leadership just doesn't give a damn! Dr. Feldman nailed the problem!!! In order to truly help a person, we must separate the person from all other considerations. When our dear Savior, The Great Shepherd, taught about the shepherd who left the ninety-nine sheep to go after the one lamb in need, all that shepherd was focusing on was the individual person.

I also love what Dr. Feldman said in the interview, quote:

> "You know, there's 50,000 or so people experiencing unsheltered homelessness at any given night in Los Angeles. We don't treat fifty thousand we treat one, and then we treat one more, and we add one more after that and if we can do our best with each one, then I think we're doing a good job. The 50 000, that's for the policy makers to look at, but when we're on the street with the person in front of us, that's the most important thing to us." —Doctor Brett Feldman, 'CALIFORNIA INSIDER'
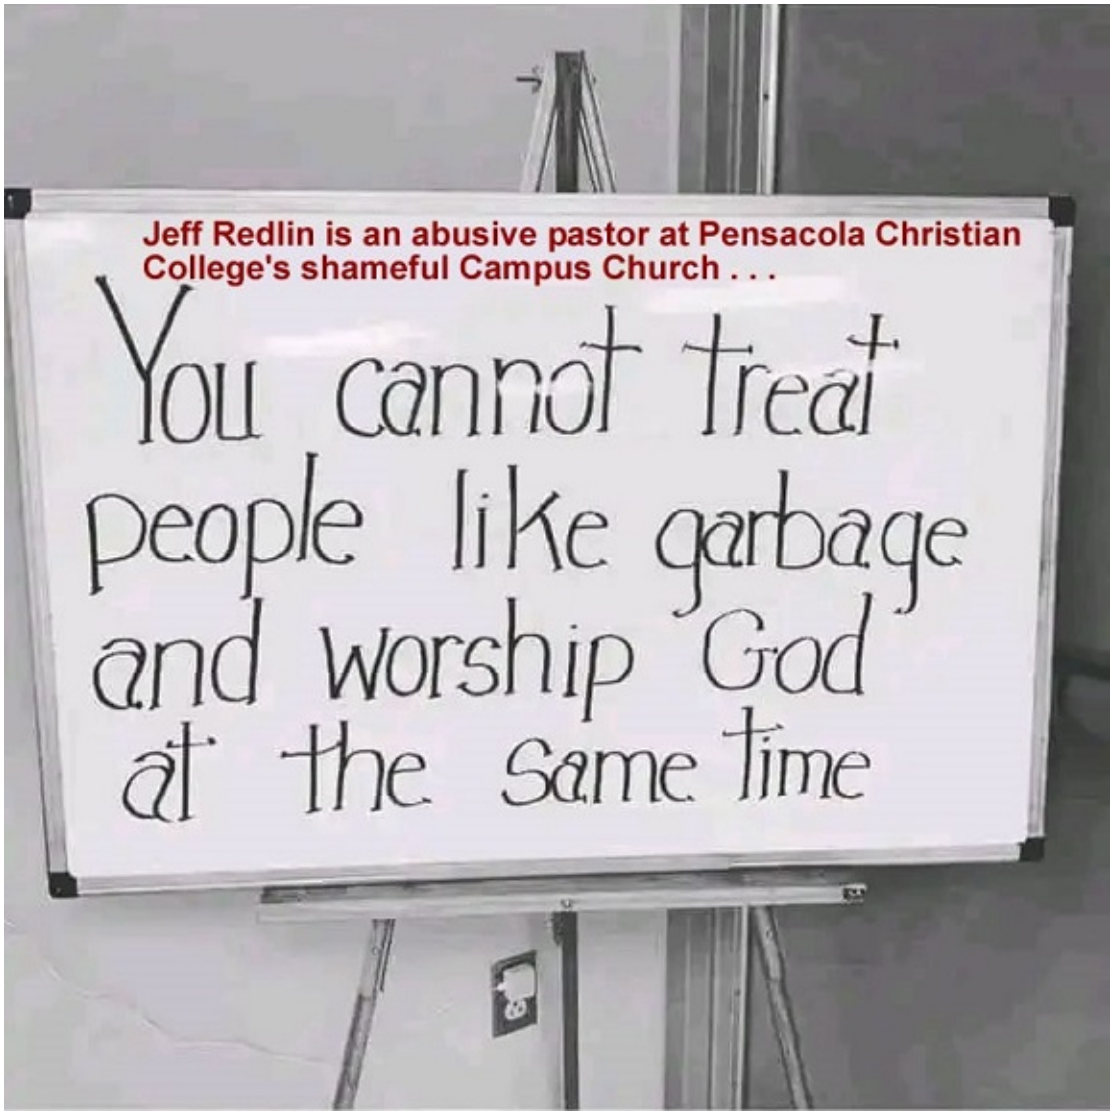
> SOURCE: [3]https://youtu.be/u4SXmixgKvk?t=2468

Shamefully, Pastor Jeff Redlin is addressing 10,000 people at once from his pulpit at PCC's Campus Church, but he wickedly fails to separate the person from his job, addressing and loving people unconditionally as God does on a personal level.



Something is very wrong at PCC. They have religious punks for leaders! The [4]cult system always comes first at PCC, individual people don't matter . Oh to God that religious leaders today would learn to separate the individual person from their ministry work (building projects, business meetings, preaching engagements, and all that is going on), and start paying attention to the INDIVIDUAL PERSON. Jesus didn't die for a group on the cross, He died for the individual person, regardless of the group size. Christ would have died just for you!

Pastor Jack Hyles engrained into our thinking at Hyles-Anderson College this great truth:

> "You always use your ministry to build your people, you don't use your people to build your ministry."

At PCC they use people to build their cult—to get their money, exploit their talents, milk the cow for all it's worth—but they don't give a damn about individual people at PCC, of which I am living proof. All I humbly requested in 2022 was to come back to church, three times, but their wicked pastors and uncaring PCC leaders refused. SHAME on the PCC camp! People just want to be loved.

4.3.18 It’s Impossible To Believe In Your Mind But Not Your Heart (2023-03-30 04:21)

Romans 10:9-10 “That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.”

Someone made the following image, which contains heresy...

Beware Of False Knowledge,
Which Is More Dangerous Than Ignorance

There are three columns above, the first two of which are LIES!

It Is Impossible To Believe In One's Mind, But Not Your Heart

In the first column, to the left, it shows that you can have "HEAD BELIEF ONLY" (or, "MENTAL"). Dear reader, that is IMPOSSIBLE!!! You cannot "BELIEVE" with your mind, but not your heart.

I once read a heretical tract by Pastor J. Vernon McGee (1904-1988) titled: “Missing Heaven By 18 Inches” (i.e., the distance between your brain and your physical heart).

Although I like Pastor McGee and support his ministry, in this regard he taught blatant false doctrine.

The “heart” of which Romans 10:9-10 speaks is not your physical heart, which is a muscle about twice the size of your fist that pumps blood. Your heart is a part of your brain, located somewhere in your head. So the whole notion of being able to believe with your mind , but not with your heart , is ridiculous, both biblically and scientifically. The man who believes on Jesus Christ with his mind has also believed in his heart as well. You cannot trust Christ with your mind, but not with your heart. The very idea is very confusing to people. Your heart is your subconsciousness, the real you. When thoughts enter into our mind, whether good or evil, we must analyze those thoughts to decide whether to reject them, or to accept them, the results of which are stored in our heart and form our character (2nd Corinthians 10:5-6).

Having said that, it is possible to have knowledge in one’s mind about how to be saved, and yet not believe that knowledge, but this is not believing. There is no faith involved. Moses preached the Gospel to the Jews in the Wilderness of Zin for 40 years the Bible says in Hebrews 4:2, but they did not have faith in the Gospel and perished in their sins. Those Jews could have told you how to be saved, but they themselves did not believe. Sadly, they all went to Hell to pay for their own sins, since they rejected the coming Messiah’s blood sacrifice as payment for their sins. There are billions of lost sinners who are familiar with the Gospel of Jesus Christ. They have heard the Gospel their whole life. Yet they won’t come to Christ to be saved (John 5:40).

Being Saved Does Not Guarantee A Changed Life

The second column in the chart above also contains heresy! Just because one is saved does not guarantee that there WILL be fruit in that saint’s life. It is possible to live in the Holy Spirit (i.e., be saved certain - Romans 8:9; 1st John 3:24), and yet refuse to walk in that same Holy Spirit (Galatians 5:22-25). In other words, you CAN be saved but still live like the Devil, if you so choose. God will convict every saint that sins and chastise us. If you can commit sin without any conviction whatsoever from the Holy Spirit, it is only because you don’t have the Holy Spirit and are not truly saved (Hebrews 12:6-8). God is not an absent parent.

Partial Faith In Jesus Plus Works Equals Damnation

The third column in the chart above is accurate. I encourage you dear friend to question everything, which is biblical according to 1st John 4:1, “

Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world.

” That is, think objectively using the Word of God as your benchmark, against which to compare everything.

Romans 10:9-10 teaches that we are saved by believing, and with our mouth we confess because we are saved. But we ought never base any doctrine on a single passage of Scripture. As a general rule we should never interpret an obscure passage of Scripture which contradicts a clear one. Romans 10:9-10 doesn't mean that you must confess to be saved, which would contradict the entire Gospel of John, which simply teaches to just BELIEVE ON JESUS. John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life."

4.3.19 What To Do When You Feel Like God Doesn't Care (2023-03-30 11:06)

1st Peter 5:6-7, "

Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time: Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you."

The Bible teaches that God does care!

The Holy Bible declares that our great Creator cares about us as individuals.

Yet, I admit that there have been times in my life when I felt like God didn't care about me. Nothing seemed to be going my way. None of my prayers seemed to get answered. I was miserable with the circumstances of my life, and I didn't know how to improve them. I felt,

"What's the use of even praying anymore?"

Dear reader, I'm sure you've been there too friend. So what do we do when we feel that way? We have a quandary here don't we? We have a perplexing predicament! Either God cares and my feelings are deceiving me, or God doesn't care. What saith the Scripture? Jeremiah 17:9, "The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it?"

I know that I am blessed by God to have a roof over my head, and food on the table, and shoes on my feet, and to live in a free country. Yet, why won't God answer my prayers? Why is my life so far away from what I had hoped it would become? I've been there sometimes, and so have you if you are honest with yourself and God. At those times in our lives, we must WALK BY FAITH, NOT BY SIGHT. **...

> 2nd Corinthians 5:6-8, "Therefore we are always confident, knowing that, whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord:
> (For we walk by faith, not by sight:) We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord."

At those times of frustration and weakness when I feel like God doesn't care about me, I am at a fork in the road. I must choose to either travel the left path, concluding that God doesn't care about me or my problems and burdens; OR, I will choose by faith to take the right path, accepting what the Bible teaches in 1st Peter 5:7 that God cares about me. Anytime that my feelings and thoughts contradict the Bible, I am going to assume that I AM WRONG AND THE BIBLE IS RIGHT!!! That is what it means in Proverbs 3:5-7, "

Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding.

In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.

Be not wise in thine own eyes: fear the LORD, and depart from evil.

The victorious Christian life is lived walking by faith, not by sight. I often feel like God abandoned me a long time ago, and that He ignores my prayers when I pray, and that He doesn't really care about a broken sinner like me. Yet, I still pray daily and work night and day on my website ministry, as a missionary evangelist on social media. I do this all BY FAITH!!! It matters not how I feel.

I don't trust my feelings, because feelings can and do mislead us oftentimes.

In the Old testament, Isaac was deceived when he trusted his feelings instead of the voice of Jacob that he heard. Isaac had lost his good eyesight due to old age or disease (perhaps diabetes). We don't know. His eyesight was so poor that he couldn't even distinguish between his two sons. Perhaps you are familiar with the story. Isaac's wife, Rebekah, connived a horrible plot to deceive her husband, so that Isaac would give the birthright blessing to Jacob instead of Esau. So Rebekah took some hairy animal skins and placed them over Jacob's arms, because Esau had very hairy arms. The Bible says that Esau was a very hairy man.

The scheme worked! As Isaac felt of the arms, feeling the hair, he thought it was Esau. But when Isaac heard the voice, he knew that it was the voice of Jacob! Isaac had to make a choice!!! Would he go by the voice and refuse to bless Jacob, because Esau was the intended recipient of the birthright blessing? Or, would Isaac go by what he felt, when he touched the hair skins upon Jacob's arms?

Sadly, Isaac made the unwise decision to trust his feelings instead of going by THE VOICE that he heard. Dear friend, we learn a great spiritual lesson hear in the Bible, and that lesson is this—NEVER trust your feelings over THE VOICE of God's inspired Word, which is the Holy Bible!!! John 10:27-28, "

My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me:

And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand. **"

I assure you friend, whoever you may be, that God cares about you. Now, we must make an important distinction here between the saved and the unsaved. I often hear lost sinners talking about how God is going to help them, and speak of their faith in God, when they have never been born again by the Holy Spirit of God, by faith in the incorruptible Word of God, specifically 'THE GOSPEL' (1st Peter 1:23; 1st Corinthians 15:1-6).

The redeemed child of God has every RIGHT to come before God's throne of mercy to find grace to help in time of need. What saith the Scripture? ...

> Hebrews 4:14-16, "
>
> Seeing then that we have a great high priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession.
>
> For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.

If you are a born again saint, then you have every right to approach God's throne in prayer, to request His help with whatever is burdening your heart. However, if you are NOT saved, God is angry with you all the time. Psalms 7:11, "God judgeth the righteous, and God is angry with the wicked every day." God's wrath lives upon your head. John 3:36, "He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him." You are living dangerously friend on borrowed time.

Listen friend, today could be the last day of your life. Proverbs 27:1, "Boast not thyself of to morrow; for thou knowest not what a day may bring forth." If you die in your sins without Jesus as your Savior, it will be too late to repent of your unbelief, and you will burn in Hell for all eternity. I don't want this to happen to you or anybody else. Perhaps you ask: "Preacher, are you trying to scare me?" Absolutely, yes! Proverbs 1:7, " The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge: but fools despise wisdom and instruction. " Proverbs 9:10, " The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom: and the knowledge of the holy is understanding." As Yoda says in Star Wars: Return Of The Jedi to young Luke Skywalker, who said he wasn't afraid:

"You will be, YOU WILL BE! " What saith the Scripture? Hebrews 10:31, "It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God."

Dear reader, Jesus cares about YOU! I know some of you feel that He couldn't care less, because you don't see God working in your life. I know that some of you feel that way, because I receive your heartbreaking emails, sharing your broken life with me. I love you dear reader, whoever you may be. Anybody who knows me knows that I always pour my heart into my email replies, sometimes writing book length messages back, because I CARE. That is Jesus working and living in and through me, the fruit of the Holy Spirit (Galatians 5:22-25).

When you feel like God doesn't care, the inspired Word of God assures us that HE DOES CARE!!! Please read: '[1]WHY GOD HIDES FROM US.'

4.3.20 Don't Use Sinnership To Justify Sinning (2023-03-31 12:44)

Romans 7:121, "For we know that the law is spiritual: but I am carnal, sold under sin. For that which I do I allow not: for what I would, that do I not; but what I hate, that do I. If then I do that which I would not, I consent unto the law that it is good. Now then it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me. For I know that in me (that is, in my flesh,) dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me; but how to perform that which is good I find not. For the good that I would I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I do. Now if I do that I would not, it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me. I find then a law, that, when I would do good, evil is present with me."

I have shamefully heard Christians, especially pastors, use the excuse that because we are all sinners that makes it okay to sin. I know of pastors who are holding a grudge, refusing to allow broken people to come back to church. That is so horrible! You show me a pastor who refuses to give someone permission to attend church, and I know that that pastor doesn't walk close with the Lord Jesus Christ.

A pastor who genuinely walks with God unconditionally loves everyone, and he welcomes the worst of sinners to attend church, because he knows that everybody needs to hear Bible preaching. There is nothing more wicked than a rotten pastor (like Pastor Jeff Redlin wickedly did to me at Pensacola Christian College), who tells someone to go find a different church to attend. SHAME on that ungodly phony for a pastor!!! The PCC camp are ungodly.

I once worked with a professed Christian man, who was married, who openly lived a wicked life of adultery. When speaking flagrantly about his wicked ways, he would often say: "Hey, we're all just sinners." Sometimes he would say: "I'm just a sinner saved by grace." Yes, that is very true, and I use those statements myself at times. However, to use those statements (truths) as an excuse to justify deliberately committing sin is as wicked as the Devil.

No one should ever use the fact that we are redeemed sinners as an excuse to sin. In fact, that is what the Holy Bible means in Galatians 5:13, "

For, brethren, ye have been called unto liberty; only use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but by love serve one another.

" I kindly asked for something to do to serve God at Campus Church at PCC. Jeff Redlin refused to cooperate! These are the type of unloving apostate wicked phonies who are ruining America today. Ironically, Campus Church's motto is:

"Loving God. Loving People." What lying hypocrites! They sure don't love me as a human being. Talk is cheap! It's not what you say that determines the genuineness of your walk with God, it is your words and behavior. It is what you DO that defines you! Pastor Jeff Redlin is a phony! I am still willing to make peace with the PCC camp, but they refuse to even talk with me on the phone. I offered to come down to PCC to meet with them, but they are hateful bigots who throw people under the bus. Pensacola Christian College is a CULT!!! They are extremely selective in who matters and who doesn't, which is how CULTS operate. If they don't like you, they ostracize you. There is no real love or compassion at PCC, only the love of money.

Jude 1:4, "

For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men,turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ. " PCC leaders sin and excuse it. They hide behind their façade of religion, mistreating people. As their own mistreated students have often said, at PCC the system always comes first, individual people don't matter. That is so shameful for a so-called Bible college. I wouldn't enroll my dog at PCC, unless you don't love your dog.

Why you [1]shouldn't send your child to PCC:

1. PCC wickedly denies that we have an inspired Holy Bible today.
2. PCC wickedly teaches a heretical meaning of repentance, errantly saying that repentance results in a change of behavior. That is Calvinism, not a free grace Gospel.

3. PCC wickedly charges $10 to learn how to more effectively share the Gospel.
4. PCC wickedly bids Godspeed to false prophet Ken Ham.
5. PCC wickedly bids Godspeed to false prophet Steve Pettit (incompetent president of the Satanic Bob Jones University cult). BJU is of the Devil, preaching hardcore Calvinism and promoting infidel Paul Washer, but PCC supports their cult.
6. [2]PCC doesn't love or take care of their students.
7. Individual people don't matter at PCC, the cult system always comes first.

PCC is one of the worst religious institutions today in America, please RUN from this place! Just because we are all sinners by nature and by choice DOESN'T give anyone God's permission to wilfully sin. Although it is true that a believer CAN live like the Devil and still know 100 % that one is saved and assured of Heaven, there are consequences because of sin (e.g., shame, personal loss here on earth and of rewards in Heaven, imprisonment, guilt, misery, premature death, et cetera). No one has God's permission to sin. But when we do sin (and we all do because we are still in the flesh), God's grace abounds (Romans 6:1).

Don't ever use the lame excuse when you sin that you're just a sinner. What you should say is: "There but for the grace of God go I."

[3]

Romans 16:17-18, " Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them. For they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple."

4.3.21 Does God Allow Righteous To Suffer With The Unjust? (2023-03-31 13:34)

Ecclesiastes 9:11-12, "I returned, and saw under the sun, that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favour to men of skill; but time and chance happeneth to them all. For man also knoweth not his time: as the fishes that are taken in an evil net, and as the birds that are caught in the snare; so are the sons of men snared in an evil time, when it falleth suddenly upon them."

Yes, God does usually allow the righteous to suffer along with the wicked, because we live in a fallen world. [1]I wrote this helpful article in 2012, when 95 deadly tornadoes touched down across the Midwest in the United States. Even the righteous are still sinners living in a fallen world. There are no special Bible protections guaranteed to the righteous in this world. But what about God's promise to deliver them that fear Him? Psalms 34:7,

The angel of the LORD encampeth round about them that fear him, and delivereth them.

A thief (or thieves) stole my $75 propane tank off my barbeque last month. They also pulled up and stole all my $100 of solar-powered lawn lights. Why didn't God protect my stuff? You see dear friend, time and chance happeneth to all (Ecclesiastes 9:11). As long as we live in this sinful world, bad things will happen to everybody. God is not to blame for man's sins. Shoplifters are having a heyday all over California today, since proposition 47 effectively decriminalized shoplifting. That is not God's fault, but stupid leaders in California.

I believe Psalms 34:7 is simply saying that God is in control, and He will deliver us if it is His will, but there is no guarantee of deliverance, evidenced by the suffering saints. God's children still die of cancer, accidents and heart attacks at the same rate as unbelievers. Crime happens to Christians at the same rate as unbelievers. So how does God deliver the saints?

Psalms 34:7,

The angel of the LORD encampeth round about them that fear him, and delivereth them.

" I admit that I do not completely understand how God works in relation to this verse. But I do not that my God is able, and He keeps His promises. To those who fear God, and live within the confines of the law (both God's law and man's law, if it doesn't contradict God's law), the Lord promises to watch over us and deliver us from our enemies. That doesn't mean that nothing bad ever happens to us. It just means that, like Job in Job chapter one, NOTHING can happen to a believer which God does not allow.

In Judges chapter 6 we find Gideon complaining to God, asking why God's miracles weren't happening to them, as they did to the ancient patriarchs. But Gideon failed to see the big picture. If you read Judges 6:1, you will see that the Israelites did evil in the sight of the Lord, and He gave Israel over into the hands of the Midianites for 7 years. This is just like the United States today. Many saints are complaining to God, asking why they've lost their job. They are upset and want to know why God won't give them health insurance. Nothing is going right, and they are wondering why God has seemingly failed them. Dear reader, our nation has spit in God's face for long enough. We've murdered 63,000,000 human beings in the womb by abortion since 1972. And don't be deceived by the overturn of Roe vs. Wade in April of 2022, [2]the abortion pill is now LEGAL in most states!

Why should God bless this mess? We are playing with fire as Americans, which ultimately will burn us! Read Revelation chapter 18.

The Bible says in Matthew 5:45, "That ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven: for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust." Rain can be good or bad, depending on the amount and the geographical area. I don't think God grants any special protections to the saints. We read in Ecclesiastes 9:11 (easy to remember because of the 911 attacks), that "time and chance happeneth to them all." There is such a thing as, "

I read Mrs. Beverly Hyles, Pastor Jack Hyles wife, say on her blog that: "Everything happens for a reason." Although I agree with her statement, I also think that sometimes things just happen randomly to whoever is there at the time, whether good or bad. The reason may be our lax laws on drunk drivers, or our society's lack of punishment against criminals, or an ignored safety hazard, or any one of hundreds of "reasons," but time and chance happens to everyone. I read years ago in the news about a deadly tornado that destroyed a Baptist church in Georgia, killing 7 Christians.

Jesus made it clear in Luke 13:5b, "Except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish." There misfortunate wasn't because of their individual sins. Those 18 people died when the Wall of Siloam fell upon them because of sin in general (i.e., because we live in a fallen world of sin - 1st John 5:19). We live in a fallen world because of the sin of Adam, who opened the floodgate of sin and death upon the human race, and death came upon all men as a result, for all have sinned. Romans 5:12-13, " Wherefore, as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned:

(For until the law sin was in the world: but sin is not imputed when there is no law.

" Because we live in a fallen world, something very bad could happen to anyone at any time, maiming or killing us. This doesn't mean that God is punishing us directly for some sin that we commit, but because we live in a fallen world as guilty sinners.

In December of 1980, a crazed lunatic named Mark Chapman took a gun and shot The Beatles' legend John Lennon (1940-1980) five times. One bullet missed, the other four hit, two in John's chest. Chapman admitted later at a parole hearing that he wanted to become infamous by murdering a famous person! I seriously doubt if Chapman will ever be given parole in New York until Yoko Ono (1933-present) passes away. Yoko is 90 years old! Wow! She is an amazing woman if you read her life's story! She still lives in the same condominium that her and John lived in when he was sadly killed in 1980.

Chapman eerily said John was an easy target, since he lived in New York. Chapman said he had also considered murdering George C. Scott and some other celebrities, but he said Lennon was his easiest target. Was John Lennon a bigger sinner than you or me? No, not at all. John was in the right place at the wrong time. John died that fateful day in 1980 because of a nutcase with a gun. It wasn't God's judgment upon him. You never know what is going on in somebody's else's mind. As Christians we choose to think about good things (well, most of us do at least), but there are some unsaved people with the mindset of a monster, if you knew what they were thinking. People can become real monsters without Jesus Christ!!!

When hurricane Katrina hit New Orleans in August of 2005, preachers everywhere were errantly saying that it was God's punishment for Mardi Gras. I don't think that at all. If God thought that way, Sin City Las Vegas would be under millions of tons of fiery brimstone like Sodom and Gomorrah. The architects and land planners of New Orleans foolishly built their homes too close to the ocean, and when the hurricane storm surge came inland, it did billions of dollars in property damage, and hundreds of people died as a consequence. It wasn't God's fault or doing.

If God punished places for their wickedness, then Hollywood in California would be somewhere at the bottom of the Pacific Ocean! God would have carried out Lex Luthor's sinister plot in the movie 'Superman' to detonate a nuclear bomb on the San Andreas Fault, causing the entire perverse state of California to plunge by a massive earthquake into the Pacific Ocean. No dear reader, God allows nature to take its course. Let's face it, good things happen to bad people, just as much as bad things happen to good people. Truthfully, the Bible says in Romans 3:10b-11, " There is none righteous, no, not one: There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God.

" So NO ONE is "good

" in God's holy sight. You may be a good person as far as sinners go, but whether a good sinner or a bad sinner, WE ARE ALL GUILTY SINNERS!!!

The same with the 911 attacks. That wasn't God's judgment upon America. Our own White House orchestrated the attacks. It was a blatant INSIDE JOB! New York City Firefighters (NYFD) said that they heard BOMBS going off in World Trade Center buildings 1 and 2 just before the towers came down in a professional symmetrically fashioned demolition, completely to the ground in less than 15 seconds. Those firefighters were gag ordered by a New York judge to shut up or face jail time and loss of their jobs and retirements. It was a cover-up of mega proportions!

The Bush Administration got caught red-handed, but they got away with it because the ungodly Masonic controlled U.S. Justice Department refused to even investigate the crimes, under the excuse of being "a matter of national security." In other words, if the American public learned the truth, they would have revolted overnight and the U.S. government would have collapsed! But I think that is a copout. Criminals ought to be, and need to be, tried and punished regardless of how high in power they may be. Thankfully, God put Ecclesiastes 5:8 in the Bible, which says, "If thou seest the oppression of the poor, and violent perverting of judgment and justice in a province, marvel not at the matter: for he that is higher than the highest regardeth; and there be higher than they." The Bush crime family's day of reckoning is coming, and all their rotten accomplices!!!

Anyway, I believe that God does sweep away the righteous with the wicked in this sin-cursed world. Albeit, in Job chapter one we learn that Satan could not touch job without God's explicit permission. Having said that, God sends the tornadoes, earthquakes and Tsunamis, not Satan. 1st Corinthians 10:26 says: "For the earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof." Albeit, Satan is the god of this evil world (2nd Corinthians 4:4). But wait, we read in Job 1, that God gave Satan permission to take away Job's children. The Devil sent a tornado (or mighty wind) to bring the house down upon Job's children, killing all 10 of them. So Satan can control the weather, but only with God's permission.

We find biblical support for the idea that God sweeps away the righteous with the wicked in Luke 4:25-26, where Jesus said, " But I tell you of a truth, many widows were in Israel in the days of Elias, when the heaven was shut up three years and six months, when great famine was throughout all the land; But unto none of them was Elias sent, save unto Sarepta, a city of Sidon, unto a woman that was a widow." The righteous and the unrighteous starved together in the famine, except one woman who befriended the prophet Elijah with food and drink when he asked for it, and Elijah promised to take care of her and her son.

Through the Bible we find saints suffering the same fate as the unsaved. God did deliver Lot and his family from Sodom. But we read in Hebrews 11:36-40, "And others had trial of cruel mockings and scourgings, yea, moreover of bonds and imprisonment: They were stoned, they were sawn asunder, were tempted, were slain with the sword: they wandered about in sheepskins and goatskins; being destitute, afflicted, tormented; (Of whom the world was not worthy:) they wandered in deserts, and in mountains, and in dens and caves of the earth. And these all, having obtained a good report through faith, received not the promise: God having provided some better thing for us, that they without us should not be made perfect."

Noah by faith built the ark for 120 years, but the prophet Elijah was purportedly by history to have been sawn into pieces by his wicked grandson, King Manasseh. Why does one Christian woman get violated on the mission field (which happens quite often, especially in Russia), yet most Christian women on the mission field are left alone? It is time and chance, as Ecclesiastes 9:11 teaches, nothing more or less. Certainly God can protect His own when He so chooses, but so often evil things befall believers and it tests our faith to the very core.

People often say that someone was "in the wrong place at the wrong time." If you think about that statement, it is impossible! You can be in the wrong place at the right time, or be in the right place at the wrong time, or be in the right place at the right time; but you cannot be in the wrong place at the wrong time, otherwise you wouldn't be there! Thank you for reading.

4.4.1 Why Couldn't Esau Find Repentance? (2023-04-01 14:16)

Hebrews 12:14-17, " Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord: Looking diligently lest any man fail of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and thereby many be defiled; Lest there be any fornicator, or profane person, as Esau, who for one morsel of meat sold his birthright. For ye know how that afterward, when he would have inherited the blessing, he was rejected: for he found no place of repentance, though he sought it carefully with tears."

Some false teachers use this passage to show that it is possible to cross a line with God, to where He refuses to save you. That is heresy! This passage of Scripture is not talking about getting saved; but rather, if we fail to live a Christlike life in the presence of others, who view our manner of life, they may go to Hell because of our poor testimony. If we are not careful to live a godly life, we may become a root of bitterness, poisoning those around us.

Hebrews 12:17b, " for he found no place of repentance, though he sought it carefully with tears." The reason why Esau couldn't find repentance, though he sought it carefully with tears, is simply because it was too late. A mother who gets an abortion can later regret her decision. She can weep, wail and gnash her teeth in regret. She can pray morning, noon and night for God to bring her butchered baby back to life, but it is too late!

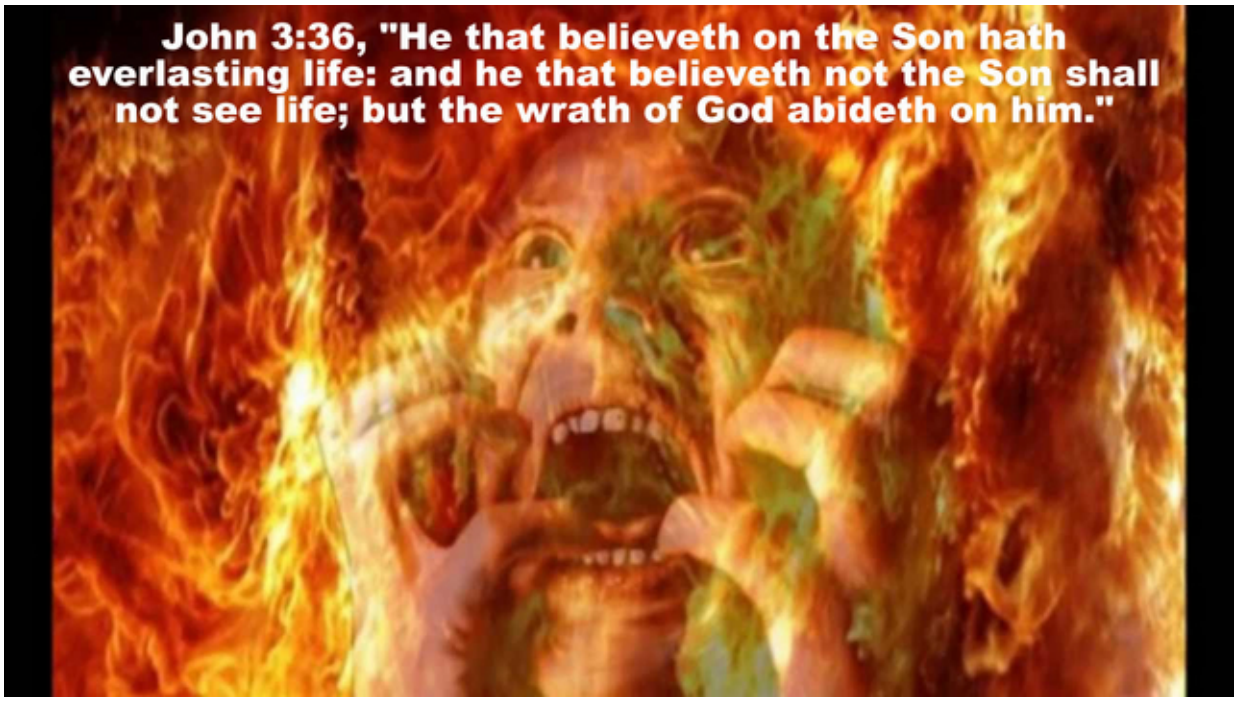
It is more than coincidental, I humbly think, that God mentioned Esau's fateful bad decision, along with living a holy life as a testimony for others to see. One day we must all give account to God for our life. That is what the parable Jesus told in Matthew 25:24-30, about the faithful and unfaithful servants, is all about—accountability. Every individual human being will one day in eternity stand before God and be held accountable. We will be held accountable by God for our words (Matthew 12:36), for our thoughts (Proverbs 24:12) and for our behavior (Ecclesiastes 12:14). But it will be TOO LATE then, to go back and relive our life upon the earth.

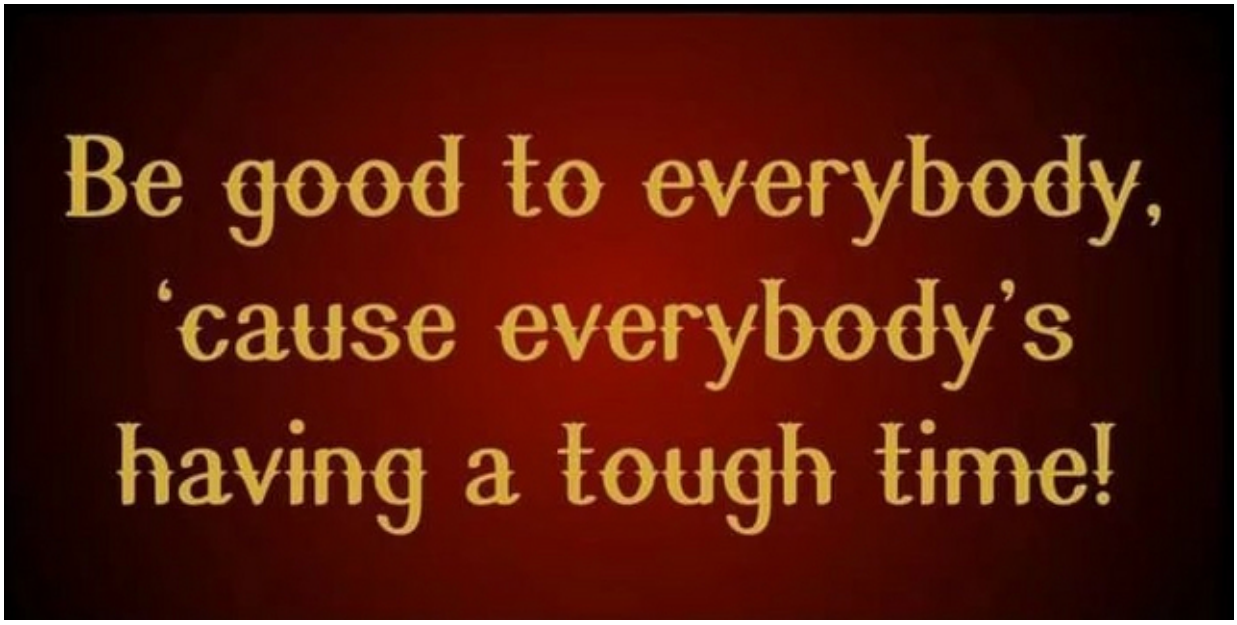
Dear friend, I challenge you TODAY, to start living for ETERNITY if you haven't been doing so. That is what the inspired Holy Bible means in 1st Timothy 6:12, "Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses." If you are born again believer, then good night friend, what are you waiting for, get busy serving God! Start laying up treasures in Heaven (Matthew 6:19-20). Start sharing the Gospel with lost sinners to win souls (Daniel 12:2-3). How tragic it will be for millions of believers in eternity, who will look back with resentment and tears upon their time on earth, realizing that they missed a grand opportunity to win people to Jesus Christ.



Like Esau, it will be too late in Heaven, and you can cry all the tears you want then, but you won't be able to go back in time to rectify the matter. Oh yes, the tears will flow at the Judgment Seat Of Christ (2nd Corinthians 5:9-11). 2nd Corinthians 5:11, " Knowing therefore the terror of the Lord, we persuade men; but we are made manifest unto God; and I trust also are made manifest in your consciences."

Every Christian has a responsibility to share the 'GOOD NEWS' (Gospel) of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and bodily risen the third day for the dead (1st Corinthians 15:1-6; Matthew 28:19-20). The Great Commission is not just for the clergy, but for every child of God. Sadly, The Great Commission has become 'The Great Omission' in 99 % of churches today! There is no desire to win souls. There is no scheduled time for church members to go soulwinning, knocking on doors, going from house to house (Acts 20:20).

Dear reader, you just may be the only Jesus that somebody knows. Matthew 5:14-16, "Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid. Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house. Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven." Please don't allow this temporary life to choke, frighten, discourage or sidetrack you, to cause you not to spiritually mature into the soulwinner which God intended for you to be. That is what the parable of The Sower And The Seeds in Luke 8:11-15 is all about—bearing fruit as a soulwinner! It's not too late friend!



And let my also say, that if you are not saved [1]it is never too late to get saved, just so long as you are still here on earth. 2nd Peter 3:9, "The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance." The Lord wants everyone to be saved, but you have to make that choice. John 5:40, "And ye will not come to me, that ye might have life." If you go to Hell someday, it will be your own fault alone. 2nd Timothy 2:13, "If we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself."

4.4.2 Just In Case You Really Want To Love (2023-04-01 18:07)

Matthew 22:35-40, "Then one of them, which was a lawyer, asked him a question, tempting him, and saying, Master, which is the great commandment in the law? Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets."

The following 18 life-changing statements are from Pastor Jack Hyles' beautiful sermon titled: ' [1]JUST IN CASE YOU REALLY WANT TO LOVE ' ...

1. It is sad but true, that most people cannot define love or depth. We are commanded to love God and others. Love is not selfish. If it is selfish, it is not love. Real Bible love causes more pain than not loving; If you don't want to suffer, don't love.

2. So there are few people who are [able] to recognize love, so love most always goes unnoticed and unappreciated and unreturned. Real Bible love is unrecognized and unrecognizable by 99 % of the people in the world, and most of the people perhaps in this room tonight. The people in this room tonight who love the most are not loved the most.

3. The loving are seldom loved as much as they love.

4. The deep go through life branded as 'shallow,' because no one is qualified to measure their depth.

5. Few have the eyes to see, or the ears to hear, what true love is all about.

6. That means if you do love truly, you will go through life misunderstood by those who think you misunderstand. If you love according to Bible love, you will go through life misunderstood by those who misunderstand.

7. So the farther you walk in love, the lonelier you will walk. Most of you want to be loved, but the kind of love you want is not Bible love. But in case you really want to love, you're going to go through life lonelier the more you love.

8. The deeper you love, the less love you will feel. The more that you love, the fewer people are that deep, so they won't be able to reciprocate your love. You'll find yourself hungry to be loved the way you love others.

9. You cannot be credited as a lover by the university of love, because the accrediting association is too shallow to judge. That means the world will not call you a "lover" if you have the right kind of love.

10. The more you love, the more you will hurt, because your love is unrecognized, unreturned and unwanted.

11. So if you have love, you will not be known as one who loves, because so few can understand your language. The liberal who does not believe this Bible is not born again, and if he's not born again the love of Christ is not in him, because the love of Christ comes in at salvation. The world falsely accuses the fundamentalist Bible preacher of not having love, but they don't have enough love to obey God. The Hell, fire and damnation preacher is the fella who has the most love!

12. Likewise concerning generosity. If you are generous, you will not be recognized as such, because it will be assumed you are wealthy. It took us 35 years to pay off our home!

13. If you are deep, you will not be known as deep, because you must be deep enough to convey depth to the simple.

14. If you have the courage of conviction, you will be misunderstood as stubborn. A fella with convictions is not stubborn, he has convictions. But people that don't have any convictions call it "stubbornness," 'cause you don't stand for anything, and that's why you fall for everything. Stubbornness is when you hold the same strictness over a preference that you should hold over a conviction.

15. Impatience is being as impetuous over a preference as you should be over a conviction. Patience is when you have the same attitude toward your little petty preferences. Impatience is when you have the same attitude toward a preference as you should have toward a conviction.

16. If you are profound, you will not be known as 'profound,' because people only see the vehicle and not the truth it transports.

17. If you are unselfish you will not be known as unselfish, because people can only judge your motives by what would prompt them to do the same act.

18. If you have joy, you'll not be known as having joy, because you must be judged by a world who only has happiness caused by pleasing of the senses; rather than a joy that is not caused, but it is given. Joy is given by God almighty, so you cannot lose it. You cannot earn it. Joy is not caused. You don't get joy because you see, touch, taste or hear something you like, it is given by God. Joy is given, it's not a response.

    SOURCE: Pastor Jack Hyles' beautiful sermon titled: '[2]JUST IN CASE YOU REALLY WANT TO LOVE'

Love, as does all virtue, causes pain. If you have really godly love, you'll not feel as loved.

There is a great advantage of love...

- The deeper you love, the more you can be alone with Him who is the source of love, who can give you the love that you offer. If you continue to grow in love, there will come a time in your life when only God can return that love. The more you understand God, the more you'll realize that nobody ever loves God back like He loves.

Why do so few people love? To most people love is a reflex. It is a response, a reaction, something that cannot be given without a response. That ladies and gentlemen is not love! Love is not a mutual agreement, it is a unilateral decision. If your love ever stops, it wasn't Bible love.

Love is to the world something that cannot be given unless received, and cannot be retained unless returned. Real love cannot be quenched by human action, neither can it be started by human action.

"I like you if you like me" is hogwash! Most of you have never got past first grade mentality. That is the world's phony love! It's time some of you folks grow up!!!

There's no such thing as love at first sight! You're going to be living in Hell one of these days, marrying the wrong person who has no clue of what real love is. It is better to wait long than marry wrong! REAL LOVE NEVER FAILETH!!!

There's no such thing as: "I don't love you anymore." That statement is foreign to the love of God! You got that garbage from ABC, CBS, NBC, HBO, Jerry Springer, Amazon, Roku, Netflix, Montel Williams, Hollywood, Inside Edition, 60 Minutes, The Tonight Show, Current Affair, Cosmopolitan, Howard Stern, Larry King, Sesame Street, Hawaii 50, Filmrise, Larry King, Vevo, YouTube, Broadway, Cinemax, Showtime, The View, Oprah Winfrey and other worldly sources. We're all being affected by the world, so that we know nothing of the love of God. The average churchgoer nowadays know nothing about the love of God.

The Apostle Paul discovered that the greater his love grew toward others, the less they could reciprocate that love. 2nd Corinthians 12:15, "And I will very gladly spend and be spent for you; though the more abundantly I love you, the less I be loved." It is painful to love without being loved in return, but very rewarding to know that God is loving others through us. What a privilege and blessing!

No love grows cold. No love stops. Love suffereth long and is kind. If you are saved, you have the love of God...

1. Walk with God who is the dispenser.
2. Walk with dispensers. Don't walk with crabs, gossips and critics. Walk with those who dispense the love of Christ.
3. Read from dispensers.
4. Listen to dispensers.
5. Read from the source of love, the inspired King James Bible.

Amen and amen!

4.4.3 Though He Slay Me, Yet Will I Trust Him (2023-04-01 18:19)

Job 13:15-17, " Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him: but I will maintain mine own ways before him. He also shall be my salvation: for an hypocrite shall not come before him. Hear diligently my speech, and my declaration with your ears. "

As a preacher with a website ministry, I receive many emails. I love helping people and corresponding with others, the more the better. In my ministry work I hear about many heart breaking stories. A lot of saints are discouraged nowadays because of the ungodly mess that our country is in. I found the following picture recently and I really like it, because it is so true...

So oftentimes in life things don't go as we planned. That has certainly been true in my lifetime. Life is what happens to us while we're making big plans! ...

> 1st Peter 1:6-9, "Wherein ye greatly rejoice, though now for a season, if need be, ye are in heaviness through manifold temptations: That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ: Whom having not seen, ye love; in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory: Receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls."

The preceding passage of Scripture is astounding! The inspired Holy Bible teaches that our troubles, burdens and heartaches are worth more than gold. Wow! I just checked and today's gold price is: [2] $1,969.46. The Bible says that our problems, trials and headaches in life are worth more than gold! But dear reader, how many believers think that way? How many of us as God's children value life's difficulties as being valuable? I admit that I usually don't think that way at first, until I process what has happened, and then I reflect Scripturally over the matter.

As I grow older, I am learning to bring my thinking into alignment (agreement) with the Word of God sooner than later, which means that I can find peace of mind sooner than later. This is what Solomon means in Proverbs 3:5-6, "

Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths." I often don't understand why things are the way they are, and I'm sure you often feel the same way too. But dear friend, God does understand all things! Even though we cannot see our hand in front of our face sometimes, God knows exactly what will happen tomorrow. Trust the One who sees tomorrow!

I decided long ago that I am going to be like Job, who after losing everything he held near and dear in his life, exclaimed in Job 13:15, " Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him*: but I will maintain mine own ways before him. " Job lost nearly everything! Interestingly, it was God and not Satan who began the wager. In Job chapter one we read that God challenged Job to a gentlemen's bet. ...

> Job 1:6-12, "Now there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan came also among them. And the LORD said unto Satan, Whence comest thou? Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it. And the LORD said unto Satan, Hast thou considered my servant Job, that there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil? Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, Doth Job fear God for nought? Hast not thou made an hedge about him, and about his house, and about all that he hath on every side? thou hast blessed the work of his hands, and his substance is increased in the land. But put forth thine hand now, and touch all that he hath, and he will curse thee to thy face. And the LORD said unto Satan, Behold, all that he hath is in thy power; only upon himself put not forth thine hand. So Satan went forth from the presence of the LORD."

I won't go into the full story, but just the highlights. God gave Satan permission to torment Job. We learn several important Scriptural lessons in this tremendous story:

1. God has placed a protective hedge around every born again believer (Job 1:10)
2. Satan can instigate evil thugs to murder people (Job 1:15)
3. Satan can cause lightning to strike and cause fire (Job 1:16)
4. Satan can instigate theft, crime and devastating financial loss (Job 1:17)
5. Satan can control weather (he killed Job's 10 children with a tornado, Job 1:19)
6. Satan can afflict a person's health (he smote Job with boils) if God permits (Job 2:7)

Dear friend, please don't ever place God on trial. I remember a true story a few decades ago. A young couple went off to Bible college. After about one year, the husband was suddenly killed in a horrible tragic car accident. That young man's wife became bitter against God. Her life was turned upside down, [3]like the Poseidon ship. She quit church and told everyone she was now an atheist. Oh, listen dear reader, God loves you! I cannot tell you why things happen as they do. Why do bad things happen to good people? Why do good things happen to bad people? The truth is that we are all guilty sinners in God's sight. There Bible says that there are none righteous, no not one (Romans 3:10). We live in a fallen world because of sin, which began with Adam's sin in the Garden of Eden (Romans 5:12).

Everything that God does is right! I don't care what may come your way, you just decide once and for all right now that everything God does is right. I made that important decision many years ago. I refuse to question God. Please don't question God. The most dangerous question you will ever ask God is: "

WHY?

" We won't know the answers to these questions until we see Christ someday, and then we shall know Him, even as we are known.

1st Corinthians 13:12, " For now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known." What a precious promise from God!

4.4.4 Peter NOT The Rock Upon Which The Church Was Built (2023-04-03 04:11)

Matthew 16:18, “

And I say also unto thee, That thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it.

A common false belief, especially among Roman Catholics, is that Peter is the rock upon which the church was built.

Here is the Greek meaning of the name, Peter:

> pet’-ros
>
> Apparently a primary word; a (piece of) rock (larger than G3037); as a name, Petrus, an apostle: - Peter, rock. Compare G2786.

Here is the Greek meaning of the word in Matthew 16:18, rock:

> pet’-ra
>
> Feminine of the same as G4074; a (mass of) rock (literally or figuratively): - rock.
>
> SOURCE: Strong’s Concordance

As we just learned, the name “

Peter

means *petro*s,

a piece of rock.

” But Jesus is Petra, “

the Rock

.” Hence, Jesus told Peter:

“

And I say also unto thee, That thou art Peter (a piece of rock), and upon this rock (The Rock) I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it.

Most people are unfamiliar with the Greek language, so they commonly misinterpret this Scripture. This is a good example of why it helps to look up the Greek meaning of words. However, you DON’T need to be a Greek scholar to understand the Holy Bible. A simple cross reference with 1st Corinthians 3:11 would show you that Jesus alone is THE FOUNDATION of the Church...

1st Corinthians 3:9-11, "For we are labourers together with God: ye are God's husbandry, ye are God's building. According to the grace of God which is given unto me, as a wise masterbuilder, I have laid the foundation, and another buildeth thereon. But let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon. For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ."

Jesus alone is THE FOUNDATION of the Church. Christ is also THE HEAD of the Church.

Ephesians 5:23,

For the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the church: and he is the saviour of the body.

" Colossians 1:18,

And he is the head of the body, the church: who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead; that in all things he might have the preeminence." Jesus is the HEAD and we as saints are the BODY of Christ. That is beautiful!

Also, carefully notice in Colossians 1:18 that Jesus is the FIRSTBORN FROM THE DEAD. We read in the Bible that some bodies of the saints resurrected from the dead when He died on the cross. Matthew 27:52-53, And the graves were opened; and many bodies of the saints which slept arose, And came out of the graves after his resurrection, and went into the holy city, and appeared unto many." Did not these saints rise up from the dead before Christ? Yes, the dead. So how can Jesus be "the firstborn from the dead"?

The simple answer is that Jesus is the first person to ever be resurrected in His glorified immortal body.

Those saints who raised up when Christ died on the cross, had to die again. The same is true of Lazarus, whom Jesus resurrected from the dead. Lazarus was raised up in his mortal earthly body, as were the saints at Calvary when Jesus died on the cross. They all needed to die again. But Jesus was the first person to ever be resurrected in a glorified immortal body. Jesus didn't need to die when He raised up from the dead, because He now had His perfect resurrected body. Philippians 3:20-21, "

For our conversation is in heaven; from whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ:

Who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, according to the working whereby he is able even to subdue all things unto himself.

So, Jesus is the mountain (The Rock) upon which Christ has built His Church. Please don't miss that! Jesus said that He, and not Peter, would build His Church! Jesus Christ alone builds His New Testament Church. John 15:5, "

I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing.

" Unless the Holy Spirit come down in power, nothing can happen.

Psalms 127:1, “ Except the LORD build the house, they labour in vain that build it: except the LORD keep the city, the watchman waketh but in vain.”

Peter is NOT the Rock upon which the Church was built, Jesus Christ alone is THE ROCK!!!

4.4.5 The Ungodly Hypocrisy Of Pastor Clarence Sexton (2023-04-05 20:28)

Isaiah 1;4, “Ah sinful nation, a people laden with iniquity, a seed of evildoers, children that are corrupters: they have forsaken the LORD, they have provoked the Holy One of Israel unto anger, they are gone away backward.”

Someone sent the following disturbing video to me by Pastor Clarence Sexton. ...

The Ungodly Hypocrisy Of Pastor Clarence Sexton

Sadly, and tragically, today’s Baptist pastors (and others faiths) have utterly dropped the ball for God. Does not the inspired Holy Bible command God’s men to earnestly content for the faith once delivered unto the saints? Jude 1:3, “Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints.”

Kindly, Pastor Clarence Sexton wickedly bids Godspeed to Dr. Steve Pettit and Bob Jones University (BJU), which is a Lordship Salvation cult today. BJU promotes the Devil’s corrupt Bible perversions. Why oh why would any Baptist pastor wickedly bid Godspeed to such an evil place? I think the reason is the love of money. The Bible warns in 1st Timothy 6:10 that THE LOVE OF MONEY is the root of all evil. These big churches and Bible college institutions want to make a lot of money, so they dip their sails in sinful compromise. The biggest threat to Christendom today are today’s dead Bible colleges. Millions of young people have gone into Bible college believing that the Holy Bible is inspired by God, but by the time they graduated and came out of college they no longer believed that we have an inspired perfect Bible today. We DO have a word for word (verbally) inspired Holy Bible in English, which is the King James Bible, and none else!

BJU invited infidel [1]Paul Washer (Mr. Calvinist himself) to preach at BJU chapel in December of 2022. Steve Pettit wickedly bids Godspeed to BJU alumni, Pastor John MacArthur (a hardcore 5-point Calvinist and proponent of the Devil’s Lordship Salvation).

BJU is pulling on the same rope as the Devil. The inspired Holy Bible warns in 2nd John 1;11, "For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds." RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!

Furthermore, Pastor Clarence Sexton, Temple Baptist Church and Crown College [2]wickedly bid Godspeed to infidel Ken Ham, who openly preaches that faith is NOT enough to get to Heaven. In addition, Ham says that you must turn away from your evil ways to be saved, which is partial faith in Christ plus works. What Ken Ham is preaching is another gospel, which cannot produce the new birth by the Holy Spirit. You cannot support Ken Ham and also claim to believe a free grace Gospel, which is by faith alone without works. Pastor Jack Hyles was right, who said: "Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do."

It is my hope and prayer that Pastor Sexton will repent and stop bidding Godspeed to infidel Ken Ham and the rotten Calvinist Bob Jones University camp. I am not holding my breath though, because very few pastors are mature enough in the Lord to do the right thing. [3]WOE UNTO THE PASTORS!

I sincerely love and respect Pastor Sexton, God knows my heart, but I must take a stand for what is right. Our nation is going to Hell because of the damnable lies of Calvinism, Lordship Salvation and Wrong Repentance. Bible repentance is a change of mind from unbelief to belief, not turning away from your sinful ways as a requirement to receive God's free gift of eternal life. Repentance is when a person has a change of mind to agree with God that they are a guilty sinner, and they have no hope of going to Heaven of their own power.

Therefore, they are saved when as a sinner they turn to God by believing the GOSPEL that Jesus is the only begotten Son of God, the Christ, who died on a cross in their place, was buried and physically resurrected from the dead three days later. That is the 'GOOD NEWS,' by which all who BLIEVE IT are saved immediately, irrevocably and permanently. Romans 1:16, "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek."

It is utterly hypocritical for Pastor Clarence Sexton to bloviate about bringing America back to God and of saving America, when he is sinfully helping to promote damnable false prophets like infidel Ken Ham and the Lordship Salvation CULT at Bob Jones University. Why does not Temple Baptist Church and Crown College contend for the faith? They should be exposing BJU, not bidding them Godspeed. [5]Calvinism is not an acceptable alternative to the Gospel of free grace, it is of the Devil. Thank you for reading. God save America from today's compromised, arrogant, complacent, cocky and indifferent money-loving pastors.

Dear reader, if America is ever going to experience REVIVAL and be brought back to God, it will be spearheaded by our religious leaders (i.e., our pastors, chaplains and evangelists—our clergy). Revival must start in the churches. That means pastors must start preaching an accurate presentation of the free grace Gospel taught in the Holy Scriptures. You're not going to redeem the United States back to God by preaching a counterfeit plan of salvation. Lordship Salvation and Wrong Repentance are perversions of the Gospel, both rooted in the false teachings of John Calvin (1509-1564). [6]Calvinism is NOT compatible with a free grace Gospel.

It breaks my heart and angers my soul as a born-again child of God, that most pastors are pulling on the same rope as the Devil, by preaching and supporting the Devil's damnable lie of Lordship Salvation. How are we going to save America with a counterfeit plan of salvation? How are we going to bring revival across the nation by supporting Lordship Salvation CULTS like Bob Jones University and Ken Ham's Answers-In-Genesis garbage.

Do you really think that God is going to honor BJU with their handful of corrupt Bible revisions that they use, sell and promote [7]which corrupt the Gospel? God will not bless a false gospel! God will not honor false repentance, which lying preachers tell people, requiring them to forsake a lifestyle of sinning to get to Heaven, which is WORKS!!! The accurate free grace Gospel is under attack!!! The inspired pure King James Bible is under attack!!!

When you hear bad pastors like Clarence Sexton promoting prayer, but he doesn't care about exposing damnable false prophets, something is VERY WRONG! Prayer doesn't expose error, it covers it up if you don't contend for the faith while you pray. Bible studies won't save America!!! Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) said it well:

> "Old-fashioned, Spirit-filled, Christ-honoring, sin-hating, soul-winning, Bible preaching! It is the hope of the church! It is the hope of the nation! It is the hope of the world!"—[8]Pastor Jack Hyles

So, humbly, I'm not praying for revival for America, I'm praying for revival for America's ungodly pastors, like [9]Clarence Sexton who wickedly bids Godspeed to hellbound false teachers like Ken Ham and Steve Pettit! Until our nation's spoiled rotten corrupt pastors repent and GET RIGHT WITH GOD, this nation is doomed!!!

4.4.6 Thank God False Prophet Steve Pettit Is Resigning As President Of Bob Jones University (2023-04-06 16:06)

Titus 1:10-14, “

For there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, specially they of the circumcision: Whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre’s sake. One of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The Cretians are alway liars, evil beasts, slow bellies.

This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith; Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men, that turn from the truth."

There is nothing as deadly, and as big a threat to churches today, than the Devil's lie of 'LORD-SHIP SALVATION.' What exactly is Lordship Salvation? Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold provides this helpful definition...

> "Lordship Salvation is the unsupportable and unbiblical belief that the performance of good works, the promise of good works, or the evidence of good works, must accompany faith in Christ to establish or provide evidence that such faith has resulted in eternal life." —Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold, [1]"Jesus versus John MacArthur"

Pastor Yankee Arnold also made this edifying comment...

> "Salvation is one thing and service is another, and never the two goes together. No man is saved because he serves, and no man has to serve because he is saved. Gotta keep them separate. And if you don't do it, the Scriptures will be confusing to you. You'll not rightly divide what God has to say." —Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold, [2]"Why Lordship Salvation Is Wrong"

Sadly, Bob Jones University (BJU) is a cesspool of Calvinism and Lordship Salvation today, corrupting their thousands of impressionable students with another gospel. In December of 2022, infidel [3]Paul Washer (Mr. Calvinist himself) was invited to speak at BJU chapel. God knows that I love everybody, including false prophets; but I hate their false teachings! There is a proper balance that every Christian ought to maintain. We should never accept the sin with the sinner, not reject the sinner with the sin. This is biblical.

Someone asked me today how we should treat the LGBTQ community. I kindly explained to them that we ought to treat them kindly with God's unconditional love, but at the same time reject their sin and refuse to tolerate it in our churches. Unrighteous people ought to be welcomed to attend any church, but woe and shame be to the pastor of those churches who fails to preach hard with the Holy Bible against the sin and perversion of homosexuality. The truth is that we are ALL sinners! Gossip, envy, racism, jealousy, lust and not liking people without a cause are just as awful and wicked as adultery, murder and homosexuality. Don't judge others because they sin differently than you do!

Please don't misunderstand, unrepentant homosexuals ought never be hired on church staff or accepted in good standing in their unrepentant state of sin. 1st Timothy 5:20, "Them that sin rebuke before all, that others also may fear." This Scripture is talking about open sin which is visible in the church, not exposing private sins that you are aware of. The adulterous couple in 1st Corinthians 5:1-5 were shacking up and living in open sin, and everybody in the church knew it. The Apostle Paul rebuked the church at Corinth and admonished them to confront the man, telling him to cease and desist or leave. I am simply saying that Christ was willing to die for even the worst of sinners, so we ought to view them as someone for whom the dear Savior was willing to shed His blood on the cross. God unconditionally loves everyone, even though He is not fond of the wicked and is against them. Again, we should never accept the sin with the sinner, not reject the sinner with the sin.

Beware Of The Damnable 'Repent Of Your' Sins Heresy

Considering that 95 % of preachers today are caught between grace and works, preaching the Devil's fraud of Lordship Salvation, it is the safe bet for those who want to attract more crowds to MAKE MONEY. Check for yourself and you will discover, that all of the following false prophets teach a form of Lordship Salvation, teaching that to be saved you must forsake your sinful lifestyle: Jehovah's Witnesses, Mormons, Roman Catholics, Seventh-Day Adventists, Lordship Salvationists, Ray Comfort and Kirk Cameron, Joyce Meyer, Beth Moore, Billy and Franklin Graham, Jimmy Swaggart, Rick Warren, Joel Osteen, Pat Robertson, Paul and Jan Crouch, Marty Herron, Steve Pettit, Sam Horn, John MacArthur, Paul Washer, Bob Jones University, et cetera.

Salvation is not a reward for the righteous, it is a gift for the guilty! Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith. Turning away from sinful ways would be a work. Faith puts all of the merit where it belongs, on the object of our faith, Jesus and His work. If to "repent" means to forsake our sinful ways TO BE SAVED, but Jesus already paid for our sins by dying on the cross, then what are we repenting from?

The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU. Satan's deadly boldfaced lie of LORDSHIP SALVATION has infected 95 % of churches (including Baptist churches) today. [4]Here is a perfect example of damnable heresy, preached by Billy Graham (1918-2018).

In addition to admitting you are a sinner and believing that Jesus died for you on the cross, according to Mr. Graham (who is now sadly screaming agony and gnashing his teeth in Hell), to get to Heaven you MUST:

1. Turn away from your sinful life.
2. Ask Christ to come into your heart and life.
3. Follow Jesus as 'Lord' from this day forward.
4. Pray for God to guide your life and do His will.

NONE of the above things are part of the Gospel.

In fact, they pollute, pervert and corrupt the Gospel, so that it cannot produce the SPIRITUAL birth. NO ONE has ever been saved by partial faith in Christ, plus YOU giving up your sinful bad lifestyle (works), and YOU attempting to follow Christ as your 'Lord' (works), and YOU asking Christ to come into your heart and life. You may do all those things and yet never be born again! Salvation is not a reward for the righteous, it is a free gift for the guilty!

Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith. Turning away from sinful ways would be a work. Faith puts all of the merit where it belongs, on the object of our faith, Jesus and His finished redemptive work. If to "repent" means to forsake our sinful ways TO BE SAVED, but Jesus already paid for our sins by dying on the cross, then what are we repenting from? The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU.

How do you know if you are saved? If you have believed on the Lord Jesus Christ alone as your personal Saviour, you are saved. If you have trusted in Him 100 % and in Him alone for your eternal salvation, you are justified. If you believe the true Gospel, you are eternally saved. So….what exactly is the Gospel? It's outlined by the Bible in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4 about how that Jesus Christ died on the Cross for all your past, present and future sins, was buried in a tomb, and bodily rose again from the dead on the 3rd day for your justification. That's the 'Good News' (Gospel) right there.

Why are so many churchgoers deceived and caught up into the Lordship Salvation heresy? I humbly think the big problem is that 95 % of people have never learned to think for themselves, so they just believe whatever they hear—whether it be from the lying mainstream newsmedia or a lying neo-evangelical pastor. What saith the Scripture? 1st John 4:4, "Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world." That is to say, we ought to think objectively as believers, comparing everything that we see and hear with the inspired Holy Bible.

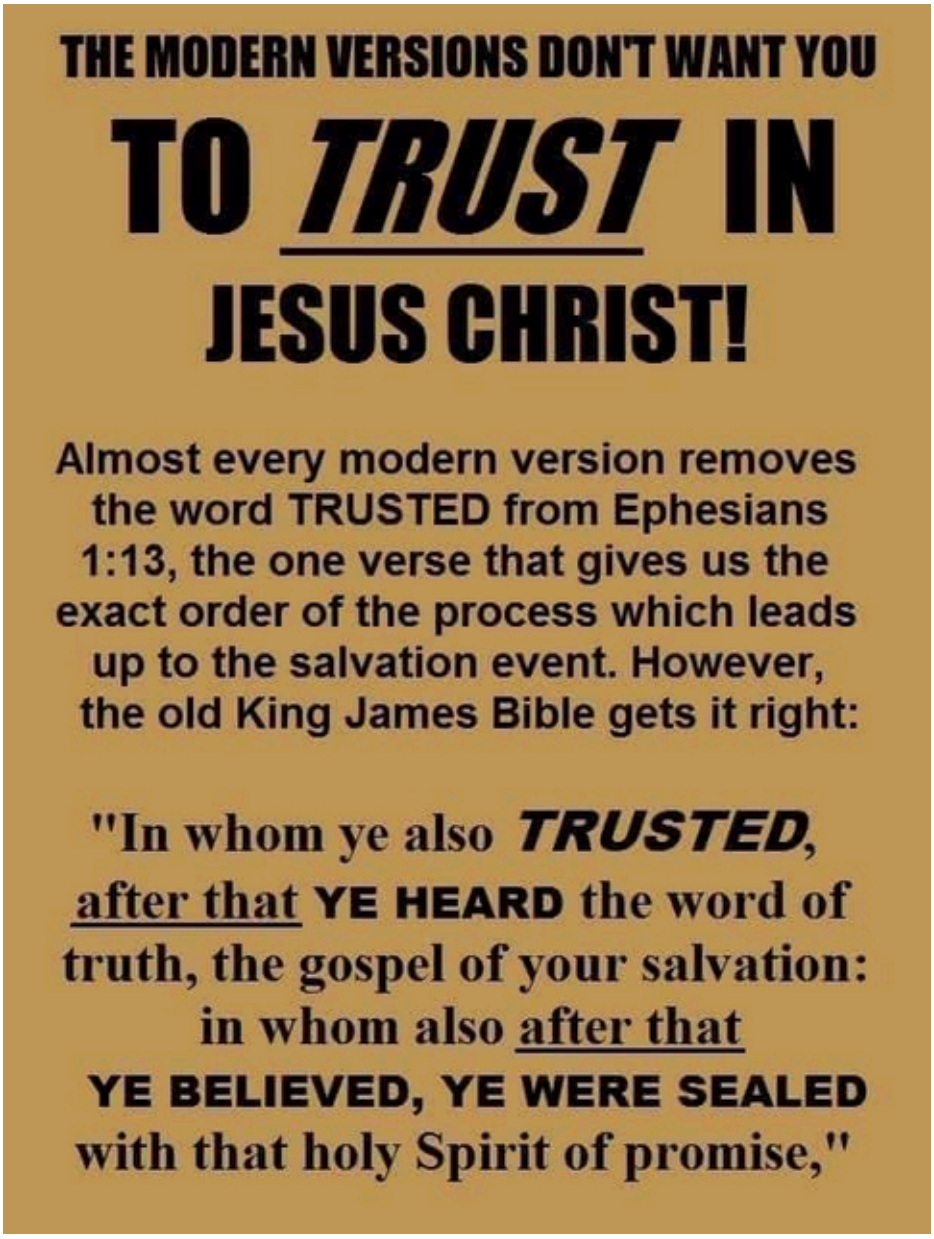
Also, it is in our carnal (fleshly) human nature to associate getting right with God with human effort, sacrifice and works. It is natural to think that the opposite of doing bad works is to do good works.

Albeit, the inspired Word of God introduces a very different plan of salvation, through faith alone in Christ alone. Jesus paid our debt of sin with His precious blood. We get saved by accepting Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for our sins, believing that He was buried, but then physically resurrected from the dead three days later.



All the preachers errantly teaching that a lost person must forsake their evil ways to get to Heaven don't understand the Gospel. They are adding works to grace, perverting the Gospel. Christ died for my sins so that I don't need to forsake my sins to be saved. And truthfully, no one can "turn away from" their sinning. As long as we are in the flesh, we will struggle with sin.

God commands us as His children to depart from iniquity, but this is regarding discipleship, not sonship (which is a free gift from God).

My favorite preacher quote is from Pilgrim's Progress author, John Bunyan:

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." —John Bunyan (1628-1688)

Kindly said, I am so glad that Dr. Steve Pettit has been shown the exit door at Bob Jones University (after 9 years of being their theologically incompetent executive vice president since 2014). It's about time! Amen, amen and amen! To understand why I am so happy that he is quitting, you need to understand that [5]Dr. Pettit preaches the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation. In [6]this news article, it says that BJU is losing students and money. I am glad for that! The reason why is because BJU is helping to damn men's souls to Hell. BJU uses, sells and promotes the Devil's modern corrupt Bible revisions. These Bibles corrupt God's simple plan of salvation. ...

You simply cannot trust the Devil's modern Bibles. They have all been tampered with, like a criminal putting poison into nursery bottles. It is tragic that over 95 % of preachers today don't consider poison bibles as deadly as actually poison, like cyanide or arsenic. Rat poison only contains 1 % actual deadly poison, but the rest is wholesome food like corn meal. Likewise, the Devil's bibles (which includes ALL modern Bible revisions in the English language) contain less than 2 % poison, but it is enough to kill the reader, preventing them from being born-again. I cannot warn you enough to stay away from the new Bible versions, which keep coming!

Dear reader, I love you in Christ unconditionally, no matter who you are. I don't get paid for my website ministry. I started my social media ministry in 2002 and have never accepted a single penny for my labors or any other reason over the past 21 years. It seems like yesterday. I want everyone to know that this is a labor of love for truth, people and God. I started a bunch of blogs about 5 years ago, as an extension of my website ministry. I am still copying old articles that I wrote to my blogs. I am so thankful and appreciative to Google for making this possible.

Bob Jones University has been pulling on the same rope as the Devil for the past 50 years. From all that I seen, BJU was Kosher in their plan of salvation when Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) was still alive and at the helm. It is clear to me that Brother Jones had a tremendous influence on the life and preaching of Dr. Jack Hyles. I love both of these dear men of God. It grieves my heart to see how our nation has changed for the worse in my lifetime. What discourages me is that today's professed Christians (particularly my own camp of independent Baptists) cannot see the forest for the trees! We are changing so quickly and most Baptists are in woeful denial. Here is a beautiful quote from Evangelist Bob Jones Sr.:

> "Young people, you can't buy salvation. You can't pay for it after you get it. But if you don't already have it, you can have it. Somebody is giving it away around here. His name is Jesus and He wants to give you salvation.
>
> Before I stop I will use an illustration I have used many times here at the college. Maybe those of you who have heard it have forgotten it.
>
> Do you see this quarter? I want to give it to you. But I am a peculiar man. I just give away quarters one way. I put a quarter in a book, shut the book, and offer you the book. You don't want the book? Well, all right, you can't have my quarter, then. I have a right to put the quarter in any sort of package I wish. You, of course, have the privilege of rejecting the quarter.
>
> God has something He wants to give you. It is eternal life. He wrapped it in the most wonderful package you ever heard of. He put it in Jesus. People looked at Jesus. He had no form or comeliness; there wasn't anything about Him to be desired. And they didn't realize what was wrapped up in that package. They put Jesus on a cross. They nailed Him there. They killed Him. Then He rose from the dead, and He has been scarred ever since that time. If you could see Jesus today, the glorified, risen Son of God, you would find scars on His brow and scars in His hands. If you could look at His side you would find a wound there. His feet are scarred. But, say, He has wrapped in Himself a wonderful gift. God gives you eternal life when you take Him. Eternal life is wrapped up in Christ." —Dr. Bob Jones Sr., "Things I Have Learned: Chapel Talks," pages 222-223; Bob Jones University Press, ©1945

Amen and amen! That was so simply, beautiful and eloquently said. Dr. Bob Jones Sr. preached the simplicity that is in Jesus Christ (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4). Sadly, after " Dr. Bob

" (as he was known) went to Heaven in 1968, the college began to drift sideways doctrinally, so that by the 21st century they were gone doctrinally!

After the horrific 911 attacks, Dr. Bob Jones III decided to remove the designation of "fundamentalist" from their college, because he felt the public would associate them with Muslim fundamentalists. I totally disagree. I think that was a cop out! I am proud to call myself a fundamentalist. I have been an Independent Fundamentalist Baptist since 1980 when I got saved at age 13. But, first and foremost I am a born-again Christian, by faith alone in Jesus Christ because of what He did to pay for my sins on Calvary's cross, and that He was buried and bodily resurrected from the dead three days later (1st Corinthians 15:1-6). Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do.

It breaks my heart to have watched BJU go to the dogs. Sadly, when Evangelist Steve Pettit took control of the helm at BJU in 2014, he solidified the institution as a cesspool of the Devil's Bible revisions, misunderstood repentance and Lordship Salvation. I am curious who the next president of BJU will be. I have been praying that their Board of Directors will return the college to a free grace Gospel position in their doctrine, which is what they believed and taught when they opened their college doors in 1927.

It is sad to watch institutions become corrupted by the Devil. The University of Chicago was started in 1890 by a Baptist preacher, but has sadly deteriorated over the past century, so that UOC today is a cesspool of homosexuals and atheists. The same is true of Moody Church and Moody Bible Institute in Chicago. They believed and taught a 100 % free grace Gospel between 1930 and 1948 when Pastor Harry A. Ironside (1876-1951) was at the helm. Sadly, Moody Church has deteriorated over the decades. Tragically, on Moody's college website today, they claim to be Calvinist in their doctrinal leaning. That is the consequence of Moody Ministries wickedly bidding Godspeed to Pastor John MacArthur (a devout 5-point Calvinist and the modern-day godfather of the heresy of Lordship Salvation). Moody Publishers prints all of John MacArthur's poisonous books. Birds of a feather flock together!

Dear friend, I hope you see the danger of Lordship Salvation. I encourage you to read Matthew 7:21-23. They cried "Lord, Lord" to Jesus, but He denied knowing them. They boasted of their "many wonderful works" done in Jesus' name, but again He denied knowing them. Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born-again. All across the world today there are religious people in the churches who are committed to serving Jesus Christ. They follow Him devoutly as the "Lord" of their life. They follow Him. They know Jesus (as Judas Iscariot did), but Jesus doesn't know them as one of His sheep. Why didn't the dead Savior know them? Jesus gives us the plain answer in Matthew 7:21, "Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven."

Something that I love about the inspired King James Bible is that it contains a built-in dictionary (which the modern corrupt versions do not). Jesus tells us plainly "the will of my Father" in John 6:40, " And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day." The only way to become born-again is by faith alone in Jesus Christ, the only begotten Son of God (John 20:31).

> Here is the gospel: God says that we are sinners and that no amount of good works or behavioral changes on our part could ever make us holy enough to enter Heaven. God sent His Son to pay for all of our sins. Jesus paid for our crimes by dying on the cross for us all. His dead body was buried in a grave. On the third day, Jesus arose from the dead.
>
> The instant you believe this, He knows it and He saves you. "Verily, verily, I say unto you, he that believeth on Me hath everlasting life" (John 6:47). The free gift is based solely upon your trust in what Jesus did for you and has nothing at all to do with what you do for Him. "For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast" (Ephesians 2:8-9). Michael P. Bowen, "[8]I NEVER KNEW YOU."

I wish, hope and pray that God would remove all false prophets like Steve Pettit. I am thankful for the sake of the students at BJU. I seriously doubt if BJU's Board of Directors will return the college to a free grace Gospel position, but we never know. All we can do is hope and pray and see what happens, but I am not holding my breath. God will not force anyone to do what is right, the Board of Directors at BJU must first desire to change for the better. Thank you for reading.

4.4.7 Though He Slay Me, Yet Will I Trust Him (2023-04-07 18:49)

Job 13:15-17, " Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him: but I will maintain mine own ways before him. He also shall be my salvation: for an hypocrite shall not come before him. Hear diligently my speech, and my declaration with your ears. "

As a preacher with a website ministry, I receive many emails. I love helping people and corresponding with others, the more the better. In my ministry work I hear about many heart breaking stories. A lot of saints are discouraged nowadays because of the ungodly mess that our country is in. I found the following picture recently and I really like it, because it is so true...

So oftentimes in life things don't go as we planned. That has certainly been true in my lifetime. Life is what happens to us while we're making big plans! ...

> 1st Peter 1:6-9, "Wherein ye greatly rejoice, though now for a season, if need be, ye are in heaviness through manifold temptations: That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ: Whom having not seen, ye love; in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory: Receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls."

The preceding passage of Scripture is astounding! The inspired Holy Bible teaches that our troubles, burdens and heartaches are worth more than gold. Wow! I just checked and today's gold price is: [2] $1,969.46. The Bible says that our problems, trials and headaches in life are worth more than gold! But dear reader, how many believers think that way? How many of us as God's children value life's difficulties as being valuable? I admit that I usually don't think that way at first, until I process what has happened, and then I reflect Scripturally over the matter.

As I grow older, I am learning to bring my thinking into alignment (agreement) with the Word of God sooner than later, which means that I can find peace of mind sooner than later. This is what Solomon means in Proverbs 3:5-6, "

Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths." I often don't understand why things are the way they are, and I'm sure you often feel the same way too. But dear friend, God does understand all things! Even though we cannot see our hand in front of our face sometimes, God knows exactly what will happen tomorrow. Trust the One who sees tomorrow!

I decided long ago that I am going to be like Job, who after losing everything he held near and dear in his life, exclaimed in

Job 13:15, " Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him*: but I will maintain mine own ways before him. " Job lost nearly everything! Interestingly, it was God and not Satan who began the wager. In Job chapter one we read that God challenged Job to a gentlemen's bet. ...

> Job 1:6-12, "Now there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan came also among them. And the LORD said unto Satan, Whence comest thou? Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it. And the LORD said unto Satan, Hast thou considered my servant Job, that there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil? Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, Doth Job fear God for nought? Hast not thou made an hedge about him, and about his house, and about all that he hath on every side? thou hast blessed the work of his hands, and his substance is increased in the land. But put forth thine hand now, and touch all that he hath, and he will curse thee to thy face. And the LORD said unto Satan, Behold, all that he hath is in thy power; only upon himself put not forth thine hand. So Satan went forth from the presence of the LORD."

I won't go into the full story, but just the highlights. God gave Satan permission to torment Job. We learn several important Scriptural lessons in this tremendous story:

1. God has placed a protective hedge around every born again believer (Job 1:10)
2. Satan can instigate evil thugs to murder people (Job 1:15)
3. Satan can cause lightning to strike and cause fire (Job 1:16)
4. Satan can instigate theft, crime and devastating financial loss (Job 1:17)
5. Satan can control weather (he killed Job's 10 children with a tornado, Job 1:19)
6. Satan can afflict a person's health (he smote Job with boils) if God permits (Job 2:7)

Dear friend, please don't ever place God on trial. I remember a true story a few decades ago. A young couple went off to Bible college. After about one year, the husband was suddenly killed in a horrible tragic car accident. That young man's wife became bitter against God. Her life was turned upside down, [3]like the Poseidon ship. She quit church and told everyone she was now an atheist. Oh, listen dear reader, God loves you! I cannot tell you why things happen as they do. Why do bad things happen to good people? Why do good things happen to bad people? The truth is that we are all guilty sinners in God's sight. There Bible says that there are none righteous, no not one (Romans 3:10). We live in a fallen world because of sin, which began with Adam's sin in the Garden of Eden (Romans 5:12).

Everything that God does is right! I don't care what may come your way, you just decide once and for all right now that everything God does is right. I made that important decision many years ago. I refuse to question God. Please don't question God. The most dangerous question you will ever ask God is: "

WHY?

" We won't know the answers to these questions until we see Christ someday, and then we shall know Him, even as we are known.

1st Corinthians 13:12, " For now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known." What a precious promise from God!

4.4.8 What Kind Of God Would Cast Anyone Into Hell? (2023-04-10 19:55)

"And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire." —Revelation 20:15

Many people are bitter at the idea that a God would cast someone into a lake of fire to be tormented forever. It was legendary author, Mark Twain (1835-1910), who said: "If there is a God, he is a malign thug." This is how the majority of the world views God. With all the suffering, hatred and religious fighting going on all over the world, many people get angry at God. Why does God allow pain, sorrow and suffering?

The truth is that mankind is responsible for his own woes. I know that's the last thing people want to read, but it's the truth. Did God put the United States government $10,000,000,000,000 into debt? No. Did God brew the beer that killed thousands of people last year? No. Did God invade Iraq and murder over one million people? No. Yet, many people find it convenient to blame God for everything. It's not God's fault that wicked people banned God, prayer and the Bible from the public school system beginning in 1962. It's not God's fault that most Americans are woefully ignorant of truth and saturated with a love for sin.

It is not God's fault that a generation of hippies in the 1960's decided to rebel, abuse themselves with illegal drugs, and live in fornication. This is a direct consequence of Rock 'N' Roll. As a result, a group of evil people made abortion legal in 1972 at a federal level. We are paying the price today. Now homosexuals are screaming for their "rights."

For the Wages of Sin is Death

> "For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord."

God is Holy, i.e., morally perfect. God is the ultimate Lawgiver. Someone recently said to me that God is the biggest mass-murderer in the world because he killed nearly everyone with the flood of Noah's day. That's a pretty bold statement. Does not God have a right to take life, since He is the One Who creates life? Who are we to decide what is right and wrong based upon our finite and corrupt human reasoning?

The fact of the matter is that everyone of us deserves to burn in the fires of Hell forever. The reason "why" people get upset with God over the problems in this life is because we think we deserve better. We think humanity deserves better. We want to see every little child eat a good meal. Yes sir! We want to see all wars come to and end forever. Amen! We want everything to be good; but there's a big problem... we want to live in sin and still secure God's blessings. It doesn't work that way. Americans can hypocritically sing, "God Bless America" all they want; but God will NOT bless a ruthless nation of baby-murderers!!! God will NOT bless a vile nation of liars, cheats, pornographers, boozers, fornicators, stiffnecks, lesbians, astrologers, marriage quitters, perverts and sickos.

This sin-loving world deserves to suffer. Most preachers today have lost touch with the reality of God's Law. Here's a brief quote from Jonathan Edwards' classic sermon entitled, "Sinners in the Hands of An Angry God"...

> "Your wickedness makes you as it were heavy as lead, and to tend downwards with great weight and pressure towards hell; and if God should let you go, you would immediately sink and swiftly descend and plunge into the bottomless gulf, and your healthy constitution, and your own care and prudence, and best contrivance, and all your righteousness, would have no more influence to uphold you and keep you out of hell, than a spider's web would have to stop a falling rock. Were it not for the sovereign pleasure of God, the earth would not bear you one moment; for you > are a burden to it; the creation groans with you; the creature is made subject to the bondage of your corruption, not willingly; the sun does not willingly shine upon you to give you light to serve sin and Satan; the earth does not willingly yield her increase to satisfy your lusts; nor is it willingly a stage for your wickedness to be acted upon; the air does not willingly serve you for breath to maintain the flame of life in your vitals, while you spend your life in the service of God's enemies." Jonathan Edwards, '[1]SINNERS IN THE HANDS OF AN ANGRY GOD'

You won't hear that on the Oprah Winfry Show! Jonathan Edwards is correct— our sins are so loathsome to God that if it weren't for God's undeserved mercy, we'd all plunge into the depths of eternal damnation into the Lake of Fire!!! There can be no salvation without the Law of God that shows us our desperate need for the Savior, Jesus Christ. We all deserve to be severely PUNISHED in the torments of Hell because of our own sins. Thankfully, Jesus paid the price for our sins with His own precious blood (1st Peter 1:18, 19), so we don't have to go to Hell when we pass into eternity. Jesus is Precious!

If people could only grasp just how wicked they are, and the extent to which we have all violated God's holy Law, no one would ever question why God would punish someone in the flames of Hell for all eternity. Is that a gamble you're willing to take?

Man's Freewill

Blaming God for the problems of this world is to say that God should override man's freewill and force Himself upon us. If God did that, then we'd blame Him as well. Sin is the culprit; not God. God never created Satan; he created an upright archangel, Lucifer, who chose to rebel and sin on his own. God never created a fallen world; Adam and Eve sinned and allowed sin to enter into the world (Romans 5:12). God is not to blame. It is not His fault. God is doing a good job.

When Adam and Eve chose to eat of the forbidden fruit, they sinned and opened a Pandora's box upon humanity. To date, God allows mankind to make their own decisions, and to suffer the consequences thereof. The world is in a mess today because of man's greed, [2]love for war, selfishness, racial hatred, and love for sin in general. Sin is violating God's Law. Consider the sinful pride and arrogance of Las Vegas, a city so vile and wicked that they've nicknamed it "[3]SIN CITY." They might as well spit on God.

The average person complains often about the "evil rich people" who control everything and afflict those who are less fortunate; but they'd do the same exact thing if they were rich. We are all rotten sinners, looking out for number one, self. Only by yielding to God's Holy Spirit through obedience to the Scriptures can any believer please God (2nd Corinthians 10:5).

Although God has given mankind a free will to decide for himself; He has also commanded us to "repent" (Acts 17:30). The reason why there is so much evil in the world today is become of man's stubbornness, pride and love for sinful pleasures. God is NOT to blame. Sadly, our actions DO affect our loved ones, as [4]Madalyn Murray O'Hair found out when her wickedness ended up getting herself, her son and her granddaughter murdered.

Charles Spurgeon on God's Justice

God is the ultimate Lawgiver. He is not unrighteous to throw the abominable, who reject His gift of free pardon, into Hell. Consider the following quotes by Pastor Charles Haddon Spurgeon...

> "First, we cannot expect that the God of the Bible would allow sin to go unpunished. Some may imagine it; they may dream their intellects into a state intoxication, so as to fantasize a God apart from justice; but no man who has any common sense, can imagine a God without justice."
>
> "You cannot conceive of a good king or of a good government that could exist without Justice, much less of God, the Judge and King of all the earth, without justice in His heart. To imagine Him all love, and no justice, would be to make Him less than God. He would not be capable of ruling this world if He had not justice in His heart."
>
> "There is in man a natural perception of the fact, that if God exists, He must be just; and I cannot imagine that you can believe in a God, without believing also in the punishment of sin. It would be difficult to imagine Him elevated high above His creatures, seeing all their disobedience, and yet looking with the same composure upon the good and upon the evil; you cannot imagine Him giving the same reward of praise to the wicked and to the righteous..."
>
> "This world is not the dungeon where God punishes sin... judgment is reserved for the next world... Your own consciences will tell you that God must punish sin. You may laugh at me, and say that you have no such "belief." I did not say you had, but I said that your conscience tells you so, and conscience has more power over men than what they think to be their belief. As John Bunyan said, 'Mr. Conscience had a very loud voice, and though Mr. Understanding shut himself up in a dark room where he could not see, yet he used to thunder out so loudly in the streets, that Mr. Understanding used to shake in his house through what Mr. Conscience said.' And it is true so often."
>
> "You say in your understanding, 'I cannot believe God will punish sin;' but you know He will. You don't want to confess your secret fears because to do so would be to give up what you have so often most bravely asserted. But because you assert it with such boasting and high-sounding words, I think you don't really believe it, for if you did, you would not need to look so big while saying it... I know that when you are dying you will believe in a hell. Conscience makes cowards of us all, and makes us believe, even when we say we don't, that God must punish sin."
> SOURCE: Charles Spurgeon, sermon entitled, 'TURN OR BURN,' preached December 7, 1856, at the Music Hall, Royal Surrey Gardens (note: Spurgeon is a controversial preacher, because he is in fact a Calvinist to some degree in his theology. So I do not endorse all his sermons or writings. Please keep that in mind.)

God is a holy (morally perfect) God, Whose holiness demands justice! If God were to break His Word, then he would be unholy and untrustworthy. The Bible clearly tells us in 2nd Peter 3:9 that God is "not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance." God never casts anyone into Hell with a smile on His face or joy in His heart. I am leary of professed Christians who rejoice over the death of the wicked. The Bible plainly states in Ezekiel 33:11, "As I live, saith the Lord GOD, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked turn from his way and live."

Hell wasn't created for mankind; but rather, for the Devil and his angels. Every human soul that enters Hell will be there only by their own CHOICE. Everyone either chooses to trust or reject Jesus Christ as their Savior. The issue is sin. We are all sinners condemned under God's Law (Romans 3:19-23). Only through the sin-cleansing blood of Jesus Christ can anyone go to Heaven (1st Peter 1:18, 19). No amount of self-righteousness or religious experience can save a person from Hell.

Please Don't Place God On Trial

People mutter all kinds of accusations against the God of the Bible. Oh, listen my friend, God is a good and fair God! He is very great indeed. Those who curse and blame God will not persist in their blasphemies forever…

> Psalms 2:1-5, "Why do the heathen rage, and the people imagine a vain thing? The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the LORD, and against his anointed, saying, Let us break their bands asunder, and cast away their cords from us. He that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh: the Lord shall have them in derision. Then shall he speak unto them in his wrath, and vex them in his sore displeasure."

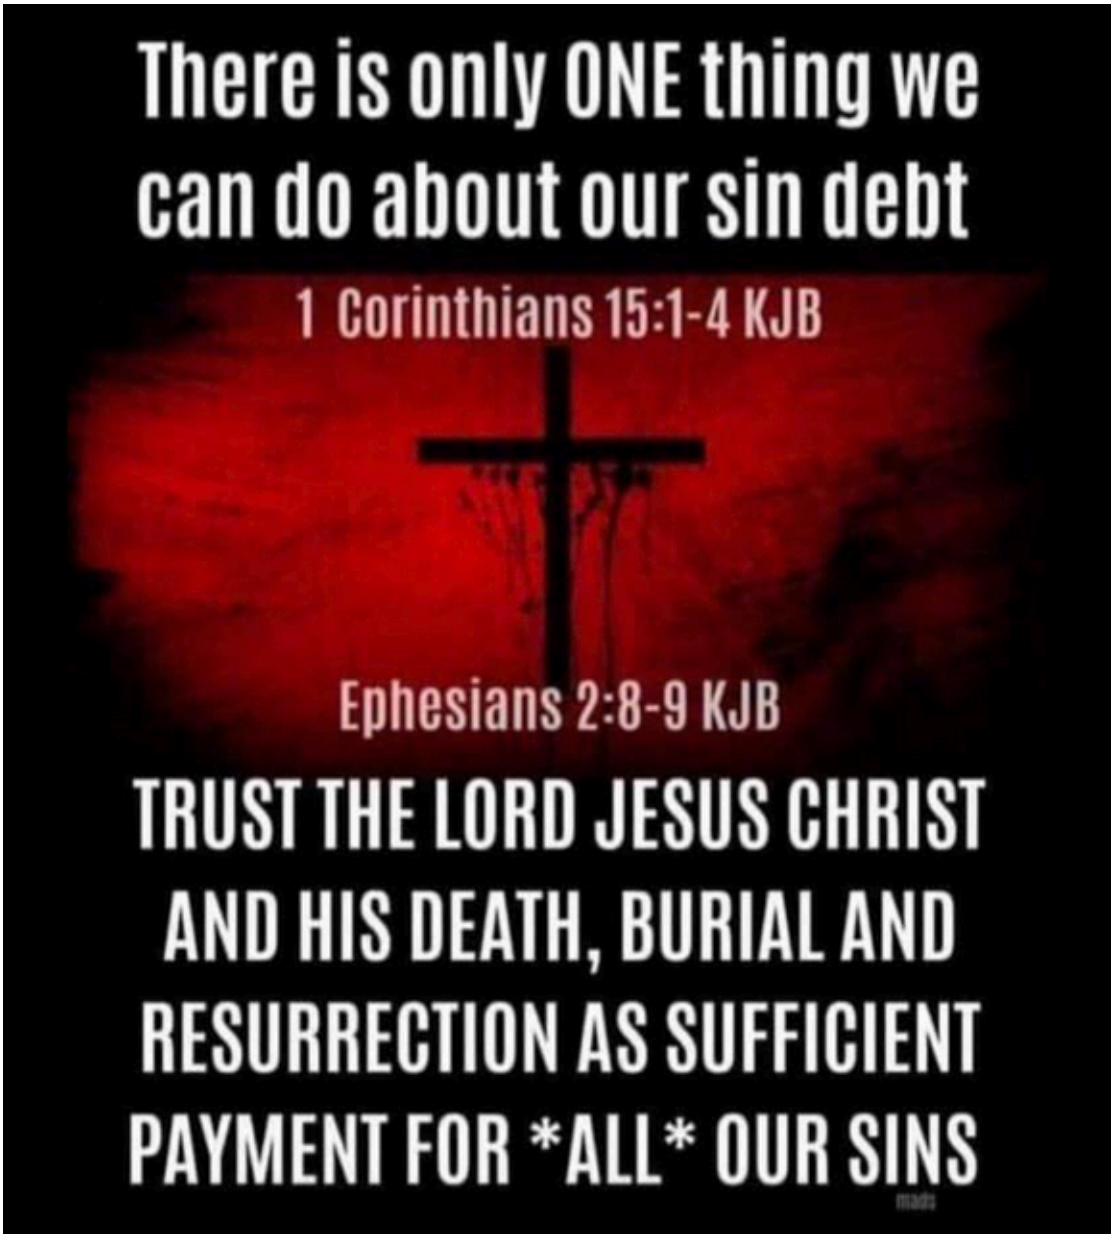
There is only one way you'll ever get a pardon from God to escape the judgment of Hell—by faith in the precious blood of Jesus Christ. The only begotten Son of God left His home in glory up in Heaven. He came down to the earth to suffer, bleed and die on a cruel Roman cross to pay for OUR sins. He didn't have to do that because He didn't have any sins of His own (2nd Corinthians 5:21). But, Jesus loved us so much that He did it anyway (Romans 5:6-9). Friend, if you go to Hell, you'll have no one to blame but your own self.

What kind of God would cast someone into Hell? A good God, that's who! A fair God, that's who. The Lord has paved the way of escape for every human being, all you need to do is appropriate that free gift by accepting Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, believing that He was buried and then resurrected from the dead physically three days later. That is 'THE GOSPEL,' the 'GOOD NEWS' of Christ crucified, buried and risen the third day

(1st Corinthians 15:1-6).

2nd Timothy 2:13, "



If we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself.

" God has been faithful, to be willing to save anybody who BELIEVES ON JESUS, but you've got to make that personal choice friend. Your sins have already been paid for. There is a gift of eternal life with your name on it in Heaven. But unless you personally accept that free gift from God, which has already been paid in full by the sacrifice on God's only begotten Son on the cross, you WON'T get it! Sadly, Hell is full of lost sinners who cold-heartedly rejected God's free gift, but found out 10 seconds after they died that it was too late.

I think it is clear from history (from his own writings which were critical of God, the Bible and Christianity) that Mark Twain (1835-1910) was not a born-again Christian. I am sad to think that in 1910 Mark Twain plunged into the depths of the fires of Hell forever, but that is the only place Christ-rejecters can go. It is either Heaven or Hell friend, and nothing in between. There is no mythical place of Purgatory taught in the Holy Bible, where sinners temporarily suffer before meeting their final destination. When you die, you is either an instant awakening in the torments of Hell, or you will be escorted by angels to Heaven (Luke 16:19-31).

4.4.9 Love Covereth All Sins (2023-04-11 18:26)

Proverbs 10:12, “

Hatred stirreth up strifes: but love covereth all sins.”

This is perhaps one of the most ignored passages of Scripture in the inspired Holy Bible.

If you are familiar at all with the mainstream news media and social media, unless you’ve lived in a cave somewhere, then you have heard all types of slander, accusations and hateful speeches against people. The Bible tells us that the Devil is

“THE ACCUSER OF THE BRETHREN.”

> Revelation 12:10,
> “ And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night.”

We are never more like Satan than when we speak evil of others, bringing up their past failures and sins to shame, embarrass, hurt or discredit them. No saint of God ought ever do such a shameful thing! If you are familiar with my websites and blogs, then you know that I don’t mention people’s personal sins. I could mention some famous names and tell you about sins that I am aware of, but the Word of God says in our text Scripture that hatred stirs up strifes.

Having said that, I DO expose bad pastors and religious leaders who mistreat people, refuse to allow me to attend their church, or they are guilty of preaching heresy. Pensacola Christian College has banned me from attending their Campus Church, so this is an ongoing situation. I am still willing to reconcile and make peace with them, and to start removing my criticisms against them from social media, but only when I am welcome to come back to Campus Church. Why should I stop criticizing them, when they are proving by their shameful behavior everything that I have said in my Bible preaching against them?

Sadly, PCC doesn’t give a damn! I don’t expect to ever hear from them. I mailed three letters, two to Campus Church and a courtesy copy to Pensacola Christian College. They all totally ignored me. So after six weeks I got upset and criticized them on social media. Only then did Pastor Jeff Redlin cruelly email me to tell me that I am banned from attending Campus Church. Fine, then I will continue to preach against their CULT! Only shady religious cults ban people from attending church. I am not the only victim at PCC, read for yourself some of the negative comments by their own alumni...

> “Don’t go here if you’re a Christian; they don’t actually follow the Bible. They just use it as an excuse to treat people like trash.” —Danielle Tate (2016)

“This institution did more to harm my personal development than any other. As a 38 year old professional, I still bear the scars of how I was treated by this harsh, unloving, uncaring college.” —Greg S (2015), a former abused PCC student

“17 years later and I’m still shaking off the trauma. So many extra-biblical rules it’ll make your head spin. Great place for Pharisaical training if your into that. The rule book has more rules than the Bible.” —Jorn Anderson (September 2022), former mistreated PCC student

“Pcc is the worst school ever. It was a complete waste of my time and money. They kicked me out for going to the wrong Sunday school class. And that was a year ago. They still will not release my transcripts which has put me behind in my college career. They schools not be called a Christian college if they cannot even live by what the Bible has to say. If I was able to take it all back and not go there I would in a heartbeat. I am warning you if you are thinking about going DONT DO IT!!!!” —Gavin Bufford (2017), abused former PCC student

“I’m a 2018 graduate of PCC and I went here for all 4 years. It’s really sad that this place calls itself Christian, its legalistic places like pcc that give Christians a bad name. They do have a lot of rules regulating most areas of life. I was treated very poorly and rude by several "Christians" on staff and faculty and I saw many of my friends treated the same way. I’ve personally seen people who were once people I would hang out with, when given positions of leadership become legalistic monsters taking joy in getting as many students in trouble as possible, and this is done in the name of Christ! As a student you are guilty until proven innocent and can be kicked out just because someone accuses you of something.” —Nick Harrison (2019), a mistreated PCC alumni

“It is NOT a friendly environment. All they care about is rules instead of encouraging and building you up in your Christian walk.” —Hannah Elizabeth Kirchhoff (December 2022), mistreated former PCC student

“They call themselves Christians, but Christians are supposed to show compassion and patience.” —Angela (January 2023), mistreated former PCC student

“In retrospect, I thank God for not having the opportunity to attend here (Pensacola Christian College) and myself for not making the decision to enroll.” —Richard Deuto (January 2023)

“Crackpot unaccredited school.” —Meryl Montgomery (November 2022)

I love this truthful quote from Dr. Jack Hyles (1926-2001)...

> “I am all for standards, but I am not for standards without love.” —Pastor Jack Hyles

Bingo! That is the missing ingredient at PCC, God’s unconditional love and compassion for individual people. Sadly, the cult system always comes first at PCC, and their plethora of rules, but individual people do not matter. I experienced that cold-hearted indifference firsthand from the incompetent hateful pastors of Campus Church, and the indifferent leadership at PCC who didn’t even have the decency to respond to my lengthy letter asking for their intervention, just so that I could come back to attend Campus Church.

I am not bringing up PCC’s past sins, I am asking them to allow me to attend Campus Church, but then won’t budge because they are sinfully arrogant and have huge egos at PCC. Their sin is ongoing.

SHAME on Pensacola Christian College! When a pastor disses you and your humble letter pleading to make reconciliation (as they shamefully did to me in the summer of 2022), that pastor’s heart is filled with hatred, just as the ungodly mother who aborts her baby hates that child. No mother who has an abortion loves that precious life. Tragically, only SOME LIVES MATTER at Campus Church and PCC. To God, ALL LIVES MATTER, and you’re not right with God unless you think ALL LIVES MATTER.

When someone makes things right with us, we ought to forgive them and let the matter die. When a preacher sins and pays the price for his sins, we ought not continue to bring up that preacher's past sins. That is, we shouldn't bring it up days, weeks, months, years or decades later, stirring up hatred and strife. Wicked critics all over social media love to bring up every sin they can find about a preacher to destroy his name, testimony, legacy and ministry, if they can. They are doing the evil will of their evil father, Satan. ...

> John 8:44-45, "Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it. And because I tell you the truth, ye believe me not."

As God's children we ought to love others as ourselves. Would you want someone to constantly mention your sins and faults? No, you would not. Jesus commands every believer in Matthew 7:12, "Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets."

This is 'THE GOLDEN RULE.'

Of course, this does not mean that pastors shouldn't call out open sin in the church. 1st Timothy 5:20, " Them that sin rebuke before all, that others also may fear." This verse simply means that a pastor is the shepherd of God's flock, and he has a duty to preach against sin to ensure that the Devil doesn't get his foot into the door of the church. False teachers are always trying to creep into every local New Testament church. They need to be exposed. However, p lease don't confuse our text verse that love covereth all sins, with contending for the faith (which is our responsibility as Christians). There is a fine line between faith and foolishness.

Ecclesiastes 12:11, " The words of the wise are as goads, and as nails fastened by the masters of assemblies, which are given from one shepherd." I like to think of a pastor's job as similar to a game of Whack-a-mole! When Modalism (which denyies the doctrine of the Godhead, i.e., Trinity) rears its ugly head, WHACK! When open sin appears in the church, WHACK! It is the pastor's solemn duty to prevent worldliness, apathy, false teachings and wickedness from sneaking into and taking root in a church. 1st Corinthians 5:6, " Your glorying is not good. Know ye not that a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump?"

But most of all, please never forget the Scripture's warning that without love, nothing else matters. ...

>
> Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal. And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing. And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing."

The word "

charity

here means

love.

" Pastor Jack Hyles said it well earlier: "I am all for standards, but I am not for standards without love." Amen and amen! PCC lacks God's love because their leaders don't genuinely spend time walking with God. They've majored on the letter of the law (rules, rules and more rules) at PCC, but they have horribly minored on the spirit of the law, which is the love of the Holy Spirit. You read the earlier negative comments from former PCC students for yourself, how that PCC is all about rules without any love.

Love is forgiving and giving people a second chance. PCC refuses to even let me come back to their church. That is hatred at PCC! I have love and am willing to make peace with them, but they woefully lack God's love, which is why they are holding a grudge and patronizing me. I will reluctantly continue by God's grace to expose the PCC cult, by their own choosing. I pray and hope that some day PCC's leadership will repent of their heathen attitudes, and do the right thing. God is watching.

Proverbs 10:12, "

Hatred stirreth up strifes: but love covereth all sins." This wonderful inspired Scripture is simply teaching us, that as God's redeemed children we should always seek to err on the side of forgiveness, mercy, gentleness, kindness, understanding and giving people who have sinned a chance to make restitution, reconciliation and restoration. I firmly believe that everybody deserves a second chance in life.

That is what God's simple plan of salvation is all about. No matter what you have done in this life, God is offering you a complete pardon, as if you had never sinned at all. All you need to do is come to God as a guilty sinner, and by faith receive Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, believing that He was buried, but bodily resurrected from the dead three days later. This is 'THE GOSPEL,' by which all who BELIEVE IT are instantly, irrevocably and forever saved (1st Corinthians 15:1-6). Thank you for reading.

4.4.10 Satan's Bible Versions Teach It's "Difficult" And "Hard" To Be Saved (2023-04-12 15:49)

2nd Corinthians 2:17, "For we are not as many, which corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ."

Now ladies and gentlemen, with the eternal truths in mind that I just shared with you from the inspired Word of God in the King James Bible, please examine and compare what the ungodly, corrupted, Alexandrian, modern, Bible PERversions say...

> KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) - Matthew 7:13-14, "Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat: Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it."
>
> ENGLISH STANDARD VERSION (ESV) - Matthew 7:13-14, "Enter by the narrow gate. For the gate is wide and the way is easy that leads to destruction, and those who enter by it are many. For the gate is narrow and the way is hard that leads to life, and those who find it are few."
>
> NEW KING JAMES VERSION (NKJV) - Matthew 7:13-14, "Enter by the narrow gate; for wide is the gate and broad is the way that leads to destruction, and there are many who go in by it. Because narrow is the gate and difficult is the way which leads to life, and there are few who find it."
>
> EASY TO READ VERSION (ERV) - Matthew 7:13-14, "You can enter true life only through the narrow gate. The gate to hell is very wide, and there is plenty of room on the road that leads there. Many people go that way. But the gate that opens the way to true life is narrow. And the road that leads there is hard to follow. Only a few people find it."

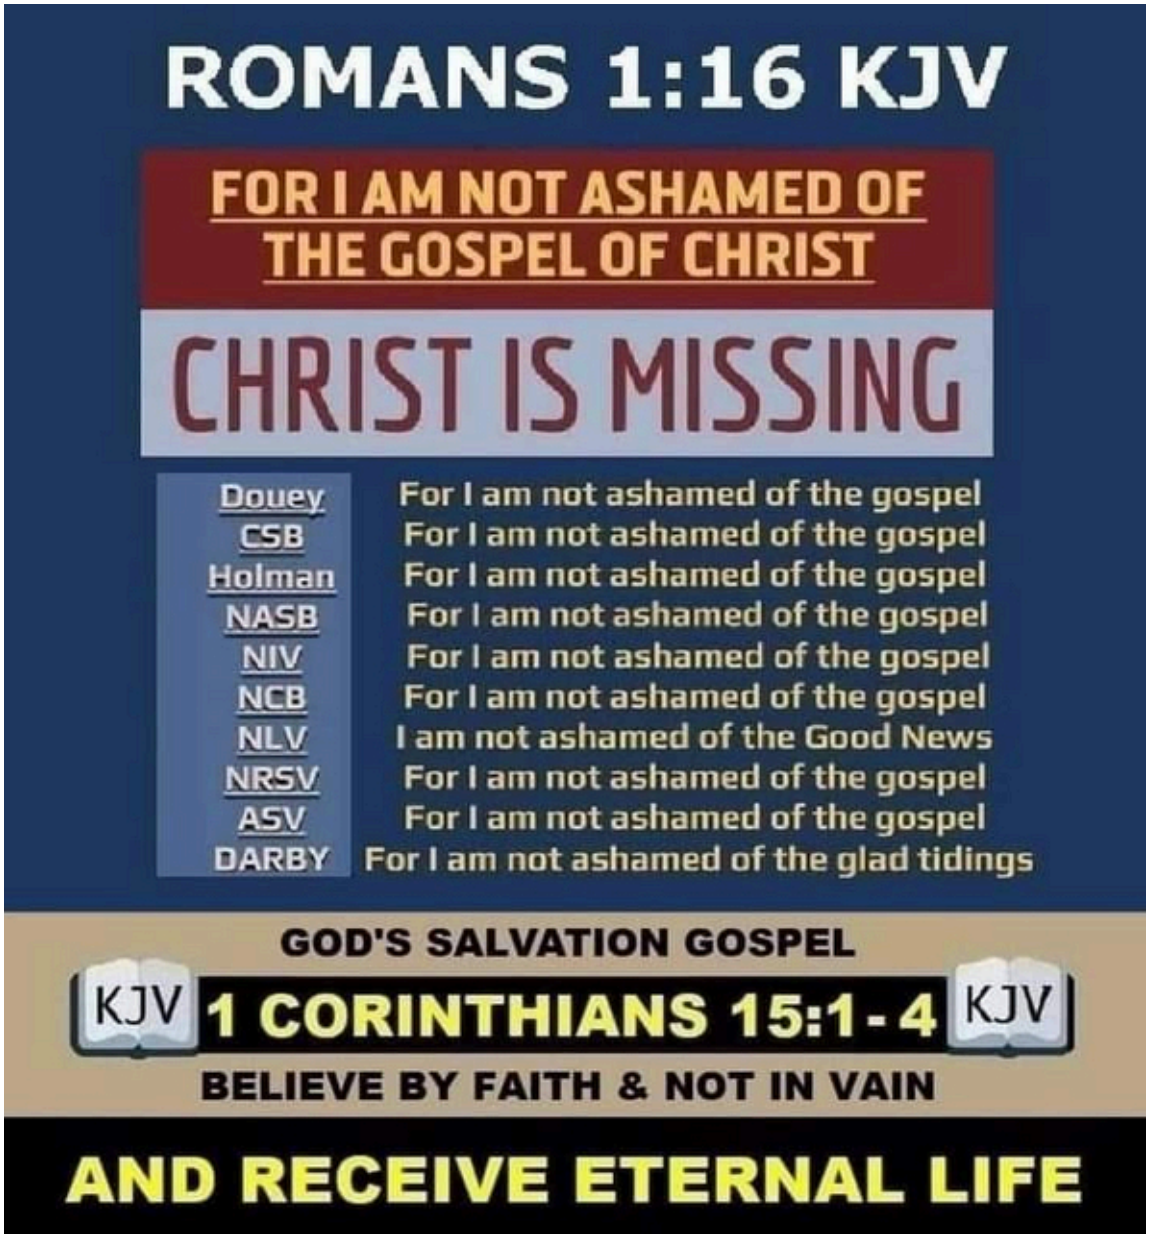
HOLMAN CHRISTIAN STANDARD BIBLE (HCSB) - Matthew 7:13-14, "Enter through the narrow gate. For the gate is wide and the road is broad that leads to destruction, and there are many who go through it. How narrow is the gate and difficult the road that leads to life, and few find it."

REVISED STANDARD VERSION (RSV) - Matthew 7:13-14, "Enter by the narrow gate; for the gate is wide and the way is easy, that leads to destruction, and those who enter by it are many. For the gate is narrow and the way is hard, that leads to life, and those who find it are few."



NEW LIVING TRANSLATION (NLT) - Matthew 7:13-14, "You can enter God's Kingdom only through the narrow gate. The highway to hell is broad, and its gate is wide for the many who choose that way. But the gateway to life is very narrow and the road is difficult, and only a few ever find it."

WHAT HERESY!!! Folks, please burn your modern [1]Alexandrian Bible revisions!!! The Devil is laughing at the wickedness of pastors and churches today. And don't kid yourself, this is NOT a matter of the churches being naïve, ignorant or lacking truth. WISDOM CRIETH FROM THE HOUSETOPS!!! The truth about the satanic modern Bible versions is all around us, but the churches are rebellious against THE TRUTH!!!

Proverbs 1:20-22, "Wisdom crieth without; she uttereth her voice in the streets: She crieth in the chief place of concourse, in the openings of the gates: in the city she uttereth her words, saying, How long, ye simple ones, will ye love simplicity? and the scorners delight in their scorning, and fools hate knowledge?" Isaiah 59:14, "And judgment is turned away backward, and justice standeth afar off: for truth is fallen in the street, and equity cannot enter." You have to deliberately not want THE TRUTH in this age of information to remain woefully ignorant.

Yet, today's new-evangelical pastors are woefully indifferent, complacent, unwilling to suffer persecution for the name of Jesus. They won't receive any rewards from the Lord when He returns for their cowardice. Their earthly salaries are the only reward which they will ever receive,. God doesn't reward unfaithful servants who intentionally stand back, while their brethren go to war alone, suffer alone, and are put outside the gate with Jesus. Where are the 7,000 who haven't bowed their knee to Baal?

We need them now in our churches! Sadly, most pastors today (which includes most independent Baptist ministers) aren't even amongst the 7,000, because they HAVE sold out and bowed their knee to Baal. Most Baptist pastors today have sold out to ecumenism—having bought into into the Devil's fake Bible versions, subscribing to Dr. John MacArthur's satanic Calvinist teachings and false gospel, teaching [2]Wrong Repentance and the ungodly heresy of [3]Lordship Salvation. Woe unto the churches!!!

Proverbs 4:23, “

Keep thy heart with all diligence*; for out of it are the issues of life.

Proverbs 23:6-7, “

Eat thou not the bread of him that hath an evil eye, neither desire thou his dainty meats:

For as he thinketh in his heart, so is he: Eat and drink, saith he to thee; but his heart is not with thee.

I am reminded of these important passages of Scripture often. My favorite Bible verse is

Proverbs 4:23, “

Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life. ” I love this Scripture passage because it admonishes us—to constantly GUARD against what we choose to see, what we choose to hear, what we choose to dwell upon in our mind and the type of friends that we choose to have —because they all affect the decisions that we make.

Prisons are full of people who choose to hang around the wrong kind of friends. When that bad friend commits a crime, and you are with them, you will go to prison too! We all know that a group of people is much more likely to do evil things that as individuals. That is because as human beings we are very impressionable, influenced by others. I refuse to have any close friends except at church. I don’t want to get close to someone who drinks booze, smokes pot, does illegal drugs, gawks in lust at women, has a greedy mindset or doesn’t like to talk together about the Holy Bible. I love talking about God’s Word, all the time. I have learned that the fastest way to get rid of unwanted acquaintances is to simply start talking about the things of God. The inspired Word of God is near and dear to my heart, because it is THE TRUTH.

One of my favorite quotes is from Dr. Jack Hyles:

> “If you want to never do anything that is terribly wicked, then you never do anything that is slightly wicked.” —Pastor Jack Hyles, ’[1]Unjust In The Least’

Amen and amen! I don’t want to do anything terribly wicked. I value my freedom. I don’t want to be locked up like an animal in a cage, behind bars in a prison. That is cruel! I am against prisons in the first place. The following sermon by Pastor Steven Anderson is one of my favorite. I love this guy, that he is objective and thinks for himself. This is such a needful sermon for Americans today...

The Criminal Injustice System
(Pastor Steven Anderson)

The Bible teaches us how to overcome sin in our life so we can live right.

2nd Corinthians 10:5-6, “Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and *bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ; And having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.” This is not brainwashing; but rather, being led by the Holy Spirit. When a sinful thought enters into our mind (which we cannot prevent), we must immediately seize that bad thought, bringing into submission to the written Word of God.

This is why it is of paramount importance that we abide in and memorize the inspired Holy Scriptures, committing many Bible verses to memory. What saith the Scripture?

Psalms 119:9-11, “Wherewithal shall a young man cleanse his way? by taking heed thereto according to thy word.

With my whole heart have I sought thee: O let me not wander from thy commandments.

Thy word have I hid in mine heart, that I might not sin against thee.

” I cherish this passage of Scripture, because it tells us how to live right.

We need to memorize Bible passages. Anybody can memorize the Bible. You simply start by reading the verse a dozen times. Then break it down in your mind into separate phrases. After familiarizing yourself with the passage for awhile, try to recite it without looking at the verses. I also like to write those Bible verses on 3 x 5 cards to carry around with me, so I can look at them when I forget. If you do this regularly, you WILL memorize Scriptures.

Psalms 11, “

Thy word have I hid in mine heart, that I might not sin against thee.

” David had it right! If we want to overcome the temptations in our life to sin, then we must saturate our thinking with the inspired Word of God. The Bible will keep us from sin, or sin will keep us from the Bible.

There are men and women rotting in American prisons today, unfortunately serving life sentences for crimes they have committed, who would give anything just to have a second chance. I have watched interviews of such men, who profess that they found the Lord while in prison, but it was too late for them, because they will never get out of prison. Oh, how sad it is that so many people don’t learn life’s lessons until they end up rotting behind bars. Dear friend, please don’t let that happen to you. Be careful what influences you allow into your life. Fear God! When the Bible speaks of “the fear of the Lord,” it literally means to be afraid of God. If you are not saved, you should be afraid (John 3:36). If you are saved, but living a life of disobedience to your Lord, you should be afraid (2nd Corinthians 5:11; Psalms 6:1).

I don’t know about you my friend, but I want to think right, live right and do right.
Ecclesiastes 12:13, “

Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man.

5648

For God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil.

” Any sensible person should fear going to prison. But a wise person fears God more. Hebrews 10:31,

“It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.”

If you are a born again child of God, then you have nothing to fear regarding going to Hell. There is NO CONDEMNATION for the redeemed saint (John 3:18; Romans 8:1).

However, there is cause to fear at the Judgment Seat of Christ for those saints who have squandered their lives in sin and selfishness, who have never shared the Gospel with anyone, who have defrauding others financially, committing adultery and shaming the name of Christ. 1st Corinthians 11:31, “ For if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged.” If we make restitution and reconciliation with those whom we have hurt here on earth, then God won’t need to deal with it in eternity. But for those believers who have hurt others, and have refused to make it right them with, God will avenge them. 1st Thessalonians 4:6, “That no man go beyond and defraud his brother in any matter: because that the Lord is the avenger of all such, as we also have forewarned you and testified.” God is bound by His promises to make all things right.

A good way to look at the future judgments of God is this...

- Judgment Seat of Christ — Civil court for all saints. We will all be judged according to our works (but as believers, not the damned). Unfaithful believers will lose rewards and suffer shame, tears and sadness. Many will be strongly rebuked and embarrassed by their sins. Those who failed to go soulwinning will not shine as other saints will, who won many souls to Jesus (Daniel 12:3). At this judgment sin won’t be judged; but rather, good and bad done in the body (2nd Corinthians 5:10). Jesus has already paid for all our sins with His blood, so there is no danger of going to Hell for any child of God.
- Great White Throne Of Judgment — Criminal court for all the unsaved. The dead will be judged according to their works and cast into the Lake of Fire forever.

What a joy to live upright to please our heavenly Father. Proverbs 28:1, “

The wicked flee when no man pursueth: but the righteous are bold as a lion.

” If we do everything that we are supposed to do, then we can keep our head high with confidence (before both God and men), knowing that no one can accuse us truthfully. But if we are guilty, then we lose our confidence and live in constant worry and fear of being caught, tried and punished. I don’t know about you dear reader, but I have the same proper attitude as Joshua, who said:

> Joshua 24:15, “
>
> And if it seem evil unto you to serve the LORD, choose you this day whom ye will serve; whether the gods which your fathers served that were on the other side of the flood, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: but as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD.

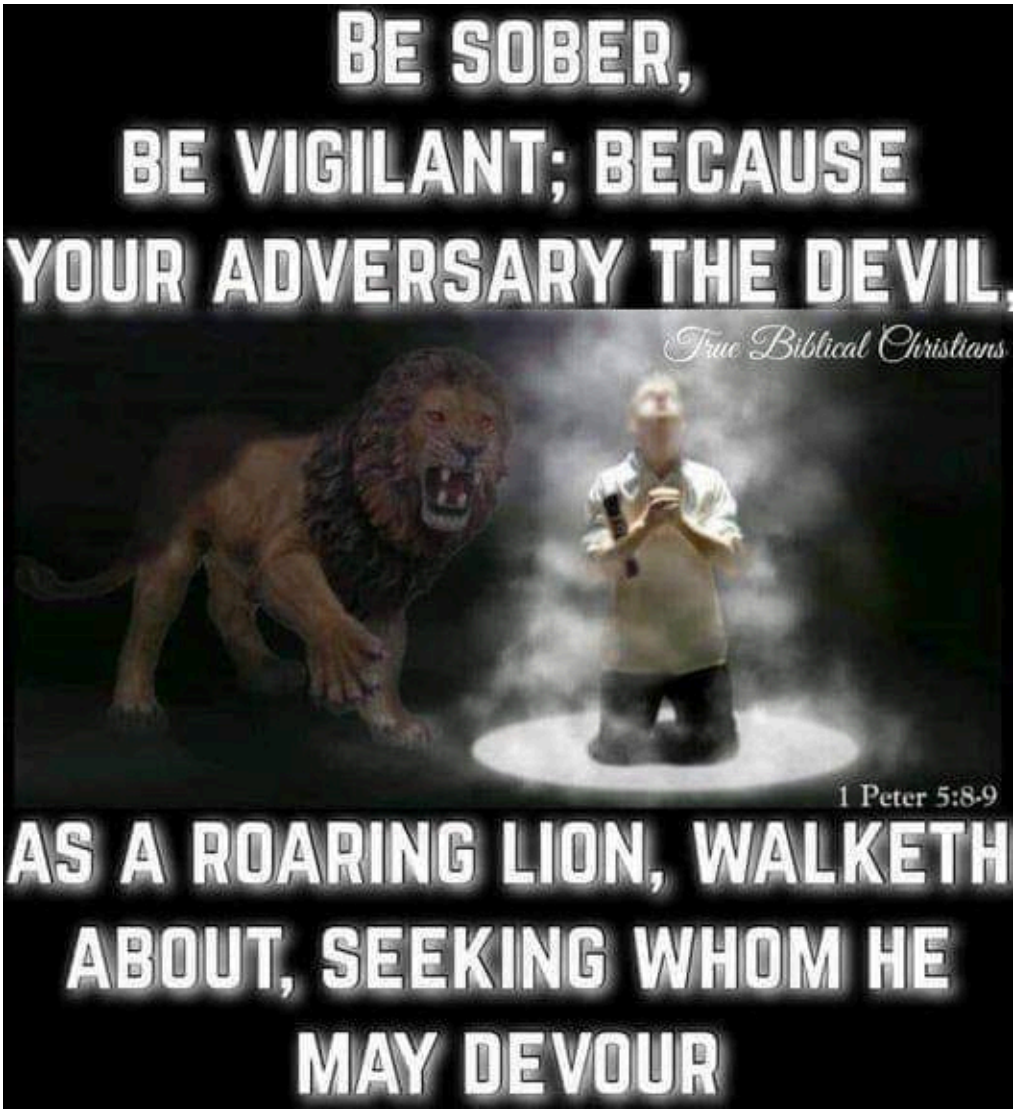
Yes, amen! As for me and my house, WE WILL SERVE THE LORD!!! Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) rightly said: “Behind every tragedy in human character is a slow process of evil, wicked thinking.” Dr. Bob (as he was called) is absolutely correct! Your character is what God knows you to be; your reputation is what men think you are. If you desire to never do anything horribly wicked, then don’t do anything that is slightly wicked.



Last year I watched several dozen episodes of Forensic Files and Cold Case Files. It is nothing short of astounding, the technology and wisdom that police detectives use to catch criminals. I was so impressed by how they work. In this day and age you have to been stupid to even try to get away with committing crime. They will catch you! Something that I noticed, because I was paying attention for it, is that nearly every time someone committed a big crime (murder, rape, bank robbery, et cetera), they were already committing lesser evils (lying, drunkenness, going to strip clubs, slandering, stealing, lust, et cetera).

Dr. Jack Hyles is so right:

> “If you want to never do anything that is terribly wicked, then you never do anything that is slightly wicked.” —Pastor Jack Hyles, ’[2]Unjust In The Least’

We must all answer to God someday in eternity, whether saved or unsaved. NO ONE can escape God’s judgment. Hebrews 4:13, “Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do.” Some thief stole my new $75 propane bottle from my barbeque. The thief also stole all my solar-powered lights on my front lawn. That thief cost me $150. That individual will be judged by God. He, she or they will answer to God. The Bible warns and promises that NO ONE ever gets away with doing evil. The eyes of the Lord are upon the evil and the good. So if you have been hurt or defrauded by someone (known or unknown), God knows exactly who they are and what they have done (whether it be good or evil). God will judge everyone!

With these helpful truths in mind, by God’s grace, may we all think right, live right and do right.

4.4.12 People Confused About The Gospel Are Not Saved (2023-04-16 10:00)

Acts 15:1-5, "And certain men which came down from Judaea taught the brethren, and said, Except ye be circumcised after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved. When therefore Paul and Barnabas had no small dissension and disputation with them, they determined that Paul and Barnabas, and certain other of them, should go up to Jerusalem unto the apostles and elders about this question. And being brought on their way by the church, they passed through Phenice and Samaria, declaring the conversion of the Gentiles: and they caused great joy unto all the brethren. And when they were come to Jerusalem, they were received of the church, and of the apostles and elders, and they declared all things that God had done with them. But there rose up certain of the sect of the Pharisees which believed, saying, That it was needful to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the law of Moses*.”

I keep hearing ignorant wannabe theologians on YouTube, and unlearned preachers, say that many people are saved even though they are confused and partly wrong on the Gospel.

Dear reader, how can that be? Let me ask you a question: How wrong can a person be concerning the Gospel and still be saved? I have heard preachers claim that some people who are caught between grace and works are saved. What saith the Scripture? Romans 11:6, “And if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work.” There is no middle ground dear reader. You are either saved entirely 100 % by grace, or else it is partially by grace plus 10 % your own works, but it cannot be both.

Also, please take a look at:

> Romans 4:2-5, “For if Abraham were justified by works, he hath whereof to glory; but not before God. For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness. Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt. But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.”

God doesn’t owe you or me anything except eternal damnation in the fires of Hell. This passage of Scripture puts to rest the nonsense that people in the Old Testament were saved by works, or faith plus works. No they were not! As we just read in Romans 4:4, “

Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt

.” If anyone at any time in human history has, is or ever will be saved by faith plus works, then salvation was by DEBT, and not GRACE! The Bible very plainly teaches that salvation is solely by God’s grace. Ephesians 2:8-9, “For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast.”

It astonishes me, it really does! The Bible speaks so plainly that salvation is by God’s grace alone, without works. Yet, millions of incompetent clergy today in the world preach something drastically different than what the inspired King James Bible teaches. Nowhere in the Word of God are we taught to “repent of your sins” or “turn from your sins” to be saved, yet dishonest preachers add those requirements to God’s simple plan of salvation, perverting it!

I contend dear reader, based upon the authority of God’s inspired Word, that no one is saved who adds the slightest bit of works to the Gospel. I mean not before, during or after being saved. There are all sorts of heresies being taught today in churches and Bible colleges regarding how to get to Heaven.

Partial Faith In Christ Plus Something Else Equals Damnation

As an example: When I attended the corrupt neo-evangelical Harvest Baptist Church on Guam in 2013-2014. The church had monthly ’Watchcare Meetings’ in staff member’s homes. At these quaint meetings we would sing, fellowship, eat food and hear devotions from the staff member. I really enjoyed those meetings and I miss them. At one meeting I witnessed to a staff member of Harvest’s Christian Academy. His name is Jason, one of the school’s teachers. I asked him if he believes that you can simply admit to God that you’re a sinner and believe the Gospel to be saved. I was horrified by his answer. He said: “

Uh, I think a little more is required than that.

” I knew immediately that he was still unsaved, a child of the Devil hellbound in his sins without Christ. Jason has been woefully deceived by Marty Herron and the cult at Bob Jones University (BJU), who are the devil’s servants!

I asked Jason what he believed a lost sinner must do to be saved. He said that a person must repent to turn away from their sinful behavior. He said that a person must make Jesus their “Lord,” following Christ in obedience no matter what the cost. I was sad for him, knowing that the Devil has conned him into living the Christian life instead of being born again.

Dear reader, Jesus said in John 3:3b, “YE MUST BE BORN AGAIN.” No one will ever enter through Heaven’s pearly gates, nor walk upon the heavenly streets of gold who adds lordship to grace, and turning away from sins to faith (behavior modification). Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do. Good works are not the payment for sin, the payment for sin is death. Salvation is not a reward for the righteous, it is a gift for the guilty. Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ’s best put to your account through receiving Him by faith. Turning away from sinful ways would be a work. Faith puts all of the merit where it belongs, on the object of our faith, Jesus and His work. The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU.

May I remind you friend of Matthew 7:21-23,

Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.

Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works?

And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity.

” This is a very disturbing passage of Scripture, because it exposes hundreds of millions of false converts today throughout the world.

Satan’s greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born again, which is exactly what happened to these unfortunate false prophets in Matthew 7:21-23. They boasted to Christ that they had prophesied (preached) in His very name, but Jesus denied even knowing them. They were not The Great Shepherd’s sheep. John 10:27-28, “My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me: And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand. ” I love that! Jesus KNOWS His sheep. That is, He knows the children of God, those who have had their sins washed away by the precious blood of the Lamb (1st Peter 1:18-19).

Jesus does not know Marty Herron, Steve Pettit, Sam Horn, John MacArthur, Chuck Phelps and other infidels in the Bob Jones University (BJU) cult. BJU is a cult because they use, sell and promote the Devil’s corrupt Bible manuscripts translated by Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort. Pastor Peter S. Ruckman (1921-2016) does an excellent job exposing the BJU cult in this work titled: ’[1]The Alexandrian Cult Series.’ BJU is also a cult because they preach another gospel called ’[2]Lordship Salvation.’ They do not preach a free grace Gospel, which is by faith alone without works. Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) rightly [3]exposes Lordship Salvation as a perversion of God’s grace. Pastor Jack Hyles[4] exposes the Devil’s damnable lie of Lordship Salvation.

Acts 15:5, “But there rose up certain of the sect of the Pharisees which believed, saying, That it was needful to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the law of Moses." In this passage we read about some Pharisees who were believers. They are saved. But the Bible says the Pharisees confused the Gentiles by requiring them to keep the law of Moses, not to be saved (because they couldn't have been saved by works); but rather, because they are saved.

Even today in 2023, we hear corrupt preachers errantly teaching people that you must keep the law if you are saved. No, you do not! You SHOULD keep the law (Romans 3:31), obeying God's commandments, but if you don't, then grace will much more abound (Romans 5:20, 6:1). The more that we sin as saints, the more God's grace abounds, so that no child of God can ever lose salvation. We may lose our happiness and sweet fellowship with the Lord because of sin, but we can never lose what wasn't ours to give in the first place. If we couldn't be saved by good works, then we certainly cannot be lost by bad works. Salvation is of the Lord (Jonah 2:9).

Beware Of The Bob Jones University Cult

Bob Jones University falsely teaches that faith is not enough to be saved. Their Statement of Faith errantly requires you to "

[5]repent and turn away from your sins

" to be saved. That is NOT the Gospel, it is a manmade plan of damnation. Listen friend, the most dangerous thing that you will ever do is to trust a preacher! Some people asked Jesus what 'WORKS' they must do to be saved. Jesus simply told them to 'BELIEVE ON HIM.' John 6:28-29, " Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent. " There is the simplicity of salvation, which is the Gospel.

If confused churchgoers who think that you must forsake a lifestyle of sinning, or be willing to forsake a lifestyle of sinning, to get to heaven are really saved, then what about water baptism? Are Churches of Christ cult members saved, who believe that you cannot go to Heaven without being dunked in a baptistery? No, they are not saved. No one is saved who has the ungodly mindset that faith in the 'Good News' (Gospel) of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen is insufficient to get to Heaven. JESUS PAID IT ALL!!!

Hebrews 4:10-11, "For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his. Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief." I cherish this passage of Scripture. The Old Testament Sabbath Day was symbolic of the coming Messiah, in whom all who rest are saved. Just as God rested from His labors on the seventh day, so also are we saved by ceasing from our works and wholly resting in Jesus' name. It is that simple to go to Heaven. To be saved, you simply need to BELIEVE that Jesus did it all for you.

If you would like to go to Heaven...

> Here is the gospel: God says that we are sinners and that no amount of good works or behavioral changes on our part could ever make us holy enough to enter heaven. God sent His Son to pay for all of our sins. Jesus paid for our crimes by dying on the cross for us all. His dead body was buried in a grave. On the third day, Jesus arose from the dead. The instant you believe this, He knows it and He saves you. "Verily, verily, I say unto you, he that believeth on Me hath everlasting life"(John 6:47). The free gift is based solely upon your trust in what Jesus did for you and has nothing at all to do with what you do for Him. “For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast” (Ephesians 2:8-9). —Michael P. Bowen, ’[6]I Never Knew You,’ p. xii

Please don’t let some sincere but misled lying preacher take you with him to the Lake of Fire. I thank God for doctrinally sound preachers like Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001)...

4.4.13 Baptists Ought Not Divide Over The Rapture (2023-04-16 20:15)

Galatians 5:13-15,

For, brethren, ye have been called unto liberty; only use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but by love serve one another.

For all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this; Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. But if ye bite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed one of another.

One of my favorite sermons by Pastor Anderson is titled: "[1]DEAL BREAKERS." In this sermon he explains that as Baptists we ought not divide over minor doctrines, such as the timing of the Rapture. I humbly agree. The two big deal breakers are the inspiration of the King James Bible, and a free grace Gospel. We ought to separate from those pastors and churches who preach Lordship Salvation and other perversions of the Gospel, and also separate from those who use, sell and promote the Devil’s corrupt Bible revisions today. Using corrupt Bibles will adversely lead to concluding corrupt doctrines!

Granted, some believers will argue that a Pretribulation Rapture is not a minor doctrine, but in my humble opinion it is. A major Bible doctrine is a belief that affects salvation. Such major (fundamental) doctrines of the Christian faith include: Jesus’ virgin birth, His sinless life, His death on the cross and subsequent burial, Christ’s bodily resurrection, His substitutional (vicarious) death on the cross in our place, the Godhead (Trinity), the necessity of Jesus’ shed blood and application to the heavenly Mercy Seat, et cetera. I am 100 % settled on a Pretribulation Rapture. It is biblical.

Respectfully, Pastor Steven Anderson goes as far as to teach that the Rapture will happen "75 DAYS" after the prophetic event of the Abomination of Desolation (AOD - Matthew 24:15).

That is date setting! Jesus said in Mark 13:35-37 that no one, not even the angels, know the TIME of His return.

The Abomination of Desolation is the chaotic event when the Antichrist stands in the Jerusalem temple and claims to be God. The False Prophet will erect a talking image of the Beast (possibly a hologram), demanding that all humanity worship the image or be murdered. The daily sacrifices in the temple will cease. The peace agreement between the Jews and Arabs will be dissolved. All temple worship will be discontinued.

Daniel 9:27 and 12:11-13 teach that from the "midst" (middle) of Daniel’s 70th week of prophecy until the end will be 1,290 days (3 1/2 years). So logically there must also be 3 1/2 years before the AOD. This is where we get the 7-year Tribulation from, which Pastor Anderson denies. Since we know that there will be 1,290 days between the AOD and Christ’s Second Coming, if the Rapture happened 75 days after the AOD, then we would know exactly the time of Christ’s Second Coming, which would be 1,290 days minus 75, or 1,215 days.

But this throws a monkey wrench into Pastor Anderson’s theology, because He errantly teaches that the Rapture and Christ’s Second Coming are the SAME event. So how can the Rapture happen 75 days after the AOD, and yet there still be another 1,215 days before Jesus’ Second Coming? Kindly said, the truths I have just shared with you blows holes through Pastor Anderson’s teaching on Bible prophecy.

Only a Pretribulation Rapture makes sense and agrees with Bible prophecy. Only a Pretribulation Rapture allows for Christ’s imminent unannounced return. Pastor Anderson, in his "After The Tribulation" film, says: "Jesus couldn’t possibly return at any time." I totally disagree, and so does the Holy Bible. Jesus told us in Mark 13:37 to "watch" for His return. Why would the Lord command us to "watch," if He couldn’t return at any time? That wouldn’t make any sense at all.

Furthermore, we read in Titus 2:13, "Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ;" If Pastor Anderson is correct in his Pre-wrath Rapture theory, then we should be looking for the Man of Sin, the Antichrist (because the Antichrist must appear first before the Rapture can happen). That contradicts the plain teaching of the Scriptures that we should be looking for the glorious appearing of Christ.

Having said all that, I love and support Pastor Anderson's aggressive soulwinning ministry, which we so desperately need nowadays. In my humble opinion, Pastor Anderson is the Dr. Jack Hyles of our generation. Brother Hyles used to say: "I'd rather see a guy with wild fire than no fire." Yes, Pastor Anderson has wild fire, and I don't agree with some of his methods or teachings, but he is on the Lord's side. The church on its worst day is better than the world on its best day!

I thank God for the New IFB movement for their emphasis on soulwinning (Matthew 28:19-20), aggressive preaching against sin (Isaiah 58:1), and that they faithfully contend for the Christian faith once delivered unto the saints (Jude 1:3). I once heard Johnny Pope, who was a staff member at Hyles-Anderson College when I was a student (1985-1993), say in chapel one day: "We need a whole new breed of preachers in the next generation." By God's grace, Pastor Anderson and his proteges are that new breed of preachers, for which I am grateful to God.

The Devil always goes after the best Christians, so I pray for Brother Anderson, his family and church regularly, for God to protect them from evil. Google (who acquired YouTube in 2006) has horribly censored New IFB preachers (and old IFB as well), costing the loss of billions of sermon video views. Pastor Anderson alone lost over 7,000 sermons that YouTube deleted. Yet this transgendered ungodly filth, [2]like Rosie O'Kelly and thousands more like him are welcomed and allowed by YouTube to promote their Satanic degenerate filth to ruin lives. But a godly preacher [3]who preaches the truth of God's Word is banned from social media. Every moment of every day, all across America, our Bill of Rights is being violated by big tech companies.

Sadly, the corrupt U.S. government hides behind the courts, letting the courts do the dirty work of banning free speech. A Texas judge ruled a few years ago that since Google/ YouTube is a private company, they can censor whatever they want. That is so wrong when you consider that over 92 % of all web searches are filtered through Google. This is effectively exactly what Communist China is doing, censoring their citizens. Tragically, in 2015 my Jesus-is-Savior.com website received 15,000,000 total visitors, but I'll be fortunate to have 600,000 total web visitors for 2023. This is what Google has done, censoring my ministry because I TELL THE TRUTH. Thankfully God sees everything and He ultimately is in control of my ministry, which is really Jesus' ministry since I do it all for Him (John 15:1-7).

God will NOT bless America! I stopped singing the hypocritical song: "God Bless America" over 15 years ago. No Sir, I don't want God to bless this filthy perverse, dishonest, adulterous and untoward generation. We are provoking God's wrath and judgment upon our wicked nation, it is just a matter of time (read Revelation chapter 18, which I believe describes the future total destruction of the United States). God damn America!

I think it is sad that so many Baptist needlessly fight and cannot get along. We need to fight against neo-evangelicals today with their damnable Lordship Salvation, and their plethora of perverted Devil's bibles. However, disowning each other over our different beliefs about the Rapture shouldn't come at the expense of working together to win souls to Christ. I don't like that the New Independent Fundamental Baptist (New IFB) movement denies a pretribulation Rapture, but I'm not going to reject their entire movement of soulwinning churches because of that. I am from the Old IFB movement, I admit; but I am a big supporter of the New IFB too.

The New IFB has a hunger for aggressive soulwinning that the Old IFB lacks, sad to say.

Also, the New IFB preaches on many different topics that the Old IFB won't touch with a 10-foot pole; such as, the New World Order, 911 being an Inside Job, the fraud of the Federal Reserve, the evils of Zionism, America's dysfunctional criminal injustice system, corruption in the U.S. federal government, the false doctrine of Dispensationalism, et cetera). I love that New IFB preachers spare not and cover all the bases.

Even though we disagree on several minor doctrines and methods, we are all on the same team, serving the same Creator, working to win lost sinners to Jesus Christ. We need each other. I am saddened to see Old IFB pastors hating, attacking and working against New IFB pastors. Not me, I'm helping both the Old and New IFB, because were all in the same boat. Our enemies are neo-evangelical Baptists, with their damnable lie of Lordship Salvation, and their counterfeit Bible revisions.

I'm talking about the corrupt neo-evangelical cult at Bob Jones University. I am talking about infidel Paul Washer and his Calvinist college at Southwestern Baptist University. I'm talking about Moody Bible Institute, who today boasts of leaning toward Calvinism, and whose Moody Publishers company prints all of Dr. John MacArthur's demonic Calvinism garbage. Neo-evangelicals are destroying churches all across America! I am talking about the demonic Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary in Ankeny, Iowa. These damnable institutions are all preaching another gospel of partial faith in Christ plus something more (like forsaking a lifestyle of sinning, inviting Christ into your life, making Jesus the 'Lord' of your life). The only way to Heaven is to put your trust wholly in the 'Good News' of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and bodily risen the third day. This is "the Gospel" (1st Corinthians 15:1-6).

Here is Pastor Anderson himself explaining the differences between the Old IFB and New IFB...

Old And New Independent Fundamental Baptist Differences
(New vs. Old IFB)

I am a big fan of the [4]Faithful Word Baptist Church in Tempe, Arizona. Praise God for their soulwinning church! So what if they think Jesus will come back at a later time than I do, the Lord is working through them to get tens of thousands of lost sinners saved! I want to be a helpful part of their ministry—by promoting their soulwinning ministry, promoting their sermons, encouraging their followers who contact me, and praying for them.

1st Corinthians 3:9,

“For we are labourers together with God: ye are God’s husbandry, ye are God’s building.

4.4.14 Did Elijah Going To Heaven Prove There Is No Paradise? (2023-04-18 10:06)

Acts 2:27, 31-32, " Because thou wilt not leave my soul in hell, neither wilt thou suffer thine Holy One to see corruption.... He seeing this before spake of the resurrection of Christ, that his soul was not left in hell, neither his flesh did see corruption. This Jesus hath God raised up, whereof we all are witnesses. A biblical event many cite to support belief that the righteous go to heaven when they die involves the prophet Elijah."

There is an ongoing battle between the New IFB against the Old IFB. By "IFB," I mean "independent fundamental Baptist" churches. Let me say that I am strongly against uplifting the IFB movement over the Old IFB churches. There is only local New Testament churches. The New IFB was started by Pastor Steven Anderson in 2006, when he founded the Faithful Word Baptist Church. Since then he has ordained dozens of ministers, who are today part of the New IFB.

Unfortunately, Pastor Anderson has some bugs in his theology (e.g., denying a Pretribulation Rapture, errantly teaching that homosexuals cannot be saved, errantly teaching that God and saints should hate homosexuals, and errantly teaching that Jesus went to burn in Hell for 3 days when He died on the cross). It is this last false doctrine about Jesus burning in Hell which promoted me to write this blog. Anybody who preaches that Jesus burned in Hell is woefully ignorant of the inspired Holy Bible.

A good rule to follow when interpreting the Bible is to never use an obscure passage to contradict a clear one.

Having said that, a member of the New IFB recently wanted to debate and argue with me recently, which I simply reject and refuse to do. I won't argue with people. He insisted that Pastor Anderson is accurate in saying that Jesus burned in Hell. In this blog I will prove that Jesus did NOT burn in Hell. The dear Savior plainly told the repentant thief on the cross that they would be together in 'Paradise' that very day. Luke 23:43, "

And Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, To day shalt thou be with me in paradise." So unless you think burning in Hell is Paradise, then you must reject Pastor Anderson's heresy. I say that respectfully, because I love and respect Pastor Anderson for his hard work, aggressive soulwinning labors and faithfulness to keep going for the Lord. Brother Anderson is dear to my heart.

All of our lives we have been taught in churches and Bible colleges that the prophet Elijah was caught up into Heaven in a whirlwind of fire. But as I will show you, the truth is that Elijah was only caught up into the lower heaven, into the clouds, and did not go to Heaven.

Most of the following information [1]I found at the 'Bible Answers' website. Since they use the New International Version (NIV), I rewrote the article in my own words, using the inspired King James Bible, but I want to give due credit for the information...

Elijah was a prophet of God in the ninth century BC. The inspired Holy Bible teaches that "Elijah went up by a whirlwind into heaven" (2nd Kings 2:11). But does this contradict the testimony of Jesus, who 1,000 years later said that "no man hath ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man which is in heaven." (John 3:13). So we have a biblical discrepancy here.

We also have have a discrepancy between Acts 2:27 and 2nd Kings 2:11. Acts 2:27 says that Jesus went to Hell (this evidences that there was a literal place called Paradise in the Old Testament. Hell (Greek: Hades) was compartmentalized. We see evidence for this truth in Luke 16:19-31, in the true story of the rich man and Lazarus, who both died and went to Hell. The rick man went to the Torment side of Hades, but Lazarus went to the Paradise side of Hades, and there was a Great Gulf fixed between them the Bible says.

Again, a good rule to follow when interpreting the Bible is to never use an obscure passage to contradict a clear one. Luke 23:43 is clear that Jesus DIDN'T burn in Hell, He went to Paradise. It is unfortunate that Pastor Anderson does not rightly divide the Word of Truth in this matter. Clearly, Paradise is not burning in Hell.

So, how can we explain this two seeming biblical discrepancies? The following Bible truth will resolve both of these seeming contradictions.

There are THREE different meanings of heaven

in the Bible:

1. CELSTIAL HEAVEN - God's dwelling place — the place of His throne, and where the resurrected Christ is today (Colossians 3:1), interceding for the saints (Romans 8:24). Jesus Christ is our High Priest (Hebrews 4:14). The Bible teaches in Hebrews 8:1-2, "Now of the things which we have spoken this is the sum: We have such an high priest, who is set on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens; A minister of the sanctuary, and of the true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, and not man." Heaven is specifically called God's dwelling place ("thy holy habitation," Deuteronomy 26:15).

2. THE UNIVERSE - Another heaven discussed in the Bible is what we call "outer space." It is the domain of the moon, planets, asteroids, black holes, galaxies, sun and stars. David spoke of these wonders when he pondered God's awesome creative handiwork in Psalms 8:3-4,

   "When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained;

   What is man, that thou art mindful of him? and the son of man, that thou visitest him?" Multiple Scripture passages mention "the stars of heaven" (Genesis 26:4b; Deuteronomy 1:10; 28:62; Isaiah 13:10).

3. EARTH'S ATMOSHPHERE - There is another "heaven" that is the earth's atmosphere which surrounds our planet, consisting of oxygen, nitrogen and other trace gases. This heaven — the earth's atmosphere — is mentioned in such passages as Genesis 7:11b-12 , which describes the great flood of Noah's day,

   " the windows of heaven were opened. And the rain was upon the earth forty days and forty nights. " The Bible also speaks of " the birds of heaven, " those that fly overhead (Job 35:11; Jeremiah 16:4).

To determine which heaven is meant in a Bible passage, we must carefully consider the context of the passage. It was the earth's atmosphere into which Elijah was taken up in a whirlwind of fire. 2nd Kings 2:11, " And it came to pass, as they still went on, and talked, that, behold, there appeared a chariot of fire, and horses of fire, and parted them both asunder; and Elijah went up by a whirlwind into heaven. " Elijah was now gone.

Most theologians and other readers ass-u-me that Elijah was taken up to the Heaven where God lives. But, this was not the case. The sons of the prophets knew otherwise. They knew the whirlwind had simply removed Elijah to another location on earth. They exclaimed to Elisha: 2nd Kings 2:16, " And they said unto him, Behold now, there be with thy servants fifty strong men; let them go, we pray thee, and seek thy master: lest peradventure the Spirit of the LORD hath taken him up, and cast him upon some mountain, or into some valley. And he said, Ye shall not send." The disciples of Elijah were concerned for his safety, so they sent out a party of fifty men to search for the missing prophet. The fifty men searched for three days, but did not find him. 2nd Kings 2:17, "

And when they urged him till he was ashamed, he said, Send. They sent therefore fifty men; and they sought three days, but found him not.

The Bible records that Elijah wrote a letter to Jehoram, the king of Judah, several years after he was removed in the whirlwind. 2nd Chronicles 21:9, 12, "Then Jehoram went forth with his princes, and all his chariots with him: and he rose up by night, and smote the Edomites which compassed him in, and the captains of the chariots. ...And there came a writing to him from Elijah the prophet, saying, Thus saith the LORD God of David thy father, Because thou hast not walked in the ways of Jehoshaphat thy father, nor in the ways of Asa king of Judah,"

How can this be? How did Elijah send a writing to Jehoram when he had previously been taken up in heaven? It seems that he was still alive on earth.

There are a few speculative suggestions how this could happen. Some Bible students think that Elijah penned the writing before he was taken up to Heaven and gave it to Elisha to deliver. I do not accept this theory

. Others think that the spirit of Elijah the prophet penned the writing through Elisha to Jehoram. I also reject this theory. I humbly think that Elijah was simply taken up by God and moved to a different location, so that Elisha could take the mantle and carry on.

Notice the sequence of events recorded for us in the Bible. Elijah's last recorded and dated act occurred during the reign of the Israelite king Ahaziah when Elijah told the king he would die for his sins (2nd Kings 1:3-4, 17). Ahaziah's reign lasted only about a year (850 BC).

Elijah's removal and replacement by Elisha is then recorded in the next chapter, 2nd Kings chapter 2. The biblical story continues with incidents from Elisha's life, including an encounter with King Jehoshaphat of Judah (2nd Kings 3:11-14). Several years later, Jehoram, the son of King Jehoshaphat, succeeded his father as king of Judah (845 BC - 2nd Kings 8:16).

Jehoram was a wicked king, leading the nation of Judah into idolatry and rebellion against God. A few years later, the prophet Elijah penned a writing to Jehoram, warning him of the dire consequences coming because of his sins. This writing from Elijah is recorded in 2nd Chronicles 21:12-15. So it appears that Elijah was NOT taken up into Heaven to be with God, but simply moved elsewhere on earth. This resolves both discrepancies. Jesus was the first person to asecend

This letter proves the prophet was still alive and on earth some years after he was removed by the whirlwind and replaced by Elisha. God had chosen Elisha to succeed Elijah as His prophet, so He bodily removed Elijah to another place, where he continued to live for at least several more years — as his letter to Jehoram demonstrates.

The Bible tells us nothing more about Elijah after he wrote the letter. But he eventually died, since Hebrews 9:27 tells us "it is appointed for men to die once." Elijah, like the other prophets and righteous men of the Old Testament, died in faith, not having received the eternal life God had promised (Hebrews 11:39).

As these passages show, a careful reading of the Scriptures shows that Elijah's miraculous removal in a fiery chariot involved transporting him to another location in the area, not to eternal life in heaven.

What about Enoch? Wasn't he caught up into Heaven to be with the Lord?

Was Enoch Taken to Heaven?

Some people believe Genesis 5:24 and Hebrews 11:5 declare that God took Enoch to heaven. But is that what these verses say?

Some people believe Genesis 5:24 and Hebrews 11:5 declare that God took Enoch to heaven. But is that what these verses say?

Genesis 5:24 tells us that "Enoch walked with God; and he was not, for God took him." Hebrews 11:5 adds: "By faith Enoch was taken away so that he did not see death, 'and was not found, because God had taken him'; for before he was taken he had this testimony, that he pleased God."

Some erroneously jump to the conclusion that Enoch was taken up into heaven, but notice the Bible nowhere says this. It simply says that God "took him." It does not specify where he was taken.

Jesus Christ later states in the Gospel of John that "Scripture cannot be broken" (John 10:35). One of the points He makes is that one passage of the Bible cannot contradict another passage.

This same Gospel of John reveals a startling fact very pertinent to this matter: "No one has ascended to heaven but He who came down from heaven, that is, the Son of Man who is in heaven" (John 3:13).

Clearly, Jesus Christ was the only human being who had ascended into heaven. The phrase "who is in heaven" lets us know that this was written by the apostle John after Christ's return to heaven. So even as late as this statement, no human being—and that includes Enoch—had ascended into heaven.

We later read about Enoch's fate in Hebrews 11:5: "By faith Enoch was taken away so that he did not see death, 'and was not found, because God had taken him'; for before he was taken he had this testimony, that he pleased God." The word rendered "taken" can also mean "transferred elsewhere." And the New American Standard Bible says this was done "so that he would not see death"—a better translation than "did not," as we know from the same chapter of Hebrews that he died.

Notice in verse 13 the summary given of all of the men and women of faith listed here, including Enoch: "These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off were assured of them, embraced them and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth" (Hebrews 11:13). So Enoch definitely died as well as all the rest.

How, then, can it be that Enoch was transferred elsewhere so he wouldn't see death? God doesn't give us all the details of what happened, but a few scenarios have been proposed that do not conflict with the fact that Enoch died as the Bible says.

It may be that God transported Enoch elsewhere to keep him from being killed at a certain time—perhaps protecting him from martyrdom at the hands of angry persecutors who didn't like his announcement of coming divine judgment (see Jude 14-16). God likewise supernaturally transported Elijah and Philip to other places on earth (see 2 Kings 2:11; Acts 8:39).

On the other hand, we should observe that Enoch died young for his time—at age 365 while those before and after him lived into their 800s and 900s. Because of this, some speculate that God "took him" from life prematurely so that he would not have to live out his remaining centuries in a miserable world (compare Isaiah 57:1-2). His next moment of consciousness will be the resurrection. In this case, "so that he would not see death" would refer to his not having to experience the process of dying—his life ending instantly.

Still others, putting the likelihood of Enoch experiencing persecution together with his early death, have concluded that Enoch was murdered—martyred for his preaching. Enoch being taken and not found would then refer to God removing his body and burying it—as happened with Moses (Deuteronomy 34:5-6).

In this case, Enoch being taken or transferred so that he would not see death is taken as separate matter—that of him being spiritually converted, transferred from the world's ways to God's way of living, so that he would not see ultimate death in the lake of fire (compare Colossians 1:13; John 8:51).

Again, we don't have enough details to know exactly what is intended. But we do know that Enoch did not skip death and go to heaven. He died, and no human being has ascended to heaven except Jesus Christ.

SOURCE: [2]Was Enoch Taken To Heaven?

Wow! That's a lot of information to process. As you can see dear reader, there is a lot of speculation, but let me state the FACTS which cannot be argued:

1. Jesus did go to Hell (Acts 2:27-32).
2. Jesus did not burn in Hell for 3 days, because He went to Paradise (Luke 23:43).
3. Lazarus in Luke 16:19-31 did not go to Heaven when he died.

4. Jesus was in the heart of the earth for 3 days and 3 nights (Matthew 12:40).

Therefore, from these FACTS we can logically deduce that Hell is in the heart of the earth. We can also deduce from the FACTS that there must be a place of Paradise in the heart of the earth. Since Acts 2:27-32 teaches that Jesus went to Hell, we can deduce that Paradise must be in Hell. Thus, we can conclude that Hell must be compartmentalized between the places of Torment on one side, and Paradise (or Abraham's Bosom - Luke 16:22) on the other side, with a great gulf fixed between (Luke 16:26).

Although Bible students can debate and argue until the cows come home, the FACTS that I have just given you cannot be debated. Everyone has a right to their own opinion, but no one has a right to their own facts.

4.4.15 Jesus Did Not Burn In Hell (2023-04-18 10:57)

Luke 23:42-43, "And he said unto Jesus, Lord, remember me when thou comest into thy kingdom. And Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, To day shalt thou be with me in paradise."

Pastor Jack Hyles said years ago that, "[1]Heresy is creeping into our fundamental churches by the hour!" He was absolutely correct! I am disturbed when I learn of Baptist pastors who teach that backslidden Christians will suffer temporarily in the Lake of Fire. And it disturbs me when I hear pastors teaching that our Lord Jesus died and went to burn in the fires of Hell, which goes against the plain statement of Christ on the cross in Luke 23:43, "To day shalt thou be with me in paradise."

Could our Lord have been referring to Heaven? No! Here's why—Jesus exclaimed in Acts 2:27, "Because thou wilt not leave my soul in hell, neither wilt thou suffer thine Holy One to see corruption." Matthew 12:40, "For as Jonas was three days and three nights in the whale's belly; so shall the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth." We have just read the incontrovertible, uncontestable and plain truth from the inspired Word of God that Jesus DID NOT go to Heaven after drying on the cross. So where did Jesus go during the three days and three nights after He died? By cross-referencing the three preceding passages of Scripture, the diligent Bible student who rightly divides the Word of Truth can only conclude that there must have been a literal place called "Paradise."

The Holy Bible says that Jesus went to Hell, which is the Greek word Hades. We learn from the true story in Luke 16:19-31, of the rich man and Lazarus, that Hell (Hades) is compartmentalized. On one side there is the place of TORMENT, and on the other side there is the place of PARADISE, and a "GREAT GULF" fixed between them the Bibles says in Luke 16:26, "And beside all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed: so that they which would pass from hence to you cannot; neither can they pass to us, that would come from thence." Some preachers mock at the expression, "Abraham's Bosom," but this is what God Himself called the place of Paradise in Luke 16:22-23, "And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels into Abraham's bosom: the rich man also died, and was buried; And in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom."

Thus, "Abraham's Bosom" is a term of endearment, not a literal place. Galatians 3:29, "And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise." All of God's promises to Israel in the Old Testament apply to born-again believers. The Scriptures are very plain that there is neither Jew nor Gentile in Christ. Galatians 3:28, "There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus." No unsaved Jew will ever enter into the Kingdom of God, and no saved Gentile will be left out! No unsaved Jew will escape the fires of Hell, and no saved Gentile will miss the blessings of Heaven!

Our precious Lord Jesus Christ did not go to burn in Hell after leaving the cross, He went to the place of Paradise. That is the plain teaching of Luke 23:43. This is not strange doctrine, it is solid Bible doctrine! Furthermore, according to Matthew 12:40, which I quote quoted to you, Jesus spent three days and three nights in the "HEART OF THE EARTH." I think this makes it clear that Christ literally went to the inward parts of the earth, which is where Hell is located. Hell is always referenced as being downward in the Bible. Isaiah 14:9, "Hell from beneath is moved for thee to meet thee at thy coming: it stirreth up the dead for thee, even all the chief ones of the earth; it hath raised up from their thrones all the kings of the nations."

Some Bible students believe that Jonah died and went to Paradise for three days and nights, but I disagree for a couple reasons"

Jonah was doing a lot of praying and thinking while in the whale's belly. Jonah 2:1, "Then Jonah prayed unto the LORD his God out of the fish's belly." This ole boy was having a personal one man revival, I'll tell you for sure!

Jesus said that Jonah spent three days and three nights in the belly of the whale. Matthew 12:40, "For as Jonas was three days and three nights in the whale's belly; so shall the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth."

Also, there is another piece of Scriptural evidence that a place called Paradise exists. John 3:13, "And no man hath ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man which is in heaven." At the time Christ walked this earth, NO MAN had ever ascended up to Heaven the Bible says. Well, if the saints didn't go to Heaven in the Old Testament, then where did they go? The man of God, Enoch, was taken that he should not see death. The prophet, Elijah, was caught up into a fiery whirlwind (firenado) into heaven (2nd Kings 2:11). The word "heaven" in 2nd Kings 2:1 and 11, refers to the sky, not the celestial city of Heaven. The word "heaven" here is the Hebrew word shâmayim shâmeh, which means "the sky." This word does NOT refer to Heaven where God's throne is located.

We must not go by human logic or what seems reasonable, but by the plain teachings of the Scripture. The Bible plainly tells us in John 3:13, spoken by Christ Himself to Nicodemus, that NO MAN before Christ had ascended up into Heaven. Since Elijah ascended up into "heaven," the Lord could not have been referring to the same place, or the Scriptures would be in error. The Holy Bible is never wrong!!!

So Jesus clearly meant that no man had ever ascended up into Heaven where God is seated on His throne. The only logical conclusion, based upon Scriptural evidence, is that a literal place existed in the Old Testament, where saints were held until Christ ransomed them. This place is Paradise, which is located in Hell (Hades), as evidenced in the true account given in Luke 16:19-31 of the rich man and Lazarus.

To clarify, I am NOT talking about the ungodly [2]Roman Catholic heresy of Purgatory, which is a manmade doctrine fabricated by Gregory the Great in 593 AD. There is no temporary place of punishment for believers. Once a person dies, it's over! You either "DIE IN THE LORD" (Revelation 14:13b), or else you "DIE IN YOUR SINS" (John 8:24b). Once your spirit and soul depart from the tabernacle of your earthly body, your eternal fate is sealed, and it cannot be changed by anyone, not even God, lest He break His Word.

Please Don’t Go to Hell

Oh, my dear reader, I wish you could know my heart, but you cannot. I am immersed with nothing but a desire to help others in the Lord. Some people are their own worst enemies, and you cannot help them, and that always grieves my heart. More than anything I want you to KNOW that you have eternal life and that your sins have been forgiven. ...

> John 3:16-20, “For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved. He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God. And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil. For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved.”

In the preceding Scripture, we see the need for repentance. Humans are sinners by nature and by choice. The Holy Bible teaches that mankind because of his love for sin (evil) won’t come to the light of the Gospel to be saved. Repentance is when a person acknowledges being a guilty sinner in the sight of a holy God (Romans 3:19-20), and that person turns to the Good News of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen (1st Corinthians 15:1-4)! Repenting and believing are ONE ACT, not two. You don’t repent AND believe; but rather, you repent TO believe. If you get this truth wrong, you will go to Hell. To repent as a separate act is manmade reformation, which constitutes human effort (works) for salvation. Grace plus anything crosses out grace!

We are saved by BELIEVING, not by REPENTING; but no one has ever believed who didn’t also repent! Repentance is an automatic thing, so that you don’t even need to mention the subject when witnessing to a lost person. John 20:31, “But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name.” In the Gospel of John, which is God’s Gospel tract, the words “believe” and “believed” and “believeth” are mentioned 87 times, but the word “repent” is not mentioned even once! That is because the person who BELIEVES the Good News (Gospel) of Christ crucified on the cross, buried and resurrected three days later, has also repented.

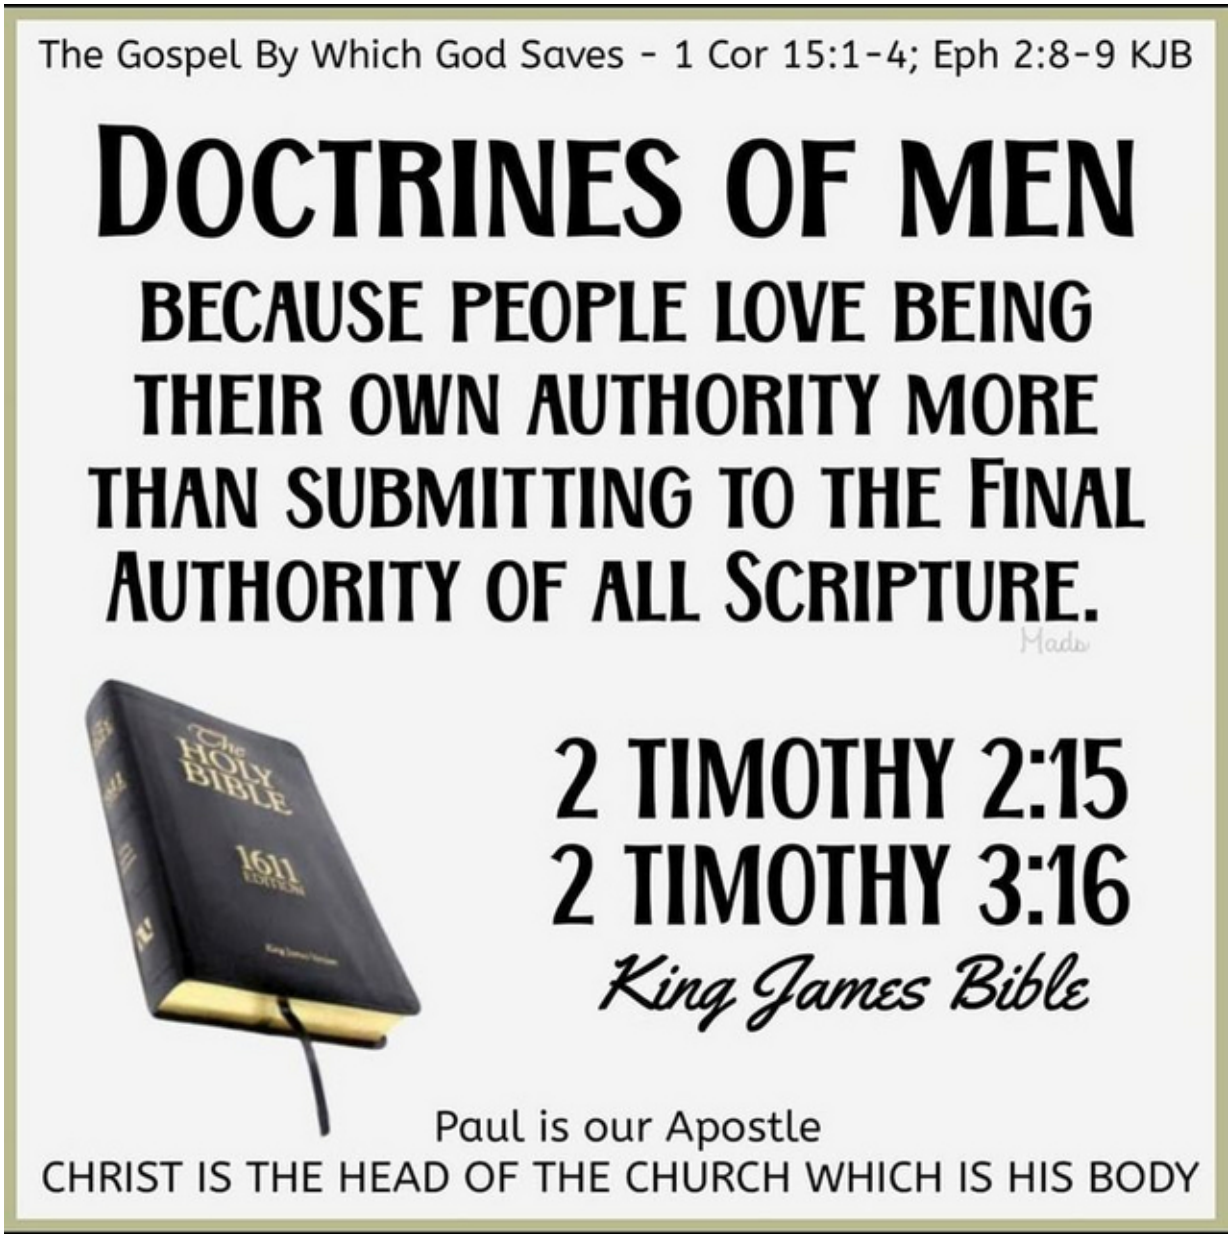
There is NO SUCH THING as a person who believes but has never repented. I hear corrupt preachers, like [3]Pastor Charles Lawson, teach that if a believer is still living in willful sin, it may be because they have never repented and are not saved. That is unbiblical! A man who believes is saved, period, end of story! I am so sick of meddlers changing the Gospel in an attempt to force people to live right. God’s salvation doesn’t work that way! Repentance is simply “a change of mind” unto the Gospel itself. How do I know if I have repented? Look, if you have trusted Christ’s sacrifice on the cross as the only payment for your sins, believing that He raised up from the dead the third day, you have repented! You are born-again by the Holy Spirit of God!!!

Perhaps you don’t believe in Hell. If that is so, I say to you kindly Sir or Mame, you are A FOOL! Are you willing to take that eternal risk? Are you willing to gamble with eternity?

Think about that. And if you do one day go to Hell, my words will haunt your soul for ever, because I was the best friend you ever had, warning you of the fiery judgment to comes in a burning eternal Lake of Fire without love, without anybody to care about you, without hope, without a single drop of water to quench your unquenchable thirst!!! Please don't be stupid! Billions of fools are already burning in Hell. Will you join them? Not me buster, no way, my faith is built on nothing less, than Jesus Christ and His righteousness. I dare not trust the sweetest frame, but wholly lean on Jesus' name...

My hope is built on nothing less,
Than Jesus' blood and righteousness;
I dare not trust the sweetest frame,
But wholly lean on Jesus' name.

Refrain:
On Christ, the solid Rock, I stand;
All other ground is sinking sand,
All other ground is sinking sand.



2nd Corinthians 5:21, "For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him." The perfect sinless Lamb of God, Jesus, because as sin for you and me, suffering a horrifying death as a criminal. He did that for you and me! I do not claim to understand it all, and there is no way anyone ever could. How could the Son of God pay for the sins of billions of people in one event on a cross? What you must keep in mind is that Jesus was not a sinful man, He was perfect. If Jesus hadn't dismissed His Spirit, He would have lived forever. The wages of sin is death (Romans 6:23). Jesus never sinned (Hebrews 4:15).

Jesus bled, suffered and died on the cross, so that you wouldn't have to be punished for your sins in Hell for ever and ever! If you go to Hell someday, you'll have nobody to blame except yourself! Please [4]get saved before it is too late. Death can come at any moment!

[5] NOBODY IS LAUGHING IN HELL!!!

Did you know that you don't have to ask Jesus to save you? God has already told you how to be saved, that is, by simply believing that His Son died on the cross for your sins, was buried, and raised up from the dead three days later. Christ raised up from the dead, which means that God the Father accepted His Son's payment for the sins of the world. Christ suffered on the cross so that we wouldn't have to suffer in a literal Hell forever. Amen! You don't have to bow your head to be saved. You don't have to pray. You don't have to do anything except believe that Jesus died on the cross for your sins, and make that your only hope for Heaven!

4.4.16 Is The New IFB Bad? (2023-04-18 17:07)

Philippians 1:15-18,

“

Some indeed preach Christ even of envy and strife; and some also of good will:

The one preach Christ of contention, not sincerely, supposing to add affliction to my bonds:

But the other of love, knowing that I am set for the defence of the gospel.

What then? notwithstanding, every way, whether in pretence, or in truth, Christ is preached; and I therein do rejoice, yea, and will rejoice.

The “

New IFB

” stands for New Independent Fundamental Baptist churches (or movement). This compares to the Old IFB movement. To be quite frank, the New IFB essentially began with Pastor Steven Anderson. God has used Brother Anderson in a tremendous way to bring revival across America. A faithful group of young men have followed Pastor Anderson’s leadership and influence, becoming pastors themselves. Namely, some of these pastors are Roger Jimenez, Joe Major, Jonathan Shelley, Bruce Mejia, et cetera. I love the New IFB and thank God for their aggressive emphasis on soulwinning and hard preaching.

Unfortunately, some of the New IFB lacks love for sinners. I firmly believe that we ought never accept the sin with the sinner, nor reject the sinner with the sin. Hatred begets more hatred. You cannot show me one verse in the inspired Holy Bible that teaches us to hate people, regardless of how they live. This is where I respectfully, but strongly, disagree with the New IFB. I don’t like that Pastor Anderson says that he hopes all homosexuals will burn in Hell. I do not agree with the New IFB that homosexuals are reprobates who are beyond the hope of the Gospel, so they say why bother trying to witness to them to get them saved. That is so unbiblical and wrong.

Pastor Anderson has been banned in over 40 countries. It is not because of his hard preaching, but because he is preaching hatred against the LGBTQ community. God hates their sins and so should we. Psalms 97:10, “Ye that love the LORD, hate evil: he preserveth the souls of his saints; he delivereth them out of the hand of the wicked.” Albeit, we are commanded in the Bible to love everyone. James 2:8-9, “If ye fulfil the royal law according to the scripture, *Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself, ye do well: But if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convinced of the law as transgressors.” Without love we will hardly win anybody to Christ.

Loving everyone doesn’t means tolerating, affirming or accepting their sins. The Bible teaches that the righteous and the unrighteous will NEVER get along in harmony. Proverbs 29:27, “An unjust man is an abomination to the just: and he that is upright in the way is abomination to the wicked. ” I am 100 % against churches embracing the LGBTQ movement in their unrepentant state. There is hot debate over whether sodomites should be allowed to attend church. Some pastors view a local church as a hospital for sinners, so everyone is welcomed (Pastor Jeff Owens believes this); but other pastors view the church as a group of Christian families and see homosexuals as a threat to families, so they are banned from attending church (this is why Pastor Steven Anderson believes). So who is correct?

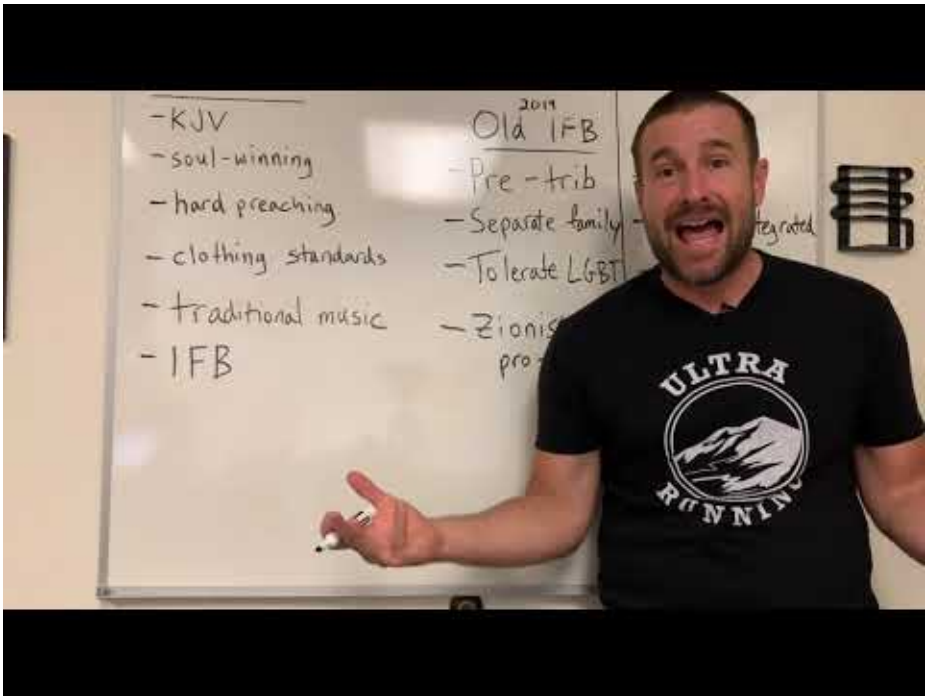
What saith the Scripture?

1st Timothy 5:20, “

Them that sin rebuke before all, that others also may fear.

” I think the problem resolves itself if a pastor faithfully preaches hard against sin, which is his duty as God’s man. Open homosexuals won’t want to attend a church where the pastor rips and hollers with the Bible against the sin of homosexuality. Shame on the cowardly, compromised, incompetent pastor who doesn’t preach against homosexuality as a sin! Churches are indeed failing the LGBTQ community today, by not crying aloud against homosexuality as utter perversion and an abomination to God almighty!

I am all for comforting the grieving, helping the needy, and loving people, but never at the expense of righteousness. The proper balance is to unconditionally love sinners, while at the same time preaching hard against their sin, and refusing to tolerate open sin in a local church. Those who commit open sin in a church need to kindly be confronted, and if need be asked to leave (1st Corinthians 5:1-5). There will always be a few troublemakers, who come to church with intent to disrupt the service, and they need to be shown the door. Albeit, 99 % of sinners will behave themselves at church, and I humbly believe they should be allowed to stay, because otherwise we would ALL have to leave, because we are all sinners!



I think the New IFB hurt their movement by hating sinners. Pastor Fred Phelps was a devout Calvinist who hated homosexuals. All eight of his children were attorneys, and he often needed their representation in legal matters. Pastor Phelps was infamous for sending his church members to protect at funerals, holding up offensive signs that read:

“Thank God for dead miners” and “Thank God for 911” and “Thank God for dead firemen,” et cetera. Those signs infuriated the public! Although I understand what Fred was doing, rubbing it in that we all deserve God’s wrath and judgment as Americans, the average person didn’t understand his extreme antics.

Likewise, most people don’t understand Pastor Anderson praising the 2016 shooting and [1]murder of 49 homosexuals at the gay Pulse Nightclub in Orlando, Florida. When Pastor Anderson thanked God publicly for the murders, all his buddies in the New IFB movement followed suit, making the same horrible statements from their pulpits. This is pure hatred of people, not sin. This is why Pastor Anderson has been banned from entering into over 40 countries.

Now, I know that we are engaged in a spiritual war with the Devil and the world. My friend Pastor Max D. Younce has received his second strike from YouTube, for preaching against the sin of homosexuality. One more strike and YouTube will remove his entire church channel for the Heritage Baptist Bible Church in Walnut Grove, Minnesota. We are at war with the rulers of the darkness of this world (Ephesians 6:12).

Pastor Anderson made this helpful video to explain the differences between the Old IFB and the New IFB...

New IFB Versus Old IFB
(Pastor Steven Anderson)

To clarify, I love the New IFB and support their aggressive soulwinning efforts. However, [2]I 100 % disagree with several false teachings which are prevalent in the New IFB. I don't believe that Jesus burned in Hell for three days. The Bible plainly says that Jesus went to Paradise. I am sad that Pastor Anderson willingly contradicts the Bible in this matter. Jesus did NOT burn in Hell. The Savior Himself told the repentant thief on the cross next to Him, that they would both be in 'Paradise' that very same day (Luke 23:43). Clearly, Jesus did not burn in Hell.

I also respectfully disagree with Pastor Anderson's Strange "Reprobate Doctrine." This [3]heresy falsely claims that God hates homosexuals and has given up on them ever getting saved, banning them from salvation. I do believe the Reprobate Doctrine as Dr. Jack Hyles preached it, which I explain in detail in the preceding article, contrasting what Pastor Hyles taught versus what Pastor Anderson is preaching. I believe there is a point of no return that an unsaved sinner can cross, where they will never get saved; but it is only because of the hardness of their heart, and not because God refuses to save them. Jesus said in John 5:40 that "Ye will not come unto me." He didn’t say, "Ye cannot come." Furthermore, in John 6:37 Jesus promised to never cast away anybody who comes to Him for salvation. 2nd Peter 3:9 says that God is not willing for ANY to perish, but that ALL men repent and come to Christ to be saved by faith alone.

I also humbly disagree With a PreWrath Rapture. I believe in a Biblical Pretribulation Rapture (i.e., the Rapture will happen BEFORE the 7-year Tribulation period). Pastor Anderson teaches that the Rapture and Christ’s Second Coming are the SAME event, which is unbiblical. [4]I do not believe that OLD IFB and NEW IFB should divide over the timing of the Rapture. That is, we ought to support soulwinning events together, even though churches may not want New IFB pastors preaching for them.

So is the New IFB bad? No, I don’t think so. God is working tremendously through New IFB churches to bring revival to America. Sadly, our nation is so far gone into sin and lack of fear of God that the New IFB and Old IFB alike have many enemies. We are at war ladies and gentlemen. I would rather see a guy do right wrongly, than to do wrong rightly. Even though the New IFB is not perfect, neither is the Old IFB for that matter. I am not supportive of hating a particular group of sinners, as is the case with the New IFB hating the LGBTQ community. The sin of homosexuality is no more wicked than adultery, slander, gossip or stealing. It is junk theology to teach that homosexuals are reprobates who are beyond the hope of the Gospel. So I disagree with Nee IFB pastors in this matter.

The one major flaw that I see in New IFB churches is their woeful lack of love for sinners. 1st Corinthians 13:1-5 teaches that if we do not have charity (love), then nothing else matters. The zealous hard preaching of the New IFB means NOTHING until they start unconditionally loving people. Jude 1:22-23, “ And of some have compassion, making a difference: And others save with fear, pulling them out of the fire; hating even the garment spotted by the flesh.” I think the problem is that all of the New IFB pastors I have seen are quite young. There’s just something about growing older, gaining more life’s experiences, that cause us to become more understanding, forgiving and loving.

We see this truth evidenced in the Bible in John chapter 8, in the account of the woman taken in the very act of adultery. Jesus wrote on the ground. We do not know what He wrote. My guess would be:

“Where’s the man?” The Pharisees said they caught her in the very act of adultery, so why didn’t they bring the man? The Bible says that the oldest among the woman’s accusers left first. I think that is because of what I just said, about gaining life’s experiences, understanding, conviction and wisdom as we age. It took the younger guys more time to figure it out. I am still hoping and paying that one of these days, that the New IFB will figure out as they grow older and wiser, that people just want to be loved.

I love the New IFB and will continue to support their sermons, churches, ministries and pastors. They are correct on a free grace Gospel and the inspiration of the King James Bible. Some critics want me to expose and reject the New IFB movement over minor doctrinal flaws and Pastor Anderson’s rough edges. I won’t do it! I love and respect Pastor Anderson. Some people have accused him of not having a college degree. Neither did Jesus!

All a college degree shows is that you paid money for a piece of paper, it doesn't mean that you are learned in the Word of God. Next to Pastor Jack Hyles, I have learned more about the Bible from Pastor Anderson than any other preacher.

One reason is because Brother Anderson has made a science out of the Bible, getting into the nitty gritty and the meat and potatoes. Next to myself, I do not know of a preacher who covers more topics than Pastor Anderson. I love that about him. He exposes the fraudulent Federal Reserve system. He exposes America's criminal injustice system. He exposes Johnny Nixon's insane

"Born That Way" junk theology. He exposes the diabolical New World Order. What an awesome preacher! The Old IFB critics who want me to attack Pastor Anderson, unfortunately attend dead churches where their henpecked pastor never preaches against any of the aforementioned evils. So, no, I won't bite the hand that feeds me.

I love the zeal of the New IFB. I love their often soulwinning events. I love their focus on preaching the Gospel to the world. I love that they expose the Devil's modern corrupt Bible revisions. I love that they expose Bob Jones University's Lordship Salvation trash, and Dr. John MacArthur whom they idolize. I love that the New IFB preach against Calvinism and false prophets like Ray Comfort, Sam Adams and the cults. Where are the Old IFB churches on social media? Why is the New IFB doing nearly all the contending for the faith? I am supportive of BOTH Old and New IFB!!! I am for whoever is getting the job done for Christ. Dr. Hyles Hyles is right: "The most important job is the one that doesn't get done.

There are no perfect churches. I know that Pastor Anderson is wrong about Jesus burning in Hell for three days. In his book of the Holy Spirit, in chapter 20, Dr. Jack Hyles errantly teaches that the "Shekinah Glory" abode above the Mercy Seat in the Tabernacle. The "She" in "Shekinah" comes from the cult of Jewish Cabbalism, which refers to the female aspect of God. The Bible ALWAYS presents God only in a masculine form: God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit (who in John 16:13 is referred to with the masculine pronoun, "he"). Wiccan witches, the occult, Asian false religions and Jewish mysticism pervert the Godhead, portraying God in feminine form.

The First Baptist Church of Hammond, since 2008, no longer believes or teaches their students at Hyles-Anderson College that the King James Bible is inspired by God. Dr. John R. Rice, in his book, "Dr. Rice: Here Are More Questions," he teaches that it is a sin for a refined white woman to marry an unrefined Negro. What saith the Scripture in Hebrews 13:4? I'll let you decide. I personally do think that there are ethical concerns why interfacial marriage should be avoided, but it is not a sin.

Pastor Peter Ruckman foolishly taught that abortion is okay.

He also errantly taught that people were saved by works in the Old Testament. Acts 10:43 and Romans 4:4 call Ruckman a liar!

As much as I love Pastor Harry Ironside for his free grace Gospel preaching, he royally botched Matthew 24:13,

But he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.

” In his book,

“[5]The Eternal Security Of The Believer,” Dr. Ironside errantly teaches that Tribulation saints will persevere (endure) to the end. This is heresy! That is not what Matthew 24:13 means! The Bible gives us the answer in Matthew 24:22, “

And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: but for the elect’s sake those days shall be shortened.

” Verse 13 is referring to physically surviving the Tribulation period, it is not speaking about the spiritual new birth.

My point by sharing the preceding observations of false teachings with you, is that whether Old IFB or New IFB, no preacher is without doctrinal flaw. Most preachers change their doctrine over the decades, honing their theology to conform with the Word of God. Pastors all around the world relentlessly quote Charles Spurgeon, nearly all of which quotes were made by Spurgeon in his early twenties as a minister. He was just a stupid kid! Not surprisingly, Spurgeon’s theology was full of bugs, contradictions and Calvinism.

Just To Clarify

I support both the Old and New IFB. God doesn’t want us dividing over minor issues. Paul rebuked the church at Corinth for dividing into cliques (1st Corinthians 1:11-15). I hate when New IFB try to rid the Old IFB. The IFB is essentially Pastor Anderson, who has doctrinal issues; such as his blatant heresy that Jesus burned in Hell for 3 days. So I am 100 % for the Old IFB too. I won’t get into this cult mindset that the New IFB replaces the Old IFB, which is silly. I thank God for all pastors who are faithfully serving God. There are godly preachers in both the Old and New IFB. I think we need to be careful about becoming obsessed with this "New IFB" thing. There is only the local New Testament church.

I’ve had some wacky New IFB followers desperately try to get me to condemn and attack Old IFB pastors. One man attacked Pastor Jeff Owens, because 35 years ago he said in chapel at Hyles-Anderson College that we ought to have, “Hunt a homo day.” Twenty five years later Dr. Owens sincerely apologized for making that inappropriate statement, and I think he did the right thing. But Pastor Steven Anderson lashed out against Pastor Owens, calling him a bunch of names and scolding him for compromising his view on Sodomites. So a man on Facebook sent me a message recently, wanting me to abandon the Old IFB because of things like what I just mentioned.

In response to the preceding accusations, I reminded the man that as much as I love Pastor Anderson, he has some serious doctrinal issues. Like teaching that Jesus burned in Hell for three days and nights. Christ Himself told the repentant thief on the cross that they would be together in “Paradise” that very day. So unless you believe that Hell is Paradise, we know that [6]Jesus did not burn in Hell for one second! Pastor Anderson is also in error concerning his [7]Reprobate Doctrine. I’ve only mentioned these blatant doctrinal flaws by Pastor Anderson to prove a point, that there are flawed preachers in BOTH the Old IFB and the New IFB.

Therefore, I love them all, though faulty they may be! The truth is that there’s not a preacher who has ever walked the face of this earth, except Jesus Christ Himself, who wasn’t doctrinally flawed on something. I do the best I can to be accurate in my doctrine, and to correct anything wrong in my preaching. I’m sure my teachings are not perfect, because I am not perfect. That is why I always encourage my web and blog visitors to SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES, to verify what I teach you (John 5:39; Acts 17:10-11).

So I admonish you dear reader not to get caught up into this pissing contest between the New IFB and the Old IFB. Pastor Anderson spearheaded the New IFB movement, for which I am grateful, but the New IFB movement is not perfect, neither in their doctrines or methods. The Old IFB certainly has many ongoing issues as well, which likely won't be resolved anytime soon. The Old IFB lacks zeal. The Old IFB refuses to contend for the faith, to get their hands dirty by offending the local community with the truth.

I remember many years ago, when I was attending Hyles-Anderson College, that some good friends of mine from Cleveland, Ohio, invited me to come with them to their home. I was delighted to do so. While in Ohio they took me the Pastor Roy Thompson's Cleveland Baptist Church. I will never forget what the sign read in front of the church: "Abortion is cold-blooded murder!" That pastor instantly won my heart and respect. As far as I'm concerned, that was the New IFB!

Pastor Steven Anderson is not the first preacher to be zealous and stand for God. Pastor Jack Hyles was the New IFB of his generation. So much so that the Southern Baptist Convention stripped him of his membership and kicked him out the door!!! There is nothing "new" under the sun. Please remember that friend. During his time in the Old Testament, the prophet Elijah was the New IFB in town! In every generation, it is necessary for godly preachers to "come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you, And will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty. "

There are some faithful pastors in what is now called the "

Old IFB,

who are diligently serving the Lord with zeal. The so-called is actually the movement that Pastor Steven started in 2006, when he started the Faithful Word Baptist Church. It should also be pointed out that the New IFB drastically departs from the orthodox Old IFB belief in a Pretribulation Rapture (which I think is unfortunate). If you rightly divide the Word of Truth, you can only conclude a Pretribulation Rapture. Anything else and we would know exactly when Jesus is returning, which Mark 13:32-37 says in impossible. So I very much disagree with the New IFB on their PreWrath Rapture theory.

New IFB

I would like to also say that I don't like this New IFB versus Old IFB cult mindset that some people have today. I am not calling the New IFB a cult, I am saying that some of the New IFB followers have a cult mindset. I saw this in the Old IFB too. The First Baptist Church of Hammond was not a cult, but Pastor Jack Hyles had a cult following. Some of Pastor Hyles followers broke into Brother George Godfrey's home and stole the honorary doctorate's degree that Dr. Hyles awarded him at Pastor's School. That is a crime! That is wicked! That is so awful! No one has a right to break and enter into someone's home to steal from them!!!

When I attended Hyles-Anderson College (1985-1993), a man that I knew in the Bus Ministry literally attacked another student and broke his collar bone, sending him to the local hospital, for critiquing Dr. Hyles. That is wicked and wrong and a crime! The Lord Himself teaches us to turn the other cheek, and to be as harmless as doves, not go around beating people up. I am not saying that Dr. Hyles' ministry was a cult, God forbid. The New Testament church is not a cult.

However, when you start shunning, rejecting and ostracizing people for not dotting their i's and crossing their t's, who are less than perfect, you are behaving like a cult. The Bible teaches in Galatians 6:1-3, "

Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, restore such an one in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted.

Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ.

For if a man think himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself. " So when we see a weaker believer who is struggling with worldliness and sin, we out to humble ourselves esteeming our self lower than them, and in meekness try to restore them to fellowship with God.

Sadly, most Baptists do the exact opposite, we cast them out and ban them from attending church anymore. That is what Pastor Jeff Redlin wickedly did to me at Campus Church, at Pensacola Christian College, which is a cult. They are a cult because of the way they abuse and mistreat individual people who they don't like. The cult system always comes first at PCC, individual people do not matter. SHAME on PCC's terrible leadership. There is a cult following at PCC, so that if you offend them, they will hurt you. They will shun, ostracize and even sue you, as they did one of their own alumni. PCC totally disregarded 1st Corinthians 6, which forbids suing another believer. SHAME on PCC! They disregard the Holy Bible on a whim.

Having said all that, I love and am thankful to God for all of the New IFB preachers and their followers. I thank God for the Old IFB and the New IFB alike. I will not take sides. There are flaws in both camps. There are bad and good churches in both camps. There are deadbeat and zealous pastors in both camps. The New IFB has a greater presence on social media, so they appear to be more zealous.

However, there are still some great churches across the United States. I am not for or against the Old IFB or New IFB. I am for truth-tellers. I am for principles and right doctrine. I am for righteousness. I am for God. I am for unconditionally loving sinners and uncompromisingly preaching against sin. There is a proper balance that we must maintain. Loving sinners without hard preaching against sin is ungodly compromise. Preaching hard against sin without loving people produces hatred and contempt. People don't care what you know until they know that you care.

I agree that the New IFB is more willing to 'agree to disagree' than the Old IFB, particularly over the subject of the Pretribulation Rapture. I am for SOULWINNING!!! That is why I love and support New IFB churches, because they are making an impact for God. So also are many Old IFB churches. God is doing a great work through Pastor Jeff Fugate in Lexington, Kentucky and their Commonwealth Baptist College. I thank God for their soulwinning ministry and I support them fully. So I encourage you not to think in terms of "Old or New IFB"; but rather, there are only local New Testament churches.

We’re all in this thing called Christianity together. Every time I see this beautiful photo of Pastor Steven Anderson’s church congregation, I rejoice in the Lord that he was born. One man plus God can make an impact for Jesus Christ...

4.4.17 Criminal Trilogy Of Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, Bob Jones University And Pensacola Christian College (2023-04-19 08:11)

Romans 16:17-1 “Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them. For they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple.”

I cannot express in words the inexplicable pain of soul because of the hateful cruel behavior of the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. For 7 long years (2014-2021) I begged for their love and compassion. All I wanted was just to attend their church, because I was lonely as a divorced man (my former disloyal wife abandoned me in 2006), but Harvest’s ungodly pastors refused to let me attend their church, and threw me under the bus, because [1]I told THE TRUTH.

And then in 2021 I moved 9,000 miles from the island of Guam to Pensacola, Florida. I chose to attend Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College (PCC), just to be horrified to learn that PCC is in bed with Harvest, who receive students at PCC from Harvest. The former radio operator on Guam at Harvest, now operates their radio station at PCC.

Shameful senior pastor at PCC ’s Campus Church, Jeff Redlin, is promoted on Harvest’s radio station on Guam. Because these wicked groups are all spiritually fornicating together, I was also banned and mistreated by the PCC camp. This is all because I took a faithful stand against Harvest’s incompetent pastors on Guam, who preach the Devil’s lie of Lordship Salvation, preach a misunderstanding of repentance of be saved (aka, "turn away from your sinful ways" to get to Heaven), errantly teach that Martin Luther is in Heaven (he taught Sacramental Salvation all his life), and they also use and promote the Devil’s corrupt Bible revisions.

They are all guilty of spreading a false gospel. PCC is guilty of helping to spread a false gospel, by wickedly bidding Godspeed to the Bob Jones University (BJU cult). Someone slandered me to PCC’s pastors and they are condemning me based upon gossip and slander, which is very wicked and wrong. God’s wrath is upon BJU and PCC for spreading lies and deceit, destroying lives.

In love, I befriended those horrible neo-evangelical Bob Jones University graduate pastors at the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam between 2014 and 2021, but they killed the prophet. They rejected THE TRUTH that I humbly believe God sent me to give them. I do believe that God led me to Harvest, as a testimony against them for judgment day. But if not, at least I did give them THE TRUTH, but they rejected it, for which God will reward and honor me, and punish and shame them! Their sorrowful day of reckoning is coming in eternity.

God knows my heart. I am just a hurting broken divorced man who wants to be loved, but the leaders and pastors at PCC are so filled with self-righteous hypocrisy, huge egos, pride, arrogance, bigotry, carnality and hatred, that they woefully lack compassion and love for individual people like me. I sincerely tried multiple times to reconcile with the PCC camp, but they cold-heartedly refused, which is what the heathen world does. They do not fear God at PCC.

By God’s grace, I will continue to preach against these hypocrites until either God takes me home to Heaven, or PCC forgives me for offending them and invites me back to Campus Church. As of August 2, 2022 I have been banned from attending Campus Church, so now this means war. PCC is a cult that needs to be exposed. God knows that I do not hate anybody, but they do hate people at PCC and BJU. They are the epitome of everything that is wrong with pastors and phony Christian leadership in America today! I will go to seed preaching against these ungodly institutions.

The irony is that I truly did try to get along with PCC, but the Bible says in Proverbs that there is no harmony between a wise man and fools. Proverbs 29:9,

If a wise man contendeth with a foolish man, whether he rage or laugh, there is no rest.

” Sadly, it didn’t matter to PCC when I criticized them on social media, nor did it matter to them when I humbled myself to apologize and be nice to them, PCC are fools who don’t want to make the peace.

I doubt if they will ever repent, because they are shallow neo-evangelicals full of arrogance and hatred, which they are blind to see. Jesus told the church of Laodicea that they were naked, wretched, poor and blind, even though THEY FOOLISHLY THOUGHT they were prosperous, faithful and doing great (Revelation 3:15-17). Jesus called them “ and said they made Him vomit. The Lordship Salvation preaching, Harvest Baptist Church cult on Guam, makes God vomit. PCC has blood on their hands for wickedly bidding them Godspeed (2nd John 1:11).

The cult at PCC who wickedly bid Godspeed to false prophet Ken Ham, who says faith is not enough to be saved ([2]Ken Ham says you must also turn away from your evil ways), makes God vomit. SHAME on PCC! I am not the bad guy for telling THE TRUTH, PCC are evil for helping spread a counterfeit plan of salvation. PCC is all about making more money. The cult system always comes first at PCC, individual people do not matter.

It is criminal in God’s eyes! What PCC is doing to me is a crime in the Lord’s sight. I have humbly offered to do whatever they require to reconcile and make peace, but the shameful pastors at Campus Church refuse. Sadly, PCC leadership refuses to help in the matter, refusing to keep their bad dog Jeff Redlin on a leash. I extended an Olive Branch of friendship to the PCC camp, but they cast it to the ground.

In my first email to Pastor Redlin in July of 2021, I humbly told him that as a newcomer to the PCC camp, I just want to be blessing in any way I can. I offered to volunteer to serve in whatever capacity that I could. I kindly told him that I am a graduate of Hyles-Anderson College and wanted to serve in a ministry at Campus Church. To my horror, Jeff Redlin totally ignored me. Instead he was cruel and insensitive, scolding me for mentioning that (as a divorced man for 15 years) I hoped to find a wife at Campus Church.

Only a darn fool for a pastor scolds a 54-year-old man for hoping to remarry. What is wrong with his heart and head? I mean, after all, it had been 15 years in 2021 since my wife abandoned me in 2006. What a hypocrite Jeff Redlin is! Jeff has a wife, but according to him I am not allowed to have a wife, I should just be alone for the rest of my life. They are out of touch with reality at PCC. Sadly, they are abusive toward divorced people, which is what CULTS do! They started this fight, not me. When you mistreat people, this is what happens!

> “The pastors have destroyed the churches, and they’ve been [3]trained by people that have never built churches, and [4]they have no compassion.” —Pastor Jack Hyles, “[5]Many Pastors Have Destroyed My Vineyard”

PCC is a dangerous place to send your child, because they are nothing more than a cult of rules, rules and more rules; but they woefully lack God’s love or compassion for their students and church members, of which I am living proof. Whereas Jesus left the 99 sheep to go help the one wayward lamb, at PCC they have the 9,999 sheep so they couldn’t care less about one hurting lamb like me. I need their love, understanding and help, but they threw me under the bus instead.

God knows that I love everybody, including the folks at the dysfunctional Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, and the private social cult at Pensacola Christian College’s Campus Church; but until they humble themselves to just allow me to attend church again (I only live 2 miles away from PCC), I will never shut up. I say that kindly and with respect, people just want to be loved.

4.4.18 You Shouldn't Tithe If You Need To Borrow Money (2023-04-21 12:43)

1st Corinthians 16:2, "

Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him, that there be no gatherings when I come.

There is a fine line between faith and foolishness. Nothing upsets me more as a preacher than money-hungry pastors. I am so disgusted by the love of money that permeates so many pulpits today. I heard Pastor Clarence Sexton in 2016 begging his congregation to raise $1,000,000 to renovate Crown College. Pastor Steven Anderson is so right about the Bible College Scam in the United States! While local New Testament churches are shrinking, the Bible colleges are growing bigger, parasiting off and funneling much needed resources away from the churches.

Most preachers don't like me, because I preach against a 10 % tithe. You cannot show me one verse in the inspired King James Bible that commands saints to give 10 % of their money to God. When I was a baby Christian as a teenager, I was lied to by preachers, who told me that I was robbing God if I didn't tithe 10 % of everything I own. I was wrongly taught that even if I tithes 10 %, I still hadn't given God a cent, and that I was supposed to give an additional 5 % to make God happy. I was also errantly bullied, told by lying pastors that if I failed to tithe and give more than my tithe, that God would do bad things to me. Those horrible pastors said that your spouse or children might die, thieves might break into your home to steal, you might lose your job, or your home burn to the ground, as God's punishment upon you if you didn't tithe and give above the tithe. They based all of this junk theology on one single passage of Scripture from the Old Testament...

> Malachi 3:8-11, "
> Will a man rob God? Yet ye have robbed me. But ye say, Wherein have we robbed thee? In tithes and offerings.
>
> Ye are cursed with a curse: for ye have robbed me, even this whole nation. Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in mine house, and prove me now herewith, saith the LORD of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it. And I will rebuke the devourer for your sakes, and he shall not destroy the fruits of your ground; neither shall your vine cast her fruit before the time in the field, saith the LORD of hosts.

To understand this passage you need to know that God ordained12 tribes in Israel in the Old Testament. These twelve tribes formed the nation of Israel. They were God's chosen people. God ordained that the tribe of Levi would perform all of the priestly work. They set up the Tabernacle, and dismantled it as they traveled. The Levites performed all the work of the priests, killing of the animals for sacrifice, and purging of the sins of the people with blood (which symbolized the precious blood of Jesus Christ which would one day be shed for our sins). So God commanded the other remaining 11 tribes to tithe 10 % of everything that they owned to support the tribe of Levi. It was a closed system ordained by God, only for the Jews, only for Jews who lived in the Old Testament, and only for Jews living in the land of Palestine.

Therefore, that 10 % tithing system which was instituted only for Old Testament Israel, does NOT apply to believers today, we who are at liberty through faith in Christ alone. This doesn't mean that God doesn't want us to support the work of the ministry. However, you and are are not required to tithe 10 % to the tribe of Levi, nor to any specific church, or any church. I have declared war on these lying pastors and others in the clergy, who prey upon people with the lie that God will hurt them if they don't tithe 10 %.

Case in point is a woman that I know. She sinfully divorced her husband decades ago. She is very religious, but not a very good Christian. Most people fail to understand that reading your Bible, praying, tithing and going to church weekly does NOT make you a good Christian, it simply means that you are devout in your religious faith. How good of a Christian you are is determined by how you treat people and God.

This foolish woman that I am speaking of makes poverty wages. She has no job training. She divorced her husband and put herself in this situation. She tithes 10 % of her meager wages because she thinks that is part of being a good Christian. She has been deceived by lying pastors. So while her pastor is living large—driving a nice car, dining out, going on vacations and living in a beautiful home—this woman barely survives on what she receives. So she begs her family for money to pay her bills. That is so unethical and wrong dear reader.

Listen to me, if you are so poor that you need to go borrow money from others, then you SHOULND'T tithe! Do you really think God wants you to tithe while needing to beg for money from others? No way! She is effectively tithing with other people's money. This is what religion does to people, it screws up their common sense, inflicting religious scrupulosity (fear and worry caused by religion) upon them if they don't tithe 10 %(to a God who will punish them if they don't). SHAME on those lying pastors!!!

Sadly, money is the main thing that preachers try to get from people. I have seen it all my life. I loved Dr. Jack Hyles, but he browbeat and relentlessly pressured his church congregation for their money. Pastor Hyles also gave away nearly everything that he earned and received. SO I am not saying that he was greedy, God forbid. Brother Hyles was always wanting to build and grow his ministry, which required millions of dollars.

Respectfully, Dr. Hyles truly was just like Solomon, which Bill Rice called him. I heard in one of his sermons, that Pastor Hyles was scolding his church members for reneging on $100,000 in promised donations a year earlier. They had filled out financial vow cards in church, because Dr. Hyles pressured them to. That is what happens when you constantly pressure people to give, give, give. Something has to break at some point! When Solomon's son, Rehoboam, told the people that he was going to go even harder on them financially, 10 of the 12 tribes revolted and journey north with Jeroboam to start their own kingdom. They said: "Screw you Rehoboam!" I can't say that I blame them! Would you?

There is something wrong with a pastor who scolds, browbeats and belittles his church members for not giving sacrificially until it hurts. I saw that garbage at the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam in 2014. They invited a guest missionary's from the Philippines to speak at church. A super typhoon had just devastated the Philippine islands. He said at the time that 1,900 churches were about to close their doors forever in the Philippines, if they did not receive financial help. He said: "I know this churches gives, but we need you to give sacrificially until it hurts!" Just as he said that, I glanced down to my right side and saw a church bulletin laying on the pew.

The church was taking a lucrative vacation to the Holy Land in Israel, which was going to cost well over $100,000. Twenty affluent church members were going on the trip. I felt numb and sick to my stomach at the utter hypocrisy of the leaders of Harvest Baptist Church on Guam.

It is clear from this to see, that they just want to suck every last drop of blood money out of every person they can, ultimately for their own benefit!!! The shameful pastor's of Harvest

Baptist Church’s exuberant salaries always come first, and their lucrative vacations, and needy churches ready to close their doors come last. What hypocrites!!! It is blood money when church leaders and members are taking expensive trips to the Holy Land, at the expensive of churches closing their doors. As I speak, Marty Herron (the former incompetent infidel pastor of Harvest) is now getting paid well over $100,000 a year as the ungodly vice president of Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary in Ankeny, Iowa. Marty belongs in prison, but religious crime spays well in America! Marty is guilty of preaching the Devil’s lie of Lordship Salvation, and perverting what it means to "repent" to be saved, and for promoting Martin Luther (1483-1546) as a Christian. Luther taught the heresy of Sacramental Salvation all his life. Herron also has much blood on his hands for using, selling and promoting the Devil’s fake Bible revisions. Woe unto Marty Herron and the ungodly Bob Jones University cult who trained him. RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!!

Dear friend, you ought not tithe just to tithe. You worked hard for that money. If you are saved (i.e., a born again child of God), then the day you got saved everything you own became God’s (1st Corinthians 6:20). When you give money away, you are simply letting go of what is already God’s. But dear friend, please don’t be an idiot with God’s money! You shouldn’t donate any money to the Salvation Army, who pay their top official over $300,000 a year!!! If they can afford to pay those kind of outrageous salaries (which is nearly 8 times what the average U.S. worker earns in a year), then they don’t need God’s money!!! And that $300,000 doesn’t even include his paid housing, business trips (vacations), business meals and other fringe compensations!!! The Salvation Army’s leaders are spoiled rotten to the core!!! Then at Christmas, they’ll deceitfully portray to the public the image of a Santa Claus collecting coins.

Money is the last thing I will give a church, unless I see that it is a King James Bible only, free grace Gospel only, soulwinning church. Please don’t give God’s money to help further the Devil’s lordship Salvation cult! That means don’t give any money to Pensacola Christian College (PCC), who wickedly bid Godspeed to the Calvinist Bob Jones University (BJU) cult. PCC and BJU are cults that work together to make filthy lucre. That’s all they care about, making a lot more money. Cha-ching goes the sound of the cash register! PCC sinfully bids Godspeed to Lordship Salvation infidel Ken Ham, who teaches that faith is not enough to be saved, he errantly says you must also turn away from your evil ways. That is WORKS!!! (Romans 4:4).

I wrote this blog to encourage you to start thinking objectively when it comes to giving. So many believers foolishly only give money to avoid feeling guilty, or legitimately because they do genuinely love the Lord, or errantly because they think giving is the way to get things from God—but ask yourself, “

Where is that money going?

” Are you paying for someone’s giant paycheck? Are people coming to Jesus Christ as their personal Savior? Does the church even have a time scheduled to go soulwinning?

My personal belief is that if a church pastor is living higher on the hog than I am, I refuse to donate one penny to that church. These spoiled Baptist pastors today need to humble themselves to the order of Franciscan Catholic priests, who are sworn to live in poverty for Christ. We can use some of that type of humility in our independent fundamental Baptist churches. Please don't give your hard earned money to any church or ministry, unless you KNOW where the money is going and what it's being used for.

I am shocked how many Christians donate loads of money to missionaries on the foreign field, who do absolutely NOTHING for God. One missionary group in Africa put me on their mailing list. Their big service for Christ that month was trimming branches off the top of the trees on their property, so low-flying propeller planes wouldn't hit the trees. That is NOT a ministry!!! You're darn fool if you donate one penny to that scam. Listen, if the free grace Gospel (Good News) of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and bodily risen the third day is not being preaching, it cannot be a legitimate Christian ministry.

I triple-dog dare you to search the internet with the words: " _ _ _ _ _ _ ministry," and see what you get. For example: [1]Here is a bicycles ministry. There's no Gospel message on their website, nor could I find anything about their ministry where it says they share the Gospel with anyone. They just share God's love through giving asway bikes! Folks, that is a scam! It is a racket, not a legitimate ministry, because nobody is getting a chance to be saved.

Here is another scam, a [2]scuba diving ministry. Their so-called "ministry" is going scuba diving with other believers, but that is a club for diving enthusiast, not a ministry. Since they are not preaching the Gospel to try to win people to Christ, it cannot be a ministry. Many people have a perverted idea of what a "ministry" is. Search the Scriptures and you will find that any biblical ministry involved trying to get people saved with the power of the Gospel.

And here is some nut on Facebook who has even started his own [3]marijuana ministry for Jesus! Oh brother! Again, where is the Gospel being preached? No, they just want to justify getting high in the name of Jesus. What wickedness!

Anyway, back to the main topic of this blog. If you are broke dear reader, God does not expect you to tithe. I think if God has blessed you through hard work or an inheritance to become filthy rich, you should return that kindness to God by being generous. However, do your homework because everybody wants money these days, but less than 1 % of today's churches, charities and ministries are worthy of receiving a single penny. Beware of these fat cat charities that pay ridiculous 6-digit salaries to their overpaid executives, while you survive from paycheck to paycheck. Charity starts at home!!! Pensacola Christian College has dozens of employees getting paid 6-digit salaries. They won't get a penny from me!

I contend that you should give what money you have to spare directly to the poor, homeless and needy. That is what I do. So 100 % of the money that I give goes directly to the poor. I have eliminated the spoiled rotten overpaid middleman who is getting paid $694,000 a year! That is the [4]annual salary for the CEO of Red Cross! You are a fool if you donate money to them. If I had my way, no charity would legally be allowed to pay anyone more than what the average U.S. worker gets paid. These so-called "charities" pay ZERO taxes, while paying sickening ridiculously high salaries to their executives. It is unethical and just plain wrong!

You are not robbing God by nothing tithing 10 %. You are only robbing God if you made a financial vow to the Lord, and then you went back on that vow.

Ecclesiastes 5:4-5, "When thou vowest a vow unto God, defer not to pay it; for he hath no pleasure in fools: pay that which thou hast vowed. Better is it that thou shouldest not vow, than that thou shouldest vow and not pay." That was the horrible sin of Ananias and Sapphira in Acts chapter 5. They had promised to sell a home and give all the proceeds to the local church, but then after they sold their home, they held back some of the money. They had broken a vow to the church, which the Apostle Peter said was a broken vow to God. Be careful not to make a vow to man or God unless you intend to keep it, no matter what. Personally, I never make vows for that reason, because vows can be easily broken if circumstances change.

Also, I believe that God will reward us in Heaven for giving, even if the people to whom we gave the money were reckless, dishonest or greedy. God will punish them for their sins. However, if we give money to shady institutions or ministers, the effectiveness of what could have been done with that money was wasted.

Having said that, there is nothing wrong with giving money to secular charities; such as, March of Dimes, Disabled veterans of America, Shriners Hospitals For Children, or The American Cancer Society to fight disease and help disabled people. I am not recommending supporting these institutions, I am simply mentioning them as an example. Albeit, I believe that as saints we should focus on giving our money for eternal causes. There are tens of millions of people who donate money to secular organizations, but only God's redeemed children are going to donate money to churches, rescue missions, missionaries, soulwinning events, et cetera.

I am simply saying to be careful who you give money to. If aimlessly throwing money away at shady charities and bogus churches makes you feel better about yourself, then you are so vain. Don't you support some rich pastor who is living large, while he is browbeating you to give to him until it hurts. Please don't be duped!!! Again, there is nothing in the New Testament which commands any saint to tithe 10 %. God wants you to give as your are able, as He has prospered you.

1st Corinthians 16:2, "

Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him, that there be no gatherings when I come. " If you are on welfare, disability or unemployed, then you cannot give much. God understands. The Lord wants your heart, and then He will get your money, home, family and all that goes along with it.

Proverbs 23:26, " My son, give me thine heart, and let thine eyes observe my ways. "

4.4.19 Career Women Are Destroying The United States (2023-04-22 10:44)

Isaiah 3:12, "As for my people, children are their oppressors, and women rule over them. O my people, they which lead thee cause thee to err, and destroy the way of thy paths."

1st Timothy 5:14-15, “I will therefore that the younger women marry, bear children, guide the house, give none occasion to the adversary to speak reproachfully. For some are already turned aside after Satan.”

One of the saddest things I’ve seen in my lifetime are women being promoted to positions of authority and power in America. I realize that what I just said will harelip every feminazi in the nation. I like something that Pastor Jack Hyles said. He said that a woman is just as equal with her husband as Jesus Christ was to His Father in Heaven (Philippians 2:6 - King James Bible), yet Jesus humbled Himself to His Father (Philippians 2:8). Likewise, a wife is equal with her husband, but she is commanded by God to humble herself to submit to his authority.

It is just a matter of time until we see a woman as U.S. President, which will be the saddest day in the history of our nation. It is tragic that we live in a nation of Bible ignoramuses today! The Bible says in

Isaiah 3:12, “

As for my people, children are their oppressors, and women rule over them. O my people, they which lead thee cause thee to err, and destroy the way of thy paths.

” Notice that the Bible says these WOMEN cause thee to err, and destroy the way of thy paths. Like it or not, God ordained men to lead. Men are natural leaders, women are natural followers. When women rise to power, it is only because there are weak men in society who allow women to rule over them.

Case in point is the mess were in today in the United States. It is ridiculous to see hundreds of police men subject to a female police chief. That is the consequence of today’s ungodly woke culture in America, which is of the Devil. In a recent video from January of 2023, singer [1]Taylor Swift cast herself as being in love with a transgendered man. This is wicked as Hell! The inspired Holy Bible condemns all sexual sins as an abomination to God. 1st Corinthians 6:9 condemns effeminate males. God is willing to forgive the vilest sinner. NO ONE is beyond the love of God and the hope of the Gospel. No one ever goes to Hell except those lost sinners who consciously reject God’s free gift of eternal life through faith alone in Jesus Christ.

What about marriage? The Bible doesn’t command wives to only submit (obey) to a perfect husband, but to her husband. No husband is perfect. No wife is perfect. Sadly, rebellion in marriage is commonplace in America today. Ungodly lawyers and judges are more than happy to destroy marriages, seeing that the divorce racket is now worth $50,000,000,000 each year just in America. Divorce is a sin! God hates divorce, calling it "treacherous" (Jeremiah 3:20).

In our wicked nation today, our ungodly courts are quick to grant divorces. The popular given reason is "irreconcilable differences." Attorneys call this a "no fault divorce." What do you mean "no fault"? It was BOTH your faults as husband and wife!!! Isaiah 3:12, “As for my people, children are their oppressors, and women rule over them. O my people, they which lead thee cause thee to err, and destroy the way of thy paths.”

In every case that I know of where a women enters the pulpit to preach, she is corrupt in her doctrine. Pastor Joyce Meyer comes to mind, who [2]preaches a counterfeit plan of salvation. The Bible says that Eve was deceived, not Adam. ...

> 1st Timothy 2:11-15, “
>
> Let the woman learn in silence with all subjection.
>
> But I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence. For Adam was first formed, then Eve. And Adam was not deceived, but the woman being deceived was in the transgression. Notwithstanding she shall be saved in childbearing, if they continue in faith and charity and holiness with sobriety.
> **”

Joyce Meyer is horribly sinning by preaching with authority over men. She likes to put the women upfront and seat the women in the back of her meetings, but men are still present. It is wickedness!!! If you think that is outdated, a different culture or too old-fashioned, then you are not right with God. Men are to lead, not women. The Bible doesn’t tell heathen society how to operate because they do not fear nor regard God.

1st Timothy 2:15, “

Notwithstanding she shall be saved in childbearing, if they continue in faith and charity and holiness with sobriety.

” This Bible verse simply means that a mother, by raising up her children in the admonition and nurture of the Lord, can help undo the stain of reproach brought upon women because of Eve. When given a choice to do right or wrong, Eve chose to do wrong. Women today have a chance too, of whether to do right or wrong. Mothers who foolishly choose to have an abortion are in the same wicked boat as Eve, destroying their family. When Eve sinned, she brought down her husband Adam, and ruined the lives of her future children. Oh, the spider’s web that sin weaves, in which all affected are entangled.

I humbly think there is a good chance that Joe Biden will be re-elected as U.S. President in 2024. If Donald Trump and Florida governor Ron DeSantis both run in 2024, they will split the Republican vote. Biden will win! I wouldn’t be surprised if President Joe Biden passes away during office, and then Kamala Harris will be U.S. President. That would be very unfortunate for America.

Mark my words that when we have a female president, this country will be much worse off when she leaves office. It is ludicrous to think that will all the decorated military veterans in the United States, that we have a woman for Vice President. it is horrible! Why not have a businessman as Vice President, who has run a multi-billion dollar company?

Kindly said, I am tired of seeing Hollywood actors elected to office. As California governor, Arnold Schwarzenegger was incompetent and ruined the state! I’m not saying that a women couldn’t lead better than some men. Clearly, some ladies could. It is simply unethical and unbiblical to hire or appoint women to positions of power, when there are perfectly capable men to do those jobs. Women belong at home raising children and being a wife. This is God's proper plan for every society.

What saith the Scripture? 1st Timothy 5:14-15, "I will therefore that the younger women marry, bear children, guide the house, give none occasion to the adversary to speak reproachfully. For some are already turned aside after Satan." The Bible teaches that career women have turned aside after Satan! The Devil's will for young women is to fornicate out of wedlock, get pregnant, thus ruining her life. Satan knows that introducing a young person to sexual immorality is the quickest way to destroy their future. That is why government public schools introduce impressionable children to sex at the earliest age, and then give them free condoms.

It is not a coincidence that interfacial relationships are deliberately being promoted by the Luciferian elite to Americans, which further advances the New World Order, by breaking down all walls of separation and segregation. ...

> "To achieve world government, it is necessary to remove from the minds of men their individualism, loyalty to family tradition, national patriotism, and religious dogmas." —[3]George Brock Chisholm, in a Speech given at the, Conference on Education, Asilomar, California, September 11, 1954

That is why the U.S. borders have been left open for the past 50 years, allowing 60,000,000 illegal immigrants to break the law to enter the country; thus further destroying our nation's sovereignty. A nation without borders ceases to be a country!

Sadly, most Americans either are woefully ignorant, know about these evil things but don't care, or know but feel helpless to change anything (which boat I am in). All I can do is be A VOICE for God against the Devil's New World Order. Part of my website ministry is exposing the falsehoods of the Devil's counterfeit Bible revisions, the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation, et cetera. The New World Order (NWO) is evil to the core! If you use any other English Bible than the inspired King James Bible, you are helping the NWO. If you support present-day manmade Israel, you are helping the NWO. If you support illegals flooding into the United States, you are helping the NWO.

Career women are not only destroying the United States, they are ruining their own lives. [4]According to 'Psychology Today', career women are the most miserable group in American society. What a shame! They are now in their forties and fifties, never been married, no children and will never have any grandchildren. They will be 60 years old and all alone, because feminists lied to them. Women's liberation is rebellion against God!!! Those rebellious females don't want equality, they want to be in charge! They want men's jobs and authority over men, which was the sin of Lucifer against God.

A godly woman knows her place in the grand scheme of things in God's plan. She knows that God created her to be a HELP MEET to her husband. She knows that God has blessed her with the heritage of children, and has entrusted her with teaching and training those children for Him, who were loaned to her by God. A godly woman knows that God has given her as a gift to her husband, to comfort and encourage and help him any way possible, without complaining or making his life difficult by opposing him all the time. Hundreds of millions of women are homewreckers, not homemakers. For this God will hold them accountable (Ecclesiastes 12:13-14; Romans 14:10-12). The Proverbs 31 Woman is an endangered species.

Children (youth) have become our oppressors. All across the United States, gangs of youth are terrorizing the nation. I just heard in the [5]news this week about a 12-year-old who robbed a store at gun point, with a loaded gun that he fired into the ceiling. Children are our oppressors, because we no longer teach them the Holy Bible in public schools. Instead, we wickedly indoctrinate them with the blatant false religion of evolution (which is solely based in bogus theories, not in facts or science). Clearly, the Devil controls the government and schools.

The issue is not over whether women can lead as well as men; but rather, should they be leading men? The Bible teaches that a woman's place is in the home. No creature made by God will ever be happy until it fulfills its purpose for being created. A bird cannot truly be happy that is locked in a cage. A fish cannot truly be happy trapped in an aquarium. And no woman can be happy who is trapped in a career, who has forfeit marriage and children to make money. The Devil is a beautiful liar!!! Please don't let feminists indoctrinate you with their rebellious ideologies. The happiest women are those who are fulfilling God's purpose as wives and mothers at home. ...

The inspired Holy Bible teaches that men are supposed to lead, not women. Men are supposed to wear the pants, not women. A woman's place is in the home. As the United States drifts farther away from the traditional nuclear family, and the LGBTQ community weave their perverse spiderweb (the homosexual deathstyle and unbiblical ideologies) into the minds of our youth, our nation is crumbling apart. Call me old-fashioned if you will, or a chauvinist hog, I am simply for the inspired Holy Bible. Isaiah 3:12, "As for my people, children are their oppressors, and women rule over them. O my people, they which lead thee cause thee to err, and destroy the way of thy paths."

4.4.20 Church Discipline Should Be A Matter Of Restoration (2023-04-23 20:11)

Galatians 6:1-3, “

Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, restore such an one in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted.

Bear ye one another’s burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ.

For if a man think himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself.”

The pastor of the church I am now attending, made a precious statement in his Sunday morning sermon today, that I have never heard any preacher say. He said that church discipline should be a matter of RESTORATION, not kicking people out of church. I love that truth!!!

Church discipline is literally a restoration process. It’s not removing somebody—it is literally wanting them to come back, trying to restore them back to the brethren, trying to bring them back into fellowship with Christians—that’s the point of church discipline.

That explains in a nutshell why I have been at war with the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam since 2014, and now Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College (PCC) since 2021. Instead of trying to work with me to restore our fellowship with one another, they just forced me out the door by mistreating me, and then banned me and threw me under the bus for dead. God will deal with those ungodly pastors who are respecters of men (James 2:1).

People just want to be loved. Sadly, they have so much money and power of influence over their people at PCC, that they have lost sight of the needs of individual people. I sure did need their love, understanding and help in 2021 and 2022, but they couldn't have cared less. Kindly said, Pastor Jeff Redlin is a little man who only cares about those he is paid to care about, which makes him a terrible pastor and a phony man of God. No man is worthy to be a pastor who doesn't unconditionally love people. It's just a damn job to him. Loving Jesus is not the test of our faith as believers, it is loving Judas Iscariot. Either you love everybody or else you love nobody! They are sinfully selective at PCC whom they care about.

The horrible pastors at the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, whose ringleader was Marty Herron (senior pastor from 1999 to 2018) refused to even talk with me. They forced me out of church for kindly showing them the errors of Lordship Salvation, the Devil's bibles and wrong repentance. When I started attending Harvest in 2014, I saw that they were a confused house. They had the King James Bible alongside the Devil's bibles. They had some free grace believers like me, while their unsaved senior pastor preached the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation.

I thought I was part of an imperfect church family, so I embraced that attitude. Unfortunately, when I tried to help them see THE TRUTH (as a true friend does), they killed the prophet and banned me from returning. I lost my church family, which felt like another divorce (my former wife abandoned me in 2006). I went into a deep depression and didn't go to church for years because of Marty Herron and his accomplices, for which they will give account to God. My blood is upon their cruel neo-evangelical hands.

In 2018, Gary Walton became the new senior pastor at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, who also threw me under the bus, backing up over me a few times to make sure I was dead. He wouldn't even talk with me. I took my own money and purchased 3-year Sword Of The Lord subscriptions for both Marty Herron, and then later for his successor, Gary Walton. I took my own money and shipped 500 Gospels of John to Harvest Baptist Church on Guam—two different orders to both pastors, years apart, just to show them my sincerity of heart, love and willingness to reconcile and make peace, just so I could have a church family. They never thanked me, didn't care and wouldn't even acknowledge me as a hurting human being. Thankfully, our great God sees (Hebrews 4:13).

Again, in hindsight, I never should have tried to go back to that mess. After my former wife abandoned and then divorced me in 2006, my life went sideways and still hasn't recovered. The silver-lining in it all has been that my wonderful God continues to use a broken sinner like me to help feed Jesus' sheep, and rescue others with the broken pieces of my life. To God be the glory, great things He is doing! One of my favorite MP3 sermons by Pastor Jack Hyles is titled, what else?... "[1]Some On Broken Pieces." Daniel 11:33a, "And they that understand among the people shall instruct many..."

I begged to come back for 7 long lonely years, but they refused. That is hatred, not God's compassion and love. All they had to do was come across the street and talk with me, seeing that they were my neighbours. They refused to even wave back at me for 7 years. Marty Herron wouldn't even try to reconcile with me, so that I could just attend church again. In hindsight I now realize that it was best that I didn't go back (lest I be corrupted), and perhaps God was protecting me all along. 2nd Corinthians 6:17b doesn't say try to change a corrupt institution or church, the Bible says to "come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord..." Loneliness has made it difficult for me to think clearly over the years, often seeking love in all the wrong places, like Johnny Lee's popular country song called: "[2]Looking For Love In All The Wrong Places." Neo-evangelical Lordship-Salvation-preaching Baptist churches is not the place to find love.

So I didn't go to church for all those many lonely years. My church family ostracized me because their rotten selfish pastors told them to avoid me, and everybody else did too. Guam is a small island. Those wicked pastors didn't want to seek restoration, because they just didn't like nor want me in their church cult, which is shameful and sinful. My blood is on their hands. People just want to be loved. Jeremiah 10:21, "For the pastors are become brutish [lacking good sense], and have not sought the LORD: therefore they shall not prosper, and all their flocks shall be scattered."

The same is true of Pastor Jeff Redlin, and his sidekick Timothy Zacharias at PCC, who refuse to seek restoration with me. They wanted me gone, so they axed me like a turkey on Thanksgiving Day. They refuse to even speak with me. I gave them my mobile phone number, email and mailing address, but they are too sinfully proud to seek peace in this matter. Evidently they'd rather be enemies and have me preach against the ungodly PCC camp, so I will do that for the rest of my life on earth, God willing. I am in the same boat as Samantha Field, victims of PCC's hatred and bigotry.

So by God's grace I will help fight with Samantha to expose the rotten hateful cult at Pensacola Christian College (PCC), until they seek restoration. Samantha is hurting. I don't believe for one second that she is a queer, as she claims. I think PCC deeply wounded her and that is what she wants the world to see—a homosexual graduate of PCC! But even if she is a homosexual, I am her friend in her cause against PCC, who abuse and ostracize hurting people like us. Jesus called Judas, "Friend." Christ died for the ungodly!

At PCC, you are only welcome if you idolize and submit to their arrogant self-willed leaders, who do not posses God's unconditional love. As a divorced man (since 2006), I was mistreated, wounded and shunned by Pastor Jeff Redlin in 2021, and the cowards at PCC stood idle and did nothing when I pleaded to come back to Campus Church in 2022, just like they did nothing to help Samantha in her suffering, wounds and pain. At PCC the cult system always comes first, individual people do not matter.

God knows that I am not trying to be a troublemaker. Wicked king Ahab accused the prophet Elijah of causing trouble. 1st Kings 18:17-18, "And it came to pass, when Ahab saw Elijah, that Ahab said unto him, Art thou he that troubleth Israel? And he answered, I have not troubled Israel; but thou, and thy father's house, in that ye have forsaken the commandments of the LORD, and thou hast followed Baalim." Elijah simply told THE TRUTH, for which he was falsely accused of being a troublemaker. The same wicked type of shameful pastors today wrongly accuse me of causing trouble, but I have only TOLD THE TRUTH.

God knows my humble heart, that I truly want to be friends with these pastors, but they don't want to be friends. I think God doesn't want me to be corrupted by them. They are arrogant, high-minded and have huge egos. I am just a humble broken sinner wanting to be loved in my suffering. I am very lonely, since my beloved wife abandoned and divorced me in 2006. I have tried to find a wife for the past 10 years, to no avail. I suffer from constant chronic neck pain, burning nerves, numbness in my left leg, the right side of my body feeling half asleep all the time, and radiating pain in my arms and legs. This is the consequence of a series of accidents and failed surgeries.

Truly, I am thankful to God for my remaining health and have no complaints. [3]A lot of people have it worse than I do. I survive in constant relentless agonizing toothache-like neck pain. I wish all those hateful pastors who refuse to allow me to attend church, could feel my pain of body and soul. They are so cruel and selfish! They have never truly suffered a day in their life, so they have no humility, although they are in denial and falsely think they do. THEY DON'T! They haven't a clue what it means to really suffer, I mean, for decades. They are spoiled rotten, receiving praise from their thousands of brainwashed cult followers, getting paid a sickening 6-digit annual salary (three to four times more than what the average U.S. citizen is paid annually). America is going to Hell because of bad pastors!

Church discipline should be a matter of RESTORATION, not kicking people out of church. Shame on the pastor and church congregation who are quick to show people the door and kick them out. The Bible says in our text passage to have a spirit of meekness and humility toward fallen brothers and sisters, while we work and pray to RESTORE THEM to fellowship with the local church. Oh, how we need this in churches today!

I remember when Garret Kirchway, Pastor Steven Anderson's former assistant pastor, was discovered in the church going behind the pastor's back, teaching the heresy of Modalism, which denies the Godhead (aka, Trinity). Pastor Anderson didn't just fire and kick him out the door. Brother Anderson talked with Garret and gave him a chance to repent of his false doctrine, but Kirchway refused. So Pastor Anderson did the only thing that he could do, with which I agree 100 %, he fired him. But Pastor Anderson tried to restore Garret, who is NOT a born again Christian. No one is saved who, having been shown the truth of the Godhead from the Scriptures, still denies the Trinity. Modalism is of the Devil. Modalism errantly teaches that God wears many hats (i.e., goes into different modes, hence, Modalism). Modalists believe that when a saint gets to Heaven, we will only see God the Father, and not Jesus. Colossians 3:1 refutes Modalism, teaching that God the Father and God the Son sit upon separate thrones.

Regarding my website ministry, I have received countless emails in recent years from hurting people who have been either kicked out of their local church, were mistreated by their pastor, or told to go see a psychiatrist or just go away. Only carnally-minded pastors mistreat people like that. I love the Gospel hymn which has the lyrics: “He [Jesus] looked beyond my faults and saw my need.” Yes Sir! That’s the answer! That is what we need today—pastors and church members who look beyond people’s faults and instead see their needs, so that we will tolerate their unpleasantries and in a spirit of meekness and humility try to restore them.

> Galatians 6:1-3, “Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, restore such an one in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted. Bear ye one another’s burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ. For if a man think himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself.”

Samantha Field is hurting deep in her heart of hearts. PCC is shunning her, just as they are shunning me too! Campus Church pastors and PCC leaders are full of sinful pride. Church discipline is a matter of restoration, not throwing people under the bus like Pensacola Christian College and their Campus Church have done to me and Samantha. SHAME on Harvest Baptist Church on Guam! SHAME on Campus Church and PCC! People just want to be loved.

4.4.21 Is Abraham's Bosom A Strange Doctrine? (2023-04-26 10:53)

Luke 16:22, "And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels into Abraham's bosom : the rich man also died, and was buried."

There is much debate in churches today, particularly Baptist churches, concerning where the saints went after they died in the Old Testament.

Scholars like Dr. John R. Rice (1895-1980) believed that the saints went straight to Heaven.

Other Biblical scholars, like Dr. Oliver B. Greene (1915-1976) believed that the Old Testament saints weren't allowed into Heaven yet, because Jesus hadn't died on the cross yet.

Instead, the saints went to place called “Paradise” (or, “Abraham’s Bosom” as it is often referred). This is based upon the Lord’s promise to the repentant thief on the cross in Luke 23:43, “And Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, To day shalt thou be with me in paradise.” If Jesus meant Heaven, it would seem logical that He would have said Heaven, but He said Paradise.

However, we also read in 2nd Corinthians 12:4, “How that he was caught up into paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter.” The apostle Paul said that He was CAUGHT UP into Paradise. That would certainly seem to indicate Heaven, which is always thought of in terms of being upward from the earth. And that would make sense, because Jesus had ALREADY died on the cross, risen and ascended into Heaven. So now Paradise was transferred from Hades to Heaven, which is what Dr. Merrill Unger teaches in his Unger’s Bible Dictionary. Also, Halley’s Bible Handbook teaches Abraham’s bosom (Paradise).

’Unger’s Bible Dictionary’ Teaches OT Saints Went to Paradise

Here’s what Dr. Merrill Unger teaches about Abraham’s Bosom:

> “The Rich Man and Lazarus, Luke 16:19-31.
> This is not a parable, but an actual historical illustration, also aimed at the sneering, unbelieving, self-righteous, Pharisees. They boasted in their alleged law-keeping (cf. 15-17), and considered their wealth, which they covetously garnered, as evidence of this. Jesus proved the fallacy of this reasoning. The rich man’s great wealth was, on the contrary, not the evidence of divine favor, for he went to hell (Hades, Sheol, Intermediate abode of departed human spirits between death and the resurrection). Lazarus, a penniless beggar, nevertheless went to ’Abraham’s bosom,’ 22, i.e., paradise, where the souls of all OT saved went. He had no chance to make friends for himself by using ’the mammon of unrighteousness’ (Jesus epithet for money), so as to welcome him to the ’everlasting habitations’ (Heaven) (cf. 9). Yet he was there! And between him and the rich man was an impassable gulf, separating the lost from the saved. Let the covetous Pharisees take warning!”

Jesus assured the repentant thief on the cross with a promise, that they would both be in PARADISE that very day. Luke 23:43, “And Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, To day shalt thou be with me in paradise.” How can this refer to Heaven, since Christ had not yet died, been buried, raised up, nor sprinkled His liquid blood upon the heavenly Mercy Seat?

Pastor J. Vernon McGee Teaches Old Testament Saints Went to Paradise

I have always been a big fan and admirer of the man of God, Pastor J. Vernon McGee (1904-1988). Dr. McGee believed and taught the doctrine of Abraham’s Bosom, which you can [1]freely hear for yourself in this link to MP3’s of the complete ’THRU THE BIBLE’ 5-year series by Pastor McGee. Please listen to the MP3’s for Luke 16:19-31 about the rich man and Lazarus.

> John 3:13, “And no man hath ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man which is in heaven.”

Here is a wonderful explanation of John 3:13 by the great man of God, Pastor J. Vernon McGee (1904-1988):

> And now He says, "No man hath ascended up to heaven." That is the answer to those today who feel that Elijah and Enoch went to heaven when they were translated. I don’t think so because up to this point the Lord Jesus says that no man hath ascended up to heaven, but He that came down from heaven, even the Son of Man which is in heaven. In other words, He is saying that He is the only One who can speak about heaven because He is the only One who has ascended up to heaven. Now it is true that there are a host of folk who have gone to heaven after Christ, but in the Old Testament, when a saint of God died, one of God’s own, he went to a place that is called Paradise or Abraham’s Bosom—our Lord called it that (see Luke 16:22). It was not until after Christ died and ascended to heaven and led captivity captive that He took those who were in Paradise into the presence of God in heaven. Since then, for the child of God, it has always been "… absent from the body … present with the Lord" (2 Cor. 5:8). But when Jesus was here, no other man had ascended to heaven.

I am inclined to agree with Dr. McGee’s teachings concerning Paradise. For an excellent detailed explanation of Hell, please read the free online book [2]A Biblical Examination of Hell by Pastor Max D. Younce.

Psalms 16:10, “For thou wilt not leave my soul in hell; neither wilt thou suffer thine Holy One to see corruption.” Death is separation from God. Unsaved people are spiritually dead while they live, because they are separated from God. Now there is a second death, which is separation from God for all eternity. If you are not saved, you are already dead in trespasses and sins (Ephesians 2:1-2). If you die in your sins, in your spiritually dead condition, there is no place for you to go except Hell (Greek: Hades). You will die the second death, which is the Lake of Fire (Greek: Gehenna). Revelation 20:15 teaches that death and Hades will one day be cast into Gehenna (the Lake of Fire). Revelation 20:14, “And death and hell (Hades) were cast into the lake of fire (Gehenna). This is the second death.”

This is a hotly debated issue in our churches today (and has been for centuries).

Luke 16 is perhaps the clearest Biblical account of what happens when a person dies. In Luke 16:22-23 we read, “And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels into Abraham’s bosom: the rich man also died, and was buried; And in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments...” So there you see where the idea of Abraham’s bosom comes from. We learn from this fascinating passage of Scripture that the believer in Christ is escorted by angels at death to a place of peace. In my humble opinion, to be carried to Abraham’s bosom simply meant that when a saint died in the Old Testament, the angels carried them to the same place where Abraham lived, in Paradise. That is what the Bible says, Jesus went to Paradise (Luke 23:43). The Bible also says that Jesus went to Hell (Acts 2:27-32). The only sensible deduction is that Paradise must be in Hell, and the place of Torment is on the other side of Hell, with a great gulf fixed between. This is exactly what we learn in Luke 16:19-31. So why should “Abraham’s bosom” (i.e., Paradise) be such a difficult doctrine to accept?

Tragically, we also learn that the unbeliever goes straight to a place of torment. “Abraham’s bosom” is another term for the Old Testament place called Paradise. Hell (Hebrew: Sheol, Greek: Hades) is located inside the earth. It is believed by most theologians that Hades is compartmentalized into two distinct places: Paradise and Torment.

> “No one’s ever saved by cheap grace, they’re saved by priceless amazing grace! We have a miracle salvation provided and preserved by God Himself. Let’s give out the Good News of this salvation, simply and faithfully for His glory. Salvation is not cheap. God sent His Son to pay for our sins. It wasn’t cheap—very expensive—He just made it free. 4.4.22 The Eternal Security Of The Christian Believer (2023-04-27 09:26)

John 10:25-30, “ Jesus answered them, I told you, and ye believed not: the works that I do in my Father’s name, they bear witness of me.

But ye believe not, because ye are not of my sheep, as I said unto you.

My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me:

And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand.

My Father, which gave them me, is greater than all; and no man is able to pluck them out of my Father’s hand.

I and my Father are one. **”

Is the person who puts his faith in Jesus Christ eternally secure? Yes, dear reader, they are! Believers have (present tense) eternal life! Here are two wonderful Bible studies from one of my favorite Bible preachers, [1]Dr. Curtis Hutson (1934-1995).I love this dear saint of God. The Lord took Brother Hutson home in 1995 from prostrate cancer. I thank God for a simple country boy Curtis Hutson, whom God used to turn many lost sinners to the righteousness of God by faith (Daniel 12:3)....

- [2]ETERNAL SECURITY - PART ONE
- [3]ETERNAL SECURITY - PART TWO

These two Bible studies are the best I’ve heard , hands down! I hope that you will take the time to listen to them. John 10:28,

“

And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand.

” A skeptic of eternal security once said that the Bible doesn’t say you cannot get out of God’s hand. As a rule you don’t base doctrine on what the Bible does NOT say, but upon what the Bible does say! The Bible says that no man can pluck us out of God’s hand.

1. God Purposed Eternal Life. 2nd Timothy 1:9, “Who hath saved us, and called us with an holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began,” Acts 13:48, “And when the Gentiles heard this, they were glad, and glorified the word of the Lord: and as many as were ordained to eternal life believed.” They were ordained unto eternal life. This does not mean God predestinates anyone to salvation. The Bible never says that God predestinates people to salvation; but rather, believers are predestinated to be conformed into the image of Christ (Romans 8:29). God knows who will be saved (by our own freewill, not prechosen), and He predestinates those saints to ultimately be conformed into Jesus’ holy character (which is sanctification).
2. God Promised Eternal Life. John 3:14-16, “And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up: That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life. For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.” There might be some doubt about what God meant, but there is no doubt about what He said. God said that whosoever believes on His only begotten Son has everlasting life. Titus 1:2, “In hope of eternal life, which God, that cannot lie, promised before the world began;” 1st John 2:25, “And this is the promise that he hath promised us, even eternal life.”
3. God Produced Eternal Life. 1st John 5:10-11, “He that believeth on the Son of God hath the witness in himself: he that believeth not God hath made him a liar; because he believeth not the record that God gave of his Son. And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son.” John 5:24, “Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life.” We are not going to have everlasting life someday, we already have it right now! 1st John 5:13, "These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God."

4. Believer's Have Precisely What God Purposed, Promised And Produced.

I read this amazing Bible verse the other day. Daniel 11:33, "

And they that understand among the people shall instruct many: yet they shall fall by the sword, and by flame, by captivity, and by spoil, many days. " I am just a humble sinner. I don't profess to know everything, I certainly don't. Albeit, I have been greatly blessed by God, since I got saved at age 13, to be introduced and taught by some of the greatest men of God; namely, Jack Hyles, Curtis Hutson, Max D. Younce, J. Vernon McGee, A. Ray Stanford, Lee Roberson, Hank Lindstrom, Mark G. Cambron, Harry A. Ironside, Ralph Yankee Arnold and John R. Rice, to name the major influences upon my life and doctrine.

Is the person who puts his faith in Jesus Christ eternally secure? Yes, dear reader, we are!

Here are some important observations on eternal security made by Dr. Curtis Hutson:

1. God makes His promise of eternal security doubly sure. John 10:28, "And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand." Here we see double security—not only shall we never perish, but also no man can ever pluck us out of God's hand. Likewise in John 5:24, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life." Not only is the man who believes promised everlasting life, but also, he shall never come into condemnation, he is passed from death unto life. Amen and amen!

2. Jesus is the Author and Finisher of our faith. Hebrews 12:2, "Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God." The Lord will begin what He has started. Philippians 1:6, "Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ:"

3. We are saved by God's grace, not our own works. Ephesians 2:8-9, "For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God:

   Not of works, lest any man should boast."

4. Believers are kept by God. If we as saints had to keep ourselves saved, we would all be lost 10,000 times a day. My life is hid with Christ in God. Colossians 3:3, "For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God." Think of this truth as 3 barrels. God the Father is the biggest barrel. Jesus is the medium-sized barrel. The born again child of God is the small barrel inside the two bigger barrels. In order for the Devil to get to the smallest barrel, he must first break through the biggest barrel, and then the medium-sized barrel. We are safe in God the Father and His dear only begotten Son, Jesus.

5. We have an inheritance in Heaven. 1st Peter 1:4-6, "To an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you, Who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. Wherein ye greatly rejoice, though now for a season, if need be, ye are in heaviness through manifold temptations:" Would God reserve something in Heaven for you, if there was any doubt whether or not you were going to go to Heaven? The fact that the Lord is reserving something for you, indicates that He knows you are going to Heaven. Would that make any sense? No, it would not. We have an inheritance reserved for us in Heaven, and God is reserving us for our inheritance. We're not kept by our own power; We are kept by the power of God! What an awesome Savior!!!

6. Jesus prays for our security. John 17:11 and 20, " And now I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to thee. Holy Father, keep through thine own name those whom thou hast given me*, that they may be one, as we are. ...Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word;"* Here we see that Jesus is not only praying for those who were alive and trusting Him at the time, but also those in the future who will believe upon Him. Jesus prays for our security! If the Father always hears the prayer of Jesus, and Jesus has already prayed for His Father to keep us, then the Father Has to keep us (and He has promised to keep us). Hebrews 7:25, "Wherefore he is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them." Jesus prays for our security.

7. The Holy Spirit seals the believer. Ephesians 4:30, "And grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption." The "day of redemption" here refers to the Rapture, when our mortal bodies will be changed into an immortal body, fashioned like unto the Lord's resurrected perfect body (Philippians 3:21). Ephesians 1:13-14, "In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise*, Which is the earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory."* If a believer could ever be lost, it would mean that Jesus would speak falsely at the judgment.

8. The Lord knows who are His. 2nd Timothy 2:19, "Nevertheless the foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his*. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity." John 10:27, "My sheep hear my voice, and* I know them*, and they follow me:"* How does this passage compare to Matthew 7:22-23, Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you*: depart from me, ye that work iniquity."* If Jesus at some future point were to ever say: "I never knew you," to someone who had previously been saved, but then lost salvation, Christ would be lying. Jesus could say: "I once knew you, but then you were lost," but He would be a liar to say "I never knew you." Dear reader, the Bible is abundantly clear that salvation can NEVER be lost.

9. If a lost sinner could ever be saved but then lost, it would make the sinners better than Christians in some respects. Many skeptics of eternal life use Hebrews chapter 6 to justify their false doctrine. *Hebrews 6:4-6, "For it is impossible for those who were once enlightened, and have tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Ghost, And have tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the world to come,* If they shall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance*; seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame."* For someone who errantly thinks that if they get saved, but then lose their salvation, they can never get it back, they won't want to get saved until their death bed. According to their flawed understanding, it would be better to never have been saved at all, then to get saved by lose it. Dear friend, it should be clear to you how silly the idea is that you can be saved, but then lose it somehow. The Holy Bible teaches: IF SAVED, ALWAYS SAVED!!!

10. If you could lose salvation by sinning, how much sin would you have to commit to lose it? No one can answer this question. The truth is that a man is not lost by the number of sins he commits, but by the nature of sin. Sin is rebellion! Sin is self will! Sin is going away from God. Isaiah 53:6, "All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the LORD hath laid on him the iniquity of us all." The emphasis in Isaiah 53:6 is not where you went, but what you went away from. Sin is sin! If you had to pay for even one of your sins, you'd have to be cast into Hell and burn forever (James 2:10; Revelation 29:11-15).

Here are some of my own observations regarding eternal security:

1. There are no examples in the Bible of anyone who lost salvation. Search the Scriptures and you will see, that no one ever lost God's free gift of eternal life. Some saints sinned so woefully, like Samson and King Saul, that it cost them their earthly life, but there are no recorded incidents of any saint losing salvation.

2. King David lost the "joy" of God's salvation, not salvation itself. *Psalms 51:3-4 and 12, "For I acknowledge my transgressions: and my sin is ever before me. Against thee, thee only, have I sinned, and done this evil in thy sight: that thou mightest be justified when thou speakest, and be clear when thou judgest. ...Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation; and uphold me with thy free spirit."* David had lusted upon Bathsheba as she bathed on the roof. I do not think for one second that she didn't know exactly what she was doing. I am fully convinced that she put on a naked show for David, knowing that the king might be looking from his palace rooftop (and he was). Women have a sixth sense about this kind of stuff!

   Long story short, David commit adultery together with her and she became pregnant, which David didn't intend. David ended up deciding to murder Bathsheba's husband, Uriah, to hide his sins with Uriah's wife. If anyone ever had a reason to lose salvation, it was David for what he did. Yet, the Bible in Psalm chapter 51 records his prayer of repentance to God (this was actually a song which the Jews sang, strangely enough... lol). David asked God to restore "the joy of thy salvation" (verse 12). I love what Evangelist Luke Bishop said: "You can live it UP, but you cannot live it DOWN!"

   David lived it up in sin with Bathsheba for a short time, but then paid for it dearly for the rest of his miserable life on earth. His family fell to pieces. David's kingdom was torn away from him by Absalom, his own rebellious angry son. David's half-children children raped and murdered one another, resenting their father's sin and hypocrisy. Ahithophel, David's most trusted advisor, joined with Absalom in the rebellion against David. It is obvious to understand why when you learn that Ahithophel was Bathsheba's grandfather! Oh, how sin weaves its ugly thread. The Devil's apples all have worms! Satan is a beautiful liar. Sin thrills and then it kills. Sin fascinates and then it assassinates. The middle letter in the word "sin" is "i." Just like the Devil, we all have "i." problems! Isaiah 14:13-14, "For thou hast said in thine heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God: I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north: I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the most High." Five times in these two Old Testament verses we find Satan putting himself before God. David got his priorities wrong and it led to sin. The guilty king lost the joy of his sweet fellowship with the Lord for several months, but he never lost free gift of God's salvation, which is by faith alone.

3. Just like the first physical birth, the new spiritual birth is irreversible. Just as the first physical birth cannot be undone, neither can the second spiritual birth be undone.

Jesus said: "Ye must be born again" in John 3:3b. He didn't say that you have to be reborn again and again. Not one verse in the Holy Bible says anything about losing one's salvation, or of needing to be reborn again and again into God's family. Jesus plainly said in John 5:24, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life*."* The moment that you come to God as a guilty sinner, and put your childlike trust in the 'GOOD NEWS' (Gospel) that Jesus is the only begotten Son of God—the buried and risen Christ who died on a cross to pay for your sins, you are forever saved. Nothing more is required or allowed by God. If you're born twice you die once, if you're born once you die twice. It is that simple friend.

4. If salvation could ever be lost, then it is dependent upon our faithfulness, which means God owes us a debt. Romans 4:4-5, "Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt*. But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness."*

It is my hope, pray and privilege for God to use a broken humble sinner like me to help teach others for Christ. There is much heresy on social media; such as the lie that God's free gift of salvation can be lost, or must be maintained to stay saved. The Bible teaches: ONCE SAVED, ALWAYS SAVED (OSAS). To God alone be ALL the praise, credit and glory.

4.4.23 What Does James Mean By "The Devils Also Believe"? (2023-04-27 21:28)

James 2:15-20, "If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food, And one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be ye warmed and filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body; what doth it profit? Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being alone. Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith without thy works, and I will shew thee my faith by my works. Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: the devils also believe, and tremble. But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead?"

When interpreting any particular passage of Scripture, the worst thing we can do is lift the text our of context to create a new pretext. That is, teaching something that the Bible does not teach. This is what some in the New IFB have done with Romans 10:13, basing their heresy that you cannot be saved without praying to be saved. They lifted this one verse out of context, while ignoring the entire Gospel of John. In John we find the word "believe" mentioned 85 times, without any requirement to "pray" to be saved. Faith is enough. We are saved by receiving Christ, not by praying (John 1:12-13).

My humble opinion of James 2:19 is this. First, let me quote the passage. James 2:15-20, "If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food, And one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be ye warmed and filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body; what doth it profit? Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being alone. Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith without thy works, and I will shew thee my faith by my works. Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: the devils also believe, and tremble. But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead?"

The Apostle James says that if you have food and housing, and a brother in Christ comes to you asking for food or a place to stay, but you don't help him, you have a poor testimony as a child of God. When I attended Campus Church on July 4th, 2021 at the church picnic and told Pastor Jeff Redlin that I was homeless, sleeping in Walmart's parking lot, he couldn't have cared less. Pastor Redlin could have easily helped me, with all their resources at PCC. There were several hundred church members present that day at their 4th of July picnic. He could have made a simple phone call for someone to put me up for the night.

I didn't ask nor expect his help, but in hindsight he should and could have helped me. I saw the startled look on his face when I kindly told him that I was homeless, so I know that he heard me. PCC has thousands of empty dorm rooms during the summer.

Pastor Redlin cruelly walked away, because he didn't care, which is exactly what James is talking about here. When you have the ability and opportunity to help a hurting Christian brother, but you don't, you don't have God's love or compassion, and you have a horrible Christian testimony!

Anyway, the Apostle James goes on to say that your testimony is only as good as your works as a saint. The issue here is NOT salvation. In the Epistle of Romans, the Apostle Paul speaks of being justified in the eyes of God BY FAITH (Romans 4:1-7). However, the Apostle James in speaking about being justified in the eyes of men, BY WORKS.

So James says that if you see a brother in need, and you refuse to help him (like Pastor Redlin refused to help me in 2021 and still today), your testimony is tarnished because of your lack of good deeds (works). Matthew 5:16, "Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven." When we don't do the right thing as believers, we become toxic to those around us (Hebrews 12:14-15).

So James uses the fallen angels as an example of having a poor testimony. They also believe in God, but tremble in fear knowing that the time of their judgment is coming. Again, the issue here is NOT salvation, it is how we choose to live as believers. James says, "Look, even the devils profess faith in God, but look at how evil they are, phonies. And likewise when you fail to love and help your Christian brother in need, you are no better than the demons. You are a phony too!"

To properly interpret this passage, you need to understand that everything James is saying is premised upon a Christian brother who refuses to help another Christian brother in need. Read the passage again and you will see. This passage of Scripture has Pastor Jeff Redlin's name written all over it. When I asked and needed his help, he just walked away. And now that I have been pleading just to attend Campus Church, he still cruelly refuses. The guy won't even communicate with me, because he is a rich man full of sinful pride and arrogance.

What does that say about him? It plainly says that he is no better than the demons, who believe in God but do evil, trembling in fear in their rebellion

I humbly think this passage in James chapter 2 is all about being justified in the sight of men, not God. What saith the Scripture? 1st Samuel 16:7, "But the LORD said unto Samuel, Look not on his countenance, or on the height of his stature; because I have refused him: for the LORD seeth not as man seeth; for man looketh on the outward appearance, but the LORD looketh on the heart." Do you see? The Lord seeth not as man seeth. The Bible says man looks on THE OUTWARD APPEARANCE, but the Lord looks upon THE HEART. It is because men cannot see our heart that they judge us by our WORKS.

Clear evidence of this is James' own words in James 2:18, "Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith without thy works, and I will shew thee my faith by my works." Notice that James says "□□□□ □□" and I will "□□□□ □□□□." James is speaking about being justified by works in men's sight, not God's.

Genesis 4:9, "

And the LORD said unto Cain, Where is Abel thy brother? And he said, I know not: Am I my brother's keeper?" Yes, Cain, you are your brother's keeper. The 1960's singing group, The Hollies, had it right in their popular song: "

He Ain't Heavy, He's My Brother

"...

It is so sad that the secular world understands the importance of looking out for each other, and carrying one another’s burdens when we are down and needy, while many shameful independent Baptist pastors throw hurting people under the bus. Shame on Marty Herron, Joe Hensen, Jared Baldwin, Gary Walton and the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, for ostracizing and banning me from attending church for 7 long years (2014 to 2021). I finally moved 9,000 miles away from Guam to Pensacola, Florida in 2021.

Shame on Pensacola Christian College (PCC) and Campus Church. I chose to attend Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College (PCC). Sadly, I learned when I attended PCC’s Campus Church that they are in bed spiritually fornicating with the Bob Jones University (BJU) cult on Guam at Harvest. It is WICKEDNESS!!! [1]BJU today preaches hardcore Lordship Salvation! Birds of a feather flock together. SHAME on PCC!!! At PCC their Christian brother is too heavy to carry, so they just left me for dead. They have huge egos at PCC, which means only God can humble them. PCC is as the Laodicean church in Revelation 3:15-17, whom the Lord called “lukewarm.” PCC is neither hot nor cold.

They think they are prospering at PCC, but the Lord knows that they are wretched, miserable, poor, blind and naked. ...

> Revelation 3:15-17, “I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot. So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth. Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked:”

Pastor Redlin mistreated me as a hurting divorced person, made insensitive remarks in front of his wife one Sunday morning, and made me feel like garbage. When I humbly emailed Pastor Redlin to let him know that he made me “feel like garbage,” his cruel reply was: “That is your reality.” He might as well have said: “You feel like garbage because you are garbage!” Campus Church needs a MUCH better pastor, one who actually walks with God and loves people with God’s unconditional love. There is no compassion at PCC. Read what their own alumni are negatively saying about PCC....

This is what the inspired Word of God is condemning in James 2:15-21, throwing your brother under the bus when he needs your compassion and help. Where dwelleth the love of God? It is tragic that the cult system always comes first at PCC, but individual people do not matter. Dear friend, people just want to be loved. When Judas betrayed the dear Savior to be crucified, the first thing Jesus said to him was: “Friend” (Matthew 26:50b). The test of our Christian character is not whether we love Jesus, but do we love Judas Iscariot? Either you love everyone, or else you love no one!

> “There are a lot of people tat just need somebody to care. That’s all! A warm hand—listen—You’ll never know. You’ll never know in your life, how hard it is for somebody that’s gone into deep sin, to come back to church and get right! You’ll never know!” —Pastor Jack Hyles, a precious quote from the great MP3 sermon, "[2]A Smoking Flax Shall He Not Quench" (preached in 1986)

I truly wish that the unloving, cold and uncompassionate pastors and leaders at Pensacola Christian College (PCC) would learn this important truth. They are blinded by their worldly success, having more money and people they they need, which has hardened their hearts at PCC.

One of the hardest things for a newcomer to any church is just taking the first step to go there. I was nervous and felt like a fish out of water the first week that I attended Campus Church at PCC in July of 2021.

Sadly, Pastor Redlin scolded me 2 days after I first met him, for kindly mentioning that as a divorced man for 15 years, I finally hoped to move on with my life and find a wife at Campus Church. That is a bad pastor!

Mr. Redlin never once told me that he cared about me. He never offered to pray with me, nor did he tell me that he was praying for me. Jeff never told me once over several months that God loves me, or that I am welcomed at Campus Church. He never said he was glad that I came to their church. Redlin never showed any compassion or regard for the stenosis and radiculitis in my spinal cord, which afflicts me with neck and body pain, radiating pain in my arms and legs, causes both arms to feel inflated with air all the time, and incessant burning nerves 24/7. I kindly told Pastor Redlin of my health afflictions, but he didn’t care one bit. Jeff Redlin was brash, insensitive and unkind, just like the Devil.

Pastor Redlin didn’t care about me as a hurting human being, and shamefully he still doesn’t care, even though I have pleaded with him and PCC, for their love and help. All I want is to come to Campus Church! Is that so much to ask? Yes, their brother is too heavy to bear at PCC and Campus Church. What ungodly religious hypocrites!!! The problem goes much deeper than just a coldhearted, carnal and uncompassionate pastor at PCC, it indicts the entire PCC camp because they all sanction this type of unchristian hatred, mistreatment and arrogant pride. I know God will be their Judge, but someone needs to expose the abusive culture at PCC, so others will steer clear of going to their cult. Any so-called "church" that bans people from coming to church is a CULT!

I want to repeat the precious earlier quote again, because it is so true and needful in churches today...

> “There are a lot of people that just need somebody to care. That’s all! A warm hand—listen—You’ll never know. You’ll never know in your life, how hard it is for somebody that’s gone into deep sin, to come back to church and get right! You’ll never know!” —Pastor Jack Hyles

And so, I have elaborated on James chapter 2, relating it to my own life. PCC sees my need, but I am too heavy for them to bear enough to allow me just to attend church services. Yet those stiff-necked hypocrites will sit there and sing religious songs, play church, and never give a second thought about me (their needy brother) that they just flushed down the toilet. Real great testimonies at PCC, huh? This is what the Apostle condemned in James 2:15-21, not loving and having compassion on one another. Did not our blessed Savior make a big deal of loving one another? Yes, Jesus sure did! ...

> John 13:34, "A new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another."
>
> John 15:12, "This is my commandment, That ye love one another, as I have loved you."
> John 15:17, "These things I command you, that ye love one another."

There is no love or compassion for hurting people at Campus Church or PCC, there is only strict rules, rules and more rules. The system always comes first at PCC, individual people do not matter. People just want to be loved. The problem is not that Campus Church is TOO BIG, but that Pastor Jeff Redlin's heart is TOO SMALL.

Most Bible students read James 2:18-21 without ever paying attention to verses 15 and 16 to get the context of this passage. James is making all these statements to elaborate on helping our Christian brother in need. Please don't miss the great heart of God in this passage. If we fail to have compassion on one another, and don't love each other with the same love wherewith Christ loves us, then we are just like the phony devils, who believe in God but do evil. John 15:12b, "That ye love one another, as I have loved you."

I'm thinking that you've probably never heard James chapter 2 interpreted this way before, but you can read it for yourself. In verses 15 and 16, James says that if you see your Christian brother in need and you fail to help him, your don't have good works to validate your faith in the sight of your fellow human neighbours. Your faith is dead. It is faith (meaning you are saved), but your faith is lifeless, your Christian testimony is dead and ineffective for God. You are just like the fallen angels, who believe in God but have no works.

James is not relating carnal saints to the damnation of the fallen angels; but rather, to their hypocrisy. This is what I humbly believe James is teaching. How is your testimony dear reader? What do people say about you? Your reputation is what men know about you; your character is what God knows about you. Thank you for reading my blogs. Jesus is precious!!!

4.4.24 The Way Someone Treats You Reveals Their Heart; The Way You Respond Reveals Yours (2023-04-29 13:01)

Matthew 5:43-46, " Ye have heard that it hath been said, Thou shalt love thy neighbour, and hate thine enemy. But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you; That ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven: for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust. For if ye love them which love you, what reward have ye? do not even the publicans the same? "

It is in our carnal nature to respond with hatred to those who hate us. It is natural to dislike people who dislike us, and to like those who do like us. Dear reader, that is so shallow! In our tremendous text passage of Scripture, our dear Savior Himself instructs us to be better than the average bear. Jesus Christ wants us to bless those who curse us, pray for those who despitefully use us, and to love those who hate us.

People Will Hurt Us

People equal pain! Sadly, life is about people hurting people. You can try to deny that, but it is nevertheless very true. I don't care who you are, you've been hurt by people, likely many times. Sometimes people don't intend to hurt our feelings, but they do anyway. It is our differences as human beings that cause conflicts. What we say in sincerity, may be taken the wrong way by someone else which deeply hurts their soul.

At a Baptist church that I was attending on Guam years ago, there was a woman with a big belly. I sincerely thought she was pregnant. So, I kindly asked her in front of her husband how many months along in her pregnancy she was. She was horribly embarrassed (and so was I) when she replied that she was just bloated. I felt so bad but I couldn't take back my words. I apologized profusely to her. She seemed to take it well, but I know that must have hurt her feelings. Do you see how our sincere misconceptions can lead to problems?

I watched [1]a frightening documentary this week on YouTube about why doctors keep making mistakes and killing patients. You'll be shocked! But there is a big difference between honest and sincere mistakes, versus abusive pastors who mistreat and don't care about hurting people. I humbly don't think God wants us to merely walk away and let abuse go; but rather, we should express our negative opinion publicly to warn other people about abusive organizations like Pensacola Christian College (PCC).

Sadly, there is an ongoing abusive authoritarian culture of cultish abuse of people who question PCC's leaders or doctrine. I know because I personally was mistreated by Pastor Jeff Redlin, and also by PCC leaders who refused to even communicate with me in 2022. I have written numerous negative reviews online, dozens of articles and blogs to warn people about PCC's unchristian cult. I have been banned from attending Campus Church at PCC. Instead of having a biblical spirit of restoration at PCC, they have a heathen spirit of kicking people out. There is no love or compassion at PCC, only rules, rules and more rules.

The cult system always comes first at PCC, individual people do not matter. That is so wicked, ungodly and pathetic. If you attend PCC, you will not find loved, but you will be thrown under the bus the second that you make a mistake, question leadership or express your own opinions. That is what happened to me. Jeff Redlin is a religious punk, sad to say. The abusive way that PCC mistreated Samantha Field (who was assaulted on PCC's campus as a student), and the horrible way that they mistreated me, reveals what is in their heart.

All We Can Do Is Pray For Them And Try To Reconcile

God knows that I am still willing to make peace and reconciliation at PCC, but they have refuse again and again, to their own demise. Tyranny is rarely seen except by those who are oppressed by it. God hears the cry of an increasingly growing number of wounded PCC students and Campus Church victims who have been abused, hurt and shunned by their bigoted cult of religious weirdoes. The PCC camp is all about indoctrinating people with religion, but without possessing God's genuine love and compassion as a legitimate church would have. That is because they don't walk in the Holy Spirit. You need to understand that PCC are a bunch of academics who woefully lack God's love and compassion for people, because PCC are NOT church builders! They are a private selective cult. Unless you submit to the cult leaders at PCC, you will immediately be rejected, shunned and blackballed.

I have responded to the abuse at PCC with Bible preaching, love and a sincere willingness and desire to reconcile with the PCC camp, but they refuse. In so doing, they reveal that there is hatred, coldness and selfishness in their hearts at PCC. On the other hand, I am still willing to make peace, which reveals that I have God's love in my heart. You may contact Pastor Jeff Redlin and Campus Church, to ask them why they won't allow David J. Stewart to attend Campus Church. I would appreciate it...

[2]jRedlin@campuschurch.com and [3]info@campuschurch.com

They day that they contact me to make peace, I will gladly do what I can to reconcile with PCC. People just want to be loved. PCC refuses to love people. They just want to make money. Sadly, since they have thousands of people at PCC, who are willing to give them money in their carnal state, PCC couldn't care less about changing. As long as carnally-minded people support the carnal PCC camp, nothing will change. When they start losing thousands of students, only then will they search their souls and ask God what is wrong.

We see this situation in Revelation 3:15-17 concerning the Laodicean church. That horrible carnal church thought they were prospering and pleasing to God, but Jesus called them naked, wretched, poor and miserable!!! So also is PCC naked, wretched, poor and miserable!!! Unfortunately, they foolishness THINK they are pleasing to the Lord at PCC, while hundreds of victims like me are crying out to God to be avenged. Genesus 19:13, "For we will destroy this place, because the cry of them is waxen great before the face of the LORD; and the LORD hath sent us to destroy it." PCC still hasn't learned the truth that, [4]He Ain't Heavy, He's My Brother! Only a dirty cult refuses to allow a person to come back to church. That is a private cult, not a New Testament church! I cannot warn everyone enough about Pensacola Christian College and their hateful yuppie type leaders.

I admit that I have not always responded in a Christlike way to mistreatment from pastors and fellow believers. I had used some sharp words against Pastor Redlin in some of my articles last year, which I have since edited and removed. I want to please the Lord. There is a fine line between faith and foolishness. God knows that in my heart I love everybody, and desire to get along and be friends with other preachers. Sadly, many preachers are selfish, carnal in their thinking, corrupt in doctrine and don't want to get along. That is so horrible!

I realized years ago that I had grown in the Lord beyond most other preachers, so that they could not reciprocate my love. The Apostle Paul experienced this same frustration with people. 2nd Corinthians 12:15, "

And I will very gladly spend and be spent for you; though the more abundantly I love you, the less I be loved.

" Most pastors simply cannot reciprocate the level of love that I have for them. Unfortunately, PCC took the matter too far by banning me from attending their Campus Church, which is evil to the core. Jeff Redlin is a hateful person who hides behind the façade of religion. He is a devil in the pulpit, masquerading as someone who actually gives a damn, but doesn't. Redlin gets paid a disgusting undeserved 6-digit salary, parasiting off of the churches. Redlin already has the only reward he'll ever get. PCC are not leading people to Christ, they are merely playing church without the power of the Holy Spirit, because they are carnal and indifferent toward truth and people. PCC wickedly bid Godspeed to [5]false prophet Ken Ham, who blatantly preaches another gospel of partial faith in Christ plus turning away from your evil ways to get to Heaven.

What a lot of people do is that when someone hurts their feelings, time and time again, they withdraw socially into their shell like a turtle. Words can hurt more than bullets, leaving painful scars on one's soul.

These hurting people put up an imaginary wall in their mind to protect their heart from being hurt again.

I know because I have a scarred soul, from the many wounds inflicted upon me over the years by people. Some of the scars were inflicted by unsaved heathens. Some were left by family members and friends. Other were inflicted by church pastors, coworkers, staff members and carnal saints. Those scars are permanent and hurt still even today, years and even decades later. All I can do when those painful memories from the past surface in my mind is to lay them at Jesus' feet at Calvary's cross. ..

> Colossians 3:13, " If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God. Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth. For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God. When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory. "

> Matthew 25:40, " And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me."

I love those beautiful passages of Scripture! The day that we got saved (i.e., born again), in God's sight we became one with Christ. That is, God the Father sees Jesus' imputed righteousness when He looks at us, He doesn't see our sins anymore (as far as our POSITION in Christ is concerned). Our CONDITION is a separate matter of obedience and discipleship. The inspired Holy Bible says that my life as a believer is hidden with Christ in God. Matthew 25:40 helps to explain Colossians 3:3. The Lord is essentially saying to us as redeemed saints: "We are in this called Christianity together. Whatever someone does to you, whether it be good or bad, they have also done it unto me, because we are one now."

> John 14:18-20,
>
>
> I will not leave you comfortless: I will come to you. Yet a little while, and the world seeth me no more; but ye see me: because I live, ye shall live also. At that day ye shall know that I am in my Father, and ye in me, and I in you."

We are not God, but God lives inside of us as His children, in the form of the blessed Holy Spirit (John 16:13; 1st Corinthians 3:16-17; 1st John 3:24).

God Will Punish the Pensacola Christian College Camp For Their Hatred

It was because of Pastor Jeff Redlin's abuse and hatred toward me that I had no church to attend for over a year, and I still have nowhere to go on Sunday evenings. I've feel nothing but cruelty and hatred from the pastors of Campus Church and PCC leadership. They are so wicked and far away from God! My soul is comforted by God's promise to avenge me of their hatred and mistreatment at PCC (Romans 12:19-21; Matthew 12:36). They are arrogant right now, because they are large in numbers and united in rebellion against God. No so-called "church" is right with God who refuses to make a way of RESTORATION for anyone! ...

> Romans 14:10-13, "But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ. For it is written, As I live, saith the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God. So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God. Let us not therefore judge one another any more: but judge this rather, that no man put a stumblingblock or an occasion to fall in his brother's way."

They are condemning me as a divorce man at PCC, refusing to provide a way of restoration so that I can return to fellowship with the friends that I made at PCC. Jeff Redlin is a little man who is is bog trouble with God! As long as they have tens of millions of dollars coming in, and thousands of new students enrolling to pursue a money-making career, PCC's leaders won't care. They don't care! [6]Just ask their former student Samantha Field. PCC ought to be ashamed of themselves!!! I offered to make peace with them, but they sinfully refused, just like they threw Samantha Field under the bus! God will deal with their stiffnecked pride at PCC.

They can never point a dirty finger at me on Judgment Day, because PCC are the ones who refuse to reconcile with me, which I am still trying to do to no avail. They people at PCC are rotten to the core! They are blinded by their phony religious singing, sycophantic sermonettes and merely playing church three times a week. Religious authoritarianism is cursing America, where men elevate themselves as some type of "authority" over normal everyday people like me. God is no respecter of persons, which is why He openly welcomes EVERYONE to freely receive His gift of eternal life by faith alone in His only begotten Son. Sadly, at PCC only certain people are welcome, but not people like me or Samantha Field. I care! If nothing else, my response to PCC's hatred and rejection shows plainly that I CARE!!! GOD CARES!!! What will it take for God to cause PCC to start caring? People just want to be loved. ALL LIVES MATTER!!!

4.4.25 What I Feel God Is Telling Me When I Am Upset And Frustrated (2023-04-29 23:15)

Matthew 21:28-32, "But what think ye? A certain man had two sons; and he came to the first, and said, Son, go work to day in my vineyard. He answered and said, I will not: but afterward he repented, and went. And he came to the second, and said likewise. And he answered and said, I go, sir: and went not. Whether of them twain did the will of his father? They say unto him, The first. Jesus saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, That the publicans and the harlots go into the kingdom of God before you. For John came unto you in the way of righteousness, and ye believed him not: but the publicans and the harlots believed him: and ye, when ye had seen it, repented not afterward, that ye might believe him."

I frequently get so upset over the wickedness in our culture today, and the apostasy in today's churches, that I start getting a bad attitude. I find myself using four letter expletives and cursing at it all. I get upset at abusive pastors and the shallow sickening spiritual condition of places like Pensacola Christian College. I start to feel guilty about myself and like I'm a horrible Christian, but then every time the blessed Holy Spirit encourages me.

I can almost hear my dear heavenly Father lovingly say to my soul:

> "David, my beloved son, I am so proud of you! Do you remember the story in the Bible about the two sons? The father told them both to go work in his field. The one son told his father that he would gladly go, but then didn't go. The other son had a bad attitude, like you David, and he argued with his father, insisting that he wouldn't go work in the field. But afterwards that son with the bad attitude repented and went to work in his father's field.
>
> Do you remember David which son pleased the father? It was the son with the BAD ATTITUDE.
>
> So you see my son, I know that you get really upset over Lordship Salvation, and so do I. You get mad at the uncaring pastors who have banned you from attending church, and I am against them. I will punish them one day, because what they are doing is terrible; they are disobeying my commandment to love one another, and to restore you with a spirit of meekness. They won't even talk to you, and I see what they are doing, which is wickedness. They will be dealt with, I promise you David.

But for now I want you to continue preaching my Gospel to everyone you can. Please continue with your website ministry, because people are being reached and I am working through your ministry labors to make an eternal difference. You just keep working hard David, and leave the rest up to me. You cannot save anybody, but I can. I am God, you are the clay and I am the potter. Just trust me son, and I will be with you all the way.

I know that you feel bad when you get angry and think you have a bad attitude, but I couldn't agree with you more in your frustrations and anger against lying pastors, the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation, the Devil's lie that repentance means to turn away from your sinning, the Devil's counterfeit Bible revisions, and all the other falsehoods that I also hate! We are working together David to make an eternal impact. Now is the time to work while you still can, and then we will be glorified together at the Judgment Seat, and I will avenge you of Pastor Marty Herron, Jeff Redlin and others who have done so wickedly by mistreating you because you TOLD THE TRUTH. They condemned you based solely upon slander that they heard from gossipers and off the internet, but they were wrong. Let them condemn you son, because I know the truth about who you are, and they will one day be judged by the same evil standard by which they have judged you. They are just as big a sinner as Jeffrey Dahmer (James 2:10).

I am the only Judge, not them, so trust in me, and leave their fate to my judgment and wisdom.

I am so proud of you for working so hard, for son long, for free, never expecting or asking or accepting payment from anyone, even though many have tried to give you money. All you've ever asked for is their prayers and to help share your ministry labors for me. I love you David and we're in this thing together, for now and eternity.

I know that you are suffering now in constant chronic neck pain, but suffering is a part of life because of the fallen nature of mankind. I will give you a new and healthy body that is perfect, just like my only begotten Son's resurrected body, when I come to get you at the Rapture. I can't wait to meet you in person David, and I apologize for the horrible carnal pastors who have mistreated you so badly. I see your hurting heart.

I see your often anger at falsehoods and abusive pastors who don't care about you. Don't feel bad, because you are HOT, and not LUKEWARM like the Pensacola Christian College camp is (Revelation 3:15-17). They sing their insincere sycophantic music at PCC, and they go through all the motions of playing church, and their plethora of rules without love, but their hearts are far from me. For if they truly walked closely with me, they would love you as their Christian brother and seek to restore you to fellowship at Campus Church.

Sadly, PCC couldn't care less about you David, because they have the wrong priorities over there, putting money before people. You know that I would NEVER do such a wicked thing to you. You mean more to me than all the money and gold in the world. I am not a respecter of persons. The fact that they are standing hand-in-hand at PCC doesn't excuse or protect them from the consequences of how they have mistreated you. I will deal with PCC.

They are doing some good, and I see their labors. But I also see that they are getting paid very well (6-digit salaries to their multiple leaders). But that is okay David, because they already have the only reward they will ever receive. In contrast, you have served me night and day, sometimes laboring for 37 hours strait without a break on your website ministry. I saw you sitting in front of your residence on Guam, night after night working in front of your home, laboring diligently from sunset to 4 am on your laptop.

Yet you've never asked anybody for a single penny since you started your website ministry in 2001. You have an excellent spirit my son, like Daniel did in the Old Testament, and I am so proud of you. I will make this all up to you in eternity, you have my promise of it! For now just keep walking with me. I know you are far from perfect, and so also is everyone else on earth.

When I see you upset, frustrated and angry over false doctrine, fake bibles, false prophets, shady Bible colleges, bad churches and the rotten pastors who have thrown you under the bus, I jump up and down in excitement to see that you are HOT for the things of God. I wish I had many more children like you David, who care. You care because I care, and you abide in me and I in you. You love my precepts, therefore you hate every false way as I do. You hate the pride and arrogancy of PCC's shameful pastors and leaders, as I also hate pride and arrogancy.

The fact that they refuse to even communicate with you shows that they don't care at all. PCC's day of reckoning is coming. No amount of good that they do can make up for or justify the evil that they are doing to you and Samantha Field. I know that people just want to be loved, but at PCC they are blinded by their worldly success, mistaking growth and financial wealth with godliness, from such you should turn away.

I vomit at the sight of PCC! They are disgustingly LKUKEWARM. As a preacher you are HOT, so you make them look bad, doe which Pastor Redlin is jealous and doesn't want you in his church. It is their church, not mine. A real church loves sinners and doesn't ban them from coming to church to hear the preaching. I am so disgusted with PCC's carnal attitude. They may be growing in the world, but they are very little in my eyes.

The nation is going to Hell, while PCC is preoccupied making money and playing church. So be strong in my strength David, I am with you. Your Mom and Dad dedicated you to the Lord at the Salvation Army at age one, to be used by the Lord for my glory and purpose, and I have honored that dedication David. You are my humble servant. Hang in there my son and keep your chin up, because your future is brighter and more full of blessings than you could ever imagine.

But for now you must suffer, labor and endure the tribulations of this life until I take you home to be with me in Heaven. BE OF GOOD CHEER my son, because I have overcome the sting of death by dying on the cross, and after I was buried for three days I physically resurrected from the dead and am now interceding for you in Heaven. I've got you covered! One man plus God equals a majority.

Please keep praying, because if you don't trust in me then I cannot help you like I want to, lest your spirit be lifted up in pride. Stay humble David! Stay grounded in my inspired Word and don't stray away from my commandments. I know that you fear me and that is good. Most people don't fear me today, so they don't obey my inspired Holy Word. I might come back today David! Keep watching for my return!!! I love you my son, be strong in faith in my strength."

4.4.26 Many People Try To Complicate The Gospel (2023-04-30 23:50)

1st Corinthians 15:1-4, "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand;

By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain.

For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures;

And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures*:

Many people try to complicate the Gospel by adding THEIR self righteous works/human self efforts/self reformation/behavioral changes/good deeds. The Bible says we are saved by grace through faith in Christ alone plus nothing, when we simply BELIEVE how that JESUS Himself died on the Cross for all our sins, was buried and bodily rose three days later for our justification.

The Gospel does not include the following meritorious works of THE LAW:

- ❌ Repent of your sins
- ❌ Make Jesus the Lord of your life
- ❌ Give your life to Jesus
- ❌ Confess all your sins
- ❌ Live a changed life
- ❌ Join a church or denomination
- ❌ Say a special prayer
- ❌ Keep the Mosaic law
- ❌ Get water baptized
- ❌ Obey the Ten Commandments

THESE ARE ALL WORKS!

Read what God's word says about His simple plan of salvation for mankind (John 3:16; 1 Corinthians 15:1-4; Romans 1:16-19, 3:23-27 & 4:5; Ephesians 1:13-14, 2:8-9 KJB).

Here is a tremendous quote from Dr. Curtis Hutson (1934-1995):

> "I maintain that anything short of truth is a lie. But I also maintain that anything beyond truth is a lie. If you tell a man he can be saved, without believing on Christ, you've come short of the truth; but if you go beyond the truth and tell a man he's saved by believing plus being baptized, plus keeping the Ten Commandments, plus enduring to the end, you've gone beyond truth. I say we ought to stick with what the Bible says, even if it doesn't coincide with what we've always thought it meant."
> —Dr. Curtis Hutson, "[1]The Determining Factor In Salvation" (MP3 sermon)

Dear friend, faith is the only righteous thing that you can do!

Just come to God as an admitted guilty sinner and BELIEVE the Gospel. The is the "GOOD NEWS" that Jesus is the only begotten Son of God—the Christ—who died on a cross to pay for your sins and mine, He was buried and three days later Jesus bodily resurrected

from the dead. BELIEVE IT, oh sinner, and the work is done! John 6:28-29,

“Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.”

Dear reader, everything you have you got one of three ways:

1. you earned it
2. you stole it
3. someone gave it to you

There’s no other way to get things, and that applies to Heaven too! You cannot earn it (Titus 3:5). You cannot steal it (John 10:1). You can only freely receive it as a gift from God (Ephesians 2:8-9). God bless you friend and thank you for reading my blogs.

4.5.1 Woeful Tribulation Is Coming To America (2023-05-01 21:47)

2nd Timothy 3:1-13,

This know also, that in the last days perilous times shall come*. For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, Without natural affection, trucebreakers, false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good, Traitors, heady, highminded, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God; Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away. For of this sort are they which creep into houses, and lead captive silly women laden with sins, led away with divers lusts, Ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth. Now as Jannes and Jambres withstood Moses, so do these also resist the truth: men of corrupt minds, reprobate concerning the faith. But they shall proceed no further: for their folly shall be manifest unto all men, as theirs also was. But thou hast fully known my doctrine, manner of life, purpose, faith, longsuffering, charity, patience, Persecutions, afflictions, which came unto me at Antioch, at Iconium, at Lystra; what persecutions I endured: but out of them all the Lord delivered me. Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution. But evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived.”

In the country of Canada, it is now against the law for Bible-believing Christians to

SOURCE: [2]Canadian Supreme Court Rules Biblical Speech Opposing Homosexual Behavior is a 'Hate Crime'

I have a Christian friend in Canada here on Facebook who uses an alias instead of his real name, because he is afraid of being prosecuted by the Canadian government for speaking out against homosexuality. The Old Testament prophet, Ezekiel, met with the same hatred, persecution and opposition from the people and leaders in Israel. God encouraged Ezekiel, exhorting the prophet to just keep preaching without compromise and trust the Lord, knowing that Israel had become a rebellious house. Ezekiel 2:6, " And thou, son of man, be not afraid of them, neither be afraid of their words, though briers and thorns be with thee, and thou dost dwell among scorpions: be not afraid of their words, nor be dismayed at their looks, though they be a rebellious house."

As a born-again fundamentalist Baptist Bible preacher, I feel the same message from God today. The media has been reporting [3]a drastic increase in hostility against Churches across the United States.

The tyranny now seen in Canada is soon coming to the United States. In October of 2022, the sale, transfer and purchase of guns were banned nationwide. In the U.S. I think it will begin with guns bans in Colorado, Illinois and California, and then spread to other states, until ultimately the U.S. Supreme Court bans guns at the federal level. That is how they legalized abortion in 1973 and same-sex perversion in 2015, incrementally. The important thing for us as saints is to stay focused on Jesus (Hebrews 12:2), and watch for His return (Mark 13:37). God is so good!

The insanity that we are seeing across the United States today is just the beginning of the imminent destruction of America! I am not a big fan of Martin Luther King Jr. After his death, his wife Coretta King was a big promoter of LGBTQ rights. That shows how wicked she was. Likewise, Luther himself was a wicked man, giving Playboy magazine interviews. Strangely enough, Playboy owner Hugh Hefner was a big advocate of rights for black Americans, which made them common allies in their fight for humanitarian rights.

Sadly, this fight for rights has carried over from one of all men being equal, to legalized rights for homosexuals, pedophiles and perverts. That is NOT humanitarian rights, it is wickedness!!! Nobody has a right to sin and force their sinful ways upon children (which is exactly what is happening in America today). [4]Only one view is allowed today in society! This is communism, not liberty. Google has censored 95 % of my ministry's internet traffic to [5]Jesus-is-Savior.com website. It is not fair! That is not freedom of speech, it is legalized tyranny.

Search the web and you will find that [6]more Americans are becoming depressed every year. Sin depresses any people! Look at the bizarre insanity that our corrupt government and wicked society is embracing today! Homosexuality and the transgendered community are not normal people. They are a threat to children. They are a threat to the health of our society overall, since any society is only as healthy as its lowest morals. Our society is only as healthy as how we treat the millions of homeless people, addicts and released convicts with felonies who cannot find employment.

I mentioned Martin Luther King Jr. earlier because I want to share a quote that he made, which is 100 % true. Dr. King was a brilliant orator. Sadly, although he masqueraded as a Baptist minister, King openly denied the deity of Jesus, His virgin birth and Christ's bodily resurrection from the dead. Martin Luther King Jr. was NOT a born-again Christian. No one is saved who denies these fundamental doctrines of Christianity. Jesus' deity is at the core of God's simple plan of Salvation. To acknowledge one's faith in Jesus as the only begotten (biological) Son of God is to profess faith in His deity as God almighty on earth.

Having said that, Dr. King was absolutely right that we need leaders who love humanity. People who genuinely love others do not prioritize greed, career advancement and politics over their neighbours. Again, I am not a fan of Dr. King, he was a front for the Communists in America. King attended their meetings and was instrumental in helping to destroy our nation's backbone. Anytime that " is used as an excuse to legalize sin, it is wrong and destructive upon a society. Dark days are ahead for America!

human rights

The Bible teaches that the coming Antichrist, the Man of Sin, will use peace to destroy society. Daniel 8:25, " And through his policy also he shall cause craft to prosper in his hand; and he shall magnify himself in his heart, and by peace shall destroy many: he shall also stand up against the Prince of princes; but he shall be broken without hand. " I think this is what we are seeing today. We see our ungodly government and liberal kooks and quacks intentionally trying to undermine society. They want to defund the police, which is insane. They [7]insanely want to rid classrooms of normal words like "boy" and "girl," telling children and parents to instead use the terms like "hey campers" and " purple penguins.

There are trillions of dollars spent each year all across the United States by governing authorities, yet the poor are still poor and nobody cares about them. The homeless are still homeless and nobody in authority cares enough to help them. And if somebody in power does try to make a difference to help the homeless, then all their rotten selfish peers getting paid 6-digit salaries crucify them. Our country didn't get into this mess overnight, nor will it be fixed overnight, but until someone takes the first steps it is guarantee that nothing will change.

As a clear indicator of just how messed up our nation has become, one need only look at the 30 foot wall that President Trump spent $15,000,000,000 of taxpayer money to build along the southern border of the country, to keep illegal immigrants out. But then when Joe Biden became U.S. President, he deliberately allowed $1,400,000 illegal immigrants (criminals) to flood into the United States. This clearly shows that subversive powers at at work behind the scenes in Washington DC, intentionally undermining our nation's sovereignty, morality, integrity and sanity. It is no secret that [9]secret societies control the United States!!!

4.5.2 What Separates Pensacola Christian College From True Christianity (2023-05-08 15:02)

Matthew 18:12, "

How think ye? if a man have an hundred sheep, and one of them be gone astray, doth he not leave the ninety and nine, and goeth into the mountains, and seeketh that which is gone astray?

The dear heartbeat of our precious Savior is that ALL LIVES MATTER! That is the greatest thing that I loved about Pastor Jack Hyles, that he loved the unlovable 1 %. Dr. Hyles gave the 1 % a second chance, and a third chance and a fourth chance. When an arsonist burned the First Baptist Church of Hammond, Indiana, to the ground in the 1960's, Pastor Hyles refused to file charges against the man. I cannot say that I even agree with that, but that is love friend.

Dr. Hyles loved the down and out, the rescue mission men, the poor and the bereaved. That is what separates true Christian living from the phonies and hypocrites who merely go through the motions of playing church.

Having said that, Pensacola Christian College (PCC) is one of the most hateful, unloving, uncompassionate and hypocritical religious institutions in the world today! I had attended Campus Church on the camp grounds of PCC for a few months in 2021. At the time I was in much pain in both body and soul. I wrote a very sincere letter to Pastor Jeff Redlin, sharing my many years of grief, divorce, failed necks surgeries and explained that I was alone, living out of a suitcase in a cheap hotel in Pensacola.

Tyranny is rarely seen except by those who are oppressed by it. Ask the 1 % who fall through the cracks of the machine at PCC how they feel about PCC, and you'll get a very different and honest view of their cult.

To my dismay, Pastor Redlin had nothing to say about the numerous issues I shared with him, all he focused on was one little statement where I mentioned as a 54 year old man, that I hoped to find a wife at Campus Church. He replied by scolding me for coming to church to find a wife. However, I never said that this was the reason for coming to Campus Church. I simply said that at such a big church, I hoped I might meet someone to marry. I was deeply hurt by his insensitive cruel remarks, for which Pastor Redlin never did apologize. He gave the standard “any offensive remark was unintended” type of lame insincere response. They have huge egos at PCC.

Pastor Redlin also made numerous other hurtful remarks. I eventually felt unwelcomed and hurt by Redlin’s carnal callousness and woeful lack of love or compassion, for a hurting human being. I couldn’t have been more friendly, kind and I made it clear that I wanted to be a blessing to PCC and Campus Church. You see dear friend, the 1 % are not welcomed at PCC! After I left the church in sorrow, feeling horribly mistreated by Jeff Redlin, I posted a bunch of critiques on social media, as a way of getting his attention in hopes that he would change his wicked ways. In my heart I didn’t care if I ever went back, because of the hatred as a divorced person that I felt at PCC.

One 43-year-old longtime PCC staff member of 23 years, told me that I would never be accepted at PCC as a divorced single man who desires to remarry. He told me that many divorced people either leave, or avoid coming to PCC completely, for this very reason. Remarriage is taboo in the PCC camp. Sadly, PCC literally expects a man to relieve himself when feeling his libido, rather than to remarry. PCC wants you to buy a lot of boxes of Kleenex and use your pillow to relieve your urges, than to, God forbid, get remarried after 15 years of being divorced. The inspired Holy Bible teaches in 1st Corinthians chapter 7 that a man should be married to prevent the sin of fornication in the church, and also the Bible teaches in this same chapter that it is better to marry than to burn with lust. Yet, at PCC they are a cult of married and remarried people who reject divorced single people. It is utter hypocrisy! PCC cherry-picks the inspired Scriptures to fit their unbiblical agenda.

Pastor Jack Hyles performed weddings for divorced people, because he understood that people are sinners and life must go on. It is not reasonable nor even biblical to expect a divorced person to remain single. In my case, my former and only wife abandoned and divorced me in 2006. I did everything in my power to stop the divorce, but she refused to reconcile, which I have in writing with her ungodly signature on it. I forgave her long ago, but she alone is the culprit in our divorce. I hate divorce! God hates divorce! Dr. Hyles is right, who said that divorce is a sin that perpetuates for a lifetime.

PCC abuses divorced people in their self-righteousness. It is easy for a happily married person like Jeff Redlin, to condemn and throw divorced people like me under the bus for desiring to be married again. That is so wicked and wrong! Right in front of his wife, Pastor Redlin told me one Sunday morning (after the church service) that even if I did find a woman to marry, he would never perform the wedding. That hurt. It also hurt that he embarrassed me in front of his wife. I had emailed him in confidentiality 10 DAYS earlier, simply asking him if as a divorced person if I was welcomed at Campus Church. He never responded. So I kindly approached him on Sunday morning to ask when he would respond to my email from 10 days ago. This is when he said he would never perform a wedding for me. But I had never asked or even hinted that I wanted him to perform a wedding. I had only known the guy for 2 weeks! This is so sad and unfortunate, that PCC has no tolerance or room for hurting lonely divorced people at their Campus Church.

Having said all that, I missed my friends at PCC. I missed Judy (a PCC graduate who is crippled in a wheelchair), and her Dad Jerry and her Mom Pat, who came from New Jersey to live in Florida near PCC. I miss Colleen, who teaches in their ABEKA program. I felt bad for criticizing Jeff Redlin, but was still upset at him for being insensitive and uncaring. So in July of 2022 I mailed three handwritten letter to Campus Church and PCC, to apologize (not for what I said, but that I had said those things). But knowing that Pastor Redlin had been abusive and by all indications didn't care about me at all as a hurting human being, I first waited to see if he would respond, before removing my criticisms from social media.

Redlin ignored me completely for 6 long weeks. So in frustration I started criticizing them again on social media. Why should I remove my criticism of PCC, when they are guilty of everything I have written about them? Only when I started critiquing them again, did Redlin contact me to let me know that I am banned from attending their church, saying that my "remarks were consequential." What Pastor Redlin doesn't realize, or care to realize, is that his remarks are consequential as well. God heard the cry from Abel's blood crying out from the ground after Cain murdered him. God heard the cry of hurting people from the wicked city of Sodom. And God hears the cry of victim's of the abusive authoritarian PCC culture.

GOD HEARS THE CRY!!! God hears the cry of Samantha Field. God hears the cry of hundreds of grieving PCC alumni, who were mistreated and traumatized for life by the prisonhouse of strict rules without love or compassion at PCC. God hears my cry against Pensacola Christian College (PCC) and their ungodly Campus Church pastors, who love money far more than they do individual people. There is no genuine love at PCC or Campus Church for individual people! You are required to dot your i's and cross your t's perfectly, as the arrogant PCC leadership gods require, or else you are OUT THE DOOR!!!

There is an old true political saying that goes: "Those who make peaceful revolution impossible, make violent revolution inevitable." U.S. President John F. Kennedy said those words. Likewise, by PCC refusing to peacefully make a path of restoration for fallen and hurting disgruntled students and church members; they make it inevitable that those hurting people become PCC's enemies, harshly critiquing them publicly on social media. PCC does this to themselves!

Case in point is [1]PCC graduate Samantha Field. Like Samantha, I feel nothing but contempt, hatred, rejection and a holier-than-thou bad spirit from PCC. They refuse to forgive me. They refuse to communicate with me. They refuse to reconcile or make a path of restoration for me. I have humbled myself to contact them in an attempt to make the peace, but they won't lift a single finger. What does that say? It clearly says that PCC has so much money and people available, that the 1 % of hurting and frustrated PCC victims mean absolutely NOTHING to them.

Neither PCC or Campus Church leaders will speak with me. They are exemplifying the Devil's way of handling things—just ignore people and hope they'll go away! Well, I am not going away, I am going to be a part of the PCC family one way or the other. If they won't allow me to attend Campus Church, then I will express my negative views of their cult on social media. But God knows that I tried, and am still trying to reconcile with the PCC family. Unfortunately, they hate my living guts!!! The Lord knows that if PCC contacted me today, offering an olive branch of peace, I would cry and accept their offer, resolving this ongoing dispute. The problem is that they don't give a damn at PCC!!! I have only been banned from one place in all of Pensacola, at Campus Church and PCC. That is how the hateful Jehovah's Witness cult are—full of paranoia and hatred for people outside their cult!

Today I posted a heartfelt appeal on PCC's Facebook page to please let me come back to Campus Church. I kindly said that I love the PCC camp, but Pastor Jeff Redlin refuses to reconcile with me as his Christian brother. The senior pastor of Campus Church is sinfully holding a grudge against me, and has banned me from attending Campus Church (since August 2, 2022). I couldn't have been more sweeter and respectful. I even used the word "kindly" and "respectful" in my post. PCC's hateful response was to immediately delete my post and block my Facebook account, so that now I cannot even read their posts. That is HATRED dear reader, not the unconditional love of God for every living creature. God cares about people, animals and all life. That is not to say that animals are the same as humans, because they are not. But God is a good God, not abusive. The Lord doesn't ignore hurting people who plead for restoration, forgiveness and a second chance.

Jesus said in Matthew 18:22 to forgive each other, not 7 times in a day, but 70 times 7 times. Literally, that means unlimited forgiveness for one another. Thieves (or perhaps a thief) broke into my car this week and stole $400 worth of my stuff. They even stole my beloved King James Bible that I bought at Campus Church at PCC. The thieves got all my personal study notes in my Bible, which I cannot replace. I hate thieves, but I love people. I have already forgiven the thieves, even praying for their salvation. I have God's solemn promise that those thieves (thief) will be held accountable in eternity (Ecclesiastes 12:14). No one ever " with doing anything wrong (Hebrews 4:13).

That definitely includes today's incompetent ungodly pastors, who wickedly pervert THE TRUTH, adding requirements to be saved which God does not require. Jeremiah 23:36b, "...for ye have perverted the words of the living God, of the LORD of hosts our God." Jonah 3:10 says that turning away from one's evil ways is WORKS. Jonah 3:10, "And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way..." Turning away from one's sins to be saved is WORKS!!! You cannot be saved by WORKS. Romans 3:20, "Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin."

The purpose of God's Old Testament LAW is to give humanity the KNOWLEDGE that we are guilty sinners. We all need to see our desperate need for the dear Savior (Galatians 3:24-26).

The only part which the law plays in a person's salvation is showing us our need to be saved, and then the law points us to Jesus Christ to be saved by grace alone, through faith alone, in Christ alone. We are saved by BELIEVING THE 'GOOD NEWS' (GOSPEL) that Jesus Christ was crucified on a cross, buried and then bodily resurrected from the dead after three days (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). BELIEVE IT, oh sinner, and the work is done!!!

I was outside all day Saturday installing new COBRA security cameras around my home, in order to hopefully deter and catch the thieves. As I was working, I saw a couple young black guys walking along the street. Like most people, I tend to think the thieves were black, simply because of their negative reputation in society. But as a Christian I know better than to stereotype a group of people, because that is wrong. Every person should be judged by their own merit, and not by the color of their skin. Both of the young black men looked rough, like gang members. So what did I do? I could have said, "I'm watching you punk!" That would have been very wrong to do. What I did (and this is what I ALWAYS do) is, I kindly waved at them as my neighbour. That was my way of showing them that I am not a racist. And if one of them did break into my car, then God will convict their heart and punish them. A righteous man ALWAYS gives others the benefit of the doubt. It is wicked to insinuate that somebody did something wrong without any solid evidence to support that hunch.

Years ago, I was playing my Hawaiian steel guitar one Saturday around around 10 am on Guam, at Asan Beach Park. I was the only one there. I didn't notice, until a female park ranger asked me, if I had seen who vandalized the park, ripping up dozens of newly planted coconut trees from the ground. I hadn't even noticed, and told her the truth that I didn't see anybody. Someone must have done it during the night. She wickedly didn't believe me, and accused me of pulling up the trees. I was hurt by her accusations. Since she couldn't prove anything, she couldn't do anything, but it deeply hurt my feelings that she suspected me just because I was the only one around. God knows that I love people and don't do things like that. She was younger and evidently inexperienced.

The Girl Scouts had planted the trees she said.

She would fit in well at PCC, the way they abuse people. I lived on Guam for 17 years, and I often saw the local Chamorro police horribly abuse and talk harshly to men from Chuuk, Palau, Yap and other neighboring islands. The indigenous Chamorro people don't like them because they bring theft, drunkenness and other problems to Guam. Still, they are human beings for whom Christ was willing to die on the cross. My guess who vandalized those coconut trees is that one of the mistreated native islanders might have done it, and I wouldn't blame them, but I truly don't know.

Anyway, my point is that I showed love toward my neighbours, not sure if one of them might be the thief who broke into my car Thursday night into Friday morning sometime. Even though I have my suspicions, I choose to love everyone and treat them all with God's unconditional love. I will press charges if I can ever prove who stole from me (which I will likely never be able to do). But I have great peace in knowing that God knows exactly who stole from me, and the Lord PROMISES to punish them (Romans 12:19-21).

Last week I heard a young Ukrainian woman sob as she spoke about being victimized by a thug Russian soldier, who sexually assaulted her. The journalist kindly asked what she was feeling toward the wicked soldier. I admire her great answer: “God will hold him accountable.” Yes dear woman, God sure will hold that wicked male accountable. No one can sin and escape God’s wrath!!! Even believers who have escaped the penalty of eternal damnation, must still be judged by God for sins committed (2nd Corinthians 5:10-11; 1st Corinthians 4:6). Whether saved or unsaved, all humanity must answer to our God and Creator. Hebrews 10:31, “

It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.”

Having said that, God hears the cry of PCC’s victims and will hold PCC accountable. The worst thing PCC is doing, is they ignore hurting people, when they should be reaching out in compassionate love in an attempt to restore people to fellowship with the saints. It is because my heart wants to be at PCC, that I am so hurt and upset that they just continue to shun, ban, ostracize and ignore me.

If the local newspaper printed a big article about how a local man is being shunned and banned from attending Campus Church, I’ll bet PCC leaders would react, and they would invite me back to church. But I am just a nobody, and PCC knows it, so they treat me like taking out the trash. That deeply hurts! PCC has tens of millions of dollars. They have tens of thousands of supporters. So who am I? Dear reader, I am a child of the King, a redeemed adopted son of God, an imperfect work in progress! Why doesn’t PCC know this? Why doesn’t PCC care? Please feel welcome to let them know how you feel, or better yet, kindly ask the pastors of Campus Church why they refuse to reconcile with me. Why won’t they make a path of restoration for me, when I have pleaded kindly with humility for one?

[2]jRedlin@campuschurch.com and [3]info@campuschurch.com

PEOPLE JUST WANT TO BE LOVED!!! I love that true statement. We all just want to be loved. Sadly, by their refusal to seek restoration with me, they are only proving that PCC JUST WANTS TO MAKE MORE MONEY!!! Truly, the love of money is the root of all evil. It is because PCC has so much money and people (the 99 sheep), that they flagrantly throw the 1 % of lambs under the bus and leave them for dead, forgetting that they ever lived. I have been horribly blocked by Campus Church and PCC on Facebook. I cannot even read their posts anymore. That is how PCC deals with hurting people like me and Samantha Field, they just blocks us out, condemn us, blame, ostracize and forget that we ever existed. How convenient for PCC.

Thankfully, there is a God up in Heaven! There is a wonderful just God who sees all, and will deal with all humanity accordingly as individuals (Hebrews 4:13; Romans 14:10-12). Romans 14:10, “ But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ.” Why has PCC and Campus Church set me, their Christian brother, at ought? I am still willing to reconcile and remove all my remarks from social media, if they will simply forgive me and let me come back to church. I will do whatever they require, but they are holding a grudge of hatred against me, while they hypocritically play church 3 times weekly and sing songs to a God they don’t respect. Listen friend, you absolutely do not respect God if you do not regard your Christian brother or sister.

I kindly mentioned in my PCC Facebook post today that thieves broke into my car this past week. You'd think that someone would have sent me a message to express sympathy. Instead, they blocked out my account. That is typical PCC behavior—to blame and ostracize the victim of PCC's authoritarian prisonhouse of religion!!! All I humbly requested, in the most humble of language, was for PCC to allow me to attend their Campus Church. But instead of showing good will, Christian love and an excellent spirit of seeking restoration, they threw me under the bus and drove over me. That is pathetic! If the rotten pastors of Campus Church were right with God, they would have already contacted me in an attempt to rectify this ongoing matter. But instead, sadly, the overpaid yuppie hypocrite pastors at PCC banned me from coming back. So we are at war! Real Christian people at PCC, huh? Truly, PCC's leaders are no better than heathen thug lawyers who treat people like trash!

Here you can read what their own angry alumni are negatively saying about PCC:

> "Don't go here if you're a Christian; they don't actually follow the Bible. They just use it as an excuse to treat people like trash." —Danielle Tate (2016)
>
> "This institution did more to harm my personal development than any other. As a 38 year old professional, I still bear the scars of how I was treated by this harsh, unloving, uncaring college." —Greg S (2015), a former abused PCC student
>
> "17 years later and I'm still shaking off the trauma. So many extra-biblical rules it'll make your head spin. Great place for Pharisaical training if your into that. The rule book has more rules than the Bible." —Jorn Anderson (September 2022), former mistreated PCC student
>
> "Pcc is the worst school ever. It was a complete waste of my time and money. They kicked me out for going to the wrong Sunday school class. And that was a year ago. They still will not release my transcripts which has put me behind in my college career. They schools not be called a Christian college if they cannot even live by what the Bible has to say. If I was able to take it all back and not go there I would in a heartbeat. I am warning you if you are thinking about going DONT DO IT!!!!" —Gavin Bufford (2017), abused former PCC student
>
> "I'm a 2018 graduate of PCC and I went here for all 4 years. It's really sad that this place calls itself Christian, its legalistic places like pcc that give Christians a bad name. They do have a lot of rules regulating most areas of life. I was treated very poorly and rude by several "Christians" on staff and faculty and I saw many of my friends treated the same way. I've personally seen people who were once people I would hang out with, when given positions of leadership become legalistic monsters taking joy in getting as many students in trouble as possible, and this is done in the name of Christ! As a student you are guilty until proven innocent and can be kicked out just because someone accuses you of something." —Nick Harrison (2019), a mistreated PCC alumni
>
> "It is NOT a friendly environment. All they care about is rules instead of encouraging and building you up in your Christian walk." —Hannah Elizabeth Kirchhoff (December 2022), mistreated former PCC student

> “They call themselves Christians, but Christians are supposed to show compassion and patience.” —Angela (January 2023), mistreated former PCC student
>
> “In retrospect, I thank God for not having the opportunity to attend here (Pensacola Christian College) and myself for not making the decision to enroll.” —Richard Deuto (January 2023)
>
> “Crackpot unaccredited school.” —Meryl Montgomery (November 2022)

You know, the way that we treat people really does matter! Since PCC has the praise of the 99, they couldn’t care less about the 1 %. That is what separates PCC (a horrible Laodicean type of lukewarm private money-making institution) versus a genuine New Testament local church. “ is a disgusting misnomer; they should be honest at PCC and rename it to “Campus Chapel,” because that’s what it really is—a place for cult members to meet to be further indoctrinated. God knows that I am a loving and reasonable man, but I hate bullies! PCC are bullies!!!

Campus Church

When I attended Campus Church in 2021, I was sickened when Pastor Jeff Redlin announced that there would be a meeting that week, teaching how to become more effective while witnessing, and then he said that there is a required $10 charge to attend. Redlin gets paid well over $100,000 a year (an outrageous 6-digit salary), and he is charging people $10 to learn how to share the Gospel? What a crime against Heaven! SHAME on Pastor Redlin and all the pastors of Campus Church.

They have rottenness in their bones. I sincerely tried to become friends with them. I kindly explained to Pastor Redlin (and PCC leaders whom I wrote separately), that I am 56 years old and on disability for cervical stenosis and radiculitis in my spinal cord. I asked for an opportunity to serve in their church ministry. I made it abundantly clear that I need a church family and just want to be a blessing. They refused! Like little brats, PCC leaders cannot see beyond their huge egos, petty prejudices and misguided thinking.

So this is where it all stands, unfortunately, and we are enemies. I tried again today to make peace with PCC, by posting my humble request to come back to Campus Church on PCC’s Facebook page, but they blocked my account instead in their religious hatred. If anyone thinks evil of me, I will say it again, so as to be very clear in this matter—I am still willing to reconcile with the PCC family; but if they foolishly feel that once feelings are hurt and people are offended that it is over (as Pastor Marty Herron’s stupid way of thinking), then that is on them. They are no better than the heathens who refuse to forgive and reconcile with one another in the world.

You see dear reader, the PCC camp have been spiritually BLINDED by their worldly success. That is exactly what happened to the church of Laodicea. Let’s read what Jesus said, shall we!

Revelation 3:15-17, “I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot. So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth. Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked:”

PCC has tens of millions of dollars. In 2018, PCC gave $25,000 to the Lighthouse Baptist Church on Guam, for the church to use it anyway they chose. I thought that was beautiful of PCC to do. Albeit, PCC cannot whitewash their evil deeds by their good deeds. PCC supports Ken Ham’s Young Earth Creation circus fallacy. I seriously doubt if Ken Ham uses his $37,000,000 a year to help churches. I know one thing, [4]Ken Ham’s damnable false plan of salvation is sending people to Hell. Sadly, PCC wickedly bids Godspeed to Ken Ham and his corrupt Lordship Salvation gospel. Ken Ham has been invited to speak at PCC and Campus Church numerous times.

SHAME on PCC for partaking of this religious con man’s evil deeds. You cannot show me anywhere in the inspired King James Bible where it requires a person to “ turn away from your evil ways

to get to Heaven. Ken Ham is WRONG! He is embellishing God’s simple plan of salvation, adding a requirement which God does not demand to be saved. The Bible teaches the exact opposite

, that Christ came to die on a cross to pay for our evil ways. Eternal life is a free gift (Romans 6:23; Ephesians 2:8-9). So where did Ken Ham get the false idea (a doctrine of demons) that more than faith is required to be saved? He got it from the Devil. Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do.

I could say so much more about how PCC is dropping the ball for God. Since they have so much money and influence, their leaders have become cocky, highbrowed, holier-than-thou, looking down on others. No doubt in their spiritual blindness they would deny such a claim, yet by their immature behavior they are proving everything that I have said against them is 100 % true. The day that they attempt to make peace with me, which I am still trying to do with them, I will believe their sincerity. But for now, all I see is fakes! PCC are fakes!!! They are fake news!!! The mantra of Campus Church is: “Loving God! Loving People!” What liars!!! What dirty clown liars! They refuse to even communicate with me, despite my numerous apologies and humble requests to reconcile with the PCC family. How is that loving people? How is that loving God? No, PCC are liars! They talk the talk, but they do not walk the walk.

Your talk talks and your walk talks, but your walk talks louder than your talk talks!

Thank you for reading my heartfelt words. God knows that I love the people at PCC. I do want to respect their leaders, but because they have shown nothing but hatred, contempt and rejection of me as a hurting human being, it is difficult for me to respect such rotten hypocrites. Dear reader, I cannot impress enough upon your heart the great truth which Jesus teaches in

Matthew 18:12, “

How think ye? if a man have an hundred sheep, and one of them be gone astray, doth he not leave the ninety and nine, and goeth into the mountains, and seeketh that which is gone astray?

A godly Christian cares about the 1 % who have gone astray. Money-hungry religious leaders only care about the 99 %. Jesus commanded us in The Beatitudes (or, the attitudes that should be), for us to love our enemies. The Lord said to pray for those who despitefully use us. He said to love those who hate us. What a wonderful Savior! Yet, at Campus Church and Pensacola Christian College they hate me. They refuse to love me, and I have no doubt whatsoever that they never pray for me.

You can tell if someone is praying for you by how they treat you. PCC shamefully treats me like trash! [5]They treated Samantha Field like trash! Pensacola Christian College expelled student Allen Armentrout, after he was found to be demonstrating in favor of a statue of Robert E. Lee, three days after violence erupted at the "Unite the Right" rally in Charlottesville, Virginia. You see, at PCC you have no individuality. They own your butt from the time your enroll until the time your graduate. [6]Sadly, PCC’s abusive authoritarian culture mimics the BITE model of cult mind control and abuse!

Pastor Jack Hyles said it best:

> “The pastors have destroyed the churches, and they’ve been trained by people that have never built churches, and they have no compassion.” —Pastor Jack Hyles, “[7]Many Pastors Have Destroyed My Vineyard”

PCC has tons of money, lots of fans and an incredible amount of influence, which has sadly blinded them spiritually and made it so that they don’t need, want, pray or care about the 1 % who fall through the cracks. PCC has a horrible reputation of expelling students on a whim, for the smallest of offenses. That is arrogance and stiff-necked pride, not esteeming others better than our self as the Bible teaches.

Philippians 2:3, “Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves.”

That is not the Lord’s way! That is not real Christianity! That is the world’s wicked way, to only love those who love you first.

Pensacola Christian College is far more resemblant of a controlling religious cult, than they are of a New Testament Bible-believing Christians. You can gauge any religious institution by how they treat the 1 % who need extra love and help. My former and only wife abandoned me in 2006. My life has been a train wreck since. I literally begged for their love, compassion, understanding and help from Campus Church’s pastors, but they shamefully refused. Broken repentant sinners are not welcomed at PCC, only goody-two-shoes hypocrites who think they are better than people like me, king David in the Bible and Samantha Field.

PCC is condemning me based their own self-righteousness. That is of the Devil. God knows that I am not the one refusing to reconcile, Pastor Jeff Redlin and PCC leaders refuse to cooperate. They are literally placing themselves in the place of God, deciding who matters and who doesn't. I feel nothing but hatred from PCC's bigoted, unchristian and haughty rotten leaders. PCC is just like Hollywood, falling all over themselves with self glorification and self praise. But in the real world, PCC is viewed as a cesspool of bigoted haters, intolerant religious nuts who don't give a damn about hurting divorced people, broken sinners or anybody who dares to question or criticize their almighty cult system at PCC.

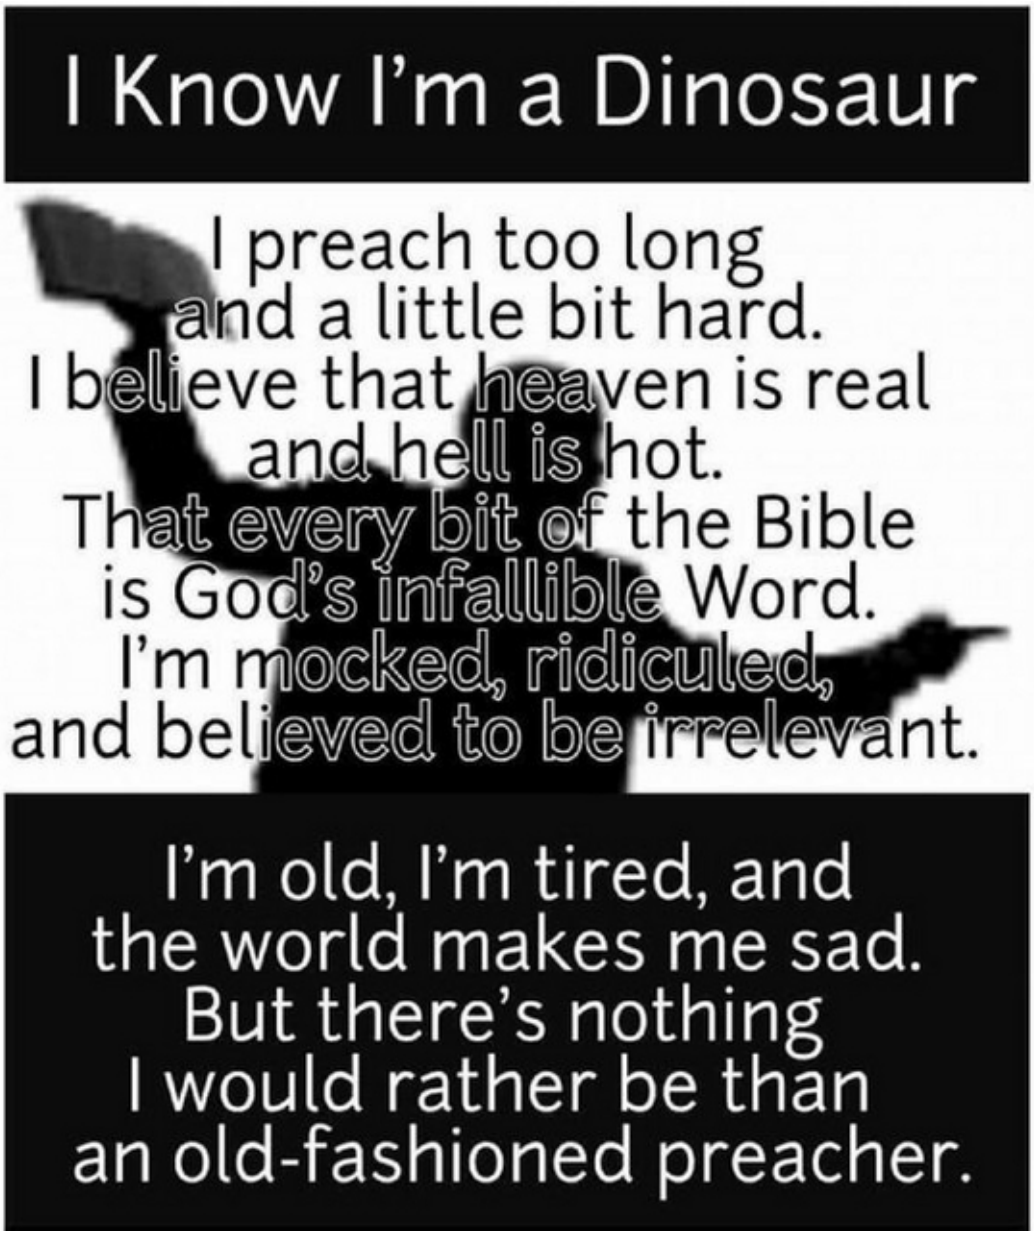
There are a lot of Samantha Fields out there, crying out to God to be avenged of the uncaring incompetent cult leaders at PCC, who abuse people and treat hurting sinners like garbage. It does matter how we treat others! ALL LIVES MATTER!!! Only God can open their blinded apostate eyes and bring them to repentance at PCC. I am just [8]a VOICE crying in the wilderness of cyberspace, hoping that someone will hear and listen. I pray that God will open their foolish eyes at Campus Church and PCC. Until then, by God's grace I will do the only things that I can do, which is to pray and "

REBUKE THEM SHARPLY

" that they might be sound in the faith (Titus 1:10-14).

Clearly, PCC is not sound in the faith for supporting Ken Ham's false gospel. PCC is not sound in the faith by expecting lonely divorced people to be alone for the rest of their life. It doesn't matter if you are 20 years old and divorced, PCC expects you to never get remarried. PCC doesn't care about your suffering, loneliness or pain, while they go home and enjoy their spouses. What evil hypocrites!!!

God knows my broken heart, that I just want to reconcile with the PCC family, but they are so self-righteous and full of pride, having giant egos, that they don't care about restoration or reconciliation. All that matters is making more money, and falsely praising themselves, so they can continue living the lie that they are pleasing to God. No amount of good works can compensate for mistreating people, the hurting 1 % who need the most help. I can tell how good of a Christian you are by the way you treat your enemies, the poor, the difficult people in your life, and the way you treat those who can do nothing for you.



Today I was kicked off of PCC's Facebook page, which prompted me to write this blog. I am tired of the abusive behavior of the PCC camp, who arrogantly throw anybody under the bus whom they dislike., That is a form of injustice, by not giving someone an opportunity to make things right and be restored to fellowship with the saints at a church. Campus Church is a cult that selectively cares about people who pay them to care. That is so Satanic! Thank you for reading if you got this far. I really do appreciate that you read my humble blogs. God bless you friend! I don't enjoy criticizing PCC. I am a hurting sinner who just needs and desires to be loved, by a group of self-righteous professed Christians who shamefully have done nothing but reject, shun and throw me under the bus since 2021. What is wrong with Pensacola Christian College??? God will avenge me. Genesis 50:20, " But as for you, ye thought evil against me; but God meant it unto good, to bring to pass, as it is this day, to save much people alive.

Those who genuinely walk closely with God care about everyone, especially the needy 1 %, not just the 99 % safe in the fold. The true test of one’s Christian maturity is not how much you love Jesus, but how much you love Judas. If you have a problem with that statement, you have a problem dear friend, because you fail to grasp the true heart of God, which is to unconditionally love everyone, regardless of who they are or what they have done. God is love. PCC woefully lacks love and compassion for people! I love you all with Christ’s love. People just want to be loved.

4.5.3 God Is Interested In Your Obedience More Than Attitude (2023-05-09 16:39)

Matthew 21:28-32, “But what think ye? A certain man had two sons; and he came to the first, and said, Son, go work to day in my vineyard. He answered and said, I will not: but afterward he repented, and went. And he came to the second, and said likewise. And he answered and said, I go, sir: and went not. Whether of them twain did the will of his father? They say unto him, The first. Jesus saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, That the publicans and the harlots go into the kingdom of God before you. For John came unto you in the way of righteousness, and ye believed him not: but the publicans and the harlots believed him: and ye, when ye had seen it, repented not afterward, that ye might believe him.”

I love this story that the Lord told. It was about two son. Their father owned a vineyard which needed some work done. He asked both of his sons to go work in his vineyard. The first son had a good attitude and was agreeable, telling his father that he would gladly go work in the vineyard, but afterwards he went not. The other son had a bad attitude and was disagreeable, refusing to go work in his father’s vineyard, but he later changed his mind and went to work in the vineyard. Jesus said that the second son pleased his father, not the first.

I love this story and often am reminded of it, because sometimes I get angry at God. I admit that I have called God names and yelled at Him sometimes. Since 2004 I have woefully suffered from stenosis and radiculitis in my cervical spinal cord, which causes constant chronic pain, burning nerves, numbness, radiating pain in my limbs and other discomforts. It is hard to be spiritual when you are in pain all the time. And worse, the agonizing pain is right next to my head, in my neck, and there is no relief. The Oxycontin and Percocet do help alleviate my pain a bit, but nothing completely removes the pain. It feels like a giant toothache in the back of my neck, where the bone is at, the size of a baseball. This constant debilitating, dull, throbbing pain has ruined my life since 2004 when it began. It is difficult for my to carry on normal conversations with people. I often close my eyes while talking, to cope with the pain.

As you can imagine, this pain and discomfort makes me irritable, less than patient and I get frustrated easily. So it is not hard to understand why I get upset with God sometimes, and I tell Him off! Even though I know in my heart that this is wrong to do, I know 100 % that my dear Savior understands. God sees my pain of body and soul. God sees my utter loneliness for the past 17 years, since my former wife abandoned and divorced me in 2006. God sees the thieves (or thief) who have three times stolen from me during the past three months. They have stolen $600 worth of stuff, including my King James Bible (which was full of irreplaceable sermon notes).

God sees my broken heart because Pensacola Christian College (PCC) has literally banned me in writing from attending their Campus Church. I feel nothing but contempt and hatred for the PCC family. I begged them, humbly apologizing three time in 2022, requesting just to attend Campus Church again, but Pastor Jeff Redlin coldly refused. [1]That is so rotten and unchristian of PCC! So God sees my sincerity, that I have made a diligent attempt to reconcile with the PCC family, but they refuse to even communicate with me. That is so ungodly! God hears my cry and sees my pain of soul because of the unloving hypocrites at Campus Church and PCC, their huge egos and sinful pride.

God sees that I am alone in life. My wife abandoned me. The local PCC family hates and rejects me. I suffer in constant pain. Who wouldn't get upset and at times have a bad attitude? I know that my blessed Savior cares and understands. PCC will be held accountable by God one day for their woeful lack of love or compassion, for not reaching out with love to the 1 % who have fallen through the cracks at PCC. People just want to be loved.

Despite my bad attitude at times, and my anger over life's miseries in general, God knows that I ALWAYS go right back to working day and night on my website ministry. The dear Lord knows where He can find me day after day, night after night, tirelessly working hard long hours to preach the Gospel, contend for the Christian faith, expose falsehoods and evil, and feed Jesus' sheep. Yes, I admit, sometimes I get upset and tell God that: "

I have had enough, I am done, do it yourself!

" I sometimes get mad at God because I feel like He never answers my prayers. I feel like no matter what I say, pray or do, everything is all my fault. Why is God ignoring my humble prayers? Why won't the Lord help me with anything. I feel sometimes like God has abandoned me. Yet, I know that everything God does is right!!!

What makes me so angry is that I KNOW God can do anything. God sees all. God knows all. God is all powerful. There is NOTHING too hard for God to do. So why won't He help me? Why am I all alone without a wife, when I have prayed over 1,000 times over the past 10 years for God to help me find a woman to marry; someone to have and to hold in love, for better for worse, in sickness and in health, 'til death do us part? Why won't God help me? Doesn't He care? I am confident that you have also felt the same way at times. I do know that many other people have shared these same frustrations and feelings toward God, because they contact me to ask me these very same questions. It is called properly, "Religious Scrupulosity.

When people ask me why God doesn't care, I always guide them to 2nd Corinthians 5:7, "(For we walk by faith, not by sight:)" If we pray and then look for results, we are walking BY SIGHT. We ought not do that. We should pray and then just trust the Lord, walking BY FAITH. Perhaps God is testing my faith, to see if I really believe the truths that I am teaching others. I admit that I sometimes feel like quitting my ministry. I have often felt like just walking away from everything. I have often wanted to leave society, completely disappear off social media and the internet, never to be heard from again. I'd like to move to a mountainous area and buy a small cabin home out in the middle of nowhere, in a remote rural town.

So why don't I do it? In two words, "

by faith.

” I cannot help people for Christ if I leave the internet. The only reason that I have a Facebook, Twitter or any social media account is to get lost sinners saved, contend for the Christian faith, and feed Jesus’ sheep. Daniel 11:33, “

And they that understand among the people shall instruct many: yet they shall fall by the sword, and by flame, by captivity, and by spoil, many days. ” I know that God is pleased with me, despite my bad attitude and wanting to quit at times, simply because I keep serving God. By God’s grace, I am getting the job done! Thousands of lost sinners have been saved through my humble ministry labors over the past 21 years, since 2002 when I began. I give God ALL the credit and praise. Jesus is precious!!!

So despite my constant agonizing neck pain, I keep laboring for my dear Savior. Despite my loneliness and lack of a wife for companionship and comfort, I keep going for God. The blessed indwelling Holy Spirit sustains me. As I type, I feel physical burning in my nerves throughout my upper body. It all radiates from damaged spinal cord nerve roots in my neck (it is medically called radiculitis). God is so good and I have no complaints.

Robbers have stolen 3 times from me in the past 3 months. I have filed 3 police reports. The thieves are always one step ahead of me. As an imperfect human, I sometimes forget to lock my cars doors. The thieves were just waiting for that moment, and they struck, stealing my King James Bible and $400 worth of my stuff. They stole all my sermon notes, which I cannot replace. My heart is broken. I hate a thief! Stealing is not a victimless crime, far from it. Thieves force us to live in fear all the time. Lord willing, I hope to save enough money in the next few years to move to a nicer area in the suburbs of a city. If you live in any populated area in the United States, there are dirty thieves everywhere. Albeit, my heart is comforted by Jesus’ precious promise in Matthew 6:19-20, that the rewards we lay up in Heaven are untouchable by thieves, rust or corruption.

Every time that I have become angry at God and told Him off, I wept later that same day, asking for His forgiveness. And every single time without fail, the dear Savior silently says to my soul that He completely understands, and that He knows I have a lot on my plate and shoulders, and everything is okay. I know that God loves me. He sees and even feels my pain of body and soul. God sees the unloving saints at PCC who refuse to allow me to attend Campus Church.

God sees their hypocrisy at Pensacola Christian College (PCC). Jesus knows that Pastor Jeff Redlin gets paid well over $100,000 a year (a 6-digit salary), but I have never been paid a single cent over the past 21 years. God knows that I have approximately 75,000 hours of time invested in my website ministry, far more labor than 99 % of pastors anywhere. I work far more hours than Pastor Redlin, and I do it by faith for Jesus all for free! Pastor Redlin and company already have their rewards. My reward is waiting for me up in Heaven. Since I have laboured for 75,000 hours for Christ, without receiving a single penny in compensation; but Jeff Redlin has been paid literally MILLIONS OF DOLLARS during his pastoral career, God will reward me that much more; otherwise God would be unfair and unethical.

So dear friend, if you find yourself getting frustrated and upset at God sometimes, just keep serving Him. Just keep preaching the Gospel to lost sinners, and God will be pleased. There are terrible broken churches all across the United States, where the pastor has a seemingly good attitude, but there is no soulwinning. Churches everywhere meet for weekly Bible studies and prayer meetings, but never knock on a single neighborhood door to share the Gospel of free grace. So their church languishes in mediocre attendance, and there is no contending for the Christian faith, and the baptistery is seldom used if ever to baptize new converts (because there are none). Sadly, America’s fastest growing churches are the worldly ones.

I hope this Bible truth is as encouraging to you dear friend, as it has been for me for many years. We all succumb to our emotions at times. Everyone has a breaking point! But God is not so much interested in your temporary mood swings and anger toward Him, as He is about your long-term trend. John 15:7, “

If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you. Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; so shall ye be my disciples.” God’s ultimate desire and goal for every believer is that we become soulwinners!!!

Luke 8:15, “

But that on the good ground are they, which in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit with patience. ” There is a direct correlation between saints who truly abide in God’s Word and winning souls. Any man who spends thousands of hours in the Bible, but never shares the Gospel with lost sinners, is a fraud. That man knows nothing about the great nature and heart of God our Savior. Luke 19:10, “ For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost.

4.5.4 Don’t Let A Snake Talk You into Divorcing (2023-05-09 23:59)

Jeremiah 3:20, “Surely as a wife treacherously departeth from her husband, so have ye dealt treacherously with me, O house of Israel, saith the LORD.”

Sadly, in 2012 after 25-years of happy marriage, Marie Schwarzenegger filed for divorce and called it quits. Despite showers of candy and flowers from Arnold, who didn’t want the divorce, Marie had been poisoned by the snakes in her life. According to Arnold, “Maria’s friends have done everything they can to poison the waters,“ imploring Maria to stay clear of him. This is exactly why so many marriages are ending in divorce, that is, because people are like deadly snakes, who go around in hypocrisy destroying other people's marriages and lives; yet they do not suffer any consequences themselves.

I am fully convinced that God in Heaven is going to severely punish anyone who contributes in the least way to causing a divorce (including ungodly greedy judges and lawyers). Jesus Christ warned in Matthew 7:2, "For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again." These vicious hypocrites who scrutinize other people's lives to justify a divorce, crucifying them over every sin they can find in the spouse, will be dealt with likewise on Judgment Day by God.

Arnold Schwarzenegger Resigned to Divorce

TMZ | April 11, 2012

Arnold Schwarzenegger would like Maria Shriver to take him back, but he's not holding out hope and is at peace with the likely end of his marriage ... sources very close to the actor tell TMZ.

As TMZ first reported, Maria has waffled on divorcing her hubby, partly because he still has a strong emotional hold on her and partly because divorce runs counter to her religion. But we're told as time passes and both Arnold and Maria have created separate lives, divorce is looking more certain.

We're told Arnold believes Maria's friends have done everything they can to poison the waters, imploring Maria to stay clear of him.

This is so typical of busy-bodies today who interfere in other people's business, minding what their neighbor is doing instead of minding their own children, home and marriage. People love to give unsought advice, destructive advice, based upon their own emotional anger and short-sighted solutions. Divorce, divorce, divorce is their answer for everything. Yet, they wouldn't want anyone meddling in their marriage, trying to convince their spouse to eat the forbidden fruit, and disobey God by filing for divorce.

God had made an agreement with the nation Israel, which He later broke off because of their rebellion, but God did not divorce His people. God divorced the nation of Israel. It was an agreement gone bad, a business deal fallen through. In sharp contrast, marriage is a commitment, not an agreement. Divorce is an agreement. Marriage is two people committing themselves to remain faithful to each other—'til death do us part. That means "for the rest of your life" in the Greek. I'm kidding about the Greek of course, but I am serious when I remind you that marriage is a lifetime commitment. All it takes to fall in love is a pulse, but to stay married requires a plan.

All it took was one malicious, little, snake to destroy Eve's life, ruin her future happiness, hurt her marriage and cause the downfall of the human race. Eve made the mistake of LISTENING TO OTHERS. My advice to anyone reading this article, especially you ladies, is to avoid seeking advice from people. This includes so-called Christian people, most of whom are as "Christian" as Judas Iscariot. If you want advice, seek it from a mother who's been faithfully married for 50-years. But still, she might give you bad advice. Your best bet is to SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES as Jesus commanded in John 5:39. What most people do is allow someone else to tell them what the Scripture teach, and they instead twist the Bible horribly to fit their agenda. It is evil.

I've had so many people ask me what are the biblical grounds for divorce. I immediately tell them that there are NONE! Jesus said in Matthew 19:8 that only by the hardness of one's heart does divorce occur. Jesus said in Matthew 18:22 to forgive not 7 times, but 7 times 70 (i.e., unlimited forgiveness). In divorce, a spouse is refusing to forgive even once. It is the ultimate act of self-righteousness. In filing for divorce a spouse is saying, "You are a bigger sinner than me; therefore, I have a right to abandon and divorce you." You cannot show me that in the inspired Word of God. The Lord HATES divorce.

Marriage is for life—until death do us part. Anything less makes the departing spouse a fraud and a liar. Please don't let a snake ruin your life, as it did Eve's. The serpent was cunning, using the Bible to convince Eve to do evil. That's exactly what so many religious people do today, i.e., they corrupt the meaning of the Scriptures in an attempt to justify all sorts of sins: divorce, abortion, homosexuality, feminism, worldly music, pornography, stealing, killing, et cetera. They did the same thing in the Old Testament (Jeremiah 7:9-10).

The people who destroy your life go home to their spouse, move on with their normal life, and you likely won't hear from them ever again. That's the way the heathen world operates. They destroy families and then act innocent like they did nothing wrong. I guarantee you that the wicked people who talk you into filing for divorce, will ultimately go their merry way as did the snake in the Garden of Eden. Once the snake convinced Eve to eat the forbidden fruit, we never read about him again in the story. Likewise, well-meaning malicious people will ruin your life with bad advice if you let them, by taking their poisonous advice. Even the most wicked people sincerely think that their horrible advice is the right thing to do. Satan controls their mind. Ungodly daytime shows like The View and Oprah Winfrey are as wicked as hell.

Don't Seek Advice From Wicked People At Church

If you are going through a difficult time in your life, where do you turn for help? As a born-again Christian for 43 years, since I got saved in 1980 at age 13, I have learned very much. My humble advice to you dear reader, when you hit rock bottom in life, is to SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES! On a regular basis, I listen to fundamentalist Bible preaching even when things are going well in life, and the weather is fair. That way when the raging storms come, I have plenty of sermon truths laid up for the raining days.

I cannot warn you enough about churchgoers who give destructive advice, recommending a divorce. Women especially are vulnerable to wicked men and women at church, who hide behind religion to justify their meddling and hatred toward husbands who don't attend church with the wife. Since the people at church know the wife, but not her husband, they do everything in their power to help the wife leave her husband. That is as wicked as Hell. I have seen this happen so, so, many times.

A man's relationship with his wife supersedes the wife's relationship with her pastor and local church. Before God ever created children, He instituted the marriage relationship.

Before God ever created the Church, He instituted the marriage relationship.

Before God ever created human government, He instituted the marriage relationship. Your marriage trumps every other human relationship, even with your own family. The only thing that trumps one's marriage is our relationship with God. ...

Unfortunately, most people don't spiritually prepare for the dark times of life, so when they come suddenly without warning, those people are overwhelmed with grief and sorrow. Some commit suicide. Others turn to destructive vices like booze and drugs. I still feed in my soul from sermon truths that I learned from Dr. Jack Hyles 35 years ago. Whereas the Bible never changes, the world and society constantly change. In 1962 homosexuality was a punishable crime in all 50 states, but today it is legal in all 50 states.

Sadly, in 2022 [3]a Gallup Poll showed that 71 % of Americans now approve of same-sex unions . America is spiraling down into the depths of Hell.

If you are married, you need to talk with each other as husband and wife, and make a plan for your marriage to survive. You need to not withhold secrets from each other. You should both set rules about not being alone with the opposite sex, people to whom you are not married.

Adultery almost always starts with spending time alone with friends or co-workers of the opposite sex. No married person should ever engage in dirty talk, or discussion over intimacy in one's own marriage. It is shocking how lacking in common sense, decency and class people are concerning their own marriage. I have heard men in the workplace talk about what they do with their wife in bed. That is as wicked as hell. The marriage bed is sacred and holy in God's sight. Hebrews 13:4, "Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled: but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge."

Guard your marriage dear reader! No married man should allow other women to flirt and spend time with him. No married woman should ever allow any man other than her husband to touch her, not even on the shoulder. Ungodly men will test a woman, testing the perimeters. If she allow him to touch her, those hands and fingers will creep lower and lower. Just say, "Please do not touch me again." If he does, it is sexual harassment, and you should file a police report. Our modern adulterous society is sickening!!! You need to let other people know how far YOU WON'T GO!!! All men are sex pigs, don't forget that ladies. Dr. Hyles used to say in response to people who criticized his preaching against immodestly clothed women: "Brother Hyles, you have a dirty mind. No, I have a man's mind." That is a great answer!

Always Protect Your Marriage

Protect your marriage! That is what we are talking about here. Don't listen to the counsel of the ungodly. Psalms 1:1, "Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful." I cannot warn you enough dear friend to avoid receiving ungodly counsel. Christians ought not seek advice from secular psychologists. A psychiatrist is okay if you need medications to cope with a mental disorder.

Christian youth ought never attend a secular university, where the lies of evolution, humanism, communism, socialism, sex perversion and atheism are taught. My favorite Bible verse is Proverbs 4:23, "Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life." This is why you ought not listen to some cackling divorced hen, or some single woman who is not even married yet, or someone who is living a sinful lifestyle of fornication—encourage you to file for divorce. If you want advice, go seek advice from a Christian woman who is still happily married after 30 or 40 years, and she has successfully raised 4 or 5 children of her own. That is the kind of woman you should seek advice from, not a feminist woman who is divorced. Bad advice is like cancer—it spreads and kills everything that it comes into contact with.

I sincerely care about people. Please be careful, especially you ladies, whom the Bible teaches is the "weaker vessel" (1st Peter 3:7). Divorce is a sin that perpetuates for a lifetime! The grass only seems greener on the other side of the fence. You should start planting grass in your own yard. In divorce and remarriage, you are only exchanging one set of problems for another set of problems.

There are exceptions of course, where people who have divorced and remarried say they were much happier and better off in their second marriage. Only God knows if that is true, but it doesn't change the fact that Jesus said God never intended for divorce to happen. Matthew 19:8, " He saith unto them, Moses because of the hardness of your hearts suffered you to put away your wives: but from the beginning it was not so. " There is just something honorable and beautiful about hanging in there, with the resolve and determination to never get divorced.

I remember when I attended the First Baptist Church of Hammond. A young married couple were having serious marital problems. In fact, things were so bad that the husband sat on one side of the church auditorium, and his wife sat on the other side of the church auditorium. I remember Dr. Hyles praising and commending them, without pointing them out or mentioning their names, saying how proud he was of them for hanging in there and not divorcing. Ladies and gentlemen, we need that kind of commitment in our marriages once again, where couple vow to rather die than get divorced.

It is sad and tragic that American society has adopted the insane mentality that divorce is the only answer to our marriage problem. And locking people up in prison is the only answer for school truancy, drug addiction and mental illness. We've lost our minds in the United States. We allow our government to give away tens of billions of dollars each year to foreign countries, while we won't even house our own citizens who are homeless on the streets across our nation. Charity must begin at home, not abroad. Our ridiculous and incompetent federal government spends 6.6 trillion dollars each year, and [4]in 2022 gave 24 billion dollars just to NASA. In 2023 NASA is getting another 25.4 billion dollars.

Dear reader, divorce is NEVER the solution. Killing your marriage is what the Devil wants, not what God wants. No marriage can be destroyed from without. Wicked men may separate a husband and wife (e.g., by war or some manmade crisis), but that marriage is still holy ground and completely valid in God's sight, until one spouse dies. No marriage can be destroyed from without. A marriage can only be destroyed from within. A marriage is two people making a life for each other, and never giving up on each other.

It is hard for me to understand how anyone can divorce their spouse of 20, 30, 40 or more years! It is so sad and unnecessary. Dear Sir, marriage is about being committed to God, to love your wife at all times, especially when she is difficult and crazy. Dear Miss, marriage is about being committed to God, to obey your husband at all times, especially when you disagree with him. God didn't command the husband to lead his wife; but rather, to LOVE her!

If you truly love her, she will follow and obey you.

Interesting, God doesn't command you ladies to love your husband; but rather, He commands you to SUBMIT to your man. God knew exactly what He was doing when He created men and women. If you want your husband to love you, then obey him; if you want your wife to obey you, then love her. Guard your marriage. Be alert for attacks upon your marriage. Watch out men for that flirtatious woman. Be alert ladies for that flirtatious man.

And may I saw, I humbly don't believe that a wife should work in a secular workplace, where there is much temptation. I can tell you sad story after story about working wives who ran off with some bum at work. In one tragic true news story, a wicked man at worked seduced a married woman with his charms and kindness. She fell in love with him and they began a sinful adulterous affair. When the husband learned about it, he murdered his wife and went to prison for life. The children went to live with the grandparents. The ungodly adulterer at work walked away Scot-free. I think he should be in prison too, for life. Adultery always starts with wrong thinking. So guard your mind dear friend. Colossians 3:1-3 says to set your affection upon the things of Heaven, not earth.

4.5.5 Pastor Jeff Redlin Gets Paid 6-Digit Salary To Care About The 99%; I Don't Make A Penny Caring About The 1% (2023-05-10 14:50)

Proverbs 21:13, "Whoso stoppeth his ears at the cry of the poor, he also shall cry himself, but shall not be heard."

It sickens me that our U.S. federal government gives trillions of dollars away to foreign countries, NASA and all type of programs, but they have no money to build houses for homeless people. The Iraqi War cost U.S. taxpayers $2,400,000,000,000!!! That's 2.4 trillion dollars! You can measure the health of any society by the way they treat the poor and homeless.

Every year the federal government gives 25 billion dollars to NASA. For that same amount of money, $50,000 [1]tiny homes could be built for 500,000 homeless people. Housing alone won't solve homelessness, but community will. Love thy neighbour as thyself. That is the key to ending homelessness in the United States, and the world. If we simply loved our neighbour as our self, nobody would be poor and homeless. We have money for bombs, but not for beds. We have money for missiles, but not for medicine. Our U.S. federal government spends 6.6 trillion dollars every year for our national budget, and still yet our government is 30 trillion dollars in debt! There is PLENTY of money to end homelessness and poverty in America and the world, but greedy and wicked people prevent it from getting to the poor. Jesus said that the poor would always be with us.

In comparison, I was just thinking about how rotten Pensacola Christian College (PCC) is. I was thinking how PCC is guilty of the same sin as those greedy leaders of the nations who refuse to care about the poor to help them. There is plenty of opportunities at PCC for everybody to fit in and serve God, but just like the evil people who neglect the poor in the world, so also does PCC ignore the hurting 1 % of people like me and Samantha Field, who desperately need their love and help. Proverbs 21:13, "Whoso stoppeth his ears at the cry of the poor, he also shall cry himself, but shall not be heard."

PCC hears my cry for reconciliation with them, as their Christian brother in need with a broken heart, but they have stopped their ears from hearing my cry. I humbly posted a request yesterday on PCC's Facebook page, asking to come back to Campus Church. Instead of hearing my cry and helping me, they blocked out my Facebook account. That is how evil PCC treats hurting people, they stop their ears at the cry of others. Pastor Jeff Redlin gets paid over $100,000 a year to care about the 99 % of their people, but I get paid nothing to care about the 1 % of Christ's lambs in need.

Pastor Jack Hyles is right, when he said you either love everybody, or else you love nobody. I love that our great God sees and cares about the 1 % of people. PCC sinfully discards the 1 %, stopping their ears at the cry of the 1 % for love and help. At PCC, there are no second chances, no path of restoration, no compassion for the fallen. Truly, the love on money is the root of all evil. For money, PCC will help your child memorize Bible verses, but you must pay them upfront. This is NOT serving God, this is a predatory opportunistic business.

Proverbs 21:13, "Whoso stoppeth his ears at the cry of the poor, he also shall cry himself, but shall not be heard."

The 1 % of divorced, broken, grieving, expelled, difficult and suffering people are poor in spirit. PCC stops their ears at the cry of these 1 %. I was pondering this truth today, thanking God for my website ministry which reaches out in love to the 1 % of saints who are depressed, down and out, hurt, angry, frustrated, lonely, tired and disgusted with superficial phony churches today. Jeff Redlin gets paid a 6-digit salary to care about the 99 %, but I don't get paid a penny to care about the 1 % (and I wouldn't take a penny or a million dollars if you threw it at me). I love the ministry which God has given to me. Everyone is welcome in my ministry. PCC discriminates, they only love some people; but I do not discriminate, I love everybody with Christ's unconditional l love. I always take people back who have become angry at me and left, but then came back asking me for a second chance. Of course you can have a second chance, and a third, and a fourth, there is no limit.

I was listening to the blessed Old Testament book of Proverbs today, and I heard a Bible verse that applies to the thieves who stole from my vehicle this week. Proverbs 12:26, "The righteous is more excellent than his neighbour: but the way of the wicked seduceth them." God is so good. Likewise, God sees that I have an excellent spirit toward PCC. The Lord sees and knows that I desire to make peace, to reconcile and be a part of the PCC family. Sadly, PCC cult leadership have huge egos, and they are arrogant, spiritually blinded to their wretched, naked, poor and miserable condition as a church (Revelation 3:15-17).

I am just a humble broken sinner, a nobody who deserves to burn in Hell for my sins. But thanks be to God, who rescued me through the gift of His only begotten Son, Jesus. Pastor Jeff Redlin at PCC's Campus Church is so cocky and full of hubris, that he won't even communicate with me. I gave him my phone number, mailing address and email. I apologized 3 times and sincerely offered to do what ever they require top make peace. I conditionally promised to remove all my criticisms from social media, but only IF they agree to allow me to attend Campus Church. They wouldn't even talk with me about making a path of restoration. Sadly, they are just jerks at PCC, yuppie-type leaders who hold grudges, refuse to forgive and think like juvenile teenagers who are undisciplined brats. Did I mention that PCC leaders are arrogant, having a wicked spirit of supremacy over others? Sadly, it is all true.

Pastor Jack Hyles often told the entire church that the day the poor, and the bus kids, and smelly rescue mission men, the broken, homeless and unloving are not welcomed at the First Baptist Church of Hammond, Indiana, he would resign as their pastor. Dr. Hyles meant it too! I share Brother Hyles sentiments exactly. My ministry exists to help everybody, especially the 1 % of rejects, failures, the poor and downcast, felons, unwanted people, losers, former prison convicts, mental cases and all those in society that no one else will give the time of day too.

You'd be surprised at some of my biggest ministry co-laborers, my ministry friends—messed up people who survive on taking prescription drugs, who have spent years going to psychiatrists, and have had umpteen horrible pastors cruelly tell them they are insane. But they come to me and I receive those weirdos with love, tolerating their mood swings and rudeness to me at times. I look beyond their faults and I see their need. I wean them little by little with the Word of God, showering them with God's unconditional love. And now years later they are saved, serving God as active soulwinners, rescuing men's souls from the grip of Satan with the hope of the glorious Gospel of Jesus Christ. I live to help people for Christ!

I didn't write this blog to brag that I am a better person than Jeff Redlin, God forbid. I am just as much a dirty wicked sinner as the next guy. We are all wicked! I wrote this blog to draw attention to the masquerade of phony religion today. I wrote this blog to pull back the big curtain, to expose the little contemptible man at the control at PCC. The world sees 'The Great Oz' at PCC, with their expensive extravagant buildings, and their fake image of being a church that actually loves God and people. THEY ARE LIARS AT PCC!!!

The official motto at Campus Church is: "LOVING GOD! LOVING PEOPLE!" Sadly, they don't practice what they preach! At PCC you either give unwavering allegiance to the cult's leaders, or else you are shunned, ostracized and thrown under the bus. I attended Campus Church for a few months in 2021. Pastor Redlin was brash and insensitive in his remarks, which deeply hurt my feelings. When I kindly told him that as the pastor of Campus Church he made me feel like garbage. His ungodly reply was "That's your reality." In other words, he said I feel like garbage because of my own wrong thinking. But that is not what I said to him. I had kindly told Pastor Redlin that he made me feel like garbage.

Tragically, the incompetent leaders of PCC and Campus Church are intellectual devils. They think they are smarter than they really are. They think they are cute elevating themselves into the place of God. At PCC, only SOME LIVES MATTER. But in a genuine New Testament church, ALL LIVES MATTER. That is why I wrote this blog dear friend, because I want to expose PCC for not caring, helping or loving the 1 % among us, those who need their compassion and love the most. It is NOT okay to only love and care about the 99 % percent.

To clarify, I am not talking about belligerent people with whom you cannot reason or make peace (although you should express God's love toward those individuals). I am talking about people like me, who have already apologized multiple times to PCC's leaders. I am still willing to reconcile and make peace with them, but they hate me and refuse to make a path of RESTORATION. Galatians 6:1-3 teaches to seek restoration with fallen brothers and sisters in Christ, in a humble spirit of meekness.

Jesus said if you bring your gift to the altar to give God, but remember that a brother has ought against you (i.e., someone is pissed off at you for some reason), the Lord WILL NOT accept your worship until you first go and reconcile with your brother. I have ought against Jeff Redlin and PCC. I have already gone to them, but they refuse to cooperate. Matthew 5:23, "Therefore if thou bring thy gift to the altar, and there rememberest that thy brother hath ought against thee; Leave there thy gift before the altar, and go thy way; first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift." I want the world to know that I HAVE OUGHT AGAINST CAMPUS CHURCH AND PENSACOLA CHRISTIAN COLLEGE!!!

They refuse to reconcile. They hate my guts and won't even talk with me, which is wickedness. PCC's leaders and support staff are all in bed together in apostasy, mistreating and shunning anybody who they don't accept in their CULT. That is why both Campus Church and PCC have blocked my Facebook account. God hears my humble cry! God sees their arrogance at PCC, and that they have become a spiritual Sodom at Campus Church (which is really a cult, and no church at all). Only religious cults shun and reject hurting people, selectively choosing who is relevant and who is expendable. It is all about money, money, money at PCC. Thank you for reading.

There is a major problem in Bible colleges, ministries and churches all across America, which is that professed Christians don't care about individual people. That is why I wrote this blog. It is not accepted to only care about the majority, but then discard the minority. Jesus didn't just care about the 99 sheep safe in the fold, He cared also about that 1 lamb who went astray. When people become discouraged or disgruntled and leave church, we ought never just let them go. We should go after them with God's love, begging them to come back. We should seek restoration, not just kick people out of church when they have fallen. People just want to be loved.

By God's grace, I wrote this blog to help you discern what is wrong with Pensacola Christian College (PCC), Bob Jones University (BJU) and so many other shabby so-called "Christian ministries" today where individual people are expendable. The truth is that no church or ministry is pleasing to God who discards people, throwing unwanted people under the bus. I know that I am nothing, but PCC arrogantly thinks they are something. At PCC the system always comes first, individual people do not matter. Galatians 6:3, "For if a man think himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself."

The Bible commands us as saints to esteem others as being BETTER THAN OUR SELF. Philippians 2:3, "Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves.

" Something is very wrong with PCC, when they can all meet in their so-called "Campus Church" and sing religious songs like everything is just fine, while people like me and Samantha Field are at home hurting in inexplicable pain of soul, because PCC won't have anything to do with us. You cannot crap on your Christian brother and then worship God in church like nothing is wrong. God's curse is upon the PCC camp, until they start loving the 1 % who need their love, compassion and empathy. The heart of my website ministry for the past 21 years has been reaching out the the 1 %. By God's grace I will continue to do so.

4.5.6 Healthy Fear Is A Good Thing (2023-05-13 11:57)

Proverbs 1:7, “The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge: but fools despise wisdom and instruction.”

Dear friend, fear is not always a bad thing. In the book of Proverbs we find the word “fear” mentioned 28 times. The FEAR OF THE LORD is a good thing, for it is the beginning of wisdom.

I am a happy man, because I fear God all the time. Proverbs 28:14, "Happy is the man that feareth alway: but he that hardeneth his heart shall fall into mischief." Heathy fear keeps us out of trouble! King David confirmed this truth when he exclaimed in Psalms 36:1, "The transgression of the wicked saith within my heart, that there is no fear of God before his eyes." David said when he saw people committing wicked sins, it evidenced to him that those sinners did not fear God's judgment against them in the future.

Again we read in Romans 3:18, "There is no fear of God before their eyes." Mankind is sinful both by nature and by choice. A little baby doesn't need to be taught how to get angry, throw a fit in a temper tantrum, and do wrong; it is inherently a part of that child's nature as a human being. When Adam sinned in the Garden of Eden, he opened the floodgate of sin upon the human race, and by sin so came death. Romans 5:12, "Wherefore, as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned:"

There are THREE major areas of fear in a person's lifetime that is HEALTHY:

1. fear of parents
2. fear of the law
3. fear of God

Fear Of Parents

During the Black Lives Matter crisis in 2020, we saw how adults who grew up without parental discipline behave. Millions of adult brats wickedly burned down stranger's businesses, set fire to police stations, beat innocent citizens and destroyed communities, just to get their point across that they demanded police reform nationwide to deal with cop abuse.

To not properly discipline an unruly child is a form of child abuse. God put that padded area in the back for a good reason—for spankings. Proverbs 20:30, " The blueness of a wound cleanseth away evil: so do stripes the inward parts of the belly." To clarify, no parent should ever strike a child with a solid object, such as a stick or a board. The board of education ought not be a big wooden club! My parents used to spank me as a child with a leather belt (which was VERY effective to teach me to obey... lol). I loved my parents and I knew that they loved me. I had a healthy fear of Mom and Dad (especially Dad) if I disobeyed the rules in our home. Both of my parents are now in Heaven with Jesus, and I miss them.

Did you know that the Bible says you hate your children if you fail to discipline them. Proverbs 13:24, "He that spareth his rod hateth his son: but he that loveth him chasteneth him betimes." The word "betimes" here simply means early in the child's developmental stage. I am against all forms of child abuse. Unfortunately, many people don't know what constitutes "child abuse." When I was a teenager, my parents had stopped spanking me a long time ago, so they would make me stand in the corner for an hour sometimes as chastisement. Today, many people would consider that a form of child abuse, which it certainly is not. Being grounded by your parents is not child abuse, it is tough love and proper discipline for a misbehaving teenager. Good parents will properly discipline their sons and daughters!

The Proverbs

(read by Alexander Scourby, 1913-1985)

I love the Old Testament book of Proverbs, because it gives us WISDOM. We all desperately need wisdom. What saith the Scripture? Proverbs 4:7, "Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore get wisdom: and with all thy getting get understanding." The Bible says that wisdom is the most important commodity that we need, therefore we should seek it diligently.

A child who has been properly trained will feel sorrow that they've hurt Mom's and Dad's feeling by doing wrong. No parent should ever apply discipline until the child has first admitted of their own accord that they've done wrong. To discipline a child when they still think they don't deserve to be punished, will harden their heart. You should never spank or discipline a child until they first admit they've done wrong. Also, punishment should never be applied suddenly, by jerking the child in anger. No parent should ever discipline a child in anger. There should be a cooling down period, so that any discipline will be administered justly with love.

Fear Of The Law

A healthy fear of the law, courts and police is a good thing. When criminals no longer fear the police, they are headed for destruction. Proverbs 14:16, "A wise man feareth, and departeth from evil: but the fool rageth, and is confident." If you feel some degree of apprehension or fear when a police car is driving behind your vehicle, that is a good and normal thing. If you have a valid driver's license, valid vehicle plates, and are living within the confines of the law, then you have no reason to be afraid. Fear of the law and being afraid of law enforcement are two different things. Likewise, a child should fear parental discipline, but not be afraid of Mom and Dad. And also, we should fear God, but we don't need to be afraid of Him unless we are living in wickedness. Living with healthy fear will keep us from doing bad things which will then cause us to be afraid. That is good advice! Proverbs 3:7, "Be not wise in thine own eyes: fear the LORD, and depart from evil."

Fear Of God

Happy is the man who feareth always the Bible says. You can either wear a yoke of wood by abstaining from sin, or you can wear a yoke of iron by committing sin. It is MUCH better to wear a yoke of wood dear friend, then to forge for yourself an unbearable yoke of iron of addiction, prison, loss of health, loss of family and friends, and the guilt that comes from sin. Wearing a yoke of wood is a good deal, when all else is considered.

Proverbs 14:2, "He that walketh in his uprightness feareth the LORD: but he that is perverse in his ways despiseth him." Proverbs 15:16, "Better is little with the fear of the LORD than great treasure and trouble therewith." I fear God. In fact, the Bible teaches that man's whole duty is to FEAR GOD AND KEEP HIS COMMANDMENTS. Ecclesiastes 12:13, "Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man." Fear of God is a good thing!!!

One day in eternity we all have to be held accountable by God (Romans 14:10-12). Sadly, most people don't believe that, or don't care, so they live in sin and continue hurting people. The man who fears God will love his neighbour as himself. The man who fears God fears hurting anybody for any reason. It is because I fear and love God that I want to think right, live right and do right at all times. So a certain amount of healthy fear is always a good thing, because it keeps us on our toes and out of trouble. Thank you for reading my blog.

4.5.7 The Harm Of Infant Baptism (by Dr. John R. Rice) (2023-05-14 20:03)

Acts 8:36-38, " And as they went on their way, they came unto a certain water: and the eunuch said, See, here is water; what doth hinder me to be baptized?

And Philip said, If thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest. And he answered and said, I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.

And he commanded the chariot to stand still: and they went down both into the water, both Philip and the eunuch; and he baptized him. **"

Since salvation must come, according to the Bible, before there can be Bible baptism, it is obvious that there is no reason for baptizing babies, unaccountable infants. There is not one New Testament record of the baptism of an infant. Jesus did lay His hands on little children and bless them, but certainly He did not baptize them or the Scripture would somewhere have said so.

In the sixteenth chapter of Acts, there are two cases where households were baptized. The first was the household of Lydia of whom the Scripture says in Acts 16:14,15:

> "And a certain woman named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of Thyatira, which worshipped God, heard us: whose heart the Lord opened, that she attended unto the things which were spoken of Paul. And when she was baptized, and her household, she besought us, saying, If ye have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house, and abide there. And she constrained us."

We do not know who was included in her household. Nothing was said about children, and it is not even intimated that she was married. Certainly there is no teaching of "infant baptism" here. In the case of the jailer, in the same chapter, the Scripture makes it certain that there were no unaccountable babies. That passage in verses 29 to 34 says:

> "Then he called for a light, and sprang in, and came trembling, and fell down before Paul and Silas, And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house, And they spake unto him the word of the Lord, and to all that were in his house. And he took them the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes; and was baptized, he and all his, straightway. And when he had brought them into his house, he set meat before them, and rejoiced, believing in God with all his house."

Verse 33 does say “and was baptized, he and all his, straightway.” But notice that verse 32 states that Paul and Silas preached the word “to all that were in his house” and verse 34 says that he “rejoiced, believing in God with all his house.” Certainly everybody who was baptized in that household heard the word and believed in Christ.

BABIES CIRCUMCISED, WHY NOT BABIES BAPTIZED?

It is true that boy babies were circumcised in Israel when eight days old (Genesis 17:12). But baptism and circumcision are two entirely different matters. Circumcision was for boys and men only, while baptism is for both sexes alike. Circumcision was for every boy or man of Hebrew blood, while baptism is only for saved people. Circumcision and baptism mean entirely different things. Circumcision meant that this child was an Israelite, one of the chosen race by natural birth. Baptism means that the one baptized is born again and one of God’s children by a birth from Heaven. One has no right to be baptized until he is born as God’s child. The Bible does not say one word about dedicating little children to the Lord by any kind of Christian ceremony and certainly does not mention baptism of babies anywhere in the Bible.

It is a sad and remarkable fact that many earnest Christian people have followed Roman Catholics in sprinkling unaccountable babies when there is not one verse in the Bible to even intimate that it was the will of God! In the Bible, people were baptized after they believed and were saved, as was the case with the jailer and his entire family.

THE HARM OF INFANT BAPTISM

Baptism of an unaccountable baby does untold harm. For one thing, it leaves the impression that the change of heart is not necessary. It leaves the impression that the religion of the Lord Jesus is a matter of ritual, not of personal faith. It ignores the Bible teaching that baptism represents the burial and resurrection of Jesus and the believer’s change of heart. Worst of all, the one who is thus given a ceremony which was only for Christians, often is led to believe, in after years, that since he is a member of a church, has been baptized, and is a respectable citizen, therefore he does not need the change of heart, does not need to be converted, saved by the blood of Jesus. Whatever fine argument you may make for the sprinkling of a little baby, it is answered by the plain, indisputable fact that Jesus did not command it and it is certainly unscriptural and wrong.

We begin to see, then, why the Lord Jesus puts such stress on baptism. It is the gospel, so simple that every new convert can preach it. It pictures the plan of salvation. Yea, it safeguards the plan of salvation. If I change the form of baptism, I change the meaning of baptism, I change the doctrine of salvation. If I take a little child, unaccountable, who has not trusted in Christ for salvation, and without his volition, I put water upon his head and “baptize” him, I have taught an entirely different plan of salvation. I have said to the unthinking world that people do not need a change of heart, but that with a simple rite of dedication they have a right into the fellowship of a New Testament church. When I change the form of baptism, I have lost all the picture about the death of Christ, His atonement, His resurrection, the change necessary in the believer’s heart and the change commanded in his life. When people go wrong on baptism, they go wrong on the doctrine of salvation.

If people have a right to change the form of baptism, they have a right to change the form of church government, change from the New Testament program of soul winning to the modern program of education. Good, old time Methodist people who believe, as John Wesley did, in a change of heart, oftentimes wonder why that strong tendency of modern Methodism toward teaching salvation by works, by character, by education and by culture instead of salvation by the blood! One reason is, they do not have Bible baptism, a burial of the believer with Christ, to picture to the world the great teaching of the plan of salvation. Sprinkling babies teaches against the need for a change of heart.

STAY WITH BIBLE BAPTISM

Suppose we even retain the form of baptism, but still teach it as essential to salvation as do our Catholic friends and as do Churches of Christ or Disciples, Lutherans and others. When one is baptized, then, he says to the world. "I am saving my soul by my good works." The preacher or priest is saying, perhaps unconsciously, to the world, "The church by rites and ceremonies is saving this man's soul."

The candidate baptized, the preacher or priest, and the onlookers alike all miss the blessed, blessed teaching that Christ died for our sins, that men are saved simply by faith in His shed blood, that a deep-seated, fundamental change has been made in the heart of the believer, called the new birth. BIBLE BAPTISM IS GOD'S SAFEGUARD AROUND SOUND DOCTRINE ON THE PLAN OF SALVATION. That is the reason if baptism was not done the right way, or if it was done with the right method, but without the scriptural teaching in the minds of the people, it should be done again, as Paul baptized the second time those converts at Ephesus as told in Acts 19:1-6. Let us stay with the Bible as to the form and meaning of baptism and baptize only those who have a Bible right to baptism, that is, saved people. Certainly baptism of babies is unscriptural, dangerous and wrong.

4.5.8 My Sin Belongs To Me, But My Righteousness Is Jesus Christ's (2023-05-17 01:59)

Philippians 3:9, "

And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:

What a great truth! My sin belongs to me, but my righteousness is Jesus' Christ's. The only thing good about me is Jesus Christ. You and I are dirty sinners friend. All humanity are sinners. We are sinners both by nature and by choice. Thankfully, God in His love sent His only begotten Son into the world, to die on a cross to pay our sin debt. Jesus paid a debt that He did not owe, because we owed a debt that we could not pay. What an awesome Savior!!!

Since the beginning of human civilization, man has had a sinful carnal tendency to add works to faith to get to Heaven. We see this in the Bible in the book of Genesis, when Adam sewed together fig leaves in an attempt to cover (atone) for the sins of he and his wife, Eve.

We also sin this sinful tendency in the story of Cain who in anger slew able his younger brother. God accepted Able's blood sacrifice, which demonstrated his faith in the coming Messiah who would one day die on a cross to pay for the sins of the world. But God rejected Cain's sacrifice of the best grains his fields could produce, which symbolized Cain's faith in his own works. God rejected Cain's works-based religion.

My sin belongs to me, but my righteousness is Jesus Christ's. If you understand this blessed Bible truth dear friend, then you will fully realize why it is a falsehood to tell someone that they must "turn away from their sins" or to repent "of your sins" to get to Heaven. The Bible teaches the exact opposite, that Christ died on a cross to pay for our sins. In the former falsehood, the focus is upon YOU leaving your sins; but in the latter truth, the focus is upon CHRIST.

4.5.9 The Wickedness Of The Invitation Song, "I Surrender All" (2023-05-19 20:30)

Acts 16:29-31, “ Then he called for a light, and sprang in, and came trembling, and fell down before Paul and Silas, And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house. ”

The Philippian jailer in Rome wanted to know how to be saved. He came in trembling and asked Paul and Silas, “Sirs, what must I do to be saved?” Paul and Silas plainly answered, “Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved.” They didn’t tell the man to “surrender all to Jesus.” No, they simply told the man to “

Throughout my entire life, in nearly every Baptist church that I have ever attended, they sang the popular hymn, “

I Surrender All,

” during the invitation time. That is as wicked as can be! Dear reader, a lost sinner does not need to surrender anything to be saved, they simply need to receive God’s free gift of forgiveness of sins and eternal life, taking it by placing their childlike faith in Jesus as their personal Savior. Just take God at His promise, as recorded in the inspired Word of God, “ that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life ” (John 3:16b).

The Hymn “I Surrender All” Should NEVER

Be Used As An Invitation Song For The Lost

Dear reader, I encourage you to start thinking objectively, if you don’t already. That is, learn to question everything! This is 100 % biblical. 1st John 4:1, “Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world.” The Bible says not to blindly give your mind over to everything you hear, lest you be deceived by the Devil. Learn to think objectively!

That is what I wrong with Pensacola Christian College (PCC). Since they refuse to stand against anything, they have fallen for hellbound infidels like Ken Ham, and the Calvinist Bob Jones University (BJU) cult. BJU is leading the way in using, selling and promoting the Devil’s perverted Bibles.

No, we don’t have to “surrender all” to go to Heaven, we simply need to BELIEVE the ’Good News’ (Gospel) about Jesus who died on a cross for our sins, was buried and then three days later He bodily resurrected from the dead. ...

>
> Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:”

That is how you go to Heaven.

In his helpful book titled, “

I Never Knew You,

by Michael P. Bowen, he writes:

> Here is the gospel: God says that we are sinners and that no amount of good works or behavioral changes on our part could ever make us holy enough to enter heaven. God sent His Son to pay for all of our sins. Jesus paid for our crimes by dying on the cross for us all. His dead body was buried in a grave. On the third day, Jesus arose from the dead.
>
> The instant you believe this, He knows it and He saves you. “Verily, verily, I say unto you, he that believeth on Me hath everlasting life” (John 6:47). The free gift is based solely upon your trust in what Jesus did for you and has nothing at all to do with what you do for Him. “For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast” (Ephesians 2:8-9).
> SOURCE: Michael P. Bowen, “[1]I Never Knew You,” p. xxii

That’s it! That is the truth. Ladies and gentlemen, we’ve got a bunch of false prophets—lying pastors today like John MacArthur, Marty Herron, Gary Walton, Steve Pettit, Ray Comfort, Paul Washer, John Piper, Franklin Graham, Sam Horn and Chuck Phelps—who are going to Hell themselves, and are tragically taking thousands of victims with them to Hell, because they all preach the Devil’s lie of [2]Lordship Salvation!

Dr. Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) said it well...

> "I maintain that anything short of truth is a lie. But I also maintain that anything beyond truth is a lie. If you tell a man he can be saved, without believing on Christ, you've come short of the truth; but if you go beyond the truth and tell a man he's saved by believing plus being baptized, plus keeping the Ten Commandments, plus enduring to the end, you've gone beyond truth. I say we ought to stick with what the Bible says, even if it doesn't coincide with what we've always thought it meant."
> —Dr. Curtis Hutson, "[3]The Determining Factor In Salvation"

The song, "I Surrender All" is 100 % blatant heresy as regards salvation!!! Jesus sacrificed ALL for you and me, and all of humanity, so that God could freely offer us eternal life as a gift. Getting saved is NOT a trade or an exchange, it is a free gift if you want it. All you have to do is simply BELIEVE that Jesus did it all for you. Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do.

4.5.10 Walking In The Spirit Is A Choice (2023-05-24 12:10)

Ephesians 4:22-24, "That ye put off concerning the former conversation the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts; And be renewed in the spirit of your mind; And that ye put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness."

Salvation is a free gift from God, received through faith in His only begotten Son, Jesus. You did nothing to deserve God's forgiveness, and His gift of eternal life is accompanied by another gift—the blessed indwelling Holy Spirit (who is the Godhead living in each believer). The Holy Spirit is the Comforter, the Spirit of Truth, who enables you and me to live the Christian life. John 14:26, "But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you."

The Holy Spirit helps you in resisting temptation and making wiser decisions. He gives us knowledge through searching the inspired

Word of God, to help us make daily decisions.

The FLESH (our human sinful nature) is diabolical and always ready to separate us from the spiritual things of God. Galatians 5:17, "For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other: so that ye cannot do the things that ye would." Every saint of God struggles between the flesh and the spirit. I have heard some preachers teach that when a person gets saved, the old nature is forever gone, and only the new nature in Christ remains. However, it cannot be denied that even with the new nature (which is Christ in us, united with our spirit), we still have the sinful FLESH to contend with. So call it what you will, every Christian still has the old sinful flesh which is contrary to the Holy Spirit in us. The old nature may be gone, but the flesh is still here!

Our old nature is when our spirit was dead in trespasses and sins (Ephesians 2:1), and we did not know God; but then we trusted in Jesus Christ, and we became a new creature (2nd Corinthians 5:17). God gives us a new spiritual understanding of the things of God (i.e., now we have the indwelling Holy Spirit to teach and guide us into all truth. John 16:13, "

Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will shew you things to come.

" Even though we have a new nature, in which the indwelling Spirit of God convicts us about the sins in our life, it is possible for us to CHOOSE to continue walking in the flesh, and not walk in the Spirit, so that we will still fulfill the sinful lusts of the flesh.

This does not mean we are not born-again, it just means that we are not obeying our heavenly Father to walk in the Spirit. If saved, always saved! A t the moment of salvation, God regenerates our spirit that was dead, giving us life in His Holy Spirit. The Bible refers to the Holy Spirit as the Spirit of Christ.

Romans 8:9,

" But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his." That is precious! The Holy Spirit is Jesus' Spirit in us as believers. We also have the Spirit of God the Father in us as believers.

That is, we have the Godhead living inside of our spirit, soul and body as redeemed saints of God.

What a magnificent God, who loves us so much that He wanted to make His abode inside our very being. Wow, what amazing love and grace!!! What saith the Scripture? John 14:23, " Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him." The man who loves God will keep His Words. We find those words in John 6:40,

"And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day."

Our born-again spirit is sinless by virtue of the Cross! But should we continue to sin? God forbid! With Grace on our minds, the last thing we want to do is grieve the Holy Spirit. Remember, as believers we FALL IN GRACE, but never FROM GRACE! Romans 6:1,

" What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound?" When we choose to sin as God's children, even committing the most despicable of crimes, God's grace always abounds, so that we could NEVER lose His free gift of forgiveness of sins and eternal life. The reason why is because we didn't earn it. We did not pay for it, Jesus did, with His precious blood that He shed on the cross, and sprinkled on the Mercy Seat in Heaven (1st Peter 1:18-19; Hebrews 9:12, 22-24; 12:24).

True perfection will not come until the Rapture of the church when we rise to meet Jesus in the air. (1st Thessalonians 4:17). We will stand before the Judgment Seat of Christ to follow (2nd Corinthians 5:9-11), where our works (the good and bad done in our body) will be judged and rewards will be given (1st Corinthians 3:6-15). Tears will flow for most saints, who wasted their time here on earth (1st Corinthians 3:11-15); while a few soulwinning saints will shine as the brightness of the stars forever (Daniel 12:3). They will shine because they will be a hero to all the people whom they led to Jesus Christ back on earth.

In salvation, Christ redeemed our soul, but our body won't be redeemed until Christ returns. Our redemption will be complete at the Rapture (which I humbly think will happen BEFORE the 7-year Tribulation period), and we will live and reign with Christ throughout the 1,000-year Millennium, in our glorified bodies in sinless perfection (Revelation 20:6; Philippians 3:21; 1st Corinthians 15:51-58).

As believers, God's Spirit lives in us and renews us every day. Walking in the Spirit is a choice. We can ignore God and make the wrong choices, indulging in sin, losing our calm and peace of soul; or we can choose to walk in the Spirit, by bringing every thought into captivity unto obedience to Christ. ...

> 2nd Corinthians 10:3-6, "For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh:
>
> (For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds;)
>
> Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ;
>
> And having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.

At any given moment we can choose to walk in the Spirit, but we won't always make that right choice because we are still tied to the sinful flesh (which is where the word "

carnal

comes from, fleshly; as in Carna Asada steak, which means flesh roasted

).

Psalms 119:9, "Wherewithal shall a young man cleanse his way? by taking heed thereto according to thy word.

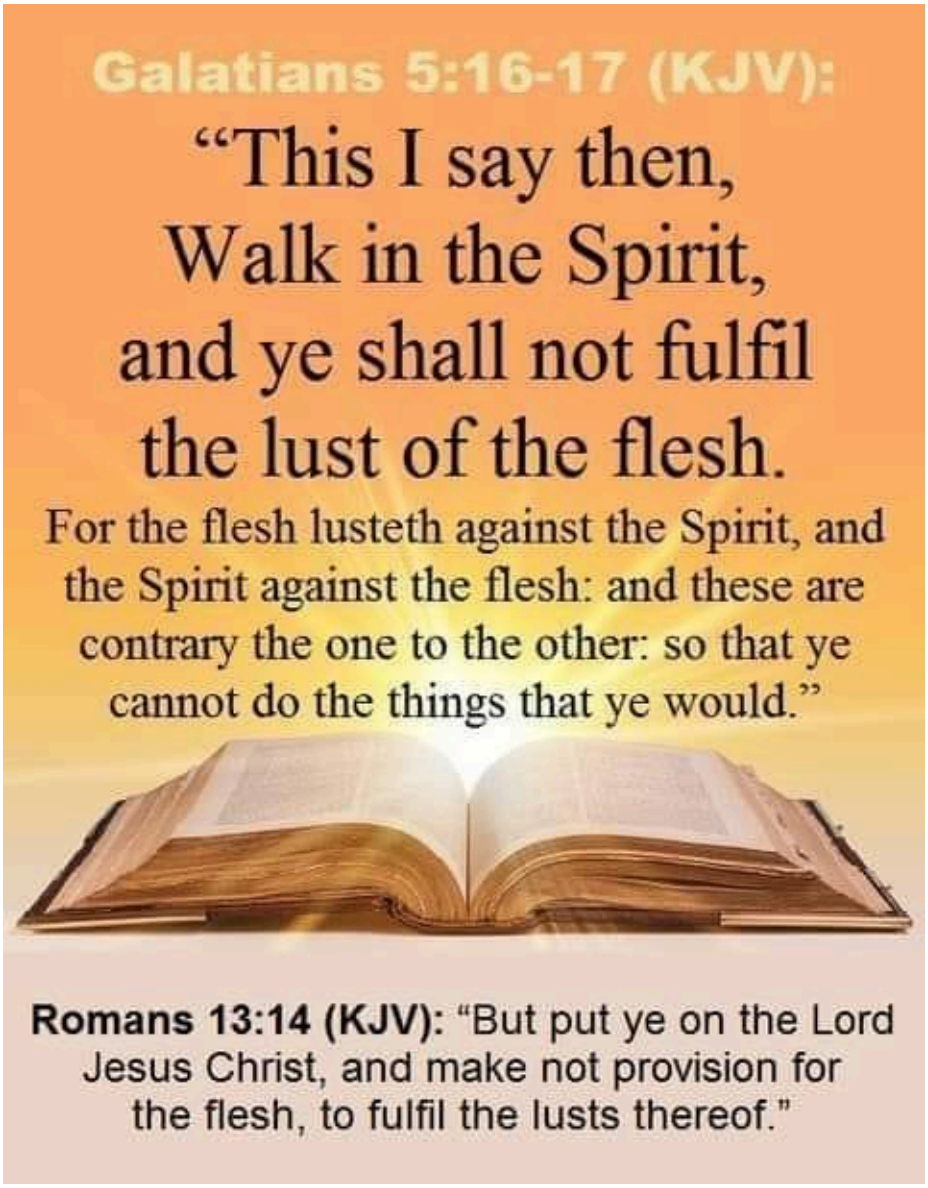
With my whole heart have I sought thee: O let me not wander from thy commandments.



Thy word have I hid in mine heart, that I might not sin against thee.

" The Bible will keep us from sin; or sin will keep us from the Bible.

The Holy Spirit ALWAYS guides us with the inspired Word of God. If you ever hear Oprah Winfrey or anybody else, talking about spiritual things and they are not including the Holy Bible, run away as fast as you can; because any spirit that is not the Holy Spirit is a familiar spirit (a demon). The Holy Spirit always leads a child of God in accordance with the written Word of God, and never contrary to it. People do a lot of crazy things, claiming that God's Spirit led them to do it, but don't you believe them for a moment.

One of my favorite sermons by Pastor Jack Hyles is titled: "[1]Your Salvation Did Not Change You A Bit." The only thing you automatically receive at salvation (besides forgiveness of all sins and eternal life) is the gift of the indwelling Holy Spirit, who seals every believer (Ephesians 1:13-14). Our life does not change until we begin to grow in the Word of God (1st Peter 2:2), and in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. 2nd Peter 3:18,

" But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. To him be glory both now and for ever. Amen."

4.6.1 Is Jesus' Teaching Works Salvation In Luke 10:25-28? (2023-06-01 10:21)

Luke 10:25-28, "And, behold, a certain lawyer stood up, and tempted him, saying, Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life? He said unto him, What is written in the law? how readest thou? And he answering said, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbour as thyself. And he said unto him, Thou hast answered right: this do, and thou shalt live."

This is an intriguing passage of Scripture. I love something that Dr. Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) said: "A good rule to follow when interpreting the Bible is to never use an obscure passage to contradict a clear one." Using that important Bible study principle, we can say without a doubt that Luke 10:25-28 is NOT teaching a works-based plan of salvation! We know this because of clear passages; such as, Romans 4:3-5, "For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness. Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt. But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness."

To understand what Jesus is saying in Luke 10:25-28, it is key to notice that one of the wicked unsaved Pharisees, a lawyer, is tempting Him. Luke 10:25, "

And, behold, a certain lawyer stood up, and tempted him, saying, Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?

" So we must keep in mind that Jesus is responding to a wicked man who is tempting Him. The Lord often spoke in parables, or in a clever way, when dealing with skeptics and unbelievers...

> Mark 4:34, "
>
> But without a parable spake he not unto them: and when they were alone, he expounded all things to his disciples.
> **"

Jesus was a sincere man, He refused to cast pearls before the swine, before those whom Jesus knew resented His Words and had no interest in the truth. Jesus asked the lawyer how he interpreted the Old Testament. Luke 10:26,"

He said unto him, What is written in the law? how readest thou?

" The lawyer gave a works based plan of salvation, so Jesus agreed with him. Christ did the same thing with the rich young ruler...

> Mark 10:17-23, "And when he was gone forth into the way, there came one running, and kneeled to him, and asked him, Good Master, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal life? And Jesus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? there is none good but one, that is, God. Thou knowest the commandments, Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Defraud not, Honour thy father and mother. And he answered and said unto him, Master, all these have I observed from my youth. Then Jesus beholding him loved him, and said unto him, One thing thou lackest: go thy way, sell whatsoever thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, take up the cross, and follow me. And he was sad at that saying, and went away grieved: for he had great possessions. And Jesus looked round about, and saith unto his disciples, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God!"

The young man called Jesus, “Good Master.” Although Jesus was good, God in fact, sinless in every manner; the rich young ruler didn’t recognize Jesus as such. Instead, the young man saw Jesus as a good man, who had perfectly kept God’s commandments. The Old Testament law had originally been given by God as a measuring stick, by which when sinful men compared themselves, they realized their sinnership and need for the coming Messiah (Romans 3:19-20). Unfortunately, the Jews failed to understand this truth and instead turned the law into a plan of salvation. So instead of seeing themselves as sinners and turning to Christ by faith to be saved, they were now trying to perfectly keep the law as a means of attaining eternal life. The law had become a stumblingblock to the Jews!

Jesus was not giving the rich young ruler in Mark 10:17-23 a plan of salvation, He was using the law the way it was intended to be used—as a measuring stick to show men their desperate need for salvation through faith in Christ alone. Acts 10:42, “To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins.” Everyone in the Old Testament was saved the same way we are today—by faith alone in Christ alone.

So in Luke 24:25-28 Jesus is NOT giving a plan of salvation to this lawyer—the Lord is simply agreeing with the Pharisee that if he wants to get to Heaven by keeping the law, he must do so perfectly. Carefully notice what Jesus told him in Luke 10:28, “And he said unto him, Thou hast answered right: this do, and thou shalt live. ” Notice that Jesus said, (that is works). Jesus was simply agreeing with the man, who had said that you attain eternal life by keeping the law. Just as Jesus did with the rich young ruler, so also is he simply agreeing with this lawyer that if he wants to work his way to Heaven, then he must perfectly keep the law.

“

Please notice the lawyer’s insincerity and confirmation that he is trying to work his way to Heaven in Luke 10:29, “ But he, willing to justify himself, said unto Jesus, And who is my neighbour?” You see, this heathen lawyer is trying to JUSTIFY HIMSELF!!! No one has ever been born-again by justifying himself. We can only be justified by faith in Jesus Christ, accepting His sacrifice on Calvary’s cross as payment for our sins. The Pharisee lawyer in Luke 10:25-29 is seeking self-justification, and Jesus knew it; so the dear Savior used the law as it was intended to be used, to show men that no matter how much they may try to keep the law perfectly to merit eternal life, they cannot.

Again, we know that this passage in Luke 10:25-28 cannot be a plan of salvation, because it would contradict plain passages of Scripture; such as, the entire Gospel of John.

A good rule to follow when interpreting the Bible is to never use an obscure passage to contradict a clear one. In the Gospel of John we find the word “faith” mentioned 85 times, but there is no teaching of doing works, praying, turning from sins, speaking in tongues, surrendering to Christ’s Lordship, confessing, following, serving nor of water baptism to get to Heaven. John 6:47, “Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.”

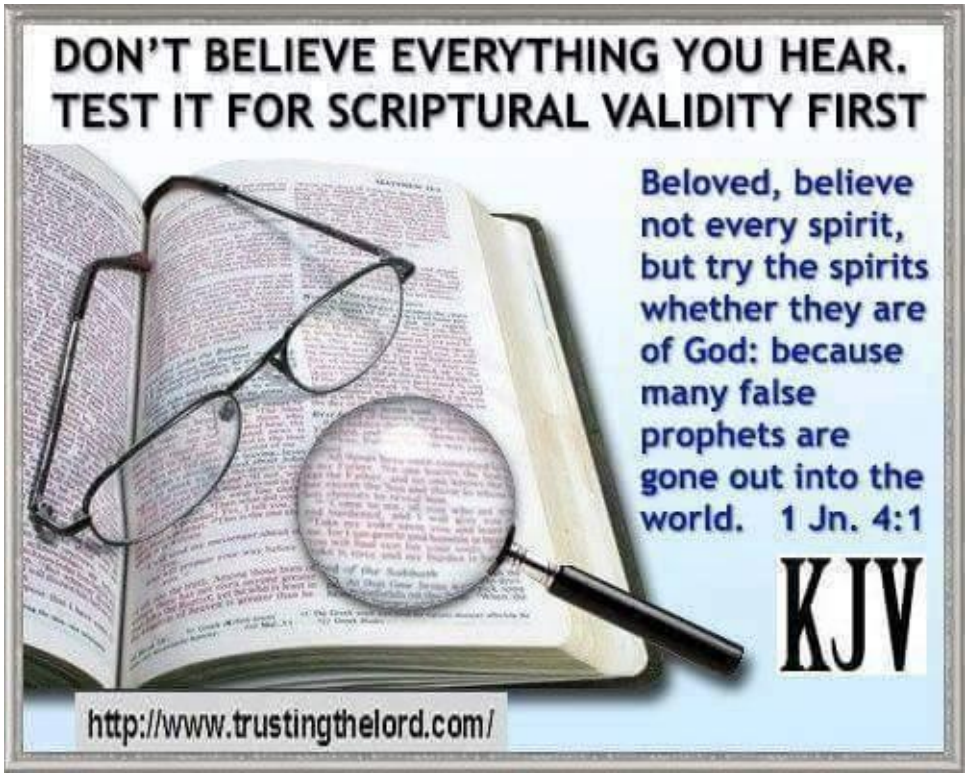
Here is a quote from Michael Bowen's helpful book titled: "

I Never Knew You,

" accurately explaining how to go to Heaven biblically



...

> Here is the gospel: God says that we are sinners and that no amount of good works or behavioral changes on our part could ever make us holy enough to enter heaven. God sent His Son to pay for all of our sins. Jesus paid for our crimes by dying on the cross for us all. His dead body was buried in a grave. On the third day, Jesus arose from the dead.
>
> The instant you believe this, He knows it and He saves you. "Verily, verily, I say unto you, he that believeth on Me hath everlasting life"(John 6:47). The free gift is based solely upon your trust in what Jesus did for you and has nothing at all to do with what you do for Him. "For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast" (Ephesians 2:8-9).

The two greatest commandments in the Holy Bible are to LOVE GOD, and to likewise LOVE OUR NEIGHBOUR. These two commandments are really just one: TO LOVE!!! But loving God means different things to different people. Biblically, loving God means to obey His commandments, the foremost of which is to believe on His only begotten Son, the Christ (John 3:16; 20:31). No one has rightly divided the inspired Word of God, who thinks that a person can be saved through personal righteousness. In fact, we can only be saved by God's imputed righteousness, which is through faith in Jesus Christ. Philippians 3:9, "And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:"

4.6.2 Dr. John MacArthur Is Wrong (2023-06-02 17:07)

Galatians 1:6-9,"I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed."

Hebrews 9:12, " Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us."

Please BEWARE of John MacArthur's false plan of salvation and His denial that the literal blood of Jesus saves!

Pastor John MacArthur is wrong on several fundamental Bible doctrines. He is like the other hellbound Lordship Salvationist false teachers, who love to bash the easy-to-target prosperity preachers (e.g., Joel Osteen, Oral Roberts and Benny Hinn); but then MacArthur will overlook other popular heretical preachers (i.e., Joyce Meyer, Ray Comfort, Kirk Cameron, Paul Washer and John Piper) because they are all corrupt like him. We must have discernment.

Dr. MacArthur falsely preaches that to get to Heaven you must surrender all to Christ. He says to be saved requires a lie lived in obedience to God. In so doing, MacArthur makes salvation a prolonged process, and not a new instantaneous birth.

Deadly False Teacher, Pastor John MacArthur

Pastor John MacArthur of the Grace Community Church has authored a heretical book titled, “[1]HARD TO BELIEVE” in which he errantly teaches:

> "Salvation isn’t the result of an intellectual exercise. It comes from a life lived in obedience and service to Christ as revealed in the Scripture; it’s the fruit of actions, not intentions. There’s no room for passive spectators: words without actions are empty and futile... The life we live, not the words we speak, determines our eternal destiny" (Hard to Believe, p. 93). [emphasis added]

Ladies and gentlemen, what you have just read is works salvation. Now in fairness to Dr. MacArthur, who is a gifted orator (but a bad Bible student), he has attributed the previous quote to a publishing error and has [2]updated the quote . Here is the new updated quote, which is just as corrupt and unbiblical:

> Don’t believe anyone who says it’s easy to become a Christian. Salvation for sinners cost God His own Son; it cost God’s Son His life, and it’ll cost you the same thing. Salvation isn’t gained by reciting mere words. Saving faith transforms the heart, and that in turn transforms behavior. Faith’s fruit is seen in actions, not intentions. There’s no room for passive spectators: words without actions are empty and futile. Remember that what John saw in his vision of judgment was a Book of Life, not a book of Words or Book of Intellectual Musings. The life we live, not the words we speak, reveals whether our faith is authentic. [emphasis added]
>
> SOURCE: [3]Dr. John MacArthur, Grace To You, an updated quote from his book ’Hard To Believe’, page 93

At a glance, the preceding quote sounds impressive. It certainly seems proper to authenticate one’s profession of faith with a life of good works. It appeals to our sinful human nature to attempt to please God by our own self-righteousness. The true nature of MacArthur’s deadly teaching becomes more apparent when you only consider the first two lines of his quote:

> “Don’t believe anyone who says it’s easy to become a Christian. Salvation for sinners cost God His own Son; it cost God’s Son His life, and it’ll cost you the same thing...”

Is that Biblical? No, it is not. MacArthur foolishly teaches that it is hard to become a Christian, because he says it will cost you your life of worldliness, sinful bad habits and selfish ambitions to make your faith valid. Clearly he does not believe that faith alone in Christ is enough to be saved. MacArthur deceitful says that mere words won’t save, which is true if they are insincere words; however, the thief on the cross was saved immediately when he spoke the words, “Remember me” to Jesus (Luke 23:42). We are saved solely by faith in Christ, which may or may not be expressed by words. Words are not required to be saved. We are saved the moment we believe in our heart that Jesus is the Christ Who died FOR OUR SINS on the cross and rose (1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

The Devil is so subtle. False prophets know that adding works to salvation is blatant heresy, a lie. So what they do is instead say that you’re saved by grace through faith, but your faith is not valid unless there are works to make that faith credible (or to authenticate it). This is a backdoor approach to a works-based salvation. How can a gift be difficult to obtain? How can eternal life be free while at the same time costing us our life as MacArthur claims?

Heretical statements made by MacArthur:

> "The Greek word translated ’belief’ is not referring merely to intellectual attainment or mental acquiescence but a wholehearted acceptance of everything that is implied in the claims of Christ. You need to believe that Jesus is God and that He died for your sins, committing your whole life to Him in sacrifice and serving Him as Lord." (Assurance of Victory—1 John 5, Moody Press, p. 12)
>
> "Submission to the will of God, to Christ’s Lordship, and to the guiding of the Spirit is an essential, not an optional, part of saving faith" (EPHESIANS, p. 249)
>
> “Don’t believe anyone who says it’s easy to become a Christian. Salvation for sinners cost God His own Son; it cost God’s Son His life, and it’ll cost you the same thing...” (Hard to Believe, page 93)

This is the damnable heresy of Lordship Salvation! Kindly, Mr. MacArthur is unknowingly working for the Devil. Many foolish pastors embrace MacArthur’s heresies as mere semantics, when they ought to be exposing and refuting his false plan of salvation. Anyone who says that it is hard to be saved is teaching false doctrine. It’s easy to be saved, so easy that 3,000 people were saved in one day in Acts 2:41.

> “The worst pervert in America is the Gospel pervert!” —Brother Lester Roloff, from the sermon, “[4]The Gospel Perverts Or Jesus?”

MacArthur teaches that [5]there’s no such thing as a childhood conversion. That is totally unbiblical. Jesus rebuked His disciples for hindering the children from coming to Him, for He said, such is the Kingdom of God (Mark 10:14). Dr. Jack Hyles was saved as a young boy, one month prior to his eleventh birthday (as stated in this MP3 sermon by Dr. Hyles titled, “[6]A Late Start”). Paul told Timothy “that from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus.” (2nd Timothy 3:15). Children can be saved by simply knowing that they are a sinner and believing Christ died on the cross for their sins and rose.

Dr. MacArthur (in his own words) attacks the precious blood of Jesus, denying that we are saved by Christ

’s blood sacrifice:

> "It's heretical to call the blood of Jesus Christ the blood of God… We are not saved by his blood… There's nothing magic in Jesus's blood, his saliva, or any part of the fluids of the human body… People have turned the blood into a fetish." SOURCE: [7]https://www.gty.org/library/sermons-library/80-44/the-blood-of-christ

In his Bible commentary (all 666 volumes...lol), MacArthur errantly teaches that the word "blood" in Hebrews chapter 9 merely refers to Jesus' "death" on the cross, and not actual blood. What a liar! Dear reader, if God meant death, then He would have used that word; but God didn't, He chose to use the word blood. Hebrews 9:12, "Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us." After raising up from the dead, Jesus physically ascended into Heaven and sprinkled His literal liquid blood upon the Mercy Seat in the presence of the Father (Hebrews 9:24).

Beware of Dr. MacArthur's Subtle But Damnable Heresy

Kindly, MacArthur is spiritually dangerous, because he hides heresies between doctrinal truth, which are the hardest lies to expose. To expose such falsehoods, you must first separate the lies from the truth and deal with them as such. It is very easy to be deceived if you're not knowledgeable concerning the truth of God's Word. Jesus told us to SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES in John 5:39.

My friend, it is very easy to be saved, so easy in fact that 3,000 people got saved in one day in Acts 2:41. You don't have to give your life (as Christ gave His life) to be saved! If it were true, then salvation would be the result of partial faith in Christ plus human effort. To lay such a heavy burden upon a sinner's shoulder, requiring them to validate their faith by the way in which they live, is to make salvation HARD, VERY, HARD; but Jesus said, "For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light." (Matthew 11:30). If you always keep in mind that eternal life is a free gift, paid for by Jesus' precious blood (1st Peter 1:18-19), then you won't be misled.

Beware of the popular, satanic, forked-tongue, double-talk, which says that salvation is the free gift of God, but without works you're faith is not valid. When James spoke of showing his faith by works in James 2:18, he meant in the eyes of men, not God. Proof of this was that Abraham was saved in Genesis 15:6 when his faith was counted for righteousness (also see Romans 4:1-6). But in Genesis 22:8 Abraham's Christian character was tested by God, not his salvation. Genesis 22:12, "And he said, Lay not thine hand upon the lad, neither do thou any thing unto him: for now I know that thou fearest God, seeing thou hast not withheld thy son, thine only son from me." The test was to see if Abraham feared God enough to obey Him in all circumstances. God likewise tested the Hebrews (Deuteronomy 8:2-3). And you can be assured that God will test our faith too! A faith must be tested. Salvation is without works of self-righteousness. Beware of any false plan of salvation that requires human effort plus partial faith in Christ.

> "Who is John MacArthur? He is the one man in America doing more than anybody to destroy soul-winning churches!" —Dr. Jack Hyles (a needful quote from the MP3 sermon, "[8]I Sojourn In Mesech")

1st Corinthians 2:1-2, "And I, brethren, when I came to you, came not with excellency of speech or of wisdom, declaring unto you the testimony of God. For I determined not to know any thing among you, save Jesus Christ, and him crucified." When the apostle Paul first came to Corinth, all he wanted to know is whether they were saved or not. Notice that Paul wasn't concerned about their lifestyle or if they had forsaken sin and committed their lives to Christ. To determine if they were saved, Paul simply wanted to know about, "Jesus Christ, and him crucified." It is extremely easy to be saved. We are not saved because we are good, but because God is good.

You've just read the same dangerous type of forked-tongue, double-talk, deception, that all the false Christian cults use. For example: The satanic religious cult of Jehovah's Witnesses (JW's) subtly teach:

> So, what does "accepting" Jesus really mean? Is it a one-time act of faith, or is it a continuing way of life? Must our belief be strong enough to motivate us to action? Can we really accept the benefits of Jesus' sacrifice without the responsibility of following him? ...
>
> Salvation is a free gift from God. It cannot be earned. Yet it does require effort on our part. ...
>
> Thus, "accepting Christ" involves far more than just accepting the blessings that Jesus' superlative sacrifice offers. Obedience is required. ... So we must do more than simply hear and believe.
> SOURCE: [9]What Must We Do to Be Saved? - Jehovah's Witness' Official Web Site

In essence, this is exactly what MacArthur is teaching. MacArthur, just like the JW's, says that eternal life is a free gift, while at the same time saying that you're not really saved unless there's a changed life accompanying that faith. Listen to me, the manner in which you live has absolutely NOTHING to do with the GIFT OF GOD. Eternal life is a free gift, period. A gift is received and that's it! John MacArthur is not saved, because he corrupts the plan of salvation to include human effort.

You must understand that every unsaved Seventh Day Adventist, Mormon, Episcopalian and Roman Catholic believes that Christ died on the cross for their sins, was buried and resurrected; but they all make the fatal error of adding human effort, which perverts the plan of salvation and turns it into a process and a reward. I wish I could wake preachers up! My former pastor of an Independent Baptist Church idolizes John MacArthur. I've shown him the major doctrinal errors of MacArthur, but he still thinks MacArthur is the greatest. Truly, famous author Mark Twain was 100 % correct when he wrote:

> "It's easier to fool people than to convince them that they have been fooled." —Mark Twain

MacArthur says, "There's no room for passive spectators: words without actions are empty and futile." This negates the gift of God completely. When children gather around the family Christmas tree to receive their gifts, they are mere spectators waiting to open their presents! There are no actions required of them to get their presents (if they are genuine presents). If a child is required to behave for even 5-minutes to get their present, then it is not truly a present (i.e., a gift). It would instead be a reward. The Bible repeatedly teaches that eternal life is God's free gift to humanity (Ephesians 2:8-9; Romans 6:23), because He loves us and gave His only begotten Son for us (John 3:16; 1st John 3:16). What an awesome God!!!

Contrary to what MacArthur teaches, God does not require people to follow through with obedient behavior to authenticate their salvation. Romans 4:5 teaches that A MAN'S FAITH IS COUNTED FOR RIGHTEOUSNESS! That means you don't need any good works (nor do you have to forsake any bad works) to be saved! Getting saved is a free gift, which is why many disobedient believers at the Judgment Seat of Christ... "shall be saved; yet so as by fire." They are saved and secure in the promise of God's gift concerning eternal life, but they will receive no rewards concerning their fruitless life on earth (1st Corinthians 3:15). Eternal life is a free gift, which any sinner can freely receive, by simple faith in Jesus Christ Who died on the cross for our sins and rose.

Scriptures refuting John MacArthur's damnable false teachings:

> Romans 11:6, "
>
> And if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work."
>
> Romans 3:25, "
>
> Whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God;"
>
> Ephesians 1:7, "
>
> In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace;
>
> **"
>
> Matthew 26:28,"
>
> For this is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many for the remission of sins."
>
> Romans 5:9, " Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him.
> **"

The Gospel is simple: Jesus Christ died on a Cross for all our sins (past, present & future), He was buried and then three days later He bodily resurrected from the dead. This is THE GOSPEL (i.e., the GOOD NEWS, or GLAD TIDINGS). If you simply believe that Jesus did it all for you, you are saved. Christ did all the work and it is finished. Salvation is about Jesus Christ and what He did to pay for the sins of the whole world. 1st John 2:1, "My little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous: And he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world."

Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do.

JESUS PLUS NOTHING TO BE SAVED = ETERNAL LIFE

It is by grace through faith in Jesus Christ, and by trust in Him alone, that we are saved!!!

4.6.3 Fear God And Keep His Commandments (2023-06-06 15:00)

Ecclesiastes 12:13-14, “

Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man.

For God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil.”

I often think about our text passage, especially verse 13 about fearing God and keeping His commandments. Solomon said this is man’s whole duty, to FEAR GOD and KEEP HIS COMMANDMENTS. In the complicated broken world that we all live in on planet earth, I cherish the simplicity of the Word of God. Roman Catholics have made very complex that which God intended to be very simple. The Gospel is simple. So simple in fact that the Bible in 2nd Corinthians 11:3 calls it “ the simplicity that is in Christ.

” The Gospel is simple!!! 2nd Corinthians 11:3, “But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ.”

Most people do not fear God, evidenced by their evil deeds. Psalms 36:1, “The transgression of the wicked saith within my heart, that there is no fear of God before his eyes.” King David said that he knew wicked people didn’t fear God, clearly evidenced by their transgressions against man and God alike. The ungodly insanity going on across America today, teachers and doctors telling like boys and girls that they might be another gender, shows that these people have no fear of God. Genesis 1:27, “So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them.” The vast majority of Americans have no regard for God, because they do not fear God. But they will one day. THEY WILL ONE DAY!!! Hebrews 10:31, “It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.”

All across the United States today there are women pastors, have have no fear of God. The Bible plainly teaches that only men are to occupy the office of a church pastor. 1st Corinthians 14:34, “ Let your women keep silence in the churches: for it is not permitted unto them to speak; but they are commanded to be under obedience, as also saith the law. ” Yet, ungodly feminist-minded women have disobeyed God’s Word, pastoring thousands of church in the United States, and bringing God’s judgment upon our society.

In case you haven't noticed, things are quickly falling apart in our country. I've never seen so many hundreds of thousands of Americans panhandling in thousands of cities across the nation. There are approximately 19,500 cities and towns in the United States, 6,000 of which are tiny towns of 5,000 residents or less. Millions of Americans are literally just one missing paycheck away from becoming homeless themselves. And I can tell you with confidence dear reader, that this recession is only going to escalate into a deep lasting depression and become MUCH worse over the next 20 years. Since about 1980, real livable wages have not kept up with skyrocketing inflation. There are three primary reasons for this deterioration of our economy:

1. The ungodly Federal Reserve Act of 1913. Our U.S. Congress has sold us out since 1913, giving control of our nation's money over to private greedy banking families. The Federal Reserve is a massive Ponzi Scheme, cruelly perpetuated upon the American people since 1913. They literally print money out of nothing, and then lend it to Americans (to buy a home, college tuition, car loan, et cetera) at high interest rates. By fabricating this scam, it robs the American people of generational wealth, keeping us slaving away as a hamsters running on a treadmill for our entire lives, just to die poor.

2. Open borders and illegal immigration. It is no mere coincidence that 60,000,000 illegal immigrants have been allowed to sneak into the Unite States since the 1980's. They take away U.S. jobs, drain government resources that should be used to help legitimate U.S. citizens who are poor and homeless. A nation without borders ceases to be a country! The American people lost our country 50 years ago.

3. The deindustrialization of the United States. Since the 1970's, tens of thousands of U.S. corporations have outsourced labor to foreign lands, eliminating tens of millions of American jobs and careers. For example: U.S. Robotics laid off 10,000 American workers, moving their manufacturing operations to Beijing, China. Stewart Warner in Chicago closed down their plant and moved operations to Mexico. So also did Maytag appliances in Illinois. General Motors infamously laid off (fired) 30,000 workers and moved their plant to Mexico to exploit cheap labor. Within one year Flint, Michigan became a slum, crime soared and poverty was seen everywhere. Our treasonous ungodly federal government leaders did that to us. That piece of trash, U.S President Ronald Reagan, did this to the American people!!! Your worst enemy is the next U.S. president!!! Your worst enemy is U.S. Congress and the Senate!!! They have sold us out!!!

In view of the three evils I have just mentioned, can we really ask why the United States is in such an economic, moral and social mess today? I think not. Our ungodly federal government removed and banned the inspired Holy Bible and prayer from all public schools since 1963. But those evil hypocrites left the demonic blatant fraud of evolution to be indoctrinated into impressionable children's mind. Can we really ask why crime is on the increase? I think not. We have brought these evils upon ourselves in the United States. You cannot get more out of an adult than what you invested in them as a child. We are investing evil into ou children, and that is what we are getting out of them as ungodly adults. God's curse is upon America because of our own evil choices and sins.

Do you fear God friend? I do. I fear God. A thief recently stole $1,200 of possessions from my car, including my $600 Olympus TG-6 camera and the special belt clip case I ordered for it. That plainly tells me that the thief has no fear of God, but the Bible says that the thief WILL FEAR GOD in eternity. Hebrews 4:13, "Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do." I don't know who the thief (thieves) might be, but God does, and

He promises to avenge me of their evil deeds (Romans 12:19-21; Ecclesiastes 12:14). No one ever gets away with doing evil; no one! I am thankful for God, who sees all and promises to hold all men and women accountable for their sins.

Sadly, the vast majority of the American people take the matter of sinning lightly. This is evidenced by the millions of naked American women who walk around at the beach, and wherever there is water, with just 3 % clothing on their nude body, if even that much clothes. It is obvious that 63,000,000 women, men, legislators, politicians, judges, nurses and doctors do not fear God, evidenced by the murderous abortions which they caused and partook of. The United States is long overdo for a nuclear holocaust as judgment upon our nation, for our disregard for a holy God and His Word. God hears the cry of the children who have been subjected to hormone therapy and gender reassignment surgery, not even old enough to make their own decisions yet.

Dear reader, be wise to FEAR GOD AND KEEP HIS COMMANDMENTS!!! Pleas don't follow the herd into Hell and eternal damnation. I am appalled at the lack of character in people today. I see people toss their trash out the car window and onto the ground. The news is filled with rampant shoplifting in California and across the country in all major cities. People feel entitled to steal that which they did not earn. It is not a victimless crime to steal what another person worked hard to earn. You are taking away part of their life, the time that they sacrificed to earn the money to pay for what you stole from them! The Bible says in Proverbs that you are taking away their life. Proverbs 1:19, "

So are the ways of every one that is greedy of gain; which taketh away the life of the owners thereof."

I could go on and on about the sore evils in our nation today. Truly, we have earned the accusation by Arabs as: 'THE GREAT SATAN' in America. Feminist social engineering has ruined American women. Men are afraid to get married anymore, because of the greedy ungodly $50,000,000,000 a year divorce racket in the United States. Hell will be hot enough!!!

Go into just about any business today, and you will be required to sign a shady contrast (all written by thug lawyers) will are all designed to financially take advantage of customers. From crooked rental car agencies to crooked hotels, they are dishonest and greedy as can be. Realtors are lying crooks who typically withhold information and mislead you to overpay for a home! Lawyers are ambulance-chasing thieving scumbags! Politicians are all notorious liars!

So what can we do as Christians, as God's redeemed born-again children? We need to focus our thoughts upon heavenly things, and not earthly things. Colossians 3:1-3, "

If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God.

Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth. For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God.

I receive many emails from discouraged and frustrated believers, and I am just as discouraged and frustrated myself. However, I do my best to set my affection on the things of eternity, and not the negative daily news.

Carefully notice that the Bible does not say to set your thoughts

, but your

“affection” on things above in Heaven. By affection

” the Bible simply means that which you focus upon, what you choose to think about and what interests you. In other words, that which you deliberately choose to fill your mind with. The Christian life is not lived by accident. You must choose not to sit in front of the Tv each day, filling your brain with the latest crimes, failing government, insanity in our schools, LGBTQ trash and other garbage that can only bring discouragement, depression and anger.

Now, I am not against watching and hearing the daily news, just so long as you have read or heard some of your Bible, and listened to some fundamentalist Bible preaching. I listen to Bible preaching nearly every day, which help me think right. It also keeps my mind prepared to help answer other people’s questions. I regularly share quotes from sermons, and the sermons themselves, with web visitors, to help them grow closer to God. It is not watching Hollywood movies and hearing bad news that will wreak havoc in your mind; but rather, the absence of the truths of God’s inspired Word, and the truths of the Bible that we learn from hearing Bible preaching. What saith the Scripture? Titus 1:3, “ But hath in due times manifested his word through preaching, which is committed unto me according to the commandment of God our Saviour;

” The sad truth is that over 95 % of professed Christians watch lots of Tv, listen to negative gossip from people, indulge in negative movies and music; but they hardly if ever spend any time wallowing like a pig in God’s inspired Word.

I know that when we feel down and discouraged, the last thing that we want is to read the Bible or listen to a sermon; but that is when we need preaching and truth the most. JUST DO IT!!! You’ll be glad you did. Dr. Jack Hyles used to teach us that when you feel like all hope is gone, and you feel like the walls are closing in around you, JUST EXIST!!! Don’t do anything. But when you feel that first bit of strength to go on, open your Bible and search the Scriptures for an answer to help in time of need. Pray and cast your burden upon the Lord, even if you feel like God doesn’t care and He never answers any of your prayers. Friend, I feel that horrible way all the time. I feel like God is ignoring and has abandoned me long ago. But I assure you, IT IS JUST A FEELING. Please don’t trust your ever-changing feelings my friend.

We need to make life’s decisions upon the UNCHANING inspired Word of God, which is the King James Bible. Beware of all of the Devil’s modern versions, because they are corrupt.

Here are some words of wisdom. Our government spends TRILLIONS on bombs and warfare (the Iraqi War alone cost Americans $3,000,000,000,000), but then Uncle Sam says they are broke when it comes to paying Social Security to Americans. What ungodly criminals!!! Whatever you do friend, make sure to always FEAR GOD and KEEP HIS COMMANDMENTS. I speak to born-again believers. If you have never accepted Jesus as the Christ, the only begotten Son of God, as your personal Savior, [1]then please do so right now.

4.6.4 Desiring The Things Of God (2023-06-06 15:01)

1st Corinthians 2:7-16, "But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom, which God ordained before the world unto our glory: Which none of the princes of this world knew: for had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory. But as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him. But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God. For what man knoweth the things of a man, save the spirit of man which is in him? even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God. Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God. Which things also we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth; comparing spiritual things with spiritual. But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned. But he that is spiritual judgeth all things, yet he himself is judged of no man. For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ."

I love the inspired Word of God. Psalms 19:7-10, "The law of the LORD is perfect, converting the soul: the testimony of the LORD is sure, making wise the simple. The statutes of the LORD are right, rejoicing the heart: the commandment of the LORD is pure, enlightening the eyes. The fear of the LORD is clean, enduring for ever: the judgments of the LORD are true and righteous altogether. More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold: sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb." Psalms 119:103, "How sweet are thy words unto my taste! yea, sweeter than honey to my mouth!"

I love David, after whom I am gratefully named. David loved the Bible. The shepherd boy anointed king of Israel esteemed God's Word as being more valuable than gold (which is a very expensive precious metal). Think of your most tasty sweet delight that you enjoy eating, and David said the Bible is more desirous to his tastebuds than that! Wow, that is mighty delicious and pleasing!!! I fully agree with David.

I am snacking on some tasty Skittle as I am writing this blog. The state of California just banned the sale of Skittles because they contain [1]titanium dioxide, a known toxic chemical which is harmful is large quantities. Titanium dioxide is a coloring agent used in foods. Yet, although I probably shouldn't be eating Skittles, they are so delicious that I am willing to take the risk. It's not just Skittle, Nerds, PEZ candies and fudge brownies all contain titanium dioxide.

You'll also find another toxic ingredient, sodium aluminum phosphate, in nearly all baking goods at the store, which is used as a moisture

-absorbing agent. If you are like me, you love tasty baked pastries and sweet delectable Skittles! Yet, God's Word is more sweet to my soul than Skittles!!!

Sadly, most people don't desire or cherish the things of God, let alone the deep things of God. I receive many emails from believers who are tired, weary and discouraged. I feel the same way oftentimes. It is in our human nature to go to the dark side. If a parent, friend or stranger praises but then criticizes us, we will naturally focus upon the criticism. It is in our sinful nature. I welcome emails from discouraged saints, because unlike most preachers, by God's grace I will take the time to write you back in love, sharing my own sufferings, losses and loneliness with you, and I will pray and do my best to climb out of the pit WITH YOU.

Anybody who knows me knows that I take the time to write back, and do my best to help others. I am known for writing lengthy replies.

I take quality time to write people back for several reasons:

1. Because I love Jesus, who is God, my Lord and Savior (John 14:15)
2. Because I love people, all for whom Christ died on a cross (1st John 4:11)
3. Because somebody needs to care (1st Peter 5:7)
4. Because I have suffered much in life, and I use my suffering to help others (Hebrews 2:18)
5. Because it is just the right thing to do (James 4:17)
6. Because my web visitors appreciate it (Matthew 7:12)
7. Because the people who write to me need to be loved (Jude 1:22)
8. Because my words of comfort could save someone's life (Proverbs 25:11)
9. Because we are all down in the valley at times in our life and need help (John 14:1-3)
10. Because I love helping people (2nd Timothy 1:16)
11. Because it is what Jesus would do (Matthew 5:48)
12. Because so few people care nowadays and I don't want to be one of them (Lamentations 1:12)
13. Because I am laying up treasures (rewards) in Heaven (Matthew 6:19-20)
14. Because everybody is having a touch time (John 16:33)
15. Because I enjoy sharing my heart with people (Proverbs 18:4)

Most people do not know what it truly means to suffer. When you've suffered—not for days, weeks, months or even years, but for decades—only then can you say that you know what it mans "to suffer." I have suffered for decades. I know the inexplicable pain of betrayal and divorce. I know the pain of 17 years of inexplicable loneliness without a wife as a companion. I know what it feels like to suffer physically in constant relentless agonizing neck pain for 19 years, right next to my head. The pain is so bad oftentimes, that I involuntarily close my eyes to focus my mind upon my words. By closing my eyes it helps me to concentrate.

I know what it feels like to undergo two major neck surgeries with no one by my side, not a single soul. I wanted to die because I was so lonely. To make matters worse, the hospitals where I had both surgeries in California where incompetent and abusive on multiple counts. I have been through some horrifying traumatic experiences in my life, that I choose not to talk about because it is too personal and heartbreaking. I know the pain of soul of losing my wife, losing my home, losing my pets, losing nearly all of my personal possessions, losing my retirement for which I labored for decades to secure, et cetera. Divorce is like trying to take apart plywood; it cannot be done without ripping it to shreds, utterly destroying it!

As I mentioned, I receive many emails from distraught, depressed and discouraged believers. I love them all as my brothers and sisters in Christ. It could be said that the only difference between me and them is that I live in the inspired Word of God. I thrive on Bible preaching daily. They come to me because they know that I care. It is true that people don't care what you know, until they know that you care.

One of the reasons they know that I care is because for the past 21 years I have never made a single penny from all my ministry labors. I purposely decided back in 2002, when I began my website ministry, that I refuse to ever take any money for my work. One reason for that decision is because I want the world to know that my heart is not in this ministry to make money; but rather, because I love God, people and the truth. That is not to say that everyone who asks for donations is not sincere, but we don't know if they are just doing it for the money or not. No one can accuse me of doing my ministry work to make money, because I have never made any money, and I am humbly proud of that (in a world where everybody and their dog nowadays are begging for donations).

There is nothing in this world any more dear to me, besides my own biological family, ministry friends and my web visitors, than the things of God. I am often reminded of the words of the Apostle Paul in Philippians 2:20, " For I have no man likeminded, who will naturally care for your state.

" The faithful apostle was passionate about the things of God. He was zealous about preaching the Gospel of free grace, trying to convert lost hellbound sinners into Bible-believing Christians Paul's message was simple —we are all guilty sinners under the condemnation of God's Old Testament law, but God freely offers mankind a free gift of eternal life through faith in Jesus Christ.

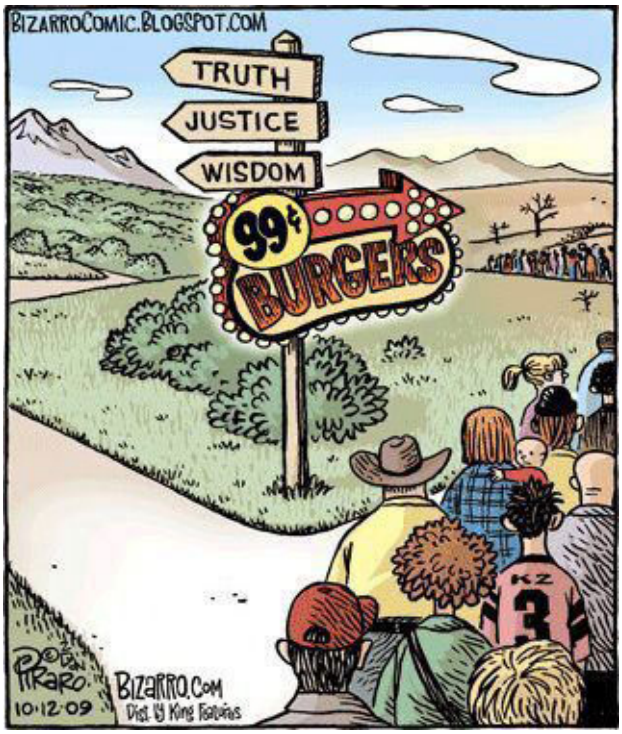
Dear reader, do the things of God interest, excite and challenge you to serve God? 2nd Timothy 1:6, " Wherefore I put thee in remembrance that thou stir up the gift of God, which is in thee by the putting on of my hands." Everyone, regardless of who you are, has a gift from God. Sadly, most saints today (i.e., those who have been born-again by the Holy Spirit of God), couldn't have less interest in pursuing the things of God. There is something that everyone can do for God.



As an example: One of my ministry friends makes images to promote my website ministry. What saith the Scripture? Mark 9:41, " For whosoever shall give you a cup of water to drink in my name, because ye belong to Christ, verily I say unto you, he shall not lose his reward." I love that Bible verse and promise from God. This verse means that when I share sermons by Brother Lester Roloff (1914-1982). Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001), Pastor Harry Ironside (1876-1951) and other great soulwinning preachers, humbly said, I still will receive an reward from God, because they were serving Christ.

Dear reader, are you serving God today?

Ecclesiastes 12:13-14, " Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man. For God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil. "

"To add anything to salvation other than the sacrificial death of Jesus on the cross is to say that His death was not sufficient payment for our sins." —Dr. Curtis Hutson

4.6.5 Why No One Should Go To Pensacola Christian College (2023-06-09 15:28)

1st John 3:18, "My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed and in truth."

I moved from the island of Guam to Pensacola in July of 2021. I chose to attend PCC's Campus Church. My first day at the church was at their 4th of July picnic in 2021. At the picnic I met their senior pastor. I told him that my plane had landed from Guam just 36 hours earlier and I was sleeping homeless in Walmart's parking lot (because the hotel where I had made my 30-day confirmed reservation cancelled my stay when my plane was delayed, which led to a 17-hour layover in Hawaii. I contacted the hotel in advance of my arrival in Pensacola, to tell them that they could bill me for the entire 30-days upfront, including the missed day, but they just cancelled everything in their greed, since it was the 4th of July weekend).

I kindly explained to the Campus Church pastor that I was homeless. He looked startled, like he didn't know what to say, and to my dismay just cold-heartedly walked away. That made a really bad first impression on me about their Pensacola Christian College (PCC) pastor. In the months to follow at Campus Church, my suspicions were confirmed that he was a shallow man with no love or compassion for individual people. Not once in our numerous personal and email interactions did he ever pray with me, nor tell me that God loves me, nor let me know that I am welcome at Campus Church. He was cold and businesslike, as a lawyer without any genuine concern or love for a hurting Christian brother.

In the weeks to follow in July and August of 2021, I had kindly mentioned to the senior pastor at PCC that my beloved wife divorced me 15 years earlier in 2006, and I had struggled through depression from loneliness and an old neck injury (stenosis and radiculitis). I was not one of their students, but at the time a 54-year-old man, and a father of 4 adult children and a thankful grandpa of 7 children. When I first contacted the pastor at PCC, I shared my heart, saying that I want to be a blessing to the PCC family, but from the very start their pastor made me feel unwelcomed, unwanted and unloved.

The pastor actually scolded me for mentioning that I hoped to find a wife at Campus Church. He rebuked me for coming to church to find a wife; but I never said that was my reason for coming to church, he said that. I had only known this man for 2 weeks. I have always believed that honesty is the best policy. So in an email I humbly told the pastor that he made me "feel like garbage" as a newcomer to PCC. He totally ignored me for 10-days.

So I kindly approached him to shake his hand after a Sunday morning service, as his lovely wife stood next to him. I kindly ask him when he would respond to my email. I had simply asked him in the email if as a divorce man who intends on getting remarried someday, if I am welcome as Campus Church. I sincerely wanted to know if he cared about me as an individual hurting human being. He embarrassed me in front of his wife, by saying: "If you find a woman to remarry I would never perform the wedding." But I never asked him to perform a wedding. I didn't even have a girlfriend. I simply asked him if I am welcome as a divorced person at Campus Church at PCC. Evidently I am not.

I read the following true statements from the preceding article:

> "Discourage individualism, encourage group-think > Any disagreement in a school assignment with the college's position would result in a lower grade and opened yourself to criticism of your position by those in authority over you."
> SOURCE: [1]https://freedomfromfundamentalism.com/2022/02/18/is-pensacola-christian-college-a-cult-part-1/

That is exactly correct about PCC, the place is a prisonhouse of religion! Sadly, there are no second chances at PCC. There is no forgiveness once you've offended them. There is an ongoing cultish abusive authoritarian culture at PCC. The system always comes first at PCC, but individual people do not matter. They mistreated me as a 54-year-old man; the same horrible way that they mistreat their students, enforcing upon them a system of rules, restrictions and standards without love or compassion. PCC leaders mistreat their church members the same way, demanding mob-like loyalty or you will be removed, shunned and ostracized permanently.

I had attended their Single Adults Sunday school class. I couldn't believe what I heard from the Sunday school teacher, a younger fella about 30 years old. He told the class that if you have "people in your life that don't vibe with you," just kick them out. I knew that what I was hearing is totally unbiblical. The Holy Bible commands us to love people, even the unloving and unlikable among us. People just want to be loved. PCC still hasn't learned that great truth, or more likely they don't care.

By the fall of 2021, I left Campus Church in disgust and frustration, seeing how phony and shallow their institution really is. I didn't feel the presence of the Holy Spirit in the few months that I attended their so-called "church." Campus Church is really a chapel for their mind-controlled students; not a genuine biblical New Testament church. PCC are academic types, not church builders, so they woefully lack compassion for people.

At the time I left PCC, I was no longer homeless, but now living out of a suitcase in a cheap motel. I was having a rough time. The pastor of Campus Church—with his 6-digit annual salary and his nice big home—couldn't care less about me as a human being. When I left the PCC camp I openly criticized them on social media. I was hurt and discouraged. I didn't do it to seek revenge, but simply as word of mouth to voice my negative opinions of what goes on at PCC. Both PCC and Campus Church have blocked my Facebook account, not for harassing or criticizing them, but for simply pleading with them to allow me to come back to Campus Church. Once PCC blackballs you, they throw you under the bus and leave you for dead. That is what Satan does to his victims, he comes only to kill, steal and destroy (John 10:10).

As a divorced person (who suffers from constant neck pain, burning nerves and radiating pain down my arms and legs), I live a reclusive life. Surviving day by day in chronic bodily pain for the past 19 years since 2004 has ruined my social life. I take prescription pain medications. I was very lonely in 2022. So in the summer of 2022, I humbled myself and mailed a letter to the senior pastor of Campus Church. I told him I was sorry for lashing out against them on social media. I pleaded for him to please allow me to come back to Campus Church. I told him that missed the few friends I had made at PCC, and mentioned their names. I promised that if they would forgive and allow me to come back to Campus Church, I would remove all my criticism and never criticize them again.

I wasn't surprised that after 4 weeks I still hadn't heard a word from him. I had provided in my letter me mobile phone number, email (which he already had) and my mailing address (which the church already had on file, because they mailed me a letter when I joined Campus Church in July of 2021). So, I mailed a second letter, this time to all the pastor of Campus Church. I also mailed a copy of the same letter to PCC. After 6 weeks nobody replied. I was saddened that all my criticism against the PCC cult on social media were now confirmed. They just don't care about individual people.

Money is all that matters to PCC. As publicly reported in their annual financial, Campus Church took in $3,5000,000 in the fiscal 2021-2022 year. The church finished the year with $1,200,000 left in the bank. I was sitting in the pew at Campus Church and felt sick, when their senior pastor announced an upcoming church class to learn how to more effectively witness to people, and there was a $10 charge to attend. All that money in the bank and they're charging church members $10 to learn how to better share the Gospel. That speaks 1,000 words about the dire spiritual condition at PCC.

As I mentioned, when I mailed three letters in the summer of 2022 to the PCC camp, they completely ignored me. So after six weeks of being dissed and ignored by PCC leaders, I started criticizing them again on social media (and they deserve all the negative press they get). Only then did their senior pastor horribly email me, to say that I am permanently banned from attending Campus Church. His lame ungodly excuse was that my "remarks were consequential." Still today in 2023, I am banned from attending PCC's Campus Church. Only a religious cult selectively decides who can or cannot attend church. At PCC only "Some Lives Matter," but in true Christianity "All Lives Matter."

In hindsight, I never should have even bothered to try to go back. I had just missed my friends. I made close friends with a PCC graduate crippled in a wheelchair, about my age. I miss her Mom and Dad. Sadly, the pastors of Campus Church only care about money, and people mean nothing to them, except those who pander to them. Jesus warned in Matthew 5:46, "For if ye love them which love you, what reward have ye? do not even the publicans the same?" Jesus tells the story of the shepherd who left the 99 sheep who were safe in the fold, to go find and help that 1 lost lamb. That show the great heart of our benevolent God, who cares about the nobody, the leper, the broken sinner and the outcasts of society. Sadly, at PCC they have their 9,999 people, so they couldn't care less about hurting lonely people like me and countless others who are in the 1 % group.

Another Bible verse that stands out when I think about PCC is from 1st John 3:18, "My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed and in truth." Their official slogan at Campus Church is: "Loving God! Loving People!" Unfortunately, those are mere empty words at PCC, they in fact don't love people in deed nor in truth. PCC are just playing church, throwing anybody under the bus who dares to question or oppose them about anything. There is no love or compassion at PCC. I humbly offered to do whatever PCC leaders require to reconcile with them, but they still cold-heartedly refuse. That speaks volumes about their shameful lack of walking with God at PCC. People just want to be loved.

As a parent and grandparent myself, I am sincerely warning parents not to send their children to PCC, unless you want them to become shallow, superficial, snobbish, lacking compassion and academic type Christians; instead of soul-conscious, people-loving, caring, humble servants for the Kingdom of Heaven's sake. PCC is shallow at best, and partaker of evildoers at worst. PCC wickedly bids Godspeed to false teachers like [2]Ken Ham, and the [3]cult at Bob Jones University.

All across America today shallow pastors and churches do not contend for the Christian faith anymore as they ought (Jude 1:3; Titus 1:13-14). The reason why is because today's wimpy incompetent pastors have been trained at dead Bible colleges like Pensacola Christian College, who don't even believe that the King James Bible is inspired. God shouldn't and won't bless this mess! PCC is thriving today in the secular world, as did the corrupt church of Laodicea; but Jesus called them poor, blind, naked, wretched and miserable (Revelation 3:15-17). PCC is the equivalent today of the church of Laodicea. I say that to their utter shame.

4.6.6 Hagar And Sarah Illustrate The Law And Grace (2023-06-10 20:13)

Galatians 4:22-26, "For it is written, that Abraham had two sons, the one by a bond-maid, the other by a freewoman. But he who was of the bondwoman was born after the flesh; but he of the freewoman was by promise. Which things are an allegory: for these are the two covenants; the one from the mount Sinai, which gendereth to bondage, which is Agar. For this Agar is mount Sinai in Arabia, and answereth to Jerusalem which now is, and is in bondage with her children. But Jerusalem which is above is free, which is the mother of us all."

The Apostle Paul in his letter of correction to the Galatians, who were led astray from grace into keeping the Law, said the following in Galatians 1:15-16, "But when it pleased God, who separated me from my mother's womb, and called me by his grace, To reveal his Son in me, that I might preach him among the heathen; immediately I conferred not with flesh and blood:"

Paul said that God separated him from "my mother's womb," and that God called Paul by His grace for a specific duty. That duty was to "to reveal His Son in me, that I might preach him among the heathen;" The

"h

are the Gentiles (i.e., anyone not Jewish).

5796

To fully understand what “womb” Paul was separated from, you need to read couple of Chapters and verses ahead where he spoke in allegory using two women (Sarah and Hagar) as illustration to illustrate between the LAW (NOT OF FAITH) and PROMISE (FAITH). An Allegory is a story, poem, or picture that can be interpreted to reveal a HIDDEN MEANING, TYPICALLY a moral or political one. In the following intriguing passage of Scripture we see Hagar and Sarah used to illustrate the comparison between God’s LAW versus God’s GRACE:

> Galatians 4:22-26, “
>
> For it is written, that Abraham had two sons, the one by a bondmaid, the other by a freewoman.
>
> But he who was of the bondwoman was born after the flesh; but he of the freewoman was by promise.
>
> Which things are an allegory*: for these are the two covenants; the one from the mount Sinai, which gendereth to bondage, which is Agar.
>
> For this Agar is mount Sinai in Arabia, and answereth to Jerusalem which now is, and is in bondage with her children.
>
> But Jerusalem which is above is free, which is the mother of us all.
>
> **”

Hagar in this context represents the LAW received by Moses at Mount Sinai, who is “ in bondage with her children.

Her

“children” include John MacArthur, Bob Jones University, Calvinists, the Pharisees in the Bible and all those who add WORKS to God’s saving GRACE. Remember dear reader—grace is not earned, it is offered.

There are some Bible teachers who falsely claim that “the womb” from which Paul was separated was the LAW, and not literally his mother’s womb. But I humbly disagree with that theory. It disturbs me when deeper-life theologians and wannabe Bible teachers read into the Scriptures what God did not say. Kindly said, some people think too much! So beware my friend of trying to spiritualize the Word of God. When Paul said he came from his mother’s “womb,” that is literally what he meant.

A perfect example of what not to do, of which I am warning you not to do, is concerning the Seven Churches of Asia Minor in Revelation chapters 2 and 3. I have heard some preachers claim that the Seven Churches are actually dispensational time periods. Their presentation usually ends with the church of Laodicea, alleging that we are now living in the dispensation Laodicean period. One of my former Bible professors at Hyles-Anderson College (HAC), Dr. William P. Grady, was teaching this heresy in the classrooms at HAC. Dr. Jack Hyles ripped against this heresy in his preaching one Sunday evening, saying that a certain teacher at HAC was about to be fired if he didn’t stopped teaching that the Seven Churches in Revelation chapter 2 and 3 are dispensational time periods.

Dr. Hyles graciously didn’t mention Brother Grady’s name, but we all knew exactly who Dr. Hyles was talking about, because we students had sat in Dr. Grady’s classes. Dr. Hyles told us in his sermon why he disliked the Seven Churches dispensational teaching.

First, there is no biblical support for such a false teaching.

Second, by teaching students that we are now living in the Laodicean age of apostasy, it discourages students from going soulwinning. I mean, what's the use of trying to get people saved if we are living in a dispensation of apostasy when today's lukewarm churches don't care.

Humbly said, I agree with Dr. Hyles. I love Brother Grady and he is a friend of mine on Facebook. Dr. Grady is an amazing historian whom I admire and respect greatly. I cannot name even one preacher, including Jack Hyles, that I agree with doctrinally on everything. But having said that, I humbly disagree with Dr. Grady concerning the Seven Church of Asia Minor, just as I disagree with him and Dr. Peter S. Ruckman (1921-2016) that Old Testament saints were saved by faith plus works. Acts 10:42 and Romans 4:4 teach us that God's gift of salvation has always been by faith alone in Christ.

He that was born after the Flesh (Ishmael) persecuted he that was born after the Spirit (Isaac). So it is now (The Pharisees and the Law keepers persecuted them that were of FAITH in Christ the children of Promise). We read in the book of Genesis 21:9-10 how Ishmael MOCKED (persecuted) Sarah's son Isaac, that led Sarah to say: "CAST OUT THIS BONDWOMAN AND HER SON," FOR HE SHALL NOT BE HEIR. Likewise it is today. Those that are of the works of the Law cannot be Heir with the children of Promise (Faith in Christ), because the Law is not of FAITH. ...

Galatians 3:11-12, **"

But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, The just shall live by faith. And the law is not of faith: but, The man that doeth them shall live in them.

Every believer in the body of Christ are Children of the Free, and children of Promise. Do not let anyone use soothing words to deceive you into going back to the Law, which allegorically is BONDAGE. Let the Grace of God teach you how to Walk in Faith and Love.

Titus 2:11-14, "For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men, Teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world; Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ; Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works."

4.6.7 The MORE I Love By TELLING THE TRUTH, The LESS I Am Loved (2023-06-12 12:09)

2nd Corinthians 12:15, " And I will very gladly spend and be spent for you; though the more abundantly I love you, the less I be loved. "

This Bible verse is dear to me. I told THE TRUTH at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam in 2014. Their wicked pastor Marty Herron reprimanded me, forced me out of church and then banned me from returning. I took a biblical stand against their church, which had become a Lordship Salvation cult. From 2014 until today, and for the rest of my life (by God's grace), I will continue to expose the Satanic Bob Jones University cult for promoting the Devil's corrupt Bible versions, expose their wrong teaching that repentance means to forsake your sinful behavior to get to Heaven, and their lie of Lordship Salvation which damns men's souls to Hell. Somebody needs to care! Someone needs to TELL THE TRUTH!!! Titus 1:9-14 commands me as a preacher to REBUKE THEM SHARPLY that they might be sound in the faith, but they aren't budging from preaching their damnable Calvinist heresy. Nor are they repenting of using, selling and promoting the Devil's perversions of the Holy Bible. The following alarming comparison chart speaks for itself...

The Bible Changed And Corrupted For [2]Copyright Purposes

So, after a couple years of loneliness without my church family, I found and visited the Lighthouse Baptist Church on Guam. Their wicked pastor [a Pensacola Christian College (PCC) intern], Sean Quinlan, overheard me telling a fellow Christian brother to beware of the Devil's modern Bible revisions. He had overheard me talking about this issue numerous times over several months. He was eavesdropping on my personal conversations at church.

Pastor Quinlan shamefully eventually snapped in anger at me one night (outside the front door of church), when he overheard me warning a church member about Bob Jones University—because they sell, use and promote corrupt Bible versions. Quinlan called me "Obsessed over the Bible issue." I take that accusation as a badge of honor! You had better believe that I am "OBSESSED" over the Bible issue, and I make no apologies for it. SHAME on Sean Quinlan for defending the accursed Bob Jones camp and their Devil's Bibles and Lordship Salvation!!!

After that, I wasn't welcomed at the Lighthouse Baptist church anymore either. Pastor Quinlan shamefully even called Harvest Baptist Church on Guam: "Our sister church." What a wicked thing to say, sinfully bidding Godspeed to a Calvinist Lordship-Salvation-preaching CULT! 2nd John 1:11 says that Pastor Sean Quinlan and the members of Lighthouse Baptist Church are partaker of Harvest's evil deeds. 2nd John 1:11, "For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds."

And then I moved from Guam to Pensacola in 2021 and chose to go to Campus Church at PCC. I found out quickly and was sickened to learn, that PCC is buddies with Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. Harvest even plays Jeff Redlin's (the senior pastor at Campus Church) lame sermonettes on Harvest's KHMG 88.1 FM radio station on Guam. Birds of a feather flock together! Soon after I began attending Campus Church, I was falsely accused by the pastors of Campus Church of "finding weaknesses in preachers" after they viewed my website ministry.

One of my hateful enemies had contacted PCC to warn them about me, showing them my ministry websites exposing Harvest's incompetent Calvinist pastors on Guam. PCC's wicked leaders took offense! I learned to my horror that PCC is in bed spiritually committing adultery with Harvest Baptist Church on Guam and the demonic Bob Jones University (BJU) cult. BJU uses, sells and promotes corruptible seed; that is, the Devil's Westcott and Hort perversions of God's Word. Sadly, Pastor Clarence Sexton is just as guilty! BJU preaches a wrong meaning of repentance, requiring lost sinners to forsake their sinful ways to get to Heaven. BJU wickedly bids Godspeed to their alumnus Dr. John MacArthur. RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!!

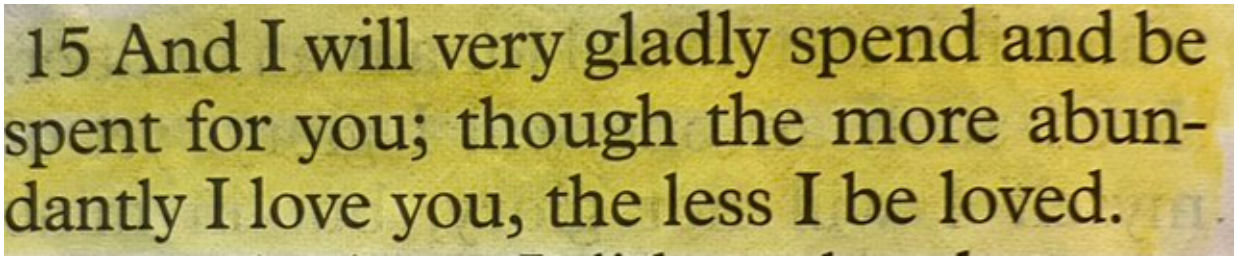
In true love, I have TOLD THE TRUTH at all of these aforementioned ungodly institutions, hoping that they would become sound in the faith; but tragically, instead of embracing me as a truth-teller shewing forth righteousness, they have all wickedly, shamefully and consequentially thrown me under the bus and forgot about me. My innocent blood is upon all of their hands.

SHAME on PCC for bidding Godspeed to infidel Ken Ham and his Lordship Salvation heresy. SHAME on PCC for wickedly bidding Godspeed to the cult at Bob Jones University. By allowing their students to play intercollegiate sports together, PCC are telling their students and the world that right doctrine doesn't matter. PCC will never speak a word against the BJU camp for corrupting the Gospel. PCC are unequally yoked together with unbelievers (2nd Corinthians 6:14-17).

I am in the same boat as the Apostle Paul, although I am not an apostle; I'm just a humble broken sinner saved by grace. The MORE that I love pastors and churches and Bible colleges (to tell them the truth that Lordship Salvation is a lie, repentance doesn't mean to forsake your sinning, and the Devil's Bible versions are deadly), the LESS I am loved. I have felt very lonely as a preacher for many years—like the Lone Ranger—because I have had to stand alone, while ungodly neo-evangelicals pastors and Bible colleges leaders laugh at me in mockery, shun and ban me from attending their organizations, and count me as their enemy, for TELLING THE TRUTH.

If the leaders of these churches and Bible colleges truly knew and walked with God, then they would embrace me for telling the truth. They would applaud me for caring and contending for the Christian faith, and not just going along to get along with the crowd (which is what they are shamefully doing). Herd mentality is a very dangerous thing...

The sad truth is that PCC, BJU and Crown College only care about making lost more money. Consequently, they won't step on each other's toes, lest they lose future students and millions of dollars. Truly, the LOVE OF MONEY is the root of all evil, just as the Bible warns in 1st Timothy 6:10. The system always comes first at Pensacola Christian College, individual people do not matter! They are academic types at PCC and BJU, not church builders, so they woefully lack compassion for people.



The ironic thing about my ongoing long-time battle with the PCC and BJU camps, is that if they had simply welcomed me back to church (as I humbly requested umpteen times), I would have befriended them in love and removed all my criticisms on social media, just to have a church family. But those ungodly reprobates all refused. They all chose to side with the doctrinal errors of Lordship Salvation and wrong repentance, and to side with the Devil's Bibles instead of just doing the right thing.

The Bible warns that by PCC wickedly bidding Godspeed to the Bob Jones camp, they are guilty partakers of the same wickedness! PCC's pastors and leaders are preaching the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation!!! They are the Bible says because they support BJU, who preach hardcore Lordship Salvation. That makes PCC equally guilty of damning men's souls to the everlasting Lake of Fire. Why would any parent entrust their son or daughter to these money-grubbing compromisers and sellouts at Pensacola Christian College? Please don't do it Mom and Dad, there are so many BETTER Bible colleges out there, like Commonwealth Baptist College in Lexington, Kentucky (who still teach that the King James Bible is inspired). Did you know that BJU, Crown College and PCC all deny that we have an inspired Bible today? It is sadly very true!!!

Yes Paul, I know exactly how you feel. TELLING THE TRUTH comes at a high cost. My reward is waiting for me in Heaven. I'd love to give Paul a hug when I get to Heaven, knowing how his heart broke as professed Christian people outcast him as a troublemaker and enemy for TELLING THE TRUTH. □□□□□□□□□□ □:□□, "□□ □ □□□□□□□□□□ □□□□□□ □□□□ □□□□□, □□□□□□□□ □ □□□□ □□□ □□□ □□□□□□?"

4.6.8 I Am An Idea (2023-06-12 14:37)

5804

Dr. Jack Hyles, Hammond, Ind.

(Loyal Pastor of First Baptist Church of Hammond, Indiana, for 42 years)

I am an idea. I came to visit your mind. You held me for a moment and planned to capture me. You told me to wait for awhile while you did something else. I tired of waiting and took my flight. It is too bad, for I perhaps could have even changed your life or maybe I could have even changed the world or your family or your church. Maybe I was important or maybe I was unimportant, but you will never know, for you are too busy to lodge me.

I do not ask for a large place to reside—a three-by-five card is ample space for me, but I refuse to wait in the vestibule of your mind while you care for lesser things.

I am an idea. I came once to Edison, and I found lodging for me, and the Wright brothers housed me; so did Jonas Salk. I do not need to dwell on a scroll; I am not usually housed on stationery. I need no library for my walls or publication for my dwelling place. I simply ask for a three-by-five card or even a scratch paper.

I did not flee to another, for I was meant for you. God sent me, designed to be used by you, to help others, but you never stopped long enough to let me in. I knocked at the door of meditation, but it was locked. I sought entrance at the door of prayer, but it never opened. Just the slightest opening and I would have entered, but you never stopped to think, so I could not enter your mind.

I am an idea. Oh, after I left, you sought me diligently, but I was gone forever, for you placed me in your memory instead of on a three-by-five card. I cost you nothing; in fact, I will pay you rent if you will lodge me, and I will even move in with others like me on the same card, and you need not pay attention to me until you are ready, but I WILL NOT live in your memory. I will flee unless you lodge me on any kind of paper or on a three-by-five card.

If I leave, I will not come again to you or to another, and the world will never know me or the contribution I could have made. I did not ask for a home with gilded edges or leather binding or fancy parchment or gold lettering. I did not ask to be typed or printed or engraved– just to be scribbled was all that was necessary.

I do not ask that my landlord be a typist or typesetter or a commercial artist—just a doodler would have sufficed.

I sought not to be filed or be placed in an attaché or a briefcase; I sought only to live and be scribbled on a three-by-five card and placed in your pocket.

Dwelling on such a card I was able to make Russell Andersons out of common men, John Beilers from normal people, Jack DeCosters from the bourgeois and Wendell Evanses from average folk.

I am an idea. My neglectors dwell in prisons, stand in soup lines and live off welfare, and many of them work for those who housed me on a three-by-five card. I have made many wealthy and many famous, and those who housed me are called leaders while many neglectors call my landlords "lucky" and those who neglect me eat from the taxes of those who house me.

I am an idea. I dwell in the pockets of architects and surgeons and businessmen and authors and poets and successful pastors. In fact, I am near the heart of all successful people.

I am an idea. I am the difference between success and failure, an A and a B, a B and a C, a C and a D, and a D and an F. I am the difference between quitting and graduating, standing and falling, passing and failing.

I am an idea. Eventually I dwell in the pockets of better shirts. I am how they are afforded, though I do not ask for silk or satin or linen. I sought not Van Heusen or Arrow or Christian Dior. Any old card in any old pocket in any old shirt would have done.

I am an idea. I did not ask for transportation by a quill or typewriter or computer or even a pen– an old pencil would have sufficed. I want only a place to dwell on a simple three-by-five card.

You know many of my keepers: Abraham Lincoln, Benjamin Franklin, Louis Pasteur, John Rice, Lee Roberson, Ronald Reagan, Thomas Edison, Henry Ford, William Shakespeare, Robert Browning, Isaac Watts, George Washington, Bob Jones, and many more. My neglectors are named... I seem to have forgotten... so have you.

I am an idea. You need not be talented to keep me. I seem unimportant to talented people, and those who trust their good memories have forgotten me forever. I am born miraculously and quickly and die very soon unless placed immediately in the incubator of a three-by-five card. When I am so kept, I recommend others to you and they run to you for lodging. I never do it alone; I share my card with many like me and share my pocket with many other cards, and those who house me never seem to have pocket space for rent.

I am an idea. I pass by those who sleep in chapel and those who lie on activity reports and quitters and rule-breakers and gossips and critics and gluttons and sluggards and the unscheduled and the undisciplined.

In fact, this article is one like me. It was scribbled on a three-by-five card and placed in an Arrow shirt pocket worn by one who is not brilliant but who houses many like me. While I was in his pocket, I dwelt where this College once dwelt, where this building once lived, where this campus was once housed. I saw signs that said, “Books once lived here,” like BLUE DENIM AND LACE, HOW TO REAR CHILDREN, MEET THE HOLY SPIRIT and PLEASE PARDON MY POETRY.

I am an idea. Probably you did not hear me knock; I knock so softly that you did not hear me. I DO knock all day just in case you come to the door of meditation or to the window of thought and study. I did not force my way in, for those who are too busy to greet me are too busy to use me.

It would not have taken long; just let me be on a three-by-five card and forget me. I will stay there until you call, but I WILL NOT stay in your memory.

I am an idea. I wanted you; I needed you. I will soon die for lack of my natural habitat, and the world will never know me because of you, and to think that I did not ask to dwell 'neath a Hart, Shaffner, Marx, but just on a three-by-five card near your heart.

I am an idea. Now I am dying. I will soon be carried to a grave of uselessness by pallbearers of neglect. My grave will never be visited, for none knew me. I sigh for those who could have been known by millions if you could have taken thirty seconds and used an old pen and put me on any old three-by-five card. Millions could have met me and I could have had eternal life, but I was kept from the world... by you.

I am an idea. I did not ask for your I.Q. or for a financial report; I did not see what you look like, for beauty was not required. I did not notice your size or ability nor did I check your intelligence—I just wanted you. I did not even ask to live in your mind or in your heart or in your soul or even in your memory—just on a three-by-five card in your pocket.

I am an idea. I could have changed your life; I could have made you successful; I could have made you a blessing or perhaps even renowned or important or prosperous. But I came to you one day—you played, you partied, you slept, you even met me, but I was not important enough for immediate attention. You casually asked me to wait for a few minutes, but when you came for me, I was gone—gone forever—and to think I would have stayed if you had only taken a minute to house me on a three-by-five card.

I WAS an idea. I died in infancy. I now rest with many others of your children. My death was so needless. I wanted to live. We could have been so happy together. Now soon you will also die and few will remember you either, for the world will remember BOTH or NEITHER of us.

And to think, we both could have lived and been remembered if you had only housed me in any old pocket of any old shirt on any old paper.

Oh, by the way, have you noticed the epitaph on my tombstone? It reads, "He died for the lack of a three-by-five card."

—Jack Hyles

4.6.9 Arnold Schwarzenegger's Tragic Religious Beliefs (2023-06-12 18:32)

John 3:3-7, "Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God. Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born? Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again."

I was sad a few days ago when I found this disturbing article about Hollywood actor Arnold Schwarzenegger's religious faith...

> Arnold Schwarzenegger Recently Described Heaven as a 'Fantasy' in an Interview

Arnold Schwarzenegger is still keeping busy, but many want to know what the 'FUBAR' star's views on religion are at this point in his life.

BY [1]JOSEPH ALLEN

> June 7, 2023

Although he isn't the marquee superstar that he once was, [2]Arnold Schwarzenegger still has plenty of star power left in his tank. The former California governor is now doing press to promote his new Netflix show [3]FUBAR , and a recent interview he gave has raised eyebrows when it comes to his religious beliefs.

> Now, in the aftermath of the interview, many are wondering what Arnold really thinks about religion, and how his views might have changed over the course of his life. Here's what we know. ...
>
> Arnold isn't so sure that heaven is real.
> In a more recent interview with Danny DeVito, Arnold cast some skepticism on the idea that heaven s anything more than a fantasy.
>
> "It reminds me of Howard Stern's question to me," Arnold said during their conversation for [4]Interview Magazine. "'Tell me, governor, what happens to us when we die?' I said, 'Nothing. You're six feet under. Anyone that tells you something else is a f–king liar.'"
>
> "I said, 'We don't know what happens with the soul and all this spiritual stuff that I’m not an expert in, but I know that the body as we see each other now, we will never see each other again like that,’" he added.

Danny chimed in, adding "we deteriorate."

..."Except in some fantasy," the Terminator actor continued. "When people talk about, ‘I will see them again in heaven,’ it sounds so good, but the reality is that we won’t see each other again after we’re gone. That’s the sad part. I know people feel comfortable with death, but I don’t. Because I will f–king miss the s–t out of everything. To sit with you here, that will one day be gone?"

SOURCE: [5]https://www.distractify.com/p/arnold-schwarzenegger-religion

Isn’t that tragic? Arnold thinks when you’re dead, that’s it. He doesn’t believe in a literal Heaven or a literal Hell. I feel sad for him. How can you go to Heaven if you don’t even believe in Heaven?

I personally like Arnold Schwarzenegger. I love his acting in Terminator, Predator and other popular movies he has starred in. Since I didn't live in California, I can't really comment on his performance as California's Governator... lol. As messed up as the state of California has been for the past half century, I really couldn't fault any one man for not being able to save the state from itself. And then of course, there is Arnold's body-building career. He actually won the Mr. Olympus World Championship titled for ten years in the 1970's. The pictures of Arnold's muscular physique back then was nothing short of breathtaking. He admits to using steroids, which is obvious to anyone who knows even the least bit about steroids. Wow!

But now, 40 years later, Arnold Schwarzenegger is just a normal looking guy, with average sized muscles. That is because once you stop taking the steroids, you lose the muscles that the steroids helped you gain. Thankfully Arnold took the steroids under the supervision of a doctor. Many body builders have died from taking steroids who didn't know what they were doing, or pushed it too far too fast. The human heart can only take so much abuse!

On a side note, the phony type of Christianity that they practice at Pensacola Christian College (PCC) today is like Christianity on steroids. PCC looks all big and bad to the religious world, but when all is said and done everybody will realize how pathetic, wimpy and small they really are in God's eyes. PCC is a disgrace to the Christian world today, treating people like garbage. To God ALL LIVES MATTER, but at PCC and their pathetic Campus Church only SOME LIVES MATTER. I say that to their utter shame and contempt. I digress.

I wish

Arnold Schwarzenegger would come to Christ to be saved. Hollywood makes men and women filthy rich, so that they forget about God and think that they don't need a Savior, but they do. Oh they do need a Savior!

Arnold Schwarzenegger is now 75 years old and aging quickly. The guy is amazing! Yet, the Bibles asks, what does it profit a man if he gains the whole world, yet dies in his sins and loses his soul? Jesus Himself said in no uncertain terms in John 3:3b, "Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God."

Arnold Schwarzenegger has no faith in Jesus Christ. That means he is not saved. That is, he has never been born-again by the Holy Spirit of God. Jesus plainly warned in John 14:6, "Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me."

Arnold Schwarzenegger said he grew up in the Roman Catholic church. Catholicism is s prisonhouse of religion. You'll never get to Heaven through keeping the damnable Seven Sacraments of the Catholic cult. Albeit, although Schwarzenegger grew up in Roman Catholicism, he clearly has departed from it (thank God). That's a good start to coming to Christ!

For an unsaved religion person, you first have to convince them that they are wrong in their faith.

So it is good in a sense that

Schwarzenegger doesn't believe in Catholicism, because now he is only one step away from being saved instead of two. I have often said that the hardest thing about getting people saved is first getting them lost. Arnold is lost, he just needs to come to Jesus Christ alone in faith to be saved. Dear reader, if you will simply come to God as a guilty sinner, and believe that Jesus has already done it all for you through Calvary's cross, believing that Jesus is risen from the dead, you will be instantly and forever saved.

It is my sincere hope and prayer (I just prayed for Arnold

Schwarzenegger

) that the Lord will give him another opportunity to be saved (maybe even read this blog online), and come to faith in the saving knowledge of the Lord Jesus Christ. John 6:47,

“Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.”

4.6.10 Why King James Bible Only? (2023-06-13 20:00)

2nd Corinthians 2:17, “For we are not as many, which corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ.”

1.) THE TWO CITIES

Dr. Jack Moorman, who spent many years in researching the question of Bible versions, has stated that the transmission of the Greek text of the New Testament is essentially a "tale of two cities", viz., Antioch and Alexandria. Dr. Moorman writes:

> "Just as surely as the King James text was woven into the spiritual life of Antioch in Syria, so was the modern versions text in Alexandria. Today a person must decide whether he is more comfortable with a Bible whose roots go back to one or the other of these two cities...certainly Antioch has by far the most glorious heritage."

ANTIOCH: Here was the springboard for the Gentile church. It became the center for Gentile Christians just as Jerusalem was for the Jews. "The disciples were called Christians first at Antioch" (Acts 11:26). Antioch was the center for the outreach of the apostle Paul and his missionary journeys. Many of the disciples also visited Antioch. Antioch was the ‘ heartbeat’ of Christianity.

ALEXANDRIA: The place where most of the modern texts and translations originated, had no such glory. It is true, however, that Alexandria became a center of intellectualism. Such men as Clement and Origen were active in this area. It was also noted as a place where every deviant sect was represented. Religious corruption and false doctrines were prevalent including Gnosticism, Arianism, pagan philosophy, etc. Alexandria was the place where the intellectuals of Christianity were attracted.

2.) THE TWO ESSENTIALS INSPIRATION and PRESERVATION

Since God has inspired His Word, has He also preserved His Word? Has He preserved it for every generation in any language anywhere? YES!

The Westminster Confession (1646) states: "The Scriptures were immediately inspired of God and under His singular care and providence kept pure in all ages."

The Bible has the final say in the matter: 'The words of the Lord are pure words...Thou shalt keep them, O Lord, Thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever.' Psalm 12:6-7, "The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times.

Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever." What is Verse 7 promising will be preserved? Obviously, the pure words from Verse 6.

If we accept the Inspiration of Scripture, then we must also accept that every word has been (and will be) perfectly Preserved through the ages for local churches. Both Inspiration and Preservation together are essential Bible doctrines. Beware of false teachers today who errantly claim that the King James Bible is preserved, but not inspired or perfect. If we do not have an inspired perfect Holy Bible today, then we do not have THE TRUTH. If even one portion of the Bible could be corrupted and in error, then any portion could be corrupt, and we cannot trust our Bibles today.

Dr. Jack Hyles (1926-2001) rightly proposed the rhetorical question: "What good is preservation without inspiration?" You could just as easily turn the question around and ask: "What good is inspiration without preservation?" That is to say, what good would it have been for God to give His perfectly inspired " very pure

" (Psalms 119:140) words to holy men of old, if those words lost their inspiration and became tainted by flawed men during translation over the millenniums

3.) THE TWO HERETICS *

CLEMENT: He accepted Greek philosophy and the Apocrypha as divinely authoritative. He was head of the catechetical school at Alexandria and believed that salvation could be obtained through various means including baptism, faith and works, faith alone et cetera.

ORIGEN: He also became head of the catechetical school. A man of superior intellect he however denied the Bible's historicity, eternal punishment, the Holy Spirit's eternality, salvation by grace etc. He was given to the allegorizing of scripture.

 Data from the excellent book: "Final Authority" by Dr. William P. Grady

4.) THE TWO FALSE WITNESSES **

Discarded and hidden for 1500 years, these two corrupted manuscripts form the basis of all MODERN VERSIONS. They disagree with each other in over 3000 places in the Gospels alone. It is the VATICAN MSS. (which include the Apocrypha) that the translators mostly relied upon. Both had their roots in Alexandria and show the influence of Origen.

* Data from H.C. Hoskier's "Codex B and its Allies"

A total of 43 other manuscripts indicate some support for this text compared to 5210 which support the Traditional Text. † John W. Burgon states: "These are two of the least trustworthy documents in existence..." ('Revision Revised.')

5.) THE TWO APOSTATE REVISIONISTS

BROOKE WESTCOTT & FENTON HORT

Both men were apostates.

Brooke Westcott did not accept:

- Genesis 1-3
- Bodily resurrection of Jesus Christ
- Miracles and literal coming of Jesus Christ
- Was partial to Romish ways.

Hort did not accept:

- The infallibility of Scripture
- He also favored Darwin's theory of evolution.

Both men did not believe in eternal punishment or the vicarious atonement. (Data from, 'Life & Letters,' 1896,1903)

6.) CHANGES COMPARED WITH THE TRADITIONAL TEXT *

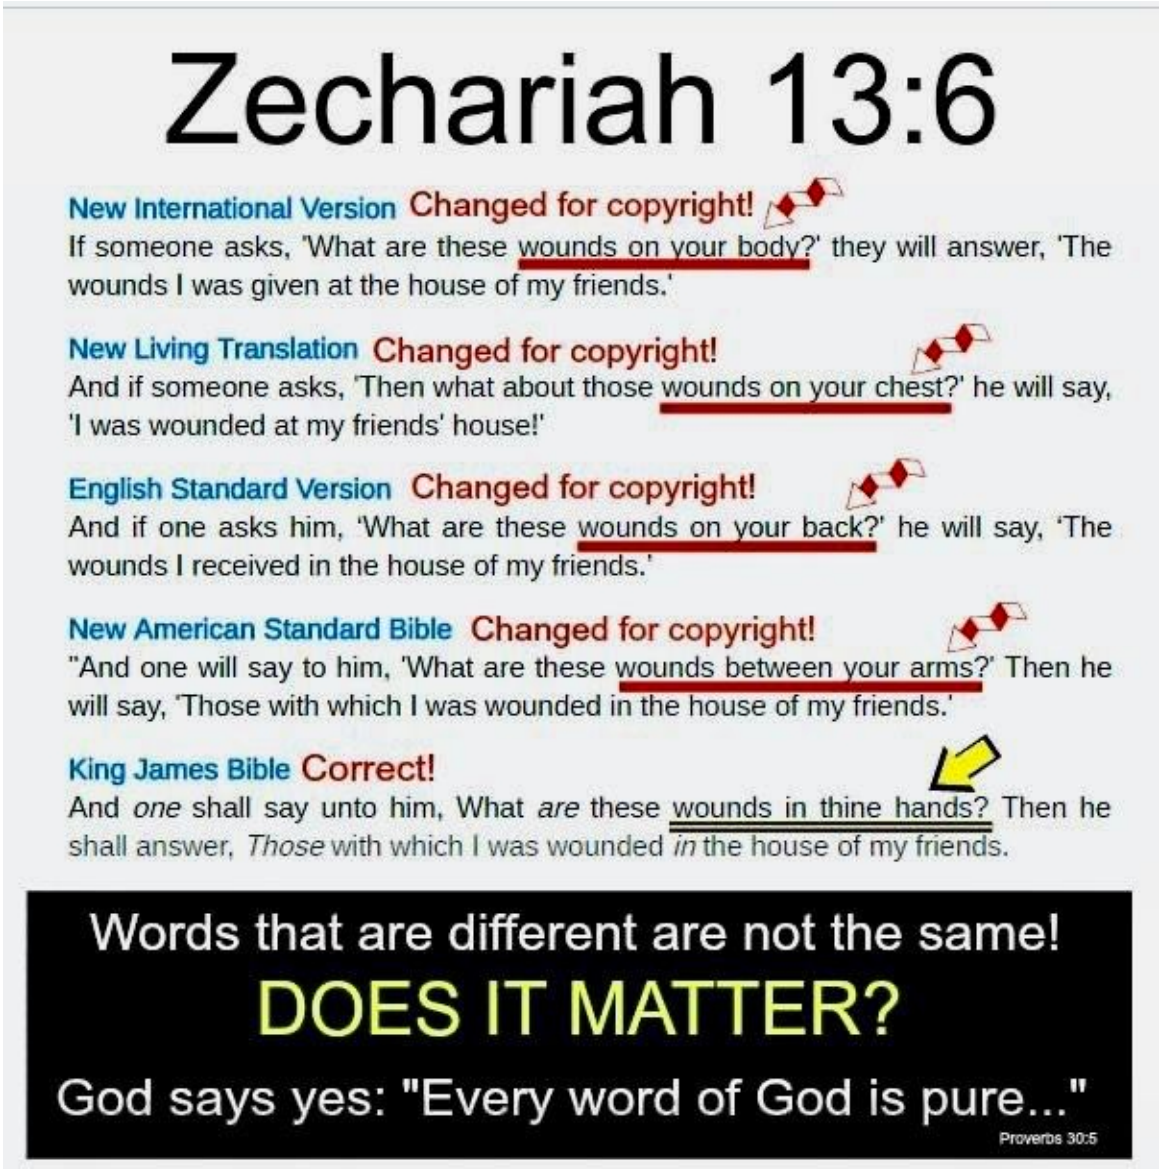
God is strongly against all those Bible agnostics, Bible butchers and Bible critics who are distorting and attacking His Authorized HOLY BOOK.



GOD ALONE is the rightful claimed AUTHOR and COPYRIGHT HOLDER of the inspired KING JAMES BIBLE (in both the complete Old Testament & New Testament, from Genesis through Revelation). Men cannot claim copyright to God’s inspired Word. So, if any modern Bible version publisher boastfully claims their new bible to be copyrighted, you know right away that it is not a HOLY BIBLE!!!

It is sad that most churchgoers today cannot spot a counterfeit bible. Beware of Satan’s false bibles! Please use only a King James Bible.

I like what Pastor Jack Hyles said:

“The King James is not ’a version,’ it is THE BIBLE!” Dr. Hyles refused to sign anyone’s bible if it wasn’t a King James Bible. To that I say, amen and amen! In any particular language there can be only one true Bible! God only Authored ONE BOOK!!! I humbly believe that Book to be the inspired King James Bible.

4.6.11 Beware Of The Southern Baptist Convention (SBC) (2023-06-16 10:24)

2nd Corinthians 6:14-18, “Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness? And what concord hath Christ with Belial? or what part hath he that believeth with an infidel? And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said,

I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you, And will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty."

Here is some brief history of the Southern Baptist Convention (SBC)...

> The Southern Baptist Convention (SBC), alternatively the Great Commission Baptists (GCB), is a Christian denomination based in the United States. It is the world's largest Baptist denomination, and the largest Protestant and second-largest Christian denomination in the United States. Organized in 1845 through separation from the [1]Triennial Convention, the denomination advocated slavery in the United States. During the 19th and most of the 20th century, it played a central role in Southern racial attitudes, supporting racial segregation and the Lost Cause of the Confederacy while opposing interracial marriage. In 1995, the organization apologized for its history. Since the 1940s, it has spread across the U.S. states, having member churches across the country and 41 affiliated state conventions.

Over the past two centuries the SBC has gone through many transformations, but nothing like what we have seen over the past 20 years. For decades the SBC had used the Devil's corrupt New International Version (NIV) of the Bible. In 2004, the SBC decided to publish their own corrupt Bible, which they entitled the: "[3]Holman Christian Standard Bible" (HCSB). At the time the SBC said they refused to join the gender-neutral movement to corrupt the Bible. But it didn't even take 15 years for the SBC to sell out further! In 2018 the SBC published their new [4]Christian Standard Bible (CSB), and this time it is gender-neutral.

J.D. Greear made this shocking speech...

> You'll stop being a judgmental pharisaical dispenser of the law, and you'll suddenly become a Gospel witness. And your life will no longer be characterized by judgmentalism and fundamentalism and it'll be characterized by compassion. You'll start loving your neighbor like somebody made in the image of God and feeling compassion for them in their weakness. you will begin to treat them first and foremost like people who deserve compassion, not scorn or judgment or a political voting block that we need to marginalize.
>
> When you understand that, then what that means is that, you become a person who will, for example: Stand up and be among the fiercest advocates for the preservation of the dignity and the rights of LGBT people, because we recognize that gay and lesbian people are essentially just like us—people made in the image of God like us, and deserving of all the dignity and respect that we desire for us, or our children. There is no them!
> SOURCE: [5]SBC Chairman J.S. Greear; YouTube: "Apostasy Report - The SBC Is Fallen, Fallen!"

Wow! acknowledging that everyone is a sinner and everyone is in need of God's mercy is not the same as becoming a fierce advocate of their deathstyle. You will become he says, "among the fiercest advocates for the preservation and the dignity of the LGBTQ community." What? "Fiercest advocates"? What are you hi? You gotta be kidding me here! This is the President of the Southern Baptist Convention, saying he's getting his advice from Jen Wilkin. False prophetesses Jen Wilkin and Christine Kane are Joyce Meyer loving heretics!!! Jen Wilkin is one of dozens of ungodly rebellious women preachers with henpecked husbands hiding at home. It's an abundance of Jezebels!!!

The Southern Baptist Convention (SBC) vote this week (9,437 votes for; 1,212 against) to uphold the decision to disfellowship Saddleback Church in California, for allowing women pastors, should be recognized and applauded by independent Baptists. Roughly 90 % (if you also consider the other appeals) of the SBC delegates sided with the Holy Bible. When Pastor Rick Warren tried his 99.9999999 % trope, he heard a thunderous "No" in response. As messed up as the SBC is, they still have some goodness left. The Bible forbids women from pastoring churches.

Yet, the SBC is a far cry from being spiritually healthy. I would like to point out that it was Pastor Rick Warren who initially supported Proposition 8 (a law which would ban same-sex marriage in California), but when his Luciferian handlers heard about it they yanked his chain, and [7]Warren apologized profusely to the LGBTQ community. Warren is a puppet on a string, an imposter in the pulpit who masquerades as a man of God. In reality, Rick Warren is one of Satan's ministers of unrighteousness (2nd Corinthians 11:13-15).

In case you didn't know, Rick Warren is also a member of The Council On Foreign Relations (CFR, which is the unofficial headquarters of the New World Order). You cannot trust anyone who is a member of the CFR! Rick Warren also preaches another Gospel, which Michael P. Bowen exposes in his helpful book entitled: "[8]I NEVER KNEW YOU," in chapter 5, page 53.

The following eye-opening YouTube video is be Joshua Chavez. His channel is called: Servus Christi. The following video exposes the corruption which has slowly crept into the Southern Baptist Convention (SBC) over the past 25 years. Please note that although I appreciate Joshua’s hard work and contending for the faith, he is sadly a proponent of the Devil’s lie of Lordship Salvation (which I’ve only found on his website so far, not his YouTube channel, but I wanted to warn you so that you will have a heads up). ...

Apostasy Report - The SBC Is Fallen, Fallen!

Also, the SBC teaches wrong repentance. On their website, in their Statement of Faith, the SBC teaches that to be saved you must turn away from your sinful ways. Many SBC member churches preach hardcore Lordship Salvation. So you need to be very careful when you visit an SBC church, to inquire about their plan of salvation. I wouldn’t attend any church that is wrong in a free grace Gospel. Lordship Salvation is a perversion of God’s grace! Wrong repentance is not the Gospel, it is a works-based plan of damnation. Nowhere in the inspired King James Bible are we taught to forsake our sinning to be saved. Nowhere does the Bible teach to turn away from ones sinful ways to be saved. We are simply told to repent (change our mind) and believe the Gospel. That is, the GOOD NEWS of Christ crucified, buried and risen the third day. Men complicate things! God’s plan of salvation has always been very simple. Men are sinners; Jesus is the Savior!

4.6.13 Are There Demon-Human Hybrid Races On Earth? (2023-06-18 01:10)

Genesis 6:1-4, “And it came to pass, when men began to multiply on the face of the earth, and daughters were born unto them, That the sons of God saw the daughters of men that they were fair; and they took them wives of all which they chose. And the LORD said, My spirit shall not always strive with man, for that he also is flesh: yet his days shall be an hundred and twenty years. There were giants in the earth in those days; and also after that, when the sons of God came in unto the daughters of men, and they bare children to them, the same became mighty men which were of old, men of renown.”

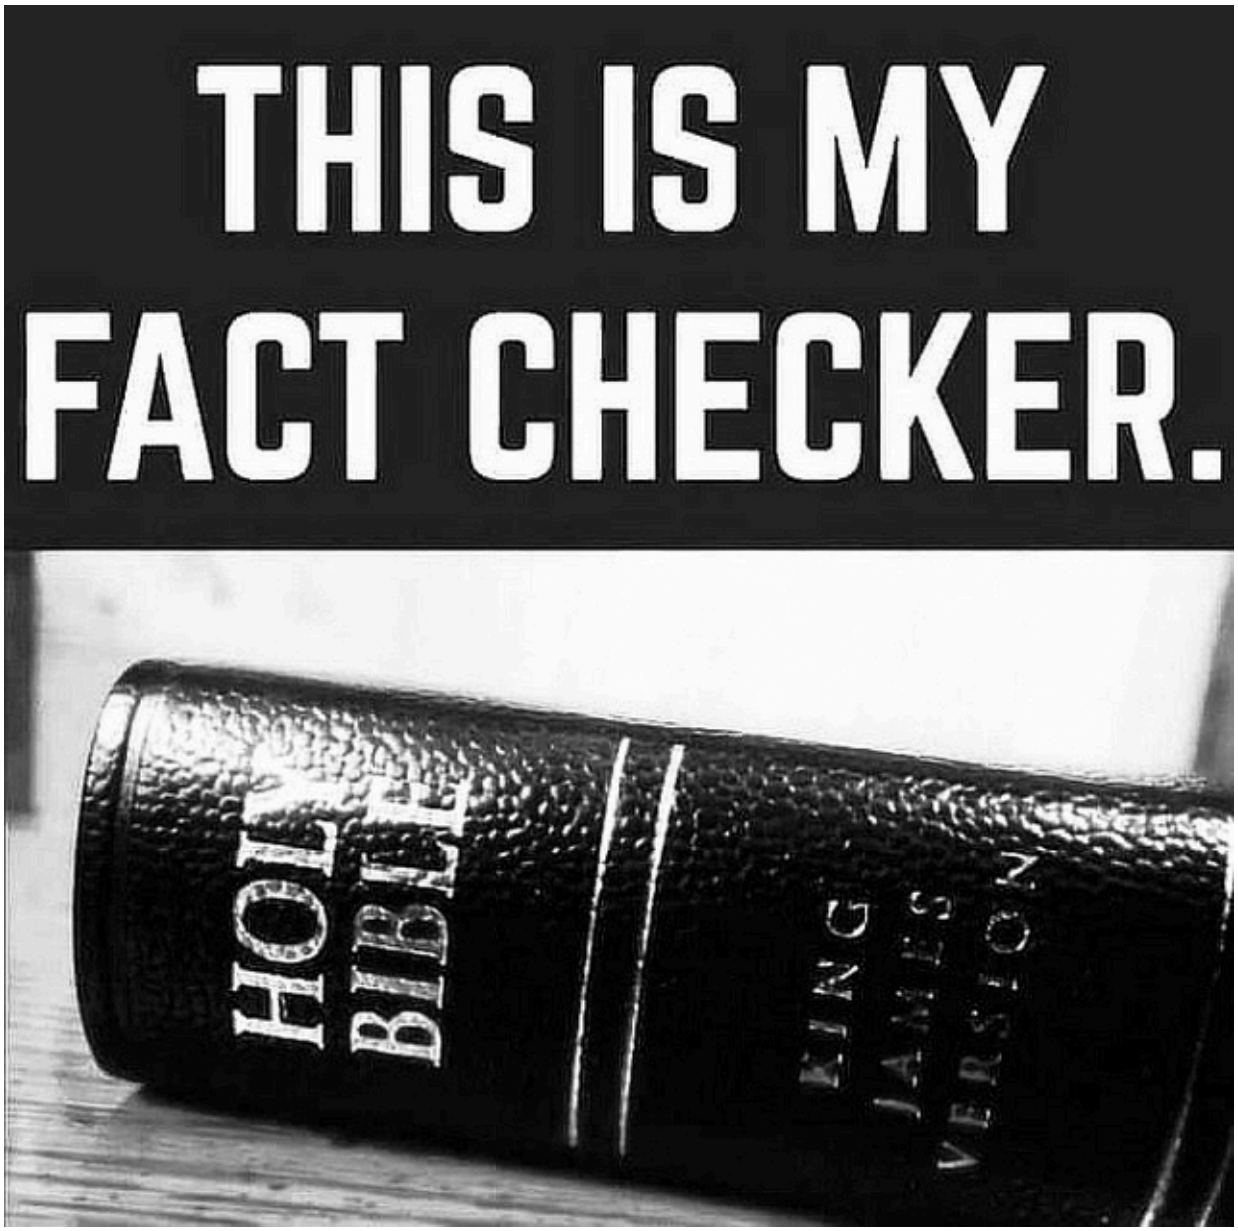
Someone asked me a Bible question today. They wanted to know if there are demon-human hybrid races on earth today? Say what? I do not believe that fallen angels ever had carnal knowledge with earthly women. Jesus plainly taught that the angels are not given in marriage. Angels do not have genitalia and cannot mate. What would be the purpose? God created mankind with genitalia for the primary purpose of procreation (conceiving the gift of children), and secondarily for the gift of pleasure and enjoyment.

Furthermore, the fallen angels were disembodied. I believe this happened prior to the creation of humanity. I firmly believe in an old earth, likely billions of years old. In theology this doctrine is often referred to as: 'The Gap Theory.' I agree with Pastor Max D. Younce that it is not a "theory" but is a biblical fact, so we should call it: 'The Gap Principle.' A study of the Hebrew words in Genesis chapters 1 and 2 plainly shows that a different creative process was at work after God created the universe in Verse 1, up until God made man on the 6th day. I agree with Dr. Younce that God [1]REMODELED the earth during the 6 days of creation.

I humbly believe there was a gap of millions or billions of years between Genesis 1:1 and 1:2, in which the dinosaurs lived and Lucifer ruled on the earth. Dr. Curtis Hutson (1934-1995), former edited of the Sword of the Lord, preached a helpful Bible study series in 1974 called: '[2]DEMONOLGY,' in which he explains the old earth and the origin of Lucifer and the demons, if you'd like to hear it. Dr. Hutson taught this series at the time in response to the Hollywood movie: "THE EXORCIST." I love this Bible study!!!!

I do not believe that there is a mysterious secret bloodline of hybrid humans and fallen angels. Nor do I believe in the ungodly theory set forth in the blockbuster Hollywood movie: "The Da Vinci Code," that Jesus and Mary Magdalene had carnal knowledge together and conceived a secret royal bloodline. The movie wickedly teaches the audience that Jesus is not God, and that His deity was a myth fabricated by the early church fathers to deify Him. The movie advertises that this information is based on the most reliable and accurate historical data.

But then in tiny fineprint (so small that you cannot read it without going online to read the disclaimer), they claim that the movie is mere entertainment and none of it should be accepted as true. What a clever way for the Devil to deceive lost sinners. There are no secret bloodlines of demons or from Jesus Christ.



I have heard quite a few preachers and authors (e.g. Danny Castle, R.A. Torrey William Guy Carr, John MacArthur and others) errantly teach that demons had physical intimacy with women. We know that angels can eat food, because they ate a feast that Lot prepared in Genesis. Angels appear in the Bible resembling humans. The Bible says some of us have entertained angels unawares, when they visited earth. That is an amazing truth. I do not think I have ever met an angel, but the Bible says if we did, it would likely be unawares. Angels came to Abraham and Sarah, and I believe the Lord Himself was among them. [3]Christ made many appearances in the Old Testament.

So what does the Bible means in Genesis 6:1-4 when it says that the son of God married the daughters of men? It simply means that God's children intermarried with the Devil's children. The word " giants

" in the Hebrew simply refers to famous people of renown, not 600 foot giants in the earth. The bizarre idea that disembodied fallen angels somehow had carnal knowledge with earthly women, which produced a generation of freakish human-demon hybrid giants is as ridiculous as it is unbiblical.

4.6.14 Is Hell More Punishment Than Fire? (2023-06-20 00:38)

Is Hell more punishment than fire? Oh yes, much more! The Bible says that those who are burning in Hell are gnashing their teeth, not only because of the excruciating pain caused by the fire, but because they see themselves left out of Heaven. I cannot even imagine how horrifying and painfully regretful it would be, to find yourself burning in Hell forever, with no end to your misery even after a trillion years, knowing that you made this choice alone.

Oh, the horror! Oh, the sadness and deep regret. The Bible warns that the pain of regret will be so terribly painful that people will WEEP AND GNASH THEIR TEETH.

4.6.15 What's The Difference Between A Spiritual Christian And A Carnal Christian? (2023-06-22 09:35)

Romans 8:1-6, There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death. For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh: That the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. For they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit the things of the Spirit. For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace."

QUESTION: What is the difference between a spiritual Christian and a carnal Christian?

One does service unto God and one doesn't? What if a Christian is too earthy or fleshy, will they face chastening and lose rewards in heaven

ANSWER:

As way of introduction, one of my favorite sermons by Dr. Jack Hyles is titled: "[1]THE GOOD MAN VERSUS THE SPIRITUAL MAN." This sermon is not part of this blog per se, but it is definitely related and contains a tremendous truth that I hope everyone will learn and embrace.

What is the difference between a spiritual Christian and a carnal Christian? Simply put, a spiritual Christian sets their mind on spiritual (righteous, heavenly, eternal) things; whereas a carnal Christian sets their mind upon carnal (fleshly, sinful, temporary, worldly) things.

> [illegible] 8:5-6, "[illegible] [illegible] [illegible], [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible], [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]. [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible], [illegible] [illegible]."

I know that I harp on Pensacola Christian College (PCC) a lot, but it is for a good reason, because they are carnally minded. I sincerely tried to make peace with them, but PCC and their carnal Pastor Jeff Redlin refused. That is because they are focusing on temporal things to make money, and not focusing on eternal things. For if they did they would appreciate my website ministry instead of criticizing my work. They falsely accused me of "finding weaknesses in preachers," when in reality I am faithfully contending for the faith, exposing the wickedness in corrupt preachers. PCC thinks I am wrong to preach against the Bob Jones University camp for preaching the Devil's damnable Lordship Salvation, and for calling them out in their shame for promoting the Devil's corrupt Westcott and Hort based Bible revisions. PCC is guilty the Bible says, partaker of BJU's evil deeds, because PCC wickedly bids BJU Godspeed (2nd John 1:11). PCC are carnally minded. And as such they are also in denial, since they know it is wrong to bid Godspeed to evil.

This was the sin of the Laodicean church, they were carnally minded. They were in denial. We see this clearly evidenced because even though the Bible says they thought they were prospering, rich and increased with goods (money); in realty the Lord called them five negative things: spiritually wretched, naked, poor, miserable and blind.

> [illegible] 3:17-18, "I [illegible] [illegible] [illegible], [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]: I [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]. [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible], [illegible] [illegible] [illegible], I [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]. [illegible] [illegible] [illegible], I [illegible], [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible], [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]; [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible], [illegible] [illegible], [illegible] [illegible], [illegible] [illegible]:"

The question asked was: "One does service unto God and one doesn't? What if a Christian is too earthy or fleshy, will they face chastening and lose rewards in heaven?" That's a great question! Yes, some faithful saints serve God (standing on the promises); while other idle saints do nothing (sitting on the premises). There are no promises in the inspired Holy Bible which say that God will reward lazy saints who do nothing for Christ. But the Word of God contains many promises from the Lord that He will reward all labor done for Him (Matthew 10:42; Mark 9:41; 1st Corinthians 3:7-9; Revelation 22:12).

> [illegible] 22:1, "[illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]; [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] banned in writing from attending PCC's Campus Church. Only carnally minded believers refuse to make peace, reconcile with hurting people, and simply allow them to return to church.

PCC are not right with God, and are sadly blinded by their worldly success so they don't care. That is shallow and contemptible, not honoring to the Lord Jesus Christ. I f a child of God is too earthly or fleshly to obey God to serve Him and love the brethren, then they will certainly lose rewards and be chastened by God for their disobedience. The Bible commands us as believers to love one another, not ban people from attending church. The Bible commands us as saints to "earnestly contend for the faith" (Jude 1:3), and to "rebuke them sharply" who preach another gospel (Titus 1:9-14), and to "refute" (expose) every work of darkness" (Ephesians 5:11).

Sadly, at PCC they merely want to insincerely play church and run an education business in the name of Jesus, while not walking in the Holy Spirit. If they did walk in the Spirit, they would be begging me to come back to Campus Church, since they know I am hurting and I have humbly apologized and asked to return. They simply couldn't care less, all the while pretending to serve God and kidding themselves that they are spiritually minded. They are not; PCC is carnally minded, evidenced by their immoral spiritually adulterous affair with the Bob Jones camp who preach the Devil's Lordship Salvation, and promote the Devil's corruptible seed. PCC is shameful and carnal. I used PCC as a perfect example of carnally minded saints today.

PCC leaders have already received the only rewards they will ever have, which is their 6-digit earthly paychecks. They have already been compensated. In sharp contrast, I have never received a single penny for my 21 years of hard work online, for my website ministry. Whereas PCC leaders condemn my website ministry, God approves of it and condemns their ministry at PCC, since they sinfully refuse to contend for the faith as I am faithfully doing. I make no apologies for exposing the rotten Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, and their wicked pastors' Marty Herron and Gary Walton, who have sided with Satan's Lordship Salvation, misunderstood repentance and Devil's Bible perversions. I have done no wrong to expose evil, but PCC has done wrong to get into bed with them.

Sadly, we've got Baptist churches all over Pensacola today who shamefully bid Godspeed to PCC, send their youth to play sports at PCC, send their youth to PCC to go to school, and hobnob with PCC; but these terrible local churches DO NOT contend for the faith, just like PCC doesn't. They are PCC clones! PCC is a bad influence in America today!!! In the church I have been attending, not a single word has ever come from the pulpit against the Devil's bibles, nor the Devil's Lordship Salvation, nor against sin, et cetera. It's all positive, positive, positive, just like Balaam's corrupt preaching! It's not what a preacher says that makes him a false teacher, it's mostly what HE DOESN'T SAY!

We've got a bunch of girlyboy sissies in the pulpit today, instead of men of God who spare not the flock with the truth. All these pantywaist pastors today are afraid to lose members if they offend someone by being, God forbid, controversial. When I attended the Lighthouse Baptist Church on Guam, I was zealous to warn people about the Devil's fake bibles. Pastor Sean Quinlan (a spiritually queer PCC intern) got mad at me. He snapped one night outside the church, calling me "obsessed over the Bible issue." You had better believe that I am OBSESSED OVERT THE BIBLE ISSUE!!!

Anyway, Quinlan 100 % has the sickening cowardly PCC mindset. Pastor Quinlan scolded me, shamefully saying: "I'm trying to build something here, and I don't want any controversies in my church that might cause a split." Since when is warning people about the Devil's corrupt Bible revisions a "controversy" to Baptists? What a shameful little man Sean Quinlan is, and Jeff Redlin too, and the whole rotten lot of corrupt fruit at PCC and their incompetent alumni. Some people mistakenly think that I just don't like PCC, but the issue is much bigger than my personal wounded feelings I assure you, if anybody has been paying attention. PCC are carnally minded. Their alumni are carnally minded, following the fleshly lead at cult headquarters at PCC.

Sean Quinlan was essentially telling me (to his utter shame) that increasing church attendance (and tithe donations) is far more important to him than preaching THE TRUTH to people. You see, PCC is so desperate to build churches at any expense, that right doctrine doesn't matter to them. PCC is eerily silent about the Devil's bibles. PCC doesn't want to suffer persecution for the cause of Christ. PCC doesn't want to be put outside the gate with Jesus. They are wicked children, no better than the Laodiceans.

Anyway, pardon my long answer, rant and preaching a bit. I cannot think of a group any more carnal today than PCC. The BJU camp are not even saved, because Lordship Salvation is a perversion of God's free gift of grace. You don't earn grace, you simply receive it by faith in Jesus Christ. BJU openly bid Godspeed to Dr. John MacArthur, a well known 5-point Calvinist and damnable heretic. PCC has no shame, but they will at the Judgment Seat of Christ. I personally believe that there are MANY tares in the PCC camp, because of their hobnobbing with the unsaved BJU cult, which confuses the young people abut the doctrine of salvation. If BJU are saved, then so also are Seventh-Day Adventists (because they also adhere to Lordship Salvation).

In fact, [2]John MacArthur is praised at the Mormon Brigham Young (Bring 'em young!) University cult.

Mormons agree with Lordship Salvation. That should tell us all something, that Lordship Salvation is of the Devil.

In closing, spiritually minded Christians care about spiritual matters. I don't claim to be a good Christian, but God is still working on me. But I am spiritually minded most of the time, which is why I contend for the faith. By God's grace, I started my website ministry back in 2002 because I was spiritually minded. I decided before I even began that I would never take a penny for my labors for Christ. By God's grace I am still working diligently with my shoulder to the plow, never looking back. I care because God cares.

David asked his shameful brothers: "Is there not a cause?" (1st Samuel 17:29). Yes, David, there is a cause still today in 2023. Lordship Salvation is a giant that must be slayed! The Devil's Bible revisions are a giant that must be slayed! PCC are like David's cowardly brothers who were full of excuses why they couldn't fight Goliath. They had better things to do. For many years I felt betrayed by God for all the hardships, losses and miseries in my personal life; but then over time I realized that Christ's strength is made perfect through my weaknesses. I learned that (like Moses) I would never expose the Devil that I was sleeping with, so God had to deliver me from BJU, PCC and the ungodly Harvest Baptist Church on Guam (a cesspool of incompetent BJU graduates).

Consequently, since 2014 I have faithfully preached against these wicked devils in the pulpit who masquerade as men of God, deceiving the people for filthy lucre's sake to feed their own bellies. False prophets always get paid!!! I dare anyone to show me a false prophet who doesn't ask for donations or get paid something. I ask for nothing except your earnest prayers. Please just remember to mention my name to God when you pray, and ask Him to bless my ministry labors and help me cope with the chronic constant pain, tingling and burning in my neck and body.

I once heard a pastor say: "It's hard to be spiritual when you are in pain." I thought long upon his statement. That pastor was 80 years old and suffering in pain himself. I think it is more true that it is hard to be a good Christian when you are in pain. The reason why is because being in pain makes us frustrated, irritable and lacking in patience at times. That is certainly true of myself. But I think being spiritual and being a good Christian are not the same thing. I might be irritable and not want to be around people often (which is why I miss church 50 % of the times at least), but that doesn't mean that my mind is not focused on the things of God.

When I do stay home from church because I don't want to be around people due to my bodily afflictions, I almost always work on my ministry instead and listen to some preaching from the internet. I know it is not the same as going to church, which nothing can substitute for; however, my humble point is simply that I am still in a spiritual frame of mind, even though I stayed home from church. I may not be a "good Christian" who always makes it to church, but I am spiritually minded most of the time, thinking about how I can be a blessing for Christ to help others.

When a thief on May 5th, 2023 broke into my car and stole my church Bible with all my irreplaceable notes, and stole $200 of radios and audio cables, an expensive $50 flashlight and other stuff, I wasn't feeling very spiritual. In fact, I wanted to Necklace him (them) like they do in South Africa. "Necklacing" is when an angry mob take a rubber tire and douse it was gasoline and then hang it around someone's neck and light it on fire, watching the person burn to death in excruciating pain and horror. You can read about this increasingly common but horrifying practice online. Just search for "necklacing." I'd like to necklace the thief!

Sadly, our government has really dropped the ball regarding punishments fitting the crime. The young man who just murdered 5 young women in Minnesota (by driving drunk over 100 mph), also murdered an innocent pedestrian in 2018 in California. He was sentenced to 8 years in prison in 2020, but was released after just 2 1/2 years. Now he murdered 5 more innocent people. Since he was drunk he'll likely get another slap on the wrist. I wish alcohol would be banned!!!

I can't even get a proper amount of prescription Oxycontin to treat my neck pain, because the paranoid U.S. government is cracking down on prescription drugs, over the 70,000 deaths each year (mostly from illegal Fentanyl overdoses). Yet, and I just checked, there are 140,000 alcohol related deaths each year in the U.S. and our hypocritical U.S. government does NOTHING to stop it. What ungodly hypocrites!!!

So we see that a spiritual Christian cares about spiritual (heavenly, eternal, soulwinning) things; whereas a carnal Christian cares about carnal (fleshly, temporal, earthly) things.

It is definitely possible for a professed Christian to attend church regularly, sing in a choir, carry a Holy Bible, publicly testify of God's goodness and outwardly live the Christian life, yet be carnally minded.

It is equally possible for a professed Christian to stay home from church (for valid reasons), not be that good of a Christian (they may smoke, drink booze, cuss and listen to worldly music), yet still be spiritually minded. Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) used to say: "Some of the worst Christians do the most for God." Dr. Hyles was so right. I am living proof of that!

In the Bible we see how messed up the apostles were. Peter had a hot temper, flying off the handle, quick to draw the sword and run his mouth. All of the apostles fell asleep in the Garden of Gethsemane, when Jesus asked them to pray, knowing that He was about to be crucified by the Romans. All of the apostles forsook Jesus in His darkest hour of need. Remember, it was Judas (one of Christ's own apostles) and the wicked religious Pharisees who conspired against Christ to have Him killed. Religion is the worst thing that ever happened to this world.

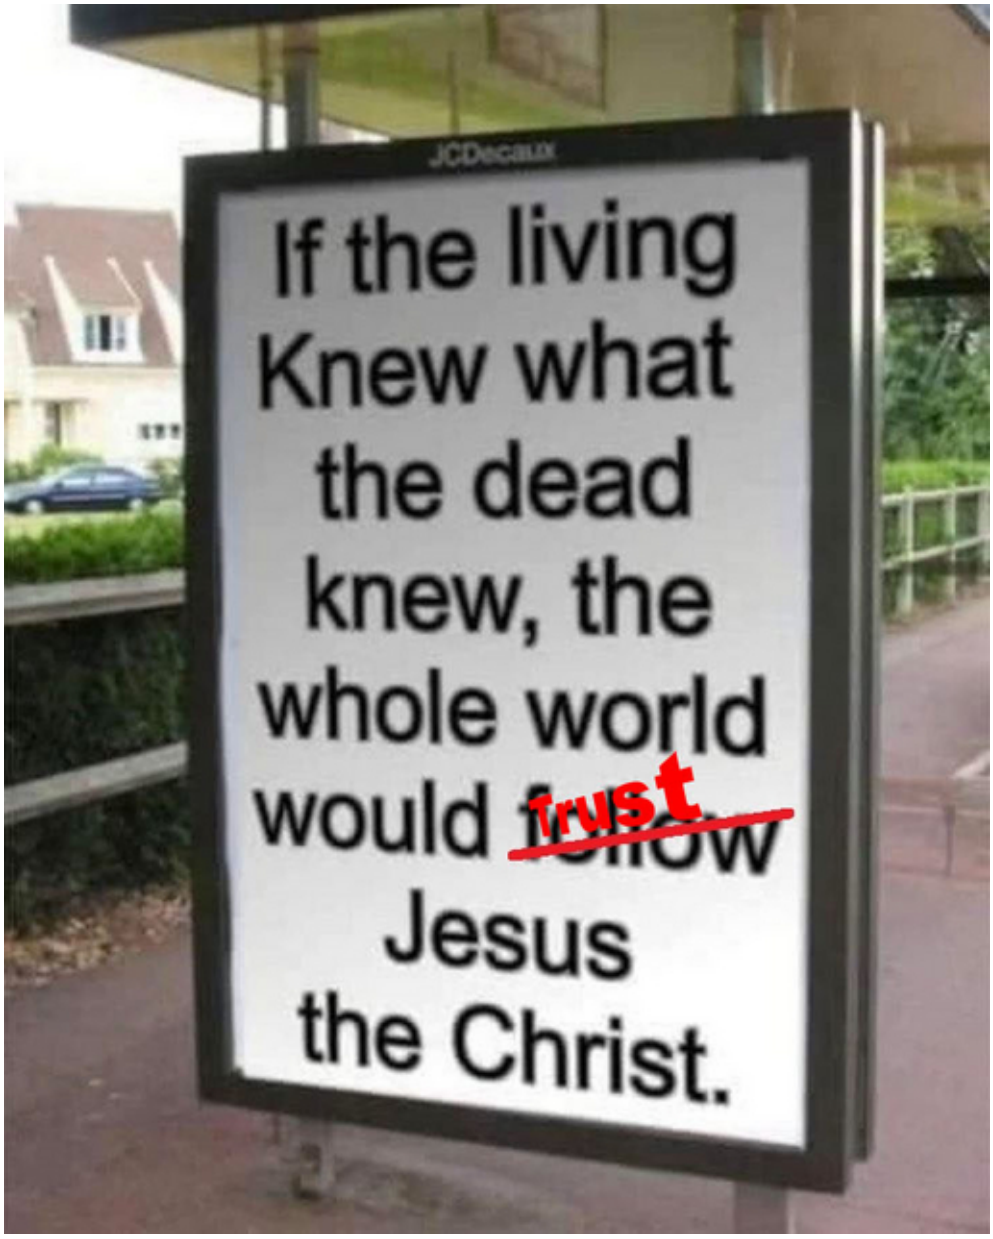
Let me make some helpful observations:

1. A spiritually minded Christian cares; a carnal Christian doesn't care.
2. A spiritually minded Christian forgives others; a carnal Christian doesn't.
3. A spiritually minded Christian prays; a carnal Christian doesn't.
4. A spiritually minded Christian lives in the Holy Bible; a carnal Christian doesn't.
5. A spiritually minded Christian loves; a carnal Christian doesn't care.
6. A spiritually minded Christian contends for the faith; a carnal Christian doesn't care.
7. A spiritually minded Christian is objective (he or she questions everything, testing it with the Bible, 1st John 4:1; a carnal Christian doesn't care.
8. A spiritually minded Christian takes a stand against sin, wrong, evil, corruption and false doctrine; a carnal Christian doesn't care and merely goes along to get along.
9. A spiritually minded Christian says: "We have sinned"; a carnal Christian says: "He has sinned" or "She has sinned."
10. A spiritually minded Christian pays attention; a carnal Christian seeks attention.
11. A spiritually minded Christian pays their debts; a carnal Christian doesn't.
12. A spiritually minded Christian works hard; a carnal Christian is lazy.
13. A spiritually minded Christian is humble; a carnal Christian is haughty and proud.
14. A spiritually minded Christian admits when they are wrong; a carnal Christian blames others.
15. A spiritually minded Christian uses only a King James Bible; a carnal Christian uses the Devil's corrupted modern versions.
16. A spiritually minded Christian is a fundamentalist; a carnal Christian is neo-evangelical.
17. A spiritually minded Christian pays attention to little things; a carnal Christian doesn't.
18. A spiritually minded Christian is sensitive but caring and understanding, willing to let matters go; a carnal Christian is cold-hearted, lacks understanding and holds grudges.
19. A spiritually minded Christian takes the time to listen to people; a carnal Christian won't.
20. A spiritually minded Christian is generous; a carnal Christian is stingy.
21. A spiritually minded Christian may not appear to be a good Christian, but they are real; a carnal Christian may appear to be a good Christian, but are unreal.
22. A spiritually minded Christian exposes falsehoods and evil, avoiding them; a carnal Christian goes along with falsehoods and evil, bidding Godspeed to false prophets.

23. A spiritually minded Christian loves God and their neighbour (all humanity); a carnal Christian loves only them self, their family and friends.

24. A spiritually minded Christian wants everybody in church; a carnal Christian only wants certain people in church that they accept.



25. A spiritually minded Christian contends with the wicked; a carnal Christian praises them.

26. A spiritually minded Christian seeks reconciliation with difficult people; a carnal Christian looks for excuses to shun difficult people.

27. A spiritually minded Christian walks with God; a carnal Christian knows God.

Pensacola Christian College (PCC) is guilty of 90 % of the things I just mentioned. They walk around with full heads but empty hearts.

THANK YOU dear reader for your interest in my ministry blog. To God alone be ALL the credit, praise and glory. Our great God is the only true and living God, and His only begotten Son's name is Jesus; and Jesus is God! What a wonderful God and Savior! Jesus is precious!!!

Following Christ never saved anybody. Judas Iscariot followed Jesus. What saith the Scripture? John 3:3, "

Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.

" Remember, Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born again. In Matthew 7:21-23 a group of religious people followed Jesus their entire lives. They cried out to Jesus:

"Lord, Lord," but He knew them not as His sheep, and they were cast into Hell. Following Christ is discipleship, not sonship.

To enter into the Kingdom of God you must be born again, which comes by TRUSTING Jesus as your personal Savior. Simply receive Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, believing that He died, was buried and bodily resurrected three days later. You just need to BELIEVE that Jesus did it all for you! John 6:40,

“And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.

4.6.16 The Dangerous Influence Of Pensacola Christian College (2023-06-23 20:47)

Revelation 3:1-2, “

And unto the angel of the church in Sardis write; These things saith he that hath the seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars; I know thy works, that thou hast a name that thou livest, and art dead.

Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God.

I cannot think of a better Scripture passage which describes Pensacola Christian College (PCC) than our text.

Revelation 3:1b, “

I know thy works, that thou hast a name that thou livest, and art dead

” Yes,

Pensacola Christian College (PCC) has a name that they live off, but they are spiritually dead today. PCC exerts tremendous influence over local, regional, national and global churches.

The great danger is in PCC’s unwillingness to contend for the faith. Tragically, the PCC camp refuse to speak out against the Lordship Salvation heresy being preached at Bob Jones University (BJU). PCC and their alumni have the ungodly and irresponsible attitude that it is none of our business what they do in the BJU camp. But it is our business what everybody preaches, if it is a counterfeit gospel. What saith the Scripture?

> Titus 1:9-14, “Holding fast the faithful word as he hath been taught, that he may be able by sound doctrine both to exhort and to convince the gainsayers. For there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, specially they of the circumcision: Whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre’s sake. One of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The Cretians are alway liars, evil beasts, slow bellies. This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith; Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men, that turn from the truth.”

When I lived on the island of Guam for 17 years, I attended various Baptist churches. In 2018 I attended the Lighthouse Baptist Church. The pastor at the time was Sean Quinlan, an intern from Pensacola Christian College (PCC). I attended the church for about a year. Pastor Quinlan had been eavesdropping on my personal conversation for several months. He heard me warning fellow believers what's wrong with the Devil's modern Bible revisions.

Jesus said that a man's mouth speaks of the abundance of the heart. Luke 6:45, "

A good man out of the good treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is good; and an evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is evil: for of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaketh.

" I love the Word of God.

Psalms 119:104, "Through thy precepts I get understanding: therefore I hate every false way." This Scripture passage is very clear. If you abide in the Scriptures you will hate every false way! So why doesn't the PCC camp expose doctrinal error?

I have nothing personal against Sean Quinlan, but he (and by extension PCC) is the epitome of why America is going to Hell today!!! One evening after church Pastor Quinlan got angry at me outside the front of the church. I was talking with Brother Bill, a friend of mine at church. I was warning him about the Devil's bibles and said: "Bob Jones University promotes corruptible seed." That statement alone angered Sean Quinlan, because I soon learned that the PCC camp are in bed committing spiritual adultery with the Bob Jones University (BJU) camp.

As we argued because he picked a verbal fight with me in front of his church members, I kindly but firmly told Pastor Quinlan that the Bob Jones camp are pulling on the same rope as the Devil. The name of the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam came up. I told Quinlan: "Harvest preaches Calvinism, uses the Devil's bibles and is wrong on the meaning of Bible repentance." Pastor Quinlan defended the ungodly Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, actually calling them: "Our sister church." I was horrified and felt sickened when he said that.

I asked him why he would support unsaved Calvinists who preach the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation. He shamefully replied: "It is none of our business what they do at Harvest." I could write an entire book on just that one wicked statement he made! What Sean Quinlan really meant is that he and headquarters at PCC couldn't care less about false doctrine, all they care about is making money. They would deny that accusation of course at PCC, but it doesn't change the fact that it is THE TRUTH.

I know that God is disgusted with the PCC camp, because in God's sight RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS. We're not merely talking about the timing of the Rapture or the age of the earth, but God's simple plan of salvation for mankind. I heard the senior pastor of Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, Marty Herron, say to hundreds of people in a Sunday morning church service: "It is not enough to admit you are a sinner to get to Heaven, you must forsake a lifestyle of sinning." I was horrified and went home and literally cried. I had to decide whether to go back or leave Harvest. At the time I had nowhere to go, so I decided to be a true friend and help them to see at Harvest. I spent hundreds of dollars with my own money for hardcopies of books, written by fundamentalist Baptist pastors, and gave the following books to the pastors at Harvest:

1. [1]I Never Knew You (free .pdf book by Michael P. Bowen)
2. [2]Somebody Has Got To Milk The Cows (this is the MP3 version by Pastor Jack Hyles)
3. [3]NIV: The Antichrist's Bible (by Pastor Al Lacy)
4. [4]Martin Luther: Master Of Deceit (by Pastor Max D. Younce)

As a consequence for sharing those books with them, I was called into the church office and reprimanded by the most senior pastors, horribly accused of "

causing confusion and divisiveness in the church.

" I was saddened that they counted me their enemy, when all I had done was share THE TRUTH with them. Galatians 4:16, "Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?" Yes, Paul, you and I have been wrongly counted as the enemy because we TOLD THE TRUTH in the churches. Truth is indeed stranger than fiction. That night I left Harvest Baptist Church with tears in my eyes. Those wicked incompetent pastors sided with doctrinal error, over a true friend (me) who had befriended them with THE TRUTH.

To no surprise, Marty Herron (Harvest's senior pastor) wickedly distributed doctrinal materials by Dr. John MacArthur to church members, poisoning their minds with Calvinism. When they were scolding me in the office, with Pastor Herron listening in, I asked Joe Hensen (one of the assistant pastors) why they were accusing me of causing confusion, when their church uses multiple different Bible versions. Hensen shamefully acknowledged to me that on any given Sunday their church has DOZENS of different Bible versions circulating in the pews. That is so shameful, let alone for him to admit it, and not have any problem with such chaos in the church.

Dear reader, I am going somewhere with all this as introduction. Our local churches are in big trouble today! The Bible colleges are the biggest existential threat to local New Testament churches. Pastor Sean Quinlan is not a bad man. He is a good man as far as good men go, but he is not a good pastor or preacher. Pastor Quinlan doesn't care about the details, he is only concerned about impressing cult headquarters back at PCC.

Pastor Quinlan said to me that he was trying to grow his church and didn't want me bringing any "controversies" into his church. Although that may sound like a reasonable statement, what he really meant is that the PCC camp doesn't want to contend for the faith. The whole PCC camp has this poor attitude and bad spirit toward exposing false teachers, false doctrine and false gospels. They refuse to speak a word against the wicked Bob Jones cult and their damnable Lordship Salvation heresy. If you think this is a trifle matter, then you are woefully deceived friend. But don't take my word for it, [5]look for yourself what is being taught at BJU today to their 5,000 students. Calvinism is a perversion of God's grace!!!

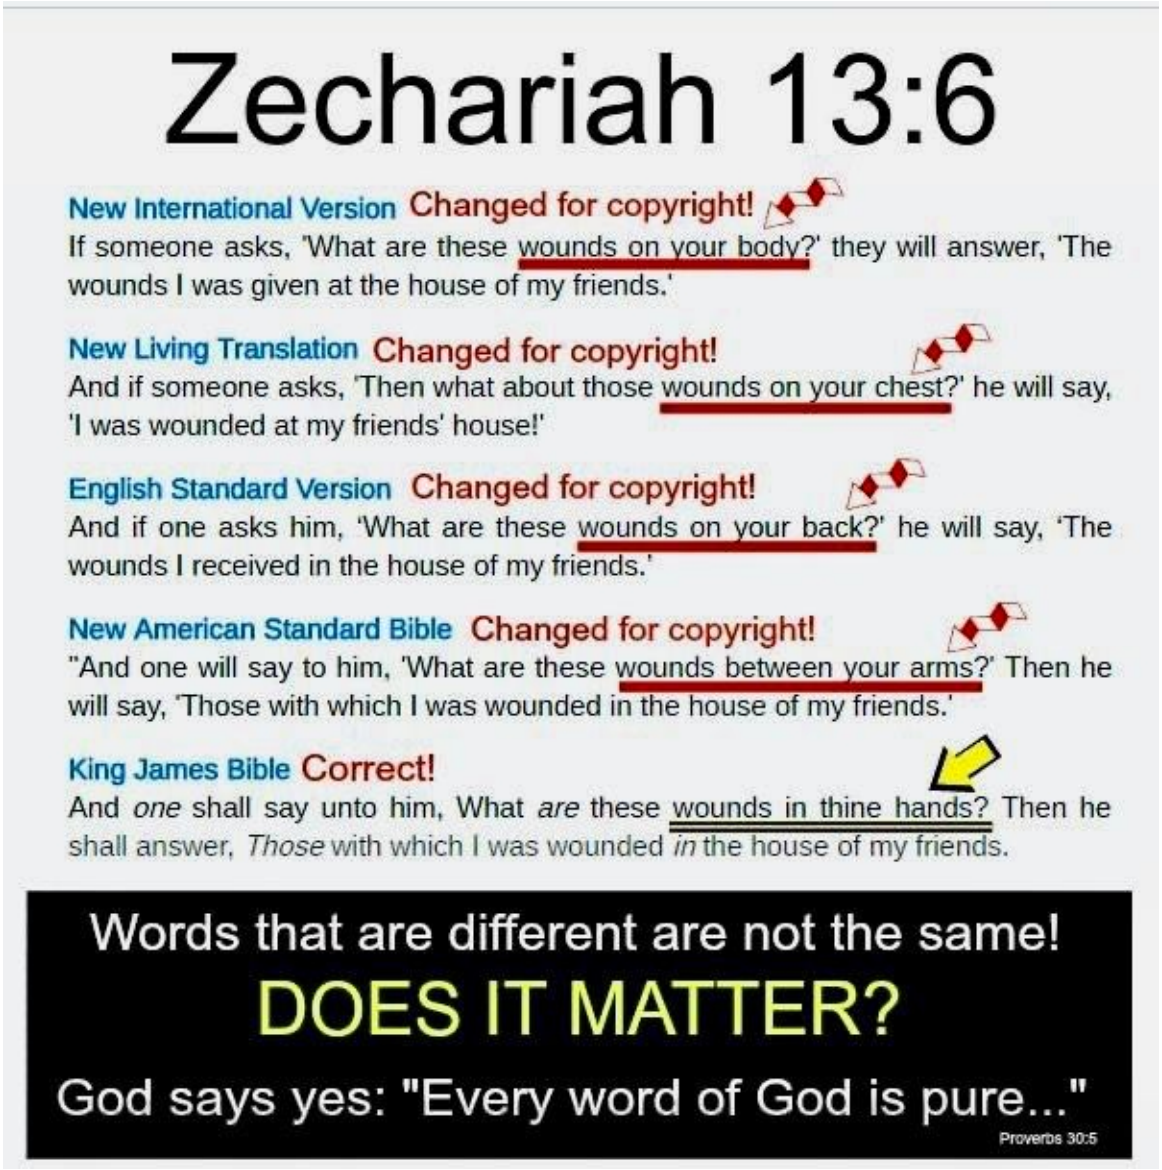
I am a fighter! As a born-again child of God and a Bible preacher I am also a soldier. 2nd Timothy 2:3-4, "

Thou therefore endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ. No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier." They are not soldiers at PCC, they are clowns! Clowns entertain people. That's all that's going on at PCC, they sing a bunch of religious songs, fall all over each other with self-praise and self-glorification, and exert a ton of rules upon their unfortunate students. PCC is an authoritarian cult! I'm all for rules, but not rules without love. There is no love for individual people at PCC, only cult rules and authority.

PCC is a dangerous influence upon young people, because they are training the next generation to esteem making money as being more important than right doctrine. PCC by example is telling the world that Christian unity is more important than biblical separation from apostates and unbelievers. What saith the Scripture? 2nd John 1:11, " For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds. " PCC has much blood on their hands for wickedly bidding Godspeed to BJU.

Sadly, Clarence Sexton of Crown College and Temple Baptist Church in Tennessee also wickedly bids Godspeed to BJU. Folks, is Lordship Salvation okay? Is John MacArthur going to Heaven? If he is, then we have a big problem, because in a moment I will show you John MacArthur's rotten plan of salvation, which does not agree with the inspired Holy Bible.

Dr. MacArthur's position on Lordship Salvation has been made very clear in his published book, THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO JESUS. He has also made statements in some of his other published writings and tapes that relate to this subject, some of which are quoted below:

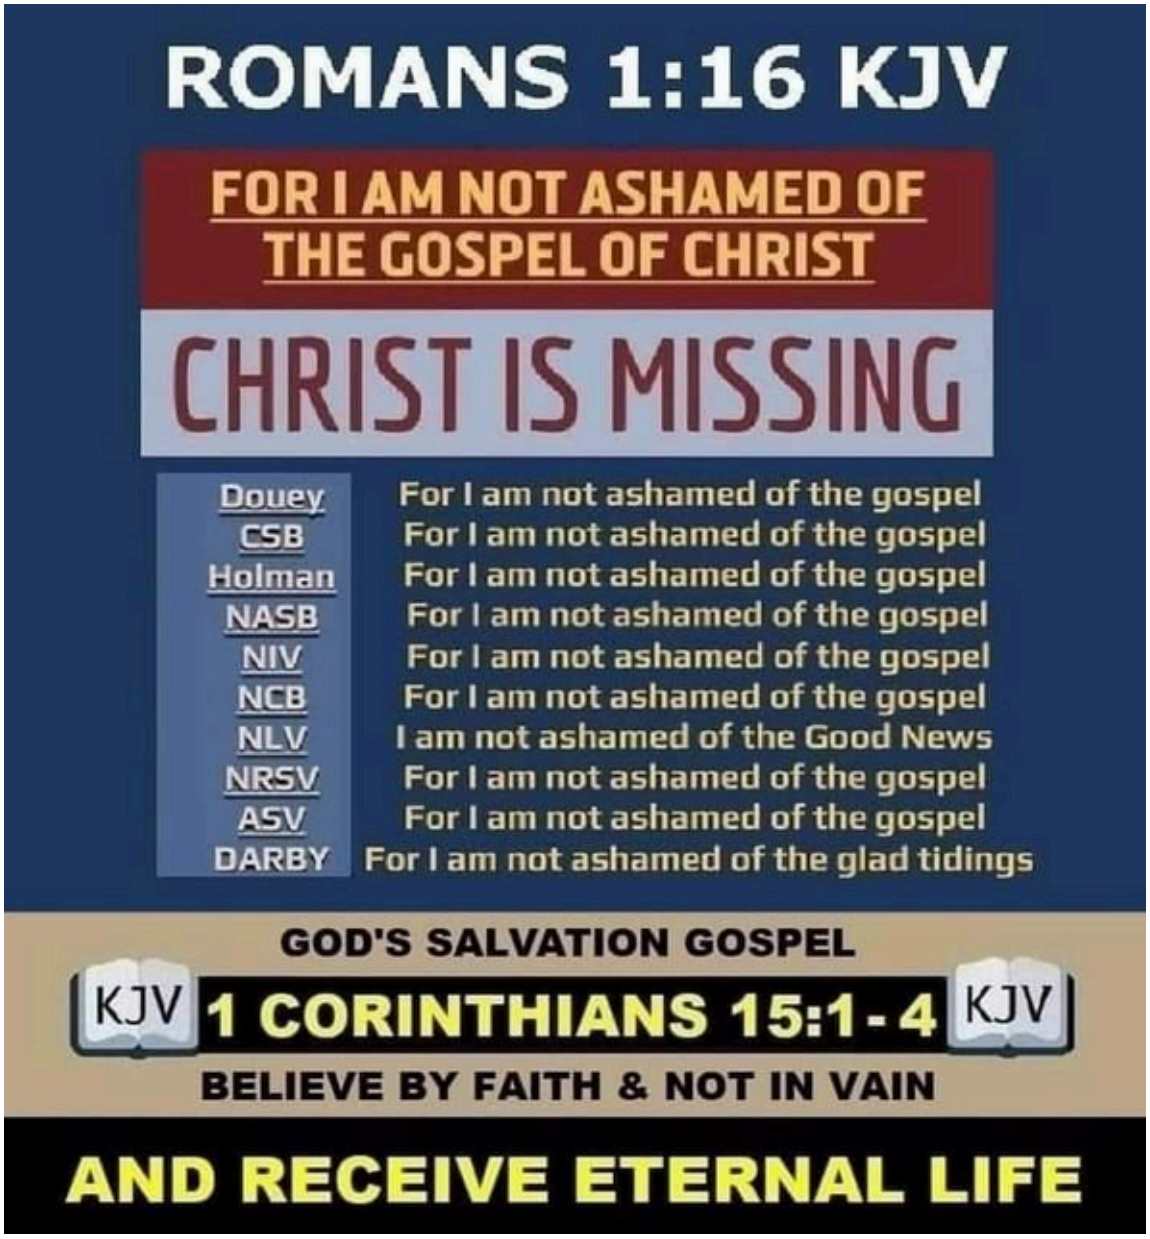


> "The Greek word translated 'belief' is not referring merely to intellectual attainment or mental acquiescence but a wholehearted acceptance of everything that is implied in the claims of Christ. You need to believe that Jesus is God and that He died for your sins, committing your whole life to Him in sacrifice and serving Him as Lord." (Assurance of Victory—1 John 5, Moody Press, p.12)
>
> "Submission to the will of God, to Christ's lordship, and to the guiding of the Spirit is an essential, not an optional, part of saving faith." (EPHESIANS, p. 249)
>
> "Saving faith is a placing of oneself totally in submission to the Lord Jesus Christ." (Romans 1-8, p. 205)

Bob Jones University (BJU) supports John MacArthur's ministry, because MacArthur is one of their alumni. The Bible exhorts all preachers to "REBUKE THEM SHARPLY" who preach a counterfeit gospel (Titus 1:9-14). Instead of rebuking them sharply, Clarence Sexton and Jeff Redlin (senior pastor at PCC's Campus Church) are sinfully bidding Godspeed to the BJU camp. Folks, RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!! I have been banned in writing from attending the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. I have been banned in writing from attending Campus Church at PCC.

These are ungodly pastors who go along with doctrinal error instead of exposing it. This is wickedness, not righteousness!!! What saith the Scripture? Proverbs 12:17, "He that speaketh truth sheweth forth righteousness: but a false witness deceit." I have spoken THE TRUTH, they have protected falsehoods and liars. Whom do you think God is pleased with, me for exposing doctrinal error, or those 6-digit salaried overpaid pastors who support false prophets and their damnable doctrines of devils? You already know the clear answer dear reader.

Sean Quinlan should have commended me for having a zeal to expose the Devil's corrupt Bible versions, but instead he shamefully accused me of being "obsessed over the Bible issue." You better believe Buster that I am OBSESSED over the Bible issue!!! And shame on Sean Quinlan and anyone else who makes light of God's Word being corrupted. Where is PCC's dog in the fight? They don't have one! PCC is a grave danger to young people and churches today because they tolerate doctrines of devils, they fellowship with unsaved Calvinists in the Bob Jones University camp, and they ban truth-tellers like me from attending Campus Church. That is all wickedness, not the love and righteousness of God.



[6]BJU uses, sells and promotes [7]the Devil's counterfeit Bible versions. The following comparison chart is one of hundreds I could show you, exposing the modern Bible PERversions...

Holy Bible Sinfully Changed For Mere Copyright Purposes

All Modern Bible Versions Are Corrupt!

Subtle word changes can and often do have a tremendous impact on the intended meaning. God's inspired Word is not open to man's opinion and debate. Why does Pastor Clarence Sexton tolerate this mess?

And for that matter, since 2008 the First Baptist Church of Hammond, Indiana, and their Hyles-Anderson College (HAC) no longer believe or teach that the King James Bible is inspired. That is so tragic and unfortunate!!! Their new senior pastor since 2012, John Wilkerson is a good man, but he refuses to expose the Devil's counterfeit bibles. Pastor Wilkerson while candidating for the position of pastor plainly [12]told the church that he doesn't speak against the modern Bibles. What a shameful thing to say for a pastor!!! May I say, respectfully, [13]Dr. Jack Hyles was right about the inspiration of the King James Bible.

The Bible warns in 1st Timothy 6:10-11 that THE LOVE OF MONEY is the root of all evil. I think that we hear this Bible passage so much that we don't really take it seriously. PCC, BJU, HAC and Crown College (to name but a few religious institutions today) are collectively making hundreds of millions of dollars. Just like Ray Comfort, Kirk Cameron, John MacArthur, Paul Washer and other infidels today who won't speak against each other; so also won't PCC or Crowne College speak out against BJU. They all go along to get along, which ensures that nothing will ever change. John Wesley wisely said: "What one generation tolerates, the next generation will embrace." Today's Baptist pastors are not preachers anymore. Today's shameful Baptist pastors aren't warning people about the deadly modern versions, Lordship Salvation and misunderstood repentance.

I have been faithfully warning people, for which Pastor Jeff Redlin and his sidekicks falsely accused me of "finding weaknesses in preachers." What right does Jeff Redlin and company have to accuse me of such a terrible thing, when PCC doesn't take a stand against the Devil's bibles or Lordship Salvation? In fact, Jeff Redlin's name appears on the webpage for Harvest's KHNG 88.1 FM radio station on Guam. The man who used to operate the radio station on Guam is now running their radio station at PCC, and his adult son is on Guam operating Harvest's radio station. Birds of a feather flock together!

Sadly, I am THE ONLY ONE who is crying, "WOLF!" I am the only preacher who is exposing the ungodly Calvinist teachings at Bob Jones University. As flawed as Dr. Peter S. Ruckman was in his doctrine, he did an admirable job exposing the [14]ALEANDRIAN CULT at Bob Jones University. BJU for decades has been the ungodly fountainhead of the [15]corrupt 1881 Westcott and Hort Greek text. RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS! Using the RIGHT BIBLE MATTERS! God only authored one Book, not two, three or hundreds of versions.

I could go on and on exposing these rotten apples, but I've made my general point. God knows that I love pastors and don't enjoy making enemies, but I do enjoy earnestly contending for the Christian faith once delivered unto the saints (Jude 1:3). PCC not only refuses to earnestly contend for the faith, they won't even lift a finger or say a single word. Pastor Clarence Sexton is living large, getting paid a 6-digit salary. He just got back from a vacation in England. The guy is spoiled. Sexton invited and honored infidel [16]Ken Ham, who preaches another gospel. According to Ken Ham, faith is not enough to get to Heaven, he says you must also turn away from your wicked ways (which is 100 % WORKS - Jonah 3:10).

I am guilty of caring. Is that a crime? The Apostle Paul cared too. I know I am not an apostle, but it doesn't matter when it comes to hating evil (Psalms 97:10), refuting every work of darkness (Ephesians 5:11), contending for the faith (Jude 1:3), and rebuking false prophets sharply that they might be sound in the faith (Titus 1:9-14). I have obeyed God to take a biblical stand against evil, corruption and falsehoods. Yet, PCC's shameful pastors have banned me from attending Campus Church since August 2, 2022. I pleaded to come back to church, but they refused. Only a cult trashes out people, throwing them under the bus. At PCC the system always comes first, but individual people do not matter. I speak to their shame!

RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!! It matters which Bible that we use. If you don't have a King James Bible, then you don't have an inspired Holy Bible. The Devil is a beautiful liar! Today's new bibles are all corrupt. [17]Lordship Salvation is a perversion of the Gospel! Why, Oh why, are the pulpits today so eerily silent today about these woeful evils? Somebody has got to care! PCC only cares about money. They want to grow church attendances, but not expose error and false teachers. God does not honor such incompetence. Except a man strive lawfully, he is laboring in vain the Bible says (2nd Timothy 2:5).

I am outside the camp tonight with Jesus. As I type, I am not allowed to attend Campus Church. Their shameful pastors couldn't care less. PCC's leaders couldn't care less. They are all in bed with the cesspool of iniquity in the Bob Jones University camp, committing spiritual adultery.

God's judgment is upon these horrible institutions because are dead while they live. Revelation 3:1-2, "

And unto the angel of the church in Sardis write; These things saith he that hath the seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars; I know thy works, that thou hast a name that thou livest, and art dead.

Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God.

And so, I will continue to be the black sheep of the family. I'll continue to be Rudolph The Red-Nosed Reindeer, who was not allowed to play in any of the reindeer's games. I will continue to be Batman, The Dark Knight, who had to become the villain in order to be the hero who saved Gotham City. Somebody's got to save the city! Jesus went to the cross and was crucified as THE BAD GUY. So says the Scripture in 2nd Corinthians 5:21, "For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him." In suffering persecution from the churches (sadly of all places), I am a partaker of Christ's sufferings.

It is tragic that my fiercest ministry enemies over the past 21 years, have not been the ungodly heathen world; but rather, professed Christian pastors who do not love people. Neither do they love God, because it is impossible to love God while banning a hurting man from attending church. Marty Herron, Joe Hensen, Gary Walton and Jared Baldwin (Harvest Baptist Church on Guam); Sean Quinlan (Lighthouse Baptist Church on Guam); Jeff Redlin and Timothy Zacharias (PCC's Campus Church), all fully knew that my wife abandoned and divorced me since 2006. They all knew that I suffer from constant chronic neck pain from stenosis and radiculitis in my cervical spine, since 2004.

They all knew that I am lonely without a wife for a companion. Yet, every one of them threw me under the bus and left me for dead. They couldn't have cared less. All that matter to them was their God damned 6-digit salaries! Real great "Christians," huh. The Bob Jones graduate pastors at Harvest Baptist Church are all hellbound with their accursed false gospel of [18]Lordship Salvation, [19]Devil's bibles and [20]Wrong Repentance (aka, the "turn away from your sinful ways" heresy). These are imposters who masquerade as men of God, but in reality they are wolves in sheep's clothing. People just want to be loved.

What saith the Scripture? Romans 16:17-18, "Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them. For they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple." The only place that you will find Lordship Salvation in the Bible is in Matthew 7:21-23. They cried out "Lord, Lord" to Jesus, boasting of their service for Him on earth, but Christ denied knowing them as His sheep, and they were cast into outer darkness in Hell.

The greatest danger facing our churches today is indifference!!! Sadly, pastors just don't care anymore. But this is nothing knew, pastors were quitting 50 years ago. Read what Dr. Jack Hyles said in the 1970's:

> "I've been preaching a long time and I've watched a lot of things happen. To me the saddest thing that I've watched in my life, apart from my own country going to the > Devil nearly, has been the change of preachers and churches. I find myself amazed and stunned with near disbelief, as I see men who once stood who don't stand anymore ...I know every week I cry some, I mean cry, I mean tear cry, because of preachers who are turning."

>
> SOURCE: Pastor Jack Hyles, 1972 sermon titled, '[21]I SHALL NOT BE MOVED'

Sadly, PCC doesn't stand. Dr. Hyles taught us at Hyles-Anderson College (HAC) that only preachers can reproduce preachers. PCC puts teachers into their classrooms, who can only reproduce more teachers. That is why PCC doesn't stand against anything. PCC propagates an impotent brand of lifeless Christianity today that does nothing to expose false teachers, false bibles and false brethren. Brother Lester Roloff (1914-1982) rightly said: "The great need of the hour is preaching preachers!"

Dr. Jack Hyles nailed PCC in the following true statement:

> "The pastors have destroyed the churches, and they've been [22]trained by people that have never built churches, and [23]they have no compassion."
> —Pastor Jack Hyles, "[24]Many Pastors Have Destroyed My Vineyard"

PCC has no compassion! They do not love or care about individual people, of which I am living proof, banned from attending Campus Church since August 2, 2022. Jeff Redlin is a disgrace for a pastor and ought to be fired. If that is how they mistreat hurting divorced people like me, casting them away, then would you really want to feed your child to the pack of wolves at PCC? I sure wouldn't! I know that a man of God like Dr. Jack Hyles or Pastor Jeff Fugate would never refuse to allow someone to attend church. I sit home of Sunday and Wednesday nights with no church to attend, because of the hatred at PCC and Campus Church, who play God with people's lives. The Bible warns against being a respecter of persons in James 2:1, "My brethren, have not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory, with respect of persons."

Pastor Jeff Redlin shamefully banned me from attending Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College (PCC). My name is David J. Stewart, created in God's own image, but I am being shunned by the leaders at PCC. Their actions speak loudly that the cult system is all that matters at PCC, INDIVIDUALS do not matter.
People may not always tell you how they feel about you, but their actions will speak for themselves.
Pay attention.
All Lives Matter!

4.6.17 Appearances Of Jesus Christ In The Old Testament (2023-06-25 15:25)

Chronological Order Of Christ In The Old Testament...

How much do you really know about the Old Testament Messiah?

I. The Physical Appearances of Christ in the Old Testament

1. Genesis 14:17-20 (Hebrews 5:6; 7:1-8) - Jesus is called Melchizedek, priest, man, Son of God. He blessed Abraham.

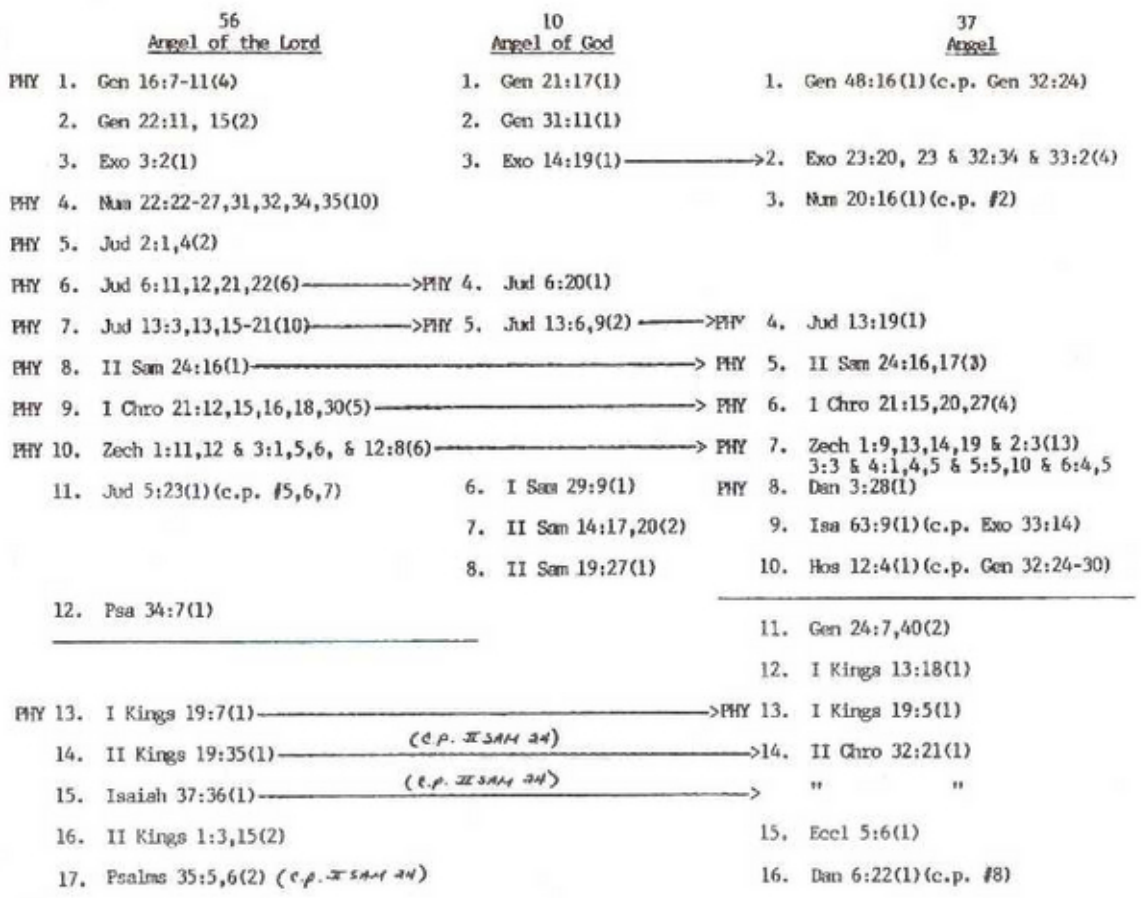
    ⇨ 2 reasons why some say Melchizedek was not Christ:

    →Hebrews 7:3,15 - made like unto the Son of God (Daniel 3:25)
    →Hebrews 7:4 - called a man (Genesis 18:1-2; 32:24; Joshua 5:13)

⇨ 5 reasons why I believe Melchizedek was Christ:
→ called priest of the most high God (before the Law was given) - Hebrews 7:1 → called a priest forever (like Jesus) - Hebrews 5:6; 7:3,17,21 → called "king of Salem" (peace) - Isaiah 9:6; Ephesians 2:14; Hebrews 7:1-2 → called "king of Righteousness" - Romans 10:1-4; Hebrews 7:2

→ without genealogy (Eternal One) - Hebrews 7:3

2. Genesis 16:7-13 (called angel of the Lord - blessed Hagar)
3. Genesis 18:1-14 (called Lord, man - blessed Abraham)
4. Genesis 32:24-30 (Hosea 12:2-5) (called man, God, angel - blessed Jacob)
5. Numbers 22:22-35 (called angel of the Lord - warned Balaam)
6. Joshua 5:13-15 (called man - fought for Joshua & Israel)
7. Judges 2:1-4 (called angel of the Lord - rebuked Joshua & Israel)
8. Judges 6:11-22 (called angel of the Lord, Lord - fought for Gideon & Israel)
9. Judges 13:1-22 (called angel of the Lord, God, man - raised up Samson for Israel)
10. 2nd Samuel 24:13-17; 1st Chronicles 21:12-18; 2nd Chronicles 3:1 (called angel of the Lord, Lord, angel - chastened king David & Israel
11. 1st Kings 19:1-7 (called angel of the Lord, angel - strengthened Elijah)
12. Daniel 3:23-28 (Hebrews 7:3 - called Son of God, angel - protected Shadrach, Meshach, & Abednego)
13. Zechariah 1:7-19; 2:1-3; 3:1-6; 4:1-5; 5:5-10; and 6:4,5 (called angel of the Lord, angel, man - revealed truth to Zechariah)



II. The Personal Appearances of Christ in the Old Testament

1. Genesis 21:17,18 (called angel of God - cared for Hagar)
2. Genesis 22:11-18 (called angel of the Lord - blessed Abraham)
3. Genesis 28:13-16 (called Lord - blessed Jacob)
4. Genesis 31:11-13 (called angel of God - instructs Jacob)
5. Exodus 3:1,2 (John 8:58 and Acts 7:30-33 - called angel of the Lord - instructs Moses)
6. Exodus 13:21 (Exodus 23:20-23 - called Lord - leads and protects Israel)
7. Exodus 14:19 (called angel of God - leads and protects Israel)
8. 2nd Kings 1:3,15 (called angel of the Lord - protected Elijah)
9. 2nd Kings 19:35 (2nd Chronicles 32:21; Isaiah 37:36; called angel of the Lord - Zechariah 1:11,12; 3:1,5,6; 12:8)
10. Daniel 6:22 (Numbers 20:16 and Isaiah 63:9 and Daniel 3:28 - (called angel - protected Daniel)

III. The Personal References of Christ in the Old Testament

1. Genesis 24:7,40 (called angel - Abraham instructs servant)
2. Genesis 48:16 (called angel - Jacob recalls Genesis 32:24-30)
3. Exodus 23:20-23; 32:34; 33:2 (Numbers 20:16 - called angel; Exodus 13:21; 14:19; Isaiah 63:9)
4. Numbers 20:16 (called angel - Exodus 13:21; 14:19; Isaiah 63:9)
5. Judges 5:23 (called angel of the Lord - Judges 2:1,4; 6:11,12,21,22; 13:3,13,15, 16-18,20,21)
6. Psalms 34:7; 35:5,6 (called angel of the Lord)
7. Isaiah 63:9 (called angel of his presence - Exodus 23:20-23)
8. Hosea 12:4 (called angel - Genesis 32:24-30)
9. Zechariah 12:8 (called angel of the Lord - Zechariah 1:11,12; 3:1,5,6; 12:8)
10. Ecclesiastes 5:6 (called angel)

4.6.18 Satan Is Back Of False Religions (2023-06-26 01:09)

2nd Corinthians 11:13-15 "

For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ.

And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light.

Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works."

I have always been intrigued by our text passage of Scripture. We've all seen Hollywood movies where the Devil is portrayed as a red devil with a pointed pitchfork in his hand and a sinister grim look on his face. But the inspired Holy Bible says the Devil as appearing different than the world does. As we just read a moment ago in our text, Satan appears an "an angel of light." But wait there's more, Satan's ministers are also transformed into ministers of unrighteousness (e.g., [1]John MacArthur, Benny Hinn, Billy Graham, Franklin Graham, [2]Joel Osteen, Aiden Tozer, Beth Moore, [3]Joyce Meyer, Pat Robertson, R.C. Sproul, Ray Comfort, Kirk Cameron, [4]Sid Roth, Paul Washer, Sam Adams, Marty Herron, Chuck Phelps, [5]Charles Lawson, Steve Pettit, Bob Jones University, et cetera). Satan's lying sinister ministers appear as likable Christian preachers! Satan is a beautiful liar!!!

The following helpful teaching is from Dr. John R. Rice's book, "BEHOLD, HE COMETH!" This is from chapter 13, pp. 211-213:

> Rise of False Prophet: Priest of Antichrist
> Satan tries to imitate God and act as God. Christ, who is God incarnate, came into the world and so Satan puts forth the Man of Sin, Satan incarnate. The Holy Spirit of God comes to dwell in Christians and give miraculous power and comfort and help day by day. So the Antichrist must have a false prophet and evil spiritual power, too. As Seiss says, "There is a supernatural power which is against God and truth, as well as one for God and truth. A miracle, simply as a work of wonder, is not necessarily of God. There has always been a devilish supernaturalism in the world, running alongside of the supernaturalism of divine grace and salvation.

We remember that down in Egypt when Aaron cast down his rod before Pharaoh and it became a serpent, "then Pharaoh also called the wise men and the sorcerers: now the magicians of Egypt, they also did in like manner with their enchantments. For they cast down every man his rod, and they became serpents: but Aaron's rod swallowed up their rods." (Exodus 7:11,12).

When Moses, with the rod of God, turned water to blood in the rivers and lakes, then "the magicians of Egypt did so with their enchantments: and Pharaoh's heart was hardened, neither did he hearken unto them; as the Lord has said" (Exodus 7:22).

When Moses brought a plague of frogs from the rivers and ponds over Egypt, then "the magicians did so with their enchantments, and brought up frogs upon the land of Egypt" (Exodus 8:7). After that the magicians of Pharaoh were not able to equal the miracles in the plagues that Moses brought from God

But it is noteworthy that Satanic power is more than human power. Satan cannot go beyond what God will allow him to do, but Satan can and sometimes does work miracles. He did with the magicians in Egypt. False prophets may be allowed to work miracles. In Deuteronomy 13:1-3 God gave this instruction:

Deuteronomy 13:1-3, "If there arise among you a prophet, or a dreamer of dreams, and giveth thee a sign or a wonder,

And the sign or the wonder come to pass, whereof he spake unto thee, saying, Let us go after other gods, which thou hast not known, and let us serve them;

Thou shalt not hearken unto the words of that prophet, or that dreamer of dreams: for the LORD your God proveth you, to know whether ye love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul.

No miracle is to take the place of the Word of God.

Let us beware, then, for Satan goes about "as a roaring lion . . . seeking whom he may devour" (1st Peter 5:8). And he has more than human power. A spiritist, a fortuneteller, may be allowed to reveal some hidden matter, in a miraculous way.

In my boyhood, my cousin had a horse stolen in North Texas. He went to see a fortuneteller. The fortuneteller told him that a man with a certain appearance stole the horse, that he had taken it north into Oklahoma into Ardmore. My cousin went there, found the horse and recovered him. It was a secret think which Satan revealed to a fortuneteller. No doubt many a person has thus been tempted to listen to spiritists and Devil-possessed teachers because God allowed some satanic miracle. But always we are to remember that anything that is not according to the Scriptures is still wicked and wrong.

Here we have, then, a false prophet of the Antichrist with miraculous powers. This false prophet will have "two horns like a lamb" (vs. 11), appearing to be peaceful and good “and he spake as a dragon” (vs. 11), that is, he spoke for the Devil, Satan. And just as secular kings and government in the Dark and Middle Ages put all their power behind the Roman church in its wicked Spanish Inquisition and the persecution and murder of Christian martyrs who would not follow the Roman church, so the powers of the Antichrist will be given to this false prophet that he can teach people to worship the Antichrist, dictator of the restored Roman Empire whose emperorship is restored.

Note verse 13. This false prophet will make fire come down from Heaven. And he will deceive people by these miracles (vs. 14). He will teach people to worship an image of the Antichrist. He will make this idol live and speak and set out to kill every person who will not worship it.

Let every Christian beware then, for Satan is back of false religions. He deceives people. He sometimes works miracles to deceive. And his way will be more plain than ever in the tribulation time when the false prophet, with all the power of the Antichrist, works miracles and insists that everybody worship the Antichrist and his image or die.

SOURCE:

Dr. John R. Rice, “BEHOLD, HE COMETH!,” pp. 211-213

Amen, that is good stuff! I love Dr. John R. Rice. Respectfully, I disagree with one thing that Dr. Rice said about the restored Roman empire. There is nothing in the Bible which teaches that the fallen Roman empire will be restored. We read in Revelation 17:10-11, “And there are seven kings: five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, he must continue a short space. And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and goeth into perdition.” The first five kings were; namely, Egypt, Assyria, Babylon, Medo-Persia and Greece. The sixth king was Rome, which was a world power at the time of the writing of the book of Revelation in 96 AD.

The seventh king, I humbly think, will not be the revived Roman empire; but rather, the New World Order (NWO) which we have increasingly heard so much about over the past century. A tremendous book on the subject is titled: “[6]PAWNS IN THE GAME” by retired Canadian Navy commander, William

Guy Carr (1895-1959). Please [7]read this introduction to the book first, which is very eye opening. The NWO is upon us in 2023!

Revelation 17:11 teaches that the eighth king will be the Antichrist, the Man of Sin, who will rise up from the seventh king (or, the New World Order). The aforementioned six kings of ancient history were all world powers at the time they ruled the earth. There are no world powers today, only super powers (i.e., Russia, China, United States, India, France, Israel, et cetera, with nuclear weapon capabilities). When the Man of Sin comes, he will rule as a dictator. The United States is presently being destroyed. That is, we are beholding the dismantling of the Old World Order, to make way for a New World Order. Out of chaos will arise a New Order of the Ancient Mystery religion (Satan worship).

This explains why there is an organized agenda to confuse children about their gender. This explains why there are hundreds of English Bible versions today to confuse people. Satan confuses people to hinder them from being saved. This is why President Donald Trump spent $15,000,000,000 of U.S. taxpayer money to build a 2,000 mile long wall along the Mexican border to keep out illegal aliens, but then President Joe Biden allowed 1,500,000 illegals to flood into the United States when he succeeded Mr. Trump. There is no way that our government leaders could be so reckless and irresponsible, unless secret powers at work behind the scenes in Washington D.C. wanted it so. Satan is the god of this evil world (2nd Corinthians 4:4), who comes only to kill, steal and destroy (John 10:10), and his minions do his evil bidding (John 8:44; Ephesians 2:2).

Most Christianity today is light shining in light, but God intended for the light to shine in darkness to win lost sinners to Christ. I am all for Facebook, Twitter and other social media venues, but that is shining the light in light. I have thought oftentimes of just getting rid of my Facebook account, because it is nothing more than a meeting place online for Christians to shine the light in the light.

I spend very little time on Facebook. I have better things to do with my time. I would rather spend my time shining the light in darkness by laboring on my ministry websites. Unsaved people don't send me Friend Requests on Facebook, only religious people do. But millions of unsaved sinners have found my [8]Jesus-is-Savior.com website while doing a Google search. I deliberately write about secular matters as well as spiritual matters, to draw unsaved people to my ministry websites.

Satan is back of all false religions. Sadly, this includes most Baptist churches today. If you do a little homework to search online for what [9]the cults believe about repentance, you will be [10]shocked to discover that most Baptist churches today agree with the cults. Dear reader, Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born-again. Requiring lost sinners to " turn away from your sinful ways to get to Heaven

is trying to live the Christian life to be saved.

My father used to wisely say: "Religion is the worst thing that ever happened to this world." He was so right! You see friend, religion is man's filtration of what the Holy Bible teaches. Consequently, you literally have everything from soup to nuts (and there's quite a few religious nuts in the world), each interpreting the Bible in his own human understanding. Thankfully, as believers we have the indwelling Holy Spirit to guide and teach us all things. John 14:26, "But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever

I have said unto you." John 16:13, "Howbeit *when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will shew you things to come." love those promises from God. The first thing I recommend for every new Christian believer is to [11]learn about the blessed Holy Spirit.

Luke 24:45-47,

Then opened he [Jesus] their understanding, that they might understand the scriptures, And said unto them, Thus it is written, and thus it behoved Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead the third day: And that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem." If you walk with Jesus by searching the Scriptures, praying and sharing the Gospel with lost sinners, He will open your understanding of the Scriptures.

Psalms 119:100, "

I understand more than the ancients, because I keep thy precepts.

" When we obey God's inspired Word, He opens our understanding to learn more, so we can grow in the knowledge of Jesus Christ. In sharp contrast, cults are started when unsaved people try to understand the Bible without the presence of the Holy Spirit (1st Corinthians 2:14-16).

Religion is man trying to reach God through human effort, but Christianity is God trying to reach man by the sacrifice of His only begotten Son on the cross.

Revelation 2:12-13, " And to the angel of the church in Pergamos write; These things saith he which hath the sharp sword with two edges;

I know thy works, and where thou dwellest, even where Satan's seat is: and thou holdest fast my name, and hast not denied my faith, even in those days wherein Antipas was my faithful martyr, who was slain among you, where Satan dwelleth.

" Satan's seat is not in the casinos, taverns and brothels, he already owns them; Satan' s seat is in the churches, where he can do the most damage. I'll bet you never knew that. Satan goes to church too!

From time to time I meet atheists, who almost all tell me that they grew up Roman Catholic and saw abuse, hypocrisy and dead formalism, which turned them off to Christianity. I always tell them the same thing, that Christianity and religion are two very different things. Ninety-nine percent of people have churchianity without Christianity.

Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born-again. The churches today are full of tares (unsaved people). Born-again saints are the wheat.

Religion is like the calm eye of a hurricane, in that it provides a space of false security for a moment. This earthly life is short, as a vapour the Bible says. James 4:14, "

Whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow. For what is your life? It is even a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away." I cannot believe how fast the last 40 years went. When I was a teenager, I remember seeing actors in Tv shows (like Robert Reed, 1932-1992, who played the father on The Brady Bunch). In real life Reed was a closet homosexual, which fact came out after his death from colon cancer and A.I.D.S. at age 59. I could name hundreds of music and Hollywood celebrities that I grew up familiar with, who are either gone today or are now in their 70's and 80's. Anyone who was 30 years old in 1977 (when I was 10 years old) is now 76 years old. Wow, time went so fast!!!

I was initially glad to read that singer Olivia Newton John (1948-2022) who died last year was a Christian. But then I sadly learned that [12]she was a devout Roman Catholic . Dear reader, Catholicism is a prisonhouse of religion! Jesus plainly said in John 14:6, "Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me." In contrast, [13]Catholics are errantly taught that salvation comes through water baptism into the Catholic Church, the first requirement in keeping the Seven Sacraments of the Catholic church to get to Heaven. Catholicism is a lie of the Devil, the biggest religious cult in the world, a deceptive and deadly false religion. Sadly, Hell is full of Catholics. Dear reader, religion is the worst thing that ever happened to this world. To be saved [14]you must to be BORN AGAIN!!!

If you would like to delve further into the connection between Satan and false religion, I have done much research and wrote these helpful articles:

4.6.19 Christ Is God (2023-06-26 15:29)

WHO SAYS SO? ...

All Scriptures are quoted from the precious inspired King James Bible.

MATTHEW

The wise men say so, by coming to WORSHIP the Christ child (Matthew 2:2,11). Isaiah 42:8 clearly states that God will not share His glory nor praises with another.

Gabriel the Archangel says so in Matthew 1:23, calling Jesus "Emmanuel, which being interpreted is, God with us."

Mary, Jesus' mother, says so in Luke 1:47... "And my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour."

A leper says so, by worshipping Jesus in Matthew 8:2. Only God is to be worshipped (Exodus 20:4,5).

Jesus Himself claimed so, in Matthew 9:2, when He forgave a man's sins, "Son...thy sins be forgiven thee." Mark 2:7 plainly states that ONLY God can forgive sin.

A certain ruler says so, by worshipping Jesus in Matthew 9:18.

The Apostles say so, by worshipping Jesus in Matthew 14:33.

A Canaanite woman says so, by worshipping Jesus in Matthew 15:25.

A mother and her sons say so, by worshipping Jesus in Matthew 20:20.

The disciples say so, by worshipping Jesus in Matthew 28:9.

MARK

A man afflicted by a demon says so, by worshipping Jesus in Mark 5:6.

Jesus Himself claimed so, in Mark 2:5, when He forgave a man's sins, "Son, thy sins be forgiven thee." Mark 2:7 plainly states that ONLY God can forgive sin.

LUKE

John the Baptist says so, in John 1:15, by stating "He that cometh after me is preferred before me: for he was before me." John said that Jesus came BEFORE him; but Luke 1:24-27 tell us that Jesus was born several months AFTER John. John was clearly referring to Jesus as God incarnate.

Jesus Himself claimed so, in Luke 5:20, when He forgave a man's sins, "Man, thy sins are forgiven thee." Luke 5:21 plainly states that ONLY God can forgive sin.

The Apostles say so, by worshipping Jesus in Luke 24:52.

JOHN

John says so, in John 1:1... "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God."

John says so, by stating in John 1:3 that Jesus is the Divine Creator of all things. See Colossians 1:16; 2nd Peter 3:5. Genesis 1:1 plainly states that GOD created the universe and all things in it.

John says so, in John 1:10... "He was in the world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not."

John says so, in John 3:16, by calling Jesus God's "only begotten Son." To be God's literal Son makes Jesus deity.

Jesus Himself claimed so, in John 14:1, by asking those who believe in God to also believe on Him.

Jesus Himself claimed so, in John 8:24, "...for if ye believe not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins." The pronoun "he" is in italics in the King James Bible, meaning it was added by the translators for clarity, and isn't in the Greek. Thus, it literally says, "...for if ye believe not that I AM, ye shall die in your sins." See Exodus 3:14.

Jesus Himself claimed so, in John 8:58, "Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Before Abraham was, I am." This is the I AM of Exodus 3:14. The people understood what Jesus was claiming, because they tried to kill him in John 8:59.

Jesus Himself claimed so, in John 10:30, "I and my Father are one."

Jesus Himself claimed so, in John 10:33, "The Jews answered him, saying, For a good work we stone thee not; but for blasphemy; and because that thou, being a man, makest thyself God."

Jesus Himself claimed so, in John 14:1, "Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me." Clearly, Jesus was claiming equality with God the Father. See Philippians 2:6 (King James Bible).

ACTS

Peter says so, in Acts 4:10-12, by stating that salvation can ONLY be found in the name of JESUS. Isaiah 43:11,12 tell us that God is the ONLY Savior. In John 14:6, Jesus claimed to be the ONLY way to Heaven.

Paul says so, in Acts 20:28, "Take heed therefore unto yourselves...to feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood." Paul states that God paid for our sins with His own blood. 1st Peter 1:18,19 clearly states that Jesus is the Lamb of God which shed His blood for our sins. Hence, Jesus is Almighty God!

ROMANS

Paul says so, The Resurrection of Jesus Christ proves His Deity (Romans 1:1-4)

Nature says so, giving understanding and clarity to the fact that Jesus Christ is God. "For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse" (Romans 1:18-20; John 1:1-3; Colossians 1:16).

Lost sinners know so, who knowing the judgment of God..." (Romans 1:18, 24-32). Only Jesus Christ Himself judges sin! (John 5:22). The unsaved realize that someday they will stand before Jesus Christ to be judged.

Abraham says so, by believing God. Genesis 15:6 states Abraham believed the LORD! James 2:19 says believing in God is not enough to be saved. John 3:16 says believing in Jesus Christ is enough, so we must conclude that Abraham believed on Jesus Christ as God because he was justified in Romans 4:3 (Rom 4:1-5)

Paul says so, by declaring that Jesus Christ is Eternal and Immortal! (Romans 6:9,10).

Paul says so, by declaring that Jesus is risen! (Romans 8:34).

Isaiah says so, by prophesying about the coming Messiah who would die on the cross (Romans 9:25-33. Verse 33 states... "Whosoever believeth on Him shall not be ashamed." This is a quote from Isaiah 28:16. Paul said that the "LORD" of Isaiah 10:23 is the same "LORD" that died on the cross (Romans 10:11).

Paul says so by quoting Psalm 40:17, 14:7, Isaiah 27:9. Jesus Christ as our Deliverer is God. All will confess Jesus as God at the Judgment Seat! (Romans 14:11).

1ST CORINTHIANS

Paul says so! 1st Corinthians 1:10, "...of our Lord Jesus Christ." "Lord" comes from the Greek word "KURIOS," meaning "supreme in authority." Only God can be Supreme in Authority.

Born again Jews and Greeks say Jesus is God! I Corinthians 1:24, "Christ the power of God." Christ comes from Greek Christos meaning "Messiah." Colossians 3:24 refers to the same Messiah as "LORD," meaning "supreme in Authority." Jesus is Almighty God.
The brethren say Jesus is God! 1st Corinthians 9:5, "Brethren of the Lord." "LORD" comes from Greek "KURIOS" meaning" Supreme in Authority."

Paul says so, by referring to Jesus Christ as Lord! We know this verse speaks of Jesus because John 5:22 says only Jesus will judge sin (also, see 1st Corinthians 4:4).

Paul says so, by referring to Jesus Christ as Lord! "LORD" meaning "Supreme in Authority" (1st Corinthians 5:4).

Paul says so, by declaring Jesus Christ as the Creator of all things! (1st Corinthians 8:6; also see John 1:1-4)

Paul says so, by declaring Jesus Christ has risen and spoken to him! (1st Corinthians 11:24-26). Paul in verse 26 expects the LORD Jesus Christ to return again! He speaks of Jesus as the Eternal One.

Paul says so, by calling Jesus "LORD," meaning "Supreme in Authority "(1st Corinthians 11:32; John 5:22)

The HOLY GHOST says so, (1st Corinthians 12:1-3). It is the HOLY GHOST Himself who gives mankind the knowledge that Jesus is God! He may do this through nature (Romans 1:18-20).

Paul says so, (1st Corinthians 12:18) by claiming God as the Creator. John 1:3 teaches us that Jesus Christ made all things. Also see Colossians 1:14.

Paul says so, by claiming God as the Builder of the Church! (1st Corinthians 12:28). Matthew 16:18 says Jesus is the Builder!
Paul says so, by claiming Christ has risen! (1st Corinthians 15:4). See Job 19:25.

2ND CORINTHIANS

Paul says so, by claiming Jesus as the Christ (2nd Corinthians 1:1). Acts 9:5 –God calls Himself "Jesus."

Paul says so, by claiming that he ’s trusting is God for salvation (2nd Corinthians 1:9,10).

Isaiah 45:22 clearly states that Jesus Christ is the one who saves. Also John 3:16; Romans 5:8; Acts 4:10-12.

Paul says so, by claiming that Jesus is the Holy Spirit (2nd Corinthians 3:17). Also see John 4:24... "God is a spirit"; John 14:16,47.

Paul says so, by claiming Jesus as the Eternal Judge (2nd Corinthians 5:10). Also see John 5:22, Judges 11:27, Romans 1:32.

Paul says so, by claiming Jesus as the light (2nd Corinthians 4:6). Psalm 27:1; John 3:19-21; John 12:36

Paul say so, by claiming Jesus Christ has risen, (2nd Corinthians 5:15) Job 19:25; Romans 6:11

Paul says so, by claiming that Jesus was once rich in Heaven, but became poor that we might be made rich. Paul claims Jesus Christ is Eternal (2nd Corinthians 8:9)

Paul says so, by quoting Psalm 112:9, claiming Jesus as the One who gives grace (2nd Corinthians 9:8,9)

Paul says so, by claiming power of thought Jesus Christ (2nd Corinthians 10:4 & Philippians 4:13)

Paul says so, by claiming Jesus as the LORD (2nd Corinthians 12:8,9)

Paul says so, by claiming Christ has risen (2nd Corinthians 13:4)

GALATIANS

Paul says so, by claiming Jesus is God! (Galatians 1:4, "God and our Father")

Paul says so, by claiming to have received his doctrine from the risen Christ Jesus (Galatians 1:12)

Paul says so, by claiming Jesus Christ as the Justifier (Galatians 3:6; Romans 4:5; John 5:22)

Paul says so, by claiming that Jesus Christ lives in him, declaring his resurrection and power (Galatians 2:20)

Paul says so, by claiming that God gave the promises to Abraham (Galatians 3:18; Genesis 18:25: John 5:22). This was Jesus.

EPHESIANS

Paul says so, claiming Christ has risen by quoting Psalm 68:18 (Ephesians 4:8)

Paul says so, by declaring Christ as a present help for life, because of His Resurrection (Ephesians 5:14)

Paul says so, by calling Jesus God! (Ephesians 5:20)

Paul says so, by claiming Jesus as the savior (Ephesians 5:23)

PHILIPPIANS

Paul says so, by claiming Christ is risen (Philippians 1:21). "To live is Christ!"

Paul says so, by claiming Jesus Christ as equal with God (Philippians 2:6).

Paul says so, and all people someday will, by confessing with their tongue that Jesus Christ is LORD! (Philippians 2:10,11). Every knee shall bow, and every tongue confess, that Jesus is Lord.

Paul says so, by claiming power to do all things through Christ (Philippians 4:13)

Paul says so, by calling Jesus is God! (Philippians 4:20)

COLOSSIANS

Paul says so, by calling Jesus God (Colossians 1:3)

Paul says so, by claiming Jesus as the Divine Creator (Colossians 1:16). See, Isaiah 44:24

Paul says so, by declaring that God is pleased to give all fulness to the Son (Colossians 1:19)

Paul says so, by claiming all the fulness of the Godhead bodily in Christ (Philippians 2:9)

Paul says so, by claiming Jesus Christ is the head of all principality and power (Philippians 2:10)

Paul says so, by claiming Christ is risen and is powerful to make us live also (Colossians 2:13)

Paul says so, by declaring Christ as risen (Colossians 3:1) and is seated on the right hand of the Father (vs. 1).

Paul says so, by claiming Jesus Christ as our life (POWER). Only God can give life (Isaiah 44:24; John 14:6; Colossians 3:4).

Paul says so, by calling Jesus God: (Colossians 3:17)

1ST THESSALONIANS

Paul says so, by claiming Christ's return (1st Thessalonians 2:19)

Paul says so, by calling Jesus God (1st Thessalonians 3:13)

Paul says so, by claiming the resurrection of Jesus (1st Thessalonians 4:14)

Paul says so, by claiming the return of Jesus Christ (1st Thessalonians 4:16)

Paul says so, by claiming God died for us, and that we will live together with Him! (1st Thessalonians 5:9,10)

2ND THESSALONIANS

Paul says so, by declaring God as judge! (2nd Thessalonians 1:5; John 5:22)

Paul says so by claiming the return of Christ (2nd Thessalonians 2:1)

1ST TIMOTHY

Paul says so, by claiming the Savior as God (1st Timothy 1:1)

Paul says so, by claiming Christ as the LORD (Supreme in Authority). This can only mean God (1st Timothy 1:12)

Paul says so, by claiming the King as God (1st Timothy 1:17). Jesus is the King according to Matthew 2:2; 5:35

Paul says so, by claiming the Savior as God (1st Timothy 2:3; Titus 1:4)

Paul says so, in 1st Timothy 3:16, by sating that "GOD WAS MANIFEST IN THE FLESH."

Paul says so, by claiming the Savior as God (1st Timothy 4:10; Titus 1:4)

Paul says so, by claiming Christ as the only Great Authority (1st Timothy 6:15). The word

"Potentate" means "Great Authority) "–obviously Paul is referring to Jesus Christ as God.

2ND TIMOTHY

Paul says so, by claiming life through Christ Jesus (2nd Timothy 1:1). Genesis 1:1 teaches that God gives life!

Paul says so, by claiming Christ is risen (2nd Timothy 2:8)

Paul says so, by claiming Jesus Christ is the Judge (2nd Timothy 4:1). See Judges 11:27; John 5:22

TITUS

Paul says so, by claiming God is the Savior (Titus 1:3,4)

Paul says so, by claiming God is the Savior (Titus 2:10,13; 1:4)

PHILEMON

Paul says so, by claiming power through Christ (Philippians 1:8). Obviously he bases this on the fact that Christ has risen.

HEBREWS

Hebrews 1:3 says so, by claiming Jesus is the Son of God. In John 14:1, Jesus claimed deity by asking those who believed on God to also believe on Him.

Hebrews 3:4 says so, by claiming God as the Creator. Colossians 1:16 and John 1:3 say Jesus is the Creator.

Hebrews 10:30 says so, by claiming God as the Judge–John 5:22 says this is Jesus.

Hebrews 12:2 says so, by claiming Jesus is alive and seated on the right hand of God the Father.

2ND PETER

Peter says so, in 2nd Peter 3:5... "For this they willingly are ignorant of, that by the word of God the heavens were of old." John 1:3 says Jesus created all things. 2nd Peter 3:5 says that God did.

1ST JOHN

John says so, in 1st John 2:23, "Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: (but) he that acknowledgeth the Son hath the Father also." You cannot come to God, except through Jesus Christ–because Jesus came as the manifestation of the Godhead, i.e., the Godhead incarnate (2nd Timothy 3:16; Colossians 2:9).

REVELATION

Jesus Himself claimed to be Almighty God in Revelation 1:8... "I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty."

John says so, in Revelation 19:13, "...and his name is called The Word of God." See John 1:1.

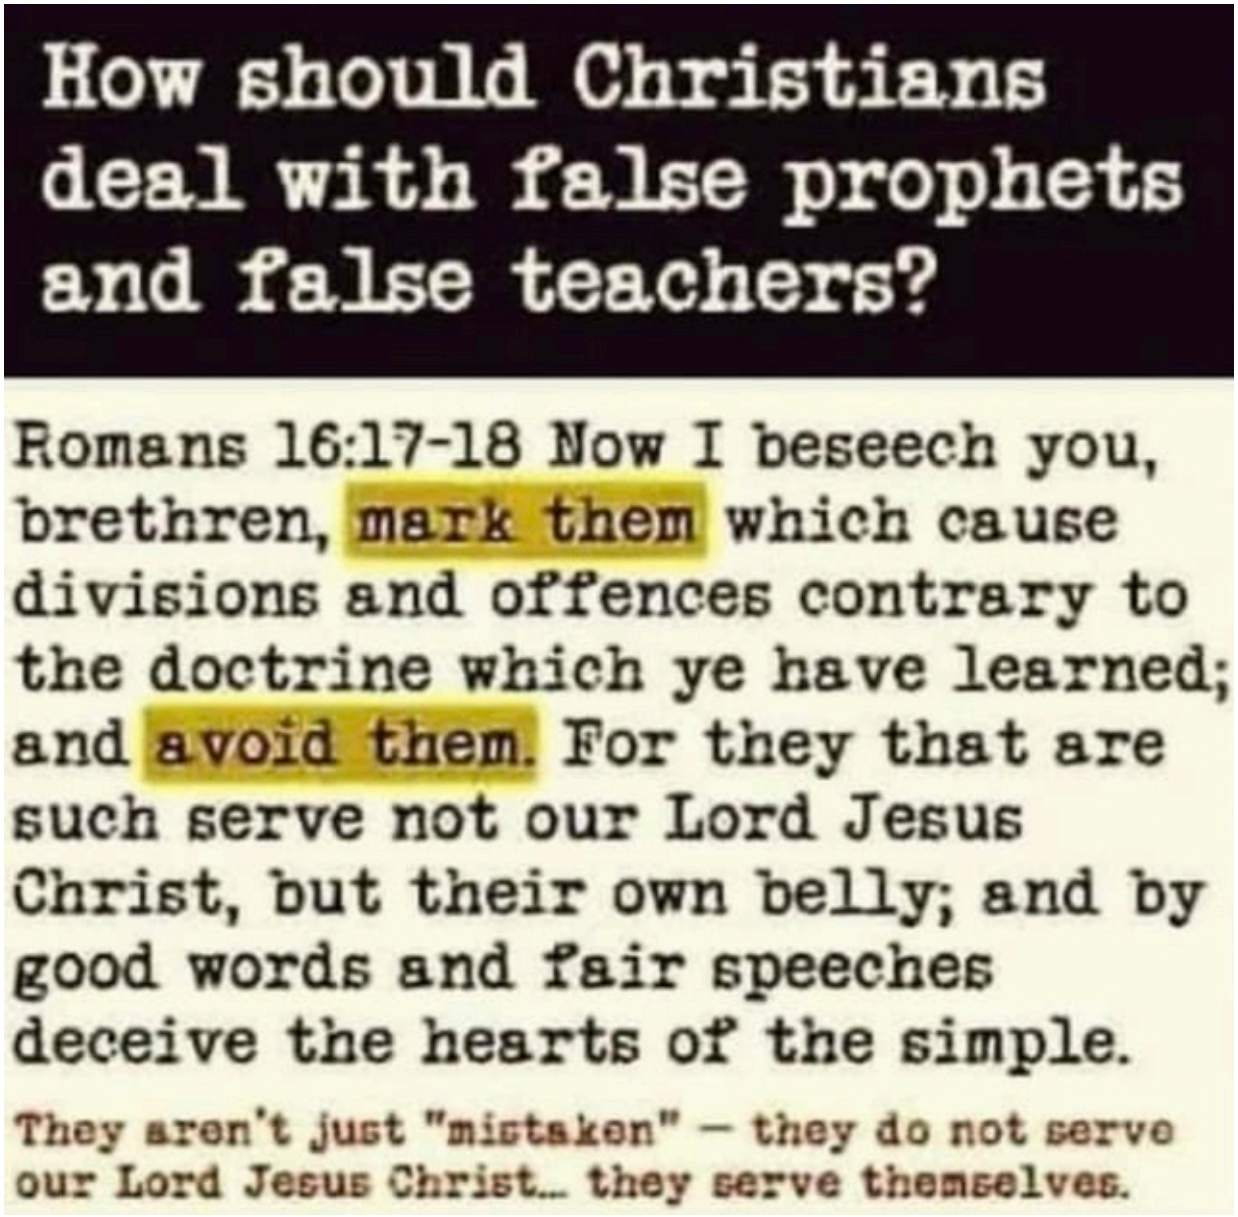
4.6.20 What Can We Do About False Teachers? (2023-06-27 11:38)

QUESTION: Somebody sent me a message today on Facebook, asking me what can be done about Calvinist false teachers?

ANSWER: [illegible] "[illegible]" The Bible teaches that we need false teachers who preach heresies, so that we who are learned in the Scriptures can expose their lies. It's like a painter's canvas. He needs a blank white canvas to provide contrast, so he can create a picture.

That is why I expose false prophets by the hundreds, showing what the Bible actually teaches versus their heresies. The best thing you can do is start a blog or a website and help me expose these devils. I am just one man. People often contact me, asking me to do all the work of exposing false teachers. Unfortunately, I cannot expose all of them, because there are not enough hours in a day. Calvinism is so wicked.

I am so tired of being persecuted by Christians over my preaching against bad churches today. I just learned that the "Fundamental 500" has kicked me off their ranking website. It sickens me. I was with them for over 15 years, They have removed all of my websites from theirs. □□□ □□□□□ □□:□□, "□□□ □□□□□□ □□□□ □□□□ □□□ □□□ □□□□□□, □□□ □□□□, □□□ □□□□ □□□□ □□ □□□□□□□ □□□ □□□□□□□□? □□ □□□ □□□□ □□ □□□, □□□□□□ □□□: □□□ □□ □□□□, □□□□ □□□□□□ □□□. □□□ □□□ □□□□□□ □□□□□□□□ □□□ □□□ □ □□□□." I love this Bible verse. The stupid ungodly people refused to takes sides between God and Baal.



Tragically, that is just like 99 % of Christians today, who sit idle and refuse to take sides in anything. Sadly, this includes church pastors as well, who merely want to grow their ministry to increase revenues. That is Pensacola Christian College (PCC), who make God vomit. PCC is lukewarm. I've been banned in writing from attending PCC's Campus Church, because they are upset with me for exposing the accursed Calvinist Bob Jones University camp. PCC refuses to take sides. I know that God is with me in this matter. Psalms 118:6, " The LORD is on my side; I will not fear: what can man do unto me?"

I don't care if I die without having a ministry friend in the world, I'm not going to do like PCC and lay down, go along to get along; and claim that it is a "Christlike spirit" to do nothing, say nothing to contend for the faith and fight the good fight of faith. I sure feel like the Lone Ranger these days as a Bible preacher.

Carnal Bible colleges and bad churches everywhere are wickedly bidding Godspeed to infidels like John MacArthur, Ray Comfort, Ken Ham, Bob Jones University and countless others. 2nd John 1:11, "For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds." Nobody wants to stand anymore. All we can do is tell the truth as individuals, and support the few preachers that also do, like Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold, Max D. Younce and me (humbly said). When I say "support" I do not mean financially; but rather, to help promote their doctrinally sound preaching.

I am sick and tired of these foolish pacifist believers today who go around teaching that if we disagree with other professed Christians, who are wrong on the Gospel, that we should just mind our own business and not be unchristlike to harshly criticize them. The Bible says in Titus 1:14-14 to "REBUKE THEM SHARPLY" that they might be sound in the faith. I've been preaching hard against the accursed Bob Jones University cult since 2014, but they aren't listening to the truth.

I already see the hand-writing on the walls, that I am going to increasingly lose fair weather friends, make more enemies among churches, and when I finally graduate from this life to be with Jesus in Heaven I won't have hardly any friends left (because of my strong preaching against the corruption in today's Bible colleges and churches). Dr. Jack Hyles was right: "Somebody's got to care."

“□□□ □□□□□ □□□□ □□ □□ □□□□ □□□□□□ □□□□□□□□ □□ □□□□□□□□□□□□□□!” —□□□□□□ □□□□ □□□□□, “ [2]□ □□□□□ □□□ □□ □□□□□ ”

4.6.21 Pensacola Christian College Kills Everything They Touch (2023-06-27 23:41)

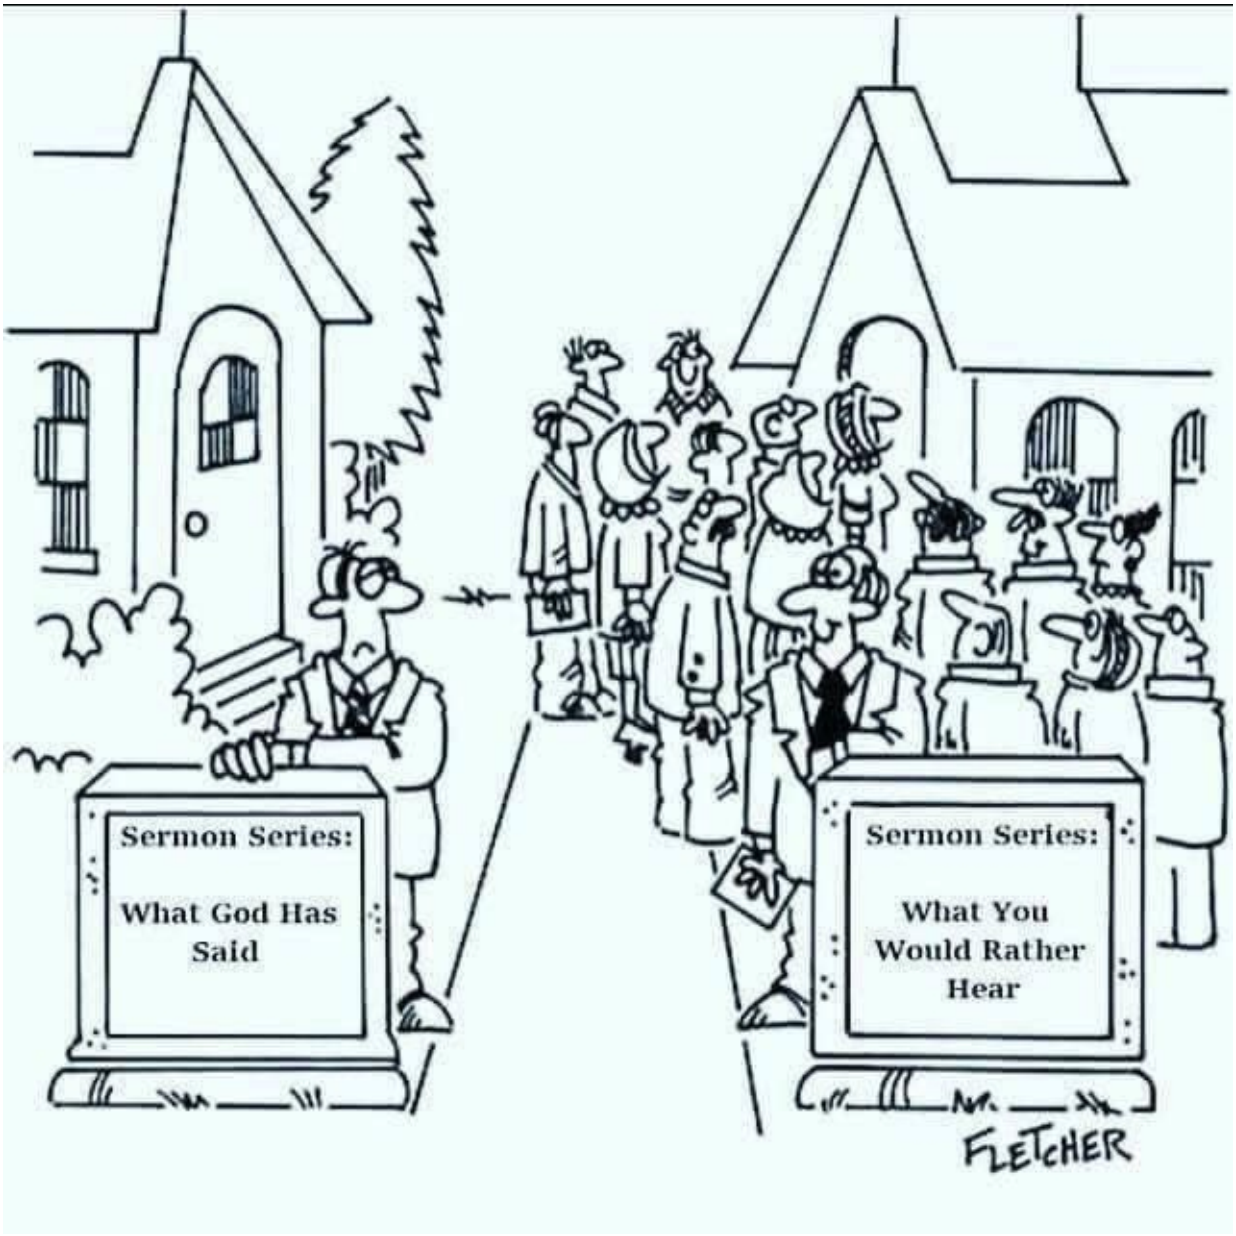
James 2:6, “ But ye have despised the poor. Do not rich men oppress you, and draw you before the judgment seats? ”

5878

You'd think that my biggest encouragers would be Baptist pastors, but sadly, they are my biggest critics and enemies. I've been banned from attending church at Pensacola Christian College's (PCC) Campus Church. They are upset with me for preaching against the apostate Bob Jones University cult, at the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, where I have also been banned from attending church.

The problem is THE LOVE OF MONEY, just as the inspired Word of God warns in 1st Timothy 6:10-11. When men's money-making careers become dependent upon not making enemies, and going along to get along with infidels who send them students and money, pastors sell out. PCC couldn't care less about contending for the faith. I was told at PCC that their leaders hate Pastor Steven Anderson, and no wonder, since PCC is impotent and a disgrace to the cause of Christ, America is going to Hell because of pastors who refuse to stand.

PCC is in the education business, which has inoculated most of the churches in Pensacola, giving them a shallow superficial form of lifeless Christianity that doesn't go soulwinning, doesn't expose the Devil's Bible perversions, doesn't expose the Devil's Lordship Salvation, and doesn't care about hurting divorced people who need love and understanding.



I get so frustrated when I attend local churches in Pensacola, and they are mere PCC clones, in bed spiritually fornicating with PCC. Everything PCC touches they kill! They leave a collateral trail of dead churches, uncaring graduates, snobby teachers, lifeless pulpits and superficial Christianity. Everything that PCC comes into contact with, they render it inoculated from ever finding a genuine walk with God. Evidence of what I say is that I have been banned Since August 2, 20022 by Pastor Jeff Redlin and company from attending PCC's church.

Literally, every church that I have attended in Pensacola, that has a close association with PCC, has no scheduled time to go soulwinning, doesn't have a Bus Ministry, doesn't earnestly contend for the Christian faith, doesn't love people as they should, and they are shallow. If I had my way, I'd put Pensacola Christian College out of business permanently. SHAME on PCC! They sure need to start learning how to properly treat people.

You'll tons of rules and policies at PCC, but you won't find any love or compassion, especially when you need it most. I came to Campus Church as a hurting divorced man, with chronic neck pain and related health afflictions, surviving out of a suitcase in cheap hotel. I desperately needed help from the pastors of Campus Church, but those wicked incompetent devils threw me under the bus and left me for dead.

Please RUN from PCC and their hateful, bigoted, unwelcoming and uncaring shady form of pseudo-Christianity today. People just want to be loved.

4.6.22 Did Adam And Eve See God In The Garden Of Eden? (2023-06-28 00:02)

Question*: The Bible says that no man can see God's face and live.

Exodus 33:20, " Thou canst not see my face: for there shall no man see me, and live." Do how did Adam and Eve walk with God in the Garden of Eden?

Answer*: The Bible says in Genesis 3:8, " And they heard the voice of the LORD God walking in the garden in the cool of the day: and Adam and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the LORD God amongst the trees of the garden. "

I could be wrong, but I don't find anywhere that the Bible says Adam and Eve actually saw God. They heard walking in the Garden.

" the voice of the LORD God "

You are correct that no man can see God's face and live. But man can see God in human form, in Jesus Christ, who appeared as God in the flesh. 1st Timothy 3:16, "And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory." I hate the Devil's modern Bible perversions, which replace the definite word "God" with the ambiguous pronoun "He." Most people wrongly interpret this to mean Jesus was revealed in the flesh, instead of the correct intended meaning that God was manifest in the flesh.

Of course, to meet Jesus is to meet God, because they are one as the Godhead (or "Trinity" in theology). I reject Modalism, which is a popular Trinity-denying heresy in many social media groups and churches today. Modalism claims that God wear different hats, so to speak, or "modes" that God enters into. Modalists teach that God became Jesus, and then went back to Heaven and became God again. Modalists think that when they die, they will only see one person, God the Father, in Heaven, but not Jesus.

Colossians 3:1-3 disproves Modalism, teaching that Jesus sits on a physical throne on the right-hand of the Father's throne. Heaven is a physical place. Jesus raised up in a physical body. He was seen by over 500 brethren at once (1st Corinthians 15:6). Jesus physically ascended into heaven (Acts 1:11). He physically entered into the physical Holy Place in Heaven, and applied His physical liquid blood to the Mercy Seat in the presence of God the Father on our behalf (Hebrews 9:12, 22-24; 12:24).

My humble guess to answer your question is that all three members of the Godhead were there in the Garden of Eden, when they heard in the voice of God. What saith the Scripture? Genesis 1:26, "And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth." Here we see the pronouns "us" and "our," which are repeatedly mentioned in the first couple chapters of Genesis. These plural pronouns plainly refer to the Godhead (i.e., God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit). Deuteronomy 6:4 says that there is only one true and living God; but the Bible is also clear that God exists in three persons, all unique and equal in power and deity.

Because so many pastors shun and mistreat me, I often feel sad, unappreciated and un-noticed. So when I hear the opposite from my humble web visitors, it truly means a lot. I have learned that people who suffer in life stay humble and don't look down on others. But the pastors who shun me, like Marty Herron and Gary Walton (Bob Jones University alumni), and Jeff Redlin (a PCC alumnus), I realize that they all get paid 6-digit salaries. They are rich! The Bible warns us that rich people will oppress us. James 2:6, " But ye have despised the poor. Do not rich men oppress you, and draw you before the judgment seats?"

PCC are filthy rich and have huge egos. It hurts my soul that they can just throw me under the bus and move on, forgetting about me. That is why I preach against them mainly, so that they cannot forget about me. People just want to be loved, a lesson PCC has yet to learn. That is my daily prayer, that God would break and humble PCC leadership, so that they will esteem others better than themselves. Philippians 2:3, "Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves."

4.6.23 Ten Things That I Humbly Disagree With Pastor Steven Anderson About (2023-06-28 22:27)

2nd Timothy 2:15, " Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth."

Someone recently commented on [1]my Facebook page that they disagreed with Pastor Steven Anderson's teaching that Jesus burned in Hell for three days. Yes, I agree, Biblically Jesus did NOT burn in Hell, not even for one second (Luke 23:43). After addressing the reader's comments, I kindly took the opportunity to deal with some other issues for the sake of edifying my readers with the truth. Actually, there are several doctrinal areas in which I respectfully disagree with Brother Anderson; namely:

1. I Disagree With a PreWrath Rapture.

I believe in a Biblical Pretribulation Rapture (i.e., the Rapture will happen BEFORE the 7-year Tribulation period). Pastor Anderson teaches that the Rapture and Christ's Second Coming are the SAME event, which I think is unbiblical.

2. I Disagree With Pastor Anderson That the Rapture will Happen 75 Days After the Abomination of Desolation (AOD).

The AOD is when the Antichrist breaks the peace agreement with Israel, stops the Jewish daily sacrifices, and professes himself to be God on earth). Clearly, we would know WHEN Jesus is coming back, so this cannot be accurate in lieu of Mark 13:32-37. Daniel 12:11-12 teaches that from the AOD to Christ's Second Coming will be 1,290 days. Again, we would KNOW exactly WHEN Jesus is returning. Only the timing of the Rapture is a mystery, but not Christ's Second Coming.

3. I Disagree That Jesus Burned in Hell Fire for Three Days.

The Savior Himself told the repentant thief on the cross next to Him, that they would both be in Paradise that very same day (Luke 23:43). Clearly, Jesus did not burn in Hell.

4. I Disagree With Pastor Anderson That There is No Old Testament Place Called 'Paradise.'

Acts 2:27 says that Jesus went to Hell. So Hell must have been compartmentalized, with a place of Torment on one side, and a place of Paradise on the other. In fact, this is EXACTLY what we see in Luke 16:19-31 in the true story of the rich man and Lazarus. Luke 16:22 refers to this place of Paradise informally as "Abraham's Bosom." Matthew 12:40 teaches that Jesus was in the heart of the earth for 3 days and 3 nights, like Jonah was 3 days and nights in the belly of the whale. Hell is in the heart of the earth (Ezekiel 31:17). My friend Pastor Max D. Younce has authored this masterpiece of literature titled: "A Biblical Examination Of Hell," which you can either buy as a hardcopy, or [2]freely download or read in .pdf format.

5. I Humbly Disagree with Pastor Anderson that Christian Ladies Can Openly Breastfeed in Public Around Men.

I think it is unwise and immodest.

6. I Disagree with Pastor Anderson's Strange "Reprobate Doctrine" Which Says Homosexuals Cannot be Saved.

This [3]heresy falsely claims that God hates homosexuals and has given up on them ever getting saved, banning them from salvation. I do believe the Reprobate Doctrine as Dr. Jack Hyles preached it, which I explain in detail in the preceding article, contrasting what Pastor Hyles taught versus what Pastor Anderson is preaching. I believe there is a point of no return that an unsaved sinner can cross, where they will never get saved; but it is only because of the hardness of their heart, and not because God refuses to save them. Jesus said in John 5:40 that "Ye will not come unto me." He didn't say, "Ye cannot come." Furthermore, in John 6:37 Jesus promised to never cast away anybody who comes to Him for salvation. 2nd Peter 3:9 says that God is not willing for ANY to perish, but that ALL men repent and come to Christ to be saved by faith alone.

7. I Disagree that "Praying" is the Bible Method to Be Saved.

Pastor Anderson does teach that a person CAN be saved without praying, by just believing. He gets that right. But he is very wrong to use Romans 10:13 (a single passage of Scripture) to base a new doctrine which says to be saved, God's normal method is through prayer. Such thinking goes totally contrary to the entire Gospel of John, which is specifically written for the purpose of getting people saved (John 20:31). Nowhere in the Gospel of John are we taught to pray, repent, confess publicly, get water baptized, nor anything else to be saved except simply to BELIEVE. John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that BELIEVETH on me hath everlasting life" [emphasis added]. Praying is NOT the Bible method to get saved. It is not wrong to pray as a result of one's faith, but it is not God's method. God's method is "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved" (Acts 16:30-31).

8. I Disagree with Pastor Anderson that God Hates Homosexuals, Pedophiles, Rapists or Any Other Class of Sinners.

Yes, God hates sin, but not the sinner. Christ died for the ungodly (Romans 5:6-9). Of a truth, we should never accept sin with the sinner, nor reject the sinner with the sin. John 3:16 says that God loves (Greek: agapes) the whole world. God is not fond (Greek: phileo) of their sin. Pastor Anderson mocks and scorns saints like me who look to the Greek to understand the Bible, calling people like me "Chick Phileo Christians." But if Brother Anderson understood the various Bible Greek words for "love," then he would understand that God hates the sin, but never people.

9. I Do Not Agree with Pastor Anderson's Teaching that the Church Replaces Israel (aka, Replacement Theology).

I love and agree 99 % with his "Marching To Zion" movie. I agree that we (saints) are the chosen of God. We are true Jews, not biological Jews. What saith the Scripture? Romans 2:28-29, "For he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh: But he is a Jew, which is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God." Neither biological, ethnic, cultural nor national Jews are the chosen of God, but only born-again Jews and Gentiles (Galatians 3:26-29).

Having said that, there never was a time in the Old Testament where unsaved Jews were God's "chosen."

The Jews were God's people, including unsaved Jews, but the promises DIDN'T apply to them. God's promises have always followed a line of faith. God divorced Israel in 586 BC, turning to the Gentiles to preach the Gospel instead, to provoke the Jews to jealousy. God made way, by faith alone in the Gospel, for any Jews to be graffed back into their tree if they wanted it. Romans 11:23, "And they also, if they abide not still in unbelief, shall be graffed in: for God is able to graff them in again."

But this is only possible through faith in Jesus Christ, otherwise the Jews are cut off and damned to Hell forever. So I do not agree with Replacement Theology. Israel is Israel. The Church is the Church. Israel is coming back, but only when Jesus returns at His Second Coming and the Jews turn toward God (Hosea 3:4-5). No unsaved Jew has or ever will go to Heaven (John 3:3).

10. I Disagree with Pastor Anderson's Interpretation of 1st Corinthians 15:19, "If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable."

I heard a sermon recently by Pastor Anderson, where he mentions a doctrinal quarrel between Dr. John R. Rice and pastor Jack Hyles. These two great soulwinning men often shared preaching meetings together (approximately 2,200 meetings over 20 years).

One night Pastor Hyles preached his sermon first. His text was 1st Corinthians 15:19, saying that even if there were no resurrection and no afterlife, it would be worth living the Christian life anyway. When Brother Hyles finished, Dr. Rice got up and said to the audience that Dr. Hyles doesn't agree with the Apostle Paul. Paul said we would all be miserable if there were no resurrection from the dead, if there is no afterlife. Steven Anderson sided with Dr. Hyles. I am siding with Dr. Rice.

What saith the Scripture? 1st Thessalonians 4:13, "But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope." The Bible says if there is no bodily resurrection and afterlife, then we have NO HOPE and are sorrowful, as the unbelieving. But we do have the "hope of eternal life" (Titus 1:2). Paul teaches about the coming Rapture in 1st Thessalonians 4:13-18, exhorting us to COMFORT one another with these precious truths. So clearly Dr. John R. Rice (1895-1980) is correct with the Apostle Paul, that without the resurrection there would be no hope, no comfort, and we of all men would be utterly miserable. END

Having said all that, I still love, admire and promote Pastor Anderson's soulwinning ministry. Brother Anderson is strongly opinionated, sharp in his tone and harsh in his words, and so am I. 2nd Corinthians 11:6, "But though I be rude in speech, yet not in knowledge; but we have been throughly made manifest among you in all things."

The Apostle Paul came across also as being rude, but Paul said he was not ignorant in knowledge. In other words, Paul knew what he was talking about doctrinally. I do not know of even one Bible preacher with whom I agree on everything. No two preachers completely agree. That is the nature of the journey of finding the truth. We are all at different places on our lifelong journey.

Kindly said, I recently sent Pastor Steven Anderson a Friend Request on [4]Facebook, but he declined to accept me as his friend. That is okay, I am still a friend to him and his ministry. I don't support Brother Anderson because I like him, but because I love him in Christ, and we share a common bond of a love for THE TRUTH. We are also both alumni of Hyles-Anderson College.

By the way, I originally wrote the preceding blog in January of 2022, posted to my [5]Right Doctrine Matters blog. I just decided to share it on my main blog, because I want everyone to know where I stand on these various issues, and also to show my opinion of Pastor Anderson and his ministry. I support anyone who is aggressively soulwinning to get souls saved. I am hated and have lost many ministry friends for supporting Steven Anderson, yet he won't even be my friend. That is people for ya! The 'FUNDAMENTAL 500' just kicked all of my websites off their ranking engine, after 15 years, with no explanation whatsoever. I still have thousands of webpages pointing to the 'FUNDAMENTAL 500' website. That is very unethical what they did.

THE TRUTH dear reader is that most pastors today are either too far to the left, or too far to the right. You've got intense pastors like Pastor Anderson who shamefully preach hatred toward sinners, saying that LGBTQ people cannot be saved (which is not true biblically); but then you've got pastors like Joel Osteen who refuse to preach at all against the sin of homosexuality, letting the church fill up with unrepentant sinners who never feel convicted by God about their sins (because the pastor refuses to preach against sin with the Bible).

A proper balance is this: We should never accept the sin with the sinner, nor reject the sinner with the sin. There is much debate among churchgoers whether gays should be allowed to attend church or not. Dear reader, how can we help people if we ban them from attending church? The argument that gays will molest children is not true. The truth is that family members are far more likely to molest a child than a stranger or homosexual. LGBTQ people are confused, taken captive by the Devil, and [6]they need God's unconditional love. That is my humble opinion as a preacher. I am strongly certain that the 'FUNDAMENTAL 500' axed my websites because of my support of Pastor Anderson, which is unfortunate.

I am trying to remain neutral in this ongoing hatred between the New IFB and the Old IFB. Pastor Bob Gray Sr., Evangelist Samuel Gipp and Pastor Keith Gomez (to name but a few preachers) have all been embattled on social media with Steven Anderson in recent years. But what I love about Pastor Anderson is that HE STANDS against sin, false teachers, fake bibles, false repentance and blatant government corruption. Where is the Old IFB today? Show me some Old IFB preachers who preach hard on social media against the LGBTQ agenda. I love both camps, but the only ones who I see really preaching hard against wickedness is the New IFB. So if the 'FUNDAMENTAL 500' doesn't want to help promote my ministry, then shame on them, it just shows the continual deterioration of fundamentalism in America.

Having said all that, today's preachers woefully lack the main thing that will get people saved more than anything else, compassion. Jude 1:22, "And of some have compassion, making a difference: And others save with fear, pulling them out of the fire; hating even the garment spotted by the flesh." Compassion makes a difference!!! Soulwinning in itself is an act of compassion. People don't care what you know, until they know that you care! People just want to be loved. Friend, if you have a problem with the following picture, then you are not right with God.

We’ve got too many one issue Christians today. That is, they get all bent out of shape over one thing. I know Baptist pastors who despise Steven Anderson because he denies a Pretribulation Rapture. Those pastor won’t have anything to do with Steven Anderson, nor even support missionaries who are affiliated with the Faithful Word Baptist Church. I think that is unfortunate.

Then there are some saints who despise and reject Pastor Anderson because he hates homosexual sinners and teaches that they are beyond the hope of the Gospel. Clearly, Steven Anderson is wrong about this matter. I don’t like what he preaches anymore than you do.

But dear reader, Pastor Anderson is a Christian brother! He is a soulwinning preacher! As a preacher myself, I have always tried to take the good and leave the bad. Sadly, few people seem to be able to do that these days. Dr. Jack Hyles (1926-2001) taught me to take the good and leave the bad, which I humbly think is great advice to live by. Why do we need to reject and shun Pastor Anderson, just because he is flawed?

When Pastor Bob Gray Sr. years ago in 2017 endorsed [8]Johnny Nixon's strange doctrine, [9]teaching that 99 % of homosexuals are really intended by God to be eunuchs (and we should get them saved and working with children), I exposed that crazy lie. Pastor Anderson also exposed Johnny Nixon. I don't know what Dr. Gary was thinking, but he really messed up. But I love Dr. Gray and still support him and his ministry. All we have is each other as Christians. If we don't pray for each other, then no one else will.

4.6.24 Christ In The Old Testament (2023-06-30 15:01)

How much do you really know about the Old Testament Messiah?

Before Jesus Christ came in the flesh, what "known" facts were there concerning the Old Testament Messiah? According to the Gospels there were 7 "known" facts concerning the O.T. Messiah and His coming:

FACT #1 - The O.T. Messiah (or Christ) would be VIRGIN BORN in BETHLEHEM of the human SEED OF DAVID!

VIRGIN BORN
Matthew 1:20-23 and Isaiah 7:14

BETHLEHEM
Matthew 2:1-6 and Micah 5:2

SEED OF DAVID
Luke 3:15 - People in the O.T. knew that the Messiah would come in human form (Hebrews 2:6-8 and Psalm 8:4-6 and Romans 1:2,3 and 2nd Timothy 2:8; Hebrews 1:5 and 2nd Samuel 7:13,14 and 1st Chronicles 17:12,13; Matthew 21:9,15; Psalm 118:25,26; Psalm 132:11; Ezekiel 37:24-26). Matthew Chapter one traces Jesus from the seed of David; thus, establishing Christ's kingly heritage. Though Jesus had NO earthly father, Mary was of the kingly line of David.

FACT #2 - The O.T. Messiah (or Christ) would have a FORERUNNER!

FORERUNNER
John 1:21-23; Isaiah 40:3. There was some confusion in the days of John the Baptist, concerning whether he was Elijah or not. Malachi 4:5,6 prophesies that Elijah will return before the Lord's Second Coming (i.e., during the Tribulation Period). Jesus quoted Malachi 3:1 concerning John the Baptist, saying that Elijah had come. This confused some of the people, because John clearly stated that he was NOT Elijah in John 1:21. Yet, Jesus plainly stated in Matthew 11:14 that John the Baptist was Elijah. Why the discrepancy? Luke 1:17 gives us the answer... "And he shall go before him in the spirit and power of Elias, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just; to make ready a people prepared for the Lord." John the Baptist preached in the spirit and power of Elijah, preparing the hearts of the people to receive their Messiah.

FACT #3 - The O.T. Messiah (or Christ) would be JEHOVAH/ ELOHEEM/ EL in the flesh!

JEHOVAH
Matthew 3:3 and Isaiah 40:3; Revelation 19:11,16 and 20:4-6; Jeremiah 23:5,6 and Psalm 22:27-31 and Psalm 47:1-9 and Psalm 96:10 and Zechariah 14:9; Matthew 21:16 and Psalm 8:1,2; 1st Corinthians 10:9 and Numbers 21:5,6; Ephesians 5:14 and Isaiah 60:1; Ephesians 4:8 and Psalm 68:17-19.

ELOHEEM
Romans 14:9-12 and Isaiah 45:22-23; Hebrews 1:8,9 and Psalm 45:6,7; Revelation 19:11-16 and Psalm 82:8; Revelation 11:15-18 and Exodus 15:18; 1st Corinthians 8:6 and Ephesians 3:9 and Colossians 1:16,17 and Hebrews 1:2,3 and Hebrews 2:10 and Genesis 1:1,26 and Isaiah 44:24.

EL
Matthew 1:23 and Isaiah 7:14; Hebrews 1:10-12 and Psalm 102:24-27; Revelation 1:8 and Isaiah 9:6. The O.T. Messiah came to this earth as God in the flesh!

FACT #4 - The O.T. Messiah (or Christ) would be the SON OF GOD!

SON OF GOD
John 1:48,49 (Nathaniel) - Isaiah 9:6,7
Matthew 14:28-33 (Disciples) - Worship (Exodus 20:3)
Matthew 16:13-16 (Peter) - Proverb 30:4
Matthew 26:63-65 (High Priest) - Psalm 110:1
Luke 1:30-35 (Angel) - Isaiah 7:14
Luke 4:40,41 (Demons)
John 6:67-69 (Peter)
John 11:23-28 (Martha)
John 20:30,31 (John)
Acts 8:26-37 (Ethiopian Eunuch)
Acts 9:17-20 (Paul)

Acts 13:30-33 (Paul) - Psalm 2:7
Hebrews 1:5 (Paul) - 2nd Samuel 7:14 and 1st Chronicles 17:13
Hebrews 11:17-19 (Paul) - Genesis 22:1,2
Jesus is the Son of God - John 10:30-36

FACT #5 - The O.T. Messiah (or Christ) would be the SAVIOR (Light or Redeemer)!

GOD OUR SAVIOR
1st Timothy 4:10 (Paul) - Isaiah 43:3,11; 45:15,21,22; 49:26; 60:16; 63:8
Titus 1:3,4; 2:10-13; 3:4,6 (Paul) - 2nd Samuel 22:3 and Hosea 13:4

CHRIST OUR SAVIOR
Matthew 1:21-25 (Angel) - Job 19:25 (See Isaiah 41:14; 43:14; 44:6; Jeremiah 50:34)
Luke 1:31 (Angel)
Luke 2:11 (Angel)
John 1:29 (John the Baptist) - Genesis 22:8
John 4:42 (Samaritans) - Isaiah 53:4-10
Acts 4:11,12 (Peter)
Acts 13:37-41 (Paul) and Habakkuk 1:5

(It was prophesied in Habakkuk 1:5 that God would work a work which Israel would not believe. It was a 2-fold prophecy. The second part being that Israel would reject the REDEMPTIVE work of Christ according to ACTS 13:37-41).

The O.T. Messiah is the Savior - John 1:6-8 and Luke 2:30-32

FACT #6 - The O.T. Messiah (or Christ) would be the ETERNAL ONE!

ETERNAL ONE
John 12:32-34 and Micah 4:7 and Isaiah 9:6,7 and Psalm 72:15-18; 110:4 and Daniel 7:13,14
Revelation 1:8,11,17,18 and Isaiah 41:4; 44:6; 48:12

FACT #7 - The O.T. Messiah (or Christ; Anointed One; Chosen One; Holy One) would be a PROPHET, PRIEST, & KING

NOTE: The Hebrew word for MESSIAH is the same word for ANOINTED. It is the word MASHIYACH (MAW-SHEE-AKH) which comes from the root word MASHACH (MAW-SHAKH) which means "to rub with oil; anoint." The word MASHIYACH is translated 2 times MESSIAH (Daniel 9:25,26) and 37 times ANOINTED.

In the O.T. there are 3 offices that are referred to as ANOINTED. The offices of Prophet, Priest & King.

PROPHET
1st Chronicles 16:16-22 and Psalm 105:9-15 (Abraham, Isaac & Jacob).
Habakkuk 3:13 (Moses)

PRIEST

Leviticus 4:3,5,16; 6:22; 8:2,10-12 (Aaron)

KING
1st Samuel 10:1; 12:3,5; 15:17; 24:6,10; 26:9,11,16,23 and 2nd Samuel 1:14,16 (Saul)
1st Samuel 16:6,13; 19:21; 22:51; 23:1 and 2nd Samuel 2:4,7; 5:3 and 2nd Chronicles 6:42 and Psalm 18:50; 20:6; 28:8; 132:10,17 (David)
Lamentations 4:20 (Zedekiah)
Isaiah 45:1 (Cyrus)

NOTE: The word MASHIYACH could have been translated MESSIAH 5 times (Daniel 9:25,26 and 1st Samuel 2:10,35 and Psalm 2:2 - See Acts 4:25-27) instead of just 2 times.

These 3 offices undoubtedly picture the 3 great offices of Christ.

PROPHET
John 4:42 (Samaritans) - Deuteronomy 18:15,18,19
John 7:40,41 (Many people) - Deuteronomy 18:15,18,19
Acts 3:20-23 (Peter) - Deuteronomy 18:15,18,19
Acts 7:37 (Stephen) - Deuteronomy 18:15,18,19

PRIEST
Hebrews 5:6; 6:20; 7:14-28 (Paul) - Psalm 110:4

KING
Matthew 2:1-4 (Herod, Priests & Scribes) - Micah 5:2 (Ruler) and Isaiah 44:6 and Isaiah 6:1-5
Matthew 15:31,32 (Chief Priests & Scribes) - Numbers 24:7, 17-19 and 2nd Samuel 7:12,13,16 and Psalm 2:6
Luke 1:31-33 (angel) - Exodus 15:18 and Psalm 45:6; 145:10-13; 146:10
Matthew 22:41-46 (Jesus) - Psalm 110:1-7
Acts 2:30-36 (Peter)
Hebrews 1:13 (Paul)

IN CONCLUSION - Was Jesus the O.T. Messiah?

According to Simeon He was! (Luke 2:25-30)

According to the crowd He wasn’t (Luke 23:34,35)

According to Andrew He was! (John 1:40-42)

According to the High Priest (i.e., the religious crowd) He wasn’t (Matthew 26:62-66)

According to the sinful woman at the well He was! (John 4:24-29)

According to John the Baptist He was! (John 1:6-23)

Good advice - Don’t follow the crowd... follow Jesus. Get in the Word of God!

4.7.1 They Won't Forgive Me At Pensacola Christian College (2023-07-02 15:47)

Isaiah 52:4, "For thus saith the Lord GOD, My people went down aforetime into Egypt to sojourn there; and the Assyrian oppressed them without cause."

Like the Assyrians who oppressed God's people WITHOUT CAUSE, so also was I oppressed by ungodly co-workers throughout my working career. I was spat on, had a 3 lb. hammer thrown at me, found booze bottles and smutty pictures put on my lockers and toolboxes, lied about, had company uniforms stolen (which I had to pay for), falsely accused and fired, mistreated, called "baby Jesus" and a bunch of foul names, I was electrocuted by a charged capacitor that a co-worker charged and put on my toolbox (I jumped a foot in the air), hated without cause, had my radio/ cassette player smashed on the shop floor for playing the Thren and Marshall Family's Christian music (but my heathen co-workers could listen to AC/DC and other demonic garbage), pushed up against trucks in the shop, grabbed by the throat, threatened, belittled, ostracized, shunned, lied about, slandered, bullied and my cowardly shop foreman said to: "get out of the kitchen if you can't take the heat."

I was harassed, stalked, had my car and home keys stolen, had my equipment that I worked on sabotaged, had ripped up Gospel tracts dumped on my toolbox, threatened with death, had a co-worker pull a knife on me in front of the supervisor at the U.S. Postal Service (and she did nothing). I did something, I filed an EEO (Equal Opportunity Employment) complaint against the Postal Service for discrimination. The judge ruled in my favor on the basis of racial and religious discrimination, and after a 3 year court battle I won in 2009, the top Postmaster on Guam was fired, and I was awarded $42,000 in damages. Praise God. Never let thugs bully you! People will do to you whatever you let them do to you.

I have turned the other cheek thousands of times in my life, but just as the lyrics go in Kenny Roger's popular 1979 song titled: "Coward Of The County"..."sometimes you've got to fight when you're a man!"

By the way, that is why I preach against Pensacola Christian College (PCC), because they are bullies. I know bullies when I meet them. All I humbly asked for was to come back to Campus Church, but they refused. Only bullies shun, ostracize and refuse to be nice to people who are begging to reconcile. PCC are arrogant, high-minded and as shallow as can be. I wanted to be their friend, but they said no. So be it, now we are enemies, but that was their choice alone. If someone from PCC leadership contacted me today and asked if we can make peace, I would gladly agree and we could become friends. Everyone thinks I am the bad guy for preaching against PCC, but God knows that PCC are the ones who refuse to reconcile, I still want to make peace. Just because we do not agree doesn’t mean that we cannot be friends, but they don’t want to be friends. I speak this as a testimony against them at PCC.

Their problem at PCC is that they’ve never truly suffered, so they have never been humbled as I have. I have been to the bottom of life multiple times, I bought two small barbeques about 15 year ago to take my own life (by asphyxiation), but by God’s grace I decided to wait another day, and another day, and ever so slowly things improved in the darkest chapter of my life. Pastor Jeff Redlin at PCC thinks he knows suffering, because his car needs a muffler. What ungodly hypocrites! All I wanted was to come back to Campus Church, but they refused. What wicked servants! God forgave them of all their wicked sins, but they won’t even forgive me (their Christian brother) to give me a second chance. I just want to go to church.

I can only conclude that God doesn’t want me at PCC, because they have become ecumenical and corrupt neo-evangelicals, leaving Christian fundamentalism. Their illicit love affair with Bob Jones University (BJU) is sickening. BJU has gone Calvinist, preaching hardcore Lordship Salvation, and since 2018 their girls are permitted to wear pants. President Trump said it well: “[illegible]” —[illegible]

4.7.2 I Don’t Blame Saints Who Stay Home From Church (2023-07-02 16:38)

Matthew 15:7-9, “Ye hypocrites, well did Esaias prophesy of you, saying, This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips; but their heart is far from me. But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.”

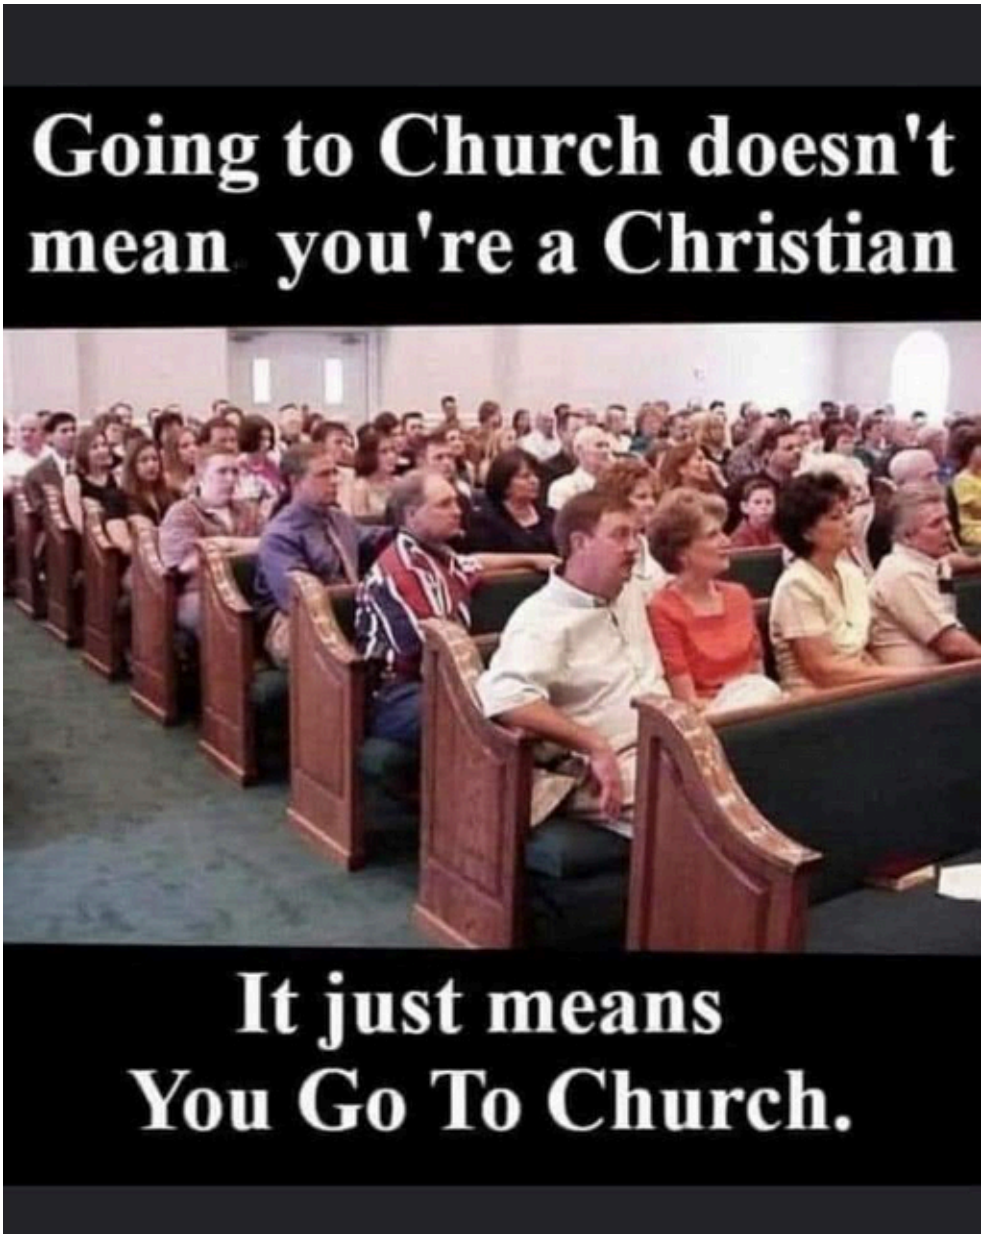
I don’t blame many Christian for not attending any formal church. One of my web visitors sent me a comforting email today, empathizing with me that I was mistreated and banned from attending numerous churches.

If I would have merely kept my mouth shut and went along with the program, I never would have been compelled to leave those churches on Guam and again in Florida, and then permanently banned from attending both the ungodly Harvest Baptist Church on Guam; and then Pensacola Christian College's rotten Campus Church in Pensacola. Those wicked pastors despised me because I spoke up.

Jesus said that out of the abundance of a man's heart the mouth speaketh (Matthew 12:34). I couldn't stay quiet about the heresy, false bibles, counterfeit gospels and praise of false prophets, so I spoke up. In Jeremiah 20:9 the Bible says that God's Word burned in the prophet Jeremiah's heart as a fire, so that he couldn't be quiet and he preached. Likewise, God's Words burns in my heart so that I cannot be quiet, I am compelled to speak up, and I paid for it.

I am comforted by those of my ministry friends who see my pain of soul caused by these wicked hateful pastors, who care only for making more money, sinfully compromising with heretics for the sake of increasing revenues. Thank you to those who read my articles. It means a lot to me that someone is paying attention.

Please don't misunderstand my blog, I do believe that we should all go to a local Bible-believing church. The happiest times in my life have been when I was attending a Bible-believing church. The church is our heavenly family here on earth. The church is our surrogate family. Most people's biological family are scattered all over the place, living in different cities or even countries. So God gave us a surrogate family, which is the local New Testament church. Unfortunately, many saints cannot find a good church in their area. God understands if you cannot find a good church. No one should attend any fake church that preaches a counterfeit plan of salvation; such as, the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation.



I don't blame saints who stay home from church, but my humble Christian advice to everyone is that you are really missing out if you aren't part of a growing church. I [1]recommend to people to [2]find an independent fundamental Baptist church with a Bus Ministry. Look for a church that uses only the King James Bible. Look for a soulwinning church. These are difficult things to find in this untoward generation, in this gender-bending crazy culture today of death and perversion. Even so, come, Lord Jesus!!!

4.7.3 My Neighbours' Dog Loves Me More Than Pensacola Christian College Does (2023-07-02 19:37)

1st John 4:19-21, "We love him, because he first loved us. If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar: for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God whom he hath not seen? And this commandment have we from him, That he who loveth God love his brother also."

Here's my neighbour's dog, Baby. Me and Baby are best buddies, who barbecue together weekly.

As a testimony to God's goodness and man's sinfulness and pride, this dog loves me like a brother; while Pastor Jeff Redlin at Pensacola Christian College won't even forgive me, to allow me to come back to Campus Church, and I AM his brother. Go figure! To think that a dog is more willing to forgive and love me than my Christian brother, Jeff Redlin. Sad, truly sad.

4.7.4 Go And Sin No More (2023-07-04 14:29)

John 8:1-11, "Jesus went unto the mount of Olives. And early in the morning he came again into the temple, and all the people came unto him; and he sat down, and taught them. And the scribes and Pharisees brought unto him a woman taken in adultery; and when they had set her in the midst, They say unto him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act. Now Moses in the law commanded us, that such should be stoned: but what sayest thou? This they said, tempting him, that they might have to accuse him. But Jesus stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground, as though he heard them not. So when they continued asking him, he lifted up himself, and said unto them, He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her. And again he stooped down, and wrote on the ground. And they which heard it, being convicted by their own conscience, went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, even unto the last: and Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst. When Jesus had lifted up himself, and saw none but the woman, he said unto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee? She said, No man, Lord. And Jesus said unto her, Neither do I condemn thee: go, and sin no more.

I was thinking about this precious passage of Scripture today. The Lord was always willing to forgive sinners. The wicked Scribes and Pharisees dragged this terrified woman to Christ, ready to stone her to death. What a bunch of rotten hypocrites! Jesus knew their wicked hearts and write on the ground. What don't know what he wrote, but if I were to take a good guess, I'd say: "Where's the man?" From the eldest to the youngest they all walked away.

Dear reader, there is total forgiveness in Jesus Christ. When God saves us, He separates our sins as far as the east is from the west. Did you know that east and west never meet? If you get an an airplane and keep flying west, you'll never reach east. The same is true if you fly east, you will never find west. But if you fly north, you will be going south after you cross over the North Pole. And if you travel south, you'll find north as soon as you pass over Antarctica. God is so wonderful to say that He will separate us from our sins, as far as the east is from the west. Psalms 103:12, " As far as the east is from the west, so far hath he removed our transgressions from us.

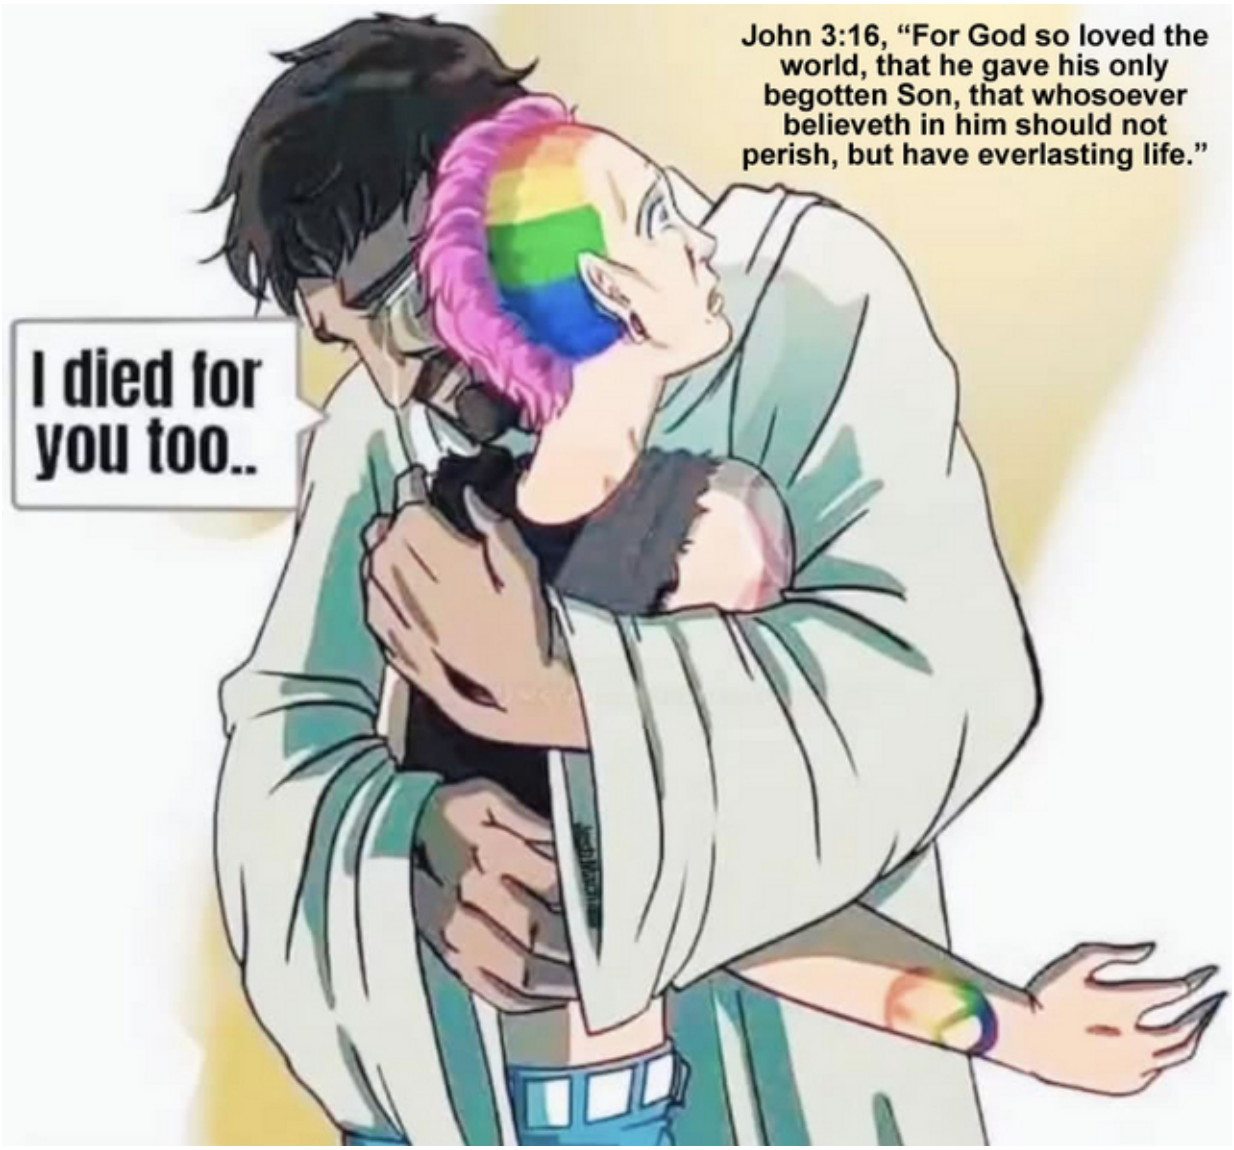
God is more than amazing! I took this photo a couple days ago of some flowers in my front yard. Wow, God's handiwork is so awesome! ...



If you are a born-again child of God, then all of your sins (past, present and future) are forgiven. Those sins have all been washed away by the precious blood of Jesus. Dear friend, all God expects for you and me, if you are saved, is that we do better. God simply wants us to move forward and SIN NO MORE! Obviously no one can live without committing sin, but the Lord simply wants us to do our best with His help to depart from iniquity.

We need to make a clear distinction between the saved and the unsaved. If you are saved, then all of your sins have already been forgiven and forgotten as far as your POSITION in Christ is concerned. This is the believer's SONSHIP, not DISCIPLESHIP. Discipleship is our service for Christ, following Him in obedience. This has nothing to do with SALVATION.

Justification is when we get saved ("

Just-If-I'd

" never sinned at all). We are not saved by our goodness, but by God's goodness. We are saved by HIS RIGHTEOUSNESS (Matthew 6:33). We are saved by God's imputed righteousness, which is by faith alone (Romans 4:4-7). And then after we are saved, now we need to make a second decision, if we are going to take up our cross to follow Christ as His disciple, which is sanctification.

Romans 5:5-9, “And hope maketh not ashamed; because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us. For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly. For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die. But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him.”

4.7.5 How Pastor Steven Anderson Greatly Hurts His Ministry (2023-07-04 18:04)

John 3:16-17, "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved." ... Luke 9:56, "For the Son of man is not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them. And they went to another village."

I love Baptist Pastor Steven Anderson's zeal for the Lord. He's one of my favorite preachers. I am on the side of anyone who is a friend of the truth. I'd rather do right wrongly, than to do wrong rightly. I'd rather see a preacher with wild fire, than no fire! Yet, for the sake of my web visitors and those under the voice of my preaching, I want you to know the truth. My loyalty is to the Lord Jesus Christ, and not to any man, whether dead or alive.

I want to be fair in my article. I have given much thought to this matter, because there is a lot of controversy. To begin, I'd like to quote something important that Pastor Anderson said:

> "Anybody, who's been thrown out of the church, can come back whenever they want, to get right with God, renounce heresy, and embrace the Biblical doctrine of the Trinity." —Pastor Steven Anderson, a helpful quote from the excellent sermon titled, "[1]Unbiblical Reasons: Why We Accept People Who Are Thrown Out."

Although speaking in regards to the Godhead (aka, "Trinity"), I have also heard Brother Anderson say elsewhere that repentant former homosexuals are welcome in his church. It is very important that you understand dear reader that there is a big difference between someone who used to be a homosexual, verses someone who is still living a homosexual lifestyle (open sin). What saith the Scripture? 1st Timothy 5:19-20, "Against an elder receive not an accusation, but before two or three witnesses. Them that sin rebuke before all, that others also may fear."

The context of this Scripture passage concerns everyone, particularly elders in the church who sin. It is clear from this passage that God is not speaking about open sin in the church, otherwise you wouldn't need two or three witnesses to verify the sin. No where in the Word of God do we find a picture of a local church where open sin was tolerated in their midst.

The Bible teaches Christians not to fellowship closely with professed Christians who live in open sin:

> 1st Corinthians 5:11-13, "But now I have written unto you not to keep company, if any man that is called a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such an one no not to eat. or what have I to do to judge them also that are without? do not ye judge them that are within? But them that are without God judgeth. Therefore put away from among yourselves that wicked person."

Most people today form their opinions based upon what they are spoon-fed by the ungodly media. That is very wrong to do. Our opinions ought to be formed from searching the Scriptures, and not from public opinion polls, government statistics or what Megyn Kelly, Sean Hannity or God forbid, sodomite Anderson Copper thinks. So I do agree with Pastor Steven Anderson's Biblical position of kicking unrepentant sinners out of the church. If you don't like that, then you don't agree with God, because I just told you what God says. 1st Corinthians 5:13b, "Therefore put away from among yourselves that wicked person."

Let me also say that I sincerely believe if the right kind of preaching is coming from a pulpit, homosexuals won't want to remain in a Bible-preaching church. John 3:20, "For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved." If a pastor is doing his duty, renouncing homosexuality as a wicked sin, and a file and perverse offense against a holy God, you're not going to have a problem with LGBTQ flocking into your congregation. Sodomites would love an apostate counterfeit church like 'Elevation Church' with [2]Pastor Steven Furtick in North Carolina, where he tickles their ears and scratches their backs with religious mumbo-jumbo.

> "Listening sometimes is a way to express that you care." —Pastor Jeff Owens, "[3]Who Cares Anyhow?"

How I Believe Pastor Anderson Greatly Hurts His Ministry

Now having said all that in support of Pastor Anderson, I also believe Brother Anderson's lack of love for sinners greatly hinders his work for the Lord. Brother Anderson preaches that God hates homosexuals, and that they are beyond any hope of repentance. I totally disagree with that assertion. [4]There Is Not Such Thing As A Reprobate Who Cannot be Saved. 2nd Peter 3:9, "The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance."

In his [5]public radio interview while he was preaching in Botswana, Africa, pastor Anderson horribly said:

> "There was an old man who told me that he was a homosexual. And I told him that he must leave. After asking him to leave two times, politely, I took him and I dragged him out. And bouncers do it in bars every day, because it's our private property. We had the right not to allow homosexuals into the church. The Bible says... You cannot help the homosexual. ... In Romans chapter one it says that God gave them up. There's nothing we can do for them, it's too late for them!"
> SOURCE: [6]Full Botswana Radio Interview With Pastor Steven Anderson

You know, if I were that preacher and a man came into the church saying, "I am a homosexual!," I would have immediately told him, "Sir, God loves you and so do I. We're glad you're here, have a seat my friend." Now, that is how I would have handled the matter. I don't understand a man of God dragging a professed sinner out of a church! What would it have hurt to let the man hear the preaching of the Gospel?

The church is a hospital for sinners, is it not? Some people don't agree that a church is a hospital for sinners, but I think it certainly is, because we are all sinners! Hey, would a sick person be allowed to go around a hospital deliberately infecting other patients? No way! Security would kick you out! It is the same with a church. Sinners come to church to get help, and if someone decides to cause trouble, and make other church members sick, then the Bible says to remove them! 1st Corinthians 5:13b, "Therefore put away from among yourselves that wicked person."

Is it too late for homosexuals? No, it is never too late to repent and believe the Gospel. Does the Bible say that God gives up on sodomites coming to repentance? No where in the Bible are we taught that any sinners are beyond the reach and hope of God's saving grace. Isaiah 1:18, "Come now, and let us reason together, saith the LORD: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool." No one is beyond hope! Romans 10:13, "For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved." The precious word "WHOSEVER" means you my friend!

There was a problem in the church of Corinth, where a man and woman were living together in open fornication, but the church elders weren't dealing with it (1st Corinthians 5:1-5). Open sin ought never be tolerated in a church, but everyone ought to be welcomed. The apostle Paul didn't say to kick them out right away. Paul said to confront them about the sin, and give them a chance to repent. That is the Bible way. It could be that a new couple in the church is truly not aware of the awfulness of their sin, and they simply need to be kindly confronted. If they refused to repent of the sin, then they need to be asked to leave until they are willing to obey God.

[8]

[9] The Unrighteous Are Welcome Here!

(an awesome MP3 sermon by Pastor Jeff Owens)

I think the proper thing for Brother Anderson to do is to teach that God loves everyone unconditionally, which is why God sent His only begotten Son to the cross to die for the sins of all men. To say that God hates a certain class of sinners, to me, is a form of Calvinism (i.e., limited atonement). If God doesn't love all men, then why did Christ die for all men? Does not the Scripture teach in John 3:16, "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life." So I disagree with Pastor Anderson, respectfully, that God hates anybody. I think it hurts his ministry when he preaches a message of hating people, instead of hating what God hates, which is evil. Psalms 97:10, "Ye that love the LORD, hate evil: he preserveth the souls of his saints; he delivereth them out of the hand of the wicked."

I love this quote from Pastor Anderson, speaking out against today's new-evangelical groups:

> "The TRUTH is a thousand times more powerful than what these liberal churches are selling. The truth is so concentrated that just one drop of the real unadulterated truth of THE GOSPEL—hard preaching—one clear 10-minute presentation of the Gospel, is more powerful than one hundred hours of NOTHINGNESS in their 'BLAH!' church or school!" —[10]Pastor Steven L. Anderson; awesome YouTube sermon: "[11]The Dechristianization Of Our Nation" | [12]MP3

Pastors Have a Duty to Preach the Whole Counsel of God

In an ideal situation, a pastor will preach hard against all sin, without compromise. Since homosexuality is being promoted worldwide today by the ungodly, preachers need to counter this ungodly trend with more preaching against homosexuality in all its forms (i.e., transgenderism, unisex, feminism, effeminate males, masculine females). The churches are under brutal Satanic attack today. You are no longer allowed to have your own opinion in America today. Pastor Grayson Fritts found this out the hard way (and I commend him for speaking the truth that homosexuals should be put to death by the law). The ungodly LGBTQ agenda has pastors running scared.

In the first of the preceding videos, Pastor Lawson is condemning [13]Pastor Grayson Fritts (and shame on Pastor Lawson for doing so!). Pastor Lawson makes a disparaging comment about Pastor Steven Anderson, calling him: "THAT NUT OUT IN ARIZONA!" Isn't that terrible? Pastor Lawson ought to be ashamed of himself! I also heard [14]Pastor Lawson wrongfully accuse Pastor Jack Hyles of leaving off repentance. No, it is Charles Lawson who is a corrupt Calvinist, who adds works to grace and perverts the free gift of God, which is eternal life. The ungodly media actually did Grayson Fritts a big favor, who has been given an early retirement buyout in Knoxville, Tennessee, after 30 years as a decorated police officer and detective. [15]Shame on the ungodly newsmedia for their sick perversion!

Instead of standing by the man of God, he abandons and condemns him for preaching THE TRUTH! In the second video, Pastor Lawson himself upholds (even quoting) the Word of God, which says that a convinced homosexual ought to be put to death! If you don't agree with that, then you don't believe the Bible! Some ungodly reprobate accused Pastor Fritts of [16]Not Loving Thy Neighbor, accompanied by a LGBTQ rainbow flag, which is a gross perversion of the truth. If you think that loving your neighbour means not agreeing with God, then you are a stupid fool! I'll say it again, if you think that loving your neighbour means not agreeing with God's Word, then you are A STUPID FOOL! I stand with Pastor Grayson Fritts, who says he will throw professed homosexuals out of the church.

May I say with all surety, God hasn't changed (Malachi 3:6) over 3,500 years since he gave Moses the LAW.

Leviticus 20:13, "If a man also lie with mankind, as he lieth with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination: they shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them."

If the U.S. government honored the holy God of the Bible, they would outlaw homosexuality and make it a capital offense, incurring the death penalty. Unfortunately, ungodly Luciferian-worshipping Freemasons control America (evidenced by their [17]occult erect phallus symbol overshadowing our nation's capital). Consequently, all manner of wickedness is legal in America: Abortion, same-sex marriage, Federal Reserve Banking fraud, 501c3 church licensing fraud, deliberate open borders, the War On Drugs fraud, dumbing down our children scandal, et cetera.

At their highest levels (unbeknownst to 97 % of lower initiates) Freemasonry serves the Devil. I grieve in frustration at every Supreme Court ruling, and at election time, watching the woeful ignorance of millions of Christians in our nation, who actually think their voice or vote can make a difference. It won't, because Lucifer is the god of this world, and Freemasons have controlled our nation from its inception in 1776.

The inspired Word of God teaches that homosexuality is a sin, and they ought to receive the death penalty. Romans 3:4, "God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged."

The ungodly newsmedia spins a preacher's words, as they sinfully did Grayson Fritts' words, instead saying: "Grayson Fritts calls for killing LGBTQ!," making it sound like people should just go on a hunt to murder homosexuals. That is NOT what Grayson Fritts said from his church pulpit. Pastor Fritts was simply teaching what the Holy Bible teaches in Leviticus 20:13, that homosexuals should be put to death by the courts of the government. Ungodly reprobates will always change the truth into a lie, which is what they also do to the truth of God's Word.

Romans 1:25, "Who changed the truth of God into a lie, and worshipped and served the creature more than the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen." Anyone in the media who says that Pastor Fritts calls for killing of LGBTQ is being dishonest! To say that a pastor believes the government should enact a law that punishes homosexuality with the death penalty is VERY different than accusing a pastor of saying LGBTQ should be killed! It is hate speech, intentionally meant to be inflammatory and anger people! That is what the ungodly newsmedia does—inciting hatred, anger and hostility against God-fearing Christians! Truthfully, when life is all over, the wicked will be burning in Hell and we will be vindicated as God's children.

Pastor Grayson Fritts and Pastor Steven Anderson and Pastor Roger Jimenez are faithfully preaching against sin! My problem is when these men errantly teach that God hates homosexuals, which is not true. And I don't agree when they say LGBTQ are beyond the reach and hope of the Gospel, so why bother? I heard pastor Anderson say yesterday in episode 4 of "Steven Anderson Uncensored" on YouTube, that he has never led one Mormon to the Lord! Yet, he continues to witness to Mormons, right? So why should it be any different with other hardened sinners like homosexuals?

I humbly think that it hurts Pastor Anderson's ministry, and unfortunately he is influencing thousands of people to follow his unbiblical views on hating sinners and giving up on homosexuals. I have heard him say that homosexuals should do the world a favor by putting a bullet in their own head. That is hate speech, not Bible-preaching! Homosexuals should be executed by the government, period. To say anything else is unbiblical. Albeit, I side with Pastor Anderson because he may be doing right wrongly at times, but that is infinitely better than doing wrong rightly as the ungodly media does.

I agree with Pastor Anderson that God is against the sodomites. God is against all unrepentant sinners! Psalms 7:11 teaches that "God is angry with the wicked every day." John 3:36 says that God's wrath abideth upon all Christ-rejecters! 1st Peter 3:12, "For the eyes of the Lord are over the righteous, and his ears are open unto their prayers: but the face of the Lord is against them that do evil." God is no respecter of persons (Romans 2:11). No one can commit sin and get away with it!

Many pious preachers love to quote Romans chapter one to condemn homosexuals, but no one ever considers Romans 2:1-2, "Therefore thou art inexcusable, O man, whosoever thou art that judgest: for wherein thou judgest another, thou condemnest thyself; for thou that judgest doest the same things. But we are sure that the judgment of God is according to truth against them which commit such things." I have news for you, all those who condemn homosexuals: YOU ARE JUST AS MUCH A SINNER!!!

The only difference between the vilest sodomite and me is that I have been washed in the blood of the Lamb! PRAISE GOD! I am just as much of a dirty sinner as any gossiper, idolater, adulterer, murderer, liar, fornicator, drunkard, cheat and embezzler!!! And may I kindly say, SO ARE YOU! We're all wicked! James 2:10, "For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all." I love you all in the Lord, whoever you may be.

Kindly, I heard Brother Anderson say in the preceding radio interview that he hates homosexuals. But what about other types of sinners; such as, drunkards, thieves, fornicators, blasphemers, adulterers, coveters, railers, liars, et cetera. Why only hate a particular group of sinners? I cannot even imagine hating anyone, certainly not a particular group of sinners. If I had to pick a group of sinners to hate though, it would be the neo-evangelical pastors today who (despite being repeatedly warned) continue to preach from satanic Bible revisions, and teach a false Gospel of Lordship Salvation that doesn't produce the new birth in Christ Jesus. I'm not worried about the pervert sodomites, I'm worried about the pervert Baptist preachers! But still, I don't hate those Baptist preachers either.

Brother Lester Roloff (1914-1982) used to say, "There's no pervert like the Gospel pervert!" I am more worried about children being left along with Baptist perverts, who teach from the "Easy-To-Read Version" (ERV), "[18]Good News For Modern Man" (GNB), "The Voice" (VOICE), "New International Version" (NIV), et cetera. These are all grossly perverted Bible revisions of the Devil. Only the precious King James Bible can be trusted!!!

So I might drag a few Baptist preachers out of the church by the seat of their pants, to tar and feather them out back; but I'd never drag out a needy sinner, simply because he said that he's a homosexual. That's ridiculous! You don't manhandle an elderly man and drag him out of a church. That is not God's unconditional love. I would have kindly said to the man: "SINNERS ARE WELCOMED HERE, FRIEND!" I would have preached the Devil out of sin (all sin) during the scheduled pulpit sermon, and included a clear Gospel presentation afterwards.

At the end of the meeting, Brother Anderson refused to hug the homosexual minister with whom he was debating, saying that he was a filthy child-molesting pervert, and had been digging in unhygienic and disgusting places as sodomites do. Jude 1:22, "And of some have compassion, making a difference." The Lord commands us as believers to always love our enemies, and never to hate them. Please listen to the excellent MP3 sermon by Pastor Jack Hyles titled, "[19]The Test Of Spiritual Maturity." Jesus called Judas, "friend." You either love all or you love none!

> “If there’s anybody in the Bible that God had disdain for, it was those that had disdain for other sinners!” —an awesome quote from the MP3 sermon by Dr. Jack Hyles titled, “[20]If Thou Should Mark Iniquities, Who Could Stand?”

I tremendously admire Pastor Steven Anderson, God knows my heart. He certainly has the attention of tens-of-thousands of people across America. I love a guy who says it like it is, uncompromisingly, without apology. Pastor Anderson has the potential to be a mighty preacher, but he’ll never be anything more than a popular preacher until he learns to love everyone as a man of God should, including filthy sinners like me and you, and sodomites, and the vilest of humanity, for whom Jesus Christ was willing to die on the cross! I say that with all due respect for Brother Anderson.

Dear reader, I did not write this article to turn anyone against Pastor Anderson, he is doing that by himself, I simply wanted to express my humble opinion in this matter, which I sincerely believe agrees with God’s Word. Steven Anderson has never been a pastor before, so he is still learning, so please keep that in mind. He’s a good guy and we need preachers like him dearly in this untoward generation. I am on the side of those who tell THE TRUTH. The church on its worst day is better than the world on its best day.

Shame On the New IFB Movement for Bullying Preachers

Despite his rough edges, I fully support Pastor Anderson’s ministry. I pray for him often, hoping that someday he will learn that people just want to be loved, and that people will not tolerate hatred, which is why he has been banned from traveling in over 40 countries. People will NOT tolerate hatred. Hatred just breeds more hatred. I have lost umpteen friends and ministry support over the years, because I support Pastor Anderson’s ministry.

Yet, not too long ago I sent Steven Anderson a “ Friend Request

on Facebook, but he declined my request. Great guy, huh? I’ve lost tons of ministry support over him and he won’t even receive me as a friend. Go figure! I’ve heard Pastor Anderson complain numerous times in his preaching, whining that the Old IFB won’t embrace him and his Baptist ministry, even though he vehemently denies the traditional Baptist position of a Pretribulation Rapture. Well, what do you expect when you hate everybody who disagrees with you?

The Old independent Baptist movement (Old IFB) despise and loath Steven Anderson for many reasons, primarily because he continually bashes, berates, trashes and condemns the Old IFB. Kindly said, Pastor Anderson is a bully! I stand with him when he preaches hard and takes a firm biblical stand against doctrinal nuts like Johnny Nixon and his “

[21]Born That Way

” insanity.

However, Anderson's habit of bullying those who disagree with him is childish and unscriptural. There is an army across America of cult followers in the New IFB. I don't think Pastor Anderson wants to be a cult leader, but his followers have appointed him as one. I have heard Brother Anderson downplay the idea of people idolizing him, exhorting them rather to follow only the inspired King James Bible. Unfortunately, no matter what he says, he still his a hateful army of thugs that will bully anybody who disagrees with the New IFB.

The Shameful Bulling of Norm Diamante by 'New IFB' Preachers

Case in point is Onorato (Norm) Diamante. [22]Here is one of many shameful YouTube videos in which the New IFB (in this video, Pastor Jonathan Shelley) gang up on Norm to discredit and belittle him. [23]Here is Steven Anderson calling Norm a fool. In so doing, Pastor Anderson also calls Dr. Jack Hyles a fool, because in his sermon titled, "[24]FUNDAMENTALIST HERESY, Pastor Hyles teaches that faith is enough to be saved, without saying a prayer.

It is important to point out here that at 15:45 in the preceding video by Pastor Anderson, he plainly states that you CAN be saved by just faith, without praying. But Pastor Jonathan Shelley in the preceding video teaches that you MUST pray to be saved. So as we see, there is disagreement among New IFB preachers. I have noticed that the ringleader of the New IFB is Brother Anderson. Arguably he is their movement leader. Whatever Steven Anderson accepts or rejects becomes the agenda for the rest of the New IFB.

New IFB preachers think it strange and unbiblical to teach that you don't have to pray to be saved. There are multiple heresies taught in these two videos that I just shared with you by Pastors' Jonathan Shelley and Steven Anderson. They misrepresent Norm Diamante. For example: Pastor Anderson falsely accuses Norm of attacking soulwinning. No, Norm is not doing that. Norm is simply correctly teaching (as I have been doing for the past 21 years of website ministry) that you don't have to pray a prayer to be saved, faith is enough.

Pastor Shelley in the preceding video shows a clip of Norm Diamante going door-to-door soulwinning, in which he leads a young woman to pray a Sinner's Prayer. Clearly, Norm is not against using a Sinner's prayer while witnessing to people, he is simply making it clear that you don't have to pray to be saved; nor is repeating a "1-2-3, follow me" type of prayer God's method of getting saved. God's method is to simply BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST (Acts 16:30-31). I am not against soulwinners using a Sinner's Prayer to lead others to Christ, although I don't like or use it myself anymore because it can cause confusion.

A good rule to follow when interpreting the Bible is to never use an obscure passage to contradict a clear one. The New IFB are guilty of taking obscure passages of Scripture out of context, while completely ignoring clear passages of Scripture. For example: New IFB preachers like to run to Romans 10:13, "For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved."

Yet, in the Gospel of John we find the word

"believe" mentioned 85 times, without any mention of calling, praying, confessing or repenting. John 20:31, "But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name." As we just read, the Gospel of John is God's Gospel tract.

Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do. The man who believes has repented, and the man who repents has believed. [25]I have written numerous blogs and [26]webpage articles on this important topic , if you would like to read more my friend.

Here is a very good video in which Norm Diamante exposes the lie that you have to call or pray to be saved.

Fundamentalist Heresy w/ The New IFB

In this video by [27]Steven Anderson teaches that your words save you when you pray, because of your faith. He alleges that prayer and faith are inseparable, just like repentance and faith. I agree that a lost sinner who prays from a heart of faith is saved, but it is NOT the words that save him, it is faith. Galatians 3:26, "For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus." It is improper doctrine to say that we are saved by our words. Although it is perfectly normal and acceptable for a person to call upon the Lord in their heart with silent words, or to pray audibly with words (if they would like to do so), the Bible is very clear that salvation happened at the moment of faith. The words were prompted by a heart of faith in Jesus. Romans 10:14, "How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher?"

There is a potential danger of leading people in a Sinner's Prayer to be saved. For several years after I got saved at age 13, I feared that I wasn't saved. I knew that prayer didn't save me, but I was was misled by preachers to think that prayer was the mechanism by which faith is exercised. I was lied to, just as the New IFB are misleading people. If you would like to read a detailed explanation of what I suffered through because of lying preachers, please read my heartfelt article: '[28]WHAT IF AI AM NOT SAVED?'

This is likely why Pastor Anderson refused to accept me as a friend on Facebook, because I expose his false teachings, and so be it. Steven Anderson is my Christian brother, and I love him for his courageous stand against sin, false teachers and false doctrine; but [29]I humbly disagree with him on at least ten things. Norm Diamante is 100 % correct on the Gospel of free grace. You don't have to pray, call or confess with your mouth to be saved, you simply need to BELIEVE ON CHRIST. John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life."

John 20:31, "But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name." As we just read, the Gospel of John is God's Gospel tract. Please don't forget that fact.

People Just Want To Be Loved

In case you didn't know, Steven Anderson started his Faithful Word Baptist Church in Tempe, Arizona in 2006. That was the beginning of the so-called New IFB (new independent fundamental Baptist movement). The one thing that hinders and hurts Pastor Anderson's ministry and reputation is his hatred for sinners, instead of hating the sin and loving the person.

The truth is that we should hate the sin but not the sinner. Steven Anderson errantly [30]teaches his church members to hate people.

In his sermon,

[31]Sodomy,

I heard Dr. Jack Hyles say that homosexuals are the hardest group of sinners to get saved. But Dr. Hyles tried. In that sermon Pastor Hyles says that he knows of at least 20 homosexuals in his church at the First Baptist Church of Hammond, Indiana. Dr. Hyles loved the sinner and tried to help them, but he hated and preached against the sin.

The Bible teaches in 1st Corinthians chapter 13 that no amount of faith, ministry labors or preaching matters if we fail to love people. The unsaved world are still people. People will not tolerate hatred. God is love. Psalms 97:10 commands all believers to HATE EVIL, but not to hate sinners. Kindly said, Pastor Anderson has the wrong mindset that homosexuals are reprobates who cannot be saved, so why bother. What saith the Scripture? 2nd Peter 3:9,

"The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance."

4.7.6 Life Changing Quotes By Pastor Curtis Hutson (2023-07-06 00:00)

Revelation 3:2 and 15, “Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God.” ...“I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot. So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth.”

Dr. Curtis Hutson (1934-1995)

One of my favorite preachers is Curtis Hutson. Most of all I love that Pastor Hutson gets the free grace Gospel 100 % right, which is rare nowadays. Any honest person will see THE TRUTH of a free grace Gospel. Here are a handful of life changing quotes by Brother Hutson, to God be the glory. I encourage you to help me share these quotes on social media to edify other people's lives...

"Our lifestyle, language, attitudes, and manner of dress reflect on His name. He leads us in paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Unless you are honestly convinced that the thing in question will bring glory to God, then don't do it." —Pastor Curtis Hutson

"The only alternative to soul winning is disobedience to Christ." —Pastor Curtis Hutson (2000); "Bread for Believers," p. 83; Sword of the Lord Publishers

"Faith and repentance are the same; they are not two separate decisions. One cannot trust Christ as Savior without repenting or changing his mind. The very fact that he trusts Christ for salvation shows that he has changed his mind regarding sin, salvation, and God." —Pastor Curtis Hutson (2000); "Salvation Crystal Clear," p. 331; Sword of the Lord Publishers

"No one will ever go to Hell who has put his trust in Jesus Christ, but many will end up in torment who have trusted their own righteousness and reformation." —Pastor Curtis Hutson

"When the believer is faced with a decision regarding a questionable matter, he should never proceed unless he has complete peace about it. If there is nothing wrong with it, then God is able to give complete peace." —Pastor Curtis Hutson

"When praying for the Lord's will about something questionable, don't give up if you don't receive clear leading after one prayer; just keep on praying until God makes it clear." —Pastor Curtis Hutson

"When the honest, sincere Christian is faced with the decision regarding whether a thing is right or wrong, he should ask, does it agree with all that the Scripture has to say on the subject?" —Pastor Curtis Hutson (2000); "Bread for Believers," p.278, Sword of the Lord Publishers

"In any matter where we have questions, we have a right to ask the Holy Spirit to lead us and to expect His gentle guiding." —Pastor Curtis Hutson (2000); "Bread for Believers", p. 282, Sword of the Lord Publishers

"I maintain that anything short of truth is a lie. But I also maintain that anything beyond truth is a lie. If you tell a man he can be saved, without believing on Christ, you've come short of the truth; but if you go beyond the truth and tell a man he's saved by believing plus being baptized, plus keeping the Ten Commandments, plus enduring to the end, you've gone beyond truth. I say we ought to stick with what the Bible says, even if it doesn't coincide with what we've always thought it meant." —Dr. Curtis Hutson, "The Determining Factor In Salvation"

“The fella who knows what repentance is knows it’s included in believing.” —Pastor Curtis Hutson

“You’ll even change your mind about repentance if you get saved. You are going to have to repent about your idea of repentance to be saved. Because if you have felt repentance is reformation, or turning from sin, and you’re going to turn from sin to get saved, then you’re not going to get saved until you change your mind about that idea, and decide that you’re saved by the substitutionary death of Jesus Christ on the cross. Then you’ve repented over your repentance!” —Pastor Curtis Hutson

“The moment a man trusts Jesus Christ as Saviour, he is given everlasting life. And it is understood without explanation that everlasting life lasts forever.” —Dr. Curtis Hutson

“Faith and repentance are the same; they are not two separate decisions. One cannot trust Christ as Savior without repenting or changing his mind. The very fact that he trusts Christ for salvation shows that he has changed his mind regarding sin, salvation and God.” —Pastor Curtis Hutson (2000); “Salvation Crystal Clear,” p. 331; Sword Of The Lord Publishers

“But we’ve so muddied the Gospel, that when men want to make a decision to trust Christ, we’ve made it so complicated that they can’t make a simple decision to ’Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved.’ We’ll say, ’If you don’t do this’ or ’You don’t do that’ or ’You haven’t done that,’ you’re not saved’; but the truth of the matter is that when asked in the Bible, ’Sirs, what must I do to be saved?,’ one clear simple answer was given to him — ’Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved.”’ —Pastor Curtis Hutson

“Whatever your circumstances, stay happy in the Lord and in His work.” —Dr. Curtis Hutson

“Faith and repentance are the same; they are not two separate decisions. One cannot trust Christ as Savior without repenting or changing his mind. The very fact that he trusts Christ for salvation shows that he has changed his mind regarding sin, salvation, and God.” —Pastor Curtis Hutson

“When the honest, sincere Christian is faced with the decision regarding whether a thing is right or wrong, he should ask, does it agree with all that the Scripture has to say on the subject?” —Pastor Curtis Hutson

“I don’t like this other gospel. I like the gospel of the clear waters, the grace of God, and I don’t want nobody throwing mud in it. Take your dirty hands off of it, buddy. Saved by grace, through faith. Boy, when we get to heaven, we’re going to sing it. When you get to heaven, you’re going to sing, ’Thou are worthy. For thou hast redeemed us. By thy blood. Out of every kindred, every tongue, and every nation.’ You’re not going to say, ’We are worthy. Because we have been committed, and surrendered, and yielded.’ No, you’ll say, ’Thou art worthy.’ These Lordship Salvation folk, if they make it to heaven, won’t have anything to talk about in heaven. Because it’s going to be grace up there. ...We’ll sing Amazing Grace up there. Not Amazing Surrender and Lordship and Commitment." —Pastor Curtis Hutson

"You see, we not only believe the fundamentals of the faith, we believe in Ecclesiastical Separation. You don't yoke up with somebody that is not saved and call him a Christian brother!" —Pastor Curtis Hutson

"To add anything to salvation other than the sacrificial death of Jesus on the cross is to say that His death was not sufficient payment for our sins." —Dr. Curtis Hutson

"A man does not have to abide in Christ to be saved. He must trust Christ, believe that He died to pay his sin debt and by faith receive Him as Saviour. Salvation is a free gift of God." —Dr. Curtis Hutson

"In spinning a robe of your own righteousness, before the sun goes down you will find it all unraveled." —Pastor Curtis Hutson (2000); "Salvation Crystal Clear," p.39; Sword of the Lord Publishers

"If turning from your sins means to stop sinning, then people can only be saved if they stop sinning. And it is unlikely that anyone has ever been saved, since we don't know anyone who has ever stopped sinning." —Pastor Curtis Hutson

“Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do!” —Pastor Jack Hyles, “[3]God’s Reversal Of Psalm 51”

“Dear sinner, do not make this a difficult matter. There is [4]one simple step between you and Jesus. When you trust Him, everything else is settled, and you have repented, you have come to Christ, you have received Him, you have done everything necessary to be saved.” —Evangelist John R. Rice, “[5]What Must I Do To Be Saved?”

“If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people.” —Evangelist John Bunyan (1628-1688)

4.7.7 How The Apostles Died (2023-07-06 11:10)

John 13:37, "Peter said unto him, Lord, why cannot I follow thee now? I will lay down my life for thy sake."

1. Matthew. Suffered martyrdom in Ethiopia, killed by a sword wound.
2. Mark. Died in Alexandria, Egypt , after being dragged by horses through the streets until he was dead.
3. Luke. Was hanged in Greece as a result of his tremendous preaching to the lost.
4. John. Faced martyrdom when he was boiled in huge Basin of boiling oil during a wave of persecution in Rome. However, John was miraculously delivered from death. John was then sentenced to the mines on the prison Island of Patmos. He wrote the prophetic Book of Revelation on the isle of Patmos. The Apostle John was later freed and returned to serve as Bishop of Edessa in modern Turkey. He died as an old man, the only apostle to die peacefully.
5. Peter. He was crucified upside down on an x-shaped cross. According to church tradition it was because Peter told his tormentors that he felt unworthy to die in the same way that Jesus Christ had died.
6. James. The leader of the church in Jerusalem was thrown over a hundred feet down from the southeast pinnacle of the Temple, when he refused to deny his faith in Christ. When they discovered that he survived the fall, his enemies beat James to death with a fuller's club. This was purportedly the same pinnacle where Satan had taken Jesus to tempt Him.
7. James the Son of Zebedee. He was a fisherman by trade when Jesus Called him to a lifetime of ministry. As a strong leader of the church, James was beheaded at Jerusalem. The Roman officer who guarded James watched amazed as James defended his faith at his trial. Later, the officer walked beside James to the place of execution. Overcome by conviction, he declared his new faith to the judge and knelt beside James to accept beheading as a Christian.
8. Bartholomew. Also known as Nathaniel. He Was a missionary to Asia. He witnessed for our Lord in present day Turkey. Bartholomew was martyred for his preaching in Armenia where he was flayed to death by a whip.
9. Andrew. He was crucified on an x-shaped cross in Patras, Greece. After being whipped severely by seven soldiers they tied his body to the cross with cords to prolong his agony. His followers reported that when he was led toward the cross, Andrew saluted it in these words: "I have long desired and expected this happy hour. The cross has been consecrated by the body of Christ hanging on it." He continued to preach to his tormentors for two days until he expired.

10. Thomas. He Was stabbed with a spear in India during one of his missionary trips to establish the church in the subcontinent.

11. Jude. He was killed with arrows when he refused to deny his faith in Christ.

12. Matthias. The apostle chosen to replace the traitor Judas Iscariot. He was stoned and then beheaded.

13. Paul. He was tortured and then beheaded by the evil Emperor Nero at Rome in A.D. 67. Paul endured a lengthy imprisonment, which allowed him to write his many epistles to the churches he had formed throughout the Roman Empire. These letters, which taught many of the foundational Doctrines of Christianity, form a large portion of the New Testament. Perhaps this is a reminder to us that our sufferings here are indeed minor to compare to the intense persecution and cold cruelty faced by the apostles and disciples during their times for the sake of the Faith.

We are so blessed to live in a free county today. Although the United States is slowly but surely losing our liberties and freedom because of sin, this is still a great place to live compared to most other countries. THANK GOD for our blessings and freedom!!!

4.7.8 The Bible Exhorts Christians To Expose The Blatant Fallacy Of A Flat Earth (2023-07-06 22:15)

Isaiah 40:22, “It is he that sitteth upon the circle of the earth, and the inhabitants thereof are as grasshoppers; that stretcheth out the heavens as a curtain, and spreadeth them out as a tent to dwell in:”

1st Timothy 6:20-21, “O Timothy, keep that which is committed to thy trust, avoiding profane and vain babblings, and oppositions of science falsely so called: Which some professing have erred concerning the faith. Grace be with thee. Amen.”

I am surprised how heated and angry flat-earth advocates become when you say that the earth is a sphere. They all say the same thing, that we should talk about salvation instead, and that the shape of the earth ought not be debated. That’s like saying if we hear someone say 2 + 2 = 5, we should just ignore that falsehood and focus on salvation. What saith the Scripture? □□□□□□ □□□:□□□, "□□□□□□□ □□□ □□□□□□□□ □ □□□ □□□□□□□□□□□□□□: □□□□□□□□□ □ □□□□ □□□□□ □□□□□ □□□." A saint who abides in the inspired Holy Scriptures hates every false way, whether it be a counterfeit gospel like Lordship Salvation, or the absurd claim that the earth is flat. TRUTH MATTERS!!! We need many more saints today who are willing to divide over truth, rather than to be united in error.

The Bible gives us good advice in □□□□□□□□ □□:□-□, "□□□□□□ □□□ □ □□□□ □□□□□□□□□ □□ □□□ □□□□□, □□□□ □□□□ □□□□ □□ □□□□ □□□□ □□□. □□□□□□ □ □□□□ □□□□□□□□□ □□ □□□ □□□□□, □□□□ □□ □□ □□□□ □□ □□□ □□□ □□□□□□□□." This is an intended paradox in the Word of God.

Solomon is saying that we should never go along with a lie or something that is blatantly wrong, evil or untrue, lest we be no better than the person speaking foolishness; but on the other hand, Solomon teaches us neither to remain silent when someone is telling lies or false information, for their own sake.

So we are taught not to agree with fools, but rather, we should kindly tell them that they are wrong. So in the case of the absurdity of a flat earth, not only are we biblically taught not to agree with flat-earthers, but also, we should kindly tell them that they are in error.

Jesus did exactly this when the lost Sadducees tried to convince Him why there is no resurrection. □□□□ □□:□□, "□□ □□ □□□ □□□ □□□ □□ □□□ □□□□, □□□ □□□ □□□ □□ □□□ □□□□□□: □□ □□□□□□□□□ □□ □□□□□□□ □□□." Jesus didn’t hesitate to tell people that they were wrong. The blessed risen Lord also corrected the apostle Peter, when he misspoke of fighting to keep Jesus from dying on a cross. The Lord firmly rebuked Peter, saying: "Get thee behind me, Satan!" Yes, even saved people can think like Satan and hinder the work of Christ.

Ephesians 5:10-11, “Proving what is acceptable unto the Lord. And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them.” The Greek word for “reprove” here is elencho, which means “to expose.” Saints have a biblical command from our heavenly Father to expose all works of darkness. Certainly lies, fraud, falsehoods, corruption and foolishness are included as works of darkness.

The lie that the earth is flat is damaging to Christianity, because it drives educated people away from the Gospel. Someone from Harvest is not going to take any preacher seriously who thinks that the earth is flat like a pancake. [1]Legitimate science 100 % proves that the earth is a sphere. Contrary to popular opinion in churches and on social media, the belief in a flat earth is not harmless.

Please consider the following passage of Scripture:

Acts 16:16-18, "And it came to pass, as we went to prayer, a certain damsel possessed with a spirit of divination met us, which brought her masters much gain by soothsaying:

The same followed Paul and us, and cried, saying, These men are the servants of the most high God, which shew unto us the way of salvation.

And this did she many days. But Paul, being grieved, turned and said to the spirit, I command thee in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her. And he came out the same hour.

I love this true story. A woman who had been demon possessed followed the Apostle Paul for a few days. She cried out to everyone along the way that Paul was preaching the way of salvation. What irony! Here is an unsaved hellbound woman testifying that the Gospel is the truth, yet most churchgoers today are blindly following a false gospel known as "Lordship Salvation."

Also, I think the demonic forces at work in this afflicted woman, who had a familiar spirit in her, was trying to discredit Paul and his fellow soulwinners. By yelling to onlookers that Paul and his companions were preaching the way of salvation, I think she caused people to steer clear of the Christians, thinking she was associated with them. Of course, this is only speculation. The Bible doesn't tell us why Paul became frustrated by her, but my guess is that she was creating confusion, since she making a spectacle of herself in public.

Those believers today who insist that the earth is flat are making a spectacle of themselves, having a spirit of woeful willful ignorance. Having said that, it is okay to agree to disagree. It is never worth getting into heated debates with people. Sometimes you just need to walk away, and that includes on social media. We should love everybody unconditionally with Christ's love, regardless of who they are. If you think the earth is flat I will still be your friend. I love people with God's love. If someone wants to argue, I will humbly bow out and not argue with a fool. We don't live on a giant platter like a bunch of

Hors d'oeuvres

...lol. Thanks for reading.

4.7.9 Matthew 25:1-13, The Parable Of The Ten Virgins (2023-07-09 02:07)

Matthew 25:1-13, “Then shall the kingdom of heaven be likened unto ten virgins, which took their lamps, and went forth to meet the bridegroom. And five of them were wise, and five were foolish. They that were foolish took their lamps, and took no oil with them: But the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps. While the bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered and slept. And at midnight there was a cry made, Behold, the bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet him. Then all those virgins arose, and trimmed their lamps. And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your oil; for our lamps are gone out. But the wise answered, saying, Not so; lest there be not enough for us and you: but go ye rather to them that sell, and buy for yourselves. And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came; and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage: and the door was shut. Afterward came also the other virgins, saying, Lord, Lord, open to us. But he answered and said, Verily I say unto you, I know you not. Watch therefore, for ye know neither the day nor the hour wherein the Son of man cometh.”

I humbly agree with Dr. John R. Rice (1895-1980), who writes on pages 401-402 of his commentary titled, "Matthew: The King Of The Jews" for Matthew 25:1-13...

> "’Ten virgins.’ Do not make the word ’virgin’ figurative. Bridesmaids are virgins. The word ’virgin’ here has no symbolic significance. Some think all represent the > saved because the term ’virgin’ was used, but that is not true. The Bible nowhere makes ’virgin’ mean a saved person. Be careful about adding figurative and spiritual meanings to the Word of God where the context does not clearly authorize it. God reserved the word ’virgin’ for a literal use, concerning the mother of His Son when He said, ’Behold, a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel’ (Isa. 7:14). The five wise virgins represent saved people. The foolish virgins represent unsaved people. The difference was that the wise "took oil in their vessels with their lamps," while the foolish "took no oil with the."

So we just learned that the word "virgin" has no significance in this parable; but rather, whether they were wise or foolish. Dr. Rice says that olive oil was used as fuel to light their "lamps" (which means "torches" in the Greek). Olive oil was commonly used during Bible times, which symbolized the indwelling or power of the Holy Spirit of God.

When the bridegroom came, he found all the virgins sleeping. They were all guilty of being unfaithful. Yet, the virgins with the oil (i.e., the saved) were taken with him, and the other virgins without oil (lost sinners) were left behind. So we see that salvation is not a matter of our performance as saints; but rather, it is a matter of who is indwelt with the Holy Spirit (1st John 3:24). That is to say, those who have been born-again. We are saved by grace alone, through faith alone, in the Gospel of Jesus Christ alone.

On pages 405-407 Dr. Rice further states:

> "’All those virgins arose, and trimmed their lamps’ (vs. 7). The foolish expected to go. One of the saddest truths taught in the Bible is that multitudes expect to go to Heaven who will be disappointed. The depend on their wick of human profession and human righteousness instead of upon the oil of the Holy Spirit, the supernatural birth from above. Relatively, there are few who enter in at the strait gate and many enter in to the broad way (Matt. 7:13, 14). Many will recount to the Lord their good works, pleading to enter in (Matt. 7:22, 23), but Jesus will answer back, ’I never knew you.’ The new birth, a supernatural change of heart, is indispensable to a place at the wedding supper. It is pictured here by the oil in the vessels. It is pictured in Matthew 22:11,12 as the wedding garments. Some try to come in without the wedding garment, but will be cast into outer darkness with weeping and gnashing of teeth (Matt. 22:13). Some will wish to attend the wedding without the oil of salvation but will be left outside.
>
> Proxy religion will not help us at that day. Mother’s prayers, the absolution offered by priests, the ritual of christening or baptism all will be unavailing then. The wise virgins had not enough oil for others; the foolish virgins could not borrow.
>
> ’They that were ready went in with him to the marriage: and the door was shut’ (vs.10). Christ’s coming into the air to receive His saints will be sudden. There will not be time to repent, no time to be saved then and go away with loved ones. This does not mean that those left behind at the rapture can never be saved. According to verse 10, the foolish virgins ’went to buy.’ Afterwards they came again, calling for admittance and presumably they had bought the oil, but the door was shut—not the door of ’salvation,’ but the door of ’marriage.’ The door to the marriage will be shut instantly when Christ receives His saints.
> Therefore, those who are saved must stay on the earth in the Great Tribulation time. Those who have rejected Christ and are yet alive when Jesus comes will be left behind. Those yet alive who have not committed the unpardonable sin may be saved if they will. Some such will be saved and some will not, but certainly those yet alive who trust Christ for salvation will be saved. Then those who get the oil of salvation after the Bridegroom comes will be left out of the wedding and remain here on the earth in a terrible time of persecution and darkness until they die naturally, or are killed for their faith in Christ, or until Jesus returns with saints and angels at the end of the Great Tribulation."

Those were the prolific words of Dr. John R. Rice. I hope this answers your question. There is some awesome loud rolling thunder crackling outside as I type. I love stormy weather!

4.7.10 A Physician Questions The Common View That Alcoholism Is A Disease (2023-07-12 12:44)

Proverbs 20:1 and 17, "Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging: and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise. ...Bread of deceit is sweet to a man; but afterwards his mouth shall be filled with gravel."

A physician named

Helen M. Calvin

from South Bend, Indiana, speaks out against booze. She questions the popular view that Alcoholism is a Disease.

To the Editor of The Star:

Alcoholism, a disease? If so:

1. I t is the only disease contracted by an act of will.

2. It is the only disease that is habit forming.
3. It is the only disease that comes in a bottle.
4. It is the only disease causing hundreds of thousands of family disruptions.
5. It is the only disease promoting crime and brutality.
6. It is the only disease contributing to hundreds of thousands of automobile accidents.
7. It is the only disease playing a major part in over 50 % of the more than 50,000 annual highway deaths.
8. It is the only disease which is sold by license.
9. It is the only disease that is bought in grocery stores, drug stores and well-marked retail outlets.
10. It is the only disease that is taxed by the government.
11. It is the only disease that is necessary for medical doctors to fellowship one with another.
12. It is the only disease in which medical support for the disease outweighs any effort to prevent it.
13. It is the only disease advocated by almost all the advertising media.
14. It is the only disease given as a Christmas gift.
15. It is the only disease that has been “legalized” for Sunday by our legislators.
16. It is the only disease our medico-governor has promised to ignore and let the people be plagued seven days a week instead of six.
17. It is the only disease that is checked by government inspectors to make sure the poison is pure.

The Automobile Club of Michigan has reported that since 18-year-olds can buy the disease in their state, drinking drivers in the 18-20 age group increased their involvement in traffic accidents by 119 %. They also had a 54 % increase in fatal accidents, a 104 % increase in injury accidents and a 135 % increase in property damage accidents during 1972. If the highest executive in our state either doesn’t smell the problem or doesn’t have the backbone to try to protect Hoosiers from the Number 1 Problem disease on everybody’s polls, and he is a medical graduate, what help and hope is there for our state?

4.7.11 Catholics Don't Worship Mary? (2023-07-13 18:05)

Exodus 20:1-6, "And God spake all these words, saying, I am the LORD thy God, which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage. Thou shalt have no other gods before me. Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: Thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I the LORD thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me; And shewing mercy unto thousands of them that love me, and keep my commandments."

Kindly, Catholics do indeed worship Mary and idols...

Clearly, Catholics do worship Mary!

Billions of lost people today are blinded by false religion. Catholics are in denial, denying that they worship idols while on their very knees sinfully bowing to them.

In a wicked attempt to justify worshipping idols, Roman Catholics have even gone as far as [21]to remove the second commandment of God not to worship graven images.

A person would have to choose to remain wilfully ignorant to continue in the Catholic religion, in view of the disturbing truths I have just shown you. The Devil is a beautiful liar and has deceived over one billion Catholics.

Nowhere does the inspired Word of God teach for Christians to recognize Mary, nor any other human being, except the God-man Jesus (1st Timothy 2:5). Mary was born with a sinful nature, just like you and me. Mary sinned, just like you and me. Mary died because the wages of sin is death, just like you and I will die. Mary was not assumed into Heaven, which the Catholic church made official dogma in 1950 (aka, the Assumption of Mary heresy).

Catholics have deified Mary, claiming she never sinned and was taken into Heaven by God. That is all demonic lies. Mary was no different than any other sinful human being, except that the Holy Spirit of God worked the miracle of a virgin birth in her body, to bring the only begotten Son of God into the world.

4.7.12 Please Keep Me In Your Prayers For Stabbing Shoulder Blade Pain (2023-07-24 19:07)

Philippians 3:20-21, "For our conversation is in heaven; from whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ:

Who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, according to the working whereby he is able even to subdue all things unto himself. "

My Recent Cervical MRI From July 21, 2023

Please keep me in your prayers. About 10 days ago I started having horrible stabbing pain in my left shoulder blade (at the bottom toward the center of my back), and also in the right flank area (by the kidney). On a scale of 1 to 10, 10 being the worst, both areas are about a 6-7 during the day, but a 9-10 at night. For the past several days I haven't been able to stay in bed to sleep, because the stabbing pain is constant and is torture. Last night I got up at 2 am to go sleep in my office chair, but it didn't help so I just started trying to search the internet for answers.

On Tuesday I tried all day to make an appointment with a primary doctor, since I don't have one. The earliest appointment I could find is at Baptist Medical Group on September 19th (two month from now). So I had no choice than to go to the emergency room at Baptist Hospital Tuesday night in horrible pain. They used red dye and did a CT scan, but couldn't find anything wrong. The doctor said she thinks the two pain areas are not connected. She thinks my shoulder blade pain is muscular in nature. They did blood and urine tests and said everything looks good except for my high sugar, which is in the 200-300 range from Type II diabetes. So they gave me 4 mg of morphine, 1 mg of diluadid, and then discharged me to go home at 4 am, not having any definitive answers why I'm in pain.

So on Wednesday, still suffering in agonizing stabbing pain, I found a chiropractor who could see me yesterday. They took x-rays of my pelvic and upper body areas. No major issues were found. My kidney is okay and I don't have kidney stones. The chiropractor wouldn't adjust my neck without permission from the pain clinic that handles my old neck injury. The chiropractor put a TENS unit on both pain areas, and did 3 adjustments.

Although the TENS unit felt good during use, an hour after leaving the clinic I was still in excruciating pain. I actually went last night with the First Baptist Church of Pensacola to watch the Wahoo's baseball team play against the Pandas at Maritime Community Park. The Pensacola Wahoos won! Yea! I had a nice time at the game, with food, drinks and fireworks after, despite my horrible pain (and yes, I did go to church Sunday with the same horrible pain). Last night I was hurting so bad that I ordered a TENS unit for $143 from Amazon, which is supposed to arrive on July 25th.

I went to my regular pain clinic on Tuesday. They moved up my normal monthly appointment to fit me in. They gave me a prescription for 500 mg Nubametone 2x daily and Lidocaine patches (which had to be special ordered and should come in tonight at CVS). But they gave me some sample patches at the clinic and so far nothing is helping to alleviate the stabbing shoulder blade pain. So far neither the hospital, pain clinic or chiropractor have been able to diagnose why I am in horrible pain in both my right flank area and my left shoulder blade area. The pain started about 10 days ago and hasn't become better or worse, it's the same. At night it is torture, especially in the shoulder blade area, which feels like a knitting needle stabbed in my back.

I found [2]this article while searching for answers online, which says that the C5-C6 area of the neck can cause stabbing pain in the shoulder blade.

I had surgery at C5-C6-C7 in 2009 and 2010. I have sharp radiating pain down both arms and legs, but the pain has always been intermittent. This pain is constant. Sometimes I can feel the shoulder blade pain extend down the back of my left arm, but stops at the elbow. The radiating pain from my neck always shoots down into my two middle fingers on the left arm, and thumb with forefinger on my right arm. Usually the radiating pain happens 80 % on my right side from the stenosis and radiculitis. So the pain clinic has me scheduled next month for a new MRI. So I guess I have to just wait and suffer in pain for now. I don't know where else to turn.

The very first thing I did, and have been doing since, is to pray for the Lord's help. I am often reminded of the Old Testament story of King Asa, who had problems with his feet, but he didn't pray. The Bible says that Asa sought relief from the local doctors instead of God, and the next verse says that Asa slept with his fathers (i.e., he died). So I always go to God first.

It is now 3 am Sunday morning and my shoulder pain is so excruciating that I cannot sleep. It feels like a knitting needle shoved in my back, stabbing constant pain. The pain was bad last night radiating down the back of my left arm to the elbow, but now is mostly hurting under my left shoulder blade.

I have already used the Patient Portal to contact my pain clinic, requesting if I can bring in my MRI test scan images on Monday for them to diagnose, to see what might be wrong. So far everything seems to be pointing to a problem in my neck. I took a look a quick at the MRI images on my computer, and it seems something may be going on at C5-C6, but I am not an expert on reading MRI images, so I am not sure what to look for. I saved a picture of my MRI for you to see for yourself, even before my doctor has seen it. What do you think? It sure looks like something is pressing against my spinal cord at C5-C6. Ouch! The human spinal cord is as frail as tissue paper, so it doesn't take much to cause pain and problems. The area that you see in the MRI is C5-C6, exactly where I've already had two major surgeries in 2009 and 2010.

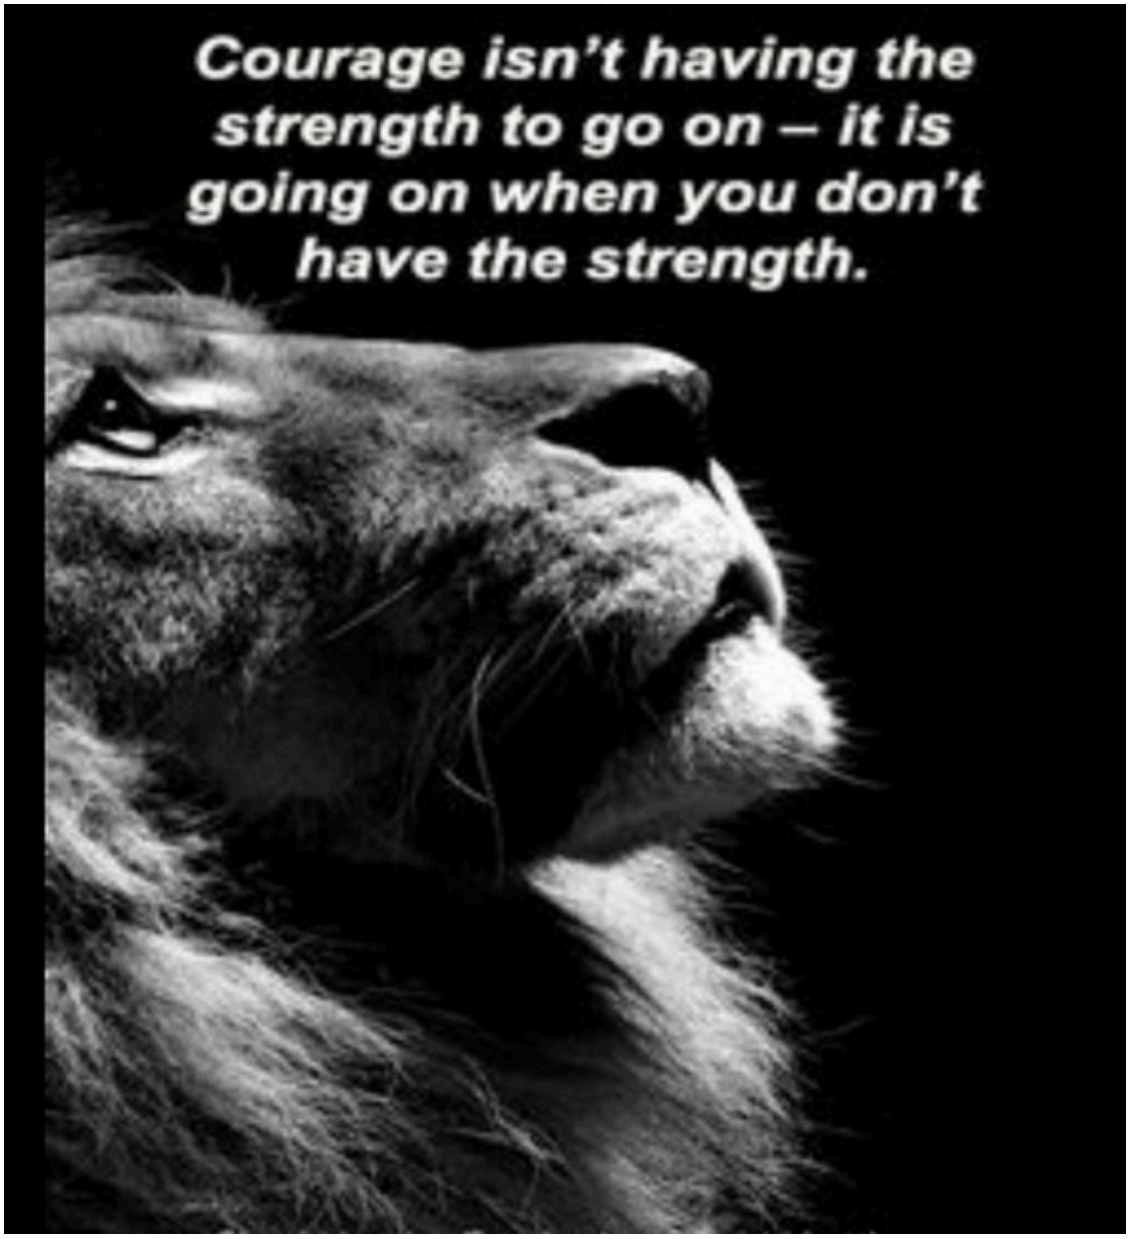
Also, if you look to the left of the suspect area at C5-C6-C7, you can see my two bone grafts and missing disks. Please keep me in your prayers. I dread getting another surgery, but I do need to get rid of this intolerable shoulder blade pain. Thank you. Jesus is precious!!!



Anyway, I am hurting in much intolerable pain. Kindly said, please don't message to ask me a bunch of questions about my health. I simply cannot reply to dozens of people all asking who, what, where, when, how and why. Literally, I have some Facebook friends who message me every 3 or 4 days to ask me how I am doing, which is not necessary. But THANK YOU for caring!!! You are all so sweet to care about how I am doing. Everybody likes to be cared about, me too, but I simply cannot reply to everybody. I have several facebook friends, as well as ministry web visitors, who like to send me things to watch and read, asking for my opinion. I just cannot watch hour long sermons to analyze them for people. Sometimes I can.

All I am saying is please be patient and understanding if I fall behind in replying to messages, because I don't ignore anyone on purpose. I am in pain all the time in my neck from stenosis and radiculitis at C5-C6-C7. The pain radiates. Lord willing, hopefully the doctors will learn something from my MRI. I dread getting MRI's, because I am claustrophobic big time. Even with the open bore, I have panic attacks.

Years ago in 2006 I hit the panic button and was crying when they pulled me out of the MRI machine. I told the MRI technician that my legal bills from my wife filing for divorce were already over $10,000 and she was boasting of going to fiesta parties during the divorce, while I was suffering in excruciating pain in my neck and ready to go for surgery. Great wife, huh? [illegible]. I have forgiven her long ago, because she must answer to God for abandoning me when I needed her the most. I have suffered alone now for 17 years, laboring in my ministry with no earthly companion. The famous preacher, Charles Weigle (1871-1966), often told [3]the sad story about his disloyal wife who abandoned him too. Charles went into a deep depression, as I have also been depressed oftentimes since 2006, being alone and in pain with no one to share my life with. Life is not fair, but our great God is faithful and good. It is not God's fault what we sinners do.

Tomorrow on Tuesday morning I have an appointment to meet with a doctor at the pain clinic, who will hopefully read my MRI test image results. I hope they can determine why I have stabbing pain under my left shoulder blade. The sharp pain in my right flank is still there, but has subsided much compared to earlier this week. A CT scan and x-rays showed that my kidney is okay and there are not kidney stones. Someone suggested that I might have gallstones, but that is impossible, because I had my infected gallbladder removed in 2015. I had my infected appendix removed in 1999. I'm leaving this world piece by piece...lol. I had the neck (cervical) disks between C5-C6-C7 bones removed in 2009.

Anyway, God is so good, always! I'd appreciate if you'd just remember me when you talk to God. I'm trying by God's grace to make the best of my troubled life. God is so good and everything that God does is right. I have no complaints. Every day above ground is a good day. Jesus is precious!!!

4.7.13 We Have So Much To Be Thankful For In America (2023-07-27 09:18)

Psalms 73:1, " Truly God is good to Israel, even to such as are of a clean heart. "

Psalms 145:9, “ The LORD is good to all: and his tender mercies are over all his works. ”

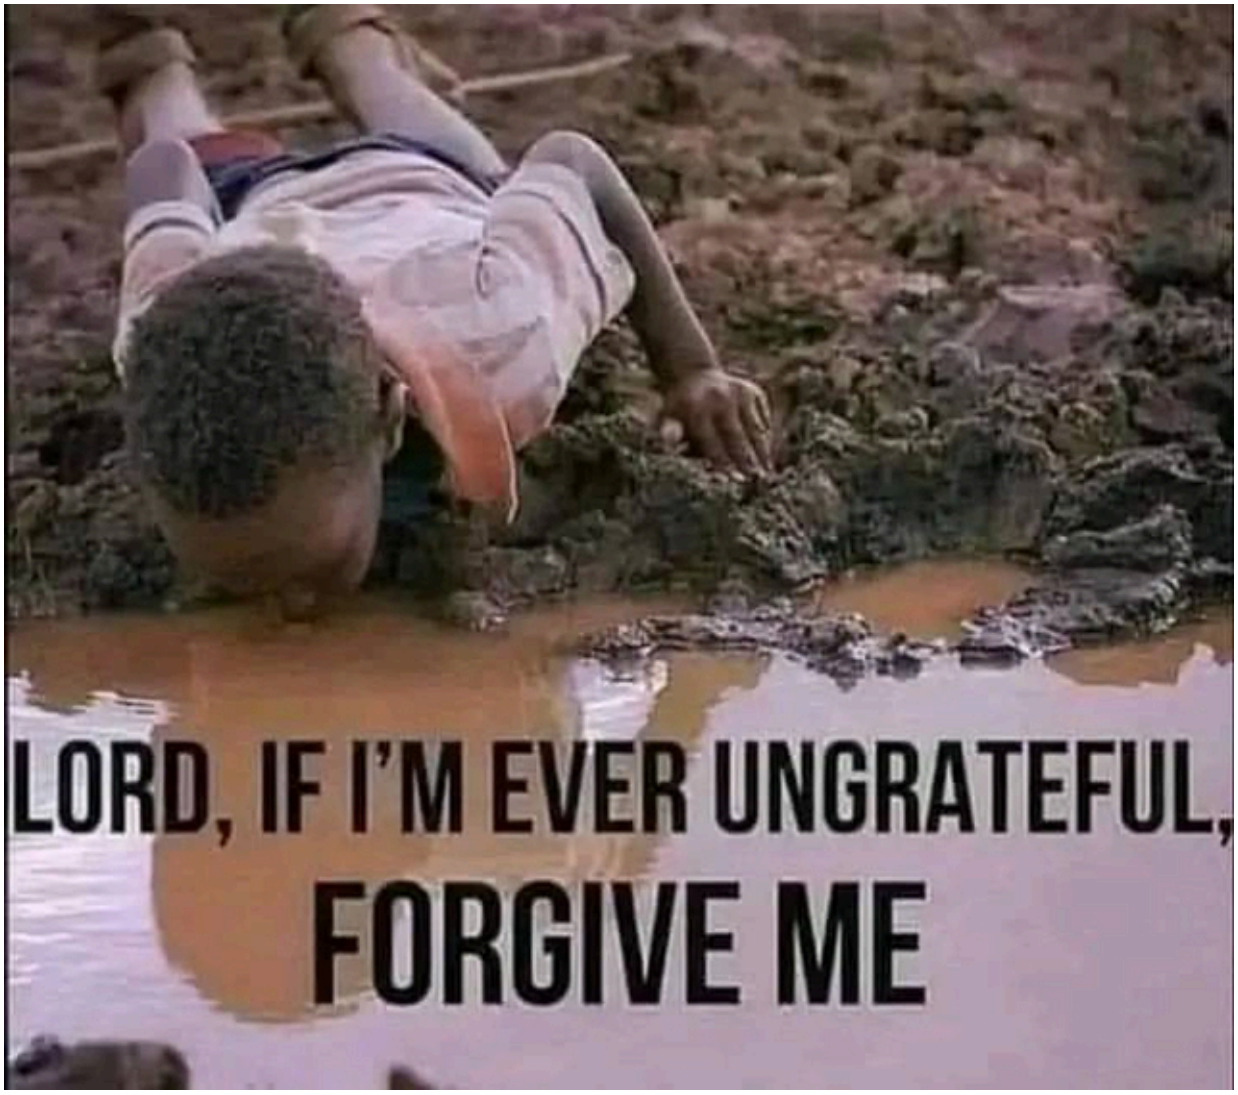
Luke 6:35, “But love ye your enemies, and do good, and lend, hoping for nothing again; and your reward shall be great, and ye shall be the children of the Highest: for he is kind unto the unthankful and to the evil.”

I was watching an interesting YouTube documentary today about [1]20 Horrible Historical Facts School Doesn’t Teach. The second thing mentioned was our first U.S. President, George Washington’s false teeth. A common misconception is that he had wooden teeth, but in actuality George Washington’s dentures were comprised from gold, lead, ivory, human and even animal teeth. By the time George was inaugurated as our country’s first U.S. President in 1789, he only had one natural tooth remaining in his mouth. Ouch! Poor Mr. Washington!

By God’s grace, at age 56 I still have all 28 natural teeth in my mouth. My four Wisdom Teeth have all been removed (which many people do for various necessary reasons). I realized today how blessed I am to still have my natural teeth. I brush my teeth after every meal, and so should you, to prevent bacteria from accumulating that will rot your teeth over time. I also rinse my mouth a couple times a day with Listerine, to kill germs. Albeit, it is not good to use Listerine dozens of times a day, because [2]your mouth needs some good bacteria.

I have suffered in much bodily pain for the past couple week. I went to the hospital Emergency Room last Tuesday. They did blood and urine tests, and a CT scan, but couldn’t explain the reason for my left shoulder blade pain, and also sharp pain on my right flank (in the kidney area in back). I went to a chiropractor on Wednesday, who took x-rays, but also couldn’t explain the reason for my two areas of pain. On Friday I had a MRI, and met with a doctor on Tuesday who looked over my MRI notes.

Unfortunately, he couldn’t find any reason to explain my pain. So now today I have an appointment with a Physical Therapist, who will do a Deep Tissue Massage on my left shoulder blade. The doctor I saw this past Tuesday thinks I might have a deep knot in my shoulder blade. If after a few sessions with a Physical Therapist I still have horrible pain, he is going to schedule a CT scan on my neck at C5-C6-C7 (where I had surgery in 2009 and 2010, and I have surgical hardware). The doctor on Tuesday told me that my surgical hardware produced a glare on the MRI imaging, which makes it difficult to see what’s going on, so there might be still a problem in my neck (in a blind spot that an MRI cannot detect, but a CT scan will).



One day at a time. I slept terrible last night, continually waking up due to the intense pain. The shoulder pain during the day is a 6-7 out of 10 (10 being the worse pain), but at night is an 8-9 out of 10, stabbing to 10 at times. The right flank pain is likewise 6-7 during the day time, but at night is about an 8. The pain is bad enough to prevent me from sleeping well. I took 100 mg of Diphenhydramine last night to help me sleep. I had my appendix removed in 1999 and my gall bladder removed in 2015, so it cannot be those organs. The CT scan showed that my kidney is okay on the right side. X-rays showed that there are no kidney stones. Pain can be difficult to diagnose from what I have being reading. I'd appreciate your prayers. Thank you.

In [3]the YouTube video that I mentioned earlier, the narrator mentions that the first commercially available microwave oven was sold in 1947, which measured nearly 6 feet tall and weighed 750 pounds. Wow! We sure have come a long way since 1947. Today's convenient home microwaves weigh under 10 pounds and cost less than $100. We are so blessed by God!!!

I admit that last Tuesday night at Baptist Hospital, after the CT scan, I had already prepared myself for possible bad news that my kidney had failed and I needed it removed. The stabbing right flank pain was that bad. The pain has subsided somewhat since (thankfully), but it still hurts a lot, so something is still wrong. I even told the Lord at the hospital that if it was His will for me to go home to be with Him in Heaven, I am ready. You never know when pain starts in the body what it might be, anything from harmlessly sleeping awkward to terminal cancer. At my age, 56, my mind tends to think the worst. My pastor's father is now 59 years old. Just two years ago he had quadruple heart bypass surgery. So you never know. Thankfully, at least at the present time, there doesn't seem to be anything major wrong with me to explain why I am still having horrible sharp pain in two different areas. One day at a time. Hopefully the procedure today will prove to have been helpful. We'll see. God is so good!!!

No matter what happens, I choose to always remain grateful to God.

4.8.1 Beware Of The "Repent Of Your Sins" Heresy (2023-08-04 16:49)

I have received countless ministry emails from worried people over the years, who were lied to by sincere but corrupt pastors, who unbiblically told them that they couldn't go to Heaven unless they turned away from their sinful ways.

Nowhere in the inspired King James Bible are we taught to forsake a lifestyle of sinning as a requirement to be saved. Faith is the only righteous thing that we can do. Jesus came to die on a cross to pay for our sins, He does not require that we first give up our sinful bad habits to be saved. The truth is that it is impossible for anyone to give up their sinning. Even the best saints still sin each and every day. The Apostle Paul admitted in Romans 7:14-25 that he struggled with sin all the time, and that he found no good thing in his flesh (Romans 7:18).

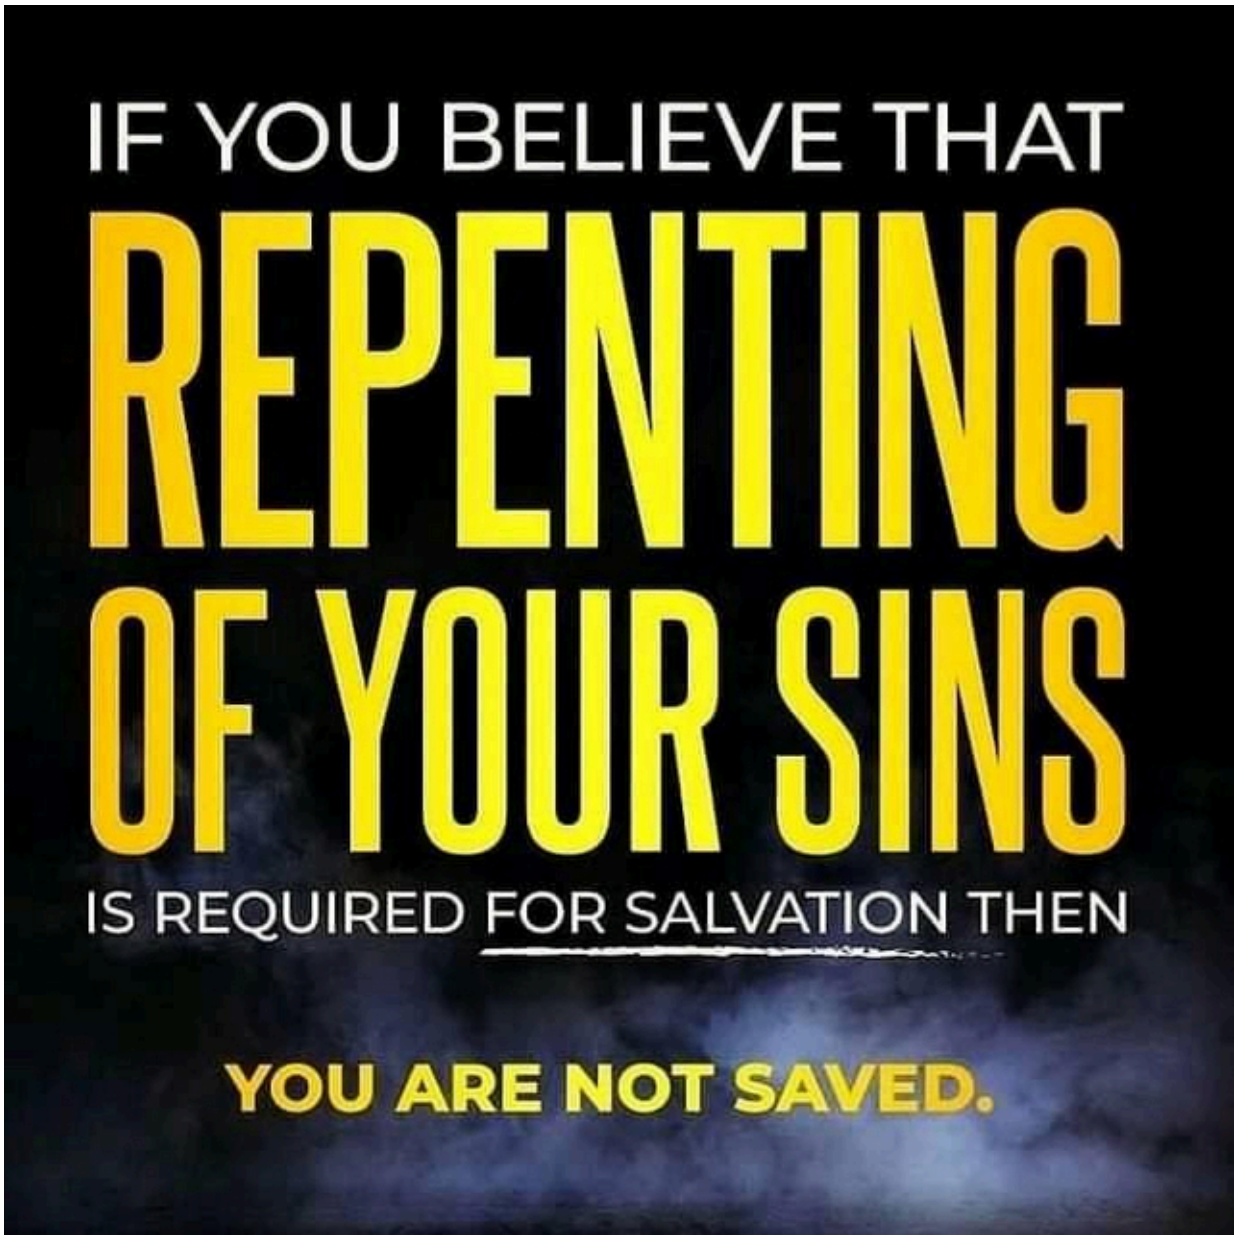
I am so glad that you see the truth in this matter. Infidel Calvinist evangelist Paul Washer is a false prophet. In one sermon he admitted that his own mother doubted her salvation because of her struggle with sin. Paul falsely comforted her by saying that her worries prove that she is saved.

The proper mindset of a genuinely born-again believer is that JESUS PAID IT ALL!!! I know I am saved because my faith (whole confidence) is in Jesus Christ alone, the only begotten Son of God, because of what He has already done to pay for my sins through Calvary's cross. My total faith is in THE GOSPEL. The Gospel is the "GOOD NEWS" of Christ's death on the cross, burial and bodily resurrection three days later (1st Corinthians 15:1-6). That is my only hope for forgiveness of sins and eternal life, nothing less or more.

All of these reformed Calvinists today (John Piper, John MacArthur, Keith and Kristyn Getty, Marty Herron, Bob Jones University, Steve Pettit, Sam Horn, Gary Walton, Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, Paul Washer, Ray Comfort, et cetera) are pulling on the same rope as the Devil. They are all deceived by Satan, living the Christian life without ever having been born-again by faith alone. They all errantly teach that to be saved faith is not enough. In addition, they all errantly preach that you must "repent of your sins" (which in their flawed understanding means to forsake your sinful behavior and surrender control of your will over to Christ as the supreme "Lord" of your life).

We find these type of hellbound Lordship Salvation heretics in Scripture. □□□□□□□ □:□□-□□, "□□□ □□□□□ □□□ □□□□ □□□□□ □□□□ □□, □□□□, □□□□, □□□□□ □□□□□ □□□□ □□□ □□□□□□□ □□ □□□□□□; □□□ □□ □□□□ □□□□□ □□□ □□□□ □□ □□ □□□□□□ □□□□□ □□ □□ □□□□□□. □□□□ □□□□ □□□ □□ □□ □□ □□□□ □□□, □□□□, □□□□, □□□□ □□ □□□ □□□□□□□□□□ □□ □□□ □□□□? □□□ □□ □□□ □□□□ □□□□ □□□□ □□□ □□□□□□? □□□ □□ □□□ □□□□ □□□□ □□□□ □□□□□□□□□ □□□□□? □□□ □□□□ □□□□ □ □□□□□□□ □□□□ □□□□, □ □□□□□ □□□□ □□□: □□□□□□ □□□□ □□, □□ □□□□ □□□□ □□□□□□□□□." They cried out to Jesus, "Lord, Lord," boasting of doing many wonderful works and preaching, ALL IN JESUS" NAME!!! Yet, the dear Savior looked them square in the eye and said these horrifying words: I NEVER KNEW YOU, DEPART FROM ME, YE THAT WORK INIQUITY.



Jesus tells us in verse 21 where they went astray, by failing to do THE WILL OF THE FATHER, which according to John 6:40 is to BELIEVE ON JESUS. We get saved by ceasing from our own works, and resting entirely in Christ's redemptive work (Hebrews 4:10-11).

All of these new reformed Baptist Calvinists today are preaching another gospel, which is accursed by God (Galatians 1:6-12). John Calvin (1509-1564) taught a counterfeit plan of salvation of partial faith in Christ plus works. The entire Epistle of Galatians refutes the damnable heresy of partial faith in Christ plus keeping the law to be saved (Galatians 3:1-3).

The false prophets in Matthew 7:21-23 served Christ diligently, doing not just a few (but many) good works. They did it all for Jesus in His name. They preached in Jesus' name, just like so many false teachers today also do. But they were serving Christ to please God the Father, not relying solely upon Jesus' sacrifice on the cross for their sins. You cannot get to Heaven by inviting Jesus into your life, a popular lie which we often hear nowadays from religious false teachers. To "repent" in the Bible simply means "a change of mind," a change of mind from unbelief to belief.

4.8.2 CCM Singers' Keith And Kristyn Getty Exposed (2023-08-05 16:40)

Galatians 1:6-9 "I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed."

I need to warn you about [1]Keith and Kristyn Getty. They are CCM yuppies.

However, I like that they focus on doctrinally sound lyrics (so they claim at least). I found this on Wikipedia...

> In 2013, the Presbyterian Committee on Congregational Song in the United States sought permission to include the Gettys' hymn "In Christ Alone" in a hymnal with a modification of the lyrics "Till on that cross as Jesus died, the wrath of God was satisfied" to instead say, "Till on that cross as Jesus died, the love of God was magnified." Keith Getty and co-author Stuart Townend rejected the request for modification and the Committee subsequently declined to include the song in its hymnal. The dean of Beeson Divinity School of Samford University, Timothy George, published an article criticizing the Committee's attempt to remove the controversial doctrine of the wrath of God from the song. The topic of George's article became popular and was eventually adapted by reporters from USA Today, The Washington Post, and other major publications. [2]SOURCE

They refused to allow the Presbyterians to remove God's wrath from their song's lyrics. [3]Here's an article about it. So I applaud the Getty's for this. However, as I will show you in a moment, the Getty's are hardcore hellbound Calvinists, promoters of false prophets' John Piper, John MacArthur and other infidel heretics.

I don't like the Contemporary Christian Music (CCM) of the Getty's, which lacks the beautiful melodies of the old hymns. I like the old hymns because the authors are dead, so they don't get the praise and idolization instead of the performers. The Getty's get the praise and glory instead of God, because they are at the center of their songs.

Kristyn Getty and her husband are ecumenical and worldly...

> Though primarily known for her work in Contemporary Christian Music, Getty has collaborated with artists of varying genres throughout her career. Notable collaborators to appear on recorded albums include bluegrass musicians Ricky Skaggs and Alison Krauss, country singer Vince Gill, Broadway actor Heather Headley, South African vocal group Ladysmith Black Mambazo, hip-hop artist Trip Lee, spoken word poet Jackie Hill Perry, and R &B singer Blessing Offor. Artists from within the CCM genre who have performed with Getty include Chris Tomlin, Michael W. Smith, Rend Collective, We Are Messengers, Shane & Shane, Fernando Ortega, Matt Papa, and Sandra McCracken. [4]SOURCE

Forbes says [5]the Getty's net worth is $2,500,000.

Much worse, the Getty's are unsaved reformed Calvinists. Missionary to India, David Cloud, exposes them (Note: I do not agree with [6]David Cloud's plan of salvation). If you want to see how bad Keith and Kristyn Getty really are, [7]READ THIS ARTICLE.

Here is a quote from the preceding helpful article. The Getty's are into Lordship Salvation...

> The Gettys are a bridge to new Reformed Calvinism.
>
> The Gettys are new Reformed Calvinists. Keith leads worship at Parkside Church, Cleveland, Ohio, pastored by Alistair Begg. This is the world of John Piper, David Platt, R.C. Sproul, Al Mohler, Jr., John MacArthur.
>
> Reformed Calvinism is not biblically sound. It is a path to the world of Augustine, the church fathers, John Calvin, Protestantism, the Puritans, infant baptism. It is a path to Replacement Theology (the church is Israel). It is a path to Amillennialism and the rejection of the imminency of Christ's return and the loss of all of the spiritual benefits of that important doctrine. [8]SOURCE

Here is another quote from the preceding helpful article...

> The Gettys are a bridge to the world of rock & roll.
>
> In a July 2013 interview, Keith Getty mentioned vile rocker Sting and homosexual rocker Elton John in a positive light, with not a hint of warning. The interview was with Dan Wooding of Assist Ministries and was [9]broadcast on Frontpage Radio from Nashville.
>
> In the same interview Keith Getty heaped praise on Bono of the Irish rock band U2, calling him a "brilliant theological thinker" and saying that Bono "cares for a lot of the things that Christ asks us to care about." He also said, "I love his passion for life and his passion for learning." Getty had absolutely nothing to say about Bono by word of warning. [10]SOURCE

The Getty's music is bringing the Devil's worldly music right into the churches.

The [11]Getty's wickedly promote false prophet, John Piper, a staunch hellbound Calvinist.

The Getty's are phonies! They are not saved.

4.8.3 Pensacola Christian College Refuses To Reconcile (2023-08-06 10:05)

Ephesians 4:32, “And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ’s sake hath forgiven you.”

God knows that I just humbly want to make peace with PCC. They already knew in 2021 about my difficulties with the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, likely because someone from Harvest emailed or called him to warn Campus Church about me. Pastor Redlin even admitted to me that someone had contacted their church to get into contact with me, and he claimed they didn’t know how to contact me. I don’t believe him, because the church has my mailing address on file. They even mailed me a welcome letter in July of 2021. He also had my email, because I emailed him the first week that I started attending the church, when he scolded me for mentioning that I hoped to find a wife at Campus Church. He was foolish to scold a 54 year old man for hoping to find a wife. Where else would I find a wife, if not at church? That was cruel of him.

So, since he claimed that they didn’t know how to contact me, he said he and the other pastors had to go look at my ministry websites to see how to contact me. He said that in the process of searching through my websites they noticed that I "find weaknesses in preachers." That really hurt my feelings, because I have been faithfully contending for the faith by exposing bad preachers who promote Lordship Salvation, fake Bibles and a wrong meaning of repentance. Redlin shunned me after that, avoiding me and not replying to my emails asking him if was welcome as a divorced person at Campus Church. He just didn’t like me.

So I left the church in frustration and criticized him on social media. I humbly wrote to him in 2022, apologizing for my rants and anger, begging for a second chance. He ignored me for a month, so I wrote two more letters and mailed them. One went to PCC and the other to all the pastors of Campus Church. Again, they all ignored me. So after 6 weeks I went to social media again, on my Jesus-is-Savior.com website, lashing out against them for being a bunch of self-righteous hypocrites.

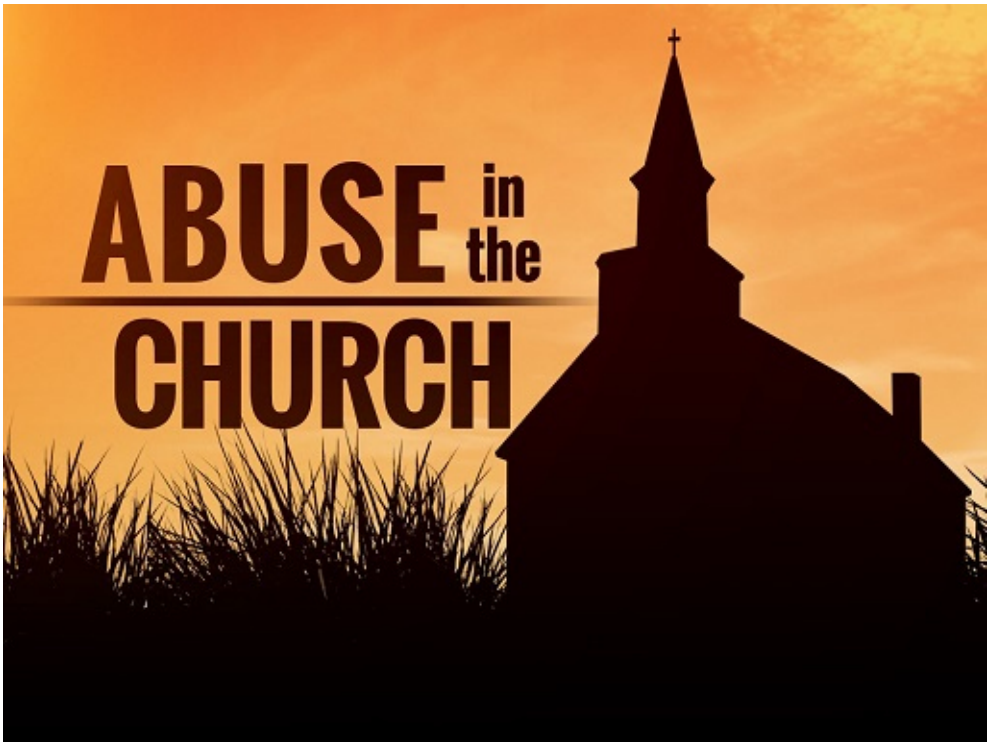
Only then did Pastor Redlin reply on August 2, 2022, to tell me "your remarks were consequential," saying that I cannot attend Campus Church anymore. I was cut to the heart, again, and the saga continues. The problem is that PCC has tens of millions of dollars, and several thousands of supporters, so what is one hurting man to them? They have the opposite attitude of Jesus, who was willing to leave the 99 sheep to go find and help that one lost lamb.

At PCC, they have the 9,999 so they couldn’t care less about the one individual who is hurting and needs their love, understanding, forgiveness and a helping hand to get his life back on track. I have zero social life. I suffer in constant pain in my neck, from getting severely rear-ended by a church bus in 1992, and then falling down a mailslide at work in 2005, and a second neck surgery in 2010 that made me worse. I survive daily on taking prescription opiate pain drugs (not enough unfortunately because of stupid government laws that oppress pain sufferers, instead of the criminals who illegally abuse and die from them).

I don’t write posts, articles and blogs against PCC and Campus Church to hurt them (God knows my heart), but simply because I am hurting in my soul to be a part of a church family, and still don’t have one. Dr. Jack Hyles once said in a sermon ("Many Pastors Have Destroyed My Vineyard") that today’s religious colleges are academic in nature, and not church builders, so they lack compassion for people. Dr. Hyles sure knew what he was talking about, because he practically gave the address of PCC. They woefully lack God’s unconditional love for people. I feel sorry for PCC, that they are so carnally minded and lacking in compassion for people. I would be shocked if Pastor Redlin responded to your email. They just don’t care.

My only prayer for Redlin and the PCC camp is that God would humble them to start caring about everyone, and not just their select group of paying members with money. Jeff Redlin is sinfully holding a personal grudge against me, and ungodly PCC leaders are sanctioning his terrible behavior, because Redlin is a PCC alumni (one of their own). I have had several people admonish me to let it go and move on, but it's not that easy, because I still have no social life. Pastor Redlin fully knows that my wife divorced me, and that I am suffering with physical afflictions because of my neck injury, but he has zero love or compassion.

He gets paid well over $100,000 a year, as do many PCC employees. One of my Facebook friends who is familiar with PCC, and has a friend in their church, told me that PCC leaders have huge egos. I think he nailed it. I love them at PCC and hope one day to reconcile with them. I told PCC and Campus Church in 2022 that I would do whatever they require to make the peace, but they won't even communicate with me, except to tell me I am not welcome there. So, I will continue to preach against them, which is my only recourse to cope with my pain of soul. I pray and wish that haughty PCC leaders and their terrible pastors could woefully suffer as I have, and see what it feels like to lose everything near and dear in life, and then be shunned and ostracized by churches for telling THE TRUTH.



PCC won't contend for the faith, as I have faithful done (and am doing), and then paying a staggering price as a consequence of telling the truth. PCC wickedly bids Godspeed to the Bob Jones University cult, who have joined the new reformed Calvinist movement. BJU even invited die hard Calvinist Paul Washer to preach at their college in December of 2022. BJU has gone to the Devil, and PCC shamefully supports them wholeheartedly.

I have rightly exposed both camps, for which I am despised (like Jesus was rejected and despised by men). At present I sit home from church on Sunday and Wednesday evenings, having no church to attend. I was hoping that at least one of my blog friends would contact Pastor Jeff Redlin, to ask him why he is being so hateful and refuses to forgive me as his Christian brother, so that I can just attend Campus Church again. Here are their email addresses at Campus Church...

4.8.4 Christ Is The END Of The Law For Every Believer (Or, Exposing The Seventh-day Adventist Cult) (2023-08-11 13:49)

Romans 10:4, "For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth."

One of my favorite men of God, mentor, preacher and Bible scholar is Dr. Max D. Younce. In my humble opinion, Dr. Younce is one of the most unknown great theologians of our day, as scholarly as was Dr. John R. Rice (1895-1980) during his time. I highly recommend that all my web visitors [1]purchase hard copies of Dr. Younce's books (so you'll have them to learn from) while they're available, because nothing good lasts forever (except eternal life). If you physically see books in your home, you're far more likely to read and benefit from them (case in point is this very article), than if you have to go look for them online. Dr. Younce has so graciously sent me his books over the years, which I cherish more than gold. PDF files are great for maintaining content format, perfect for publishing books.

Unfortunately, [2]for numerous reasons, PDF files often don't get read. The main reason is that people are lazy! It takes sincere interest to navigate through a PDF file online, but HTML webpages are more pleasant for the not so ambitious reader. For this primary reason HTML is more user friendly, so when I find some truth that I believe is critically important for others to learn, I like to share it as HTML (hence this article). This is a fascinating and practical Bible study. For example: I learned that the Old Testament "Law" comprises about 720 commandments total. I know you'll benefit from reading this. I thought it was VERY important, because many people go astray on the Gospel when they misunderstand the purpose of God’s Law, which is to give all men “THE KNOWLEDGE OF SIN” (Romans 3:20). David J. Stewart, webservant.

ARE WE TO WORSHIP ON SATURDAY?

Excepts from “[3]THREE IMPORTANT QUESTIONS” by Dr. Max D. Younce | Website: [4]Heritage Bible Baptist Church

There are various claims concerning the Sabbath. Some hold that after the Resurrection of Christ, the Sabbath was changed to the first day of the week, Sunday, in commemoration of the Resurrection.

Another view, held by Seventh Day Adventists, is that the moral law, the Ten Commandments, have never been done away with; so, that we are still to worship on Saturday, the Jewish Sabbath.

Still another view set forth is that, after the Resurrection of Christ, the Law including the Sabbath was fulfilled by Christ; thus, quoting "For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to everyone that believeth." (Romans 10:4) They also maintain that the Law was given only to Israel and was only a shadow of future things to come. They gather together on Sunday, the first day of the week, not out of legal duty because of a commandment; but, of their privilege under grace to worship and fellowship together in commemoration of Christ‟s death and Resurrection.

Let us go to the Authority, the Word of God and get the answer.

1. "Sabbath." What Is The Meaning Of The Word?

The word "Sabbath" appears for the first time in the Bible in Exodus 16:23,

> "And he said unto them, This is that which the Lord hath said, to morrow is THE REST OF THE HOLY SABBATH UNTO THE LORD...".

It simply means to "stop, cease what you are doing, or take an intermission from your previous labor and activities." The word, itself, is a transliteration from the Hebrew and the Greek. The Hebrew for "Sabbath" is "shabbath" and the Greek is "sabbaton." Both are brought over into our English, untranslated. Literally, Exodus 20:8 would read,

> "REMEMBER THE REST DAY AND KEEP IT HOLY"

In the Old Testament, the word "Sabbath" is used approximately 75 times; and, in 35 cases, it is in reference to the ceremonial "Sabbath Day." The other 40 times it has reference to the weekly Sabbath on the seventh day. We also need to take notice that, in the New Testament, the word "Sabbath" occurs over 60 times; but, never appears again after Acts 18:4.

2. Many Sabbaths.

Many people are not aware that Jehovah had given other Sabbath Days, contained in the ceremonial laws. The Feast of Trumpets, which fell on the first day of the seventh month, was called a Sabbath. Leviticus 23:24,25 states,

> "...In the seventh month, in the first day of the month, shall ye have a SABBATH, a memorial of blowing of trumpets, an holy convocation. Ye shall do NO SERVILE WORK therein."

The Day of Atonement was called a Sabbath, as we read in Leviticus 16:29,31,

> "...In the seventh month, on the tenth day of the month, ye shall afflict your souls, and DO NO WORK AT ALL, whether it be one of your own country, or a stranger that sojourneth among you. (29) It shall be a SABBATH OF REST unto you..." (31)

Notice in Leviticus 23:27,28,30-32, concerning the same feast,

> "Also on the tenth day of this seventh month there shall be a day of atonement: it shall be an holy convocation unto you...And ye shall do NO WORK in that same day...And whatsoever soul it be that doeth any work in that same day, the same soul will I destroy from among his people. Ye shall do NO MANNER OF WORK...It shall be unto you a SABBATH of REST..."

We have the same with the Feast of Passover, as recorded in Leviticus 23:7,

> "In the first day ye shall have an holy convocation: ye shall do NO SERVILE WORK therein."

The same was true concerning the Feast of Pentecost, as given in Leviticus 23:21.

The Feast of Tabernacles was also called a Sabbath. It lasted seven days and no work was to be done on the first day, nor on the eighth day, which was the day after the feast. Look at Leviticus 23:34,35,39.

> "Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, The fifteenth day of this seventh month shall be the feast of tabernacles for seven days unto the LORD. On the first day shall be an holy convocation: ye shall do NO SERVILE WORK therein... (34,35) On the first day shall be a SABBATH, and on the eighth day shall be a SABBATH." (39)

A Sabbath for the Land to Rest. We have this recorded in Leviticus 25:1-4a.

> "And the Lord spake unto Moses in mount Sinai, saying, (1) Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye come into the land which I give you, then shall the land keep a SABBATH unto the LORD. (2) Six years thou shalt sow thy field, and six years thou shalt prune thy vineyard, and gather in the fruit thereof; (3) But in the seventh year shall be a SABBATH OF REST unto the land..." (Leviticus 25:1-4).

So far, we have found that God had given many Sabbaths, besides just the seventh day, weekly Sabbath, to the nation of Israel. One can easily determine, by the context, which Sabbath the Lord has reference to. Something else we have seen thus far is that ALL the SABBATHS were REST DAYS, including the Sabbath of the Land, the seventh-day Sabbath, and the ceremonial Sabbaths.

3. The Fourth Commandment.

The Sabbath. In Exodus, Chapter 20, we have the record of the well-known Ten Commandments. In Verses 9,10, we have the Fourth Commandment, which is the Sabbath.

> "Six days shalt thou labor, and do all thy work...But the seventh day is the sabbath of the LORD thy God: in it thou shalt NOT DO ANY WORK, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates."

As one can see, the Sabbath was a day of complete rest for everyone within the Jewish nation, including the children, servants, visitors, cattle, oxen, and etc. This principle was laid down by God at Creation, as stated in Verse 11,

> "For in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day..." (See also Genesis 2:1-3)

4. No Sabbath For 2500 Years.

The principle of one day in seven for rest, was laid down and in the mind of God from Creation; but, was never given to man as a commandment until 2500 years later in Exodus16. We have no record of Adam, Abel, Seth, Enoch, Noah, Abraham, Isaac, or Jacob ever observing the Sabbath.

Only after Israel was liberated from Egypt and received the Law, did the Sabbath appear as a commandment. We have no record of Moses ever keeping any Sabbath until Exodus 16, after Israel‟s deliverance from Egypt. This is the first mention of the weekly Sabbath, in connection with the giving of the manna. Let us notice Exodus 16:26,29,30:

> "Six days ye shall gather it; but on the seventh day, which is the Sabbath, in it there shall be none. (26) See, for that the LORD hath given you the SABBATH, therefore he giveth you on the sixth day the bread of two days; ABIDE YE EVERY MAN IN HIS PLACE, LET NO MAN GO OUT OF HIS PLACE ON THE SEVENTH DAY. So the people rested on the seventh day." (29,30)

Two things are evident:

1. This commandment was given only to the nation of Israel through Moses.
2. It was a complete day of rest and no person was ever to leave their dwelling place.

For those who maintain we are to worship on Saturday, the Sabbath, we find just the opposite in the Bible. Saturday, the Sabbath, was never given as a day of worship; but, rather, a day of complete rest. It was not a day of religious gathering; neither that of any public gathering for fellowship or business. They were commanded to rest, and not leave their homes. Here, again, is the command concerning the Sabbath.

> "See, for that the LORD hath given you the sabbath...abide ye every man in his place, LET NO MAN GO OUT OF HIS PLACE on the seventh day." (Leviticus 16:29)

Those, today, that say we are to worship on the Sabbath, or Saturday, are laboring under a drastic misconception! First of all, they must be Jews, for the Law was never given to Gentiles.

Second, they break the Law of the Sabbath by going to church and worshipping. Remember, the Sabbath was a day of complete rest. It was not a day of worship, and you were never to leave your house.

Years ago, I was talking with a lady, who was a SeventhDay Adventist, and her husband, of another denomination. During the conversation, she stated that tomorrow (Saturday) she was going to church and it made her feel so good to worship on the real Sabbath. I asked her how far she had to drive to church and she answered "About 15 miles." It completely ruined her whole day when I told her that, under the Law, she would be taken out and stoned to death!

I reminded her that Exodus 16:29 says you are not to leave your house on the Sabbath, and Exodus 31:15 says you shall be put to death for breaking the Sabbath. Numbers 15:32-35 tells us that "Sabbath-breaking" is punishable by stoning. Her husband later told me he had never seen his wife so upset. She would have been better off to listen to the Word of God, than to her "church."

A warning to everyone is found in the middle verse of the Bible, Psalm 118:8. "It is better to trust in the LORD than to put confidence in man!" The prophet Jeremiah puts it this way in Jeremiah 17:5,

> "Thus saith the LORD; Cursed be the man that trusteth in man, and maketh flesh his arm, and whose heart departeth from the LORD."

5. What Is The Law?

Many people have the mistaken idea that the Law of the Old Testament is only the Ten Commandments.

The word "law" is used in reference to the entire Law, to distinguish it from the rest of the Old Testament. The Law included the moral laws, the civil laws, the ceremonial laws; and, was given only to the nation of Israel. I have talked to several rabbis, over the years. All agreed that there are approximately 720 laws, under the caption of "The Law."

Sometimes you will find the word "Law" is in reference to the Ten Commandments or the "Tables of Stone." This is made clear by the context. Outside of this, the word "Law" is all-inclusive of the moral, civil, and ceremonial laws of God, unless, otherwise specified.

For example, in 1 Corinthians 9:9, where Paul quotes from the Old Testament Law,

> "For it is written in the law of Moses, Thou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treadeth out the corn..."

This appears nowhere in the Ten Commandments; but, is a civil law found in Deuteronomy 25:4; yet, specified as part of the law of Moses.

Unless a person keeps the whole Law, all 720, the Bible says they are "cursed." Paul makes this clear in writing to the Galatians...

> "For as many as are of the works of the law are under the CURSE: for it is written, Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them." (Galatians 3:10).

This is from Deuteronomy 27:26, which is part of the Law, itself.

6. Who Changed The Sabbath?

As we have seen, the Sabbath has never been changed. There is not one verse of Scripture anywhere in the Bible to substantiate a change of the weekly Sabbath! It was always on the seventh day of the week—Saturday. To say "Sunday is now the Sabbath" is not found in Scripture. Neither is it found in Scripture that the first day of the week, Sunday, is ever called "the Sabbath."

In Romans 10:4 we read,

> "For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth."

With Christ‟s payment on the Cross and His Resurrection, the Law ended. This included the whole Law, moral, civil, and ceremonial. Since this included the seventh-day, weekly Sabbath, does it then include the end of the moral law contained in the Ten Commandments? It most assuredly does!

Then one may ask, "Do we not have a moral code of laws to go by today in God‟s Word?" Yes, we do! Living in the Dispensation of Grace, or Church Age, we have all of the Ten Commandments reiterated several times in the New Testament, with the exception of one—THE SABBATH! Notice the following with their references. We are not giving all the references, just enough to suffice.

Ten Commandments & New Testament References

1. "Thou shalt have no other Gods before me." (Ex. 20:3) John 4:21-23; 1 Tim. 2:5; James 2:19; 1 Cor. 8:6.
2. "Thou shalt not take the name of the LORD thy God in vain." (Ex. 20:7) James 5:12; Matt. 5-33-37; Matt. 6:5-9

3. "Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image..." (Ex. 20:4). Acts 17:29; Romans 1:22,23; 1 John 5:21; 1 Cor. 10:7,14
4. "Honor thy father and mother..." (Ex. 20:12) Ephesians 6:1-4
5. "Thou shalt not kill." (Ex. 20:13) Matt. 5:21,22; Romans 13:9
6. "Thou shalt not commit adultery." (Ex. 20:14) Matt. 5:27,28; 1 Cor. 5:1-13; 1 Cor. 6:9-20; Hebrews 13:4; Romans 13:9
7. "Thou shalt not steal." (Ex. 20:15) Eph. 4:28; 2 Thess. 3:10-12; James 5:1-4; Romans 13:9
8. "Thou shalt not bear false witness." (Ex. 20:16) Colossians 2:9; Eph. 4:25; Romans 13:9
9. "Thou shalt not covet." (Ex. 20:17) Ephesians 5:3; Luke 12:55- 21; Romans 13:9
10. "Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy." (Ex. 20:8-11) Found nowhere in the New Covenant made upon Calvary!

For those of you that want to be justified by the Law; remember, you must keep all of God‟s Law absolutely perfect. This includes the moral, civil, and ceremonial laws, which totaled approximately 720. If you break even one of these laws, you are as guilty and condemned as if you had broken them all. The Word of God makes this clear in James 2:10,

> "For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, HE IS GUILTY OF ALL."

There are those who want to justify themselves by keeping the Law, but do not want the penalty of the Law. For example, dishonoring your parents warranted the death penalty (Deuteronomy 21:18-21; Exodus 21:17). This was the Fifth Commandment. What about adultery, the Seventh Commandment? Christ said in Matthew 5:28,

> "That whosoever looketh on a woman to lust hath committed adultery with her already".

Leviticus 20:10 says that both...

> ...the adulterer and adulteress SHALL SURELY BE PUT TO DEATH."

Those of you that want to be justified by worshipping on Saturday, the "Sabbath," have condemned yourself to death by stoning. (Exodus 31:15). If you left your residence and went to church to worship; you have broken the Fourth Commandment covering the Sabbath. You are not to leave your house for any reason, as the Sabbath was a complete day of REST, not "running around"! (Exodus 16:29,30).

Did you cook anything, or even turn on your stove on Saturday? If you did, then you are to be taken out and stoned to death. In Numbers 15:32,35, the Israelites found a man gathering sticks on the Sabbath. It could have been to build a fire for warmth or cooking purposes, we do not know. Nevertheless, he had broken the Sabbath Day Law and Verse 35 gives us the Lord’s response.

> "And the Lord said unto Moses, The man shall surely be put to death: all the congregation SHALL STONE HIM with stones without the camp. And all the congregation brought him without the camp, and stoned him with stones, and HE DIED; as the LORD commanded Moses."

The Law given to Moses for Israel upon Sinai, was a perfect Law reflecting the glory of God. The Law was given to show mankind his inability to be as righteous as God, Himself. Therefore, it was a "mirror" in which man could see himself for what he is—a sinner! Romans 3:20,

> "Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin."

Therefore, God has concluded that we,

> "For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God" (i.e., His absolute righteousness).

It, therefore, becomes a matter of being justified by Grace (Mt. Calvary) or Law (Mt. Sinai). Galatians 2:16 clarifies the issue,

> "Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: for by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified."

Those who extract the seventh-day "Sabbath" (Saturday) and the various laws concerning what may be eaten and what was forbidden (Leviticus, Chapter 11), seem to disregard the rest of the laws in Leviticus. As you read all 27 chapters of Leviticus, you will find myriads of laws—all received by Moses as part of the entire Law. Notice what God says in the last verse of the last chapter about all of the laws given in Leviticus.

> "These are the commandments, which the LORD commanded Moses for the CHILDREN OF ISRAEL in Mount Sinai." (Leviticus 27:34).

Therefore, when Christ died upon Calvary and was resurrected, the Law came to an end in its entirety. It could be stated no clearer than in Romans 10:4,

> "For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to everyone that believeth."

The end of "The Law" is the whole law, all inclusive of the moral, civil, and ceremonial laws. We are given the righteousness of Jesus Christ, Himself, upon trusting Him as our personal Savior.

"And be found in him (Christ), not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, THE RIGHTEOUSNESS WHICH IS OF GOD BY FAITH." (Philippians 3:9)

7. Why Worship On Sunday?

How did it come to be that the bulk of Christendom worships and observes the first day of the week as the Christian "Sabbath"? There are several things we need to recognize and substantiate with Scripture:

The first day of the week, Sunday, is never referred to in the Bible as "the Sabbath Day."

The assembling of believers in the Book of Acts was never on the seventh day, Saturday.

Jesus never recognized the Sabbath after His Resurrection.

We have no record, anywhere in the Bible, that Jesus ever met with his disciples, or any group, for worship on the Sabbath Day—after His Resurrection.

After the Resurrection, when Christ met with others and the day is specified, it is always the first day of the week, Sunday.

Christians are commanded to assemble themselves together for the purpose of: (1.) resting from their weekly jobs of physical labor, (2.) to fellowship, exhort, and care for one another, (3.) to partake of the Lord's Supper, (4.) to study and learn from the pastor and/or teacher of the local assemblies.

8. Christians Are Commanded To Assemble Themselves Together Regularly.

"Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching." (Hebrews 10:25).

When we assemble together as Christians, what a wonderful opportunity to encourage someone who is going through some difficult times. Having a good attitude, a pleasing and happy disposition, rubs off and encourages others.

An unforgettable incident happened at my Ordination, many years ago. An elderly lady came up to me after the service and told me she had been praying for me ever since I was saved. She related how proud she was of me for yielding to God‟s call to Bible college and to prepare for the pastorate. One will never know what an encouragement that was to me to finish the course I was about to begin. Those words rang in my ears many times while going through college, especially when I was thinking of quitting!

9. The Early Church Worshipped On The First Day, Sunday, NOT The Seventh Day, Saturday.

We are told, specifically, in Hebrews 10:25, as Christians, not to forsake the assembling of ourselves together. Notice, carefully, that the assembling of the Christians in the Book of Acts (the "History Book" of the Early Church) was never on the seventh day, Saturday. Jesus never recognized the Sabbath (Saturday) after His Resurrection; and, we find no record that He ever met with His disciples or any other group for the purpose of worship on the Sabbath, after His Resurrection.

John 20:19 tells us that Jesus met with His disciples on the first day of the week.

> "Then the same day at evening, being the FIRST DAY OF THE WEEK, when the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled for fear of the Jews, came Jesus and stood in the midst, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you."

Then we have recorded, just one week later, the disciples assembled again on the first day of the week, Sunday.

> "And after EIGHT DAYS again his disciples were within, and Thomas with them: then came Jesus, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, Peace be unto you." (John 20:26)

Here is Jesus, during the 40 days after His Resurrection, meeting with His disciples on the EIGHTH DAY, or the first day of the next week—Sunday. Within these 40 days before His ascension, we can find no record that He ever met with His disciples on the Sabbath; nor does He even mention the Sabbath.

Now, let us again go to the "History Book" of the Early Church, where we find the believers meeting on the first day of the week and never on the Sabbath.

> "And again the FIRST DAY OF THE WEEK, when the disciples came to break bread, Paul preached unto them, ready to depart on the morrow; and continued his speech until midnight." (Acts 20:7).

Could the Word of God be any clearer, that the customary day of believer‟s assembling themselves together was the FIRST DAY OF THE WEEK, Sunday, NOT the Sabbath.

One more case in point. You may recall in 1 Corinthians 16:1,2, when Paul was writing to the Corinthians about giving.

He had advised the other churches in Galatia to take up a collection for the poor, less-fortunate Christians in Jerusalem; and, he was advising the Corinthians to do the same.

> "Now concerning the collection for the saints, as I have given order to the churches of Galatia, even do ye. Upon the FIRST DAY OF THE WEEK (Sunday, not the Sabbath) let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him, that there be no gatherings when I come."

This was not an isolated case with the Corinthians, as Paul had also instructed the Galatian churches to do the same thing on the same day, Sunday, the FIRST DAY OF THE WEEK.

Question: What about Paul preaching in the synagogues on the Sabbath (Saturday)? As we go through the Book of Acts, we do find that Paul went into the synagogues on several occasions and preached the Gospel. This, of course, was on the Sabbath, or Saturday. Those that Paul was trying to reach by preaching in the synagogues were LOST people, still trying to keep the Law for their justification. Paul‟s message to them was Grace; not, Law! Paul did not break bread or worship with them. That was not his purpose. He was capitalizing on an opportunity to reach a lot of people at one time and give the Gospel.

Paul describes it this way in 1 Corinthians 9:19,20,

> "For though I be free from all men, yet have I made myself servant unto all, that I might gain the more. And unto the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain the Jews; to them that are under the law, as under the law, that I might gain them that are under the law."

Paul gives his purpose for going into the synagogue on the Sabbath very precisely. It was to win his kinsmen, the Jews, to Christ; not to worship or fellowship with them.

Question: How long would Paul continue this practice? Let us return to Acts 1:8, where we have the commission, or "marching papers of the Christian" given by the Lord, Himself.

> "...ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and to the uttermost part of the earth".

Paul followed this order, "To the Jew first," until they finally rejected his message. At that point, he turned to the Gentiles and the rest of the world, regardless of nationality, color, or creed.

Acts 18:4-7a is the record of the last time that Paul preached to them on the Sabbath Day.

> "And he (Paul) reasoned in the synagogue every sabbath, and persuaded the Jews and the Greeks...Paul was pressed in the spirit, and testified to the JEWS that Jesus (humanity) was Christ (deity). And when they opposed themselves, and blasphemed, he (Paul) shook his raiment, and said unto them, I am clean: FROM HENCEFORTH I WILL GO UNTO THE GENTILES, and he departed thence..."

This is the last mention of the Sabbath in the Book of Acts. It is no more "To the Jew first"; nor, is there any more worship under the Law on the Sabbath. Why? Because...

> "...Christ is the END OF THE LAW for righteousness to everyone that believeth."

Christians, today, are instructed to set aside a day for gathering together. Hebrews 10:25 tells us,

"Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching."

This would be a time of rest, physically and mentally, from our jobs of weekly labor and stress. It is a time of spiritual refreshment as Christians gather together, learning the Word of God, observing the Lord‟s Supper, fellowshipping and singing together. It also provided a special day for all Christians to unite in giving their offerings unto the Lord as the Lord "hath prospered them." This would be following the principle laid down in 1Corinthians 14:40,

"Let all things be done decently and in order."

Therefore, that one day a week which was observed by the disciples was the first day of the week—Sunday. These were Christians, set free from the law of sin and death, including the seventh-day Sabbath. Remember, whenever we find the disciples meeting together, and the day is mentioned, it is always the first day of the week—Sunday.

Let me recapitulate. John 20:19 says it was the "first day of the week" when Christ met with them. Eight days later, that again being the "first day of the week," Christ met with the disciples as recorded in John 20:26. In Acts 20:7, Paul met with the disciples on the "first day of the week"—Sunday. From 1 Corinthians 16:1,2, we find that all the churches in Galatia, as well as the one in Corinth, assembled together on the "FIRST DAY OF THE WEEK."

One can easily see God‟s will; instructing the disciples through the guidance of the Holy Spirit; in choosing a specific day for worship and fellowship; thus, corroborating His Word.

"Let all things be done decently and in order." (1 Corinthians 14:40).

This principle has been followed by Christendom, ever since it was first established by the disciples after the Resurrection of Christ. Just imagine what chaos we would have in the work force if some Christians wanted Monday off to worship. Then, there would be some who wanted Tuesday, or Wednesday, or Thursday; or maybe Friday or Saturday off to worship. No company could run efficiently if a different group of people were missing every day. God knew exactly what He was doing when He established a specific day, that being THE FIRST DAY OF THE WEEK, for Christians to assemble together. It also protected the manufacturing plants and all companies, today, who need a full work force each day to effectively turn out their product or service.

10. What The Saturday "Sabbath" Worshippers Need To Know.

If you hold to worshipping on the "Sabbath" or Saturday, you are under the curse of the Law. You are required to obey all of the 720 laws; that is, the moral, civil, and ceremonial, all the Law of God. Your instructions are in Galatians 3:10,

"For as many are as of the works of the Law are under THE CURSE: for it is written, CURSED is every one that continueth not in ALL THINGS which are written IN THE BOOK OF THE LAW TO DO THEM."

May I also point out that you are to work six days every week— and no less; or you have also broken the Law of God and are under its curse! Notice, the Fifth Commandment concerning the Sabbath requires you to work six full days, not five, or five and a half!

> "Six days shalt thou labor, and do all thy work." (Exodus 20:9).

Can any Seventh-Day worshipper claim this fulfillment of never missing a week of working six full days?

> "For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in ONE point, he is guilty of all." (James 2:10).

11. Our Eternal Life.

Eternal life is a free gift, bought and paid for by the death, burial and Resurrection of Jesus Christ, and received by faith.

> "For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God." NOT OF WORKS, lest any man should boast." (Ephesians 2:8,9)

God does not give you the faith to believe with. He gives you the evidence of the death and Resurrection of Christ. Therefore, it becomes your responsibility to believe or not believe. You are totally responsible for your own choice. John 3:36 gives the verdict for both choices:

> "He that believeth on the Son hath EVERLASTING LIFE: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; BUT THE WRATH OF GOD ABIDETH ON HIM."
>
> "Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ." (Romans 5:1)

12. Our Earthly Walk.

At the moment we trust Christ as our personal Savior, we are indwelt with a new nature—the Holy Spirit. (Ephesians 1:13). The believer still has his old, Adamic nature he was born with. Therefore, both natures are in a battle to control the believer's life. Galatians 5:17, 18 tells us...

> "For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other: so that ye cannot do the things that ye would. But if ye be led of the Spirit, ye are not under the law."

This includes the Law of the Saturday "Sabbath," as well as the other 719 laws!

The flesh always seeks to exalt self; whereas, the Holy Spirit seeks to exalt the Lord Jesus Christ. Romans 8:1,2 is speaking of our service to the Lord and not of Salvation. The Lord makes it very clear that all works done out of the flesh will be condemned.

> "There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, BUT after the Spirit. For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me FREE from the LAW of sin and death."

Remember, the specifics of the law of the seventh-day Sabbath were: you could not leave your dwelling place; you could not build a fire; you could not cook; nor, do work of any kind on the Sabbath. Violation of these Sabbath restrictions required the death penalty, by stoning. The Sabbath was a day of complete rest only. Those, today, holding on to the Saturday "Sabbath" ought to be so thankful they are living in the Day of Grace, and will only suffer loss of reward at the Judgment Seat of Christ (1 Corinthians 3:11-15); instead of being stoned to death under the Law! Therefore,

> "...the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death."

We are grateful to the Lord that the disciples followed the Holy Spirit‟s leading in setting aside the FIRST DAY OF THE WEEK (Sunday) for Christians to assemble. Following this example, we can use this day, not only to rest; BUT, also to worship together; partake of the Lord‟s Supper, fellowship, exhort others; and to study God‟s Word through the preaching of the Word. This provides us opportunity to exalt the Lord by the Holy Spirit, and not the flesh; by exalting self through the keeping of the Old Testament Law of the Sabbath. Proverbs 3:5,6 sums up the whole matter of the Flesh and Spirit conflict.

> "Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths."

THE LAW OF THE SABBATH

God gave the Law to Israel. It was never meant to save;
It regulated all of life from the cradle to the grave.

It was a stern schoolmaster, and showed our lost condition;
As filthy sinners bound for Hell, sentenced to Perdition.

The Sabbath Law belonged to God, a high and holy sign.
That He would keep His promises to Israel in due time.

No cooking, walking, playing; it was really for the best.
In "Six days may work be done; ...the seventh ye shall rest."

For foolish souls who paid no heed, the penalty was death.
God wanted them to know He gave them evr’y breath.

Set apart as a nation, with a mission to win the world!
Instead they crucified their King; and the Age of Grace unfurled.

You can’t get to Heaven by keeping the Law.
Try and you’re destined to fall;

If you offend in just one point, you'll be guilty of it all.

This would seem a cruel hoax making God look most unjust,
To give us what we cannot keep; but, keep it all we must!

Wait! God has sent the Answer. He nailed it to a Cross.
Christ, the "end of law for righteousness." Oh! What a terrible cost!

He "redeemed us from the curse of the law," and paid sin's penalty.
What no mere man could ever do, Grace now extends for free!

There's neither "Jew nor Greek;" but, all in Christ are one.
Israel's set aside; we're grafted in; but, this nation is not done!

When the Deliverer comes out of Zion, they'll be "forgiven by the Lord."
From Tribulation to Kingdom they'll go, as promised in God's Word.

We know the Sabbath is not for today. It's a Covenant Sign to the Jews.
We will follow our Savior's lead, and on Sunday fill the church pews.

Praise the Lord for His Amazing Grace, and Salvation full and free.
He only asks that we use each day to "Win the lost for Me!

DR. LAW Brings Us To DR. GRACE

By David J. Stewart
Based upon Brother Lester Roloff's beautiful sermon, "Dr. Law And Dr. Grace"

Evangelist Lester Roloff (1914-1982) has a wonderful MP3 sermon called, "[6]The Two Greatest Doctors Who've Ever Lived: Dr. Law And Dr. Grace" ([7]Part Two). One of these doctors is despised and the other is greatly misunderstood by the world...

> Romans 5:13 and 20-21, "(For until the law sin was in the world: but sin is not imputed when there is no law. ... Moreover the law entered, that the offence might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound: That as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life by Jesus Christ our Lord."
>
> Romans 8:9-10, "But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his. And if Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the Spirit is life because of righteousness."

Dr. Law is good at his job, the best diagnostic doctor in history. When a bad man runs into a good law, he hates it! Dr. Law is very firm and doesn't get along with a lot of people! Dr. Law diagnoses what is wrong with us, and boldly shows us our problem, that we have heart trouble (Jeremiah 17:9). WE ARE WOEFUL SINNERS!!!

Dr. Religion is a horrible doctor. He tells the sick patient that there's nothing to worry about, everything will be okay, just get water baptized and join a church to get religion. Dr. Religion is very pleasant and likeable, but he is irresponsible and has killed billions of patients. In sharp contrast, Dr. Law is unpleasant, making the dying patient feel bad about them self, telling us the truth that they are dead in trespasses and sin (Ephesians 2:1), and we are the cause of our own sickness. Dr. Law tells the dying patient that they need a surgery. The unsaved man needs heart surgery!

Dr. Law cannot perform the surgery, he can only diagnose the problem! But he brings us across the hall into another room to meet Dr. Grace, Who is an expert heart surgeon. Dr. Grace asks, has the patient tried all other doctors? Dr. Law says, "Yes, he has, but to no avail." Dr. Be Good and Dr. Religion failed him! Dr. Do Good and Dr. Feel Good couldn't help the man either! So Dr. Grace asks the patient, "Are you willing to trust me fully?" The patient agrees and Dr. Grace does the surgery, and that man is redeemed!!! In case you haven't figured it out, Dr. Grace is the Lord Jesus Christ. The surgery is free, it's already been paid for by Dr. Grace!!!

The just shall live by faith!!! Galatians 3:11 and 22, "But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, The just shall live by faith. ... But the scripture hath concluded all under sin, that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe."

The LAW is our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ. Galatians 3:24-26, "Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith. But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster. For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus." Notice that believers are NO LONGER UNDER THE LAW (schoolmaster).

The world is filled with Gospel perverters! God divided His Word into two parts: Old Testament (Law) and New Testament (Grace). God has given us LAW and GRACE. The heresy of Lordship Salvation confuses these two. Wrong Repentance confuses these two. Dr. John MacArthur is a wicked false prophet, who confuses discipleship with salvation, teaching satanic Calvinism, perverting the Gospel, complicating the simplicity that is in Christ.

Salvation is by grace alone, through faith alone, in the sacrifice of the Lord Jesus Christ on the cross for our sins!!! Christ died on the cross, He was buried, and three days later He resurrected. This is THE GOSPEL by which we are saved when we believe. 1st Corinthians 1:21, "For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe."

You don't repent and then believe. Repentance and faith are not two separate acts to being saved. The man who believes has also repented, which is why the words "believe" and "believed" are mentioned in the Gospel of John (God's Gospel tract according to John 20:31), but the word "repent" is never mentioned, not even once. Repentance is necessary for salvation, but to "repent" concerning salvation, simply means that a person has judged them self as being a guilty sinner, in response to Dr. Law having done his job well.

> Romans 3:19-20, "Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God. Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin."

Every unsaved person is still under the curse of the LAW, because of sin, for all men are guilty sinners in God's sight (Romans 3:23). Ah, but every born-again believer is no longer under the LAW; but rather, we are under GRACE. This is why we read in Romans 5:20-21, "Moreover the law entered, that the offence might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound: That as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life by Jesus Christ our Lord."

A lot of well-meaning people on the internet, who are woefully ignorant and horribly deceived, continually try to combine the LAW along with GRACE to be saved. This is what the heresy of Calvinism does. This is what the heresy of Lordship Salvation does. This is what the heresy of Wrong Repentance (i.e., "turn from your sins" or "be willing to turn from sins") does.

I've heard some foolish Baptist pastors try to downplay the seriousness of the issue, by cutting slack to corrupt preachers who teach wrong repentance. It is true that you cannot turn to Christ by faith to be saved, without turning from something (John 3:20). That is repentance. 1st Thessalonians 1:9, "For they themselves shew of us what manner of entering in we had unto you, and how ye turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God." They weren't saved by turning away from their idols, but by turning in faith toward the living God. You don't get saved by repenting, you get saved by believing on the Lord Jesus Christ (Acts 16:30-31).

But turning to Christ to be saved, and in the process turning your back against whatever was hindering you from being saved, does NOT mean forsaking sinful behavior, nor even being willing to forsake sinful behavior. That would constitute self-righteous works! There is a clear and definite line of heresy that cannot be crossed for the Gospel to remain true and thus valid. Satan loves to blur that lines of distinction between truth and falsehood, and thus, between salvation and damnation. No one is saved who thinks John MacArthur's plan of salvation is correct! We get saved by BELIEVING the Gospel, period!!!

4.8.5 Remember The Old Paths (2023-08-12 10:40)

Jeremiah 6:16, "Thus saith the LORD, Stand ye in the ways, and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls. But they said, We will not walk therein."

Remember the days when...

Moms were at home,
Dads were at work,
Brothers were in the army, and Sisters got married before having children!!

Crime did not pay!!
Hard work did and people knew the difference!!

Moms could cook;
Dads would work;
Children would be quiet!

Husbands were loving;
Wives were submissive;
Children were polite!!

Women wore the jewelry;
Men wore the pants;
Harlots wore the paint and children wore the stripes!!

Women looked like ladies;
Men look like gentlemen, and children looked decent!!

People loved the truth and hated a lie;
they would follow the Pastor and ignore the world;
they came to get IN and not to get OUT!!

Hymns sounded Godly;
Sermons sounded helpful;
Shouting sounded normal and crying sounded often!!

Church folk were faithful;
Sinners were respectful and everybody had manners!!

Cursing was wicked;
Drinking was evil;
Divorce was unbelievable;
the Flag was honored;
America was beautiful and God was welcome!!

We READ the Bible in public;
Prayed in school and preached on the court house steps!!

Going to Church was a blessing; going to school was an education and going to a gas station that sold beer was a disgrace!!

Grandma and GrandPa were wise;
Mom and Dad were together and Children were precious!!

To be called an American was worth dying for;
to be called a Christian was worth living for and to be called a traitor was worth fighting for!!

Cowards were shot;
Deserters were hung and

Criminals were sent to prison, not WASHINGTON!!
Sex was a dirty word;
Homo was an unheard of word and abortion was an illegal word!!

Love was clean;
courting was watched;
dating was going to Church and marriage was till death!!

Preachers preached because they had a message;
Singers sung because they had a song;
Christians shouted because they had the VICTORY and sinners got convicted!!

Preachers preached from the inspired KING JAMES BIBLE;
Singers sang from the heart;
Sinners repented of unbelief and got SAVED!!

A New Birth meant NEW LIFE in the Holy Spirit;
Repentance meant A CHANGE OF MIND, not a change of behavior to be saved;
Salvation meant being indwelt with the Holy Spirit;
Discipleship meant being changed by the Holy Spirit;
Joining the Church meant you would attend that church!!

Being a Preacher meant you were CALLED OF GOD, not choosing it as a profession; being a Deacon meant you would serve the Church; being a Christian meant you would live for Jesus and being a Sinner meant somebody was probably praying for you!!

Laws were based on the BIBLE;
HOMES saw to it that the Bible was read and churches taught the Bible!!

You could borrow money on your Church letter;
a Man’s word was his bond and a woman’s virtue was priceless!!
Preachers were more interested in NEW CONVERTS than new clothes and new cars!!

Churches wanted to reach every creature with the GOSPEL more than new buildings and paving parking lots!!
People prayed and wept over the lost in their community!!

God was worshipped;
Christ was exalted and the Holy Ghost was followed!!

The Bible was believed not corrected;
Sinners got Saved;
Converts were CONVERTED!!

The Gospel was PREACHED not shared.

THOSE WERE THE DAYS WHEN…

We would go witnessing in tears!

We prayed a lot and talked little on the phone!

We spent more time with the Bible than the TV!

We would weep about lost souls!

We would enjoy going to CHURCH more than anything!

We had testimony and song services!

We would really try to do something for God!

We would say AMEN to the truth!

We would go to the ALTAR to repent of sin!

We would bring folks to Church!

We would take the Pastor home for Sunday dinner!

We gave tithes and offerings gladly!

We would seek the WILL OF GOD on everything!

We would stand against sin anytime and anywhere!!

THAT WAS THE OLD PATH!!!

But today...

Isaiah 5:20,

Woe unto them that call evil good, and good evil;

that put darkness for light, and light for darkness;
that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!

4.8.6 The Roman Catholic Religion Leads To Hell (2023-08-13 16:33)

Mark 7:9, "And he said unto them, Full well ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition. "

There is not a more damnable deception on the face of the earth than the Prisonhouse of Roman and Orthodox Catholicism. The only real difference between the two cults is that the Orthodox Catholic religion is headquartered in Moscow, Russia; the Roman Catholic religion is headquartered in Vatican City, Rome. Both false religions false teach Sacramental Salvation. Both false religions teach that you must join their cult, and keep their Seven Sacraments to get to Heaven.

Both false religions worship Jesus' mother, Mary. Jeremiah 7:18, "The children gather wood, and the fathers kindle the fire, and the women knead their dough, to make cakes to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto other gods, that they may provoke me to anger". The Queen of Heaven has its origin in pagan Babylonian worship. Nowhere does the inspired Holy Bible direct God's children to make and bow down to graven images of Mary or anybody else. Yet, the ungodly Satanic Catholic church has done just that, making graven images and bowing down to them.

In fact, if you search online for the Catholic Ten Commandments, you will quickly discover that Catholics have completely removed the Second Commandment from the Bible, which forbids bowing down to idols and graven images. To compensate for the missing Second Commandment, Catholics have deceitfully split the Tenth Commandment against coveting thy neighbour's possessions into two commandments. Here, [1]SEE FOR YOURSELF.

Dear reader, I am worried for you. I am worried for most professed "Christians" today. I am worried for them simply because most people who profess to be a "

Christian

" have never been born again. Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born again.

For example: Heavy metal rocker Ozzy Osbourne and his wife Sharon claim to be Christians. You read right! The self-professed

"[2]Prince of Darkness" actually professes to be a Christian! Ozzy [3]famously declared himself a "lunatic" during an MTV interview in 1986 and continues to embrace his rebellious reputation even now at age 72. I'd like to share a dangerous quote with you from writer Camilla Klein:

> Ozzy Osbourne was born Christian, but Christianity did not play a significant role in his upbringing. His parents were more concerned with providing for their children financially rather than instilling religious values in them. [4]SOURCE

Dear reader, no one has ever been "born Christian." Kindly said, Camilla is wrong. What saith the inspired Scripture? John 1:12-13, "

But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name:

Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

" No one is born Christian! You are only a genuine Christian if you have received Jesus Christ as your personal Savior, by BELIEVING on His name in faith. Jesus died on a cross to pay for your sins and mind. He was buried. Three days later Jesus resurrected from the dead. These three facts comprise THE GOSPEL (1st Corinthians 15:1-6), by which all who BELIEVE IT are instantly, irrevocably and permanently born again (Romans 1:16). We are all born into this world with a sinful nature, spiritually dead (Romans 5:12; 1st Corinthians 2:14-16).

Ozzy Osborne and his family are [5]members of the apostate Church of England (the Anglican faith of which Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort were all members in the 19th century). The [6]Church of England is extremely ecumenical and vague, teaching that you get saved by becoming a follower of Christ. Unfortunately, that is not what the Bible requires to be saved. What the Church of England is teaching is a perversion of the Gospel. Judas became a disciple (follower) of Jesus. In fact, Judas Iscariot was one of Christ's very apostles. Yet, in John 6:70 Jesus said that Judas had a devil in him. Judas sadly died in his sins without Christ and is still today burning in the torments of Hell beneath.

Dear reader, you cannot be born again by merely becoming a follower (a disciple) of Christ. In John 3:7 Jesus emphatically warned that unless a man is BORN AGAIN, he cannot enter into the Kingdom of God. How do you become born again? I am glad that you asked. You begin by admitting to God that you're a guilty sinner. You must know what you are being saved from. You and I are dirty sinners (Romans 3:19-23). The penalty for sin is death (Romans 6:23). This includes the Second Death, which is to be tormented forever in Hell, fire and brimstone, day and night without rest or hope of escape (Revelation 14:11, 20:11-15; 21:8).

There are no exits in Hell, but Heaven has only one door and that is Jesus. John 10:9, "I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture.

" Jesus is the way, the truth and the life (John 14:6). The Bible says that Jesus is the only begotten (biological) Son of God, who is the Christ (John 3:16; 20:31). Jesus died

Satan is a beautiful liar! The Devil and demon's favorite activity is to make unsaved religious people feel comfortable in their unconverted state, awaiting the moment when they die in their sins and then spend the rest of eternity burning in the Lake of Fire. It happens to hundreds of thousands of people every single day, when they die.

At nearly every funeral we are told by the speaker something like this: "They're in a better place now." But are they really in a better place? ...

> Luke 16:19-23, "There was a certain rich man, which was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared sumptuously every day: And there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, which was laid at his gate, full of sores, And desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man's table: moreover the dogs came and licked his sores. And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels into Abraham's bosom: the rich man also died, and was buried; And in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom."

As we see from the preceding true passage of Scripture, Lazarus went to a better place, but the unsaved rich man went to a terrifying place in Hell. Jesus never called Luke 16:19-31 a parable, as He always did when telling parables. Jesus didn't explain after ward what this passage meant, again, because it is NOT a parable (so there was no need to explain it). When telling parables, Jesus never used Proper Nouns, but in this factual account the Lord mentions Abraham and Lazarus. Luke 16:19-31 is NOT a parable! It would be poor Bible study and wrong to claim otherwise, when nothing in the Word of God indicates otherwise. In the Bible God said what He meant, and He meant what He said.

We are discussing the multitudes of people today who falsely claim to be "

Christian,

but they have never been born again by FAITH ALONE in the GOOD NEWS of Jesus Christ crucified on a cross, buried and physically risen the third day. This is THE GOSPEL (1st Corinthians 15:1-6).

Another example is Hollywood actor Dwayne Johnson, who claims to be "Christian," but is a devout Roman Catholic. I will say it loud and clear until the die that I graduate to go to Heaven, Roman Catholicism is a deadly prisonhouse of religion—set on fire of Hell. The Catholic church does not teach a free grace Gospel by faith alone in Christ alone. Instead, Catholics are taught that they must keep their Seven Sacraments to get to Heaven (which is WORKS, not faith).

Mark 7:9, "And he [Jesus] said unto them [the Pharisees], Full well ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition. " Like Catholics, the hellbound religious Pharisees were trying to earn their way to Heaven by keeping the Old Testament law (i.e., by doing WORKS). What saith the Scripture? Romans 3:20,

"Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin."

I am sad that Dwayne Johnson is a fake Christian. I am not saying that he's not a good man. I think Dwayne is a great guy and a good person. Unfortunately, even good people are still guilty sinners in God's sight, until we accept Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for our sins, believing that He resurrected from the dead (1st Thessalonians 4:14). No one who follows the doctrine of the Catholic church is saved, because their plan of salvation doesn't match up to the Holy Bible's plan of salvation. I beg you, if you are Catholic, to come out of that accursed cesspool of iniquity and place your faith only in Christ. Galatians 1:6-9 warns that anyone (even an angel) who preaches another gospel is cursed by God. Since there is only one plan of salvation, there cannot be two ways to Heaven.

One of my hobbies is researching the religious beliefs of famous people. I am curious. I do believe that Karen Carpenter (1950-1983) was a born again believer and went to Heaven. She dies at only age 32, from a heart attack due to starving herself. She thought she was fat and would vomit up her food to fight weight gain. She was a beautiful woman, but she destroyed her own self by thinking something that simply wasn't true. So sad.

Likewise, billions of people are thinking wrong about how to get to Heaven. Proverbs 14:12, "There is a way which seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death." The Catholic religion may SEEM right to you dear reader, but it only SEEMS right; it is very wrong biblically. From the cradle-to-the-casket, Catholicism has a religious package for you, but it is all a Satanic lie. The Catholic religion is an apple filled with worms!

When someone professes to be a "

Christian,

I am always very leery of their claim. This is because Mormons, Jehovah's Witnesses, Seventh-day Adventists, Church of Christ, Lutherans, Catholics, United Methodists, New Reformed Calvinists, Lordship Salvation Baptists and dozens of other Satanic false religions all preach a counterfeit plan of salvation.

Only a born-again, washed in the precious blood of the Lamb, admitted guilty sinner who has placed his or her childlike faith in the GOOD NEWS of Jesus Christ is saved. That GOOD NEWS is simply that Jesus is the Christ who died on a cross to pay for your sins, was buried and bodily raised up from the dead three days later. If that GOOD NEWS is your only hope for Heaven, then you are saved. A sinner's faith plus the Gospel equals eternal life. Anyone who insists that you first must give up the old sinful ways to be saved is preaching another gospel.

I love and fully agree with Pastor Harry A. Ironside (1876-1951), who said:

> "The Gospel is not a call to repentance, or to amendment of our ways, to make restitution for past sins, or to promise to do better in the future. These things are proper in their place, but they do not constitute the Gospel; for the Gospel is not good advice to be obeyed, it is good news to be believed. Do not make the mistake then of thinking that the Gospel is a call to duty or a call to reformation, a call to better your condition, to behave yourself in a more perfect way than you have been doing in the past ...
>
> Nor is the Gospel a demand that you give up the world, that you give up your sins, that you break off bad habits, and try to cultivate good ones. You may do all these things, and yet never believe the Gospel and consequently never be saved at all."
>
> SOURCE: Harry A. Ironside, from the Gospel tract titled: '[7]What Is The Gospel?'

Repentance is simply a matter of acknowledging THE TRUTH of your sinnership. 2nd Timothy 2:25, "In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth; And that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will." Repentance is entirely a matter of the heart, where a person acknowledges THE TRUTH that one is a guilty sinner in the sight of a holy God; thus, believing the Gospel you are saved by faith alone.

Whatever changes that God wants to see take place in a new believer's life is a separate matter of discipleship, not sonship. It is a matter of service, not salvation. Have you been born again dear friend? You cannot go to Heaven unless you've been born again. If you have questions about salvation, you are welcome to contact me (kingjamesbible77@gmail DOT com). I highly recommend that you take the time to read Michael P. Bowen's excellent helpful book titled, '[8]I NEVER KNEW YOU' (free .pdf format). Hardcopies are available on Amazon.

Please don't buy into the Devil's lie that you can get to Heaven by merely claiming to belong to the Christian religion. There is no such thing as the Christian religion. There is only the new birth. Anything else is religion, which cannot save anyone. Salvation is NOT found in any religion, but in a person—the Lord Jesus Christ (Acts 16:30-31). Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do.

Billions of Catholics have already died in their sins, plundering into the everlasting fires of Hell. The encouraging news is that it's still not too late for you. I was saved at age 13 in 1980. Once I became born again, my eternal destination was forever settled. I haven't always done the right thing as a Christian. I've made plenty of bad choices along life's way. But these sins, failures and mistakes were all done IN GRACE. Remember, a believer always falls IN GRACE, but never FROM GRACE.

We read in Galatians 5:4 that only those who attempt to gain access to Heaven by keeping the law (doing WORKS) have fallen FROM GRACE. Galatians 5:4, "Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; ye are fallen from grace." The saint falls IN GRACE. Romans 6:1, "What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound?" I love that Bible verse. The more that a child of God chooses to sin, the more God's grace will abound, so that we could never lose God's free gift of eternal life. Albeit, this does not grant us permission to sin. Romans 3:31, "Do we then make void the law through faith? God forbid: yea, we establish the law."

4.8.7 Catholics Teach The Exact Same False Meaning Of “Born Again” As Lordship Salvationists (2023-08-14 16:13)

Galatians 1:7 and 9, “...there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ ... As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed.”

The following quote is taken from a 100 % devout Catholic website, authored by David MacDonald, which clearly reveals that all of the apostate Contemporary Christian Music [CCM] singers, sinister ecumenical ministers, and Lordship Salvationists; totally AGREE with Catholic theology (which is unbiblical heresy and lies of Satan).

The following is damnable heresy and a FALSE GOSPEL from David MacDonald’s web-site:

> Note: If you have never made a personal commitment to Christ. If you have never asked him into your heart and to be Lord of your life, I encourage you to do that now.
>
> Are Catholics Born Again?
>
> I think Evangelicals and Catholics totally agree about the awesomeness of a personal encounter with Jesus. In Pope Benedict XVI's new encyclical, 'Spe Salvi' we read:
>
> 'Life in its true sense is not something we have exclusively in or from ourselves, it is a relationship. And life in its totality is a relationship with him who is the source of life. If we are in relation with him who does not die, who is life itself and love itself, then we are in life. Then we 'live... Our relationship with God is established through communion with Jesus — we cannot achieve it alone or from our own resources alone.'
> Much debate has set Catholic 'Baptism' against the Evangelical 'Born again' concept. I think that greater common ground can be found if we compare the Evangelical 'Born Again' experience to the Catholic 'Second Conversion' experience which is when a Catholic surrenders to Jesus with an attitude of 'Jesus, take my will and my life, I give everything to you.' This is a spontaneous thing that happens during the journey of faithful Catholics who 'get it.' Yup, the Catholic Church teaches a personal relationship with Christ:"

That is EXACTLY what John MacArthur, Ray Comfort, Kirk Cameron, CCM singers, Max Lucado, Rick Warren, Marty Herron, Gary Walton, Sam Adams, John Piper, Moody Bible Institute, Bob Jones University and all the other Lordship Salvationist infidels are preaching today. In case you haven't realized it yet, Lordship Salvation is CATHOLIC DOCTRINE!!! David MacDonald claims that evangelical Christians and Catholics agree that salvation is an "experience" in which a person "surrenders to Jesus with an attitude of 'Jesus, take my will and my life, I give everything to you."'

May I say, salvation is not a trade or exchange (as [2]Dr. John MacArthur heretical teaches), it is a gift. A gift is a TAKE proposition, not a GIVE proposition. You simply take a gift, without giving anything in return. If it were necessary to surrender your life to Christ to be saved, or to turn away from sinful bad habits, then salvation could not be a free gift. Here are some memorable preacher quotes...

> "It is 'Good News' if no one must have good works before salvation, or after salvation. For salvation to truly be by grace, it must not have any stipulations of any kind at any time. Works before, during or after; works cannot be evidence of my salvation."
> —Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold, "Does Calvinism Change The Gospel?"
>
> Good works are not the payment for sin, the payment for sin is death.
>
> Salvation is not a reward for the righteous, it is a gift for the guilty!
>
> Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

> Turning away from sinful ways would be a work. Faith puts all of the merit where it belongs, on the object of our faith, Jesus and His work.
>
> If to "repent" means to forsake our sinful ways TO BE SAVED, but Jesus already paid for our sins by dying on the cross, then what are we repenting from?
>
> The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU.

May I say, that is a doctrine of devils. Being born again is NOT an "experience" as David MacDonald refers to, nor is it surrendering one's life to Christ; it is a lost sinner being saved by the power of God (John 1:12-13). It is a miracle of God in response to a man's faith in Jesus Christ, the Son of God. I tell you that the Catholic religion is Satanic through and through.

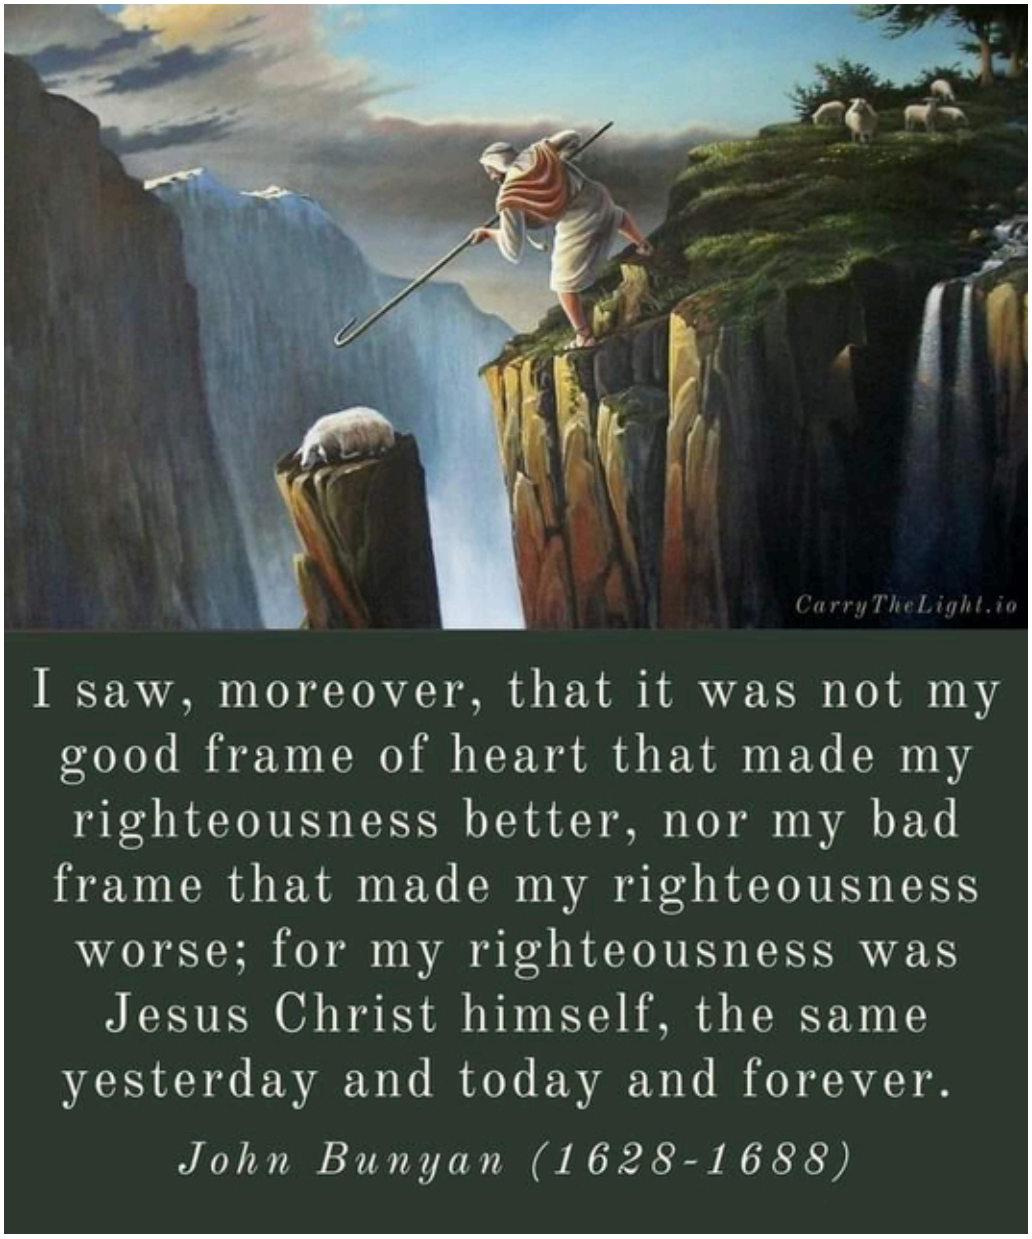
Being born-again is a new birth—a second birth, a spiritual birth into the kingdom of God. It is having He (Jesus) who is the Beginning (Revelation 1:8) born in us. Just as the physical birth (first birth) brought us into this earthly life, so also does the spiritual birth (second birth) bring us into God's family.

The [3]Salvation Army follows the heresy of their founders, William and Catherine Booth, who considered salvation a "state" that could be lost if one failed to continue in obedient faith. May I say, salvation is NOT a "state," it is a new birth. It is a second birth, a spiritual birth. The spiritual birth is as irreversible as the physical birth. The teaching that salvation is a "state" that is conditional upon "continued obedient faith" is demonic works-salvation. The believer's salvation is secure in Christ's finished work of redemption. Jesus died, was buried and arose. He ascended into Heaven. The blood has been applied to the heavenly mercy seat (Hebrews 9:12,24). The price has been paid.

I KNOW I am saved because eternal life is rooted in the PROMISES of God (Titus 1:2); and not upon how good I'm doing in life as a believer. My salvation is secure in Jesus Christ and has nothing to do with my efforts. Eternal life is a gift (Ephesians 2:8-9). A gift has no strings attached. Our part is simply to trust upon the name of Jesus. God does the saving (John 1:12-13). Salvation is not a state, nor an experience, nor a feeling; but rather, "Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever" (1st Peter 1:23). We are born anew of the Spirit of God (John 3:5) by the seed of God's Word. Amen!

Catholics, CCM singers, ecumenical ministers, Lordship Salvationists, and other apostates, all talk about being born-again as a [4]feeling or an [5]experience; but they deny the power thereof (2nd Timothy 3:5), which is the Gospel of Jesus Christ (Romans 1:16; 1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Notice in the preceding quote that David MacDonald, admittedly a devout Catholic, continually refers to being born-again as an "EXPERIENCE" (just as the apostate [6]Newsboys CCM group do)!

David MacDonald defines being "born-again" the exact same way as apostate CCM singers and sinister ecumenical ministers, teaching: "Jesus, take my will and my life, I give everything to you." That is a false Gospel. Judas Iscariot was one of Christ's very apostles—a follower of Jesus—but Judas still went to Hell forever. Jesus called Judas "a devil" in John 6:70.



Notice that the mention of "sin" is not made. Being born-again is a matter of having one's sins taken away by the precious blood of Jesus Christ (1st Peter 1:18-19; John 1:7; Revelation 1:5). Colossians 1:14, "In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgive- ness of sins." The Pope doesn't mention "sin" when he speaks of being born-again. David MacDonald talks about having an experience, just as the evil Newsboys sing and teach; but they leave off any mention of coming to God as a guilty, hell-deserving "sinner" (Romans 3:19).

Modern apostates jumble a bunch of Biblical terms into their fruit cocktail of religious music and sermonettes; but fail to present the Biblical Gospel of a man coming to God as a guilty sinner and trusting upon the Lord, apart from all self-righteous works, to be forgiven (Romans 4:5-6; Ephesians 2:8-9). Jesus died, was buried, and rose again for our sins (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Salvation is not a feeling, nor an experience; it is a miracle of God in response to a sinner's faith in the Son of God, Jesus Christ (John 20:31; Romans 10:3-4; Galatians 3:26).

Asking Jesus to "take your will and life," and "giving everything to Him," are not the ways to be saved. This is made clear in Matthew 7:21-23. In verse 21, Jesus said, "Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven." Jesus said You must do "the will of my Father." What is the will of God how to be saved?

John 6:40 tells us exactly what the will of God concerning salvation is... "And THIS IS THE WILL of Him [God the Father] that sent Me [God the Son], that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on Him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day." Amen and amen! So there you have it—the will of God how to be saved. The will of God is to BELIEVE on Jesus Christ—the Son of God, the Christ.

1st Corinthians 15:1-4, "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures."

4.8.8 Emerging Church Theology (2023-08-15 17:11)

THE POWER OF GOD OR THE POWER OF SATAN?

by Pastor Bob Gray Sr.

Genesis 1:27, “So God created man in his own image, after our likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth.” ... Romans 1:23, “And changed the glory of the incorruptible glory of God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and four-footed beasts, and creeping things.”

In Genesis chapter one it says that God created man in his image. In Romans chapter one it says man created God in his image.

God Wants Man To Be Like Him
God made man in his own image but man sinned and fell from the image of God. Then God made it possible for man to be redeemed so that someday man would be like God.

> I John 3:2, “…we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is.”

The great heart of God longed for man to be like him so he made man in his own image.

Mankind fell and when mankind sinned God made it possible for them to be in his image someday. Between the time man is saved and the time he awakes in the likeness of Christ he is to gradually grow into image of God.

Man Wants To Be Like God
There is no doubt about the desires of mankind to be like God Man has an innate desire to be like God. He sets up godlike values to live by whether he is religious or not. He judges others who do not live by those values whether biblical or not. All over the world we find cultures with their own view of godliness or godlikeness. Individual societies function all over the planet based on their idea of God and becoming godlike.

Satan Wants Man To Be Like God
He came to Eve in the Garden of Eden and said if you will eat of that fruit you will be as gods knowing or determining your self what is good and what is evil.

There is an agreement here in that man wants to be like God and God wants man to be like God while Satan also wants man to be like God.

It Seems That All Three Agree
We have three the heavenly Father, man, and Satan all in agreement on something. That agreement is that all three want God and man to be alike! However, there is a controversy that exists here. God wants man in his image while man wants God in his image.

This Boils Down to Two Choices for Man
Thus, we have basically the two religions of the world. One religion is that God wants man in his image while the second is man wanting God in his image. God desires for man to become like him and man desires for God to be like man. In Genesis 1:26-27 God created man in his image and in Romans 1:21-23 man in turn is creating God in his image.

God wants man to conform to him and man wants God to conform to him. Please bear in mind this is the same goal. God desires for man to be like him and we by nature like to be like God but the controversy is that God wants us to conform to his image while we want God to conform to our image? It is such a subtle thing! It looks at a glance as if it's the same thing or the same goal.

This is the difference between true Christianity and charismatic Emerging church Christianity.

This is the difference between Jack Hyles' Christianity and Bill Hybles Christianity, Tom Malone Christianity and Paul Crouch Christianity, Lee Roberson Christianity and Robert Schuler Christianity, Curtis Hutson Christianity and Benny Hinn Christianity, or John R. Rice Christianity and Jimmy Swaggart Christianity.

Almost in every state you may go to you will find a large charismatic church and the minute you walk in and talk to the janitor you will quickly discover religion number two. There is no difference between their music and the world's music. There is no difference between their immodest dresses on the females than you will find on the streets of their cities. There is no difference between the haircuts of the males than you will find in the population of their city. They have taken God and brought him down to their image and they project that image to their city.

A Christianity where man is making God in his image is what is being displayed. May I ask a question are you changing your image? In religion number two they have made God conform to them instead of them conforming to God. They are changing their image!

Turn on the average Charismatic or Emerging church TV program and you will find in this modern movement man has said to God we will dress like we desire to dress, sing like we desire to sing, wear our hair like we desire to wear our hair, and God we will invite you to come visit with us. We will allow you to be with us as we are! You will meet us on our level!

Who is Conforming to Whom?

My question is who is conforming to whom? Are you changing your image? "We want you God to conform to our image!" However, God says I want you to conform to my image.

All you had to do was visit a great fundamental Baptist church and then attend some Emerging church and you will see the difference in the crowds. I have preached for 45 years that God's people are to conform to God and not God to God's people.

Modesty is still modesty! Long hair on males is still unscriptural no matter what society dictates as "hip." Bad music is still bad music even when Jesus' name is used!

Walk among both congregations and see how the respective members dress and you will find that this modern Emerging church Christianity is nothing more than man attempting to conform God to man's image. The question is are we who call ourselves fundamental doing the same thing?

May I also suggest that the reason the worldly type of religion is so popular is because of the conforming God to man. It is less convicting, confining, and constraining with a fleshly appeal that is far more appealing to the populous! It is an amusement park atmosphere, rock concert atmosphere, Broadway atmosphere, and Burger King atmosphere every Sunday.

Some Baptist Churches are Becoming Emerging Churches

By the way this "Emerging Church" philosophy enjoyed by some young independent Baptist pastors is nothing more than bringing God down to man in order to reach man.

All over America you will find springing up a Calvary Chapel, Community Church, Cathedral Church, Gospel Center, Vineyard Church, Church on the Rock, etc., with a basic philosophy of bringing God down to man. Their females are immodest with their shorts, halters, and blue jeans while the males sing their Gospel hip hop while wearing long hair and earrings.

They advertise contemporary services because they intend to bring God down to man. They claim contemporary services with a conservative doctrine. The problem is doctrine is only as good as the conduct. What you believe is always reflected in your behaviour!

When you attend a fundamental Baptist church you will find God's people attempting to conform to the image of God rather than causing God to conform to man. Let's face it, there are more people who want to have God to conform to their image than there are people who want to conform to God's image. However, it is necessary to note that God's people have always been called a "remnant." We will always be a remnant until the Rapture and then we will be the majority.

When we bring God down to man then we will need the power of darkness to draw using the world to reach the world. The result is we end up with the world and in darkness. What some are tolerating today will be the down fall of the next generation.

That is the struggle in every church in America, every Teen Department in America, every home in America, every Christian school in America, and every Christian College in America. The difference between the thousands who attend Bill Hybles' church and those who attended Jack Hyles' church was not numerical but spiritual! Bill Hybles was changing the image of God into the image of man while Jack Hyles was changing the image of man into the image of God. The fundamental Baptist men of God say here is the King James Bible now you conform to this book. There are others who say we will not change our hairstyle, our music, our miniskirts, our vampire lipstick, our movie watching, our rock n roll beat, our male wearing of earrings, our martini drinking, our dancing to match the Scriptures. Some will simply use something other than the King James to endorse our worldly lifestyle.

The sad part is some who stick by the King James and still bring God down to man will eventually produce a generation of Bible deniers.

They call it a holy dance, a holy kiss, Christian liberty, contemporary ministry, Christian TV, and that way we will invite God to come and worship with us and we will conform God to our image. Every religion and every church is one of the two!

By the way church number two will preach on being like Jesus, on being Christ like but what they mean is to make Jesus like them and not them like Jesus! What they mean is let God conform to us and church number one means let us conform to God!

Giving the People What They Want Via Surveys is Destructive

Robert Schuler and Bill Hybles did exactly the same thing. They both had a community survey to find out what the people wanted in a local church. Then they designed and conformed their churches to their surveys. I made up my mind that they would sell popsicles in Hell before I would be a party to such spiritual nonsense! These are not men of God they are men of the people!

God did not take a survey before he gave the Ten Commandments to Moses. The one time Moses took a survey about whether to go into the Land of Canaan it cost Moses his very life. We are not to conform God to man but rather we are to conform man to God. Bill Hybles says he will build a church to suit the people while Jack Hyles said he would build a church to suit God!

There are two religions or two Christianities with one conforming God to man's image and the second one conforming man to God's image! Also those institutions of higher learning in Christianity are one or the other in philosophy. That is why the right college will always have a struggle.

The institutions of higher learning are battling and struggling to keep conforming their students to God's image instead of having a Liberty University type that is attempting to cause God to conform to man so they can attract more students. That is what is wrong with Baylor and some other institutions that were founded by aggressive Bible believers at one time who have long vacated spiritual applications to real life! What these colleges tolerate today will dominate them tomorrow.

When God says a female should not wear that which pertains to a male that a male should not wear that which pertains to a female he was not joking! In fact God called it an abomination in his sight! Man is supposed to conform to the Scriptures not the Scriptures to man's image. Hang the big church if that is what is required! Hang the big college if that is what it takes to have the numbers! Big is not always better! Hitler had the crowds! The Dallas Cowboys have the crowds! God's people must conform to God's image and not demand God conform to man's image!

God Wants Man To Be Like His Son

God says he wants his people to be like his son Jesus, while man says I want Jesus to be like me. That is where the issue of the Virgin Birth enters. God says my Son was born of a virgin while some men say we want God's Son to be like us so we reject the virgin birth.

God says my Son lived a perfect sinless life and I want my people to conform to my Son's life. However, man says we will just say your Son did not live a perfect life. He was a good man and a good teacher but not sinless man says! We are not to make Jesus like us we are too make us like Jesus.

The same can be said concerning the Scriptures. God's words are being changed into man's words. That is why we have the NIV, ASV, RSV, etc. God wants man's music to like his music while man wants to bring God down to his Egyptian music. Which church do you attend? Church number one or church number two?

God says to his people I want you to sing music that will honor me and not music that will honor you! All of which includes words, melody, tune, and rhythm. According to Exodus 32:7-8 the music that Moses discovered being played by God's people when he returned from being with God was Egyptian and was similar to noise.

God says let me decide what kind of music you should have and man says but we cannot draw a crowd with that kind of music! No, but you will draw me! Ok, then don't draw a crowd if you have to have a trap set and a bass guitar played by longhaired hippy acting like it is the amateur hour or American Idol. Better to have ten people hearing truth than 10,000 going deaf to hellish music.

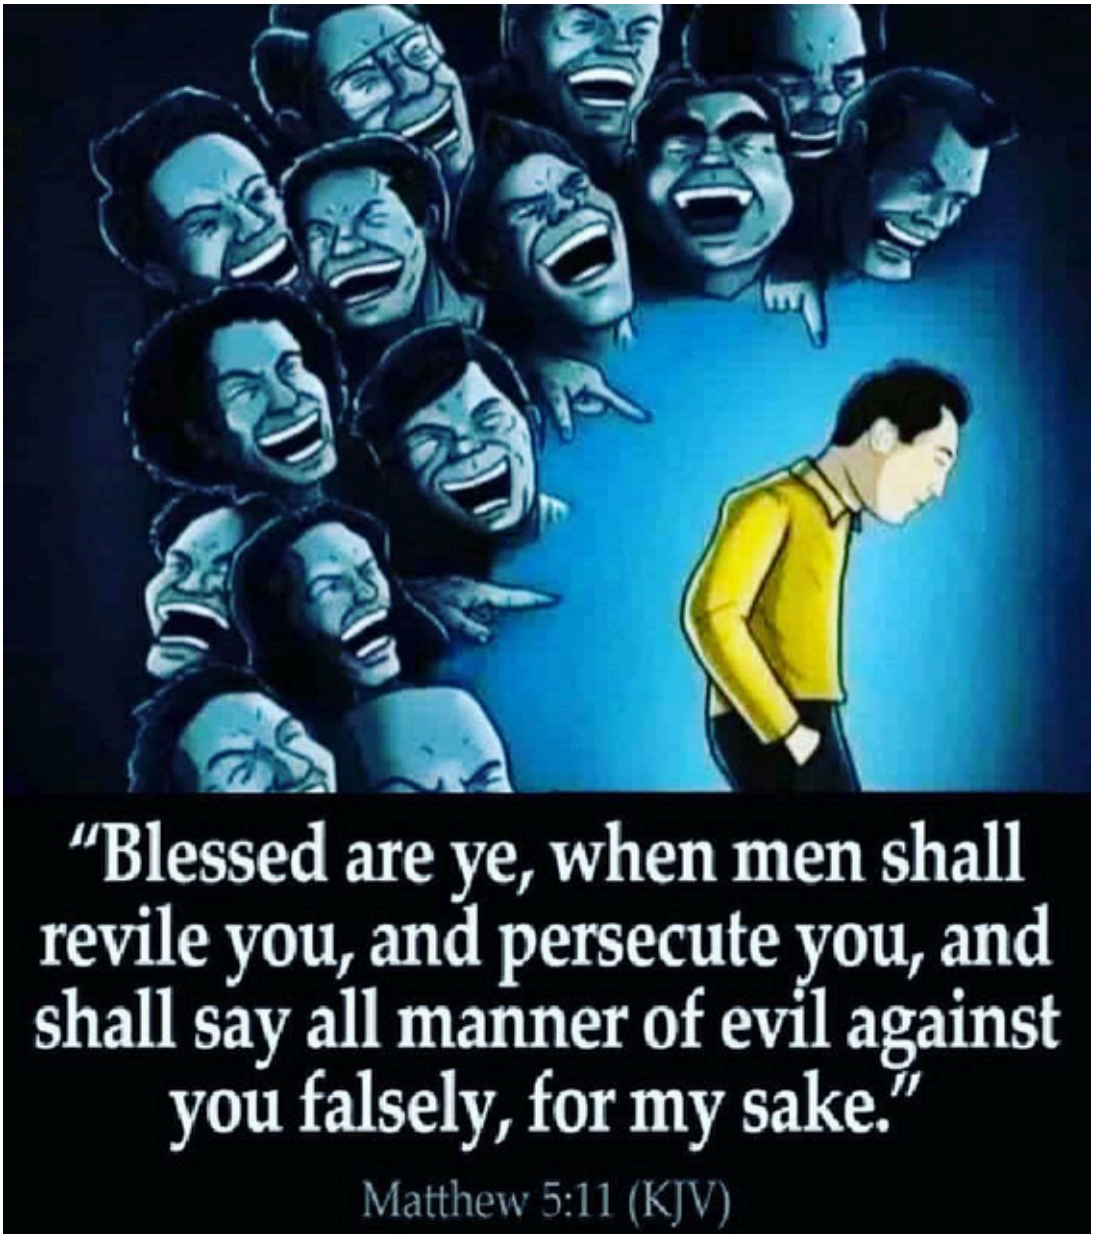
Choice is between Holy Ghost Power or the Power of Darkness

Why not depend on the Holy Ghost of God to draw and convict sinners rather than settle for an earthly sensual draw that will do nothing but produce the same thing when they leave? Hey, I decided to have music like God, a Bible like God's Bible, live like God's Son, take the Gospel to the unredeemed world and let God fill the house.

There are two Christianities at play here, one of God conforming man to God's image and the second is man conforming God to man's image. Is your image changing? Which way is it changing? Far too many preachers in America are attempting to gain a crowd by making God look like man. The music in America's churches needs to be overhauled and some of it ought to be scrapped.

Too many classical songs, too many high brow songs, and on the other hand there are too many honky-tonk songs with a heavy left hand on the piano being sung using Jesus' name in order to justify their existence.

It would be wise to play preludes and postludes that the dear people recognize. Offertories that reach the hearts of the people would add much to the spiritual atmosphere necessary for the Holy Spirit to be active in a church service. There is a big difference between a spiritual service and a sensual service.



Some of our churches in America are simply making God's word like man's words, God's Son like man, and God's music like man's music.

God Wants Man To Accept His Plan Of Reconciliation And Man Wants God To Accept His Plan Of Reconciliation

It is an age old struggle of religions making man's words like God's words, God's Son like man, man's music like God's music, and making man accept God's plan of reconciliation. The struggle continues to this very day.

It is Jesus plus works in some places while historic Baptists have always believed and held to Jesus plus nothing for salvation. Man is a sinner, Hell is the price for man's sin, Jesus is the Son of God, and Jesus paid the debt through his death, burial, and resurrection. That is God's plan of reconciliation! Man must accept or reject God's plan of his Son's vicarious death, burial, and resurrection.

- God wants man to be like him
- Man wants to be like God
- Satan wants man to be like God
- It seems all three agree
- Man casts the deciding vote

4.8.9 You Don’t Receive The Savior As Your "Lord" To Be Saved (2023-08-18 04:48)

2nd Peter 2:1, "But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction."

Damnable heresies exist everywhere today.

The Bible foretold that in the last days "many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many" (Matthew 24:11b).

I visited a local Baptist church last Sunday. They are members of the apostate Southern Baptist Convention. I was frustrated by what I saw. Here is a photo that I took, showing the nightclub atmosphere created by shining ultraviolet black lights in the auditorium...

Today's Nightclub Churches With Blacklights

It reminds me of an episode from The Twilight Zone. The people are all glowing...lol. It is tragic that people won't attend church anymore unless it has a nightclub feel to it. The horrible Contemporary Christian Music (CCM) that they sing is spiritually lifeless, boring and woefully lacking of any heart-warming melody or Holy Spirit conviction. No doubt they would disagree.

I have a right to my own humble opinion. I am not accusing them of being insincere, they are very sincere. I do believe that some of the members are born again believers. However, whenever Lordship Salvation is being preached, the number of tares (false converts) increases significantly. [1]Lordship Salvation is a perversion of the Gospel.

Worst of all, I heard the senior pastor announce that a young boy had received the Savior as his "Lord." That is totally backwards! We don't receive the Savior as our "Lord" to be saved, we receive the Lord as our Savior. Romans 10:9, "That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved." All of the Devil's modern Bible perversions corrupt this passage, changing it to read: "If you declare with your mouth, 'Jesus is Lord,' and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved." There's a big difference between declaring 'Jesus is Lord' versus confessing the Lord Jesus.

I learned a long time ago from Dr. Curtis Hutson (1934-1995), who was John R. Rice's successor at the Sword Of The Lord, that as a general rule we should never interpret an obscure passage of Scripture while ignoring a clear one. The entire Gospel of John, which is God's Gospel tract according to John 20:31, mentions the word "believe" 85 times, without any mention or requirement to "confess with one's mouth" to be saved.

In Acts 16:30-31 the Philippian jailer in Rome asked Paul and Silas: "Sirs, what must I do to be saved?" Their simple but profound answer was: "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ." There is no mention or requirement to repent of one's sins, surrender "all" to Christ as Lord, give the steering wheel of one's life to God, have a relationship with Jesus, become a Christ follower, nor anything else that we hear foolishly being taught in churches everywhere today. 2nd Corinthians 11:3-4 refers to the Gospel as "the simplicity that is in Christ." God had to make His plan of salvation simple, because there are a lot of unlearned, ignorant, base and educible slow people on the planet.

Paul and Silas simply told the Philippian jailer to "BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST." Yet, it is very wrong and unbiblical for wicked infidel preachers to embellish this truth, by reading more into the Scripture than God intended, requiring lost sinners to surrender control of their will over to Christ as "Lord" to serve Him, and mandating that they repent "of your sins" to be saved (no such teaching exists in the inspired King James Bible).

I have heard countless lying preachers (e.g., [2]Pastor Charles Lawson in Knoxville, Tennessee) falsely preach that a person who is still living an ungodly lifestyle of sin never really repented, so they are not saved and their existing faith in Jesus Christ is invalid. That is so wrong and unbiblical for Pastor Lawson to preach to his congregation (and tens of thousands of people on YouTube).

Bible repentance for salvation doesn't mean to forsake a lifestyle of sinning, it just means "a change of mind" from unbelief to belief. Repentance is simply admitting to God that I am as guilty a sinner as He declares me to be in His Holy Word. We must know what we are being saved from. We are all guilty sinners (Romans 3:19-23). As such we all deserve to die (Romans 6:23). This includes a second death in Hell, fire and brimstone (Revelation 21:8). But praise be to God, Jesus paid our debt of sin on Calvary's cross, applying that shed blood to the Mercy Seat in Heaven on our behalf before the Father's presence (Hebrews 9:12, 22-24; 12:24).

The Gospel is so delicate that it is easily corrupted from saving grace to damnable heresy. In Matthew 7:21-23 we read about an unfortunate group of people, false prophets, who had served Christ their entire lives, but now they are learning that they were never saved at all. They called Jesus "Lord, Lord" (there's Lordship Salvation), but Jesus denied knowing them as His sheep. They had made the dire and fatal foolish error of living the Christian life without ever being born again (which is by faith alone in Jesus Christ). Millions of churchgoers are guilty of this sin today. They faithfully attend some church, but have never been born from above by the Holy Spirit of God (Romans 8:9; 1st John 3:24). RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!

Anyway, we will be seeing a lot more false teachers as we draw nearer toward the end of the world as we have known it for thousands of years. Each and every passing day brings us one day closer to Christ's glorious return.

I was disgusted at a local Baptist church, seeing a young boy being misled about God's simple plan of salvation. The senior pastor said that the boy had "become a Christ follower." This is the new fake gospel, to "become a Christ follower." But Judas Iscariot was a Christ follower, one of His very chosen apostles, and yet Judas died in his sins and went to Hell forever.

The infidels in Matthew 7:21-23 were also Christ followers. They called Him "Lord, Lord." Yet, Jesus denied knowing them as His sheep, and they were cast into outer darkness in Hell. Thousands of people followed Christ in the Bible to receive a handout of food, but they were not saved (John 6:26). They did not believe who he claimed to be, the very Christ (the promised Messiah). Hundreds of millions of unsaved people today are following Christ as their "Lord," but they have never ceased from their works to trust Him as their personal Savior. They are blinded by religion.

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." —John Bunyan (1628-1688)

Bravo to John Bunyan! It is imperative that we always keep service separate from salvation. We must keep discipleship separate from sonship. 'Lordship Salvation' is the deadly consequence of combining service with salvation, confusing the two things. If we are to rightly divide the Word of Truth, then we must maintain separation between SERVICE versus SALVATION. Pastor M.R. DeHaan (1891-1965) made this helpful statement:

> "There is a vast difference between coming to Jesus for salvation and coming after Jesus for service. Coming to Christ makes one a believer, while coming after Christ makes one a disciple. All believers are not disciples. To become a believer one accepts the invitation of the Gospel, to be a disciple one obeys the challenge to a life of dedicated service and separation. Salvation comes through the sacrifice of Christ; discipleship comes only by sacrifice of self and surrender to His call for devoted service. Salvation is free, but discipleship involves paying the price of a separated walk. Salvation can't be lost because it depends upon God's faithfulness, but discipleship can be lost because it depends upon our faithfulness." —Pastor M.R. DeHaan, "Hebrews"; Zondervan Publishing House; 1959 (p. 117)

You don't need to receive Christ as the supreme "Lord" of your life to get to Heaven, you simply need to receive Jesus as your personal Savior, by BELIEVING on His name (John 1:12-13).

4.8.10 Abuse At Pensacola Christian College (2023-08-19 16:30)

Matthew 15:7-9, "Ye hypocrites, well did Esaias prophesy of you, saying, This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips; but their heart is far from me. But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men."

Romans 14:10, "But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ. "

1st Corinthians 13:1-3, "Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal. And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing."

I have studied the cults for the past 21 years, since I started my online website ministry in 2002. One of the common things that I have seen in cults is that the reject, shun and ostracize people they don't want, like or accept. This particularly includes anyone who dares to question the cult's leaders.

Sadly, Pensacola Christian College (PCC) is a cult. As of August 2, 2022 I have been forbidden in writing from attending PCC's Campus Church. What was my great offense? I dared to criticize their leaders (the gods). It didn't matter that I humbly apologized multiple times in June and July of 2022 to the pastor of Campus Church, and PCC leaders also. They refused to allow me to just attend Campus Church. Only a rotten cult does that to people!

> "The pastors have destroyed the churches, and they've been [1]trained by people that have never built churches, and [2]they have no compassion." —Pastor Jack Hyles, "[3]Many Pastors Have Destroyed My Vineyard"

Jeff Redlin is the shameful senior pastor of Campus Church, and he hates my guts. Real great Christian, huh? Redlin refuses to let me come back to Campus Church. PCC pays Redlin well over $100,000 a year. I am so sick of incompetent pastors who get paid outrageous 6-digit salaries (4 to 5 times more than the average American worker earns in a year). I am so sick and tired of these ungodly fake pastors, who are so hateful that they won't even allow a broken apologetic man like me to attend church again. There is no love, no mercy, no second chances and no forgiveness in the PCC cult. Please watch this 21:52 hour long video that I made in 2022, exposing the dangerous religious cult at Pensacola Christian College in Pensacola, Florida. ....

Pensacola Christian College Cult Exposed!

Another thing that I have learned during my decades of online ministry is that anything can be justified. PCC's leaders have their own unbiblical book that they live by, shunning and rejected people whom they don't like or want. That is called being a sinful " respecter of persons,

which the Bible forbids. James 2:1, "My brethren, have not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory, with respect of persons." PCC are ungodly respecter of persons, which is why they won't allow me to come back to church. That is so wicked!!!

PCC and Campus Church are a hateful cult. Those who are accepted in the cult are protected by the cult, just so long as they give their absolute loyalty to cult leadership. The moment that you stop serving, idolizing and selling your soul to cult leadership, they excommunicate you. Ask Samantha Field. Ask Allen Armentrout. Please [4]read all these negative comments from former victims of the PCC cult.

PCC’s list of victims of abuse continues to grow! I am a victim of PCC’s abuse. I was deeply hurt when I first decided to attend Campus Church in July of 2021. I first attended PCC on the 4th of July at their annual church picnic. I first met Pastor Jeff Redlin that day. I kindly told him that I had just arrived from the island of Guam 36 hours earlier, and was homeless sleeping in Walmart’s parking lot, due to being defrauded by the Woodspring Suites Hotel in Pensacola. When United Airlines plane on Guam was delayed due to an idiot light staying lit on the flight console, I missed my connecting flight in Honolulu and was delayed by 17 hours.

I responsibly contacted the Woodspring Suites Hotel ahead of time (since Guam is 15 hours ahead of Pensacola’s time zone), to let them know that I was still coming. I told them that they could bill me upfront on my credit card for my entire 30-day confirmed reservation for $55 per night. But those wicked greedy evildoers cancelled my entire stay, to they could charge people a few hundred dollars per night over the 4th of July weekend instead. God will hold them accountable for defrauding me, and forcing me to sleep in a parking lot!

Sadly, when I kindly informed Pastor Redlin, he couldn’t have cared less and just cold-heartedly walked away. I saw the startled look on his face when I told him my difficult situation. That was my first impression of Jeff Redlin—a shameful little uncaring coward who walks away from people in need. Despite Redlin’s golden opportunity to befriend a brother in dire need, I let the matter go. I was so happy to be at the great Pensacola Christian College (PCC), which I had heard about all my life.

Sadly, in the months to follow I would learn that my initial negative impressions of Pastor Jeff Redlin were not only all true, but woefully lacking in just how horrible this man really is. I had taken a few hours to compose my first email to Pastor Redlin in July of 2021, carefully articulating every word to be careful to show the utmost respect, propriety and to convey what I intended to communicate to him. In that correspondence, I kindly confided in Pastor Redlin that I have suffered from an old neck injury since 2004. I also mentioned that my former wife abandoned and divorced me in 2006. I shared my battle with depression and loneliness, and my adverse sufferings due to constant neck pain. I couldn’t have been more loving and kind.

To my horror, Redlin replied with a rude and harsh demeanor, patronizing me as a divorced person. He foolishly took the liberty to actually scold me (a 54 year old grandfather) for briefly mentioning that I hoped to find a wife at Campus Church, since they had such a large church family. Redlin wrongly accused me of only coming to Campus Church to find a wife. I was in dismay. I couldn’t believe that the senior pastor of PCC was such a mean person, insensitive and trampling upon my feelings as a hurting human being. I mean, I had seen this type of verbal abuse in independent fundamental Baptist institutions before, but now I was experiencing it first hand at PCC.

My mistake was that I came to PCC holding their leaders in the highest regards, thinking that they would be spiritually mature. In sharp contrast, I sadly learned that PCC's leaders and pastors are overpaid spoiled brats, immature, selfish, carnally-minded and woefully lacking of any genuine love or compassion for individual people. Dr. Jack Hyles (1926-2001) was so right—PCC are academic types, not church builders, so they woefully lack compassion.

Something is very wrong today with the pervasive bad attitudes among independent Baptists (which PCC is considered to be a part of) in America. There is an unchristlike bad sprit of pride, arrogance and stiff-necked comradery, placing themselves as leaders in God's place, to sinfully play God with people's lives. The Bible teaches in Philippians 2:4, "Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves." You are not right with God unless you esteem others as being BETTER than yourself!!!

That is verbatim what we just read in the inspired King James Bible. If PCC leaders obeyed this Bible verse, then they would humbly contact me with an offer to reconcile and make peace. God knows that I would humbly thank them for contacting me, and I would do my best to reconcile and lay down my keyboard to stop preaching against them. There is something wrong with a group of religious people, professed born-again Christians, who have no desire to seek peace with their enemies (especially a fellow saint).

Why doesn't PCC care? Why won't they meet me half way? I'll tell you why—it is because PCC has so much money and so many supporters, that they have nothing to gain by making peace with their enemies. That is a sad and tragic commentary on the woeful lack of walk with God that PCC's pastors and leaders don't have. They don't walk with God. I doubt if pastors' Jeff Redlin and Timothy Zacharias ever get down on their knees to pray. I doubt if either of them ever pray for me. It is clear that all they care about is their undeserved paychecks!!!

Tragically, PCC has deteriorated into a mere student assembly line. Next! PCC takes in tens of millions of dollars, having more money than they know what to do with. In 2018 I attended the Lighthouse Baptist Church on Guam. A PCC intern named Sean Quinlan was the temporary wannabe pastor at the time. I attended the church for about a year. Sadly, Sean Quinlan is not a competent pastor! I asked him if he believed that Jesus' blood was applied to the Mercy Seat in Heaven. He didn't know!!! Quinlan actually admitted to me in a personal conversation, as I was explaining to him what is wrong with the Devil's modern Bible revisions, that he couldn't even show me one problem with the new Bibles. I had heard him warn his church congregation (about 50 people) in a sermon months earlier, that there are problems with the modern Bibles, so be careful to avoid them. Yet, he admitted to me personally that if his life depended on it, he couldn't show anyone what any of those problems are. That is sad!

To show what a hypocrite the PCC camp are, and Pastor Redlin, let me tell you a story. One Wednesday night after Bible study, I was sitting outside the front of Lighthouse Baptist Church. The front entrance of the church exited to the parking lot. There were some benches to sit on outside the church entrance. So I was sitting there, sharing something with a fellow Christian brother than I had learned from Luke 16:19-31 about the rich man and Lazarus. Pastor Quinlan got angry, wrongly accusing me of trying to usurp authority in his church. The guy freaked out! The PCC cult are weird people. PCC has adopted a heresy that pastors have authority over people, but they don't. Even hellbound heretic Dr. John MacArthur gets it 100 % correct that [5]pastors have NO AUTHORITY. The inspired Holy Bible is the only authority in any church.

Anyway, long story short, Pastor Quinlan wrongly accused me of being "Obsessed over the Bible issue."

I took that as a badge of honor and a compliment! Yes Sir, you had better believe that I am "obsessed over the Bible issue"!!! I am obsessed over God's inspired Word. Do you know who else was obsessed over the Bible? David. Psalms 119:139-140, " My zeal hath consumed me, because mine enemies have forgotten thy words.

Thy word is very pure: therefore thy servant loveth it. " King David was consumed (obsessed) about the Word of God. David was upset that his enemies had rejected the Bible. David, if he were alive today in 2023, would have hated and been consumed with anger against evildoers who change, corrupt, tamper, pervert and altar the inspired Word of God. Dear reader, if you don't have a King James Bible, you don't have a Holy Bible.

I did the right thing to take a stand at Lighthouse Baptist Church on Guam. Since Pastor Quinlan rebuked me in front of his church members, I rebuked him back in front of them, telling him that he ought to be ashamed of himself, for scolding me for being zealous to expose corrupt Bible revisions. What set him off in anger was when I said to my Christian friend (to whom I was speaking and not Quinlan), quote: "Bob Jones University (BJU) sells corruptible seed." That one truthful statement pissed off Pastor Quinlan. The reason why may not be obvious to you dear friend, but it is obvious as the sun at noon on a clear day to me. That reason is simply because [6]PCC is in bed with BJU!

God knows that I have nothing personal against Sean Quinlan, but he has no business being a church pastor! No man should be a pastor, entrusted to feed God's flock, who doesn't even know one thing wrong with today's hundreds of corrupt Bible revisions. [7]I could spend hours showing you [8]what is wrong with [9]today's Bibles. I am tired of being made to be the BAD GUY for telling the truth, for exposing the Devil's Bible versions, for preaching against BAD PREACHERS!

When I attended Campus Church in July of 2021, Pastor Redlin wickedly made a false allegation against me and my ministry, accusing me of "finding weaknesses in preachers." Redlin is a liar!!! In fact, as a faithful Bible preacher I expose wickedness in preachers! God knows that I don't try to find weaknesses in preachers. What saith the Scripture? ...

> Titus 1:13-14, "For there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, specially they of the circumcision: Whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre's sake. One of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The Cretians are alway liars, evil beasts, slow bellies. This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith; Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men, that turn from the truth."

The inspired Holy Bible commands preachers to REBUKE THEM SHARPLY that corrupt God's plan of salvation. Whether it be the slow-bellied lazy Cretians, or the pot-bellied Bob Jones University (BJU) cult, false prophets must be exposed. By God's grace, that is exactly what I faithfully did, beginning in 2014 when I attended the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, and saw how messed up they were doctrinally. I heard the Devil's Lordship Salvation being preached from Harvest's church pulpit.

I saw dozens of different corrupt Bible revisions being used in the church. Dr. John MacArthur, a child of the Devil, was being promoted at Harvest. Martin Luther (1883-1546) was being promoted as a born-again Christian, when in reality he taught Sacramental Salvation his entire life. The Devil's wrong meaning of repentance was being taught at Harvest, which insists that a lost sinner stop living a lifestyle of sinning to get to Heaven. Sadly, Harvest Baptist Church on Guam is just as messed up today in 2023, as they have been for the past 25 years. Their new pastor, Gary Walton, is another ungodly neo-evangelical, just like pastor Marty Herron before him. God's judgment is upon these infidels, who preach another gospel.

RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!! Some wicked people wrongly accuse me of causing trouble everywhere I go, saying that I cannot get along with anybody, but they are very wrong! THE TRUTH is that heretics get mad at me for exposing them. They got mad at me at Pensacola Christian College's Campus Church, because they are in bed with the ungodly Bob Jones University cult. Since I expose BJU (Harvest Baptist Church is full of BJU graduates), PCC had a grudge against me before my plane even landed in Pensacola in July of 2021. PCC are wickedly pulling on the same rope as the Devil, by supporting the BJU camp.

BJU is so corrupt that in December of 2022 they invited and honored [10]Calvinist evangelist, Paul Chapel. It is tragic that 99 % of professed Christians today couldn't care less about Lordship Salvation, perverse Bible versions, and wrong repentance being promoted in Bible colleges and churches. I CARE!!! When I preach, very few professed Christians ever agree with my truthful preaching. Pensacola Christian College is a cult! They kick people out (like they horribly did me) and then refuse to forgive or allow me to return. That is a cult!

It didn't matter to PCC's leaders and pastors that I sincerely apologized and offered to do whatever they require to reconcile, they still cold-heartedly refused to make the peace. That just proves how arrogant, proudful and carnally-minded they are at PCC. Some people are sick of listening to me preach on this topic, but I will NEVER shut up! As long as I live in Pensacola, and I am not permitted to attend Campus Church, I will continue to SPEAK UP every opportunity that I get, to expose the hateful, uncaring and money-hungry religious cult at PCC. People just want to be loved. PCC drew first blood, like Sylvester Stallone said in the 1982 blockbuster movie Rambo. I just wanted to eat a spiritual meal at Campus Church, but their King Sh!t Cop pastor Jeff Redlin bullied me instead. I won't go easy! Like Rambo, it's a matter of principle. Redlin told me to go elsewhere to be fed spiritually. Hell no, I won't go!

It is abuse. I am not going to remain silent about abuse in today's fundamentalist Bible colleges and churches. Everybody should be welcomed in a Bible-believing New Testament local church. I feel sorry for the thousands of PCC students, who are being influenced to emulate such a pathetic unloving weakling for a pastor, who selectively cares about people, and woefully lacks God's love and compassion for individual hurting people (like me). All I wanted was to come back to church. It blows my mind how hateful PCC leadership is, not even willing to forgive and allow me to attend their Campus Church. What a horrible authoritarian abusive religious cult!

Perhaps some of my blog readers are wondering why I won't let this matter go. The answer is simple—it is because I care about individual people. What Pensacola Christian College (PCC) is doing to me could just as easily happen to you, or some other poor unfortunate soul. The inspired Holy Bible teaches that ALL LIVES MATTER!!! Everybody is important in God's economy. Sadly, at PCC and their Campus Church only SOME PEOPLE MATTER!!! It burns me up that PCC would turn anyone away from attending their Campus Church. It is wickedness!!! I will not tolerate it as a preacher. I will expose every false way. Not loving everybody is a gross sin. Most people won't listen or care, but some people WILL care and listen, particularly other abuse victims of PCC's authoritarian bullying. People are sick and tired of abuse in fundamentalist Baptist institutions and churches. PCC is at the top of the list of these organizations.

And so the saga continues. I am the hero, the Dark Knight who must become the villain to save Gotham city from ripping itself apart because of ungodly bad pastors, false prophets, greedy religious colleges, uncaring clergy and infidels in the pulpit today.

4.8.11 Beware Of Pensacola Christian College And Their Counterfeit Plan Of Salvation (2023-08-24 15:59)

Galatians 1:6-9, "I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed."

BEWARE of Pensacola Christian College's (PCC) counterfeit plan of salvation. I was stunned on July 21, 2021 as I sat in Campus Church and heard Pastor Timothy Zacharias preach damnable heresy to thousands of people (victims). PCC errantly teaches that to be saved you must repent of your sins. PCC's misunderstands Bible repentance to mean that you must feel such an intense degree of remorse, guilt and conviction that it CHANGES YOUR BEHAVIOR. This is self reformation, not Bible repentance (a change of mind) toward God.

Your BEHAVIOR has absolutely NOTHING to do with receiving God's free gift of eternal life. PCC has been infected by the Lordship Salvation CULT at Bob Jones University. Satan is a beautiful liar. The Devil is extremely deceptive, always trying to advance an inch, so he can take a foot (and then he becomes a ruler).

Dr. Ralph Yankee Arnold makes this tremendous statement:

> "Lordship Salvation is the unsupportable and unbiblical belief that the performance of good works, the promise of good works, or the evidence of good works, must accompany faith in Christ to establish or provide evidence that such faith has resulted in eternal life." —Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold, "[1]Jesus Versus John MacArthur"

That is a great quote!!!

The truth is that: "Repentance is a change mind," period. Since the Bible doesn't tell us what to change our mind about, we need some supplementary information.

We read in Acts 20:21 that repentance is a change of mind

" toward God. "

We read in 2nd Timothy 2:25 that repentance is to change our mind to acknowledge " the truth. "

We read in Hebrews 6:1 that repentance is a change of mind from dead works.

Christian author Michael Patrick Bowen rightly states in his excellent book titled, "[2]I NEVER KNEW YOU," on page 114...

> "Repent, as Christ meant it to be in terms of salvation, means to change your mind from trusting in what you can do for God to trusting only in what He can do for you."

> SOURCE: Michael Patrick Bowen, a quote from the awesome book, "[3]I NEVER KNEW YOU" (Page 114)

Pastor Bob Gray Sr. of the Longview Baptist Temple church in Longview, Texas correctly preaches . . .

> “Repentance means to change your mind—change your mind—change your mind about how you want to get to Heaven to what God says you’ve got to do to get to Heaven. If you’ve got to repent of all your sins, you’re still headed for Hell tonight.”
>
> SOURCE: Pastor Bob Gray Sr., a quote from the awesome MP3 sermon, ’[4]Why You Should Be A Part Of A Growing Church’

So we can safely conclude that repentance results in BELIEVING the Gospel to be saved.

Pensacola Christian College are LIARS and FALSE PROPHETS!!! It is a big deal. It really is. RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!! They have no right at PCC to associate behavior modification with repentance to be saved.

> “If you have to look at your life to prove that you are saved, it proves that you’re not!” —Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold, ’[5]Why Lordship Salvation is WRONG!’

Pastor Tom Cucuzza makes this great statement:

> “The Devil is doing his greatest work behind pulpits. [I] hate to say it, but that’s the truth; because people have the presupposition that when you come to church and somebody gets up to speak, that person is speaking truth. That’s the way we’ve been raised.” —Pastor Thomas M. Cucuzza, “[6]Important Truths Satan Does Not Want You to Know”

The following image is an actual screenshot from a Wednesday evening Bible study at PCC’s Campus Church. I added the red cancellation mark to warn people that this is damnable heresy!

4.8.12 If You're Not Praying, You're Not Fasting (2023-08-31 16:34)

Matthew 6:16-18,

M't:6:16: Moreover when ye fast, be not, as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance: for they disfigure their faces, that they may appear unto men to fast. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

But thou, when thou fastest, anoint thine head, and wash thy face; That thou appear not unto men to fast, but unto thy Father which is in secret: and thy Father, which seeth in secret, shall reward thee openly. "

My favorite preacher is [1]Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001). I once read where Dr. John R. Rice (1895-1980) said that he doesn't believe fasting is for today. Dr. Hyles did believe and teach that fasting is still for today. I agree with Dr. Hyles. Fasting is not missing a meal or dieting. Fasting is letting go of the PHYSICAL in order to grasp more of the SPIRITUAL. If you are not praying while fasting, you are not fasting. Biblical fasting is always associated with prayer, asking God to do something.

In the Old Testament book of Esther, wicked Haman conspired to kill all the Jews. Haman didn't know that Queen Esther was a Jew. Haman hated God's people. Haman hated Mordecai, Esther's cousin. After Esther's parents were killed, Mordecai adopted her as his own daughter. When Esther learned of Haman's evil plot to murder all the Jews, Esther dared to go before the presence of the king (a risky move that could have cost her life), she asked the Jews to fast and pray for her. Esther 4:16, " Go, gather together all the Jews that are present in Shushan, and fast ye for me, and neither eat nor drink three days, night or day: I also and my maidens will fast likewise; and so will I go in unto the king, which is not according to the law: and if I perish, I perish." The fasting was for a specific purpose, asking God to intercede so that the king would help God's people, and not kill Esther.

In his helpful book titled: '[2]EXPLORING PRAYER WITH JACK HYLES,' Dr. Hyles Pastor Jack Hyles explains the biblical philosophy behind prayer and fasting...

Chapter 8 — The Philosophy Behind Prayer and Fasting

Matthew 17:19-21, "Then came the disciples to Jesus apart, and said, Why could not we cast him out? And Jesus said unto them, Because of your unbelief: for verily I say unto you, If ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place; and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible unto you. Howbeit this kind goeth not out but by prayer and fasting."

Jesus had returned from the mount of transfiguration. He performed a miracle that the disciples tried to perform in His absence and could not. They asked Him, "Why could we not?" His answer was, "Because of your unbelief." Their question and His answer leads us to several conclusions.

1. Faith is the ONE condition on which all divine power rests. The Lord Jesus said, "According to your faith be it unto you." (Matthew 9:29a) Again He said, "All things are possible to him that believeth." (Mark 9:23b)

2. There are degrees of faith. The Lord Jesus said, "According to your faith be it unto you," which means little faith, little answered prayer—more faith, more answered prayer—much faith, much answered prayer.

3. If answered prayer comes because of faith, and if there are degrees of faith, then there are degrees of answered prayer. The same Saviour Who said, "According to your faith," said, "be it unto you." He said, "This kind can come forth by nothing, but by prayer and fasting," which means that there are degrees of answered prayer. Small faith gets small answers—more faith gets larger answers—much faith gets the largest answers.

4. This means if we are to get our prayers to grow, we must get our faith to grow. If faith is the one condition on which all divine power rests, and if there are degrees of faith, there are also degrees of answered prayer. Hence, we must find some way to get our faith to grow.

5. When the Lord Jesus says, "This kind can come forth by nothing, but by prayer and fasting," He is teaching us that prayer and fasting generate faith (Mark 9:29). This means that faith needs both prayer and fasting. Prayer is the grasping of the invisible. Fasting is the letting go of the visible. One's degree of faith depends on the degree between the visible and the invisible. As we fast, that is, withdraw ourselves from physical appetites and the satisfying of the senses, we are letting go of the visible. As we pray, we are grasping the invisible.

6. There must be times that we let go of the visible completely and hold completely to the invisible if we are to reach the ultimate in prayer. Now to be sure, we are left here on earth in physical bodies. We must be fed, we must have our physical appetites satisfied, and there is certainly nothing wrong with that if it is not done to excess. There should, however, be seasons when we let go of the visible completely and grasp the invisible with all of our hearts. These are the seasons when we need miracles to take place.

This also means that our release of the visible should depend upon the greatness of our needs in answer to prayer. Just as fasting and praying is grasping completely the invisible and letting go completely of the visible, there are degrees of fasting and praying which would be determined by the size of our needs and the bigness of our prayers.

There are dangers. One danger is holding on to the invisible and not letting go of the visible. Another would be letting go of the visible but not holding on to the invisible. For example, there are times when I feel that I should fast one day a week. I may some need that is greater than usual and I might give one day a week to fasting and to as much praying as possible. Suppose the offerings were down at church and I had a burden about them. Suppose I had the need for several hundred dollars in my own life. Needs of this magnitude might drive me to letting go of the visible for one day a week and for as much time as possible during that day holding on to the invisible, which is prayer and fasting.

At other times, however, while the children were growing up, I might have been really concerned about them. I remember one time one of the children was just not doing well at all, and I was really heartbroken. I prayed and fasted for that child for three or four days. This was because the need was of a greater magnitude than that of a weekly financial need at church or the need or the need of a few hundred dollars in my personal life.

Then there were the days when I was praying for God to give us Hyles-Anderson College campus. This beautiful 78-acre campus with unbelievably built buildings was seemingly unavailable, but I knew that God wanted us to have it, so I would fast maybe for a week at a time and pray that God would give us the campus. Then one night a month I would pray all night long. You see, when the burden was bigger, the need was of a greater magnitude. For even greater needs, I have fasted as long as two weeks. Now it does little good to fast unless one prays. It does little good to let go of the visible if one does not grasp the invisible.

> If one thinks that all is lawful unless it is expressly forbidden in the Bible, then he will never know great power in prayer. We are not only to lay aside every sin, but as a runner in the race for God, we are to lat aside every weight. Hebrews 12:1, "Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us." The soldier in warfare takes only what is needed for battle. There are many things that he cannot take that would not be sinful to take, but those things are too cumbersome, and the battle would be lost. A runner in a race not only lays aside his drinking and smoking, but he also lays aside his overcoat, his heavy boots and things that are not sinful to wear but would cause him not to win the race. Eating is not wrong if it is not done in excess. Physical love within the plan of God is not wrong. The enjoyment of nature is not wrong, but there are times when we have to lay aside that which is not wrong in order that we may let go for a season of the visible and grasp the invisible so that we may know the miracle-working power of God in answer to our prayers.
> Hence, since faith is the one condition on which all divine power rests, and since there are degrees of faith, there must also be degrees of answered prayer. Therefore, if we are to get our answers to grow, we must get our faith to grow. Our faith grows by prayer, which is the grasping of the invisible, and by fasting, which is the letting go of the visible. As we do these two things, our faith grows, and as our faith grows, our answered prayer grows. This is the philosophy behind prayer and fasting.

> SOURCE: [3]Chapter 8 - The Philosophy Behind Prayer And Fasting

I daresay that 1 % of truly born-again Christians today ever fast. Most of us eat fast…lol. I am guilty too. I believe that biblical fasting can be done in many different forms. You don't have to give up a meal. You might give up a ballgame that you had planned to watch, and record it instead, so you can spend that time walking with God in prayer. Anything that you give up, so you can substitute that time by spending it walking with God, can be considered a fast. That is my humble opinion.

We are taught by the dear Lord Himself in Matthew 6:7-8, that we don't need to spend long amounts of time in prayer to receive an answer from our heavenly Father. Matthew chapter 6 is an amazing chapter in the Word of God, and one of my favorite Scripture passages. …

> Matthew 6:5-8 "And when thou prayest, thou shalt not be as the hypocrites are: for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward. But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father which seeth in secret shall reward thee openly. But when ye pray, use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking. Be not ye therefore like unto them: for your Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask him."

It is a matter of respecting our Creator. God knows our every need and He cares about everyone (1st Peter 5:7). I receive countless emails from discouraged saints, who tell me that they feel abandoned by God. They tell me how they have prayed again and again to no avail, and it just seems like there is no God. They are frustrated. I always write back to share the truth that I sometimes feel the exact same way they do.

It is quite normal to pray and feel like God is ignoring you. Jesus addressed this very issue in Luke 18:1-8, in the parable of the Widow And The Unjust Judge. The judge refused to avenge her at first, because he just didn't care. But the woman kept coming back and bothering him, day after day, pleading for justice. Finally, the wicked judge avenged her nd the party that had wronged her, just to get rid of her once and for all. ...

> Luke 18:1-8, "And he spake a parable unto them to this end, that men ought always to pray, and not to faint; Saying, There was in a city a judge, which feared not God, neither regarded man: And there was a widow in that city; and she came unto him, saying, Avenge me of mine adversary. And he would not for a while: but afterward he said within himself, Though I fear not God, nor regard man; Yet because this widow troubleth me, I will avenge her, lest by her continual coming she weary me. And the Lord said, Hear what the unjust judge saith. And shall not God avenge his own elect, which cry day and night unto him, though he bear long with them?I tell you that he will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless when the Son of man cometh, shall he find faith on the earth?"

I am only 56 years old. The human race is about 6,000 years old. God has been here forever. I am just a clump of clay, made from the dirt of the earth. What do I know? How am I to speak as if I have all the answers? I am in the same boat as you and everyone else. We all have the same inspired King James Bible. Different people interpret the Holy Bible differently (some way differently...lol). All I can do is share with others the things that I have seen and heard in my lifetime on earth, while we all continue our journey until life is over.

4.9 September

4.9.1 Life Is So Short, Make Sure You've Been Born Again (2023-09-01 05:00)

1st John 2:15-17,

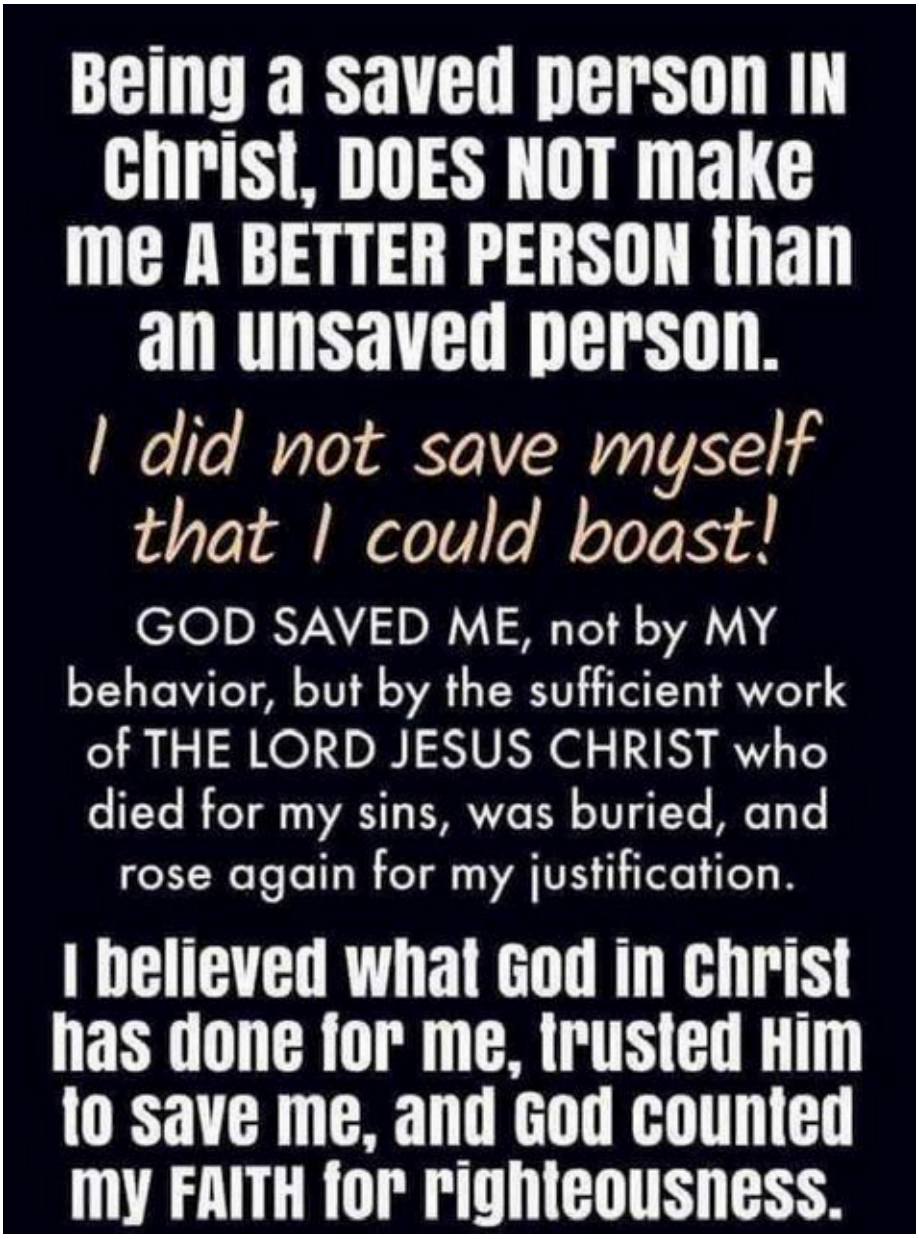
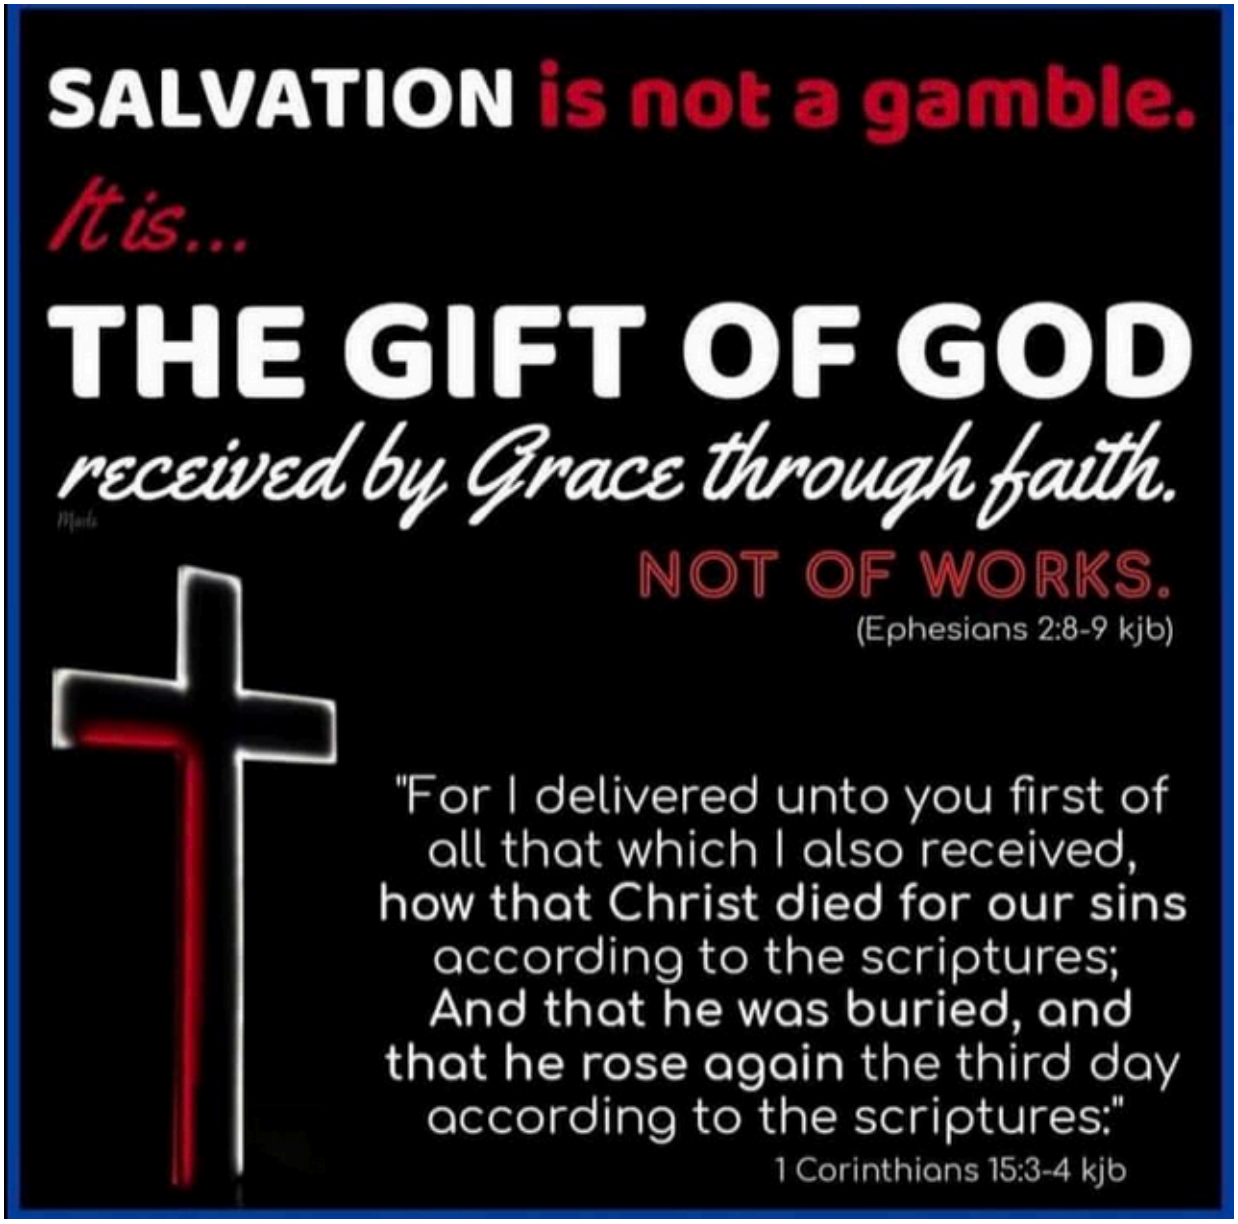
Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world. And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever. "



I grew up in the 1970's and 1980's. I loved music as a teenager and I still do today. I watched television and Hollywood movies with my parents. As is true of every American, I was influenced by those celebrities of my generation. Now, 40 years later, many of those famous people that influenced my generation are old and dying. It is a sobering sight to behold.



Here’s just a few names that come to mind. Singer Olivia Newton John died of cancer at age 73 in 2022. The drummer for the rock band Boston, Sib Hashian, keeled over dead of a heart attack in 2017 while playing the drums on a cruise ship at age 67. Peter Jennings, a famous television journalist, died in 2005 of cancer at age 67. I am 56, so I don’t have much time left. My Dad died in 2010 at age 75. My Mom died in 2001 of poor health at age 65. She suffered a crippling stroke in 1989. She refused to give up her bad habit of smoking, which ultimately killed her. She loved "Kool" cigarettes, but there was nothing "cool" about them. The rhythm guitarist of AC/DC, Malcolm Young, died in 2017 of dementia at age 64. Our days are all numbered. Psalms 90:12, “So teach us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom.”

I thank God! I thank God! I thank God that I am a born-again child of God. So many people are lost in darkness, knowing not at what they stumble the Bible says. Billionaire Steve Jobs, inventor of Apple computer (the first one sold for $666.66), died in 2012 of pancreatic cancer at only age 56. George Harrison of The Beatles died in 2001 of lung cancer (he smoked like a chimney throughout his youth). George was only 58. So sad and tragic.

I read online that Olivia Newton John was a Christian, but that claim means little these days, since there are hundreds of religious cults that falsely claim to be Christian (e.g., Roman Catholics, Mormons, Jehovah’s Witness, Seventh-Day Adventist, Church of Church, Lutherans, et cetera). I truly hope that Olivia was a born-again believer. Without the new birth, Jesus warned in John 3:1-7 that no one can enter into God’s Kingdom. John 3:7b, ’Ye must be born again.’ Sadly, it appears by all indications that [1]Malcolm Younce, co-founder of the Satanic band AC/DC is now at the end of the ’HIGH WAY TO HELL,’ where he will spend eternity suffering in torments and fire (Revelation 14:11, 20:11-15, 21:8).

Dear friend, [2]please make sure you have been born-again. Being a member of any church won’t get you into Heaven, not even close. Living a good and morally respectable life won’t get you into Heaven. You are a dirty sinner, and so am I. Jesus is the Christ who died on a cross to pay your debt of sin and mine. Jesus was buried but physically resurrected from the dead three days later. Anyone who comes to God as a needy sinner, receiving Christ’s sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, believing that Jesus was buried but then raised up bodily from the dead, is immediately, irrevocably and forever saved. That is God’s simple plan of salvation, THE GOSPEL.

Being a saved person IN Christ, DOES NOT make me A BETTER PERSON than an unsaved person.
I did not save myself that I could boast!
GOD SAVED ME, not by MY behavior, but by the sufficient work of THE LORD JESUS CHRIST who died for my sins, was buried, and rose again for my justification.
I believed what God in Christ has done for me, trusted Him to save me, and God counted my FAITH for righteousness.

4.9.2 The Blessed Poor (2023-09-02 13:07)

Matthew 5:1-3, “And seeing the multitudes, he went up into a mountain: and when he was set, his disciples came unto him: And he opened his mouth, and taught them, saying, Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.”

6010

I was reading Dr. John R. Rice's (1895-1980) helpful Bible commentary today for the Gospel of Matthew. I read about Matthew chapter 5, concerning being poor in spirit:

> Matthew 5:3, "Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven."
>
> Compare this with Luke 6:20. Notice that Luke says "poor" while Matthew says "
>
> poor in spirit.
>
> " The meaning is the same, with Matthew going into more detail. Luke says "kingdom of God," while Matthew says "kingdom of heaven." It is blessed to be poor, particularly if the poverty is felt in the spirit. Compare this with "Woe unto you that are rich!" (Luke 6:24). The Saviour did not mean it is good to be poor without any spiritual riches or spiritual virtues. Rather, He meant that in dealing with God it is a blessed thing to have the humility of the poor, the broken heart of the poor. If a man feels his need, his poverty, so that he can pray as a poor and needy creature begging for help, then blessed is that man, for he will be heard. The poor in spirit are those who see their helplessness and see how valueless are temporal things — wealth, houses, land, fame. A rich man can be "poor in spirit." A poor man can be proud and haughty and so have none of the virtues of the poor, and miss the blessing God means for the poor. See Revelation 3:17, 18 where God describes those who do not feel poor but really are wretchedly poor in His sight. These miss God's blessing. Compare with this James 2:1-6. James 2:5 speaks of the poor as "heirs of the kingdom" as does Matthew 5:3.
>
> God particularly loves the poor. He will not hear the prayers of those who do not help the poor (Prov. 21:13; Isa. 58:7, 10; Prov. 14:31; Ps. 41:1; Prov. 19:17). God forbids moneylenders to keep as security the garment of the poor (Exod. 22:25-27). Jesus preached the Gospel especially to the poor (Matt. 11:5). And in winning souls, we are especially enjoined to "bring in hither the poor, and the maimed, and the halt, and the blind" (Luke 12:21). The poor have many blessings that the rich do not have: usually better health, happier marriages, more children, less worries, fewer suicides, and are easier to reach with the Gospel (Luke 18:23-25; Mark 12:37. Lazarus, the poor beggar, was saved, while the rich man was lost (Luke 16:22, 23). Jesus is "the poor man's Friend." Oh, Christian, do not strive to be rich; rather, "be content with such things as ye have" (Heb. 13:5; I Tim. 6:6-11). Seek first the kingdom of God (Matt. 6:33) and trust the Saviour who loves the poor.
>
> Jesus Himself, "though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich" (II Cor. 8:9). What infinite grace! He was born in a stable and laid in a borrowed manger when there was no room for Him in the inn. Though the foxes had holes and the birds of the air had nests, yet the Son of man had not where to lay His head (Matt. 8:20). And when He died, He left only a seamless garment and was buried in a borrowed grave (John 19:23, 24; Matt. 27:60). Every poor man ought to love Jesus Christ!

Amen and amen! God has a special place in His heart for the poor of this world. Proverbs 19:17, " He that hath pity upon the poor lendeth unto the LORD; and that which he hath given will he pay him again." I receive many emails from frustrated saints who say they never receive any answers to prayer. I humbly cannot say for certain why this is so. I admit that I also feel like God doesn't answer my prayers. My heart of hearts tells me that we don't deserve God's blessings or answers to prayer in America, because of our culture's ungodly tolerance for wickedness.

Tragically, over 60,000,000 human lives were murdered by abortion from 1973 to 2022, during the Roe vs. Wade era. Sadly, abortions are still happening by the millions across the United States. Now the FDA has approved an abortion pill. How convenient to murder another human life!!! I tell you truly, it is nothing less than first-degree premeditated murder. Then there is the greed, shady business contracts, dishonest insurance companies, cutthroat lawyers, fraudulent Federal Reserve banking system, et cetera. All across America public nudity is now the norm. Booze and substance abuse are epidemic nationwide, with 70,000 opiate drug deaths each year in the United States. Smash and Grab shoplifting sprees and blatant rampant theft are epidemic in California. California's liberal progressive legislators are to blame, for lessening the punishment for theft.

These are not poor people partaking of the Smash and Grab riots in California, nor the one's involved in the Black Lives Matter riots of 2020; but rather, these are spoiled rotten young American brats, who have an ungodly entitlement attitude that society somehow owes them. So in their own warped thinking, they think they have a right to steal, harm and injure others with impunity. This is the criminal work of the insane " movement. They should all be tried and hung publicly, like was done two centuries ago in London to thieves.

Woke

Ecclesiastes 8:11, " Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil."

4.9.3 The Worst Part About Going To Hell (2023-09-03 00:30)

2nd Thessalonians 1:8-9, "In flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ: Who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power."

The Bible says in our text passage of Scripture that when a person dies in their sins without having obeyed the Gospel, God takes vengeance upon them with flaming fire in Hell. This is not just fire, but "flaming" fire. The Greek word for flaming is "phlox," which means: "(to 'flash' or 'flame'); a blaze." It means a strong fire that burns intensely, producing intense heat and smoke. Revelation 14:11, "And the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night..." Yet, in lieu of clear Biblical evidence that Hell is a literal place of intense fire, burning and torment, foolish people dismiss it as a fable.

Look again at our text Scripture. Interestingly, the word "PUNISHED" wasn't placed in front of God taking out His vengeance upon the wicked with flaming fire; but rather, the PUNISHMENT will be perpetual ruin "FROM THE PRESENCE OF THE LORD." The worst part about Hell is not what you will GET, but what you DIDN'T GET! The worst part about Hell, will be the agony of knowing that you could have had a blessed eternal existence, in the presence of the best friend a human being could ever want, God Himself. People in Hell this moment are miserable, knowing that they rejected an omnipotent Savior Who wanted to give them everything to make them happy. Romans 8:32, "He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things?"

A precious promise in the Bible is that God Himself will live among the saints in Heaven. There will be no more hunger, no pain, no thirst, no suffering and no health afflictions. Despite our abundance of food in America, many Christian believers in third-world countries don't have enough food. In Haiti, people commonly mix dirt and salt with cooking oil to form mud pies to survive. We are so spoiled in America! Whereas adversity built our once great nation, prosperity has ruined America. Albeit, the Bible teaches that in Heaven, there will be no shortage of water or food for anyone. Jesus Himself will provide our every need as believers.

God will wipe away every tear. Notice in the following precious passage of Scripture that it doesn't merely say there won't be any more tears; but rather, God Himself shall WIPE AWAY our tears. God is going to console and befriend us, personally and compassionately wiping our tears away. Revelation 7:15-17, "Therefore are they before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple: and he that sitteth on the throne shall dwell among them. They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; neither shall the sun light on them, nor any heat. For the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters: and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes."

The worst part about Hell is that you won't be able to live with God in Heaven. You'll have no one to wipe away your tears. You will be in eternal mental anguish, alone and destitute without any hope. What a terrifying thought. If you are foolish and wicked enough to brush aside the Bible's warning of an eternal Hell for all Christ-rejecters, then you will have no one to blame but yourself when you go there! 2nd Timothy 2:13, "If we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself." Luke 24:25, "Then he [Jesus] said unto them, O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken." I believe, do you?

When all the foolish Christ-rejecters suffering in Hell, see all the wonderful blessings that they could have had, but willingly forfeited and will never enjoy, they will weep in bitter tears of sorrow, gnashing their teeth in regret. Luke 13:28, "There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when ye shall see Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, and all the prophets, in the kingdom of God, and you yourselves thrust out."

And carefully notice from this passage that people who go to Hell have the ability to cry, feel and gnash their teeth. I read one Bible teacher's commentary concerning the statement, "Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched" (mentioned three times in Mark 9:44-48). He suggested that one possible interpretation is that people who go to Hell are turned into worms. He cited a scientific article about sea worms being found in volcanic vents on the ocean floor. Now I disagree with his exegesis, because as we just read in Luke 13:28, sinners in Hell will gnash THEIR TEETH (and worms don't have teeth). Worms don't cry. Worms don't wail. I'm not critiquing the man's exegesis, not at all, I'm just giving you my exegesis.

How does all the blessings promised by God to the righteous, compare to the Christ-rejecter's fate in the Lake of Fire? How does Heaven's happiness compare to Hell's hardships? Woe unto the wicked! Unrepentant sinners who die in their unbelief will be punished with separation from God for all eternity. Oh, my friend, please don't go to Hell. Billions of fools will one day weep in bitter tears of horror, as they behold the intense flames of the Lake of Fire where they will spend eternity, and realize that they could have had eternal blessing, happiness and the most wonderful heavenly family imaginable—all for free through faith in the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ. Millions of fools will look around for their atheist hero when they die, George Carlin. They'll look and see him bowing his knees and confessing that Jesus Christ is Lord, and then he'll be cast into the Lake of Fire forever. ...

> Philippians 2:9-11, "Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name: That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth; And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father."

The worst part about being in HELL is not being in HEAVEN. The most painful part about being in Hell with NOTHING, will be knowing that you could have had EVERYTHING. The most horrible part about being in the Lake of Fire with the DEVIL (who lived to ruin you), will be knowing that you could have spent eternity with JESUS (Who died to save you). Hell will be awful. Hell is a literal place of fire, torment, outer darkness and a bottomless pit; but the worst part about going to Hell is realizing day-and-night that YOU COULD HAVE ENJOYED ALL OF THE BLESSINGS OF GOD FOR FREE in Christ Jesus!!!

One hard thing that most people learn as they grow older, is that life has a way of taking away the things that you worked so hard to earn in your youth. As many people have painfully learned, you spend the last half of your life losing all the wealth that you spent the first half earning. Ah, but there is one way to obtain sweet revenge against the whole corrupt system in America, and that is to take the Lord's good advice in Matthew 6:19-20, "Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal: But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal." I have decided to spend the rest of my earthly life investing all my time and effort into eternity, for the sake of the Lord Jesus Christ and the Gospel. Why amass treasures in this world, when you cannot take one penny with you into eternity? [1]INVEST FOR ETERNITY!!!

I don't claim to understand it all, but we read in the Bible that people in Hell can see into Heaven. Luke 13:28, "There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when ye shall see Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, and all the prophets, in the kingdom of God, and you yourselves thrust out." People in Hell will be able to see what they could have had, and it will cause them to weep, wail and grit their teeth together with inexplicable anguish and excruciating mental horror. The realization that they fool-heartedly rejected an incredibly loving, patient, generous, caring and compassionate God, Who wanted to be their best friend, will burn in their mind forever. Whereas they could have dwelt with God, and enjoyed the pure water from the river of life in Heaven (Revelation 22:1), they won't be allowed to have even a single drop of water to cool their intolerable thirst (Luke 16:19-31).

The worst part about going to Hell will be knowing that you could have had it all, but you rejected Jesus Christ as your personal Savior. People spend their earthly life laying up temporary treasures and security, while not giving any consideration to eternity, which lasts forever and ever. The world is filled with thousands of billionaires and millions of millionaires, 99 % of whom will spend eternity burning in Hell without Christ. You can have all the money, fame and pleasures that this sinful world has to offer, just give me Jesus Christ!!! I wrote this article because I want you to enjoy Heaven with me. If you're reading this, it's not too late. God will save you, no matter what evil things you have done. Jesus died for the vilest sinner, because God loves YOU!

Millions of churches worldwide today are full of deceit, false teachings and a damnable counterfeit plan of salvation; but the inspired King James Bible teaches that salvation comes only to the person who places their faith in Jesus Christ (apart from all works)...

> Romans 3:21-26, But now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets; Even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference: For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God; Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus: Whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God; To declare, I say, at this time his righteousness: that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus."

I am saddened to hear so many Baptist pastors today corrupting the simplicity of the Gospel. Whereas the Holy Bible repeatedly proclaims salvation through mere childlike faith in the crucifixtion, burial and bodily resurrection of Jesus Christ, you'll hear all manner of additional requirements from over 95 % of church pulpits today. Here are some popular unbiblical requirements that you will hear in churches today:

1. Make Jesus the 'Lord' of your life
2. Become a Christ follower.
3. Surrender 'all' to Christ
4. Repent 'of your sins'
5. Turn away from past sinful ways
6. Turn from your sins
7. Life a lifestyle of repentance
8. Forsake a lifestyle of sinning
9. Ask Jesus into your heart
10. Invite Christ into your life

Der reader, you may do all of those things and yet never have been born again at all. Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born again (Matthew 7:21-23).

God never sent anybody to Hell who didn't choose to go there, by willfully rejecting Jesus' sacrifice on the cross as payment for one's sins. God has intentionally made getting saved easy, free and simple, so that even a small child can be saved. If you admit that you are a guilty sinner in God's sight, and see your need for the dear Savior, then just BELIEVE ON HIM and you will be saved. BELIEVE the facts that Jesus is the only begotten Son of God, the Christ (John 20:31). BELIEVE that facts that Jesus died on a cross to pay for your sins, He was buried and three days later He physically resurrected from the dead (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). John 6:47,

" Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life."

4.9.4 Pensacola Christian College Denies We Have An Inspired Bible Today (2023-09-05 11:14)

Psalms 12:6-7, "The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times. Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever."

There is no greater truth in the world than that we have an inspired Holy Bible. By "inspired" I mean that the words in the Bible we hold today, were not merely authored by sinful flawed men, but by almighty God. Sadly, 99 % of today's Bible colleges and pastors deny that we have any inspired Holy Bible today. It is tragic that schools like Pensacola Christian College (PCC) and Bob Jones University (BJU), blatantly deny that we have an inspired, perfect, infallible, incorruptible Holy Bible in 2023.

Here is the Statement of Faith of Pensacola Christian College (PCC) regarding the Holy Bible:

> We believe that the Bible is the verbally inspired and infallible, authoritative Word of God and that God gave the words of Scripture by inspiration without error in the original autographs (2 Tim. 3:16–17, 2 Pet. 1:21). God promises that He will preserve His Word; Jesus said, "My words shall not pass away" (Matt. 24:35). We believe that God has kept that promise by preserving His infallible Word in the traditional Hebrew and Greek manuscripts and that the Authorized Version (KJV) is an accurate English translation of the preserved Word of God. [emphasis added] [1]SOURCE

What idiotic contradictions! PCC foolishly denies that we have a Holy Bible today without error, but then hypocritically contradict themselves by saying that God has kept His promise to preserve His infallible Word. Well which is it? How can God have kept His promise in Psalms 12:6-7 to preserve His "PURE WORDS," if they are in error today as PCC claims? What saith the Scripture? ...

> Psalms 12:6-7, "The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times. Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever."

What does Psalms 12:7 promise that God will keep and preserve? Obviously, the "PURE WORD" mentioned in verse 6, as silver tried in a furnace of earth 7-times. This method has been used for millenniums, and is still used today, to separate metals to obtain the purest form. Oil refiners use the same process. By heating crude oil drawn from deep within the earth, the lighter kerosene and gases float toward the top and the thicker grease used to lubricate automobile wheel bearings sinks to the bottom. Gold is purified the same way. By heating mined ore from the earth up to thousands of degrees Fahrenheit, the metals separate.

Dear reader, I ask you, how can God's Words be "PURE WORDS" if they have ERRORS in them? PCC ought not be in the business of educating Christian young people, because they are shaking their faith in the inspiration of the King James Bible. SHAME on PCC and their ignoramus leaders, pastors and professors, who deny that we have an inspired 97 % of so-called "Bible colleges" today deny that we have an inspired Holy Bible today without error.

Sadly, since 2008 neither does my home college, Hyles-Anderson College (HAC), believe that we have an inspired Holy Bible today. I am sick to my stomach just thinking about it. [2]Dr. Jack Hyles is angry up in Heaven, and if he could come back down here to earth to make some changes, He would [3]fire the pastors and staff at the First Baptist Church of Hammond (FBCH), Indiana. Many pastors and churches today are [4]betraying the Word of God. Somebody who is a close friend of the present pastor of FBCH said he has no choice, because the church staff demand that he not go back to what Pastor Jack Hyles believed and preached, that the King James Bible is the only inspired Bible today. I emailed back and kindly told him that he essentially is saying that the new pastor, Dr. John Wilkerson, is henpecked. Dr. Hyles would have rather died before he would allow anybody to interfere with his preaching.

Pensacola Christian College (PCC) is a shameful disgrace! Their impotent leaders don't care about right doctrine. When I moved from the island of Guam to Pensacola, Florida, in July of 2021, I attended PCC's Campus Church for a few months. I was mistreated by Pastor Jeff Redlin my first day at the church, when I attended their 4th of July picnic.

I had kindly told Pastor Redlin that I was sleeping homeless in Walmart's parking lot, because the hotel where I had made 30-day reservation screwed me.

I had confirmed a 30-day stay for $55 per night. When my plane on Guam was delayed because of an idiot light which wouldn't go off (federal law prohibits a plane from taking off if a fault light is on). Consequently, I missed my connecting flight in Honolulu top Denver and ended up sleeping in Hawaii overnight at a hotel United Airlines provided. I called the Woodspring Suites Hotel in Pensacola in advance, to tell them I was still coming and they could bill my credit card upfront for the entire 30-day reservation (including for the missed day), but they said they cancelled my entire stay. I was so angry at them, but they couldn't have cared less. God will punish them for the evil they did.

Anyway, when I told Pastor Redlin, he just looked startled and walked away as a coward. That was my first and lasting impression of Jeff Redlin. It didn't surprise me that in the months to come, Redlin would continue to abuse me. When I told him kindly that I am a Hyles-Anderson College graduate, he hated me without cause. I was kind, nice and loving toward Pastor Redlin; but he was cruel, cold and mean toward me.

When I told him that I was divorced, he patronized me, making me feel like garbage. When I told him how I felt (that he made me feel like garbage), his Smart Alec reply was to say: "That is your reality.” No, the reality is that Jeff Redlin is an overpaid rich arrogant snob, who doesn’t walk with God and may not even be saved. He is abusive and mistreats people. As the senior pastor of Campus Church, Redlin gets paid a disgusting 6-digit salary. His public sermonettes are dry, lacking in substance and woefully void of any presence of the Holy Spirit. PCC is a cesspool of formalism, spiritual lifeless, snobbery and an abusive authoritarian cult leadership.

In July of 2021 Pastor Redlin emailed to tell me that he and the other pastors of Campus Church looked over my website ministry. I hadn’t told them about my ministry, but one of my neo-evangelical enemies (likely from the demonic Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, which is a cesspool of incompetent Bob Jones alumni) contacted Campus Church to slander me. Pastor Redlin had been ignoring me for 10-days, and I didn’t know why, so I kindly emailed to ask him the reason. Redlin cruelly said that he and his associate pastors saw that I “find weaknesses in preachers.” That hurt and his words cut to my heart. All these many years I have been FAITHFULLY contending for the Christian faith (Jude 1:3; Titus 1:9-14; Ephesians 5:11), but now these neo-evangelical pastors at PCC are falsely accusing me of picking on weak preachers?

And let me make clear dear reader, PCC are neo-evangelicals. “

Neo

simply means

new.

” These are the church-destroyers who deny the inspiration of the King James Bible. These are the church-destroyers who errantly teach that faith is not enough to get to Heaven, but also, PCC says you must repent of your sins so that your behavior changes. Don’t take my word for it, see for yourself. The following actual screenshot (I added the cancellation circle to warn people) was captured from a YouTube video of the Wednesday evening church service held on July 21, 2021 at Campus Church. Associate Pastor Timothy Zacharias showed a heretical Ken Ham video promoting a Young Earth heresy, and then Dr. Zacharias spoke afterwards, preaching the Devil’s lie that to be saved you must turn away from your sins...

Damnable Heresy Being Taught At Pensacola Christian College

Dear friend, they are [6]a hateful bunch at PCC. They hated me without cause because as a Baptist preacher I have been faithful to [7]expose the corrupt Bob Jones University (BJU) cult. BJU are guilty of sinfully [8]bidding Godspeed to Dr. John MacArthur (one of their alumni), who is today considered the godfather of Calvinism in America. BJU are guilty are selling, using and promoting corruptible seed (i.e., the Devil's modern corrupt Bible revisions). Take a look how corrupt the English Standard Version (ESV) is, that BJU uses, sells and promotes. Ladies and gentlemen, the inspired Word of God is under attack today like never before. PCC, BJU and HAC all deny the inspiration of the Bible.

Sadly, you can add Crown College in Powell, Tennessee to that list as well. Pastor Clarence Sexton (senior pastor of Temple Baptist Church and chancellor of Crown College) sinfully bids Godspeed to BJU, recently speaking in their chapel services, selling out for the compromiser that he is. RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!! There is nothing "Christlike" about hobnobbing with the Devil's religious crowd: who deny the inspiration of the King James Bible, who preach another gospel of "Lordship Salvation," who teach a misunderstood meaning of repentance (aka, they say you must "turn from your sinful ways" to get to Heaven), and who idolize infidel Martin Luther as a born-again Christian (Luther taught the damnable heresy of Baptismal Regeneration until his death in 1546 AD). These are FALSE TEACHERS, wolves in sheep's clothing!!!

Like everyone does, PCC has drawn a line where they want to stand. When you're as good a Christian as you want to be, you're as good a Christian as you're going to get.

Everybody chooses where to draw the line. But just because PCC is comfortable bidding Godspeed to the Bob Jones cult doesn't mean that God approves of it. BJU is a CULT! I certainly don't agree with many teachings of Pastor Peter S. Ruckman (1921-2016), but as a man who held three earned degrees from Bob Jones University, Dr. Ruckman more than anyone has a right to expose his own college. I absolutely love what Dr. Ruckman wrote in the following series of articles titled: '[9]THE ALEXANDRIAN CULT SERIES,' exposing BJU.

Pastor David A. White has also exposed Bob Jones University as [10]the fountainhead of the corrupt Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort Greek. BJU didn't turn corrupt overnight, this departure from a free grace Gospel started several decades ago. First, the Devil stuck his foot in the door, introducing corruptible seed at BJU. They bought into it hook, line and sinker. Second, as they used the Devil's bibles, BJU's doctrine began to change toward Calvinism (which is known today as, Lordship Salvation).

I guarantee that wherever you find Devil's bibles, you'll find Calvinism, Misunderstood Repentance and Lordship Salvation. PCC thought they could eat at the Devil's table at BJU without being poisoned, but they were woefully wrong. PCC foolishly thought they could play with the Devil's fire at BJU, but they got burned bad. Consequently, [11]PCC now teaches the same counterfeit plan of salvation as BJU, teaching that your behavior must change or you're not saved. That is WORKS (Jonah 3:10). Pensacola Christian College is a dangerous religious CULT—where the Gospel is perverted, individual hurting people like me are ostracized (I've been banned in writing since August 2, 2022 from attending Campus Church), an abusive authoritarian leadership exists, and [12]infidels like Ken Ham are honored and promoted (PCC invited Ken Ham to speak at Campus Church).

The following words were written by my friend and mentor, Pastor Jack Hyles. I attended Hyles-Anderson College for 8-years from 1985 to 1993. I humbly graduated with a degree in Pastoral Theology. I thank God for that blessed opportunity to attend such a wonderful place of learning, love and soulwinning under the influence of Dr. Hyles:

Pastor Jack Hyles On The Importance Of Bible Infallibility

John 12:47-48, "And if any man hear my words, and believe not, I judge him not: for I came not to judge the world, but to save the world. He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him: the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day."

John 14:23, "Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him."

Dr. Jack Hyles (1926-2001)

Folks, I'm going to go to seed [to become worn] before I die on defending this Book—I'm going to go to seed on it! I'm a little tired—by the way, every preacher in America, before he met a theologian, believed exactly what I'm preaching tonight! Theologians messed us all up—they messed me up for a while, I'll be honest with you—messed us all up! When I went off to college, I thought I had the words of God in this Book right here. When I was in college for awhile I found out I didn't. Not only that, I found out nobody did! Not only that, I found out you couldn't have them! Not only that, I found out there was no such thing as any book in all the world that had the words of God in 'em!

But my Bible said that we're supposed to keep His "WORDS"; not His truths, not just His doctrine, but His "WORDS"! ...

Mark 8:38,"Whosoever therefore shall be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation; of him also shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in the glory of his Father with the holy angels."

Folks, here's what's happening in America. The old-time preachers that built this country believed that this Book right here had the words of God in it! Your grandpa and grandma, that built this country, shed their tears on this Book, thinking they had the very words of God in their hands. And fundamentalists ALL believed what I'm preaching tonight, until we got our own Bible colleges, and seminaries, and sent our professors off to train at the feet of Karl Barth, and Reinhold Neuber, Emil Brunner, and others, who said that the Bible does not have the "words" of God, it is the Word of God, and that all the Bible is not inspired word-for-word. So we did not want to be considered "unintellectual" by the intellectual community; we're not willing to be called "nuts" and "fools"—just chalk me up as a nut! Chalk me up as a fool! Yea! Chalk me up as an uneducated illiterate if you want to, but I guarantee Ya—I'd rather study my A-B-C's in Heaven, then Greek and Hebrew in Hell!

Whosoever shall be ashamed of “ME AND MY WORDS”; it didn’t say His “WORD,” it says His “WORDS”!

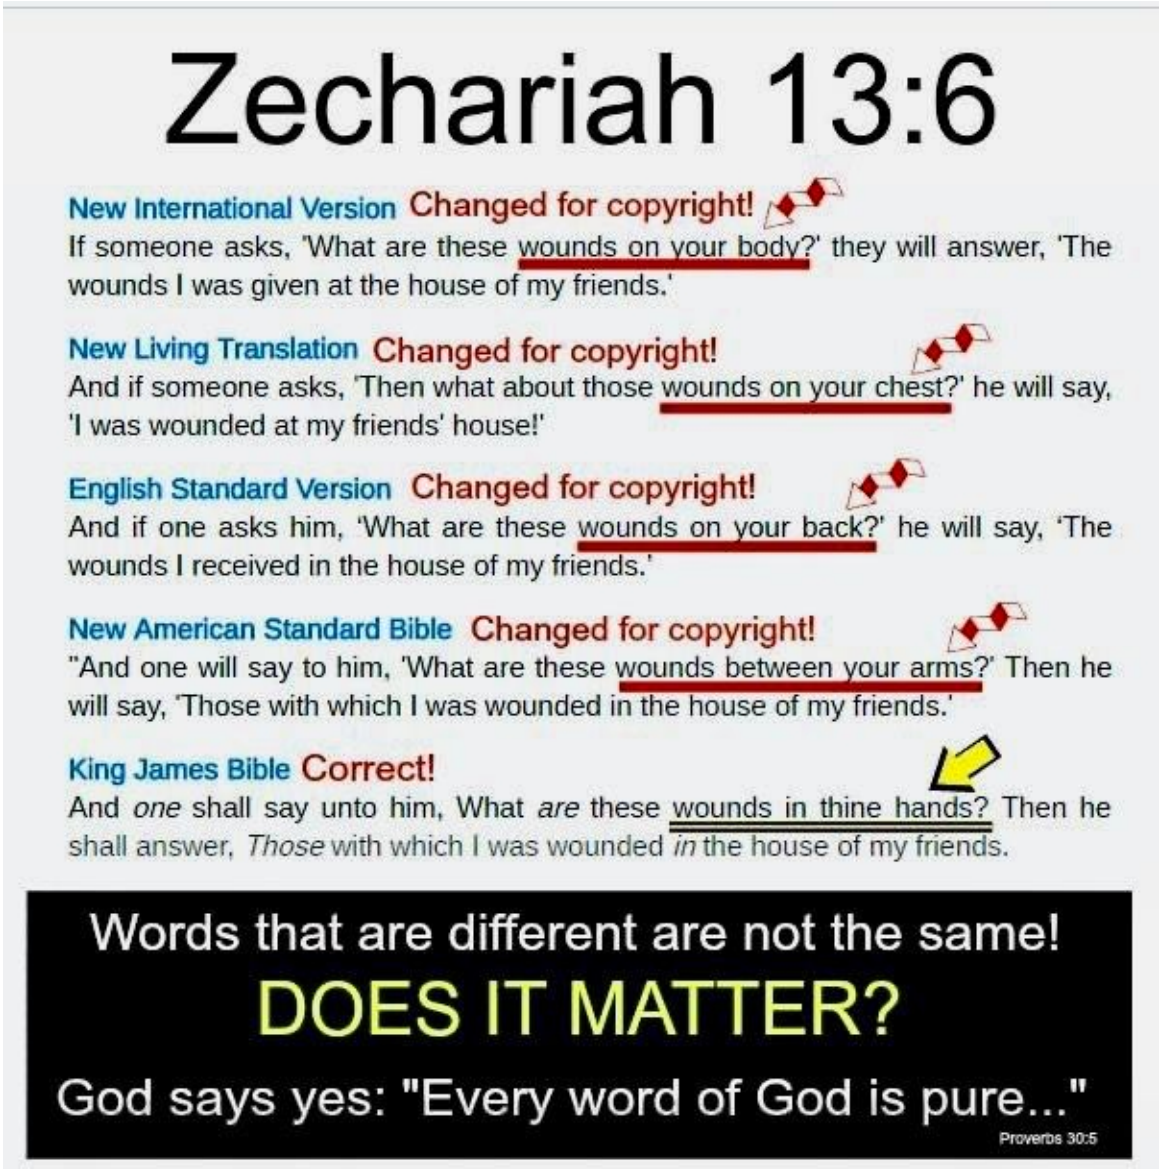
I plead with you, whoever you may be, to RUN FROM PCC! They are not what they appear to be. PCC wickedly bids Godspeed to devil preachers like Ken Ham, who says that faith is not sufficient to get to Heaven; but in addition, [14]Ken Ham says you must turn from your wicked ways to be saved, which is 100 % WORKS. PCC blasphemes the Word of God by denying that we have an inspired Holy Bible today. All Scripture is given by inspiration of God according to II Timothy 3:16. The five words "given by inspiration of God” were chosen by the 54 translators of the King James Bible to render the one Greek word, Theopneustos. “Theo” means God, and “Neustos” means air. That is, all Scripture is God-breathed.



The Holy Bible is God’s Word. God spoke those Words! Matthew 4:4, “But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.” If I am to obey the Bible’s commandment to live by EVERY WORD of God, then I must have an “

every Word Bible

!!! That is what inspired means. Some fool knucklehead theologian decided that inspiration only refers to the original words (which God breathed out to holy men of old through His holy Spirit). So those dishonest men claim that only the original autographs of the Scripture were inspired, but not today’s King James Bible. THEY ARE DECEIVED LIARS!!! If we do not have any inspired Bible today in 2023, then we do not have God’s Words. Do you really think that God would allow corrupted men (all men are corrupt, sinful and flawed) to contaminate his VERY PURE Words (Psalms 119:140)?

Shame on PCC, BJU, HAC, Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary, Dallas Theological Seminary Moody Bible Institutive, Maranatha Baptist University, Crown College, Liberty University and other cesspools of apostasy, iniquity and neo-evangelical rot today.

4.9.5 Pastor Harry Ironside Was NOT A Calvinist (2023-09-07 12:41)

Romans 4:3-7, "For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness.

Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt. But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness. Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works, Saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered."

On Moody Bible Institute's website, they boldly lie and misrepresent Dr. Harry Ironside, calling him a moderate Calvinist:

> "Doctrinally during the 30 years after his resignation from the Salvation Army, Ironside underwent a gradual transition through the prayerful study of the Scriptures to a position of moderate Calvinism."
> SOURCE: [1]https://www.moodymedia.org/articles/harry-ironside

WRONG!!! The leaders at Moody who wrote and sanction the preceding statement are LIARS!!! Kindly said, I have all of Dr. Ironside's books and and I agree with 99 % of Dr. Ironside's theology. I love the guy! Where in the world did Moody Church (who today have chosen to become wicked Calvinists), get the wrong idea that their former pastor Dr. Ironside, was a Calvinist? Well, they are twisting the truth, as false prophets always do!

Dear reader, the Holy Bible is very simple to understand if you keep it simple! It shocks me that Moody Church today would even dare to connect Pastor Harry Ironside with Dr. John MacArthur. These men teach two VERY DIFFERENT plans of salvation from one another. Take a look for yourself at [2]what Dr. MacArthur teaches, and now look at [3]what Pastor Harry Ironside teaches! I am telling you with biblical authority that John MacArthur is wrong and of the Devil!!! Dr. Ironside gets the Gospel 100 % correct!!! Shame on Moody Church and Moody Bible Institute today and beware of them! I wouldn't give you a dime for what Moody Bible Institute has become spiritually. CALVINISM IS OF THE DEVIL!!!

Calvinism is often described by using the helpful acronym, T U L I P:

> T - Total Depravity (This heresy claims humans are so depraved as to not be able to even make a choice, total inability to believe. This ends up in teaching that man must be born again BEFORE he believes. [4]I agree with Pastor Harry Ironside that men are totally depraved, and that the Holy Spirit must draw men to Christ, but the Bible is very clear that the Holy Spirit draws "ALL MEN" (John 12:32), not just some whom God chooses. The grace of God that brings salvation appears to "ALL MEN" (Titus 2:11). So, clearly Harry Ironside did not ascribe to the typical Calvinist's misunderstanding of the total depravity of the sinner. Dr. Ironside was no Calvinist!

U - Unconditional Election (Calvinists errantly teach that God has chosen who will be saved and who will go to Hell, because these latter have not been gifted to believe. This is supposedly to the glory of God. Faith gifted to the elect by the Holy Spirit is said to bring true conversions, while personal faith is considered a "work" that produces false conversions. Calvinism says we believe because we were chosen; the truth is that God chose us because we believe.)

L - Limited Atonement (Many Calvinists errantly teach that Jesus Christ died only for those He chose to be saved, and that the Gospel is not for all. Pastor Charles Spurgeon succumbed to this horrible false doctrine, as does Dr. John MacArthur and Moody Bible Institute. In sharp contrast to the heresy of Limited Atonement, the Holy Bible says in 1st John 2:2 that Christ "is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world.")

I - Irresistible Grace (Calvinists errantly believe God only calls some to be saved, and they cannot resist. They will be saved automatically, regardless of whether they want to be or not, while those whom He deems 'reprobates' have no chance of salvation. Is grace truly grace if it cannot be rejected? Throughout the New Testament we find the word "WHOSOEVER," which is an open free invitation from God for all sinners to come to Christ by faith alone in the Gospel for eternal life.)

P - Perseverance of the Saints (This heresy says those whom God chose will not be lost, and they will continue in faith, love, holiness and righteousness. However since these people do not know who the "elect" are, there is the torment of uncertainty, which results in a works/Lordship salvation in an attempt to prove to themselves they are indeed elect. In sharp contrast, Biblical Christianity teaches the Preservation of the Saints, not the persevering (hanging on for dear life to convince yourself you are really saved). [5]Harry Ironside believed in the perseverance of the Holy Spirit, with which I fully agree. As Dr. Ironside rightly says, if someone who once claimed to be a born-again Christian, now denies Christ as Savior, it just means they were never saved at all. Dr. Ironside did not ascribe to the Calvinist heresy that a person who still lives in willful sin, never repented, so their faith in Jesus is counterfeit. As 1st Corinthians 3:15 proves, not all saints 'persevere' in holiness, because this horrible man received no heavenly rewards, "saved; yet so as by fire.")

I haven't found any teachings by Pastor Harry Ironside to convince me that he was even a one-point Calvinist. Quite the contrary, this dear man of God was very sound in his theology, unlike Moody Bible Institute today (who promote John MacArthur and openly promotes Satan's counterfeit Bible revisions).

By the way, all the modern Bible revisions pervert the meaning of repentance. Instead of correctly defining repentance as "a change of mind," all of the new Bibles render it as turning away from sin and a changed life. Case in point, look at [6]Mark 1:15 in the Satanic Easy-To-Read version (ERV). The false idea that a person must turn away from their sinful ways, as a requirement to be saved, perverts the Gospel of free grace. Effectively, it means keeping the law to be saved. As Christians we SHOULD live for Christ. That is what the Bible teaches in Romans 3:31. If we MUST live for Christ, that is the heresy of works. If we WILL live for Christ, that is the heresy of Calvinism.

Here are some great helpful quotes from Pastor Ironside...

> “Turn to your Bible and read for yourself in the only two chapters in which this word predestinate or predestinated is found. The first is Romans 8:29-30, the other chapter is Ephesians 1:5 and 11. You will note that there is no reference in these four verses to either heaven or hell but to Christ-likeness eventually. Nowhere are we told in scripture that God predestinated one man to be saved and another to be lost. Men are to be saved or lost eternally because of their attitude towards the Lord Jesus Christ. Predestination means that someday all the redeemed shall become just like the Lord Jesus” —Pastor Harry Ironside, a quote from his awesome book: “Full Assurance,” [7]chapter 9

> “D.L. Moody used to put it very simply the elect are the ’whosoever wills’ the non-elect ’whosoever wont’s’. This is exactly what scripture teaches, the invitation is to all, those who accept it are the elect. Remember, we are never told that Christ died for the elect.” —Pastor Harry Ironside, a quote from his awesome book: “Full Assurance,” [8]chapter 9

> “Whosoever means, whosoever. Only a biased theologian, with an axe to grind, could ever think that it meant only the elect.” —Pastor Harry Ironside, a quote from his awesome book: “Full Assurance,” [9]chapter 9

I love Pastor Ironside, who gets repentance 100 % correct:

> 1. "How may I be sure that I have repented enough?"
>
> Very often the real difficulty arises from a misapprehension of the meaning of repentance.
>
> There is no salvation without repentance, but it is important to see exactly what is meant by this term.
>
> - It should not be confused with penitence, which is sorrow for sin;
> - It should not be confused with penance, which is an effort to make some satisfaction for sin;
> - It should not be confused with reformation, which is turning from sin.
>
> Repentance is a change of attitude toward sin, toward self, and toward GOD. The word (in the Greek Testament) literally means "a change of mind." This is not a mere intellectual change of viewpoint, however, but a complete reversal of attitude.
>
> SOURCE: Pastor Harry Ironside, a quote from his awesome book: “Full Assurance,” [10]chapter 9

What a great and helpful quote! Penitence is sorrow for sin. Penance is trying to atone (cover) your sin by righting your wrong. Reformation is turning from sin. NONE of those are repentance! In the Bible we see that Judas was sorry for betraying Jesus. The Bible says he even returned the 30 pieces of silver. Judas hung himself and went to Hell. You see, you cannot be saved by penance, penitence or reformation; the Bible says: YE MUST BE BORN AGAIN! (John 3:3-7).

Biblical repentance is simply "a change of mind" from WRONG THINKING to believing the Gospel to be saved. It's that simple! You don't get saved by repenting, you get saved by BELIEVING! Repentance is automatic. The man who believes has repented. John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life."

It is clear to me that Pastor Ironside was NOT even a one-point Calvinist, in the traditional sense of the word. Moody Bible Institute are being very dishonest. I can see why they would try to change the truth, to defend themselves, since they have shifted in their beliefs over the past 75 years. Shame on Moody Bible Institute for accusing Pastor Ironside of "[11]gradually transitioning" his views from that of a free grace Gospel, to one of perverse Satanic Calvinism!!!

Sadly, Moody today promote one of the biggest heretics in history; namely, Dr. John MacArthur (the godfather of modern Calvinism, who boasts of being a 5-point Calvinist). By the simplistic Biblical explanations that he gives, Dr. Harry Ironside can no more be called a "Calvinist" than the apostle Paul could be called a Roman Catholic. Dr. Ironside was right in his theology, and Moody Church is all wrong today! The folks at Moody should be honest and just admit that they have decided to become Calvinists, [12]straying away from their free grace roots begun by Dwight L. Moody (1837-1899). Get right with God all you folks at Moody!

4.9.6 Pastor Steven Anderson Is Wrong About The Rapture (2023-09-10 09:53)

In his booklet titled, “The Second Coming Of Christ,” Dr. Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) teaches on page 11 concerning the Pretribulation Rapture. …

> Jesus Christ could come for His own at any moment. There are no signs that precede His coming. The Bible does not say to watch for signs but we are to watch for the Savior, the Son.
>
> For instance, Philippians 3:20 states,
>
> “ Our conversation [citizenship] is in heaven; from whence also we look for the Savior. ” Not looking for signs but for the Savior.
>
> Titus 2:13,
>
> “ Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Savior Jesus Christ.” Not looking for signs; looking for the Savior.
>
> Hebrews 9:28,
>
> “
>
> . . . And unto them that look for him shall he appear the second time without sin unto salvation. ” We are not told to look for signs but for the Son, the Savior.
>
> There are no signs that precede Christ’s coming for His own. His coming is imminent and has been since New Testament times. The Apostle Paul thought Jesus Christ would come in his lifetime and said in I Thessalonians 4:17,
>
> “ Then WE which are alive and remain . . . ” Paul thought he would be living when Jesus came.
>
> …The coming of Christ for His own is imminent. It could happen any second. No signs have to be fulfilled. He could have come day before yesterday. He could have come last year. He could have come in Paul’s time. HE MAY COME TODAY! We are to live in constant expectancy of His coming.

Amen! We’re not supposed to be watching for signs of Christ’s return; but rather, LOOKING FOR CHRIST HIMSELF!!! Respectfully, Pastor Steven Anderson is doctrinally wrong to teach that, “The Rapture simply cannot happen at any moment.” According to Pastor Anderson THERE WILL BE SIGNS before Christ’s return.

Obviously Brother Anderson and the Bible are in conflict. I believe that Dr. Curtis Hutson did an excellent job explaining the matter, and I agree with him, because he agrees with the Holy Bible. You must decide for yourself my fine non-feathered friend. You have just read the Scripture for yourself, which plainly teaches for us to LOOK FOR JESUS, not signs. Brother Anderson is telling us to look for signs, saying that Jesus’ return must be preceded by signs.
Respectfully said, Pastor Steven Anderson is WRONG…

> Pastor Steven Anderson, ' [13]Revelation - Part 10 ' (Time: 31:00 minutes into video)

If you study Pastor Anderson's chart, you will see that he believes the Tribulation only lasts for 75 DAYS, and then he says the Rapture comes. This contradicts the plain teaching of the Scripture in mark 13:32-37 that no one knows the time of Christ's return. Some Bible students will claim that the four Gospels have nothing to do with the Rapture. I humbly disagree. The Apostle Paul said that he was revealing " a mystery

" in 1st Corinthians 15:51. But this doesn't mean Jesus wasn't referring to the Rapture when He said no one knows the time of His return. The Bible plainly tells us the number of days from the Abomination of Desolation until the end of the Tribulation. So, the people living in the Great Tribulation (i.e., the last 42 months, or 3 1/2 years) will know the time of Christ's return at the Second Coming. Only the time of a Pretribulation Rapture is a mystery.

The inspired King James Bible (if you rightly divide the Word of Truth) teaches a Pretribulation Rapture. That is, the timing of the event of the Rapture will happen BEFORE the 7-year Tribulation period (which is the 70th week of Daniel's prophecy). This is the only doctrinal position that maintains the secrecy of Christ's return at the Rapture. The Bible plainly teaches that Christ's return at the Rapture is a secret. This is one main reason why we know that the Rapture is not the same thing as Jesus' Second Coming.

You need to also understand that whereas most Bible preachers refer to the entire 70th week of Daniel's prophecy as "the Tribulation," Pastor Anderson only considers the 75 DAYS after the Abomination of Desolation (when the Antichrist claims to be God the Messiah from the temple in Jerusalem), until the Rapture 75 DAYS later (he says) as "the Tribulation." So you can get confused quickly trying to understand what Brother Anderson and I are teaching concerning prophecy. I admit that Bible prophecy is a challenging subject to grasp in the Holy Bible. For that very reason, Pastor Charles Sprugeon didn't teach about it, because he said it is too confusing to understand.

In Matthew 24-25, Mark 13 and Luke 21 (these 3 passages are commonly known as 'The Olivet Discourse'), Jesus spoke of unknown things which will happen during Daniel's 70th week in the future. So,

The Bible plainly dates the time of Christ's Second Coming at the end of the Tribulation period (which will be 1,290 days from the Abomination of Desolation according to Daniel 12:11-12). The 1,335 days in Daniel 12:12 includes The Judgment Of The Nations. This will not be a literal judgment of Chine, Russia, India, et cetera; but rather, the world will be judged, separating the tares (unsaved) from the wheat (saved).

4.9.7 What About Mid-Acts Dispensational Teaching? (2023-09-10 09:54)

Wow, I had never heard of Mid-Acts Dispensations until a friend mentioned it to me. I found this

[1]helpful information at GotQuestions.org . Note of warning: Got Questions.org preach the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation, so I do not support their website. Albeit, they do have many helpful articles, such as is the case on Mid-Acts Dispensationalism.

I have never liked dispensational teaching. One of my favorite preachers, Dr. Harry Ironside (1876-1951), taught that dispensationalism is a "overlay" over the Scriptures to help the student understand the Bible. Although Dr. Ironside insists that Dispensational teaching is not doctrine, I totally disagree. Anything that is “taught” is doctrine. Dispensational teaching completely affects a student’s mindset toward the Bible, emphasizing the future Kingdom of Israel, instead of preaching the Gospel of the Kingdom of God.

One of my favorite Christian authors is Philip Mauro (1859-1952) who wrote a helpful book in 1928 titled, ’[2]THE GOSPEL OF THE KINGDOM.’ See also [3]this website.

Also, [4]I made this webpage to simplify Philip Mauro’s message in his book, that God has already made TWO great divisions of the Holy Bible, of OLD and NEW TESTAMENTS (or, respectively, LAW and CHRIST, or GRACE). Classic Dispensationalism makes SEVEN divisions to God’s Word, which I think misleads students to recognize modern manmade Israel as being the fulfillment of Bible prophecy. In reality, present-day Israel (since May of 1948) is manmade, and not the fulfillment of Bible prophecy. Hosea 3:4-5 teaches that God will not regather Israel until the Jews repent toward God, which they haven’t done yet. The Jews may have returned to Israel, but they have not repented to return to God yet. ...

One of my favorite preachers, J. Vernon McGee (1904-1988) [5]refutes the heresy of Zionism.

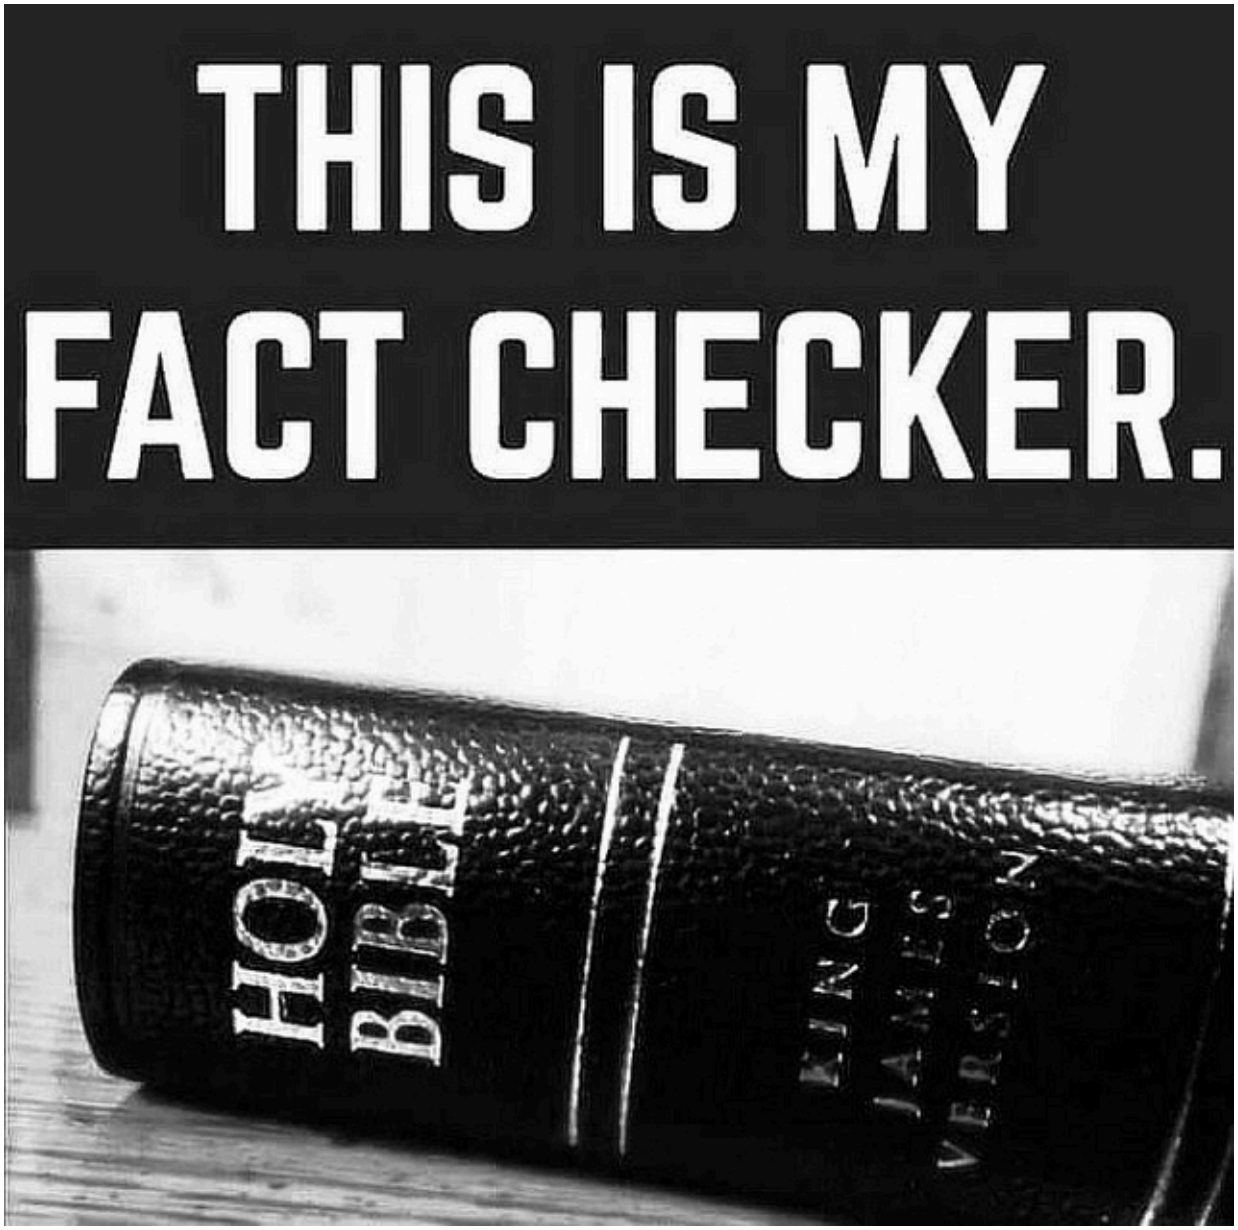
As far as Peter, James, John and Paul preaching different gospels, we know from Acts 10:43 that ALL the prophets preached one Gospel of faith in Christ for the remission of sins. □□□□ □□:□□, "□□ □□□ □□□□ □□□ □□□ □□□□□□□□ □□□□□□□, □□□□ □□□□□□□ □□□ □□□□ □□□□□□□□□□ □□□□□□□□□□ □□ □□□ □□□□□ □□□□□□□ □□□□□□□□□□ □□ □□□□." Hebrews 4:1-2 says that Moses preached "the gospel" to the Jews in the Wilderness for 40 years, but most had no faith, so they went to Hell.

The essence of the Gospel is simply the message of the ’Good News’ that although we are dirty guilty sinners, salvation can be found through faith in the Messiah, the Christ. Jesus explained these truths to the two disciples while walking along the road to Emmaus. □□□□ □□:□□-□□, "□□□□ □□ □□□□ □□□□ □□□□, □ □□□□□, □□□ □□□□ □□ □□□□□ □□ □□□□□□□ □□□ □□□□ □□□ □□□□□□□□ □□□□ □□□□□□: □□□□□ □□□ □□□□□□ □□ □□□□ □□□□□□□□ □□□□□ □□□□□□, □□□ □□ □□□□□ □□□□ □□□ □□□□□? □□□ □□□□□□□□□ □□ □□□□□ □□□ □□□ □□□ □□□□□□□□, □□ □□□□□□□□□ □□□□ □□□□ □□ □□□ □□□ □□□□□□□□□ □□□ □□□□□□ □□□□□□□□□ □□□□□□□." So, biblically, there has always only been ONE GOSPEL.

I loathe Dr. Peter Ruckman’s (1921-2016) false teaching that people were saved by works in the Old Testament, grace today, but by works again after the Rapture. That is so wrong! Ruckman teaches that people after the Rapture will need to keep the Ten Commandments to get saved. What a liar! I like Dr. Ruckman’s work in defense of the King James Bible. Ruckman had three earned degrees from Bob Jones University, but turned against his own college, for which I thank and applaud him. BJU today is a cesspool of wickedness, Lordship Salvation, Devil’s bibles and misunderstood repentance.

Ruckman exposes BJU for being an Alexandrian cult (i.e., promoting the Alexandrian, Egypt text of heretics’ Westcott and Hort, from which all perverted bibles today originate). Shame on BJU!

So, I reject dispensational teaching, as I think it misleads the student of the Bible. I find no justification in the Word of God to support the claims of Dispensationalists. As Philip Mauro rightly says, God Himself made TWO great divisions to His Word of [6]LAW and CHRIST.



Dr. Philip Mauro makes this tremendous statement, with which I fully agree:

> "Dispensationalism may be fascinating as a work of art, but as a revelation it rests upon a foundation of sand. The entire system of dispensational teaching is modernistic in the strictest sense: it is modernism, moreover of a very pernicious sort, such that it must have a Bible of its own (i.e., the Scofield Reference Bible) for the propaganda of its peculiar doctrines since they are not in the Word of God."

The emphasis of the Bible is upon preaching the Gospel of the Kingdom of God, and not upon the future Kingdom of Israel (as Dispensationalism makes it).

And the idea that Peter, James and John preached a different gospel than Paul and Jesus is absurd. In Genesis 15:6, Abram (later renamed to Abraham) simply BELIEVED the Lord and it was counted to him for righteousness, without works. The Apostle Paul reiterates all this in Romans 4:1-7. Paul and Abraham were saved alike, by faith in Christ without works.

Some people foolishly say that Moses preached a different gospel which required works. But we read in [illegible] 2:4, "[illegible], [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

4.9.9 Dr. Mark G. Cambron Explains Bible Repentance (2023-09-12 11:19)

Here is an excellent and needful writing by [1]Dr. Mark G. Cambron (1911-2000) on the subject of REPENTANCE. Please read the following quote carefully, because Dr. Cambron is one of few theologian who gets it, that is, he understands the simplicity of the Gospel and that repentance does not mean turning from sin as proponents of Lordship Salvation foolishly teach...

> Repentance is necessary for salvation.
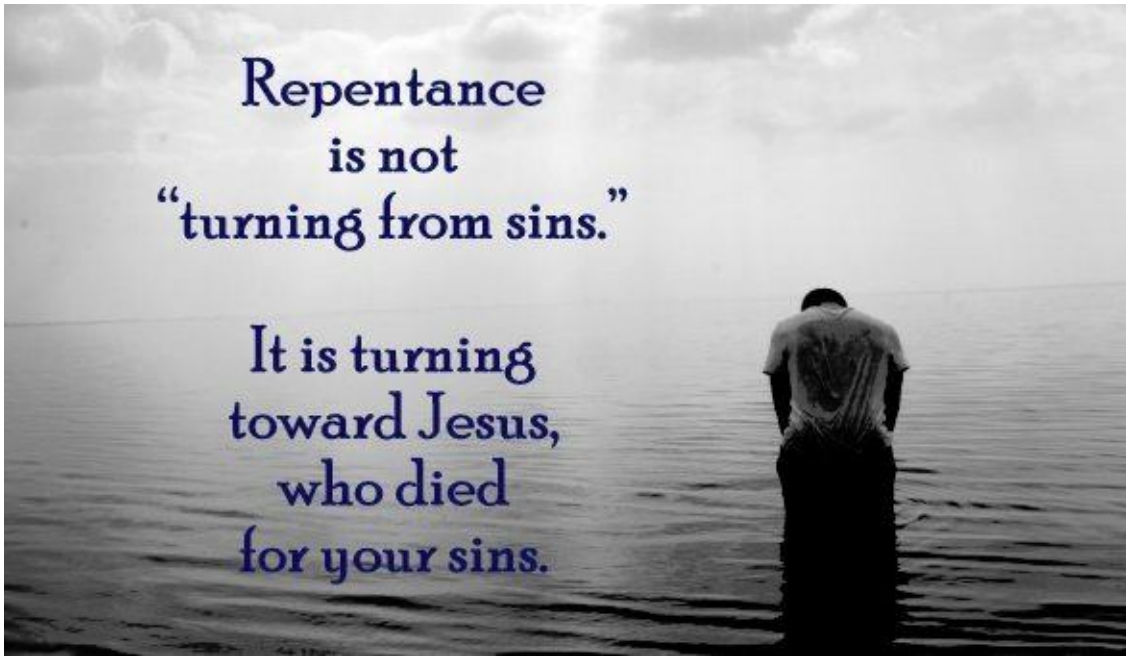
>
> The Greek word for repent is metanoeo, which, translated into English is: to change ones mind. It does not mean to turn from sin. That would add works to salvation.
>
> Repentance for salvation means a change of mind from men's ideas of salvation and religion, to an acceptance of Gods only way of salvation.
>
> This results in a completely new creation, not a reformation of the old. The old nature remains as evil as ever after salvation and has not been reformed . . . The old nature can now be controlled by the indwelling power of the Holy Spirit.
>
> God guarantees salvation. This is His gift to us.
> God guarantees reward and fruit to the obedient son.
> God guarantees chastening and loss of rewards to the disobedient son.
>
> God does not cast out disobedient children, but in some cases, does take them home. He does not permit His children to live as they please without His discipline and guidance.
>
> Many teach repentance for salvation incorrectly, by including some form of human effort or righteousness, such as willingness to turn from sin, or turning from sin. This is heresy and has confused many people. It adds works to salvation and causes many to not understand Gods great gift. It is probation, not salvation. It is completely unscriptural. It is Galatianism and a counterfeit of the gospel.
>
> It is a tragedy that many Christians live shallow Christian lives. The Cambron



Institute is dedicated to the task of training Christian men and women in the importance of total dedication and making Jesus the Lord of their lives not to be saved but because they are saved.

Shallow Christianity cannot be cured by adding works to salvation.

Salvation is not the result of what we do, but is by receiving what God has done for us. Acts 13:38, 39; Acts 20:20: Gal. 1:8,9; Gal. 2:4; Gal. 2:21; Gal. 3:1.3; Gal. 5:1-4; Eph. 2:8-10; II Cor. 5:21;John 3:16-18; Phil. 3:9; Titus 3:5-8:11 Cor. 11:13-1 5.

4.9.10 Except There Come A Falling Away First (2023-09-13 21:00)

2nd Thessalonians 2:1-10, "Now we beseech you, brethren, by the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and by our gathering together unto him, That ye be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter as from us, as that the day of Christ is at hand. Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition; Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God. Remember ye not, that, when I was yet with you, I told you these things? And now ye know what withholdeth that he might be revealed in his time. For the mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way. And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming: Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders, And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved."

What Does The Bible Mean: "Except There Come A Falling Away First"?

There is great controversy over the interpretation of this passage of Scripture in 2nd Thessalonians 2:3-4, "Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition; Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God."

Let's begin by reviewing a helpful quote from one of my favorite Bible scholars, Dr. John R. Rice (18950-1980), who states in his Bible commentary on Revelation:

> Note now the term "the day of Christ," the same as "the day of the Lord," when Christ sets up His Kingdom. It is not at hand until certain things occur (vs. 2).
>
> 1. First, there needs to be a "falling away," literally a departure, that is, as we understand it the rapture of the saints, the "gathering together unto him" of verse 1. The Greek word here is apostacio, so it is natural for people to think that it means a religious apostasy, a falling from grace. But it can hardly mean that. The word is sometimes used for departure, and "the day of the Lord" is the time of Christ's return to conquer and reign. It waits not on a religious apostasy but on the departure of the saints. The Man of Sin cannot appear until that time. (See the book by E. Schuyler English entitled [1]Re-thinking the Rapture.) Dr. Ironside and other scholars agreed that the falling away here means the departure of the saints.
>
> 2. Nothing here is preliminary to the rapture, but a regular schedule of events to follow the rapture. Since we are often warned to expect daily the rapture, the first phase of Christ's coming at any moment, "in the twinkling of an eye," there cannot be and are not any prophesied events to come before that rapture. So before the rise of Antichrist, before Daniel's seventieth week of years can begin, before the tribulation period, must come the rapture of the saints.
>
> 3. But then Someone "who now letteth" or restrains the course of history so that the Man of Sin cannot appear—who is He? That Restrainer is the Holy Spirit. His worldwide influence through born-again Christians makes it so the restored Roman empire cannot rise nor the Antichrist appear until Christians are taken out and and thus the influence through them of the Holy Spirit is removed from its restraining power on the wicked world.

How many men have tried to build a world empire after the decay of Rome, as such an empire! Charlemagne, the pope,

Now, I have tremendous respect and admiration for Dr. John R. Rice, but I humbly disagree with his interpretation of 2nd Thessalonians 2:3. It is my humble opinion that to say that this is the Rapture is reaching. I've read Dr. Rice say elsewhere that where the Bible is silent we should be silent. I agree with that statement. Also, Dr. Rice has said elsewhere that the best way to interpret the Bible is to let the Bible interpret itself. Again, I fully agree with that wisdom.

I would now like to quote some commentary from Halley's Bible Handbook, with which interpretation I agree:

II THESSALONIANS

Further Instruction About The Lord's Coming

Written, probably about A.D. 52, only a few weeks, or months, after the First Epistle. In that Paul had spoken of the Lord's Coming as being sudden and unexpected. In this he explains that it will not be until after the Apostasy.

Chapter 1, The Day of the Lord

The particular feature of the Lord's coming emphasized in this chapter is that it will be a day of terror for the disobedient. In 1 Thessalonians 4 Paul had said that He would descend from heaven, and, at the shout of the archangel, the Church would be caught up forever to be forever with the Lord.

Here he adds that the Lord will be accompanied with "the angels of his power in flaming fire" (7), rendering vengeance to the disobedient. Jesus had spoken of "eternal fire" (Matthew 25:41), and "unquenchable fire" (Mark 9:43). In Hebrews 10:27 "devouring fire" is connected with the day of judgment. In II Peter 3:7, 10 it is stated that the destiny of the earth is to be burned with "fire" (see note on the passage).

Chapter 2, The Apostasy

The express purpose of this Epistle was to caution the Thessalonians that the Lord's Coming was not immediately at hand; that it would not be until after the Apostasy.

What is the Apostasy? It is called the "falling away," in which a person called the "man of sin," in the temple of God professes himself to be God, and exalts himself against God (3, 4). A False Church headed by an Imposter.

The early fathers unanimously looked for a Personal Antichrist, to be manifested after the fall of the Roman Empire.

The Protestant Reformers, being directly in touch with the awful corruption of the Church of the Middle Ages, believed the Papacy, an institution headed up in person, usurping to itself authority that belongs only to Christ and being itself responsible for the prevailing corruption to have been a manifestation of the man of sin.

In our own times, after 2,000 years of church history, there is still wide difference of opinion. There are many who think it refers to a period immediately before the Lord's Coming.

The spirit of the thing was already at work in Paul's day (7). The story of the Church as a whole, even to this day, makes a sorry looking picture. Taking a broad general view of the visible Church, as it has existed from the first century to the present time, it is not inaccurate to call it an Apostate Church. What the final culmination is to be is yet to be seen.

"That which remains," (6), was general understood by the early father to have been the Roman Empire. Some take it to mean the Holy Spirit.

Paul's Ideas of the Second Coming. It is quite common among a certain class of critics to say that Paul "had to reconstruct his ideas about the Lord's Second Coming," that his "earlier and cruder view" contradicts his later view. This is absolutely not true. Paul's earlier view was his only view, first, last and always. The Thessalonian Epistles are his earliest extant writings. In them he specifically states that he did NOT expect the immediate appearance of the Lord, and that it would not be till after the Apostasy, which in his day was only beginning to work. It may not have been revealed to Paul what the Apostasy would be. But whatever his idea of it, it did not preclude the possibility that the Lord would come in his own lifetime, evidenced by the expression "we that are alive" (1 Thessalonians 4:15; 1 Corinthians 15:52). First and last Paul looked for the Lord's Coming as a glorious consummation, meanwhile anticipating the eventuality of, in death, "departing to be with Christ" (Philippians 1:23); it not being any great matter whether he was in the body or out of it at the time of the Coming. In his last written word (II Timothy 4:6, 8), at the time of his "departure," his mind was on the "appearing" of the Lord.

SOURCE: Dr. Henry H. Halley, Halley's Bible Handbook, pp. 629-630, 1927

There is nothing, in my own humble opinion, in 2nd Thessalonians 2:3 which indicates that this passage refers to the Rapture event, when the Church is taken out of the world. Let us review the Scripture passage in question:

2nd Thessalonians 2:3-4, "Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition; Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God."

To be frank, we simply don't know for certain what the phrase "a falling away" means. Some Bible students think the phrase refers to the Rapture. (By the way, I always capitalize the word Rapture because it refers to a proper noun, in this case an event.) Other Bible students think it refers to worldwide Apostasy. Search the internet for articles about "vanishing Christianity" and other similar searches, and you will find umpteen disturbing articles; [2]such as this one.

I also encourage you dear reader to [3]visit the Pre-trib.org website, which contains hundreds of helpful articles in defense of a Pretribulation Rapture.

Why Gen Z is Leaving Christianity

The Decline of Mainline Churches in America (2023)

Listen to what occultist Alice Bailey (1880-1949) said:
6084

"The new world religion is nearer than many think, and this is due to two things: first, the theological quarrels are mainly over non-essentials, and secondly, the younger generation is basically spiritual but quite uninterested in theology. The intelligent youth of all countries are rapidly repudiating orthodox theology, state ecclesiasticism and the control of the church. They are neither interested in man-made interpretations of truth nor in past quarrels between the major world religions.

At the same time, they are profoundly interested in the spiritual values and are earnestly seeking verification of their deep-seated unvoiced recognitions. They look to no bible or system of so-called inspired spiritual knowledge and revelation, but their eyes are on the undefined larger wholes in which they seek to merge and lose themselves, such as the state, an ideology, or humanity itself. In this expression of the spirit of self-abnegation may be seen the appearance of the deepest truth of all religion and the justification of the Christian message.

Christ, in His high place, cares not whether men accept the theological interpretations of scholars and churchmen, but He does care whether the keynote of His life of sacrifice and service is reproduced among men; it is immaterial to Him whether the emphasis laid upon the detail and the veracity of the Gospel story is recognised and accepted, for He is more interested that the search for truth and for subjective spiritual experience should persist; He knows that within each human heart is found that which responds instinctively to God, and that the hope of ultimate glory lies hid in the Christ-consciousness.

Therefore, in the new world order, spirituality will supersede theology; living experience will take the place of theological acceptances. The spiritual realities will emerge with increasing clarity and the form aspect will recede into the background; the new emerging truths. These truths will be founded on the ancient realities but will be adapted to modern need and will manifest progressively the revelation of the divine nature and quality. God is now known as Intelligence and Love. That the past has given us. He must be known as Will and Purpose, and that the future will reveal." [emphasis added]

SOURCE: Alice Bailey, [4]The Externalisation of the Hierarchy, pp. 201-202

Alice Bailey was inspired by a devil. I don't know if you caught it in the preceding quote, but Miss Bailey teaches that Jesus doesn't care if people accept or reject the Gospel, just so long as they have what she terms, "the Christ-consciousness"...

"Christ, in His high place, cares not whether men accept the theological interpretations of scholars and churchmen, but He does care whether the keynote of His life of sacrifice and service is reproduced among men; it is immaterial to Him whether the emphasis laid upon the detail and the veracity of the Gospel story is recognised and accepted, for He is more interested that the search for truth and for subjective spiritual experience should persist; He knows that within each human heart is found that which responds instinctively to God, and that the hope of ultimate glory lies hid in the Christ-consciousness." [emphasis added]

SOURCE: Alice Bailey, [5]The Externalisation of the Hierarchy, pp. 201-202

In other words, Alice Bailey is teaching people to reject everything that the Word of God teaches, except for Christ's life of sacrifice for others. In the shameful, satanic, world of Miss Bailey, Christianity is summed up and limited to living for others without being born-again. This is why we often hear new agers talking about Christ's love, helping others and forgiveness; but they reject Christ's preaching against sin (John 7:7), the need for the new second birth, His command to "SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES" (John 5:39) and the Lord's teachings on everlasting Hell, fire and damnation for the unsaved (Matthew 18:8; 25:41).

Effectively, new age retains the outer shell of Christianity, while hollowing out the interior and instead filling it with Luciferian doctrine. Or in other words, new age is repackaging Devil-worship in a Christian wrapper. The Bible warns us that this is how Satan normally operates...

> 2nd Corinthians 11:13-15, "For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ. And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works."

My Christian brethren and sisters, what I have just shared with you ought to complete some of the missing puzzle pieces to explain what is going on in the world today. I believe this worldwide departure from organized religion, into a personal form of spirituality without Bible theology is part of the Apostasy Paul mentioned in 2nd Thessalonians 2:3. Alice Bailey's plot to build a New World Order is premised upon drawing youth away from Christianity and preparing them to embrace the Man of Sin (the Antichrist) when he comes.

Again, I humbly agree with Dr. Henry H. Halley that the intriguing phrase in 2nd Thessalonians 2:3b, "a falling away," doesn't refer to the Rapture; but rather, to a literal Apostasy in the end times. We are certainly seeing this in the world today. This Apostasy, I humbly think, simply refers to the world departing from faith in the God of the Holy Bible, to follow after what Commander William Guy Carr (1895-1959) termed it: a '[6]Godless Global Totalitarian Communist Police State.' To accomplish this sinister plot, otherwise known as a New World Order (NWO), Satan knows that he must corrupt the inspired Word of God, to remove it from people's lives. Amos 8:11,

" Behold, the days come, saith the Lord GOD, that I will send a famine in the land, not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the LORD:"

It was mentioned in the news this week that NWO kingpin, World Economic Forum (WEF) chairman, [7]Klaus Schwab is calling for a new Bible revision that will correct the religions. Klaus wants the Bible "rewritten" by artificial intelligence (AI) to create a globalized "new Bible." Yuval Noah Harari, the senior advisor to the WEF and its chairman Klaus Schwab, argues that using AI to replace scriptures will create unified "religions that are actually correct." Good luck with that... lol. Dear reader, the Devil is a liar and the father of all murders, liars and thieves!!!

With [8]approximately 900 English Bible versions today (either in part or whole), this is Apostasy. With the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation being preached in 85 % of Baptist churches today, this is Apostasy. With youth worldwide leaving from the churches, this is Apostasy. The world as a whole is headed for something dark and sinister and evil, the coming of Antichrist, also known as, the “Man of Sin” (2nd Thessalonians 2:3).

Many Lost Sinners Will Be Saved During The 7-Year Tribulation

Many people will be saved during the 7-year Tribulation period. They will be saved by faith alone in Christ, just as lost sinners have always been. Some false teachers like Robert Breaker on YouTube, and the late Dr. Peter S. Ruckman (1921-2016) errantly teach that Old Testament saints, and those after the Rapture during the 7-year Tribulation, get saved by keeping God’s commandments (i.e., the law). These false prophets (Robert Breaker and Ruckman, and William P. Grady sadly) teach that Old Testament and Tribulation saints get saved by faith plus works. But nothing could be further from the truth. Acts 10:43, "To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins." This Scripture passage plainly teaches that people have always been saved by faith without works.

I humbly believe that the 144,000 saints mentioned in the book of Revelation will be born-again believers, who will be Jews, and they will preach the Gospel throughout the world. Many people will be saved, likely tens of millions. I highly recommend reading some free online books by Pastor Max D. Younce...

These are tremendous Bible study books.

Also, here is the helpful book: "[13]SOME GOLDEN DAYBREAK" by Pastor Lee Roberson (1909-2007).

All saints, dead first, then the living, will be removed from the earth at the Rapture (1st Corinthians 15:51-58), which could happen at any time. I believe that the Bible teaches a Pretribulation Rapture, that is, the Church will be removed BEFORE the 7-year Tribulation happens. After the Tribulation, millions of people around the world will wonder what has happened. They will be confused, because MOST professed "Christians" will still be on earth, so how could this have been the Rapture? The Mormons, Jehovah’s Witnesses, Roman Catholics, Seventh-Day Adventists, Church of Christ, Lordship Salvationist Baptists and Lutherans (to name but a few cults today) will still be here on earth. They won't get raptured because they are not saved, and never were at all. So very FEW people will be taken at the Rapture.

The inspired Word of God will still be here on earth after the Rapture. Many people will read the Bible, and hear sermons left behind by fundamentalist Bible, free grace Gospel, preachers (e.g., Pastors' Ralph Yankee Arnold, Jack F. Hyles, Harry A. Ironside and Steven L. Anderson), which lost sinners will listen to and be saved. So, yes, many sinners (likely tens of millions) will be saved during the Tribulation, and many of them will be brutally martyred for their Christian faith. At present, in 2023 we just surpassed the 8,000,000,000 population mark for the planet. That number could increase much higher before Christ returns, but we don't know for sure if this is true, since Jesus could come back at any moment. Even so, come, Lord Jesus!!!

4.9.11 The New American Standard Bible (NASB) Exposed (2023-09-15 14:49)

Is this the Word of God?

by [1]Evangelist David B. Loughran (1931-2000)

1. INTRODUCTION

In (Part 2) of the Stewarton Bible School's booklet Bible Versions... Which is the Real Word of God? I listed 80+ Bible texts from the King James Version; texts which had been corrupted in the Revised Version. I then invited readers to compare those texts with the modern translations they were using, mainly because most modern translations are based on the same corrupt Greek text used to underlie the Revised Version.

Some readers overlooked that introductory paragraph with its reference to the REVISED VERSION, and when they found that certain verses in their modern version were not different from the King James Bible, they concluded that the 'proof texts' listed in the booklet were no proof at all. Their oversight has prompted me to prepare this article which deals exclusively with the New American Standard Bible (NASB). God willing I will prepare similar articles dealing exclusively with other modern translations.

Meanwhile you are invited, as in the first article, to compare any modern version with the following texts; because most of them are also influenced by the same corrupt manuscripts [2](Codex Sinaiticus and [3]Codex Vaticanus) which underlie the NASB being examined here. You owe it to yourself and family to check out these verses because it is dangerous folly to persist in error once it has been brought to your attention.

2. EVERY WORD OF GOD

To begin with let no one forget the fact that EVERY WORD in the Holy Bible is vitally important. So important is this fact that the following warnings are given by the Almighty God concerning His Word.

> Deuteronomy 4:2, "Ye shall not add unto the word which I command you, neither shall ye diminish ought from it, that ye may keep the commandments of the LORD your God which I command you."
>
> Revelation 22:18, "For I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book, If any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book: And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book."

It is absolutely impossible for me to over emphasize the gravity of the above warning. Let all who read it - beware!

3. CORRUPT MANUSCRIPTS
